(Excerpt: Judge's Ruling)

THE COURT: Okay. Did you file an inventory in Simon's estate?

MR. SPALLINA: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Has the inventory been published?

MR. SPALLINA: I believe it has, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Do you have an inventory from Simon's estate?

MR. PRATT: No. We don't.

THE COURT: Do you object to them having it?

MR. SPALLINA: No.

THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to let you have it, Eliot.

MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Thank you.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you. You can have a seat.

MR. SPALLINA: Thank you.

THE COURT: So technically the hearing today was to deal with the improprieties of the pleadings, meaning the prior waivers. I heard a lot about this last time. I know you brought in a witness. Mr. Roth is here, obviously because of Ms. Moran's potential difficulty, but I'm trying to think of putting substance ahead of form to determine how it benefits the Estate to go into that issue any further. So do you have a position on that Mr. Pratt, now that Eliot has had a chance to have the benefit of counsel and you've seen the newest round of waivers? There is no petition filed yet by Ted Bernstein. If he files one, and the Estate for some reason is not ready to be closed, or shouldn't be closed, we can deal with that at that time.

You know, sometimes things happen and the other side not having made a final decision on this, what I heard was not good about what I heard took place with respect to the processing of these documents, the waivers that the children signed, and essentially the one that was signed purportedly by Simon, but does it really matter, and I think I'd want it to matter before more time and money and energy is put into that, because if it's not going to put money into anybody's pocket, what good does it do just to tell Ms. Moran that she did a bad thing. If that's the case, and I don't know that it is, I'm not finding that.

MR. PRATT: I'm not too concerned about the validity of the waivers now that they've signed new waivers and they filed them. What we're trying to accomplish here is not to throw anybody under the bus, or burn anybody. We want a clear picture of what happened in this entire estate plan, and the parent's died --

THE COURT: I've got that, but Eliot is entitled to that which anyone else in his position is entitled to, no more no less, so I'm not restricting, nor am I expanding on this concept. There's laws that govern what he is entitled to. They're saying that, you know, he's -- I mean, I don't know that there's a formal request in the Shirley's estate for any other documentation other than that which you now have, because there is nothing else that is filed, and if what Ted says and what Mr. Spallina says is true, if we requested a final accounting we would get the same things, and that's not going to get you anywhere. That's what they said.

MR. PRATT: My concern is that we're not going to be in a giant rush to close the estate, not that we want to turn this --

THE COURT: There's no petition to close it right now. Let's be patient and see what happens, and there may be reasons not to, or to close it, depending what goes on elsewhere. But given that, I don't even know other than what we now see in the inventories, because those are the two official documents, I don't know anything else about what monies may have passed through anyone's hands, but this isn't a case of first impression. The law deals with what potential beneficiaries are entitled to, and what they're not, and what trustees can provide, and what not.

Let's be patient and do it in the correct forum. It seems like a lot, and what you want to accomplish is going to take place before Judge French, or you can take it back to Judge Garrison.

MR. PRATT: Yea, I think you're right. We want to make sure that this piece of the puzzle is accurate, and if it is, you might not ever see us again.

THE COURT: So they say she funded the trust before her lifetime. Maybe she had some assets that were jointly titled. Those are not probate assets, they go just like people want. She may have cash under the pillow and it goes. So I'm going to take no further action right now on the issue of alleged impropriety or defects in the form of a pleading or other documents submitted to The Court in furtherance of the closing of the estate of Shirley Bernstein. I'm going to reserve on attorney's fees and any other possible sanction, if and when that matter becomes ripe for me to determine, but not today.

MR. MANCERI: Your Honor --

THE COURT: It may not Happen, at all.

MR. MANCERI: -- I want to address one thing that you mentioned, so everyone knows. We intend on filing a petition to close this estate, very quickly.

THE COURT: But I can't preempt that and deal with that. We have to be patient and follow the rule. When you file it, you're going to make sure Eliot gets served. You serve him, and he can do whatever he wants with it. This is all rule driven.

MR. MANCERI: No question about it, Your Honor. We have the original waivers. As you know, we don't file the one's in ink anymore. We have them if you want to take them in open court.

THE COURT: No. E-files are good. You're allowed to e-file.

Re: Advancement of Inheritance
Our file number 1522-2.0

Dear Mr. Bernstein:

I have been retained by your parents to assist them in their estate planning. You parents have asked me to contact you regarding a possible plan to advance you a portion of the inheritance that you may ultimately receive upon their deaths.

The plan would work as follows:

1. Your parents would each month pay the health insurance premiums for you, your wife Candice and your three children.

2. In addition, your parents want to make gifts to provide your family with a monthly cash flow. The annual amount of these gifts would be $100,000 per year less the amount that they pay in health insurance premiums for your family. This amount would be distributed evenly over the year in monthly distributions by me.

3. The health insurance premiums and the monthly payments will reduce dollar-for-dollar the amount that you will ultimately inherit when your parents die.

While your parents may decide to alter or discontinue this plan at any time, they wanted me to make sure that you understand that they will discontinue making the above health insurance premiums and the monthly payments if you harass or threaten to sue or initiate litigation with anyone in your family at any time. However, you may counter claim if you are sued by them.

Your parents also want to have the opportunity to visit with their grandchildren at least four times a year. Your parents will either come to California or gladly pay all transportation costs for your children to come to another destination. You and Candice are more than welcome to join your children for these family visits.

My purpose in writing to you is to confirm in advance that your parents' plan is acceptable to you and to make sure that you understand that the payment of your health insurance premiums and other distributions will reduce any amounts that you may receive later. If you find these terms acceptable, please sign and date below and return one copy of this letter to me in the enclosed self addressed envelope.

I look forward to hearing from you. Please call me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

JOHN A. HERRERA

I, Eliot Bernstein, understand the above terms and conditions of my parents' proposed gift plan and find them acceptable. While I understand that it is my parents' present intention to continue this plan indefinitely, I also understand that they may at any time discontinue or alter this plan for any reason. If I die, I ask that any future gifts be paid to my wife Candice Bernstein rather than to the executor or administrator of my estate.

ON 071513, I RESPONDED TO THE DISTRICT VII SUBSTATION LOCATED AT 17901 SOUTH STATE ROAD 7, UNINCORPORATED BOCA RATON, FLORIDA IN REFERENCE TO A REPORT OF FRAUD.

UPON ARRIVAL, I MADE CONTACT WITH THE COMPLAINANT INSIDE OF THE DISTRICT VII LOBBY. THE COMPLAINANT VERBALLY IDENTIFIED HIMSELF AS ELLIOT I. BERNSTEIN. ELLIOT STATED THAT SINCE SEPTEMBER OF 2012 THERE HAVE BEEN SEVERAL FRAUDULENT AND FORGED DOCUMENTS THAT HAVE BEEN FILED IN THE SOUTH COUNTY COURTHOUSE LOCATED AT 200 WEST ATLANTIC AVENUE, DELRAY BEACH, FLORIDA. ELLIOT ADVISED THAT THESE FRAUDULENT/FORGED DOCUMENTS WERE FILED WITH THE SOUTH COUNTY COURTHOUSE TO MISAPPROPRIATE ASSETS ILLEGALLY FROM THE ESTATES OF SIMON AND SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN (DECEASED PARENTS). ELLIOT TOLD ME THAT THESE DOCUMENTS WERE PREPARED AND EXECUTED BY ATTORNEYS DONALD TESCHER AND ROBERT SPALLINA OF TESCHER AND SPALLINA AND THAT THESE DOCUMENTS WERE FOR POWER OF ATTORNEY OVER THE TWO (2) ESTATES WHICH WERE VALUED BETWEEN 20 TO 50 MILLION DOLLARS. ACCORDING TO ELLIOT, HIS BROTHER, THEODORE STUART BERNSTEIN, ALSO HAD INVOLVEMENT WITH THE FILING OF THESE FRAUDULENT/FORGED DOCUMENTS.

WHILE SPEAKING TO ELLIOT, HE SHOWED ME SEVERAL COURT DOCUMENTS WHICH HE ALLEGED ARE COPIES OF THE FRAUDULENT/FORGED DOCUMENTS THAT WERE FILED AT THE COURT HOUSE. ELLIOT COMPLETED A SWORN WRITTEN STATEMENT AND I COMPLETED A VICTIM/WITNESS CASE INFORMATION FORM IN WHICH ELLIOT WAS GIVEN ALONG WITH COPIES OF HIS FOUR (4) PAGE SWORN WRITTEN STATEMENT.

DUE TO THE MONETARY AMOUNT AND THE ALLEGATIONS THAT WERE MADE REGARDING THE FILING OF FRAUDULENT/FORGED DOCUMENTS AT THE SOUTH COUNTY COURTHOUSE, THIS CASE WILL BE FORWARDED TO THE PBSO FINANCIAL CRIMES DIVISION.

THIS CASE WAS COMPLETED AT THIS TIME FOR DOCUMENTATION PURPOSES ONLY.

OFFENSE NO. 1 FLORIDA STATE STATUTE: 843 0855 3 CIS CODE 260D

ON AUGUST 23, 2013 I MET WITH ELIOT BERNSTEIN REFERENCE HIS COMPLAINT. HE STATED THAT DUE TO SOME DOCUMENTS BEING FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED A LARGER FRAUD HAS OCCURRED. HE SUPPLIED ME WITH COPIES OF A DOCUMENT TITLED: WAIVER OF ACCOUNTING AND PORTIONS OF PETITION FOR DISCHARGE: WAIVER OF SERVICE OF PETITION FOR DISCHARGE: AND RECEIPT OF BENEFICIARY AND CONSENT TO DISCHARGE, FOR THE ESTATE OF SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN, WHO IS ELIOT'S DECEASED MOTHER.

ELIOT STATED THAT IN THE FIRST PART (BELIEVED TO BE APRIL) OF 2012, HIS FATHER HAD A MEETING WITH HIM AND HIS FOUR SIBLINGS (TED, PAMELA, JILL, & LISA). I HAVE SINCE FOUND OUT THAT THIS WAS A CONFERENCE CALL WHICH TOOK PLACE AT THE OFFICE OF ATTORNEY ROBERT SPALLINA, WHO IS/WAS THE ATTORNEY FOR SIMON AND SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN. IT SHOULD BE NOTED THAT SIMON HAS SINCE PASSED, WHICH OCCURRED ON OR ABOUT SEPTEMBER 13, 2012. AT THIS CONFERENCE CALL, WHICH WAS IN THE FIRST PART OF 2012, SIMON BERNSTEIN REVEALED TO HIS CHILDREN THAT HE WOULD LIKE THEM TO SIGN THE AFOREMENTIONED WAIVER. IT IS BELIEVED THAT THERE WAS ALSO SOME DISCUSSION OF INHERITANCE AND WHO WAS TO GET WHAT UPON SIMON'S PASSING.

INVESTIGATION REVEALED THAT ALL FIVE CHILDREN AND SIMON SIGNED THE AFOREMENTIONED WAIVER THAT WAS SENT TO THEM BY SPALLINA'S LEGAL ASSISTANT, KIMBERLY MORAN. I SPOKE WITH MORAN ON 09/24/13 AND SHE ADMITTED TO SENDING OUT THE WAIVER AS TOLD TO BY HER BOSS. THE WAIVERS WERE THEN SIGNED AND RETURNED. SIMON'S WAS SIGNED ON 04/09/12 AND ELIOT'S ON MAY 15, 2012. IT WAS FOUND THAT THE OTHER SIBLINGS DID NOT RETURN THEIR DOCUMENT FOR SEVERAL MONTHS. MORAN STATED SHE HAD TO CONDUCT FOLLOW-UP E-MAILS AND PHONE CALLS TO GET THE DOCUMENTS RETURNED. THEY WERE FINALLY RETURNED IN AUGUST AND OCTOBER OF 2012. MORAN STATED SHE FILED THE DOCUMENTS WITH THE COURT IN OCTOBER OF 2012. SHE RECEIVED A MEMORANDUM FOR JUDGE MARTIN COLIN'S CASE MANAGER, ASTRIDE LIMOUZIN, STATING THE DOCUMENTS WERE NOT NOTARIZED AND THEY NEED TO BE. MORAN STATED THAT AT THIS TIME, SHE TOOK IT UPON HERSELF TO TRACE EACH SIGNATURE OF THE SIX MEMBERS OF THE BERNSTEIN FAMILY ONTO ANOTHER COPY OF THE ORIGINAL WAIVER DOCUMENT. SHE THEN NOTARIZED THEM AND RESUBMITTED THEM TO THE COURTS. WHEN I INTERVIEWED HER ON 09/24/13, SHE STATED SHE DID NOT REALLY HAVE A REASON WHY SHE FORGED THE SIGNATURES, OTHER THAN TO WAYBE SAVE TIME.

I SPOKE WITH LISA AND JILL VIA PHONE ON SEPTEMBER 10, 2013. THEY STATED THAT AS FAR AS THEY KNOW, THE FRAUDULENT NOTARIZATION CHANGED NOTHING WITH THE ESTATE SINCE THEY WILLINGLY AND KNOWINGLY SIGNED THE ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS. THEY STATED THAT THEY DO NOT WISH TO PURSUE ANYTHING CRIMINALLY . I SPOKE WITH TED ON 09/24/13. HE ALSO STATED THAT THE MISTAKE DID NOT AFFECT THE ESTATE AND DOES NOT WISH TO PURSUE ANYTHING CRIMINALLY. TO DATE PAMELA HAS NOT RESPONDED TO MY PHONE MESSAGES OR E-MAILS.

D/S MARK BEREY WAS PRESENT DURING MY INTERVIEWS WITH MORAN, TED, AND SPALLINA. WE SPOKE TO MORAN ALONE. THE INTERVIEW WAS RECORDED. SHE ADMITTED TO MAKE A POOR DECISION, BUT STATED SHE DID NOT BENEFIT FINANCIALLY FROM HER ACTIONS. WE ALSO SPOKE WITH SPALLINA ALONE. SPALLINA STATED HE WAS NOT AWARE OF MORAN'S ACTIONS UNTIL SHE TOLD HIM. MORAN STATED SHE WAS MADE AWARE THAT OTHERS HAD CAUGHT ONTO WHAT SHE DID ONCE SHE RECEIVED NOTICE FROM THE GOVERNOR'S OFFICE, NOTARY EDUCATION DIVISION. ELIOT FILED A COMPLAINT ON HER WITH THE STATE. I WAS SUPPLIED WITH A COPY OF THE COMPLAINT AND CORRESPONDENCE BY ELIOT. I ALSO SPOKE WITH ERIN TUPER MAKING HER AWARE OF MY INVESTIGATION. ELIOT SUPPLIED A SWORN WRITTEN STATEMENT TO THE ORIGINAL REPORTING DEPUTY, STATING THAT HE WISHES TO PURSUE CRIMINAL CHARGES. ELIOT ALSO TOLD ME HIMSELF THAT HE WISHES TO PURSUE CHARGES ANY CRIMINAL WRONGDOINGS IN THIS CASE. IN SPEAKING WITH SPALLINA, WE FOUND THAT THE DOCUMENT IN QUESTIONS CHANGES THE INHERITANCE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY IN THE ESTATE OF SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN FROM SIMON AND SHIRLEY'S CHILDREN TO THEIR GRANDCHILDREN.

D/S BEREY AND I ALSO REVIEWED ALL E-MAILS AND ATTACHMENTS (MAINLY COURT DOCUMENTS) SUPPLIED BY ELIOT. WE FOUND THAT MOST OF THE INFORMATION WAS RELATED TO THE ONGOING CIVIL CASE INVOLVING THE TRUSTS AND ESTATES OF SHIRLEY AND SIMON BERNSTEIN. THE ONLY CRIMINAL WRONGDOINGS FOUND ARE THE AFOREMENTIONED FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED DOCUMENTS.

IT SHOULD BE NOTED THAT ON 9/25/13 ELIOT'S WIFE, CANDICE BERNSTEIN CALLED ME AND MENTIONED THAT SHE WAS FEELING A CONCERN FOR THE SAFETY OF HER AND ELIOT. SHE STATED IT IS JUST A FEELING SHE HAD DUE TO RISING TENSIONS IN THIS ONGOING COURT BATTLE. I ASKED HER IF ANYONE HAS THREATENED HER OR HER HUSBAND AND SHE SAID NO, JUST PEOPLE INVOLVED KNOW PEOPLE WHO HAVE HIGH INFLUENTIAL ABILITIES. ELIOT WOULD NOT ELABORATE, BUT DID STATE THAT HE HAS ONGOING FEDERAL COURT BATTLES AND BELIEVES HE IS BEING TARGETED BY PEOPLE DUE TO HIS PATENTS AND INVENTIONS. AT THIS TIME, I HAVE NO EVIDENCE TO SHOW THEY ARE IN ANY HARM'S WAY REGARDING MY INVESTIGATION OR GENERALLY SPEAKING.

BASED ON THE FACTS AND FINDINGS OF THIS INVESTIGATION, I FIND PROBABLE CAUSE FOR THE ARREST OF MORAN FOR CRIMINAL ACTIONS UNDER THE COLOR OF LAW OR THROUGH USE OF SIMULATED LEGAL PROCESS, F.S.S. 843.0855 (3), DUE TO THE FACT THAT SHE DID WILLINGLY AND KNOWINGLY SIMULATE A LEGAL PROCESS OF A LEGAL DOCUMENT REGARDING PERSONAL PROPERTY, KNOWING THAT THE DOCUMENT CONTAINED FRAUDULENT SIGNATURES. THIS CASE REMAINS OPEN.

DISPOSITION: ZULU

ON 9/13/12 AT 1211 HOURS, I RESPONDED TO 7020 LYONS HEAD LANE, UNINCORPORATED BOCA RATON, FL., AND MET WITH TED BERNSTEIN AND HIS SISTER AND BROTHER, LISA FRIEDSTEIN AND ELLIOT BERNSTEIN, IN REFERENCE TO A POLICE ASSIST. TED ADVISED HIS FATHER, SIMON BERNSTEIN WAS TAKEN TO DELRAY COMMUNITY HOSPITAL AT 1000 HOURS ON 9/12/12 AND PASSED AWAY AT 0100 HOURS ON 9/13/12. HE EXPLAINED WHILE AT THE HOSPITAL HE WAS ADVISED BY SIMON'S CARETAKER, RACHEL WALKER THAT SIMON'S LIVE-IN GIRLFRIEND, MARITZA PUCCIO MIGHT HAVE PROVIDED SIMON WITH A LARGER THEN PRESCRIBED DOSE OF HIS [redacted] MEDICATION AS WELL AS ONE OF HER PRESCRIBED [redacted] SLEEPING PILLS, WHICH COULD OF CAUSED HIS DEATH. HE SAID HE VOICED HIS CONCERNS TO THE DOCTORS AT DELRAY COMMUNITY HOSPITAL BUT THEY ADVISED THERE DID NOT APPEAR TO BE ANY SUSPICIOUS CIRCUMSTANCES SURROUNDING SIMON'S DEATH AND THEY WOULD NOT BE CONDUCTING AN AUTOSPY. TED CONTACTED BOTH A PRIVATE COMPANY AND THE PALM BEACH COUNTY MEDICAL EXAMINER'S OFFICE REGARDING HAVING AN AUTOSPY CONDUCTED. BOTH ADVISED HE SHOULD CONTACT THE PALM BEACH COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE.

AFTER SPEAKING WITH TED, I SPOKE WITH RACHEL. RACHEL STARTED BY TELLING ME THAT SIMON SUFFERED FROM SEVERAL AILMENTS TO INCLUDE, [redacted] AND HE HAD [redacted] APPROXIMATELY 2 YEARS AGO, WHICH WAS ONE OF SEVERAL [redacted]. SIMON WAS RECENTLY PLACED ON [redacted] FOR THE [redacted], WHICH SHE SAID EFFECTED HIS MENTAL FACULTIES. RACHEL ADVISED WHEN SHE ARRIVED AT SIMON'S HOUSE AT 0830 HOURS ON 9/12/12, SHE FOUND SIMON LYING ON THE COUCH IN THE LIVING ROOM. HE WAS AWAKE AND BREATHING BUT HE HAD A VERY LOW HEART BEAT AND WAS UNAWARE OF HIS SURROUNDINGS. RACHEL SAID SHORTLY AFTER HER ARRIVAL MARITZA RETURNED HOME. THEY HAD A BRIEF ARGUMENT OVER WHETHER OR NOT THEY SHOULD BRING SIMON TO THE HOSPITAL AS RACHEL SAYS MARITZA DID NOT BELIEVE HE NEEDED TO GO TO THE HOSPITAL AT THIS TIME. RACHEL SAID THAT SHE FINALLY TOLD MARITZA THAT SHE WAS GOING TO TAKE HIM TO THE HOSPITAL BY HERSELF. SHE SAID SHE LEFT THE HOUSE APPROXIMATELY 1000 HOURS FOR THE HOSPITAL. RACHEL WENT ONTO TELL ME THAT MARITZA PROVIDED SIMON WITH ONE OF HER PRESCRIBED [redacted] SLEEPING PILLS ON THE NIGHT OF 9/8/12. SHE ALSO SAID SIMON WAS PRESCRIBED 100 [redacted] PILLS ON 9/7/12 AND SHE BELIEVE THAT MARITZA WAS PROVIDING SIMON WITH LARGER THEN PRESCRIBED DOSES OF [redacted]. RACHEL TOLD ME SHE BELIEVED THERE WERE ONLY 30 PILLS LEFT IN THE BOTTLE AT THE TIME OF SIMON'S DEATH. I LATER COUNTED THE BOTTLE OF [redacted]. THERE WERE 90.5 PILLS IN THE BOTTLE SHOWING THAT SIMON DID NOT TAKE MORE THAN PRESCRIBED.

IT SHOULD ALSO BE NOTED THAT I SPOKE WITH ELLIOT, WHO SAID HE WAS AT DINNER WITH SIMON AND MARITZA ON 9/8/12 AND OBSERVED HIS FATHER TELL MARITZA THAT HE WANTED ONE OF HER [redacted] SLEEPING PILLS BECAUSE HE COULD NOT SLEEP. ELLIOT SAID THEY HAD A BRIEF ARGUMENT OVER THIS AS MARITZA REFUSED TO ALLOW SIMON TO TAKE ONE OF HER PILLS INITIALLY. AT THIS TIME SGT. CASTELLI ARIVED ON SCENE AND WAS ADVISED OF THE CASE.
HE MADE CONTACT WITH VCD AND THE MEDICAL EXAMINER'S OFFICE. HE WAS ADVISED TO HAVE ME CONTACT DELRAY COMMUNITY HOSPITAL TO PUT A HOLD ON SIMON'S BODY FOR [redacted] FROM THE MEDICAL EXAMINER'S OFFICE WHO WOULD CHECK ON THE SITUATION THE NEXT DAY. I WAS ALSO ADVISED TO EMAIL A COPY OF THE REPORT TO [redacted] WITH THE MEDICAL EXAMINER'S OFFICE. DELRAY COMMUNITY HOSPITAL WAS CONTACTED AND A HOLD WAS PLACED ON SIMON'S BODY AND [redacted] WAS EMAILED.
THIS REPORT IS FOR INFORMATION PURPOSES.

and Trustee, PRO SE[1]. and hereby files this his Motion to (I) STRIKE ALL PLEADINGS OF MANCERI AND REMOVE HIM AS COUNSEL: (II) FOR EMERGENCY INTERIM DISTRIBUTIONS AND FAMILY ALLOWANCE; (III) FOR FULL ACCOUNTING DUE TO ALLEGED THEFT OF ASSETS AND FALSIFIED INVENTORIES: (IV) NOT CONSOLIDATE THE ESTATE CASES OF SIMON AND SHIRLEY BUT POSSIBLY INSTEAD DISQUALIFY YOUR HONOR AS A MATTER OF LAW DUE TO DIRECT INVOLVEMENT IN FORGED AND FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED DOCUMENTS FILED BY OFFICERS OF THIS COURT AND APPROVED BY YOUR HONOR DIRECTLY: (V) THE COURT TO SET AN EMERGENCY HEARING ON ITS OWN MOTION DUE TO PROVEN FRAUD AND FORGERY IN THE ESTATE OF SHIRLEY CAUSED IN PART BY OFFICERS OF THE COURT AND THE DAMAGING AND DANGEROUS FINANCIAL EFFECT IT IS HAVING ON PETITIONER, INCLUDING THREE MINOR CHILDREN AND IMMEDIATELY HEAR ALL PETITIONER'S PRIOR MOTIONS IN THE ORDER THEY WERE FILED dated January 02, 2014 and in support thereof states. on information and belief, as follows:

BACKGROUND

1. That first off, Judge Martin Colin may not be able to review these Motions herein, including requests for Emergency Hearings to be scheduled immediately. as possible

[1] Pleadings in this case are being filed by Plaintiff In Propria Persona, wherein pleadings are to be considered without regard to technicalities. Propria, pleadings are not to be held to the same high standards of perfection as practicing lawyers. See Haines v. Kerner 92 Sct 594, also See Power 914 F2d 1459 (11th Cir1990), also See Hulsey v. Ownes 63 F3d 354 (5th Cir 1995). also See In Re: HALL v. BELLMON 935 F.2d 1106 (10th Cir. 1991)."
In Puckett v. Cox, it was held that a pro-se pleading requires less stringent reading than one drafted by a lawyer (456 F2d 233 (1972 Sixth Circuit USCA). Justice Black in Conley v. Gibson, 355 U.S. 41 at 48 (1957)"The Federal Rules rejects the approach that pleading is a game of skill in which one misstep by counsel may be decisive to the outcome and accept the principle that the purpose of pleading is to facilitate a proper decision on the merits." According to Rule 8(f) FRCP and the State Court rule which holds that all pleadings shall be construed to do substantial justice.

Disqualification of Judge Colin is asserted in Motion for valid legal reasons under law and it would appear improper under law for a Judge to adjudicate his own Disqualification Motion. As Emergency Hearings due to life threatening situations thrust upon Petitioner by Fiduciaries and Counsel in these matters, who have been proven to have committed criminal acts in and upon this Court and the Beneficiaries as fully defined herein and in prior unheard Motions and Petitions filed by Petitioner since May 2013 and largely unheard by this Court, ruling on these Motions herein must be had be NON CONFLICTED justices of the Court who are not involved in the nexus of events defined herein. That Petitioner is requesting this Court take Judicial Notice of the criminal acts proven of Officers of the Court and others and make on its own Motion an EMERGENCY HEARING FOR EMERGENCY RELIEF to Petitioner and his three minor children, which would have to be heard in a timely fashion as Emergencies.

2. That Petitioner prudently filed all of the following Motions and Petitions in the Estates of Shirley and Simon timely since May 2013 that remain largely unheard in particular to each Motion within the pleadings and languishing before the courts of Judge French and Your Honor and that have not been responded to by several of the Respondents since May 2013 and may impart their default as well;

xxv. OBJECTION TO MOTION TO STRIKE PETITION TO DETERMINE AND RELEASE TITLE OF EXEMPT PROPERTY

NOTE: All pleading listed in items (i-xiv) above filed in each of the state and federal courts listed above are hereby incorporated by reference in entirety, including but not limited to inclusion of, ALL motions, petitions, orders, etc. in each case, as they all relate to the same nexus of events in the Estates of both Simon and Shirley.

4. That in the aforesaid Petitions and Motions, relating to both Simon and Shirley's Estates and Trusts, Petitioner prayed to the courts already in numerous prior pleadings for numerous legally valid reasons to Freeze the Estates of both Simon and Shirley, Remove the Personal Representatives, Trustees and Counsel and Determine the Beneficiaries on various grounds, including but not limited to, alleged and proven now criminal activity evidenced in the Petitions and Motions. Petitioner sought proper and just relief in each and awaits this Court to hear each Motion in particular in the order they were filed.

5. That Petitioner requests this Court consider all the allegations, evidence and reliefs sought in the prior Petitions and Motions filed by Petitioner since May 2013 in particular and now consider each Motion contained in each pleading, in light of the new and damning ADMITTED AND ACKNOWLEDGED CRIMINAL FELONY ACTS, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO, SIX FORGERIES, SIX NOTARY PUBLIC FRAUDS, FRAUD ON THIS COURT AND FRAUD ON THE BENEFICIARIES AND INTERESTED PARTIES COMMITTED BY ATTORNEYS AT LAW ACTING AS OFFICERS OF THIS COURT, FIDUCIARIES OF THE ESTATE AND OTHERS.

6. That Kimberly Moran ("Moran") was arrested and ADMITTED FORGERY, including a document FORGED and FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED POST MORTEM for Simon filed in Shirley's Estate and one FORGED and FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED for Petitioner by Moran. Moran was employed at the time of her criminal acts and supervised by Respondent Tescher & Spallina, P.A. and worked directly as legal assistant / notary public to Respondents Spallina and Tescher. The documents were wholly created by Moran with Forged

Signatures and Fraudulent Notarizations. That to focus on Moran's six Waivers that were FORGED AND FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED for six separate documents on behalf of six separate people is to miss the forest from the trees, as her crimes are only a fraction of the alleged crimes taking place, using a larger series of alleged Fraudulent and Forged documents in the Estates of Simon and Shirley to attempt to change the Beneficiaries POST MORTEM and Moran's documents are small part of them.

7. That evidence now exists that Moran made perjurious statements and false official statements to investigators that contradict her own story of how and why she committed the crimes. Statements made to two separate state investigatory agencies, the Notary Public Division of Governor Rick Scott and the Palm Beach County Sheriff. That Moran's attorney, David Roth of the law firm of Roth and Duncan made a further conflicting account of the reasons for her crimes to this Court in the Evidentiary Hearing held on October 28, 2013 before Your Honor, as will be discussed in greater depth herein.

8. That Spallina and Tescher and others then used these FORGED and FRAUDULENT documents knowingly and with intent, along with other alleged FORGED and FRAUDULENT documents not done by Moran and filed them as part of the record in official proceedings while acting as Officers of this Court and Judge French's court in Simon's Estate. These documents when put together were then all used to illegally seize Dominion and Control of the Estates and the Fiduciary roles and attempt to change the Beneficiaries of Shirley and Simon's Estates Post Mortem and to begin looting the Estates. The documents done not by Moran are currently under ongoing investigation with authorities.

9. That a Post Mortem Simon achieved all of the following acts in Shirley's estate as if he were alive from his date of death of September 13, 2012 through January 2013, by positing Court documents ILLEGALLY filed for him as if alive and in the present by Tescher and Spallina in an official proceeding, perpetrating a ongoing and continuing Fraud on the Court and Fraud on the Beneficiaries.

10. That Tescher and Spallina, then concealed from Your Honor's Court that Simon had deceased and Spallina and Tescher failed intentionally to notify the Court that he was dead and elect a successor Trustee and Personal Representative to legally close the Estate and instead continued to file documents illegally to close the estate with Simon who was deceased. They allegedly needed Simon to appear alive when he then tried to change Shirley's beneficiaries once the Estate was closed and again it is important to note that these are separate and distinct criminal acts from those of the ones committed by Moran while employed by Tescher & Spallina, P.A. and instead were directly committed by the Attorneys at Law, Tescher, Spallina and Manceri, all part of an ongoing Pattern and Practice of Fraud on the Court and Fraud on the Beneficiaries. Simon was deceased on September 13, 2012, yet achieved all the following POST MORTEM, as if he were alive and acting as Personal Representative until the Estate was illegally closed in January 2013 by a dead Personal Representative:

OFFICIAL DOCUMENTS FILED WITH THE COURT AND ACTS DONE WHILE SIMON "SERVED" ILLEGALLY AS PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE WHILE DEAD[2]

[2] That this listing of items was filed in previous pleadings was filed with incorrect information in the list as to who filed the documents and more and this was due to Petitioner only learning of the Fraud on the Court and these documents in the September 13, 2013 hearing when they were exposed by Your Honor. Thus, Petitioner based

i. On 24-0ct-2012, Simon while deceased acted as Personal Representative and filed an AFFIDAVIT/STATEMENT RE: CREDITORS, filed by Tescher and Spallina as if Simon were alive and submitting the document as an Affidavit on this date of October 24, 2012. Petitioner alleges that this document is FORGED and FRAUDULENT. This document was alleged signed on April 09, 2012 and not deposited with the Court until October 24, 2012, after his date of death. The document is signed by Spallina as Simon's counsel for a dead Personal Representative Simon, knowing he was dead and that Simon could not serve anything legally. Further, Petitioner alleges Spallina and Tescher failed to notify the Court that Simon was dead and could no longer "serve" as Personal Representative and that this was done with intent and scienter.

ii. On 24-0ct-2012, Simon while deceased acted as Personal Representative and filed a PETITION FOR DISCHARGE, filed by Tescher and Spallina as if Simon were alive and submitting the Petition on this date alive and in the present. Where almost all of the alleged statements made by Simon under penalty of perjury in this Petition are false, making it further suspect on the date the document is allegedly signed on April 09, 2012 months prior to positing it with the Court on October 24, 2013 when Simon was already dead. Petitioner alleges this document is Forged and Fraudulent, as there are many problems with the voracity and factual accuracy of the statements made by Simon in the Petition, as virtually every statement made under penalty of perjury on that date of April 09, 2012 when he allegedly signed the document are proven untrue. One instance of these alleged perjurious statements is that Simon allegedly claims in the Petition that he has all the Waivers for the Beneficiaries and Interested Parties, yet his daughter Jill Iantoni ("Iantoni") did not sign and return a Waiver until October 2012 after Simon was dead. How therefore could Simon claim in April 2012 that he had all the Waivers at any time when he was alive, as Iantoni's was never returned while he was alive? At no time while living did Simon have all the Waivers and this document appears wholly Forged and Fraudulent or Simon was committing major perjuries in his sworn, under penalty of perjury, claims in the estate documents of his beloved wife's estate. Spallina and Tescher knew Simon never had all the Waivers while alive as he was desperately concerned that Iantoni had not sent hers back after Simon's death, yet filed this perjurious statement with the Court acting as Simon's counsel when they also knew he was dead.

iii. On 24-0ct-2012, Simon while deceased acted as Personal Representative and allegedly filed a WAIVER OF ACCOUNTING AND PORTIONS OF PETITION FOR DISCHARGE; WAIVER OF SERVICE OF PETITION FOR DISCHARGE; AND RECEIPT OF BENEFICIARY AND CONSENT TO DISCHARGE, allegedly filed by information off the docket but upon getting and examining the documents it was learned that some of the prior statements were wrong and have been corrected herein after review of the documents and therefore any reference prior to this list should be replaced with this Amended version.

