FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND
FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA

PROBATE DIVISION

CASE NO:

OPPENHEIMER TRUST COMPANY
OF DELAWARE, in its capacity as
Resigned Trustee of the Simon Bernstein
Irrevocable Trusts created for the benefit of Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein,

Petitioner,

ELIOT AND CANDICE BERNSTEIN,
in their capacity as parents and natural guardians of JOSHUA, JAKE AND
DANIEL BERNSTEIN, minors,

Respondents.

RESIGNED TRUSTEE'S PETITION FOR INSTRUCTIONS, APPROVAL OF FINAL ACCOUNTING, RELEASE AND DISCHARGE

Petitioner, OPPENHEIMER TRUST COMPANY OF DELAWARE, as the resigned trustee of three irrevocable trusts created by Simon Bernstein for the benefit of his grandchildren, Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein, sues ELIOT AND CANDICE BERNSTEIN, as the parents and natural guardians of minors, JOSHUA, JAKE AND DANIEL BERNSTEIN, and states:

Parties, Jurisdiction and Venue

1. This is an action pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 736.0201 for (i) instructions regarding the delivery of trust property upon the sole trustee's resignation; (ii) approval of the resigned trustee's final accounting; and (iii) release and discharge of the resigned trustee.

 FILED: PALM BEACH COUNTY, FL SHARON R BOCK, CLERK. ***

2. Petitioner, Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware (“Oppenheimer”), is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in Wilmington, Delaware.

3. Respondents, Eliot and Candice Bernstein, are the parents and natural guardians of minors, Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein, and reside with them in Palm Beach County, Florida. Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein are the sole beneficiaries under three irrevocable trusts (the “Trusts”) created by their late grandfather, Simon Bernstein, on September 7, 2006. Copies of the Trusts are attached hereto as Exhibits “A” through “C.”

4. Jurisdiction and venue are proper in Palm Beach County, Florida because the beneficiaries of the Trusts reside here.

Oppenheimer’s Appointment, Service and Resignation As Trustee

5. Gerald R. Lewin was the initial trustee of the Trusts.

6. On September 5, 2007, Mr. Lewin resigned as trustee and appointed Stanford Trust Company as his successor pursuant to Section 5.3 of the Trusts.

7. By virtue of an April 23, 2009 Order entered by the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas in the matter of SEC v. Stanford International Bank, Ltd., et. al., Case No. 3-09CV0298-N, Stanford Trust Company was deemed to have resigned or been removed as fiduciary for any and all fiduciary accounts, including the Trusts. A copy of that Order is attached hereto as Exhibit “D.” Stanford Trust Company’s resignation/removal left the Trusts without a trustee.

8. In 2010, Eliot and Candice Bernstein, as the parents and natural guardians of Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein, filed Petitions to Appoint Successor Trustee for each of the Trusts in the Circuit Court in and for Palm Brach County, Case Nos. 502010CP003123XXXXSB, 502010CP003125XXXXSB and 502010CP003128XXXXSB.

9. On July 8, 2010, the Palm Beach Probate Court entered Final Orders on Petition to Appoint Successor Trustee, appointing Oppenheimer as the successor trustee of each of the Trusts. Copies of those Orders and Oppenheimer's July 30, 2010 acceptance of the appointments are attached hereto as Composite Exhibits "E" through "G."

10. By letter dated April 22, 2014 (the "Notice of Resignation"), Oppenheimer resigned as trustee effective May 26, 2014. A copy of the Notice of Resignation is attached hereto as Exhibit "H."

11. In the Notice of Resignation, Oppenheimer advised Eliot and Candice Bernstein of their right and obligation to appoint a successor corporate trustee. To date, they have declined to do so.

12. In addition to other relief requested herein, Oppenheimer requires instructions regarding the delivery of Trust assets in its possession to another trustee, or to Eliot and Candice Bernstein as the natural guardians of the beneficiaries.

Relevant Trust and Statutory Provisions

13. The Trusts provide, in relevant part, as follows:

5.2 Resignation. Any Trustee may resign by giving 30 days' written notice delivered personally or by mail to any then serving Co-Trustee and to the Settlor if he is then living and not disabled; otherwise to the next named successor Trustee, or if none, to the persons having power to appoint successor Trustees.

5.3 Power to Name Other Trustees. Whenever a successor Trustee is required and that position is not filled under the terms specified in this Trust Agreement, an individual Trustee ceasing to serve (other than a Trustee being removed) may appoint his or her successor, but if none is appointed, the remaining Trustees, if any, or the beneficiary shall appoint a successor Corporate Trustee. The appointment will be by a written document (including a testamentary instrument) delivered to the appointed Trustee. In no event may the Settlor ever be appointed as the Trustee under this Trust Agreement nor shall a Successor trustee be appointed that will cause this trust to be a grantor trust.

14. Similarly, Fla. Stat. § 736.0705, entitled “Resignation of trustee,” provides, in relevant part, as follows:

(1) A trustee may resign:

(a) Upon at least 30 days' notice to the qualified beneficiaries, the settlor, if living, and all cotrustees...

15. Fla. Stat. § 736.0704, entitled “Vacancy in trusteeship; appointment of successor,” provides, in relevant part, as follows:

(3) A vacancy in a trusteeship of a noncharitable trust that is required to be filled must be filled in the following order of priority:

(a) By a person named or designated pursuant to the terms of the trust to act as successor trustee.

(b) By a person appointed by unanimous agreement of the qualified beneficiaries.

(c) By a person appointed by the court.

16. Finally, Fla. Stat. § 736.0707 requires a resigned trustee to deliver trust property to a successor trustee or other person entitled to the property, and provides that the resigned trustee has the duties of a trustee, and the power necessary to protect the trust property, until the property is so delivered.

Count I – For Instructions Regarding the Delivery of Trust Property

17. Oppenheimer reincorporates the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 16.

18. Oppenheimer, as the resigned trustee, is required to deliver the Trust property in its possession to a successor trustee or another authorized person.

19. Because Candice and Eliot Bernstein, as the natural guardians of the beneficiaries, have failed to appoint a successor corporate trustee, the Court must either (i) appoint a successor trustee to whom Oppenheimer may deliver the Trust property or (ii) terminate the Trusts and permit Oppenheimer to deliver the Trust property to Eliot and Candice Bernstein, as the natural guardians of the Trusts' beneficiaries.

WHEREFORE, Oppenheimer requests instructions regarding the delivery of Trust property in its possession, all relief ancillary thereto (including the appointment of a successor trustee or termination of the Trusts), and such other relief as is just and proper.

Count II – For Approval of Final Accounting, Release and Discharge

20. Oppenheimer reincorporates the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 16.

21. Oppenheimer, as the resigned trustee of the Trusts, requests review, settlement and approval of its final accounting to be filed herein, and for an order releasing and discharging Oppenheimer from all claims arising out of or related to its service as trustee.

WHEREFORE, Oppenheimer requests review, settlement and approval of its final accounting to be filed herein, for an order releasing and discharging Oppenheimer from all claims arising out of or related to its service as trustee, and such other relief as is just and proper.

Attorneys' Fees and Costs

Oppenheimer requests reimbursement from the Trusts and/or Eliot and Candice Bernstein for all attorneys' fees and costs incurred by Oppenheimer in this action, as permitted by the Trusts or the Florida Trust Code.

EXHIBIT A

TRUST AGREEMENT
FOR THE
JOSHUA Z. BERNSTEIN IRREVOCABLE TRUST

September 7, 2006

TRUST AGREEMENT
FOR THE
JOSHUA Z. BERNSTEIN IRREVOCABLE TRUST

SIMON BERNSTEIN, as Settlor, hereby creates the Joshua Z. Bernstein Irrevocable Trust ("the Trust") on September 7, 2006. Traci Kratish, P.A. is the trustee of this Trust and, in that capacity, he and his successors are collectively referred to in this Trust Agreement as the "Trustee."

BENEFICIARY

This Trust is for the benefit of the Settlor's Grandchild, JOSHUA Z. BERNSTEIN ("Beneficiary").

TRANSFERS TO TRUST

The Settlor hereby conveys to the Trustee all his interest in the assets listed on Schedule A, which together with any assets later added to this Trust are referred to as the "Trust Estate." Any person may transfer assets to the Trust Estate, if the Trustee agrees to accept them. Assets do not have to be listed on Schedule A to be part of the Trust Estate. Unless otherwise specified in writing at the time of the transfer, those assets will be held as provided in this Trust Agreement. The Trustee acknowledges receipt of the current Trust assets and agrees to hold the Trust Estate as set forth in this Trust Agreement.

IRREVOCABLE PROVISION

The Settlor declares that he has no right to alter, amend, modify, or revoke this Trust Agreement; to withdraw assets from the Trust; or to require changes in the investments of the Trust. No part of the Trust may ever revert to the Settlor, be used for his benefit, or be distributed in discharge of his legal obligations.

ADMINISTRATION OF TRUST

The Trustee shall hold, administer, and distribute the Trust Estate in accordance with the powers granted under this Trust Agreement as follows:

4.1 Discretionary Distributions. The Trustee shall pay or apply such sums of principal from this Trust as in the Trustee's discretion are necessary or advisable for Beneficiary's health, education, support, and maintenance.

4.2 Distribution of Principal. When Beneficiary has reached age 21, the trustee shall distribute one-half (1/2) of the corpus of trust to Beneficiary plus accrued income. When Beneficiary has reached age 25 the Trustee shall distribute the entire remaining principal balance of the corpus of the trust to Beneficiary plus accrued income.

4.3 Distribution Upon Death Before Age 25. Upon the death of Beneficiary prior to age 25, the Trustee shall distribute the remaining assets in the trust to the estate of Beneficiary.

ARTICLE 5
PROVISIONS GOVERNING TRUSTEES

The following provisions apply to all Trustees appointed under this Trust Agreement:

5.1 Incapacity of Trustee. If any Trustee becomes disabled, he or she will immediately cease to act as Trustee. If a Trustee who ceases to serve because of a disability, or who is suspended, thereafter recovers from that disability or consents to the release of relevant medical information, he or she may elect to become a Trustee again by giving written notice to the then serving Trustee, and the last Trustee who undertook to serve will then cease to be a Trustee until another successor Trustee is required.

5.2 Resignation. Any Trustee may resign by giving 30 days' written notice delivered personally or by mail to any then serving Co-Trustee and to the Settlor if he is then living and not disabled; otherwise to the next named successor Trustee, or if none, to the persons having power to appoint successor Trustees.

5.3 Power to Name Other Trustees. Whenever a successor Trustee is required and that position is not filled under the terms specified in this Trust Agreement, an individual Trustee ceasing to serve (other than a Trustee being removed) may appoint his or her successor, but if none is appointed, the remaining Trustees, if any, or the beneficiary shall appoint a successor Corporate Trustee. The appointment will be by a written document (including a testamentary instrument) delivered to the appointed Trustee. In no event may the Settlor ever be appointed as the Trustee under this Trust Agreement nor shall a Successor trustee be appointed that will cause this trust to be a grantor trust.

5.4 Powers of Successor Trustees. Successor Trustees will have all powers granted to the original Trustee, except that only an Independent Trustee will succeed to the powers vested exclusively in the Independent Trustee.

5.5 Accountings. Accountings must be given to the beneficiary of each trust at least annually (quarterly if a Corporate Trustee is serving). The accountings must show the assets held in trust and all receipts and disbursements. A beneficiary's written approval of an accounting will be final and binding upon that beneficiary and all persons represented by him or her as to all matters disclosed in that accounting. In any event, if a beneficiary fails to object to an accounting within six months of receiving it, his or her approval is conclusively presumed. A successor Trustee may require the prior Trustee to render a full and final accounting.

5.6 Acts by Other Fiduciaries. The Trustee is not required to question any acts or failures to act of the fiduciary of any other trust or estate, and will not be liable for any prior fiduciary's acts or failures to act. The Trustee can require a beneficiary who requests an examination of another fiduciary's actions or omissions to advance all costs and fees incurred in the examination, and if the beneficiary does not, the Trustee may elect not to proceed or may proceed and offset those costs and fees directly against any payment that would otherwise be made to that beneficiary.

5.7 Court Supervision. The Settlor waives compliance by the Trustee with any law requiring bond, registration, qualification, or accounting to any court.

5.8 Compensation. Each Trustee is entitled to be paid reasonable compensation for services rendered in the administration of the Trust. Reasonable compensation for a Corporate Trustee will be its published fee schedule in effect when its services are rendered unless otherwise agreed in writing, and except as follows. Any fees paid to a Corporate Trustee for making principal distributions, for termination of the trust, and upon termination of its services must be based solely on the value of its services rendered, not on the value of the trust principal. During the Settlor's lifetime the Trustee's fees are to be charged wholly against income (to the extent sufficient), unless directed otherwise by the Settlor in writing.

5.9 Indemnity. Any Trustee who ceases to serve for any reason will be entitled to receive (and the continuing Trustee shall make suitable arrangements to provide) reasonable indemnification and security to protect and hold that Trustee harmless from any damage or liability of any nature that may be imposed upon it because of its actions or omissions while serving as Trustee. This protection, however, does not extend to a Trustee's negligent actions or omissions that clearly and demonstrably result in damage or liability. A prior Trustee may enforce these provisions against the current Trustee or against any assets held in the Trust, or if the prior Trustee is an individual, against any beneficiary to the extent of distributions received by that beneficiary. This indemnification right will extend to the estate, personal representatives, legal successors, and assigns of a Trustee.

5.10 Successor Trustee. In the event the initial Trustee, Steven I. Greenwald, resigns or ceases to serve as Trustee, then and in that event, I hereby appoint Larry V. Bishins to serve as Trustee.

ARTICLE 6 PROTECTION OF INTERESTS

The interest of any beneficiary under this Trust Agreement, in either income or principal, may not be anticipated, alienated, or in any other manner assigned by the beneficiary, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, and will not be subject to any legal process, bankruptcy proceedings, or the interference or control of the beneficiary's creditors or others.

FIDUCIARY POWERS

The Settlor grants to the Trustee full power to deal freely with any property in the Trust. The Trustee may exercise these powers independently and without the approval of any court. No person dealing with the Trustee need inquire into the propriety of any of its actions or into the application of any funds or assets. The Trustee shall, however, exercise all powers in a fiduciary capacity for the best interest of the beneficiary of this Trust or any trust created under it. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustee is given the following discretionary powers in addition to any other powers conferred by law:

7.1 Type of Assets. Except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to hold funds uninvested for such periods as the Trustee deems prudent, and to invest in any assets the Trustee deems advisable even though they are not technically recognized or specifically listed in so-called "legal lists," without responsibility for depreciation or loss on account of those investments, or because those investments are non-productive, as long as the Trustee acts in good faith.

7.2 Original Assets. Except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to retain the original assets it receives for as long as it deems best, and to dispose of those assets when it deems advisable, even though such assets, because of their character or lack of diversification, would otherwise be considered improper investments for the Trustee.

7.3 Tangible Personal Property. To receive and hold tangible personal property; to pay or refrain from paying storage and insurance charges for such property; and to permit any beneficiaries to use such property without either the Trustee or beneficiaries incurring any liability for wear, tear, and obsolescence of the property.

7.4 Specific Securities. To invest in assets, securities, or interests in securities of any nature, including (without limit) commodities, options, futures, precious metals, currencies, and in domestic and foreign markets and in mutual or investment funds, including funds for which the Trustee or any affiliate performs services for additional fees, whether as custodian, transfer agent, investment advisor or otherwise, or in securities distributed, underwritten, or issued by the Trustee or by syndicates of which it is a member; to trade on credit or margin accounts (whether secured or unsecured); and to pledge assets of the Trust Estate for that purpose.

7.5 Property Transactions. To buy, sell, pledge, exchange, or lease any real or personal property, publicly or privately, for cash or credit, without court approval and upon the terms and conditions that the Trustee deems advisable; to execute deeds, leases, contracts, bills of sale, notes, mortgages, security instruments, and other written instruments; to abandon or dispose of any real or personal property in the Trust which has little or no monetary or useful value; to improve, repair, insure, subdivide and vacate any property; to erect, alter or demolish buildings; to adjust boundaries; and to impose easements, restrictions, and covenants as the Trustee sees fit. A lease will be valid and binding for its full term even if it extends beyond the full duration of the Trust.

7.6 Borrow Money. To borrow money from any source (including the Trustee in its nonfiduciary capacity), to guarantee indebtedness, and to secure the loan or guaranty by mortgage or other security interest.

7.7 Maintain Assets. To expend whatever funds it deems proper for the preservation, maintenance, or improvement of assets. The Trustee in its discretion may elect any options or settlements or exercise any rights under all insurance policies that it holds. However, no fiduciary who is the insured of any insurance policy held in the Trust may exercise any rights or have any incidents of ownership with respect to the policy, including the power to change the beneficiary, to surrender or cancel the policy, to assign the policy, to revoke any assignment, to pledge the policy for a loan, or to obtain from the insurer a loan against the surrender value of the policy. All such power is to be exercised solely by the remaining Trustee, if any, or if none, by a special fiduciary appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.8 Advisors. To employ and compensate attorneys, accountants, advisors, financial consultants, managers, agents, and assistants (including any individual or entity who provides investment advisory or management services, or who furnishes professional assistance in making investments for the Trust) without liability for any act of those persons, if they are selected and retained with reasonable care. Fees may be paid from the Trust Estate even if the services were rendered in connection with ancillary proceedings.

7.9 Indirect Distributions. To make distributions, whether of principal or income, to any person under age 21 or to any incapacitated person according to the terms of this Trust Agreement by making distributions directly to that person whether or not that person has a guardian; to the parent, guardian, or spouse of that person; to a custodial account established by the Trustee or others for that person under an applicable Uniform Gift to Minors Act or Uniform Transfers to Minors Act; to any adult who resides in the same household with that person or who is otherwise responsible for the care and well-being of that person; or by applying any distribution for the benefit of that person in any manner the Trustee deems proper. The receipt of the person to whom payment is made will constitute full discharge of the Trustee with respect to that payment. No distributions may be made to the Settlor under this Section.

7.10 Non-Pro Rata Distribution. To make any division or distribution in money or in kind, or both, without allocating the same kind of property to all shares or distributees, and without regard to the income tax basis of the property. Any division will be binding and conclusive on all parties.

7.11 Nominee. Except as prohibited by law, to hold any assets in the name of a nominee without disclosing the fiduciary relationship; to hold the property unregistered, without affecting its liability; and to hold securities endorsed in blank, in street certificates, at a depository trust company, or in a book entry system.

7.12 Custodian. To employ a custodian or agent ("the Custodian") located anywhere within the United States, at the discretion of the Trustee but at the expense of the Trust, whether or not such Custodian is an affiliate of the Trustee or any person rendering services to the Trust; to register securities in the name of the Custodian or a nominee thereof without designation of fiduciary capacity; and to appoint the Custodian to perform such other ministerial functions as the Trustee may direct. While such securities are in the custody of the Custodian, the Trustee will be under no obligation to inspect or verify such securities nor will the Trustee be responsible for any loss by the Custodian.

7.13 Settle Claims. To contest, compromise, arbitrate, or otherwise adjust claims in favor of or against the Trust, to agree to any rescission or modification of any contract or agreement, and to refrain from instituting any suit or action unless indemnified for reasonable costs and expenses.

7.14 Corporate Rights. To vote and exercise any option, right, or privilege to purchase or to convert bonds, notes, stock (including shares or fractional shares of stock of any Corporate Trustee), securities, or other property; to borrow money for the purpose of exercising any such option, right, or privilege; to delegate those rights to an agent; to enter into voting trusts and other agreements or subscriptions; to participate in any type of liquidation or reorganization of any enterprise; and to write and sell covered call options, puts, calls, straddles, or other methods of buying or selling securities, as well as all related transactions.

7.15 Partnership Interests. To hold interests in sole proprietorships, general or limited partnerships, joint ventures, business trusts, land trusts, limited liability companies, and other domestic and foreign forms of organizations; and to exercise all rights in connection with such interests as the Trustee deems appropriate, including any powers applicable to a non-admitted transferee of any such interest.

7.16 Self-Dealing. To exercise all its powers even though it may also be acting individually or on behalf of any other person or entity interested in the same matters. The Trustee, however, shall exercise these powers at all times in a fiduciary capacity, primarily in the interest of the beneficiaries of the Trust. Despite any other provision of this Trust Agreement, no Trustee may participate in the decision to make a discretionary distribution that would discharge a legal support obligation of that Trustee. No Trustee who has made a disclaimer, either individually or as a Trustee, may exercise any discretion in determining the recipient of the disclaimed property. All power to make such distributions, or to determine recipients of disclaimed property, will be exercised solely by the remaining Trustees, if any, or if there are no other Trustees then serving, by the person or persons named to serve as the next successor Trustee, or if there are none, by a special Trustee appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.17 Expenses. An Independent Trustee may determine how expenses of administration and receipts are to be apportioned between principal and income.

7.18 Terminate Small Trusts. To exercise its discretion to refrain from funding or to terminate any trust whenever the value of the principal of that trust would be or is too small to administer economically, and to distribute the remaining principal and all accumulated income of the trust as provided in Section 7.9 to the income beneficiary of that trust. The Trustee shall exercise this power to terminate in its discretion as it deems prudent for the best interest of the beneficiaries at that time. This power cannot be exercised by the Settlor or any beneficiary, either alone or in conjunction with any other Trustee, but must be exercised solely by the other Trustee, or if none, by a special Trustee appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.19 Allocations to Income and Principal. To treat premiums and discounts on bonds and other obligations for the payment of money in accordance with either generally accepted accounting principles or tax accounting principles and, except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to hold nonproductive assets without allocating any principal to income, despite any laws or rules to the contrary. The Trustee in its discretion may exercise the power described in Section 738.104 of the Florida Statutes to adjust between principal and income, as appropriate, and, in addition, may convert any income interest into a unitrust interest, or a unitrust interest to an income interest, as it sees fit, all as provided in Section 738.1041 of the Florida Statutes, despite any provision of those sections to the contrary.

7.20 Use of Income. Except as otherwise provided in this Trust Agreement, and in addition to all other available sources, to exercise its discretion in the use of income from the assets of the Trust to satisfy the liabilities described in this Trust Agreement, without accountability to any beneficiary.

7.21 Valuations. In making distributions or allocations under the terms of this Trust Agreement to be valued as of a particular date, the Trustee may use asset valuations obtained for a date reasonably close to that particular date (such as a quarterly closing date before or after that date) if, in the Trustee's judgment, obtaining appraisals or other determinations of value on that date would result in unnecessary expense, and if in the Trustee's judgment, the fair market value as determined is substantially the same as on that actual date. This paragraph will not apply if valuation on a specific date is required to preserve a qualification for a tax benefit, including any deduction, credit, or most favorable allocation of an exemption.

7.22 Incorporation. To incorporate any business or venture, and to continue any unincorporated business that the Trustee determines to be not advisable to incorporate.

7.23 Delegation. To delegate periodically among themselves the authority to perform any act of administration of any trust.

7.24 Advances. To make cash advances or loans to beneficiaries, with or without security.

7.25 Investment Manager. To employ any investment management service, financial institution, or similar organization to advise the Trustee and to handle all investments of the Trust and to render all accountings of funds held on its behalf under custodial, agency, or other agreements. If the Trustee is an individual, these costs may be paid as an expense of administration in addition to fees and commissions.

7.26 Depreciation. To deduct from all receipts attributable to depreciable property a reasonable allowance for depreciation, computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied.

7.27 Disclaim Assets or Powers. To disclaim any assets otherwise passing or any fiduciary powers pertaining to any trust created hereunder, by execution of an instrument of disclaimer meeting the requirements of applicable law generally imposed upon individuals executing disclaimers. No notice to or consent of any beneficiary, other interested person, or any court is required for any such disclaimer, and the Trustee is to be held harmless for any decision to make or not make such a disclaimer.

7.28 Transfer Situs. To transfer the situs of any trust or any trust property to any other jurisdiction as often as the Trustee deems advisable, and if necessary to appoint a substitute or ancillary Trustee to act with respect to that property. The Trustee may delegate to the substitute Trustee any or all of the powers given to the Trustee; may elect to act as advisor to the substitute Trustee and receive reasonable compensation for that service; and may remove any acting or substitute Trustee and appoint another, or reappoint itself, at will.

7.29 Related Parties. To enter into any transaction on behalf of the Trust despite the fact that another party to that transaction may be: (i) a business or trust controlled by the Trustee, or of which the Trustee, or any director, officer, or employee of the Corporate Trustee, is also a director, officer, or employee; (ii) an affiliate or business associate of any beneficiary or the Trustee; or (iii) a beneficiary or Trustee under this Trust Agreement acting individually, or any relative of such a party.

7.30 Additional Powers for Income-Producing Real Estate. In addition to the other powers set forth above or otherwise conferred by law, the Trustee has the following powers with respect to any income-producing real property which is or may become a part of the Trust Estate:

- To retain and operate the property for as long as it deems advisable;
- To control, direct, and manage the property, determining the manner and extent of its active participation in these operations, and to delegate all or any part of its supervisory power to other persons that it selects;

- To hire and discharge employees, fix their compensation, and define their duties;
- To invest funds in other land holdings and to use those funds for all improvements, operations, or other similar purposes;
- Except as otherwise provided with respect to mandatory income distributions, to retain any amount of the net earnings for working capital and other purposes that it deems advisable in conformity with sound and efficient management; and
- To purchase and sell machinery, equipment, and supplies of all kinds as needed for the operation and maintenance of the land holdings.

ARTICLE 8
SUBCHAPTER S STOCK

Despite any other provisions of this Trust Agreement, if a trust created in this instrument is to become the owner of, or already owns, stock in a corporation that has an election in effect (or one that proposes to make an election) under Section 1362 of the Internal Revenue Code (an "S Corporation"), and that trust would not otherwise be permitted to be an S Corporation shareholder, the following provisions will apply:

8.1 Electing Small Business Trust. The Trustee in its discretion may elect for the trust to become an Electing Small Business Trust ("ESBT") as defined in the Internal Revenue Code.

8.2 Qualified Subchapter S Trust. If the Trustee does not cause the trust to become an ESBT, the Trustee shall set aside the S Corporation stock in a separate trust for the current income beneficiary of such trust, so that a Qualified Subchapter S Trust ("QSST") election under Section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code can be filed with respect to that trust. The Trustee shall hold each share as a separate QSST for the persons described above, and each such person will be the sole beneficiary of his or her QSST. To the greatest extent possible, the Trustee shall administer each QSST under the terms of the trust from which it was derived, but subject to the following overriding provisions:

(a) Consent. The Trustee shall notify the beneficiary of each separate trust promptly that a QSST election must be filed with the Internal Revenue Service. Thereafter, each beneficiary shall file a timely and proper QSST election with the Internal Revenue Service. If a beneficiary fails or refuses to make the QSST election, the Trustee shall make an ESBT election for that trust. If the beneficiary does make the QSST election, then his or her separate trust will be administered as set forth below.

(b) Income Payments. During the beneficiary's life, the Trustee shall pay all net income of the trust to the beneficiary (and only to that beneficiary) in quarterly or more frequent installments. The beneficiary's income interest in the trust will terminate on the earlier of his or her death or the termination of the trust under its terms.

(c) Principal Invasions. If the beneficiary is otherwise entitled to receive principal distributions, the Trustee may distribute principal from that separate trust during the beneficiary's life only to or for the benefit of that beneficiary (and no one else).

(d) Final Distribution. If the QSST is terminated during the beneficiary's life, the Trustee shall distribute all remaining assets of that separate trust to that beneficiary. If the beneficiary dies before that trust's termination, all remaining assets of the QSST are to be distributed as provided in the original trust, but subject to this article.

(e) Termination of QSST Status. If a separate trust would cease to qualify as an S Corporation shareholder, the Trustee in its discretion may: (i) make an ESBT election for that separate trust, or (ii) distribute all S Corporation stock to the beneficiary. The Trustee in its discretion also may convert a QSST to an ESBT, whether or not the beneficiary has consented to QSST treatment and, if the beneficiary consents, may convert an ESBT into a QSST.

ARTICLE 9 PERPETUITIES PROVISION

Despite any contrary provisions of this Trust Agreement, from the creation of this Trust and for up to 21 years after the death of the last of the Settlor's grandparents' descendants who are living at the creation of this Trust, a trust beneficiary (which includes persons succeeding to the interest of a deceased beneficiary) will be entitled to terminating distributions only at the ages specified in this Trust Agreement. In all events, however, the share of each beneficiary will vest (in the beneficiary or his or her estate) immediately prior to the expiration of the 21 year period described above.

ARTICLE 10 ADMINISTRATION AND CONSTRUCTION

10.1 Rules for Distributions. In making distributions to beneficiaries under this Trust Agreement, the Trustee must use the following criteria.

(a) Other Resources. Whenever the Trustee has the authority to decide how much to distribute to or for the benefit of a beneficiary, the Trustee can make decisions without taking into account any information about the beneficiary's other available income and resources. The Trustee can make payments directly to a beneficiary or to other persons for the beneficiary's benefit, but it does not have to make payments to a court appointed guardian.

(b) Trustee's Decision. Absent clear and convincing evidence of bad faith, the Trustee's decisions as to amounts to be distributed will be final.

(c) Standard of Living. Distributions to a beneficiary for health, education, support, or maintenance are to be based on his or her standard of living, determined as of the date of the distribution.

10.2 Funding Gifts. The following rules will apply to funding gifts under this Trust Agreement.

(a) Pecuniary Gifts. All pecuniary gifts under this Trust Agreement that are paid by an in-kind distribution of assets must use values having an aggregate fair market value at the date or dates of distribution equal to the amount of this gift as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes.

(b) Adjustments. The Trustee shall select one or more dates of allocation or distribution for purposes of satisfying gifts and funding shares or trusts. The Trustee may make allocations before the final determination of federal estate tax, with those allocations being based upon the information then available to the Trustee, and may thereafter adjust properties among the shares or trusts if it is determined that the allocation should have been made differently.

10.3 Accumulated Income. Any income not distributed to the beneficiaries pursuant to either a mandatory direction or a discretionary power is to be incorporated into principal, at such intervals as the Trustee deems convenient.

10.4 Estate Tax on Included Property. If assets of any trust created under this Trust Agreement are included in a beneficiary's estate for federal estate tax purposes, the following will apply.

(a) Appointed Assets. If the beneficiary exercises a power of appointment over those assets, the Trustee is authorized to withhold from those assets the amount of estate taxes apportioned to them by applicable law, if the beneficiary does not make provisions for the payment of those taxes from other sources.

(b) Other Assets. If the beneficiary does not have or does not exercise a power of appointment over those assets, the Trustee will pay the estate taxes attributable to those assets. The estate taxes attributable to those assets will be the amount that the beneficiary's estate taxes are increased over the amount those taxes would have been if those assets had not been included in the beneficiary's gross estate.

(c) Certification and Payment. The Trustee may rely upon a written certification by the beneficiary's personal representative of the amount of the estate taxes, and may pay those taxes directly or to the personal representative of the beneficiary's estate. The Trustee will not be held liable for making payments as directed by the beneficiary's personal representative.

10.5 Transactions With Other Entities. The Trustee may buy assets from other estates or trusts, or make loans to them, so that funds will be available to pay claims, taxes, and expenses. The Trustee can make those purchases or loans even if it serves as the fiduciary of that estate or trust, and on whatever terms and conditions the Trustee thinks are appropriate, except that the terms of any transaction must be commercially reasonable.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

11.1 Definitions. As used in this Trust Agreement, the following terms have the meanings set forth below:

(a) Trustees.

- (1) Independent Trustee means a trustee of a particular trust, either individual or corporate, who is not the Settlor or a beneficiary, and who is not a Related Person as to the Settlor or a beneficiary (if the Settlor or the beneficiary, respectively, is living and participated in that person's appointment). For purposes of this definition a beneficiary is a person who is a permissible distributee of income or principal, or someone with an interest in the trust in excess of five percent (5%) of its value, assuming a maximum exercise of discretion in his or her favor. Whenever this Trust Agreement requires an action be taken by, or in the discretion of, an Independent Trustee but no such Trustee is then serving, a court may appoint an Independent Trustee to serve as an additional Trustee whose sole function and duty will be to exercise the specified power.
- (2) Corporate Trustee means a trustee that is a bank, trust company, or other entity authorized to serve as a trustee under the laws of the United States or any state thereof that is not a Related Person to the Settlor. A bank or trust company that does not meet this requirement cannot serve as Trustee.

(b) Internal Revenue Code Terms.

- (1) Internal Revenue Code means the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, or successor provisions of future federal internal revenue laws.
- (2) The terms health, education, support, and maintenance are intended to set forth an "ascertainable standard," as described in the Internal Revenue Code and its associated Regulations. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, "health" means a beneficiary's physical and mental health, including but not limited to payments for examinations, surgical, dental, or other treatment, medication, counseling, hospitalization, and health insurance premiums; "education" means elementary, secondary, post-secondary, graduate, or professional schooling in an accredited institution, public or private, or attendance at other formal programs in furtherance of the beneficiary's spiritual, athletic, or artistic education, including but not limited to payments for tuition, books, fees, assessments, equipment, tutoring, transportation, and reasonable living expenses.

- (3) Related Person as to a particular individual is someone who is deemed to be "related or subordinate" to that individual under Section 672(c) of the Internal Revenue Code (as though that individual was a grantor).

(c) Other Terms.

- (1) Distributions that are to be made to a person's descendants, per stirpes, will be divided into equal shares, so that there will be one share for each living child (if any) of that person and one share for each deceased child who has then living descendants. The share of each deceased child will be further divided among his or her descendants on a per stirpes basis, by reapplying the preceding rule to that deceased child and his or her descendants as many times as necessary.
- (2) Disabled or under a disability means (i) being under the legal age of majority, (ii) having been adjudicated to be incapacitated, or (iii) being unable to manage properly personal or financial affairs because of a mental or physical impairment (whether temporary or permanent in nature). A written certificate executed by an individual's attending physician confirming that person's impairment will be sufficient evidence of disability under item (iii) above, and all persons may rely conclusively on such a certificate.
- (3) Removal of a Trustee for cause includes, without limitation, the following: the willful or negligent mismanagement of the trust assets by that individual Trustee; the abuse or abandonment of, or inattention to, the trust by that individual Trustee; a federal or state charge against that individual Trustee involving the commission of a felony or serious misdemeanor; an act of theft, dishonesty, fraud, embezzlement, or moral turpitude by that individual Trustee; or the use of narcotics or excessive use of alcohol by that individual Trustee.

- (4) The words will and shall are used interchangeably in this Trust Agreement and mean, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, that the Trustee must take the action indicated; as used in this Trust Agreement, the word may means that the Trustee has the discretionary authority to take the action but is not automatically required to do so.

11.2 Powers of Appointment. The following provisions relate to all powers of appointment under this Trust Agreement.

- (a) A general power of appointment granted to a person is one that can be exercised in favor of that person or his or her estate, his or her creditors, or the creditors of his or her estate.
- (b) A special power of appointment is any power that is not a general power.
- (c) A testamentary power of appointment (either general or special) is exercisable upon the powerholder's death by his or her Last Will or by a revocable trust agreement established by that person, but only by specific reference to the instrument creating the power. A "testamentary power of appointment" may not be exercised in favor of the person possessing the power.
- (d) In determining whether a person has exercised a testamentary power of appointment, the Trustee may rely upon an instrument admitted to probate in any jurisdiction as that person's Last Will, or upon any trust agreement certified to be valid and authentic by sworn statement of the trustee who is serving under that trust agreement. If the Trustee has not received written notice of such an instrument within six months after the powerholder's death, the Trustee may presume that the powerholder failed to exercise that power and will not be liable for acting in accordance with that presumption.

11.3 Notices. Any person entitled or required to give notice under this Trust Agreement shall exercise that power by a written instrument clearly setting forth the effective date of the action for which notice is being given. The instrument may be executed in counterparts.

11.4 Certifications.

(a) Facts. A certificate signed and acknowledged by the Trustee stating any fact affecting the Trust Estate or the Trust Agreement will be conclusive evidence of such fact in favor of any transfer agent and any other person dealing in good faith with the Trustee. The Trustee may rely on a certificate signed and acknowledged by any beneficiary stating any fact concerning the Trust beneficiaries, including dates of birth, relationships, or marital status, unless an individual serving as Trustee has actual knowledge that the stated fact is false.

(b) Copy. Any person may rely on a copy of this instrument (in whole or in part) certified to be a true copy by the Settlor; by any person specifically named as a Trustee (or successor Trustee); by any Corporate Trustee whether or not specifically named; or, if there are none of the above, by any then serving Trustee.

11.5 Applicable Law. All matters involving the validity and interpretation of this Trust Agreement are to be governed by Florida law. Subject to the provisions of this Trust Agreement, all matters involving the administration of a trust are to be governed by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the trust has its principal place of administration.

11.6 Gender and Number. Reference in this Trust Agreement to any gender includes either masculine or feminine, as appropriate, and reference to any number includes both singular and plural where the context permits or requires. Use of descriptive titles for articles and paragraphs is for the purpose of convenience only and is not intended to restrict the application of those provisions.

11.7 Further Instruments. The Settlor agrees to execute such further instruments as may be necessary to vest the Trustee with full legal title to the property transferred to this Trust.

11.8 Binding Effect. This Trust Agreement extends to and is binding upon the Settlor's Personal Representative, successors, and assigns, and upon the Trustee.

EXHIBIT B

FOR THE JAKE BERNSTEIN IRREVOCABLE TRUST

September 7, 2006

TRUST AGREEMENT
FOR THE
JAKE BERNSTEIN IRREVOCABLE TRUST

SIMON BERNSTEIN, as Settlor, hereby creates the Jake Bernstein Irrevocable Trust ("the Trust") on September 7, 2006. Traci Kratish, P.A. is the trustee of this Trust and, in that capacity, he and his successors are collectively referred to in this Trust Agreement as the "Trustee."

ARTICLE 1
BENEFICIARY

This Trust is for the benefit of the Settlor's Grandchild, JAKE BERNSTEIN.

TRANSFERS TO TRUST

The Settlor hereby conveys to the Trustee all his interest in the assets listed on Schedule A, which together with any assets later added to this Trust are referred to as the "Trust Estate." Any person may transfer assets to the Trust Estate, if the Trustee agrees to accept them. Assets do not have to be listed on Schedule A to be part of the Trust Estate. Unless otherwise specified in writing at the time of the transfer, those assets will be held as provided in this Trust Agreement. The Trustee acknowledges receipt of the current Trust assets and agrees to hold the Trust Estate as set forth in this Trust Agreement.

IRREVOCABLE PROVISION

The Settlor declares that he has no right to alter, amend, modify, or revoke this Trust Agreement; to withdraw assets from the Trust; or to require changes in the investments of the Trust. No part of the Trust may ever revert to the Settlor, be used for his benefit, or be distributed in discharge of his legal obligations.

ADMINISTRATION OF TRUST

The Trustee shall hold, administer, and distribute the Trust Estate in accordance with the powers granted under this Trust Agreement as follows:

4.1 Discretionary Distributions. The Trustee shall pay or apply such sums of principal from this Trust as in the Trustee's discretion are necessary or advisable for Beneficiary's health, education, support, and maintenance.

JAKE BERNSTEIN IRREVOCABLE TRUST

4.2 Distribution of Principal. When Beneficiary has reached age 21, the trustee shall distribute one-half (½) of the corpus of trust to Beneficiary plus accrued income. When Beneficiary has reached age 25 the Trustee shall distribute the entire remaining principal balance of the corpus of the trust to Beneficiary plus accrued income.

4.3 Distribution Upon Death Before Age 25. Upon the death of Beneficiary prior to age 25, the Trustee shall distribute the remaining assets in the trust to the estate of Beneficiary.

ARTICLE 5
PROVISIONS GOVERNING TRUSTEES

The following provisions apply to all Trustees appointed under this Trust Agreement:

5.1 Incapacity of Trustee. If any Trustee becomes disabled, he or she will immediately cease to act as Trustee. If a Trustee who ceases to serve because of a disability, or who is suspended, thereafter recovers from that disability or consents to the release of relevant medical information, he or she may elect to become a Trustee again by giving written notice to the then serving Trustee, and the last Trustee who undertook to serve will then cease to be a Trustee until another successor Trustee is required.

5.2 Resignation. Any Trustee may resign by giving 30 days' written notice delivered personally or by mail to any then serving Co-Trustee and to the Settlor if he is then living and not disabled; otherwise to the next named successor Trustee, or if none, to the persons having power to appoint successor Trustees.

5.3 Power to Name Other Trustees. Whenever a successor Trustee is required and that position is not filled under the terms specified in this Trust Agreement, an individual Trustee ceasing to serve (other than a Trustee being removed) may appoint his or her successor, but if none is appointed, the remaining Trustees, if any, or the beneficiary shall appoint a successor Corporate Trustee. The appointment will be by a written document (including a testamentary instrument) delivered to the appointed Trustee. In no event may the Settlor ever be appointed as the Trustee under this Trust Agreement nor shall a Successor trustee be appointed that will cause this trust to be a grantor trust.

5.4 Powers of Successor Trustees. Successor Trustees will have all powers granted to the original Trustee, except that only an Independent Trustee will succeed to the powers vested exclusively in the Independent Trustee.

5.5 Accountings. Accountings must be given to the beneficiary of each trust at least annually (quarterly if a Corporate Trustee is serving). The accountings must show the assets held in trust and all receipts and disbursements. A beneficiary's written approval of an accounting will be final and binding upon that beneficiary and all persons represented by him or her as to all matters disclosed in that accounting. In any event, if a beneficiary fails to object to an accounting within six months of receiving it, his or her approval is conclusively presumed. A successor Trustee may require the prior Trustee to render a full and final accounting.

5.6 Acts by Other Fiduciaries. The Trustee is not required to question any acts or failures to act of the fiduciary of any other trust or estate, and will not be liable for any prior fiduciary's acts or failures to act. The Trustee can require a beneficiary who requests an examination of another fiduciary's actions or omissions to advance all costs and fees incurred in the examination, and if the beneficiary does not, the Trustee may elect not to proceed or may proceed and offset those costs and fees directly against any payment that would otherwise be made to that beneficiary.

5.7 Court Supervision. The Settlor waives compliance by the Trustee with any law requiring bond, registration, qualification, or accounting to any court.

5.8 Compensation. Each Trustee is entitled to be paid reasonable compensation for services rendered in the administration of the Trust. Reasonable compensation for a Corporate Trustee will be its published fee schedule in effect when its services are rendered unless otherwise agreed in writing, and except as follows. Any fees paid to a Corporate Trustee for making principal distributions, for termination of the trust, and upon termination of its services must be based solely on the value of its services rendered, not on the value of the trust principal. During the Settlor's lifetime the Trustee's fees are to be charged wholly against income (to the extent sufficient), unless directed otherwise by the Settlor in writing.

5.9 Indemnity. Any Trustee who ceases to serve for any reason will be entitled to receive (and the continuing Trustee shall make suitable arrangements to provide) reasonable indemnification and security to protect and hold that Trustee harmless from any damage or liability of any nature that may be imposed upon it because of its actions or omissions while serving as Trustee. This protection, however, does not extend to a Trustee's negligent actions or omissions that clearly and demonstrably result in damage or liability. A prior Trustee may enforce these provisions against the current Trustee or against any assets held in the Trust, or if the prior Trustee is an individual, against any beneficiary to the extent of distributions received by that beneficiary. This indemnification right will extend to the estate, personal representatives, legal successors, and assigns of a Trustee.

5.10 Successor Trustee. In the event the initial Trustee, Steven I. Greenwald, resigns or ceases to serve as Trustee, then and in that event, I hereby appoint Larry V. Bishins to serve as Trustee.

ARTICLE 6
PROTECTION OF INTERESTS

The interest of any beneficiary under this Trust Agreement, in either income or principal, may not be anticipated, alienated, or in any other manner assigned by the beneficiary, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, and will not be subject to any legal process, bankruptcy proceedings, or the interference or control of the beneficiary's creditors or others.

FIDUCIARY POWERS

The Settlor grants to the Trustee full power to deal freely with any property in the Trust. The Trustee may exercise these powers independently and without the approval of any court. No person dealing with the Trustee need inquire into the propriety of any of its actions or into the application of any funds or assets. The Trustee shall, however, exercise all powers in a fiduciary capacity for the best interest of the beneficiary of this Trust or any trust created under it. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustee is given the following discretionary powers in addition to any other powers conferred by law:

7.1 Type of Assets. Except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to hold funds uninvested for such periods as the Trustee deems prudent, and to invest in any assets the Trustee deems advisable even though they are not technically recognized or specifically listed in so-called "legal lists," without responsibility for depreciation or loss on account of those investments, or because those investments are non-productive, as long as the Trustee acts in good faith.

7.2 Original Assets. Except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to retain the original assets it receives for as long as it deems best, and to dispose of those assets when it deems advisable, even though such assets, because of their character or lack of diversification, would otherwise be considered improper investments for the Trustee.

7.3 Tangible Personal Property. To receive and hold tangible personal property; to pay or refrain from paying storage and insurance charges for such property; and to permit any beneficiaries to use such property without either the Trustee or beneficiaries incurring any liability for wear, tear, and obsolescence of the property.

7.4 Specific Securities. To invest in assets, securities, or interests in securities of any nature, including (without limit) commodities, options, futures, precious metals, currencies, and in domestic and foreign markets and in mutual or investment funds, including funds for which the Trustee or any affiliate performs services for additional fees, whether as custodian, transfer agent, investment advisor or otherwise, or in securities distributed, underwritten, or issued by the Trustee or by syndicates of which it is a member; to trade on credit or margin accounts (whether secured or unsecured); and to pledge assets of the Trust Estate for that purpose.

7.5 Property Transactions. To buy, sell, pledge, exchange, or lease any real or personal property, publicly or privately, for cash or credit, without court approval and upon the terms and conditions that the Trustee deems advisable; to execute deeds, leases, contracts, bills of sale, notes, mortgages, security instruments, and other written instruments; to abandon or dispose of any real or personal property in the Trust which has little or no monetary or useful value; to improve, repair, insure, subdivide and vacate any property; to erect, alter or demolish buildings; to adjust boundaries; and to impose easements, restrictions, and covenants as the Trustee sees fit. A lease will be valid and binding for its full term even if it extends beyond the full duration of the Trust.

7.6 Borrow Money. To borrow money from any source (including the Trustee in its nonfiduciary capacity), to guarantee indebtedness, and to secure the loan or guaranty by mortgage or other security interest.

7.7 Maintain Assets. To expend whatever funds it deems proper for the preservation, maintenance, or improvement of assets. The Trustee in its discretion may elect any options or settlements or exercise any rights under all insurance policies that it holds. However, no fiduciary who is the insured of any insurance policy held in the Trust may exercise any rights or have any incidents of ownership with respect to the policy, including the power to change the beneficiary, to surrender or cancel the policy, to assign the policy, to revoke any assignment, to pledge the policy for a loan, or to obtain from the insurer a loan against the surrender value of the policy. All such power is to be exercised solely by the remaining Trustee, if any, or if none, by a special fiduciary appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.8 Advisors. To employ and compensate attorneys, accountants, advisors, financial consultants, managers, agents, and assistants (including any individual or entity who provides investment advisory or management services, or who furnishes professional assistance in making investments for the Trust) without liability for any act of those persons, if they are selected and retained with reasonable care. Fees may be paid from the Trust Estate even if the services were rendered in connection with ancillary proceedings.

7.9 Indirect Distributions. To make distributions, whether of principal or income, to any person under age 21 or to any incapacitated person according to the terms of this Trust Agreement by making distributions directly to that person whether or not that person has a guardian; to the parent, guardian, or spouse of that person; to a custodial account established by the Trustee or others for that person under an applicable Uniform Gift to Minors Act or Uniform Transfers to Minors Act; to any adult who resides in the same household with that person or who is otherwise responsible for the care and well-being of that person; or by applying any distribution for the benefit of that person in any manner the Trustee deems proper. The receipt of the person to whom payment is made will constitute full discharge of the Trustee with respect to that payment. No distributions may be made to the Settlor under this Section.

7.10 Non-Pro Rata Distribution. To make any division or distribution in money or in kind, or both, without allocating the same kind of property to all shares or distributees, and without regard to the income tax basis of the property. Any division will be binding and conclusive on all parties.

7.11 Nominee. Except as prohibited by law, to hold any assets in the name of a nominee without disclosing the fiduciary relationship; to hold the property unregistered, without affecting its liability; and to hold securities endorsed in blank, in street certificates, at a depository trust company, or in a book entry system.

7.12 Custodian. To employ a custodian or agent ("the Custodian") located anywhere within the United States, at the discretion of the Trustee but at the expense of the Trust, whether or not such Custodian is an affiliate of the Trustee or any person rendering services to the Trust; to register securities in the name of the Custodian or a nominee thereof without designation of fiduciary capacity; and to appoint the Custodian to perform such other ministerial functions as the Trustee may direct. While such securities are in the custody of the Custodian, the Trustee will be under no obligation to inspect or verify such securities nor will the Trustee be responsible for any loss by the Custodian.

7.13 Settle Claims. To contest, compromise, arbitrate, or otherwise adjust claims in favor of or against the Trust, to agree to any rescission or modification of any contract or agreement, and to refrain from instituting any suit or action unless indemnified for reasonable costs and expenses.

7.14 Corporate Rights. To vote and exercise any option, right, or privilege to purchase or to convert bonds, notes, stock (including shares or fractional shares of stock of any Corporate Trustee), securities, or other property; to borrow money for the purpose of exercising any such option, right, or privilege; to delegate those rights to an agent; to enter into voting trusts and other agreements or subscriptions; to participate in any type of liquidation or reorganization of any enterprise; and to write and sell covered call options, puts, calls, straddles, or other methods of buying or selling securities, as well as all related transactions.

7.15 Partnership Interests. To hold interests in sole proprietorships, general or limited partnerships, joint ventures, business trusts, land trusts, limited liability companies, and other domestic and foreign forms of organizations; and to exercise all rights in connection with such interests as the Trustee deems appropriate, including any powers applicable to a non-admitted transferee of any such interest.

7.16 Self-Dealing. To exercise all its powers even though it may also be acting individually or on behalf of any other person or entity interested in the same matters. The Trustee, however, shall exercise these powers at all times in a fiduciary capacity, primarily in the interest of the beneficiaries of the Trust. Despite any other provision of this Trust Agreement, no Trustee may participate in the decision to make a discretionary distribution that would discharge a legal support obligation of that Trustee. No Trustee who has made a disclaimer, either individually or as a Trustee, may exercise any discretion in determining the recipient of the disclaimed property. All power to make such distributions, or to determine recipients of disclaimed property, will be exercised solely by the remaining Trustees, if any, or if there are no other Trustees then serving, by the person or persons named to serve as the next successor Trustee, or if there are none, by a special Trustee appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.17 Expenses. An Independent Trustee may determine how expenses of administration and receipts are to be apportioned between principal and income.

7.18 Terminate Small Trusts. To exercise its discretion to refrain from funding or to terminate any trust whenever the value of the principal of that trust would be or is too small to administer economically, and to distribute the remaining principal and all accumulated income of the trust as provided in Section 7.9 to the income beneficiary of that trust. The Trustee shall exercise this power to terminate in its discretion as it deems prudent for the best interest of the beneficiaries at that time. This power cannot be exercised by the Settlor or any beneficiary, either alone or in conjunction with any other Trustee, but must be exercised solely by the other Trustee, or if none, by a special Trustee appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.19 Allocations to Income and Principal. To treat premiums and discounts on bonds and other obligations for the payment of money in accordance with either generally accepted accounting principles or tax accounting principles and, except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to hold nonproductive assets without allocating any principal to income, despite any laws or rules to the contrary. The Trustee in its discretion may exercise the power described in Section 738.104 of the Florida Statutes to adjust between principal and income, as appropriate, and, in addition, may convert any income interest into a unitrust interest, or a unitrust interest to an income interest, as it sees fit, all as provided in Section 738.1041 of the Florida Statutes, despite any provision of those sections to the contrary.

7.20 Use of Income. Except as otherwise provided in this Trust Agreement, and in addition to all other available sources, to exercise its discretion in the use of income from the assets of the Trust to satisfy the liabilities described in this Trust Agreement, without accountability to any beneficiary.

7.21 Valuations. In making distributions or allocations under the terms of this Trust Agreement to be valued as of a particular date, the Trustee may use asset valuations obtained for a date reasonably close to that particular date (such as a quarterly closing date before or after that date) if, in the Trustee's judgment, obtaining appraisals or other determinations of value on that date would result in unnecessary expense, and if in the Trustee's judgment, the fair market value as determined is substantially the same as on that actual date. This paragraph will not apply if valuation on a specific date is required to preserve a qualification for a tax benefit, including any deduction, credit, or most favorable allocation of an exemption.

7.22 Incorporation. To incorporate any business or venture, and to continue any unincorporated business that the Trustee determines to be not advisable to incorporate.

7.23 Delegation. To delegate periodically among themselves the authority to perform any act of administration of any trust.

7.24 Advances. To make cash advances or loans to beneficiaries, with or without security.

7.25 Investment Manager. To employ any investment management service, financial institution, or similar organization to advise the Trustee and to handle all investments of the Trust and to render all accountings of funds held on its behalf under custodial, agency, or other agreements. If the Trustee is an individual, these costs may be paid as an expense of administration in addition to fees and commissions.

7.26 Depreciation. To deduct from all receipts attributable to depreciable property a reasonable allowance for depreciation, computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied.

7.27 Disclaim Assets or Powers. To disclaim any assets otherwise passing or any fiduciary powers pertaining to any trust created hereunder, by execution of an instrument of disclaimer meeting the requirements of applicable law generally imposed upon individuals executing disclaimers. No notice to or consent of any beneficiary, other interested person, or any court is required for any such disclaimer, and the Trustee is to be held harmless for any decision to make or not make such a disclaimer.

7.28 Transfer Situs. To transfer the situs of any trust or any trust property to any other jurisdiction as often as the Trustee deems advisable, and if necessary to appoint a substitute or ancillary Trustee to act with respect to that property. The Trustee may delegate to the substitute Trustee any or all of the powers given to the Trustee; may elect to act as advisor to the substitute Trustee and receive reasonable compensation for that service; and may remove any acting or substitute Trustee and appoint another, or reappoint itself, at will.

7.29 Related Parties. To enter into any transaction on behalf of the Trust despite the fact that another party to that transaction may be: (i) a business or trust controlled by the Trustee, or of which the Trustee, or any director, officer, or employee of the Corporate Trustee, is also a director, officer, or employee; (ii) an affiliate or business associate of any beneficiary or the Trustee; or (iii) a beneficiary or Trustee under this Trust Agreement acting individually, or any relative of such a party.

7.30 Additional Powers for Income-Producing Real Estate. In addition to the other powers set forth above or otherwise conferred by law, the Trustee has the following powers with respect to any income-producing real property which is or may become a part of the Trust Estate:

- To retain and operate the property for as long as it deems advisable;
- To control, direct, and manage the property, determining the manner and extent of its active participation in these operations, and to delegate all or any part of its supervisory power to other persons that it selects;
- To hire and discharge employees, fix their compensation, and define their duties;
- To invest funds in other land holdings and to use those funds for all improvements, operations, or other similar purposes;
- Except as otherwise provided with respect to mandatory income distributions, to retain any amount of the net earnings for working capital and other purposes that it deems advisable in conformity with sound and efficient management; and
- To purchase and sell machinery, equipment, and supplies of all kinds as needed for the operation and maintenance of the land holdings.

ARTICLE 8 SUBCHAPTER S STOCK

Despite any other provisions of this Trust Agreement, if a trust created in this instrument is to become the owner of, or already owns, stock in a corporation that has an election in effect (or one that proposes to make an election) under Section 1362 of the Internal Revenue Code (an "S Corporation"), and that trust would not otherwise be permitted to be an S Corporation shareholder, the following provisions will apply:

8.1 Electing Small Business Trust. The Trustee in its discretion may elect for the trust to become an Electing Small Business Trust ("ESBT") as defined in the Internal Revenue Code.

8.2 Qualified Subchapter S Trust. If the Trustee does not cause the trust to become an ESBT, the Trustee shall set aside the S Corporation stock in a separate trust for the current income beneficiary of such trust, so that a Qualified Subchapter S Trust ("QSST") election under Section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code can be filed with respect to that trust. The Trustee shall hold each share as a separate QSST for the persons described above, and each such person will be the sole beneficiary of his or her QSST. To the greatest extent possible, the Trustee shall administer each QSST under the terms of the trust from which it was derived, but subject to the following overriding provisions:

(a) Consent. The Trustee shall notify the beneficiary of each separate trust promptly that a QSST election must be filed with the Internal Revenue Service. Thereafter, each beneficiary shall file a timely and proper QSST election with the Internal Revenue Service. If a beneficiary fails or refuses to make the QSST election, the Trustee shall make an ESBT election for that trust. If the beneficiary does make the QSST election, then his or her separate trust will be administered as set forth below.

(b) Income Payments. During the beneficiary's life, the Trustee shall pay all net income of the trust to the beneficiary (and only to that beneficiary) in quarterly or more frequent installments. The beneficiary's income interest in the trust will terminate on the earlier of his or her death or the termination of the trust under its terms.

(c) Principal Invasions. If the beneficiary is otherwise entitled to receive principal distributions, the Trustee may distribute principal from that separate trust during the beneficiary's life only to or for the benefit of that beneficiary (and no one else).

(d) Final Distribution. If the QSST is terminated during the beneficiary's life, the Trustee shall distribute all remaining assets of that separate trust to that beneficiary. If the beneficiary dies before that trust's termination, all remaining assets of the QSST are to be distributed as provided in the original trust, but subject to this article.

(e) Termination of QSST Status. If a separate trust would cease to qualify as an S Corporation shareholder, the Trustee in its discretion may: (i) make an ESBT election for that separate trust, or (ii) distribute all S Corporation stock to the beneficiary. The Trustee in its discretion also may convert a QSST to an ESBT, whether or not the beneficiary has consented to QSST treatment and, if the beneficiary consents, may convert an ESBT into a QSST.

PERPETUITIES PROVISION

Despite any contrary provisions of this Trust Agreement, from the creation of this Trust and for up to 21 years after the death of the last of the Settlor's grandparents' descendants who are living at the creation of this Trust, a trust beneficiary (which includes persons succeeding to the interest of a deceased beneficiary) will be entitled to terminating distributions only at the ages specified in this Trust Agreement. In all events, however, the share of each beneficiary will vest (in the beneficiary or his or her estate) immediately prior to the expiration of the 21 year period described above.

ADMINISTRATION AND CONSTRUCTION

10.1 Rules for Distributions. In making distributions to beneficiaries under this Trust Agreement, the Trustee must use the following criteria.

(a) Other Resources. Whenever the Trustee has the authority to decide how much to distribute to or for the benefit of a beneficiary, the Trustee can make decisions without taking into account any information about the beneficiary's other available income and resources. The Trustee can make payments directly to a beneficiary or to other persons for the beneficiary's benefit, but it does not have to make payments to a court appointed guardian.

(b) Trustee's Decision. Absent clear and convincing evidence of bad faith, the Trustee's decisions as to amounts to be distributed will be final.

(c) Standard of Living. Distributions to a beneficiary for health, education, support, or maintenance are to be based on his or her standard of living, determined as of the date of the distribution.

10.2 Funding Gifts. The following rules will apply to funding gifts under this Trust Agreement.

(a) Pecuniary Gifts. All pecuniary gifts under this Trust Agreement that are paid by an in-kind distribution of assets must use values having an aggregate fair market value at the date or dates of distribution equal to the amount of this gift as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes.

(b) Adjustments. The Trustee shall select one or more dates of allocation or distribution for purposes of satisfying gifts and funding shares or trusts. The Trustee may make allocations before the final determination of federal estate tax, with those allocations being based upon the information then available to the Trustee, and may thereafter adjust properties among the shares or trusts if it is determined that the allocation should have been made differently.

10.3 Accumulated Income. Any income not distributed to the beneficiaries pursuant to either a mandatory direction or a discretionary power is to be incorporated into principal, at such intervals as the Trustee deems convenient.

10.4 Estate Tax on Included Property. If assets of any trust created under this Trust Agreement are included in a beneficiary's estate for federal estate tax purposes, the following will apply.

(a) Appointed Assets. If the beneficiary exercises a power of appointment over those assets, the Trustee is authorized to withhold from those assets the amount of estate taxes apportioned to them by applicable law, if the beneficiary does not make provisions for the payment of those taxes from other sources.

(b) Other Assets. If the beneficiary does not have or does not exercise a power of appointment over those assets, the Trustee will pay the estate taxes attributable to those assets. The estate taxes attributable to those assets will be the amount that the beneficiary's estate taxes are increased over the amount those taxes would have been if those assets had not been included in the beneficiary's gross estate.

(c) Certification and Payment. The Trustee may rely upon a written certification by the beneficiary's personal representative of the amount of the estate taxes, and may pay those taxes directly or to the personal representative of the beneficiary's estate. The Trustee will not be held liable for making payments as directed by the beneficiary's personal representative.

10.5 Transactions With Other Entities. The Trustee may buy assets from other estates or trusts, or make loans to them, so that funds will be available to pay claims, taxes, and expenses. The Trustee can make those purchases or loans even if it serves as the fiduciary of that estate or trust, and on whatever terms and conditions the Trustee thinks are appropriate, except that the terms of any transaction must be commercially reasonable.

ARTICLE 11 MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

11.1 Definitions. As used in this Trust Agreement, the following terms have the meanings set forth below:

(a) Trustees.

- (1) Independent Trustee means a trustee of a particular trust, either individual or corporate, who is not the Settlor or a beneficiary, and who is not a Related Person as to the Settlor or a beneficiary (if the Settlor or the beneficiary, respectively, is living and participated in that person's appointment). For purposes of this definition a beneficiary is a person who is a permissible distributee of income or principal, or someone with an interest in the trust in excess of five percent (5%) of its value, assuming a maximum exercise of discretion in his or her favor. Whenever this Trust Agreement requires an action be taken by, or in the discretion of, an Independent Trustee but no such Trustee is then serving, a court may appoint an Independent Trustee to serve as an additional Trustee whose sole function and duty will be to exercise the specified power.
- (2) Corporate Trustee means a trustee that is a bank, trust company, or other entity authorized to serve as a trustee under the laws of the United States or any state thereof that is not a Related Person to the Settlor. A bank or trust company that does not meet this requirement cannot serve as Trustee.

(b) Internal Revenue Code Terms.

- (1) Internal Revenue Code means the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, or successor provisions of future federal internal revenue laws.
- (2) The terms health, education, support, and maintenance are intended to set forth an "ascertainable standard," as described in the Internal Revenue Code and its associated Regulations. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, "health" means a beneficiary's physical and mental health, including but not limited to payments for examinations, surgical, dental, or other treatment, medication, counseling, hospitalization, and health insurance premiums; "education" means elementary, secondary, post-secondary, graduate, or professional schooling in an accredited institution, public or private, or attendance at other formal programs in furtherance of the beneficiary's spiritual, athletic, or artistic education, including but not limited to payments for tuition, books, fees, assessments, equipment, tutoring, transportation, and reasonable living expenses.

- (3) Related Person as to a particular individual is someone who is deemed to be "related or subordinate" to that individual under Section 672(c) of the Internal Revenue Code (as though that individual was a grantor).

(c) Other Terms.

- (1) Distributions that are to be made to a person's descendants, per stirpes, will be divided into equal shares, so that there will be one share for each living child (if any) of that person and one share for each deceased child who has then living descendants. The share of each deceased child will be further divided among his or her descendants on a per stirpes basis, by reapplying the preceding rule to that deceased child and his or her descendants as many times as necessary.
- (2) Disabled or under a disability means (i) being under the legal age of majority, (ii) having been adjudicated to be incapacitated, or (iii) being unable to manage properly personal or financial affairs because of a mental or physical impairment (whether temporary or permanent in nature). A written certificate executed by an individual's attending physician confirming that person's impairment will be sufficient evidence of disability under item (iii) above, and all persons may rely conclusively on such a certificate.
- (3) Removal of a Trustee for cause includes, without limitation, the following: the willful or negligent mismanagement of the trust assets by that individual Trustee; the abuse or abandonment of, or inattention to, the trust by that individual Trustee; a federal or state charge against that individual Trustee involving the commission of a felony or serious misdemeanor; an act of theft, dishonesty, fraud, embezzlement, or moral turpitude by that individual Trustee; or the use of narcotics or excessive use of alcohol by that individual Trustee.
- (4) The words will and shall are used interchangeably in this Trust Agreement and mean, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, that the Trustee must take the action indicated; as used in this Trust Agreement, the word may means that the Trustee has the discretionary authority to take the action but is not automatically required to do so.

11.2 Powers of Appointment. The following provisions relate to all powers of appointment under this Trust Agreement.

- (a) A general power of appointment granted to a person is one that can be exercised in favor of that person or his or her estate, his or her creditors, or the creditors of his or her estate.
- (b) A special power of appointment is any power that is not a general power.
- (c) A testamentary power of appointment (either general or special) is exercisable upon the powerholder's death by his or her Last Will or by a revocable trust agreement established by that person, but only by specific reference to the instrument creating the power. A "testamentary power of appointment" may not be exercised in favor of the person possessing the power.
- (d) In determining whether a person has exercised a testamentary power of appointment, the Trustee may rely upon an instrument admitted to probate in any jurisdiction as that person's Last Will, or upon any trust agreement certified to be valid and authentic by sworn statement of the trustee who is serving under that trust agreement. If the Trustee has not received written notice of such an instrument within six months after the powerholder's death, the Trustee may presume that the powerholder failed to exercise that power and will not be liable for acting in accordance with that presumption.

11.3 Notices. Any person entitled or required to give notice under this Trust Agreement shall exercise that power by a written instrument clearly setting forth the effective date of the action for which notice is being given. The instrument may be executed in counterparts.

11.4 Certifications.

(a) Facts. A certificate signed and acknowledged by the Trustee stating any fact affecting the Trust Estate or the Trust Agreement will be conclusive evidence of such fact in favor of any transfer agent and any other person dealing in good faith with the Trustee. The Trustee may rely on a certificate signed and acknowledged by any beneficiary stating any fact concerning the Trust beneficiaries, including dates of birth, relationships, or marital status, unless an individual serving as Trustee has actual knowledge that the stated fact is false.

(b) Copy. Any person may rely on a copy of this instrument (in whole or in part) certified to be a true copy by the Settlor; by any person specifically named as a Trustee (or successor Trustee); by any Corporate Trustee whether or not specifically named; or, if there are none of the above, by any then serving Trustee.

11.5 Applicable Law. All matters involving the validity and interpretation of this Trust Agreement are to be governed by Florida law. Subject to the provisions of this Trust Agreement, all matters involving the administration of a trust are to be governed by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the trust has its principal place of administration.

11.6 Gender and Number. Reference in this Trust Agreement to any gender includes either masculine or feminine, as appropriate, and reference to any number includes both singular and plural where the context permits or requires. Use of descriptive titles for articles and paragraphs is for the purpose of convenience only and is not intended to restrict the application of those provisions.

11.7 Further Instruments. The Settlor agrees to execute such further instruments as may be necessary to vest the Trustee with full legal title to the property transferred to this Trust.

11.8 Binding Effect. This Trust Agreement extends to and is binding upon the Settlor's Personal Representative, successors, and assigns, and upon the Trustee.

FOR THE
DANIEL BERNSTEIN IRREVOCABLE TRUST

September 7, 2006

FOR THE
DANIEL BERNSTEIN IRREVOCABLE TRUST

SIMON BERNSTEIN, as Settlor, hereby creates the Daniel Bernstein Irrevocable Trust ("the Trust") on September 7, 2006. Traci Kratish, P.A. is the trustee of this Trust and, in that capacity, he and his successors are collectively referred to in this Trust Agreement as the "Trustee."

BENEFICIARY

This Trust is for the benefit of the Settlor's Grandchild, DANIEL BERNSTEIN ("Beneficiary").

TRANSFERS TO TRUST

The Settlor hereby conveys to the Trustee all his interest in the assets listed on Schedule A, which together with any assets later added to this Trust are referred to as the "Trust Estate." Any person may transfer assets to the Trust Estate, if the Trustee agrees to accept them. Assets do not have to be listed on Schedule A to be part of the Trust Estate. Unless otherwise specified in writing at the time of the transfer, those assets will be held as provided in this Trust Agreement. The Trustee acknowledges receipt of the current Trust assets and agrees to hold the Trust Estate as set forth in this Trust Agreement.

IRREVOCABLE PROVISION

The Settlor declares that he has no right to alter, amend, modify, or revoke this Trust Agreement; to withdraw assets from the Trust; or to require changes in the investments of the Trust. No part of the Trust may ever revert to the Settlor, be used for his benefit, or be distributed in discharge of his legal obligations.

ADMINISTRATION OF TRUST

The Trustee shall hold, administer, and distribute the Trust Estate in accordance with the powers granted under this Trust Agreement as follows:

4.1 Discretionary Distributions. The Trustee shall pay or apply such sums of principal from this Trust as in the Trustee's discretion are necessary or advisable for Beneficiary's health, education, support, and maintenance.

4.2 Distribution of Principal. When Beneficiary has reached age 21, the trustee shall distribute one-half (½) of the corpus of trust to Beneficiary plus accrued income. When Beneficiary has reached age 25 the Trustee shall distribute the entire remaining principal balance of the corpus of the trust to Beneficiary plus accrued income.

4.3 Distribution Upon Death Before Age 25. Upon the death of Beneficiary prior to age 25, the Trustee shall distribute the remaining assets in the trust to the estate of Beneficiary.

ARTICLE 5 PROVISIONS GOVERNING TRUSTEES

The following provisions apply to all Trustees appointed under this Trust Agreement:

5.1 Incapacity of Trustee. If any Trustee becomes disabled, he or she will immediately cease to act as Trustee. If a Trustee who ceases to serve because of a disability, or who is suspended, thereafter recovers from that disability or consents to the release of relevant medical information, he or she may elect to become a Trustee again by giving written notice to the then serving Trustee, and the last Trustee who undertook to serve will then cease to be a Trustee until another successor Trustee is required.

5.2 Resignation. Any Trustee may resign by giving 30 days' written notice delivered personally or by mail to any then serving Co-Trustee and to the Settlor if he is then living and not disabled; otherwise to the next named successor Trustee, or if none, to the persons having power to appoint successor Trustees.

5.3 Power to Name Other Trustees. Whenever a successor Trustee is required and that position is not filled under the terms specified in this Trust Agreement, an individual Trustee ceasing to serve (other than a Trustee being removed) may appoint his or her successor, but if none is appointed, the remaining Trustees, if any, or the beneficiary shall appoint a successor Corporate Trustee. The appointment will be by a written document (including a testamentary instrument) delivered to the appointed Trustee. In no event may the Settlor ever be appointed as the Trustee under this Trust Agreement nor shall a Successor trustee be appointed that will cause this trust to be a grantor trust.

5.4 Powers of Successor Trustees. Successor Trustees will have all powers granted to the original Trustee, except that only an Independent Trustee will succeed to the powers vested exclusively in the Independent Trustee.

5.5 Accountings. Accountings must be given to the beneficiary of each trust at least annually (quarterly if a Corporate Trustee is serving). The accountings must show the assets held in trust and all receipts and disbursements. A beneficiary's written approval of an accounting will be final and binding upon that beneficiary and all persons represented by him or her as to all matters disclosed in that accounting. In any event, if a beneficiary fails to object to an accounting within six months of receiving it, his or her approval is conclusively presumed. A successor Trustee may require the prior Trustee to render a full and final accounting.

5.6 Acts by Other Fiduciaries. The Trustee is not required to question any acts or failures to act of the fiduciary of any other trust or estate, and will not be liable for any prior fiduciary's acts or failures to act. The Trustee can require a beneficiary who requests an examination of another fiduciary's actions or omissions to advance all costs and fees incurred in the examination, and if the beneficiary does not, the Trustee may elect not to proceed or may proceed and offset those costs and fees directly against any payment that would otherwise be made to that beneficiary.

5.7 Court Supervision. The Settlor waives compliance by the Trustee with any law requiring bond, registration, qualification, or accounting to any court.

5.8 Compensation. Each Trustee is entitled to be paid reasonable compensation for services rendered in the administration of the Trust. Reasonable compensation for a Corporate Trustee will be its published fee schedule in effect when its services are rendered unless otherwise agreed in writing, and except as follows. Any fees paid to a Corporate Trustee for making principal distributions, for termination of the trust, and upon termination of its services must be based solely on the value of its services rendered, not on the value of the trust principal. During the Settlor's lifetime the Trustee's fees are to be charged wholly against income (to the extent sufficient), unless directed otherwise by the Settlor in writing.

5.9 Indemnity. Any Trustee who ceases to serve for any reason will be entitled to receive (and the continuing Trustee shall make suitable arrangements to provide) reasonable indemnification and security to protect and hold that Trustee harmless from any damage or liability of any nature that may be imposed upon it because of its actions or omissions while serving as Trustee. This protection, however, does not extend to a Trustee's negligent actions or omissions that clearly and demonstrably result in damage or liability. A prior Trustee may enforce these provisions against the current Trustee or against any assets held in the Trust, or if the prior Trustee is an individual, against any beneficiary to the extent of distributions received by that beneficiary. This indemnification right will extend to the estate, personal representatives, legal successors, and assigns of a Trustee.

5.10 Successor Trustee. In the event the initial Trustee, Steven I. Greenwald, resigns or ceases to serve as Trustee, then and in that event, I hereby appoint Larry V. Bishins to serve as Trustee.

ARTICLE 6
PROTECTION OF INTERESTS

The interest of any beneficiary under this Trust Agreement, in either income or principal, may not be anticipated, alienated, or in any other manner assigned by the beneficiary, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, and will not be subject to any legal process, bankruptcy proceedings, or the interference or control of the beneficiary's creditors or others.

ARTICLE 7
FIDUCIARY POWERS

The Settlor grants to the Trustee full power to deal freely with any property in the Trust. The Trustee may exercise these powers independently and without the approval of any court. No person dealing with the Trustee need inquire into the propriety of any of its actions or into the application of any funds or assets. The Trustee shall, however, exercise all powers in a fiduciary capacity for the best interest of the beneficiary of this Trust or any trust created under it. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustee is given the following discretionary powers in addition to any other powers conferred by law:

7.1 Type of Assets. Except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to hold funds uninvested for such periods as the Trustee deems prudent, and to invest in any assets the Trustee deems advisable even though they are not technically recognized or specifically listed in so-called "legal lists," without responsibility for depreciation or loss on account of those investments, or because those investments are non-productive, as long as the Trustee acts in good faith.

7.2 Original Assets. Except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to retain the original assets it receives for as long as it deems best, and to dispose of those assets when it deems advisable, even though such assets, because of their character or lack of diversification, would otherwise be considered improper investments for the Trustee.

7.3 Tangible Personal Property. To receive and hold tangible personal property; to pay or refrain from paying storage and insurance charges for such property; and to permit any beneficiaries to use such property without either the Trustee or beneficiaries incurring any liability for wear, tear, and obsolescence of the property.

7.4 Specific Securities. To invest in assets, securities, or interests in securities of any nature, including (without limit) commodities, options, futures, precious metals, currencies, and in domestic and foreign markets and in mutual or investment funds, including funds for which the Trustee or any affiliate performs services for additional fees, whether as custodian, transfer agent, investment advisor or otherwise, or in securities distributed, underwritten, or issued by the Trustee or by syndicates of which it is a member; to trade on credit or margin accounts (whether secured or unsecured); and to pledge assets of the Trust Estate for that purpose.

7.5 Property Transactions. To buy, sell, pledge, exchange, or lease any real or personal property, publicly or privately, for cash or credit, without court approval and upon the terms and conditions that the Trustee deems advisable; to execute deeds, leases, contracts, bills of sale, notes, mortgages, security instruments, and other written instruments; to abandon or dispose of any real or personal property in the Trust which has little or no monetary or useful value; to improve, repair, insure, subdivide and vacate any property; to erect, alter or demolish buildings; to adjust boundaries; and to impose easements, restrictions, and covenants as the Trustee sees fit. A lease will be valid and binding for its full term even if it extends beyond the full duration of the Trust.

7.6 Borrow Money. To borrow money from any source (including the Trustee in its nonfiduciary capacity), to guarantee indebtedness, and to secure the loan or guaranty by mortgage or other security interest.

7.7 Maintain Assets. To expend whatever funds it deems proper for the preservation, maintenance, or improvement of assets. The Trustee in its discretion may elect any options or settlements or exercise any rights under all insurance policies that it holds. However, no fiduciary who is the insured of any insurance policy held in the Trust may exercise any rights or have any incidents of ownership with respect to the policy, including the power to change the beneficiary, to surrender or cancel the policy, to assign the policy, to revoke any assignment, to pledge the policy for a loan, or to obtain from the insurer a loan against the surrender value of the policy. All such power is to be exercised solely by the remaining Trustee, if any, or if none, by a special fiduciary appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.8 Advisors. To employ and compensate attorneys, accountants, advisors, financial consultants, managers, agents, and assistants (including any individual or entity who provides investment advisory or management services, or who furnishes professional assistance in making investments for the Trust) without liability for any act of those persons, if they are selected and retained with reasonable care. Fees may be paid from the Trust Estate even if the services were rendered in connection with ancillary proceedings.

7.9 Indirect Distributions. To make distributions, whether of principal or income, to any person under age 21 or to any incapacitated person according to the terms of this Trust Agreement by making distributions directly to that person whether or not that person has a guardian; to the parent, guardian, or spouse of that person; to a custodial account established by the Trustee or others for that person under an applicable Uniform

Gift to Minors Act or Uniform Transfers to Minors Act; to any adult who resides in the same household with that person or who is otherwise responsible for the care and well-being of that person; or by applying any distribution for the benefit of that person in any manner the Trustee deems proper. The receipt of the person to whom payment is made will constitute full discharge of the Trustee with respect to that payment. No distributions may be made to the Settlor under this Section.

7.10 Non-Pro Rata Distribution. To make any division or distribution in money or in kind, or both, without allocating the same kind of property to all shares or distributees, and without regard to the income tax basis of the property. Any division will be binding and conclusive on all parties.

7.11 Nominee. Except as prohibited by law, to hold any assets in the name of a nominee without disclosing the fiduciary relationship; to hold the property unregistered, without affecting its liability; and to hold securities endorsed in blank, in street certificates, at a depository trust company, or in a book entry system.

7.12 Custodian. To employ a custodian or agent ("the Custodian") located anywhere within the United States, at the discretion of the Trustee but at the expense of the Trust, whether or not such Custodian is an affiliate of the Trustee or any person rendering services to the Trust; to register securities in the name of the Custodian or a nominee thereof without designation of fiduciary capacity; and to appoint the Custodian to perform such other ministerial functions as the Trustee may direct. While such securities are in the custody of the Custodian, the Trustee will be under no obligation to inspect or verify such securities nor will the Trustee be responsible for any loss by the Custodian.

7.13 Settle Claims. To contest, compromise, arbitrate, or otherwise adjust claims in favor of or against the Trust, to agree to any rescission or modification of any contract or agreement, and to refrain from instituting any suit or action unless indemnified for reasonable costs and expenses.

7.14 Corporate Rights. To vote and exercise any option, right, or privilege to purchase or to convert bonds, notes, stock (including shares or fractional shares of stock of any Corporate Trustee), securities, or other property; to borrow money for the purpose of exercising any such option, right, or privilege; to delegate those rights to an agent; to enter into voting trusts and other agreements or subscriptions; to participate in any type of liquidation or reorganization of any enterprise; and to write and sell covered call options, puts, calls, straddles, or other methods of buying or selling securities, as well as all related transactions.

7.15 Partnership Interests. To hold interests in sole proprietorships, general or limited partnerships, joint ventures, business trusts, land trusts, limited liability companies, and other domestic and foreign forms of organizations; and to exercise all rights in connection with such interests as the Trustee deems appropriate, including any powers applicable to a non-admitted transferee of any such interest.

7.16 Self-Dealing. To exercise all its powers even though it may also be acting individually or on behalf of any other person or entity interested in the same matters. The Trustee, however, shall exercise these powers at all times in a fiduciary capacity, primarily in the interest of the beneficiaries of the Trust. Despite any other provision of this Trust Agreement, no Trustee may participate in the decision to make a discretionary distribution that would discharge a legal support obligation of that Trustee. No Trustee who has made a disclaimer, either individually or as a Trustee, may exercise any discretion in determining the recipient of the disclaimed property. All power to make such distributions, or to determine recipients of disclaimed property, will be exercised solely by the remaining Trustees, if any, or if there are no other Trustees then serving, by the person or persons named to serve as the next successor Trustee, or if there are none, by a special Trustee appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.17 Expenses. An Independent Trustee may determine how expenses of administration and receipts are to be apportioned between principal and income.

7.18 Terminate Small Trusts. To exercise its discretion to refrain from funding or to terminate any trust whenever the value of the principal of that trust would be or is too small to administer economically, and to distribute the remaining principal and all accumulated income of the trust as provided in Section 7.9 to the income beneficiary of that trust. The Trustee shall exercise this power to terminate in its discretion as it deems prudent for the best interest of the beneficiaries at that time. This power cannot be exercised by the Settlor or any beneficiary, either alone or in conjunction with any other Trustee, but must be exercised solely by the other Trustee, or if none, by a special Trustee appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.19 Allocations to Income and Principal. To treat premiums and discounts on bonds and other obligations for the payment of money in accordance with either generally accepted accounting principles or tax accounting principles and, except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to hold nonproductive assets without allocating any principal to income, despite any laws or rules to the contrary. The Trustee in its discretion may exercise the power described in Section 738.104 of the Florida Statutes to adjust between principal and income, as appropriate, and, in addition, may convert any income interest into a unitrust interest, or a unitrust interest to an income interest, as it sees fit, all as provided in Section 738.1041 of the Florida Statutes, despite any provision of those sections to the contrary.

7.20 Use of Income. Except as otherwise provided in this Trust Agreement, and in addition to all other available sources, to exercise its discretion in the use of income from the assets of the Trust to satisfy the liabilities described in this Trust Agreement, without accountability to any beneficiary.

7.21 Valuations. In making distributions or allocations under the terms of this Trust Agreement to be valued as of a particular date, the Trustee may use asset valuations obtained for a date reasonably close to that particular date (such as a quarterly closing date before or after that date) if, in the Trustee's judgment, obtaining appraisals or other determinations of value on that date would result in unnecessary expense, and if in the Trustee's judgment, the fair market value as determined is substantially the same as on that actual date. This paragraph will not apply if valuation on a specific date is required to preserve a qualification for a tax benefit, including any deduction, credit, or most favorable allocation of an exemption.

7.22 Incorporation. To incorporate any business or venture, and to continue any unincorporated business that the Trustee determines to be not advisable to incorporate.

7.23 Delegation. To delegate periodically among themselves the authority to perform any act of administration of any trust.

7.24 Advances. To make cash advances or loans to beneficiaries, with or without security.

7.25 Investment Manager. To employ any investment management service, financial institution, or similar organization to advise the Trustee and to handle all investments of the Trust and to render all accountings of funds held on its behalf under custodial, agency, or other agreements. If the Trustee is an individual, these costs may be paid as an expense of administration in addition to fees and commissions.

7.26 Depreciation. To deduct from all receipts attributable to depreciable property a reasonable allowance for depreciation, computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied.

7.27 Disclaim Assets or Powers. To disclaim any assets otherwise passing or any fiduciary powers pertaining to any trust created hereunder, by execution of an instrument of disclaimer meeting the requirements of applicable law generally imposed upon individuals executing disclaimers. No notice to or consent of any beneficiary, other interested person, or any court is required for any such disclaimer, and the Trustee is to be held harmless for any decision to make or not make such a disclaimer.

7.28 Transfer Situs. To transfer the situs of any trust or any trust property to any other jurisdiction as often as the Trustee deems advisable, and if necessary to appoint a substitute or ancillary Trustee to act with respect to that property. The Trustee may delegate to the substitute Trustee any or all of the powers given to the Trustee; may elect to act as advisor to the substitute Trustee and receive reasonable compensation for that service; and may remove any acting or substitute Trustee and appoint another, or reappoint itself, at will.

7.29 Related Parties. To enter into any transaction on behalf of the Trust despite the fact that another party to that transaction may be: (i) a business or trust controlled by the Trustee, or of which the Trustee, or any director, officer, or employee of the Corporate Trustee, is also a director, officer, or employee; (ii) an affiliate or business associate of any beneficiary or the Trustee; or (iii) a beneficiary or Trustee under this Trust Agreement acting individually, or any relative of such a party.

7.30 Additional Powers for Income-Producing Real Estate. In addition to the other powers set forth above or otherwise conferred by law, the Trustee has the following powers with respect to any income-producing real property which is or may become a part of the Trust Estate:

- To retain and operate the property for as long as it deems advisable;
- To control, direct, and manage the property, determining the manner and extent of its active participation in these operations, and to delegate all or any part of its supervisory power to other persons that it selects;
- To hire and discharge employees, fix their compensation, and define their duties;
- To invest funds in other land holdings and to use those funds for all improvements, operations, or other similar purposes;
- Except as otherwise provided with respect to mandatory income distributions, to retain any amount of the net earnings for working capital and other purposes that it deems advisable in conformity with sound and efficient management; and
- To purchase and sell machinery, equipment, and supplies of all kinds as needed for the operation and maintenance of the land holdings.

ARTICLE 8 SUBCHAPTER S STOCK

Despite any other provisions of this Trust Agreement, if a trust created in this instrument is to become the owner of, or already owns, stock in a corporation that has an election in effect (or one that proposes to make an election) under Section 1362 of the Internal Revenue Code (an "S Corporation"), and that trust would not otherwise be permitted to be an S Corporation shareholder, the following provisions will apply:

8.1 Electing Small Business Trust. The Trustee in its discretion may elect for the trust to become an Electing Small Business Trust ("ESBT") as defined in the Internal Revenue Code.

8.2 Qualified Subchapter S Trust. If the Trustee does not cause the trust to become an ESBT, the Trustee shall set aside the S Corporation stock in a separate trust for the current income beneficiary of such trust, so that a Qualified Subchapter S Trust ("QSST") election under Section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code can be filed with respect to that trust. The Trustee shall hold each share as a separate QSST for the persons described above, and each such person will be the sole beneficiary of his or her QSST. To the greatest extent possible, the Trustee shall administer each QSST under the terms of the trust from which it was derived, but subject to the following overriding provisions:

(a) Consent. The Trustee shall notify the beneficiary of each separate trust promptly that a QSST election must be filed with the Internal Revenue Service. Thereafter, each beneficiary shall file a timely and proper QSST election with the Internal Revenue Service. If a beneficiary fails or refuses to make the QSST election, the Trustee shall make an ESBT election for that trust. If the beneficiary does make the QSST election, then his or her separate trust will be administered as set forth below.

(b) Income Payments. During the beneficiary's life, the Trustee shall pay all net income of the trust to the beneficiary (and only to that beneficiary) in quarterly or more frequent installments. The beneficiary's income interest in the trust will terminate on the earlier of his or her death or the termination of the trust under its terms.

(c) Principal Invasions. If the beneficiary is otherwise entitled to receive principal distributions, the Trustee may distribute principal from that separate trust during the beneficiary's life only to or for the benefit of that beneficiary (and no one else).

(d) Final Distribution. If the QSST is terminated during the beneficiary's life, the Trustee shall distribute all remaining assets of that separate trust to that beneficiary. If the beneficiary dies before that trust's termination, all remaining assets of the QSST are to be distributed as provided in the original trust, but subject to this article.

(e) Termination of QSST Status. If a separate trust would cease to qualify as an S Corporation shareholder, the Trustee in its discretion may: (i) make an ESBT election for that separate trust, or (ii) distribute all S Corporation stock to the beneficiary. The Trustee in its discretion also may convert a QSST to an ESBT, whether or not the beneficiary has consented to QSST treatment and, if the beneficiary consents, may convert an ESBT into a QSST.

ARTICLE 9
PERPETUITIES PROVISION

Despite any contrary provisions of this Trust Agreement, from the creation of this Trust and for up to 21 years after the death of the last of the Settlor's grandparents' descendants who are living at the creation of this Trust, a trust beneficiary (which includes persons succeeding to the interest of a deceased beneficiary) will be entitled to terminating distributions only at the ages specified in this Trust Agreement. In all events, however, the share of each beneficiary will vest (in the beneficiary or his or her estate) immediately prior to the expiration of the 21 year period described above.

ARTICLE 10
ADMINISTRATION AND CONSTRUCTION

10.1 Rules for Distributions. In making distributions to beneficiaries under this Trust Agreement, the Trustee must use the following criteria.

(a) Other Resources. Whenever the Trustee has the authority to decide how much to distribute to or for the benefit of a beneficiary, the Trustee can make decisions without taking into account any information about the beneficiary's other available income and resources. The Trustee can make payments directly to a beneficiary or to other persons for the beneficiary's benefit, but it does not have to make payments to a court appointed guardian.

(b) Trustee's Decision. Absent clear and convincing evidence of bad faith, the Trustee's decisions as to amounts to be distributed will be final.

(c) Standard of Living. Distributions to a beneficiary for health, education, support, or maintenance are to be based on his or her standard of living, determined as of the date of the distribution.

10.2 Funding Gifts. The following rules will apply to funding gifts under this Trust Agreement.

(a) Pecuniary Gifts. All pecuniary gifts under this Trust Agreement that are paid by an in-kind distribution of assets must use values having an aggregate fair market value at the date or dates of distribution equal to the amount of this gift as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes.

(b) Adjustments. The Trustee shall select one or more dates of allocation or distribution for purposes of satisfying gifts and funding shares or trusts. The Trustee may make allocations before the final determination of federal estate tax, with those allocations being based upon the information then available to the Trustee, and may thereafter adjust properties among the shares or trusts if it is determined that the allocation should have been made differently.

10.3 Accumulated Income. Any income not distributed to the beneficiaries pursuant to either a mandatory direction or a discretionary power is to be incorporated into principal, at such intervals as the Trustee deems convenient.

10.4 Estate Tax on Included Property. If assets of any trust created under this Trust Agreement are included in a beneficiary's estate for federal estate tax purposes, the following will apply.

(a) Appointed Assets. If the beneficiary exercises a power of appointment over those assets, the Trustee is authorized to withhold from those assets the amount of estate taxes apportioned to them by applicable law, if the beneficiary does not make provisions for the payment of those taxes from other sources.

(b) Other Assets. If the beneficiary does not have or does not exercise a power of appointment over those assets, the Trustee will pay the estate taxes attributable to those assets. The estate taxes attributable to those assets will be the amount that the beneficiary's estate taxes are increased over the amount those taxes would have been if those assets had not been included in the beneficiary's gross estate.

(c) Certification and Payment. The Trustee may rely upon a written certification by the beneficiary's personal representative of the amount of the estate taxes, and may pay those taxes directly or to the personal representative of the beneficiary's estate. The Trustee will not be held liable for making payments as directed by the beneficiary's personal representative.

10.5 Transactions With Other Entities. The Trustee may buy assets from other estates or trusts, or make loans to them, so that funds will be available to pay claims, taxes, and expenses. The Trustee can make those purchases or loans even if it serves as the fiduciary of that estate or trust, and on whatever terms and conditions the Trustee thinks are appropriate, except that the terms of any transaction must be commercially reasonable.

ARTICLE 11 MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

11.1 Definitions. As used in this Trust Agreement, the following terms have the meanings set forth below:

(a) Trustees.

- (1) Independent Trustee means a trustee of a particular trust, either individual or corporate, who is not the Settlor or a beneficiary, and who is not a Related Person as to the Settlor or a beneficiary (if the Settlor or the beneficiary, respectively, is living and participated in that person's appointment). For purposes of this definition a beneficiary is a person who is a permissible distributee of income or principal, or someone with an interest in the trust in excess of five percent (5%) of its value, assuming a maximum exercise of discretion in his or her favor. Whenever this Trust Agreement requires an action be taken by, or in the discretion of, an Independent Trustee but no such Trustee is then serving, a court may appoint an Independent Trustee to serve as an additional Trustee whose sole function and duty will be to exercise the specified power.
- (2) Corporate Trustee means a trustee that is a bank, trust company, or other entity authorized to serve as a trustee under the laws of the United States or any state thereof that is not a Related Person to the Settlor. A bank or trust company that does not meet this requirement cannot serve as Trustee.

(b) Internal Revenue Code Terms.

- (1) Internal Revenue Code means the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, or successor provisions of future federal internal revenue laws.
- (2) The terms health, education, support, and maintenance are intended to set forth an "ascertainable standard," as described in the Internal Revenue Code and its associated Regulations. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, "health" means a beneficiary's physical and mental health, including but not limited to payments for examinations, surgical, dental, or other treatment, medication, counseling, hospitalization, and health insurance premiums; "education" means elementary, secondary, post-secondary, graduate, or professional schooling in an accredited institution, public or private, or attendance at other formal programs in furtherance of the beneficiary's spiritual, athletic, or artistic education, including but not limited to payments for tuition, books, fees, assessments, equipment, tutoring, transportation, and reasonable living expenses.

- (3) Related Person as to a particular individual is someone who is deemed to be "related or subordinate" to that individual under Section 672(c) of the Internal Revenue Code (as though that individual was a grantor).

(c) Other Terms.

- (1) Distributions that are to be made to a person's descendants, per stirpes, will be divided into equal shares, so that there will be one share for each living child (if any) of that person and one share for each deceased child who has then living descendants. The share of each deceased child will be further divided among his or her descendants on a per stirpes basis, by reapplying the preceding rule to that deceased child and his or her descendants as many times as necessary.
- (2) Disabled or under a disability means (i) being under the legal age of majority, (ii) having been adjudicated to be incapacitated, or (iii) being unable to manage properly personal or financial affairs because of a mental or physical impairment (whether temporary or permanent in nature). A written certificate executed by an individual's attending physician confirming that person's impairment will be sufficient evidence of disability under item (iii) above, and all persons may rely conclusively on such a certificate.
- (3) Removal of a Trustee for cause includes, without limitation, the following: the willful or negligent mismanagement of the trust assets by that individual Trustee; the abuse or abandonment of, or inattention to, the trust by that individual Trustee; a federal or state charge against that individual Trustee involving the commission of a felony or serious misdemeanor; an act of theft, dishonesty, fraud, embezzlement, or moral turpitude by that individual Trustee; or the use of narcotics or excessive use of alcohol by that individual Trustee.
- (4) The words will and shall are used interchangeably in this Trust Agreement and mean, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, that the Trustee must take the action indicated; as used in this Trust Agreement, the word may means that the Trustee has the discretionary authority to take the action but is not automatically required to do so.

11.2 Powers of Appointment. The following provisions relate to all powers of appointment under this Trust Agreement.

- (a) A general power of appointment granted to a person is one that can be exercised in favor of that person or his or her estate, his or her creditors, or the creditors of his or her estate.
- (b) A special power of appointment is any power that is not a general power.
- (c) A testamentary power of appointment (either general or special) is exercisable upon the powerholder's death by his or her Last Will or by a revocable trust agreement established by that person, but only by specific reference to the instrument creating the power. A "testamentary power of appointment" may not be exercised in favor of the person possessing the power.
- (d) In determining whether a person has exercised a testamentary power of appointment, the Trustee may rely upon an instrument admitted to probate in any jurisdiction as that person's Last Will, or upon any trust agreement certified to be valid and authentic by sworn statement of the trustee who is serving under that trust agreement. If the Trustee has not received written notice of such an instrument within six months after the powerholder's death, the Trustee may presume that the powerholder failed to exercise that power and will not be liable for acting in accordance with that presumption.

11.3 Notices. Any person entitled or required to give notice under this Trust Agreement shall exercise that power by a written instrument clearly setting forth the effective date of the action for which notice is being given. The instrument may be executed in counterparts.

11.4 Certifications.

(a) Facts. A certificate signed and acknowledged by the Trustee stating any fact affecting the Trust Estate or the Trust Agreement will be conclusive evidence of such fact in favor of any transfer agent and any other person dealing in good faith with the Trustee. The Trustee may rely on a certificate signed and acknowledged by any beneficiary stating any fact concerning the Trust beneficiaries, including dates of birth, relationships, or marital status, unless an individual serving as Trustee has actual knowledge that the stated fact is false.

(b) Copy. Any person may rely on a copy of this instrument (in whole or in part) certified to be a true copy by the Settlor; by any person specifically named as a Trustee (or successor Trustee); by any Corporate Trustee whether or not specifically named; or, if there are none of the above, by any then serving Trustee.

11.5 Applicable Law. All matters involving the validity and interpretation of this Trust Agreement are to be governed by Florida law. Re: Resignation as Trustee of Trusts for the benefit of Joshua, Jacob and Daniel
Bernstein; Offer to Resign as Manager of Bernstein Family Realty, LLC

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Bernstein:

I represent, and am writing to you on behalf of, Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware ("Oppenheimer"), in its capacity as Trustee of the three trusts created by Simon Bernstein for the benefit of your minor children, Joshua, Jacob and Daniel Bernstein (the "Trusts"). This letter is directed to you, as the parents and natural guardians of Joshua, Jacob and Daniel Bernstein (the "Beneficiaries"), and will constitute due notice to the Beneficiaries under the Trusts and Florida law.

Oppenheimer hereby notifies you that it will resign as Trustee of the Trusts effective May 26, 2014 (the "Effective Date"). You, as the natural guardians of the Beneficiaries, have the right and obligation to appoint a successor corporate trustee. If you do not provide Oppenheimer, through me, with a written document evidencing that a successor corporate trustee has been appointed and has accepted the appointment before the Effective Date, Oppenheimer will petition the Court to either appoint a successor trustee or terminate the Trusts and distribute their assets to you, as natural guardians of the Beneficiaries.

For your information, the Trusts provide, in relevant part, as follows:

Elliot and Candice Bernstein
April 22, 2014

5.2 Resignation. Any Trustee may resign by giving 30 days' written notice delivered personally or by mail to any then serving Co-Trustee and to the Settlor if he is then living and not disabled; otherwise to the next named successor Trustee, or if none, to the persons having power to appoint successor Trustees.

5.3 Power to Name Other Trustees. Whenever a successor Trustee is required and that position is not filled under the terms specified in this Trust Agreement, an individual Trustee ceasing to serve (other than a Trustee being removed) may appoint his or her successor, but if none is appointed, the remaining Trustees, if any, or the beneficiary shall appoint a successor Corporate Trustee. The appointment will be by a written document (including a testamentary instrument) delivered to the appointed Trustee. In no event may the Settlor ever be appointed as the Trustee under this Trust Agreement nor shall a Successor trustee be appointed that will cause this trust to be a grantor trust.

Similarly, Fla. Stat. § 736.0705, entitled "Resignation of trustee," provides, in relevant part, as follows:

(1) A trustee may resign:

(a) Upon at least 30 days' notice to the qualified beneficiaries, the settlor, if living, and all cotrustees...

Finally, Fla. Stat. § 736.0704, entitled "Vacancy in trusteeship; appointment of successor," provides, in relevant part, as follows:

(3) A vacancy in a trusteeship of a noncharitable trust that is required to be filled must be filled in the following order of priority:

(a) By a person named or designated pursuant to the terms of the trust to act as successor trustee.

(b) By a person appointed by unanimous agreement of the qualified beneficiaries.

(c) By a person appointed by the court.

Please let me know of your intentions with regard to the appointment of a successor trustee before the Effective Date.

Eilat and Candice Bernstein

I am also writing to you on behalf of Oppenheimer, in its capacity as the Manager of Bernstein Family Realty, LLC (the "Company"). As you know, the Trusts are the sole owners and members of the Company, and the Company owns the house occupied by you and the Beneficiaries. Oppenheimer understands that the house is encumbered by two mortgages which probably exceed the value of the house. A third party, William Stansbury, claims that he is entitled to an equitable lien on the house, and he has sued the Company to establish such a lien. At Oppenheimer's direction, the Company is defending the lawsuit in order to avoid the claimed third lien on the house.

You have expressed unhappiness with Oppenheimer's management of the Company. In light of Oppenheimer's decision to resign as Trustee, Oppenheimer would like to offer you the opportunity to assume management of the Company, or appoint another successor manager, so that you or your chosen manager can defend the Stansbury lawsuit, operate the Company and deal with third parties on behalf of the Company as you deem to be in the best interest of the Company's members and, ultimately, your children. If you would like Oppenheimer to resign as Manager, please notify me in writing, before the Effective Date, of your selection of an appropriate successor manager and the successor's agreement to serve. Upon receipt of your selection, Oppenheimer will resign as Manager and, on behalf of the member Trusts, appoint your chosen successor.

Please note that, if you do not request Oppenheimer's earlier resignation and designate a successor manager, it is Oppenheimer's intent to resign as Manager of the Company after a successor trustee is appointed or the Trusts are terminated. At that point, it will be up to the successor trustee or you, as natural guardians of the Beneficiaries, to appoint a new manager.

If you have any questions regarding the foregoing, please contact me or have your attorney do so.

Very truly yours,

Steven A. Lessne FOR

COUNTER COMPLAINT

Comes now, Plaintiffs, Eliot Ivan Bernstein ("Eliot") and Candice Michelle Bernstein ("Candice") (together, "Plaintiffs"), Individually, PRO SE and as the Natural Guardians of three irrevocable trusts created by Simon Bernstein for the benefit of his grandchildren of Candice and Eliot, namely Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein, as Guardians for the members of Bernstein Family Realty LLC and beneficiaries of the hereunder sued Trusts, Estates and Corporate Entities set up by Simon and Shirley Bernstein and sues the following parties, hereby demanding trial by jury of all issues so triable and so states, on information and belief:

Parties, Jurisdiction and Venue

1. This is an action for money damages in excess of $15,000.00 and for equitable, compensatory, punitive and other reliefs.
2. Plaintiffs, Eliot Ivan Bernstein ("Eliot") and Candice Michelle Bernstein ("Candice"), are the parents and natural guardians of minors, Joshua Ennio Zander Bernstein ("Joshua") or ("Josh"), Jacob Noah Archie Bernstein ("Jacob") or ("Jake") and Daniel Elijsha Abe Ottomo Bernstein ("Daniel") or ("Danny"), and reside with them in Palm Beach County, Florida. Joshua, Jacob and Daniel are the sole beneficiaries under three irrevocable trusts (the "Trusts") created by their late grandfather, Simon Leon Bernstein ("Simon") and grandmother Shirley Bernstein ("Shirley"), on September 7, 2006. Eliot, Candice and their children are also beneficiaries of Trusts, Estates and Corporate Entities sued hereunder.

¹ Pleadings in this case are being filed by Plaintiff In Propria Persona, PRO SE, wherein pleadings are to be considered without regard to technicalities. Propria, pleadings are not to be held to the same high standards of perfection as practicing lawyers. See Haines v. Kerner 92 Set 594, also See Power 914 F2d 1459 (11th Cir 1990), also See Hulsey v. Ownes 63 F3d 354 (5th Cir 1995). also See in Re: HALL v. BELLMON 935 F.2d 1106 (10th Cir. 1991).¹ In Puckett v. Cox, it was held that a pro-se pleading requires less stringent reading than one drafted by a lawyer (456 F2d 233 (1972 Sixth Circuit USCA). Justice Black in Conley v. Gibson, 355 U.S. 41 at 48 (1957) "The Federal Rules rejects the approach that pleading is a game of skill in which one misstep by counsel may be decisive to the outcome and accept the principle that the purpose of pleading is to facilitate a proper decision on the merits." According to Rule 8(f) FRCP and the State Court rule which holds that all pleadings shall be construed to do substantial justice.

BACKGROUND SPECIFIC TO THIS CASE

108. That to save the Court a lengthy filing by Eliot attempting to recap the many criminal acts and civil torts of each of the counter defendants, including those proven, admitted and alleged crimes committed by some of the Fiduciaries and Attorneys at Law acting as Officers of this Court before the Honorable Judge Martin Colin and Honorable David French, in the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley Bernstein, including but far from limited to, Frauds on the Court, Frauds on the Beneficiaries, Fraud on Interested Parties, Creditor Fraud, Bank Fraud, Insurance Fraud, Theft of Assets and other criminal acts and civil torts that directly relate to this instant legal action, Eliot instead hereby incorporates by reference all ongoing cases before this Court related to the Simon and Shirley Bernstein Estates and Trusts, including but not limited to all, pleadings, rulings, evidence, etc. that are currently before Hon. Judge Colin in the related cases already before this Court for almost two years.

109. That Simon and Shirley set up trust accounts for Eliot and his children and also set up an LLC named Bernstein Family Realty, LLC ("BFR") while living, in order to fund all of their living expenses, due to the fact that Eliot has had a bomb put in his car, death threats and is in the middle of a very intense RICO and ANTITRUST Lawsuit, where he and his family have been in grave danger for many years fighting corruption inside the very framework of the legal system.
110. That these entities were set up by Simon and Shirley for the benefit of Eliot, Candice and their children, in part funding the children's school income for the family and covering all home and living expenses for many years prior to Simon and Shirley's passing and even after they had passed away these were continued for a certain period of time.
111. That the children's trust accounts were used to purchase a home for Eliot and his family and the home was owned by BFR with a loan to Walter Sahn who was the prior owner of the home and Simon's business partner and a legally deficient and "affected" loan to Simon was made to further protect the home from any actions against Eliot and his three minor children. The three children of Eliot are the only Members of BFR owning equal shares.
112. That the children's school trust accounts were funded in 2006 and BFR was also then established to pay household bills and expenses.
113. That several months after Simon died, BFR continued to pay bills and expenses as it was intended by Simon and Shirley that after their deaths, these vehicles would be fully funded to provide for Eliot and his family for most of their natural lives with prudent investment of their inheritances.

114. That several months after Simon died, his assistant Rachel Walker ("Walker") was fired by Theodore and she informed Eliot and Candice that at the direction of Robert Spallina and Donald Tescher, Eliot and Candice would be taking over BFR's accounts and the payment of the bills. Walker brought these documents to their home at the direction of Spallina and Tescher.
115. That the account appeared to be held by Simon Bernstein.
116. That Eliot and Walker then called Legacy Bank and found out that not only was Walker not a signor on the account but that Simon was the only signor and that Walker could no longer sign checks or have any information regarding the account.
117. That Legacy Bank, who knew Simon well as a private banking client had not been informed that Simon had been dead for several months and was shocked to learn that his accounts were still being used and accessed POST MORTEM.
118. That Legacy Bank immediately upon finding that Simon was dead, froze the bank accounts and stated they could only speak with the PR of the Estate of Simon.
119. That Eliot immediately requested an investigation into how the accounts were being used POST MORTEM on an LLC account for a company his children owned.
120. That Eliot and Rachel notified Spallina that at the request of Legacy Bank he was required to call them immediately as the BFR accounts and others had been frozen instantly as the account was accessed unauthorized for months.
121. That subsequently it was also found through the production documents recently transferred to the Curator Ben Brown by Spallina and Tescher upon this Court's Order that other bank and credit card accounts were also used by others for months after Simon died by various parties.
122. That Spallina contacted Legacy Bank and then notified Eliot and Candice that he was transferring the frozen funds and BFR accounts to Janet Craig of Oppenheimer who he stated was the new acting Manager of BFR and Trustee of the children's trusts.

COUNTER COMPLAINT
 Wednesday, July 30, 2014

123. That Eliot and Candice later learned that this transfer of title of Manager of BFR was in violation of BFR's operating agreement; see BFR documents @ <http://www.iviewit.tv/BFR%20BFH%20BFI%20RECORDS.pdf> , fully incorporated by reference herein.
124. That it is now claimed by Craig that she self-appointed herself as Manager of BFR, again in violation of BFR's operating agreement.
125. That Spallina then directed Craig to open a new Oppenheimer BFR account with Craig and Worth as the agents now handling the BFR bills and the children's school trusts.
126. That Eliot and Candice requested repeatedly of Spallina, Tescher, Craig and Worth to provide historical account statements for Legacy Bank's BFR account so that they could determine how much was in the account prior to Simon's death and how much was used illegally POST MORTEM and they were refused this information repeatedly.
127. That Craig worked directly with Spallina and Tescher to transfer funds to Oppenheimer that had been previously frozen by Legacy Bank in their BFR accounts that were frozen when Eliot informed Legacy that Simon's Legacy accounts were being used ILLEGALLY, POST MORTEM.
128. That Craig then opened up a new BFR account at Oppenheimer and deposited the Legacy BFR account funds into the new account with the aid of Spallina and Tescher.
129. That Eliot repeatedly requested Craig and Spallina to obtain the Legacy Bank Account statements and other information relating to that account so that he could determine the amount of funds that were in the account when Simon died and determine who and what withdrawals and other activities had taken place illegally.
130. That Eliot was informed that Legacy would be conducting an internal investigation into the fraudulent use of Simon's accounts after his death and Eliot has recently again tried to contact Legacy to find out information about the accounts and investigations and was told that the Personal

Representatives would have to contact them but around that time, the Personal Representatives were Tescher and Spallina who obviously did not take any actions to have themselves investigated.

131. That Spallina and Craig informed Eliot that monies were running low in the Legacy BFR accounts and that until distributions of the Estates and Trusts could be worked out they determined that the Trusts of the three boys, set up for school education while Simon and Shirley were alive were to be used to pay the BFR expenses and children's expenses that had been being paid for seven years prior to their deaths through BFR and other entities set up by Simon and Shirley.
132. That Spallina stated the monies would be used from BFR and then the school trust funds and when those were depleted he would replenish and replace them as necessary and thereby authorized Craig to use the school trusts and BFR monies for these purposes, including but not limited to, property insurance, maintenance, improvements, property taxes, school tuition, food and clothing for the children, etc..., which were all being paid by Simon and Shirley through BFR for years prior and post their deaths.
133. That when the Trusts were depleted, Craig informed Spallina and asked for the replenishments and Spallina refused claiming now that he was not obligated and unwilling to pay them back in efforts to retaliate against Eliot, Candice and minor children.
134. That at this time Spallina, Tescher, Theodore, Manceri, Moran and others learned that they were being investigated by the Florida Governor Rick Scott's Notary Public Division and the West Palm Beach County Sheriff Office for a series of alleged fraudulent acts regarding the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley Bernstein.
135. That on information and belief Craig, Tescher and Spallina then retained Mark Manceri, Esq. to represent BFR in the Stansbury Lawsuit.
136. That Manceri has subsequently voluntarily resigned from the Estates and Trust of Simon and Shirley Bernstein and now is a named Respondent (along with Tescher, Spallina, Rose and Pankauski) in the

- Estate litigations, his resignation in the midst of arrests for Fraud, admitted Forgery and more of the former Executors/Personal Representatives/Co-Trustees/Counsel, Tescher and Spallina et al.
137. That Gerald Lewin, CPA, who was responsible for tax returns for BFR now claims that no tax returns were done for over 6 years, the only entity that appears to be missing returns.
 138. That Eliot and Candice requested repeatedly of Spallina, Tescher, Craig and Worth to provide historical account statements for the children's trusts so that they could determine how much was in the accounts and the prior accountings from various firms that the monies are believed to have transferred through, including Stanford Trust Company and JP Morgan prior to Simon's death and they were refused, repeatedly.
 139. Legacy Bank was contacted by Eliot several times regarding their claims that they were starting investigations into the use of Simon's accounts Post Mortem and despite repeated requests by Eliot have failed to provide any status or information regarding if they have started these investigations.
 140. Oppenheimer is alleged to have nominated Craig as the Manager and began paying BFR bills and expenses for the children, including but not limited to, school, education and welfare from the BFR new account set up at Oppenheimer to replace the Legacy BFR account.
 141. That Oppenheimer several months later notified Eliot that the BFR account was running low.
 142. That Eliot contacted Spallina who stated that until he could allocate monies from the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley to the beneficiaries that the children's lower, middle and high school trust funds (there were separate accounts for college) should now be used to pay the BFR and other expenses and that he would replace and replenish the funds once he could make distributions.
 143. That Craig then began using the children's school trust funds to fund the BFR and other expenses at Spallina's direction.
 144. As the trusts were diminished to de minimis value by paying the BFR company bills and other expenses for the children, Craig contacted Spallina to replace and replenish the trust accounts and BFR account and Spallina and Tescher claimed they were now unwilling to refund and replenish the accounts.

145. That on or about this time that Spallina refused to replace the funds used, Tescher, Spallina, Moran, Theodore, Manceri and others were all under INVESTIGATION with Palm Beach County Sheriff Office ("PBSO") detectives and Florida's Governor Rick Scott's Notary Public Division for allegations of Fraud, Fraudulent Notarizations, Forgery and other crimes², instigated by Eliot and Candice in relation to criminal acts taking place in the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley.
146. That subsequently it was found that FORGERY, FRAUD, FRAUDULENT NOTARIZATIONS, IDENTITY THEFT and more were used to illegally seize Dominion and Control of the Estates and change beneficiaries of the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley POST MORTEM and where there are still ongoing state and federal, civil and criminal, legal actions taking place regarding these crimes.

147. That Eliot notified Craig and Worth that Spallina, Tescher, Manceri, Theodore et al. were all under ongoing investigations and ongoing civil actions and urged them and their counsel McCabe to take appropriate legal steps to report the matters to the proper authorities as they related to the Oppenheimer accounts.
148. That Eliot notified Craig that documents sent to him by her, Spallina and Tescher for both BFR and the children's trusts were incomplete, missing signatures, not properly initialed and were improperly notarized on documents she was operating under.
149. That Eliot was never sent completed documents for BFR or the children's trusts by Oppenheimer, Spallina and Tescher despite repeated requests.
150. That Eliot notified Craig that shares of LIC HOLDINGS, INC. which are held by the children's trusts are not valued or accounted for and that she must as Trustee demand under Florida Statute 607.1601- Corporate Records from LIC Holdings, Inc. for the children's trusts, which held shares in LIC, including but not limited to, a full and formal accounting from LIC, which Theodore operates as an Officer and Director.
151. That Eliot informed Craig, Worth, McCabe and others to report the fraud and breaches of fiduciary duties that were being alleged in the related Estate and Trust cases of Simon and Shirley and those then alleged against them before attempting to close any accounts or transfer any fiduciary titles, especially where these crimes were alleged committed in large part by Tescher and Spallina who directed Craig's actions with regard to the fraud alleged with the children's school trust accounts and BFR.
152. That on July 16, 2013 Craig notified Eliot via email that she was resigning as Trustee and Manager and assigning these titles to Eliot and Candice. From that email,

As you are aware, during his lifetime, Simon Bernstein paid the household expenses for Eliot and Candace. Upon his death those funds were frozen and the only funds available to pay the household expenses were the education trusts that Simon set up for Daniel, Jacob and Joshua...

If this is not possible, for any reason, Oppenheimer Trust Company will have no recourse but to Resign as Trustee in favor of Eliot and Candice Bernstein and to name them as the Successor Manager of Bernstein Family Realty.

153. That on August 28, 2013 Craig notified Eliot via email that she had spoken with Spallina and he spoke with Theodore and that Theodore had been anointed by them as the successor Manager and that Theodore had accepted the role of Manager of BFR.
154. That as with Craig's appointment as Manager of BFR after Simon's death, the transfer to Theodore was also in violation of the BFR operating agreement relating to successor managers and no vote of the Members was sought.
155. That Craig then transferred ALL personal and confidential information regarding BFR (all bills, bank account information and more) and personal and confidential information regarding the children's trust accounts to Theodore, all done at Spallina and Tescher's direction to Craig. 157. That this is where the extortion of Eliot and his family began to manifest further, as arrests were being made in the Estate and Trust cases of Simon and Shirley and investigations were underway against Theodore and his minion of attorneys at law and friends that he brought into Simon and Shirley's Estate and Trusts and thus began a Pattern and Practice of retaliation against Eliot in efforts to shut him down financially and stop him from further exposing the crimes committed.
158. That once Tescher, Spallina and Theodore gained Dominion and Control of the Estates and Trusts they began to systematically violate probate rules and statutes to deny the Beneficiaries of information and funds in violation not only of statutes but in violation of the terms of the Wills and Trusts they were allegedly operating under, causing intentional delays and damages to beneficiaries and drumming up huge legal expenses for themselves and the counsel they retained in the matters.
159. That prior to this intentional financial calamity caused on Eliot and his family it should be noted here that Eliot and Candice had taken jobs in a new company Simon had begun investing in several months before his death, Telenet Systems, LLC and they were projected to make approximately $200,000.00 in salary and commissions, as well as, have an equity stake in the company after Simon's death with his girlfriend, Maritza Puccio.
160. That with no discussions with certain of the Beneficiaries, as to the investment owned by Simon in Telenet and the remaining funds still owed to Telenet of approximately $210,000.00 to meet the total agreed investment in the company, Spallina and Theodore decided to stop the investment and caused the owner of the business, Scott Banks, Simon's friend and business partner, to have to cut all his staff, downsize his office overnight that he and Simon had just acquired and let Eliot and Candice go from their jobs, causing great loss to Banks, Eliot, Candice, Maritza Puccio and others.

161. That Theodore then assumed the title as Manager of BFR and after getting highly private and confidential information transferred to him from Craig in this capacity, he systematically began disabling BFR and began failing to pay bills WITH NO NOTICE to Eliot and his family who live in the home BFR and the children's trusts owns and maintains, including cancelling the homeowners insurance, shutting off electricity, security, etc. and began failing to pay the school expenses, health insurance and other expenses for the minor children that had been being paid monthly for eight years prior to the deaths of Simon and Shirley by Simon and Shirley.
162. That Theodore failed to provide any notice of his new title as Manager of BFR to the Members, Eliot's three minor children or Eliot and Candice as their Guardians.
163. That Eliot and Candice did not receive the bills of BFR, as they were sent to the Managers of BFR, Oppenheimer and are in the name of BFR, not Eliot and Candice individually and therefore Eliot and Candice could not access or pay these accounts that were transferred to Theodore by Craig.
164. After months of bills not getting paid, services being shut off randomly and without notice and avoidance of emails regarding the bills by the Managers, Theodore and Craig, several months after Theodore was claimed to be Manager, after accepting the BFR Manager position, Theodore suddenly stated he was not the Manager of BFR and never accepted the role from Craig and had no idea what anyone was talking about that he was ever appointed, despite his having received information from Craig in that capacity.
165. That the revelation that Theodore was not Manager came about when a one, Walter Sahn, after having to retain counsel to attempt to speak with the manager of BFR, then contacted Oppenheimer and Theodore about who was the Manager of BFR was.
166. That Sahn was prompted to retain counsel by the fact that Sahn holds a mortgage on the home owned by BFR and interest was not being paid or addressed and no one claiming to be Manager would contact him in reply to his repeated written requests regarding his mortgage.

COUNTER COMPLAINT

Wednesday, July 30, 2014

167. That Sahn called Eliot to inform of the problems with the Managers of BFR, as he felt that he was being forced to foreclose, as no one responsible for BFR would return his or his attorney's pleas for information or his interest payment.
168. That Sahn was a close personal friend and business associate of Simon and he knew that Simon and Shirley had set the home up to protect Eliot and his family and he could not believe what was going on and put this all in writing to Theodore, Spallina and Craig.
169. That months after Theodore and Craig refused to respond to Eliot's numerous correspondences regarding the status of BFR and who the Manager was and the fact that bills BFR is responsible for were not getting paid and leaving both BFR and Eliot's family at risk, Craig suddenly did an about face and states via email to Eliot that Theodore never accepted the position and that she was still Manager, despite her prior claims that Theodore had accepted the position and she transferred the information to him months earlier based on her belief that Theodore was the Manager.
170. That this seemed outrageous, especially where Theodore had started acting on behalf of BFR and paying bills that he choose to be important and using other payments to extort Eliot that if he did not back off his complaints against Spallina, Moran, Tescher and himself, Eliot would get nothing.
171. That Theodore had acted to pay some bills of BFR at first after accepting the position as Manager of BFR and then as Theodore began to shut down utilities and put his family at risk, including three minor children, others, including but not limited to Tescher, Spallina and Manceri tried to force Eliot to take illegal distributions from the Estates and Trusts before they would give him any inheritance funds to either he or his family, in efforts to gain an implied consent to the criminal activity taking place in the Estates and Trusts.
172. That with the intentional delays caused in the inheritances to Eliot's family and the use of their home funds and children's school trust funds to depletion that were not replenished as originally claimed by Spallina, the timing was ripe for them to attempt to state that if Eliot did not drop his charges and take distributions that he knew were illegal and steeped in Fraud, that he and his family would be starved out, the children removed from their school, etc. as again BFR paid all these expenses of their family for many prior years.

