- If you still have an outstanding balance after we make these seizures, we may send you a notice giving you a right to a hearing before the IRS Office of Appeals, if you have not already received such a notice. We may then seize ("levy") or take possession of your other property or your rights to property. Property includes:
  - Wages, real estate commissions, and other income
  - Bank accounts
  - Business assets
  - Personal assets (including your car and home)
  - Social Security benefits
- If you don't pay the amount due or call us to make payment arrangements, we can file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien on your property at any time, if we haven't already done so.
- If the lien is in place, you may find it difficult to sell or borrow against your property. The tax lien would also appear on your credit report—which may harm your credit rating—and your creditors would also be publicly notified that the IRS has priority to seize your property.
- If you don't pay your tax debt, we have the right to seize ("levy") your property.

Request for Payment U.S. Fiduciary Income Tax Return

Our records show you owe $16,316.82 on your return for the above tax period.

What You Need to Do

Pay the amount you owe now by using one of the following methods. To avoid additional penalty and/or interest, we must receive your payment by November 26, 2012. The Electronic Federal Tax Payment System (EFTPS) is the preferred method to ensure your tax payments are on time and secure.

- EFTPS
  - If you are currently enrolled, go to www.eftps.gov or call 1-800-555-4477.
  - To learn more about EFTPS and other electronic payment options, including credit card payments, visit www.irs.gov keyword: e-pay.

- Check or Money Order
  - Make your check or money order payable to the United States Treasury;
  - Write your taxpayer identification number, tax form number, tax period, and your phone number on your payment; and
  - Mail your payment with the payment voucher located at the bottom of this notice in the enclosed envelope.

If you choose to pay by check or money order, please allow enough mailing time so that we receive your payment by November 26, 2012.

If you believe this notice is incorrect, please call us at 1-800-829-0115. When you call, please have your payment information and a copy of your return available. This information will help us find any payment you made that we haven't applied.

Penalty and Interest

About Your Notice - The penalty and/or interest charges on your account are explained on the following pages. If you want a more detailed explanation of your penalties and interest, please call the telephone number listed on the top of this notice. You may call your local IRS telephone number if the number shown on your notice is a long-distance call for you. All days mentioned in the paragraphs below are calendar days, unless specifically stated otherwise.

01 Penalty for Filing Return Late $2,866.72

We charged a penalty because you filed your return late. We use the number of months the return is late to determine the penalty. If you filed more than 60 days late, the minimum penalty may apply. The minimum penalty is the lesser of $100 or 100% of the tax due, for returns due before 12/31/2008. For returns due after 12/31/2008, the minimum penalty is the lesser of $135 or 100% of the tax due. If you disagree with this penalty, see "Removal of Penalties" in this notice. To avoid this penalty in the future, you should file your returns by the return due date.

(Internal Revenue Code section 6651)

The table below shows how we figured your penalty. We multiplied the number of months times the monthly rate times the principal.

Date	No. Months	Rate/Month	Principal	Penalty
09/15/2012	05	4.50%	12,741.00	2,866.72
			Total Penalty:	2,866.72

07 Paying Late $445.93

We charged a penalty because you paid your taxes late. We count part of a month as a full month. If you disagree with this penalty, see "Removal of Penalties" in this notice. To avoid this penalty in the future, you should pay your taxes by the due date. Even if you have an extension to file your tax return, you do not have additional time to pay your tax.

"Party" or "Parties", shall refer to and mean an individual defined above whom shall sign on and be bound by this Settlement Agreement, and Parties shall refer to the individuals collectively.

"Trust", as defined herein refers to and means the Simon L. Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust dtd 6/21/95.

RECITAL'S

WHEREAS, the Parties are all of the children and grandchildren of the marriage of Simon L. Bernstein and Shirley Bernstein;

WHEREAS, Simon L. Bernstein established the Trust in 1995 for the benefit of his wife,

Shirley Bernstein, and their children, the Parties;

WHEREAS, Shirley Bernstein predeceased Simon L. Bernstein, and Simon L. Bernstein passed away on September 13, 2012;

WHEREAS, after a diligent search by the Parties, an executed copy of the Trust can not be found;

WHEREAS, the Trust is the beneficiary of life insurance policy number 1009208 issued by Heritage Union Life Insurance Company (the "Insurer") on the life of Simon L. Bernstein (the "Policy");

WHEREAS, the Parties desire to achieve the intent of Simon L. Bernstein on or about the date of the Trust and resolve any and all disputes and controversies that have arisen or may arise regarding the distribution of the death benefit proceeds of the Policy.

WITNESSETH

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the following covenants, promises and obligations, as well as other good and valuable consideration, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged; it is agreed by and between the Parties as follows:

COVENANTS

1. TED is appointed and hereby accepts the appointment to act as Trustee of the Trust.
2. That TED, as Trustee, shall open a bank account in the name of the Trust (the "Trust Account").
3. That TED, as Trustee shall deposit or direct the Insurer to deposit the death benefit proceeds of the Policy into the Trust Account.
4. That TED, as Trustee, shall pay expenses of the Trust including the cost of filing a tax return from the proceeds in the Trust Account.
5. That TED, as Trustee, shall distribute all remaining proceeds in the Trust Account equally (in 20% shares) to each of TED, PAM, ELIOT, JILL and LISA.

6. That TED, as Trustee, upon completing the distribution in ¶5 above and the filing of the tax return contemplated in ¶4 above shall close the Trust Account.

7. Upon receipt of the Settlement Agreement executed by all Parties and upon fulfillment of all of the covenants and obligations contained in ¶1 through ¶6 above, TED, PAM, ELIOT, JILL, AND LISA, ALLY, ERIC, MICHAEL, MOLLY, THE ELIOT CHILDREN, THE JILL CHILD AND THE LISA CHILDREN and each of them in their own individual capacity, shall respectively acquit, release, and forever discharge TED, both individually and as Trustee, and each and every other Party from any and all claims, demands, liabilities, obligations, causes and causes of action of whatever kind or nature, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected by each of them, which each of them now owns or holds or at any time heretofore owned or held as against each other arising out of any matter related to or associated with the Policy and/or the Trust, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, all claims, demands, liabilities, obligations, causes and causes of action arising out of or in any way connected with: a) the receipt of the death benefit proceeds of the Policy by the Trust; b) arising out of or in any way connected to the operation and management of the Trust, or the actual terms of the Trust in the event it should be located subsequent to the date of this Agreement regardless as to whether all of the covenants and obligations of this Agreement have been executed to completion.

8. All demands and notices given hereunder shall be sent by mail addressed to the respective Parties with a copy to David B. Simon, The Simon Law Firm, 303 E. Wacker Dr., Suite 210, Chicago, IL 60601-5210.

9. The Parties hereby represent to one another that they have full power and authority to enter into this Settlement Agreement and carry out their obligations hereunder. All Parties further represent that this Settlement Agreement has been duly executed and delivered.

10. This Settlement Agreement embodies the entire understanding of the Parties. All prior correspondence, conversations, memoranda and agreements have been merged into and replaced by this Settlement Agreement.

11. If a Party breaches this Settlement Agreement, the breaching Party shall reimburse the non-breaching Parties for all reasonable costs, attorney's fees, and expenses incurred by them in enforcing the terms and provisions of the Settlement Agreement.

12. This Settlement Agreement shall (i) be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois and all claims or controversies arising out of this Settlement Agreement shall be brought within the exclusive jurisdiction of the State of Illinois; (ii) inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Parties themselves, as well as their respective heirs, executors, predecessors, successors and assigns.

13. All Parties have been represented by counsel, or have had the opportunity to seek the advice of counsel, and if they have sought counsel then such counsel has reviewed this Settlement Agreement and recommended that their respective clients enter into it.

14. This Settlement Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, all of which, when taken together, shall constitute an original. Facsimile signatures of the Parties shall as valid and binding as original signatures.

15. Should any provision contained in this Agreement be deemed illegal or unenforceable as a matter of law, the remainder of this Agreement shall remain binding and continue in full force and effect.

16. The signatories state that they have read and understand this Settlement Agreement and that they intend to be legally bound by the same.

Agreed and accepted this date and year first written above.

Chris – as discussed, please raise enough cash in the Bernstein LLLP account (in the most tax efficient manner possible) to pay off the loan. After the loan is paid, please make a final distribution from the LLLP of its assets to the respective partners accounts pro-rata as follows - Si Trust (49.5%), Shirley Trust (49.5%) and Bernstein Holdings (1%). Bernstein Holdings should then be liquidated among its partners (Si and Shirley Trusts 50/50). We would like to have both the LLC and LLLP accounts closed before year end so that we can prepare final returns for 2012. Please contact me if you have any questions.

Hi Robert!
Hope all is well with you and you had a nice holiday :)
I met with Ted and he told me about your discussion regarding Eliot and the kids and my position etc.... I would like to hand over all responsibility of bills etc. to Eliot and Candice and put them in contact with Janet Craig for future trust disbursement for their bills. Am I legally allowed to do so? I can just give them the checkbook to the Legacy account and let them do everything?
It has just reached a point where I know if Shirley and Si were alive a lot would be different and I don't see why I am needed as the middleman for them to Janet. Below I prepared an email to send to Janet if you think this is OK... If you could take a look and please let me know your thoughts then I will proceed.
Thanks,
Rachel

Hi Janet!
I hope you had a great weekend!
As of now, I am responsible for the bills at 2753 NW 34th Street where Eliot (the late Simon Bernstein's son), Candice, Joshua, Jacob and Daniel live. This was a part of my job while working for Shirley and Simon. Now that they are both passed and am unemployed by them I have still kept responsibility out of my caring for them and the family. However, recently Eliot has taken great interest in wanting the responsibility and keeping track of his expenses. Attached is a spreadsheet he made of all the boys expenses which he is seeking reimbursement for. I feel that me being a middleman is kind of pointless as I am now working full time at another company. Of course if you or he needs anything I am always available to email or call to help answer any questions but I feel that I should put you in contact with Eliot and Candice for the future. Call me if you have any questions 561-275-8102.
Thanks so much!
Rachel

[1] The years indicate the number of years until the bond is scheduled to mature based on the statement end date. Some bonds may be called, or paid in full, before their stated maturity.

Note: P indicates position adjusted for Pending Trade Activity.
[1] This is the Annual Percentage Yield (APY) which is the rate earned if balances remain on deposit for a full year with compounding, there is no change in the interest rate and all interest is left in the account.

 Unrealized Gain/Loss is shown as "N/A" in cases where we do not have appropriate cost information for all tax lots comprising the position. Please contact your J.P. Morgan team for additional information.

J.P.Morgan

For the Period 8/1/12 to 8/31/12

For your convenience we have combined statement(s) for activity you conduct through J.P. Morgan in one package. Below are important disclosures relating to these different accounts. These statements may relate to various account types. Some of the disclosures are applicable to all of your accounts. For ease of reference the disclosures applicable to a particular type of account have been grouped together by descriptive headers.

IMPORTANT GENERAL INFORMATION APPLICABLE TO ALL OF YOUR ACCOUNT(S)

Important Information about Pricing ,Valuations, Estimated Annual Income, and Estimated Yield

Market value information (including without limitation, prices, exchange rates, accrued income and bond ratings) furnished herein, some of which has been provided by pricing sources that J.P. Morgan believes to be reliable, is not guaranteed for accuracy but provided for informational purposes and is furnished for the exclusive use of the client.

The current price is the value of the financial asset share, unit or contract as priced at the close of the market on the last day of the statement period or the last available price. All values provided for structured yield deposits (for example, JPMorgan London Time Deposits) reflect the original deposit amount only. The value for Real Estate, Mineral Interests and Miscellaneous Assets may not reflect the most current value of the asset.

Important information regarding Auction Rate Securities (ARS). ARS are debt or preferred securities with an interest or dividend rate reset periodically in an auction. Although there may be daily, weekly and monthly resets, there is no guarantee that there will be liquidity. If there are not enough bids at an auction to redeem the securities available for sale, the result may be a failed auction. In the event of a failed auction, there is no assurance that a secondary market will develop or that the security will trade at par or any other price reflected on statements and online. Accordingly, investors should not rely on pricing information appearing in their statements or online with respect to ARS. When J.P. Morgan is unable to obtain a price from an internal or outside source for a particular ARS, the price column on your statement will indicate "unpriced".

Valuations of over-the-counter derivative transactions, including certain derivatives-related deposit products, have been prepared on a mid-market basis. These valuations are sourced from the various issuers of the securities or they are sourced from a third party valuation provider. J.P. Morgan expressly disclaims any responsibility for (1) the accuracy of the models or estimates used in deriving the valuations, (2) any errors or omissions in computing or disseminating the valuations, and (3) any uses to which the valuations are put. Valuations are provided for information purposes only and are intended solely for your own use. Please refer to the trade confirmation for details of each transaction.

Certain assets, including but not limited to, pooled and private investments, non-publicly traded and infrequently traded securities, derivatives, partnership interests and tangible assets are generally illiquid, the value of such asset may have been provided to us by third parties who may or may not be independent of the issuer or manager. Such information is reflected as of the last date provided to us, and is not independently verified.

In cases where we are unable to obtain a current market value from an internal or outside source for a particular security, the price column on your statement will indicate "unpriced". Although such securities may have value, please note that the value of a security indicated as "unpriced" will not be included in your overall current market value as reflected on the statement.

J.P. Morgan makes no representation, warranty or guarantee, express or implied, that any quoted value represents the actual terms at which securities could be bought or sold or new transactions could be entered into, or the actual terms on which existing transactions or securities could be liquidated. Such values may only be indicative.

When we are unable to obtain a current value from an internal or outside source for a particular security, the price column on your statement will indicate "unpriced".

If a partial call is made with respect to an issue of securities included in your Accounts we will allocate the call by a method we deem fair and equitable.

To the extent applicable, please note the following regarding estimated annual income (EAI) and estimated yield (EY): EAI and EY for certain types of securities could include a return of principal or capital gains in which case the EAI and EY would be overstated. EAI and EY are estimates and the actual income and yield might be lower or higher than the estimated amounts. EY reflects only the income generated by an investment. It does not reflect changes in its price, which may fluctuate.

Fund manager disclosure information available upon request

If you have an investment account that is managed by an SEC-Registered Investment Advisor, J.P. Morgan will provide a copy of the advisor's Form ADV II or brochure upon written request.

These statements are not official documents for income tax reporting purposes and should not be relied upon for such purposes, including determination of income, cost basis, amortization or accretion, or gain/loss. Such information, which may be inaccurate, incomplete or subject to updating, should be confirmed with your records and your tax advisor.

Please take the steps indicated below if you think statement(s) are incorrect or contact your J.P.Morgan team if you require additional information about a transaction on your statement(s).

IMPORTANT ADDITIONAL INFORMATION APPLICABLE ONLY TO YOUR ASSET ACCOUNT(S) (LINKED TO JPMS)

Your Asset Account consists of a bank account that custodies assets linked to a brokerage account through which securities transactions are executed. As a result, the Asset Account statement(s) reflect brokerage transactions executed through JPMS but (except for exchange listed options) held in custody at JPMCB. Securities purchased or sold through JPMS in U.S. markets (other then mutual funds) are cleared through an affiliate of JPMS, in non-U.S. markets securities are cleared through JPMS. Positions in exchange-listed options are held by JPMCC. For your convenience, however, positions in exchange-listed options are presented in Asset Account statement(s) together with other assets held in such account(s). All pertinent information about your settled and pending purchases and sales effected through your JPMS account during the period covered by these statement(s), is summarized in the "Trade Activity" portion of the statement(s).

In Case of Other Errors or Questions About Your Asset Account Statement(s)

Please review your statement(s) and promptly report any inaccuracy or discrepancy including possible unauthorized trading activity, unrecorded dividend payments, unaccounted cash positions, improper payments or transfers in writing to both the introducing broker, JPMS and the clearing firm, JPMCC at the addresses shown on your statement(s). Any oral communication should be re-confirmed in writing to further protect your rights, including your rights under the Securities Investor Protection Act (SIPA). If you have any questions please contact your J.P.Morgan team.

In your written communication, please provide the following information: (1) your name and account number; (2) the dollar amount of the suspected error; and (3) a description of the error and explanation, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, you must describe the item you are unsure about. We must receive your written communication no later than 30 days after the statement on which the error or problem appeared is sent or made available. If you do not so notify us, you agree that the statement activity and account balance(s) are correct.

JPMCC and JPMS are members of the Securities Investor Protection Corp ("SIPC"), a not-for-profit membership corporation funded by broker-dealers registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Securities and cash held for a customer at JPMCC are protected by SIPC up to $500,000 per customer, which includes up to $250,000 of protection for cash. SIPC does not protect against losses from fluctuations in the value of the securities. Assets held in custody by JPMCB are not subject to SIPC. You may obtain information about SIPC, including the SIPC Brochure, on their website, at "www.sipc.org" or by contacting them at (202) 371-8300.

In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Electronic Transfers.

J.P.Morgan

For the Period 8/1/12 to 8/31/12

Contact your J.P. Morgan Team at one of the telephone numbers on the front of your statements or write us at J.P. Morgan, 500 Stanton Christiana Road, 1/OPS3, Newark, DE 19713-2107 as soon as you can, if you think your statement is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer on the statement. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared. (1) Tell us your name and account number. (2) Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information. (3) Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error. We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (or 20 business days for new accounts) to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

In Case of Errors or Questions About Non-Electronic Transfers (Checks or Deposits)

Contact JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. ("JPMCB") Member FDIC immediately if a statement is incorrect or if you need more information about any non-electronic transactions (checks or deposits) on this statement. If any such error appears, you must notify the bank in writing as soon as possible after your statement was made available to you. For more complete details, see the applicable account agreements and appendices that govern your account.

Deposit products and services are offered by JPMCB Member FDIC.

You must promptly advise your J.P.Morgan representative of material changes in your investment objectives or financial situation or if you wish to modify the management of your account. Unless you inform otherwise, your J.P.Morgan representative will consider the information currently in its files to be complete and accurate.

With reference to JPMS and JPMCC: A financial statement of this organization is available to you for personal inspection at its offices, or a copy will be mailed to you upon written request.

You should have received (or have made available to you) separate confirmations for each securities transaction. All transactions are subject to the terms and conditions stated on the reverse side of such confirmations and are subject to the constitution, by-laws, customs and interpretations of the marketplace where executed and governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York and all applicable federal laws and regulations. Further information with respect to commissions and other charges related to the execution of transactions, including options transactions, has been included in confirmations that were previously furnished or have made available to you. Upon written request, JPMS will promptly supply you with the latest information.

PRODUCT RELATED DISCLOSURE: THE JPMORGAN FUNDS OR THIRD PARTIES

Shares of the funds referenced above are not bank deposits and are not guaranteed by any bank, government entity, or the FDIC. Return and share price will fluctuate and redemption value may be more or less than original cost. While the money market funds seek to maintain a stable net asset value of $1.00 per share, there is no assurance that they will continue to do so. The estimated annual income and dividend yield figures for mutual funds represent the funds' most recent income dividend annualized.

Prospectuses and other fund information for JPMorgan funds may be obtained by calling your J.P. Morgan team or JPMorgan Distribution Services, Inc. at (800) 480-4111. You also may view and order materials online for JPMorgan funds at www.jpmorganfunds.com.

J.P. Morgan affiliates may receive compensation from the JPMorgan funds for providing investment advisory services to the funds. J.P. Morgan affiliates may also provide administrative, custodial, sales, distribution, shareholder or other services to the JPMorgan Funds or funds established, sponsored, advised, or managed by third parties, and J.P. Morgan affiliates may be compensated for such services as allowed by applicable law. The distributor of the JPMorgan Funds is JPMorgan Distribution Services, Inc., which is an affiliate of JPMCB.

Assets may be reflected herein even though they may be held by a third party unaffiliated with J.P. Morgan. In such cases, unless J.P. Morgan otherwise agrees, J.P. Morgan has no responsibility for the verification, valuation, safekeeping or management of those assets.

SIMON L. BERNSTEIN

AMENDED AND RESTATED TRUST AGREEMENT

This Amended and Restated Trust Agreement is dated this 26 day of July, 2012, and is between SIMON L. BERNSTEIN, of Palm Beach County, Florida referred to in the first person, as settlor, and SIMON L. BERNSTEIN, of Palm Beach County, Florida and SIMON L. BERNSTEIN's successors, as trustee (referred to as the "Trustee," which term more particularly refers to all individuals and entities serving as trustee of a trust created hereunder during the time of such service, whether alone or as co-trustees, and whether originally serving or as a successor trustee).

WHEREAS, on May 20, 2008, I created and funded the SIMON L. BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT (the "Trust Agreement," which reference includes any subsequent amendments of said trust agreement);

WHEREAS, Paragraph A. of Article I. of said Trust Agreement provides, inter alia, that during my lifetime I shall have the right at any time and from time to time by an instrument, in writing, delivered to the Trustee to amend or revoke said Trust Agreement, in whole or in part.

NOW, THEREFORE, I hereby amend and restate the Trust Agreement in its entirety and the Trustee accepts and agrees to perform its duties and obligations in accordance with the following amended provisions. Notwithstanding any deficiencies in execution or other issues in regard to whether any prior version of this Trust Agreement was a valid and binding agreement or otherwise created an effective trust, this amended and restated agreement shall constitute a valid, binding and effective trust agreement and shall amend and succeed all prior versions described above or otherwise predating this amended and restated Trust Agreement.

ARTICLE I. DURING MY LIFE AND UPON MY DEATH

A. Rights Reserved. I reserve the right (a) to add property to this trust during my life or on my death, by my Will or otherwise; (b) to withdraw property held hereunder; and (c) by separate written instrument delivered to the Trustee, to revoke this Agreement in whole or in part and otherwise modify or amend this Agreement.

B. Payments During My Life. If income producing property is held in the trust during my life, the Trustee shall pay the net income of the trust to me or as I may direct. However, during any periods while I am Disabled, the Trustee shall pay to me or on my behalf such amounts of the net income and principal of the trust as is proper for my Welfare. Any income not so paid shall be added to principal.

C. Upon My Death. Upon my death the Trustee shall collect and add to the trust all amounts due to the trust under any insurance policy on my life or under any death benefit plan and all property added to the trust by my Will or otherwise. After paying or providing for the payment from the augmented trust of all current charges and any amounts payable under the later paragraph captioned "Death Costs," the Trustee shall hold the trust according to the following provisions.

ARTICLE II. AFTER MY DEATH

A. Disposition of Tangible Personal Property. If any non-business tangible personal property other than cash (including, but not limited to, my personal effects, jewelry, collections, household furnishings, and equipment, and automobiles) is held in the trust at the time of my death, such items shall be promptly distributed by the Trustee of the trust to such person or persons, including my estate, as to the item or items or proportion specified, as I may appoint, and to the extent that any such items are not disposed of by such appointment, such items shall be disposed of by the Trustee of the trust in exactly the same manner as such items would have been disposed of under the terms and provisions of my Will (including any Codicil thereto, or what the Trustee in good faith believes to be such Will and Codicil) had such items been included in my probate estate. Any such items which are not effectively disposed of pursuant to the preceding sentence shall pass with the other trust assets.

B. Disposition of Trust Upon My Death. Upon my death, the remaining assets in this trust shall be divided among and held in separate Trusts for my then living grandchildren. Each of my grandchildren for whom a separate trust is held hereunder shall hereinafter be referred to as a "beneficiary" with the separate Trusts to be administered as provided in Subparagraph II.C.

C. Trusts for Beneficiaries. The Trustee shall pay to the beneficiary and the beneficiary's children, such amounts of the net income and principal of such beneficiary's trust as is proper for the Welfare of such individuals. Any income not so paid shall be added to principal each year. After a beneficiary has reached any one or more of the following birthdays, the beneficiary may withdraw the principal of his or her separate trust at any time or times, not to exceed in the aggregate 1/3 in value after the beneficiary's 25th birthday, 1/2 in value (after deducting any amount previously subject to withdrawal but not actually withdrawn) after the beneficiary's 30th birthday, and the balance after the beneficiary's 35th birthday, provided that the withdrawal powers described in this sentence shall not apply to any grandchild of mine as beneficiary of a separate trust. The value of each trust shall be its value as of the first exercise of each withdrawal right, plus the value of any subsequent addition as of the date of addition. The right of withdrawal shall be a privilege which may be exercised only voluntarily and shall not include an involuntary exercise. If a beneficiary dies with assets remaining in his or her separate trust, upon the beneficiary's death the beneficiary may appoint his or her trust to or for the benefit of one or more of any of my lineal descendants (excluding from said class, however, such beneficiary and such beneficiary's creditors, estate, and creditors of such beneficiary's estate). Any part of his or her trust such beneficiary does not effectively appoint shall upon his or her death be divided among and held in separate Trusts for the following persons:

1. for his or her lineal descendants then living, per stirpes; or

2. if he or she leaves no lineal descendant then living, per stirpes for the lineal descendants then living of his or her nearest ancestor (among me and my lineal descendants) with a lineal descendant then living.

A trust for a lineal descendant of mine shall be held under this paragraph, or if a trust is then so held, shall be added to such trust.

D. Termination of Small Trust. If at any time after my death in the opinion of the Trustee a separate trust holds assets of a value of less than $50,000.00 and is too small to justify the expense of its retention, and termination of such trust is in the best interests of its current income beneficiary, the Trustee in its discretion may terminate such trust and pay it to said beneficiary.

E. Contingent Gift. If at any time property of these Trusts is not disposed of under the other provisions of this Agreement, it shall be paid, as a gift made hereunder, to such persons and in such shares as such property would be distributed if I had then owned such property and had then died solvent, unmarried and intestate domiciled in the State of Florida, according to the laws of inheritance of the State of Florida then in effect.

F. Protective Provision. No beneficiary of any trust herein created shall have any right or power to anticipate, transfer, pledge, sell, alienate, assign or encumber in any way his or her interest in the income or principal of such trust. Furthermore, no creditor shall have the right to attach, lien, seize or levy upon the interest of a beneficiary in this trust (other than myself) and such interest shall not be liable for or subject to the debts, liabilities or obligations of any such beneficiary or any claims against such beneficiary (whether voluntarily or involuntarily created), and the Trustee shall pay directly to or for the use or benefit of such beneficiary all income and principal to which such beneficiary is entitled, notwithstanding that such beneficiary has executed a pledge, assignment, encumbrance or in any other manner alienated or transferred his or her beneficial interest in the trust to another. This paragraph shall not preclude the effective exercise of any power of appointment granted herein or the exercise of any disclaimer.

G. Maximum Duration. Regardless of anything in this Agreement to the contrary, no trust interest herein created shall continue beyond three hundred sixty (360) years after the date of creation of this Agreement, nor shall any power of appointment be exercised in such manner so as to delay vesting of any trust beyond such period. Immediately prior to the expiration of such period, all such trusts then in existence shall terminate, and the assets thereof shall be distributed outright and in fee to then beneficiaries of the current income and in the proportions in which such persons are the beneficiaries, and if such proportions cannot be ascertained, then equally among such beneficiaries.

ARTICLE III. GENERAL

A. Disability. Subject to the following Subparagraph captioned "Subchapter S Stock," while any beneficiary is Disabled, the Trustee shall pay to him or her only such portion of the income to which he or she is otherwise entitled as is proper for his or her Welfare, and any income not so paid shall be added to the principal from which derived. While any beneficiary is Disabled, income or principal payable to him or her may, in the discretion of the Trustee, be paid directly to him or her, without the intervention of a guardian, directly to his or her creditors or others for his or her sole benefit or to an adult person or an eligible institution (including the Trustee) selected by the Trustee as custodian for a minor beneficiary under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act or similar law. The receipt of such payee is a complete release to the Trustee.

B. Timing of Income Distributions. The Trustee shall make required payments of income at least quarterly.

C. Substance Abuse.

1. In General. If the Trustee reasonably believes that a beneficiary (other than myself)of any trust:

a. routinely or frequently uses or consumes any illegal substance so as to be physically or psychologically dependent upon that substance, or

b. is clinically dependent upon the use or consumption of alcohol or any other legal drug or chemical substance that is not prescribed by a board certified medical doctor or psychiatrist in a current program of treatment supervised by such doctor or psychiatrist, and if the Trustee reasonably believes that as a result the beneficiary is unable to care for himself or herself, or is unable to manage his or her financial affairs, all mandatory distributions (including distributions upon termination of the trust) to the beneficiary, all of the beneficiary's withdrawal rights, and all of the beneficiary's rights to participate in decisions concerning the removal and appointment of Trustees will be suspended. In that event, the following provisions of this Subparagraph III.C will apply.

2. Testing. The Trustee may request the beneficiary to submit to one or more examinations (including laboratory tests of bodily fluids) determined to be appropriate by a board certified medical doctor and to consent to full disclosure to the Trustee of the results of all such examinations. The Trustee shall maintain strict confidentiality of those results and shall not disclose those results to any person other than the beneficiary without the prior written permission of the beneficiary. The Trustee may totally or partially suspend all distributions otherwise required or permitted to be made to that beneficiary until the beneficiary consents to the examination and disclosure to the Trustee.

3. Treatment. If, in the opinion of the examining doctor, the examination indicates current or recent use of a drug or substance as described above, the examining doctor will determine an appropriate method of treatment for the beneficiary (for example, counseling or treatment on an in-patient basis in a rehabilitation facility) that is acceptable to the Trustee. If the beneficiary consents to the treatment, the Trustee shall pay the costs of treatment directly to the provider of those services from the distributions suspended under this Subparagraph III.C.

4. Resumption of Distributions. The Trustee may resume other distributions to the beneficiary (and the beneficiary's other suspended rights will be restored) when, in the case of use or consumption of an illegal substance, examinations indicate no such use for 12 months and, in all cases, when the Trustee in its discretion determines that the beneficiary is able to care for himself or herself and is able to manage his or her financial affairs.

5. Disposition of Suspended Amounts. When other distributions to the beneficiary are resumed, the remaining balance, if any, of distributions that were suspended may be distributed to the beneficiary at that time. If the beneficiary dies before distribution of those suspended amounts, the Trustee shall distribute the balance of the suspended amounts to the persons who would be the alternate takers of that beneficiary's share (or takers through the exercise of a power of appointment) as otherwise provided in this Trust Agreement.

6. Exoneration. No Trustee (or any doctor retained by the Trustee) will be responsible or liable to anyone for a beneficiary's actions or welfare. The Trustee has no duty to inquire whether a beneficiary uses drugs or other substances as described in this Subparagraph III.C. The Trustee (and any doctor retained by the Trustee) is to be indemnified from the trust estate and held harmless from any liability of any nature in exercising its judgment and authority under this Subparagraph III.C, including any failure to request a beneficiary to submit to medical examination, and including a decision to distribute suspended amounts to a beneficiary.

7. Tax Savings Provision. Despite the provisions of this Subparagraph III.C, the Trustee cannot suspend any mandatory distributions or withdrawal rights that are required for that trust to become or remain a Qualified Subchapter S Trust (unless the Trustee elects for the trust to be an Electing Small Business Trust), or to qualify for any federal transfer tax exemption, deduction, or exclusion allowable with respect to that trust.

D. Income on Death of Beneficiary. Subject to the later paragraph captioned "Subchapter S Stock," and except as otherwise explicitly provided herein, upon the death of any beneficiary, all accrued or undistributed income of such deceased beneficiary's trust shall pass with the principal of his or her trust but shall remain income for trust accounting purposes.

E. Definitions. In this Agreement,

1. Children, Lineal Descendants. The terms "child," "children," "grandchild," "grandchildren" and "lineal descendant" mean only persons whose relationship to the ancestor designated is created entirely by or through (a) legitimate births occurring during the marriage of the joint biological parents to each other, (b) children born of female lineal descendants, and (c) children and their lineal descendants arising from surrogate births and/or third party donors when (i) the child is raised from or near the time of birth by a married couple (other than a same sex married couple) through the pendency of such marriage, (ii) one of such couple is the designated ancestor, and (iii) to the best knowledge of the Trustee both members of such couple participated in the decision to have such child. No such child or lineal descendant loses his or her status as such through adoption by another person. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for all purposes of this Trust and the dispositions made hereunder, my children, TED S. BERNSTEIN, PAMELA B. SIMON, ELIOT BERNSTEIN, JILL IANTONI and LISA S. FRIEDSTEIN, shall be deemed to have predeceased me as I have adequately provided for them during my lifetime.

2. Code. "Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and in referring to any particular provision of the Code, includes a reference to any equivalent or successor provision of a successor federal tax law.

3. Disabled. "Disabled" or being under "Disability" means, as to any applicable individual: (1) being under the age of 21 years, (2) having been adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction as mentally or physically incompetent or unable to manage his or her own property or personal affairs (or a substantially similar finding under applicable state or national law), or (3) being unable to properly manage his or her personal or financial affairs, or a trust estate hereunder as to a Trustee hereunder, because of a mental or physical impairment (whether temporary or permanent in nature). A written certificate executed by an individual's attending physician or attending psychiatrist confirming that person's impairment will be sufficient evidence of Disability under item (3) above, and all persons may rely conclusively on such a certificate.

4. Education. The term "education" herein means vocational, primary, secondary, preparatory, theological, college and professional education, including post-graduate courses of study, at educational institutions or elsewhere, and expenses relating directly thereto, including tuition, books and supplies, room and board, and travel from and to home during school vacations. It is intended that the Trustee liberally construe and interpret references to "education," so that the beneficiaries entitled to distributions hereunder for education obtain the best possible education commensurate with their abilities and desires.

5. Needs and Welfare Distributions. Payments to be made for a person's "Needs" means payments necessary for such person's health (including lifetime residential or nursing home care), education, maintenance and support. Payments to be made for a person's "Welfare" means discretionary payments by the Trustee, from time to time, for such person's Needs and also for such person's advancement in life (including assistance in the purchase of a home or establishment or development of any business or professional enterprise which the Trustee believes to be reasonably sound), happiness and general well-being. However, the Trustee, based upon information reasonably available to it, shall make such payments for a person's Needs or Welfare only to the extent such person's income, and funds available from others obligated to supply funds for such purposes (including, without limitation, pursuant to child support orders and agreements), are insufficient in its opinion for such purposes, and shall take into account such person's accustomed manner of living, age, health, marital status and any other factor it considers important. Income or principal to be paid for a person's Needs or Welfare may be paid to such individual or applied by the Trustee directly for the benefit of such person. The Trustee may make a distribution or application authorized for a person's Needs or Welfare even if such distribution or application substantially depletes or exhausts such person's trust, without any duty upon the Trustee to retain it for future use or for other persons who might otherwise benefit from such trust.

6. Per Stirpes. In a division "per stirpes" each generation shall be represented and counted whether or not it has a living member.

7. Related or Subordinate Party. A "Related or Subordinate Party" to a trust describes a beneficiary of the subject trust or a related or subordinate party to a beneficiary of the trust as the terms "related or subordinate party" are defined under Code Section 672(c).

8. Spouse. A person's "spouse" includes only a spouse then married to and living as husband and wife with him or her, or a spouse who was married to and living as husband and wife with him or her at his or her death. The following rules apply to each person who is a beneficiary or a permissible appointee under this Trust Agreement and who is married to a descendant of mine. Such a person will cease to be a beneficiary and will be excluded from the class of permissible appointees upon:

a. the legal termination of the marriage to my descendant (whether before or after my death), or

b. the death of my descendant if a dissolution of marriage proceeding was pending when he or she died.

The trust will be administered as if that person had died upon the happening of the terminating event described above.

9. Gender, Number. Where appropriate, words of any gender include all genders and the singular and plural are interchangeable.

F. Powers of Appointment. Property subject to a power of appointment shall be paid to, or retained by the Trustee or paid to any trustee under any will or trust agreement for the benefit of, such one or more permissible appointees, in such amounts and proportions, granting such interests, powers and powers of appointment, and upon such conditions including spendthrift provisions as the holder of such power (i) in the case of a power exercisable upon the death of such holder, appoints in his or her will or in a trust agreement revocable by him or her until his or her death, or (ii) in the case of a power exercisable during the life of such holder, appoints in a written instrument signed by such holder, two witnesses and a notary public, but in either case only if such will, trust agreement, or instrument specifically refers to such power.

G. Limitations on Powers of Trustee. Regardless of anything herein to the contrary, no Trustee shall make or participate in making any distribution of income or principal of a trust to or for the benefit of a beneficiary which would directly or indirectly discharge any legal obligation of such Trustee or a donor of such trust (as an individual, and other than myself as donor) to support such beneficiary; and no Trustee (other than myself) shall make or participate in making any discretionary distribution of income or principal to or for the benefit of himself or herself other than for his or her Needs, including by reason of a determination to terminate a trust described herein. For example, if a Trustee (other than myself) has the power to distribute income or principal to himself or herself for his or her own Welfare, such Trustee (the "restricted Trustee") shall only have the power to make or participate in making a distribution of income or principal to the restricted Trustee for the restricted Trustee's Needs, although any co-Trustee who is not also a restricted Trustee may make or participate in making a distribution of income or principal to the restricted Trustee for such restricted Trustee's Welfare without the participation or consent of said restricted Trustee.

H. Presumption of Survivorship. If any person shall be required to survive another person in order to take any interest under this Agreement, the former person shall be deemed to have predeceased the latter person, if such persons die under circumstances which make it difficult or impracticable to determine which one died first.

I. Governing Law. This Agreement is governed by the law of the State of Florida.

J. Other Beneficiary Designations. Except as otherwise explicitly and with particularity provided herein, (a) no provision of this trust shall revoke or modify any beneficiary designation of mine made by me and not revoked by me prior to my death under any individual retirement account, other retirement plan or account, or annuity or insurance contract, (b) I hereby reaffirm any such beneficiary designation such that any assets held in such account, plan, or contract shall pass in accordance with such designation, and (c) regardless of anything herein to the contrary, any of such assets which would otherwise pass pursuant to this trust due to the beneficiary designation not having met the requirements for a valid testamentary disposition under applicable law or otherwise shall be paid as a gift made hereunder to the persons and in the manner provided in such designation which is incorporated herein by this reference.

K. Release of Medical Information.

1. Disability of Beneficiary. Upon the written request of a Trustee (with or without the concurrence of co-Trustees) issued to any current income or principal beneficiary (including discretionary beneficiaries and myself if a beneficiary) for whom a determination of Disability is relevant to the administration of a trust hereunder and for whom a Trustee (with or without the concurrence of co-Trustees) desires to make such a determination, such beneficiary shall issue to all Trustees (who shall be identified thereon both by name to the extent known and by class description) a valid authorization under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and any other applicable or successor law authorizing all health care providers and all medical sources of such requested beneficiary to release protected health information of the requested beneficiary to all Trustees that is relevant to the determination of the Disability of the requested beneficiary as Disability is defined hereunder. The period of each such valid authorization shall be for six months (or the earlier death of the requested beneficiary). If such beneficiary (or his or her legal representative if such beneficiary is a minor or legally disabled) refuses within thirty days of receipt of the request to provide a valid authorization, or at any time revokes an authorization within its term, the Trustee shall treat such beneficiary as Disabled hereunder until such valid authorization is delivered.

2. Disability of Trustee. Upon the request to a Trustee that is an individual by (a) a co-Trustee, or if none, (b) the person or entity next designated to serve as a successor Trustee not under legal incapacity, or if none, (c) any adult current income or principal beneficiary not under legal incapacity, or in any event and at any time (d) a court of competent jurisdiction, such Trustee shall issue to such person and all persons, courts of competent jurisdiction, and entities (who shall be identified thereon both by name to the extent known and by class description), with authority hereunder to determine such requested Trustee's Disability, a valid authorization under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and any other applicable or successor law authorizing all health care providers and all medical sources of such requested Trustee to release protected health information of the requested Trustee to such persons, courts and entities, that is relevant to the determination of the Disability of the requested Trustee as Disability is defined hereunder. The period of each such valid authorization shall be for six months (or the earlier death or resignation of the requested Trustee). If such requested Trustee refuses within thirty days of receipt of the request to deliver a valid authorization, or at any time revokes an authorization within its term, such requested Trustee shall thereupon be treated as having resigned as Trustee hereunder.

3. Ability to Amend or Revoke. The foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not constitute a restriction on myself to amend or revoke the terms of this trust instrument under paragraph I.A hereof, provided I otherwise have legal capacity to do so.

4. Authorization to Issue Certificate. All required authorizations under this paragraph shall include the power of a physician or psychiatrist to issue a written certificate to the appropriate persons or entities as provided in Subparagraph III.E.3 hereof.

ARTICLE IV. FIDUCIARIES

A. Powers of the Trustee. During my life except while I am Disabled, the Trustee shall exercise all powers provided by law and the following powers, other than the power to retain assets, only with my written approval. While I am Disabled and after my death, the Trustee shall exercise said powers without approval, provided that the Trustee shall exercise all powers in a fiduciary capacity.

1. Investments. To sell or exchange at public or private sale and on credit or otherwise, with or without security, and to lease for any term or perpetually, any property, real and personal, at any time forming a part of the trust estate (the "estate"); to grant and exercise options to buy or sell; to invest or reinvest in real or personal property of every kind, description and location; and to receive and retain any such property whether originally a part of any trust herein created or subsequently acquired, even if the Trustee is personally interested in such property, and without liability for any decline in the value thereof; all without limitation by any statutes or judicial decisions whenever enacted or announced, regulating investments or requiring diversification of investments, it being my intention to give the broadest investment powers and discretion to the Trustee. Any bank, trust company, or other corporate trustee serving hereunder as Trustee is authorized to invest in its own common trust funds.

2. Special Investments. The Trustee is expressly authorized (but not directed) to retain, make, hold, and dispose of investments not regarded as traditional for trusts, including interests or investments in privately held business and investment entities and enterprises, including without limitation stock in closely held corporations, limited partnership interests, joint venture interests, mutual funds, business trust interests, and limited liability company membership interests, notwithstanding (a) any applicable prudent investor rule or variation thereof, (b) common law or statutory diversification requirements (it being my intent that no such duty to diversify shall exist) (c) a lack of current cash flow therefrom, (d) the presence of any risk or speculative elements as compared to other available investments (it being my intent that the Trustee have sole and absolute discretion in determining what constitutes acceptable risk and what constitutes proper investment strategy), (e) lack of a reasonable rate of return, (f) risks to the preservation of principal, (g) violation of a Trustee's duty of impartiality as to different beneficiaries (it being my intent that no such duty exists for this purpose), and (h) similar limitations on investment under this Agreement or under law pertaining to investments that may or should be made by a Trustee (including without limitation the provisions of Fla.Stats. §518.11 and successor provisions thereto that would characterize such investmentsas forbidden, imprudent, improper or unlawful). The Trustee shall not be responsible to any trust created hereunder or the beneficiaries thereof for any loss resulting from any such authorized investment, including without limitation loss engendered by the higher risk element of that particular entity, investment, or enterprise, the failure to invest in more conservative investments, the failure to diversify trust assets, the prudent investor rule or variant thereof. Notwithstanding any provisions for distributions to beneficiaries hereunder, if the Trustee determines that the future potential investment return from any illiquid or closely held investment asset warrants the retention of that investment asset or that sufficient value could not be obtained from the sale or other disposition of an illiquid or closely held investment asset, the Trustee is authorized to retain that asset and if necessary reduce the distributions to beneficiaries due to lack of sufficient liquid or marketable assets. However, the preceding provisions of this Subparagraph shall not be exercised in a manner as to jeopardize the availability of the estate tax marital deduction for assets passing to or held in the a trust for my surviving spouse or that would otherwise qualify for the estate tax marital deduction but for such provisions, shall not override any express powers hereunder of my surviving spouse to demand conversion of unproductive property to productive property, or reduce any income distributions otherwise required hereunder for a trust held for the benefit of my surviving spouse or a "qualified subchapter S trust" as that term is defined in Code Section 1361(d)(3).

3. Distributions. To make any division or distribution pro rata or non-pro rata, in cash or in kind, and to allocate undivided interests in property and dissimilar property (without regard to its tax basis) to different shares.

4. Management. To manage, develop, improve, partition or change the character of an asset or interest in property at any time; and to make ordinary and extraordinary repairs, replacements, alterations and improvements, structural or otherwise.

5. Borrowing. To borrow money from anyone on commercially reasonable terms, including entities owned in whole or in part by the trust, a Trustee, beneficiaries and other persons who may have a direct or indirect interest in a Trust; and to mortgage, margin, encumber and pledge real and personal property of a trust as security for the payment thereof, without incurring any personal liability thereon and to do so for a term within or extending beyond the terms of the trust and to renew, modify or extend existing borrowing on similar or different terms and with the same or different security without incurring any personal liability; and such borrowing from a Trustee may be with or without interest, and may be secured with a lien on trust assets.

6. Lending. To extend, modify or waive the terms of any obligation, bond or mortgage at any time forming a part of a trust and to foreclose any such mortgage; accept a conveyance of encumbered property, and take title to the property securing it by deed in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise and to satisfy or not satisfy the indebtedness securing said property; to protect or redeem any such property from forfeiture for nonpayment of taxes or other lien; generally, to exercise as to such bond, obligation or mortgage all powers that an absolute owner might exercise; and to loan funds to beneficiaries at commercially reasonable rates, terms and conditions.

7. Abandonment of Property. To abandon any property or asset when it is valueless or so encumbered or in such condition that it is of no benefit to a trust. To abstain from the payment of taxes, liens, rents, assessments, or repairs on such property and/or permit such property to be lost by tax sale, foreclosure or other proceeding or by conveyance for nominal or no consideration to anyone including a charity or by escheat to a state; all without personal liability incurred therefor.

8. Real Property Matters. To subdivide, develop or partition real estate; to purchase or sell real property and to enter into contracts to do the same; to dedicate the same to public use; to make or obtain the location of any plats; to adjust boundaries; to adjust differences in valuations on exchange or partition by giving or receiving consideration; and, to grant easements with or without consideration as the fiduciaries may determine; and to demolish any building, structures, walls and improvements, or to erect new buildings, structures, walls and improvements and to insure against fire and other risks; and to protect and conserve, or to lease, or to encumber, or otherwise to manage and dispose of real property to the extent such power is not otherwise granted herein or otherwise restricted herein.

9. Claims. To enforce, compromise, adjust, arbitrate, release or otherwise settle or pay any claims or demands by or against a trust.

10. Business Entities. To deal with any business entity or enterprise even if a Trustee is or may be a fiduciary of or own interests in said business entity or enterprise, whether operated in the form of a corporation, partnership, business trust, limited liability company, joint venture, sole proprietorship, or other form (all of which business entities and enterprises are referred to herein as "Business Entities"). I vest the Trustee with the following powers and authority in regard to Business Entities:

a. To retain and continue to operate a Business Entity for such period as the Trustee deems advisable;

b. To control, direct and manage the Business Entities. In this connection, the Trustee, in its sole discretion, shall determine the manner and extent of its active participation in the operation and may delegate all or any part of its power to supervise and operate to such person or persons as the Trustee may select, including any associate, partner, officer or employee of the Business Entity;

c. To hire and discharge officers and employees, fix their compensation and define their duties; and similarly to employ, compensate and discharge agents, attorneys, consultants, accountants, and such other representatives as the Trustee may deem appropriate; including the right to employ any beneficiary or fiduciary in any of the foregoing capacities;

d. To invest funds in the Business Entities, to pledge other assets of a trust as security for loans made to the Business Entities, and to lend funds from a trust to the Business Entities;

e. To organize one or more Business Entities under the laws of this or any other state or country and to transfer thereto all or any part of the Business Entities or other property of a trust, and to receive in exchange such stocks, bonds, partnership and member interests, and such other securities or interests as the Trustee may deem advisable;

f. To treat Business Entities as separate from a trust. In a Trustee's accounting to any beneficiary, the Trustee shall only be required to report the earnings and condition of the Business Entities in accordance with standard business accounting practice;

g. To retain in Business Entities such net earnings for working capital and other purposes of the Business Entities as the Trustee may deem advisable in conformity with sound business practice;

h. To sell or liquidate all or any part of the Business Entities at such time and price and upon such terms and conditions (including credit) as the Trustee may determine. My Trustee is specifically authorised and empowered to make such sale to any person, including any partner, officer, or employee of the Business Entities, a fiduciary, or to any beneficiary; and

i. To guaranty the obligations of the Business Entities, or pledge assets of a trust to secure such a guaranty.

11. Principal and Income. To allocate items of income or expense between income and principal as permitted or provided by the laws of the State of Florida but without limiting the availability of the estate tax marital deduction, provided, unless otherwise provided in this instrument, the Trustee shall establish out of income and credit to principal reasonable reserves for depreciation, obsolescence and depletion, determined to be equitable and fair in accordance with some recognized reasonable and preferably uncomplicated trust accounting principle and; provided, further that the Trustee shall not be required to provide a rate of return on unproductive property unless otherwise provided in this instrument.

12. Life Insurance. With respect to any life insurance policies constituting an asset of a trust, to pay premiums; to apply dividends in reduction of such premiums; to borrow against the cash values thereof; to convert such policies into other forms of insurance, including paid-up insurance; to exercise any settlement options provided in any such policies; to receive the proceeds of any policy upon its maturity and to administer such proceeds as a part of the principal of the Trust; and in general, to exercise all other options, benefits, rights and privileges under such policies.

13. Continuing Power. To continue to have or exercise, after the termination of a trust, in whole or in part, and until final distribution thereof, all title, power, discretions, rights and duties conferred or imposed upon the Trustee by law or by this Agreement or during the existence of the trust.

14. Exoneration. To provide for the exoneration of the Trustee from any personal liability on account of any arrangement or contract entered into in a fiduciary capacity.

15. Agreements. To comply with, amend, modify or rescind any agreement made during my lifetime, including those regarding the disposition, management or continuation of any closely held unincorporated business, corporation, partnership or joint venture, and including the power to complete contracts to purchase and sell real estate.

16. Voting. To vote and give proxies, with power of substitution to vote, stocks, bonds and other securities, or not to vote a security.

17. Combination of Shares. To hold the several shares of a trust or several Trusts as a common fund, dividing the income proportionately among them, to assign undivided interests to the several shares or Trusts, and to make joint investments of the funds belonging to them. For such purposes and insofar as may be practicable, the Trustee, to the extent that division of the trust estate is directed hereby, may administer the trust estate physically undivided until actual division thereof becomes necessary to make distributions. The Trustee may hold, manage, invest and account for whole or fractional trust shares as a single estate, making the division thereof by appropriate entries in the books of account only, and may allocate to each whole or fractional trust share its proportionate part of all receipts and expenses; provided, however, this carrying of several Trusts as a single estate shall not defer the vesting in possession of any whole or fractional share of a trust for the beneficiaries thereof at the times specified herein.

18. Reimbursement. To reimburse itself from a trust for reasonable expenses incurred in the administration thereof.

19. Reliance Upon Communication. To rely, in acting under a trust, upon any letter, notice, certificate, report, statement, document or other paper, or upon any telephone, telegraph, cable, wireless or radio message, if believed by the Trustee to be genuine, and to be signed, sealed, acknowledged, presented, sent, delivered or given by or on behalf of the proper person, firm or corporation, without incurring liability for any action or inaction based thereon.

20. Assumptions. To assume, in the absence of written notice to the contrary from the person or persons concerned, that a fact or an event, by reason of which an interest or estate under a trust shall commence or terminate, does not exist or has not occurred, without incurring liability for any action or inaction based upon such assumption.

21. Service as Custodian. To serve as successor custodian for any beneficiary of any gifts that I may have made under any Transfer to Minors Act, if at the time of my death no custodian is named in the instrument creating the gift.

22. Removal of Assets. The Trustee may remove from the domiciliary state during the entire duration of a trust or for such lesser period as it may deem advisable, any cash, securities or other property at any time in its hands whether principal or not, and to take and keep the same outside the domiciliary state and at such place or places within or outside the borders of the United States as it may determine, without in any event being chargeable for any loss or depreciation to the trust which may result therefrom.

23. Change of Situs. The situs and/or applicable law of any trust created hereunder may be transferred to such other place as the Trustee may deem to be for the best interests of the trust estate. In so doing, the Trustee may resign and appoint a successor Trustee, but may remove such successor Trustee so appointed and appoint others. Each successor Trustee may delegate any and all fiduciary powers, discretionary and ministerial, to the appointing Trustee as its agent.

24. Fiduciary Outside Domiciliary State. In the event the Trustee shall not be able and willing to act as Trustee with respect to any property located outside the domiciliary state, the Trustee, without order of court, may appoint another individual or corporation (including any employee or agent of any appointing Trustee) to act as Trustee with respect to such property. Such appointed Trustee shall have all of the powers and discretions with respect to such property as are herein given to the appointing Trustee with respect to the remaining trust assets. The appointing Trustee may remove such appointed Trustee and appoint another upon ten (10) days notice in writing. All income from such property, and if such property is sold, exchanged or otherwise disposed of, the proceeds thereof, shall be remitted to the appointing Trustee, to be held and administered by it as Trustee hereunder. Such appointed Trustee may employ the appointing Trustee as agent in the administration of such property. No surety shall be required on the bond of the Trustee or agent acting under the provisions of this paragraph. No periodic court accounting shall be required of such appointed Trustee, it being my intention to excuse any statutory accounting which may ordinarily be required.

25. Additions. To receive and accept additions to the Trusts in cash or in kind from donors, executors, administrators, Trustee or attorneys in fact, including additions of my property by the Trustee or others as my attorneys in fact.

26. Title and Possession. To have title to and possession of all real or personal property held in the Trusts, and to register or hold title to such property in its own name or in the name of its nominee, without disclosing its fiduciary capacity, or in bearer form.

27. Dealing with Estates. To use principal of the Trusts to make loans to my estate, with or without interest, and to make purchases from my estate.

28. Agents. To employ persons, including attorneys, auditors, investment advisers, and agents, even if they are the Trustee or associated with the Trustee, to advise or assist the Trustee in the performance of its administrative duties and to pay compensation and costs incurred in connection with such employment from the assets of the Trust; to act without independent investigation upon their recommendations; and, instead of acting personally, to employ one or more agents to perform any act of administration, whether or not discretionary.

29. Tax Elections. To file tax returns, and to exercise all tax-related elections and options at its discretion, without compensating adjustments or reimbursements between any of the Trusts or any of the trust accounts or any beneficiaries.

B. Resignation. A Trustee may resign with or without cause, by giving no less than 30 days advance written notice, specifying the effective date of such resignation, to its successor Trustee and to the persons required and in the manner provided under Fla.Stats. §§736.0705(1)(a) and 736.0109. As to any required recipient, deficiencies in fulfilling the foregoing resignation requirements may be waived in a writing signed by such recipient. Upon the resignation of a Trustee, such Trustee shall be entitled to reimbursement from the trust for all reasonable expenses incurred in the settlement of accounts and in the transfer of assets to his or her successor.

C. Appointment of Successor Trustee.

1. Appointment. Upon a Trustee's resignation, or if a Trustee becomes Disabled or for any reason ceases to serve as Trustee, I may appoint any person or persons as successor Trustee, and in default of such appointment by me, ROBERT L. SPALLINA and DONALD R. TESCHER shall serve together as successor co-Trustees, or either of them alone as Trustee if either of them is unable to serve. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a named Trustee is not a U.S. citizen or resident at the time of commencement of his term as Trustee, such Trustee should give due consideration to declining to serve to avoid potential adverse U.S. income tax consequences by reason of the characterization of a trust hereunder as a foreign trust under the Code, but shall not be construed to have any duty to so decline if such Trustee desires to serve.

2. Specific Trusts. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this Subparagraph IV.C, subsequent to my death I specifically appoint the following person or persons as Trustee of the following Trusts under the following described circumstances provided that the foregoing appointments shall apply when and to the extent that no effective appointment is made below:

a. Trustee of Separate Trusts for My Grandchildren. Each grandchild of mine shall serve as co-Trustee with the immediate parent of such grandchild which parent is also a child of mine as to all separate trusts under which such grandchild is the sole current mandatory or discretionary income beneficiary upon attaining the age of twenty-five (25) years, and shall serve as sole Trustee of such trusts upon attaining the age of thirty-five (35) years. While serving alone as Trustee, a grandchild of mine may designate a co-Trustee that is not a Related or Subordinate Party to serve with such grandchild and such grandchild may remove and/or replace such co-Trustee with another that is not a Related or Subordinate Party from time to time.

b. Trustee of Separate Trusts for My Lineal Descendants Other Than My Grandchildren. In regard to a separate trust held for a lineal descendant of mine other than a grandchild of mine which lineal descendant is the sole current mandatory or discretionary income beneficiary, each such lineal descendant shall serve as co-Trustee, or sole Trustee if the preceding described Trustees cease or are unable to serve or to continue to serve, of his or her separate trust upon attaining age twenty-five (25) years. While serving alone as Trustee, a lineal descendant of mine other than a grandchild of mine may designate a co-Trustee to serve with such lineal descendant and such lineal descendant may remove and/or replace such co-Trustee with another from time to time.

3. Successor Trustees Not Provided For. Whenever a successor Trustee or co-Trustee is required and no successor or other functioning mechanism for succession is provided for under the terms of this Trust Agreement , the last serving Trustee or the last person or entity designated to serve as Trustee of the applicable trust may appoint his or her successor, and if none is so appointed, the following persons shall appoint a successor Trustee (who may be one of the persons making the appointment):

a. The remaining Trustees, if any; otherwise,

b. A majority of the permissible current mandatory or discretionary income beneficiaries, including the natural or legal guardians of any beneficiaries who are Disabled.

A successor Trustee appointed under this subparagraph shall not be a Related or Subordinate Party of the trust. The appointment will be by a written document executed by such person in the presence of two witnesses and acknowledged before a notary public delivered to the appointed Trustee and to me if I am living and not Disabled or in a valid last Will. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a designation under this Subparagraph of a successor trustee to a corporate or entity trustee shall be limited to a corporate or entity trustee authorized to serve as such under Florida law with assets under trust management of no less than one billion dollars.

4. Power to Remove Trustee. Subsequent to my death, the age 35 or older permissible current mandatory or discretionary income beneficiaries from time to time of any trust established hereunder shall have the power to unanimously remove a Trustee of such trust at any time with or without cause, other than a named Trustee or successor Trustee designated hereunder, or a Trustee appointed by me during my lifetime or under my Will or otherwise at the time of my death, with the successor Trustee to be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions.

D. Method of Appointment of Trustee. Any such appointment of a successor Trustee by a person shall be made in a written instrument executed by such person in the presence of two witnesses and acknowledged before a notary public which is delivered to such appointed Trustee during the lifetime of the person making such appointment, or any such appointment of a successor Trustee by a person may be made under the last Will of such person.

E. Limitations on Removal and Replacement Power. Any power to remove and/or replace a trustee hereunder that is granted to an individual (including such power when reserved to me) is personal to that individual and may not be exercised by a guardian, power of attorney holder, or other legal representative or agent.

F. Successor Fiduciaries. No Trustee is responsible for, nor has any duty to inquire into, the administration, acts or omissions of any executor, administrator, Personal Representative, or trustee or attorney-in-fact adding property to these Trusts, or of any predecessor Trustee. Each successor Trustee has all the powers, privileges, immunities, rights and title (without the execution of any instrument of transfer or any other act by any retiring Trustee) and all the duties of all predecessors.

G. Liability and Indemnification of Trustee.

1. Liability in General. No individual Trustee (that is, a Trustee that is not a corporation or other entity) shall be liable for any of his or her actions or failures to act as Trustee, even if the individual Trustee is found by a court to have been negligent or in breach of fiduciary duty, except for liability caused by his or her actions or failures to act done in bad faith or with reckless indifference to the purposes of the trust or the interests of the beneficiaries. Each Trustee that is a corporation or other entity will be liable for its actions or failures to act that are negligent or that breach its fiduciary duty, without contribution by any individual Trustee.

2. Indemnification of Trustee. Except in regard to liabilities imposed on a Trustee under Subparagraph IV.G.1, each Trustee shall be held harmless and indemnified from the assets of the trust for any liability, damages, attorney's fees, expenses, and costs incurred as a result of its service as Trustee. A Trustee who ceases to serve for any reason will be entitled to receive reasonable security from the assets of the trust to protect it from liability, and may enforce these provisions for indemnification against the current Trustee or against any assets held in the trust, or if the former Trustee is an individual and not a corporation or other entity, against any beneficiary to the extent of distributions received by that beneficiary. This indemnification right extends to the estate, personal representatives, legal successors and assigns of a Trustee.

3. Indemnification of Trustee - Additional Provisions. I recognize that if a beneficiary accuses a Trustee of wrongdoing or breach of fiduciary duty, the Trustee may have a conflict of interest that ordinarily would prevent it from paying legal fees and costs from the trust estate to defend itself. I do not want to put a financial burden on any individual named to serve as a Trustee. Just as important, I do not want an individual who has been selected to serve as a Trustee to be reluctant to accept the position, or while serving to be intimidated in the performance of the Trustee's duties because of the threats of lawsuits that might force the Trustee to pay fees and costs from the Trustee's personal resources. For this reason, I deliberately and intentionally waive any such conflict of interest with respect to any individual serving as Trustee so that he or she can hire counsel to defend himself or herself against allegations of wrongdoing or if sued for any reason (whether by a beneficiary or by someone else) and pay all fees and costs for his or her defense from the trust estate until the dispute is resolved. I understand and agree that a court may award, disallow or allocate fees and costs in whole or in part after the dispute is resolved, as provided by law. The Trustee will account for all such fees and costs paid by it as provided by law. This provision shall not apply to any Trustee that is a corporation or other entity.

H. Compensation, Bond. Each Trustee is entitled to be paid reasonable compensation for services rendered in the administration of the trust. Reasonable compensation for a non-individual Trustee will be its published fee schedule in effect when its services are rendered unless otherwise agreed in writing, and except as follows. Any fees paid to a non-individual Trustee for making principal distributions, for termination of the trust, and upon termination of its services must be based solely on the value of its services rendered, not on the value of the trust principal. During my lifetime the Trustee's fees are to be charged wholly against income (to the extent sufficient), unless directed otherwise by me in writing. Each Trustee shall serve without bond.

I. Maintenance of Records. The Trustee shall maintain accurate accounts and records. It shall render annual statements of the receipts and disbursements of income and principal of a trust upon the written request of any adult vested beneficiary of such trust or the guardian of the person of any vested beneficiary and the approval of such beneficiary shall be binding upon all persons then or thereafter interested in such trust as to the matters and transactions shown on such statement. The Trustee may at any time apply for a judicial settlement of any account. No Trustee shall be required to file any statutory or other periodic accountings of the administration of a trust.

J. Interested Trustee. The Trustee may act under this Agreement even if interested in these Trusts in an individual capacity, as a fiduciary of another trust or estate (including my estate) or in any other capacity. The Trustee may in good faith enter into a sale, encumbrance, or other transaction involving the investment or management of trust property for the Trustee's own personal account or which is otherwise affected by a conflict between the Trustee's fiduciary and personal interests, without liability and without being voidable by a beneficiary. The Trustee is specifically authorized to make loans to, to receive loans from, or to sell, purchase or exchange assets in a transaction with (i) the Trustee's spouse, (ii) the Trustee's children or grandchildren, siblings, parents, or spouses of such persons, (iii) an officer, director, employee, agent, or attorney of the Trustee, or (iv) a corporation, partnership, limited liability company, or other business entity in which the Trustee has a financial interest, provided that in any transaction the trusts hereunder receive fair and adequate consideration in money or money's worth. The Trustee may renounce any interest or expectancy of a trust in, or an opportunity to participate in, specified business opportunities or specified classes or categories of business opportunities that are presented to the Trustee. Such renunciation shall not prohibit the Trustee from participating in the Trustee's individual capacity in such opportunity or expectancy.

K. Third Parties. No one dealing with the Trustee need inquire into its authority or its application of property.

L. Merger of Trusts. If the Trustee is also trustee of a trust established by myself or another person by will or trust agreement, the beneficiaries to whom income and principal may then be paid and then operative terms of which are substantially the same as those of a trust held under this Agreement, the Trustee in its discretion may merge either such trust into the other trust. The Trustee, in exercising its discretion, shall consider economy of administration, convenience to the beneficiaries, tax consequences and any other factor it considers important. If it is later necessary to reestablish the merged trust as separate trusts, it shall be divided proportionately to the value of each trust at the time of merger.

M. Multiple Trustees. If two Trustees are serving at any time, any power or discretion of the Trustees may be exercised only by their joint agreement. Either Trustee may delegate to the other Trustee the authority to act on behalf of both Trustees and to exercise any power held by the Trustees. If more than two Trustees are serving at any time, and unless unanimous agreement is specifically required by the terms of this Trust Agreement, any power or discretion of the Trustees may be exercised only by a majority. The Trustees may delegate to any one or more of themselves the authority to act on behalf of all the Trustees and to exercise any power held by the Trustees. Trustees who consent to the delegation of authority to other Trustees will be liable for the consequences of the actions of those other Trustees as if the consenting Trustees had joined the other Trustees in performing those actions. A dissenting Trustee who did not consent to the delegation of authority to another Trustee and who has not joined in the exercise of a power or discretion cannot be held liable for the consequences of the exercise. A dissenting Trustee who joins only at the direction of the majority will not be liable for the consequences of the exercise if the dissent is expressed in writing delivered to any of the other Trustees before the exercise of that power or discretion.

ARTICLE V. ADDITIONAL TAX AND RELATED MATTERS

A. GST Trusts. I direct (a) that the Trustee shall divide any trust to which there is allocated any GST exemption into two separate Trusts (each subject to the provisions hereof) so that the generation-skipping tax inclusion ratio of one such trust is zero, (b) any property exempt from generation-skipping taxation shall be divided as otherwise provided herein and held for the same persons designated in Trusts separate from any property then also so divided which is not exempt from generation-skipping taxation, and (c) if upon the death of a beneficiary a taxable termination would otherwise occur with respect to any property held in trust for him or her with an inclusion ratio greater than zero, such beneficiary shall have with respect only to such property a power to appoint such fractional share thereof which if included in such beneficiary's gross estate for federal estate tax purposes (without allowing any deduction with respect to such share) would not be taxed at the highest federal estate tax rate and such fractional share of such property shall be distributed to such persons including only such beneficiary's estate, spouse, and issue, as such beneficiary may appoint, and any part of a trust such beneficiary does not effectively appoint shall be treated as otherwise provided for disposition upon his or her death, provided, if upon his or her death two or more Trusts for his or her benefit are directed to be divided among and held or distributed for the same persons and the generation-skipping tax inclusion ratio of any such trust is zero, the amount of any other such Trust to which there is allocated any of such beneficiary's GST exemption shall be added to the Trusts with generation-skipping tax inclusion ratios of zero in equal shares. For purposes of funding any pecuniary payment to which there is allocated any GST exemption, such payment shall be satisfied with cash or property which fairly represents appreciation and depreciation (occurring between the valuation date and the date of distribution) in all of the assets from which such distribution could be made, and any pecuniary payment made before a residual transfer of property to which any GST exemption is allocated shall be satisfied with cash or property which fairly represents appreciation and depreciation (occurring between the valuation date and the date of distribution) in all of the assets from which such pecuniary payment could be satisfied and shall be allocated a pro rata share of income earned by all such assets between the valuation date and the date of payment. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, the valuation date with respect to any property shall be the date as of which its value is determined for federal estate tax purposes with respect to the transferor thereof, and subject to the foregoing, property distributed in kind in satisfaction of any pecuniary payment shall be selected on the basis of the value of such property on the valuation date. All terms used in this paragraph which are defined or explained in Chapter 13 of the Code or the regulations thereunder shall have the same meaning when used herein. I request (but do not require) that if two or more Trusts are held hereunder for any person, no principal be paid to such person from the Trusts with the lower inclusion ratios for generation-skipping tax purposes unless the trust with the highest inclusion ratio has been exhausted by use, consumption, distribution or otherwise or is not reasonably available. The Trustee is authorized and directed to comply with the provisions of the Treasury Regulations interpreting the generation skipping tax provisions of the Code in severing or combining any trust, creating or combining separate trust shares, allocating GST exemption, or otherwise, as necessary to best accomplish the foregoing allocations, inclusion ratios, combinations, and divisions, including, without limitation, the payment of "appropriate interest" as determined by the Trustee as that term is applied and used in said Regulations.

B. Individual Retirement Accounts. In the event that this trust or any trust created under this Agreement is the beneficiary of an Individual retirement account established and maintained under Code Section 408 or a qualified pension, profit sharing or stock bonus plan established and maintained under Code Section 401 (referred to in this paragraph as "IRA"), the following provisions shall apply to such trust:

1. I intend that the beneficiaries of such trust shall be beneficiaries within the meaning of Code Section 401(a)(9) and the Treasury Regulations thereunder. All provisions of such trust shall be construed consistent with such intent. Accordingly, the following provisions shall apply to such trust:

a. No benefits from any IRA may be used or applied for the payment of any debts, taxes or other claims against my estate as set forth in the later paragraph captioned "Taxes", unless other assets of this trust are not available for such payment.

b. In the event that a beneficiary of any trust created under this Agreement has a testamentary general power of appointment or a limited power of appointment over all or any portion of any trust established under this Agreement, and if such trust is the beneficiary of any benefits from any IRA, the beneficiary shall not appoint any part of such trust to a charitable organization or to a lineal descendant of mine (or a spouse of a lineal descendant of mine) who is older than the beneficiary whose life expectancy is being used to calculate distributions from such IRA.

2. The Trustee shall deliver a copy of this Agreement to the custodian of any IRA of which this trust or any trust created under this Agreement is the named beneficiary within the time period prescribed Code Section 401(a)(9) and the Treasury Regulations thereunder, along with such additional items required thereunder. If the custodian of the IRA changes after a copy of this Agreement has been provided pursuant to the preceding sentence, the Trustee shall immediately provide a copy of this Agreement to the new custodian. The Trustee shall request each custodian to complete a receipt of the Agreement and shall attach such receipt to this Agreement. The Trustee shall provide a copy of each amendment of this Agreement to the custodian and shall obtain a receipt of such amendment.

C. Gift Transfers Made From Trust During My Lifetime. I direct that all gift transfers made from the trust during my lifetime be treated for all purposes as if the gift property had been first withdrawn by (or distributed to) me and then transferred by me to the donees involved. Thus, in each instance, even where title to the gift property is transferred directly from the name of the trust (or its nominee) into the name of the donee, such transfer shall be treated for all purposes as first a withdrawal by (or distribution of the property to) me followed by a gift transfer of the property to the donee by me as donor, the Trustee making the actual transfer in my behalf acting as my attorney in fact, this paragraph being, to that extent, a power of attorney from me to the Trustee to make such transfer, which power of attorney shall not be affected by my Disability, incompetence, or incapacity.

D. Gifts. If I am Disabled, I authorize the Trustee to make gifts from trust property during my lifetime for estate planning purposes, or to distribute amounts to my legally appointed guardian or to my attorney-in-fact for those purposes, subject to the following limitations:

1. Recipients. The gifts may be made only to my lineal descendants or to trusts primarily for their benefit, and in aggregate annual amounts to any one such recipient that do not exceed the exclusion amount provided for under Code Section 2503(b).

2. Trustee Limited. When a person eligible to receive gifts is serving as Trustee, the aggregate of all gifts to that person during the calendar year allowable under the preceding subparagraph 1. shall thereafter not exceed the greater of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or five percent (5%) of the aggregate value of the trust estate. However, gifts completed prior to a recipient's commencing to serve as Trustee shall not be affected by this limitation.

3. Charitable Pledges. The Trustee may pay any charitable pledges I made while I was not Disabled (even if not yet due).

E. Death Costs. If upon my death the Trustee hold any United States bonds which may be redeemed at par in payment of federal estate tax, the Trustee shall pay the federal estate tax due because of my death up to the amount of the par value of such bonds and interest accrued thereon at the time of payment. The Trustee shall also pay from the trust all of my following death costs, but if there is an acting executor, administrator or Personal Representative of my estate my Trustee shall pay only such amounts of such costs as such executor, administrator or Personal Representative directs:

1. my debts which are allowed as claims against my estate,

2. my funeral expenses without regard to legal limitations,

3. the expenses of administering my estate,

4. the balance of the estate, inheritance and other death taxes (excluding generation-skipping transfer taxes unless arising from direct skips), and interest and penalties thereon, due because of my death with respect to all property whether or not passing under my Will or this Agreement (other than property over which I have a power of appointment granted to me by another person, and qualified terminable interest property which is not held in a trust that was subject to an election under Code Section 2652(a)(3) at or about the time of its funding) and life insurance proceeds on policies insuring my life which proceeds are not held under this trust or my probate estate at or by reason of my death), and

5. any gifts made in my Will or any Codicil thereto.

The Trustee may make any such payment either to my executor, administrator or Personal Representative or directly to the proper party. The Trustee shall not be reimbursed for any such payment, and is not responsible for the correctness or application of the amounts so paid at the direction of my executor, administrator, or Personal Representative. The Trustee shall not pay any of such death costs with any asset which would not otherwise be included in my gross estate for federal or state estate or inheritance tax purposes, or with any asset which otherwise cannot be so used, such as property received under a limited power of appointment which prohibits such use. Further, no payment of any such death costs shall be charged against or paid from the tangible personal property disposed of pursuant to the prior paragraph captioned "Disposition of Tangible Personal Property."

F. Subchapter S Stock. Regardless of anything herein to the contrary, in the event that after my death the principal of a trust includes stock in a corporation for which there is a valid election to be treated under the provisions of Subchapter S of the Code, the income beneficiary of such a trust is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident for federal income tax purposes, and such trust is not an "electing small business trust" under Code Section 1361(e)(1) in regard to that corporation, the Trustee shall (a) hold such stock as a substantially separate and independent share of such trust within the meaning of Code Section 663(c), which share shall otherwise be subject to all of the terms of this Agreement, (b) distribute all of the income of such share to the one income beneficiary thereof in annual or more frequent installments, (c) upon such beneficiary's death, pay all accrued or undistributed income of such share to the beneficiary's estate, (d) distribute principal from such share during the lifetime of the income beneficiary only to such beneficiary, notwithstanding any powers of appointment granted to any person including the income beneficiary, and (e) otherwise administer such share in a manner that qualifies it as a "qualified Subchapter S trust" as that term is defined in Code Section 1361(d)(3), and shall otherwise manage and administer such share as provided under this Agreement to the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing provisions of this paragraph.

G. Residence as Homestead. I reserve the right to reside upon any real property placed in this trust as my permanent residence during my life, it being the intent of this provision to retain for myself the requisite beneficial interest and possessory right in and to such real property to comply with Section 196.041 of the Florida Statutes such that said beneficial interest and possessory right constitute in all respects "equitable title to real estate" as that term is used in Section 6, Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Florida. Notwithstanding anything contained in this trust to the contrary, for purposes of the homestead exemption under the laws of the State of Florida, my interest in any real property in which I reside pursuant to the provisions of this trust shall be deemed to be an interest in real property and not personalty and shall be deemed my homestead.

WILL OF

SIMON L. BERNSTEIN

I, SIMON L. BERNSTEIN, of Palm Beach County, Florida, hereby revoke all my prior Wills and Codicils and make this Will. I am a widower, but in the event that I marry subsequent to the execution of this Will, I specifically make no provision for my spouse. My children are TED S. BERNSTEIN, PAMELA B. SIMON, ELIOT BERNSTEIN, JILL IANTONI and LISA S. FRIEDSTEIN.

ARTICLE I. TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY

I give such items of my tangible personal property to such persons as I may designate in a separate written memorandum prepared for this purpose. I give to my children who survive me, divided among them as they agree, or if they fail to agree, divided among them by my Personal Representatives in as nearly equal shares as practical my personal effects, jewelry, collections, household furnishings and equipment, automobiles and all other non-business tangible personal property other than cash, not effectively disposed of by such memorandum, and if no child of mine survives me, this property shall pass with the residue of my estate.

ARTICLE II. EXERCISE OF POWER OF APPOINTMENT

Under Subparagraph E.1. of Article II. of the SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT dated May 20, 2008, (the "Shirley Trust"), I was granted a special power of appointment upon my death to direct the disposition of the remaining assets of the Marital Trust and the Family Trust established under the Shirley Trust. Pursuant to the power granted to me under the Shirley Trust, upon my death, I hereby direct the then serving Trustees of the Marital Trust and the Family Trust to divide the remaining trust assets into equal shares for my then living grandchildren and distribute said shares to the then serving Trustees of their respective trusts established under Subparagraph II.B. of my Existing Trust, as referenced below, and administered pursuant to Subparagraph II.C. thereunder.

ARTICLE III. RESIDUE OF MY ESTATE

I give all the residue of my estate, including my homestead, to the Trustee then serving under my revocable Trust Agreement dated May 20, 2008, as amended and restated from time to time and on even date herewith (the "Existing Trust"), as Trustee without bond, but I do not exercise any powers of appointment held by me except as provided in Article II., above, and in the later paragraph titled "Death Costs." The residue shall be added to and become a part of the Existing Trust, and shall be held under the provisions of said Agreement in effect at my death, or if this is not permitted by applicable law or the Existing Trust is not then in existence, under the provisions of said Agreement as existing today. If necessary to give effect to this gift, but not otherwise, said Agreement as existing today is incorporated herein by reference.

ARTICLE IV. PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES

1. Appointment and Bond. I appoint ROBERT L. SPALLINA and DONALD R. TESCHER to serve together as my co-Personal Representatives, or either of them alone as Personal Representative if either of them is unable to serve (the "fiduciary"). Each fiduciary shall serve without bond and have all of the powers, privileges and immunities granted to my fiduciary by this Will or by law, provided, however, that my fiduciary shall exercise all powers in a fiduciary capacity.

2. Powers of Personal Representatives. My fiduciary may exercise its powers without court approval. No one dealing with my fiduciary need inquire into its authority or its application of property. My fiduciary shall have the following powers:

a. Investments. To sell or exchange at public or private sale and on credit or otherwise, with or without security, and to lease for any term or perpetually, any property, real and personal, at any time forming a part of my probate estate (the "estate"); to grant and exercise options to buy or sell; to invest or reinvest in real or personal property of every kind, description and location; and to receive and retain any such property whether originally a part of the estate, or subsequently acquired, even if a fiduciary is personally interested in such property, and without liability for any decline in the value thereof; all without limitation by any statutes or judicial decisions, whenever enacted or announced, regulating investments or requiring diversification of investments.

b. Distributions or Divisions. To distribute directly to any beneficiary who is then entitled to distribution under the Existing Trust; to make any division or distribution pro rata or non-pro rata, in cash or in kind; and to allocate undivided interests in property and dissimilar property (without regard to its tax basis) to different shares, and to make any distribution to a minor or any other incapacitated person directly to such person, to his or her legal representative, to any person responsible for or assuming his or her care, or in the case of a minor to an adult person or an eligible institution (including a fiduciary) selected by my fiduciary as custodian for such minor under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act or similar provision of law. The receipt of such payee is a complete release to the fiduciary.

c. Management. To manage, develop, improve, partition or change the character of or abandon an asset or interest in property at any time; and to make ordinary and extraordinary repairs, replacements, alterations and improvements, structural or otherwise.

d. Borrowing. To borrow money from anyone on commercially reasonable terms, including a fiduciary, beneficiaries and other persons who may have a direct or indirect interest in the estate; and to mortgage, margin, encumber and pledge real and personal property of the estate as security for the payment thereof, without incurring any personal liability thereon and to do so for a term within or extending beyond the terms of the estate and to renew, modify or extend existing borrowing on similar or different terms and with the same or different security without incurring any personal liability; and such borrowing from my fiduciary may be with or without interest, and may be secured with a lien on the estate assets or any beneficiary's interest in said assets.

e. Lending. To extend, modify or waive the terms of any obligation, bond or mortgage at any time forming a part of the estate and to foreclose any such mortgage; accept a conveyance of encumbered property, and take title to the property securing it by deed in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise and to satisfy or not satisfy the indebtedness securing said property; to protect or redeem any such property from forfeiture for nonpayment of taxes or other lien; generally, to exercise as to such bond, obligation or mortgage all powers that an absolute owner might exercise; and to loan funds to beneficiaries at commercially reasonable rates, terms and conditions.

f. Abandonment of Property. To abandon any property or asset when it is valueless or so encumbered or in such condition that it is of no benefit to the estate. To abstain from the payment of taxes, liens, rents, assessments, or repairs on such property and/or permit such property to be lost by tax sale, foreclosure or other proceeding or by conveyance for nominal or no consideration to anyone including a charity or by escheat to a state; all without personal liability incurred therefor.

g. Real Property Matters. To subdivide, develop or partition real estate; to dedicate the same to public use; to make or obtain the location of any plats; to adjust boundaries; to adjust differences in valuations on exchange or partition by giving or receiving consideration; and, to grant easements with or without consideration as they may determine; and to demolish any building, structures, walls and improvements, or to erect new buildings, structures, walls and improvements and to insure against fire and other risks.

h. Claims. To enforce, compromise, adjust, arbitrate, release or otherwise settle or pay any claims or demands by or against the estate.

i. Business Entities. To deal with any business entity or enterprise even if a fiduciary is or may be a fiduciary of or own interests in said business entity or enterprise, whether operated in the form of a corporation, partnership, business trust, limited liability company, joint venture, sole proprietorship, or other form (all of which business entities and enterprises are referred to herein as "Business Entities"). I vest the fiduciary with the following powers and authority in regard to Business Entities:

i. To retain and continue to operate a Business Entity for such period as the fiduciary deems advisable;

ii. To control, direct and manage the Business Entities. In this connection, the fiduciary, in its sole discretion, shall determine the manner and extent of its active participation in the operation and may delegate all or any part of its power to supervise and operate to such person or persons as the fiduciary may select, including any associate, partner, officer or employee of the Business Entity;

iii. To hire and discharge officers and employees, fix their compensation and define their duties; and similarly to employ, compensate and discharge agents, attorneys, consultants, accountants, and such other representatives as the fiduciary may deem appropriate; including the right to employ any beneficiary or fiduciary in any of the foregoing capacities;

iv. To invest funds in the Business Entities, to pledge other assets of the estate or a trust as security for loans made to the Business Entities, and to lend funds from my estate or a trust to the Business Entities;

v. To organize one or more Business Entities under the laws of this or any other state or country and to transfer thereto all or any part of the Business Entities or other property of my estate or a trust, and to receive in exchange such stocks, bonds, partnership and member interests, and such other securities or interests as the fiduciary may deem advisable;

vi. To treat Business Entities as separate from my estate or a trust. In a fiduciary's accounting to any beneficiary, the fiduciary shall only be required to report the earnings and condition of the Business Entities in accordance with standard business accounting practice;

vii. To retain in Business Entities such net earnings for working capital and other purposes of the Business Entities as the fiduciary may deem advisable in conformity with sound business practice;

viii. To sell or liquidate all or any part of the Business Entities at such time and price and upon such terms and conditions (including credit) as the fiduciary may determine. My fiduciary is specifically authorised and empowered to make such sale to any person, including any partner, officer, or employee of the Business Entities, a fiduciary, or to any beneficiary; and

ix. To guaranty the obligations of the Business Entities, or pledge assets of the estate or a trust to secure such a guaranty.

j. Life Insurance. With respect to any life insurance policies constituting an asset of the estate to pay premiums; to apply dividends in reduction of such premiums; to borrow against the cash values thereof; to convert such policies into other forms of insurance including paid-up insurance; to exercise any settlement options provided in any such policies; to receive the proceeds of any policy upon its maturity and to administer such proceeds as a part of the principal of the estate or trust; and in general, to exercise all other options, benefits, rights and privileges under such policies; provided, however, no fiduciary other than a sole fiduciary may exercise any incidents of ownership with respect to policies of insurance insuring the fiduciary's own life.

k. Reimbursement. To reimburse itself from the estate for all reasonable expenses incurred in the administration thereof.

l. Voting. To vote and give proxies, with power of substitution to vote, stocks, bonds and other securities, or not to vote a security.

m. Ancillary Administration. To appoint or nominate, and replace with or without cause, any persons or corporations, including itself, as ancillary administrators to administer property in other jurisdictions, with the same powers, privileges and immunities as my fiduciary and without bond.

n. Tax Elections. To file tax returns, and to exercise all tax-related elections and options at their discretion, without compensating adjustments or reimbursements between any accounts or any beneficiaries.

3. Survivorship. A beneficiary is not deemed to survive me unless he or she survives me by five days.

4. Death Costs. My fiduciary shall pay (a) from the residuary estate my debts which are allowed as claims against my estate, (b) from the residuary estate my funeral expenses without regard to legal limitations, (c) from the residuary estate the expenses of administering my estate and (d) from the residuary estate other than the portion of the residuary estate qualifying for the marital deduction under the laws then in effect, without apportionment, all estate, inheritance and succession taxes (excluding generation-skipping taxes other than with respect to direct skips), and interest and penalties thereon, due because of my death and attributable to all property whether passing under this Will or otherwise and not required by the terms of the Existing Trust to be paid out of said trust. However, such taxes, penalties and interest payable out of my residuary estate shall not include taxes, penalties and interest attributable to (i) property over which I have a power of appointment granted to me by another person, (ii) qualified terminable interest property held in a trust of which I was the income beneficiary at the time of my death (other than qualified terminable interest property held in a trust for which an election was made under Code Section 2652(a)(3)), and (iii) life insurance proceeds on policies insuring my life which proceeds are not payable to my probate estate. My fiduciary shall not be reimbursed for any such payment from any person or property. However, my fiduciary in its discretion may direct that part or all of said death costs shall be paid by my Trustee as provided in the Existing Trust, and shall give such direction to the extent necessary so that the gifts made in Article I of this Will and the gifts made in any codicil hereto shall not be reduced by said death costs. If the amount of the above-described taxes, and interest and penalties arising by reason of my death (without regard to where payable from under the terms of this paragraph or applicable law) is increased because of the power of appointment granted to me under Subparagraph II.E.1. of the SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT dated May 20, 2008, I hereby appoint to my probate estate from the property subject to such power (to the extent allowable under such power) the amount of such increase (calculating such increase at the highest applicable marginal rates) and exercise such power to this extent only, and notwithstanding the other provisions of this paragraph further direct my fiduciary to make payment of such increase in taxes, interest and penalties to the appropriate taxing authorities from the appointed property or the proceeds thereof . Any trustee holding such appointive property may pay to my fiduciary the amount which my fiduciary certifies as due under this paragraph and is not responsible for the correctness or application of amounts so paid.

5. Reimbursement for Debts and Expenses. My fiduciary shall promptly reimburse my friends and members of my family who have disbursed their own funds for the payment of any debts, funeral expenses or costs of administration of my estate.

6. Expenses of Handling Tangible Personal Property. All expenses incurred by my fiduciary during the settlement of my estate in appraising, storing, packing, shipping, delivering or insuring an article of tangible personal property passing under this Will shall be charged as an expense of administering my estate.

7. Dealing with Estate. Each fiduciary may act under this Will even if interested in my estate in an individual capacity, as a fiduciary of another estate or trust (including any trust identified in this Will or created under the Existing Trust) or in any other capacity. Each fiduciary may in good faith buy from, sell to, lend funds to or otherwise deal with my estate.

8. Spouse. The term "spouse" herein means, as to a designated individual, the person to whom that individual is from time to time married.

9. Other Beneficiary Designations. Except as otherwise explicitly and with particularity provided herein, (a) no provision of this Will shall revoke or modify any beneficiary designation of mine made by me and not revoked by me prior to my death under any individual retirement account, other retirement plan or account, or annuity or insurance contract, (b) I hereby reaffirm any such beneficiary designation such that any assets held in such account, plan, or contract shall pass in accordance with such designation, and (c) regardless of anything herein to the contrary, any of such assets which would otherwise pass pursuant to this Will due to the beneficiary designation not having met the requirements for a valid testamentary disposition under applicable law or otherwise shall be paid as a gift made hereunder to the persons and in the manner provided in such designation which is incorporated herein by this reference.

RE: AMERICAN EXPRESS

To the person with the authority to pay the decedent's debts from the assets of SIMON BERNSTEIN's estate:

Please accept our sincere condolences on the passing of SIMON BERNSTEIN.
WEST ASSET MANAGEMENT, INC. has been retained to handle this account. Please contact us so we can update our estate records with the appropriate information. The final balance owed by the estate is $34,215.15. Please ensure all credit cards, access checks, convenience checks and/or cash advance checks are destroyed.

If the account has credit life insurance, please contact our office and our representative will assist in filing a claim for payment from the appropriate insurance carrier.

If there is an estate, please forward the Notice of Administration form or the copy of the Notice to Creditors to our office for processing. (This form can be obtained from the probate court or attorney.)

Be advised, as a family member or third party handling the affairs of the decedent, you are not personally responsible to pay this debt.

It's easy for the estate to resolve this account.
The person with the authority to pay the decedent's debts from the assets of the decedent's estate may:

1. Call us at 800-878-1267 to further discuss this account or provide payment information over the phone. Our office hours are MONDAY - TUESDAY 7:00AM - 8:00PM, WEDNESDAY - FRIDAY 7:00AM - 5:00PM, SATURDAY 7:00AM - 11:00AM CST/CDT; or
2. Log on the internet at www.Easydebtpay.com or call toll free at 866-269-2879 to pay this final balance over the phone. Use a credit card, or a Visa/MasterCard backed debit card, or simply withdraw directly from a bank account; or
3. Enclose check or money order for payment in the provided envelope and mail the payment to the address provided.

Please contact our representatives at 800-878-1267 for additional assistance with this matter. We appreciate your cooperation at this difficult time.

Sincerely,

WEST ASSET MANAGEMENT, INC.

Dear Simon Bernstein:

We are writing regarding your inquiry about the charge(s) from ARONSON & ASSOCIATES INC on the above referenced account.

STEPS WE TOOK
We issued temporary credit(s) to your account in the amount(s) of: $1,920.00

We issued the temporary credit(s) so you would not be responsible for the disputed amount during the investigation, and your use of the card would not be affected by this specific inquiry.

We contacted the merchant on your behalf and in order to be fair, gave them the opportunity to present additional information from their point of view.

We used the information you provided us, along with the information we obtained from the merchant, to try and resolve this matter to your satisfaction. Our goal was to resolve this issue fairly.

We are very sorry to hear about the death of Simon L Bernstein and would like to take this opportunity to express our sympathy. We know this must be a difficult time for you and hope you will let us know if we may be of any assistance. Service is the cornerstone of the American Express® brand, and we have a long-standing reputation for providing assistance through difficult times.

We have cancelled the Cardmember's account(s) listed above. If you would like to maintain the relationship with American Express, please call us to discuss available options. If there is an outstanding balance on the account it will be indicated on the next billing statement. For assistance with resolving any outstanding balance, contact our Customer Care Team at 1-800-266-7064. A Customer Care Team representative can be reached Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m., ET and Saturday 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., ET.

Sincerely,

Credit Services

Hi Kimberly!
I made the following list of what I remember Si having... most I believe Robert already has and if I think of anything else out of the blue after this I will email you :)

I don't know any mortgages he had... I think Robert is aware of any if any Banks-
JP Morgan
Wachovia
Sabadell (previously Lydian)
Legacy Bank of Florida

Bank Credit Cards-
American Express
JP Morgan Palladium card

Department Store Credit Cards-
Saks
Neiman Marcus (maybe?)
Macy's (maybe?)

No Gas Cards

FPL for the house and the condo

Propane USA is the company used for gas at Lions Head Lane house. I notified them and they have stopped coming to fill tanks, however, we need to let whoever buys the house know because the tanks are leased with Propane USA that are in the ground to the right of the driveway

Water is Palm Beach County Utility... I haven't talked with them but I have been paying the bill

I'm not sure which doctors we should notify since the 3 he saw most often were aware of what happened... though, no one has heard from any of them since nor the day Si was in the hospital for some reason

Same for any hospitals or clinics

He wasn't a signer on any lease that I know of the rest I have no idea, I'm sure Robert already knows...

Let me know if there's anything else you need :)
Thanks,
Rachel

Hi Rachel:

We are going to need to send Notice to Creditors to any known creditors for Si's estate. That means any of the following:

Mortgage company

Banks and other financial institutions

Bank Credit cards

Department store credit cards

Gas company credit cards

Telephone company

Electric company

Gas company

Water company

Doctors

Hospitals

Clinics

Judgment creditors

Apartment leases

Automobile leases

Loan guaranties

Brokerage margin accounts

Can you please put together a list of any of these types of bills and I will send them Notice to Creditors? They need to be sent out by early next week.

If you have any questions at all, please do not hesitate to contact me or Robert.

Best regards,

IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR ELECTRONIC TRANSFERS

Telephone or write the SABADELL UNITED BANK, N. A. office which has its telephone number and address printed on the front of this statement as soon as you can. If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or you need more information about a transfer on the statement or receipt.

We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

(1) Tell us your name and account number.

(2) Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain, as clearly as you can, why you believe an error or why you need more information.

(3) Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error. If you tell us about an error orally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within ten (10) business days.

NOTICE TO CONSUMERS:

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than ten (10) business days to do this, we will PROVISIONALLY recredit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of this money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we have asked you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within ten (10) business days, we will not recredit your account. We may take up to forty-five (45) days to investigate your question or complaint. If we conclude there was no error, we will send you an explanation of our findings within three (3) business days after our completion of the investigation. At your request, we will send you copies of the documents we relied in reaching a decision. SABADELL UNITED BANK, N. IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR ELECTRONIC TRANSFERS

Telephone or write the SABADELL UNITED BANK, N. A. office which has its telephone number and address printed on the front of this statement as soon as you can. If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or you need more information about a transfer on the statement or receipt.

We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

(1) Tell us your name and account number.

(2) Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain, as clearly as you can, why you believe an error or why you need more information.

(3) Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error. If you tell us about an error orally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within ten (10) business days.

NOTICE TO CONSUMERS:

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than ten (10) business days to do this, we will PROVISIONALLY recredit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of this money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we have asked you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within ten (10) business days, we will not recredit your account. We may take up to forty-five (45) days to investigate your question or complaint. If we conclude there was no error, we will send you an explanation of our findings within three (3) business days after our completion of the investigation. At your request, we will send you copies of the documents we relied in reaching a decision. SABADELL UNITED BANK, N. A. is open for inquiry each business day, Monday through Friday, except for legal holidays.

We suggest you retain this statement for your records.

WIRE TRANSFER AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT is made and entered into this 11th day of October, 2012, by and between Sabadell United Bank, a national banking association (hereinafter referred to as "Bank"), and Estate Of Simon L Bernstein (hereinafter referred to as "Sender" or "Customer").

1. Upon receipt from you (Sender) of instructions orally (and promptly confirmed in writing), electronically, by facsimile, or in writing, (hereinafter referred to as "Payment Order"), and upon the terms and conditions contained herein, Bank is hereby authorized and directed to transfer funds by wire, telex, book entry or other means (hereinafter referred to as "Transfer") from any "Authorized Account" (as hereinafter defined) of Sender, now or hereafter maintained with Bank, to any account of Sender or to any third party (Beneficiary) designated by Sender, whether such account be maintained at Bank or any other bank. An "Authorized Account" means any deposit account of Sender designated by Sender as a source of Payment Orders issued by the Sender to the Bank. If Customer does not so designate an account, any account of the Customer is an Authorized Account if payment of a Payment Order from that account is not inconsistent with a restriction on the use of that account. If the Payment Order is transmitted by facsimile, Customer agrees to promptly furnish to Bank the signed original of the Payment Order. Upon failure of Customer to promptly confirm an oral instruction in writing, or to promptly furnish a signed original Payment Order sent by facsimile, Bank, at its sole option may terminate this Agreement or refuse to accept oral or facsimile instructions thereafter.

2. AUTHORIZATION

Bank is hereby authorized to make such Transfers upon its receipt of the Payment Order executed by Customer, if an individual, or by any of the following named officers, employees or agents of Customer (must be in accordance with Certificate of Corporate Resolution/Partnership Agreement furnished to the Bank) as follows:

[✓] Authorization of one individual only required for all Transfers.
[ ] Authorization of two individuals required for all Transfers.
[ ] Other (please specify)

Print or type name(s) of

AUTHORIZED INDIVIDUAL	TITLE	SIGNATURE
Robert Spallina	co-Personal Representative
Donald Tescher	co-Personal Representative

Each above named individual or officer, agent or employee of Customer, or any officer, agent or employee of Customer who may hereinafter be added as an authorized individual referred to herein, either singularly or collectively, shall be referred to as "Authorized Agent." Sender may amend or cancel the Payment Order in any of the methods in which it could have issued the Payment Order subject to Paragraph 6 hereof. The designation of Authorized Agents, or any change of Authorized Agents such as addition or deletion, must be by Certificate of Corporate Resolution, if Customer is a corporation, or by other authority acceptable to Bank if Customer is not a corporation.

If the Payment Order received from Sender identifies the beneficiary by an identifying or bank account number, Bank may rely on such number as the proper identification of the beneficiary of the Payment Order. Customer agrees that if the Payment Order describes a beneficiary inconsistently by name and account number, payment may be made by the beneficiary's bank on the basis of the account number, even if the account number identifies a person different from the named beneficiary in the Payment Order and that Customer's obligation to pay the Payment Order shall not be excused by Customer error.

3. AUTHENTICATION

Upon the receipt of a Payment Order, amendment or cancellation thereof under this Agreement, and prior to the acceptance thereof, Bank shall authenticate the instruction by the use of a security procedure which is hereby accepted and authorized by the Customer as commercially reasonable in light of the circumstances and the type and frequency of the Payment Order to be requested. Said security procedure shall consist of a telephonic callback to any one of the individuals listed below, unless the Payment Order was received electronically, in which case the Bank's security procedure will involve the use of authorization passwords and codes.

Telephonic callbacks for authentication of Payment Orders are to be made to any of the following:

INDIVIDUAL	PHONE NUMBER
Robert Spallina	561-997-7008
Donald Tescher	561-997-7008

If Customer has designated more than 1 (one) telephone number for any of the above individuals, Customer acknowledges that by so doing, it has increased the risk of possible fraudulent transfers hereunder and Customer hereby agrees to assume such a risk and hold Bank harmless and indemnified for any losses Bank may sustain as a result of granting this accommodation to Customer.

The foregoing authentication/security procedure may be amended from time to time upon execution by both Bank and Customer of a Payment Authentication Amendment agreement in form and substance acceptable to Bank.

4. ACCEPTANCE OR REJECTION
Bank shall be deemed to have accepted Customer's Payment Order when it executes it by issuing a Payment Order intended to carry out the Payment Order received by the Bank. Bank may, under certain circumstances, reject the Payment Order without liability by transmitting a notice of rejection to Customer either orally, electronically or in writing, before executing the Payment Order.

5. Orders for the transfer of U.S. Dollars shall be paid in U.S. Dollars if transferred to a beneficiary located in the United States. If transferred to a beneficiary located in a foreign country, the beneficiary's bank may elect to pay the beneficiary in foreign currency at the bank's buying rate of exchange for wire transfers. It is your responsibility to advise the beneficiary of this possibility. The Bank may send any message relative to this order in explicit language, code or cipher. Foreign currency transfer orders are final when made to the Bank. However, pursuant to the request of Customer and, if possible, the Bank may cancel or amend any order before the transfer is made. The Bank shall incur no liability if it is unable, for any reason, to cancel or amend an order. Refunds of U.S. Dollar orders shall be made in the U.S. Dollar amount. Refunds of foreign currency orders shall be in the amount of U.S. Dollars that can be bought for the foreign currency amount at the Bank's then current rate of exchange. The Customer bears all risk of loss due to fluctuation in the rate of exchange. No transfer fee shall be refunded. The Customer is responsible for any charges related to cancellation or amendment of the foreign currency order.

6. CONFIRMATION
Upon executing a Transfer, Bank shall mail or deliver to Customer at:

4855 Technology Way Suite 720
Boca Raton FL 33431
Address

or at such other place as Customer may hereafter designate in writing, a confirmation stating the date and amount of the Transfer, and the bank account from and to which the Transfer was made. Upon receipt of such confirmation or periodic statement, Customer shall cause it to be examined promptly and notify Bank within a reasonable period of time, not to exceed thirty (30) days, of any unauthorized, erroneous or erroneously executed Payment Order. Bank will, upon request, provide Customer with such additional information with respect to said Payment Order as Customer may reasonably request. If at Customer request a wire confirmation is to be sent to a Branch for Customer pick up, and the Customer does not pick up the confirmation within 5 days, the Branch will mail the wire confirmation to the Customer.

7. Customer hereby agrees that if it revokes or cancels any Payment Orders, it will indemnify and hold Bank harmless for all loss, claims, expenses, costs or other liability incurred by Bank as a result thereof. Upon receipt of a request by an Authorized Agent to cancel a Payment Order previously communicated to Bank, Bank will use its best efforts to cancel the Order and/or recover the related funds. A communication by the Customer which attempts to cancel or amend a Payment Order must be received by Bank at a time and in a manner affording Bank a reasonable opportunity to act on the communication. Bank makes no representations or warranty as to its ability to revoke or cancel a Payment Order or Transfer once it has been executed.

8. Bank shall not be liable for executing any Payment Order or for any other act performed by Bank relating to such Transfer, nor any claims, expenses, damages or losses arising therefrom, if such Transfer or act is made by an officer, agent or employee of Bank pursuant to instructions, written, oral (including telephonic), or electronically, which such officer, agent or employee reasonably and in good faith believes to be that of Sender.

9. Customer agrees that Bank shall not be liable for any error or delay on the part of any agent used by Bank in the execution of any Payment Order or related act. Further, Bank shall not be liable for any error or delay in Transfer or related act due to any cause other than Bank's own negligence. Bank shall not be liable for any loss, damage, liability, or claim arising directly or indirectly from any error, delay, or failure to perform hereunder which is caused by earthquakes, fires, natural disasters, civil or foreign disturbances, power outages, acts of government, labor disputes, failures in either communication or computer networks, legal constraints, or any other event beyond its control. Customer agrees that it shall at all times have adequate contingency plans in place for these and similar circumstances. Customer agrees that all damages and other compensation due it as a result of Bank's negligence in executing a Payment Order or related act shall be limited to an amount equal to interest on the funds at the Federal Funds rate paid by Bank at the close of business on each day the error or delay remains uncorrected, provided, however, that if Bank is unable to recover all or any part of erroneously transferred funds from a transferee who has no claim to them, Bank shall be liable for Customer's actual loss, not to exceed the amount of funds which Bank is unable to recover. In no event will Bank be liable for any indirect, consequential, punitive, or special damages.

