Dear Ms. Tupper:

I am writing you in response to your letter dated July 23, 2013 regarding the two complaints filed by Mr. Eliot Bernstein against me regarding the waivers and consents that were signed by his father, Simon Bernstein, himself and his siblings in connection with the estate of his mother, Shirley Bernstein. As the complaints are similar my response will address both complaints.

To begin, I want you to know that I made a terrible mistake and had a momentary lapse in judgment. I am an honest and good person and I did something here that I deeply regret, have never done before and will never do again. I have brought it to my bosses' attention and they are going to take the appropriate actions to remedy this with the court.

Initially, I mailed in all of the original signed waivers and consents to the Court that were signed by the Bernstein family members, and copies of those documents were returned to me with a request for notarization. These documents have never required acknowledgment, but I assumed they now needed to be notarized as per the notice. Shortly before I received the notice, Simon Bernstein also passed away and now his five children were mourning the death of both of their parents. Looking back on it, I guess I was trying to help them as they had previously signed the documents anyway and I never even thought about what I did until I received the letter from you. The week before, I had a depo provera shot and it affected me in many ways for several months following, including clouding my judgment, causing confusion and mood changes. I am so very sorry.

Attached you will see my office's original communication with Simon Bernstein dated April 4, 2012, regarding the closing of his wife's probate estate and the need to sign the waivers and consents and to have his five children sign each of theirs as well. After receiving Mr. Bernstein's signed waiver and consent (and the other documents that he had to sign) and not receiving any from his children, we contacted Mr. Bernstein's office to follow up regarding his children's waivers and consents and we were instructed by Mr. Bernstein to send the waivers and consents directly to each of his five children for signature. I have included the correspondence to each of them all dated May 10, 2012.

Shortly after our May 10, 2012 letters were sent to each of the five Bernstein children, I received back from Eliot Bernstein an email dated May 17, 2012, a copy of which is attached. As you can see from his email, he attached a copy of the signed waiver and consent to the email and closes the email with confirmation that he will send the original by mail which I received shortly thereafter (see highlighted portions and attachment).

On August 1, 2012, I sent follow-up emails to each of the other Bernstein children who had not returned the waivers and consents and I have included those emails as well and their responses from those who replied by email and attached their signed waivers and consents. These documents were signed by all of them and the new documents that were sent to the court were identical to the documents that they previously signed.

Again, I had a major lapse in judgment, I made a mistake and I accept responsibility for my actions. I have been a notary since 2004, and in all these years I have never done this before and I promise I will never make this mistake again. I have been sick about the whole thing and deeply regret what I did. I am the primary bread winner in my family with two young children and my ability to earn a living as a legal assistant could be greatly impaired if you suspend my notary commission or more. I respectfully request that you consider my prior clean record in your review of these complaints and any disciplinary action that may be taken.

Please feel free to contact me directly at the number above with any questions.

Respectfully,

As I mentioned in the phone call, I have not seen any of the underlying estate documents or my mother's will at this point, yet I sign this document after our family call so that my father can be released of his duties as Personal Representative and put whatever matters that were causing him stress to rest. For my trustees I would like the following individuals in the following order to be trustees:

3. Andrew & Donna Dietz

Please send copies of all estate documents to Caroline and Michele and if my dad would like them to keep the information private and confidential, including from me, until some later point in time, you can arrange that with them directly with my approval granted herein. Please also reply to this email to confirm receipt, a hard copy of my signed document will be sent via mail.

Thank you for your efforts on behalf of my family ~ Eliot