173. Then, after learning that Eliot was alleging Extortion with this Court³ and other investigators, Theodore suddenly claimed in an email to Eliot that he was not the Manager of BFR, nor ever the Manager of BFR and was just paying some bills of BFR from Estate and Trust funds out of the kindness of his heart and acted as if he knew nothing about BFR and his acceptance of the Manager position Craig stated he accepted when transferring him all the bills and personal and confidential

Eliot > as I have previously stated in correspondence to you, I am not and never have been involved with Bernstein Family Realty, in any capacity. You have repeatedly referred to an email from August, 2013 in which Janet stated that I agreed to be the managing member of Bernstein Family Realty. I have repeatedly stated and written after August, 2013, as well as Robert Spallina, that I was never the managing member and I am not the managing member. If Janet inadvertently stated that I was, it has been clarified for you on multiple occasions that I am not. Please let this be another.

Therefore, please let this serve as another request to stop referring to me as the managing member of Bernstein Family Realty. Please stop having people contact me in relation to Bernstein Family Realty. Please stop having mail sent to me in relation to Bernstein Family Realty.

Thank you.

174. That Craig months later then stated she was still the Manager of BFR when she was pressed for an answer by Walter Sahn as to who the Manager was, as Sahn was threatening to foreclose and sue if someone did not give him answers about his Mortgage held with BFR, this after months that Sahn was misled with others as to who was responsible for BFR and his Mortgage and Interests due. COMPLAINT

Walt and Pat,

Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware is currently the Manager of Bernstein Family Realty, however the Trusts that were paying the Bernstein household bills have been entirely depleted. The only remaining assets in each trust is a one third share of Bernstein Family Realty and nominal shares of LIC Holdings.

At one point we were told that Ted Bernstein would take over as Manager and we prepared paperwork to transfer responsibility, however that paperwork was never returned to us.

Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware is attempting to close these accounts and distribute the remaining assets, however Eliot and Candice Bernstein have refused to return the Releases sent to them last August. As such we remain Manager but we have no assets with which to assist the Bernsteins [sp Bernsteins]...

175. That Craig refused to get accountings for Trusts assets regarding the company LIC that Theodore is an Officer and Director of and without this information, attempted to claim that the children's school trusts had no value left was not true and yet she was going to attempt to close the accounts and transfer the remainder of any monies and other interests to Eliot but without notice then transferred everything to Theodore claiming he was the new Manager of BFR.
176. That as a fiduciary of BFR and the children's trusts, Craig should have instead been notifying authorities of what was transpiring regarding the criminal activities and moving to protect the trusts and BFR from those involved and not abdicate her fiduciary duties and attempt to run and transfer the responsibilities, information and monies to those she knew Eliot was pursuing for civil torts and criminal acts.
177. That Eliot refused to take any of the remaining corpus of the Trusts or assume fiduciary responsibilities and told Craig, Worth and their counsel McCabe that as acting Fiduciaries they should immediately report the alleged and proven criminal acts involving Theodore, Spallina, Tescher, Manceri, Rose, Moran, Baxley et al. to the proper authorities and freeze everything to preserve the evidence and that Eliot was unwilling to release them in any capacities and accept any role as fiduciary until all these matters and their involvement in the matters were fully and legally resolved and reported to the proper authorities.

COUNTER COMPLAINT

178. That Craig, Worth and McCabe despite being requested repeatedly to report Fraud going on instead opted to try and remove Oppenheimer out of house of cards that was beginning to crumble and took abusive legal actions against Eliot and Candice to force them to become successor fiduciaries.
179. That Craig then hired a lawyer from Gray Robinson, defendant Steven Lessne, Esq. who called Eliot and Candice to tell them first that he was representing the Trusts of the three boys and also representing BFR in litigation in the Creditor claim of William Stansbury in the Estate and Trusts of Simon and Shirley, in the creditor case titled WILLIAM E. STANSBURY, Plaintiff v. TED S. BERNSTEIN; SIMON BERNSTEIN; LIC HOLDINGS, INC.; and ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, f/k/a ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, LLC., Defendants / Case #502012CA013933MBAA before Hon. Judge Blanc. BFR was also sued by Stansbury.
180. That Eliot disclosed to Lessne the problems regarding Craig, Worth and McCabe's involvement in BFR, the children's trusts and that no properly executed documents had been put forth proving their capacities in the entities they assumed.
181. That Eliot disclosed to Lessne the alleged Extortion of Eliot taking place involving Spallina, Tescher, Theodore, Manceri et al. and other criminal acts taking place in the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley.
182. That Eliot suggested to Lessne that Gray Robinson should sue Oppenheimer, Worth, Craig and McCabe for breaches of fiduciary duties, conspiracy, extortion and more and immediately report them all to the proper authorities.
183. That Lessne, after asking Eliot and Candice what they thought he should do in regards to the trust and BFR matters and after listening and discussing their strategies with them then informed Eliot and Candice that he was not really representing the Trusts and BFR but rather the Trustee of the Trusts,

Craig/Oppenheimer and that he was not really representing BFR but rather Craig/Oppenheimer as Manager of BFR.

184. That Eliot informed Lessne that this sneaky trick to gain information from him while acting as his children's counsel and BFR's counsel was a violation of bar rules and more.
185. That Lessne misrepresented his role in the matters to Candice and Eliot and acted inappropriately in taking information regarding the matters under his false claims of who he was representing.
186. That on a cumulative scale, in relation to the ongoing Probate and Trust actions related, there are claims that the Wills and Trusts assets are valued at 40-100 million dollars, including but not limited to, the many Corporate Entities and Trusts established by Simon and Shirley while living, including but not limited to BFR and the children's trusts, with approximately one third of all assets either going to Eliot or his children or a combination of both depending on how this Court rules regarding the validity of the Wills and Trusts that have been challenged and already found fraught with Fraud, Fraudulent Notarizations, Improper Notarizations, Forgeries and more.
187. That due to a complete failure to follow Probate Rules, Trust Rules, Florida Statutes, Law, Attorney Conduct Codes and rampant Breaches of Fiduciary Duties there has been virtually no documents tendered for any trusts or entities sued hereunder, no transparency whatsoever since the beginning of Tescher, Spallina and Theodore's illegally gained reign as fiduciaries and counsel and this has significantly and catastrophically damaged Eliot, his family, creditors and others with intent.
188. That life insurance trust documents have gone missing and yet the missing trust filed a claim for insurance proceeds that were part of Simon's estate as evidenced in the ongoing Federal Civil Breach of Contract Lawsuit in IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS EASTERN DIVISION, Case No. 13cy3643, before the Hon. Judge Amy St. Eve, filed by an alleged Trustee, Robert Spallina, Esq. of Trust that does not legally exist in any form and he claims never to have seen.

COUNTER COMPLAINT

189. That when the fraudulent insurance claim was rejected for obvious reasons that the alleged beneficiary does not legally exist, a Breach of Contract lawsuit was then filed by Theodore who suddenly replaced Spallina as the Trustee of the Lost Trust.
190. That there is a missing Heritage Union Life Policy for approximately two million dollars.
191. That there are now claimed to be missing IRA beneficiaries and there have been alleged IRA account changes Post Mortem,
192. That there are missing accountings for the Estates and virtually every Corporate Entity and Trusts created by Simon and Shirley.
193. There are missing personal assets of Simon and Shirley including millions of dollars of jewelry, art and furnishings, which is under ongoing investigations.
194. That there is NOT A SINGLE SIGNED TAX RETURN FOR SIMON OR SHIRLEY produced within the LEGALLY DEFICIENT ACCOUNTING OF SIMON'S ESTATE ORDERED UPON RESIGNATIONS AND REMOVAL OF TESCHER AND SPALLINA.
195. That Tax Returns turned over to the Curator Benjamin Brown, Esq. of Simon's Estate by CBIZ and Lewin are also unsigned.
196. That there have been NO OTHER ACCOUNTINGS OF ANY OTHER TRUSTS or Corporate Entities held UNDER THE WILLS AND TRUSTS of Simon and Shirley.
197. That there has been FORGERY POST MORTEM IN SEVERAL INSTANCES, FRAUDULENT NOTARIZATIONS IN SEVERAL INSTANCE INCLUDING POST MORTEM and IMPROPER NOTARIZATIONS OF ALLEGED WILLS AND TRUSTS and more.
198. That through these dispositive document crimes in the Estates and Trusts, Dominion and Control of the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley were illegally overtaken by Theodore and his close personal friends and business associates, mostly Attorneys at Law sued herein, all misusing and abusing law to achieve a takeover illegally of the Estates, Trusts and other entities in order to convert the assets in a variety of subsequent frauds and other crimes both state and federally to improper parties.

199. That it is alleged that Theodore and Pamela Simon were inappropriately notified of privileged, confidential and sensitive information of their disinheritance in the Estates, Trusts and Corporate Entities sued hereunder by Tescher and Spallina, prior to Simon's death.
200. That it is alleged that this inappropriately privileged, confidential and sensitive disclosed information was disclosed by Tescher and Spallina without knowledge and consent of Simon.
201. That Theodore and Pamela were bitter, angered and enraged⁴ upon learning this information and a series of events described in Eliot's first Petition in the Estates of Simon and Shirley unfolded in efforts to force Simon to make changes to he and Shirley's long established Estate plans and Trusts to include them back into them.
202. That Simon never made these changes while alive and only after his mysterious, unexpected death were changes attempted to be made through POST MORTEM criminal acts and civil torts against the true and proper Beneficiaries.
203. That Eliot files several of the following Counts on the advice of Federal Judge Amy St. Eve of the Illinois Court in an Order dated March 17, 2014, whereby she stated,

Instead, Eliot is seeking damages against Tescher and Spallina for other claims, namely, fraudulent conversion, breach of fiduciary duty, legal malpractice, abuse of the legal process, common law conversion, civil conspiracy, and negligence in connection with the administration of Simon Bernstein's Estate in the Probate Court of Palm Beach County, Florida. Rule 14(a) does not authorize Eliot to seek any such relief in the present lawsuit because Eliot is not facing any liability in the first instance.

COUNT 1 - CIVIL CONSPIRACY

204. This is an action for Civil Conspiracy under Florida Statutes.
205. Plaintiffs hereby reiterate and incorporate herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 203, inclusive.
206. That as with any conspiracy, all of the facts regarding the actions of each of the defendants is largely unknown at this time and with ongoing investigations and new production documents that reveal even more alleged criminal acts and civil torts, more is being learned every day but one thing is for certain in this illegal legal conspiracy, the primary participants known at this time are licensed Attorneys at Law who have acted together to deprive Eliot and his family of legal rights through further abuse of process and complex illegal legal frauds constructed to obstruct justice and deny Eliot of due process and procedure and his and his children's inheritances.
207. That Theodore, on the day Simon died on September 13, 2012 alleged that Simon was murdered and filed a Palm Beach County Sheriff report already evidenced herein, claiming that Simon's girlfriend poisoned Simon.
208. That Theodore, on the day Simon died on September 13, 2012 alleged that Simon was murdered and ordered an Autopsy⁵ be done, alleging that Simon's girlfriend poisoned Simon.
209. That Simon may have been murdered but now a growing body of evidence uncovered involves proven and further alleged FELONY criminal misconduct by the Defendants in combination.
210. That Simon may have been murdered not by his girlfriend but by those involved in the criminal conspiracy that has taken place to illegally seize Dominion and Control of the Estates and Trusts of Shirley and Simon and loot their assets to the tune of between $20-100 Million dollars and deprive Eliot and his family of their inheritances.

Printed on September 13, 2014

- 211. That Simon may have been murdered not by his girlfriend but by those involved in the criminal conspiracy to steal intellectual properties worth billions upon billions of dollars, a conspiracy that has already been filed in a RICO and ANTITRUST lawsuit, already embodied herein, whereby there are allegations that ATTORNEYS AT LAW and others put a bomb in the Minivan of Eliot to murder he and his family, have made repeated and reported death threats to Eliot and more.
- 212. That Eliot is the midst of attempting to bring about a change in the legal system in efforts to root out systemic corruption at the highest levels by a rogue group of criminals disguised as Attorneys at Law, Judges, Politicians and more.
- 213. That Eliot has been targeted as a related case to Anderson, in efforts to silence his efforts to take a large bite out of crime in New York and Florida, through a complete violation of his personal property rights, privacy rights and more.
- 214. That this lawsuit and all the other related Probate cases and other legal cases Eliot is in are a coordinated and conspiratorial to harm Eliot and his family through legal process abuse and RICO type activities that use the legal system to deprive victims of their due process rights against those that hold seats of power and honor.
- 215. That this legal conspiracy may relate to other legal actions Eliot is currently involved in as described in Eliot's first Petition in the Estate cases⁶, which are again involving conspiracy charges against primarily Attorneys at Law. Several of the defendants in each case are similar.

⁶ That on May 6, 2013 Petitioner filed an "EMERGENCY PETITION TO: FREEZE ESTATE ASSETS, APPOINT NEW PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES, INVESTIGATE FORGED AND FRAUDULENT DOCUMENTS SUBMITTED TO THIS COURT AND OTHER INTERESTED PARTIES, RESCIND SIGNATURE OF ELIOT BERNSTEIN IN ESTATE OF SIMON/SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN AND MORE." 216. That Simon may have been murdered but not by his girlfriend as alleged, as he may have been talking with State and/or Federal Authorities regarding his knowledge in Proskauer Rose's alleged involvement in the Sir Robert Allen Stanford Ponzi scheme.
217. That Eliot is pursuing Defendants, Proskauer Rose LLP, Gerald Lewin, CPA and Albert Gortz, Esq. as the main initial parties involved in the theft of Simon and Eliot's Intellectual Properties and companies that were set up to hold those assets, worth an estimated billions of dollars and that they are also centrally involved now in the Estates, Trusts and Corporate Entity torts committed.
218. That the conspiracy has reached into the Estates and Trusts, again through corruption involving complex legal frauds committed through misuse of the legal system now by new Attorneys at Law acting as Officers of this Court, now committed in efforts to deprive Eliot and his family of their inheritances to interfere and hinder their efforts to bring about justice in several of the other now related legal battles Eliot and they are involved in.
219. That new evidence reveals that Eliot and his family have been targeted by high ranking members of the legal community (disciplinary department members, judges and attorneys at law) illegally misusing Joint Terrorism Task Force funds and resources to specifically Obstruct Justice in the prior cases by targeting them and surveilling them directly to interfering with their rights to due process and procedure.
220. That Simon and Shirley left vast wealth to their beneficiaries under their years of elaborate estate plans, costing thousands upon thousands of dollars to set up these trusts, business entities and other vehicles. Simon and Shirley went to Proskauer for Estate planning in 2000 primarily to protect their interests in Eliot's technologies but fired them upon learning of their involvement in the stolen Intellectual Properties.

221. That Simon and Shirley's interests in the technologies and companies that held them is missing from the Estates and Trusts at this time.
222. That Spallina contacted Lewin and Proskauer to find out where the stocks were that they held for the companies they formed to hold the Intellectual Properties and did not receive any information back.
223. That Defendant's Oppenheimer and JP Morgan were both initially involved in Eliot's technologies and signed various agreements with the companies that held the Intellectual Properties, see <http://iviewit.tv/CompanyDocs/Appendix%20A/>.
224. That all of these complex estate plans, including multiple layers of trusts, business entities and other vehicles have been seized illegally and interfered with by various of the Defendants, acting alone and/or in concert with other Defendants and assets have been converted to improper parties through a combination of frauds and thefts to defeat Eliot of his inheritance, including but not limited to, the shares of the companies that hold the Intellectual Properties.
225. That in order to achieve this looting of the Estate, Trusts and Corporate Entities, financial and accounting information due to the Beneficiaries was further suppressed and denied and now it is learned in some instances even destroyed, to keep the information from the true and proper Beneficiaries, in violation of probate statutes, trust statutes, state law, federal law, attorney conduct codes and through breach upon breach of fiduciary duties.
226. That all parties sued hereunder have acted alone and in combination with others to violate the trusts, business entities and other vehicles to fraudulently remove assets from the corpuses of the trusts, business entities and other vehicles, in various artifices to defraud the true and proper Beneficiaries.

COURT COMPLAINT

227. That the Oppenheimer Trusts and BFR are only a fraction of the trusts and entities that criminal activity is alleged taking place in but that directly relates to the overall conspiracy to rob and loot the Estates and further to extort Eliot, once Dominion and Control of the Estates and Trusts was seized illegally through the elaborate series of document forgeries and fraud.

228. That many of these frauds have already been brought before the Court in the Petitions and Motions filed by Eliot in the Estate cases before this Court, which remain unheard since May of 2013, which ties all of these Defendants together as part of the larger conspiracy in a variety of criminal acts and civil torts, again most of these illegal legal crimes were committed by Officers of this Court under the Tutelage of Your Honor.

229. That Craig was introduced to Eliot via the former Executors/Personal Representatives/Co-Trustees/Counsel of the Estate of Simon, Tescher and Spallina, who have since resigned and been removed from all Bernstein family matters in the midst of the arrest and conviction of their Notary Public/Legal Assistant for Fraudulent Notarizations, admitted Forgery (including forging documents POST MORTEM for Simon and five other forgeries of other interested parties), admitted POST MORTEM ALTERING of Trust documents by Robert Spallina in statements to PBSO⁸, POST MORTEM closing of the Estate of Shirley with a dead Executor/PR, Simon, improper distributions made against the advice of counsel by the alleged fiduciary Theodore and many more crimes are alleged and under ongoing investigations in the Estates, Trusts and Corporate Entities of Simon and Shirley.

230. That Spallina without any legal authority informed Eliot that he had transferred the BFR Manager position after Simon died to Craig, in violation of the BFR Operating Agreement which calls for a vote of the Members, Eliot and Candice's three minor children are the only Members with Eliot and Candice as their Guardians.

⁸ See footnote 1, PBSO January 2014 Sheriff Report

231. That Craig claimed that she was the Successor Trustee to Stanford Bank as Trustee of the children's school trust funds. The transfer of funds allegedly occurred when the infamous Sir Robert Allen Stanford was arrested for the second biggest Ponzi scheme in the United States and the banks he owned and operated were seized by US federal authorities and the monies had to be transferred to a new financial institution.
232. That it is alleged that large amounts of monies were lost in the transfers but again financial information regarding these transfers is limited due to suppression, denial and destruction of documents.
233. That several of the account executives working the Bernstein family investment accounts at Stanford, including those handling the children's trusts, transferred from the now infamous Sir Robert Allen Stanford banks to Oppenheimer, then to JP Morgan or vice versa, as the records provided thus far are incomplete and unclear regarding the personal transfers.
234. That on information and belief, Simon Bernstein immediately prior to his sudden and unexpected death, where it has been alleged by Theodore Bernstein and others that he may have been murdered, was contacting JP Morgan and Oppenheimer regarding missing funds in the transfer of his accounts and his family's accounts from Stanford to Oppenheimer then to JP Morgan or vice versa, including but not limited to, trust funds of Eliot's three minor children.
235. That this Court in the Probate cases has recently sealed a document as "Attorney Client Privileged" that Eliot is precluded from publishing or distributing but can be found online at a number of sources due to its widespread distribution by Eliot prior to his knowledge that claims of Privilege were levied in attempts to cover up the document that both threatens Eliot with forcefulness and aggressiveness and displays a wide variety of Breaches of Fiduciary Duties by Fiduciaries in the Estates and Trusts, primarily Theodore and violations of Attorney Conduct Codes and more by the Attorneys at Law mentioned in the letter that was sent by Theodore directly and solely to Eliot, where neither are Attorneys at Law, nor clients of one another. That the letter exhibits further conspiratorial activities.

236. That in keeping with the Court Order, Eliot will not republish the email herein as directed but will direct the Court to available sites where it exists publically and eternally in the World Wide Web, including, <http://www.ripoffreport.com/r/alan-rose-of-mrachek-fitzgerald-rose/west-palm-beach-florida-33401/alan-rose-of-mrachek-fitzgerald-amp-rose-alan-b-rose-suppress-free-speech-cover-up-1149197> and <http://tedbernsteinreport.blogspot.com/2014/07/alan-rose-john-pankauski-and-ted.html>, hereby incorporated by reference in entirety herein.

237. That Hon. Judge Colin claimed in hearings that it was obvious that the language threatening to use force and aggression with Eliot could not have meant to cause him physical harm or bodily injury and Eliot can understand that in normal circumstances lawyers using these terms may not mean harm but more strategy but in this unique case where the lawyers are accused of fraud, forgeries and theft and may face lengthy prison sentences, perhaps that language should be re-read in light of the claims of Murder of Simon, prior Death Threats to Eliot and CAR BOMBINGS and reported to the proper authorities by this Court.

238. This case is related to ALL of the following ongoing actions worldwide involving Eliot Bernstein where there are claims of conspiracy committed by Attorneys at Law in each and where shockingly there are many links in each of the cases to the same Attorneys at Law acting in various combinations in each case, including the instant action;

Washington, D.C. Insider Says Senator John Sampson Covered-Up Court Corruption

BREAKING NEWS: Washington, D.C. insider says NYS Senator John Sampson covered-up evidence of widespread corruption in New York Surrogate's Courts.

Source says Sampson was first threatened, but then successfully bribed, to bury evidence involving countless state and federal crimes involving billions of dollars.

Syracuse, Rochester, Albany, White Plains, Brooklyn and Manhattan Surrogate's Courts are said to top the list of areas involved.

It was revealed on Wednesday that a New York State Court administrative insider said that top state officials had been briefed by the feds on pending federal corruption indictments that would include employees of New York's Office of Court Administration (a/ka/ "OCA"). Most court employees, including judges, are employed by OCA.

It was further confirmed by the Washington, D.C. source that judges, with ties to banks, would be among those charged.

RE: FORMAL COMPLAINT AGAINST NEW YORK STATE EMPLOYEES INVOLVING
CONSTITUTIONAL VIOLATIONS, INCLUDING WIDESPREAD ILLEGAL WIRETAPPING

Dear Mr. Moosy,

At some point in time shortly after 9/11, and by methods not addressed here, these individuals improperly utilized access to, and devices of, the lawful operations of the Joint Terrorism Task Force (the JTTF). These individuals completely violated the provisions of FISA, ECPA and the Patriot Act for their own personal and political agendas. Specifically, these NY state employees essentially commenced black bag operations, including illegal wiretapping, against whomever they chose- and without legitimate or lawful purpose.

This complaint concerns the illegal use and abuse of such lawful operations for personal and political gain, and all such activity while acting under the color of law. This un-checked access to highly-skilled operatives found undeserving protection for some connected wrong-doers, and the complete destruction of others- on a whim, including the pre-prosecution priming of falsehoods (set-ups). The aftermath of such abuse for such an extended period of time is staggering.

It is believed that most of the 1.5 million-plus items in evidence now under seal in Federal District Court for the Eastern District of New York, case #09cr405 (EDNY) supports the fact, over a ten-year-plus period of time, of the illegal wiretapping of New York State judges, attorneys, and related targets, as directed by state employees.

One sworn affidavit, by an attorney, confirms the various illegal activity of Manhattan's attorney ethics committee, the Departmental Disciplinary Committee (the DDC), which includes allowing cover law firm operations to engage in the practice of law without a law license. Specifically, evidence (attorney affidavits, etc.) supports the claim that Naomi Goldstein, and other DDC employees supervised the protection of the unlicensed practice of law. The evidence also shows that Ms. Goldstein knowingly permitted the unlicensed practice of law, over a five-year-plus period of time, for the purpose of gaining access to, and information from, hundreds of litigants.

Evidence also supports the widespread illegal use of black bag operations by the NYS employees for a wide-range of objectives: to target or protect a certain judge or attorney, to set-up anyone who had been deemed to be a target, or to simply achieve a certain goal. The illegal activity is believed to not only have involved attorneys and judges throughout all of the New York State, including all 4 court-designated ethics departments, but also in matters beyond the borders of New York.

The set-up of numerous individuals for an alleged plot to bomb a Riverdale, NY Synagogue. These individuals are currently incarcerated. The trial judge, U.S. District Court Judge Colleen McMahon, who publicly expressed concerns over the case, saying, I have never heard anything like the facts of this case. I don't think any other judge has ever heard anything like the facts of this case. (2nd Circuit 11cr2763).

The concerted effort to fix numerous cases where confirmed associates of organized crime had made physical threats upon litigants and/or witnesses, and/or had financial interests in the outcome of certain court cases.

The judicial and attorney protection/operations, to gain control, of the $250 million-plus Thomas Carvel estate matters, and the pre-prosecution priming of the $150 million-plus Brooke Astor estate.

The wire-tapping and ISP capture, etc., of DDC attorney, Christine C. Anderson, who had filed a lawsuit after being assaulted by a supervisor, Sherry Cohen, and after complaining that certain evidence in ethics case files had been improperly destroyed. (See SDNY case #07cv9599 - Hon. Shira A. Scheindlin, U.S.D.J.)

The eToys litigation and bankruptcy, and associates of Marc Dreier, involving over $500 million and the protection by the DDC of certain attorneys, one who was found to have lied to a federal judge over 15 times.

The set-up and chilling of effective legal counsel of a disabled woman by a powerful CEO and his law firms, resulting in her having no contact with her children for over 6 years.

The wrongful detention for 4 years, prompted by influential NY law firms, of an early whistleblower of the massive Wall Street financial irregularities involving Bear Sterns and where protected attorney-client conversations were recorded and distributed.

The blocking of attorney accountability in the $1.25 billion Swiss Bank Holocaust Survivor settlement where one involved NY admitted attorney was ultimately disbarred- in New Jersey. Only then, and after 10 years, did the DDC follow with disbarment. Gizella Weisshaus v. Fagan.

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court is the entity that is legally responsible for enforcing the Rules of Professional Conduct governing the conduct of attorneys in New York State. The Appellate Division Departments have created grievance committees that are charged with the investigation of complaints against attorneys. Within the First Judicial Department the Departmental Disciplinary Committee of the Appellate Division investigates complaints against attorneys. The New York State Commission on Judicial Conduct was created by the State Constitution and is charged with investigating complaints against Judges and Justices of the Unified Court System.

According to the 2009 Report of the Commission on Judicial Conduct, there were 1,923 complaints filed in 2008. Yet of these complaints only 262 were investigated and of those, 173 were dismissed. This hearing will examine the processes and procedures that are followed by the various agencies charged with the responsibility of enforcing the rules and regulations that must be followed by the Judiciary and the Bar in the State of New York. It will also evaluate public satisfaction with the disciplinary process.

IMMEDIATE EMERGENCY RELIEF!!!
FOR THREE MINOR CHILDREN FRAUD AND ALLEGED

247. That Defendants worked together in concert and with others to interfere and deprive in combinations and separately to then begin a Pattern and Practice of frauds to destroy BFR and the children's trusts, in efforts to deplete Eliot of resources and then extort Eliot to either accept improper distributions to his children by participating in their fraud or else deprive Eliot of his and his children's inheritances.
248. That the Defendants worked together in concert and with others to interfere and deprive in combinations and separately to illegally seize Dominion and Control of the Estates and Trusts and delay and interfere with expectancies and inheritances of Eliot and his children.
249. That the Defendants worked together in concert and with others to interfere and deprive in combinations and separately to illegally seize Dominion and Control of Telenet Systems and delay and interfere with Eliot and Candice's income and interests in that company.
250. That once Defendants had seized Dominion and Control of the Estates, Trusts and Corporate Entities and diminished available funds to Eliot's family, they began an extortive attempt to have Eliot either participate in the fraudulent activity they were caught in or to face intentional financial calamity they now controlled.
251. That when Eliot refused and instead continued to pursue investigations with civil and criminal authorities, Defendants worked together in concert and with others to interfere and deprive in combinations and separately to interfere and deprive Eliot and his family of inheritances due them and deplete trust funds in his three minor children's trusts and leave them with no income that had been set up by Simon and Shirley in their estate plans virtually cutting them off of essential monies owed them.
252. That Eliot and his children had been set up financially through entities created by both Simon and Shirley while living and these finances were intended to continue after their deaths through their ELABORATE estate plans, some of these entities done exclusively for Eliot and his family's PROTECTION, which were designed to provide monthly income and school funds for his family into the future for many years.

253. That intentional delays in Eliot's inheritance have been caused in Shirley's Estate and Trusts where ELIOT is a one third beneficiary by the former PR's and Trustees of Simon's Estate attempted to claim that Simon had changed Shirley's beneficiaries from her three children to her ten grandchildren, through a series of fraudulent documents and frauds on this Court.
254. That Eliot's siblings Theodore and his sister Pamela had been wholly disinherited and considered predeceased for Shirley and Simon's Estate and Trusts in 2008. When Shirley died in 2010 her Trusts that held millions of dollars in assets then became irrevocable with Eliot, Lisa and Jill and their lineal descendants as the only ultimate beneficiaries.
255. That both Simon and Shirley completed mirrored Wills and Trusts in 2008, according to deposition statements made by Donald Tescher on July 09, 2014, and these plans wholly left their Estates and Trusts and all properties to Eliot, Lisa and Jill and their lineal descendants only.
256. That documents recently provided by Court Order in the Estate of Simon have revealed that the 2008 Wills and Trusts of Shirley and Simon's appear materially different and not mirrored and these documents have already been questioned in prior filed and unheard motions of Eliot's as to their legal validity.
257. That Shirley died with her 2008 Will and Trusts as the Dispositive documents, with Simon as a beneficiary while alive and Trustee and only Eliot, Lisa and Jill and their lineal descendants as the ultimate beneficiaries. Simon could neither add nor subtract beneficiaries to Shirley's plans once she died as the trusts became irrevocable, despite efforts by the former PR/Executors/Trustees, Tescher, Spallina and Ted to illegally achieve changes to the Beneficiaries through a series of proven fraudulent and admitted forged and fraudulently altered documents and then subsequent distributions were made as if these changes were legal and this to the advantage of Theodore and Pamela and to the disadvantage of others.

258. That Simon in no way could execute a Power of Appointment to make any changes to the Class of Beneficiaries (Eliot, Lisa and Jill and their lineal descendants) once she passed away. Yet, efforts were made to change the Beneficiaries of these irrevocable trusts and assets were then sold and distributions made to knowingly improper parties by the former PR's, Fiduciaries and Counsel for Simon and Shirley's Estates and Trusts.

259. That in 2012 Shirley's Estate was reopened by Hon. Judge Martin Colin due to Fraud committed by Tescher, Spallina, TSPA, Theodore, Manceri and Moran et al. and remains open today, pending ongoing litigation.

260. That in 2012 it is ALLEGED that Simon annulled his 2008 Will (instead of Amending it) and replaced it with an alleged 2012 Will and further allegedly Amended his 2008 Trusts and replaced it with a 2012 Amended and Restated Trust, only six weeks before he passed suddenly and unexpectedly.

261. That in 2013 it is proven in this Court in the Estate and Trust cases that POST MORTEM, Simon closed the Estate of Shirley, while dead for four months acting as Personal Representative, yes dead and done with Fraudulently Notarized, Fraudulent and Forged documents that has already led to one an arrest for felony acts.

262. That in 2013 it was learned from the Governor Rick Scott's Office, Notary Public Division that the notarizations on the ALLEGED 2012 Will, and Amended and Restated Trust were improper and where Simon cannot now said to have been present on the date the document is alleged signed, due to such improper notarization and legally void for this and other defects. The documents have been challenged before this Court for the 2012 Will and Trusts of Simon.

263. That Eliot has assisted the PBSO financial crimes division with information regarding alleged further criminal acts that are ongoing and primarily committed by Officers of this Court and Fiduciaries of this Court and due to this fact they have conspired to deny Eliot and his family, including three minor children of their inheritances, have stolen monies from Eliot and his children's pre-funded trusts and companies and then knowing that they were harming Eliot and his family, they proceeded to repeatedly attempt to force Eliot to either partake in illegal activities or starve and possibly be foreclosed on and evicted from their home and more.
264. That these efforts to foreclose on the home and starve out Eliot and his family completely defeats the wishes of both Simon and Shirley Bernstein in the elaborate estate planning mechanisms they put in place to protect Eliot and his family's assets, in some instances these plans were solely for Eliot and his family.

284. That a complex set of frauds have taken place in the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley and some are already proven such as improper notarizations of Wills and Trusts of Simon, proven fraudulently notarized Waivers in Shirley's Estate, proven Fraud on this Court through use of a deceased person, Simon, to act as Personal Representative to close an Estate through documents filed by the law offices of Tescher and Spallina on behalf of a dead PR and with no notice to the Court for months that the PR that was filing the documents had passed and this was done with scienter with this Court POST MORTEM.
285. That when Simon died the Estate of Shirley had not been closed and in order to attempt to change her Beneficiaries of her Estate and Irrevocable Trusts, the scheme needed Simon to be alive and close the Estate and then attempt to use an ALLEGED Power of Appointment to make changes that could not be made legally, therefore Simon was used POST MORTEM for several months while dead to close Shirley's Estate and then try and make changes to her Beneficiaries, again, POST MORTEM.
286. That similar fraudulent activity is taking place with the children's Trusts, BFR, the Estates, virtually all of the Trusts and entities sued hereunder, where documents are not complete, there are missing signatures, assets are being stolen and funds improperly used by the fiduciaries in self-dealing transactions that have benefited the Defendants.

292. That despite being aware of their involvement in criminal acts, the fact that they are under ongoing investigations, the fact that the dispositive documents have been challenged and found fraught with fraud and more, the fiduciaries, primarily now Theodore since the counsel he brought to the Bernstein family, Tescher and Spallina, are removed, continues to act and abuse his alleged fiduciary

293. IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE
FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND
FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA

PROBATE DIVISION

CASE NO.: 502014CP002815XXXXSB (IY)

OPPENHEIMER TRUST COMPANY
OF DELAWARE, in its capacity as
Resigned Trustee of the Simon Bernstein
Irrevocable Trusts created for the benefit of Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein,

Petitioner,

vs.

ELIOT AND CANDICE BERNSTEIN,
in their capacity as parents and natural
guardians of JOSHUA, JAKE AND
DANIEL BERNSTEIN, minors,

Respondents.

_____ /

OPPENHEIMER BANK OF DELAWARE’S MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF TIME TO RESPOND TO COUNTER-COMPLAINT

Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware (“OTCD”), in its capacity as the resigned Trustee of the Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Trusts created for the benefit of Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein (the “Resigned Trustee”),¹ by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby files this Motion for Enlargement of Time to Respond to the “Counter-Complaint” filed by Eliot and Candice Bernstein in various capacities, and states:

1. In response to a two-count Petition filed by the Resigned Trustee related to three small trusts for the benefit of Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein (the “Minor Beneficiaries”), Eliot and Candice Bernstein, as the parents and natural guardians of the Minor

¹ OTCD filed this action solely in its capacity as the Resigned Trustee and does not, by the filing of this Motion or otherwise, voluntarily appear in this action or subject itself to the jurisdiction of this Court in any other capacity.

 FILED: PALM BEACH COUNTY, FL SHARON R BOCK, CLERK.

Beneficiaries, and in at least a dozen other capacities, purported to file an 86-page, 353-paragraph, 14-Count “Counter Complaint” against the Resigned Trustee, 76 additional counterclaim-defendants, all persons directly or indirectly related to the “entity” counterclaim-defendants, and “John Does 1-5000.” Eliot Bernstein expressly incorporates into the Counter Complaint all allegations, pleadings and evidence from nine other lawsuits pending “worldwide involving Eliot Bernstein,” including several pending before this Court under different case numbers.

2. In addition to its substantive deficiencies, the Counter Complaint raises threshold questions of, inter alia, jurisdiction, comity, priority, capacity, standing, conflicts of interest, and the appropriateness of permitting Eliot and Candice Bernstein to act as their children’s representatives in this litigation. The Resigned Trustee intends to raise these threshold issues by motion, but requires additional time to do so.

3. The Resigned Trustee respectfully requests a thirty (30) day enlargement of time, through and including September 19, 2014, to respond to the Counter Complaint by motion or otherwise.

4. This is the first enlargement of time sought by the Resigned Trustee. It is requested in good faith and not for purpose of delay.

WHEREFORE, the Resigned Trustee respectfully requests a thirty (30) day enlargement of time, through and including September 19, 2014, to respond to the Counter Complaint.

Respectfully submitted,

GRAYROBINSON, P.A.

MOTION TO COMPEL THE ESTATES AND TRUSTS OF SIMON AND

ELIOT AND HIS MINOR CHILDREN.

1. That Eliot and his three minor children's inheritances have been interfered with and delayed by CRIMINAL MISCONDUCT committed by OFFICERS OF THIS COURT and FIDUCIARIES in the Estates of Simon and Shirley.
2. That due to these interferences and delays with an expected inheritance caused by OFFICERS OF

MOTION IN TO COMPEL...

THIS COURT, Eliot and his children have been forced to need counsel separately due the conflicts of interests created by the frauds making determination of beneficiaries to be decided by the Court at a later date and thus without those inheritances, held up by this Court, Eliot and his children who have been forced to indigent status. Eliot has filed with the Court an indigent application in the Oppenheimer lawsuit showing how bad this has become due to the intentional interference with his inheritance caused by the former and current OFFICERS OF THIS COURT and FIDUCIARIES criminal misconduct.

3. That per a letter from the former Fiduciaries and Counsel in the Estates and Trusts, Donald Tescher, attached Exhibit 1, this Court can see that these needs for counsel for Eliot and his minor children are a direct result of actions of the fiduciaries who even state they want to help the injured parties,

It has been brought to my attention that a document was prepared in our office that altered the disposition of the Shirley Bernstein Trust subsequent to Simon Bernstein's death...I am obviously upset and distraught over this chain of events and will do all that I reasonably can to correct and minimize any damages to the Bemstein family.

4. That the Officers of the Court and Fiduciaries, including the alleged Trustee Theodore and his counsel Alan Rose, who have participated in the advancement of these fraudulent schemes that used Altered Trust documents and made illegal distributions as a result, all benefiting Theodore and his counsel the most, have been since wasting Estate and Trust funds without Court approval for Legal Fees to defend Theodore's friends who have been removed from these matters, Spallina, Tescher and Manceri. These costs for the fiduciaries to commit fraud and then try and defend themselves before the Court, even lying to the Court about their involvement until forced to confess to Sheriff investigators is estimated to have bled the Estates and Trusts already north of a million dollars or more. Now further legal fees are being used in efforts to cover up the former crimes, use strategies admitted to be “forceful and aggressive” against beneficiaries for Theodore to protect himself using Trust funds as admitted on the record by the Theodore and further injure the parties already damaged by these intentional interferences through fraud of Theodore’s former counsel and PR’s and Trustees now removed.

5. That NO accountings of legal fees and details of them have been provided to beneficiaries despite repeated requests and thus remain a mystery but Theodore has surrounded himself thus far with six or more attorneys and misused trust and estate funds in so doing to defend himself personally as well as Trustee, even using those funds despite the advice of counsel, as stated in the Palm Beach County Sheriff report already submitted to this Court where Theodore was being interrogated.
6. That Theodore and his counsel have refused requests for details of their billings.
7. That Theodore and Alan are seeking all kinds of costly legal actions against Eliot and his three minor children, including requests for depositions, responses to this newly filed lawsuits and more and driving up the costs to Eliot who is Pro Se to force him to either make a mistake in responding or take depositions without counsel.
8. THAT THE TRUSTEE AND HIS COUNSEL CANNOT BE EXPECTED TO PAY ELIOT AND HIS THREE MINOR CHILDREN’S COUNSEL, which would be used to further prosecute them for their DIRECT and INDIRECT involvement in the prior proven and admitted crimes and those currently under ongoing investigations. Funding Eliot and his children’s counsel as beneficiaries harmed by their and others actions is adverse to their interests, which is to try and shut Eliot and his family down by further delaying their inheritances with frivolous pleadings such as this, where they are asking to reconstruct a trust that is alleged to be fraudulent. Already in these matters the fiduciaries have fraudulently notarized and forged documents already proven and admitted to in the dispositive documents, committed fraud IN AND UPON THE COURT committed by OFFICERS OF THE COURT. Despite the fact that the need for counsel for the beneficiaries has been caused directly by the fiduciaries who are misusing funds to surround themselves with costly counsel that has bled the Estates and Trusts and billed for committing crimes against the beneficiaries already.

9. That Eliot and his children are need of separate counsel to respond to these actions in the Estates and Trusts deemed essential to the proceedings and the fiduciaries have filed these pleadings as allegedly necessary for the Estate and Trust administration when in fact the pleadings being filed are merely to harm the beneficiaries further and try and cover up their involvement in the past crimes.
10. That the Fiduciaries of the Estates and Trusts have refused repeatedly to provide for requests for monies to pay for counsel that has become necessary to the DIRECTLY to the FRAUD of ATTORNEYS AT LAW and FIDUCIARIES acting as OFFICERS OF THIS COURT who have caused these needs for legal counsel for Eliot and his three MINOR CHILDREN who are all unrepresented.
11. That since these actions instigated by the fiduciary Theodore as the alleged Trustee are alleged to benefit the Estate and Trusts and since the need for separate counsel for Eliot and his children have been caused by the Egregious Acts of Bad Faith committed with Unclean Hands of the Fiduciaries that have stymied and delayed with scienter Eliot's inheritances, the Court should find that until those OFFICERS OF THIS COURT UNDER YOUR HONOR'S Jurisdiction and Tutelage who caused these needs to arise, pay damages for forcing these costs on Eliot and his children, that the Estates and Trusts requesting all this legal work now be compelled to pay for reasonable and customary legal fees and expenses for counsel for both Eliot and his children to PREVENT FURTHER DAMAGES.

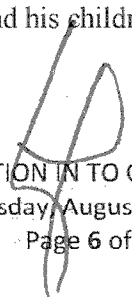

MOTION IN TO COMPEL...
Thursday, August 28, 2014

12. That in light of upcoming requested depositions of Eliot and Answers and Counter Complaints due in two more new complex additional cases they have filed, these legal costs of Eliot are necessary and benefit according to the Fiduciary, the Estates and Trusts. The Court knowing Eliot and his children cannot pay for this mass of legal work heaped upon them demand the PR's and Trustees to provide representative counsel, as without it this could severely prejudice and further damage Eliot and his three minor children. This is especially important for the three minor children under this Court's jurisdiction that must have separate counsel provided than Eliot due to the intentional conflicts created through the frauds committed directly by OFFICERS OF THIS COURT.
13. That the Fiduciaries and their Counsel have run up MASSIVE legal bills, including billing to commit fraud against the beneficiaries and for meetings to confess FRAUD to Palm Beach Sheriff Investigators that they committed to ALTER DOCUMENTS and more that caused now disputes as to who the beneficiaries are and have delayed and interfered with an expectancy to the beneficiaries. Thus, the Fiduciaries and their Counsel have used beneficiaries monies to pay legal fees to commit crimes against them and no for them to defend themselves for the crimes, while denying beneficiaries counsel to represent themselves. This is further self-dealing by these Fiduciaries and Officers of this Court that is OBSTRUCTING JUSTICE and causing further damages to Eliot and his three MINOR CHILDREN who have been deprived of counsel by the torts and criminal acts committed.
14. That Robert Spallina admitted to Palm Beach County Sheriff Investigators that he fraudulently altered a trust document in these matters that has caused the beneficiaries to come into dispute, see attached Exhibit 2 – Palm Beach County Sheriff Report.
15. That arrest was made of Tescher & Spallina, P.A.'s Legal Assistant and Notary Public, Kimberly Moran, for Fraudulently Notarizing Documents and who admitted forging six documents for six separate people, including Simon who was deceased at the time.

16. That these proven and admitted crimes have cost Eliot and his three Minor Children already considerable legal fees that have further harmed them and caused them to no longer be able to afford counsel and where Eliot and his children having counsel would benefit both the Estates and Trusts and this Court and allow proper representation to continue forward and should be granted by this Court, especially where the crimes were committed by Officers of the Court and Fiduciaries and the crimes took place IN AND UPON THIS COURT as well.
17. Alan Rose, in an August 19th hearing stated that Eliot was indigent but failed to state the reason, which is due wholly to the acts that have caused the delays in inheritance. These intentional fraudulent acts that have delayed the inheritances, may take some time to sort out and certainly will cost a fortune in litigation to Eliot and his children, that is in no way related to the acts of Eliot or his children but again related directly to the Officers of this Court that Your Honor refuses to remove on your own initiative for now months, despite solid evidence presented for their removal and for their direct and indirect involvement with the other removed PR'S, Trustees and Counsel felonious acts.

Wherefore, Eliot prays that this Court compel the fiduciaries of both the Simon and Shirley Estate and Trusts to provide monies for Eliot and his children to retain and pay counsel to protect their interests from further harms within a reasonable legal rate equal to the rates they have been billing the Estates and Trusts for to act as Theodore's counsel, as this would seem fair. Perhaps a request from Your Honor compelling their billing records and details will prove more fruitful than the beneficiaries attempts that have been ignored for two years so that these fees they are charging can be ascertained and allowed for Eliot and his children.

Re: Estates and Trusts of Shirley Bernstein and Simon Bernstein

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

It has been brought to my attention that a document was prepared in our office that altered the disposition of the Shirley Bernstein Trust subsequent to Simon Bernstein's death. Information provided to me appears to indicate that there were two versions of the First Amendment to the Shirley Bernstein Trust Agreement, both executed on November 18, 2008. Under one version the children of Pam Simon and Ted Bernstein would not be permissible appointees of Simon Bernstein's exercise of the power of appointment while under the second version that restriction was removed. As you all know, Simon Bernstein's dispositive plan, expressed to all of you during his lifetime on a conference call, was to distribute the Estate to all ten of his grandchildren. That was the basis upon which the administration was moving forward.

Under the Shirley Bernstein Trust, there is a definition of children and lineal descendants. That definition excluded Pam Simon, Ted Bernstein and their respective children from inheriting. The document also contained a special Power of Appointment for Simon wherein he could appoint the assets of the Trust for Shirley's lineal descendants. Based upon the definition of children and lineal descendants, the Power of Appointment could not be exercised in favor of Pam Simon, Ted Bernstein or their respective children, although we believe it was Simon Bernstein's wish to provide equally for all of his grandchildren.

On November 18, 2008, it does appear from the information that I have reviewed that Shirley Bernstein executed a First Amendment to her trust agreement. The document as executed appears to make only one relatively minor modification to her trust disposition by eliminating a specific gift to Ted Bernstein's stepson. In January of 2013 a First Amendment to the Shirley Bernstein Trust Agreement was provided to Christine Yates, Esq. who, at that time, was representing Eliot Bernstein. The document provided contained a paragraph number 2 which modified the definitional language in Shirley's document so as to permit, by deleting the words "and their respective lincal descendants" from the definition, an exercise of the power of appointment by Simon Bernstein over the Shirley Bernstein Trust to pass equally to all ten grandchildren rather than only six of the grandchildren.

By virtue of The Florida Bar Rules of Professional Conduct, I am duty bound to provide this information to you. Obviously, as a result of the issues and ramifications raised by the allegations, my firm must resign from further representation in all matters relating to the Estates and Trusts of Simon Bernstein and Shirley Bernstein. Furthermore, it is my intent, and I assume also the intent of Robert Spallina, to tender our resignations as personal representatives of the Simon Bernstein Estate and as trustees of the Simon Bernstein Trust. If the majority of the Bernstein family is in agreement, I would propose to exercise the power to designate a successor trustee by appointing Ted Bernstein in that capacity. With regard to the Simon Bernstein Estate, the appointment of the successor would require a court proceeding.

I am obviously upset and distraught over this chain of events and will do all that I reasonably can to correct and minimize any damages to the Bernstein family. As I believe you know, to date there has only been a modest funding of some, but not all, of the continuing trusts for the grandchildren emanating from Shirley's Trust assets.

Very truly yours,

DONALD R. TESCHER

DISPOSITION: ZULU

THE PALM BEACH COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE, DISTRICT 1 CONFERENCE ROOM, WHICH IS LOCATED AT 3228 GUN CLUB ROAD, WEST PALM BEACH, FL. ROBERT SPALLINA STATED THAT HE AND HIS PARTNER, DONALD TRESCHNER, MET SIMON AND SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN IN 2007. HE SAID THAT IN 2008 THE BERNSTEIN'S CAME TO THE TRESCHNER AND SPALLINA FIRM. HE SAID THAT THEY (THE ATTORNEY'S OFFICE) CREATED WILLS AND TRUSTS FOR BOTH SIMON AND SHIRLEY IN 2008, AMONG OTHER PLANNING. SPALLINA TOLD US THAT SIMON HAD BEEN IN THE INSURANCE BUSINESS FOR 40 YEARS.

HE SAID THAT THE SUBJECT OF THE FIRST MEETINGS WAS THE SALE OF THE INSURANCE BUSINESS DOWN THE ROAD, AS WELL AS MOVING AROUND SOME STOCKS. SPALLINA STATED THE CONVERSATIONS WITH SIMON AND THE THOUGHT PROCESS WAS THAT ONCE SIMON SOLD THE INSURANCE BUSINESS HE OWNED, ALL THE FAMILY WOULD BENEFIT FROM IT (FINANCIALLY). HE SAID THE BUSINESS WAS NEVER SOLD, BUT A LOT OF PLANNING AND PREPARATION WAS DONE FOR IT, TO INCLUDE SETTING UP A FLORIDA LIMITED PARTNERSHIP AND A DELAWARE ASSET PROTECTION TRUST. SPALLINA STATED THAT SIMON WAS ALWAYS CONCERNED WITH CREDITOR PROTECTION. HE SAID THAT IS QUITE COMMON IN THE INSURANCE BUSINESS WORLD.

SPALLINA REITERATED THAT IN 2008, THE LAW FIRM DID THE DOCUMENTS FOR THE WILLS AND TRUSTS. HE STATED THEY (SIMON & SHIRLEY) HAVE FIVE CHILDREN AND 10 GRANDCHILDREN, AS WELL AS A STEP-GRANDCHILD.

SPALLINA SAID THAT THE ESTATE PLAN WAS SIMILAR TO MOST OTHERS, IT SAID SHOULD ONE SPOUSE DIE FIRST, THE OTHER WILL RECEIVE EVERYTHING (ALL ASSETS). HE SAID THAT UNDER BOTH TRUSTS, THE INITIAL DOCUMENTS READ THAT UPON THE SECOND DEATH, TWO CHILDREN (TED AND PAM) WERE EXCLUDED. HE TOLD US THIS TOOK PLACE SINCE BOTH TED AND PAM WERE SET UP WITH LIFE INSURANCE BUSINESSES AND THEY WANTED TO MAKE THE REMAINING CHILDREN (ELIOT, LISA, AND JILL) AS WHOLE AS THEY COULD. NOTE: TED WAS WORKING WITH SIMON IN THE INSURANCE BUSINESS DOWN HERE IN FLORIDA AND PAM RECEIVED A COMPANY IN ILLINOIS.

SPALLINA REITERATED THAT UPON THE DEATH OF THE SECOND SURVIVOR, EVERYTHING FROM BOTH TRUSTS GOES TO JILL, LISA, AND ELIOT ADDING THAT SHIRLEY HAD ONE OTHER STIPULATION IN HER TRUST, WHICH STATED THAT TED'S STEPSON, (MATTHEW LOGAN) RECEIVED $200,000. HE TOLD ME THAT SHIRLEY HAD A LIKING TO MATTHEW SO SHE ADDED THAT TO HER TRUST, BUT THAT SIMON DID NOT BELIEVE IN THAT, THAT HE FELT EVERYTHING SHOULD GO TO BLOOD (A BIOLOGICAL CHILD). SPALLINA SAID THAT LATER ON IN 2008, SHIRLEY STATED SHE WANTED TO CHANGE HER TRUST DOCUMENTS IN REFERENCE TO THE MONEY LEFT TO MATTHEW LOGAN. HE STATED THAT AN AMENDMENT WAS CREATED, WHICH WAS SIGNED BY SHIRLEY ON NOV. 19, 2008 TAKING LOGAN OUT OF THE TRUST.

SPALLINA STATED THAT HE FELT THAT SIMON'S WISHES OVERRODE SHIRLEY'S IN THIS SITUATION. SPALLINA SAID THAT HE AND KIMBERLY MORAN (HIS EMPLOYEE & A NOTARY) WENT TO SHIRLEY'S HOME FOR THE DOCUMENT TO BE SIGNED. HE SAID THAT RACHEL WALKER, SHIRLEY'S ASSISTANT, WAS PRESENT WHEN THE DOCUMENT WAS SIGNED.

SHE AND SPALLINA ARE ON THE DOCUMENT AS WITNESSES, MORAN IS THE NOTARY FOR SHIRLEY'S SIGNATURE. HE TOLD ME THAT WAS THE LAST CHANGE SHIRLEY EVER MADE TO HER DOCUMENTS AND THAT SHE PASSED ON DECEMBER 2010. SIMON WAS STILL ALIVE AND THE TRUST READ THAT EVERYTHING WENT TO HIS BENEFIT. SPALLINA REITERATED THAT HER DOCUMENTS READ THAT UPON SIMON'S DEATH, EVERYTHING (HER ASSETS) WENT TO JILL, LISA, AND ELIOT.

SPALLINA STATED THAT IN 2012, SIMON CONTACTED HIM STATING THAT HE WAS HAVING CONCERNS ABOUT HOW HE HAD ELIMINATED TED AND PAM FROM HIS TRUST. HE STATED THAT IT IS POSSIBLE THAT THESE THOUGHTS CAME ON BECAUSE PAM STARTED SENDING HIM LETTERS. HE SAID THAT SHE (PAM) HAD A LAWYER CONTACT HIS OFFICE AND ASK FOR COPIES OF SHIRLEY'S TRUST DOCUMENTS. SPALLINA SAID THAT HE MET WITH SIMON, WHO SAID THAT HE WAS CONSIDERING CHANGING HIS DOCUMENTS. HE SAID THAT ONE OF THE CHANGES DISCUSSED WAS HOW TO INCLUDE TED AND PAM'S CHILDREN.

SPALLINA STATED THAT SIMON HAD A LIFE INSURANCE POLICY WITH THE BENEFIT OF $1,600,000. HE SAID THAT THE POLICY READ THAT IF SIMON PASSED BEFORE SHIRLEY SHE RECEIVED THE BENEFIT, BUT IF SHIRLEY PASSED BEFORE HIM, THE FIVE CHILDREN RECEIVED THE BENEFITS ONCE HE PASSED. THIS POLICY ORIGINATED OUT OF ILLINOIS. SPALLINA ADDED THAT THIS POLICY AND ITS DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS ARE CURRENTLY IN A FEDERAL COURT BATTLE.

SPALLINA STATED THAT A DISCUSSION TOOK PLACE WITH HIM AND SIMON IN 2012; REFERENCE THE FACT THAT SIMON HAD ISSUES ON HOW AND WITH WHOM FUNDS WERE GOING TO BE DISTRIBUTED TO UPON HIS DEATH. HE TOLD ME SIMON WAS HAVING RESERVATIONS ABOUT TED AND PAM NOT BEING IN HIS TRUST, AS WELL AS THAT FACT THAT HE THEN HAD A GIRLFRIEND BY THE NAME OF MARIEZ PUCCIO THAT HE WANTED TO PROVIDE FOR. HE ADDED THAT NO ONE IN THE FAMILY WAS HAPPY THAT PUCCIO WAS IN SIMON'S LIFE. HE ALSO TOLD ME THAT SIMON WANTED HIS GRANDCHILDREN TO RECEIVE BENEFITS FROM THE TRUST.

SPALLINA SAID THAT SIMON FIRST SUGGESTED MAKING BENEFICIARY CHANGES ON THE AFOREMENTIONED LIFE INSURANCE POLICY. SPALLINA SAID THAT HE TOLD SIMON THAT WAS A VERY BAD IDEA. HE TOLD ME THAT THERE WAS SOMETHING CALLED AN EXERCISE OF POWER OF APPOINTMENT, BUT IN BOTH SIMON AND SHIRLEY'S TRUST DOCUMENTS. HE SAID THIS GAVE THE LIVING SPOUSE THE ABILITY TO MAKE CHANGES ON THE DECEASED SPOUSE'S DOCUMENTS. HE SAID THAT HE TOLD SIMON, THAT MAYBE THEY SHOULD EXPLORE OPTIONS WITH THAT. HE SAID SIMON TOLD HIM THAT HE WANTED TO MAKE THE NECESSARY CHANGES TO HAVE BOTH TRUSTS READ THAT THE 10 GRANDCHILDREN WERE THE BENEFICIARIES. HE TOLD ME THAT HE TOLD SIMON (SI AS HE CALLS HIM) THAT HE COULD NOT MAKE THOSE CHANGES TO SHIRLEY'S TRUST BECAUSE SHE HAD WROTE TED AND PAM AND THEIR CHILDREN AS PREDECEASED IN HER TRUST.

SPALLINA REITERATED THAT SIMON CAN DO WHATEVER HE WANTS WITH HIS ESTATE, BUT ALL HE CAN DO WITH SHIRLEY'S TRUST IS GIVE IT TO LISA, JILL, AND ELIOT'S CHILDREN. HE SAID THAT SIMON WAS NOT HAPPY ABOUT THIS. HE SAID THAT SIMON

WAS VERY ADAMANT ABOUT LEAVING EVERYTHING IN THE ESTATES TO THE GRANDCHILDREN. HE ALSO SAID THAT HE ADVISED SIMON TO NOT MAKE CHANGES TO THE LIFE INSURANCE POLICY OR THE ESTATES, MAKING PUCCTO A BENEFICIARY. HE STATED THAT THIS WILL ONLY CAUSE PROBLEMS AND CREATE LITIGATION. SPALLINA SAID THE AFOREMENTIONED DISCUSSION AND MEETING TOOK PLACE IN FEBRUARY 2012. HE SAID THE MEETING CONCLUDED WITH SIMON SAYING HE NEEDED TO THINK ABOUT THINGS.

HE TOLD ME THAT THREE MONTHS LATER, SIMON CONTACTED HIM STATING HE KNEW WHAT HE WANTED TO DO. HE SAID THAT SIMON TOLD HIM HE WANTED TO LEAVE HIS INSURANCE POLICY ALONE, BUT THAT HE WANTS BOTH TRUSTS TO GO TO HIS 10 GRANDCHILDREN. SPALLINA SAID THAT HE EXPLAINED TO HIM AGAIN, THAT ONLY HIS TRUST, NOT SHIRLEY'S CAN GO TO BOTH GRANDCHILDREN, UNLESS HE TAKES ALL OF THE ASSETS OUT OF THE SHIRLEY TRUST AND PUTS THEM INTO HIS NAME. HE SAID THE COST OF TAKING THE ASSETS OUT OF SHIRLEY'S TRUST WOULD HAVE BEEN SIGNIFICANT, BECAUSE SHIRLEY'S DEATH OCCURRED BEFORE FEDERAL ESTATE TAX CHANGES TOOK PLACE, SO AS LONG AS IT STAYED IN HER ESTATE IT WOULD BE FREE OF TAX, BUT SHOULD IT GO TO SIMON'S TRUST IT WILL BE TAXED.

THERE WAS ALSO AN ISSUE OF SUBJECTING THE ASSETS FROM SHIRLEY'S ESTATE TO CREDITORS IF IT WENT TO SIMON'S ESTATE. SPALLINA TOLD ME THAT AT THIS TIME, SIMON SAID "GET MY CHILDREN ON THE PHONE". HE SAID THAT SIMON TOLD HIM THAT HE WANTED HIS CHILDREN TO AGREE THAT ALL ASSETS FROM BOTH TRUSTS GO TO THE 10 GRANDCHILDREN. HE SAID THAT SIMON TOLD HIM HE (SIMON) COULD GET THEM TO AGREE. SPALLINA CONFIRMED THAT THIS CONVERSATION OCCURRED ON THE SAME DATE, DURING THE SAME PHONE CALL (CONFERENCE CALL), REGARDING THE WAIVER OF ACCOUNTING FORM FOR SHIRLEY'S ESTATE IN PBSO CASE #13-097087.

FROM A PREVIOUS INVESTIGATION DONE BY ME, I FOUND THAT SIMON SIGNED THE WAIVER OF ACCOUNTING ON 04/09/12, SO IF IS POSSIBLE THAT THE PHONE CALL OCCURRED ON THAT DATE. I HAD ALSO NOTED IN MY REPORT THAT THERE WAS SOME DISCUSSION OF INHERITANCE AND WHO WAS TO GET WHAT. SPALLINA SAID THAT DURING THE PHONE CALL, ALL FIVE KIDS AGREED THAT CHANGING THE INHERITANCE OF BOTH ESTATES TO THE GRANDCHILDREN WAS A GREAT IDEA. HE SAID THAT ELIOT SPOKE THE MOST, STATING THINGS SUCH AS, GREAT IDEA DAD, WHATEVER YOU WANT TO DO, WHATEVER MAKES YOU FEEL BEST, WHATEVER IS BEST FOR YOUR HELEN DAD.

SO, AFTER THE AFOREMENTIONED PHONE CALL, NEW DOCUMENTS WERE DRAWN UP FOR SIMON'S ESTATE. THESE NEW DOCUMENTS GAVE EVERYTHING TO ALL 10 GRANDKIDS. HE ALSO EXERCISED HIS POWER OF SHIRLEY'S ESTATE, LEAVING EVERYTHING TO ALL 10 GRANDKIDS, EVEN THOUGH LEGALLY HE COULD NOT INCLUDE TED AND PAM'S KIDS BECAUSE OF THE PREDECEASED LIMITATION. HE SAID THESE DOCUMENTS WERE EXECUTED AT THE END OF JULY 2012. HE SAID SEVEN WEEKS LATER SIMON DIES, UNEXPECTEDLY. I FOUND THAT SIMON PASSED ON SEPTEMBER 13, 2012 OF A HEART ATTACK.

SPALLINA SAID APPROXIMATELY TWO MONTHS AFTER THAT, HIS OFFICE RECEIVED A REQUEST FROM ELIOT'S ATTORNEY, CHRISTINE YATES, FOR ALL DOCUMENTS RELATING TO

CASE NO. [REDACTED] OFFENSE REPORT CASE NO. 14029489
DISPOSITION: ZULU

SIMON AND SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN, TO INCLUDE DOCUMENTS RELATING TO BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, WHICH OWNS A HOME THAT ELIOT AND HIS FAMILY LIVE IN. HE SAID THAT HIS HOME IS ACTUALLY OWNED AND IS FUNDED BY THREE TRUSTS THAT SIMON CREATED. THE THREE TRUSTS ARE IN THE NAME OF ELIOT'S THREE CHILDREN, (JACK, JAKE, AND DAN).

Teschner and Spallina then conspire post mortem to make changes to Shirley and Simon's estate documents.

SPALLINA TOLD ME THAT HE AND HIS PARTNER HAD DISCUSSIONS REFERENCE TO FULFILLING SIMON'S WISHES OF ALL 10 GRANDCHILDREN RECEIVING THE BENEFITS FROM BOTH SIMON AND SHIRLEY'S TRUSTS. HE SAID THAT HE AND HIS PARTNER, DONALD TESCHNER, DISCUSSED DOING A SCRIVENER'S AFFIDAVIT REFERENCE REINSTATING TED AND PAM'S CHILDREN INTO SHIRLEY'S TRUST, SINCE THEIR NAMES WERE UNCLEAR TO AS IF THE GRANDCHILDREN WERE OR WERE NOT DEEMED PREDECEASED, AS TED AND PAM WERE. HE TOLD ME THAT THE DECISION WAS MADE TO NOT DO THE SCRIVENER'S AFFIDAVIT, DUE TO THE CHANCE THAT IT MAY NOT WORK. HE SAID THOUGH, THAT AGAINST HIS BETTER JUDGMENT HE ALTERED THE FIRST PAGE OF THE FIRST AMENDMENT TO THE SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT, BEFORE HE TURNED IT OVER TO YATES. THE ORIGINAL WAS MENTIONED EARLIER ON IN THIS REPORT AND STATES THAT SHIRLEY SIGNED IT ON NOVEMBER 18, 2008. IT TOOK MATTHEW LOGAN OUT OF THE TRUST.

SPALLINA SAID THAT THEY NOTICED THAT THE FIRST PAGE OF THE DOCUMENT SKIPPED FROM ONE TO THREE, SO HE TOOK IT UPON HIMSELF TO ADD IN NUMBER TWO, BEFORE SENDING IT TO YATES. THE CHANGE THAT NUMBER TWO MADE TO THE TRUST, AMENDED PARAGRAPH E OF ARTICLE III, MAKING IT READ THAT ONLY TED AND PAM WERE CONSIDERED PREDECEASED, NOT THEIR CHILDREN. HE SAID THE ORIGINAL TRUST STATES THAT TED, PAM, AND THEIR CHILDREN ARE DEEMED PREDECEASED. SPALLINA SAID HE DID THIS AT THIS OFFICE IN BOCA RATON, FLORIDA. HE SAID THAT NO ONE ELSE TOOK PART IN ALTERING THE DOCUMENT. HE SAID THAT HE DID IT TO MAKE SIMON'S WISHES AND THE VERBAL AGREEMENT FROM THE APRIL 2012 PHONE CONVERSATION COME TRUE. SPALLINA STATED THAT ALTHOUGH HE CREATED THE ALTERED FORM AND ATTACHED IT TO THE ORIGINALLY SIGNED/NOTARIZED FORM, HE RECEIVED NO INCOME OR GAIN FROM IT. HE STATED HE SOLELY DID IT TO FULFILL SIMON'S WISHES. HE CONFIRMED THAT THIS ALTERED DOCUMENT DID NOT GET FILED WITH THE COURTS.

SPALLINA STATED THAT AGAINST HIS ADVICE, A DISTRIBUTION WAS MADE FROM ONE OF THE TRUSTS AFTER SIMON'S DEATH. HE STATED THAT HE ADVISED AGAINST THIS AND WHEN SIMON PASSED, A FORMER PARTNER FILED A CLAIM AGAINST THE ESTATE FOR $2,500,000.

SPALLINA ALSO TOLD ME THAT IN 2006, ALL OF THE GRANDCHILDREN RECEIVED TRUSTS FROM SHIRLEY AND SIMON. HE STATED THAT YATES WAS ACTUALLY THE ATTORNEY FOR ELIOT'S CHILDREN'S TRUSTS. SPALLINA STATED THAT SIMON WANTED ELIOT'S KIDS TO HAVE A HOME, BUT DID NOT WANT THE HOME IN ELIOT'S NAME.

SPALLINA ALSO TOLD ME THAT IN 2009 SIMON CAME TO HIM AND SAID HE IS BUYING A HOUSE FOR ELIOT AND HIS FAMILY TO LIVE IN, BUT HE DOES NOT WANT ELIOT TO OWN THE HOME. HE SAID THAT SIMON TOLD HIM THAT HE WANTED ELIOT'S

SPALLINA ALTERS TRUST DOCUMENTS IN SHIRLEY TRUST TO CHANGE BENEFICIARIES AND COMMIT FRAUD BUT WHY? FURTHER LIES TO JUDGE COLIN IN HEARING AND TELLS HIM IT IS THE TEN GRANDCHILDREN TOO and perpetrates another fraud on the court.

Did Spallina report this to the proper authorities or court? No and instead lies to them

Now allegedly we have Moran committing forgery and post mortem crimes and saying she acted alone and now Spallina altering others and alone and who buys this?

It was a May 10, 2012 phone call although Simon allegedly signed his documents in April 2012, story again is wholly false. See Simon April 09 2012 docs.

CHILDREN'S THREE TRUSTS TO OWN THE HOME. HE THEN SET UP A LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY, WHICH IS BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY. HE SAID THAT SIMON SET UP AN ACCOUNT AT LEGACY BANK. HE SAID THAT SIMON FUNDED THE ACCOUNT, TO PAY FOR THE EXPENSES AT THE HOUSE. RACHEL WALKER WAS IN CHARGE OF PAYING THOSE EXPENSES. HE SAID THAT AT SIMON'S DEATH THE ACCOUNT HAD VERY LITTLE MONEY IN IT. HE SAID THIS WAS THE TYPE OF ACCOUNT THAT ONLY ENOUGH MONEY WENT INTO IT EACH MONTH TO COVER THE NECESSARY EXPENSES FOR THE HOME, SUCH AS POWER, WATER, AND MORTGAGE.

SPALLINA STATED THAT PRIOR TO SIMON'S DEATH, HE WAS THE MANAGER OF BFR, BUT AFTER HIS DEATH IT WAS TRANSFERRED TO OPPENHEIMER TRUST COMPANY, BECAUSE NO ONE IN THE FAMILY WANTED TO MANAGE IT. HE STATED THIS WAS BECAUSE NO ONE WANTED TO DEAL WITH ELIOT. HE SAID OTC BECAME THE TRUSTEE AND THE LEGACY BANK ACCOUNT GOT CLOSED OUT SINCE THE ACCOUNT HAD MINIMAL FUNDS IN IT AND SIMON WAS NO LONGER ALIVE TO FUND IT. HE STATED THAT OTC OPENED UP THEIR OWN BFR TRUST ACCOUNT. HE SAID THAT WHEN THIS OCCURRED, THERE WAS APPROXIMATELY $80,000 IN EACH OF ELIOT'S CHILDREN'S TRUSTS. HE SAID THAT ELIOT STARTED CALLING UP OTC ASKING FOR THEM TO PAY BILLS.

SPALLINA SAID THE PROBLEM IS THAT SINCE NEITHER ELIOT NOR HIS WIFE WERE WORKING, THEY WERE ALSO ASKING FOR THEIR CREDIT CARD BILLS TO BE PAID, ALONG WITH THE NORMAL LIVING EXPENSES. HE STATED THAT THE CREDIT CARD BILLS SHOWED CHARGES TO HIGH END RESTAURANTS, SUCH AS CAPITAL GRILL. SPALLINA SAID THAT DUE TO THE EXPENSES BEING PAID BY THE THREE CHILDREN'S TRUST, TO INCLUDE PRIVATE SCHOOL, THE TRUSTS WERE DRAINED BY AUGUST 2013.

SPALLINA STATED THAT TED BERNSTEIN IS THE TRUSTEE FOR SHIRLEY'S TRUST. HE SAID THAT SHIRLEY HAD A CONDO THAT WAS SOLD FOR $1,400,000 AND THAT MONEY WENT INTO THE TRUST. HE SAID THAT TED DISCUSSED WITH HIS SIBLINGS, POSSIBLY EXCLUDING ELIOT, THAT THERE WAS CONCERN ABOUT A CREDITOR GETTING SOME OF THE MONEY. HE SAID THAT TED MADE A DISTRIBUTION TO SEVEN OF THE 10 GRANDCHILDREN'S TRUSTS. FOUR OF WHICH INCLUDE TED'S THREE CHILDREN AND PAM'S CHILD. SPALLINA SAID THAT TED ONLY FUNDED SEVEN OF THE GRANDCHILDREN, BECAUSE ELIOT REFUSED TO OPEN ACCOUNTS FOR HIS THREE KIDS SO THAT TED COULD FUND THEM. HE SAID THAT IN SEPTEMBER OF 2013, $80,000 WAS DISTRIBUTED TO EACH OF THE SEVEN TRUSTS, WHICH IS A TOTAL OF $560,000. SPALLINA REITERATED THAT TED WAS TOLD TO NOT MAKE DISTRIBUTIONS.

SPALLINA WAS ASKED AND CONFIRMED THAT THE ALTERED DOCUMENT REFERENCE SHIRLEY'S TRUST, IS THE ONLY MISTAKE THAT HE MADE. HE IS NOT AWARE OF ANY OTHER MISTAKES.

I WAS SUPPLIED A COPY OF THE ALTERED DOCUMENT BY SPALLINA ON 01/22/14.

THIS NARRATIVE IS NOT A VERBATIM ACCOUNT OF THE INTERVIEW WITH SPALLINA. FURTHER INVESTIGATION WILL CONSIST OF MEETING WITH SIMON AND SHIRLEY'S CHILDREN, IN ATTEMPT TO GAIN STATEMENTS FROM THEM.

This has nothing to do with how the Manager role transfers in the LLC and Spallina is in no way a part of that. Nobody asked Eliot who is the legal guardian and under the documents would decide the next manager after Simon and this further evidences Spallina's criminal intent against Eliot and family.

Spallina is the one who first to call Janet to pay the bills as he made her the new Manager and she would be handling. Eliot never heard of her before.

This whole convoluted story about BFR is BS. For months after Simon this account in his name only was used illegally. When Legacy bank found out they seized account. Then Spallina himself transferred the manager role, with no authority to Janet Craig at Oppenheimer, against the operating agreement of the LLC which called for a vote of the Members (Eliot as Guardian of his children the Members), which Spallina illegally evaded doing. This is a clear hijacking of BFR and draining the funds of BFR and the trusts.

Is Spallina Ted's counsel?

This is not the only mistake he made, in fact his law firm notary who he is responsible for committed six acts of FORGERY and FRAUD and signed documents post mortem for Simon.

ON JAN. 28, 2014 I MET WITH TED BERNSTEIN WHO WAS ACCOMPANIED BY ATTORNEY ALAN ROSE. ROSE IS A CIVIL ATTORNEY, SPECIALIZING IN PROBATE AND BUSINESS LITIGATION. THIS INTERVIEW TOOK PLACE AT THE PALM BEACH COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE, SPECIAL INVESTIGATIONS DIVISION'S CONFERENCE ROOM, LOCATED AT 1228 GUN CLUB ROAD, WEST PALM BEACH, FLORIDA 33406 AT 11:46 A.M. THE FOLLOWING IS A NON-VERBATIM ACCOUNT OF THE INTERVIEW:

TED STATED THAT HE AND HIS FATHER SIMON HAD AN OFFICE TOGETHER. HE TOLD ME THAT IN 2007 HE HAD NOTICED THAT TESCHER AND SPALLINA STARTED FREQUENTING THE OFFICE AND THEY CONTINUED TO VISIT THE OFFICE QUITE OFTEN. HE SAID THAT HE THEN REALIZED THAT HIS PARENTS WERE CONDUCTING THEIR ESTATE PLANNING. HE SAID THAT HE WAS NOT ASKED TO BE PART OF THE PLANNING, NOR DID HE INQUIRE ABOUT IT. TED TOLD ME THAT HE IS THE ELDEST CHILD OF FIVE, TO INCLUDE JILL, LISA, SAM, AND ELIOT. DISCUSSION WITH HIM, REFERENCE AN ISSUE THAT PAM RAISED WITH SIMON ABOUT HOW THE DOCUMENTS FOR THE TRUSTS WERE DRAWN UP. HE TOLD ME THAT HE BELIEVED PAM HAD SENT SIMON SOME INFORMATION OR A BOOK RELEVANT TO HER VIEW ON HOW YOU DO ESTATE PLANNING WHEN CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN ARE INVOLVED. HE SAID THAT HIS FATHER DID ASK HIM HIS OPINION ON THINGS AND TED TOLD HIM THAT HE DID FEEL THAT THE GRANDCHILDREN MAY NOT UNDERSTAND IT IF THEY DID NOT RECEIVE AN INHERITANCE. HE STATED THAT HIS FATHER TOLD HIM THAT HE MADE A REALLY GOOD POINT AND SOMETHING TO CONSIDER. TED SAID THAT SOON AFTER THAT CONVERSATION HIS FATHER ANNOUNCED THAT HE WANTED TO TALK WITH HIS CHILDREN ABOUT THE DISTRIBUTION OF HIS AND SHIRLEY'S ASSETS UPON HIS DEATH. HE TOLD ME THAT A CONFERENCE CALL MEETING TOOK PLACE INCLUDING HIS (SIMON'S) FIVE CHILDREN, SIMON, AND SPALLINA. HE SAID THAT THE CONVERSATION WENT REALLY WELL AND SIMON GOT TO PROVIDE HIS WISHES VERY CLEARLY.

HE STATED THAT SPALLINA EXPLAINED THE PROCESS LEGALLY, BUT HIS FATHER MADE A STATEMENT AND ASKED EACH CHILD DIRECTLY, HOW THEY FELT ABOUT IT. TED SAID THAT IT WAS TOLD TO HIM AND HIS SIBLINGS THAT SIMON WAS LEAVING ALL OF HIS WEALTH TO HIS 10 GRANDCHILDREN EQUALLY. HE SAID THAT SIMON TOLD THEM THAT THEY (THE CHILDREN) WERE EACH GETTING 1/5 OF A LIFE INSURANCE POLICY. TED SAID THAT IT WAS OBVIOUS THAT HIS FATHER WAS NOT ASKING FOR PERMISSION, BUT STATING CLEARLY WHAT HE THOUGHT WAS RIGHT. TED SAID THAT EACH CHILD STATED THEY FELT OK ABOUT THE DECISION AND THAT IT WAS HIS WEALTH TO MAKE DECISIONS WITH. TED STATED THAT HE BELIEVES THIS WAS THE SAME PHONE CALL WHERE HE WAS TOLD BY SPALLINA HE, AS WELL AS SIBLINGS, WOULD BE RECEIVING FORMS THEY NEEDED TO SIGN AND RETURN. HE STATED THAT SOON AFTER THIS CALL HE RECEIVED THE WAIVER OF ACCOUNTING FORM FOR HIS MOTHER'S ESTATE. THIS IS THE DOCUMENT DISCUSSED IN PBSC CASE # 13-097087.

TED STATED THAT HE WAS NOT INVOLVED IN ANY OTHER DISCUSSIONS REFERENCE ESTATES UNTIL HIS FATHER'S PASSING ON SEPTEMBER 13, 2012. HE SAID THAT TESCHER AND SPALLINA TOLD HIM AFTER HIS FATHER'S DEATH THAT HE WAS THE TRUSTEE FOR HIS MOTHER'S ESTATE. HE SAID OVER MANY IN PERSON MEETINGS AND PHONE CALLS HE WAS GIVEN GUIDANCE BY THE ATTORNEYS ON HOW TO PERFORM HIS DUTIES AS A TRUSTEE, BECAUSE THIS WAS ALL NEW TO HIM. HE HAD NEVER BEEN IN THIS ROLE BEFORE. HE STATED HE WAS NOT PROVIDED A CHECKLIST OR BOOK ON HOW TO PERFORM THESE DUTIES. TED SAID THAT HE MADE IT CLEAR TO HIS SIBLINGS THAT HE IS THE TRUSTEE ON SHIRLEY'S TRUST. TED STATED THAT HE WAS TOLD THAT SHIRLEY'S TRUST WAS TO BE DISTRIBUTED AMONGST HER 10 GRANDCHILDREN. TED STATED THAT HE DID NOT READ ALL OF SHIRLEY'S TRUST DOCUMENTS AND THAT SPALLINA AND TESCHER HAD BOTH TOLD HIM SEVERAL TIMES HOW SHIRLEY'S TRUST WAS TO BE DISTRIBUTED.

TED SAID THAT HE DID READ IN THE DOCUMENTS WHERE THE 10 GRANDCHILDREN WERE TO RECEIVE THE ASSETS FROM THE TRUST. HE SAID THAT HE DID ISSUE A PARTIAL DISTRIBUTION TO THE SEVEN OF THE 10 GRANDCHILDREN. HE DID NOT ISSUE

DISTRIBUTIONS TO ELIOT'S CHILDREN BECAUSE ELIOT REFUSED TO SET UP ACCOUNTS FOR THE FUNDS TO BE SENT TOO. HE ALSO TOLD ME THAT ELIOT TOLD JUDGE COLIN IN COURT THAT HE DID NOT WANT TO SET UP THE ACCOUNTS FOR HIS CHILDREN TO RECEIVE THE FUNDS, BECAUSE THE FUNDS BELONG TO HIM, NOT HIS CHILDREN. HE STATED THAT ELIOT HAD MENTIONED OTHER REASONS IN E-MAILS FOR NOT TAKING THE MONEY. HE ALSO STATED THAT ELIOT REFERENCED THE MONEY AS CRIME OR BLOOD MONEY.

HE STATED THAT SPALLINA TOLD HIM IT WAS OK TO DISTRIBUTE THE FUNDS. HE STATED THAT TESCHER AND SPALLINA RESPONDED VIA E-MAIL ON HOW TO RECEIVE THE FUNDS, SUCH AS SETTING UP TRUST ACCOUNTS FOR THE FUNDS TO GO INTO. TED TOLD ME THAT THERE WERE CONVERSATIONS, WHERE HE WAS TOLD THAT SIMON'S ASSETS COULD NOT BE DISTRIBUTED DUE TO CREDITORS FILING AGAINST THE ESTATE, BUT HE WAS LEAD TO BELIEVE IT WAS OK TO MAKE A PARTIAL DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS FROM SHIRLEY'S ESTATE, BUT THAT THEY WOULD NEED TO BE CAREFUL IN REGARDS TO DISTRIBUTING FUNDS THAT WERE OBTAINED THROUGH LIQUIDATING HER JEWELRY AND PERSONAL PROPERTY. TED ALSO COMMENTED THAT ONE OF THE GOALS OF MAKING THE DISTRIBUTIONS WAS TO ASSIST ELIOT AND HIS FAMILY, BECAUSE THEY WERE RUNNING LOW ON FUNDS. HE STATED THIS DERIVED FROM ELIOT'S POTENTIAL MISUSE OF FUNDS THAT WERE IN HIS CHILDREN'S TRUSTS IN RELATION TO BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALITY (ELIOT'S HOME) AND ELIOT'S SPENDING AND EXPENSES.

TED CONFIRMED THAT HE DID NOT MAKE ANY DECISIONS IN RELATION TO SIMON'S INSURANCE POLICY GENERATED OUT OF CHICAGO, ILLINOIS. HE STATED THAT HE UNDERSTOOD THE POLICY TO BE OWNED BY SIMON PERSONALLY. HE STATED HE UNDERSTOOD THE POLICY TO READ AS, SHOULD SHIRLEY PASS BEFORE HIM, THE BENEFITS WOULD GO TO THE FIVE CHILDREN.

TED CONFIRMED THAT HE WAS NOT THE TRUSTEE FOR SIMON'S ESTATE, BUT THAT IT WAS EXPLAINED TO HIM, VERBALLY, THAT ALL 10 GRANDCHILDREN WILL RECEIVE THE ASSETS FROM THAT ESTATE IN AN EQUAL DISTRIBUTION AT SOME POINT IN TIME. WE DID DISCUSS THE POWER OF APPOINTMENT PUT IN THE TRUST DOCUMENTS. IT APPEARED AS IF TED WAS NOT AWARE OF ANYTHING CALLED A POWER OF APPOINTMENT, UNTIL THE LAST FEW WEEKS. THAT WAS WHEN SPALLINA NOTIFIED THE COURTS OF HIS WITHDRAW FROM BEING THE ATTORNEY FOR SIMON AND SHIRLEY'S ESTATES. IT APPEARS IT WAS EXPLAINED TO HIM AT THAT TIME.

TED TOLD ME THAT HE AND HIS FATHER HAD A GOOD BUSINESS AND PERSONAL RELATIONSHIP. HE SAID THAT HE HAS A GOOD RELATIONSHIP WITH ALL OF HIS SIBLINGS, EXCEPT FOR ELIOT. HE SAID THAT HE GOT ALONG WITH HIS MOTHER, PRIOR TO HER PASSING. HE TOLD ME THAT RACHEL WALKER WAS EMPLOYED BY HIS MOTHER AND FATHER. HE SAID THAT HE GOT ALONG WITH WALKER AND THAT SHE HELPED HIS MOTHER, SHIRLEY, PRIOR TO SHIRLEY'S PASSING. TED TOLD ME THAT MARITZA BUCCIO WAS SOMEONE THAT WORKED FOR HIM AND AS WELL AS HIS PARENTS. HE STATED THAT SHE HELPED AROUND THE HOMES, CLEANING AND/OR CARING FOR CHILDREN. HE STATED THAT HE MET HER AROUND 2003 OR 2005. HE SAID THAT HE NO LONGER HAS A RELATIONSHIP

WITH HER. HE SAID THAT SIMON DID HAVE AN INTIMATE RELATIONSHIP WITH PUCCIO AFTER SHIRLEY PASSED. HE STATED THAT PUCCIO DID RECEIVE SOME TYPE OF FINANCIAL BENEFIT FROM SIMON, PRIOR TO HIM PASSING. HE SAID THAT PUCCIO WAS LIVING WITH SIMON AND HER BELONGINGS WERE BEING RAID FOR. THIS MAY OR MAY NOT BE THE FINANCIAL BENEFIT; TED DID NOT SEEM TO BE SURE. HE DID STATE THAT IT APPEARED THAT SIMON WAS GENUINELY INVESTED INTO THE RELATIONSHIP HE HAD WITH PUCCIO.

TED SAID THAT HE HAS NOT SPOKEN TO SPALLINA ABOUT HIM WITHDRAWING FROM BEING THE ATTORNEY FOR THE TRUSTS, BUT THAT HE DID SPEAK WITH TESCHER. HE SAID THAT TESCHER TOLD HIM HE HAD BEEN MADE AWARE OF A FABRICATED DOCUMENT THAT WAS POTENTIALLY PROBLEMATIC FOR THE ESTATES. HE SAID THAT TESCHER TOLD HIM THAT SPALLINA CREATED THE FABRICATED DOCUMENT AND IT ESSENTIALLY IMPACTED THE ABILITY FOR SIMON TO DISTRIBUTE FUNDS TO ALL 10 GRANDKIDS. TED SAID THAT TESCHER TOLD HIM THAT HE HAD ONLY RECENTLY BECOME AWARE OF THIS DOCUMENT, APPROXIMATELY THREE WEEKS AGO FROM TODAY (01/28/14).

ATTORNEY ALAN ROSE PROVIDED A STATEMENT, STATING HE WISHED TO CLARIFY SOME THINGS IN REGARDS TO HOW THE ESTATE DOCUMENTS READ IN HIS OPINION. HE STATED THAT SHIRLEY'S ASSETS WENT TO LISA, JILL, AND ELIOT OR THEIR LINEAL DECEDENTS. HE STATED THAT ONCE SHIRLEY PASSED HER ASSETS WENT INTO HER TRUST. HE STATED THAT SIMON WAS THE SOLE BENEFCIARY FOR HIS LIFE. HE STATED THAT SIMON DID HAVE A POWER OF APPOINTMENT THAT HE COULD EXERCISE; REFERENCE SHIRLEY'S TRUST, CHANGING THE BENEFITS TO LISA, JILL, AND ELIOT'S CHILDREN, SIMON COULD CHANGE HIS DOCUMENTS AT ANY TIME UP TO HIS DEATH. ALAN STATED THERE IS QUESTION AS TO WHETHER OR NOT SIMON HAD THE POWER TO DISTRIBUTE THE FUNDS FROM THE TRUST TO SIX GRANDCHILDREN OR 10. THE 10 WOULD INCLUDE THE CHILDREN OF ALL FIVE OF SIMON'S KIDS.

HE STATED THAT SHIRLEY'S ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS STATE THAT TED AND PAM AND THEIR LINEAL DECEDENTS ARE CONSIDERED PREDECEASED. HE STATED THAT WERE OTHER WAYS TO MAKE SIMON'S WISHES COME TRUE FOR THE ESTATES. HE SAID THAT CHANGES COULD HAVE BEEN MADE TO SIMON'S DOCUMENTS TO REFLECT SHIRLEY'S SO THAT EQUAL DISTRIBUTIONS WERE MADE AMONGST THE 10 GRANDCHILDREN. THIS EXPLANATION OF THE DOCUMENTS GENERATED A SIMILAR IF NOT THE SAME CONCLUSION AS THAT OF SPALLINA'S FROM LAST WEEK.

I ALSO COMMUNICATED WITH ELIOT BERNSTEIN SEVERAL TIMES THIS WEEK AND LAST WEEK IN ATTEMPT TO ARRANGE AN INTERVIEW WITH HIM IN PERSON. HE CANCELED THE LAST TWO MEETINGS WE HAD SET. AT THIS TIME HE HAS REFUSED TO SET A NEW MEETING DATE

ON 9/13/12 AT 1211 HOURS, I RESPONDED TO 7020 LYONS HEAD LANE, UNINCORPORATED BOCA RATON, FL., AND MET WITH TED BERNSTEIN AND HIS SISTER AND BROTHER, LISA FRIEDSTEIN AND ELLIOT BERNSTEIN, IN REFERENCE TO A POLICE ASSIST. TED ADVISED HIS FATHER, SIMON BERNSTEIN WAS TAKEN TO DELRAY COMMUNITY HOSPITAL AT 1000 HOURS ON 9/12/12 AND PASSED AWAY AT 0100 HOURS ON 9/13/12. HE EXPLAINED WHILE AT THE HOSPITAL HE WAS ADVISED BY SIMON'S CARETAKER, RACHEL WALKER THAT SIMON'S LIVE-IN GIRLFRIEND, MARITZA PUCCIO MIGHT HAVE PROVIDED SIMON WITH A LARGER THEN PRESCRIBED DOSE OF HIS MEDICATION AS WELL AS ONE OF HER PRESCRIBED SLEEPING PILLS, WHICH COULD OF CAUSED HIS DEATH. HE SAID HE VOICED HIS CONCERNS TO THE DOCTORS AT DELRAY COMMUNITY HOSPITAL BUT THEY ADVISED THERE DID NOT APPEAR TO BE ANY SUSPICIOUS CIRCUMSTANCES SURROUNDING SIMON'S DEATH AND THEY WOULD NOT BE CONDUCTING AN AUTOPSY. TED CONTACTED BOTH A PRIVATE COMPANY AND THE PALM BEACH COUNTY MEDICAL EXAMINER'S OFFICE REGARDING HAVING AN AUTOPSY CONDUCTED. BOTH ADVISED HE SHOULD CONTACT THE PALM BEACH COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE.

AFTER SPEAKING WITH TED, I SPOKE WITH RACHEL. RACHEL STARTED BY TELLING ME THAT SIMON SUFFERED FROM SEVERAL AILMENTS TO INCLUDE, AND HE HAD APPROXIMATELY 2 YEARS AGO, WHICH WAS ONE OF SEVERAL SIMON WAS RECENTLY PLACED ON FOR THE WHICH SHE SAID EFFECTED HIS MENTAL FACULTIES. HE WAS AWAKE AND BREATHING BUT HE HAD A VERY LOW HEART BEAT AND WAS UNAWARE OF HIS SURROUNDINGS. RACHEL SAID SHORTLY AFTER HER ARRIVAL MARITZA RETURNED HOME. THEY HAD A BRIEF ARGUMENT OVER WHETHER OR NOT THEY SHOULD BRING SIMON TO THE HOSPITAL AS RACHEL SAYS MARITZA DID NOT BELIEVE HE NEEDED TO GO TO THE HOSPITAL AT THIS TIME. RACHEL SAID THAT SHE FINALLY TOLD MARITZA THAT SHE WAS GOING TO TAKE HIM TO THE HOSPITAL BY HERSELF. SHE SAID SHE LEFT THE HOUSE APPROXIMATELY 1000 HOURS FOR THE HOSPITAL. RACHEL WENT ONTO TELL ME THAT MARITZA PROVIDED SIMON WITH ONE OF HER PRESCRIBED SLEEPING PILLS ON THE NIGHT OF 9/8/12. SHE ALSO SAID SIMON WAS PRESCRIBED 100 PILLS ON 9/7/12 AND SHE BELIEVE THAT MARITZA WAS PROVIDING SIMON WITH LARGER THEN PRESCRIBED DOSES OF PILLS. RACHEL TOLD ME SHE BELIEVED THERE WERE ONLY 30 PILLS LEFT IN THE BOTTLE AT THE TIME OF SIMON'S DEATH. I LATER COUNTED THE BOTTLE OF THERE WERE 90.5 PILLS IN THE

OPPENHEIMER TRUST COMPANY OF DELAWARE’S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT AS TO COUNT I OF ITS PETITION

Petitioner, OPPENHEIMER TRUST COMPANY OF DELAWARE (“Oppenheimer”), as the resigned trustee of three irrevocable trusts created by Simon Bernstein for the benefit of his grandchildren, Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein, moves for summary judgment as to Count I of its Petition, and in support hereof, submits the following memorandum of law:

I. NATURE OF COUNT I

On May 26, 2014, Oppenheimer resigned as Trustee of three irrevocable trusts created by the late Simon Bernstein for the benefit of his grandchildren, Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein on September 7, 2006 (the “Grandchildren Trusts”). In Count I of its Petition,

 FILED: PALM BEACH COUNTY, FL SHARON R BOCK, CLERK.

Oppenheimer seeks instructions as to where to deliver the trust property now that it has resigned.

The material facts supporting Oppenheimer's claim under Count I are simple and incontrovertible: (i) Oppenheimer resigned as Trustee (as the Grandchildren Trusts and the Florida Trust Code permit as a matter of right); (ii) there is no successor trustee to whom Oppenheimer can deliver the trust property; and (iii) the Court has the authority and duty to either appoint a successor trustee to receive the trust property, or terminate the Grandchildren Trusts and deliver their assets to the minor beneficiaries, through their natural guardians or a guardian of the property.

In their Answer to the Petition, Eliot And Candice Bernstein, as the parents and natural guardians of Joshua, Jake And Daniel Bernstein, state that they are "without knowledge" as to the material allegations of Count I, and raise no affirmative defenses to Count I. Because there are no genuine issues of material fact concerning Oppenheimer's resignation or its right to obtain directions regarding the delivery of trust property to a successor, summary judgment as to Count I should be granted.

II. UNDISPUTED MATERIAL FACTS

1. Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein, all minors, are the sole beneficiaries of the Grandchildren Trusts, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibits "A" through "C."

A. Oppenheimer's Appointment As Successor Trustee

2. In 2010, following the resignation/removal of prior trustees of the Grandchildren Trusts, Eliot and Candice Bernstein, as the parents and natural guardians of Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein, filed Petitions to Appoint Successor Trustee for each of the Grandchildren Trusts in Palm Beach County Circuit Court, Case Nos. 502010CP003123XXXXSB, 502010CP003125XXXXSB and 502010CP003128XXXXSB. Copies of the dockets for these cases are attached hereto as Exhibits “D” through “F.” Oppenheimer requests that the Court take judicial notice of the dockets pursuant to §§ 90.201(1), 90.202(6) and/or 90.202(12), Florida Statutes.

3. On July 8, 2010, the Honorable Martin H. Colin entered Final Orders on Petition to Appoint Successor Trustee, appointing Oppenheimer Trust Company as the successor trustee of each of the Grandchildren Trusts. Copies of those Orders are attached hereto as Composite Exhibits “G” through “I.” Oppenheimer requests that the Court take judicial notice of the Final Orders pursuant to §§ 90.201(1) and/or 90.202(6), Florida Statutes.¹

4. On July 30, 2010, Oppenheimer Trust Company accepted the Court’s appointments and began serving as Trustee of the Grandchildren Trusts. *See Exhibit K (the Affidavit of Oppenheimer representative Hunt Worth authenticating the three “Acceptance” documents signed by him on July 30, 2010).*²

B. Oppenheimer’s Resignation As Trustee

5. On April 22, 2014 Oppenheimer gave notice that it was resigning as trustee as a matter of right. See Exhibit “M” (Oppenheimer’s April 22, 2014 “Notice of Resignation”). The resignation became effective on May 26, 2014 pursuant to the terms of the Grandchildren Trusts, the Florida Trust Code and the Notice of Resignation.

¹ Eliot and Candice Bernstein intend to dispute whether OPPENHEIMER was properly appointed as the “legal Trustee” of the Grandchildren Trusts (thus capable of now passing control of the Grandchildren Trusts to another). See Exhibit “J” (particularly, the e-mail from Eliot Bernstein sent on August 25, 2014 at 10:21 AM). However, OPPENHEIMER’s status as the “legal Trustee” has already been determined by this Court in 2010. The Bernsteins, who were parties to the 2010 proceedings, are barred from re-litigating that issue here.

² “Oppenheimer Trust Company” was merged into “Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware” effective December 20, 2103. See Exhibit “L.” Oppenheimer requests that the Court take judicial notice of the information contained in Exhibit “L” pursuant to §§ 90.202(5), 90.202(12) and/or 90.202(13), Florida Statutes.

C. The Present Lack Of A Trustee

6. In the Notice of Resignation, Oppenheimer advised the beneficiaries, through their parents, Eliot and Candice Bernstein, of their right and obligation to appoint a successor trustee. They have not done so.

7. Other than the limited “resigned trustee” role Oppenheimer continues to have pursuant to § 736.0707, Florida Statutes, the Grandchildren Trusts are without a trustee.

III. ARGUMENT

8. The Trusts provide, in relevant part, as follows:

5.2 Resignation. Any Trustee may resign by giving 30 days' written notice delivered personally or by mail to any then serving Co-Trustee and to the Settlor if he is then living and not disabled; otherwise to the next named successor Trustee, or if none, to the persons having power to appoint successor Trustees.

5.3 Power to Name Other Trustees. Whenever a successor Trustee is required and that position is not filled under the terms specified in this Trust Agreement, an individual Trustee ceasing to serve (other than a Trustee being removed) may appoint his or her successor, but if none is appointed, the remaining Trustees, if any, or the beneficiary shall appoint a successor Corporate Trustee. The appointment will be by a written document (including a testamentary instrument) delivered to the appointed Trustee. In no event may the Settlor ever be appointed as the Trustee under this Trust Agreement nor shall a Successor trustee be appointed that will cause this trust to be a grantor trust.

9. Similarly, Fla. Stat. § 736.0705, entitled “Resignation of trustee,” provides, in relevant part, as follows:

(1) A trustee may resign:

(a) Upon at least 30 days' notice to the qualified beneficiaries, the settlor, if living, and all cotrustees...

10. Fla. Stat. § 736.0704, entitled “Vacancy in trusteeship; appointment of successor,” provides, in relevant part, as follows:

(3) A vacancy in a trusteeship of a noncharitable trust that is required to be filled must be filled in the following order of priority:

(a) By a person named or designated pursuant to the terms of the trust to act as successor trustee.

(b) By a person appointed by unanimous agreement of the qualified beneficiaries.

(c) By a person appointed by the court.

11. Finally, Fla. Stat. § 736.0707 requires a resigned trustee to deliver trust property to a successor trustee or other person entitled to the property, and provides that the resigned trustee has the duties of a trustee, and the power necessary to protect the trust property, until the property is so delivered.

12. Oppenheimer, as the resigned trustee, is required to deliver the Trust property in its possession to a successor trustee or another authorized person.

13. Because Candice and Eliot Bernstein, as the natural guardians of the beneficiaries, have failed to appoint a successor trustee, the Court must either (i) appoint a successor trustee to whom Oppenheimer shall deliver the Trust property or (ii) terminate the Trusts and direct Oppenheimer to deliver the Trust property to the minor beneficiaries, through their natural guardians or a guardian of the property.³

³ Whether Eliot and Candice Bernstein should be given control of their children's assets or whether a guardian of the property should be appointed is a question which OPPENHEIMER leaves to the sound judgment of the Court.

No part of the Trust may ever revert to the Settlor, be used for his benefit, or be distributed in discharge of his legal obligations.

ADMINISTRATION OF TRUST

The Trustee shall hold, administer, and distribute the Trust Estate in accordance with the powers granted under this Trust Agreement as follows:

4.1 Discretionary Distributions. The Trustee shall pay or apply such sums of principal from this Trust as in the Trustee's discretion are necessary or advisable for Beneficiary's health, education, support, and maintenance.

4.2 Distribution of Principal. When Beneficiary has reached age 21, the trustee shall distribute one-half (½) of the corpus of trust to Beneficiary plus accrued income. When Beneficiary has reached age 25 the Trustee shall distribute the entire remaining principal balance of the corpus of the trust to Beneficiary plus accrued income.

4.3 Distribution Upon Death Before Age 25. Upon the death of Beneficiary prior to age 25, the Trustee shall distribute the remaining assets in the trust to the estate of Beneficiary.

ARTICLE 5
PROVISIONS GOVERNING TRUSTEES

The following provisions apply to all Trustees appointed under this Trust Agreement:

5.1 Incapacity of Trustee. If any Trustee becomes disabled, he or she will immediately cease to act as Trustee. If a Trustee who ceases to serve because of a disability, or who is suspended, thereafter recovers from that disability or consents to the release of relevant medical information, he or she may elect to become a Trustee again by giving written notice to the then serving Trustee, and the last Trustee who undertook to serve will then cease to be a Trustee until another successor Trustee is required.

5.2 Resignation. Any Trustee may resign by giving 30 days' written notice delivered personally or by mail to any then serving Co-Trustee and to the Settlor if he is then living and not disabled; otherwise to the next named successor Trustee, or if none, to the persons having power to appoint successor Trustees.

5.3 Power to Name Other Trustees. Whenever a successor Trustee is required and that position is not filled under the terms specified in this Trust Agreement, an individual Trustee ceasing to serve (other than a Trustee being removed) may appoint his or her successor, but if none is appointed, the remaining Trustees, if any, or the beneficiary shall appoint a successor Corporate Trustee. The appointment will be by a written document (including a testamentary instrument) delivered to the appointed Trustee. In no event may the Settlor ever be appointed as the Trustee under this Trust Agreement nor shall a Successor trustee be appointed that will cause this trust to be a grantor trust.

5.4 Powers of Successor Trustees. Successor Trustees will have all powers granted to the original Trustee, except that only an Independent Trustee will succeed to the powers vested exclusively in the Independent Trustee.

5.5 Accountings. Accountings must be given to the beneficiary of each trust at least annually (quarterly if a Corporate Trustee is serving). The accountings must show the assets held in trust and all receipts and disbursements. A beneficiary's written approval of an accounting will be final and binding upon that beneficiary and all persons represented by him or her as to all matters disclosed in that accounting. In any event, if a beneficiary fails to object to an accounting within six months of receiving it, his or her approval is conclusively presumed. A successor Trustee may require the prior Trustee to render a full and final accounting.

5.6 Acts by Other Fiduciaries. The Trustee is not required to question any acts or failures to act of the fiduciary of any other trust or estate, and will not be liable for any prior fiduciary's acts or failures to act. The Trustee can require a beneficiary who requests an examination of another fiduciary's actions or omissions to advance all costs and fees incurred in the examination, and if the beneficiary does not, the Trustee may elect not to proceed or may proceed and offset those costs and fees directly against any payment that would otherwise be made to that beneficiary.

5.7 Court Supervision. The Settlor waives compliance by the Trustee with any law requiring bond, registration, qualification, or accounting to any court.

5.8 Compensation. Each Trustee is entitled to be paid reasonable compensation for services rendered in the administration of the Trust. Reasonable compensation for a Corporate Trustee will be its published fee schedule in effect when its services are rendered unless otherwise agreed in writing, and except as follows. Any fees paid to a Corporate Trustee for making principal distributions, for termination of the trust, and upon termination of its services must be based solely on the value of its services rendered, not on the value of the trust principal. During the Settlor's lifetime the Trustee's fees are to be charged wholly against income (to the extent sufficient), unless directed otherwise by the Settlor in writing.

5.9 Indemnity. Any Trustee who ceases to serve for any reason will be entitled to receive (and the continuing Trustee shall make suitable arrangements to provide) reasonable indemnification and security to protect and hold that Trustee harmless from any damage or liability of any nature that may be imposed upon it because of its actions or omissions while serving as Trustee. This protection, however, does not extend to a Trustee's negligent actions or omissions that clearly and demonstrably result in damage or liability. A prior Trustee may enforce these provisions against the current Trustee or against any assets held in the Trust, or if the prior Trustee is an individual, against any beneficiary to the extent of distributions received by that beneficiary. This indemnification right will extend to the estate, personal representatives, legal successors, and assigns of a Trustee.

5.10 Successor Trustee. In the event the initial Trustee, Steven I. Greenwald, resigns or ceases to serve as Trustee, then and in that event, I hereby appoint Larry V. Bishins to serve as Trustee.

ARTICLE 6 PROTECTION OF INTERESTS

The interest of any beneficiary under this Trust Agreement, in either income or principal, may not be anticipated, alienated, or in any other manner assigned by the beneficiary, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, and will not be subject to any legal process, bankruptcy proceedings, or the interference or control of the beneficiary's creditors or others.

FIDUCIARY POWERS

The Settlor grants to the Trustee full power to deal freely with any property in the Trust. The Trustee may exercise these powers independently and without the approval of any court. No person dealing with the Trustee need inquire into the propriety of any of its actions or into the application of any funds or assets. The Trustee shall, however, exercise all powers in a fiduciary capacity for the best interest of the beneficiary of this Trust or any trust created under it. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustee is given the following discretionary powers in addition to any other powers conferred by law:

7.1 Type of Assets. Except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to hold funds uninvested for such periods as the Trustee deems prudent, and to invest in any assets the Trustee deems advisable even though they are not technically recognized or specifically listed in so-called "legal lists," without responsibility for depreciation or loss on account of those investments, or because those investments are non-productive, as long as the Trustee acts in good faith.

7.2 Original Assets. Except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to retain the original assets it receives for as long as it deems best, and to dispose of those assets when it deems advisable, even though such assets, because of their character or lack of diversification, would otherwise be considered improper investments for the Trustee.

7.3 Tangible Personal Property. To receive and hold tangible personal property; to pay or refrain from paying storage and insurance charges for such property; and to permit any beneficiaries to use such property without either the Trustee or beneficiaries incurring any liability for wear, tear, and obsolescence of the property.

7.4 Specific Securities. To invest in assets, securities, or interests in securities of any nature, including (without limit) commodities, options, futures, precious metals, currencies, and in domestic and foreign markets and in mutual or investment funds, including funds for which the Trustee or any affiliate performs services for additional fees, whether as custodian, transfer agent, investment advisor or otherwise, or in securities distributed, underwritten, or issued by the Trustee or by syndicates of which it is a member; to trade on credit or margin accounts (whether secured or unsecured); and to pledge assets of the Trust Estate for that purpose.

7.5 Property Transactions. To buy, sell, pledge, exchange, or lease any real or personal property, publicly or privately, for cash or credit, without court approval and upon the terms and conditions that the Trustee deems advisable; to execute deeds, leases, contracts, bills of sale, notes, mortgages, security instruments, and other written instruments; to abandon or dispose of any real or personal property in the Trust which has little or no monetary or useful value; to improve, repair, insure, subdivide and vacate any property; to erect, alter or demolish buildings; to adjust boundaries; and to impose easements, restrictions, and covenants as the Trustee sees fit. A lease will be valid and binding for its full term even if it extends beyond the full duration of the Trust.

7.6 Borrow Money. To borrow money from any source (including the Trustee in its nonfiduciary capacity), to guarantee indebtedness, and to secure the loan or guaranty by mortgage or other security interest.

7.7 Maintain Assets. To expend whatever funds it deems proper for the preservation, maintenance, or improvement of assets. The Trustee in its discretion may elect any options or settlements or exercise any rights under all insurance policies that it holds. However, no fiduciary who is the insured of any insurance policy held in the Trust may exercise any rights or have any incidents of ownership with respect to the policy, including the power to change the beneficiary, to surrender or cancel the policy, to assign the policy, to revoke any assignment, to pledge the policy for a loan, or to obtain from the insurer a loan against the surrender value of the policy. All such power is to be exercised solely by the remaining Trustee, if any, or if none, by a special fiduciary appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.8 Advisors. To employ and compensate attorneys, accountants, advisors, financial consultants, managers, agents, and assistants (including any individual or entity who provides investment advisory or management services, or who furnishes professional assistance in making investments for the Trust) without liability for any act of those persons, if they are selected and retained with reasonable care. Fees may be paid from the Trust Estate even if the services were rendered in connection with ancillary proceedings.

7.9 Indirect Distributions. To make distributions, whether of principal or income, to any person under age 21 or to any incapacitated person according to the terms of this Trust Agreement by making distributions directly to that person whether or not that person has a guardian; to the parent, guardian, or spouse of that person; to a custodial account established by the Trustee or others for that person under an applicable Uniform Gift to Minors Act or Uniform Transfers to Minors Act; to any adult who resides in the same household with that person or who is otherwise responsible for the care and well-being of that person; or by applying any distribution for the benefit of that person in any manner the Trustee deems proper. The receipt of the person to whom payment is made will constitute full discharge of the Trustee with respect to that payment. No distributions may be made to the Settlor under this Section.

7.10 Non-Pro Rata Distribution. To make any division or distribution in money or in kind, or both, without allocating the same kind of property to all shares or distributees, and without regard to the income tax basis of the property. Any division will be binding and conclusive on all parties.

7.11 Nominee. Except as prohibited by law, to hold any assets in the name of a nominee without disclosing the fiduciary relationship; to hold the property unregistered, without affecting its liability; and to hold securities endorsed in blank, in street certificates, at a depository trust company, or in a book entry system.

7.12 Custodian. To employ a custodian or agent ("the Custodian") located anywhere within the United States, at the discretion of the Trustee but at the expense of the Trust, whether or not such Custodian is an affiliate of the Trustee or any person rendering services to the Trust; to register securities in the name of the Custodian or a nominee thereof without designation of fiduciary capacity; and to appoint the Custodian to perform such other ministerial functions as the Trustee may direct. While such securities are in the custody of the Custodian, the Trustee will be under no obligation to inspect or verify such securities nor will the Trustee be responsible for any loss by the Custodian.

7.13 Settle Claims. To contest, compromise, arbitrate, or otherwise adjust claims in favor of or against the Trust, to agree to any rescission or modification of any contract or agreement, and to refrain from instituting any suit or action unless indemnified for reasonable costs and expenses.

7.14 Corporate Rights. To vote and exercise any option, right, or privilege to purchase or to convert bonds, notes, stock (including shares or fractional shares of stock of any Corporate Trustee), securities, or other property; to borrow money for the purpose of exercising any such option, right, or privilege; to delegate those rights to an agent; to enter into voting trusts and other agreements or subscriptions; to participate in any type of liquidation or reorganization of any enterprise; and to write and sell covered call options, puts, calls, straddles, or other methods of buying or selling securities, as well as all related transactions.

7.15 Partnership Interests. To hold interests in sole proprietorships, general or limited partnerships, joint ventures, business trusts, land trusts, limited liability companies, and other domestic and foreign forms of organizations; and to exercise all rights in connection with such interests as the Trustee deems appropriate, including any powers applicable to a non-admitted transferee of any such interest.

7.16 Self-Dealing. To exercise all its powers even though it may also be acting individually or on behalf of any other person or entity interested in the same matters. The Trustee, however, shall exercise these powers at all times in a fiduciary capacity, primarily in the interest of the beneficiaries of the Trust. Despite any other provision of this Trust Agreement, no Trustee may participate in the decision to make a discretionary distribution that would discharge a legal support obligation of that Trustee. No Trustee who has made a disclaimer, either individually or as a Trustee, may exercise any discretion in determining the recipient of the disclaimed property. All power to make such distributions, or to determine recipients of disclaimed property, will be exercised solely by the remaining Trustees, if any, or if there are no other Trustees then serving, by the person or persons named to serve as the next successor Trustee, or if there are none, by a special Trustee appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.17 Expenses. An Independent Trustee may determine how expenses of administration and receipts are to be apportioned between principal and income.

7.18 Terminate Small Trusts. To exercise its discretion to refrain from funding or to terminate any trust whenever the value of the principal of that trust would be or is too small to administer economically, and to distribute the remaining principal and all accumulated income of the trust as provided in Section 7.9 to the income beneficiary of that trust. The Trustee shall exercise this power to terminate in its discretion as it deems prudent for the best interest of the beneficiaries at that time. This power cannot be exercised by the Settlor or any beneficiary, either alone or in conjunction with any other Trustee, but must be exercised solely by the other Trustee, or if none, by a special Trustee appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.19 Allocations to Income and Principal. To treat premiums and discounts on bonds and other obligations for the payment of money in accordance with either generally accepted accounting principles or tax accounting principles and, except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to hold nonproductive assets without allocating any principal to income, despite any laws or rules to the contrary. The Trustee in its discretion may exercise the power described in Section 738.104 of the Florida Statutes to adjust between principal and income, as appropriate, and, in addition, may convert any income interest into a unitrust interest, or a unitrust interest to an income interest, as it sees fit, all as provided in Section 738.1041 of the Florida Statutes, despite any provision of those sections to the contrary.

7.20 Use of Income. Except as otherwise provided in this Trust Agreement, and in addition to all other available sources, to exercise its discretion in the use of income from the assets of the Trust to satisfy the liabilities described in this Trust Agreement, without accountability to any beneficiary.

7.21 Valuations. In making distributions or allocations under the terms of this Trust Agreement to be valued as of a particular date, the Trustee may use asset valuations obtained for a date reasonably close to that particular date (such as a quarterly closing date before or after that date) if, in the Trustee's judgment, obtaining appraisals or other determinations of value on that date would result in unnecessary expense, and if in the Trustee's judgment, the fair market value as determined is substantially the same as on that actual date. This paragraph will not apply if valuation on a specific date is required to preserve a qualification for a tax benefit, including any deduction, credit, or most favorable allocation of an exemption.

7.22 Incorporation. To incorporate any business or venture, and to continue any unincorporated business that the Trustee determines to be not advisable to incorporate.

7.23 Delegation. To delegate periodically among themselves the authority to perform any act of administration of any trust.

7.24 Advances. To make cash advances or loans to beneficiaries, with or without security.

7.25 Investment Manager. To employ any investment management service, financial institution, or similar organization to advise the Trustee and to handle all investments of the Trust and to render all accountings of funds held on its behalf under custodial, agency, or other agreements. If the Trustee is an individual, these costs may be paid as an expense of administration in addition to fees and commissions.

7.26 Depreciation. To deduct from all receipts attributable to depreciable property a reasonable allowance for depreciation, computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied.

7.27 Disclaim Assets or Powers. To disclaim any assets otherwise passing or any fiduciary powers pertaining to any trust created hereunder, by execution of an instrument of disclaimer meeting the requirements of applicable law generally imposed upon individuals executing disclaimers. No notice to or consent of any beneficiary, other interested person, or any court is required for any such disclaimer, and the Trustee is to be held harmless for any decision to make or not make such a disclaimer.

7.28 Transfer Situs. To transfer the situs of any trust or any trust property to any other jurisdiction as often as the Trustee deems advisable, and if necessary to appoint a substitute or ancillary Trustee to act with respect to that property. The Trustee may delegate to the substitute Trustee any or all of the powers given to the Trustee; may elect to act as advisor to the substitute Trustee and receive reasonable compensation for that service; and may remove any acting or substitute Trustee and appoint another, or reappoint itself, at will.

7.29 Related Parties. To enter into any transaction on behalf of the Trust despite the fact that another party to that transaction may be: (i) a business or trust controlled by the Trustee, or of which the Trustee, or any director, officer, or employee of the Corporate Trustee, is also a director, officer, or employee; (ii) an affiliate or business associate of any beneficiary or the Trustee; or (iii) a beneficiary or Trustee under this Trust Agreement acting individually, or any relative of such a party.

7.30 Additional Powers for Income-Producing Real Estate. In addition to the other powers set forth above or otherwise conferred by law, the Trustee has the following powers with respect to any income-producing real property which is or may become a part of the Trust Estate:

- To retain and operate the property for as long as it deems advisable;
- To control, direct, and manage the property, determining the manner and extent of its active participation in these operations, and to delegate all or any part of its supervisory power to other persons that it selects;

- To hire and discharge employees, fix their compensation, and define their duties;
- To invest funds in other land holdings and to use those funds for all improvements, operations, or other similar purposes;
- Except as otherwise provided with respect to mandatory income distributions, to retain any amount of the net earnings for working capital and other purposes that it deems advisable in conformity with sound and efficient management; and
- To purchase and sell machinery, equipment, and supplies of all kinds as needed for the operation and maintenance of the land holdings.

ARTICLE 8
SUBCHAPTER S STOCK

Despite any other provisions of this Trust Agreement, if a trust created in this instrument is to become the owner of, or already owns, stock in a corporation that has an election in effect (or one that proposes to make an election) under Section 1362 of the Internal Revenue Code (an "S Corporation"), and that trust would not otherwise be permitted to be an S Corporation shareholder, the following provisions will apply:

8.1 Electing Small Business Trust. The Trustee in its discretion may elect for the trust to become an Electing Small Business Trust ("ESBT") as defined in the Internal Revenue Code.

8.2 Qualified Subchapter S Trust. If the Trustee does not cause the trust to become an ESBT, the Trustee shall set aside the S Corporation stock in a separate trust for the current income beneficiary of such trust, so that a Qualified Subchapter S Trust ("QSST") election under Section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code can be filed with respect to that trust. The Trustee shall hold each share as a separate QSST for the persons described above, and each such person will be the sole beneficiary of his or her QSST. To the greatest extent possible, the Trustee shall administer each QSST under the terms of the trust from which it was derived, but subject to the following overriding provisions:

(a) Consent. The Trustee shall notify the beneficiary of each separate trust promptly that a QSST election must be filed with the Internal Revenue Service. Thereafter, each beneficiary shall file a timely and proper QSST election with the Internal Revenue Service. If a beneficiary fails or refuses to make the QSST election, the Trustee shall make an ESBT election for that trust. If the beneficiary does make the QSST election, then his or her separate trust will be administered as set forth below.

(b) Income Payments. During the beneficiary's life, the Trustee shall pay all net income of the trust to the beneficiary (and only to that beneficiary) in quarterly or more frequent installments. The beneficiary's income interest in the trust will terminate on the earlier of his or her death or the termination of the trust under its terms.

(c) Principal Invasions. If the beneficiary is otherwise entitled to receive principal distributions, the Trustee may distribute principal from that separate trust during the beneficiary's life only to or for the benefit of that beneficiary (and no one else).

(d) Final Distribution. If the QSST is terminated during the beneficiary's life, the Trustee shall distribute all remaining assets of that separate trust to that beneficiary. If the beneficiary dies before that trust's termination, all remaining assets of the QSST are to be distributed as provided in the original trust, but subject to this article.

(e) Termination of QSST Status. If a separate trust would cease to qualify as an S Corporation shareholder, the Trustee in its discretion may: (i) make an ESBT election for that separate trust, or (ii) distribute all S Corporation stock to the beneficiary. The Trustee in its discretion also may convert a QSST to an ESBT, whether or not the beneficiary has consented to QSST treatment and, if the beneficiary consents, may convert an ESBT into a QSST.

ARTICLE 9 PERPETUITIES PROVISION

Despite any contrary provisions of this Trust Agreement, from the creation of this Trust and for up to 21 years after the death of the last of the Settlor's grandparents' descendants who are living at the creation of this Trust, a trust beneficiary (which includes persons succeeding to the interest of a deceased beneficiary) will be entitled to terminating distributions only at the ages specified in this Trust Agreement. In all events, however, the share of each beneficiary will vest (in the beneficiary or his or her estate) immediately prior to the expiration of the 21 year period described above.

ARTICLE 10 ADMINISTRATION AND CONSTRUCTION

10.1 Rules for Distributions. In making distributions to beneficiaries under this Trust Agreement, the Trustee must use the following criteria.

