- PROCEEDINGS
- 2
- BE IT REMEMBERED that the following
- 4 proceedings were had in the above-styled and
- 5 numbered cause in the South Palm Beach County
- 6 Courthouse, City of Delray Beach, County of Palm
- 7 Beach, in the State of Florida, by Lisa Mudrick,
- 8 RPR, FPR, before the Honorable MARTIN COLIN, Judge
- 9 in the above-named Court, on August 19, 2014, to
- 10 wit:
- 11
- THE COURT: This is Bernstein. Please, 12
- 13 because we have a lot of parties and lawyers,
- 14 make your appearances. Start left to right, my
- 15 left to right. Go ahead.
- MR. PANKAUSKI: Good morning, Your Honor.
- John Pankauski on behalf of Ted Bernstein. 17
- MR. ROSE: Alan Rose on behalf of Ted 18
- 19 Bernstein.
- 20 MR. MORRISSEY: John Morrissey here on
- 21 behalf of four adult grandchildren.
- MR. O'CONNELL: Brian O'Connell, personal 22
- 23 representative of the estate of Simon
- 25 MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Eliot Bernstein, pro

- 1 absence your assistant.
- THE COURT: Okay.
- MR. FEAMAN: I tried to get some hearing 3
- 4 times. Counsel could not agree as to the
- length of time necessary, so I had to file a
- motion to come before you to get it special
- THE COURT: All right. Let me see the
- 9 motion that you want set. I don't know why,
- but I thought there was maybe Eliot filed.
- Didn't you file also a petition to remove?
- MR. FEAMAN: He did, Your Honor, yes.
- THE COURT: And you don't have a hearing 13
- 14 date on that?
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Well, I was going to
- join Peter.
- THE COURT: No, no. But I hadn't 17
- previously given you a hearing date?
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Oh, no. Yeah, we
- were scheduled and then we were scheduled for
- spillover but we delayed it. I am trying to
- 22 get counsel.
- 23 THE COURT: Okay. Now I remember. Okay.
- 24 There was some discussion about not going
- 25 forward because you wanted some additional time

10:09:28-10:10:03 Page 6 10:11:08-10:11:49 Page 8

- 1 to get counsel. What happened with that?
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: You don't want to
- 3 know.
- 4 THE COURT: Okay.
- 5 MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: But it hasn't
- 6 matured into counsel.
- 7 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Okay.
- 8 So --
- 9 MR. FEAMAN: We also thought that delaying
- 10 it would be --
- THE COURT: The creditor and Eliot have
- 12 companion petitions to remove Ted, correct?
- 13 MR. FEAMAN: Correct.
- THE COURT: All right. Is that the
- 15 status?
- 16 MR. PANKAUSKI: That is the status, Your
- 17 Honor.
- THE COURT: Okay. So what's the issue
- 19 then, a hearing date or how long or what's?
- 20 MR. PANKAUSKI: No. We oppose
- 21 Mr. Feaman's client, who is a creditor of the
- 22 estate, from trying to remove a trustee in
- 23 probate court.
- THE COURT: Okay. All right. Let me deal
- 25 with Eliot's first because Eliot's was set

- 1 creditor, Mr. Stansbury, he doesn't have
- 2 standing to remove a trustee -- to remove Ted
- 3 as trustee.
- 4 THE COURT: Okay. You agree, depending
- 5 upon where it's filed, that Eliot does have
  - 6 standing?
- 7 MR. PANKAUSKI: Eliot has standing to seek
- 8 Ted's removal, yes.
- 9 THE COURT: Okay.
- 10 MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: And, Your Honor, I
- 11 put in a motion to respond to their contempt
- 12 nonsense and --
- THE COURT: I didn't get the last thing
- 14 you said.
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: I put in a motion to
- 16 respond to their contempt motion they put in
- 17 here today.
- THE COURT: I didn't see that.
- 19 MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Okay. In that
- 20 motion in case Mr. Feaman somehow isn't, you
- 21 know, allowed to argue, the law says that you
- 22 on your own initiative based on review of a
- 23 trustee's conduct can under I think it's
- 24 736.0201, blah, blah, is able to make
- 25 that decision on your own. And right now we

10:10:12-10:10:57 Page 7 10:11:59-10:13:40 Page 9

- 1 earlier but we delayed that, correct?
- 2 MR. PANKAUSKI: Yes, Your Honor.
- 3 THE COURT: Okay. So his matter needs to
- 4 get set.
- 5 MR. PANKAUSKI: Well --
- 6 THE COURT: Or not.
- 7 MR. PANKAUSKI: Yes, Your Honor.
- 8 THE COURT: Okay.
- 9 MR. PANKAUSKI: If Eliot wants to be heard
- 10 on it, that's correct. I mean, we would argue
- 11 that he has to file a complaint under 736.0201.
- 12 We don't have jurisdiction. And the trust code
- 13 is pretty clear, he needs to go file a separate
- 14 civil action
- THE COURT: Okay. I haven't looked at his
- 16 pleadings, and I don't know where they are. So
- 17 these, both Eliot's and the creditor's
- 18 petitions are set in the probate case, correct?
- 19 MR. PANKAUSKI: Yes, Your Honor.
- THE COURT: So is the issue whether a
- 21 petition to remove a trustee can take place in
- 22 the estate case or needs to be filed by
- 23 separate action in civil court?
- MR. PANKAUSKI: That is one of the issues.
- 25 And regarding Mr. Feaman's client, the

