Re: Representation by Huth & Pratt

Mr. Bernstein,

This letter is written as a follow up to the hearing on the Motion to Withdraw, which took place this morning. We are officially terminating our representation of you in any and all capacities, including as natural guardian over your minor children and as trustee of any trusts established for the benefit of your minor children. I enclosed a copy of the Order Granting Motion to Withdraw and the Order from the hearing that took place on October 28, 2013. I strongly encourage you to find a new attorney to represent you immediately. There are deadlines that may exist, and you may be precluded from asserting a particular position if you do not meet a deadline. We thank you for giving us the opportunity to represent you, and I wish you the best of luck as you move forward in this matter.

Sincerely,

Brandan J. Pratt, Esq.