10. Customer acknowledges and agrees that Bank does not have any duty to accept a Payment Order or, before acceptance thereof, to take any action or refrain from taking any action with respect to any Payment Order except as may be provided elsewhere in this Agreement.

11. Bank reserves the right, but shall not be obligated, to electronically record telephonic Transfer requests and/or telephonic callbacks to document instructions received and authentication procedures performed.

12. Funds Transfers executed pursuant to this Agreement may utilize the Fedwire System. The rights and obligations of the parties to such Transfers are governed by Subpart B of Regulation J of the Federal Reserve Board as well as the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) Article 4A.

13. This agreement shall not be binding upon the Bank until countersigned by an authorized officer of the Bank.

IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR ELECTRONIC TRANSFERS

Telephone or write the SABADELL UNITED BANK, N. A. office which has its telephone number and address printed on the front of this statement as soon as you can. If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or you need more information about a transfer on the statement or receipt.

We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

(1) Tell us your name and account number.

(2) Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain, as clearly as you can, why you believe an error or why you need more information.

(3) Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error. If you tell us about an error orally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within ten (10) business days.

NOTICE TO CONSUMERS:

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than ten (10) business days to do this, we will PROVISIONALLY recredit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of this money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we have asked you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within ten (10) business days, we will not recredit your account. We may take up to forty-five (45) days to investigate your question or complaint. If we conclude there was no error, we will send you an explanation of our findings within three (3) business days after our completion of the investigation. At your request, we will send you copies of the documents we relied in reaching a decision. SABADELL UNITED BANK, N. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (or 20 business days for new accounts) to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error so that you will have use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

In Case of Errors or Questions About Non-Electronic Transfers (Checks or Deposits):

Contact the Bank immediately if your statement is incorrect or if you need more information about any non-electronic transactions (checks or deposits) on this statement. If any such error appears, you must notify the bank in writing as soon as possible after the statement was made available to you. For more complete details, see the applicable account agreements and appendices that govern your account.

We will update Section H in our Deposit Account Agreement titled Closing Your Account.

Effective July 21, 2013. If you have pending transactions on your account, or are overdrawn, we may not immediately close the account. However, if you ask us, we will restrict additional withdrawals from your account, other than the pending transactions. We will not pay any interest on the account after we have restricted your account.

This change will be reflected in your account agreement; all other terms remain the same. If you have questions, please call us at the telephone number listed on this account statement or visit the nearest Chase branch.

A clearer description of transaction terms used in account statements

This message is to make you aware of new language that will be used to describe a type of transaction in account statements and online activities:

Beginning July 22, 2013, if you cash a check and it is returned to us without being paid, the transaction will be listed on your statement as Cashed Check Returned.

This is not a new transaction type. It is simply a clearer description of this type of account activity.

Currently, a single term (Deposited Item Returned) is used to describe two types of of transactions: deposited and cashed items that are returned to us without being paid. After July 22, this term will only be used to indicate a deposited check that is returned.

All other terms and conditions for your account(s) remain the same.

Please contact your J.P. Morgan team if you have any questions or require more information

Overdrafts

An overdraft created by a withdrawal, debit or instruction to transfer funds from your checking account which we choose to honor will be charged at the Overdraft Interest rate we establish, currently Prime + 4%, not to exceed the maximum lawful rate. The overdraft will continue to accrue interest until it is paid in full. An overdraft may be caused by insufficient or uncollected funds. Interest on the overdraft amount will be charged on a 360-day basis and will be assessed on overdrafts regardless of amount. The Overdraft Interest charge will be made on the first business day of the month following the overdraft activity. This does not constitute an agreement on our part to pay any item or honor any instruction if there are insufficient balances in your checking account to cover the item(s) or transfer(s). The best way to avoid this interest charge is to maintain sufficient balances in your checking account to cover anticipated payments.

JPMorgan Chase Business Deposit Express℠

1. Business Deposit Express services ("Services") apply to Depository Bags (see paragraph 2) received at the Branches, including but not limited to, night depositories, bulk deposits made over the counter, delivered by Customer's armored car or courier, Bank Commercial Deposit Machines and Commercial Cash Centers. Upon request, the Bank shall issue Customer a key to certain designated vault facilities ("Facilities").
2. Customer shall utilize tamper resistant disposable bags ("Depository Bags") which conform to such standards as the Bank may establish from time to time.
3. Customer agrees to the following:
   a. The Facilities shall only be used for the delivery to the Bank of Depository Bags which shall contain only currency and/or negotiable instruments together with a deposit ticket prepared by the Customer.
   b. The Bank may, prior to verification of the contents of the Depository Bag, provisionally credit Customer's account based on the amount stated on Customer's deposit ticket.
   c. The Bank shall, not in the presence of Customer, count and verify the contents of Depository Bags. The Bank's count shall be controlling and final and the Bank will notify Customer of any adjustment to the amount of the deposit.
   d. No deposit is deemed to be made until the Bank has concluded its verification process and credited Customer's account.
4. The use of the Facilities is at Customer's sole risk and Bank shall not be liable for any loss, destruction or disappearance of any Depository Bag or any part of the alleged contents prior to verification by Bank.
5. The Bank may terminate any of these Services at any time upon notice to Customer. Customer shall promptly return to Bank all Depository Bags and keys to any Facility.

The Private Bank

Respecting and protecting client privacy have always been vital to our relationships with clients.

The attached Privacy Notice, which is now in a format recommended by federal regulators, describes how J.P. Morgan Private Bank keeps client information private and secure and uses it to serve you better. As shown, the J.P. Morgan companies that provide private banking services do not use client information for purposes not related to the Private Bank. Additionally, we keep your information under physical, electronic and procedural controls, and authorize our agents and contractors to get information about you only when they need it to do their work for us.

The Private Bank uses information we have about you in order to make private banking products and services available to you through the Private Bank, including loans, deposits and investments, to meet your private banking needs. Using your information in this way, through the authorization you provided as part of your private banking application, may qualify you for account upgrades, improved client services and new service offerings based on our more complete knowledge of your relationship with the Private Bank.

The Private Bank is a part of J.P. Morgan Asset Management* and provides private banking services for private bank clients. The Private Bank includes those units of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., J.P. Morgan Trust Company of Delaware and J.P. Morgan Securities LLC dedicated to the Private Bank, as well as alternative investment funds offered through the Private Bank.

Our Privacy Notice applies to the relationships of clients or former clients with the Private Bank in the United States, as well as to the relationships of clients or former clients with our offices outside the United States that are registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission. (If you reside outside the United States, you may also have privacy protections under the local laws applicable in that jurisdiction.)

Please speak with your J.P. Morgan representative should you have any questions or concerns. Thank you for the trust and confidence you place in us.

*J.P. Morgan Asset Management is the marketing name for the asset management businesses of JPMorgan Chase & Co.

Who we are
Who is providing this notice?	Those units of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., J.P. Morgan Trust Company of Delaware and J.P. Morgan Securities LLC dedicated to the Private Bank.

What we do
How does the Private Bank protect my personal information?	To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We authorize our employees to get your information only when they need it to do their work, and we require companies that work for us to protect your information.
How does the Private Bank collect my personal information?	We collect your personal information, for example, when you: ▪ open an account or deposit money ▪ pay your bills or apply for a loan ▪ use your credit or debit card We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.
Why can't I limit all sharing?	Federal law gives you the right to limit only: ▪ sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes–information about your creditworthiness ▪ affiliates from using your information to market to you ▪ sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

GENERAL TERMS FOR ACCOUNTS AND SERVICES

"Account" refers to the account or accounts subject to these General Terms and an additional account agreement. "Accountholder" means the person or entity (also called "you" or "your") who owns the Account. "We," "us," "our" and the "Bank" mean JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (JPMCB) or, in the case of a product or service furnished by, or Account with, or Obligations owed to another Morgan Affiliate, that Morgan Affiliate. Other definitions of capitalized terms used in these General Terms are found in the Definitions Section.

1. Types of Accounts

The titles under which accounts are opened, the selection of the type of account or opening an account for a minor under various states' Uniform Transfers or Gifts to Minors Acts (UTMA/UGMA) have important consequences for taxes, control of assets, and wealth and estate planning. Clients should discuss how to structure financial accounts with their own legal or tax adviser. Material provided by J.P. Morgan is not intended to provide, and should not be relied on for, accounting, legal, estate planning or tax advice nor does it provide investment advice unless specifically contracted for.

Individual Accounts

Where only one individual appears on the Application or a signature card as the owner of such account, the Account will be treated as a solely owned account. In the event of the Accountholder's death or adjudication of incompetence, we have the right to honor checks or other items drawn against the Account until ten days after we receive actual written notice of death or incompetence, and upon such notice, we may restrict access to the Account until your executor, administrator or other representative of the estate provides the appropriate documentation to us, including a death certificate. To the extent and under the circumstances permitted by the laws of the state governing your Account, upon receipt of actual written notice and proof of your death, the balance in your Account will be paid to the person or entity you designate to "pay on death" ("POD") or whom you designate as a POD payee or beneficiary on your Account's signature card, Application, or other form provided by us.

Joint Accounts

Unless the signature card or Application provides otherwise, where two or more individuals are designated or appear on a signature card or Application as owners of such Account, then as between them, they will be treated as joint tenants with rights of survivorship. For any joint account where a joint owner has died, we need not release funds in the Account until all legal documents are delivered to us. You will notify us of the death of any joint owner and reimburse us for any tax we may be required to pay by reason of our payment or release of funds in the Account. Certain states also permit married residents to own property as community property or as tenants by the entirety. These forms of ownership have different attributes than ownership as joint tenants with right of survivorship. You must consult your own legal advisor about which type of account is best for you.

Any joint owner may close the Account. We may, at our sole discretion, act upon the instructions of any joint owner, including an instruction to withdraw funds or add a signatory to the Account, without the consent of the other joint owner. However, we are under no obligation to follow such instruction, and may refuse to do so without liability. We also may pay all or any part of the funds in the Account to any of the joint owners upon request of that joint owner or to a court or governmental agency upon receipt of a garnishment order, tax levy or similar legal process identifying any one of the joint owners.

Any Accountholder may grant a security interest in a joint account without the consent of the other owners. All joint owners will be jointly and severally liable for all Obligations, whether or not that particular owner incurred the Obligation or received benefit from a transaction which resulted, directly or indirectly, in such Obligation.

For deposit accounts, we may refuse to accept items for deposit or to pay withdrawals on the signature of any one of several joint account owners if we receive a written request not to do so from any joint account owner. After we receive such written request, we may refuse to honor any check, draft or demand upon the account by any of the joint account owners, including the one providing the request to us, unless all of the joint account owners concur in the withdrawal of funds from the account. In the event we receive such a written request, we shall be relieved of any and all liability to every joint account owner for failure or refusal to honor any check, draft or other demand for payment or withdrawal unless all of the joint account owners join in the drawing or other request. This shall not affect transactions previously completed.

Each joint owner appoints each of the others as such joint owner's agent and attorney in fact with power to endorse and deposit items payable to such joint owner in the joint account. If a joint account is established without the signature of the other joint owner, you will hold us harmless for our reliance upon the designation of the other as a joint owner.

If you hold an investment through your Account which is entered into under a separate agreement, for example, an investment in a hedge fund, the agreements governing such investment may impose terms and conditions on investors that are at variance with the characteristics of the type of joint account you have selected. You agree that the terms and conditions in such investment's governing documents supersede and prevail over this Agreement. However, this Agreement governs any proceeds distributed to the Account as a result of such investment, including, without limitation, liquidation proceeds.

Accounts for Minors

The custodian of an Account opened for a minor under the Uniform Transfers or Gifts to Minors Act controls the Account, but the designated minor is the owner of the funds in the Account. The Social Security number of the minor is to be used for income tax reporting. The gift to the minor is irrevocable. The Account cannot be pledged as collateral for a personal loan to the custodian nor checks cashed against the Account, except as otherwise permitted by law. When the minor reaches the age mandated by law, the custodian is charged with disbursing the funds to terminate the custodianship.

Deposit Account ("Totten") Trusts and Representative Payee

If a deposit account is established as "in trust for" ("ITF") or as trustee for a third person without formal trust documents, the Account may be treated as a Totten Trust account or as otherwise required by the laws of the state where the deposit is located.

If you have opened the account as a Representative Payee for receipt of certain federal benefits on behalf of a beneficiary, you agree that you will cause to be deposited into the Account only those benefits payable to the beneficiary. The Bank is neither obligated to ensure that only those eligible federal benefits are deposited into the Account, nor does it have a duty to determine whether any withdrawals or transfers from the Account are for the benefit of the beneficiary. If the beneficiary dies, you agree to (a) promptly notify the Bank, (b) no longer permit further deposits to the Account, (c) promptly notify the Bank if any such deposits are made, and (d) maintain sufficient available balances in the Account from which any benefit payments may be reclaimed by the applicable U.S. Government agency. If the Bank is unable to debit the Account or if there are insufficient available funds in the Account from which to debit the full amount of any reclamation by the government, you authorize the Bank to offset any account owned by you or the beneficiary for any amounts reclaimed by the applicable U.S. Government agency.

Transfer on Death Accounts
Securities in an Account designated as "Transfer on Death" ("TOD") will be held for the benefit of the beneficiaries you designate on the Application. Upon the death of the last surviving Accountholder, ownership of the Securities passes to those beneficiaries, not the deceased Accountholder's estate. If there are two or more beneficiaries, they will hold as tenants in common. If no beneficiary survives the death of all Account owners, the Securities will be part of the last surviving owner's estate. TOD Accounts may not be available in all States and are available only for Accounts eligible to hold Securities.

2. Your Representations and Warranties
All information provided in the Application or otherwise given to us from time to time is accurate, true and complete.

For individual and joint accounts, the identified Accountholders are the beneficial owners. For entity accounts, beneficial ownership is as you have told us. You will notify us immediately if the beneficial ownership of any Account changes.

If you are a natural person, you represent and warrant that you are of the age of majority according to the law of your place of residence and of the place of your Accounts.

If you establish the Account when acting in a fiduciary capacity, (i) all beneficial interests in the estate, trust or Account for which you are a fiduciary are owned by individuals or by non-profit organizations; and (ii) you are legally empowered to enter into and perform this Agreement in such capacity.

If the Account is to be maintained in the name of a sole proprietorship, (i) you are the sole owner of the sole proprietorship; (ii) the sole proprietorship is doing business under the name and style of, and at the location, given in the Application; (iii) you will be personally responsible for any debts, deficiencies or overdrafts in the sole proprietorship Account; and (iv) checks drawn on the sole proprietorship's Account may be debited against any Account you hold, in your individual name or jointly, with us.

For Accounts opened other than by a natural person, (i) the Accountholder has the power to enter into and perform under the Agreement, (ii) all necessary actions have been taken and approvals received in accordance with its organizational documents and applicable law and regulation, and (iii) the Accountholder is duly organized and in good standing in the jurisdiction in which it is organized. The persons signing the Application have the authority to bind the Accountholder to the Agreement.

We may rely on these representations and warranties, which are made as of the date of the Agreement and which will continue until the Agreement is terminated.

3. Authorized Instructions
Authorized Persons on your Account are those indicated on your Application, any resolution, or other separate written authorization related to the Account that you deliver to us. You agree to be bound by all instructions that we believe are authorized and to have been given by an Authorized Person, regardless of how those instructions have been transmitted, and no Morgan Affiliate will be liable for any loss, cost, or expense for acting on such instructions. Until you or another Authorized Person has revoked the authority of an Authorized Person in writing, Authorized Persons shall continue to be Authorized Persons. You authorize us to accept instructions by telephone, facsimile transmission, in writing or any other method that you may agree to use but understand that we are not required to accept instructions by any such media.

You agree to be bound by any facsimile or other electronically transmitted signature that we in good faith believe to have been transmitted by you and that such signature will evidence your agreement or consent and will be legally binding, enforceable and the legal equivalent of your handwritten signature.

4. Monitoring Conversations
You agree that so long as your Account is open, we may monitor or record conversations and telephone calls (should we elect, in our discretion, to do so) that you have with our employees or agents for the purpose of verifying transactions, quality control, or for other business reasons. You waive any notice other than this provision that your communications shall or may be recorded at any time.

5. Telephone and Electronic Communications
For deposit accounts, if you provide us with your cell phone number as a contact number for your Account, you agree that we may call that number with service messages, including calls via an autodialer or prerecorded calls, notwithstanding any state or federal law or regulation that would otherwise prevent us from engaging in this activity without your consent.

Confidentiality and integrity of messages via email, facsimile, or other electronic media cannot be assured, and electronic media may not always transmit correctly, so you will not assume we have received a message via such media if we do not respond within a reasonable time. You understand that messages left on a voice-mail system may not be collected immediately for various reasons and, again, you will not assume we have received a message if we do not respond within a reasonable time. You understand that we do not accept securities, money transfer, or other instructions sent by electronic media, and will not be responsible for them. If we agree to accept instructions you send by such media, you accept that you do so at your risk, in accordance with this paragraph and Section 3 above. We may record and monitor communications via electronic media similarly to telephone conversations, as explained above.

6. Statements and Confirmations; Balancing and Holding Information
We will provide you with periodic statements detailing the activity that occurs in your Accounts. J.P. Morgan Securities LLC (JPMS) will confirm Brokerage Account transactions when required by applicable law and regulation. You will not receive confirmations relating to your Investment Management Account activity or accounts opened for you with Third Party Managers. All statements and advices will be sent to you by mail at the address last recorded by us unless you make other arrangements. This address must be one where you or someone you have authorized to receive communications on your behalf actually receives communications. You will notify us in writing of any address change.

You agree that you must review statements and confirmations promptly and notify us immediately of any errors, omissions, improper payments, or transfers. Unless otherwise provided by applicable law or regulation or specifically provided elsewhere in the General Terms or any Account Agreement, you agree that you cannot make a claim against us based on any error, omission, improper payment or transfer disclosed by a confirmation or statement if you fail to notify us of it within three (3) Business Days after its delivery in the case of a confirmation, and within thirty (30) Business Days after its delivery in the case of a statement.

Responsibilities with respect to periodic statements covering Deposit Accounts are identified in the Deposit Account Agreement.

Asset values on periodic statements come from our proprietary pricing models or external pricing services that we select and may rest on estimates and assumptions we make about relevant future market conditions and other matters, all of which are subject to change without notice. Such changes may have a material impact on valuations, and valuations based on other models or different assumptions may yield materially different results. Statement valuations may not represent the actual or indicative terms for new transactions or for liquidation of existing transactions, and may vary from valuations used by us for other purposes. Accordingly, you will not use your statements as the sole basis for valuing your assets, and you will seek advice from your accountant or attorney about using statements to prepare tax returns, financial statements, regulatory reports, or for other purposes. You agree that we and Morgan Affiliates shall not be liable for losses, costs, expenses or damages (incidental, special, consequential, compensatory, punitive, or otherwise) arising out of any use or reliance on any valuation of any asset set forth in a periodic statement or other document.

Balances and Account holdings change on a frequent basis. Information about the amount of your balance or holdings will be as of a given time, and there is no assurance that the same balance or holdings will be in your Account at the time the checks that you write are presented for payment. You hereby waive any claims against us based on balance and holdings information provided to you orally, electronically or in writing or to a third party on your behalf.

7. Security Interest; Right to Debit and Setoff

In order to secure payment when due of any and all Obligations under this Agreement to us or any Morgan Affiliate, you pledge and grant to us and each of them a continuing security interest in the Collateral. This security interest shall apply to any Collateral (and proceeds thereof) now or at any time in the future held in or credited to any Account or other accounts maintained for you. You acknowledge and agree that where we or any other Morgan Affiliate holds Collateral or is a securities intermediary in respect of any Collateral, we each hold the Collateral for ourselves and also as agents for all other Morgan Affiliates who are secured parties hereunder pursuant to the Intercompany J.P. Morgan Securities Account Control Agreement among various Morgan Affiliates as amended or restated from time to time. At any time that you have not met any Obligation under this Agreement we may liquidate, sell or transfer all or any portion of the Collateral to satisfy that Obligation in whatever priority we choose in our sole discretion; exercise all rights and remedies we have under applicable law with respect to the Collateral; or, exercise any other rights or remedies we have under other agreements or applicable law.

If you have a line of credit connected to an Asset Account, this security interest is in addition to any security interest that you have granted in connection with that line of credit.

In addition, we may, without prior notice or demand, apply or setoff the funds in your Account at any time to pay off any Obligation, whether direct or indirect, you have to a Morgan Affiliate that provides products or services under this Agreement. If the Account is a joint account, the funds in the joint account may be used to pay the Obligations of a single Accountholder. A hold against the Account (to the extent of our right of offset) may be imposed rather than an immediate debit of the funds. Any of your assets or your Obligations may be transferred within and among Morgan Affiliates in order to effect the rights in this Section. You acknowledge that your Account is a general account and not a special purpose account.

8. Fees

You agree to pay all fees, charges and commissions associated with this Agreement and the Accounts and services we provide to you. We are authorized to charge your Accounts directly for payment for all applicable fees contained in the fee schedules in effect from time to time, which are available upon request.

9. Error Corrections

We have the right to correct all errors that arise in your Accounts without prior notice to you, including debiting your Accounts for any sums or positions incorrectly existing therein and correcting errors with respect to Account holdings or balances. We may also reverse any provisional credits or recredits. We may take these actions even if they result in a debit balance or overdraft.

10. Credit Reports

We may request credit reports on you in connection with your Application for an Account or in the future in connection with an update, renewal or extension of an Account. Upon your request, we may inform you whether we have obtained any such reports and, if we have, we will inform you of the name and address of the reporting agency that furnished the reports to us. Any credit reports that we receive will be deemed to have been obtained by each Morgan Affiliate for its own benefit.

11. Limitations on Responsibilities and Liabilities; Indemnification

We shall be responsible for the performance of only those duties that are set forth in this Agreement.

Except as otherwise provided by law, our sole liability and that of Morgan Affiliates to you, your heirs, legal representatives, assigns or any other party for any wrongful act or failure to act in connection with any of the products or services provided to you shall be any direct damages you incur because of our gross negligence or willful misconduct. Direct damages will be limited to the amount of any funds or the fair market value of any property lost because of such gross negligence or willful misconduct, together with compensatory interest and a credit for our fees with respect to any relevant transaction. Under no circumstance shall we be liable to you or any other person for any services provided by third parties (e.g., clearing agencies, central depositories, communications carriers) or for any indirect, incidental, special, or consequential damages, regardless of the form of action and even if we have been advised of the possibility of such damages. We disclaim any and all warranties, whether express or implied, including but not limited to all warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose.

We will not be responsible for losses caused directly or indirectly by events or conditions beyond our control, such as war, acts of terrorism, natural disasters, government restrictions, strikes, a failure of public utility, communication, computer, equipment or other systems, a failure or delay in receiving electronic data or any law, legal or regulatory requirements, exchange or market rulings, or suspension of trading.

You will indemnify and hold all Morgan Affiliates providing products or services under the Agreement harmless from any claim, loss, liability, or expense, including, without limitation, collection costs, reproduction and search costs and the reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel and other advisers incurred by them (i) in rendering services hereunder; (ii) if you breach the Agreement; (iii) if a third party brings a claim, suit or proceeding against a Morgan Affiliate because it provided products and services to you, or (iv) resulting from a subpoena, administrative order, court order, levy, garnishment, attachment or other legal process affecting the Account. You will not be required to indemnify any Morgan Affiliate if the claim, loss, or liability results from its gross negligence or willful misconduct.

12. Taxes
You will be responsible for the payment of all taxes relating to your Accounts. You will reimburse us and all Morgan Affiliates on demand for any transfer taxes, documentary taxes, assessments or charges that are imposed at any time on or in connection with this Agreement and shall indemnify us and them against liability for any such tax (including any interest and penalties). We are authorized to deduct from any cash receivable credited to your Accounts any taxes or levies required to be deducted by any revenue or governmental authority for whatever reason with respect to your Accounts.

13. Abandoned or Inactive Accounts
Unless you make a transaction in your Account from time to time or notify us in writing that you know your Account still exists, state law may require us to send the Property in the Account to the applicable state as abandoned property.

The applicable state is generally the state of your last known address as shown on our books and records, or the state of the JPMCB address where your Account is maintained if your address is outside the United States. After the turnover, the funds must be reclaimed from the applicable state. Your Account may be charged for certain expenses incurred in remitting funds to any state. These charges are not refundable.

14. Retention of Assets; Disputes over Account Assets
We may refuse to pay out any money or transfer or distribute Securities or other Property from your Accounts (i) in the event of your death or the death of any co-Accountholder, until we are fully satisfied, in our sole judgment, that we will have no resulting liability or potential liability for any estate tax, gift tax or other tax, or (ii) upon receipt of oral or written notice of a claim regarding the Account, until we have a court order or the written consent of all required parties. We also may place a hold on the Account or we may file an action in interpleader. You agree to reimburse us for any expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees that we incur because of any dispute, including any incurred without litigation. We are not required to determine whether a dispute has merit in order to take one of the actions permitted by this section.

15. Termination
Either of us may terminate this Agreement or some or all of the products, features and services provided at any time upon notice to the other. However, any security interest in Collateral, or any other setoff rights against your Accounts or Property will not terminate until you have satisfied indefeasibly and in full all your Obligations, whether arising before or after termination. Termination of one or more of the services and features of an Account may result in the cancellation of some or all of the features or privileges described in this Agreement. You understand that you remain responsible for all charges, debit Items or other transactions initiated or authorized by you or Authorized Persons, whether arising before or after termination.

16. Compliance with Laws
You certify that you have observed and will continue to observe all laws and regulations that apply to your activities and relationship with us or any Morgan Affiliate.

17. Rules and Regulations
Your transactions will be effected in accordance with our internal rules and policies, the applicable rules, regulations, customs, and usages of any exchange, market, clearinghouse, or self-regulatory organization, and all applicable federal and state laws, rules, regulations, and treaties.

18. Governing Law; Jurisdiction
Except as otherwise provided, or insofar as preempted by federal law, this Agreement shall be governed by the law of the State of New York without giving effect to its choice of law or conflict of laws provisions (other than Section 5-1401 of the New York General Obligations Law).

Deposit accounts shall be governed by the law of the place where each deposit account is located.

Under federal law, deposits that you maintain in any JPMCB branch located outside of the U.S. are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC"); are subject to cross-border risks; and enjoy a lesser preference, as compared to deposits held in the U.S., in the event JPMCB should be liquidated, become insolvent or be placed into receivership or be subject to other proceedings for the benefit of creditors.

This Agreement varies applicable law or regulation to the maximum extent permitted under any such law or regulation. Any provision of applicable law or regulation that cannot be varied by agreement or notice shall supersede any conflicting term of this Agreement. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be illegal or unenforceable, the validity of the remaining portions of this Agreement shall not be affected.

You submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of any federal or state court located in the county where the office holding your Account is situated for all legal proceedings arising out of this Agreement. You irrevocably waive any objection of inconvenient forum that you may now or later have.

19. Waiver of Jury Trial
To the extent permitted by law, we and you knowingly, voluntarily and irrevocably waive all right to trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim, of whatever type or nature, including but not limited to actions in contract or tort, arising out of this Agreement or the relationship established by this Agreement.

You acknowledge that this jury waiver is a material inducement to us to enter into this agreement and acknowledge that no representative of ours has represented (expressly or otherwise) that we might not enforce this jury waiver in the event of litigation.

20. Use and Exchange of Nonpublic Personal Information
The J.P. Morgan Privacy Policy governs the use and exchange of nonpublic personal information about you, including by Morgan Affiliates.

21. Successors and Assigns; Subcontracting
This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of each of us and our successors, assigns, heirs, and representatives. You will not assign any of your rights or obligations under this Agreement without our prior written consent. Except where prohibited by applicable law or regulation, each Morgan Affiliate providing accounts and services under this Agreement may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement, or grant participations in its rights, such as its rights as a creditor, to any other party without notice to you or your consent. You agree that each Morgan Affiliate may arrange for another Morgan Affiliate or other entity to perform on its behalf any act required to be performed by such Morgan Affiliate under this Agreement.

22. Entire Agreement, Amendment, Waiver, and Construction

This Agreement contains the entire agreement between you, us and all Morgan Affiliates for the Accounts and services described and supersedes any prior oral or written agreements relating to the Accounts opened and services contracted for. No prior conduct, past practice, or oral statement by our officers or employees will modify your or our obligations under the Agreement. If there are any conflicts between the General Terms and any product Agreement contained in this document, the product Agreement shall prevail. This Agreement and our fees and charges may be amended, and we may modify any aspect of an Account, at any time following notice sent to you by ordinary mail. We do not waive any right under this Agreement or under applicable law because we delay in exercising that right. If we exercise any single or partial right, we may exercise or further exercise that right or any other right or remedy at a later time. Our rights are cumulative under this Agreement and do not exclude any rights or remedies provided by law. No ambiguity in any provision of this Agreement shall be construed against us by reason of the fact that we or our legal counsel drafted such provision.

23. Definitions

"AC Fund" means a mutual fund which American Century Investment Management Inc. ("ACI") advises or to which it provides other services for which it is separately compensated. JPMorgan Chase & Co. has an equity interest in ACI.

"Agreement" means these General Terms, the applicable Agreements for Accounts and Services for the products and services you select, all relevant appendices, the Application, any supplemental forms you are asked to complete, and rate and fee schedules, all as the same may be amended or supplemented from time to time.

"Application" means the application you have signed with respect to the Accounts and this Agreement, any supplemental or additional applications (including those amending or replacing a prior application) for products and services offered by J.P. Morgan. Your Application includes any agreements or applications you signed or submitted to a predecessor of a Morgan Affiliate, and further means any information you have given in writing to us or a predecessor of a Morgan Affiliate related to these products and services.

"Authorized Persons" means you and those persons who have been authorized by you to act on your behalf in connection with an Account.

"Business Day" unless otherwise specified in the Agreement means a day on which a relevant Morgan Affiliate is generally open for the conduct of substantially all of its business functions. For any Morgan Affiliate that is an insured depository institution, a Business Day is any day other than Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday where the Morgan Affiliate is located.

"Collateral" means all of your rights, title, and interest in and to any Deposit Accounts, or in and to any Property maintained in any other Account identified as Collateral on any Application or otherwise, and any proceeds thereof and substitutions and additions thereto.

"Item" means any check, draft and other negotiable instrument, including a substitute check, deposited to your Account or cashed, automated clearinghouse ("ACH") entry and all other types of external and book-entry funds transfers.

"JPMCB" means JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.

"JPMS" means J.P. Morgan Securities LLC.

"JPM Fund" means a mutual fund or other collective investment fund which a Morgan Affiliate advises or to which it provides other services for which it is separately compensated.

"Line of Credit" means the line of credit we may provide to you as part of the Asset Account.

"Morgan" or "Morgan Affiliate" means JPMorgan Chase & Co. or any entity controlled by, controlling, or under common control with JPMorgan Chase & Co. For the purpose of this definition, "control" means ownership of more than 50% of the voting securities of an entity or the ability to elect a majority of the board of directors or other governing body of such entity.

"Obligations" means all obligations of payment or performance, whether joint or several, contingent or otherwise, that you have to a Morgan Affiliate arising under the Agreement or any other agreement relating to products or services offered by or through J.P. Morgan, including but not limited to agreements for borrowed money, guarantees, letters of credit, floors, collars, swaps, options, foreign exchange transactions (or any similar transaction or combination of these types of transactions), overdrafts and shortfalls of any kind, no matter how arising, as well as obligations to pay fees, to provide information, to make accurate representations and to provide security.

"Property" means, but is not limited to, Securities and securities entitlements of all kinds, money, deposits, bankers' acceptances, commercial paper, contract rights of all kinds, accounts, goods, documents, general intangibles, chattel paper, commodities and commodity interests and the distributions, proceeds, products and accessions of and to the above.

"Security" or "Securities" means any share (including a mutual fund share or unit of a unit investment trust), stock, bond, debenture, note, certificate of indebtedness, warrant, option, interest, or other security (whether represented by a certificate or by a book entry on the records of the issuer or other entity responsible for recording such book entries), and any security entitlement in respect of any of the foregoing.

ACCOUNTS AND SERVICES RELATING TO ASSETS HELD BY JPMORGAN CHASE BANK, N.A. AND AFFILIATED BANKS

ASSET ALLOCATION ADVISORY SERVICES

Upon your request, JPMCB or an affiliated bank (a "Bank") will advise you about the allocation and management of your investments and cash under management or held by JPMCB or Morgan Affiliates. The Bank also may, in consultation with you, present to you investment ideas and strategies for assets held or managed by other financial institutions to the extent you disclose such assets in writing to the Bank.

The Bank may advise and assist you in the preparation of an investment plan based upon information provided by you. Such investment plan documents the Bank's understanding of, among other things, your current wealth picture, investment goals, risk profile and strategic asset allocation with J.P. Morgan, including discretionary assets managed or held by the Bank in an Investment Management Account and self-directed assets traded through JPMS in a Brokerage Account. The Bank will exercise discretion and execute investment ideas in your Investment Management Account based upon written guidelines the Bank and you agree to if consistent with applicable fiduciary standards. JPMS will execute trades in Brokerage Accounts and will sell you alternative investments (hedge funds, private equity funds, funds of such funds, structured products, and the like) based upon your prior express direction and if applicable suitability standards, documentation requirements, and other relevant considerations have been fully satisfied.

You will review your investment plan from time to time and notify the Bank if you believe any information contained therein is incorrect or does not reflect your investment goals, risk profile, desired asset allocation and/or other considerations addressed therein. Rebalancing decisions and directing the movement of assets between your Accounts are your sole responsibility and neither the Bank nor JPMS will do so except pursuant to your express direction.

From time to time the Bank may recommend changes in your investment plan. No changes in such plan shall be effective unless agreed to in writing by you. Until notified in writing by you, the Bank is entitled to rely upon the most recent investment plan that you have adopted.

Asset allocation services are subject to the General Terms for Accounts and Services and Appendices contained herein (the "General Terms"). Capitalized terms not otherwise defined in this Agreement have the meanings given to them in the General Terms. To the extent there are any conflicts between the General Terms and this Agreement, this Agreement shall prevail.

ASSET ACCOUNT AGREEMENT

The Asset Account is a group of accounts and financial services that can be linked together. Account activity and holdings will be reported on an integrated and comprehensive statement. The following accounts and services may be linked:

- An automatic sweep of deposits and uninvested cash balances into a deposit account at a Morgan Affiliate that is an insured depositary institution or a JPM Fund that is a money market mutual fund;
- A Custody Account which will hold Securities and other Property;
- Direct purchase of JPM Funds and AC Funds;
- Banking services:
  1. check writing capability
  2. an ATM or debit card ("Banking Card") issued by a Morgan Affiliate for use to withdraw funds from an Account or to make purchases at participating merchants
  3. electronic banking and funds transfers services, including information about the Asset Account
- A discretionary line of credit; and
- An optional brokerage account with JPMS.

Each of these is described in more detail below.

1. Automatic Sweep of Deposits and Uninvested Cash Deposit Sweep

Uninvested cash balances and new cash deposits will be transferred automatically to a deposit sweep (a "Deposit Sweep") on a daily basis. Deposits will be held on your behalf by your custodian with Chase Bank USA, N.A. or JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., wholly owned subsidiaries of JPMorgan Chase & Co. The Deposit Sweep rate is established on the basis of various market factors including short-term rates, federal funds rates, LIBOR and competitors' rates. At any time and at our discretion, how the rate is determined on the Deposit Sweep may change. This rate may be tiered based on the balances in your Accounts.

Interest will be compounded, calculated monthly using the average daily balance method, and credited to your Account on the first day of the month. The average daily balance method applies the average daily periodic rate to the average daily balance in the account for the period. The average daily balance is calculated by adding the principal in the account for each day of the period and dividing that figure by the number of days in the period. Interest will begin to accrue on the first business day that funds are swept into the Account.

The interest rate and annual percentage yield (APY) applicable to the Deposit Sweep on the date your Asset Account is opened will be set forth on a "rate sheet" or other interest rate disclosure provided when the Asset Account is opened. The interest rate disclosure is considered part of this agreement.

The Deposit Sweep is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") for the standard insurance amount of $250,000 per depositor, per insured bank, for each account ownership category. The $250,000 limit on FDIC insurance generally represents the aggregate coverage available to an individual for all deposit accounts held in a custodial capacity on the individual's behalf at any particular insured financial institution. If the combined balances of your Deposit Sweep and any other single ownership categories that you have with the same bank exceeds $250,000, your total FDIC coverage for all single ownership categories with the same bank will be limited to $250,000, but if you have funds in a different insured depository Morgan Affiliate, those funds will be covered separately. Funds in a Deposit Sweep in excess of $250,000 will be uninsured.

You understand that the Bank may receive certain benefits from having client cash balances sweep into deposit accounts. For example, Chase Bank USA, N.A. and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. will obtain additional liquidity from clients' deposits.

Money Market Sweep Fund

Instead of the Deposit Sweep, uninvested cash balances and new cash deposits can be swept to a dividend-paying money market mutual fund (the "Money Market Sweep Fund") offered by a Morgan Affiliate so long as the selected Money Market Sweep Fund is available to accept funds for investment. Funds that are to be invested in a Money Market Sweep Fund will be held in a single consolidated JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. account overnight and invested in the designated Money Market Sweep Fund on the morning of the next business day. In the event of a failure of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. on the day that the balances are swept from the beneficial owner's account to the single consolidated JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. account, the balances will be considered deposits by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) and will be insured by the FDIC under its applicable insurance rules and limits. However, if JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. were to fail on the next business day, when the balances are invested in the Money Market Sweep Fund, the balance will not be considered deposits by the FDIC, and the beneficial owner's swept balances will be treated in one of two ways: (i) if the failed JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.'s assets were transferred to an acquiring institution, the swept balances will be returned back into the client's account on the business day following the failure of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.; or (ii) if the failed JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. will be dissolved, the client will receive a check or other payment from the FDIC to reacquire the client's allotted interest in the Money Market Sweep Fund in accordance with FDIC's normal procedures.

We have no duty to supervise any Money Market Sweep Fund and have not provided you with any investment advice or recommendation nor are we responsible for any act or omission, or the solvency of, any Money Market Sweep Fund. The transfer agent or distributor of the Money Market Sweep Fund has the sole responsibility to provide information to you about it. In certain states, money market mutual funds are marketed through J.P. Morgan Securities LLC.

Money Market Sweep Funds are mutual funds. Mutual funds are Securities. Securities are not bank deposits and are not FDIC insured nor are they obligations of or guaranteed by JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or its affiliates or any federal or state government or government agency or government sponsored agency. Securities involve investment risks, including the possible loss of the principal amount invested.

Although the Money Market Sweep Fund seeks to maintain a stable net asset value of $1.00 per share, there can be no assurance that it will continue to do so. The prospectus for a Money Market Sweep Fund should be reviewed before a decision is made to invest.

You appoint us, or our designated Morgan Affiliate, as your attorney-in-fact with full power and authority to purchase or redeem shares of the Money Market Sweep Fund or otherwise to effect transactions with your Money Market Sweep Fund as instructed by you, or to discharge any Obligation you owe to us or a Morgan Affiliate, or as required by the prospectus of the applicable Money Market Sweep Fund, or otherwise in accordance with this Agreement.

We are not obligated to continue to provide money market sweep services during any time that the Sweep Fund you select is not available to accept collected balances for investment.

Withdrawals from Your Sweep Account
We may refuse withdrawals from the Deposit Sweep or the Money Market Sweep Fund if funds are not available, or if the Account is pledged as collateral in respect of an outstanding Obligation or otherwise, or if we suspect legal violations, fraud, impropriety, or other irregularity, or if we are served with legal process affecting your Account. If there are insufficient funds in the Deposit Sweep or the Money Market Sweep Fund we may, at our discretion, transfer funds to cover any debit from proceeds of a loan drawn on the Line of Credit, if you have a Line of Credit.

On any day, and subject to the limitations described in this Agreement, you can withdraw the total balance of (i) the available balance in the Deposit Sweep or Money Market Sweep Fund, and (ii) if there is no available balance, at our discretion, the unused portion of your Line of Credit. In the event that the total balance is zero or less or in any other circumstance when funds cannot be transferred to cover debits or withdrawals that would result in an overdraft, we will have no obligation to honor any withdrawal, debit, or instruction to transfer funds, including payments for purchases of Securities or other Property. In the event that your action creates an overdraft and we agree to pay it, you will pay the entire amount of such overdraft balance immediately. Interest will be charged on such overdraft at a rate computed in accordance with our current rate schedule.

2. The Custody Account
Custody Accounts are maintained at the Morgan Affiliate determined to be most convenient when an Account is opened. The Morgan Affiliate with which your Custody Account is held is identified on your monthly statement.

Terms of Custody
We will record, on our books, your interest in Property that we hold directly or indirectly for your account as your custodial agent. Property may be held through one or more sub-custodians or securities depositories we select and may be registered in the name of our nominee, or in the name of the nominee of any depository or sub-custodian that we use. Your Securities may be treated as fungible with all other securities of the same issue pursuant to the provisions of applicable law.

We will make purchases, sales, and deliveries only in accordance with instructions given by you or an Authorized Person, but we are not obligated to make payments for purchases unless the total balance of your Deposit Sweep or Money Market Sweep Fund (collectively, a "Sweep") and/or Line of Credit (if we permit you to use your Line of Credit to purchase Securities) can cover the payment. If, however, we do make a payment on your instruction which exceeds the total balance, you will reimburse us immediately for the amount of the excess. We are not obligated to exchange or transfer Securities unless sufficient Securities actually are in the Custody Account and available for delivery.

We may, in our discretion, hold non-U.S. dollar currencies in your Account to effect transactions denominated in non-U.S. dollar currencies. We may convert one currency into another at any time and without prior notice at the current market rate for spot foreign exchange transactions or for forward foreign exchange transactions as reasonably determined by us or any Morgan Affiliate in our or its sole discretion. Deposits may be held, and transactions effected through, an account with an affiliate or another bank in the country where such currency is the lawful currency or in other countries where such currency may be lawfully held on deposit.

We will receive distributions of dividends, interest, stock, rights, and other similar payments and distributions with respect to Securities, present for payment maturing Securities and those called for redemption, sell any fractional interests in Securities resulting from a dividend of Securities, in all cases net of any applicable taxes or other charges withheld by the maker of such payment or distribution, and deposit funds received in your Asset Account.

We will exchange temporary certificates for definitive ones, or obtain new certificates if the par value of any shares is changed.

We will notify you of the following: (i) any rights offering by an issuer of Securities, and if we are not instructed how to exercise rights under an offering by the applicable deadline, then consistent with local market practice and applicable law, the rights will be sold in the principal market and the proceeds of sale deposited in your Asset Account; and (ii) the partial redemption of any Securities, and if your Securities are part of a fungible mass, we or the sub-custodian or securities depository may select the securities to participate in partial redemptions, partial payments, or other actions affecting less than all securities of the relevant class in any nondiscriminatory manner that you or it customarily uses to make such selection.

Promptly after receipt we will forward to you communications relating to any Securities held in your Custody Account that call for voting or other specific action (including materials relating to legal proceedings intended to be transmitted to holders of the Securities). With respect to any corporate events not listed above, we may (in the absence of an instruction from an Authorized Person within any prescribed deadline) take any action that we consider appropriate under the circumstances, provided that we will not be obligated to take any action with respect to any corporate event or any legal proceedings involving holders of Securities.

Unless you have instructed us otherwise in writing, or unless such release is mandatory or otherwise in accordance with these General Terms, we will not release to issuing companies your name, address, and share positions, in compliance with applicable laws.

You will be solely responsible for compliance with any notification or other requirement of any jurisdiction affecting your beneficial ownership of Property, and we will not be liable for your noncompliance with those requirements.

In some securities markets and cash clearing systems, deliveries of Securities and cash may be reversed under certain circumstances. Accordingly, credits of Securities and/or cash to the Custody Account are provisional and subject to reversal if, in accordance with relevant local law and practice, the delivery of the Securities or cash is reversed.

Appointment as Agent: Authorization
You appoint us, or our designated Morgan Affiliate, as your agent and authorize us to represent you in every respect, in your name and place, with regard to our acting as your agent pursuant to this Agreement. By way of example, but not by way of limitation, we or the appropriate sub-custodian are authorized to execute endorsements, assignments, or other instruments of conveyance or transfers of Securities or other Property in the Account and to execute any other documents deemed necessary or desirable and proper in connection with our provision of services under this Agreement. Our signature or that of the appropriate sub-custodian, as well as any and all declarations or other documents, will be fully binding on you, and you will be fully liable for any and all dispositions made by us. This power is coupled with an interest and will survive your disability or incompetence. Our appointment as agent pursuant to this paragraph will not be understood to impose upon us any additional duties not expressly undertaken in this Agreement.

We, in our sole discretion, are also expressly authorized to employ agents and sub-agents in connection with our provision of services under this Agreement and pay reasonable compensation to such agents and sub-agents directly from the Account.

Standing Broker Transactions
We are authorized to accept and act on all instructions received from JPMS to either receive or deliver Property against payment into or from your Custody Account and to take funds from your Deposit Sweep or Money Market Sweep Account to pay for any transaction, service, or other fee on behalf of JPMS. You agree to assume all risks that may result from any action we take in reliance in good faith on instructions from JPMS. You will not send us separate settlement instructions for your Securities transactions.

We are authorized to receive from or deliver to any broker Securities as specified by the broker through the Depository Trust Company ("DTC") Interactive Institutional Delivery System. We will accept instructions through DTC from any broker and will automatically affirm and settle for your Custody Account each Securities transaction when your broker provides information to us through DTC's Interactive Institutional Delivery System or any other electronic execution, affirmation, confirmation, or delivery system for Securities in common use in the relevant market or markets for any particular instrument that we determine to be appropriate under the circumstances in our sole discretion. In carrying out these transactions, your broker will furnish you with confirmations directly and your broker will be responsible for the accuracy of the trade and any other transaction details.

3. Direct Purchase of JPM Funds or AC Funds
Subject to applicable law, you may purchase shares directly in one or more JPM Funds or AC Funds. In certain states, however, JPM Funds and AC Funds are available only through JPMS.

Your positions in JPM Funds and AC Funds will appear on your Asset Account statement, and you will not receive a separate statement from any Fund. All cash proceeds of redemptions of JPM Funds or AC Funds will be credited to your Asset Account and transferred to your Sweep. Dividends and capital gains distributions from JPM Funds or AC Funds will be reinvested unless you otherwise notify us at the time of purchase.

4. Banking Services
If you have selected banking services for your Account, uninvested cash held in the Account can be accessed through use of banking services, including checks, a banking card, electronic banking and funds transfer services. The use of banking services is governed by the Deposit Account Agreement; Appendix: Other Banking Services Relating to Accounts; and Appendix: Asset Account and Deposit Account – Funds Availability Policy Statement. You understand that you must also refer to the Banking Card Agreement you will receive when the Card is delivered to you.

Use of the Banking Card by an Authorized Person, presentment of a check signed by an Authorized Person, and requests for funds transfers will be an instruction to us to redeem shares of your Sweep Fund. We are also authorized to redeem the shares in your Sweep Fund to discharge any Obligation you owe to us or any Morgan Affiliate, or as required by the prospectus of the applicable Sweep Fund. This authorization extends to your Sweep Fund only, not to other assets held in the Account.

You may elect to transfer funds into or out of your Sweep Fund or cash on deposit by funds transfers, "Payment Orders" (fund transfers NOT governed by the Electronic Fund Transfer Act) or automated clearing house ("ACH") transactions. If you request us to arrange for domestic and/or international fund transfers and related services, you authorize us to accept such funds transfer instructions from you by telephone, tested telex, facsimile transmission, or in writing or other methods upon which we agree, and to receive funds sent to your Account.

5. Line of Credit
By checking the applicable box for banking services or for a line of credit in the Application, you are requesting us to extend credit to you from time to time as provided for in this Agreement (the "Line of Credit"). You understand that you will have only one Line of Credit, even if you have more than one Custody Account or Brokerage Account. In our sole discretion we will determine your credit limit under your Line of Credit from time to time, which in no event will be greater than the lending value of the Collateral. We have the right to modify the eligibility and lending value of any Collateral in our sole discretion.

JPMCB or another Morgan Affiliate will provide the Line of Credit. The Line of Credit will be extended to, and be an Obligation of, each of the Accountholders (if more than one), and each Accountholder will be jointly and severally liable for the Obligations under this Line of Credit.

The Asset Account statement will show the amounts drawn under your Line of Credit (each, a "Loan"). Subject to the terms of this Agreement, a Loan may be made whenever the cash on deposit and/or Sweep total balance is insufficient to pay an Item, electronic funds transfer (EFT) (as described in the Electronic Funds Transfer Services section of the Deposit Account Agreement) or any other debit. A minimum initial draw amount may be required. You hereby irrevocably authorize us, or our designated Morgan Affiliate, as your attorney-in-fact with full power and authority to effect such borrowing. We may at any time withdraw or modify the Line of Credit and demand repayment of any Loans, without prior notice, even though this may cause Items to be returned unpaid, authorizations for EFTs to be denied, or other debits to be rejected. Each Loan is secured by the Collateral in which you have granted us a security interest as described below.

You agree to repay us ON DEMAND the principal amount of any Loan under your Line of Credit and any related finance charges and other fees and charges in U.S. dollars in same-day funds.

You represent and warrant that you have not requested a Morgan Affiliate to arrange for us to finance your purchase of any Security underwritten or placed by a Morgan Affiliate during the period of underwriting or placement, or for 30 days thereafter, or to provide financing against such a Security as Collateral. You will not use any Loan to purchase shares of a JPM Fund or AC Fund or to purchase or fund capital calls owed in connection with investments in private equity, hedge, or similar funds established, sponsored, advised, managed by, or sold through, a Morgan Affiliate.

Security Interest; Events of Default
In order to secure the payment when due of any and all Obligations under your Line of Credit, you pledge and grant to us a continuing security interest in the Collateral. This security interest will apply to any Collateral (and proceeds thereof) now or at any time in the future held in or credited to any Account or other accounts maintained for you.

You acknowledge and agree that where we or any other Morgan Affiliate holds Collateral or are a securities intermediary in respect of any Collateral, we each hold the Collateral for yourself and also as agent for all other Morgan Affiliates who are secured parties hereunder pursuant to the Intercompany J.P. Morgan Securities Account Control Agreement among various Morgan Affiliates as amended or restated from time to time. We and other Morgan Affiliates have the right to take any further action necessary to perfect our respective security interests in the Collateral. You agree to execute any documents and take other action as we or any other Morgan Affiliate may reasonably request in order to allow us or any other Morgan Affiliate to perfect rights with respect to the Collateral. You appoint us and any other Morgan Affiliate as your attorney-in-fact to act on your behalf to sign and deliver all documents, and to do all acts as may be required to realize upon all rights in the Collateral. Such power is coupled with an interest and will survive your death or disability.

You agree that we will have full control of the Collateral and that any transfer affecting the Collateral is subject to our approval. Any contrary instruction you give will be of no effect regardless of any action we take. You may substitute collateral as long as it is substantially similar to the Collateral originally held by us, provided, however, we may elect not to accept such substitution. If we do not enforce our rights, we will not be deemed to have waived our rights in the Collateral.

"Event of Default" means your failure to pay (whether on demand or otherwise) or meet any Obligation under the Line of Credit; your failure to observe or perform any provision of this Agreement relating to the Line of Credit; your making any materially incorrect representation, warranty, certification or statement to us or a Morgan Affiliate in connection with the Line of Credit; your failure to provide financial information to us if we request it; your death, incapacity or incompetency; any entity that has Obligations under the Line of Credit is dissolved or ceases activity; a material judgment is entered against you; a bankruptcy, foreclosure or insolvency action or proceeding is brought by or against you; a writ or order of attachment or garnishment is made or issued against any of your Property; or a receiver is appointed for a portion of your Property.

At any time that an Event of Default has occurred we may: liquidate, sell or transfer all or any portion of the Collateral to satisfy your Obligations under the Line of Credit in whatever priority we, in our sole discretion, may lawfully choose; exercise all rights and remedies available to us under applicable law with respect to the Collateral we or any other Morgan Affiliate holds; or, exercise any other rights or remedies available to us pursuant to other agreements or applicable law.

Except for such notice as may be required under applicable law, we may make such sale or transfer without notice to you and sell any Collateral in any public, private, or restricted sale. We or any other Morgan Affiliate may be a purchaser at any sale of Collateral under this section. Each purchaser of any Collateral will receive the Collateral free of any right and claim you may have of whatsoever kind, including any equity of redemption, without your prior written consent which you waive.

In the event that we determine additional Collateral is required to meet any margin maintenance, Collateral or similar requirement with respect to any Obligations secured under this Agreement, we are authorized (but are not obliged) on your behalf to instruct any Morgan Affiliate holding Collateral to transfer Collateral, selected by us in our sole discretion, to your Account, in sufficient amount to meet any such requirements. Similarly, if any Morgan Affiliate instructs us to transfer Collateral from your Account to an Account held with it, we are authorized to do so.

In the event that your Loan Balance on any day exceeds your Line of Credit for any reason, you authorize us to (i) liquidate sufficient Collateral and/or (ii) debit your Deposit Sweep, (iii) redeem the necessary number of shares of your Money Market Sweep Account, or (iv) redeem the necessary number of shares in other JPM Funds or AC Funds, as we choose in our sole discretion, and to apply the proceeds to bring your Loan Balance within your Line of Credit.

No provision of this Agreement concerning liens or security interests will apply to your Account or the cash, Securities, or Property therein, to the extent that such application would result in an adverse tax consequence to your Account under any provision of the Internal Revenue Code relating to early distribution or withdrawal of assets held in qualified retirement accounts.

You have the power to grant a security interest in the Collateral and you are the sole owner of or have the right to transfer the Collateral to us, free and clear of all other liens or other restrictions. Upon the transfer of Collateral to us, we will have a valid and perfected first priority security interest in the Collateral and the Collateral will be fully marketable by us without any restriction on transferability, voting or dividends or limitations or restrictions relating to holding period, volume, filing or manner of sale, unless we have previously consented in writing to any restriction.

Interest Charges

You agree to pay interest charges determined as described below, on all Loans or related fees or other charges (collectively, the "Loan Balance") outstanding under your Line of Credit. Interest charges begin to accrue on the day a Loan is made, or a fee or other charge is due, and continue to accrue until the Loan Balance is paid in full.

We will determine the applicable interest charge by applying the Daily Periodic Rate to the Daily Balance of your Line of Credit.

The "Daily Balance" is the beginning balance of a Line of Credit each day plus the amount of any Loans or other debits made during the day minus the amount of any payments or other credits made during the day.

The Daily Periodic Rate and corresponding Annual Percentage Rate are variable rates and therefore may increase or decrease during the billing cycle. The "Daily Periodic Rate" will be equal to the applicable interest rate divided by 360. The applicable interest rate is the rate of interest announced by JPMCB from time to time as our Line of Credit Borrowing Rate (the "Borrowing Rate") in the list of current rates that we have separately provided to you. The corresponding "Annual Percentage Rate" is the Daily Periodic Rate multiplied by 365.

The Daily Periodic Rate and corresponding Annual Percentage Rate increase when the Borrowing Rate increases and decrease when the Borrowing Rate decreases. An increase in the Daily Periodic Rate and corresponding Annual Percentage Rate means you pay a larger interest charge. A decrease in the Daily Periodic Rate and corresponding Annual Percentage Rate means you pay a smaller interest charge. There is no limit on the amount by which the Daily Periodic Rate and corresponding Annual Percentage Rate may change at any one time or over the life of the Line of Credit. If the Borrowing Rate changes, the Daily Periodic Rate and corresponding Annual Percentage Rate will be increased or decreased on the effective date of such change in the Borrowing Rate. The new Daily Periodic Rate will be applied to the Daily Balance beginning on that day. The current Borrowing Rate schedule will be provided to you upon request.

If you fail to pay any Obligation when demanded or due or there is an Event of Default under the Line of Credit, you agree to pay an interest charge at two percentage points (2%) above the applicable rate that would otherwise be in effect.

Without prejudice to your obligation to make payment on demand, you agree to pay all of your interest charges on the first Business Day of each month. Such amount will automatically be paid from your Deposit Sweep or Money Market Sweep Account to the extent there are sufficient available funds. In the event the total balance is insufficient, you agree to pay such interest charges from other sources upon our demand.

Your Line of Credit shall be governed by federal law applicable to JPMCB and the law of the state identified in the address of the account owner in the Application.

Billing Rights: Keep This Document For Future Use. The following sections tell you about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

What to Do If You Find a Mistake on Your Statement
If you think there is an error on your Asset Account statement relating to your Line of Credit, you will send us a letter to:

JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.
500 Stanton Christiana Road, 1/OPS3
Newark, DE 19713-2107

In your letter, you will give us the following information:
- Account.information: Your name and Asset Account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us:
- Within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.
- At least three business days before an automated payment is scheduled, if you want to stop payment on the amount you think is wrong.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing (or electronically). You may telephone us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

What Will Happen After We Receive Your Letter
When we receive your letter, we must do two things:
- Within 30 days of receiving your letter, we must tell you that we received your letter. We must also tell you if we have already corrected the error.
- Within 90 days of receiving your letter, we must either correct the error or explain to you why we believe the statement was correct.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error:
- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

After we finish our investigation, one of two things will happen:
- If we made a mistake: You will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- If we do not believe there was a mistake: You will have to pay the amount in question, along with applicable interest and fees. We will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date payment is due. We may then report you as delinquent if you do not pay the amount we think you owe.

If you receive our explanation but still believe your Asset Account statement is wrong, you must write to us within 10 days telling us that you still refuse to pay. If you do so, we cannot report you as delinquent without also reporting that you are questioning your statement. We must tell you the name of anyone to whom we reported you as delinquent, and we must let those organizations know when the matter has been settled between us.

If we do not follow all of the rules above, you do not have to pay the first $50 of the amount you question even if your Asset Account statement is correct.

AGREEMENTS FOR ACCOUNTS AND SERVICES OFFERED THROUGH J.P. MORGAN SECURITIES LLC AND J.P. MORGAN ENTITIES

The parties to the agreements set forth below shall consist of the client and J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, its successor firms, present and future direct or indirect subsidiaries, affiliates and assigns with which the client transacts securities brokerage business. (Each affiliate is referred to as a "J.P. Morgan entity" and all J.P. Morgan entities together with J.P. Morgan Securities LLC are referred to collectively as "J.P. Morgan").

JPMS obligations and the Securities sold, offered, or recommended by JPMS are not deposits and are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC"). JPMS is not a bank and is a separate legal entity from JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. ("JPMCB") and all other Morgan Affiliates. The obligations of JPMS are not obligations of JPMCB or any other Morgan Affiliate (unless explicitly stated otherwise), and neither JPMCB nor any other Morgan Affiliate is responsible for Securities sold, offered, or recommended by JPMS. JPMCB and other Morgan Affiliates may be lenders to issuers of Securities that JPMS underwrites, in which case proceeds of offerings underwritten by JPMS may be used for the repayment of such loans. The disclosure documents relating to particular Securities will discuss any such lending relationships.

Brokerage Accounts will be subject to the Brokerage Account Agreement below. Margin Accounts will be subject to the Margin Account Agreement (which incorporates the terms of the Brokerage Account Agreement).

BROKERAGE ACCOUNT AGREEMENT

1. Nature of Services
(a) A J.P. Morgan entity will execute transactions accepted by it and/or will provide such other clearance, settlement and custody services in connection with the maintenance of the client's Account(s) at J.P. Morgan.

(b) All investments executed through a J.P. Morgan Brokerage Account are made upon the client's sole discretion, risk and responsibility. J.P. Morgan may choose to contact clients about investment opportunities J.P. Morgan believes may be of interest to a client, but J.P. Morgan is not obliged to provide the client with any financial, market or investment information, nor advice or oversight with respect to asset allocation. J.P. Morgan personnel do not take discretion over any client Accounts, although the client may obtain such advice and services from JPMCB under separate agreements.

(c) Any J.P. Morgan entity that is a party to this Agreement is acting as a broker-dealer and/or custodian, and not as (1) an investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, or (2) a "fiduciary" as defined in Section 3(21) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA") or Section 4975 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Code"), with respect to the client's Account(s) under this Agreement. Brokerage activities are regulated under different laws and rules than advisory activities and generally do not give rise to the fiduciary duties that an investment adviser has to its clients. When acting in a brokerage capacity, J.P. Morgan has a duty to deal fairly with brokerage clients but may face certain conflicts of interest and as such, J.P. Morgan's interests may differ from those of its clients. Neither J.P. Morgan nor its employees are authorized to provide, and shall not provide, legal, estate planning, tax or accounting advice or services and the client will not solicit or rely upon any such advice from them whether in connection with transactions in any of the client's Accounts or otherwise. The client has consulted or will consult with the client's own technical, legal, regulatory, tax, business, investment, financial and accounting advisors to the extent the client deems necessary in determining the investment and trading strategy appropriate for the client and the appropriateness of each transaction.

J.P. Morgan assumes no responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of or the performance or outcome or tax consequences of any investment made by the client as a result of receiving information from J.P. Morgan, and J.P. Morgan has no obligation to update the information or recommendation provided. J.P. Morgan's recommendation does not imply any endorsement or guarantee.

(d) J.P. Morgan shall not be obligated to take any action or render any advice with respect to the voting of proxies related to issues of securities held in a client's Account(s). Further, there may be instances when the client may not be able to exercise voting or other rights of ownership. The J.P. Morgan entity that acts as custodian for the Account will forward all proxies received by it, including proxy solicitation material and other related material, including interim reports, annual reports and other issuer mailings to the client and the client is responsible for providing such J.P. Morgan entity with any applicable instructions or directions contemplated by such communications.

(e) In addition to retaining the sole responsibility for investment decisions and shareholder actions, the client is responsible for knowing the rights and terms of all securities in the client's Brokerage Account, specifically including valuable rights that may expire unless the client takes action. This includes, but is not limited to, warrants, stock rights, convertible securities, bonds, and securities subject to a tender or exchange offer. J.P. Morgan has no obligation to notify the client of any upcoming expiration or redemption dates, or, except as required by applicable law or regulation, to take any action on the client's behalf without specific instructions from the client.

(f) Unless the client has instructed J.P. Morgan otherwise in writing, or such release is mandatory, J.P. Morgan is authorized to release to issuing companies the client's name, address, and share positions, in compliance with applicable laws.

2. Satisfaction of Liabilities; Security Interest and Lien

(a) The client agrees to satisfy each and every obligation or liability owed to J.P. Morgan (such obligations or liabilities, whether fixed, matured, unmatured, liquidated, unliquidated or contingent, "Obligations") when due, including without limitation, to pay any debit balance in any Account and any costs described in this Agreement and in the event of a sell or redemption order by the client, to deliver the applicable security in good deliverable form no later than the deadline set by J.P. Morgan if the applicable security is not credited to an Account at the time such order is placed or settled.

(b) To secure the payment and performance of Obligations to each J.P. Morgan entity providing products or services to the client pursuant to this Agreement, the client hereby grants each such J.P. Morgan entity a lien on and a valid and first priority, perfected, continuing security interest in the following: (i) all property, including all investment property, held, carried or controlled by or through any J.P. Morgan entity in which J.P. Morgan presently has or in which the client acquires an interest in the future, including all property in each Account in the client's name, (ii) any and all rights, claims or causes of action the client may now or hereafter have against any J.P. Morgan entity and (iii) all proceeds of or distributions on the foregoing (collectively (i) through (iii) are referred to in this Agreement as "Collateral"). Each item of property, including Investment Property, a Security, a general intangible, contract rights, an Instrument and cash, held in or credited to any Securities Account at a Securities Intermediary shall be treated as a Financial Asset. All undefined terms in the preceding sentence shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the New York Uniform Commercial Code ("NYUCC"), as in effect from time to time.

(c) Any Collateral held by a J.P. Morgan entity is held by such J.P. Morgan entity as agent and bailee for itself and all other J.P. Morgan entities. Each J.P. Morgan entity holding Collateral shall, without the client's further consent, comply with (i) entitlement orders or instructions from a J.P. Morgan entity with respect to the Collateral and (ii) if such J.P. Morgan entity holding Collateral is a commodity intermediary, any instructions to such J.P. Morgan entity from another J.P. Morgan entity to apply any value distributed on account of a commodity contract. Additionally, each J.P. Morgan entity holding Collateral has the right, in its sole discretion, (i) to decline to enter into control agreements with third parties and (ii) to decline to comply with (a) any entitlement order or instruction from the client or a third party with respect to the Collateral and (b) any instruction from the client to apply any value on account of any commodity contract, if a J.P. Morgan entity requests that such order or instruction not be complied with in order to maintain security for the payment and performance of the client's Obligations to it. Further, each J.P. Morgan entity is authorized, at any time and without notice to the client, to transfer Collateral from any Account to any account of an obligor for which J.P. Morgan has provided a guarantee within such J.P. Morgan entity and/or at any other J.P. Morgan entity to collateralize or satisfy any Obligations of such obligor. The client agrees that the actions of a J.P. Morgan entity in declining to comply with orders or instructions as allowed in this Section 2(c) satisfies any duties J.P. Morgan may have under the NYUCC.

(d) The client agrees that the client's execution of this Agreement shall constitute notice to each J.P. Morgan entity of the security interest the client has granted to each other J.P. Morgan entity herein, and each J.P. Morgan entity holding Collateral is on notice of the security interest granted to each other J.P. Morgan entity.

(e) The reasonable costs and expenses of collection of any such indebtedness or debit balance, including but not limited to attorneys' fees and expenses, shall be payable by the client to J.P. Morgan.

(f) In order to secure the payment and performance of any of the client's outstanding Obligations to any J.P. Morgan entity, J.P. Morgan may, to the fullest extent permitted by law, without prior notice to the client use, apply or transfer Collateral as it determines. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, J.P. Morgan may register and hold Collateral in its name or the name of its designee.

(g) The client appoints J.P. Morgan with full power as the client's true and lawful attorney in fact, to the fullest extent permitted by law, for the purpose of perfecting the security interest granted in this Agreement and taking any action and executing any instrument that J.P. Morgan deems necessary or advisable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement.

3. Restrictions on Trading

In its sole discretion, J.P. Morgan may prohibit or restrict trading in a Brokerage Account. The client shall nevertheless remain liable for all of the client's Obligations to J.P. Morgan under this Agreement or otherwise.

4. Representations and Warranties
The client hereby represents and warrants to J.P. Morgan that: (i) no other party has an interest or shall have an interest in the Property or Collateral unless J.P. Morgan has consented in writing to the other party's interest; (ii) the client has the right to pledge and assign Collateral to J.P. Morgan; (iii) except as the client may have informed or may from time to time inform J.P. Morgan in writing, the client is not an affiliate (as defined in Rule 144(a)(1) under the Securities Act of 1933) of the issuer of any Security held in a Margin Account; (iv) since the date of the client's most recent audited or unaudited financial statements (if any) there has been no material adverse change in the client's business, financial condition, results of operations or prospects; (v) the client has not taken or failed to take, and shall not take any action or fail to take, any action with respect to an Account(s) that would result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under ERISA, the Code or any applicable state, local or non-U.S. law that is similar to the provisions of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code; and (vi) all of the client's other representations made in the Account application and under the General Terms and Brokerage Account Agreement continue to be true.

5. Confirmation Reports and Account Statements
Confirmation reports of transactions shall be conclusive if not objected to in writing by the client within the shorter of (i) the applicable settlement cycle of the subject transactions or (ii) three (3) business days after such documents have been transmitted to the client by mail or otherwise. Statements of Account(s) shall be conclusive if not objected to in writing by the client within thirty (30) Business Days after transmission. In all cases, J.P. Morgan reserves the right to challenge a client's objections.

6. Service Fees; Taxes
(a) J.P. Morgan may charge Brokerage Accounts for brokerage commissions, mark-ups, inactivity fees (if applicable) and other fees for the maintenance of Account(s), the execution of transactions, fails, buy-ins, and currency conversions, and for furnishing other services to the client (collectively, "Service Fees"). Service Fees may be implemented or increased from time to time.

(b) The client will be responsible for and pay any applicable value added tax and such other taxes, duties and fees applicable to activities in the client's Account(s). Amounts owed to J.P. Morgan shall not be affected by any taxes, duties or other amounts J.P. Morgan may owe to any third party. If the client is required by law to make any deduction or withholding from any payment due to J.P. Morgan, the client shall pay to J.P. Morgan simultaneously with making such payment an additional amount as may be necessary in order for the total amount received by J.P. Morgan after all deductions and withholdings to be equal to the amount which J.P. Morgan would have received had no deduction or withholding been made. Any and all taxes, including any interest and penalties with respect thereto, which may be levied or assessed under present or future laws upon or in respect to the client's Account(s), activities or upon or in respect of income thereof shall be paid by the client. All Service Fees, charges, expenses, disbursements and taxes as described above may be deducted by J.P. Morgan from the client's Account(s).

7. Payments to J.P. Morgan
J.P. Morgan may receive payments or other remuneration from the advisers, distributors or other affiliates of certain of the mutual funds available through J.P. Morgan. Such payments or remuneration are for administrative, technological or other services provided in connection with fund Accounts and generally are calculated based on the amount of assets held in the Accounts. Such payments or other remuneration are in addition to shareholder servicing and distribution fees that J.P. Morgan may receive. Funds whose affiliates do not make payments to J.P. Morgan, including funds that may provide a higher or lower return, may be available to clients. Further, in certain instances, J.P. Morgan may be paid both by clients and certain other third parties who compensate J.P. Morgan based upon what clients purchase and J.P. Morgan's profits and compensation may vary by product and over time.

8. Control or Restricted Securities
The client hereby agrees, prior to placing an order with J.P. Morgan, to inform J.P. Morgan if the securities are restricted or control securities and subject to: Rule 144, 144A, 145 or 701 of the Securities Act of 1933 ("Securities Act"); an effective registration statement; and/or any contractual limitation. The client understands and agrees that J.P. Morgan may not execute any orders regarding restricted or control securities until J.P. Morgan has conducted its due diligence surrounding the transaction and may in its sole discretion decline to execute the order until the securities have cleared legal transfer. The client further agrees to provide, without cost to J.P. Morgan, all documentation required by J.P. Morgan to complete the order, including, but not limited to, any required forms, representation letters, opinions of seller's counsel and transfer documentation and authorizes J.P. Morgan to communicate with the issuer of the restricted or control securities, its attorneys and its transfer agent in connection with the client's transaction. Furthermore, the client acknowledges and agrees that there may be time delays in connection with the due diligence process, the execution of the order and the processing of the transaction and further acknowledges and agrees that the proceeds of the transactions may not be paid until the securities have been transferred into street name and delivered, free of restrictive legend and stop transfer instruction. J.P. Morgan shall not be liable for any losses, direct or indirect, that may have been caused by such delays.

9. Short and Long Sales
Short sales must be executed in a Margin Account. In placing any sell order for a long Account, the client will designate the order as such and hereby authorizes J.P. Morgan to mark the order as being "long." The designation by the client of a sell order as being for a long Account shall constitute a representation by the client that the client owns the security with respect to which the sell order has been placed, that such security may be sold without restriction in the open market and that, if J.P. Morgan does not have the security in its possession at the time the client places the sell order, the client shall deliver the security by settlement date in good deliverable form and if the client fails to deliver as such, J.P. Morgan is authorized (but is not required to) to borrow, purchase, or otherwise acquire the security in order to make delivery. The client shall be liable to J.P. Morgan for any losses and expenses it may incur or sustain as a result of the client's failure to make delivery on a timely basis and for any loss, expense, premium and other costs incurred in connection with borrowing, purchase or acquisition of the required securities.

10. Obligations Upon Termination
Upon termination of this Agreement or the closing of the client's Account(s), the client will be responsible for issuing instructions in writing with regard to the assets held in the Account(s). Unless and until J.P. Morgan receives such instructions, it will be under no obligation to take any action with regard to the Securities and Property in the Accounts. The client agrees to be responsible for any transaction costs associated with the client's instructions, including commissions and related costs.

THE FOLLOWING SECTION REGARDING ARBITRATION APPLIES ONLY TO BROKERAGE AND MARGIN ACCOUNTS WITH A J.P. MORGAN ENTITY

11. Arbitration; Consent to Jurisdiction; Service of Process
(a) THIS AGREEMENT CONTAINS A PREDISPUTE ARBITRATION

CLAUSE. BY SIGNING AN ARBITRATION AGREEMENT THE PARTIES AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

- ALL PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT ARE GIVING UP THE RIGHT TO SUE EACH OTHER IN COURT, INCLUDING THE RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY, EXCEPT AS PROVIDED BY THE RULES OF THE ARBITRATION FORUM IN WHICH A CLAIM IS FILED.
- ARBITRATION AWARDS ARE GENERALLY FINAL AND BINDING; A PARTY'S ABILITY TO HAVE A COURT REVERSE OR MODIFY AN ARBITRATION AWARD IS VERY LIMITED.
- THE ABILITY OF THE PARTIES TO OBTAIN DOCUMENTS, WITNESS STATEMENTS AND OTHER DISCOVERY IS GENERALLY MORE LIMITED IN ARBITRATION THAN IN COURT PROCEEDINGS.
- THE ARBITRATORS DO NOT HAVE TO EXPLAIN THE REASON(S) FOR THEIR AWARD, UNLESS, IN AN ELIGIBLE CASE, A JOINT REQUEST FOR AN EXPLAINED DECISION HAS BEEN SUBMITTED BY ALL PARTIES TO THE PANEL AT LEAST 20 DAYS PRIOR TO THE FIRST SCHEDULED HEARING DATE.
- THE PANEL OF ARBITRATORS WILL TYPICALLY INCLUDE A MINORITY OF ARBITRATORS WHO WERE OR ARE AFFILIATED WITH THE SECURITIES INDUSTRY.
- THE RULES OF SOME ARBITRATION FORUMS MAY IMPOSE TIME LIMITS FOR BRINGING A CLAIM IN ARBITRATION. IN SOME CASES, A CLAIM THAT IS INELIGIBLE FOR ARBITRATION MAY BE BROUGHT IN COURT.
- THE RULES OF THE ARBITRATION FORUM IN WHICH THE CLAIM IS FILED, AND ANY AMENDMENTS THERETO, SHALL BE INCORPORATED INTO THIS AGREEMENT.
- NO PERSON SHALL BRING A PUTATIVE OR CERTIFIED CLASS ACTION TO ARBITRATION, NOR SEEK TO ENFORCE ANY PRE DISPUTE ARBITRATION AGREEMENT AGAINST ANY PERSON WHO HAS INITIATED IN COURT A PUTATIVE CLASS ACTION OR WHO IS A MEMBER OF A PUTATIVE CLASS WHO HAS NOT OPTED OUT OF THE CLASS WITH RESPECT TO ANY CLAIMS ENCOMPASSED BY THE PUTATIVE CLASS ACTION UNTIL:
  i) THE CLASS CERTIFICATION IS DENIED;
  ii) THE CLASS IS DECERTIFIED; OR
  iii) THE CLIENT IS EXCLUDED FROM THE CLASS BY THE COURT. SUCH FORBEARANCE TO ENFORCE AN AGREEMENT TO ARBITRATE SHALL NOT CONSTITUTE A WAIVER OF ANY RIGHTS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT STATED HEREIN.
- BY ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT THE CLIENT AND J.P. MORGAN AGREE THAT CONTROVERSIES ARISING UNDER OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY ACTIVITY BETWEEN THE CLIENT AND J.P. MORGAN, ITS PREDECESSORS, AND ANY OF THEIR RESPECTIVE SUCCESSORS, ASSIGNS, AND ANY OF THEIR, DIRECTORS, EMPLOYEES, AND ANY OTHER CONTROL PERSONS AND ANY OF THEIR AGENTS, WHETHER ARISING PRIOR TO, ON OR SUBSEQUENT TO THE DATE HEREOF, SHALL BE DETERMINED BY ARBITRATION AND IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE RULES OF THE FINANCIAL INDUSTRY REGULATORY AUTHORITY, INC. ("FINRA") BEFORE AN ARBITRATION PANEL APPOINTED BY FINRA IN ACCORDANCE WITH ITS RULES, AND SUCH HEARING OR HEARINGS SHALL BE CONDUCTED IN A LOCALE SELECTED BY FINRA. THE AWARD OF THE ARBITRATORS, OR OF THE MAJORITY OF THEM, SHALL BE FINAL, AND JUDGMENT UPON THE AWARD RENDERED MAY BE ENTERED IN ANY COURT, STATE OR FEDERAL, HAVING JURISDICTION.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (a) above, either party may, at any time prior to the initial arbitration hearing pertaining to such dispute or controversy, seek by application to the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York or the Supreme Court of the State of New York for the County of New York any such temporary or provisional relief or remedy ("Provisional Remedy") provided for by the laws of the U.S. or the laws of the State of New York as would be available in an action based upon such dispute or controversy in the absence of an agreement to arbitrate. The parties acknowledge and agree that it is their intention to have any such application for a Provisional Remedy decided by the Court to which it is made and that such application shall not be referred to or settled by arbitration. No such application to either said Court for a Provisional Remedy, nor any act or conduct by either party in furtherance of or in opposition to such application, shall constitute a relinquishment or waiver of any right to have the underlying dispute or controversy with respect to which such application is made settled by arbitration in accordance with subparagraph (a) above.

(c) With respect to any application for a Provisional Remedy and any application for judgment on an arbitration award, each party irrevocably (i) submits to the jurisdiction of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York or the Supreme Court of the State of New York for the County of New York, (ii) waives any objection which it may have at any time to the laying of venue of any proceedings brought in any such court, waives any claim that such proceedings have been brought in an inconvenient forum and further waives the right to object, with respect to such proceedings, that such court does not have any jurisdiction over such party, and (iii) consents to service of process by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the address provided for herein.

(d) The client hereby agrees to receive service of process in connection with any legal matters or actions or proceedings based upon, arising out of or relating in any way to this Agreement by confirmed, return-receipt requested mail and that delivery shall be presumed if such service is mailed to the address maintained by J.P. Morgan in its records.

(e) The client agrees that in any arbitration proceeding with J.P. Morgan, the arbitrators shall be bound by, and obligated to follow, the substantive law of the State of New York and of the United States regardless of where the agreement was executed, except to the extent that such laws would permit the arbitrators to disregard the substantive laws of the State of New York and the United States.

(f) The client agrees that the terms of any settlement or any award determined by arbitration shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed by the client, the client's attorneys or the client's representatives under any circumstances unless required by applicable law, judicial proceeding, or self-regulatory organization rule or order.

(g) This arbitration provision may be waived only with the written agreement of J.P. Morgan.

12. Severability

If and to the extent any term or provision herein is or should become invalid or unenforceable, then (i) the remaining terms and provisions hereof shall be unimpaired and remain in full force and effect and (ii) the invalid or unenforceable provision or term shall be replaced by a term or provision that is valid and enforceable and that comes closest to expressing the intention of such invalid or unenforceable term or provision.

13. Affiliations

If the client is a natural person, the client represents that unless the client has notified J.P. Morgan to the contrary, neither the client nor any member of the client's immediate family is: (i) an employee or member of any exchange, (ii) an employee or member of FINRA, (iii) an employee of any corporation or firm engaged in the business of dealing, as broker or principal, in securities, options or futures or (iv) an employee of any bank, trust company or insurance company. Persons signing on behalf of others should indicate the titles or capacities in which they are signing. If any of the foregoing information changes, the client agrees to notify J.P. Morgan promptly. If the client is required to obtain his or her employer's consent before opening a securities account, the client has obtained such consent.

14. Custody
Unless the client specifies otherwise, JPMCB will act as custodian of the Property in all brokerage Accounts in accordance with the provisions relating to the Custody Account in the Asset Account Agreement.

15. Prohibition Against Trading Ahead of Customer Orders
FINRA Rule 5320 generally prohibits member firms that accept and hold orders for equity securities from trading those securities for their own account at a price that would satisfy the underlying orders, unless the member immediately thereafter executes the underlying orders at the same or better price than it traded for its own account. Described below are certain exceptions to the Rule and an explanation of how J.P. Morgan will handle those exceptions. Please note that consistent with regulatory guidance, not-held orders are outside the scope of the Rule.

Large orders (orders of 10,000 or more shares with a total value of $100,000 or more) and orders executed on behalf of institutional accounts are excepted from the requirements of Rule 5320. JPMS will generally work such orders in accordance with customer instructions. While working such orders, JPMS may trade for its own account at prices that would satisfy the customer order. Clients who wish to opt in to the Rule 5320 protections in regards to large orders or orders executed on behalf of institutional accounts should contact their J.P. Morgan representative.

In addition, if a firm implements and utilizes an effective system of internal controls, Rule 5320 permits the respective separate units to trade independent of one another for purposes of the Rule. JPMS maintains Rule 5320 internal controls known as information barriers between its trading units. The information barriers are designed to prevent one trading unit from having knowledge of customer orders held by a different trading unit. With these barriers in place, one trading unit may hold a customer order while another trading unit, including the market making trading unit, executes an order for a firm account that would satisfy the customer order.

Clients with questions should contact their J.P. Morgan representative.

16. SEC Rule 13h-1 Large Trader
A Large Trader is, among other definitions, a person who directly, or indirectly through the control of another person, exercises investment discretion over one or more accounts which trade equities and/or listed options in an aggregate amount that equals or exceeds 2 million shares or $20 million fair market value during any calendar day; or equals or exceeds 20 million shares or $200 million fair market value over any calendar month. If you or another person exercising investment discretion over your accounts with J.P. Morgan is a Large Trader, you are required to complete an SEC Form 13H application and submit it to the SEC. If you or another person exercising investment discretion over your accounts with J.P. Morgan have been assigned a Large Trader ID (LTID) by the SEC or are assigned one in the future, it is your responsibility to provide the appropriate LTID information to J.P. Morgan so that your account information can be updated accordingly.

MARGIN DISCLOSURE STATEMENT
This Margin Agreement provides some basic facts about purchasing Securities on margin and will alert the client to certain risks involved with trading Securities in a Margin Account. Before trading Securities in a Margin Account, the client will fully review all terms and conditions of this Margin Agreement and the client will consult J.P. Morgan regarding any questions or concerns the client has about the Margin Account.

When the client purchases Securities, the client may pay for Securities in full unless the client borrows part of the purchase price from J.P. Morgan through a Margin Account. The Securities purchased are J.P. Morgan's Collateral for the loan extended to the client. If the Securities in the Account decline in value, so does the value of the Collateral supporting the loan and, as a result, J.P. Morgan can take action, including issuing a margin call and/or selling Securities or other assets in any of the client's Accounts, in order to maintain the required ratio of debt to equity in the Account.

The client fully understands the risks of trading Securities on margin, which are heightened over purchasing them in full with the client's own existing funds. These risks include, but are not limited to, the following:

- The client can lose more funds than the client deposits in the Margin Account. A decline in the value of Securities that are purchased on margin may require that the client provide additional funds to avoid the forced sale of those Securities or other Securities or assets in the client's Accounts.

- J.P. Morgan can force the sale of Securities or other assets in the client's Accounts. If the equity in an Account falls below the margin requirements or J.P. Morgan's higher "house" requirements, J.P. Morgan can sell the Securities or other assets in the Accounts to cover the margin deficiency. The client will also be responsible for any shortfall in the Account after such a sale.

- J.P. Morgan is not required to contact the client for a margin call to be valid, and J.P. Morgan may liquidate Securities or other assets in Accounts to meet the margin call without contacting the client first or obtaining the client's permission. J.P. Morgan may take all necessary steps to protect its financial interests, including immediately liquidating Securities or other assets without prior notice to the client and without the client's consent.

- Because the Securities are collateral for the margin loan, the client is not entitled to choose which Securities or other assets in the Accounts will be liquidated or sold to meet a margin call. J.P. Morgan has the sole right to decide which Securities and assets to sell in order to protect its interests.

- J.P. Morgan can increase its "house" maintenance margin requirements at any time and is not required to provide to the client advance notice, in writing or otherwise. These changes in J.P. Morgan's policy often take effect immediately and may result in the issuance of a maintenance margin call. The client's failure to satisfy the call may result in the liquidation or sale of Securities in the client's Accounts.

- The client is not entitled to an extension of time on a margin call. While an extension of time to meet margin requirements may be available to clients under certain circumstances and at J.P. Morgan's sole discretion, a client does not have the right to an extension.

MARGIN ACCOUNT AGREEMENT

1. Margin and Other Collateral Requirements
The client agrees (i) to deposit and maintain such margin in the client's margin Account(s) as J.P. Morgan may in its sole discretion require; (ii) to pay on demand any debit balance owing with respect to any of the client's margin Account(s); (iii) that margin calls may be communicated orally, without subsequent written confirmation; (iv) to deposit promptly and maintain such other Collateral with J.P. Morgan as is required by applicable law or regulation or by J.P. Morgan under this Agreement or any other agreement; and (v) that no demands, calls, tenders or notices that J.P. Morgan may have made or given in the past shall obligate J.P. Morgan to make or give the same in the future.

2. Breach, Bankruptcy or Default; Remedies

(a) Each J.P. Morgan entity may elect to consider the client in default of any or all agreements the client may then have with it if: (i) the client does not pay any liability or perform any Obligation to any J.P. Morgan entity by the time the client is obligated to do so; (ii) the client otherwise breaches, repudiates or defaults under this Agreement or any other agreement the client may have with any J.P. Morgan entity; (iii) the client commences a proceeding in bankruptcy or insolvency or one is commenced against the client; (iv) any guarantor, co signer or other party (a "Responsible Party") liable for or providing security for the client's Obligations to any J.P. Morgan entity defaults in its obligation to J.P. Morgan or commences a proceeding in bankruptcy or insolvency or one is commenced against it; (v) an attachment is made against the client or a Responsible Party's Account(s) with any J.P. Morgan entity; (vi) a receiver is appointed with respect to the client, any of assets of the client or the assets of a Responsible Party; (vii) if the client is a natural person, the client dies or becomes incompetent, and if the client is an entity, the client merges, liquidates or dissolves; or (viii) an event, circumstance or condition occurs that, in J.P. Morgan's judgment, materially impairs the client's creditworthiness, ability to timely perform Obligations to J.P. Morgan or otherwise causes J.P. Morgan to view itself as insecure. The occurrence of any of the foregoing is referred to as an "Event of Default."

(b) Upon the election by J.P. Morgan to consider the client in default, each J.P. Morgan entity shall have all of the rights and remedies of a secured party upon default under the NYUCC and other applicable laws and may, without notice to the client among other things, (i) in whole or in part, accelerate, cancel, terminate, liquidate or otherwise close out this Agreement in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and (ii) foreclose, collect, sell or otherwise liquidate any Collateral a J.P. Morgan entity selects in its sole discretion, in any order and at any time, and apply, in a manner determined by J.P. Morgan in its sole discretion, the proceeds to satisfy any of the client's Obligations to any J.P. Morgan entity and (iii) buy any property that may have been sold short and (iv) retain any Collateral and (v) set-off, net, and/or recoup a J.P. Morgan entity's obligation to the client against any of the client's Obligations to any J.P. Morgan entity, and the client's Obligations to a J.P. Morgan entity shall be deemed performed and discharged to the extent any J.P. Morgan entity has effected a valid and unavoidable set-off, netting or recoupment, and the client expressly waives any requirement of mutuality to allow one J.P. Morgan entity to set-off, net or recoup any Obligation owed by the client to a J.P. Morgan entity against any obligation of a different J.P. Morgan entity to the client and (vi) calculate any obligation due to the client by first deducting any Obligation that the client owes to any J.P. Morgan entity before determining the final amount of any such obligation and (vii) in each J.P. Morgan entity's discretion, convert at the client's expense any Obligation from one currency into another currency at such rates as J.P. Morgan shall determine and (viii) take any other action permitted by law or in equity to protect, preserve or enforce J.P. Morgan's rights or to reduce any risk to J.P. Morgan of loss or delay, including entering into hedging transactions for the client's Account(s) and risk.

(c) At any sale of Collateral or other sale or purchase permitted hereunder or otherwise, J.P. Morgan may sell or purchase to or from itself or third parties, and the client hereby acknowledges and agrees that the securities subject to such sale or purchase are instruments traded in a recognized market. The client will pay each J.P. Morgan entity for any losses and costs incurred by J.P. Morgan as a result of any default by the client. The client waives marshalling of assets and any similar doctrine dealing with the application of Collateral. J.P. Morgan's rights and remedies hereunder are cumulative and are in addition to any other rights and remedies available at law or in equity.

3. Short Sales

The client will designate any short sales as such and hereby authorizes J.P. Morgan to mark the order as being "short" or "short exempt." Short sales are margin transactions and must be conducted in a Margin Account. Short sale transactions are subject to certain regulatory rules and cannot be executed under certain market conditions. J.P. Morgan does not guarantee that it will be able to locate Securities to facilitate a short sale. J.P. Morgan may, in its discretion and without notice to the client, "buy in" Securities to cover any short security position in the client's Margin Account. If the client is unable to cover a short security position (either through delivery of the Security or through J.P. Morgan "buying in" the Security) in enough time for J.P. Morgan to deliver the Security to its lender (to whom J.P. Morgan is obligated), the client agrees to reimburse J.P. Morgan for the losses J.P. Morgan sustains as a result of the client's failure to cover.

4. Special Charges for Short Sales In Hard-To-Borrow Securities

With respect to any short sale transactions in securities that are or become hard-to-borrow, the client's Account(s) also may be charged an amount equal to the sum of (i) the costs and expenses incurred by J.P. Morgan and (ii) a Service Fee in connection with the establishment and/or maintenance of the client's short positions in that security (together, "Short Sale Charges"). A security is or becomes hard-to-borrow when increased short selling in that security in the market causes an increase in demand to borrow the security, which in turn causes an increase in the cost and expense to J.P. Morgan in establishing and/or maintaining a short position in such security for the client's Account(s). Short Sale Charges may be disclosed to the client at the time a short position is established or may be imposed or increased from time to time in light of changing market conditions and the client agrees to pay such Short Sale Charges at J.P. Morgan's then-prevailing rates.

THE FOLLOWING SECTIONS REGARDING THE LOAN, PLEDGE OR USE OF SECURITIES AND FREE CREDIT BALANCES APPLY ONLY TO MARGIN ACCOUNTS WITH A J.P. MORGAN ENTITY AND NOT TO ANY OTHER ACCOUNT

5. Consent to Loan, Pledge or Use Securities in Margin Accounts

(a) To the greatest extent permitted under Applicable Laws, the client hereby authorizes J.P. Morgan to lend either to itself or to others and to otherwise use, sell or pledge any securities held by J.P. Morgan in any of the client's Margin Account(s), to convey therewith all attendant rights of ownership (including voting rights) and to use all such property as Collateral for J.P. Morgan's general loans and/or other obligations or with respect to repurchase transactions. Any such property, together with all attendant rights of ownership, may be pledged, repledged, sold, hypothecated, rehypothecated, become subject to a repurchase transaction either separately or in common with other property for any amounts due to J.P. Morgan thereon, and for a greater sum than, and for periods longer than, any Obligation that the client owes to J.P. Morgan, and J.P. Morgan shall have no obligation to retain a like amount of similar property in its possession and control. The client hereby acknowledges that, as a result of such activities, (i) J.P. Morgan may receive and retain certain benefits to which the client will not be entitled and (ii) the securities in a margin Account(s) may be used as Collateral by J.P. Morgan for loans made to it in excess of the client's indebtedness to J.P. Morgan.

(b) In certain circumstances, such loans or other use may limit, in whole or in part, the client's ability to receive dividends directly from the issuing company and/or the client's right to exercise voting and other attendant rights of ownership with respect to the loaned, sold or pledged securities. Such circumstances include, but are not limited to, loans of securities that the client owns in margin Account(s) that continue over record dates for voting purposes and ex-dividend dates for dividend distributions. Record dates and ex-dividend dates are declared by the issuing company. If J.P. Morgan does not receive dividends directly from the company, the client may receive payments-in-lieu of dividends which may cause the client to lose the benefit of the preferential tax treatment accorded to dividends.

6. Free Credit Balances

The client hereby authorizes J.P. Morgan to use any free credit balance in any of the client's Margin Account(s) in accordance with all applicable laws and to pay interest thereon at such rate or rates and under such conditions as are established from time to time by J.P. Morgan for such Margin Account(s) and for the amounts of cash so used. In accordance with applicable regulations, free credit balances are carried in clients' Margin Accounts pending, and with a view towards, reinvestment. J.P. Morgan may determine not to pay interest on free credit balances (i) representing either uncollected funds (i.e., any deposited non-cash items (e.g., checks) for which J.P. Morgan has not yet received credit) or funds that is deposited and subsequently withdrawn prior to the expiration of the minimum time period required by J.P. Morgan, or (ii) where prohibited by applicable law.

7. Custody

A J.P. Morgan entity will act as custodian of all Collateral and/or Property held pursuant to this Margin Account Agreement.

8. General Terms; Definitions

This Agreement is subject to the General Terms for Accounts and Services (the "General Terms") and to the terms and conditions, including, without limitation, those pertaining to arbitration, contained in the Brokerage Account Agreement (other than terms pertaining to custody). References to the Brokerage Account shall be deemed to be references to the Margin Account and references to the Brokerage Account Agreement shall be deemed to be references to this Agreement.

Capitalized terms not defined in this Agreement have the meanings given to them in the General Terms and the Brokerage Account Agreement. To the extent there are any conflicts between the General Terms and the terms of this Agreement or between the Brokerage Account Agreement and this Agreement, this Agreement will prevail.

DISCLOSURE TO CLIENTS IN COMPLIANCE WITH FINRA RULE 4370 REGARDING CONTINUITY AND CONTINGENCY PLANS AND EMERGENCY CONTACT INFORMATION FOR J.P. MORGAN

J.P. Morgan adheres to a Resiliency Risk Management ("RRM") Program which is an integral part of JPMorgan Chase & Co. normal business operations, and as such, is part of business planning and a critical responsibility of management. The RRM Program establishes and assesses the criticality of business processes, in addition to documenting strategies, gathering recovery information, identifying resources, and developing and maintaining a plan for action to recover business processes in a timely manner following a disruption, and to meet local and country regulatory requirements. The Resiliency Plans (contingency plans) are designed to respond to a worst-case scenario. This means the loss of a single location or an entire zone. Also, pursuant to the Resiliency Risk Management Policy, J.P. Morgan establishes minimum requirements for supporting and sustaining business resiliency services at levels commensurate with the associated business impact.

The following business continuity control practices are in place:

A recovery plan designed to restore the J.P. Morgan environment, which includes alternative work spaces and back-up computer systems. The recovery plan is subject to periodic review, examination and/or testing by internal and independent auditors. The recovery test utilizes, in part, off-site copies of data, applications, and system software and synchronous or asynchronous systems. A regular review of resource needs is performed to update processing and storage requirements.

J.P. Morgan's risk mitigation strategies are commensurate with our obligations to our clients, markets and regulators. J.P. Morgan will endeavor to sustain business on behalf of its clients on that same business day or, where applicable, on a best efforts basis, during any and all contingency events, recognizing that service may be impacted for longer periods depending upon the seriousness of the event. In addition, in that J.P. Morgan is dependent upon various infrastructures (e.g. transportation, telecommunications, exchanges, industry utilities, etc.) J.P. Morgan's ability to implement its plans may be impacted by issues with these infrastructures.

The recovery and business continuity plans of J.P. Morgan are subject to modification without notice. Updates will be posted to the Morgan OnLine website and customers may request this information by contacting their J.P. Morgan representative.

RISKS OF CERTAIN INVESTMENTS

The types of investments below involve special risks that should be evaluated carefully before a decision is made to invest directly in a self-directed brokerage account at J.P. Morgan Securities LLC or to include type of investment in guidelines for an investment management account at JPMCB or one of its banking affiliates. Not all of the risks and other significant aspects of these investments are discussed here. Clients are advised to consult with their own legal, tax, financial and accounting advisors to the extent deemed necessary and are expected to rely upon their own evaluation of information they receive when making investment decisions.

1. Over-the-Counter Derivatives

Most Over-the-Counter ("OTC") Derivatives are contracts that take one of four basic forms, although the forms can be overlapping and one transaction can involve elements of all four forms. These basic forms are (1) swaps, (2) options, (3) forwards and (4) hybrid instruments (which are debt obligations or other securities with embedded swaps, options or forwards). OTC Derivatives may be structured to be settled in a variety of ways, including in cash or by physical delivery of property against cash. No matter what form is involved, a common feature of OTC Derivatives is that the obligations of one or both of the parties are based on the value or market price of one or more underlying financial or commodity markets, to which the transaction is linked. A Client should not enter into an OTC Derivative unless the Client understands, at a minimum:

- The fundamentals of the market underlying such OTC Derivative;
- The legal terms and conditions of the documentation for such OTC Derivative;
- The extent of the economic risk to which the Client is exposed as a result of such OTC Derivative;
- The tax treatment of such OTC Derivative; and
- The regulatory treatment of such OTC Derivative.

The Client must determine that such investment and its risk are suitable in the light of the Client's financial circumstances and objectives.

The following points should be considered in deciding whether to enter into a particular OTC Derivative:

- Market risk. To the extent the obligations or rights in respect of an OTC Derivative are linked to prices or values in a particular market, the Client will be exposed to a risk of loss as a result of price or value movements in that market.

- Credit Risk. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or one of its affiliates (a "Morgan Affiliate," and together with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., "JPMCB") will generally be the counterparty in an OTC Derivative arranged by any Morgan Affiliate, including J.P. Morgan Securities LLC ("JPMS"). The Client therefore will be dependent upon the financial capacity of JPMCB to meet its obligations under each OTC Derivative contract prior to settlement, and may be unsecured with respect to those obligations of JPMCB (as opposed to being a creditor of a central clearing corporation as may generally be the case with exchange traded futures and options). An OTC Derivative with JPMCB as counterparty will not represent a deposit or savings account, and the Client's claim against JPMCB will not be insured by the FDIC or any other government entity.

- Non-Transferability and Non-Marketability. OTC Derivatives will not be registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), or under the securities laws of any state or other country unless otherwise specified in writing. OTC Derivatives will ordinarily be sold and offered in a transaction that is intended to be exempt from registration under the Securities Act by virtue of Section 4(2) of the Securities Act and/or Regulation D thereunder. There will be no public market for OTC Derivatives. In this regard, the Client will be required to represent that OTC Derivatives, or any securities underlying the OTC Derivatives, are being acquired for investment purposes only and not with a view to resale or distribution. OTC Derivatives generally cannot be assigned or transferred by a party without the prior written consent of the other party. JPMCB may, but is not obligated to, consent to the early termination of an OTC Derivative prior to its scheduled maturity at a negotiated price. It therefore may be impossible for the Client to liquidate a position in an OTC Derivative prior to maturity. Because OTC Derivatives are not standardized, engaging in another OTC Derivative transaction to offset an OTC Derivative the Client has entered into with JPMCB will not automatically close out those positions (as may be true in the case of exchange traded futures and options) and will not necessarily function as an effective hedge. The Client will continue to be obligated with respect to an OTC Derivative until it matures or is otherwise terminated.

- Price Transparency. Because the prices and characteristics of OTC Derivatives are individually negotiated and there is no central source for obtaining prices, dealers in OTC Derivatives may quote different prices for similar transactions. JPMCB does not warrant that its prices will always be the best prices available.

- Option Risk. Option transactions can be very risky. The risk of selling (writing) options is considerably greater than the risk involved in buying options. If the Client buys an option, the Client cannot lose more than the premium. If the Client sells (writes) an option, the risk can be unlimited. Fluctuations in currency exchange rates may affect the value of any OTC Option on securities trading in or denominated in a foreign currency, as well as the value of any payment or delivery of securities in connection with such OTC Option. Fluctuations in currency exchange rates may affect the value of any payment or delivery of securities in connection with such OTC Option.

- Leverage Risk. Certain derivatives can be structured to allow for significant leverage. The use of leverage may have the effect of magnifying an investor's losses or gains and causing an investor to be highly exposed to risk with very little capital or cash investment. As a result, a relatively small, unexpected change in the notional amount of an investor's position could have a much larger adverse impact on the principal amount invested.

- Collateral. Collateral may be required to support the Client's obligations under OTC Derivatives. Additional collateral may be required after the Client has entered into an OTC Derivative. JPMCB and JPMS will not provide the collateral for any OTC Derivative transaction.

Clients should not rely upon J.P. Morgan for an understanding of the risks, terms and conditions of OTC Derivatives, and the Client must review carefully the documentation for any OTC Derivative with a personal attorney or other adviser. J.P. Morgan will assume that when the Client enters into OTC Derivatives, the Client understands the characteristics and risk associated with such transactions.

2. Uncovered Options (Permitted Only in Self-Directed Accounts at JPMS)

An uncovered (or "naked") option transaction occurs when an investor buys or sells (writes) an option without having a position in the underlying asset. There are special risks associated with uncovered option writing which expose the investor to potentially significant loss. Therefore, this type of strategy may not be suitable for all clients, including those generally approved for options transactions.

The potential loss of uncovered call writing is unlimited. The writer of an uncovered call is in an extremely risky position, and may incur large losses if the value of the underlying instrument increases above the exercise price.

As with writing uncovered calls, the risk of writing uncovered put options is substantial. The writer of an uncovered put option bears a risk of loss if the value of the underlying instrument declines below the exercise price. Such loss could be substantial if there is a significant decline in the value of the underlying instrument.

Uncovered option writing thus is suitable only for the knowledgeable investor who understands the risks, has the financial capacity and willingness to incur potentially unlimited losses, and has sufficient liquid assets to meet applicable margin requirements. In this regard, if the value of the underlying instrument moves against an uncovered writer's options position, JPMS may liquidate stock or options positions in the Client's account, with little or no prior notice in accordance with the Client's Margin Agreement.