- 1 have got evidence that assets are missing that
- 2 they told you --
- THE COURT: Hold on. This is UMC time. I
- 4 don't want to start getting into that. I am
- 5 trying to get you hearing times now, so.
- 6 MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Okay. I am sorry.
- 7 THE COURT: So let me deal with that
- 8 first. Okay. So the first question is it's
- 9 not so much a hearing time on Mr. Feaman's
- 10 client but whether -- it's actually a request
- 11 to dismiss his petition, correct?
- MR. PANKAUSKI: Yes, Your Honor.
- THE COURT: For lack of standing?
- MR. PANKAUSKI: Yes, Your Honor.
- THE COURT: Have you filed any pleading
- 16 directed to that?
- 17 MR. PANKAUSKI: Yes, Your Honor.
- THE COURT: Okay. Can I see it?
- MR. PANKAUSKI: Yes. May I approach?
- THE COURT: Sure.
- 21 MR. PANKAUSKI: So this is trustee's
- 22 motion to dismiss petition to remove Ted S.
- 23 Bernstein as trustee. Thank you.
- THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Feaman, I will let
- 25 you be heard on the standing issue.

10:13:47-10:15:18 Page 10 | 10:16:52-10:17:50 Page 12

- 1 MR. FEAMAN: Thank you.
- 2 Our motion, Your Honor, that we filed
- 3 addresses the -- may I sit, Your Honor?
- 4 THE COURT: Yes, sure.
- 5 MR. FEAMAN: Our motion addresses the
- 6 issue of standing right up front beginning at
- 7 the top of page two. And I can summarize that
- 8 for you orally or allow you a minute to glance9 at it.
- 10 THE COURT: Okay, go ahead.
- 11 MR. FEAMAN: Thank you, Your Honor.
- So we begin, Your Honor, with Florida
- 13 Statute 736.0706 which says that the settlor, a
- 14 co-trustee, or a beneficiary may request the
- 15 court to remove a trustee.
- So then the question is what is the code
- 17 definition of a beneficiary? For that, Your
- 18 Honor, we turn to Florida Statute 736.0103 sub
- 19 4 where beneficiary is defined. There, Your
- 20 Honor, beneficiary is defined very broadly as,
- 21 quote, a person who has a present or future
- 22 beneficial interest in a trust, vested or
- 22 Deficial filterest in a trust, ves
- 23 contingent.
- Now, in this particular probate estate,
- 25 Your Honor, Mr. Stansbury is a creditor of the

- 1 insufficient to pay them.
- 2 Therefore, Your Honor, if we assume that
- 3 Mr. Stansbury's interest admittedly and one in
- 4 the future because his claim has not been
- 5 litigated, and admittedly contingent
- 6 nonetheless, the trust assets may be called
- 7 upon to satisfy Mr. Stansbury's claim against
- 8 the estate. And that trust falls within the
- 9 definition of 733.707.
- 10 Therefore, Mr. Stansbury would have
- 11 standing because of how beneficiary is defined
- 12 as any person who has a future beneficial
- 13 interest in a trust, vested or contingent.
- Mr. Stansbury falls into that broad
- 15 definition. And because you look at the
- 16 inventory of the Simon Bernstein Estate, it
- 17 only has a million dollars, his claim on its
- 18 face is 2.5 million. Then Mr. Stansbury could
- 19 very well need those trust assets to satisfy
- 20 his claim. Or, more accurately, the personal
- 21 representative may have to go to the trust.
- Mr. Stansbury has a direct interest in
- 23 preserving the assets of the trust. Therefore,
- 24 if we have information to think that those
- 25 assets are being wasted by the present

10:15:35-10:16:36 Page 11 10:18:06-10:18:55 Page 13

- 1 Simon Bernstein Estate to the extent of in
- 2 excess of $2.5 million dollars, which was given
- 3 in a proffer when we had our mediation in the
- 4 underlying case. The assets of the Simon
- 5 Bernstein trust are a little over one million
- 6 dollars at this time.
- 7 So because the assets of the -- estate I
- 8 mean. Because the assets of the Simon
- 9 Bernstein Estate are facially insufficient to
- 10 meet the claim of Mr. Stansbury, what happens
- 11 then?
- For that we turn to Florida Statute
- 13 733.7073, which is also on page two of our
- 14 motion, which states, quote -- and this deals
- 15 with the payment of claims and the order of
- 16 claims in an estate.
- And it states, Any portion of a trust with
- 18 respect to which a decedent who is the
- 19 grantor -- and that's this case; Mr. Bernstein
- 20 was the grantor of this revocable lifetime
- 21 trust -- the grantor has at the decedent's
- 22 death a right of revocation, which we have; is
- 23 liable for the expenses of the administration
- 24 and obligations of the decedent's estate to the
- 25 extent that the decedent's estate is