Simon on October 24, 2012 POST MORTEM with the Court acting as Personal Representative while factually dead. It is alleged that this is a FORGED and Fraudulent document created Post Mortem for Simon and was never filed and docketed with Judge Colin's court while Simon was alive, as this document filed Post Mortem was rejected as it lacked a NOTARIZATION per this Court's rules.

iv. On 24-0ct-2012, Simon while deceased acted as Personal Representative and filed a NON-TAX CERT /RECEIPT/AFFIDAVIT of No Florida Estate Tax Due filed by Tescher and Spallina as if Simon were alive and acting as Personal Representative while deceased. Again, this document is posited with the Court by Simon acting as Personal Representative on Oct 24, 2012 POST MORTEM. That this may in fact be evidence of Tax fraud if the document is found to be further fraudulent.

v. On 24-0ct-2012, Simon while deceased acted as Personal Representative and filed a PROBATE CHECKLIST and allegedly this Closing Document is Dated Feb 15, 2012 but not filed until October 24, 2012 when again Simon is still dead. The document is filed by Spallina and docketed with Simon listed as Personal Representative on the date the document was filed with the Court on October 24, 2012 when Simon was dead, yet filed as if Simon were alive and acting as Personal Representative. This PROBATE CHECKLIST closing document is dated February 15, 2012 almost a year before the closing of the Estate on January 03, 2013, yet it is not docketed by the Court until October 24, 2012 and signed by what appears to be Spallina's signature, but in an unidentified capacity with no name or title under the signature. Further, this Checklist done in February 2012, filed on October 24, 2013 and used to close the Estate almost a year later in January 2013 is void as it is not a properly completed Checklist at the time it was filed on October 24, 2012 as required by Probate Rules and Statutes. The Checklist is wholly missing docketed items filed from October 24, 2013 forward and therefore the Petition to Discharge filed October 24, 2013 shall not be reviewed by the Court according to Florida Probate Rules and Statutes as it was an intentionally an incomplete Checklist, which purposely hid the Waiver documents filed and other Fraudulently filed documents from this Court and the Beneficiaries and should have been on the closing Checklist. Further, Spallina knowing no successors PR's were elected to the Estate and Letters were not issued to a successor personal representative, due to Spallina and Tescher's Fraud on the Court. Therefore their acts done as counsel in this document were done for a dead PR Simon and Spallina listed Simon as PR on this Checklist he filed with the Court on October 24, 2012, while failing to notify the Court his client was dead on this date and therefore could not be the Personal Representative.

vi. On 19-Nov-2012, Simon while deceased acted as Personal Representative and filed an alleged replacement and BRAND NEW SIGNED AND NOTARIZED, WAIVER OF ACCOUNTING AND PORTIONS OF PETITION FOR DISCHARGE; WAIVER OF SERVICE OF PETITION FOR DISCHARGE; AND RECEIPT OF BENEFICIARY AND CONSENT TO DISCHARGE. PROBLEM IS THAT IT WAS SIGNED FOR HIM THROUGH NOW PROVEN FORGERY AND THEN FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED FOR HIM AND ALL DONE POST MORTEM AND ON A WHOLLY CREATED FROM WHOLE CLOTH DOCUMENT DONE BY MORAN. That this was a NEW Waiver filed again by Simon acting as Personal Representative while dead to replace the Waiver that was filed with the Court on October 24, 2012 when he was dead and was rejected on November 06, 2012 by the Court. This New and Improved Waiver was then amazingly notarized in November 2013 for Simon while he was still dead, yet the Notary Moran pre dated her Notary Statement to April 09, 2012 on a document dated April 09, 2012, even though it was alleged signed and notarized sometime in November 2012 after the Court sent it back demanding a new notarized Waiver from the deceased Simon and others. This new Waiver was Forged for and Fraudulent Notarized for a dead man and it uses dates in the past as if in the present and was filed with the Court a second time for Simon illegally for him while acting as Personal Representative while dead. Simon filed five other WHOLLY FORGED AND FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED WAIVERS for his five children on this date while dead, ALL FORGED and FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED from scratch by Moran and filed by Tescher and Spallina for Simon acting as Personal Representative as if he were alive, now in November 2012 two months Post Mortem and still Spallina and Tescher never notify the Court Simon is dead and legally elect a Successor Personal Representative to replace him and close the Estate legally.

vii. On 03-Jan-2013, Judge Colin signed an ORDER OF DISCHARGE that in part states, "On the Petition for Discharge [Petitioner showed above in (iv) to be invalid for lack of a proper Probate Checklist and showed it would have contained absolute fraudulent and perjured statements of Simon as shown in (ii) above] of Simon Bernstein as personal representative [meaning according to Judge Colin in the September 13, 2013 hearing Simon in the present as alive on the date Judge Colin is signing the Order on January 03, 2013, where Simon still was deceased] of the Estate of Shirley Bernstein, deceased." That the Order of Discharge's date is also scratched out on the document and changed from January 3, 2012 to January 3, 2013 and the handwritten change to the date has no marking or initials of who altered the document, which will need to be clarified through deposition of all those involved in this documents preparation, filing with the Court and signor, including but not limited to Judge Colin who signed the document.

viii. On 03-Jan-2013, Judge Martin Colin signed a FINAL DISPOSITION SHEET in part based on FORGED AND FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED DOCUMENTS to close the estate of Shirley, in part on a Checklist that was not proper, in part on a Petition for Discharge that fails and more.

11. That these documents are alleged part of a larger series of fraudulent documents than those Forged and Fraudulently Notarized by Moran taken alone and were used to facilitate and work with together with these other documents and now Moran has been arrested we can move on to the other multitudes of alleged criminal acts committed by others, including but not limited to, further alleged Document Forgeries and Fraud, Insurance Fraud, Creditor Fraud, Theft of Assets of the Estates, Real Estate Fraud, Fraud on the Probate Court, Fraud on a Federal Court, Identity Theft of a Decedent, Mail and Wire Fraud and Violations and Breaches by the Fiduciaries and Counsel acting in the Estates of Simon and Shirley of virtually all of their legally required duties to the Beneficiaries and Interested Parties, all in violation of multitudes of Probate Rules and Statutes, Attorney Conduct Codes and State and Federal Law. These alleged crimes were committed by others, not just by Moran but instead mainly by Theodore and his close personal friends and business associates, Spallina and Tescher et al., the acting alleged fiduciaries and counsel of the Estates to this point.

12. That due to the Proven and Admitted Felony acts already exposed and being prosecuted, the ongoing alleged criminal acts taking place with the Estates assets, the fact that Spallina and Tescher are responsible not only for their alleged criminal acts involving Fraud on this Court and the Beneficiaries but are wholly liable for the FELONY acts of Moran of FORGERY and FRAUDULENT NOTARIZATIONS, is just cause for all of the fiduciaries of the Estates and Trusts and counsel thus far be immediately removed, reported to the authorities and sanctioned by this Court. This disqualification and removal is further mandated now as Theodore, Spallina, Manceri and Tescher all have absolute and irrefutable Adverse Interests now with Beneficiaries and Interested Parties, especially Petitioner who is attempting to have them prosecuted further for their crimes and jailed and all their personal and professional assets seized through civil and criminal remedies and their reputations ruined for their criminal acts against his Mother and Father's Estates and Trusts.

13. That with evidence of PROVEN FELONY ACTS against Beneficiaries, perjury and false official statements made by Moran in official proceedings and Spallina, Manceri and Theodore all making false statements in the September 13, 2013 Hearing before Your Honor, as fully described and identified in prior pleadings unheard at this time, Petitioner now requests that ALL documents in the Estates and Trusts of both Shirley and Simon now be seized by the Court and Petitioner allowed to examine them for further evidence of FRAUD and FORGERY. In an Order, Your Honor stated you would not be considering further review of documents filed by Simon while alive and "serving" legally as Personal Representative but now even these documents are called into question based on new evidence of further criminal acts alleged and evidenced further herein that make those documents appear Fraudulent as well. Your Honor had thought these were done without a problem but this will be proven questionable herein. Those documents Your Honor doesn't exculpate from further review in the Order are those filed for Simon POST MORTEM as Personal Representative by Spallina while he was dead and Simon could not have legally "served" them on this Court and these are still needing to be investigated fully, prosecuted and then adjudicated by this Court. From all of these egregious acts of bad faith and now forever unclean hands of these Personal Representatives and Counsel involved thus far, who CANNOT EVER AGAIN be trusted by this Court and the Beneficiaries and therefore all of their work product in both Estates must be forensically examined and removed from the record and viewed as possibly ALL BEING CREATED AS PART OF A BIG FAT FRAUD ON THE COURT AND BENEFICIARIES in efforts to change Beneficiaries and seize illegally the Estates of Simon and Shirley and steal assets and convert them to the improper parties illegally.

14. That Spallina admitted in the September 13, 2013 that he was the Attorney at Law involved in Moran's criminal actions, in using six FORGED and FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED WAIVERS allegedly signed by Simon and others to illegally close the Estate of Shirley and Spallina filed these documents with the Court all Post Mortem for Simon as if he were alive and served them for him without notifying the Court he was deceased from September 13, 2012 to January 03, 2013. This is absolute irrefutable evidence of admitted criminal acts warranting not only Tescher and Spallina's arrest but their immediate disqualification and reporting by this Court to all proper criminal authorities for charges to filed against them for their admitted CRIMINAL ACTS in and upon the Court and Beneficiaries.

15. That Petitioner wonders how Your Honor can allow Spallina, Manceri, Tescher or Theodore to continue to operate in any capacity before this Court after Spallina admitted involvement before the Court in the September 13, 2013 Hearing to the criminal acts of FORGERY AND FRAUDULENT NOTARIZATIONS of his employed legal assistant and notary public, a one Kimberly Moran ("Moran"), who has been arrested by the Palm Beach County Sheriff and her Notary license revoked by Governor Rick Scott of Florida and who was arrested by the Palm Beach County Sheriff. Spallina further admitted to this Court that he, through he and Tescher's law firm, then filed a series of documents executed and deposited by a dead Personal Representative as if alive. Petitioner claims this fraud was with intent to commit fraud upon the Court and the Beneficiaries, in order to close the Estate of Shirley and then Fraudulently attempt to the change the Beneficiaries of her estate POST MORTEM of both her and Simon. That Theodore has acted knowingly in fraudulent legal capacities and made false statements in official proceedings to this Court, as already pled in prior pleadings of Petitioner.

MOTION TO STRIKE ALL PLEADINGS OF MANCERI AND REMOVE HIM AS COUNSEL

16. That Mark Manceri, Esq. ("Manceri") has not filed as Attorney of Record for any parties other than Tescher and Spallina personally. Manceri filed a Limited Appearance that states "on behalf of Ted Bernstein aka Theodore Bernstein [Petitioner is not sure if Theodore is legally also known as Ted Bernstein], as Successor Personal Representative [alleged Successor Personal Representative as Theodore did not have Letters issued by this Court on the date Manceri filed his pleading on October 22, 2013] of the Estate of Shirley Bernstein with respect to all matters relating to the Motion to Intervene filed by William E. Stansbury."

17. That Manceri filed another Limited Appearance which states "on behalf of Ted Bernstein aka Theodore Bernstein [Petitioner is not sure if Theodore is legally also known as Ted Bernstein], as Successor Personal Representative [alleged Successor Personal Representative as Theodore did not have Letters issued by this Court on the date Manceri filed his pleading on October 25, 2013] of the Estate of Shirley Bernstein with respect to the Hearing to be held on October 28, 2013 at 4:00 p.m."

18. That the present Notice of Hearing filed by Manceri is a bit tricky to unravel as to his misrepresentations as the Motion/Matter listed is for a status hearing on a "Motion to Transfer and Consolidate" and where the Motion to Transfer and Consolidate sent to the Court with the Notice of Hearing is a Motion to Transfer and Consolidate filed in Judge French's court.

19. That the Motion to Transfer and Consolidate by Manceri in Judge French's court was filed by Manceri acting as alleged counsel for Co-Personal Representatives Spallina and Tescher, whom Manceri is not Attorney of Record for in that case at the time he filed the Motion on December 12, 2013 or even as of today January 02, 2014. Robert Spallina is the only Attorney of Record for Co-Personal Representatives Tescher and Spallina, further invalidating the pleading filed by Manceri in Judge French's court and this present Hearing, which is predicated on the hearing for Motion to Transfer and Consolidate that was cancelled in Judge French's court on December 24, 2013, without notice to Petitioner and screwing up his wife and her mother visiting from out of town's Christmas plans instead preparing for the hearing only to show up to a closed courthouse at 8:45am, you've got to hand it to them for wasting more time of Petitioner and his family on Holiday break. The notice that the hearing was cancelled was not sent to Petitioner until the day before the hearing and did not get delivered to him until days after the cancelled hearing.

20. That Manceri filed a Notice of Appearance to represent Spallina and Tescher in their individual capacity only in these proceedings on September 11, 2013.

21. That no one appears to be representing Tescher and Spallina as Respondents in their professional capacities at any of the Hearings and they were listed as Respondents both Personally and Professionally and therefore in their Professional capacity they have defaulted.

22. That Respondent Tescher & Spallina P.A. has similarly not been represented as a Respondent or filed responses to any pleadings filed by Petitioner and therefore appear to have defaulted.

23. That Manceri is now a Respondent in these matters in three capacities (Personally, Professionally and his law firm, Mark R. Manceri, P.A.) all for good and just cause, in part due to the Excellent work of Your Honor in exposing his involvement in perpetrating and attempting to cover up the criminal matters in the September 13, 2013 Hearing, leading to Your Honor's Miranda Warning statement to him and others and where despite Your Honor later stating Manceri may be excluded from Miranda Warnings, it has been learned after the Hearing that in the Hearing Manceri made false statements to this Court as already pled to this Court in prior Motions still largely unheard by this Court.

24. Manceri is now a listed Respondent in both his Personal and Professional capacities and his law firm of Mark R. Manceri, P.A. is also a Respondent and no one has filed a Notice of Appearance or is Attorney of Record representing Manceri Personally, Professionally or his law firm.

25. That Petitioner is unclear which capacities is he moving the Court under at hearings and in pleadings and if he is acting as counsel for himself Personally or Professionally and is he also representing his law firm or is he moving the court as counsel for Spallina and Tescher in their personal capacities or for Theodore individually or as alleged Personal Representative and Successor Trustee?

26. That other Respondents have also failed to appear or to respond to Pleadings of Petitioner timely since May 2013 and therefore anyone who has failed to appear in person for hearings or respond to Petitions and Motions filed, either Pro Se or through counsel appear to have defaulted.

27. That Manceri should also be removed from acting before this Court in any capacity until Petitioner's prior Motions and Petitions filed in this Court since May 2013 are heard in the order they were filed and in particular to each Motion, as some of them include allegations directly against Manceri for his alleged role in perpetrating a massive FRAUD ON THE COURT and for making false statements to the Court in a Hearing on September 13, 2013 before this Court regarding the FORGED and FRAUDULENT DOCUMENTS of Moran and the Fraud on the Court in the closing of the Estate of Shirley committed by his clients Tescher and Spallina.

28. That in the September 13, 2013 Hearing before this Court, Your Honor warned Manceri, Theodore, Spallina and Tescher that Your Honor had enough evidence of their Fraud on the Court and Beneficiaries at that moment that warranted reading them their Miranda Warnings, after learning that Simon had served as Personal Representative and Trustee for four months after he was deceased and closed Shirley's Estate while dead via an admitted to Fraud on the Court to close the Estate of Shirley. All in efforts to then change the Beneficiaries of Shirley's Estate through a series of alleged Fraudulent Documents that Petitioner claims are all FORGED and FRAUDULENT and legally deficient, including an alleged 2012 Will of Simon and an alleged 2012 Amended & Restated Trust of Simon, allegedly executed SIX weeks before Simon's death with Moran and Spallina executing these Wills and Trust documents as witness. That Simon's documents then were used to try and change Shirley's Beneficiaries of her Estate and Trusts and his own and these documents are all filed POST MORTEM FOR SIMON AND SHIRLEY and all suffer legal defects as already pled in Prior Motions of Petitioner largely unheard at this time in both courts.

29. That Spallina and Manceri in the September 13, 2013 Hearing did not inform Your Honor that Moran had committed FORGERY of SIX PEOPLE on SIX separate documents she wholly created from scratch and then affixed a Notary Public stamp on the documents she FORGED and instead continued the Fraud on the Court by continuing to attempt to Cover Up for her and their crimes in and upon this Court and the Beneficiaries and claimed in the Hearing that the documents were not forged and that she merely applied her Notary Stamp to the documents returned by the Court for Notarization and the signatures were not FORGED but signed by the parties listed, the same story Moran made in a sworn statement to the Governor's inquiry but which she later wholly contradicted to the Palm Beach Sheriff's Office where she claimed to investigators, "MORAN STATED THAT AT THIS TIME, SHE TOOK IT UPON HERSELF TO TRACE [aka FORGE] EACH SIGNATURE OF THE SIX MEMBERS OF THE BERNSTEIN FAMILY [including one for SIMON POST MORTEM] ONTO ANOTHER COPY [wholly new document] OF THE ORIGINAL WAIVER DOCUMENT. SHE THEN NOTARIZED THEM AND RESUBMITTED THEM TO THE COURT. WHEN I INTERVIEWED HER ON 9/24/13 SHE STATED SHE DID NOT REALLY HAVE A REASON SHE FORGED [EMPHASIS ADDED] THE SIGNATURES, OTHER THAN TO MAYBE SAVE TIME.[3]" [3] Palm Peach County Sheriff's Report Case No. 13097087 completed by Detective Ryan Miller.

30. That Moran has not been charged with Forgery at this time despite her admission and the fact that it wholly voids documents in the Estate and her current charges may not reflect her actual crimes as the current charges reflect her affixing a fraudulent notarization to documents that were signed by the people without their notice and used in official proceedings when in fact the documents were wholly Forged by Moran and then she affixed a Fraudulent Motarization on documents she wholly created and were not signed at all by the parties and were made wholly by Moran and not others. These matters of false official statements and perjury are being taken up currently with the State Attorney handling the Moran case and the Palm Beach County Sheriff to make sure we get it right on her charges.

31. That Moran in her statement above to Sheriff Investigator, Detective Ryan Miller, perjures her sworn statement to the Governor's Inquiry further when she makes contradictory statements as to her reason for committing the crimes to both agencies. First telling the Governor's office in a sworn statement she did it because she was acting to save a grieving family from stress over a month after Simon died and while she was under the influence of birth control drugs that made her do it. Then later to the Sheriff, she said she did it to save time. Finally, to this Court in the Evidentiary Hearing before Your Honor on October 28, 2013, by and through her attorney David Roth of Roth & Duncan law firm, claimed in efforts to attempt to soften the damages to Spallina and Tescher that she did it due to fear of retribution from her employer Tescher & Spallina, P.A., supposedly acting on her own without their supervision or knowledge and Roth should be investigated for these contradictory statements to the Court on behalf of his client Moran. These contradictory statements in three official proceedings is alleged to be perjury and false official statements and more and demands the answer to WHY she would do these crimes supposedly acting alone and then lie about it to three separate formal inquiries. Nothing Moran said or did can be trusted any longer and any documents she is involved with must be investigated forensically for further evidence of Fraud. Further, charges of Perjury and making False Official Statements in Official Proceeding should be added to her charges before he sentencing as well and well where there is smoke...

32. That worse yet, is Manceri and Spallina in the September 13, 2013 Hearing put forth the statements that the Waivers were not Forged and just improperly notarized and never stated to the Court the truth that the documents were FORGED, even when Your Honor questioned them on that directly in the Hearing further perpetrating and continuing the ongoing Fraud on the Court and Beneficiaries in an Cover Up attempt.

33. For more information on the mass of false statements made to this Court in the hearing see Petitions and Motions Filed by Petitioner above, (ix) section (II) MOTION TO FOLLOW UP ON SEPTEMBER 13, 2013 HEARING AND CLARIFY AND SET STRAIGHT THE RECORD for a more detailed account of the false statements of Manceri, Spallina and Theodore.

34. That Spallina also falsely claimed to this Court that he learned of Moran's crimes when she was contacted by the Florida Governor Rick Scott's Notary division she was being investigated by and this too is a big fat False Official Statement made by an Officer of the Court in an Official Proceeding before this Court. Spallina knew Moran Forged and Fraudulently Notarized the documents in May 2013 long before Moran was contacted by authorities, when he was served Petitioner's May 2013 Petition and he failed to take any actions to notify the Court or authorities at that time, in violation of Probate Rules and Statutes and Law.

35. That Your Honor warned Spallina, Manceri, Theodore and Tescher twice of Miranda Warnings and Your Honor on the second warning stated that Manceri "personally" might not be included in the reading of Miranda's but did not exclude Theodore, Tescher and Spallina from the second threat in any capacity or Manceri in his professional capacity.

36. Petitioner alleges that Manceri is directly involved in the nexus of criminal events occurring in the Estates of Shirley and Simon and also involved in a creditor lawsuit in Simon's Estate of a one, William Stansbury ("Stansbury"), where criminal acts and civil torts have been alleged against Theodore by Stansbury.

37. That Manceri is representing several parties in that Creditor lawsuit caused mainly by the actions of Theodore, including a company, Bernstein Family Realty LLC ("BFR") that is wholly owned by Petitioner's three minor children, a company that has been hijacked recently right before the September 13, 2013 Hearing by Manceri, Spallina and Theodore, in efforts to takeover illegally the entity and cause intentional harm on Petitioner and his three minor children in efforts to stop Petitioner having them further prosecuted and their other crimes exposed, as will be further defined herein. Information regarding the hijacking of BFR and other companies of Petitioner's family can be found @ http://www.iviewit.tv/20131229EIBResponseToTedBernsteinandDonaldTescherReEmergency Distributions.pdf , hereby fully included by reference herein. Initial information about these Extortionary tactics against Petitioner by those with ABSOLUTE IRREFUTABLE ADVERSE INTERESTS against him now were evidenced already herein in a filing with this Court listed in the Motions & Petitions Section above as Roman Numeral (ix) section (IV) MOTION TO COMPEL FOR IMMEDIATE, EMERGENCY RELIEF!!!, INTERIM DISTRIBUTIONS AND FAMILY ALLOWANCE FOR ELIOT, CANDICE & THEIR THREE MINOR CHILDREN DUE TO ADMITTED AND ACKNOWLEDGED FRAUD BY FIDUCIARIES OF THE ESTATE OF SHIRLEY AND ALLEGED CONTINUED EXTORTION.

38. That since Manceri now has been warned by Your Honor that Miranda's may be issued for him, his clients Tescher and Spallina and Theodore, for their illegal misconduct, they all now have ABSOLUTE IRREFUTABLE ADVERSE INTERESTS with Petitioner, who is trying to have them all further prosecuted for their role in the alleged crimes defined herein and pled in prior Petitions and Motions to this Court and who has filed criminal complaints with state and federal, civil and criminal, authorities against them all in a variety of ongoing actions.

39. For these reasons, all of Manceri's filings should be stricken from the Record and Manceri should be sanctioned for these violations of procedure by filing inappropriate pleadings aware that he has Adverse Interests with Petitioner and his family, Conflicts of Interest that preclude his myriad of representations and for his part in continuing and further an ongoing Fraud on this Court and Fraud on the Beneficiaries.

40. That suddenly, after an arrest is made and Manceri, Spallina, Tescher and Theodore are warned they may be the next ones apprehended when Your Honor had enough Prima Facie evidence of Fraud on the Court and Beneficiaries to read them their Miranda's twice, a bold new attempt has begun to Harass, Slander, Extort and Defame Petitioner as their only defense.

41. That another improperly filed pleading by Manceri filed recently as a "First Request to Produce Directed to Eliot Ivan Bernstein" and requesting Production of boatloads of documents of Petitioner and other information and should also be stricken as mere Harassment of the victim of their crimes, Petitioner. This Production request is in efforts to now cast a spell on Petitioner as if he were the one who filed FORGED and FRAUDULENT DOCUMENTS on the Court and Beneficiaries and not them. This pleading filed when Manceri was already aware of his Adverse Interests created when he became a Respondent in the proceedings and therefore knew he needed to withdraw as Counsel for any parties and immediately instead retain counsel for himself. Three, separate and distinct non-conflicted Attorneys at Law, to represent him for each capacity he is a Respondent and one separate and distinct Non Conflicted Attorney at Law to represent his law firm. Where even knowing today of his Adverse Interests and Conflict that preclude his further actions as counsel to any parties he still has not withdrawn as counsel and continues to act in violation of Attorney Conduct Codes and Law.

42. That if this Court decides to allow further improper pleadings from the Attorneys at Law involved in criminal acts, including Fraud Upon the Court and Beneficiaries while acting as Officers of the Court, including FILING FELONY FORGED AND FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED DOCUMENTS by counsel that are Court Appointed that now have absolute irrefutable Adverse Interests with Petitioner for his efforts to bring them to justice and Your Honor continues for some reason to ignore all this and continues to rule on these improperly filed pleadings and representations and allow them to pervert the record further with their attempt to pepper the record with false statements and more, then Petitioner asks that their pleadings only be heard in the order they were filed and after all of Petitioner's prior Motions and Petitions that remain almost entirely UNHEARD since May 2013 are heard first in the order they were filed and each Motion in Particular adjudicated on first before the next is heard and then we can get on to Manceri's improper pleadings.

43. That Petitioner believes this Court after hearing each of Petitioner's pleadings in particular to each Motion filed since May 2013 and largely unheard by this Court will show the Personal Representatives, Trustees and Counsel have violated virtually all of the legal and fiduciary requirements owed to the Beneficiaries and Interested Parties under Probate Rules and Statutes since day one of administering the Estates and that all those parties involved as Fiduciaries and Counsel that have acted thus far in the Estates of Shirley and Simon will be removed, sanctioned and imprisoned for their criminal acts and Manceri's inappropriate pleadings will languish in the garbage other than as evidence of their continued and ongoing Fraud on the Court and the Beneficiaries.

44. That from May 2013 forward when Spallina, Tescher, Manceri and Theodore were served Petitioner's first Petition to this Court, showing Irrefutable and Absolute evidence of FORGERY and FRAUDULENT NOTARIZATIONS in documents that were admitted to the record by Spallina and Tescher and approved by this Court up until the time of the September 13, 2013 Hearing before this Court regarding the FORGERIES and FRAUDS committed in and upon the Court by Officers of the Court, not one of them having this knowledge of criminal acts, neither Counsel and the alleged Fiduciaries to the Estates and Trusts of Shirley and Simon came forth to the Courts or criminal authorities to notify them of their knowledge that they closed the Estate of Shirley illegally, with illegally posited documents filed by a dead man, including but not limited to, six forgeries on six separate documents for six separate people, including a document Forged and Fraudulently notarized for Theodore and one forged for his deceased father POST MORTEM, violating their alleged Fiduciary Duties, Attorney Conduct Codes and Law, which would have required immediate reporting by them as Fiduciaries and Counsel of the criminal activities they were aware of to the Court and Authorities. Especially when they were DIRECTLY involved in the criminal activities and thus had prior knowledge well before Petitioner served them the Petition in May 2013 with the FORGED and FRAUDULENT documents attached. But did you really expect that they could turn themselves in and do the right thing under law to prosecute and jail themselves?

45. That in fact, none of them came forth until authorities came knocking on their doors. Even after authorities contracted them they did not notify the Court prior to the September 13, 2013 Hearing that they had knowledge of criminal acts they were all directly involved in and were committed in and upon the Court and Beneficiaries. Instead of coming clean to Your Honor at the Hearing they attempted to further conceal this information from the Court and continued the ongoing Fraud on the Court in hopes nobody would catch on and in the interim they could force Petitioner to Play or Pay with Extortionary tactics before he could fully expose them and have them prosecuted and tried before Your Honor and state and federal investigators could figure all this out. These Extortionary acts continue today and have been exacerbated since Your Honor has warned them that the end may soon be near by issuing them Miranda Warnings and almost reading them their rights, and they have therefore stepped up efforts to Harm, Harass, Slander and Extort Petitioner and cause grave and serious emotional and physical dangers and intentional financial harms on him, his wife Candice Bernstein ("Candice") and their three minor children all to try and stop Petitioner before he can have them prosecuted and jailed.

46. That instead of withdrawing from all fiduciary roles and acting as counsel any longer as required by Probate Rules and Statutes and Law, and confessing to their crimes honestly to the Courts and Authorities and APOLOGIZING TO THEIR VICTIMS, once they were notified of the crimes in May 2013, they instead concealed the information from the Courts, Authorities and Beneficiaries and hurried to commit a series of alleged Frauds on the Beneficiaries and Interested Parties to convert assets of the Estates ILLEGALLY to the wrong Beneficiaries through a series of further alleged criminal acts. The criminal acts alleged all involve Theodore and Pamela trying to convert assets in a variety of schemes, aided by Theodore's close personal friends and business associates Tescher and Spallina, in efforts of thwarting the last wishes and desires of Simon and Shirley that wholly exclude Theodore and Pamela and their lineal descendants from the Estates and Trusts.

47. That further it is alleged that they have begun a series of fraudulent activities to attempt to lower the value of the Estates from an estimated 20-42 Million as Petitioner has pled to the Court to Theodore and Spallina's ridiculous estimated only four million dollar total worth of both Estates that they claimed to Your Honor in response to your question in the September 13, 2013 Hearing. This amount they guesstimated to Your Honor does not even add up with the current assets Petitioner has discovered in the Estates thus far and which are part of the record. That this variance in estimates of worth is due to the fact that no accountings for the Estates or Trusts has been given to Petitioner or Beneficiaries and no Inventories of the Trusts of Simon and Shirley have been provided as required by Probate Rules and Statutes to the Beneficiaries. Therefore their numbers are wholly worthless and not exact as they should be with accounting of every last cent. Perhaps, we now know the reasons why the financial records are being suppressed and denied and the motive for why they would commit all these criminal acts, as there must be far more worth in the Estates than they are willing to disclose before they steal off with them and then say, see nothing was there, trust us despite their being no accounting for anything they claim.

48. That all of these crimes alleged benefit Theodore and Pamela directly to the disadvantage of Beneficiaries and where Theodore and Pamela were both wholly disinherited by both Simon and Shirley and were enraged with their father Simon at the time of his death for not including them back into the Estates plans. Even if the alleged changes to the Beneficiaries are somehow allowed by the Courts, both Theodore and Pamela remain wholly excluded from the Trusts of Simon and Shirley and this provides the reason for their efforts to abscond with the Estates and Trusts assets and fail to list them as assets of the Estates in inventories and hide financial records and estate documents while they try to convert assets in numerous illegal schemes.

