Det Miller, from the Friday, September 13, 2013 hearing in my mom's estate case, my recollection from my best Pro Se understanding,

1. Judge denied my emergency as an emergency but heard my arguments.
2. Judge told Spallina and Tescher (who was absent), my brother Ted and their counsel Mark Manceri, after hearing that my father closed the estate when he was dead and they failed to notify court he was dead and perpetrated a fraud on the judge and court that he "should read them their Miranda rights right now" or words to that effect. He said this twice during their attempt to con the judge (Colin's) on how my father could sign and notarize documents while dead. He might have later excluded their counsel Mark Manceri from the Miranda warning but I could not hear that part well.
3. That they said they had new Waivers that were signed by "all" the other parties except me (I said I am sure they had one for my father too) to cure the problems and prior waivers, the judge said at the end "if they were not forged." Not sure what exactly he meant, I will try to get a transcript soon and forward to you. I think the judge might see already as most do that the documents appear forged and are not the same documents with just a fraudulent notary affixed to them but are wholly recreated documents with forged signatures and fraudulent notarization.
4. They offered to give the Waivers to the judge twice, twice he refused, even to look at them and told them if they wanted to file it go downstairs.
5. The judge I believe re-opened my mother's estate and ordered an Evidentiary Hearing soon, I could not hear the date that was scheduled but I will send you the order.

Do your offices go to evidentiary hearings or is it again by subpoena and is this the time I would subpoena you or the office to come to the hearing?

Have a good weekend, Eliot