- 1 successor trustee of the trust, that is Mr. Ted
- 2 Bernstein, then we have sought to remove him so
- 3 that those assets of the trust of which
- 4 Mr. Stansbury may claim some day are protected.
- 5 THE COURT: Okay. What do you say?
- 6 MR. PANKAUSKI: Absolutely not, Your
- 7 Honor. First of all, Mr. Feaman is trying to
- 8 tell you that his client, who is a claimant,
- 9 not a creditor, his claim has not been
- Lo established, is a beneficiary whose interest is
- 11 a future interest or vested. And Mr. Feaman's
- 12 claimant client is not vested. He is not a
- 13 beneficiary. He is a claimant. We know the
- 14 difference between a beneficiary and someone
- 15 making a claim against the estate of Simon
- 16 Bernstein.
- 17 The personal representative is an
- 18 interested person in the trust, right?
- 19 Mr. O'Connell can go to Ted, the trustee, and
- 20 say, hey, I need to do things or I want to seek
- 21 your removal. But a claimant is not an
- 22 interested person in the trust.
- Mr. Feaman's client is neither a settlor.
- 24 a beneficiary, or a named trustee of the Simon
- 25 Bernstein trust.

10:19:07-10:20:03 Page 14 | 10:22:04-10:22:55 Page 16

- THE COURT: Okay. So my question is is
- 2 there any case law on whether a claimant in an
- 3 estate can be deemed to be a beneficiary under
- 4 736?
- 5 MR. PANKAUSKI: None.
- MR. FEAMAN: We could not find any, Your
- 7 Honor. So we are relying upon -- if I may hand
- 8 Your Honor the statute?
- THE COURT: Okay. Thanks.
- 10 MR. FEAMAN: You are welcome.
- THE COURT: Right. That's what you quoted
- 12 in your motion?
- MR. FEAMAN: Yes. The statutory
- 14 definition of beneficiary, and it's clear the
- 15 statute says a beneficiary has standing, the
- 16 statutory definition of a beneficiary is very
- 17 broad and states that a person who has a future
- 18 beneficial interest, vested or contingent. And
- 19 therefore, Your Honor, we respectfully strongly
- 20 suggest that Mr. Stansbury clearly has standing
- 21 to seek the relief that he has requested.
- THE COURT: So if I have to go to 733.707,
- 23 let me take a look at that for a second again.
- MR. FEAMAN: It's this one, Your Honor.
- THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thanks.

- 1 first in the probate court, get a judgment, or
- 2 have a claim satisfied by the estate. Then he
- 3 turns to Mr. O'Connell and says, Mr. O'Connell,
- 4 please satisfy my judgment. If Mr. O'Connell
- 5 doesn't have sufficient funds, he then turns to
- 6 Ted Bernstein and says, Mr. Bernstein, please
- 7 give me money from your dad's.
- THE COURT: But pending that process the
- 9 claimant, who is Mr. Feaman's client, says, I
- 10 want to remove Ted. And the key seems to be
- 11 does he occupy, as he is making that request
- 12 now, the position of being a beneficiary?
- MR. PANKAUSKI: No, because he neither has
- 14 a present interest to the trust, he is not
- 15 vested, and he doesn't have a future interest
- 16 to the trust. If he were vested this would be
- 17 a different story. But the Simon Bernstein
- 18 trust --
- THE COURT: Well, he says he has an
- 20 interest in a future interest in the trust if
- 21 the estate is insufficient to meet his claim,
- 22 and his claim becomes ripe, it's determined
- 23 there's insufficient funds. Then he says
- 24 he's -- you know, he would then take action
- 25 against the trust or go to the PR to invade the

10:20:54-10:21:50 Page 15 10:23:07-10:24:06 Page 17

- 1 Well, 733.707 speaks a little differently
- 2 than, Mr. Feaman, than I think the way you are
- 3 interpreting it. That to me says if there's a
- 4 trust, which there is here, where the decedent
- 5 is also the grantor, which is the case here,
- 6 and there's a right of revocation, which is the
- 7 case here, then the trust could be liable for
- 8 expenses of administration and obligations of
- 9 the estate. The trust could be.
- 10 MR. FEAMAN: Correct.
- THE COURT: But that doesn't -- that's not
- 12 a definitional section that indicates that how
- 13 a claimant of an estate could be deemed to be a
- 14 beneficiary. I am not getting that leap.
- MR. FEAMAN: Sure. This --
- THE COURT: I mean, because what I am
- 17 getting at is 733.707 says what it says. So
- 18 someone could look to a trust to pay for
- 19 obligations of an estate based upon what that
- 20 statute says.
- You agree with that, Mr. Pankauski?
- MR. PANKAUSKI: Yes, Your Honor. 733.707
- 23 sets out the order of payments and the process.
- THE COURT: Right.
- MR. PANKAUSKI: Mr. Feaman has to win