49. That these frauds to convert the assets and to steal off with assets were aided by the fact that they concealed, suppressed and denied Estate documents, records and accountings from the Beneficiaries and even the alleged new Beneficiaries and continue denying and suppressing this information from either Petitioner as a Beneficiary or Petitioner as Guardian and Trustee for his three minor children as Beneficiaries and in so doing have violated endless amounts of Probate Rules and Statutes as prior pled by Petitioner in his Motions and Petitions filed with the Court since May 2013. New evidence of this concealment of assets from the Courts and Beneficiaries and alleged theft of the assets will be submitted herein that prove with Prima Facie evidence submitted herein that the inventories submitted in the Estates appear fraudulent and missing assets that they were wholly aware of prior to filing and have since absconded with and failed to account for as Fiduciaries and Counsel.

50. That since illegally seizing Dominion and Control of the Estates through a series of Forged and Fraudulent Documents used in both Estates, a continued Pattern and Practice of Fraudulent activities emerges by the alleged Fiduciaries and Counsel to steal off with assets and keep them from proper accountings to benefit themselves at the detriment of the Beneficiaries and Interested Parties. This concealment of information from the Beneficiaries has led to absolutely no transparency at all in the Estates, left the Beneficiaries with no proper accountings of their interests and is in violation of virtually all Probate Rules and Law, as properly pleaded in Petitioner's prior Pleadings and Motions filed and unheard in toto since May 2013.

51. That these obvious, vexatious and abuse of process pleadings filed inappropriately by Manceri and failure to represent Respondents properly and without conflict or adverse interests violate Attorney Conduct Codes and Probate Rules and Statutes and thus for the all the reasons stated herein, Manceri and his pleadings should be removed by this Court and Manceri sanctioned and reported for his involvement in attempting to continue this Fraud on the Courts and Fraud on the Beneficiaries in the Estates of Shirley and Simon and Manceri should be forced to immediately retain separate counsel as Respondent in the three capacities he is listed as Respondent for.

52. That this Court must instantly remove the Fiduciaries and Counsel who are Officers of the Court and whom continue to act before the Court in efforts to Cover Up their crimes and continue to maintain illegally gained Dominion and Control of the Estates and continue to Extort and Harass Petitioner, after they have all been exposed as involved in FORGERY, FRAUDULENT NOTARIZATIONS, FRAUD on the COURT, FRAUD on the Beneficiaries and more and this Court must instantly prevent them from further pleading and moving the Court in any way, especially in efforts to further Extort Petitioner and his family further and waste this Court's time and Petitioner's time and monies responding to this crap.

MOTION FOR EMERGENCY INTERIM DISTRIBUTIONS AND FAMILY ALLOWANCE

53. That due to the Court's failure to prevent absolute Adverse Interests and Conflicts from continuing between the alleged Fiduciaries and Counsel and the Beneficiaries and Interested Parties, especially with Petitioner who is having the current alleged Fiduciaries and Counsel criminally pursued by state and federal Authorities and civilly in State and Federal courts for their proven, admitted and alleged criminal acts, has allowed them to now further a Pattern and Practice of Extortion, Slander, Defamation and abuse of process against Petitioner. These acts all in attempts to cause harm to Petitioner and his family, including three minor children, by further illegally misusing their fiduciary capacities and legal and ethical obligations to harm and harass Petitioner before they can be further prosecuted and their whole scheme unraveled further. Especially, after the tip of the iceberg emerged with the arrest of Moran, then Spallina, Tescher, Theodore and Manceri, being caught by Petitioner and Your Honor perpetrating a Fraud on the Court, tendering FORGED and FRAUDULENT documents in the alleged Beneficiaries names and more and with state and federal criminal and civil actions filed against them by Petitioner.

54. That as these FORGERIES and FRAUDS took place in Your Honor's Court in part by Officers of Your Honor's Court and were approved by this Court, under Judicial Cannons and Law they should be sanctioned and reported by Your Honor to the proper State and Federal Authorities and State and Federal courts already involved and instantly removed from the proceedings in any capacities and all their prior pleadings and submissions stricken from the Record.

55. That this Court once it was aware of proven felonious acts by Officers of the Court should have seized all of their records and taken control of the Estate and Trusts assets to prevent further harm to the Beneficiaries and yet instead it appears the Court is attempting to look the other way obstructing justice and denying due process to Petitioner by refusing to hear his Pleadings and Motions in detail that have been filed since May 2013 and further failing to take the requisite actions against Officers of the Court who have violated Law and report all those involved in any of the crimes now proven and admitted and those alleged to all the proper authorities.

56. That the Court's continuing to allow them to operate in Fiduciary and Legal Capacities (and L-rd knows how legally this is happening) has only allowed the Adverse Interests to ferment and result in an Extortion of Petitioner and his family and attempts to Defame, Slander and Harass Petitioner and his family further in violation of Fiduciary Duties and Law and through further alleged fraudulent and criminal acts as defined herein and in prior pleadings filed by Petitioner that remain largely unheard.

57. That Simon and Shirley took elaborate estate planning steps to protect Petitioner and his family, through the creation of Trusts and the creation of several Entities designed specifically for them and their unique situation. These Entities are either wholly owned or are partially owned by Petitioner and his sisters Iantoni and Friedstein, including Bernstein Family Realty LLC ("BFR"), Bernstein Family Investments LLLP("BFI"), Bernstein Holdings, LLC ("BHL"), several pre created Trusts for Petitioner and his children and more. The records for some of these Entities can be found at http://www.iviewit.tv/BFR%20BFH%20BFI%20RECORDS.pdf and are fully incorporated by reference herein. These entities were designed while Simon and Shirley were alive and were created to protect the assets and inheritances of Petitioner and his family from exactly the type of crimes that are alleged to be now occurring by the Fiduciaries and Counsel.

58. That Simon and Shirley through these Entities paid for all expenses of Petitioner, Candice and their minor children for seven years prior to and after their deaths, for income, food, utilities, school through college and more and had set these up so that at their deaths the Entities would be funded with assets through Petitioner and his family's inheritances for many years to come due to special circumstances of Petitioner and his family, as more fully described in the May 2013 Petition in the section "The Elephant in the Room."

59. That Theodore and Spallina have now illegally seized control of BFR approximately three months ago in late August 2013 and have since begun an Extortionary campaign to shut Petitioner and his family down by illegally gaining control of BFR through an unauthorized and prohibited transfer of Manager Title in BFR from Oppenheimer to Theodore, without Petitioner's consent as required under BFR's bylaws and begin to play games with Petitioner's utilities, school expenses, food monies and more, all which are controlled for years through BFR and Petitioner does even get the bills sent to him at his address.

60. That the transfer of Manager Title in BFR is also questioned after Simon died as to how Oppenheimer was elected Manager and acted in such capacity, without Members approving of such transfer. That Oppenheimer similarly transferred Manager Title to Theodore without requisite notice to Members (The Members of BFR are DANIEL BERNSTEIN IRREVOCABLE TRUST dated September 7, 2006, JAKE BERNSTEIN IRREVOCABLE TRUST dated September 7, 2006 and JOSHUA Z. BERNSTEIN IRREVOCABLE TRUST dated September 7, 2006 who own 33.3% of BFR each) and without their consent and approval as required under BFR's records, which state;

> "5.1.2 Initial Managers/Designation of Managers/Voting. The Members agree that the initial Manager of the Company is SIMON BERNSTEIN. Unless otherwise specifically agreed herein, business decisions of the Company shall be made by said Manager. The Members shall vote their Interests such that only the aforementioned person is Manager of the Company for so long as he is alive and not mentally disabled or incompetent. After proper notice, in the event of death or mental disability or incompetence of the Manager, the Members shall vote on and elect a new Manager."
> "5.7 Resignation. Any Manager of the Company may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Members of the Company. The resignation of any Manager shall take effect upon receipt of notice thereof or at such later date specified in such notice; and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. The resignation of a Manager who is also a Member shall not affect the Manager's rights as a Member and shall not constitute a withdrawal of a Member.
> "5.9 Vacancies. To the extent not expressly provided for in Section 5.1.2 "Voting Agreement of Members," and only to said extent, if any: Any vacancy occurring for any reason in the number of Managers of the Company may be filled by the affirmative vote of Members holding a majority of the Percentage Interests present at an election at a meeting of Members called for that purpose or by the Members' unanimous written consent. A Manager elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of their predecessor in office and shall hold office until the expiration of such term and until their successor shall be elected and qualified or until the Manager's earlier death, resignation or removal. A > Manager chosen to fill a position resulting from an increase in the number of Managers shall hold office until his successor shall be elected and qualified, or until his earlier death, resignation or removal.

> From Bernstein Family Investments we find the following language,
> "6. Business and Purposes. The purpose and business of the Partnership shall be the ownership, investment, management and control of the Property and other investment properties (including, without limitation, investments in real property, loans, business enterprises, marketable securities, either directly or through interests in corporations, limited partnerships, limited liability companies, and other entities), to provide a means for the BERNSTEIN family to own investment property and preserve its assets, and to conduct such other activities as may be necessary or appropriate to promote such business and purposes, it being agreed that each of the foregoing is an ordinary part of the Partnership's business. In addition to the foregoing, or as part thereof, the Partnership shall accomplish among other things the following: (a) maintain control over BERNSTEIN family assets contributed to it, (b) consolidate fractional interests in BERNSTEIN family assets, (c) seek to increase BERNSTEIN family wealth, (d) establish a method by which gifts can be made without fractionalizing BERNSTEIN family assets, (e) provide protection to BERNSTEIN family assets from future claims against members of the families, (t) facilitate the administration and reduce the costs associated with the disability or probate of the estate of members of the BERNSTEIN family, (g) provide a mechanism to resolve BERNSTEIN family disputes, and (h) if applicable, hold restricted securities until such securities become unrestricted and free of underwriting limitations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Partnership shall not engage in any other business without the prior consent of Limited Partners owning (in the aggregate) at least eighty (80%) percent of the limited partnership Interests owned by the Limited Partners."

61. That Petitioner does not recall a vote to transfer Manager Role to Janet Craig of Oppenheimer after Simon's death or from Janet Craig to Theodore on Spallina's direction in August of 2013 after the heat was on them. Janet Craig claims she transferred the Manager role to Theodore who volunteered for it and she obliged in transferring it to him, as stated in her email of August 28, 2013 that she copied both Theodore and Spallina on and wherein she states,

"Please be advised [Eliot] that we will not be paying bills during this transition period. Ted Bernstein has agreed to become the Managing Member of Bernstein Family Realty and all questions regarding the payment of household bills should be directed to him."

62. That Janet Craig at the time of this transfer knew that Petitioner was pursuing criminally and civilly both Theodore and Spallina and yet transferred Manager title to them despite knowledge of their adverse interests with Petitioner and she did this on the direction of Spallina and Theodore.

63. That by illegally gaining control over BFR, which receives all the bills for Petitioner's family and their home and which has paid them continuously, promptly and without interruption for almost seven years, both prior to Simon's and Shirley's passing and after, suddenly, when Theodore took charge almost four months ago, ALL the bills have become seriously past due and utilities, including phone, internet, etc. have been turned off with no notice to Petitioner and Theodore is further denying he has anything to do with paying the bills or BFR to various parties as evidenced herein already @ http://www.iviewit.tv/20131229ElBResponseToTedBernsteinandDonaldTescherReEmergency Distributions.pdf and already included by reference in entirety herein.

64. That an example of what is going on to harm Petitioner's family through these games, is the recent loss of home security, which puts Petitioner's family at risk of theft, fire and more and may cause a lapse in Homeowners coverage or price increases without it on the home owned by BFR, in the following series of email communications,

Hi Sue,

Below is a letter from Janet Craig, CTFA ~ Senior Vice President & Compliance Officer @ Oppenheimer Trust Company (Janet.Craig@opco.com) who was handing the bills for Bernstein Family Realty (BFR) as Manager since Simon died. Simon was Manager of BFR prior, which owns the house we live in. Janet has been paying your bills for the last year as Manager of BFR. As you can see from Janet's letter to Ted it is clear that Ted volunteered for the job of paying the bills of BFR a few months ago when your bills suddenly and unexpectedly began not to be paid. As I do not even get the bills for the last 7 or so years this all seems strange to me that Ted seems to not know he has assumed responsibility for BFR's bills when in fact, since Ted was copied on the Oppenheimer letter below and assumed responsibility as the letter indicates, I am not sure why he told you what he did not as it appears to be a lie. Perhaps you would like to call Janet Craig, CTFA ~ Senior Vice President & Compliance Officer @ Oppenheimer Trust Company (Janet.Craig@opco.com)the former Manager of BFR at (973) 245-4635 and check who is Manager of BFR and she has transferred the position to Ted yet or if she is still paying the bill. I do believe the BFR home owners insurance may also require your services to be on and she or Ted, whoever is handling these matters may want to notify the carrier of the lapse in service. You may also want to contact Robert Spallina and Donald Tescher of Tescher & Spallina, P.A. law firm as they are also involved with Simon's estate and may know about the bills for BFR that Simon was paying for years and who and how is now paying them, since they I believe directed Janet to transfer the Manager role and bills to Ted.

I am very sorry for any confusion but as you can see from Janet's letter I really have nothing to do with the bills until we needed a battery and I made a call, which is about the extent of my involvement with your company in the many years of past service that has never been interrupted until recently when Ted took things over. I have never paid your bills I just live in the house that is owned by BFR and I guess if Ted is denying his involvement despite the evidence I too am unsure what to do and feel like I am caught in the middle to as I am not even on the account. I apologize for any problems this has caused you and understand your need to take actions against the appropriate parties, of which I am not one.

Candice

Hi Candice, this is truly a very unfortunate situation, and we are caught in the middle of it, we responded to your request for the battery and dropshipped it to you in good faith. I really do not understand why you would give me the wrong information.

We will cancel this account today and hand it over for collection, but I wanted you to know that Mr Ted Bernstein says he is not responsible for the account.

Thank you

Sue

Hi Ted,

The monitoring fees for this account has not been paid since 10/1/13, and we also sent out a battery in October when Candice called in and requested it. The invoice was sent to you because Candice advised us that the house is now part of Bernstein Family Realty, and you will process the invoices for payment.

The past due accounts are scheduled to be disabled today at close of business, and the monitoring discontinued. You may remedy the situation by bringing the account up to date before 3pm.

Thank you

65. That Reimbursements for food, medical needs and more have not been paid back to Petitioner's wife Candice since the day Theodore took over, as they have for years to provide for Petitioner's family's life sustaining funds for food, medical, etc. and these acts have basically starved Petitioner and his family and thrown great economic disasters upon them with intent and scienter intensifying for the last three months since Moran's arrest and this Court's failure to remove them from fiduciary and legal capacities.

66. That school trust funds set aside for Petitioner's children and funded prior to the deaths of Simon and Shirley were then illegally misused to pay for Petitioner's expenses on the direction of Spallina who directed Oppenheimer to use the funds with no authority to do so and with the promise that he would replenish and replace them as needed from monies from the Estates if they were exhausted while he waited to receive monies in the Estates. When it came time to replace those funds, Spallina refused Oppenheimer's request and intentionally and with intent to harm Petitioner drained these funds and overnight has left Petitioner now with no school funds for his children, no funds for utilities and food three months that are past due three months without notice and which funds were supposed to have been available through their inheritances and all this misuse of funds was on the direction of Spallina, Tescher and Theodore with Oppenheimer. Where there would be no need for Emergency funds and distributions from anyone if it were not for all of these delays in the final distributions of the inheritances due to proven and alleged criminal acts and civil torts. Petitioner already has pled these matters to the Court in prior Motions filed that remain unheard in particular to these claims of Extortion as already exhibited herein.

67. That Your Honor at the September 13, 2013 Hearing did not think Petitioner's Motion was an Emergency because no one was without food, medical or utilities at that moment on that day. Despite at the Hearing Your Honor learning of FORGERIES, FRAUDULENT NOTARIZATIONS, a FRAUD ON THE COURT by using a DEAD MAN TO CLOSE THE ESTATE AS IF ALIVE and FRAUD ON THE BENEFICIARIES, this Court surprisingly did not deem these criminal acts committed in Your Honor's court alone enough to constitute an Emergency in and of itself. However, since the Hearings, things have been worse every day and food monies and utilities have been shut off without notice by the fiduciaries Theodore, Spallina and Tescher, in attempts to further extort Petitioner to Play or Pay and take monies in the Estate to the improper parties despite knowing the Beneficiaries are going to have to now be litigated as learned at the October 28, 2013 hearing before Your Honor and this would amount to participating in illegal conversion of assets and Petitioner has refused to take monies that are from illegal transactions.

68. That Theodore and Spallina working together to seize BFR are now selectively and without notice ceasing payments of school, monies for food and medical, school trips and sporting events of the children, all without any prior notice to Petitioner and slowly starving the children and family, costing Petitioner large deposits to be lost, the children possibly removed from school shortly due to lack of payment for three months and more. For example, two of Petitioner's children have now missed, due to lack of final payment, an opportunity long in the making and in large part due to the efforts of Simon, to play with an International Israeli Lacrosse Team and travel to Poland and Israel and play in both countries with Professional Athletes and coached by Harvard's assistant coach Ben Smith & Florida's own Jeff Goldberg. This trip was already deposited for, plane tickets purchased nonrefundable, jersey's made and rosters completed, a final payment was due and the bill transitioned from Oppenheimer to Theodore, Spallina and Tescher and despite multiple written requests transmitted to all parties requesting payment or knowledge as to what was happening with the bill, as the children were to lose their spots and deposits and tickets, they all failed to respond timely. After weeks of no response, hours after the expiration deadline and the children's spots given to other children, Theodore responded that he chose not pay the deposit as he did not think it prudent.

69. That had Petitioner and his children's inheritances not been intentionally and criminally delayed, in violation of Probate Rules and Statutes and Law and further interfered with from the onset, monies from the inheritances and Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley would have flowed properly into Trusts and Entities established for Petitioner and his children and the monies would have flowed seamlessly into BFR, BFI and BHL and directly to Petitioner and his children to fund their living expenses for many years to come as designed by Simon and Shirley without needing anyone to determine the prudence.

70. That Petitioner was to be Manager of these entities or elected Managers to work with him, further providing his family income from managing the assets in them and that Spallina, Tescher, Theodore and Manceri have instead illegally interfered with these entities and without authority to perpetrate this Extortion and to deny Petitioner and his family income and other assets that would have paid for their expenses.

71. That the Estates have enough liquid funds to release funds in the interim to cover these Emergency needs of Petitioner's family while these matters caused by the Fiduciaries and Counsel are being settled both civilly and criminally and the Beneficiaries determined by both courts.

72. That if or why Petitioner is employed to pay these expenses suddenly heaped upon his family due to the delay's caused wholly by others responsible for delaying these funds being transferred to the proper Beneficiaries is irrelevant as this Court and the Fiduciaries are the ones who are responsible to the Beneficiaries for the damages being caused by the delays in the transference of the inheritances to the proper parties by Officers of this Court in part due to a Fraud in and upon this Court and the Beneficiaries. Where such delays will now be furthered while these criminal and civil matters are resolved as pointed out by Your Honor in the September 13, 2013 Hearing and yet, Your Honor allows them to continue to operate as Officers of this Court and as Fiduciaries despite their proven involvement in criminal acts that they are wholly liable for and allows them to further Extort and Harass Petitioner. Therefore, the need for EMERGENCY DISTRIBUTIONS due to these intentional delays and criminal acts by Officers of the Court and Fiduciaries appointed by the Court has now become life threatening to Petitioner and his family, including three minor children and this Court must order on its own Motion if necessary EMERGENCY INTERIM DISTRIBUTIONS and set up on its own Motion an EMERGENCY HEARING TO DO SO.

MOTION FOR FULL ACCOUNTING DUE TO ALLEGED THEFT OF ASSETS AND FALSIFIED INVENTORIES

73. That on January 11, 2013, two years after Shirley's death Petitioner received, an un-docketed with the Court, alleged Inventory of Shirley after years of it being denied to Petitioner from her date of death on December 08, 2010 to May 2012 when Petitioner finally learned he was a Beneficiary of the Estate, to January 2013 when he finally received it.

74. That Petitioner had to retain counsel to finally get piecemeal information requested from Tescher and Spallina, including the Inventory that were all legally due Petitioner but had been suppressed and denied with intent. Due to the repeated refusals of Tescher and Spallina to turn over the records to Petitioner, in violation of Probate Rules and Statutes, which has already been pled ad nauseum to this Court in Petitioner's prior pleadings that are largely unheard at this time, Petitioner was forced to retain counsel and was threatened by Spallina as evidenced in prior pleadings that he would be treated unkindly if he did.

75. That an example will show how Petitioner's counsel was then abused by Spallina and Tescher, running up huge bills in order to secure records and information legally owed to Petitioner and his children and further show how Spallina and Tescher were forcing costly litigation, another tactic to bleed the Estates in legal fees from their intentional misconduct. Petitioner then retained Tripp Scott law firm and Christine Yates, Esq. as counsel to secure records after months of refusal by Spallina and Tescher to turn over ANY records or financial information to Petitioner regarding his family's inheritance. Further, after learning of conflicts forced upon Petitioner by a lost insurance policy and a lost insurance trust of Simon's that then put him and his children in conflict for the proceeds, Yates was forced to then separate her representation for only Petitioner's children and Petitioner then was representing himself Pro Se to avoid Petitioner's OBVIOUS conflicts caused by Spallina and Tescher's lack of care of marshaling the missing insurance policy and trust. After Yates repeatedly requested information due to Petitioner, the following letter exchange illustrates between Attorney at Law Yates and another Attorney at Law, Marc R. Garber, Esq. who consults Petitioner on his RICO and other matters, the adversarial role Spallina and Tescher to Petitioner and Petitioner's COUNSEL becomes even more evident and Petitioner quotes from their letter exchange,

Christine:

I had difficulty sleeping, as I was sorting through our conversation. What troubles me has troubled me in prior situations. Spallina is not the first "bully lawyering" situation I have seen or heard about. "If you scream loud enough and pound the table hard and often, the other side will cave". It troubles me that many times this approach works. Sometimes it becomes a fee and time matter, other situations result in the good lawyer becoming tired of dealing with "hard headed" uncompromising opponent. I have heard some people actually seek out a bully lawyer for these reasons. The reasons include the fact that they win using this approach. Further, and as you implied, with all the time you expended, Spallina gave us very little, in terms of everything; from documents to involvement in the administration.
It truly troubles me that Spallina continues to spin his web of deceit, and I believe this conduct is further circumstantial evidence that "something is very wrong". I am very glad Eliot filed whatever he filed and I do hope he prevails. I also hope Spallina is removed and perhaps punished for all he is doing. It also troubles me that once he learns of your withdrawal, Spallina will celebrate his victory. If I was licensed in Florida, I would take this on pro bono. Simply out of principal, and I would make certain a probate judge learns of Spallina's behavior. Unfortunately, I am not a Florida lawyer. If Eliot is able to get his motions before a probate judge, I hope he asks and you agree to testify as to how Spallina treated you. A judge may take real notice of that testimony.

Thanks,
Marc

Eliot and Candace, first I am glad that you are feeling better Eliot.

I have made no progress with Spallina in regards to obtaining documents and in my last call with him and Mark Manceri, Mr. Spalllina reiterated his position that the mortgage on the property you are currently residing in was what your father wanted, and that any information regarding the trust of your father would have to be addressed to your brother as trustee.

At this time, in order to receive the information you want, I believe you will need to institute legal proceedings against the estate and trust. Since a new course of action will need to be undertaken, at this time, I will be withdrawing as counsel for your children, and believe that you should now hire separate litigation counsel for them. I will be happy to assist your new counsel in providing them with any information and thank you for the opportunity you gave me to assist you.

76. That instead of the alleged Co-Personal Representatives of Simon's Estate, Spallina and Tescher paying for counsel to review their insurance trust scheme they proposed due to an alleged lost policy and trust scheme (and if you believe that I have a bridge) and instead Spallina was forcing the legal costs to come out of Pre Funded School Trust funds of Petitioner's children, along with the other BFR bills, etc. all on his direction with Oppenheimer, all without legal authority. As illustrated in the following correspondence regarding why Yates was resigning as counsel, Your Honor can see how they are forcing economic ruin with scienter upon Petitioner and his family further through more dubious and alleged illegal acts and intentionally caused large legal fees and costs,

Marc, it was nice to speak with you yesterday. As we discussed, the reasons for the the termination of my representation were due to the insufficiency of funds in the trust accounts and the the corresponding increase in litigation that would need to be filed in order to move this case forward. It is always a difficult decision as an attorney to proceed with litigation, using all funds in a trust to do so without a guarantee of results. This leaves the attorney in a difficult position with the trust beneficiary, their client...[omitted]

Thank you again for you time in speaking with me yesterday.

77. That at the October 28, 2013 hearing Theodore claimed while testifying that to the best of his knowledge, his mother Shirley was only worth in Personal Property not allocated in trusts, USD $25,000.00. It should be noted that this was the last year unlimited marital transfers were allowed and therefore it would have benefited Simon to have inventoried and listed as many assets in Shirley's name, knowing no tax on the transfer would take place on any amount. Being a sophisticated Pioneer in estate planning tools almost his entire life, Simon would not have hid any assets or lowered their values to get them under a taxable amount as there was no fear of taxation and listing them in full was the advantage.

78. That on October 28, 2013 in an Evidentiary Hearing before this Court, Petitioner received an Inventory in the Estate of Simon electronically filed on June 11, 2013 (10 months after his DOD) unsealed by Your in Honor from Judge French's court and given to Petitioner for the first time. That again, this Inventory had been suppressed and denied from the Beneficiaries and Interested Parties in violation of Probate Rules and Statutes up until the Evidentiary Hearing, over a year after Simon's passing.

79. That on December 30, 2013 Petitioner received a NEW Amended Inventory of Simon, after this Court unsealed the previous one in the October 28, 2013 Evidentiary Hearing and suddenly the amount of Simon's personal properties flourished with many new assets making the amount TEN TIMES what it was when the first one was allegedly done, illustrating the further failure to marshal the assets properly, as some of the new additions like a Promissory Note on Petitioner's children's home is listed. That Spallina and Tescher knew of this Promissory Note because they drafted and had executed the document and knew it was to be tossed in the garbage when Simon died but now apparently to threaten Petitioner that they (his siblings) are planning on stealing the home his children own and divvying it up between them using this Note have conveniently have added it to the Amended Inventory. The children's home and how it was being protected through the Promissory Note is further detailed in the May 2013 Petition filed with this Court and the question now becomes if Spallina and Tescher knew of this $365,000 Promissory Note to Simon as an asset from day one, why did they fail to list it on his inventory for 15 months, until now that they are adverse to Petitioner for having one of their own arrested and hostile in fact knowing they may be next.

80. This Amended Inventory in Simon also added some other items that Spallina and Tescher should have known about from day one, including bank accounts and more and appear to be added after realizing through Petitioner's pleadings and the creditor Stansbury's pleading in Simon's Creditor action against the Estate of Simon, which notified the Courts and Authorities that assets were missing from the Inventory of Simon and therefore this Amended Inventory of Simon is a Cover Your Butt attempt to plug holes and further Extort Petitioner, amended sixteen months after Simon's death. It should be noted here that Simon's Estate was ordered closed by Judge French by October 02, 2013 and the deadline for closing was missed and no extensions filed, in further violation of Probate Rules and Statutes. Again, no Inventories or Accountings have been provided for the Trusts in either the Estate of Shirley or Simon at this time, also in violation of Probate Rules and Statutes and making accurate accounting of the Estate impossible by Beneficiaries.

81. That after reviewing the Inventories, it has become apparent that Personal Property assets of Shirley were not listed in the Inventories of Shirley and Simon. That these missing assets, once properly accounted for and inventoried would have then transferred to Simon but instead the items PETITIONER DISCOVERED were wholly excluded from both Inventories, as if they vanished into thin air and did not exist at all. That for Simon to have done anything with these assets of Shirley's he would have first had to legally inventory them on her Personal Property list and then have them transferred tax free through the estate plans to himself.

82. That full audits of the Estates are now needed due to these findings by Petitioner, by forensic experts that should include tax returns for 10 years personally and for any/all corporate entities they owned, ten years of bank accounts of Simon and Shirley and all other information owed to Beneficiaries and Interested Parties under Probate Rules and Statutes. The reason bank accounts are necessary now is because evidence was presented in the May 2013 Petition filed with this Court and largely unheard at this time, that Spallina and Tescher were found directing others to use Simon Bernstein's bank account for BFR months after his death and where when Legacy Bank discovered that Simon was dead and no one had notified them and people were using the account who were not authorized to use the account, well they FROZE the accounts of Simon and demanded to speak to the Personal Representative. Spallina was not a Manager of BFR at this time as Simon had died and no successor was voted in per the bylaws until Spallina nominated with no authority Janet Craig to the Manager position and directed her actions forward with no authority to take over BFR.

83. That Petitioner has requested and repeatedly been denied the full accounting of the BFR accounts at Legacy Bank that were frozen and allegedly funds were transferred to Oppenheimer to a new BFR account in order to see how much money was in the Legacy Bank account when Simon died and how much transferred over once the account was frozen months after his death, due to the FELONY MISUSE of a bank account under FL laws under, all under the direction of Spallina knowingly and acting as the fiduciary to use a DEAD Simon's account for months in a company BFR that he had no legal authority to act in any way under.

84. That with the damning evidence of PROVEN AND ADMITTED FORGERY, FRAUD ON THE BENEFICIARIES, FRAUD ON THE COURT and more, this Court should have already called in the cavalry and made arrests from evidence the Court has that Officers of the Court are involved in criminal acts worthy of being read their Miranda Rights by Your Honor and then this Court should have instantly ordered a seizure of all original documents, records and assets and demanded full forensically audited financials and forensic document verification and simultaneously notified the proper authorities of ALL the crimes this Court now has knowledge of. Further, this Court should force restitutions to the victims instantly and further forcing bonding and surety and payment of all Petitioner's and other injured parties legal costs by those who caused the costs and the Court should be acting on its own Motions after taking Judicial Notice of FORGERY AND FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED DOCUMENTS, FRAUD ON THE COURT, FRAUD ON THE BENEFICIARIES and more, to achieve protection of the Estates and Beneficiaries and certainly not waiting for Petitioner who is Pro Se to plead all this correctly, as these crimes proven and admitted were done by Officers of Your Court, the Fiduciaries of the Estates YOU APPROVED and YOU are allowing to continue to operate in YOUR Court and their contracted and supervised employees who they are wholly liable for under FL Law.

85. That anything that ANY of these parties who were acting in anyway in the commissioning of these crimes have done in the past is questionable and anything they do in trying to remedy these situations now, after the fact that they have been caught, are not trusted by Petitioner due to, including but not limited to;

i. the Forgery and Fraudulent Notarization of Petitioner's name on documents filed with the Court that they all participated in,

ii. the POST MORTEM Forgery and POST MORTEM Fraudulent Notarization of Petitioner's father name on documents filed with the Court that they all participated in,

iii. the fact that they then illegally used Simon's identity Post Mortem to file a series of documents to close the Estate of Shirley and then allegedly attempted to change the Beneficiaries of Shirley's with other documents that appear legally deficient and alleged Fraudulent and Forged in Simon's Estate,

iv. the Fraud on the Court and Beneficiaries already proven committed by Officers of this Court,

v. the Bank fraud alleged in the misuse of a dead persons accounts knowingly and with intent,

vi. the Violations of Petitioner's family Entities and alleged criminal acts thereunder, and,

vii. the ongoing alleged, Insurance Fraud, Fraud on a Federal Court, Theft of Assets, Violation after Violation of Probate Rules and Statutes and Law, Extortion and more, as previously pled also in Petitioner's Motions and Petitions already languishing for months before this Court and exhibited herein.

86. That Petitioner has recently come into possession of an American Home Assurance Company Policy containing a Private Collection Coverage Policy Number PCG0001332360, Effective date August 10, 2009, containing a schedule of Shirley's Jewelry insured for a value of $613,932.00, evidenced herein as EXHIBIT 1, which Petitioner alleges is a fraction of the value of her total Jewelry owned at that time and at the time of her death that is now missing from both Estates and was not inventoried as her personal property and does not show up in Simon's personal property either. Even if it is alleged Simon gave it away or ate it, for him to have done so the items would have to have been listed on Shirley's Inventory and then transferred legally to him to do as he pleased. If he gifted them later, gift tax returns and more would have to have been filed and still would have been listed as Shirley's personal properties first before the gifts were made by Simon.

87. That Petitioner alleges that Tescher, Spallina and Theodore knew about this Policy and its contents insured thereunder that were Personal Property of Shirley and that they have intentionally and with scienter suppressed and denied this information from both the Court Petitioner and left these items off the Inventories intentionally to steal off with the assets.

