B. Basis for Federal Jurisdiction

This Court has jurisdiction over this matter in that it is a civil action wherein the parties are all citizens of different states and the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000.00. 28 U.S.C. §1332(a).

C. Nature of the Claims Asserted

This matter involves a dispute over the proper disposition of proceeds of a life insurance policy (the "Policy") insuring the life of Simon L. Bernstein, who passed away in September of 2012. A claim for the insurance policy death benefit was filed by the Estate Counsel and Co-Personal Representative/Executor Robert Spallina, Esq. who acted as an alleged Trustee of an alleged Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust Dtd. 6/21/95." (the "1995 Trust"). This trust is alleged to be the Contingent Beneficiary of the policy and the Primary Beneficiary is LaSalle National Trust, NA who is alleged by the carrier to be the beneficiary. The death benefit claim of Spallina's was DENIED by the carrier as Spallina was unable to prove a beneficial interest or produce a legally binding executed trust.

That Spallina and his legal partner Mr. Donald Tescher, Esq. have resigned and been removed by the Probate Court in Florida and their law firm has been found to have committed fraud on the probate court of Judge Martin Colin, forged documents POST MORTEM for Simon Bernstein, used Simon Bernstein POST MORTEM to close his wife's estate, which was reopened and fraudulently notarized and forged documents for six parties, in efforts to convert benefits to alleged improper parties. The following Estate and Trust cases for Simon and Shirley Bernstein are ongoing.

- i. Case # 502012CP004391XXXXSB – Simon Bernstein Estate
- ii. Case # 502011CP000653XXXXSB – Shirley Bernstein Estate
- iii. Case # 502014CP002815XXXXSB – Oppenheimer v. Bernstein Minor Children
- iv. Case # 502014CP003698XXXXSB – Shirley Trust Construction
- v. Case # 502014CA014637XXXXMB – Eliot Bernstein v. Trustee Simon Trust

After the claim was denied Mr. Bernstein's death, four out of five of Mr. Bernstein's his adult children filed a Complaint in the Circuit Court of Cook County, with Ted Bernstein now acting as Trustee for the lost trust claiming a right to the proceeds of the Policy as alleged beneficiaries under a trust they describe as the “Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust Dtd. 6/21/95.”

(the “1995 Trust”). Because (i) no executed original or executed copy of the 1995 Trust could be located the claim was denied. The lawsuit was then filed as a breach of contract and Heritage Union notified Eliot Bernstein, and (ii) Eliot Bernstein, the fifth adult child of Simon Bernstein who was excluded without notice by his siblings from their lawsuit, that he was a third party

~~defendant in the matter by suing him as such. , filed a letter asserting a competing claim, the Defendant insurance company,~~ Heritage Union Life Insurance Company (WAS THIS JACKSON NATIONAL?), as successor to Capitol Bankers Life Insurance Company (the issuer of the Policy), removed the case to this Court on June 26, 2013, filed an Interpleader action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1335(a) in conjunction with its Answer to Plaintiff's Complaint. Heritage Union Life Insurance Company then deposited the alleged Policy (no legally executed Policy has been produced to this Court or any party by the Plaintiffs or the Insurance Carrier and further discovery is necessary) proceeds with the Registry of the Court and has since been dismissed from the suit. The Estate of Simon Bernstein, through its Curator (and later, Personal Representative), filed a Motion to Intervene and Complaint for Declaratory Judgment in June 2014; the Estate's Motion to Intervene was granted on July 28, 2014. That this is a breach of contract lawsuit and where there is no legal insurance contract that has been produced and the lawsuit was filed by a legally non-existent entity whereby Plaintiff has failed to produce a legally executed Trust document to give them standing.

D. Relief Sought by Parties

1. Plaintiff seeks resolution of the competing claims in the Interpleader action and more specifically the court's finding that:
  - a. The 1995 Trust is the beneficiary of the Policy Proceeds;
  - b. The Trustee of the 1995 Trust is Ted Bernstein;
  - c. The beneficiaries of the 1995 Trust are the five children of Simon Bernstein whom are: Ted Bernstein, Pam Simon, Eliot Bernstein, Jill Iantoni, and Lisa Friedstein; and
  - d. That the Policy proceeds be distributed to the 1995 Trust as beneficiary of the Policy, and then distributed according to the terms of the 1995 Trust.
2. Intervenor seeks a judgment from this Court declaring that no valid beneficiary is named under the Policy and that the proceeds of the Policy must therefore be paid to Simon L.

Bernstein's Estate, currently pending in the Circuit Court of Palm Beach County, Florida. The Estate's position is that no valid beneficiary of the Policy can be proven and the Estate therefore takes by default under applicable law. The Bernstein children have been unable to produce an executed 1995 Trust document under which they assert their rights. If the Policy proceeds are not distributed to the Bernstein children (Plaintiffs), they will be paid to other beneficiaries of the Estate, who include the grandchildren of Simon Bernstein.

3. Cross Plaintiff Eliot Bernstein seeks this Court,

1. Pay the Primary Beneficiary LaSalle National Trust NA that is now Chicago Title and Trust Co (check name exactly), which is Trustee and beneficiary for a Bernstein family benefit plan or have LaSalle National Trust NA produce their records to this Court to determine the proper course of payment of the proceeds after them.
2. Deny that the lost trust is a contingent beneficiary with any standing.
3. Determine Plaintiff has filed a frivolous, vexatious and fraudulent lawsuit as part of a Fraud on the Court.
4. Determine that there are no beneficiaries of a 1995 lost trust as it is a legally nonexistent entity and has been superseded by other dispositive documents of Simon Bernstein.
5. Acknowledge a 2000 trust that replaced any prior 1995 trust to deal with the life insurance policy and would make the prior trust moot. This trust may be the beneficiary of the Bernstein family qualified plan that LaSalle National Trust NA is the trustee for and beneficiary of the policy proceeds. The qualified plan may have other assets in it as well. No records have been turned over by LaSalle National Trust, NA/Chicago Title.