For combination writing, where the investor writes both a put and a call on the same underlying instrument, the potential risk also is unlimited.

If a secondary market in options were to become unavailable, investors could not engage in closing transactions, and an option writer would remain obligated until expiration or assignment.

The writer of an American-style option is subject to being assigned an exercise at any time after he has written the option until the option expires. By contrast, the writer of a European-style option is subject to exercise assignment only during a specified exercise period.

Note: This brief discussion is not intended to enumerate all of the risks entailed in writing uncovered options. It is expected that the Client also will read the booklet entitled Characteristics and Risks of Standardized Options available from JPMS. In particular, the Client's attention is directed to the chapter entitled Risks of Buying and Writing Options. If the Client enters into an option contract, the Client thereby will confirm that the Client has received and read the aforementioned booklet.

3. Emerging Markets

Emerging markets securities and transactions involving emerging markets securities are subject to substantial risk arising from a number of factors including, but not limited to: (1) economic and political instability in the regions where emerging markets issuers conduct business, (2) significant volatility in the markets for emerging markets securities and the currencies in which they may be denominated and (3) the potential for loss of the Client's entire investment as a result of insolvency, market or government action, or other similar factors which could render the securities valueless.

Generally less information is publicly available with respect to emerging markets issuers and obligors than is available with respect to United States companies. Many emerging markets companies are not subject to the uniform accounting and financial reporting requirements applicable to issuers and obligors in the United States; additionally, accounting, auditing, financial and other reporting standards in emerging markets jurisdictions are often not equivalent to the standards established in the United States and therefore disclosure of certain material information may not be made.

There may exist only small markets for certain emerging markets securities, resulting in low or non-existent volumes of trading in such assets, and therefore a lack of liquidity and price volatility of such assets. Settlement periods for transactions of emerging markets securities may also be longer than settlement times for assets of United States issuers, and settlement systems may be unreliable.

This may also affect the liquidity and price volatility of emerging markets securities.

The risks are significantly more pronounced in derivative instruments (options, swaps, futures, etc.) on emerging markets securities.

4. Non-Traditional Investment Strategies

Non-traditional, or alternative, investment strategies include investments in hedge funds, private equity funds, real estate funds, and funds comprised of such funds. Such funds are sometimes referred to as private investments because they are typically organized pursuant to exemptions from registration under federal securities laws and therefore are not offered to the general public. They are appropriate for certain qualified investors only. Such funds: (1) often engage in leveraging and other speculative investment practices that may increase the risk of the complete loss of the investment; (2) can be highly illiquid because of the absence of any trading market and restrictions on resale as a result of regulatory or contractual provisions; (3) are not required to provide periodic pricing or valuation information to investors; (4) may involve complex tax structures and delays in distributing important tax information; (5) are not subject to the same regulatory requirements as mutual funds; (6) often charge high fees; (7) may be exposed significantly to foreign currency and investment risk; and (8) may experience high return volatility. In addition, any number of conflicts of interest may exist in connection with the sale, distribution, management or operation of such funds.

Although interests in private investment funds sometimes may be resold in privately negotiated transactions, the prices realized on these sales could be less than the original investment. It is a condition of many fund investments offered through J.P. Morgan that the Client maintain an investment management, trust, or custody/asset account at JPMCB or one of its affiliates for so long as the Client owns the investment.

Private funds are offered only by confidential private placement memorandum or similar document (the "PPM"). The PPM provides important detailed information regarding fees, merits, risks, investment objectives, and other matters of interest, and must be read carefully before a decision is made on whether to invest. However, generally no PPM will be delivered to the Client for whom JPMCB exercises investment discretion. JPMCB will provide a copy of the PPM to a discretionary Client upon request.

Morgan Affiliates may be the issuer of interests in these funds or may provide advisory, management, administrative or other services to issuers, including issuers who also are Morgan Affiliates, and may be compensated separately for such functions. JPMS or another Morgan Affiliate may act as placement agent for such interests and may be compensated by the issuer for providing placement services. Such compensation is in addition to fees and commissions the Client pays in connection with purchasing an interest or in connection with the Client's investment management, brokerage or custody account.

Investments in private funds entail the execution and delivery of a subscription agreement. If JPMCB is investing on behalf of a discretionary Client, JPMCB will complete and execute the subscription agreement on the Client's behalf. The subscription agreement will require JPMCB to make certain representations and warranties relating to the Client. Such representations and warranties relate to, but are not limited to, the Client's status as an "accredited investor," a "qualified purchaser," a "qualified eligible person," or "U.S. person" within the meaning of applicable securities laws; whether the Client or the Client's account is subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"); organizational data if the Client is an entity; whether the Client is a regulated institution that is subject to legal or regulatory restrictions or limitations on the nature of its investments (such as a bank or an insurance company); whether the Client is restricted by rules of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority from participating in initial public offerings by reason of the Client's association with any broker, dealer, bank or other securities business; and whether the Client falls into a category of person whose ability to do business with a financial institution is limited by laws intended to prevent money laundering and terrorist financing. JPMCB will rely on information provided to it by the Client in making all representations and warranties contained in a subscription agreement and may be liable to a fund if any such representation or warranty is untrue. In the event of such liability, the Client will be required to indemnify JPMCB and its affiliates for all loss and damage, including attorneys' fees. Clients who invest in private funds through their self-directed brokerage accounts at JPMS will sign subscription agreements containing the same representations and warranties.

5. Complementary/Structured Strategies

Structured strategies are securities in which swaps, options, futures, forwards or other combinations or types of derivatives are embedded. Their returns typically are linked to the performance of one or more underlying U.S. or international securities, indices, rates, currencies, or commodities (please see Section 11 below for a discussion of the special risks of investing in commodities and Section 12 below for a discussion of the special risks of investing in currencies), and may incorporate leverage.

Investments in structured strategies may not be suitable for all investors. These types of investments entail varying degrees of risk, and while some structured strategies offer full or partial principal protection, others can subject the Client to the loss of the full amount invested. Structured strategies offered by J.P. Morgan (referred to herein as "Structures") may be structured using unsecured and unsubordinated debt obligations of JPMorgan Chase & Co. or its affiliates ("JPM") or various non-Morgan affiliate issuers, and may also take the form of deposits (which may or may not be insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government authority), equity or partnership interests, certificates, warrants or interests in special purpose vehicles. The Client therefore will be dependent upon the issuer's financial capacity to meet its obligations under a Structure. Structures may or may not be registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), or under the securities laws of any state or other country and if not registered, will be sold and offered in a transaction that is intended to be exempt from registration under the Securities Act. Structures may or may not be publicly listed or traded on an exchange and therefore may be illiquid investments. Prior to maturity Structures issued by JPM may be repurchased by JPM only and only upon terms and conditions acceptable to it, and in most cases the Structures are not-transferable and are nonnegotiable.

In the event that JPM consents to early liquidation, the Client will likely not fully participate in any benefits of the Structure, such as principal protection, buffers, or enhanced returns.

Structures will be offered by prospectus, term sheet or offering memorandum (collectively, an "offering document"), and the offering document will provide more detailed information regarding the Structures. The applicable offering document must be read carefully before a decision is made to invest. However, generally no offering document will be delivered to a Client for whom J.P. Morgan exercises investment discretion.

The issue price of a Structure will include the cost of hedging the issuer's obligations under such Structure, which includes an estimated profit component. It also will include compensation paid to JPM for structuring, underwriting and marketing work involved in packaging a Structure as one instrument. Compensation paid to JPM will vary with each Structure but is not expected to exceed, on an annual basis, two percent. If, however, a Structure has an early redemption feature and is redeemed prior to maturity, the compensation will not be pro-rated and limited to the period during which the Structure was outstanding, and in such event, the compensation paid will be higher. A Structure may also include an annual fee embedded in an index or calculation, payable to the issuer or index sponsor (which may be JPM or a non-Morgan affiliate issuer) for structuring or calculating a proprietary index or formula.

JPM also generally acts as calculation agent for Structures and determines the amount, if any, that will be paid to the Client at maturity. In performing its duties as calculation agent, JPM may have interests adverse to the interest of the holders of the Structures, which may affect the Client's return on a Structure, particularly where JPM, as the calculation agent, is entitled to exercise discretion.

If JPMCB invests in a Structure on behalf of a Client for whom it exercises investment discretion, JPMCB may be required to make certain representations and warranties relating to the Client. Such representations and warranties relate to, but are not limited to, the Client's status as an "accredited investor" as defined by the Securities Act. JPMCB will rely on information provided to it by the Client in making all required representations and warranties and may be liable to the issuer or the issuer's placement agent if any such representation or warranty is untrue. In the event of such liability, the Client will be required to indemnify JPMCB and its affiliates for all loss and damage, including attorneys' fees.

6. Mutual Funds

Mutual funds are sold only by prospectus, and the prospectus contains important information regarding the fund's investment objectives, merits, risks, charges, expenses and other matters of interest. Mutual funds may not be suitable for all investors and the Client agrees to request the prospectus and read it carefully before deciding to invest. However, no prospectus will be delivered to the Client prior to an investment if JPMCB is investing on behalf of a Client for whom it exercises investment discretion. JPMCB will provide a copy of the prospectus to a discretionary Client upon request.

Although most mutual funds available through J.P. Morgan will follow a traditional long-only investment strategy, some mutual funds may utilize investment strategies similar to those employed by private funds. Such funds may or may not have the liquidity of traditional mutual funds, provide periodic pricing or valuation information to investors, and are subject to the same regulatory requirements as traditional mutual funds, but they engage in leveraging and other speculative investment practices commonly used by hedge funds that may increase the risk of the complete loss of the investment. Such funds generally also charge higher fees than traditional mutual funds and have higher expenses. The use of leverage increases risk to a fund, and the more a fund invests in leveraged instruments, the more it could magnify gains or losses to those investments.

JPMCB, JPMS or their affiliates may provide administrative, custodial, sales, distribution or shareholder services to funds established, sponsored, advised, or managed by their affiliates as well as by third parties, and JPMCB, JPMS or their affiliates may be compensated for such services.

7. Municipal Bonds

Municipal bonds are offered by an official statement and may not be suitable for all investors. A Client should consult with an independent tax advisor regarding whether municipal bonds are appropriate for the Client's particular situation.

JPMS or Morgan Affiliates may hold a position or act as market maker in the financial instruments of any issue the Client may invest in, or act as underwriter, placement agent, advisor, or lender to an issuer. If municipal bonds are sold prior to maturity, prices may be higher or lower than the original purchase price and actual yields may be higher or lower than the yields indicated at the time of Client's investment. Yield quotations and market values will thus fluctuate over time and in certain instances interest from some municipal bonds will be subject to the Alternative Minimum Tax (AMT).

8. Real Estate

Real estate investments are likely to be risky, illiquid and long-term. Real estate ownership and the real estate industry in general are subject to many risks, including the burdens of ownership of real property; local, national and international economic conditions; supply and demand for properties; the financial condition of tenants, buyers and sellers; changes in interest rates and the availability of mortgage funds; changes in environmental laws and regulations, planning laws and other governmental rules and fiscal and monetary policies; claims arising out of undisclosed or unknown environmental problems or as to which inadequate reserves have been established; changes in real property tax rates; changes in energy prices; force majeure events; terrorist events; and underinsured or uninsurable losses. Real estate assets are subject to long term cycles that gives rise to significant volatility in values.

Illiquidity may result from the absence of an established market for the property. The possibility of partial or total loss of capital will exist and investors should not invest in real estate unless they can readily bear the consequences of such loss. Even if real estate investments are successful, they are unlikely to produce a realized return to the investors for a period of years.

Securities issued by real estate fund companies, including real estate investment trusts ("REITs") are subject to the risks associated with the direct ownership of real estate as well as the risks associated with the fund company or REIT itself. Such companies carry the risks of possibly limited operating history, unspecified portfolios, uncertainties in calculating net asset value due to reliance upon appraisals, and restrictions on redemption arising out of the illiquidity of the underlying portfolio. REITs also carry the risk of the possible failure to qualify as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which will have adverse tax consequences for investors.

9. Exchange Traded Funds

Exchange traded funds (ETFs) are index funds or trusts that are listed on an exchange. Investors can buy or sell shares in the collective performance of an entire stock or bond portfolio as a single security. Unlike index mutual funds, which have their net asset values calculated at the end of each trading day, ETF prices change within the trading day, fluctuating with supply and demand, so that the price of an ETF may be different than its net asset value.

Leveraged or inverse ETFs are highly complex financial instruments and, due to the effects of compounding, their performance over longer periods of time can differ significantly from their stated daily objective. Leveraged and inverse ETFs typically are designed to achieve their stated performance objectives on a daily basis. Some investors might invest in these ETFs with the expectation that the ETFs may meet their stated daily performance objectives over the long term as well. Investors should be aware that performance of these ETFs over a period longer than one day can differ significantly from their stated daily performance objectives. Leveraged and inverse ETFs may pursue a range of investment strategies through the use of swaps, futures contracts and other derivative instruments, and are inherently more volatile then their underlying benchmark or index. Additionally, leveraged ETFs positions will be subject to applicable maintenance margin requirements which may be greater or differ from margin requirements on their non-leveraged counterparts.

Exchange traded funds are sold by prospectus. The prospectus contains important information regarding the investment objectives of the ETF, its merits, risks, charges, expenses and other matters of interest, and must be read carefully before a decision is made to invest. However, no prospectus will be delivered to the Client prior to an investment if JPMCB makes the investment on the Client's behalf pursuant to a discretionary portfolio mandate. JPMCB will provide a copy of the prospectus to a discretionary Client upon request.

ETFs are subject to risks similar to those of stocks. Investment returns will fluctuate and are subject to market volatility, so that an investor's shares, when redeemed or sold, may be worth more or less than their original cost. In addition, there is no guarantee that an ETF will track the exact performance of its index.

ETFs, including leveraged or inverse ETFs, may not be suitable for all investors.

10. High Yield Fixed Income Securities

High yield bonds (sometimes known as "junk" bonds) are non-investment grade bonds of varying maturities. They generally will be in the lower rating categories of the major rating agencies or may be unrated. High yield bonds typically pay more interest than other bonds because they involve a greater risk that the issuer will default in the timely payment of interest and principal. Issuers of high yield bonds may have a lot of debt. During an economic downturn, a period of rising interest rates or a recession, high yield issuers with a lot of debt may experience financial problems leading to a default, and high yield bonds tend to fall in price during such periods. They also may have other creditors with the right to be paid before the high yield bond holder. High yield bonds fluctuate more widely in price and yield than investment grade bonds and are not as liquid.

Asset-backed securities are bonds backed by a pool of assets, usually loans such as installment sale contracts or credit card receivables. The loans underlying asset-backed securities may be unsecured, with no collateral to seize if the underlying borrower defaults. Asset-backed securities may be prepaid at any time, which will reduce their yield and market value. When interest rates fall, prepayment rates rise as borrowers pay off existing debt and refinance at new lower rates. As a result, reinvestment of the prepayment proceeds generally will be at a lower rate of return than the return on the assets that were prepaid. Mortgage-backed securities are subject to the same risks as asset-backed securities except that the underlying loans generally will be secured by real property.

Mezzanine investments are subordinated debt securities which receive payments of interest and principal after more senior secured creditors are paid. They generally are issued in private placements in connection with an investment in an equity security. They carry the risk that the issuer will default on payment of interest and principal and that the equity securities purchased with the proceeds of mezzanine investments will lose value.

CBOs are securities backed by a diversified pool of high yield securities and are subject to the same risks as the high yield securities in the pool.

11. Commodities

(a) In General, Commodities include hard assets, such as agricultural products, metals, or petroleum as well as securities futures based on common stock, certain exchange traded funds and American Depositary Receipts, and securities indices.

Commodity futures contracts can be used for speculation, hedging, and risk management. Commodity futures contracts are not appropriate investments for all investors. When they are used for speculation, it is possible to realize substantial profits in a short period of time, but it is also possible to incur substantial losses in a short period of time. Such losses may be larger than the initial commitment of capital because futures trading is highly leveraged.

Because of the leverage involved and the nature of futures contract transactions, losses may be felt immediately because gains and losses are credited or debited to the investor's account, at a minimum, on a daily basis. The purchase or sale of a futures contract requires the investor to make an initial deposit of money, known as margin. Margin, in the context of futures trading, is different than the margin involved in the purchase of stocks. The purchase of stocks on margin involves a cash down payment and credit extended by the broker for the purchase. The margin required to buy or sell a futures contract is a deposit of money that can be drawn on by the broker to cover any daily losses. If movements in the markets for futures contracts or the underlying commodity decrease the value of the investor's positions in futures contracts, the investor may be required to deposit additional funds in his or her account as margin. If an account is under the minimum margin requirements set by the exchange or the investor's broker, the position may be liquidated at a loss, and the investor will be liable for any deficit in the account. Minimum margin requirements for a particular futures contract at a particular time are set by the exchange on which the contract is traded and are subject to modification based on market conditions. An increase in market volatility and the range of daily price movements is frequently a reason for raising margins.

Futures contracts cannot be sold like stocks or bonds. They generally must be liquidated by the investor entering into an equivalent but opposite position in another contract month, on another market, or in the underlying commodity. If a position in a futures contract cannot be liquidated, the investor may not be able to realize a gain in the value of the position or prevent losses from mounting. An inability to liquidate could occur, for example, if trading is halted due to unusual trading activity in either the futures contract or the underlying commodity; if trading is halted due to recent news events involving the issuer of the underlying commodity; if systems failures occur on an exchange or at the investor's broker; or if the position is on an illiquid market. An exchange may set a maximum daily limit on market price increases and decreases, and will halt trading when the limit is reached. In the event prices have risen or fallen by the maximum daily limit, and there is no trading in the contract permitted (known as a "lock limit" market), it may not be possible to execute an order at any price. Markets may be lock limit for more than one day, resulting in substantial losses to futures investors who may find it impossible to liquidate losing futures positions.

Even if the investor can liquidate the position, it may be at a price that involves a large loss. For the same reasons, it may also be difficult or impossible to manage risk from open futures positions by entering into offsetting positions.

An alternative method of participating in futures trading is through a commodity pool, which is a pooled investment vehicle that invests in commodities (and, typically, securities as well). A commodity pool participant will not have an individual trading account. Instead, the funds of all pool participants are combined and traded as a single account. Each investor shares in the profits or losses of the pool in proportion to his or her investment in the pool. Although commodity pools can offer benefits such as greater diversification among commodities than an investor might obtain in an individual trading account, the absence of margin calls, and a limitation on losses to the amount invested, the risks a pool incurs in any given futures transaction are no different than the risks incurred by an individual trader. The pool still trades in futures contracts which are highly leveraged and in markets that can be highly volatile. And like an individual trader, the pool can suffer substantial losses as well as realize substantial profits.

(b) Securities Futures
Trading in security futures contracts requires knowledge of both the securities and the futures markets. Under certain market conditions, the prices of security futures contracts may not maintain their customary or anticipated relationships to the prices of the underlying security or index. These pricing disparities could occur, for example, when the market for the security futures contract is illiquid, when the primary market for the underlying security is closed, or when the reporting of transactions in the underlying security has been delayed. For index products, it could also occur when trading is delayed or halted in some or all of the securities that make up the index. The investor may be required to settle certain security futures contracts with physical delivery of the underlying security. If a position in a physically settled security futures contract is held until the end of the last trading day prior to expiration, the investor will be obligated to make or take delivery of the underlying securities, which could involve additional costs.

The actual settlement terms may vary from contract to contract and exchange to exchange.

Although security futures contracts share some characteristics with options on securities (options contracts), these products are also different in a number of ways.

The purchaser of an options contract has the right, but not the obligation, to buy or sell a security prior to the expiration date. The seller of an options contract has the obligation to buy or sell a security prior to the expiration date. By contrast, if an investor has a position in a security futures contract (either long or short), the investor has both the right and the obligation to buy or sell a security at a future date. The only way to avoid the obligation incurred by the security futures contract is to liquidate the position with an offsetting contract.

A person purchasing an options contract runs the risk of losing the purchase price (premium) for the option contract. Because it is a wasting asset, the purchaser of an options contract who neither liquidates the options contract in the secondary market nor exercises it at or prior to expiration will necessarily lose his or her entire investment in the options contract. However, a purchaser of an options contract cannot lose more than the amount of the premium. Conversely, the seller of an options contract receives the premium and assumes the risk that he or she will be required to buy or sell the underlying security on or prior to the expiration date, in which event his or her losses may exceed the amount of the premium received. Although the seller of an options contract is required to deposit margin to reflect the risk of its obligation, he or she may lose many times his or her initial margin deposit. By contrast, the purchaser and seller of a security futures contract each enter into an agreement to buy or sell a specific quantity of shares in the underlying security. Based upon the movement in prices of the underlying security, a person who holds a position in a security futures contract can gain or lose many times his or her initial margin deposit. In this respect, the benefits of a security futures contract are similar to the benefits of purchasing an option, while the risks of entering into a security futures contract are similar to the risks of selling an option.

12. Currencies and Foreign Exchange
Foreign currencies or baskets of currencies may be very volatile and may experience significant drops in value over a short period of time. The value of a foreign currency will depend, among other economic indicators, on movements in exchange rates. Risks and special considerations with respect to foreign currencies include, but are not limited to, economic uncertainties, currency devaluations, political and social uncertainties, exchange control regulations, high rates of interest, a history of government and private sector defaults, significant government influence on the economy, less rigorous regulatory and accounting standards than in the United States, relatively less developed financial and other systems and limited liquidity and higher price volatility of the related securities markets.

DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS AND SERVICES OFFERED BY JPMORGAN CHASE BANK, N.A.[1]

DEPOSIT ACCOUNT AGREEMENT

This agreement governs personal and business deposit accounts identified in this Deposit Account Agreement at JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (the "Agreement"). By signing a services application, deposit account signature card, or by otherwise opening or maintaining a checking, savings or certificate of deposit (including retirement certificates of deposit) account with us, you accept and agree to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement. However, if your account is maintained with a business unit of the Bank that provides you a different deposit agreement, or if you contract for services that require your consent to a different deposit agreement, your account will be governed by that agreement.

To the extent there are any conflicts between the General Terms and this Agreement, this Agreement shall prevail. As used in this Agreement, "we," "us," "our" and the "Bank" mean JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. Your "Account" means each deposit account you have with us that is governed by this Agreement. "You" or "your" means each person or entity in whose name the Account at the Bank is maintained or who exercises an ownership interest therein, as well as any assignee or successor in interest to the Account. Your "State" means the U.S. state where you opened your account, or the state where you reside if you opened your Account by mail, internet, or other remote means and you reside in a state where we have branch offices. However, if you opened your Account by remote means and you do not reside in a U.S. state where we have branch offices, your "State" shall be the State of Ohio, where we are headquartered.

This Agreement includes the following disclosures applicable to the Bank's personal and business deposit accounts that the Bank has provided to you: (1) account features, (2) Additional Banking Services and Fees, (3) the rate sheets for interest bearing accounts, and (4) any additional disclosures regarding your Account that the Bank will provide to you. Fees mentioned throughout this agreement can be found in the product disclosures and Additional Banking Services and Fees disclosures referenced above.

GENERAL ACCOUNT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Deposits or Cashed Items

Checks, drafts and other negotiable instruments, including substitute checks (see the section of this booklet entitled Check 21 – Substitute Check and Your Rights) (collectively "checks") deposited to your Account or cashed, automated clearinghouse ("ACH") entries and all other types of external and book-entry funds transfers (checks and funds transfers collectively referred to herein as "items"), may be charged back against the Account (or an Account for split deposits) or any other Account of yours at the Bank if we are informed that the item is being or has been returned unpaid (or, for checks drawn on other accounts with us, the check is dishonored by us for any reason), without regard to whether such return or dishonor is timely. When a deposited or cashed item is returned, you may be charged a Deposited Item Returned fee. We may charge your Account whether or not the check is returned to us, and whether or not we can return the item or a copy to you. Even if we verify a deposited or cashed check and tell you that the check has been paid, that will not release your liability as an endorser. This right shall extend to any check or other item deposited into your Account or cashed, that is finally paid and then is returned because a claim is made that the check or other item was altered, forged, unauthorized, has a missing signature or should not have been paid for any reason. In lieu of charging your Account we may withhold an amount equal to such check or other item from your Account until a final determination of the validity of such claim has been made. We have no duty to return a check that has been charged back to an Account if that Account has become overdrawn. We are not required to give you next-day notice if a deposited or cashed item is dishonored.

Any check deposited to your Account that lacks an endorsement may be, or may be deemed to be, endorsed by us on your behalf. With respect to any such check, our rights and your liabilities shall be determined as though you actually endorsed and deposited the item. Further, any check deposited to your Account that bears your stamped or facsimile endorsement shall be deemed to bear your actual endorsement whether such endorsement was affixed by you or by someone having no authority to supply your endorsement. You agree to assume responsibility for and to indemnify us for any loss we may incur as a result of your failure to comply with the endorsement standards set forth in our Endorsement Standards section of this Agreement. If you deposit a remotely created check, you guarantee that the check was authorized by the account holder for payment in the amount shown. Remotely created checks are created when an account holder authorizes a payee to draw a check on the account, but instead of the account holder's actual signature, the check identifies that the account holder authorized the check.

We may rely on the account number on any deposit record received, even if the record identifies a party different from the entity identified by name in the record, and we have no duty to detect any such inconsistency in identification.

We may return or refuse to accept all or any part of a deposit or credit to your Account at any time and will not be liable to you for doing so even if such action causes outstanding items to be dishonored and returned. Returned or refused deposits (or the legal equivalent of the deposited item) will be returned to you. In addition, you will be solely responsible for any loss or liability we sustain in connection with the deposit of substitute checks.

We will not give you next day notice of receipt of an electronic deposit to your Account but will provide such notice to you on your next periodic Account statement. You may call us to confirm an ACH or wire transfer deposit.

Credits for Deposits

A receipt may be provided or made available upon request for all deposits to your Account (except for remote deposits, e.g., lock box, night depository services and certain funds transfers). However, the amount on your deposit receipt is based solely on your deposit ticket. Funds from your deposits to your Account may not be made immediately available. We shall not be construed to have received for deposit checks sent by mail or placed in the night depository until we have either received actual delivery from the U.S. Postal Service or have removed the checks from the depository. Checks placed in such depository will be removed not later than the next business day. All deposits made by mail and addressed to a Bank location without using a specific branch name and street address will be considered received by the Bank's National Bank-By-Mail facility in Louisville, KY as of the date such deposit is received by such facility. For checking accounts, funds will be made available according to Federal Reserve Regulation CC and our Funds Availability Policy. Credits for all deposits are subject to final verification and, after review, we may make adjustments to your Account for any errors, including any errors appearing on your deposit ticket, but have no obligation to do so for discrepancies under ten dollars. In addition, the availability of funds for withdrawal does not mean that the deposited check or other item is "good," has "cleared" or has been paid by the paying bank, or that the item will not be returned unpaid and your Account subsequently debited, notwithstanding the passage of any period of time or any representation or belief to the contrary. We may accept credits to your Account that have been originated by third parties (e.g., ACH credits, wire transfers). However, we may reverse any credit to your account that the originator of such deposit has informed us was in error, or was intended for another account, without investigating whether such credit was not properly payable to you.

We need not accept for deposit items drawn on a non-U.S. bank or items payable in a foreign currency and may instead accept such items on a collection basis, even after we have taken physical possession of such items. If accepted on a collection basis, we will not be obligated to credit your account for such items until we have received final payment. The actual credit for items payable in a foreign currency will be at the exchange rate in effect at the time of final collection in U.S. dollars. Regardless of whether such items are accepted for deposit or on a collection basis, our Funds Availability Policy will not apply.

Collection of Deposits

You agree that we act only as your collecting agent in receiving items for deposit or collection and assume no responsibility beyond reasonable care. We will use reasonable care in the selection of collecting agents but will not be liable in case of their failure or negligence or for losses in transit.

You agree that we, and each of our correspondents, may send checks subject to collection, directly or indirectly, to any bank, depository, maker or drawee in accordance with our usual custom and may accept checks, drafts or credits as conditional payment.

You agree to use reasonable care to assist us in locating or obtaining replacements of items lost while in our possession. We may agree with other banks and clearing houses to vary procedures regarding the collection or return of items, and deadlines to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Withdrawal Procedures and Limitations

In accordance with the features of your Account, you agree that we may charge your Account for any withdrawal or transfer that you make or authorize another to make. We may, as a condition of withdrawal, require you to provide us with identification or information acceptable to us and/or your signature on certain withdrawal documents signed in the presence of our personnel. If you request to withdraw large amounts in cash, we may place reasonable restrictions on the time and method of your withdrawal and may require that you sign a document releasing us from any liability in case you are robbed or assaulted. We may refuse the withdrawal if you do not agree with these conditions.

Federal regulations impose limitations on transfers from savings accounts and we are required to monitor your compliance with them. You may make no more than six withdrawals (including withdrawals made by check, debit card, ACH, telephone, Internet, or wire) during any monthly statement period on these accounts. This limit does not apply to withdrawals made in person or through ATMs, mail (by a check payable and mailed to you), or messenger. We will charge a Savings Withdrawal Limit fee for each withdrawal that exceeds this limit. In addition this transfer may also invoke an Additional Withdrawal fee for J.P. Morgan Savings accounts for having exceeded applicable withdrawal limits. If you continue to exceed any transfer limits on your Account after we have notified you of any such transfer violation, we will close your Account and transfer the funds to another deposit account type selected by us for which you are eligible or eliminate your Account's transfer and check privileges.

For all savings accounts, interest bearing checking accounts and holding sub-accounts, we reserve the right to require seven (7) days prior written notice of withdrawal. In addition, any personal checking account for which a one-time promotional payment to or for the account is made by us as a premium or other consideration upon account opening may cause such account to be considered an interest bearing checking account for this Agreement (and, for statutory purposes, a NOW account) and subject to the potential seven-day withdrawal notice requirement, even though such account may not accrue interest on a periodic basis.

Payment and Deposit of Checks
You agree not to issue incomplete, postdated or conditional checks or present them for deposit to your Account. Also, we have no duty to discover, comply with or have any liability for accepting any incomplete, postdated, conditional checks or checks more than six months old, even if you have provided us with notice describing this check. We may charge a person who cashes your check a fee, or refuse to cash your check, if that person is not a deposit or loan customer of ours.

We have no duty to honor and we may disregard any information on a check other than the identification of the paying bank and payee, the amount (we may rely upon either the numeric amount or the amount in words if contradictory) and any MICR encoded information, and specifically have no duty to visually inspect signatures. We may construe as "or" any symbol, mark or word (other than the word "and") used as a connective, or may imply an "or" in the absence of any connective, on the payee line of any check containing multiple payees. In addition, for both personal and business Accounts, we may debit an Account based on a single signature, and a multiple-signature requirement is for the customer's internal use only, notwithstanding any communication to us to the contrary.

You agree that if you utilize an automatic check writing service which operates through the use of a personal computer, employ the use of a facsimile signature or do not otherwise provide your personal signature on a check, you agree that you shall have the sole responsibility for maintaining security of any such computer, stamp or device by which your signature is affixed and that you shall bear the entire risk of unauthorized use of any such device or of any facsimile signature that reasonably resembles the signature you use, whether or not you are negligent. You also agree that the treatment of each check presented against your Account through the use of such a service and our rights and obligations with regard to such check will be the same as if the check was signed or initiated personally by you. You further agree to indemnify and hold us harmless from and against any and all loss, cost, damage, liability or expense (including attorney fees) we may suffer or incur as a result of the unlawful use, unauthorized use or misuse by any person of any such device or of any facsimile signature that reasonably resembles the signature you use.

Your Account may be debited on the day a check is presented by electronic or other means, or at an earlier time based on notification received by us that such check drawn on your Account has been deposited for collection at the Bank or at another financial institution. A determination of your Account balance for purposes of making a decision to dishonor a check for insufficiency of available funds may be made at any time between the receipt of such presentment or notice and the time of return of the check, and no more than one such determination need be made. If the Bank dishonors any check, we shall treat any subsequent representment the same as the original presentment in all respects (including imposing an additional Insufficient Funds or Returned Item Fee if applicable), and shall have no duty to take any steps to prevent representments of such checks.

Check and Forms Specifications/Protection of Documents
All checks, withdrawal forms, deposit slips and transfer instructions used in connection with your Account must be on forms obtained through or approved by us. You agree to maintain adequate safeguards to ensure the authorized use of the forms you retain, and agree to notify us immediately if you become aware that any checks or other forms are lost or stolen. We are not responsible for losses you may suffer due to improper printing on forms not obtained through or approved by us, your failure to maintain adequate safeguards against unauthorized use, or your failure to issue checks in a manner so as to prevent unauthorized completion, alteration or addition. You agree that we may refuse to accept for deposit or to process any check or other item that is presented to us in a form that cannot be processed or photographed using equipment that we regularly use in our normal operations.

Overdrafts
We may, but are not required to, refuse to pay any item unless your available account balance at the time is equal to or more than the amount of the item, plus all other items received. Even if we have paid overdraft items previously, we will not be required to do so at any future time. We generally will not authorize a non-repeating ("everyday") debit card transaction if your available account balance is insufficient to pay the transaction in two cases: for business accounts, if you have notified us not to pay debit card overdrafts or, for personal accounts, if you have not notified us to pay debit card overdrafts. Your "available account balance" is the balance after deducting (1) deposits that are not yet available for withdrawal under our funds availability policy, (2) debit card or other transactions that we are legally obligated to pay, or have already paid out in cash, (3) other pending transactions like ACH transactions, and (4) any holds on your account to comply with court orders or other legal requirements.

An "overdraft," or "overdrawing" your account, means that your account balance, minus deposits that are not yet available and minus holds on your account to comply with court orders or other legal requirements, is negative or is less than the total of all items presented on a business day.

We look at your account balance only once from the time we receive an item until we return it to decide whether the item causes an overdraft. We may charge your account for a debit card transaction based on the authorization request.

Generally, for each business day, we will (i) add deposits to your account, (ii) subtract wire transfers, debit card transactions, online banking transactions, ATM withdrawals, teller cash withdrawals, cashed checks and deposited checks drawn on us, in the order in which they were authorized, withdrawn, or deposited, and (iii) subtract all other items in highest to lowest dollar amount. We reserve the right to use a different order in certain states.

It is your responsibility to avoid overdrawing your account. Talk to your J.P. Morgan team to learn about Overdraft Protection services. We also offer Personalized Alerts to keep you informed about the balance and transactions in your account.

You must immediately pay the amount of any overdraft together with any applicable fees or charges. If you fail to do so, you may be charged additional fees or interest. Until you pay such balance in full, you will pay interest on the amount of the overdraft at the rate indicated on the applicable rate schedule. We also may report you to credit reporting agencies, close your account, or both. These actions could affect your ability to open accounts in the future.

You authorize us to apply any subsequent deposit against the amount of any overdraft and resulting fees or charges. Subsequent deposits include any federal or state benefit payments that you choose to deposit in any account (including direct deposit of Social Security). You understand and agree that if you do not want your benefits applied in this way, you may change your direct deposit instructions to the benefits payor at any time.

You agree to pay all costs and expenses, including attorney fees, we incur in collecting any overdraft. In addition, if we close your account with an outstanding overdraft and charge off the amount of the overdraft, we may charge a Collection fee. We may still pursue collection of your account (including suing you) after it is charged off.

Insufficient Funds, Returned Item, and Extended Overdraft Fees

We may charge a fee for any item presented when your account is overdrawn, whether or not we pay the item. If we pay the item, we may charge an Insufficient Funds fee. If we return the item, we may charge a Returned Item fee. We will not charge an Insufficient Funds fee for an everyday debit card transaction in two cases: for business accounts, if you have notified us not to pay debit card overdrafts or, for personal accounts, if you have not notified us to pay debit card overdrafts.

We may limit the number of Returned Item and Insufficient Funds fees we charge for a business day. We will not charge Insufficient Funds fees if your ending account balance is overdrawn by $5.00 or less. For some types of accounts and for accounts located in some states, we may charge an Extended Overdraft fee for any overdraft balances that are not promptly repaid, charge interest for any overdraft, or both.

Refer to your fee schedule for information about what fees apply and how fees are calculated for your account.

Specific Terms for Certificates of Deposit

The standard minimum deposit amount to open a Certificate of Deposit ("CD," which term shall include Retirement CDs unless otherwise identified below) is $1,000. Subsequent deposits are not permitted except during the grace period. By opening your CD, you have agreed to keep the funds on deposit for the agreed upon stated term.

Grace Period. The grace period is the time after your maturity date that you can make changes to your CD's term, rate or balance before it automatically renews for the same term. A grace period of ten (10) calendar days applies to a CD with a term of 14 days or greater. A grace period of five (5) calendar days applies to a CD with a term of 7 through 13 days.

Maturity Conditions. For automatically renewable CDs, your CD will automatically renew for the same time period as the initial term, and thereafter for successive like periods of time, with an interest rate then in effect on the renewal date for like term CD to be applicable during such time period. This will not apply if you withdraw your funds during the grace period following the maturity date. Withdrawals made during the grace period are not subject to early withdrawal penalties described below. If your CD is redeemed during the grace period, it will not earn interest after the maturity date. For single maturity CDs, your CD will not automatically renew on the maturity date. No interest is earned or paid after the maturity date.

CD Special Interest Rates. If your CD has a CD special interest rate, that rate applies only to the initial CD term. At the time of renewal, unless withdrawn during the applicable grace period, your CD will automatically renew for the same term at the standard (non-special) interest rate in effect on the renewal date or for the Relationship interest rate if you qualify.

Early Withdrawal Penalties. THERE IS A PENALTY FOR WITHDRAWING FUNDS PRIOR TO THE MATURITY DATE. If the term of the CD is less than 365 days, the early withdrawal penalty is equal to $25.00 plus 1% of the amount withdrawn. For terms of one year or more, the early withdrawal penalty is equal to $25.00 plus 3% of the amount withdrawn. If the withdrawal occurs within seven (7) days after the date of deposit, the amount of the early withdrawal penalty shall be calculated as above, but in no event shall it be less than the accrued interest. Early withdrawal penalties may require a reduction in the principal amount if the amount of accrued and unpaid interest on the deposit is less than the penalty. Early withdrawal penalties will be waived under the following circumstances:

- Withdrawal of accrued or paid interest;
- Withdrawal due to the death of a CD owner (including Totten Trust) or a grantor of a revocable family/living trust;
- Withdrawal due to the disability of a CD owner;[2]
- Withdrawal due to the judicial determination of legal incompetence of a CD owner;
- Re-titling of a CD to transfer ownership of funds into a living trust without moving funds from the Bank and where no change in term or rate occurs.

Stop Payments

You may stop payment on a check drawn on your Account if we have not accepted, certified, made final payment on or otherwise become accountable for the item. Any joint owner may order us to stop payment on any check drawn on your Account. A Stop Payment fee may apply. To stop payment on a check, please call us at the phone number listed on your monthly statement.

You must provide us with the precise Account and check number/amount to allow us to identify the check based upon our computer retrieval system standards. A stop payment order shall become effective not later than one full business day after we have received such information, which you agree is a reasonable time. If a cashier's check, teller's check ("official check") or certified check is lost, destroyed or stolen, you may assert a claim to the amount of the check if you give us a declaration of loss statement in a form acceptable to us and the check has not been presented for payment for 90 days from the issue date or in the case of certified checks, from the date of acceptance.

2 Except during the first seven days following account opening or for withdrawals made within six days of a previous withdrawal, in which case the penalty must always be applied.

For personal Accounts, an oral or written stop payment order is effective for 180 days, and may not be extended. However, you may place an additional stop payment order at any time, in which case such order shall replace the prior instruction, and shall be effective for 180 days from the day such additional order was placed. An additional stop payment fee will be charged. We will not send a confirmation of your stop payment order. For business Accounts, an oral or written stop payment may be placed for two lengths of time. You may place a stop payment order to be effective for 180 calendar days or you may place a stop payment order to be effective for one year and then renewable annually, at your choice, for six additional years. We may send you a written confirmation of your stop payment order. If any of the information on the confirmation is incorrect, you must notify us within the time period stated on the confirmation. If you do not do so, the information will be presumed to be correct. You will receive a 60 to 90 day advance notification of stop payments scheduled for renewal on your business Account statement. You may request at that time to discontinue the renewal of a stop payment by indicating the stop payment you wish to revoke and returning the notice portion of the statement, with an authorized signature, to the address provided. For personal and business Accounts, when the effective period of the stop payment order expires, we have no duty or obligation to notify you before we pay the item.

If you stop payment on a check drawn on your Account, you may still be obligated to pay such item to any party entitled to enforce it pursuant to applicable state law.

Inactive and Unclaimed Accounts
Each state has laws that govern when accounts are considered inactive or unclaimed and when the Bank is required to send a client's funds to the state. We encourage you to make sure your accounts remain active so you receive regular statements, have the full use of your accounts, and avoid the potential of having your account assets transferred to the state as unclaimed property. We will send you a letter in advance if your account assets may be transferred to the state as unclaimed property.

Statements (for Retirement CDs and Retirement Money Market Accounts refer to your IRA/CESA or QRP plan document)
We will maintain appropriate records of your Account. An Account statement for checking and savings accounts will be sent to you at your current address listed on our records on a monthly basis, unless there have been no deposits or withdrawals made to your accounts within a 30-month (12 months in Texas) period, in which case annual statements will be sent, unless otherwise specifically indicated in the personal accounts or business accounts sections of this Agreement. Statements will be sent via ordinary U.S. mail, unless you and the Bank agree otherwise. We will send at least one statement per Account, even if that Account has more than one owner. You agree that sending the Account statement as described qualifies as sending the Account statement to all owners of the Account, even if all owners do not have access to the mailing address of record for the Account.

We may change your postal address of record if we receive an address change notice from the U.S. Postal Service or if we receive information from another party in the business of providing correct address information that the address in our records no longer corresponds to your address.

As used in this Agreement, the monthly statement period means the time period covered by your Account statement. This time period may or may not correspond to a calendar month but in most cases will not exceed 32 days or be less than 28 days. The specific dates covered by your Account statement will be set forth in the statement.

Check Enclosure Options
If, at your election or your Account features so require, we retain your cancelled checks and do not return them with your Account statement, you acknowledge that the original cancelled checks may be destroyed after a reasonable period of time as determined by us. You agree that by maintaining the original check or a copy thereof on your behalf, we have otherwise made the check available to you in a reasonable manner. You may request a copy of any cancelled check and a service charge may be imposed for each copy provided. If for any reason we cannot return a copy of your check or satisfy your needs through other means, you agree that we will not be liable for more than the face amount of the check.

If available, when we retain your cancelled checks, you may request that we include images of the front of your cancelled checks with your statement ("Image Statement"). However, you may elect to neither have your cancelled checks nor images thereof included with your statement ("Check Safekeeping") and unless the terms of your Account require Check Safekeeping, you may elect to have your checks returned with your Account statement ("Check Enclosure") rather than receiving images thereof.

Some merchants, utilities and other billers may elect to convert your check into an electronic funds transfer. Since we do not receive your check, neither a cancelled check nor its image is available from us. Additionally, we may elect to receive electronic images from other banks or financial institutions in lieu of original checks. If we receive an electronic image for payment, this image will appear with other cancelled checks on your Image Statement, however, the cancelled check is not available from us.

If you have elected to have your checks returned in your statement for the first checking account listed on your statement, then all other checking accounts listed in your statement will require Check Safekeeping (for business accounts, you may elect Check Enclosure option for all checking accounts). If the first checking account election is Image Statement, then other checking accounts will default to Image Statement, unless Check Safekeeping is elected or required by the terms of that account. If the first checking account has Check Safekeeping, then all other identified checking accounts will require Check Safekeeping as well.

Notification of Errors, Forgeries and Unauthorized Signatures (for Retirement CDs and Retirement Money Market Accounts refer to your IRA/CESA or QRP plan document)
You agree to reconcile your statement promptly upon receipt. If we honor a check, debit card, ATM or other item drawn on or posted to your Account that is altered in any way or was not drawn or otherwise authorized by you ("unauthorized item") or if your Account statement contains any errors, you agree to notify us in writing of such unauthorized item or error within 30 days of the date on which the unauthorized item, or the Account statement that contained a description of the unauthorized item or error, was mailed, transmitted or otherwise made available to you. You must notify the Bank in writing of any unauthorized, improper, or missing endorsements within six (6) months after the Account statement is mailed, transmitted or made available to you. You agree to provide us with all information necessary for us to investigate the alleged error or unauthorized item, associated police reports, supporting affidavits, and testimony we reasonably request. Failure to report an unauthorized item or error, or that you did not receive your scheduled statement, within the 30-day time frame set forth above, or to abide by the conditions set forth herein, shall be deemed conclusive proof that you failed to exercise reasonable care and promptness in examining the items and statements of the affected Account and in notifying us of the unauthorized item or error. You agree that such items and errors shall therefore be fully enforceable against you and you shall have no claim against us for same and shall be barred from bringing any action against us that is in any way related to the unauthorized item or errors.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Electronic Funds Transfer Services section of this Agreement governs the reporting of errors on consumer electronic funds transfers governed by Federal Reserve Board Regulation E. You also have those rights afforded to you under federal law for substitute checks. Please see the Check 21 section of this Agreement for more information.

Sub-Accounts
For accounting purposes, all checking accounts consist of two sub-accounts: a transaction sub-account to which all financial transactions are posted, and a holding sub-account into which available balances above a preset level are transferred daily. Funds will be retransferred to your transaction sub-account to meet your transactional needs; however, all balances in the holding sub-account will be transferred to the transaction sub-account with the sixth transfer in any calendar month or monthly statement period.

Both sub-accounts are treated as a single account for purposes of your deposits and withdrawals, access and information, tax reporting, fees, etc.

Linked Accounts
For checking and savings accounts, you may elect to have these accounts appear on a single statement. Since accounts with at least one common owner can be included on an account statement, you agree that information regarding your Account may be made available to any other owner on any of the accounts that are identified on that combined statement.

Many checking accounts permit you to link other accounts you may have with us or our affiliates to help waive the monthly Service Fee for that checking account based upon the balances you keep in those other accounts. These other accounts need not be included on your statement for those pricing benefits to apply, and accounts that appear on your combined statement are not automatically linked for purposes of pricing. If you have multiple checking accounts listed on your statement, pricing benefits may only apply for the first checking account listed. In addition, balances held in any particular account may only be used for pricing benefits applied for one checking account.

Linking accounts is always at our discretion. If you choose to link your personal accounts to other accounts for which you serve as trustee or custodian (fiduciary), your personal account may receive a financial benefit. Under fiduciary law, any financial benefit you receive is considered a violation of fiduciary duties. We bear no responsibility for your decision to link fiduciary and personal accounts. You should carefully consider this decision, and consult with your legal advisor if necessary.

Note: we will not automatically place accounts on one combined statement or link accounts for pricing; you must take authoritative action to do so.

Interest:
Checking and Savings Accounts
Your Account, if designated as interest bearing, will be a variable rate account on which we may change the interest rate and annual percentage yield from time to time at our discretion without notice to you. We do not impose a limit on the amount the interest rate and annual percentage yield on your Account may change. If you have requested your Account not to accrue interest on a periodic basis, we will not establish or maintain an interest rate for the Account until such time as you have requested the Account to begin earning interest.

Interest begins to accrue on the business day we receive credit for your non-cash deposit. For cash and electronic transfers, interest begins to accrue on the business day of your deposit. For purposes of accruing interest, we use the daily balance method for calculating interest. This method applies a daily periodic rate to the principal balance in your Account each day, which may be based either on collected or ledger balances as set forth in the product features for your Account. The collected balance is the balance of all deposits in your Account on which we have received credit for the deposited funds (determined by the availability schedule of our Federal Reserve Bank for non-cash items). The ledger balance is the balance in your Account without regard to credit or availability. Interest is credited and compounded monthly and is computed on a 360- or a 365-day basis. We reserve the right not to pay interest on any deposited item that is returned to us unpaid.

The interest rate and annual percentage yield applicable to your Account on the date your Account is opened will be set forth on a separate "rate sheet" or other interest rate disclosure provided to you when your Account is opened. That interest rate disclosure is considered a part of this Agreement.

Certificates of Deposit
We use the daily balance method to calculate interest on your CD. This method applies a periodic rate each day to the principal balance. Interest begins to accrue on the business day you deposit cash or non-cash items. Interest for CDs is calculated on a 360- or 365-day basis. The APY disclosed on the face of your Deposit Receipt, which is considered part of this Agreement and, if applicable, on the maturity notice, assumes interest will remain on deposit until maturity. On maturities of more than one year, interest will be paid and reported to the IRS at least annually (excludes Retirement CDs). A withdrawal will reduce earnings.

Record Retention
We shall abide by federal and applicable state record retention laws and may dispose of any records that have been retained or preserved for the period set forth in these laws. Any action by or against us based on, or the determination of which would depend on, the contents of records for which a period of retention or preservation is set forth in these laws shall be brought within the time for which the record must be retained or preserved, unless applicable law provides a shorter limitation period. Any action against us on an automatically renewable CD must be brought within the retention period applicable to that CD based on the stated maturity date in the most recent record evidencing the existence and term of the CD.

Fees and Service Charges
You agree to pay the monthly service fee, transaction fees, fees or interest charges for insufficient funds and stop payments, and all other applicable service charges or fees identified herein as applicable to your Account, or which may be otherwise mutually agreed upon by you and the Bank. You authorize us to charge your Account for these fees and service charges at any time whether or not such fees or charges will result in an overdraft of your Account or, where there are not sufficient funds in your Account to cover your fees and service charges, to bill you separately. You acknowledge and agree that the funds in your Account used to pay such fees and service charges may include any federal or state benefit payments that you choose to deposit in any Account (including direct deposit of Social Security). You understand and agree that if you do not want your benefits applied in this way, you may change your direct deposit instructions to the benefits payor at any time.

Form of Account Ownership and Fee Allowance Rate:
Refer also to the General Terms for Accounts and Services Section for types of accounts other than Business Deposit Accounts.

You agree that if your Account is identified as one offered only to individuals or unincorporated nonbusiness associations, it shall not be used for a business purpose.

Business Accounts
Where a corporation, unincorporated association or limited liability company, partnership, including a limited partnership, limited liability partnership, or joint venture, government entity or sole proprietor (collectively, the "business") is designated or appears on a signature card as the owner of such account, then the account is payable only to or on the order of the business, and not to any individual director, shareholder, member or partner thereof except as they may be a payee on a check or other item drawn on your Account. You further represent and agree that the business has taken all action necessary to open and maintain banking accounts at the Bank and that all resolutions and/or other documentation delivered to us in connection with the account are true, accurate, complete, and will be kept up to date and may be conclusively relied upon by us. You agree to notify us in advance of any change in your form of ownership. You also agree that we are not obligated to cash checks payable to you or to accept "less cash" deposits. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the relationship between you and the Bank is one of debtor/creditor, not fiduciary, even if the account is titled as a "fiduciary" account with that role being played by you.

You agree that each eligible signer is authorized to endorse for collection, deposit, or negotiation any and all checks, drafts, notes, bills of exchange, certificates of deposit, and orders for the payment or transfer of money between accounts at the Bank and other banks, either belonging to or coming into the possession of the business. Endorsements "for deposit" may be written or stamped. We may accept any instrument for deposit to any depository account of the business without endorsement or may supply the endorsement of the business. The person(s) so designated is authorized to sign any and all checks, drafts and orders drawn against any designated account(s) of the business at the Bank. We are authorized to honor and pay all checks, drafts and orders when so signed or endorsed without inquiry as to the circumstances of issue or disposition of the proceeds even if doing so causes an overdraft or increases an overdraft and regardless of to whom such instruments are payable or endorsed, including those drawn or endorsed to the individual order of any such person so listed.

In addition, each eligible signer is authorized to act for and on behalf of the business in any matter involving any Account of the business, including the authority to instruct us to close the Account, and is further authorized to sign and implement for and in the name on behalf of the business, as they, or any of them see fit, the terms of all agreements, instruments, drafts, certificates, or other documents relating to any depository accounts or other business including, but not limited to, night depository agreements, funds transfer agreements or safe deposit agreements.

Business accounts are accounts held by or on behalf of an entity (a person other than a natural person) or held by an individual in a professional or business capacity. Each month the noninterest- bearing funds in a business Account may earn a Fee Allowance Rate that is based on the current market conditions. The Fee Allowance Rate is used to calculate an allowance that can be used to offset monthly fees. Each month's allowance is calculated by taking the average monthly noninterest- bearing collected balance of your Account during the month and multiplying the result by the Fee Allowance Rate determined at JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.'s discretion and by the number of days in the billing cycle divided by the number of days in the year.

Each month's credit will be used to offset maintenance and certain transaction fees incurred in that month for account maintenance and services. The credit may only be applied against current fees and will never be credited to your Account. Fees in excess of a credit will be charged to your Account, or to the Account designated as your primary business checking account if you have more than one. No credit is earned on funds in personal noninterest- bearing accounts.

Telephone Requests
You agree that funds in any of your Accounts with us can be transferred, upon the telephone request of any signer on the Account, to another account with us or to any other financial institution. We shall not be responsible for any loss incurred as a result of our acting upon or executing any request, order or instruction we believe to be genuine. Furthermore, we may refuse to execute any telephone request or order.

Electronic Communication
Any communication contemplated by this Agreement may be delivered by electronic means if you have agreed to electronic notices rather than via U.S. mail or other means to the extent permitted by law.

Powers of Attorney
If you wish to designate an attorney-in-fact, you must do so in a form acceptable to us. Subject to the laws of your State, we reserve the right to refuse to honor any Power of Attorney presented to us, as well as to refuse to recognize a successor attorney-in-fact at any time, whether or not the successor attorney-in-fact is specifically identified in the Power of Attorney. In addition, we reserve the right to refuse to follow the instruction of an attorney-in-fact to designate the attorney-in-fact as a joint account holder, ITF beneficiary, or POD beneficiary to the Account. You agree that we are authorized, but not required, to honor a Power of Attorney until we receive written notice (1) that you have revoked the Power of Attorney or (2) that the Power of Attorney has been revoked as a matter of state law, and that we have had a reasonable opportunity to act on that written notice.

Adverse Claims
Upon receipt of oral or written notice from any party of a claim regarding the Account, we may place a hold on your Account and shall be relieved of any and all liability for our failure or refusal to honor any item drawn on your Account or any other withdrawal instruction. We may file an action in interpleader with respect to any Account where we have been notified of disputed claims to that Account. If any person asserts that a dispute exists, we are not required to determine whether that dispute has merit in order to refuse to honor the item or withdrawal instruction, or to interplead any funds in the Account.

Legal Proceedings/Other Restrictions
We may restrict the use of your Account if the Account is involved in any legal or administrative proceeding, whether or not we're a party to the proceeding. All expenses incurred by us as a result of a proceeding affecting your Account, may be charged against your Account or billed to you separately. These fees may include, but are not limited to, court costs and attorney fees.

We may also restrict the use of your Account when we reasonably consider such action necessary to avoid a loss. This may occur if we suspect that irregular, unauthorized, or unlawful activities may be involved with your Account, whether or not we suspect that you are directly or indirectly aware of these activities. Such restrictions shall be placed pending an investigation of these activities.

Set-Off
You agree that we may, without prior notice or demand, apply or set off the funds in your Account at any time to pay off any debt, whether direct or indirect, you have with us or any of our affiliates and/or any fees or service charges owed to us, and you grant us a security interest in each Account to secure such debt, as it may arise. You expressly agree that such rights extend to any Federal or state benefit payments (including without limitation Social Security benefits) electronically deposited into your Account. You understand and agree that if you do not want your benefits applied in this way, you may change your direct deposit instructions to the benefits payor at any time. If your Account is a joint account and one or more joint owners are indebted to us in any manner, we may use the funds in the joint account to pay the debt without prior notice to you. This right of set-off does not apply if the debt is created under a consumer credit card plan or your right to withdraw funds from the Account arises only in a representative capacity. You also acknowledge and agree that any federal benefits or other payments deposited to your Account after a date of ineligibility must be returned to the Federal Government or other payor, as applicable, and we may set-off against any of your Accounts in order to recover any ineligible benefits or payments you may have received if we are obligated to return funds to the payor. If we make a set-off against your Account, you agree to release and indemnify us from all liability for our actions.

If you or any joint owner draws a check or otherwise authorizes withdrawals not presented for payment until after the drawer's death, or if any joint owner is indebted to us at the time of his or her death, we are authorized to pay such checks and withdrawals and exercise our right of set-off against the Account after such joint owner's death, notwithstanding any rights that a surviving joint owner, a POD payee or a beneficiary of an ITF or "trustee for" account may have to funds in the Account.

No Waiver
No failure by us to exercise any right will be taken as a waiver of that right or any other right, and we may still enforce all of our rights in the future.

Closing Your Account
Either you or the Bank may close your Account at any time with or without cause. If you close your Account, you may be charged an Account Closing fee. We may automatically close your Account if it reaches a zero balance. Any closed account may be automatically reopened if we receive a deposit to the Account. If we close your Account, we may send you written notice that the Account is closed on the date we close your Account. We will return the balance in your Account less any fees or service charges, claims, setoffs or other amounts you owe us, if such net amount exceeds one dollar. Please allow four weeks to receive such funds from us. After your Account is closed, we have no obligation to accept deposits or pay any outstanding checks. You agree that we shall be relieved of any and all liability for refusing to honor any check drawn on a closed Account. We have the right to advise consumer reporting agencies and other third party reporting agencies of accounts closed for misuse.

Change in Account Agreement
We may change the terms of this Agreement, including any fees or features of your Account, upon notice sent to you via ordinary U.S. mail at least 30 calendar days prior to the effective date of the change; provided however, for automatically renewable CDs, no such change shall be effective prior to the renewal date, and such notice may be provided with ten days written notice prior to the renewal date. You agree that such notice may be provided to any joint account owner. By maintaining your Account after the effective date of any change, you agree to be bound by the changes. No notice is required for changes in the interest rate and corresponding changes in the annual percentage yield for variable rate accounts or in fees for document printing.

Rules Governing Your Account
Your Account is governed by all rules and regulations of applicable federal law and the laws of your State (to the extent they are not considered to have been preempted by federal law), including those that may modify the terms of this Agreement. All deposits, items transmitted for collection, and any other transactions concerning your Account are subject to applicable clearinghouse rules and Federal Reserve rules and regulations.

Notwithstanding any other provision herein, this Agreement or any section of this Agreement may be changed or terminated without notice to the extent necessary to comply with any law or regulation of any appropriate federal or state authority.

If a conflict exists between any provision of this Agreement and any statements made by any employee of ours or our affiliates, this Agreement and the applicable sections will control.

Liability
You agree that we shall be relieved of any and all liability for acting upon your instructions or failing to act on your instructions when we reasonably believe that to do so would cause us to be exposed to civil or criminal liability, or conflict with customary banking practices.

YOU AGREE THAT WE SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR INDIRECT, SPECIAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES REGARDLESS OF THE FORM OF ACTION AND EVEN IF WE HAVE BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

IF WE FAIL TO STOP PAYMENT ON AN ITEM, OR PAY AN ITEM BEARING AN UNAUTHORIZED SIGNATURE, FORGED DRAWER'S SIGNATURE OR FORGED ENDORSEMENT OR ALTERATION, OUR LIABILITY, IF ANY, SHALL BE LIMITED TO THE FACE AMOUNT OF THE ITEM.

Location of All Legal Proceedings
If you file any lawsuit or other legal proceeding against us that is connected in any way to your Accounts or services, you must do so in an appropriate court in the state and county where you opened the account. If you relocate your Account to another branch, you must file any lawsuit or proceeding in the state and county where that branch is located. In addition, if we file any lawsuit or legal proceeding that is connected in any way to your Accounts or services, you consent to jurisdiction and venue in an appropriate court in the location described in this paragraph. If either party chooses to have disputes determined under the section entitled Arbitration, that section rather than this section governs the process and location of the arbitration proceedings.

If you reside in a U.S. state where we have branch offices, any account you open by mail, internet, or other remote means will be assigned to a branch in the state where you reside, and for purposes of this section your account will be considered to be opened at that branch.

If you do not reside in a U.S. state where we have branch offices, any account you open by mail, internet, or other remote means will be considered to be opened in Franklin County, Ohio.

Waiver of Immunity
To the extent that you have or hereafter may acquire any immunity from jurisdiction of any court or from any legal process (whether through service or notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution, or otherwise) with respect to yourself or your property, you hereby irrevocably waive such immunity in respect of your obligations hereunder to the extent permitted by applicable law. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, you agree that such waivers shall have the fullest extent permitted under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976 of the United States and are intended to be irrevocable for purpose of such act.

Arbitration

PLEASE READ THIS PROVISION CAREFULLY. IT PROVIDES, WITH THE SPECIFIC EXCEPTION STATED BELOW, THAT ANY DISPUTE MUST BE RESOLVED BY BINDING ARBITRATION. ARBITRATION REPLACES THE RIGHT TO GO TO COURT. YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO BRING A CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION IN COURT, NOR WILL YOU BE ABLE TO BRING ANY CLAIM IN ARBITRATION AS A CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION. YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO BE PART OF ANY CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION BROUGHT BY ANYONE ELSE, OR TO BE REPRESENTED IN A CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION. IN THE ABSENCE OF THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT, YOU AND THE BANK MIGHT OTHERWISE HAVE HAD A RIGHT OR OPPORTUNITY TO BRING CLAIMS IN A COURT, BEFORE A JUDGE OR JURY, AND/OR TO PARTICIPATE OR BE REPRESENTED IN A CASE FILED IN COURT BY OTHERS (INCLUDING CLASS ACTIONS). EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED BELOW, THOSE RIGHTS ARE WAIVED. OTHER RIGHTS THAT YOU WOULD HAVE IF YOU WENT TO COURT, SUCH AS THE RIGHT TO APPEAL AND TO CERTAIN TYPES OF DISCOVERY, MAY BE MORE LIMITED OR MAY ALSO BE WAIVED.

Either you or the Bank may, without the other's consent, elect mandatory, binding arbitration of any claim, dispute or controversy raised by either you or the Bank against the other, or against the employees, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, beneficiaries, heirs, agents or assigns of the other, arising from or relating in any way to this Agreement, any prior account agreement between you and the Bank, or the advertising, the application for, or the approval of your Account (the "Claim" or "Claims"). All Claims originating from or relating to this Agreement are subject to arbitration, no matter what theory they are based on or what remedy they seek, whether legal or equitable. This includes Claims based on contract, tort (including intentional tort), fraud, agency, negligence, statutory or regulatory provisions, or any other sources of law, or any request for equitable relief. Claims subject to arbitration include Claims that are made as counterclaims, cross claims, third party claims, interpleaders or otherwise, and any party to a proceeding in court may elect arbitration with respect to any Claims advanced in the lawsuit by any party or parties.

As an exception to this arbitration provision, you retain the right to pursue in a small claims court, any Claim that is within that court's jurisdiction and proceed on an individual basis.

If you or the Bank elects to arbitrate a Claim, the arbitration will be conducted as an individual action. Neither you nor the Bank consents or agrees to any arbitration on a class or representative basis, and the arbitrator shall have no authority to proceed with any arbitration on a class or representative basis. This arbitration provision applies to and includes any Claims made and remedies sought as part of any class action, private attorney general or other representative action, which Claims hereby are made subject to arbitration on an individual (non-class, non-representative) basis. This means that even if a class action lawsuit or other representative action, such as that in the form of a private attorney general action, is filed, any Claim between you and the Bank related to this Agreement raised in such lawsuits will be subject to an individual arbitration Claim if either you or the Bank so elects.

The party filing a Claim in arbitration must select either one of two national arbitration administrators: the National Arbitration Forum ("NAF") or the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"). The arbitration organization that is selected will apply its code or procedures in effect at the time the arbitration claim is filed, unless any portion of that code or those procedures is inconsistent with any specific terms of this arbitration provision and/or this Agreement, in which case this arbitration provision and this Agreement shall prevail. The arbitration will be conducted before a single arbitrator. The arbitrator will apply applicable substantive law, including but not limited to the applicable Uniform Commercial Code, consistent with the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1-16 ("FAA") and the applicable statute of limitations or condition precedent to suit, and will honor claims of privilege recognized at law. The arbitrator will have the power to award to a party any damages or other relief provided for under applicable law, and will not have the power to award relief to, against or for the benefit of any person who is not a party to the proceeding. The arbitrator's authority is limited solely to the Claims between you and the Bank alone. The arbitration may not be consolidated with any other arbitration proceeding. You and the Bank do not agree to any arbitration on any basis to which any party other than you and the Bank, the related parties enumerated above such as heirs, successors and assigns, or any other person obligated on the Account, is involved.

Any decision rendered in such arbitration proceeding will be final and binding on the parties, unless a party appeals in writing to the arbitration organization within 30 days of issuance of the award. The appeal must request a new arbitration before a panel of three neutral arbitrators designated by the same arbitration organization. The panel will reconsider all factual and legal issues anew, follow the same rules and laws that apply to a proceeding using a single arbitrator, and make decisions based on the vote of the majority. An award in arbitration will be enforceable as provided by the FAA or other applicable law by any court having jurisdiction.

We will reimburse you for the initial arbitration filing fee paid by you up to the amount of $500. If there is a hearing, we will pay any fees of the arbitrator and arbitration administrator for the first two days of that hearing. All other fees will be allocated in keeping with the rules of the arbitration administrator and applicable law. If you prevail in the arbitration of any Claim against us, we will reimburse you for any fees you paid to the arbitration organization in connection with the arbitration. All other fees, including attorneys' fees, will be allocated in keeping with the rules of the arbitration administrator. Any decision rendered in such arbitration proceedings will be final and binding on the parties, and judgment may be entered in a court of competent jurisdiction. Rules and forms may be obtained from, and Claims may be filed with, either of the two organizations, as follows: the NAF, P.O. Box 50191, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55405, website at www.arb-forum.com; or the AAA, 335 Madison Avenue, Floor 10, New York, New York 10017, website at www.adr.org. Any arbitration hearing at which you wish to appear will take place at a location within the federal judicial district that includes your address at the time the Claim is filed.

This arbitration provision is part of and constitutes a transaction involving interstate commerce, and shall be governed by the FAA.

This arbitration provision applies to all Claims relating to your Account that arose in the past, which may presently be in existence, or which may arise in the future. This arbitration provision shall survive termination of your Account as well as voluntary payment of any outstanding indebtedness in full by you, or any bankruptcy by you. If we assign your Account to any unaffiliated third party, this arbitration provision will apply to any Claim between you and that third party if you or that third party chooses arbitration, or to any Claim between you and the Bank which occurred prior to such assignment or arises from such assignment.

Successors and Assigns

This Agreement shall be binding on your personal representative, executors, administrators, and successors. The benefits and responsibilities of this Agreement shall also transfer to and be binding upon our successors and assigns.

You may not transfer, assign or grant a security interest in (collectively, "assign") your Account without our written consent, and no assignment will be valid, nor will we be deemed to have knowledge of or be bound by such assignment, until we have noted that fact in our records. However, by noting the assignment, we do not attest to or have any responsibility for the validity of the assignment. You understand that any assignment of your Account is subject to our right of set-off.

CHECK 21 – SUBSTITUTE CHECKS AND YOUR RIGHTS

What is a substitute check?
To make check processing faster, federal law permits banks to replace original checks with "substitute checks." These checks are similar in size to original checks with a slightly reduced image of the front and back of the original check. The front of a substitute check states: "This is a legal copy of your check. You can use it the same way you would use the original check." You may use a substitute check as proof of payment just like the original check.

Some or all of the checks that you receive back from us may be substitute checks. This notice describes rights you have when you receive substitute checks from us. The rights in this notice do not apply to original checks or to electronic debits to your account. However, you have rights under other law with respect to those transactions.

What are your rights as a consumer regarding substitute checks?
In certain cases, federal law provides a special procedure that allows you to request a refund for losses you suffer if a substitute check is posted to your account (for example, if you think that we withdrew the wrong amount from your account or that we withdrew money from your account more than once for the same check). The losses you may attempt to recover under this procedure may include the amount that was withdrawn from your account and fees that were charged as a result of the withdrawal (for example, bounced check fees).

The amount of your refund under this procedure is limited to the amount of your loss or the amount of the substitute check, whichever is less. You also are entitled to interest on the amount of your refund if your account is an interest-bearing account. If your loss exceeds the amount of the substitute check, you may be able to recover additional amounts under other law.

If you use this procedure, you may receive up to $2,500 of your refund (plus interest if your account earns interest) within 10 business days after we received your claim and the remainder of your refund (plus interest if your account earns interest) not later than 45 calendar days after we received your claim.

We may reverse the refund (including any interest on the refund) if we later are able to demonstrate that the substitute check was correctly posted to your account.

How do you make a claim for a refund?
If you believe that you have suffered a loss relating to a substitute check that you received and that was posted to your account, please contact your J.P. Morgan team at the telephone number or address listed on your statement or you may call:

By Phone: English 1-800-935-9935
Spanish 1-877-312-4273
Hearing Impaired 1-800-242-7383

You must contact us within 40 calendar days of the date that we mailed (or otherwise delivered by a means to which you agreed) the substitute check in question or the account statement showing that the substitute check was posted to your account, whichever is later. We will extend this time period if you were not able to make a timely claim because of extraordinary circumstances.

YOUR CLAIM MUST INCLUDE –
- A description of why you have suffered a loss (for example, you think the amount withdrawn was incorrect);
- An estimate of the amount of your loss;
- An explanation of why the substitute check you received is insufficient to confirm that you suffered a loss; and
- The following information to help us identify the substitute check: the check number, the name of the person to whom you wrote the check, and the amount of the check.

IMPORTANT ENDORSEMENT STANDARDS FOR PERSONAL AND BUSINESS ACCOUNTS
Your compliance with the Bank's endorsement standards is necessary to help assure that the checks you deposit will be cleared on a timely basis.

You assume all responsibility and liability for any loss that we may suffer as a result of (i) your endorsement being placed on the back of the check in a place or manner which obscures other endorsements which then causes a delay in the forward processing and/or return processing of the check, or (ii) issuance of a check on your Account in such a manner that information, marks, or bands on the back of the check obscure endorsements. You must place an endorsement on the back of a check only in the area within 1.5 inches from the "trailing edge" of the check. The trailing edge of the check is the left side of the check looking at it from the front. The remaining area of the check cannot contain any pre-printed, stamped or handwritten client information. We retain the right to refuse to accept a check for deposit when the back of the check is unreasonably obscured.

ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFER SERVICES
We provide a variety of electronic funds transfer (EFT) deposit account services. These include all transfers resulting from debit cards, ATM Cards, electronic payments, credits and transfers, telephone transfers and on-line banking transactions. In conjunction with the use of these EFT services, we may issue to you an access device, which may be a card, code or other means of accessing your Account to initiate EFTs.

For Personal Accounts, EFT deposit account services exclude wire transfer and other same day settlement funds transfer services and all other transactions which are not covered by Federal Reserve Regulation E. These will be governed by a separate agreement.

For Business Accounts, wire transfer and all other funds transfer or other treasury services not identified in this section will be governed by a separate agreement.

Business Days–Everyday is a business day, except Saturdays, Sundays, and State and Federal holidays.

Types of EFT Services
A. Access Cards If you select a debit card or specialty debit card at the time of account opening, you may use this debit card to access your new checking account. When you open your new checking account at the branch, if you do not select a Personal Identification Number (PIN) for your new debit card, a randomly selected four-digit PIN will be sent to you. Activating your new debit card is not a condition of maintaining your checking account. When you activate your new debit card, any temporary ATM Card that may have been issued to you at the branch will be deactivated. Not applicable for Chase Premier Platinum Checking℠ and High School Checking.

By using your ATM Card or debit card (the "Card"), you agree that:

1. Your Card remains our property and will be surrendered immediately to us upon request.
2. We may cancel your Card at any time without notice.
3. You shall abide by our rules and regulations relating to the use of your Card.
4. You shall notify us promptly by telephone or in writing of the loss of your Card.
5. You shall not reveal your Card or access code associated with your Card (personal identification number or "PIN") to any person not authorized by you to use your Card and to not write your PIN number on your Card or on any item kept with your Card.
6. For merchant purchases, we have the right to place a temporary hold on your Account, which may affect available balances for purposes of authorizing other transactions or honoring other items posting to your Account, in an amount equal to the authorization amount received through the payment authorization system. Occasionally, merchants do not provide sufficient information with the transaction to allow us to match the final amount to the authorized amount. In these cases the temporary hold will remain on your Account for three business days. If the underlying transaction posts after a temporary hold drops off, we will still have the right to post the transaction against your Account.
7. We have the right to refuse a transaction on your Account when your Card has been reported lost or stolen or when we reasonably believe there is unusual activity on your Account.
8. If you use your Card to access an Account that is no longer available to complete a transaction, we may, at our sole discretion, charge or credit the transaction to another Account.
9. If you use your Card to access an Account that would exceed the daily authorization limit attached to your Card, we may, at our sole discretion, authorize the transaction.
10. The exchange rate applied by Visa® or MasterCard® to Card transactions that occurred initially in a different currency will be (i) a rate selected by Visa or MasterCard from the range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date, which rate may vary from the rate Visa or MasterCard itself receives, or (ii) the government-mandated rate in effect for the applicable central processing date. The rate in effect on the applicable processing date may differ from the rate on the date you used your Card. For purchases, ATM and non-ATM cash transactions, we will add three percent to the amount provided to us by Visa and MasterCard.
11. Gambling and Illegal Activities: You will not use your account to conduct transactions relating to unlawful internet gambling or any other illegal activity. Because we are required to prevent transactions involving unlawful internet gambling, we may refuse any gambling transaction that is not conducted in person, whether that gambling is lawful or not. We may also refuse any transaction that we reasonably believe may involve illegal activity.

Uses of Your Card

(1) You can use your Card (except for deposit only Business ATM Cards) to perform the following services at:

a. Chase-branded ATMs to:

- Withdraw cash from your designated checking and savings accounts.
- Transfer funds between your designated checking and savings accounts.
- Find out your designated checking and savings account balances.
- Make deposits to your designated checking and savings accounts.
- Make payments to qualifying Chase Credit Card, auto, home, business and personal loan products.
- Obtain a statement at participating ATMs where available.

b. Non-Chase ATMs to:

- Use your Card at participating networks. Use of your Card may vary depending on the location and type of ATM you are using and the EFT network through which the transaction is being performed. A specific ATM or EFT network may not perform or permit all the above transactions. Transactions at non-Chase ATMs may be subject to a surcharge assessed by the terminal owner. In addition, a specific ATM or EFT network may not provide you with access to all of your Accounts based on the policies of the ATM-owning institution. Withdrawals from ATMs outside the United States generally do not allow savings or money market access. If you have questions regarding whether a certain ATM or EFT network will process a transaction, call or write us.

(2) Business ATM Card (deposit only): You may use your Business ATM Card (deposit only) to make deposits to your designated checking and savings accounts at full service Chase branded ATMs.

(3) In addition to the services listed above, you may use your Card:

- At any financial institution that honors your Card to obtain non-ATM cash, which may not exceed your daily authorization limit and will be charged to your primary checking account. Transactions exceeding this limit may require the financial institution to phone the Bank for approval.
- To purchase goods and services from merchants who accept your Card as a means of payment. Purchases may not exceed your daily authorization limit and are charged against your primary checking account. If you have arranged with your merchant to pay for your purchases via periodic payments, this is an agreement between you and the merchant and you agree that you must notify the merchant if your account number or expiration date has been changed or your Account has been closed.
- If you request emergency services, you agree to the release of personal data to Visa U.S.A. Inc., MasterCard and its member financial institution and/or their respective contractors for the purposes of providing the emergency services.
- If you provide authorization to a merchant to bill charges on a recurring basis to your Card, and if a replacement Card has been issued to you, you must provide that merchant with your new card number and/or expiration date in order to bill the recurring charges to your Card. We will make an effort to make available to the merchant through Visa/MasterCard your account number, and/or expiration date in order to permit the merchant to continue to bill the recurring charges to your Card until you notify the merchant and us that you have withdrawn your authorization.

(4) Point-of-Sale Terminal Transactions: You may use your Card (except for the Business ATM Card (deposit only)) to access your primary checking account to:

- Purchase goods and services from merchants and ATMs who have agreed to accept your Card as a means of payment.
- Withdraw cash in conjunction with a purchase of goods or services if permitted by the merchant.
- Perform balance inquiries on your primary checking account if permitted by the merchant.

Limitations on Transfers, Amounts, and Frequency of Transactions:

(1) You may make only 6 preauthorized withdrawals (including, but not limited to, withdrawals made by ACH, telephone, Internet or wire) from your regular savings account or 6 preauthorized withdrawals (no more than 3 of which may be by check or similar order payable to a third party) from your money market deposit savings account monthly for purposes of making a payment to a third party. We are not considered a third party for purposes of this limitation where the transfers are for purposes of re-paying loans and associated expenses.

(2) You may make cash withdrawals, not to exceed your daily authorization limit, at any ATMs described above.

(3) You may make Point-of-Sale transactions in amounts not to exceed your daily authorization limit.

(4) If your Account is not in an active status, purchases made with your Card and ATM transactions will be suspended.

(5) A Privileges Debit Card or Business Associate Debit Card may be issued at your request to allow authorized non-signers to access your designated checking or savings accounts. The maximum daily dollar limit for ATM cash withdrawals and Point-of-Sale transactions will be selected by you at the time you request the card. For Privileges Debit Cards, these dollar limits will be monthly instead of daily.

Your Right to Receive Documentation or Notice of Transactions:

You will receive a receipt or have the option to receive a receipt at our ATMs and the other ATMs that accept your Card each time you make a transaction. The receipt will indicate the location of the ATM (by code in some cases), the transaction date and type, the amount, and the last four digits of your Card account number.

You will receive an account statement each month for your accounts that are accessible by electronic funds transfers if such transfers occur during the month, but at least quarterly if no such transfers occur.

If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person, company or governmental agency, you can call us to find out whether or not the deposit has been made. When calling us, please provide us with your account number and the amount and date of the last deposit.

B. Payments, Credits and Transfers. We are able to electronically transfer funds between your Accounts, or from your Account to other parties and to receive funds electronically from other parties for deposit to your Account. We may do this by "ACH" (as a member of a local or national Automated Clearing House Association) and other EFT networks. You may authorize a merchant or other payee to make a one-time electronic payment from your checking account using information from your check to pay for purchases or pay bills.

C. Online Bill Payment and Transfer Services. You may use the Internet to electronically direct us to make payments from your checking account to third parties ("payees") whom you have selected in advance to receive payment by means of the online bill payment service. You must have a checking account with us to use this service. If you have multiple accounts with us, you may also direct us to make transfers between your accounts by means of the online transfer service. To gain access to these online services, go to our websites and enroll with your eligible Bank accounts. Additional disclosures and specific terms and conditions for using the online services will be provided when you enroll.

D. Telephone Banking. You may use our automated customer service system or speak directly to a Telephone Banker to request us to make periodic transfers from your Account to another checking or savings account held by us. You may also make periodic transfers from your Account to pay certain loans, lines of credit, or credit cards you have with us or with our affiliates. To use the automated system you must have a checking, savings, money market, CD, loan account or a Debit Card and a valid password or PIN. Business account holders may also use a valid TIN. You agree not to reveal your account number, Debit Card number, password, PIN or TIN to any person not authorized by you to use the automated system. To use the service, enter your account number or Debit Card number and password, PIN or TIN as directed. Then follow the options.

E. Overdraft Protection Transfers. To obtain Overdraft Protection you must have a checking account with us. You must also have a savings account, qualifying credit card, or qualifying home equity, Prestige or business line of credit ("Funding Account"). We are able to transfer funds from a Funding Account to your checking account to help prevent overdrafts from occurring.

F. Text Message Transfers. If we send you a text message with a transfer option, including an Account balance alert, you may respond to request a transfer between eligible accounts. To use the service, follow the transfer options shown via the text message from us. Not all accounts are eligible for transfer via text message request. We must receive a text message transfer before 11 p.m. Eastern time on a business day for the transfer to be effective the same day. Otherwise, the transfer will be effective the next business day.

IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFERS

For Personal Accounts Only:

Telephone or write us at the telephone number or address that was provided to you in your account opening documentation and is set forth on your monthly statement if you think your statement or receipt is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction listed on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you NO LATER than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared. In your communication to us, be prepared to provide us with the following information:

1. Your name and account number.
2. A description of the error or the transfer you are unsure about, why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
3. The dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you initially provide this information to us via the telephone, we may require that you send your complaint or question in writing within 10 business days.

We will advise you of the results of our investigation within 10 business days (or 20 business days if your Account was opened less than 30 days prior to the date of the suspected error) after we hear from you and, if we have made an error, we will correct it promptly. If it takes us longer than 10 business days (or 20 business days if your Account was opened less than 30 days prior to the date of the suspected error) to research your complaint or problem, we must provisionally recredit your Account within such time for the amount you think is in error so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to conclude our investigation. If we ask you to put your question or complaint in writing, and do not receive it within 10 business days, we may not recredit your Account.

If the transaction complained of involves an Account which is subject to margin requirements or is otherwise covered by Regulation T of the Federal Reserve Board, we will not provisionally recredit the Account involved.

At the conclusion of our investigation, we will inform you of our results within three (3) business days. If we determine that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation. You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation. In all cases, our investigation will be completed within 45 days (or 90 days if your Account was opened less than 30 days prior to the date of the suspected error or occurred at a point-of-sale location or outside the United States).

THE BANK'S LIABILITY FOR FAILURE TO COMPLETE TRANSACTIONS

If we do not complete a transaction from your account on time or in a correct amount, according to our Agreement with you, we will be liable for your losses or damages.

However, there are some exceptions. For instance, we will not be liable if:

1. Through no fault of ours, you do not have enough available funds in your account to make the transaction.
2. The ATM where you are making the transfer does not have enough cash.
3. The ATM was not working properly and you knew about the breakdown when you started the transaction.
4. Circumstances beyond our control (such as fire or flood) prevent the transaction, despite reasonable precautions that we have taken.
5. In the case of preauthorized credits, the data from the third party is not received, is incomplete or erroneous, or if the recipient is deceased.
6. Your Account is not in an active status.

The list of examples set out above is meant to illustrate circumstances under which we would not be liable for failing to complete a transaction and is not intended to list all of the circumstances.

STOP PAYMENT FOR PREAUTHORIZED TRANSFERS

If you have arranged, in advance, to make regular periodic payments out of your Account, you can stop any of those payments by following these procedures:

1. Call or write your J.P. Morgan team at the telephone number or address on your monthly statement in time for us to receive your request three or more business days before the payment is scheduled to be made. (Note: By using your personal computer to cancel the transaction, you may stop a bill payment that is "Pending" at any time prior to four business days before the Payment Due Date. To stop bill payments that are "In Process" please call your J.P. Morgan team. See your Online Bill Payment Agreement for information concerning "Pending" and "In Process" transactions.)
2. If you call, we may require you to put your request in writing so that it reaches us within 14 days after your call.
3. You may be charged the current stop payment fee for each stop payment order you give us.

If these regular payments vary in amount, the person you are going to pay will tell you, 10 days before each payment, when it will be made and how much it will be. You may choose instead to get this notice only when the payment would differ by more than a certain amount from the previous payment, or when the amount would fall outside certain limits that you set.

If you order us to stop one of these payments three business days or more before the transfer is scheduled, and we do not do so, we will be liable for your losses or damages.

DISCLOSURE OF ACCOUNT INFORMATION TO THIRD PARTIES

We may disclose information to third parties about your account or the transfers you made:

1. As necessary to complete transactions.
2. In connection with the investigation of any claim you initiate.
3. To comply with government agency or court orders.
4. In accordance with your written permission.
5. As otherwise permitted by the terms of the Bank's Privacy Policy.

Our Privacy Policy is also available on JPMorganOnline.com.

NOTICE OF YOUR RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES:

For Personal Accounts Only:

Tell us AT ONCE if you believe your Card, PIN or code has been lost or stolen. Telephoning us is the best and fastest way of keeping your possible losses to a minimum.

If you tell us within two business days, you can lose no more than $50.00 if someone used your Card, PIN or code without your permission. If you do NOT tell us within two business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your Card, PIN or code and we can prove we could have stopped the unauthorized transactions if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500.00.

If your statement shows electronic funds transfers that you did not make, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed to you, you may be liable for transactions posting after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have prevented the transactions if you had told us in time.

If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, let us know. We will extend the time periods.

For Business Accounts Only:

A. You agree to assist us in the investigation and prosecution of claims for unauthorized transactions by completing the appropriate statements and reports reasonably requested by us.
B. You agree to notify us promptly in writing of any user of a Card who is no longer employed by you or authorized to conduct business on your behalf.
C. You agree that by allowing anyone to use your Card, you will be responsible for all authorized and unauthorized transactions made through the use of your Card.
D. Liability for unauthorized transactions, including electronic funds transfers, shall be governed by the "Deposit Account Agreement."

Special Provisions for Card Transactions (zero liability protection):

If in the event your Card or Card number is lost, stolen, or used without authorization, you are not liable for any unauthorized transactions including transactions made at merchants, over the telephone, at ATMs, or online when you notify the Bank promptly.

However, these special provisions do not apply and are not covered by our zero liability policy (in which case the Bank may impose greater liability on the cardholder) when they include transactions where you were grossly negligent or fraudulent in the handling of the account or Card, where you have given someone else your Card, Card number or PIN, or where you delay in reporting unauthorized transactions for more than sixty days.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT ATM SAFETY AND SAFEGUARDING YOUR ACCOUNT INFORMATION

- Play it safe at ATMs – Overall, use common sense and be aware of your surroundings before, during and after you use an ATM. Here are some additional tips:
  - Choose an ATM that is well-lit.
  - If an ATM looks unusual or altered, don't use it. If you suspect the ATM isn't working properly, cancel the transaction and find another machine.
  - At a walk-up ATM, minimize transaction time by having your card ready to use. At a drive-up ATM, keep your car engine running and lock your doors. If there is an entry door, close it completely upon entering and exiting an ATM facility.

- Stand between the ATM and anyone waiting to use the machine so others can't see your PIN or the transaction amount.
- As soon as your transaction is complete, remember to remove your card from the ATM, and then put away your money, receipt and card.
- Contact the police or a security officer if you see any suspicious activity at the ATM. If you think you're being followed from an ATM, go to a busy area and immediately contact police.

- Keep your debit or ATM card PIN confidential – Never give your PIN to anyone, don't write it anywhere and avoid carrying it with you. In addition, to keep your card information safe:
  - Change your PIN from time to time and choose a PIN that others can't easily figure out. For example, don't use your birthday or telephone number.
  - To change your PIN (or if you forget your PIN), visit any branch.
  - A JPMorgan Chase employee will never ask you for your PIN or the numbers from the back of your card.

- Protect your card as you would a credit card or cash.

- Report a lost or stolen card immediately – The sooner you report a problem, the sooner we can take precautions to ensure your card isn't misused.

The activity within Chase facilities in New York and New Jersey is recorded by surveillance cameras.

Complaints concerning security in Chase ATM facilities should be directed to the JPMorgan Chase Security Department at 800-900-0001 or, in New York, to the New York State Banking Department at 888-697-2861, or, in New York City, to the NYC Department of Consumer Affairs at 212-487-4444 or, in New Jersey, to the New Jersey Department of Banking at 609-292-7272.

Alerts and J.P. Morgan Mobile℠ Services
If you receive or otherwise use the Alerts service or J.P. Morgan Mobile service, you agree to the following terms. If you are enrolled in J.P. Morgan Online℠, the terms of the Online Service Agreement control the terms of these services instead.

- You will provide a valid telephone number, e-mail address or other delivery location for these services so we can send you certain information about your account.
- We may send Alerts or J.P. Morgan Mobile messages through your communication service provider, who will act as your agent and deliver them to you. Messages may be delayed or affected by your communication service provider(s) or others.
- We will not charge a fee for the Alerts or J.P. Morgan Mobile text services, but you are responsible for any and all charges, including, but not limited to, fees associated with text messaging imposed by your communication service provider. Standard messaging charges apply. Such charges include those from your communication service provider. Message frequency depends on user preferences. To cancel the J.P. Morgan Mobile text messaging services, send STOP to 576746 at any time. For help or information on the J.P. Morgan Mobile text messaging services, send HELP to 576746. For additional assistance with these services, contact customer service at 1-866-265-1727.
- Alerts and J.P. Morgan Mobile are provided for your convenience and do not replace your monthly account statement(s), which are the official records of your accounts.
- You understand we may not encrypt information when it is sent to you through these services. This information may include personal or confidential information about you, such as account activity or the status of your account, and for phone Alerts, may be delivered to voicemail or answering machines if someone doesn't answer the number you provide.

You understand we are not liable for losses or damages from any disclosure of account information to third parties, non-delivery, delayed delivery, misdirected delivery or mishandling of, or inaccurate content in, the Alerts or the account information sent thru J.P. Morgan Mobile. The J.P. Morgan Mobile text messaging service may only be activated by customers with eligible accounts. While you have to have an eligible account to use the J.P. Morgan Mobile text messaging service, once you activate the service, if you have other types of accounts with us, you may have access to those other accounts as well.

You agree to indemnify us for all claims, losses, liability, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) that arise if you provide an incorrect telephone number, e-mail address or other delivery location or if you violate applicable federal, state or local laws, regulations or ordinances. You understand this section will survive even if this Agreement is terminated.

Overdraft Protection Services
You must separately sign up for Overdraft Protection, including Cash Sweep Services as it does not automatically apply to new accounts.

1. Definitions: As used in this Overdraft Protection Services section, the following terms shall have the following meanings: "You" or "your" means the person(s) or entity who has requested Overdraft Protection or Business Overdraft Protection ("Request"). "Overdraft Protection" means the automated funds transfer service established pursuant to the Request and this section. "Funding Account" means the account from which Overdraft Protection transfers are made. "Checking Account(s)" means one or more personal checking accounts for which Overdraft Protection is requested or one or more Business checking accounts for which Business Overdraft Protection is requested, as designated on the Request for Overdraft Protection. For Cash Sweep Services, "Checking Account Minimum Balance" means the balance that will trigger the transfer from the Funding Account. "Target Balance" is the balance that will be maintained in the checking account after the transfer from the funding account.

2. Overdraft Protection and Cash Sweep Service Request: The Request must specify the Checking Account(s) and a single Funding Account.
   - Overdraft Protections Service Request: For personal accounts, the Funding Account may be a personal savings account at the Bank ("Savings Account"), a qualifying credit card account at Chase Bank USA, N.A. ("Credit Card Account"), a Home Equity Line of Credit at the Bank ("Line of Credit Account"), or a Prestige Line of Credit at the Bank ("Line of Credit Account"). For business accounts, the Funding Account may be a Business savings account at the Bank ("Savings Account"), a credit card at Chase Bank USA, N.A. ("Credit Card") or a Business Line of Credit at the Bank ("Line of Credit Account") or Business Overdraft Line of Credit at the Bank ("Overdraft Line of Credit Account"). Overdraft Protection will become effective after the Bank has received your Request and had a reasonable time to act upon it.
   - Cash Sweep Service Request: The Request must specify the Checking Account and the Funding Account. For personal accounts, the Funding Account must be a personal savings account at the Bank. For business accounts, the Funding Account must be a business savings account at the Bank. The Cash Sweep will be effective after the Bank has received your Request and had a reasonable time to act upon it.

3. Activation:
   - Overdraft Protection Services: Whenever checks or other customer initiated transactions are drawn on a Checking Account which, if paid, would cause the Checking Account to become overdrawn, such event will constitute a transfer request and we will initiate a transfer ("Transfer") from the Funding Account to the Checking Account in multiples of $50.00 (which includes the Transfer Fee) sufficient to pay those checks or other customer initiated transactions drawn on the Checking Account. If the Funding Account is a Credit Card Account, Transfers will be charged to the Credit Card Account under the terms disclosed in your credit card Cardmember Agreement for personal or your Business Credit Card Cardmember Agreement for business customers. If the Funding Account is a Line of Credit Account or Overdraft Line of Credit Account, Transfers will be charged to the Line of Credit Account or Overdraft Line of Credit Account, under the terms disclosed in your Home Equity or Prestige agreement, or Business Line of Credit or Business Overdraft Line of Credit loan documents. Transfers will appear on the periodic statements for the applicable Checking Account and the Funding Account. We have no obligation to inform the checking account owner if the status of the Funding Account or actions of the Funding Account owner results in the Overdraft Protection being unavailable.
   - Cash Sweep Services: Whenever the Checking Account is below the established minimum balance, such event will constitute a transfer under this Agreement and J.P. Morgan will initiate a transfer (Sweep) from the Funding Account sufficient to increase the Checking Account balance to the prescribed Target Balance. We have no obligation to inform the checking account owner if the status of the Funding Account or actions of the Account owner results in the Cash Sweep Service being unavailable.

4. Maximum Overdraft Protection or Cash Sweep Transfer Amount:
   - Overdraft Protection Services: The amount of a Transfer will not exceed the amount available in the Funding Account. (The Funding Account is savings account, credit card account, or other line of credit account linked to your checking account for Overdraft Protection.) If the amount available is insufficient to pay all checks and other customer initiated transactions, plus the Transfer Fee, in multiples of $50.00, then we will initiate a Transfer in the amount necessary to pay one or more transactions, plus the Transfer Fee. If the amount available is sufficient to pay one or more transactions, but not the Transfer Fee, we will initiate a Transfer in the amount necessary to pay the transaction or transactions only. We will, however, charge the Transfer Fee against the account, causing the account to be overdrawn. Any checks or other customer initiated transactions that are not paid by the Transfer will either be paid or returned, and Insufficient Funds Fees or Returned Item Fees charged, in the same way as if you did not have Overdraft Protection.
   - Cash Sweep Services: The maximum amount of the Cash Sweep Transfer will be the available balance in the Funding Account. If the amount of the Transfer calculated in the Activation paragraph above exceeds the Maximum Cash Sweep Transfer, then notwithstanding the provisions of the Activation paragraph, the transfer will be the total available balance in the Funding Account.

5. Fees For Overdraft Protection Services Only: For each day on which a Transfer occurs, an Overdraft Protection Transfer fee will be charged to each Checking Account that receives a Transfer.

6. Limits On Savings Account Transfers: If the Funding Account is a Savings Account, Transfers from the Savings Account are considered "preauthorized transfers." The number of such Transfers that may be made during each month or each statement cycle is limited in accordance with federal regulations and our Account Agreement for deposit accounts. See the Withdrawal Procedures and Limitations section for more detail.

7. Termination of Overdraft Protection Or Cash Sweep Service By The Bank: We may terminate Overdraft Protection or Cash Sweep Service for a Checking Account at any time upon sending written notice to the last address for the Checking Account shown on our records. If the Funding Account is closed or blocked for usage, Overdraft Protection or Cash Sweep Service will not be available. If a Checking Account is closed or blocked for usage, Overdraft Protection or Cash Sweep Service for that Checking Account will not be available.

8. Termination of Card Privileges For Overdraft Protection Only: We may terminate or block the use of a Card with access to a Checking Account when, at our discretion, we reasonably believe that there is unusual Overdraft Protection activity for that Checking Account.

9. Termination of Overdraft Protection Or Cash Sweep Service By Customers: The owner of a Checking Account or a Funding Account may cancel Overdraft Protection or Cash Sweep Service for that Checking Account by requesting the cancellation in person at a branch or by delivering to us written notice of cancellation. Any cancellation under this paragraph nine will be effective after we have received notice of such cancellation and had a reasonable time to act upon it.

10. Transfer Requests For Multiple Checking Accounts For Overdraft Protection Only: If transfer requests occur with respect to more than one of the Checking Account(s) on the same day, we shall have sole discretion in determining the order in which such transfer requests are processed.

11. General Provisions: This agreement is binding on the owner of the Checking Account and the Funding Account.

APPENDIX: ASSET ACCOUNT AND DEPOSIT ACCOUNT – FUNDS AVAILABILITY POLICY STATEMENT

General Policy: Wire transfers, electronic direct deposits, and cash deposits made with a banker or at an ATM that does not require a deposit envelope will be available on the day we receive your deposit. Except as described later in this policy, when you make other deposits, the funds are available on the first business day after the day we receive your deposit. Available funds may be withdrawn in cash or used to pay checks and other items.

When Your Deposit Is Received: If you make a deposit on a business day before our cutoff times at a Chase branch or ATM, we will consider that day to be the day of your deposit. However, if you make a deposit after the cutoff time, or on a day that is not a business day, we will consider the deposit to have been made on the next business day.

- For determining the availability of your deposits, every day is a business day, except Saturdays, Sundays, and federal holidays.
- Cutoff times for branch deposits vary by location. For most branches, the cutoff time will be the end of the business day. If it is different, the branch will post signs indicating the earlier cutoff time. The cutoff time will be no earlier than 2 p.m. local time.

  For example: You make your deposit on Friday at 5:45 p.m. and the cutoff time for that branch is 5:00 p.m. We consider the deposit to be received on the next business day, which is Monday. But if Monday is a holiday, we consider the deposit to be received on Tuesday.
- For deposits at ATMs, the cutoff time is generally 11 p.m. Eastern time. For ATMs with an earlier cutoff, the ATM screen will notify you of the cutoff time.
- Deposits placed in a night depository are considered received when we remove them from the night depository. We will remove deposits not later than the next business day.
- Branches in some locations may be closed on business days in observance of a state holiday or because of an emergency, and deposits made when those branches are closed (either at a night depository or at an ATM that requires an envelope for deposits) will be considered received on the next business day when the branch is open.
- All deposits made by mail and addressed to Chase without using a specific branch name and street address will be considered received by the Chase-By-Mail facility in Louisville, Kentucky as of the date such deposit is received by this facility.

Longer Delays May Apply: In some cases, we may not make all of the funds that you deposited by check available by the first business day after the day of your deposit. Funds may not be available until the second business day after the day of your deposit. However, at least the first $200 of these deposits will be available on the first business day after the day of your deposit.

If we are not going to make all of the funds from your deposit available on the first business day, we will notify you at the time you make your deposit. We will also tell you when the funds will be available. If your deposit is not made directly to our employee, or if we decide to take this action after you complete your deposit, we will mail you the notice by the day after we receive your deposit. If you will need the funds from a deposit right away, you should ask us when the funds will be available.

Funds you deposited by check may be delayed for longer than two business days under the following circumstances:

- We believe a check you deposited will not be paid;
- You deposited checks totaling more than $5,000 in any one day;
- You re-deposited a check that has been returned unpaid;
- You have overdrawn your account repeatedly in the last six months; or
- There is an emergency, such as failure of communications or computer equipment.

We will notify you if we delay your ability to withdraw funds for any of these reasons, and we will tell you when the funds will be available. They will generally be available no later than the seventh business day after the day of your deposit.

Special Rules for New Accounts: If you are a new account customer, the following special rules may apply during the first 30 days your account is open:

- Funds from deposits of the first $5,000 of a day's total deposits of cashier's, certified, teller's, traveler's, and federal, state, and local government checks will be available on the first business day after the day of your deposit if the deposit meets certain conditions. For example, the checks must be payable to you. The excess over $5,000 will be available on the ninth business day after the day of your deposit. If your deposit of these checks (other than U.S. Treasury checks) is not made in person to one of our employees, the first $5,000 will not be available until the second business day after the day of your deposit; and
- Funds from all other check deposits will be available no later than the fifteenth business day after the day of your deposit.

Holds on Other Funds: If we cash a check for you that is drawn on another bank, we may withhold the availability of a corresponding amount of funds that are already in your Account. Those funds will be available at the time funds from the check we cashed would have been available if you had deposited it.

APPENDIX: OTHER BANKING SERVICES RELATING TO ACCOUNTS

A. FUNDS/WIRE TRANSFERS

1. Definitions

A "funds transfer" means a series of transactions, beginning when an originator issues a payment order for the purpose of paying the beneficiary of such order (the "beneficiary"), but does not include payments made by check or credit card, a debit transfer made through the Automated Clearing House System ("ACH") or transfers governed by the federal Electronic Fund Transfer Act. The term "payment order" means an instruction to a receiving bank transmitted orally, electronically, or in writing to pay a fixed or determinable amount to a beneficiary.

2. Payment Orders

You may issue payment orders orally, electronically or in writing, as arranged, against your Accounts, subject to our acceptance. We will receive and process payment orders only on our Business Days, and within our established cutoff hours. We may debit any of your Accounts for the amount of each payment order we accept and all associated fees. No restrictions upon our acceptance of payment orders or upon the Accounts which we may debit shall be binding unless agreed to by us in writing. Unless otherwise agreed, communications requesting cancellation or amendment of payment orders must be received no later than 5:00 p.m. Eastern time on the Business Day preceding the day we are to execute my payment order.

Notwithstanding any instructions by you to the contrary, we reserve the right to utilize any funds transfer system and any intermediary bank we choose in the execution of any payment order we accept and may otherwise use any means of executing the payment order which we deem reasonable under the circumstances.

3. Security Procedure

All payment orders, and communications requesting cancellation or amendment of payment orders, issued in your name are subject to verification by us pursuant to a mutually agreed upon security procedure. Unless otherwise agreed, we may furnish confidential security procedure material to any person authorized on your Account or to any other person we reasonably believe to be authorized to receive such information. You must safeguard any such security procedure materials and make them available only to persons who are authorized to give instructions using such procedures.

Unless we and you have agreed in writing to an alternate security procedure, the authenticity of oral or written (including writings transmitted by facsimile) wire transfer payment orders may, at our discretion, be verified by telephonic call-back confirmation with an individual purporting to be a person reflected on our records as having authority to initiate wire transfers. You agree that this security procedure is a commercially reasonable security procedure for those wire transfer payment orders.

4. Foreign Currency Transfers

If you issue, and we accept, a payment order for payment outside the U.S. in a currency other than the U.S. dollar, we shall debit your Account for the U.S. dollar equivalent of the amount of the foreign currency transferred at our then prevailing rate of exchange or as otherwise agreed. In processing your funds transfers, other banks may deduct their fees from the payment orders issued to them. If the beneficiary's bank is instructed to pay in a currency other than its local currency, payment may be made by the beneficiary's bank at its rate of exchange on the date of its payment. In connection with each funds transfer, you shall be responsible for complying with all local currency restrictions and any other local law governing the transaction.

