→ Pam - My office is processing the claim as your father was the owner of the policy and the proceeds will likely be paid to the estate in the absence of finding the trust. As I mentioned previously there was a discussion with the carrier about possibly using the 2000 trust (the one you are carved out of but would be split 5 ways according to Ted) but I'm not sure that we will achieve that result. 11:00 on Tuesday your time is my lunch hour. I am out of the office all day and will reach out to you on Monday as my calendar is fairly packed next week and a status call will have to be later in the day sometime next week. Have a nice weekend.

I don't think any of us are thinking that you have taken too long. We realize what is causing delay.

Regarding where proceeds are paid, we cannot put them in jeopardy. It appears unwise to us to pay them to any receptacle connected to your firm. It is tempting fate. It impossible to predict all the things Eliot could allege so it seems prudent to separate them completely. We don't see any downside to directing them to an account unrelated to your firm.

It's probably a good idea to arrange a call with you and the 4 of us, Monday or Tuesday?

Theo- if Robert already has the 'form' approved by the carrier to file with the courts then why don't we just direct the proceeds to a lawyer outside of Roberts firm to avoid co-mingling. If Robert has not gotten this form, should we hire another attorney either in fla or illinois to get this done immediately. It has been nearly 6 months and there is too much at stake. What are your thoughts?

I think this a point very well taken. We should not do anything that would have a remote chance of placing the life insurance proceeds in jeopardy. I have not received any kind of invoice from Robert's firm relating to the insurance policy or their work as estate reps. I am not sure what the billing procedure is and I agree that we should ask Robert to explain how they work so there are no misunderstandings.

I do think we should move as soon as possible at this point. There is no reason to delay this process and we should be pressing to get into court and get the document needed to pay those proceeds.

Theo- I've been thinking that maybe we should use another firm on Dad's life insurance proceeds as it seems Robert may have a difficult time with Eliot and other lawsuits in the mix getting this done. Maybe if we remove it entirely from the firm and separate it, it will be less likely to get caught up in what we see is happening. I think it was said that the insurance company is waiting for a court order and Robert is working on a draft to get pre-approved from the carrier first. Then Robert would file it in palm beach and then have the proceeds paid to his trust account. Again having the funds at that firm where they are executors of some of the estates makes me nervous as the money will be at the same firm as "creditors " and trouble makers having nothing to do with the proceeds.

Also, please get a bill from Robert up to this point - he had said he wasn't charging for the insurance stuff earlier but we should know where we stand at this point. Unless you having been paying his bills all along in your course of managing this nightmare, I think we need to know.

Talk to you soon,

I don't share your concern as everyone will be signing a release as is typical when a distribution is made.

Robert,

We do not know what the 1995 trust says but are concerned about repercussions to us and the trustee if the insurance policy is distributed equally among the children and eventually the trust is found and it states the policy should be split among 4 of the 5 children or something similar.

What are your thoughts

Thank you

Lisa