- 1 trust.
- 2 MR. PANKAUSKI: Exactly. He's got to go
- 3 to the PR. And his interest is not vested.
- 4 The Simon Bernstein trust says nothing about
- 5 Mr. Feaman's clients. And he is trying to
- 6 convince you that a claimant in an estate is a
- 7 beneficiary of Mr. Bernstein's trust.
- 8 THE COURT: Hold on. Let me finish
- 9 reading something else.
- MR. PANKAUSKI: And there's no case law on
- 11 that.
- 12 MR. FEAMAN: Your Honor, counsel keeps
- 13 using the word vested. That's not the only
- 14 thing it says under the definition of
- 15 beneficiary.
- THE COURT: No, it says vested or
- 17 contingent.
- 18 MR. FEAMAN: Or contingent. And if
- 19 Mr. Stansbury has reason to believe that the
- 20 assets of the trust are being wasted, he should
- 21 have the right.
- THE COURT: But the question is at this
- 23 stage as a claimant --
- MR. FEAMAN: Why should he have to wait
- 25 until his claim is finally liquidated after

10:24:17-10:25:04 Page 18 | 10:26:34-10:27:23 Page 20

- 1 trial, then the estate is insufficient in terms
- 2 of the trust?
- 3 THE COURT: Because that may be what the
- 4 legislature intended.
- 5 MR. FEAMAN: And now the trust is bare.
- 6 And then Mr. Stansbury, who maybe had a chance
- 7 to save what assets were there back when his
- 8 claim was future and contingent, now he gets to
- 9 the point where it's present and vested, and
- 10 now because of the intervening timeframe the
- 11 assets have been dissipated.
- THE COURT: So let me ask you. 736.0103,
- 13 the definitional section of beneficiary,
- 14 there's no cases that speak about when a
- 15 claimant can be deemed a beneficiary?
- MR. FEAMAN: Not that we could find.
- 17 THE COURT: And you didn't find any 18 either?
- 19 MR. PANKAUSKI: No, because it doesn't
- 20 exist in the history of jurisprudence for
- 21 trusts. A claimant is not a trust beneficiary.
- 22 He may be a creditor of the estate.
- MR. FEAMAN: Claimant is a potential
- 24 beneficiary of the trust in a situation unique
- 25 like this where the trust assets may be called

- 1 could have been the opportunity?
- THE COURT: Well, wouldn't others who have
- 3 standing, such as either Mr. O'Connell or
- 4 Eliot, be able to deal with that issue?
- 5 Because they clearly have standing.
- MR. FEAMAN: Yes. Mr. Stansbury would
- 7 like to deal with it too because he has a
- 8 potential claim on that trust.
- 9 THE COURT: I am just not sure though that
- 10 under the statutory scheme where he is right
- 11 now as claimant puts him in a position to be
- 12 deemed a beneficiary.
- All right. Let me think about it. You
- 14 know, I mean, I haven't seen this before. And
- 15 do you have a proposed order?
- 16 MR. FEAMAN: I do.
- 17 THE COURT: Thanks. If either side has a
- 18 proposed order I will take a look at it.
- 19 MR. PANKAUSKI: It's just blank, Your
- 20 Honor.
- MR. FEAMAN: That's all we have.
- THE COURT: Blank with envelopes is great.
- 23 So I will rule on this.
- And then what else do we have to do now
- 25 that you are here?

10:25:13-10:26:19 Page 19 10:27:33-10:28:04 Page 21

- 1 upon to satisfy my client's claim.
- MR. PANKAUSKI: That's not a beneficiary.
- 3 That's a claimant.
- 4 THE COURT: That's the difference I think
- 5 I have to figure out.
- 6 Mr. Feaman, when your client moves,
- 7 assuming this is what happens, from claimant to
- 8 creditor, he then gets a class of -- he becomes
- 9 a numbered class of creditors order of -- then
- 10 I deal with 733.707 and determine how to pay
- 11 him from what's left. And then if there's
- 12 insufficient assets then the trust could be
- 13 looked at as a source.
- 14 MR. FEAMAN: Correct.
- THE COURT: But the trust can be liable
- 16 for obligations of the estate once I find what
- 17 those obligations are. But right now I don't
- 18 know what those obligations are. And the fact
- 19 that your client is a creditor doesn't put him
- 20 yet into a position where I could order his
- 21 claim to be paid because it hasn't been
- 22 determined yet.
- MR. FEAMAN: And what happens,
- 24 respectfully, Your Honor, if when that time
- 25 comes the trust cupboard is bare when there

- 1 MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: I have got an
- 2 interim distribution that I put in before
- 3 anything he is about to say that depends on my
- 4 kids being in school tomorrow that he has
- 5 delayed and fakaktad around here long enough.
- 6 So before he gets into the whole Eliot is
- 7 contemptuous --
- 8 THE COURT: Well, I just want to be able
- 9 to know if I need to set hearings on things,
- 10 that's why. This is UMC. I can't have
- 11 evidentiary hearings.
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: This is -- they are
- 13 asking for your decision to allow my children
- 14 to go to school today which they are in school
- 15 but will be out tomorrow because of --
- THE COURT: Who is asking for that?
- 17 MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: They are, meaning he
- 18 said he is coming to the court to -- I have got
- 19 a letter here. He is coming to the court to
- 20 ask for --
- THE COURT: What's going on, Mr. Rose?
- MR. ROSE: Two different things. You want
- 23 to deal with this children in school?
- THE COURT: Yes.
- 25 MR. ROSE: Okay.