5. Identification Numbers

In accepting a payment order issued in your name, we may rely upon the identifying number (such as a Fedwire routing number or account number) of the beneficiary, the beneficiary's bank or any intermediary bank and use only such numbers in executing the order. Also, the beneficiary's bank in the payment order may make payment on the basis of the identifying number even though it identifies a person different from the named beneficiary. Accordingly, you shall be responsible for the consequences of any inconsistency between the name and identifying number, as instructed, of any party in a payment order.

6. Funds Transfer Notices

In any funds transfer where you are the recipient or beneficiary of the transfer, we shall not be obligated to notify you of any such payment to your Account, other than to record such payment in your next regular statement of account. In the event that we send you an additional notice of the receipt of such a funds transfer for your account, you may not withdraw such funds until we have received payment from the sender of such transfer.

7. Other Procedures

We may from time to time provide you with operational procedures or instructions regarding our funds transfer service.

8. Limitations on Liability

Our liability for payment orders that are not authorized and not effective as your order or that are not enforceable against you shall be limited to a refund of the amount paid pursuant to such payment order, and if applicable law requires, interest on the refundable amount. Under no circumstances will we or any Morgan Affiliate be liable for any indirect, incidental, special or consequential damages, regardless of the form of action and even if we or such Morgan Affiliate has been advised of the possibility of such damages, nor shall we or any Morgan Affiliate be liable for any attorneys' fees you incur.

B. RECEIPT OF AUTOMATED CLEARING HOUSE ENTRIES

All Automated Clearing House ("ACH") credits and debits received for your account will be received by us subject to the rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association and any other applicable ACH rules. You agree to be bound by the ACH rules. Any credit given by us to you for an ACH credit shall be provisional until we receive final payment. If we do not get paid, we may revoke the provisional credit and charge the amount to your Account or obtain a refund from you, in which case the originator of the credit entry shall not be deemed to have paid you the amount of such entry. Unless we otherwise agree in writing, we shall not notify you of our receipt of ACH transactions other than as recorded in your next regular Account statement.

Direct Deposit
You may designate us as the bank to receive deposits made directly by any payor to any of your Accounts. These direct deposits may include, for example, your salary, Social Security benefits, and pension or annuity payments.

If we receive a demand for reimbursement from any payor claiming that you were not entitled to certain payment(s), we are authorized to charge your Accounts for the amount of the claim. Any action by us for reimbursement from you may also be made against your estate, heirs and legal representatives, who shall be liable for any claims made against and/or expenses incurred by us. We may terminate any direct deposit service at any time without notice and/or make this service subject to other conditions, at our discretion.

Dear Ms. Moran:

Attached are the documents which require the signatures of Messrs. Tescher & Spallina and the completion of the highlighted information. Could you please also provide copies of photo i.d.'s for both Mr. Tescher and Mr. Spallina and an original death certificate for Mr. Bernstein. We will need these documents not only for this account, but also for the trust accounts we will be establishing.

Of course, please call if you have any questions. Once completed, you can email the documents to me at patricia.x.gibbons@jpmorgan.com in order to expedite the process. I will however, need the original documents sent to my attention at JPMorgan Chase Bank, NA, 205 Royal Palm Way, Palm Beach, FL 33480.

Thank you for your assistance.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on the "Name" line to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.

2. The treaty article addressing the income.

3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.

4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.

5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS a percentage of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,

2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account, for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your income tax return on the "Name" line. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA)" name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Partnership, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name on the "Name" line and any business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA) name" on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Disregarded entity. Enter the owner's name on the "Name" line. The name of the entity entered on the "Name" line should never be a disregarded entity. The name on the "Name" line must be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income will be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a domestic owner, the domestic owner's name is required to be provided on the "Name" line. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line. If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, you must complete an appropriate Form W-8.

Note. Check the appropriate box for the federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on the "Name" line (Individual/sole proprietor, Partnership, C Corporation, S Corporation, Trust/estate).

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the person identified on the "Name" line is an LLC, check the "Limited liability company" box only and enter the appropriate code for the tax classification in the space provided. If you are an LLC that is treated as a partnership for federal tax purposes, enter "P" for partnership. If you are an LLC that has filed a Form 8832 or a Form 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, enter "C" for C corporation or "S" for S corporation. If you are an LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Regulation section 301.7701-3 (except for employment and excise tax), do not check the LLC box unless the owner of the LLC (required to be identified on the "Name" line) is another LLC that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. If the LLC is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the appropriate tax classification of the owner identified on the "Name" line.

Other entities. Enter your business name as shown on required federal tax documents on the "Name" line. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name/ disregarded entity name" line.

Exempt Payee

If you are exempt from backup withholding, enter your name as described above and check the appropriate box for your status, then check the "Exempt payee" box in the line following the "Business name/ disregarded entity name," sign and date the form.

Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends.

Note. If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding.

The following payees are exempt from backup withholding:

1. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2),

2. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities,

3. A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities,

4. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities, or

5. An international organization or any of its agencies or instrumentalities.

Other payees that may be exempt from backup withholding include:

6. A corporation,

7. A foreign central bank of issue,

8. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States,

9. A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission,

10. A real estate investment trust,

11. An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940,

12. A common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a),

13. A financial institution,

14. A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian, or

15. A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947.

The following chart shows types of payments that may be exempt from backup withholding. The chart applies to the exempt payees listed above, 1 through 15.

IF the payment is for . . .	THEN the payment is exempt for . . .
Interest and dividend payments	All exempt payees except for 9
Broker transactions	Exempt payees 1 through 5 and 7 through 13. Also, C corporations.
Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt payees 1 through 5
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 [1]	Generally, exempt payees 1 through 7 [2]

[1] See Form 1099-MISC, Miscellaneous Income, and its instructions.

[2] However, the following payments made to a corporation and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees, gross proceeds paid to an attorney, and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4 indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on the "Name" line must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt Payee on page 3.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 3, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

What Name and Number To Give the Requester

For this type of account:	Give name and SSN of:
1. Individual	The individual
2. Two or more individuals (joint account)	The actual owner of the account or, if combined funds, the first individual on the account [1]
3. Custodian account of a minor (Uniform Gift to Minors Act)	The minor [2]
4. a. The usual revocable savings trust (grantor is also trustee)	The grantor-trustee [1]
b. So-called trust account that is not a legal or valid trust under state law	The actual owner [1]
5. Sole proprietorship or disregarded entity owned by an individual	The owner [3]
6. Grantor trust filing under Optional Form 1099 Filing Method 1 (see Regulation section 1.671-4(b)(2)(i)(A))	The grantor*
For this type of account:	Give name and EIN of:
7. Disregarded entity not owned by an individual	The owner
8. A valid trust, estate, or pension trust	Legal entity [4]
9. Corporation or LLC electing corporate status on Form 8832 or Form 2553	The corporation
10. Association, club, religious, charitable, educational, or other tax-exempt organization	The organization
11. Partnership or multi-member LLC	The partnership
12. A broker or registered nominee	The broker or nominee
13. Account with the Department of Agriculture in the name of a public entity (such as a state or local government, school district, or prison) that receives agricultural program payments	The public entity

[1] List first and circle the name of the person whose number you furnish. If only one person on a joint account has an SSN, that person's number must be furnished.

[2] Circle the minor's name and furnish the minor's SSN.

[3] You must show your individual name and you may also enter your business or "DBA" name on the "Business name/disregarded entity" name line. You may use either your SSN or EIN (if you have one), but the IRS encourages you to use your SSN.

[4] List first and circle the name of the trust, estate, or pension trust. (Do not furnish the TIN of the personal representative or trustee unless the legal entity itself is not designated in the account title.) Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

*Note. Grantor also must provide a Form W-9 to trustee of trust.

Note. If no name is circled when more than one name is listed, the number will be considered to be that of the first name listed.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, social security number (SSN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit IRS.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.

Important Information About Your Statement

In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Electronic Funds Transfers

Call or write to the Bank (Consumers should use the phone number and address on front of statement and non-consumers their J.P. Morgan Team contact information.) if you think your statement or receipt is incorrect, or if you need more information about an electronic transaction on a statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (or 20 business days for new accounts) to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error so that you will have use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

In Case of Errors or Questions About Non-Electronic Transfers (Checks or Deposits):

Contact the Bank immediately if your statement is incorrect or if you need more information about any non-electronic transactions (checks or deposits) on this statement. If any such error appears, you must notify the bank in writing as soon as possible after the statement was made available to you. For more complete details, see the applicable account agreements and appendices that govern your account.

Hi Kimberly,

Here are the new account numbers for the checking accounts we have recently opened:

Estate of Simon Bernstein - Checking account #478015220

Simon Bernstein Trust - Checking account #478018083

Shirley Bernstein Trust - Checking account #478018117

The checks are being sent to your office and you should have them by Monday at the latest. That said, the checks for the Shirley Bernstein account will go to Ted Bernstein's office.

Best,

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Deposit Account Agreement Update

000000478018083
SIMON L BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT,
ROBERT L SPALLINA AND DONALD R
TESCHER TRUSTEES

We will update Section H in our Deposit Account Agreement titled Closing Your Account.

Effective July 21, 2013. If you have pending transactions on your account, or are overdrawn, we may not immediately close the account. However, if you ask us, we will restrict additional withdrawals from your account, other than the pending transactions. We will not pay any interest on the account after we have restricted your account.

This change will be reflected in your account agreement; all other terms remain the same. If you have questions, please call us at the telephone number listed on this account statement or visit the nearest Chase branch.

Please note this account had no activity during this statement period. The date of last activity for this account was 12/26/12.

A clearer description of transaction terms used in account statements

This message is to make you aware of new language that will be used to describe a type of transaction in account statements and online activities:

Beginning July 22, 2013, if you cash a check and it is returned to us without being paid, the transaction will be listed on your statement as Cashed Check Returned.

This is not a new transaction type. It is simply a clearer description of this type of account activity.

Currently, a single term (Deposited Item Returned) is used to describe two types of of transactions: deposited and cashed items that are returned to us without being paid. After July 22, this term will only be used to indicate a deposited check that is returned.

All other terms and conditions for your account(s) remain the same.

Please contact your J.P. Morgan team if you have any questions or require more information

Important Information About Your Statement

In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Electronic Funds Transfers

Call or write to the Bank (Consumers should use the phone number and address on front of statement and non-consumers their J.P. Morgan Team contact information.) if you think your statement or receipt is incorrect, or if you need more information about an electronic transaction on a statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (or 20 business days for new accounts) to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error so that you will have use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

In Case of Errors or Questions About Non-Electronic Transfers (Checks or Deposits):

Contact the Bank immediately if your statement is incorrect or if you need more information about any non-electronic transactions (checks or deposits) on this statement. If any such error appears, you must notify the bank in writing as soon as possible after the statement was made available to you. For more complete details, see the applicable account agreements and appendices that govern your account.

Form W-9
(Rev. December 2011)
Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service

Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification

Give Form to the requester. Do not send to the IRS.

Print or type

Name (as shown on your income tax return)
SIMON L BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT

Business name/disregarded entity name, if different from above

Check appropriate box for federal tax classification:
☐ Individual/sole proprietor ☐ C Corporation ☐ S Corporation ☐ Partnership ☒ Trust/estate

☐ Limited liability company. Enter the tax classification (C=C corporation, S=S corporation, P=partnership) ▶

☐ Other (see instructions) ▶

☐ Exempt payee

Address (number, street, and apt. or suite no.)
4855 TECHNOLOGY WAY, SUITE 720

Requester's name and address (optional)

City, state, and ZIP code
BOCA RATON, FL 33431

List account number(s) here (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on the "Name" line to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Social security number

Employer identification number
3	0	-	6	3	2	9	4	4	1

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

Sign Here Signature of U.S. person ▶ Date ▶ 8/16/12

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

E. Important information about procedures for opening a new account

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.
What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth and tax identification number for U.S. persons or passport number, country of issuance and expiration date for non-U.S. persons. In order to demonstrate that we have confirmed your identity, we will ask for a copy of your driver's license or other identifying documents such as a passport, Military ID or other government issued document.

The following notice is required by the Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act of 2006 and applies to all commercial clients. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. strictly prohibits the use of accounts to conduct transactions, including but not limited to the receipt of funds through electronic funds transfer, by check, draft, or any similar instrument, that are related, directly or indirectly, to unlawful internet gambling.

ORDER APPROVING RECEIVER'S INTERIM DISTRIBUTION PLAN

This Order addresses the Receiver's Motion for Approval of Interim Distribution Plan (the "Motion"). After considering the Motion, any responses, objections, or replies thereto, the arguments of counsel, and the evidence in the record, the Court overrules all objections and grants the Motion in full. Accordingly, the Court orders the Receiver to make an interim distribution according to the following plan:

A. Definitions.

Unless the context requires otherwise, the following definitions shall apply for purposes of this Order:

1. "Allowed Claim Amount" means the maximum amount of funds that the Receiver has determined that a claimant or claimants may be entitled to receive from the Estate. Claimants entitled to payment pursuant to this Order will receive less than their respective Allowed Claim Amounts.

2. "Approval Date" means the date on which this Order is signed.

3. "Available Cash" means that amount of cash that is held by the Receivership Estate.

4. "Claim" means:

a. a potential or claimed right to payment, whether or not such right is reduced to judgment, liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, mature, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, legal, equitable, secured, or unsecured, against one or more of the Receivership Entities; or

b. a potential or claimed right to an equitable remedy for breach of performance if such breach gives rise to a right to payment, whether or not such right to an equitable remedy is reduced to judgment, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, secured, or unsecured, against one or more of the Receivership Entities.

5. "Claimant" means any person or entity (including, without limitation, individuals, partnerships, corporations, joint ventures, estates, trusts, and governmental units) that holds a Claim. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the definition of Claimant includes, but is not limited to, any person or entity holding:

a. a Claim based on an investment in, with, or through a Receivership Entity or a customer transaction with or through a Receivership Entity ("Customer Claims"), including but not limited to claims relating to:

i. certificate(s) of deposit issued by Stanford International Bank, Ltd. ("Stanford International Bank, Ltd. CD Claim");

ii. other customer accounts or transactions with Stanford International Bank, Ltd. ("Other Stanford International Bank, Ltd. Claim");

iii. investments in, with, or through Stanford Coins & Bullion, Inc. or other customer transactions relating to coins and bullion ("Coin & Bullion Claim");

iv. investments in partnerships or other entities sponsored by a Receivership Entity ("Partnership Claim");

v. investments in and transactions relating to brokerage accounts held through a Receivership Entity ("Brokerage Account Claim");

vi. investments in, with, or through or customer transactions with Stanford Development Company ("Stanford Development Company Claim"); and

vii. investments in, with, or through any other Receivership Entity or a customer transaction with any other Receivership Entity ("Other Customer Claim").

b. a Claim of any other kind whatsoever against any Receivership Entity, including, without limitation, Claims based on or relating to:

i. the provision of goods or services to any Receivership Entity for which payment has not been made in whole or in part ("Services Claim");

ii. real estate owned or leased by Receivership Entities, including but not limited to past due rent ("Real Estate Claim");

iii. money loaned to any Receivership Entity and that has not been repaid in whole or in part ("Loan Claim");

iv. unpaid wages, compensation, or other employment benefits ("Employment Compensation Claim");

v. tax liabilities, including those held by federal, state, local or other governmental entities or authorities ("Tax Claim"); and

vi. primary, secondary, direct, indirect, secured, unsecured, or contingent liability, whether based on contract, tort, indemnity, reimbursement, subrogation, or other legal or equitable theory ("Other Claim").

6. "Court" means the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division.

7. "Defendants" means the defendants sued by the Securities and Exchange Commission in Case No. 3:09-CV-0298-N in this Court.

8. "Interim Distribution Amount" means $55 million, the amount to be distributed from Available Cash according to this Order.

9. "Interim Plan" means the Interim Distribution Plan contained in this Order.

10. "Investor CD Claimants" means all holders of Stanford International Bank, Ltd. CD Claims or Other Stanford International Bank, Ltd. Claims (a) who have not been sued by the Receiver or the Official Stanford Investors Committee (the "Investors Committee") to recover funds they received from the Stanford Ponzi scheme and (b) who have never been a Stanford employee, independent contractor, or insider, provided that the Receiver retains the right to compensate former Stanford employees for CD losses on the same terms as other investors if the former employees have, in the Receiver's discretion, materially assisted the Receiver and were not involved in sales or marketing of SIB CDs.

11. "Investor CD Claims" means all Stanford International Bank, Ltd. CD Claims and Other Stanford International Bank, Ltd. Claims held by Investor CD Claimants.

12. "Net Loss" means the amount of money paid to Stanford International Bank, Ltd. by an Investor CD Claimant in excess of the amount of money received from Stanford International Bank, Ltd. by the Investor CD Claimant.

13. "Receiver" means Ralph S. Janvey in his capacity as Court-appointed receiver.

14. "Receivership Entities" include, without limitation, Stanford International Bank, Ltd.; Stanford Financial Group Company; Stanford Group Company; Stanford Trust Company; Stanford Capital Management, LLC; Stanford Coins & Bullion, Inc.; and the other entities listed in Exhibit 8 to the Court's May 4, 2012 Bar Date Order [Doc. 1584].

15. "Receivership Assets" means the assets, monies, securities, properties, real and personal, tangible and intangible, of whatever kind and description, wherever located, and the legally recognized privileges (with regard to the entities), of the Defendants and all entities they own or control.

16. "Receivership Records" means the books and records, client lists, account statements, financial and accounting documents, computers, computer hard drives, computer disks, internet exchange servers, telephones, personal digital devices and other informational resources of or in possession of the Defendants, or issued by Defendants and in possession of any agent or employee of the Defendants.

17. "Receivership Estate" means the Receivership Assets and Receivership Records.

18. Unless otherwise defined herein, all other capitalized terms have the same meaning as in the Court's May 4, 2012 Bar Date Order [Doc. 1584].

B. Treatment of Claims under the Interim Plan.

1. The Interim Distribution Amount shall be apportioned among Investor CD Claimants on a pro rata basis. Such Investor CD Claimants shall receive payments equal to a percentage (the "Distribution Percentage") of their Allowed Claim Amounts as reflected in their Notices of Determination. The Allowed Claim Amounts shall be based on the Investor CD Claimants' Net Losses. Any future distributions to Investor CD Claimants shall likewise be pro rata based on Investor CD Claimants' Allowed Claim Amounts.

2. The Distribution Percentage equals the Interim Distribution Amount divided by the sum of: (a) all Allowed Claim Amounts for non-deficient Investor CD Claims as of the filing of the Motion (the "Investors' Allowed Claim Amounts"), and (b) the Receiver's estimate of the Allowed Claim Amounts for all Investor CD Claims that are deficient (the "Investors' Deficient Claim Amounts"). The Distribution Percentage can be represented mathematically as:

$$\frac{\textbf{Interim Distribution Amount}}{\textbf{(Investors' Allowed Claim Amounts) + (Investors' Deficient Claim Amounts)}}$$

3. As of January 2, 2012, the aggregate of the Investors' Allowed Claim Amounts equaled $4,237,737,851.75, and the aggregate of the Investors' Deficient Claim Amounts equaled $893,487,080.90. The Distribution Percentage, therefore, is calculated as follows:

$$\frac{\textbf{$55,000,000.00}}{\textbf{$5,131,224,932.65}} = \textbf{1\%}$$

4. Investor CD Claimants will receive distributions under the Interim Plan equal to their Allowed Claim Amounts as reflected in their Notices of Determination multiplied by the Distribution Percentage. The amount of a given Investor CD Claimant's interim distribution can be represented mathematically as:

(Particular investor's Allowed Claim Amount) x (Distribution Percentage)

5. If an Investor CD Claimant serves and files a timely objection to a Notice of Determination, the Investor CD Claimant is not disqualified from receiving a distribution under the Interim Plan. However, the Investor CD Claimant shall participate in this interim distribution based initially on the original Allowed Claim Amount in the Notice of Determination. If the Investor CD Claimant ultimately succeeds in increasing the Allowed Claim Amount (either by stipulation with the Receiver or by Court order sustaining the Investor CD Claimant's objection), the claimant shall receive a supplemental payment representing 1% of the difference between the Allowed Claim Amount in the Notice of Determination and the Allowed Claim Amount after final resolution of the claimant's objection.

6. To the extent a claimant receives one or more collateral recoveries, the Receiver may, in his discretion, reduce payments to such a claimant to the extent necessary to ensure that all the Investor CD Claimants are treated similarly with respect to the percentage of their Allowed Claim Amounts they recover from all sources as of the date of the payments. The Receiver shall give any such Claimant written notice of such a reduction and the reasons for same. Any claimant who disputes such a reduction by the Receiver shall serve upon the Receiver within sixty (60) days, but not file, a written objection to the reduction. The Receiver has ten (10) days to respond to the objection. If the Receiver fails to respond or if the dispute otherwise remains unresolved, then the claimant must file the objection with the Court. A claimant must file its objection to the reduction within ninety (90) days of the claimant having received the Receiver's written notice of the reduction. Any objection to a reduction that is not timely filed is waived.

7. Each Investor CD Claimant's interim distribution shall be based solely on his Investor CD Claims and not on his other types of Claims, if any.

8. Nothing in this Order shall preclude future distributions to Investor CD Claimants or other Claimants under a different plan. Nor shall anything in this Order restrict the Receiver's authority to compromise and settle any Claim, or resolve any objection to a determination, at any time, as appropriate, without further order of this Court. [Doc. 1584 at ¶ 7(u).]

C. Execution of the Interim Plan.

1. The distribution under the Interim Plan shall be made from Available Cash only. The distribution process shall begin within ninety (90) days of the Approval Date.

2. The Receiver shall send a notice (the "Certification Notice") to each Investor CD Claimant asking for certification, as a condition of receiving payment, regarding whether they have applied for or received compensation for their claimed losses from sources other than the Receivership and, if so, the amount of such compensation. Investor CD Claimants must provide the necessary certification within sixty (60) days of the date they receive the Certification Notice. The Certification Notice and certification shall be in substantially the same form as Exhibit B to the Receiver's Motion for Approval of Interim Distribution Plan.

3. Payments under the Interim Plan shall be made on a rolling basis as certifications in response to Certification Notices are received and processed. Prior to making a group of payments pursuant to the Interim Plan, the Receiver shall file a schedule of the payments to be made. Each such schedule shall be filed at least ten (10) days prior to the subject payments being made. The schedules shall include claim ID numbers and the amount of the associated payments but shall not contain information from which the individual Investor CD Claimants can be identified.

4. All payments pursuant to the Interim Plan shall be made via check unless otherwise agreed between the Receiver and the Investor CD Claimant(s). If payment is being made to compensate for losses that derive from accounts jointly owned by or otherwise associated with two or more Investor CD Claimants, the check shall be jointly payable to all such Investor CD Claimants and require the full endorsement of all such Investor CD Claimants.

5. Each check shall state on its face that it will be void if not cashed within 180 days from the date of issue. The Investor CD Claimant(s) to whom the check was originally issued may submit a written request for reissuance to the Receiver within 180 days of the original date of issuance of the check. All funds represented by void checks not timely reissued shall revert to the Receivership Estate.

D. No Effect on Third-Party Claims.

1. An Investor CD Claimant's receipt of a payment under this Interim Plan shall not constitute a waiver of the following:

a. any defenses an Investor CD Claimant has or may have against litigation claims asserted or that may be asserted by the Receiver, including but not limited to any rights the Investor CD Claimant has or may have to appeal rulings of the trial court in such cases;

b. any right that an Investor CD Claimant has or may have to pursue claims against former individual Stanford Financial Group financial advisors who were licensed by FINRA, subject to any limitations contained in this Court's prior orders, including but not limited to this Court's Second Amended Receivership Order dated July 19, 2010 [Doc. 1130];

c. any right that an Investor CD Claimant has or may have to pursue claims against persons or entities that are not Receivership Entities as defined herein, subject to any limitations contained in this Court's prior orders, including but not limited to this Court's Second Amended Receivership Order dated July 19, 2010 [Doc. 1130]; or

d. any claims, rights or defenses which the Receiver, or his counsel, agree in a stipulation filed with this Court are not waived by filing of a Proof of Claim.

E. Release.

1. Any Investor CD Claimant who receives a payment pursuant to the Interim Plan shall be deemed to have released the Investor CD Claim(s) for which payment was made to the extent of the payment. Each Investor CD Claimant's Allowed Claim Amount shall be reduced, dollar for dollar, by the total amount received pursuant to the Interim Plan.

Signed on May 30, 2013.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

"Trust", as defined herein refers to and means the Simon L. Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust dtd 6/21/95.

RECITAL'S

WHEREAS, the Parties are all of the children and grandchildren of the marriage of Simon L. Bernstein and Shirley Bernstein;

WHEREAS, Simon L. Bernstein established the Trust in 1995 for the benefit of his wife,

Shirley Bernstein, and their children, the Parties;

WHEREAS, Shirley Bernstein predeceased Simon L. Bernstein, and Simon L. Bernstein passed away on September 13, 2012;

WHEREAS, after a diligent search by the Parties, an executed copy of the Trust can not be found;

WHEREAS, the Trust is the beneficiary of life insurance policy number 1009208 issued by Heritage Union Life Insurance Company (the "Insurer") on the life of Simon L. Bernstein (the "Policy");

WHEREAS, the Parties desire to achieve the intent of Simon L. Bernstein on or about the date of the Trust and resolve any and all disputes and controversies that have arisen or may arise regarding the distribution of the death benefit proceeds of the Policy.

WITNESSETH

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the following covenants, promises and obligations, as well as other good and valuable consideration, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged; it is agreed by and between the Parties as follows:

COVENANTS

1. TED is appointed and hereby accepts the appointment to act as Trustee of the Trust.
2. That TED, as Trustee, shall open a bank account in the name of the Trust (the "Trust Account").
3. That TED, as Trustee shall deposit or direct the Insurer to deposit the death benefit proceeds of the Policy into the Trust Account.
4. That TED, as Trustee, shall pay expenses of the Trust including the cost of filing a tax return from the proceeds in the Trust Account.
5. That TED, as Trustee, shall distribute all remaining proceeds in the Trust Account equally (in 20% shares) to each of TED, PAM, ELIOT, JILL and LISA.

6. That TED, as Trustee, upon completing the distribution in ¶5 above and the filing of the tax return contemplated in ¶4 above shall close the Trust Account.

7. Upon receipt of the Settlement Agreement executed by all Parties and upon fulfillment of all of the covenants and obligations contained in ¶1 through ¶6 above, TED, PAM, ELIOT, JILL, AND LISA, ALLY, ERIC, MICHAEL, MOLLY, THE ELIOT CHILDREN, THE JILL CHILD AND THE LISA CHILDREN and each of them in their own individual capacity, shall respectively acquit, release, and forever discharge TED, both individually and as Trustee, and each and every other Party from any and all claims, demands, liabilities, obligations, causes and causes of action of whatever kind or nature, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected by each of them, which each of them now owns or holds or at any time heretofore owned or held as against each other arising out of any matter related to or associated with the Policy and/or the Trust, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, all claims, demands, liabilities, obligations, causes and causes of action arising out of or in any way connected with: a) the receipt of the death benefit proceeds of the Policy by the Trust; b) arising out of or in any way connected to the operation and management of the Trust, or the actual terms of the Trust in the event it should be located subsequent to the date of this Agreement regardless as to whether all of the covenants and obligations of this Agreement have been executed to completion.

8. All demands and notices given hereunder shall be sent by mail addressed to the respective Parties with a copy to David B. Simon, The Simon Law Firm, 303 E. Wacker Dr., Suite 210, Chicago, IL 60601-5210.

9. The Parties hereby represent to one another that they have full power and authority to enter into this Settlement Agreement and carry out their obligations hereunder. All Parties further represent that this Settlement Agreement has been duly executed and delivered.

10. This Settlement Agreement embodies the entire understanding of the Parties. All prior correspondence, conversations, memoranda and agreements have been merged into and replaced by this Settlement Agreement.

11. If a Party breaches this Settlement Agreement, the breaching Party shall reimburse the non-breaching Parties for all reasonable costs, attorney's fees, and expenses incurred by them in enforcing the terms and provisions of the Settlement Agreement.

12. This Settlement Agreement shall (i) be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois and all claims or controversies arising out of this Settlement Agreement shall be brought within the exclusive jurisdiction of the State of Illinois; (ii) inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Parties themselves, as well as their respective heirs, executors, predecessors, successors and assigns.

13. All Parties have been represented by counsel, or have had the opportunity to seek the advice of counsel, and if they have sought counsel then such counsel has reviewed this Settlement Agreement and recommended that their respective clients enter into it.

14. This Settlement Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, all of which, when taken together, shall constitute an original. Facsimile signatures of the Parties shall as valid and binding as original signatures.

15. Should any provision contained in this Agreement be deemed illegal or unenforceable as a matter of law, the remainder of this Agreement shall remain binding and continue in full force and effect.

16. The signatories state that they have read and understand this Settlement Agreement and that they intend to be legally bound by the same.

Agreed and accepted this date and year first written above.

IN RE:

ESTATE OF SIMON L. BERNSTEIN,

_____/

MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF CURATOR OR ADMINISTRATOR AD LITEM

COMES NOW Ted S. Bernstein, pursuant to Fla. Prob. R. 5.120, 5.122 and Fla. Stat. §733.501 by and through counsel, and moves this Court to appoint a curator or an administrator ad litem and states that at all times relevant:

1. This motion is for the appointment of an estate fiduciary for the limited purposes of administering the estate until this Court appoints a successor personal representative since the Co-Personal Representatives have resigned. It seeks to have the moving party appointed as such.

2. There is pending litigation which the estate is involved in as well as assets to marshal.

3. It is necessary that the estate be represented.

4.The Decedent, Simon Bernstein, formerly resided at 7020 Lion's Head Lane, Boca Raton, Palm Beach County, Florida, 33496, died on or about September 13, 2012, in Palm Beach County, Florida where venue is proper. His last will was admitted on or about October 2, 2012.

5. Decedent left surviving the following persons as next of kin:

Name	Address	Relationship to Decedent	Age of Minor

Ted S. Bernstein	880 Berkeley Street Boca Raton, FL 33487	Son
Pamela Beth Simon	950 N. Michigan Avenue Apartment 2603 Chicago, IL 60611	Daughter
Eliot Bernstein	2753 NW 34th Street Boca Raton, FL 33434	Son
Jill Iantoni	2101 Magnolia Lane Highland Park, IL 60035	Daughter
Lisa Friedstein	2142 Churchill Lane Highland Park, IL 60035	Daughter

6. Co-Personal Representatives Robert L. Spallina and Donald R. Tescher, were entitled to and granted Letters of Administration on or about October 2, 2012, and have petitioned to resign from that role on or about January 16, 2014, without completing the administration of the estate.

7. The nature and approximate value of the assets of the estate is believed to be a promissory note and investments in excess of $ 100,000.

8. The moving party is the most qualified to act and has personal knowledge of the Decedent's assets and the litigation which the estate is involved in. He is also the trustee of the Decedent's revocable trust, which is now irrevocable.

WHEREFORE, the moving party prays that he be appointed curator or administrator ad litem, that he be granted letters or authority, and that this Court provide such further relief as may be just and proper.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA.

CASE NO. 502012CP004391XXXXSB
CP - Probate

IN RE:

ESTATE OF SIMON L. BERNSTEIN,

_____/

PETITION FOR APPOINTMENT OF SUCCESSOR PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE

Petitioner, Ted S. Bernstein, alleges:

1. Simon L. Bernstein, who formerly resided at 7020 Lion's Head Lane, Boca Raton, Palm Beach County, Florida, 33496, died on or about September 13, 2012, in Palm Beach County, Florida. His last will was admitted on or about October 2, 2012.

2. Decedent left surviving the following persons as next of kin:

Name	Address	Relationship to Decedent	Age of Minor
Ted S. Bernstein	880 Berkeley Street Boca Raton, FL 33487	Son
Pamela Beth Simon	950 N. Michigan Avenue Apartment 2603 Chicago, IL 60611	Daughter
Eliot Bernstein	2753 NW 34th Street Boca Raton, FL 33434	Son
Jill Iantoni	2101 Magnolia Lane Highland Park, IL 60035	Daughter

Lisa Friedstein	2142 Churchill Lane Highland Park, IL 60035	Daughter

3. Co-Personal Representatives Robert L. Spallina and Donald R. Tescher, were granted Letters of Administration on or about October 2, 2012, and have petitioned to resign from that role on or about January 16, 2014, without completing the administration of the estate.

4. Pursuant to Florida Probate Rule 5.430(d) and Fla. Stat. § 733.503, the court must appoint a successor personal representative upon the resignation of a personal representative.

5. A successor Personal Representative is necessary to marshall the assets and to participate in pending litigation. Petitioner requests, and is duly qualified, to be appointed as successor personal representative of the estate of decedent. Petitioner is sui juris and is a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida, and has an interest in this Estate as the Decedent's son and as trustee of the Decedent's Revocable Trust. Petitioner is best qualified to serve as successor personal representative. He already serves in a fiduciary capacity as the Successor Personal Representative of the Estate of Shirley Bernstein, which is pending in the same division of this Court. Shirley is the decedent's predeceased spouse, and the Estates were transferred to this Division because there are common and overlapping issues. In addition, Petitioner serves as the Successor Trustee of the Shirley Bernstein Trust, and has been appointed to and has accepted the appointment to serve as Successor Trustee of the Simon Bernstein Trust, into which the Estate's assets pour over. There is no successor personal representative nominated in the will, and it is believed that the Petitioner will have the support of a majority in interest of the person's entitled to the Estate.

6. Petitioner is the most qualified candidate to serve in the role of personal representative for this estate. Because Petitioner already currently serves as Successor PR for Shirley's Estate and as the Successor Trustee of both Trusts (the Shirley Bernstein Trust and the Simon Bernstein Trust), Petitioner already employs counsel and believes that there will be costs efficiencies served by the same lawyers handling both Estates. Also, Petitioner is actively involved in litigation in which claims are asserted against these Trusts and the Estate, and has familiarity with each of the lawsuits in which the estate is involved.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that upon the resignation of the current Co-Personal Representatives, this Court revoke prior Letters of Administration and rescind any orders of appointment, and that Petitioner be appointed successor personal representative.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Subject: Estimated Tax Payments for Short Tax Years
Attachments: PPC Key Issue 23F Estimated Payments for Short Tax Years.pdf

Robert,

Thank you for your time this afternoon.

Attached is an excerpt from PPC 1041 Deskbook regarding the estimated tax payment requirements for short tax years. It includes a helpful chart that provides the due dates for estimated tax payments for trusts with short tax years ending December 31.

Please let us know if you have any questions or need any assistance with respect to estimated tax payments for the new trusts created in 2013.

Thanks,

Abby

PS please ignore the yellow highlights (that was just my search term.)

Robert Spallina
Bernstein Family Investments, LLP
C/O Tescher & Spallina
4855 Technology Way, Suite 720
Boca Raton, FL 33431

Dear Robert,

CBIZ MHM, LLC ("CBIZ MHM") is pleased to provide Bernstein Family Investments, LLP with professional tax services. This engagement letter, and the attached Terms and Conditions of Services, embodies the entire agreement regarding tax return preparation services to be rendered by CBIZ MHM.

You are providing your primary contact, financial and business information in order to permit CBIZ MHM to offer you tax and business suggestions when CBIZ MHM deems it appropriate or advantageous to you. You confirm that this service, while creating no duty on the part of CBIZ MHM, is a benefit to you that is separate from and in addition to any tax return preparation services. We will prepare the following tax returns for Bernstein Family Investments, LLP for the year ended December 31, 2013 from financial and tax information that you will furnish to us:

- U.S. Return of Partnership Income, Form 1065

While it is our intention to suggest tax and business ideas or services to you, this engagement generally does not include the rendering of any specific tax consulting services. However, we may provide, at your request, limited tax consulting services including, but not limited to, tax projections, responding to inquiries or tax examinations by any governmental agency or tax authority, assisting you in maintaining your accounting and depreciation records, reviewing proposed or completed transactions, or tax research in connection with these matters. These limited consulting services will be subject to the attached Terms and Conditions of Services and our fees for these additional services will be based upon our prevailing hourly rates effective at the time the services are provided, plus administrative and processing charges, unless otherwise agreed to by both parties.

If you ask us to perform other services that are not covered by this, or any other, engagement letter, you agree that any such engagements or services performed as a result of such requests are subject to the attached Terms and Conditions of Services.

We will use professional judgment in resolving questions where the tax law is unclear, or where there may be conflicts between the taxing authorities' interpretations of the law and other supportable positions. Unless otherwise instructed by you, we will resolve such questions in your favor whenever possible. However, there can be no assurance that any tax positions taken will not be challenged. Our tax advice is based on our assumption (without independent verification) that all of the representations and all of the originals, copies, and signatures of documents reviewed by us are accurate, true, and authentic and the law, regulations, cases, rulings, and other tax authority in effect as of the date the services were rendered.

If there are subsequent changes in or to the foregoing tax authorities (for which we shall have no responsibility to advise you), such changes may result in our advice being rendered invalid or necessitate (upon your request) a reconsideration of the advice.

You represent and warrant that the information you are supplying to us is accurate and complete to the best of your knowledge as required for the preparation of complete and accurate tax returns. You should retain all documents that form the basis for the information presented on tax return forms and schedules, elections and disclosures, including proper records to support deductions claimed for meals, entertainment, travel, gifts, charitable contributions, and vehicle use (if applicable). These may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to taxing authorities. You have the final responsibility for the above tax returns and, therefore, you should review them carefully before you sign them. Please refer to Section D of the attached Terms and Conditions of Services for additional information.

Our fees for these tax services will be based upon our prevailing hourly rates, plus administrative and processing charges. Please refer to Section E of the attached Terms and Conditions of Services for additional information.

If you agree with the terms of our engagement as described in this letter and the attached Terms and Conditions of Services, please sign the enclosed copy of this letter and return it to us. However, if there are any additional tax returns you expect us to prepare, please inform us by noting so at the end of the returned copy of this letter.

We want to thank you for using CBIZ MHM, LLC and look forward to a long and mutually satisfying relationship.

Very truly yours,

CBIZ MHM, LLC

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICES

A. Services. These Terms and Conditions of Services and the engagement letter to which these terms are appended constitute the entire agreement between you and CBIZ MHM for the tax services to be rendered (the "Agreement"). As used herein, the term "tax services", includes only the tax services as described in the attached engagement letter. All decisions in connection with the implementation of CBIZ MHM's tax services in connection with this engagement shall be your responsibility.

B. Third Parties and Internal Use. Except as otherwise agreed, all tax services hereunder shall be solely for your internal purposes and use, and this engagement does not create privity between CBIZ MHM and any person or party (a "third party") other than you. This engagement is not intended for the express or implied benefit of any third party. No third party is entitled to rely, in any manner or for any purpose, on the tax services provided by CBIZ MHM. In order to protect CBIZ MHM from any unauthorized reliance or claims, you further agree that the tax services provided by CBIZ MHM shall not be distributed, made available, circulated, or quoted to or used by any third party without the prior written consent of CBIZ MHM. However, nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as limiting or restricting such disclosure for your tax return filing purposes. You agree to hold CBIZ MHM harmless from any claims or liability that may arise out of or result from CBIZ MHM complying with your request to disclose or share your information with third-parties.

C. Confidentiality. To the extent that, in connection with this engagement, CBIZ MHM comes into possession of any information of yours identified as proprietary or confidential, CBIZ MHM will not disclose such information to any third party without your consent, except (a) as may be required by law, regulation, judicial or administrative process, in accordance with applicable professional standards, or in connection with litigation pertaining hereto, or (b) to the extent such information (i) shall have otherwise become publicly available (including, without limitation, any information filed with any governmental agency and available to the public) other than as the result of a disclosure by CBIZ MHM in breach hereof, (ii) is disclosed by you or your personnel to a third party without substantially the same restrictions as set forth herein, (iii) becomes available to CBIZ MHM on a non-confidential basis from a source other than you or your personnel which CBIZ MHM does not believe is prohibited from disclosing such information to CBIZ MHM by obligation to you, (iv) is known by CBIZ MHM prior to its receipt from you without any obligation of confidentiality with respect thereto, or (v) is developed by CBIZ MHM independently of any disclosures made by you or your personnel to CBIZ MHM of such information.

We may disclose the information you provide to us in connection with this engagement ("Information") to Mayer Hoffman McCann P.C. ("MHM PC"), so that MHM PC can provide you with any attest services you have engaged MHM PC to perform. You authorize MHM PC to provide us access to all of your files and accounting, tax, financial and other information in its possession for the purpose of providing all tax services requested.

We may use subcontractors, which may be located outside the U.S., to assist us in the preparation of our clients' tax returns. In order to safeguard the confidentiality of client information, both CBIZ MHM and any subcontractors we may use have established internal policies, procedures and controls designed to maintain data security and protect privacy. We will not utilize a subcontractor without a written confidentiality agreement in place to prevent the unauthorized release of client information.

We may disclose the Information to any company, or any employee of such company, that is owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by CBIZ, Inc. ("Affiliate"). We may use the Information for a number of purposes in our efforts to provide you with access to the different types of services offered by our Affiliates, including where appropriate, tax consulting, general business consulting, retirement or estate planning, business succession, asset acquisition or disposition, payroll, benefits, insurance, wealth management and investing, human resources, accounting, valuation, internal audit, mergers and acquisitions, and technology consulting. You have the right to limit the Information you wish to have used or disclosed. We may use the Information to compile lists in order to provide you with tax or business information, newsletters or other correspondence determined from the Information to be relevant to you or your industry, and information on other products or services offered by our Affiliates. If your tax return involves the preparation of Forms K-1, we may provide a copy of Form K-1 to the person described thereon. We may also use and disclose the Information as subsequently requested or directed by you. We will not disclose Information to any person who is not an Affiliate without obtaining a separate consent to such disclosure except (a) as otherwise specifically provided herein, or (b) at your request or direction. Unless you specify otherwise, the consent to the use and disclosure of the Information provided herein will be valid until the statute of limitations to assess any tax by the Internal Revenue Service with respect to the tax return has expired.

D. Client Responsibilities. You are responsible for making all financial records and related information available to us. CBIZ MHM shall be entitled to assume, without independent verification, the accuracy of all representations, assumptions, information and data that you and your representatives provide to CBIZ MHM. All assumptions, representations, information and data to be supplied by you and your representatives will be complete and accurate to the best of your knowledge. CBIZ MHM may use information and data furnished by others; however, CBIZ MHM shall not be responsible for, and CBIZ MHM shall provide no assurance regarding, the accuracy and completeness of any such information or data. Except as specifically provided herein, CBIZ MHM shall not assume any responsibility for any financial reporting with respect to the tax services provided hereunder. You acknowledge and understand that CBIZ MHM is providing no attest services of any kind, scope or nature whatsoever, as part of this engagement. CBIZ MHM shall have no responsibility to address any legal matters or questions of law in connection with this engagement. See section C above for additional information regarding confidentiality.

You shall cooperate with CBIZ MHM in the performance by CBIZ MHM of its tax services hereunder, including, without limitation, providing CBIZ MHM with reasonable facilities and timely access to data, information, and your personnel. You shall be responsible for the performance of your personnel and agents and for the accuracy and completeness of all data and information provided to CBIZ MHM for purposes of the performance by CBIZ MHM of its tax services hereunder.

E. Fees and Payment. Our invoices for these tax services will be rendered each month as work progresses and are payable on presentation. If properly submitted invoices are not paid within 30 days of the invoice date, a late charge may accrue at the lesser of (i) 1% per month or (ii) the highest rate allowable by law. Without limiting its rights or remedies, CBIZ MHM shall have the right to halt or terminate entirely its tax services until full payment is received on such past due invoices. In the case of nonpayment, you will be liable for any and all costs and fees incurred by CBIZ MHM to collect the fees contemplated herein. The failure of CBIZ MHM to exercise its right to suspend or terminate work shall not constitute a waiver by CBIZ MHM of any right or remedy. In the event of a termination of this engagement pursuant to section F below, you agree to compensate CBIZ MHM for tax services performed and expenses incurred through the effective date of termination. All outstanding bills will be paid in full prior to the release of any information or prior to final product or service delivery, unless other arrangements to pay your bill have been agreed upon. See section P below for additional information regarding Limitation on Damages.

F. Term. This engagement shall conclude on the completion and delivery of CBIZ MHM's tax services hereunder. This engagement may be terminated by either party at any time by giving written notice to the other party not less than 10 business days before the effective date of termination. The following sections of this Agreement will survive completion of the Services or its earlier termination: Confidentiality, Ownership, Dispute Resolution, Fees and Payments, Limitation on Damages, Indemnity and such other provisions of this Agreement which by their nature are intended to survive.

G. General. This Agreement forms the entire agreement between the parties relating to the services, and replaces and supersedes any previous proposals, correspondence, understandings or other communications whether written or oral. This agreement shall be binding on all transferees, successors and assigns of both CBIZ MHM and you. Neither party shall be liable to the other for any delay or failure to perform any of the services or obligations set forth in this Agreement due to causes beyond its reasonable control. Each party acknowledges that this was a negotiated contract, and as a result, no part of this contract shall be construed against either party based on drafting of the contract. If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be invalid under any applicable statute or rule of law, it is to that extent to be deemed omitted, and the balance of the Agreement shall remain enforceable.

No delay or omission by either party in exercising any right or power shall impair such right or power or be construed to be a waiver. A waiver by either party of any of the covenants to be performed by the other or any breach thereof shall not be construed to be a waiver of any succeeding breach or of any other covenant. No waiver or discharge shall be valid unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the party against whom such waiver or discharge is sought to be enforced.

You acknowledge and agree that you will be solely responsible for any and all applicable sales tax due in connection with the services provided under this Agreement.

It is common practice for professional service firms such as ours, in discussions with prospective clients, to make reference to prior work, and we would like to have the opportunity to do so with respect to this assignment. Unless Client informs CBIZ MHM to the contrary, on completion of this assignment we understand that we will be entitled to make reference to having undertaken it, including a brief description of its objectives, in CBIZ MHM newsletters and publications and discussions with third parties regarding work opportunities.

H. Foreign Financial Account Reporting. Any U.S. citizen or resident (including individuals, corporations, partnerships, trusts and estates) who has a financial interest in, or signature or other authority over, "foreign financial accounts" with an aggregate value exceeding $10,000 at any time during the prior calendar year, is required to report that relationship to the Internal Revenue Service. Filing requirements also apply to those with direct or indirect control over a foreign or domestic entity with foreign financial accounts, even if the taxpayer does not have foreign financial accounts of its own. Because persons with a financial interest and persons with signature authority are required to submit filings, a single account may require multiple filings. For example, a corporate-owned foreign account would require filings by the corporation and by the individual corporate officers with signature authority.

"Foreign financial accounts", for purposes of this section, are financial accounts located in a foreign jurisdiction and may include, but are not limited to, bank accounts, mutual funds, securities or brokerage accounts, life insurance, credit cards, retirement plans and interests in partnerships, trusts or other pass-through entities having foreign accounts.

These filings must be made by June 30 and the due date of these filings cannot be extended. Failure to disclose the required information to the Internal Revenue Service, even an inadvertent failure, may result in substantial civil and/or criminal penalties.

I. Independent Contractor. It is understood and agreed that each of the parties hereto is an independent contractor and that neither party is, nor shall be considered to be, an agent, partner, joint venturer, or representative of the other. Neither party shall act or represent itself, directly or by implication, as an agent of the other or in any manner assume or create any obligation of behalf of, or in the name of, the other.

J. Employment Offers to Our Personnel. During the term of this Agreement and for a period of one year thereafter, the parties agree not to hire, solicit, or attempt to solicit, whether directly or indirectly, the services of any staff, employee, consultant, or subcontractor of the other party without the prior written consent of that party. Violation of this provision shall, in addition to other relief, require the breaching party to compensate the non-breaching party with 100 percent of the solicited person's annual compensation.

K. Safe Environment. You agree that in any circumstances wherein CBIZ personnel are required to work at any premises or location operated or controlled by you, you will take all actions and precautions necessary to ensure that Client premises are free from all known or reasonably foreseeable safety hazards, and all forms of harassment and discrimination.

L. Property. The workpapers and files which CBIZ MHM generates in connection with this engagement are the property of CBIZ MHM. Upon the termination of this engagement, upon request we will return your original records to you. All CBIZ MHM workpapers and files will be retained pursuant to CBIZ MHM's document retention policy.

M. Electronic Communication. In the interest of facilitating our services to you, we may communicate by facsimile transmission or by sending electronic mail over the Internet. Such communications may include information that is confidential to you. Our firm employs measures in the use of facsimile machines and computer technology designed to maintain data security. While we will use our best efforts to keep such communications secure in accordance with our obligations under applicable laws and professional standards, we have no control over the unauthorized interception of these communications once they have been sent.

N. Governing Law and Severability. These Terms and Conditions of Services, the engagement letter to which these terms are appended, and any and all claims relating to or arising out of this Agreement or related to CBIZ's services, whether sounding in contract, tort, or otherwise, shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the state of Ohio. If any provision of this Agreement is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable, such provision shall not affect the other provisions, but such unenforceable provision shall be deemed modified to the extent necessary to render it enforceable, preserving to the fullest extent permissible the intent of the parties set forth in this Agreement.

O. Dispute Resolution and Jury Trial Waiver. Because there are inherent difficulties in recalling or preserving information as the period after an engagement increases, you agree that, notwithstanding any applicable statute of limitations, you must file any claim based on this engagement in court within twenty four (24) months after performance of our services under the relevant engagement. This preceding sentence is not applicable to engagements with SEC registrants in which Mayer Hoffman McCann P.C. is the auditor of record.

If any dispute, controversy or claim arises in connection with the performance or breach of this agreement, except with respect to the nonpayment or collection of CBIZ MHM's fees, either party may, upon written notice to the other party, request that the matter be mediated. Such mediation will be conducted by a mediator appointed by and pursuant to the rules of the American Arbitration Association or such other neutral facilitator acceptable to both parties. Both parties will exert their best efforts to discuss with each other in good faith their respective positions in an attempt to finally resolve such dispute or controversy.

Each party may disclose any facts to the other party or to the mediator which it, in good faith, considers necessary to resolve the matter. All such discussions, however, will be for the purpose of assisting in settlement efforts and will not be admissible in any subsequent litigation against the disclosing party. Except as agreed by both parties, the mediator will keep confidential all information disclosed during negotiations. The mediator may not act as a witness for either party in any subsequent arbitration between the parties.

The mediation proceedings will conclude within sixty days from receipt of the written notice unless extended or terminated sooner by mutual consent. Each party will be responsible for its own expenses. The fees and expenses of the mediator, if any, will be borne equally by the parties. If the parties cannot resolve a dispute not related to fees through mediation, either party may pursue action in a court of competent jurisdiction as set forth in Section N of these Terms and Conditions.

If there is a fee dispute you and CBIZ MHM agree to submit all fee disputes to resolution by arbitration in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association. You waive the right to make counterclaims in the arbitration of such fee disputes and such arbitration shall be binding and final, as permitted by the law of the applicable jurisdiction. In agreeing to arbitration, we both acknowledge that in the event of a dispute over fees, each of us is giving up the right to have the dispute decided in a court of law before any judge or jury and instead are accepting the use of arbitration for resolution. Each party will bear its own costs of arbitration and both parties shall share equally the costs of the arbitrators.

Unless otherwise prohibited by law or applicable professional standard each of the parties irrevocably, voluntarily and knowingly waives its right to a jury trial of any claim or cause of action based upon or arising out of this agreement or any dealings between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof. The scope of this waiver is intended to be all-encompassing. It includes any and all disputes that may be filed in any court and that relate to the subject matter of this agreement, including, but not limited to, contract claims, tort claims, breach of duty claims and all other common law and statutory claims. It also includes any and all such claims that may be brought against CBIZ MHM, CBIZ, Inc., or any of its subsidiaries and any of their respective personnel, current or former.

P. Limitation on Damages. Unless otherwise prohibited by law or applicable professional standard, you agree that CBIZ MHM, any entity related to it and their respective personnel, current or former, shall not be liable to you for any claims, liabilities, or expenses relating to this engagement for an aggregate amount in excess of the fees paid by you to CBIZ MHM pursuant to this engagement, except to the extent finally judicially determined to have resulted from the bad faith or intentional misconduct of CBIZ MHM. Unless otherwise prohibited by law or applicable professional standard, in no event shall CBIZ MHM, any entity related to it or their respective personnel, current or former, be liable for consequential, special, indirect, incidental, punitive, or exemplary losses or damages relating to this engagement. This limitation on liability provision shall apply to the fullest extent of the law, whether in contract, statute, tort (such as negligence), professional standard, or otherwise. This Section P is not applicable to engagements with SEC registrants where Mayer Hoffman McCann P.C. is the auditor of record.

Q. Inherent Conflicts of Interest: CBIZ MHM cannot represent a client when there is a significant risk that the representation of one or more clients will be materially limited by the practitioner's responsibilities to another client (a "conflict of interest"), unless all affected parties waived the conflict of interest in writing. In some very common situations there are inherent potential conflicts of interest between or among clients. For example, an entity, such as a corporation, partnership or limited liability company, has potential conflicts of interest with its respective shareholders, partners or members, board members, officers, management team or employees (collectively "Executives"). Conflicts are present in almost any financial decision of the entity; for example, certain tax elections required to be made by the entity may not benefit all Executives equally, or decisions to make capital improvements, borrow money or admit new owners may have a financial impact on existing Executives. Another example of common inherent conflicts of interest exist between or among estates, trusts or similar entities represented by a fiduciary ("Estate") or a person engaged in succession planning or other disposition of assets ("Grantor"), and the respective primary and contingent beneficiaries ("Beneficiaries"). Tax elections, return positions, or other decisions regarding assets or investments may be required to be made by the Estate, and those elections, positions or decisions may not benefit all Beneficiaries equally. It is common for CBIZ MHM to provide tax advice and prepare tax returns for both entities and their Executives or Beneficiaries. If CBIZ MHM represents any of your Executives or Beneficiaries, you hereby acknowledge such conflicts of interest and agree that CBIZ MHM can advise and prepare tax returns for those Executives or Beneficiaries as well as perform the services described in this engagement letter on your behalf.

R. Limitations on Oral and Email Communication: We may discuss with you our views regarding the tax treatment of certain items and may provide you with tax information in the body of an email. Any advice or information delivered orally or in the body of an email (as opposed to a memorandum delivered as an email attachment) will be based upon limited tax research and a limited discussion and analysis of the underlying facts. Additional research or a more complete review of the facts could affect our analysis and conclusions. Because of these limitations and the related risks, it may not be appropriate to proceed with any transaction solely on the basis of any oral or email communication, and we will not be liable for any loss, cost, or expense resulting from your decision to rely on any oral or email communication.

S. Indemnification. Unless otherwise prohibited by law or applicable professional standard, you shall indemnify and hold harmless CBIZ MHM and its personnel from and against any causes of action, damages (whether compensatory, consequential, special, indirect, incidental, punitive, exemplary, or of any other type or nature), costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the reasonable time and expenses of CBIZ MHM's personnel involved) brought against or involving CBIZ MHM at any time and in any way arising out of or relating to CBIZ MHM's services under this engagement, except to the extent judicially determined to have resulted from the bad faith, gross negligence, or willful or intentional misconduct of CBIZ MHM's personnel. This provision shall survive the termination of this agreement for any reason, and shall apply to the fullest extent of the law, whether in contract, tort, or otherwise.

If any action or proceeding (any of the foregoing being a "Claim") is threatened or commenced by any third party against CBIZ MHM that you are obligated to defend or indemnify under this Agreement, then written notice thereof shall be given to you as promptly as practicable. After such notice and only so long as CBIZ MHM's and your interests with respect to the claim remain consistent, no conflict exists, and, by your control of the defense, CBIZ MHM's insurance is not voided or otherwise compromised in any way, you shall be entitled, if you so elect in writing within ten days after receipt of such notice, to take control of the defense and investigation of such Claim and to employ and engage attorneys to handle and defend the same, at your sole cost and expense, with the approval of CBIZ MHM, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. CBIZ MHM shall cooperate in all reasonable respects with you and your attorneys in the investigation, trial and defense of such Claim and any appeal arising therefrom; provided, however, that CBIZ MHM may, at its own cost and expense, participate, through its attorneys or otherwise, in such investigation, trial and defense of such Claim and any appeal arising therefrom. You shall enter into no settlement of a Claim that involves a remedy other than the payment of money by solely you without the prior consent of CBIZ MHM.

After notice by you to CBIZ MHM of your election to assume full control of the defense of any such Claim, and CBIZ MHM's approval of selected counsel, you shall not be liable to CBIZ MHM for any legal expenses incurred thereafter by CBIZ MHM in connection with the defense of that Claim. If you do not assume full control over the defense of a Claim, then you may participate in such defense, at your sole cost and expense, and CBIZ MHM shall have the right to defend you in such manner as it may deem appropriate, at your cost and expense.

Boca Raton, FL 33431

Dear Robert,

CBIZ MHM, LLC ("CBIZ MHM") is pleased to provide Bernstein Family Investments, LLP with professional tax services. This engagement letter, and the attached Terms and Conditions of Services, embodies the entire agreement regarding tax return preparation services to be rendered by CBIZ MHM.

You are providing your primary contact, financial and business information in order to permit CBIZ MHM to offer you tax and business suggestions when CBIZ MHM deems it appropriate or advantageous to you. You confirm that this service, while creating no duty on the part of CBIZ MHM, is a benefit to you that is separate from and in addition to any tax return preparation services. We will prepare the following tax returns for Bernstein Family Investments, LLP for the year ended December 31, 2013 from financial and tax information that you will furnish to us:

- U.S. Return of Partnership Income, Form 1065

While it is our intention to suggest tax and business ideas or services to you, this engagement generally does not include the rendering of any specific tax consulting services. However, we may provide, at your request, limited tax consulting services including, but not limited to, tax projections, responding to inquiries or tax examinations by any governmental agency or tax authority, assisting you in maintaining your accounting and depreciation records, reviewing proposed or completed transactions, or tax research in connection with these matters. These limited consulting services will be subject to the attached Terms and Conditions of Services and our fees for these additional services will be based upon our prevailing hourly rates effective at the time the services are provided, plus administrative and processing charges, unless otherwise agreed to by both parties.

If you ask us to perform other services that are not covered by this, or any other, engagement letter, you agree that any such engagements or services performed as a result of such requests are subject to the attached Terms and Conditions of Services.

We will use professional judgment in resolving questions where the tax law is unclear, or where there may be conflicts between the taxing authorities' interpretations of the law and other supportable positions. Unless otherwise instructed by you, we will resolve such questions in your favor whenever possible. However, there can be no assurance that any tax positions taken will not be challenged. Our tax advice is based on our assumption (without independent verification) that all of the representations and all of the originals, copies, and signatures of documents reviewed by us are accurate, true, and authentic and the law, regulations, cases, rulings, and other tax authority in effect as of the date the services were rendered.

If there are subsequent changes in or to the foregoing tax authorities (for which we shall have no responsibility to advise you), such changes may result in our advice being rendered invalid or necessitate (upon your request) a reconsideration of the advice.

You represent and warrant that the information you are supplying to us is accurate and complete to the best of your knowledge as required for the preparation of complete and accurate tax returns. You should retain all documents that form the basis for the information presented on tax return forms and schedules, elections and disclosures, including proper records to support deductions claimed for meals, entertainment, travel, gifts, charitable contributions, and vehicle use (if applicable). These may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to taxing authorities. You have the final responsibility for the above tax returns and, therefore, you should review them carefully before you sign them. Please refer to Section D of the attached Terms and Conditions of Services for additional information.

Our fees for these tax services will be based upon our prevailing hourly rates, plus administrative and processing charges. Please refer to Section E of the attached Terms and Conditions of Services for additional information.

If you agree with the terms of our engagement as described in this letter and the attached Terms and Conditions of Services, please sign the enclosed copy of this letter and return it to us. However, if there are any additional tax returns you expect us to prepare, please inform us by noting so at the end of the returned copy of this letter.

We want to thank you for using CBIZ MHM, LLC and look forward to a long and mutually satisfying relationship.

Very truly yours,

CBIZ MHM, LLC

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICES

A. Services. These Terms and Conditions of Services and the engagement letter to which these terms are appended constitute the entire agreement between you and CBIZ MHM for the tax services to be rendered (the "Agreement"). As used herein, the term "tax services", includes only the tax services as described in the attached engagement letter. All decisions in connection with the implementation of CBIZ MHM's tax services in connection with this engagement shall be your responsibility.

B. Third Parties and Internal Use. Except as otherwise agreed, all tax services hereunder shall be solely for your internal purposes and use, and this engagement does not create privity between CBIZ MHM and any person or party (a "third party") other than you. This engagement is not intended for the express or implied benefit of any third party. No third party is entitled to rely, in any manner or for any purpose, on the tax services provided by CBIZ MHM. In order to protect CBIZ MHM from any unauthorized reliance or claims, you further agree that the tax services provided by CBIZ MHM shall not be distributed, made available, circulated, or quoted to or used by any third party without the prior written consent of CBIZ MHM. However, nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as limiting or restricting such disclosure for your tax return filing purposes. You agree to hold CBIZ MHM harmless from any claims or liability that may arise out of or result from CBIZ MHM complying with your request to disclose or share your information with third-parties.

C. Confidentiality. To the extent that, in connection with this engagement, CBIZ MHM comes into possession of any information of yours identified as proprietary or confidential, CBIZ MHM will not disclose such information to any third party without your consent, except (a) as may be required by law, regulation, judicial or administrative process, in accordance with applicable professional standards, or in connection with litigation pertaining hereto, or (b) to the extent such information (i) shall have otherwise become publicly available (including, without limitation, any information filed with any governmental agency and available to the public) other than as the result of a disclosure by CBIZ MHM in breach hereof, (ii) is disclosed by you or your personnel to a third party without substantially the same restrictions as set forth herein, (iii) becomes available to CBIZ MHM on a non-confidential basis from a source other than you or your personnel which CBIZ MHM does not believe is prohibited from disclosing such information to CBIZ MHM by obligation to you, (iv) is known by CBIZ MHM prior to its receipt from you without any obligation of confidentiality with respect thereto, or (v) is developed by CBIZ MHM independently of any disclosures made by you or your personnel to CBIZ MHM of such information.

We may disclose the information you provide to us in connection with this engagement ("Information") to Mayer Hoffman McCann P.C. ("MHM PC"), so that MHM PC can provide you with any attest services you have engaged MHM PC to perform. You authorize MHM PC to provide us access to all of your files and accounting, tax, financial and other information in its possession for the purpose of providing all tax services requested.

We may use subcontractors, which may be located outside the U.S., to assist us in the preparation of our clients' tax returns. In order to safeguard the confidentiality of client information, both CBIZ MHM and any subcontractors we may use have established internal policies, procedures and controls designed to maintain data security and protect privacy. We will not utilize a subcontractor without a written confidentiality agreement in place to prevent the unauthorized release of client information.

We may disclose the Information to any company, or any employee of such company, that is owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by CBIZ, Inc. ("Affiliate"). We may use the Information for a number of purposes in our efforts to provide you with access to the different types of services offered by our Affiliates, including where appropriate, tax consulting, general business consulting, retirement or estate planning, business succession, asset acquisition or disposition, payroll, benefits, insurance, wealth management and investing, human resources, accounting, valuation, internal audit, mergers and acquisitions, and technology consulting. You have the right to limit the Information you wish to have used or disclosed. We may use the Information to compile lists in order to provide you with tax or business information, newsletters or other correspondence determined from the Information to be relevant to you or your industry, and information on other products or services offered by our Affiliates. If your tax return involves the preparation of Forms K-1, we may provide a copy of Form K-1 to the person described thereon. We may also use and disclose the Information as subsequently requested or directed by you. We will not disclose Information to any person who is not an Affiliate without obtaining a separate consent to such disclosure except (a) as otherwise specifically provided herein, or (b) at your request or direction. Unless you specify otherwise, the consent to the use and disclosure of the Information provided herein will be valid until the statute of limitations to assess any tax by the Internal Revenue Service with respect to the tax return has expired.

D. Client Responsibilities. You are responsible for making all financial records and related information available to us. CBIZ MHM shall be entitled to assume, without independent verification, the accuracy of all representations, assumptions, information and data that you and your representatives provide to CBIZ MHM. All assumptions, representations, information and data to be supplied by you and your representatives will be complete and accurate to the best of your knowledge. CBIZ MHM may use information and data furnished by others; however, CBIZ MHM shall not be responsible for, and CBIZ MHM shall provide no assurance regarding, the accuracy and completeness of any such information or data. Except as specifically provided herein, CBIZ MHM shall not assume any responsibility for any financial reporting with respect to the tax services provided hereunder. You acknowledge and understand that CBIZ MHM is providing no attest services of any kind, scope or nature whatsoever, as part of this engagement. CBIZ MHM shall have no responsibility to address any legal matters or questions of law in connection with this engagement. See section C above for additional information regarding confidentiality.

You shall cooperate with CBIZ MHM in the performance by CBIZ MHM of its tax services hereunder, including, without limitation, providing CBIZ MHM with reasonable facilities and timely access to data, information, and your personnel. You shall be responsible for the performance of your personnel and agents and for the accuracy and completeness of all data and information provided to CBIZ MHM for purposes of the performance by CBIZ MHM of its tax services hereunder.

E. Fees and Payment. Our invoices for these tax services will be rendered each month as work progresses and are payable on presentation. If properly submitted invoices are not paid within 30 days of the invoice date, a late charge may accrue at the lesser of (i) 1% per month or (ii) the highest rate allowable by law. Without limiting its rights or remedies, CBIZ MHM shall have the right to halt or terminate entirely its tax services until full payment is received on such past due invoices. In the case of nonpayment, you will be liable for any and all costs and fees incurred by CBIZ MHM to collect the fees contemplated herein. The failure of CBIZ MHM to exercise its right to suspend or terminate work shall not constitute a waiver by CBIZ MHM of any right or remedy. In the event of a termination of this engagement pursuant to section F below, you agree to compensate CBIZ MHM for tax services performed and expenses incurred through the effective date of termination. All outstanding bills will be paid in full prior to the release of any information or prior to final product or service delivery, unless other arrangements to pay your bill have been agreed upon. See section P below for additional information regarding Limitation on Damages.

F. Term. This engagement shall conclude on the completion and delivery of CBIZ MHM's tax services hereunder. This engagement may be terminated by either party at any time by giving written notice to the other party not less than 10 business days before the effective date of termination. The following sections of this Agreement will survive completion of the Services or its earlier termination: Confidentiality, Ownership, Dispute Resolution, Fees and Payments, Limitation on Damages, Indemnity and such other provisions of this Agreement which by their nature are intended to survive.

G. General. This Agreement forms the entire agreement between the parties relating to the services, and replaces and supersedes any previous proposals, correspondence, understandings or other communications whether written or oral. This agreement shall be binding on all transferees, successors and assigns of both CBIZ MHM and you. Neither party shall be liable to the other for any delay or failure to perform any of the services or obligations set forth in this Agreement due to causes beyond its reasonable control. Each party acknowledges that this was a negotiated contract, and as a result, no part of this contract shall be construed against either party based on drafting of the contract. If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be invalid under any applicable statute or rule of law, it is to that extent to be deemed omitted, and the balance of the Agreement shall remain enforceable.

No delay or omission by either party in exercising any right or power shall impair such right or power or be construed to be a waiver. A waiver by either party of any of the covenants to be performed by the other or any breach thereof shall not be construed to be a waiver of any succeeding breach or of any other covenant. No waiver or discharge shall be valid unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the party against whom such waiver or discharge is sought to be enforced.

You acknowledge and agree that you will be solely responsible for any and all applicable sales tax due in connection with the services provided under this Agreement.

It is common practice for professional service firms such as ours, in discussions with prospective clients, to make reference to prior work, and we would like to have the opportunity to do so with respect to this assignment. Unless Client informs CBIZ MHM to the contrary, on completion of this assignment we understand that we will be entitled to make reference to having undertaken it, including a brief description of its objectives, in CBIZ MHM newsletters and publications and discussions with third parties regarding work opportunities.

H. Foreign Financial Account Reporting. Any U.S. citizen or resident (including individuals, corporations, partnerships, trusts and estates) who has a financial interest in, or signature or other authority over, "foreign financial accounts" with an aggregate value exceeding $10,000 at any time during the prior calendar year, is required to report that relationship to the Internal Revenue Service. Filing requirements also apply to those with direct or indirect control over a foreign or domestic entity with foreign financial accounts, even if the taxpayer does not have foreign financial accounts of its own. Because persons with a financial interest and persons with signature authority are required to submit filings, a single account may require multiple filings. For example, a corporate-owned foreign account would require filings by the corporation and by the individual corporate officers with signature authority.

"Foreign financial accounts", for purposes of this section, are financial accounts located in a foreign jurisdiction and may include, but are not limited to, bank accounts, mutual funds, securities or brokerage accounts, life insurance, credit cards, retirement plans and interests in partnerships, trusts or other pass-through entities having foreign accounts.

These filings must be made by June 30 and the due date of these filings cannot be extended. Failure to disclose the required information to the Internal Revenue Service, even an inadvertent failure, may result in substantial civil and/or criminal penalties.

I. Independent Contractor. It is understood and agreed that each of the parties hereto is an independent contractor and that neither party is, nor shall be considered to be, an agent, partner, joint venturer, or representative of the other. Neither party shall act or represent itself, directly or by implication, as an agent of the other or in any manner assume or create any obligation of behalf of, or in the name of, the other.

J. Employment Offers to Our Personnel. During the term of this Agreement and for a period of one year thereafter, the parties agree not to hire, solicit, or attempt to solicit, whether directly or indirectly, the services of any staff, employee, consultant, or subcontractor of the other party without the prior written consent of that party. Violation of this provision shall, in addition to other relief, require the breaching party to compensate the non-breaching party with 100 percent of the solicited person's annual compensation.

K. Safe Environment. You agree that in any circumstances wherein CBIZ personnel are required to work at any premises or location operated or controlled by you, you will take all actions and precautions necessary to ensure that Client premises are free from all known or reasonably foreseeable safety hazards, and all forms of harassment and discrimination.

L. Property. The workpapers and files which CBIZ MHM generates in connection with this engagement are the property of CBIZ MHM. Upon the termination of this engagement, upon request we will return your original records to you. All CBIZ MHM workpapers and files will be retained pursuant to CBIZ MHM's document retention policy.

M. Electronic Communication. In the interest of facilitating our services to you, we may communicate by facsimile transmission or by sending electronic mail over the Internet. Such communications may include information that is confidential to you. Our firm employs measures in the use of facsimile machines and computer technology designed to maintain data security. While we will use our best efforts to keep such communications secure in accordance with our obligations under applicable laws and professional standards, we have no control over the unauthorized interception of these communications once they have been sent.

N. Governing Law and Severability. These Terms and Conditions of Services, the engagement letter to which these terms are appended, and any and all claims relating to or arising out of this Agreement or related to CBIZ's services, whether sounding in contract, tort, or otherwise, shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the state of Ohio. If any provision of this Agreement is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable, such provision shall not affect the other provisions, but such unenforceable provision shall be deemed modified to the extent necessary to render it enforceable, preserving to the fullest extent permissible the intent of the parties set forth in this Agreement.

O. Dispute Resolution and Jury Trial Waiver. Because there are inherent difficulties in recalling or preserving information as the period after an engagement increases, you agree that, notwithstanding any applicable statute of limitations, you must file any claim based on this engagement in court within twenty four (24) months after performance of our services under the relevant engagement. This preceding sentence is not applicable to engagements with SEC registrants in which Mayer Hoffman McCann P.C. is the auditor of record.

If any dispute, controversy or claim arises in connection with the performance or breach of this agreement, except with respect to the nonpayment or collection of CBIZ MHM's fees, either party may, upon written notice to the other party, request that the matter be mediated. Such mediation will be conducted by a mediator appointed by and pursuant to the rules of the American Arbitration Association or such other neutral facilitator acceptable to both parties. Both parties will exert their best efforts to discuss with each other in good faith their respective positions in an attempt to finally resolve such dispute or controversy.

Each party may disclose any facts to the other party or to the mediator which it, in good faith, considers necessary to resolve the matter. All such discussions, however, will be for the purpose of assisting in settlement efforts and will not be admissible in any subsequent litigation against the disclosing party. Except as agreed by both parties, the mediator will keep confidential all information disclosed during negotiations. The mediator may not act as a witness for either party in any subsequent arbitration between the parties.

The mediation proceedings will conclude within sixty days from receipt of the written notice unless extended or terminated sooner by mutual consent. Each party will be responsible for its own expenses. The fees and expenses of the mediator, if any, will be borne equally by the parties. If the parties cannot resolve a dispute not related to fees through mediation, either party may pursue action in a court of competent jurisdiction as set forth in Section N of these Terms and Conditions.

If there is a fee dispute you and CBIZ MHM agree to submit all fee disputes to resolution by arbitration in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association. You waive the right to make counterclaims in the arbitration of such fee disputes and such arbitration shall be binding and final, as permitted by the law of the applicable jurisdiction. In agreeing to arbitration, we both acknowledge that in the event of a dispute over fees, each of us is giving up the right to have the dispute decided in a court of law before any judge or jury and instead are accepting the use of arbitration for resolution. Each party will bear its own costs of arbitration and both parties shall share equally the costs of the arbitrators.

Unless otherwise prohibited by law or applicable professional standard each of the parties irrevocably, voluntarily and knowingly waives its right to a jury trial of any claim or cause of action based upon or arising out of this agreement or any dealings between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof. The scope of this waiver is intended to be all-encompassing. It includes any and all disputes that may be filed in any court and that relate to the subject matter of this agreement, including, but not limited to, contract claims, tort claims, breach of duty claims and all other common law and statutory claims. It also includes any and all such claims that may be brought against CBIZ MHM, CBIZ, Inc., or any of its subsidiaries and any of their respective personnel, current or former.

P. Limitation on Damages. Unless otherwise prohibited by law or applicable professional standard, you agree that CBIZ MHM, any entity related to it and their respective personnel, current or former, shall not be liable to you for any claims, liabilities, or expenses relating to this engagement for an aggregate amount in excess of the fees paid by you to CBIZ MHM pursuant to this engagement, except to the extent finally judicially determined to have resulted from the bad faith or intentional misconduct of CBIZ MHM. Unless otherwise prohibited by law or applicable professional standard, in no event shall CBIZ MHM, any entity related to it or their respective personnel, current or former, be liable for consequential, special, indirect, incidental, punitive, or exemplary losses or damages relating to this engagement. This limitation on liability provision shall apply to the fullest extent of the law, whether in contract, statute, tort (such as negligence), professional standard, or otherwise. This Section P is not applicable to engagements with SEC registrants where Mayer Hoffman McCann P.C. is the auditor of record.

Q. Inherent Conflicts of Interest: CBIZ MHM cannot represent a client when there is a significant risk that the representation of one or more clients will be materially limited by the practitioner's responsibilities to another client (a "conflict of interest"), unless all affected parties waived the conflict of interest in writing. In some very common situations there are inherent potential conflicts of interest between or among clients. For example, an entity, such as a corporation, partnership or limited liability company, has potential conflicts of interest with its respective shareholders, partners or members, board members, officers, management team or employees (collectively "Executives"). Conflicts are present in almost any financial decision of the entity; for example, certain tax elections required to be made by the entity may not benefit all Executives equally, or decisions to make capital improvements, borrow money or admit new owners may have a financial impact on existing Executives. Another example of common inherent conflicts of interest exist between or among estates, trusts or similar entities represented by a fiduciary ("Estate") or a person engaged in succession planning or other disposition of assets ("Grantor"), and the respective primary and contingent beneficiaries ("Beneficiaries"). Tax elections, return positions, or other decisions regarding assets or investments may be required to be made by the Estate, and those elections, positions or decisions may not benefit all Beneficiaries equally. It is common for CBIZ MHM to provide tax advice and prepare tax returns for both entities and their Executives or Beneficiaries. If CBIZ MHM represents any of your Executives or Beneficiaries, you hereby acknowledge such conflicts of interest and agree that CBIZ MHM can advise and prepare tax returns for those Executives or Beneficiaries as well as perform the services described in this engagement letter on your behalf.

R. Limitations on Oral and Email Communication: We may discuss with you our views regarding the tax treatment of certain items and may provide you with tax information in the body of an email. Any advice or information delivered orally or in the body of an email (as opposed to a memorandum delivered as an email attachment) will be based upon limited tax research and a limited discussion and analysis of the underlying facts. Additional research or a more complete review of the facts could affect our analysis and conclusions. Because of these limitations and the related risks, it may not be appropriate to proceed with any transaction solely on the basis of any oral or email communication, and we will not be liable for any loss, cost, or expense resulting from your decision to rely on any oral or email communication.

S. Indemnification. Unless otherwise prohibited by law or applicable professional standard, you shall indemnify and hold harmless CBIZ MHM and its personnel from and against any causes of action, damages (whether compensatory, consequential, special, indirect, incidental, punitive, exemplary, or of any other type or nature), costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the reasonable time and expenses of CBIZ MHM's personnel involved) brought against or involving CBIZ MHM at any time and in any way arising out of or relating to CBIZ MHM's services under this engagement, except to the extent judicially determined to have resulted from the bad faith, gross negligence, or willful or intentional misconduct of CBIZ MHM's personnel. This provision shall survive the termination of this agreement for any reason, and shall apply to the fullest extent of the law, whether in contract, tort, or otherwise.

If any action or proceeding (any of the foregoing being a "Claim") is threatened or commenced by any third party against CBIZ MHM that you are obligated to defend or indemnify under this Agreement, then written notice thereof shall be given to you as promptly as practicable. After such notice and only so long as CBIZ MHM's and your interests with respect to the claim remain consistent, no conflict exists, and, by your control of the defense, CBIZ MHM's insurance is not voided or otherwise compromised in any way, you shall be entitled, if you so elect in writing within ten days after receipt of such notice, to take control of the defense and investigation of such Claim and to employ and engage attorneys to handle and defend the same, at your sole cost and expense, with the approval of CBIZ MHM, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. CBIZ MHM shall cooperate in all reasonable respects with you and your attorneys in the investigation, trial and defense of such Claim and any appeal arising therefrom; provided, however, that CBIZ MHM may, at its own cost and expense, participate, through its attorneys or otherwise, in such investigation, trial and defense of such Claim and any appeal arising therefrom. You shall enter into no settlement of a Claim that involves a remedy other than the payment of money by solely you without the prior consent of CBIZ MHM.

After notice by you to CBIZ MHM of your election to assume full control of the defense of any such Claim, and CBIZ MHM's approval of selected counsel, you shall not be liable to CBIZ MHM for any legal expenses incurred thereafter by CBIZ MHM in connection with the defense of that Claim. If you do not assume full control over the defense of a Claim, then you may participate in such defense, at your sole cost and expense, and CBIZ MHM shall have the right to defend you in such manner as it may deem appropriate, at your cost and expense.

CP - Probate

IN RE:

ESTATE OF SIMON L. BERNSTEIN,

_____/

Petitioner, Ted S. Bernstein, alleges:

1. Simon L. Bernstein, who formerly resided at 7020 Lion's Head Lane, Boca Raton, Palm Beach County, Florida, 33496, died on or about September 13, 2012, in Palm Beach County, Florida. His last will was admitted on or about October 2, 2012.

2. Decedent left surviving the following persons as next of kin:

Name	Address	Relationship to Decedent	Age of Minor
Ted S. Bernstein	880 Berkeley Street Boca Raton, FL 33487	Son
Pamela Beth Simon	950 N. Michigan Avenue Apartment 2603 Chicago, IL 60611	Daughter
Eliot Bernstein	2753 NW 34th Street Boca Raton, FL 33434	Son
Jill Iantoni	2101 Magnolia Lane Highland Park, IL 60035	Daughter

Lisa Friedstein	2142 Churchill Lane Highland Park, IL 60035	Daughter

3. Co-Personal Representatives Robert L. Spallina and Donald R. Tescher, were granted Letters of Administration on or about October 2, 2012, and have petitioned to resign from that role on or about January 16, 2014, without completing the administration of the estate.

4. Pursuant to Florida Probate Rule 5.430(d) and Fla. Stat. § 733.503, the court must appoint a successor personal representative upon the resignation of a personal representative.

5. A successor Personal Representative is necessary to marshall the assets and to participate in pending litigation. Petitioner requests, and is duly qualified, to be appointed as successor personal representative of the estate of decedent. Petitioner is sui juris and is a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida, and has an interest in this Estate as the Decedent's son and as trustee of the Decedent's Revocable Trust. Petitioner is best qualified to serve as successor personal representative. He already serves in a fiduciary capacity as the Successor Personal Representative of the Estate of Shirley Bernstein, which is pending in the same division of this Court. Shirley is the decedent's predeceased spouse, and the Estates were transferred to this Division because there are common and overlapping issues. In addition, Petitioner serves as the Successor Trustee of the Shirley Bernstein Trust, and has been appointed to and has accepted the appointment to serve as Successor Trustee of the Simon Bernstein Trust, into which the Estate's assets pour over. There is no successor personal representative nominated in the will, and it is believed that the Petitioner will have the support of a majority in interest of the person's entitled to the Estate.

6. Petitioner is the most qualified candidate to serve in the role of personal representative for this estate. Because Petitioner already currently serves as Successor PR for Shirley's Estate and as the Successor Trustee of both Trusts (the Shirley Bernstein Trust and the Simon Bernstein Trust), Petitioner already employs counsel and believes that there will be costs efficiencies served by the same lawyers handling both Estates. Also, Petitioner is actively involved in litigation in which claims are asserted against these Trusts and the Estate, and has familiarity with each of the lawsuits in which the estate is involved.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that upon the resignation of the current Co-Personal Representatives, this Court revoke prior Letters of Administration and rescind any orders of appointment, and that Petitioner be appointed successor personal representative.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

TED BERNSTEIN February 13, 2014

Filing # 10033465 Electronically Filed 02/07/2014 01:11:32 PM

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA.

CASE NO. 502012CP004391XXXXSB
CP - Probate

IN RE:

ESTATE OF SIMON L. BERNSTEIN,

_____/

MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF CURATOR OR ADMINISTRATOR AD LITEM

COMES NOW Ted S. Bernstein, pursuant to Fla. Prob. R. 5.120, 5.122 and Fla. Stat. §733.501 by and through counsel, and moves this Court to appoint a curator or an administrator ad litem and states that at all times relevant:

1. This motion is for the appointment of an estate fiduciary for the limited purposes of administering the estate until this Court appoints a successor personal representative since the Co-Personal Representatives have resigned. It seeks to have the moving party appointed as such.

2. There is pending litigation which the estate is involved in as well as assets to marshal.

3. It is necessary that the estate be represented.

4. The Decedent, Simon Bernstein, formerly resided at 7020 Lion's Head Lane, Boca Raton, Palm Beach County, Florida, 33496, died on or about September 13, 2012, in Palm Beach County, Florida where venue is proper. His last will was admitted on or about October 2, 2012.

5. Decedent left surviving the following persons as next of kin:

Name	Address	Relationship to Decedent	Age of Minor

Ted S. Bernstein	880 Berkeley Street Boca Raton, FL 33487	Son
Pamela Beth Simon	950 N. Michigan Avenue Apartment 2603 Chicago, IL 60611	Daughter
Eliot Bernstein	2753 NW 34th Street Boca Raton, FL 33434	Son
Jill Iantoni	2101 Magnolia Lane Highland Park, IL 60035	Daughter
Lisa Friedstein	2142 Churchill Lane Highland Park, IL 60035	Daughter

6. Co-Personal Representatives Robert L. Spallina and Donald R. Tescher, were entitled to and granted Letters of Administration on or about October 2, 2012, and have petitioned to resign from that role on or about January 16, 2014, without completing the administration of the estate.

7. The nature and approximate value of the assets of the estate is believed to be a promissory note and investments in excess of $ 100,000.

8. The moving party is the most qualified to act and has personal knowledge of the Decedent's assets and the litigation which the estate is involved in. He is also the trustee of the Decedent's revocable trust, which is now irrevocable.

WHEREFORE, the moving party prays that he be appointed curator or administrator ad litem, that he be granted letters or authority, and that this Court provide such further relief as may be just and proper.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

TED BERNSTEIN

ESTATE OF SIMON BERNSTEIN,
Deceased. Division: IY

RESPONSE IN OPPOSITION TO MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF TED BERNSTEIN AS CURATOR AND MOTION FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF ELIOT BERNSTEIN AS CURATOR OR SUCCESSOR PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE OR, IN THE ALTERNATIVE, FOR APPOINTMENT OF AN INDEPENDENT THIRD PARTY AS SUCCESSOR PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE OR CURATOR

COMES NOW Petitioner, William E. Stansbury ("Stansbury"), an unsecured creditor and "Interested Person," pursuant to the §731.201(23) Fla. Stat. (2013), by and through his undersigned counsel, and files this Response in Opposition to Motion for Appointment of Ted Bernstein as Curator and Motion for the Appointment of Eliot Bernstein as Curator or Successor Personal Representative or, in the Alternative, for Appointment of an Independent Third Party as Successor Personal Representative or Curator. In support, Petitioner states as follows:

1. The currently serving Co-Personal Representatives of the Estate, Donald R. Tescher and Robert L. Spallina have petitioned this Court for Resignation and Discharge. In considering the resignation, the Court, under the provisions of Fla. Prob. R. 5.430(d), is required to determine the necessity of appointing a successor fiduciary.

2. In this Estate, the Court is required to appoint a successor fiduciary since both Co-Personal Representatives are resigning. The Court is also empowered to appoint a curator under §733.506, Fla. Stat. (2013) and Fla. Prob. R. 5.122(a) until a new Successor Personal Representative is appointed.

I. Stansbury has standing to bring this Response and Motion

3. When removal of a Personal Representative is at issue, Fla. Prob. R. 5.440 specifically provides that, " ... any interested person, by petition, may commence a proceeding to remove a personal representative. ..." (Emphasis added.) By logical extension an "interested person" would also have standing to petition the court for the appointment of a successor fiduciary.

4. The provisions of §731.201(23), Fla. Stat. (2013) define an "interested person" as:

5. Stansbury has filed a claim against the Estate of Simon Bernstein (the "Estate") and has sued the Estate in a separate lawsuit styled William E. Stansbury v. Ted Bernstein, et al, Case. No. 50 2012 CA 013933 MB AA, Palm Beach County, Florida. A copy of the Statement of Claim is attached as Exhibit "A." A copy of the Amended Complaint which forms the basis of the Statement of Claim is attached hereto as Exhibit "B."

6. Stansbury, as a claimant of the Estate, has an interest in ensuring that the successor fiduciary ultimately appointed will act without bias and in the best interests of the creditors and devisees of the Estate. The Fourth District Court of Appeal has recognized that a claimant to an estate is an "interested person" and has standing in a proceeding to approve the personal representative's final accounting and petition for discharge. See, Arzuman v. Estate of Prince Bander BIN Saud Bin, etc., 879 So.2d 675 (Fla. 4th DCA 2004). See also, Montgomery v. Cribb, 484 So.2d 73 (Fla. 2d DCA 1986) (Wrongful death claimant was entitled to notice of hearing as an "interested person" under the probate code even though case was dismissed by trial court and disputed settlement was on appeal.) Stansbury is therefore an "interested person" as to the outcome of this or any subsequent proceeding in which a successor fiduciary or a curator will be appointed, and Stansbury has standing to file and advance this Petition.

II. Ted Bernstein should not be appointed as Curator or Successor Personal Representative

A. Misconduct in the Shirley Bernstein Estate

7. There are serious allegations of fraud and forgery in the Shirley Bernstein Estate where Ted Bernstein is now the Personal Representative. Documents were submitted to the Court bearing notarized signatures of Simon Bernstein, alleged signatures by him, but on a date after he had passed away.

8. This Court was apprised of these allegations in a hearing conducted September 13, 2013 wherein the Court questioned whether the potential parties involved should be read their Miranda Rights. (See Transcript of Proceedings, pages 15 and 16, attached as Exhibit "C.")

B. The "lost" Insurance Trust

9. At the time of Simon Bernstein's death, it was determined that there existed a life insurance policy issued by Heritage Mutual Insurance Company ("Heritage") allegedly payable to the Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust as beneficiary (the "Insurance Trust"). According to an SS-4 Application for EIN form submitted to the IRS on June 21, 1995, Shirley Bernstein was represented as Trustee of the Insurance Trust. (See SS-4 Application for EIN as Exhibit "D.")

10. Notwithstanding the earlier SS-4 EIN form, on November 1, 2012, Robert Spallina, one of the resigning Co-Personal Representatives, submitted a claim form to Heritage on behalf of the Insurance Trust for the benefit of the grown children of Simon Bernstein. In doing so, Spallina represented that he was the Trustee of the Insurance Trust. (See Exhibit "E")

Spallina made this representation despite having informed Heritage by letter shortly thereafter that he was "unable to locate the Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust dated June 1, 1995." (See Exhibit "F" attached.) If the Trust instrument cannot be found, the insurance proceeds would be payable to the Simon Bernstein Estate, and as such, would be available to pay creditors of the Estate such as Stansbury.

11. Spallina, with the knowledge of Ted Bernstein, represented that he was "Trustee" of the Insurance Trust in an effort to collect the insurance proceeds on behalf the Insurance Trust and for the benefit of the grown children of Simon Bernstein, so as to circumvent the Simon Bernstein Estate.

12. Heritage refused to pay the life insurance proceeds to anyone without a court order. The Insurance Trust then sued Heritage in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois (the case has since been removed to Federal Court). In paragraph 2 of the Complaint, the Plaintiff, the Insurance Trust, although apparently still "lost," alleges that Ted Bernstein is the "trustee" of the Insurance Trust. Yet, there exists no trust document establishing the continued existence of the Insurance Trust, let alone that Ted is the Trustee. As a result, Ted's representation, like that of Spallina, appears plainly false.

C. Ted Bernstein has a Conflict of Interest ---

13. Ted Bernstein, as well as his siblings (other than Eliot) - Lisa Sue Friedstein, Pamela Beth Simon, and Jill Iantoni - have a conflict of interest precluding them from faithfully executing the duties of fiduciary on behalf of the Estate.

14. One of the considerations for removal of a Personal Representative as set forth in §733.504(9) (2013) is, "(9) Holding or acquiring conflicting or adverse interests against the estate that will or may interfere with the administration of the estate as a whole."

15. A trail of e-mails indicates that Ted Berstein, Lisa Sue Friedstein, Pamela Beth Simon and Jill Iantoni were advocating and scheming to keep the proceeds from the Heritage life insurance policy, as described above in paragraphs 9 thru 12 from being paid to the Estate. The stated purpose of this scheme was to avoid making the life insurance proceeds available to pay creditors of the Estate such as Stansbury. (See, selected e-mail messages, attached hereto as Composite Exhibit "G".) The residuary beneficiaries of the Will, that is, the grandchildren of Simon Bernstein, would also be prejudiced by such a determination.

16. Section 733.602(1), Fla. Stat. (2013), expressly provides that ". . . A personal representative shall use the authority conferred by this code, the authority in the will, if any, and the authority of any order of the court, for the best interests of interested persons, including creditors." (Emphasis added.)

17. While the ultimate outcome of the adjudication of the issues surrounding the Heritage life insurance proceeds is uncertain, what is clear is that each of the children of Simon Bernstein, other than Eliot Bernstein, have advocated, and continue to advocate a position that is contrary to the best interests of the Estate, its creditors and beneficiaries. These two conflicting and contrary positions between the interests of the children of Simon Bernstein (other than Eliot) and the duty of the successor fiduciary to act in the best interests of the Estate, including the creditors and beneficiaries, render Ted Bernstein, Lisa Sue Friedstein, Pamela Beth Simon and Jill Iantoni unqualified to serve as successor fiduciaries. See Estate of Bell v. Johnson, 573 So.2d 57 (Fla. 1st DCA, 1990) (conflict between personal representative, in that capacity, and as power of attorney, necessitated removal as personal representative).

D. The "Schiller" Lawsuit

18. Further, Ted Bernstein is a Defendant in yet another lawsuit filed in this Circuit Court. See, Schiller v. Life Insurance Concepts, et al, Case No. 502013CA007442 AD, wherein Ted Bernstein and others are accused of negligence and other business torts in connection with their business dealings.

E. Curator and Successor Personal Representative

19. Stansbury nominates Eliot Bernstein ("Eliot"), a son of the Decedent, to serve as successor Personal Representative. Eliot is qualified under §733.302, Fla. Stat. (2013) as he is sui juris and was a resident of Florida at the time of his father's death on September 13, 2012. Additionally, he is entitled to "preferential" consideration under §733.301(1)(a)(3) in that he is a devisee under Simon Bernstein's Will dated July 25, 2012 that has been admitted to probate.

20. In addition to his technical qualifications to serve as Personal Representative under the Florida Probate Code, Eliot also deserves significant consideration since he has been the only child of Simon and Shirley Bernstein to bring to the Court's attention the potential fraud and forgery issues that exist in connection with the closing of the Estate of Shirley Bernstein, as more fully set forth in paragraphs 7 and 8 above.

21. Stansbury acknowledges that Eliot's siblings, Theodore "Ted" Bernstein, Lisa Sue Friedstein, Pamela Beth Simon, and Jill Iantoni are also technically qualified to serve under §733.302, Fla. Stat. (2013) and §733.301(1)(a)(3). However, for the reasons set forth above, each of them should not be considered or appointed Curator or Successor Personal Representative by this Court.

22. Alternatively, should the Court determine that all of the Bernstein children, Eliot included, are not appropriate to serve, Stansbury moves this Court for the appointment of an independent, third party Curator or Personal Representative that will administer the Estate in an objective, unbiased and fair manner, as set forth in § 733.5061, Fla. Stat. (2013) and in accordance with the procedure set forth in §733.501, Fla. Stat. (2013).

STATEMENT OF CLAIM BY WILLIAM E. STANSBURY

The undersigned hereby presents for filing against the above estate this Statement of Claim and alleges:

1. The basis for the claim is the action pending in Palm Beach County, Florida, Stansbury v. Bernstein, et. al, Case No. 502012CA 013933XXXX MB (the "Pending Action"). A true and correct copy of the Complaint filed by claimant that initiated the Pending Action is attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and is hereby incorporated by reference herein (the "Complaint").

2. The name and address of the claimant are William E. Stansbury, 6920 Caviro Lane, Boynton Beach, Florida 33437, and the name and address of the claimant's attorney is set forth below.

3. The amount of the claim is in excess of $2.5 million dollars, which the Claimant is entitled to recover under the claims set forth in the Complaint, which amount the Claimant believes is now due.

4. The claim is contingent or unliquidated and uncertain to the extent that the Claimant's claim is dependent on the outcome of the Pending Action. The specific amount of Claimant's claim will be determined in Pending Action and the Claimant expects to recover in excess of $2.5 million dollars in damages, as well as, but not limited to, treble damages, pre-judgment and post-judgment interest, and costs.

5. The claim is not secured.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Signed on November 6, 2012.

COMPLAINT
And JURY DEMAND

WILLIAM STANSBURY (PLAINTIFF"), by and through his undersigned co-counsel, hereby demanding trial by jury of all issues so triable, hereby sues the Defendants, and says

1. This is an action for money damages in excess of $15,000, and for equitable relief.

2. Plaintiff is sui juris, and a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida.

3. Defendants TED S. BERNSTEIN ("TED BERNSTEIN"), and SIMON BERNSTEIN are both sui juris, and are both residents of Palm Beach County, Florida.

4. The corporate Defendants, LIC HOLDINGS, INC.; and ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, L.L.C., f/k/a ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, L.L.C., are entities organized and existing under the laws of the State of Florida, all do business in the State of Florida and all have their principal offices in the State of Florida, and in Palm Beach County, Florida.

5. Defendants SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN (collectively "Defendants

EXHIBIT A

BERNSTEIN") are, respectively, one another's father and son. They both own and control all of the corporate Defendants, and work closely together with respect thereto. In all matters involved herein, they worked closely together and were virtually one another's alter egos.

7 The acts and incidents giving rise to these causes of action occurred in Palm Beach County, Florida.

Background

8. Plaintiff has worked in the insurance field virtually all his adult life, and by 2003 had become well-known and highly regarded by major insurance companies, their principals, and by others throughout the insurance industry, at all levels thereof, as well as by professionals, including attorneys, CPAs, financial advisors, wealth managers and others who were involved in serving, or otherwise dealing with, insurers and insurance brokers.

9. SIMON BERNSTEIN dealt at high levels of the insurance industry, and specialized in developing and marketing insurance concepts suitable for persons of high net worth to incorporate in their wealth management and estate planning.

10. TED BERNSTEIN was actively involved in selling life insurance products in conjunction with attorneys, CPAs and other professionals, to be incorporated into clients' financial planning.

11. In 2003, TED BERNSTEIN approached Plaintiff, urging Plaintiff to spearhead the marketing of a unique insurance concept ("the said concept"), newly developed by a prominent law firm, which was designed for use in the financial and estate planning of wealthy individuals.

12. TED BERNSTEIN told Plaintiff that he knew of Plaintiff's knowledgeability, and reputation in the insurance and related industries and professions, and that Plaintiff was skilled at, and accustomed to, speaking and marketing insurance products to, large groups of professionals, and that he realized that Plaintiff, because of his knowledgeability, reputation and abilities, would be ideal to market this concept nationwide, through prominent and experienced professionals..

13. SIMON BERNSTEIN proposed that Plaintiff work as an independent contractor for the Corporate Defendants, marketing the product to the above-described He offered Plaintiff an arrangement whereby Plaintiff would receive twenty percent (20%) of all net retained amounts of commissions received from insurance companies and general agents' overrides (hereinafter, "commissions") which chose to issue policies of the type to be marketed, for use in the said financial and estate planning, and all other sales by the companies. Plaintiff would receive no other salary remuneration, but would have his travel and marketing expenses advanced or reimbursed. In time, when Plaintiff agreed to become an employee rather than an independent contractor, he agreed to a salary of the equivalent of 15% of commissions received on all products.

14. After reviewing the concept and considering the terms of the arrangement offered by SIMON BERNSTEIN, Plaintiff agreed with BERNSTEIN to accept the proposal described in preceding paragraph 13, and all the parties proceeded to act in accordance therewith.

15. Thereafter, Plaintiff worked with diligence and skill, traveling throughout the United States, generating ever increasing sales, and generating very large commissions for Defendants and for Plaintiff, who received the agreed salary equal to 15% thereof. By 2006, the parties hereto began receiving checks, not only for commissions on new policies sold, but also renewal commissions. Initially, the Plaintiff and Defendants BERNSTEIN, and one secretary, comprised the entire workforce. At the height of the sales campaign, Defendants' staff for serving the business generated by Plaintiff consisted of more than 40 individuals.

16. In 2005, the Plaintiff was paid his commissions in the form of two IRS forms 1099, from National Services Association, and from Defendant ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MARKETING, INC. for his services as an independent contractor.

17. In 2006, Plaintiff received his agreed salary as an employee, reflected in two IRS forms W-2., One W-2 was from ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MARKETING, INC., and the other was from ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, INC., which later became Defendant ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, INC.

18. Also in 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN told Plaintiff that Plaintiff, was being rewarded for the explosive growth of business, through receiving a 10% interest in LIC.

19. In 2007, Plaintiff received his agreed salary as an employee, which salary was reflected in an IRS Form W-2.

20. With the economic downturn in 2008, Defendants looked for ways to withhold from Plaintiff compensation to which he was entitled, and to deceive him into believing that the money which would have been paid to both Defendants as well as to Plaintiff as compensation, was instead being held in the company's coffers.

21. In order to hide from Plaintiff the real fact that Defendants were paying to Defendants BERNSTEIN the full earnings received as commissions, and thereby depriving Plaintiff of the 15% thereof to which he was entitled, they knew they had to terminate Plaintiff's function of calculating each person's entitlement to payment out of commissions received. Therefore, in early 2008, SIMON BERNSTEIN told Plaintiff that the Defendants BERNSTEIN felt that Plaintiff was spending too much time on making the said calculations, and that Plaintiff's time would be better spent in building the business. SIMON BERNSTEIN told

Plaintiff that he and TED BERNSTEIN had decided to pay themselves and Plaintiff identical salaries of not less than $1,000,000 each for 2008, and to distribute any profits beyond the total thus paid to the three owners, the Defendants BERNSTEIN and Plaintiff, according to their respective percentages of ownership, Plaintiff's share being 10%. Plaintiff, having thus far believed he was receiving whatever compensation he was entitled to, and having no reason to realize that this was a ruse to keep him in the dark as to the true state of affairs, readily acceded to his being relieved of the bookkeeping duties regarding calculating the disposition of moneys received.

22. Through misrepresentations made from 2008 through the date of filing of this Complaint, Defendants knowingly made false statements to Plaintiff to hide their scheme to withhold from Plaintiffs money to which he was entitled. For example, at times they claimed that money being received was not being paid as salary or distributions to either of Defendants BERNSTEIN but was being withheld and placed in company accounts, for eventual distribution. As Plaintiff and Defendants could afford to wait until year's end to be paid their distributions, and as Defendants BERNSTEIN assured Plaintiff that the payment arrangement would apply to all three equally, Plaintiff did not question the truthfulness of their representations..

23. In furtherance of their scheme to deprive Plaintiff of salary he had earned and to which he was entitled, Defendants intercepted mail addressed to Plaintiff, removed therefrom commission checks representing full commissions, deposited the same to their own accounts or otherwise converted the funds,, and willfully withhold from Plaintiff his salary. Defendants BERNSTEIN also opened Plaintiff's mail containing checks payable to him which were unrelated to Defendants' business.

