They subsequently did not follow the instructions on the amended return. Since the IRS did this, the $463.00 total tax was not deducted from the payments reported. We received a notice from the IRS dated 4/15/13 of tax due of $463.00 plus interest of $14.07 which was paid on 5/15/13.

Application of Overpayment

On the return identified above, you asked to have $2,628.00 applied to your next tax period.

We were able to apply only $2,613.00 of the amount because of one of the following reasons:

- (1) There was an error on your return, or
- (2) You had an outstanding balance on another account, or
- (3) A penalty amount was charged to your account, or
- (4) The payments claimed on your return were more than the total amount credited to your account, or
- (5) A condition on your account will not allow the application of your credit at this time.

If (1), (2), or (3) above apply, you should receive a separate notice explaining the decrease in your overpayment.

If (4) applies, and you do not believe all your payments were properly credited to your account, or if (5) applies, and you do not receive notification from us within 45 days regarding the credit, please call us at the toll-free number near the top of this notice.

No further action is required by you. However, you should keep this notice with your records for preparing your next tax return. If you have any questions, you may call us at the number listed above.

Dear Taxpayer:

Our records show that an overpayment of $2,613.00 was credited to your Form 1041 estimated tax account, as requested on your tax return. Since this election is binding, we cannot refund that overpayment or apply it to your balance due account. When you file your next return, you should claim credit for the amount of this payment. If your account then shows an overpayment of tax, we will send you a refund.

We have amended your return but we are unable to send you a refund.

The current balance due for your Form 1041 account for the tax period Dec. 31, 2011, is $477.22, which includes penalty and interest figured to Apr. 19, 2013. We will continue to charge penalties and interest until the balance due is paid in full. We've provided a general explanation of the possible penalties and/or interest included in the current balance due on your account. If you would like a specific explanation of how the amounts were computed on your account, please contact us at the toll-free number shown in this letter and we will send you a detailed computation.

* Paying Late -- IRC Section 6651(d) ****

Initially, the penalty is 1/2% of the unpaid tax for each month or part of a month the tax isn't paid.

If we issue a Notice of Intent to Levy and the balance due isn't paid within 10 days from the date of the notice, the penalty increases to 1% a month.

The penalty can't be more than 25% of the tax paid late.

* Filing and Paying Late -- IRC Section 6651 ****

We charge a 5% combined penalty of 4 1/2% for filing late and 1/2% for paying late when a return is filed late and the tax is not

2 Other taxes, including self-employment tax (see page 2 of the instructions)	2	8,261.
3 Refundable credits. Enter the total of your earned income credit, additional child tax credit, credit for federal tax paid on fuels, health coverage tax credit, refundable credit for prior year minimum tax, first-time homebuyer credit, and recovery rebate credit	3	()
4 Current year tax. Combine lines 1, 2, and 3. If less than $1,000, you do not owe a penalty; do not file Form 2210	4	8,261.
5 Multiply line 4 by 90% (.90)	5	7,435.
6 Withholding taxes. Do not include estimated tax payments. (see page 2 of the instructions)	6
7 Subtract line 6 from line 4. If less than $1,000, you do not owe a penalty; do not file Form 2210	7	8,261.
8 Maximum required annual payment based on prior year's tax (see page 2 of the instructions)	8	49,033.
9 Required annual payment. Enter the smaller of line 5 or line 8	9	7,435.

Next: Is line 9 more than line 6?

- No. You do not owe a penalty. Do not file Form 2210 unless box E below applies.
- Yes. You may owe a penalty, but do not file Form 2210 unless one or more boxes in Part II below applies.
- If box B, C, or D applies, you must figure your penalty and file Form 2210.
 - If only box A or E (or both) applies, file only page 1 of Form 2210. You are not required to figure your penalty; the IRS will figure it and send you a bill for any unpaid amount. If you want to figure your penalty, you may use Part III or IV as a worksheet and enter your penalty on your tax return, but file only page 1 of Form 2210.

Part II Reasons for Filing. Check applicable boxes. If none apply, do not file Form 2210.

- A You request a waiver (see page 2 of the instructions) of your entire penalty. You must check this box and file page 1 of Form 2210, but you are not required to figure your penalty.
- B You request a waiver (see page 2 of the instructions) of part of your penalty. You must figure your penalty and waiver amount and file Form 2210.
- C Your income varied during the year and your penalty is reduced or eliminated when figured using the annualized income installment method. You must figure the penalty using Schedule AI and file Form 2210.
- D Your penalty is lower when figured by treating the federal income tax withheld from your income as paid on the dates it was actually withheld, instead of in equal amounts on the payment due dates. You must figure your penalty and file Form 2210.
- E You filed or are filing a joint return for either 2007 or 2008, but not for both years, and line 8 above is smaller than line 5 above. You must file page 1 of Form 2210, but you are not required to figure your penalty (unless box B, C, or D applies).

Part III Short Method

Can You Use the Short Method?

You may use the short method if:

- You made no estimated tax payments (or your only payments were withheld federal income tax), or
- You paid the same amount of estimated tax on each of the four payment due dates.

Must You Use the Regular Method?

