Dear Mr. Bernstein:

The New York State Commission of Investigation ("the Commission") acknowledges receipt of your July 23, 2007 letter, which was received via e-mail, concerning an alleged theft by your attorney.

The Commission has reviewed your letter and determined that no further Commission action is warranted.

Thank you for contacting the Commission.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Bernstein:

I have reviewed the letter and materials you sent to the Commission via e-mail on August 16, 2007 and have concluded that there is no reason to change the Commission's prior determination that no action by this agency is warranted in regard to this matter.

Very truly yours,