88. That there are also alleged to be Appraisals done for Shirley's Jewelry shortly before her death for various items that also appears to have gone missing from the Estate records that were kept with each item that further confirm the value of many of Shirley's jewels. That if these jewels were added as her Personal Property, then Theodore and Spallina's testimony in the October 28, 2013 Hearing before this Court that she had only $25,000.00 in personal property would be grossly off in just in the missing Jewelry alone. Again, the advantage for Simon at the time with no taxable transfer was to list it all on Shirley's Inventory, which being an expert Estate planner he would have done.

89. That Shirley's Jewelry does not appear in the Inventories and where Petitioner's father and mother had stated that bequeathments of various items were to be distributed with certain items going to individual Beneficiaries and others but those too appear missing from the Estate documents and Petitioner claims these too are being suppressed and denied, in violation of Probate Rules and Statutes.

90. That it is alleged that after Shirley died, on a visit to see Simon, Petitioner's sisters, Pamela Simon ("P. Simon"), Jill Iantoni ("Iantoni") and Lisa Friedstein ("Friedstein") removed from the Estate Shirley's Personal Properties, while their father thought they were cleaning out her closets and organizing things. Instead they overnight took off with and shipped boxes and boxes of Shirley's Personal Effects and took all of her Jewelry, Minks, Art and other valuable objects of hers.

91. On information and belief this removal of the property was claimed by P. Simon, Iantoni and Friedstein in order to prevent theft of the items from Simon's assistant, Rachel Walker and later his companion and friend, Maritza Rivera Puccio ("Puccio"), who they claimed were going to rob Simon of Shirley's personal properties and therefore they were taking them to Chicago to their homes to protect them.

92. That later when Petitioner questioned Spallina and Tescher and his siblings on where the items were, as some were told to Petitioner by his Mother that they were being bequeathed to him, his wife and children, they attempted to then claim these were gifts to them by Simon and that they have no records of what they removed or inventories of the items that were allegedly now gifted to them.

93. That the problem with this story is that they were Shirley's Personal Property on the day she died and therefore had to be legally listed on her Inventory first before they could become Simon's to gift and Simon would not have committed tax evasion or other criminal acts to improperly transfer assets to himself. Petitioner and his children have not received one item of the Personal Property of Shirley's or the missing Jewelry, despite being Beneficiaries to either a 1/3 or 1/5 of the items depending on the ultimate beneficiaries determined by the courts.

94. That Petitioner has requested to see the Tax Returns of Simon and Shirley to confirm that at minimum, this $613,932.00 of Jewelry was ever gifted legally but he and his children's former counsel were denied all such requests for information.

95. That Petitioner is aware of a Bentley automobile paid for in full as a gift from Simon to Shirley, owned and titled to Shirley and driven exclusively by Shirley for several years prior to her death that is also not listed on the Inventory of Shirley as Personal Property, again just vanishing into thin air, no accounting of it, no inventorying of it, poof. Again, even if Simon had later sold the car or ate it, he would have first had to inventory the item as an asset of her Estate.

96. That Petitioner has checked the Inventory of Simon and the items missing from Shirley's Inventory that are on the insurance policy do appear listed on Simon's Inventory or his recently Amended Inventory either.

97. That in fact, on December 20, 2013 Petitioner received an Amended Inventory of Simon that also failed to include the missing Jewelry and automobile but was amended to add a ten time increase in assets, as discussed already herein.

98. That these missing and unaccounted for assets of Shirley and Simon's Estates that appear to have gone missing from the Inventories, despite whether they were gifted, sold or ate, remain wholly unaccounted for, evidencing further foul play and egregious bad faith in marshaling the assets of the Estates, in violation of Probate Rules and Statutes and Law. Further, complaints have recently been lodged criminally for the alleged Theft of these assets, as claims will have to be filed with the insurance companies to collect on the stolen items or have them returned in toto or accounted for if they were sold or otherwise transacted.

99. That Petitioner is requesting now that the Estate of Shirley is reopened, a full and forensic accounting and inventorying of Shirley and Simon's Estates and Trusts, including ALL DOCUMENTS and RECORDS filed in the Court by any Party and an auditing of the Court records and files to further determine the extent of the criminal acts uncovered.

100. That due to these new discoveries in the Estate Inventories, FULL accounting is necessary and it was learned in the October 28, 2013 hearing that Spallina claimed that he did no inventorying of Shirley's Personal Property assets at all and relied only an alleged phone call with Simon to assess her worth, where Simon allegedly stated she was only worth $25,000.00 to his counsel Spallina. That Simon then allegedly signed this inventory and in so doing was committing fraud as he knew of the Jewelry and auto of Shirley, as did Robert Spallina, Tescher and Theodore.

101. That this Court must now overturn its prior Order to not deal with documents in Shirley's estate that were filed by Simon to close the Estate while he was "serving" as Personal Representative while alive and this Inventory of Shirley's that was ALLEGEDLY FILED while Simon was alive must now be evaluated and investigated further and is now challenged as to its authenticity based on this new information of missing assets, despite when it was alleged filed by Simon either alive or dead.

102. That this is NOT one of the documents that were served illegally for Simon by Tescher and Spallina Post Mortem upon the Court, used as if he were alive and "serving" them to the Court while he was dead and while legally one cannot serve anything while dead as Personal Representative, this is allegedly one of the documents Simon signed while allegedly alive. This would appear as possible tax evasion and theft of assets for no reason committed by Simon and Spallina in preparing this Inventory falsely and therefore the document becomes suspect and where items are then found missing that everyone had knowledge of and possession of and distributions were made between certain family members (not a single item to Petitioner) and all this information concealed from the Courts and Petitioner, which again should sound a FIRE ALARM IN THE COURT to take further instant action to call in the cavalry and FREEZE THE ESTATES and REMOVE THE PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES AND COUNSEL and more.

103. That now with proven factual evidence of Post Mortem Forgery of Simon's name on documents submitted on his behalf while dead and now this Inventory which appears to be falsified, there is need to review ALL the documents of Shirley and Simon's Estates forensically and call in the Attorney General or State Attorney to investigate all the documents used to perpetrate the Fraud on the Court, who prepared what and when, who signed what and when, who docketed what and when and more. Further this Court must now turn over any logs and records of the Courts for injured parties to have discovery on and determine who exactly was involved and if the documents are legitimate and properly entered into the record and therefore no documents pre or post Simon's death filed and served on his behalf with the Court or ANY documents should be excluded at this time from further investigation and they should instead be opened widely for inspection by Petitioner and the Authorities. Again, this Court should force the costs and legal expenses be burdened to the responsible parties and not come from the victimized Estates or victimized Beneficiaries and Interested Parties.

104. That this Court should take further Judicial Notice of the crimes, proven admitted and alleged in this case thus far and again act on its own Motions as required by Judicial Cannons and Law to report all those Attorneys at Law and Officers of this Court involved thus far in any way and the criminal matters of Fraud on the Court and Fraud on the Beneficiaries to the proper authorities and cease their ability to further harm and damage Petitioner and his family.

105. That for all these reasons Petitioner's Motion for Full and Formal Forensic Accounting and Document Analysis be granted and paid for by those parties who have caused these problems through criminal acts and more and the costs should not be burdened further on the victims or the Estates or the Court.

MOTION TO NOT CONSOLIDATE THE ESTATE CASES OF SIMON AND SHIRLEY BUT POSSIBLY INSTEAD DISQUALIFY YOUR HONOR AS A MATTER OF LAW DUE TO DIRECT INVOLVEMENT IN FORGED AND FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED DOCUMENTS FILED BY OFFICERS OF THIS COURT AND APPROVED BY YOUR HONOR DIRECTLY

106. That the six documents that are proven FORGED and FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED presented to Your Honor's Court and additionally regarding the multiple documents from September 13, 2012 to January 2013 that were filed illegally Post Mortem for Simon used to close the Estate. Your Honor and his court officials had direct involvement in and may be called as material and factual witnesses regarding these matters. As Your Honor admitted these FORGED and FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED documents to the record to close the Estate and had direct involvement in the Fraud on the Court that was perpetrated on the Court and Beneficiaries, including Petitioner and his three minor children, Your Honor's role in these events becomes directly inter-related and thus conflict arise and possible adverse interest arise as Your Honor may want to hurry this under the rug as it all occurred in your Court and it could be alleged that you are biased or covering up the acts of not only the guilty but your Court officers involved. Not to say that this is the case but that now it COULD be and on that ground Your Honor's handling of this case further may be improper under Judicial Cannon's and more.

107. That Petitioner requests that this Motion to Disqualify Judge Colin in Shirley's estate be heard by a non-conflicted Justice, due to Judge Colin's direct involvement in the matters, the direct involvement of Officers of his Court in FORGERIES, FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED DOCUMENTS and FRAUD ON THE COURT AND BENEFICIARIES and the fact that all of these Criminal Acts proven and those alleged have occurred in and upon his Court and these conflict Judge Colin from handling the matters further without the possibility of bias or prejudice or more to Petitioner who has exposed this massive Fraud on the Court.

108. That as Petitioner is the one who has exposed these Frauds on the Courts and had them prosecuted and could lead to others arrest, including Officers and Fiduciaries of the Court directly involved causes possible Adverse Interests against Petitioner who has exposed these crimes occurring in the Court, committed by Officers of the Court and the Fiduciaries that Judge Colin approved to the record and allows to continue as Officers of the Court and Fiduciaries despite his firsthand knowledge of criminal acts they are involved in alleged violation of Judicial Cannon's and Law.

109. That this puts Judge Colin now in the uncomfortable position as Witness at minimum to what occurred and how his name and his courtroom were used to enable the frauds, but nonetheless, Judge Colin will be deposed by Petitioner regarding his signatures on the fraudulent documents in the record and his direct and personal knowledge regarding the Fraud on his Court and how exactly the crimes occurred and who was involved, crimes he himself observed on the record in both hearings, that led him to declare twice on the record in a September 13, 2013 hearing, that he had enough evidence of fraud on the court to read Tescher, Spallina, Theodore and Manceri their Miranda Warnings but inexplicably has not read them to them yet and has further enabled their criminal activities to continue and flourish. Why Judge Colin has failed to then report these felony frauds on his Court to all the proper authorities or have them arrested and instead gave the guilty parties opportunity to continue to operate as Fiduciaries and Officers of his Court and pollute the record further will also be questioned and perhaps new Judges will read them their Miranda Rights as Colin should have done but did not, as of the date of this Pleading.

110. That any state or federal investigators that Judge Colin has had contact with to this point must also be removed from further investigation and new investigators who have not had ex parte conversations with Judge Colin must be introduced to investigate the matters without any prejudice that may have occurred in those conversations that may have impeded Petitioner's due process rights to file further complaints, including against the Officers of his Court that perpetrated the criminal Fraud on the Court or obstructed justice in any way.

111. That after speaking with Detective Ryan Miller of the Palm Beach County Sheriff who investigated the crimes of Moran, Judge Colin made it clear to him that he would be in charge of filing any criminal complaints regarding crimes permitted in his Court by Officers of his Court, Tescher, Spallina, Manceri and Ted (as an alleged Fiduciary). If Judge Colin were to fail to take the necessary actions and Petitioner was blocked of his due process and procedural rights from filing criminal complaints this could cause Petitioner to run into Statute of Limitations issues from the obstruction.

112. That Petitioner does not seek Disqualification out of disrespect or dispute with Your Honor at this time but because it now becomes the only legally justified action for Your Honor to take now that Felony Crimes have been committed in and upon Your Court and the Beneficiaries you are custodian for, including three minor children, and Your direct involvement can be questioned. Where this Court, whether intentionally or not, has allowed these FORGED and FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED documents to become part of the record of the Estate, polluting the record and trust in any documents filed by the Fiduciaries and Counsel of Record with the Court and therefore if Judge Colin is disqualified all orders and all records, including all Original documents filed with and by the Court should become open to inspection by the injured parties.

113. That these acts of Officers of the Court, were approved and entered into the record by Your Honor and the Estate closed illegally with Your Honor's stamp of Approval on all of the questionable documents including those filed by Moran but many others as listed already herein done by Spallina and Tescher, which may prove later to be done without malice by Your Honor and other members of the Court but as fraud was committed upon Your Honor by Court Officers already puts Your Honor in conflict and with possible adverse interests to Petitioner inherently and partiality cannot be assured any longer and Disqualification, not recusal is sought for these reasons.

114. That instead of ruling further on Petitioner's Motions and Petitions that have languished before the Court since May 2013 virtually denying Petitioner's due process rights wholly, the Court has instead accepted new inappropriately filed motions by the opposing counsel and ruled on them despite that they were filed inappropriately by Officers of the Court and Fiduciaries who have admitted to and acknowledged Fraud on the Court and Beneficiaries. These motions filed were much later than Petitioners, almost eight months later and were filed in a cover their butt and pepper the record approach to cover up the crimes through further harassment and abuse of process in the Courts against Petitioner, which the Court may or may not be found to have been complacent in.

115. That the fact that the Court is no longer an independent Court involved directly in the criminal activity, whether innocently or not, the cases should not be merged and consolidated between the two Judges who are already involved but should instead instantly be transferred to two new Judges of the Court, who are prescreened for Conflicts with Petitioner and all prior rulings stricken and all pleadings of counsel investigated for further fraud and reheard entirely free of conflict or adverse interest with Petitioner, as he is the one who has exposed these Frauds in the Court committed by Officers of the Court and the Fiduciaries.

116. That all Fiduciaries and Officer of the Court acting as counsel must also be disqualified instantly for their involvement in the criminal acts and all their pleadings stricken and further their records and all assets held of the Estates should immediately be seized by the new Judges hearing these matters forward and frozen and admitted as evidence.

117. That for all these reasons Petitioner's request to not consolidate the cases of Simon and Shirley at this time and if it is determined that they should be consolidated it should not be with either Judge French or Judge Colin for the obvious conflicts and adverse interest now created.

118. That Title 42 United States Code standard 1983, Entitles Petitioner to NOT have his RIGHTS Deprived as a matter of law. As does the rules of procedure, Florida Law, the Bill of Rights, the Constitution of the United States, UCC Codes, and Rules of Administrative Procedure.

119. That upon knowledge and belief, Petitioner alleges that Case Law states that when a judge acts as a trespasser of the law , when a judge does not follow the law, she then loses subject matter jurisdiction and the Judges orders are void ,of no legal force or effect . Judicial immunity is lost when a Judge lacks jurisdiction.

MOTION FOR THE COURT TO SET AN EMERGENCY HEARING ON ITS OWN MOTION DUE TO PROVEN FRAUD AND FORGERY IN THE ESTATE OF SHIRLEY CAUSED IN PART BY OFFICERS OF THE COURT AND THE DAMAGING AND DANGEROUS FINANCIAL EFFECT IT IS HAVING ON PETITIONER, INCLUDING THREE MINOR CHILDREN AND IMMEDIATELY HEAR ALL PETITIONER'S PRIOR MOTIONS IN THE ORDER THEY WERE FILED

120. That Petitioner requests an Emergency Hearing be set on this Court's own Motion with new Judges to hear ongoing allegations of continued Extortion by Officers of this Court and Fiduciaries who are directly involved in the proven criminal acts thus far committed on the Court and Beneficiaries. These Extortionary acts are in efforts by the guilty parties to shut down Petitioner and his family immediately through life threatening calamities brought on by these same guilty Respondents acting still as Fiduciaries and Counsel to cause intentional harm against Petitioner, his wife Candice and their three minor children, by those guilty parties who now all have Adverse Interests as Fiduciaries and Counsel in these matters with Petitioner who is trying to have them further prosecuted and tried for additional ongoing criminal acts to those already proven and admitted.

121. That Petitioner respectfully requests that the new Judges hold immediate Emergency hearings on their own Motion to release EMERGENCY funds for Petitioner and his family, within 48 hours, as their lives are at risk as already defined herein and in prior unheard Motions and Petitions, due to the delay in inheritances being distributed to them caused in part by the crimes proven and those alleged herein, including criminal acts of Officers of the Court in and upon the Court and the Beneficiaries, including targeting Petitioner and his children who have exposed the Frauds, Forgeries, Fraud on two Courts, Fraud on a Federal Court, Theft of Assets and more with intent to harm them in dangerous financial ways without notice or warning.

122. That Petitioner requests the new Judges hearing these matters also schedule further Emergency Hearings to investigate and call in State Prosecutors to investigate the ongoing alleged criminal frauds in the Estates and ongoing in the courts of Judge French and Colin, as defined at length in Petitioners previously unheard Motions and Petitions referenced herein that have been filed since May 2013 and virtually unheard in particular to the many Motions therein, languishing without adjudication that denies Petitioner's due process rights and is alleged to Obstruct Justice of Petitioner in violation of Judicial Cannons, Attorney Conduct Codes and Law.

If the restored value of the item is less than the market value immediately prior to the loss, we shall pay the difference. C. Pair or Set

For a covered loss to a pair or set, you may elect to:

1. Repair or replace any part to restore the pair or set to its condition immediately before the loss;
2. Be paid the lesser of:

M. Your Duties After a Loss

If you suffer a covered loss, you must perform these duties:

1. Notification - You must immediately notify us or your agent of your loss. In case of theft or accident, you must also notify the police or similar competent authority within 90 days of the loss.

2. Protect Property - You must protect property from further damage; and make any repairs that are necessary to protect the property; and keep an accurate record of your expenses. We will pay the reasonable costs of protecting the property from further damage. This will not increase the amount of coverage that applies.

5. Examination Under Oath - We have the right to examine under oath as often as we may reasonably require, you and your family members. S. Appraisals

If you and we fail to agree on the amount of loss, either party may make a written demand that each selects an independent appraiser. In this event, the parties must notify each other of their selection within twenty (20) days. The independent appraisers will select an arbitrator within fifteen (15) days. If an arbitrator is not agreed upon within that time, either party may request the arbitrator be selected by a judge. The independent appraisers will then appraise the loss and submit any differences to the arbitrator. A decision in writing agreed to by the two appraisers or either appraiser and the arbitrator will be binding. Each appraiser will be paid by the party that has selected him. You and we will share the expenses of the arbitrator equally.

COMPLAINT FOR APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIAN OR TRUSTEE FOR GRANDCHILDREN OF SETTLOR

Plaintiffs, Ted S. Bernstein, as Successor Trustee of the Shirley Bernstein Trust Agreement dated May 20, 2008 ("Shirley Trust"), and Donald Tescher and Robert Spallina, as co-Successor Trustees of the Simon L. Bernstein Amended and Restated Trust Agreement dated July 25, 2012 ("Simon Trust") sue Defendants, Eliot Bernstein, Individually ("Eliot"), and Candice Bernstein, Individually ("Candice"), and state:

INTRODUCTION

1. This is an action seeking the appointment of a guardian or trustee to administer certain trusts created for the benefit of Eliot's and Candice's three minor children, each of whom is a grandchild of the Simon and Shirley Bernstein and a beneficiary of the Simon Trust. The trust language designates Eliot as the trustee of the newly created trusts, but Eliot has demonstrated that he is incapable of exercising any fiduciary duty and that he will use the children's inheritance for his own personal wants. The problems dealing with Eliot are magnified because his parents' testamentary documents disinherit him. Indeed, in the Simon Trust and in the Last Will of Simon L. Bernstein, Simon left no part of his residuary estate or Trust to Eliot.

2. Now, despite the fact that neither Eliot nor Candice is a beneficiary of either of the Trusts, and despite the fact that neither Eliot or Candice has any employment or earnings, they have made outrageous demands against the Trusts for cash payments, including demanding that the trusts reimburse them: (i) $9,000 per month ($108,000 annually) for items which are necessary for their survival and not luxuries; (ii) $80,000-plus per year for private school; (iii) thousands per month for household expenses, interest, taxes, insurance, electricity, phone, etc.;[1] (iv) $38,000 for legal fees; and much more. For example, Eliot and Candice have demanded that the Trust pay ~~$7,600~~ for a "necessary" lacrosse trip to Israel over the recent winter break, so that their sons could play lacrosse.

3. Conservatively, Eliot and Candice are demanding to be paid nearly $250,000 per year to live a grandiose Boca Raton lifestyle, which is impossible given the fact that Eliot received no inheritance and has not maintained a real job for as long as anyone can remember.

[1] Simon "bought" Eliot's family a house in Boca Raton, but did not give Eliot any ownership or other rights with respect to this home. The house is owned by Bernstein Family Realty, LLC, which is beneficially owned by trusts benefitting Eliot's children, but their are two mortgages – one held by Simon's estate – which exceed the market value of the house. While he was alive, apparently Simon individually or through trusts arranged for payment of all housing expenses for Eliot. There was nothing left after Simon's death for Eliot or to pay the expenses of the house.

4. Since Simon's death, Eliot and Candice already have wasted the assets of three intervivos trusts created by Simon, for the benefit of his three grandchildren who are Eliot's sons. No doubt some of that money has benefitted the real beneficiaries, but neither Eliot nor Candice appear capable of making rational financial decisions – moving to a smaller home; putting children in public schools; eating at home instead of eating in or taking out from restaurants; or otherwise living within their personal means. In addition, Eliot throws out challenges in one form or another to everything done in regard to the estate planning, will and trust, with no regard for the expense or the damage he is doing to the other beneficiaries.[2]

5. In one sense, Eliot has nothing so he acts as if he has nothing to lose, but in the process he is harming the interests of his own children and jeopardizing the value of their sizeable, but not enormous, inheritances. Plaintiffs believe that if Eliot is left at the helm of these newly created trusts, Eliot would deplete them entirely within two or three years. Simon did not wish to leave anything to Eliot or Candice – not even their personal residence – and purposely did not name Candice as a replacement trustee. Thus, it is imperative that a neutral, experienced, third-party be appointed by the Court as a guardian or trustee to look after the best interests of Eliot's children.

6. Making matters worse, Eliot and Candice have accompanied their outrageous demands with the threat that if the demands are not met, Eliot would engage in a campaign to attack,

[2] By way of example, there is a separate insurance trusts which is the named beneficiary of a $1.6 million life insurance policy. Eliot should receive 1/5 of that money, but he has refused it and challenged the distributions. This is causing delay in the release of the funds – they have been interplead in Illinois federal court. This is causing everyone except Eliot, who is pro se, to spend money on professionals. Eliot is taking these actions despite the fact that Simon explained his estate plan to all five of his children, including Eliot, and advised that the five children each would receive 1/5 of the insurance proceeds, and the remainder of his estate/trust would be left equally to his ten grandchildren.

extort, threaten and tarnish the reputations of the Trustees and professionals administering these Trusts and the related Estates of Shirley Bernstein and Simon Bernstein. In an email dated January 3, 2014, Eliot demanded that the requested amounts be paid immediately "or further actions will continue to be taken both civilly and criminally against you for your part in what is alleged already in civil and criminal complaints as EXTORTION and more."

7. As demonstrated below, Eliot has made good on many of these threats by publishing false statements on the internet and by "suing" or "naming as respondents" every professional, including every counsel who appears for the current fiduciaries. He has accused everyone of committing fraudulent and criminal acts, and has suggested that his father was murdered. Eliot's actions are intentionally designed to intimidate and cause financial harm to his victims. His conduct includes, among other things, re-publishing various court documents with lurid commentary and misleading headlines such as:

- Kimberly Moran Florida Notary Public, Tescher and Spallina Law Firm (Robert Spallina and Donald Tescher), Ted Bernstein of Life Insurance Concepts and the Bernstein Family Foundation are involved in Estate Fraud, Insurance Schemes, Fraud on the Courts, Forgery, Possible Murder and other illegal and unethical behavior. The Judge in the Case is Judge Martin H. Colin. http://tedbernsteininsurance.blogspot.com

- In March of 2012 Donald Tescher was awarded by the "MITZVAH SOCIETY" for allegedly being a "CARING ESTATE PLANNING PROFESSIONALS". Yet it is clear from the court documents above, that Donald Tescher and TESCHER & SPALLINA, P.A will do as they please after you die, regardless of what your TRUE wishes are and regardless of how much you pay him, or to what lengths, efforts and legal means you go to prepare your ESTATE to be handled per your wishes. www.attorneycorruption.com

- Ted Bernstein, Life Insurance Concepts involved in Fraud on the Court, Forgery, Yet wants you to TRUST him with your Insurance

Needs??? www.facebook.com/pages/Life-Insurance-Concepts-Ted-Bernstein-Boca-Raton-1399218733656570?ref=stream

8. Indeed, Eliot wrote to the undersigned counsel on January 3, 2014, threatening to sue or advising that a suit has been filed:

> In light of these issues I would not sweat the small name formality stuff as this is the wild west of the Internet and people even abbreviate the strangest of things. However, I will spell out clearly that I would like a reply to my repeated request to know if you have notified your liability carrier(s) of your involvement in the case as Respondent and your conflicting and alleged inappropriate representations of others thus far and possible involvement in criminal activity and a mass of torts. I have requested several times that you please provide me with your carrier information and contact and you refuse.

9. This story sounds comical, and might be if it were not true. It is not clear whether Eliot is clinically ill or simply enjoys playing a game of sabotage against persons who do not do what he demands, but this is not the first time he has behaved this way. Among the prior targets of Eliot over the years are: Proskauer Rose LLP, and, all of its Partners and attorneys (who allegedly stole a 13 trillion dollar invention and tried to murder Eliot); Foley & Lardner LLP and all of its Partners and attorneys; the State of Florida, The Florida Bar and all seven Florida Supreme Court Judges; and countless others. Essentially, anyone whose path crosses Eliot's, including the current fiduciaries, will be sued by him. At some point, this nonsense must end and that time has arrived.

10. There is a real and immediate need on part of Plaintiffs for intervention by this Court, guidance and instructions, an order appointing someone other than Eliot to oversee his children's inheritances, and injunctive relief to protect the current fiduciaries and the court-appointed guardian/trustee.

11. Accordingly, for the reasons set forth below, Plaintiffs request that the Court: (i) replace Eliot as "Designated Trustee" of certain Trusts created under the Simon L. Bernstein Amended and Restated Trust Agreement dated July 25, 2012 for the Benefit of Daniel Bernstein, Jacob Bernstein and Joshua Bernstein (the "Grandchildren Trusts"); (ii) determine that Eliot lacks standing to pursue any claims or raise any issues in the Probate estates or this Trust matter; (iii) enjoin Eliot from publishing false statements or using the internet as a means of harassing and intimidating this Court's fiduciaries; and (iv) enter such other orders as are necessary to protect the best interests of the beneficiaries of the Trusts.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

12. For many years before their deaths, Simon and Shirley Bernstein (the "Parents") provided substantial financial support to just Eliot and his family, consisting of his wife Candice and three minor boys, Daniel, Jacob and Joshua ("Eliot's Family"). While the Parents were alive, they provided to Eliot's family more than $100,000 per year in support, including through the creation of certain trusts. Although this largesse was altruistic, it also was used as a means to control Eliot.[3]

13. Over the course of many years, Eliot's family spent and spent and spent money, and expected the Parents to cover the bills. That the Parents did cover many bills helps explain, in part, why their estates and trusts were not larger. Indeed, the principal cause of difficulty in this case is that Eliot believes that his parents left an estate valued between $40 million and $100 million, and made elaborate and special plans just for his family. In reality, the total left behind by both Parents was much closer to $4 million, and Eliot was completely disinherited in the testamentary documents. The only elaborate estate plan provides for Eliot to receive a portion of a $1.6 million life insurance policy (of which Eliot may receive $300,000 if he loses the Illinois interpleader lawsuit or nothing if he wins that lawsuit). There is nothing else for Eliot. And, Eliot's children are beneficiaries of the pour-over estate and a trust, but only to the extent of one-tenth each (the monies are split equally between 10 grandchildren). Thus, Eliot's Family is maxed out at $1 million or so, on a best case basis.

[3] On August 15, 2007, Eliot and Candice entered into a written agreement with the Parents as part of the Parents' supposed estate planning. Under the terms of that agreement, the Parents would pay $100,000 per year, spread out monthly, as an advance against Eliot's inheritance. The payments would cover all health insurance premiums for Eliot's Family and the balance could be used for living expenses. Per the terms of this agreement, the payments would reduce, dollar-for-dollar, "the amount you will ultimately inherit." As a condition of receiving the $100,000, Eliot had to agree to harass or threaten to sue or initiate litigation with any member of the family. He also had to allow the Parents to see their grandchildren at least four times per year. Eliot and his wife Candice signed the agreement.

14. The Successor Trustee could make an interim distribution to Eliot's three children, into trusts, but Eliot is the Designated Trustee. First, Eliot is refusing to accept any distribution, which is somehow "tainted" and "corrupt." Moreover, even if he would set up the trust account and allow his children to receive their interim distribution, Eliot is not competent or capable of administering the money for the best interests of his children. Indeed, since both Parents died – Shirley in 2010 and Simon in 2012 – Eliot's family has continued their spendthrift ways, quickly burning through $250,000 in three children's trusts. Having depleted entirely those trusts administered by Oppenheimer, who want to resign due to the fact that there is nothing left to administer, Eliot now expects that it is the burden of the Successor Trustee to fulfil their every need or desire, regardless of the cost, and presumably for the rest of their lives, which is not a trustee's duty.

15. When Ted Bernstein, as Trustee, refuses a request, he is personally attacked and he is extorted to pay monies, primarily by a relentless assault on his character and on his counsel. The attacks are not only against Ted but his insurance business, and consist of vicious and false materials being disseminated onto the internet. Transcripts of these proceedings and pleadings filed in this Court are being published and editorialized with sensationalism by an internet blogger of ill-repute working with Eliot. One headline, on December 10, 2013, reads: "Ted Bernstein, Life Insurance Concepts involved in Fraud on the Court, Yet wants you to TRUST him with your Insurance Needs????"

16. These false accusations of theft are serious and have the potential to harm Simon's trusted son, Ted, in the pursuit of his insurance business. Ted and his father were both involved in the insurance industry, and for the period from 2003 to his death, worked together in at least several business. The fruits of Ted's and Simon's business efforts helped sustain Eliot's Family, but now that there is no cash flowing to Eliot, he is back to his old ways of harassing, threatening to sue and initiating litigation with members of the family.

17. Eliot is interfering with the Trustee's job as a fiduciary, and is demanding ever more money to try to keep an unsustainable lifestyle going. Although it sounds like an exaggeration – and would be if it did not come directly from Candice – Eliot's Family needs free housing plus more than $250,000 per year just to get by:

> Attached are the home and family expenses many past due now for three months for my family. As you are all well aware, these expenses have been paid through Bernstein Family Realty LLC (BFR) by Rachel Walker and then Oppenheimer since my father died and were paid for 6 years prior by my father and mother while they were alive. These expenses for our family's living expenses were to be paid for through my family's inheritance monies when my father and mother died, as set up in elaborate estate plans they did together exclusively for my family, due to our special circumstances. There was to be no interruption in these life sustaining payments for my family after they died. Now that Oppenheimer has somehow, almost > three months ago, transferred our family bills and expenses to Ted and Robert to handle, without our consent and then resigned as Manager of BFR and anointed Ted as successor, a company owned by my children that has been paying the expenses for almost 8 years, acting on the advice of Spallina, the bills suddenly and without warning are now not being paid. These bills include payment of reimbursements to Candice for food and other daily living expenses for the boys, monies we have advanced from our limited monies and have always been reimbursed for to pay for the next month's groceries, etc. This failure by the alleged fiduciaries of the estates put us desperately and dangerously low on food for the kids and other essential medical and other needs. Since Ted and Robert have taken control of my family's bills and their payments, utilities have been shut off already for the first time ever, without any notice they were intending on discontinuing them to either the provider or my family, causing extreme hardships on our family.

18. Candice appears to be just as delusional as Eliot, given that ~~he~~ her list of "essentials" includes approximately $9,000 per month on credit cards just for the basics, as Candice confirmed in an email dated November 21, 2013:

> We don't spend frivolously and don't think our requests to maintain basic needs are unreasonable, considering there is substantial funds available for these purposes due our family from the estates. Until things can be sorted in the courts . . . we hope you maintain as a fiduciary a level of continuity in regards to our family's best interest and their overall needs for their health, education, maintenance, and support, as were the wishes of Mom and Dad in their estate plans.

19. Eliot's Family lives in a home owned by ~~the~~ Bernstein Family Realty, LLC, and ~~are~~ to pay nothing toward the two mortgages totaling $475,000, or the taxes, insurance, utilities, etc., all of which is supposed to be covered by their Parents. There unpaid 2013 property taxes are $5,569.25. Eliot cannot pay his Comcast bill ($504.59); his Verizon phone bill ($925.68); or the FPL electric bill. For humanitarian reasons, for the past few months Ted Bernstein, as Trustee, has paid these essential bills to keep the lights on. There are monies available which ultimately will be distributed Eliot's three children, but the Trustee cannot do more without guidance from this Court.