You must use the regular method (Part IV) instead of the short method if:

- You made any estimated tax payments late,
- You checked box C or D in Part II, or
- You are filing Form 1040NR or 1040NR-EZ and you did not receive wages as an employee subject to U.S. income tax withholding.

Note: If any payment was made earlier than the due date, you may use the short method, but using it may cause you to pay a larger penalty than the regular method. If the payment was only a few days early, the difference is likely to be small.

Do You Have To File Form 2210?

Part I Required Annual Payment

1	Enter your 2008 tax after credits from Form 1040, line 56 (see instructions if not filing Form 1040)	1
2	Other taxes, including self-employment tax (see page 2 of the instructions)	2	8,261.
3	Refundable credits. Enter the total of your earned income credit, additional child tax credit, credit for federal tax paid on fuels, health coverage tax credit, refundable credit for prior year minimum tax, first-time homebuyer credit, and recovery rebate credit	3	()
4	Current year tax. Combine lines 1, 2, and 3. If less than $1,000, you do not owe a penalty; do not file Form 2210	4	8,261.
5	Multiply line 4 by 90% (.90)	5	7,435.
6	Withholding taxes. Do not include estimated tax payments. (see page 2 of the instructions)	6
7	Subtract line 6 from line 4. If less than $1,000, you do not owe a penalty; do not file Form 2210	7	8,261.
8	Maximum required annual payment based on prior year's tax (see page 2 of the instructions)	8	49,034.
9	Required annual payment. Enter the smaller of line 5 or line 8	9	7,435.

Next: Is line 9 more than line 6?

- No. You do not owe a penalty. Do not file Form 2210 unless box E below applies.
- Yes. You may owe a penalty, but do not file Form 2210 unless one or more boxes in Part II below applies.
- If box B, C, or D applies, you must figure your penalty and file Form 2210.
 - If only box A or E (or both) applies, file only page 1 of Form 2210. You are not required to figure your penalty; the IRS will figure it and send you a bill for any unpaid amount. If you want to figure your penalty, you may use Part III or IV as a worksheet and enter your penalty on your tax return, but file only page 1 of Form 2210.

Part II Reasons for Filing. Check applicable boxes. If none apply, do not file Form 2210.

- A You request a waiver (see page 2 of the instructions) of your entire penalty. You must check this box and file page 1 of Form 2210, but you are not required to figure your penalty.
- B You request a waiver (see page 2 of the instructions) of part of your penalty. You must figure your penalty and waiver amount and file Form 2210.
- C Your income varied during the year and your penalty is reduced or eliminated when figured using the annualized income installment method. You must figure the penalty using Schedule AI and file Form 2210.
- D Your penalty is lower when figured by treating the federal income tax withheld from your income as paid on the dates it was actually withheld, instead of in equal amounts on the payment due dates. You must figure your penalty and file Form 2210.
- E You filed or are filing a joint return for either 2007 or 2008, but not for both years, and line 8 above is smaller than line 5 above. You must file page 1 of Form 2210, but you are not required to figure your penalty (unless box B, C, or D applies).

Part III Short Method

Can You Use the Short Method?

You may use the short method if:

- You made no estimated tax payments (or your only payments were withheld federal income tax), or
- You paid the same amount of estimated tax on each of the four payment due dates.

Must You Use the Regular Method?

You must use the regular method (Part IV) instead of the short method if:

- You made any estimated tax payments late,
- You checked box C or D in Part II, or
- You are filing Form 1040NR or 1040NR-EZ and you did not receive wages as an employee subject to U.S. income tax withholding.

Note: If any payment was made earlier than the due date, you may use the short method, but using it may cause you to pay a larger penalty than the regular method. If the payment was only a few days early, the difference is likely to be small.

Do You Have To File Form 2210?

Part I Required Annual Payment

1	Enter your 2008 tax after credits from Form 1040, line 56 (see instructions if not filing Form 1040)	1
2	Other taxes, including self-employment tax (see page 2 of the instructions)	2	8,261.
3	Refundable credits. Enter the total of your earned income credit, additional child tax credit, credit for federal tax paid on fuels, health coverage tax credit, refundable credit for prior year minimum tax, first-time homebuyer credit, and recovery rebate credit	3	()
4	Current year tax. Combine lines 1, 2, and 3. If less than $1,000, you do not owe a penalty; do not file Form 2210	4	8,261.
5	Multiply line 4 by 90% (.90)	5	7,435.
6	Withholding taxes. Do not include estimated tax payments. (see page 2 of the instructions)	6
7	Subtract line 6 from line 4. If less than $1,000, you do not owe a penalty; do not file Form 2210	7	8,261.
8	Maximum required annual payment based on prior year's tax (see page 2 of the instructions)	8	49,033.
9	Required annual payment. Enter the smaller of line 5 or line 8	9	7,435.

Next: Is line 9 more than line 6?

- No. You do not owe a penalty. Do not file Form 2210 unless box E below applies.
- Yes. You may owe a penalty, but do not file Form 2210 unless one or more boxes in Part II below applies.
- If box B, C, or D applies, you must figure your penalty and file Form 2210.
 - If only box A or E (or both) applies, file only page 1 of Form 2210. You are not required to figure your penalty; the IRS will figure it and send you a bill for any unpaid amount. If you want to figure your penalty, you may use Part III or IV as a worksheet and enter your penalty on your tax return, but file only page 1 of Form 2210.