24. In 2011, the Defendants BERNSTEIN decided to deceive Plaintiff into giving up his 10% share in the business. Although he had never seen a stock certificate, Plaintiff had in fact been given K-1 statements reflecting his salary, which appeared to approximate 10% of the net profits or losses of LIC, after salary was paid. TED BERNSTEIN told Plaintiff that their accountants had discovered a taxable event which could cause all the owners of the company to have to pay taxes, and that they thought it would be unfair for Plaintiff to have to pay 10% of that tax, so TED BERNSTEIN promised that if Plaintiff would sign a paper ceding his 10% interest, TED BERNSTEIN would simply hold it and it would not become operative unless the tax liability came to exist. Plaintiff was assured that nothing would happen with the stock ownership until Plaintiff and the Defendants BERNSTEIN discussed the situation further after the Holiday Season.

25. Because of the misrepresentations, willful concealments of material facts, duplicity and deceit practiced by Defendants upon Plaintiff as described in preceding paragraphs 20 through 24, Plaintiff was reasonably of the belief that Defendants had complied , or intended to comply, with their material obligations to Plaintiff under the contract between them, and therefore was prevented from knowing, for a period of years, that these causes of action existed. The acts of Defendants in making false statements and withholding material information continues from its inception to the date of the filing hereof.

I. ACCOUNTING
(Against LIC and ARBITRAGE, for Accounting as to Withholding of Money Due Plaintiff)

26. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

27. The relationship between Plaintiff and the Defendants, particularly as affected by Defendants' acts described in preceding paragraphs 20 through 25, inclusive, created a situation where Defendants had sole access to, receipts generated by Plaintiff's efforts, and to books and records reflecting said receipts and the other information from which can be calculated all moneys due to Plaintiff under his arrangement with Defendants.

28, The period of time during which Plaintiff has been deprived of moneys due him spans approximately four and a half years, the numerosity of the sources of receipts by Defendants of moneys from which the amounts due Plaintiff may be calculated, and the changes in the formula under which, and manner in which, Plaintiff was to be paid, all involve extensive and complicated accounts, and Plaintiff's remedy at law could not be as full, adequate and expeditious as it is in equity.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for an adjudication of Plaintiff's right to a full and complete accounting from Defendants, and for such orders of Court as will require the Defendants to provide Plaintiff with all records and copies of documents, dated from the date in 2003 when Plaintiff first began his efforts to generate sales of the concept described in paragraph 11 above to the present, as will reveal his right to, and the amount of, all amounts: (a) received as commissions on said concepts or any other commissions as to which Plaintiff was entitled to a share; (b) due to Plaintiff, whether paid or not; (c) paid to Plaintiff, whether for commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason; (d) paid to each of the Defendants out of moneys received as commissions; (e) deposits of any and all moneys received as commissions by any Defendants to any accounts, including the name of the entity whose account was involved, the number(s) of each such account; the address of the branch or other facility through which any Defendant dealt with such entity; (f) calculations as to moneys paid , to be paid, or not to be paid to Plaintiff, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

II. ACCOUNTING
(Against TED S. BERNSTEIN and SIMON BERNSTEIN, for Accounting as to Money Due to Plaintiff Which Said Defendants Converted)

29. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

30. The relationship between Plaintiff and the Defendants, particularly as affected by Defendants' acts described in preceding paragraphs 20 through 25, inclusive, created a situation where Defendants had sole access to, receipts generated by Plaintiff's efforts, and to books and records reflecting said receipts and the other information from which can be calculated all moneys due to Plaintiff under his arrangement with Defendants.

31, The period of time during which Plaintiff has been deprived of moneys due him spans approximately four and a half years, the numerosity of the sources of receipts by Defendants of moneys from which the amounts due Plaintiff may be calculated, and the changes in the formula under which, and manner in which, Plaintiff was to be paid, all involve extensive and complicated accounts, and Plaintiff's remedy at law could not be as full, adequate and expeditious as it is in equity.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for an adjudication of Plaintiff's right to a full and complete accounting from Defendants, and for such orders of Court as will require the Defendants to provide Plaintiff with all records and copies of documents, dated from the date in 2003 when Plaintiff first began his efforts to generate sales of the concept described in paragraph 11 above to the present, as will reveal his right to, and the amount of, all amounts: (a) received as commissions on said concepts or any other commissions as to which Plaintiff was entitled to a share; (b) due to Plaintiff, whether paid or not; (c) paid to Plaintiff, whether for commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason; (d) paid to each of the Defendants out of moneys received as said commissions; (e) deposits of any and all moneys received as commissions by any Defendants to any accounts, including the name of the entity whose account was involved, the number(s) of each such account; the address of the branch or other facility through which any Defendant dealt with such entity; (f) calculations as to moneys paid , to be paid, or not to be paid to Plaintiff, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

III. BREACH OF ORAL CONTRACT
(Against All the Defendants)

32. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

33. The arrangement between Plaintiff and Defendants as described in paragraphs 11 and 13 above, and as modified by the parties as further described above, constituted a contract between them.

34. An express term of that contract involved the commitment of Defendants to calculate, and to pay to Plaintiff, fully and timely, all sums due to him under the parties' contract, whether as commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason

35. The parties initially performed the duties required of them under said contract.

36. However, as described above in paragraphs 20 through 25, inclusive, Defendants willfully and maliciously agreed to breach their contract with Plaintiff by withholding from Plaintiff moneys due him under the contract.

37. Defendants did withhold such moneys due Plaintiff.

38. The withholding of such moneys constituted a material breach of the contact between Plaintiff and Defendants.

39. There is therefore due to Plaintiff from Defendants all amounts due under said contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

IV. BREACH OF IMPLIED COVENANT Of GOOD FAITH and FAIR DEALING

40. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive, and paragraphs 33 through 38, inclusive.

41. The said contract, as a matter of law, contained an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, obligating the parties to honor every express term of the agreement..

42. Among the express terms of the oral contract between the parties were (a) that Plaintiff would be constantly apprised, either through being permitted to calculate all amounts due the Defendants out of commissions, or through being advised of all receipts of commissions and the disposition thereof, or the amounts due to Plaintiff for any reason under the terms of the contract; and (b) that Plaintiff would be fully and promptly paid all such amounts due him.

43. Through their actions as described in preceding paragraphs 20 through 25, inclusive, the Defendants willfully breached the said express of the contract.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

V. BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY

41. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

42. Plaintiff reposed full confidence in the defendants BERNSTEIN, and trusted them and relied on them to be as good as their word and to deal honestly with him, for a variety of reasons. Plaintiff knew of SIMON BERNSTEIN as a major figure in the insurance industry, prior to their becoming parties to the agreement involved herein. Moreover, Plaintiff and the Defendants BERNSTEIN had formed a social relationship which had grown into what Plaintiff regarded as friendship. Moreover, as the initial situation under their contractual relationship had Plaintiff receiving all information as to commissions received and calculating the amount of money due to Plaintiff and the Defendants BERNSTEIN, as ,mentioned in preceding paragraphs 21 and 22, and also because Plaintiff was told he had been given a minority shareholder interest in LIC, Plaintiff reasonably felt that the Defendants would deal with Plaintiff honestly and fairly, and that the Defendants had no intention of hiding from Plaintiff any information as to the amounts due Plaintiff or as to the Defendants' intention of paying said amounts to Plaintiff

43. Moreover, when Defendants proposed to Plaintiff that Plaintiffs cease being the one to calculate moneys due the parties out of commissions received, the Plaintiff trusted Defendants to make proper, accurate and complete calculations, as Plaintiff had done, and to pay Plaintiff accordingly.

44. Furthermore, when Defendants BERNSTEIN made statements to Plaintiff as to why payments due him were not being paid, as described, for example, in preceding paragraphs 22 through 25, inclusive, and 42, he trusted Defendants to be telling Plaintiff the truth,

45. As a result of the foregoing, a fiduciary relationship existed between Defendants BERNSTEIN and Plaintiff, and there existed in Plaintiff complete confidence and trust in the said Defendants, of which confidence and trust said Defendants were well aware.

46. Defendants BERNSTEIN accepted the trust which Plaintiff reasonably placed in them.

47 Through Defendants' willful misrepresentations and withholding of material information as to their intentions and the purposes for which Plaintiff's payments were not being paid, and through their diversion from Plaintiff of amounts which should have been paid to him, Defendants abused and betrayed Plaintiff's trust and confidence in them, to Plaintiff's great detriment, in that he has been deprived of the said amounts due him, the precise amount of which cannot be calculated without access to Defendants' books and records, and a full accounting by them.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

VI. CIVIL THEFT
Against All Defendants

48. This is an action for Civil Theft under Chapter 772, Florida Statutes, more specifically §772.11, Fla.Stats.

49. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

50. All funds which Defendants' records will reveal are due to Plaintiff but which have been deposited to any of the Defendants' accounts or which have been received by any Defendant or diverted by any Defendant to any recipient but Plaintiff are the specific funds to which this Count relates.

51. By refusing to pay to Plaintiff funds due him under their agreement, and by paying said sums to themselves or to others, Defendants have been guilty of criminal theft by conversion, which has been and continues to be performed by Defendants with the criminal intent of stealing his money and depriving him of the possession and use thereof.

52. Written demand for payment of all amounts due Plaintiff has been made to Defendants, more than 30 days preceding the filing of this Complaint, to no avail.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for three times the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts, and such other remedies as may be awarded Plaintiff under other Counts herein, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

VII. FRAUD
(Against All Defendants)

53. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

54. Defendants, with the intent to defraud Plaintiff by preventing his receipt of moneys due him from Defendants as commissions, salary, distributions, expenses, and otherwise, made false statements to him and withheld material information from him, all as specifically set forth in preceding paragraphs 20 through 24 above.

55. At the time said statements were made, Defendants knew that they were material and false, and that Plaintiff would rely thereon. At the time said material information was withheld from Plaintiffs, Defendants knew that the information being withheld was material, and that the withholding of the information would cause Plaintiff to rely on the absence of said information

56. Defendants intended for Plaintiff to rely on said false statements of material fact and to rely on the absence of the material facts which were withheld.

57. Plaintiff did rely on the false statements and the withholding of material information, and was damaged thereby. Through the loss the possession and use of moneys due him but withheld by Defendants under their scheme to defraud him of said money.

58. The behavior of Defendants in deceiving Plaintiff and in abusing the trust they had engendered in Plaintiff, as set forth in preceding paragraphs 42 through 47, which are incorporated herein by reference as if expressly restated herein, was in willful and conscious disregard of his rights, and was of such a concerted, premeditated, and outrageous nature as to go beyond the bounds of decency, and constituted rampant fraud.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

VIII. EQUITABLE LIEN

59. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive, and paragraphs 54 through 58, inclusive.

60. The bank accounts into which any of the commissions received by Defendants as to which Plaintiff was to receive a share of commissions received, and the operating accounts and other accounts of the corporate Defendants into which said commission checks were deposited were intended by Defendants and by Plaintiff to be the source out of which Plaintiff would be paid, and they therefore were intended to be, and therefore should be, charged by this Court with the obligation of being the source of all amounts Plaintiff was and is to be paid, including amounts not yet paid.

61. Any and all other accounts into which were deposited said commissions or any part thereof, out of which Plaintiff was to be paid, should, out of general considerations of right and justice as applied to the relations of the parties and the circumstances of their dealings, be charged with the obligation of paying Plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts. Plaintiff further prays for the Court to declare and establish an equitable lien in favor of Plaintiff on all the accounts described in preceding paragraphs 60 and 61, and for all other accounts into which said commissions have been or will be wholly or partly diverted, and on all assets of Defendants or third parties which have been purchased wholly or partly with the diversion of said funds due Plaintiff. Plaintiff further prays for such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

IX. CONTRACT IMPLIED IN LAW

62. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 25, inclusive.

63. By keeping the moneys due Plaintiff, Defendants have been unjustly enriched.

64. By agreeing to permit Defendants to receive, possess and control the paperwork revealing commissions received, and by agreeing that Defendants would assume the function of calculating amounts due the parties, Plaintiff conferred on Defendants the benefit of controlling the disposition of the funds received, including those due Plaintiff. The Defendants, having induced Plaintiff to confer said benefit, knew of the benefit and accepted and retained the benefit and abused it to defraud the Plaintiff.

65. The Circumstances are such that it would be inequitable for the Defendants to retain the benefit of the possession and use of funds due Plaintiff

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment that there exists a contract implied in law with the terms against Defendants described above, and for judgment against all Defendants, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

X. CONSTRUCTIVE TRUST

66. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

67. The bank accounts into which any of the commissions received by Defendants as to which Plaintiff was to receive a share of commissions received, and the operating accounts and other accounts of the corporate Defendants into which said commission checks were deposited were intended by Defendants and by Plaintiff to be the source out of which Plaintiff would be paid, and they therefore were intended to be, and therefore should be, charged by this Court with the obligation of being the source of all amounts Plaintiff was and is to be paid, including amounts not yet paid.

68. Any and all other accounts into which were deposited said commissions or any part thereof, out of which Plaintiff was to be paid, should, out of general considerations of right and justice as applied to the relations of the parties and the circumstances of their dealings, be charged with the obligation of paying Plaintiff.

.WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts. Plaintiff further prays for the Court to declare and establish a constructive trust in favor of Plaintiff on all the accounts described in preceding paragraphs 60 and 61, and for all other accounts into which said commissions have been or will be wholly or partly diverted, and on all assets of Defendants or third parties which have been purchased wholly or partly with the diversion of said funds due Plaintiff. Plaintiff further prays for such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

XI. INDEMNIFICATION

69. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

70. When Defendants entered the arrangement with Plaintiff described in preceding paragraph 13, SIMON BERNSTEIN, acting for himself and on behalf of the corporate Defendants and TED BERNSTEIN, and for their collective and shared benefit, told Plaintiff that it would be better for the simplicity of administration, if Plaintiff would arrange for all commissions, paid by insurance companies for sales of the said product by the Defendant companies, to be paid in the name of Plaintiff., even though Plaintiff would ultimately receive only 15% thereof.

71. Plaintiff, believing the representation that this was being requested solely to simplify bookkeeping and administration, agreed to receive all commissions in his own name, even though the bulk of each commission would become the property of the various Defendants.

72. At the time Defendants, through SIMON BERNSTEIN, represented to Plaintiff that the reason for their request that Plaintiff receive all commissions solely in his own name was for administrative simplicity, they knew that they had an ulterior motive in making this request. Their said motive was that, in the event any insurance company which had paid a commission for sale of the said product were to request a full refund of the commission on the ground that the insurance client or the broker had falsified the application for the policy, Defendants intended to disclaim liability therefor, and to avoid personal and corporate responsibility for any requests for refund of commissions paid, even though they collectively have received 85% of each such commission.

73. Plaintiff, acting in good faith, did not realize that Defendants were concealing this motive, or that such was their motive, and he reasonably relied on their representations as to the reason for the request, to his detriment.

74. As a direct and proximate result of the Defendants' representations, Plaintiff will have nominal full liability for refund of any commissions thus sought to be refunded as described in preceding paragraph 72. Such liability creates the certainty that requests for refunds will be made solely to Plaintiff, even though Defendants received 85% of the commissions.. Such disproportionate and unfair liability has been caused by the willful misrepresentation by Defendants.

75. Plaintiff was without fault in reasonably relying on the said representations.

76. Defendants were solely at fault in creating the said liability.

77. There was a special relationship between Plaintiff and the Defendants, because Plaintiff was acting as the nominal agent for Defendants in receiving in his name 100% of the commissions, making him vicariously liable for the refund of the 85% of commissions which were retained by Defendants for their own benefit.

78. Moreover, Defendants had ceased to pay Plaintiff any commissions. Instead, as an employee he was now receiving a salary. To reflect Plaintiff's successful generation of Defendants' business, Defendants made Plaintiff's salary approximate 15% of the amount of commissions received. Nonetheless, as Plaintiff was not receiving any share of commissions per se, he should not have his indemnification limited to 85%, but rather it should be to the full 100% of all commissions being refunded.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for a Judgment in his favor, and against all Defendants, Adjudicating them under an obligation to defend, hold harmless and indemnify Plaintiff from and against refund claims for said commissions, to the extent of 100% thereof, and for such other and further relief as the Court shall deem just and appropriate.

9. The acts and incidents giving rise to the causes of action alleged herein arose in Palm Beach County, Florida.

Background

10. STANSBURY has worked in the insurance industry for virtually all of his adult life. After 30 years, he had become well-known and highly regarded by major insurance companies, their principals and others throughout the insurance industry, at all levels thereof, as well as by professionals, including attorneys, CPA's, financial advisors, wealth managers and others who were involved in serving, or otherwise dealing with insurers, insurance brokers and life insurance products.

11. SIMON BERNSTEIN dealt at sophisticated levels of the insurance industry and specialized in developing and marketing insurance concepts suitable for persons of high net worth to incorporate into their wealth management and estate planning.

12. TED BERNSTEIN, the son of SIMON BERNSTEIN, was also actively involved in selling life insurance products in conjunction with attorneys, CPAs and other professionals, to be incorporated into high net worth individuals' financial and estate planning.

13. TED BERNSTEIN approached STANSBURY, urging STANSBURY to spearhead the marketing of a unique insurance concept, newly developed by a prominent law firm, which was designed for use in the financial and estate planning of high net worth individuals.

14. TED BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that he knew of STANSBURY's expertise and reputation in the insurance and related industries, and that STANSBURY was skilled at and accustomed to speaking and marketing insurance products to groups of professionals. He realized that STANSBURY, because of his knowledge, reputation and abilities, would be well suited to market this concept nationwide through prominent and experienced professionals.

15. In 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN (collectively, "BERNSTEIN" or the "BERNSTEINS") formed Defendants LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE for the purpose of marketing and selling certain life insurance products to high net worth individuals for their wealth management and estate planning needs.

16. STANSBURY agreed to become an employee of LIC Holdings, Inc. and ARBITRAGE and agreed to a salary of 15% of net commissions received on all products, including renewals.

17. STANSBURY worked with diligence and skill, traveling throughout the United States, generating ever-increasing sales and generating very large commissions. By 2006, nationwide sales were resulting in substantial commissions on new policies and renewal commissions.

18. Also in 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that STANSBURY was being rewarded for his efforts and the explosive growth of the business, such that he would receive a 10% ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc.

19. In February of 2008, SIMON BERNSTEIN approached STANSBURY with the suggestion that rather than STANSBURY performing computations on a monthly basis as to how much should be paid to him based upon 15% of the commissions derived from policies sold by STANSBURY, the BERNSTEINS and STANSBURY should forego monthly payouts and defer compensation until the end of 2008, when year-end computations could be made. It was suggested that in December, year-end computations would be made and salaries would be paid in December 2008 or January of 2009. It was specifically represented to STANSBURY that neither SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN nor STANSBURY would take any compensation until the year-end accounting was performed in December of 2008 or January, 2009.

20. STANSBURY relied on SIMON BERNSTEIN's representations that, among other things, his time would be better spent building the business rather than performing monthly calculations of income. STANSBURY relied on SIMON BERNSTEIN's representation that they would all be paid identical annual salaries of not less than $1,000,000 at the end of 2008 to be applied against STANBURY's 15%. Any compensation to STANSBURY over and above his 15% would be paid to him in accordance with his ownership percentage of 10%.

21. STANSBURY, having no reason to believe that the representations by SIMON BERNSTEIN were false and only a ruse to keep him from inquiring as to corporate revenue and distributions, acceded to his being relieved of the bookkeeping duties regarding calculating the disposition of monies on a monthly basis throughout the year.

22. In 2008, STANSBURY received only $420,018.00, all from commissions earned for sales in 2007 but paid in the January of 2008. STANSBURY received no payments for commissions received after January, 2008.

23. Unbeknownst to STANSBURY at that time, SIMON BERNSTEIN was paid $3,756,229.00 and TED BERNSTEIN was paid $5,225,825.00 in 2008.

24. The net retained commissions by LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, not including renewals for 2008 were approximately $13,442,549.00. As such, STANSBURY was entitled to, at the very minimum, 15% of $13,442,549.00, or $2,016,382.35.

25. Since that time, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN have secreted commissions received by LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE into Bernstein family trusts and other entities as more specifically set forth below. Those trusts have since invested in real estate, also as more particularly set forth below.

26. Throughout 2009, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN continued to make false statements to STANSBURY to hide the fact that they had looted the corporations for their own personal benefit by withdrawing millions in 2008 and 2009, all to the financial detriment of STANSBURY. The BERNSTEINS represented that the money was not being paid as salary or distributions because the funds needed to be held in the corporate bank accounts to show to potential lenders the financial stability of the company.

27. STANSBURY relied upon these continuing representations of Defendants to his detriment. Because STANSBURY was told that potential funding sources for the business needed to see that capital of the company was available, he took no action when he did not receive any compensation for 2009 and paid only $30,000 in 2010.

28. STANSBURY believes that some or all of the funds to which he was entitled and/or assets attributable to such funds were placed into certain entities, including but not limited to BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC and SHIRLEY'S TRUST. For example, based on information and belief, some or all of the funds to which STANSBURY was entitled were invested in certain parcels of real property, which parcels were conveyed to the trustee of SHIRLEY'S TRUST on or about May 20, 2008, including but not limited to a 4,220 square foot oceanfront condominium unit in a complex known as "The ARAGON" in Boca Raton, located at 2494 So. Ocean Boulevard, Boca Raton, Florida and a mansion in St. Andrew's Country Club located at 7020 Lions Head Lane, Boca Raton, Florida.

29. In order to continue their scheme to defraud, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN failed and refused to account for renewal commissions and failed to supply any financial information to STANSBURY concerning LIC Holdings, Inc. or ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC.

30. In furtherance of their scheme to deprive STANSBURY of salary he had earned and shareholder distributions to which he was entitled, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN intercepted mail addressed to STANSBURY, removing commission checks representing commissions due to STANSBURY, deposited the funds into their own accounts and otherwise converted the funds. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN also opened STANSBURY's mail containing checks payable to him which were unrelated to them and the businesses.

31. In 2011, the Defendants BERNSTEIN decided to deceive STANSBURY further. STANSBURY had for years been given K-1 statements reflecting his 10% ownership of LIC Holdings. At the end of 2011, TED BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that the company accountant had discovered a taxable event which could cause STANSBURY, as an owner of LIC Holdings to pay taxes on phantom income. TED BERNSTEIN promised that if STANSBURY would sign a paper ceding his 10% interest in LIC Holdings, he would not have to pay the tax. TED BERNSTEIN promised he would hold the paper, promising it would not become operative until STANSBURY and the Defendants BERNSTEIN discussed the situation further in the first quarter of 2012.

32. Because of the misrepresentations, willful concealments of material facts, duplicity and deceit practiced by Defendants upon STANSBURY, STANSBURY reasonably believed that Defendants had complied, or intended to comply with their obligations to STANSBURY under the contract between them. STANSBURY, therefore, was prevented from knowing for a period of years that the causes of action ASSERTED HEREIN existed.

33. By the second quarter of 2012, STANSBURY developed the belief that the BERNSTEINS' representations over the years were wholly false and he sought legal counsel.

34. STANSBURY has retained the law firm of Peter M. Feaman, P.A. and has agreed to pay it a reasonable fee for its services rendered herein.

COUNT I - ACCOUNTING
(Against LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, for Accounting)

35. STANSBURY hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

36. The relationship between STANSBURY and the Defendants, particularly as affected by Defendants' acts described in preceding paragraphs 19 through 27 created a situation where Defendants had sole access to receipts generated by STANSBURY's efforts, and to books and records reflecting said receipts and the other information from which can be calculated all moneys due to STANSBURY under his arrangement with Defendants.

37. The period of time during which STANSBURY has been deprived of monies due him spans approximately four and a half years. The various sources of revenue to Defendants of monies from which the amounts due STANSBURY may be calculated, the manner in which STANSBURY was to be paid, and the amount due STANSBURY all involve extensive and complicated accounts, and STANSBURY's remedy at law cannot be as full, adequate and expeditious as it is in equity.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff STANSBURY prays for an adjudication of Plaintiff's right to a full and complete accounting from Defendants, LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, and for such orders of Court as will require such Defendants to provide STANSBURY with all records and copies of documents from January 1, 2006 to the present, in order to reveal his right to, and the amount of all sums: (a) received as commissions to which STANSBURY was entitled to a share; (b) due to STANSBURY, whether paid or not; (c) paid to STANSBURY, whether for commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason; (d) paid to each of the BERNSTEIN Defendants out of monies received as commissions; (e) deposits of any and all moneys received as commissions by any Defendants to any accounts, including the name of the entity whose account was involved, the number(s) of each such account; the address of the branch or other facility through which any Defendant dealt with such entity; (f) calculations as to moneys paid , to be paid, or not to be paid to STANSBURY, together with an award of court costs and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

II. BREACH OF ORAL CONTRACT
(Against LIC Holdings, Inc. and Arbitrage International Management, LLC)

38. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

39. The arrangement between STANSBURY and Defendants as described in paragraphs 16 and 24 above, constituted a contract between them.

40. An express term of that contract involved the commitment of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to calculate and to pay to STANSBURY all sums due to him under the contract, whether as commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason.

41. The Defendants initially performed the duties required of them under said contract.

42. However, Defendants breached their contract with STANSBURY by withholding from STANSBURY monies due him under the contract.

43. The withholding of such monies constitutes a material breach of the contract between STANSBURY and LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

44. There is due to STANSBURY from such Defendants all amounts due under said contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, LIC Holdings, Inc. and ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, jointly and severally, in excess of $1,500,000.00 for the amounts due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest, court costs and such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

III. BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY
(Against SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN ["BERNSTEINS"])

45. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

46. At all material times hereto, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN were officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

47. As shareholders and officers of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN did have and have a fiduciary duty to STANSBURY to act in good faith towards STANSBURY and to act in the best interests of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

48. At all material times hereto, STANSBURY was and is a shareholder of LIC Holdings.

49. STANSBURY reposed trust and confidence in SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN as a result of their position as majority shareholders and officers of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

50. Further, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN held positions of advantage and control over STANSBURY, not only by virtue of their majority shareholder status, but by having access to the accounting books and records of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, to the exclusion of STANSBURY.

51. STANSBURY reasonably believed that the BERNSTEIN Defendants would deal with STANSBURY honestly and fairly and believed that such Defendants had no intention of hiding from STANSBURY any information as to the amounts due STANSBURY or payment of the money due to STANSBURY.

52. Moreover, when Defendants proposed to STANSBURY that STANSBURY cease being the one to calculate monies due from the commissions received, STANSBURY trusted the BERNSTEINS to make proper, accurate and complete calculations just as STANSBURY had done and to pay STANSBURY accordingly. As majority shareholders and directors of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, the BERNSTEINS were in a superior position of knowledge and control concerning the finances and affairs of those companies.

53. As a result of the foregoing, a fiduciary relationship existed between the BERNSTEINS and STANSBURY and there existed in STANSBURY complete trust in the BERNSTEIN Defendants.

54. The BERNSTEIN Defendants accepted the trust which STANSBURY reasonably placed in them.

55. The BERNSTEIN Defendants breached their fiduciary duty to STANSBURY by repeated conduct of self-dealing and violations of corporate protocol, including:

a) directing LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to make payments to third parties not employed by the corporations and who had performed no services on behalf of the corporations for the personal benefit of the BERNSTEINS;

b) directing the corporations to pay for personal expenses of the wives and other friends of the BERNSTEIN Defendants through corporate credit cards and other forms of payment, notwithstanding that they provided no services for the corporations;

c) transferring monies from LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to third party entities including the BERNSTEIN Defendants, the BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC and the

SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT for the benefit of the BERNSTEINS, personally;

d) paying themselves exorbitant compensation to the exclusion of STANSBURY;

e) treating LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE as alter egos of themselves and otherwise handling the affairs of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE without regard to corporate protocol;

f) failing to convene annual meetings of the stockholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, in violation of Florida law;

g) committing corporate waste by unnecessarily expending corporate assets on unrelated corporate activities;

h) failing to account for the revenue and expenses of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to STANSBURY, who was entitled to compensation as an employee and as a minority shareholder;

i) directing LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to take actions to reduce the profit of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE so as to prevent STANSBURY from earning his just compensation, in violation of prior agreement of the parties.

56. SIMON BERNSTEIN further breached his fiduciary duty owed to STANSBURY as a minority shareholder by neglecting to perform his duties as an officer and director in a prudent and reasonable fashion.

57. Through Defendants BERNSTEINS' willful misrepresentations and withholding of material information as to their intentions and the purposes for which STANSBURY's payments were not being paid, and through their diversion from STANSBURY of amounts which should have been paid to him, such Defendants abused and betrayed STANSBURY's trust and confidence in them to STANSBURY's great detriment. STANSBURY has been deprived of the amounts due him, the precise amount of which cannot be calculated without access to Defendants' books and records and a full accounting by them.

58. The monetary damages suffered by STANSBURY as a result of the foregoing conduct was suffered by STANSBURY individually and not to the corporation LIC Holdings as a whole, because the conduct as described above prevented STANSBURY from obtaining the benefits of the bargain of his oral agreement with the corporations as more particularly described in Count II above.

59. The foregoing conduct by the BERNSTEINS was done with gross and intentional disregard of the rights of STANSBURY as an employee and minority shareholder of LIC Holdings.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, for damages in excess of $1,500,000.00 together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest, court costs and such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper. STANSBURY reserves the right to move to amend to request punitive damages in accordance with Florida Law.

IV. CIVIL THEFT
(Against ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MARKETING, LLC)

60. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

61. This is an action for Civil Theft under Chapter 772, Florida Statutes, more specifically §772.11, Fla.Stat.

62. In February, 2012 and March, 2012, Defendant ARBITRAGE intercepted two separate checks made payable to William STANSBURY intended as payment to STANSBURY for matters arising wholly outside his business transactions with the BERNSTEINS, LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

63. Notwithstanding that the checks made payable to William STANSBURY was for sums due STANSBURY by a third party not in connection with the aforesaid business transactions, ARBITRAGE and/or someone acting on its behalf, caused the negotiation of STANSBURY's checks, wrongfully endorsing the checks and retaining the sums that should have been payable to STANSBURY.

64. As a result of the foregoing, Defendant ARBITRAGE has been guilty of criminal theft by conversion with the criminal intent to steal his money and deprive STANSBURY of his possession and use thereof.

65. Written demand for payment of all amounts due STANSBURY has been made to Defendants, more than 30 days preceding the filing of this Complaint, to no avail. A copy of the demand letter is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendant, ARBITRAGE for three times the full amount of the check made payable to STANSBURY, together with pre-judgment interest and post-judgment interest, attorneys' fees, court costs and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

V. CONVERSION

66. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 60 through 65, inclusive.

67. Further, during 2012, Defendants TED BERNSTEIN, SIMON BERNSTEIN, LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE, or someone acting on their behalves, received and cashed in excess of $30,000.00 worth of commissions checks otherwise payable to Plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment for damages against Defendant, ABRITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN, LIC Holdings, Inc. and TED BERNSTEIN, together with pre-judgment interest and post-judgment interest, court costs and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

VI. FRAUD IN THE INDUCEMENT
(Against Ted Bernstein and LIC Holdings, Inc.)

68. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

69. In the fourth quarter of 2011, TED BERNSTEIN embarked upon a plan to defraud from STANSBURY his 10% ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc. As set forth in paragraph 31 above Defendant TED BERNSTEIN fraudulently induced STANSBURY to sign a document giving up his 10% interest in and to LIC Holdings, Inc.

70. The ceding of his shares in LIC Holdings, Inc. was procured by fraud and STANSBURY relied upon the representations made by BERNSTEIN with regard to signing the document apparently ceding his stock.

71. It was reasonable for STANSBURY to rely on the representations made by BERNSTEIN because at that time STANSBURY was unaware of the breaches of fiduciary duty and breaches of the oral contract that had taken place.

72. As a result of STANSBURY's reliance, STANSBURY has been damaged by the loss of 10% of the shares of LIC Holdings and the rights and remedies to a shareholder related thereto.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for a judgment for damages against Defendants BERNSTEIN and LIC Holdings, Inc. for the damages caused by the fraudulent conduct of BERNSTEIN as described herein, together with reasonable costs, pre-judgment interest and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

VII. EQUITABLE LIEN

73. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, paragraphs 1 through 34, above.

74. Defendants, SIMON BERNSTEIN and/or TED BERNSTEIN wrongfully diverted funds from LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE that rightfully should have been paid to STANSBURY pursuant to their oral agreement.

75. Upon information and belief, SIMON BERNSTEIN and/or TED BERNSTEIN, or both, wrongfully diverted funds from LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE and acquired and/or maintained or improved property located at 7020 Lion's Head Lane, Boca Raton, Florida, legally described as

> Lot 781, St. Andrews Country Club (a PUD) Plat No. 14 according to the plat thereof recorded in Plat Book 57, Page 132 of the public records of Palm Beach County, Florida.

76. Further, upon information and belief, as a result of the funds being wrongfully diverted from LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE, which otherwise rightfully belonged to and should have been paid to STANSBURY, the property legally described as

> Lot 68, Block G Boca Madeira, Unit 2 according to the plat thereof recorded in Plat Book 32, Pages 59 and 60 of the public records of Palm Beach County, Florida, with a property address of 2753 NW 34 Street, Boca Raton, Florida, was encumbered with a mortgage representing wrongfully diverted funds which were loaned in the form of a second mortgage to Defendant, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC, a Florida limited liability company.

77. Upon information and belief, as a result of the funds being wrongfully diverted from LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE which otherwise should have been paid to STANSBURY, such funds were used to satisfy a mortgage for the benefit of TED BERNSTEIN on property legally described as

Lot 139, Saturnia Isles, Plat One, recorded in Plat Book 91 at Page 108 of the property records of Palm Beach County, Florida, with a property address of 15807 Menton Bay Court, Delray Beach, Florida

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the Court to declare and establish an equitable lien in favor of Plaintiff in an amount equal to the funds wrongfully diverted, on the property described herein, and on all other assets of Defendants or third parties as yet unknown, which assets have been purchased wholly or in part, improved or benefitted by the diverted funds due Plaintiff, together with court costs and such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

VIII. CONSTRUCTIVE TRUST

78. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 73 through 77 above.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the Court to declare and establish a constructive trust in favor of Plaintiff on the property described in paragraphs 75 through 77 in an amount equal to the funds wrongfully diverted and on all assets of Defendants or third parties as yet unknown, which assets have been purchased wholly or partly, improved or mortgaged by the diversion of said funds due Plaintiff. Plaintiff further prays for an award of court costs and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

IX. VIOLATION OF FLA. STAT. 607.1602
(As to Defendant, LIC Holdings, Inc.)

79. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, paragraphs 1 through 34, above.

80. STANSBURY owns 10% of the issued and outstanding shares of LIC Holdings and has owned these shares since 2006.

82. Section 607.1604(2) Fla. Stat. (2012) states:

> If a corporation does not, within a reasonable time, allow a shareholder to inspect and copy any other record, the shareholder who complies with §607.1602(2) and (3) may apply to the Circuit Court in the county where the corporation's principal office is located for an order to permit inspection and copying of the records demanded.

83. Section 607.1604 Fla. Stat. (2012) requires that the court dispose of an application brought under this section "on an expedited basis."

84. Pursuant to §607.1604(2) Fla. Stat. (2012), Plaintiff requests that this court summarily order inspection and copying of the record previously demanded at the corporation's expense.

85. Pursuant to §607.1604(3) Fla. Stat. (2012), STANSBURY is entitled to an award of his costs including reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in order to obtain the order and enforce his rights unless the corporation or its officers, director or agent proves that the refusal of the inspection is made in good faith because the corporation had a reasonable basis for doubt about the right of the shareholder to inspect or copy the records demanded.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, WILLIAM E. STANSBURY requests this Honorable Court to summarily order inspection and copying of the records of LIC Holdings, Inc. previously demanded, at the corporation's expense, together with an award of reasonable costs and attorneys' fees incurred herein.

Re: William (Bill) Stansbury

Dear Mr. Bernstein:

The undersigned represents William (Bill) Stansbury and we are writing this letter on his behalf. Mr. Stansbury received your proposed letter agreement reflecting LIC Holdings' proposal to indemnify its shareholders concerning policies sold under the Cambridge Financing Program. As a result of your proposal, Mr. Stansbury has reviewed with me in detail his dealings with you and your companies over the past 4 to 5 years.

After reviewing the facts with Mr. Stansbury, some of which will be summarized below, I was shocked that he had not consulted legal counsel until now. Be that as it may, and based upon the facts presented to us, we believe you have engaged in fraud, civil theft, breaches of fiduciary duties, and breach of contract, just to name a few. The purpose of this letter is to a). respond to your indemnity proposal and b). request that you pass this letter on to your counsel immediately in the off-chance that these very serious matters can be resolved prior to the filing of legal action. The issues can be summarized as follows:

1. The first issue concerns you and your company's failure to pay salary compensation to Mr. Stansbury. Mr. Stansbury has been making inquiries concerning this for the past 5 months, but to no avail. Mr. Stansbury's claim for unpaid salary arises from three categories:

EXHIBIT A

a. Failure to pay salary based on net retained commissions.

i. Based upon reports prepared by your company for the period of 2007 through 2011, LIC Holdings, Inc. and/or Arbitrage International Holdings, n/k/a Arbitrage International Management, LLC, received $35,384,246.00 in net retained commissions. According to Mr. Stansbury's salary arrangement, he is entitled to 15% of those net retained commissions, which amounts to $5,307,636.90. During this time period, Mr. Stansbury's salary compensation was $2,844,910.00. The shortfall in salary owed to Mr. Stansbury is $2,462,726.90.

ii. There is salary compensation owed to Mr. Stansbury as a result of bridge loans in 2008. You received a $2,000,000.00 settlement in 2010 resulting from the resolution of a lawsuit involving Global Secured Capital. Mr. Stansbury is entitled to 15% of those funds, which is $300,000.00.

iii. In addition, you received $507,891.00 in commissions in connection with the Biviano matter. Mr. Stansbury is entitled to 15% of those funds, which is $76,183.65.

iv. In April of 2012, you received three commissions totaling approximately $200,000.00 in the Levine, Wiss and Berley matters. Mr. Stansbury has been requesting payment of this for weeks, again to no avail. Mr. Stansbury is due salary compensation for these items in the amount of $30,000.00.

Therefore, Mr. Stansbury's total claim for salary arising out of net retained commissions is approximately $2,868,910.55.

The liability for payment of this salary is not limited to LIC Holdings, Inc. or Arbitrage International Management, LLC. This liability also flows to you individually as a result of your breaches of your fiduciary duty owed to Mr. Stansbury and utter failure to abide by corporate governance standards, which conduct is more particularly described below.

b. Mr. Stansbury is also due unpaid salary based on 15% of all renewal commissions since 2008. Mr. Stansbury's salary claim for renewal commissions cannot as yet be determined with specificity due to the fact that you and your office have been opening mail directed to Mr. Stansbury and negotiating checks made payable to him by falsifying his endorsement and depositing those checks into accounts which only you control. This conduct constitutes civil theft and breach of fiduciary duty. We believe this claim amounts to hundreds of thousands of dollars.

c. Salary compensation for 2008. Mr. Stansbury has recently learned that you and Mr. Simon Bernstein received $8,982,124.00 in salary in 2008. By contrast, Mr. Stansbury received $420,018.00, paid to him in January 2008, based on policies sold in 2007. He received zero (no salary compensation) for his 2008 production. It is obvious that you and Simon treated your corporations as personal ATM machines, while completely ignoring your fiduciary responsibilities to your employee and minority shareholder, Mr. Stansbury. It further appears that after the exorbitant salaries were paid to you, you then loaned the money back to the corporation at an interest rate significantly above market rates in order to meet the cash flow needs of the various entities, again, clearly disregarding your corporate governance responsibilities.

2. Indemnification issues.

Mr. Stansbury has been served with three lawsuits from Phoenix Insurance Company and one from Mr. Wright seeking indemnification as a result of agent misconduct which was in no way attributable to the conduct of Mr. Stansbury. Although all of these matters have been settled, because he was the qualifying agent of record for other policies, he could be the subject of future litigation for refunds of commissions paid. All of these commissions were paid over to you or your companies.

The Indemnification Agreement which you sent to Mr. Stansbury is completely insufficient. You have a duty as a matter of law to indemnify Mr. Stansbury. Your offer of future indemnity is contingent upon "all" commissions that have been received by LIC's present or past shareholders be turned over to LIC. This is nothing short of extortion. Further, your second paragraph states that LIC is "presently insolvent" and has a "negative net worth." You then conclude with the sentence that with the indemnification agreement in place, LIC "may" have sufficient funds to meet its current obligations. Therefore, a simple indemnification from LIC Holdings to Mr. Stansbury is insufficient. Any such indemnification would have to be personally guaranteed by you and Mr. Simon Bernstein.

3. Unauthorized interception of U.S. Mail.

I have been given the understanding that your office has been opening mail directed to Mr. Stansbury personally. This is a federal offense and also constitutes a breach of the fiduciary duty you owe to Mr. Stansbury as an employee and minority shareholder.

There has been no accounting to Mr. Stansbury for any of the checks which may have been sent to him personally on which his signature has been forged, the checks cashed and placed out of the reach of Mr. Stansbury. In 2012, Mr. Stansbury has been receiving checks from Phoenix Life Insurance Company and TransAmerica Life Insurance Company. Mr. Stansbury has been holding these checks. They have now been remitted to the undersigned as attorney for Mr. Stansbury. This office is holding these funds in a separate interest-bearing trust account pending the resolution of this matter.

With regard to all of the other insurance companies for whom Mr. Stansbury is listed as the qualifying agent, he has now informed those companies that all future renewal commissions paid to him personally be sent to Mr. Stansbury at his home address. These funds will then be remitted to the undersigned counsel of record for Mr. Stansbury. We will place these funds in a separate interest-bearing trust account as well. Any attempts by you to contact these insurance companies will be considered a tortious interference of his business relationship and such activity will be added as a claim in any future legal proceedings.

4. Shareholder status.

Mr. Stansbury has been a 10% shareholder of LIC Holdings, Inc., pursuant to the terms of a Shareholders Agreement. On behalf of Mr. Stansbury, demand is hereby made, pursuant to Florida Statute 607.1602, for inspection of the corporate records including the following:

I. Minutes of the Board of Directors meetings from January 1, 2008 to the present.

II. Minutes of Shareholders' meetings from January 1, 2008 to the present.

III. Records of any actions taken by the Shareholders and/or the Board of Directors without a meeting, from January 1, 2008 to the present.

IV. Accounting and financial records of LIC Holdings, Inc., Arbitrage International Management, LLC, formerly known as Arbitrage International Holdings, LLC, and all other subsidiary or affiliated companies under your control, including, without limitation, income tax returns, general ledgers, balance sheets, profit and loss statements, stock books, bank statements, loan agreements or guarantees, and any other financial books and records from January 1, 2008 to the present.

Mr. Stansbury is seeking to inspect these records in good faith and for the purpose of determining if misappropriation of corporate assets for improper purposes has previously taken or is presently taking place.

I have been made aware of a letter dated December 22, 2011 in which Mr. Stansbury purportedly "ceded" his shares of stock in LIC Holdings, Inc. back to the company. This letter was obtained under false pretenses and is not recognized by Mr. Stansbury as validly conveying his ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc.

Please have your legal counsel contact us within ten (10) days. Should we fail to receive a response within that time, Mr. Stansbury will take legal action to protect his rights and interests.

Very truly yours,

PETER M. FEAMAN, P.A.

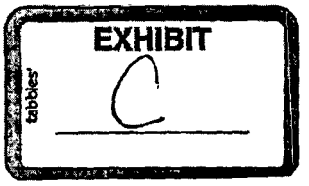
APPEARANCES

On Behalf of the Petitioner:
ELIOT IVAN BERNSTEIN, PRO SE
2753 NW 34th Street
Boca Raton, Florida 33434



MR. MANCERI: That's when the order was signed, yes, your Honor.
THE COURT: He filed it, physically came to court.
MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Oh.
THE COURT: So let me see when he actually filed it and signed the paperwork. November. What date did your dad die?
MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: September. It's hard to get through. He does a lot of things when he's dead.
THE COURT: I have all of these waivers by Simon in November. He tells me Simon was dead at the time.
MR. MANCERI: Simon was dead at the time, your Honor. The waivers that you're talking about are waivers from the beneficiaries, I believe.
THE COURT: No, it's waivers of

MR. MANCERI: Right, by the beneficiaries.
THE COURT: Discharge waiver of service of discharge by Simon, Simon asked that he not have to serve the petition for discharge.
MR. MANCERI: Right, that was in his petition. When was the petition served?
THE COURT: November 21st.
MR. SPALLINA: Yeah, it was after his date of death.
THE COURT: Well, how could that happen legally? How could Simon --
MR. MANCERI: Who signed that?
THE COURT: -- ask to close and not serve a petition after he's dead?
MR. MANCERI: Your Honor, what happened was is the documents were submitted with the waivers originally, and this goes to Mr. Bernstein's fraud allegation. As you know, your Honor, you have a rule that you have to have your waivers notarized. And the original waivers that were submitted were not notarized, so they were kicked back by the clerk. They were then notarized by a staff person from Tescher and Spallina admittedly in error. They should not have been notarized in the absentia of the people who purportedly signed them. And I'll give you the names of the other siblings, that would be Pamela, Lisa, Jill, and Ted Bernstein.

THE COURT: So let me tell you because I'm going to stop all of you folks because I think you need to be read your Miranda warnings.

MR. MANCERI: I need to be read my Miranda warnings?

THE COURT: Everyone of you might have to be.

MR. MANCERI: Okay.

THE COURT: Because I'm looking at a formal document filed here April 9, 2012, signed by Simon Bernstein, a signature for him.

MR. MANCERI: April 9th, right.

THE COURT: April 9th, signed by him, and notarized on that same date by Kimberly. It's a waiver and it's not filed with The Court until November 19th, so the filing of it, and it says to The Court on November 19th, the undersigned, Simon Bernstein, does this, this, and this. Signed and notarized on April 9, 2012. The notary said that she witnessed Simon sign it then, and then for some reason it's not filed with The Court until after his date of death with no notice that he was dead at the time that this was filed.

MR. MANCERI: Okay.

THE COURT: All right, so stop, that's enough to give you Miranda warnings. Not you personally --

MR. MANCERI: Okay.

THE COURT: Are you involved? Just tell me yes or no.

MR. SPALLINA: I'm sorry?

THE COURT: Are you involved in the transaction?

MR. SPALLINA: I was involved as the lawyer for the estate, yes. It did not come to my attention until Kimberly Moran came to me after she received a letter from the Governor's Office stating that they were investigating some fraudulent signatures on some waivers that were signed in connection with the closing of

Important Information About the USA PATRIOT Act

To help fight the funding of terrorism and money-laundering activities, the U.S. government has passed the USA PATRIOT Act, which requires banks, including our processing agent bank, to obtain, verify and record information that identifies persons who engage in certain transactions with or through a bank. This means that we will need to verify the name, residential or street address (no P.O. Boxes), date of birth and social security number or other tax identification number of all account owners.

Dear Bree:

As per our earlier telephone conversation:

- We are unable to locate the Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust dated June 1, 1995, which we have spent much time searching for.
- Mrs. Shirley Bernstein was the initial beneficiary of the 1995 trust, but predeceased Mr. Bernstein.
- The Bernstein children are the secondary beneficiaries of the 1995 trust
- We are submitting the Letters of Administration for the Estate of Simon Bernstein showing that we are the named Personal Representatives of the Estate
- We would like to have the proceeds from the Heritage policy released to our firm's trust account so that we can make distributions amongst the five Bernstein children
- If necessary, we will prepare for Heritage an Agreement and Mutual Release amongst all the children.
- We are enclosing the SS4 signed by Mr. Bernstein in 1995 to obtain the FIN number for the 1995 trust.

If you have any questions with regard to the foregoing, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Spallina/km

We are going to do what is necessary to have the proceeds paid where they were intended to be paid, as quickly as possible now. If you think I am factually incorrect about any of this, please either call me or email me and explain where I may be wrong. It goes without saying, this is not my expertise. I am processing the same information that everyone else is working with and this is how I see it.

Ted

This is my analysis on the Heritage payout thus far. First, I would like to review the insurance policy as well as the official statements respecting investment returns, use of returns to pay premiums and loans taken from the policy. I understand Ted and Pam have the policy, and do not understand why Mr. Spallina thinks it is curious that I also want to review these materials. Second, I understand the expressed concerns that if the proceeds are paid to the estate then the proceeds would be subject to the claims of creditors of the estate. It is my understanding that the "plan" is to have the proceeds payable to a trust to avoid creditor claims; however, I have also been counseled that if a trust is utilized an estate creditor can challenge the trust transaction as a fraudulent conveyance used to avoid the creditor's claim. We have been told that Dad designated his 1995 trust as his beneficiary with Heritage. We were also told that that trust cannot be located. I would also like to review an affidavit that indicates the precise steps that were taken and by whom and with whom to locate the 1995 trust, and I would imagine that Heritage will require the same. Heritage, we were told, is now saying that the proceeds may have to go to the State under the applicable escheat laws, so Mr. Spallina is telling us that if Heritage accepts a new trust with all potential beneficiaries agreeing to the mechanism, that Heritage may pay the proceeds to this new trust and not to the State. I have been told that the reason the law requires a trust document (and not simply statements from someone who claims they saw the trust) is that it demonstrates Dad's desires, and because Dad had the right to change his mind and thus the beneficiaries under the trust, nothing short of the actual 1995 trust document may be sufficient to Heritage. Last, because the 1995 trust document cannot be located, the proceeds should go to the beneficiaries under {Article IV 2j] and [Article III] of Dad's will, which picks up insurance proceeds under failed beneficiary designations. Under Dad's will and trust, these amounts, like the rest of his estate goes to his grandchildren in equal parts. Thus, to the extent it is decided to use a new trust to avoid the escheat laws, the only beneficiaries that may be acceptable to me is the grandchildren. As I stated above, I and my siblings should remain concerned that any estate creditor could challenge the transaction as a fraudulent conveyance. Also, having the 5 children as beneficiaries with each having the right to disclaim in favor of their children (i.e., Dad's grandchildren) is not acceptable for 2 reasons. First, such a scheme is not consistent with Dad's wishes under his will and trust agreement. Whatever Dad may have provided under the 1995 trust is both unknown and not relevant as stated above. The second reason is simple economics. My kids would get a 33% distribution under the proper method, but only 20% under the other scheme.

Ted Bernstein - President

ORDER ON PETITION FOR RESIGNATION AND DISCHARGE

This cause was heard by the Court on the co-Personal Representatives' Petition for Resignation and Discharge on February 18, 2014, and the Court, having heard arguments of counsel, and otherwise being fully advised in the premises, ORDERS AND ADJUDGES AS FOLLOWS:

1. The Petitioners' request to accept their resignation is ACCEPTED. The co-Personal Representatives' Letters of Administration are hereby revoked.

2. Within ____ business days from the later of the date of this order or the appointment of a successor fiduciary, the resigning co-Personal Representatives shall deliver to the successor fiduciary all property of the Estate, real, personal, tangible or intangible, all of the documents and records of the Estate and all records associated with any property of the Estate, regardless of whether such property has been previously distributed, transferred, abandoned or otherwise disposed of.

3. The Petitioners' request to reserve ruling on their discharge is ACCEPTED.

4. The resigning co-Personal Representatives shall file an accounting and a Renewed Petition for Discharge within sixty (60) days after the date hereof, which Renewed Petition for Discharge shall be verified and recite that the letters of administration have been revoked, the resigning co-Personal Representatives have surrendered all undistributed Estate assets, records, documents, papers and other property of or concerning the Estate to the successor fiduciary as set forth above, and the amount of compensation paid or to be paid by the resigning co-Personal Representatives pursuant to Probate Rule 5.430(g). Such accounting shall include cash and transactions from the commencement of administration of the Estate and ending as of the date the accounting is submitted.

5. The resigning co-Personal Representatives shall serve notice of filing and a copy of the accounting and Renewed Petition for Discharge on all interested parties and the notice shall state that the objection to the Renewed Petition for Discharge must be filed within thirty days after the later of service of the petition or service of the accounting on that interested person pursuant to Probate Rule 5.430(i).

6. The successor Personal Representative or Curator is authorized to pay a $_____ retainer to the accountant whom the Successor Personal Representative or Curator selects to provided the accounting which this Order requires. The accountant's hourly rate and compensation shall be subject to court approval.

IN RE: ESTATE OF SIMON L. BERNSTEIN,	PROBATE DIVISION
Deceased.	CASE NO. 502012CP004391XXXXSB
ELIOT IVAN BERNSTEIN, PRO SE	DIVISION: IY (COLIN) Petitioner vs.
TESCHER & SPALLINA, P.A., (and all parties, associates and of counsel); ROBERT L. SPALLINA (both personally and professionally); DONALD R. TESCHER (both personally and professionally); THEODORE STUART BERNSTEIN (as alleged personal representative, trustee, successor trustee) (both personally and professionally); et. al.
Respondents.

PETITION FOR RESIGNATION AND DISCHARGE

1. Donald R. Tescher and Robert L. Spallina are the named co-Personal Representatives under the Last Will and Testament of Simon L. Bernstein admitted to probate on October 2, 2012, with Letters of Administration issued on that same day.

2. As a result of irreconcilable differences with the children and grandchildren of Simon L. Bernstein, it is necessary for the Petitioners to resign, and the Petitioners hereby seek leave to resign pursuant to § 733.502 of the Florida Statutes. The family members have indicated that they are amenable to this voluntary resignation of the co-Personal Representatives.

3. The interests of the estate will not be jeopardized by the resignation of the co - Personal Representatives.

4. The Petitioners will co-operate with the duly appointed successor Personal Representative or court-appointed curator pending appointment of a successor Personal Representative pursuant to § 733.5061 of the Florida Statutes and will immediately make available all relevant documents and materials, subject to retaining such access as necessary to permit the Petitioners to fulfill their accounting obligations under § 733.5061 and § 733.508 of the Florida Statutes.

5. Upon rendering a final accounting and fulfilling their obligations and responsibilities outlined in § 733.502, § 733.5035, § 733.5036, § 733.508, and § 733.509 of the Florida statutes, as well as related Probate Rules, the Petitioners request that this Court discharge the Petitioners as co-Personal Representatives.

WHEREFORE, Petitions request this court issue an Order accepting their resignation as co-Personal Representatives and revoking their Letters of Administration pursuant to § 733.502 of the Florida Statutes, reserving any and all issues as to discharge pending the rendering of their final accounting and the fulfillment of such other responsibilities outlined herein pursuant to the Florida Statutes.

DATED this 22 day of January, 2014.

Respectfully Submitted,
TESCHER & SPALLINA, P.A.

ORDER ON PETITION FOR RESIGNATION AND DISCHARGE

This cause was heard by the Court on the co-Personal Representatives' Petition for Resignation and Discharge on February 18, 2014, and the Court, having heard arguments of counsel, and otherwise being fully advised in the premises, ORDERS AND ADJUDGES AS FOLLOWS:

1. The Petitioners' request to accept their resignation is ACCEPTED. The co-Personal Representatives' Letters of Administration are hereby revoked.

2. Within ____ business days from the later of the date of this order or the appointment of a successor fiduciary, the resigning co-Personal Representatives shall deliver to the successor fiduciary all property of the Estate, real, personal, tangible or intangible, all of the documents and records of the Estate and all records associated with any property of the Estate, regardless of whether such property has been previously distributed, transferred, abandoned or otherwise disposed of.

3. The Petitioners' request to reserve ruling on their discharge is ACCEPTED.

4. The resigning co-Personal Representatives shall file an accounting and a Renewed Petition for Discharge within sixty (60) days after the date hereof, which Renewed Petition for Discharge shall be verified and recite that the letters of administration have been revoked, the resigning co-Personal Representatives have surrendered all undistributed Estate assets, records, documents, papers and other property of or concerning the Estate to the successor fiduciary as set forth above, and the amount of compensation paid or to be paid by the resigning co-Personal Representatives pursuant to Probate Rule 5.430(g). Such accounting shall include cash and transactions from the commencement of administration of the Estate and ending as of the date the accounting is submitted.

5. The resigning co-Personal Representatives shall serve notice of filing and a copy of the accounting and Renewed Petition for Discharge on all interested parties and the notice shall state that the objection to the Renewed Petition for Discharge must be filed within thirty days after the later of service of the petition or service of the accounting on that interested person pursuant to Probate Rule 5.430(i).

6. The successor Personal Representative or Curator is authorized to pay a $_____ retainer to the accountant whom the Successor Personal Representative or Curator selects to provided the accounting which this Order requires. The accountant's hourly rate and compensation shall be subject to court approval.

CASE NO. 502012CP004391XXXXSB

DIVISION: IY (COLIN)

PETITION FOR RESIGNATION AND DISCHARGE

Petitioners, Donald R. Tescher and Robert L. Spallina, as co-Personal Representatives of the Estate of Simon L. Bernstein, hereby file their Petition for Resignation and Discharge and state:

1. Donald R. Tescher and Robert L. Spallina are the named co-Personal Representatives under the Last Will and Testament of Simon L. Bernstein admitted to probate on October 2, 2012, with Letters of Administration issued on that same day.

2. As a result of irreconcilable differences with the children and grandchildren of Simon L. Bernstein, it is necessary for the Petitioners to resign, and the Petitioners hereby seek leave to resign pursuant to § 733.502 of the Florida Statutes. The family members have indicated that they are amenable to this voluntary resignation of the co-Personal Representatives.

3. The interests of the estate will not be jeopardized by the resignation of the co - Personal Representatives.

4. The Petitioners will co-operate with the duly appointed successor Personal Representative or court-appointed curator pending appointment of a successor Personal Representative pursuant to § 733.5061 of the Florida Statutes and will immediately make available all relevant documents and materials, subject to retaining such access as necessary to permit the Petitioners to fulfill their accounting obligations under § 733.5061 and § 733.508 of the Florida Statutes.

5. Upon rendering a final accounting and fulfilling their obligations and responsibilities outlined in § 733.502, § 733.5035, § 733.5036, § 733.508, and § 733.509 of the Florida statutes, as well as related Probate Rules, the Petitioners request that this Court discharge the Petitioners as co-Personal Representatives.

WHEREFORE, Petitions request this court issue an Order accepting their resignation as co-Personal Representatives and revoking their Letters of Administration pursuant to § 733.502 of the Florida Statutes, reserving any and all issues as to discharge pending the rendering of their final accounting and the fulfillment of such other responsibilities outlined herein pursuant to the Florida Statutes.

DATED this 22 day of January, 2014.

COME NOW, Robert L. Spallina, Esq., and Tescher & Spallina, P.A., pursuant to Rule 2.505 of the Florida Rules of Judicial Administration, hereby file this Motion to Withdraw as Counsel and, in support thereof, state as follows:

1. Tescher & Spallina, P.A., was retained by Robert L. Spallina and Donald R. Tescher as co-Personal Representatives (hereinafter, the "Client") to represent them in these proceedings.

2. Irreconcilable differences have arisen which prevent the continued representation of the Estate and the Bernstein family.

4. The mailing address, e-mail address and telephone number of the Client are as follows:

Mailing Address: 4855 Technology Way, Suite 720
Boca Raton, Florida 33431

E-Mail Address: Robert L. Spallina – rspallina@tescherspallina.com
Donald R. Tescher – dtescher@tescherspallina.com

Telephone Number: (561) 997-7008

WHEREFORE, Tescher & Spallina, P.A., Robert L. Spallina, Esq., and Donald R. Tescher, Esq., hereby respectfully request that this Honorable Court enter an Order consistent with the relief requested herein allowing TESCHER & SPALLINA, P.A. and ROBERT L. SPALLINA, ESQ. to withdraw and any other relief this Honorable Court deems just, equitable and proper.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that a true and correct copy of the foregoing has been furnished by e-mail and U.S. Mail to the designated parties on the attached Service List, this 11 day of February 2014.

Respectfully Submitted,

TESCHER & SPALLINA, P.A.

ORDER ON PETITION FOR RESIGNATION AND DISCHARGE

This cause was heard by the Court on the co-Personal Representatives' Petition for Resignation and Discharge on February 18, 2014, and the Court, having heard arguments of counsel, and otherwise being fully advised in the premises, ORDERS AND ADJUDGES AS FOLLOWS:

1. The Petitioners' request to accept their resignation is ACCEPTED. The co-Personal Representatives' Letters of Administration are hereby revoked.

2. ~~Within [redacted] days from the later of the date of this order or the appointment of a successor fiduciary,~~ BY MARCH 4, 2014 the resigning co-Personal Representatives shall deliver to the successor fiduciary all property of the Estate, real, personal, tangible or intangible, all of the documents and records of the Estate and all records associated with any property of the Estate, regardless of whether such property has been previously distributed, transferred, abandoned or otherwise disposed of.

3. The Petitioners' request to reserve ruling on their discharge is ACCEPTED.

4. The resigning co-Personal Representatives shall file an accounting and a Renewed Petition for Discharge within sixty (60) days after the date hereof, which Renewed Petition for Discharge shall be verified and recite that the letters of administration have been revoked, the resigning co-Personal Representatives have surrendered all undistributed Estate assets, records, documents, papers and other property of or concerning the Estate to the successor fiduciary as set forth above, and the amount of compensation paid or to be paid by the resigning co-Personal Representatives pursuant to Probate Rule 5.430(g). Such accounting shall include cash and transactions from the commencement of administration of the Estate and ending as of the date the accounting is submitted.

5. The resigning co-Personal Representatives shall serve notice of filing and a copy of the accounting and Renewed Petition for Discharge on all interested parties and the notice shall state that the objection to the Renewed Petition for Discharge must be filed within thirty days after the later of service of the petition or service of the accounting on that interested person pursuant to Probate Rule 5.430(i).

6. The successor Personal Representative or Curator is authorized to pay a $_____ retainer to the accountant whom the Successor Personal Representative or Curator selects to provided the accounting which this Order requires. The accountant's hourly rate and compensation shall be subject to court approval.

ORDER ON PETITION FOR RESIGNATION AND DISCHARGE

This cause was heard by the Court on the co-Personal Representatives' Petition for Resignation and Discharge on February 18, 2014, and the Court, having heard arguments of counsel, and otherwise being fully advised in the premises, ORDERS AND ADJUDGES AS FOLLOWS:

1. The Petitioners' request to accept their resignation is ACCEPTED. The co-Personal Representatives' Letters of Administration are hereby revoked.

2. Within ____ business days from the later of the date of this order or the appointment of a successor fiduciary, the resigning co-Personal Representatives shall deliver to the successor fiduciary all property of the Estate, real, personal, tangible or intangible, all of the documents and records of the Estate and all records associated with any property of the Estate, regardless of whether such property has been previously distributed, transferred, abandoned or otherwise disposed of.

3. The Petitioners' request to reserve ruling on their discharge is ACCEPTED.

4. The resigning co-Personal Representatives shall file an accounting and a Renewed Petition for Discharge within sixty (60) days after the date hereof, which Renewed Petition for Discharge shall be verified and recite that the letters of administration have been revoked, the resigning co-Personal Representatives have surrendered all undistributed Estate assets, records, documents, papers and other property of or concerning the Estate to the successor fiduciary as set forth above, and the amount of compensation paid or to be paid by the resigning co-Personal Representatives pursuant to Probate Rule 5.430(g). Such accounting shall include cash and transactions from the commencement of administration of the Estate and ending as of the date the accounting is submitted.

5. The resigning co-Personal Representatives shall serve notice of filing and a copy of the accounting and Renewed Petition for Discharge on all interested parties and the notice shall state that the objection to the Renewed Petition for Discharge must be filed within thirty days after the later of service of the petition or service of the accounting on that interested person pursuant to Probate Rule 5.430(i).

6. The successor Personal Representative or Curator is authorized to pay a $_____ retainer to the accountant whom the Successor Personal Representative or Curator selects to provided the accounting which this Order requires. The accountant's hourly rate and compensation shall be subject to court approval.

DONE AND ORDERED in Delray Beach, Florida, this _____ day of _____, 2014.

IN RE:

ESTATE OF SIMON L. BERNSTEIN,

_____/

MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF CURATOR OR ADMINISTRATOR AD LITEM

COMES NOW Ted S. Bernstein, pursuant to Fla. Prob. R. 5.120, 5.122 and Fla. Stat. §733.501 by and through counsel, and moves this Court to appoint a curator or an administrator ad litem and states that at all times relevant:

1. This motion is for the appointment of an estate fiduciary for the limited purposes of administering the estate until this Court appoints a successor personal representative since the Co-Personal Representatives have resigned. It seeks to have the moving party appointed as such.

2. There is pending litigation which the estate is involved in as well as assets to marshal.

3. It is necessary that the estate be represented.

4.The Decedent, Simon Bernstein, formerly resided at 7020 Lion's Head Lane, Boca Raton, Palm Beach County, Florida, 33496, died on or about September 13, 2012, in Palm Beach County, Florida where venue is proper. His last will was admitted on or about October 2, 2012.

5. Decedent left surviving the following persons as next of kin:

Name	Address	Relationship to Decedent	Age of Minor

Ted S. Bernstein	880 Berkeley Street Boca Raton, FL 33487	Son
Pamela Beth Simon	950 N. Michigan Avenue Apartment 2603 Chicago, IL 60611	Daughter
Eliot Bernstein	2753 NW 34th Street Boca Raton, FL 33434	Son
Jill Iantoni	2101 Magnolia Lane Highland Park, IL 60035	Daughter
Lisa Friedstein	2142 Churchill Lane Highland Park, IL 60035	Daughter

6. Co-Personal Representatives Robert L. Spallina and Donald R. Tescher, were entitled to and granted Letters of Administration on or about October 2, 2012, and have petitioned to resign from that role on or about January 16, 2014, without completing the administration of the estate.

7. The nature and approximate value of the assets of the estate is believed to be a promissory note and investments in excess of $ 100,000.

8. The moving party is the most qualified to act and has personal knowledge of the Decedent's assets and the litigation which the estate is involved in. He is also the trustee of the Decedent's revocable trust, which is now irrevocable.

WHEREFORE, the moving party prays that he be appointed curator or administrator ad litem, that he be granted letters or authority, and that this Court provide such further relief as may be just and proper.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA.

CASE NO. 502012CP004391XXXXSB
CP - Probate

IN RE:

ESTATE OF SIMON L. BERNSTEIN,

_____/

Petitioner, Ted S. Bernstein, alleges:

1. Simon L. Bernstein, who formerly resided at 7020 Lion's Head Lane, Boca Raton, Palm Beach County, Florida, 33496, died on or about September 13, 2012, in Palm Beach County, Florida. His last will was admitted on or about October 2, 2012.

2. Decedent left surviving the following persons as next of kin:

Name	Address	Relationship to Decedent	Age of Minor
Ted S. Bernstein	880 Berkeley Street Boca Raton, FL 33487	Son
Pamela Beth Simon	950 N. Michigan Avenue Apartment 2603 Chicago, IL 60611	Daughter
Eliot Bernstein	2753 NW 34th Street Boca Raton, FL 33434	Son
Jill Iantoni	2101 Magnolia Lane Highland Park, IL 60035	Daughter

Lisa Friedstein	2142 Churchill Lane Highland Park, IL 60035	Daughter

3. Co-Personal Representatives Robert L. Spallina and Donald R. Tescher, were granted Letters of Administration on or about October 2, 2012, and have petitioned to resign from that role on or about January 16, 2014, without completing the administration of the estate.

4. Pursuant to Florida Probate Rule 5.430(d) and Fla. Stat. § 733.503, the court must appoint a successor personal representative upon the resignation of a personal representative.

5. A successor Personal Representative is necessary to marshall the assets and to participate in pending litigation. Petitioner requests, and is duly qualified, to be appointed as successor personal representative of the estate of decedent. Petitioner is sui juris and is a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida, and has an interest in this Estate as the Decedent's son and as trustee of the Decedent's Revocable Trust. Petitioner is best qualified to serve as successor personal representative. He already serves in a fiduciary capacity as the Successor Personal Representative of the Estate of Shirley Bernstein, which is pending in the same division of this Court. Shirley is the decedent's predeceased spouse, and the Estates were transferred to this Division because there are common and overlapping issues. In addition, Petitioner serves as the Successor Trustee of the Shirley Bernstein Trust, and has been appointed to and has accepted the appointment to serve as Successor Trustee of the Simon Bernstein Trust, into which the Estate's assets pour over. There is no successor personal representative nominated in the will, and it is believed that the Petitioner will have the support of a majority in interest of the person's entitled to the Estate.

6. Petitioner is the most qualified candidate to serve in the role of personal representative for this estate. Because Petitioner already currently serves as Successor PR for Shirley's Estate and as the Successor Trustee of both Trusts (the Shirley Bernstein Trust and the Simon Bernstein Trust), Petitioner already employs counsel and believes that there will be costs efficiencies served by the same lawyers handling both Estates. Also, Petitioner is actively involved in litigation in which claims are asserted against these Trusts and the Estate, and has familiarity with each of the lawsuits in which the estate is involved.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that upon the resignation of the current Co-Personal Representatives, this Court revoke prior Letters of Administration and rescind any orders of appointment, and that Petitioner be appointed successor personal representative.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

TED BERNSTEIN

IN RE:

ESTATE OF SIMON L. BERNSTEIN,

_____/

MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF CURATOR OR ADMINISTRATOR AD LITEM

COMES NOW Ted S. Bernstein, pursuant to Fla. Prob. R. 5.120, 5.122 and Fla. Stat. §733.501 by and through counsel, and moves this Court to appoint a curator or an administrator ad litem and states that at all times relevant:

1. This motion is for the appointment of an estate fiduciary for the limited purposes of administering the estate until this Court appoints a successor personal representative since the Co-Personal Representatives have resigned. It seeks to have the moving party appointed as such.

2. There is pending litigation which the estate is involved in as well as assets to marshal.

3. It is necessary that the estate be represented.

4.The Decedent, Simon Bernstein, formerly resided at 7020 Lion's Head Lane, Boca Raton, Palm Beach County, Florida, 33496, died on or about September 13, 2012, in Palm Beach County, Florida where venue is proper. His last will was admitted on or about October 2, 2012.

5. Decedent left surviving the following persons as next of kin:

Name	Address	Relationship to Decedent	Age of Minor

Ted S. Bernstein	880 Berkeley Street Boca Raton, FL 33487	Son
Pamela Beth Simon	950 N. Michigan Avenue Apartment 2603 Chicago, IL 60611	Daughter
Eliot Bernstein	2753 NW 34th Street Boca Raton, FL 33434	Son
Jill Iantoni	2101 Magnolia Lane Highland Park, IL 60035	Daughter
Lisa Friedstein	2142 Churchill Lane Highland Park, IL 60035	Daughter

6. Co-Personal Representatives Robert L. Spallina and Donald R. Tescher, were entitled to and granted Letters of Administration on or about October 2, 2012, and have petitioned to resign from that role on or about January 16, 2014, without completing the administration of the estate.

7. The nature and approximate value of the assets of the estate is believed to be a promissory note and investments in excess of $ 100,000.

8. The moving party is the most qualified to act and has personal knowledge of the Decedent's assets and the litigation which the estate is involved in. He is also the trustee of the Decedent's revocable trust, which is now irrevocable.

WHEREFORE, the moving party prays that he be appointed curator or administrator ad litem, that he be granted letters or authority, and that this Court provide such further relief as may be just and proper.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

CASE NO. 502012CP004391XXXXSB

IN RE:

ESTATE OF SIMON L. BERNSTEIN,

_____/

Petitioner, Ted S. Bernstein, alleges:

1. Simon L. Bernstein, who formerly resided at 7020 Lion's Head Lane, Boca Raton, Palm Beach County, Florida, 33496, died on or about September 13, 2012, in Palm Beach County, Florida. His last will was admitted on or about October 2, 2012.

2. Decedent left surviving the following persons as next of kin:

Name	Address	Relationship to Decedent	Age of Minor
Ted S. Bernstein	880 Berkeley Street Boca Raton, FL 33487	Son
Pamela Beth Simon	950 N. Michigan Avenue Apartment 2603 Chicago, IL 60611	Daughter
Eliot Bernstein	2753 NW 34th Street Boca Raton, FL 33434	Son
Jill Iantoni	2101 Magnolia Lane Highland Park, IL 60035	Daughter

Lisa Friedstein	2142 Churchill Lane Highland Park, IL 60035	Daughter

3. Co-Personal Representatives Robert L. Spallina and Donald R. Tescher, were granted Letters of Administration on or about October 2, 2012, and have petitioned to resign from that role on or about January 16, 2014, without completing the administration of the estate.

4. Pursuant to Florida Probate Rule 5.430(d) and Fla. Stat. § 733.503, the court must appoint a successor personal representative upon the resignation of a personal representative.

5. A successor Personal Representative is necessary to marshall the assets and to participate in pending litigation. Petitioner requests, and is duly qualified, to be appointed as successor personal representative of the estate of decedent. Petitioner is sui juris and is a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida, and has an interest in this Estate as the Decedent's son and as trustee of the Decedent's Revocable Trust. Petitioner is best qualified to serve as successor personal representative. He already serves in a fiduciary capacity as the Successor Personal Representative of the Estate of Shirley Bernstein, which is pending in the same division of this Court. Shirley is the decedent's predeceased spouse, and the Estates were transferred to this Division because there are common and overlapping issues. In addition, Petitioner serves as the Successor Trustee of the Shirley Bernstein Trust, and has been appointed to and has accepted the appointment to serve as Successor Trustee of the Simon Bernstein Trust, into which the Estate's assets pour over. There is no successor personal representative nominated in the will, and it is believed that the Petitioner will have the support of a majority in interest of the person's entitled to the Estate.

6. Petitioner is the most qualified candidate to serve in the role of personal representative for this estate. Because Petitioner already currently serves as Successor PR for Shirley's Estate and as the Successor Trustee of both Trusts (the Shirley Bernstein Trust and the Simon Bernstein Trust), Petitioner already employs counsel and believes that there will be costs efficiencies served by the same lawyers handling both Estates. Also, Petitioner is actively involved in litigation in which claims are asserted against these Trusts and the Estate, and has familiarity with each of the lawsuits in which the estate is involved.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that upon the resignation of the current Co-Personal Representatives, this Court revoke prior Letters of Administration and rescind any orders of appointment, and that Petitioner be appointed successor personal representative.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

OBJECTION TO MOTIONS TO BE DISCHARGED AS COUNSEL AND/OR PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES AND TRUSTEES IN SIMON AND SHIRLEY ESTATES

COMES NOW, Eliot Ivan Bernstein ("Petitioner"), as Beneficiary and Interested Party both for himself personally and for his three minor children as Guardian and Trustee to the minor children who may also be Beneficiaries and Interested Parties of the Estates and Trusts of Shirley Bernstein ("SHIRLEY") and Simon L. Bernstein ("SIMON"), representing PRO SE[1], and hereby files this his "OBJECTION TO MOTIONS TO BE DISCHARGED AS

[1] Pleadings in this case are being filed by Plaintiff In Propria Persona, wherein pleadings are to be considered without regard to technicalities. Propria, pleadings are not to be held to the same high standards of perfection as practicing lawyers. See Haines v. Kerner 92 Sct 594, also See Power 914 F2d 1459 (11th Cir1990), also See Hulsey v. Ownes 63 F3d 354 (5th Cir 1995). also See In Re: HALL v. BELLMON 935 F.2d 1106 (10th Cir. 1991)."
In Puckett v. Cox, it was held that a pro-se pleading requires less stringent reading than one drafted by a lawyer (456 F2d 233 (1972 Sixth Circuit USCA). Justice Black in Conley v. Gibson, 355 U.S. 41 at 48 (1957)"The Federal Rules rejects the approach that pleading is a game of skill in which one misstep by counsel may be decisive to the outcome and accept the principle that the purpose of pleading is to facilitate a proper decision on the merits." According to Rule 8(f) FRCP and the State Court rule which holds that all pleadings shall be construed to do substantial justice.

COUNSEL AND/OR PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES AND TRUSTEES" dated Friday, February 14, 2014 and in support thereof states, on information and belief, as follows:

BACKGROUND

1. That Donald R. Tescher ("TESCHER"), Robert L. Spallina ("SPALLINA"), and their law firm Tescher & Spallina, P.A. ("TSPA") moved this Court to withdraw as counsel to Theodore Stuart Bernstein ("THEODORE") who is the Personal Representative in the Estate of SHIRLEY. TESCHER and SPALLINA also move this Court to resign as Co- Personal Representatives of the Simon L. Bernstein ("SIMON") Estate and SPALLINA seeks to withdraw as counsel to TESCHER and SPALLINA as Co-Personal Representatives of SIMON'S Estate. These motions are suddenly being made over one and a half years after the Estate probate proceedings were started in the Estate of SIMON and over three years in the Estate of SHIRLEY, after several motions filed by Petitioner to REMOVE them all for CAUSE with PREJUDICE have lied dormant in the Court.
2. That SPALLINA and TESCHER also sought a petition to be discharged by this Court as part of their withdrawal and resignation petitions. Petitioner has previously sought the REMOVAL of SPALLINA and TESCHER as Co-Personal Representatives; thus Petitioner is not interested in having them continue in that role; however, their petitions raise serious concerns about the real reasons and motives for their sudden desire to flee the scene of the crimes.

3. That SPALLINA, TESCHER and their law firm TSPA state their reasons for withdrawal and desire for discharge is suddenly "irreconcilable differences[2]" with THEODORE as to their motion to withdrawal as counsel to THEODORE as Personal Representative of SHIRLEY'S Estate, and suddenly "irreconcilable differences" with the beneficiaries as to their motion to resign as Co-Personal Representatives under SIMON'S estate.
4. That as an initial matter, Petitioner moves this Court to have SPALLINA, TESCHER and their law firm TSPA state with specificity all of the reasons they feel they have "irreconcilable differences" as to the beneficiaries and as to THEODORE. Petitioner also moves to have them state with specificity why it is now, almost a year and half into the probate of SIMON[3] and over three years into SHIRLEY that they for the first time feel they have sudden "irreconcilable differences" that forced their resignation, apparently in attempts to evade the more serious matters discovered in this Court regarding their law firm TSPA filing FORGED and FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED DOCUMENTS to close the Estate of SHIRLEY and filing documents impersonating SIMON POST MORTEM AS THE PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE through further FRAUDULENT ACTIVITIES and other alleged criminal acts and civil torts further discussed herein.

See my letter of 1/14/14 allegations of wrong doing
5. That even if the Court allows SPALLINA, TESCHER and their law firm TSPA at this time to resign and /or withdraw, Petitioner objects to their discharge. A discharge could impede the beneficiaries' rights to relief from each or both of them and their law firm TSPA when

[2] There appears no legal definition of this word other than its use in divorce cases and where the term is not applicable to these matters as a ground for withdrawal of counsel. Black's Law Dictionary "No fault ground for dissolution of marriage under many state divorce statutes, see also irretrievable breakdown of marriage."

[3] The estate was Ordered by Judge David E. French to be closed by October 02, 2013 and no filing for extension has been filed in violation of the Court Order.

this Court finally determines the proper beneficiaries and the true value of SHIRLEY and SIMON'S Estates and Trusts and where an estimated FORTY MILLION DOLLARS of missing assets have gone. Keep in mind that Petitioner states that the Estates and Trusts values have been intentionally misrepresented so THEODORE, SPALLINA, TESCHER and others could loot the Estates after illegally gaining Dominion and Control of them through a series of fraudulent and forged documents and then begin a host of alleged criminal acts to disperse assets illegally to improper beneficiaries and remove assets outside of the gross Estates.

6. That SPALLINA, TESCHER and their law firm TSPA have acted in many roles, including but not limited to: (i) Counsel to Petitioner's deceased parents, (ii) Preparation of Wills and Trusts for SIMON and SHIRLEY, (iii) Acting as Co-Personal Representatives of SIMON, (iv) Acting as counsel to themselves as Co-Personal Representatives of SIMON, (v) Acting as Co-Trustees of SIMON, (vi) Acting as Counsel to Co-Trustees of SIMON including themselves, (vii) Counsel to SIMON as PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE of SHIRLEY'S Estate, (viii) Acting as Counsel to THEODORE as Successor Trustee to SHIRLEY'S TRUST, (ix) Acting as Co-Trustees of SIMON'S Trusts, (x) Acting allegedly fraudulently as Trustee of the Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Life Insurance Trust Dtd 1995 (that does not exist at this time), (xi) Acting as Counsel to Beneficiaries and Interested Parties of SIMON and SHIRLEY Estates and (xii) Acting as counsel to Personal Representative Theodore in SHIRLEY'S Estate. So any discharge could affect their exposure in each of these roles and further damage Petitioner and other interested parties and beneficiaries.

7. That the dizzying amount of representations by THEODORE and TESCHER, SPALLINA and TSPA, gained through a series of alleged and proven forged and fraudulent documents, which gave them total control of the Estates and provided a mechanism to THWART ACCOUNTABILITY of their actions to the beneficiaries of the Estates.
8. That subject to the other "irreconcilable differences" SPALLINA and TESCHER may state with specificity to this Court, it is clear from a RESIGNATION letter sent by TESCHER, see Exhibit 1 - TESCHER RESIGNATION LETTER on January 14, 2014 to the children of SIMON and SHIRLEY that TESCHER and SPALLINA disagree amongst themselves now as to who the proper beneficiaries are due to what they claim are newly discovered admittedly fraudulent documents and bad faith acts and further unclean hands, see Exhibit 2 – REPORT ("REPORT") (NOTE THAT THIS COURT MAY WANT TO ACT ON ITS OWN MOTION TO SEAL THIS EXHIBIT TO PROTECT THE SOURCE, PLEASE CONTACT PETITIONER IMMEDIATELY IF THE DECISION IS TO SEAL**).
9. That in his letter, TESCHER states that an alleged first amendment ("FIRST FIRST AMENDMENT") prepared by his Law Firm TSPA in 2008 in SHIRLEY'S Estate simply removed a step son of THEODORE'S and nothing else; meaning THEODORE and Pamela Beth Simon ("PAMELA") and their lineal descendant were not proper beneficiaries as they were wholly disinherited in the 2008 estate plans of both SIMON and SHIRLEY with their lineal descendants.
10. That in his resignation letter TESCHER states that in January 2013, over four years later, SPALLINA sent a different alleged second first amendment ("SECOND FIRST

1/14/14 letter speaks for itself

AMENDMENT") to then counsel to Petitioner, Christine Yates, Esq. ("YATES") of the Tripp Scott law firm, which removed the step son and this new SECOND FIRST AMENDMENT now allegedly changed the definition of lineal descendants so as to allegedly state that THEODORE and PAMELA'S children would be proper beneficiaries along with the other grandchildren. TESCHER claims to have never been aware of such alleged SECOND FIRST AMENDMENT.

11. That this was the stated basis of TESCHER'S resignation and in the letter he offered to make whole losses and damages suffered by the affected parties. It is interesting that SPALLINA sent the other alleged SECOND FIRST AMENDMENT, which allegedly changed the definition of lineal descendants in 2008, because in November 2011, SPALLINA responded to PAMELA'S counsel, Heriaud & Genin, Ltd., and a one Tamar S.P. Genin ("GENIN"), see Exhibit 3 - GENIN'S LETTER TO PAMELA, that PAMELA, THEODORE and their children were wholly cut out of the Estates of both SIMON and SHIRLEY, with them considered predeceased and wholly disinherited at that time.

12. This conversation however, occurred three years after the purported signing of the alleged SECOND FIRST AMENDMENT that is alleged to include the grandchildren back into the Estate on November 18, 2008. Therefore, why would SPALLINA tell GENIN that PAMELA and her children were cut out of the Estates and Trusts and wholly disinherited in November 2011, if SPALLINA had the other alleged SECOND FIRST AMENDMENT reinstating them back on November 18, 2008? It is also curious that both documents are titled "first amendment" instead of one of them being titled a second amendment and they both were supposedly signed on the same date on November 18, 2008.

13. That it was recently learned that the SECOND FIRST AMENDMENT was admitted altered and manufactured illegally for SHIRLEY in January 2013 by SPALLINA as part of continuing an ongoing Pattern and Practice of Fraud and more to make POST MORTEM CHANGES TO THE RIGHTFUL beneficiaries of the Estates.

14. That the existence of the alleged FIRST FIRST AMENDMENT that excludes THEODORE and PAMELA'S children likely is the basis why THEODORE may believe there is an "irreconcilable difference" as his kids would remain non-beneficiaries under that document, and obviously now clearly demonstrates that THEODORE is further conflicted and now incapable of serving as Personal Representative or in any fiduciary capacities in the Estates and Trusts, as a Personal Representative or Trustee must look out equally for the interests of all beneficiaries, which he cannot do while arguing that his issue of his family being excluded and that they should now be included back in, which is to the detriment of the other grandchildren or children of SHIRLEY and SIMON. These same conflicts would be cause to deny PAMELA from becoming a successor Personal Representative and/or Trustee as well. Since THEODORE and PAMELA have no real interests in the Estates no matter how this Court determines the beneficiaries and have already been involved in so much delay and conversion of assets improperly there is no reason for the Court to have them in any fiduciary or other capacities.

15. That it was recently learned that THEODORE was advised by counsel of the fact that distributions to his children of Estate and Trust assets should not be distributed to his children as it was improper but THEODORE ignored the advice of counsel and so transacted distributions to his children to the detriment of other beneficiaries. Again, this is solid cause for THEODORE to be instantly removed from ANY fiduciary capacities in the Estates and told him hold off on distrib until I Shirley Trust removed as defendant in the Stansbury litigation Trusts for this is absolute WILLFUL, WANTON and GROSSLY NEGLIGENT behavior in disregard for law and which such conversion constitutes alleged CRIMINAL misconduct. See Exhibit 2 - REPORT.

16. That TESCHER'S Resignation letter exposes now that the ALLEGED documents likely have been changed or wholly manufactured without his knowledge in the Estates and then posited with this Court by TSPA and others, if this Court believes anything TESCHER, SPALLINA and THEODORE say or do at this point after review of the Exhibit 2 - REPORT. With proven ALTERED, FORGED and FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED DOCUMENTS made part of the Court record or sent to others by their law firm TSPA already, including a POST MORTEM FRAUDULENT DOCUMENTS, this adds further confirmation to Petitioner's claims that a mass of POST MORTEM fraud was enacted to illegally attempt to change the beneficiaries through a series of Fraudulent documents, all architected and aided and abetted by TESCHER, SPALLINA, TSPA and others. This may be further evidence of POST MORTEM changes or fraudulent changes to the dispositive documents and now in addition to the proven FORGED and FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED documents of the now arrested and sentenced for felony acts, a one Kimberly Moran ("MORAN"), TSPA'S Legal Assistant and Notary Public, which forgeries and fraudulently notarized documents were argued before this Court to be a one off affair and this argument now fails, as more and more evidence of fraudulent activities pile up to exhibit a Pattern and Practice of criminal activities.

17. That subject to their reply to the irreconcilable difference questions it is clear that TESCHER and SPALLINA'S position is that THEODORE and PAMELA and their lineal descendants are still excluded from the Estates and Trusts according to TESCHER'S Resignation letter. To support this,

i. That as evidenced in Exhibit 3 - PAMELA NOTE & ATTORNEY LETTER TO SIMON, is a hand-written note from PAMELA to SIMON dated January 2012, which she attached to a Letter written by her attorney GENIN dated November 28, 2011. PAMELA sent the note and letter to SIMON, which was over four years AFTER the purported alleged SECOND FIRST AMENDMENT was executed on November 18, 2008 that allegedly added back into the Estate plan PAMELA'S children. However, in direct contradiction to this, SPALLINA clearly opined in the conversations with PAMELA'S attorney GENIN held in November 2011 that THEODORE and PAMELA and their lineal descendants were wholly excluded from the Estates and Trusts of both SIMON and SHIRLEY, no mention at that time of an alleged SECOND FIRST AMENDMENT reinstating them. Why would SPALLINA state these alleged misstatements to PAMELA'S attorney, inciting PAMELA'S ire, knowing according to TESCHER and SPALLINA'S ever changing story that SHIRLEY had changed her language to include her grandchildren in the alleged SECOND FIRST AMENDMENT that SPALLINA and TESCHER allegedly prepared along with the 2008 estate plans? Another question becomes if SIMON knew that SPALLINA had leaked this information to his children without his knowledge prior to his death and caused major problems with THEODORE and PAMELA perhaps putting SIMON'S life in danger, with major pressures put on him after learning of their disinheritance that lasted all the way to his death, as defined in Petitioner's prior Motion filed in May 2013, which provides explanation for why SIMON was being mentally tortured by THEODORE and PAMELA to make changes to his estate plans on or around this time.

ii. TESCHER'S Resignation letter on January 14, 2014 states he only became aware of the purported alleged SECOND FIRST AMENDMENT in January 2013 when it was sent to PETITIONER'S children's counsel YATES and therefore why did TESCHER and SPALLINA wait until now, over a year after manufacturing this document to tell this Court and PETITIONER this remarkable information he allegedly discovered and instead has continued to suppress and deny the document while he had this evidence in hand and continue to practice a FRAUD ON THIS COURT AND THE TRUE AND PROPER BENEFICIARIES. In his letter TESCHER was allegedly aware of the alleged FIRST FIRST AMENDMENT excluding THEODORE'S stepson Matthew Logan allegedly executed in 2008, if one believes anything they claim or any document they have tendered any longer. That this further supports the need for forensic analysis of ALL documents that are posited in the Court's record for evidence of further fraud, fraud in and upon on the Court by OFFICERS OF THIS COURT and fraud on the Beneficiaries.

18. That one thing is clear from PAMELA'S note and her lawyer's letter is that SIMON wanted first and foremost to take care of PETITIONER and provide his family and children due to Petitioner's extraneous circumstances, including the Attempted Murder of his family and other death threats against his family, in his pursuit of the alleged perpetrators involved in theft of his and SIMON'S Intellectual Properties. The estate plans that SPALLINA and TESCHER were contracted by SIMON and SHIRLEY to do to protect Petitioner and his family are the one thing that TESCHER and SPALLINA have instead attempted with THEODORE and PAMELA to thwart since their passing, now trying to unwind these plans and abscond with assets through a series of fraudulent actions as pled in the multiple prior UNHEARD Petitions and Motions with this Court.

19. That Petitioner instead has been in HELL since the death of his father. Tortured by not only his father and mother's loss in a short period of time but also from the absolute bad faith acts of their trusted Estate planners, who despite their claims that they have been doing these crimes to enact the wishes of SIMON prior to his death and make POST MORTEM changes at their discretion in their best interests through forgery and fraud, these are not the real motives of their actions. Their intent since day one has been to harm Petitioner, shutting him out entirely of information regarding his parents estates, forcing him to retain counsel and rack up huge legal bills and wasting precious time from protecting his family by doing his normal work, which takes up to twenty hours a day for over a decade and is necessary to reclaim his and SIMON'S Intellectual Properties and prevent another car bombing, all discussed largely in the May 06, 2013 pleading to this Court to FREEZE THE ESTATES, etc. They have made every step of the way since SIMON'S death for Petitioner and his family HELL, starving them and denying them not only of information regarding their beneficial interests but starving them of food, costs of living expenses, school funds, utility funds and attempting to steal off with assets left to protect them, including three minor children, which both SIMON and SHIRLEY had taken elaborate and extensive estate planning steps to ensure continuation of funds and resources left to cover these expenses for Petitioner and his family for many years to come.

20. That because THEODORE acting as Personal Representative in SHIRLEY'S Estate would take the position that his children should be included in the Estates now, this creates inherent and absolute conflict because now he cannot act to all beneficiaries impartially while competing for benefits for his children at expense of other grandchildren or children of SIMON and SHIRLEY. There are many other reasons THEODORE should not be in any fiduciary capacity in the Estates, which again have been filed repeatedly with this Court but remain unheard, including damning information in the exhibited REPORT herein.

21. That according to recent information, THEODORE was advised by counsel to make no distributions of assets of the Trusts of SHIRLEY in his ALLEGED role as Successor Trustee and Personal Representative but despite knowing the beneficiaries of the distributions were improper, including to his three children, he ignored the advice of counsel and made distributions knowing they were improper, another reason that THEODORE should be removed from ALL fiduciary capacities he may have in either Estate.

22. That these recent events with the Resignation of counsel and withdrawal of Personal Representatives make it an ideal time for the Court to now determine who the proper beneficiaries are and seize and impound all records and documents and share them with the beneficiaries at long last, as they have been denied and suppressed in violation of Probate Rules and Statutes and make a determination based upon all the facts. Impound all assets. Documents should include all ORIGINAL ESTATE DOCUMENTS and all ORIGINAL Court records both in the docket and in any other log or records, as it appears that tampering with Court files may also have occurred in the positing of certain documents in the Court record.

23. That further, the Court may find that the 2008 Estate documents are the last validly executed documents of SIMON and SHIRLEY, at this point Petitioner still does not have copies of certain of these documents, including the 2008 Will of SIMON and the 2008 Trust of SIMON, as they have been denied and suppressed to this point in violation of Probate Rules and Statutes. Therefore, the beneficiaries may also end up being only Petitioner and his two sisters Jill Iantoni ("IANTONI") and Lisa Friedstein ("FRIEDSTEIN") and their six lineal descendants as was allegedly stated in the 2008 documents. In this case, all the alleged changes in the alleged 2012 documents, which have all been challenged in Petitioner's prior unheard Petitions and Motions regarding the grandchildren's replacement of the three children of SIMON may be nullified entirely, along with all the 2012 documents. However, due to TESCHER'S Resignation letter and information in the REPORT exhibited herein, exposing that document fraud may have occurred in the 2008 documents they must now be questioned for further evidence of fraud.

24. That in regard to TESCHER and SPALLINA resigning and withdrawing and being discharged as Co-Personal Representatives in SIMON'S estate due to sudden "irreconcilable differences" with the children and grandchildren, their desire to withdraw, resign and be discharged, while consistent with Petitioners motions to Remove the Personal Representatives, is not for the same reasons and must be done to minimize any further risks of injury to the already damaged parties admitted to by TESCHER, through the alternative of REMOVAL with CAUSE and PREJUDICE.

25. That the beneficiaries have already been damaged from;

i. the FORGED and FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED DOCUMENTS submitted by TSPA in these proceedings,

ii. the crimes committed and admitted to by SPALLINA in the September 13, 2013 Hearing before this Court, iii. SPALLINA'S admitted closing the Estate of SHIRLEY with a DECEASED SIMON acting as a living Personal Representative / Executor while dead,

iv. failing to notify the Court of his death in opposite of Probate Rules and Regulations with intent,

v. failure to elect proper successors with intent,

vi. SPALLINA'S admitted involvement with the MORAN FORGERIES and FRAUDULENT NOTARIZATIONS of six people, including a POST MORTEM FORGERY OF SIMON'S SIGNATURE, on six separate documents

vii. the information in the exhibited herein REPORT, which indicates further willful, wanton, reckless and grossly negligent behavior that took place to commit fraud on certain beneficiaries and in utter disregard to Law with intent to cause harm to beneficiaries, and, viii. the looting of the Gross Estates of SIMON and SHIRLEY through a series of alleged criminal acts defined herein and in all prior unheard pleadings of Petitioner's since May 2013.

26. That due to the criminal acts and civil torts that TSPA, TESCHER and SPALLINA are involved in already and the damages they have caused thus far, Petitioner requests the Court to REMOVE them with CAUSE and PREJUDICE and not rule on their motions to discharge them or allow them to withdraw based on their baseless pleadings, instead favoring Petitioner's reasons to REMOVE them with CAUSE and PREJUDICE and force reliefs sought by Petitioner in his prior Motions to Remove the Personal Representatives from damages inflicted and admitted to already. In fact, due to these crimes, nothing they say to the Court in pleadings should be allowed or ruled on and all prior pleadings motions, etc. be DISQUALIFIED from the proceedings and removed.

27. That if their response to the "irreconcilable differences" they cite is that they want to withdraw and their resignations are based on the two differing alleged "first amendments" causing a dispute of who the beneficiaries are and not all the alleged and proven criminal reasons and alleged civil torts Petitioner has demanded their REMOVAL with CAUSE for in his prior UNHEARD Motions and Petitions since May 2013, including but far from limited to, the forged and fraudulently notarized docs, the failures to follow Probate Rules and Statutes in toto, the identity theft of SIMON to close SHIRLEY'S estate, the attempt to change the beneficiaries of the Estates of both SIMON and SHIRLEY POST MORTEM, the allegations of a mass of felony crimes to loot the estate through a variety of fraudulent activities, theft of assets, etc., then their motion for discharge should be denied at this time, as the determination that the beneficiaries needs to be fixed due to problems wholly created by their errors and alleged and proven criminal acts is not cause to be removed when it is the job of the Personal Representatives to fix the problem of beneficiaries, especially where they created them and are Attorneys at Law.

28. That how can Attorneys at Law, acting as Personal Representatives have "irreconcilable differences" with beneficiaries? It is the job of the Personal Representatives to determine who the proper beneficiaries are in an Estate and to ensure all Estate assets are protected, marshaled and distributed properly to the true and proper beneficiaries. Because they now seek to resign and withdraw, which appears consistent with Petitioner's position since the probate proceedings began that they must be dismissed for a host of more serious and disturbing problems.

29. That it is now the proper time for this Court to entertain proceedings to determine first the true net worth of the decedents SIMON and SHIRLEY. That this accounting must be accomplished first while SPALLINA and TESCHER are still in this Court's jurisdiction and certainly before any contemplated discharge. Petitioner previously stated the multiple roles these lawyers played in controlling virtually every aspect of the Estates precluding any accountability after illegally seizing Dominion and Control of the Estates through fraudulent documents and where they further denied and suppressed documents from the beneficiaries in efforts to convert assets from the true and proper beneficiaries and also steal assets outright excluding them from the Estates, as evidenced to this Court in prior pleadings.

30. That evidence already presented to this Court demonstrates that the decedents were worth many times the alleged total combined net worth of the estates and trusts of $4,000,000.00 that SPALLINA and THEODORE have told this Court under oath and in the hearings before the Court, as an estimate. As the Estate of SHIRLEY was not represented by any party at any of the past four hearings held due to SIMON being used illegally to close the Estate of SHIRLEY, there was no Personal Representative to make claims in opposition to these claims or cross examine SPALLINA and THEODORE but enough evidence is already in the record to show this amount far below the known amount of assets.

31. That Petitioner seeks an Evidentiary Hearing while SPALLINA and TESCHER are still not discharged and are still in a fiduciary position as to the beneficiaries to question them under oath after the Court has forced the release of all documents owed to beneficiaries that remain denied in violation of Probate Rules and Statutes.

32. That an example through evidence already in this Court that financial skullduggery is occurring, is that the inventory prepared by TESCHER and SPALLINA in SHIRLEY'S Estate indicated she had only $25,000 of personal property when she died and was so stated under oath by THEODORE and SPALLINA in the October 28, 2013 Evidentiary Hearing. However, immediately after learning in the Evidentiary Hearing of October 28, 2013 of this claim, Petitioner submitted insurance documents showing SHIRLEY had in jewelry alone a much greater personal property value, evidencing nearly $700,000 of jewels that have disappeared from the Estates that were appraised shortly before her death as her Personal Property. Petitioner has other evidence to bring to this Court that will show SIMON and SHIRLEY'S true net worth to be much higher.

33. That another example of this Skullduggery was exposed by Your Honor's release of SIMON'S sealed Inventory to Petitioner that was never published to the Beneficiaries according to Probate Rules and Statutes, which revealed an inventory missing many Personal Property assets of SIMON. Then weeks later, almost a year and half after SIMON passed in efforts to amend the Inventory once this Court released the suppressed and denied sealed original inventory that had not been "published" to the beneficiaries according to Probate Rules and Statutes. Just as evidence was pouring in to this Court and authorities of assets missing off the Inventory, TESCHER and SPALLINA suddenly submitted an AMENDED INVENTORY, which PETITIONER challenges and rejects herein, which are suddenly adjusted to include assets TESCHER and SPALLINA knew about since SIMON'S death and in fact they were instrumental in preparing the alleged legal work regarding those newly claimed assets so they cannot claim they did not know about them when filing the original inventory.

34. That approximately ONE MILLION DOLLARS of assets were added to the original inventory, in an Estate they claim is only worth Four Million and where the original inventory claimed SIMON only had Personal Property of approximately ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND dollars. That one of the alleged assets added was a Mortgage to SIMON on the home purchased by PETITIONER'S children and this has been explained to the Court already to be in efforts to force a foreclosure and seize the home as part of an ongoing alleged EXTORTION of Petitioner.

35. That another recently discovered fact also evidences that the estimated worth of four million dollars appears deficient, is in the amount of money SIMON took in income in the years leading up to his death.

    i. That in year 2007 S. BERNSTEIN took in addition to a salary of $252,622.00 a shareholder share of current income of LIC Holdings, Inc. of 33% of $11,601,040.00 (86% cash distribution) or $3,867,013.33 for a total $4,119,635.33. Not bad for a bum who P. SIMON'S attorney GENIN accuses of stealing P. SIMON'S antique furniture and being too ill to work.

    ii. That in year 2008 S. BERNSTEIN took a salary of $3,756,298.00.

    iii. That in 2007-2008 S. BERNSTEIN took home a total $7,875,933.33. Yet, according to THEODORE and SPALLINA in hearings before Hon. Judge Colin, only a few years later the entire net worth of the Estates and Trusts was only ESTIMATED at four million dollars, again, estimated because no accountings of the Estate and Trust values have been provided to the beneficiaries, in violation of Probate Rules and Statutes.