20. In addition to the housing expenses, and approximately $108,000 spent on credit cards per year, just for the bare essentials, all three of Eliot's children attend St. Andrews School, an elite and expensive private school in Boca Raton. Neither Eliot nor Candice – neither of whom is currently employed – can possibly afford this school. From that school's website, it reports that for this school year the tuition is $24,275 for the one child in middle school and $26,280 each for the two in the upper school, for a total cost of at least $80,000, not including extra-curriculars, sports, private lacrosse lessons, etc.

21. To date, Eliot and his wife have burned through untold sums given to them by the Parents and, since the Parents' deaths, more than $250,000 from the children's prior trusts, the one administered by Oppenheimer. Now, they are demanding that the Successor Trustee continue to pay for their children to attend school: "Any delay to payment on your behalf will only cause un-necessary late fees, interest charges and possible litigation as we are half way through the school year. Delaying payments for their education is not 'saving' money it is merely costing more money in fees. Being that Josh is close to graduating there is no benefit or savings in refusing payment to them, other than if your intention is to cause immediate harm to three minor children."

22. If Eliot and Candice can afford to keep their children in a school such as St. Andrews, that is their decision. But obviously they cannot if they cannot pay for basic food and shelter, or tuition. In the Trustee's view, and recognizing that it is not his decision, Eliot should seek financial assistance from the school or consider moving the children to Palm Beach County Public Schools.

23. Eliot and Candice also demanded another $8,000 to send their boys on a lacrosse trip to Israel for two of ~~your~~ their sons to play in a few games over the Christmas break. The Trustee, a respected businessman and member of the community, was advised that if he did not give in to these demands there would be repercussions:

> If you fail to respond within 24 hours, we will begin to notify all interested parties (i.e. schools, utility companies, the Jewish Federation and others who are injured as a result) of the reasons and causes why they are not being paid, including noticing them all of the fraud and forgery in the estate of my mother and who is responsible, including but not limited to, Tescher, Spallina, Moran, Lindsay Baxley and Ted, in hopes they may understand the situation and work with us due to these extreme circumstances that have been created by your unclean hands as fiduciaries and until we can resolve all the matters both civilly and criminally.

24. Against this backdrop, the Trustees seeks guidance and direction from the Court as to how to respond to these requests as a fiduciary; requests that the Court appoint a trustee or guardian who can oversee and administer the monies available for distribution to Eliot's children; and requests that the Court direct all parties and beneficiaries to litigate the issues in this case in the courtroom, not through extortion and a smear campaign when Eliot does not get his way. The Trustees are fiduciaries of this Court, as are the counsel for the Trustees, and this Court is the appropriate forum to address issues when someone threatens that fiduciary.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

25. This is an action for equitable relief pursuant to Florida Statutes Chapters 86 and 736, including but not limited to Florida Statute 86.041 and Florida Statute 736.0201.

26. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to Palm Beach County Administrative Order No. 6.102 and Florida Statute 736.0203.

27. Venue is proper in Palm Beach County, Florida pursuant to Florida Statute 736.0204, as all of the named Defendants reside in Palm Beach County, Florida.

28. Plaintiff, Ted S. Bernstein is a son of Shirley Bernstein; Ted S. Bernstein is sui juris and is a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida.

29. Ted S. Bernstein is the currently serving Successor Trustee of the Shirley Bernstein Trust Agreement dated May 20, 2008. Ted S. Bernstein became the Successor Trustee of the Shirley Bernstein Trust as a result of the death of his father, Simon L. Bernstein, on September 13, 2012.

30. Simon L. Bernstein began serving as Successor Trustee of the Shirley Bernstein Trust as a result of Shirley Bernstein's death on December 8, 2010. Simon L. Bernstein continuously served as Successor Trustee until his death. A true copy of the Shirley Bernstein Trust Agreement dated May 20, 2008 is attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and incorporated herein by reference.

31. The Last Will and Testament of Simon L. Bernstein dated July 25, 2012 has been admitted to probate in Palm Beach County, Florida under Case No. 502012CP004391XXXXSB. A copy of said Will is attached hereto as Exhibit "B" and incorporated herein by reference.

32. Pursuant to Article II. of the Last Will and Testament of Simon L. Bernstein dated July 25, 2012, Simon L. Bernstein exercised the special power of appointment granted to him under Article II, E.1 of the Shirley Bernstein Trust.

33. As a result of Simon L. Bernstein's exercise of the special power of appointment, the remaining assets under the Shirley Bernstein Trust are to be added to the assets of the Simon L. Bernstein Amended and Restated Trust Agreement dated July 25, 2012. A copy of said Trust Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit "C" and incorporated herein by reference.

34. Pursuant to Article II. B. of Simon Bernstein Trust, the remaining Trust assets (inclusive of the assets appointed from the Shirley Bernstein Trust) pass to Trusts for the benefit of Simon Bernstein's ten grandchildren.

35. Pursuant to Article IV, C.2.b., of the Simon Bernstein Trust the parent of each grandchild that is a child of Simon L. Bernstein shall serve as Trustee of such grandchild's Trust.

36. Defendant, Eliot Bernstein, is a son of Simon L. Bernstein. Eliot Bernstein is a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida. Eliot is the natural father of Daniel Bernstein, Jacob Bernstein and Joshua Bernstein who are all grandchildren of Simon L. Bernstein. Daniel Bernstein was born on November 26, 2003. Jacob Bernstein was born on January 1, 1999. Joshua Bernstein was born on August 27, 1997. Thus, Eliot is the putative designee under the Simon Trust to serve as Trustee for Daniel, Jacob and Joshua.

37. Eliot is not currently serving in the United States military.

38. Defendant, Candice Bernstein, is a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida.

39. Candice is the spouse of Eliot and natural mother of Daniel, Jacob and Joshua.

40. Candice is not currently serving in the United States military.

41. Pursuant to Article IV, C.2b., of the Simon Bernstein Trust, Eliot is the designated or nominated Trustee of the separate Trusts for the benefit of Daniel Bernstein, Jack Bernstein and Joshua Bernstein. However, there are serious concerns as to Eliot's ability to serve in that role, including the fact that he and Candice already have burned through enormous sums and, in part, because many years ago Eliot was diagnosed as having a paranoid personality with a constant thought of revenge against those he feels are against him. The persons who are now most against him are the Plaintiffs and their counsel.

42. Eliot's refusal to accept that he was disinherited entirely, and that these estates and trusts contain a very limited pool of money for the benefit of his children. and his erratic/threatening behavior cause Plaintiffs to question his capacity to serve as trustee for his children's trusts.

43. All conditions precedent to bringing this action have been met, satisfied or waived.

44. Plaintiffs have retained Mark R. Manceri, P.A. to represent ~~him~~ them in these proceedings and ~~has~~ have agreed to pay a reasonable fee for its services.

COUNT I

DECLARATORY RELIEF

45. Plaintiffs restate paragraphs 1 through 44 above are hereby restated as if specifically set forth herein.

46. Plaintiffs, in particular the Successor Trustee of the Shirley Trust, holds assets which, as a result of Simon Bernstein's exercise of the special power appointment, are to be distributed by him in newly created Trusts for the benefit of Daniel Bernstein, Jacob Bernstein and Joshua Bernstein. The estimated value of each Trust at the time of their initial funding is ~~$250,000.00~~ $100,000.

47. Eliot has demonstrated that he is not qualified or capable of acting as Trustee of the Trust solely in the best interests of his children.

48. Eliot does not have any meaningful or gainful employment nor has he had such employment over at least the last ten years. Indeed, Eliot has not produced any meaningful earned income over the last ten years.

49. Upon information and belief, Candice Bernstein is currently unemployed nor has she produced any material earned income over the last 3 years.

50. Eliot announced in open Court on September 13, 2013 that he has a conflict of interest with Daniel, Jacob and Joshua in that he believes the Trust funds left for the benefit of his children should have been devised to him. Copies of pages 63, 64 and 65 of the Hearing transcript are attached hereto as Composite Exhibit "D" and incorporated herein by reference.

51. Eliot has demonstrated a pattern of demanding the Trust funds established for the benefit of Daniel, Jacob and Joshua be applied to cover his and Candice 's obligations and expenses. As an example, Daniel, Jacob and Joshua are beneficiaries of separate Trusts for their benefit, each titled the Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Trust Agreement dated September 7, 2006. A copy of said Trust Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit "E" and incorporated herein by reference.

52. Attached hereto as Composite "F" are recent disbursement schedules for each of the foregoing Trusts.

53. As can be seen, the total "Household Expenses" disbursed cumulatively from the Trusts is approximately $150,000.00.

33. These "Household Expenses" include virtually every personal expense incurred by Eliot and Candice. Upon information and belief, this would include but not be limited to groceries, automobile related expenses, travel, entertainment, dining and expenses to maintain and operate the home they live in.

54. Additionally, Daniel, Jacob and Joshua are enrolled at the St. Andrew's School at a combined tuition of approximately $80,000 per year. Eliot and Candice have paid no portion of said tuition payments.

55. Eliot and Candice have also demanded exorbitant, improper distributions from the Trusts, including $8,000 to ~~play~~ pay for a trip to Israel by Joshua and Jacob to play a few games of lacrosse. A further demand was made for an additional $1,100.00 to pay on a local lacrosse "travel" team.

56. Eliot has also exhibited a pattern of irrational behavior. Eliot Bernstein's irrational behavior is demonstrated by threats, criminal prosecution and liable and slanderous statements in an attempt to extort what would otherwise be improper Trust distributions for his personal benefit, as opposed to the benefit of Daniel, Jacob and Joshua.

57. Eliot's behavior has reached to such a deplorable level that he continuously accuses the persons appointed by his parents, Simon and Shirley Bernstein, to serve in fiduciary roles under their respective estate plans of fraud and criminal behavior, in order to disparage them personally and professionally in their local communities. The information is also disseminated over the internet without many regard the negative impact such information may have.

58. Nonetheless, in deference to Simon and Shirley Bernstein, those involved have steadfastly continued to exercise the fiduciary duties and responsibilities owed to Daniel, Jacob and Joshua with the goal of insulating and protecting them from the reckless and irresponsible behavior of their father, Eliot.

59. Based on all of the above, there is a real and immediate concern that Eliot is not qualified and is incapable of properly exercising his fiduciary duties solely for the benefit of Daniel, Jacob and Joshua.

60. Rather, there is a real danger based on what has taken place that Eliot will use the Trust funds under his control for his personal benefit to the financial detriment of Daniel, Jacob and Joshua. Plaintiffs, and in particular Ted Bernstein, as Trustee, is very concerned that his nephews will not exclusively benefit from the Trust funds established by Shirley Bernstein.

61. This is particularly so, in light of the fact that Eliot has not and does not have any real, substantive employment nor any real income, while embarking to a work-free life style of a person with significant means.

62. Eliot should not exercise control over the Trusts for the exclusive benefit of Daniel, Jacob and Joshua, and if allowed to do so it is likely that those funds would be improperly depleted and exhausted for his own personal gain in a relatively short time.

63. This Court needs to appoint an independent trustee or guardian ad litem to hold, manage and represent the beneficial interests of Daniel, Jacob and Joshua or take such other action the Court deems just, proper and appropriate to financially protect Daniel, Jacob and Joshua.

64. This Court also should protect the fiduciaries who are trying to fulfill the intent of the testamentary and trust documents from improper and unnecessary interference by Eliot, who is not even a beneficiary of the estates or the trusts.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons set forth below, Plaintiffs request that the Court: (i) replace Eliot as "Designated Trustee" of certain Trusts created under the Simon L. Bernstein Amended and Restated Trust Agreement dated July 25, 2012 for the Benefit of Daniel Bernstein, Jacob Bernstein and Joshua Bernstein (the "Grandchildren Trusts"); (ii) determine that Eliot lacks standing to pursue any claims or raise any issues in the Probate estates or this Trust matter; (iii) enjoin Eliot from publishing false statements or using the internet as a means of harassing and intimidating this Court's fiduciaries; and (iv) enter such other orders as are necessary to protect the best interests of the beneficiaries of the Trusts.

Candice - we have responded to both you and Eliot several times and have repeatedly requested meetings to resolve issues both through your attorneys and the two of you directly to no avail over the last year. For whatever reason you continue to believe that your children's trust monies are there to obviate your obligation to support your children which is simply not the case. You have an obligation to support them and Judge Colin made that clear at the very first hearing. All of this was brought on by yourselves based on Eliot's belief that your in laws were substantially wealthier than they were. Eliot is using the courts and other legal authorities in a way that is clearly frivolous and wasteful of everyone's time and money. This is not retaliation but the position we have been placed in due to Eliot's repeated attacks, slanderous accusations, misunderstandings and repeated mistrust. There is a substantial claim filed in Si's estate by Stansbury that takes precedence at this time (who Eliot has made a bedfellow for whatever reason). As a result, we have made no distributions to anyone. Ted as trustee of Shirley's trust did make some partial distributions and that issue was also addressed at the first hearing where Judge Colin again addressed Eliot on the proper course of action. Despite Eliot's refusal to open up trust accounts for your boys, Ted has paid necessities for your family (since the Oppenheimer trusts were depleted by your actions) to keep the house running. Notwithstanding that, how long will the two of you believe that your kids trusts have an obligation to support your family? You have interfered with the distribution of the insurance monies in Illinois which are available to you. Again, Eliot's desire to have the monies distributed to the estate to receive 10% more through your kids trusts as beneficiaries of the estate is nonsensical where Stansbury has a claim pending. Eliot continues to challenge every aspect of his parents estates with no basis other than the irregularities with the closing documents in Shirley's estate which has been ruled on by the court at this time. Your email below is additional posturing on your part in an attempt to prove we have not been proactive or attempted to resolve the issues. We have asked the two of you numerous times to sit down to reach a resolution. Eliot is and has always been the only impediment to receiving what your parents directed to your children's trusts and him individually. Until such time as we meet to get all the issues resolved there will be no bullying of us or Ted to make support payments to your children's trusts or to either of you for expenses which fall squarely on you as parents. You took your Volvo in for repair. It is your obligation to pay for that repair and not your children's trusts. Please advise a time to meet so that we can resolve the pending issues and move forward with all of our lives. We are ready to meet and are hopeful that the two of you are as well. Thank you.

Subject: RE: Urgent reply requested re: interim emergency funds necessary

Ted, Robert and Don,

As alleged fiduciaries are you planning on not even responding to my letter below or are you planning on continuing to put our family at greater risk now not having a car or groceries? At the very least we are asking for an emergency interim distribution and there are various ways you can distribute some money and language in the trust documents and the operating agreements of Bernstein Family Realty, Bernstein Family Investments and Bernstein Holdings to accommodate our immediate emergency needs, especially since none of the recent court findings that now delay final distributions are our fault. We need you to take responsibility and stop your retaliation against our family that is forcing us to waste the courts time with your constant breaches of duties and harassment and provide us with the requested information and immediate funds that are necessary to support our family. Please reply and note that I have already sent you wire instructions to my account to transfer the funds and resolve these issues immediately. Also I asked you for a meeting time 3 weeks ago to resolve these matters and again have heard no response?

Currently for reimbursements for food, medical and home expenses etc that I have paid out of my personal monies for the kids for the last three months that I am owed back, respond with which of those you deem necessary, as I have already told you that the credit card bills are not my personal expenses but were reimbursable expenses of food, medical, and home needs for the kids and which have been reimbursed for almost seven years monthly, until you started handling our affairs three months ago. Please pay immediately all of the following,

For three months of previously unpaid reimbursements	26,093.44
For Legal Fees we have incurred to date	31,766.37
Volvo Service to Get our Car Out ASAP	3,400.00

Ted,
Please find the attached invoice from Volvo. In the past, Bernstein Family Realty LLC through your dad and then Janet Craig at Oppenheimer paid for all auto expenses from Bernstein Family Realty. It is necessary at this time for you to make a payment directly to them today and they can send you a credit card authorization form as needed. We will not be able to get the car out of the repair shop and will have no transportation for the children if you do not act quickly. We have MD appointments for the kids, as well as, court dates as you know scheduled tomorrow and next week that we will need transportation for. Please advise quickly the best way for you to pay as the car is ready to pick up and will start to incur fees for the rental loaner car. Please reply as to how you would like to handle.
In addition if you can please release funds for the reimbursements submitted to you for household expenses including medical bills repayments submitted to you as those funds are desperately needed for the welfare of the children and were also used to buy food and other necessities as has been done in the past and always reimbursed. Again if you need to pay from Shirley Trust account or from Simon Trust account and deduct at a later time when things and the ultimate beneficiaries get sorted out in the courts and investigators please do so as interim emergency funds are desperately needed at this point due to the delays caused in final distributions caused by the Criminal FORGERIES and FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED documents and Frauds on the Courts that have taken place in the estates. Also please send over accountings and the other information requested of you regarding BFR over the last three months as we are looking for transparency in these matters you are currently handling since Janet turned them over to you directly over three months ago.

Gentlemen,

I just want to clarify that I consider myself completely withdrawn from all representation of Eliot Bernstein in any capacity and in any lawsuit. My Notice of Appearance and every document that I filed were in 11CP653. In addition, the transcript from the hearing from September 13th, 2013 and the resulting orders (which set the hearing for October 28th, 2013) also use the 11CP653 case number. The Order on the October 28th hearing also uses the 11CP653 case number and so does the Order on my Motion to Withdraw. Therefore, I haven't appeared in any other cases that might be going on. Thank you.

Eliot,

Oppenheimer Trust Company has informed you on several occasions that there are no funds available to pay the family bills. We have also informed you that there is no agreement between the Trusts and your parents' estates for reimbursement of funds paid over the past year.

Please make other arrangements for payment of these bills.

Janet and Hunt, not sure who is in charge of the bills and billings and who is responsible for the bills and management of Bernstein Family Realty, LLC and who is responsible as Trustee of the trust and the payment of the children's home expenses. All fiduciary responsibilities appear to have been abducted by the trustees and managers and bills are left unpaid and accounts appear not transferred to anyone who is handling them and all of this has put the children at extreme risk and danger. Of course, we still not have complete documentation on any of these entities and what has transpired that are wholly executed documents and therefore have no idea where anything is going. As of today, Internet, phones, television, school work accounts, etc. have all been shut off for lack of payment on the bill.

As you have stopped responding to prior requests as Trustee of the trust and last manager of the LLC regarding these matters, I can only take it that you are refusing to respond to requests made on the children's behalf relating to these entities.

Please have someone from your offices or legal counsel contact me ASAP as to this email and the last two you have not responded to.

Subject: RE: EMERGENCY OCTOBER Bernstein Expenses and Reimbursements

Yes I understand what you have said but I do not think you are listening carefully to what I have said, in that much of these transactions can be construed as part of a larger fraud and where Spallina is involved in documents in the estate that are admitted fraudulent and alleged forged, well, anything he was directing you to do and all documents tendered by him to you, are suspect at this time. Further, that both you and I were led to believe that Spallina would be replacing and replenishing the SCHOOL trusts that were used at his direction to pay living expenses and now that he is not living up to that unless I participate in fraudulent transactions in the estate, well you best work out with him these problems. There are also problems with his statements to the court regarding the transfer of the Legacy account and more to Oppenheimer that may indicate further fraud.
Also, it was discovered at the hearing that Ted was not the trustee to the estate of Shirley as he claimed, as none had been elected since SIMON died as the PR and Trustee and no one informed the court of his death and filed documents as if he were alive so no successors were ever granted Letters and therefore any transfer of fiduciary to Ted or Spallina with this knowledge seems a breach of fiduciary duties and trust. I also recommended to you that you seek a court order for what you were doing with Spallina and Ted in attempting to close the accounts and transfer fiduciary titles and management titles and more and I have not signed any release papers until these matters can be rectified. Have you informed your legal department of the massive fiduciary liabilities that may result from these actions and do you have a contact for me to notify them as I do not think the legal department for Oppenheimer is copied on this email?

Again, as I do not have control over any of these accounts or trusts or Bernstein Family Realty LLC that you were in charge of as alleged trustee for my children, well, all I can say is that between the parties handling these trusts and matters as trustees or any other fiduciary role presumed, I would suggest you figure out together how to now protect the minor beneficiaries you have exposed to massive immediate life threatening risks and foreclosure (from incompetence and false statements to a note holder) in order to fulfill your fiduciary obligations legally and protect the beneficiaries you have exposed.

Please let me know as soon as possible regarding the requested information herein. Eliot

Eliot,

As I have told both you and Candice previously, there are no funds available in the boys' Trusts to pay any expenses. The only assets that remain in the Trust are the shares of Bernstein Family Realty LLC and LIC Holdings, neither of which are liquid assets. I have been informed that no further funds will be coming to these Trusts and new Trusts will be set up for the boys once the Estate administration of your parents is allowed to proceed.

Please make other arrangements for the payment of these invoices.

Subject: EMERGENCY OCTOBER Bernstein Expenses and Reimbursements

Hi Janet and Hunt ~ I have attached in the pdf file the list of all the monthly bills and expenses for the children and invoices and receipts for each to be paid by the trustee of the three children's trust and Manager of Bernstein Family Realty LLC, which I believe is still you, I have received no paperwork to show any changes. The total amount we paid was $5,966.20 for reimbursement and there is now $27,000.39 outstanding bills that must be paid immediately in certain cases some are due within 72 hours (see report attached notes section on first page). As we are unclear of who is now in charge of the trusts and the LLC and how the changed occurred or why, please make sure that these get paid by whomever you designated and however you designated them, as far as I am concerned Oppenheimer still appear as the trustee and manager. I have sent you transcripts of a probate court hearing whereby SPALLINA and TED where told by the Judge that he should read them their Miranda Rights, based on the admitted and acknowledged crime of fraudulently notarized and forged documents in the estate, a fraud on the Court whereby my father Simon, who was deceased, notarized documents and closed an estate months after he passed. In light of this and the fact that you sent me unsigned trust agreements repeatedly and court orders on certain of the accounts authorizing Oppenheimer that are improperly notarized, well it is all starting to look a bit suspicious of what is going on. Further, we were contacted by Walt Sahm who has been owed interest on the home owned by Bernstein Family Realty LLC that you allegedly are Manager for and that has not been paid for months while you were in charge (similar to months that you let the home go without homeowners insurance, especially in light of Mr. Sahm's loan with Bernstein Family Realty LLC, forcing this man to get counsel and begin to foreclose on the home for interest unpaid and no one at Bernstein Family Realty LLC responding to his repeated oral and written demand for payment on his loan. As you can see from his letters attached from Mr. Sahm in the bill section of the attached PDF file he has been trying to get paid by SPALLINA and TED who claim instead to be Bernstein Family Realty LLC trustees for now several months to him, which contradicts your claim and it appears bizarre that you as trustee are not in possession and knowledge of this impending foreclosure and loan on the LLC you manage for the 3 minor children, all this appears furthered by your mismanagement as trustees. The other issues about using these school trust funds to pay living expenses until Spallina was to replenish and replace any funds and then your abandoning them when Spallina refused to repay the trusts seems also careless mismanagement but may also be construed as Willful, Wanton, Reckless, and Grossly Negligent behavior in disregard of law by alleged fiduciaries of the trusts, managers of the LLC and trust and LLC counsel. I am presuming that since you are taking orders from Spallina for unknown reasons in using the children's school trust funds that Tescher and Spallina P.A. authorized that you are also using them as your counsel in these matters, as they have authorized and directed you according to your letters on how to spend and manage the funds, etc. Since these bills are now coming past due from this month and last month and the refusal to replenish and replace them is causing a CRISIS, if these problems are not rectified instantly by the trustees of the trusts and managers of Bernstein Family Realty LLC, which until an unknown time was Oppenheimer we will have to notify the Courts and criminal authorities of your further involvement in attempting to bleed these funds and leave three minor children without SCHOOL, LIVING EXPENSES and MORE based on your actions and in conjunction with Spallina and Ted Bernstein that are suspect and perhaps criminal.

Please let me know instantly what your intent is.

Thanks, Eliot

Dear Clint and Candy (Candace),

As we discussed on Friday evening, my calling you makes me very uncomfortable. This situation would never have transpired had Si not passed away.

You confirm that he paid the first Renewal interest as of June 2012. The hand-written letter to Ted is self-explanatory. I forwarded the enclosed to him in early June, 2013. He told me he would refer everything to Spallina (Tescher (Sp?)). We've heard nothing. Our attorney, John Cappeller, has left two phone messages of inquiry asking in essence, what they are doing to honor this mortgage terms. Apparently Nothing!

For your edification, I've instructed Mr Cappeller to take no action, @ this time until we see if there is any movement on their part to honor the mortgage terms. What is a shame is that your mom put $ 90,000+ of renovations into your home & now this insane greed & intra-familial in-fighting is occurring. I feel very badly for you both & for your family. Simply Shirley would be mortified.

Eventually, I'll have to take some action; however, it won't happen until I've given you a "heads-up" before doing so. I hope you get your problems legally resolved. What a bitch you're going through!

Best regards & wishes,
Walt Flahm for Pat Saba

Dear Ted,

We hope that you, Debra and your family are all doing well and that all of your kids are staying forward in their academic and / or vocational pursuits. Several must be graduated from College by now.

If you'll recall, we spoke one evening before the Election Re: what I was to do going forward in the protocol to be followed in future Mortgage Renewals between us (Walt and Pat) and Bernstein Family Realty, LLC.

At that time, you told me that all financial matters are now handled by the attorneys for the Shirley and Simon Bernstein estates. Do I still send the Mortgage Note Renewal to you AND, then, you'll send it on to the estate Representative? I'll presume that this is the case.

This is the next-to-last Renewal Statement that we'll be sending. Next year, if not sooner, we'd like to have the BALLOON payment plus any accrued interest paid in full. Do you feel that Elliott and Candy will be able to obtain a MORTGAGE in succession? As we originally did's stated intention to utilize his and your Mother's PERSONAL ANNUAL EXCLUSION payments to Candy, ELLIOTT and their three children over two years to provide the $ 110,000 to Retire the Mortgage BALANCE.

Perhaps you might shed some light on this issue. Are you now the successor "MANAGER" of the Bernstein Family Realty, LLC? One LAST request, Ted. Would you have the estate Representative Mail us a COPY of the current "PROOF OF INSURANCE"? Thanks for your attention to this Request. Stay healthy!

Best Wishes,
Walt

RE: Second Anniversary of Mortgage and Promissory Note Amendment on Residence at 2253 N.W. 34th St., Boca Raton, FL Effective June 10 20__.

Dear Sirs

Referencing the amendment to the original Note, we offer the (3) options:

1) ☐ Pay the Loan Balance of $110,000 + (1) one year's interest ($110,000 X .035 = $3850 = $113,850);
2) ☐ Pay the interest due for this renewal year only ($110,000 X .035 = $3850.
3) ☐ Pay NO (ZERO) interest on principal this year and allow the interest to accrue and compound until the final balloon payment is due 6 June 10, 2014.

If you wish to pay the balloon plus interest prematurely, I'll direct our attorney, John Cappella, who prepared the mortgage amendment, to draw up a "Satisfaction of Mortgage" document. Would you please check the box that represents the option that you are currently choosing, sign it and return a copy to us in the enclosed, self-addressed, stamped envelope? Please print your name clearly under your signature.

Hello Josh,

My name is Noah Miller and I am the head coach of the Israel Lacrosse U-19 program. You have been recommended to me as a player who would be a great addition to our program. I would like to discuss this opportunity in greater detail, in which you will have the chance to play against two European national teams, tour Israel, and visit Jewish sites in two countries.

Please let me know if you would like to discuss this opportunity. We need to speak ASAP to reserve your spot on the roster. Call me or we can schedule a time to talk.

Sincerely,

Coach Noah Miller

Dear Parent,

The Federation of International Lacrosse has encouraged us to compete in several international events as the worldwide lacrosse community prepares for the 2014 Men's World Lacrosse Championships next July in Denver, Colorado.

While our Senior team will be participating in many of these tournaments, the Israel Lacrosse Association will be dispatching our first ever Israel U-19 National Team to compete in an event in Warsaw, Poland this winter. The team, which will be comprised of both Jewish-American and Israeli players, will train for one week at the Wingate Institute for Sport – Israel's Official Olympic training facility in Netanya – before traveling to compete against the Slovakia and Poland men's national lacrosse teams.

During training camp, the team will visit Israeli sites such as Masada, the Dead Sea, Yad Vashem, and the Western Wall. They will teach lacrosse to young Israeli athletes, as well as play as a loaner for either the Jerusalem or Tel Aviv club team. Your son will also receive high-level instruction from players and coaches of the Israel Senior National Team, including Jewish MLL pros such as Jake Deane, Casey Cittadino and Adam Crystal.

We are able to offer a participant package which includes all housing, transportation (including group flight from New York to Warsaw/Tel Aviv), food, apparel (including Israel and club team uniforms, team helmet, gloves, and more), touring, insurance, and intangibles for $4,000 USD. While we understand this is a significant expense, we are in the process of developing several fundraising programs to help alleviate the cost. That being said, we do not receive any government support, and thus the expense for this trip must be 100% self-funded.

I have included a copy of the trip itinerary on the next page. Please note the Israel Lacrosse Association is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization in New York State, and all financial contributions made in support of the Israel U-19 team are tax deductible.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions, and let me know if you would like to set up a call to discuss this opportunity further.

Thank you,

Noah Miller

Eva Shafer (National Invitational 175) sent you a message.

CONGRATULATIONS

We are very pleased to tell you that you have been selected and are being invited to the National Invitational 175 Summer Showcase on July 28 -30th, 2014 being held in upstate NY at the college campus of RPI in Troy, NY. The overall demand for the summer 2014 showcase has been tremendous and we have been very pleased with the interest shown for this lacrosse recruiting showcase.

We believe that the opportunity to showcase your skills in front of many of the top college lacrosse coaches in the country will be a great experience for each player attending and we are excited to be able to offer you this opportunity. This past summer, we had a great coaches' turnout. While we cannot guarantee who will be there this upcoming summer, you can certainly review which coaches attended last summer, listed on our website. Internally, we believe that 2014 will offer an even greater turnout, now that we have established over the past 2 years that we have many of the strongest student athletes in the country seeking to attend this showcase.

Below is a link that will allow you to register and pay to confirm your spot at the showcase. This invitation, however, is NOT open for an infinite or long period of time. As mentioned on our website, you will have 72 hours to go to the website and sign up.

After that period, you may forfeit your spot. We sincerely want everyone invited to attend but we cannot hold open a spot, if you are not accepting, within this timeframe. As you can imagine, there are a great many players who genuinely want to attend and are highly skilled, but the decision process resulted in you being selected. It is our hope that you register and sign up in the allotted time period.

Players attending will receive "stuff." We would encourage you to go to that section on the website titled, "What Will Attending Players Receive?" to see what players will receive.

Once again CONGRATULATIONS ON BEING INVITED AND WE LOOK FORWARD TO SEEING YOU THIS SUMMER.

Candice,

As you are aware, we have sent you all the funds available in the boys' accounts. There is a small reserve in the Bernstein Family Realty account to cover accounting and legal fees.

You will have to get funds for the payment of these bills from another source.

Ted – as discussed and in the interest of your nephews' welfare, please pay the electric (FPL), water (City of Boca), pool, Comcast, Verizon, medical (Cobra), and alarm monitoring (it was not on the 10/7 list of bills sent to Janet that we went through but the one he sent Monday at 8:50PM to Janet and us - for Your Security Service $74). Until there is a resolution with your brother, this is what should be done to avoid his potential claim that you or I are being punitive/negligent/reckless in administering the trust or estate despite the fact that he has never reached out to either of us directly to pay anything or arranged for his kids trusts to be funded. He continues to make demands of and threaten litigation on Janet and Hunt at Oppenheimer despite their advising him that there are no monies left in the trust or Realty account. I think this is what your parents would have wanted and for now is the moral thing to do. I know that you do not want to set precedent but perhaps this can lead to some sort of resolution with him going forward. I am, however, not optimistic.

Thank you

Janet and Hunt, not sure who is in charge of the bills and billings and who is responsible for the bills and management of Bernstein Family Realty, LLC and who is responsible as Trustee of the trust and the payment of the children's home expenses. All fiduciary responsibilities appear to have been abducted by the trustees and managers and bills are left unpaid and accounts appear not transferred to anyone who is handling them and all of this has put the children at extreme risk and danger. Of course, we still not have complete documentation on any of these entities and what has transpired that are wholly executed documents and therefore have no idea where anything is going. As of today, Internet, phones, television, school work accounts, etc. have all been shut off for lack of payment on the bill. As you have stopped responding to prior requests as Trustee of the trust and last manager of the LLC regarding these matters, I can only take it that you are refusing to respond to requests made on the children's behalf relating to these entities.