(a) Other Resources. Whenever the Trustee has the authority to decide how much to distribute to or for the benefit of a beneficiary, the Trustee can make decisions without taking into account any information about the beneficiary's other available income and resources. The Trustee can make payments directly to a beneficiary or to other persons for the beneficiary's benefit, but it does not have to make payments to a court appointed guardian.

(b) Trustee's Decision. Absent clear and convincing evidence of bad faith, the Trustee's decisions as to amounts to be distributed will be final.

(c) Standard of Living. Distributions to a beneficiary for health, education, support, or maintenance are to be based on his or her standard of living, determined as of the date of the distribution.

10.2 Funding Gifts. The following rules will apply to funding gifts under this Trust Agreement.

(a) Pecuniary Gifts. All pecuniary gifts under this Trust Agreement that are paid by an in-kind distribution of assets must use values having an aggregate fair market value at the date or dates of distribution equal to the amount of this gift as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes.

(b) Adjustments. The Trustee shall select one or more dates of allocation or distribution for purposes of satisfying gifts and funding shares or trusts. The Trustee may make allocations before the final determination of federal estate tax, with those allocations being based upon the information then available to the Trustee, and may thereafter adjust properties among the shares or trusts if it is determined that the allocation should have been made differently.

10.3 Accumulated Income. Any income not distributed to the beneficiaries pursuant to either a mandatory direction or a discretionary power is to be incorporated into principal, at such intervals as the Trustee deems convenient.

10.4 Estate Tax on Included Property. If assets of any trust created under this Trust Agreement are included in a beneficiary's estate for federal estate tax purposes, the following will apply.

(a) Appointed Assets. If the beneficiary exercises a power of appointment over those assets, the Trustee is authorized to withhold from those assets the amount of estate taxes apportioned to them by applicable law, if the beneficiary does not make provisions for the payment of those taxes from other sources.

(b) Other Assets. If the beneficiary does not have or does not exercise a power of appointment over those assets, the Trustee will pay the estate taxes attributable to those assets. The estate taxes attributable to those assets will be the amount that the beneficiary's estate taxes are increased over the amount those taxes would have been if those assets had not been included in the beneficiary's gross estate.

(c) Certification and Payment. The Trustee may rely upon a written certification by the beneficiary's personal representative of the amount of the estate taxes, and may pay those taxes directly or to the personal representative of the beneficiary's estate. The Trustee will not be held liable for making payments as directed by the beneficiary's personal representative.

10.5 Transactions With Other Entities. The Trustee may buy assets from other estates or trusts, or make loans to them, so that funds will be available to pay claims, taxes, and expenses. The Trustee can make those purchases or loans even if it serves as the fiduciary of that estate or trust, and on whatever terms and conditions the Trustee thinks are appropriate, except that the terms of any transaction must be commercially reasonable.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

11.1 Definitions. As used in this Trust Agreement, the following terms have the meanings set forth below:

(a) Trustees.

- (1) Independent Trustee means a trustee of a particular trust, either individual or corporate, who is not the Settlor or a beneficiary, and who is not a Related Person as to the Settlor or a beneficiary (if the Settlor or the beneficiary, respectively, is living and participated in that person's appointment). For purposes of this definition a beneficiary is a person who is a permissible distributee of income or principal, or someone with an interest in the trust in excess of five percent (5%) of its value, assuming a maximum exercise of discretion in his or her favor. Whenever this Trust Agreement requires an action be taken by, or in the discretion of, an Independent Trustee but no such Trustee is then serving, a court may appoint an Independent Trustee to serve as an additional Trustee whose sole function and duty will be to exercise the specified power.
- (2) Corporate Trustee means a trustee that is a bank, trust company, or other entity authorized to serve as a trustee under the laws of the United States or any state thereof that is not a Related Person to the Settlor. A bank or trust company that does not meet this requirement cannot serve as Trustee.

(b) Internal Revenue Code Terms.

- (1) Internal Revenue Code means the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, or successor provisions of future federal internal revenue laws.
- (2) The terms health, education, support, and maintenance are intended to set forth an "ascertainable standard," as described in the Internal Revenue Code and its associated Regulations. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, "health" means a beneficiary's physical and mental health, including but not limited to payments for examinations, surgical, dental, or other treatment, medication, counseling, hospitalization, and health insurance premiums; "education" means elementary, secondary, post-secondary, graduate, or professional schooling in an accredited institution, public or private, or attendance at other formal programs in furtherance of the beneficiary's spiritual, athletic, or artistic education, including but not limited to payments for tuition, books, fees, assessments, equipment, tutoring, transportation, and reasonable living expenses.

- (3) Related Person as to a particular individual is someone who is deemed to be "related or subordinate" to that individual under Section 672(c) of the Internal Revenue Code (as though that individual was a grantor).

(c) Other Terms.

- (1) Distributions that are to be made to a person's descendants, per stirpes, will be divided into equal shares, so that there will be one share for each living child (if any) of that person and one share for each deceased child who has then living descendants. The share of each deceased child will be further divided among his or her descendants on a per stirpes basis, by reapplying the preceding rule to that deceased child and his or her descendants as many times as necessary.
- (2) Disabled or under a disability means (i) being under the legal age of majority, (ii) having been adjudicated to be incapacitated, or (iii) being unable to manage properly personal or financial affairs because of a mental or physical impairment (whether temporary or permanent in nature). A written certificate executed by an individual's attending physician confirming that person's impairment will be sufficient evidence of disability under item (iii) above, and all persons may rely conclusively on such a certificate.
- (3) Removal of a Trustee for cause includes, without limitation, the following: the willful or negligent mismanagement of the trust assets by that individual Trustee; the abuse or abandonment of, or inattention to, the trust by that individual Trustee; a federal or state charge against that individual Trustee involving the commission of a felony or serious misdemeanor; an act of theft, dishonesty, fraud, embezzlement, or moral turpitude by that individual Trustee; or the use of narcotics or excessive use of alcohol by that individual Trustee.

- (4) The words will and shall are used interchangeably in this Trust Agreement and mean, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, that the Trustee must take the action indicated; as used in this Trust Agreement, the word may means that the Trustee has the discretionary authority to take the action but is not automatically required to do so.

11.2 Powers of Appointment. The following provisions relate to all powers of appointment under this Trust Agreement.

- (a) A general power of appointment granted to a person is one that can be exercised in favor of that person or his or her estate, his or her creditors, or the creditors of his or her estate.
- (b) A special power of appointment is any power that is not a general power.
- (c) A testamentary power of appointment (either general or special) is exercisable upon the powerholder's death by his or her Last Will or by a revocable trust agreement established by that person, but only by specific reference to the instrument creating the power. A "testamentary power of appointment" may not be exercised in favor of the person possessing the power.
- (d) In determining whether a person has exercised a testamentary power of appointment, the Trustee may rely upon an instrument admitted to probate in any jurisdiction as that person's Last Will, or upon any trust agreement certified to be valid and authentic by sworn statement of the trustee who is serving under that trust agreement. If the Trustee has not received written notice of such an instrument within six months after the powerholder's death, the Trustee may presume that the powerholder failed to exercise that power and will not be liable for acting in accordance with that presumption.

11.3 Notices. Any person entitled or required to give notice under this Trust Agreement shall exercise that power by a written instrument clearly setting forth the effective date of the action for which notice is being given. The instrument may be executed in counterparts.

11.4 Certifications.

(a) Facts. A certificate signed and acknowledged by the Trustee stating any fact affecting the Trust Estate or the Trust Agreement will be conclusive evidence of such fact in favor of any transfer agent and any other person dealing in good faith with the Trustee. The Trustee may rely on a certificate signed and acknowledged by any beneficiary stating any fact concerning the Trust beneficiaries, including dates of birth, relationships, or marital status, unless an individual serving as Trustee has actual knowledge that the stated fact is false.

(b) Copy. Any person may rely on a copy of this instrument (in whole or in part) certified to be a true copy by the Settlor; by any person specifically named as a Trustee (or successor Trustee); by any Corporate Trustee whether or not specifically named; or, if there are none of the above, by any then serving Trustee.

11.5 Applicable Law. All matters involving the validity and interpretation of this Trust Agreement are to be governed by Florida law. Subject to the provisions of this Trust Agreement, all matters involving the administration of a trust are to be governed by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the trust has its principal place of administration.

11.6 Gender and Number. Reference in this Trust Agreement to any gender includes either masculine or feminine, as appropriate, and reference to any number includes both singular and plural where the context permits or requires. Use of descriptive titles for articles and paragraphs is for the purpose of convenience only and is not intended to restrict the application of those provisions.

11.7 Further Instruments. The Settlor agrees to execute such further instruments as may be necessary to vest the Trustee with full legal title to the property transferred to this Trust.

11.8 Binding Effect. This Trust Agreement extends to and is binding upon the Settlor's Personal Representative, successors, and assigns, and upon the Trustee.

FOR THE
JAKE BERNSTEIN IRREVOCABLE TRUST

SIMON BERNSTEIN, as Settlor, hereby creates the Jake Bernstein Irrevocable Trust ("the Trust") on September 7, 2006. Traci Kratish, P.A. is the trustee of this Trust and, in that capacity, he and his successors are collectively referred to in this Trust Agreement as the "Trustee."

ARTICLE 1
BENEFICIARY

This Trust is for the benefit of the Settlor's Grandchild, JAKE BERNSTEIN.

TRANSFERS TO TRUST

The Settlor hereby conveys to the Trustee all his interest in the assets listed on Schedule A, which together with any assets later added to this Trust are referred to as the "Trust Estate." Any person may transfer assets to the Trust Estate, if the Trustee agrees to accept them. Assets do not have to be listed on Schedule A to be part of the Trust Estate. Unless otherwise specified in writing at the time of the transfer, those assets will be held as provided in this Trust Agreement. The Trustee acknowledges receipt of the current Trust assets and agrees to hold the Trust Estate as set forth in this Trust Agreement.

IRREVOCABLE PROVISION

The Settlor declares that he has no right to alter, amend, modify, or revoke this Trust Agreement; to withdraw assets from the Trust; or to require changes in the investments of the Trust. No part of the Trust may ever revert to the Settlor, be used for his benefit, or be distributed in discharge of his legal obligations.

ARTICLE 4
ADMINISTRATION OF TRUST

The Trustee shall hold, administer, and distribute the Trust Estate in accordance with the powers granted under this Trust Agreement as follows:

4.1 Discretionary Distributions. The Trustee shall pay or apply such sums of principal from this Trust as in the Trustee's discretion are necessary or advisable for Beneficiary's health, education, support, and maintenance.

4.2 Distribution of Principal. When Beneficiary has reached age 21, the trustee shall distribute one-half (½) of the corpus of trust to Beneficiary plus accrued income. When Beneficiary has reached age 25 the Trustee shall distribute the entire remaining principal balance of the corpus of the trust to Beneficiary plus accrued income.

4.3 Distribution Upon Death Before Age 25. Upon the death of Beneficiary prior to age 25, the Trustee shall distribute the remaining assets in the trust to the estate of Beneficiary.

ARTICLE 5
PROVISIONS GOVERNING TRUSTEES

The following provisions apply to all Trustees appointed under this Trust Agreement:

5.1 Incapacity of Trustee. If any Trustee becomes disabled, he or she will immediately cease to act as Trustee. If a Trustee who ceases to serve because of a disability, or who is suspended, thereafter recovers from that disability or consents to the release of relevant medical information, he or she may elect to become a Trustee again by giving written notice to the then serving Trustee, and the last Trustee who undertook to serve will then cease to be a Trustee until another successor Trustee is required.

5.2 Resignation. Any Trustee may resign by giving 30 days' written notice delivered personally or by mail to any then serving Co-Trustee and to the Settlor if he is then living and not disabled; otherwise to the next named successor Trustee, or if none, to the persons having power to appoint successor Trustees.

5.3 Power to Name Other Trustees. Whenever a successor Trustee is required and that position is not filled under the terms specified in this Trust Agreement, an individual Trustee ceasing to serve (other than a Trustee being removed) may appoint his or her successor, but if none is appointed, the remaining Trustees, if any, or the beneficiary shall appoint a successor Corporate Trustee. The appointment will be by a written document (including a testamentary instrument) delivered to the appointed Trustee. In no event may the Settlor ever be appointed as the Trustee under this Trust Agreement nor shall a Successor trustee be appointed that will cause this trust to be a grantor trust.

5.4 Powers of Successor Trustees. Successor Trustees will have all powers granted to the original Trustee, except that only an Independent Trustee will succeed to the powers vested exclusively in the Independent Trustee.

5.5 Accountings. Accountings must be given to the beneficiary of each trust at least annually (quarterly if a Corporate Trustee is serving). The accountings must show the assets held in trust and all receipts and disbursements. A beneficiary's written approval of an accounting will be final and binding upon that beneficiary and all persons represented by him or her as to all matters disclosed in that accounting. In any event, if a beneficiary fails to object to an accounting within six months of receiving it, his or her approval is conclusively presumed. A successor Trustee may require the prior Trustee to render a full and final accounting.

5.6 Acts by Other Fiduciaries. The Trustee is not required to question any acts or failures to act of the fiduciary of any other trust or estate, and will not be liable for any prior fiduciary's acts or failures to act. The Trustee can require a beneficiary who requests an examination of another fiduciary's actions or omissions to advance all costs and fees incurred in the examination, and if the beneficiary does not, the Trustee may elect not to proceed or may proceed and offset those costs and fees directly against any payment that would otherwise be made to that beneficiary.

5.7 Court Supervision. The Settlor waives compliance by the Trustee with any law requiring bond, registration, qualification, or accounting to any court.

5.8 Compensation. Each Trustee is entitled to be paid reasonable compensation for services rendered in the administration of the Trust. Reasonable compensation for a Corporate Trustee will be its published fee schedule in effect when its services are rendered unless otherwise agreed in writing, and except as follows. Any fees paid to a Corporate Trustee for making principal distributions, for termination of the trust, and upon termination of its services must be based solely on the value of its services rendered, not on the value of the trust principal. During the Settlor's lifetime the Trustee's fees are to be charged wholly against income (to the extent sufficient), unless directed otherwise by the Settlor in writing.

5.9 Indemnity. Any Trustee who ceases to serve for any reason will be entitled to receive (and the continuing Trustee shall make suitable arrangements to provide) reasonable indemnification and security to protect and hold that Trustee harmless from any damage or liability of any nature that may be imposed upon it because of its actions or omissions while serving as Trustee. This protection, however, does not extend to a Trustee's negligent actions or omissions that clearly and demonstrably result in damage or liability. A prior Trustee may enforce these provisions against the current Trustee or against any assets held in the Trust, or if the prior Trustee is an individual, against any beneficiary to the extent of distributions received by that beneficiary. This indemnification right will extend to the estate, personal representatives, legal successors, and assigns of a Trustee.

5.10 Successor Trustee. In the event the initial Trustee, Steven I. Greenwald, resigns or ceases to serve as Trustee, then and in that event, I hereby appoint Larry V. Bishins to serve as Trustee.

ARTICLE 6
PROTECTION OF INTERESTS

The interest of any beneficiary under this Trust Agreement, in either income or principal, may not be anticipated, alienated, or in any other manner assigned by the beneficiary, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, and will not be subject to any legal process, bankruptcy proceedings, or the interference or control of the beneficiary's creditors or others.

ARTICLE 7
FIDUCIARY POWERS

The Settlor grants to the Trustee full power to deal freely with any property in the Trust. The Trustee may exercise these powers independently and without the approval of any court. No person dealing with the Trustee need inquire into the propriety of any of its actions or into the application of any funds or assets. The Trustee shall, however, exercise all powers in a fiduciary capacity for the best interest of the beneficiary of this Trust or any trust created under it. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustee is given the following discretionary powers in addition to any other powers conferred by law:

7.1 Type of Assets. Except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to hold funds uninvested for such periods as the Trustee deems prudent, and to invest in any assets the Trustee deems advisable even though they are not technically recognized or specifically listed in so-called "legal lists," without responsibility for depreciation or loss on account of those investments, or because those investments are non-productive, as long as the Trustee acts in good faith.

7.2 Original Assets. Except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to retain the original assets it receives for as long as it deems best, and to dispose of those assets when it deems advisable, even though such assets, because of their character or lack of diversification, would otherwise be considered improper investments for the Trustee.

7.3 Tangible Personal Property. To receive and hold tangible personal property; to pay or refrain from paying storage and insurance charges for such property; and to permit any beneficiaries to use such property without either the Trustee or beneficiaries incurring any liability for wear, tear, and obsolescence of the property.

7.4 Specific Securities. To invest in assets, securities, or interests in securities of any nature, including (without limit) commodities, options, futures, precious metals, currencies, and in domestic and foreign markets and in mutual or investment funds, including funds for which the Trustee or any affiliate performs services for additional fees, whether as custodian, transfer agent, investment advisor or otherwise, or in securities distributed, underwritten, or issued by the Trustee or by syndicates of which it is a member; to trade on credit or margin accounts (whether secured or unsecured); and to pledge assets of the Trust Estate for that purpose.

7.5 Property Transactions. To buy, sell, pledge, exchange, or lease any real or personal property, publicly or privately, for cash or credit, without court approval and upon the terms and conditions that the Trustee deems advisable; to execute deeds, leases, contracts, bills of sale, notes, mortgages, security instruments, and other written instruments; to abandon or dispose of any real or personal property in the Trust which has little or no monetary or useful value; to improve, repair, insure, subdivide and vacate any property; to erect, alter or demolish buildings; to adjust boundaries; and to impose easements, restrictions, and covenants as the Trustee sees fit. A lease will be valid and binding for its full term even if it extends beyond the full duration of the Trust.

7.6 Borrow Money. To borrow money from any source (including the Trustee in its nonfiduciary capacity), to guarantee indebtedness, and to secure the loan or guaranty by mortgage or other security interest.

7.7 Maintain Assets. To expend whatever funds it deems proper for the preservation, maintenance, or improvement of assets. The Trustee in its discretion may elect any options or settlements or exercise any rights under all insurance policies that it holds. However, no fiduciary who is the insured of any insurance policy held in the Trust may exercise any rights or have any incidents of ownership with respect to the policy, including the power to change the beneficiary, to surrender or cancel the policy, to assign the policy, to revoke any assignment, to pledge the policy for a loan, or to obtain from the insurer a loan against the surrender value of the policy. All such power is to be exercised solely by the remaining Trustee, if any, or if none, by a special fiduciary appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.8 Advisors. To employ and compensate attorneys, accountants, advisors, financial consultants, managers, agents, and assistants (including any individual or entity who provides investment advisory or management services, or who furnishes professional assistance in making investments for the Trust) without liability for any act of those persons, if they are selected and retained with reasonable care. Fees may be paid from the Trust Estate even if the services were rendered in connection with ancillary proceedings.

7.9 Indirect Distributions. To make distributions, whether of principal or income, to any person under age 21 or to any incapacitated person according to the terms of this Trust Agreement by making distributions directly to that person whether or not that person has a guardian; to the parent, guardian, or spouse of that person; to a custodial account established by the Trustee or others for that person under an applicable Uniform Gift to Minors Act or Uniform Transfers to Minors Act; to any adult who resides in the same household with that person or who is otherwise responsible for the care and well-being of that person; or by applying any distribution for the benefit of that person in any manner the Trustee deems proper. The receipt of the person to whom payment is made will constitute full discharge of the Trustee with respect to that payment. No distributions may be made to the Settlor under this Section.

7.10 Non-Pro Rata Distribution. To make any division or distribution in money or in kind, or both, without allocating the same kind of property to all shares or distributees, and without regard to the income tax basis of the property. Any division will be binding and conclusive on all parties.

7.11 Nominee. Except as prohibited by law, to hold any assets in the name of a nominee without disclosing the fiduciary relationship; to hold the property unregistered, without affecting its liability; and to hold securities endorsed in blank, in street certificates, at a depository trust company, or in a book entry system.

7.12 Custodian. To employ a custodian or agent ("the Custodian") located anywhere within the United States, at the discretion of the Trustee but at the expense of the Trust, whether or not such Custodian is an affiliate of the Trustee or any person rendering services to the Trust; to register securities in the name of the Custodian or a nominee thereof without designation of fiduciary capacity; and to appoint the Custodian to perform such other ministerial functions as the Trustee may direct. While such securities are in the custody of the Custodian, the Trustee will be under no obligation to inspect or verify such securities nor will the Trustee be responsible for any loss by the Custodian.

7.13 Settle Claims. To contest, compromise, arbitrate, or otherwise adjust claims in favor of or against the Trust, to agree to any rescission or modification of any contract or agreement, and to refrain from instituting any suit or action unless indemnified for reasonable costs and expenses.

7.14 Corporate Rights. To vote and exercise any option, right, or privilege to purchase or to convert bonds, notes, stock (including shares or fractional shares of stock of any Corporate Trustee), securities, or other property; to borrow money for the purpose of exercising any such option, right, or privilege; to delegate those rights to an agent; to enter into voting trusts and other agreements or subscriptions; to participate in any type of liquidation or reorganization of any enterprise; and to write and sell covered call options, puts, calls, straddles, or other methods of buying or selling securities, as well as all related transactions.

7.15 Partnership Interests. To hold interests in sole proprietorships, general or limited partnerships, joint ventures, business trusts, land trusts, limited liability companies, and other domestic and foreign forms of organizations; and to exercise all rights in connection with such interests as the Trustee deems appropriate, including any powers applicable to a non-admitted transferee of any such interest.

7.16 Self-Dealing. To exercise all its powers even though it may also be acting individually or on behalf of any other person or entity interested in the same matters. The Trustee, however, shall exercise these powers at all times in a fiduciary capacity, primarily in the interest of the beneficiaries of the Trust. Despite any other provision of this Trust Agreement, no Trustee may participate in the decision to make a discretionary distribution that would discharge a legal support obligation of that Trustee. No Trustee who has made a disclaimer, either individually or as a Trustee, may exercise any discretion in determining the recipient of the disclaimed property. All power to make such distributions, or to determine recipients of disclaimed property, will be exercised solely by the remaining Trustees, if any, or if there are no other Trustees then serving, by the person or persons named to serve as the next successor Trustee, or if there are none, by a special Trustee appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.17 Expenses. An Independent Trustee may determine how expenses of administration and receipts are to be apportioned between principal and income.

7.18 Terminate Small Trusts. To exercise its discretion to refrain from funding or to terminate any trust whenever the value of the principal of that trust would be or is too small to administer economically, and to distribute the remaining principal and all accumulated income of the trust as provided in Section 7.9 to the income beneficiary of that trust. The Trustee shall exercise this power to terminate in its discretion as it deems prudent for the best interest of the beneficiaries at that time. This power cannot be exercised by the Settlor or any beneficiary, either alone or in conjunction with any other Trustee, but must be exercised solely by the other Trustee, or if none, by a special Trustee appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.19 Allocations to Income and Principal. To treat premiums and discounts on bonds and other obligations for the payment of money in accordance with either generally accepted accounting principles or tax accounting principles and, except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to hold nonproductive assets without allocating any principal to income, despite any laws or rules to the contrary. The Trustee in its discretion may exercise the power described in Section 738.104 of the Florida Statutes to adjust between principal and income, as appropriate, and, in addition, may convert any income interest into a unitrust interest, or a unitrust interest to an income interest, as it sees fit, all as provided in Section 738.1041 of the Florida Statutes, despite any provision of those sections to the contrary.

7.20 Use of Income. Except as otherwise provided in this Trust Agreement, and in addition to all other available sources, to exercise its discretion in the use of income from the assets of the Trust to satisfy the liabilities described in this Trust Agreement, without accountability to any beneficiary.

7.21 Valuations. In making distributions or allocations under the terms of this Trust Agreement to be valued as of a particular date, the Trustee may use asset valuations obtained for a date reasonably close to that particular date (such as a quarterly closing date before or after that date) if, in the Trustee's judgment, obtaining appraisals or other determinations of value on that date would result in unnecessary expense, and if in the Trustee's judgment, the fair market value as determined is substantially the same as on that actual date. This paragraph will not apply if valuation on a specific date is required to preserve a qualification for a tax benefit, including any deduction, credit, or most favorable allocation of an exemption.

7.22 Incorporation. To incorporate any business or venture, and to continue any unincorporated business that the Trustee determines to be not advisable to incorporate.

7.23 Delegation. To delegate periodically among themselves the authority to perform any act of administration of any trust.

7.24 Advances. To make cash advances or loans to beneficiaries, with or without security.

7.25 Investment Manager. To employ any investment management service, financial institution, or similar organization to advise the Trustee and to handle all investments of the Trust and to render all accountings of funds held on its behalf under custodial, agency, or other agreements. If the Trustee is an individual, these costs may be paid as an expense of administration in addition to fees and commissions.

7.26 Depreciation. To deduct from all receipts attributable to depreciable property a reasonable allowance for depreciation, computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied.

7.27 Disclaim Assets or Powers. To disclaim any assets otherwise passing or any fiduciary powers pertaining to any trust created hereunder, by execution of an instrument of disclaimer meeting the requirements of applicable law generally imposed upon individuals executing disclaimers. No notice to or consent of any beneficiary, other interested person, or any court is required for any such disclaimer, and the Trustee is to be held harmless for any decision to make or not make such a disclaimer.

7.28 Transfer Situs. To transfer the situs of any trust or any trust property to any other jurisdiction as often as the Trustee deems advisable, and if necessary to appoint a substitute or ancillary Trustee to act with respect to that property. The Trustee may delegate to the substitute Trustee any or all of the powers given to the Trustee; may elect to act as advisor to the substitute Trustee and receive reasonable compensation for that service; and may remove any acting or substitute Trustee and appoint another, or reappoint itself, at will.

7.29 Related Parties. To enter into any transaction on behalf of the Trust despite the fact that another party to that transaction may be: (i) a business or trust controlled by the Trustee, or of which the Trustee, or any director, officer, or employee of the Corporate Trustee, is also a director, officer, or employee; (ii) an affiliate or business associate of any beneficiary or the Trustee; or (iii) a beneficiary or Trustee under this Trust Agreement acting individually, or any relative of such a party.

7.30 Additional Powers for Income-Producing Real Estate. In addition to the other powers set forth above or otherwise conferred by law, the Trustee has the following powers with respect to any income-producing real property which is or may become a part of the Trust Estate:

- To retain and operate the property for as long as it deems advisable;
- To control, direct, and manage the property, determining the manner and extent of its active participation in these operations, and to delegate all or any part of its supervisory power to other persons that it selects;
- To hire and discharge employees, fix their compensation, and define their duties;
- To invest funds in other land holdings and to use those funds for all improvements, operations, or other similar purposes;
- Except as otherwise provided with respect to mandatory income distributions, to retain any amount of the net earnings for working capital and other purposes that it deems advisable in conformity with sound and efficient management; and
- To purchase and sell machinery, equipment, and supplies of all kinds as needed for the operation and maintenance of the land holdings.

ARTICLE 8 SUBCHAPTER S STOCK

Despite any other provisions of this Trust Agreement, if a trust created in this instrument is to become the owner of, or already owns, stock in a corporation that has an election in effect (or one that proposes to make an election) under Section 1362 of the Internal Revenue Code (an "S Corporation"), and that trust would not otherwise be permitted to be an S Corporation shareholder, the following provisions will apply:

8.1 Electing Small Business Trust. The Trustee in its discretion may elect for the trust to become an Electing Small Business Trust ("ESBT") as defined in the Internal Revenue Code.

8.2 Qualified Subchapter S Trust. If the Trustee does not cause the trust to become an ESBT, the Trustee shall set aside the S Corporation stock in a separate trust for the current income beneficiary of such trust, so that a Qualified Subchapter S Trust ("QSST") election under Section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code can be filed with respect to that trust. The Trustee shall hold each share as a separate QSST for the persons described above, and each such person will be the sole beneficiary of his or her QSST. To the greatest extent possible, the Trustee shall administer each QSST under the terms of the trust from which it was derived, but subject to the following overriding provisions:

(a) Consent. The Trustee shall notify the beneficiary of each separate trust promptly that a QSST election must be filed with the Internal Revenue Service. Thereafter, each beneficiary shall file a timely and proper QSST election with the Internal Revenue Service. If a beneficiary fails or refuses to make the QSST election, the Trustee shall make an ESBT election for that trust. If the beneficiary does make the QSST election, then his or her separate trust will be administered as set forth below.

(b) Income Payments. During the beneficiary's life, the Trustee shall pay all net income of the trust to the beneficiary (and only to that beneficiary) in quarterly or more frequent installments. The beneficiary's income interest in the trust will terminate on the earlier of his or her death or the termination of the trust under its terms.

(c) Principal Invasions. If the beneficiary is otherwise entitled to receive principal distributions, the Trustee may distribute principal from that separate trust during the beneficiary's life only to or for the benefit of that beneficiary (and no one else).

(d) Final Distribution. If the QSST is terminated during the beneficiary's life, the Trustee shall distribute all remaining assets of that separate trust to that beneficiary. If the beneficiary dies before that trust's termination, all remaining assets of the QSST are to be distributed as provided in the original trust, but subject to this article.

(e) Termination of QSST Status. If a separate trust would cease to qualify as an S Corporation shareholder, the Trustee in its discretion may: (i) make an ESBT election for that separate trust, or (ii) distribute all S Corporation stock to the beneficiary. The Trustee in its discretion also may convert a QSST to an ESBT, whether or not the beneficiary has consented to QSST treatment and, if the beneficiary consents, may convert an ESBT into a QSST.

PERPETUITIES PROVISION

Despite any contrary provisions of this Trust Agreement, from the creation of this Trust and for up to 21 years after the death of the last of the Settlor's grandparents' descendants who are living at the creation of this Trust, a trust beneficiary (which includes persons succeeding to the interest of a deceased beneficiary) will be entitled to terminating distributions only at the ages specified in this Trust Agreement. In all events, however, the share of each beneficiary will vest (in the beneficiary or his or her estate) immediately prior to the expiration of the 21 year period described above.

ARTICLE 10
ADMINISTRATION AND CONSTRUCTION

10.1 Rules for Distributions. In making distributions to beneficiaries under this Trust Agreement, the Trustee must use the following criteria.

(a) Other Resources. Whenever the Trustee has the authority to decide how much to distribute to or for the benefit of a beneficiary, the Trustee can make decisions without taking into account any information about the beneficiary's other available income and resources. The Trustee can make payments directly to a beneficiary or to other persons for the beneficiary's benefit, but it does not have to make payments to a court appointed guardian.

(b) Trustee's Decision. Absent clear and convincing evidence of bad faith, the Trustee's decisions as to amounts to be distributed will be final.

(c) Standard of Living. Distributions to a beneficiary for health, education, support, or maintenance are to be based on his or her standard of living, determined as of the date of the distribution.

10.2 Funding Gifts. The following rules will apply to funding gifts under this Trust Agreement.

(a) Pecuniary Gifts. All pecuniary gifts under this Trust Agreement that are paid by an in-kind distribution of assets must use values having an aggregate fair market value at the date or dates of distribution equal to the amount of this gift as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes.

(b) Adjustments. The Trustee shall select one or more dates of allocation or distribution for purposes of satisfying gifts and funding shares or trusts. The Trustee may make allocations before the final determination of federal estate tax, with those allocations being based upon the information then available to the Trustee, and may thereafter adjust properties among the shares or trusts if it is determined that the allocation should have been made differently.

10.3 Accumulated Income. Any income not distributed to the beneficiaries pursuant to either a mandatory direction or a discretionary power is to be incorporated into principal, at such intervals as the Trustee deems convenient.

10.4 Estate Tax on Included Property. If assets of any trust created under this Trust Agreement are included in a beneficiary's estate for federal estate tax purposes, the following will apply.

(a) Appointed Assets. If the beneficiary exercises a power of appointment over those assets, the Trustee is authorized to withhold from those assets the amount of estate taxes apportioned to them by applicable law, if the beneficiary does not make provisions for the payment of those taxes from other sources.

(b) Other Assets. If the beneficiary does not have or does not exercise a power of appointment over those assets, the Trustee will pay the estate taxes attributable to those assets. The estate taxes attributable to those assets will be the amount that the beneficiary's estate taxes are increased over the amount those taxes would have been if those assets had not been included in the beneficiary's gross estate.

(c) Certification and Payment. The Trustee may rely upon a written certification by the beneficiary's personal representative of the amount of the estate taxes, and may pay those taxes directly or to the personal representative of the beneficiary's estate. The Trustee will not be held liable for making payments as directed by the beneficiary's personal representative.

10.5 Transactions With Other Entities. The Trustee may buy assets from other estates or trusts, or make loans to them, so that funds will be available to pay claims, taxes, and expenses. The Trustee can make those purchases or loans even if it serves as the fiduciary of that estate or trust, and on whatever terms and conditions the Trustee thinks are appropriate, except that the terms of any transaction must be commercially reasonable.

ARTICLE 11 MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

11.1 Definitions. As used in this Trust Agreement, the following terms have the meanings set forth below:

(a) Trustees.

- (1) Independent Trustee means a trustee of a particular trust, either individual or corporate, who is not the Settlor or a beneficiary, and who is not a Related Person as to the Settlor or a beneficiary (if the Settlor or the beneficiary, respectively, is living and participated in that person's appointment). For purposes of this definition a beneficiary is a person who is a permissible distributee of income or principal, or someone with an interest in the trust in excess of five percent (5%) of its value, assuming a maximum exercise of discretion in his or her favor. Whenever this Trust Agreement requires an action be taken by, or in the discretion of, an Independent Trustee but no such Trustee is then serving, a court may appoint an Independent Trustee to serve as an additional Trustee whose sole function and duty will be to exercise the specified power.
- (2) Corporate Trustee means a trustee that is a bank, trust company, or other entity authorized to serve as a trustee under the laws of the United States or any state thereof that is not a Related Person to the Settlor. A bank or trust company that does not meet this requirement cannot serve as Trustee.

(b) Internal Revenue Code Terms.

- (1) Internal Revenue Code means the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, or successor provisions of future federal internal revenue laws.
- (2) The terms health, education, support, and maintenance are intended to set forth an "ascertainable standard," as described in the Internal Revenue Code and its associated Regulations. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, "health" means a beneficiary's physical and mental health, including but not limited to payments for examinations, surgical, dental, or other treatment, medication, counseling, hospitalization, and health insurance premiums; "education" means elementary, secondary, post-secondary, graduate, or professional schooling in an accredited institution, public or private, or attendance at other formal programs in furtherance of the beneficiary's spiritual, athletic, or artistic education, including but not limited to payments for tuition, books, fees, assessments, equipment, tutoring, transportation, and reasonable living expenses.

- (3) Related Person as to a particular individual is someone who is deemed to be "related or subordinate" to that individual under Section 672(c) of the Internal Revenue Code (as though that individual was a grantor).

(c) Other Terms.

- (1) Distributions that are to be made to a person's descendants, per stirpes, will be divided into equal shares, so that there will be one share for each living child (if any) of that person and one share for each deceased child who has then living descendants. The share of each deceased child will be further divided among his or her descendants on a per stirpes basis, by reapplying the preceding rule to that deceased child and his or her descendants as many times as necessary.
- (2) Disabled or under a disability means (i) being under the legal age of majority, (ii) having been adjudicated to be incapacitated, or (iii) being unable to manage properly personal or financial affairs because of a mental or physical impairment (whether temporary or permanent in nature). A written certificate executed by an individual's attending physician confirming that person's impairment will be sufficient evidence of disability under item (iii) above, and all persons may rely conclusively on such a certificate.
- (3) Removal of a Trustee for cause includes, without limitation, the following: the willful or negligent mismanagement of the trust assets by that individual Trustee; the abuse or abandonment of, or inattention to, the trust by that individual Trustee; a federal or state charge against that individual Trustee involving the commission of a felony or serious misdemeanor; an act of theft, dishonesty, fraud, embezzlement, or moral turpitude by that individual Trustee; or the use of narcotics or excessive use of alcohol by that individual Trustee.
- (4) The words will and shall are used interchangeably in this Trust Agreement and mean, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, that the Trustee must take the action indicated; as used in this Trust Agreement, the word may means that the Trustee has the discretionary authority to take the action but is not automatically required to do so.

11.2 Powers of Appointment. The following provisions relate to all powers of appointment under this Trust Agreement.

- (a) A general power of appointment granted to a person is one that can be exercised in favor of that person or his or her estate, his or her creditors, or the creditors of his or her estate.
- (b) A special power of appointment is any power that is not a general power.
- (c) A testamentary power of appointment (either general or special) is exercisable upon the powerholder's death by his or her Last Will or by a revocable trust agreement established by that person, but only by specific reference to the instrument creating the power. A "testamentary power of appointment" may not be exercised in favor of the person possessing the power.
- (d) In determining whether a person has exercised a testamentary power of appointment, the Trustee may rely upon an instrument admitted to probate in any jurisdiction as that person's Last Will, or upon any trust agreement certified to be valid and authentic by sworn statement of the trustee who is serving under that trust agreement. If the Trustee has not received written notice of such an instrument within six months after the powerholder's death, the Trustee may presume that the powerholder failed to exercise that power and will not be liable for acting in accordance with that presumption.

11.3 Notices. Any person entitled or required to give notice under this Trust Agreement shall exercise that power by a written instrument clearly setting forth the effective date of the action for which notice is being given. The instrument may be executed in counterparts.

11.4 Certifications.

(a) Facts. A certificate signed and acknowledged by the Trustee stating any fact affecting the Trust Estate or the Trust Agreement will be conclusive evidence of such fact in favor of any transfer agent and any other person dealing in good faith with the Trustee. The Trustee may rely on a certificate signed and acknowledged by any beneficiary stating any fact concerning the Trust beneficiaries, including dates of birth, relationships, or marital status, unless an individual serving as Trustee has actual knowledge that the stated fact is false.

(b) Copy. Any person may rely on a copy of this instrument (in whole or in part) certified to be a true copy by the Settlor; by any person specifically named as a Trustee (or successor Trustee); by any Corporate Trustee whether or not specifically named; or, if there are none of the above, by any then serving Trustee.

11.5 Applicable Law. All matters involving the validity and interpretation of this Trust Agreement are to be governed by Florida law. Subject to the provisions of this Trust Agreement, all matters involving the administration of a trust are to be governed by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the trust has its principal place of administration.

11.6 Gender and Number. Reference in this Trust Agreement to any gender includes either masculine or feminine, as appropriate, and reference to any number includes both singular and plural where the context permits or requires. Use of descriptive titles for articles and paragraphs is for the purpose of convenience only and is not intended to restrict the application of those provisions.

11.7 Further Instruments. The Settlor agrees to execute such further instruments as may be necessary to vest the Trustee with full legal title to the property transferred to this Trust.

11.8 Binding Effect. This Trust Agreement extends to and is binding upon the Settlor's Personal Representative, successors, and assigns, and upon the Trustee.

EXHIBIT C

FOR THE
DANIEL BERNSTEIN IRREVOCABLE TRUST

September 7, 2006

TRUST AGREEMENT
FOR THE
DANIEL BERNSTEIN IRREVOCABLE TRUST

SIMON BERNSTEIN, as Settlor, hereby creates the Daniel Bernstein Irrevocable Trust ("the Trust") on September 7, 2006. Traci Kratish, P.A. is the trustee of this Trust and, in that capacity, he and his successors are collectively referred to in this Trust Agreement as the "Trustee."

BENEFICIARY

This Trust is for the benefit of the Settlor's Grandchild, DANIEL BERNSTEIN ("Beneficiary").

TRANSFERS TO TRUST

The Settlor hereby conveys to the Trustee all his interest in the assets listed on Schedule A, which together with any assets later added to this Trust are referred to as the "Trust Estate." Any person may transfer assets to the Trust Estate, if the Trustee agrees to accept them. Assets do not have to be listed on Schedule A to be part of the Trust Estate. Unless otherwise specified in writing at the time of the transfer, those assets will be held as provided in this Trust Agreement. The Trustee acknowledges receipt of the current Trust assets and agrees to hold the Trust Estate as set forth in this Trust Agreement.

IRREVOCABLE PROVISION

The Settlor declares that he has no right to alter, amend, modify, or revoke this Trust Agreement; to withdraw assets from the Trust; or to require changes in the investments of the Trust. No part of the Trust may ever revert to the Settlor, be used for his benefit, or be distributed in discharge of his legal obligations.

ARTICLE 4
ADMINISTRATION OF TRUST

The Trustee shall hold, administer, and distribute the Trust Estate in accordance with the powers granted under this Trust Agreement as follows:

1

4.1 Discretionary Distributions. The Trustee shall pay or apply such sums of principal from this Trust as in the Trustee's discretion are necessary or advisable for Beneficiary's health, education, support, and maintenance.

4.2 Distribution of Principal. When Beneficiary has reached age 21, the trustee shall distribute one-half (½) of the corpus of trust to Beneficiary plus accrued income. When Beneficiary has reached age 25 the Trustee shall distribute the entire remaining principal balance of the corpus of the trust to Beneficiary plus accrued income.

4.3 Distribution Upon Death Before Age 25. Upon the death of Beneficiary prior to age 25, the Trustee shall distribute the remaining assets in the trust to the estate of Beneficiary.

ARTICLE 5
PROVISIONS GOVERNING TRUSTEES

The following provisions apply to all Trustees appointed under this Trust Agreement:

5.1 Incapacity of Trustee. If any Trustee becomes disabled, he or she will immediately cease to act as Trustee. If a Trustee who ceases to serve because of a disability, or who is suspended, thereafter recovers from that disability or consents to the release of relevant medical information, he or she may elect to become a Trustee again by giving written notice to the then serving Trustee, and the last Trustee who undertook to serve will then cease to be a Trustee until another successor Trustee is required.

5.2 Resignation. Any Trustee may resign by giving 30 days' written notice delivered personally or by mail to any then serving Co-Trustee and to the Settlor if he is then living and not disabled; otherwise to the next named successor Trustee, or if none, to the persons having power to appoint successor Trustees.

5.3 Power to Name Other Trustees. Whenever a successor Trustee is required and that position is not filled under the terms specified in this Trust Agreement, an individual Trustee ceasing to serve (other than a Trustee being removed) may appoint his or her successor, but if none is appointed, the remaining Trustees, if any, or the beneficiary shall appoint a successor Corporate Trustee. The appointment will be by a written document (including a testamentary instrument) delivered to the appointed Trustee. In no event may the Settlor ever be appointed as the Trustee under this Trust Agreement nor shall a Successor trustee be appointed that will cause this trust to be a grantor trust.

5.4 Powers of Successor Trustees. Successor Trustees will have all powers granted to the original Trustee, except that only an Independent Trustee will succeed to the powers vested exclusively in the Independent Trustee.

5.5 Accountings. Accountings must be given to the beneficiary of each trust at least annually (quarterly if a Corporate Trustee is serving). The accountings must show the assets held in trust and all receipts and disbursements. A beneficiary's written approval of an accounting will be final and binding upon that beneficiary and all persons represented by him or her as to all matters disclosed in that accounting. In any event, if a beneficiary fails to object to an accounting within six months of receiving it, his or her approval is conclusively presumed. A successor Trustee may require the prior Trustee to render a full and final accounting.

5.6 Acts by Other Fiduciaries. The Trustee is not required to question any acts or failures to act of the fiduciary of any other trust or estate, and will not be liable for any prior fiduciary's acts or failures to act. The Trustee can require a beneficiary who requests an examination of another fiduciary's actions or omissions to advance all costs and fees incurred in the examination, and if the beneficiary does not, the Trustee may elect not to proceed or may proceed and offset those costs and fees directly against any payment that would otherwise be made to that beneficiary.

5.7 Court Supervision. The Settlor waives compliance by the Trustee with any law requiring bond, registration, qualification, or accounting to any court.

5.8 Compensation. Each Trustee is entitled to be paid reasonable compensation for services rendered in the administration of the Trust. Reasonable compensation for a Corporate Trustee will be its published fee schedule in effect when its services are rendered unless otherwise agreed in writing, and except as follows. Any fees paid to a Corporate Trustee for making principal distributions, for termination of the trust, and upon termination of its services must be based solely on the value of its services rendered, not on the value of the trust principal. During the Settlor's lifetime the Trustee's fees are to be charged wholly against income (to the extent sufficient), unless directed otherwise by the Settlor in writing.

5.9 Indemnity. Any Trustee who ceases to serve for any reason will be entitled to receive (and the continuing Trustee shall make suitable arrangements to provide) reasonable indemnification and security to protect and hold that Trustee harmless from any damage or liability of any nature that may be imposed upon it because of its actions or omissions while serving as Trustee. This protection, however, does not extend to a Trustee's negligent actions or omissions that clearly and demonstrably result in damage or liability. A prior Trustee may enforce these provisions against the current Trustee or against any assets held in the Trust, or if the prior Trustee is an individual, against any beneficiary to the extent of distributions received by that beneficiary. This indemnification right will extend to the estate, personal representatives, legal successors, and assigns of a Trustee.

5.10 Successor Trustee. In the event the initial Trustee, Steven I. Greenwald, resigns or ceases to serve as Trustee, then and in that event, I hereby appoint Larry V. Bishins to serve as Trustee.

ARTICLE 6
PROTECTION OF INTERESTS

The interest of any beneficiary under this Trust Agreement, in either income or principal, may not be anticipated, alienated, or in any other manner assigned by the beneficiary, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, and will not be subject to any legal process, bankruptcy proceedings, or the interference or control of the beneficiary's creditors or others.

ARTICLE 7
FIDUCIARY POWERS

The Settlor grants to the Trustee full power to deal freely with any property in the Trust. The Trustee may exercise these powers independently and without the approval of any court. No person dealing with the Trustee need inquire into the propriety of any of its actions or into the application of any funds or assets. The Trustee shall, however, exercise all powers in a fiduciary capacity for the best interest of the beneficiary of this Trust or any trust created under it. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustee is given the following discretionary powers in addition to any other powers conferred by law:

7.1 Type of Assets. Except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to hold funds uninvested for such periods as the Trustee deems prudent, and to invest in any assets the Trustee deems advisable even though they are not technically recognized or specifically listed in so-called "legal lists," without responsibility for depreciation or loss on account of those investments, or because those investments are non-productive, as long as the Trustee acts in good faith.

7.2 Original Assets. Except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to retain the original assets it receives for as long as it deems best, and to dispose of those assets when it deems advisable, even though such assets, because of their character or lack of diversification, would otherwise be considered improper investments for the Trustee.

7.3 Tangible Personal Property. To receive and hold tangible personal property; to pay or refrain from paying storage and insurance charges for such property; and to permit any beneficiaries to use such property without either the Trustee or beneficiaries incurring any liability for wear, tear, and obsolescence of the property.

7.4 Specific Securities. To invest in assets, securities, or interests in securities of any nature, including (without limit) commodities, options, futures, precious metals, currencies, and in domestic and foreign markets and in mutual or investment funds, including funds for which the Trustee or any affiliate performs services for additional fees, whether as custodian, transfer agent, investment advisor or otherwise, or in securities distributed, underwritten, or issued by the Trustee or by syndicates of which it is a member; to trade on credit or margin accounts (whether secured or unsecured); and to pledge assets of the Trust Estate for that purpose.

7.5 Property Transactions. To buy, sell, pledge, exchange, or lease any real or personal property, publicly or privately, for cash or credit, without court approval and upon the terms and conditions that the Trustee deems advisable; to execute deeds, leases, contracts, bills of sale, notes, mortgages, security instruments, and other written instruments; to abandon or dispose of any real or personal property in the Trust which has little or no monetary or useful value; to improve, repair, insure, subdivide and vacate any property; to erect, alter or demolish buildings; to adjust boundaries; and to impose easements, restrictions, and covenants as the Trustee sees fit. A lease will be valid and binding for its full term even if it extends beyond the full duration of the Trust.

7.6 Borrow Money. To borrow money from any source (including the Trustee in its nonfiduciary capacity), to guarantee indebtedness, and to secure the loan or guaranty by mortgage or other security interest.

7.7 Maintain Assets. To expend whatever funds it deems proper for the preservation, maintenance, or improvement of assets. The Trustee in its discretion may elect any options or settlements or exercise any rights under all insurance policies that it holds. However, no fiduciary who is the insured of any insurance policy held in the Trust may exercise any rights or have any incidents of ownership with respect to the policy, including the power to change the beneficiary, to surrender or cancel the policy, to assign the policy, to revoke any assignment, to pledge the policy for a loan, or to obtain from the insurer a loan against the surrender value of the policy. All such power is to be exercised solely by the remaining Trustee, if any, or if none, by a special fiduciary appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.8 Advisors. To employ and compensate attorneys, accountants, advisors, financial consultants, managers, agents, and assistants (including any individual or entity who provides investment advisory or management services, or who furnishes professional assistance in making investments for the Trust) without liability for any act of those persons, if they are selected and retained with reasonable care. Fees may be paid from the Trust Estate even if the services were rendered in connection with ancillary proceedings.

7.9 Indirect Distributions. To make distributions, whether of principal or income, to any person under age 21 or to any incapacitated person according to the terms of this Trust Agreement by making distributions directly to that person whether or not that person has a guardian; to the parent, guardian, or spouse of that person; to a custodial account established by the Trustee or others for that person under an applicable Uniform

Gift to Minors Act or Uniform Transfers to Minors Act; to any adult who resides in the same household with that person or who is otherwise responsible for the care and well-being of that person; or by applying any distribution for the benefit of that person in any manner the Trustee deems proper. The receipt of the person to whom payment is made will constitute full discharge of the Trustee with respect to that payment. No distributions may be made to the Settlor under this Section.

7.10 Non-Pro Rata Distribution. To make any division or distribution in money or in kind, or both, without allocating the same kind of property to all shares or distributees, and without regard to the income tax basis of the property. Any division will be binding and conclusive on all parties.

7.11 Nominee. Except as prohibited by law, to hold any assets in the name of a nominee without disclosing the fiduciary relationship; to hold the property unregistered, without affecting its liability; and to hold securities endorsed in blank, in street certificates, at a depository trust company, or in a book entry system.

7.12 Custodian. To employ a custodian or agent ("the Custodian") located anywhere within the United States, at the discretion of the Trustee but at the expense of the Trust, whether or not such Custodian is an affiliate of the Trustee or any person rendering services to the Trust; to register securities in the name of the Custodian or a nominee thereof without designation of fiduciary capacity; and to appoint the Custodian to perform such other ministerial functions as the Trustee may direct. While such securities are in the custody of the Custodian, the Trustee will be under no obligation to inspect or verify such securities nor will the Trustee be responsible for any loss by the Custodian.

7.13 Settle Claims. To contest, compromise, arbitrate, or otherwise adjust claims in favor of or against the Trust, to agree to any rescission or modification of any contract or agreement, and to refrain from instituting any suit or action unless indemnified for reasonable costs and expenses.

7.14 Corporate Rights. To vote and exercise any option, right, or privilege to purchase or to convert bonds, notes, stock (including shares or fractional shares of stock of any Corporate Trustee), securities, or other property; to borrow money for the purpose of exercising any such option, right, or privilege; to delegate those rights to an agent; to enter into voting trusts and other agreements or subscriptions; to participate in any type of liquidation or reorganization of any enterprise; and to write and sell covered call options, puts, calls, straddles, or other methods of buying or selling securities, as well as all related transactions.

7.15 Partnership Interests. To hold interests in sole proprietorships, general or limited partnerships, joint ventures, business trusts, land trusts, limited liability companies, and other domestic and foreign forms of organizations; and to exercise all rights in connection with such interests as the Trustee deems appropriate, including any powers applicable to a non-admitted transferee of any such interest.

7.16 Self-Dealing. To exercise all its powers even though it may also be acting individually or on behalf of any other person or entity interested in the same matters. The Trustee, however, shall exercise these powers at all times in a fiduciary capacity, primarily in the interest of the beneficiaries of the Trust. Despite any other provision of this Trust Agreement, no Trustee may participate in the decision to make a discretionary distribution that would discharge a legal support obligation of that Trustee. No Trustee who has made a disclaimer, either individually or as a Trustee, may exercise any discretion in determining the recipient of the disclaimed property. All power to make such distributions, or to determine recipients of disclaimed property, will be exercised solely by the remaining Trustees, if any, or if there are no other Trustees then serving, by the person or persons named to serve as the next successor Trustee, or if there are none, by a special Trustee appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.17 Expenses. An Independent Trustee may determine how expenses of administration and receipts are to be apportioned between principal and income.

7.18 Terminate Small Trusts. To exercise its discretion to refrain from funding or to terminate any trust whenever the value of the principal of that trust would be or is too small to administer economically, and to distribute the remaining principal and all accumulated income of the trust as provided in Section 7.9 to the income beneficiary of that trust. The Trustee shall exercise this power to terminate in its discretion as it deems prudent for the best interest of the beneficiaries at that time. This power cannot be exercised by the Settlor or any beneficiary, either alone or in conjunction with any other Trustee, but must be exercised solely by the other Trustee, or if none, by a special Trustee appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.19 Allocations to Income and Principal. To treat premiums and discounts on bonds and other obligations for the payment of money in accordance with either generally accepted accounting principles or tax accounting principles and, except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to hold nonproductive assets without allocating any principal to income, despite any laws or rules to the contrary. The Trustee in its discretion may exercise the power described in Section 738.104 of the Florida Statutes to adjust between principal and income, as appropriate, and, in addition, may convert any income interest into a unitrust interest, or a unitrust interest to an income interest, as it sees fit, all as provided in Section 738.1041 of the Florida Statutes, despite any provision of those sections to the contrary.

7.20 Use of Income. Except as otherwise provided in this Trust Agreement, and in addition to all other available sources, to exercise its discretion in the use of income from the assets of the Trust to satisfy the liabilities described in this Trust Agreement, without accountability to any beneficiary.

DANIEL BERNSTEIN IRREVOCABLE TRUST

7.21 Valuations. In making distributions or allocations under the terms of this Trust Agreement to be valued as of a particular date, the Trustee may use asset valuations obtained for a date reasonably close to that particular date (such as a quarterly closing date before or after that date) if, in the Trustee's judgment, obtaining appraisals or other determinations of value on that date would result in unnecessary expense, and if in the Trustee's judgment, the fair market value as determined is substantially the same as on that actual date. This paragraph will not apply if valuation on a specific date is required to preserve a qualification for a tax benefit, including any deduction, credit, or most favorable allocation of an exemption.

7.22 Incorporation. To incorporate any business or venture, and to continue any unincorporated business that the Trustee determines to be not advisable to incorporate.

7.23 Delegation. To delegate periodically among themselves the authority to perform any act of administration of any trust.

7.24 Advances. To make cash advances or loans to beneficiaries, with or without security.

7.25 Investment Manager. To employ any investment management service, financial institution, or similar organization to advise the Trustee and to handle all investments of the Trust and to render all accountings of funds held on its behalf under custodial, agency, or other agreements. If the Trustee is an individual, these costs may be paid as an expense of administration in addition to fees and commissions.

7.26 Depreciation. To deduct from all receipts attributable to depreciable property a reasonable allowance for depreciation, computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied.

7.27 Disclaim Assets or Powers. To disclaim any assets otherwise passing or any fiduciary powers pertaining to any trust created hereunder, by execution of an instrument of disclaimer meeting the requirements of applicable law generally imposed upon individuals executing disclaimers. No notice to or consent of any beneficiary, other interested person, or any court is required for any such disclaimer, and the Trustee is to be held harmless for any decision to make or not make such a disclaimer.

7.28 Transfer Situs. To transfer the situs of any trust or any trust property to any other jurisdiction as often as the Trustee deems advisable, and if necessary to appoint a substitute or ancillary Trustee to act with respect to that property. The Trustee may delegate to the substitute Trustee any or all of the powers given to the Trustee; may elect to act as advisor to the substitute Trustee and receive reasonable compensation for that service; and may remove any acting or substitute Trustee and appoint another, or reappoint itself, at will.

7.29 Related Parties. To enter into any transaction on behalf of the Trust despite the fact that another party to that transaction may be: (i) a business or trust controlled by the Trustee, or of which the Trustee, or any director, officer, or employee of the Corporate Trustee, is also a director, officer, or employee; (ii) an affiliate or business associate of any beneficiary or the Trustee; or (iii) a beneficiary or Trustee under this Trust Agreement acting individually, or any relative of such a party.

7.30 Additional Powers for Income-Producing Real Estate. In addition to the other powers set forth above or otherwise conferred by law, the Trustee has the following powers with respect to any income-producing real property which is or may become a part of the Trust Estate:

- To retain and operate the property for as long as it deems advisable;
- To control, direct, and manage the property, determining the manner and extent of its active participation in these operations, and to delegate all or any part of its supervisory power to other persons that it selects;
- To hire and discharge employees, fix their compensation, and define their duties;
- To invest funds in other land holdings and to use those funds for all improvements, operations, or other similar purposes;
- Except as otherwise provided with respect to mandatory income distributions, to retain any amount of the net earnings for working capital and other purposes that it deems advisable in conformity with sound and efficient management; and
- To purchase and sell machinery, equipment, and supplies of all kinds as needed for the operation and maintenance of the land holdings.

ARTICLE 8
SUBCHAPTER S STOCK

Despite any other provisions of this Trust Agreement, if a trust created in this instrument is to become the owner of, or already owns, stock in a corporation that has an election in effect (or one that proposes to make an election) under Section 1362 of the Internal Revenue Code (an "S Corporation"), and that trust would not otherwise be permitted to be an S Corporation shareholder, the following provisions will apply:

8.1 Electing Small Business Trust. The Trustee in its discretion may elect for the trust to become an Electing Small Business Trust ("ESBT") as defined in the Internal Revenue Code.

8.2 Qualified Subchapter S Trust. If the Trustee does not cause the trust to become an ESBT, the Trustee shall set aside the S Corporation stock in a separate trust for the current income beneficiary of such trust, so that a Qualified Subchapter S Trust ("QSST") election under Section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code can be filed with respect to that trust. The Trustee shall hold each share as a separate QSST for the persons described above, and each such person will be the sole beneficiary of his or her QSST. To the greatest extent possible, the Trustee shall administer each QSST under the terms of the trust from which it was derived, but subject to the following overriding provisions:

(a) Consent. The Trustee shall notify the beneficiary of each separate trust promptly that a QSST election must be filed with the Internal Revenue Service. Thereafter, each beneficiary shall file a timely and proper QSST election with the Internal Revenue Service. If a beneficiary fails or refuses to make the QSST election, the Trustee shall make an ESBT election for that trust. If the beneficiary does make the QSST election, then his or her separate trust will be administered as set forth below.

(b) Income Payments. During the beneficiary's life, the Trustee shall pay all net income of the trust to the beneficiary (and only to that beneficiary) in quarterly or more frequent installments. The beneficiary's income interest in the trust will terminate on the earlier of his or her death or the termination of the trust under its terms.

(c) Principal Invasions. If the beneficiary is otherwise entitled to receive principal distributions, the Trustee may distribute principal from that separate trust during the beneficiary's life only to or for the benefit of that beneficiary (and no one else).

(d) Final Distribution. If the QSST is terminated during the beneficiary's life, the Trustee shall distribute all remaining assets of that separate trust to that beneficiary. If the beneficiary dies before that trust's termination, all remaining assets of the QSST are to be distributed as provided in the original trust, but subject to this article.

(e) Termination of QSST Status. If a separate trust would cease to qualify as an S Corporation shareholder, the Trustee in its discretion may: (i) make an ESBT election for that separate trust, or (ii) distribute all S Corporation stock to the beneficiary. The Trustee in its discretion also may convert a QSST to an ESBT, whether or not the beneficiary has consented to QSST treatment and, if the beneficiary consents, may convert an ESBT into a QSST.

PERPETUITIES PROVISION

Despite any contrary provisions of this Trust Agreement, from the creation of this Trust and for up to 21 years after the death of the last of the Settlor's grandparents' descendants who are living at the creation of this Trust, a trust beneficiary (which includes persons succeeding to the interest of a deceased beneficiary) will be entitled to terminating distributions only at the ages specified in this Trust Agreement. In all events, however, the share of each beneficiary will vest (in the beneficiary or his or her estate) immediately prior to the expiration of the 21 year period described above.

ARTICLE 10
ADMINISTRATION AND CONSTRUCTION

10.1 Rules for Distributions. In making distributions to beneficiaries under this Trust Agreement, the Trustee must use the following criteria.

(a) Other Resources. Whenever the Trustee has the authority to decide how much to distribute to or for the benefit of a beneficiary, the Trustee can make decisions without taking into account any information about the beneficiary's other available income and resources. The Trustee can make payments directly to a beneficiary or to other persons for the beneficiary's benefit, but it does not have to make payments to a court appointed guardian.

(b) Trustee's Decision. Absent clear and convincing evidence of bad faith, the Trustee's decisions as to amounts to be distributed will be final.

(c) Standard of Living. Distributions to a beneficiary for health, education, support, or maintenance are to be based on his or her standard of living, determined as of the date of the distribution.

10.2 Funding Gifts. The following rules will apply to funding gifts under this Trust Agreement.

(a) Pecuniary Gifts. All pecuniary gifts under this Trust Agreement that are paid by an in-kind distribution of assets must use values having an aggregate fair market value at the date or dates of distribution equal to the amount of this gift as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes.

(b) Adjustments. The Trustee shall select one or more dates of allocation or distribution for purposes of satisfying gifts and funding shares or trusts. The Trustee may make allocations before the final determination of federal estate tax, with those allocations being based upon the information then available to the Trustee, and may thereafter adjust properties among the shares or trusts if it is determined that the allocation should have been made differently.

10.3 Accumulated Income. Any income not distributed to the beneficiaries pursuant to either a mandatory direction or a discretionary power is to be incorporated into principal, at such intervals as the Trustee deems convenient.

10.4 Estate Tax on Included Property. If assets of any trust created under this Trust Agreement are included in a beneficiary's estate for federal estate tax purposes, the following will apply.

(a) Appointed Assets. If the beneficiary exercises a power of appointment over those assets, the Trustee is authorized to withhold from those assets the amount of estate taxes apportioned to them by applicable law, if the beneficiary does not make provisions for the payment of those taxes from other sources.

(b) Other Assets. If the beneficiary does not have or does not exercise a power of appointment over those assets, the Trustee will pay the estate taxes attributable to those assets. The estate taxes attributable to those assets will be the amount that the beneficiary's estate taxes are increased over the amount those taxes would have been if those assets had not been included in the beneficiary's gross estate.

(c) Certification and Payment. The Trustee may rely upon a written certification by the beneficiary's personal representative of the amount of the estate taxes, and may pay those taxes directly or to the personal representative of the beneficiary's estate. The Trustee will not be held liable for making payments as directed by the beneficiary's personal representative.

10.5 Transactions With Other Entities. The Trustee may buy assets from other estates or trusts, or make loans to them, so that funds will be available to pay claims, taxes, and expenses. The Trustee can make those purchases or loans even if it serves as the fiduciary of that estate or trust, and on whatever terms and conditions the Trustee thinks are appropriate, except that the terms of any transaction must be commercially reasonable.

ARTICLE 11 MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

11.1 Definitions. As used in this Trust Agreement, the following terms have the meanings set forth below:

(a) Trustees.

- (1) Independent Trustee means a trustee of a particular trust, either individual or corporate, who is not the Settlor or a beneficiary, and who is not a Related Person as to the Settlor or a beneficiary (if the Settlor or the beneficiary, respectively, is living and participated in that person's appointment). For purposes of this definition a beneficiary is a person who is a permissible distributee of income or principal, or someone with an interest in the trust in excess of five percent (5%) of its value, assuming a maximum exercise of discretion in his or her favor. Whenever this Trust Agreement requires an action be taken by, or in the discretion of, an Independent Trustee but no such Trustee is then serving, a court may appoint an Independent Trustee to serve as an additional Trustee whose sole function and duty will be to exercise the specified power.
- (2) Corporate Trustee means a trustee that is a bank, trust company, or other entity authorized to serve as a trustee under the laws of the United States or any state thereof that is not a Related Person to the Settlor. A bank or trust company that does not meet this requirement cannot serve as Trustee.

(b) Internal Revenue Code Terms.

- (1) Internal Revenue Code means the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, or successor provisions of future federal internal revenue laws.
- (2) The terms health, education, support, and maintenance are intended to set forth an "ascertainable standard," as described in the Internal Revenue Code and its associated Regulations. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, "health" means a beneficiary's physical and mental health, including but not limited to payments for examinations, surgical, dental, or other treatment, medication, counseling, hospitalization, and health insurance premiums; "education" means elementary, secondary, post-secondary, graduate, or professional schooling in an accredited institution, public or private, or attendance at other formal programs in furtherance of the beneficiary's spiritual, athletic, or artistic education, including but not limited to payments for tuition, books, fees, assessments, equipment, tutoring, transportation, and reasonable living expenses.

- (3) Related Person as to a particular individual is someone who is deemed to be "related or subordinate" to that individual under Section 672(c) of the Internal Revenue Code (as though that individual was a grantor).

(c) Other Terms.

- (1) Distributions that are to be made to a person's descendants, per stirpes, will be divided into equal shares, so that there will be one share for each living child (if any) of that person and one share for each deceased child who has then living descendants. The share of each deceased child will be further divided among his or her descendants on a per stirpes basis, by reapplying the preceding rule to that deceased child and his or her descendants as many times as necessary.
- (2) Disabled or under a disability means (i) being under the legal age of majority, (ii) having been adjudicated to be incapacitated, or (iii) being unable to manage properly personal or financial affairs because of a mental or physical impairment (whether temporary or permanent in nature). A written certificate executed by an individual's attending physician confirming that person's impairment will be sufficient evidence of disability under item (iii) above, and all persons may rely conclusively on such a certificate.
- (3) Removal of a Trustee for cause includes, without limitation, the following: the willful or negligent mismanagement of the trust assets by that individual Trustee; the abuse or abandonment of, or inattention to, the trust by that individual Trustee; a federal or state charge against that individual Trustee involving the commission of a felony or serious misdemeanor; an act of theft, dishonesty, fraud, embezzlement, or moral turpitude by that individual Trustee; or the use of narcotics or excessive use of alcohol by that individual Trustee.
- (4) The words will and shall are used interchangeably in this Trust Agreement and mean, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, that the Trustee must take the action indicated; as used in this Trust Agreement, the word may means that the Trustee has the discretionary authority to take the action but is not automatically required to do so.

11.2 Powers of Appointment. The following provisions relate to all powers of appointment under this Trust Agreement.

- (a) A general power of appointment granted to a person is one that can be exercised in favor of that person or his or her estate, his or her creditors, or the creditors of his or her estate.
- (b) A special power of appointment is any power that is not a general power.
- (c) A testamentary power of appointment (either general or special) is exercisable upon the powerholder's death by his or her Last Will or by a revocable trust agreement established by that person, but only by specific reference to the instrument creating the power. A "testamentary power of appointment" may not be exercised in favor of the person possessing the power.
- (d) In determining whether a person has exercised a testamentary power of appointment, the Trustee may rely upon an instrument admitted to probate in any jurisdiction as that person's Last Will, or upon any trust agreement certified to be valid and authentic by sworn statement of the trustee who is serving under that trust agreement. If the Trustee has not received written notice of such an instrument within six months after the powerholder's death, the Trustee may presume that the powerholder failed to exercise that power and will not be liable for acting in accordance with that presumption.

11.3 Notices. Any person entitled or required to give notice under this Trust Agreement shall exercise that power by a written instrument clearly setting forth the effective date of the action for which notice is being given. The instrument may be executed in counterparts.

11.4 Certifications.

(a) Facts. A certificate signed and acknowledged by the Trustee stating any fact affecting the Trust Estate or the Trust Agreement will be conclusive evidence of such fact in favor of any transfer agent and any other person dealing in good faith with the Trustee. The Trustee may rely on a certificate signed and acknowledged by any beneficiary stating any fact concerning the Trust beneficiaries, including dates of birth, relationships, or marital status, unless an individual serving as Trustee has actual knowledge that the stated fact is false.

(b) Copy. Any person may rely on a copy of this instrument (in whole or in part) certified to be a true copy by the Settlor; by any person specifically named as a Trustee (or successor Trustee); by any Corporate Trustee whether or not specifically named; or, if there are none of the above, by any then serving Trustee.

11.5 Applicable Law. All matters involving the validity and interpretation of this Trust Agreement are to be governed by Florida law. Subject to the provisions of this Trust Agreement, all matters involving the administration of a trust are to be governed by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the trust has its principal place of administration.

11.6 Gender and Number. Reference in this Trust Agreement to any gender includes either masculine or feminine, as appropriate, and reference to any number includes both singular and plural where the context permits or requires. Use of descriptive titles for articles and paragraphs is for the purpose of convenience only and is not intended to restrict the application of those provisions.

11.7 Further Instruments. The Settlor agrees to execute such further instruments as may be necessary to vest the Trustee with full legal title to the property transferred to this Trust.

11.8 Binding Effect. This Trust Agreement extends to and is binding upon the Settlor's Personal Representative, successors, and assigns, and upon the Trustee.

Subject: Waiver of Service of Process

Steven,

I will take that as you are refusing to Waive Service and refusal to cooperate in your own lawsuit and will promptly send a Marshal and notify the Court of your lack of cooperation. Since, I have told you already I am not sure you are the legal Trustee and I am not sure I could be therefore a successor and based on the incomplete documents remain uncertain, that I would welcome a Court to decide how the transfer shall go. Due to the Fraudulently Notarized Documents and Forged Documents in my parents estates and trusts found already and lacking fully signed documents showing BFR and the children's trusts at this time I am certain you understand my position. I have turned these matters as well over to civil and criminal authorities and your clients involvement so I would like to wait for all of those efforts to also ascertain what happened and who is responsible first and I think my counter complaint will address that.

You have now been served a Counter Complaint with a waiver of service and as such I wondered if you have counsel for your other capacities as Defendant both personally and professionally and counsel for your firm who is also served? If you are refusing to talk to me in those capacities, again, especially where this is your lawsuit who should I contact for you and who shall I contact for the firm.

Thank you,
Eliot

Mr. Bernstein:

I am writing to you and your wife, in your capacity as your children's parents, and in my capacity as counsel for the trustee (now resigned) of your children's trusts. On at least three prior occasions (once by letter and twice by e-mail), I asked if you had a preference as to who should control your children's trusts or their assets upon my client's resignation. If the Court agrees that a successor is needed, we would like to advise the Court of your preference, or advise the Court that you have no preference. To date, you have not responded. I ask again that you do so.

In response to your latest e-mail, I again advise you that I will communicate with you only in your capacity as your children's parents, and only in my capacity as counsel for the trustee (now resigned) of your children's trusts. Any questions posed by you in any other capacity, or to me in any other capacity, will not see a response. Thank you for your understanding.

Are you accepting the Waiver of Service on the Lawsuit that I sent to you, please advise so that I may notify the Court or send the Marshal? Also, have you notified your insurance carrier of the fact that you are named in the Counter Complaint as a Defendant yet, I believe most policies require reporting of even the threat of litigation let alone once you have been served process or waiver of process and I cannot believe they would allow you to continue without proper representation for yourself. Thanks ~ Eliot

2753 N.W. 34th St.
Boca Raton, FL 33434-3459

Re: Resignation as Trustee of Trusts for the benefit of Joshua, Jacob and Daniel
Bernstein; Offer to Resign as Manager of Bernstein Family Realty, LLC

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Bernstein:

I represent, and am writing to you on behalf of, Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware ("Oppenheimer"), in its capacity as Trustee of the three trusts created by Simon Bernstein for the benefit of your minor children, Joshua, Jacob and Daniel Bernstein (the "Trusts"). This letter is directed to you, as the parents and natural guardians of Joshua, Jacob and Daniel Bernstein (the "Beneficiaries"), and will constitute due notice to the Beneficiaries under the Trusts and Florida law.

Oppenheimer hereby notifies you that it will resign as Trustee of the Trusts effective May 26, 2014 (the "Effective Date"). You, as the natural guardians of the Beneficiaries, have the right and obligation to appoint a successor corporate trustee. If you do not provide Oppenheimer, through me, with a written document evidencing that a successor corporate trustee has been appointed and has accepted the appointment before the Effective Date, Oppenheimer will petition the Court to either appoint a successor trustee or terminate the Trusts and distribute their assets to you, as natural guardians of the Beneficiaries.

For your information, the Trusts provide, in relevant part, as follows:

5.2 Resignation. Any Trustee may resign by giving 30 days' written notice delivered personally or by mail to any then serving Co-Trustee and to the Settlor if he is then living and not disabled; otherwise to the next named successor Trustee, or if none, to the persons having power to appoint successor Trustees.

5.3 Power to Name Other Trustees. Whenever a successor Trustee is required and that position is not filled under the terms specified in this Trust Agreement, an individual Trustee ceasing to serve (other than a Trustee being removed) may appoint his or her successor, but if none is appointed, the remaining Trustees, if any, or the beneficiary shall appoint a successor Corporate Trustee. The appointment will be by a written document (including a testamentary instrument) delivered to the appointed Trustee. In no event may the Settlor ever be appointed as the Trustee under this Trust Agreement nor shall a Successor trustee be appointed that will cause this trust to be a grantor trust.

Similarly, Fla. Stat. § 736.0705, entitled "Resignation of trustee," provides, in relevant part, as follows:

(1) A trustee may resign:

(a) Upon at least 30 days' notice to the qualified beneficiaries, the settlor, if living, and all cotrustees...

Finally, Fla. Stat. § 736.0704, entitled "Vacancy in trusteeship; appointment of successor," provides, in relevant part, as follows:

(3) A vacancy in a trusteeship of a noncharitable trust that is required to be filled must be filled in the following order of priority:

(a) By a person named or designated pursuant to the terms of the trust to act as successor trustee.

(b) By a person appointed by unanimous agreement of the qualified beneficiaries.

(c) By a person appointed by the court.

Please let me know of your intentions with regard to the appointment of a successor trustee before the Effective Date.

Eliot and Candice Bernstein

I am also writing to you on behalf of Oppenheimer, in its capacity as the Manager of Bernstein Family Realty, LLC (the "Company"). As you know, the Trusts are the sole owners and members of the Company, and the Company owns the house occupied by you and the Beneficiaries. Oppenheimer understands that the house is encumbered by two mortgages which probably exceed the value of the house. A third party, William Stansbury, claims that he is entitled to an equitable lien on the house, and he has sued the Company to establish such a lien. At Oppenheimer's direction, the Company is defending the lawsuit in order to avoid the claimed third lien on the house.

You have expressed unhappiness with Oppenheimer's management of the Company. In light of Oppenheimer's decision to resign as Trustee, Oppenheimer would like to offer you the opportunity to assume management of the Company, or appoint another successor manager, so that you or your chosen manager can defend the Stansbury lawsuit, operate the Company and deal with third parties on behalf of the Company as you deem to be in the best interest of the Company's members and, ultimately, your children. If you would like Oppenheimer to resign as Manager, please notify me in writing, before the Effective Date, of your selection of an appropriate successor manager and the successor's agreement to serve. Upon receipt of your selection, Oppenheimer will resign as Manager and, on behalf of the member Trusts, appoint your chosen successor.

Please note that, if you do not request Oppenheimer's earlier resignation and designate a successor manager, it is Oppenheimer's intent to resign as Manager of the Company after a successor trustee is appointed or the Trusts are terminated. At that point, it will be up to the successor trustee or you, as natural guardians of the Beneficiaries, to appoint a new manager.

If you have any questions regarding the foregoing, please contact me or have your attorney do so.

Very truly yours,

Steven A. Lessne FOR

MOTION TO STRIKE OR SEVER COUNTER-COMPLAINT

Petitioner, OPPENHEIMER TRUST COMPANY OF DELAWARE (“Oppenheimer”), as the resigned trustee of three irrevocable trusts created by the late Simon Bernstein for the benefit of his minor grandchildren, Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein, moves to strike or abate the “Counter-Complaint” filed in this action by non-party, Eliot Bernstein, or to sever the Counter-Complaint from the main claim and stay the Counter-Complaint pending resolution of the main claims and alleged “related claims.” In support hereof, Oppenheimer states:¹²

¹ Oppenheimer filed this action solely in its capacity as the Resigned Trustee and does not, by the filing of this Motion, voluntarily appear in this action or subject itself to the jurisdiction of this Court in any other capacity.

² Oppenheimer has simultaneously filed a Motion to Appoint Guardian Ad Litem for Minor Beneficiaries (the Minor Beneficiaries are only real parties in interest in this action). If that Motion is granted, it will be up to the guardian ad litem (not Eliot Bernstein) to plead on behalf of the Minor Beneficiaries).

I. SUMMARY OF RELIEF SOUGHT

1. Oppenheimer filed this action against Eliot and Candice Bernstein (the “Bernsteins”), in their representative capacities (as the parents and natural guardians of Oppenheimer’s minor beneficiaries, Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein (the “Minor Beneficiaries”)). Critically, the Minor Beneficiaries are the only beneficiaries under the small “Grandchildren Trusts” that are the subject of Oppenheimer’s Petition, and therefore, the only real parties in interest on the respondent side of this action. The Bernsteins have no standing to file a “Counter-Complaint” individually (or in any capacity other than that in which they were sued). Because the Bernsteins (themselves, non-parties) impermissibly filed a Counter-Complaint in their individual and other capacities, the Counter-Complaint is a nullity and must be stricken.

2. The Counter-Complaint should be stricken or abated because it is duplicative of several other lawsuits already pending before this Court and other courts, and appears on its face to violate a “vexatious litigant” injunction entered against Eliot Bernstein by the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. According to the Bernsteins, the Counter-Complaint “is related to [nine other lawsuits pending] worldwide involving Eliot Bernstein where there are claims of conspiracy...” The Bernsteins have declared all of these “related” actions, en masse, to be a single “adversary proceeding,” see Declaration of Adversary Proceeding filed in this action (p. 7), and have expressly incorporated all “pleadings, rulings, evidence, etc.” from all of these other lawsuits “and others related” into the Counter-Complaint. See Counter-Complaint, ¶ 108, 237. Given the pendency (or prior adjudication) of these other lawsuits, to avoid duplication and preserve judicial resources, the Court should order that any counterclaims filed in this action be limited to issues related to the Grandchildren

Trusts (and be filed on behalf of the beneficiaries thereof – the Minor Beneficiaries). The Counter-Complaint, in its present form, should be stricken.

3. The Counter-Complaint should be stricken because it is an unmanageable, unworkable document, violative of basic rules of pleading. It is impossible to discern who is suing who and in which capacity(ies). Eliot Bernstein is suing in more than twenty (20) capacities. He is seeking all relief against all counterclaim-defendants in all counts based upon generalized allegations of “conspiracy” (and there is no specific allegation that Oppenheimer was a party to any agreement to conspire).

4. At a minimum, the Counter-Complaint should be severed from the narrowly-tailored main claim, and stayed, in the interest of judicial economy.

II. ARGUMENT

A. Procedural Background

5. On July 8, 2010, on the Bernsteins’ Petition, this Court (in Case Nos. 502010CP003123XXXXSB, 502010CP003125XXXXSB and 502010CP003128XXXXSB) entered Final Orders appointing Oppenheimer Trust Company as the successor trustee of three, irrevocable trusts created by the late Simon Bernstein for the benefit of his minor grandchildren, Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein (the “Grandchildren Trusts”). Copies of those Orders are attached hereto as Composite Exhibits “A” through “C.” Oppenheimer requests that the Court take judicial notice of the Final Orders pursuant to §§ 90.201(1) and/or 90.202(6), Florida Statutes.³

6. On July 30, 2010, Oppenheimer Trust Company accepted the Court’s appointments and began serving as Trustee of the Grandchildren Trusts. See Exhibit “D” (the

Affidavit of Oppenheimer representative Hunt Worth authenticating the three “Acceptance” documents signed by him on July 30, 2010).⁴

7. On May 26, 2014, Oppenheimer resigned as the Trustee of the “Grandchildren Trusts” (as it was permitted to do a matter of right). See Exhibit “F.” Because the Minor Beneficiaries’ parents, Eliot and Candice Bernstein (the “Bernsteins”), declined to appoint a successor trustee as permitted by the terms of the Grandchildren Trusts, or provide instructions to Oppenheimer regarding the delivery of the trust property, Oppenheimer was forced to file this lawsuit.

8. In Count I of its Petition, Oppenheimer seeks instructions as to where to deliver the trust property now that it has resigned. In Count II of its Petition, Oppenheimer seeks review and approval of its final accounting. Critically, the only real parties in interest with regard to Oppenheimer’s Petition are the beneficiaries of the Grandchildren Trusts, to wit: Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein. Eliot and Candice Bernstein were named as Respondents solely in a representative capacity.

9. In response to the lawsuit, Eliot and Candice Bernstein filed a Counter-Complaint, not merely in their representative capacity, and not merely related to the Grandchildren Trusts. Rather, the Bernsteins purport to bring the Counter-Complaint: (i) “Individually, PRO SE;” (ii) “as the Natural Guardians of [the beneficiaries of the Grandchildren Trusts];” (iii) “as Guardians of the members of Bernstein Family Realty, LLC;” and (iii) “as beneficiaries of [sixteen (16) Trusts, two (2) Estates, and multiple] Corporate Entities set up by Simon and Shirley Bernstein.” See Counter-Complaint, first unnumbered paragraph.

⁴ “Oppenheimer Trust Company” was merged into “Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware” effective December 20, 2103. See Exhibit “E.” Oppenheimer requests that the Court take judicial notice of the information contained in Exhibit “E” pursuant to §§ 90.202(5), 90.202(12) and/or 90.202(13), Florida Statutes.

10. The style of the Counter-Complaint alone is seven (7) pages long, single-spaced.

In addition to “counter-suing” Oppenheimer and all of its current and former divisions, affiliates, subsidiaries, stockholders, parents, predecessors, successors, assignors, assigns, partners, members, officers, directors, trustees, employees, agents, administrators, representatives, attorneys, insurers and fiduciaries,

the Bernsteins purport to sue seventy-six (76) additional counterclaim-defendants (not including “John Doe’s 1-5000”), and all of their current and former divisions, affiliates, subsidiaries, stockholders, parents, predecessors, successors, assignors, assigns, partners, members, officers, directors, trustees, employees, agents, administrators, representatives, attorneys, insurers and fiduciaries.

The Counter-Complaint purports to seek relief against parties having nothing to do with Oppenheimer or the Grandchildren Trusts, including a wide variety of law firms, accountants and banks. According to Eliot Bernstein, the counterclaim “is related to [nine other lawsuits pending] worldwide involving Eliot Bernstein where there are claims of conspiracy...” against lawyers, state Bar associations, judges, etc. See Counter-Complaint, ¶ 238.

11. Oppenheimer requests that the Court take particular note of the following allegations and characteristics of the Counter-Complaint:

- a. Despite the fact that they were sued only in their capacity as their children’s parents, the Bernsteins purport to bring the Counter-Complaint: (i) “Individually, PRO SE;” (ii) “as the Natural Guardians of [the beneficiaries of the Grandchildren Trusts];” (iii) “as Guardians of the members of Bernstein Family Realty, LLC;” and (iii) “as beneficiaries of [sixteen (16) Trusts, two (2) Estates, and multiple] Corporate Entities set up by Simon and Shirley Bernstein.” See Counter-Complaint, first unnumbered paragraph.
- b. The counterclaim-defendants are described in paragraphs 3 through 106 of the Counter-Complaint (104 paragraphs). The “Background” does not begin until paragraph 108 on page 26. Most of the defendants, including other banks and insurance companies, are not alleged to have any connection whatsoever to Oppenheimer or the Grandchildren Trusts.

- c. Virtually all of the claims raised in the Counter-Complaint have already been raised (and/or adjudicated) elsewhere. For instance:
- i. Eliot Bernstein alleges “that many of these frauds have already been brought before the Court in the Petitions and Motions filed by Eliot in the Estate cases before this Court, which remain unheard since May of 2013, which ties all of these defendants together as part of the larger conspiracy in a variety of criminal acts, civil torts, again most of these illegal legal crimes were committed by officers of this Court under the tutelage of your Honor.” See Counter-Complaint, ¶ 228.
 - ii. Eliot Bernstein “incorporates by reference all ongoing cases before this Court related to the Simon and Shirley Bernstein Estates and Trust, including but not limited to, pleadings, rulings, evidence, etc. that are currently before Honorable Judge Colin in the related cases are already before this Court for almost two years.” That incorporation specifically includes the “many criminal acts and civil torts of each of the counter defendants, including those proven, admitted and alleged crimes committed by some of the “Fiduciaries and Attorneys at Law acting as Officers of this Court before the Honorable Judge Martin Colin and Honorable David French, in the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley Bernstein...” See Counter-Complaint, ¶ 108.
 - iii. In the Counter-Complaint, Eliot Bernstein is suing Theodore Stuart Bernstein (“Ted Bernstein”) in 12 different capacities, including as a fiduciary of other trusts and estates pending before this Court under different case numbers. See Counter-Complaint, ¶¶ 15-19.
 - iv. In the Counter-Complaint, Eliot Bernstein is suing attorneys representing parties in other cases pending before this Court (in over 30 different capacities). See Counter-Complaint, ¶¶ 20-25, 28-36.
 - v. In the Counter-Complaint, Eliot Bernstein is suing a life insurance company based upon a “dispute already in an Illinois Federal Court.” See Counter-Complaint, ¶ 98.
- d. Despite a federal district court injunction prohibiting Eliot Bernstein from filing certain claims in any court without its permission, Mr. Bernstein has expressly incorporated the allegations of that lawsuit, and joined several of the same defendants, in this one. See Counter-Complaint, ¶¶ 61-64, 217, 223.
- e. In Count XII of his Counter-Complaint, Eliot Bernstein is suing for Oppenheimer’s removal, yet he is opposing Oppenheimer’s resignation.

B. The Counter-Complaint Should Be Stricken Because The Bernsteins Have No Standing To Assert Counterclaims In A Different Capacity Than That In Which They Were Sued

“As a general rule, there must be mutuality between the parties to a counterclaim; that is, an asserted counterclaim must exist in favor of the counterclaimant in the same right, or capacity, in which he or she is sued.” 40 Fla. Jur. 2d Pleadings § 91 (rev. 2014) (emphasis supplied), citing Skaf's Jewelers, Inc. v. Antwerp Import Corp., 150 So. 2d 260 (Fla. 2nd DCA 1963); see also Proodian v. Plymouth Citrus Growers Ass'n, 6 So.2d 531 (Fla. 1942); Juega v. Davidson, 105 So. 3d 575 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2012); Nationwide Terminals, Inc. v. MC Construction Group, Inc., 964 So. 2d 705 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2007); Hall v. McDonough, 216 So. 2d 84 (Fla. 2nd DCA 1968). “When a minor is represented by a parent as “next friend,” the “next friend” is not a party to the action; the real party in interest is the minor.” Watson By and Through Watson v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 639 So. 2d 687 (Fla. 2nd DCA 1994) (emphasis supplied), citing Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.210(b); Youngblood v. Taylor, 89 So. 2d 503 (Fla. 1956); Brown v. Caldwell, 389 So. 2d 287 (Fla. 1st DCA 1980). In this case, the Bernsteins are not parties to this action with standing to file counterclaims in their own right (or in other capacities). Because the Counter-Complaint is brought by non-parties (the Bernsteins in other capacities), it must be stricken.⁵

⁵ In the matter of Stone v. Harris, 721 So. 2d 1264 (Fla. 5th DCA 1998), a defendant who was sued in her individual capacity asserted a counterclaim in her capacity as the personal representative of an estate that was not a party to the action. The trial court granted the plaintiff's motion to dismiss the counterclaim for lack of standing. Although the appellate court determined that it had no jurisdiction over the appeal (because it was a non-final order), it described “the issue raised on appeal [as] the ability of a third party to join in an action without seeking the court's permission to intervene.” Id. (emphasis supplied). Implicit in the language used by the court is the continued recognition that a person sued in a representative capacity is not a party individually or in any other capacity.

C. The Counter-Complaint Should Be Stricken Or Abated Because It Is Duplicative Of Claims Pending Or Adjudicated In Other Forums

As set forth above, the claims raised in the Counter-Complaint with regard to instruments other than the Grandchildren Trusts are identical to, or inextricably intertwined with, claims Eliot Bernstein has asserted in other forums. Indeed, he affirmatively asserts that the Counter-Complaint “is related to [nine other lawsuits pending] worldwide involving Eliot Bernstein where there are claims of conspiracy. Mr. Bernstein has expressly incorporated all “pleadings, rulings, evidence, etc.” from all of these other lawsuits “and others related” into the Counterclaim. See Counter-Complaint, ¶ 108, 238. The filing of this duplicative Counter-Complaint violates the Rule of Priority and principles of comity and offends traditional notions of judicial economy. For this reason too, the Counter-Complaint should be dismissed or abated.⁶

D. The Counter-Complaint Should Be Stricken Because, On Its Face, It Appears To Violate A Federal Court Injunction

On August 29, 2013, the United States District Court for the Southern District Of New York found that Eliot Bernstein had engaged in serial court filings that were "frivolous, vexatious, overly voluminous, and an egregious abuse of judicial resources," and entered an injunction against him, as follows:

Eliot I. Bernstein is hereby enjoined from filing any action in any court related to the subject matter of this action without first obtaining leave of this Court. In moving for such leave, Bernstein

⁶ Generally, a court which first exercises its jurisdiction over a particular matter (such as this Court has done in other cases before it, and other courts throughout the country have done in other cases filed by Eliot Bernstein), acquires exclusive jurisdiction to proceed with regard to that matter. Bedingfield v. Bedingfield, 417 So. 2d 1047, 1050 (Fla. 4th DCA 1982) (citing 20 Am.Jur.2d Courts § 128 (1965), receded from on other grounds; Thomas v. Thomas, 724 So.2d 1246 (Fla. 4th DCA 1999); see also Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, Inc. v. Ainsworth, 630 So.2d 1145, 1147 (Fla. 2d DCA 1993); Sauder v. Rayman, 800 So.2d 355, 358 (Fla. 4th DCA 2001); REWJB Gas Investments v. Land O' Sun Realty, Ltd., 643 So. 2d 1107 (Fla. 4th DCA 1994) (noting that, “[u]nlike a stay, which is discretionary, a party may be entitled as a matter of law to abatement of a second lawsuit, because of the pendency of another action, and thereby entitled to a dismissal of the second lawsuit.”).

must certify that the claim or claims he wishes to present are new claims never before raised and/or disposed of by any court. Bernstein must also certify that claim or claims are not frivolous or asserted in bad faith. Additionally, the motion for leave to file must be captioned "Application Pursuant to Court Order Seeking Leave to File." Failure to comply strictly with the terms of this injunction shall be sufficient grounds for denying leave to file and any other remedy or sanction deemed appropriate by this Court.

A true copy of the injunction is attached hereto as Exhibit "G." Oppenheimer requests that the Court take judicial notice of the injunction pursuant to §§ 90.202(2), (5) and/or (13), Florida Statutes.

Despite the injunction prohibiting him "from filing any action in any court related to the subject matter of [the federal court] action without first obtaining leave of [the federal court]," Eliot Bernstein boldly filed this Counter-Complaint, expressly alleging that it "is related to" the federal court action. See Counter-Complaint, ¶ 238(i); see also ¶¶ 61-64, 211, 216-217, 220-223.⁷ The Counter-Complaint should be stricken pending Eliot Bernstein's strict compliance with the terms of the injunction.

E. The Counter-Complaint Should Be Stricken Because It Is An Unmanageable Document That Violates the Rules of Pleading

The Bernsteins have filed a pleading that is long and convoluted, and at the same time, fails to allege any specific facts that would make Oppenheimer liable for the acts or omissions of other defendants. The rules require a short and plain statement of the facts giving rise to a claim and specific allegations regarding fraud and conspiracy. Although the Bernsteins request leniency in pleading because they are pro se, they ask for too much here.

Oppenheimer is the trustee of three small, stand-alone trusts in which the Bernsteins have no interest. The Bernsteins have not alleged any relationship between either Oppenheimer or the Grandchildren Trusts and the scores of defendants being sued by Eliot Bernstein in other cases across the country. Yet, the Bernsteins wish to throw Oppenheimer into the mix with these other defendants, and incorporate all of the “pleadings, rulings, evidence, etc.” from all of these other lawsuits “and others related” into the Counter-Complaint against Oppenheimer. The unfairness and impracticality of that procedure is patent.

If the beneficiaries of the Grandchildren Trusts (the Minor Beneficiaries) believe that Oppenheimer did something wrong in connection with the administration of the Grandchildren Trusts, they can raise their objections, through an appropriate representative, in connection with Oppenheimer’s Petition to Approve its Final Accounting (or in a counterclaim specifically related to the Grandchildren Trusts). The Counter-Complaint, in its present, unmanageable form, should be stricken.

F. At a Minimum, The Counter-Complaint Should Be Severed From The Main Claim and Stayed Pending Resolution of the Main Claims and “Related” Claims

If the Court declines to strike or abate the Counter-Complaint, it should be severed from the main claim, and stayed, in the interest of judicial economy and to preserve the scarce assets of the Grandchildren Trusts. Any alleged wrongdoing of Oppenheimer will necessarily be adjudicated either (i) in connection with Oppenheimer’s Petition to Approve Final Accounting (in which objections to Oppenheimer’s administration will be heard), or (ii) in connection with the broad conspiracy claims filed by Eliot Bernstein elsewhere. The Counter-Complaint should be severed and stayed pending the resolution of those claims. See Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.270(b), 5

Fla. Prac., Civil Practice § 15:8 (2014); Microclimate Sales Co., Inc. v. Doherty, 731 So. 2d 856, 858 (Fla. 5th DCA 1999); O'Keefe b. O'Keefe, 522 So. 2d 460, 461 (Fla. 3rd DCA 1988).

III. CONCLUSION

The Counter-Complaint was impermissibly filed by non-parties to the original action. It is duplicative of several other lawsuits which are pending (or have already been adjudicated) around the country. It appears to violate a federal court “vexatious litigant” injunction. It is a rambling, unmanageable document which fails to allege any connection between Oppenheimer and the vast majority of facts alleged or defendants named. For all of the foregoing reasons, the Counter-Complaint should be stricken or abated, or at a minimum, severed and stayed.⁸

⁸ If this Motion is denied, Oppenheimer reserves the right to seek dismissal of the Counter-Complaint for failure to state causes of action and other grounds. Oppenheimer should not be required to substantively address the Counter-Complaint in that manner unless and until the Court finds that the Bernsteins have standing to file the Counter-Complaint in their own right, and that the pleading passes basic muster.

Re: Resignation as Trustee of Trusts for the benefit of Joshua, Jacob and Daniel
Bernstein; Offer to Resign as Manager of Bernstein Family Realty, LLC

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Bernstein:

I represent, and am writing to you on behalf of, Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware ("Oppenheimer"), in its capacity as Trustee of the three trusts created by Simon Bernstein for the benefit of your minor children, Joshua, Jacob and Daniel Bernstein (the "Trusts"). This letter is directed to you, as the parents and natural guardians of Joshua, Jacob and Daniel Bernstein (the "Beneficiaries"), and will constitute due notice to the Beneficiaries under the Trusts and Florida law.

Oppenheimer hereby notifies you that it will resign as Trustee of the Trusts effective May 26, 2014 (the "Effective Date"). You, as the natural guardians of the Beneficiaries, have the right and obligation to appoint a successor corporate trustee. If you do not provide Oppenheimer, through me, with a written document evidencing that a successor corporate trustee has been appointed and has accepted the appointment before the Effective Date, Oppenheimer will petition the Court to either appoint a successor trustee or terminate the Trusts and distribute their assets to you, as natural guardians of the Beneficiaries.

For your information, the Trusts provide, in relevant part, as follows:

5.2 Resignation. Any Trustee may resign by giving 30 days' written notice delivered personally or by mail to any then serving Co-Trustee and to the Settlor if he is then living and not disabled; otherwise to the next named successor Trustee, or if none, to the persons having power to appoint successor Trustees.

5.3 Power to Name Other Trustees. Whenever a successor Trustee is required and that position is not filled under the terms specified in this Trust Agreement, an individual Trustee ceasing to serve (other than a Trustee being removed) may appoint his or her successor, but if none is appointed, the remaining Trustees, if any, or the beneficiary shall appoint a successor Corporate Trustee. The appointment will be by a written document (including a testamentary instrument) delivered to the appointed Trustee. In no event may the Settlor ever be appointed as the Trustee under this Trust Agreement nor shall a Successor trustee be appointed that will cause this trust to be a grantor trust.

Similarly, Fla. Stat. § 736.0705, entitled "Resignation of trustee," provides, in relevant part, as follows:

(1) A trustee may resign:

(a) Upon at least 30 days' notice to the qualified beneficiaries, the settlor, if living, and all cotrustees...

Finally, Fla. Stat. § 736.0704, entitled "Vacancy in trusteeship; appointment of successor," provides, in relevant part, as follows:

(3) A vacancy in a trusteeship of a noncharitable trust that is required to be filled must be filled in the following order of priority:

(a) By a person named or designated pursuant to the terms of the trust to act as successor trustee.

(b) By a person appointed by unanimous agreement of the qualified beneficiaries.

(c) By a person appointed by the court.

Please let me know of your intentions with regard to the appointment of a successor trustee before the Effective Date.

I am also writing to you on behalf of Oppenheimer, in its capacity as the Manager of Bernstein Family Realty, LLC (the "Company"). As you know, the Trusts are the sole owners and members of the Company, and the Company owns the house occupied by you and the Beneficiaries. Oppenheimer understands that the house is encumbered by two mortgages which probably exceed the value of the house. A third party, William Stansbury, claims that he is entitled to an equitable lien on the house, and he has sued the Company to establish such a lien. At Oppenheimer's direction, the Company is defending the lawsuit in order to avoid the claimed third lien on the house.

You have expressed unhappiness with Oppenheimer's management of the Company. In light of Oppenheimer's decision to resign as Trustee, Oppenheimer would like to offer you the opportunity to assume management of the Company, or appoint another successor manager, so that you or your chosen manager can defend the Stansbury lawsuit, operate the Company and deal with third parties on behalf of the Company as you deem to be in the best interest of the Company's members and, ultimately, your children. If you would like Oppenheimer to resign as Manager, please notify me in writing, before the Effective Date, of your selection of an appropriate successor manager and the successor's agreement to serve. Upon receipt of your selection, Oppenheimer will resign as Manager and, on behalf of the member Trusts, appoint your chosen successor.

Please note that, if you do not request Oppenheimer's earlier resignation and designate a successor manager, it is Oppenheimer's intent to resign as Manager of the Company after a successor trustee is appointed or the Trusts are terminated. At that point, it will be up to the successor trustee or you, as natural guardians of the Beneficiaries, to appoint a new manager.

If you have any questions regarding the foregoing, please contact me or have your attorney do so.

Very truly yours,

Steven A. Lessne FOR

ORDER

07 Civ. 11196 (SAS)

SHIRA A. SCHEINDLIN, U.S.D.J.:

I. BACKGROUND

Pro se plaintiff Eliot Bernstein filed this action in December 2007.

On August 8, 2008, this Court dismissed all of his federal claims on the merits, with prejudice. Bernstein’s request for leave to file a second amended complaint was denied. On January 27, 2010, the Second Circuit issued a Mandate dismissing Bernstein’s appeal sua sponte, finding that it lacked an arguable basis in law or fact. Approximately two and one-half years later, on July 27, 2012, Bernstein filed his first motion to re-open this case, entitled “Emergency Motion to Reopen Case.” This motion, which was opposed by the Proskauer Defendants,¹ was denied in an

¹ The “Proskauer Defendants” include Proskauer Rose LLP, Kenneth Rubinstein, Christopher C. Wheeler, Stephen C. Krane (deceased) and the Estate of

Order dated August 14, 2012 (the “August 14th Order”).² In the August 14th Order, I found plaintiff’s Emergency Motion to be “frivolous, vexatious, overly voluminous, and an egregious abuse of judicial resources.” I cautioned plaintiff that any additional frivolous filings could subject him to monetary and/or injunctive sanctions under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11 (“Rule 11”).

Failing to heed this Court’s warning, Bernstein filed a second motion to re-open this case³ on February 28, 2013. In addition to opposing the motion, the Proskauer Defendants filed a Rule 11 motion for sanctions on May 7, 2013, which was previously served on Bernstein on April 5, 2013. Bernstein filed two additional motions on May 15, 2013: Notice of Motion to Re-Open Based on Fraud on the Court and More⁴ and Notice of Emergency Motion for Clarification of Order⁵, which sought reconsideration of the August 14th Order denying Bernstein’s first motion to re-open. On May 15, 2013, this Court denied Bernstein’s second and third motions to re-open as well as his motion for reconsideration,⁶ stating as follows:

Even if an alleged conflict on the part of the [New York State Attorney General's Office] were established, this would not overcome the fact that plaintiff's claims were barred on numerous jurisdictional and legal grounds. For example, the allegations against the State Defendants were based on their alleged failure to handle attorney grievances. But in dismissing these claims, this Court held that "there is no clearly established right to have complaints investigated or pursued," nor is there any "cognizable interest in attorney disciplinary proceedings or in having certain claims investigated." Furthermore, plaintiff had no standing to challenge the state court system's actions regarding attorney discipline. In addition, plaintiff's claims were barred by absolute judicial, quasi-judicial and qualified immunity as well as numerous other defenses.⁷ Because plaintiff has not, and cannot, remedy the fundamental defects in the Amended Complaint, re-opening this action would be futile. Plaintiff's application to reopen and his request to alter or amend judgment must therefore be denied.

5/15/13 Order at 5-6 (footnotes omitted).

The Proskauer Defendants now seek monetary and injunctive sanctions against Bernstein for his vexatious and frivolous conduct. Specifically, they seek monetary sanctions in an amount not less than $3,500 and the following injunctive relief:

⁷ See id.

Eliot I. Bernstein is hereby enjoined from filing any action in any court related to the subject matter of this action without first obtaining leave of this Court. In moving for such leave, Bernstein must certify that the claim or claims he wishes to present are new claims never before raised and/or disposed of by any court. Bernstein must also certify that claim or claims are not frivolous or asserted in bad faith. Additionally, the motion for leave to file must be captioned "Application Pursuant to Court Order Seeking Leave to File." Failure to comply strictly with the terms of this injunction shall be sufficient grounds for denying leave to file and any other remedy or sanction deemed appropriate by this Court.

Proposed Order (Docket Entry # 146-2).

II. LEGAL STANDARDS

A. Rule 11 in General

The purpose of Rule 11 is "the deterrence of baseless filings and the curbing of abuses."⁸ Filings that have a complete lack of a factual and legal basis have been found "to harass, cause unnecessary delay, or needlessly increase the cost of litigation[.]"⁹ In appropriate cases, pro se litigants are subject to Rule 11 sanctions.¹⁰ Pro se litigants who show contempt for the judicial system, harass defendants, and/or cause courts and litigants to waste resources may be sanctioned under Rule 11.

B. Injunctive Relief

It is “beyond peradventure” that “[a] district court possess[es] the authority to enjoin [a litigant] from further vexatious litigation.”¹¹ In determining whether a litigant’s future access to the courts should be restricted, courts should consider the following factors:

- (1) the litigant’s history of litigation and in particular whether it entailed vexatious, harassing or duplicative lawsuits;
- (2) the litigant’s motive in pursuing the litigation, e.g., does the litigant have a good faith expectation of prevailing?;
- (3) whether the litigant is represented by counsel;
- (4) whether the litigant has caused needless expense to other parties or has posed an unnecessary burden on the courts and their personnel; and
- (5) whether other sanctions would be adequate to protect the courts and

New York City Bd. of Educ.*, 207 F. Supp. 2d 256, 259 (S.D.N.Y. 2002) (“The fact that a litigant appears pro se does not shield him from Rule 11 sanctions because one acting pro se has no license to harass others, clog the judicial machinery with meritless litigation, and abuse already overloaded court dockets.”) (quotation marks and citations omitted).

other parties. Ultimately, the question the court must answer is whether a litigant who has a history of vexatious litigation is likely to continue to abuse the judicial process and harass other parties.¹²

III. DISCUSSION

Bernstein had no factual or legal basis for his second motion to re-open or any subsequent motion he filed. Nonetheless, Bernstein must have believed his motion had merit, as evidenced by his twenty-two page Plaintiff's Opposition to Proskauer Defendant's [sic] Motion for Sanctions ("Opposition"). But there is no subjective, bad faith requirement in Rule 11. "The mental state applicable to liability for Rule 11 sanctions initiated by motion is objective unreasonableness"¹³ Moreover, as the following excerpt from his Opposition makes clear, Bernstein has no plans to ever end this litigation.

Bernstein is notifying Proskauer and this Court that he will have a lifelong and generational long litigious history in pursuing his patent royalties, as litigation is the key to prosecuting patents over their useful life and will also have a litigious ongoing history in pursuing the crimes and criminals who are attempting to steal them, despite whether they are cleverly disguised as Attorneys at Law, Judges, Prosecutors, etc. and despite the ridiculous Orders trying to prevent him from his due process rights and rights to his

properties.¹⁴

Given these statements, this Court has no choice but to impose significant monetary and injunctive sanctions in an attempt to end this lengthy litigation.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, a monetary sanction in the amount of $3,500 is hereby imposed on Bernstein as is the injunctive sanction described above. The money is to be paid to the Clerk of the Court, Southern District of New York, forthwith. If Bernstein ignores the monetary sanction, defendants may obtain an enforceable judgment in the amount of $3,500. If Bernstein continues to file motions in this case, he may be subject to additional monetary sanctions. The Clerk of the Court is directed to close the motion for sanctions (Docket Entry # 145).

OPPENHEIMER TRUST COMPANY
OF DELAWARE, in its capacity as
Resigned Trustee of the Simon Bernstein
Irrevocable Trusts created for the benefit of Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein,

Petitioner,

vs.

ELIOT AND CANDICE BERNSTEIN,
in their capacity as parents and natural guardians of JOSHUA, JAKE AND
DANIEL BERNSTEIN, minors,

Respondents.

_____ /

MOTION TO APPOINT GUARDIAN AD LITEM FOR MINOR BENEFICIARIES

Petitioner, OPPENHEIMER TRUST COMPANY OF DELAWARE (“OTCD”), as the resigned trustee of three irrevocable trusts created by the late Simon Bernstein for the benefit of his minor grandchildren, Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein, moves to appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the minors in this action. In support hereof, OTCD states: ¹

1. The Petition filed in this action concerns three small trusts (the “Grandchildren Trusts”) with minor beneficiaries – Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein (the “Minors”). The Minors are the only beneficiaries of the Grandchildren Trusts.

¹ OTCD filed this action solely in its capacity as the Resigned Trustee and does not, by the filing of this Motion or otherwise, voluntarily appear in this action or subject itself to the jurisdiction of this Court in any other capacity.

 FILED: PALM BEACH COUNTY, FL SHARON R BOCK, CLERK.

2. The Court must appoint a guardian ad litem for the Minors because the Minor's natural guardians, Eliot and Candice Bernstein (the "Bernsteins"), have interests which are adverse to the Minors, and because Eliot Bernstein is a serial, vexatious litigant who has repeatedly shown contempt for the judicial system, its processes and its officers, and is therefore unfit to serve as the "litigation representative" of another.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. THE NATURAL GUARDIANS HAVE CONFLICTING INTERESTS WITH THE MINORS

Courts are inclined to appoint a parent as a child's litigation representative unless "it appears that the minor's general representative has interests which may conflict with those of the person he is supposed to represent." 1 Leg. Rts. Child. (Legal Rights of Children) Rev. 2d § 12:3 (2d ed. 2013), citing Mistretta v. Mistretta, 566 So. 2d 836, 837 (Fla. 5th DCA 1990) (other internal citations omitted). In this case, Eliot Bernstein has confirmed, by the allegations of his Counter-Complaint that he has interests which conflict (or certainly which may conflict) with those of the Minors.² For instance, in the Counter-Complaint:

- Mr. Bernstein alleges that beneficiary designations were changed from him to his children based upon fraudulent documents and frauds on this Court. See Counter-Complaint, ¶ 253.
- Mr. Bernstein alleges that "approximately 1/3 of all assets [are] either going to Eliot or his children or a combination of both depending on how this Court rules regarding the validity of the Wills and Trusts that have been challenged and already found fraught with fraud, fraudulent notarizations, improper notarizations, forgeries and more." See Counter-Complaint, ¶ 186.
- Even though the Minors are clearly listed as the sole beneficiaries of the Grandchildren Trusts, Eliot Bernstein alleges that he himself is a beneficiary. Specifically, he alleges that "Simon and Shirley [Bernstein] set up [the Grandchildren Trusts and Bernstein Family Realty, LLC] while living, in order to fund all of their living expenses, due to the fact that Eliot has had a bomb put in his car, death threats and is in the middle of a very intense RICO and ANTITRUST lawsuit where he and his family have been in grave danger for many years fighting corruption inside the very framework of the legal system.” He alleges that the Grandchildren Trusts were “set up by Simon and Shirley [Bernstein] for the benefit of Eliot, Candice and their children.” See Counter-Complaint, ¶¶ 109-110.

² Oppenheimer has summarized the background of this case and the contents of the Counter-Complaint in a simultaneously-filed Motion to Strike Counterclaim. Oppenheimer incorporates the contents of that Motion into this one, and requests that the Court consider both Motions together.

- Sixteen of the trust agreements identified as counterclaim-defendants are described as having beneficiaries including but not limited to “Eliot and/or his children or both.” See Counter-Complaint, ¶¶ 44-50, 52-60, 65.
- Mr. Bernstein states that his overarching goal is “to bring about a change in the legal system in efforts to root out systemic corruption at the highest levels by a rogue group of criminals disguised as attorneys at law, judges, politicians, and more.” See Counter-Complaint ¶ 212. No reasonable inference can be drawn that the Minors have a similar interest or agenda, or that pursuing such a broad agenda is in the Minors’ best interest.

It is reversible error for a court to fail to appoint a guardian ad litem in a proceeding to disburse the proceeds of a child's trust fund. 1 Leg. Rts. Child. Rev. 2d § 12:3 (2d ed. 2013), citing Sarron v. Sarron, 564 So. 2d 206 (Fla. 3rd DCA 1990). Especially in this case, where the Bernsteins interests are shown to be (and certainly may be) adverse to the Minors’ interests, and where the Court cannot reasonably conclude that the Minors’ separate interests “will be fully protected” by the Bernsteins, the appointment of a guardian ad litem is mandatory. See Mistretta 566 So. 2d at 837-38 (denial of due process occurs when the interests of the child may be adverse to the interests of the parent); *Johns v. Dep't of Justice, 624 F.2d 522 (5th Cir.1980); Smith v. Langford, 255 So.2d 294 (Fla. 1st DCA 1971). Chapman v. Garcia, 463 So.2d 528 (Fla. 3d DCA 1985).*³

³ Curiously, in their Applications for Determination of Civil Indigent Status filed in this matter, Mr. Bernstein does not claim his children as dependents; only his wife does. See Composite Exhibit “A.” Insofar as Mr. Bernstein disclaims responsibility for his children, he should not be permitted to assert rights on their behalf.

II. THE BERNSTEINS ARE UNFIT TO SERVE AS LITIGATION REPRESENTATIVES

Eliot Bernstein is an adjudicated vexatious litigant who has exhibited outright contempt for our judicial system and its processes in courts and administrative tribunals throughout the country, including this one. Although courts have given him wide latitude to pursue his hyper-aggressive, harassing litigation in his own name (pro se), he should not be permitted (and certainly should not be appointed) to do so on behalf of others.

A. Eliot Bernstein's History of Vexatious Litigation

Eliot Bernstein is on a self-proclaimed mission to raze the judicial system and overthrow its “corrupt” lawyers, judges and officers. See Counter-Complaint ¶ 212. In connection with those efforts, he has become skilled at filing vexatious pleadings, wasting judicial resources, sullyng hard-earned reputations, and publicly degrading the judicial system and its officers. The below are but a few examples of his prior litigation-related conduct that render him unfit to serve as his children’s (or anyone’s) litigation proxy.⁴

In 2003, Mr. Bernstein filed a Florida Bar Complaint against various lawyers associated with the law firm of Proskauer Rose, alleging, inter alia, that the law firm had stolen his inventions. See Exhibit “B” (a copy of the Bar Complaint posted on Mr. Bernstein’s website). Dissatisfied with the grievance committee report, Mr. Bernstein unsuccessfully complained to the Florida Bar about conflicts of interest surrounding its investigation, and then filed a complaint against grievance committee members. See Exhibit “C” (a letter from the Florida Bar to Mr. Bernstein, annotated by Mr. Bernstein and posted on his website).

In 2004, Mr. Bernstein filed a Petition with the Supreme Court of Florida against an expanded group of “conspirators,” including the Proskauer lawyers, the Florida Bar and its grievance committee members. *See Eliot I. Bernstein, et. al. v. The Florida Bar, et al, Case No. SC04-1078.*⁵ In a Motion filed in that action, Mr. Bernstein implicated the Boca Raton Police Department in the ever-growing conspiracy against him, requested the high court’s protection from police authorities, and demanded an oversight role in the criminal investigation of his claims. *See Exhibit “D.”*⁶ According to Mr. Bernstein’s website postings (see below) the Florida Supreme Court did not grant him satisfaction, and the United States Supreme Court declined to give him a further audience.

In 2008, Mr. Bernstein went national, filing a federal lawsuit against Proskauer Rose, the Florida Bar, the Virginia Bar, the State of New York, and hundreds of other defendants (including various lawyers, judges and lawmakers) for conspiring to steal his technology and deny him due process. See Eliot I. Bernstein v. State of New York, et al, 591 F. Supp. 2d 448, 453 (S.D. N.Y. 2008) (the “New York Action”). Bernstein sought over ONE TRILLION DOLLARS ($1,000,000,000.00) in damages and an injunction for the theft of his inventions, even though he surmised that, “the granting of this prayer for relief, effectively, halts the transmission of and viewing of video as we know it...”

⁵ Oppenheimer requests that the Court take judicial notice of the dockets of the legal proceedings cited in this Motion, and the pleadings and orders shown on the dockets, pursuant to §§ 90.201(1) 90.202(2), (5), (6) and/or (13), Florida Statutes.

⁶ According to Mr. Bernstein, when he reported the theft of $1,000,000 and intellectual property from his company, he was unsatisfied with the conduct of the ensuing investigation (including the lack of participation by the Chief of Police, the FBI and the SEC). He “suggested” to the police that there might be “bought off detectives” involved, and demanded an internal or third-party investigation. He then became fearful that his “suggestion” may result in retribution, and reported to the Supreme Court that his safety, and that of his family, was “questionable.”

Throughout the litigation, Mr. Bernstein made inflammatory and defamatory public statements about the defendants, judges and others on his blog.⁷ For example:

- “When you see what [the Honorable Jorge Labarga] did to Iviewit after the elections, it gives no cause for doubt about his character and adds fuel to the conspiracy theorists claims. Keep in mind that the Iviewit Technologies are not merely great inventions but also revolutionized the world, akin to the invention of electricity but in the digital world, estimated worth, over a TRILLION dollars. At first, it must have seemed to the pariah-like attorneys that there were only a few inventors to rip off. Convincing or more aptly bribing Labarga at that point in time, when so little evidence had yet to surface, to go along with the Coup, perhaps was cheap but to throw an election though might have cost a bundle. Perhaps get Labarga a leg up to the Florida Supreme Court, as the criminal organization rewards their criminal operatives with ever more lucrative government jobs to aid and abet.”
- “The Florida Bar, hijacked from law by corruption, should convert to a drinking establishment. Attorneys regulating attorneys is like you surgically fixing your own hemorrhoids.”
- “Proskauer Rose LLP or Porksour Rose, as you will learn that the law firm is treif, not Kosher, one of the main criminal conspirators and traitors to our nation, all roads to hell described herein relate to Proskauer... For ‘Jewish’ lawyers they are not only a disgrace to the integrity of law but to their race, with no belief in G-d, just greed. Joseph Proskauer, the firms founding partner, stood in the way of a ban on German war goods that could have pressured the Nazis to cease the killings in camps after the US learned of the exterminations, in the last months of the war. The last months, when Hitler ordered mass maniacal killings of everyone that he called inferior and Proskauer in part delayed the United States call to action, great Jew... These massive law firms caught red handed in an attempt to rob the Iviewit Inventors, the Iviewit companies and Shareholders, about to go public in the billions, estimated technologies worth trillions valued by leading engineers from Fortune 500 companies over the twenty-year life of the intellectual properties... Driven, as further described herein, once caught in the act, to attempt to blow up the key inventor, me, little ole inventor Eliot Ivan Bernstein and my family, by placing a bomb in our family minivan in an attempt to murder my wife and children, leaving no estate survivors.”
- “The Supreme Court Jerk Off’s could be bought or intimidated into action if necessary, many of them planted by the CFR and Skulls under Reagan, Carter, Bush I and Clinton, all CFR members, already aligned with the New World Order philosophy. These Skull fuckers had been plotting since WWII and Major General Butler spoiled planning for the overthrow of our government since the Business Plot to align with Hitler failed. Yet, it took only a few generations of careful planning and planting in high level government posts and throughout Congress to have this Nazi Tyrannous and Treasonous Coup ready and in place to begin their maniacal scheme to rebuild the Reich and make America center stage for the Fourth Reich.”

- “Owned & Operated by Proskauer Rose for the benefit of their criminal activities, spearheaded by Krane if he has not eaten himself to death, now that he is caught handling complaints against himself while holding official positions of influence at the departments investigating him, not much conflict there. Judge Judy, Chief Justice of NY is schtooping a Proskauer partner, married to him and Krane was her clerk, she is at the helm of ship of NY Court Fools blocking due process to Iviewit and the shareholders top down.”
- “A Supreme Fuck You to you twelve Nazi’s, for without your denial to allow complaints be to filed against public officers of state supreme courts in Florida and New York, someone had time to attempt to murder my family, so make that a FUCK YOU times 4, one for the wife and kids. Fuck You for your supreme failure to take heed that crimes have been committed on a massive scale against our country, including Treason and Fraud on The US Patent Office and you all closed your eyes, allowing the criminals almost to murder wife, my children and me. Yes, that was a bomb planted in my car with intent according to the fire investigator, Rick Lee.”
- “A huge fu to all those corrupt lawyers, politicians, judges who are criminals cloaked as agents of the free world, who are merely criminals who know no other way to earn an honest day’s work for the man, than to rob others, mostly due to spoiled rotten children syndrome found with most lawyers today. It is a shame when good ideas turn bad like when law used to be a noble undertaking. To those who continue to participate in such crime or the cover up of such crimes as described herein, "To those that attempt to poison and destroy my brother..." Ezekiel, your time is coming after finishing with the core group of nuts.”
- “Final FU to all of the Following Defendants, mainly Dirty Rotten Lawyers, cloaked as Politicians, Judges, Prosecutors and Regulators but just Criminals Violating the Laws they are Duty Bound to Uphold...”
 - “Joseph Proskauer, the firms [sic] founding partner, stood in the way of a ban on German war goods that could have pressured the Nazis to cease the killings in camps after the US learned of the exterminations, in the last months of the war. The last months, when Hitler ordered mass maniacal killings of everyone that he called inferior and Proskauer in part delayed the United States call to action, great Jew.”