Part II Reasons for Filing. Check applicable boxes. If none apply, do not file Form 2210.

- A You request a waiver (see page 2 of the instructions) of your entire penalty. You must check this box and file page 1 of Form 2210, but you are not required to figure your penalty.
- B You request a waiver (see page 2 of the instructions) of part of your penalty. You must figure your penalty and waiver amount and file Form 2210.
- C Your income varied during the year and your penalty is reduced or eliminated when figured using the annualized income installment method. You must figure the penalty using Schedule AI and file Form 2210.
- D Your penalty is lower when figured by treating the federal income tax withheld from your income as paid on the dates it was actually withheld, instead of in equal amounts on the payment due dates. You must figure your penalty and file Form 2210.
- E You filed or are filing a joint return for either 2007 or 2008, but not for both years, and line 8 above is smaller than line 5 above. You must file page 1 of Form 2210, but you are not required to figure your penalty (unless box B, C, or D applies).

Part III Short Method

Can You Use the Short Method?

You may use the short method if:

- You made no estimated tax payments (or your only payments were withheld federal income tax), or
- You paid the same amount of estimated tax on each of the four payment due dates.

Must You Use the Regular Method?

You must use the regular method (Part IV) instead of the short method if:

- You made any estimated tax payments late,
- You checked box C or D in Part II, or
- You are filing Form 1040NR or 1040NR-EZ and you did not receive wages as an employee subject to U.S. income tax withholding.

Note: If any payment was made earlier than the due date, you may use the short method, but using it may cause you to pay a larger penalty than the regular method. If the payment was only a few days early, the difference is likely to be small.

Important - Fraud Alert

To all STC Clients:

DO NOT RESPOND TO ANY UNSOLICITED REQUEST FOR ANY PERSONAL INFORMATION SUCH AS A CREDIT/DEBIT CARD NUMBER, OR ACCOUNT NUMBER.

Regularly, criminals distribute fraudulent emails that look as if they came from various financial services companies. While these criminals have yet to target clients of Stanford Trust Company (STC) we want to be proactive in alerting you to the potential for fraud.

These emails typically contain links to fake websites that appear to be maintained by a financial services company and request personal, confidential information, such as account information, credit/debit card numbers, and user names/passwords used for online account access. Other emails provide a phone number to a person who, when called, asks for the same personal information. This type of fraud is commonly referred to as "phishing."

STC will never, ever ask for such information in an unsolicited email request, phone call or by mail. Never provide personal information, including brokerage account number, online access user name/password, Social Security number, or credit/debit card number in response to an unsolicited request.

If you receive an email or any other unsolicited communication that claims to be from STC and requests personal or business brokerage information, it is a scam. Do not respond, do not click on any links provided, and do not call any numbers. STC will never use an unsolicited email to contact you requesting this information.

The following are some suggestions to help you recognize a phishing scam:

1. Be suspicious of any email with urgent requests for personal information for a security audit or survey or which contains threats to close your account.
2. Never use links in an unsolicited email to access a web page.
3. Do not fill out forms in email messages asking for personal financial information.
4. Regularly check your online account and your brokerage, bank, credit and/or debit card statements to make sure all transactions are legitimate.

If you have questions about this message or emails that appear to be from STC, please call your local advisor.

Important - Fraud Alert

To all STC Clients:

DO NOT RESPOND TO ANY UNSOLICITED REQUEST FOR ANY PERSONAL INFORMATION SUCH AS A CREDIT/DEBIT CARD NUMBER, OR ACCOUNT NUMBER.

Regularly, criminals distribute fraudulent emails that look as if they came from various financial services companies. While these criminals have yet to target clients of Stanford Trust Company (STC) we want to be proactive in alerting you to the potential for fraud.

These emails typically contain links to fake websites that appear to be maintained by a financial services company and request personal, confidential information, such as account information, credit/debit card numbers, and user names/passwords used for online account access. Other emails provide a phone number to a person who, when called, asks for the same personal information. This type of fraud is commonly referred to as "phishing."

STC will never, ever ask for such information in an unsolicited email request, phone call or by mail. Never provide personal information, including brokerage account number, online access user name/password, Social Security number, or credit/debit card number in response to an unsolicited request.

If you receive an email or any other unsolicited communication that claims to be from STC and requests personal or business brokerage information, it is a scam. Do not respond, do not click on any links provided, and do not call any numbers. STC will never use an unsolicited email to contact you requesting this information.

The following are some suggestions to help you recognize a phishing scam:

1. Be suspicious of any email with urgent requests for personal information for a security audit or survey or which contains threats to close your account.
2. Never use links in an unsolicited email to access a web page.
3. Do not fill out forms in email messages asking for personal financial information.
4. Regularly check your online account and your brokerage, bank, credit and/or debit card statements to make sure all transactions are legitimate.

If you have questions about this message or emails that appear to be from STC, please call your local advisor.