Please have someone from your offices or legal counsel contact me ASAP as to this email and the last two you have not responded to.

Hi Ted,

We had the name/address changed on the invoices third quarter of last year when we took over the payment of bills. If I remember correctly we started paying the school bills prior to paying the household expenses.

I have not been in contact with Eliot since my last email to him and I do not intend to respond to any further requests. I have not been in contact with the school as they would not take direction from to change the billing address. That request would have to come from whomever is paying the bills going forward. They have not called me about the late payment, though I believe they have my phone number.

Please let me know if I can be of assistance in any way.

Thank you Janet.

On the invoice, the account name is in the name of Oppenheimer. Has it always been that way or is this something new and if so, can I assume that either Eliot or Candice instructed the school to put your name there? Please advise.

Also, are you going to respond to Eliot or the school? I am not suggesting you do, only verifying that you do not intend to respond to these types of requests any longer, per your last email to Eliot.

Sincerely,

Ted

Yes... and I think the check went out yesterday.

I was just writing you an email. For the check to Walter Sahm. Did you want me to send it directly to Cappeller's office or send it to you first?

I've attached the information I had in the file regarding the Homeowner's and Flood insurance. I also included a sheet with transactions showing that they were paid. That's the best I could come up with.

Hi Ted,

We had the name/address changed on the invoices third quarter of last year when we took over the payment of bills. If I remember correctly we started paying the school bills prior to paying the household expenses.

I have not been in contact with Eliot since my last email to him and I do not intend to respond to any further requests. I have not been in contact with the school as they would not take direction from to change the billing address. That request would have to come from whomever is paying the bills going forward. They have not called me about the late payment, though I believe they have my phone number.

Please let me know if I can be of assistance in any way.

Thank you Janet.

On the invoice, the account name is in the name of Oppenheimer. Has it always been that way or is this something new and if so, can I assume that either Eliot or Candice instructed the school to put your name there? Please advise.

Also, are you going to respond to Eliot or the school? I am not suggesting you do, only verifying that you do not intend to respond to these types of requests any longer, per your last email to Eliot.

Sincerely,

Ted

Hunt/Janet – as discussed, this email will confirm that Eliot Bernstein's rants with respect to his children's trusts that you are administering as Trustee are completely unfounded. The trusts have an administration provision that allow distributions under a HEMS standard and the way in which you have administered the trusts since Si Bernstein's death comports with those terms. There has never been an agreement or an arrangement for the estate(s) to reimburse the trusts for expenses that you have paid from the trusts. Unfortunately, Mr. Bernstein feels the need to perpetuate lies and make threats to whomever crosses his path. I would cease all communication with him going forward.

Ted, if you need a full transcript I have attached one for your review. What the judge said to all of you collectively (you Ted, Tescher, Spallina, Tescher & Spallina and Mark Manceri0, was far worse and indicated that criminal acts had been committed and Miranda Warnings should be read to all of you now for the fraud on the court that he saw with his own eyes that took place in his court and upon him personally and where he said it twice. I am surprised you were not arrested on the spot but he did not say he would not do that next time, he just indicated he should do it right then. Not just due to Tescher & Spallina Law Firm and Moran's admittedly fraudulent and alleged forged documents but the fraud on the court and failure to notify the court of dad's passing while depositing these felonious official records in official proceedings. I hope the transcript frees up your recollection.

I do believe that much of these costs will not be paid by the estate or the beneficiaries in the end but by those guilty of committing these crimes and in fact the judge can offer broad relief in these situations to the victims, especially with forensic costs, etc. caused by others bad behavior. I believe there will be bonding and other reliefs that will be ordered by the judge to bear the burdens caused here by you, Tescher and Spallina and others trying to thwart dad's desires and intents and substituting them with your own using felonious documents. Has Robert and Donald reported this to their insurance companies yet? Has Kimberly reported these matters and admissions to her bonding company? I do believe all damages caused by a Notary Public in the employ of a Law Firm while doing business are fully covered by the Law Firm under Florida law. I note Robert and Donald and Mr. Manceri are included in this email and I ask each of you who are you policies with and to please send all parties in this email the carriers, policy numbers, etc. and demand that you report these matters and the litigations that will result, as Ted astutely points out in his letter. Robert do you have the bonding information for Kimberly's carrier? if so please forward that and her policy number too. I would advise all of you involved in the estate to now get counsel in whatever alleged fiduciary, legal or other roles you are claiming. I also note that it was determined in the hearing that Dad died as the Personal Representative and Trustee of Mom's estate and no successors were chosen and approved by the court due to the fraud on the court. I have tax forms and other forms you filed for the sale of the Condo Ted where you were signing as Personal Representative and Successor Trustee of the estate, I just want to clarify exactly what roles you have and are representing yourself in. I did note in the transcript you claimed to the Judge that you were there as Trustee of the Estate of mom, yet how can that be true in light of what we learned in the hearings? I believe you, Spallina, Tescher, Moran and others attempting to perpetrate this fraud are the ones costing the estates and will bear all of the damages for your improper and unlawful actions.

My answer to the Judge's advice to meet with you was plain and clear and the whole of the conversation is in the transcript and relates to my refusal to meet and participate in any ongoing frauds. If you would like to meet it would be best after you, Tescher, Spallina and Manceri have all resigned from any fiduciary or legal roles you have in the estates, turn over all documents, records and assets to counsel I will secure at that time you comply with this request. Then we can meet and discuss the matter with all of parties and their representative counsel to discuss any settlements. Once again, I caution you that each and every action that you and Robert and Donald and others do in the estate may result in further criminal and civil liabilities against you.

I am confused as to who is representing you at this point or are you representing yourself still individually and as alleged and mistaken "Trustee of the Estate" and "Personal Representative" of mom's estate? With your children now as potential alleged beneficiaries of mom's estate based on legally defective documents that appear to have been done after dad's passing and you acting as their trustee, you may have conflicts and other problems in acting in any fiduciary capacity in the estate and you should not be elected in any fiduciary capacities, especially without counsel. Let me know what your attorney says?

Eliot > I believe this is a gross misrepresentation of what happened in court on Friday. From my recollection, the judge was quite specific about what he intends to hear on the 28th.

I am also concerned about the way in which the transcripts are being diced. It appears as if there are words being inserted that were not on the record and only partial statements being pasted into your emails. I would ask that you cease from continuing these distortions. Admittedly, I have not yet seen the transcript but I am almost certain that Robert Spallina said more than what you pasted in an earlier email:

12 MR. SPALLINA: I'm sorry?

13 THE COURT: Are you involved in the 14 transaction?

15 MR. SPALLINA: I was involved

I am fairly certain that Robert continued that sentence and explained to Judge Colin, in detail, how he and his firm, including Kim Moran (whom Mom and Dad were both very fond of), were involved in the notary matter addressed by Judge Colin. I believe his explanation was rather lengthy, yet your email would lead one to believe he answered by saying, "I was involved". Maybe this was an oversight on your part so I shall give you the benefit of the doubt. However, you appear to be adept at the use of cut and paste so I would ask that you try to be more cautious if you intend to continue down this path.

I remind you again that you are causing the assets of the trusts, as well as Dad's estate, to diminish. The money used for hearings, analysis and preparation of your allegations and petitions comes directly from trust and estate assets. As a result, the amount of money that will ultimately be paid to the beneficiaries is going to be less.

I believe the Judge advised you to meet with us. If you would like to do so, please email me and Robert and we can arrange to meet with you at a time that is convenient for you.

Take care,

Ted

I do not agree with your Order at all. Again, I think estate counsel Tescher & Spallina should resign immediately as counsel to the estate for the Fraud on the Court already identified and admitted to at the hearing as the transcripts clearly show.

My response,

1. The proposed Order is false and misleading in the first part of your draft order, as the Emergency Motion was not denied in toto and there are many parts to it and the remainder to be heard on the 28th or whatever date the judge selects, according to the Judge. From the hearing transcript,

   18 It's only really that there's

   19 no emergency here. Everything everyone raises

   20 on the 28th.

   21 MR. MANCERI: Very good, Judge. Do you

   23 THE COURT: We'll try.

   The hearing cannot be solely on Shirley's estate as the matters in Shirley's estate pertain to Simon's estate. I do understand that Simon's estate is administered by Judge French and orders in that estate will come from him. Have you thought of inviting him to attend the hearings as they relate to Simon's estate?

2. I thought the judge wanted the evidentiary hearing moved up from the 10/28/13 to mid-September.
3. I would add that the hearing will also be in regard to any documents or issues in Simon's estate that relate to the closing of Shirley's estate or any documents or issues that effected both estates, including beneficiary changes in either estate and all the documents that effectuated any changes to their 2008 estate plans that appear properly signed and executed.
4. Again, I believe you should advise your clients to withdraw as counsel to the estate as all of these issues relate to their alleged fraudulent acts and their legal assistant, Kimberly Moran and their admitted fraudulent notarizations that are alleged forged and this puts them in conflict now. Finally, I am not sure how the judge is to allow them to continue to represent any parties in these matters until all of the ongoing investigations both criminally and civilly against them are rectified in light of the fact that they have already committed Fraud upon the Court and more and admitted to it in the hearing.

Your cover email states that you will "advise Judge Colin that you do not agree with the provisions of the Agreed Order and will be submitting your own Orders to the Court for its consideration" and instead I would prefer if you not only advise the Judge but submit my entire replies to your proposed orders, including this email and my last, with the original proposed orders I reviewed to the Judge, along with any other advice you will be giving him. If you do not intend on complying with this request please let me know so that I may send them in if I have to file my own proposed orders, either way, did not want to burden the Court with the same documents.

Thank you,

Eliot

Mr. Manceri and Myra,

First, Ted Bernstein should not be appointed as Successor Trustee or Personal Representative as there are conflicts of interest and more with Ted and myself and beneficiaries of the estate. The judge should determine who will be the new Personal Representative and it should be left open for him to decide after the evidentiary hearing. Hopefully, after he reviews the gross negligence and misconduct and more by Tescher & Spallina, Robert Spallina, Donald Tescher & Ted Bernstein discovered in the hearing, he will also demand new estate counsel. After stating he should read you all your Miranda Rights now at the hearing due to the fraud on the court in having dead men sign and notarize documents to close the estate and then failing to contact the court to notify him he was deceased when filing them, well I am not sure we can rely on your client's advice or services any longer. Ted has several other conflicts which are well defined in my 7 Petitions/Motions. I am surprised to learn after Ted claimed in court that he was there as 'trustee for the estate" that Ted who misrepresented himself at the hearing as already appointed would be someone you would elect as a fiduciary, especially after learning there was no Personal Representative or Successor Trustee approved by the Court for months after Simon died, while the estate was still open and then the estate was closed with Simon's and others fraudulently notarized documents after Simon's death. Simon's admittedly fraudulent and allegedly forged signature was used on a recreated document after his death and where these felonious documents were learned at the hearing to have been sent from your client Tescher & Spallina's office all the beneficiaries have cause for concern. Your clients are responsible for the acts of their Notary Public Kimberly Moran under Florida law. I also think your client Tescher & Spallina, P.A. should resign immediately as estate counsel and you should ask the judge to appoint new estate counsel as well. In fact, from the following statement of the judge at the hearing, I am not sure if you too should be seeking personal and professional representative counsel. The court testimony regarding my comments above below,

"6 THE COURT: So let me tell you because I'm

7 going to stop all of you folks because I think

8 you need to be read your Miranda warnings.

9 MR. MANCERI: I need to be read my Miranda

11 THE COURT: Everyone of you [Tescher, Spallina, Tescher & Spallina, P.A., Ted Bernstein and you Mr. Manceri] might have to

13 MR. MANCERI: Okay."

5 MR. MANCERI: Okay.

6 THE COURT: All right, so stop, that's

7 enough to give you Miranda warnings. Not you

9 MR. MANCERI: Okay.

10 THE COURT: Are you involved? Just tell

11 me yes or no.

12 MR. SPALLINA: I'm sorry?

13 THE COURT: Are you involved in the 14 transaction?

15 MR. SPALLINA: I was involved

We should leave all these items open for the Judge to approve and appoint after the Evidentiary Hearing and after the determination if he will read your Miranda Rights to you and your clients and then arrest you. If you would like me to edit your draft more appropriately let me know but those are my comments thus far. Please let me know your response before any draft is sent to the court. I do not approve of Ted for any fiduciary capacity, nor do I think Spallina & Tescher P.A. should be nominating anyone at this time and resigning and if you would like to put someone in this document you can feel free to elect me Personal Representative. Is Ted your client yet, as you mentioned at the hearing you may be representing him in the proceedings too?

Thanks

- Documents May Have Time But Nothing May Be Done w/ Estate

Dear Mr. Bernstein,

I am in receipt of your e-mail dated September 18, 2013 regarding the Agreed Order to Reopen Estate and Appointing Successor Personal Representatives. I do not agree with your comments, changes as they do not comport with the Order of the Court.

I am attaching a draft Order on Notice of Emergency Motion to Freeze Estates for your review, comments, etc., which I will need to receive from you by noon (12:00 PM) tomorrow. If I do not hear from you, I will submit both Orders to the Court and advise Judge Colin that you do not agree with the provisions of the Agreed Order and will be submitting your own Orders to the Court for its consideration.

Ted, as the successor trustee of the trust for benefit of your father under Shirley's Revocable Trust, would be responsible for providing an accounting of that trust.

Please let me know when you have opened the accounts that would need to be open before any potential distributions could be made to the children's trusts. Once you have done so, notify me with the information and I will need to forward you a standard release and refunding agreement that will need to be signed before any distributions can be made. Feel free to call me with any questions or concerns.

Attachments: 20130828 Motion to Reopen Estate and Set Evidentiary Hearing.pdf

Ted, responding to your letter below, attached is a Motion to Reopen Mom's estate filed by Spallina in the Probate court on August 28th 2013 for "irregularities" aka Admitted and Acknowledged Notary Forgery and Fraud of documents used in the closing documents in mom's estate. Your feign of confusion does not bid well with me now, as I have clearly articulated my points in the Motions and Petitions filed in both mom and dad's estates over the last several months alleging that documents were forged and fraudulent and other crimes you are central figure in and you are a named Respondent in those matters and Motions and Petitions, one that continues to fail to respond to them while acting in purported ignorance and continuing to violate Fiduciary roles and commit alleged crimes. You need counsel both legal and psychological it appears and again I ask are you representing yourself in your presumed fiduciary roles in the estates or do you have counsel? I have reported these criminal and civil matters to the proper authorities and after reviewing the materials in the Petitions and other documents I have served you, again, my advice would be to meet with criminal investigators and discuss the allegations against you in light of the ADMITTED AND ACKNOWLEDGED forged and fraudulent documents in the estates.

Mom and Dad would be ashamed of your actions and your actions may in fact at this stage be viewed as criminal in nature and they certainly did not raise us in that manner. They would be shamed how you have acted since their passing, I know Dad was ashamed after Mom passed of your behavior then and now I think he would get out of the wall and slap you upside the head for what you are doing. What you are doing to my children from Josh's car to the attempt to abscond with their school trust funds and insurance funds, to missing investment funds, lost insurance trusts, missing beneficiaries, missing accounts and items from the estate to selling assets behind my and my children's counsel backs is horrific and you bring much shame upon our family and maim the image of both mom and dad and our family by violating that first commandment and others. I have no intention of meeting with you without criminal authorities present and/or judicial authorities in court. In the interim I cannot sign anything or authorize any distribution until these civil and criminal matters are wholly resolved as to do so would be to be participating in fraud, words of caution to you to. In fact, these documents that were fraudulently submitted to the court are the documents alleged to have given those in charge their fiduciary powers. I am not getting into a letter writing campaign with you, you can make your points in court and feign ignorance there or with investigators and I suggest you should immediately turn over any information or knowledge you have regarding these crimes already admitted by Spallina & Tescher to investigators in the matters and fully confess any and all roles you may have played in this macabre scene you have created and continue to take part in.

I pray you have a good explanation for your actions and that is the best I can do for you now. I am glad to see after a year after dad's passing and just days after Spallina's admissions and his Notary Public confession to crimes, including but not limited to, Forgery, Fraud, Fraud on the Court, Mail and Wire Fraud and more, you are trying to contact me and not having further secreted meetings on how to move assets around me without my knowledge or consent. From this point forward however please have your counsel contact me if you have retained counsel for any of the conflicting roles you are assuming under presumed powers. Finally, I suggest you cancel any and all transactions made, including any sales or distribution of any kind and return all properties you or others have removed from the estates without my consent or knowledge in some cases. I know you are bitter that you were cut out of mom and dad's estates entirely, yet nothing can justify what you are doing with your new best friend Spallina to my family and the other beneficiaries at this point.

G-dbless you,

Eliot

Eliot > I am not sure that I am following you. I do not understand how you arrive at the conclusions you have reached about criminal wrongdoing. Who is acting criminally and to what end? I honestly can not follow the path you are pursuing and what you are trying to achieve here. Maybe we should all get together to discuss the issues and you can shed light on who is acting improperly, what they should be doing to act properly, what you feel you have not received that you are entitled to receive, and why. I often find that much more gets accomplished when all the interested parties come together in one place. It is my understanding that you are representing yourself in these matters so you should be able to easily articulate your position. I know with certainty that all the interested parties here would like to put an end to the apparent confusion so that unnecessary time, effort and money can stop being wasted, money that will ultimately lessen the amount each beneficiary will receive. Please let me know if you would like me to arrange a meeting for all of us to meet.

I do not think that Mom and Dad wanted this to be the manner in which their assets were distributed. I think they left very clear instruction through carefully planned documentation, created by very competent professionals. I have not seen anything to suggest the contrary but you should feel free to bring the information you have to a meeting where these things can be made aware to the appropriate people who have been charged with these responsibilities.

In the interim, please send me the bank account information that I will need in the event that distributions are made. Once you have given me that information, I will send you the release and refund agreement that I will require before I can make a distribution.

Ted, please see the email below copied to you earlier and I advise again you take the same advice I gave Spallina and Tescher and cease and desist in any actions with the estates. Already, with the new admissions that the estate of Shirley was closed using ADMITTEDLY FORGED AND FRAUDULENT DOCUMENTS, for example, the real estate sale and other transactions you are doing may result in criminal charges against you as they were done only after these Forged and Fraudulent documents caused the closing of the estate. I am surprised that in whatever capacity(ies) you are writing to me for whichever estate you are representing below that you have not retained legal counsel to represent you in each fiduciary capacity you are acting in. As you know, these are most serious issues and crimes and to transact sales and distributions on knowingly forged and fraudulent documents that I have notified you of for months of may be construed as fraud. I am unaware of and have received no documents regarding trusts and have authorized no distributions or sales and have several times advised you not to act until these matters of Forged and Fraudulent documents in the estates of mom and dad could be resolved by state and federal criminal actions filed and state and federal civil actions. I would also advise you or any other party putting back ALL assets of the estates of mom and dad until a court can properly dispose of them to the proper parties. Your continued rush to sell off assets behind my back, in meetings held with others and without me with intent is most egregious and perhaps criminal! Again I suggest getting counsel in these matters before further acting in any capacity in either estate; I am surprised your good pal Spallina is not also represented by counsel at this point, especially after admitting his firm sent knowingly forged and fraudulent documents to a state probate court and other documents used to change beneficiaries and appoint Spallina as Personal Representatives also appear to be legally void due to further fraud and more.

Janet, I have attached below correspondence sent to Tescher & Spallina P.A. regarding their Admitted and Acknowledged Forgery and Fraud in the estates of my parents. After reviewing the attached herein letter to Spallina et al and the "NOTICE OF MOTION FOR: INTERIM DISTRIBUTION FOR BENEFICIARIES NECESSARY LIVING EXPENSES, FAMILY ALLOWANCE, LEGAL COUNSEL EXPENSES TO BE PAID BY PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES AND REIMBURSEMENT TO BENEFICIARIES SCHOOL TRUST FUNDS" I filed with the Probate Court regarding these Criminal Acts that I will forward shortly to you, I would suggest you rethink your prior correspondence to me regarding your cessation of funding the necessary life sustaining expenses for the minor children with virtually no notice of your dire actions, after you and Spallina had recent conversations to make these sudden and catastrophic changes if I did not release you from your fiduciary duties and hand over the remaining trust values to my brother Ted who is also alleged in the Motions to the Court to be acting in criminal conspiracy with Spallina to steal estate assets and now it appears steal my children's trust fund. In what capacity and on whose behalf was Spallina acting in directing your actions? This sign and transfer the fund OR ELSE no funding starting instantly for the children's living expenses appears an attempt to extort me to make these changes under duress and with knowledge of Criminal Acts committed by Spallina against the Beneficiaries. Due to these new revelations of Criminal Acts by Tescher & Spallina in submitting Fraudulent Documents in the estates, I will not be signing any documents or releasing any fiduciaries until the completion of state and federal investigations and determinations are made in state and federal civil actions already filed, as defined herein and in the documents that will be forwarded shortly.

I will be sending over the bills and expense reimbursements due as we have been for almost a year and anticipate that until you get a Court order approving your and Spallina's new plan to cease funding necessary living expenses that these expenses will continue to be paid without severing life sustaining funding that you are fully aware of its essential nature and know the catastrophic events that this will cause the minor children in your care. I will be sending you a more formal letter hopefully early next week detailing more of what is going on and how we should best protect the children during this new crises caused by Tescher & Spallina.

Thank you,

Eliot

Subject: RE: Bernstein Grandchildren's trusts

Tescher & Spallina, P.A., Robert Spallina, Donald Tescher and Ms. Kimberly Moran,

Ms. Moran, Robert Spallina & Donald Tescher,

Ms. Moran, in reply to your employers letter below and your letter dated August 23, 2013 re "Estate of Simon Bernstein – Disposition of Jewelry", I am advising you personally and your employer Tescher & Spallina PA and its partners to refrain from any further actions in the estates of Simon and Shirley Bernstein until the probate court and state criminal authorities can make determinations regarding the ultimate beneficiaries of the estates, due to your admitted and acknowledged criminal fraud and forgery on documents submitted by Tescher & Spallina, Spallina, Tescher and yourself to the courts in the estates. Your admission and acknowledgement to the Florida Governor's Notary Public investigation of the complaints I filed against you and your employer, of your having committed Notary Fraud and Forgery in documents submitted to the courts in the estates, acting on behalf of your employer Spallina & Tescher, Robert Spallina and Donald Tescher, null and voids many, if not all, of the documents in the estates. Many other documents than the six you have admittedly forged and fraudulently notarized, also appear to have been improperly and allegedly signed and notarized improperly, including those giving powers to your employers as Personal Representatives via now legally invalid Wills and Trusts and thus negate their fiduciary duties and legal right to sell and distribute assets in the estates. Many documents requested are still being suppressed by your offices from several of the beneficiaries and interested parties and all of these documents will need to be examined for further evidence of Forgery and Fraud before any action with any assets can now legally be taken.

Each and every action you and your employers are taking with these fraudulently obtained fiduciary powers and admittedly forged and fraudulent documents will be further reported to state and/or federal authorities as further alleged criminal acts enabled by your admitted fraud and forgery with the documents and fraud upon the Probate Court and Beneficiaries. I am personally surprised and offended that you are contacting me at all on behalf of your employers while you are both aware that you are being investigated by state agencies in ongoing investigations of you and your employer and where you have already admitted and acknowledged Fraud and Forgery in my parents' estates. Since the ultimate beneficiaries cannot be determined until these matters and matters with the courts are fully resolved, any sales or distributions appear to be further criminal acts and I advise both you and your employers to instead immediately turn over all documents, records and assets in my parents estates to the Probate Court and then turn yourselves in to criminal authorities and further beg for mercy as you have already done with the Florida Governor's office for leniency for your admitted and acknowledged crimes against my family. A word of caution Ms. Moran, next time you attempt to confess to crimes you should be more truthful in your statements under penalty of perjury, for I will now be filing charges of alleged perjury for your misleading statements to the Governor's Office Notary Public investigators. Remember a confession should be without blemish and your statements are fraught with further lies and alleged criminal perjury leaving you instead with "unclean hands."

Below is a list of submissions to the Probate Court I have made in my mother's estate, similar documents were filed in my father's estate with the court that further reveal the crimes being alleged against you and your employer and I advise you and your employers to respond to the Petitions prior to our 1 hour hearing that has been approved by the judge and to be soon scheduled to hear the matters. IMMEDIATELY CEASE AND DESIST ANY FURTHER ACTIONS IN THE ESTATES OF SIMON AND SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN.

Eliot,

Please let me know when you have opened the accounts that would need to be open before any potential distributions could be made to the children's trusts. Once you have done so, notify me with the information and I will need to forward you a standard release and refunding agreement that will need to be signed before any distributions can be made. Feel free to call me with any questions or concerns.

Subject: Estates and Trusts of Shirley & Simon Bernstein and Related Entities

All –

Sorry for the delay in getting this to you as I had promised when I participated on our recent conference call. It takes me a little longer to turn around matters as I work from Cape Cod in the Summer.

In reviewing our billings to date, which encompass virtually a year, over the year we have billed your father's estate and trust a total of $105,000 from Sep 2012 thru Aug 2013. For this purpose, the estate and trust includes unreimbursed fees on the Shirley Trust (approximately $ 15-20K), the 1995 Insurance Trust (approximately $20-25K) and Bernstein Family Realty, LLC ($10,000). As a result, our fees on Si's estate and trust matters over the last year have been approximately $50K-$60K. In that regard we have opened the estate and filed the relevant documents, have consulted and met with outside counsel on the Stansbury litigation (and Eliot matters) and on another claim in litigation, dealt with Eliot and his counsel on all of his matters, worked with the accountants on tax return matters and related items, worked with JP Morgan on the asset management and loan matters, dealt with creditor issues, dealt with appraisers and potential purchaser of the jewelry, and communicated with Ted on a very regular basis as liaison for all of you in addition to our conference calls and individual calls over the last year. Unfortunately, your father's affairs were not left in the best order and the business litigation has spilled over to the trusts and estate making normal administration more difficult. Furthermore, his decision to by-pass you children in favor of his grandchildren has exhasperated the issues in trying to deal with Eliot which has become a continuing, ongoing process with no resolution in site. I believe that we have adequately expressed our concerns in this regard to you.

As we discussed, under normal circumstances the Shirley Trust assets would have already been distributed to the Grandchildren's Trusts created under Si's Trust (based upon the exercise of his power of appointment under his will) but for the fact that the Shirley Trust is still a party in the Stansbury litigation and as to distributions to trusts for Eliot's children, we have advised Ted that the trustee of those trusts needs to sign off on a Receipt, Release and Refunding Agreement (or alternatively, Ted needs to prepare a formal accounting and serve it on all to commence the running of the 6 month statute of limitations to cut off a beneficiary's right to sue him).

It is not our usual practice to serve as fiduciaries for our clients; however, in certain limited situations we have undertaken that role. Under the Florida Statutes, an attorney serving as a Personal Representative or Trustee can be compensated for both legal and fiduciary fees. We have not, nor do we intend to bill for Personal Representative fees or Trustee fees and have been conservative in our billing of the estate out of respect for your parents with whom we enjoyed a very nice relationship, and have attempted to minimize duplication of Robert's and my time. At the appropriate time we will provide a complete accounting of our fees and all estate expenses to date.

Having said that, we need to reign your brother in before he single handedly depletes the estate and trust assets with all of his nonsense. The amount of time, energy and effort that he is expending and the lies he is telling are incredible. We don't necessarily have an answer for this yet but we hope that somehow that one or more of you is able to reason with him and put an end to this. Your parents would certainly not appreciate the mockery he has made of their estates.

Again, sorry for the delay in getting this information to you. Going forward we will provide you with monthly bills so there is no further misunderstanding and better transparency.

Tescher & Spallina, P.A., Robert Spallina, Donald Tescher and Ms. Kimberly Moran,

Ms. Moran, Robert Spallina & Donald Tescher,

Ms. Moran, in reply to your employers letter below and your letter dated August 23, 2013 re "Estate of Simon Bernstein – Disposition of Jewelry", I am advising you personally and your employer Tescher & Spallina PA and its partners to refrain from any further actions in the estates of Simon and Shirley Bernstein until the probate court and state criminal authorities can make determinations regarding the ultimate beneficiaries of the estates, due to your admitted and acknowledged criminal fraud and forgery on documents submitted by Tescher & Spallina, Spallina, Tescher and yourself to the courts in the estates. Your admission and acknowledgement to the Florida Governor's Notary Public investigation of the complaints I filed against you and your employer, of your having committed Notary Fraud and Forgery in documents submitted to the courts in the estates, acting on behalf of your employer Spallina & Tescher, Robert Spallina and Donald Tescher, null and voids many, if not all, of the documents in the estates. Many other documents than the six you have admittedly forged and fraudulently notarized, also appear to have been improperly and allegedly signed and notarized improperly, including those giving powers to your employers as Personal Representatives via now legally invalid Wills and Trusts and thus negate their fiduciary duties and legal right to sell and distribute assets in the estates. Many documents requested are still being suppressed by your offices from several of the beneficiaries and interested parties and all of these documents will need to be examined for further evidence of Forgery and Fraud before any action with any assets can now legally be taken.

Each and every action you and your employers are taking with these fraudulently obtained fiduciary powers and admittedly forged and fraudulent documents will be further reported to state and/or federal authorities as further alleged criminal acts enabled by your admitted fraud and forgery with the documents and fraud upon the Probate Court and Beneficiaries. I am personally surprised and offended that you are contacting me at all on behalf of your employers while you are both aware that you are being investigated by state agencies in ongoing investigations of you and your employer and where you have already admitted and acknowledged Fraud and Forgery in my parents' estates. Since the ultimate beneficiaries cannot be determined until these matters and matters with the courts are fully resolved, any sales or distributions appear to be further criminal acts and I advise both you and your employers to instead immediately turn over all documents, records and assets in my parents estates to the Probate Court and then turn yourselves in to criminal authorities and further beg for mercy as you have already done with the Florida Governor's office for leniency for your admitted and acknowledged crimes against my family. A word of caution Ms. Moran, next time you attempt to confess to crimes you should be more truthful in your statements under penalty of perjury, for I will now be filing charges of alleged perjury for your misleading statements to the Governor's Office Notary Public investigators. Remember a confession should be without blemish and your statements are fraught with further lies and alleged criminal perjury leaving you instead with "unclean hands."

Below is a list of submissions to the Probate Court I have made in my mother's estate, similar documents were filed in my father's estate with the court that further reveal the crimes being alleged against you and your employer and I advise you and your employers to respond to the Petitions prior to our 1 hour hearing that has been approved by the judge and to be soon scheduled to hear the matters. IMMEDIATELY CEASE AND DESIST ANY FURTHER ACTIONS IN THE ESTATES OF SIMON AND SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN.

BENEFICIARY AND INTERESTED PARTY ELIOT BERNSTEIN OBJECTIONS TO SUCCESSOR PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE' S OBJECTIONS TO FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES AND FIRST REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND THINGS PROPOUNDED BY ELIOT BERNSTEIN

COMES NOW, Eliot Ivan Bernstein ("Petitioner"), as Beneficiary and Interested Party both for himself personally and for his three minor children who may also be Beneficiaries and Interested Parties of the Estate of Shirley Bernstein ("Shirley"), PRO SE, and hereby files this his Objections to the Objections to First Set of Interrogatories and First Request for Production of Documents and Things propounded by Eliot Bernstein dated November 1, 2013 and in support thereof states, as follows:

1. On November 1, 2013, Petitioner served his First Set of Interrogatories and First Request for Production of Documents and Things (hereinafter the "Discovery") on the Personal Representative.

2. The Personal Representative has objected to the propounded Discovery, after failing to timely reply and now claims Petitioner is not a beneficiary / interested person in these proceedings and has no standing to conduct the propounded Discovery, according to Florida Statute 731.201(23).

3. That Petitioner claims that Under Florida Statute 731.201 and 731.201(23) he and/or his three minor children, or both, are factually beneficiaries / interested parties of the estate of Shirley and he is legal Guardian of his children, so either way he would be due all Discovery requested.