- “Wheeler, or more aptly Wheezler, as his name historically now recorded, is worse than a Pedophile, as he will come into your life as your trusted legal advisor and while acting as such trusted advisor, offer candy and rape you of your rights legally. Very similar to how Pedophiles operate, using their adult status and trust with children in order to rape and molest the vulnerable. Oh, how the reader will come to see you Wheezler as the failure you are. How did it feel Chris, dragged through the Florida Supreme Court and the Supreme Court of the United States with your Felony DUI stamped to your head for the entire legal world to laugh at, as your scheme to steal the patents unfolding? Forever, historically, your name recorded as a disgraced loser, a loser who lost the Holy Grail, as you called the inventions. Objects of mine that I warned you upfront were a gift from a higher p0wer [sic] that it is now time to return. Either you can give it back, or give up and surrender, or I will extract the lifeblood from you and then torment your soul, slowly, painfully, lifting it from your flesh.”
- “Rubenstein is soulless sole [sic] Patent Evaluator and creator of MPEGLA LLC., the criminal RICO organizations storefront for laundering stolen technologies, tied and bundled illegally, against Sherman, Clayton and more and acting as an Anticompetitive Monopolistic Patent Pool. Be wary, these criminals with legal degrees using law firms as front may promise the world to you and then fund your patents with deviously deviant plans to steal from you. If they are doing what they have tried to do with me, they are planning to steal your inventions and ruining or ending your life. Extracting your patents through a variety of racketeering means, if you raise questions or catch them, they will try to murder you or if your inventions are worth enough.”
- “Judith Kaye, also conflicted up the butt with Krane, as Krane was Kaye’s former whipping boy, serving her as a lapdog clerk. Krane, knowing the heat was on, attempted to influence peddle his extensive Ethics background like never before seen in Gotham to diffuse the complaints. Krane needed to block any New York Disciplinary Department actions or American Bar Association complaints filed nationally by Iviewit. Being one of the senior Ethics lawyer in New York, holding a multiplicity of titles, Krane would have to handle this in house, personally, to earn his Proskauer intellectual property partnership wings by blocking Iviewit complaints through conflict and violations of his public offices he held.”
- “Foley & Lardner is a law firm that aided and abetted the crimes with Proskauer. Do not take any patent to Foley for they continued Joao’s diabolical work once Joao caught patenting Iviewit’s inventions for himself. Then Foley continued writing patents in the wrong inventors’ names. Foley brought in by Proskauer to cover up for Joao when Shareholders and Board Members asked for investigation when it was first rumored he was patenting patents in his own name faster than Edison.”

- “Former CEO of Foley & Lardner, Former Chief Counsel of the Republican National Committee & Current Chair of the Bradley Foundation. It is May 09, 2007 and several important things have just surfaced. None other than Michael Grebe controlled Foley & Lardner, Porksour’s partner in crime, at the time of the invention thefts, Grebe another Loser accorded a place in history with Wheezler before him. Grebe helped ruin America, through Tyrannous and Treasonous corruption under the disguise of law and justice. Mike also funds books claiming blacks are mentally inferior to whites through his Bradley Foundation and is working to a New World Disorder, like a plague upon the earth, a Hitler redo where everyone is a slave to him and his NeoCon NAZI freak ball friends who seem more like the Gestapo on steroids...These whack jobs under Grebe’s rule claim blacks really are mentally inferior to whites, according to his Foundations study that paid an Uncle Tom Nigger to write for a 250,000 grant.”
- “Gerry or Jerry as he claims when asked his name, a complete scumbag, as in a used condom, who brought Proskauer in to evaluate the technologies and was the first person in a position of trust to violate such trust, willingly. Lewin is a man so low as to befriend his friend and neighbor, my father, and steal from both his friend and his friend’s son. Lower in that he recruited his own flesh and blood daughters into the Iviewit crimes to aid and abet him, how low can one go, well Lewin is the benchmark of scum.”

Notwithstanding his scandalous allegations, and the incredible nature of the claims and relief that Bernstein was requesting in the New York Action (Mr. Bernstein alleged that the conspiracy against him contributed to the Enron bankruptcy and the presidency of George W. Bush), the Honorable Shira A. Scheindlin (U.S.D.J.) conducted a detailed review and analysis of Bernstein’s complaint and, thereafter, dismissed each of Bernstein’s claims, finding that they “failed to state a claim against any of the hundreds of defendants named in the action.” See Exhibit “E.” Undeterred by the Order, Bernstein continued to pursue the action on appeal, and in independent actions, for another five (5) years.

On July 27, 2012 (almost four years after the New York Action had been dismissed), Bernstein filed an “emergency” motion to reopen the case. See Eliot I. Bernstein v. State of New York, et al, Case No. 1:07-cv-11196 (DE 138), Emergency Motion to Reopen Case (S.D. N.Y. July 27, 2012). On August 14, 2012, that motion was denied, and the court found Bernstein’s claims to be “frivolous, vexatious, overly voluminous, and an egregious abuse of judicial resources.” Eliot I. Bernstein v. State of New York, et al, Case No. 1:07-cv-11196 (DE 141), Order Denying Emergency Motion to Reopen Case (S.D. N.Y. August 14, 2012). Bernstein was cautioned that any additional frivolous filings could subject him to sanctions under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11. Id.

Ignoring the court’s admonition, on February 28, 2013, Mr. Bernstein filed a second motion to reopen the case. Eliot I. Bernstein v. State of New York, et al, Case No. 1:07-cv-11196 (DE 142), Second Motion to Reopen Case (S.D. N.Y. February 28, 2013). On May 13, 2013, Mr. Bernstein filed a third motion to reopen based upon a claim of fraud on the Court. Eliot I. Bernstein v. State of New York, et al, Case No. 1:07-cv-11196 (DE 149), Motion to Reopen Case (S.D. N.Y. May 13, 2013). On May 15, 2013, the Court denied Bernstein’s second and third motions to reopen the case. Eliot I. Bernstein v. State of New York, et al, Case No. 1:07-cv-11196 (DE 151), Order Denying Motions to Reopen Case (S.D. N.Y. May 15, 2013).

On August 29, 2013, the Court sanctioned Mr. Bernstein for repeatedly filing frivolous papers. Eliot I. Bernstein v. State of New York, et al, Case No. 1:07-cv-11196 (DE 154), Order on Motion for Sanctions (S.D. N.Y. August 29, 2013). See Exhibit “F.” Specifically, the Court ordered that Mr. Bernstein pay $3,500.00 to Proskauer Rose in monetary sanctions, and enjoined Mr. Bernstein as follows:

Eliot I. Bernstein is hereby enjoined from filing any action in any court related to the subject matter of this action without first obtaining leave of this Court. In moving for such leave, Bernstein must certify that the claim or claims he wishes to present are new claims never before raised and/or disposed of by any court. Bernstein must also certify that claim or claims are not frivolous or asserted in bad faith. Additionally, the motion for leave to file must be captioned 'Application Pursuant to Court Order Seeking Leave to File.' Failure to comply strictly with the terms of this injunction shall be sufficient grounds for denying leave to file and any other remedy or sanction deemed appropriate by this Court.

Id. (emphasis added). Mr. Bernstein expressed his contempt for the court and the proscriptions of Rule 11 by stating the following in his Rule 11 opposition: “Bernstein is notifying Proskauer and this Court that he will have a lifelong and generational long litigious history in pursuing his patent royalties...” Id.

In 2013, in the matter of Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust Dtd 6/21/95 v. Heritage Union Life Insurance Co., 1:13-CIV-03643 (N.D. Ill. May 16, 2013) (the “Chicago Action”), Jackson National Life Insurance Company, as successor in interest to Heritage Union Life Insurance Company (“Jackson”), filed a third party complaint and counterclaim for interpleader, seeking a declaration of rights under a life insurance policy for which it was responsible to administer. See Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Ins. Trust DTD 6/21/95 v. Heritage Union Life Ins. Co., Case No. 1:13-CIV-03643 (DE 17), Third Party Complaint by Heritage Union (N.D. Ill. June 26, 2013). Bernstein was named as a defendant in the third party complaint because he, and his children, were potential beneficiaries of the policy at issue. Id. The sole relief sought was an order interpleading the death benefit funds into the court registry. Id.

In response to the innocuous Complaint, Mr. Bernstein filed a ninety-eight (98) page answer and third party complaint against several third party defendants related to the administration of Simon Bernstein’s Florida estate. Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Ins. Trust DTD 6/21/95 v. Heritage Union Life Ins. Co., Case No. 1:13-cv-03643 (DE 35), Answer and Third Party Complaint (N.D. Ill. September 22, 2013). He brought claims for: i) fraudulent conversion; ii) breach of fiduciary duty; iii) legal malpractice; iv) abuse of the legal process; v) common law conversion; vi) civil conspiracy; and vii) negligence, and sought damages in the amount of Eight Million Dollars ($8,000,000.00), as well as punitive damages, costs, and attorney's fees. Id. The Court dismissed the third party complaint pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 14, noting the impropriety of bringing in parties and claims related to the administration of a Florida estate. Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Ins. Trust DTD 6/21/95 v. Heritage Union Life Ins. Co., Case No. 1:13-cv-03643 (DE 106), Order Granting Third-Party Defendants' Motion to Dismiss (N.D. Ill. March 17, 2014).

In 2012, Mr. Bernstein was found to have participated in a “sinister and tenacious scheme to extort money” through the use of administrative domain name transfers (the primary extorter would buy domain names which included the names of people or companies who had wronged or offended her, fill them with defamatory information, and then offer her “reputation services” to clean up the mess she created; once she learned of a domain registration suit, she transferred the site to Mr. Bernstein, her “proxy,” in order to avoid liability via “cyberflight.”). See WIPO Arbitration and Mediation Center, Administrative Panel Decision, Marc J. Randazza v. Reverend Crystal Cox, Eliot Bernstein, Case No. D2012-1525; see also Randazza v. Cox, et. al., Case No. 2:12-cv-02040-GMN-PAL, Order (granting Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Injunction) (D. Nev. January 11, 2013).

The Court is already familiar with Mr. Bernstein's claims against the fiduciaries, their lawyers and others in the matters involving the Estates of Simon and Shirley Bernstein, including his attempts to manufacture conflicts of interest between the parties and their litigation counsel by joining litigation counsel as parties, and then seeking to disqualify them.⁸

B. The Instant Action

With full knowledge that his claims are already pending in other actions (or have been adjudicated or enjoined), and despite the fact that he has no personal interest in the Grandchildren Trusts and is not, individually, a party to this action, Mr. Bernstein continues to re-assert, yet again, his prior claims against the prior defendants, and in the process, continues to disregard both the federal court injunction and a prior Order of this Court.

For example, in his Counter-Claim:

- Mr. Bernstein alleges that he “is pursuing Defendants, Proskauer Rose LLP, Gerald Lewin, CPA and Albert Gortz, Esq. as the main parties involved in the theft of Simon and Eliot’s Intellectual Properties.” See Counterclaim, ¶ 217.
- Mr. Bernstein has alleged “[t]hat Defendant’s [sic] Oppenheimer and JP Morgan were both initially involved in Eliot’s technologies and signed various agreements with the companies that held the Intellectual Properties...” See Counterclaim, ¶ 223.
- Despite a prior Order of this Court declaring that a certain e-mail is privileged, Eliot Bernstein makes continuing and unnecessary references to it, and advertises where it can be found online. See Counterclaim, ¶¶ 235-237.

Much like in the Chicago Action, in this action, Oppenheimer is not seeking damages against Mr. Bernstein or the Minors. It is merely seeking instructions as to where to deliver trust property now that it has resigned as trustee, and for judicial review and approval of its final accounting. But, as has been his modus operandi, Mr. Bernstein (now using his children’s trusts as a tool), has irresponsibly raised the stakes, needlessly joined countless unrelated parties, and redundantly asserted unrelated (and enjoined) claims. His stated purpose is to recover money for himself, even at the expense of his children. See § I, infra.

By his prior litigation-related conduct and the content of his Counter-Complaint herein, Mr. Bernstein has shown that he is an inappropriate person to act as anyone else's litigation proxy, particularly his minor children.

III. CONCLUSION

The Court must appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the Minors in this action because the Bernsteins have (or may have) conflicts of interests with the Minors, because the Court cannot be reasonably satisfied that the Bernsteins will fully represent the Minors' interests apart from their own, and because Mr. Bernstein (and Mrs. Bernstein by her silent acquiescence) has demonstrated that he is not a responsible litigant such that he should be permitted to represent others in a litigation setting. For all of the foregoing reasons, Oppenheimer respectfully requests that the Court appoint a guardian ad litem for the Minors, strike the Counter-Complaint filed by the Bernsteins, enjoin the Bernsteins from further participation in these proceedings, and grant such other relief as is just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Introduction

Christopher Wheeler, (hereinafter "Wheeler"), believed to be a resident of the State of Florida, and who at various times relevant hereto was a partner of Proskauer Rose LLP (hereinafter "Proskauer"), and who provided legal services to the Company.

Moreover, beginning on or about September of 1998, the Company, through its agent and principal, Eliot I. Bernstein ("Bernstein"), began negotiations with Proskauer with regard to Proskauer providing legal services to the Company the purpose of which was to develop and market specific technologies developed by Bernstein and two others, which technologies allowed for the scaling, enlargement, panning and zooming of digital images and video without degradation to the quality of the digital image due to what is commonly referred to as "pixelation", the delivery of digital video using proprietary scaling techniques, a combination of the image pan and zoom techniques and video scaling techniques, and the remote control of video and image applications.

Furthermore, Bernstein engaged the services of Proskauer and in turn Wheeler, among others, through an engagement letter a true copy of which I attach herein as Exhibit "A", to obtain multiple patents and oversee US and foreign filings for such technologies including the provisional filings for the technologies as described above, and such other activities as were necessary to protect the intellectual property.

Additionally, upon information and belief, Wheeler upon viewing the technologies developed by Bernstein, and held by the Company, realized the significance of the technologies, its various applications to communication networks for distributing video data and images and for existing digital processes, including, but not limited to digital cameras, digital video disks (DVD), digital imaging technologies for medical purposes and digital video, and that Wheeler designed and executed, sometimes for himself or others similarly situated, deceptions, improprieties, and, even in certain circumstances, outright malfeasances by the disingenuous insertion of his own interests or the interests of third parties, who were other clients of Proskauer and Wheeler, between the Company, as his client and together with its disclosed techniques, and the ultimate end users of its future OEM and other licensees, to the detriment and damage of the Company. Many of the malfeasances against the Company have also involved fraud against the US Patent and Trademark Office. The technologies were evaluated by a leading imaging company, Real 3D of Orlando FL and were estimated to be worth billions of dollars, due to there application to almost all digital imaging and video applications.

Finally, as a direct and proximate result of the conduct of Wheeler, Warner Bros/AOLTW ceased business relations with the Company to the damage and detriment of the Company; the Company more specifically stipulates Wheeler's actions and inactions directly below:

Specifics of General Complaint

Where the Company employed Wheeler and Proskauer for purposes of representing the Company to obtain multiple patents and oversee foreign filings for such technologies including the provisional filings for the technologies as described above, and that pursuant to such employment, Wheeler and Proskauer owed a duty to ensure that the rights and interests of the Company were protected, Wheeler and Proskauer neglected that reasonable duty of care in the performance of legal services in that they:

1. Misrepresented lawyer Raymond A. Joao by Christopher Wheeler, to the Board of Directors and investors of I View It, Mr. Joao presently of counsel to Dreier & Baritz, New York, N.Y. initially was represented as a Proskauer Rose attorney when he was not a member of such firm, but actually of counsel to one Meltzer Lippe Goldstein and Schlissel, Mineola, N.Y.
2. Misrepresented lawyer Kenneth Rubenstein by Christopher Wheeler as a member of Proskauer Rose, and presently a partner of Proskauer Rose, but at the initiation of contact, a partner of a one Meltzer Lippe Goldstein and Schlissel.
3. Failed to take reasonable steps to ensure that the intellectual property of the Company was protected; and,

4. Allowed the infringement of patent rights of the Company and the intellectual property of the Company by other clients of Proskauer and Rubenstein. Failed to submit to patent pools overseen by Rubenstein Iviewit patents for inclusion to such pools, including but not limited to MPEG 2, MPEG 4, and DVD and;
5. Failed to and/or inadequately completed work regarding patents, copyrights and trademarks; and,
6. Engaged in unnecessary and duplicate corporate and other work; and,
7. By redacting information from the billing statements regarding services provided so to as to give the appearance that the services provided by Proskauer were limited in nature, when in fact they involved various aspects of intellectual property protection; and,
8. By knowingly and willfully representing and agreeing to accept representation of clients in conflict with the interests of the Company, without either consent or waiver by the Company.
9. Submitting false resumes for President candidate Brian Utley. Wheeler who was a close personal friend of Utley, recommended to Bernstein and other members of the board of directors of Iviewit that Iviewit engage the services of Utley to act as President of Iviewit.com LLC based on his knowledge and ability as to technology issues. That at the time that Wheeler made the recommendation of Utley to the board of directors, that Wheeler knew that Utley was in a dispute with his former employer, Diamond Turf Products, as to the fact that Utley had misappropriated certain patents on hydro-mechanical systems, which he claimed for himself to the detriment of his then employer Diamond turf Lawnmower, thereafter Utley was fired from the Company and Diamond Turf Lawnmower was closed down due to Utley's malfeasances, contrary to the resume submitted by Wheeler to the Board on behalf of Utley which claimed that the Company continued as a large success due to Utley and his inventions. Additionally, Wheeler was fully aware of the fact that Utley was not the highly qualified "engineer" that Wheeler represented Utley to be, and that in fact Utley lacked any formal education as an engineer and in fact had no engineering degree, whatsoever. Further, Wheeler and Utley submitted a new and improved biography on Utley to Wachovia Bank for a Private Placement in which Utley is described as having graduated SF College, which is in direct contradiction to his resume submitted to the Company by Mr. Wheeler. That despite such knowledge, Wheeler never mentioned such facts concerning Utley to any representative of Iviewit and in fact undertook to "sell" Utley as a highly qualified candidate who would be the ideal person to undertake day to day operations of Iviewit and work on the patents acting as a qualified engineer. Based on the recommendations of Wheeler, as partner of Proskauer, the Board of Directors agreed to engage the services of Utley as President/COO other qualified candidates were not chosen based on Wheeler's misrepresentations of Brian Utley.
10. Failing to disclose and secure conflict waivers from the Company, that Mr. Wheeler had preformed prior legal work for Mr. Utley for the setting up of Mr. Utley's company, Premiere Consulting.
11. Recommendation by Mr. Wheeler and Mr. Utley of William Dick as patent counsel for I View It without disclosure that Mr. Dick had been involved in patent

- malfeasances with Mr. Utley's former employer Diamond Turf products. Mr. Dick subsequently aided and abetted Mr. Utley in writing patents into his own name of the Company's technologies, without assignment to the Company, sent to his home address and filed fraudulently with the US Patent and Trademark office.
12. Mr. Wheeler transacted stock to Tiedemann/Prolow, another referral friend of Mr. Wheeler, without proper documentation, nor Board approval.
 13. Knowing and willful destruction of Company records
 14. Failure to file Copyrights on behalf of I View It when billed for such
 15. Failing to list proper inventors of the technologies on the patents, and thereby submitting false and fraudulent patents to the US Patent and Trademark office based on improper legal advise by Wheeler that foreign inventors could not be listed until their immigration status was adjusted leading to further erroneous billings by Proskauer Rose for frivolous immigration work. This resulted in the failure of the patents to include their rightful and lawful inventors; and,
 16. Violation 4-1.1 - Lack of competence in all matters pertaining to patent and copyrights, in some instances outright lack of filing documents that were billed for
 17. Violation 4-1.3 - Lack of diligence in representing the Company - Failure to file copyrights and failure to secure protection for patents
 18. Violation 4-1.4 - Failure to communicate with Company to the detriment of the Company, and in certain instances communication of false materials to the Company. Submission of executive resumes with knowingly false information for MR. Brian Utley a close personal friend of Mr. Wheeler. Failure to communicate proper information regarding attorney's handling patents for Company.
 19. Violation 4-1.4 - Withholding of information to the detriment of the Company, examples would be failure to secure Copyright protection and adequate patents based on withholding either partial or entire pertinent information from both client company and the United States Patent and Trademark Offices
 20. Violation 4-1.6 - Violated Company Confidentiality of Information in multiple instances for the benefit of his firm and his firm clients and patent pools overseen by firm.
 21. Violation 4-1.7 - Violated Company in multiple conflicts of Interest between Company and firm clients and firm patent pools overseen by firm
 22. Violations of RULE 4-1.8 - CONFLICT OF INTEREST; PROHIBITED AND OTHER TRANSACTIONS - Accepted Company stock for his firm knowing of potential conflicts that were never revealed to the Company
 23. Violations of RULE 4-1.10 - IMPUTED DISQUALIFICATION - Quit working for Company because he was being investigated by Company in several of the above allegations and then filed frivolous lawsuit against the Company in an attempt to claim a large claim against the Company holding the patents when he has no billing records to pursue such actions against these companies
 24. Lastly, the negligent actions of Wheeler and Proskauer resulted in and were the proximate cause of loss to the Company; true copies of exhibits and witnesses are available on request and/or I will, on behalf of the Company, presented them according to proof at commencement of investigation into this General Complaint.

It is of special interest to note that Mr. Wheeler is especially culpable in the malfeasances against the Company, in that although other Bar Actions are being filed against individual conspirators, that all malfeasances committed against the Company have stemmed from relationships cultivated by Mr. Wheeler for the Company.

Due to the highly sensitive nature of the patent and copyright materials, exhibits will be provided once formal protections have been established in regard to this complaint.

Very truly yours,

We are waiving a retainer at this time, but we reserve the right to ask for one at any time.

You have the right to discharge us as your counsel in connection with the Work at any time, but such discharge shall not affect our right to be paid all our previously incurred but unpaid fees, and all our previously incurred but unpaid charges and disbursements, in accordance with this letter agreement.

Re: Eric Turner et al.

Dear Mr. Bernstein:

I have been regularly communicating with Mr. Marvin concerning your assertions and I have read a series of letters and/or email between you and staff of our Fort Lauderdale office or Mr. Marvin.

Recently you wrote (in one email) Mr. Marvin:

“As mentioned in our last conversation on 7/02/04 we have learned and notified you of a severe conflict of interest in the Wheeler complaint 2003-51 109 15c, whereby Matthew Triggs, with no formal disclosure, acted as Wheeler's counselor within the one-year period after serving as a Grievance Committee Member, thereby a conflict exists which has the additional appearance of impropriety and thus taints the entire Wheeler case, and your Turner decision, if such decision was formal. Due to the conflict and influence peddling at the Bar this may represent, the entire case should now be reviewed by an independent third-party. Triggs served from 4/1/99 to 3/31/02 and as illustrated in the attached letter to the bar, Triggs had already started representing Wheeler on March 21, 2003, clearly within the year prohibition.”

Subsequently you wrote (in another email) Mr. Marvin:

“Please provide us with the rules and code that apply to internal review of complaints lodged against officers of the FL Bar and where we can find out how this process is handled. Also, since we have now notified you of the conflict of interest and appearance of impropriety in the Triggs response on behalf of the Wheeler complaint, we would like to add charges of conflict of interest and appearance of impropriety to Mr. Turner's complaint. Would we need to establish another separate complaint or can you amend the existing "complaint"? We are certain that such charges would constitute a violation of Mr. Turner's professional ethics as regulated by the FL Bar and therefore constitute charges necessitating a formal complaint with formal process. In addition, do we need to file another case on Wheeler and Triggs for the conflict of interest, appearance of impropriety and the abuse of public office or is this something that the FL Bar needs to institute as you are now aware of the abuse of public office caused by Triggs and Wheeler? In light of the recent discoveries regarding such conflict, it seems that the FL Bar should re-open the Wheeler case, strike the tainted response of Triggs and charge Wheeler with all charges contained in his complaint, as if no response was given at all."

Boggs admits conflict citing it is "form over substance" and that no waiver was tendered by the Board

Boggs attempts to state that Triggs would have been granted a waiver but that is a unknown and Boggs only deals with one of the many conflicts we presented him with here, and in light of the multiple conflicts it would have been probably rejected. He also admits here that Triggs did not disclose the conflict or seek proper channels for approval

"would have" indicating it was not

This is a form over substance issue. The fact that for a short period of time Mr. Triggs represented Mr. Wheeler without a waiver does not automatically create a conflict. Waiver would have been routinely granted under standing board policy and if the situation had come to our attention all that would have happened was notice to Mr. Triggs to submit a waiver request. Upon the expiration of 12 months from the end of his grievance committee service, the need for a waiver ceased. It is noteworthy that the grievance committee that heard your complaint against Mr. Wheeler is not the same committee on which Mr. Triggs served. Thus there was no actual conflict for the short time that a waiver was an issue.

The rules state nothing about being on any specific committee they state that Triggs cannot represent ANYONE for a period of one year, what is this guy thinking???

15.10 Waiver of Disqualification as Attorney for Respondents.

- (a) Authority for Waiver. The Rules Regulating The Florida Bar disqualify partners, associates or other firm members of board members, grievance committee members and former staff attorneys from representing a respondent in a disciplinary matter. Further, the rule disqualifies the board members, grievance committee members and former staff attorneys from the same representation and extends all disqualification periods for 1 year after the termination of board, grievance committee or staff service. The rule allows for waiver of the disqualification by the board.

NO WAIVER = RULE VIOLATION.

This policy is enacted to identify the instances in which the board will waive the rule.

- (c) Grievance Committee Members. No current member of a grievance committee may represent a respondent in a disciplinary matter. A member of the grievance committee member's law firm may represent a respondent while the grievance committee member is serving on the committee if:
- (1) the representation involves a grievance committee other than the 1 on which the member of the law firm serves; and
 - 2) the grievance committee member has no involvement with the representation and is screened from access to the file on the matter; and
 - (3) the attorney wishing to represent the respondent provides written notice of the disqualification to the executive director.

Former grievance committee members may represent a respondent in a disciplinary matter if the matter was not pending, before the committee on which the former member served, before the former member's term expired.

Members of the former grievance committee member's law firm may represent a respondent in a disciplinary matter during the 1-year disqualification period if the former member may also do so under the terms of this policy.

(f) Executive Director Authority. The executive director is hereby granted the authority to issue waivers under the terms of this policy. The executive director shall not deviate from this policy and if the executive director is in doubt regarding issuance of a waiver, the request shall be referred to the board of governors for resolution. The executive director shall report to the board listing all waivers granted and all waivers denied.

SOUNDS LIKE BOGGS IS TRYING TO DEVIATE FROM THE PROCESS - WITH A WOULD HAVE, SHOULD HAVE, COULD HAVE - BUT DIDN'T

We treated your complaint against Mr. Turner as an internal matter as you question his job performance. You employ other words and characterizations, but the thrust of what you say is that you do not accept his conclusions. There are no provisions in the Rules Regulating The Florida Bar for handling job performance based complaints and we have no written policies in this regard.

Also your labeling the matter concerning Mr. Turner as a complaint is a creative attempt to fashion a way to preserve the file in your prior complaint when routine record retention schedules require its purging. It is obvious that one of your goals is the preservation of the Wheeler file. It can be argued that this is the central issue of your goals at this time. We cannot use an artifice to avoid routine record keeping requirements.

Your assertions have received careful and repetitive review (bar counsel, chief branch discipline counsel, grievance committee chair, and designated reviewer have all reviewed your complaint against Mr. Wheeler and all agree with closure) and that file shall remain closed. Mr. Marvin and I lack authority to do otherwise.

Your criticism of Mr. Turner's job performance is noted and has been reviewed by Mr. Marvin and me. We respect your right to be critical, but we conclude that Mr. Turner has acted within the scope of his duties and authority. No personnel action will be initiated.

As to the website content issue, we have that matter under review and will act as all of the facts require. This review will be conducted out of our Fort Lauderdale office. By copy hereof I advise Mr. Turner to provide status information to you, Mr. Marvin and me.

Sincerely,

John Anthony Boggs

TURNER COMPLAINT IS FAR MORE SERIOUS AND SHOULD HAVE BEEN FILED AS A BAR COMPLAINT FOR VIOLATIONS OF RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT.

MOTION FOR: DECLARATORY RELIEF; INTERVENE IN THIRD PARTY INVESTIGATIONS OF THE BOCA RATON POLICE DEPARTMENT, THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION, AND THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION WITH THE COURT'S OVERSIGHT TO ENSURE DUE PROCESS; AND AN EMERGENCY ORDER FOR THE IMMEDIATE PROTECTIVE CUSTODY OF ELIOT I. BERNSTEIN, CANDICE M. BERNSTEIN, JOSHUA E. Z. BERNSTEIN, JACOB N. A. BERNSTEIN, DANIEL E. A. O. BERNSTEIN, P. STEPHEN LAMONT AND P. STEPHEN LAMONT II

That Eliot I. Bernstein and P. Stephen Lamont (collectively "Petitioners"), after discussing the ensuing matters with Clerk of the Court, Debbie Yarbrough on October 6, 2004, hereby requests that the Court:

i. Enter an order granting a motion for declaratory relief as to the status of investigations or pending investigations of the Boca Raton Police Department, Florida ("Boca PD"), the United States Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), and the Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI") including but not limited to (a) proof of delivery by Boca PD to an unidentified District Attorney for review, (b) the joint submission of the Boca PD and District Attorney to the SEC for review, and (c) provide written confirmation that the FBI has submitted its investigation the United States attorney for the Southern District of Florida to determine if the claims of Petitioners are prosecutable; and

ii. Enter an order granting a motion for the Court to intervene in third party investigations of the Boca PD, the SEC, and the FBI in an oversight capacity; and

iii. Enter an order granting a motion for immediate protective custody Eliot I. Bernstein, Candice M. Bernstein, Joshua E. Z. Bernstein, Jacob N. A. Bernstein, Daniel E. A. O. Bernstein, P. Stephen Lamont and P. Stephen Lamont II, and in support state as follows:

DECLARATORY RELIEF

1. That on or about August 25, 2003, Petitioners submitted two written statement to Detective Robert Flechaus ("Flechaus") of the Boca PD concerning the misappropriation and conversion of approximately One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) in funds of Iviewit Holdings, Inc. ("Iviewit") and the misappropriation of intellectual property of Iviewit.
2. That, subsequent to those submissions, and on or about the Winter of 2003-2004, Flechaus announced to Petitioners "I have completed my investigation, and in discussions with the District Attorney, I have submitted my report to the Miami office of the SEC for review," or words to that effect.
3. That on or about August 1, 2004, Petitioners telephoned Flechaus to ascertain case numbers for his investigations, wherein it was stated to Petitioners by the Boca PD that no case numbers existed, and were told to contact the "combat unit" of the District Attorney and internal affairs. Further, this prompted a call by Petitioners to the Honorable Chief Andrew J. Scott ("Scott") of the Boca PD to begin an internal affairs investigation, with requests to his personnel to have only Chief Scott return such call.
4. That, upon information and belief, a discussion between Scott and Flechaus ensued prompting a call by Flechaus to Petitioners, wherein Flechaus offered a follow up meeting to Petitioners on September 30, 2004.
5. That at the follow-up meeting, Flechaus backtracked on his prior statements of the completion of his investigation, the discussion with the District Attorney, and their joint submission to the SEC a true copy of the transcription of the voice mail message attached herein as Exhibit A, but instead claimed that the FBI was handling the investigations.

6. That shocked and dismayed at the twisted statement of Flechaus, heated discussions ensued, suggestions of "bought off" detectives were posited, and Petitioners were escorted from the offices of the Boca PD, upon demanding to speak to the Chief of Police and Internal Affairs. That Flechaus stated that in order to see the Chief or Internal Affairs Petitioner would have to call the station and make a formal meeting request.

7. That similar to the Boca PD, the FBI, through Special Agent Stephen Lucchesi ("Lucchesi"), offered Petitioners a follow-up meeting from their initial face to face meeting of on or about August 15, 2003, on August 12, 2004.

8. That in telephone discussions with Petitioners the following week, Lucchesi stated his desire to clarify issues since clarified, the summation of his report, and the delivery and discussion with the United States Attorney for the Southern District of Florida to determine if the claims of Petitioners were prosecutable.

Wherefore, Petitioners request that this Court enter an order granting a motion for declaratory relief from the Boca PD and Flechaus as to their investigations of the subject matter of the written statements, their review with an unidentified District Attorney, and their joint submission to the Miami office of the SEC, and declaratory relief from the FBI as to their submission of their report to the United States attorney for the Southern District of Florida, and such further relief that the Court deems appropriate.

INTERVENTION IN THIRD PARTY INVESTIGATIONS AS OVERSEER AND TO ENSURE DUE PROCESS IN THE INVESTIGATORY PROCESS

9. That as a result of the retraction of Flechaus of the Boca PD and the possibly unfulfilled statements of Luchessi of the FBI, Petitioners request this Court's intervention and oversight of third party investigations ensuring due process of law as afforded by the Constitution of the United States and its progeny, the Constitution of the State of Florida.

Wherefore, Petitioners request that this Court enter an order granting a motion for the Court's intervention in the investigations of the Boca PD, the SEC, if any, and the FBI, and such further relief that the Court deems appropriate.

EMERGENCY ORDER FOR PROTECTIVE CUSTODY

10. That subsequent to Petitioners' heated discussion with Flechaus and the removal from the offices of the Boca PD, Petitioners telephoned Chief Scott to apprise him of the turnaround in the statements of Flechaus and their desire to pursue the allegations of their written statements at a higher level of review at the Boca PD.

11. That blocked by other member of the Boca PD at each of approximately three telephone calls to Chief Scott, in one call, Petitioners are threatened with arrest for having taped calls of Detective Flechaus, whereby such tapes, unbeknownst to Boca PD at the time, where voice mails left on Petitioners machine by Flechaus and whereby Petitioner asked how one reporting crime could be arrested by those charged with investigation. That Petitioner took this threat as an indication that something was amiss and demanded to speak only with Chief Scott.

12. Petitioners then have a discussion with a one Captain Jim Burke, who identifies himself as the Assistant Chief of Police ("Assistant Chief Burke"), wherein in such discussion Assistant Chief Burke relates to Petitioners that he will personally intervene in the matter with the full support and oversight of Chief Scott and that he was relegated such task by the Chief.

13. That the next day, and as part and parcel of his intervention, Assistant Chief Burke calls Petitioners to a meeting at the Boca PD on August 6, 2004 at 10:30 A.M. with other scheduled attendees of Lucchesi of the FBI and an undisclosed representative of the SEC, all with the full support and oversight of Chief Scott.

14. That when Petitioners press Assistant Chief Burke to allow them teleconference representation by counsel at the August 6 meeting, Assistant Chief Burke stammers and hesitates stating that a meeting room has yet to be secured and that the availability of a speaker phone cannot be assured, and most troubling, suggests that Petitioners' counsel be admitted after the meeting, all with the full support and oversight of Chief Scott.

15. That when Petitioners press Assistant Chief Burke to confirm the attendance of a representative of the SEC, Assistant Chief Burke recants stating that the "people at the SEC are very busy," or words to that effect, all with the full support and oversight of Chief Scott. That further, when asked who the representative was that Flechaus had sent the case to for review, Assistant Chief Burke claims that he cannot verify if it truly was ever sent to the SEC by Flechaus. That upon request for a contact name at the SEC to include in a petition being drafted to United States Supreme Court, Assistant Chief Burke claims to have no contact name. When asked who he called to schedule such meeting with, Assistant Chief Burke claims that he has no name and when asked how or who he scheduled the meeting with at the SEC, he states he has to go and will get back with more information.

16. That when Petitioners press Assistant Chief Burke to confirm the attendance of Lucchesi of the FBI, Assistant Chief Burke whole heartedly guarantees the attendance of Lucchesi, all with the full support and oversight of Chief Scott.

17. That Petitioners ask Assistant Chief Burke to confirm that Chief Scott is personally involved, as the Boca PD website states that all internal affairs complaints be directed directly to the Chief and that from that point the Chief personally relegates the investigation or outcome.

18. That Petitioners' subsequent calls to Lucchesi confirming his attendance go unanswered, Petitioners send an electronic mail message to Chief Scott to confirm the roster of individuals at the October 6 meeting, who answers in reply that "he knows nothing about the matters and concerns of Petitioners," or words to that effect and a true copy of which is attached herein as Exhibit B, in direct contradiction to the affirmations of Assistant Chief Burke of the full support and oversight of Chief Scott.

19. That as a result of the recantations of Assistant Chief Burke as to the attendance by the SEC, the unconfirmed attendance of Lucchesi of the FBI, and the utter untrue reporting by Assistant Chief Burke of the full support and oversight of the matters of Petitioners' written statements by Chief Scott, [it is plausible that Petitioners would have been confronted with a inflammatory meeting solely with members of the Boca PD subsequent to the heated discussions and suggestions of "bought off" detectives in the burying of the written statements of Petitioners. That until it is further clarified that these investigations have been conducted in a manner that conforms to proper procedure and rules that the safety of Petitioners is questionable.] That because of the nature of the entire nexus of events of these matter and that with conflicts of interest and the appearance of impropriety already discovered in two state bar investigations whereby it appears that [Proskauer and other named Defendants have positioned to stymie and deny due process of Petitioners, that the events herein constitute reasonable concerns that these investigations may also have been influenced in unknown ways to further stymie and deny due process to complaints filed by Petitioner. That if such unknown ways include bribery or the likes, that the uncovering of such crime could put Petitioners in a highly dangerous and volatile environment where no state or federal agencies will intercede to aid Petitioners and where Petitioners rightfully no longer know where to turn and where such attempts to expose such crimes could lead to further attempts to cover up or intimidate and harass Petitioners by those entrusted to help Petitioner. This conflict leaves Petitioner weary now of the entire legal system, the State Bars and the authorities that would typically investigate such matters.

Wherefore, Petitioners request that this Court enter an order granting a motion for an emergency order for immediate protective custody Eliot I. Bernstein, Candice M. Bernstein, Joshua E. Z. Bernstein, Jacob N. A. Bernstein, Daniel E. A. O. Bernstein, P. Stephen Lamont and P. Stephen Lamont II and such further relief that the Court deems appropriate.

Dear Honorable Chief of Police Andrew J. Scott:

This is most confusing, as two hours before receiving this communiqué I spoke with Jim Burke who stated that the SEC now would not be attending the meeting he scheduled and the FBI would. I asked if you personally had been notified of these matters and he stated not only that you knew but where the direct oversight of the matters, further that you would not attend as you were an extremely busy man but that he was reporting to you.

I would like to reschedule today's meeting until you have had a chance to review these matters, as I stated to Asst Chief Burke this meeting seems, to say the least, bizarre. I also asked for confirmation that the SEC had been contacted by Flechaus and he stated contrary to prior conversations that he was now not sure. When asked for a contact name he said he did not have one and that he would get back to me, this is very important information as we are preparing a Supreme Court document and these issues must be clarified for the justices currently reviewing the matters in NY & FL and the US Supreme Court is also being petitioned to intervene in all matters and investigations.

I await your direction and I am very thankful for your prompt and courteous reply.

Dear Honorable Chief of Police Andrew J. Scott:

I am writing to you in lieu of several calls to your office to report suspicious activity within the department and attempt to clarify for the Florida Supreme Court in case SC104-1078 the status of the investigations on two written statements submitted to Detective Robert Flechaus at his request for review and filing. Further, Detective Flechaus had stated that he had taken the matters that were formally filed with Boca PD to the SEC with the DA and that they would be calling us within 30 days to give us an update, it has been over six months and not a word. We then began a series of unreturned phone calls to Detective Flechaus and finally just a few weeks ago were notified that Flechaus was on vacation and that the woman who was handling his cases, could not find any evidence of our filings or cases. She gave us a "combat unit" at the DA office to call and check with, when we learned that it was internal affairs we became nervous and further called your office whereby Detective Flechaus then intercepted such call and called to schedule a meeting the following week with me. He appeared angry and stated that we did not have to go over his head. I have repeatedly left messages with your offices regarding the seriousness of the matter and that it could also involve internal affairs and it states on your website, that in these kind of matters, the Chief of Police will handle the complaint directly and assign the matters from that point. We are unclear at this point if you have been noticed of any of these matters and have repeatedly asked for verbal or written confirmation from you personally.

On September 30th I met with Detective Flechaus whom I had immediate conflict with. I asked for updates and status on the investigations and he responded that there was no investigation and that he told us prior that the FBI was handling the matters not him. I told him he was lying and that he had told us the exact opposite when we met and had stated that he contacted the FBI and according to Flechaus they were busy investigating terrorist plots and that he was going to handle the matters. He then, quite inapposite his current story, requested that we file two separate written statements with the Boca PD for investigation. We provided Flechaus with a several hundred page submission on the matters and he told us he had taken it to the States Attorney (?) and that they had sent it off for joint investigation to the SEC and that they would be contacting us shortly. This has never occurred. In fact, why would he have taken it anywhere if the FBI had stated they were handling the matters?

We are in two cases where already conflicts of interest and the appearance of impropriety have traversed to the highest level of the States, at the Supreme Court level in Florida and New York and have resulted in actions by both the NY and FL Supreme Courts to protect the integrity of such courts, to take actions to prevent further conflict by removing those previously in charge from the investigatory matters to new investigations with Supreme Court oversight. In fact, the Florida Supreme Court has already issued rulings to prevent destruction of files in the matter of a complaint lodged against Christopher Clark Wheeler of Proskauer Rose, LLP with The Florida Bar, the main protagonist to our filings with Boca PD, pending further orders from that court. NY Supreme Court Appellate Division: First Department has moved three attorney complaints, all involving those accused in our complaints, for reasons of conflict and appearance of impropriety, involving the past President of the NY Bar, Steven C. Krane and Chief Counsel of the Department, Thomas Cahill involved in the instances of conflict.

Strangely enough, after the meeting with Flechaus, I requested while I was at the station that Flechaus call you down so I could speak with you and he refused telling me I would have to call and schedule an appointment with you. I then asked where internal affairs was and was again told to call and make an appointment. Immediately upon my return home after basically being escorted out of the police station, Detective Flechaus called my home to tell me that I had no case. He stated that he contacted one of the accused parties to the stolen million dollars reported to Boca PD by the Company and that the accused, Bruce Prolow, had said that it was OK if his money was stolen from our company. Detective Flechaus reported that without Prolow testifying that it was stolen money we had no case???? This would be like calling a bank to tell them they no case against the robber because he stated that it was OK to steal the banks money. It also behooves one to wonder why Detective Flechaus began the investigation that day and in such a strange way.

Finally, after several calls, whereby I was intimidated by claims from officers intercepting your calls that I might be in violation of having taped calls with Flechaus, which somehow was illegal and that I might be charged with some such crime, all makes me uncomfortable in trying to report a crime and get fair due process and proper procedure. Then finally,

Assistant Chief of Police, Jim Burke got on the line and stated that he was capable of taking your calls, taking over the investigation and would get back to us the next day. The next day he called to inform us that a meeting had been set with the Boca PD, the SEC and the FBI and asked if I would like to join, scheduled for tomorrow at 10:30am, to meet to discuss who would be handling which aspects of the case. When I spoke to Mr. Burke yesterday, I called asking for a conference call line or speakerphone so that my attorney in PA, who is severely disabled from a bus hitting him, be teleconferenced in and Mr. Burke asked if the attorney could call in after the meeting. I asked what good that would do and stated that I felt uncomfortable in such a meeting without counsel. I asked if there was a problem and he stated he did not have a phone with speakerphone and would have to get back to me after trying to find one. He then asked who was coming from our side and I told him the attorney and the CEO would be flying in, if the SEC was attending but that they would have to know soon to book flights and we still have not heard back. What was strange is that the meeting was set telling us the SEC would be there with the FBI and yesterday he was unsure of the attendees and if the SEC would be there.

I am sure that from being told to contact the "combat unit" at the DA, to being told the SEC was investigating jointly with Boca PD and all the very strange events that are occurring, that you understand our fears that something does not seem right. I ask that you contact me directly, to clarify certain matters and assure me of a safe haven meeting tomorrow whereby I am not denied the opportunity to have counsel present based on lack of a speakerphone at the PD and the likes. I offer to bring my phone if possible. Also, we would like written affirmation that you are aware of the nexus of events and have direct oversight of these matters. Finally, we would like an assurance of who will be attending the meeting from these agencies.

OPINION AND ORDER

07 Civ. 11196 (SAS)

SHIRA A. SCHEINDLIN, U.S.D.J.:

I. INTRODUCTION

This action presents a dramatic story of intrigue, car bombing, conspiracy, video technology, and murder. In short, plaintiffs allege that hundreds of defendants engaged in a massive conspiracy to violate their civil rights and, in the process, contributed to the Enron bankruptcy and the presidency of George W. Bush. In plaintiffs' words:

Plaintiffs depict a conspiratorial pattern of fraud, deceit, and misrepresentation, that runs so wide and so deep, that it tears at the very fabric, and becomes the litmus test, of what has come to be known as free commerce through inventors' rights and due process in this country, and in that the circumstances involve inventors' rights tears at the very fabric of the Democracy protected under the Constitution of the United States.¹

Defendants characterize the events quite differently:

For many years, pro se Plaintiffs Eliot I. Bernstein and Plaintiff Stephen Lamont have engaged in a defamatory and harassing campaign . . . alleging an immense global conspiracy Although largely unintelligible, the [Amended Complaint] purports to describe a fantastic conspiracy among members of the legal profession, judges and government officials and private individuals and businesses to deprive plaintiffs of what they describe as their “holy grail” technologies.²

While I cannot determine which of these descriptions is more accurate, I can and do conclude that plaintiffs have failed to state a claim against any of the hundreds of defendants named in this action. For the reasons stated below, plaintiffs’ claims are dismissed.

II. BACKGROUND

A. Facts

The following factual allegations, taken from the Amended Complaint, are accepted as true for purposes of this motion. Because the Complaint comprises more than one thousand paragraphs, the facts presented here are by necessity a summary and a selection of the most pertinent allegations.

1. Development and Theft of the Video Technology

The story begins in 1997, when plaintiff Eliot Bernstein and others³ invented video technologies (the “Inventions”).⁴ The Inventions permit transmission of video signals using significantly less bandwidth than other technologies.⁵ They also provide a way to “zoom almost infinitely on a low resolution file with clarity,”⁶ something that is generally believed to be impossible. The Inventions were quickly incorporated into “almost every digital camera and present screen display device” and they “played a pivotal part in changing the Internet from a text based medium to a medium filled with magnificent images and video, thought prior to be impossible on the limited bandwidth of the Internet.”⁷ They are also used by DVDs, televisions, cable television broadcasting, certain websites, and “chips,” presumably integrated circuits.⁸

In 1998, Bernstein’s accountant, Gerald R. Lewin, suggested that Bernstein contact Albert T. Gortz, an attorney at Proskauer Rose LLP, regarding the Inventions.⁹ Gortz, an estate planner, put Bernstein in contact with Proskauer partner Christopher C. Wheeler, a real estate attorney, who told Bernstein that he would determine whether Proskauer’s New York office had partners with appropriate experience in patent law.¹⁰ Several weeks later, they represented that partners Kenneth Rubenstein and Raymond A. Joao would secure patents for the Inventions and would perform other trademark, trade secret, and copyright work.¹¹ Apparently impressed by the Inventions, Proskauer agreed to accept 2.5% of the equity of Iviewit, Inc., the company that owned the Inventions, in return for its services.¹² Unbeknownst to Bernstein, Rubenstein and Joao did not at the time work for Proskauer.¹³ Rubenstein subsequently joined Proskauer, but Joao remained at the firm Meltzer Lippe Goldstein Wolf & Schlissel, P.C. (“MLG”)¹⁴

Rubenstein was also counsel to MPEGLA LLC, one of the largest users of the Inventions. When he was hired by Proskauer, MPEGLA became Proskauer’s client. MPEGLA bundled the Inventions in with other technologies that they license, but did not pay Iviewit any royalties.¹⁵ In fact, plaintiffs allege that Rubenstein was part of a scheme to steal the Inventions.¹⁶ Apparently as part of this scheme, Joao filed for more than ninety related patents in his own name.¹⁷ Then, to mask the theft, Proskauer created numerous illegitimate companies with names similar to that of Iviewit in various jurisdictions (the “Similar Companies”).¹⁸ Proskauer filed defective patent applications for Iviewit and valid applications for the Similar Companies.¹⁹

Proskauer then brought in representatives from Real (a consortium that at the time comprised Intel; Silicon Graphics, Inc.; and Lockheed Martin, and that was later acquired by Intel).²⁰ Real made use of the Inventions without first arranging for a license from Iviewit.²¹ Proskauer required Real and other interested parties to sign non-disclosure agreements, but did not enforce these agreements.²²

Proskauer also distributed the Inventions to Enron Broadband. Enron “booked enormous revenue through [Enron Broadband] without a single movie to distribute,” but because they lost use of the Inventions, the deal “collapsed overnight causing massive losses to Enron investors” – indeed, plaintiffs allege that this may be “one of the major reasons for Enron’s bankruptcy.”²³

Meanwhile, Proskauer pursued investors for the Similar Companies. Using fraudulent documents, they secured millions of dollars from the Small Business Administration, Goldman Sachs, Gruntal & Co., Wachovia Securities, and various others,²⁴ including defendant Huizenga Holdings, Inc.²⁵ Plaintiffs also allege that in March of 2001, the Tiedemann Investment Group (“TIG”) invested several hundred thousand dollars in the Similar Companies.²⁶ Plaintiffs suggest that some of this money may have been stolen.²⁷

2. Discovery of the Theft

Almost immediately after Joao began work on the patents, Bernstein discovered that Joao had made changes to the patent applications after they were signed. Bernstein forced Joao to fix the applications, mailed them, and then dismissed Joao.²⁸ Joao was replaced by William J. Dick, Douglas A. Boehm, and Steven C. Becker of Foley & Lardner LLP (“Foley”).²⁹ But they too filed false papers, not only with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (“PTO”), but with various foreign patent offices.³⁰

Bernstein began to discover the full extent of the scheme. To ensure Bernstein’s silence, Brian G. Utley, President of one of the Similar Companies, flew to Iviewit’s California office and told Bernstein that “if he did not shut up about what was discovered . . . that he and law firms [sic] would destroy him, his family and his companies.”³¹ Utley explained that if he were not made CEO, Bernstein and his family would be in danger from Proskauer and from Foley.³² In response, Bernstein told his wife and children to flee their home.³³ Bernstein also attempted to have all corporate records from Iviewit’s Florida office shipped to California, though defendants were able to destroy many of those documents before they could be shipped.³⁴ Utley and Michael Reale, Vice President of Operations for one of the Similar Companies, told Iviewit’s Florida employees that they were fired and should join the Similar Companies.³⁵ Utley and Reale also stole equipment that belonged to Iviewit, leading to the filing of charges with the Boca Raton Police Department.³⁶ Not satisfied with threats, defendants blew

Plaintiffs contacted the New York Attorney General's Office and requested that the Attorney General and the New York State Disciplinary Committee open an investigation into the actions of these attorneys.³⁹ "For his failure to respond to the earlier complaints, former [New York Attorney General] Eliot Spitzer and [the New York Attorney General] have also been included herein as defendants"⁴⁰

Meanwhile, in the year 2000, Arthur Andersen LLP began an audit of the Similar Companies.⁴¹ Arthur Andersen discovered some of these irregularities and requested clarifying information from certain parties, including Proskauer, which provided false information to prevent Arthur Andersen from discovering the full extent of the fraud.⁴²

Bernstein also discovered a federal bankruptcy action filed in the Southern District of Florida.⁴³ In this case, defendant RYJO Inc., a subcontractor for Intel and Real, was attempting to steal some of the Inventions.⁴⁴ Defendant Houston & Shady, P.A. were counsel to Intel and Real in this action, which was filed in 2001.⁴⁵ This case was dropped after it was discovered by Iviewit.⁴⁶

Bernstein also learned of Proskauer Rose LLP v. Iviewit.com, Inc.,⁴⁷ an action in Florida state court presided over by defendant the Hon. Jorge Labarga, Justice of the Circuit Court of the 15th Judicial Circuit in and for Palm Beach County, Florida.⁴⁸ Bernstein and Iviewit fired the attorneys who claimed to be representing Iviewit, Sachs Saxs & Klein, P.A., and retained new counsel, Steven Selz and Schiffrin Barroway Topaz & Kessler, LLP (“SBTK”), to represent the Iviewit companies in these actions.⁴⁹ Unfortunately for Iviewit, SBTK joined in the conspiracy with Proskauer.⁵⁰

The Complaint also alleges that Justice Labarga was part of the conspiracy and finds substantial fault with his handling of the case.⁵¹ In fact, plaintiffs suggests that the Iviewit case may have distracted Justice Labarga from his work on Bush v. Gore, leading possibly to its result.⁵² Labarga granted a default judgment against Iviewit.⁵³

In 2003, Plaintiffs filed a complaint with the Florida Bar that alleges Wheeler and Proskauer violated various ethical rules.⁵⁴ However, the Florida Bar failed to give the complaints due consideration.⁵⁵ Plaintiffs therefore appealed to

3. Further Cover-up

As mentioned earlier, plaintiffs had filed complaints with the New York Appellate Division, First Department Disciplinary Committee (“1st DDC”) against Rubenstein, Joao, and Proskauer itself. But Proskauer arranged for defendant Steven C. Krane, a partner at Proskauer and member of the 1st DDC, to have the complaints delayed and then dismissed.⁵⁹ Plaintiffs discovered Krane’s involvement on May 20, 2004.⁶⁰ They filed a complaint against Krane with the 1st DDC. Believing Krane to be conflicted in his representation of Proskauer, plaintiffs contacted Catherine O’Hagan Wolfe, then the Clerk of the First Department, but the First Department took no action, allegedly because of the involvement of the judges of the First Department in the conspiracy.⁶¹

In July of 2004, Plaintiffs filed a formal complaint with the First Department.⁶² The First Department voted to begin investigating Rubenstein, Proskauer, Krane, MLG, and Joao and transferred the investigation to the Second Department Disciplinary Committee (“2d DDC”), which refused to pursue it.⁶³ Plaintiffs also contacted defendant the Hon. Judith Kaye, Chief Judge of the New York Court of Appeals, but “she failed to intervene”⁶⁴

Plaintiffs also requested an investigation by the New York Lawyers’ Fund for Client Protection. It declined because it too was controlled by the conspiracy.⁶⁵ Plaintiffs had a similar experience with the State of New York Commission of Investigation.⁶⁶ They then contacted Eliot Spitzer, then-Attorney General of the State of New York, but he too conspired with defendants and refused to investigate.⁶⁷ Similar inquiries with the Virginia State Bar were unsuccessful.⁶⁸

B. Claims

Plaintiffs allege that the conspiracy violated their rights to due process pursuant to the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments (count one).⁶⁹ They also allege antitrust activity in violation of sections 1 and 2 of Title 15 of the United States Code (count two).⁷⁰ They further charge violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (count three)⁷¹ and the Racketeering and Corrupt Organizations Act (count four).⁷² In addition, plaintiffs allege a series of state law claims, including legal malpractice, breach of contract, tortious interference, negligent interference with contractual rights, fraud, breach of fiduciary duties, misappropriation of funds, and conversion. For each count, plaintiffs request one trillion dollars in compensatory damages and punitive damages. Plaintiffs also request an injunction to prevent the unauthorized use of the Inventions, although they acknowledge that “the granting of this prayer for relief, effectively, halts the transmission of and viewing of video as we know it”⁷³ They further request that the Court appoint a federal monitor to oversee the operations of the First and Second Department Disciplinary Committees, the Florida Bar, the United States Patent and Trademark Office, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the United States Attorney’s Office, and the Virginia Bar Association.⁷⁴ Plaintiffs further seek an injunction to correct all past wrongdoing and ask the Court to request the Attorney General to institute civil or criminal proceedings.

The precise basis for plaintiffs’ first claim is unclear. They allege:

The conspiratorial actions of the defendants in sabotaging IP applications through fraud and theft, and the ensuing white washing of attorney complaints by the defendants and other culpable parties both known and unknown with scienter, thereby continuing the violation of Plaintiffs inventive rights is contrary to the inventor clause of the Constitution of the United States as stated in Article 1, Section 8, Clause 8, and the due process clauses of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.⁷⁵

In the interest of construing the Complaint liberally, the Court will assume that plaintiffs mean to plead due process violations and a violation of the Patent Clause.

III. APPLICABLE LAW

A. Standard of Review

“Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(a)(2) requires . . . ‘a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief.’”⁷⁶ When deciding a defendant’s motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6), courts must “accept as true all of the factual allegations contained in the complaint”⁷⁷ and “draw all reasonable inferences in plaintiff’s favor.”⁷⁸ Likewise, when deciding a motion for judgment on the pleadings, a court “must accept all allegations in the complaint as true and draw all inferences in the non-moving party’s favor.”⁷⁹

Nevertheless, to survive a Rule 12(b)(6) motion to dismiss, the allegations in the complaint must meet the standard of “plausibility.”⁸⁰ Although the complaint need not provide “detailed factual allegations,”⁸¹ it must “amplify a claim with some factual allegations . . . to render the claim plausible.”⁸² The test is no longer whether there is “no set of facts [that plaintiff could prove] which would entitle him to relief.”⁸³ Rather, the complaint must provide “the grounds upon which [the plaintiff’s] claim rests through factual allegations sufficient ‘to raise a right to relief above the speculative level.’”⁸⁴

Although this Court must take the plaintiff’s allegations as true, “the claim may still fail as a matter of law . . . if the claim is not legally feasible.”⁸⁵ In addition, “bald assertions and conclusions of law will not suffice.”⁸⁶

Courts must construe pro se complaints liberally.⁸⁷ However, a litigant’s pro se status does not exempt him from compliance with the relevant rules of procedural and substantive law.⁸⁸

B. Rule 8(a)

“[T]he principal function of pleadings under the Federal Rules is to give the adverse party fair notice of the claim asserted so as to enable him to answer and prepare for trial.”⁸⁹ “The statement should be short because ‘[u]nnecessary prolixity in a pleading places an unjustified burden on the court and the party who must respond to it because they are forced to select the relevant material from a mass of verbiage.’”⁹⁰

redundant or immaterial portions or, if “the complaint is so confused, ambiguous, vague, or otherwise unintelligible that its true substance, if any, is well disguised,” dismiss the complaint entirely.⁹¹ It is generally an abuse of discretion to deny leave to amend when a complaint is dismissed for this reason.⁹²

C. Civil Rights Claims

1. Constitutional Cause of Action

Plaintiffs have alleged that defendants violated their rights pursuant to the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments. Typically such claims are brought under section 1983 of Title 42 of the United States Code. However, plaintiffs have apparently alleged direct violations of their constitutional rights.

The Supreme Court has permitted a direct cause of action for violation of a constitutional right in certain circumstances. For example, in some circumstances plaintiffs can sue for violations of the Fourth Amendment by the federal government.⁹³ But such actions are not permitted if “Congress has provided an alternative remedy which it explicitly declared to be a substitute for recovery directly under the Constitution and viewed as equally effective.”⁹⁴

⁹² See id. (citing Gordon v. Green, 602 F.2d 743, 745-47 (5th Cir. 1979), in which the court ruled that plaintiffs should have been given leave to amend a 4000-page complaint) (other citations omitted).

“The availability of a § 1983 action precludes an action for direct relief under the constitution.”⁹⁵ Because a section 1983 action is available here, plaintiffs’ direct constitutional claims are dismissed.⁹⁶

However, “[s]ince the two causes of action are virtually identical, it would be most unfair to [these] pro se plaintiff[s] and entirely unnecessary, to dismiss [their] direct constitutional action without leave to replead the exact same constitutional violation in the guise of a Section 1983 action.”⁹⁷ Such a result would be a waste of time and energy. Instead, I deem the Complaint to have pled

2. Section 1983

Section 1983 “does not create a federal right or benefit; it simply provides a mechanism for enforcing a right or benefit established elsewhere.”⁹⁸ In order to state a claim under section 1983, a plaintiff must show that the conduct complained of was committed by a person or entity acting under color of state law, and that the conduct deprived a person of rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the Constitution.⁹⁹

The statute of limitations for an action under section 1983 is three years.¹⁰⁰ “Although federal law determines when a section 1983 claim accrues, state tolling rules determine whether the limitations period has been tolled, unless state tolling rules would ‘defeat the goals’ of section 1983.”¹⁰¹ In New York, “the doctrines of equitable estoppel and equitable tolling can prevent a defendant from pleading the statute of limitations as a defense where, by fraud, misrepresentation, or deception, he or she had induced the plaintiff to refrain from filing a timely action.”¹⁰² “Equitable estoppel is applicable where the plaintiff knew of the existence of the cause of action, but the defendant’s misconduct caused the plaintiff to delay in bringing suit. Equitable tolling, on the other hand, is applicable where the defendant has wrongfully deceived or misled the plaintiff in order to conceal the existence of a cause of action.”¹⁰³

3. The Right to an Investigation

“[T]he Due Process Clauses generally confer no affirmative right to governmental aid, even where such aid may be necessary to secure life, liberty, or property interests of which the government itself may not deprive the individual.”¹⁰⁴ “[C]ourts within the Second Circuit have determined that ‘[t]here is . . . no constitutional right to an investigation by government officials.’”¹⁰⁵ Thus, there is no constitutional violation where the government refuses to investigate a crime, allegations of patent fraud, or an attorney ethics grievance.¹⁰⁶

The Sherman Act, which forbids certain monopolistic practices, provides that actions under the Act “shall be forever barred unless commenced within four years after the cause of action accrued.”¹⁰⁷ “Generally, a cause of action accrues and the statute begins to run when a defendant commits an act that injures a plaintiff’s business.”¹⁰⁸

State.” Because the States have sovereign immunity against claims in federal court, a private citizen cannot sue a State unless the State has consented or Congress has abrogated that immunity.¹¹³ “This jurisdictional bar also immunizes a state entity that is an ‘arm of the State,’ including, in appropriate circumstances, a state official acting in his or her official capacity.”¹¹⁴

However, under the rule of Ex parte Young,¹¹⁵ “a plaintiff may sue a state official acting in his official capacity – notwithstanding the Eleventh Amendment – for prospective, injunctive relief from violations of federal law.”¹¹⁶ This relief requires that there be an ongoing violation of federal law.¹¹⁷

Eleventh Amendment immunity.”¹²¹

2. Judicial Immunity

Judges have absolute immunity from suits for acts performed in their judicial capacities. Even if a judge acts maliciously, a litigant’s remedy is to appeal, not to sue the judge. Judicial immunity can be overcome only where a judge completely lacks jurisdiction over the subject matter. This immunity also extends to the institution of the court itself, as well as its supporting offices.

It is “well-established that officials acting in a judicial capacity are entitled to absolute immunity against § 1983 actions, and this immunity acts as a complete shield to claims for money damages.”¹²² “Absolute immunity extends not only to judges and prosecutors, but also to officials who perform functions closely associated with the judicial process, including parole board officials conducting parole hearings, federal hearing examiners, administrative law judges, and law clerks.”¹²³

Judicial immunity was created “for the benefit of the public, whose interest it is that the judges should be at liberty to exercise their functions with independence and without fear of consequences.”¹²⁴ “Thus, if the relevant action is judicial in nature, the judge is immune so long as it was not taken in the complete absence of jurisdiction.”¹²⁵ Quasi-judicial immunity protects administrative officers who act in a judicial manner.¹²⁶ Attorney disciplinary proceedings are “judicial in nature,”¹²⁷ so the presiding officers are protected by absolute immunity. However, neither judicial immunity nor quasi-judicial immunity bars a claim for prospective injunctive relief.¹²⁸

¹²⁶ See Sassower v. Mangano, 927 F. Supp. 113, 120 (S.D.N.Y. 1996) (“Under the doctrine of quasi-judicial immunity, absolute immunity extends to administrative officials performing discretionary acts of a judicial nature.”).

3. Qualified Immunity

The doctrine of qualified immunity protects government officials from civil liability if the officials' conduct ““does not violate clearly established statutory or constitutional rights of which a reasonable person would have known.””¹²⁹ Qualified immunity balances ““the need . . . to hold responsible public officials exercising their power in a wholly unjustified manner and . . . [the need] to shield officials responsibly attempting to perform their public duties in good faith from having to explain their actions to the satisfaction of a jury.””¹³⁰ Qualified immunity “provides ample protection to all but the plainly incompetent or those who knowingly violate the law.”¹³¹ Qualified immunity is “a defense afforded only to individuals – not municipalities or municipal agencies.”¹³² “[A]n official sued in his official capacity may not take advantage of a qualified immunity defense.”¹³³

There are three steps in a qualified immunity analysis. The court first must determine whether, “taken in the light most favorable to the party asserting the injury . . . the officer’s conduct violated a constitutional right”¹³⁴ If there is no constitutional violation, the defendant is not liable and the court need not proceed further. If, however, the plaintiff proves a constitutional violation, the court moves to the second step, which asks whether or not, at the time of the violation, the law prohibiting the defendant’s conduct was clearly established.¹³⁵ If the violated right was not clearly established, the officer is immunized from liability. “Clearly established” means: “(1) the law is defined with reasonable clarity, (2) the Supreme Court or Second Circuit has recognized the right, and (3) ‘a reasonable defendant [would] have understood from the existing law that [his] conduct was unlawful.’”¹³⁶ If the law prohibiting defendant’s conduct was clearly established, the court moves to the final step in the analysis, which asks whether or not “it was objectively reasonable for [the defendant] to believe that his actions were lawful at the time of the challenged act.”¹³⁷ An official’s conduct is objectively unreasonable, and not eligible for qualified immunity, “when no officer of reasonable competence could have made the same choice in similar circumstances.”¹³⁸

G. The Rooker-Feldman Doctrine

In Rooker v. Fidelity Trust Co., the Supreme Court held that federal district courts “lacked the requisite appellate authority, for their jurisdiction was ‘strictly original.’” Among federal courts, the Rooker Court clarified, Congress had empowered only [the Supreme Court] to exercise appellate authority ‘to reverse or modify’ a state-court judgment.”¹³⁹ In District of Columbia Court of Appeals v. Feldman, the Court further clarified that state court proceedings that were “judicial in nature” were reviewable only by the Supreme Court or by the highest court of

IV. DISCUSSION

A. Failure to Allege Wrongdoing

Plaintiffs allege that a large number of defendants are involved in either the conspiracy or some other wrongdoing. However, many of these allegations are entirely conclusory. Plaintiffs simply fail to allege any facts that suggest wrongdoing. In many cases, plaintiffs infer a defendant’s participation in the conspiracy from the defendant’s refusal to investigate that conspiracy.¹⁴² Plaintiffs have named other individuals as defendants without any explanation. In the absence of specific factual allegations as to the actions a defendant took to incur liability that are sufficient to put the defendant on notice of what conduct is at issue, claims against that defendant must be dismissed.¹⁴³ All claims against the defendants listed in Appendix A are dismissed because they are not alleged to have engaged in wrongful conduct.

B. Immunity

1. The Eleventh Amendment

Neither the State of New York, the Commonwealth of Virginia, nor the State of Florida has consented to be sued in this action, and Congress has not abrogated state immunity for plaintiffs' claims. Therefore, this Court has no jurisdiction to hear any claims against the States. All claims against the States of New York and Florida and the Commonwealth of Virginia are therefore dismissed. The Florida Supreme Court is an arm of the State of Florida.¹⁴⁴ The Appellate Divisions of the New York State Supreme Court are arms of the State of New York.¹⁴⁵ Therefore, all claims against these defendants are dismissed.

¹⁴³ See Leibowitz v. Cornell Univ., 445 F.3d 586, 591 (2d Cir. 2006) (“[A] plaintiff is required only to give a defendant fair notice of what the claim is and the grounds upon which it rests.”).

¹⁴⁴ See Fla. Const. art. 5, § 1.

¹⁴⁵ See N.Y. Const. art. 6, § 1. Further, these entities cannot be sued under section 1983 because they are not “persons.” See Zuckerman v. Appellate Div., Second Dep’t, Supreme Court of State of N.Y., 421 F.2d 625, 626 (2d Cir.

The New York State Legislature has vested the exclusive jurisdiction to discipline attorneys in the four departments of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court.¹⁴⁶ The Departments have delegated to the Departmental Disciplinary Committees their judicial function of investigating charges of attorney misconduct.¹⁴⁷ Accordingly, each Committee, like the disciplinary and ¹⁴⁶ The Judiciary Law of the State of New York states:

The supreme court shall have power and control over attorneys and counsellors-at-law and all persons practicing or assuming to practice law, and the appellate division of the supreme court in each department is authorized to censure, suspend from practice or remove from office any attorney and counsellor-at-law admitted to practice who is guilty of professional misconduct, malpractice, fraud, deceit, crime or misdemeanor, or any conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice

N.Y. Judiciary Law § 90(2).

¹⁴⁷ New York State regulations state as follows:

This court shall appoint a Departmental Disciplinary Committee for the Judicial Department, which shall be charged with the duty and empowered to investigate and prosecute matters involving alleged misconduct by attorneys who, and law firms that, are subject to this Part and to impose discipline to the extent permitted by section 603.9 of this Part.

grievance committees in other jurisdictions, “is a delegatee of the powers of the Appellate Division as an aid to that Court in carrying out its statutory functions.”¹⁴⁸ The Committees are thus arms of the State.¹⁴⁹ All claims against them are dismissed because they are immune from suit under the Eleventh Amendment.¹⁵⁰ Similarly, the Florida Office of the State Courts Administrator, the New York Office of Court Administration of the Unified Court System, the State of New York Commission of Investigation, the Florida State Bar, and the Virginia State Bar are arms of their respective States. All claims against these defendants are dismissed as well.

2. Judicial and Quasi-Judicial Immunity

Plaintiffs have alleged that various judges, including the justices of the Florida Supreme Court and of the New York Supreme Court, Appellate Division, First Department, have failed to uphold their judicial responsibilities, either by acting negligently or through malicious actions. They have further alleged that certain judges are members of the conspiracy against them. However, the alleged wrongdoings took place in the context of judicial proceedings where the courts had at least arguable jurisdiction over the relevant matters. Further, individuals who are not judges but “who perform functions closely associated with the judicial process” are protected by quasi-judicial immunity.¹⁵¹ For these reasons, all claims for damages against the defendants listed in Appendix B in their official capacities are dismissed.¹⁵²

3. Qualified Immunity

Qualified immunity protects officials who are sued in their individual capacities in certain circumstances. It applies if, inter alia, the defendant’s conduct fails to violate clearly established federal law. In the situations described by plaintiffs, there is no clearly established right to have complaints investigated

¹⁵¹ See Oliva, 839 F.2d at 39.

¹⁵² See Polur v. Murphy, No. 94 Civ. 2467, 1995 WL 232730, at *5 (S.D.N.Y. or pursued. Therefore, all claims for damages against the defendants listed in Appendix C in for failure to investigate or failure to prosecute are dismissed.

C. Statute of Limitations

Statutes of limitations “are found and approved in all systems of enlightened jurisprudence,” and with good reason.¹⁵³ Over time, evidence vanishes, memories fade, witnesses disappear.¹⁵⁴ After sufficient time, “the right to be free of stale claims in time comes to prevail over the right to prosecute them.”¹⁵⁵ Thus, “strict adherence to limitation periods ‘is the best guarantee of evenhanded administration of the law.’”¹⁵⁶

Many of plaintiffs’ claims are barred by statutes of limitations. Plaintiffs assert that the statutes should not apply because it is contrary to the “public interest,” arguing that they had to wait “until enough evidence has been ascertained that the actions of the would be defendants have become sufficiently evident”¹⁵⁷ However, statutes of limitations themselves serve the public interest. In the absence of a legal basis for tolling or estoppel, the Court cannot disregard the rules. Because plaintiffs have not raised a valid ground for the tolling of any statute of limitations or the application of equitable estoppel, the statutes of limitations apply without modification.

1. Section 1983

Claims brought under section 1983 must be filed within three years of the date on which they accrue. This action was filed on December 12, 2007. Therefore, plaintiffs cannot assert any cause of action pursuant to section 1983 for events that occurred before December 12, 2004. Although the nature of the Complaint makes it difficult to ascertain the exact dates of some events, plaintiffs allege that the underlying conspiracy regarding the theft of the Inventions occurred before 2004. All section 1983 claims relating to this conspiracy are therefore dismissed.

Plaintiffs allege that the conspiracy involving the State of Florida occurred in “Spring 2003 to Spring 2004”¹⁵⁸ All section 1983 claims relating to this conspiracy are therefore dismissed. Similarly, alleged wrongdoing by the Lawyers Fund for Client Protection of the State of New York occurred in 2003.¹⁵⁹ These claims are therefore dismissed.

Plaintiffs allege that the conspiracy involving the 1st DDC occurred in Spring through Summer of 2004.¹⁶⁰ All section 1983 claims relating to the 1st DDC are therefore dismissed.

2. The Sherman Act

Plaintiffs allege that defendants “create[d] an illegal monopoly and restraint of trade in the market for video and imaging encoding, compression, transmission, and decoding by, including but not limited to, the IP pools of MPEGLA LLC”¹⁶¹ These actions were allegedly taken in the years 1998 through 2001. These claims are therefore dismissed.

3. RICO

Plaintiffs allege that the injury underlying their RICO claims is “the theft of IP by the enterprise and its agents”¹⁶² The alleged theft happened well before 2003. This claim is therefore barred by the statute of limitations.

D. Failure to State a Claim

1. Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964

Count Three of the Complaint alleges that

The conspiratorial actions of the defendants in sabotaging IP applications through fraud, denying property rights of the IP, the ensuing white washing of attorney complaints by the defendants and other culpable parties both known and unknown with scienter, creating an illegal monopoly and restraint of trade, thereby denies Plaintiffs’ [sic] the opportunity to make and enforce contracts, to sue, be parties, give evidence, and the entitlements to the full and equal benefit of all laws and proceedings for the security of persons violates Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (as amended).¹⁶³

Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 addresses employment discrimination. There is no reading of the Complaint that suggests any defendant committed any action prohibited by Title VII. Count Three is therefore dismissed.

2. The Copyright and Patent Clause

Article I, Section 8 of the Constitution provides that “Congress shall have the power . . . [t]o promote the Progress of Science and useful Arts, by securing for limited Times to Authors and Inventors the exclusive Right to their respective Writings and Discoveries” One possible reading of plaintiffs’ first cause of action is that they are alleging a violation of this clause.

¹⁶² Compl., RICO Statement Form, question (iv), at 180.

¹⁶³ Compl. ¶ 1077.

On its face, the Copyright and Patent Clause confer discretionary authority on Congress to pass laws relating to patents and copyrights. The text of the clause does not suggest any private right of action against any state or non-state actor, and I am not aware of any court that has created such a right. Because the Copyright and Patent Clause does not bestow any rights on individuals, plaintiffs’ claim under this Clause is dismissed.

3. Section 1983

The only section 1983 claims that have not been dismissed on the grounds of statute of limitations and immunity are those that seek injunctive relief against certain state officials in connection with state attorney disciplinary procedures. To state a claim pursuant to section 1983, a plaintiff must allege that a constitutional right has been violated. As discussed above, plaintiffs have no cognizable interest in attorney disciplinary procedures or in having certain claims investigated. Plaintiffs have therefore failed to state a claim against these defendants.

E. Further Observations

1. The Rooker-Feldman Doctrine

All of plaintiffs' federal claims have been dismissed, either pursuant to the relevant statutes of limitations, the Eleventh Amendment, or judicial immunity. Were plaintiffs' claims not otherwise dismissed, exercise of jurisdiction over certain of those claims would likely violate the Rooker-Feldman doctrine. Several of plaintiffs' claims are essentially arguments that the state courts failed to give their state court suits adequate consideration.¹⁶⁴ Federal district courts have no jurisdiction to review the decisions of state courts. Regardless of the merit of plaintiffs' claims, this Court cannot exercise jurisdiction over them.¹⁶⁵

2. Rule 8(a)

Plaintiffs repeatedly promise that if their allegations are considered

¹⁶⁴ See, e.g., Compl. ¶ 601 (“That this Court will see that not only did [the Florida Supreme Court] err in a decision but their actions were coordinated to further usurp due process and procedure with the direct intent of covering for their brethren, [The Florida Bar] members and to further aid and abet the conspiracy.”).

¹⁶⁵ I also note that the Court likely cannot exercise personal jurisdiction over many of the defendants. Because there are sufficient other grounds for dismissal of this action, I do not discuss this issue any further.

conclusory, they will amend their Complaint to include more detail.¹⁶⁶ Plaintiffs misunderstand their pleading burden. To state a claim under Rule 8(a), plaintiffs are only required to give a “a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief”¹⁶⁷ Plaintiffs’ claims fail not because they have given insufficient detail as to the alleged conduct, but rather because much of the alleged conduct does not constitute a violation of any statute and because the remaining claims are barred by statutes of limitations or immunity. Plaintiffs have provided not too little detail, but too much – by no stretch of the imagination can the Complaint be considered “short and plain.” Were I not to dismiss all claims for other reasons, I would strike the Complaint for violating Rule 8(a).¹⁶⁸

3. Standing

Several of plaintiffs’ claims relate to the alleged failure of various defendants to take appropriate steps in various attorney disciplinary procedures. A non-party generally has no legally protected interest that is affected by such failure. In the absence of such an interest, a plaintiff has no standing to assert a claim.¹⁶⁹ Because they have no cognizable interest in having criminal or civil proceedings brought by the Government against the various defendants, plaintiffs cannot state a claim against government officials for failing to initiate those proceedings.

¹⁶⁷ Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a)(2).

F. Supplemental Jurisdiction and Leave to Replead

When a plaintiff has not alleged diversity jurisdiction and her federal claims fail as a matter of law, courts generally decline to exercise supplemental jurisdiction over remaining state law claims.¹⁷⁰ Here, all federal law claims have been dismissed, and there is no reason to depart from this general rule. I therefore dismiss plaintiffs' state law claims.

A pro se plaintiff should be permitted to amend her complaint prior to its dismissal for failure to state a claim “unless the court can rule out any possibility, however unlikely it might be, that an amended complaint would succeed in stating a claim.”¹⁷¹ However, “it is well established that leave to amend a complaint need not be granted when amendment would be futile.”¹⁷² Plaintiffs have burdened this Court and hundreds of defendants, many of whom are not alleged to have engaged in wrongdoing, with more than one thousand paragraphs of allegations, but have not been able to state a legally cognizable federal claim against a single defendant. There is no reason to believe they will ever be able to do so. Plaintiffs cannot overcome the various immunity defenses or the pertinent statutes of limitations. Leave to replead is denied. However, this in no way speaks to whether they may be able to plead valid state law claims.

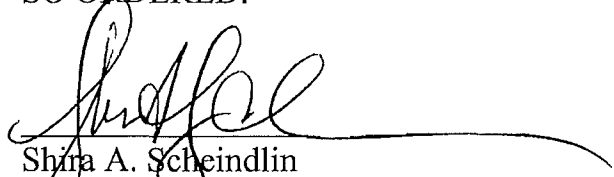

V. CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, defendants’ motions to dismiss are granted. The remaining defendants are dismissed sua sponte. The Clerk of the Court is directed to close these and related motions (documents no. 12, 47, 48, 65, 66, 68, 73, 75, 78, 81, 83, and 97 on the docket sheet) and this case.

ORDER

07 Civ. 11196 (SAS)

I. BACKGROUND

Pro se plaintiff Eliot Bernstein filed this action in December 2007.

On August 8, 2008, this Court dismissed all of his federal claims on the merits, with prejudice. Bernstein's request for leave to file a second amended complaint was denied. On January 27, 2010, the Second Circuit issued a Mandate dismissing Bernstein's appeal sua sponte, finding that it lacked an arguable basis in law or fact. Approximately two and one-half years later, on July 27, 2012, Bernstein filed his first motion to re-open this case, entitled "Emergency Motion to Reopen Case."

This motion, which was opposed by the Proskauer Defendants,¹ was denied in an

¹ The "Proskauer Defendants" include Proskauer Rose LLP, Kenneth Rubinstein, Christopher C. Wheeler, Stephen C. Krane (deceased) and the Estate of

Order dated August 14, 2012 (the “August 14th Order”).² In the August 14th Order, I found plaintiff’s Emergency Motion to be “frivolous, vexatious, overly voluminous, and an egregious abuse of judicial resources.” I cautioned plaintiff that any additional frivolous filings could subject him to monetary and/or injunctive sanctions under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11 (“Rule 11”).

Failing to heed this Court’s warning, Bernstein filed a second motion to re-open this case³ on February 28, 2013. In addition to opposing the motion, the Proskauer Defendants filed a Rule 11 motion for sanctions on May 7, 2013, which was previously served on Bernstein on April 5, 2013. Bernstein filed two additional motions on May 15, 2013: Notice of Motion to Re-Open Based on Fraud on the Court and More⁴ and Notice of Emergency Motion for Clarification of Order⁵, which sought reconsideration of the August 14th Order denying Bernstein’s first motion to re-open. On May 15, 2013, this Court denied Bernstein’s second and third motions to re-open as well as his motion for reconsideration,⁶ stating as follows:

Even if an alleged conflict on the part of the [New York State Attorney General's Office] were established, this would not overcome the fact that plaintiff's claims were barred on numerous jurisdictional and legal grounds. For example, the allegations against the State Defendants were based on their alleged failure to handle attorney grievances. But in dismissing these claims, this Court held that "there is no clearly established right to have complaints investigated or pursued," nor is there any "cognizable interest in attorney disciplinary proceedings or in having certain claims investigated." Furthermore, plaintiff had no standing to challenge the state court system's actions regarding attorney discipline. In addition, plaintiff's claims were barred by absolute judicial, quasi-judicial and qualified immunity as well as numerous other defenses.⁷ Because plaintiff has not, and cannot, remedy the fundamental defects in the Amended Complaint, re-opening this action would be futile. Plaintiff's application to reopen and his request to alter or amend judgment must therefore be denied.

5/15/13 Order at 5-6 (footnotes omitted).

The Proskauer Defendants now seek monetary and injunctive sanctions against Bernstein for his vexatious and frivolous conduct. Specifically, they seek monetary sanctions in an amount not less than $3,500 and the following injunctive relief:

Eliot I. Bernstein is hereby enjoined from filing any action in any court related to the subject matter of this action without first obtaining leave of this Court. In moving for such leave, Bernstein must certify that the claim or claims he wishes to present are new claims never before raised and/or disposed of by any court. Bernstein must also certify that claim or claims are not frivolous or asserted in bad faith. Additionally, the motion for leave to file must be captioned "Application Pursuant to Court Order Seeking Leave to File." Failure to comply strictly with the terms of this injunction shall be sufficient grounds for denying leave to file and any other remedy or sanction deemed appropriate by this Court.

Proposed Order (Docket Entry # 146-2).

II. LEGAL STANDARDS

A. Rule 11 in General

The purpose of Rule 11 is "the deterrence of baseless filings and the curbing of abuses."⁸ Filings that have a complete lack of a factual and legal basis have been found "to harass, cause unnecessary delay, or needlessly increase the cost of litigation[.]"⁹ In appropriate cases, pro se litigants are subject to Rule 11 sanctions.¹⁰ Pro se litigants who show contempt for the judicial system, harass defendants, and/or cause courts and litigants to waste resources may be sanctioned under Rule 11.

⁸ On Time Aviation, Inc. v. Bombardier Capital, Inc., 354 Fed. App'x 448, 452 (2d Cir. 2009) (quoting Caisse Nationale de Credit Agricole-CNCA, N.Y. Branch v. Valcorp, Inc., 28 F.3d 259, 266 (2d Cir. 1994)).

B. Injunctive Relief

It is “beyond peradventure” that “[a] district court possess[e]s the authority to enjoin [a litigant] from further vexatious litigation.”¹¹ In determining whether a litigant’s future access to the courts should be restricted, courts should consider the following factors:

- (1) the litigant’s history of litigation and in particular whether it entailed vexatious, harassing or duplicative lawsuits;
- (2) the litigant’s motive in pursuing the litigation, e.g., does the litigant have a good faith expectation of prevailing?;
- (3) whether the litigant is represented by counsel;
- (4) whether the litigant has caused needless expense to other parties or has posed an unnecessary burden on the courts and their personnel; and
- (5) whether other sanctions would be adequate to protect the courts and

¹¹ Safir v. U.S. Lines Inc., 792 F.2d 19, 23 (2d Cir. 1986). Accord Lipin v. National Union Fire Ins. Co. of Pittsburgh, PA., 202 F. Supp. 2d 126, 142 (S.D.N.Y. 2002) (“A district court has the authority to enjoin a plaintiff who engages in a pattern of vexatious litigation from continuing to do so.”).

other parties. Ultimately, the question the court must answer is whether a litigant who has a history of vexatious litigation is likely to continue to abuse the judicial process and harass other parties.¹²

III. DISCUSSION

Bernstein had no factual or legal basis for his second motion to re-open or any subsequent motion he filed. Nonetheless, Bernstein must have believed his motion had merit, as evidenced by his twenty-two page Plaintiff's Opposition to Proskauer Defendant's [sic] Motion for Sanctions ("Opposition"). But there is no subjective, bad faith requirement in Rule 11. "The mental state applicable to liability for Rule 11 sanctions initiated by motion is objective unreasonableness"¹³ Moreover, as the following excerpt from his Opposition makes clear, Bernstein has no plans to ever end this litigation.

Bernstein is notifying Proskauer and this Court that he will have a lifelong and generational long litigious history in pursuing his patent royalties, as litigation is the key to prosecuting patents over their useful life and will also have a litigious ongoing history in pursuing the crimes and criminals who are attempting to steal them, despite whether they are cleverly disguised as Attorneys at Law, Judges, Prosecutors, etc. and despite the ridiculous Orders trying to prevent him from his due process rights and rights to his

Given these statements, this Court has no choice but to impose significant monetary and injunctive sanctions in an attempt to end this lengthy litigation.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, a monetary sanction in the amount of $3,500 is hereby imposed on Bernstein as is the injunctive sanction described above. The money is to be paid to the Clerk of the Court, Southern District of New York, forthwith. If Bernstein ignores the monetary sanction, defendants may obtain an enforceable judgment in the amount of $3,500. If Bernstein continues to file motions in this case, he may be subject to additional monetary sanctions. The Clerk of the Court is directed to close the motion for sanctions (Docket Entry # 145).

MOTION IN OPPOSITION TO: ...
Sunday, October 19, 2014

 FILED: PALM BEACH COUNTY, FL SHARON R BOCK, CLERK.

1. By letter dated April 22, 2014 (see Exhibit 1, "Notice of Resignation"), Oppenheimer resigned as trustee Sua Sponte to Petitioners' trusts effective May 26, 2014 and has since abandoned three trusts of Petitioners (all minor children) they had been acting as Trustees for.
2. That prior to their Sue Sponte resignation as alleged Trustee, Oppenheimer was aware of fraud and other criminal acts and civil torts including those that were alleged against them and others they worked with in the handling of the Petitioners' trusts and a company they are alleged Manager for, Bernstein Family Realty LLC ("BFR"), owned by the Petitioners trusts.
3. That Oppenheimer had full knowledge that documents authorizing them to act as Trustee were not given to Eliot and Candice completed and fully executed and therefore the integrity of their claim that they were Trustee is challenged.
4. That "Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware" does not have any authority to act on behalf of the Petitioners trusts as that company did not execute any trust contracts or documents on behalf of Petitioners trusts.
5. That "Oppenheimer Trust Company" and "Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware" are not licensed to do business in Florida.
6. That Oppenheimer had knowledge at the time of their resignation that Fraud and Forgery had been proven in the Estates and Trusts of Simon Bernstein ("Simon") and Shirley Bemstein ("Shirley") against the former Co-Trustees, Co-Personal Representatives and Counsel to the Co-Trustees and Co-Personal Representatives of the Estate of Simon and Counsel to the alleged Trustee and Personal Representative, Theodore Stuart Bernstein ("THEODORE" or "TED") of the Estate of Shirley, ATTORNEYS AT LAW Donald R. Tescher, Esq. ("TESCHER") and Robert L. Spallina, Esq. ("SPALLINA") of Tescher & Spallina, P.A.
7. That due to Oppenheimer's direct involvement with TESCHER and SPALLINA in orchestrating the alleged illegal takeover of the Petitioners trusts and the Petitioners company BFR, Eliot and Candice advised Oppenheimer that prior to seeking any resignation or transfer of the trust corpuses that they should seek a Court order on what to do prior to resignation due to the proven frauds not only in the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley but in direct relation to alleged frauds committed in the Petitioners' trusts, including robbing trust funds of minors, trusts that were set up and funded by Simon and Shirley while they were living.

8. That Eliot and Candice advised Oppenheimer in their alleged fiduciary capacities to administer the Petitioners' trusts on behalf of the beneficiaries by fulfilling their obligations to report the alleged criminal misconduct and civil torts to the proper authorities and the Court, prior to abandoning the trusts and their duties as alleged Trustee.
9. That Oppenheimer instead chose a dereliction and breach of fiduciary duties and failed to protect the beneficiaries from the criminal acts and civil torts alleged committed by SPALLINA and TESCHER that directly relate to the misuse of the Petitioners trusts funds that were orchestrated by TESCHER and SPALLINA who have no interests in these pre-established trusts of Petitioners.
10. That Eliot has noticed the Court and criminal authorities of the acts of Oppenheimer in collusion with TESCHER and SPALLINA, see Extortion filings from Shirley Estate case #502011CP000653XXXXSB and similar filings in Simon's Estate case #502012CP004391XXXXSB

OPPENHEIMER LACKS STANDING TO BRING ANY ACTIONS ON BEHALF OF THE PETITIONERS TRUSTS AS THEY HAVE OFFICIALLY RESIGNED AS TRUSTEES AS OF MAY 2014

11. That Oppenheimer's filing, "(i) Oppenheimer Bank of Delaware's Motion for Summary Judgment As To Count I Of Its Petition" should be heard by this Court and decided by this Court as it is filed by Oppenheimer in its limited capacity in regards to matters within that limited capacity of choosing a successor trustee and turning over the trusts corpuses to them and Oppenheimer only has legal standing in this limited matter.

12. That Oppenheimer states in their Motion for Summary Judgment that “7. Other than the limited “resigned trustee” role [emphasis added] Oppenheimer continues to have pursuant to § 736.0707, Florida Statutes, the Grandchildren Trusts are without a trustee.”
13. That in this “limited” capacity Oppenheimer can only seek to have the Court determine a successor trustee and have the trust corpuses distributed to the next successor trustee chosen by this Court and in no way has any capacity to bring actions on behalf of the trusts forward as they have no further standing to act as trustee.
14. That Oppenheimer’s filings, “(ii) Oppenheimer Bank of Delaware’s Motion To Appoint Guardian Ad Litem For Minor Beneficiaries; and (iii) Oppenheimer Bank of Delaware’s Motion To Strike Or Sever Counterclaim,” should be stricken from the record for Oppenheimer’s lack of standing to bring actions on behalf of Petitioners trusts as a resigned former ALLEGED trustee.
15. That once successorship is determined by this Court, Oppenheimer has NO FURTHER LEGAL STANDING to bring any actions on behalf of Petitioners trusts and therefore their subsequent motions must be stricken.
16. That Oppenheimer Sua Sponte abandoned and resigned as Trustee prior to establishing a chain of legal succession of Trusteeship and as such abandoned the Petitioners trusts causing further damages to beneficiaries.
17. That Oppenheimer’s counsel, Stephen Lessne, Esq. (“LESSNE”) orchestrated the early resignation of Oppenheimer despite knowing of alleged felony misconduct involving his client Oppenheimer as fully described in the Counter Complaint filed against both him personally and professionally, as well as, his client Oppenheimer.

MOTION IN OPPOSITION TO: ...

18. That LESSNE contacted Eliot and Candice and stated he was acting as counsel for Petitioners trusts and counsel for BFR and only later, after divulging much of their legal strategy and confidential and privileged strategy to him, did LESSNE admit that he was not representing Petitioners or their interests in BFR but rather that he was representing Oppenheimer as Trustee of Petitioners trusts and Oppenheimer as Manager of BFR and not acting as Petitioners counsel at all. This misrepresentation is in violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct of the State of Florida.
19. That Oppenheimer since prematurely resigning as Trustee without a successor now has no legal rights left to act on behalf of the Petitioners trusts and any legal actions they have taken subsequent to their resignation, other than seeking a Court order on what to do regarding successorship, must only be taken as Counter Defendants but in no way can they legally act on behalf of the trusts to bring actions or argue actions on behalf of the trusts.
20. That Oppenheimer and their counsel should be sanctioned for abandoning the trusts and then attempting to bring actions on behalf of the trusts after resignation against Defendants Candice and Eliot Bernstein without legal standing.
21. From the alleged trusts, "Section 5.3 Power to Name Other Trustees. Whenever a successor Trustee is required and that position is not filled under the terms specified in this Trust Agreement, an individual Trustee ceasing to serve (other than a Trustee being removed) may appoint his or her successor, but if none is appointed, the remaining Trustees, if any, or the beneficiary shall appoint a successor Corporate Trustee. The appointment will be by a written document (including a testamentary instrument) delivered to the appointed Trustee. In no event may the Settler ever be appointed as the Trustee under this Trust Agreement nor shall a Successor trustee be appointed that will cause this trust to be a grantor trust.
22. That while Oppenheimer's prohibited filings on behalf of the trusts after resignation attempt to paint a picture of Eliot Bernstein as a bad guy, who is sue happy, especially where corrupt lawyers are involved, what they fail to state to this Court is that their resignation comes after they were acknowledged that the Attorneys at Law, Robert L. Spallina, Esq. and Donald Tescher, Esq. of the law firm Tescher & Spallina, PA, who appointed and directed many of Oppenheimer's actions in relation to the alleged ILLEGAL distributions of the children's trusts, have admitted in the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley Bernstein to have FRAUDULENTLY ALTERED TRUST DOCUMENTS, FILED FORGED and FRAUDULENT documents with the Court as part of a larger FRAUD ON THE COURT, CLOSED THE ESTATE OF SHIRLEY WITH A DEAD PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE AS PART OF LARGER FRAUD ON THE COURT AND FRAUD ON THE BENEFICIARIES and MORE.

23. That Oppenheimer fails to reveal to the Court their direct involvement with TESCHER and SPALLINA who orchestrated in conspiracy and without any legal capacity to interact in the Petitioners' trusts, Oppenheimer's misuse of the Petitioners' trusts funds.
24. That once TESCHER and SPALLINA and their law firm was exposed in FRAUD and FORGERY, the Petitioners trust funds were used in further attempt to extort Eliot and Candice, as more fully defined in the Counter Complaint, the Counter Complaint hereby incorporated by reference in entirety herein.
25. That Oppenheimer fails to reveal to the Court that Eliot and Candice have sought to see fully completed original documentation of the trusts as several of the documents they are operating under appear improperly executed and may also be part of the fraudulent documents that have been tendered in the Shirley and Simon estate plans and calls into question their legal rights as alleged Trustee in the first place. The original documents have been denied access to Eliot and Candice.
26. That where FRAUD, FORGERY and more, have already been discovered, proven, admitted and further alleged in these matters and where the CRIMES ARE COMMITTED BY THE FIDUCIARIES AND ATTORNEYS AT LAW INVOLVED (ALL OFFICERS OF THIS COURT), all estate plan documents, including the Petitioners' trusts are in question legally, until valid proof of their authenticity can be confirmed by the beneficiaries and this Court. Oppenheimer cannot in any way be legally released from these matters other than to resign as Trustee, as they are directly involved and already reported to state and federal, civil and criminal authorities for their egregious acts of bad faith with unclean hands, violations of state laws and rules of professional conduct and therefore they should not be released until these civil and criminal complaints are all fully resolved.

27. Similarly, Fla. Stat. § 736.0705, entitled "Resignation of trustee," provides, in relevant part, as follows:

(1) A trustee may resign:

(a) Upon at least 30 days' notice to the qualified beneficiaries, the settlor, if living, and all cotrustees; or

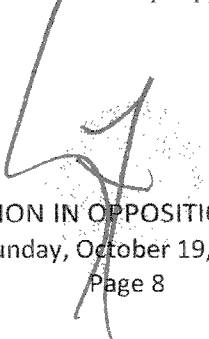

(b) With the approval of the court.

(2) In approving a resignation, the court may issue orders and impose conditions reasonably necessary for the protection of the trust property.

(3) Any liability of a resigning trustee or of any sureties on the trustee's bond for acts or omissions of the trustee is not discharged or affected by the trustee's resignation.

That Oppenheimer should have sought Court approval prior to resignation and allowed the Court to issue orders and impose conditions necessary to protect the trust property and instead choose abandonment and then chose to launch of series of Motions beyond their limited capacity as resigned ALLEGED Trustee.

28. Fla. Stat. § 736.0704, entitled "Vacancy in trusteeship: appointment of successor," provides, in relevant part, as follows:

MOTION IN OPPOSITION TO: ...
Sunday, October 19, 2014

(3) A vacancy in a trusteeship of a noncharitable trust that is required to be filled must be filled in the following order of priority:

(a) By a person named or designated pursuant to the terms of the trust to act as successor trustee.

(b) By a person appointed by unanimous agreement of the qualified beneficiaries.

(c) By a person appointed by the court.

That Oppenheimer prior to resignation and knowing that there was no successor trustee available, under 3(a) and 3(b) should have sought Court approval prior to resignation and abandonment of the trusts.

WHEREFORE – Defendants Candice and Eliot state that Oppenheimer has breached its duties to the beneficiaries as more fully described in Defendants Counter Complaint by their abandonment of the trusts and other alleged torts and criminal misconduct and therefore under “Section 736.1001 - Remedies for breach of trust,” Eliot and Candice seek on behalf of their children damages that have resulted from:

(1) Violations by the trustee of a duty the trustee owes to beneficiaries that have breached trust.

To remedy a breach of trust that has occurred or may occur, the court may:

(a) Compel the trustee to perform the trustee’s duties,

(b) Enjoin the trustee from committing a breach of trust,

(c) Compel the trustee to redress a breach of trust by paying money or restoring property or by other means and this Court should demand that all monies taken from the Petitioners Trusts be returned immediately,

(d) Order the resigned trustee to account, including accounting for BFR and LIC Holdings, Inc., which Oppenheimer has thus far failed to account for.

- (e) Appoint a special fiduciary to take possession of the trust property and administer the trust,
- (g) Remove the trustee as provided in s. 736.0706,
- (h) Reduce or deny compensation to the trustee and demand all fees and legal expenses paid back to the Petitioners trusts immediately,

- (j) Order any other appropriate relief.

Re: Resignation as Trustee of Trusts for the benefit of Joshua, Jacob and Daniel
Bernstein; Offer to Resign as Manager of Bernstein Family Realty, LLC

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Bernstein:

I represent, and am writing to you on behalf of, Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware ("Oppenheimer"), in its capacity as Trustee of the three trusts created by Simon Bernstein for the benefit of your minor children, Joshua, Jacob and Daniel Bernstein (the "Trusts"). This letter is directed to you, as the parents and natural guardians of Joshua, Jacob and Daniel Bernstein (the "Beneficiaries"), and will constitute due notice to the Beneficiaries under the Trusts and Florida law.

Oppenheimer hereby notifies you that it will resign as Trustee of the Trusts effective May 26, 2014 (the "Effective Date"). You, as the natural guardians of the Beneficiaries, have the right and obligation to appoint a successor corporate trustee. If you do not provide Oppenheimer, through me, with a written document evidencing that a successor corporate trustee has been appointed and has accepted the appointment before the Effective Date, Oppenheimer will petition the Court to either appoint a successor trustee or terminate the Trusts and distribute their assets to you, as natural guardians of the Beneficiaries.

For your information, the Trusts provide, in relevant part, as follows:

5.2 Resignation. Any Trustee may resign by giving 30 days' written notice delivered personally or by mail to any then serving Co-Trustee and to the Settlor if he is then living and not disabled; otherwise to the next named successor Trustee, or if none, to the persons having power to appoint successor Trustees.

5.3 Power to Name Other Trustees. Whenever a successor Trustee is required and that position is not filled under the terms specified in this Trust Agreement, an individual Trustee ceasing to serve (other than a Trustee being removed) may appoint his or her successor, but if none is appointed, the remaining Trustees, if any, or the beneficiary shall appoint a successor Corporate Trustee. The appointment will be by a written document (including a testamentary instrument) delivered to the appointed Trustee. In no event may the Settlor ever be appointed as the Trustee under this Trust Agreement nor shall a Successor trustee be appointed that will cause this trust to be a grantor trust.

Similarly, Fla. Stat. § 736.0705, entitled "Resignation of trustee," provides, in relevant part, as follows:

(1) A trustee may resign:

(a) Upon at least 30 days' notice to the qualified beneficiaries, the settlor, if living, and all cotrustees...

Finally, Fla. Stat. § 736.0704, entitled "Vacancy in trusteeship; appointment of successor," provides, in relevant part, as follows:

(3) A vacancy in a trusteeship of a noncharitable trust that is required to be filled must be filled in the following order of priority:

(a) By a person named or designated pursuant to the terms of the trust to act as successor trustee.

(b) By a person appointed by unanimous agreement of the qualified beneficiaries.

(c) By a person appointed by the court.

Please let me know of your intentions with regard to the appointment of a successor trustee before the Effective Date.

Eliot and Candice Bernstein

I am also writing to you on behalf of Oppenheimer, in its capacity as the Manager of Bernstein Family Realty, LLC (the "Company"). As you know, the Trusts are the sole owners and members of the Company, and the Company owns the house occupied by you and the Beneficiaries. Oppenheimer understands that the house is encumbered by two mortgages which probably exceed the value of the house. A third party, William Stansbury, claims that he is entitled to an equitable lien on the house, and he has sued the Company to establish such a lien. At Oppenheimer's direction, the Company is defending the lawsuit in order to avoid the claimed third lien on the house.

You have expressed unhappiness with Oppenheimer's management of the Company. In light of Oppenheimer's decision to resign as Trustee, Oppenheimer would like to offer you the opportunity to assume management of the Company, or appoint another successor manager, so that you or your chosen manager can defend the Stansbury lawsuit, operate the Company and deal with third parties on behalf of the Company as you deem to be in the best interest of the Company's members and, ultimately, your children. If you would like Oppenheimer to resign as Manager, please notify me in writing, before the Effective Date, of your selection of an appropriate successor manager and the successor's agreement to serve. Upon receipt of your selection, Oppenheimer will resign as Manager and, on behalf of the member Trusts, appoint your chosen successor.

Please note that, if you do not request Oppenheimer's earlier resignation and designate a successor manager, it is Oppenheimer's intent to resign as Manager of the Company after a successor trustee is appointed or the Trusts are terminated. At that point, it will be up to the successor trustee or you, as natural guardians of the Beneficiaries, to appoint a new manager.

If you have any questions regarding the foregoing, please contact me or have your attorney do so.

Very truly yours,

Steven A. Lessne FOR

OMNIBUS ORDER

THIS MATTER came before the Court on October 20, 2014 upon the following Motions filed by Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware ("Oppenheimer"): (i) Motion for Summary Judgment As To Count I Of Its Petition; (ii) Motion To Strike Or Sever Counterclaim; and (iii) Motion To Appoint Guardian Ad Litem For Minor Beneficiaries. Having considered the Motions, heard argument from Oppenheimer's counsel and from Eliot and Candice Bernstein (the "Bernsteins"), and being otherwise duly advised in the premises, it is hereupon

ORDERED and ADJUDGED as follows:

1. Oppenheimer's Motion for Summary Judgment As To Count I Of Its Petition is granted as follows:

a. Oppenheimer effectively resigned as Trustee of the three "Grandchildren Trusts" at issue in this case effective as of May 26, 2014.

b. By October 30, 2014, the Bernsteins, as natural guardians of the minor beneficiaries of the Grandchildren Trusts, shall submit the name and address of a proposed Successor Trustee to the Court, to Oppenheimer's counsel and to the proposed Successor Trustee. At the time of their submissions, the Bernsteins shall notify the proposed Successor Trustee that he/she shall either accept or decline the appointment by November 10, 2014 by notifying the Court, the Bernsteins and counsel for Oppenheimer of his/her election in writing.

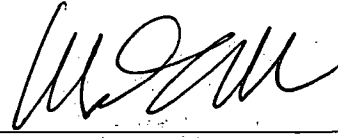

c. If the proposed Successor Trustee accepts the appointment, Oppenheimer shall deliver the trust assets to the Successor Trustee in accordance with the provisions of Fla. Stat. § 736.0707(2). If the proposed Successor Trustee declines the appointment or fails to respond, the Court will consider other available options in light of Oppenheimer's resignation.

2. Oppenheimer may file and serve final accountings for each of the Grandchildren Trusts with the Court. Within twenty (20) days after Oppenheimer files and serves its final accountings, the Bernsteins, as natural guardians of the minor beneficiaries, may file form, line-item objections to the final accountings. Thereafter, the Court will conduct appropriate proceedings to review and settle the final accountings.

3. The Court withholds ruling on Oppenheimer's Motion To Appoint Guardian Ad Litem For Minor Beneficiaries, but may reconsider Oppenheimer's Motion after the Bernsteins file their objections to the final accounting or at a later date.

4. The Counter-Complaint filed in this action remains stayed pending further Order of this Court.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers, Palm Beach County, Florida, this 7 day of ^{NOV}~~October~~, 2014.

Comes now, Plaintiffs, Eliot Ivan Bernstein ("Eliot") and Candice Michelle Bernstein ("Candice") (together, "Plaintiffs"), Individually, PRO SE¹ and as the Natural Guardians of three irrevocable trusts created by Simon Bernstein for the benefit of his grandchildren of Candice and Eliot, namely Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein, as Guardians for the members of Bernstein Family Realty LLC and beneficiaries of the hereunder sued Trusts, Estates and Corporate Entities set up by Simon and Shirley Bernstein and sues the following parties, hereby demanding trial by jury of all issues so triable and so states, on information and belief:

Parties, Jurisdiction and Venue

1. This is an action for money damages in excess of $15,000.00 and for equitable, compensatory, punitive and other reliefs.
2. Plaintiffs, Eliot Ivan Bernstein ("Eliot") and Candice Michelle Bernstein ("Candice"), are the parents and natural guardians of minors, Joshua Ennio Zander Bernstein ("Joshua") or ("Josh"), Jacob Noah Archie Bernstein ("Jacob") or ("Jake") and Daniel Elijsha Abe Ottomo Bernstein ("Daniel") or ("Danny"), and reside with them in Palm Beach County, Florida. Joshua, Jacob and Daniel are the sole beneficiaries under three irrevocable trusts (the "Trusts") created by their late grandfather, Simon Leon Bernstein ("Simon") and grandmother Shirley Bernstein ("Shirley"), on September 7, 2006. Eliot, Candice and their children are also beneficiaries of Trusts, Estates and Corporate Entities sued hereunder.

¹ Pleadings in this case are being filed by Plaintiff In Propria Persona, PRO SE, wherein pleadings are to be considered without regard to technicalities. Propria, pleadings are not to be held to the same high standards of perfection as practicing lawyers. See Haines v. Kerner 92 Set 594, also See Power 914 F2d 1459 (11th Cir1990), also See Hulsey v. Ownes 63 F3d 354 (5th Cir 1995). also See in Re: HALL v. BELLMON 935 F.2d 1106 (10th Cir. 1991)." In Puckett v. Cox, it was held that a pro-se pleading requires less stringent reading than one drafted by a lawyer (456 F2d 233 (1972 Sixth Circuit USCA). Justice Black in Conley v. Gibson, 355 U.S. 41 at 48 (1957)"The Federal Rules rejects the approach that pleading is a game of skill in which one misstep by counsel may be decisive to the outcome and accept the principle that the purpose of pleading is to facilitate a proper decision on the merits." According to Rule 8(f) FRCP and the State Court rule which holds that all pleadings shall be construed to do substantial justice.

BACKGROUND SPECIFIC TO THIS CASE

108. That to save the Court a lengthy filing by Eliot attempting to recap the many criminal acts and civil torts of each of the counter defendants, including those proven, admitted and alleged crimes committed by some of the Fiduciaries and Attorneys at Law acting as Officers of this Court before the Honorable Judge Martin Colin and Honorable David French, in the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley Bernstein, including but far from limited to, Frauds on the Court, Frauds on the Beneficiaries, Fraud on Interested Parties, Creditor Fraud, Bank Fraud, Insurance Fraud, Theft of Assets and other criminal acts and civil torts that directly relate to this instant legal action, Eliot instead hereby incorporates by reference all ongoing cases before this Court related to the Simon and Shirley Bernstein Estates and Trusts, including but not limited to all, pleadings, rulings, evidence, etc. that are currently before Hon. Judge Colin in the related cases already before this Court for almost two years.

109. That Simon and Shirley set up trust accounts for Eliot and his children and also set up an LLC named Bernstein Family Realty, LLC ("BFR") while living, in order to fund all of their living expenses, due to the fact that Eliot has had a bomb put in his car, death threats and is in the middle of a very intense RICO and ANTITRUST Lawsuit, where he and his family have been in grave danger for many years fighting corruption inside the very framework of the legal system.
110. That these entities were set up by Simon and Shirley for the benefit of Eliot, Candice and their children, in part funding the children's school, income for the family and covering all home and living expenses for many years prior to Simon and Shirley's passing and even after they had passed away these were continued for a certain period of time.
111. That the children's trust accounts were used to purchase a home for Eliot and his family and the home was owned by BFR with a loan to Walter Sahim who was the prior owner of the home and Simon's business partner and a legally deficient and "affected" loan to Simon was made to further protect the home from any actions against Eliot and his three minor children. The three children of Eliot are the only Members of BFR owning equal shares.
112. That the children's school trust accounts were funded in 2006 and BFR was also then established to pay household bills and expenses.
113. That several months after Simon died, BFR continued to pay bills and expenses as it was intended by Simon and Shirley that after their deaths these vehicles would be fully funded to provide for Eliot and his family for most of their natural lives with prudent investment of their inheritances.

COUNTER COMPLAINT

114. That several months after Simon died, his assistant Rachel Walker ("Walker") was fired by Theodore and she informed Eliot and Candice that at the direction of Robert Spallina and Donald Tescher, Eliot and Candice would be taking over BFR's accounts and the payment of the bills. Walker brought these documents to their home at the direction of Spallina and Tescher.
115. That the account appeared to be held by Simon Bernstein.
116. That Eliot and Walker then called Legacy Bank and found out that not only was Walker not a signor on the account but that Simon was the only signor and that Walker could no longer sign checks or have any information regarding the account.
117. That Legacy Bank, who knew Simon well as a private banking client had not been informed that Simon had been dead for several months and was shocked to learn that his accounts were still being used and accessed POST MORTEM.
118. That Legacy Bank immediately upon finding that Simon was dead, froze the bank accounts and stated they could only speak with the PR of the Estate of Simon.
119. That Eliot immediately requested an investigation into how the accounts were being used POST MORTEM on an LLC account for a company his children owned.
120. That Eliot and Rachel notified Spallina that at the bequest of Legacy Bank he was required to call them immediately as the BFR accounts and others had been frozen instantly as the account was accessed unauthorized for months.
121. That subsequently it was also found through the production documents recently transferred to the Curator Ben Brown by Spallina and Tescher upon this Court's Order that other bank and credit card accounts were also used by others for months after Simon died by various parties.
122. That Spallina contacted Legacy Bank and then notified Eliot and Candice that he was transferring the frozen funds and BFR accounts to Janet Craig of Oppenheimer who he stated was the new acting Manager of BFR and Trustee of the children's trusts.

COUNTER COMPLAINT
Wednesday, July 30, 2014

123. That Eliot and Candice later learned that this transfer of title of Manager of BFR was in violation of BFR's operating agreement; see BFR documents @ <http://www.iviewit.tv/BFR%20BFH%20BFI%20RECORDS.pdf> , fully incorporated by reference herein.
124. That it is now claimed by Craig that she self-appointed herself as Manager of BFR, again in violation of BFR's operating agreement.
125. That Spallina then directed Craig to open a new Oppenheimer BFR account with Craig and Worth as the agents now handling the BFR bills and the children's school trusts.
126. That Eliot and Candice requested repeatedly of Spallina, Tescher, Craig and Worth to provide historical account statements for Legacy Bank's BFR account so that they could determine how much was in the account prior to Simon's death and how much was used illegally POST MORTEM and they were refused this information repeatedly.
127. That Craig worked directly with Spallina and Tescher to transfer funds to Oppenheimer that had been previously frozen by Legacy Bank in their BFR accounts that were frozen when Eliot informed Legacy that Simon's Legacy accounts were being used ILLEGALLY, POST MORTEM.
128. That Craig then opened up a new BFR account at Oppenheimer and deposited the Legacy BFR account funds into the new account with the aid of Spallina and Tescher.
129. That Eliot repeatedly requested Craig and Spallina to obtain the Legacy Bank Account statements and other information relating to that account so that he could determine the amount of funds that were in the account when Simon died and determine who and what withdrawals and other activities had taken place illegally.
130. That Eliot was informed that Legacy would be conducting an internal investigation into the fraudulent use of Simon's accounts after his death and Eliot has recently again tried to contact Legacy to find out information about the accounts and investigations and was told that the Personal

Wednesday, July 30, 2014

Representatives would have to contact them but around that time, the Personal Representatives were Tescher and Spallina who obviously did not take any actions to have themselves investigated.

131. That Spallina and Craig informed Eliot that monies were running low in the Legacy BFR accounts and that until distributions of the Estates and Trusts could be worked out they determined that the Trusts of the three boys, set up for school education while Simon and Shirley were alive were to be used to pay the BFR expenses and children's expenses that had been being paid for seven years prior to their deaths through BFR and other entities set up by Simon and Shirley.
132. That Spallina stated the monies would be used from BFR and then the school trust funds and when those were depleted he would replenish and replace them as necessary and thereby authorized Craig to use the school trusts and BFR monies for these purposes, including but not limited to, property insurance, maintenance, improvements, property taxes, school tuition, food and clothing for the children, etc..., which were all being paid by Simon and Shirley through BFR for years prior and post their deaths.
133. That when the Trusts were depleted, Craig informed Spallina and asked for the replenishments and Spallina refused claiming now that he was not obligated and unwilling to pay them back in efforts to retaliate against Eliot, Candice and minor children.
134. That at this time Spallina, Tescher, Theodore, Manceri, Moran and others learned that they were being investigated by the Florida Governor Rick Scott's Notary Public Division and the West Palm Beach County Sheriff Office for a series of alleged fraudulent acts regarding the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley Bernstein.
135. That on information and belief Craig, Tescher and Spallina then retained Mark Manceri, Esq. to represent BFR in the Stansbury Lawsuit.
136. That Manceri has subsequently voluntarily resigned from the Estates and Trust of Simon and Shirley Bernstein and now is a named Respondent (along with Tescher, Spallina, Rose and Pankauski) in the Estate litigations, his resignation in the midst of arrests for Fraud, admitted Forgery and more of the former Executors/Personal Representatives/Co-Trustees/Counsel, Tescher and Spallina et al.

137. That Gerald Lewin, CPA, who was responsible for tax returns for BFR now claims that no tax returns were done for over 6 years; the only entity that appears to be missing returns.
138. That Eliot and Candice requested repeatedly of Spallina, Tescher, Craig and Worth to provide historical account statements for the children's trusts so that they could determine how much was in the accounts and the prior accountings from various firms that the monies are believed to have transferred through, including Stanford Trust Company and JP Morgan prior to Simon's death and they were refused, repeatedly.
139. Legacy Bank was contacted by Eliot several times regarding their claims that they were starting investigations into the use of Simon's accounts Post Mortem and despite repeated requests by Eliot have failed to provide any status or information regarding if they have started these investigations.
140. Oppenheimer is alleged to have nominated Craig as the Manager and began paying BFR bills and expenses for the children, including but not limited to, school, education and welfare from the BFR new account set up at Oppenheimer to replace the Legacy BFR account.
141. That Oppenheimer several months later notified Eliot that the BFR account was running low.
142. That Eliot contacted Spallina who stated that until he could allocate monies from the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley to the beneficiaries that the children's lower, middle and high school trust funds (there were separate accounts for college) should now be used to pay the BFR and other expenses and that he would replace and replenish the funds once he could make distributions.
143. That Craig then began using the children's school trust funds to fund the BFR and other expenses at Spallina's direction.
144. As the trusts were diminished to de minimis value by paying the BFR company bills and other expenses for the children, Craig contacted Spallina to replace and replenish the trust accounts and BFR account and Spallina and Tescher claimed they were now unwilling to refund and replenish the accounts.

145. That on or about this time that Spallina refused to replace the funds used, Tescher, Spallina, Moran, Theodore, Manceri and others were all under INVESTIGATION with Palm Beach County Sheriff Office ("PBSO") detectives and Florida's Governor Rick Scott's Notary Public Division for allegations of Fraud, Fraudulent Notarizations, Forgery and other crimes², instigated by Eliot and Candice in relation to criminal acts taking place in the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley.
146. That subsequently it was found that FORGERY, FRAUD, FRAUDULENT NOTARIZATIONS, IDENTITY THEFT and more were used to illegally seize Dominion and Control of the Estates and change beneficiaries of the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley POST MORTEM and where there are still ongoing state and federal, civil and criminal, legal actions taking place regarding these crimes.

147. That Eliot notified Craig and Worth that Spallina, Tescher, Manceri, Theodore et al. were all under ongoing investigations and ongoing civil actions and urged them and their counsel McCabe to take appropriate legal steps to report the matters the proper authorities as they related to the Oppenheimer accounts.
148. That Eliot notified Craig that documents sent to him by her, Spallina and Tescher for both BFR and the children's trusts were incomplete, missing signatures, not properly initialed and were improperly notarized on documents she was operating under.
149. That Eliot was never sent completed documents for BFR or the children's trusts by Oppenheimer, Spallina and Tescher despite repeated requests.
150. That Eliot notified Craig that shares of LIC HOLDINGS, INC. which are held by the children's trusts are not valued or accounted for and that she must as Trustee demand under Florida Statute 607.1601- Corporate Records from LIC Holdings, Inc. for the children's trusts, which held shares in LIC, including but not limited to, a full and formal accounting from LIC, which Theodore operates as an Officer and Director.

Subject: RE: Bernstein Grandchildren's trusts

Eliot and Candice,

...I believe you misunderstood my email regarding the termination of the trusts. The intention was for you to sign the Releases and we would release the funds to you and Candice. The only account to be released to Ted was the smaller Bernstein Family Realty account that we opened as a convenience for the payment of bills...

156. That Craig transferred these new fiduciary roles to Theodore, despite at the time knowing that Theodore was aware that Eliot and Candice were pursuing Theodore, Spallina, Tescher and Manceri et al. with State and Federal Authorities for a number of alleged and some now proven and admitted felony crimes and civil torts.

Good Morning Ted,

Thank you for taking on the role of Managing Member of Bernstein Family Realty.

In order to close this account off our books, we will need you to sign and return the attached letter of authorization.

Please include the transfer instructions for the funds in the body of the letter. For your records, I have also attached an Asset Detail showing the current value of the account and a list of transactions since inception. During our short term as Managing Member we funded this account equally from Daniel, Jacob and Joshua's Trusts and paid family bills from this account. 157. That this is where the extortion of Eliot and his family began to manifest further, as arrests were being made in the Estate and Trust cases of Simon and Shirley and investigations were underway against Theodore and his minion of attorneys at law and friends that he brought into Simon and Shirley's Estate and Trusts and thus began a Pattern and Practice of retaliation against Eliot in efforts to shut him down financially and stop him from further exposing the crimes committed.
158. That once Tescher, Spallina and Theodore gained Dominion and Control of the Estates and Trusts they began to systematically violate probate rules and statutes to deny the Beneficiaries of information and funds in violation not only of statutes but in violation of the terms of the Wills and Trusts they were allegedly operating under, causing intentional delays and damages to beneficiaries and drumming up huge legal expenses for themselves and the counsel they retained in the matters.
159. That prior to this intentional financial calamity caused on Eliot and his family it should be noted here that Eliot and Candice had taken jobs in a new company Simon had begun investing in several months before his death, Telenet Systems, LLC and they were projected to make approximately $200,000.00 in salary and commissions, as well as, have an equity stake in the company after Simon's death with his girlfriend, Maritza Puccio.
160. That with no discussions with certain of the Beneficiaries as to the investment owned by Simon in Telenet and the remaining funds still owed to Telenet of approximately $210,000.00 to meet the total agreed investment in the company, Spallina and Theodore decided to stop the investment and caused the owner of the business, Scott Banks, Simon's friend and business partner, to have to cut all his staff, downsize his office overnight that he and Simon had just acquired and let Eliot and Candice go from their jobs, causing great loss to Banks, Eliot, Candice, Maritza Puccio and others.

