Subject: RE: Deposition Date
Attachments: 20140703 Oppenheimer v Bernsteins Motion for Extension of Time COURT ECF COPY.pdf

Alan, after your client Theodore's unsuccessful bid for PR of Simon's Estate for good and just causes, again, I urge you to save everyone time and monies and have your client voluntarily withdraw in a fiduciary capacity from any alleged capacities he has in both the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley as he is not now qualified to act in any fiduciary capacity for conflicts of interests, the fact that he is under ongoing investigations, he has adverse interests, in some instances he is precluded from acting in capacities he has allegedly assumed by the documents he is operating under and more. In regards to the deposition, as you can see from my Motion in the now related Oppenheimer case attached herein filed last week and now before Judge Colin, I have planned dental and oral procedures that will require medications that have already started for the next several weeks and part of the reason I withdrew my Petition for Construction and Removal of Ted on July 11, 2014 and cancelled the rollover hearing date of July 16, 2014. That hearing to remove Ted first is now postponed as well with Judge Colin's blessing while I also seek to retain counsel as noted in the hearing. My counsel would most likely attend any future deposition as well. Until these medical and legal things are first resolved I cannot take a deposition at this time. The dental issues will most likely be resolved in early to mid-August and I should also have counsel determined to be going forward or not after their review of these matters.