10:28:15-10:28:41 Page 22 | 10:29:28-10:30:17 Page 24

- 1 THE COURT: I mean, I don't know anything.
- 2 MR. ROSE: That's fine.
- THE COURT: This is UMC.
- 4 MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Can I deal with it
- 5 first?
- 6 THE COURT: But see, I am not -- I am just
- 7 -- remember, at UMC I don't deal with
- 8 children's school issues because how could I --
- 9 I don't even have any pleadings dealing with
- 10 this.
- 11 MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: You do. I filed
- 12 them.
- THE COURT: Yeah, but I mean, are they set
- 14 for hearing for today?
- 15 MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: I thought so. I put
- 16 it in for a hearing today.
- THE COURT: Do you have a notice for
- 18 hearing?
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: I did. I filed one.
- 20 MR. PANKAUSKI: He filed it yesterday.
- 21 MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: No. Interim
- 22 distributions was filed last week. Yesterday I
- 23 filed for the motion -- my response to his
- 24 contempt nonsense.
- THE COURT: All right. Okay. So there's

- 1 MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Can I take the
- 2 first?
- THE COURT: Right now it's Eliot says
- 4 there's pending this petition for interim
- 5 distribution --
- 6 MR. ROSE: Okay.
- THE COURT: -- from the estate. Okay.
- 8 All right. So direct it to that.
- MR. ROSE: Okay. So Mr. Eliot Bernstein
- 10 has made a request for an interim distribution
- 11 from something to pay for the private school
- 12 tuition of his three children.
- THE COURT: Okay.
- MR. ROSE: He made that request probably
- 15 the very end of July. And I, as Ted's counsel,
- 16 offered to discuss it with him so we could
- 17 figure out where we were.
- THE COURT: And Ted's role in the estate
- 19 is what?
- 20 MR. ROSE: If I could?
- THE COURT: You represent Ted?
- MR. ROSE: But not in this estate. That's
- 23 what I am trying to explain to you.
- THE COURT: Go ahead.
- MR. ROSE: There's two different sides.

10:28:53-10:29:21 Page 23 10:30:29-10:30:57 Page 25

- 1 a motion for interim distribution. Okay. And
- 2 there's a notice of hearing was filed yesterday
- 3 for today?
- 4 MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: No. No. It was
- 5 filed last week for the interim.
- THE COURT: For today?
- 7 MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: I filed one
- 8 yesterday for the response to his contempt
- 9 stuff he wanted to hear today.
- 10 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Put the
- 11 contempt stuff aside. Let's deal with the
- 12 interim distribution issue.
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Okay. Thank you,
- 14 sir.
- THE COURT: Okay. Is that something I can
- 16 do at UMC?
- 17 MR. ROSE: I don't know if I can answer
- 18 that question directly. Can I just tell you
- 19 briefly where we are?
- 20 THE COURT: All right.
- MR. ROSE: It might help you.
- THE COURT: Go ahead.
- MR. ROSE: I don't know which proceeding
- 24 we are in, but --
- 25 THE COURT: Okay.

- 1 There's a Simon side and a Shirley side. On
- 2 the Simon side I don't believe you can do
- 3 anything because there's a creditor's claim.
- 4 The creditor has just told you within the last
- 5 five minutes that his claim exceeds the value
- 6 of all the assets in the estate.
- 7 THE COURT: Okay.
- 8 MR. ROSE: So I don't think you could make
- 9 an interim distribution over the creditor's
- 10 objection.
- 11 THE COURT: All right.
  - 2 MR. ROSE: So that takes the Simon side
- 13 out of it, which tells me that I am going to
- 14 suggest to you that we would need to be in the
- Shirley proceeding to discuss that.
- THE COURT: Stop for one second.
- So, Mr. O'Connell, you are the PR in the
- 18 Simon estate?
- 19 MR. O'CONNELL: Yes, sir.
- THE COURT: Okay. All right. He would be
- 21 the person --
- MR. O'CONNELL: I asked him.
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: He did ask me, Your
- 24 Honor.
- 25 THE COURT: Okay. That would deal with

Estate of Simon Bernstein

- 1 that subject. Okay.
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Here's the problem. 2
- THE COURT: Okay. 3
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: He is an alleged
- 5 trustee of the most documentated (sic) -- he
- 6 can't be, Ted. That's something we have
- 7 been --
- THE COURT: I am talking about 8
- 9 Mr. O'Connell.
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: No, no. I know. So 10
- 11 I made a petition to the trustee, a request
- 12 under the welfare distributions that they are
- required to pay. It's not even discretionary.
- THE COURT: So is your request in the 14
- 15 estate or in the trust?
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Both. 16
- THE COURT: Both? 17
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Both Simon and 18
- 19 Shirley. I made it everywhere I could because
- 20 the future of my kids depends on it.
- THE COURT: All right. 21
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: And he is playing 22
- more games. 23
- THE COURT: Okay. All right. But stop. 24
- 25 Remember, folks. Okay. Here's my question to

