Eliot-

I have attached the jewelry appraisal and photos that T&S provided (I think you already have the appraisal as it was attached to your e-mail below). According to T&S the jewelry listed on the appraisal was delivered to us, and what they delivered to us is now in my law firm's safe deposit box.

Have you compared it to American Home Assurance Co. 8/10/09 Declarations Page so that you can specifically identify what items you believe were never inventoried in Shirley's Estate (and thus not transferred to Simon's Estate)?

Thank you,

Ben Brown, Curator

Subject: Estate of Simon Jewelry Theft

Ben ~ Attached is a criminal complaint I have made and the corresponding incidence report for Jewelry that is missing from the Estate of Simon that should have been inventoried under Shirley and then transferred to Simon's estate but instead was stolen off with. The reports should clarify. It also looks like Ted may have fenced some of the bigger jewels when he had the items appraised as indicated in the reports. How would you like to proceed on the Estate's behalf in marshalling back the stolen jewels? Eliot
