Dear Mrs. Bernstein,

I have shared your email with the School Committee responsible for determining continued enrollment for students with financial issues such as yours. The Committee has decided that the outstanding balance from last year has to be paid in full by August 8th so that then re enrollment contracts can issued. When the re enrollment contracts are issued only plan A, B, or C can be chosen and the signed contract with applicable payment per the contract plan will need to be received by the Business Office by August 15th.

Hopefully you will be able to abide by these terms, so that the children will be able to return to Saint Andrew's for the upcoming academic year.

Sincerely,

Kathy Van Valkenburg

Hello Kathy,

I apologize for the delay in responding to you pursuant to our last conversation. We have been preparing for two mini-trial upcoming court hearings and have exhausted every moment in preparation. The first hearing is July 11 and will continue on July 16. We are hopeful that after these hearings and motions being heard pertaining to the release of funds for Joshua, Jake and Danny's tuition's, I will be able to provide you with the exact date you will be receiving the funds necessary for the boys to enroll for next year. I can't thank you and the admissions department enough for your patience while our family gets through this difficult time. As I have mentioned on the phone, our family has suffered from criminal wrongdoings on behalf of the executors and trustees that have been administering the probate and estate cases for my husband's parents that has affected the education trust funds set aside for our children. Unfortunately the court process has been slow, however all is going in the right direction thanks from the help of the Palm Beach County Sheriffs financial crimes division that has been handling these matters. There are substantial funds available and already set aside for tuition it is just a matter of the courts processes to finally receive the relief requested. Saint Andrews School is our top priority being brought forward to the judge this week and next and please know there is nothing more important to our family than to see Joshua graduate this year with his friends and peers and from his beloved school that our family has proudly dedicated the last six years to be a part of and to continue future years to come. Thank you again for your kindness and support and please know how truly appreciative our family is. I will keep you posted.

Warmest regards,

Candice Bernstein