- 1 asking?
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: I want them to get
- -- well, I want you to approve it but not under
- their term.
- THE COURT: Oh, okay. 5
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: I have got an order 6
- 7 for --
- THE COURT: But remember, if there's a 8
- dispute I have to hear --
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: But they are not
- 11 disputing.
- 12 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead,
- 13 Mr. Rose.
- MR. ROSE: If he would let me speak. If I
- 15 could speak?
- THE COURT: Let him tell me what's going 16
- 17 on.
- MR. ROSE: Right. Okay. First of all, 18
- this man is essentially trying to -- no one has
- any ill will towards him or his children. You
- have to understand that. We don't. He will
- take whatever happens and it will be on the
- internet tomorrow, and he is trashing --
- THE COURT: Let's go past that. 24
- 25 MR. ROSE: But it's important to

Page 27

Page 29

- 1 everybody. I will let the lawyers answer this
- 2 because they know the rules.
- Is this something that I can do at UMC? 3
- MR. PANKAUSKI: No, Your Honor. 4
- THE COURT: I mean, UMC has certain rules
- 6 that allows oral argument on filed motions. I
- 7 can't take testimony. I can't swear anyone in.
- 8 I can't take figures. I can't make
- 9 determinations.
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: They are asking 10
- 11 simply for your approval to allow Ted to make a
- 12 distribution that he says he is willing to make
- 13 as long as you approve it. I don't know
- 14 what -- they've delayed it to day of school,
- 15 the filing these contempt and reconstruct trust
- 16 to fake crimes. It's crazy; I know. But we
- 17 are now in a situation where Mr. Rose has said
- 18 he was coming here today, and I have his
- 19 letter, to basically get you to approve Ted who
- 20 is obligated to make these payments, approve
- 21 it. That's all we need.
- THE COURT: And you want that? 22
- 23 MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Yeah, I want him to
- 24 approve the payment.
- THE COURT: So you want what they are 25

- 1 understand. We have boxes. Okay? We live in
- 2 two boxes. There's a Simon box and a Shirley
- 3 box.
- THE COURT: Okay. 4
- MR. ROSE: I am trying to explain to you 5
- 6 that in the Simon box Ted as trustee cannot do
- anything because Mr. Stansbury won't allow
- because he has just told you there's two and a
- 9 half million dollars. That's box number one.
- 10 So what I am saying to you is, regardless of
- what he wants to do --
- THE COURT: That's the Simon trust you are 12
- 13 talking about?
- MR. ROSE: Well, Ted is not the PR of the
- Simon estate. To the extent there's money in
- the Simon trust he cannot obviously pay out any
- money. Mr. Stansbury has just told you he is
- concerned with what happens in the Simon trust.
- So I am saying to you as an officer of the
- court there's nothing we can do in the Simon
- 21 box. And I want to end that. And then we can
- 22 talk about the Shirley box because I have no
- 23 interest in his children not going to school,
- 24 nor does my client.
- THE COURT: Well, tell me about the 25

Estate of Simon Bernstein

- 1 Shirley trust then.
- MR. ROSE: We have to finish the Simon
- 3 box, and I don't think -- unless his client
- 4 said to you, I consent to the money coming out
- 5 of any of the trust or the estate, there's
- 6 nothing we can do in the Simon box. We should
- 7 finish it.
- THE COURT: Switch to the Shirley.
- MR. ROSE: Okay. In the Shirley trust.
- 10 Ted is by name in the document the successor
- 11 trustee. He is by name in the document the
- 12 successor personal representative of the estate
- 13 of Shirley Bernstein.
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: No. 14
- THE COURT: Go ahead. 15
- MR. ROSE: We are going to switch now and 16
- 17 we are now going to be in the Shirley case. I
- am not sure what's pending. There is the
- Shirley estate in which there's no assets in
- the estate because while he was alive it all
- went to Mr. Simon Bernstein. 21
- In the Shirley trust we have initiated an
- 23 action. There's now an action pending to
- 24 construe the trust. It has nothing directly to
- 25 do with why we are here today. But there's a

- THE COURT: Eliot? 1
- MR. ROSE: Eliot contends that he might be

Page 33

- 3 an individual beneficiary of the Shirley
- Bernstein trust. The way the documents appear
- to be drafted, Simon Bernstein had a power of
- appointment to appoint the assets in the
- Shirley Bernstein trust, and he appointed it to
- his ten grandchildren. Over a year ago, before
- I was involved, the trustee made an interim
- distribution to the ten beneficiaries. Eliot
- refused that money. Now he is saying, I want
- to make -- I want you to make a distribution to
- St. Andrews School. We don't care. We are
- fine to make that with a couple caveats.
- Number one, Mr. Bernstein, who wants the 15
- money, is challenging whether -- who the
- beneficiaries are. Number two, there may be
- questions whether if his children are the
- beneficiaries and not him, I don't want
- Mr. Bernstein to be sued by his children. And
- he has filed an indigency paper indicating he
- has absolutely no money, no job, no income, no
- this, no that. His children go to a very
- expensive school paid by his father while he
- 25 was alive.