36. That the estimated net worth of the Estates and Trusts is only an estimate as no financials have been tendered to the Beneficiaries in violation of Probate Rules and Statutes and the four million dollar estimate appears far short of known assets, including but not limited to,

i. a fully paid for Condominium that S. BERNSTEIN had listed at $2,195,000.00 when he died, ii. a fully paid for home residence, which had an alleged minimal line of credit and was listed at $3,200,000.00 by S. BERNSTEIN shortly before he died in 2012,

iii. life insurance on the life of SIMON worth at minimum $1,700,000.00 that is currently involved in a Federal Court Case IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT COURT ILLINOIS, Case No. 13-cv-03643 and where evidence has been submitted that both SPALLINA, THEODORE and MORAN are again involved in illegal acts including INSURANCE FRAUD, IMPERSONATING AN INSTITUTIONAL TRUST COMPANY, FRAUD ON A FEDERAL US DISTRICT COURT and FRAUD ON THE ESTATE BENEFICIARIES OF SIMON. For information regarding these alleged criminal acts to convert an asset of SIMON'S Estate from the true and proper beneficiaries, please see the URL @ www.iviewit.tv/20140123ANSWERTOAMENDEDCOMPLAINT.pdf , fully incorporated by reference herein.

iv. Newly claimed Personal Property Assets of SIMON of $1,000,000.00 recently added to an Amended Inventory of SIMON.

v. Missing Jewelry of SHIRLEY, appraised at $700,000.00 shortly before her death.

vi. Missing fully paid Bentley Automobile of SHIRLEY estimated at $350,000.00.

vii. IRA's of another approximate $2,000,000.00 that were stated to be there initially and now are claimed gone, and, viii. JP Morgan accounts with another minimum amount of $2,500,000.00 in just one account as stated in the September 13, 2013 hearing before this Court as reserve for a creditor claim of that amount and where other accounts are alleged missing.

ix. Oppenheimer Accounts that appear missing entirely.

x. Stanford Bank Lawsuits for CD'S lost that were part of the Sir Robert Allen Stanford Ponzi fraud for approximately $2,000,000.00.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays for all of the following relief,

That based on information in SEALED DOCUMENT, this Court would be well respected to consider all of the following reliefs,

i. Order IMMEDIATE FINANCIAL RELIEF, like today, be granted to Petitioner and his family who have been tortured by these crimes mentally and financially for over a year and half and since his children and wife have basically been starved out, stressed out and damaged beyond human belief with intent from the crimes of these "trusted" advisors and Attorneys at Law, this relief is life sustaining at this point.

ii. Order all expenses and legal expenses extended by Petitioner, including monies that were misused by SPALLINA from his children's educational trust funds to pay legal and other costs involved in exposing these crimes committed and have depleted these funds with reckless disregard and absolute intent, in efforts to starve out Petitioner and his family to cease their prosecution of them and their crimes. MAKE THEM PAY THIS FROM THEIR BANK ACCOUNTS NOT THE ESTATES. as TESCHER claims he wants to make reparations for just the one bad act he now admits to have happened but ALL of their bad acts combined. These damages include not getting a single thing in over three years since his mother's death and over a year and half since his father's passing and loss of personal items his parents were leaving to him, while all of them knew of these bad acts and looted these most prized possessions from him and his family and their inheritances. That Petitioner as evidenced is the only child that with his wife and children were with SIMON and SHIRLEY from the moment they heard they were sick and could not travel to see them in California until the moment they died, every week on Sunday for brunch and once or twice a week for other engagements. The other children, mainly THEODORE and PAMELA had apparently strained and difficult relations that culminated in bad blood over the last years of their lives that left them isolated from their parents in large part and IANTONI and FRIEDSTEIN were largely inaccessible to them via distance.

iii. ALL Attorneys at Law that have been involved in these matters in any capacities be REMOVED with CAUSE and PREJUDICE and their motions to withdraw denied and instead Petitioner's Motions and Petitions to Remove the Personal Representatives be heard instead.

iv. That ALL Attorneys at Law seeking withdrawal first post requisite BONDS for the damages caused thus far and still being investigated in an amount no less than $40,000,000.00 each.

v. That Mark Manceri who has withdrawn as counsel in his multiplicity of roles in the Estates of SIMON and SHIRLEY and who should have also been REMOVED with CAUSE and PREJUDICE by this Court also be required to post requisite BOND for the damages caused thus far and still being investigated in an amount no less than $40,000,000.00.

vi. That the Personal Representatives of the Estates of SIMON and SHIRLEY, THEODORE, SPALLINA and TESCHER, be required to post requisite BONDS for the damages caused thus far and still being investigated in an amount no less than $40,000,000.00 each.

vii. That there is no discharge at this time only a REMOVAL for CAUSE as counsel and REMOVAL for CAUSE from acting as Personal Representatives.

viii. That this Court and Your Honor post a Public Official Surety Bond, as certain crimes admitted to already and alleged have all occurred in and upon this Court, by Officers of this Court under Your Honor's supervision in an amount no less than $40,000,0000.00, until the matters can be fully investigated and resolved.

ix. That the Court decides the values of the Estates after full and formal forensic accountings and then determines who the proper beneficiaries are before any discharges are granted, due to the admitted exposures and liabilities to beneficiaries and additional liabilities that may result from premature discharge by Your Honor.

x. That Petitioner wants the Attorneys at Law and the Personal Representatives all REMOVED for CAUSE with PREJUDICE and not discharged until all issues of exposure are fully resolved both in civil and criminal matters that remain ongoing and those new ones that will be filed based on the information in the SEALED DOCUMENT.

xi. That Petitioner requests that ALL legal fees billed for SIMON and SHIRLEY estates, creditor lawsuit involvement and other legal or professional fees deducted from the corpus of the estates or trusts by any of the fleeing Attorneys at Law involved be returned in full with interest to the Estates, along with a complete accounting of all billings, work products, etc. as required by law, which have been suppressed and denied entirely in both Estates and Trusts to this point. Based on the information already disclosed in the SEALED DOCUMENT, this now becomes mandatory.

xii. That Petitioner demands this Court follow Judicial Cannons and Law and report all crimes that have been committed in and upon this Court by Officers of this Court to the proper authorities both civilly and CRIMINALLY for full and formal investigation.

xiii. That their Motion to Withdraw and be Discharged not be heard, until hearing ALL of Petitioner's prior motions to this Court to REMOVE counsel and the PR'S with CAUSE and PREJUDICE filed with the Court since May 2013 and unheard.

xiv. That no discharge is issued until all investigations are complete in state and federal actions as their culpability and exposure remains open to further information relating to those other related criminal and civil actions now in progress and those soon to be filed.

xv. That the Court should note that all of these Attorneys that are resigning or withdrawing for their stated reasons should not be moving the Court any longer, including these pleadings and in any hearings, where pleadings should have been filed by non-conflicted counsel, as they have already resigned as counsel to the Bernstein family and estates entirely and thus should be represented by independent none conflicted and not criminally involved counsel forward before the Court.

xvi. That the Court appoint Petitioner as Successor Personal Representative and Trustee over the entire estates, as Petitioner is honest to the core with prized integrity and while not the greatest in financial management, will come prepared with a wonderful cast of characters to aid as Co-Personal Representatives and will retain wonderful counsel for the Estate, who are proven in their respective fields to money managers and lawyers of the highest caliber to assist in all those areas that Petitioner lacks. That Petitioner will do what is fair and right to his parents' wishes and will respect and honor those to the letter, once all the missing assets and properties are 100% recovered and this Court and those appointed and trusted determine the real value of the Estates of SIMON and SHIRLEY. That Petitioner's Co-Representatives would also be known to the Bernstein family members, as they have been all been valuable clients to their businesses for many many years and should be elected without objection to the members of the Bernstein family that have real interests in these matters.

xvii. That the Court must also ask if it too must disqualify itself as Petitioner filed a motion for disqualification of Your Honor but Your Honor ruled it was not "legally sufficient" and while Petitioner is preparing a response and requesting clarification to disqualify, Petitioner wants this Court here and now to reveal if Your Honor has discovered any reasons such as conflicts or adverse interests for your own disqualification that cannot be parsed by Petitioner and this Court openly and with full disclosure. To ensure due process, Petitioner representing himself Pro Se is entitled to know of any conflicts or adverse interest and has requested since the May 06, 2013 Petition to freeze the Estates that the Court review Petitioner's Conflict of Interest Disclosure attached to that filing as Exhibit 30, pages 400-466, which has a partial list of individuals and corporations that may cause conflict with impartial revue by Your Honor.

xviii. If there are such conflicts or adverse interests that preclude Your Honor further, is it not legally required that Your Honor act on your own motion to disqualify yourself and not wait for Petitioner who is Pro Se to get the disqualification technically right or make it legally sufficient? However, a mere statement that no conflicts or adverse interests now exist in these matters would be sufficient at this time to clarify this matter with Petitioner, as if conflicts or adverse interests exist at this point due to the criminal acts that occurred in and upon this Court, with Your Honor's Court Officers involved and Your Honor directly involved through their actions, now even becoming a material and fact witness to the events that occurred in and upon the Court, than Your Honor is required by Judicial Cannons to disqualify or to at least respond to Petitioner with a statement that insures fair and impartial due process.

xix. That another statement that no conflicts exist with Petitioner or the Iviewit Companies, especially in relation to Judge Jorge Labarga whom Your Honor cites as your "Mentor" in your Florida Bar Resume[4] would also be appropriate, as Petitioner has alleged that Jorge Labarga is intimately and centrally involved in an ongoing RICO and ANTITRUST Lawsuit and ongoing criminal investigations relating to theft of Petitioner's and SIMON'S Intellectual Properties and in fact, is the central figure in causing all Petitioner's troubles in the Florida Courts since 2004, so as to be Petitioner's nemesis. Please identify at what times Labarga mentored Your Honor and if any conversations with him have been had since these matters began. These matters relating to this possible conflict have been discussed at length recently in the US District Court Northern District of Illinois, see URL @ www.iviewit.tv/20140205RESPONSETOREPLYREMOVEADAMSIMON.pdf , fully incorporated by reference herein. Please keep in mind that in New York, news has been published and already submitted to this Court in the May 06, 2013 Petition to freeze the Estates that in cases related to Iviewit's RICO and Christine C. Anderson's whistleblowing lawsuit that expose court and public office corruptions at the highest levels, that JUDGES were being illegally wiretapped involved in these matters and Plaintiffs like Anderson and Petitioner were being monitored illegally 24-7 for years through MISAPPROPRIATION OF JOINT TERRORISM TASK FUNDS AND RESOURCES, VIOLATIONS OF THEIR PATRIOT ACT RIGHTS, THREATS TO PUBLIC OFFICIALS AND BRIBES TO COVER UP THE CORRUPTION (including Senator John L. Sampson, former New York Senate Judiciary Committee Chairman and head of the New York Democratic party whom Petitioner and Anderson testified before and has admitted now to being threatened and taking bribes to cover up), innocent people being SET UP IN FALSE CRIMINAL ROUNDUPS for crimes and targeted by rogue Attorneys at Law in a number of high ranking public offices for personal vendetta's, including being set up on false TERRORISM charges and more!!! (See Exhibit in May 06, 2013 Petition to this Court, Pages 319-333) So everything is not what it appears to be at times as to why people did what they involved in these matters of Petitioner's inventions and Iviewit, including LABARGA and many others and so Petitioner continues to Judge according to persons actions individually and based on their integrity. Anderson herself testifies in Federal Court how when blowing the Whistle she became targeted and was afraid to leave her Supreme Court of New York Disciplinary Department Offices, not from the people outside but rather from those inside the halls the of Justice who were threatening her for her bold stance in the face of corruption like few other whistleblowers in history.

xx. Order that Petitioner's minor child receive his personal property of his KIA Soul automobile that was a birthday gift to him from his grandfather days before his death and is not an estate asset or personal property as SPALLINA and TESCHER have fraudulently claimed to the Court and that sits idle for over a year in front of Petitioner's home un-drivable and where a motion to Judge French has sat idle in SIMON'S court filings for months.

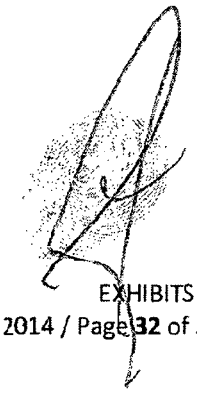
EXHIBIT 1 - JANUARY 14TH 2014 DONALD TESCHER AND TESCHER & SPALLINA, P.A. RESIGNATION LETTER



TEXT OF PAM'S NOTES 1 & 2
January 2012
Dear Dad,
Please read the attached letter and information. I am hopeful that you truly just don't know how much cutting me, Scoot [David Simon, Esq. proper name], Molly and Ted's family out of your will hurts us. It has nothing to do with money. In fact, I think you need to take care of ELIOT, using a trustee, first and foremost.
The act of disinheriting a child is unheard of and unimaginable. It is outrageous and considered psychologically violent. I am hopeful you are not aware of this and that you will make the changes necessary.
Love Pam

Dear Dad,

Please read the attached letter and information. I am hopeful that you truly just don't know how much cutting me, Scott, Molly, and Ted's family out of your will hurts us. It has nothing to do with money. In fact, I think you need to take care of Eliot, using a trustee, first and foremost.

The act of dismantling a child's unheard of and unimaginable. It is outrageous and considered psychologically violent. I am hopeful you are not aware of this and that you will make the changes necessary.

Dear Pam:

Please accept my apologies for my delay in sending you this letter. I had meant to send it to you soon after we spoke about my discussions with your parents' estate planning attorney, Robert Spallina. I know that it came as a shock when I told you that I was informed by Mr. Spallina that you, Ted and your respective family lines have not been provided for under your parents' estate plan and that your other three siblings have been provided for. Therefore, I thought that this follow-up letter was important.

As you may recall, I wrote to Mr. Spallina to request copies of your mother's Will, Trust and related financial information so that we could factor in a projected value of your remainder interest in your mother's Trust and analyze whether we should make any revisions to your and Scooter's estate plan in light of your mother's passing. We followed up with him after not receiving the requested information. In the end, I received an email from him in which he wrote "Please call me."

During my discussions with Mr. Spallina, he told me that you, Ted and your family lines were treated as "deceased" under your mother's trust because you and Ted were active in the businesses, and that each of you received a business as a gift from your parents. Mr. Spallina went on to say that your parents thought that they had adequately provided for you and Ted as a result of the gift of the business interests and that they wanted to provide for the other three children under their estate plan. I listened to what Mr. Spallina said. However, I knew based on our series of discussions over the years that, in fact, you did not receive any gift of a business interest from your parents.

So 2 to Pam, Ted

Following is my understanding of the circumstances under which you obtained your father's interest in S.T.P. Enterprises, Inc. ("STP"), which I understand can be supported by documentation:

- You and Scooter "stepped-in" and took over the running of Si's businesses (including SB Lexington, Cambridge Associates and others) following your father's open heart surgery at Northwestern in February of 1987, where he also contracted Hepatitis C and was told that he could no longer work full time. Following this, Si moved full time to Florida. He traveled to Israel later that year and contracted pneumonia.

- Upon reviewing the books, you and Scooter realized that Si's businesses were failing, an employee was stealing money and Si owed millions of dollars in unpaid bills and unpaid debt. In addition, you were receiving call after call from various banks asking for repayment.

- At that time, the ALPS was in its infancy. The promoter/agency was Cambridge Associates, owned 50% by Dov Kahana and 50% by Si with the positive arbitrage owned 25% by each of Cambridge, KGN, Bruce Nickerson and Scooter.

- In August 1988, Dov was exposed by you, and you and Scooter bought out Dov's 50% share for $3,300/month for 3 years and re-formed STP to own and market the ALPS.

- The first ALPS funding was on October 25, 1988. Even though your father was not involved in the day-to-day operations of STP, and you and Scooter were buying out Dov, your father insisted on owning a 50% share in STP, with each of you and Scooter receiving a 25% share.

- To protect your reputation and save Si from bankruptcy, you and Scooter decided to work 7 days a week and to forgo receiving most of your share of the net income from the business for a number of years to turn Si's situation around. During this time, however, your father continued to receive his 50% share of the net income and had his debt re-financed and re-paid by STP.

- Ultimately you and Scooter were compelled to buy your father out because he was doing business in Florida on behalf of others in a manner that was jeopardizing the relationships that you and Scooter had made through your efforts. You and Scooter paid top dollar ($6.5 million) to buy out your father's interest after the two of you had turned STP into a success. Although neither you nor Scooter thought that such a large sum was reasonable, you felt good knowing that it should take care of him and your mother for life.

- Just months after you purchased your father's interest in STP, you discovered that your father was doing business in direct competition with STP and utilizing STP information on his web page.

In addition, I recall based on our discussions that you and Scooter decided to help your parents by purchasing their Chicago condominium after they decided to move to St. Andrews. I understand that the two of you paid above full price with no sales commission during a time when units were not selling at all, much less at full price. I also recall that the condo's furnishings were included in the purchase price even though your parents ultimately took an antique bench with them.

I do not see how either of these transactions with your parents could in any way be viewed as gifts that they made to you, and thus, justify their decision to cut you, Molly and future descendants of your family line out of receiving assets under their estate plan. I suggest that you talk this over with your father. Perhaps a review of the facts of the transactions will help his recollection about what actually occurred during the period when he was ill.

It is not the natural course to cut out certain family lines (Mr. Spallina agreed with me on this), and doing so could result in rifts between family lines for generations to come. I expect that this is not the type of legacy that your father would like to leave behind. In my experience, a child and that child's line are cut out only in extreme circumstances.

It is not too late for your father to change the current course. Since each of you, Ted, Lisa and Jill have your own independent wealth, perhaps at death your father could provide for your brother, Eliot, who is in need of financial assistance, and then divide the remainder of your parents' assets (after any debts, taxes and expenses) between the grandchildren so that each grandchild feels that he or she has been treated the same as his or her cousins. Obviously generation-skipping transfer ("GST") taxes would need to be considered, but under current tax law, potentially up to $10 million could be transferred between your parents to the grandchildren's generation without triggering a GST tax.

Sincerely,

ON 01/21/13 AT 1:45 PM I MET WITH ROBERT SPALLINA AND HIS ATTORNEY DAVID ROTH. SGT. DAVID GROOVER WAS ALSO PRESENT DURING THE INTERVIEW. WE MET AT printed by Employee Id #: 5264 on February 11, 2014 02:26:57PM

THE PALM BEACH COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE, DISTRICT 1 CONFERENCE ROOM, WHICH IS LOCATED AT 3228 GUN CLUB ROAD, WEST PALM BEACH, FL. ROBERT SPALLINA STATED THAT HE AND HIS PARTNER, DONALD TESCHNER, MET SIMON AND SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN IN 2007. HE SAID THAT IN 2008 THE BERNSTEIN'S CAME TO THE TESCHNER AND SPALLINA FIRM. HE SAID THAT THEY (THE ATTORNEY'S OFFICE) CREATED WILLS AND TRUSTS FOR BOTH SIMON AND SHIRLEY IN 2008, AMONG OTHER PLANNING. SPALLINA TOLD US THAT SIMON HAD BEEN IN THE INSURANCE BUSINESS FOR 40 YEARS.

HE SAID THAT THE SUBJECT OF THE FIRST MEETINGS WAS THE SALE OF THE INSURANCE BUSINESS DOWN THE ROAD, AS WELL AS MOVING AROUND SOME STOCKS. SPALLINA STATED THE CONVERSATIONS WITH SIMON AND THE THOUGHT PROCESS WAS THAT ONCE SIMON SOLD THE INSURANCE BUSINESS HE OWNED, ALL THE FAMILY WOULD BENEFIT FROM IT (FINANCIALLY). HE SAID THE BUSINESS WAS NEVER SOLD, BUT A LOT OF PLANNING AND PREPARATION WAS DONE FOR IT, TO INCLUDE SETTING UP A FLORIDA LIMITED PARTNERSHIP AND A DELAWARE ASSET PROTECTION TRUST. SPALLINA STATED THAT SIMON WAS ALWAYS CONCERNED WITH CREDITOR PROTECTION. HE SAID THAT IS QUITE COMMON IN THE INSURANCE BUSINESS WORLD.

SPALLINA REITERATED THAT IN 2008, THE LAW FIRM DID THE DOCUMENTS FOR THE WILLS AND TRUSTS. HE STATED THEY (SIMON & SHIRLEY) HAVE FIVE CHILDREN AND 10 GRANDCHILDREN, AS WELL AS A STEP-GRANDCHILD.

SPALLINA SAID THAT THE ESTATE PLAN WAS SIMILAR TO MOST OTHERS, IT SAID SHOULD ONE SPOUSE DIE FIRST, THE OTHER WILL RECEIVE EVERYTHING (ALL ASSETS). HE SAID THAT UNDER BOTH TRUSTS, THE INITIAL DOCUMENTS READ THAT UPON THE SECOND DEATH, TWO CHILDREN (TED AND PAM) WHERE EXCLUDED. HE TOLD US THIS TOOK PLACE SINCE BOTH TED AND PAM WERE SET UP WITH LIFE INSURANCE BUSINESSES AND THEY WANTED TO MAKE THE REMAINING CHILDREN (ELIOT, LISA, AND JILL) AS WHOLE AS THEY COULD. NOTE: TED WAS WORKING WITH SIMON IN THE INSURANCE BUSINESS DOWN HERE IN FLORIDA AND PAM RECEIVED A COMPANY IN ILLINOIS.

SPALLINA REITERATED THAT UPON THE DEATH OF THE SECOND SURVIVOR, EVERYTHING FROM BOTH TRUSTS GOES TO JILL, LISA, AND ELIOT ADDING THAT SHIRLEY HAD ONE OTHER STIPULATION IN HER TRUST, WHICH STATED THAT TED'S STEPSON, (MATTHEW LOGAN) RECEIVED $200,000. HE TOLD ME THAT SHIRLEY HAD A LIKING TO MATTHEW SO SHE ADDED THAT TO HER TRUST, BUT THAT SIMON DID NOT BELIEVE IN THAT. THAT HE FELT EVERYTHING SHOULD GO TO BLOOD (A BIOLOGICAL CHILD). SPALLINA SAID THAT LATER ON IN 2008, SHIRLEY STATED SHE WANTED TO CHANGE HER TRUST DOCUMENTS IN REFERENCE TO THE MONEY LEFT TO MATTHEW LOGAN. HE STATED THAT AN AMENDMENT WAS CREATED, WHICH WAS SIGNED BY SHIRLEY ON NOV. 18, 2008 TAKING LOGAN OUT OF THE TRUST.

SPALLINA STATED THAT HE FELT THAT SIMON'S WISHES OVERRODE SHIRLEY'S IN THIS SITUATION. SPALLINA SAID THAT HE AND KIMBERLY MORAN (HIS EMPLOYEE & A NOTARY) WENT TO SHIRLEY'S HOME FOR THE DOCUMENT TO BE SIGNED. HE SAID THAT RACHEL WALKER, SHIRLEY'S ASSISTANT, WAS PRESENT WHEN THE DOCUMENT WAS SIGNED.

SHE AND SPALLINA ARE ON THE DOCUMENT AS WITNESSES, MORAN IS THE NOTARY FOR SHIRLEY'S SIGNATURE. HE TOLD ME THAT WAS THE LAST CHANGE SHIRLEY EVER MADE TO HER DOCUMENTS AND THAT SHE PASSED ON DECEMBER 2010. SIMON WAS STILL ALIVE AND THE TRUST READ THAT EVERYTHING WENT TO HIS BENEFIT. SPALLINA REITERATED THAT HER DOCUMENTS READ THAT UPON SIMON'S DEATH, EVERYTHING (HER ASSETS) WENT TO JILL, LISA, AND ELIOT.

SPALLINA STATED THAT IN 2012, SIMON CONTACTED HIM STATING THAT HE WAS HAVING CONCERNS ABOUT HOW HE HAD ELIMINATED TED AND PAM FROM HIS TRUST. HE STATED THAT IT IS POSSIBLE THAT THESE THOUGHTS CAME ON BECAUSE PAM STARTED SENDING HIM LETTERS. HE SAID THAT SHE (PAM) HAD A LAWYER CONTACT HIS OFFICE AND ASK FOR COPIES OF SHIRLEY'S TRUST DOCUMENTS. SPALLINA SAID THAT HE MET WITH SIMON, WHO SAID THAT HE WAS CONSIDERING CHANGING HIS DOCUMENTS. HE SAID THAT ONE OF THE CHANGES DISCUSSED WAS HOW TO INCLUDE TED AND PAM'S CHILDREN.

SPALLINA STATED THAT SIMON HAD A LIFE INSURANCE POLICY WITH THE BENEFIT OF $1,600,000. HE SAID THAT THE POLICY READ THAT IF SIMON PASSED BEFORE SHIRLEY SHE RECEIVED THE BENEFIT, BUT IF SHIRLEY PASSED BEFORE HIM, THE FIVE CHILDREN RECEIVED THE BENEFITS ONCE HE PASSED. THIS POLICY ORIGINATED OUT OF ILLINOIS. SPALLINA ADDED THAT THIS POLICY AND ITS DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS ARE CURRENTLY IN A FEDERAL COURT BATTLE.

SPALLINA STATED THAT A DISCUSSION TOOK PLACE WITH HIM AND SIMON IN 2012; REFERENCE THE FACT THAT SIMON HAD ISSUES ON HOW AND WITH WHOM FUNDS WERE GOING TO BE DISTRIBUTED TO UPON HIS DEATH. HE TOLD ME SIMON WAS HAVING RESERVATIONS ABOUT TED AND PAM NOT BEING IN HIS TRUST, AS WELL AS THAT FACT THAT HE THEN HAD A GIRLFRIEND BY THE NAME OF MARITZ PUCCIO THAT HE WANTED TO PROVIDE FOR. HE ADDED THAT NO ONE IN THE FAMILY WAS HAPPY THAT PUCCIO WAS IN SIMON'S LIFE. HE ALSO TOLD ME THAT SIMON WANTED HIS GRANDCHILDREN TO RECEIVE BENEFITS FROM THE TRUST.

SPALLINA SAID THAT SIMON FIRST SUGGESTED MAKING BENEFICIARY CHANGES ON THE AFOREMENTIONED LIFE INSURANCE POLICY. SPALLINA SAID THAT HE TOLD SIMON THAT WAS A VERY BAD IDEA. HE TOLD ME THAT THERE WAS SOMETHING CALLED AN EXERCISE OF POWER OF APPOINTMENT, PUT IN BOTH SIMON AND SHIRLEY'S TRUST DOCUMENTS. HE SAID THIS GAVE THE LIVING SPOUSE THE ABILITY TO MAKE CHANGES ON THE DECEASED SPOUSE'S DOCUMENTS. HE SAID THAT HE TOLD SIMON, THAT MAYBE THEY SHOULD EXPLORE OPTIONS WITH THAT. HE SAID SIMON TOLD HIM THAT HE WANTED TO MAKE THE NECESSARY CHANGES TO HAVE BOTH TRUSTS READ THAT THE 10 GRANDCHILDREN WERE THE BENEFICIARIES. HE TOLD ME THAT HE TOLD SIMON (SI AS HE CALLS HIM) THAT HE COULD NOT MAKE THOSE CHANGES TO SHIRLEY'S TRUST BECAUSE SHE HAD WROTE TED AND PAM AND THEIR CHILDREN AS PREDECEASED IN HER TRUST.

SPALLINA REITERATED THAT SIMON CAN DO WHATEVER HE WANTS WITH HIS ESTATE, BUT ALL HE CAN DO WITH SHIRLEY'S TRUST IS GIVE IT TO LISA, JILL, AND ELIOT'S CHILDREN. HE SAID THAT SIMON WAS NOT HAPPY ABOUT THIS. HE SAID THAT SIMON

WAS VERY ADAMANT ABOUT LEAVING EVERYTHING IN THE ESTATES TO THE GRANDCHILDREN. HE ALSO SAID THAT HE ADVISED SIMON TO NOT MAKE CHANGES TO THE LIFE INSURANCE POLICY OR THE ESTATES, MAKING PUCCIO A BENEFICIARY. HE STATED THAT THIS WILL ONLY CAUSE PROBLEMS AND CREATE LITIGATION. SPALLINA SAID THE AFOREMENTIONED DISCUSSION AND MEETING TOOK PLACE IN FEBRUARY 2012. HE SAID THE MEETING CONCLUDED WITH SIMON SAYING HE NEEDED TO THINK ABOUT THINGS.

HE TOLD ME THAT THREE MONTHS LATER, SIMON CONTACTED HIM STATING HE KNEW WHAT HE WANTED TO DO. HE SAID THAT SIMON TOLD HIM HE WANTED TO LEAVE HIS INSURANCE POLICY ALONE, BUT THAT HE WANTS BOTH TRUSTS TO GO TO HIS 10 GRANDCHILDREN. SPALLINA SAID THAT HE EXPLAINED TO HIM AGAIN, THAT ONLY HIS TRUST, NOT SHIRLEY'S CAN GO TO BOTH GRANDCHILDREN, UNLESS HE TAKES ALL OF THE ASSETS OUT OF THE SHIRLEY TRUST AND PUTS THEM INTO HIS NAME. HE SAID THE COST OF TAKING THE ASSETS OUT OF SHIRLEY'S TRUST WOULD HAVE BEEN SIGNIFICANT, BECAUSE SHIRLEY'S DEATH OCCURRED BEFORE FEDERAL ESTATE TAX CHANGES TOOK PLACE, SO AS LONG AS IT STAYED IN HER ESTATE IT WOULD BE FREE OF TAX, BUT SHOULD IT GO TO SIMON'S TRUST IT WILL BE TAXED.

THERE WAS ALSO AN ISSUE OF SUBJECTING THE ASSETS FROM SHIRLEY'S ESTATE TO CREDITORS IF IT WENT TO SIMON'S ESTATE. SPALLINA TOLD ME THAT AT THIS TIME, SIMON SAID "GET MY CHILDREN ON THE PHONE". HE SAID THAT SIMON TOLD HIM THAT HE WANTED HIS CHILDREN TO AGREE THAT ALL ASSETS FROM BOTH TRUSTS GO TO THE 10 GRANDCHILDREN. HE SAID THAT SIMON TOLD HIM HE (SIMON) COULD GET THEM TO AGREE. SPALLINA CONFIRMED THAT THIS CONVERSATION OCCURRED ON THE SAME DATE, DURING THE SAME PHONE CALL (CONFERENCE CALL), REGARDING THE WAIVER OF ACCOUNTING FORM FOR SHIRLEY'S ESTATE IN PBSO CASE #13-097087.

FROM A PREVIOUS INVESTIGATION DONE BY ME, I FOUND THAT SIMON SIGNED THE WAIVER OF ACCOUNTING ON 04/09/12, SO IT IS POSSIBLE THAT THE PHONE CALL OCCURRED ON THAT DATE. I HAD ALSO NOTED IN MY REPORT THAT THERE WAS SOME DISCUSSION OF INHERITANCE AND WHO WAS TO GET WHAT. SPALLINA SAID THAT DURING THE PHONE CALL, ALL FIVE KIDS AGREED THAT CHANGING THE INHERITANCE OF BOTH ESTATES TO THE GRANDCHILDREN WAS A GREAT IDEA. HE SAID THAT ELIOT SPOKE THE MOST, STATING THINGS SUCH AS, GREAT IDEA DAD, WHATEVER YOU WANT TO DO, WHATEVER MAKES YOU FEEL BEST, WHATEVER IS BEST FOR YOUR HEALTH DAD.

SO, AFTER THE AFOREMENTIONED PHONE CALL, NEW DOCUMENTS WERE DRAWN UP FOR SIMON'S ESTATE. THESE NEW DOCUMENTS GAVE EVERYTHING TO ALL 10 GRANDKIDS. HE ALSO EXERCISED HIS POWER OF SHIRLEY'S ESTATE, LEAVING EVERYTHING TO ALL 10 GRANDKIDS, EVEN THOUGH LEGALLY HE COULD NOT INCLUDE TED AND PAM'S KIDS BECAUSE OF THE PREDECEASED LIMITATION. HE SAID THESE DOCUMENTS WERE EXECUTED AT THE END OF JULY 2012. HE SAID SEVEN WEEKS LATER SIMON DIES, UNEXPECTEDLY. I FOUND THAT SIMON PASSED ON SEPTEMBER 13, 2012 OF A HEART ATTACK.

SPALLINA SAID APPROXIMATELY TWO MONTHS AFTER THAT, HIS OFFICE RECEIVED A REQUEST FROM ELIOT'S ATTORNEY, CHRISTINE YATES, FOR ALL DOCUMENTS RELATING TO

SIMON AND SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN, TO INCLUDE DOCUMENTS RELATING TO BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALITY, WHICH OWNS A HOME THAT ELIOT AND HIS FAMILY LIVE IN. HE SAID THAT HIS HOME IS ACTUALLY OWNED AND IS FUNDED BY THREE TRUSTS THAT SIMON CREATED. THE THREE TRUSTS ARE IN THE NAME OF ELIOT'S THREE CHILDREN, (JACK, JAKE, AND DAN).

SPALLINA TOLD ME THAT HE AND HIS PARTNER HAD DISCUSSIONS REFERENCE TO FULFILLING SIMON'S WISHES OF ALL 10 GRANDCHILDREN RECEIVING THE BENEFITS FROM BOTH SIMON AND SHIRLEY'S TRUSTS. HE SAID THAT HE AND HIS PARTNER, DONALD TESCHNER, DISCUSSED DOING A SCRIVENER'S AFFIDAVIT REFERENCE REINSTATING TED AND PAM'S CHILDREN INTO SHIRLEY'S TRUST, SINCE THEIR NOTES WERE UNCLEAR TO AS IF THE GRANDCHILDREN WERE OR WERE NOT DEEMED PREDECEASED, AS TED AND PAM WERE. HE TOLD ME THAT THE DECISION WAS MADE TO NOT DO THE SCRIVENER'S AFFIDAVIT, DUE TO THE CHANCE THAT IT MAY NOT WORK. HE SAID THOUGH, THAT AGAINST HIS BETTER JUDGMENT HE ALTERED THE FIRST PAGE OF THE FIRST AMENDMENT TO THE SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT, BEFORE HE TURNED IT OVER TO YATES. THE ORIGINAL WAS MENTIONED EARLIER ON IN THIS REPORT AND STATES THAT SHIRLEY SIGNED IT ON NOVEMBER 18, 2008. IT TOOK MATTHEW LOGAN OUT OF THE TRUST.

SPALLINA SAID THAT THEY NOTICED THAT THE FIRST PAGE OF THE DOCUMENT SKIPPED FROM ONE TO THREE, SO HE TOOK IT UPON HIMSELF TO ADD IN NUMBER TWO, BEFORE SENDING IT TO YATES. THE CHANGE THAT NUMBER TWO MADE TO THE TRUST, AMENDED PARAGRAPH E OF ARTICLE III, MAKING IT READ THAT ONLY TED AND PAM WERE CONSIDERED PREDECEASED, NOT THEIR CHILDREN. HE SAID THE ORIGINAL TRUST STATES THAT TED, PAM, AND THEIR CHILDREN ARE DEEMED PREDECEASED. SPALLINA SAID HE DID THIS AT THIS OFFICE IN BOCA RATON, FLORIDA. HE SAID THAT NO ONE ELSE TOOK PART IN ALTERING THE DOCUMENT. HE SAID THAT HE DID IT TO MAKE SIMON'S WISHES AND THE VERBAL AGREEMENT FROM THE APRIL 2012 PHONE CONVERSATION COME TRUE. SPALLINA STATED THAT ALTHOUGH HE CREATED THE ALTERED FORM AND ATTACHED IT TO THE ORIGINALLY SIGNED/NOTARIZED FORM, HE RECEIVED NO INCOME OR GAIN FROM IT. HE STATED HE SOLELY DID IT TO FULFILL SIMON'S WISHES. HE CONFIRMED THAT THIS ALTERED DOCUMENT DID NOT GET FILED WITH THE COURTS.

SPALLINA STATED THAT AGAINST HIS ADVICE, A DISTRIBUTION WAS MADE FROM ONE OF THE TRUSTS AFTER SIMON'S DEATH. HE STATED THAT HE ADVISED AGAINST THIS AND WHEN SIMON PASSED, A FORMER PARTNER FILED A CLAIM AGAINST THE ESTATE FOR $2,500,000.

SPALLINA ALSO TOLD ME THAT IN 2006, ALL OF THE GRANDCHILDREN RECEIVED TRUSTS FROM SHIRLEY AND SIMON. HE STATED THAT YATES WAS ACTUALLY THE ATTORNEY FOR ELIOT'S CHILDREN'S TRUSTS. SPALLINA STATED THAT SIMON WANTED ELIOT'S KIDS TO HAVE A HOME, BUT DID NOT WANT THE HOME IN ELIOT'S NAME.

SPALLINA ALSO TOLD ME THAT IN 2009 SIMON CAME TO HIM AND SAID HE IS BUYING A HOUSE FOR ELIOT AND HIS FAMILY TO LIVE IN, BUT HE DOES NOT WANT ELIOT TO OWN THE HOME. HE SAID THAT SIMON TOLD HIM THAT HE WANTED ELIOT'S

CHILDREN'S THREE TRUSTS TO OWN THE HOME. HE THEN SET UP A LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY, WHICH IS BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY. HE SAID THAT SIMON SET UP AN ACCOUNT AT LEGACY BANK. HE SAID THAT SIMON FUNDED THE ACCOUNT, TO PAY FOR THE EXPENSES AT THE HOUSE. RACHEL WALKER WAS IN CHARGE OF PAYING THOSE EXPENSES. HE SAID THAT AT SIMON'S DEATH THE ACCOUNT HAD VERY LITTLE MONEY IN IT. HE SAID THIS WAS THE TYPE OF ACCOUNT THAT ONLY ENOUGH MONEY WENT INTO IT EACH MONTH TO COVER THE NECESSARY EXPENSES FOR THE HOME, SUCH AS POWER, WATER, AND MORTGAGE.

SPALLINA STATED THAT PRIOR TO SIMON'S DEATH, HE WAS THE MANAGER OF BFR, BUT AFTER HIS DEATH IT WAS TRANSFERRED TO OPPENHEIMER TRUST COMPANY, BECAUSE NO ONE IN THE FAMILY WANTED TO MANAGE IT. HE STATED THIS WAS BECAUSE NO ONE WANTED TO DEAL WITH ELIOT. HE SAID OTC BECAME THE TRUSTEE AND THE LEGACY BANK ACCOUNT GOT CLOSED OUT SINCE THE ACCOUNT HAD MINIMAL FUNDS IN IT AND SIMON WAS NO LONGER ALIVE TO FUND IT. HE STATED THAT OTC OPENED UP THEIR OWN BFR TRUST ACCOUNT. HE SAID THAT WHEN THIS OCCURRED, THERE WAS APPROXIMATELY $80,000 IN EACH OF ELIOT'S CHILDREN'S TRUSTS. HE SAID THAT ELIOT STARTED CALLING UP OTC ASKING FOR THEM TO PAY BILLS.

SPALLINA SAID THE PROBLEM IS THAT SINCE NEITHER ELIOT NOR HIS WIFE WERE WORKING, THEY WERE ALSO ASKING FOR THEIR CREDIT CARD BILLS TO BE PAID, ALONG WITH THE NORMAL LIVING EXPENSES. HE STATED THAT THE CREDIT CARD BILLS SHOWED CHARGES TO HIGH END RESTAURANTS, SUCH AS CAPITAL GRILL. SPALLINA SAID THAT DUE TO THE EXPENSES BEING PAID BY THE THREE CHILDREN'S TRUST, TO INCLUDE PRIVATE SCHOOL, THE TRUSTS WERE DRAINED BY AUGUST 2013.

SPALLINA STATED THAT TED BERNSTEIN IS THE TRUSTEE FOR SHIRLEY'S TRUST. HE SAID THAT SHIRLEY HAD A CONDO THAT WAS SOLD FOR $1,400,000 AND THAT MONEY WENT INTO THE TRUST. HE SAID THAT TED DISCUSSED WITH HIS SIBLINGS, POSSIBLY EXCLUDING ELIOT, THAT THERE WAS CONCERN ABOUT A CREDITOR GETTING SOME OF THE MONEY. HE SAID THAT TED MADE A DISTRIBUTION TO SEVEN OF THE 10 GRANDCHILDREN'S TRUSTS. FOUR OF WHICH INCLUDE TED'S THREE CHILDREN AND PAM'S CHILD. SPALLINA SAID THAT TED ONLY FUNDED SEVEN OF THE GRANDCHILDREN, BECAUSE ELIOT REFUSED TO OPEN ACCOUNTS FOR HIS THREE KIDS SO THAT TED COULD FUND THEM. HE SAID THAT IN SEPTEMBER OF 2013, $80,000 WAS DISTRIBUTED TO EACH OF THE SEVEN TRUSTS, WHICH IS A TOTAL OF $560,000. SPALLINA REITERATED THAT TED WAS TOLD TO NOT MAKE DISTRIBUTIONS.

SPALLINA WAS ASKED AND CONFIRMED THAT THE ALTERED DOCUMENT REFERENCE SHIRLEY'S TRUST, IS THE ONLY MISTAKE THAT HE MADE. HE IS NOT AWARE OF ANY OTHER MISTAKES.

I WAS SUPPLIED A COPY OF THE ALTERED DOCUMENT BY SPALLINA ON 01/22/14.

THIS NARRATIVE IS NOT A VERBATIM ACCOUNT OF THE INTERVIEW WITH SPALLINA. FURTHER INVESTIGATION WILL CONSIST OF MEETING WITH SIMON AND SHIRLEY'S CHILDREN, IN ATTEMPT TO GAIN STATEMENTS FROM THEM.

ON JAN. 28, 2014 I MET WITH TED BERNSTEIN WHO WAS ACCOMPANIED BY ATTORNEY ALAN ROSE. ROSE IS A CIVIL ATTORNEY, SPECIALIZING IN PROBATE AND BUSINESS LITIGATION. THIS INTERVIEW TOOK PLACE AT THE PALM BEACH COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE, SPECIAL INVESTIGATIONS DIVISION'S CONFERENCE ROOM, LOCATED AT 3228 GUN CLUB ROAD, WEST PALM BEACH, FLORIDA 33406 AT 11:46 A.M. THE FOLLOWING IS A NON-VERBATIM ACCOUNT OF THE INTERVIEW:

TED STATED THAT HE AND HIS FATHER SIMON HAD AN OFFICE TOGETHER. HE TOLD ME THAT IN 2007 HE HAD NOTICED THAT TESCHER AND SPALLINA STARTED FREQUENTING THE OFFICE AND THEY CONTINUED TO VISIT THE OFFICE QUITE OFTEN INTO 2008. HE SAID THAT HE THEN REALIZED THAT HIS PARENTS WERE CONDUCTING THEIR ESTATE PLANNING. HE SAID THAT HE WAS NOT ASKED TO BE PART OF THE PLANNING, NOR DID HE INQUIRE ABOUT IT. TED TOLD ME THAT HE IS THE ELDEST CHILD OF FIVE, TO INCLUDE JILL, LISA, PAM, AND ELIOT. THE OFFICE FOR THE INSURANCE AGENCY THAT TED AND SIMON WORKED TOGETHER AT IS LOCATED AT 950 PENINSULA CORPORATE CIRCLE, BOCA RATON, FL 33487.

TED STATED THAT HE FOUND OUT UPON HIS FATHER'S DEATH, THAT HE WAS THE TRUSTEE FOR HIS MOTHER'S TRUST. HE TOLD ME THAT THE ATTORNEY'S (TESCHER AND SPALLINA) MADE HIM AWARE OF THIS. HE SAID HE WAS ALSO INFORMED HE WAS A CO-TRUSTEE FOR SOME OTHER ACCOUNT. HE TOLD ME THAT HE IS NOT GOING TO INHERIT AN INSURANCE AGENCY, BUT THAT HE AND HIS FATHER WERE PARTNERS. HE STATED THAT HE OWNS STOCK IN THE AGENCY WITH NO OPTION FOR HIM TO INHERIT OR PURCHASE HIS FATHER'S INTEREST IN THE COMPANY. HE COMMENTED ON THE FACT THAT THE BUSINESS MAKES LITTLE INCOME THESE DAYS.

TED STATED THAT IN THE FIRST PART OF 2012, HIS FATHER (SIMON) HAD A DISCUSSION WITH HIM, REFERENCE AN ISSUE THAT PAM RAISED WITH SIMON ABOUT HOW THE DOCUMENTS FOR THE TRUSTS WERE DRAWN UP. HE TOLD ME THAT HE BELIEVED PAM HAD SENT SIMON SOME INFORMATION OR A BOOK RELEVANT TO HER VIEW ON HOW YOU DO ESTATE PLANNING WHEN CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN ARE INVOLVED. HE SAID THAT HIS FATHER DID ASK HIM HIS OPINION ON THINGS AND TED TOLD HIM THAT HE DID FEEL THAT THE GRANDCHILDREN MAY NOT UNDERSTAND IT IF THEY DID NOT RECEIVE AN INHERITANCE. HE STATED THAT HIS FATHER TOLD HIM THAT HE MADE A REALLY GOOD POINT AND SOMETHING TO CONSIDER. TED SAID THAT SOON AFTER THAT CONVERSATION HIS FATHER ANNOUNCED THAT HE WANTED TO TALK WITH HIS CHILDREN ABOUT THE DISTRIBUTION OF HIS AND SHIRLEY'S ASSETS UPON HIS DEATH. HE TOLD ME THAT A CONFERENCE CALL MEETING TOOK PLACE INCLUDING HIS (SIMON'S) FIVE CHILDREN, SIMON, AND SPALLINA. HE SAID THAT THE CONVERSATION WENT REALLY WELL AND SIMON GOT TO PROVIDE HIS WISHES VERY CLEARLY.

HE STATED THAT SPALLINA EXPLAINED THE PROCESS LEGALLY, BUT HIS FATHER MADE A STATEMENT AND ASKED EACH CHILD DIRECTLY, HOW THEY FELT ABOUT IT. TED SAID THAT IT WAS TOLD TO HIM AND HIS SIBLINGS THAT SIMON WAS LEAVING ALL OF HIS WEALTH TO HIS 10 GRANDCHILDREN EQUALLY. HE SAID THAT SIMON TOLD THEM THAT THEY (THE CHILDREN) WERE EACH GETTING 1/5 OF A LIFE INSURANCE POLICY. TED SAID THAT IT WAS OBVIOUS THAT HIS FATHER WAS NOT ASKING FOR PERMISSION, BUT STATING CLEARLY WHAT HE THOUGHT WAS RIGHT. TED SAID THAT EACH CHILD STATED THEY FELT OK ABOUT THE DECISION AND THAT IT WAS HIS WEALTH TO MAKE DECISIONS WITH. TED STATED THAT HE BELIEVES THIS WAS THE SAME PHONE CALL WHERE HE WAS TOLD BY SPALLINA HE, AS WELL AS SIBLINGS, WOULD BE RECEIVING FORMS THEY NEEDED TO SIGN AND RETURN. HE STATED THAT SOON AFTER THIS CALL HE RECEIVED THE WAIVER OF ACCOUNTING FORM FOR HIS MOTHER'S ESTATE. THIS IS THE DOCUMENT DISCUSSED IN PBSO CASE # 13-097087.

TED STATED THAT HE WAS NOT INVOLVED IN ANY OTHER DISCUSSIONS REFERENCE ESTATES UNTIL HIS FATHER'S PASSING ON SEPTEMBER 13, 2012. HE SAID THAT TESCHER AND SPALLINA TOLD HIM AFTER HIS FATHER'S DEATH THAT HE WAS THE TRUSTEE FOR HIS MOTHER'S ESTATE. HE SAID OVER MANY IN PERSON MEETINGS AND PHONE CALLS HE WAS GIVEN GUIDANCE BY THE ATTORNEYS ON HOW TO PERFORM HIS DUTIES AS A TRUSTEE, BECAUSE THIS WAS ALL NEW TO HIM. HE HAD NEVER BEEN IN THIS ROLE BEFORE. HE STATED HE WAS NOT PROVIDED A CHECKLIST OR BOOK ON HOW TO PERFORM THESE DUTIES. TED SAID THAT HE MADE IT CLEAR TO HIS SIBLINGS THAT HE IS THE TRUSTEE ON SHIRLEY'S TRUST. TED STATED THAT HE WAS TOLD THAT SHIRLEY'S TRUST WAS TO BE DISTRIBUTED AMONGST HER 10 GRANDCHILDREN. TED STATED THAT HE DID NOT READ ALL OF SHIRLEY'S TRUST DOCUMENTS AND THAT SPALLINA AND TESCHER HAD BOTH TOLD HIM SEVERAL TIMES HOW SHIRLEY'S TRUST WAS TO BE DISTRIBUTED.

TED SAID THAT HE DID READ IN THE DOCUMENTS WHERE THE 10 GRANDCHILDREN WERE TO RECEIVE THE ASSETS FROM THE TRUST. HE SAID THAT HE DID ISSUE A PARTIAL DISTRIBUTION TO THE SEVEN OF THE 10 GRANDCHILDREN. HE DID NOT ISSUE

CASE NO. 14029459 SUPPLEMENT 1 OFFENSE REPORT CASE NO. 14029489
DISPOSITION: ZULU

DISTRIBUTIONS TO ELIOT'S CHILDREN BECAUSE ELIOT REFUSED TO SET UP ACCOUNTS FOR THE FUNDS TO BE SENT TOO. HE ALSO TOLD ME THAT ELIOT TOLD JUDGE COLIN IN COURT THAT HE DID NOT WANT TO SET UP THE ACCOUNTS FOR HIS CHILDREN TO RECEIVE THE FUNDS, BECAUSE THE FUNDS BELONG TO HIM, NOT HIS CHILDREN. HE STATED THAT ELIOT HAD MENTIONED OTHER REASONS IN E-MAILS FOR NOT TAKING THE MONEY. HE ALSO STATED THAT ELIOT REFERENCED THE MONEY AS CRIME OR BLOOD MONEY.

HE STATED THAT SPALLINA TOLD HIM IT WAS OK TO DISTRIBUTE THE FUNDS. HE STATED THAT TESCHER AND SPALLINA RESPONDED VIA E-MAIL ON HOW TO RECEIVE THE FUNDS, SUCH AS SETTING UP TRUST ACCOUNTS FOR THE FUNDS TO GO INTO. TED TOLD ME THAT THERE WERE CONVERSATIONS, WHERE HE WAS TOLD THAT SIMON'S ASSETS COULD NOT BE DISTRIBUTED DUE TO CREDITORS FILING AGAINST THE ESTATE, BUT HE WAS LEAD TO BELIEVE IT WAS OK TO MAKE A PARTIAL DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS FROM SHIRLEY'S ESTATE, BUT THAT THEY WOULD NEED TO BE CAREFUL IN REGARDS TO DISTRIBUTING FUNDS THAT WERE OBTAINED THROUGH LIQUIDATING HER JEWELRY AND PERSONAL PROPERTY. TED ALSO COMMENTED THAT ONE OF THE GOALS OF MAKING THE DISTRIBUTIONS WAS TO ASSIST ELIOT AND HIS FAMILY, BECAUSE THEY WERE RUNNING LOW ON FUNDS. HE STATED THIS DERIVED FROM ELIOT'S POTENTIAL MISUSE OF FUNDS THAT WERE IN HIS CHILDREN'S TRUSTS IN RELATION TO BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALITY (ELIOT'S HOME) AND ELIOT'S SPENDING AND EXPENSES.

TED CONFIRMED THAT HE DID NOT MAKE ANY DECISIONS IN RELATION TO SIMON'S INSURANCE POLICY GENERATED OUT OF CHICAGO, ILLINOIS. HE STATED THAT HE UNDERSTOOD THE POLICY TO BE OWNED BY SIMON PERSONALLY. HE STATED HE UNDERSTOOD THE POLICY TO READ AS, SHOULD SHIRLEY PASS BEFORE HIM, THE BENEFITS WOULD GO TO THE FIVE CHILDREN.

TED CONFIRMED THAT HE WAS NOT THE TRUSTEE FOR SIMON'S ESTATE, BUT THAT IT WAS EXPLAINED TO HIM, VERBALLY, THAT ALL 10 GRANDCHILDREN WILL RECEIVE THE ASSETS FROM THAT ESTATE IN AN EQUAL DISTRIBUTION AT SOME POINT IN TIME. WE DID DISCUSS THE POWER OF APPOINTMENT PUT IN THE TRUST DOCUMENTS. IT APPEARED AS IF TED WAS NOT AWARE OF ANYTHING CALLED A POWER OF APPOINTMENT, UNTIL THE LAST FEW WEEKS. THAT WAS WHEN SPALLINA NOTIFIED THE COURTS OF HIS WITHDRAW FROM BEING THE ATTORNEY FOR SIMON AND SHIRLEY'S ESTATES. IT APPEARS IT WAS EXPLAINED TO HIM AT THAT TIME.

TED TOLD ME THAT HE AND HIS FATHER HAD A GOOD BUSINESS AND PERSONAL RELATIONSHIP. HE SAID THAT HE HAS A GOOD RELATIONSHIP WITH ALL OF HIS SIBLINGS, EXCEPT FOR ELIOT. HE SAID THAT HE GOT ALONG WITH HIS MOTHER, PRIOR TO HER PASSING. HE TOLD ME THAT RACHEL WALKER WAS EMPLOYED BY HIS MOTHER AND FATHER. HE SAID THAT HE GOT ALONG WITH WALKER AND THAT SHE HELPED HIS MOTHER, SHIRLEY, PRIOR TO SHIRLEY'S PASSING. TED TOLD ME THAT MARITZA PUCCIO WAS SOMEONE THAT WORKED FOR HIM AND AS WELL AS HIS PARENTS. HE STATED THAT SHE HELPED AROUND THE HOMES, CLEANING AND/OR CARING FOR CHILDREN. HE STATED THAT HE MET HER AROUND 2003 OR 2005. HE SAID THAT HE NO LONGER HAS A RELATIONSHIP

DISPOSITION: ZULU

WITH HER. HE SAID THAT SIMON DID HAVE AN INTIMATE RELATIONSHIP WITH PUCCIO AFTER SHIRLEY PASSED. HE STATED THAT PUCCIO DID RECEIVE SOME TYPE OF FINANCIAL BENEFIT FROM SIMON, PRIOR TO HIM PASSING. HE SAID THAT PUCCIO WAS LIVING WITH SIMON AND HER BILLS WERE BEING PAID FOR. THIS MAY OR MAY NOT BE THE FINANCIAL BENEFIT; TED DID NOT SEEM TO BE SURE. HE DID STATE THAT IT APPEARED THAT SIMON WAS GENUINELY INVESTED INTO THE RELATIONSHIP HE HAD WITH PUCCIO.

TED SAID THAT HE HAS NOT SPOKEN TO SPALLINA ABOUT HIM WITHDRAWING FROM BEING THE ATTORNEY FOR THE TRUSTS, BUT THAT HE DID SPEAK WITH TESCHER. HE SAID THAT TESCHER TOLD HIM HE HAD BEEN MADE AWARE OF A FABRICATED DOCUMENT THAT WAS POTENTIALLY PROBLEMATIC FOR THE ESTATES. HE SAID THAT TESCHER TOLD HIM THAT SPALLINA CREATED THE FABRICATED DOCUMENT AND IT ESSENTIALLY IMPACTED THE ABILITY FOR SIMON TO DISTRIBUTE FUNDS TO ALL 10 GRANDKIDS. TED SAID THAT TESCHER TOLD HIM THAT HE HAD ONLY RECENTLY BECOME AWARE OF THIS DOCUMENT, APPROXIMATELY THREE WEEKS AGO FROM TODAY (01/29/14).

ATTORNEY ALAN ROSE PROVIDED A STATEMENT, STATING HE WISHED TO CLARIFY SOME THINGS IN REGARDS TO HOW THE ESTATE DOCUMENTS READ IN HIS OPINION. HE STATED THAT SHIRLEY'S ASSETS WENT TO LISA, JILL, AND ELIOT OR THEIR LINEAL DECEDENTS. HE STATED THAT ONCE SHIRLEY PASSED HER ASSETS WENT INTO HER TRUST. HE STATED THAT SIMON WAS THE SOLE BENEFICIARY FOR HIS LIFE. HE STATED THAT SIMON DID HAVE A POWER OF APPOINTMENT THAT HE COULD EXERCISE; REFERENCE SHIRLEY'S TRUST, CHANGING THE BENEFITS TO LISA, JILL, AND ELIOT'S CHILDREN. SIMON COULD CHANGE HIS DOCUMENTS AT ANY TIME UP TO HIS DEATH. ALAN STATED THERE IS QUESTION AS TO WHETHER OR NOT SIMON HAD THE POWER TO DISTRIBUTE THE FUNDS FROM THE TRUST TO SIX GRANDCHILDREN OR 10. THE 10 WOULD INCLUDE THE CHILDREN OF ALL FIVE OF SIMON'S KIDS.

HE STATED THAT SHIRLEY'S ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS STATE THAT TED AND PAM AND THEIR LINEAL DECEDENTS ARE CONSIDERED PREDECEASED. HE STATED THAT WERE OTHER WAYS TO MAKE SIMON'S WISHES COME TRUE FOR THE ESTATES. HE SAID THAT CHANGES COULD HAVE BEEN MADE TO SIMON'S DOCUMENTS TO REFLECT SHIRLEY'S SO THAT EQUAL DISTRIBUTIONS WERE MADE AMONGST THE 10 GRANDCHILDREN. THIS EXPLANATION OF THE DOCUMENTS GENERATED A SIMILAR IF NOT THE SAME CONCLUSION AS THAT OF SPALLINA'S FROM LAST WEEK.

I ALSO COMMUNICATED WITH ELIOT BERNSTEIN SEVERAL TIMES THIS WEEK AND LAST WEEK IN ATTEMPT TO ARRANGE AN INTERVIEW WITH HIM IN PERSON. HE CANCELED THE LAST TWO MEETINGS WE HAD SET. AT THIS TIME HE HAS REFUSED TO SET A NEW MEETING DATE.

THIS CONCLUDES MY SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT.

ON 01/29/14 I ATTEMPTED TO MAKE CONTACT WITH LISA FRIEDSTEIN, JILL TANTONT, AND PAMELA SIMON VIA E-MAIL. THEY ARE THE THREE DAUGHTERS OF SIMON AND SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN. I USED THE INFORMATION THAT WAS PROVIDED TO ME BY ELIOT ON 09/10/13. I ATTACHED READ RECEIPTS TO THE E-MAIL. I RECEIVED A READ RECEIPT FROM PAMELA 01/30/14 AT 4:59 AM. ON 01/30/14 I PLACED PHONE CALLS TO JILL AND LISA, USING THE PHONE NUMBERS ELIOT HAD PROVIDED ME. I LEFT MESSAGES ASKING THEM TO CALL ME BACK. ON 01/31/14 I BRIEFLY SPOKE WITH LISA, BUT ASKED THAT SHE CALL BACK SO WE CAN FURTHER DISCUSS THIS CASE. TO DATE, I HAVE NOT RECEIVED A CALL OR E-MAIL FROM PAM OR JILL.

THIS CONCLUDES MY SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT.

Re: Estates and Trusts of Shirley Bernstein and Simon Bernstein

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

It has been brought to my attention that a document was prepared in our office that altered the disposition of the Shirley Bernstein Trust subsequent to Simon Bernstein's death. Information provided to me appears to indicate that there were two versions of the First Amendment to the Shirley Bernstein Trust Agreement, both executed on November 18, 2008. Under one version the children of Pam Simon and Ted Bernstein would not be permissible appointees of Simon Bernstein's exercise of the power of appointment while under the second version that restriction was removed. As you all know, Simon Bernstein's dispositive plan, expressed to all of you during his lifetime on a conference call, was to distribute the Estate to all ten of his grandchildren. That was the basis upon which the administration was moving forward.

Under the Shirley Bernstein Trust, there is a definition of children and lineal descendants. That definition excluded Pam Simon, Ted Bernstein and their respective children from inheriting. The document also contained a special Power of Appointment for Simon wherein he could appoint the assets of the Trust for Shirley's lineal descendants. Based upon the definition of children and lineal descendants, the Power of Appointment could not be exercised in favor of Pam Simon, Ted Bernstein or their respective children, although we believe it was Simon Bernstein's wish to provide equally for all of his grandchildren.

On November 18, 2008, it does appear from the information that I have reviewed that Shirley Bernstein executed a First Amendment to her trust agreement. The document as executed appears to make only one relatively minor modification to her trust disposition by eliminating a specific gift to Ted Bernstein's stepson. In January of 2013 a First Amendment to the Shirley Bernstein Trust Agreement was provided to Christine Yates, Esq. who, at that time, was representing Eliot Bernstein. The document provided contained a paragraph number 2 which modified the definitional language in Shirley's document so as to permit, by deleting the words "and their respective lineal descendants" from the definition, an exercise of the power of appointment by Simon Bernstein over the Shirley Bernstein Trust to pass equally to all ten grandchildren rather than only six of the grandchildren.

By virtue of The Florida Bar Rules of Professional Conduct, I am duty bound to provide this information to you. Obviously, as a result of the issues and ramifications raised by the allegations, my firm must resign from further representation in all matters relating to the Estates and Trusts of Simon Bernstein and Shirley Bernstein. Furthermore, it is my intent, and I assume also the intent of Robert Spallina, to tender our resignations as personal representatives of the Simon Bernstein Estate and as trustees of the Simon Bernstein Trust. If the majority of the Bernstein family is in agreement, I would propose to exercise the power to designate a successor trustee by appointing Ted Bernstein in that capacity. With regard to the Simon Bernstein Estate, the appointment of the successor would require a court proceeding.

I am obviously upset and distraught over this chain of events and will do all that I reasonably can to correct and minimize any damages to the Bernstein family. As I believe you know, to date there has only been a modest funding of some, but not all, of the continuing trusts for the grandchildren emanating from Shirley's Trust assets.

Very truly yours,

DONALD R. TESCHER

RESPONSE IN OPPOSITION TO MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF TED BERNSTEIN AS CURATOR AND MOTION FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF ELIOT BERNSTEIN AS CURATOR OR SUCCESSOR PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE OR, IN THE ALTERNATIVE, FOR APPOINTMENT OF AN INDEPENDENT THIRD PARTY AS SUCCESSOR PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE OR CURATOR

COMES NOW Petitioner, William E. Stansbury ("Stansbury"), an unsecured creditor and "Interested Person," pursuant to the §731.201(23) Fla. Stat. (2013), by and through his undersigned counsel, and files this Response in Opposition to Motion for Appointment of Ted Bernstein as Curator and Motion for the Appointment of Eliot Bernstein as Curator or Successor Personal Representative or, in the Alternative, for Appointment of an Independent Third Party as Successor Personal Representative or Curator. In support, Petitioner states as follows:

1. The currently serving Co-Personal Representatives of the Estate, Donald R. Tescher and Robert L. Spallina have petitioned this Court for Resignation and Discharge. In considering the resignation, the Court, under the provisions of Fla. Prob. R. 5.430(d), is required to determine the necessity of appointing a successor fiduciary.

2. In this Estate, the Court is required to appoint a successor fiduciary since both Co-Personal Representatives are resigning. The Court is also empowered to appoint a curator under §733.506, Fla. Stat. (2013) and Fla. Prob. R. 5.122(a) until a new Successor Personal Representative is appointed.

I. Stansbury has standing to bring this Response and Motion

3. When removal of a Personal Representative is at issue, Fla. Prob. R. 5.440 specifically provides that, " ... any interested person, by petition, may commence a proceeding to remove a personal representative. ..." (Emphasis added.) By logical extension an "interested person" would also have standing to petition the court for the appointment of a successor fiduciary.

4. The provisions of §731.201(23), Fla. Stat. (2013) define an "interested person" as:

5. Stansbury has filed a claim against the Estate of Simon Bernstein (the "Estate") and has sued the Estate in a separate lawsuit styled William E. Stansbury v. Ted Bernstein, et al, Case. No. 50 2012 CA 013933 MB AA, Palm Beach County, Florida. A copy of the Statement of Claim is attached as Exhibit "A." A copy of the Amended Complaint which forms the basis of the Statement of Claim is attached hereto as Exhibit "B."

6. Stansbury, as a claimant of the Estate, has an interest in ensuring that the successor fiduciary ultimately appointed will act without bias and in the best interests of the creditors and devisees of the Estate. The Fourth District Court of Appeal has recognized that a claimant to an estate is an "interested person" and has standing in a proceeding to approve the personal representative's final accounting and petition for discharge. See, Arzuman v. Estate of Prince Bander BIN Saud Bin, etc., 879 So.2d 675 (Fla. 4th DCA 2004). See also, Montgomery v. Cribb, 484 So.2d 73 (Fla. 2d DCA 1986) (Wrongful death claimant was entitled to notice of hearing as an "interested person" under the probate code even though case was dismissed by trial court and disputed settlement was on appeal.) Stansbury is therefore an "interested person" as to the outcome of this or any subsequent proceeding in which a successor fiduciary or a curator will be appointed, and Stansbury has standing to file and advance this Petition.

II. Ted Bernstein should not be appointed as Curator or Successor Personal Representative

A. Misconduct in the Shirley Bernstein Estate

7. There are serious allegations of fraud and forgery in the Shirley Bernstein Estate where Ted Bernstein is now the Personal Representative. Documents were submitted to the Court bearing notarized signatures of Simon Bernstein, alleged signatures by him, but on a date after he had passed away.

8. This Court was apprised of these allegations in a hearing conducted September 13, 2013 wherein the Court questioned whether the potential parties involved should be read their Miranda Rights. (See Transcript of Proceedings, pages 15 and 16, attached as Exhibit "C.")

B. The "lost" Insurance Trust

9. At the time of Simon Bernstein's death, it was determined that there existed a life insurance policy issued by Heritage Mutual Insurance Company ("Heritage") allegedly payable to the Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust as beneficiary (the "Insurance Trust"). According to an SS-4 Application for EIN form submitted to the IRS on June 21, 1995, Shirley Bernstein was represented as Trustee of the Insurance Trust. (See SS-4 Application for EIN as Exhibit "D.")

10. Notwithstanding the earlier SS-4 EIN form, on November 1, 2012, Robert Spallina, one of the resigning Co-Personal Representatives, submitted a claim form to Heritage on behalf of the Insurance Trust for the benefit of the grown children of Simon Bernstein. In doing so, Spallina represented that he was the Trustee of the Insurance Trust. (See Exhibit "E")

Spallina made this representation despite having informed Heritage by letter shortly thereafter that he was "unable to locate the Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust dated June 1, 1995." (See Exhibit "F" attached.) If the Trust instrument cannot be found, the insurance proceeds would be payable to the Simon Bernstein Estate, and as such, would be available to pay creditors of the Estate such as Stansbury.

11. Spallina, with the knowledge of Ted Bernstein, represented that he was "Trustee" of the Insurance Trust in an effort to collect the insurance proceeds on behalf the Insurance Trust and for the benefit of the grown children of Simon Bernstein, so as to circumvent the Simon Bernstein Estate.

12. Heritage refused to pay the life insurance proceeds to anyone without a court order. The Insurance Trust then sued Heritage in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois (the case has since been removed to Federal Court). In paragraph 2 of the Complaint, the Plaintiff, the Insurance Trust, although apparently still "lost," alleges that Ted Bernstein is the "trustee" of the Insurance Trust. Yet, there exists no trust document establishing the continued existence of the Insurance Trust, let alone that Ted is the Trustee. As a result, Ted's representation, like that of Spallina, appears plainly false.

C. Ted Bernstein has a Conflict of Interest ---

13. Ted Bernstein, as well as his siblings (other than Eliot) - Lisa Sue Friedstein, Pamela Beth Simon, and Jill Iantoni - have a conflict of interest precluding them from faithfully executing the duties of fiduciary on behalf of the Estate.

14. One of the considerations for removal of a Personal Representative as set forth in §733.504(9) (2013) is, "(9) Holding or acquiring conflicting or adverse interests against the estate that will or may interfere with the administration of the estate as a whole."

15. A trail of e-mails indicates that Ted Berstein, Lisa Sue Friedstein, Pamela Beth Simon and Jill Iantoni were advocating and scheming to keep the proceeds from the Heritage life insurance policy, as described above in paragraphs 9 thru 12 from being paid to the Estate. The stated purpose of this scheme was to avoid making the life insurance proceeds available to pay creditors of the Estate such as Stansbury. (See, selected e-mail messages, attached hereto as Composite Exhibit "G".) The residuary beneficiaries of the Will, that is, the grandchildren of Simon Bernstein, would also be prejudiced by such a determination.

16. Section 733.602(1), Fla. Stat. (2013), expressly provides that ". . . A personal representative shall use the authority conferred by this code, the authority in the will, if any, and the authority of any order of the court, for the best interests of interested persons, including creditors." (Emphasis added.)

17. While the ultimate outcome of the adjudication of the issues surrounding the Heritage life insurance proceeds is uncertain, what is clear is that each of the children of Simon Bernstein, other than Eliot Bernstein, have advocated, and continue to advocate a position that is contrary to the best interests of the Estate, its creditors and beneficiaries. These two conflicting and contrary positions between the interests of the children of Simon Bernstein (other than Eliot) and the duty of the successor fiduciary to act in the best interests of the Estate, including the creditors and beneficiaries, render Ted Bernstein, Lisa Sue Friedstein, Pamela Beth Simon and Jill Iantoni unqualified to serve as successor fiduciaries. See Estate of Bell v. Johnson, 573 So.2d 57 (Fla. 1st DCA, 1990) (conflict between personal representative, in that capacity, and as power of attorney, necessitated removal as personal representative).

D. The "Schiller" Lawsuit

18. Further, Ted Bernstein is a Defendant in yet another lawsuit filed in this Circuit Court. See, Schiller v. Life Insurance Concepts, et al, Case No. 502013CA007442 AD, wherein Ted Bernstein and others are accused of negligence and other business torts in connection with their business dealings.

E. Curator and Successor Personal Representative

19. Stansbury nominates Eliot Bernstein ("Eliot"), a son of the Decedent, to serve as successor Personal Representative. Eliot is qualified under §733.302, Fla. Stat. (2013) as he is sui juris and was a resident of Florida at the time of his father's death on September 13, 2012. Additionally, he is entitled to "preferential" consideration under §733.301(1)(a)(3) in that he is a devisee under Simon Bernstein's Will dated July 25, 2012 that has been admitted to probate.

20. In addition to his technical qualifications to serve as Personal Representative under the Florida Probate Code, Eliot also deserves significant consideration since he has been the only child of Simon and Shirley Bernstein to bring to the Court's attention the potential fraud and forgery issues that exist in connection with the closing of the Estate of Shirley Bernstein, as more fully set forth in paragraphs 7 and 8 above.

21. Stansbury acknowledges that Eliot's siblings, Theodore "Ted" Bernstein, Lisa Sue Friedstein, Pamela Beth Simon, and Jill Iantoni are also technically qualified to serve under §733.302, Fla. Stat. (2013) and §733.301(1)(a)(3). However, for the reasons set forth above, each of them should not be considered or appointed Curator or Successor Personal Representative by this Court.

22. Alternatively, should the Court determine that all of the Bernstein children, Eliot included, are not appropriate to serve, Stansbury moves this Court for the appointment of an independent, third party Curator or Personal Representative that will administer the Estate in an objective, unbiased and fair manner, as set forth in § 733.5061, Fla. Stat. (2013) and in accordance with the procedure set forth in §733.501, Fla. Stat. (2013).

RESPONSE IN OPPOSITION TO MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF TED BERNSTEIN AS CURATOR AND MOTION FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF ELIOT BERNSTEIN AS CURATOR OR SUCCESSOR PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE OR, IN THE ALTERNATIVE, FOR APPOINTMENT OF AN INDEPENDENT THIRD PARTY AS SUCCESSOR PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE OR CURATOR

COMES NOW Petitioner, William E. Stansbury ("Stansbury"), an unsecured creditor and "Interested Person," pursuant to the §731.201(23) Fla. Stat. (2013), by and through his undersigned counsel, and files this Response in Opposition to Motion for Appointment of Ted Bernstein as Curator and Motion for the Appointment of Eliot Bernstein as Curator or Successor Personal Representative or, in the Alternative, for Appointment of an Independent Third Party as Successor Personal Representative or Curator. In support, Petitioner states as follows:

1. The currently serving Co-Personal Representatives of the Estate, Donald R. Tescher and Robert L. Spallina have petitioned this Court for Resignation and Discharge. In considering the resignation, the Court, under the provisions of Fla. Prob. R. 5.430(d), is required to determine the necessity of appointing a successor fiduciary.

2. In this Estate, the Court is required to appoint a successor fiduciary since both Co-Personal Representatives are resigning. The Court is also empowered to appoint a curator under §733.506, Fla. Stat. (2013) and Fla. Prob. R. 5.122(a) until a new Successor Personal Representative is appointed.

I. Stansbury has standing to bring this Response and Motion

3. When removal of a Personal Representative is at issue, Fla. Prob. R. 5.440 specifically provides that, " ... any interested person, by petition, may commence a proceeding to remove a personal representative. ..." (Emphasis added.) By logical extension an "interested person" would also have standing to petition the court for the appointment of a successor fiduciary.

4. The provisions of §731.201(23), Fla. Stat. (2013) define an "interested person" as:

5. Stansbury has filed a claim against the Estate of Simon Bernstein (the "Estate") and has sued the Estate in a separate lawsuit styled William E. Stansbury v. Ted Bernstein, et al, Case. No. 50 2012 CA 013933 MB AA, Palm Beach County, Florida. A copy of the Statement of Claim is attached as Exhibit "A." A copy of the Amended Complaint which forms the basis of the Statement of Claim is attached hereto as Exhibit "B."

6. Stansbury, as a claimant of the Estate, has an interest in ensuring that the successor fiduciary ultimately appointed will act without bias and in the best interests of the creditors and devisees of the Estate. The Fourth District Court of Appeal has recognized that a claimant to an estate is an "interested person" and has standing in a proceeding to approve the personal representative's final accounting and petition for discharge. See, Arzuman v. Estate of Prince Bander BIN Saud Bin, etc., 879 So.2d 675 (Fla. 4th DCA 2004). See also, Montgomery v. Cribb, 484 So.2d 73 (Fla. 2d DCA 1986) (Wrongful death claimant was entitled to notice of hearing as an "interested person" under the probate code even though case was dismissed by trial court and disputed settlement was on appeal.) Stansbury is therefore an "interested person" as to the outcome of this or any subsequent proceeding in which a successor fiduciary or a curator will be appointed, and Stansbury has standing to file and advance this Petition.

II. Ted Bernstein should not be appointed as Curator or Successor Personal Representative

A. Misconduct in the Shirley Bernstein Estate

7. There are serious allegations of fraud and forgery in the Shirley Bernstein Estate where Ted Bernstein is now the Personal Representative. Documents were submitted to the Court bearing notarized signatures of Simon Bernstein, alleged signatures by him, but on a date after he had passed away.

8. This Court was apprised of these allegations in a hearing conducted September 13, 2013 wherein the Court questioned whether the potential parties involved should be read their Miranda Rights. (See Transcript of Proceedings, pages 15 and 16, attached as Exhibit "C.")

B. The "lost" Insurance Trust

9. At the time of Simon Bernstein's death, it was determined that there existed a life insurance policy issued by Heritage Mutual Insurance Company ("Heritage") allegedly payable to the Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust as beneficiary (the "Insurance Trust"). According to an SS-4 Application for EIN form submitted to the IRS on June 21, 1995, Shirley Bernstein was represented as Trustee of the Insurance Trust. (See SS-4 Application for EIN as Exhibit "D.")

10. Notwithstanding the earlier SS-4 EIN form, on November 1, 2012, Robert Spallina, one of the resigning Co-Personal Representatives, submitted a claim form to Heritage on behalf of the Insurance Trust for the benefit of the grown children of Simon Bernstein. In doing so, Spallina represented that he was the Trustee of the Insurance Trust. (See Exhibit "E")

Spallina made this representation despite having informed Heritage by letter shortly thereafter that he was "unable to locate the Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust dated June 1, 1995." (See Exhibit "F" attached.) If the Trust instrument cannot be found, the insurance proceeds would be payable to the Simon Bernstein Estate, and as such, would be available to pay creditors of the Estate such as Stansbury.

11. Spallina, with the knowledge of Ted Bernstein, represented that he was "Trustee" of the Insurance Trust in an effort to collect the insurance proceeds on behalf the Insurance Trust and for the benefit of the grown children of Simon Bernstein, so as to circumvent the Simon Bernstein Estate.

12. Heritage refused to pay the life insurance proceeds to anyone without a court order. The Insurance Trust then sued Heritage in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois (the case has since been removed to Federal Court). In paragraph 2 of the Complaint, the Plaintiff, the Insurance Trust, although apparently still "lost," alleges that Ted Bernstein is the "trustee" of the Insurance Trust. Yet, there exists no trust document establishing the continued existence of the Insurance Trust, let alone that Ted is the Trustee. As a result, Ted's representation, like that of Spallina, appears plainly false.

C. Ted Bernstein has a Conflict of Interest ---

13. Ted Bernstein, as well as his siblings (other than Eliot) - Lisa Sue Friedstein, Pamela Beth Simon, and Jill Iantoni - have a conflict of interest precluding them from faithfully executing the duties of fiduciary on behalf of the Estate.

14. One of the considerations for removal of a Personal Representative as set forth in §733.504(9) (2013) is, "(9) Holding or acquiring conflicting or adverse interests against the estate that will or may interfere with the administration of the estate as a whole."

15. A trail of e-mails indicates that Ted Berstein, Lisa Sue Friedstein, Pamela Beth Simon and Jill Iantoni were advocating and scheming to keep the proceeds from the Heritage life insurance policy, as described above in paragraphs 9 thru 12 from being paid to the Estate. The stated purpose of this scheme was to avoid making the life insurance proceeds available to pay creditors of the Estate such as Stansbury. (See, selected e-mail messages, attached hereto as Composite Exhibit "G".) The residuary beneficiaries of the Will, that is, the grandchildren of Simon Bernstein, would also be prejudiced by such a determination.

16. Section 733.602(1), Fla. Stat. (2013), expressly provides that ". . . A personal representative shall use the authority conferred by this code, the authority in the will, if any, and the authority of any order of the court, for the best interests of interested persons, including creditors." (Emphasis added.)

17. While the ultimate outcome of the adjudication of the issues surrounding the Heritage life insurance proceeds is uncertain, what is clear is that each of the children of Simon Bernstein, other than Eliot Bernstein, have advocated, and continue to advocate a position that is contrary to the best interests of the Estate, its creditors and beneficiaries. These two conflicting and contrary positions between the interests of the children of Simon Bernstein (other than Eliot) and the duty of the successor fiduciary to act in the best interests of the Estate, including the creditors and beneficiaries, render Ted Bernstein, Lisa Sue Friedstein, Pamela Beth Simon and Jill Iantoni unqualified to serve as successor fiduciaries. See Estate of Bell v. 18. Further, Ted Bernstein is a Defendant in yet another lawsuit filed in this Circuit Court. See, Schiller v. Life Insurance Concepts, et al, Case No. 502013CA007442 AD, wherein Ted Bernstein and others are accused of negligence and other business torts in connection with their business dealings.

E. Curator and Successor Personal Representative

19. Stansbury nominates Eliot Bernstein ("Eliot"), a son of the Decedent, to serve as successor Personal Representative. Eliot is qualified under §733.302, Fla. Stat. (2013) as he is sui juris and was a resident of Florida at the time of his father's death on September 13, 2012. Additionally, he is entitled to "preferential" consideration under §733.301(1)(a)(3) in that he is a devisee under Simon Bernstein's Will dated July 25, 2012 that has been admitted to probate.

20. In addition to his technical qualifications to serve as Personal Representative under the Florida Probate Code, Eliot also deserves significant consideration since he has been the only child of Simon and Shirley Bernstein to bring to the Court's attention the potential fraud and forgery issues that exist in connection with the closing of the Estate of Shirley Bernstein, as more fully set forth in paragraphs 7 and 8 above.

21. Stansbury acknowledges that Eliot's siblings, Theodore "Ted" Bernstein, Lisa Sue Friedstein, Pamela Beth Simon, and Jill Iantoni are also technically qualified to serve under §733.302, Fla. Stat. (2013) and §733.301(1)(a)(3). However, for the reasons set forth above, each of them should not be considered or appointed Curator or Successor Personal Representative by this Court.

22. Alternatively, should the Court determine that all of the Bernstein children, Eliot included, are not appropriate to serve, Stansbury moves this Court for the appointment of an independent, third party Curator or Personal Representative that will administer the Estate in an objective, unbiased and fair manner, as set forth in § 733.5061, Fla. Stat. (2013) and in accordance with the procedure set forth in §733.501, Fla. Stat. (2013).

COMPLAINT
And JURY DEMAND

WILLIAM STANSBURY (PLAINTIFF"), by and through his undersigned co-counsel, hereby demanding trial by jury of all issues so triable, hereby sues the Defendants, and says

1. This is an action for money damages in excess of $15,000, and for equitable relief.

2. Plaintiff is sui juris, and a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida.

3. Defendants TED S. BERNSTEIN ("TED BERNSTEIN"), and SIMON BERNSTEIN are both sui juris, and are both residents of Palm Beach County, Florida.

4. The corporate Defendants, LIC HOLDINGS, INC.; and ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, L.L.C., f/k/a ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, L.L.C., are entities organized and existing under the laws of the State of Florida, all do business in the State of Florida and all have their principal offices in the State of Florida, and in Palm Beach County, Florida.

5. Defendants SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN (collectively "Defendants

EXHIBIT A

BERNSTEIN") are, respectively, one another's father and son. They both own and control all of the corporate Defendants, and work closely together with respect thereto. In all matters involved herein, they worked closely together and were virtually one another's alter egos.

7 The acts and incidents giving rise to these causes of action occurred in Palm Beach County, Florida.

Background

8. Plaintiff has worked in the insurance field virtually all his adult life, and by 2003 had become well-known and highly regarded by major insurance companies, their principals, and by others throughout the insurance industry, at all levels thereof, as well as by professionals, including attorneys, CPAs, financial advisors, wealth managers and others who were involved in serving, or otherwise dealing with, insurers and insurance brokers.

9. SIMON BERNSTEIN dealt at high levels of the insurance industry, and specialized in developing and marketing insurance concepts suitable for persons of high net worth to incorporate in their wealth management and estate planning.

10. TED BERNSTEIN was actively involved in selling life insurance products in conjunction with attorneys, CPAs and other professionals, to be incorporated into clients' financial planning.

11. In 2003, TED BERNSTEIN approached Plaintiff, urging Plaintiff to spearhead the marketing of a unique insurance concept ("the said concept"), newly developed by a prominent law firm, which was designed for use in the financial and estate planning of wealthy individuals.

12. TED BERNSTEIN told Plaintiff that he knew of Plaintiff's knowledgeability, and reputation in the insurance and related industries and professions, and that Plaintiff was skilled at, and accustomed to, speaking and marketing insurance products to, large groups of professionals, and that he realized that Plaintiff, because of his knowledgeability, reputation and abilities, would be ideal to market this concept nationwide, through prominent and experienced professionals..

13. SIMON BERNSTEIN proposed that Plaintiff work as an independent contractor for the Corporate Defendants, marketing the product to the above-described He offered Plaintiff an arrangement whereby Plaintiff would receive twenty percent (20%) of all net retained amounts of commissions received from insurance companies and general agents' overrides (hereinafter, "commissions") which chose to issue policies of the type to be marketed, for use in the said financial and estate planning, and all other sales by the companies. Plaintiff would receive no other salary remuneration, but would have his travel and marketing expenses advanced or reimbursed. In time, when Plaintiff agreed to become an employee rather than an independent contractor, he agreed to a salary of the equivalent of 15% of commissions received on all products.

14. After reviewing the concept and considering the terms of the arrangement offered by SIMON BERNSTEIN, Plaintiff agreed with BERNSTEIN to accept the proposal described in preceding paragraph 13, and all the parties proceeded to act in accordance therewith.

15. Thereafter, Plaintiff worked with diligence and skill, traveling throughout the United States, generating ever increasing sales, and generating very large commissions for Defendants and for Plaintiff, who received the agreed salary equal to 15% thereof. By 2006, the parties hereto began receiving checks, not only for commissions on new policies sold, but also renewal commissions. Initially, the Plaintiff and Defendants BERNSTEIN, and one secretary, comprised the entire workforce. At the height of the sales campaign, Defendants' staff for serving the business generated by Plaintiff consisted of more than 40 individuals.

16. In 2005, the Plaintiff was paid his commissions in the form of two IRS forms 1099, from National Services Association, and from Defendant ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MARKETING, INC. for his services as an independent contractor.

17. In 2006, Plaintiff received his agreed salary as an employee, reflected in two IRS forms W-2., One W-2 was from ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MARKETING, INC., and the other was from ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, INC., which later became Defendant ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, INC.

18. Also in 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN told Plaintiff that Plaintiff, was being rewarded for the explosive growth of business, through receiving a 10% interest in LIC.

19. In 2007, Plaintiff received his agreed salary as an employee, which salary was reflected in an IRS Form W-2.

20. With the economic downturn in 2008, Defendants looked for ways to withhold from Plaintiff compensation to which he was entitled, and to deceive him into believing that the money which would have been paid to both Defendants as well as to Plaintiff as compensation, was instead being held in the company's coffers.

21. In order to hide from Plaintiff the real fact that Defendants were paying to Defendants BERNSTEIN the full earnings received as commissions, and thereby depriving Plaintiff of the 15% thereof to which he was entitled, they knew they had to terminate Plaintiff's function of calculating each person's entitlement to payment out of commissions received. Therefore, in early 2008, SIMON BERNSTEIN told Plaintiff that the Defendants BERNSTEIN felt that Plaintiff was spending too much time on making the said calculations, and that Plaintiff's time would be better spent in building the business. SIMON BERNSTEIN told

Plaintiff that he and TED BERNSTEIN had decided to pay themselves and Plaintiff identical salaries of not less than $1,000,000 each for 2008, and to distribute any profits beyond the total thus paid to the three owners, the Defendants BERNSTEIN and Plaintiff, according to their respective percentages of ownership, Plaintiff's share being 10%. Plaintiff, having thus far believed he was receiving whatever compensation he was entitled to, and having no reason to realize that this was a ruse to keep him in the dark as to the true state of affairs, readily acceded to his being relieved of the bookkeeping duties regarding calculating the disposition of moneys received.

22. Through misrepresentations made from 2008 through the date of filing of this Complaint, Defendants knowingly made false statements to Plaintiff to hide their scheme to withhold from Plaintiffs money to which he was entitled. For example, at times they claimed that money being received was not being paid as salary or distributions to either of Defendants BERNSTEIN but was being withheld and placed in company accounts, for eventual distribution. As Plaintiff and Defendants could afford to wait until year's end to be paid their distributions, and as Defendants BERNSTEIN assured Plaintiff that the payment arrangement would apply to all three equally, Plaintiff did not question the truthfulness of their representations..

23. In furtherance of their scheme to deprive Plaintiff of salary he had earned and to which he was entitled, Defendants intercepted mail addressed to Plaintiff, removed therefrom commission checks representing full commissions, deposited the same to their own accounts or otherwise converted the funds,, and willfully withhold from Plaintiff his salary. Defendants BERNSTEIN also opened Plaintiff's mail containing checks payable to him which were unrelated to Defendants' business.

24. In 2011, the Defendants BERNSTEIN decided to deceive Plaintiff into giving up his 10% share in the business. Although he had never seen a stock certificate, Plaintiff had in fact been given K-1 statements reflecting his salary, which appeared to approximate 10% of the net profits or losses of LIC, after salary was paid. TED BERNSTEIN told Plaintiff that their accountants had discovered a taxable event which could cause all the owners of the company to have to pay taxes, and that they thought it would be unfair for Plaintiff to have to pay 10% of that tax, so TED BERNSTEIN promised that if Plaintiff would sign a paper ceding his 10% interest, TED BERNSTEIN would simply hold it and it would not become operative unless the tax liability came to exist. Plaintiff was assured that nothing would happen with the stock ownership until Plaintiff and the Defendants BERNSTEIN discussed the situation further after the Holiday Season.

25. Because of the misrepresentations, willful concealments of material facts, duplicity and deceit practiced by Defendants upon Plaintiff as described in preceding paragraphs 20 through 24, Plaintiff was reasonably of the belief that Defendants had complied , or intended to comply, with their material obligations to Plaintiff under the contract between them, and therefore was prevented from knowing, for a period of years, that these causes of action existed. The acts of Defendants in making false statements and withholding material information continues from its inception to the date of the filing hereof.

I. ACCOUNTING
(Against LIC and ARBITRAGE, for Accounting as to Withholding of Money Due Plaintiff)

26. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

27. The relationship between Plaintiff and the Defendants, particularly as affected by Defendants' acts described in preceding paragraphs 20 through 25, inclusive, created a situation where Defendants had sole access to, receipts generated by Plaintiff's efforts, and to books and records reflecting said receipts and the other information from which can be calculated all moneys due to Plaintiff under his arrangement with Defendants.

28, The period of time during which Plaintiff has been deprived of moneys due him spans approximately four and a half years, the numerosity of the sources of receipts by Defendants of moneys from which the amounts due Plaintiff may be calculated, and the changes in the formula under which, and manner in which, Plaintiff was to be paid, all involve extensive and complicated accounts, and Plaintiff's remedy at law could not be as full, adequate and expeditious as it is in equity.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for an adjudication of Plaintiff's right to a full and complete accounting from Defendants, and for such orders of Court as will require the Defendants to provide Plaintiff with all records and copies of documents, dated from the date in 2003 when Plaintiff first began his efforts to generate sales of the concept described in paragraph 11 above to the present, as will reveal his right to, and the amount of, all amounts: (a) received as commissions on said concepts or any other commissions as to which Plaintiff was entitled to a share; (b) due to Plaintiff, whether paid or not; (c) paid to Plaintiff, whether for commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason; (d) paid to each of the Defendants out of moneys received as commissions; (e) deposits of any and all moneys received as commissions by any Defendants to any accounts, including the name of the entity whose account was involved, the number(s) of each such account; the address of the branch or other facility through which any Defendant dealt with such entity; (f) calculations as to moneys paid , to be paid, or not to be paid to Plaintiff, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

II. ACCOUNTING
(Against TED S. BERNSTEIN and SIMON BERNSTEIN, for Accounting as to Money Due to Plaintiff Which Said Defendants Converted)

29. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

30. The relationship between Plaintiff and the Defendants, particularly as affected by Defendants' acts described in preceding paragraphs 20 through 25, inclusive, created a situation where Defendants had sole access to, receipts generated by Plaintiff's efforts, and to books and records reflecting said receipts and the other information from which can be calculated all moneys due to Plaintiff under his arrangement with Defendants.

31, The period of time during which Plaintiff has been deprived of moneys due him spans approximately four and a half years, the numerosity of the sources of receipts by Defendants of moneys from which the amounts due Plaintiff may be calculated, and the changes in the formula under which, and manner in which, Plaintiff was to be paid, all involve extensive and complicated accounts, and Plaintiff's remedy at law could not be as full, adequate and expeditious as it is in equity.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for an adjudication of Plaintiff's right to a full and complete accounting from Defendants, and for such orders of Court as will require the Defendants to provide Plaintiff with all records and copies of documents, dated from the date in 2003 when Plaintiff first began his efforts to generate sales of the concept described in paragraph 11 above to the present, as will reveal his right to, and the amount of, all amounts: (a) received as commissions on said concepts or any other commissions as to which Plaintiff was entitled to a share; (b) due to Plaintiff, whether paid or not; (c) paid to Plaintiff, whether for commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason; (d) paid to each of the Defendants out of moneys received as said commissions; (e) deposits of any and all moneys received as commissions by any Defendants to any accounts, including the name of the entity whose account was involved, the number(s) of each such account; the address of the branch or other facility through which any Defendant dealt with such entity; (f) calculations as to moneys paid , to be paid, or not to be paid to Plaintiff, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

III. BREACH OF ORAL CONTRACT
(Against All the Defendants)

32. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

33. The arrangement between Plaintiff and Defendants as described in paragraphs 11 and 13 above, and as modified by the parties as further described above, constituted a contract between them.

34. An express term of that contract involved the commitment of Defendants to calculate, and to pay to Plaintiff, fully and timely, all sums due to him under the parties' contract, whether as commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason

35. The parties initially performed the duties required of them under said contract.

36. However, as described above in paragraphs 20 through 25, inclusive, Defendants willfully and maliciously agreed to breach their contract with Plaintiff by withholding from Plaintiff moneys due him under the contract.

37. Defendants did withhold such moneys due Plaintiff.

38. The withholding of such moneys constituted a material breach of the contact between Plaintiff and Defendants.

39. There is therefore due to Plaintiff from Defendants all amounts due under said contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

IV. BREACH OF IMPLIED COVENANT Of GOOD FAITH and FAIR DEALING

40. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive, and paragraphs 33 through 38, inclusive.

41. The said contract, as a matter of law, contained an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, obligating the parties to honor every express term of the agreement..

42. Among the express terms of the oral contract between the parties were (a) that Plaintiff would be constantly apprised, either through being permitted to calculate all amounts due the Defendants out of commissions, or through being advised of all receipts of commissions and the disposition thereof, or the amounts due to Plaintiff for any reason under the terms of the contract; and (b) that Plaintiff would be fully and promptly paid all such amounts due him.

43. Through their actions as described in preceding paragraphs 20 through 25, inclusive, the Defendants willfully breached the said express of the contract.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

V. BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY

41. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

42. Plaintiff reposed full confidence in the defendants BERNSTEIN, and trusted them and relied on them to be as good as their word and to deal honestly with him, for a variety of reasons. Plaintiff knew of SIMON BERNSTEIN as a major figure in the insurance industry, prior to their becoming parties to the agreement involved herein. Moreover, Plaintiff and the Defendants BERNSTEIN had formed a social relationship which had grown into what Plaintiff regarded as friendship. Moreover, as the initial situation under their contractual relationship had Plaintiff receiving all information as to commissions received and calculating the amount of money due to Plaintiff and the Defendants BERNSTEIN, as ,mentioned in preceding paragraphs 21 and 22, and also because Plaintiff was told he had been given a minority shareholder interest in LIC, Plaintiff reasonably felt that the Defendants would deal with Plaintiff honestly and fairly, and that the Defendants had no intention of hiding from Plaintiff any information as to the amounts due Plaintiff or as to the Defendants' intention of paying said amounts to Plaintiff

43. Moreover, when Defendants proposed to Plaintiff that Plaintiffs cease being the one to calculate moneys due the parties out of commissions received, the Plaintiff trusted Defendants to make proper, accurate and complete calculations, as Plaintiff had done, and to pay Plaintiff accordingly.

44. Furthermore, when Defendants BERNSTEIN made statements to Plaintiff as to why payments due him were not being paid, as described, for example, in preceding paragraphs 22 through 25, inclusive, and 42, he trusted Defendants to be telling Plaintiff the truth,

45. As a result of the foregoing, a fiduciary relationship existed between Defendants BERNSTEIN and Plaintiff, and there existed in Plaintiff complete confidence and trust in the said Defendants, of which confidence and trust said Defendants were well aware.

46. Defendants BERNSTEIN accepted the trust which Plaintiff reasonably placed in them.

47 Through Defendants' willful misrepresentations and withholding of material information as to their intentions and the purposes for which Plaintiff's payments were not being paid, and through their diversion from Plaintiff of amounts which should have been paid to him, Defendants abused and betrayed Plaintiff's trust and confidence in them, to Plaintiff's great detriment, in that he has been deprived of the said amounts due him, the precise amount of which cannot be calculated without access to Defendants' books and records, and a full accounting by them.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

VI. CIVIL THEFT
Against All Defendants

48. This is an action for Civil Theft under Chapter 772, Florida Statutes, more specifically §772.11, Fla.Stats.

49. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

50. All funds which Defendants' records will reveal are due to Plaintiff but which have been deposited to any of the Defendants' accounts or which have been received by any Defendant or diverted by any Defendant to any recipient but Plaintiff are the specific funds to which this Count relates.

51. By refusing to pay to Plaintiff funds due him under their agreement, and by paying said sums to themselves or to others, Defendants have been guilty of criminal theft by conversion, which has been and continues to be performed by Defendants with the criminal intent of stealing his money and depriving him of the possession and use thereof.

52. Written demand for payment of all amounts due Plaintiff has been made to Defendants, more than 30 days preceding the filing of this Complaint, to no avail.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for three times the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts, and such other remedies as may be awarded Plaintiff under other Counts herein, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

VII. FRAUD
(Against All Defendants)

53. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

54. Defendants, with the intent to defraud Plaintiff by preventing his receipt of moneys due him from Defendants as commissions, salary, distributions, expenses, and otherwise, made false statements to him and withheld material information from him, all as specifically set forth in preceding paragraphs 20 through 24 above.

55. At the time said statements were made, Defendants knew that they were material and false, and that Plaintiff would rely thereon. At the time said material information was withheld from Plaintiffs, Defendants knew that the information being withheld was material, and that the withholding of the information would cause Plaintiff to rely on the absence of said information

56. Defendants intended for Plaintiff to rely on said false statements of material fact and to rely on the absence of the material facts which were withheld.

57. Plaintiff did rely on the false statements and the withholding of material information, and was damaged thereby. Through the loss the possession and use of moneys due him but withheld by Defendants under their scheme to defraud him of said money.

58. The behavior of Defendants in deceiving Plaintiff and in abusing the trust they had engendered in Plaintiff, as set forth in preceding paragraphs 42 through 47, which are incorporated herein by reference as if expressly restated herein, was in willful and conscious disregard of his rights, and was of such a concerted, premeditated, and outrageous nature as to go beyond the bounds of decency, and constituted rampant fraud.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

VIII. EQUITABLE LIEN

59. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive, and paragraphs 54 through 58, inclusive.

60. The bank accounts into which any of the commissions received by Defendants as to which Plaintiff was to receive a share of commissions received, and the operating accounts and other accounts of the corporate Defendants into which said commission checks were deposited were intended by Defendants and by Plaintiff to be the source out of which Plaintiff would be paid, and they therefore were intended to be, and therefore should be, charged by this Court with the obligation of being the source of all amounts Plaintiff was and is to be paid, including amounts not yet paid.

61. Any and all other accounts into which were deposited said commissions or any part thereof, out of which Plaintiff was to be paid, should, out of general considerations of right and justice as applied to the relations of the parties and the circumstances of their dealings, be charged with the obligation of paying Plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts. Plaintiff further prays for the Court to declare and establish an equitable lien in favor of Plaintiff on all the accounts described in preceding paragraphs 60 and 61, and for all other accounts into which said commissions have been or will be wholly or partly diverted, and on all assets of Defendants or third parties which have been purchased wholly or partly with the diversion of said funds due Plaintiff. Plaintiff further prays for such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

IX. CONTRACT IMPLIED IN LAW

62. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 25, inclusive.

63. By keeping the moneys due Plaintiff, Defendants have been unjustly enriched.

64. By agreeing to permit Defendants to receive, possess and control the paperwork revealing commissions received, and by agreeing that Defendants would assume the function of calculating amounts due the parties, Plaintiff conferred on Defendants the benefit of controlling the disposition of the funds received, including those due Plaintiff. The Defendants, having induced Plaintiff to confer said benefit, knew of the benefit and accepted and retained the benefit and abused it to defraud the Plaintiff.

65. The Circumstances are such that it would be inequitable for the Defendants to retain the benefit of the possession and use of funds due Plaintiff

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment that there exists a contract implied in law with the terms against Defendants described above, and for judgment against all Defendants, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

X. CONSTRUCTIVE TRUST

66. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

67. The bank accounts into which any of the commissions received by Defendants as to which Plaintiff was to receive a share of commissions received, and the operating accounts and other accounts of the corporate Defendants into which said commission checks were deposited were intended by Defendants and by Plaintiff to be the source out of which Plaintiff would be paid, and they therefore were intended to be, and therefore should be, charged by this Court with the obligation of being the source of all amounts Plaintiff was and is to be paid, including amounts not yet paid.

68. Any and all other accounts into which were deposited said commissions or any part thereof, out of which Plaintiff was to be paid, should, out of general considerations of right and justice as applied to the relations of the parties and the circumstances of their dealings, be charged with the obligation of paying Plaintiff.

.WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts. Plaintiff further prays for the Court to declare and establish a constructive trust in favor of Plaintiff on all the accounts described in preceding paragraphs 60 and 61, and for all other accounts into which said commissions have been or will be wholly or partly diverted, and on all assets of Defendants or third parties which have been purchased wholly or partly with the diversion of said funds due Plaintiff. Plaintiff further prays for such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

XI. INDEMNIFICATION

69. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

70. When Defendants entered the arrangement with Plaintiff described in preceding paragraph 13, SIMON BERNSTEIN, acting for himself and on behalf of the corporate Defendants and TED BERNSTEIN, and for their collective and shared benefit, told Plaintiff that it would be better for the simplicity of administration, if Plaintiff would arrange for all commissions, paid by insurance companies for sales of the said product by the Defendant companies, to be paid in the name of Plaintiff., even though Plaintiff would ultimately receive only 15% thereof.

71. Plaintiff, believing the representation that this was being requested solely to simplify bookkeeping and administration, agreed to receive all commissions in his own name, even though the bulk of each commission would become the property of the various Defendants.

72. At the time Defendants, through SIMON BERNSTEIN, represented to Plaintiff that the reason for their request that Plaintiff receive all commissions solely in his own name was for administrative simplicity, they knew that they had an ulterior motive in making this request. Their said motive was that, in the event any insurance company which had paid a commission for sale of the said product were to request a full refund of the commission on the ground that the insurance client or the broker had falsified the application for the policy, Defendants intended to disclaim liability therefor, and to avoid personal and corporate responsibility for any requests for refund of commissions paid, even though they collectively have received 85% of each such commission.

73. Plaintiff, acting in good faith, did not realize that Defendants were concealing this motive, or that such was their motive, and he reasonably relied on their representations as to the reason for the request, to his detriment.

74. As a direct and proximate result of the Defendants' representations, Plaintiff will have nominal full liability for refund of any commissions thus sought to be refunded as described in preceding paragraph 72. Such liability creates the certainty that requests for refunds will be made solely to Plaintiff, even though Defendants received 85% of the commissions.. Such disproportionate and unfair liability has been caused by the willful misrepresentation by Defendants.

75. Plaintiff was without fault in reasonably relying on the said representations.

76. Defendants were solely at fault in creating the said liability.

77. There was a special relationship between Plaintiff and the Defendants, because Plaintiff was acting as the nominal agent for Defendants in receiving in his name 100% of the commissions, making him vicariously liable for the refund of the 85% of commissions which were retained by Defendants for their own benefit.