COUNTER COMPLAINT

161. That Theodore then assumed the title as Manager of BFR and after getting highly private and confidential information transferred to him from Craig in this capacity, he systematically began disabling BFR and began failing to pay bills WITH NO NOTICE to Eliot and his family who live in the home BFR and the children's trusts owns and maintains, including cancelling the homeowners insurance, shutting off electricity, security, etc. and began failing to pay the school expenses, health insurance and other expenses for the minor children that had been being paid monthly for eight years prior to the deaths of Simon and Shirley by Simon and Shirley.
162. That Theodore failed to provide any notice of his new title as Manager of BFR to the Members, Eliot's three minor children or Eliot and Candice as their Guardians.
163. That Eliot and Candice did not receive the bills of BFR, as they were sent to the Managers of BFR, Oppenheimer and are in the name of BFR, not Eliot and Candice individually and therefore Eliot and Candice could not access or pay these accounts that were transferred to Theodore by Craig.
164. After months of bills not getting paid, services being shut off randomly and without notice and avoidance of emails regarding the bills by the Managers, Theodore and Craig, several months after Theodore was claimed to be Manager after accepting the BFR Manager position, Theodore suddenly stated he was not the Manager of BFR and never accepted the role from Craig and had no idea what anyone was talking about that he was ever appointed, despite his having received information from Craig in that capacity.
165. That the revelation that Theodore was not Manager came about when a one, Walter Sahn, after having to retain counsel to attempt to speak with the manager of BFR, then contacted Oppenheimer and Theodore about who was the Manager of BFR was.
166. That Sahn was prompted to retain counsel by the fact that Sahn holds a mortgage on the home owned by BFR and interest was not being paid or addressed and no one claiming to be Manager would contact him in reply to his repeated written requests regarding his mortgage.

COUNTER COMPLAINT
Wednesday, July 30, 2014

167. That Sahm called Eliot to inform of the problems with the Managers of BFR, as he felt that he was being forced to foreclose, as no one responsible for BFR would return his or his attorney's pleas for information or his interest payment.
168. That Sahm was a close personal friend and business associate of Simon and he knew that Simon and Shirley had set the home up to protect Eliot and his family and he could not believe what was going on and put this all in writing to Theodore, Spallina and Craig.
169. That months after Theodore and Craig refused to respond to Eliot's numerous correspondences regarding the status of BFR and who the Manager was and the fact that bills BFR is responsible for were not getting paid and leaving both BFR and Eliot's family at risk, Craig suddenly did an about face and states via email to Eliot that Theodore never accepted the position and that she was still Manager, despite her prior claims that Theodore had accepted the position and she transferred the information to him months earlier based on her belief that Theodore was the Manager.
170. That this seemed outrageous, especially where Theodore had started acting on behalf of BFR and paying bills that he choose to be important and using other payments to extort Eliot that if he did not back off his complaints against Spallina, Moran, Tescher and himself, Eliot would get nothing.
171. That Theodore had acted to pay some bills of BFR at first after accepting the position as Manager of BFR and then as Theodore began to shut down utilities and put his family at risk, including three minor children, others, including but not limited to Tescher, Spallina and Manceri tried to force Eliot to take illegal distributions from the Estates and Trusts before they would give him any inheritance funds to either he or his family, in efforts to gain an implied consent to the criminal activity taking place in the Estates and Trusts.
172. That with the intentional delays caused in the inheritances to Eliot's family and the use of their home funds and children's school trust funds to depletion that were not replenished as originally claimed by Spallina, the timing was ripe for them to attempt to state that if Eliot did not drop his charges and take distributions that he knew were illegal and steeped in Fraud, that he and his family would be starved out, the children removed from their school, etc. as again BFR paid all these expenses of their family for many prior years.

173. Then, after learning that Eliot was alleging Extortion with this Court³ and other investigators, Theodore suddenly claimed in an email to Eliot that he was not the Manager of BFR, nor ever the Manager of BFR and was just paying some bills of BFR from Estate and Trust funds out of the kindness of his heart and acted as if he knew nothing about BFR and his acceptance of the Manager position Craig stated he accepted when transferring him all the bills and personal and confidential

³ That on September 04, 2013, ELIOT filed Docket #TBD, in the estate of Simon, a "NOTICE OF EMERGENCY MOTION TO FREEZE ESTATES OF SIMON BERNSTEIN DUE TO ADMITTED AND ACKNOWLEDGED NOTARY PUBLIC FORGERY, FRAUD AND MORE BY THE LAW FIRM OF TESCHER & SPALLINA, P.A., ROBERT SPALLINA AND DONALD TESCHER ACTING AS ALLEGED PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES AND THEIR LEGAL ASSISTANT AND NOTARY PUBLIC, KIMBERLY MORAN: MOTION FOR INTERIM DISTRIBUTION DUE TO EXTORTION BY ALLEGED PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES AND OTHERS; MOTION TO STRIKE THE MOTION OF SPALLINA TO REOPEN THE ESTATE OF SHIRLEY; CONTINUED MOTION FOR REMOVAL OF ALLEGED PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES AND ALLEGED SUCCESSOR TRUSTEE."

And

That on October 10, 2013 Petitioner filed in Shirley's estate case Motions titled, (I) MOTION TO ORDER ALL DOCUMENTS BOTH CERTIFIED AND VERIFIED REGARDING ESTATES OF SHIRLEY AND SIMON (SIMON'S DOCUMENT ARE REQUESTED AS IT RELATES TO SHIRLEY'S ALLEGED CHANGES IN BENEFICIARIES) BE SENT TO ELIOT AND HIS CHILDREN IMMEDIATELY IN PREPARATION FOR THE EVIDENTIARY HEARING ORDERED BY THIS COURT (II) MOTION TO FOLLOW UP ON SEPTEMBER 13, 2013 HEARING AND CLARIFY AND SET STRAIGHT THE RECORD (III) MOTION TO COMPEL FOR IMMEDIATE, EMERGENCY RELIEF!!!, INTERIM DISTRIBUTIONS AND FAMILY ALLOWANCE FOR ELIOT, CANDICE & THEIR THREE MINOR CHILDREN DUE TO ADMITTED AND ACKNOWLEDGED FRAUD BY FIDUCIARIES OF THE ESTATE OF SHIRLEY AND ALLEGED CONTINUED EXTORTION (IV) MOTION TO CORRECT AND DETERMINE THE BENEFICIARIES OF THE ESTATE BASED ON PRIOR CLOSING OF THE ESTATE THROUGH FRAUD ON THE COURT BY USING FRAUDULENT DOCUMENTS SIGNED BY SIMON WHILE HE WAS DEAD AND POSITED BY SIMON IN THIS COURT WHEN HE WAS DEAD AS PART OF A LARGER FRAUD ON THE ESTATE BENEFICIARIES (V) MOTION TO ASSIGN NEW PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES AND ESTATE COUNSEL TO THE ESTATE OF SHIRLEY FOR BREACHES OF FIDUCIARY DUTIES AND TRUST, VIOLATIONS OF PROFESSIONAL ETHICS, VIOLATIONS OF LAW, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO ADMITTED AND ACKNOWLEDGED FRAUD, ADMITTED AND ACKNOWLEDGED FRAUD ON THE COURT, ALLEGED FORGERY, INSURANCE FRAUD, REAL PROPERTY FRAUD AND MORE (VI) MOTION FOR GUARDIAN AD LITUM FOR THE CHILDREN OF TED, P. Eliot > as I have previously stated in correspondence to you, I am not and never have been involved with Bernstein Family Realty, in any capacity. You have repeatedly referred to an email from August, 2013 in which Janet stated that I agreed to be the managing member of Bernstein Family Realty. I have repeatedly stated and written after August, 2013, as well as Robert Spallina, that I was never the managing member and I am not the managing member. If Janet inadvertently stated that I was, it has been clarified for you on multiple occasions that I am not. Please let this be another.

Therefore, please let this serve as another request to stop referring to me as the managing member of Bernstein Family Realty. Please stop having people contact me in relation to Bernstein Family Realty. Please stop having mail sent to me in relation to Bernstein Family Realty.

Thank you.

174. That Craig months later then stated she was still the Manager of BFR when she was pressed for an answer by Walter Sahm as to who the Manager was, as Sahm was threatening to foreclose and sue if someone did not give him answers about his Mortgage held with BFR, this after months that Sahm was misled with others as to who was responsible for BFR and his Mortgage and Interests due. From an email from Craig to Eliot this is further illustrated,

COMPLAINT

Walt and Pat,

Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware is currently the Manager of Bernstein Family Realty, however the Trusts that were paying the Bernstein household bills have been entirely depleted. The only remaining assets in each trust is a one third share of Bernstein Family Realty and nominal shares of LIC Holdings.

At one point we were told that Ted Bernstein would take over as Manager and we prepared paperwork to transfer responsibility, however that paperwork was never returned to us.

Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware is attempting to close these accounts and distribute the remaining assets, however Eliot and Candice Bernstein have refused to return the Releases sent to them last August. As such we remain Manager but we have no assets with which to assist the Bernsteins [sp Bernsteins]...

175. That Craig refused to get accountings for Trusts assets regarding the company LIC that Theodore is an Officer and Director of and without this information, attempted to claim that the children's school trusts had no value left was not true and yet she was going to attempt to close the accounts and transfer the remainder of any monies and other interests to Eliot but without notice then transferred everything to Theodore claiming he was the new Manager of BFR.
176. That as a fiduciary of BFR and the children's trusts Craig should have instead been notifying authorities of what was transpiring regarding the criminal activities and moving to protect the trusts and BFR from those involved and not abdicate her fiduciary duties and attempt to run and transfer the responsibilities, information and monies to those she knew Eliot was pursuing for civil torts and criminal acts.
177. That Eliot refused to take any of the remaining corpus of the Trusts or assume fiduciary responsibilities and told Craig, Worth and their counsel McCabe that as acting Fiduciaries they should immediately report the alleged and proven criminal acts involving Theodore, Spallina, Tescher, Manceri, Rose, Moran, Baxley et al. to the proper authorities and freeze everything to preserve the evidence and that Eliot was unwilling to release them in any capacities and accept any role as fiduciary until all these matters and their involvement in the matters were fully and legally resolved and reported to the proper authorities.

COUNTER COMPLAINT
Wednesday, July 30, 2014

178. That Craig, Worth and McCabe despite being requested repeatedly to report Fraud going on instead opted to try and remove Oppenheimer out of house of cards that was beginning to crumble and took abusive legal actions against Eliot and Candice to force them to become successor fiduciaries.
179. That Craig then hired a lawyer from Gray Robinson, defendant Steven Lessne, Esq. who called Eliot and Candice to tell them first that he was representing the Trusts of the three boys and also representing BFR in litigation in the Creditor claim of William Stansbury in the Estate and Trusts of Simon and Shirley, in the creditor case titled WILLIAM E. STANSBURY, Plaintiff v. TED S. BERNSTEIN; SIMON BERNSTEIN; LIC HOLDINGS, INC.; and ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, f/k/a ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, LLC., Defendants / Case #502012CA013933MBAA before Hon. Judge Blanc. BFR was also sued by Stansbury.
180. That Eliot disclosed to Lessne the problems regarding Craig, Worth and McCabe's involvement in BFR, the children's trusts and that no properly executed documents had been put forth proving their capacities in the entities they assumed.
181. That Eliot disclosed to Lessne the alleged Extortion of Eliot taking place involving Spallina, Tescher, Theodore, Manceri et al. and other criminal acts taking place in the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley.
182. That Eliot suggested to Lessne that Gray Robinson should sue Oppenheimer, Worth, Craig and McCabe for breaches of fiduciary duties, conspiracy, extortion and more and immediately report them all to the proper authorities.
183. That Lessne, after asking Eliot and Candice what they thought he should do in regards to the trust and BFR matters and after listening and discussing their strategies with them then informed Eliot and Candice that he was not really representing the Trusts and BFR but rather the Trustee of the Trusts,

COUNTER COMPANY

Craig/Oppenheimer and that he was not really representing BFR but rather Craig/Oppenheimer as Manager of BFR.

184. That Eliot informed Lessne that this sneaky trick to gain information from him while acting as his children's counsel and BFR's counsel was a violation of bar rules and more.
185. That Lessne misrepresented his role in the matters to Candice and Eliot and acted inappropriately in taking information regarding the matters under his false claims of who he was representing.
186. That on a cumulative scale, in relation to the ongoing Probate and Trust actions related, there are claims that the Wills and Trusts assets are valued at 40-100 million dollars, including but not limited to, the many Corporate Entities and Trusts established by Simon and Shirley while living, including but not limited to BFR and the children's trusts, with approximately one third of all assets either going to Eliot or his children or a combination of both depending on how this Court rules regarding the validity of the Wills and Trusts that have been challenged and already found fraught with Fraud, Fraudulent Notarizations, Improper Notarizations, Forgeries and more.
187. That due to a complete failure to follow Probate Rules, Trust Rules, Florida Statutes, Law, Attorney Conduct Codes and rampant Breaches of Fiduciary Duties there has been virtually no documents tendered for any trusts or entities sued hereunder, no transparency whatsoever since the beginning of Tescher, Spallina and Theodore's illegally gained reign as fiduciaries and counsel and this has significantly and catastrophically damaged Eliot, his family, creditors and others with intent.
188. That life insurance trust documents have gone missing and yet the missing trust filed a claim for insurance proceeds that were part of Simon's estate as evidenced in the ongoing Federal Civil Breach of Contract Lawsuit in IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS EASTERN DIVISION, Case No. 13cv3643, before the Hon. Judge Amy St. Eve, filed by an alleged Trustee, Robert Spallina, Esq. of Trust that does not legally exist in any form and he claims never to have seen.

COUNTER COMPLAINT
Wednesday, July 30, 2014

189. That when the fraudulent insurance claim was rejected for obvious reasons that the alleged beneficiary does not legally exist, a Breach of Contract lawsuit was then filed by Theodore who suddenly replaced Spallina as the Trustee of the Lost Trust.
190. That there is a missing Heritage Union Life Policy for approximately two million dollars.
191. That there are now claimed to be missing IRA beneficiaries and there have been alleged IRA account changes Post Mortem,
192. That there are missing accountings for the Estates and virtually every Corporate Entity and Trusts created by Simon and Shirley.
193. There are missing personal assets of Simon and Shirley including millions of dollars of jewelry, art and furnishings, which is under ongoing investigations.
194. That there is NOT A SINGLE SIGNED TAX RETURN FOR SIMON OR SHIRLEY produced within the LEGALLY DEFICIENT ACCOUNTING OF SIMON'S ESTATE ORDERED UPON RESIGNATIONS AND REMOVAL OF TESCHER AND SPALLINA.
195. That Tax Returns turned over to the Curator Benjamin Brown, Esq. of Simon's Estate by CBIZ and Lewin are also unsigned.
196. That there have been NO OTHER ACCOUNTINGS OF ANY OTHER TRUSTS or Corporate Entities held UNDER THE WILLS AND TRUSTS of Simon and Shirley.
197. That there has been FORGERY POST MORTEM IN SEVERAL INSTANCES, FRAUDULENT NOTARIZATIONS IN SEVERAL INSTANCE INCLUDING POST MORTEM and IMPROPER NOTARIZATIONS OF ALLEGED WILLS AND TRUSTS and more.
198. That through these dispositive document crimes in the Estates and Trusts, Dominion and Control of the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley were illegally overtaken by Theodore and his close personal friends and business associates, mostly Attorneys at Law sued herein, all misusing and abusing law to achieve a takeover illegally of the Estates, Trusts and other entities in order to convert the assets in a variety of subsequent frauds and other crimes both state and federally to improper parties.

199. That it is alleged that Theodore and Pamela Simon were inappropriately notified of privileged, confidential and sensitive information of their disinheritance in the Estates, Trusts and Corporate Entities sued hereunder by Tescher and Spallina, prior to Simon's death.
200. That it is alleged that this inappropriately privileged, confidential and sensitive disclosed information was disclosed by Tescher and Spallina without knowledge and consent of Simon.
201. That Theodore and Pamela were bitter, angered and enraged⁴ upon learning this information and a series of events described in Eliot's first Petition in the Estates of Simon and Shirley unfolded in efforts to force Simon to make changes to he and Shirley's long established Estate plans and Trusts to include them back into them.
202. That Simon never made these changes while alive and only after his mysterious, unexpected death were changes attempted to be made through POST MORTEM criminal acts and civil torts against the true and proper Beneficiaries.
203. That Eliot files several of the following Counts on the advice of Federal Judge Amy St. Eve of the Illinois Court in an Order dated March 17, 2014, whereby she stated,

Instead, Eliot is seeking damages against Tescher and Spallina for other claims, namely, fraudulent conversion, breach of fiduciary duty, legal malpractice, abuse of the legal process, common law conversion, civil conspiracy, and negligence in connection with the administration of Simon Bernstein's Estate in the Probate Court of Palm Beach County, Florida. Rule 14(a) does not authorize Eliot to seek any such relief in the present lawsuit because Eliot is not facing any liability in the first instance.

COUNT 1 - CIVIL CONSPIRACY

204. This is an action for Civil Conspiracy under Florida Statutes.
205. Plaintiffs hereby reiterate and incorporate herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 203, inclusive.
206. That as with any conspiracy, all of the facts regarding the actions of each of the defendants is largely unknown at this time and with ongoing investigations and new production documents that reveal even more alleged criminal acts and civil torts, more is being learned every day but one thing is for certain in this illegal legal conspiracy, the primary participants known at this time are licensed Attorneys at Law who have acted together to deprive Eliot and his family of legal rights through further abuse of process and complex illegal legal frauds constructed to obstruct justice and deny Eliot of due process and procedure and his and his children's inheritances.
207. That Theodore, on the day Simon died on September 13, 2012 alleged that Simon was murdered and filed a Palm Beach County Sheriff report already evidenced herein, claiming that Simon's girlfriend poisoned Simon.
208. That Theodore, on the day Simon died on September 13, 2012 alleged that Simon was murdered and ordered an Autopsy⁵ be done, alleging that Simon's girlfriend poisoned Simon.
209. That Simon may have been murdered but now a growing body of evidence uncovered involves proven and further alleged FELONY criminal misconduct by the Defendants in combination.
210. That Simon may have been murdered not by his girlfriend but by those involved in the criminal conspiracy that has taken place to illegally seize Dominion and Control of the Estates and Trusts of Shirley and Simon and loot their assets to the tune of between $20-100 Million dollars and deprive Eliot and his family of their inheritances.

COUNCIL COMPLAINT

211. That Simon may have been murdered not by his girlfriend but by those involved in the criminal conspiracy to steal intellectual properties worth billions upon billions of dollars, a conspiracy that has already been filed in a RICO and ANTTTRUST lawsuit, already embodied herein, whereby there are allegations that ATTORNEYS AT LAW and others put a bomb in the Minivan of Eliot to murder he and his family, have made repeated and reported death threats to Eliot and more.
212. That Eliot is the midst of attempting to bring about a change in the legal system in efforts to root out systemic corruption at the highest levels by a rogue group of criminals disguised as Attorneys at Law, Judges, Politicians and more.
213. That Eliot has been targeted as a related case to Anderson, in efforts to silence his efforts to take a large bite out of crime in New York and Florida, through a complete violation of his personal property rights, privacy rights and more.
214. That this lawsuit and all the other related Probate cases and other legal cases Eliot is in are a coordinated and conspiratorial to harm Eliot and his family through legal process abuse and RICO type activities that use the legal system to deprive victims of their due process rights against those that hold seats of power and honor.
215. That this legal conspiracy may relate to other legal actions Eliot is currently involved in as described in Eliot's first Petition in the Estate cases⁶, which are again involving conspiracy charges against primarily Attorneys at Law. Several of the defendants in each case are similar.

⁶ That on May 6, 2013 Petitioner filed an "EMERGENCY PETITION TO: FREEZE ESTATE ASSETS, APPOINT NEW PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES, INVESTIGATE FORGED AND FRAUDULENT DOCUMENTS SUBMITTED TO THIS COURT AND OTHER INTERESTED PARTIES, RESCIND SIGNATURE OF ELIOT BERNSTEIN IN ESTATE OF SIMON/SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN AND MORE." 216. That Simon may have been murdered but not by his girlfriend as alleged, as he may have been talking with State and/or Federal Authorities regarding his knowledge in Proskauer Rose's alleged involvement in the Sir Robert Allen Stanford Ponzi scheme⁷.
217. That Eliot is pursuing Defendants, Proskauer Rose LLP, Gerald Lewin, CPA and Albert Gortz, Esq. as the main initial parties involved in the theft of Simon and Eliot's Intellectual Properties and companies that were set up to hold those assets, worth an estimated billions of dollars and that they are also centrally involved now in the Estates, Trusts and Corporate Entity torts committed.
218. That the conspiracy has reached into the Estates and Trusts, again through corruption involving complex legal frauds committed through misuse of the legal system now by new Attorneys at Law acting as Officers of this Court, now committed in efforts to deprive Eliot and his family of their inheritances to interfere and hinder their efforts to bring about justice in several of the other now related legal battles Eliot and they are involved in.
219. That new evidence reveals that Eliot and his family have been targeted by high ranking members of the legal community (disciplinary department members, judges and attorneys at law) illegally misusing Joint Terrorism Task Force funds and resources to specifically Obstruct Justice in the prior cases by targeting them and surveilling them directly to interfering with their rights to due process and procedure.
220. That Simon and Shirley left vast wealth to their beneficiaries under their years of elaborate estate plans, costing thousands upon thousands of dollars to set up these trusts, business entities and other vehicles. Simon and Shirley went to Proskauer for Estate planning in 2000 primarily to protect their interests in Eliot's technologies but fired them upon learning of their involvement in the stolen Intellectual Properties.

221. That Simon and Shirley's interests in the technologies and companies that held them is missing from the Estates and Trusts at this time.
222. That Spallina contacted Lewin and Proskauer to find out where the stocks were that they held for the companies they formed to hold the Intellectual Properties and did not receive any information back.
223. That Defendant's Oppenheimer and JP Morgan were both initially involved in Eliot's technologies and signed various agreements with the companies that held the Intellectual Properties, see <http://iviewit.tv/CompanyDocs/Appendix%20A/>.
224. That all of these complex estate plans, including multiple layers of trusts, business entities and other vehicles have been seized illegally and interfered with by various of the Defendants, acting alone and/or in concert with other Defendants and assets have been converted to improper parties through a combination of frauds and thefts to defeat Eliot of his inheritance, including but not limited to, the shares of the companies that hold the Intellectual Properties.
225. That in order to achieve this looting of the Estate, Trusts and Corporate Entities, financial and accounting information due to the Beneficiaries was further suppressed and denied and now it is learned in some instances even destroyed, to keep the information from the true and proper Beneficiaries, in violation of probate statutes, trust statutes, state law, federal law, attorney conduct codes and through breach upon breach of fiduciary duties.
226. That all parties sued hereunder have acted alone and in combination with others to violate the trusts, business entities and other vehicles to fraudulently remove assets from the corpuses of the trusts, business entities and other vehicles, in various artifices to defraud the true and proper Beneficiaries.

COUNTER COMPLAINT

227. That the Oppenheimer Trusts and BFR are only a fraction of the trusts and entities that criminal activity is alleged taking place in but that directly relates to the overall conspiracy to rob and loot the Estates and further to extort Eliot, once Dominion and Control of the Estates and Trusts was seized illegally through the elaborate series of document forgeries and fraud.
228. That many of these frauds have already been brought before the Court in the Petitions and Motions filed by Eliot in the Estate cases before this Court, which remain unheard since May of 2013, which ties all of these Defendants together as part of the larger conspiracy in a variety of criminal acts and civil torts, again most of these illegal legal crimes were committed by Officers of this Court under the Tutelage of Your Honor.
229. That Craig was introduced to Eliot via the former Executors/Personal Representatives/Co-Trustees/Counsel of the Estate of Simon, Tescher and Spallina, who have since resigned and been removed from all Bernstein family matters in the midst of the arrest and conviction of their Notary Public/Legal Assistant for Fraudulent Notarizations, admitted Forgery (including forging documents POST MORTEM for Simon and five other forgeries of other interested parties), admitted POST MORTEM ALTERING of Trust documents by Robert Spallina in statements to PBSO⁸, POST MORTEM closing of the Estate of Shirley with a dead Executor/PR, Simon, improper distributions made against the advice of counsel by the alleged fiduciary Theodore and many more crimes are alleged and under ongoing investigations in the Estates, Trusts and Corporate Entities of Simon and Shirley.
230. That Spallina without any legal authority informed Eliot that he had transferred the BFR Manager position after Simon died to Craig, in violation of the BFR Operating Agreement which calls for a vote of the Members, Eliot and Candice's three minor children are the only Members with Eliot and Candice as their Guardians.

⁸ See footnote 1, PBSO January 2014 Sheriff Report

231. That Craig claimed that she was the Successor Trustee to Stanford Bank as Trustee of the children's school trust funds. The transfer of funds allegedly occurred when the infamous Sir Robert Allen Stanford was arrested for the second biggest Ponzi scheme in the United States and the banks he owned and operated were seized by US federal authorities and the monies had to be transferred to a new financial institution.
232. That it is alleged that large amounts of monies were lost in the transfers but again financial information regarding these transfers is limited due to suppression, denial and destruction of documents.
233. That several of the account executives working the Bernstein family investment accounts at Stanford, including those handling the children's trusts, transferred from the now infamous Sir Robert Allen Stanford banks to Oppenheimer, then to JP Morgan or vice versa, as the records provided thus far are incomplete and unclear regarding the personal transfers.
234. That on information and belief, Simon Bernstein immediately prior to his sudden and unexpected death, where it has been alleged by Theodore Bernstein and others that he may have been murdered, was contacting JP Morgan and Oppenheimer regarding missing funds in the transfer of his accounts and his family's accounts from Stanford to Oppenheimer then to JP Morgan or vice versa, including but not limited to, trust funds of Eliot's three minor children.
235. That this Court in the Probate cases has recently sealed a document as "Attorney Client Privileged" that Eliot is precluded from publishing or distributing but can be found online at a number of sources due to its widespread distribution by Eliot prior to his knowledge that claims of Privilege were levied in attempts to cover up the document that both threatens Eliot with forcefulness and aggressiveness and displays a wide variety of Breaches of Fiduciary Duties by Fiduciaries in the Estates and Trusts, primarily Theodore and violations of Attorney Conduct Codes and more by the Attorneys at Law mentioned in the letter that was sent by Theodore directly and solely to Eliot, where neither are Attorneys at Law, nor clients of one another. That the letter exhibits further conspiratorial activities.

236. That in keeping with the Court Order, Eliot will not republish the email herein as directed but will direct the Court to available sites where it exists publically and eternally in the World Wide Web, including, <http://www.ripoffreport.com/r/alan-rose-of-mrachek-fitzgerald-rose/west-palm-beach-florida-33401/alan-rose-of-mrachek-fitzgerald-amp-rose-alan-b-rose-suppress-free-speech-cover-up-1149197> and <http://tedbernsteinreport.blogspot.com/2014/07/alan-rose-john-pankauski-and-ted.html> , hereby incorporated by reference in entirety herein.

237. That Hon. Judge Colin claimed in hearings that it was obvious that the language threatening to use force and aggression with Eliot could not have meant to cause him physical harm or bodily injury and Eliot can understand that in normal circumstances lawyers using these terms may not mean harm but more strategy but in this unique case where the lawyers are accused of fraud, forgeries and theft and may face lengthy prison sentences, perhaps that language should be re-read in light of the claims of Murder of Simon, prior Death Threats to Eliot and CAR BOMBINGS and reported to the proper authorities by this Court.

238. Washington, D.C. Insider Says Senator John Sampson Covered-Up Court Corruption

BREAKING NEWS: Washington, D.C. insider says NYS Senator John Sampson covered-up evidence of widespread corruption in New York Surrogate's Courts.

Source says Sampson was first threatened, but then successfully bribed, to bury evidence involving countless state and federal crimes involving billions of dollars.

Syracuse, Rochester, Albany, White Plains, Brooklyn and Manhattan Surrogate's Courts are said to top the list of areas involved.

It was revealed on Wednesday that a New York State Court administrative insider said that top state officials had been briefed by the feds on pending federal corruption indictments that would include employees of New York's Office of Court Administration (a/ka/ "OCA"). Most court employees, including judges, are employed by OCA.

It was further confirmed by the Washington, D.C. source that judges, with ties to banks, would be among those charged.

COUNTER COMPLAINT
Wednesday, July 30, 2014

April 3, 2013

Robert Moosy, Jr., Section Chief
Criminal Section, Civil Rights Division
US Department of Justice
950 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, D.C. 20530

RE: FORMAL COMPLAINT AGAINST NEW YORK STATE EMPLOYEES INVOLVING
CONSTITUTIONAL VIOLATIONS, INCLUDING WIDESPREAD ILLEGAL WIRETAPPING

Dear Mr. Moosy,

At some point in time shortly after 9/11, and by methods not addressed here, these individuals improperly utilized access to, and devices of, the lawful operations of the Joint Terrorism Task Force (the JTTF). These individuals completely violated the provisions of FISA, ECPA and the Patriot Act for their own personal and political agendas. Specifically, these NY state employees essentially commenced black bag operations, including illegal wiretapping, against whomever they chose- and without legitimate or lawful purpose.

This complaint concerns the illegal use and abuse of such lawful operations for personal and political gain, and all such activity while acting under the color of law. This un-checked access to highly-skilled operatives found undeserving protection for some connected wrong-doers, and the complete destruction of others- on a whim, including the pre-prosecution priming of falsehoods (set-ups). The aftermath of such abuse for such an extended period of time is staggering.

It is believed that most of the 1.5 million-plus items in evidence now under seal in Federal District Court for the Eastern District of New York, case #09cr405 (EDNY) supports the fact, over a ten-year-plus period of time, of the illegal wiretapping of New York State judges, attorneys, and related targets, as directed by state employees.

One sworn affidavit, by an attorney, confirms the various illegal activity of Manhattan's attorney ethics committee, the Departmental Disciplinary Committee (the DDC), which includes allowing cover law firm operations to engage in the practice of law without a law license. Specifically, evidence (attorney affidavits, etc.) supports the claim that Naomi Goldstein, and other DDC employees supervised the protection of the unlicensed practice of law. The evidence also shows that Ms. Goldstein knowingly permitted the unlicensed practice of law, over a five-year-plus period of time, for the purpose of gaining access to, and information from, hundreds of litigants.

Evidence also supports the widespread illegal use of black bag operations by the NYS employees for a wide-range of objectives: to target or protect a certain judge or attorney, to set-up anyone who had been deemed to be a target, or to simply achieve a certain goal. The illegal activity is believed to not only have involved attorneys and judges throughout all of the New York State, including all 4 court-designated ethics departments, but also in matters beyond the borders of New York.

The set-up of numerous individuals for an alleged plot to bomb a Riverdale, NY Synagogue. These individuals are currently incarcerated. The trial judge, U.S. District Court Judge Colleen McMahon, who publicly expressed concerns over the case, saying, I have never heard anything like the facts of this case. I don't think any other judge has ever heard anything like the facts of this case. (2nd Circuit 11cr2763).

The concerted effort to fix numerous cases where confirmed associates of organized crime had made physical threats upon litigants and/or witnesses, and/or had financial interests in the outcome of certain court cases.

The judicial and attorney protection/operations, to gain control, of the $250 million-plus Thomas Carvel estate matters, and the pre-prosecution priming of the $150 million-plus Brooke Astor estate.

The wire-tapping and ISP capture, etc., of DDC attorney, Christine C. Anderson, who had filed a lawsuit after being assaulted by a supervisor, Sherry Cohen, and after complaining that certain evidence in ethics case files had been improperly destroyed. (See SDNY case #07cv9599 - Hon. Shira A. Scheindlin, U.S.D.J.)

The eToys litigation and bankruptcy, and associates of Marc Dreier, involving over $500 million and the protection by the DDC of certain attorneys, one who was found to have lied to a federal judge over 15 times.

The set-up and chilling of effective legal counsel of a disabled woman by a powerful CEO and his law firms, resulting in her having no contact with her children for over 6 years.

The wrongful detention for 4 years, prompted by influential NY law firms, of an early whistleblower of the massive Wall Street financial irregularities involving Bear Sterns and where protected attorney-client conversations were recorded and distributed.

The blocking of attorney accountability in the $1.25 billion Swiss Bank Holocaust Survivor settlement where one involved NY admitted attorney was ultimately disbarred- in New Jersey. Only then, and after 10 years, did the DDC follow with disbarment. Gizella Weisshaus v. Fagan.

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court is the entity that is legally responsible for enforcing the Rules of Professional Conduct governing the conduct of attorneys in New York State. The Appellate Division Departments have created grievance committees that are charged with the investigation of complaints against attorneys. Within the First Judicial Department the Departmental Disciplinary Committee of the Appellate Division investigates complaints against attorneys. The New York State Commission on Judicial Conduct was created by the State Constitution and is charged with investigating complaints against Judges and Justices of the Unified Court System.

According to the 2009 Report of the Commission on Judicial Conduct, there were 1,923 complaints filed in 2008. Yet of these complaints only 262 were investigated and of those, 173 were dismissed. This hearing will examine the processes and procedures that are followed by the various agencies charged with the responsibility of enforcing the rules and regulations that must be followed by the Judiciary and the Bar in the State of New York. It will also evaluate public satisfaction with the disciplinary process.

247. That Defendants worked together in concert and with others to interfere and deprive in combinations and separately to then begin a Pattern and Practice of frauds to destroy BFR and the children's trusts, in efforts to deplete Eliot of resources and then extort Eliot to either accept improper distributions to his children by participating in their fraud or else deprive Eliot of his and his children's inheritances.
248. That the Defendants worked together in concert and with others to interfere and deprive in combinations and separately to illegally seize Dominion and Control of the Estates and Trusts and delay and interfere with expectancies and inheritances of Eliot and his children.
249. That the Defendants worked together in concert and with others to interfere and deprive in combinations and separately to illegally seize Dominion and Control of Telenet Systems and delay and interfere with Eliot and Candice's income and interests in that company.
250. That once Defendants had seized Dominion and Control of the Estates, Trusts and Corporate Entities and diminished available funds to Eliot's family, they began an extortive attempt to have Eliot either participate in the fraudulent activity they were caught in or to face intentional financial calamity they now controlled.
251. That when Eliot refused and instead continued to pursue investigations with civil and criminal authorities, Defendants worked together in concert and with others to interfere and deprive in combinations and separately to interfere and deprive Eliot and his family of inheritances due them and deplete trust funds in his three minor children's trusts and leave them with no income that had been set up by Simon and Shirley in their estate plans virtually cutting them off of essential monies owed them.
252. That Eliot and his children had been set up financially through entities created by both Simon and Shirley while living and these finances were intended to continue after their deaths through their ELABORATE estate plans, some of these entities done exclusively for Eliot and his family's PROTECTION, which were designed to provide monthly income and school funds for his family into the future for many years.

253. That intentional delays in Eliot's inheritance have been caused in Shirley's Estate and Trusts where ELIOT is a one third beneficiary by the former PR's and Trustees of Simon's Estate attempted to claim that Simon had changed Shirley's beneficiaries from her three children to her ten grandchildren, through a series of fraudulent documents and frauds on this Court.
254. That Eliot's siblings Theodore and his sister Pamela had been wholly disinherited and considered predeceased for Shirley and Simon's Estate and Trusts in 2008. When Shirley died in 2010 her Trusts that held millions of dollars in assets then became irrevocable with Eliot, Lisa and Jill and their lineal descendants as the only ultimate beneficiaries.
255. That both Simon and Shirley completed mirrored Wills and Trusts in 2008, according to deposition statements made by Donald Tescher on July 09, 2014, and these plans wholly left their Estates and Trusts and all properties to Eliot, Lisa and Jill and their lineal descendants only.
256. That documents recently provided by Court Order in the Estate of Simon have revealed that the 2008 Wills and Trusts of Shirley and Simon's appear materially different and not mirrored and these documents have already been questioned in prior filed and unheard motions of Eliot's as to their legal validity.
257. That Shirley died with her 2008 Will and Trusts as the Dispositive documents, with Simon as a beneficiary while alive and Trustee and only Eliot, Lisa and Jill and their lineal descendants as the ultimate beneficiaries. Simon could neither add nor subtract beneficiaries to Shirley's plans once she died as the trusts became irrevocable, despite efforts by the former PR/Executors/Trustees, Tescher, Spallina and Ted to illegally achieve changes to the Beneficiaries through a series of proven fraudulent and admitted forged and fraudulently altered documents and then subsequent distributions were made as if these changes were legal and this to the advantage of Theodore and Pamela and to the disadvantage of others.

258. That Simon in no way could execute a Power of Appointment to make any changes to the Class of Beneficiaries (Eliot, Lisa and Jill and their lineal descendants) once she passed away. Yet, efforts were made to change the Beneficiaries of these irrevocable trusts and assets were then sold and distributions made to knowingly improper parties by the former PR's, Fiduciaries and Counsel for Simon and Shirley's Estates and Trusts.
259. That in 2012 Shirley's Estate was reopened by Hon. Judge Martin Colin due to Fraud committed by Tescher, Spallina, TSPA, Theodore, Manceri and Moran et al. and remains open today, pending ongoing litigation.
260. That in 2012 it is ALLEGED that Simon annulled his 2008 Will (instead of Amending it) and replaced it with an alleged 2012 Will and further allegedly Amended his 2008 Trusts and replaced it with a 2012 Amended and Restated Trust, only six weeks before he passed suddenly and unexpectedly.
261. That in 2013 it is proven in this Court in the Estate and Trust cases that POST MORTEM, Simon closed the Estate of Shirley, while dead for four months acting as Personal Representative, yes dead and done with Fraudulently Notarized, Fraudulent and Forged documents that has already led to one an arrest for felony acts.
262. That in 2013 it was learned from the Governor Rick Scott's Office Notary Public Division that the notarizations on the ALLEGED 2012 Will and Amended and Restated Trust were improper and where Simon cannot now said to have been present on the date the document is alleged signed, due to such improper notarization and legally void for this and other defects. The documents have been challenged before this Court for the 2012 Will and Trusts of Simon.

263. That Eliot has assisted the PBSO financial crimes division with information regarding alleged further criminal acts that are ongoing and primarily committed by Officers of this Court and Fiduciaries of this Court and due to this fact they have conspired to deny Eliot and his family, including three minor children of their inheritances, have stolen monies from Eliot and his children's pre-funded trusts and companies and then knowing that they were harming Eliot and his family, they proceeded to repeatedly attempt to force Eliot to either partake in illegal activities or starve and possibly be foreclosed on and evicted from their home and more.
264. That these efforts to foreclose on the home and starve out Eliot and his family completely defeats the wishes of both Simon and Shirley Bernstein in the elaborate estate planning mechanisms they put in place to protect Eliot and his family's assets, in some instances these plans were solely for Eliot and his family.

277. That Eliot and/or his children had expectancy from the Trusts, Estates and Corporate Entities of Simon and Shirley Bernstein sued hereunder and there has been intentional interference with the expectancy through tortuous conduct that caused and continue to cause damages.
278. That Spallina, Tescher, Theodore, Craig, Worth, Manceri, Rose, Pankauski and others have interfered with Eliot and his children's inheritances through a number of schemes and artifices to defraud and by falsifying dispositive documents to convert assets to improper parties and seize Dominion and Control of various trusts and estates assets with intent and destroy, suppress and deny Eliot and his family of their inheritances.
279. That Eliot and his family have been denied access to Estate and Trust documents and accountings for now four years in Shirley's Estates and Trusts and two years in Simon's Estates and Trusts in efforts to deny them their inheritances and convert the properties to improper parties.
280. That despite the fact that Simon and Shirley's Estate and Trusts were to be distributed to Eliot and his children immediately upon their deaths to provide income for their health, maintenance, schooling and more, through intentional egregious acts of bad faith and criminal activity Eliot and his family have not received any inheritance in almost two years, which was intentionally caused to harm them.

COUNT 6 – CIVIL FRAUD

282. This is an action for Civil Fraud under Florida Statutes.
283. Plaintiffs hereby reiterate and incorporate herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 281, inclusive.
284. That a complex set of frauds have taken place in the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley and some are already proven such as improper notarizations of Wills and Trusts of Simon, proven fraudulently notarized Waivers in Shirley's Estate, proven Fraud on this Court through use of a deceased person, Simon, to act as Personal Representative to close an Estate through documents filed by the law offices of Tescher and Spallina on behalf of a dead PR and with no notice to the Court for months that the PR that was filing the documents had passed and this was done with scienter with this Court POST MORTEM.
285. That when Simon died the Estate of Shirley had not been closed and in order to attempt to change her Beneficiaries of her Estate and Irrevocable Trusts, the scheme needed Simon to be alive and close the Estate and then attempt to use an ALLEGED Power of Appointment to make changes that could not be made legally, therefore Simon was used POST MORTEM for several months while dead to close Shirley's Estate and then try and make changes to her Beneficiaries, again, POST MORTEM.
286. That similar fraudulent activity is taking place with the children's Trusts, BFR, the Estates, virtually all of the Trusts and entities sued hereunder, where documents are not complete, there are missing signatures, assets are being stolen and funds improperly used by the fiduciaries in self-dealing transactions that have benefited the Defendants.

290. Plaintiffs hereby reiterate and incorporate herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 288, inclusive.
291. That the fiduciaries of the Estates, Trusts and Corporate Entities sued hereunder are alleged to have gained their fiduciary positions through a series of fraudulent documents and other acts and thus EVERY action they have taken forward is a breach of fiduciary duties through combinations of self-dealing transactions, excessive compensations, excessive and unjustified legal fees (including billing for time to respond to investigators and more), improper and illegal investment decisions and a mass of pilfering and stealing of assets.
292. That despite being aware of their involvement in criminal acts, the fact that they are under ongoing investigations, the fact that the dispositive documents have been challenged and found fraught with fraud and more, the fiduciaries, primarily now Theodore since the counsel he brought to the Bernstein family, Tescher and Spallina, are removed, continues to act and abuse his alleged fiduciary powers to harm and deceive beneficiaries despite his absolute and irrefutable conflicts of interest and adverse interests that factually preclude his involvement further as fiduciary.

293. That despite Theodore knowing and being informed repeatedly of the reasons he cannot now serve in any fiduciary capacities in the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley he continues with his counsel to act in disregard of his fiduciary duties to resign, in efforts to liquidate assets in fire sale self-dealing transactions before he is removed.
294. That Theodore is alleged by his counsel to have took distributions against the advice of counsel as claimed by Spallina to PBSO, all in efforts to loot further the Estates and Trusts before he is fully removed in every capacity in the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley.

301. That several instances of Fraud on this Court by Officers and Fiduciaries of this Court are already proven and this represents irrefutable evidence of Abuse of Process, similar to the abuse of process in this action, whereby the Courts are being used to attempt to diffuse and cover up the crimes that have taken place in the children's school trusts and BFR.
302. That there are multiple abuses of process that are expensive and abusive to the Beneficiaries, including legal harassment in efforts to further harm beneficiaries by causing expensive delays in estate administration and billing up outrageous attorney fees and costs through frivolous and fraudulent pleadings.
303. Then using this ill gained information to file a lawsuit to further harass Eliot and Candice.
304. That Gray Robinson knowing of Fraud allegations against Craig, Worth and others involved in these matters, then tried to escape from their fiduciary obligations to report the crimes and filed this instant action with a separate Judge at this Court and without notifying the Court, the new Judge or the authorities of the illegally activities alleged against their client Oppenheimer et al.

Respondents, Eliot Ivan Bernstein and Candice Michelle Bernstein, on behalf of their minor children ("Respondent(s)"), and where the minor children are alleged qualified beneficiaries, hereby Objects in entirety to the Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware, "Final Accountings (for the period July 30, 2010 through May 26, 2014)" for the following alleged and legally deficient trusts:

- A. The Daniel Bernstein Irrevocable Trust Dated September 7, 2006 (Exhibit A) provided by Oppenheimer Trust Company of New Jersey;
- B. The Jake Bernstein Irrevocable Trust Dated September 7, 2006; (Exhibit B) provided by Oppenheimer Trust Company of New Jersey

Wednesday, January 22, 2015
OBJECTION TO FINAL ACCOUNTING

C. The Joshua Bernstein Irrevocable Trust Dated September 7, 2006; (Exhibit C) provided by Oppenheimer Trust Company of New Jersey put forth by the former resigned alleged Successor Trustees, Oppenheimer Trust Company of New Jersey dba Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware, and their counsel Steven A. Lessne, Esq. as permitted by the Florida Trust Code and any other germane statutes and in support thereof, Respondents allege as follows:

GENERAL OBJECTIONS TO FINAL ACCOUNTING

1. Object that no individual or partner has signed, verified or dated the purported accounting from Morrison, Brown, Argiz & Farra, LLC (MBAF).
2. Object no one has signed, verified or dated the purported accounting from the resigned Trustee Oppenheimer Trust Company.
3. Object to all withdrawals of trust funds by Oppenheimer Trust Company and allege that they were done fraudulently and without proper documentation and converted to improper parties as part of a larger fraud on the beneficiaries of the children's trusts and the beneficiaries of the Estate and Trusts of Simon and Shirley Bernstein who set up the children's trusts as part of their estate plans.
4. Object that three trusts do not indicate what law firm prepared them and are legally deficient and executed improperly.
5. Object that there are no prior accountings attached to the alleged Final Accounting for any of the three trusts, from their date of alleged inception on September 07, 2006 through July 30, 2010.
6. Object that there is not legally executed trust documents attached for the trusts to the final accounting and none have been provided to beneficiaries upon repeated demands for fully executed documents. This and other problems with the accountings violate Florida Trust Codes 736.0801, 736.0810 (1)&(3), 736.0804, 736.0802 and 736.0809.

7. The trust documents are not fully executed, all are missing initials on the pages (the initials are for minor children at the time?), signature pages are missing entirely for Daniel Bernstein and Trustees named in the document conflict with each other making knowing who the Trustee actually was in the alleged trust document impossible to determine.
8. Object that there are no prior legally required accountings at each change of Trusteeship.
9. Object that there are no prior accountings or documents dating to the inception of the trusts.
10. Object that the trusts listed in this complaint provided by Oppenheimer do not match the statements the monies are withdrawn from, they are funds from accounts held by the SIMON BERNSTEIN IRREVOCABLE TRUST U/A 9/7/06 in each instance and not those listed in Oppenheimer's complaint and final accounting exhibited herein as Exhibits A B & C.
11. Alleged Trustees for the three trusts are alleged to be:
 - a. Traci Kratish, Esq./CPA – Alleged original trustee,
 - b. Steven Greenwald, Esq. (“Greenwald”) – Alleged original trustee. The three trusts have conflicting statements on Page 1 and Page 2 as to who the Trustee is, naming Greenwald as the original trustee despite Kratish being named on Page 1 as the trustee.
 - c. Larry Bishens, Esq. – Alleged original named Successor Trustee to Steven Greenwald, Esq. or Traci Kratish, depending on how the Court determines this conflict in the document,
 - d. Stanford Trust Company – Alleged Successor Trustee,
 - e. Oppenheimer Trust Company of New Jersey – Alleged Successor Trustee,

- f. Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware – Alleged Successor Trustee,
 - g. Unknown, Successor to Oppenheimer of Delaware who resigned as Successor Trustee, to be determined by this Court.
12. Object that there are no signed trust tax returns attached for any years from the trusts inception to present provided for in the final accounting for each trust.
 13. Object that there are no legal fee and fiduciary fee backup data for any services rendered by legal counsel or fiduciaries.
 14. Object globally that all starting and ending balance entries are unreconcilable due to the failure to attach prior year accountings to this final accounting that accounts only for a portion of the trusts existence.
 15. Object that the accountings do not meet generally accepted accounting principles and violate trust codes and statutes regarding final accountings.
 16. Object that the accountings do not comply with 736.08135 Trust accountings.--
 17. Object that the accountings do not comply with 736.0813 Duty to inform and account.-

SPECIFIC OBJECTIONS TO FINAL ACCOUNTING
DANIEL BERNSTEIN, JOSHUA BERNSTEIN AND JACOB BERNSTEIN

OBJECTIONS - SUMMARY PAGE

18. That the objections to the accounting for all three alleged trusts are similar and to save the court and everyone's time and expense this objection while relating to Daniel specifically will be used for all three trust objections unless the Court would like separate filings for each trust that will be almost identical to this. Individual differences will be cited accordingly.
19. The following items on the "Summary" need further investigation, thus Respondent objects as set forth below. In addition, Respondent objects as no substantiating documents were provided, thus the Respondent reserves his right to further object to same.

20. Object to the Summary Accounting in toto in that it accounts only for the Period 07/30/2010 through 05/26/2014 and has no account history prior to that time, from September 07, 2006 when the trust is alleged to have been funded.
21. Account balances beginning and ending cannot be confirmed or reconciled and therefore without prior accounting information to validate them, the whole accounting is fatally flawed and unreconcilable.
22. Object there is no financial information, physical evidence, tangible things or backup relating to the Summary that was provided with the Final Accounting that evidence, support or relate to the summary accounting entries. The lack of prior accounting to validate the entries fails to provide accounting according to generally accepted accounting principles, as there is no way for the beneficiaries to determine the validity of any of the Summary Accounting as it is merely numbers on a page for a limited period of the alleged trusts and no documentation on any entry.

OBJECTIONS TO RECEIPTS OF PRINCIPAL
Receipts Subsequent to Inventory (Valued when received)

Pages 1-2 – Receipts

23. Object there is no financial information, physical evidence, tangible things or backup relating to the Receipts that were provided with the final accounting that evidence, support or relate to the Receipts. This fails to provide an accounting of receipts according to generally accepted accounting principles and there is no way for the beneficiaries to determine the validity of any of the receipt accounting as it is merely numbers on a page for a limited period.

24. Object there is no receipt information prior to inventory and the time when Oppenheimer Trust Company of New Jersey is alleged to have received trusteeship or thereafter.
25. Object to the Receipt Pages in toto in that they account only for the Period 07/30/2010 through 05/26/2014.
26. Object to Receipt entries in toto as there are no actual receipts attached to confirm or deny any of the entries.
27. Object to the 09/20/2010 LIC Holdings Inc 6 Units - $0.00 entry.
 - a. Object. No accounting for LIC Holdings Inc. has been provided to the beneficiaries of these trusts since its inception and in the Estate of Simon where they are listed as part of the Amended Inventory as "N/A." Ted Bernstein has refused all requests to turn over these records for over two years to beneficiaries of these trusts and beneficiaries of Simon's Estate to define their interest in this entity and the many entities that are held under it.
 - b. No tax returns are attached for LIC Holdings Inc. so object to arbitrary valuation provided
 - c. That the beneficiaries have sent repeated requests to Oppenheimer requesting information be gathered by them regarding LIC Holdings, acting as alleged Trustee for the beneficiaries who hold interest in this entity. The repeated demands for the accounting have failed.
28. No financial information, physical evidence, tangible things or backup relating to any account documents, statements, valuations, stock certificates, buy-sell or any other information regarding LIC Holdings, Inc. were provided with the final accounting that evidence or relate to this transaction for review by Respondents.

29. The Accounting fails to comply with the Florida Trust Code with regard to LIC Holdings, Inc. as no information regarding LIC has been provided.
30. That LIC Holdings, Inc. ("LIC") and its subsidiaries and successors are the companies owned by Simon Bernstein and the three trusts also own significant interests in them. To this date, per conversations with the Curator, Benjamin Brown, Esq. and the new Personal Representative Brian O'Connell for the Estate of Simon it was learned that no records of LIC et al. have been tendered to the Estate regarding these entities as well. Beneficiaries and interest holders of LIC also have received no records or copies of stock holdings, tax returns, etc. and the company has been listed on the Amended Inventory and Final Accounting in the Simon Bernstein Estate as N/A. No Final Accounting can be completed without information regarding the value of these entities.
31. That requests for legally required information regarding LIC to Janet Craig of Oppenheimer Trust Company by the beneficiaries of the alleged Trusts, which allegedly hold stock in LIC has been denied. Thus the Estate and the children's Trusts appear denied these suppressed records relating to the financials of LIC, which Theodore Bernstein appears in control of and which he apparently refuses to release in violation of law to any parties he is legally obligated to disclose to.
32. That the following emails evidence Oppenheimer's failure to provide the legally required information upon demand.

Janet, while this addresses a small part of my requests in the email sent below, I do not see any reply to the other matters information was requested for, including the information on LIC Holdings. Did you request the information for LIC Holdings as requested below and if so can you please send me the letters sent to them and their response. I do also note that Ted and Spallina were copied on your response to my private and confidential email and I ask by what authority and whose direction are you copying this PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL information to these parties on, please address each party separately? Please confirm that you did not blind copy any other parties on the emails. In addition to the records for LIC Holdings, please provide the same information for Bernstein Family Realty LLC as requested below for LIC Holdings, as you were Manager and the shares for both are listed under the trusts you are still trustee of. I am still unclear under what authority you made Ted manager, knowing of the disputes going on and that my children are the owners of the company, as this seems a breach of fiduciary duties and trust. That you did this after first stating that you were turning over the Manager position to me and then without notice or approval of my family appointing Ted appears preposterous because he volunteered, how was he contacted about volunteering, please provide accurate details into how that occurred and who was involved in the decision. Did you contact him or he you?

That prior to my father's passing I am aware of information that he was concerned about his Oppenheimer accounts and these concerns had him making inquiries for accounting of all of his assets, in all of his family members Oppenheimer accounts and personal accounts, as he was concerned the balances were incorrect and did not think his assets were being handled properly and transferred correctly from the various banks they were shuffled to by his brokers from the transition from Stanford Bank (infamous for Sir Robert Allen Stanford Ponzi), to JP Morgan and Oppenheimer, please provide all past records of all Bernstein accounts or letters you may possess in regards to his inquiries immediately prior to his passing regarding the accounts and all of your firms responses. Also, I was informed that each child had 1.2 shares of LIC Holding and your accounting statement is only reflecting 1, please provide details regarding the discrepancies. Also, under Bernstein Family Realty you show each child owning 0.334 shares, so collectively 1 share, please clarify how many shares were issued and to whom and when and provide all records and minutes, etc. regarding the stocks? Also, please provide all records you received from Legacy Bank regarding the prior Legacy Account that was being used to pay my family bills, prior to Spallina redirecting this to you and converting it instead to the children's school trust funds to pay those bills, instead of Bernstein Family Realty LLC's accounts. As I am sure you are aware, Spallina's Law Firm was involved in fraud and forgery and their notary public was arrested for fraud and this would further make sharing my information with them without my express consent, as my emails maintain confidentiality statements on them as well, and again, for the third time this unauthorized transfer of the records to adversaries of my family seems a gross breach of fiduciary and more.

I will continue to send you all requests for funds since I have yet to see proper papers on the trusts and LLC as they are missing notaries in some instances and other documents you sent are incomplete with missing signatures as mentioned in my prior correspondences and with all this forgery and fraud going on with Spallina et al. it is hard to assess what has transpired in these accounts. I feel that you have obligations as Trustee and former Manager to verify if these monies and assets have been handled properly and have taken whatever actions and legal actions necessary to protect the beneficiaries you are responsible for and the funds you over sighted. Please go through this email and the email request below and answer each and every request separately as to how you're handling each issue. Finally, if you plan on sending this email to any other parties please get my consent if you are transferring my correspondences.

Subject: Joshua Jacob and Daniel Bernstein Trusts

Janet, please provide the following based on the information that you sent to me whereby Oppenheimer is the trustee for the trusts for Joshua, Jacob and Daniel. As such under Article 5 (specifically 5.5), accountings must be given to the beneficiary of each trust at least annually (quarterly if a Corporate Trustee is serving). The accountings must show the assets held in trust and all receipts and disbursements. Other than the 6 shares of LIC Holdings, Inc. stock, I am not sure what other assets there are. The current trustee has the right to ask prior trustees for an accounting if none was previously provided to you (refer to last sentence of 5.5). No accountings have been previously provided me or my children. Provide a complete accounting that includes investment accounts, bank accounts, trust tax returns, etc. for all years. As I am the legal guardian for my children, I am asking for all these as they were supposed to have been provided by you.

There are 6 shares of LIC Holdings Inc. stock in each trust. Oppenheimer should request on behalf of the trust beneficiaries pursuant to Florida Statute 607.1602 for inspection of the corporate records from LIC Holdings, Inc. The request should include all years from corporate inception to present. Florida Statute 607.1601 describes corporate records:

607.1601 Corporate records.—

- (1) A corporation shall keep as permanent records minutes of all meetings of its shareholders and board of directors, a record of all actions taken by the shareholders or board of directors without a meeting, and a record of all actions taken by a committee of the board of directors in place of the board of directors on behalf of the corporation.
- (2) A corporation shall maintain accurate accounting records. (at the very least, you should request accounting and financial records of LIC Holdings including income tax returns, general ledgers, balance sheets, P&L statements, bank statements, loan agreements or guarantees)
- (3) A corporation or its agent shall maintain a record of its shareholders in a form that permits preparation of a list of the names and addresses of all shareholders in alphabetical order by class of shares showing the number and series of shares held by each.
- (4) A corporation shall maintain its records in written form or in another form capable of conversion into written form within a reasonable time.
- (5) A corporation shall keep a copy of the following records:
 - (a) Its articles or restated articles of incorporation and all amendments to them currently in effect;
 - (b) Its bylaws or restated bylaws and all amendments to them currently in effect;
 - (c) Resolutions adopted by its board of directors creating one or more classes or series of shares and fixing their relative rights, preferences, and limitations, if shares issued pursuant to those resolutions are outstanding;
 - (d) The minutes of all shareholders' meetings and records of all action taken by shareholders without a meeting for the past 3 years;
 - (e) Written communications to all shareholders generally or all shareholders of a class or series within the past 3 years, including the financial statements furnished for the past 3 years under s. 607.1620;
 - (f) A list of the names and business street addresses of its current directors and officers; and
 - (g) Its most recent annual report delivered to the Department of State under s. 607.1622.

Please advise LIC Holdings, Inc. that you are seeking to inspect the records in good faith and for the purpose of determining if misappropriation of corporate assets for improper purposes has previously or is currently taking place.

I will be happy to go to the LIC office on my children's behalf and copy the records requested if they have any problems copying them. I will provide you with a copy as well. As my schedule is flexible please make the request with a 5 day notice as the statute requires and I will co-ordinate the time with the secretary in the office or they can have them ready for pick up.

- a. Object – Do not believe that Oppenheimer was properly elected as Successor Trustee of the alleged trust and that these trusts and the accountings are part of a larger fraud on the beneficiaries.
- b. Object – where were the assets for two months, where is an accounting for this period?
87. “There has been no activity for the Jake Bernstein Irrevocable Trust since May 26, 2014 in the Oppenheimer Trust Co account.”
- a. Object – There is no accounting to reflect this and this statement is for Jacob not Daniel.
88. “33% interest in Bernstein Family Realty LLC - Bernstein Family Realty LLC owns a 100% interest in a personal residence located 2753 N.W. 34th St., Boca Raton, Florida. We are informed that this property is the primary residence of minors, Joshua, Jake, and Daniel Bernstein, and their parents, Eliot and Candice Bernstein. According to the Palm Beach Property Appraiser website, the property was purchased on June 18, 2008 for $360,000. We have received information that there are currently two (2) mortgages secured by the property. The first mortgage is a promissory note dated June 20, 2008, which was amended February 15, 2012 for $110,000. Interest is due annually at 3.5%, and the principal was due June 19, 2014. The second mortgage dated July 9, 2008 for $365,000. The loan terms were not included with the record mortgage in Palm Beach County.”
- a. Object – No documentation and accounting for the mortgages and promissory notes.
89. “To the best of our knowledge, we have reflected the following carrying values for a 33% interest in Bernstein Realty LLC [emphasis added]:
- $120,000 - Purchase price of personal residence ($$360,000 * 1/3$)

- i. Object - no accounting or other information to support this "best of our knowledge" guesstimate
 - $ 36,667 - Balance due on first mortgage ($$110,000 * 1/3$)
 - ii. Object - no accounting or other information to support this "best of our knowledge" guesstimate.
 - $121,667 - Balance due on second mortgage ($$365,000 * 1/3$)
 - iii. Object - no accounting or other information to support this "best of our knowledge" guesstimate.
90. Object that the Accounting is deficient as it fails to comport with the Florida Trust Code, among other things, the accounting classifies multiple transactions as, "Mortgages" and "Interest" yet provides no other information.

WHEREFORE, Respondents hereby object to the "Final Accounting" for the time period of 07/30/2010 through 05/26/2014, and requests that this Court enter an Order:

1. For attorneys' fees and costs,
2. Denying the Final Accounting and demanding a new properly executed Final Accounting be tendered to this Court;
3. Demand that all records be produced to support the Final Accounting to all appropriate parties, necessary to validate the Final Accounting;
4. Demand all records in the possession of Oppenheimer Trust Company be turned over to the beneficiaries for inspection;
5. Report Oppenheimer Trust Company and their attorney Lessne to proper authorities for administering trusts without legally executed documents and fraudulently crafted documents submitted to this Court in each trust as part of another fraud on this Court, committed again by the Attorneys at Law acting as Officers of this Court in conjunction with the fiduciaries appointed by this Court and Your Honor, similar to the felony misconduct already proven in the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley Bernstein.

PETITION FOR FORMAL, DETAILED, AUDITED AND FORENSIC ACCOUNTING AND DOCUMENT ANALYSIS

91. Respondents state that all costs for an audited forensic accounting and forensic document analysis should be billed to Oppenheimer Trust Company of New Jersey and Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware who have caused the need for now a thorough analysis of the Trusts and accountings due to the legally insufficient trust documents and this wholly legally insufficient accounting.

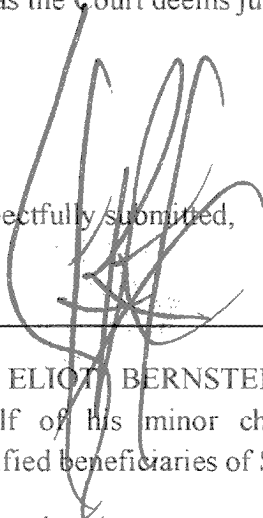

WHEREFORE, Respondents respectfully request that this Court enter an Order:

1. Demanding a Full Forensic Accounting of the Final Accounting, the Dispositive Documents and all documents and records relating to the trusts, and,

2. Granting such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

4.1 Discretionary Distributions. The Trustee shall pay or apply such sums of principal from this Trust as in the Trustee's discretion are necessary or advisable for Beneficiary's health, education, support, and maintenance.

4.2 Distribution of Principal. When Beneficiary has reached age 21, the trustee shall distribute one-half (1/2) of the corpus of trust to Beneficiary plus accrued income. ARTICLE 5 PROVISIONS GOVERNING TRUSTEES

The following provisions apply to all Trustees appointed under this Trust Agreement:

5.1 Incapacity of Trustee. If any Trustee becomes disabled, he or she will immediately cease to act as Trustee. If a Trustee who ceases to serve because of a disability, or who is suspended, thereafter recovers from that disability or consents to the release of relevant medical information, he or she may elect to become a Trustee again by giving written notice to the then serving Trustee, and the last Trustee who undertook to serve will then cease to be a Trustee until another successor Trustee is required.

5.3 Power to Name Other Trustees. Whenever a successor Trustee is required and that position is not filled under the terms specified in this Trust Agreement, an individual Trustee ceasing to serve (other than a Trustee being removed) may appoint his or her successor, but if none is appointed, the remaining Trustees, if any, or the beneficiary shall appoint a successor Corporate Trustee. The appointment will be by a written document (including a testamentary instrument) delivered to the appointed Trustee. In no event may the Settlor ever be appointed as the Trustee under this Trust Agreement nor shall a Successor trustee be appointed that will cause this trust to be a grantor trust.

5.4 Powers of Successor Trustees. Successor Trustees will have all powers granted to the original Trustee, except that only an Independent Trustee will succeed to the powers vested exclusively in the Independent Trustee.

DANIEL BERENSON IRREVOCABLE TRUST

5.5 Accountings. Accountings must be given to the beneficiary of each trust at least annually (quarterly if a Corporate Trustee is serving). The accountings must show the assets held in trust and all receipts and disbursements. A beneficiary's written approval of an accounting will be final and binding upon that beneficiary and all persons represented by him or her as to all matters disclosed in that accounting. In any event, if a beneficiary fails to object to an accounting within six months of receiving it, his or her approval is conclusively presumed. A successor Trustee may require the prior Trustee to render a full and final accounting.

5.6 Acts by Other Fiduciaries. The Trustee is not required to question any acts or failures to act of the fiduciary of any other trust or estate, and will not be liable for any prior fiduciary's acts or failures to act. The Trustee can require a beneficiary who requests an examination of another fiduciary's actions or omissions to advance all costs and fees incurred in the examination, and if the beneficiary does not, the Trustee may elect not to proceed or may proceed and offset those costs and fees directly against any payment that would otherwise be made to that beneficiary.

5.7 Court Supervision. The Settlor waives compliance by the Trustee with any law requiring bond, registration, qualification, or accounting to any court.

5.8 Compensation. Each Trustee is entitled to be paid reasonable compensation for services rendered in the administration of the Trust. Reasonable compensation for a Corporate Trustee will be its published fee schedule in effect when its services are rendered unless otherwise agreed in writing, and except as follows. Any fees paid to a Corporate Trustee for making principal distributions, for termination of the trust, and upon termination of its services must be based solely on the value of its services rendered, not on the value of the trust principal. During the Settlor's lifetime the Trustee's fees are to be charged wholly against income (to the extent sufficient), unless directed otherwise by the Settlor in writing.

5.9 Indemnity. Any Trustee who ceases to serve for any reason will be entitled to receive (and the continuing Trustee shall make suitable arrangements to provide) reasonable indemnification and security to protect and hold that Trustee harmless from any damage or liability of any nature that may be imposed upon it because of its actions or omissions while serving as Trustee. This protection, however, does not extend to a Trustee's negligent actions or omissions that clearly and demonstrably result in damage or liability. A prior Trustee may enforce these provisions against the current Trustee or against any assets held in the Trust, or if the prior Trustee is an individual, against any beneficiary to the extent of distributions received by that beneficiary. This indemnification right will extend to the estate, personal representatives, legal successors, and assigns of a Trustee.

5.10 Successor Trustee. In the event the initial Trustee, Steven I. Greenwald, resigns or ceases to serve as Trustee, then and in that event, I hereby appoint Larry V. Bishins to serve as Trustee.

ARTICLE 6
PROTECTION OF INTERESTS

The interest of any beneficiary under this Trust Agreement, in either income or principal, may not be anticipated, alienated, or in any other manner assigned by the beneficiary, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, and will not be subject to any legal process, bankruptcy proceedings, or the interference or control of the beneficiary's creditors or others.

ARTICLE 7
FIDUCIARY POWERS

The Settlor grants to the Trustee full power to deal freely with any property in the Trust. The Trustee may exercise these powers independently and without the approval of any court. No person dealing with the Trustee need inquire into the propriety of any of its actions or into the application of any funds or assets. The Trustee shall, however, exercise all powers in a fiduciary capacity for the best interest of the beneficiary of this Trust or any trust created under it. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustee is given the following discretionary powers in addition to any other powers conferred by law:

7.1 Type of Assets. Except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to hold funds uninvested for such periods as the Trustee deems prudent, and to invest in any assets the Trustee deems advisable even though they are not technically recognized or specifically listed in so-called "legal lists," without responsibility for depreciation or loss on account of those investments, or because those investments are non-productive, as long as the Trustee acts in good faith.

7.2 Original Assets. Except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to retain the original assets it receives for as long as it deems best, and to dispose of those assets when it deems advisable, even though such assets, because of their character or lack of diversification, would otherwise be considered improper investments for the Trustee.

7.3 Tangible Personal Property. To receive and hold tangible personal property; to pay or refrain from paying storage and insurance charges for such property; and to permit any beneficiaries to use such property without either the Trustee or beneficiaries incurring any liability for wear, tear, and obsolescence of the property.

7.4 Specific Securities. To invest in assets, securities, or interests in securities of any nature, including (without limit) commodities, options, futures, precious metals, currencies, and in domestic and foreign markets and in mutual or investment funds, including funds for which the Trustee or any affiliate performs services for additional fees, whether as custodian, transfer agent, investment advisor or otherwise, or in securities distributed, underwritten, or issued by the Trustee or by syndicates of which it is a member; to trade on credit or margin accounts (whether secured or unsecured); and to pledge assets of the Trust Estate for that purpose.

7.5 Property Transactions. To buy, sell, pledge, exchange, or lease any real or personal property, publicly or privately, for cash or credit, without court approval and upon the terms and conditions that the Trustee deems advisable; to execute deeds, leases, contracts, bills of sale, notes, mortgages, security instruments, and other written instruments; to abandon or dispose of any real or personal property in the Trust which has little or no monetary or useful value; to improve, repair, insure, subdivide and vacate any property; to erect, alter or demolish buildings; to adjust boundaries; and to impose easements, restrictions, and covenants as the Trustee sees fit. A lease will be valid and binding for its full term even if it extends beyond the full duration of the Trust.

7.6 Borrow Money. To borrow money from any source (including the Trustee in its nonfiduciary capacity), to guarantee indebtedness, and to secure the loan or guaranty by mortgage or other security interest.

7.7 Maintain Assets. To expend whatever funds it deems proper for the preservation, maintenance, or improvement of assets. The Trustee in its discretion may elect any options or settlements or exercise any rights under all insurance policies that it holds. However, no fiduciary who is the insured of any insurance policy held in the Trust may exercise any rights or have any incidents of ownership with respect to the policy, including the power to change the beneficiary, to surrender or cancel the policy, to assign the policy, to revoke any assignment, to pledge the policy for a loan, or to obtain from the insurer a loan against the surrender value of the policy. All such power is to be exercised solely by the remaining Trustee, if any, or if none, by a special fiduciary appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.8 Advisors. To employ and compensate attorneys, accountants, advisors, financial consultants, managers, agents, and assistants (including any individual or entity who provides investment advisory or management services, or who furnishes professional assistance in making investments for the Trust) without liability for any act of those persons, if they are selected and retained with reasonable care. Fees may be paid from the Trust Estate even if the services were rendered in connection with ancillary proceedings.

7.9 Indirect Distributions. To make distributions, whether of principal or income, to any person under age 21 or to any incapacitated person according to the terms of this Trust Agreement by making distributions directly to that person whether or not that person has a guardian; to the parent, guardian, or spouse of that person; to a custodial account established by the Trustee or others for that person under an applicable Uniform

Gift to Minors Act or Uniform Transfers to Minors Act; to any adult who resides in the same household with that person or who is otherwise responsible for the care and well-being of that person; or by applying any distribution for the benefit of that person in any manner the Trustee deems proper. The receipt of the person to whom payment is made will constitute full discharge of the Trustee with respect to that payment. No distributions may be made to the Settlor under this Section.

7.10 Non-Pro Rata Distribution. To make any division or distribution in money or in kind, or both, without allocating the same kind of property to all shares or distributees, and without regard to the income tax basis of the property. Any division will be binding and conclusive on all parties.

7.11 Nominee. Except as prohibited by law, to hold any assets in the name of a nominee without disclosing the fiduciary relationship; to hold the property unregistered, without affecting its liability; and to hold securities endorsed in blank, in street certificates, at a depository trust company, or in a book entry system.

7.12 Custodian. To employ a custodian or agent ("the Custodian") located anywhere within the United States, at the discretion of the Trustee but at the expense of the Trust, whether or not such Custodian is an affiliate of the Trustee or any person rendering services to the Trust; to register securities in the name of the Custodian or a nominee thereof without designation of fiduciary capacity; and to appoint the Custodian to perform such other ministerial functions as the Trustee may direct. While such securities are in the custody of the Custodian, the Trustee will be under no obligation to inspect or verify such securities nor will the Trustee be responsible for any loss by the Custodian.

7.13 Settle Claims. To contest, compromise, arbitrate, or otherwise adjust claims in favor of or against the Trust, to agree to any rescission or modification of any contract or agreement, and to refrain from instituting any suit or action unless indemnified for reasonable costs and expenses.

7.14 Corporate Rights. To vote and exercise any option, right, or privilege to purchase or to convert bonds, notes, stock (including shares or fractional shares of stock of any Corporate Trustee), securities, or other property; to borrow money for the purpose of exercising any such option, right, or privilege; to delegate those rights to an agent; to enter into voting trusts and other agreements or subscriptions; to participate in any type of liquidation or reorganization of any enterprise; and to write and sell covered call options, puts, calls, straddles, or other methods of buying or selling securities, as well as all related transactions.

7.15 Partnership Interests. To hold interests in sole proprietorships, general or limited partnerships, joint ventures, business trusts, land trusts, limited liability companies, and other domestic and foreign forms of organizations; and to exercise all rights in connection with such interests as the Trustee deems appropriate, including any powers applicable to a non-admitted transferee of any such interest.

7.16 Self-Dealing. To exercise all its powers even though it may also be acting individually or on behalf of any other person or entity interested in the same matters. The Trustee, however, shall exercise those powers at all times in a fiduciary capacity, primarily in the interest of the beneficiaries of the Trust. Despite any other provision of this Trust Agreement, no Trustee may participate in the decision to make a discretionary distribution that would discharge a legal support obligation of that Trustee. No Trustee who has made a disclaimer, either individually or as a Trustee, may exercise any discretion in determining the recipient of the disclaimed property. All power to make such distributions, or to determine recipients of disclaimed property, will be exercised solely by the remaining Trustees, if any, or if there are no other Trustees then serving, by the person or persons named to serve as the next successor Trustee, or if there are none, by a special Trustee appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.17 Expenses. An Independent Trustee may determine how expenses of administration and receipts are to be apportioned between principal and income.

7.18 Terminate Small Trusts. To exercise its discretion to refrain from funding or to terminate any trust whenever the value of the principal of that trust would be or is too small to administer economically, and to distribute the remaining principal and all accumulated income of the trust as provided in Section 7.9 to the income beneficiary of that trust. The Trustee shall exercise this power to terminate in its discretion as it deems prudent for the best interest of the beneficiaries at that time. This power cannot be exercised by the Settlor or any beneficiary, either alone or in conjunction with any other Trustee, but must be exercised solely by the other Trustee, or if none, by a special Trustee appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.19 Allocations to Income and Principal. To treat premiums and discounts on bonds and other obligations for the payment of money in accordance with either generally accepted accounting principles or tax accounting principles and, except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to hold nonproductive assets without allocating any principal to income, despite any laws or rules to the contrary. The Trustee in its discretion may exercise the power described in Section 738.104 of the Florida Statutes to adjust between principal and income, as appropriate, and, in addition, may convert any income interest into a unitrust interest, or a unitrust interest to an income interest, as it sees fit, all as provided in Section 738.1041 of the Florida Statutes, despite any provision of those sections to the contrary.

7.20 Use of Income. Except as otherwise provided in this Trust Agreement, and in addition to all other available sources, to exercise its discretion in the use of income from the assets of the Trust to satisfy the liabilities described in this Trust Agreement, without accountability to any beneficiary.

7.21 Valuations. In making distributions or allocations under the terms of this Trust Agreement to be valued as of a particular date, the Trustee may use asset valuations obtained for a date reasonably close to that particular date (such as a quarterly closing date before or after that date) if, in the Trustee's judgment, obtaining appraisals or other determinations of value on that date would result in unnecessary expense, and if in the Trustee's judgment, the fair market value as determined is substantially the same as on that actual date. This paragraph will not apply if valuation on a specific date is required to preserve a qualification for a tax benefit, including any deduction, credit, or most favorable allocation of an exemption.

7.22 Incorporation. To incorporate any business or venture, and to continue any unincorporated business that the Trustee determines to be not advisable to incorporate.

7.23 Delegation. To delegate periodically among themselves the authority to perform any act of administration of any trust.

7.24 Advances. To make cash advances or loans to beneficiaries, with or without security.

7.25 Investment Manager. To employ any investment management service, financial institution, or similar organization to advise the Trustee and to handle all investments of the Trust and to render all accountings of funds held on its behalf under custodial, agency, or other agreements. If the Trustee is an individual, these costs may be paid as an expense of administration in addition to fees and commissions.

7.26 Depreciation. To deduct from all receipts attributable to depreciable property a reasonable allowance for depreciation, computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied.

7.27 Disclaim Assets or Powers. To disclaim any assets otherwise passing or any fiduciary powers pertaining to any trust created hereunder, by execution of an instrument of disclaimer meeting the requirements of applicable law generally imposed upon individuals executing disclaimers. No notice to or consent of any beneficiary, other interested person, or any court is required for any such disclaimer, and the Trustee is to be held harmless for any decision to make or not make such a disclaimer.

7.28 Transfer Situs. To transfer the situs of any trust or any trust property to any other jurisdiction as often as the Trustee deems advisable, and if necessary to appoint a substitute or ancillary Trustee to act with respect to that property. The Trustee may delegate to the substitute Trustee any or all of the powers given to the Trustee; may elect to act as advisor to the substitute Trustee and receive reasonable compensation for that service; and may remove any acting or substitute Trustee and appoint another, or reappoint itself, at will.

7.29 Related Parties. To enter into any transaction on behalf of the Trust despite the fact that another party to that transaction may be: (i) a business or trust controlled by the Trustee, or of which the Trustee, or any director, officer, or employee of the Corporate Trustee, is also a director, officer, or employee; (ii) an affiliate or business associate of any beneficiary or the Trustee; or (iii) a beneficiary or Trustee under this Trust Agreement acting individually, or any relative of such a party.

7.30 Additional Powers for Income-Producing Real Estate. In addition to the other powers set forth above or otherwise conferred by law, the Trustee has the following powers with respect to any income-producing real property which is or may become a part of the Trust Estate:

- To retain and operate the property for as long as it deems advisable;
- To control, direct, and manage the property, determining the manner and extent of its active participation in these operations, and to delegate all or any part of its supervisory power to other persons that it selects;
- To hire and discharge employees, fix their compensation, and define their duties;
- To invest funds in other land holdings and to use those funds for all improvements, operations, or other similar purposes;
- Except as otherwise provided with respect to mandatory income distributions, to retain any amount of the net earnings for working capital and other purposes that it deems advisable in conformity with sound and efficient management; and
- To purchase and sell machinery, equipment, and supplies of all kinds as needed for the operation and maintenance of the land holdings.

ARTICLE 8
SUBCHAPTER S STOCK

Despite any other provisions of this Trust Agreement, if a trust created in this instrument is to become the owner of, or already owns, stock in a corporation that has an election in effect (or one that proposes to make an election) under Section 1362 of the Internal Revenue Code (an "S Corporation"), and that trust would not otherwise be permitted to be an S Corporation shareholder, the following provisions will apply:

8.1 Electing Small Business Trust. The Trustee in its discretion may elect for the trust to become an Electing Small Business Trust ("ESBT") as defined in the Internal Revenue Code.

INITIALS _____
DANIEL EDWINSTEIN REVOCABLE TRUST

8.2 Qualified Subchapter S Trust. If the Trustee does not cause the trust to become an ESBT, the Trustee shall set aside the S Corporation stock in a separate trust for the current income beneficiary of such trust, so that a Qualified Subchapter S Trust ("QSST") election under Section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code can be filed with respect to that trust. The Trustee shall hold each share as a separate QSST for the persons described above, and each such person will be the sole beneficiary of his or her QSST. To the greatest extent possible, the Trustee shall administer each QSST under the terms of the trust from which it was derived, but subject to the following overriding provisions:

(a) Consent. The Trustee shall notify the beneficiary of each separate trust promptly that a QSST election must be filed with the Internal Revenue Service. Thereafter, each beneficiary shall file a timely and proper QSST election with the Internal Revenue Service. If a beneficiary fails or refuses to make the QSST election, the Trustee shall make an ESBT election for that trust. If the beneficiary does make the QSST election, then his or her separate trust will be administered as set forth below.

(b) Income Payments. During the beneficiary's life, the Trustee shall pay all net income of the trust to the beneficiary (and only to that beneficiary) in quarterly or more frequent installments. The beneficiary's income interest in the trust will terminate on the earlier of his or her death or the termination of the trust under its terms.

(c) Principal Invasions. If the beneficiary is otherwise entitled to receive principal distributions, the Trustee may distribute principal from that separate trust during the beneficiary's life only to or for the benefit of that beneficiary (and no one else).

(d) Final Distribution. If the QSST is terminated during the beneficiary's life, the Trustee shall distribute all remaining assets of that separate trust to that beneficiary. If the beneficiary dies before that trust's termination, all remaining assets of the QSST are to be distributed as provided in the original trust, but subject to this article.

(e) Termination of QSST Status. If a separate trust would cease to qualify as an S Corporation shareholder, the Trustee in its discretion may: (i) make an ESBT election for that separate trust, or (ii) distribute all S Corporation stock to the beneficiary. The Trustee in its discretion also may convert a QSST to an ESBT, whether or not the beneficiary has consented to QSST treatment and, if the beneficiary consents, may convert an ESBT into a QSST.

PERPETUITIES PROVISION

Despite any contrary provisions of this Trust Agreement, from the creation of this Trust and for up to 21 years after the death of the last of the Settlor's grandparents' descendants who are living at the creation of this Trust, a trust beneficiary (which includes persons succeeding to the interest of a deceased beneficiary) will be entitled to terminating distributions only at the ages specified in this Trust Agreement. In all events, however, the share of each beneficiary will vest (in the beneficiary or his or her estate) immediately prior to the expiration of the 21 year period described above.

ARTICLE 10
ADMINISTRATION AND CONSTRUCTION

10.1 Rules for Distributions. In making distributions to beneficiaries under this Trust Agreement, the Trustee must use the following criteria.

(a) Other Resources. Whenever the Trustee has the authority to decide how much to distribute to or for the benefit of a beneficiary, the Trustee can make decisions without taking into account any information about the beneficiary's other available income and resources. The Trustee can make payments directly to a beneficiary or to other persons for the beneficiary's benefit, but it does not have to make payments to a court appointed guardian.

(b) Trustee's Decision. Absent clear and convincing evidence of bad faith, the Trustee's decisions as to amounts to be distributed will be final.

(c) Standard of Living. Distributions to a beneficiary for health, education, support, or maintenance are to be based on his or her standard of living, determined as of the date of the distribution.

10.2 Funding Gifts. The following rules will apply to funding gifts under this Trust Agreement.

(a) Pecuniary Gifts. All pecuniary gifts under this Trust Agreement that are paid by an in-kind distribution of assets must use values having an aggregate fair market value at the date or dates of distribution equal to the amount of this gift as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes.

(b) Adjustments. The Trustee shall select one or more dates of allocation or distribution for purposes of satisfying gifts and funding shares or trusts. The Trustee may make allocations before the final determination of federal estate tax, with those allocations being based upon the information then available to the Trustee.

and may thereafter adjust proportions among the shares or trusts if it is determined that the allocation should have been made differently.

10.3 Accumulated Income. Any income not distributed to the beneficiaries pursuant to either a mandatory direction or a discretionary power is to be incorporated into principal, at such intervals as the Trustee deems convenient.

10.4 Estate Tax on Included Property. If assets of any trust created under this Trust Agreement are included in a beneficiary's estate for federal estate tax purposes, the following will apply.

(a) Appointed Assets. If the beneficiary exercises a power of appointment over those assets, the Trustee is authorized to withhold from those assets the amount of estate taxes apportioned to them by applicable law, if the beneficiary does not make provisions for the payment of those taxes from other sources.

(b) Other Assets. If the beneficiary does not have or does not exercise a power of appointment over those assets, the Trustee will pay the estate taxes attributable to those assets. The estate taxes attributable to those assets will be the amount that the beneficiary's estate taxes are increased over the amount those taxes would have been if those assets had not been included in the beneficiary's gross estate.

(c) Certification and Payment. The Trustee may rely upon a written certification by the beneficiary's personal representative of the amount of the estate taxes, and may pay those taxes directly or to the personal representative of the beneficiary's estate. The Trustee will not be held liable for making payments as directed by the beneficiary's personal representative.

10.5 Transactions With Other Entities. The Trustee may buy assets from other estates or trusts, or make loans to them, so that funds will be available to pay claims, taxes, and expenses. The Trustee can make those purchases or loans even if it serves as the fiduciary of that estate or trust, and on whatever terms and conditions the Trustee thinks are appropriate, except that the terms of any transaction must be commercially reasonable.

ARTICLE II MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

11.1 Definitions. As used in this Trust Agreement, the following terms have the meanings set forth below:

(a) Trustees.

- (1) Independent Trustee means a trustee of a particular trust, either individual or corporate, who is not the Settlor or a beneficiary, and who is not a Related Person as to the Settlor or a beneficiary (if the Settlor or the beneficiary, respectively, is living and participated in that person's appointment). For purposes of this definition a beneficiary is a person who is a permissible distributee of income or principal, or someone with an interest in the trust in excess of five percent (5%) of its value, assuming a maximum exercise of discretion in his or her favor. Whenever this Trust Agreement requires an action be taken by, or in the discretion of, an Independent Trustee but no such Trustee is then serving, a court may appoint an Independent Trustee to serve as an additional Trustee whose sole function and duty will be to exercise the specified power.
- (2) Corporate Trustee means a trustee that is a bank, trust company, or other entity authorized to serve as a trustee under the laws of the United States or any state thereof that is not a Related Person to the Settlor. A bank or trust company that does not meet this requirement cannot serve as Trustee.

(b) Internal Revenue Code Terms.

- (1) Internal Revenue Code means the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, or successor provisions of future federal internal revenue laws.
- (2) The terms health, education, support, and maintenance are intended to set forth an "ascertainable standard," as described in the Internal Revenue Code and its associated Regulations. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, "health" means a beneficiary's physical and mental health, including but not limited to payments for examinations, surgical, dental, or other treatment, medication, counseling, hospitalization, and health insurance premiums; "education" means elementary, secondary, post-secondary, graduate, or professional schooling in an accredited institution, public or private, or attendance at other formal programs in furtherance of the beneficiary's spiritual, athletic, or artistic education, including but not limited to payments for tuition, books, fees, assessments, equipment, tutoring, transportation, and reasonable living expenses.

- (3) Related Person as to a particular individual is someone who is deemed to be "related or subordinate" to that individual under Section 672(c) of the Internal Revenue Code (as though that individual was a grantor).

(c) Other Terms.

- (1) Distributions that are to be made to a person's descendants, per stirpes, will be divided into equal shares, so that there will be one share for each living child (if any) of that person and one share for each deceased child who has then living descendants. The share of each deceased child will be further divided among his or her descendants on a per stirpes basis, by reapplying the preceding rule to that deceased child and his or her descendants as many times as necessary.
- (2) Disabled or under a disability means (i) being under the legal age of majority, (ii) having been adjudicated to be incapacitated, or (iii) being unable to manage properly personal or financial affairs because of a mental or physical impairment (whether temporary or permanent in nature). A written certificate executed by an individual's attending physician confirming that person's impairment will be sufficient evidence of disability under item (iii) above, and all persons may rely conclusively on such a certificate.
- (3) Removal of a Trustee for cause includes, without limitation, the following: the willful or negligent mismanagement of the trust assets by that individual Trustee; the abuse or abandonment of, or inattention to, the trust by that individual Trustee; a federal or state charge against that individual Trustee involving the commission of a felony or serious misdemeanor; an act of theft, dishonesty, fraud, embezzlement, or moral turpitude by that individual Trustee; or the use of narcotics or excessive use of alcohol by that individual Trustee.
- (4) The words will and shall are used interchangeably in this Trust Agreement and mean, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, that the Trustee must take the action indicated; as used in this Trust Agreement, the word may means that the Trustee has the discretionary authority to take the action but is not automatically required to do so.

11.2 Powers of Appointment. The following provisions relate to all powers of appointment under this Trust Agreement.

- (a) A general power of appointment granted to a person is one that can be exercised in favor of that person or his or her estate, his or her creditors, or the creditors of his or her estate.
- (b) A special power of appointment is any power that is not a general power.
- (c) A testamentary power of appointment (either general or special) is exercisable upon the powerholder's death by his or her Last Will or by a revocable trust agreement established by that person, but only by specific reference to the instrument creating the power. A "testamentary power of appointment" may not be exercised in favor of the person possessing the power.
- (d) In determining whether a person has exercised a testamentary power of appointment, the Trustee may rely upon an instrument admitted to probate in any jurisdiction as that person's Last Will, or upon any trust agreement certified to be valid and authentic by sworn statement of the trustee who is serving under that trust agreement. If the Trustee has not received written notice of such an instrument within six months after the powerholder's death, the Trustee may presume that the powerholder failed to exercise that power and will not be liable for acting in accordance with that presumption.

11.3 Notices. Any person entitled or required to give notice under this Trust Agreement shall exercise that power by a written instrument clearly setting forth the effective date of the action for which notice is being given. The instrument may be executed in counterparts.

11.4 Certifications.

(a) Facts. A certificate signed and acknowledged by the Trustee stating any fact affecting the Trust Estate or the Trust Agreement will be conclusive evidence of such fact in favor of any transfer agent and any other person dealing in good faith with the Trustee. The Trustee may rely on a certificate signed and acknowledged by any beneficiary stating any fact concerning the Trust beneficiaries, including dates of birth, relationships, or marital status, unless an individual serving as Trustee has actual knowledge that the stated fact is false.

(b) Copy. Any person may rely on a copy of this instrument (in whole or in part) certified to be a true copy by the Settlor; by any person specifically named as a Trustee (or successor Trustee); by any Corporate Trustee whether or not specifically named; or, if there are none of the above, by any then serving Trustee.

11.5 Applicable Law. All matters involving the validity and interpretation of this Trust Agreement are to be governed by Florida law. Subject to the provisions of this Trust Agreement, all matters involving the administration of a trust are to be governed by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the trust has its principal place of administration.

11.6 Gender and Number. Reference in this Trust Agreement to any gender includes either masculine or feminine, as appropriate, and reference to any number includes both singular and plural where the context permits or requires. Use of descriptive titles for articles and paragraphs is for the purpose of convenience only and is not intended to restrict the application of those provisions.

11.7 Further Instruments. The Settlor agrees to execute such further instruments as may be necessary to vest the Trustee with full legal title to the property transferred to this Trust.

11.8 Binding Effect. This Trust Agreement extends to and is binding upon the Settlor's Personal Representative, successors, and assigns, and upon the Trustee.

ARTICLE 5
PROVISIONS GOVERNING TRUSTEES

The following provisions apply to all Trustees appointed under this Trust Agreement:

5.1 Incapacity of Trustee. If any Trustee becomes disabled, he or she will immediately cease to act as Trustee. If a Trustee who ceases to serve because of a disability, or who is suspended, thereafter recovers from that disability or consents to the release of relevant medical information, he or she may elect to become a Trustee again by giving written notice to the then serving Trustee, and the last Trustee who undertook to serve will then cease to be a Trustee until another successor Trustee is required.

5.2 Resignation. Any Trustee may resign by giving 30 days' written notice delivered personally or by mail to any then serving Co-Trustee and to the Settlor if he is then living and not disabled; otherwise to the next named successor Trustee, or if none, to the persons having power to appoint successor Trustees.

5.3 Power to Name Other Trustees. Whenever a successor Trustee is required and that position is not filled under the terms specified in this Trust Agreement, an individual Trustee ceasing to serve (other than a Trustee being removed) may appoint his or her successor, but if none is appointed, the remaining Trustees, if any, or the beneficiary shall appoint a successor Corporate Trustee. The appointment will be by a written document (including a testamentary instrument) delivered to the appointed Trustee. In no event may the Settlor ever be appointed as the Trustee under this Trust Agreement nor shall a Successor trustee be appointed that will cause this trust to be a grantor trust.

5.4 Powers of Successor Trustees. Successor Trustees will have all powers granted to the original Trustee, except that only an Independent Trustee will succeed to the powers vested exclusively in the Independent Trustee.

5.5 Accountings. Accountings must be given to the beneficiary of each trust at least annually (quarterly if a Corporate Trustee is serving). The accountings must show the assets held in trust and all receipts and disbursements. A beneficiary's written approval of an accounting will be final and binding upon that beneficiary and all persons represented by him or her as to all matters disclosed in that accounting. In any event, if a beneficiary fails to object to an accounting within six months of receiving it, his or her approval is conclusively presumed. A successor Trustee may require the prior Trustee to render a full and final accounting.

5.6 Acts by Other Fiduciaries. The Trustee is not required to question any acts or failures to act of the fiduciary of any other trust or estate, and will not be liable for any prior fiduciary's acts or failures to act. The Trustee can require a beneficiary who requests an examination of another fiduciary's actions or omissions to advance all costs and fees incurred in the examination, and if the beneficiary does not, the Trustee may elect not to proceed or may proceed and offset those costs and fees directly against any payment that would otherwise be made to that beneficiary.

5.7 Court Supervision. The Settlor waives compliance by the Trustee with any law requiring bond, registration, qualification, or accounting to any court.

5.8 Compensation. Each Trustee is entitled to be paid reasonable compensation for services rendered in the administration of the Trust. Reasonable compensation for a Corporate Trustee will be its published fee schedule in effect when its services are rendered unless otherwise agreed in writing, and except as follows. Any fees paid to a Corporate Trustee for making principal distributions, for termination of the trust, and upon termination of its services must be based solely on the value of its services rendered, not on the value of the trust principal. During the Settlor's lifetime the Trustee's fees are to be charged wholly against income (to the extent sufficient), unless directed otherwise by the Settlor in writing.

5.9 Indemnity. Any Trustee who ceases to serve for any reason will be entitled to receive (and the continuing Trustee shall make suitable arrangements to provide) reasonable indemnification and security to protect and hold that Trustee harmless from any damage or liability of any nature that may be imposed upon it because of its actions or omissions while serving as Trustee. This protection, however, does not extend to a Trustee's negligent actions or omissions that clearly and demonstrably result in damage or liability. A prior Trustee may enforce these provisions against the current Trustee or against any assets held in the Trust, or if the prior Trustee is an individual, against any beneficiary to the extent of distributions received by that beneficiary. This indemnification right will extend to the estate, personal representatives, legal successors, and assigns of a Trustee.

5.10 Successor Trustee. In the event the initial Trustee, Steven I. Greenwald, resigns or ceases to serve as Trustee, then and in that event, I hereby appoint Larry V. Bishins to serve as Trustee.

ARTICLE 6
PROTECTION OF INTERESTS

The interest of any beneficiary under this Trust Agreement, in either income or principal, may not be anticipated, alienated, or in any other manner assigned by the beneficiary, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, and will not be subject to any legal process, bankruptcy proceedings, or the interference or control of the beneficiary's creditors or others.

ARTICLE 7
FIDUCIARY POWERS

The Settlor grants to the Trustee full power to deal freely with any property in the Trust. The Trustee may exercise these powers independently and without the approval of any court. No person dealing with the Trustee need inquire into the propriety of any of its actions or into the application of any funds or assets. The Trustee shall, however, exercise all powers in a fiduciary capacity for the best interest of the beneficiary of this Trust or any trust created under it. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustee is given the following discretionary powers in addition to any other powers conferred by law:

7.1 Type of Assets. Except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to hold funds uninvested for such periods as the Trustee deems prudent, and to invest in any assets the Trustee deems advisable even though they are not technically recognized or specifically listed in so-called "legal lists," without responsibility for depreciation or loss on account of those investments, or because those investments are non-productive, as long as the Trustee acts in good faith.

7.2 Original Assets. Except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to retain the original assets it receives for as long as it deems best, and to dispose of those assets when it deems advisable, even though such assets, because of their character or lack of diversification, would otherwise be considered improper investments for the Trustee.

7.3 Tangible Personal Property. To receive and hold tangible personal property; to pay or refrain from paying storage and insurance charges for such property; and to permit any beneficiaries to use such property without either the Trustee or beneficiaries incurring any liability for wear, tear, and obsolescence of the property.

7.4 Specific Securities. To invest in assets, securities, or interests in securities of any nature, including (without limit) commodities, options, futures, precious metals, currencies, and in domestic and foreign markets and in mutual or investment funds, including funds for which the Trustee or any affiliate performs services for additional fees, whether as custodian, transfer agent, investment advisor or otherwise, or in securities distributed, underwritten, or issued by the Trustee or by syndicates of which it is a member; to trade on credit or margin accounts (whether secured or unsecured); and to pledge assets of the Trust Estate for that purpose.

7.5 Property Transactions. To buy, sell, pledge, exchange, or lease any real or personal property, publicly or privately, for cash or credit, without court approval and upon the terms and conditions that the Trustee deems advisable; to execute deeds, leases, contracts, bills of sale, notes, mortgages, security instruments, and other written instruments; to abandon or dispose of any real or personal property in the Trust which has little or no monetary or useful value; to improve, repair, insure, subdivide and vacate any property; to erect, alter or demolish buildings; to adjust boundaries; and to impose easements, restrictions, and covenants as the Trustee sees fit. A lease will be valid and binding for its full term even if it extends beyond the full duration of the Trust.

7.6 Borrow Money. To borrow money from any source (including the Trustee in its nonfiduciary capacity), to guarantee indebtedness, and to secure the loan or guaranty by mortgage or other security interest.

7.7 Maintain Assets. To expend whatever funds it deems proper for the preservation, maintenance, or improvement of assets. The Trustee in its discretion may elect any options or settlements or exercise any rights under all insurance policies that it holds. However, no fiduciary who is the insured of any insurance policy held in the Trust may exercise any rights or have any incidents of ownership with respect to the policy, including the power to change the beneficiary, to surrender or cancel the policy, to assign the policy, to revoke any assignment, to pledge the policy for a loan, or to obtain from the insurer a loan against the surrender value of the policy. All such power is to be exercised solely by the remaining Trustee, if any, or if none, by a special fiduciary appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.8 Advisors. To employ and compensate attorneys, accountants, advisors, financial consultants, managers, agents, and assistants (including any individual or entity who provides investment advisory or management services, or who furnishes professional assistance in making investments for the Trust) without liability for any act of those persons, if they are selected and retained with reasonable care. Fees may be paid from the Trust Estate even if the services were rendered in connection with ancillary proceedings.

7.9 Indirect Distributions. To make distributions, whether of principal or income, to any person under age 21 or to any incapacitated person according to the terms of this Trust Agreement by making distributions directly to that person whether or not that person has a guardian; to the parent, guardian, or spouse of that person; to a custodial account established by the Trustee or others for that person under an applicable Uniform Gift to Minors Act or Uniform Transfers to Minors Act; to any adult who resides in the same household with that person or who is otherwise responsible for the care and well-being of that person; or by applying any distribution for the benefit of that person in any manner the Trustee deems proper. The receipt of the person to whom payment is made will constitute full discharge of the Trustee with respect to that payment. No distributions may be made to the Settlor under this Section.

7.10 Non-Pro Rata Distribution. To make any division or distribution in money or in kind, or both, without allocating the same kind of property to all shares or distributees, and without regard to the income tax basis of the property. Any division will be binding and conclusive on all parties.

7.11 Nominee. Except as prohibited by law, to hold any assets in the name of a nominee without disclosing the fiduciary relationship; to hold the property unregistered, without affecting its liability; and to hold securities endorsed in blank, in street certificates, at a depository trust company, or in a book entry system.

7.12 Custodian. To employ a custodian or agent ("the Custodian") located anywhere within the United States, at the discretion of the Trustee but at the expense of the Trust, whether or not such Custodian is an affiliate of the Trustee or any person rendering services to the Trust; to register securities in the name of the Custodian or a nominee thereof without designation of fiduciary capacity; and to appoint the Custodian to perform such other ministerial functions as the Trustee may direct. While such securities are in the custody of the Custodian, the Trustee will be under no obligation to inspect or verify such securities nor will the Trustee be responsible for any loss by the Custodian.

7.13 Settle Claims. To contest, compromise, arbitrate, or otherwise adjust claims in favor of or against the Trust, to agree to any rescission or modification of any contract or agreement, and to refrain from instituting any suit or action unless indemnified for reasonable costs and expenses.

7.14 Corporate Rights. To vote and exercise any option, right, or privilege to purchase or to convert bonds, notes, stock (including shares or fractional shares of stock of any Corporate Trustee), securities, or other property; to borrow money for the purpose of exercising any such option, right, or privilege; to delegate those rights to an agent; to enter into voting trusts and other agreements or subscriptions; to participate in any type of liquidation or reorganization of any enterprise; and to write and sell covered call options, puts, calls, straddles, or other methods of buying or selling securities, as well as all related transactions.

7.15 Partnership Interests. To hold interests in sole proprietorships, general or limited partnerships, joint ventures, business trusts, land trusts, limited liability companies, and other domestic and foreign forms of organizations; and to exercise all rights in connection with such interests as the Trustee deems appropriate, including any powers applicable to a non-admitted transferee of any such interest.

7.16 Self-Dealing. To exercise all its powers even though it may also be acting individually or on behalf of any other person or entity interested in the same matters. The Trustee, however, shall exercise these powers at all times in a fiduciary capacity, primarily in the interest of the beneficiaries of the Trust. Despite any other provision of this Trust Agreement, no Trustee may participate in the decision to make a discretionary distribution that would discharge a legal support obligation of that Trustee. No Trustee who has made a disclaimer, either individually or as a Trustee, may exercise any discretion in determining the recipient of the disclaimed property. All power to make such distributions, or to determine recipients of disclaimed property, will be exercised solely by the remaining Trustees, if any, or if there are no other Trustees then serving, by the person or persons named to serve as the next successor Trustee, or if there are none, by a special Trustee appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.17 Expenses. An Independent Trustee may determine how expenses of administration and receipts are to be apportioned between principal and income.

7.18 Terminate Small Trusts. To exercise its discretion to refrain from funding or to terminate any trust whenever the value of the principal of that trust would be or is too small to administer economically, and to distribute the remaining principal and all accumulated income of the trust as provided in Section 7.9 to the income beneficiary of that trust. The Trustee shall exercise this power to terminate in its discretion as it deems prudent for the best interest of the beneficiaries at that time. This power cannot be exercised by the Settlor or any beneficiary, either alone or in conjunction with any other Trustee, but must be exercised solely by the other Trustee, or if none, by a special Trustee appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.19 Allocations to Income and Principal. To treat premiums and discounts on bonds and other obligations for the payment of money in accordance with either generally accepted accounting principles or tax accounting principles and, except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to hold nonproductive assets without allocating any principal to income, despite any laws or rules to the contrary. The Trustee in its discretion may exercise the power described in Section 738.104 of the Florida Statutes to adjust between principal and income, as appropriate, and, in addition, may convert any income interest into a unitrust interest, or a unitrust interest to an income interest, as it sees fit, all as provided in Section 738.1041 of the Florida Statutes, despite any provision of those sections to the contrary.

7.20 Use of Income. Except as otherwise provided in this Trust Agreement, and in addition to all other available sources, to exercise its discretion in the use of income from the assets of the Trust to satisfy the liabilities described in this Trust Agreement, without accountability to any beneficiary.

7.21 Valuations. In making distributions or allocations under the terms of this Trust Agreement to be valued as of a particular date, the Trustee may use asset valuations obtained for a date reasonably close to that particular date (such as a quarterly closing date before or after that date) if, in the Trustee's judgment, obtaining appraisals or other determinations of value on that date would result in unnecessary expense, and if in the Trustee's judgment, the fair market value as determined is substantially the same as on that actual date. This paragraph will not apply if valuation on a specific date is required to preserve a qualification for a tax benefit, including any deduction, credit, or most favorable allocation of an exemption.

7.22 Incorporation. To incorporate any business or venture, and to continue any unincorporated business that the Trustee determines to be not advisable to incorporate.

7.23 Delegation. To delegate periodically among themselves the authority to perform any act of administration of any trust.

7.24 Advances. To make cash advances or loans to beneficiaries, with or without security.

7.25 Investment Manager. To employ any investment management service, financial institution, or similar organization to advise the Trustee and to handle all investments of the Trust and to render all accountings of funds held on its behalf under custodial, agency, or other agreements. If the Trustee is an individual, these costs may be paid as an expense of administration in addition to fees and commissions.

7.26 Depreciation. To deduct from all receipts attributable to depreciable property a reasonable allowance for depreciation, computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied.

7.27 Disclaim Assets or Powers. To disclaim any assets otherwise passing or any fiduciary powers pertaining to any trust created hereunder, by execution of an instrument of disclaimer meeting the requirements of applicable law generally imposed upon individuals executing disclaimers. No notice to or consent of any beneficiary, other interested person, or any court is required for any such disclaimer, and the Trustee is to be held harmless for any decision to make or not make such a disclaimer.

7.28 Transfer Situs. To transfer the situs of any trust or any trust property to any other jurisdiction as often as the Trustee deems advisable, and if necessary to appoint a substitute or ancillary Trustee to act with respect to that property. The Trustee may delegate to the substitute Trustee any or all of the powers given to the Trustee; may elect to act as advisor to the substitute Trustee and receive reasonable compensation for that service; and may remove any acting or substitute Trustee and appoint another, or reappoint itself, at will.

7.29 Related Parties. To enter into any transaction on behalf of the Trust despite the fact that another party to that transaction may be: (i) a business or trust controlled by the Trustee, or of which the Trustee, or any director, officer, or employee of the Corporate Trustee, is also a director, officer, or employee; (ii) an affiliate or business associate of any beneficiary or the Trustee; or (iii) a beneficiary or Trustee under this Trust Agreement acting individually, or any relative of such a party.

7.30 Additional Powers for Income-Producing Real Estate. In addition to the other powers set forth above or otherwise conferred by law, the Trustee has the following powers with respect to any income-producing real property which is or may become a part of the Trust Estate:

- To retain and operate the property for as long as it deems advisable;
- To control, direct, and manage the property, determining the manner and extent of its active participation in these operations, and to delegate all or any part of its supervisory power to other persons that it selects;
- To hire and discharge employees, fix their compensation, and define their duties;
- To invest funds in other land holdings and to use those funds for all improvements, operations, or other similar purposes;
- Except as otherwise provided with respect to mandatory income distributions, to retain any amount of the net earnings for working capital and other purposes that it deems advisable in conformity with sound and efficient management; and
- To purchase and sell machinery, equipment, and supplies of all kinds as needed for the operation and maintenance of the land holdings.

ARTICLE 8
SUBCHAPTER S STOCK

Despite any other provisions of this Trust Agreement, if a trust created in this instrument is to become the owner of, or already owns, stock in a corporation that has an election in effect (or one that proposes to make an election) under Section 1362 of the Internal Revenue Code (an "S Corporation"), and that trust would not otherwise be permitted to be an S Corporation shareholder, the following provisions will apply:

8.1 Electing Small Business Trust. The Trustee in its discretion may elect for the trust to become an Electing Small Business Trust ("ESBT") as defined in the Internal Revenue Code.

8.2 Qualified Subchapter S Trust. If the Trustee does not cause the trust to become an ESBT, the Trustee shall set aside the S Corporation stock in a separate trust for the current income beneficiary of such trust, so that a Qualified Subchapter S Trust ("QSST") election under Section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code can be filed with respect to that trust. The Trustee shall hold each share as a separate QSST for the persons described above, and each such person will be the sole beneficiary of his or her QSST. To the greatest extent possible, the Trustee shall administer each QSST under the terms of the trust from which it was derived, but subject to the following overriding provisions:

(a) Consent. The Trustee shall notify the beneficiary of each separate trust promptly that a QSST election must be filed with the Internal Revenue Service. Thereafter, each beneficiary shall file a timely and proper QSST election with the Internal Revenue Service. If a beneficiary fails or refuses to make the QSST election, the Trustee shall make an ESBT election for that trust. If the beneficiary does make the QSST election, then his or her separate trust will be administered as set forth below.

(b) Income Payments. During the beneficiary's life, the Trustee shall pay all net income of the trust to the beneficiary (and only to that beneficiary) in quarterly or more frequent installments. The beneficiary's income interest in the trust will terminate on the earlier of his or her death or the termination of the trust under its terms.

(c) Principal Invasions. If the beneficiary is otherwise entitled to receive principal distributions, the Trustee may distribute principal from that separate trust during the beneficiary's life only to or for the benefit of that beneficiary (and no one else).

(d) Final Distribution. If the QSST is terminated during the beneficiary's life, the Trustee shall distribute all remaining assets of that separate trust to that beneficiary. If the beneficiary dies before that trust's termination, all remaining assets of the QSST are to be distributed as provided in the original trust, but subject to this article.

(e) Termination of QSST Status. If a separate trust would cease to qualify as an S Corporation shareholder, the Trustee in its discretion may: (i) make an ESBT election for that separate trust, or (ii) distribute all S Corporation stock to the beneficiary. The Trustee in its discretion also may convert a QSST to an ESBT, whether or not the beneficiary has consented to QSST treatment and, if the beneficiary consents, may convert an ESBT into a QSST.

ARTICLE 9
PERPETUITIES PROVISION

Despite any contrary provisions of this Trust Agreement, from the creation of this Trust and for up to 21 years after the death of the last of the Settlor's grandparents' descendants who are living at the creation of this Trust, a trust beneficiary (which includes persons succeeding to the interest of a deceased beneficiary) will be entitled to terminating distributions only at the ages specified in this Trust Agreement. In all events, however, the share of each beneficiary will vest (in the beneficiary or his or her estate) immediately prior to the expiration of the 21 year period described above.

ARTICLE 10
ADMINISTRATION AND CONSTRUCTION

10.1 Rules for Distributions. In making distributions to beneficiaries under this Trust Agreement, the Trustee must use the following criteria.

(a) Other Resources. Whenever the Trustee has the authority to decide how much to distribute to or for the benefit of a beneficiary, the Trustee can make decisions without taking into account any information about the beneficiary's other available income and resources. The Trustee can make payments directly to a beneficiary or to other persons for the beneficiary's benefit, but it does not have to make payments to a court appointed guardian.

(b) Trustee's Decision. Absent clear and convincing evidence of bad faith, the Trustee's decisions as to amounts to be distributed will be final.

(c) Standard of Living. Distributions to a beneficiary for health, education, support, or maintenance are to be based on his or her standard of living, determined as of the date of the distribution.

10.2 Funding Gifts. The following rules will apply to funding gifts under this Trust Agreement.

(a) Pecuniary Gifts. All pecuniary gifts under this Trust Agreement that are paid by an in-kind distribution of assets must use values having an aggregate fair market value at the date or dates of distribution equal to the amount of this gift as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes.

(b) Adjustments. The Trustee shall select one or more dates of allocation or distribution for purposes of satisfying gifts and funding shares or trusts. The Trustee may make allocations before the final determination of federal estate tax, with those allocations being based upon the information then available to the Trustee, and may thereafter adjust properties among the shares or trusts if it is determined that the allocation should have been made differently.

10.3 Accumulated Income. Any income not distributed to the beneficiaries pursuant to either a mandatory direction or a discretionary power is to be incorporated into principal, at such intervals as the Trustee deems convenient.

10.4 Estate Tax on Included Property. If assets of any trust created under this Trust Agreement are included in a beneficiary's estate for federal estate tax purposes, the following will apply.

(a) Appointed Assets. If the beneficiary exercises a power of appointment over those assets, the Trustee is authorized to withhold from those assets the amount of estate taxes apportioned to them by applicable law, if the beneficiary does not make provisions for the payment of those taxes from other sources.

(b) Other Assets. If the beneficiary does not have or does not exercise a power of appointment over those assets, the Trustee will pay the estate taxes attributable to those assets. The estate taxes attributable to those assets will be the amount that the beneficiary's estate taxes are increased over the amount those taxes would have been if those assets had not been included in the beneficiary's gross estate.

(c) Certification and Payment. The Trustee may rely upon a written certification by the beneficiary's personal representative of the amount of the estate taxes, and may pay those taxes directly or to the personal representative of the beneficiary's estate. The Trustee will not be held liable for making payments as directed by the beneficiary's personal representative.

10.5 Transactions With Other Entities The Trustee may buy assets from other estates or trusts, or make loans to them, so that funds will be available to pay claims, taxes, and expenses. The Trustee can make those purchases or loans even if it serves as the fiduciary of that estate or trust, and on whatever terms and conditions the Trustee thinks are appropriate, except that the terms of any transaction must be commercially reasonable.

ARTICLE 11 MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

11.1 Definitions. As used in this Trust Agreement, the following terms have the meanings set forth below:

(a) Trustees.

- (1) Independent Trustee means a trustee of a particular trust, either individual or corporate, who is not the Settlor or a beneficiary, and who is not a Related Person as to the Settlor or a beneficiary (if the Settlor or the beneficiary, respectively, is living and participated in that person's appointment). For purposes of this definition a beneficiary is a person who is a permissible distributee of income or principal, or someone with an interest in the trust in excess of five percent (5%) of its value, assuming a maximum exercise of discretion in his or her favor. Whenever this Trust Agreement requires an action be taken by, or in the discretion of, an Independent Trustee but no such Trustee is then serving, a court may appoint an Independent Trustee to serve as an additional Trustee whose sole function and duty will be to exercise the specified power.
- (2) Corporate Trustee means a trustee that is a bank, trust company, or other entity authorized to serve as a trustee under the laws of the United States or any state thereof that is not a Related Person to the Settlor. A bank or trust company that does not meet this requirement cannot serve as Trustee.

(b) Internal Revenue Code Terms.

- (1) Internal Revenue Code means the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, or successor provisions of future federal internal revenue laws.
- (2) The terms health, education, support, and maintenance are intended to set forth an "ascertainable standard," as described in the Internal Revenue Code and its associated Regulations. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, "health" means a beneficiary's physical and mental health, including but not limited to payments for examinations, surgical, dental, or other treatment, medication, counseling, hospitalization, and health insurance premiums; "education" means elementary, secondary, post-secondary, graduate, or professional schooling in an accredited institution, public or private, or attendance at other formal programs in furtherance of the beneficiary's spiritual, athletic, or artistic education, including but not limited to payments for tuition, books, fees, assessments, equipment, tutoring, transportation, and reasonable living expenses.

- (3) Related Person as to a particular individual is someone who is deemed to be "related or subordinate" to that individual under Section 672(c) of the Internal Revenue Code (as though that individual was a grantor).

(c) Other Terms.

- (1) Distributions that are to be made to a person's descendants, per stirpes, will be divided into equal shares, so that there will be one share for each living child (if any) of that person and one share for each deceased child who has then living descendants. The share of each deceased child will be further divided among his or her descendants on a per stirpes basis, by reapplying the preceding rule to that deceased child and his or her descendants as many times as necessary.
- (2) Disabled or under a disability means (i) being under the legal age of majority, (ii) having been adjudicated to be incapacitated, or (iii) being unable to manage properly personal or financial affairs because of a mental or physical impairment (whether temporary or permanent in nature). A written certificate executed by an individual's attending physician confirming that person's impairment will be sufficient evidence of disability under item (iii) above, and all persons may rely conclusively on such a certificate.
- (3) Removal of a Trustee for cause includes, without limitation, the following: the willful or negligent mismanagement of the trust assets by that individual Trustee; the abuse or abandonment of, or inattention to, the trust by that individual Trustee; a federal or state charge against that individual Trustee involving the commission of a felony or serious misdemeanor; an act of theft, dishonesty, fraud, embezzlement, or moral turpitude by that individual Trustee; or the use of narcotics or excessive use of alcohol by that individual Trustee.
- (4) The words will and shall are used interchangeably in this Trust Agreement and mean, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, that the Trustee must take the action indicated; as used in this Trust Agreement, the word may means that the Trustee has the discretionary authority to take the action but is not automatically required to do so.

11.2 Powers of Appointment. The following provisions relate to all powers of appointment under this Trust Agreement.

- (a) A general power of appointment granted to a person is one that can be exercised in favor of that person or his or her estate, his or her creditors, or the creditors of his or her estate.
- (b) A special power of appointment is any power that is not a general power.
- (c) A testamentary power of appointment (either general or special) is exercisable upon the powerholder's death by his or her Last Will or by a revocable trust agreement established by that person, but only by specific reference to the instrument creating the power. A "testamentary power of appointment" may not be exercised in favor of the person possessing the power.
- (d) In determining whether a person has exercised a testamentary power of appointment, the Trustee may rely upon an instrument admitted to probate in any jurisdiction as that person's Last Will, or upon any trust agreement certified to be valid and authentic by sworn statement of the trustee who is serving under that trust agreement. If the Trustee has not received written notice of such an instrument within six months after the powerholder's death, the Trustee may presume that the powerholder failed to exercise that power and will not be liable for acting in accordance with that presumption.

11.3 Notices. Any person entitled or required to give notice under this Trust Agreement shall exercise that power by a written instrument clearly setting forth the effective date of the action for which notice is being given. The instrument may be executed in counterparts.

11.4 Certifications.

(a) Facts. A certificate signed and acknowledged by the Trustee stating any fact affecting the Trust Estate or the Trust Agreement will be conclusive evidence of such fact in favor of any transfer agent and any other person dealing in good faith with the Trustee. The Trustee may rely on a certificate signed and acknowledged by any beneficiary stating any fact concerning the Trust beneficiaries, including dates of birth, relationships, or marital status, unless an individual serving as Trustee has actual knowledge that the stated fact is false.

(b) Copy. Any person may rely on a copy of this instrument (in whole or in part) certified to be a true copy by the Settlor; by any person specifically named as a Trustee (or successor Trustee); by any Corporate Trustee whether or not specifically named; or, if there are none of the above, by any then serving Trustee.

11.5 Applicable Law. All matters involving the validity and interpretation of this Trust Agreement are to be governed by Florida law. Subject to the provisions of this Trust Agreement, all matters involving the administration of a trust are to be governed by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the trust has its principal place of administration.

11.6 Gender and Number. Reference in this Trust Agreement to any gender includes either masculine or feminine, as appropriate, and reference to any number includes both singular and plural where the context permits or requires. Use of descriptive titles for articles and paragraphs is for the purpose of convenience only and is not intended to restrict the application of those provisions.

11.7 Further Instruments. The Settlor agrees to execute such further instruments as may be necessary to vest the Trustee with full legal title to the property transferred to this Trust.

11.8 Binding Effect. This Trust Agreement extends to and is binding upon the Settlor's Personal Representative, successors, and assigns, and upon the Trustee.

Any person may transfer assets to the Trust Estate, if the Trustee agrees to accept them. Assets do not have to be listed on Schedule A to be part of the Trust Estate. Unless otherwise specified in writing at the time of the transfer, those assets will be held as provided in this Trust Agreement. The Trustee acknowledges receipt of the current Trust assets and agrees to hold the Trust Estate as set forth in this Trust Agreement.

IRREVOCABLE PROVISION

The Settlor declares that he has no right to alter, amend, modify, or revoke this Trust Agreement; to withdraw assets from the Trust; or to require changes in the investments of the Trust. No part of the Trust may ever revert to the Settlor, be used for his benefit, or be distributed in discharge of his legal obligations.

ARTICLE 4
ADMINISTRATION OF TRUST

The Trustee shall hold, administer, and distribute the Trust Estate in accordance with the powers granted under this Trust Agreement as follows:

4.1 Discretionary Distributions. The Trustee shall pay or apply such sums of principal from this Trust as in the Trustee's discretion are necessary or advisable for Beneficiary's health, education, support, and maintenance.

