From my understanding, she only confessed to fraudulently notarizing the document by affixing a false notary and claimed the documents were identical otherwise. As noted by the judge in the hearing transcript I sent you, it is a major difference if the signatures were forged, which they appear to be and now we have all other siblings stated theirs were forged too. These documents are critical to the other crimes alleged and now according to the judge it is important to know if they were forged. Did she confess forgery to you, as she did not yet to the Governor's office? In Court the attorneys lied to the judge and stated that the signatures on the original document were the same as those of the one she fraudulently notarized. Further, in Court it was learned that in opposite her story, that it was a one off mistake, there were other documents that the attorneys had tendered to the Court after my father was dead as if he was alive and other documents including a WILL and AMENDED TRUST that are also improperly notarized and may have been signed post mortem. These are new and serious crimes including fraud on a court and more and where the admissions are obvious in the transcripts and the judge tells them stop, I should read you all your Miranda's, to Ted, Spallina, Tescher and Mark Manceri I think he had enough evidence to arrest them at that moment. These are now new crimes that have evolved from this new evidence and this combines with the Moran crimes admitted to already to enable a series of further frauds and crimes to take place. I think it is important that all of this information be tendered to whoever is reviewing the case. Do you have a name and contact at the State's Attorney I can call. I would also like to file new complaints based on what was learned in Court for it was learned also that my brother Ted has handled a number of transactions while not the Personal Representative or Trustee for the estate as he was claiming when signing transaction papers including FL and Fed tax forms, titles to property and more, as in the hearing the Judge stated no successors or personal representative were chosen after my father died, due to the fact that my father, Simon, closed the estate while dead, as if he were alive. So no new Letters of Admin were granted to anyone due to the fraud on the court and all transactions appear to now be fraudulent. How should I proceed with filing new complaints for all of these new crimes, including those admitted to in Court and getting this information to the State's attorney as new additional and damning evidence before they make any decisions without the new information? Eliot

From you. I just wanted to make sure you knew that I filed the case. I dont think the docs are necessary. She confessed to what she did. It is up to thr SAO from here on. They will reach out to you if needed.

Thanks

Should I contact someone at the State's Attorney Office and send them the materials? I am unclear as to who you did not receive a response from? eb

Mr. Bernstein,

Thank you for the documents. You did receive my e-mail regarding the fact that my case is complete and filed with the State Attorney's Office, right? Just wondering, I never received a response that I can remember.

Det. Miller

Hi Det. Miller ~ I am not sure if you saw these court filed affidavits by my siblings but in it they swear under oath the following, "6. It is my understanding that the subsequently filed Waivers were not personally signed by me or the other heirs." This appears a statement from each other child that Kimberly Moran not only affixed a notary stamp but forged their names on the documents resubmitted to the court. I attached the full waivers herein, please forward this to anyone else now reviewing. Thanks and have a great weekend! Eliot