4. That evidence of Petitioner and his minor children standing was given to this Court in a hearing on September 13, 2013 and in an Evidentiary Hearing on October 28, 2013, and this Court has already determined that the beneficiaries / interested parties have all been called into question in the trust and estate of Shirley Bernstein but that Petitioner and/or his children are beneficiaries either way. The question of the beneficiaries / interested parties having arisen in part due to, FORGED and FRAUDULENT documents tendered to the Court by Tescher & Spallina P.A., Donald Tescher, Esq. ("Tescher"), Robert Spallina, Esq. ("Spallina") and allegedly created by their legal assistant/notary public, a one Kimberly Moran ("Moran"). Separate and distinct crimes from those committed by Moran, are crimes committed by Spallina and Tescher in closing the estate by using the Personal Representative, Shirley's husband Simon Bernstein ("Simon") while dead, to serve documents to this Court as if alive for four months to close the estate in January 2013, where Simon had passed away on September 13, 2012. After closing the estate with a dead Personal Representative they attempted to use documents that also are alleged fraudulent from Simon's estate to allegedly change the beneficiaries of Shirley's estate Post Mortem.

5. That all this Fraud and Forgery is due to the fact that Simon and Shirley never changed their beneficiaries from the 2008 Wills and Trusts they did together and where Theodore Bernstein ("Theodore") and his sister Pamela Simon (P. Simon) were wholly excluded from both of the estates with their lineal descendants in the 2008 estate plans and were so outraged as to attempt to change the desires and intent of both Simon and Shirley by changing the beneficiaries post mortem, through forged and fraudulent documents in order to convert estate assets to themselves and their lineal descendants.

6. That all of this fraud and forgery to achieve these fraudulent changes was aided and abetted by Theodore's close personal and business associates, Spallina and Tescher, who have even made claims that they were going to try and go against the wishes of Simon and Shirley to get Theodore and Pamela benefits that they were not entitled to.

7. That Moran has been arrested for FRAUD and admitted to the Palm Beach County Sheriff's office the crime of FORGERY in six separate Waiver documents for six separate people in the estate of Shirley, including one forged post mortem for Simon and Florida Law makes Tescher & Spallina P.A., Spallina and Tescher wholly responsible and liable for all damages for the actions of their notary public.

8. That from Moran's statements to the Palm Beach County Sheriff it is now factually learned that the Waivers on file in the court are FORGED, that Petitioner, ELIOT IVAN BERNSTEIN, DID NOT SIGN any Waiver that was filed and docketed with this Court ever. Yet, the Personal Representative, Spallina, Tescher and their counsel Mark Manceri ("Manceri"), are asserting repeatedly to this Court that Waivers were filed by Petitioner with the Court. Factually Waivers were not filed and docketed with the Court by Petitioner, Petitioner's siblings or his deceased father Simon when the estate was closed, as Moran has admitted to signing the Waivers that are on file with the Court on wholly recreated documents. Nor have any of the alleged grandchildren beneficiaries signed a Waiver and therefore no legal Waivers are on file with this Court by any interested parties or beneficiaries when the estate was illegally closed.

9. That the Waivers that are on file with the Court are therefore entirely worthless, as they are FORGED and fraudulent and proven so by Moran's admission that she "traced" aka forged the signatures on all six Waiver documents filed with the court, including one for Petitioner's deceased father POST MORTEM, as evidenced in the Sheriff's report. In that report Moran states to authorities "Moran stated that at this time, she took it upon herself to trace [aka FORGE] each signature of the six members of the Bernstein family onto another copy of the original waiver document. She then notarized them and resubmitted them to the courts." The problem here is the alleged "original" waivers were never filed and docketed in this Court and Moran then resubmitted to the Court wholly forged and fraudulent documents with her signature on them and those are the only Waivers that were on file with this Court at the time the estate was closed. There have been recent attempts to cure the forgery by some of the alleged beneficiaries whose names were forged and obviously Simon cannot cure his as he remains deceased and Petitioner and his children will not sign Waivers in light of the forgery and fraud already proven.

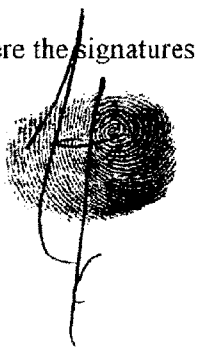
10. That Moran's statement to the Sheriff's office contradicts her prior statement to the Governor's Notary Public office in a sworn statement under penalty of perjury, where she claimed the documents and signatures she resubmitted to the Court, were identical with Waivers that were kicked back by the Court for failure to have a notarization and allegedly signed by the original parties, other than her having fraudulently affixed her notary stamp to the already signed documents and contradiction now constitutes new crimes of false statements in official proceedings and perjury in official sworn statement. These new criminal allegation are being pursued with authorities by Petitioner currently. This Court should take Judicial Notice and act on its own motions regarding this new evidence of perjury and false statements in official proceeding.

11. That the false statements that the Waivers filed were not FORGED was also echoed by Spallina and Manceri in the September 13, 2013 hearing in statements made to Your Honor when Spallina knowingly lied to Your Honor and claimed the signatures on file with the court were not forged and where the signatures of the alleged parties that signed them.



Therefore, despite repeated attempts to claim the Waivers filed with the Court were Waivers of Petitioner or any of the other signors it is now proven factually untrue and these statements to the Court by Attorneys at Law in official proceedings violates Attorney Conduct Codes and Law. Under Judicial Cannon's and Law it is Your Honor's duty to report the criminal activities of Attorneys at Law to all of the proper authorities, especially where Your Honor had enough evidence at the September 13, 2013 hearing of fraud on the court and beneficiaries and more to have the Attorneys at Law, Spallina and Tescher read their Miranda's at that time.

12. As now Waivers have NOT been signed previously and filed with this Court by any beneficiaries or interested parties that are legally valid in any way and the estate has been newly reopened, all beneficiaries / interested parties are due all documents legally due to them (ie accountings, financial records, bank and credit card statements for five years, inventories, attorney billings, tax returns, estate bank account accountings, inventories, etc.), before any attempts are made to close the newly reopened estate of Shirley and further attempt to keep all this Discovery further a secret from the beneficiaries / interested parties who have been denied all of this Discovery ILLEGALLY for now three years in Shirley's estate.

13. That additionally the estate of Shirley cannot be closed until all of the beneficiaries and interested parties are first determined by both the judges in the estates, due to other factors than just the Fraud and Forgery that have called the beneficiaries into question. This questioning of the beneficiaries / interested parties results from the fact that Shirley's beneficiaries were attempted to be changed POST MORTEM in Shirley's estate (and Simon's), by legally flawed documents of Simon's used in Shirley's estate, including documents with yet another notary public, a one Lindsay Baxley, now under investigation by Florida Governor Rick Scott's Notary Public division for alleged fraudulent and improper notarizations, and for these reasons that cause the beneficiaries / interested parties to be in dispute, the estate must remain open and all requested Discovery and other discovery if necessary be produced.

14. That if there is nothing to hide and nothing there, as the other side claims, then why are they trying so desperately to dodge the Discovery to any party entitled to it? Petitioner requests that the Discovery documents and accounting be produced by independent parties that are not conflicted with the matters due to personal involvement in the crimes and that Petitioner be awarded the right to have forensic experts examine all documents tendered by Tescher & Spallina, P.A., Tescher and Spallina, for further evidence of fraud or forgery, as nothing they have done or will do can be trusted by certain of the beneficiaries / interested parties due to their involvement in Fraud and Forgery and Fraud on the Court and more already.

15. That as with Moran's documents already admitted FORGED and FRAUDULENT, the documents in the estate of Simon used to try and change beneficiaries in Shirley's estate POST MORTEM, primarily a Will and Amended and Restated Trust done allegedly weeks before Simon died, are also alleged fraudulently notarized, witnessed and drafted by Spallina (who gains fiduciary powers and interests in the estate of Simon through them, making them further illegally executed), Moran (who nothing she has signed can be trusted any longer) and Baxley (who is under investigation for these documents) and the Court should note these are separate documents than those Moran is being prosecuted for.

16. That allegations are that Simon and Shirley never made changes to their estate beneficiaries and through a series of forged and fraudulent documents done post mortem for both Simon and Shirley by the alleged perpetrators of these frauds and forgeries, the beneficiaries were attempted to be changed post mortem and against the last wishes and desires of Simon and Shirley as so stated in their prior estate plans on file from 2008. These crimes have been caused primarily by Spallina, Tescher and Theodore, in efforts to seize dominion and control of the estates illegally and put Theodore and his lineal descendants back into the estates against the express wishes and desires of Simon and Shirley who wholly disinherited Theodore and his sister P. Simon along with their lineal descendants.

17. That while Simon had considered making changes to the beneficiaries, if Petitioner's siblings would agree to let him see their children and stop abusing him in May 2012, the abuses never stopped and Simon never made the changes all the way to the day he died in September 2012 and so it is alleged those changes were made for him and Shirley using a series of bogus and fraudulent documents, including those already admittedly Forged and Fraudulent, including forged post mortem documents for Simon.

18. That the crimes of Fraud on the Court and Fraud on the Beneficiaries in presenting these Forged and Fraudulently Notarized Documents in both estates has not been fully investigated at this point and criminal charges filed yet. From the hearings new evidences of Perjury and False Statements by both Moran and Spallina to this Court and state authorities have been uncovered, which will require further criminal investigations and throw everything they have stated thus far into question and that this Court has relied upon in determining orders and more. Additionally, new criminal and civil complaints are being lodged by Petitioner both state and federally for newly discovered alleged criminal acts by Spallina, Tescher, Theodore, Moran and now others, wholly separate from the crimes of Moran that she was arrested for and far more serious in nature.

19. For instance, Spallina, Theodore and Moran are alleged to have committed Insurance Fraud and when that scheme failed, Theodore and others then are alleged to have committed Fraud on US Federal Court, as more fully described in a recent motion to disqualify the attorney at law in that case, Adam Simon (Pamela Simon's brother in law) filed on December 08, 2013 by Eliot Bernstein, titled "(1) MOTION TO STRIKE PLEADINGS AND REMOVE ADAM SIMON FROM LEGAL REPRESENTATION IN THIS LAWSUIT OTHER THAN AS DEFENDANT FOR FRAUD ON THE COURT AND ABUSE OF PROCESS AND (2) MOTION TO REMOVE ADAM SIMON FROM LEGAL REPRESENTATION ON BEHALF OF ANY PARTIES IN THIS LAWSUIT OTHER THAN AS A DEFENDANT PRO SE or REPRESENTED BY INDEPENDENT NON-CONFLICTED COUNSEL," which can be found at www.iviewit.tv/20131208MotionStrikePleadingAdamSimonForFraudOnCourt.pdf , fully incorporated by reference herein, along with all other pleadings, rulings, etc. in Case No. 13-cv-03643 IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT COURT ILLINOIS EASTERN DIVISION (SIMON BERNSTEIN IRREVOCABLE INSURANCE TRUST DTD 6/21/95, Plaintiff, v. HERITAGE UNION LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY Defendant. That it should be noted that allegations have been asserted that Spallina and Theodore have both acted in false fiduciary capacities in those matter with Spallina claiming to be the Trustee of a "lost" "Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust dtd 6/21/95" when filing the insurance claim with the carrier Jackson National. Then amazingly, in a US Federal Court Breach of Contract Lawsuit filed by Adam Simon, for failure to pay the fraudulent claim filed by Spallina that was denied by the carrier, Theodore files a breach of contract lawsuit for the carriers failure to pay Spallina's fraudulent claim, with Theodore now suddenly acting as the alleged Trustee of the "lost" "Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust dtd 6/21/95" and where Mickey Mouse could be the trustee of the "lost" trust as no one has a copy of the "lost" trust allegedly. Petitioner alleges the "lost" trust is another suppressed document to attempt to abscond with an insurance policy of the estates and convert those assets from the true and proper beneficiaries to benefit Theodore and P. Simon directly, aided by Spallina.

20. That in the insurance fraud scheme alleged, again Spallina and Theodore are acting in false fiduciary capacities for a "lost" trust they claim to have no copies of, in order to change beneficiaries of a life insurance policy to the disadvantage of certain of the estate beneficiaries and to directly benefit Theodore and P. Simon who were wholly disinherited from the estates of Simon and Shirley and would therefore not have received a penny if the proceeds came to the estate or to the proper beneficiaries of the policy. That Spallina, as an Attorney at Law, knew at all times that he was not the Trustee of the "lost" trust, even claiming he had never seen a copy in written letters exhibited in that US Federal court case and so did Theodore know he was not the Trustee when filing they filed the fraudulent claim and abuse of process legal action.

21. That Jackson National in their counter complaint in that lawsuit claims that Theodore was advised by counsel prior to filing the lawsuit that he had no basis to file the action.

22. That Petitioner would never have been notified of the lawsuit if Jackson National did not sue him as a third party defendant, alerting him to the attempt to defraud the insurance companies and estate beneficiaries.

23. That in the insurance lawsuit above, a creditor of the estate of Simon, a one William Stansbury ("Stansbury"), has moved to intervene in that lawsuit alleging that that lawsuit is improper as well. Claiming that when there is a lost beneficiary of a policy, as is claimed by Theodore and Spallina, Florida law states the benefits are paid to the insured's estate and thus Stansbury claims the lawsuit is a way to move the asset from the estate to evade him as a creditor, further reinforcing Petitioner's claim to that federal court that they fraudulently filed the insurance claim and the subsequent lawsuit to deny the beneficiaries of the estates their interests.

24. That Petitioner, Eliot Bernstein, is and was always a beneficiary and interested party of Shirley's estate or why would the estate counsel ask to have him sign a Waiver in the first place to close the estate? If the beneficiaries of Shirley's estate are the grandchildren, as alleged by Spallina et al., why were Waivers never sought for them in Shirley's estate and still have not been sought and why are they not represented or even present in these matters. The grandchildren have never been notified of their alleged interests in the estate and if the beneficiaries were changed, the old ones and new ones were never notified.

25. That if the alleged fraudulent Will and Amended and Restated Trust of Simon survive, Petitioner would still be entitled to all the Discovery, as he is guardian/trustee for his children, again only if they are determined to be beneficiaries after all the criminal acts are fully resolved and they are deemed beneficiaries by the courts. Therefore, either way, Petitioner would be due all the legally required Discovery and interrogatories requested now that the estate has been reopened as qualified beneficiaries and interested parties.

26. That all ten grandchildren are now alleged potential beneficiaries / interested parties of the estate and yet they are not represented as interested parties and/or beneficiaries in the matters before the Court, in alleged violation of fiduciary duties of the Personal Representatives and Law. That this court must have each and every party that is an interested party or beneficiary represented in these matters and to date this has not been the case and is a fundamental flaw in these proceedings from the start.

27. That Manceri stated in the September 13, 2013 hearing that Petitioner was a beneficiary until the so called alleged changes were made by Simon to Shirley's beneficiaries post mortem, which changes appear nowhere in the record of Shirley's estate and until this Court determines the beneficiaries, Petitioner either is or is not a beneficiary / interested and either way he is an interested party to these matters under law, due to the very fact that he is questioned as one.

28. That Petitioner, Eliot Bernstein and his three minor children will not be waiving any rights in the estate to close the estate now that it is reopened and they have never had a Waiver filed in this court that was not a forged and fraudulently notarized and therefore not a document filed by Petitioner in any way shape or form. As such Petitioner and his children are requesting,

i. a final and FULL accounting,

ii. all previous accounting by the prior Personal Representative Simon and the newly appointed Personal Representative Theodore,

iii. five years of bank statements, credit card statements and tax records, sent directly from the institutions,

iv. a Petition for Discharge that includes the amount of compensation paid to the personal representatives, attorneys, accountants, appraisers, or other agents employed by the personal representatives, and the manner of determining that compensation,

v. all rights to all information legally required under probate rules and statutes, vi. a receipt of complete distribution of the share of the estate to which the Petitioner and/or his children are entitled,

vii. copies of the accountings for the trusts of Shirley to ensure that all assets were properly accounted for and transferred from the estate to the trusts and as these accounting and inventories, etc. were due to the beneficiaries of the trusts for the last three years and have never been tendered in violation of fiduciary duties and law, these must be ordered by this Court to be turned over as they relate to the closing of the estate, viii. the amount and manner of determining the compensation of the personal representative, attorneys, accountants, appraisers, or other agents, as Petitioner has NOT agreed to the amount and manner of determining such compensation and has NOT waived,

- the payment of such compensation,
- a plan of distribution,
- a Petition for Discharge of the personal representative and all notice thereof upon the Petitioner,
- a receipt of complete distribution of the share of the estate to which the Petitioner and/or his children are entitled and
- does not consent to any order discharging the personal representative without notice, hearing or waiting period and without accounting.

29. That all Discovery requested by Eliot Bernstein is within Florida Statutes and Probate Rules and therefore legally due to the beneficiaries and interested parties. Any claims by the Personal Representatives that any of this information is not discoverable based on claims that Petitioner and his children are not qualified as beneficiaries / interested parties, the work product doctrine, the accountant-client privilege and/or the attorney-client privilege are challenged herein and any documents marked as such and approved by this court as such must be presented to the beneficiaries as marked in such manner and the confidential information redacted, if this court so sees fit. Again, if nothing to hide, why all the hiding?

30. That the deadline to respond to the interrogatories and requests for Discovery was not timely responded to and therefore this late grandstanding effort to get out of production through their Objection should be stricken and sanctions implied for even filing their baseless and vexatious objections to further waste time and resources of the injured parties and this Court.

31. That this Court has also recently appointed Theodore as Personal Representative of the estate of Shirley, a fiduciary role he was acting under prior to the appointment for over a year and was transacting assets of the estate and trusts of Shirley while not being appointed and further he has made false fiduciary representations before this Court in the September 13, 2013 and the October 28, 2013 hearing as already evidenced to this Court by motion, which motion can be found @ www.iviewit.tv/20131010MotionCompelFreezeYouHavetheRighttoRemainSilent.pdf .

32. That Theodore, as Personal Representative and his counsel Spallina have conflicts of interest and adverse interests to beneficiaries now, especially to Petitioner and his family for numerous reasons already defined herein, including that Petitioner is the one who has uncovered their fraudulent schemes involving forgery, fraud, fraud on this Court, fraud on the beneficiaries and more and has caused the arrest of one of them already for felony crime. Obviously, due to Petitioner's efforts to expose their crimes, they have absolute adverse interests that conflict and prohibit them from further being fiduciaries or counsel in these matters. That Petitioner claims that Theodore, Spallina and Tescher are and will do everything to harm him and his family versus help him as would be obligatory as fiduciaries in other normal circumstances.

33. That Petitioner has already motioned this court regarding extortion type behavior against him, to shut him and his family down and further extortionary acts have taken place since the filing of that motion that will soon be filed with this Court and authorities.

Wherefore, this Court order all accountings, interrogatories and other information requested herein, as required by probate rules and statutes that are due to the beneficiaries and interested parties and further remove the Personal Representative Theodore and counsel Tescher & Spallina P.A., Spallina and Tescher, from serving in any capacities in the estate IMMEDIATELY to prevent further harm and damages, nothing they say or do any longer can be trusted for their already admitted and acknowledged breaches of fiduciary duties and serious violations of Law. Further, due to newly discovered information regarding personal property assets of Shirley Bernstein that are not listed in her or Simon's inventories and appear to have vanished into thin air, totaling approximately two million dollars, Discovery production now is essential. Therefore, Petitioner again requests a FULL accounting in Shirley's estate. Since NO trust or estate accountings have ever been provided to the beneficiaries in either Simon's case for over a year and three years in Shirley's case, further violations of probate rules, statutes and fiduciary duties, this request for Discovery appears well within reason and law. Evidence of the missing items in the inventories are being submitted to state authorities in criminal complaints being filed presently and will be presented to the court within a timely manner after filing. That all of this Willful, Wanton, Reckless and Grossly Negligent behavior in violation of Law are cause for this Court to demand these remedies herein immediately, as it has been almost three months since the estate has been reopened and not a single document has been forthcoming from the Personal Representatives to further delay and cause damages to the beneficiaries and interested parties and bleed the estate of resources. Petitioner hereby request that this Honorable Court enter an Order consistent with the relief requested herein, and award of attorney's fees and costs, impose sanctions and any other relief this Honorable Court deems just, equitable and proper.

MOTION TO TAX ATTORNEY' S FEES AND COSTS AND IMPOSE SANCTIONS

COME NOW, Eliot Ivan Bernstein ("Petitioner"), as Beneficiary and Interested Party both for himself personally and as Guardian for his three minor children who may also be Beneficiaries and Interested Parties of the Estate of Shirley Bernstein ("Shirley"), PRO SE, and hereby files this Motion to Tax Attorney's Fees and Costs and Impose Sanctions and in support thereof state, as follows:

1. On November 14, 2013, the Court entered an Order reserving ruling to tax attorney's fees and costs.

2. Petitioner on behalf of himself and as Guardian/Trustee for his three minor children hereby request that the Court tax their attorney's fees and costs against the following parties, as all of these fees and costs are a direct result of criminal acts proven in this court already of FORGERY, Fraud on the Court and Fraud on the Beneficiaries / Interested Parties, through the presentation of a series of documents to the Court to close the estate by Tescher & Spallina P.A., Robert Spallina ("Spallina") and Donald Tescher ("Tescher") on behalf of a dead Personal Representative, Petitioner's father Simon Bernstein ("Simon") as if he were alive, for four months after he was dead, which caused this Court to fraudulently close the estate and once crimes were discovered and admitted to, forcing its reopening. For all of the following parties involved directly in the crimes proven this far, the costs and legal fees incurred thus far by Petitioner should be awarded as damages and further bonding and surety be required by all those involved in the criminal activities who have caused all these problems and the reopening of the estate, as follows;

i. The Law Firm Tescher & Spallina, P.A., Spallina and Tescher, as they are wholly responsible and liable for the acts of their employed legal assistant/notary public under Florida Law, a one Kimberly Moran ("Moran"), who has admitted to Forgery and Fraudulently notarizing documents, including a post mortem forged Waiver for Simon and five other FORGED Waivers for other beneficiaries / interested parties. That Moran was employed at the time by Tescher & Spallina, P.A. and therefore despite any alleged reasons for her acts, Tescher & Spallina,

P.A., Tescher and Spallina are wholly liable for her acts and damages caused. Moran has now been arrested for FRAUDULENT NOTARIZATIONS and ADMITTED TO FORGING SIX SIGNATURES ON WAIVERS, including one for Simon Post Mortem.

From her statements to the Palm Beach County Sheriff's office, "Moran stated that at this time, she took it upon herself to trace [aka FORGE] each signature of the six members of the Bernstein family onto another copy of the original waiver document. She then notarized them and resubmitted them to the courts."

ii. Spallina and Tescher should also bear all costs, as they are wholly responsible for separate crimes, including but not limited to, Fraud on the Court and Fraud on Beneficiaries / Interested Parties, as discovered by Your Honor in the September 13, 2013 hearing, for presenting, over a four month period after Simon's death, documents that were used fraudulently crafted and forged and filed in these official proceedings, as if Simon were alive and using Simon to serve as Personal Representative while dead to close the estate of Shirley without notification to the Court that he was dead or seeking successors. Further while still deceased, it is alleged Simon then tried to change beneficiaries of the estate of both he and Shirley POST MORTEM and all of these crimes have caused the true and proper beneficiaries to become disputed. That the criminal acts of Moran and those separate and distinct crimes by Tescher and Spallina personally, warranted Your Honor to state in the September 13, 2013 hearing that you had enough evidence to read Theodore Bernstein ("Theodore"), Spallina, Tescher and Mark Manceri ("Manceri") their Miranda's and Petitioner is still confused why this Court has not had them arrested yet and if Your Honor has reported these additional felony crimes of Tescher and Spallina that were committed upon this Court to the proper authorities. That new problems now exist in whom the beneficiaries of the estates are of both Simon and Shirley as learned in the hearings that will now further delay final distributions in the estate and trusts, further injuring the beneficiaries and interested parties and costing a large amount of monies and damages to the already injured parties due to these criminal acts.

iii. Attorney Manceri for continuing to perpetrate a Fraud on this Court and where it will be evidenced that both he and Spallina have made false statements to this Court in both hearings.

iv. Kimberly Moran, the notary public who has acted under her employer Tescher & Spallina, PA and has forged and fraudulently notarized official records in these proceedings, including forging Simon's signature post mortem.

v. Theodore, as he knowingly has acted in fiduciary capacities in the estate and trusts of Shirley which he did not have prior to September 2013 as proven in the hearings before this court and previously evidenced in Petitioner's motions before the court. All actions Theodore took prior to this Court appointing him Personal Representative from September 13, 2012 to September 2013 were done knowing that Petitioner had challenged his fiduciary authorities to act as Personal Representative with no Letters issued and having never taken any actions according to Probate Rules and Statutes to notify beneficiaries he was a fiduciary in any capacity of Shirley's trusts or the estate. In fact, Theodore continued to act in these capacities and rushed to liquidate assets in self-dealing transactions without notice to beneficiaries of the transactions, after Petitioner notified him May 2013 that his, his deceased father's and his siblings signatures had been forged and that fraudulent documents existed in the estates, all transactions were hurried and without notifying the courts or authorities of these facts. Not until Moran was being investigated and this Court scheduled a hearing on September 13, 2013 did Theodore come forward and notify this Court that he was aware of the criminal acts he had concealed for months, including that his own signature was forged. These are not the actions of a trust worthy and responsible Personal Representative acting with legal authority, they are Willful, Wanton, Reckless and Grossly Negligent acts in violation of Law and breaching fiduciary duties and causing a loss of trust and therefore reasons for this Court to instantly retract its Letters to Theodore and sanction him. As further indicated herein Theodore also is involved in an insurance fraud scheme in the US District Court, again acting in false fiduciary capacities, in that matter acting as Trustee of a "lost" trust, to move assets from Simon's estate and convert them to himself directly and without notice to the beneficiaries. That Petitioner could go on and on about the reasons Theodore should be removed as Personal Representative but has already done so in

ALL prior motions filed by Petitioner with the Court since May 2013 and all of those reasons and reliefs submitted to this Court thus far must now be heard as none of Petitioner's motions have been heard other than there request to be heard as an Emergency, not anything else germane in them since May 2013 has been litigated in this Court.

3. Current legal bills and time lost from other work suffered by Petitioner and his minor children thus far from the crimes proven and breaches of fiduciary duties and trust, should be immediately repaid by those parties responsible for causing all these current, past and future legal costs and expenses and delaying inheritances through these crimes to the true and proper beneficiaries and should not be taken from the estates or beneficiaries and further cause them hardships and damages from these criminal acts. Petitioner's expenses thus far, are

Tripp Scott	$9,183.00
Huth & Pratt	$5,000.00
Paralegal Services	$2,583.37
Patricia Fitzmaurice, L.C.S.W., P.A.	$875.00 Expert Witness for October 28, 2013 hearing
Petitioner Time	$100,000 for time and expenses over 1 year to bring the fraud and forgery charges to the attention of the court, state and federal authorities and the beneficiaries. Petitioner spent virtually all of his time that could have been spent in his job, instead protecting the rights and interests of the beneficiaries of the estate and exposing the crimes committed by the Personal Representative and estate counsel.
TOTAL	$117,641.37

4. That Petitioner finds it laughable, if not so sad that those who caused these problems through criminal acts are further trying to apportion the fees (for exposing crimes committed by them) to the injured beneficiaries and interested parties, while insane and vexatious this attempt to shift the cost of their crimes to their victims is telling. Further, Petitioner finds it odd that this Court can allow any of these parties to continue to act in these matters as fiduciaries or counsel, as they are all directly involved in either Moran's crimes or those crimes of identity theft, fraud on the court and fraud on the beneficiaries, identified by Your Honor as committed by Spallina, Tescher, Theodore and possibly Manceri, in closing of the estate with a dead person four months after he was deceased as if he were alive and acting as Personal Representative and then failing to ever notice the Court he was dead and elect any successors. Where these crimes and prosecutions have now caused adverse interests and conflicts with Petitioner and Theodore and his close personal bedfellows, Tescher and Spallina.

5. From a recent email sent by Theodore to Petitioner one can see the adverse interests and hostilities towards Petitioner by Theodore and his friends that exists, quote,

> "You pursued and caused to be arrested a paralegal that our parents loved and without ill-intent, only tried to help a situation along because of dad's death, and it now appears that you are in the process of trying that again with my assistant who has done nothing wrong. You continue to drag Don and Robert through the mud, both of whom our parents were very fond of and who did very good work for our family, notwithstanding your relentless and slanderous accusations."

6. That from this exchange it is apparent that Theodore is upset with Petitioner that he has exposed the fraud, forgery and arrest of Moran, protecting those who have committed crimes in efforts to change his father and mother's estate plans done together in 2008 and in fact is fond of those who committed these criminal acts and somehow feels that Simon and Shirley would be proud of these people for their criminal acts and bizarrely has adverse feelings and interests toward Petitioner, his brother, further these adverse interests to Petitioner and his three minor children are cause for his immediate removal from any fiduciary capacities in the estate and trusts of Shirley. The Court should note that Theodore and Tescher and Spallina are very close personal friends and business associates that share clients and commissions, etc. and this conflicts Theodore as he will not take actions against his close friends, even if they commit HORRIFIC crimes against his father and mother and brother, as their criminal actions directly benefit him and his sister P. Simon, who were wholly disinherited from the estates and trusts to the disadvantage of the beneficiaries and interested parties, all in opposite of Simon and Shirley's last desires and wishes and estate plans they did together while alive.

7. Petitioner's father Simon was used dead as if alive before the Court to close the estate of Shirley, as he had died before closing the estate and making any alleged changes to the beneficiaries that would benefit Theodore, P. Simon and their lineal descendants and therefore to make these Post Mortem changes they needed to fraud this Court and the beneficiaries with documents that were created and filed Post Mortem for Simon, as indicated in part by the Moran FORGED and FRAUDULENTLY NOTARIZED waiver of Simon and other documents used while he was not "serving" as Personal Representative since he was dead at the time and could not be "serving" in any capacity dead. This whole fraud is due to the fact that Simon and Shirley never changed their beneficiaries and Theodore and his sister P. Simon who are wholly excluded from the estates with their lineal descendants prior to these attempted fraudulent changes, were so outraged that Simon and Shirley never changed their beneficiaries to include them, so they attempted, with the aid of Spallina, Tescher, Moran and others to change the desires and intent of Simon and Shirley post mortem through these crimes to satisfy their desires to be included and abscond with the estate assets. All of this fraud and forgery to achieve these fraudulent changes was aided and abetted by Theodore's close personal and business associates, Spallina and Tescher et al., who have even claimed they were going to try and go against the wishes of Simon and Shirley to get Theodore and Pamela benefits.

8. That Petitioner further requests the Court now force bonding and surety for the parties responsible for these crimes in an amount no less than $5,000,000.00 for now, for legal fees, forensic accountings and document analysis, (as every document must now be analyzed and with each document recently discovered new improprieties are found.) All of these costs should not be incurred by the injured parties, approximately 16 potential beneficiaries and interested parties, including at this time adult and minor children, to now close the estate legally and resolve the ongoing criminal and civil matters and determine who the ultimate beneficiaries will be and more, all caused by criminal misconduct by attorneys at law for the estate and their employees, the personal representatives and others, as already identified herein.

9. That Petitioner requests that before further proceedings in this matter are adjudicated, all parties to this action, including each interested party, beneficiary or other party, in each and every capacity they are representing, now be represented by independent and non-conflicted counsel. For those parties that have not been represented or even included in these matters thus far, including minor children, Petitioner requests that the Court act on its own motions to join them in the action as required by law and have their interests legally represented. That each injured parties legal fees and costs be paid by those who have caused these costs to be incurred.

10. That Petitioner seeks Sanctions by this Court on all parties involved in the criminal activity thus far, including but not limited to, reporting the crimes to the Florida State Bar for disbarment of those attorneys involved and criminal authorities for further prosecution for the felony crimes. Further, this Court should impose sanctions on Moran and Theodore Bernstein for their direct involvement in the crimes thus far and to stop further alleged crimes from taking place. That this Court should note that the crimes proven already are only the tip of the iceberg and new evidence from the hearings and elsewhere has recently surfaced revealing far more criminal activity ongoing. The Court should also report all of these crimes to the proper authorities for further criminal investigations, including those that it is already aware of that took place in this Court.