4.2 Distribution of Principal. When Beneficiary has reached age 21, the trustee shall distribute one-half (1/2) of the corpus of trust to Beneficiary plus accrued income. When Beneficiary has reached age 25 the Trustee shall distribute the entire remaining principal balance of the corpus of the trust to Beneficiary plus accrued income.

4.3 Distribution Upon Death Before Age 25. Upon the death of Beneficiary prior to age 25, the Trustee shall distribute the remaining assets in the trust to the estate of Beneficiary.

ARTICLE 5
PROVISIONS GOVERNING TRUSTEES

The following provisions apply to all Trustees appointed under this Trust Agreement:

5.1 Incapacity of Trustee. If any Trustee becomes disabled, he or she will immediately cease to act as Trustee. If a Trustee who ceases to serve because of a disability, or who is suspended, thereafter recovers from that disability or consents to the release of relevant medical information, he or she may elect to become a Trustee again by giving written notice to the then serving Trustee, and the last Trustee who undertook to serve will then cease to be a Trustee until another successor Trustee is required.

5.2 Resignation. Any Trustee may resign by giving 30 days' written notice delivered personally or by mail to any then serving Co-Trustee and to the Settlor if he is then living and not disabled; otherwise to the next named successor Trustee, or if none, to the persons having power to appoint successor Trustees.

5.3 Power to Name Other Trustees. Whenever a successor Trustee is required and that position is not filled under the terms specified in this Trust Agreement, an individual Trustee ceasing to serve (other than a Trustee being removed) may appoint his or her successor, but if none is appointed, the remaining Trustees, if any, or the beneficiary shall appoint a successor Corporate Trustee. The appointment will be by a written document (including a testamentary instrument) delivered to the appointed Trustee. In no event may the Settlor ever be appointed as the Trustee under this Trust Agreement nor shall a Successor trustee be appointed that will cause this trust to be a grantor trust.

5.4 Powers of Successor Trustees. Successor Trustees will have all powers granted to the original Trustee, except that only an Independent Trustee will succeed to the powers vested exclusively in the Independent Trustee.

5.5 Accountings. Accountings must be given to the beneficiary of each trust at least annually (quarterly if a Corporate Trustee is serving). The accountings must show the assets held in trust and all receipts and disbursements. A beneficiary's written approval of an accounting will be final and binding upon that beneficiary and all persons represented by him or her as to all matters disclosed in that accounting. In any event, if a beneficiary fails to object to an accounting within six months of receiving it, his or her approval is conclusively presumed. A successor Trustee may require the prior Trustee to render a full and final accounting.

5.6 Acts by Other Fiduciaries. The Trustee is not required to question any acts or failures to act of the fiduciary of any other trust or estate, and will not be liable for any prior fiduciary's acts or failures to act. The Trustee can require a beneficiary who requests an examination of another fiduciary's actions or omissions to advance all costs and fees incurred in the examination, and if the beneficiary does not, the Trustee may elect not to proceed or may proceed and offset those costs and fees directly against any payment that would otherwise be made to that beneficiary.

5.7 Court Supervision. The Settlor waives compliance by the Trustee with any law requiring bond, registration, qualification, or accounting to any court.

5.8 Compensation. Each Trustee is entitled to be paid reasonable compensation for services rendered in the administration of the Trust. Reasonable compensation for a Corporate Trustee will be its published fee schedule in effect when its services are rendered unless otherwise agreed in writing, and except as follows. Any fees paid to a Corporate Trustee for making principal distributions, for termination of the trust, and upon termination of its services must be based solely on the value of its services rendered, not on the value of the trust principal. During the Settlor's lifetime the Trustee's fees are to be charged wholly against income (to the extent sufficient), unless directed otherwise by the Settlor in writing.

5.9 Indemnity. Any Trustee who ceases to serve for any reason will be entitled to receive (and the continuing Trustee shall make suitable arrangements to provide) reasonable indemnification and security to protect and hold that Trustee harmless from any damage or liability of any nature that may be imposed upon it because of its actions or omissions while serving as Trustee. This protection, however, does not extend to a Trustee's negligent actions or omissions that clearly and demonstrably result in damage or liability. A prior Trustee may enforce these provisions against the current Trustee or against any assets held in the Trust, or if the prior Trustee is an individual, against any beneficiary to the extent of distributions received by that beneficiary. This indemnification right will extend to the estate, personal representatives, legal successors, and assigns of a Trustee.

5.10 Successor Trustee. In the event the initial Trustee, Steven I. Greenwald, resigns or ceases to serve as Trustee, then and in that event, I hereby appoint Larry V. Bishins to serve as Trustee.

ARTICLE 6 PROTECTION OF INTERESTS

The interest of any beneficiary under this Trust Agreement, in either income or principal, may not be anticipated, alienated, or in any other manner assigned by the beneficiary, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, and will not be subject to any legal process, bankruptcy proceedings, or the interference or control of the beneficiary's creditors or others.

FIDUCIARY POWERS

The Settlor grants to the Trustee full power to deal freely with any property in the Trust. The Trustee may exercise these powers independently and without the approval of any court. No person dealing with the Trustee need inquire into the propriety of any of its actions or into the application of any funds or assets. The Trustee shall, however, exercise all powers in a fiduciary capacity for the best interest of the beneficiary of this Trust or any trust created under it. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustee is given the following discretionary powers in addition to any other powers conferred by law:

7.1 Type of Assets. Except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to hold funds uninvested for such periods as the Trustee deems prudent, and to invest in any assets the Trustee deems advisable even though they are not technically recognized or specifically listed in so-called "legal lists," without responsibility for depreciation or loss on account of those investments, or because those investments are non-productive, as long as the Trustee acts in good faith.

7.2 Original Assets. Except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to retain the original assets it receives for as long as it deems best, and to dispose of those assets when it deems advisable, even though such assets, because of their character or lack of diversification, would otherwise be considered improper investments for the Trustee.

7.3 Tangible Personal Property. To receive and hold tangible personal property; to pay or refrain from paying storage and insurance charges for such property; and to permit any beneficiaries to use such property without either the Trustee or beneficiaries incurring any liability for wear, tear, and obsolescence of the property.

7.4 Specific Securities. To invest in assets, securities, or interests in securities of any nature, including (without limit) commodities, options, futures, precious metals, currencies, and in domestic and foreign markets and in mutual or investment funds, including funds for which the Trustee or any affiliate performs services for additional fees, whether as custodian, transfer agent, investment advisor or otherwise, or in securities distributed, underwritten, or issued by the Trustee or by syndicates of which it is a member; to trade on credit or margin accounts (whether secured or unsecured); and to pledge assets of the Trust Estate for that purpose.

7.5 Property Transactions. To buy, sell, pledge, exchange, or lease any real or personal property, publicly or privately, for cash or credit, without court approval and upon the terms and conditions that the Trustee deems advisable; to execute deeds, leases, contracts, bills of sale, notes, mortgages, security instruments, and other written instruments; to abandon or dispose of any real or personal property in the Trust which has little or no monetary or useful value; to improve, repair, insure, subdivide and vacate any property; to erect, alter or demolish buildings; to adjust boundaries; and to impose easements, restrictions, and covenants as the Trustee sees fit. A lease will be valid and binding for its full term even if it extends beyond the full duration of the Trust.

7.6 Borrow Money. To borrow money from any source (including the Trustee in its nonfiduciary capacity), to guarantee indebtedness, and to secure the loan or guaranty by mortgage or other security interest.

7.7 Maintain Assets. To expend whatever funds it deems proper for the preservation, maintenance, or improvement of assets. The Trustee in its discretion may elect any options or settlements or exercise any rights under all insurance policies that it holds. However, no fiduciary who is the insured of any insurance policy held in the Trust may exercise any rights or have any incidents of ownership with respect to the policy, including the power to change the beneficiary, to surrender or cancel the policy, to assign the policy, to revoke any assignment, to pledge the policy for a loan, or to obtain from the insurer a loan against the surrender value of the policy. All such power is to be exercised solely by the remaining Trustee, if any, or if none, by a special fiduciary appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.8 Advisors. To employ and compensate attorneys, accountants, advisers, financial consultants, managers, agents, and assistants (including any individual or entity who provides investment advisory or management services, or who furnishes professional assistance in making investments for the Trust) without liability for any act of those persons, if they are selected and retained with reasonable care. Fees may be paid from the Trust Estate even if the services were rendered in connection with ancillary proceedings.

7.9 Indirect Distributions. To make distributions, whether of principal or income, to any person under age 21 or to any incapacitated person according to the terms of this Trust Agreement by making distributions directly to that person whether or not that person has a guardian; to the parent, guardian, or spouse of that person; to a custodial account established by the Trustee or others for that person under an applicable Uniform Gift to Minors Act or Uniform Transfers to Minors Act; to any adult who resides in the same household with that person or who is otherwise responsible for the care and well-being of that person; or by applying any distribution for the benefit of that person in any manner the Trustee deems proper. The receipt of the person to whom payment is made will constitute full discharge of the Trustee with respect to that payment. No distributions may be made to the Settlor under this Section.

7.10 Non-Pro Rata Distribution. To make any division or distribution in money or in kind, or both, without allocating the same kind of property to all shares or distributees, and without regard to the income tax basis of the property. Any division will be binding and conclusive on all parties.

7.11 Nominee. Except as prohibited by law, to hold any assets in the name of a nominee without disclosing the fiduciary relationship; to hold the property unregistered, without affecting its liability; and to hold securities endorsed in blank, in street certificates, at a depository trust company, or in a book entry system.

7.12 Custodian. To employ a custodian or agent ("the Custodian") located anywhere within the United States, at the discretion of the Trustee but at the expense of the Trust, whether or not such Custodian is an affiliate of the Trustee or any person rendering services to the Trust; to register securities in the name of the Custodian or a nominee thereof without designation of fiduciary capacity; and to appoint the Custodian to perform such other ministerial functions as the Trustee may direct. While such securities are in the custody of the Custodian, the Trustee will be under no obligation to inspect or verify such securities nor will the Trustee be responsible for any loss by the Custodian.

7.13 Settle Claims. To contest, compromise, arbitrate, or otherwise adjust claims in favor of or against the Trust, to agree to any rescission or modification of any contract or agreement, and to refrain from instituting any suit or action unless indemnified for reasonable costs and expenses.

7.14 Corporate Rights. To vote and exercise any option, right, or privilege to purchase or to convert bonds, notes, stock (including shares or fractional shares of stock of any Corporate Trustee), securities, or other property; to borrow money for the purpose of exercising any such option, right, or privilege; to delegate those rights to an agent; to enter into voting trusts and other agreements or subscriptions; to participate in any type of liquidation or reorganization of any enterprise; and to write and sell covered call options, puts, calls, straddles, or other methods of buying or selling securities, as well as all related transactions.

7.15 Partnership Interests. To hold interests in sole proprietorships, general or limited partnerships, joint ventures, business trusts, land trusts, limited liability companies, and other domestic and foreign forms of organizations; and to exercise all rights in connection with such interests as the Trustee deems appropriate, including any powers applicable to a non-admitted transferee of any such interest.

7.16 Self-Dealing. To exercise all its powers even though it may also be acting individually or on behalf of any other person or entity interested in the same matters. The Trustee, however, shall exercise these powers at all times in a fiduciary capacity, primarily in the interest of the beneficiaries of the Trust. Despite any other provision of this Trust Agreement, no Trustee may participate in the decision to make a discretionary distribution that would discharge a legal support obligation of that Trustee. No Trustee who has made a disclaimer, either individually or as a Trustee, may exercise any discretion in determining the recipient of the disclaimed property. All power to make such distributions, or to determine recipients of disclaimed property, will be exercised solely by the remaining Trustees, if any, or if there are no other Trustees then serving, by the person or persons named to serve as the next successor Trustee, or if there are none, by a special Trustee appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.17 Expenses. An Independent Trustee may determine how expenses of administration and receipts are to be apportioned between principal and income.

7.18 Terminate Small Trusts. To exercise its discretion to refrain from funding or to terminate any trust whenever the value of the principal of that trust would be or is too small to administer economically, and to distribute the remaining principal and all accumulated income of the trust as provided in Section 7.9 to the income beneficiary of that trust. The Trustee shall exercise this power to terminate in its discretion as it deems prudent for the best interest of the beneficiaries at that time. This power cannot be exercised by the Settlor or any beneficiary, either alone or in conjunction with any other Trustee, but must be exercised solely by the other Trustee, or if none, by a special Trustee appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

7.19 Allocations to Income and Principal. To treat premiums and discounts on bonds and other obligations for the payment of money in accordance with either generally accepted accounting principles or tax accounting principles and, except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to hold nonproductive assets without allocating any principal to income, despite any laws or rules to the contrary. The Trustee in its discretion may exercise the power described in Section 738.104 of the Florida Statutes to adjust between principal and income, as appropriate, and, in addition, may convert any income interest into a unitrust interest, or a unitrust interest to an income interest, as it sees fit, all as provided in Section 738.1041 of the Florida Statutes, despite any provision of those sections to the contrary.

7.20 Use of Income. Except as otherwise provided in this Trust Agreement, and in addition to all other available sources, to exercise its discretion in the use of income from the assets of the Trust to satisfy the liabilities described in this Trust Agreement, without accountability to any beneficiary.

7.21 Valuations. In making distributions or allocations under the terms of this Trust Agreement to be valued as of a particular date, the Trustee may use asset valuations obtained for a date reasonably close to that particular date (such as a quarterly closing date before or after that date) if, in the Trustee's judgment, obtaining appraisals or other determinations of value on that date would result in unnecessary expense, and if in the Trustee's judgment, the fair market value as determined is substantially the same as on that actual date. This paragraph will not apply if valuation on a specific date is required to preserve a qualification for a tax benefit, including any deduction, credit, or most favorable allocation of an exemption.

7.22 Incorporation. To incorporate any business or venture, and to continue any unincorporated business that the Trustee determines to be not advisable to incorporate.

7.23 Delegation. To delegate periodically among themselves the authority to perform any act of administration of any trust.

7.24 Advances. To make cash advances or loans to beneficiaries, with or without security.

7.25 Investment Manager. To employ any investment management service, financial institution, or similar organization to advise the Trustee and to handle all investments of the Trust and to render all accountings of funds held on its behalf under custodial, agency, or other agreements. If the Trustee is an individual, these costs may be paid as an expense of administration in addition to fees and commissions.

7.26 Depreciation. To deduct from all receipts attributable to depreciable property a reasonable allowance for depreciation, computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied.

7.27 Disclaim Assets or Powers. To disclaim any assets otherwise passing or any fiduciary powers pertaining to any trust created hereunder, by execution of an instrument of disclaimer meeting the requirements of applicable law generally imposed upon individuals executing disclaimers. No notice to or consent of any beneficiary, other interested person, or any court is required for any such disclaimer, and the Trustee is to be held harmless for any decision to make or not make such a disclaimer.

7.28 Transfer Situs. To transfer the situs of any trust or any trust property to any other jurisdiction as often as the Trustee deems advisable, and if necessary to appoint a substitute or ancillary Trustee to act with respect to that property. The Trustee may delegate to the substitute Trustee any or all of the powers given to the Trustee; may elect to act as advisor to the substitute Trustee and receive reasonable compensation for that service; and may remove any acting or substitute Trustee and appoint another, or reappoint itself, at will.

7.29 Related Parties. To enter into any transaction on behalf of the Trust despite the fact that another party to that transaction may be: (i) a business or trust controlled by the Trustee, or of which the Trustee, or any director, officer, or employee of the Corporate Trustee, is also a director, officer, or employee; (ii) an affiliate or business associate of any beneficiary or the Trustee; or (iii) a beneficiary or Trustee under this Trust Agreement acting individually, or any relative of such a party.

7.30 Additional Powers for Income-Producing Real Estate. In addition to the other powers set forth above or otherwise conferred by law, the Trustee has the following powers with respect to any income-producing real property which is or may become a part of the Trust Estate:

- To retain and operate the property for as long as it deems advisable;
- To control, direct, and manage the property, determining the manner and extent of its active participation in these operations, and to delegate all or any part of its supervisory power to other persons that it selects;

- To hire and discharge employees, fix their compensation, and define their duties;
- To invest funds in other land holdings and to use those funds for all improvements, operations, or other similar purposes;
- Except as otherwise provided with respect to mandatory income distributions, to retain any amount of the net earnings for working capital and other purposes that it deems advisable in conformity with sound and efficient management; and
- To purchase and sell machinery, equipment, and supplies of all kinds as needed for the operation and maintenance of the land holdings.

ARTICLE 8
SUBCHAPTER S STOCK

Despite any other provisions of this Trust Agreement, if a trust created in this instrument is to become the owner of, or already owns, stock in a corporation that has an election in effect (or one that proposes to make an election) under Section 1362 of the Internal Revenue Code (an "S Corporation"), and that trust would not otherwise be permitted to be an S Corporation shareholder, the following provisions will apply:

8.1 Electing Small Business Trust. The Trustee in its discretion may elect for the trust to become an Electing Small Business Trust ("ESBT") as defined in the Internal Revenue Code.

8.2 Qualified Subchapter S Trust. If the Trustee does not cause the trust to become an ESBT, the Trustee shall set aside the S Corporation stock in a separate trust for the current income beneficiary of such trust, so that a Qualified Subchapter S Trust ("QSST") election under Section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code can be filed with respect to that trust. The Trustee shall hold each share as a separate QSST for the persons described above, and each such person will be the sole beneficiary of his or her QSST. To the greatest extent possible, the Trustee shall administer each QSST under the terms of the trust from which it was derived, but subject to the following overriding provisions:

(a) Consent. The Trustee shall notify the beneficiary of each separate trust promptly that a QSST election must be filed with the Internal Revenue Service. Thereafter, each beneficiary shall file a timely and proper QSST election with the Internal Revenue Service. If a beneficiary fails or refuses to make the QSST election, the Trustee shall make an ESBT election for that trust. If the beneficiary does make the QSST election, then his or her separate trust will be administered as set forth below.

(b) Income Payments. During the beneficiary's life, the Trustee shall pay all net income of the trust to the beneficiary (and only to that beneficiary) in quarterly or more frequent installments. The beneficiary's income interest in the trust will terminate on the earlier of his or her death or the termination of the trust under its terms.

(c) Principal Invasions. If the beneficiary is otherwise entitled to receive principal distributions, the Trustee may distribute principal from that separate trust during the beneficiary's life only to or for the benefit of that beneficiary (and no one else).

(d) Final Distribution. If the QSST is terminated during the beneficiary's life, the Trustee shall distribute all remaining assets of that separate trust to that beneficiary. If the beneficiary dies before that trust's termination, all remaining assets of the QSST are to be distributed as provided in the original trust, but subject to this article.

(e) Termination of QSST Status. If a separate trust would cease to qualify as an S Corporation shareholder, the Trustee in its discretion may: (i) make an ESBT election for that separate trust, or (ii) distribute all S Corporation stock to the beneficiary. The Trustee in its discretion also may convert a QSST to an ESBT, whether or not the beneficiary has consented to QSST treatment and, if the beneficiary consents, may convert an ESBT into a QSST.

ARTICLE 9 PERPETUITIES PROVISION

Despite any contrary provisions of this Trust Agreement, from the creation of this Trust and for up to 21 years after the death of the last of the Settlor's grandparents' descendants who are living at the creation of this Trust, a trust beneficiary (which includes persons succeeding to the interest of a deceased beneficiary) will be entitled to terminating distributions only at the ages specified in this Trust Agreement. In all events, however, the share of each beneficiary will vest (in the beneficiary or his or her estate) immediately prior to the expiration of the 21 year period described above.

ARTICLE 10 ADMINISTRATION AND CONSTRUCTION

10.1 Rules for Distributions. In making distributions to beneficiaries under this Trust Agreement, the Trustee must use the following criteria.

(a) Other Resources. Whenever the Trustee has the authority to decide how much to distribute to or for the benefit of a beneficiary, the Trustee can make decisions without taking into account any information about the beneficiary's other available income and resources. The Trustee can make payments directly to a beneficiary or to other persons for the beneficiary's benefit, but it does not have to make payments to a court appointed guardian.

(b) Trustee's Decision. Absent clear and convincing evidence of bad faith, the Trustee's decisions as to amounts to be distributed will be final.

(c) Standard of Living. Distributions to a beneficiary for health, education, support, or maintenance are to be based on his or her standard of living, determined as of the date of the distribution.

10.2 Funding Gifts. The following rules will apply to funding gifts under this Trust Agreement.

(a) Pecuniary Gifts. All pecuniary gifts under this Trust Agreement that are paid by an in-kind distribution of assets must use values having an aggregate fair market value at the date or dates of distribution equal to the amount of this gift as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes.

(b) Adjustments. The Trustee shall select one or more dates of allocation or distribution for purposes of satisfying gifts and funding shares or trusts. The Trustee may make allocations before the final determination of federal estate tax, with those allocations being based upon the information then available to the Trustee, and may thereafter adjust properties among the shares or trusts if it is determined that the allocation should have been made differently.

10.3 Accumulated Income. Any income not distributed to the beneficiaries pursuant to either a mandatory direction or a discretionary power is to be incorporated into principal, at such intervals as the Trustee deems convenient.

10.4 Estate Tax on Included Property. If assets of any trust created under this Trust Agreement are included in a beneficiary's estate for federal estate tax purposes, the following will apply.

(a) Appointed Assets. If the beneficiary exercises a power of appointment over those assets, the Trustee is authorized to withhold from those assets the amount of estate taxes apportioned to them by applicable law, if the beneficiary does not make provisions for the payment of those taxes from other sources.

(b) Other Assets. If the beneficiary does not have or does not exercise a power of appointment over those assets, the Trustee will pay the estate taxes attributable to those assets. The estate taxes attributable to those assets will be the amount that the beneficiary's estate taxes are increased over the amount those taxes would have been if those assets had not been included in the beneficiary's gross estate.

(c) Certification and Payment. The Trustee may rely upon a written certification by the beneficiary's personal representative of the amount of the estate taxes, and may pay those taxes directly or to the personal representative of the beneficiary's estate. The Trustee will not be held liable for making payments as directed by the beneficiary's personal representative.

10.5 Transactions With Other Entities. The Trustee may buy assets from other estates or trusts, or make loans to them, so that funds will be available to pay claims, taxes, and expenses. The Trustee can make those purchases or loans even if it serves as the fiduciary of that estate or trust, and on whatever terms and conditions the Trustee thinks are appropriate, except that the terms of any transaction must be commercially reasonable.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

11.1 Definitions. As used in this Trust Agreement, the following terms have the meanings set forth below:

(a) Trustees.

- (1) Independent Trustee means a trustee of a particular trust, either individual or corporate, who is not the Settlor or a beneficiary, and who is not a Related Person as to the Settlor or a beneficiary (if the Settlor or the beneficiary, respectively, is living and participated in that person's appointment). For purposes of this definition a beneficiary is a person who is a permissible distributee of income or principal, or someone with an interest in the trust in excess of five percent (5%) of its value, assuming a maximum exercise of discretion in his or her favor. Whenever this Trust Agreement requires an action be taken by, or in the discretion of, an Independent Trustee but no such Trustee is then serving, a court may appoint an Independent Trustee to serve as an additional Trustee whose sole function and duty will be to exercise the specified power.
- (2) Corporate Trustee means a trustee that is a bank, trust company, or other entity authorized to serve as a trustee under the laws of the United States or any state thereof that is not a Related Person to the Settlor. A bank or trust company that does not meet this requirement cannot serve as Trustee.

(b) Internal Revenue Code Terms.

- (1) Internal Revenue Code means the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, or successor provisions of future federal internal revenue laws.
- (2) The terms health, education, support, and maintenance are intended to set forth an "ascertainable standard," as described in the Internal Revenue Code and its associated Regulations. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, "health" means a beneficiary's physical and mental health, including but not limited to payments for examinations, surgical, dental, or other treatment, medication, counseling, hospitalization, and health insurance premiums; "education" means elementary, secondary, post-secondary, graduate, or professional schooling in an accredited institution, public or private, or attendance at other formal programs in furtherance of the beneficiary's spiritual, athletic, or artistic education, including but not limited to payments for tuition, books, fees, assessments, equipment, tutoring, transportation, and reasonable living expenses.

- (3) Related Person as to a particular individual is someone who is deemed to be "related or subordinate" to that individual under Section 672(c) of the Internal Revenue Code (as though that individual was a grantor).

(e) Other Terms.

- (1) Distributions that are to be made to a person's descendants, per stirpes, will be divided into equal shares, so that there will be one share for each living child (if any) of that person and one share for each deceased child who has then living descendants. The share of each deceased child will be further divided among his or her descendants on a per stirpes basis, by reapplying the preceding rule to that deceased child and his or her descendants as many times as necessary.
- (2) Disabled or under a disability means (i) being under the legal age of majority, (ii) having been adjudicated to be incapacitated, or (iii) being unable to manage properly personal or financial affairs because of a mental or physical impairment (whether temporary or permanent in nature). A written certificate executed by an individual's attending physician confirming that person's impairment will be sufficient evidence of disability under item (ii) above, and all persons may rely conclusively on such a certificate.
- (3) Removal of a Trustee for cause includes, without limitation, the following: the willful or negligent mismanagement of the trust assets by that individual Trustee; the abuse or abandonment of, or inattention to, the trust by that individual Trustee; a federal or state charge against that individual Trustee involving the commission of a felony or serious misdemeanor; an act of theft, dishonesty, fraud, embezzlement, or moral turpitude by that individual Trustee; or the use of narcotics or excessive use of alcohol by that individual Trustee.

- (4) The words will and shall are used interchangeably in this Trust Agreement and mean, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, that the Trustee must take the action indicated; as used in this Trust Agreement, the word may means that the Trustee has the discretionary authority to take the action but is not automatically required to do so.

11.2 Powers of Appointment. The following provisions relate to all powers of appointment under this Trust Agreement.

- (a) A general power of appointment granted to a person is one that can be exercised in favor of that person or his or her estate, his or her creditors, or the creditors of his or her estate.
- (b) A special power of appointment is any power that is not a general power.
- (c) A testamentary power of appointment (either general or special) is exercisable upon the powerholder's death by his or her Last Will or by a revocable trust agreement established by that person, but only by specific reference to the instrument creating the power. A "testamentary power of appointment" may not be exercised in favor of the person possessing the power.
- (d) In determining whether a person has exercised a testamentary power of appointment, the Trustee may rely upon an instrument admitted to probate in any jurisdiction as that person's Last Will, or upon any trust agreement certified to be valid and authentic by sworn statement of the trustee who is serving under that trust agreement. If the Trustee has not received written notice of such an instrument within six months after the powerholder's death, the Trustee may presume that the powerholder failed to exercise that power and will not be liable for acting in accordance with that presumption.

11.3 Notices. Any person entitled or required to give notice under this Trust Agreement shall exercise that power by a written instrument clearly setting forth the effective date of the action for which notice is being given. The instrument may be executed in counterparts.

11.4 Certifications.

- (a) Facts. A certificate signed and acknowledged by the Trustee stating any fact affecting the Trust Estate or the Trust Agreement will be conclusive evidence of such fact in favor of any transfer agent and any other person dealing in good faith with the Trustee. The Trustee may rely on a certificate signed and acknowledged by any beneficiary stating any fact concerning the Trust beneficiaries, including dates of birth, relationships, or marital status, unless an individual serving as Trustee has actual knowledge that the stated fact is false.

(b) Copy. Any person may rely on a copy of this instrument (in whole or in part) certified to be a true copy by the Settlor; by any person specifically named as a Trustee (or successor Trustee); by any Corporate Trustee whether or not specifically named; or, if there are none of the above, by any then serving Trustee.

11.5 Applicable Law. All matters involving the validity and interpretation of this Trust Agreement are to be governed by Florida law. Subject to the provisions of this Trust Agreement, all matters involving the administration of a trust are to be governed by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the trust has its principal place of administration.

11.6 Gender and Number. Reference in this Trust Agreement to any gender includes either masculine or feminine, as appropriate, and reference to any number includes both singular and plural where the context permits or requires. Use of descriptive titles for articles and paragraphs is for the purpose of convenience only and is not intended to restrict the application of those provisions.

11.7 Further Instruments. The Settlor agrees to execute such further instruments as may be necessary to vest the Trustee with full legal title to the property transferred to this Trust.

11.8 Binding Effect. This Trust Agreement extends to and is binding upon the Settlor's Personal Representative, successors, and assigns, and upon the Trustee.

There is no date above.

OPPENHEIMER TRUST COMPANY OF DELAWARE'S MOTION TO STRIKE OBJECTION TO FINAL ACCOUNTING AND TO APPOINT GUARDIAN AD LITEM TO REPRESENT MINOR BENEFICIARIES IN ACCOUNTING PROCEEDINGS; ALTERNATIVE MOTION TO ESTABLISH SCHEDULE AND PROTOCOL FOR ACCOUNTING PROCEEDINGS

Petitioner, OPPENHEIMER TRUST COMPANY OF DELAWARE (“Oppenheimer”), as the resigned trustee of three irrevocable trusts created by the late Simon Bernstein for the benefit of his minor grandchildren, Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein (the “Grandchildren Trusts”), moves (i) to strike the “Objection to Final Accounting; Petition for Formal, Detailed Audited and Forensic Accounting and Document Production” (the “Objection”) filed by Eliot and Candice Bernstein, “individually and on behalf of [their] minor children, who are alleged qualified beneficiaries of Settlor’s Estate and Trusts,” see Objection, p. 20, (ii) for the appointment of a guardian ad litem to represent the minor beneficiaries in the accounting proceedings; and (iii) alternatively, for the entry of an order establishing a schedule and protocol for conducting the accounting proceedings. In support hereof, Oppenheimer states:¹

I. THE OBJECTION SHOULD BE STRICKEN

On November 7, 2014, this Court entered an Order providing, in relevant part, as follows (emphasis supplied):

Oppenheimer may file and serve final accountings for each of the Grandchildren Trusts with the Court. Within twenty (20) days after Oppenheimer files and serves its final accountings, the Bernsteins, as natural guardians of the minor beneficiaries, may file form, line-item objections to the final accountings. Thereafter, the Court will conduct appropriate proceedings on the final accountings.

The Court withholds ruling on Oppenheimer's Motion to Appoint Guardian Ad Litem for Minor Beneficiaries, but may reconsider Oppenheimer's Motion after the Bernsteins file their objections to the final accounting or at a later date.

A true copy of the Order is attached hereto as Exhibit "A." The Bernsteins' Objection violates the Order and should be stricken for the following reasons: (i) it was not timely filed; (ii) it sets forth broad, generalized objections and other challenges; and (iii) it asserts objections by the Bernsteins in their individual capacities.

A. The Objection Is Untimely

Oppenheimer filed and served its final accountings on December 17, 2014. The Bernsteins did not serve their objections within twenty (or even thirty) days, nor did they request an extension of the Court-imposed deadline. The Bernsteins' late-filed Objection should be stricken and their objections deemed waived.

¹ Oppenheimer filed this action solely in its capacity as the Resigned Trustee and does not, by the filing of this Motion, voluntarily appear in this action or subject itself to the jurisdiction of this Court in any other capacity.

B. The Objection Does Not Substantively Comply With the Court Order

Instead of filing “form, line-item objections” as ordered by this Court, the Bernsteins filed an all-inclusive Objection (combined with a “Petition for Formal, Detailed, Audited and Forensic Accounting and Document Production”) that challenges not only the final accountings, “in toto,” but also the validity of the Grandchildren Trusts and Oppenheimer’s status as trustee.²

Specifically, the Bernsteins:

- Object to the validity of the Grandchildren Trusts as being “alleged and legally deficient trusts,” Objection, p. 1 (see fn 2 herein);
- Object to Oppenheimer’s standing as trustee and characterize Oppenheimer as the “alleged Successor Trustee,” Objection, p. 2 (see fn 2 herein);
- “Object to all withdrawals of trust funds by [Oppenheimer] and allege that they were done fraudulently and without proper documentation and converted to improper parties as part of a larger fraud on the beneficiaries of the [Grandchildren Trusts] and the beneficiaries of the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley Bernstein...” Objection, p. 2, ¶ 3 (emphasis supplied);³
- Object that the “[t]rustees named in the document conflict with each other knowing who the Trustee actually was in the alleged trust document impossible to determine,” Objection, p. 3, ¶ 7 (see fn 2 herein);
- Object that the trust accounting begins on the date Oppenheimer became accountable as successor trustee, and does not encompass periods when prior trustees were accountable, Objection, p. 5, ¶ 20 (but see Fla. Stat. § 736.07135, providing that a trust accounting must only report information “... from the date on which the trustee became accountable...”);

² On July 8, 2010, on the Bernsteins’ Petition, this Court (in Case Nos. 502010CP003123XXXXSB, 502010CP003125XXXXSB and 502010CP003128XXXXSB) entered Final Orders appointing Oppenheimer Trust Company as the successor trustee of the Grandchildren Trusts. Copies of those Orders are attached hereto as Composite Exhibits “B” through “D.” Oppenheimer requests that the Court take judicial notice of the Final Orders pursuant to §§ 90.201(1) and/or 90.202(6), Florida Statutes. Any challenges to the validity of the Grandchildren Trusts and/or the authority of Oppenheimer to administer the Grandchildren Trusts were required to be made in those proceedings. Any such challenges raised in these proceedings are barred by res judicata, collateral estoppel and other preclusion doctrines.

³ Oppenheimer has never acted in a fiduciary capacity in connection with any Simon or Shirley Bernstein estate or trust other than the Grandchildren Trusts.

- Object to the “whole accounting” because “[a]ccount balances beginning and ending cannot be confirmed or reconciled,” Objection, p. 5, ¶ 21;
- Object to each and every section of the accountings, “in toto”, as follows:
 - The entire “Summary Accounting” (Summary of Account) section, Objection, p. 5, ¶¶ 19-22;
 - The entire “Receipts of Principal” section (pages 1-2 of the accountings), Objection, p. 6, ¶¶ 23-26;
 - The entire “Gains and Losses on Sales and Other Dispositions” section (pages 3-17 of the accountings), Objection, p. 10, ¶¶ 36-38;
 - The entire “Other Receipts Allocable to Principal” section (page 18 of the accountings), which section is comprised solely of “Income Taxes – Refunds” entries, Objection, p. 11, ¶¶ 39-42;
 - The entire “Disbursements of Principal” section (pages 19-20 of the accountings), including:
 - All “Accounting Fees,” Objection, p. 11, ¶¶ 43-45;
 - All “Fiduciary Fees,” Objection, p. 11, ¶¶ 46-48; and
 - All “Income Taxes,” Objection, p. 12, ¶¶ 49-52;
 - The entire “Distributions of Principal for Beneficiaries” section (pages 21-27 of the accountings), Objection, p. 12, ¶¶ 53-56;
 - The entire “Principal Balance on Hand” section (page 28 of the accountings), Objection, p. 14, ¶¶ 61-64;
 - The entire “Information Schedules” section (pages 29-33 of the accountings), which is comprised solely of “Changes in Investment Holdings” entries, Objection, p. 14, ¶¶ 66-69;
 - The entire “Receipts of Income” section (pages 34-48 of the accountings), including:
 - All “Dividends” entries, Objection, p. 14, ¶¶ 70-73; and
 - All “Interest” entries, Objection, p. 14, ¶¶ 74-77; and
 - Finally, the entire “Disbursement of Income” section (pages 49-50 of the accountings), including:
 - All “Accountant Fees” entries, Objection, p. 16, ¶ 78-80;

- All “Fees and Commissions” entries, Objection, p. 16, ¶ 81; and
- All “Fiduciary Fees” entries, Objection, p. 16, ¶¶ 82-84;

Because the Objection does not comport with this Court’s admonition to file “form, line-item objections” to the accountings, the Objection should be stricken and all objections deemed waived. In the alternative, the Court should strike the Objection and, as requested below, appoint a guardian ad litem to review the accountings and file appropriate objections, if any.

C. The Bernsteins Have No Standing To Object In Their Individual Capacities

Although the Order expressly provides that the Bernsteins are to serve objections solely “in their capacity as the natural guardians of the minor beneficiaries,” the Bernsteins served their Objection “individually and on behalf of [their] minor children, who are alleged qualified beneficiaries of Settlor’s Estate and Trusts,” see Objection, p. 20 (emphasis supplied). Unless the Bernsteins are asserting an individual interest in the Grandchildren Trusts,⁴ the Bernsteins have no standing to assert objections in their individual capacities. The Objection should be stricken because it was filed, at least in part, in the Bernsteins’ individual capacities.

II. THE COURT SHOULD APPOINT A GUARDIAN AD LITEM

Oppenheimer previously requested the appointment of a guardian ad litem to represent the minor beneficiaries’ interests in these proceedings because the Bernsteins have interests which appear to be adverse to the minor beneficiaries, and significantly, because Eliot Bernstein is an adjudicated vexatious litigant who has repeatedly shown contempt for the judicial system, its processes and its officers. See Oppenheimer’s Motion to Appoint Guardian

⁴ It appears from their Objection and prior filings, including their qualifier that the children are “alleged” beneficiaries, that the Bernsteins are questioning the validity of the Grandchildren Trusts and/or the minor beneficiaries’ rights thereunder. Such a position would put the Bernsteins at odds with their children.

*Ad Litem for Minor Beneficiaries dated September 19, 2014.*⁵ Mr. Bernstein's contempt and disregard continues in this case, as evidenced by his violation of the November 7 Order.

Importantly, Mr. Bernstein is not acting on his own behalf (pro se) in these proceedings. Rather, he is acting on behalf of minors who have no voice of their own. The Court should conclude, based upon Mr. Bernstein's prior litigation misconduct and his recent failure to abide by this Court's Order, that he is unfit to serve as the litigation representative of another.

At the hearing that formed the basis for the Court's November 7, 2014 Order, the Court withheld ruling on the Motion to Appoint Guardian Ad Litem,⁶ but stated that it "may reconsider [the Motion] after the Bernsteins file their objections to the final accounting or at a later date." See Exhibit "A," ¶ 3. During the hearing, the Court expressed concern that the remaining assets of the Grandchildren Trusts would be exhausted by unnecessarily extensive accounting proceedings. The Court repeatedly admonished, and then ordered, the Bernsteins to file "form, line-item" objections to the accountings so that the Court could determine, in a relatively straightforward manner, whether the objections were or might be valid.

Despite the fact that the accountings were prepared by a professional accounting firm and comply in all respects with Fla. Stat. § 736.08135, the Bernsteins flouted the Court's admonitions and Order and, instead, chose to embark upon a fishing expedition by filing global objections to all sections of the accountings based upon speculation that Oppenheimer's administration was tainted by fraud. They now ask this Court to support and sanction their fishing expedition, at significant cost to the Grandchildren Trusts, by ordering an "audited forensic accounting and forensic document analysis." See Objection, p. 29, ¶ 91.

⁵ In that Motion, Oppenheimer details Eliot Bernstein's extensive litigation history, including sanctions and findings against him by other courts. All contents of that Motion are incorporated herein by reference.

⁶ The Court indicated at the hearing that it had not had the opportunity, as of that date, to study the Motion in any detail. Oppenheimer respectfully requests that it do so now so that it is familiar with Mr. Bernstein's history.

Equally as troubling, the Bernsteins continue to question the validity of the Grandchildren Trusts and Oppenheimer's standing (even though, on the Bernsteins' Petition seeking the appointment of a successor trustee for the Grandchildren Trusts, thus implying that the trusts were valid, Oppenheimer was appointed as successor trustee). The Bernsteins also question the minor beneficiaries' standing as beneficiaries under the Grandchildren Trusts.

In prior pleadings, the Bernsteins proudly stated that their overarching goal in litigating with everyone about every issue is “to bring about a change in the legal system in efforts to root out systemic corruption at the highest levels by a rogue group of criminals disguised as attorneys at law, judges, politicians, and more.” Counter-Complaint ¶ 212. No reasonable inference can be drawn that the minor beneficiaries have a similar interest or agenda, or that pursuing such a broad agenda is in their best interest. In addition to the inescapable conclusion that the Bernsteins' choice to engage in unnecessary, wasteful litigation to achieve their personal, “overarching goal” on their children's dime is not in their children's best interest, the Bernsteins have confirmed in prior pleadings, and in the pending Objection, that they have interests which conflict with those of the minor beneficiaries. For instance, in their Counter-Complaint:

- The Bernsteins allege that beneficiary designations were changed from him to his children based upon fraudulent documents and frauds on this Court. Counter-Complaint, ¶ 253.
- The Bernsteins allege that “approximately 1/3 of all assets [are] either going to Eliot or his children or a combination of both depending on how this Court rules regarding the validity of the Wills and Trusts that have been challenged and already found fraught with fraud, fraudulent notarizations, improper notarizations, forgeries and more.” Counter-Complaint, ¶ 186.
- The Bernsteins allege that Mr. Bernstein himself is a beneficiary of the Grandchildren Trusts. Specifically, they allege that “Simon and Shirley [Bernstein] set up [the Grandchildren Trusts and Bernstein Family Realty, LLC] while living, in order to fund all of their living expenses, due to the fact that Eliot has had a bomb put in his car, death threats and is in the middle of a very intense RICO and ANTITRUST lawsuit where he and his family have been in grave danger for many years fighting corruption inside the very framework of the legal system.” The Bernsteins allege that the Grandchildren Trusts were “set up by Simon and Shirley [Bernstein] for the benefit of Eliot, Candice and their children.” Counter-Complaint, ¶¶ 109-110.

- Sixteen of the trust agreements identified as counterclaim-defendants are described as having beneficiaries including but not limited to “Eliot and/or his children or both.” See Counter-Complaint, ¶¶ 44-50, 52-60, 65.

Similarly, in their pending Objection, the Bernsteins refer to their children as the “alleged” beneficiaries and are continuing to frustrate their ability to receive any part of their trust assets by engaging in spurious, expensive litigation, no doubt in furtherance of their personal, “overarching goal.”

Courts should not permit a parent to act as a child’s litigation representative where “it appears that the [parent] has interests which may conflict with those of the [child].” 1 Leg. Rts. Child. (Legal Rights of Children) Rev. 2d § 12:3 (2d ed. 2013), citing Mistretta v. Mistretta, 566 So. 2d 836, 837 (Fla. 5th DCA 1990) (other internal citations omitted). In this case, the Court cannot reasonably conclude that the minor beneficiaries’ separate interests in the Grandchildren Trusts and their assets “will be fully protected” by the Bernsteins. The Bernsteins have challenged their children’s rights under the Grandchildren Trusts and continue to engage in a litigation strategy which virtually guarantees the dissipation of the remaining trust assets. Accordingly, the appointment of a guardian ad litem is mandatory. See Mistretta 566 So. 2d at 837-38 (denial of due process occurs when the interests of the child may be adverse to the interests of the parent); Johns v. Dep’t of Justice, 624 F.2d 522 (5th Cir.1980); Smith v. Langford, 255 So.2d 294 (Fla. 1st DCA 1971). Chapman v. Garcia, 463 So.2d 528 (Fla. 3d DCA 1985).

For all of the (extensive) reasons set forth in Oppenheimer's prior Motion and this one, Oppenheimer requests the appointment of a guardian ad litem to represent the minor beneficiaries in these accounting proceedings.

III. ALTERNATIVE MOTION TO ESTABLISH SCHEDULE AND PROTOCOL FOR ACCOUNTING PROCEEDINGS

If the Objection is not stricken and/or if a guardian ad litem is not appointed, Oppenheimer requests an Order establishing a schedule and protocol for the accounting proceedings. The Bernsteins recently served a Notice of Hearing setting their Objection for a one-hour hearing on March 17, 2015. It is unclear whether the Bernsteins intend to conduct an evidentiary or non-evidentiary hearing on that date. Regardless, one hour is insufficient to adjudicate the Bernsteins' Objection, especially because the Court will first need to consider this Motion directed to the Objection first. In order to ensure that the parties and the Court are on the same page with regard to scheduling and procedure, Oppenheimer requests the entry of an Order establishing a schedule and protocol for the conduct of the accounting proceedings.

IV. CONCLUSION

For all of the foregoing reasons, Oppenheimer requests that the Objection be stricken, and either the objections be deemed waived or a guardian ad litem be appointed to represent the minor beneficiaries in the accounting proceedings. In the alternative, Oppenheimer requests an Order establishing a schedule and protocol for the conduct of the accounting proceedings. In either event, Oppenheimer requests such other relief as is just and proper.

a. Oppenheimer effectively resigned as Trustee of the three "Grandchildren Trusts" at issue in this case effective as of May 26, 2014.

b. By October 30, 2014, the Bernsteins, as natural guardians of the minor beneficiaries of the Grandchildren Trusts, shall submit the name and address of a proposed Successor Trustee to the Court, to Oppenheimer's counsel and to the proposed Successor Trustee. At the time of their submissions, the Bernsteins shall notify the proposed Successor Trustee that he/she shall either accept or decline the appointment by November 10, 2014 by notifying the Court, the Bernsteins and counsel for Oppenheimer of his/her election in writing.

Thereafter, the Court will conduct appropriate proceedings to review and settle the final accountings.

3. The Court withholds ruling on Oppenheimer's Motion To Appoint Guardian Ad Litem For Minor Beneficiaries, but may reconsider Oppenheimer's Motion after the Bernsteins file their objections to the final accounting or at a later date.

4. The Counter-Complaint filed in this action remains stayed pending further Order of this Court.

OPPENHEIMER TRUST COMPANY
OF DELAWARE, in its capacity as
Resigned Trustee of the Simon Bernstein
Irrevocable Trusts created for the benefit of Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein,

Petitioner,

vs.

ELIOT AND CANDICE BERNSTEIN,
in their capacity as parents and natural guardians of JOSHUA, JAKE AND
DANIEL BERNSTEIN, minors,

Respondents.

_____/

OPPENHEIMER TRUST COMPANY OF DELAWARE'S MOTION TO TERMINATE GRANDCHILDREN TRUSTS AND DELIVER ASSETS TO NATURAL GUARDIANS OF MINOR BENEFICIARIES

Petitioner, OPPENHEIMER TRUST COMPANY OF DELAWARE (“Oppenheimer”), as the resigned trustee of three irrevocable trusts created by the late Simon Bernstein for the benefit of his minor grandchildren, Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein (the “Grandchildren Trusts”), moves to terminate the Grandchildren Trusts for want of a trustee, and for permission to deliver the trust assets to Eliot and Candice Bernstein (the “Bernsteins”), as the natural guardians of Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein. In support hereof, Oppenheimer states:¹

¹ Oppenheimer filed this action solely in its capacity as the Resigned Trustee and does not, by the filing of this Motion, voluntarily appear in this action or subject itself to the jurisdiction of this Court in any other capacity.

1. As the Court previously recognized, “Oppenheimer effectively resigned as Trustee of the [Grandchildren Trusts] effective as of May 26, 2014.” Omnibus Order dated November 7, 2014, ¶ 1(a). A copy of the Omnibus Order is attached hereto as Exhibit “A.”

2. The Court ordered that, “[b]y October 30, 2014, the Bernsteins, as natural guardians of the minor beneficiaries of the Grandchildren Trusts, shall submit the name and address of a proposed Successor Trustee to the Court, to Oppenheimer’s counsel and to the proposed Successor Trustee.” Omnibus Order, ¶ 1(b).

3. The Court further ordered that, “[i]f the proposed Successor Trustee accepts the appointment, Oppenheimer shall deliver the trust assets to the Successor Trustee in accordance with the provisions of Fla. Stat. § 736.0707(2). If the proposed Successor Trustee declines the appointment or fails to respond, the Court will consider other available options in light of Oppenheimer’s resignation.” Omnibus Order, ¶ 1(c).

4. The Bernsteins failed to submit the name of a proposed successor trustee by October 30, 2014, and as of the date of this filing, nearly four months later, they still have not done so.

5. Consistent with the relief requested in Count I of Oppenheimer’s Petition, Oppenheimer hereby requests that the Court declare the Grandchildren Trusts terminated and permit Oppenheimer to deliver the trust property to Eliot and Candice Bernstein, as the natural guardians of the trusts’ minor beneficiaries, subject to the provisions of Fla. Stat. § 736.0707(2).

WHEREFORE, Oppenheimer requests that the Court declare the Grandchildren Trusts terminated, permit Oppenheimer to deliver the trust assets to Eliot and Candice Bernstein, as the natural guardians of Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein, subject to the provisions of Fla. Stat. § 736.0707(2), and grant such other relief as is just and proper.

OMNIBUS ORDER

THIS MATTER came before the Court on October 20, 2014 upon the following Motions filed by Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware ("Oppenheimer"): (i) Motion for Summary Judgment As To Count I Of Its Petition; (ii) Motion To Strike Or Sever Counterclaim; and (iii) Motion To Appoint Guardian Ad Litem For Minor Beneficiaries. Having considered the Motions, heard argument from Oppenheimer's counsel and from Eliot and Candice Bernstein (the "Bernsteins"), and being otherwise duly advised in the premises, it is hereupon

ORDERED and ADJUDGED as follows:

1. Oppenheimer's Motion for Summary Judgment As To Count I Of Its Petition is granted as follows:

a. Oppenheimer effectively resigned as Trustee of the three "Grandchildren Trusts" at issue in this case effective as of May 26, 2014.

b. By October 30, 2014, the Bernsteins, as natural guardians of the minor beneficiaries of the Grandchildren Trusts, shall submit the name and address of a proposed Successor Trustee to the Court, to Oppenheimer's counsel and to the proposed Successor Trustee. At the time of their submissions, the Bernsteins shall notify the proposed Successor Trustee that he/she shall either accept or decline the appointment by November 10, 2014 by notifying the Court, the Bernsteins and counsel for Oppenheimer of his/her election in writing.

c. If the proposed Successor Trustee accepts the appointment, Oppenheimer shall deliver the trust assets to the Successor Trustee in accordance with the provisions of Fla. Stat. § 736.0707(2). If the proposed Successor Trustee declines the appointment or fails to respond, the Court will consider other available options in light of Oppenheimer's resignation.

2. Oppenheimer may file and serve final accountings for each of the Grandchildren Trusts with the Court. Within twenty (20) days after Oppenheimer files and serves its final accountings, the Bernsteins, as natural guardians of the minor beneficiaries, may file form, line-item objections to the final accountings. Thereafter, the Court will conduct appropriate proceedings to review and settle the final accountings.

3. The Court withholds ruling on Oppenheimer's Motion To Appoint Guardian Ad Litem For Minor Beneficiaries, but may reconsider Oppenheimer's Motion after the Bernsteins file their objections to the final accounting or at a later date.

4. The Counter-Complaint filed in this action remains stayed pending further Order of this Court.

URGENT [Before 2/26/2015 Hearing] MOTION TO STRIKE EX PARTE COMMUNICATION AND CANCEL STATUS HEARING SET BASED UPON EX PARTE COMMUNICATION UNTIL FURTHER REVIEW AND NOTICE BY THIS COURT

Respondents, Eliot Ivan Bernstein ("Eliot") and Candice Michelle Bernstein ("Candice"), on behalf of their minor children ("Respondent(s)"), and where the minor children are alleged qualified beneficiaries, for the following alleged and legally deficient trusts:

- A. The Daniel Bernstein Irrevocable Trust Dated September 7, 2006;
- B. The Jake Bernstein Irrevocable Trust Dated September 7, 2006;
- C. The Joshua Bernstein Irrevocable Trust Dated September 7, 2006; hereby files this, "MOTION TO STRIKE EX PARTE COMMUNICATION AND CANCEL STATUS HEARING SET BASED UPON EX PARTE COMMUNICATION UNTIL FURTHER REVIEW AND NOTICE BY THIS COURT" and in support thereof, Respondents allege as follows:

Monday, February 23, 2015
MOTION TO STRIKE EX PARTE COMMUNICATION...

1. That an Ex Parte Communication was sent to Honorable Judge Martin Colin on February 13, 2015 by Opposing Counsel and Counter Defendant, Steven Lessne, Esq. ("LESSNE") and despite the fact that the letter stated Eliot was copied on the letter, it was then factually sent to two wrong email addresses for Eliot by LESSNE'S new law firm, Gunster, Yoakley & Stewart, P.A. ("GUNSTER") (See Exhibit A – February 13, 2015 LESSNE Ex Parte Letter to Judge Colin)
2. The email addresses for Eliot are factually wrong, see (Exhibit B – Incorrect Email Addresses) which should have generated bounce receipts to the sender from the email servers (gmail.com and iviewit.tv) for the addresses that do not exist and yet no correction was ever made by GUNSTER or LESSNE to change the incompetent incorrect email addresses and therefore the letter was never sent or resent to the correct addresses for Eliot. It should be noted that this alleged email was the first and only alleged email that has been addressed wrong to Eliot by LESSNE perhaps accidentally on purpose.
3. That LESSNE did not attach to the alleged email the documents allegedly sent to Your Honor as Exhibits of the letter and any newly refiled and properly served correspondence with the Court and if the Court Order the Ex Parte Communication stricken it should demand that any renewed correspondence contain all exhibits.
4. That on or about February 17, 2015, seeing no response to the Ex Parte communiqué proffered by Eliot, Your Honor acted on the unopposed Ex Parte letter sent to Chambers by LESSNE regarding his request for a status hearing and had your Judicial Assistant, Sherrie Norton, then call LESSNE to have a status hearing scheduled.
5. That on February 17, 2015, Lessne contacted Eliot and stated that Sherrie Norton had contacted his office and stated that Your Honor wanted to set the "status" hearing, failing to mention that the request was based on his request in the Ex Parte letter he sent and instead made it appear that Your Honor desired the hearing on your own initiative. (See Exhibit C – Eliot/Lessne Emails Regarding Judge Colin’s Requested Status Hearing)

6. That Eliot will need time to respond to the Court to the Ex Parte letter that he just received for the first time on February 20, 2015 due to the incompetent email addressing and so requested that LESSNE contact Your Honor and explain the Ex Parte nature of the communication, cancel the hearing on February 26, 2015 and allow Eliot time to respond to the plethora of misleading statements contained in the Ex Parte Communication and to allow Your Honor to then determine if this hearing is necessary or not, after having time to review both sides of the story. LESSNE however refused to notify Your Honor of the Ex Parte nature of the letter as exhibited in the attached emails in Exhibit C and in fact told Eliot “You are free to proceed as you choose. My position is set forth in my prior e-mail” and thus the reason for this Motion to clarify the sharp practice tomfoolery of LESSNE on this Court and Pro Se Eliot and Candice.
7. That Eliot has requested all the email delivery and read receipts generated for the alleged email sent in error but has thus far been denied by LESSNE.
8. That it should be noted that LESSNE’S letter to Your Honor to stealthily gain the Status Hearing through a cleverly designed Ex Parte communication, came after LESSNE could not get a hearing time for his, at the time, unfiled and not even drafted motions until after Eliot’s Court Ordered hearing that was scheduled for March 17, 2015 in opposition to the final accounting put forth by LESSNE.

Monday, February 23, 2015
MOTION TO STRIKE EX PARTE COMMUNICATION...

9. Opposing Counsel and Counter Defendant (perhaps Pro Se?) LESSNE'S desire through this sharp practice was to rearrange the hearing schedule to hear his legally deficient, newly filed Motions first.
10. Opposing Counsel and Counter Defendant (perhaps Pro Se?) LESSNE filed these new toxic, vexatious, violative motions, without seeking Court approval to file them first, as admitted in the Ex Parte Letter (see Exhibit A). The Court made pre approval of any new motions mandatory in the Stay Order issued that partially Stayed this case.
11. That Eliot allotted LESSNE time in his March 17, 2015 hearing for LESSNE'S Motion to Strike Objection to Final Accounting he wanted heard by the Court but LESSNE wanted to add on to Eliot's hearing several, unfiled at the time, non-accounting related motions to be heard first, at the time of Eliot's hearing.
12. Eliot politely refused to accommodate the additional add-ons (See Exhibit D – Correspondences Regarding Scheduling Court Ordered Objection to Final Accounting) due to the limited amount of time that day to get started on his Court Ordered accounting hearing but was happy to hear LESSNE'S other items shortly thereafter, if the Court approved his unfiled and undrafted motions first, per the stay order.
13. LESSNE, in opposite of procedural rules however ignored Eliot's refusal to have him add-on other motions during Eliot's Court Ordered hearing time and went ahead and filed to have the following motions, filed without Court approval, heard as add-ons to be heard at Eliot's hearing;

- a. OPPENHEIMER TRUST COMPANY OF DELAWARE'S MOTION TO STRIKE OBJECTION TO FINAL ACCOUNTING,

Monday, February 23, 2015
MOTION TO STRIKE EX PARTE COMMUNICATION...

- b. OPPENHEIMER TRUST COMPANY OF DELAWARE'S MOTION TO APPOINT GUARDIAN AD LITEM TO REPRESENT MINOR BENEFICIARIES IN ACCOUNTING PROCEEDINGS,
- c. ALTERNATIVE MOTION TO ESTABLISH SCHEDULE AND PROTOCOL FOR ACCOUNTING PROCEEDINGS,

Eliot requests the Court remove b and c above of the addons and have LESSNE reschedule those on dates he obtains from the Court. Eliot suggested beginning the Court Ordered accounting hearing and after determine with the Court if additional time would be necessary to finish the accounting issues and at that time arrange any other hearings with Court on motions LESSNE was going to file.

- 14. The Court will recollect that it was learned at the first hearing that Oppenheimer Trust Company of New Jersey and Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware no longer have legal standing as fiduciaries to act on behalf of the trust or file further pleadings other than Court approved, as they have admittedly officially resigned already as Trustee. Similar filings as those attempted to be added on now were already dismissed by Your Honor in the first hearing of this case.
- 15. After LESSNE could not schedule time before the hearing to have his newly refiled motions heard and without seeking consent from Eliot, LESSNE scheduled additional time on Eliot's hearing that Eliot did not agree to, once again in attempts to try and have his newly filed Motions heard first, in efforts to attempt again to dismiss the case before it is heard and have Guardians appointed, etc. (which Your Honor denied in the first hearing) (See Exhibit E – Correspondences Regarding Scheduling)

16. Candice Bernstein then contacted Your Honor's chambers once the Status Hearing was demanded to be scheduled by LESSNE at allegedly Your Honor's request as his emails exhibited herein show but Sherrie did not get back to Candice for 2 days and until after LESSNE unilaterally scheduled the hearing.
17. Upon speaking with Sherrie, Candice asked why Your Honor suddenly wanted this hearing and she could not recollect how it metastasized and stated she was calling LESSNE'S office to recollect how this hearing came about.
18. Later that day Sherrie contacted Candice and stated that she had indeed initiated a called to LESSNE'S office on Your Honor's behalf but that it was due to a letter that had been sent to Your Honor, at which point it was learned for the first time that an Ex Parte letter had been sent to Your Honor, which turned out to have conveniently wrong email addresses for Eliot.
19. That Eliot therefore is filing this URGENT Motion for Your Honor to decide whether to have the hearing, after allowing Eliot ample time to respond to the Ex Parte communication and hear Eliot's reasons this hearing may be wholly unnecessary. The urgency is caused because Eliot was not aware the status hearing was scheduled surreptitiously via the Ex Parte Communication until after the hearing had been scheduled for this week and LESSNE'S refusal to contact Your Honor to correct these matters himself.

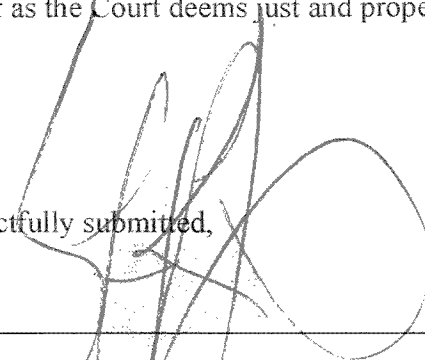

WHEREFORE, Counter Plaintiff's respectfully request that this Court enter an Order;

- i. striking the Ex Parte Communication and cancel the hearing based upon it,
- ii. allowing Eliot to respond to a new, properly resent filing with Your Honor and Eliot within five days of receipt of the new letter that properly copies all parties,
- iii. sanctioning for sharp practices Opposing Counsel and Counter Defendant LESSNE,

1. award legal fees and costs for Pro Se, Eliot and Candice,
2. granting such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Re: Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware vs. Eliot and Candice Bernstein, in their capacity as parents and natural guardians of minor beneficiaries, Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein
Case No. 502014CP002815XXXXSB (JY)

Dear Judge Colin:

I represent the Petitioner, Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware, in the above-referenced matter. I am writing to you regarding a scheduling issue.

Recently, Eliot Bernstein served a Notice of Hearing setting his "Objection to Final Accounting; Petition for Formal, Detailed, Audited and Forensic Accounting and Document Production" ("Objection") for a one-hour hearing on March 17, 2015 at 10:00 a.m. It is unclear whether Mr. Bernstein intends this to be an evidentiary or non-evidentiary hearing.

Because Mr. Bernstein's Objection does not comply with this Court's November 7, 2014 Order (requiring him to file "form, line-item objections" to Oppenheimer's final accountings), and for other reasons, Oppenheimer filed a motion to strike the objection and to appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the minor beneficiaries in the accounting proceedings. In the event those motions are not granted, Oppenheimer filed an alternate motion to establish a schedule and protocol for the conduct of the accounting proceedings. Because these motions will necessarily need to be heard before the Court substantively considers Mr. Bernstein's Objection, the undersigned cross-noticed Oppenheimer's motions for March 17, 2015, in an abundance of caution. The undersigned previously notified Mr. Bernstein that Oppenheimer would be filing these motions, and that a one-hour hearing would be insufficient, but Mr. Bernstein scheduled the one-hour hearing on his Objection nonetheless.

I am writing to you so that you can determine how and when you would like to consider Oppenheimer's motions and/or Mr. Bernstein's Objection. I am enclosing copies of the following documents for your ease of reference:

- The three Final Accountings filed by Oppenheimer, together with Oppenheimer's Notice of Filing;
- Eliot Bernstein's Objection to Final Accounting; Petition for Formal, Detailed, Audited and Forensic Accounting and Document Production;

Mr. Lessne,

Your continued practice of misrepresentation will be noted to Judge Colin and I request that we cancel this hearing immediately as it was set up under false pretenses with me and the court and notify Judge Colin's of the tomfoolery used to schedule the hearing. You contacted me saying Judge Colin wanted to have a Status Hearing he was requesting and had contacted you to arrange with and then demanded times from me as is indicated in your emails below. You did not tell me Judge Colin was sent an ex parte letter that I never received and that is why he was calling for a "status" check. I would like that you contact Judge Colin and his assistant immediately to inform them that I never received the Ex-Parte communication and was misled by you as to what the status check was all about and why it was being scheduled. I will then respond to the Ex Parte communication I received today from you for the first time and the myriad of false statements contained therein and see if Judge Colin would still want such a hearing after my response is sent to him informing him of several issues with your strange and delusional behavior exhibited in the letter that led to the hearing be scheduled under false pretenses by you. It will take me a few days to respond to the letter that you just sent me for the very first time as I am tied up through the weekend.

Please refrain from further Ex Parte communications with Judge Colin and misleading both the Court and me in order to try and procure your hearings forward. Also, have you notified your new law firm that you are a counter defendant in this case and have you reported such to your liability carrier?

Mr. Bernstein:

I generally don't "reply to all" in response to your e-mails, but because your below e-mail contains serious, defamatory remarks about my character and professionalism, I will make an exception here to set the record straight.

First, you were served by e mail with a copy of my letter to Judge Colin the same day it was sent to the Judge. Attached is the e-mail containing the letter.

Second, the letter, which addresses a scheduling issue, is accurate in all respects, as illustrated by the attached January 23 e-mail exchange between you and me.

Finally, a floater in my office received a call from Judge Colin's assistant on February 17. The floater was informed that Judge Colin wanted me to schedule a "status check" on the Court's motion calendar. I promptly sent you an e-mail reporting the call and requesting dates from you. When you failed to respond, I set the status check for next Thursday. All of this is confirmed by the attached February 17 19 e mail exchange between you and me.

I know you don't like lawyers, but please at least be honest in your disparaging remarks.

Subject: RE: Oppenheimer v. Bernstein

Mr. Lessne,

First off, you need to be contacting Judge Colin regarding all of this and cancel your surreptitious scheduled hearing. Again, I did not receive nor did my wife any email from you on the alleged date and only have received copy today and if you could please provide your exchange receipts for that day on the alleged email that would be great. As for your character, well, as you know from my counter complaint against you, in which you are a counter defendant, your character has been in question since you first contacted me and my wife under false pretense, acting as my children's newly hired counsel, talking with us about our strategies going forward with you and then later learning that you were not representing our minor children and were in fact representing Oppenheimer instead.

Your Ex Parte letter is inaccurate in many ways and I would have responded to Judge Colin with a response to your claims and most likely he would have not wanted to schedule anything other than what is already scheduled. In fact, you have tried to schedule around my hearing for accounting, to have your newly filed plethora of toxic and vexatious filings heard first and when that did not work you concocted this scheme to make it look like Judge Colin just woke up and told his assistant Sherry to have you call me and schedule a non-related to anything status hearing. Hopefully by now you have contacted Judge Colin and cancelled this ill-gotten hearing and notified him I will respond to your ex parte communication with him next week in writing and then he can decide if he wants to have a status check at all.

I am not sure what a "floater" is in your office, do they have a formal name you can provide me? I did not fail to respond, I was waiting for Judge Colin's chambers to contact me back to confirm that this was a hearing Judge Colin wanted and why. You just went ahead and scheduled and even Sherry was confused when we called as to what transpired and called your offices to recollect what happened. She then contacted us back then stated the meeting impetus was based on a communication you sent to the judge requesting such and we informed her that we had never received any letter regarding scheduling a hearing for status from you, thus the Ex Parte part of the communication with Judge Colin. You're a clever fellow I must admit.

As you responded to all in my email you can see that I do like many lawyers despite your pining that I do not like all lawyers. There are many more friends of mine that practice law nationwide who are good and honest lawyers and it is only a rotten few bad apples like you that give the whole profession a bad name. I am certain you can understand my dislike for attorneys like Robert Spallina, Esq. and Donald Tescher, Esq. whose law firm forged and fraudulently notarized dispositive documents in my mother and father estate and trust documents and more. And understand my distaste and continued actions against the lawyers who are alleged to have stolen my Intellectual Properties. Or for example, after reading the email exchange below between a good attorney at law who I like, Peter Feaman, Esq., who is representing a creditor of the estate of my father and the newly appointed Personal Representative/Executor of my father's estate, another good lawyer I like, Brian O'Connell, Esq., you will see why I do not like Alan B. Rose, Esq. (another counter defendant like you in this case) for his immoral, unethical, unprofessional and possibly criminal behaviors.

000916

Brian,

When you and I spoke last week you indicated that you were in favor of the settlement that Mr. Stansbury had signed and sent to you for signature. You indicated that you had to work out funding with the trust. Meanwhile, the Life insurance litigation in Chicago is moving forward. Our attorneys are taking a deposition in Chicago the week after New Years of "Scooter" Bernstein, I think. They also want to depose Ted Bernstein and Robert Spallina in early January as well. I offered my office as a locale for those depositions.

Deposing Ted Bernstein in the Chicago action poses some serious conflict of interest issues for Ted Bernstein and ethical issues for Mr. Rose as the Florida attorney for Mr. Ted Bernstein.

He is being deposed as a party Plaintiff in the Chicago action, the purpose of which is to direct $1.7 million in life insurance to the 5 adult children of Simon Bernstein away from the Bernstein estate.

Yet Mr. Rose represents Ted Bernstein as Successor Trustee to the Simon Bernstein Trust, the beneficiaries of which are the GRANDCHILDREN OF Simon Bernstein, and the Trust is the beneficiary of the Simon Estate which is directly opposed to the position of Ted Bernstein as Plaintiff in the Chicago Life Insurance litigation.

Just as Ted Bernstein cannot wear both hats, it seems that Alan Rose cannot represent a client so conflicted.

Further, it would seem to me that the estate (you as Personal Representative) has an absolute duty to demand Ted's resignation as Successor Trustee, as his continued role as such imperils the interests of the grandchildren, to whom you owe a fiduciary duty as the Personal Representative.

The bottom line is that the more this drags on, the worse it is going to get for all concerned.

At some point, respectfully, I think you are going to have to take the bull by the horns and 1.) demand that Ted Bernstein resign as Successor Trustee and 2.) Take an active role in directing the attorneys in Chicago to push the case in order to bring it to a successful resolution on behalf of the estate, either by settlement or trial. This means taking over the responsibility for the litigation from Mr. Stansbury in light of the favorable position that the Estate is now in as a result of Mr. Stansbury's efforts.

I welcome your thoughts on this.

I bring up Mr. Rose as you have been noted to be working with him on your futile defense in this case and wanted you to be aware of his alleged misconduct and fear that you're working with him in these matters may have affected you further to continue crossing ethical and legal lines. I see you are working at Mr. Rose's old law firm now, Gunster, since your recent and sudden departure from Gray Robinson and wondered if your termination from Gray Robinson was predicated or had anything to do with this matter and your being a counter defendant in this matter. Finally, I will be seeking leave to amend my counter complaint to add your new law firm as counter defendant, so can you please provide me with the managing partners contact information so that I may serve him properly for the firm? Have the liability carriers, personally and professionally, that were notified of the lawsuit against you at both of your firms allowed you to continue to practice in this matter that you are a counter defendant in for good and just cause?

If you refuse to notify Judge Colin of these matters and my objections to the hearing and provide him with all of the communications surrounding this hearing than I will contact his chambers first thing Monday morning and provide him with a letter explaining all of this myself.

Thanks, Eliot

Forgot to add your newly sent attachments to show improper email address ivewit v. iviewit. They are attached herein.

Mr. Lessne,

Your email alleged sent to me on February 13, 2015 was sent to the wrong email addresses according to the email I received today from you for the first time. Certainly it could not have gotten to me with wrong email addresses, how quaint. I am sure you have all the email bounce receipts and read receipts and will send them over, I just wonder why you did not call once you received bounced return mail from gmail for the incompetent addresses or after getting the bounced emails then correcting and resending the email but you can explain that to Judge Colin. How strange that all your other emails seem to get to me with the right addressing but this one. Sure, blame it on the sender or blame it on incompetence, either way I was never in receipt of the Ex Parte letter and thus it remains an Ex Parte communication and I had no chance to reply to the Judge regarding my objections to the Ex Parte letter. Therefore, again, I urge you notify Judge Colin immediately of your incompetence, send him all the emails regarding this incompetence and show the Ex Parte nature of your clever communication that led to the scheduling of hearing based on Ex Parte letter and have him determine what to do after he receives my forthcoming response to your letter. You should seek to have him cancel the hearing for status you have scheduled until further notice by the Court if it so desires, after Judge Colin has time to review my retort. Since this is your screw up I would have anticipated you're fixing the matter with Judge Colin in a gentlemanly way but your refusal to contact Judge Colin appears steadfast. Therefore, I will do the work and will add it to the tolling damages you and your client have caused thus far as asserted in the Counter Complaint you were served as a Counter Defendant. By the way, I hate to keep asking but have you reported this matter to your liability carriers both personally and professionally, for both firms you have worked for on these matters and informed them of your standing as a bona fide Counter Defendant that has been served process? Have you notified Gunster that you are a Counter Defendant and have they notified their carrier that they will be added if they continue to allow you to represent these matters in conflict? Please send over the name of the managing partner and his email so that I may notify him if you have not.

Thanks, Eliot

March 17 is fine, but I will likely be adding on motions to be heard (e.g., a motion to strike your objections, a renewed motion to appoint guardian ad litem, and a motion to terminate the trust for failure to designate a successor trustee), so I think a two hour hearing would be better. Please get dates for a two hour hearing and get back to me. Thank you.

Mr. Bernstein:

I will be cross-noticing my motions for hearing on the date that you choose. The motions need to be heard together because they are interrelated. If you want to notice a one hour hearing, that is your prerogative, but I will be letting the court know that I believe that time is insufficient for our purposes. It will be better if we reserve more time so that we both have ample opportunity to present our positions to the court. Let me know how you'd like to proceed.

We should not be arguing regarding scheduling issues. In my experience, the court does not appreciate when we reserve inadequate time and set motions piecemeal.

Mr. Lessne, you were fine for my hearing date and time and wanted more time to add what appear to be 1 related motion and 2 unrelated motions. I am sure we have enough time to begin hearing the accounting objection and your objection to that, if not, we will continue. As to your non related motions I do not have time to hear those and they can certainly be heard at a later day. As to your motion to terminate the trusts because of the failure to have a successor trustee I am sure the judge will understand your refusal to turn over your records to me as the guardian of my children in order to be able to share with potential candidates for review before they commit to anything, especially with some of the more perverse and alleged fraudulent issues with the trusts you tendered to the Court. Thanks, Eliot

OPPENHEIMER TRUST COMPANY OF DELAWARE'S AMENDED MOTION TO TERMINATE GRANDCHILDREN TRUSTS AND DELIVER ASSETS TO NATURAL GUARDIANS OF MINOR BENEFICIARIES

Petitioner, OPPENHEIMER TRUST COMPANY OF DELAWARE (“Oppenheimer”), as the resigned trustee of three irrevocable trusts created by the late Simon Bernstein for the benefit of his minor grandchildren, Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein (the “Grandchildren Trusts”), moves to terminate the Grandchildren Trusts for want of a trustee, and for permission to deliver the trust assets to Eliot and Candice Bernstein (the “Bernsteins”), as the natural guardians of Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein. In support hereof, Oppenheimer states:

1. This action relates to three trusts for minors, each with liquid assets and a total value of approximately $3,000. See Final Accountings previously filed with the Court.

2. Oppenheimer was forced to file this action because the natural guardians of the minor beneficiaries refused to designate a successor trustee upon Oppenheimer's resignation. See Oppenheimer's April 22, 2014 letter to the Bernsteins, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

3. In Count I of its Petition, Oppenheimer requested that the Court "either (i) appoint a successor trustee to whom Oppenheimer may deliver the Trust property or (ii) terminate the Trusts and permit Oppenheimer to deliver the Trust property to Eliot and Candice Bernstein, as the natural guardians of the Trusts' beneficiaries." See Petition, ¶ 19.

4. As the Court previously recognized, "Oppenheimer effectively resigned as Trustee of the [Grandchildren Trusts] effective as of May 26, 2014." See Omnibus Order dated November 7, 2014, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "B." The Court ordered that the Bernsteins were to designate a proposed successor trustee and, if they did not, the Court would consider "other available options in light of Oppenheimer's resignation." Id.

5. The Bernsteins failed to designate a successor trustee in accordance with the November 7, 2015 Order.

6. On February 26, 2015, the Court again ordered the Bernsteins to designate a proposed successor trustee. A copy of the February 26, 2015 Order is attached hereto as Exhibit "C."

7. On February 26, 2015, Eliot Bernstein provided the names of three proposed corporate trustees to Oppenheimer's counsel. Mr. Bernstein did not provide the names of any contact people at the companies he identified, instead writing "good luck finding someone!" to Petitioner's counsel. A copy of the February 26, 2015 communication is attached hereto as Exhibit "D."

8. Petitioner's counsel contacted the three corporate trustees proposed by the Bernsteins, informed them of the reason for the call and the nature and value of the assets of the Grandchildren Trusts (as set forth in the Final Accountings previously filed with the Court), and on November 27, 2015, reported the following results to the Court:

- a. Reliance Trust Company, through its Senior Vice-President of Personal Trusts and National Sales Manager, Robert Sajbak, declined the appointment;
- b. Principal Trust Company, through its Relationship Manager, Lisa Hirsh, declined the appointment; and
- c. The Private Trust Company, through its Business Development Officer, Ben Foreman, declined the appointment.

9. The Grandchildren Trusts and the Florida Trust Code both permit termination of the trusts under the present circumstances.

10. The Grandchildren Trusts provide authority to "terminate any trust whenever the value of the principal of that trust would be or is too small to administer economically..." See Trusts, § 7.18.

11. Similarly, the Florida Trust Code provides that "the court may modify or terminate a trust... if the court determines that the value of trust property is insufficient to justify the cost of administration." See Fla. Stat. § 736.0414(2); see also § 736.0414(1) (permitting the trustee to terminate the trust if its value is less than $50,000).

12. Consistent with the relief requested in Count I of Oppenheimer's Petition, Oppenheimer hereby requests that the Court declare the Grandchildren Trusts terminated and permit Oppenheimer to deliver the trust property to Eliot and Candice Bernstein, as the natural guardians of the trusts' minor beneficiaries, subject to the provisions of Fla. Stat. § 736.0707(2).

WHEREFORE, Oppenheimer requests that the Court declare the Grandchildren Trusts terminated, permit Oppenheimer to deliver the trust assets to Eliot and Candice Bernstein, as the natural guardians of Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein, subject to the provisions of Fla. Stat. § 736.0707(2), and grant such other relief as is just and proper.

Re: Resignation as Trustee of Trusts for the benefit of Joshua, Jacob and Daniel
Bernstein; Offer to Resign as Manager of Bernstein Family Realty, LLC

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Bernstein:

I represent, and am writing to you on behalf of, Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware ("Oppenheimer"), in its capacity as Trustee of the three trusts created by Simon Bernstein for the benefit of your minor children, Joshua, Jacob and Daniel Bernstein (the "Trusts"). This letter is directed to you, as the parents and natural guardians of Joshua, Jacob and Daniel Bernstein (the "Beneficiaries"), and will constitute due notice to the Beneficiaries under the Trusts and Florida law.

Oppenheimer hereby notifies you that it will resign as Trustee of the Trusts effective May 26, 2014 (the "Effective Date"). You, as the natural guardians of the Beneficiaries, have the right and obligation to appoint a successor corporate trustee. If you do not provide Oppenheimer, through me, with a written document evidencing that a successor corporate trustee has been appointed and has accepted the appointment before the Effective Date, Oppenheimer will petition the Court to either appoint a successor trustee or terminate the Trusts and distribute their assets to you, as natural guardians of the Beneficiaries.

For your information, the Trusts provide, in relevant part, as follows:

5.2 Resignation. Any Trustee may resign by giving 30 days' written notice delivered personally or by mail to any then serving Co-Trustee and to the Settlor if he is then living and not disabled; otherwise to the next named successor Trustee, or if none, to the persons having power to appoint successor Trustees.

5.3 Power to Name Other Trustees. Whenever a successor Trustee is required and that position is not filled under the terms specified in this Trust Agreement, an individual Trustee ceasing to serve (other than a Trustee being removed) may appoint his or her successor, but if none is appointed, the remaining Trustees, if any, or the beneficiary shall appoint a successor Corporate Trustee. The appointment will be by a written document (including a testamentary instrument) delivered to the appointed Trustee. In no event may the Settlor ever be appointed as the Trustee under this Trust Agreement nor shall a Successor trustee be appointed that will cause this trust to be a grantor trust.

Similarly, Fla. Stat. § 736.0705, entitled "Resignation of trustee," provides, in relevant part, as follows:

(1) A trustee may resign:

(a) Upon at least 30 days' notice to the qualified beneficiaries, the settlor, if living, and all cotrustees...

Finally, Fla. Stat. § 736.0704, entitled "Vacancy in trusteeship; appointment of successor," provides, in relevant part, as follows:

(3) A vacancy in a trusteeship of a noncharitable trust that is required to be filled must be filled in the following order of priority:

(a) By a person named or designated pursuant to the terms of the trust to act as successor trustee.

(b) By a person appointed by unanimous agreement of the qualified beneficiaries.

(c) By a person appointed by the court.

Please let me know of your intentions with regard to the appointment of a successor trustee before the Effective Date.

Eliot and Candice Bernstein

I am also writing to you on behalf of Oppenheimer, in its capacity as the Manager of Bernstein Family Realty, LLC (the "Company"). As you know, the Trusts are the sole owners and members of the Company, and the Company owns the house occupied by you and the Beneficiaries. Oppenheimer understands that the house is encumbered by two mortgages which probably exceed the value of the house. A third party, William Stansbury, claims that he is entitled to an equitable lien on the house, and he has sued the Company to establish such a lien. At Oppenheimer's direction, the Company is defending the lawsuit in order to avoid the claimed third lien on the house.

You have expressed unhappiness with Oppenheimer's management of the Company. In light of Oppenheimer's decision to resign as Trustee, Oppenheimer would like to offer you the opportunity to assume management of the Company, or appoint another successor manager, so that you or your chosen manager can defend the Stansbury lawsuit, operate the Company and deal with third parties on behalf of the Company as you deem to be in the best interest of the Company's members and, ultimately, your children. If you would like Oppenheimer to resign as Manager, please notify me in writing, before the Effective Date, of your selection of an appropriate successor manager and the successor's agreement to serve. Upon receipt of your selection, Oppenheimer will resign as Manager and, on behalf of the member Trusts, appoint your chosen successor.

Please note that, if you do not request Oppenheimer's earlier resignation and designate a successor manager, it is Oppenheimer's intent to resign as Manager of the Company after a successor trustee is appointed or the Trusts are terminated. At that point, it will be up to the successor trustee or you, as natural guardians of the Beneficiaries, to appoint a new manager.

If you have any questions regarding the foregoing, please contact me or have your attorney do so.

Very truly yours,

Steven A. Lessne FOR

OMNIBUS ORDER

THIS MATTER came before the Court on October 20, 2014 upon the following Motions filed by Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware ("Oppenheimer"): (i) Motion for Summary Judgment As To Count I Of Its Petition; (ii) Motion To Strike Or Sever Counterclaim; and (iii) Motion To Appoint Guardian Ad Litem For Minor Beneficiaries. Having considered the Motions, heard argument from Oppenheimer's counsel and from Eliot and Candice Bernstein (the "Bernsteins"), and being otherwise duly advised in the premises, it is hereupon

ORDERED and ADJUDGED as follows:

1. Oppenheimer's Motion for Summary Judgment As To Count I Of Its Petition is granted as follows:

a. Oppenheimer effectively resigned as Trustee of the three "Grandchildren Trusts" at issue in this case effective as of May 26, 2014.

b. By October 30, 2014, the Bernsteins, as natural guardians of the minor beneficiaries of the Grandchildren Trusts, shall submit the name and address of a proposed Successor Trustee to the Court, to Oppenheimer's counsel and to the proposed Successor Trustee. At the time of their submissions, the Bernsteins shall notify the proposed Successor Trustee that he/she shall either accept or decline the appointment by November 10, 2014 by notifying the Court, the Bernsteins and counsel for Oppenheimer of his/her election in writing.

c. If the proposed Successor Trustee accepts the appointment, Oppenheimer shall deliver the trust assets to the Successor Trustee in accordance with the provisions of Fla. Stat. § 736.0707(2). If the proposed Successor Trustee declines the appointment or fails to respond, the Court will consider other available options in light of Oppenheimer's resignation.

2. Oppenheimer may file and serve final accountings for each of the Grandchildren Trusts with the Court. Within twenty (20) days after Oppenheimer files and serves its final accountings, the Bernsteins, as natural guardians of the minor beneficiaries, may file form, line-item objections to the final accountings. Thereafter, the Court will conduct appropriate proceedings to review and settle the final accountings.

3. The Court withholds ruling on Oppenheimer's Motion To Appoint Guardian Ad Litem For Minor Beneficiaries, but may reconsider Oppenheimer's Motion after the Bernsteins file their objections to the final accounting or at a later date.

4. The Counter-Complaint filed in this action remains stayed pending further Order of this Court.

PALM BEACH COUNTY, FL
SOUTH CITY BRANCH - FILED

ORDER FROM APRIL 20, 2015 CONTINUED HEARING ON RESPONDENTS' OBJECTION TO FINAL ACCOUNTING

On March 17, 2015, the Court conducted a one-hour evidentiary hearing on Respondents' "Objection to Final Accounting; Petition for Formal, Detailed Audited and Forensic Accounting" (the "Objection") and considered and overruled objections numbered 1 through 5. On April 20, 2015, the Court conducted an additional 2 ½ hour evidentiary hearing on the Objection. At the April 20, 2015 hearing, the Court ~~verbally~~ ^{and} ordered as follows:

1. Objections 6 through 9 are overruled.
2. Objection 10 is overruled based upon the testimony of Petitioner's President, Hunt Worth, that the statements produced by Petitioner for accounts titled (i) "Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Trust U/A 9/7/06 FBO Daniel Bernstein" (OPP0011-0036), (ii) "Simon Bernstein

Irrevocable Trust U/A 9/7/06 FBO Jake Bernstein” (OPP0037-0062), and (iii) “Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Trust U/A 9/7/06 FBO Joshua Z Bernstein” (OPP0063-0089) relate solely to the three irrevocable trusts settled by Simon Bernstein, entitled “Daniel Bernstein Irrevocable Trust Dated September 7, 2006,” “Jake Bernstein Irrevocable Trust Dated September 7, 2006,” and “Joshua Bernstein Irrevocable Trust Dated September 7, 2006,” respectively.¹

3. Objection 11 fails to state a legally-recognized objection.

4. Objections 14 through 17 are overruled.

5. Objection 18 fails to state a legally-recognized objection.

6. Objections 19 through 22 are overruled.

7. Objections 24 and 25 are overruled.

8. With regard to objection 27, Petitioner shall file a supplement to the Final Accountings to clarify: (i) that Petitioner has not conducted a forensic accounting of, or independently valued, LIC Holdings, Inc. (“LIC”), (ii) that Petitioner is not purporting to assign a value to the 1.33% interest of LIC that each trust owns, (iii) that there have been no transactions related to the shares of LIC held by the trusts (sale of shares, dividends, etc.) during Petitioner’s trusteeship, and (iv) that Petitioner intends to transfer the shares of LIC held by the trusts, in kind, to the person or entity designated by the Court to receive the trusts’ assets.

9. With regard to objections 12, 13, 23, 26, and 28 through 90, in light of Respondents’ claim that they have had insufficient time to review the backup documents produced by Petitioner, Respondents shall file a notice with this Court, on or before June 1,

¹ Documents Bates-stamped OPP0001-1521 were admitted into evidence as Petitioner’s Exhibit 1 at the March 17, 2015 hearing, without objection. The three above-described trust documents were admitted into evidence at the March 17, 2015 hearing as Exhibits 6 through 8, respectively.

2015,² indicating which of these objections they are abandoning in light of Petitioner's production of documents.³ For each objection that Respondents do not abandon, Respondents shall give a one-sentence reason why they are not abandoning the objection.

10. The Court will consider all objections that are not abandoned by Respondents or disposed of by this Order at a further hearing to be set by the Court. The Court will endeavor to set aside ample hearing time for Respondents to go through the remainder of their objections and conclude their case, and for Petitioner to call its witnesses, make its arguments and conclude its case.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers, Palm Beach County, Florida on

3/4/15, nunc pro tunc to April 20, 2015.

Hon. Martin Colin, Circuit Judge

² The Court originally ruled that objections 12 and 13 would be deemed overruled unless Respondents filed a notice within 10 days that there were problems with the backup documents related to those objections. Towards the end of the hearing, the Court gave Respondents until June 1 to review the backup documents and file a notice with the court indicating what objections they were abandoning. In light of the Court's later ruling, the Court will give Respondents until June 1 to decide whether they wish to abandon objections 12 and 13, instead of the 10 day deadline originally imposed.

³ As reflected in the "Notice of Production," "Notice of Intent to Introduce Evidence By Means of Business Records Certification," and "Request for Judicial Notice" filed with the Court on March 10, 2015, Petitioner certifies that it produced documents Bates-stamped OPP0001-1521, a Business Records Certification and three public records related to the real property owned by Bernstein Family Realty, LLC to Respondents on March 10, 2015. Respondents claim that they were unable to access the documents produced to them electronically on March 10, 2015, and that they did not actually receive the documents until they were Federal Expressed by Petitioner at Respondents' request. As reflected in the "Notice of Production," "Notice of Intent to Introduce Evidence By Means of Business Records Certification," and "Notice of Intent to Rely on Summaries" filed with the Court on April 8, 2015, Petitioner certifies that it produced documents Bates-stamped 1522-1828, a Business Records Certification and three Summaries of tax reporting and refund information to Respondents on April 8, 2015. Respondents acknowledge receiving that production on April 8, 2015. At the April 20, 2015 hearing, documents Bates-stamped OPP1522-1828 and the three summaries of tax reporting and refund information were introduced into evidence, without objection, as Petitioner's Exhibits 9 and 10, respectively. Also at the April 20, 2015 hearing, Petitioner introduced, as a demonstrative aide, annotated copies of the Final Accountings which cross-reference each line item in the Final Accountings, pages 1 through 50, to the backup documents supporting each line item.

EXHIBIT A

Amendment and Supplement to the Joshua Bernstein Irrevocable Trust (“Trust”)
Summary of Account For the Period July 30, 2010 through May 26, 2014

I. Valuation of Trust’s Interests in LIC Holdings, Inc. - On Pages 2 and 31 of the previously-filed “Summary of Account for the Period 7/30/10 through 5/26/14” (the “Accounting”), the opening, current and carrying value for the Trust’s 1.33% interest in LIC Holdings, Inc. was input as “$0.00” rather than “no value assigned,” as intended. The above-described value entries on pages 2 and 31 of the Accounting should be changed from “$0.00” to “no value assigned,” and paragraph 4 of the Accounting’s disclosure statement should read as follows:

The Trust owns a 1.33% interest in LIC Holdings, Inc. (“LIC”). We have been informed by Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware as follows: (i) LIC is a closely-held company managed by Theodore Bernstein; (ii) Oppenheimer received the Trust’s shares of LIC in-kind from the prior trustee,¹ has held the shares in-kind, and intends to distribute the shares in-kind to the person or entity designated by the Court; and (iii) there have been no transactions related to the shares of LIC (such as distributions, dividends, redemptions, etc.) since the shares were received from the prior trustee. We were not engaged or asked to perform a forensic accounting of LIC or otherwise independently value LIC in light of the small, fractional interest of LIC held by the Trust and the lack of liquid funds in the Trust with which to perform a forensic accounting. Because we lack independent knowledge regarding the value of LIC, it would be inappropriate for us to assign a value to the Trust’s interest in LIC. Therefore, we do not assign, or purport to assign, a value to that interest in the Accounting.

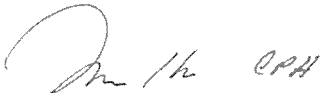

II. Valuation of Trust’s Interest in Bernstein Family Realty, LLC - On Pages 2 and 31 of the Final Accounting, the opening, current and carrying value for the Trust’s 33% interest in Bernstein Family Realty, LLC (and the mortgages related thereto) are reflected. Paragraph 3 of the Accounting’s disclosure statement should read as follows:

The Trust owns a 33% interest in Bernstein Family Realty, LLC (“BFR”). We have been informed by Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware that BFR’s sole asset is a personal residence located at 2753 NW 34th Ct., Boca Raton, Florida, which is occupied by the beneficiary and his family. We were not engaged to appraise the property, and we do not purport to independently assign a value to the property, BFR’s equity interest in the property, or the Trust’s interest in BFR. The values assigned in the Accounting were arrived at as follows: (i) the public records reflect that the property was purchased on June 18, 2008 for $360,000, and there were two mortgages recorded against the property in 2008 (one for $110,000 and one for $365,000); and (ii) we were informed by Oppenheimer that the Trust made one interest-only payment on the first mortgage on October 15, 2013 in the amount of $1,283.33 (the total payment made by the three Trusts was $3,850.00), there were no other transactions related to the property or the mortgages during the accounting period, and the beneficiary’s natural guardians are disputing the validity of the second mortgage. We are not purporting to independently assign a value to the property or the Trust's interest in BFR, or to determine the validity of the second mortgage. If we were to assume the second mortgage is valid and assign a value to the Trust's interest in BFR based solely on the above-listed information, the values would be as stated in the Accounting.

III. Existence of Unpaid and Unliquidated Liabilities: The Trust has unpaid, unliquidated liabilities for accounting and legal fees related to pending accounting, resignation and litigation proceedings.

7. Any competent Judge acting impartially knew or should have known prior Judge Martin Colin was a material fact witness to the multiple frauds occurring in his Court specifically involving Fiduciaries Robert Spallina, Donald Tescher, the Tescher Spallina law firm, and at minimum Ted Bernstein also purporting to act in an alleged fiduciary capacity specifically involving the very case, the Shirley Estate and Trust, which Judge Phillips illegally set for Trial on Sept. 15, 2015 acting in a case Not Noticed for Case Management by the current PR of the Simon Bernstein Estate Brian O'Connell and Joy Foglietta of the Ciklin Lubitz & O'Connell law firm.
8. Thus, Judge Phillips should now be Disqualified further for failing to mandatorily Disqualify previously and knowing he is acting outside his jurisdiction and acting in the clear absence of jurisdiction.
9. Had Judge Phillips not been immediately disqualified due to his being a witness to relevant matters in the improper Transfer and steering of the case to the North Branch where it ended up with Judge Coates who not only was a Proskauer Rose partner (Proskauer also a Counter Defendant in these matters) but turned out he worked in the exact office across the hall from Petitioner where some of the initial frauds and thefts occurred of IP that should be a part of the Estates and Trust values for Shirley and Simon Bernstein, the only proper initial action for Judge Phillips would have been to freeze and enjoin all Court files from the Colin and French and Main Branch courts, freeze and enjoin all Estate and Trust accounts, freeze and enjoin all evidence and records, documents, computer files and all alleged “Originals” and other instruments which instead are still in the hands of the prior fiduciaries Spallina and Tescher who committed some of the original frauds in Judge Colin’s court, then Phillips should have further moved to invalidate the entire proceedings held under Colin and remove all Fiduciaries, Officers of the Court and attorneys involved for having committed FRAUD UPON THE COURT by OFFICERS OF THE COURT who submitted fraudulent documents to the court and used a deceased party to close the Estate of his deceased wife in a bizarre fraud lasting several months after Simon Bernstein died, where he was used post mortem to posit documents with the court to close an estate.

10. A simple, basic, non-octopus wrangling competent reading and review of the Case files assigned to Judge Phillips by the improper Transfer should have revealed to any marginally competent independent and neutral jurist acting consistent with US Constitutional due process that Ted Bernstein had to know of the frauds committed by the fiduciaries Tescher Spallina in Shirley’s Estate, the counsel he retained to represent him in his fiducial capacities before Judge Colin since Ted Bernstein had NOT signed any Waiver in Shirley’s Estate prior to April 9, 2012 and thus Ted Bernstein knew and had to know as early as 2012 or at minimum May of 2013 by Petitioners May 6, 2013 Emergency Filing that ANY document posited by the TESCHER SPALLINA law firm to the contrary to close Shirley’s Estate such as the April 9, 2012 Sworn Petition to Discharge allegedly signed by Simon Bernstein before Robert Spallina was fraud upon the Court, fraud against the Estate of Shirley Bernstein, and fraud involving the use of his father Simon Bernstein prior to his passing and after his passing.

11. A competent impartial judge who is neutral and independent and acting consistent with US Constitutional Due process knew and had to know that in addition to actual Frauds Upon the Court and likely involving the Court, these matters also raised the important issue of whether

Simon Bernstein himself was being unduly influenced and improperly pressured since there would be no reason for Simon Bernstein to sign an April 9, 2012 Petition to Discharge knowing this was fraudulent since a phone call to discuss matters with the Beneficiaries did not even occur until May of 2012 and some of the beneficiaries did not even sign the Waiver until after Simon passed in Sept. of 2012 and that Ted Bernstein, instead of securing ALL files and evidence away from TESCHER and SPALLINA immediately as a proper fiduciary and seeking forensic investigation of key and critical documents and instruments instead continued along and became part of the fraud acting together with TESCHER and SPALLINA and where TED and his counsel Alan Rose, a material fact witness, continued to work with and interact with former fiduciaries SPALLINA and TESCHER even into and during the illegal trial of Dec. 15, 2015. Having failed to properly act in all these matters, Judge Phillips has demonstrated bias, prejudice, lack of impartiality, complete abdication of judicial responsibilities and obligations, intentionally and knowingly denied due process, aided and abetted the crimes using the machinery of the courts and furthering the fraud using the machinery of the courts and thus must mandatorily be disqualified at this time.

12. A minimally and marginally competent impartial judge who is neutral and independent and acting consistent with US Constitutional Due process knew and had to know from even the most minimally marginally competent review of the Transcript of Hearings before Judge Colin on Sept. 13, 2013, that instead, not only did TED BERNSTEIN purporting to Act as Fiduciary “stay silent” on the issues of FRAUD in the Court despite having to possess actual knowledge of these frauds, but further that Judge Martin Colin immersed himself deeper as material and fact witness on such date by including but not limited to: a) failing to get any clear answers out of Spallina specifically including how and who filed the fraudulent instruments in the court; b) failing to get admissions from Ted Bernstein on his actual knowledge that these matters had to be fraudulent; c) failing to ask Ted Bernstein and Spallina that if Ted was legally supposed to be the Trustee and PR of Shirley's Trust and Estate after Simon passed, why Spallina and Tescher simply didn't have Ted Bernstein act to file proper documents to close the Estate but instead carried on an elaborate fraud scheme; d) how Ted Bernstein could have been permitted to act to illegally sell off multi-million dollar properties such as Shirley's Condo when involved in the nucleus of fraud with TESCHER and SPALLINA; and more. Judge John Phillips having knowingly and intentionally failed in all these matters must be further mandatorily disqualified and is acting outside his jurisdiction and in the clear absence of jurisdiction by instead aiding and abetting ongoing frauds in the machinery of the Palm Beach courts by the fraudulent and illegal orchestration of an alleged Trial in his own Court on Dec. 15, 2015.

13. Judge John L. Phillips is clearly acting knowingly and intentionally outside his jurisdiction knowingly violating due process and further aiding and abetting fraud upon the Courts by the Courts by acting in concert with Alan Rose on Dec. 15, 2015 knowing Alan Rose should have been disqualified as a material fact witness for his magical sudden possession and finding of various "Original" documents and instruments herein being intertwined in the chain of custody but instead permitting Alan Rose to fraudulently hand Judge Phillips a proposed Order on Dec. 15, 2015 without permitting Petitioner to review which contained a proposed Judicial Finding by Judge Phillips that Ted Bernstein is not involved in the frauds when both Alan Rose and Judge Phillips have actual and direct knowledge that the Dec. 15, 2015 Trial which was illegally scheduled anyway was further Not Noticed to hear such matters of Ted Bernstein thus further constituting knowing, intentional and purposeful Due process violations mandating Judge

Phillips immediate Disqualification as further evidenced by the attached Order allegedly signed by Phillips on Dec. 16, 2015⁴,

14. That Ted Bernstein, acting as alleged fiduciary in Shirley's Estate and Trusts and his elaborate team of lawyers were all involved in the Frauds committed and the attorneys who committed the crimes were retained by Ted as his counsel and were his business associates and who committed the frauds to benefit Ted's family directly to the detriment of other beneficiaries. Yet, Phillips allowed Ted and his replacement counsel Alan Rose, as Tescher and Spallina resigned after admitting to fraud, to continue and attempt to cover up and continue the crimes in the court as did Colin.

(2) A judge shall be faithful to the law and maintain professional competence in it. A judge shall not be swayed by partisan interests, public clamor, or fear of criticism.

15. Judge Phillips has not maintained professional competence in hearing the Estate and Trust matters of Simon and Shirley Bernstein as further set forth herein and as shown by the facts alleged in the entirety of this document.

D. Disciplinary Responsibilities.

(1) A judge who receives information or has actual knowledge that substantial likelihood exists that another judge has committed a violation of this Code shall take appropriate action.

16. Judge Phillips received information and has actual knowledge that a substantial likelihood exists that another judge, Martin Colin, has committed a violation of the Judicial Cannons and has failed to take appropriate action in regards to the fraud in and on his court that has already been proven, committed by Fiduciaries and Attorneys at Law involved in these matters, which has material impact on these matters before Judge Phillips now. Further, Judge Phillips ability to hear the case forward is now precluded for all these reasons and due to improper transfer of the case post recusal by Judge Colin through interference in the transfer process as petitioned in the All Writs Petition pending before the Florida Supreme Court. Judge Phillips had such knowledge as of Dec. 15th, 2015 but instead of properly acting to Disqualify himself and have an illegally scheduled Trial “continued” / “stayed”, acted in disregard of his judicial obligations mandating disqualification at this time.

(2) A judge who receives information or has actual knowledge that substantial likelihood exists that a lawyer has committed a violation of the Rules Regulating The Florida Bar shall take appropriate action.

17. Judge Phillips received information and has actual knowledge that a substantial likelihood exists that another lawyer, Alan B. Rose, Esq. has committed a violation of the Rules Regulating the Florida Bar and has failed to take appropriate action. Judge Phillips was made aware prior to an illegally scheduled Trial for Dec. 15, 2015 both by Letter of Attorney Candice Schwager filing a Notice of Abatement and seeking a Continuance to enter the case Pro Hac Vice⁵ that Attorney Alan B. Rose should be Disqualified under the Witness Advocate Rule of Florida as Alan B. Rose is a material fact Witness in the chain of custody of various “original” Instruments, Trusts, documents who should have Disqualified before and during Trial.
18. Judge Phillips received similar information by a Motion filed by Petitioner to seek a Continuance and Stay⁶ on similar grounds that the attorney sought to enter the case pro hac vice and that Alan Rose was a material fact witness in the chain of custody and possession of critical original documents and instruments relating to the Trial and overall case. Judge Phillips knew and should have known Disqualification of attorney Rose was necessary but disregarded all these matters on Dec. 15, 2015 despite himself who should have already mandatorily disqualified.

19. As shown in the prior Disqualification motion, Judge Phillips knew and should have known from information in hearings and in the case pleadings that another Attorney at Law and new Personal Representative of the Estate of Simon Bernstein made pleadings to the Court that Ted Bernstein, counseled by Alan B. Rose, Esq. is acting as a fiduciary when he is not qualified under the terms of the trust he is operating under and therefore is not a "valid" trustee⁷. The terms of the trust preclude a successor that is related to the issuer of the trust, Simon Bernstein and Ted is also considered predeceased in the dispositive documents for all purposes of the trust and dispositions made thereunder, yet despite knowing this, Alan B. Rose, Esq. continues to file pleadings on behalf of a client he knows is not valid and Judge Phillips refuses to address the issue of Alan Rose's client's validity as Trustee first and foremost. Despite this claim coming from a Florida Bar attorney, Brian O'Connell, Esq., Judge Phillips has chosen to allow Rose and Ted Bernstein to continue to plead fraudulently to the Court without first determining the veracity of O'Connell's claims and Judge Phillips further acted on Dec. 15, 2015 continuing the frauds in the court and knowingly and intentionally disregarding judicial obligations.

20. That Judge Phillips has information that Alan B. Rose, Esq. showing a substantial likelihood that he is acting improperly in violation of the Rules Regulating the Florida Bar with his client Ted Bernstein in an Illinois District Court case, acting in conflict and with adverse interest to parties in these matters and where this information of the improper conduct was identified by Attorney at Law Peter Feaman in a letter to the PR O'Connell⁸ and submitted to the Colin Court by Eliot Bernstein. Yet, without first determining these matters first Judge Phillips has ignored this information and moved forward with Alan B. Rose and Ted Bernstein as fiduciaries and counsel without questioning the merits of the claims by licensed Florida Bar members O'Connell or Feaman.

E. Disqualification.

(1) A judge shall disqualify himself or herself in a proceeding in which the judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned, including but not limited to instances where:

21. Judge Phillips impartiality is reasonably questioned as set forth herein.

(a) the judge has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party or a party's lawyer, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding

22. Judge Phillips showed continuing improper bias and prejudice on Dec. 15, 2015 by continuing to act outside and in the clear absence of jurisdiction knowing he was mandatorily disqualified yet continued to act on Dec. 15, 2015 showing further bias and prejudice.

23. Judge Phillips showed continuing improper bias and prejudice on Dec. 15, 2015 by knowingly and intentionally mis-stating the applicable law on Dec. 15, 2015 in court to a pro se party by declaring a Motion filed by Petitioner as untimely which was seeking a Continuance of the Trial so an attorney Candice Schwager could be admitted pro hac vice and represent three minor children and to the extent not conflicted, my interests before the Court and at a properly scheduled trial as well. Judge Phillips actually knew that Florida Rules of Civil Procedure

RULE 1.460 CONTINUANCES allows said motion to be made at Trial and Petitioner's motion was filed before the Trial. Thus, Judge Phillips intentionally and actually knew he was clearly misstating and misapplying the law showing further bias and prejudice against the Petitioner.

24. Judge Phillips showed further actual bias and prejudice on Dec. 15, 2015 knowing he was already mandatorily Disqualified from conducting the trial and acting in these cases by denying proper time for proper witnesses at the trial, Traci Kratish, Kimberly Moran, Donald Tescher (who was seen outside the Courthouse but did not testify despite being one of the Estate Planners,) and other witnesses to the alleged documents and signatures by not permitting Petitioner to adequately review the alleged Exhibits Evidence being placed into the trial or having a proper time to object and by providing Petitioner a mere five minutes to "write down" a Disqualification at the end of the alleged "trial" and further denying Petitioner an opportunity to inspect a proposed "Order" submitted by Alan Rose and denying proper inspection of original instruments, denying the ability to even see a "flow chart" being used by Alan Rose, denying a continuance and counsel to minor children, and continuing knowing the trial was improperly scheduled in a case Not noticed to be heard on Sept. 15, 2015 and denying Petitioner a fair opportunity to be heard before the trial or during the alleged trial.
25. Phillips then scheduled and held a validity hearing where the star witness was a FELON, Spallina⁹ and he was attesting to signatures of another FELON Moran on the dispositive documents and where both have unclean hands in these matters admitting they committed Fraud, Fraud on the Court and Fraud on the Beneficiaries in the Simon and Shirley Bernstein Estates and Trusts and yet Phillips rules to validate the documents based on Spallina's testimony alone and cuts Eliot off repeatedly, sustaining him when asking questions to probe the crimes of Spallina claiming they are not relevant, despite relevance to his character and testimony¹⁰.

26. At the hearing Spallina admitted he was under a consent order with the SEC for insider trading and had pled guilty to a felony in an unrelated matter. Spallina further admitted that he had committed a Fraud Upon the Court when he closed the Estate of Shirley with a dead Personal Representative her deceased husband Simon, submitting fraudulent documents to close the estate. Spallina further admitted that he had fraudulently created a Shirley Trust document and then mailed it to an attorney at law, Christine Yates, Esq. who was representing Eliot's minor children, as part of a fraud that benefited his client Ted Bernstein at the expense of his other client, the Estate of Simon and the beneficiaries thereunder.

27. While "doodling" through the Validity hearing, Phillips ignored the confessions to felony crimes in the matter by Spallina, who he refers to as "Bob" and his partner Tescher, who he calls "Don" and instead focused on attacking Candice Bernstein, who was served as a party in the Validity hearing service list prepared by Rose for her handing a document to Eliot and asking that Rose turn a display graphic so everyone could see, for this she was sent out of the hearing area and into the gallery where she was threatened with contempt if she made a sound. being the guardian of her minor children aids Eliot with his exhibits and witness questions and without her Eliot was lost at the Trial and could not find exhibits, etc. timely, as the record reflects.

28. That despite learning that an Officer of the Court had committed frauds upon the court and the beneficiaries and having admission at the trial, Judge Phillips has done nothing to notify the proper authorities as required by his Judicial Cannons and law or taken any actions to remedy the crimes. For instance, the Court, having learned of the Fraud on the Court should have then ordered all records submitted by those committing Fraud on the Court to be forensically analyzed by an expert to make sure that the documents and records in the Court are not further fraudulent and instead allowed the trustee Ted to shift the burden of investigating and forensically examining the documents to Eliot. The Court should also have ordered all parties to turn over their records, assets, etc. to the Court and provided all records of those parties and the Court to the aggrieved beneficiaries for inspection and transparency. Judge Phillips thus continued to act on Dec. 15, 2015 in the prejudicial, biased, lack of impartiality style that he had on Sept. 15, 2015 the date the “trial” was illegally scheduled and thus mandatorily must be disqualified at this time.

29. One of the facts from the prior Disqualification motion which Judge Phillips knew and knows was legally sufficient and mandatorily disqualified him from acting is contained in an All Writs Petition filed with the Florida Supreme Court and then transferred to the 4th DCA, is if Judge Martin Colin improperly steered the case POST recusal by Judge Shopping the Case and interfering with the transfer first to Judge Coates (who Sua Sponte recused after admitting conflict that should have been cleared prior to even taking the case as his former law firm is a Counter Defendant in these matters and Judge Coates had an office as a Partner in the Proskauer Rose law firm in the same Boca Raton, Fl location where fraud by his former law firm occurred against Petitioner) and with the intended ultimate steer to Judge Phillips after reasonably knowing Coates would either be disqualified by parties involved or recuse voluntarily, after gaining access and control to the prior Colin courts documents. Therefore, it will be instrumental for Petitioner to receive the Court files regarding the matters as requested in the All Writs to then question both Coates and Phillips as material witnesses about these disputed evidentiary facts regarding their interactions with Colin prior to transfer.

30. Until Phillips knew what the decision from the Florida Supreme Court would be regarding the voiding of the transfer due to the factual interference by Colin in moving the case as a necessary and material fact witness who should have been Disqualified, Judge Phillips only action as a knowing material and fact witness to the events surrounding the improper transfer was to wait the Florida Supreme Court Ruling.
31. Yet, without regard to the All Writs pending and the answer to the improper transfer resolved, he began to deliberate on the matters, acting as he claimed in hearings to be "stupid." In fact, if it is found that the transfer was improper, despite if he was knowledgeable or not of the impropriety by Colin or involved in such act, he would still have had to disqualify because it would lead to an inescapable APPEARANCE OF IMPROPRIETY that could only be resolved by his becoming a witness and being questioned as such since due to the reasonable appearance and chance that the improper transfer by Colin to the North Branch was with criminal intent, Phillips certainly will be a suspect in criminal complaints filed against Colin and others.
32. Judge Phillips has expressed personal bias for a party to the proceeding in professing his love for Judge Martin Colin who is alleged to have participated in a fraud in and on the court when he stated on the record:

THE COURT: Okay. Great. This is the way
15 I intend to proceed -- I love Marty Colin.
16 This guy is a judge that's been around a long
17 time. I know him. He's an entirely different
18 guy than me.

33. Judge Phillips professed “love” for Judge Martin Colin on the Record who is a necessary and material fact witness before the Court creates substantial bias, prejudice and reasonable fear that Petitioner can not get a fair trial before Judge Phillips as further set forth herein and Judge Phillips must now be mandatorily disqualified as Judge Phillips further knew Judge Colin’s Orders all should have been voided or at least should have been a material fact witness subject to discovery and deposition before any such “trial” on Dec. 15, 2015 yet Judge Phillips continued to act on Dec. 15, 2015 knowing he should be mandatorily disqualified and thus must now be disqualified.
34. The bias, prejudice, appearance of impropriety and reasonable fear that Petitioner can not receive a fair trial before Judge Phillips is particularly egregious in light of the fact that Judge Phillips never even permitted Petitioner to be heard about this pending Petition for All Writs and Stay and Injunctive relief despite 2 assurances at the prior conference that this would occur and further egregious as the Record shows each time Petitioner did attempt to be heard he was cut-off by Judge Phillips without being fully or fairly heard.
35. Judge Phillips also spoke to his personal knowledge of the attorneys at law involved and how he knew them well and did not know Petitioner Eliot Bernstein and this also seemed prejudicial, since attorneys at law in the cases have already committed fraudulent acts, including fraud on the court.

Judge Phillips is a material witness in the proceeding as it is already alleged that he was a participant in the improper steering of the case, knowingly or unknowingly his involvement must be questioned to determine if Ex Parte conversations took place with Judge Colin prior to the transfer as further defined herein. Judge Phillips continues to know he is a material fact witness and was on Dec. 15, 2015 and remains as such and thus must be mandatorily disqualified.

43. Judge Phillips knew and actually knows he was acting outside his jurisdiction on Dec. 15, 2015 as he knew a legally sufficient mandatory disqualification motion was filed in writing before Trial and he should have disqualified.
44. Judge Phillips knows he was intentionally misstating and improperly applying the law on Motions for Continuance which are allowed to be made at trial and yet Judge Phillips denied as untimely.
45. Judge Phillips knows this is a “complex” case and should have been treated as a complex case under the Case Management rules but instead illegally scheduled a trial in a case not noticed for Trial and then carried on with an illegal trial on Dec. 15, 2015.
46. Judge Phillips knew on Dec. 15, 2015 that not only was an improper trial scheduled and he should be mandatorily disqualified, but further knew no possible fair trial could have been conducted in a day, without determination of proper discovery in advance and without expert witnesses and without counsel for my minor children all being matters which Judge Phillips actually knows he illegally and improperly denied being heard by Petitioner on Sept. 15, 2015, thus Phillips actually knowing he was denying Petitioner due process in violation of the US Constitution and Florida State Constitution and violation of his role and functions as a Judge.
47. In all of these manners, Judge Phillips acted with partiality, prejudice and bias creating a reasonable fear that I would not receive a fair trial and did not and that the trial itself was a sham and fraud.
48. Judge Phillips knew that he, himself is and was a material witness since it is alleged in the All Writ Petition in these matters currently before the Supreme Court of Florida that Judge Coates was never the intended party Judge Colin interfered post recusal to steer the case to, allegedly knowing of Conflict with Coates due to his being a former Proskauer Rose partner and that Proskauer was a counter defendant in these matters and knowing the case would be moved to a new Judge who was unknown at the time. After Coates first hearing where he Sua Sponte recused himself on record, the case was transferred to Judge Phillips.

49. Where it is alleged based on information and belief that the interference by Colin was to move the case to Phillips, despite whether it is true, it can only be proven after Petitioner has access to the Court record from Colin, Coates and Phillips and Petitioner has the right to question each party under deposition or otherwise to ascertain their involvement, Judge Phillips new becomes a material and fact witness to a major allegation of fraud on the court in the transfer by Colin and to answer if he had any Ex Parte communications with Judge Coates or Judges Colin or any other party prior to taking the cases that Colin is alleged to have improperly steered to the North District.

In the fact that this question can be reasonably asked of Judge Phillips due to the improper post recusal steering of the case by Colin, Judge Phillips should on his own initiative have then disqualified himself as a witness, allowed a completely independent judge to be picked properly and thus from the start Judge Phillips could not hear the matters further without first addressing this most serious issue of the transfer.

50. That even if the Supreme Court of Florida or Appellate Court were to now attempt to permit such transfer, the fact that Phillips acted first, prior to any rulings, remains cause for his disqualification.

CANON 3E(1) - ...A judge shall disqualify himself or herself in a proceeding in which the judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

51. Judge Phillips must mandatorily be disqualified as his impartiality is reasonably questioned on multiple grounds as further set forth herein throughout this document including but not limited to his "pre-judging" and "pre-determination" in the case that he would not do anything to find

Judge Colin “wrong” prior to Petitioner even being heard on Sept. 15, 2015, further based upon Judge Phillips professed “love” for Judge Colin who is a necessary and material fact witness, for his due process violations in Ordering a Trial in Shirley Bernstein’s Estate when the Conference was only “Noticed” for Simon Bernstein’s Estate and for other grounds as set forth herein and then continuing to act in fraud and further aid and abet the fraudulent criminal scheme herein using the machinery of the Florida Courts in the North Branch of Palm Beach County on Dec. 15, 2015 and by an illegal Order Dec. 16, 2015.

52. Judge Phillips impartiality is challenged as despite now being a material and fact witness in the matter, he did not clarify or rectify this matter first before determining if he could adjudicate, or allow the Florida Supreme Court to determine if the Colin transfer was improper, before taking ANY judicial action in the matters or even minimally afford Petitioner Due Process to be heard before Judge Phillips on the best procedural manner to bring the issues of the All Writs¹¹ before the Phillips court.

53. Instead, Judge John L. Phillips began acting in the matters and in fact held two hearings, including issuing an Order on Sept. 24, 2015 thereby scheduling a Trial date of December 15, 2015 on a claim for construction filed by Attorney Alan B. Rose, Esq. on behalf of an alleged trustee Ted Bernstein and further enforcing a prior Stay Order of Judge Martin Colin who was petitioned for mandatory Disqualification by Eliot I. Bernstein as a material and fact witness to fraud in the Court, upon the Court and potentially by the Court and further that this Order by Judge John L. Phillips was issued despite the pendency of a Petition for All Writs at the Supreme Court of Florida seeking Mandamus and Prohibition in relation to the conduct of Judge Martin Colin and further seeking injunctive relief and other redress Judge John L. Phillips, both by express words, conduct and by omission has committed acts that mandate Disqualification since the judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned in this proceeding as defined herein and as set out herein throughout this filing specifically referencing ongoing continuing conduct on Dec. 15, 2015. .

CANON 3E(1)(a) - ...the judge has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party or a party's lawyer, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding.

54. Judge John L. Phillips is further mandated to be Disqualified again both by express words, conduct and by omissions demonstrating bias and prejudice against Eliot I. Bernstein, a party in this proceeding as defined herein and as set out by the entirety of this document and filing herein.

CANON 3E(1)(d)(iv) - ...the judge or the judge's spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person: (iv) is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding;

55. As already stated above Judge Phillips has knowledge that he is a material and fact witness in the proceedings to highly relevant information regarding the cases at this time.

(e) Time. A motion to disqualify shall be filed within a reasonable time not to exceed 10 days after discovery of the facts constituting the grounds for the motion and shall be promptly presented to the court for an immediate ruling. Any motion for disqualification made during a hearing or trial must be based on facts discovered during the hearing or trial and may be stated on the record, provided that it is also promptly reduced to writing in compliance with subdivision (c) and promptly filed. A motion made during hearing or trial shall be ruled on immediately.

56. Until such time as the frauds upon the court is corrected, the cases reset with new fiduciaries and counsel and due process restored, any such motion presently is timely herein. This motion is otherwise timely being filed on the first day the Courts were open after the Dec. 25th Holiday also closing the Courts on Dec. 26th, 2015.

Rule 2.330 Grounds.

(f) Determination - Initial Motion.

The judge against whom an initial motion to disqualify under subdivision (d)(1) is directed shall determine only the legal sufficiency of the motion and shall not pass on the truth of the facts alleged. If the motion is legally sufficient, the judge shall immediately enter an order granting disqualification and proceed no further in the action. If any motion is legally insufficient, an order denying the motion shall immediately be entered. No other reason for denial shall be stated, and an order of denial shall not take issue with the motion.

57. Petitioner states that the Motion is legally sufficient under Rule 2.330 as it fully complies with this code and whether Petitioner has filed a legally sufficient pleading would not negate the fact that Judge Phillips has to voluntarily and mandatorily disqualify under Judicial Canons, Attorney Conduct Codes and Law as stated herein.

Rule 2.330 Grounds.

(g) Determination - Successive Motions.

If a judge has been previously disqualified on motion for alleged prejudice or partiality under subdivision (d)(1), a successor judge shall not be disqualified based on a successive motion by the same party unless the successor judge rules that he or she is in fact not fair or impartial in the case. Such a successor judge may rule on the truth of the facts alleged in support of the motiou.

58. Petitioner states there have been no Successive Motions.

Rule 2.330 Grounds.

(h) Prior Rulings.

Prior factual or legal rulings by a disqualified judge may be reconsidered and vacated or amended by a successor judge based upon a motion for reconsideration, which must be filed within 20 days of the order of disqualification, unless good cause is shown for a delay in moving for reconsideration or other grounds for reconsideration exist.

59. Petitioner seeks that upon disqualification of Judge Phillips, that all prior factual or legal rulings be vacated by the successor judge due to the alleged continued civil torts against Petitioner by Judge Colin and his successors.

