IV. INSTRUCTIONS

1. Unless otherwise specified, the time period covered by this Request to Produce ("Request") is the period from January 1, 2004 to and through the date of your response to this Request.

2. Unless otherwise specified, the documents covered by this Request are limited to those that were prepared, sent, received, dated or in effect at any time during the period from January

1, 2004 to and through the date of your response to this Request.

3. For each document for which objection to copying is made, be prepared to file a Privilege Log with Court setting forth:

- (a) The name and title of the author;
- (b) The name and title of each person to whom the document was addressed;
- (c) The names and titles of those to whom copies of the document were sent;
- (d) The date;
- (e) The number of pages;
- (f) A brief description of the subject matter;
- (g) The nature of the claimed privilege;
- (h) The paragraph to which the document is otherwise responsive; and
- (i) The exact location where the original and each copy were kept as of the date of receipt of this Request.

V. DEFINITION OF TERMS

1. A communication or document "relating" to any given subject means any communication or document that constitutes, contains, embodies, reflects, identifies, states, refers to, or is in any way pertinent to that subject, including, without limitation, documents concerning the preparation of other documents.

2. The word "document(s)" shall mean any written or graphic matter or other means of preserving thought or expression, and all tangible things from which information can be processed or transcribed, including the original and all non-identical copies, whether different from the original by reason of any notation made on such copy or otherwise, including, but not limited to, correspondence, memoranda, notes, messages, letters, telegrams, teletype, telefax bulletins, e-mails, meetings, or other communications, interoffice and intra-office telephone calls, diaries, chronological data, minutes, books, reports, charts, ledgers, invoices, worksheets, receipts, returns, computer printouts, prospectuses, financial statements, schedules, affidavits, contracts, cancelled checks, transcripts, statistics, surveys, magazine or newspaper articles, releases (and any and all drafts, alterations and modifications, changes and amendments of any of the foregoing), graphs or oral records or representations of any kind, including without limitation, photographs, charts, graphs, microfiche, microfilm, videotape, recordings, motion pictures and electronic, mechanical or electric records or representations of any kind (including without limitations, tapes, cassettes, discs and recordings).

VI. DESTROYED DOCUMENTS

If any documents responsive to this Request were at one time in existence, but have been lost or destroyed, a list should be provided of the documents so lost or destroyed, stating the following information for each such document: (a) the type of document; (b) the date on which it ceased to exist and circumstances of its loss or destruction; (c) the identify of all persons having knowledge of the circumstances of its loss or destruction; and (d) the identify of all persons having knowledge of its contents.

VII. MANNER OF PRODUCTION

Pursuant to Rule 1.350, you shall produce the original documents in the form, order and manner in which they are maintained in your files or other persons under your control. In this connection, and for the purposes of illustration, documents are to be produced in the file folders and file cartons in which they have been maintained or stored, clipped, stapled, or otherwise arranged in the same form and manner as they were found. In the alternative, you shall segregate all documents according to the specifications of this Request, and shall organize and label each group of documents with the appropriate specification prior to production. If any document is responsive to more than one specification of this Request, it should be labeled to reflect each specification to which it is responsive.
