Gentlemen:

Please see the attached draft which, I hope, is a reasonable compromise of everyone's suggested language and revisions. I suggest we discuss the draft today via teleconference. I can be available to discuss anytime after 11:30 CST. If we cannot agree on the current version, I think we have to consider filing two reports, as suggested by Adam on Saturday.

Please review and let me know your thoughts and availability today.

Thanks,

Kevin

Kevin and Eliot:

I have looked over the changes suggested by Eliot. With his suggested modifications, the joint status report does not comport with the Court's template or its Order regarding the content and length of the report.

Also, on behalf of my client, there is simply no way we could consent to 90% of Eliot's suggested modifications. At this point, I would suggest two options:

1) Kevin you can attempt to include, based on what Eliot provided, a brief summary of the nature of his claims and relief requested, and recirculate for all to approve and then we can submit a joint report in accordance with the Court's order; or

2) Eliminate all of Eliot's suggested modifications, and then Plaintiff's and the Estate of Simon Bernstein can file a joint report indicating we could not come to agreement with Eliot on the content, and then Eliot can file a separate report. I will reserve my client's rights to seek to strike the report if it contains much of the substance that is contained in these modifications.

I can think of no other options that would result in our compliance with Judge Blakey's order. Let me know your thoughts.

Hi Adam,
Eliot was concerned that his email earlier today were not getting through and/or are blocked by your email server. He wanted me to make sure you got his draft (attached).

Talk to you soon,

Kevin et al.,

My comments are inserted and I think these are necessary corrections to the status and pertinent information for Judge Blakey to have in understanding the nature of the whole affair. Eliot

Subject: Estate of Bernstein: Joint Status Report

Adam and Eliot,

Attached please find a revised draft of the Joint Status Report, due to be filed on February 2, 2015. The current version reflects edits and revisions which were made and agreed upon by me and Adam this morning. Adam, if any of my revisions do not comport with your understanding of our earlier conversation, please let me know. Eliot, please review and respond with any suggested additions, deletions, or revisions.

Thanks in advance for your cooperation.

Best wishes,

Kevin