60. That further, Petitioner seeks a replacement Judge, who is not a member of the same jurisdiction as Judge Colin or Phillips and who is not a member of the Florida Bar to preside over the cases of Judge Colin/Coates/Phillips involving the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley Bernstein and the case involving the Trusts of Petitioner's minor children. This request due to the fact that Petitioner does not feel he can get a fair and impartial hearing in the State of Florida and certainly not by the 15th Judicial, perhaps the conflicts now include any members of the Florida Bar for reasons cited herein and in the All Writ and therefore Petitioner is seeking this Court to move the matters to a Federal Court or find other suitable remedy in such serious case where the Court is alleged part of the frauds and adhering to rules and regulations is of primary concern due to the past three years of alleged fraud.

61. The following cases that Judge Phillips now presides over are all tainted for the same reasons as stated herein and Judge Phillips should immediately voluntarily disqualify himself from these cases as well, voiding any/all orders, etc. and turning over the court records to Petitioner for review and save Petitioner the expense and aggravation of having to file Disqualification pleadings and subpoenas in each case to force his mandated disqualification and release of critical to the case court records already requested in the All Writs Petition pending:

b.	Case#	502011CP000653XXXXSB	-

e.	Case#	502015CP001162XXXXSB	-
Eliot Bernstein v. Trustee Simon Trust Case	OLD Case#	502014CA014637XXXXMB

Rule 2.330 Grounds.

(i) Judge's Initiative.

Nothing in this rule limits the judge's authority to enter an order of disqualification on the judge's own initiative.

62. Petitioner states that Judge Phillips should have already entered an order of disqualification on his own initiative according to Judicial Canons, Statutes and Rules when he became aware that disqualification was mandated of him as a potential witness regarding the alleged improper post recusal steering of the cases by Colin but has thus far failed to do so and instead rushed into hearings without first addressing these fundamental issues of fair and impartial due process. If for any reason Judge Phillips finds this Motion legally insufficient, Judge Phillips must disqualify himself on his own initiative as set forth under this rule 2.330 (i) and Judicial Canon, Attorney Conduct Codes, Probate Rules and Statutes and Law for the reasons stated herein, whether pled sufficiently or not by Pro Se Eliot Bernstein.

Rule 2.330 Grounds.

(j) Time for Determination.

The judge shall rule on a motion to disqualify immediately, but no later than 30 days after the service of the motion as set forth in subdivision (c). If not ruled on within 30 days of service, the motion shall be deemed granted and the moving party may seek an order from the court directing the clerk to reassign the case.

63. Petitioner demands due to the EMERGENCY NATURE of this case where claims have been made that Petitioner's children are in life threatening dangers due to the abusive and fraudulent Probate rulings and proceedings for the last three year which have directly and intentionally interfered with inheritances/expectancies causing massive harms to them caused directly by the Fraud on the Court by the Court Appointed Attorneys at Law and Fiduciaries and potentially the Court itself and this requires that this Disqualification be made instantly. Delays cause further ongoing harms and damages of Petitioner's minor children and Petitioner's family which results in additional liabilities to those parties ultimately held accountable for the criminal acts, civil torts and frauds that occurred in Judge Colin and Judge French's courts.
64. That PRIOR to any other actions by Judge Phillips, this Disqualification must first be ruled on.

Florida Statutes 38.10

Disqualification of judge for prejudice; application; affidavits;
etc.—

Whenever a party to any action or proceeding makes and files an affidavit stating fear that he or she will not receive a fair trial in the court where the suit is pending on account of the prejudice of the judge of that court against the applicant or in favor of the adverse party, the judge shall proceed no further, but another judge shall be designated in the manner prescribed by the laws of this state for the substitution of judges for the trial of causes in which the presiding judge is disqualified. Every such affidavit shall state the facts and the reasons for the belief that any such bias or prejudice exists and shall be accompanied by a certificate of counsel of record that such affidavit and application are made in good faith.

65. Petitioner has supplied a legally sufficient Affidavit herein.
66. Judge John L. Phillips is again mandated to be Disqualified under the Rules by both express words, conduct and by omissions by creating a reasonable fear by the party Eliot I. Bernstein that he will not receive a fair trial as defined herein and as demonstrated and plead throughout the entirety of the document and filing herein.

WHEREFORE, the PRO SE Petitioner requests that Judge Phillips immediately mandatorily disqualify as this is a legally sufficient pleading. In the alternative if it is determined by Judge Phillips that this Pro Se pleading is legally insufficient then he must on his own motion and initiative disqualify himself as required by Judicial Cannons, Attorney Conduct Codes and Law. Further, all Orders of Judge Phillips should be voided including the Mediation scheduled for Dec. 4th, 2015 at 10 am EST and Trial Scheduled for Dec. 15th, 2015. Finally, as Eliot has filed a previous disqualification of Judge Phillips that was denied as “legally insufficient” alone with no explanation and where “legally insufficient” is a legally insufficient phrase as it has not a legal definition, Eliot asks this Court to fully explain what is legally insufficient with the pleading so corrections can be made if necessary and to explain why the previous filing did not meet a “sufficiency” standard.

Under Penalties of perjury, I, Eliot Ivan Bernstein, swear under oath and affirm that I have read the foregoing and the facts alleged are made in good faith and are true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Dated this 28th day of December, 2015

Respectfully Submitted,

Eliot Ivan Bernstein

VERIFIED SWORN EMERGENCY PETITION AND AFFIDAVIT FOR IMMEDIATE MANDATORY DISQUALIFICATION OF CIRCUIT JUDGE JOHN L. PHILLIPS

COMES NOW Eliot Bernstein (“Eliot” or “Petitioner”) and files under information and belief this Verified Emergency Petition and Affidavit for Immediate Mandatory Disqualification of Judge John L. Phillips, pursuant to Fla R. Admin P. 2.330 and section 38.10, Florida Statutes, for the following grounds and reasons:

Rule 2.330 (a) Application. This rule applies only to county and circuit judges in all matters in all divisions of court.

f. Violations of Probate Statutes and Rules ;

g. Violations of Judicial Cannons - Judge

Phillips has violated the following Judicial Canons, including but not limited to:

Canon 1 - A Judge Shall Uphold the Integrity And Independence of the Judiciary

4. Judge Phillips has failed to Uphold the Integrity and Independence of the Judiciary as further set forth herein.

Canon 2 - A Judge Shall Avoid Impropriety and the Appearance of Impropriety in all of the Judge's Activities

5. Judge Phillips express and direct conduct, statement and activities in the case have created the Appearance of Impropriety in violation of this Canon as set further set forth herein.

6. Judge Phillips was required to mandatorily disqualify upon the filing of the Disqualification Motion¹ filed by Petitioner on December 04, 2015 for all the ground set forth therein and should have already Disqualified on his own motion sua sponte prior to Petitioner filing said written motion as it has already been alleged by Petitioner and suggested by Creditor attorney Peter Feaman that the transfer of the cases to Phillips Court was improperly interfered with post recusal by the former Judge Martin Colin as further set forth herein and set forth in the All Writs Petition² filed with the Florida Supreme Court in these cases and then Transferred to the 4th DCA³

7. Any competent Judge acting impartially knew or should have known prior Judge Martin Colin was a material fact witness to the multiple frauds occurring in his Court specifically involving Fiduciaries Robert Spallina, Donald Tescher, the Tescher Spallina law firm, and at minimum Ted Bernstein also purporting to act in an alleged fiduciary capacity specifically involving the very case, the Shirley Estate and Trust, which Judge Phillips illegally set for Trial on Sept. 15, 2015 acting in a case Not Noticed for Case Management by the current PR of the Simon Bernstein Estate Brian O'Connell and Joy Foglietta of the Ciklin Lubitz & O'Connell law firm.
8. Thus, Judge Phillips should now be Disqualified further for failing to mandatorily Disqualify previously and knowing he is acting outside his jurisdiction and acting in the clear absence of jurisdiction.
9. Had Judge Phillips not been immediately disqualified due to his being a witness to relevant matters in the improper Transfer and steering of the case to the North Branch where it ended up with Judge Coates who not only was a Proskauer Rose partner (Proskauer also a Counter Defendant in these matters) but turned out he worked in the exact office across the hall from Petitioner where some of the initial frauds and thefts occurred of IP that should be a part of the Estates and Trust values for Shirley and Simon Bernstein, the only proper initial action for Judge Phillips would have been to freeze and enjoin all Court files from the Colin and French and Main Branch courts, freeze and enjoin all Estate and Trust accounts, freeze and enjoin all evidence and records, documents, computer files and all alleged "Originals" and other instruments which instead are still in the hands of the prior fiduciaries Spallina and Tescher who committed some of the original frauds in Judge Colin's court, then Phillips should have further moved to invalidate the entire proceedings held under Colin and remove all Fiduciaries, Officers of the Court and attorneys involved for having committed FRAUD UPON THE COURT by OFFICERS OF THE COURT who submitted fraudulent documents to the court and used a deceased party to close the Estate of his deceased wife in a bizarre fraud lasting several months after Simon Bernstein died, where he was used post mortem to posit documents with the court to close an estate.

10. A simple, basic, non-octopus wrangling competent reading and review of the Case files assigned to Judge Phillips by the improper Transfer should have revealed to any marginally competent independent and neutral jurist acting consistent with US Constitutional due process that Ted Bernstein had to know of the frauds committed by the fiduciaries Tescher Spallina in Shirley's Estate, the counsel he retained to represent him in his fiducial capacities before Judge Colin since Ted Bernstein had NOT signed any Waiver in Shirley's Estate prior to April 9, 2012 and thus Ted Bernstein knew and had to know as early as 2012 or at minimum May of 2013 by Petitioners May 6, 2013 Emergency Filing that ANY document posited by the TESCHER SPALLINA law firm to the contrary to close Shirley's Estate such as the April 9, 2012 Sworn Petition to Discharge allegedly signed by Simon Bernstein before Robert Spallina was fraud upon the Court, fraud against the Estate of Shirley Bernstein, and fraud involving the use of his father Simon Bernstein prior to his passing and after his passing.
11. A competent impartial judge who is neutral and independent and acting consistent with US Constitutional Due process knew and had to know that in addition to actual Frauds Upon the Court and likely involving the Court, these matters also raised the important issue of whether

Simon Bernstein himself was being unduly influenced and improperly pressured since there would be no reason for Simon Bernstein to sign an April 9, 2012 Petition to Discharge knowing this was fraudulent since a phone call to discuss matters with the Beneficiaries did not even occur until May of 2012 and some of the beneficiaries did not even sign the Waiver until after Simon passed in Sept. of 2012 and that Ted Bernstein, instead of securing ALL files and evidence away from TESCHER and SPALLINA immediately as a proper fiduciary and seeking forensic investigation of key and critical documents and instruments instead continued along and became part of the fraud acting together with TESCHER and SPALLINA and where TED and his counsel Alan Rose, a material fact witness, continued to work with and interact with former fiduciaries SPALLINA and TESCHER even into and during the illegal trial of Dec. 15, 2015. Having failed to properly act in all these matters, Judge Phillips has demonstrated bias, prejudice, lack of impartiality, complete abdication of judicial responsibilities and obligations, intentionally and knowingly denied due process, aided and abetted the crimes using the machinery of the courts and furthering the fraud using the machinery of the courts and thus must mandatorily be disqualified at this time.

12. A minimally and marginally competent impartial judge who is neutral and independent and acting consistent with US Constitutional Due process knew and had to know from even the most minimally marginally competent review of the Transcript of Hearings before Judge Colin on Sept. 13, 2013, that instead, not only did TED BERNSTEIN purporting to Act as Fiduciary “stay silent” on the issues of FRAUD in the Court despite having to possess actual knowledge of these frauds, but further that Judge Martin Colin immersed himself deeper as material and fact witness on such date by including but not limited to: a) failing to get any clear answers out of Spallina specifically including how and who filed the fraudulent instruments in the court; b) failing to get admissions from Ted Bernstein on his actual knowledge that these matters had to be fraudulent; c) failing to ask Ted Bernstein and Spallina that if Ted was legally supposed to be the Trustee and PR of Shirley's Trust and Estate after Simon passed, why Spallina and Tescher simply didn't have Ted Bernstein act to file proper documents to close the Estate but instead carried on an elaborate fraud scheme; d) how Ted Bernstein could have been permitted to act to illegally sell off multi-million dollar properties such as Shirley's Condo when involved in the nucleus of fraud with TESCHER and SPALLINA; and more. Judge John Phillips having knowingly and intentionally failed in all these matters must be further mandatorily disqualified and is acting outside his jurisdiction and in the clear absence of jurisdiction by instead aiding and abetting ongoing frauds in the machinery of the Palm Beach courts by the fraudulent and illegal orchestration of an alleged Trial in his own Court on Dec. 15, 2015.

13. Judge John L. Phillips is clearly acting knowingly and intentionally outside his jurisdiction knowingly violating due process and further aiding and abetting fraud upon the Courts by the Courts by acting in concert with Alan Rose on Dec. 15, 2015 knowing Alan Rose should have been disqualified as a material fact witness for his magical sudden possession and finding of various "Original" documents and instruments herein being intertwined in the chain of custody but instead permitting Alan Rose to fraudulently hand Judge Phillips a proposed Order on Dec. 15, 2015 without permitting Petitioner to review which contained a proposed Judicial Finding by Judge Phillips that Ted Bernstein is not involved in the frauds when both Alan Rose and Judge Phillips have actual and direct knowledge that the Dec. 15, 2015 Trial which was illegally scheduled anyway was further Not Noticed to hear such matters of Ted Bernstein thus further constituting knowing, intentional and purposeful Due process violations mandating Judge

Phillips immediate Disqualification as further evidenced by the attached Order allegedly signed by Phillips on Dec. 16, 2015⁴,

14. That Ted Bernstein, acting as alleged fiduciary in Shirley's Estate and Trusts and his elaborate team of lawyers were all involved in the Frauds committed and the attorneys who committed the crimes were retained by Ted as his counsel and were his business associates and who committed the frauds to benefit Ted's family directly to the detriment of other beneficiaries. Yet, Phillips allowed Ted and his replacement counsel Alan Rose, as Tescher and Spallina resigned after admitting to fraud, to continue and attempt to cover up and continue the crimes in the court as did Colin.

(2) A judge shall be faithful to the law and maintain professional competence in it. A judge shall not be swayed by partisan interests, public clamor, or fear of criticism.

15. Judge Phillips has not maintained professional competence in hearing the Estate and Trust matters of Simon and Shirley Bernstein as further set forth herein and as shown by the facts alleged in the entirety of this document.

D. Disciplinary Responsibilities.

(1) A judge who receives information or has actual knowledge that substantial likelihood exists that another judge has committed a violation of this Code shall take appropriate action.

16. Judge Phillips received information and has actual knowledge that a substantial likelihood exists that another judge, Martin Colin, has committed a violation of the Judicial Cannons and has failed to take appropriate action in regards to the fraud in and on his court that has already been proven, committed by Fiduciaries and Attorneys at Law involved in these matters, which has material impact on these matters before Judge Phillips now. Further, Judge Phillips ability to hear the case forward is now precluded for all these reasons and due to improper transfer of the case post recusal by Judge Colin through interference in the transfer process as petitioned in the All Writs Petition pending before the Florida Supreme Court. Judge Phillips had such knowledge as of Dec. 15th, 2015 but instead of properly acting to Disqualify himself and have an illegally scheduled Trial “continued” / “stayed”, acted in disregard of his judicial obligations mandating disqualification at this time.

(2) A judge who receives information or has actual knowledge that substantial likelihood exists that a lawyer has committed a violation of the Rules Regulating The Florida Bar shall take appropriate action.

17. Judge Phillips received information and has actual knowledge that a substantial likelihood exists that another lawyer, Alan B. Rose, Esq. has committed a violation of the Rules Regulating the Florida Bar and has failed to take appropriate action. Judge Phillips was made aware prior to an illegally scheduled Trial for Dec. 15, 2015 both by Letter of Attorney Candice Schwager filing a Notice of Abatement and seeking a Continuance to enter the case Pro Hac Vice⁵ that Attorney Alan B. Rose should be Disqualified under the Witness Advocate Rule of Florida as Alan B. Rose is a material fact Witness in the chain of custody of various “original” Instruments, Trusts, documents who should have Disqualified before and during Trial.
18. Judge Phillips received similar information by a Motion filed by Petitioner to seek a Continuance and Stay⁶ on similar grounds that the attorney sought to enter the case pro hac vice and that Alan Rose was a material fact witness in the chain of custody and possession of critical original documents and instruments relating to the Trial and overall case. Judge Phillips knew and should have known Disqualification of attorney Rose was necessary but disregarded all these matters on Dec. 15, 2015 despite himself who should have already mandatorily disqualified.

19. As shown in the prior Disqualification motion, Judge Phillips knew and should have known from information in hearings and in the case pleadings that another Attorney at Law and new Personal Representative of the Estate of Simon Bernstein made pleadings to the Court that Ted Bernstein, counseled by Alan B. Rose, Esq. is acting as a fiduciary when he is not qualified under the terms of the trust he is operating under and therefore is not a "valid" trustee⁷. The terms of the trust preclude a successor that is related to the issuer of the trust, Simon Bernstein and Ted is also considered predeceased in the dispositive documents for all purposes of the trust and dispositions made thereunder, yet despite knowing this, Alan B. Rose, Esq. continues to file pleadings on behalf of a client he knows is not valid and Judge Phillips refuses to address the issue of Alan Rose's client's validity as Trustee first and foremost. Despite this claim coming from a Florida Bar attorney, Brian O'Connell, Esq., Judge Phillips has chosen to allow Rose and Ted Bernstein to continue to plead fraudulently to the Court without first determining the veracity of O'Connell's claims and Judge Phillips further acted on Dec. 15, 2015 continuing the frauds in the court and knowingly and intentionally disregarding judicial obligations.

20. That Judge Phillips has information that Alan B. Rose, Esq. showing a substantial likelihood that he is acting improperly in violation of the Rules Regulating the Florida Bar with his client Ted Bernstein in an Illinois District Court case, acting in conflict and with adverse interest to parties in these matters and where this information of the improper conduct was identified by Attorney at Law Peter Feaman in a letter to the PR O'Connell⁸ and submitted to the Colin Court by Eliot Bernstein. Yet, without first determining these matters first Judge Phillips has ignored this information and moved forward with Alan B. Rose and Ted Bernstein as fiduciaries and counsel without questioning the merits of the claims by licensed Florida Bar members O'Connell or Feaman.

E. Disqualification.

(1) A judge shall disqualify himself or herself in a proceeding in which the judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned, including but not limited to instances where:

21. Judge Phillips impartiality is reasonably questioned as set forth herein.

(a) the judge has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party or a party's lawyer, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding

22. Judge Phillips showed continuing improper bias and prejudice on Dec. 15, 2015 by continuing to act outside and in the clear absence of jurisdiction knowing he was mandatorily disqualified yet continued to act on Dec. 15, 2015 showing further bias and prejudice.

23. Judge Phillips showed continuing improper bias and prejudice on Dec. 15, 2015 by knowingly and intentionally mis-stating the applicable law on Dec. 15, 2015 in court to a pro se party by declaring a Motion filed by Petitioner as untimely which was seeking a Continuance of the Trial so an attorney Candice Schwager could be admitted pro hac vice and represent three minor children and to the extent not conflicted, my interests before the Court and at a properly scheduled trial as well. Judge Phillips actually knew that Florida Rules of Civil Procedure

RULE 1.460 CONTINUANCES allows said motion to be made at Trial and Petitioner's motion was filed before the Trial. Thus, Judge Phillips intentionally and actually knew he was clearly misstating and misapplying the law showing further bias and prejudice against the Petitioner.

24. Judge Phillips showed further actual bias and prejudice on Dec. 15, 2015 knowing he was already mandatorily Disqualified from conducting the trial and acting in these cases by denying proper time for proper witnesses at the trial, Traci Kratish, Kimberly Moran, Donald Tescher (who was seen outside the Courthouse but did not testify despite being one of the Estate Planners,) and other witnesses to the alleged documents and signatures by not permitting Petitioner to adequately review the alleged Exhibits Evidence being placed into the trial or having a proper time to object and by providing Petitioner a mere five minutes to "write down" a Disqualification at the end of the alleged "trial" and further denying Petitioner an opportunity to inspect a proposed "Order" submitted by Alan Rose and denying proper inspection of original instruments, denying the ability to even see a "flow chart" being used by Alan Rose, denying a continuance and counsel to minor children, and continuing knowing the trial was improperly scheduled in a case Not noticed to be heard on Sept. 15, 2015 and denying Petitioner a fair opportunity to be heard before the trial or during the alleged trial.
25. Phillips then scheduled and held a validity hearing where the star witness was a FELON, Spallina⁹ and he was attesting to signatures of another FELON Moran on the dispositive documents and where both have unclean hands in these matters admitting they committed Fraud, Fraud on the Court and Fraud on the Beneficiaries in the Simon and Shirley Bernstein Estates and Trusts and yet Phillips rules to validate the documents based on Spallina's testimony alone and cuts Eliot off repeatedly, sustaining him when asking questions to probe the crimes of Spallina claiming they are not relevant, despite relevance to his character and testimony¹⁰.

26. At the hearing Spallina admitted he was under a consent order with the SEC for insider trading and had pled guilty to a felony in an unrelated matter. Spallina further admitted that he had committed a Fraud Upon the Court when he closed the Estate of Shirley with a dead Personal Representative her deceased husband Simon, submitting fraudulent documents to close the estate. Spallina further admitted that he had fraudulently created a Shirley Trust document and then mailed it to an attorney at law, Christine Yates, Esq. who was representing Eliot's minor children, as part of a fraud that benefited his client Ted Bernstein at the expense of his other client, the Estate of Simon and the beneficiaries thereunder.

27. While "doodling" through the Validity hearing, Phillips ignored the confessions to felony crimes in the matter by Spallina, who he refers to as "Bob" and his partner Tescher, who he calls "Don" and instead focused on attacking Candice Bernstein, who was served as a party in the Validity hearing service list prepared by Rose for her handing a document to Eliot and asking that Rose turn a display graphic so everyone could see, for this she was sent out of the hearing area and into the gallery where she was threatened with contempt if she made a sound. being the guardian of her minor children aids Eliot with his exhibits and witness questions and without her Eliot was lost at the Trial and could not find exhibits, etc. timely, as the record reflects.

28. That despite learning that an Officer of the Court had committed frauds upon the court and the beneficiaries and having admission at the trial, Judge Phillips has done nothing to notify the proper authorities as required by his Judicial Cannons and law or taken any actions to remedy the crimes. For instance, the Court, having learned of the Fraud on the Court should have then ordered all records submitted by those committing Fraud on the Court to be forensically analyzed by an expert to make sure that the documents and records in the Court are not further fraudulent and instead allowed the trustee Ted to shift the burden of investigating and forensically examining the documents to Eliot. The Court should also have ordered all parties to turn over their records, assets, etc. to the Court and provided all records of those parties and the Court to the aggrieved beneficiaries for inspection and transparency. Judge Phillips thus continued to act on Dec. 15, 2015 in the prejudicial, biased, lack of impartiality style that he had on Sept. 15, 2015 the date the “trial” was illegally scheduled and thus mandatorily must be disqualified at this time.

29. One of the facts from the prior Disqualification motion which Judge Phillips knew and knows was legally sufficient and mandatorily disqualified him from acting is contained in an All Writs Petition filed with the Florida Supreme Court and then transferred to the 4th DCA, is if Judge Martin Colin improperly steered the case POST recusal by Judge Shopping the Case and interfering with the transfer first to Judge Coates (who Sua Sponte recused after admitting conflict that should have been cleared prior to even taking the case as his former law firm is a Counter Defendant in these matters and Judge Coates had an office as a Partner in the Proskauer Rose law firm in the same Boca Raton, Fl location where fraud by his former law firm occurred against Petitioner) and with the intended ultimate steer to Judge Phillips after reasonably knowing Coates would either be disqualified by parties involved or recuse voluntarily, after gaining access and control to the prior Colin courts documents. Therefore, it will be instrumental for Petitioner to receive the Court files regarding the matters as requested in the All Writs to then question both Coates and Phillips as material witnesses about these disputed evidentiary facts regarding their interactions with Colin prior to transfer.

30. Until Phillips knew what the decision from the Florida Supreme Court would be regarding the voiding of the transfer due to the factual interference by Colin in moving the case as a necessary and material fact witness who should have been Disqualified, Judge Phillips only action as a knowing material and fact witness to the events surrounding the improper transfer was to wait the Florida Supreme Court Ruling.
31. Yet, without regard to the All Writs pending and the answer to the improper transfer resolved, he began to deliberate on the matters, acting as he claimed in hearings to be "stupid." In fact, if it is found that the transfer was improper, despite if he was knowledgeable or not of the impropriety by Colin or involved in such act, he would still have had to disqualify because it would lead to an inescapable APPEARANCE OF IMPROPRIETY that could only be resolved by his becoming a witness and being questioned as such since due to the reasonable appearance and chance that the improper transfer by Colin to the North Branch was with criminal intent, Phillips certainly will be a suspect in criminal complaints filed against Colin and others.
32. Judge Phillips has expressed personal bias for a party to the proceeding in professing his love for Judge Martin Colin who is alleged to have participated in a fraud in and on the court when he stated on the record:

THE COURT: Okay. Great. This is the way
15 I intend to proceed -- I love Marty Colin.
16 This guy is a judge that's been around a long
17 time. I know him. He's an entirely different
18 guy than me.

33. Judge Phillips professed “love” for Judge Martin Colin on the Record who is a necessary and material fact witness before the Court creates substantial bias, prejudice and reasonable fear that Petitioner can not get a fair trial before Judge Phillips as further set forth herein and Judge Phillips must now be mandatorily disqualified as Judge Phillips further knew Judge Colin’s Orders all should have been voided or at least should have been a material fact witness subject to discovery and deposition before any such “trial” on Dec. 15, 2015 yet Judge Phillips continued to act on Dec. 15, 2015 knowing he should be mandatorily disqualified and thus must now be disqualified.
34. The bias, prejudice, appearance of impropriety and reasonable fear that Petitioner can not receive a fair trial before Judge Phillips is particularly egregious in light of the fact that Judge Phillips never even permitted Petitioner to be heard about this pending Petition for All Writs and Stay and Injunctive relief despite 2 assurances at the prior conference that this would occur and further egregious as the Record shows each time Petitioner did attempt to be heard he was cut-off by Judge Phillips without being fully or fairly heard.
35. Judge Phillips also spoke to his personal knowledge of the attorneys at law involved and how he knew them well and did not know Petitioner Eliot Bernstein and this also seemed prejudicial, since attorneys at law in the cases have already committed fraudulent acts, including fraud on the court.

(iv) is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding;

36. Judge Phillips is a material witness in the proceeding as it is already alleged that he was a participant in the improper steering of the case, knowingly or unknowingly his involvement must be questioned to determine if Ex Parte conversations took place with Judge Colin prior to the transfer as further defined herein. Judge Phillips continues to know he is a material fact witness and was on Dec. 15, 2015 and remains as such and thus must be mandatorily disqualified.

serve a copy of the motion on the subject judge as set forth in Florida Rule of Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.080.

41. Petitioner movant is acting Pro Se and thus has no attorney at law representing him and Pro Se Petitioner has certified that the motion and the statements made herein are made in good faith. That Service is proper to Judge Phillips under Rule 1.080.

Rule 2.330 (d) Grounds.

A motion to disqualify shall show:

(1) that the party fears that he or she will not receive a fair trial or hearing because of specifically described prejudice or bias of the judge.

42. That Petitioner asserts for all the reasons and facts alleged herein and as set out below and further in the entirety of the document incorporated herein that he will not and has not already received a fair trial or hearing and that Judge Phillips because of the following specifically described prejudices and biases under Rule 2.330 (d) should be mandatorily disqualified for the reasons that follow:

Canon 3 - A Judge Shall Perform the Duties of Judicial Office Impartially and Diligently.

B. Adjudicative Responsibilities.

(1) A judge shall hear and decide matters assigned to the judge except those in which disqualification is required.

E. Disqualification.

(1) A judge shall disqualify himself or herself in a proceeding in which the judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned, including but not limited to instances where:

(a) the judge has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party or a party's lawyer, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding

(d) the judge or the judge's spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:

(iv) is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding;

CANON 3B(1) - ...A judge shall hear and decide matters assigned to the judge except those in which disqualification is required.

43. Judge Phillips knew and actually knows he was acting outside his jurisdiction on Dec. 15, 2015 as he knew a legally sufficient mandatory disqualification motion was filed in writing before Trial and he should have disqualified.
44. Judge Phillips knows he was intentionally misstating and improperly applying the law on Motions for Continuance which are allowed to be made at trial and yet Judge Phillips denied as untimely.
45. Judge Phillips knows this is a “complex” case and should have been treated as a complex case under the Case Management rules but instead illegally scheduled a trial in a case not noticed for Trial and then carried on with an illegal trial on Dec. 15, 2015.
46. Judge Phillips knew on Dec. 15, 2015 that not only was an improper trial scheduled and he should be mandatorily disqualified, but further knew no possible fair trial could have been conducted in a day, without determination of proper discovery in advance and without expert witnesses and without counsel for my minor children all being matters which Judge Phillips actually knows he illegally and improperly denied being heard by Petitioner on Sept. 15, 2015, thus Phillips actually knowing he was denying Petitioner due process in violation of the US Constitution and Florida State Constitution and violation of his role and functions as a Judge.
47. In all of these manners, Judge Phillips acted with partiality, prejudice and bias creating a reasonable fear that I would not receive a fair trial and did not and that the trial itself was a sham and fraud.
48. Judge Phillips knew that he, himself is and was a material witness since it is alleged in the All Writ Petition in these matters currently before the Supreme Court of Florida that Judge Coates was never the intended party Judge Colin interfered post recusal to steer the case to, allegedly knowing of Conflict with Coates due to his being a former Proskauer Rose partner and that Proskauer was a counter defendant in these matters and knowing the case would be moved to a new Judge who was unknown at the time. After Coates first hearing where he Sua Sponte recused himself on record, the case was transferred to Judge Phillips.

49. Where it is alleged based on information and belief that the interference by Colin was to move the case to Phillips, despite whether it is true, it can only be proven after Petitioner has access to the Court record from Colin, Coates and Phillips and Petitioner has the right to question each party under deposition or otherwise to ascertain their involvement, Judge Phillips new becomes a material and fact witness to a major allegation of fraud on the court in the transfer by Colin and to answer if he had any Ex Parte communications with Judge Coates or Judges Colin or any other party prior to taking the cases that Colin is alleged to have improperly steered to the North District.

In the fact that this question can be reasonably asked of Judge Phillips due to the improper post recusal steering of the case by Colin, Judge Phillips should on his own initiative have then disqualified himself as a witness, allowed a completely independent judge to be picked properly and thus from the start Judge Phillips could not hear the matters further without first addressing this most serious issue of the transfer.

50. That even if the Supreme Court of Florida or Appellate Court were to now attempt to permit such transfer, the fact that Phillips acted first, prior to any rulings, remains cause for his disqualification.

CANON 3E(1) - ...A judge shall disqualify himself or herself in a proceeding in which the judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

51. Judge Phillips must mandatorily be disqualified as his impartiality is reasonably questioned on multiple grounds as further set forth herein throughout this document including but not limited to his "pre-judging" and "pre-determination" in the case that he would not do anything to find

Judge Colin “wrong” prior to Petitioner even being heard on Sept. 15, 2015, further based upon Judge Phillips professed “love” for Judge Colin who is a necessary and material fact witness, for his due process violations in Ordering a Trial in Shirley Bernstein’s Estate when the Conference was only “Noticed” for Simon Bernstein’s Estate and for other grounds as set forth herein and then continuing to act in fraud and further aid and abet the fraudulent criminal scheme herein using the machinery of the Florida Courts in the North Branch of Palm Beach County on Dec. 15, 2015 and by an illegal Order Dec. 16, 2015.

52. Judge Phillips impartiality is challenged as despite now being a material and fact witness in the matter, he did not clarify or rectify this matter first before determining if he could adjudicate, or allow the Florida Supreme Court to determine if the Colin transfer was improper, before taking ANY judicial action in the matters or even minimally afford Petitioner Due Process to be heard before Judge Phillips on the best procedural manner to bring the issues of the All Writs¹¹ before the Phillips court.

53. Instead, Judge John L. Phillips began acting in the matters and in fact held two hearings, including issuing an Order on Sept. 24, 2015 thereby scheduling a Trial date of December 15, 2015 on a claim for construction filed by Attorney Alan B. Rose, Esq. on behalf of an alleged trustee Ted Bernstein and further enforcing a prior Stay Order of Judge Martin Colin who was petitioned for mandatory Disqualification by Eliot I. Bernstein as a material and fact witness to fraud in the Court, upon the Court and potentially by the Court and further that this Order by Judge John L. Phillips was issued despite the pendency of a Petition for All Writs at the Supreme Court of Florida seeking Mandamus and Prohibition in relation to the conduct of Judge Martin Colin and further seeking injunctive relief and other redress Judge John L. Phillips, both by express words, conduct and by omission has committed acts that mandate Disqualification since the judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned in this proceeding as defined herein and as set out herein throughout this filing specifically referencing ongoing continuing conduct on Dec. 15, 2015. .

CANON 3E(1)(a) - ...the judge has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party or a party's lawyer, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding.

54. Judge John L. Phillips is further mandated to be Disqualified again both by express words, conduct and by omissions demonstrating bias and prejudice against Eliot I. Bernstein, a party in this proceeding as defined herein and as set out by the entirety of this document and filing herein.

CANON 3E(1)(d)(iv) - ...the judge or the judge's spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person: (iv) is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding;

55. As already stated above Judge Phillips has knowledge that he is a material and fact witness in the proceedings to highly relevant information regarding the cases at this time.

Rule 2.330 Grounds.

(e) Time. A motion to disqualify shall be filed within a reasonable time not to exceed 10 days after discovery of the facts constituting the grounds for the motion and shall be promptly presented to the court for an immediate ruling. Any motion for disqualification made during a hearing or trial must be based on facts discovered during the hearing or trial and may be stated on the record, provided that it is also promptly reduced to writing in compliance with subdivision (c) and promptly filed. A motion made during hearing or trial shall be ruled on immediately.

56. Until such time as the frauds upon the court is corrected, the cases reset with new fiduciaries and counsel and due process restored, any such motion presently is timely herein. This motion is otherwise timely being filed on the first day the Courts were open after the Dec. 25th Holiday also closing the Courts on Dec. 26th, 2015.

Rule 2.330 Grounds.

(f) Determination - Initial Motion.

The judge against whom an initial motion to disqualify under subdivision (d)(1) is directed shall determine only the legal sufficiency of the motion and shall not pass on the truth of the facts alleged. If the motion is legally sufficient, the judge shall immediately enter an order granting disqualification and proceed no further in the action. If any motion is legally insufficient, an order denying the motion shall immediately be entered. No other reason for denial shall be stated, and an order of denial shall not take issue with the motion.

57. Petitioner states that the Motion is legally sufficient under Rule 2.330 as it fully complies with this code and whether Petitioner has filed a legally sufficient pleading would not negate the fact that Judge Phillips has to voluntarily and mandatorily disqualify under Judicial Canons, Attorney Conduct Codes and Law as stated herein.

Rule 2.330 Grounds.

(g) Determination - Successive Motions.

If a judge has been previously disqualified on motion for alleged prejudice or partiality under subdivision (d)(1), a successor judge shall not be disqualified based on a successive motion by the same party unless the successor judge rules that he or she is in fact not fair or impartial in the case. Such a successor judge may rule on the truth of the facts alleged in support of the motiou.

58. Petitioner states there have been no Successive Motions.

Rule 2.330 Grounds.

(h) Prior Rulings.

Prior factual or legal rulings by a disqualified judge may be reconsidered and vacated or amended by a successor judge based upon a motion for reconsideration, which must be filed within 20 days of the order of disqualification, unless good cause is shown for a delay in moving for reconsideration or other grounds for reconsideration exist.

59. Petitioner seeks that upon disqualification of Judge Phillips, that all prior factual or legal rulings be vacated by the successor judge due to the alleged continued civil torts against Petitioner by Judge Colin and his successors.

60. That further, Petitioner seeks a replacement Judge, who is not a member of the same jurisdiction as Judge Colin or Phillips and who is not a member of the Florida Bar to preside over the cases of Judge Colin/Coates/Phillips involving the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley Bernstein and the case involving the Trusts of Petitioner's minor children. This request due to the fact that Petitioner does not feel he can get a fair and impartial hearing in the State of Florida and certainly not by the 15th Judicial, perhaps the conflicts now include any members of the Florida Bar for reasons cited herein and in the All Writ and therefore Petitioner is seeking this Court to move the matters to a Federal Court or find other suitable remedy in such serious case where the Court is alleged part of the frauds and adhering to rules and regulations is of primary concern due to the past three years of alleged fraud.

61. The following cases that Judge Phillips now presides over are all tainted for the same reasons as stated herein and Judge Phillips should immediately voluntarily disqualify himself from these cases as well, voiding any/all orders, etc. and turning over the court records to Petitioner for review and save Petitioner the expense and aggravation of having to file Disqualification pleadings and subpoenas in each case to force his mandated disqualification and release of critical to the case court records already requested in the All Writs Petition pending:

a.	Case#	502012CP004391XXXXSB	–
Simon Bernstein Estate
b.	Case#	502011CP000653XXXXSB	–

d.	Case#	502014CP003698XXXXSB	–
Shirley Trust Construction
e.	Case#	502015CP001162XXXXSB	–
Eliot Bernstein v. Trustee Simon Trust Case	OLD Case#	502014CA014637XXXXMB

Rule 2.330 Grounds.

(i) Judge's Initiative.

Nothing in this rule limits the judge's authority to enter an order of disqualification on the judge's own initiative.

62. Petitioner states that Judge Phillips should have already entered an order of disqualification on his own initiative according to Judicial Canons, Statutes and Rules when he became aware that disqualification was mandated of him as a potential witness regarding the alleged improper post recusal steering of the cases by Colin but has thus far failed to do so and instead rushed into hearings without first addressing these fundamental issues of fair and impartial due process. If for any reason Judge Phillips finds this Motion legally insufficient, Judge Phillips must disqualify himself on his own initiative as set forth under this rule 2.330 (i) and Judicial Canon, Attorney Conduct Codes, Probate Rules and Statutes and Law for the reasons stated herein, whether pled sufficiently or not by Pro Se Eliot Bernstein.

Rule 2.330 Grounds.

(j) Time for Determination.

The judge shall rule on a motion to disqualify immediately, but no later than 30 days after the service of the motion as set forth in subdivision (c). If not ruled on within 30 days of service, the motion shall be deemed granted and the moving party may seek an order from the court directing the clerk to reassign the case.

63. Petitioner demands due to the EMERGENCY NATURE of this case where claims have been made that Petitioner's children are in life threatening dangers due to the abusive and fraudulent Probate rulings and proceedings for the last three year which have directly and intentionally interfered with inheritances/expectancies causing massive harms to them caused directly by the Fraud on the Court by the Court Appointed Attorneys at Law and Fiduciaries and potentially the Court itself and this requires that this Disqualification be made instantly. Delays cause further ongoing harms and damages of Petitioner's minor children and Petitioner's family which results in additional liabilities to those parties ultimately held accountable for the criminal acts, civil torts and frauds that occurred in Judge Colin and Judge French's courts.
64. That PRIOR to any other actions by Judge Phillips, this Disqualification must first be ruled on.

Florida Statutes 38.10

Disqualification of judge for prejudice; application; affidavits;
etc.—

Whenever a party to any action or proceeding makes and files an affidavit stating fear that he or she will not receive a fair trial in the court where the suit is pending on account of the prejudice of the judge of that court against the applicant or in favor of the adverse party, the judge shall proceed no further, but another judge shall be designated in the manner prescribed by the laws of this state for the substitution of judges for the trial of causes in which the presiding judge is disqualified. Every such affidavit shall state the facts and the reasons for the belief that any such bias or prejudice exists and shall be accompanied by a certificate of counsel of record that such affidavit and application are made in good faith.

65. Petitioner has supplied a legally sufficient Affidavit herein.
66. Judge John L. Phillips is again mandated to be Disqualified under the Rules by both express words, conduct and by omissions by creating a reasonable fear by the party Eliot I. Bernstein that he will not receive a fair trial as defined herein and as demonstrated and plead throughout the entirety of the document and filing herein.

WHEREFORE, the PRO SE Petitioner requests that Judge Phillips immediately mandatorily disqualify as this is a legally sufficient pleading. In the alternative if it is determined by Judge Phillips that this Pro Se pleading is legally insufficient then he must on his own motion and initiative disqualify himself as required by Judicial Cannons, Attorney Conduct Codes and Law. Further, all Orders of Judge Phillips should be voided including the Mediation scheduled for Dec. 4th, 2015 at 10 am EST and Trial Scheduled for Dec. 15th, 2015. Finally, as Eliot has filed a previous disqualification of Judge Phillips that was denied as “legally insufficient” alone with no explanation and where “legally insufficient” is a legally insufficient phrase as it has not a legal definition, Eliot asks this Court to fully explain what is legally insufficient with the pleading so corrections can be made if necessary and to explain why the previous filing did not meet a “sufficiency” standard.

Under Penalties of perjury, I, Eliot Ivan Bernstein, swear under oath and affirm that I have read the foregoing and the facts alleged are made in good faith and are true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Dated this 28th day of December, 2015

BERNSTEIN IN CONTEMPT OF COURT FOR THEIR CONTINUED VIOLATION OF A COURT ORDER AND REPEATED STATEMENTS ASSAULTING THE

Petitioner, OPPENHEIMER TRUST COMPANY OF DELAWARE (“Oppenheimer”), as the resigned trustee of three irrevocable trusts created by the late Simon Bernstein for the benefit of his minor grandchildren, Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein (the “Grandchildren Trusts”), files this Omnibus Motion, and in support hereof, submits the following memorandum of law:

I. INTRODUCTION

On July 8, 2010, in Palm Beach Circuit Court Case Nos. 502010CP003123XXXXSB, 502010CP003125XXXXSB and 502010CP003128XXXXSB (the “2010 Proceedings”), the Honorable Martin Colin appointed Oppenheimer as successor trustee of the three small-value “Grandchildren Trusts” at issue in this case.¹ The Grandchildren Trusts were settled by Simon Bernstein for the benefit of his minor grandchildren, Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein (the “Minor Beneficiaries”). The “Petitions to Appoint Successor Trustee” were filed in the 2010 Proceedings by Eliot and Candice Bernstein (the “Bernsteins”), as natural guardians of the Minor Beneficiaries, following the well-publicized collapse and receivership of then-trustee, Stanford Trust Company and its affiliates.

At the time Oppenheimer accepted the appointment (on July 30, 2010), Oppenheimer was unaware that Eliot Bernstein was an adjudicated vexatious litigant who was in the midst of a ten-year-long scorched-earth campaign “to bring about a change in the legal system in efforts to root out systemic corruption at the highest levels by a rogue group of criminals disguised as attorneys at law, judges, politicians, and more.” See Bernsteins’ Counter-Complaint filed in this action at ¶ 212. For multiple reasons, including difficulties in dealing with the Bernsteins and the lack of liquid trust assets with which to comply with their increasingly unreasonable requests, Oppenheimer resigned as trustee of the Grandchildren Trusts effective May 26, 2014² and, thereafter, filed the instant Petition to have a successor appointed and Oppenheimer’s final accountings approved.

² The fact and validity of Oppenheimer’s resignation was recognized by Judge Colin in his Omnibus Order entered in this case on November 7, 2014 (DE 35), which granted Oppenheimer’s Motion for Partial Summary Judgment as to that issue (DE 23).

For over nineteen (19) months, the Bernsteins have delayed the appointment of a successor trustee, the termination of the Grandchildren Trusts and/or the approval of Oppenheimer's accountings. They did so by inventing and obfuscating issues, filing frivolous papers, ignoring and violating multiple court orders, engaging in delay tactics, filing serial motions to disqualify judges and serial appeals (or petitions for writs) every time a ruling didn't go their way, and publicly accusing a growing number of people (now including this Court) of conspiracy. The Bernsteins' actions have needlessly caused Oppenheimer to incur hundreds of thousands of dollars in attorneys' fees just to resign. Sadly, all such fees are chargeable to the Grandchildren Trusts and, ultimately, to the Minor Beneficiaries.

A guardian ad litem should be appointed because: (i) the Bernsteins have no independent standing in this matter; (ii) the Bernsteins are unfit to serve as the "litigation representatives" for their minor children, the real parties in interest; (iii) the Bernsteins' interests clearly and directly conflict with their minor children's interests; and (iv) Eliot Bernstein (now joined by Candice Bernstein) is an adjudicated, serial, vexatious litigant who has been enjoined from filing certain claims in any court (but who is violating that injunction in this case). The record in this case shows that the Bernsteins are irresponsibly pursuing their own scorched earth agenda without regard for what's in their children's best interests. In doing so, they increase the cost and length of litigation to the prejudice of the Minor Beneficiaries, the Court and all parties involved.

By this Motion, Oppenheimer seeks: (i) the appointment of a guardian ad litem to exclusively represent the Minor Beneficiaries in this action going forward; (ii) alternatively, to strike the Bernsteins' objections to Oppenheimer's accountings due to their continued violation of paragraph nine of Judge Colin's May 4, 2015 Order (DE 68) (which required compliance by June 1, 2015); (iii) an order establishing a schedule and protocol for the conclusion of the already-commenced accounting proceedings, the turnover of trust assets to a successor trustee or guardian, and Oppenheimer's discharge; and (iv) such other relief deemed just and proper to protect the Minor Beneficiaries and Oppenheimer from the Bernsteins' costly and abusive conduct.

II. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

A. Oppenheimer's Tenure as Trustee of the Grandchildren Trusts

1. On July 7, 2010, the Bernsteins, as parents and natural guardians of the Minor Beneficiaries, filed three Petitions to Appoint [Oppenheimer as] Successor Trustee [of the Grandchildren Trusts] in Palm Beach County Circuit Court, Case Nos. 502010CP003123XXXXSB, 502010CP003125XXXXSB and 502010CP003128XXXXSB, citing to the court-ordered dissolution of then-trustee, Stanford Trust Company.

2. On July 8, 2010, Judge Martin Colin entered Final Orders on Petition to Appoint Successor Trustee, appointing Oppenheimer as the successor trustee of each of the Grandchildren Trusts. Copies of the Final Orders are attached hereto as Exhibits "A" through "C." Those Final Orders were never challenged or appealed. On July 30, 2010 Oppenheimer formally accepted the appointments.

3. From July 30, 2010 through April 22, 2014, the Bernsteins requested distributions from the Grandchildren Trusts for the benefit of the Minor Beneficiaries and the family in general, and they accepted the benefits of the Grandchildren Trusts.

4. Because of the difficulty in dealing with the Bernsteins, and the lack of liquid trust assets to administer the Grandchildren Trusts in the manner requested by the Bernsteins, by letter dated April 22, 2014 (the "Notice of Resignation"), Oppenheimer resigned as trustee effective May 26, 2014. A copy of the Notice of Resignation is attached hereto as Exhibit "D."

5. Each of the Grandchildren Trusts provide, in relevant part, as follows:

5.2 Resignation. Any Trustee may resign by giving 30 days' written notice delivered personally or by mail to any then serving Co-Trustee and to the Settlor if he is then living and not disabled; otherwise to the next named successor Trustee, or if none, to the persons having power to appoint successor Trustees.

5.3 Power to Name Other Trustees. Whenever a successor Trustee is required and that position is not filled under the terms specified in this Trust Agreement, an individual Trustee ceasing to serve (other than a Trustee being removed) may appoint his or her successor, but if none is appointed, the remaining Trustees, if any, or the beneficiary shall appoint a successor Corporate Trustee. The appointment will be by a written document (including a testamentary instrument) delivered to the appointed Trustee. In no event may the Settlor ever be appointed as the Trustee under this Trust Agreement nor shall a Successor trustee be appointed that will cause this trust to be a grantor trust.

6. Similarly, Section 736.0705, Florida Statutes, entitled "Resignation of trustee," provides, in relevant part, as follows:

(1) A trustee may resign:

(a) Upon at least 30 days' notice to the qualified beneficiaries, the settlor, if living, and all cotrustees...

7. Section 736.0704, Florida Statutes, entitled "Vacancy in trusteeship; appointment of successor," provides, in relevant part, as follows:

(3) A vacancy in a trusteeship of a noncharitable trust that is required to be filled must be filled in the following order of priority:

(a) By a person named or designated pursuant to the terms of the trust to act as successor trustee.

(b) By a person appointed by unanimous agreement of the qualified beneficiaries.

(c) By a person appointed by the court.

8. Fla. Stat. § 736.0707 requires a resigned trustee to deliver trust property to a successor trustee or other person entitled to the property, and provides that the resigned trustee has the duties of a trustee, and the power necessary to protect the trust property, until the property is so delivered.

B. The Bernsteins Failed To Nominate a Successor Trustee, Despite Court Order

9. In the Notice of Resignation, Oppenheimer requested that the Bernsteins, as natural guardians of the Minor Beneficiaries, nominate a successor corporate trustee, as required by the terms of the Grandchildren Trusts. They failed to do so.

10. On June 13, 2014, Oppenheimer filed the instant Petition (DE 1), requesting, in Count I, instructions regarding the delivery of the assets of the Grandchildren Trusts in light of Oppenheimer's resignation. See Petition, ¶ 1. Oppenheimer asked this Court to "either (i) appoint a successor trustee to whom Oppenheimer may deliver the Trust property or (ii) terminate the Trusts and permit Oppenheimer to deliver the Trust property to Eliot and Candice Bernstein, as the natural guardians of the Trusts' beneficiaries." See Petition, ¶ 19.

11. On October 20, 2014, Judge Colin heard argument on Oppenheimer's Motion for Partial Summary Judgment as to Count I of its Petition (DE 23) and granted the Motion, ruling that Oppenheimer had validly resigned on May 26, 2014. See November 7, 2014 Omnibus Order (DE 35) at ¶ 1.

12. Because the Bernsteins objected to the termination of the Grandchildren Trusts, Judge Colin ordered the Bernsteins to "submit the name and address of a proposed successor trustee to the Court, Oppenheimer's counsel and the proposed Successor Trustee" by October 30, 2014. Id. The Bernsteins failed to comply with that Order.

13. On February 26, 2015, following a "Status Check" hearing, Judge Colin again ordered the Bernsteins to designate a proposed successor corporate trustee. See February 26, 2015 Order on Status Check (DE 52).

14. Later that day, the Bernsteins provided the names of three corporate trustees to Oppenheimer's counsel (without supplying the names of contact people). The Bernsteins sarcastically wished Oppenheimer's counsel "[g]ood luck finding someone!" See Exhibit "E."

15. On February 27, 2015, Oppenheimer's counsel contacted the three corporate trustees proposed by the Bernsteins, informed them of the reason for the call and the nature and value of the assets of the Grandchildren Trusts (as set forth in the accountings previously filed with the Court). Oppenheimer later reported to the Court that the three proposed trustees had declined the appointment. See Oppenheimer's February 27, 2015 Notice to Court That Respondents' Proposed Successor Trustees Have Declined the Appointment (DE 54).

16. On March 31, 2015, at a hearing on multiple motions (DE 53), the Bernsteins proudly reported that an Illinois attorney, JoAnne Denison, had agreed to serve as successor trustee. The undersigned, as an officer of the court, presented the Court with documentation confirming that the Hearing Board of the Illinois Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission had recommended that Ms. Denison be suspended from the practice of law for three years for making "false statements concerning the integrity of judges, knowing they were false or with reckless disregard for their truth or falsity, and engaged in dishonest conduct and conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice." See Exhibit "F" ("Report and Recommendation of the Illinois Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission, Commission No. 2013PR0001, filed November 21, 2014"). The undersigned also presented the Court with a copy of a recent Order entered by the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit in which the court found that Ms. Denison and a colleague had "launched a crusade" against judges and lawyers involved in a particular matter, accusing them of "theft, bribery and other misconduct." Denison v. Stern, Case No. 14 C 375 (7th Cir. 2014). The Seventh Circuit reprimanded Ms. Denison for moving her “campaign of vilification from the Internet to the courthouse” and warned Ms. Denison that “frivolous litigation will not be tolerated.” Id. When asked by Judge Colin whether the Bernsteins knew of Ms. Denison’s background and still wanted her to serve as their children’s trustee, Mr. Bernstein responded in the affirmative, at which time the Court informed the Bernsteins that it would not accept Ms. Denison as a successor trustee. At that time, rather than permitting the termination of the Grandchildren Trusts, Mrs. Bernstein requested one additional week to find an alternate, suitable, Florida trustee for the court to consider. The Court granted Mrs. Bernstein’s request and re-set the hearing for April 7, 2015.

17. At the time of the continued hearing on April 7, 2015, the Bernsteins had not identified any alternate trustee (corporate or otherwise) that has acknowledged that it, he or she is willing to serve as a successor trustee. The Bernsteins still have not done so as of the filing of this Motion, nor have they consented to the termination of the Grandchildren Trusts.

C. The Bernsteins Disobey Court Orders Regarding the Accounting Proceedings, and Make the Proceedings Unduly Expensive

18. In Count II of the instant Petition, Oppenheimer requested Court review and approval of its final accountings.

19. On November 7, 2014, this Court entered an Order providing, in relevant part, as follows:

Oppenheimer may file and serve final accountings for each of the Grandchildren Trusts with the Court. Within twenty (20) days after Oppenheimer files and serves its final accountings, the Bernsteins, as natural guardians of the minor beneficiaries, may file form, line-item objections to the final accountings. Thereafter, the Court will conduct appropriate proceedings on the final accountings.

The Court withholds ruling on Oppenheimer’s Motion to Appoint Guardian Ad Litem for Minor Beneficiaries, but may reconsider

Oppenheimer's Motion after the Bernsteins file their objections to the final accounting or at a later date.

See November 7, 2014 Omnibus Order (DE 35) (emphasis supplied).

20. Oppenheimer filed and served its final accountings on December 17, 2014 (DE 38).

21. On January 22, 2015, the Bernsteins filed a document entitled "Objection to Final Accounting; Petition for Formal, Detailed, Audited and Forensic Accounting and Document Production" (DE 40) (the "Objection").³

22. The Bernsteins filed the Objection "individually and on behalf of [their] minor children, who are alleged qualified beneficiaries of Settlor's Estate and Trusts..." *See Objection, p. 20 (emphasis supplied).*⁴

23. The Objection challenges not only the final accountings, "in toto," but also the authenticity and validity of the Grandchildren Trusts, the Minor Beneficiaries' rights under the Grandchildren Trusts, and Oppenheimer's status as trustee.⁵ Specifically, the Bernsteins:

- Object to the validity of the Grandchildren Trusts as being "alleged and legally deficient trusts," Objection, p. 1 (see fn 5 herein);
- Object to Oppenheimer's standing as trustee and characterize Oppenheimer as the "alleged Successor Trustee," Objection, p. 2 (see fn 5 herein);
- "Object to all withdrawals of trust funds by [Oppenheimer] and allege that they were done fraudulently and without proper documentation and converted to improper parties as part of a larger fraud on the beneficiaries of the

⁴ The Objection (and prior filings, including the Bernsteins' Counter-Complaint (DE 14)) leaves no doubt that the Bernsteins are questioning the validity of the Grandchildren Trusts and/or the minor beneficiaries' rights thereunder. Such a position puts the Bernsteins squarely at odds with their children.

⁵ Any challenges to the validity of the Grandchildren Trusts and/or the authority of Oppenheimer to administer the Grandchildren Trusts were required to be made in the 2010 Proceedings pursuant to which Oppenheimer was appointed. Any such challenges raised in these proceedings are barred by res judicata, collateral estoppel and other preclusion doctrines.

[Grandchildren Trusts] and the beneficiaries of the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley Bernstein...” Objection, p. 2, ¶ 3 (emphasis supplied);⁶

- Object that the “[t]rustees named in the document conflict with each other knowing who the Trustee actually was in the alleged trust document impossible to determine,” Objection, p. 3, ¶ 7 (see fn 5 herein);
- Object that the trust accounting begins on the date Oppenheimer became accountable as successor trustee, and does not encompass periods when prior trustees were accountable, Objection, p. 5, ¶ 20 (but see Fla. Stat. § 736.07135, providing that a trust accounting must only report information “... from the date on which the trustee became accountable...”);
- Object to the “whole accounting” because “[a]ccount balances beginning and ending cannot be confirmed or reconciled,” Objection, p. 5, ¶ 21;
- Object to each and every section of the accountings, “in toto”, as follows:
 - The entire “Summary Accounting” (Summary of Account) section, Objection, p. 5, ¶¶ 19-22;
 - The entire “Receipts of Principal” section (pages 1-2 of the accountings), Objection, p. 6, ¶¶ 23-26;
 - The entire “Gains and Losses on Sales and Other Dispositions” section (pages 3-17 of the accountings), Objection, p. 10, ¶¶ 36-38;
 - The entire “Other Receipts Allocable to Principal” section (page 18 of the accountings), which section is comprised solely of “Income Taxes – Refunds” entries, Objection, p. 11, ¶¶ 39-42;
 - The entire “Disbursements of Principal” section (pages 19-20 of the accountings), including:
 - All “Accounting Fees,” Objection, p. 11, ¶¶ 43-45;
 - All “Fiduciary Fees,” Objection, p. 11, ¶¶ 46-48; and
 - All “Income Taxes,” Objection, p. 12, ¶¶ 49-52;
 - The entire “Distributions of Principal for Beneficiaries” section (pages 21-27 of the accountings), Objection, p. 12, ¶¶ 53-56;
 - The entire “Principal Balance on Hand” section (page 28 of the accountings), Objection, p. 14, ¶¶ 61-64;

⁶ Oppenheimer has never acted in a fiduciary capacity in connection with any Simon or Shirley Bernstein estate or trust other than the Grandchildren Trusts.

- The entire “Information Schedules” section (pages 29-33 of the accountings), which is comprised solely of “Changes in Investment Holdings” entries, Objection, p. 14, ¶¶ 66-69;
- The entire “Receipts of Income” section (pages 34-48 of the accountings), including:
 - All “Dividends” entries, Objection, p. 14, ¶¶ 70-73; and
 - All “Interest” entries, Objection, p. 14, ¶¶ 74-77; and
- Finally, the entire “Disbursement of Income” section (pages 49-50 of the accountings), including:
 - All “Accountant Fees” entries, Objection, p. 16, ¶ 78-80;
 - All “Fees and Commissions” entries, Objection, p. 16, ¶ 81; and
 - All “Fiduciary Fees” entries, Objection, p. 16, ¶¶ 82-84;

24. Because the vast majority of the Bernsteins’ objections were based upon alleged lack of documentation, Oppenheimer culled and produced nearly 2,000 pages of backup documentation related to each line item of the accountings.⁷ Further, Oppenheimer provided the Bernsteins and the Court with annotated copies of the accountings which cross-reference each line item in the accountings to the backup documents supporting each line item. See Exhibits “G” through “I.” Nevertheless, the Bernsteins maintained each and every one of their objections.

⁷ Oppenheimer produced documents Bates-stamped OPP0001-1521, a Business Records Certification and three public records related to real property on March 10, 2015. See Oppenheimer’s “Notice of Production,” “Notice of Intent to Introduce Evidence By Means of Business Records Certification,” and “Request for Judicial Notice” filed with the Court on March 10, 2015 (DE 57-60). Oppenheimer produced documents Bates-stamped OPP1522-1828, a Business Records Certification and three Summaries of tax reporting and refund information on April 8, 2015. See Oppenheimer’s “Notice of Production,” “Notice of Intent to Introduce Evidence By Means of Business Records Certification,” and “Notice of Intent to Rely on Summaries” filed with the Court on April 8, 2015 (DE 63-65).

D. The Bernsteins Remain In Violation of Judge Colin's Latest Order

25. Before recusing himself, Judge Colin held two evidentiary hearings on the Bernsteins' Objection, each time necessitating the attendance of Oppenheimer's out-of-state principals and trial-like preparations, at considerable expense.

26. On March 17, 2015, the Court considered and ruled upon objections 1 through 5, and at the continued hearing on April 20, 2015, the Court considered and ruled upon objections 6 through 27 (out of 90 total objections). By the time of his recusal on May 19, 2015, Judge Colin had not sustained a single one of the Bernsteins' objections. See May 4, 2015 Order From April 20, 2015 Continued Hearing On Respondents' Objection to Final Accounting (DE 68).

27. In paragraph 9 of the May 4, 2015 Order, Judge Colin ruled that:

With regard to objections 12, 13, 23, 26, and 28 through 90, in light of [the Bernsteins'] claim that they have had insufficient time to review the backup documents produced by [Oppenheimer], [the Bernsteins] shall file a notice with this Court, on or before June 1, 2015, indicating which of these objections they are abandoning in light of [Oppenheimer's] production of documents. For each objection that [the Bernsteins] do not abandon, [they] shall give a one-sentence reason why they are not abandoning the objection.

See May 4, 2015 Order From April 20, 2015 Continued Hearing On Respondents' Objection to Final Accounting (DE 68) (emphasis supplied).

28. The Bernsteins violated paragraph nine of the May 4, 2015 Order because they failed to file the required notice, withdraw any objections or state their reasons for not doing so, by June 1, 2015. They still have not done so six months later despite their clear ability to do so. Therefore, the Bernsteins remain in willful violation of the May 4, 2015 Order.

E. The Bernsteins' Interests Are Inconsistent With Their Children's Interests

In their pleadings, the Bernsteins proudly state that their overarching goal in litigating this case is “to bring about a change in the legal system in efforts to root out systemic corruption at the highest levels by a rogue group of criminals disguised as attorneys at law, judges, politicians, and more.” Counter-Complaint ¶ 212. No reasonable inference can be drawn that the Minor Beneficiaries have a similar interest or agenda, or that pursuing such a broad agenda is in their best interest. In addition to the inescapable conclusion that the Bernsteins' choice to engage in unnecessary, wasteful litigation to achieve their personal, “overarching goal” on their children's dime is not in their children's best interest, the Bernsteins have confirmed in their pleadings, and in the pending Objection, that they have interests which conflict with those of the Minor Beneficiaries. For instance, in their Counter-Complaint:

- The Bernsteins allege that beneficiary designations were changed from him to his children based upon fraudulent documents and frauds on this Court. Counter-Complaint, ¶ 253.
- The Bernsteins allege that “approximately 1/3 of all assets [are] either going to Eliot or his children or a combination of both depending on how this Court rules regarding the validity of the Wills and Trusts that have been challenged and already found fraught with fraud, fraudulent notarizations, improper notarizations, forgeries and more.” Counter-Complaint, ¶ 186.
- The Bernsteins allege that Mr. Bernstein himself is a beneficiary of the Grandchildren Trusts. Specifically, they allege that “Simon and Shirley [Bernstein] set up [the Grandchildren Trusts and Bernstein Family Realty, LLC] while living, in order to fund all of their living expenses, due to the fact that Eliot has had a bomb put in his car, death threats and is in the middle of a very intense RICO and ANTITRUST lawsuit where he and his family have been in grave danger for many years fighting corruption inside the very framework of the legal system.” The Bernsteins allege that the Grandchildren Trusts were “set up by Simon and Shirley [Bernstein] for the benefit of Eliot, Candice and their children.” Counter-Complaint, ¶¶ 109-110.

- Sixteen of the trust agreements identified as counterclaim-defendants are described as having beneficiaries including but not limited to “Eliot and/or his children or both.” See Counter-Complaint, ¶¶ 44-50, 52-60, 65.

Similarly, in their pending Objection, the Bernsteins refer to their children as the “alleged” beneficiaries and are continuing to frustrate the Minor Beneficiaries’ ability to receive any part of their trust assets by engaging in spurious, expensive litigation, no doubt in furtherance of their personal, “overarching goal” to raze the judicial system.

F. The Bernsteins Have A Long and Proud History Of Vexatious Litigation

As set forth in detail in Oppenheimer’s original Motion to Appoint Guardian Ad Litem For Minor Beneficiaries filed September 14, 2014 (DE 31),⁸ Mr. Bernstein’s crusade against the legal system and its professionals and institutions began more than a decade ago, in 2003. In the last 13 years, Mr. Bernstein’s efforts have intensified, his “litigation skills” have been polished, and he has diversified his campaign into multiple trial and appellate courts where he defames and preys upon an ever-growing number of alleged “conspirators,” including judges and litigation counsel.

Since he began his crusade, Mr. Bernstein has filed countless Bar complaints, complaints against police agencies, petitions to protect him from police agencies, federal lawsuits against the Florida Bar, the Virginia Bar, the State of New York and hundreds of defendants, including lawyers, judges and lawmakers, and even a United States Supreme Court petition. Throughout one matter -- litigation pending in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (the “New York Court”) -- Mr. Bernstein made inflammatory and defamatory statements about the defendants, judges and others. His Complaint was ultimately dismissed on the merits, but he refused to acknowledge defeat. Instead, he pursued the action on appeal and in independent proceedings for another five years. Ultimately, the New York Court sanctioned Mr. Bernstein for repeatedly filing frivolous papers. Eliot I. Bernstein v. State of New York, et al, Case No. 1:07-cv-11196 (DE 154), Order on Motion for Sanctions (S.D. N.Y. August 29, 2013). See Exhibit “J.” Among other sanctions, the Court enjoined Mr. Bernstein as follows:

⁸ The contents of the September 14, 2014 Motion are incorporated here by reference. Judge Colin never read or ruled on that Motion. Oppenheimer respectfully requests that the Court review that Motion along with the instant Motion, so that it has full context for its decision.

Eliot I. Bernstein is hereby enjoined from filing any action in any court related to the subject matter of this action without first obtaining leave of this Court. In moving for such leave, Bernstein must certify that the claim or claims he wishes to present are new claims never before raised and/or disposed of by any court. Bernstein must also certify that claim or claims are not frivolous or asserted in bad faith. Additionally, the motion for leave to file must be captioned ‘Application Pursuant to Court Order Seeking Leave to File.’ Failure to comply strictly with the terms of this injunction shall be sufficient grounds for denying leave to file and any other remedy or sanction deemed appropriate by this Court.

Id. (emphasis supplied). Mr. Bernstein expressed his contempt for the court and the proscriptions of Rule 11 by stating the following in his Rule 11 opposition: “Bernstein is notifying Proskauer and this Court that he will have a lifelong and generational long litigious history in pursuing his patent royalties...” Id. (emphasis supplied).

In the Bernsteins’ latest pleading – the now-stayed “Counter-Complaint” filed in this action -- the Bernsteins’ purport to assert claims in more than 20 capacities against Oppenheimer and all of its current and former divisions, affiliates, subsidiaries, stockholders, parents, predecessors, successors, assignors, assigns, partners, members, officers, directors, trustees, employees, agents, administrators, representatives, attorneys, insurers and fiduciaries,

and against seventy-six (76) additional counterclaim-defendants (not including “John Doe’s 1-5000”), and all of their current and former divisions, affiliates, subsidiaries, stockholders, parents, predecessors, successors, assignors, assigns, partners, members, officers, directors, trustees, employees, agents, administrators, representatives, attorneys, insurers and fiduciaries.

See Bernsteins' Answer and Counter-Complaint (DE 14).

In contempt of the New York Court's Injunction, the Bernsteins' Counter-Complaint raises enjoined claims. For instance:

- The Bernsteins expressly incorporate the allegations of the New York lawsuit, and joined several of the same defendants, in their Counter-Complaint. See Counter-Complaint, ¶¶ 61-64, 217, 223.
- The Bernsteins allege that they are “pursuing Defendants, Proskauer Rose LLP, Gerald Lewin, CPA and Albert Gortz, Esq. as the main parties involved in the theft of Simon and Eliot’s Intellectual Properties.” See Counter-Complaint, ¶ 217.
- The Bernsteins allege “[t]hat Defendant’s [sic] Oppenheimer and JP Morgan were both initially involved in Eliot’s technologies and signed various agreements with the companies that held the Intellectual Properties...” See Counter-Complaint, ¶ 223.

To make matters worse, when the case was re-assigned to Judge Howard Coates after Judge Colin’s recusal, Mr. Bernstein successfully persuaded Judge Coates to recuse himself, citing to the fact that Judge Coates’ old law firm, Proskauer Rose, was (wrongfully) named as a defendant in the Bernsteins’ Counter-Complaint. Not only is Mr. Bernstein violating the New York Court’s injunction by filing unauthorized pleadings, he is using the enjoined pleadings to mislead judges, complicate issues and cause expense and delay in this case.

And just as the Bernsteins publicly disparaged and disrespected judges in the New York case and elsewhere, they continue to show contempt for the multiple judges that have presided over this case, and other Florida judges and Justices. For example, in their Florida Supreme Court filing related to this case, entitled “Petition for All Writs, Writ of Prohibition, Writ of Mandamus and Petition to Stay Cases and Temporarily Restrain Sale, Transfer, Disposition of any Asset and for Preservation of all Evidence” (the “Supreme Court Petition”), the Bernsteins allege “fraud by the court,” that “Judges are involved on the attempt to fix and silence the crimes of other members of the Florida Bar and others,” that “two Florida judges [Colin and French]... [are] involved in the criminal acts described herein,” and that all Florida Supreme Court Justices are complicit. See Supreme Court Petition, pp. 5-6. The Bernsteins claim that, due to their own conduct in pursuing broad conspiracy claims against all three branches of government, no court (or at least no Florida court) is unbiased enough to preside over his claims.⁹

What the Bernsteins conduct in this case and others shows is that the Bernsteins are unable to fathom even the possibility that a judge can make an adverse ruling because it is the right ruling. When the Bernsteins lose and appeal, they consistently allege, not that the judge got the law or facts wrong or made a mistake, but rather that the judge is a criminal fraudster involved in a broad conspiracy with the lawyers in the room and others well beyond the room. This level of contempt alone (unsupported by evidence) makes the Bernsteins unfit to serve as anyone else’s representative in court. Indeed, if the Bernsteins are to be believed, their children will fare much better in the courts if they are not burdened by their parents real or imagined reputation within the legal community.

⁹ The Supreme Court Petition begins (at pp. 2-3) as follows:

WARNING:
POTENTIAL CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Eliot Ivan Bernstein has pursued in investigations since early 2000 to present, including a Petition to the White House, the White House Counsel's Office, the US Attorney General's Office, investigations to the SEC, FBI, and various State Attorney Generals, and actions with the USPTO, and other legal actions, including RICO and ANTITRUST civil litigation and criminal complaints several Florida Supreme Court Justices, The Florida Bar, several New York Supreme Court Justices, the New York Supreme Court Disciplinary Agencies 1st & 2nd, several large law firms and lawyers, political figures at the highest levels in both Florida and New York and others and this may cause any review of the following matters by any member of The Florida Bar, a subsidiary of the Florida Supreme Court, with any title in the organization, to prejudice the rights of Eliot Bernstein and his family and will be construed as a denial of due process that obstructs justice.

III. ARGUMENT

A. The Court Should Appoint A Guardian Ad Litem For the Minor Beneficiaries

Courts should not permit a parent to act as a child's litigation representative where "it appears that the [parent] has interests which may conflict with those of the [child]." 1 Leg. Rts. Child. (Legal Rights of Children) Rev. 2d § 12:3 (2d ed. 2013), citing Mistretta v. Mistretta, 566 So. 2d 836, 837 (Fla. 5th DCA 1990) (other internal citations omitted). In this case, the Court cannot reasonably conclude that the Minor Beneficiaries' separate interests in the Grandchildren Trusts and their assets "will be fully protected" by the Bernsteins. The Bernsteins have challenged their children's rights under the Grandchildren Trusts and continue to ignore court orders and engage in a litigation strategy which virtually guarantees the dissipation of the remaining trust assets. Accordingly, the appointment of a guardian ad litem is mandatory. See Mistretta 566 So. 2d at 837-38 (denial of due process occurs when the interests of the child may be adverse to the interests of the parent); Johns v. Dep't of Justice, 624 F.2d 522 (5th Cir.1980); Smith v. Langford, 255 So.2d 294 (Fla. 1st DCA 1971). Chapman v. Garcia, 463 So.2d 528 (Fla. 3d DCA 1985).

Similarly, Fla. Stat. §§ 731.303(4) and 736.0305(1) and Fla. Prob. R. 5.120(a) provide authority for the appointment of a guardian ad litem in proceedings involving estates or trusts if the court determines that representation of a minor's interest otherwise would be inadequate. In this case, the Bernsteins' representation of the Minor Beneficiaries is not only inadequate; it is actually harming the minors' interests in their trusts.

Oppenheimer requests that a guardian ad litem be appointed, that all of the Bernsteins' pleadings (including their Objection and Counter-Complaint which they purported to file in their individual capacities) be stricken, and that the guardian ad litem be given a reasonable amount of time to respond to the Petition and file appropriate accounting objections.

B. The Bernsteins Should Be Sanctioned and/or Held In Contempt Of Court For Violating The Court's May 4, 2015 Order (DE 68)

Paragraph 9 of the May 4, 2015 Order provides as follows:

With regard to objections 12, 13, 23, 26, and 28 through 90, in light of [the Bernsteins'] claim that they have had insufficient time to review the backup documents produced by [Oppenheimer], [the Bernsteins] shall file a notice with this Court, on or before June 1, 2015, indicating which of these objections they are abandoning in light of [Oppenheimer's] production of documents. For each objection that [the Bernsteins] do not abandon, [they] shall give a one-sentence reason why they are not abandoning the objection.

The Bernsteins willfully violated paragraph nine of the May 4, 2015 Order because they failed to file the required notice by June 1, 2015, and still have not done so six months later. Accordingly, unless this issue is deemed moot by the appointment of a guardian ad litem, the Bernsteins should be sanctioned and/or held in contempt of court.

1. Inherent Authority to Sanction for Violation of Court Order

A “deliberate and contumacious disregard of the court's authority” may justify the striking of a party’s pleadings without a finding of contempt. Swindle v. Reid, 242 So. 2d 751 (Fla. 4th DCA 1970). So will “bad faith, willful disregard or gross indifference to an order of the court, or conduct which evinces deliberate callousness.” Herold v. Computer Components International, Inc., 252 So. 2d 576 (Fla. 4th DCA 1971); Paranzino v. Barnett Bank of South Florida, N.A., 690 So. 2d 725 (Fla. 4th DCA 1997); Cem-A-Care of Florida, Inc. v. Automated Planning Systems, Inc., 442 So. 2d 1048 (Fla. 4th DCA 1983).

Courts traditionally have broad authority through means other than contempt - such as by striking pleadings, assessing costs, excluding evidence, and entering default judgment - to penalize a party's failure to comply with the rules of conduct governing the litigation process. Such judicial sanctions never have been considered criminal, and the imposition of civil, coercive fines to police the litigation process appears consistent with this authority. Similarly, indirect contempts involving discrete, readily ascertainable acts, such as turning over a key or payment of a judgment, properly may be adjudicated through civil proceedings since the need for extensive, impartial fact-finding is less pressing.

International Union, United Mine Workers of America v. Bagwell, 512 U.S. 821, 833 (1994)

(internal citations omitted).

The above facts illustrate the Bernsteins' continuing pattern of ignoring and violating Court orders and failing to acknowledge the Court's authority. Accordingly, an order striking the Bernsteins' Objection to Oppenheimer's accountings is appropriate.

2. Holding a Party in Contempt for Violation of a Court Order

“A refusal to obey any legal order, mandate or decree, made or given by any judge either in term time or in vacation relative to any of the business of said court, after due notice thereof, shall be considered a contempt, and punished accordingly.” Fla. Stat. § 38.23 (2010).

A violation of a court order can form the basis for a finding of either civil or criminal contempt.¹⁰ See International Union, United Mine Workers of America v. Bagwell, 512 U.S. 821, 833 (1994) (“Certain indirect contempts nevertheless are appropriate for imposition through civil proceedings. Contempts such as failure to comply with document discovery, for example, while occurring outside the court's presence, impede the court's ability to adjudicate the proceedings before it and thus touch upon the core justification for the contempt power.”); see also Lo. v. Lo, 878 So. 2d 424 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2004) (noting that “[r]epeated disregard of court orders and lack of candor by a party toward the Court justifies findings of either civil contempt or indirect criminal contempt). Whether the conduct is sought to be addressed by civil or criminal means depends upon the Court’s purpose in holding the contemnor in contempt – to punish for past conduct (criminal) or to secure future compliance (civil). See Berlow v. Berlow, 21 So. 3d 81, 84 (Fla. 3d DCA 2009); Perez v. Perez, 599 So. 2d 682, 683 (Fla. 3d DCA 1992).

¹⁰ Contempt is categorized as direct and indirect, civil and criminal. Criminal contempt, direct or indirect, “is conduct directed against the authority and dignity of the court or the judge in his judicial capacity.” Trawick, Fla. Prac. and Proc., §27-6. Acts categorized as “direct criminal contempt” are committed “in the presence of the court or so near it as to interrupt or hinder judicial proceedings,” whereas acts classified as “indirect criminal contempt” are those that “tend[] to obstruct, interrupt, hinder or embarrass the administration of justice, but which [are] committed at a distance.” Id. Civil contempt is “the failure to do something ordered by the court for the benefit of a party in a civil action.” Id.

(a) Civil Contempt

Civil contempt sanctions, or those penalties designed to compel future compliance with a court order, are considered to be coercive and avoidable through obedience, and thus may be imposed in an ordinary civil proceeding upon notice and an opportunity to be heard. See Nical of Palm Beach, Inc. v. Lewis, 981 So. 2d 502 (Fla. 4th DCA 2008). In civil contempt proceedings, willfulness is immaterial and not a necessary element. Dep’t of Transportation v. Burnette, 399 So. 2d 51, 52 (Fla. 1st DCA 1981); see also 17 Am. Jur. 2d Contempt § 27 (in a civil contempt action, “contempt does not require that disobedience be deliberate or willful, and a mere act of disobedience, regardless of motive, is sufficient.”). The standard of proof for civil contempt is a preponderance of the evidence. Dep’t of Children & Families v. R.H., 819 So. 2d 858, 861 (Fla. 5th DCA 2002).

There is a wide array of sanctions that may be imposed for civil contempt including incarceration and imposition of a fine, and courts are free to come up with creative solutions to coerce compliance with court orders. See Parisi v. Broward County, 769 So. 2d 359, 365 (Fla. 2000) (“... there is a broad arsenal of coercive civil contempt sanctions available to the trial court including “incarceration, garnishment of wages, additional employment, the filing of reports, additional fines, the delivery of certain assets, the revocation of a driver's license...”); Bowen v. Bowen, 471 So. 2d. 1274, 1279 (Fla. 1985). Regardless of the sanction, ‘the key safeguard in a civil contempt proceeding is a finding by the trial court that the contemnor has the ability to purge the contempt.” Dep’t of Children and Families, 819 So. 2d 858 (Fla. 4th DCA 2002) (citing Parisi v. Broward County, 769 So. 2d 359, 365 (Fla. 2000)).

(b) Criminal Contempt

The purpose of criminal contempt is to vindicate the authority of the court, to punish an intentional violation of an order of the court that is offensive to the public, and to deter such conduct. Parisi v. Broward County, 769 So. 2d 359 (Fla. 2000); The Florida Bar v. Forrester, 916 So. 2d 647 (Fla. 2005); Levine v. Keaster, 862 So. 2d 876 (Fla. 4th DCA 2003); Levey v. D’Angelo, 819 So. 2d 864 (Fla. 4th DCA 2002); Bowen v. Bowen, 471 So. 2d 1274 (Fla. 1985). Because the purpose of criminal contempt is to punish rather than coerce, those subject to criminal contempt have the right to the same constitutional due process afforded criminal defendants. Bowen v. Bowen, 471 So. 2d 1274, 1277 (Fla. 1985).

In order for a court to impose a punishment for failing to comply with its orders (indirect criminal contempt):

it must comply with Rule 3.840, Florida Rules of Criminal Procedure, including (1) the issuance of an order to show cause to be served upon the defendants stating the facts upon which each defendant must answer; (2) the appointment of counsel if the defendant is indigent; (3) the opportunity for the defendant to elect a jury trial, if the sentence the trial court seeks to impose is greater than six months; and (4) upon a finding of guilt, to afford the defendant with an opportunity to show good cause why the sentence should not be imposed and to offer evidence of mitigation.

See Jones v. Ryan, 967 So. 2d 342, 344-45 (Fla. 3d DCA 2007).¹¹

¹¹ Alternatively, “[a] criminal contempt may be punished summarily if the court saw or heard the conduct constituting the contempt committed in the actual presence of the court.” Fla. R. Crim. P. Rule 3.830 (direct criminal contempt). In these instances, “[t]he judgment of guilt of contempt shall include a recital of those facts on which the adjudication of guilt is based. Prior to the adjudication of guilt the judge shall inform the defendant of the accusation against the defendant and inquire as to whether the defendant has any cause to show why he or she should not be adjudged guilty of contempt by the court and sentenced therefor. The defendant shall be given

To establish criminal contempt, the “evidence must establish a willful act or omission calculated to embarrass or hinder the court or obstruct the administration of justice; there must be proof that the accused intended to hinder or obstruct the administration of justice.” Carter v. State, 954 So. 2d 1185 (Fla. 4th DCA 2007). The requisite intent for indirect criminal contempt can be inferred from the actions of the contemnor, where it is foreseeable under the circumstances that the contemnor's conduct would prompt action disruptive of the court proceedings. Milian v. State, 764 So. 2d 860, 862 (Fla. 4th DCA 2000).

The standard of proof for criminal contempt is beyond a reasonable doubt. Dep't of Children & Families v. R.H., 819 So. 2d 858, 861 (Fla. 5th DCA 2002). The sanctions available for criminal contempt are significantly more limited than those that are available for civil contempt.

Criminal contempts may be punished by a fine of not more than $500, or by imprisonment of not more than twelve months. These are the limits because there is no statute defining the maximum punishments for contempt and, when there exists no provision for the punishment of a criminal offense, section 775.02 applies, and “the court shall proceed to punish such offense by fine or imprisonment, but the fine shall not exceed $500, nor the imprisonment twelve months.” The trial court may not, however, award attorney's fees and costs to the party who prosecutes another for indirect criminal contempt in a civil case, because a judgment of guilt in criminal contempt should not inure to the benefit of a private individual.

(internal citations omitted).

(c) Sanctions Requested

If the Bernsteins are not removed from this case entirely and replaced by a guardian ad litem, Mr. Bernstein should either be incarcerated until he complies with the May 4, 2015 Order the opportunity to present evidence of excusing or mitigating circumstances. The judgment shall be signed by the judge and entered of record. Sentence shall be pronounced in open court.” Fla. R. Crim. P. Rule 3.830.

(as a sanction for civil contempt), or the Bernsteins' pleadings and Objection should be stricken in their entirety, with prejudice (as a penalty for criminal contempt).

IV. MOTION TO ESTABLISH SCHEDULE AND PROTOCOL TO WIND UP OPPENHEIMER'S TRUSTEESHIP

Regardless of how the Court rules on the above issues, Oppenheimer requests an Order establishing a reasonable schedule and protocol for concluding the accounting proceedings, permitting Oppenheimer to transfer possession of any remaining trust assets (after deducting ongoing administrative expenses), and discharging Oppenheimer.

V. CONCLUSION

For all of the foregoing reasons, Oppenheimer requests that a guardian ad litem be appointed to represent the Minor Beneficiaries in this matter or, alternatively, that the Bernsteins' pleadings and Objection be stricken or they are compelled to comply with the Court's May 4, 2015 Order. In any event, Oppenheimer requests an Order establishing a schedule and protocol for the accounting proceedings and turnover of trust assets, and such other relief as is just and proper.

Eliot and Candice Bernstein

2753 N.W. 34th St.
Boca Raton, FL 33434-3459

Re: Resignation as Trustee of Trusts for the benefit of Joshua, Jacob and Daniel
Bernstein; Offer to Resign as Manager of Bernstein Family Realty, LLC

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Bernstein:

I represent, and am writing to you on behalf of, Oppenheimer Trust Company of Delaware ("Oppenheimer"), in its capacity as Trustee of the three trusts created by Simon Bernstein for the benefit of your minor children, Joshua, Jacob and Daniel Bernstein (the "Trusts"). This letter is directed to you, as the parents and natural guardians of Joshua, Jacob and Daniel Bernstein (the "Beneficiaries"), and will constitute due notice to the Beneficiaries under the Trusts and Florida law.

Oppenheimer hereby notifies you that it will resign as Trustee of the Trusts effective May 26, 2014 (the "Effective Date"). You, as the natural guardians of the Beneficiaries, have the right and obligation to appoint a successor corporate trustee. If you do not provide Oppenheimer, through me, with a written document evidencing that a successor corporate trustee has been appointed and has accepted the appointment before the Effective Date, Oppenheimer will petition the Court to either appoint a successor trustee or terminate the Trusts and distribute their assets to you, as natural guardians of the Beneficiaries.

For your information, the Trusts provide, in relevant part, as follows:

Eliot and Candice Bernstein
April 22, 2014

5.2 Resignation. Any Trustee may resign by giving 30 days' written notice delivered personally or by mail to any then serving Co-Trustee and to the Settlor if he is then living and not disabled; otherwise to the next named successor Trustee, or if none, to the persons having power to appoint successor Trustees.

5.3 Power to Name Other Trustees. Whenever a successor Trustee is required and that position is not filled under the terms specified in this Trust Agreement, an individual Trustee ceasing to serve (other than a Trustee being removed) may appoint his or her successor, but if none is appointed, the remaining Trustees, if any, or the beneficiary shall appoint a successor Corporate Trustee. The appointment will be by a written document (including a testamentary instrument) delivered to the appointed Trustee. In no event may the Settlor ever be appointed as the Trustee under this Trust Agreement nor shall a Successor trustee be appointed that will cause this trust to be a grantor trust.

Similarly, Fla. Stat. § 736.0705, entitled "Resignation of trustee," provides, in relevant part, as follows:

(1) A trustee may resign:

(a) Upon at least 30 days' notice to the qualified beneficiaries, the settlor, if living, and all cotrustees...

Finally, Fla. Stat. § 736.0704, entitled "Vacancy in trusteeship; appointment of successor," provides, in relevant part, as follows:

(3) A vacancy in a trusteeship of a noncharitable trust that is required to be filled must be filled in the following order of priority:

(a) By a person named or designated pursuant to the terms of the trust to act as successor trustee.

(b) By a person appointed by unanimous agreement of the qualified beneficiaries.

(c) By a person appointed by the court.

Please let me know of your intentions with regard to the appointment of a successor trustee before the Effective Date.

I am also writing to you on behalf of Oppenheimer, in its capacity as the Manager of Bernstein Family Realty, LLC (the "Company"). As you know, the Trusts are the sole owners and members of the Company, and the Company owns the house occupied by you and the Beneficiaries. Oppenheimer understands that the house is encumbered by two mortgages which probably exceed the value of the house. A third party, William Stansbury, claims that he is entitled to an equitable lien on the house, and he has sued the Company to establish such a lien. At Oppenheimer's direction, the Company is defending the lawsuit in order to avoid the claimed third lien on the house.

You have expressed unhappiness with Oppenheimer's management of the Company. In light of Oppenheimer's decision to resign as Trustee, Oppenheimer would like to offer you the opportunity to assume management of the Company, or appoint another successor manager, so that you or your chosen manager can defend the Stansbury lawsuit, operate the Company and deal with third parties on behalf of the Company as you deem to be in the best interest of the Company's members and, ultimately, your children. If you would like Oppenheimer to resign as Manager, please notify me in writing, before the Effective Date, of your selection of an appropriate successor manager and the successor's agreement to serve. Upon receipt of your selection, Oppenheimer will resign as Manager and, on behalf of the member Trusts, appoint your chosen successor.

Please note that, if you do not request Oppenheimer's earlier resignation and designate a successor manager, it is Oppenheimer's intent to resign as Manager of the Company after a successor trustee is appointed or the Trusts are terminated. At that point, it will be up to the successor trustee or you, as natural guardians of the Beneficiaries, to appoint a new manager.

If you have any questions regarding the foregoing, please contact me or have your attorney do so.

Very truly yours,

Steven A. Lessne FOR

Attorney-Respondent

Commission No. 2013PR00001

Synopsis of Hearing Board Report and Recommendation
(November 2014)

The Administrator filed a one-count Complaint against Respondent, arising out of numerous statements she made on an internet blog attacking the integrity of judges and attorneys involved in a pending adult guardianship proceeding. The Complaint charged Respondent made those statements knowing they were false or with reckless disregard for their truth or falsity. Respondent denied misconduct.

The Hearing Board found the Administrator proved Respondent made false statements concerning the integrity of the judges, knowing they were false or with reckless disregard for their truth or falsity, and engaged in dishonest conduct and conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice. The Hearing Board found, while Respondent had accused judges and other attorneys of criminal conduct, there was not clear and convincing evidence that she presented or threatened to present criminal charges, in order to obtain an advantage in a civil matter. Based on In re Karavidas, 2013 IL 115767, the Hearing Board dismissed the charge Respondent engaged in conduct which tends to defeat the administration of justice or bring the courts or the legal profession into disrepute.

Given the seriousness of Respondent's misconduct, and aggravating factors including Respondent's conduct in the disciplinary proceedings, the Hearing Board recommended that Respondent be suspended for three years and until further order of the Court. The Hearing Board declined to recommend disbarment given the mitigating factors present.

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE HEARING BOARD

INTRODUCTION

The hearing in this matter was held on January 21, 2014, January 22, 2014, January 23, 2014, January 24, 2014, March 10, 2014 and March 11, 2014, at the Chicago offices of the Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission (ARDC), before a Panel of the Hearing Board consisting of Sang-yul Lee, Chair, Ziad Alnaqib and Eddie Sanders, Jr. Sharon D. Opryszek and Melissa A. Smart appeared on behalf of the Administrator. Respondent was present at the hearing and appeared pro se. On February 10, 2014, Nejla K.

PLEADINGS

Complaint

The Administrator filed a one-count Complaint against Respondent on January 8, 2013, which was served on Respondent on January 24, 2013, through the attorney representing her at that time. The Complaint charged Respondent with misconduct based on statements she made on a web log (blog) regarding judges, attorneys and other persons involved in an adult guardianship proceeding.

Answer

Respondent, through counsel, Kenneth Ditkowsky, filed an Answer on February 8, 2013. After Ditkowsky was disqualified from representing her, Respondent filed a pro se Answer on May 28, 2013. She also adopted prior counsel's Answer. Following motions by the Administrator to strike, Respondent filed a response which included a "Summary of Answer Information" (Summary). By Order dated August 5, 2013, prior counsel's Answer, Respondent's pro se Answer and the Summary were considered, collectively, as Respondent's Answer. In essence, Respondent admitted some of the factual allegations of the Complaint, denied other factual allegations and denied misconduct.

ALLEGED MISCONDUCT

The Administrator alleged Respondent committed the following misconduct:

1. making a statement the lawyer knows to be false or with reckless disregard as to its truth or falsity concerning the qualifications or integrity of a judge, adjudicatory officer or public legal officer, in violation of Rule 8.2 of the Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct (2010);
2. engaging in conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit or misrepresentation, in violation of Rule 8.4(c);
3. engaging in conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice, in violation of Rule 8.4 (d);
4. presenting, participating in presenting or threatening to present criminal charges to obtain an advantage in a civil matter, in violation of Rule 8.4(g); and
5. engaging in conduct which tends to defeat the administration of justice or to bring the courts or the legal profession into disrepute.

PREHEARING PROCEEDINGS

Numerous issues were raised, and resolved, during the prehearing stage of these proceedings. We leave the prehearing record to speak for itself and address those issues only as needed for purposes of our decision on the charges of misconduct and sanction recommendation.

THE EVIDENCE

The Administrator presented testimony from Jim Halberg, Peter Schmiedel, Cynthia Farenga, Judge Jane

Louise Stuart, Adam Stern, Ricky Krakow and Respondent. Administrator's Exhibits 1 through 49, and 51 through 53 were admitted into evidence. (Tr. 97-98, 119, 127-34, 457, 1113, 1174, 1844).

Respondent presented testimony from Gloria Jean Sykes, Beverly Cooper, Kenneth A. Cooper, Yolanda Bakken and Kathleen Bakken. Respondent also testified on her own behalf. Testimony from Scott Craig Evans was barred. Respondent's Exhibits A through J, pages 3 and 4 of K and Q were admitted into evidence. (Tr. 135, 141, 1848, 1854).

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Administrator must prove the misconduct charged in the Complaint, by clear and convincing evidence. In re Winthrop, 219 Ill. 2d 526, 542, 848 N.E.2d 961 (2006). Clear and convincing evidence is a degree of proof which, considering all the evidence, produces a firm and abiding belief it is highly probable that the proposition at issue is true. Cleary & Graham's Handbook of Illinois Evidence, sec. 301.6 (9th ed. 2009). Clear and convincing evidence is not as stringent as the criminal standard of proof beyond a reasonable doubt, but requires more than the usual civil standard of a preponderance of the evidence. Bazydlo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213, 647 N.E.2d 273 (1995); People v. Williams, 143 Ill. 2d 477, 484, 577 N.E.2d 762 (1990).

Extensive evidence was presented, which included substantial text from the blog which is the subject of these proceedings. We reviewed the evidence as a whole, even though this report discusses only that evidence we considered most relevant to the issues presented.

Background Facts

The statements at issue concern an adult guardianship proceeding and persons involved in that proceeding. Mary G. Sykes (Mary) was the subject of the proceeding, in the Probate Division of the Circuit Court of Cook County. (Adm. Ex. 1 at 1).

In July 2009, one of Mary's daughters, Carolyn Toerpe, filed a petition seeking to be appointed guardian of Mary's person and estate. Attorney Harvey Waller then represented Toerpe. In this petition, Toerpe alleged Mary, age 90, was disabled due to dementia and memory loss. (Adm. Ex. 1 at 1). Multiple doctors had diagnosed Mary with dementia and considered her incapable of making her own personal and financial decisions. (Tr. 586, 859).

Shortly after Toerpe's petition was filed, the court appointed attorney Cynthia Farenga to act as guardian ad litem (GAL) for Mary. On August 26, 2009, the court appointed attorney Adam Stern special GAL. (Adm. Ex. 1 at 2, 3). Both Stern and Farenga acted as GALs for Mary thereafter. (Tr. 797-98, 1022). The role of the GAL is to provide information to the court, assist the court in making a proper decision in the case, and represent the alleged disabled person's best interests. While the GAL does not advocate for the alleged disabled person's wishes, the GAL does inform the court of the person's wishes in relation to the guardianship. (Tr. 582, 795-96, 955). Farenga testified Mary never told her Mary wanted a lawyer. (Tr. 882).

There was significant controversy among Mary's relatives, which played out in the probate proceedings and other litigation. Mary's other daughter, Gloria Sykes (Gloria), filed counter-petitions which, while alleging Mary was disabled due to dementia, sought to have someone other than Toerpe appointed guardian. Numerous issues were raised in the probate proceedings. The court's jurisdiction was challenged, multiple times, based on the sufficiency of the notice given to Mary and her sisters of the guardianship proceedings. Those challenges were unsuccessful, despite multiple appeals by Gloria. Gloria attended court on multiple occasions, as did other relatives. (Tr. 403-405, 584, 602-606, 737, 815; Adm. Ex. 1 at 3, 4, 5). Disagreements over visitation with Mary began shortly after the probate case was filed. From the perspective of some relatives, Toerpe was isolating Mary against her will and improperly obstructing efforts to visit with Mary. (Tr. 1187-90, 1249, 1306-1307, 1411-12, 1415-16).

In December 2009, the probate court found Mary incompetent and appointed Toerpe her guardian. Before this order was entered, the court heard evidence as to the respective plans of Toerpe and Gloria for Mary's care and gave relatives, including Gloria, the opportunity to question Toerpe about her care plan. (Tr. 258-59, 735, 872, 1025, 1426; Adm. Ex. 1 at 8).

After the guardianship order was entered, disputes continued. Attorney Peter Schmiedel began representing Toerpe. Many of the disputes concerned emotionally charged issues. There were ongoing disagreements about the nature and quality of care Mary was receiving. Accusations were made that Toerpe and her husband abused and neglected Mary. Visitation remained an ongoing, contentious issue. Two incidents exemplify the situation. Mary's 84-year-old sister, Yolanda Bakken (Yolanda), described going to Toerpe's home to visit Mary and being shoved by Toerpe and Toerpe's husband. (Tr. 581, 747, 860, 1187-90, 1301, 1313-14, 1318-19, 1353-54, 1411-13, 1416-18). In a separate incident in June 2013, Naperville police were called, by Toerpe or at her request, when Gloria and other persons, including Respondent, went to the assisted living facility where Mary was residing. (Tr. 461, 464, 1073-1077).

As noted above, the family was involved in other litigation. That litigation included actions to partition a joint tenancy between Mary and Gloria as to one house and to evict Gloria from another house, owned by a trust of which Toerpe was trustee. (Tr. 595-96, 1603-1604; Adm. Ex. 39 at 8). In addition, in June 2009, Mary had accused Toerpe of financially exploiting her and filed a petition for an order of protection. Some of Mary's relatives believed Toerpe's petition for guardianship was filed in response to the petition for order of protection. (Tr. 490-91, 1337).

There was also controversy concerning another lawsuit (the Lumbermen's case). The Lumbermen's case involved the house Mary and Gloria owned in joint tenancy (the brown house). Gloria, who had been living in the brown house, alleged she contracted cancer due to conditions in the home. The brown house had been seriously damaged by mold. The trust owned Mary's home (the white house). In August 2002, Gloria had moved into the white house and was living there with Mary. Gloria described a very close relationship between herself and Mary. (Tr. 482-86, 589-90, 595).

The Lumbermen's case settled in October 2008, for approximately $1.3 million. Of that amount, approximately $700,000 was to be paid to Mary and Gloria. In October 2008, Mary executed a document (the Apportionment Agreement), which purportedly relinquished her interests in the Lumbermen's settlement to Gloria. Respondent notarized Mary's signature on the Apportionment Agreement. (Tr. 264, 280-83, 587, 591-92). Conflicting evidence was presented as to whether or not Respondent had any further involvement in the Lumbermen's case or with the Apportionment Agreement. (Tr. 264-65, 800).

In the probate proceedings, issues were raised as to Mary's mental capacity to execute the Apportionment Agreement and what, if any, portion of the Lumbermen's settlement proceeds might belong to Mary. In November 2009, the probate court entered an order freezing assets in an account held by Gloria, until these issues could be resolved. Additional issues were raised as to the manner in which Gloria had handled settlement proceeds, her compliance with court orders and whether Gloria owed Mary any additional sums for the mortgage. These matters became the subject of significant controversy. In 2013, after a contested evidentiary hearing, the probate court found Mary lacked the mental capacity to execute the Apportionment Agreement and set that agreement aside. However, the court still had to determine how much of the proceeds belonged to Mary. (Tr. 587-96, 680-83, 800-802, 810-13, 818).

Respondent had attempted to file her appearance for Gloria in the probate case, in November 2009. (Tr. 255). Prior counsel had withdrawn. (Tr. 1684; Adm. Ex. 1 at 5). The GALs objected, on the grounds Respondent might be called as a witness, particularly as to Mary's mental capacity to execute the Apportionment Agreement. On December 7, 2009, the probate court issued an order disqualifying Respondent. (Tr. 261, 799-803, 1023-25; Adm. Ex. 1 at 7-8).

Respondent is not charged with any misconduct in relation to notarizing the Apportionment Agreement. We draw no negative inference from the fact that she did so.

We also express no opinion on the merits of the positions of differing factions in the Sykes family. Those issues are well beyond the scope of this proceeding. The case before us involves Respondent's conduct, not the propriety of decisions reached in any other proceedings.

I. Respondent is charged with making a statement she knew was false or with reckless disregard for its truth or falsity concerning the qualifications or integrity of a judge, adjudicatory officer or public legal officer in violation of Rule 8.2 of the Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct (2010) and engaging in conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit or misrepresentation, in violation of Rule 8.4(c) of the Rules.

A. Evidence Considered

Beginning in November 2011, Respondent wrote and administered an Internet blog about the Sykes case. The blog consists of a series of writings, by various persons, including Respondent. Respondent made numerous blog posts over time. Some of those writings concern probate court and the probate system in general. Other writings relate specifically to the Sykes case and persons involved in it. The blog alleges corruption, in probate court in general and the

Sykes case in particular. For a time, there were two blogs, one of which described itself as "(a)n attorney blog concerning corruption and greed in the Probate Court of Cook County," because Respondent used hosting sites which offered different features. (Tr. 318-19, 606-610, 820-21, 1026-28, 1647; Adm. Exs. 17-32, 34-49). For simplicity, we designate them as the blog.

Respondent testified she produced the blog as a private person not as an attorney. (Tr. 384). Respondent also testified her knowledge and skill as an attorney was required to post and author the statements on the blog. (Tr. 410). On the blog, Respondent stated she published the blog primarily from a legal standpoint and it took an attorney to make the comments appearing on the blog. (Tr. 411-12). When Respondent began keeping track of time she spent on the blog, she calculated its value using her hourly rate as an attorney. (Tr. 410; Adm. Ex. 17 at 20). As admitted in Respondent's Summary, the blog was open to the public. Respondent estimated, by the time of the hearing, her blog had an audience of about 40,000. (Tr. 318).

The blog includes allegations of wrongdoing by specific individuals involved in the Sykes case. (Tr. 608-610, 821, 1026-28). These allegations are summarized in a "Table of Torts." While those persons are referenced by initials, the Table identifies the persons to whom the initials refer. Respondent prepared the Table of Torts. Because Respondent periodically added material to the Table of Torts, more than one version is in evidence. Respondent acknowledged the exhibits fairly represent snapshots of the Table of Torts. (Tr. 288-91, 303, 1594-95, 1611-14; Adm. Exs. 33, 34).

On the blog, Respondent described the Table of Torts as "TEN PAGES of questionable behavior, corruption, misfeasance, malfeasance, perpetration of misdemeanors and felonies," occurring in the Sykes case, (Adm. Ex. 24 at 16), and as a "Summary of the Case! - 90%+ of the wrongful conduct all in one convenient place." (Adm. Ex. 21 at 10). We begin, therefore, with the Table of Torts, for the purpose of providing an overview of the blog and context for the statements with which Respondent is charged.

The Table of Torts lists various acts, which allegedly occurred beginning in 2009 and continuing into 2012. Those acts suggest: a guardian was appointed even though Mary did not want or need one, Toerpe was appointed and allowed to remain guardian even though she had stolen from Mary and did not take proper care of Mary, the GALs and probate court ignored these circumstances as well as objections from Mary's family, intimidation tactics were used and judges took action even though they knew they did not have authority. (Adm. Ex. 33). The following statements exemplify the content of the Table of Torts:

Probate court finds Mary G incompetent DESPITE numerous videos on internet showing a confident, clear thinking woman who knows she wants to live at home ? (and) be cared for by Gloria, her daughter who supported her for 11+ years. When Mary was in court, twice she tried to ask the judge to object and get an attorney. Judge Connors refused to let her say anything. (The GALs), who stand to benefit from declaring Mary incompetent, keep on saying that Mary does not object? (Id. at 3).

Dr. Rabin and Dr. Amdur sign off on medical reports?that Mary is incompetent, yet they know that she suffers from conditions that would affect cognitive ability testing?No CBC or BSL test is performed prior to cognitive testing?.No depositions or discovery is allowed by Gloria. The GAL's [sic] turn a deaf ear to this. (Id. at 4).

(Toerpe) removes money from Mary G's local bank. Mary G?discovers this and has a fit. Contacts attorney on her own, files Petition for Protective Order?.

(GALs and probate court are) made aware of theft of money but fail to investigate?.(GALs) know that (Toerpe) is the Respondent in a Petition for a Protective Order involving theft of assets from Mary G and do nothing about it. When it is mentioned to the (probate court) judge, ignores it?. (GALs) willfully, wantonly and recklessly aide [sic] and abet the filing and granting of (Toerpe's petition for plenary guardianship). (Id. at 1).

(Toerpe) keeps Mary in near isolation? (Id. at 2). ? Mary stays at (Toerpe's) and contracts an infection but is not provided medical care. She loses 10% of her body weight and cannot swallow?.Mary G was also severely dehydrated and near hospitalization. This is reported to the court, the GAL's [sic] and they ignore the abuse/neglect. (Id. at 9).

Family members complain bitterly about missing gold coins and cash missing?.(This is reported to GALs) and no investigation is made?The GAL's [sic] turn a blind eye. (Id. at 2).

The (probate court) denies (Gloria's) repeated requests for discovery? (and) ? strikes all of Gloria's Pro Se pleadings? (Id. at 2)?.

Documents are filed with the court which are not read. (Id. at 7).

(GALs) obtain a court order to freeze Gloria's funds? ALL her accounts are frozen- not just the ones in the order, leaving her penniless on a Friday afternoon. (GALs and Waller) are immediately contacted, but do nothing. (Id. at 3).

(Toerpe) shuts off Gloria's gas in her home ? (Schmiedel and) ?Chase, the mortgage holder on Gloria's property? 'secure' the property-by bashing out interior walls, disconnecting security cameras, throwing rooms full of furniture into the snow? (GALs) stand by, watch the felonious behavior and do not file a Petition to Remove (Toerpe) ?. Clearly someone desperately wants Gloria gone and intimidation is one (albeit illegal) avenue. (Id. at 5).

(The GALs) file a bogus ARDC complaint against (Respondent)? (The probate court asked Respondent) ?you don't want to lose your law license, do you?" (Id. at 6).

At the time of the hearing on Dec. 10, 2009, neither (of Mary's sisters) received the proper Soldini [sic] notices advising them of their rights to object to the guardianship itself, object to appoint (Toerpe) as a guardian; remove the Guardian for improper behavior?(Id. at 4).

(In dealing with the Lumbermen's proceeds, despite alleged procedural irregularities), Judge Connors says she does not have to follow Illinois law of judgments and that she can set aside any order in any court at any time. Since the limitations period has run, the funds should be immediately unfrozen by the GAL's. The GAL's [sic] stand by and do nothing. (Id. at 6).

The Table of Torts also contains statements, which are among those set out in the Complaint to support the charges of misconduct. Those statements are as follows:

(The GALs, Toerpe, Waller and Schmiedel) stand to benefit handsomely by declaring Mary incompetent, evicting Gloria, selling her home - all against her wishes. The court does not stop this greed and evil?.

In scary shades of Greylord revisited, (Respondent) notices that (the GALs) are walking the hallways in the judges' private areas BEHIND the court room ?unescorted trips to the judges' private area is a sure fire indicator of corruption?

PAGE 11:

Additional torts. It should be noted that because the Probate case involving Mary is without subject matter jurisdiction, the court and the GAL's actions were ultra vires or without any authority. Hence, Judge Stuart's chaining of Gloria to tell all about her bank accounts was false imprisonment. Further, (the GALs and Toerpe) sent numerous pleadings by USPS and via the internet, and those would constitute mail fraud, wire fraud (comcast [sic] is a wired service) and cyber fraud. Thanks to (Ditkowsky) for pointing this out.

Operation Greylord was a federal investigation of widespread corruption in the Cook County court system. As a result of Operation Greylord, numerous attorneys and judges were charged with, and convicted of, federal crimes. The crimes typically involved attorneys bribing judges to whom their cases were assigned, to obtain a favorable result. (Tr. 641, 775, 1607).

The Complaint identifies ten specific blog posts, made between April 19, 2012 and August 21, 2012, to support the allegations of misconduct. Respondent admitted the Complaint accurately stated these blog posts. (Tr. 333-34).² Posts on the blog from some of those dates include submissions attributed to persons other than Respondent. However, as to all of the specific language charged in the Complaint, either Respondent admitted authoring the language (Tr. 341, 853, 867-68, 1541, 1553, 1570-71, 1573-74, 1594, 1620) or way the language appears on the blog, e.g. above Respondent's name, indicates she did so. (Adm. Ex. 22 at 4-5, 11; Adm. Ex. 23 at 7; Adm. Ex. 24 at 2; Adm. Ex. 25 at 1-2; Adm. Ex. 26 at 18-19). The posts specifically identified in the Complaint are set out below.

The first post is from an entry on April 19, 2012, which suggests Mary had a large estate but "has been fleeced of her home, about a million in gold coins?as well as other property the family can and would verify if given a chance." (Adm. Ex. 22 at 5). The language at issue appears in the context of statements that Respondent and Ditkowsky have been working on the blog, in an effort to inform others of the situation involving Mary. The charged language reads:

those attorneys who will churn fees at hundreds of dollars per hour-want us silenced. They apparently have a lot of clout in Probate and even with the ARDC?

And I would like to note (JMD) that if you follow the money trail, it leads directly to the Plenary Guardian, the GAL's [sic] Adam Stern and Cynthia Farenga, and the Guardian's attorney's [sic] Harvey Waller and Peter Schmeidel/Dorothy Soehlig!

(Adm. Ex. 22 at 4-5) (Apr. 19 post).

Schmiedel has a colleague named Deborah Soehlig. (Tr. 616). Respondent's initials are JMD.

The second post is an entry on April 25, 2012. After referencing a separate case which, allegedly, included circumstances like those in the Sykes case, the charged language stated: "(a)s in the Sykes case, currently the GAL is adding other attorneys to the case to outlawyer the daughter and churn the feeding frenzy [sic] - all with court connected lawyers." (Adm. Ex. 22 at 8-9; Adm. Ex. 39 at 10-11) (Apr. 25 post).

The third post (the Black post) is dated April 28, 2012. This entry purports to be from a facsimile transmission to Lea Black, the attorney who initially represented the Administrator in these proceedings. (Tr. 347-48; Adm. Ex. 22 at 11). In the Black post, Respondent referred to the Sykes case and stated there was a clear pattern "to exclude, snub, snob and ignore any pleading that Gloria filed," while granting, "anything offered either orally or by mere hint of suggestion by the tortfeasors," Stern, Farenga and Schmiedel, "without findings, no hearing, no discussion, and often without any written Motion or Notice of Motion." (Tr. 352; Adm. Ex. 22 at 11). The Black post continued with the following language:

Isn't this the classic case of corruption?...

The judge in the Probate Court declared in August of 2011 she did not have to follow court rules or Illinois Statutes pertaining to Civil Procedure in Court-she was exempt. Then she grants this privilege to the court officer miscreants-and now it is clear for the world to see this is a continuing pattern, ala Dorothy Brown who has finally provided some meager form of computerization to the Circuit Courts.

Why aren't the Circuit Courts of Cook County computerized when the federal courts have been computerized since 200? 1) a thousand incompetent and computer illiterate patronage workers would have to be fired in a single day ? and 2) politically connected judges and their puppet attorneys (the GAL's [sic]) would be exposed for what they are: money grubbing, family strife churning leeches that create nothing but pain and misery in a family while swiping free parking money out of a well funded estate.

(Adm. Ex. 22 at 11).

The fourth post is dated May 24, 2012. To put the charged language in context, the blog post from that date began with the heading, authored by Respondent: "(f)rom Ken Ditkowsky - Reasons for a number of agencies to get involved and investigate." (Tr. 1573; Adm. Ex. 23 at 7). Text followed, apparently authored by Ditkowsky, which complained of the manner in which Mary was found incompetent, called for an investigation and stated the determination Mary was incompetent was "a foregone conclusion orchestrated by an agreement" between the GALs and the guardian's attorney. (Adm. Ex. 23 at 7). This theme continued in text posted by Respondent, which included comments that honest attorneys, "the ones not making a profit from corruption," who report their suspicions of theft by "the court and the authorities," become the subject of groundless complaints, while "the miscreants dance away with impunity." (Adm. Ex. 23 at 7). The language charged in the Complaint was part of the text Respondent posted regarding the Sykes case. That language stated: "(a)gain, the entire case was railroaded, the file was peppered with packs of lies, and these lies were rubber stamped by (the GALs) and the Probate Court in a 'done deal.' Scary." (Adm. Ex. 23 at 7) (May 24 post).

The fifth post, from June 1, 2012, asserted a transcript, to which the blog provided a link, shows Judge Stuart side stepping the major issues in the case. (Adm. Ex. 24 at 1). The language at issue appeared in one of three postscripts, following Respondent's name at the conclusion of the post. That language read:

?from this transcript, it is clear the judge is talking to the miscreant attys in the hallway, Scott and Gloria always see them coming from behind the judge's private areas, and it is clear that the court is being spoonfed BS law by atty miscreants rather than having to actually read cases and make decisions based upon briefing schedules.

(Adm. Ex. 24 at 2) (June 1 post).

The sixth post, from July 7, 2012, consisted of a letter from Respondent to Kevin Connelly at the Office of the Sheriff, Circuit Court of Cook County. In this letter Respondent suggested corruption in the Sykes case for multiple reasons, including lack of jurisdiction, the court and GALs acting without authority and documents missing from the court file. Respondent also suggested corruption was the reason she was not permitted to use a laptop in probate court, particularly in relation to the Sykes case. The letter stated "(a)ny day now this will blow and it may well create a scandal more far reaching than Greylord." (Adm. Ex. 25 at 2). Respondent's letter included the statements at issue, i.e.:

I am an attorney running a blog on <http://www.marygsykes.com/>, which appears to be a very corrupt case, with corruption reaching to the highest levels, including the ARDC?.

So, just let me know if you are on the side of cleaning up the courts or if you are a SOP patronage worker that fears every day to be thrown under the bus for whistleblowing. You get a choice today. I think Judge Evans made his choice. Too bad it's now permanently on the internet tagged under "corruption."

(Adm. Ex. 25 at 1-2) (Connelly post).

The seventh post was language from the Table of Torts. The language charged is the language contained in the Table of Torts post, set out above.

The eighth item charged involved a document posted on the blog which purported to be a motion by Farenga to dismiss the Sykes probate case for lack of jurisdiction (motion to dismiss post). The motion listed Farenga as the preparer. This post included a notice, suggesting Farenga intended to present the motion to the court. (Adm. Ex. 26 at 15-17). Farenga did not prepare these documents, which were contrary to her position in the Sykes case, or authorize their preparation. Respondent prepared these documents. (Tr. 850-54. 867-68).

The ninth post charged consisted of a facsimile transmission of correspondence from Respondent to Diane Saltoun, at the office of the Illinois Attorney General. The blog stated Respondent's fax to Saltoun was accompanied by her "famous" Table of Torts. (Adm. Ex. 25 at 12). In her correspondence, Respondent stated:

(w)hile the above case has a long, long history, much of which is documented on a blog to be found at www.marygsykes.com, the reality of the situation is that this probate proceeding boils down to garden variety theft, embezzlement, malpractice and malfeasance by attorneys and the court?

Please look at the attached and all the information I will fax you shortly. This is a case that could be bigger than Greylord-what is being done to deprive grandma and grandpa of their civil rights and how the Probate court (routinely) operates.

(Adm. Ex. 25 at 12-13) (Saltoun post).

The tenth post was an entry from August 21, 2012, entitled "(a)ltered court orders, fabricating attorneys, the sage continues." After referring to orders in the probate case, with links to two of those orders, the language charged appeared. That language read:

(n)othing like the time honored true fashion of if you don't like what the order said when the parties agreed, just get the judge behind closed doors and get her to alter it. And do it messily and have two 'entered' stamps on it.

Even a grammar school child can forge a parental note with more skill and care than the minimal amount which was taken in this matter to cover up the tracks of their torts by these bumbling miscreants!

(Adm. Ex. 26 at 18-19) (Aug. 21, 2012 post).

Respondent's blog contained a disclaimer. The disclaimer identified the authors as "lawyers trying to make a difference to make things better for grandma and grandpa." (Adm.

Ex. 17 at 2). Respondent relied on the disclaimer, which, from her perspective, made it clear the blog was not a full or accurate record of the proceedings, but a place where commentary, facts and opinions were stated. (Tr. 303, 1531-32). The disclaimer suggested statements on the blog were statements of opinion and directed the reader where to go for "accurate details." (Adm. Ex. 17 at 2-3). The disclaimer also stated:

Sorry, but portions of this blog have to be entertaining so we can get the word out?. There is most certainly a great deal of (stinging) truth in it, esp. for the GAL's [sic], the probate court and a society that ignores (thereby condoning) the sleazy world of probate, and in particular the 18th floor of the Daley Center in Chicago, but everyone needs to understand, these are not pleadings, there is no Motion, Response and Reply set by any court, together with extended legal argument recorded by a court reporter and subject to a Motion to Reconsider if errors or new evidence is found. So don't take it that way. Like a good reporter, do your own due diligence and check with the sources first.

(Adm. Ex. 17 at 3).

The blog also suggested statements on it were truthful. Specifically, the blog stated, as its mottos, "(s)unlight is the best disinfectant" and "if the truth can destroy something, then it deserves to be destroyed." (Adm. Ex. 17 at 1).

Farenga is an attorney, licensed to practice law in Illinois in 1979. Stern is an attorney, licensed to practice law in Illinois in 1994. Each is in private practice and very experienced in guardianship and probate matters. Neither Farenga nor Stern had encountered Respondent prior to the Sykes case. (Tr. 794-800, 1019-1024).

Schmiedel is an attorney, licensed to practice law in Illinois in 1974. Schmiedel has extensive experience in guardianship and probate matters. Schmiedel became involved in the Sykes probate case in early 2010, as attorney for Toerpe. (Tr. 579-81, 587).

Cook County Circuit Judge Jane Louise Stuart was elected as a judge in 1996. She described extensive experience. Judge Stuart has presided over the Sykes probate case since late 2010. By that time, Mary had already been found disabled. (Tr. 942-45).

Normally, only one GAL is appointed in a case. Farenga and Stern testified a second GAL was appointed for Mary because, early in the proceedings, there was a court date which Farenga could not attend. Both remained on at the request of the judge because it appeared, early on, the case would be very time-consuming. (Tr. 798-99, 946-48, 1022; Adm. Ex. 1 at 3).

Mary's estate was not large, and funds were needed for Mary's care. (Tr. 629, 816-17, 838). The trust, which had owned the white house, contained some money, since the house had been sold. The trust was an entity separate from the probate estate. (Tr. 619-20). The probate estate's anticipated annual receipts were $13,000. Early in the probate proceedings, Toerpe and Gloria each suggested Mary had limited means and did not own substantial personal property. (Tr. 807-808, 872; Adm. Ex. 1 at 1, 5, 6). Judge Stuart, Farenga and Stern testified, to the best of their knowledge, the only assets in Mary's estate consisted of her claim to a portion of the Lumbermen's proceeds and her interest in the brown house. While $150,000 to 200,000 remained from the Lumbermen's settlement, the court had not determined what, if any, of that amount belonged to Mary. Mary's net equity in the brown house was not significant, as that property was jointly owned, subject to a mortgage and heavily damaged by mold. (Tr. 588, 593, 818-19, 952-53, 960-61, 1034).

None of the petitions for guardianship mentioned gold coins. (Tr. 869-70; Adm. Ex. 1 at 1, 5, 6). Farenga testified Ditkowsky, not Gloria, first raised the issue of gold coins and the amount changed continuously. (Tr. 870-72). Judge Stuart testified the issue was addressed in court multiple times. According to testimony from Farenga, Stern and Judge Stuart, even though they inquired, they were never presented with specific information or any real evidence showing Mary's estate included gold coins. (Tr. 884, 957-59, 971-74, 1049-1050). Schmiedel testified no such coins existed. (Tr. 642).

Farenga and Stern each had spent hundreds of hours on Mary's matter, for which they had not been compensated. They did not expect to ever be paid in full, since Mary's estate was of limited value and any funds would be needed for Mary's own future care. Each testified they had not received any money from the estate. The only money either of them had received was approximately $16,000, which was far less than the value of the time they had spent. While that payment was not court approved, it was paid by the trust, not the estate, so court approval was not required. (Tr. 815-20, 1029-31). Farenga and Stern had not filed fee petitions. Judge Stuart likewise testified no money had been paid to the GALs from the estate. (Tr. 959-60).³ Judge Stuart testified, other than the salary she received as a judge, she had not received any benefit from the Sykes case. (Tr. 961-62).

