Re: Estates and Trusts of Shirley Bernstein and Simon Bernstein

Dear Eliot:

I enjoyed meeting with you and Candice today to discuss your parent's estates and trusts. You have asked me to represent you with regard to these matters. The following will set forth our fee agreement.

Invoices for legal services will be billed at the hourly rates of the attorneys who perform services for you. My hourly rate will be charged at $545 per hour. Hourly rates are subject to annual review and adjustment.

In addition to fees for services, you will be responsible for out-of-pocket disbursements which may be incurred, including, but not limited to, fees for court reporters, deposition transcripts, filing fees, travel expenses and costs for reproduction of documents. Invoices for fees and costs are billed monthly and are due and payable on receipt.

It is our policy to request a retainer for cases of this nature. In that regard, we would require a retainer of $10,000 to begin work in this matter.

It is possible upon conclusion of litigation in this matter that your fees might be recoverable from the estates or trusts or other beneficiaries. However, we cannot know at this time if any fees might be recovered, and the possibility that fees might be recovered does not relieve you of the obligation to pay our fees on a current basis.

You may terminate the representation at any time by so advising us. We reserve the right to withdraw from the representation at any time by providing notice to you. To the extent we have appeared in Court on your behalf, any termination or withdrawal of our representation will likely require approval by the Court.

If this fee agreement is acceptable, please countersign the enclosed copy of this letter and return it to me with the retainer check. Please also email me copies of all documents that you have in this matter, or if it is more convenient, please provide me with a flash drive with the documents.

I look forward to working with you on this matter.

Sincerely,