- 1 pending action now. And there's a request to
- 2 Ted Bernstein to make an interim distribution.
- THE COURT: Out of Shirley's trust? 3
- MR. ROSE: Out of Shirley's trust. 4
- THE COURT: And that is done by Eliot? 5
- MR. ROSE: He has made a request. We
- 7 offered -- Ted has made an interim distribution
- 8 to every beneficiary. Eliot refused the
- 9 interim distribution to him last year. I think
- 10 there were hearings before I was involved in
- 11 the case where Your Honor addressed that with
- 12 Eliot. I mean, there was an interim
- 13 distribution to each of the beneficiaries, and
- 14 Eliot refuses to take.
- Now he is coming in and says, I need 15
- 16 something different. I need money for my
- children's tuition. I have no interest in
- doing anything but figure out what we can do.
- That's why I tried to have a discussion with
- 20 him about the issue.
- In the Shirley trust side we have a 21
- 22 problem because there's a dispute mostly
- 23 between Mr. Bernstein and the trust and the
- 24 beneficiaries as to who are the beneficiaries.
- 25 Mr. Bernstein contends that he --

- I don't care about paying the school. I
- don't want Mr. Ted Bernstein to be sued if he
- 3 makes the distribution and now you have a
- 4 dispute.
- So what I did is I e-mailed the
- beneficiaries and asked if anybody had an
- objection, if anyone had an objection to the
- trustee making an emergency interim
- humanitarian distribution to Eliot Bernstein or
- his -- well, it's really money for his children
- for school. I also asked that he sign a --
- 12 THE COURT: And the response was what?
- 13 MR. ROSE: Well, the response was -- one
- 14 of them is here. I have not received any
- objections. But Eliot Bernstein has objected.
- You know, we asked that he sign the same type
- of a receipt and clawback agreement that
- everyone else did. And we would need some
- protection for Ted that he can never be sued
- for making this interim distribution. 20
- Mr. Pankauski would raise the question of 21
- whether -- of the jurisdiction to do this where
- we are here now and -- but I didn't wait for
- the last minute. I had that immediate
- 25 conference call with Mr. Bernstein.

Estate of Simon Bernstein

- THE COURT: Okay.
- MR. ROSE: Your Honor was on vacation last 2
- 3 week. I think today is the first day we can be
- 4 here.
- His children are not pawns. They are not
- 6 people that are being used for anything. We
- 7 are here where we are.
- If there's a way to resolve it that
- 9 satisfies the Court's concerns, and
- 10 particularly you'd have to order Ted to do
- 11 this, and I think you'd have to enjoin anyone
- 12 from suing him ever for making this
- 13 distribution and give him protection. Because,
- 14 you know, he is an officer. He is a fiduciary
- 15 in this trust. I don't have a problem. If the
- 16 payment needs to be done tomorrow, that's not
- 17 my creating. We could have done this in May,
- 18 June or July.
- THE COURT: Okay. Slow down a second. 19
- 20 Here's the thing. Let me get to the bottom
- 21 line here.
- MR. ROSE: Right. 22
- THE COURT: As I have always said at prior 23
- 24 times we have been here, this is UMC.
- 25 MR. ROSE: I understand.

- 1 his whole thing there?
- THE COURT: All right. But I asked him a
- question. Let him answer it.
- 4 MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Okay.
- THE COURT: Go ahead. 5
- MR. ROSE: I provided him -- everyone 6
- 7 that's got the interim distribution signed a
- receipt and return agreement that if Your Honor
- ordered the money to be returned it would be
- returned. 10
- 11 THE COURT: Okay.
- MR. ROSE: In this case the money would be 12
- spent directly to a school. It would never be
- 14 coming back. So we would need protection that
- 15 if it's determined that Eliot was the
- beneficiary, that he would agree that this
- counts against his distribution.
- THE COURT: Okay. I understand all. I
- understand everything you have said. 19
- MR. ROSE: I have given him the papers he 20
- would need to sign --21
- 22 THE COURT: Okay.
- MR. ROSE: -- and review and the order 23
- that Your Honor would want to sign. 24
- THE COURT: Okay. 25

Page 37

- THE COURT: So there are rules. Those
- 2 rules are going to be followed. And I
- 3 announced last time they are going to be
- 4 strictly followed. Okay.
- So in light of that, if you folks can
- 6 reach an agreement to deal with this issue and
- 7 can give me an agreed order this morning, I
- 8 will consider it. But that requires an
- 9 agreement. Okay? So that's step one.
- Step two is absent that, whatever request 10
- 11 is made in this, like all other areas, you file
- 12 a pleading. And if I have to take evidence,
- 13 you set it for an evidentiary hearing. If I
- 14 can do it by five minute oral argument, you set
- 15 it for UMC. If you need more than five minutes
- 16 in oral argument, you specially set it. And
- 17 that's the way it goes.
- So do you want to take a few moments and 18
- 19 talk to Eliot and anyone else you have to talk
- 20 to to see if you can reach an agreed order on
- 21 this while we are here this morning?
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: May I just say 22
- 23 something on the record?
- THE COURT: Okay. 24
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Since he has done 25

- MR. ROSE: And I think he's going to say
- 2 he won't do it because he doesn't negotiate
- 3 with terrorists and whatever else he --
- THE COURT: Don't speak for him.
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Your Honor? 5
- 6 THE COURT: Now, listen, this is final
- 7 word.
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Got it. 8
- 9 THE COURT: This is UMC. You are way over
- your time limit.
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: I totally get it,
- 12 and I am sorry for that.
- THE COURT: All right. Go ahead. 13
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: For this whole mess. 14
- 15 But I just like to set the record straight.
- 16 THE COURT: Well, I don't want you to. I
- want you to deal with this issue. 17
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Okay. What he just 18
- said, I want to set that straight. 19
- They want me to take a distribution to 20
- what they know are knowingly wrong
- beneficiaries that were achieved through a
- 23 fraudulent document scheme, and that's been
- 24 admitted to.
- THE COURT: No. Slow down. Slow down. 25