78. Moreover, Defendants had ceased to pay Plaintiff any commissions. Instead, as an employee he was now receiving a salary. To reflect Plaintiff's successful generation of Defendants' business, Defendants made Plaintiff's salary approximate 15% of the amount of commissions received. Nonetheless, as Plaintiff was not receiving any share of commissions per se, he should not have his indemnification limited to 85%, but rather it should be to the full 100% of all commissions being refunded.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for a Judgment in his favor, and against all Defendants, Adjudicating them under an obligation to defend, hold harmless and indemnify Plaintiff from and against refund claims for said commissions, to the extent of 100% thereof, and for such other and further relief as the Court shall deem just and appropriate.

AMENDED COMPLAINT

WILLIAM E. STANSBURY, by and through undersigned counsel, sues the Defendants and states:

1. This is an action for money damages in excess of $15,000, and for equitable relief.

2. Plaintiff (hereinafter referred to as "STANSBURY") is sui juris, and a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida.

3. Defendant TED S. BERNSTEIN ("TED BERNSTEIN"), is sui juris, and a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida.

4. SIMON L. BERNSTEIN ("SIMON BERNSTEIN") died on or about September 13, 2012, after the filing of the initial Complaint in this action. At the time of his death, SIMON BERNSTEIN was sui juris, and was a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida. Defendants Donald R. Tescher and Robert L. Spallina are serving as co-personal representatives of the ESTATE OF SIMON L. BERNSTEIN (the "ESTATE")which ESTATE is presently open and pending in the Palm Beach County Circuit Court, In re: Estate of Simon L. Bernstein, Case No. 502012CP004391XXXXSB (the "Estate Proceeding"). In accordance with Section 733.705, Florida Statutes, STANSBURY hereby brings this independent action against the ESTATE with respect to his Statement of Claim that was filed and objected to in the Estate Proceeding.

5. Defendant, LIC HOLDINGS, INC. ("LIC Holdings") is a Florida corporation with its principal place of business in Palm Beach County, Florida.

6. Defendant, ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, formerly known as ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, LLC, ("ARBITRAGE") is a Florida limited liability company with its principal place of business in Palm Beach County, Florida.

7. Defendant, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC is a Florida limited liability company doing business in Palm Beach County.

8. Defendant, the SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT dated May 20, 2008 ("SHIRLEY'S TRUST"), owns real property in Palm Beach County, Florida. Based upon information and belief, Donald R. Tescher and Robert L. Spallina are serving as co-trustees of SHIRLEY'S TRUST. This Court has personal jurisdiction over the trustees and the beneficiaries of SHIRLEY'S TRUST under Section 736.0202, Florida Statutes, as the principal place of administration of SHIRLEY'S TRUST is in Palm Beach County, Florida. This court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action under Section 736.0203, Florida Statutes. Venue is proper in Palm Beach County, Florida, under Section 736.0204, Florida Statutes, as the principal place of administration of SHIRLEY'S TRUST is in Palm Beach County, Florida and one or more of the beneficiaries of SHIRLEY'S TRUST reside in Palm Beach County, Florida.

9. The acts and incidents giving rise to the causes of action alleged herein arose in Palm Beach County, Florida.

Background

10. STANSBURY has worked in the insurance industry for virtually all of his adult life. After 30 years, he had become well-known and highly regarded by major insurance companies, their principals and others throughout the insurance industry, at all levels thereof, as well as by professionals, including attorneys, CPA's, financial advisors, wealth managers and others who were involved in serving, or otherwise dealing with insurers, insurance brokers and life insurance products.

11. SIMON BERNSTEIN dealt at sophisticated levels of the insurance industry and specialized in developing and marketing insurance concepts suitable for persons of high net worth to incorporate into their wealth management and estate planning.

12. TED BERNSTEIN, the son of SIMON BERNSTEIN, was also actively involved in selling life insurance products in conjunction with attorneys, CPAs and other professionals, to be incorporated into high net worth individuals' financial and estate planning.

13. TED BERNSTEIN approached STANSBURY, urging STANSBURY to spearhead the marketing of a unique insurance concept, newly developed by a prominent law firm, which was designed for use in the financial and estate planning of high net worth individuals.

14. TED BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that he knew of STANSBURY's expertise and reputation in the insurance and related industries, and that STANSBURY was skilled at and accustomed to speaking and marketing insurance products to groups of professionals. He realized that STANSBURY, because of his knowledge, reputation and abilities, would be well suited to market this concept nationwide through prominent and experienced professionals.

15. In 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN (collectively, "BERNSTEIN" or the "BERNSTEINS") formed Defendants LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE for the purpose of marketing and selling certain life insurance products to high net worth individuals for their wealth management and estate planning needs.

16. STANSBURY agreed to become an employee of LIC Holdings, Inc. and ARBITRAGE and agreed to a salary of 15% of net commissions received on all products, including renewals.

17. STANSBURY worked with diligence and skill, traveling throughout the United States, generating ever-increasing sales and generating very large commissions. By 2006, nationwide sales were resulting in substantial commissions on new policies and renewal commissions.

18. Also in 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that STANSBURY was being rewarded for his efforts and the explosive growth of the business, such that he would receive a 10% ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc.

19. In February of 2008, SIMON BERNSTEIN approached STANSBURY with the suggestion that rather than STANSBURY performing computations on a monthly basis as to how much should be paid to him based upon 15% of the commissions derived from policies sold by STANSBURY, the BERNSTEINS and STANSBURY should forego monthly payouts and defer compensation until the end of 2008, when year-end computations could be made. It was suggested that in December, year-end computations would be made and salaries would be paid in December 2008 or January of 2009. It was specifically represented to STANSBURY that neither SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN nor STANSBURY would take any compensation until the year-end accounting was performed in December of 2008 or January, 2009.

20. STANSBURY relied on SIMON BERNSTEIN's representations that, among other things, his time would be better spent building the business rather than performing monthly calculations of income. STANSBURY relied on SIMON BERNSTEIN's representation that they would all be paid identical annual salaries of not less than $1,000,000 at the end of 2008 to be applied against STANBURY's 15%. Any compensation to STANSBURY over and above his 15% would be paid to him in accordance with his ownership percentage of 10%.

21. STANSBURY, having no reason to believe that the representations by SIMON BERNSTEIN were false and only a ruse to keep him from inquiring as to corporate revenue and distributions, acceded to his being relieved of the bookkeeping duties regarding calculating the disposition of monies on a monthly basis throughout the year.

22. In 2008, STANSBURY received only $420,018.00, all from commissions earned for sales in 2007 but paid in the January of 2008. STANSBURY received no payments for commissions received after January, 2008.

23. Unbeknownst to STANSBURY at that time, SIMON BERNSTEIN was paid $3,756,229.00 and TED BERNSTEIN was paid $5,225,825.00 in 2008.

24. The net retained commissions by LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, not including renewals for 2008 were approximately $13,442,549.00. As such, STANSBURY was entitled to, at the very minimum, 15% of $13,442,549.00, or $2,016,382.35.

25. Since that time, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN have secreted commissions received by LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE into Bernstein family trusts and other entities as more specifically set forth below. Those trusts have since invested in real estate, also as more particularly set forth below.

26. Throughout 2009, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN continued to make false statements to STANSBURY to hide the fact that they had looted the corporations for their own personal benefit by withdrawing millions in 2008 and 2009, all to the financial detriment of STANSBURY. The BERNSTEINS represented that the money was not being paid as salary or distributions because the funds needed to be held in the corporate bank accounts to show to potential lenders the financial stability of the company.

27. STANSBURY relied upon these continuing representations of Defendants to his detriment. Because STANSBURY was told that potential funding sources for the business needed to see that capital of the company was available, he took no action when he did not receive any compensation for 2009 and paid only $30,000 in 2010.

28. STANSBURY believes that some or all of the funds to which he was entitled and/or assets attributable to such funds were placed into certain entities, including but not limited to BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC and SHIRLEY'S TRUST. For example, based on information and belief, some or all of the funds to which STANSBURY was entitled were invested in certain parcels of real property, which parcels were conveyed to the trustee of SHIRLEY'S TRUST on or about May 20, 2008, including but not limited to a 4,220 square foot oceanfront condominium unit in a complex known as "The ARAGON" in Boca Raton, located at 2494 So. Ocean Boulevard, Boca Raton, Florida and a mansion in St. Andrew's Country Club located at 7020 Lions Head Lane, Boca Raton, Florida.

29. In order to continue their scheme to defraud, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN failed and refused to account for renewal commissions and failed to supply any financial information to STANSBURY concerning LIC Holdings, Inc. or ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC.

30. In furtherance of their scheme to deprive STANSBURY of salary he had earned and shareholder distributions to which he was entitled, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN intercepted mail addressed to STANSBURY, removing commission checks representing commissions due to STANSBURY, deposited the funds into their own accounts and otherwise converted the funds. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN also opened STANSBURY's mail containing checks payable to him which were unrelated to them and the businesses.

31. In 2011, the Defendants BERNSTEIN decided to deceive STANSBURY further. STANSBURY had for years been given K-1 statements reflecting his 10% ownership of LIC Holdings. At the end of 2011, TED BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that the company accountant had discovered a taxable event which could cause STANSBURY, as an owner of LIC Holdings to pay taxes on phantom income. TED BERNSTEIN promised that if STANSBURY would sign a paper ceding his 10% interest in LIC Holdings, he would not have to pay the tax. TED BERNSTEIN promised he would hold the paper, promising it would not become operative until STANSBURY and the Defendants BERNSTEIN discussed the situation further in the first quarter of 2012.

32. Because of the misrepresentations, willful concealments of material facts, duplicity and deceit practiced by Defendants upon STANSBURY, STANSBURY reasonably believed that Defendants had complied, or intended to comply with their obligations to STANSBURY under the contract between them. STANSBURY, therefore, was prevented from knowing for a period of years that the causes of action ASSERTED HEREIN existed.

33. By the second quarter of 2012, STANSBURY developed the belief that the BERNSTEINS' representations over the years were wholly false and he sought legal counsel.

34. STANSBURY has retained the law firm of Peter M. Feaman, P.A. and has agreed to pay it a reasonable fee for its services rendered herein.

COUNT I - ACCOUNTING
(Against LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, for Accounting)

35. STANSBURY hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

36. The relationship between STANSBURY and the Defendants, particularly as affected by Defendants' acts described in preceding paragraphs 19 through 27 created a situation where Defendants had sole access to receipts generated by STANSBURY's efforts, and to books and records reflecting said receipts and the other information from which can be calculated all moneys due to STANSBURY under his arrangement with Defendants.

37. The period of time during which STANSBURY has been deprived of monies due him spans approximately four and a half years. The various sources of revenue to Defendants of monies from which the amounts due STANSBURY may be calculated, the manner in which STANSBURY was to be paid, and the amount due STANSBURY all involve extensive and complicated accounts, and STANSBURY's remedy at law cannot be as full, adequate and expeditious as it is in equity.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff STANSBURY prays for an adjudication of Plaintiff's right to a full and complete accounting from Defendants, LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, and for such orders of Court as will require such Defendants to provide STANSBURY with all records and copies of documents from January 1, 2006 to the present, in order to reveal his right to, and the amount of all sums: (a) received as commissions to which STANSBURY was entitled to a share; (b) due to STANSBURY, whether paid or not; (c) paid to STANSBURY, whether for commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason; (d) paid to each of the BERNSTEIN Defendants out of monies received as commissions; (e) deposits of any and all moneys received as commissions by any Defendants to any accounts, including the name of the entity whose account was involved, the number(s) of each such account; the address of the branch or other facility through which any Defendant dealt with such entity; (f) calculations as to moneys paid , to be paid, or not to be paid to STANSBURY, together with an award of court costs and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

II. BREACH OF ORAL CONTRACT
(Against LIC Holdings, Inc. and Arbitrage International Management, LLC)

38. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

39. The arrangement between STANSBURY and Defendants as described in paragraphs 16 and 24 above, constituted a contract between them.

40. An express term of that contract involved the commitment of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to calculate and to pay to STANSBURY all sums due to him under the contract, whether as commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason.

41. The Defendants initially performed the duties required of them under said contract.

42. However, Defendants breached their contract with STANSBURY by withholding from STANSBURY monies due him under the contract.

43. The withholding of such monies constitutes a material breach of the contract between STANSBURY and LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

44. There is due to STANSBURY from such Defendants all amounts due under said contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, LIC Holdings, Inc. and ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, jointly and severally, in excess of $1,500,000.00 for the amounts due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest, court costs and such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

III. BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY
(Against SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN ["BERNSTEINS"])

45. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

46. At all material times hereto, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN were officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

47. As shareholders and officers of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN did have and have a fiduciary duty to STANSBURY to act in good faith towards STANSBURY and to act in the best interests of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

48. At all material times hereto, STANSBURY was and is a shareholder of LIC Holdings.

49. STANSBURY reposed trust and confidence in SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN as a result of their position as majority shareholders and officers of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

50. Further, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN held positions of advantage and control over STANSBURY, not only by virtue of their majority shareholder status, but by having access to the accounting books and records of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, to the exclusion of STANSBURY.

51. STANSBURY reasonably believed that the BERNSTEIN Defendants would deal with STANSBURY honestly and fairly and believed that such Defendants had no intention of hiding from STANSBURY any information as to the amounts due STANSBURY or payment of the money due to STANSBURY.

52. Moreover, when Defendants proposed to STANSBURY that STANSBURY cease being the one to calculate monies due from the commissions received, STANSBURY trusted the BERNSTEINS to make proper, accurate and complete calculations just as STANSBURY had done and to pay STANSBURY accordingly. As majority shareholders and directors of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, the BERNSTEINS were in a superior position of knowledge and control concerning the finances and affairs of those companies.

53. As a result of the foregoing, a fiduciary relationship existed between the BERNSTEINS and STANSBURY and there existed in STANSBURY complete trust in the BERNSTEIN Defendants.

54. The BERNSTEIN Defendants accepted the trust which STANSBURY reasonably placed in them.

55. The BERNSTEIN Defendants breached their fiduciary duty to STANSBURY by repeated conduct of self-dealing and violations of corporate protocol, including:

a) directing LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to make payments to third parties not employed by the corporations and who had performed no services on behalf of the corporations for the personal benefit of the BERNSTEINS;

b) directing the corporations to pay for personal expenses of the wives and other friends of the BERNSTEIN Defendants through corporate credit cards and other forms of payment, notwithstanding that they provided no services for the corporations;

c) transferring monies from LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to third party entities including the BERNSTEIN Defendants, the BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC and the

SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT for the benefit of the BERNSTEINS, personally;

d) paying themselves exorbitant compensation to the exclusion of STANSBURY;

e) treating LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE as alter egos of themselves and otherwise handling the affairs of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE without regard to corporate protocol;

f) failing to convene annual meetings of the stockholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, in violation of Florida law;

g) committing corporate waste by unnecessarily expending corporate assets on unrelated corporate activities;

h) failing to account for the revenue and expenses of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to STANSBURY, who was entitled to compensation as an employee and as a minority shareholder;

i) directing LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to take actions to reduce the profit of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE so as to prevent STANSBURY from earning his just compensation, in violation of prior agreement of the parties.

56. SIMON BERNSTEIN further breached his fiduciary duty owed to STANSBURY as a minority shareholder by neglecting to perform his duties as an officer and director in a prudent and reasonable fashion.

57. Through Defendants BERNSTEINS' willful misrepresentations and withholding of material information as to their intentions and the purposes for which STANSBURY's payments were not being paid, and through their diversion from STANSBURY of amounts which should have been paid to him, such Defendants abused and betrayed STANSBURY's trust and confidence in them to STANSBURY's great detriment. STANSBURY has been deprived of the amounts due him, the precise amount of which cannot be calculated without access to Defendants' books and records and a full accounting by them.

58. The monetary damages suffered by STANSBURY as a result of the foregoing conduct was suffered by STANSBURY individually and not to the corporation LIC Holdings as a whole, because the conduct as described above prevented STANSBURY from obtaining the benefits of the bargain of his oral agreement with the corporations as more particularly described in Count II above.

59. The foregoing conduct by the BERNSTEINS was done with gross and intentional disregard of the rights of STANSBURY as an employee and minority shareholder of LIC Holdings.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, for damages in excess of $1,500,000.00 together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest, court costs and such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper. STANSBURY reserves the right to move to amend to request punitive damages in accordance with Florida Law.

IV. CIVIL THEFT
(Against ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MARKETING, LLC)

60. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

61. This is an action for Civil Theft under Chapter 772, Florida Statutes, more specifically §772.11, Fla.Stat.

62. In February, 2012 and March, 2012, Defendant ARBITRAGE intercepted two separate checks made payable to William STANSBURY intended as payment to STANSBURY for matters arising wholly outside his business transactions with the BERNSTEINS, LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

63. Notwithstanding that the checks made payable to William STANSBURY was for sums due STANSBURY by a third party not in connection with the aforesaid business transactions, ARBITRAGE and/or someone acting on its behalf, caused the negotiation of STANSBURY's checks, wrongfully endorsing the checks and retaining the sums that should have been payable to STANSBURY.

64. As a result of the foregoing, Defendant ARBITRAGE has been guilty of criminal theft by conversion with the criminal intent to steal his money and deprive STANSBURY of his possession and use thereof.

65. Written demand for payment of all amounts due STANSBURY has been made to Defendants, more than 30 days preceding the filing of this Complaint, to no avail. A copy of the demand letter is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendant, ARBITRAGE for three times the full amount of the check made payable to STANSBURY, together with pre-judgment interest and post-judgment interest, attorneys' fees, court costs and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

V. CONVERSION

66. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 60 through 65, inclusive.

67. Further, during 2012, Defendants TED BERNSTEIN, SIMON BERNSTEIN, LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE, or someone acting on their behalves, received and cashed in excess of $30,000.00 worth of commissions checks otherwise payable to Plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment for damages against Defendant, ABRITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN, LIC Holdings, Inc. and TED BERNSTEIN, together with pre-judgment interest and post-judgment interest, court costs and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

VI. FRAUD IN THE INDUCEMENT
(Against Ted Bernstein and LIC Holdings, Inc.)

68. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

69. In the fourth quarter of 2011, TED BERNSTEIN embarked upon a plan to defraud from STANSBURY his 10% ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc. As set forth in paragraph 31 above Defendant TED BERNSTEIN fraudulently induced STANSBURY to sign a document giving up his 10% interest in and to LIC Holdings, Inc.

70. The ceding of his shares in LIC Holdings, Inc. was procured by fraud and STANSBURY relied upon the representations made by BERNSTEIN with regard to signing the document apparently ceding his stock.

71. It was reasonable for STANSBURY to rely on the representations made by BERNSTEIN because at that time STANSBURY was unaware of the breaches of fiduciary duty and breaches of the oral contract that had taken place.

72. As a result of STANSBURY's reliance, STANSBURY has been damaged by the loss of 10% of the shares of LIC Holdings and the rights and remedies to a shareholder related thereto.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for a judgment for damages against Defendants BERNSTEIN and LIC Holdings, Inc. for the damages caused by the fraudulent conduct of BERNSTEIN as described herein, together with reasonable costs, pre-judgment interest and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

VII. EQUITABLE LIEN

73. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, paragraphs 1 through 34, above.

74. Defendants, SIMON BERNSTEIN and/or TED BERNSTEIN wrongfully diverted funds from LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE that rightfully should have been paid to STANSBURY pursuant to their oral agreement.

75. Upon information and belief, SIMON BERNSTEIN and/or TED BERNSTEIN, or both, wrongfully diverted funds from LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE and acquired and/or maintained or improved property located at 7020 Lion's Head Lane, Boca Raton, Florida, legally described as

> Lot 781, St. Andrews Country Club (a PUD) Plat No. 14 according to the plat thereof recorded in Plat Book 57, Page 132 of the public records of Palm Beach County, Florida.

76. Further, upon information and belief, as a result of the funds being wrongfully diverted from LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE, which otherwise rightfully belonged to and should have been paid to STANSBURY, the property legally described as

> Lot 68, Block G Boca Madeira, Unit 2 according to the plat thereof recorded in Plat Book 32, Pages 59 and 60 of the public records of Palm Beach County, Florida, with a property address of 2753 NW 34 Street, Boca Raton, Florida, was encumbered with a mortgage representing wrongfully diverted funds which were loaned in the form of a second mortgage to Defendant, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC, a Florida limited liability company.

77. Upon information and belief, as a result of the funds being wrongfully diverted from LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE which otherwise should have been paid to STANSBURY, such funds were used to satisfy a mortgage for the benefit of TED BERNSTEIN on property legally described as

Lot 139, Saturnia Isles, Plat One, recorded in Plat Book 91 at Page 108 of the property records of Palm Beach County, Florida, with a property address of 15807 Menton Bay Court, Delray Beach, Florida

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the Court to declare and establish an equitable lien in favor of Plaintiff in an amount equal to the funds wrongfully diverted, on the property described herein, and on all other assets of Defendants or third parties as yet unknown, which assets have been purchased wholly or in part, improved or benefitted by the diverted funds due Plaintiff, together with court costs and such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

VIII. CONSTRUCTIVE TRUST

78. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 73 through 77 above.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the Court to declare and establish a constructive trust in favor of Plaintiff on the property described in paragraphs 75 through 77 in an amount equal to the funds wrongfully diverted and on all assets of Defendants or third parties as yet unknown, which assets have been purchased wholly or partly, improved or mortgaged by the diversion of said funds due Plaintiff. Plaintiff further prays for an award of court costs and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

IX. VIOLATION OF FLA. STAT. 607.1602
(As to Defendant, LIC Holdings, Inc.)

79. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, paragraphs 1 through 34, above.

80. STANSBURY owns 10% of the issued and outstanding shares of LIC Holdings and has owned these shares since 2006.

82. Section 607.1604(2) Fla. Stat. (2012) states:

> If a corporation does not, within a reasonable time, allow a shareholder to inspect and copy any other record, the shareholder who complies with §607.1602(2) and (3) may apply to the Circuit Court in the county where the corporation's principal office is located for an order to permit inspection and copying of the records demanded.

83. Section 607.1604 Fla. Stat. (2012) requires that the court dispose of an application brought under this section "on an expedited basis."

84. Pursuant to §607.1604(2) Fla. Stat. (2012), Plaintiff requests that this court summarily order inspection and copying of the record previously demanded at the corporation's expense.

85. Pursuant to §607.1604(3) Fla. Stat. (2012), STANSBURY is entitled to an award of his costs including reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in order to obtain the order and enforce his rights unless the corporation or its officers, director or agent proves that the refusal of the inspection is made in good faith because the corporation had a reasonable basis for doubt about the right of the shareholder to inspect or copy the records demanded.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, WILLIAM E. STANSBURY requests this Honorable Court to summarily order inspection and copying of the records of LIC Holdings, Inc. previously demanded, at the corporation's expense, together with an award of reasonable costs and attorneys' fees incurred herein.

Re: William (Bill) Stansbury

Dear Mr. Bernstein:

The undersigned represents William (Bill) Stansbury and we are writing this letter on his behalf. Mr. Stansbury received your proposed letter agreement reflecting LIC Holdings' proposal to indemnify its shareholders concerning policies sold under the Cambridge Financing Program. As a result of your proposal, Mr. Stansbury has reviewed with me in detail his dealings with you and your companies over the past 4 to 5 years.

After reviewing the facts with Mr. Stansbury, some of which will be summarized below, I was shocked that he had not consulted legal counsel until now. Be that as it may, and based upon the facts presented to us, we believe you have engaged in fraud, civil theft, breaches of fiduciary duties, and breach of contract, just to name a few. The purpose of this letter is to a). respond to your indemnity proposal and b). request that you pass this letter on to your counsel immediately in the off-chance that these very serious matters can be resolved prior to the filing of legal action. The issues can be summarized as follows:

1. The first issue concerns you and your company's failure to pay salary compensation to Mr. Stansbury. Mr. Stansbury has been making inquiries concerning this for the past 5 months, but to no avail. Mr. Stansbury's claim for unpaid salary arises from three categories:

EXHIBIT A

a. Failure to pay salary based on net retained commissions.

i. Based upon reports prepared by your company for the period of 2007 through 2011, LIC Holdings, Inc. and/or Arbitrage International Holdings, n/k/a Arbitrage International Management, LLC, received $35,384,246.00 in net retained commissions. According to Mr. Stansbury's salary arrangement, he is entitled to 15% of those net retained commissions, which amounts to $5,307,636.90. During this time period, Mr. Stansbury's salary compensation was $2,844,910.00. The shortfall in salary owed to Mr. Stansbury is $2,462,726.90.

ii. There is salary compensation owed to Mr. Stansbury as a result of bridge loans in 2008. You received a $2,000,000.00 settlement in 2010 resulting from the resolution of a lawsuit involving Global Secured Capital. Mr. Stansbury is entitled to 15% of those funds, which is $300,000.00.

iii. In addition, you received $507,891.00 in commissions in connection with the Biviano matter. Mr. Stansbury is entitled to 15% of those funds, which is $76,183.65.

iv. In April of 2012, you received three commissions totaling approximately $200,000.00 in the Levine, Wiss and Berley matters. Mr. Stansbury has been requesting payment of this for weeks, again to no avail. Mr. Stansbury is due salary compensation for these items in the amount of $30,000.00.

Therefore, Mr. Stansbury's total claim for salary arising out of net retained commissions is approximately $2,868,910.55.

The liability for payment of this salary is not limited to LIC Holdings, Inc. or Arbitrage International Management, LLC. This liability also flows to you individually as a result of your breaches of your fiduciary duty owed to Mr. Stansbury and utter failure to abide by corporate governance standards, which conduct is more particularly described below.

b. Mr. Stansbury is also due unpaid salary based on 15% of all renewal commissions since 2008. Mr. Stansbury's salary claim for renewal commissions cannot as yet be determined with specificity due to the fact that you and your office have been opening mail directed to Mr. Stansbury and negotiating checks made payable to him by falsifying his endorsement and depositing those checks into accounts which only you control. This conduct constitutes civil theft and breach of fiduciary duty. We believe this claim amounts to hundreds of thousands of dollars.

c. Salary compensation for 2008. Mr. Stansbury has recently learned that you and Mr. Simon Bernstein received $8,982,124.00 in salary in 2008. By contrast, Mr. Stansbury received $420,018.00, paid to him in January 2008, based on policies sold in 2007. He received zero (no salary compensation) for his 2008 production. It is obvious that you and Simon treated your corporations as personal ATM machines, while completely ignoring your fiduciary responsibilities to your employee and minority shareholder, Mr. Stansbury. It further appears that after the exorbitant salaries were paid to you, you then loaned the money back to the corporation at an interest rate significantly above market rates in order to meet the cash flow needs of the various entities, again, clearly disregarding your corporate governance responsibilities.

2. Indemnification issues.

Mr. Stansbury has been served with three lawsuits from Phoenix Insurance Company and one from Mr. Wright seeking indemnification as a result of agent misconduct which was in no way attributable to the conduct of Mr. Stansbury. Although all of these matters have been settled, because he was the qualifying agent of record for other policies, he could be the subject of future litigation for refunds of commissions paid. All of these commissions were paid over to you or your companies.

The Indemnification Agreement which you sent to Mr. Stansbury is completely insufficient. You have a duty as a matter of law to indemnify Mr. Stansbury. Your offer of future indemnity is contingent upon "all" commissions that have been received by LIC's present or past shareholders be turned over to LIC. This is nothing short of extortion. Further, your second paragraph states that LIC is "presently insolvent" and has a "negative net worth." You then conclude with the sentence that with the indemnification agreement in place, LIC "may" have sufficient funds to meet its current obligations. Therefore, a simple indemnification from LIC Holdings to Mr. Stansbury is insufficient. Any such indemnification would have to be personally guaranteed by you and Mr. Simon Bernstein.

3. Unauthorized interception of U.S. Mail.

I have been given the understanding that your office has been opening mail directed to Mr. Stansbury personally. This is a federal offense and also constitutes a breach of the fiduciary duty you owe to Mr. Stansbury as an employee and minority shareholder.

There has been no accounting to Mr. Stansbury for any of the checks which may have been sent to him personally on which his signature has been forged, the checks cashed and placed out of the reach of Mr. Stansbury. In 2012, Mr. Stansbury has been receiving checks from Phoenix Life Insurance Company and TransAmerica Life Insurance Company. Mr. Stansbury has been holding these checks. They have now been remitted to the undersigned as attorney for Mr. Stansbury. This office is holding these funds in a separate interest-bearing trust account pending the resolution of this matter.

With regard to all of the other insurance companies for whom Mr. Stansbury is listed as the qualifying agent, he has now informed those companies that all future renewal commissions paid to him personally be sent to Mr. Stansbury at his home address. These funds will then be remitted to the undersigned counsel of record for Mr. Stansbury. We will place these funds in a separate interest-bearing trust account as well. Any attempts by you to contact these insurance companies will be considered a tortious interference of his business relationship and such activity will be added as a claim in any future legal proceedings.

4. Shareholder status.

Mr. Stansbury has been a 10% shareholder of LIC Holdings, Inc., pursuant to the terms of a Shareholders Agreement. On behalf of Mr. Stansbury, demand is hereby made, pursuant to Florida Statute 607.1602, for inspection of the corporate records including the following:

I. Minutes of the Board of Directors meetings from January 1, 2008 to the present.

II. Minutes of Shareholders' meetings from January 1, 2008 to the present.

III. Records of any actions taken by the Shareholders and/or the Board of Directors without a meeting, from January 1, 2008 to the present.

IV. Accounting and financial records of LIC Holdings, Inc., Arbitrage International Management, LLC, formerly known as Arbitrage International Holdings, LLC, and all other subsidiary or affiliated companies under your control, including, without limitation, income tax returns, general ledgers, balance sheets, profit and loss statements, stock books, bank statements, loan agreements or guarantees, and any other financial books and records from January 1, 2008 to the present.

Mr. Stansbury is seeking to inspect these records in good faith and for the purpose of determining if misappropriation of corporate assets for improper purposes has previously taken or is presently taking place.

I have been made aware of a letter dated December 22, 2011 in which Mr. Stansbury purportedly "ceded" his shares of stock in LIC Holdings, Inc. back to the company. This letter was obtained under false pretenses and is not recognized by Mr. Stansbury as validly conveying his ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc.

Please have your legal counsel contact us within ten (10) days. Should we fail to receive a response within that time, Mr. Stansbury will take legal action to protect his rights and interests.

Very truly yours,

PETER M. FEAMAN, P.A.

APPEARANCES

On Behalf of the Petitioner:
ELIOT IVAN BERNSTEIN, PRO SE
2753 NW 34th Street
Boca Raton, Florida 33434

MR. MANCERI: That's when the order was signed, yes, your Honor.
THE COURT: He filed it, physically came to court.
MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Oh.
THE COURT: So let me see when he actually filed it and signed the paperwork. November. What date did your dad die?
MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: September. It's hard to get through. He does a lot of things when he's dead.
THE COURT: I have all of these waivers by Simon in November. He tells me Simon was dead at the time.
MR. MANCERI: Simon was dead at the time, your Honor. The waivers that you're talking about are waivers from the beneficiaries, I believe.
THE COURT: No, it's waivers of

accountings.
MR. MANCERI: Right, by the beneficiaries.
THE COURT: Discharge waiver of service of discharge by Simon, Simon asked that he not have to serve the petition for discharge.
MR. MANCERI: Right, that was in his petition. When was the petition served?
THE COURT: November 21st.
MR. SPALLINA: Yeah, it was after his date of death.
THE COURT: Well, how could that happen legally? How could Simon --
MR. MANCERI: Who signed that?
THE COURT: -- ask to close and not serve a petition after he's dead?
MR. MANCERI: Your Honor, what happened was is the documents were submitted with the waivers originally, and this goes to Mr. Bernstein's fraud allegation. As you know, your Honor, you have a rule that you have to have your waivers notarized. And the original waivers that were submitted were not notarized, so they were kicked back by the clerk. They were then notarized by a staff person from Tescher and Spallina admittedly in error. They should not have been notarized in the absentia of the people who purportedly signed them. And I'll give you the names of the other siblings, that would be Pamela, Lisa, Jill, and Ted Bernstein.

THE COURT: So let me tell you because I'm going to stop all of you folks because I think you need to be read your Miranda warnings.

MR. MANCERI: I need to be read my Miranda warnings?

THE COURT: Everyone of you might have to be.

MR. MANCERI: Okay.

THE COURT: Because I'm looking at a formal document filed here April 9, 2012, signed by Simon Bernstein, a signature for him.

MR. MANCERI: April 9th, right.

THE COURT: April 9th, signed by him, and notarized on that same date by Kimberly. It's a waiver and it's not filed with The Court until November 19th, so the filing of it, and it says to The Court on November 19th, the undersigned, Simon Bernstein, does this, this, and this. Signed and notarized on April 9, 2012. The notary said that she witnessed Simon sign it then, and then for some reason it's not filed with The Court until after his date of death with no notice that he was dead at the time that this was filed.

00028

MR. MANCERI: Okay.

THE COURT: All right, so stop, that's enough to give you Miranda warnings. Not you personally --

MR. MANCERI: Okay.

THE COURT: Are you involved? Just tell me yes or no.

MR. SPALLINA: I'm sorry?

THE COURT: Are you involved in the transaction?

MR. SPALLINA: I was involved as the lawyer for the estate, yes. It did not come to my attention until Kimberly Moran came to me after she received a letter from the Governor's Office stating that they were investigating some fraudulent signatures on some waivers that were signed in connection with the closing of

Dear Bree:

As per our earlier telephone conversation:

- We are unable to locate the Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust dated June 1, 1995, which we have spent much time searching for.
- Mrs. Shirley Bernstein was the initial beneficiary of the 1995 trust, but predeceased Mr. Bernstein.
- The Bernstein children are the secondary beneficiaries of the 1995 trust
- We are submitting the Letters of Administration for the Estate of Simon Bernstein showing that we are the named Personal Representatives of the Estate
- We would like to have the proceeds from the Heritage policy released to our firm's trust account so that we can make distributions amongst the five Bernstein children
- If necessary, we will prepare for Heritage an Agreement and Mutual Release amongst all the children.
- We are enclosing the SS4 signed by Mr. Bernstein in 1995 to obtain the EIN number for the 1995 trust.

If you have any questions with regard to the foregoing, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Spallina

We are going to do what is necessary to have the proceeds paid where they were intended to be paid, as quickly as possible now. If you think I am factually incorrect about any of this, please either call me or email me and explain where I may be wrong. It goes without saying, this is not my expertise. I am processing the same information that everyone else is working with and this is how I see it.

Ted

This is my analysis on the Heritage payout thus far. First, I would like to review the insurance policy as well as the official statements respecting investment returns, use of returns to pay premiums and loans taken from the policy. I understand Ted and Pam have the policy, and do not understand why Mr. Spallina thinks it is curious that I also want to review these materials. Second, I understand the expressed concerns that if the proceeds are paid to the estate then the proceeds would be subject to the claims of creditors of the estate. It is my understanding that the "plan" is to have the proceeds payable to a trust to avoid creditor claims; however, I have also been counseled that if a trust is utilized an estate creditor can challenge the trust transaction as a fraudulent conveyance used to avoid the creditor's claim. We have been told that Dad designated his 1995 trust as his beneficiary with Heritage. We were also told that that trust cannot be located. I would also like to review an affidavit that indicates the precise steps that were taken and by whom and with whom to locate the 1995 trust, and I would imagine that Heritage will require the same. Heritage, we were told, is now saying that the proceeds may have to go to the State under the applicable escheat laws, so Mr. Spallina is telling us that if Heritage accepts a new trust with all potential beneficiaries agreeing to the mechanism, that Heritage may pay the proceeds to this new trust and not to the State. I have been told that the reason the law requires a trust document (and not simply statements from someone who claims they saw the trust) is that it demonstrates Dad's desires, and because Dad had the right to change his mind and thus the beneficiaries under the trust, nothing short of the actual 1995 trust document may be sufficient to Heritage. Last, because the 1995 trust document cannot be located, the proceeds should go to the beneficiaries under [Article IV 2j] and [Article III] of Dad's will, which picks up insurance proceeds under failed beneficiary designations. Under Dad's will and trust, these amounts, like the rest of his estate goes to his grandchildren in equal parts. Thus, to the extent it is decided to use a new trust to avoid the escheat laws, the only beneficiaries that may be acceptable to me is the grandchildren. As I stated above, I and my siblings should remain concerned that any estate creditor could challenge the transaction as a fraudulent conveyance. Also, having the 5 children as beneficiaries with each having the right to disclaim in favor of their children (i.e., Dad's grandchildren) is not acceptable for 2 reasons. First, such a scheme is not consistent with Dad's wishes under his will and trust agreement. Whatever Dad may have provided under the 1995 trust is both unknown and not relevant as stated above. The second reason is simple economics. My kids would get a 33% distribution under the proper method, but only 20% under the other scheme.

I am following up on our telephone conference from last week. Ted has contacted me about circulating a draft of the settlement agreement that would be presented to the court. Again, prior to preparing an agreement, I want to make sure that you are ALL in agreement that the proceeds do not come to the estate. I can tell you that your father planned his estate intending and believing that the five children would split the proceeds equally. We would like to see his wishes carried out and not have the proceeds paid to the estate where they could be subject to creditor claims prior to being split in equal shares among the grandchildren. Please advise if you are in agreement to move forward to petition the court for an order that would split the proceeds equally among the five of you.

Subject: Bernstein Estate 1/24/2013

Hi Robert,

thanks for todays call. Three questions.

One, if the 5 kids do NOT all agree that we should split the insurance proceeds amongst the 5 of us, what happens to the insurance proceeds? Can 4 out of 5 (or whatever the number is) over rule and move forward with the court hearing requesting that the insurance proceeds get paid out to the 5 children? If that is a NO, do the proceeds go directly to the estate? If the answer is the 10 grandchildren, will that be subject to creditors or would that money get paid out quickly (just as it would to the 5 of us) and avoid any potential law suit/creditors?

Two, if any of the 5 children have personal counsel representing them, are they allowed to have their bills sent to you/Estate for payment? If yes, is there a provision that the others can put in place that regulates the amount/or a provision that states it come out of their child(ren) portion of the estate?

Can you also clarify, that based on the conversation today, there is a chance that Bill S. case will be null and void and even if it is not, it is not towards Si Bernstein or his estate? Did I understand that correctly?

Thanks so much,

Jill

That time works for me/Jill.

Robert, if the proceeds go to the estate/grandchildren's share, is there a chance that creditors could get this money AND would this amount of 1.7 Million put the estate over 5.1 Million, where it would be taxed?

Thanks
Jill

Either way I would like to have a fifteen minute call to discuss this with all of you this week. There are really only two options: spend the money on getting a court order to have the proceeds distributed among the five of you (not guaranteed but most likely probable), or have the proceeds distributed to the estate and have the money added to the grandchildren's shares. As none of us can be sure exactly what the 1995 trust said (although an educated guess would point to children in light of the document prepared by Al Gortz in 2000), I think it is important that we discuss further prior to spending more money to pursue this option. Hopefully I will have spoken with their legal department by Thursday. I would propose a 10:30 call on Thursday EST. Please advise if this works for all of you.

Robert,

We are in the midst of arranging a phone call between myself, Pam, Eliot, Christine Yates, Jill and Lisa. We were hoping to have that call today but Christine cannot make it until Thursday. I think it is imperative for this call to occur prior to anything else being done, including your call with their legal department. This way, we can establish whether there is going to be an agreement among the 5 of us, or not.

I completely agree with your assessment below of the options available here.

Please feel free to call me to discuss.

Dear Applicant:

We are pleased to inform you that upon review of your application for tax exempt status we have determined that you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions to you are deductible under section 170 of the Code. You are also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under section 2055, 2106 or 2522 of the Code. Because this letter could help resolve any questions regarding your exempt status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

Organizations exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Code are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined that you are a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code. You are required to file Form 990-PF annually.

Please see enclosed Publication 4221-PF, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Private Foundations, for some helpful information about your responsibilities as an exempt organization.

We have sent a copy of this letter to your representative as indicated in your power of attorney.

Sincerely,

WE ASSIGNED YOU AN EMPLOYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER

Thank you for applying for an Employer Identification Number (EIN). We assigned you EIN 26-1868678. This EIN will identify your business account, tax returns, and documents, even if you have no employees. Please keep this notice in your permanent records.

When filing tax documents, please use the label we provided. If this isn't possible, it is very important that you use your EIN and complete name and address exactly as shown above on all federal tax forms, payments, and related correspondence. Any variation may cause a delay in processing, result in incorrect information in your account, or even cause you to be assigned more than one EIN. If this information isn't correct as shown above, please correct it using the tear off stub from this notice and return it to us so we can correct your account.

Based on the information from you or your representative, you must file the following form(s) by the date(s) shown.

Form 1120 03/15/2009

If you have questions about the form(s) or the due date(s) shown, you can call or write to us at the phone number or address at the top of this notice. If you need help in determining what your tax year is, see Publication 538, Accounting Periods and Methods, available at your local IRS office or you can download this publication from our website at www.irs.gov.

We assigned you a tax classification based on information obtained from you or your representative. It is not a legal determination of your tax classification, and is not binding on the IRS. If you want a legal determination on your tax classification, you may request a private letter ruling from the IRS under the guidelines in Revenue Procedure 2004-1,2004-1 I.R.B. 1 (or superseding Revenue Procedure for the year at issue.)

Note: If you elect to change your business to a corporation, you may need to file Form 8832, Entity Classification Election. See instructions for Form 8832 to determine if you are required to file.

(IRS USE ONLY) 575A 01-31-2008 SHIR B 9999999999 SS-4

If you intend to elect to file your return as a small business corporation, an election to file a Form 1120-S must be made within certain timeframes and the corporation must meet certain tests. All of this information is included in the instructions for Form 2553, Election by a Small Business Corporation.

The Internal Revenue Service has also identified several mistakes commonly made by S corporations and their shareholders. Please review them and call us at 1-800-829-1040 if you have any questions.

* Losses in Excess of Basis - Pursuant to Internal Revenue Code (IRC) section 1366, a shareholder in an S corporation may not deduct S corporation losses in excess of their basis in stock and/or debt. Each shareholder's stock basis and debt (loans from shareholders) basis should be computed annually.

* Taxable Distributions - Pursuant to IRC section 1368, distribution to shareholders in excess of stock basis are generally taxable.

* Gain on Repayment of Loans from Shareholders - where the shareholder previously used debt basis to absorb S corporation losses, subsequent repayments on the loans are generally taxable.

* Compensation to Shareholder - If the shareholder is performing services for the S corporation, be careful not to improperly classify the compensation as payments other than salary (examples: excessive rent, or distributions) in order to avoid employment taxes.

* Fringe Benefits - Certain fringe benefits paid on behalf of a shareholder who owns more than 2% of the stock (or shareholder's family) are taxable. Examples include certain accident, health, and life insurance premiums, meals and lodging, and certain cafeteria plan benefits.

* Accrual of Expenses Due to Shareholders - Pursuant to IRC section 267, an accrual basis corporation may not accrue and deduct expenses (such as rent) due to a cash basis shareholder until the amount is includible in the income of the shareholder (when paid).

RECYCLED PAPER

TO REORDER CALL 954-846-9399

BYLAWS

SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN FAMILY FOUNDATION, INC.

(A Florida Not for Profit Corporation)

ARTICLE I. OFFICES

The principal office of the Corporation shall be in the State of Florida. The Corporation shall designate a registered office in accordance with Florida law and shall maintain it continuously. The Corporation may have offices at such other places within and without the State of Florida as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE II. MEMBERS

Section 1. Qualification.

Membership is open to all individuals over the age of twenty-one years who are interested in furtherance of the purposes of the Corporation.

Section 2. Membership Classes.

There shall be two classes of Membership:

a. Voting Members. The Corporation shall have Voting Members who shall have all the rights and privileges of Members of the Corporation. The Corporation shall have at least one Voting Member at all times.

b. Nonvoting Members. The Corporation may have Nonvoting Members. All Nonvoting Members shall become Voting Members at such time as there are no serving Voting Members. Unless otherwise specifically stated in these Bylaws to the contrary, all references to "Members" relate to Voting Members and not to Nonvoting Members.

c. No Vested Rights. Regardless of membership class, a Member does not have any vested rights, interests, or privileges in the assets, functions, affairs or franchises of the Corporation or any right, interest, or privilege that is transferable, inheritable, or that may be continued if membership ceases. The Voting Members may by majority vote revoke the membership of any Nonvoting Member at any time.

Section 3. Manner of Admission.

Each application for Voting Member and Nonvoting Member must be sponsored by a Voting Member in good standing. Voting and Nonvoting Members will be admitted upon the approval of a majority of Voting Members. In the event no persons are serving as a Voting Member or Nonvoting Member, the Board of Directors shall appoint one Voting Member.

Section 4. Annual Meetings.

The purpose of the annual meeting of Members is to elect Directors and to transact such other matters as may properly come before the Members. The annual meeting of the Members of the Corporation shall be held at the times and places designated by the President of the Corporation. The annual meeting of Members for any year shall be held no later than thirteen (13) months after the last annual meeting of Members (or the date of the initial meeting of Members, for purposes of the first annual meeting). However, failure to hold an annual meeting timely shall in no way affect the terms of Officers or Directors of the Corporation or the validity of actions of the Corporation.

Section 5. Special Meetings.

Special meetings of Members may be called by the President or by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office or by Members holding one-fourth (1/4) or more of the outstanding votes of the Corporation. The purpose of each special meeting shall be stated in the notice and may only include purposes which are lawful and proper for Members to consider.

Section 6. Place of Meeting.

The Board of Directors may designate any place, either within or without the State of Florida, as the place of meeting for any meeting of Members. If no designation is made, then the place of meeting shall be the principal office of the Corporation in the State of Florida.

Section 7. Notice of Meeting.

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered personally or by mail not less than three (3) days nor more than twenty (20) days before the date of the meeting. Notice shall be given by or at the direction of the President or the Secretary or the persons calling the meeting to each Member of record entitled to vote at the meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to have been delivered when deposited in the United States Mail addressed to the Member at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation with postage thereon prepaid.

Section 8. Waiver of Notice.

A written waiver of notice signed by a Member, whether before or after a meeting, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a Member at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the Member attends for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 9. Action Without Meeting.

Any action of the Members may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing setting forth the action so taken is signed by all of the Members of the Corporation.

Section 10. Voting Record.

If the Corporation has six (6) or more Members of record, the officers having charge of the membership records of the Corporation shall make, at least ten (10) days before each meeting of Members, a complete list of the Members entitled to vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof. The list shall be kept on file at the registered office of the Corporation or at the principal place of business of the Corporation, and any Member shall be entitled to inspect the list at any time during usual business hours. The list shall also be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to the inspection of any Member at any time during the meeting. If the requirements of this Section have not been substantially complied with, then upon demand of any Member in person or by proxy, the meeting shall be adjourned until the requirements are complied with. If no such demand is made, failure to comply with the requirements of this Section shall not affect the validity of any action taken at such meeting.

Section 11. Member Quorum and Voting.

A majority of the Voting Members appearing in person or by proxy shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of Members. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of the Members at the meeting entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the Members. After a quorum has been established at a Members' meeting, the subsequent withdrawal of Members, so as to reduce the number of Members entitled to vote at the meeting below the number required for a quorum, shall not affect the validity of any action taken at the meeting or any adjournment thereof. If a quorum is not present when a meeting starts, then a majority of the Members at the meeting may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice until a quorum is present.

Section 12. Votes.

Each Voting Member shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of Members.

Section 13. Proxies.

Every Member entitled to vote at a meeting of Members or to express consent or dissent without a meeting may authorize another Member to act for him by proxy. Every proxy shall be in writing and shall be signed by the Member or his otherwise duly authorized attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after the expiration of eleven (11) months from the date thereof unless otherwise provided in the proxy. Every proxy shall be revocable at the pleasure of the Member executing it, except as otherwise provided by law.

Section 14. Corporate Actions.

Regardless of anything herein to the contrary, the following actions may only be taken with the consent of a majority of the Voting Members except as such Members may from time to time authorize:

a. the distribution or payment of corporate assets or income in excess of $500 per month.

b. establishment and the pursuit of any activity, function or policy in connection with the Corporation's tax exempt purposes.

This Section shall not amend, limit or restrict any other right of the Members granted by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or by law to vote on or direct any corporate action or inaction.

ARTICLE III. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. General Powers.

Subject to the limitations of the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, and applicable law concerning corporate action that must be authorized or approved by the Members of the Corporation, all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of the Board of Directors, and the management and affairs of the Corporation shall be controlled by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Number, Qualification, Election and Tenure.

The number of Directors shall be the number of Directors elected from time to time in accordance with these Bylaws, but shall never be less than three. The number of Directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by election in accordance with these Bylaws. The Directors need not be Members of this Corporation or residents of Florida. Directors shall be elected by the Voting Members at the annual meeting of Members and shall serve until the next succeeding annual meeting and until their successors have been elected and qualified.

Section 3. Annual Meeting.

The Board of Directors shall hold its annual meeting at the same place as and immediately following each annual meeting of Members for the purpose of the election of Officers and the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. If a majority of the Directors are present at the annual meeting of Members, no prior notice of the annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be required. However, another place and time for such meeting may be fixed by written consent of all of the Directors.

Section 4. Regular Meetings.

Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at such time and at such place as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. Special Meeting.

Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman of the Board (if there is one), the President or any Director. The person or persons authorized to call special meetings of the Board of Directors may fix a reasonable time and place for holding them.

Section 6. Telephone Meetings.

Directors may participate in meetings of the Board of Directors by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by which all persons participating can hear each other at the same time, and participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at such a meeting.

Section 7. Action Without Meeting.

Any action of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing setting forth the action so taken is signed by all of the Directors is filed in the minutes of the Board of Directors. Such consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote.

Section 8. Notice and Waiver.

Notice of any special meeting shall be given at least three (3) days prior thereto by written notice delivered personally, by mail or by telegram to each Director at his address. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States Mail with postage prepaid. If notice is given by telegram, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when the telegram is delivered to the telegraph company. Any Director may waive notice of any meeting, either before, at, or after such meeting by signing a waiver of notice. The attendance of a Director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting and a waiver of any and all objections to the place of such meeting or the manner in which it has been called or convened, except when a Director states at the beginning of the meeting any objection to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 9. Quorum and Voting.

Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, a majority of Directors in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the vote of a majority of Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute the action of the Board of Directors. If less than a quorum is present, then a majority of those Directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without notice until a quorum is present.

Section 10. Vacancies.

Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Voting Members. A Director elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office only until the next election of Directors by the Voting Members. Any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of Directors shall be filled by election at an annual meeting of Members or a special meeting of Members called for that purpose.

Section 11. Removal.

At any meeting of Members called expressly for that purpose, any Director or Directors may be removed from office, with or without cause, by vote of a majority of the Voting Members then entitled to vote at an election of Directors. New Directors may be elected by the Voting Members for the unexpired terms of Directors removed from office at the same meetings at which such removals are voted.

Section 12. Presumption of Assent.

A Director of the Corporation who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless he votes against such action or abstains from voting because of an asserted conflict of interest.

ARTICLE IV. OFFICERS

Section 1. Election.

The officers of the Corporation shall consist of a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, a Treasurer and such other officers as the Directors shall from time to time designate. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. Officers shall hold office until the date fixed in accordance with these Bylaws for the annual meeting of the Directors next following the election of such officers and until their successors are elected and agree to serve.

Section 2. Duties.

Each person holding a position as an officer shall have such authority and perform such duties as are normally the functions of such position and such other duties as shall from time to time be assigned by the Directors.

Section 3. Removal.

Any Officer, may be removed with or without cause by the Directors by notice in writing delivered to the Officer at his address maintained by the Corporation for this purpose. Such removal shall be effective upon such delivery of such notice.

ARTICLE V. MEMBERSHIP CERTIFICATES

Section 1. Form and Issuance.

Members of the Corporation may be issued certificates signed by the President or a Vice-President, and by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary. Each membership certificate shall state the following: (a) the name of the Corporation; (b) that the Corporation is organized under the laws of the State of Florida; (c) the name of the person or persons to whom issued; and (d) the class of Membership. The membership certificate itself shall convey no rights or privileges, but shall only be for identification.

Section 2. Lost, Stolen or destroyed Certificates.

The Corporation may issue a new membership certificate in the place of any certificate previously issued if the Member named in the certificate (a) makes proof in affidavit form that it has been lost, destroyed or stolen; (b) requests the issuance of a new certificate; and (c) satisfies any other reasonable requirements imposed by the Corporation.

ARTICLE VI. NONPROFIT OPERATION

The Corporation will not have or issue shares of stock. No dividends will be paid. No part of the income or assets of the Corporation will be distributed to its Members, Directors or Officers without full consideration. The Corporation may contract in due course with its Members, Directors and Officers without violating this provision and may pay reasonable compensation for services to its Directors and Officers.

ARTICLE VII. FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be the period selected by the Board of Directors as the taxable year of the Corporation for federal income tax purposes.

ARTICLE VIII. INDEMNIFICATION

The Corporation shall indemnify each Officer and Director, including former Officers and Directors, to the full extent permitted by the Florida General Corporation Act and the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act.

ARTICLE IX. ADOPTION; AMENDMENT

Bylaws of the Corporation may be amended, adopted, altered or repealed only upon approval of eighty (80%) percent of the Voting Members.

ARTICLE X. SEAL

The corporate seal of the Corporation will be in circular form embossing in nature and stating "Corporate Seal", "Florida", the name of the Corporation, and its year of incorporation. An impression of the Seal shall be made on the margin of these Bylaws.

CERTIFICATION

I, the undersigned President of the SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN FAMILY FOUNDATION, INC., hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the Bylaws of this Foundation and the same are in full force and effect as of the date of my signature below.

operation of the business of the corporation and to fix their salaries.

9. The corporation hereby adopts Conflict of Interest Policy attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

SIMON BERNSTEIN, Director

SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN, Director

TRACI KRATISH, Director

[Exhibit A]

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY OF THE SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN FAMILY FOUNDATION, INC.

Article I
Purpose

The purpose of the conflict of interest policy is to protect this tax-exempt organization's (Organization) interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer or director of the Organization or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

Article II
Definitions

1. Interested Person

Any director, principal officer, or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an interested person.

2. Financial Interest

A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family:

a. An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the Organization has a transaction arrangement,

b. A compensation agreement with the Organization or with any entity or individual with which the Organization has a transaction agreement, or

c. A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the Organization is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.

Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not substantial.

A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under Article III, Section 2, a person who has a financial interest may have a conflict of interest only if the appropriate governing board or committee decides that a conflict of interest exists.

Article III
Procedures

1. Duty to Disclose

In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees with governing board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.

2. Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists

After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.

3. Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest

a. An interested person may make a presentation at the governing board or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.

b. The chairperson of the governing board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.

c. After exercising due diligence, the governing board or committee shall determine whether the Organization can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.

d. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Organization's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

4. Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy

a. If the governing board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

b. If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the governing board or committee determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

Article IV
Records of Proceedings

The minutes of the governing board and all committees with board delegated powers shall contain:

a. The names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the financial interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the governing board's or committee's decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed.

b. The names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

Article V
Compensation

a. A voting member of the governing board who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Organization for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.

b. A voting member of any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Organization for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.

c. No voting member of the governing board or any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Organization, either individually or collectively, is prohibited from providing information to any committee regarding compensation.

Article VI
Annual Statements

Each director, principal officer and member of a committee with governing board delegated powers shall annually sign a statement which affirms such person:

a. Has received a copy of the conflicts of interest policy,

b. Has read and understands the policy,

c. Has agreed to comply with the policy, and

d. Understands the Organization is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of it tax-exempt purposes.

Article VII
Periodic Reviews

To ensure the Organization operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, periodic review shall be conducted. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum, include the following subjects:

a. Whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information, and the result of arm's length bargaining.

b. Whether partnerships, joint ventures, and arrangements with management organizations conform to the Organization's written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable purposes and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit or in an excess benefit transaction.

Article VIII
Use of Outside Experts

When conducting the periodic review as provided for in Article VII, the Organization may, but need not, use outside advisors, If outside experts are used, their use shall not relieve the governing board of its responsibility for ensuring periodic reviews are conducted.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST AFFIRMATION

Pursuant to Article VI of the Conflict of Interest Policy of the SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN FAMILY FOUNDATION, INC. (the "Organization"), the undersigned directors, principal officers and members of committees with governing board delegated powers of the Organization hereby each affirm that he or she:

a. Has received a copy of the conflicts of interest policy,

b. Has read and understands the policy,

c. Has agreed to comply with the policy, and

d. Understands the Organization is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of it tax-exempt purposes.

2a	Section 501(c)(3) requires that upon dissolution of your organization, your remaining assets must be used exclusively for exempt purposes, such as charitable, religious, educational, and/or scientific purposes. Check the box on line 2a to confirm that your organizing document meets this requirement by express provision for the distribution of assets upon dissolution. If you rely on state law for your dissolution provision, do not check the box on line 2a and go to line 2c.	☑
2b	If you checked the box on line 2a, specify the location of your dissolution clause (Page, Article, and Paragraph). Do not complete line 2c if you checked box 2a. Page 1, Article 6
2c	See the instructions for information about the operation of state law in your particular state. Check this box if you rely on operation of state law for your dissolution provision and indicate the state: _____	☐

Part IV Narrative Description of Your Activities

Using an attachment, describe your past, present, and planned activities in a narrative. If you believe that you have already provided some of this information in response to other parts of this application, you may summarize that information here and refer to the specific parts of the application for supporting details. You may also attach representative copies of newsletters, brochures, or similar documents for supporting details to this narrative. Remember that if this application is approved, it will be open for public inspection. Therefore, your narrative description of activities should be thorough and accurate. Refer to the instructions for information that must be included in your description.

Part V Compensation and Other Financial Arrangements With Your Officers, Directors, Trustees, Employees, and Independent Contractors

Part X Public Charity Status

Part X is designed to classify you as an organization that is either a private foundation or a public charity. Public charity status is a more favorable tax status than private foundation status. If you are a private foundation, Part X is designed to further determine whether you are a private operating foundation. (See instructions.)

1a Are you a private foundation? If "Yes," go to line 1b. If "No," go to line 5 and proceed as instructed. If you are unsure, see the instructions. ☑ Yes ☐ No

b As a private foundation, section 508(e) requires special provisions in your organizing document in addition to those that apply to all organizations described in section 501(c)(3). Check the box to confirm that your organizing document meets this requirement, whether by express provision or by reliance on operation of state law. Attach a statement that describes specifically where your organizing document meets this requirement, such as a reference to a particular article or section in your organizing document or by operation of state law. See the instructions, including Appendix B, for information about the special provisions that need to be contained in your organizing document. Go to line 2. ☑

2 Are you a private operating foundation? To be a private operating foundation you must engage directly in the active conduct of charitable, religious, educational, and similar activities, as opposed to indirectly carrying out these activities by providing grants to individuals or other organizations. If "Yes," go to line 3. If "No," go to the signature section of Part XI. ☐ Yes ☑ No

3 Have you existed for one or more years? If "Yes," attach financial information showing that you are a private operating foundation; go to the signature section of Part XI. If "No," continue to line 4. ☐ Yes ☐ No

4 Have you attached either (1) an affidavit or opinion of counsel, (including a written affidavit or opinion from a certified public accountant or accounting firm with expertise regarding this tax law matter), that sets forth facts concerning your operations and support to demonstrate that you are likely to satisfy the requirements to be classified as a private operating foundation; or (2) a statement describing your proposed operations as a private operating foundation? ☐ Yes ☐ No

5 If you answered "No" to line 1a, indicate the type of public charity status you are requesting by checking one of the choices below. You may check only one box.

The organization is not a private foundation because it is:

a 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(i)—a church or a convention or association of churches. Complete and attach Schedule A. ☐ b 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(ii)—a school. Complete and attach Schedule B. ☐ c 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(iii)—a hospital, a cooperative hospital service organization, or a medical research organization operated in conjunction with a hospital. Complete and attach Schedule C. ☐ d 509(a)(3)—an organization supporting either one or more organizations described in line 5a through c, f, g, or h or a publicly supported section 501(c)(4), (5), or (6) organization. Complete and attach Schedule D. ☐ e 509(a)(4)—an organization organized and operated exclusively for testing for public safety. ☐

f 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(iv)—an organization operated for the benefit of a college or university that is owned or operated by a governmental unit. ☐

g 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi)—an organization that receives a substantial part of its financial support in the form of contributions from publicly supported organizations, from a governmental unit, or from the general public. ☐

h 509(a)(2)—an organization that normally receives not more than one-third of its financial support from gross investment income and receives more than one-third of its financial support from contributions, membership fees, and gross receipts from activities related to its exempt functions (subject to certain exceptions). ☐

i A publicly supported organization, but unsure if it is described in 5g or 5h. The organization would like the IRS to decide the correct status. ☐

6 If you checked box g, h, or i in question 5 above, you must request either an advance or a definitive ruling by selecting one of the boxes below. Refer to the instructions to determine which type of ruling you are eligible to receive.

a Request for Advance Ruling: By checking this box and signing the consent, pursuant to section 6501(c)(4) of the Code you request an advance ruling and agree to extend the statute of limitations on the assessment of excise tax under section 4940 of the Code. The tax will apply only if you do not establish public support status at the end of the 5-year advance ruling period. The assessment period will be extended for the 5 advance ruling years to 8 years, 4 months, and 15 days beyond the end of the first year. You have the right to refuse or limit the extension to a mutually agreed-upon period of time or issue(s). Publication 1035, Extending the Tax Assessment Period, provides a more detailed explanation of your rights and the consequences of the choices you make. You may obtain Publication 1035 free of charge from the IRS web site at www.irs.gov or by calling toll-free 1-800-829-3676. Signing this consent will not deprive you of any appeal rights to which you would otherwise be entitled. If you decide not to extend the statute of limitations, you are not eligible for an advance ruling. ☐

b Request for Definitive Ruling: Check this box if you have completed one tax year of at least 8 full months and you are requesting a definitive ruling. To confirm your public support status, answer line 6b(i) if you checked box g in line 5 above. Answer line 6b(ii) if you checked box h in line 5 above. If you checked box i in line 5 above, answer both lines 6b(i) and (ii). ☐

(i) (a) Enter 2% of line 8, column (e) on Part IX-A. Statement of Revenues and Expenses. _____

(b) Attach a list showing the name and amount contributed by each person, company, or organization whose gifts totaled more than the 2% amount. If the answer is "None," check this box. ☐

(ii) (a) For each year amounts are included on lines 1, 2, and 9 of Part IX-A. Statement of Revenues and Expenses, attach a list showing the name of and amount received from each disqualified person. If the answer is "None," check this box. ☐

(b) For each year amounts are included on line 9 of Part IX-A. Statement of Revenues and Expenses, attach a list showing the name of and amount received from each payer, other than a disqualified person, whose payments were more than the larger of (1) 1% of line 10, Part IX-A. Statement of Revenues and Expenses, or (2) $5,000. If the answer is "None," check this box. ☐

7 Did you receive any unusual grants during any of the years shown on Part IX-A. Statement of Revenues and Expenses? If "Yes," attach a list including the name of the contributor, the date and amount of the grant, a brief description of the grant, and explain why it is unusual. ☐ Yes ☐ No

Part XI User Fee Information

You must include a user fee payment with this application. It will not be processed without your paid user fee. If your average annual gross receipts have exceeded or will exceed $10,000 annually over a 4-year period, you must submit payment of $750. If your gross receipts have not exceeded or will not exceed $10,000 annually over a 4-year period, the required user fee payment is $300. See instructions for Part XI, for a definition of gross receipts over a 4-year period. Your check or money order must be made payable to the United States Treasury. User fees are subject to change. Check our website at www.irs.gov and type "User Fee" in the keyword box, or call Customer Account Services at 1-877-829-5500 for current information.

1	Have your annual gross receipts averaged or are they expected to average not more than $10,000? If "Yes," check the box on line 2 and enclose a user fee payment of $300 (Subject to change—see above). If "No," check the box on line 3 and enclose a user fee payment of $750 (Subject to change—see above).	☐ Yes	☑ No
2	Check the box if you have enclosed the reduced user fee payment of $300 (Subject to change).		☐
3	Check the box if you have enclosed the user fee payment of $750 (Subject to change).		☑

I declare under the penalties of perjury that I am authorized to sign this application on behalf of the above organization and that I have examined this application, including the accompanying schedules and attachments, and to the best of my knowledge it is true, correct, and complete.

Part IV - Narrative Description of Activities

The organization will serve as a centralized entity for family gift-giving to charitable and other qualified recipients. The organization will receive contributions from various family members and friends, will manage and invest those funds, and oversee the distribution of income and principal amounts to qualified recipients.

Part V, 2.a

SIMON BERNSTEIN and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN are husband-and-wife.

Part V, 3.a

SIMON BERNSTEIN
Qualifications - Entrepreneur and chief operating officer of a life insurance brokerage firm; assisted other charitable organizations
Average Hours Worked - anticipated to work 200 hours per year
Duties - chief executive officer - strategic mission of organization; assist in selection of charities and other miscellaneous duties

SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN
Qualifications - Entrepreneur with broad range of business experience; assisted other charitable organizations
Average Hours Worked - anticipated to work 100 hours per year
Duties - chief operating officer - oversight of organization; assist in selection of charities and other miscellaneous duties

TRACI KRATISH
Qualifications - assisted numerous other charitable organizations
Average Hours Worked - anticipated to work 10 hours per year
Duties - assist in selection of charities and other miscellaneous duties

Part V, 3.b

SIMON BERNSTEIN is an owner and partner in several business ventures from which he receives compensation. Such businesses and ventures are entirely unrelated to the operation of the organization, and he does not receive compensation through the organization for activities related to such businesses and ventures and does not receive compensation from such businesses and ventures for his activities related to the organization.

Attachment to Form 1023
SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN FAMILY FOUNDATION, INC.
EIN: 26-1868678

Part V, 5.a

The conflicts of interest policy was adopted at a resolution of the Board of Directors of the organization.

Part VI, 1.b

The organization will distribute, from time to time, funds to charitable and other qualified recipient organizations. It is anticipated that all such recipient organizations will be qualified under Internal Revenue Code §501(c)(3).

Part VIII, 11

The organization has no objection to the receipt of such items, but will not actively seek the contribution of such items and has no present conditions or agreements relating to the contribution of such items.

Part VIII, 13b

The exempt purpose of the organization is to make such gifts.

Part VIII, 13d

No such recipient organizations have yet been identified. It is anticipated that all such recipient organizations will be qualified under Internal Revenue Code §501(c)(3).

Part VIII, 13e

The organization will keep records of the name, address, exempt status, and amount contributed for each recipient organization.

Part VIII, 13f

The Board of Directors will meet on an annual more frequent basis to review potential recipient organizations, and to determine appropriate distribution amounts. Upon confirmation that the organization is authorized to make a distribution without penalty and such distribution is consistent with the exempt organization status of the organization, the distribution will be made.

Attachment to Form 1023
SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN FAMILY FOUNDATION, INC.
EIN: 26-1868678

Part VIII, 13g

The organization will rely primarily on the continued section 501(c)(3) status of the recipient organizations as evidence that contributions are being properly applied to exempt purposes. Nonetheless, the organization may undertake direct communications with recipient organizations to confirm that contributed funds are being applied in an appropriate manner.

Part IX, 7

The investment decisions have not yet been determined.

Part IX, 15

The recipients and amounts for distributions have not yet been determined.

Dear Sir or Madam:

Enclosed is the Claimant's Statement for the above referenced policy, together with an original death certificate for the insured, Simon Bernstein. We are also enclosing a copy of Internal Revenue Service Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number for the Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust dated June 1, 1995, which is the trust listed as beneficiary of the above referenced policy. We will provide wiring instructions for the trust bank account when you have processed the claim, if possible, in lieu of a check. Finally, we are enclosing a copy of the obituary for the decedent which was published in the Palm Beach Post. We are unable to locate a copy of the original insurance policy.

If you have any questions with regard to the foregoing, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Spallina/km

Important Information About the USA PATRIOT Act

To help fight the funding of terrorism and money-laundering activities, the U.S. government has passed the USA PATRIOT Act, which requires banks, including our processing agent bank, to obtain, verify and record information that identifies persons who engage in certain transactions with or through a bank. This means that we will need to verify the name, residential or street address (no P.O. Boxes), date of birth and social security number or other tax identification number of all account owners.

SUBSTITUTE FOR IRS FORM W-9

This information is being collected on this form versus IRS form W-9 and will be used for supplying information to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). Under penalty of perjury, I certify that 1) the tax ID number above is correct (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), 2) I am not subject to backup withholding because (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the IRS that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and 3) I am a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien). Please cross through item 2 if you have been notified by the IRS that you are subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return.

SIGNATURES

I/We do hereby make claim to said insurance, declare that the answers recorded above are complete and true, and agree that the furnishing of this and any supplemental forms do not constitute an admission by the Company that there was any insurance in force on the life in question, nor a waiver of its rights or defenses.

For Residents of New York: Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information, or conceals for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto, commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime, and shall also be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars and the stated value of the claim for each such violation.

For Residents of All Other States: See the Fraud Information section of this claim form.

Generation Skipping Transfer Tax Information - THIS MUST BE COMPLETED FOR PAYMENT

I/We the undersigned, on oath, deposes and states as follows with respect to the possible application of the Generation Skipping Transfer (GST) tax to the death benefit payment (Mark the appropriate item):

____1. The GST tax does not apply because the death benefit is not included in the decedent's estate for federal estate tax purposes.

____2. The GST tax does not apply because the GST tax exemption will offset the GST tax.

__✓__3. The GST tax does not apply because at least one of the trust beneficiaries is not a "skipped" person.

____4. The GST tax does not apply because of the reasons set forth in the attached document (Please attach document setting forth the reasons why you believe the GST tax does not apply.)

____5. The GST tax may apply. As a result, the death benefit payment IS subject to withholding of the applicable GST tax. Enclosed is the completed Schedule R-1 (Form 706) for submission to the Internal Revenue Service.

CIVIL PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE | DECLARATORY JUDGMENTS

86.011 Jurisdiction of trial court.—The circuit and county courts have jurisdiction within their respective jurisdictional amounts to declare rights, status, and other equitable or legal relations whether or not further relief is or could be claimed. No action or procedure is open to objection on the ground that a declaratory judgment is demanded. The court's declaration may be either affirmative or negative in form and effect and such declaration has the force and effect of a final judgment. The court may render declaratory judgments on the existence, or nonexistence:

(1) Of any immunity, power, privilege, or right; or

(2) Of any fact upon which the existence or nonexistence of such immunity, power, privilege, or right does or may depend, whether such immunity, power, privilege, or right now exists or will arise in the future. Any person seeking a declaratory judgment may also demand additional, alternative, coercive, subsequent, or supplemental relief in the same action.

History.—s. 1, ch. 21820, 1943; s. 2, ch. 29737, 1955; s. 38, ch. 67-254; s. 3, ch. 90-269.

CIVIL PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE | DECLARATORY JUDGMENTS

86.041 Actions by executors, administrators, trustees, etc.—Any person interested as or through an executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, or other fiduciary, creditor, devisee, legatee, heir, next of kin, or cestui que trust, in the administration of a trust, a guardianship, or of the estate of a decedent, an infant, a mental incompetent, or insolvent may have a declaration of rights or equitable or legal relations in respect thereto:

(1) To ascertain any class of creditors, devisees, legatees, heirs, next of kin, or others; or

(2) To direct the executor, administrator, or trustee to refrain from doing any particular act in his or her fiduciary capacity; or

(3) To determine any question arising in the administration of the guardianship, estate, or trust, including questions of construction of wills and other writings.

For the purpose of this section, a "mental incompetent" is one who, because of mental illness, mental retardation, senility, excessive use of drugs or alcohol, or other mental incapacity, is incapable of either managing his or her property or caring for himself or herself, or both.

Note that a Fixed Rate Loan reduces the cash value and face amount at anniversary. This transaction may cause premiums to increase.

A Variable Loan affects the values of the policy only upon death or surrender.

If the loan rate option is not specified, the loan will be processed under the loan rate provisions of the policy.

9. ☐ POLICY SURRENDER. I am returning the policy. I request a full surrender.

INCOME TAX WITHHOLDING NOTICE AND ELECTION: In 1982, Congress passed the Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act (TEFRA). This law requires that a tax of 10% be withheld from the taxable portion of certain life insurance payments you receive unless you decide not to have tax withheld. Withholding applies only to the taxable portion of the payment you receive and not to the entire payment. The taxable portion, which is subject to withholding, is, in general, equal to the excess of the amount you receive over the total net amount which is considered to be your cost basis for such amount. In many instances, when a life insurance policy is surrendered for its cash value, there is no such excess.

Elect withholding or no withholding by checking the appropriate box below. Please complete this section of this form by signing it and filling in your Social Security Number. If you do not make a choice, we will withhold 10% for Federal income taxes from any taxable portion of your payment.

Even if you decide not to have Federal income tax withheld, you are still liable for payment of Federal income tax on the taxable portion of this payment. You may be subject to tax penalties under the Estimated Tax Payment Rules if your payments of estimated tax and withholding, if any, are not sufficient.

RE: SIMON BERNSTEIN
Policy #1009208

Dear Sir/Madam:

I am writing this letter in response to your request. The above mentioned policy has been paid to November 27, 1995 by a premium loan.

The status of the loan is as follows:

Net Loan	$5,139.05
Interest	$66.46
Total Gross Loan	$5,205.51

Total Outstanding Loan Balance to 27NOV1995: $26,503.35

If the loan is not repaid by the next anniversary date, the cash value and face amounts will be reduced by the amount of the loan. The premium may increase so that the cash value will equal the policy face amount at the policy target age.

Capitol Bankers Life Insurance Company enjoys serving you. If you have any questions, feel free to contact our office at 1-800-825-0003.

Sincerely,

PAMELA B. SIMON INSURANCE TRUST

PAMELA B. SIMON INSURANCE TRUST

I, PAMELA B. SIMON, transfer the assets described in the attached Schedule to the Trustee. These assets and any other assets that may be received by the Trustee shall be held in trust subject to the provisions of this instrument. This instrument and the trusts it establishes are irrevocable and are not subject to amendment or modification in any manner. I intend to divest myself entirely of all my incidents of ownership in insurance and assets from time to time held in this trust.

ARTICLE I

Original Trust

1.1 Ownership of Insurance. The Trustee shall have all incidents of ownership of every insurance policy held in trust, including without limitation the rights to pay premiums from trust income and principal, to exercise any option, election or privilege given under such policy, to change any beneficiary, to borrow any sums of money in accordance with the policy provisions, to use such policy as security for any loan or other purpose, to receive any dividends, earnings or other payments on such policy, to use dividends in any way permissible under such policy, including but not limited to the purchase of additional insurance or the payment of premiums, and to surrender such policy for the cash surrender value. Any instruments executed by the Trustee in connection with any insurance policy shall be binding upon the insurance company and upon every beneficiary.

1.2 Collection. After my death the Trustee shall take whatever action the Trustee considers best to collect the proceeds of any policy payable to the Trustee, but the Trustee need not incur expense or take legal proceedings unless indemnified. The Trustee may give a full discharge to any insurance company of its liability under a policy. In the event of forfeiture of any insurance policy for nonpayment of premiums, the Trustee shall collect the cash value of such policy.

1.3 Special Withdrawal Rights. I intend that contributions to the Original Trust shall qualify as gifts of present interests for federal gift tax purposes first to the extent of $5,000 per year for my spouse and then to the maximum extent possible for my children. Therefore, my spouse and my children shall have certain withdrawal rights as described in Section 5.1.

1.4 Distributions During My Life. Subject to the provisions regarding the payment of premiums under Section 1.1 and the rights of withdrawal under Section 5.1, during my life the Trustee may distribute any part or all of the net income and principal of the Original Trust to any one or more of my spouse (the "primary beneficiary") and my descendants (whenever born) in equal or unequal shares as the Trustee from time to time considers advisable for the support in reasonable comfort, health care, education at any level, best interests and welfare of such beneficiaries; provided, however, that no distribution shall be made that would discharge my legal obligation to support any beneficiary. In exercising this discretion, the Trustee shall give priority to the interests of my spouse. Any undistributed net income shall be added to the principal of the Original Trust at least annually.

1.5 Contingent Disposition. Notwithstanding any other provision, in the event proceeds of any life insurance policy on my life that are payable to the trust are includible in my gross estate as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes, the Trustee shall distribute such proceeds to the then acting Trustee of the PAMELA B. SIMON TRUST, previously established by written instrument, to be dealt with pursuant to its terms in effect at my death or, if such trust is not in existence at my death, the Trustee shall distribute such proceeds to my estate.

ARTICLE II

Family Trust

2.1 Creation. If my spouse survives me, upon my death the Trustee shall hold trust assets as the principal of the Family Trust for the benefit of my spouse (the "primary beneficiary") and my family.

2.2 Discretionary Distributions. The Trustee may distribute any part or all of the net income and principal of the Family Trust to any one or more of my spouse and my descendants (whenever born) in equal or unequal shares as the Trustee from time to time considers advisable for the support in reasonable comfort, health care, education at any level, best interests and welfare of such beneficiaries. In exercising this discretion, the Trustee shall give priority to the interests of my spouse. Any undistributed net income shall be added to the principal of the Family Trust at least annually.

2.3 Termination. Upon my spouse's death, the Trustee shall allocate the remaining Family Trust assets in shares per stirpes for my then living descendants, subject to the Descendant's Trust withholding provisions.

ARTICLE III

Descendant's Trusts

3.1 Gift to Descendants. If my spouse does not survive me, upon my death the Trustee shall allocate trust assets in shares per stirpes for my then living descendants, subject to the Descendant's Trust withholding provisions.

3.2 Withholding. Any share of any trust allocated for any descendant of mine shall be retained by the Trustee as the principal of a Descendant's Trust for such descendant (the "primary beneficiary") to be added to any Descendant's Trust then held for such beneficiary, or if none, to be retained as a separate Descendant's Trust.

3.3 Discretionary Distributions. The Trustee may distribute any part or all of the net income and principal of a Descendant's Trust to any one or more of the primary beneficiary of such Descendant's Trust and the descendants (whenever born) of such beneficiary, in equal or unequal shares as the Trustee from time to time considers advisable for the support in reasonable comfort, health care, education at any level, best interests and welfare of such beneficiaries. Any undistributed net income shall be added to the principal of such Descendant's Trust at least annually.

3.4 Right to Withdraw Principal. After the primary beneficiary of a Descendant's Trust has attained age 25, such beneficiary may withdraw any part or all of the principal of such trust, provided that such withdrawals do not exceed in the aggregate: one-third in value before such beneficiary has attained age 30, nor two-thirds in value before such beneficiary has attained age 35. Such rights of withdrawal shall be exercised by written instruments delivered to the Trustee during such beneficiary's lifetime. The "value" to which such fractions apply shall be the sum of:

(a) The value of trust principal as of the time when such beneficiary first becomes entitled to request such fraction;

(b) The value of any amounts withdrawn under this Section prior to such time, valued as of the date of withdrawal; and

(c) The value of any additions to such Descendant's Trust after such time, valued as of the date of addition.

3.5 Termination. Upon the death of the primary beneficiary of a Descendant's Trust, the Trustee shall allocate the remaining assets of such trust, subject to the Descendant's Trust withholding provisions, in shares per stirpes for:

(a) Such beneficiary's then living descendants, or if none;

(b) The then living descendants of such beneficiary's nearest ancestor who has descendants then living and who was either my descendant or me.

3.6 Power to Appoint at Death. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article, upon the death of the primary beneficiary of a Descendant's Trust such beneficiary may direct the Trustee to distribute any part or all of such trust's assets, in trust or otherwise, to or for the benefit of one or more of such beneficiary's spouse and descendants (whenever born), the spouses of such descendants and any one or more of the trusts under this instrument of which a descendant of mine is the primary beneficiary. Any such direction shall be made by Will making specific reference to this power.

ARTICLE IV

Trustee

4.1 Appointment of Trustee. , shall be the initial Trustee. If at any time the then acting individual Trustee named in this Section or designated pursuant to the next Section is unwilling or unable to act, , if he is then willing and able to act, shall become a Trustee. If no corporate Trustee is acting at my death, CONTINENTAL BANK, N.A., of Chicago, Illinois, or any successor to its trust business, shall become the corporate Trustee to act with the individual Trustee from time to time acting, or if none, as sole Trustee. All acting Trustees of any trust are collectively referred to as "the Trustee", all acting individual Trustees of any trust are collectively referred to as "the individual Trustee" and all individuals who are acting as independent Trustees of any trust are collectively referred to as "the independent individual Trustee". An "independent Trustee" of any trust is either a corporate Trustee or an individual who is not a beneficiary of such trust and has no legal obligation to support any beneficiary of such trust.

4.2 Individual Trustee May Designate Successor. Any individual Trustee of any trust may designate a successor Trustee for such trust by naming one or more qualified individuals or qualified corporations, in the alternative, as such Trustee's immediate successor. Any designation of a successor Trustee under this Section may be revoked by such individual Trustee at any time prior to such individual's ceasing to act as Trustee of such trust. Any such designation or revocation thereof shall be made by written notice to the other then acting Trustee of such trust, if any, and to the designees. No designation of a corporate successor shall become effective if a corporate Trustee is then acting, and no designation of any successor Trustee shall become effective if an individual who is willing and able to act is named in this instrument as a successor to the designating Trustee.

4.3 Addition of Independent Individual Trustee. If no independent Trustee of a trust is acting, the individual Trustee of such trust may appoint in writing a qualified individual who will be an independent Trustee as an additional Trustee of such trust to act with the other Trustee or Trustees from time to time acting, or if none, as sole Trustee. Notwithstanding any other provision, an independent individual Trustee appointed pursuant to this Section may not designate a successor Trustee.

4.4 Addition of Corporate Trustee. If no corporate Trustee of a trust is acting, the individual Trustee of such trust may appoint in writing a qualified corporation as corporate Trustee of such trust, to act with the individual Trustee from time to time acting, or if none, as sole Trustee.

4.5 Removal of Corporate Trustee. The independent individual Trustee of a Trust, if any, may remove the corporate Trustee of such trust for reasonable cause by written notice to such Trustee. Such removal shall become effective on the date on which a written acceptance by the successor corporate Trustee appointed pursuant to this Article is delivered to the removed corporate Trustee.

4.6 Appointment of Successor Corporate Trustee. Whenever the corporate Trustee of any trust declines to act, resigns or is removed, the primary beneficiary, if any, otherwise a majority of the income beneficiaries of such trust, shall in writing appoint any qualified corporation as successor corporate Trustee of such trust.

4.7 Divorced Trustee. Any Trustee whose marriage to me is terminated by court decree (a "Divorced Trustee") is unable to act. Any individual Trustee designated by a Trustee who is unable to act because of this Section (including without limitation by a Divorced Trustee) shall also be unable to act. The preceding sentence shall not apply to any Trustee otherwise named, designated or appointed under this Article.

4.8 Deadlock. If the Trustees qualified to participate in an action or decision of the Trustees are evenly divided and a corporate Trustee so qualified is then acting, the individual Trustee so qualified shall control. If the Trustees qualified to participate in an action or decision of the Trustees are evenly divided and no corporate Trustee so qualified is then acting, the individual Trustee so qualified other than any independent individual Trustee shall control. Any Trustee who is not qualified to participate in or who dissents from such action or decision shall not be liable therefor.

4.9 Investment Advisor. When there are two or more Trustees of a trust, one of which is a corporate Trustee, the individual Trustee of such trust may appoint one or more investment advisors who regularly offer investment counselling services to act as "Advisor" as to any part or all of the assets of such trust. Such individual Trustee is authorized to retain and discharge such Advisors and determine the extent of each such Advisor's investment responsibility. The corporate Trustee shall not have any investment responsibility for any part of the assets of such trust to the extent investment responsibility for such part has been given to such an Advisor and shall not be liable for any exercise or non-exercise of the investment responsibility given to such an Advisor. The corporate Trustee shall have no obligation to review or inquire into any such Advisor's exercise or non-exercise of such Advisor's investment responsibility. With respect to any period during which the corporate Trustee's duties and responsibilities have been reduced pursuant to this Section, the corporate Trustee shall lower its fee to a level commensurate with its reduced duties and responsibilities, and its refusal to do so shall constitute reasonable cause for removal of such corporate Trustee.

ARTICLE V

Miscellaneous

5.1 Withdrawal Rights.

(a) General Rights. With respect to any direct or indirect contribution (including insurance premium payments) to the Original Trust, such of my spouse and my children as are living at the time of such contribution shall have the right to withdraw from the aggregate principal from time to time of all trusts created under this instrument, regardless of whether such trusts were in existence at the time of such contribution, amounts not exceeding the amount of such contribution; provided, however, that the aggregate rights of withdrawal granted to my spouse in any calendar year shall not exceed $5,000 and that the aggregate rights of withdrawal granted to any child of mine in any calendar year shall not exceed the largest amount that then qualifies for the annual per donee exclusion allowed for federal gift tax purposes under section 2503 of the Code, assuming that a split gift election will be made if the donor was married at the time of the contribution. If the cumulative amount of such contributions at any time during a calendar year is less than the sum of such maximum withdrawal amounts for such year, then the maximum withdrawal amounts of my children shall abate pro rata until fully abated to zero, and thereafter the maximum withdrawal amount of my spouse shall abate. A right of withdrawal shall be deemed to be granted pursuant to this Section 5.1 on the date of the contribution giving rise to such right.

(b) Notice of Rights. Each beneficiary who is granted a right of withdrawal under this Section is entitled to notice of such right and of any subsequent change in such right. If at the time of notice such beneficiary is under a legal disability, notice shall be given to the personal representative of such beneficiary, or if none, to a parent of such beneficiary, but while a beneficiary is under a legal disability, rights of withdrawal may be exercised only by such beneficiary's personal representative. Notwithstanding any other provision, such notice shall state the following:

(1) the amount of such beneficiary's maximum annual withdrawal rights;

(2) the procedure for ascertaining the actual amount subject to withdrawal in any given year; and

(3) the time and manner in which such annual rights may be exercised, provided however, that the time period during which such annual rights may be exercised shall not in any event be less than 60 days.

The Trustee shall give the notice required by this Section to each individual entitled thereto no later than 30 days after any of the following events: (1) the first contribution giving rise to a given beneficiary's right of withdrawal under this Section; (2) the modification of such right pursuant to subsection (e) of this Section; (3) the removal of a legal disability if notice was previously given to such beneficiary's parent or personal representative; and (4) the appointment of a substitute legal representative for such beneficiary.

(c) Exercise of Rights. A right of withdrawal granted pursuant to this Section may be exercised only by written instrument delivered to the Trustee after such right of withdrawal is granted but before termination of such right under this Section. If more than one Descendant's Trust is in existence when a right of withdrawal is exercised, each such Descendant's Trust shall contribute that portion of the total amount required to satisfy such exercise as the primary beneficiary of such trust would receive if such total amount were distributed in shares per stirpes to my then living descendants.

(d) Termination of Rights. On April 1 of each year, rights of withdrawal held by an individual that were granted in preceding calendar years that have not already terminated before such April 1 shall terminate to the extent of the greater of $5,000 or 5 percent of the then value of the trust assets out of which, or the proceeds of which, the exercise of such rights of withdrawal could be satisfied, which shall include all then trust assets, including those added after any such withdrawal rights were granted.

(e) Change in Rights. A donor who contributes assets to the Original Trust shall have the right, by a written instrument delivered to the Trustee at the time of such contribution, (1) to exclude any individual who would otherwise have a right of withdrawal from having such right with respect to such contribution; (2) to increase or decrease the amount of any right of withdrawal that would otherwise be granted to any individual by reason of such contribution, except that the aggregate amount of such rights of withdrawal so granted as a result of such contribution shall not exceed the amount of such contribution; and (3) to change the period during which any right of withdrawal granted by reason of such contribution may be exercised.

(f) No Distributions. Notwithstanding any other provision, the Trustee shall make no distribution to a beneficiary from a trust (other than a terminating distribution to a Descendant's Trust), a beneficiary shall have no right to exercise a power of appointment over any trust, and a primary beneficiary of a Descendant's Trust shall have no right to withdraw from such trust pursuant to Section 3.4, to the extent that after such distribution, appointment or withdrawal, the remaining principal of such trust would be insufficient to satisfy its share of all outstanding rights of withdrawal granted under this Section if such rights were exercised.

(g) Trustee Liability. Any decisions made in good faith by the Trustee in carrying out these directions shall not be subject to review, and the Trustee shall be held harmless from any cost or liability as to such decisions.

5.2 Standards for Discretionary Distributions. Except as otherwise provided, in exercising discretion granted to the Trustee to make distributions from any trust to a beneficiary of such trust, the Trustee may consider:

(a) the accustomed manner of living from time to time of such beneficiary;

(b) all other income and assets known to the Trustee to be available to such beneficiary;

(c) the desirability of depleting income and assets that will be subject to greater estate, generation-skipping or other transfer taxes at such beneficiary's death; and

(d) any other factors the Trustee deems pertinent.

5.3 Failure of Beneficiaries. Except as otherwise provided, if at any time a trust has no surviving beneficiary, then the remaining principal and undistributed income of such trust shall be distributed as follows: (a) if I have a spouse, such assets shall be divided into two parts of substantially equal value, and one such part shall be distributed to my heirs, and one such part shall be distributed to such spouse's heirs, such heirs and their shares to be determined pursuant to Illinois law then in effect as if my spouse and I had each died unmarried and intestate at that time; or (b) if I do not have a spouse, such assets shall be distributed to my heirs, such heirs and their shares to be determined pursuant to Illinois law then in effect as if I had died intestate at that time. Notwithstanding any other provision, for purposes of this Section my "spouse" means the individual to whom I was legally married and not legally separated from at my death, or if I was not legally married at my death or if I am living at the time a distribution is to be made under this Section, the last person to whom I was legally married, provided that at the time of such person's death I was legally married to, and not then legally separated from, such person.

5.4 Special Assets. Any securities or other interests in . (or any business entity that shall succeed to its business or assets) are "Special Assets". The Trustee is expressly authorized to retain any Special Assets that may from time to time be a part of the principal of any trust, notwithstanding that such Special Assets may constitute a large part or all of the principal of such trust and may therefore lack the diversification or productivity ordinarily considered prudent for trust investments. No Trustee shall be disqualified from holding office or accepting remuneration with respect to Special Assets, or from purchasing or selling Special Assets, or voting Special Assets in favor of such Trustee.

5.5 Child and Descendant. A "child" or "descendant" means a child or descendant born of a lawful marriage; any person lawfully adopted prior to attaining age 21 shall be deemed "born of a lawful marriage". Except where distribution is directed to descendants "per stirpes", the word "descendants" includes descendants of every degree whether or not a parent or more remote ancestor of a descendant is also living.

5.6 Administrative Provisions. I incorporate by reference the Administrative Provisions attached to this instrument on this date.

Signed and agreed on MARCH 1, 1994, and the Trustee acknowledges acceptance of the trust and receipt of the assets described in the attached Schedule.

Important Information About the USA PATRIOT Act

To help fight the funding of terrorism and money-laundering activities, the U.S. government has passed the USA PATRIOT Act, which requires banks, including our processing agent bank, to obtain, verify and record information that identifies persons who engage in certain transactions with or through a bank. This means that we will need to verify the name, residential or street address (no P.O. Boxes), date of birth and social security number or other tax identification number of all account owners.

SUBSTITUTE FOR IRS FORM W-9

This information is being collected on this form versus IRS form W-9 and will be used for supplying information to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). Under penalty of perjury, I certify that 1) the tax ID number above is correct (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), 2) I am not subject to backup withholding because (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the IRS that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and 3) I am a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien). Please cross through item 2 if you have been notified by the IRS that you are subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return.

SIGNATURES

I/We do hereby make claim to said insurance, declare that the answers recorded above are complete and true, and agree that the furnishing of this and any supplemental forms do not constitute an admission by the Company that there was any insurance in force on the life in question, nor a waiver of its rights or defenses.

For Residents of New York: Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information, or conceals for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto, commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime, and shall also be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars and the stated value of the claim for each such violation.
For Residents of All Other States: See the Fraud Information section of this claim form.

v.	)
	)	Case No.
HERITAGE UNION LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, a Minnesota corporation	)
Defendant.	)

COMPLAINT AT LAW

NOW COMES Plaintiff, SIMON BERNSTEIN IRREVOCABLE INSURANCE TRUST dtd 6/21/95, ("BERNSTEIN TRUST" or "Plaintiff"), by its attorney, Adam M. Simon and complaining of Defendant, HERITAGE UNION LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, a Minnesota corporation (" HERITAGE") and states as follows:

COUNT I

BREACH OF CONTRACT

1. At all relevant times, the BERNSTEIN TRUST was a common law trust established in Chicago, Illinois by the settlor, SIMON L. BERNSTEIN, and was formed pursuant to the laws of the state of Illinois.

2. Ted S. Bernstein is the Trustee of the BERNSTEIN TRUST.

3. At all relevant times, the BERNSTEIN TRUST was a beneficiary of a life insurance policy insuring the life of Simon L. Bernstein, and issued as policy number 1009208 (the "Policy").

4. The Policy was originally purchased by the S.B. Lexington, Inc. 501(c)(9) VEBA Trust (the "VEBA") from Capital Bankers Life Insurance Company ("CBLIC") and was delivered to the original owner in Chicago, Illinois on or about December 27, 1982.

5. At the time of issuance and delivery of the Policy in 1982, CBLIC was an insurance company licensed and doing business in the State of Illinois, and the insured, Simon L. Bernstein, was a resident of the state of Illinois.

6. HERITAGE subsequently assumed the Policy from Capital Bankers and thus became the successor to CBLIC as "Insurer" under the Policy.

7. In 1995, the VEBA, as owner of the Policy, executed a beneficiary change form naming LaSalle National Trust, N.A., as Trustee of the VEBA, as primary beneficiary of the Policy, and the BERNSTEIN TRUST as the contingent beneficiary.

8. S.B. Lexington, Inc. and the VEBA were voluntarily dissolved on or about April 3, 1998.

9. Upon the dissolution of the VEBA in 1998, the Policy ownership was assigned and transferred from the VEBA to Simon L. Bernstein, individually.

10. At the time of his death, Simon L. Bernstein was the owner of the Policy, and the BERNSTEIN TRUST was the sole surviving beneficiary under the Policy.

11. The insured under the Policy, Simon L. Bernstein, passed away on September 13, 2012, and on that date the Policy remained in force.

12. Following Simon L. Bernstein's death, the BERNSTEIN TRUST, by and through its counsel in Palm Beach County, FL, submitted a death claim to HERITAGE under the Policy including Simon L. Bernstein's death certificate and other documentation.

13. The Policy, by its terms, obligates HERITAGE to pay the death benefits to the beneficiary of the Policy upon HERITAGE'S receipt of due proof of the Insured's death.

14. HERITAGE has breached its obligations under the Policy by refusing and failing to pay the Policy's death benefits to the BERNSTEIN TRUST as beneficiary of the Policy despite HERITAGE'S receipt of due proof of the Insured's death.

15. Despite the BERNSTEIN TRUST'S demands HERITAGE has not paid out the death benefits on the Policy to the BERNSTEIN TRUST.

16. As a direct result of HERITAGE's refusal and failure to pay the death benefits to the BERNSTEIN TRUST pursuant to the Policy, Plaintiff has been damaged in an amount equal to the death benefits of the Policy plus interest, an amount which exceeds $1,000,000.00.

WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF, SIMON BERNSTEIN IRREVOCABLE INSURANCE TRUST dtd 6/21/95, prays for a judgment to be entered in its favor and against Defendant, HERITAGE UNION LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, for an amount in excess of $1,000,000.00 plus costs and reasonable attorneys' fees together with such further relief as this court may deem just and proper.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

Robert,

what do you mean in your email that we will be using your turst account? Are you referring to where the proceeds get paid out?

Thank you,

Ted - please confirm by reply email our conversation regarding the above and your desire to have us continue handling this matter until resolution in light of the email you sent us last Wednesday night on behalf of you and your siblings.

Insured Name: SIMON BERNSTEIN
Policy Number: 1009208
Correspondence Number: 09577998

Dear Simon Bernstein:

Thank you for contacting Heritage Union Life Insurance Company. As requested, a Request for Change of Beneficiary Form is enclosed.

Our records indicate the following beneficiary designation:

Primary Beneficiary/Beneficiaries:	LASALLE NATIONAL TRUST, N.A.
Contingent Beneficiary/Beneficiaries:	SIMON BERNSTEIN TRUST, N.A.

The policyowner is to complete the Request for Change of Beneficiary Form by naming their choice of primary and contingent beneficiaries and providing all of the requested information, as well as, their signature(s) on the Signature Page.

For the protection of both parties, if the owner resides in a Community Property State, we request the owner's spouse join in signing and dating the form. If the owner resides in CA, ID, NV or WA the owner's spouse must sign and date the form and if there has been a dissolution of marriage through divorce or death, please provide us with a copy of the divorce decree or death certificate. The divorce decree must clearly state to whom the policy was awarded.

For other requirements, such as if you are naming a Trust as a primary beneficiary, refer to the Instructions - Request for Change of Beneficiary Form which is also enclosed.

If you have any questions, please call the Client Service Center at 800-825-0003, Monday through Friday from 7:30 AM to 4:30 PM Central Standard Time.

Sincerely,

Client Services

INSTRUCTIONS

REQUEST FOR CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY FORM

- Faxes Will Be Accepted
- Do Not Send Policy with this Form

Additional Instructions for Completing Change of Beneficiary Form

1. Name Change: In the case of name change, we require legal proof of the change such as Marriage Certificate, Divorce Decree, Drivers License, Social Security Card, Court Order or Federal ID card.
2. Beneficiary Designations: Be sure to state full names, and relationships ("Mary Doe, wife of the insured" or "Jane and Jim Doe, children of the insured.") Avoid listing only a relationship as the beneficiary (for instance, "spouse of the insured" or "children of the insured").
3. If naming a Trust, please include the full name of the Trust, including the Date of the Trust, the Tax ID Number and a copy of Trust. If you do not wish to provide us with a copy of the entire Trust, please provide us with the portions of the Trust document that designate:
   - The name of the Trust
   - The name of the Trustee(s)
   - The date of the Trust
   - Signature(s) of Trustee(s)
   - In the event the trustee has changed since the original designation with our Company, provide us with any letters of resignation and/or letter of acceptance of the new trustees.
4. If policy is corporately owned, an officer of the Corporation, other than the Insured, must sign on behalf of the Corporation, indicating their corporate title. Please submit legal documentation listing the currently authorized signers for the company. This information should be on company letterhead or be a copy of the corporate minutes. Also the Tax ID number for the Corporation must be provided.
5. Policies subject to Viatical / Life Settlement transaction – Are you or any individual/entity named as beneficiary a viatical settlement provider, life settlement provider, the receiver or conservator of a viatical or life settlement company, a viatical or life financing entity, trustee, agent, securities intermediary or other representative of a viatical or life settlement provider; or an individual or entity which invested in this policy as a viatical or life settlement? If so, please check the appropriate box on the Change of Beneficiary form.
6. Spousal Signature: For the protection of both parties, if the owner resides in a Community Property State, we request that the owner's spouse join in signing and dating this form. If the owner resides in CA, ID, NV or WA the owner's spouse must sign and date this form and if there has been a dissolution of marriage due to divorce or death, please provide us with a copy of the divorce decree or death certificate. The divorce decree must clearly state to whom the policy was awarded.

Examples Of Typical Beneficiary Designations

1. Minor Children should not be named as beneficiary since proceeds cannot be made payable to minors. If a beneficiary is a minor at the time proceeds are payable, we will require court documentation of the appointment of a Guardian of the Minor's Estate.
2. Multiple Beneficiaries: John H. Doe, Father 75%; Mary E. Doe, Mother 15%; and Jane Doe, Sister 10%. Percentages must equal 100%.
3. Trust Beneficiary: The __exact name of trust__ Trust ___trustees names_____ as trustee(s) under written trust agreement dated _____. _____Tax ID #
4. Partnership Beneficiary: Smith, Jones and Brown, a partnership consisting of John A. Smith, William Jones and Henry Brown.
5. Common Disaster Clause: Mary E. Doe, Wife, if living on the day after the death of the Insured; otherwise to John Doe, Son, and Jane Doe, Daughter, equally or the survivor.
6. Irrevocable Beneficiary: Mary E. Doe, Wife, Without Reserving the Right to Change the Beneficiary. (If this type of designation is made, the consent of such beneficiary or beneficiaries will be required to exercise a subsequent right or privilege under said policy, including the right to designate a new beneficiary.)
7. Estate as Beneficiary: The estate of John H. Doe, Insured.
8. Funeral Home Beneficiary: If you reside in a state other than New York or Texas, you may name a funeral home as beneficiary under a life insurance policy or annuity contract except for policies or contracts used to fund pre-need funeral contracts. If naming a funeral home as beneficiary, please include the exact name of the funeral home and the phrase "as their interest may appear." Please be aware that if the funeral home's interest is less than the death proceeds and they are listed as the only beneficiary, they are under no obligation to give any remaining funds to your family or estate. We recommend that you still name a trusted family member or friend as contingent beneficiary.

   For life insurance policies or annuity contracts that are used to fund pre-need funeral contracts, different requirements apply and states may prohibit you from naming a funeral home as beneficiary. Please seek legal advice before naming a funeral home as beneficiary under this type of life insurance policy or annuity contract.
9. The relationship of the proposed beneficiary to the person whose life is insured is needed for the purpose of identification. If no relationship exists, please furnish other information that will serve to identify the beneficiary.

Property Address:	7020 LIONS HEAD LANE, BOCA RATON, FL 33496

Credit Line Limit:	521,000.00
Account Maturity Date:	7/4/2014

In this Agreement, "I", "me" and "my" (which also means "we", "us" and "our" if more than one borrower signs this Agreement) refer to each person who signs the EquityLine(R) Account Agreement (the "Agreement"). The words "you", "your" and "Bank" refer to Wells Fargo Bank N.A.