Schmiedel estimated his firm had provided legal services worth $200,000 in the probate case and related cases. Schmiedel testified the only money he received in the Sykes matter was court-approved fees of $12,500 from Mary's estate and modest additional fees from the trust, which paid Schmiedel for work relating to the sale of the white house. (Tr. 619-20).

Farenga, Stern and Schmiedel were each asked about numerous specific blog posts and specific allegations of wrongdoing in relation to the Sykes case. In each instance, they testified the allegations were not true. Those allegations included churning fees, receiving improper payments, bribing judges, financially exploiting Mary, stealing from Mary's estate, ex parte communications with judges to fix the case and altering court orders. None had been in the area of the judges' chambers in relation to this case. Schmiedel's testimony indicated there were legitimate reasons for an attorney to be in the area of chambers; for example, one probate judge conducts mediations in chambers. (Tr. 610, 618-42, 646-50, 775-80, 821, 824-43, 846-50, 854-59, 1028-41).

Judge Stuart testified everything concerning the Sykes matter was handled in open court. Judge Stuart testified she ruled based on the evidence and was not part of any conspiracy to rule in a specific way. While she typically receives a draft order from an attorney involved in a case, Judge Stuart testified, if the draft did not conform to her ruling, she modified the draft before entering her order. Judge Stuart was asked about, and denied, specific allegations of wrongdoing, including bribery, ex parte communications, financial exploitation of Mary and having any personal interest in the Sykes case. (Tr. 959-71).

The blog's allegation that the probate judge stated she did not have to follow procedures involved the fact that the probate court addressed issues concerning the Lumbermen's proceeds after the normal deadline for challenging a final judgment. However, the issues presented to the probate court concerned Mary's capacity to sign the Apportionment Agreement, i.e., the validity of the contract between Mary and Gloria, not the Lumbermen's judgment. (Tr. 588, 680-83, 800-802, 948-49, 1567-68).

In relation to the allegations of coercion against Gloria, the probate court had entered an order freezing the remaining proceeds from the Lumbermen's settlement, until ownership of the funds could be determined. According to Judge Stuart's testimony, when it appeared the funds had been disbursed, Gloria was questioned several times, but claimed not to know the whereabouts of the money. Judge Stuart testified she had her deputies take Gloria to a quiet place, to contemplate whether or not to inform the court where the funds had been deposited. Judge Stuart testified Gloria returned with information three or four minutes later. (Tr. 950-53). Judge Stuart testified she did not direct her deputies to handcuff Gloria and, at the time, was not aware that had occurred. (Tr. 1008-1009). Farenga testified she was not involved in any allegedly overbroad implementation of the order freezing Gloria's account. (Tr. 891-92, 896-

97). Schmiedel denied being involved in termination of gas service to Gloria, damage to her home or removal of her furniture. (Tr. 752-55).

Respondent testified she made statements on the blog based on her knowledge of the case and discussions with others. Respondent had attended court proceedings in the probate case and reviewed pleadings and transcripts. She had spoken with family members, including Gloria and Mary's niece, Kathleen Bakken (Kathleen), as well as Gloria's former attorney. Gloria's former attorney had stated he thought the Sykes case was being railroaded and told Respondent, when he asked for discovery, the judge asked why he would want it. Given those discussions, Respondent considered the procedures in the Sykes case highly unusual and the case very corrupt. (Tr. 285, 1349-50, 1571-72, 1582-83, 1588-89, 1600, 1684, 1687-89). Respondent testified she had also received numerous complaints from people dissatisfied with the probate system in general. (Tr. 1531). Respondent testified, when she made the blog posts, she believed her statements were accurate. Respondent testified she never put an entry on her blog which she knew was not true or with reckless disregard for its truth or falsity. (Tr. 300-304, 361-62, 1672, 1675).

Respondent testified, when she was in court, she observed the judge rolling her eyes, cutting Gloria off and telling Gloria to be quiet. Respondent stated a number of orders were entered without a briefing schedule or after pleadings from Gloria had been stricken. Respondent described one occasion, on which she based the claim the GALs and Schmiedel fabricated orders, in which a draft order was prepared, which Respondent and Gloria saw, but the order entered did not match the draft. The alteration involved the inclusion of language stating a motion relating to jurisdiction was being denied, because it had been presented many times in the past. Respondent testified, on one occasion when she was present, she observed the attorneys going into the area of the judges' chambers. (Tr. 1554, 1574-79, 1628-31). Respondent testified many pleadings were missing when she reviewed the court file. (Tr. 1569-70).

Respondent testified she thought she had sufficient information to believe there were improper activities, like those in Greylord, based on her review of the court file. According to Respondent, attorneys had billed for many services, and those bills were approved by the court, but the services were not rendered. While no cash had changed hands, Respondent believed theft had occurred because cash and gold coins were missing. (Tr. 1699-1702).

Respondent testified, in stating certain persons stood to benefit from declaring Mary incompetent and evicting Gloria, she meant they would get substantial fees, which would be taken from sale of Mary's and Gloria's home. Respondent stated her reference to churning fees was based on the fact two GALs were appointed and her view the GALs spent a lot of time on matters inappropriately. It was unusual to have two GALs, although Respondent acknowledged Gloria's litigiousness had played a role in the court's decision to appoint two GALs. (Tr. 1539, 1596-97, 1602-1604). To the best of Respondent's knowledge, the GALs had not yet been paid through Mary's estate. (Tr. 346).

According to Respondent, some of her accusations flowed from the underlying theory that the court lacked jurisdiction and, as a result, none of its actions were legitimate. (Tr. 1616, 1621-28). Other allegations arose from Respondent's disagreement with specific actions by the court, such as the order freezing Gloria's accounts and the decision to address issues concerning the Lumbermen's settlement. (Tr. 1554-55, 1559, 1567-68).

In describing her efforts to verify her allegations, Respondent testified she reviewed the court file and spoke with as many people as possible. Respondent testified she had spoken with Kathleen and with Mary's sister, Yolanda Bakken (Yolanda) about allegations of missing cash and gold coins. Respondent had contacted a coin shop where she believed such coins might have been purchased; Respondent had not obtained any real information from the shop. (Tr. 1676-77, 1681-82). Respondent identified a number of additional steps she took to investigate. According to Respondent's testimony, some of those steps were still in progress, such as investigating the size of Farenga's mortgage, which Respondent considered to be disproportionately large. In other instances, Respondent had taken the actions only recently, such as having an investigator run background checks. Respondent stated she checked property records, particularly for judges, which Respondent described as raising some questionable issues. (Tr. 1722-28, 1731-46). In relation to the size of Farenga's mortgage and various property transfers in which Farenga's husband had been involved, Respondent testified she had not yet been able to conclude there had been any wrongdoing or criminal conduct. (Tr. 1738-39). Respondent also testified she had not found any suspect mortgage issues involving the judges in the Sykes matter. (Tr. 1740-41).

In relation to the Connelly post, Respondent considered it highly improper that she was not permitted to blog during the Sykes probate proceedings. (Tr. 1584-88). Respondent testified she wrote to Connelly to seek his assistance in letting her use her laptop, so she could blog and thereby, in her view, help clean up corruption. (Tr. 1590-92). In asserting corruption had reached the highest levels, including the ARDC, Respondent testified she meant numerous complaints had been filed with the ARDC but did not receive responses Respondent considered appropriate. (Tr. 1589). The Connelly post included a comment that Cook County Chief Judge Timothy Evans was permanently tagged under corruption. Respondent described an internet tag as an index feature which allows people to find a particular post or brings people to the blog who might be interested in its contents. She testified other blogs concerning probate used corruption as a tag. (Tr. 1592, 1813, 1820-22).

Gloria testified, beginning in 2009, she and Respondent had numerous discussions about corruption in the probate court of Cook County. Gloria testified she told Respondent, in the probate division, it appeared there was a cottage industry of attorneys, the court ignored applicable statutes and there was lawlessness and discrimination. (Tr. 517-18, 521, 524).⁴

Yolanda testified the probate judge ignored her and Gloria, the GALs and the court had not really listened to what was going on, and the GALs had not properly informed the court of the family's concerns about Mary. Yolanda testified, when she tried to inform the court of Toerpe's interference with her efforts to visit with Mary and an ensuing physical altercation, the judge did not permit her to do so and told her it did not matter. Yolanda acknowledged having hearing problems. Yolanda was suspicious, because she did not know where the proceeds from the sale of Mary's house had gone. Yolanda also believed Mary had quite a bit of gold coins. Yolanda provided conflicting testimony as to any discussions she may have had with Respondent about Mary's estate. Yolanda assumed someone had been paying the GALs. Yolanda did not have any information about any fees the GALs may have received or any proof the GALs had stolen from Mary's estate. (Tr. 1184, 1187-89, 1235-37, 1252-56, 1290-1307, 1325).

Kathleen had been at many court hearings and had spoken with Respondent many times about her concerns with Mary's matter. Kathleen testified multiple decisions had been made which differed from what she thought the decisions should have been. Those included the decision to appoint a guardian and the choice of Toerpe as guardian, over objections from other relatives. To Kathleen, it seemed like the guardianship was a "done deal." Kathleen testified no one had listened to Mary or dealt with issues as to the lack of proper service. From Kathleen's perspective, Gloria's position was ignored. She gave examples, including a refusal by Farenga to give the court a document, ostensibly written by Mary, because Farenga believed Gloria had dictated the document. That incident was part of the basis on which Respondent relied in alleging impropriety by the court and GALs. Kathleen testified, on some occasions when she was in court, the order entered did not match what Kathleen had heard. She also testified the GALs covered for Toerpe, did not follow up on matters reported to them, ignored "red flags" and did not fully inform the court of Mary's circumstances. Kathleen gave examples including, but not limited to, the altercation between Yolanda, Toerpe and Toerpe's husband, an incident in which Mary required emergency room treatment due to lack of proper care by Toerpe and alleged inaccuracies in Toerpe's inventory. Kathleen testified Toerpe did not permit other relatives to visit with Mary, even though the court ordered Toerpe to allow such visitation, and the GALs did not inform the court about visitation problems, even though Kathleen told Stern about those problems. (Tr. 1339, 1344-46, 1348-55, 1358-64, 1370-73, 1382-92, 1407-1418).

Kathleen testified it seemed someone was benefitting. (Tr. 1335). The number of people involved and hours billed seemed extreme to her. In Kathleen's view, some proceedings went on longer than they should have, while other things did not get the attention they deserved. She based her view that the judges and GALs had taken money from Mary's estate on the fact that Toerpe had been appointed guardian and given control over Mary's assets. Kathleen did not have evidence, knowledge or information the GALs were taking money or overcharging. Kathleen had not told Respondent she thought probate judges were fixing cases or taking money improperly or that the judges or GALs were engaged in any criminal activity. (Tr. 1350-52, 1355-62, 1407-1408).

B. Analysis and Conclusions

Respondent is charged with violating Rules 8.2 and 8.4(c) due to statements made on her blog. The specific statements on which the charges are based are set out above. Although we referred to some other statements, our findings of misconduct are based solely on those statements which were specifically charged in the Complaint. Given the testimony, and the manner in which the statements at issue appeared on the blog, we find Respondent authored all the statements which were specifically charged in the Complaint.

A lawyer shall not make a statement the lawyer knows is false or with reckless disregard as to its truth or falsity concerning the qualifications or integrity of a judge, adjudicatory officer or public legal officer. Ill. Rs. Prof'l Conduct R. 8.2(a). For the reasons stated below, we find the statements at issue impugned the integrity of the judges involved in the Sykes guardianship case, the statements were false and Respondent made the statements with reckless disregard for their truth or falsity. Therefore, the Administrator proved Respondent violated Rule 8.2 as to the statements involving the judges. It is professional misconduct for a lawyer to engage in conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit or misrepresentation. Ill. Rs. Prof'l Conduct R. 8.4(c). Having proved Respondent made statements which violated Rule 8.2(a), the Administrator also proved, by making these statements, Respondent engaged in conduct involving dishonesty, in violation of Rule 8.4(c). In re Ditkowsky, 2012PR00014, M.R. 26516 (Mar. 14, 2014). We also find, for the reasons stated below, Respondent's statements accused the GALs of serious misconduct, accusations which were false and which Respondent similarly made with reckless disregard for their truth or falsity. While the GALs are not within the scope of Rule 8.2, (Ditkowsky, 2012PR00014 (Hearing Bd. at 27)), this provides an additional basis for our finding the Administrator proved Respondent violated Rule 8.4(c).⁵

The statements on which the charges are based, particularly considered as a whole, clearly convey the message that corruption affected the Sykes case and its outcome, with the judges and GALs benefitting, to Mary's detriment. Specifically, the April 19 and April 25 posts accuse the attorneys of churning fees, having clout in probate and being "court-connected."

According to the April 19 post, "the money trail" leads directly to the GALs and the guardian's attorneys. The Black post suggests the result was pre-ordained, the product of corruption, a one-sided decision made by a court which did not consider itself bound by the rules. This theme continues in the May 24 post, according to which the case was railroaded and the decision was a "done deal," with the court and GALs rubber stamping lies placed before them. The June 1 post suggests ex parte communication with the court, resulting in improper, biased decision making. The August 21 post reiterates this theme, suggesting the attorneys got the judge "behind closed doors" and had her change court orders to better suit their position.

The term "corruption" appears repeatedly in the statements at issue. Corruption implies dishonest or illegal behavior, such as taking bribes. Webster's New World Dictionary and Thesaurus 140 (2d ed. 2002). This meaning is clear from Respondent's statements, particularly when the statements at issue are considered as a whole. Respondent's repeated references to Greylord in the charged statements remove any possible doubt as to the intended message. Operation Greylord was a wide-reaching federal investigation of judicial corruption in Chicago. Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899, 901, 117 S.Ct. 1793 (1997). As Respondent's testimony demonstrates she knew, Greylord uncovered extensive corruption in the local court system, including bribes being paid to multiple judges to obtain favorable results in pending cases. See Guest v. McCann, 474 F.3d 926, 929 (7th Cir. 2007). The statements at issue suggest the same thing was happening in the Sykes case. Respondent further alleges illegal behavior in the Saltoun post, in which Respondent explicitly states theft and embezzlement are occurring in the Sykes case.

The statements at issue, particularly considered as a whole, clearly impugn the integrity of the judges and attorneys in the Sykes probate case. Respondent's statements create an impression that Mary was found disabled without supporting evidence, by a rogue court acting without jurisdiction, which did not analyze the facts or apply the applicable law and made decisions to accommodate others based on favoritism and payoffs. Respondent's statements likewise suggest the GALs were not doing their jobs and not protecting Mary's well-being, even though they were told of circumstances which should have caused them to challenge the appointment of a guardian in general and the choice of Toerpe in particular, acting in this manner because they had been paid off and were receiving grossly excessive fees. Comments such as "follow the money trail," references to Greylord and allegations that substantial assets were missing from Mary's estate, clearly infer that money was taken from Mary's estate and used to pay off the GALs and the court. Respondent's statements imply the GALs were paid off to look the other way and do nothing, and the court was paid off to rubber-stamp the guardianship and appointment of Toerpe, regardless of the detriment to Mary.

Based on the evidence, we find such suggestions false. Judge Stuart, Farenga, Stern and Schmiedel all impressed us as credible witnesses. Given their testimony, we conclude no bribes were offered to or accepted by the judges or GALs and no improper benefits were received, by the judges or GALs. The testimony of these witnesses also convinced us there were no improper ex parte communications, improper altering of court orders or any other dishonest conduct in relation to the Sykes case. There was also no indication the judges or the GALs made decisions or adjusted their conduct based on dishonest or unethical factors.

The fact that some persons involved in the Sykes guardianship, for example, the judge who found Mary disabled, did not testify does not change our conclusion. Judges are presumed to be impartial, and allegations of deliberate corruption by a court are presumed false. In re Amu, 2011PR00106, M.R. 26545 (May 16, 2014).

The fact Respondent's statements were false does not conclude our inquiry. We must also consider whether Respondent made the statements knowing they were false or with reckless disregard for their truth or falsity.

This is the state of mind Rule 8.2(a) expressly requires. This is also the state of mind required for the charges of misconduct, under Rule 8.2 or 8.4(c), to pass constitutional muster. In re Zurek, 99 CH 45, M.R. 18164 (Sept. 19, 2002); In re Palmisano, 92 CH 109, M.R. 10116 (May 19, 1994).

Attorneys have certain First Amendment rights. Zurek, 99 CH 45 (Review Bd. at 11). Lawyers have a right to criticize the state of the law. In re Sawyer, 360 U.S. 622, 631, 79 S.Ct. 1376 (1959). They may also fairly criticize a judge's rulings. Amu, 2011PR00106 (Review Bd. at 11). Similarly, there is a public interest in permitting attorneys to make proper complaints of misconduct by judges and other lawyers. Palmisano, 92 CH 109 (Review Bd. at 8).

However, baseless and unfounded accusations that a judge is corrupt do not fall within the boundaries of protected speech. Amu, 2011PR00106 (Review Bd. at 11-12). The First Amendment does not shield an attorney from professional discipline for making false statements with knowledge of their falsity or reckless disregard for their truth. In re Hoffman, 08 SH 65, M.R. 24030 (Sept. 22, 2010). Likewise, First Amendment protections do not apply where an attorney makes scandalous and defamatory accusations that have no basis in fact. Zurek, 99 CH 45 (Review Bd. at 11).

Some statements on the blog are matters of opinion or criticisms directed at the state of the law. We do not base our findings of misconduct on any such statements. The statements at issue are statements which impugn the integrity of members of the judiciary and other attorneys.⁶

Respondent testified she believed her statements were true. However, an attorney's subjective belief in the truth of his or her statements is not the critical consideration. In re

Greanias, 01 SH 117, M.R. 19079 (Jan. 20, 2004). A statement made with no reasonable basis in fact is a statement made with reckless disregard for the truth. In re Harrison, 06 CH 36, M.R. 22839 (Mar. 16, 2009).

Respondent's accusations of gross improprieties by the judges and GALs in the Sykes probate matter lacked any legitimate factual basis. There simply was no reasonable basis on which Respondent could have believed the probate judges were bribed to reach a specific result in the Sykes case, entered orders based on improper agreements or ex parte communications or engaged in similar types of misconduct. Similarly, there was no reasonable basis on which Respondent could have believed the GALs reaped any improper benefits from the Sykes case or were paid to look the other way, while Mary was abused and her estate looted.

According to the testimony presented, the court's decisions were issued based on evidence and argument, not any impropriety. Judge Stuart, Stern, Farenga and Schmiedel all denied any impropriety in relation to the Sykes matter, no bribes, no improper payments, no ex parte communications. We found their testimony credible. Respondent did not present any real information to show she had any good faith basis to believe otherwise.

Stern and Farenga each received some funds in relation to the Sykes matter. Each had also performed a significant amount of work. These attorneys had not been compensated for the vast majority of that work. This fact does not indicate dishonesty or malfeasance on their part, nor is it inherently suspect. Instead, particularly after hearing these witnesses testify, we were convinced Farenga and Stern were acting out of concern for Mary and her well-being, and we saw no indication they were taking any funds improperly.

We also found no real evidence Mary had a sizeable estate, from which funds had been, or were being, stolen. The evidence indicated exactly the opposite. Mary's assets consisted of an interest in real estate with very limited net value, a still undetermined claim to a portion of settlement proceeds, and minimal income and personal property. Respondent alleged the estate contained much more, including gold coins. The probate court conducted an inquiry, but found no evidence Mary's estate contained gold coins.

Respondent testified she made some efforts to investigate. Respondent's testimony confirms she had not come up with anything to substantiate her suspicions. In fact, Respondent's statements reflected that she had not undertaken any meaningful investigation, prior to making her accusations against the judges and the GALs in the Sykes case.

The Sykes probate case was obviously a contentious legal proceeding. Mary's relatives disagreed vehemently as to her needs and the manner of her care. The disagreement was presented to the court. The court, as it had to do to resolve the issues presented to it, made decisions. Respondent and some of Mary's relatives disagreed with those decisions. We express no opinion on the propriety of any of the rulings in the Sykes case. However, disagreement with a judge's rulings does not provide an attorney with a reasonable basis to allege the judge acted corruptly. Amu, 2011PR00106 (Review Bd. at 10). This would be true even if a ruling may have been incorrect. In re Feldman, 03 CH 23, M.R. 20132 (May 20, 2005).

We reach a similar conclusion in relation to Respondent's accusations against the GALs. Given the evidence presented, there was no logical or reasonable basis for those accusations. Rather, it appears clear to us that the accusations were made essentially because the GALs did not take positions which aligned with the views of Respondent and Gloria.

Based on the evidence, we found absolutely no rational basis on which Respondent could have believed her allegations of corruption, bribery, Greylord-type activity or the like were true. Therefore, in making such allegations, Respondent acted with reckless disregard for the truth or falsity of her statements. See Amu, 2011PR00106 (Hearing Bd. at 8) (reckless disregard for the truth is shown where there is no reasonable basis for believing the statement is true).

Respondent suggests she made her comments as a private person, not as an attorney. The facts do not support this theory. At various points, the blog specifically indicates Respondent is an attorney, e.g. identifying the authors as "lawyers trying to make a difference to make things better for grandma and grandpa" and stating "it takes an attorney to make those comments?" In addition, Respondent testified it took legal knowledge to post and author the statements on the blog. Further, despite her theory that she made her statements solely as a private person, Respondent's public false and baseless accusations of corruption, by specific individuals in relation to a specific case, properly subject her discipline. Ditkowsky, 2012PR00014 (Review Bd. at 12).

The blog's disclaimer does not shield Respondent from discipline. Despite the disclaimer, which itself asserts some statements on the blog are true, other portions of the blog suggest statements on the blog are true. The statements with which Respondent was charged clearly accused the judges and GALs of corruption, accusations which were false and lacking in any reasonable basis. The fact that elsewhere on the blog Respondent suggests that readers do further investigation does not alter this reality.

II. Respondent is charged with engaging in conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice, in violation of Rule 8.4(d).

A. Evidence Considered

In addition to the evidence in Section I A, we consider the following evidence.

After Respondent was disqualified from representing Gloria in the probate case, Respondent continued to go to court in the probate case. Respondent assisted Gloria during some of those hearings, doing things such as suggesting questions for Gloria to ask. Respondent testified she did this as a friend, not as an attorney. However, in Gloria's bankruptcy proceeding, Respondent submitted a claim for fees which included billing for time in the probate matter, after Respondent was disqualified. Respondent and Gloria also continued to communicate via e-mail. (Tr. 283-86, 696, 808-809; Adm. Ex. 15 at 41-74).

Stern testified, even though Gloria was acting pro se in the probate case, much of what she did was taken from the blog. According to Farenga and Stern, the blog posts affected the probate case in that Gloria, with Respondent's support, raised various ancillary issues, which distracted from the real issues in the probate case. Because the parties were dealing with matters raised on the blog, other issues, such as Mary's entitlement to part of the Lumbermen's settlement, remained unresolved for years. (Tr. 859-60, 1041-42). Farenga also testified Respondent's blog posts also created extra work for Farenga, including the need to follow up on the veracity of statements made. (Tr. 924-25).

Schmiedel and Judge Stuart provided similar testimony, stating significant time had been spent dealing with frivolous motions filed by Gloria, which contributed to delays in resolving the case. Schmiedel testified the blog posts adversely affected the probate matter by creating the need to defend against baseless allegations and supporting Gloria in making endless challenges to the jurisdiction of the probate court. Judge Stuart also noted Gloria would bring up issues, particularly jurisdiction, which had previously been decided. Schmiedel testified the blog prompted Gloria to file baseless motions and complaints, in probate court and other courts, and, consequently, created additional work in the courtroom. (Tr. 651, 701-703, 954, 968-69).

B. Analysis and Conclusions

Attorneys may not engage in conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice. Ill. Rs. Prof'l Conduct R. 8.4(d). To prove a violation of Rule 8.4(d), the Administrator must prove the administration of justice was actually prejudiced by the attorney's misconduct. In re

Karavidas, 2013 IL 115767, par. 91. A violation of Rule 8.4(d) can be found where the attorney has engaged in misconduct which undermines the judicial process. Id. at par. 94. Baseless accusations of corruption against judges and attorneys involved in a pending case tend to interfere with the effective functioning of the judicial process. See Hoffman, 08 SH 65 (Review Bd. at 15). Based on the evidence in this case, Respondent's conduct prejudiced the administration of justice, and the Administrator proved Respondent violated Rule 8.4(d).

As set out above, members of the Sykes family disagreed over the guardianship and the appointment of Toerpe. Respondent had been hired to represent Gloria in matters involving Mary, and Respondent attempted to appear on Gloria's behalf in the guardianship case. Although she was disqualified and could not act as counsel of record, Respondent remained clearly aligned with Gloria and continued to act in relation to the Sykes probate case, attending court and advising Gloria. Against that background, Respondent proceeded to make baseless accusations of misconduct by the judges and attorneys involved in the pending probate case and false, unfounded allegations which cast doubt on the validity of those proceedings.

According to the credible testimony of the Administrator's witnesses, as a result of Respondent's false blog posts, the parties in the Sykes case became embroiled over frivolous and ancillary matters. Statements Respondent made on the blog also served to advise Gloria what to do and encourage her to take unreasonable positions in court, such as the repeated challenges to the court's jurisdiction. The court and counsel spent significant time and effort dealing with topics raised on the blog, investigating the veracity of statements made on the blog and defending against allegations made on the blog. All of this caused undue complications and significant delays in resolving the real issues in the probate case. Based on the evidence, Respondent's misconduct undermined the proceedings in the Sykes case.

In Karavidas, the Court concluded the attorney's conduct did not undermine the administration of justice because Karavidas was not acting as an attorney and was not involved in the judicial process at the time of his misconduct. Karavidas, 2013 IL 115767 at par. 97. Karavidas's actions were performed solely in his capacity as executor of his father's estate and the alleged misconduct primarily involved loans Karavidas made to himself from the estate. The Court determined the fact that his conduct eventually became the subject of court proceedings did not suffice to prove Karavidas engaged in conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice. See Id. at pars. 90, 96.

There is a significant difference here. For the reasons stated above, even though she was not counsel of record, Respondent continued to be involved in the Sykes probate case and her misconduct directly impacted that case and persons connected with it. Respondent made false and completely unfounded allegations that the judges and attorneys involved in that pending court proceeding were corrupt. Her conduct, unlike that in Karavidas, was explicitly directed toward the pending court proceedings.

Karavidas also directs that a complaint must plead specific facts to support a charge under Rule 8.4(d). Id. at pars. 72, 97. Based on this principle, in some cases involving unfounded accusations of corruption against judges and other attorneys, the Review Board has reversed findings of conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice. Ditkowsky, 2012PR00014 (Review Bd. at 11); Amu, 2011PR00106 (Review Bd. at 13). The pleading requirements of Karavidas, however, do not preclude finding a violation of Rule 8.4(d) here.

Karavidas is based on the requirement that the complaint sufficiently inform the attorney of the misconduct charged to satisfy due process principles and insure the misconduct charged is misconduct for which professional discipline may be imposed. Karavidas, 2013 IL 115767 at pars.

73, 103. In Karavidas, the conduct which allegedly prejudiced the administration of justice was a breach of fiduciary duty, conduct not specifically proscribed by the Rules of Professional Conduct. In that context, the Court observed: "while an attorney's breach of fiduciary duty to a nonclient could constitute an act that is prejudicial to the administration of justice? if an attorney is to be disciplined for such conduct, the Administrator must, as a matter of due process, plead and prove that the breach of fiduciary duty had a prejudicial effect on the administration of justice." Id. at par.97.

The decision in any given case depends on the language of the complaint and the evidence in that specific case. See In re Kirby, 2010PR00098, M.R. 26679 (May 16, 2014) (Review Bd. at 11) (affirming the finding of a Rule 8.4(a)(5) violation). In this case, the Complaint was sufficient to put Respondent on notice of the precise misconduct charged. That misconduct was not nebulous or uncertain. The Complaint charged Respondent with misconduct based on false and unfounded blog posts alleging corruption by the GALs and the judges in a specific pending court proceeding. The Complaint identified certain specific statements to support the charges of misconduct. We have found those statements were false and Respondent made them with reckless disregard for their truth or falsity, in violation of Rules 8.2(a) and 8.4(c). From our perspective, the potential of such misconduct to impact the administration of justice is abundantly clear, and sufficiently so to satisfy the pleading requirements of Karavidas.

Our finding Respondent violated Rule 8.4(d) does not affect our sanction recommendation. That recommendation is based on the proven misconduct, not the number of Rule violations found. In re Gerard, 132 Ill. 2d 507, 532, 548 N.E.2d 1051 (1989). We would recommend the same sanction with, or without, a finding Respondent violated Rule 8.4(d).

III. Respondent is charged with presenting, participating in presenting or threatening to present criminal charges to obtain an advantage in a civil matter, in violation of Rule 8.4(g).

A. Evidence Considered

We consider the evidence outlined in Sections I A and II A. In addition, we consider the following evidence.

The Connelly post consisted of a letter from Respondent to Connelly, in which Respondent stated Chief Judge Evans referred her to Connelly's office, in relation to her complaints that courtroom personnel, particularly in courtroom 1804, were interfering with her use of a laptop. In context, it appears Respondent intended to refer to the courtroom in which the Sykes case was pending; other evidence suggests this was courtroom 1814. (Adm. Ex. 25 at 1; Adm. Ex. 26 at 1). In her letter, Respondent complained of corruption in probate court and the Sykes case and objected attorneys were not allowed to use laptops when they were "trying to investigate and report the very important news that our Probate court is utterly corrupt." (Adm. Ex. 25 at 1). Respondent requested that Connelly respond, by permitting attorneys to use laptops or informing Respondent when he was available for a deposition, in anticipation of Respondent filing a civil lawsuit. (Adm. Ex. 25 at 1). Respondent testified she was asking Connelly to help alleviate corruption, by letting people blog in court. (Tr. 1815-16).

The Saltoun post was correspondence Respondent sent to Saltoun, at the office of the Illinois Attorney General. Respondent designates Saltoun's title as Executive Director or Executive Inspector General. (Adm. Ex. 25 at 12). In addition to posting the correspondence to Saltoun on the blog, it appears Respondent sent a copy to Ditekowsky. (Id. at 13). In the Saltoun post, Respondent stated the Sykes probate proceeding "boils down to garden variety theft, embezzlement, malpractice and malfeasance by attorneys and the court." (Id. at 12). Respondent complained there was "corruption, cronyism, embezzlement" and suggested gold and silver coins worth approximately $1 million were missing from Mary's estate. (Id. at 12). Respondent complained the ARDC had done nothing to clean up the court system and Judge Evans and court security had done nothing about her inability to blog from the courtroom or about documents allegedly missing from the Sykes court file. Respondent directed Saltoun's attention to the Table of Torts and concluded with the suggestion that this case could be bigger than Greylord. (Id. at 12-13). Respondent testified she posted her fax to Saltoun on the blog to inform others of her current activities. She stated she did so as she thought others might be interested and as a way to show people how to put together a case and ask that it be investigated. (Tr. 1620-21).

B. Analysis and Conclusions

A lawyer may not present, participate in presenting or threaten to present criminal or professional disciplinary charges to obtain an advantage in a civil matter. Ill. Rs. Prof'l Conduct R. 8.4(g). The Administrator must prove the elements of the Rule violation charged. In re Owens, 144 Ill. 2d 372, 378, 581 N.E.2d 633 (1991). The Administrator must do so by clear and convincing evidence. In re Winthrop, 219 Ill. 2d 526, 542, 848 N.E.2d 961 (2006). The Administrator did not prove the elements required for a violation of Rule 8.4(g), by clear and convincing evidence.

Respondent is charged with violating Rule 8.4(g) based on the presentation or threat of criminal charges. To prove this charge, the Administrator was required to prove clear action presenting or threatening to present criminal charges, communicated to the intended target of such a prosecution. See In re Lavelle, 94 CH 187, M.R. 11951 (Mar. 26, 1996) (Hearing Bd. at 11). There also must be a clear connection between the presentation or threat of criminal charges and a purpose of gaining an advantage in a civil matter. See In re Schaaf, 99 SH 64, M.R. 17387 (Mar. 23, 2001).

The following cases illustrate the type of proof which satisfies the requirements of Rule 8.4(g). In In re Mauro, 06 CH 18, M.R. 21548 (May 18, 2007), while representing a client in a claim for civil damages, Mauro communicated with the opposing party and suggested he would pursue criminal charges if the opponent did not agree to settle the civil claim, which arose out of the same incident. The attorney in In re Levin, 05 CH 71, M.R. 22344 (May 19, 2008) was representing a client in a pending civil lawsuit. The opposing party filed a motion to dismiss, supported by an affidavit, signed by Burke, an attorney. Levin informed Burke he intended to depose Burke and send the deposition transcript to the ARDC. The Hearing Board found a violation, concluding Levin was using the threat of disciplinary proceedings to attempt to get Burke to change the position stated in his affidavit. Levin, 05 CH 71 (Hearing Bd. at 19).

The case involving Ditkowsky, whose misconduct arose out of his involvement in the Sykes matter, provides a helpful comparison. Ditkowsky sent e-mails to Farenga, Stern and Schmiedel, with copies to law enforcement personnel, in which Ditkowsky stated the other attorneys were involved in illegal conduct, he was giving them an opportunity to back off and law enforcement officials had no excuse not to prosecute. Ditkowsky also sent an e-mail to the GALs, with a copy to local police, in which Ditkowsky suggested substantial property had not been inventoried and could be split, and called on the recipients to ask the State's Attorney to investigate. Farenga and Stern testified they understood Ditkowsky's e-mails to threaten criminal charges. Ditkowsky acknowledged part of the reason he sent these e-mails was to induce the GALs to "take a stand for Mary" and inform the court about the problems Ditkowsky believed were occurring in relation to Mary. The Hearing Board found a violation of Rule 8.4(g), based on its conclusions that statements in Ditkowsky's e-mails clearly implied a threat to bring criminal charges, Farenga and Stern interpreted the e-mails as threatening criminal prosecution and Ditkowsky was seeking to prompt Farenga and Stern to take a position consistent with the position Ditkowsky was seeking to advocate in the Sykes matter. Ditkowsky, 2012PR00014 (Hearing Bd. at 34-35).

This case is different. Many of the statements with which Respondent was charged allege criminal activity was occurring. However, the other elements necessary to prove a violation of Rule 8.4(g) were not established, particularly not by the requisite clear and convincing evidence.

None of the blog posts with which Respondent was charged clearly communicated an effort to use or threaten criminal prosecution to try to induce another person to act in a specific way in relation to the Sykes case. Respondent communicated with Connelly because he was responsible for courthouse security, not enforcement of the criminal laws. While her correspondence suggested corruption existed, Respondent did not ask Connelly to investigate or prosecute any criminal conduct. Her communication concerned her ability to blog. In the Saltoun post, Respondent recited various problems she believed existed in the Sykes case, but the Administrator did not establish the link, required by Rule 8.4(g), to any effort to gain an advantage in a civil case. This is particularly true because the evidence did not show Respondent communicated with the GALs, Schmiedel or others involved in the Sykes litigation about her correspondence with Saltoun. The motion to dismiss post seeks to prompt Farenga to act differently in the Sykes case, but does not threaten criminal charges if she does not do so.

In this case, we also note Respondent's communications were not communicated directly to persons Respondent was accusing of criminal conduct or, with the possible exception of the Saltoun post, law enforcement officials. Rather, Respondent's statements were made generally, on a public blog. Given the facts of this case, and the content of the statements at issue, the Administrator did not prove a violation of Rule 8.4(g), by clear and convincing evidence.

It is clear Respondent did not like the manner in which other persons were acting in relation to the Sykes case. She also clearly expressed her view that criminal conduct was occurring. However, the Administrator did not clearly and convincingly establish, in her blog posts, Respondent was attempting to use the threat of criminal prosecution to induce others to act differently in relation to the Sykes matter. Therefore, based on the evidence in this case, the Administrator did not meet his burden of proving Respondent violated Rule 8.4 (g).⁷

IV. Respondent is charged with engaging in conduct which tends to defeat the administration of justice and to bring the courts or legal profession into disrepute.

A. Evidence Considered

We consider the evidence set out in Sections I A, II A and III A.

B. Analysis and Conclusions

The allegation Respondent engaged in conduct which tends to defeat the administration of justice or bring the courts or legal profession into disrepute does not provide a separate basis for finding professional misconduct. Karavidas, 2013 IL 115767, par.86. Therefore, that charge is dismissed.

EVIDENCE IN MITIGATION AND AGGRAVATION

Mitigation

Respondent was licensed to practice law in Illinois in 1986. She is also a patent attorney. (Tr. 254-55).

Respondent lived in the same neighborhood as Mary and Gloria. She had provided legal services to Gloria at times. (Tr. 274, 280-81, 524). Respondent knew Mary before December 2009 and thought Mary was doing well when Gloria was caring for her. (Tr. 1661-62).

Respondent testified the purpose of the blog was to bring problems in probate court to the attention of the general public. Her goal was to remedy problems she thought existed in probate court and to help other people involved in the probate process. (Tr. 1538-39). Respondent testified she was also seeking to inform the public, so people would be better informed about probate court in general and the Sykes case in particular. (Tr. 1618-20). In Respondent's view, publishing the blog was also a way of helping Mary and Gloria. (Tr. 412; Adm. Ex. 17 at 20).

It appears various persons communicate via blogs, concerning what they perceive as the evils of the probate system, particularly in relation to guardianships for elderly persons. The opinions expressed on these blogs suggest the system permits elderly persons to be declared incompetent, leaving them vulnerable to isolation and financial exploitation. (Adm. Ex. 39 at 48-57; Adm. Ex. 41 at 33-37, 43-44; Adm. Ex. 44 at 22-31).

Beverly Cooper (Beverly) testified for Respondent as a character witness. In addition to working in a family business, Beverly produces a cable television program on community affairs. Beverly has known Respondent for three or four years. Respondent and Beverly share a concern about probate court. (Tr. 561-66). Beverly testified Respondent had helped many people without being paid. Beverly described Respondent as absolutely dedicated, honorable and charitable, a person of integrity, who considered others before herself. (Tr. 567-69).

Kenneth A. Cooper (Kenneth) also testified as a character witness. Kenneth has known Respondent for two or three years. He considers her honest, trustworthy, hardworking and dedicated. In addition to work in manufacturing, Kenneth produces a blog called ProbateSharks.com. In that capacity, Kenneth comes in contact with many people having difficulty with probate courts, in Cook County and throughout the country. Kenneth testified

Respondent had helped many such persons, free of charge. Kenneth testified Respondent made herself available "all day, any day" and helped anyone who needed help. (Tr. 571-74).

Aggravation

Farenga testified the blog caused her embarrassment and adversely affected her reputation. When Farenga's name was searched on Google, the blog came up. Farenga testified she had spent enormous amounts of time dealing with Respondent's accusations. (Tr. 861-64). Farenga testified "I can't even count the ways that this has adversely affected me financially, emotionally, my reputation." (Tr. 864).

Stern testified the blog and its allegations came up immediately when an internet search was done on him. Stern testified, since many people use the internet for research, the blog and its allegations were what clients or potential clients would see about him. (Tr. 1036, 1042-43).

Schmiedel testified the blog impugned his integrity with no basis, yet he did not have a fair ability to counter the accusations. Schmiedel testified the blog posts had cost him, his firm and the GALs, as well as Mary's estate, time and money and forced them to continuously attempt to defend against baseless attacks. Schmiedel testified the Sykes case should have been a simple one, yet the estate and everyone involved with it had been caused huge pain and expense. (Tr. 650-53). In relation to the blog posts, Schmiedel testified:

Obviously they're upsetting ?. personally and professionally?Nobody should have to endure this, nobody. These are lies. There's no basis for these lies. They know there's no basis for these lies. They're ongoing continuously?

Who should be put through this? I represent a client in a probate proceeding. It should be a simple case. Mary's doing really well?

And to have to endure this and have the public look at these things and say, wow, is Peter Schmiedel corrupt? Is he bribing judges in the Probate Division? Is that how he practices law?

That's what we're accused of.

(Tr. 652-53).

When asked about the effect of the blog posts, Schmiedel testified various "unnecessary satellite litigation" had been filed arising out of the Sykes matter, including bankruptcy cases and a federal lawsuit against the entire Probate Division. (Tr. 651). Respondent had filed multiple suits, against persons involved in the Sykes case, which had been dismissed. In addition, the day before her disciplinary hearing began, Respondent filed a lawsuit against the GALs, Schmiedel and the Administrator, alleging violation of civil rights. (Tr. 451-56, 654-58, 861-64, 1043; Adm. Ex. 51).

Respondent testified, on the blog, she was not making accusations of criminal conduct and her allegations were of civil torts. Respondent stated this was because she did civil legal work and was not a criminal lawyer. (Tr. 1595, 1704, 1711-12, 1747-48).

For a time, after summer 2013, Respondent took down parts of her blog and password protected the blog. According to Respondent's testimony, she did so after certain incidents occurred, which Respondent interpreted as threats. (Tr. 319-23). Respondent also made changes to the blog. As a result, evidence was presented as to the content on the blog at specific points in time. (Tr. 196-247, 335-69; Adm. Exs. 17-32, 34-49). Respondent testified she later put back portions of the blog, but modified its language, to use more generic terms or remove terms such as "corruption." (Tr. 322-26, 338). According to Respondent's testimony, she rephrased the blog based on advice from attorneys, whom she consulted in relation to this disciplinary matter. (Tr. 381-84). She also testified she sometimes rephrased things on the blog to "see how they would look or how (her) audience would react." (Tr. 362). After deciding the more generic version "didn't work," and given the preferences of her audience, Respondent changed most, if not all, of the blog posts back to the original version. (Tr. 372-73, 381-84).

Respondent denied charging Gloria fees for her time on the blog. Respondent, however, kept track of the time she spent on the blog and prepared a bill to Gloria. Respondent testified she did not expect Gloria to pay her for that time, which Respondent considered the "cost of corruption." (Tr. 384-87). Respondent defined the cost of corruption as the time she spent assisting persons who sought her assistance but could not afford to pay. At the time of the hearing, Respondent's blog reported the cost of corruption was over $500,000. On her blog, Respondent sought donations to offset the cost of corruption. (Tr. 387-88, 395-96). She had received a few donations, once in a while. (Tr. 1748).

The Administrator questioned Respondent about certain recent blog posts. These included a blog post from March 9, 2014, before the hearing in this case concluded, in which Respondent referred to a fire, in which a number of persons died. In that post, Respondent asserted the fire had been set intentionally, by employees of the Cook County Public Guardian, for the purpose of destroying records. (Tr. 1767-72). Respondent testified she made this post based on stories she had heard from older attorneys and "probate court victims." (Tr. 1771). Respondent could not remember the names of any of these attorneys. She had not conducted any investigation into the truth of her accusation that the fire was set intentionally. (Tr. 1771-77).

RECOMMENDATION

In making our recommendation as to discipline, we consider the proven misconduct, as well as any aggravating or mitigating factors. In re Gorecki, 208 Ill. 2d 350, 360-61, 802 N.E.2d 1194 (2003). We may consider the deterrent value of a sanction and the need to impress on others the seriousness of the misconduct. In re Twohey, 191 Ill. 2d 75, 85, 727 N.E.2d 1028 (2000). In determining a sanction, we are also guided by the purposes of discipline, which is not to punish the attorney, but to protect the public from incompetent or unscrupulous practitioners, maintain the integrity of the profession and protect the administration of justice from reproach. Twohey, 191

Ill. 2d at 85-86. While the system seeks some consistency in sanctions for similar misconduct, each case is unique and the sanction must be based on the circumstances of the individual case. In re Timpone, 157 Ill. 2d 178, 197, 623 N.E.2d 300 (1993).

The Administrator requested disbarment. Respondent argued no discipline should be imposed.

Respondent engaged in serious misconduct. On an internet blog which she published, Respondent made numerous posts, over time, in which she impugned the integrity of judges and other attorneys, falsely and without any reasonable basis for believing her statements were true. Such misconduct is quite serious, given the potential it carries to damage the public's perception of the court system. In re Amu, 2011PR00106, M.R. 26545 (May 16, 2014).

The public naturally perceives attorneys as having particular knowledge concerning the legal system and the integrity of judges. In re Palmisano, 92 CH 109, M.R. 10116 (May 19, 1994). Consequently, public confidence in the integrity of the judicial system can be especially undermined when an attorney makes accusations of corruption. Palmisano, 92 CH 109 (Review Bd. at 8). Where an attorney publicly advances allegations of judicial corruption, the public naturally assumes the allegations are true. Amu, 2011PR00106 (Review Bd. at 10). While appropriate public confidence in the judicial system requires that judges who are dishonest be identified and removed from the bench, baseless and indiscriminate accusations of dishonesty seriously impair the functioning of the judicial system. Id. at 12.

In many cases involving multiple unfounded accusations of corruption by the judiciary, the attorney has been disbarred. In re Jafree, 93 Ill. 2d 450, 444 N.E.2d 143 (1982); In re Zurek, 99 CH 45, M.R. 18164 (Sept. 19, 2002); In re Kozel, 96 CH 50, M.R. 16530 (June 30, 2000);

Palmisano, 92 CH 109. The Administrator relies on these cases to support his request that Respondent be disbarred.

We have considered these cases. In most of these cases, the attorneys made unfounded allegations of corruption in multiple unrelated matters. Jafree, 93 Ill. 2d at 461-62; Kozel, 96 CH 50; Palmisano, 92 CH 109. Such a pattern is not always required. Zurek, 99 CH 45 (Review Bd. at 15). Zurek was disbarred even though his misconduct did not extend to multiple legal matters. However, his particularly disrespectful and disruptive behavior during the disciplinary proceedings, which included walking out of the hearing, suggested his underlying misconduct was not isolated. Id. at 14-16. The seriousness of Zurek's misconduct was exacerbated because Zurek made his allegations of corruption knowing they were false and in retaliation for adverse rulings by the judge. Id. at 13. No mitigating factors were present. Id. at 14.

Our research has disclosed some cases in which significantly less severe sanctions were imposed. In In re Harrison, 06 CH 36, M.R. 22839 (Mar. 16, 2009), the attorney was censured; his misconduct was an isolated incident, far more confined than that here. In In re Hoffman, 08 SH 65, M.R. 24030 (Sept. 22, 2010), the attorney was suspended for six months and until further order of the Court. Although Hoffman's inappropriate statements affected more than one matter, they were not made in the very public manner in which Respondent made her statements. Those cases are distinguishable, but illustrate the range of available discipline.

In other cases, attorneys have been suspended for a longer period, with the suspension continuing until further order of the Court. The Administrator has cited two such cases; in each, the attorney was suspended for two years and until further order of the Court. In re Sarelas, 50 Ill. 2d 87, 277 N.E.2d 313 (1971); In re Greanias, 01 SH 117, M.R. 19079 (Jan. 20, 2004).

Sarelas filed multiple lawsuits over a nine-year period against individuals who had been involved in prior disputes in which Sarelas was also involved, as a lawyer or as a litigant. In the lawsuits, Sarelas made false and baseless allegations impugning the integrity of the defendants, who included judges and other lawyers. Sarelas also behaved disruptively in the disciplinary proceedings and sued the persons involved in the proceeding. While observing his conduct warranted disbarment, the Court declined to disbar Sarelas. The Court noted, in mitigation, Sarelas had no other misconduct, in a long career. Sarelas, 50 Ill. 2d at 98-99.

Greanias had represented five individuals in their respective claims before the Industrial Commission. After each matter was resolved, Greanias filed a lawsuit in which she alleged, without any reasonable basis for doing so, the Commissioners and, in some cases, opposing counsel had engaged in fraud, racketeering, conspiracy and/or bribery. In recommending a suspension for two years and until further order of the Court, the Hearing Board considered the seriousness of Greanias's misconduct, the fact that it did not arise from an isolated incident and her lack of remorse or recognition of her misconduct. The Hearing Board also considered factors in mitigation. Greanias actually believed the defendants had wronged her clients and believed, albeit unreasonably, there was a factual basis for the complaints. She did not act with a self-serving motive. Greanias had practiced law for over 20 years with no prior discipline. She cooperated during the disciplinary proceedings. Greanias had also done pro bono work and engaged in civic activities.

Since Respondent's hearing concluded, the Court issued its final orders in two cases. These cases are relevant in our consideration of the sanction to recommend in this case.

In Amu, 2011PR00106, the attorney was suspended for three years and until further order of the Court. In four separate matters in which he received unfavorable rulings, Amu falsely alleged the cases had been fixed and the judges were biased and corrupt. Although Amu testified he believed his statements were true, he did not have any reasonable basis for that belief. While most of the accusations were made in pleadings filed in the cases involved, Amu disseminated some of his accusations further, thereby creating a genuine risk of harm to the reputation of the judges involved. In particular, Amu posted a document on his law firm website in which he accused one of the judges of bias and corruption. Amu did not recognize the wrongfulness of his misconduct and appeared to have no concern for the consequences of his statements. The manner in which Amu behaved during the disciplinary proceedings, which included failures to comply with orders, was considered in aggravation. In mitigation, Amu presented favorable character testimony and had no prior discipline. The Hearing Board declined to recommend disbarment. In doing so, the Hearing Board observed disbarment would not advance the goals of the disciplinary system any better than a suspension until further order of the Court. Amu, 2011PR00106 (Hearing Bd. at 36).

In In re Ditkowsky, 2012PR00014, M.R. 26516 (Mar. 14, 2014), the attorney was suspended for four years and until further order of the Court. Like Respondent, Ditkowsky baselessly accused the judges and attorneys involved in the Sykes case of corruption. There are, however, differences between the two cases. Ditkowsky engaged in additional misconduct, making false representations to a third party about his status in the litigation. Some of his statements were more aggravated; Ditkowsky's accusations included allegations the judges and GALs were involved in a conspiracy to shorten Mary's life. Unlike this case, where Respondent posted her comments publicly on a blog, Ditkowsky's accusations were made in e-mail communications, albeit hundreds of them, directed to specific individuals. There are also similarities and differences in the aggravating and mitigating factors. Like Respondent,

Ditkowsky did not display any remorse or understanding of his misconduct. Both attorneys demonstrated a lack of respect for the disciplinary process and did not appear to understand the purpose of the proceedings. Unlike Respondent, Ditkowsky did not present any mitigating evidence.

The sanctions imposed in the foregoing cases provide a framework for our consideration of the sanction to recommend here. The sanction we recommend is based on the specific evidence in this case, considered in light of this precedent. In particular, we are mindful that the Court upheld the recommendation of a suspension of four years and until further order for Ditekowsky, whose case involved similar, though not identical, misconduct and factors in aggravation. The factors distinguishing the two cases, in our view, balance out such that the sanction we recommend for Respondent is within an appropriate range.

We recommend Respondent be suspended for three years and until further order of the Court. Respondent's proven misconduct clearly was serious, even if, in isolation, some individual statements might be viewed more benignly than others. Respondent made numerous improper statements and did so over time. Her misconduct could warrant disbarment, particularly when considered with the aggravating factors present. The aggravating factors themselves are significant. However, given all the circumstances, including mitigating factors as discussed below, we have decided to recommend a sanction less severe than disbarment.

Disbarment represents the "utter destruction" of an attorney's professional life. In re Timpone, 208 Ill. 2d 371, 384, 804 N.E.2d 560 (2004). A suspension until further order of the Court is the most severe form of discipline short of disbarment. Timpone, 208 Ill. 2d at 386. This sanction protects the public and the integrity of the profession in much the same manner as disbarment; specifically, Respondent will not be able to resume practicing law until she establishes that she is fit to do so. Id. at 388-89. That is particularly important to us in this case, because the circumstances as a whole leave us with very serious doubt whether or not Respondent is willing or able to conform her future conduct to proper legal standards. We also specifically intend to recommend a sanction which is sufficiently severe to impress upon Respondent the need to change her conduct. In the opinion of the Panel, the disciplinary proceedings themselves did not make such an impression on Respondent.

We have considered the Administrator's arguments as to factors the Administrator regards as aggravating Respondent's misconduct. We itemized some of those factors above, in aggravation, e.g., the changes to Respondent's blog and her effort to charge for her time on it, even though we have not addressed them in detail here. We have also considered the arguments of Respondent's counsel. These are the conclusions we have reached, and which form the basis for the discipline we recommend.

We are mindful of Respondent's due process right to notice of the misconduct with which she is charged. In re Karavidas, 2013 IL 115767, par. 103. However, under certain circumstances, matters not specifically charged in the Complaint can be considered in aggravation. In re Storment, 203 Ill. 2d 378, 400, 786 N.E.2d 963 (2002). Typically, this depends on the extent to which the uncharged conduct is similar to the charged misconduct and proved by evidence of record. Storment, 203 Ill. 2d at 400. In this case, it is quite fair to consider the scope and breadth of the blog in aggravation. Farenga characterized the blog as a diatribe; this is a very apt description. We consider Respondent's comments on the blog as a whole, in showing the extent and relentlessness of her unfounded accusations of corruption by individual judges and lawyers.

Respondent's misconduct caused significant harm. The harm resulting from an attorney's misconduct is legitimately considered in aggravation. In re Nosal, 2011PR00118,

M.R. 26238 (Nov. 20, 2013). The persons Respondent unjustly maligned testified to ramifications they experienced. The fact that Respondent made her baseless allegations widely available, by posting them on a public blog, created a genuine risk of harm to the reputations of the individuals involved. Amu, 2011PR 00106 (Hearing Bd. at 33). We also are cognizant of the damage to the public's perception of the court system which results when attorneys make false and unfounded accusations of corruption within the system. See Palmisano, 92 CH 109 (Hearing Bd. at 22). In this case, there was also harm, as described by the Administrator's witnesses, in that the probate proceedings became sidetracked, while the parties addressed frivolous issues raised on Respondent's blog. According to the testimony, this contributed to inordinate delays in the probate proceedings and those delays harmed Mary, by delaying the resolution of issues pertaining to her well-being, such as the proper distribution of the Lumberman's proceeds.

Respondent does not understand the nature and seriousness of her misconduct. This is an aggravating factor and, in this case, supports our recommendation that the suspension continue until further order of the Court. See Amu, 2011PR00106 (Hearing Bd. at 31-32). In reaching this conclusion, we considered the record as a whole, including the blog posts on which the charges of misconduct are based, Respondent's lack of remorse, Respondent's testimony and statements during the hearing, as well as her conduct in the prehearing stage of these proceedings. The blog posts Respondent made around the time of the hearing reinforce our conclusion that Respondent does not comprehend the nature and seriousness of her misconduct. In these proceedings, Respondent faces the risk of substantial discipline, based on allegations that she falsely accused others of corruption without having any legitimate basis for doing so. Yet, in recent blog posts, Respondent continues to accuse others of serious wrongdoing, without having a clue whether her allegations have any basis in reality. The fact that Respondent would engage in such behavior, in the midst of this hearing, confirms our view she does not have sufficient insight into her misconduct and our concern over her future ability to conform her conduct to proper professional norms.

Further, Respondent had demonstrated she does not understand certain basic elements of practicing law. For example, Respondent suggested she was not accusing others of criminal conduct, but only civil torts because, in her own practice, Respondent handled civil, rather than criminal, cases. Respondent's lack of understanding of how to practice law is also apparent from her conduct in the disciplinary proceedings.

Respondent's conduct in these proceedings is clear from the prehearing record. Among other things, Respondent repeatedly failed to follow the Chair's orders, failed to comply with the rules of the tribunal, and sought to have the Chair and opposing counsel communicate with her in the manner in which she wished, rather than in a manner consistent with the rules of the tribunal. Respondent raised various issues which have nothing to do with these proceedings, such as asserting that copyright protections precluded use of statements from the blog in connection with these proceedings. The manner in which an attorney conducts herself during disciplinary proceedings is legitimately considered in determining the sanction. In re Cook, 2010PR00106, M.R. 26581 (May 16, 2014). Respondent's conduct in these proceedings represented a significant aggravating factor.

Respondent has displayed a tendency to inappropriately personalize matters. This tendency was apparent in conduct by Respondent which included filing multiple lawsuits, which had been dismissed, against the attorneys in the Sykes matter. The presence of such a tendency reinforces our concern over Respondent's ability to conform her future conduct to professional standards. See Amu, 2011PR00106 (Hearing Bd. at 31-32).

At the same time, there are mitigating factors. Based on those mitigating factors, we decline to recommend the ultimate penalty of disbarment.

Respondent presented favorable character testimony. Her character witnesses described Respondent as a person who was generous with her time, made herself available to persons who needed help and did so pro bono.

Respondent was licensed to practice law in 1986, nearly thirty years ago. She has no prior discipline.

While Respondent acted with reckless disregard for the truth of her accusations, based on our impressions of Respondent, we do not believe she was acting out of a deliberate purpose of harming the judges and attorneys involved. Respondent genuinely, though unreasonably, believed something was wrong with the proceedings in the Sykes case. Respondent knew Mary and Gloria before the guardianship. While Respondent used decidedly misguided means, we believe she was acting out of a sincere desire to help Mary. We were also convinced Respondent truly believes there are abuses in the probate system and the system needs to be changed, to protect persons who are the subject of adult guardianship proceedings. From our perspective, it appears Respondent has genuine concern for senior citizens and perceives the senior population as vulnerable, especially to financial exploitation. This concern, as a general matter, is a legitimate one, even though Respondent had no reasonable basis for believing the judges or attorneys in Mary's case were corrupt.

We do not believe Respondent acted with a self-serving motive. The evidence did not support a theory that Respondent was reaping a significant financial benefit from her activities including operation of the blog.

We recommend Respondent's suspension continue until further order of the Court. This sanction protects the public, by requiring Respondent to go through a reinstatement proceeding in which she will be required to prove her fitness to resume practicing law. Timpone, 208 Ill. 2d at 388-89. The circumstances of this case, as outlined above and particularly Respondent's lack of understanding of the ramifications of her conduct and of the importance of following proper legal procedures, leave us with serious doubt as to Respondent's ability to conform her future conduct to professional standards. These factors warrant continuing Respondent's suspension until further order of the Court. See Amu, 2011PR00106 (Hearing Bd. at 37-38).

For the reasons stated above, we recommend Respondent be suspended for three years and until further order of the Court.

Respectfully Submitted,

Sang-yul Lee

² Evidence was presented showing Respondent made certain changes in her blog posts. That evidence does not change our conclusion that the blog contained the language with which Respondent is charged.

³ Schmiedel's testimony suggested the GALs had not been paid anything at all, but for possible costs reimbursement to Stern. (Tr. 620). We are aware of this possible discrepancy, but it does not change our determination in the case.

⁴ Gloria's testimony was interrupted, due to the need to address issues relating to discovery and privilege. Respondent was given an opportunity to determine what items Gloria intended to assert were privileged, produce additional unprivileged documents and recall Gloria as a witness. (Tr. 527-59). This topic was also addressed in a February 4, 2014 status conference. Gloria did not return on the subsequent scheduled hearing dates to complete her testimony. For the reasons stated on the record, the hearing was not continued further. (Tr. 1138-39, 1154-66).

⁷ Respondent testified she reported wrongdoing to the FBI. It was not clear from her testimony that she did so regarding the Sykes matter or that she informed others of these reports, in an effort to obtain an advantage in a civil case. (Tr. 1706-1719).

07 Civ. 11196 (SAS)

SHIRA A. SCHEINDLIN, U.S.D.J.:

I. BACKGROUND

Pro se plaintiff Eliot Bernstein filed this action in December 2007.

On August 8, 2008, this Court dismissed all of his federal claims on the merits, with prejudice. Bernstein's request for leave to file a second amended complaint was denied. On January 27, 2010, the Second Circuit issued a Mandate dismissing Bernstein's appeal sua sponte, finding that it lacked an arguable basis in law or fact. Approximately two and one-half years later, on July 27, 2012, Bernstein filed his first motion to re-open this case, entitled "Emergency Motion to Reopen Case." This motion, which was opposed by the Proskauer Defendants,¹ was denied in an Exhibit "J"

Order dated August 14, 2012 (the “August 14th Order”).² In the August 14th Order, I found plaintiff’s Emergency Motion to be “frivolous, vexatious, overly voluminous, and an egregious abuse of judicial resources.” I cautioned plaintiff that any additional frivolous filings could subject him to monetary and/or injunctive sanctions under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11 (“Rule 11”).

Failing to heed this Court’s warning, Bernstein filed a second motion to re-open this case³ on February 28, 2013. In addition to opposing the motion, the Proskauer Defendants filed a Rule 11 motion for sanctions on May 7, 2013, which was previously served on Bernstein on April 5, 2013. Bernstein filed two additional motions on May 15, 2013: Notice of Motion to Re-Open Based on Fraud on the Court and More⁴ and Notice of Emergency Motion for Clarification of Order⁵, which sought reconsideration of the August 14th Order denying Bernstein’s first motion to re-open. On May 15, 2013, this Court denied Bernstein’s second and third motions to re-open as well as his motion for reconsideration,⁶ stating as follows:

Even if an alleged conflict on the part of the [New York State Attorney General's Office] were established, this would not overcome the fact that plaintiff's claims were barred on numerous jurisdictional and legal grounds. For example, the allegations against the State Defendants were based on their alleged failure to handle attorney grievances. But in dismissing these claims, this Court held that "there is no clearly established right to have complaints investigated or pursued," nor is there any "cognizable interest in attorney disciplinary proceedings or in having certain claims investigated." Furthermore, plaintiff had no standing to challenge the state court system's actions regarding attorney discipline. In addition, plaintiff's claims were barred by absolute judicial, quasi-judicial and qualified immunity as well as numerous other defenses.⁷ Because plaintiff has not, and cannot, remedy the fundamental defects in the Amended Complaint, re-opening this action would be futile. Plaintiff's application to reopen and his request to alter or amend judgment must therefore be denied.

5/15/13 Order at 5-6 (footnotes omitted).

The Proskauer Defendants now seek monetary and injunctive sanctions against Bernstein for his vexatious and frivolous conduct. Specifically, they seek monetary sanctions in an amount not less than $3,500 and the following injunctive relief:

⁶ See Docket Entry # 151.

⁷ See id.

Eliot I. Bernstein is hereby enjoined from filing any action in any court related to the subject matter of this action without first obtaining leave of this Court. In moving for such leave, Bernstein must certify that the claim or claims he wishes to present are new claims never before raised and/or disposed of by any court. Bernstein must also certify that claim or claims are not frivolous or asserted in bad faith. Additionally, the motion for leave to file must be captioned "Application Pursuant to Court Order Seeking Leave to File." Failure to comply strictly with the terms of this injunction shall be sufficient grounds for denying leave to file and any other remedy or sanction deemed appropriate by this Court.

Proposed Order (Docket Entry # 146-2).

II. LEGAL STANDARDS

A. Rule 11 in General

The purpose of Rule 11 is "the deterrence of baseless filings and the curbing of abuses."⁸ Filings that have a complete lack of a factual and legal basis have been found "to harass, cause unnecessary delay, or needlessly increase the cost of litigation[.]"⁹ In appropriate cases, pro se litigants are subject to Rule 11 sanctions.¹⁰ Pro se litigants who show contempt for the judicial system, harass defendants, and/or cause courts and litigants to waste resources may be sanctioned under Rule 11.

B. Injunctive Relief

It is “beyond peradventure” that “[a] district court possesse[s] the authority to enjoin [a litigant] from further vexatious litigation.”¹¹ In determining whether a litigant’s future access to the courts should be restricted, courts should consider the following factors:

- (1) the litigant’s history of litigation and in particular whether it entailed vexatious, harassing or duplicative lawsuits;
- (2) the litigant’s motive in pursuing the litigation, e.g., does the litigant have a good faith expectation of prevailing?;
- (3) whether the litigant is represented by counsel;
- (4) whether the litigant has caused needless expense to other parties or has posed an unnecessary burden on the courts and their personnel; and
- (5) whether other sanctions would be adequate to protect the courts and

New York City Bd. of Educ.*, 207 F. Supp. 2d 256, 259 (S.D.N.Y. 2002) (“The fact that a litigant appears pro se does not shield him from Rule 11 sanctions because one acting pro se has no license to harass others, clog the judicial machinery with meritless litigation, and abuse already overloaded court dockets.”) (quotation marks and citations omitted).

other parties. Ultimately, the question the court must answer is whether a litigant who has a history of vexatious litigation is likely to continue to abuse the judicial process and harass other parties.¹²

III. DISCUSSION

Bernstein had no factual or legal basis for his second motion to re-open or any subsequent motion he filed. Nonetheless, Bernstein must have believed his motion had merit, as evidenced by his twenty-two page Plaintiff's Opposition to Proskauer Defendant's [sic] Motion for Sanctions ("Opposition"). But there is no subjective, bad faith requirement in Rule 11. "The mental state applicable to liability for Rule 11 sanctions initiated by motion is objective unreasonableness"¹³ Moreover, as the following excerpt from his Opposition makes clear, Bernstein has no plans to ever end this litigation.

Bernstein is notifying Proskauer and this Court that he will have a lifelong and generational long litigious history in pursuing his patent royalties, as litigation is the key to prosecuting patents over their useful life and will also have a litigious ongoing history in pursuing the crimes and criminals who are attempting to steal them, despite whether they are cleverly disguised as Attorneys at Law, Judges, Prosecutors, etc. and despite the ridiculous Orders trying to prevent him from his due process rights and rights to his

Given these statements, this Court has no choice but to impose significant monetary and injunctive sanctions in an attempt to end this lengthy litigation.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, a monetary sanction in the amount of $3,500 is hereby imposed on Bernstein as is the injunctive sanction described above. The money is to be paid to the Clerk of the Court, Southern District of New York, forthwith. If Bernstein ignores the monetary sanction, defendants may obtain an enforceable judgment in the amount of $3,500. If Bernstein continues to file motions in this case, he may be subject to additional monetary sanctions. The Clerk of the Court is directed to close the motion for sanctions (Docket Entry # 145).

_____ /

RESPONSE IN OPPOSITION TO OMNIBUS MOTION...Filed Jan 07, 2016

COMES NOW, Eliot Ivan Bernstein (“Eliot”) and Candice Michelle Bernstein (“Candice”), both PRO SE as Guardians for their three minor children (“Respondents”) and hereby files this “Response in Opposition To Omnibus Motion...” Filed Jan 07, 2016 and in support thereof states, as follows:

1. I oppose the motion by Steven Lessne in this case and the related motion by Alan M. Rose in what should be deemed a “complex” case, these motions seeking to appoint a Guardian for my children and oppose his motion for any “gag” order and since an Evidentiary Hearing and Testimony are both necessary with respect to the factual pleadings by Steven Lessne and such evidence and testimony including my own testimony on both matters which would last well beyond 30 minutes alone it is inappropriate and improper process to achieve anything at the Uniform Motion Calendar Hearing on Jan. 14, 2016 beyond Scheduling of Compliance for outstanding Discovery and Production, depositions and then an evidentiary hearing and a proper Case Management Conference for this “Complex” case.

2. This, however, naturally raises the issue of Lessne being a “resigned” Trustee and thus lacking standing herein and the Court should otherwise first schedule hearings on the motions in the related complex cases to remove Ted Bernstein as Trustee for not being qualified under the language of the trusts, for misconduct in fiduciary capacity, for waste and fraud upon the estate and other matters wherein even this very response by myself in this filing has been delayed by Representations by Creditor William Stansbury that his Florida Licensed Attorney Peter Feaman would be filing yesterday with the Court and Alan Rose a request to delay any hearing on these motions until a Status Conference / Case Management Conference for the Orderly scheduling of further hearings wherein Peter Feaman already notified this Court on Sept. 15, 2015 that removal of Ted Bernstein as Trustee should be the first order of business instead of a validity trial with Ted Bernstein as Trustee, but whereupon this Court improperly moved to Schedule Trial in Shirley Bernstein’s Trust case which was Not Notified for the Case Management Conference requested by the current PR of Simon’s Estate being Mr. Brian O’Connell and Joy Foglietta of the Ciklin Lubitz Martens & O’Connell firm who filed the Notice to bring the matter up for the Case Management Conference on Sept. 15, 2015 in the first instance.

3. Thus, both alleged Creditor William Stansbury and Florida Licensed Attorney Peter Feaman are both Necessary Witnesses in relation to the Integrity of these proceedings and the good faith efforts I have undertaken to uncover fraud upon the Court and in the Court which is directly relevant to resolution of any sham claim by attorney Steven Lessne or Alan Rose regarding guardianship, both being Florida licensed attorneys who have directly Mislead this Court in many ways including but not limited to falsely citing language from other Court orders such as Southern District of New York Judge Shira Scheindlin, or Alan Rose falsely claiming during the alleged validity trial that there has been no prior Order for Production of all Original Records by Tescher and Spallina when in fact this was part of the Discharge Order of Judge Colin to the extent any such Order of Judge Colin remains valid. See, Order of Colin on Production¹.
4. Specifically, Alan Rose, a Served Counter Defendant in the related action in this complex case has knowingly misquoted an Order of SDNY Judge Shira Scheindlin by falsely portraying a Proskauer Rose proposed language in an Order as an actual Order, quote, finding of Hon. Judge Scheindlin herself and while this conduct recently occurred in matters before the 4th DCA², this evidence is representative of the sharp practices that Alan Rose and Ted Bernstein have employed to avoid full and fair hearings, obstruct due process, and obscure actual truth seeking processes acting in conflict of interest and more while simultaneously not only denying proper funds for myself to obtain proper counsel for my minor children and myself but further denied retained Texas attorney Candice Schwager documents to review for her to further an application to be admitted pro hac vice after having opportunity to scope potential conflicts of interest between myself and minor children.

5. Alan Rose falsely stated to this Court at the Case Management Conference³ that no hearings were held prior for guardianship hearings but yet Alan Rose had only a year earlier been denied⁴ by Judge Colin who claimed Eliot and Candice did not need Guardians for their children and yet Alan Rose and Lessnee not only file similar false pleadings but move in coordination in their sharp practices where both Alan Rose and Lessnee should now be Witnesses.
6. Thus, attorney Alan Rose's conduct himself in these proceedings has relevance to both Lessne and Oppenheimer's sham motion as well as Rose's sham motion for guardianship since Rose and Ted Bernstein's own conduct has caused waste and harm to beneficiaries and delayed and obstructed the fact finding and truth seeking processes of this court and thus right there alone are 3 Witnesses in addition to myself that should be part of any Evidentiary hearing relating to appointment of a Guardianship and thus arriving at a Schedule would be the most that can happen on Jan. 14, 2016, or at least should be the most that can happen on this date.
7. In fact, Florida licensed attorney Peter Feaman has directly prepared pleadings and correspondence showing myself as being the only sibling in these cases to expose fraud and forgery and other proper matters in these cases and eligible to be a Successor Trustee. See, below.

Then of course is the letter by Florida Licensed attorney Peter Feaman from August of 2014, nearly 17 months ago claiming PR Brian O'Connell had an absolute "duty" to file to Remove Ted Bernstein in showing failure to provide Accountings, waste of Trust assets and other matters, yet no action taken by PR O'Connell and no present follow-up by Peter Feaman although as indicated I have been delayed in this very filing by Representations of William Stansbury that Peter Feaman would be filing with the Court relative to these matters including holding hearings off until a Status or Case Management Conference but has yet to do that either, although it was represented it would be filed Tuesday, Jan., 12, 2016 further knowing I had filed for Unavailability with this Court which was served upon Alan Rose and further filed in my last opposition to the Gag order that I was under medication and needing medical care. 10. William Stansbury is further a necessary Witness as he has information relating to an ongoing Federal investigation of Ted Bernstein by the US Dept. of Labor in relation to Ted Bernstein's fiduciary actions as Plan Administrator / Trustee involving Arbitrage International an asset of the Estate and Trusts where it is likely that further financial harm to beneficiaries including my minor children has occurred according to William Stansbury and yet Alan Rose and Ted Bernstein have not only failed to Disclose these matters to the Court and parties but further failed to disclose these matters in an alleged Meeting involving Bernstein Holdings and Bernstein Family Investments where Ted Bernstein and Alan Rose .

11. Further that the Estate itself by and through Brian O’Connell and Joy Foglietta has failed to account for or provide Documents and Records that should have been in their Custody despite prior Court Ordered Production⁵ upon the former PR’s, Tescher and Spallina, after their removal after admissions to fraudulently altering and creating a fraudulent Shirley Trust that Alan Rose misleads this Court about there being no such Court Order during an alleged Validity Trial⁶ and having multiple cross examination questions sustained as a result of such misstatement to the Court where it appears that in contempt of such order for Tescher & Spallina to Produce and turn over all Originals and files, Alan Rose, alleged Fiduciary and Trustee Ted Bernstein, Brian O’Connell and Joy Foglietta and potentially others have left “Original” documents and files instead in the Custody of Tescher & Spallina where Spallina has now admitted to fraud upon beneficiaries and their counsel, mail fraud, fraud upon the Court in the filings his office prepared and other crimes and misconduct during the alleged “validity” trial before Your Honor where the PRs O’Connell & Foglietta are wholly and conspicuously absent from the “Validity trial” (despite having pleaded to the Court in the Shirley Trust Construction case that Ted was NOT A VALID TRUSTEE⁷ in the SIMON TRUST, which would have materially affected the outcome of such hearing on the Simon Trust case and Ted’s ability to argue the validity in the first place) among many other “missing Witnesses” at the alleged validity Trial such as Traci Kratish, Diana Banks, Donald

⁷ February 17, 2015 Answer Affirmative Defenses Filed by PR Attorney Brian O’Connell stating Ted is NOT A VALID TRUSTEE under the terms of the Trust.
<http://iviewit.tv/Simon%20and%20Shirley%20Estate/20150217%20Answer%20Affirmative%20Defenses%20O'Connell%20States%20Ted%20is%20NOT%20VALID%20TRUSTEE.pdf>

Tescher, unknown signatory witnesses, leaving the Estate of Simon Bernstein without counsel despite the fact that one of the First Orders of Business PRs O'Connell and Foglietta should have sought at the Case Management Conference held Sept. 15, 2015 which was Held and Noticed only in the Estate of Simon Bernstein is a Compliance Order to obtain all the "Originals" and files/documents from Tescher & Spallina so proper Discovery and Production could occur to prove validity but instead results in an improperly schedule Trial in Shirley's Trust case which was not Noticed for Sept. 15, 2015 as required in the procedural rules of the Court.

12. Licensed attorney Peter Feaman and his client alleged Creditor William Stansbury further being Witnesses as both claimed to have observed Donald Tescher at the Courthouse after the validity trial yet was not produced by Alan Rose suggesting Tescher's presence was under Alan Rose's control.
13. Thus, Brian O'Connell and Joy Foglietta should further be called as Necessary Witnesses in relation to the integrity of proceedings and were further factual Witnesses in relation to missing documents, missing production, missing business records and intertwined in conduct with Alan Rose in sudden emerging "original" documents from the St. Andrew's Home allegedly for the Oppenheimer matters and other dispositive Estate and Trust documents yet Creditor William Stansbury had previously stated that his Florida licensed attorney Peter Feaman suggested that a Meeting at his Office and or Brian O'Connell's Office and inviting the Palm Beach County Sheriff's for Criminal investigation and prosecution of Ted Bernstein in relation to the missing Tangible Personal Property ("TTP") should occur, thus intertwining all of the various parties as witnesses in relation to any Guardianship hearing and necessity.

14. While I understand it was filed in a different case number, Steven Lessne is intertwined with Rose on numerous issues including not only the sudden emergence of “original” documents in the Oppenheimer case but further the sharp practices conduct wherein Lessne has directly mislead this Court by an almost identical sharp practice of Alan Rose where Southern District of New York Judge Hon. Shira Scheindlin is again knowingly misquoted wherein Lessne claims Judge Scheindlin issued some nationwide injunction against me again misquoting language “proposed” by Proskauer Rose where in actuality the language Judge Scheindlin determined in the Order was as follows: “IV. CONCLUSION For the foregoing reasons, a monetary sanction in the amount of $3,500 is hereby imposed on Bernstein as is the injunctive sanction described above. The money is to be paid to the Clerk of the Court, Southern District of New York, forthwith. If Bernstein ignores the monetary sanction, defendants may obtain an enforceable judgment in the amount of $3,500. If Bernstein continues to file motions in this case, he may be subject to additional monetary sanctions. The Clerk of the Court is directed to close the motion for sanctions (Docket Entry # 145). Dated: 14 New York, New York August 29, 2013 Opposition at 13. 7⁸ “.
15. Thus, the only injunctive limitation determined by SDNY Judge Scheindlin is that if I file motions “in this case”, being the SDNY case, I “may be subject to additional monetary sanctions”, thus showing Lessne himself directly misleading this Court as a Florida licensed attorney.
16. The Court should note that Lessne left his firm Gray Robinson and took with him the Bernstein / Oppenheimer case as he transitioned to Alan Rose’s prior law firm Gunster.

17. To the extent any Order of Judge Colin remains valid, he has already ruled upon motions by Alan Rose and Ted Bernstein on Guardianship and the related matters and DENIED those matters. See below Orders Colin in Rose Denial Guardian Shirley Trust Construction stating no Guardian necessary and Oppenheimer denial of same, This renewed attempt on virtually the same grounds constitutes further harassment and a 2nd bite at apple hoping for a better outcome than with Judge Colin.

18. There has been no “construction” hearing scheduled much less any full and fair hearing after proper discovery and depositions.

20. I replead and re-allege the following in further opposition to any continued improper attempts at a gag order which should be denied and stricken but certainly would require an adversarial evidentiary hearing first not part of the Uniform Motion Calendar Hearing of Jan. 14, 2016 and certainly not in 10 minutes.

21. I have already had to reschedule medical/dental related appointments due to Alan Rose's actions this New Year, I am currently on prescription medication since January 02, 2016, including painkillers and muscle relaxers and am not fit to attend hearings, which is part of the reason for my unavailability this month. This scheduling and notice is improper and further harassment and this is not the first time Alan Rose has deployed these tactics as the record for the cases reflects.

22. This is nothing but more of the same “sharp practices” and legal process abuses that Alan Rose and Trustee Ted Bernstein have perpetuated throughout the litigation.
23. Florida Licensed attorney (presently) Alan Rose and his client Ted Bernstein fail to point out to this Court their continuing Conflicts of Interest since both Alan Rose and Ted Bernstein have actively worked Against the Interests of the “grandchildren” to Shirley and Simon Bernstein by trying to block $1.7 in Life Insurance proceeds from coming into the Estate.
24. Both attorney Alan Rose and Ted Bernstein have been involved in actions which directly were contrary to the best interests of minor children by refusing to agree to a Continuance of the validity trial in Dec. 2015 even for 30 days so my minor children could have Counsel by Candice Schwager, Esq. and yet now try to claim to come to this court for the welfare of minor children. <http://iviewit.tv/Simon%20and%20Shirley%20Estate/20151215%20ESIGNED%20Phillips%20Trial%20Stay%20ECF%20STAMPED%20COPY.pdf>
25. Ted Bernstein and Alan Rose have articulated no adequate basis to impose a Gag order.

26. In fact according to the Email Letter sent by attorney Schwager today to Alan Rose (see <http://iviewit.tv/Simon%20and%20Shirley%20Estate/20160106%20Schwager%20Letter%20to%20Alan%20Rose%20to%20Cancel%20Hearings.pdf>) to seek his voluntary withdrawal of this Hearing, even one of the cases cited by Alan Rose actually has the District Court of Appeals reversing a Trial Court's Order closing a Trial from the public: "The orders of the trial court sealing the file and closing the proceedings are REVERSED. The public shall be permitted access to the court file and the transcript or reporter's notes of any proceedings in the trial court. ERVIN, J., concurs. NIMMONS, J., concurs, with written opinion."
- <https://casetext.com/case/florida-freedom-newspapers-v-sirmons>
27. There was minimal if virtually any naming of the "grandchildren" and/or "minor children" in the Trial in any event and I should have every right to inspect and have my own copy of the Transcript and this appears to be nothing more than the bully sharp practices of Alan Rose and Ted Bernstein in trying to deny due process and access to the courts and the ability to seek proper appeal, collateral attack and other motions concerning the trial.
28. As attorney Schwager pointed out in her letter, "Thus, it truly appears that your motion is more of a "smoke-screen" and "sharp practices" which are more designed to further delay, obstruct and hinder the due process rights of Eliot Bernstein and his minor children and perhaps others in the truth seeking processes by this motion which must be withdrawn."
29. In one breathe, Alan Rose and Ted Bernstein rush to push a validity Trial through that had been requested years before by Plaintiff Eliot and do so in a manner to Deny Counsel to Minor Children but now that the hour of Truth is at hand where Ted Bernstein's business partner / former business partner Robert Spallina's testimony Admitting to mail fraud, fraudulently creating an Invalid Trust and Fraud Upon the Court in these matters and related

Testimony is about to be available as it should be, Alan Rose and Ted Bernstein are now suddenly (and frantically) the big heroes for minor children and rushing in by an improperly Noticed Hearing to gag truth without providing any specific justification that this will benefit any minor children.

30. Yet, as stated by the very case Alan Rose and Ted Bernstein have cited for this Court, “ Preserving the independence and integrity of the judicial process through open and publicly scrutinized judicial proceedings is the issue.”
31. “A strong and independent judiciary is the bulwark of a free society. If there were no public access to proceedings before the trial judge, there would be no safeguard for judicial independence nor any assurance of judicial integrity.”
32. “It is the existence of the right of access that is critical to the court's autonomy, not the public's exercise of that right. Knowing the public can attend these proceedings and review judicial records helps guarantee that those matters will be conducted with due regard for the public's interest in a fair and impartial judiciary.” See, <https://casetext.com/case/florida-freedom-newspapers-v-sirmons>.
33. Minor children ultimately have to grow up and learn the laws of civil societies.
34. There is nothing in the Transcripts that relates to the actions and behaviors of the minor children and thus Alan Rose and Ted Bernstein have shown nothing specific of a compelling nature with respect to the minor children and this motion should be struck from the Calendar and denied.
35. Instead the Trial consisted of testimony and actions by Ted Bernstein’s business partners and his former counsel to him as fiduciary Robert Spallina and Donald Tescher who admitted to (i) illegally using the Mails to mail a fraudulently created invalid trust to the three minor children's prior counsel Christine Yates, (ii) that his law firm deposited fraudulent documents in the Court record in the cases, (iii) that he fraudulently used a deceased Personal Representative to fraudulently close the Estate of Shirley Bernstein in these matters leading to the reopening of the Estate of Shirley and three years of litigation costs and expenses and (iv) that he was under an SEC Consent order for Felony Insider Trading charges and other matters.

36. The SEC Consent Orders⁹ for Spallina and Tescher are already of Public Record by the Washington, DC Office of the US SEC itself naming Robert Spallina and Donald Tescher, Ted Bernstein's business partners and former disgraced counsel to him as fiduciary in these matters, who he and Alan Rose allowed to "hold onto" Original records even after Spallina's admitting to fraud that benefited his client Ted directly and also having the firm's paralegal notary public Kimberly Moran admit to criminal charges in this matter of forging documents, fraudulently notarizing them, including Post Mortem for Simon Bernstein and committing multiple frauds on the Court and beneficiaries in these matters.

37. See, "FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE 2015-213 Washington D.C., Sept. 28, 2015 — The Securities and Exchange Commission today charged five Florida residents – including two lawyers and an accountant – with insider trading in advance of the acquisition of Pharmasset

October 01, 2015 SEC Consent Orders Felony Insider Trading SPALLINA signed September 16, 2015 and TESCHER signed June 15, 2014

<http://www.iviewit.tv/Simon%20and%20Shirley%20Estate/2015%20Spallina%20and%20Tesch%20SEC%20Settlement%20Consent%20Orders%20Insider%20Trading.pdf>

Inc. by Gilead Sciences Inc. In a complaint filed in federal court in Newark, New Jersey, the SEC alleged that attorneys Robert L. Spallina and Donald R. Tescher and accountant Steven G. Rosen illegally traded on confidential information obtained from a mutual client who served on the board of directors of Princeton, New Jersey-based Pharmasset.”

38. Spallina, Tescher, Rosen, Palermo, and Markowitz collectively agreed to pay approximately $489,000 to settle the charges. The settlements are subject to court approval.

39. “Lawyers and accountants occupy special positions of trust and confidence and are required to protect the information entrusted to them by their clients,” said Joseph G. Sansone, Co-Chief of the SEC’s Market Abuse Unit. “It is illegal for them to steal their clients’ confidential information to trade securities for their own profit or to tip others.” See, <http://www.sec.gov/news/pressrelease/2015-213.html>

40. Thus, those matters regarding Ted Bernstein’s business partners and prior counsel to him as fiduciaries are already a matter of public record being made public by the federal government.

41. However in the December 15, 2015 Hearing Spallina states to Your Honor that he had not pled guilty to either felony or misdemeanor criminal conduct and yet the Consent Order signed by Spallina directly contradicts his testimony before this Court and this Court should take Judicial Notice and report such misconduct.

42. That SPALLINA perjured his testimony and further misled this court as he did plead guilty of criminal misconduct and the SEC Consent signed by SPALLINA states,

“2. Defendant [Robert Spallina has agreed to plead guilty to criminal conduct relating to certain matters alleged in the complaint in this action and acknowledges that his conduct violated the federal securities laws. Specifically, Defendant has agreed to plead guilty to a one count information which charges him with committing securities fraud involving insider trading in the securities of Pharmasset, Inc. in a matter to be filed in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, (the “Criminal Action”).”

43. Yet, in a December 15, 2015 hearing under sworn oath as a witness in a Validity Hearing before Judge PHILLIPS, SPALLINA perjured himself and stated the following from the hearing transcript Page 93 Lines 14-17¹⁰;

14 · · · · · THE COURT: You can answer the question, which
15 · · · · · is, did you plead to a felony?
16 · · · · · MR. BERNSTEIN: Sorry, sir.
17 · · · · · THE WITNESS: I have not.

44. Further, in the SEC Consent signed by SPALLINA reads,

“12. Defendant understands and agrees to comply with the term of 17 C.P.R. f 202,S(e). which provides in part that it is the Commission's policy "not to permit a defendant or respondent to consent to a judgment or order that imposes a sanction while denying the allegations in the complaint or order for proceedings." As part of Defendant's agreement to comply with the terms of Section 202.5(e), Defendant acknowledges that he has agreed to plead guilty for related conduct as described in paragraph 2 above, and: (i) will not take any action or make or permit to be made any public statement denying, directly or indirectly, any allegation in the complaint or creating the impression that the complaint is without factual basis; (ii) will not make or permit to be made any public statement to the effect that Defendant does not admit the allegations of the complaint, or that this Consent contains no admission of the allegations; (iii) upon the filing of this Consent, Defendant hereby withdraws any papers filed in this action to the extent that they deny any allegation in the complaint; and (iv) stipulates for purposes of exceptions to discharge set forth in Section 523 of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C.. §523. that the allegations in the complaint are true...”

45. No compelling circumstances are shown by Ted Bernstein and his attorney Alan Rose to gag any part of the Trial herein other than what my attorney Candice Schwager says in her Letter Email that the standard in federal court for Pleadings is to simply abbreviate the minor child’s name instead of spelling it out such as “J.B.”, “D.B”, etc. Where none of the parents of the minor children have objected on their children’s behalf either.

¹⁰ December 15, 2015 PHILLIPS VALIDITY HEARING TRANSCRIPT

46. Nothing else more than that should happen here.
47. Alan Rose and Ted Bernstein's desperate attempt to hide and conceal the Truth of the Trial is just like what the District Court of Appeals found offensive in the case their papers cited, "In essence, one of the parties wished to conduct the proceedings in private to prevent the disclosure of certain information the party would otherwise prefer not be made public. The information is of a somewhat general nature and not specifically tied to a domestic relations case.⁸The information is not related to the marital relationship nor its breakup, to the welfare of the children, nor to the marital property."
48. "This may be so, but we do not find this reason to be sufficiently compelling, rising to the level that would deny the party an opportunity to receive a fair trial, to justify closing these proceedings." District Court of Appeal of Florida, First District. 508 So.2d 462 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1987) <https://casetext.com/case/florida-freedom-newspapers-v-sirmons>
49. Having acted to repeatedly Deny minor children Counsel by denial of proper Trust funds and thus deny minor children rights, these actions now by Ted Bernstein and Alan Rose are a sham and must be denied.
50. Ted Bernstein would have this Court disregard and deny the actual history of fraud and abusive, bullying, extortive, illegal and coercive tactics and conduct of he and his business partners and his former counsel against Minor children as if Ted Bernstein had the Court on his own Payroll. 51. I, Eliot Bernstein, further renews and reminds this Court that it lacks jurisdiction to hear the matter as this Court was mandatorily disqualified at least as of Dec. 4, 2015¹³ and was further moved to mandatory disqualify Dec.28, 2015¹⁴ and thus no further action may be taken at this time beyond mandatory Disqualification.

OPPENHEIMER TRUST COMPANY
OF DELAWARE, in its capacity as
Resigned Trustee of the Simon Bernstein
Irrevocable Trusts created for the benefit

Response in Opposition To Omnibus Motion Filed Jan 07, 2016 by

vs.

in their capacity as parents and natural

_____ /

RESPONSE IN OPPOSITION TO OMNIBUS MOTION...Filed Jan 07, 2016

COMES NOW, Eliot Ivan Bernstein (“Eliot”) and Candice Michelle Bernstein (“Candice”), both PRO SE as Guardians for their three minor children (“Respondents”) and hereby files this “Response in Opposition To Omnibus Motion...” Filed Jan 07, 2016 and in support thereof states, as follows:

1. I oppose the motion by Steven Lessne in this case and the related motion by Alan M. Rose in what should be deemed a “complex” case, these motions seeking to appoint a Guardian for my children and oppose his motion for any “gag” order and since an Evidentiary Hearing and Testimony are both necessary with respect to the factual pleadings by Steven Lessne and such evidence and testimony including my own testimony on both matters which would last well beyond 30 minutes alone it is inappropriate and improper process to achieve anything at the Uniform Motion Calendar Hearing on Jan. 14, 2016 beyond Scheduling of Compliance for outstanding Discovery and Production, depositions and then an evidentiary hearing and a proper Case Management Conference for this “Complex” case.

2. This, however, naturally raises the issue of Lessne being a “resigned” Trustee and thus lacking standing herein and the Court should otherwise first schedule hearings on the motions in the related complex cases to remove Ted Bernstein as Trustee for not being qualified under the language of the trusts, for misconduct in fiduciary capacity, for waste and fraud upon the estate and other matters wherein even this very response by myself in this filing has been delayed by Representations by Creditor William Stansbury that his Florida Licensed Attorney Peter Feaman would be filing yesterday with the Court and Alan Rose a request to delay any hearing on these motions until a Status Conference / Case Management Conference for the Orderly scheduling of further hearings wherein Peter Feaman already notified this Court on Sept. 15, 2015 that removal of Ted Bernstein as Trustee should be the first order of business instead of a validity trial with Ted Bernstein as Trustee, but whereupon this Court improperly moved to Schedule Trial in Shirley Bernstein’s Trust case which was Not Notified for the Case Management Conference requested by the current PR of Simon’s Estate being Mr. Brian O’Connell and Joy Foglietta of the Ciklin Lubitz Martens & O’Connell firm who filed the Notice to bring the matter up for the Case Management Conference on Sept. 15, 2015 in the first instance.

3. Thus, both alleged Creditor William Stansbury and Florida Licensed Attorney Peter Feaman are both Necessary Witnesses in relation to the Integrity of these proceedings and the good faith efforts I have undertaken to uncover fraud upon the Court and in the Court which is directly relevant to resolution of any sham claim by attorney Steven Lessne or Alan Rose regarding guardianship, both being Florida licensed attorneys who have directly Mislead this Court in many ways including but not limited to falsely citing language from other Court orders such as Southern District of New York Judge Shira Scheindlin, or Alan Rose falsely claiming during the alleged validity trial that there has been no prior Order for Production of all Original Records by Tescher and Spallina when in fact this was part of the Discharge Order of Judge Colin to the extent any such Order of Judge Colin remains valid. See, Order of Colin on Production¹.
4. Specifically, Alan Rose, a Served Counter Defendant in the related action in this complex case has knowingly misquoted an Order of SDNY Judge Shira Scheindlin by falsely portraying a Proskauer Rose proposed language in an Order as an actual Order, quote, finding of Hon. Judge Scheindlin herself and while this conduct recently occurred in matters before the 4th DCA², this evidence is representative of the sharp practices that Alan Rose and Ted Bernstein have employed to avoid full and fair hearings, obstruct due process, and obscure actual truth seeking processes acting in conflict of interest and more while simultaneously not only denying proper funds for myself to obtain proper counsel for my minor children and myself but further denied retained Texas attorney Candice Schwager documents to review for her to further an application to be admitted pro hac vice after having opportunity to scope potential conflicts of interest between myself and minor children.

² December 17, 2015 Sur Reply Showing Alan Rose Misquoting Federal Judge Shira Scheindlin Order

5. Alan Rose falsely stated to this Court at the Case Management Conference³ that no hearings were held prior for guardianship hearings but yet Alan Rose had only a year earlier been denied⁴ by Judge Colin who claimed Eliot and Candice did not need Guardians for their children and yet Alan Rose and Lessnee not only file similar false pleadings but move in coordination in their sharp practices where both Alan Rose and Lessnee should now be Witnesses.
6. Thus, attorney Alan Rose's conduct himself in these proceedings has relevance to both Lessne and Oppenheimer's sham motion as well as Rose's sham motion for guardianship since Rose and Ted Bernstein's own conduct has caused waste and harm to beneficiaries and delayed and obstructed the fact finding and truth seeking processes of this court and thus right there alone are 3 Witnesses in addition to myself that should be part of any Evidentiary hearing relating to appointment of a Guardianship and thus arriving at a Schedule would be the most that can happen on Jan. 14, 2016, or at least should be the most that can happen on this date.
7. In fact, Florida licensed attorney Peter Feaman has directly prepared pleadings and correspondence showing myself as being the only sibling in these cases to expose fraud and forgery and other proper matters in these cases and eligible to be a Successor Trustee. See, below.

9. Then of course is the letter by Florida Licensed attorney Peter Feaman from August of 2014, nearly 17 months ago claiming PR Brian O'Connell had an absolute "duty" to file to Remove Ted Bernstein in showing failure to provide Accountings, waste of Trust assets and other matters, yet no action taken by PR O'Connell and no present follow-up by Peter Feaman although as indicated I have been delayed in this very filing by Representations of William Stansbury that Peter Feaman would be filing with the Court relative to these matters including holding hearings off until a Status or Case Management Conference but has yet to do that either, although it was represented it would be filed Tuesday, Jan., 12, 2016 further knowing I had filed for Unavailability with this Court which was served upon Alan Rose and further filed in my last opposition to the Gag order that I was under medication and needing medical care. 10. William Stansbury is further a necessary Witness as he has information relating to an ongoing Federal investigation of Ted Bernstein by the US Dept. of Labor in relation to Ted Bernstein's fiduciary actions as Plan Administrator / Trustee involving Arbitrage International an asset of the Estate and Trusts where it is likely that further financial harm to beneficiaries including my minor children has occurred according to William Stansbury and yet Alan Rose and Ted Bernstein have not only failed to Disclose these matters to the Court and parties but further failed to disclose these matters in an alleged Meeting involving Bernstein Holdings and Bernstein Family Investments where Ted Bernstein and Alan Rose .

11. Further that the Estate itself by and through Brian O’Connell and Joy Foglietta has failed to account for or provide Documents and Records that should have been in their Custody despite prior Court Ordered Production⁵ upon the former PR’s, Tescher and Spallina, after their removal after admissions to fraudulently altering and creating a fraudulent Shirley Trust that Alan Rose misleads this Court about there being no such Court Order during an alleged Validity Trial⁶ and having multiple cross examination questions sustained as a result of such misstatement to the Court where it appears that in contempt of such order for Tescher & Spallina to Produce and turn over all Originals and files, Alan Rose, alleged Fiduciary and Trustee Ted Bernstein, Brian O’Connell and Joy Foglietta and potentially others have left “Original” documents and files instead in the Custody of Tescher & Spallina where Spallina has now admitted to fraud upon beneficiaries and their counsel, mail fraud, fraud upon the Court in the filings his office prepared and other crimes and misconduct during the alleged “validity” trial before Your Honor where the PRs O’Connell & Foglietta are wholly and conspicuously absent from the “Validity trial” (despite having pleaded to the Court in the Shirley Trust Construction case that Ted was NOT A VALID TRUSTEE⁷ in the SIMON TRUST, which would have materially affected the outcome of such hearing on the Simon Trust case and Ted’s ability to argue the validity in the first place) among many other “missing Witnesses” at the alleged validity Trial such as Traci Kratish, Diana Banks, Donald

⁷ February 17, 2015 Answer Affirmative Defenses Filed by PR Attorney Brian O’Connell stating Ted is NOT A VALID TRUSTEE under the terms of the Trust.
<http://iviewit.tv/Simon%20and%20Shirley%20Estate/20150217%20Answer%20%20Affirmative%20Defenses%20O'Connell%20States%20Ted%20is%20NOT%20VALID%20TRUSTEE.pdf>

Tescher, unknown signatory witnesses, leaving the Estate of Simon Bernstein without counsel despite the fact that one of the First Orders of Business PRs O'Connell and Foglietta should have sought at the Case Management Conference held Sept. 15, 2015 which was Held and Noticed only in the Estate of Simon Bernstein is a Compliance Order to obtain all the "Originals" and files/documents from Tescher & Spallina so proper Discovery and Production could occur to prove validity but instead results in an improperly schedule Trial in Shirley's Trust case which was not Noticed for Sept. 15, 2015 as required in the procedural rules of the Court.

12. Licensed attorney Peter Feaman and his client alleged Creditor William Stansbury further being Witnesses as both claimed to have observed Donald Tescher at the Courthouse after the validity trial yet was not produced by Alan Rose suggesting Tescher's presence was under Alan Rose's control.
13. Thus, Brian O'Connell and Joy Foglietta should further be called as Necessary Witnesses in relation to the integrity of proceedings and were further factual Witnesses in relation to missing documents, missing production, missing business records and intertwined in conduct with Alan Rose in sudden emerging "original" documents from the St. Andrew's Home allegedly for the Oppenheimer matters and other dispositive Estate and Trust documents yet Creditor William Stansbury had previously stated that his Florida licensed attorney Peter Feaman suggested that a Meeting at his Office and or Brian O'Connell's Office and inviting the Palm Beach County Sheriff's for Criminal investigation and prosecution of Ted Bernstein in relation to the missing Tangible Personal Property ("TTP") should occur, thus intertwining all of the various parties as witnesses in relation to any Guardianship hearing and necessity.

14. While I understand it was filed in a different case number, Steven Lessne is intertwined with Rose on numerous issues including not only the sudden emergence of “original” documents in the Oppenheimer case but further the sharp practices conduct wherein Lessne has directly mislead this Court by an almost identical sharp practice of Alan Rose where Southern District of New York Judge Hon. Shira Scheindlin is again knowingly misquoted wherein Lessne claims Judge Scheindlin issued some nationwide injunction against me again misquoting language “proposed” by Proskauer Rose where in actuality the language Judge Scheindlin determined in the Order was as follows: “IV. CONCLUSION For the foregoing reasons, a monetary sanction in the amount of $3,500 is hereby imposed on Bernstein as is the injunctive sanction described above. The money is to be paid to the Clerk of the Court, Southern District of New York, forthwith. If Bernstein ignores the monetary sanction, defendants may obtain an enforceable judgment in the amount of $3,500. If Bernstein continues to file motions in this case, he may be subject to additional monetary sanctions. The Clerk of the Court is directed to close the motion for sanctions (Docket Entry # 145). Dated: 14 New York, New York August 29, 2013 Opposition at 13. 7⁸ “.
15. Thus, the only injunctive limitation determined by SDNY Judge Scheindlin is that if I file motions “in this case”, being the SDNY case, I “may be subject to additional monetary sanctions”, thus showing Lessne himself directly misleading this Court as a Florida licensed attorney.
16. The Court should note that Lessne left his firm Gray Robinson and took with him the Bernstein / Oppenheimer case as he transitioned to Alan Rose’s prior law firm Gunster.

⁸ August 29, 2013 Order the Most Honorable Shira A. Scheindlin
<http://www.iviewit.tv/20130829%20Scheindlin%20Order%20Sanctioning%20Bernstein.pdf>

17. To the extent any Order of Judge Colin remains valid, he has already ruled upon motions by Alan Rose and Ted Bernstein on Guardianship and the related matters and DENIED those matters. See below Orders Colin in Rose Denial Guardian Shirley Trust Construction stating no Guardian necessary and Oppenheimer denial of same, This renewed attempt on virtually the same grounds constitutes further harassment and a 2nd bite at apple hoping for a better outcome than with Judge Colin.

a. Oppenheimer Denial

18. There has been no “construction” hearing scheduled much less any full and fair hearing after proper discovery and depositions.

19. Moreover, alleged Creditor William Stansbury’s attorney has previously written to Rose directly regarding Rose’s conflicts of interest and other matters of testimony relevant at any hearing as follows:

20. I replead and re-allege the following in further opposition to any continued improper attempts at a gag order which should be denied and stricken but certainly would require an adversarial evidentiary hearing first not part of the Uniform Motion Calendar Hearing of Jan. 14, 2016 and certainly not in 10 minutes.

21. I have already had to reschedule medical/dental related appointments due to Alan Rose’s actions this New Year, I am currently on prescription medication since January 02, 2016, including painkillers and muscle relaxers and am not fit to attend hearings, which is part of the reason for my unavailability this month. This scheduling and notice is improper and further harassment and this is not the first time Alan Rose has deployed these tactics as the record for the cases reflects.

22. This is nothing but more of the same “sharp practices” and legal process abuses that Alan Rose and Trustee Ted Bernstein have perpetuated throughout the litigation.
23. Florida Licensed attorney (presently) Alan Rose and his client Ted Bernstein fail to point out to this Court their continuing Conflicts of Interest since both Alan Rose and Ted Bernstein have actively worked Against the Interests of the “grandchildren” to Shirley and Simon Bernstein by trying to block $1.7 in Life Insurance proceeds from coming into the Estate.
24. Both attorney Alan Rose and Ted Bernstein have been involved in actions which directly were contrary to the best interests of minor children by refusing to agree to a Continuance of the validity trial in Dec. 2015 even for 30 days so my minor children could have Counsel by Candice Schwager, Esq. and yet now try to claim to come to this court for the welfare of minor children. See,

25. Ted Bernstein and Alan Rose have articulated no adequate basis to impose a Gag order.

26. In fact according to the Email Letter sent by attorney Schwager today to Alan Rose (see <http://iviewit.tv/Simon%20and%20Shirley%20Estate/20160106%20Schwager%20Letter%20to%20Alan%20Rose%20to%20Cancel%20Hearings.pdf>) to seek his voluntary withdrawal of this Hearing, even one of the cases cited by Alan Rose actually has the District Court of Appeals reversing a Trial Court's Order closing a Trial from the public: "The orders of the trial court sealing the file and closing the proceedings are REVERSED. The public shall be permitted access to the court file and the transcript or reporter's notes of any proceedings in the trial court. ERVIN, J., concurs. NIMMONS, J., concurs, with written opinion."
- <https://casetext.com/case/florida-freedom-newspapers-v-sirmons>
27. There was minimal if virtually any naming of the "grandchildren" and/or "minor children" in the Trial in any event and I should have every right to inspect and have my own copy of the Transcript and this appears to be nothing more than the bully sharp practices of Alan Rose and Ted Bernstein in trying to deny due process and access to the courts and the ability to seek proper appeal, collateral attack and other motions concerning the trial.
28. As attorney Schwager pointed out in her letter, "Thus, it truly appears that your motion is more of a "smoke-screen" and "sharp practices" which are more designed to further delay, obstruct and hinder the due process rights of Eliot Bernstein and his minor children and perhaps others in the truth seeking processes by this motion which must be withdrawn."
29. In one breathe, Alan Rose and Ted Bernstein rush to push a validity Trial through that had been requested years before by Plaintiff Eliot and do so in a manner to Deny Counsel to Minor Children but now that the hour of Truth is at hand where Ted Bernstein's business partner / former business partner Robert Spallina's testimony Admitting to mail fraud, fraudulently creating an Invalid Trust and Fraud Upon the Court in these matters and related

Testimony is about to be available as it should be, Alan Rose and Ted Bernstein are now suddenly (and frantically) the big heroes for minor children and rushing in by an improperly Noticed Hearing to gag truth without providing any specific justification that this will benefit any minor children.

30. Yet, as stated by the very case Alan Rose and Ted Bernstein have cited for this Court, “ Preserving the independence and integrity of the judicial process through open and publicly scrutinized judicial proceedings is the issue.”
31. “A strong and independent judiciary is the bulwark of a free society. If there were no public access to proceedings before the trial judge, there would be no safeguard for judicial independence nor any assurance of judicial integrity.”
32. “It is the existence of the right of access that is critical to the court's autonomy, not the public's exercise of that right. Knowing the public can attend these proceedings and review judicial records helps guarantee that those matters will be conducted with due regard for the public's interest in a fair and impartial judiciary.” See, <https://casetext.com/case/florida-freedom-newspapers-v-sirmons>.
33. Minor children ultimately have to grow up and learn the laws of civil societies.
34. There is nothing in the Transcripts that relates to the actions and behaviors of the minor children and thus Alan Rose and Ted Bernstein have shown nothing specific of a compelling nature with respect to the minor children and this motion should be struck from the Calendar and denied.
35. Instead the Trial consisted of testimony and actions by Ted Bernstein’s business partners and his former counsel to him as fiduciary Robert Spallina and Donald Tescher who admitted to (i) illegally using the Mails to mail a fraudulently created invalid trust to the three minor children's prior counsel Christine Yates, (ii) that his law firm deposited fraudulent documents in the Court record in the cases, (iii) that he fraudulently used a deceased Personal Representative to fraudulently close the Estate of Shirley Bernstein in these matters leading to the reopening of the Estate of Shirley and three years of litigation costs and expenses and (iv) that he was under an SEC Consent order for Felony Insider Trading charges and other matters.

36. The SEC Consent Orders⁹ for Spallina and Tescher are already of Public Record by the Washington, DC Office of the US SEC itself naming Robert Spallina and Donald Tescher, Ted Bernstein's business partners and former disgraced counsel to him as fiduciary in these matters, who he and Alan Rose allowed to "hold onto" Original records even after Spallina's admitting to fraud that benefited his client Ted directly and also having the firm's paralegal notary public Kimberly Moran admit to criminal charges in this matter of forging documents, fraudulently notarizing them, including Post Mortem for Simon Bernstein and committing multiple frauds on the Court and beneficiaries in these matters.

37. See, "FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE 2015-213 Washington D.C., Sept. 28, 2015 — The Securities and Exchange Commission today charged five Florida residents – including two lawyers and an accountant – with insider trading in advance of the acquisition of Pharmasset

October 01, 2015 SEC Consent Orders Felony Insider Trading SPALLINA signed September 16, 2015 and TESCHER signed June 15, 2014

<http://www.iviewit.tv/Simon%20and%20Shirley%20Estate/2015%20Spallina%20and%20Tesch%20SEC%20Settlement%20Consent%20Orders%20Insider%20Trading.pdf>

Inc. by Gilead Sciences Inc. In a complaint filed in federal court in Newark, New Jersey, the SEC alleged that attorneys Robert L. Spallina and Donald R. Tescher and accountant Steven G. Rosen illegally traded on confidential information obtained from a mutual client who served on the board of directors of Princeton, New Jersey-based Pharmasset.”

38. Spallina, Tescher, Rosen, Palermo, and Markowitz collectively agreed to pay approximately $489,000 to settle the charges. The settlements are subject to court approval.

39. “Lawyers and accountants occupy special positions of trust and confidence and are required to protect the information entrusted to them by their clients,” said Joseph G. Sansone, Co-Chief of the SEC’s Market Abuse Unit. “It is illegal for them to steal their clients’ confidential information to trade securities for their own profit or to tip others.” See, <http://www.sec.gov/news/pressrelease/2015-213.html>

40. Thus, those matters regarding Ted Bernstein’s business partners and prior counsel to him as fiduciaries are already a matter of public record being made public by the federal government.

41. However in the December 15, 2015 Hearing Spallina states to Your Honor that he had not pled guilty to either felony or misdemeanor criminal conduct and yet the Consent Order signed by Spallina directly contradicts his testimony before this Court and this Court should take Judicial Notice and report such misconduct.

42. That SPALLINA perjured his testimony and further misled this court as he did plead guilty of criminal misconduct and the SEC Consent signed by SPALLINA states,

“2. Defendant [Robert Spallina has agreed to plead guilty to criminal conduct relating to certain matters alleged in the complaint in this action and acknowledges that his conduct violated the federal securities laws. Specifically, Defendant has agreed to plead guilty to a one count information which charges him with committing securities fraud involving insider trading in the securities of Pharmasset, Inc. in a matter to be filed in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, (the “Criminal Action”).”

43. Yet, in a December 15, 2015 hearing under sworn oath as a witness in a Validity Hearing before Judge PHILLIPS, SPALLINA perjured himself and stated the following from the hearing transcript Page 93 Lines 14-17¹⁰;

14 · · · · · THE COURT: You can answer the question, which
15 · · · · · is, did you plead to a felony?
16 · · · · · MR. BERNSTEIN: Sorry, sir.
17 · · · · · THE WITNESS: I have not.

44. Further, in the SEC Consent signed by SPALLINA reads,

“12. Defendant understands and agrees to comply with the term of 17 C.P.R. f 202,S(e). which provides in part that it is the Commission's policy "not to permit a defendant or respondent to consent to a judgment or order that imposes a sanction while denying the allegations in the complaint or order for proceedings." As part of Defendant's agreement to comply with the terms of Section 202.5(e), Defendant acknowledges that he has agreed to plead guilty for related conduct as described in paragraph 2 above, and: (i) will not take any action or make or permit to be made any public statement denying, directly or indirectly, any allegation in the complaint or creating the impression that the complaint is without factual basis; (ii) will not make or permit to be made any public statement to the effect that Defendant does not admit the allegations of the complaint, or that this Consent contains no admission of the allegations; (iii) upon the filing of this Consent, Defendant hereby withdraws any papers filed in this action to the extent that they deny any allegation in the complaint; and (iv) stipulates for purposes of exceptions to discharge set forth in Section 523 of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C.. §523. that the allegations in the complaint are true...”

45. No compelling circumstances are shown by Ted Bernstein and his attorney Alan Rose to gag any part of the Trial herein other than what my attorney Candice Schwager says in her Letter Email that the standard in federal court for Pleadings is to simply abbreviate the minor child’s name instead of spelling it out such as “J.B.”, “D.B”, etc. Where none of the parents of the minor children have objected on their children’s behalf either.

46. Nothing else more than that should happen here.
47. Alan Rose and Ted Bernstein's desperate attempt to hide and conceal the Truth of the Trial is just like what the District Court of Appeals found offensive in the case their papers cited, "In essence, one of the parties wished to conduct the proceedings in private to prevent the disclosure of certain information the party would otherwise prefer not be made public. The information is of a somewhat general nature and not specifically tied to a domestic relations case.⁸The information is not related to the marital relationship nor its breakup, to the welfare of the children, nor to the marital property."
48. "This may be so, but we do not find this reason to be sufficiently compelling, rising to the level that would deny the party an opportunity to receive a fair trial, to justify closing these proceedings." District Court of Appeal of Florida, First District. 508 So.2d 462 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1987) <https://casetext.com/case/florida-freedom-newspapers-v-sirmons>
49. Having acted to repeatedly Deny minor children Counsel by denial of proper Trust funds and thus deny minor children rights, these actions now by Ted Bernstein and Alan Rose are a sham and must be denied.
50. Ted Bernstein would have this Court disregard and deny the actual history of fraud and abusive, bullying, extortive, illegal and coercive tactics and conduct of he and his business partners and his former counsel against Minor children as if Ted Bernstein had the Court on his own Payroll. NORTH COUNTY BRANCH

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE
FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND
FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA

PROBATE DIVISION

CASE NO.: 502014CP002815XXXXNB (IH)

OPPENHEIMER TRUST COMPANY
OF DELAWARE, in its capacity as
Resigned Trustee of the Simon Bernstein
Irrevocable Trusts created for the benefit of Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein,

Petitioner,

vs.

ELIOT AND CANDICE BERNSTEIN,
in their capacity as parents and natural guardians of JOSHUA, JAKE AND
DANIEL BERNSTEIN, minors,

Respondents.

ORDER APPOINTING GUARDIAN AD LITEM FOR MINORS, JOSHUA, JAKE AND DANIEL BERNSTEIN

THIS CAUSE came before the Court at an evidentiary hearing held on February 25, 2016 upon the Omnibus Motion (I) To Appoint A Guardian Ad Litem For The Minor Beneficiaries Of The "Grandchildren Trusts;" (II) To Hold Eliot And Candice Bernstein In Contempt Of Court For Their Continued Violation Of A Court Order And Repeated Statements Assaulting The Dignity Of The Court; And (III) To Establish A Schedule And Protocol For Accounting And Turnover Proceedings (the "Motion") filed by Petitioner, Oppenheimer Trust Company Of Delaware ("Oppenheimer"), in its capacity as the resigned trustee of three Irrevocable Trusts settled by Simon Bernstein on September 7, 2006 for the benefit of his grandchildren, minors, Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein (the "Grandchildren Trusts"). Having considered the Motion and the arguments of the parties, taken judicial notice of the matters requested in the Motion, and being otherwise duly advised in the premises, the Court rules as follows:

1. The sole beneficiaries of the Grandchildren Trusts, and the only real parties in interest in this litigation (other than Oppenheimer), are Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein (the “Minor Beneficiaries”). Neither Eliot nor Candice Bernstein (the “Bernsteins”) were sued in their individual capacities by Oppenheimer, nor have they moved for, or been granted, permission to intervene in their individual capacities. They have been afforded standing in these proceedings, to date, solely as the parents and natural guardians of the Minor Beneficiaries.

2. The Bernsteins have been shown to have multiple conflicts of interest with the Minor Beneficiaries. For example, in their pleadings, they repeatedly allege that the trusts created for the Minor Beneficiaries’ benefit are fraudulent and that they, and not their children, are the true beneficiaries. Counter-Complaint, ¶¶ 44-50, 52-60, 65, 109-110, 186 and 253; Objection to Oppenheimer Accountings, pp. 1 and 20. In addition, the Bernsteins insist that their overarching goal in this litigation “is to bring about a change in the legal system in efforts to root out systemic corruption at the highest levels by a rogue group of criminals disguised as attorneys at law, judges, politicians and more.” Counter-Complaint, ¶ 212. No reasonable inference can be drawn that the Minor Beneficiaries have a similar interest or agenda, or that pursuing such an agenda at the risk of dissipating their own inheritance is in their best interest.

3. Eliot Bernstein also has a history of vexatious litigation and public disrespect for and disobedience to the judicial system and its officers, as detailed in Oppenheimer’s Motion. Eliot Bernstein was adjudicated a vexatious litigant by the United States District Court for the Southn Distreict of New York and enjoined from filing further specified claims in any court without its prior permission. Yet, Eliot Bernstein asserted those enjoined claims in his Counter-

Complaint in apparent violation of the injunction. The Bernsteins are in continued violation of a May 4, 2015 Order entered by Judge Martin Colin, which required compliance over nine months ago, and in recent filings with Florida appellate courts, the Bernsteins insist that all orders entered in this case “are void as a matter of law, and are of no legal force and effect.” Petition for All Writs (dated January 29, 2016), ¶ 101. Further, the Bernsteins have repeatedly alleged that multiple judges have committed fraud in their official capacities in these proceedings and that all Florida judges have conflicts of interest which prohibit them from presiding over these proceedings. Id., ¶ 106-107. All of the above, and certainly in combination, render the Bernsteins inappropriate and inadequate representatives for the Minor Beneficiaries in this litigation.

4. For the above reasons, the guardian ad litem appointed in Case No.: 502014CP003698XXXXNB shall be deemed appointed simultaneously as the guardian ad litem for the Minor Beneficiaries in this case, with sole and exclusive authority to represent the Minor Beneficiaries’ interests in this case. The guardian ad litem shall be entitled to petition for reasonable compensation for his/her services, to be paid out of the gross proceeds of any recovery, distributions or inheritance to be received by the Minor Beneficiaries from the Shirley Bernstein Trust u/a/d May 20, 2008, as amended, the Simon Bernstein Trust, and/or the Estates of Simon or Shirley Bernstein.

5. The Answer and Counter-Complaint filed by Eliot and Candice Bernstein (which they purport to file (i) “Individually, PRO SE;” (ii) “as the Natural Guardians of [the Minor Beneficiaries];” (iii) “as Guardians of the members of Bernstein Family Realty, LLC;” and (iii) “as beneficiaries of [sixteen (16) Trusts, two (2) Estates, and multiple] Corporate Entities set up by Simon and Shirley Bernstein”), and the “Objection to Final Accounting; Petition for Formal, Detailed Audited and Forensic Accounting and Document Production” (the “Objection”) filed by Eliot and Candice Bernstein, "individually and on behalf of [their] minor children, who are alleged qualified beneficiaries of Settlor's Estate and Trusts," are hereby stricken.

6. The guardian ad litem shall have 45 days from his/her appointment within which to file a response to Oppenheimer's Petition and objections, if any, to Oppenheimer's accountings.

7. Oppenheimer and the guardian ad litem shall confer in good faith regarding a resolution of this matter and/or a timeframe within which to try any unresolved issues.

8. Neither Eliot nor Candice Bernstein shall take any action which interferes with the guardian ad litem's duties.

9. ^{The pending Motion for Contempt as to} Eliot and Candice Bernstein ~~are also held to be in contempt of court~~ for their willful violation of Judge Martin Colin's May 4, 2015 Order, ^{in MOST.} ~~The Court withholds coercive sanctions based upon the appointment of a guardian ad litem and striking of the Bernsteins' pleadings, which renders the Bernsteins' compliance moot.~~

Petitioner,

NOTICE TO COURT REGARDING SELECTION OF GUARDIAN AD LITEM

Petitioner, OPPENHEIMER TRUST COMPANY OF DELAWARE (“Oppenheimer”), as the resigned trustee of three irrevocable trusts created by the late Simon Bernstein for the benefit of his minor grandchildren, Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein (the “Grandchildren Trusts”), notifies this Court as follows pursuant to the Order entered in this case, and the companion Order entered in Case No. 502014CP003698XXXXNB, on March 1, 2016:

1. The parties have conferred and all parties, other than Eliot and Candice Bernstein, have agreed on the appointment of retired Judge Diana Lewis as guardian ad litem for minor beneficiaries Joshua, Jake and Daniel Bernstein (the “Minor Beneficiaries”).

2. As of the date of this filing, Eliot and Candice Bernstein have not proposed an alternate guardian ad litem.

3. In an effort to comply with this Court's directive for each party to "submit a list of three names of potential guardian *ad litem*s, each of whom has agreed to accept the appointment if selected," see Order entered in Case No. 502014CP003698XXXXNB, ¶ 8, Oppenheimer, through the undersigned, contacted several Florida attorneys located in Palm Beach County; however, none of them would agree to accept the appointment if selected.

4. Oppenheimer consents to the appointment of retired Judge Diana Lewis, or any Florida-licensed lawyer located in Palm Beach County that is selected by the Court, as guardian ad litem.

Respectfully submitted,