Estate of Simon Bernstein

- 1 See, that's not what they've asked.
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: No, that's what they
- 3 are asking he just said.
- THE COURT: No, that's not what he said.
- 5 I heard what he said.
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: He wants me to take
- 7 interim distributions like everybody else.
- THE COURT: No. Here's what he said.
- 9 Money is going to go from the trust to you
- 10 and/or your children.
- 11 MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Right.
- 12 THE COURT: Okay? It's money passing.
- 13 Okay. When you get the money, you would, one,
- 14 sign a receipt. Okay? That means you get it.
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: That's okay. I am 15
- 16 not -- it's a waiver. It's got all kinds of --
- THE COURT: Well, I don't know what else 17
- is in there. 18
- (Overspeaking) 19
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: It's participating 20
- 21 in fraud. We went through this September '13
- 22 and you wouldn't approve it back then because
- 23 you weren't going to approve me participating
- 24 in a fraud.
- 25 THE COURT: All right. But,

- 1 you. All right? This is a dignified process.
- 2 You keep it that way. Okay? Everyone else is

Page 41

- 3 participating fine. You can have disputes, but
- we deal with them in a civilized manner in the
- courtroom. Okay? Everyone is civil and
- professional here as they speak. That's the
- rule. Okay.
- You can go out and speak. If you can 8
- 9 reach an agreement, fine. If not, set it.
- Fine. Okay? And I will rule on this.
- 11 MR. FEAMAN: Thank you. I have an order.
- 12 THE COURT: Thanks.
- MR. FEAMAN: There's an order that grants 13
- 14 and a separate order that denies.
- THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. And I will 15
- 16 take a look at it.
- MR. FEAMAN: With envelopes. 17
- THE COURT: All right. 18
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: And I have an order 19
- 20 if you would like to look at for the payments
- you would have to sign.
- THE COURT: I am only going to do an 22
- agreed order for UMC purposes. 23
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Okay. 24
- 25 THE COURT: I can't do anything that's not

Page 39

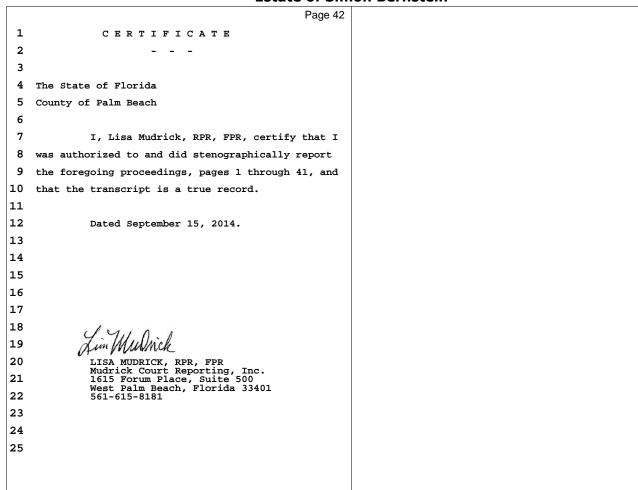

- 1 Mr. Bernstein, I can't --
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: That's what he is 3 asking me to do for the third time. Okay. Use
- 4 my kids as hostages for school --
- THE COURT: I have asked you not to do
- 6 that. I will instruct you one more time. I
- 7 don't want that type of talk in my courtroom.
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: What type?
- 9 THE COURT: Hostage, children. Listen to
- 10 me carefully.
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Okay. 11
- THE COURT: Stop. Okay? 12
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Yes. 13
- THE COURT: You are pushing the wrong 14
- 15 buttons.
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Okay. 16
- THE COURT: Okay? If you push this button 17
- 18 again it's going to be adverse to you. I have
- 19 asked you not to do that stuff.
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Okay. 20
- THE COURT: You know, this is a dignified 21
- 22 process. Mr. Bernstein, you cut that out right
- 23 now.
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Okay. 24
- THE COURT: All right? I am talking to 25

- 1 agreed to. Show them the order. Maybe you
- 2 guys can work out the form. You got to try to
- 3 get past some of these barriers to get to the
- 4 bottom line.
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: I am not going to 5
- participate in fraud.
- THE COURT: All right. No one --
- MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: That's what they are 8
- 9 asking me to do.
- THE COURT: Okay. 10
- MR. PANKAUSKI: Are you going to sign the 11
- 12 release?
- THE COURT: All right. Go outside and 13
- 14 talk. If you can work on this, fine. And
- while I'm in another hearing you can bring in
- an agreed order.
- MR. ROSE: We had other matters. We will 17
- 18 reset them.
- 19 THE COURT: Yes.
- MR. ROSE: That's fine, Your Honor. We'll 20
- reset them. 21
- THE COURT: Thanks. 22