MY ACCOUNT AND CREDIT LINE

My EquityLine(R) Account is a variable rate revolving line of credit ("Line of Credit") (the "Account"). My Credit limit is set forth above. My Account will have both a Draw Period and Repayment Period as follows:

Draw Period and Maturity Date
This is the period during which I may take advances on my Line of Credit is 10 years from the Date of Agreement (the "Draw Period"). As I take advances on my Account, including my available credit will be my Credit Line Limit less the sum of all unpaid advances. As I repay the principal balance I owe, my available credit will be replenished. I agree not to request an advance that would cause my aggregate balance to exceed my Credit Line Limit. If I do so exceed, I agree to immediately repay the amount that is in excess. This amount will be due on the next billing statement. At the end of the Draw Period, I may request that the Bank renew my Account for an additional 10 years or similarly, the Bank may, at its option extend the Draw Period of my Account for an additional 10 years, both subject to the Bank's standard underwriting process. In the event my Account is not renewed, my ability to request advances will stop at the end of the Draw Period, and my unpaid loan balance, together with any unpaid finance charges and other charges, shall be payable to Bank in full on the maturity date shown above.

PROPERTY SECURING ACCOUNT
To protect you, this Account is secured by a Mortgage/Deed of Trust which is dated 6/8/2004 on the Property described herein above. Except for the Mortgage/Deed of Trust covering my residential real property, my Account is not secured by any personal or other real property, regardless of any other agreements I may have with the Bank.

FINANCE CHARGES ON MY ACCOUNT

1. Periodic FINANCE CHARGE:

FINANCE CHARGES begin to accrue on amounts advanced on the date each advance is made. I will be charged a FINANCE CHARGE on the unpaid balance of my Account at the end of each day at a variable Daily Periodic Rate. The variable Daily Periodic FINANCE CHARGE Rate is equal to 1/365 (1/366, during leap years) of an annual rate of -0.500% (the "margin" or "spread") plus the "Index Rate". The Index Rate is the Wall Street Journal Prime Rate (Western Edition) as published in the "Money Rates" section on the last business day of the prior whole calendar month. The variable Daily Periodic FINANCE CHARGE Rate may increase from billing cycle to billing cycle if the Index Rate increases. The initial variable Daily Periodic FINANCE CHARGE Rate is 0.00956284%. This corresponds to an initial ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE of 3.5 %. The variable Daily Periodic FINANCE CHARGE Rate on my Account will be adjusted on the first day of every billing cycle, using the Index Rate published on the last business day prior whole calendar month. I understand that any increase may cause me to make larger monthly payments. The ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE does not include any charges other than interest. Unless I chose to pay a Line of Credit Rate Cap Buydown, the ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE on my Account will never be more than 12 %.

[X] If this box is checked, there is a Minimum ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE on my Account. The ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE on the Account will never be less than 3.24 % (the "Floor Rate"). If the ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE set forth above is LESS than 3.24 % then the actual daily periodic rate in effect as of the Date of this Agreement is 0.00885246 which corresponds to an ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE of 3.24 %.

[X] If this box is checked, I have chosen to make Automatic Payments and received a discount for making this choice. I have chosen to have my Minimum Monthly Payments plus the Annual fees and Overlimit amounts automatically deducted from the following Wells Fargo Bank Account No. held at Wells Fargo Bank N.A. or any other affiliate of yours. I understand that the ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE on my Account described above was based on a discount you gave me for this authorization for automatic payments from a deposit account with you or your affiliate. If the automatic payments are terminated for any reason by anyone, the spread or margin set forth herein above used to calculate the rate of FINANCE CHARGE on my Account will increase by .25% effective the next business day after the automatic payments are terminated. I will receive 15 days advance notification of this change on my periodic statement.

2. Other FINANCE CHARGES

I agree to pay the following fees to you as a condition to the opening of my Account:

(A) Origination Fee (COLLECTION DEFERRED)

[N/A] If this box is checked, I agree to pay U.S. $500.00 origination fee. The Bank has agreed to defer the collection of this fee. This fee will be due and payable in full at any time within the first 3 years of my Account if I close my Account (for any reason other than default, casualty loss, refinance with you or your affiliate or termination by the Bank). After 3 years, the Bank will waive this amount without any further action required on my part.

(B) Line of Credit Rate Buydown Fee (Optional)

[N/A] If this box is checked, I agree to pay U.S. $500.00 to the Bank to receive a N/A % reduction of the periodic FINANCE CHARGE on my Account. This reduction has been reflected in the margin or spread disclosed in section Periodic FINANCE CHARGE, above.

(C) Line of Credit Rate Cap Buydown (Optional)

[N/A] If this box is checked, I agree to pay U.S. $500.00 to the Bank to receive a reduced maximum ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE on my account ("Line of Credit Rate Cap") equal to no more than N/A % plus the initial ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE 3.5 %, for a lower maximum ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE of N/A % on my Account.

SB

(D) Origination Fee (COLLECTED AT ACCOUNT OPENING):

[N/A] If this box is checked, I agree to pay an Origination Fee collected at the opening of my Account in the amount of U.S. $ NA .

CHARGES AND COSTS DUE UPON SIGNING THIS AGREEMENT

When I sign the Agreement, I agree to pay the Bank the charges and costs set forth herein and as described on the HUD Settlement Statement provided to me at the opening of my Account.

MY ACCOUNT PAYMENTS

1. Minimum Monthly Payments during the Draw Period.

My Payments during the Draw Period:

During the Draw Period and Repayment Period my Minimum Monthly Payment shall be in accordance with the payment option checked below:

[ ] A payment equal to the greater of U.S. $100.00 or 1.5% of my unpaid Account balance (and credit insurance premiums, if any).

[X] A payment equal to the Finance Charge (and credit insurance premiums, if any) owing.

[ ] A payment equal to U.S. $_____ (and credit insurance premiums, if any) owing.

My Minimum Monthly Payment during the Draw Period shall be calculated on the date my monthly billing statement is prepared and will be due on the date shown on the monthly billing statement.

Making the Minimum Minimum Monthly Payment may result in a balloon payment being due at the Maturity Date.

2. My Total Payment Due on Account During the Draw Period

To make all required payments on my account, I will receive monthly billing statements from the Bank. The Ending Balance shown on my billing statement is the total of all unpaid obligations which have been posted to my Account as of the date of the statement, including advances, FINANCE CHARGES, Late Charges, other charges and fees. I can pay either the Ending Balance in full or in monthly installments, but I must pay at least the amount of the Total Payment Due, as shown on my billing statement by the Date Due. The Total Payment Due consists of my Minimum Monthly Payment together with all past due amounts, overlimit amounts and all other charges then due. Depending on my chosen method of payment, the Bank will each month during the Draw Period:

[X] Provide me with a bill stating the Total Payment Due.

SB

[x] Automatically charge my Wells Fargo Bank deposit account separately for the Minimum Monthly Payment due plus any Annual Fee due. If there is an overlimit amount on my Account, you will include the overlimit amount in my automatic payment. If this account does not have enough money in it to make the automatic payment(s) you may, but are not required to, advance the necessary amounts from the Account to make the payments. However, if I have past due amounts on my Account, you will bill me for all payment amounts due and not use an automatic payment to collect these amounts (Any other charges due must be paid separately and you may charge this Account for these other charges, if not paid timely).

[ ] Automatically charge my account with another institution (under the terms of a separate written (ACH) automatic transfer authorization) separately for the Minimum Monthly Payment due plus any Annual Fee. If there is an overlimit amount on my account, you will include the overlimit amount in my automatic payment. However, if I have past due amounts on my Account, you will bill me for all payment amounts due and not use an automatic payment to collect these amounts. (Any other charge due must be paid separately).

3. Total Payment Due Date

My preference for the monthly due dates for my Total Payment Due, including all payments, charges and other amounts on my Account, which may be set for any date between the 1st and the 28th day of each and every month, is __4__ during the Draw Period. If I do not specify a date, the Bank may establish a due date for which is approximately 30 days from the date that I have signed this Agreement and continuing on the same day of each month thereafter.

ADVANCES

Advances requested by me hereunder, if within my available Credit Line Limit and otherwise consistent with the terms of this Agreement, shall be considered obligatory. While my Account is not in default, closed, or suspended, I may borrow money through my account by (a) writing a special check or draft which the Bank has provided to me, (b) requesting an advance in person at any Bank branch, (c) requesting an advance by phone, and (d) obtaining a cash withdrawal or transferring funds by using my Wells Fargo ATM Card or Wells Fargo ATM & Check Card, if offered by the Bank and I select such service, or in other ways the Bank authorizes from time to time. The Bank is authorized to make an advance from my Account when it receives a request given by any person who has signed the Agreement. However, if there are conflicting demands made by any of us who signed the Agreement, the Bank has the option to refuse to make any advance that has not been requested by all of us together. I will not request any advance for which there is not sufficient available credit in my Account, or which would violate any law. Each advance I request will be in the amount of $300.00 or greater. I understand that the Bank may refuse to pay any advance if it does not comply with every requirement of the Agreement. However, the Bank may choose at its sole discretion to make an advance that does not comply. The Bank may pay any advances in any sequence convenient to the Bank.

FEES, COSTS AND CHARGES

In addition to the FINANCE CHARGE, I agree to pay the following non-refundable Fees, Costs and Charges, which will be owed once charged to my Account.

1. Annual Fee

Each year my Account is open, whether or not I use it, a $75.00 non-refundable Annual Fee will be charged to my Account. At your option, this fee may be waived the first year and billed in the second year and each year on the monthly billing statement prepared in my Anniversary month.

2. Late Charge

If my scheduled payment is more than 10 days past due, I will pay a Late Charge equal to the greater of 5% of the scheduled payment or five ($5.00) dollars.

3. Other Charges

I agree to pay the following fees if I request, authorize or use these additional services on my Account:

(a) Fax Fee: If I request or authorize others to request any document or letter to be transmitted by facsimile (Fax) machine, the Bank will charge me a fee in the amount U.S. $10.00.
(b) Research Fee and Photocopy Fee: If, for any purpose other than a billing error inquiry, I request or authorize someone to request that the Bank research my Account or provide photocopies of Account documents, the Bank will charge me a fee in the amount of U.S. $5.00 per photocopy.
(c) Reconveyance or Satisfaction Fee: Reconveyance and satisfaction fees will be charged as allowed by the law of the state where the property is located.
(d) Stop payment Fee: If I request that the Bank stop payment on a draft I have used to advance on my Line of Credit, the Bank will charge me a fee of $25.00.
(e) Return Check Fee: If I make a payment with a check that is dishonored for any reason, the Bank will charge me a fee of $25.00.

COLLECTION COSTS, ATTORNEYS FEES
If I am in default, and to the extent not prohibited by applicable law, I will pay the Bank's collection costs, attorneys' fees and other expenses of enforcing the Bank's rights under the Agreement and the Mortgage/Deed of Trust on the Property.

MY PROMISE TO PAY
I promise to pay the Bank the total of all advances which I make or which I authorize to be made from my Account. I promise to pay the total of any FINANCE CHARGE, plus all amounts past due, and any Late Charges, fees, other charges and other obligations charged to my Account under the Agreement or the Security Mortgage/Deed of Trust. My payments will be made at the Bank's address for receiving a payment, as indicated on my payment coupon and billing statement, unless another payment method is authorized by the Bank. Payments received at that address on any business day will be credited to my Account as of the date received. Each payment will be accompanied by my completed payment coupon. I will not make payment or authorize others to make payment for me by means of a single aggregated payment, which includes payments for this Account and any other account(s), unless the payment is made in compliance with the Bank's requirements for multiple account payments.

The Bank may accept late payments, partial payments, post-dated checks, or any form of payment containing a restrictive endorsement, without losing any of the Bank's rights under the Agreement. The Bank's acceptance of checks or money orders labeled "payment in full", or words to that effect, will not constitute an accord and satisfaction nor waiver of any rights the Bank has to receive full payment. I understand that such payments will not discharge my full debt. The Bank may, at its discretion, withhold a portion of the available credit on my Account up to the amount of any payments in order to assure that my check or other payment instrument is honored.

REEVALUATION OF CREDIT QUALIFICATIONS AND CREDIT REPORTS
My signature on the Agreement authorizes the Bank to obtain credit information about me, including credit bureau reports, at any time. Such credit bureau reports may be requested or used in connection with (a) renewal or extension of the Agreement, (b) review of my Account, (c) taking any collection action, or (d) any other legitimate purposes associated with my Account. Upon my request, I will be informed whether the Bank obtained a credit bureau report and, if so, the name and address of the credit bureau that furnished the report. I agree to submit current financial information to the Bank upon the Bank's request. The Bank may reexamine my credit qualifications at any time. The Bank may report its experience with me and my Account to others, to the extent not prohibited by law.

REINSTATEMENT OF CREDIT PRIVILEGES

I will receive a written notice if the Bank suspends or freezes my Account or reduces my Credit Line Limit. The notice will include the reason(s) for such action(s). Thereafter, if I wish to reinstate my Account or increase my Account or increase my Credit Limit, I agree to send a written request to the Bank at the address specified on my monthly billing statement, signed by all of the Borrowers, along with satisfactory evidence to the Bank that the reason(s) for suspension or reduction of my Account no longer exist(s). I also agree to provide the Bank promptly with any additional information necessary to support my request.

AGREEMENT TO PROVIDE INSURANCE

I have agreed to provide insurance on the Property as more particularly described in the Agreement to Provide Insurance that I signed on the same date of the Agreement.

PAYOFF BALANCE INFORMATION

The Bank will tell me the balance required on any given day to pay off my Account in full, if I so request. If such request is made on my behalf by an escrow holder, the Bank will immediately freeze my Account. While my Account is frozen, I cannot receive new advances and the Bank will return unpaid any advances checks the Bank receives and refuse to honor any advance request made on my Account. This payoff freeze will be lifted and my Account reopened if the request for Payoff balance information is withdrawn and the Bank has received written confirmation from the escrow holder or other settlement agent that the escrow or other settlement has been cancelled.

DEFAULT

I will be in default if (a) I fail to meet the repayment terms of the Agreement for any outstanding balance, or (b) there is fraud or material misrepresentation by me in connection with the Agreement, or (c) any action or inaction by me adversely effects the Bank's security in the Property, including without limitation, transfer of the Property without the Bank's consent, failure to maintain required insurance or pay required taxes, or the death of any person who has signed the Agreement.

If I am in default, the Bank, subject to applicable law, may do any or all of the following: (a) close my Account immediately, without notice; (b) return to the payee without paying any outstanding advance checks drawn on my Account and refuse to honor any other advance request made on my Account; and (c) require immediate payment of the entire balance of my Account, and, if I fail to pay, exercise the Bank's rights under the Security Mortgage/Deed of Trust the property which may result in the loss of the Property. If I am in default, the method of determining the Daily Periodic FINANCE CHARGE Rate will remain as described in the Agreement. The Bank and I agree that notwithstanding any other provision of the Agreement or the Security Mortgage/Deed of Trust, the Bank will have the right to terminate or suspend my Account to the extent permitted by applicable law.

CLOSURE OR SUSPENSION OF ACCOUNT

Any Borrower can pay in full and close the Account, or simply terminate the advance feature, at any time, by sending a signed letter to the Bank making such request that the Account be closed, or simply terminate the advance feature. To reactivate the Account, the Bank will require all Borrowers to sign such written request. The Bank may suspend the use of my Account and temporarily close my Account to future advances for any reason permitted by applicable law, including without limitation, (a) if the annualized Daily Periodic FINANCE CHARGE Rate equals or exceeds the Maximum Annual Percentage Rate stated herein, (b) there is any material change in my financial circumstances that the Bank reasonably believes will make me unable to fulfill my repayment obligations under the Agreement, (c) the value of the Property declines significantly below its original appraised value, as determined by the Bank, (d) my failure to comply with any material obligation under the Agreement or the Security Mortgage/Deed of Trust, (e) a regulatory authority has notified the Bank that continued advances would constitute an unsafe and unsound business practice, or (f) government action prevents the Bank from imposing the Annual Percentage Rate provided for in the Agreement or impairs the Bank's security interest, such that the value of the security interest is less than 120 percent of the Credit Line Limit. In the event of a suspension of my Account, the Bank is authorized to obtain such information as may be required by the Bank, including without limitation, credit reports and appraisals of the Property, to evaluate any request by me to reinstate the Account. I authorize the Bank to bill the cost of obtaining such additional information to my Account. If my Account is closed or suspended for any reason, the Bank may return to the payee without paying any outstanding advance checks drawn on my Account and refuse to honor any other advance request made on my Account. I will continue to be responsible for full payment of the balance of my Account as well as all other Account obligations, according to the terms of the Agreement.

SB

FURTHER ASSURANCES
I agree that I will take any steps, including but not limited to, signing, filing or recording any documents, which are necessary or which the Bank deems appropriate, to be sure that my obligations to the Bank under the Agreement become and continue to be secured by the Mortgage/Deed of Trust covering the Property.

FUTURE ADVANCES
The Bank may from time to time in its sole discretion, approve additional credit for me under the terms of this Agreement. I will receive written notice from the Bank of such offer to increase my Credit Line Limit. I may accept such offer of increased credit by my use of those additional funds without signing any additional documents. All such increased credit amounts will be governed by the terms and conditions of this Agreement and will be secured by the Mortgage/Deed of Trust which secures this Agreement.

CHANGE IN RESIDENCE OR OWNERSHIP OF THE PROPERTY
I agree to notify the Bank immediately if (a) if the Property is my primary residence and I cease to live in the Property my primary residence, or (b) there is change in ownership of the Property. I agree that my Account shall be closed and that the entire outstanding balance of my Account shall be due and payable immediately on any sale or other transfer of the Property. In this regard, I understand that if the Account is secured by a Deed of Trust, the Deed of Trust contains the following or substantially similar provision:
Upon sale, transfer, hypothecation, assignment or encumbrance, where voluntary, involuntary, or by operation of law, of all or any part of the Subject Property or any interest therein, then at its sole option Beneficiary or Lender may, by written notice to Trustor (or Grantor), declare all obligations secured hereby immediately due and payable, except to the extent that such acceleration for and in such particular circumstances where exercise of such a right by Beneficiary is prohibited by law.
If the Account is secured by a Mortgage contains the following, or substantially similar provision: Upon sale, transfer, hypothecation, assignment or encumbrance, whether voluntary, involuntary, or by operation of law, of all or any part of the Subject Property or any interest therein, then its sole option Mortgagee may, by written notice to Mortgagor, declare all obligations secured hereby immediately due and payable, except to the extent that such acceleration for and in such particular circumstances where exercise of such a right by Mortgagee is prohibited by law.

CHANGE IN TERMS
I agree that the Bank may make certain changes to the terms of this Agreement at specified times or upon the occurrence of specified events. The Bank may make insignificant changes, such as changes in the address for payments, billing cycle dates, payment due dates, day of the month on which index values are determined, index or interest rate rounding rules, and balance computation method (if the change produces an insignificant difference in the interest I pay). The Bank may also make changes that will benefit me, such as additional options or a temporary reduction in rates or fees. In accordance with the federal law, the Bank may also change the index and margin used to determine the Annual Percentage Rate if the index is no longer available. The Bank will give me any notice of change that is required by law. I may also agree to change in writing.

BORROWER'S WAIVERS
I waive my rights to require the Bank to do certain things. Those things are: (a) to demand payment of amounts due (know as "presentment"); (b) to give notice that amounts due have not been paid (known as "notice of dishonor"); (c) to obtain an official certification of nonpayment (known as "protest"). Anyone else who agrees to keep the promises made in the Agreement, or who agrees to make payments to the Bank if I fail to keep my promises under the Agreement, or who signs the Agreement to transfer it to someone else, waives these rights. These persons are known as "guarantors, sureties and endorsers".

WAIVER
The Bank may fail to make use of any of its rights under the Agreement or the Mortgage/Deed of Trust on the Property on one or more occasions, or delay or partially exercise such rights, without waiving any of its rights or amending any of my obligations.

GOVERNING LAW
All interest, fees and other amounts charged or accruing in connection with the Agreement which are considered "interest" within the meaning of Section 85 of the National Bank Act (12 USC Sec. 85; 12 CFR 7.4001 (a)) shall be governed by and interpreted under California Law. In all other respects, the Agreement and all related documents, as well as the rights, remedies, and duties of the Bank and the Borrower(s), shall be governed and interpreted by federal law with respect to national banks and, to the extent not permitted by federal law, the consumer protection laws of the state in which the real estate is located.

LOST OR STOLEN ADVANCE CHECKS, BILLING ERRORS

I will immediately contact the Bank at the phone number on my statement and confirm by letter if any of my advance checks are ever lost or stolen, if there are any errors in my monthly statement, or if I suspect any unauthorized use of my Account. The Bank will not return to me my cancelled advance checks or other advance instruments after paying them. The Bank will make available photocopies of my advance checks and other instruments upon request. (If such request is not made in connection with a billing error inquiry, it may be subject to Research and Photocopy Fees, as described herein). I will examine my Account statement promptly in order to identify any improper or unauthorized entries. In consideration for the Bank's payment of each advance check, I agree that even though I will not receive the original checks, all time periods under the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) for examining my statement and reporting improper entries, including that UCC's statutes of limitation with respect to forged, unauthorized, or missing signatures or endorsements, will begin from the time my Account statement is sent or made available to me.

UNAUTHORIZED TRANSACTIONS WITH WELLS FARGO ATM CARD OR WELLS FARGO ATM & CHECK CARD

I will notify Wells Fargo Bank at once if my card has been lost or stolen and/or another person has my Secret Code or PIN. I will also notify the Bank if someone has transferred or may transfer money from my Account without my permission, or if I suspect any fraudulent activity on my Account. I can call the Wells Fargo Phone Bank at the telephone number on my statement, anytime, 24 hours a day, 7 day a week, or advise my local Wells Fargo office, followed by a written notice, or write to:

Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. P.O.Box 4233 Portland, OR 97208-4233

NOTIFY THE BANK IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT MY BILL

If I think my bill is wrong or if I need more information about a transaction on my bill, I will send a letter on a separate page to the Bank, as soon as possible, at the address listed on my bill. The Bank must hear from me no later than 60 days after the Bank sent me the first bill on which the suspected error or problem appears. I can telephone the Bank, but doing so will not preserve my rights. In my letter, I will provide the Bank with the following information:

-My name, account number and daytime phone number, and

-The dollar amount of the suspected error, and

-A description of the error and explanation, if possible, as to why I believe there is an error. If I need more information, I will describe the item I am not sure about.

If I have authorized the Bank to pay my bill automatically from my checking account, I can stop the payment on any amount I think is wrong. To stop the payment, my letter must reach the Bank three business days before the automatic payment is scheduled to occur.

MY RIGHTS AND THE BANK'S RESPONSIBILITIES AFTER RECEIPT OF MY WRITTEN NOTICE

The Bank must acknowledge my letter within 30 days, unless the Bank has corrected the error by then. Within 90 days, the Bank must either correct the error or explain why the Bank believes the bill was correct. After the Bank receives my letter, the Bank cannot try to collect any amount I question or report me as delinquent. The Bank can continue to bill me for the amount I question, including finance charges, and the Bank can apply any unpaid amount against my Credit Line Limit. I do not have to pay any question amount while the Bank is researching my account, but I am still obligated to pay the parts of my bill that are not in question.

If the Bank finds that a mistake was made on my bill, I will not have to pay any finance charges related to the questioned amount. If the Bank didn't make a mistake, I will have to pay finance charges, and I will have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, the Bank will send me a statement of the amount I owe and the date that payment is due.

If I fail to pay the amount that the Bank determines I owe, the Bank may report me as delinquent. However, if the Bank's explanation does not satisfy me and I write to the Bank within ten days telling the Bank that I still refuse to pay, the Bank must tell anyone the Bank reports to that I have question about my bill. When the matter has been settled between the Bank and me, the Bank must tell anyone the Bank reports to that the matter has been settled. If the Bank does not follow the above rules, the Bank cannot collect the first $50.00 of the questioned amount, even if my bill was correct.

Addendum to Promissory Note/Line of Credit Agreement

This Addendum, made on 6/8/2004 is incorporated into and shall be deemed to amend and supplement the promissory note/line of credit agreement of the same date. If the promissory note/line of credit agreement is signed on or after February 20, 2004 the Governing Law Provision included in either the promissory note/line of credit agreement (including the promissory note/line of credit agreement in the Home Equity Closing Handbook, if applicable) is amended to read:

"All interest, fees and other amounts charged or accruing in connection with this Agreement which are considered "interest" within the meaning of Section 85 of the National Bank Act (12 USC § 85; 12 CFR 7.4001 (a)) shall be governed by and interpreted under South Dakota law. In all other respects, this Agreement and all related documents, as well as the rights, remedies, and duties of the Bank and the borrower(s), shall be governed and interpreted by federal law with respect to national banks and, to the extent not preempted by federal law, the consumer protection laws of the state in which the real estate is located, except that Texas Finance Code Chapter 346 (which regulates certain revolving credit accounts) does not apply to this Agreement."

In all other respects and except as amended by this Addendum, the promissory note/line of credit agreement remains unchanged and in full force and effect.

NOTICE OF FINAL AGREEMENT AND ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

Resolving Disputes - Arbitration Agreement
In this Arbitration Agreement, "the Bank" means Wells Fargo Bank N.A. or any transferee of the Agreement or Note as applicable, and "I", "me", and "my" means the undersigned customer or customers, individually and jointly. Maintaining good relationships with customers is very important to the Bank. I agree to contact the bank immediately if I have a problem with one of my accounts or loans with the Bank or a service the Bank provides to me. Often a telephone call will resolve the matter quickly and amicably. However, if the Bank and I are not able to resolve our differences informally, I agree that any dispute between me and the Bank, regardless of when it arises or arose, will be settled, at the option of me or the Bank, using the following procedures.

I UNDERSTAND AND AGREE THAT I AM WAIVING MY RIGHT TO JURY TRIAL, BEFORE A JUDGE IN A PUBLIC COURT. FURTHER, I WILL NOT HAVE THE RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE AS A REPRESENTATIVE OR MEMBER OF ANY CLASS OF CLAIMANTS PERTAINING TO ANY DISPUTE SUBJECT TO ARBITRATION.

NOTICE: THIS DOCUMENT AND ALL OTHER DOCUMENTS RELATING TO THIS LOAN CONSTITUTE A WRITTEN LOAN AGREEMENT WHICH REPRESENTS THE FINAL AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE PARTIES AND MAY NOT BE CONTRADICTED BY EVIDENCE OF PRIOR, CONTEMPORANEOUS, OR SUBSEQUENT ORAL AGREEMENTS OF THE PARTIES. THERE ARE NO UNWRITTEN ORAL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN THE PARTIES RELATING TO THE LOAN CLOSED ON THE SAME DATE AS THIS AGREEMENT IS SIGNED.

Disputes
A dispute is any unresolved disagreement between the Bank and me that relates in any way to accounts, loans with the Bank, services provided by the Bank, or agreements with the Bank. A dispute includes any claims or controversy of any kind, which arises out of or are in any way related to these accounts, loans, services or agreements. It includes claims based on broken promises or contracts, tort (injury caused by negligent or intentional conduct), breach of fiduciary duty or other wrongful actions. It also includes any statutory common law and equitable claim. A dispute also includes any disagreement about the meaning of the Arbitration Agreement and whether a disagreement is a "dispute" subject to binding arbitration as provided for in the Arbitration Agreement. No dispute may be joined in arbitration with a dispute of any other person or arbitrated on a class action basis.

Binding Arbitration
Binding arbitration is a means of having one or more independent third parties resolve disputes without using the court system, judges or juries. Either the Bank or I may submit a dispute to binding arbitration at any reasonable time notwithstanding that a lawsuit or other proceeding has commenced. If either the Bank or I fail to submit to binding arbitration following a lawful demand, the party who fails to submit shall bear the costs and expenses incurred by the party compelling arbitration. Neither you nor I shall be entitled to join or consolidate disputes by or against others in any arbitration, or to include in any arbitration any dispute as a representative or member of a class, or to act in any arbitration in the interest of the general public or in any private attorney general capacity.

The American Arbitration Association (the AAA) shall administer each arbitration, including the selection of arbitrators, pursuant to the commercial arbitration rules of the AAA. Each arbitration will be governed by the provisions of the Federal Arbitration Act (Title 9 of the United States Code) and, to the extent any provision of that Act is applicable, unenforceable or invalid, the laws of the state governing the relationship between me and the Bank about which the dispute arose. To find out how to initiate arbitration, I can simply call any office of the AAA.

SB

Exception - Certain Real Property Collateral
Notwithstanding contrary provisions herein, no dispute shall be submitted to arbitration if the dispute concerns indebtedness secured by real property and if arbitration of the dispute would preclude enforcement of a mortgage, lien or security interest securing such indebtedness unless (1) the holder of such mortgage, lien or security interest specifically elects in writing to proceed with the arbitration, or (2) all parties to the arbitration waive any rights or benefits that might accrue to them by virtue of any applicable one action rule statutes, thereby agreeing that all indebtedness and obligations of the parties, and all mortgages, liens and security interests securing any such indebtedness and obligations, shall remain fully valid and enforceable.

Right To Other Remedies Preserved
Neither this Arbitration Agreement, nor the exercise of any of the rights the Bank and I have under the Agreement, shall stop me or the Bank from exercising any lawful rights either of us has to use other remedies available for the purpose of (1) preserving, foreclosing, or obtaining possession of real or personal property; (2) exercising self-help remedies including setoff and repossession rights; or (3) obtaining provisional or ancillary remedies such as injunctive relief, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, or the appointment of a receiver from a court having jurisdiction.

Miscellaneous
The AAA - the arbitrator - and the parties - the Bank and I - shall, to the extent feasible, take any action necessary to assure that an arbitration proceeding hereunder is furnished within one hundred eighty (180) days of the filing of the dispute with the AAA. Arbitration proceedings shall be conducted in the state in which I reside, at a location determined by the AAA. All statutes of limitations applicable to any dispute shall apply to any arbitration between the Bank and me. If a claim is properly filed in a small claims or justice court and if the small claims or justice court has jurisdiction to resolve the claim, including all cross-claims and counterclaims, then the party that demands arbitration and removes the claim from the small claims or justice court shall pay the administrative fee of the AAA and the fees, cost and expenses of the arbitrator. This Arbitration Agreement shall survive the termination, amendment or expiration of any documents or any relationship between the parties.

Judicial Reference (California Only)
If California law governs this Arbitration Agreement and an action or proceeding is commenced by complaint before any court in California and neither I nor the Bank request that the dispute be submitted to arbitration, then, upon motion by either the Bank or me, the dispute shall be heard by a reference under the provisions of the California Code of Civil Procedure, Section 638 and following. The referee shall be either a practicing attorney or retired judge. The reference process is not subject to a trial by jury.

Dear Pam:

Please accept my apologies for my delay in sending you this letter. I had meant to send it to you soon after we spoke about my discussions with your parents' estate planning attorney, Robert Spallina. I know that it came as a shock when I told you that I was informed by Mr. Spallina that you, Ted and your respective family lines have not been provided for under your parents' estate plan and that your other three siblings have been provided for. Therefore, I thought that this follow-up letter was important.

As you may recall, I wrote to Mr. Spallina to request copies of your mother's Will, Trust and related financial information so that we could factor in a projected value of your remainder interest in your mother's Trust and analyze whether we should make any revisions to your and Scooter's estate plan in light of your mother's passing. We followed up with him after not receiving the requested information. In the end, I received an email from him in which he wrote "Please call me."

During my discussions with Mr. Spallina, he told me that you, Ted and your family lines were treated as "deceased" under your mother's trust because you and Ted were active in the businesses, and that each of you received a business as a gift from your parents. Mr. Spallina went on to say that your parents thought that they had adequately provided for you and Ted as a result of the gift of the business interests and that they wanted to provide for the other three children under their estate plan. I listened to what Mr. Spallina said. However, I knew based on our series of discussions over the years that, in fact, you did not receive any gift of a business interest from your parents.

Following is my understanding of the circumstances under which you obtained your father's interest in S.T.P. Enterprises, Inc. ("STP"), which I understand can be supported by documentation:

- You and Scooter "stepped-in" and took over the running of Si's businesses (including SB Lexington, Cambridge Associates and others) following your father's open heart surgery at Northwestern in February of 1987, where he also contracted Hepatitis C and was told that he could no longer work full time. Following this, Si moved full time to Florida. He traveled to Israel later that year and contracted pneumonia.

- Upon reviewing the books, you and Scooter realized that Si's businesses were failing, an employee was stealing money and Si owed millions of dollars in unpaid bills and unpaid debt. In addition, you were receiving call after call from various banks asking for repayment.

- At that time, the ALPS was in its infancy. The promoter/agency was Cambridge Associates, owned 50% by Dov Kahana and 50% by Si with the positive arbitrage owned 25% by each of Cambridge, KGN, Bruce Nickerson and Scooter.

- In August 1988, Dov was exposed by you, and you and Scooter bought out Dov's 50% share for $3,300/month for 3 years and re-formed STP to own and market the ALPS.

- The first ALPS funding was on October 25, 1988. Even though your father was not involved in the day-to-day operations of STP, and you and Scooter were buying out Dov, your father insisted on owning a 50% share in STP, with each of you and Scooter receiving a 25% share.

- To protect your reputation and save Si from bankruptcy, you and Scooter decided to work 7 days a week and to forgo receiving most of your share of the net income from the business for a number of years to turn Si's situation around. During this time, however, your father continued to receive his 50% share of the net income and had his debt re-financed and re-paid by STP.

- Ultimately you and Scooter were compelled to buy your father out because he was doing business in Florida on behalf of others in a manner that was jeopardizing the relationships that you and Scooter had made through your efforts. You and Scooter paid top dollar ($6.5 million) to buy out your father's interest after the two of you had turned STP into a success. Although neither you nor Scooter thought that such a large sum was reasonable, you felt good knowing that it should take care of him and your mother for life.

- Just months after you purchased your father's interest in STP, you discovered that your father was doing business in direct competition with STP and utilizing STP information on his web page.

In addition, I recall based on our discussions that you and Scooter decided to help your parents by purchasing their Chicago condominium after they decided to move to St. Andrews. I understand that the two of you paid above full price with no sales commission during a time when units were not selling at all, much less at full price. I also recall that the condo's furnishings were included in the purchase price even though your parents ultimately took an antique bench with them.

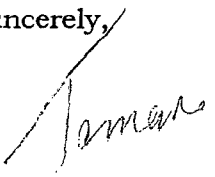
I do not see how either of these transactions with your parents could in any way be viewed as gifts that they made to you, and thus, justify their decision to cut you, Molly and future descendants of your family line out of receiving assets under their estate plan. I suggest that you talk this over with your father. Perhaps a review of the facts of the transactions will help his recollection about what actually occurred during the period when he was ill.

It is not the natural course to cut out certain family lines (Mr. Spallina agreed with me on this), and doing so could result in rifts between family lines for generations to come. I expect that this is not the type of legacy that your father would like to leave behind. In my experience, a child and that child's line are cut out only in extreme circumstances.

It is not too late for your father to change the current course. Since each of you, Ted, Lisa and Jill have your own independent wealth, perhaps at death your father could provide for your brother, Eliot, who is in need of financial assistance, and then divide the remainder of your parents' assets (after any debts, taxes and expenses) between the grandchildren so that each grandchild feels that he or she has been treated the same as his or her cousins. Obviously generation-skipping transfer ("GST") taxes would need to be considered, but under current tax law, potentially up to $10 million could be transferred between your parents to the grandchildren's generation without triggering a GST tax.

Sincerely,



==========

Ted: This is principally addressed to you but have included others so that they are aware. I feel that we have serious conflicts in continuing to represent you as Trustee of the Life Insurance Trust and need to withdraw from further representation in regard to that matter. We have been under the impression that the interpleader action to be filed in Palm Beach County, Florida would be filed in the Circuit Court which is a State court. That is where Sy's estate is being administered. I have spent the past couple of days acting as an intermediary with Scooter and Scott and thought that we had reached a reasonable resolution that would permit the carrier to bring the action here and have Adam then dismiss the Cook County suit. It appears that I was unsuccessful. Given the conflicting issues of who is representing the Trust, our removal will at least solve that issue. If you gave written authority to the Simon Lawfirm it was without our knowledge.

Should our testimony or affidavits regarding Sy's intent or any other aspects of this matter that we may have knowledge be useful we will certainly be available to assist.

Dear Mr. Simon,

Thank you for your correspondence.

I just tried to call you, but neither you nor your colleague David Simon were available.

I have briefly discussed this matter with Cook County counsel.

It is my understanding that Jackson has a very short timeframe in which to remove this action to federal court, should it choose to do so. Inasmuch as I am out of the office all next week, I would like to resolve this issue sooner rather than later.

My understanding of this matter is that the Trustee of the Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust has not authorized you to file this lawsuit on behalf of the Trust. Indeed, the Trust's counsel (Robert Spallina) and I have had several amicable and productive dialogues regarding this matter, and have agreed that the best way to resolve this matter is for Jackson to file a federal interpleader action in Palm Beach Florida, where venue indisputably lies.

RE: Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust dtd 6/21/95 v. Heritage Union Life Insurance Company, Case Number 2013L003498

Mr. Welling:

This email confirms that the Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust dtd 6/21/95 will dismiss the action filed in Cook County upon a filing of the interpleader action in the Palm Beach County Circuit Court within the later of (i) 30 days from today; or (ii) the time for filing an answer or other responsive pleading in the Cook County matter. Heritage need not file an answer or other pleading provided if and only if Heritage files the interpleader action in the Palm Beach County Circuit Court within the time stated.

Thank you for your participation in this resolution.

Very truly yours,
THE SIMON LAW FIRM

Adam M. Simon

Robert,
The policy was originally bought by a 501(c)(9) Death Benefit VEBA Trust. LaSalle was a successor Trustee and the last Trustee before the VEBA was dissolved. SB Lexington, the corporation that established the VEBA Trust was also dissolved. Simon, as sole owner of SB Lexington at the time of dissolution, became the owner of the policy and he named the Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust dated June 21, 1995 as beneficiary. LaSalle has also since been dissolved or merged into Bank of America.

Hi Bob,

First, let me thank you for discussing this matter with me, and for your continued cooperation in helping ensure that the $1 – million – plus proceeds of this policy are paid correctly.

As I noted during our conversation, Jackson recently acquired Reassure Life Insurance Company, and is now responsible for administering this policy. I have been working with former Reassure personnel to obtain the necessary documentation confirming the last-named owner and beneficiary of the policy. Unfortunately, due to the age of this policy, this is proving to be a difficult task.

My assistant, who is quite thorough, went through the policy file and prepared a detailed outline noting all policy activity, including owner changes and beneficiary changes. This outline revealed instances where letters were sent confirming ownership and/or beneficiary changes, for which no valid ownership change or beneficiary change directive could be found. I have sent the Reassure folks several emails pointing out these issues and I have asked them to provide all documentation substantiating the confirmation letters.

Clearly, Jackson wants to pay the proceeds of this policy to the correct beneficiary as swiftly as possible. If we need to seek the court's determination of who that beneficiary is, it is vitally important that we name in any pleading all entities which may have a claim to the proceeds. Hence the need to confirm, to the extent possible, all beneficiary designations which may (rightly or wrongly) have been recorded against the policy.

At this point, my hope is to resolve this matter by way of a Petition which (i) names all possible beneficiaries/claimants, and (ii) specifically asks for an order directing Jackson to pay a specific beneficiary. As I noted, the Petition should name Jackson as a party, so we will be bound by the Order. Assuming no hostile allegations are made against Jackson, I will not oppose the entry of the Order, but will simply await entry of the final Order, at which time payment can be made.

I will help you draft the Petition and Order.

Alternately, Jackson could simply interplead the funds and let the court decide who is entitled to the proceeds. I would like to avoid this if possible, as it would prove to be more expensive for both your clients and Jackson.

I pledge to work with you to resolve this matter as swiftly and economically as possible.

Please let me know if you need anything else.

All – attached is the petition we intend to file along with the waivers that each of you will need to sign. We have not heard from the attorney at Heritage but as discussed we intend to file the attached on Monday regardless. We did check with his office and he is out until tomorrow so we will reach out to him again to see if he has any comments as a courtesy prior to filing. Please sign your waivers and send us the originals in the overnight mail so I can receive them on Friday. Ted does not need to sign a waiver as he is signing the petition.

If we need to have a call on any of this I am available tomorrow afternoon or on Friday most of the day.

Scott – I understand you are out of the office until tomorrow. We sent this to you previously and in error addressed it to the wrong email address. We would like to file this on Monday so if you could take a few minutes to review it would be greatly appreciated. We have not attached a copy of the Order but it will obviously be in the form of the relief requested.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FL

IN RE: SIMON BERNSTEIN IRREVOCABLE INSURANCE TRUST dated JUNE 21, 1995 _____/

PROBATE DIVISION

FILE NO.:

DECLARATORY ACTION TO ESTABLISH A LOST TRUST AND APPOINT A SUCCESSOR TRUSTEE

COMES NOW TED BERNSTEIN, son of SIMON BERNSTEIN ("SIMON"), deceased, and alleges the following:

Parties, Jurisdiction and Venue

1. This is an action to establish the terms of a lost trust, including the determination of a successor trustee, pursuant to Florida Statutes 86.011, 86.041 and 736.0201(2) and (4).
2. Florida Statutes 86.736.0201 provides, in part, for the Court to intervene in the administration of a trust when invoked by an interested person relating to the validity, administration or distribution of a trust, appoint or remove a trustee and ascertain beneficiaries.
3. Petitioner, TED S. BERNSTEIN ("TED"), is of legal age and a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida, and the former Personal Representative and current trustee of the FAMILY TRUST F/B/O SIMON BERNSTEIN under the SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN REVOCABLE TRUST.
4. SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN is the predeceased spouse of SIMON, who upon information and belief was the Trustee of the SIMON BERNSTEIN IRREVOCABLE INSURANCE TRUST (the "ILIT") , an irrevocable trust established by SIMON on June 21, 1995 .
5. SIMON died on September 13, 2012 and his estate is now being probated in the Circuit Court for Palm Beach County, Florida. SIMON is survived by the following adult children:

TED S. BERNSTEIN, resident of Palm Beach County, Florida ;
PAMELA BERNSTEIN, resident of Chicago, Illinois;
ELIOT BERNSTEIN, resident of Palm Beach County, Florida;
JILL IANTONI, resident of Highland Park, Illinois; and LISA S. FRIEDSTEIN, resident of Highland Park, Illinois (hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "Children").
All of the Children are sui juris and have either executed and filed Consents to the relief sought or have been served with this Petition.

6. Venue of this proceeding is proper in this Court pursuant to Florida Statutes 737.0204 and Chapter 47 because the ILIT's principal place of administration and Trust situs was and remained in Palm Beach County, Florida.

General Allegations

7. Attached as Exhibit "A" is a copy of the Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, reflecting the name of the ILIT and signed by SHIRLEY as the Trustee and dated June 21, 1995.

8. Diligent search for the ILIT or a copy of it has been made, including inquiry with the insurance carrier, HERITAGE UNION LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY ("HERITAGE"), search of SIMON'S and SHIRLEY's papers and documents, lawyer files and accountant files, and no original or copy has been located.

9. Upon information and belief, the Petitioner, TED, was named as the successor Trustee to SHIRLEY of the ILIT. (See Affidavit of David Simon, Esq., son-in-law of SIMON and SHIRLEY, attached hereto as Exhibit "B").

10. Upon information and belief, the beneficiaries of the ILIT were the children of SIMON and SHIRLEY, in equal shares and per stirpes. (See Affidavit of Robert L. Spallina, Esq., personal attorney to SIMON and SHIRLEY during their lifetimes, attached hereto as Exhibit "C").

11. HERITAGE has advised counsel for the Petitioner that their records reflect the owner of the life insurance policy to be SIMON and the beneficiary to be the ILIT. (See copy of communication from carrier dated _____ attached hereto as Exhibit

"D ").

12. HERITAGE will not settle and pay the death benefit under policy #1009208 until receipt of a court order identifying the successor trustee of the ILIT.

13. In order to avoid delays occasioned by the need to open new banking arrangements for the ILIT to process and distribute the insurance proceeds, TED wishes to authorize HERITAGE to disburse the death benefit proceeds to Tescher & Spallina, P.A. Trust Account at Sabadell Bank.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests this Court to determine that

A. TED S. BERNSTEIN is the successor trustee to SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN of the SIMON BERNSTEIN IRREVOCABLE INSURANCE TRUST dated June 21, 1995;

B. The remainder beneficiaries of the SIMON BERNSTEIN IRREVOCABLE INSURANCE TRUST dated June 21, 1995 are the five (5) children of SIMON and SHIRLEY, in equal shares, per stirpes;

C. HERITAGE UNION LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY be directed to distribute the death benefit proceeds to the Tescher & Spallina, P.A. Trust Account at Sabadell Bank.

UNDER PENALTIES OF PERJURY, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Subject: Re: Heritage Policy

The law does not REQUIRE a trust to pay proceeds. The terms of lost wills and trusts are routinely proved up through parole evidence. The lawyer I spoke with at Heritage told me that this happens once every ten days and the estate is rarely if ever the beneficiary of the proceeds on a lost trust instrument. I have NEVER heard of proceeds being paid to the probate court.

Your father changed himself to the owner of the policy because he wanted to have the RIGHT to change beneficiaries despite the fact that it causes inclusion of the proceeds in his estate for estate tax purposes. Very near to his death he requested beneficiary change forms but never actually changed the beneficiaries. I will give you one guess who he thought of including and it was none of his grandchildren. I counseled him not to do this and the form was never executed.

As for your father's intent, that is the most important thing and the court will always look to carry that out. The fact that he changed his dispositive documents to include only his grandchildren lends credibility to the fact that he intended that the insurance proceeds would go to his five children. He knew that the trust provided for his children some of whom he knew needed the money. Additionally we had a conference call prior to his death with all of you where he discussed his plans regarding his estate and your mother's estate with all of you. This should be of no surprise to anyone.

Bottom line is that we do not need to have the trust for the carrier to pay the proceeds. The carrier is looking for a court order to pay them to a successor trustee who will distribute them among the beneficiaries.

I do not and have never had a copy of the policy.

Lets stop making this more difficult than it is. Your father told me that the trust provided that the proceeds were going to his children. Pam saw him execute the trust with the same attorney that prepared her own trust a copy of which I have and will offer up to fill in the boilerplate provisions. We have an SS-4 signed by your mother to obtain the EIN. There is not one shred of evidence that the trust was terminated which is the only circumstance that would require payment of the proceeds to the estate.

The fact that your father requested change forms prior to death and didn't execute them speaks to the existence of the trust and that he intended that you all receive an equal share of the proceeds.

I hope that this helps to guide you and unite you in your decision.

Have a nice weekend.

I started by again requesting a copy of the Heritage policy. I need to review the policy's provisions respecting how death benefit proceeds are dealt in situations where a beneficiary designation fails. This is a simple request. You and Pam indicated that you each have a copy of the policy. Robert said he has a copy of the policy. PLEASE send a copy to me. I assure you that nothing will transpire until I have reviewed the policy.
>
> I have been advised that in situations where a beneficiary designation fails, an insurer will in almost all situations pay the proceeds into the probate court and ask the court to determine to whom the proceeds are payable and ask for a release. The position I took in my prior email is clear; that a probate court will likely decide that the proceeds will go to the grand children through the estate and the pour over trust. This analysis troubles you because the Heritage proceeds would thus be considered an estate asset and subject to creditor claims. I understand your concerns. But unless the 1995 trust document is located, and unless the Heritage policy provides otherwise, this is how it most likely will play out.
>
> Your comments about Dad's desires and his estate planning experience are simply not relevant; however, I could understand that you may wish to make this argument to the probate court. All of the meetings, time and energy being spent trying to come up with a way to convince Heritage to pay the benefits pursuant to what Robert believes the 1995 trust said is wasted energy, unless Heritage agrees to pay the proceeds pursuant to some form of settlement and release agreement. If you want me to even consider such an arrangement, in addition to reviewing the Heritage policy, I will require a letter from Heritage specifically stating that Heritage may make the proceeds payment under such an arrangement. It should be easy to get such a letter if Heritage is willing to consider such an arrangement.
> Now that you know my position, I will respond to your comments respecting my analysis in my prior email. We all know that like you and Pam, Dad spent his career in the insurance business. I also spent years in the insurance business. In fact, Dad was one of the best and most innovated at it. Just look at his and your company's (LIC) web site for confirmation. As an expert, Dad understood all the benefits of designating a trust as the beneficiary under a life policy. You keep the proceeds out of the estate and probate process, and the proceeds are not subject to creditor claims. You and Pam and even I understand these concepts too. So does Mr. Spallina, as an expert estates lawyer. All of us (you, Pam, Robert and me) also know that having the actual trust document is essential to ensuring that the insurance proceeds are actually paid to the trust. The reason why insurers will not make payment pursuant to a missing trust document is that the insured had the right and ability to make changes to the trust document, including the beneficiaries thereunder until the day he died. You commented that Mr. Spallina said it is Heritage's policy not to make payments to an estate in situations where a trust is lost. Is that your experience with insurance companies? Perhaps Heritage's position is that it will pay the proceeds to the court (not the estate) and the judge determines how the proceeds are distributed. My friends in the business tell me that this is precisely what insurance companies do, albeit through the probate court. That is also why Mr. Spallina included that clause I mentioned in Dad's will, so any such proceeds flow through to Dad's pour over trust as a backup. Most wills include such a clause even though many people employ a trust. Trusts do get lost or are revoked. Beneficiary designations fail for a variety of reasons.

Your comments regarding the many times Dad dealt with the Heritage policy in recent years interests me. In 2012 Dad did redo his estate plan with Mr. Spallina. In the last couple of years Dad and you (and perhaps Robert) dealt with reinstating the Heritage policy and considered a life payment buyout. In all those occasions, Dad could have changed the beneficiaries, but you state he did not. I understand, but fail to see the relevance, based on the above analysis. But because you are in the business and counsel your clients to use trusts, why did you not request a copy of the 1995 trust from Dad during those events? Why didn't Mr. Spallina require that Dad give him a copy during the 2012 estate planning overhaul, and insist on having a copy? Mr. Spallina told us that he and Dad met often and discussed Dad's financial affairs. Mr. Spallina knew and knows that having the actual trust document was essential, and I am find it hard to believe he did not insist on including a copy with Dad's 2012 estate planning documents. If I were Dad's estates lawyer and Dad did not provide me a requested copy, I would have copies of letters requesting the trust document, at the very least to protect myself against any claims. And why did Dad not make sure that you all had copies?

I also find it curious that no one has come forth to state the steps that were taken to locate the 1995 trust. Who took the steps, where did they look, and who did they speak with. I was not permitted to go into Dad's house after he died, so who took the contents of Dad's safe? Who looked at the contents of Dad's safe deposit box?-

You start by stating that Dad did not have 10 Grandchildren in 1995, so it was not his then desire to name them as beneficiaries. But absent the actual trust document, it is possible he named his then living grandchildren. BUT, the 1995 trust document cannot be located, so we will never know.

My fraudulent conveyance analysis is based on the above comments. A creditor would argue that the named beneficiary was the 1995 trust. It was lost. In those cases, insurers pay death benefits to the probate court. The proceeds thus become part of the estate even if the judge decides that the proceeds go through the pour over trust. You are in the insurance business Ted. I am surprised you do not know this. Thus I remain concerned that if Heritage agrees to pay the proceeds in trust pursuant to some form of settlement and release (which is your plan to avoid creditors issues) that a creditors lawyer will seek to reach those proceeds on the fraudulent conveyance theory. Obviously, you and Robert are trying awfully hard to get Heritage to do this for the very reason of avoiding creditors' claims. More facts to help a creditor's lawyer reach the proceeds.

So I would suggest my economic analysis is correct when you consider the law and not just Dad's desires. Again, the law requires an actual trust document, not the concept of a trust. It is required because the trust document can be changed and is the best and only evidence of where the proceeds should go. Unfortunately, Dad intent or desires likely are not relevant. He knew this, which again is why I am shocked that Dad did not give copies to each of you.

Eliot,

I have pasted your analysis re the Heritage policy below. The email did not get to me, not sure why.

The problem with your analysis is that it is not factually correct and therefore, you are drawing conclusions that are incorrect.

Dad's desires concerning the policy are crystal clear. There has never been a question concerning his desire. He named his irrevocable trust as beneficiary of the policy and he never changed that. He was the owner. He could have changed it as often as he wanted. He never did, not ever.

In 1995, Dad did not have 10 grandchildren. Therefore, it was never his intent, concerning this policy, to leave it to all of his grandchildren.

He chose Robert Spallina and Don Tescher to be his estate and tax attorneys as well as his personal representatives. Robert Spallina has told us on several occasions what Dad's wishes were for this policy. Dad was well aware of this policy. He was intimately aware of who owned it and who he named as beneficiary. When he was considering a life settlement, all of this information was part of those discussions.

As Robert has stated, Heritage's policy when it comes to a lost irrevocable trust, is to not pay the proceeds to the estate. What you are saying here is not correct: "Last, because the 1995 trust document cannot be located, the proceeds should go to the beneficiaries under [Article IV 2j] and [Article III] of Dad's will, which picks up insurance proceeds under failed beneficiary designations. Under Dad's will and trust, these amounts, like the rest of his estate goes to his grandchildren in equal parts"

You are drawing conclusions for Heritage when you say, "nothing short of the actual 1995 trust document may be sufficient to Heritage." Why don't we let Heritage speak for Heritage, which I believe has already been done?

There is no fraudulent conveyance. These proceeds are not part of Dad's estate, they never were and Heritage has stated they do not intend to pay these proceeds to the estate of a person who clearly did not want them in his estate.

In late July of 2012, Dad executed his planning documents. He could have easily changed the beneficiary of the Heritage policy to be included in his estate. He was the owner, he could have done that with one change form. He did not. If he did not want to be bothered to do it himself, he could have asked Robert, his PR, to do it. People do this every day. Dad did not. Therefore, the proceeds remaining OUT of his estate, NOT payable to his grandchildren (who received everything else), is consistent with Dad's wishes. This policy is not in the domain of his will and trust agreement. To bring proceeds of a life insurance policy into the estate of a man who sold life insurance his entire career would go against everything Dad told every client he ever sold life insurance to during his career. It is unimaginable.

Therefore, the economic analysis is not correct. It simply is not necessary to address as it was never an option in this scenario.

This needs to be brought to resolution. Not only is it simple, it is black and white. Is your counsel involved in this matter for you? If so, has she spoken with Robert and communicated what you have said?

We are going to do what is necessary to have the proceeds paid where they were intended to be paid, as quickly as possible now. If you think I am factually incorrect about any of this, please either call me or email me and explain where I may be wrong. It goes without saying, this is not my expertise. I am processing the same information that everyone else is working with and this is how I see it.

Ted

This is my analysis on the Heritage payout thus far. First, I would like to review the insurance policy as well as the official statements respecting investment returns, use of returns to pay premiums and loans taken from the policy. I understand Ted and Pam have the policy, and do not understand why Mr. Spallina thinks it is curious that I also want to review these materials. Second, I understand the expressed concerns that if the proceeds are paid to the estate then the proceeds would be subject to the claims of creditors of the estate. It is my understanding that the "plan" is to have the proceeds payable to a trust to avoid creditor claims; however, I have also been counseled that if a trust is utilized an estate creditor can challenge the trust transaction as a fraudulent conveyance used to avoid the creditor's claim. We have been told that Dad designated his 1995 trust as his beneficiary with Heritage. We were also told that that trust cannot be located. I would also like to review an affidavit that indicates the precise steps that were taken and by whom and with whom to locate the 1995 trust, and I would imagine that Heritage will require the same. Heritage, we were told, is now saying that the proceeds may have to go to the State under the applicable escheat laws, so Mr. Spallina is telling us that if Heritage accepts a new trust with all potential beneficiaries agreeing to the mechanism, that Heritage may pay the proceeds to this new trust and not to the State. I have been told that the reason the law requires a trust document (and not simply statements from someone who claims they saw the trust) is that it demonstrates Dad's desires, and because Dad had the right to change his mind and thus the beneficiaries under the trust, nothing short of the actual 1995 trust document may be sufficient to Heritage. Last, because the 1995 trust document cannot be located, the proceeds should go to the beneficiaries under {Article IV 2j] and [Article III] of Dad's will, which picks up insurance proceeds under failed beneficiary designations. Under Dad's will and trust, these amounts, like the rest of his estate goes to his grandchildren in equal parts. Thus, to the extent it is decided to use a new trust to avoid the escheat laws, the only beneficiaries that may be acceptable to me is the grandchildren. As I stated above, I and my siblings should remain concerned that any estate creditor could challenge the transaction as a fraudulent conveyance. Also, having the 5 children as beneficiaries with each having the right to disclaim in favor of their children (i.e., Dad's grandchildren) is not acceptable for 2 reasons. First, such a scheme is not consistent with Dad's wishes under his will and trust agreement. Whatever Dad may have provided under the 1995 trust is both unknown and not relevant as stated above. The second reason is simple economics. My kids would get a 33% distribution under the proper method, but only 20% under the other scheme. Regards,

Ted Bernstein - President

I am following up on our telephone conference from last week. Ted has contacted me about circulating a draft of the settlement agreement that would be presented to the court. Again, prior to preparing an agreement, I want to make sure that you are ALL in agreement that the proceeds do not come to the estate. I can tell you that your father planned his estate intending and believing that the five children would split the proceeds equally. We would like to see his wishes carried out and not have the proceeds paid to the estate where they could be subject to creditor claims prior to being split in equal shares among the grandchildren. Please advise if you are in agreement to move forward to petition the court for an order that would split the proceeds equally among the five of you.

I received a letter from the company requesting a court order to make the distribution of the proceeds consistent with what we discussed. I have traded calls with their legal department to see if I can convince them otherwise. I am not optimistic given how long it has taken them to make a decision. Either way I would like to have a fifteen minute call to discuss this with all of you this week. There are really only two options: spend the money on getting a court order to have the proceeds distributed among the five of you (not guaranteed but most likely probable), or have the proceeds distributed to the estate and have the money added to the grandchildren's shares. As none of us can be sure exactly what the 1995 trust said (although an educated guess would point to children in light of the document prepared by Al Gortz in 2000), I think it is important that we discuss further prior to spending more money to pursue this option. Hopefully I will have spoken with their legal department by Thursday. I would propose a 10:30 call on Thursday EST. Please advise if this works for all of you.

Hi Robert,

If the money stays at the insurance company until the Bill S. claim is cleared up, can we then decide if ALL five are in agreement and if not, wouldn't that money be free from creditors at that point? Is there a time fram that the money has to leave the insurance company and be paid out?

Thanks.

If money goes to the estate it is subject to creditor claims and cannot be distributed until we close the estate after creditors are paid. Any legal fees incurred by a beneficiary are their own and not the estate's fees. Stansbury is trying to substitute the estate for your father. That hearing is next week. Hope this helps

Subject: Bernstein Estate 1/24/2013

Hi Robert,

thanks for todays call. Three questions.

One, if the 5 kids do NOT all agree that we should split the insurance proceeds amongst the 5 of us, what happens to the insurance proceeds? Can 4 out of 5 (or whatever the number is) over rule and move forward with the court hearing requesting that the insurance proceeds get paid out to the 5 children? If that is a NO, do the proceeds go directly to the estate? If the answer is the 10 grandchildren, will that be subject to creditors or would that money get paid out quickly (just as it would to the 5 of us) and avoid any potential law suit/creditors?

Two, if any of the 5 children have personal counsel representing them, are they allowed to have their bills sent to you/Estate for payment? If yes, is there a provision that the others can put in place that regulates the amount/or a provision that states it come out of their child(ren) portion of the estate?

Can you also clarify, that based on the conversation today, there is a chance that Bill S. case will be null and void and even if it is not, it is not towards Si Bernstein or his estate? Did I understand that correctly?

Thanks so much,

Jill

That time works for me/Jill.

Robert, if the proceeds go to the estate/grandchildren's share, is there a chance that creditors could get this money AND would this amount of 1.7 Million put the estate over 5.1 Million, where it would be taxed?

Thanks
Jill

There are really only two options: spend the money on getting a court order to have the proceeds distributed among the five of you (not guaranteed but most likely probable), or have the proceeds distributed to the estate and have the money added to the grandchildren's shares. As none of us can be sure exactly what the 1995 trust said (although an educated guess would point to children in light of the document prepared by Al Gortz in 2000), I think it is important that we discuss further prior to spending more money to pursue this option. Hopefully I will have spoken with their legal department by Thursday. I would propose a 10:30 call on Thursday EST. Please advise if this works for all of you.

Robert,

We are in the midst of arranging a phone call between myself, Pam, Eliot, Christine Yates, Jill and Lisa. We were hoping to have that call today but Christine cannot make it until Thursday. I think it is imperative for this call to occur prior to anything else being done, including your call with their legal department. This way, we can establish whether there is going to be an agreement among the 5 of us, or not.

I completely agree with your assessment below of the options available here.

Please feel free to call me to discuss.

Policy # 1009208

Dear Mr. Spallina:

This will acknowledge your letters the most recent of which is dated December 21, 2012.

In as much as the above policy provides a large death benefit in excess of $1.6 million dollars and the fact that the trust document cannot be located, we respectfully request a court order to enable us to process the claim.

Please let us know how we may assist you in this process.

Dear Bree:

As per our earlier telephone conversation:

- We are unable to locate the Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust dated June 1, 1995, which we have spent much time searching for.
- Mrs. Shirley Bernstein was the initial beneficiary of the 1995 trust, but predeceased Mr. Bernstein.
- The Bernstein children are the secondary beneficiaries of the 1995 trust.
- We are submitting the Letters of Administration for the Estate of Simon Bernstein showing that we are the named Personal Representatives of the Estate.
- We would like to have the proceeds from the Heritage policy released to our firm's trust account so that we can make distributions amongst the five Bernstein children.
- If necessary, we will prepare for Heritage an Agreement and Mutual Release amongst all the children.
- We are enclosing the SS4 signed by Mr. Bernstein in 1995 to obtain the EIN number for the 1995 trust.

If you have any questions with regard to the foregoing, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Spallina/km

SETTLEMENT OPTIONS

The policy may contain one or more settlement options, such as Interest Payments, Installments for a Specified Amount, Life Annuity, Life Annuity with Period Certain, and/or Joint Life and Survivorship Annuity. You may choose to receive a lump sum payment or another settlement option available in the policy under which a claim is made. For more information, refer to the optional methods of policy settlement provision in the policy or contact us at the mailing address noted on the front of the claim form.

If you wish to select a settlement option, please indicate your settlement selection by name (not by number) on the line below after you have carefully reviewed the options available in the policy. Availability of settlement options are subject to the terms of the policy.

_____

Name of Settlement Option from Policy

If you DO NOT indicate a settlement option on the line above, a lump sum payment will be made as follows:

- Total amount payable of less than $10,000 (from one or more policies) will be paid directly to the beneficiary(ies) by check.
- Total amount payable of $10,000 or more may be placed in a KeepSafe Account in the beneficiary's name, giving you complete control and immediate access to all of your funds. See below for more information and State availability.
- Claims payable to a corporation, partnership, multiple trustees or estate will be paid by check.

CLAIMANT STATEMENT

KEEPSAFE ACCOUNT

The KeepSafe Account ("Account") is an interest bearing draft account set up in your name that provides immediate access to your funds. The draft account is like a checking account. The Account is designed to let your insurance benefit earn interest immediately and give you time to make the financial decisions that are best for you. The Northern Trust Bank administers the Account on Reassure America Life Insurance Company's ("Reassure") behalf and the funds supporting the Account are held within Reassure's general account.

- Set-Up - An information kit, draftbook (like a checkbook) and Supplemental Contract will be mailed to you. Payment of the total proceeds will be accomplished by delivery of the draftbook. Once the Account is established, no other settlement options are available.
- Withdraws and Deposits - You may withdraw funds at any time by writing a draft (like writing a check) for any amount from $250 up to the entire amount, including interest, for any purpose you wish. Deposits cannot be made by you into the Account.
- Fees - There are no monthly services charges or draft fees and no penalties for withdrawal. You will be charged a fee of $10 per draft for insufficient funds, $15 for each stop payment order, and $50 for a wire transfer request.
- Minimum Balance - The Account will be closed automatically if the balance drops below $1,000. The balance in the account will be sent to you by a check at the end of the month in which it is closed.
- Statements - Each month you will receive a statement showing current account balance, withdrawals, interest credited, and any other account activity.
- Interest Rates – Your Account starts earning interest the day it is established. Interest is compounded daily and credited to the Account at the end of the month and is available for withdrawal on the day after it has been credited. Accounts will earn a minimum guaranteed interest rate of 0.5%. However, no interest will be credited to an Account with a balance below $2,500 or if an Account becomes dormant and is subject to unclaimed property laws. Your interest rate is determined monthly by Reassure using the 1-month national average CD rate as published by the Wall Street Journal in the BankRate.com section the last Wednesday of each month. The current crediting rate is 0.5%.
- Taxation - Interest earned on the Account may be taxable. It is recommended you consult a tax advisor.
- Account safety – Your money in the Account is backed by the assets of Reassure. This Account is not guaranteed by the FDIC. However, your funds are guaranteed by State Guaranty Associations, subject to certain limitations. To learn more, contact the National Organization of Life & Health Insurance Guaranty Associations at 703-481-5206 or www.nolhga.com.
- Inactive dormant accounts – Lack of customer-generated activity on the Account for more than a specified period of time may force the Account to be considered abandoned and subject to be reported as unclaimed property to your state. Customer-generated activity is automatically accomplished when you write a draft or update information on the Account such as your address or beneficiary.
- Questions - For further information about the Account, please call 1-800-678-6227 Monday through Friday, 7:30 A.M. – 4:30 P.M. CST.

The KeepSafe Account is not available if you are a resident of or the policy was issued in Alaska, Arkansas, Connecticut, Florida, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, New Hampshire, New Jersey, North Carolina, and Rhode Island.

Important Information About the USA PATRIOT Act

To help fight the funding of terrorism and money-laundering activities, the U.S. government has passed the USA PATRIOT Act, which requires banks, including our processing agent bank, to obtain, verify and record information that identifies persons who engage in certain transactions with or through a bank. This means that we will need to verify the name, residential or street address (no P.O. Boxes), date of birth and social security number or other tax identification number of all account owners.

YOUR SIGNATURE IS REQUIRED ON THE NEXT PAGE.

SUBSTITUTE FOR IRS FORM W-9

This information is being collected on this form versus IRS form W-9 and will be used for supplying information to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). Under penalty of perjury, I certify that 1) the tax ID number above is correct (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), 2) I am not subject to backup withholding because (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the IRS that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and 3) I am a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien). Please cross through item 2 if you have been notified by the IRS that you are subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return.

SIGNATURES

I/We do hereby make claim to said insurance, declare that the answers recorded above are complete and true, and agree that the furnishing of this and any supplemental forms do not constitute an admission by the Company that there was any insurance in force on the life in question, nor a waiver of its rights or defenses.

For Residents of New York: Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information, or conceals for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto, commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime, and shall also be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars and the stated value of the claim for each such violation.

For Residents of All Other States: See the Fraud Information section of this claim form.

Generation Skipping Transfer Tax Information - THIS MUST BE COMPLETED FOR PAYMENT

I/We the undersigned, on oath, deposes and states as follows with respect to the possible application of the Generation Skipping Transfer (GST) tax to the death benefit payment (Mark the appropriate item):

____1. The GST tax does not apply because the death benefit is not included in the decedent's estate for federal estate tax purposes.

____2. The GST tax does not apply because the GST tax exemption will offset the GST tax.

____3. The GST tax does not apply because at least one of the trust beneficiaries is not a "skipped" person.

____4. The GST tax does not apply because of the reasons set forth in the attached document (Please attach document setting forth the reasons why you believe the GST tax does not apply.)

____5. The GST tax may apply. As a result, the death benefit payment IS subject to withholding of the applicable GST tax. Enclosed is the completed Schedule R-1 (Form 706) for submission to the Internal Revenue Service.

Dear Trustee:

We are writing in response to your notification of the death of Simon Bernstein. Our sincere condolences go to the family for their loss.

In order to proceed with our review of the claim, we require the following items to be submitted:

- The enclosed Claimants Statement completed and signed by the named beneficiary. If the beneficiary has had a change in name, we require a copy of the applicable marriage license, divorce decree or similar legal documents.
- A certified death certificate. This should indicate cause of death, manner of death, date of birth and Social Security Number.
- Return the original policy – If the original policy cannot be located, please note on the Claimant Statement (Page 3, Item 4).
- Trust Documentation – Please provide a copy of the trust agreement and any amendment(s), including the signature page(s). We will also require the Trustee Certification section of the claim form to be completed by all trustees. Please use the trust's name when completing the Claimant Information section.
- Letter of representation or written authorization signed by the beneficiary authorizing information to be released on the above referenced policy.

Please review Page 1 of the Claimant Statement which also explains other documents that may be required. Providing the Claimant Statement is not an admission of liability on the part of the Company.

We will promptly review and evaluate the claim upon receipt of the required documents. A valid claim will include interest due and payable from the date of death at a rate of 10% if we do not pay the claim within 31 days from the latest of 1) the date that we receive proof of death, 2) the date we receive sufficient information to determine our liability and the appropriate beneficiary(ies) entitled to the proceeds; or 3) the date that any legal impediments are resolved.

If you have any questions, please call our office at 800-825-0003, Monday through Friday from 7:30 AM to 4:30 PM Central Standard Time.

- O An original certified death certificate showing the cause of death. Photocopies are not acceptable.
- O The original policy or, if unavailable, an explanation provided in Decedent Information section, space 5 of this form.
- O This claim form completed and signed by the claimant(s).

If the policy has been in force for less than two years during the lifetime of the Insured or if the policy has been reinstated within two years of the Insured's death, then we may perform a routine inquiry into the answers on the application for the policy or reinstatement application of the lapsed policy.

If the death occurred outside of the United States, we will require a Report of the Death of an American Citizen Abroad.

Special Instructions and additional requirements may apply.

- If the beneficiary is the Estate of the Insured, we will also require evidence of the court approved legal representative over the Estate. Please provide the Tax ID number of the Estate of the Insured.
- If the beneficiary is a trust, we will also require a copy of the trust agreement and any amendments, including the signature page(s). Please note the Trustee Certification section of the claim form will also need to be completed by all trustees. Please use the trust's name when completing the Claimant Information section of the claim form and provide the Tax ID number of the trust.
- If the beneficiary is a minor, we will require evidence of court appointed guardianship of the Minor's Estate.
- If the policy is collaterally assigned, we will require a letter from the collateral assignee stating the balance due under the collateral assignment. If the collateral assignee is a corporation, please include a copy of the corporate resolution verifying who is authorized to sign on behalf of the corporation.
- If the primary beneficiary(ies) is (are) deceased, we will require a death certificate for each deceased beneficiary.
- If the policy has a split dollar agreement associated with it, we will require a copy of said agreement.
- If the policy is subject to a Viatical or a Life Settlement transaction, and if the beneficiary is a viatical settlement provider, life settlement provider, the receiver or conservator of viatical or life settlement company, a viatical or life financing entity, trustee, agent, securities intermediary or other representative of a viatical or life settlement provider or an individual or entity which invested in this policy as a viatical or life settlement, please complete questions 19 and 30.

Other requirements may be needed depending on the individual facts of the claim. The company will advise you if other documentation is required.

Eliot - I left you a message yesterday. Ted is supposed to arrange a time for us to meet. Please reach out to him. My understanding is that your sisters have all gone back to Chicago. With regard to the below interests your father never mentioned them once as an asset of his estate. I will circle back with Jerry Lewin on this.

> Robert ~ just wanted to check if my father had listed as an asset in his estate his shares in the Iviewit companies and his patent interests. My father was the original seed investor before Huizenga and started the Iviewit companies with me formed around my inventions and Intellectual Properties. It is well documented in bank and other documents his interests, which companies were all initially 30% owned by Si and 70% by me. After multiple other investors of course we were diluted down and I am working that out pending state, federal and international investigations as some of the original shareholders may be excluded for their crimes and thus the number may fluctuate from its last pricing during a Wachovia Private Placement. I spoke to my father and it was his wishes that the stock be part of his estate for his kids and grandchildren in whatever way he chose to distribute his other assets. I would like to make sure that his wishes are fulfilled and so please advise as to how to incorporate the asset if it was not initially listed. Currently the assets are worth nothing, the patents are suspended pending federal investigations due to the extenuating circumstances surrounding the patents but at some near future time they may have considerable asset value. The patents are also at the center of an ongoing RICO action in the Federal Courts and considerable monies may be recovered via those efforts as well, of which of course, Si's interests must be also be considered in his estate.

Eliot – my understanding is that you will be here at 3. Please confirm as I would like to sit and speak with you as you are in town. Additionally, I intend on sending out call in information for a 3:30 call with your sisters.

With regard to your document request, we are not sending out any documents at this time. Don and I are the named fiduciaries under your father's documents and will provide the relevant documents when we have all the facts and information. Having said that, and consistent with our telephone conference with your siblings earlier this year and my discussion with you last week, your father directed that the assets of his estate and the remainder of your mother's estate pass to the grandchildren in equal shares, so there should be no surprises to anyone.

Please advise your availability at 3:00.

Thank you

Robert, spoke with Ted he said either 3pm at your office or we could call in. Are there call in numbers if I cannot make in person to your offices? Also, can you send over any documents to me and my listed trustees that we can review prior? I would like if possible any trust docs for both my father and mother that are relevant and any other documents you feel that we should possess, as you know I have never seen any of the documents to this point. Let me know what Jerry Lewin says in regards to the Iviewit stocks and patent interests. Thanks, Eliot

Eliot,

I don't know much about this, have been pretty much leaving this to the others.

Also, would you like to have lunch with me and Robert Spallina one day? On the things I am working on, I can catch you up and he may be able to do same with the things in his domain. Let me know if you would and I will call him to see when he would be available.

Other than that, hope all is well and maybe we'll schedule meeting at the house around that meeting. If not, we can meet over there one day next week or the week after.

Take care...

Hello all,

Do we have information regarding the autopsy and police investigation into the possibilities that dad was murdered or exact cause of death? Please send me all information regarding the ongoing PD and Coroner cases, including case numbers, points of contact, pd reports and statements, including those taken from the day after he died, any conclusive reports or letters and any other information we have regarding these matters. Do we have complete hospital records and doctors' records and is anyone working on those as part of these investigations? I know some stuff has been learned since we spoke to Boca PD the day after, has anyone transmitted that information to the PD or coroner? Thanks and hope everyone had a great holiday! eb

Eliot,

I believe that you and I are saying the same thing. The trusts will be paying the boys' expenses and any household bills. If I receive bills that do not fall into those categories, I will contact you to discuss the matter. At this point, this process is new to all of us and I'm certain there will be bugs to be worked out. As long as we are all patient, I'm certain things will work out to everyone's satisfaction.

As to your second email, I did not receive a "Spallina doc pdf". Would you please re-send it?

Janet, Robert Spallina has told us that all expenses for the kids monthly should be submitted and would be paid by the Oppenheimer trust, including all the bills that were forwarded to him by Rachel and I believe were being sent directly to Oppenheimer. These requests came from Robert for all such bills and he claimed that he would transferring funds as Executor to the Oppenheimer accounts to cover these expenses until the estate was settled for them. Are you stating that this is somehow changing and if so were these directions and changes at the bequest of Robert or yourself acting for Oppenheimer? Eliot

Christine - Your client needs to get control over his paranoia. Everything he does costs the estate more money and accomplishes nothing. My partner and I had a candid conversation with you about your client and his idiosyncrasies at the time you were engaged. He has turned this entire matter into a circus. Providing counsel to him means walking him off the ledge at certain times. This is one of those times. Please counsel him to go along with the planning that his father intended. Both Si and Shirley Bernstein are rolling around in their graves at this point.

Robert,

Please move forward as we discussed in the last group phone call in which we decided to have Heritage pay your trust account or a trust that you would act as Trustee. Heritage has stated that they will pay based on a court order showing that there is consensus among the 1995 Trust beneficiaries. Let's get this done.

Subject: Eliot Representation

I will be seeking independent counsel for myself personally, as Candice and I have chosen to have Christine represent our children on the Heritage matter and perhaps other matters to avoid any conflicts. In the interim, please copy me and Christine on all correspondences involving the estates of Simon and Shirley until further notice of who my personal attorney will be. Eliot

Eliot – We want to propose something and hope you and Candice are amenable. Don and I would like to meet with the two of you and give you the lay of the land as we see it. Don has done this for forty years and there truly is no one out there that knows this stuff better than him. Please understand that we are fair as it gets and want the best for EVERYONE. There are some issues as it relates to the house that you're living in, the insurance and mom's and dad's estates that we think we should discuss so that you can get comfortable with things and understand the interrelations. I can tell you that hiring lawyers and spending your children's money or your own will not benefit you or your children and will only cause frustration and grief for everyone. Again, Don and I are about as nice a guys as you will find in this area of practice and I think you owe it to your parents to come in and find out for yourselves who we are, what we're all about, and what needs to be done to get things distributed and let everyone go about their way. You can always go out and hire a lawyer but our doors are open and we hope that you take the opportunity to pass through them and meet us. Clean slate Eliot. I promise you we are here for you and your family as much as any of your siblings. Please advise.

Respectfully,

Robert

Eliot just filed a complaint against Ted (and us for that matter) in the probate court so Ted may not be very accommodating.

Robert, I left a message, but until we get a chance to speak, wanted to see if you could provide the following documents:

1) A copy of HUD from the closing;

2) A distribution schedule showing the funding of the trusts and how much each trust will receive.

Christine - The condo sold and Ted will be making partial distributions to the trusts. We assigned EINs yesterday and today to the children's trusts see below. Eliot should open an account wherever he chooses. Those trusts are created under Si's Trust through the exercise of his POA over Shirley's Trust which you have copies of. Other than that, we have extricated ourselves from the insurance matter and Ted is handling that with his brother-in-law. With regard to the estate, the Stansbury litigation is ongoing with no resolution yet in sight.

Calling you later. The "thing" Eliot drafted is very disturbing, its meaning should not be under-estimated. Nothing is accurate. It is a complete distortion of events and the very sad and tragic reality is that he believes every word he wrote. I am concerned and extremely frustrated with all of this.

Eliot > I am not sure that I am following you. I do not understand how you arrive at the conclusions you have reached about criminal wrongdoing. Who is acting criminally and to what end? I honestly can not follow the path you are pursuing and what you are trying to achieve here. Maybe we should all get together to discuss the issues and you can shed light on who is acting improperly, what they should be doing to act properly, what you feel you have not received that you are entitled to receive, and why. I often find that much more gets accomplished when all the interested parties come together in one place. It is my understanding that you are representing yourself in these matters so you should be able to easily articulate your position. I know with certainty that all the interested parties here would like to put an end to the apparent confusion so that unnecessary time, effort and money can stop being wasted, money that will ultimately lessen the amount each beneficiary will receive. Please let me know if you would like me to arrange a meeting for all of us to meet.

I do not think that Mom and Dad wanted this to be the manner in which their assets were distributed. I think they left very clear instruction through carefully planned documentation, created by very competent professionals. I have not seen anything to suggest the contrary but you should feel free to bring the information you have to a meeting where these things can be made aware to the appropriate people who have been charged with these responsibilities.

In the interim, please send me the bank account information that I will need in the event that distributions are made. Once you have given me that information, I will send you the release and refund agreement that I will require before I can make a distribution.

Ted, please see the email below copied to you earlier and I advise again you take the same advice I gave Spallina and Tescher and cease and desist in any actions with the estates. Already, with the new admissions that the estate of Shirley was closed using ADMITTEDLY FORGED AND FRAUDULENT DOCUMENTS, for example, the real estate sale and other transactions you are doing may result in criminal charges against you as they were done only after these Forged and Fraudulent documents caused the closing of the estate. I am surprised that in whatever capacity(ies) you are writing to me for whichever estate you are representing below that you have not retained legal counsel to represent you in each fiduciary capacity you are acting in. As you know, these are most serious issues and crimes and to transact sales and distributions on knowingly forged and fraudulent documents that I have notified you of for months of may be construed as fraud. I am unaware of and have received no documents regarding trusts and have authorized no distributions or sales and have several times advised you not to act until these matters of Forged and Fraudulent documents in the estates of mom and dad could be resolved by state and federal criminal actions filed and state and federal civil actions. I would also advise you or any other party putting back ALL assets of the estates of mom and dad until a court can properly dispose of them to the proper parties. Your continued rush to sell off assets behind my back, in meetings held with others and without me with intent is most egregious and perhaps criminal! Again I suggest getting counsel in these matters before further acting in any capacity in either estate; I am surprised your good pal Spallina is not also represented by counsel at this point, especially after admitting his firm sent knowingly forged and fraudulent documents to a state probate court and other documents used to change beneficiaries and appoint Spallina as Personal Representatives also appear to be legally void due to further fraud and more.

Janet, I have attached below correspondence sent to Tescher & Spallina P.A. regarding their Admitted and Acknowledged Forgery and Fraud in the estates of my parents. After reviewing the attached herein letter to Spallina et al and the "NOTICE OF MOTION FOR: INTERIM DISTRIBUTION FOR BENEFICIARIES NECESSARY LIVING EXPENSES, FAMILY ALLOWANCE, LEGAL COUNSEL EXPENSES TO BE PAID BY PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES AND REIMBURSEMENT TO BENEFICIARIES SCHOOL TRUST FUNDS" I filed with the Probate Court regarding these Criminal Acts that I will forward shortly to you, I would suggest you rethink your prior correspondence to me regarding your cessation of funding the necessary life sustaining expenses for the minor children with virtually no notice of your dire actions, after you and Spallina had recent conversations to make these sudden and catastrophic changes if I did not release you from your fiduciary duties and hand over the remaining trust values to my brother Ted who is also alleged in the Motions to the Court to be acting in criminal conspiracy with Spallina to steal estate assets and now it appears steal my children's trust fund. In what capacity and on whose behalf was Spallina acting in directing your actions? This sign and transfer the fund OR ELSE no funding starting instantly for the children's living expenses appears an attempt to extort me to make these changes under duress and with knowledge of Criminal Acts committed by Spallina against the Beneficiaries. Due to these new revelations of Criminal Acts by Tescher & Spallina in submitting Fraudulent Documents in the estates, I will not be signing any documents or releasing any fiduciaries until the completion of state and federal investigations and determinations are made in state and federal civil actions already filed, as defined herein and in the documents that will be forwarded shortly.

I will be sending over the bills and expense reimbursements due as we have been for almost a year and anticipate that until you get a Court order approving your and Spallina's new plan to cease funding necessary living expenses that these expenses will continue to be paid without severing life sustaining funding that you are fully aware of its essential nature and know the catastrophic events that this will cause the minor children in your care. I will be sending you a more formal letter hopefully early next week detailing more of what is going on and how we should best protect the children during this new crises caused by Tescher & Spallina.

Thank you,

Eliot

Subject: RE: Bernstein Grandchildren's trusts

Tescher & Spallina, P.A., Robert Spallina, Donald Tescher and Ms. Kimberly Moran,

Ms. Moran, Robert Spallina & Donald Tescher,

Ms. Moran, in reply to your employers letter below and your letter dated August 23, 2013 re "Estate of Simon Bernstein – Disposition of Jewelry", I am advising you personally and your employer Tescher & Spallina PA and its partners to refrain from any further actions in the estates of Simon and Shirley Bernstein until the probate court and state criminal authorities can make determinations regarding the ultimate beneficiaries of the estates, due to your admitted and acknowledged criminal fraud and forgery on documents submitted by Tescher & Spallina, Spallina, Tescher and yourself to the courts in the estates. Your admission and acknowledgement to the Florida Governor's Notary Public investigation of the complaints I filed against you and your employer, of your having committed Notary Fraud and Forgery in documents submitted to the courts in the estates, acting on behalf of your employer Spallina & Tescher, Robert Spallina and Donald Tescher, null and voids many, if not all, of the documents in the estates. Many other documents than the six you have admittedly forged and fraudulently notarized, also appear to have been improperly and allegedly signed and notarized improperly, including those giving powers to your employers as Personal Representatives via now legally invalid Wills and Trusts and thus negate their fiduciary duties and legal right to sell and distribute assets in the estates. Many documents requested are still being suppressed by your offices from several of the beneficiaries and interested parties and all of these documents will need to be examined for further evidence of Forgery and Fraud before any action with any assets can now legally be taken.

Each and every action you and your employers are taking with these fraudulently obtained fiduciary powers and admittedly forged and fraudulent documents will be further reported to state and/or federal authorities as further alleged criminal acts enabled by your admitted fraud and forgery with the documents and fraud upon the Probate Court and Beneficiaries. I am personally surprised and offended that you are contacting me at all on behalf of your employers while you are both aware that you are being investigated by state agencies in ongoing investigations of you and your employer and where you have already admitted and acknowledged Fraud and Forgery in my parents' estates. Since the ultimate beneficiaries cannot be determined until these matters and matters with the courts are fully resolved, any sales or distributions appear to be further criminal acts and I advise both you and your employers to instead immediately turn over all documents, records and assets in my parents estates to the Probate Court and then turn yourselves in to criminal authorities and further beg for mercy as you have already done with the Florida Governor's office for leniency for your admitted and acknowledged crimes against my family. A word of caution Ms. Moran, next time you attempt to confess to crimes you should be more truthful in your statements under penalty of perjury, for I will now be filing charges of alleged perjury for your misleading statements to the Governor's Office Notary Public investigators. Remember a confession should be without blemish and your statements are fraught with further lies and alleged criminal perjury leaving you instead with "unclean hands."

Below is a list of submissions to the Probate Court I have made in my mother's estate, similar documents were filed in my father's estate with the court that further reveal the crimes being alleged against you and your employer and I advise you and your employers to respond to the Petitions prior to our 1 hour hearing that has been approved by the judge and to be soon scheduled to hear the matters. IMMEDIATELY CEASE AND DESIST ANY FURTHER ACTIONS IN THE ESTATES OF SIMON AND SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN.

Why An Investment Firm Was Awarded $2.5 Million After Being Defamed By Blogger

No miscarriage of justice here.

It was the $2.5 million dollar lawsuit heard round the blogosphere. The Seattle Weekly reported that an "Oregon blogger" had been found guilty of defamation and ordered to pay an investment firm $2.5 million. The writer suggested that part of the problem for self-proclaimed "investigative journalist" Crystal Cox was that the judge in the case determined that she wasn't a "journalist" according to Oregon law, because she was not "affiliated with any newspaper, magazine, periodical, book, pamphlet, news service, wire service, news or feature syndicate, broadcast station or network, or cable television system." This has led to a slew of angry stories, pointing out that bloggers are journalists. But these stories have not dug deeply enough. The facts in the case are far more complicated, and after hearing them, most journalists will not want to include Cox in their camp.

This story is not like that of Johnny Northside Hoff, the Minneapolis blogger who was (unfairly) ordered to pay $60,000 to a university employee after a truthful post about mortgage fraud led to his firing. If you Google Crystal Cox's work about Obsidian Financial Group, you will find a host of websites full of erratic writing about the firm's allegedly unethical practices, with domain names like "obsidianfinancialsucks.com." She mainly directed her ire at firm principal Kevin Padrick. His search results are ruined — dominated by posts on websites Cox created, such as "bankruptcytrustfraud.com," "realestatelies.com," and "realestatehoax.com." Obsidian's tech team found dozens of sites that appeared to have been created by Cox to write about Obsidian, says Padrick, and over 1,900 others that she had created to write about other people and companies. This is not the work of a journalist, but the work of someone intent on destroying reputations.

Padrick told me this has been going on for three years. There is a rather complicated back story — involving his being appointed a Chapter 11 trustee for a business that went belly-up Ponzi-style in 2007, and some of those involved not being happy about misappropriated funds being reclaimed. After hundreds of posts — those that I've read strike me, frankly, as unhinged – Cox contacted Obsidian and offered them "reputation services." Padrick sent along a copy of an email that Cox sent to his attorney:

After a failed attempt to get the Oregon Attorney General to investigate Cox, Obsidian filed a defamation case in January 2011, and Padrick first met Cox on the first day of the trial.

The judge found that most of what Cox had written about Obsidian was purely opinion, protected by the First Amendment — and so hyberbolic that no reasonable person would believe it — but did let the case go to trial based on one blog post with very specific allegations about Padrick and Obsidian committing fraud. Cox claimed to have a source for that information, but a trial by jury found that her claims were false, and found her guilty of defamation. Obsidian's lawyers had asked for a million dollars. The jury awarded Obsidian and Patrick $2.5 million.

"She has decimated my business. It's half of what it was," says Padrick. "She's ruined my reputation, my life."

A reminder here: she wasn't able to prove at trial that what she had written was true. Do we really want to claim this person as one of our own, folks?

Most of those who have written about the case have focused on a pre-trial opinion from the judge in which he points out that "blogs" are not defined in Oregon's laws as "media." (They should probably fix that.) But the more important definition of media was closer to the end of the opinion [PDF]:

> Defendant fails to bring forth any evidence suggestive of her status as a journalist. For example, there is no evidence of (1) any education in journalism; (2) any credentials or proof of any affiliation with any recognized news entity; (3) proof of adherence to journalistic standards such as editing, fact-checking, or disclosures of conflicts of interest; (4) keeping notes of conversations and interviews conducted; (5) mutual understanding or agreement of confidentiality between the defendant and his/her sources; (6) creation of an independent product rather than assembling writings and postings of others; or (7) contacting "the other side" to get both sides of a story. Without evidence of this nature, defendant is not "media."

"The medium shouldn't define who is media," says Padrick.

Yes, there are bloggers who are journalists. But just because you have a blog doesn't mean that what you do is journalism.

Martindale Hubbell AV Rated attorney Kevin Padrick is one of the good guys, right? Not in the eyes of Crystal Cox, so-called investigative blogger.

At some point Crystal Cox decided Kevin D. Patrick was one of the bad guys. And with that, she launched an internet campaign against him, accusing him of corruption, fraud, tax fraud, stealing money, money laundering, and more. She bought domain names featuring the names of Kevin and Obsidian, posting rants and cross-linking between multiple sites to move her rants up in search engine rankings. Crystal Cox essentially decimated Padrick in front of anyone who might Google his name. This had its intended effect: Padrick's business suffered. Kevin Padrick and Obsidian Finance sued Crystal Cox for defamation, alleging damage to his reputation and earnings.

It gets even better. Crystal Cox then attempted to extort Kevin D. Padrick and Obsidian Finance by offering to provide services to "protect online reputations" for a fee of $2,500 per month. Translation: "Pay me to take down the defamatory material."

The clear problem here is that I can't find any proof behind Cox's allegations against Padrick. But that doesn't help Kevin D. Padrick when it comes to Google. The postings by Cox appear prominently, and her repeated allegations on multiple URLs might make it appear to an outsider that there is really a story here. What user of the internet is going to take the time to slog through Crystal's many websites and incoherent rants to come to the conclusion that the sites were all created by the same person, who never proved any bad acts by Padrick? Probably no one.

Kevin Padrick and Obsidian Finance won their case against Crystal Cox, being awarded $2.5 million in damages. Crystal Cox was found guilty of defamation by a jury for one particular posted about Kevin Padrick. (The rest of her writings were deemed by the judge to be nutting rantings that no sane person would ever accept as statements of fact.) In the course of the case, Cox was deemed to be not a journalist. Essentially, the "shield law" in Oregon didn't apply to Crystal Cox because she didn't work for a traditional news outlet, and was "just" a blogger. The thing is, whether a journalist or not, the defamation claim was clear cut to the jury. Chrystal Cox doesn't need a new trial, and that's exactly what the judge ruled, because regardless of the applicability of the shield law, the jury found that Cox said untruthful things about Padrick and Obsidian.

Crystal Cox is hell-bent on destroying people who don't give in to her wishes. She has now gone after Marc Randazza, an attorney she begged to help her with an appeal in the Obsidian case, even going after Marc's wife and three year old daughter. When things didn't work out with Marc, Cyrstal went ahead and registered the domain name marcrandazza.com (along with several others) and told Marc she was just doing so to "control the search, and pr" on her case. He smelled a shakedown immediately.

This tells you what kind of woman we are dealing with: Crystal Cox attacked Marc's innocent wife and three year old daughter.

It is important to stand up to people like Crystal Cox. Companies are frequently playing the part of the big bullies on the playground – - threatening and suing anyone who might criticize them – - and we need to stand up to them and protect our right to speak our opinions freely about them.

But we also need to stand up against those who pretend to be like us – - those of us who want to advance free speech and legitimately criticize the bad acts of bad actors – - but who are really NOT like us. People like Crystal Cox cannot and should not be allowed to lie about people like Kevin Padrick. Cox must be held accountable to keep the rest of us – - who are not defaming – - protected under the First Amendment.

Proskauer Rose Law Firm Accused of Murder by Investigative Blogger Crystal L. Cox over the iViewit Technologies Scandal.

I Believe Proskauer Rose Law Firm Big Wigs Murdered Steven Krane and Stephen Kaye and Tried to Murder iViewit Technolgy Founder and One of the Iviewit Inventors Eliot Bernstein and his Entire Family.

Ever Wonder Why a Man's Car is Bombed in a Public Place in the State of Florida and the Local Police, District Court, Sheriff, County Attorney and Supreme Courts does nothing to EVEN look into it? Are You Kidding Me..? and the FBI File mysteriously disappears.. Come on

Well that is Because Proskauer Rose LLP will do as they Damn Well Please and you will Sit Down, Shut Up and Take it or.. YOU will DIE. .. at the Very Least you will Lose your Quality of Life and all you knew to be your Life before you became Proskauer Rose's Target..

See when Proskauer Rose's Corrupt Patent Attorney Christopher Wheeler first jumped on the Let's Steal an Awesome Invention idea well Kenneth Rubenstein (MPEG LA attorney - with Proskauer Rose) was not working with Proskauer Rose, though Kenneth Rubenstein is kind of the Last Man Standing Now... as Christopher Wheeler Esq. was removed from Proskauer Rose LLP awhile back to keep him silent on the Iviewit Stolen Technology .. oh and the WHOLE Christopher Wheeler got drunk, almost killed a guy .. paid for his Silence thing. and Christopher Wheeler using Corrupt Proskauer Rose LLP connections to Steal HIS Grandchildren and Hospitalize their Mother ILLEGALLY.. . anyway..

Kenneth Rubenstein, joined the Lets Steal iViewit Technologies Invention for Lockheed Martin and MPEG LA Party.. well alittle Late.. and Odd Kenneth Rubenstein, Corrupt Patent Attorney - and Well seriously "in bed with MPEG LA" - well Kenneth Rubenstein is Alive and Well, and still at Proskauer Rose LLP - despite the Perjured Deposition over the iViewit Technology theft, which you would think a powerful law firm like Proskauer Rose would Frown on..

On the Record, and Recorded in Voice - Perjured Deposition Kenneth Rubenstein - MPEG LA http://www.kennethrubenstein.com/2010/10/perjured-deposition-by-corrupt.html Scroll Down past the MPEG LA, Proskauer Rose, Lockheed Martin SEC Complaint..

a Proven Criminal and Still Proskauer Rose keeps him around and MPEG LA just loves him.. there is a BIG reason for this..

Kenneth Rubenstein - Proskauer Rose LLP, a Self Proclaimed "Wealth Protection Attorney" is a Proven Criminal and this Corrupt Proskauer Rose LLP attorney is protected in every way, as well, he has the power to bring in Billions on Top of Billions with the MPEG LA company using the iViewit Technology by Illegal Patent Pools.. Also with the SILENCE of Kenneth Rubenstein.. MPEG LA - Lockheed Martin stays out of Indictments and Massive Scandals in RICO and Recovery, in SEC Fraud, and a Federal RICO Lawsuit - as does Time Warner Inc., AOL, Intel Corp. , Warner Bros. , Sony and many more involved in the Massive Shareholder Fraud over the Stolen IViewit Technlogy. (http://www.deniedpatent.com/)

so Kenneth Rubenstein has them all by the Balls.. and well he is certainly protecting their wealth for now.. thing is Kenneth Rubenstein forgot to Factor in .. well the TRUTH and those who Seek it.. such as me.. He Failed miserably to recognize that there would be some Mad Dog Blogger someday who would get all Truth Telling, Conspiracy Exposing, Illegal Activity Proclaiming on his Ass.

AND prove IT .. without a Doubt in the Mind of any Honest Court, Ethical Attorney.. , Law Abiding Judge or well, anyone with a Brain !!!

See Kenneth Rubenstein, last Man Standing at Proskauer Rose in the Iviewit Scandal.. well certainly he knows of the Murders of his Collegues by the Big Wigs at Proskauer Rose ? Why is Kenneth Rubenstein still with Proskauer Rose? hmmm..

Steven Krane, Proskauer Rose BIG Wig Attorney connected to Ex-Supreme Court Judge Judith Kaye, who was appointed by Mario Cuomo.. (and well is the Wife of "Deceased" Stephen Kaye.. well Steven Krane died at 53 .. come on . I believe that Proskauer ROSE murdered both Steven Krane and Stephen Kaye..

Believe what makes you Sleep best at Night.

But as for me. I believe it was Murder flat out, to hide what they knew about the 13 Trillion Dollar Technology that Kenneth Rubenstein, Christopher Wheeler - Proskauer ROSE Thugs STOLE for MPEG LA.. and Lockheed Martin..

... and to hide the Facts they Knew about the Attempted Murder of the Eliot Bernstein Family.. So I Believe, Proskauer Rose LLP Killed their Own Top Attorneys.. to Protect "the Firm" ..

Surely Proskauer Rose has connections to Big Pharma Companies that can help them in a drug that will induce a Natural Cause of Death such as a Heart Attack.. How about.. Say .. Regeneron Pharmceuticals, Inc. - connected to Textron.. in a Behind the Scenes.. Scratch your Back .. way.. Hmm.. kind of Gets ya Thinking.. (Trivia: what Connects Textron to Lockheed to Proskauer to Regeneron... oh and then back to me..) hmm.. ???

I also believe that Chris Wheeler formerly of Proskauer Rose, along with the NY Proskauer Rose THUGS hired someone to BOMB the Mini Van of Inventor Eliot Bernstein in effort to Kill Eliot Bernstein - iviewit inventor and his family... and Proskauer ROSE paid off the Boca Police in Order To Cover Up the Bombing.. therefore it was NEVER investigated.. and funny .. I am a Homeland Security Risk for BLOGGING.. and a Bombing was not even investigated.. and covered up by local cops as well as a Florida Supreme Court Judge (Jorge Larbarga) .. Shocking to Say the Least.. Well I guess.. 13 Trillion Dollars is a Whole Lot of Money..

Oh and Don't Forget Eric Turner Florida Bar Attorney and the Flat Out Suppression of Truth by the Corrupt Supreme Court Judge Jorge Labarga ... All Bought and Paid for By the Corrupt, Evil, Immoral, Criminals at Proskauer Rose LLP - Law Firm.

oh and Foley and Lardner of Course.. .Michael Grebe was in On ALL of it.. Attempted Murder to Steal an Invention where by he was the Patent Attorney Firm in Charge of the Protection of the Inventor.. Michael Grebe is the Most "Well Connected Corrupt Attorney in America" - Says Investigative Blogger Crystal L. Cox.. "Me" and well, thats a Fact.. !!!
(Note: Proskauer Rose is Filthy Rich, Evil and Connected, but Michael Grebe is the ONE who has the Power to Bug My home Phones, to put me on a Homeland Security list and to monitor my phone calls.. and well Duh.. I know how long you have been doing it.. I have NOTHING to Hide.. I am NOT the Criminal.. I am the Voice of TRUTH !! "

Oh and Don't Forget the FBI Lost the File on the Bombing.. That was a Michael Grebe Cover Up as Well..

So Proskauer Rose LLP and Foley and Lardner,
You Boys Bout' Decided what to Do about Me Yet?

.. or YOU going to let the Textron THUGS continue to do your Dirty Work?

..by the way.. I Love the Way you paid for MORE SPACE in the GOOGLE search to push me down.. thing is the" Truth is Like Cream" and it Rises to the Top..
so Keep On Coming.. Thugs and Thieves..

I Fear No Evil ..

So Proskauer Rose, Michael Grebe, Lockheed Martin, Intel Corp, Warner Bros., Jeffrey Bewkes, Bruce Sewell, Foley and Lardner, MPEG LA, Kenneth Rubenstein.. I have Decided it is Officially Time for YOUR COME TO JESUS Party to Begin.. Ready ?

Bernstein filed criminal complaints with the Department of Justice Inspector General Glenn Fine, the US Attorney General Eric Holder & others regarding the criminal activities of both the NY and FL Officials.

It seems from Many documents atwww.Iviewit.TV That Mary Shapiro of the SEC had knowledgle long ago about what Proskauer Rose was up to and yet .. what ?? the Standford affair is some NEW Shocker of a Story, yet Mary Shapiro had been given notice by Eliot Bernstein and the Iviewit Company years before the Billion Dollar Scandal hit the Main Stream Media.

Information regarding Greenberg Traurig's involvement in a recent Ponzi, "The American Lawyer is reporting today, May 13, 2010, that the law firm of Greenberg Traurig has been sued for its willful participation in and facilitation of what it knew to be an illegal Ponzi scheme

proskauer-rose | Kill All The Lawyers Blog

2002 04 23 William Kasser, Iviewit bookkeeper letter to Eliot Bernstein regarding Goldstein Lewin (now CBIZ) accounting fraud on financial projections.

However with the Standford Billions ... the Madoff Billions... Enron.. all that has piled up .. and all involved seeming to act like they had no way of Knowing Yet they certainly did... Enron is connected to the Iviewit Stolen Patent and to Prosakauer Rose Law Firm - Eliot Bernstein Founder of Iviewit Technologies and one of the Inventors of the Trillion Dollar Patent told the Authories Long, LONG ago and they did nothing... even to the point of his Family Car being BOMBED and seemingly NO Real investigation.