6. Refer the case to Federal Authorities to investigate the fraudulent insurance application of Spallina, as Ted Bernstein filed that his father Simon may have been murdered on the day he died and contacted the Sheriff and the Coroner.

7. Take note that Eliot Bernstein has alleged in a Federal RICO action that the crimes in the Probate Courts already proven and admitted, committed by the Fiduciaries and Attorneys at Law in those matters, may all be part of a larger RICO regarding inventions of Eliot's and Simon's (his partner) worth and estimated Billions to Trillions. The following cases have been filed,

a. United States District Court - New York Sothern District Case 1:07-cv-11196-SAS<sup>1</sup>

b. United States District Court – Nevada Case No. 2:12-cv-02040-JAD-PAC

1-8. To have the estate counsel or this Court now join Robert Spallina and Donald Tescher into the case as Defendants and indispensable parties to the action.

II. Discovery and Pending Motions

A. Pending Motions

<sup>1</sup> RELATED CASES TO CHRISTINE C. ANDERSON, ESQ., WHISTLEBLOWER CASE (07cv09599) Anderson v The State of New York, et al., (07cv11196) Bernstein, et al. v Appellate Division First Department Disciplinary Committee, et al., (07cv11612) Esposito v The State of New York, et al., (08cv00526) Capogrosso v New York State Commission on Judicial Conduct, et al., (08cv02391) McKeown v The State of New York, et al., (08cv02852) Galison v The State of New York, et al., (08cv03305) Carvel v The State of New York, et al., and (08cv4053) Gizella Weissshaus v The State of New York, et al. (08cv4438) Suzanne McCormick v The State of New York, et al.

Intervenor's Complaint for Declaratory Judgment (Dkt. No. 112) was filed June 5, 2014. Plaintiff has filed a Motion for Leave to file Answer to Intervenor's Complaint (Dkt. No. 132). No briefing schedule has been entered.

B. Discovery

Plaintiff has produced documents pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1). In addition, Eliot I. Bernstein and now-discharged third-party defendants have produced documents pursuant to Rule 26(a)(1). Intervenor has reviewed production documents received from Plaintiff, Eliot I. Bernstein, and third-party defendants and has taken the deposition of David B. Simon. Intervenor anticipates conducting additional discovery, including likely five (5) additional depositions. A deadline of January 9, 2015 for fact discovery to be completed, and March 6, 2015 for the filing of dispositive motions, was set by the court by its order entered August 28, 2014 [Dkt. #123].

A status hearing scheduled for January 6, 2015 was postponed to January 20, 2015. The January 20, 2015 status hearing was postponed indefinitely upon reassignment to this Court's docket. At the next status hearing, Intervenor will seek additional time in which to complete discovery; Plaintiff will oppose Intervenor's request.

C. Substantive Rulings Issued to Date

Please see chronology at I. C. supra. Please also note:

1. Eliot Bernstein's motion to disqualify Adam Simon as counsel and to strike pleadings was denied by the Court (Dkt. No. 56);
2. All of the Banking parties, i.e. JP Morgan, Bank of America, and others, as well as third-party defendants Robert Spallina, Donald Tescher, and Tescher & Spallina, P.A., have been dismissed and terminated from the litigation after either having not been found, or having been dismissed on a motion to dismiss, or by disclaiming their own interests. None of the Bank parties claimed an interest in the Policy proceeds.

3. That pleadings to deny the Estate a right to intervene were filed by Ted Bernstein, who is simultaneously acting as alleged Trustee of a Simon Bernstein Trust that would receive the insurance benefits if granted to the Estate. Ted Bernstein also filed actions in the Estate of Simon to block intervention, which were denied by Judge Martin Colin. The Court should note that Ted Bernstein stands to inherit a twenty percent interest in the policy if this lawsuit is successful and zero interest if the proceeds are paid to the Estate and then the trusts, as Ted and his sister Pamela, both Plaintiffs have been disinherited entirely and considered predeceased for all purposes of the Estate and Trusts of Simon Bernstein and Shirley Bernstein. This conflict of interest and adversity to the beneficiaries of the Estate and Trust should be sanctioned by this Court.

III. Trial

There has been no jury demand and no trial date has been set. Intervenor will seek this Court's leave to conduct additional discovery, and additional time in which to do so, at the next status hearing. Plaintiff will oppose any motion for additional discovery, and is preparing to file a dispositive motion by March 6, 2015. Defendant Eliot Bernstein will be seeking leave to amend his original complaint based on new information.

IV. Settlement and Referrals

The parties do not request a settlement conference at this time. A previous referral to Judge Rowland (Dkt. No. 36) was closed on January 24, 2014 (Dkt. No. 80). Intervenor consents to proceed before the assigned Magistrate Judge for purposes of conducting a settlement conference. Plaintiffs do not believe a settlement conference will be productive at this time. The parties to this suit are also involved in disputes before the probate court administering the Estate in Florida. ~~There is pending before that court a proposed settlement which could materially affect the rights of the parties and whether Intervenor's involvement in this suit will continue.~~ (Strike as this is wholly untrue.) The parties should be in a position to report on the status of that settlement at the next status hearing.

Respectfully submitted,
