Re: Complaint of Iviewit Holdings, Inc. Against Thomas J. Cahill, Esq. Special Inquiry Special Inquiry #2004.1122

Dear Mr. Reardon:

I am in receipt of your response attached herein for your convenience. Moreover, your response, totally void of any going forward proceedings, no timeline, or any possible future deposition date, is totally unacceptable, given this attorney discipline complaint that has been ongoing for more than four (4) years.

Furthermore, with respect to your time, and, lately, very busy schedule, I will, briefly, give you the benefit of the doubt. Still further, should I not receive a detailed response with respect to Special Inquiry #2004.1122 within five (5) business days as to, inter alia: (i) the precise status of the complaint; (ii) the inquiries made over the past four (4) years; and (iii) time line to arrive at a disposition of this complaint, the conclusion I will reach, on behalf of Iviewit, is that you are not performing your job as the Chairman of the Appellate Division First Department Departmental Disciplinary Committee according to the rules of the Court.

Should I reach such a conclusion, I will research the propriety of filing an attorney discipline complaint against you personally, and will copy ever partner at Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP as to such a complaint.

Lastly, the eyes of the legal and political world, State and Federal, are upon these matters, and notwithstanding what pressures, it is up to you, Mr. Reardon, as Chairman of the Appellate Division First Department Departmental Disciplinary Committee to move this matter forward according to the Rules of the Court.

Please respond to this facsimile within five (5) business days, and I copy Mr. Gold despite his standing as a defendant – appellee in the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit case of 08-4873-cv.

Very truly yours,

IVIEWIT HOLDINGS, INC.