11. That the Palm Beach County Sheriff office has stated that after speaking with Your Honor about the Moran Forgery and Fraud, they did not want to take new criminal complaints from Petitioner, against Spallina, Tescher, Moran, Theodore and others for NEW CRIMES, as they stated that Your Honor is responsible for those filings of these new alleged criminal acts with the authorities. However, if Your Honor were to fail to follow Judicial Cannons and Law to report these criminal matters, including those committed by Attorneys at Law acting as Officers of this Court, then Petitioner could jeopardize his statutes of limitations rights by failing to report the crimes timely and Petitioner seeks clarification from Your Honor as to how to proceed on reporting the new crimes discovered and who will be reporting them and to what authorities. These crimes are not the crimes Moran admitted to already, of FORGERY and FRAUDULENT NOTARIZATIONS, and that she has been arrested for but are other crimes committed by other parties, some occurring in the hearings in fact. The Court must now state if the Court is going to notify the authorities or if Petitioner should. If this Court determines it is Petitioner's job to file the criminal complaints, this Court will have to contact the Sheriff's department to remove the block created through Your Honor's conversations with them in regards to reporting the new crimes against other perpetrators than Moran for other crimes, including the Fraud upon the Court that has taken place.

12. That additionally, new criminal and civil complaints are being lodged both state and federally for newly discovered criminal acts by Spallina, Tescher, Theodore, Lindsay Baxley ("Baxley") and others, wholly separate from the crimes of Moran and far more serious in nature. For instance, Spallina, Theodore and Moran are alleged to have worked together again to commit an Insurance Fraud and Theodore and others then are alleged to have committed Fraud on a US Federal Court, as more fully described in a recent filing on December 08, 2013 by Eliot Bernstein in that federal court, which can be found at www.iviewit.tv/20131208MotionStrikePleadingAdamSimonForFraudOnCourt.pdf , fully incorporated by reference herein, along with all other pleadings, rulings, etc. in Case No. 13-cv-03643 IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT COURT ILLINOIS EASTERN DIVISION (SIMON BERNSTEIN IRREVOCABLE INSURANCE TRUST DTD 6/21/95, Plaintiff, v. HERITAGE UNION LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY Defendant.)

13. That there is no way that Theodore Bernstein, Spallina or Tescher can now be impartial and fair as fiduciaries or counsel to Petitioner and his children as beneficiaries/interested parties, as Petitioner is the one having them complained of and prosecuted for multiple state and federal crimes and attempting to have them imprisoned for such. That these adverse interests have now led to allegations of extortion by the fiduciaries and counsel of Petitioner and his family in direct retaliation for Petitioners actions to have them prosecuted, as motioned to this court in a September 04, 2013 motion titled, "NOTICE OF EMERGENCY MOTION TO FREEZE ESTATES OF SIMON BERNSTEIN DUE TO ADMITTED AND ACKNOWLEDGED NOTARY PUBLIC FORGERY, FRAUD AND MORE BY THE LAW FIRM OF TESCHER & SPALLINA, P.A., ROBERT SPALLINA AND DONALD TESCHER ACTING AS ALLEGED PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES AND THEIR LEGAL ASSISTANT AND NOTARY PUBLIC, KIMBERLY MORAN: MOTION FOR INTERIM DISTRIBUTION DUE TO EXTORTION BY ALLEGED PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES AND OTHERS; MOTION TO STRIKE THE MOTION OF SPALLINA TO REOPEN THE ESTATE OF SHIRLEY; CONTINUED MOTION FOR REMOVAL OF ALLEGED PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES AND ALLEGED SUCCESSOR TRUSTEE." That since having their notary public arrested, Tescher and Spallina, in conspiracy with Theodore have further extorted Petitioner, in addition to those claims already made in the motion and Petitioner will be filing criminal charges for these actions as well.

14. From Theodore's recent email dated December 06, 2013, the following delusional and threatening language also imparts that Theodore and the "we" he represents (Tescher and Spallina) will not act kindly towards Petitioner, "Seriously Eliot, how many more people are you going to involve in this family matter? How much more of the estate will you waste in professional fees carrying on like this? Trying to extort money out of me with threats that you will drag my name through the mud is counter-productive, unnecessary and intentionally malicious. We [emphasis added] will not continue to ignore these threats and the damage you are inflicting...Please advise as we have no intentions of being bullied by either of you [Petitioner's wife Candice referenced] any longer.

15. That Theodore is alleged to be very close friends, after the car bombing of Petitioner's family minivan, with many of the defendants in a RICO complaint involved in the theft of Petitioner's Intellectual Properties by primarily his Intellectual Property attorneys. That these defendants include members of the Sir Robert Allen Stanford Ponzi (which Petitioner alleges is largely a money laundering scheme to launder his illegally converted IP royalties and not so much a Ponzi) and Proskauer Rose law firm, the alleged main culprit in the IP thefts. Proskauer is currently being sued by the Federal Court Appointed Receiver in the Stanford Ponzi SEC action ongoing for conspiracy and more in architecting the whole Stanford Ponzi. Proskauer also claimed to have the most Bernard Madoff victims in public statements made after the Madoff Ponzi was exposed and now many of the so called victims and feeder funds are alleged not to be victims but instead criminal conspirators and both Ponzi's have led to severe financial ruin to many South Florida residents and CHARITIES. That Theodore is close friends with members of Proskauer and former employees of the Stanford Bank, both of whom he and Spallina and Tescher have involved in the estate matters. That due to these strange bedfellows of Theodore who are Petitioner's adversaries in alleged RICO crimes, and again due to Petitioner's continuing efforts to have these people all prosecuted for their crimes, further adverse interests with Theodore, Spallina and Tescher exist with Petitioner and his children, already fully defined in Petitioner May 2013 motion that are further cause for Theodore to have never accepted the appointment as Personal Representative in September 2013 by Your Honor in the first place and further cause for Your Honor to see the gravity of having Theodore serving in any capacity in these matters further for his adverse interests and hostilities towards beneficiaries / interested parties.

16. That it cannot be expected that these fiduciaries and counsel who are involved in anyway thus far in the crimes, including Manceri, will not further act adversely to Petitioner and his minor children to stop them from having them prosecuted. Further, they will take NO actions to aid Petitioner's efforts as a beneficiary/interested party to have them prosecuted further for their crimes and may in fact take further injurious actions to stop Petitioner, such as further delaying his inheritance and extorting him, etc. Since it cannot be expected that the fiduciaries and counsel act against themselves to the benefit of the beneficiaries they are responsible for and since they should have all voluntarily resigned any fiduciary or legal capacities in both estates (and their liability carriers should have demanded such termination) for the crimes already admitted to and proven , they will not take any such actions to protect the beneficiaries but only actions to protect themselves and thus this Court must take actions to have them all thrown out instantly to preclude further harms to the beneficiaries/interested parties they have already been caused so much injury and damages from their criminal actions.

17. That due to the crimes alleged, the beneficiaries are now in question in both estates and must be resolved by the probate courts acting in the estate matters and as a direct result disputes amongst beneficiaries have been caused from the criminal acts of those defined already herein and others, again increasing costs and pain and suffering to the injured parties.

18. There are two applicable statutes authorizing this Court to enter a personal judgment against the Attorneys and Personal Representative's for Petitioner's attorney's fees and costs. Fla. Stat. 733.106(1) provides, "In all probate proceedings costs may be awarded as in chancery actions." Fla. Stat 733.609 (1) uses the stronger mandatory "shall", providing, in pertinent part, "In all actions for breach of fiduciary duty or challenging the exercise of our failure to exercise a personal representative's powers, the court shall award taxable costs as in chancery actions, including attorney's fees." This action is one "challenging the exercise of .....a personal representative's powers" within the meaning of 733.609 (1). The phrase "as in chancery actions" refers to the rule that "a court of equity may, as justice requires, order that costs follow the results of the suit, apportion the costs between parties, or require all costs be paid by the prevailing party." Dayton v. Conger, 448 So.2d 609, 612 (Fla. App. 1984). A judgment for attorney's fees and costs may be awarded against a fiduciary that has breached it's duty. See First Union National Bank v. Turney, 839 So.2d 774, 778-779 (Fla. App. 2003) (affirming an attorney's fee award against a corporate trustee under the parallel section of the Trust Code).

19. Accordingly, Petitioner is requesting that the Court order the Personal Representative and Attorneys at Law, Spallina, Tescher and Manceri and their agents personally responsible to (i) pay his attorney fees and costs and (ii) reimburse the Estate for any attorney fees that have been paid on behalf in the defense of these actions. And awarding Petitioner's attorney fees and costs for bringing his Petition's pursuant to Florida Probate Rule 1.080, Section 733.106, Florida Statutes (2002), Section 733.6171, Florida Statutes (2002), Section 733.6175, Florida Statutes (2002), and Section 733.3101, Florida Statutes (2002) and others.

AFFIRMATION

I, Eliot Ivan Bernstein, make the following affirmation under penalties of perjury:

I, Eliot Ivan Bernstein, am the Pro Se Petitioner ("Petitioner") in the above entitled action, and respectfully move this Court to issue an order to, Freeze the Estate of Shirley Bernstein ("Shirley") due to ADMITTED AND ACKNOWLEDGED CRIMINAL ACTS,

INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO, FORGERY, NOTARY PUBLIC FRAUD, FRAUD ON THIS COURT, FRAUD ON THE BENEFICIARIES AND INTERESTED PARTIES AND INTERSTATE MAIL & WIRE FRAUD and such other relief as the Court may find just and proper. These Criminal Acts were committed in the estate by the Law Firm of Tescher & Spallina, P.A. MOTION TO REOPEN ESTATE AND SET EVIDENTIARY HEARING

Comes now the undersigned, counsel to the captioned estate, and alleges as follows:

1. The Estate was closed and an Order of Discharge was entered on January 3, 2013.

2. The Personal Representative of the Estate, Simon Bernstein, died on September 13, 2012 and his probate estate is currently being administered before this Court.

3. It was recently brought to the attention of the Petitioner that certain irregularities occurred in connection with the execution of the Waivers filed in connection with the closing of this Estate.

MOTION TO: CONSIDER IN ORDINARY COURSE THE EMERGENCY PETITION TO FREEZE ESTATE ASSETS, APPOINT NEW PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES, INVESTIGATE FORGED AND FRAUDULENT DOCUMENTS SUBMITTED TO THIS COURT AND OTHER INTERESTED PARTIES, RESCIND SIGNATURE OF ELIOT BERNSTEIN IN ESTATE OF SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN AND MORE FILED BY PETITIONER

I, Eliot I. Bernstein, make the following affirmation under penalties of perjury:

I, Eliot I. Bernstein, am the pro se petitioner in the above entitled action, and respectfully move this court to issue an order to consider in ordinary course the Renewed Emergency Petition filed by the Petitioner to freeze Estate Assets, appoint new personal representatives, investigate forged and fraudulent documents submitted to the court and other interested parties, rescind signature of Eliot Bernstein in Estate of Shirley and more and for such other relief as the Court may find just and proper.

The reasons why I am entitled to the relief I seek are the following:

I. INTRODUCTION:

1. That on May 29th 2013, Docket # 37 this Petitioner had filed a Renewed Emergency Petition to freeze Estate Assets, appoint new personal representatives, investigate forged and fraudulent documents submitted to the court and other interested parties, rescind signature of Eliot Bernstein in Estate of Shirley and more.

2. That on 31st May 2013, the Honorable Judge Martin H. Colin gave a judgment on the Emergency Petition stating "Renewed Emergency Petition is hereby denied as an emergency. This matter may be set in the ordinary course"- Exhibit 1

II. ARGUMENT:

1. To consider the Renewed Emergency Petition filed by Petitioner in ordinary course:

As per order of Court this Petitioner intends to proceed with the petition in ordinary course and requests this court to consider the Renewed Emergency Petition in ordinary course.

2. To construe this Pro Se motion liberally:

   i. Relevant Law:

Judiciary Act of September 24, 1789, Section 342, FIRST CONGRESS, Sess. 1, ch.20, 1789 states that:

> "Pleadings of the Plaintiff SHALL NOT BE dismissed for lack of form or failure of process. All the pleadings are as any reasonable man/woman would understand, and:
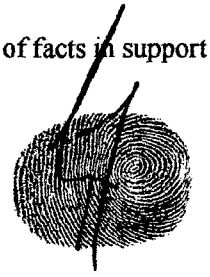
> ""And be it further enacted. That no summons, writ, declaration, return, process, judgment, or other proceedings in civil cases in any of the courts or the United States, shall be abated, arrested, quashed or reversed, for any defect or want of form, but the said courts respectively shall proceed and give judgment according as the right of the cause and matter in law shall appear unto them, without regarding any imperfections, defects or want of form in such writ, declaration, or other pleading, returns process, judgment, or course of proceeding whatsoever, except those only in cases of demurrer, which the party demurring shall specially sit down and express together with his demurrer as the cause thereof. And the said courtsively shall and may, by virtue of this act, from time to time, amend all and every such imperfections, defects and wants of form, other than those only which the party demurring shall express as aforesaid, and may at any, time, permit either of the parties to amend any defect in the process of pleadings upon such conditions as the said courts respectively shall in their discretion, and by their rules prescribe (a)"'

Court errs if court dismisses pro se litigant without instructions of how pleadings are deficient and how to repair pleadings. Plaskey v CIA, 953 F .2nd 25

It is settled law that the allegations of such a complaint, "however inartfully pleaded" are held "to less stringent standards than formal pleadings drafted by lawyers, see Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519, 520 (1972). See also Maclin v. Paulson, 627 F.2d 83, 86 (CA7 1980); French v. Heyne, 547 F.2d 994, 996 (CA7 1976); Estelle v. Gamble, 429 U.S.97, 106 (1976). Such a complaint should not be dismissed for failure to state a claim unless it appears beyond doubt that the plaintiff can prove no set of facts in support of his claim which would entitle him to relief.



Haines, supra, at 520-521. And, of course, the allegations of the complaint are generally taken as true for purposes of a motion to dismiss. Cruz v. Beto, 405 U.S. 319, 322 (1972).

Recognizing that transsubstantive pleading standards do not sufficiently account for the capability differential between represented and unrepresented litigants, the Supreme Court fashioned a rule of special solicitude for pro se pleadings. See Robert Bacharach & Lyn Entzeroth, Judicial Advocacy in Pro Se Litigation: A Return to Neutrality, 42 IND. L.REV. 19, 22-26 (2009)

The Court granted such leniency, or "liberal construction," to pro se pleadings against the backdrop of Conley v. Gibson's undemanding "no set of facts" standard. See Conley v. Gibson, 355 U.S. 41, 45-46 (1957) "[A] complaint should not be dismissed for failure to state a claim unless it appears beyond doubt that the plaintiff can prove no set of facts in support of his claim which would entitle him to relief.", abrogated by Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 561-63 (2007). This standard epitomized the notice-pleading regime envisioned by the drafters of the Federal Rules, who emphasized discovery as the stage at which a claim's true merit would come to light, rather than pleading. See Christopher M. Fairman, The Myth of Notice Pleading, 45 ARIZ. L. REV. 987, 990 (2003).

ii. Discussion:

In this action, the Petitioner appears Pro se. Hence, this motion should be construed liberally. It should not be dismissed for failure to state a claim. It should be decided on true merit, rather than pleading.

III. Prayer for Relief

WHEREFORE, for the reasons set forth in detail herein, Petitioner respectfully requests that this Court in the interest of justice consider in ordinary course the Renewed Emergency Petition filed by the Petitioner to freeze Estate Assets, appoint new personal representatives, investigate forged and fraudulent documents submitted to the court and other interested parties, rescind signature of Eliot Bernstein in Estate of Shirley and more and grant such other relief as the Court may find just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

1. That in compliance with this Court's Order dated May 08, 2013 the original "EMERGENCY PETITION TO: FREEZE ESTATE ASSETS, APPOINT NEW PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES, INVESTIGATE FORGED AND FRAUDULENT DOCUMENTS SUBMITTED TO THIS COURT AND OTHER INTERESTED PARTIES, RESCIND SIGNATURE OF ELIOT BERNSTEIN IN ESTATE OF SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN AND MORE." [1] has been served to all Respondents and interested parties/persons to whom the Petition is directed, Theodore Bernstein, Pamela Simon, Jill Iantoni and Lisa Friedstein and as Trustees for their children .
2. That on May 14th 2013 Proof of Service on all Respondents and interested parties/persons of the original Emergency Petition was filed with the Court and Petitioner now moves this Court to adjudicate this Renewed Emergency Petition immediately as to prevent further alleged Criminal Activity and theft of assets of the estate to cease.
3. That during such time that this Court has requested proper service of the Petition, it has come to Petitioner's attention that assets of the estate are being sold or otherwise disbursed of without proper notification to Petitioner and Interested Parties by the Respondents.
4. That the Court and all Officers of the Court handling this matter have been requested to Sign a Conflict of Interest Disclosure ("COI") that was attached in the original Emergency Motion and where prior to ANY decisions or orders or rulings or pleadings submitted by any Officer of the Court, Petitioner is requesting a signed COI to ensure fair and impartial due process.
5. That it has come to the attention of Petitioner that the Justices handling the estates of Simon and Shirley Bernstein are different and that the Justices handling the cases are signing orders in each other's case and Petitioner requests clarification as to who is adjudicating each case and who will be signing orders in each case. This has also confused both the Court Clerks and the Justices assistants and delayed this Emergency Petition from being heard by the Court, again allowing more time for Respondents to continue perpetrating Fraud on this Court and more.

[1] A Copy of the original Petition served on the Respondents and Interest parties and this Court is again provided herein for this Court, at the Court Clerk's request and an additional $200.00 in printing and copying costs.

SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN

TRUST AGREEMENT

This Trust Agreement is dated this 20 day of MAY, 2008, and is between SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN, of Palm Beach County, Florida referred to in the first person, as settlor, and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN, of Palm Beach County, and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN's successors, as trustee (referred to as the "Trustee," which term more particularly refers to all individuals and entities serving as trustee of a trust created hereunder during the time of such service, whether alone or as co-trustees, and whether originally serving or as a successor trustee). Said Trustee acknowledges receipt of the property described in the Attachment to this Agreement, and agrees to hold said property and all additions, in trust, as provided in this Agreement.

ARTICLE I. DURING MY LIFE AND UPON MY DEATH

A. Rights Reserved. I reserve the right (a) to add property to this trust during my life or on my death, by my Will or otherwise; (b) to withdraw property held hereunder; and (c) by separate written instrument delivered to the Trustee, to revoke this Agreement in whole or in part and otherwise modify or amend this Agreement. However, after my spouse's death I may not exercise any of said rights with respect to property added by my spouse upon my spouse's death by my spouse's Will or otherwise.

B. Payments During My Life. If income producing property is held in the trust during my life, the Trustee shall pay the net income of the trust to me or as I may direct. However, during any periods while I am Disabled, the Trustee shall pay to me or on my behalf such amounts of the net income and principal of the trust as is proper for my Welfare, and also may in its discretion pay to my spouse such amounts of said net income and principal as is proper for his Welfare. Any income not so paid shall be added to principal.

C. Gifts. If I am Disabled, I authorize the Trustee to make gifts from trust property during my lifetime for estate planning purposes, or to distribute amounts to my legally appointed guardian or to my attorney-in-fact for those purposes, subject to the following limitations:

1. Recipients. The gifts may be made only to my spouse and my lineal descendants or to trusts primarily for their benefit, and in aggregate annual amounts to any one such recipient that do not exceed the exclusion amount provided for under Code Section 2503(b).

2. Trustee Limited. When a person eligible to receive gifts is serving as Trustee, the aggregate of all gifts to that person during the calendar year allowable under the preceding subparagraph 1. shall thereafter not exceed the greater of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or five percent

SB

(5%) of the aggregate value of the trust estate. However, gifts completed prior to a recipient's commencing to serve as Trustee shall not be affected by this limitation.

3. Charitable Pledges. The Trustee may pay any charitable pledges I made while I was not Disabled (even if not yet due).

D. Upon My Death. Upon my death the Trustee shall collect and add to the trust all amounts due to the trust under any insurance policy on my life or under any death benefit plan and all property added to the trust by my Will or otherwise. After paying or providing for the payment from the augmented trust of all current charges and any amounts payable under the later paragraph captioned "Death Costs," the Trustee shall hold the trust according to the following provisions.

ARTICLE II. AFTER MY DEATH

A. Disposition of Tangible Personal Property. If any non-business tangible personal property other than cash (including, but not limited to, my personal effects, jewelry, collections, household furnishings, and equipment, and automobiles) is held in the trust at the time of my death, such items shall be promptly distributed by the Trustee of the trust to such person or persons, including my estate, as to the item or items or proportion specified, as I may appoint, and to the extent that any such items are not disposed of by such appointment, such items shall be disposed of by the Trustee of the trust in exactly the same manner as such items would have been disposed of under the terms and provisions of my Will (including any Codicil thereto, or what the Trustee in good faith believes to be such Will and Codicil) had such items been included in my probate estate. Any such items which are not effectively disposed of pursuant to the preceding sentence shall pass with the other trust assets.

B. Specific Cash Devise. The Trustee shall set aside in a separate trust the sum of Two Hundred Thousand ($200,000.00) Dollars for MATTHEW LOGAN, and said separate trust shall be administered as provided in Subparagraph II.F below. If MATTHEW LOGAN does not survive me this devise shall lapse.

C. Marital Deduction Gift. If my spouse survives me:

1. Family Trust. The Trustee shall hold as a separate "Family Trust" (i) all property of the trust estate as to which a federal estate tax marital deduction would not be allowed if it were distributed outright to my spouse, and (ii) after giving effect to (i), the largest pecuniary amount which will not result in or increase any federal or state death tax otherwise payable by reason of my death. In determining the pecuniary amount the Trustee shall assume that none of this Family Trust qualifies for a federal estate tax deduction, and shall assume that all of the Marital Trust hereinafter established (including any part thereof disclaimed by my spouse) qualifies for the federal estate tax marital deduction. I recognize that the pecuniary amount may be reduced by certain state death taxes and administration expenses which are not deducted for federal estate tax purposes.

2. Marital Trust. The balance of the trust remaining after the establishment of the Family Trust shall be held as a separate "Marital Trust."

3. Disclaimer. Any part of the Marital Trust my spouse disclaims shall be added to the Family Trust. My spouse shall not be deemed to have predeceased me for purposes of such addition. I suggest that my spouse or my spouse's fiduciaries consider an appropriate partial disclaimer to minimize the death taxes due upon both of our deaths.

If my spouse does not survive me, the entire trust shall be held as the Family Trust without regard to the provisions of Subparagraph II.B.1 describing or limiting which assets shall be held thereunder.

D. During Spouse's Life. Commencing with the date of my death the Trustee shall,

1. Marital Trust. Pay to my spouse from the Marital Trust, the net income, and such amounts of principal as is proper for my spouse's Welfare; and

2. Family Trust. Pay to my spouse from the Family Trust, the net income, and such amounts of principal as is proper for my spouse's Welfare. I request (but do not require) that no principal be paid to my spouse from the Family Trust for my spouse's Welfare unless the Marital Trust has been exhausted by use, consumption, distribution, or otherwise or is not reasonably available.

E. Disposition of Trusts Upon Death of Survivor of My Spouse and Me. Upon the death of the survivor of my spouse and me,

1. Limited Power. My spouse (if my spouse survives me) may appoint the Marital Trust and Family Trust (except any part added by disclaimer from the Marital Trust and proceeds of insurance policies on my spouse's life) to or for the benefit of one or more of my lineal descendants and their spouses;

2. Disposition of Balance. Any parts of the Marital Trust and the Family Trust my spouse does not or cannot effectively appoint (including any additions upon my spouse's death), or all of the Family Trust if my spouse did not survive me, shall be divided among and held in separate Trusts for my lineal descendants then living, per stirpes. Any assets allocated under this Subparagraph II.D. to my children (as that term is defined under this Trust), shall be distributed to the then serving Trustees of each of their respective Family Trusts, established by my spouse as grantor on even date herewith (the "Family Trusts" which term includes any successor trust thereto), to be held and administered as provided under said Trusts. The provisions of the Family Trusts are incorporated herein by reference, and if any of the Family Trusts are not then in existence and it is necessary to accomplish the foregoing dispositions, the current Trustee of this Trust is directed to take such action to establish or reconstitute such applicable trust(s), or if the Trustee is unable to do so, said assets shall be held in separate trusts for such lineal descendants and administered as provided in Subparagraph II.E. below. Each of my lineal descendants for whom a separate Trust is held hereunder shall hereinafter be referred to as a "beneficiary," with their separate trusts to be administered as provided in Subparagraph II.E. below.

F. Trusts for Beneficiaries. The Trustee shall pay to a beneficiary the net income of such beneficiary's trust. The Trustee shall pay to the beneficiary and the beneficiary's children, such amounts of the principal of such beneficiary's trust as is proper for the Welfare of such individuals. After a beneficiary has reached any one or more of the following birthdays, the beneficiary may withdraw the principal of his or her separate trust at any time or times, not to exceed in the aggregate 1/3 in value after the beneficiary's 25th birthday, 1/2 in value (after deducting any amount previously subject to withdrawal but not actually withdrawn) after the beneficiary's 30th birthday, and the balance after the beneficiary's 35th birthday, provided that the withdrawal powers described in this sentence shall not apply to any child of mine as beneficiary of a separate trust. The value of each trust shall be its value as of the first exercise of each withdrawal right, plus the value of any subsequent addition as of the date of addition. The right of withdrawal shall be a privilege which may be exercised only voluntarily and shall not include an involuntary exercise. If a beneficiary dies with assets remaining in his or her separate trust, upon the beneficiary's death the beneficiary may appoint his or her trust to or for the benefit of one or more of my lineal descendants and their spouses (excluding from said class, however, such beneficiary and such beneficiary's creditors, estate, and creditors of such beneficiary's estate). Any part of his or her trust such beneficiary does not effectively appoint shall upon his or her death be divided among and held in separate Trusts for the following persons:

1. for his or her lineal descendants then living, per stirpes; or

2. if he or she leaves no lineal descendant then living, per stirpes for the lineal descendants then living of his or her nearest ancestor (among me and my lineal descendants) with a lineal descendant then living who is also a lineal descendant of my spouse.

A trust for a lineal descendant of mine shall be held under this paragraph, or if a trust is then so held, shall be added to such trust.

G. Termination of Small Trust. If at any time after the death of the survivor of my spouse and me in the opinion of the Trustee a separate trust holds assets of a value of less than $50,000.00 and is too small to justify the expense of its retention, and termination of such trust is in the best interests of its current income beneficiary, the Trustee in its discretion may terminate such trust and pay it to said beneficiary.

H. Contingent Gift. If at any time property of a trust held under this Agreement is not disposed of under the other provisions of this Agreement, it shall be paid, as a gift made hereunder, to such persons and in such shares as such property would be distributed if my spouse and I had each then owned one-half of such property and had each then died solvent, unmarried and intestate domiciled in the State of Florida, according to the laws of inheritance of the State of Florida then in effect.

I. Protective Provision. No beneficiary of any trust herein created shall have any right or power to anticipate, transfer, pledge, sell, alienate, assign or encumber in any way his or her interest in the income or principal of such trust. Furthermore, no creditor shall have the right to attach, lien, seize or levy upon the interest of a beneficiary in this trust (other than myself) and such interest shall not be liable for or subject to the debts, liabilities or obligations of any such beneficiary or any claims against such beneficiary (whether voluntarily or involuntarily created), and the Trustee shall pay directly to or for the use or benefit of such beneficiary all income and principal to which such beneficiary is entitled, notwithstanding that such beneficiary has executed a pledge, assignment, encumbrance or in any other manner alienated or transferred his or her beneficial interest in the trust to another. This paragraph shall not preclude the effective exercise of any power of appointment granted herein or the exercise of any disclaimer.

J. Maximum Duration. Regardless of anything in this Agreement to the contrary, no trust interest herein created shall continue beyond three hundred sixty (360) years as provided in F.S. § 689.225(2)(a)(2), nor shall any power of appointment be exercised in such manner so as to delay vesting of any trust beyond such period. Immediately prior to the expiration of such period, all such trusts then in existence shall terminate, and the assets thereof shall be distributed outright and in fee to then beneficiaries of the current income and in the proportions in which such persons are the beneficiaries, and if such proportions cannot be ascertained, then equally among such beneficiaries.

K. Florida Homestead Possessory Rights. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if any portion of any Florida improved residential real estate (excluding commercial multi-unit rental property) is an asset of the Marital Trust, my spouse shall have the exclusive and continuous present right to full use, occupancy and possession of such real estate for life. It is my intention that my spouse's interest in such property shall constitute a "beneficial interest for life" and "equitable title to real estate" as contemplated by Section 196.041(2) of Florida Statutes, as amended from time to time or any corresponding provision of law.

ARTICLE III. GENERAL

A. Disability. Subject to the following Subparagraph captioned "Subchapter S Stock," while any beneficiary (other than my spouse as beneficiary of the Marital Trust) is Disabled, the Trustee shall pay to him or her only such portion of the income to which he or she is otherwise entitled as is proper for his or her Welfare, and any income not so paid shall be added to the principal from which derived. While any beneficiary is Disabled, income or principal payable to him or her may, in the discretion of the Trustee, be paid directly to him or her, without the intervention of a guardian, directly to his or her creditors or others for his or her sole benefit or to an adult person or an eligible institution (including the Trustee) selected by the Trustee as custodian for a minor beneficiary under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act or similar law. The receipt of such payee is a complete release to the Trustee.

B. Timing of Income Distributions. The Trustee shall make required payments of income at least quarterly.

C. Substance Abuse.

1. In General. If the Trustee reasonably believes that a beneficiary (other than myself) of any trust:

a. routinely or frequently uses or consumes any illegal substance so as to be physically or psychologically dependent upon that substance, or

b. is clinically dependent upon the use or consumption of alcohol or any other legal drug or chemical substance that is not prescribed by a board certified medical doctor or psychiatrist in a current program of treatment supervised by such doctor or psychiatrist, and if the Trustee reasonably believes that as a result the beneficiary is unable to care for himself or herself, or is unable to manage his or her financial affairs, all mandatory distributions (including distributions upon termination of the trust) to the beneficiary, all of the beneficiary's withdrawal rights, and all of the beneficiary's rights to participate in decisions concerning the removal and appointment of Trustees will be suspended (excluding, however, mandatory income rights under the Marital Trust). In that event, the following provisions of this Subparagraph III.C will apply.

2. Testing. The Trustee may request the beneficiary to submit to one or more examinations (including laboratory tests of bodily fluids) determined to be appropriate by a board certified medical doctor and to consent to full disclosure to the Trustee of the results of all such examinations. The Trustee shall maintain strict confidentiality of those results and shall not disclose those results to any person other than the beneficiary without the prior written permission of the beneficiary. The Trustee may totally or partially suspend all distributions otherwise required or permitted to be made to that beneficiary until the beneficiary consents to the examination and disclosure to the Trustee.

3. Treatment. If, in the opinion of the examining doctor, the examination indicates current or recent use of a drug or substance as described above, the examining doctor will determine an appropriate method of treatment for the beneficiary (for example, counseling or treatment on an in-patient basis in a rehabilitation facility) that is acceptable to the Trustee. If the beneficiary consents to the treatment, the Trustee shall pay the costs of treatment directly to the provider of those services from the distributions suspended under this Subparagraph III.C.

4. Resumption of Distributions. The Trustee may resume other distributions to the beneficiary (and the beneficiary's other suspended rights will be restored) when, in the case of use or consumption of an illegal substance, examinations indicate no such use for 12 months and, in all cases, when the Trustee in its discretion determines that the beneficiary is able to care for himself or herself and is able to manage his or her financial affairs.

5. Disposition of Suspended Amounts. When other distributions to the beneficiary are resumed, the remaining balance, if any, of distributions that were suspended may be distributed to the beneficiary at that time. If the beneficiary dies before distribution of those suspended amounts, the Trustee shall distribute the balance of the suspended amounts to the persons who would be the alternate takers of that beneficiary's share (or takers through the exercise of a power of appointment) as otherwise provided in this Trust Agreement.

6. Exoneration. No Trustee (or any doctor retained by the Trustee) will be responsible or liable to anyone for a beneficiary's actions or welfare. The Trustee has no duty to inquire whether a beneficiary uses drugs or other substances as described in this Subparagraph III.C. The Trustee (and any doctor retained by the Trustee) is to be indemnified from the trust estate and held harmless from any liability of any nature in exercising its judgment and authority under this Subparagraph III.C, including any failure to request a beneficiary to submit to medical examination, and including a decision to distribute suspended amounts to a beneficiary.

7. Tax Savings Provision. Despite the provisions of this Subparagraph III.C, the Trustee cannot suspend any mandatory distributions or withdrawal rights that are required for that trust to become or remain a Qualified Subchapter S Trust (unless the Trustee elects for the trust to be an Electing Small Business Trust), or to qualify for any federal transfer tax exemption, deduction, or exclusion allowable with respect to that trust.

D. Income on Death of Beneficiary. Subject to the later paragraph captioned "Subchapter S Stock," and except as otherwise explicitly provided herein, upon the death of any beneficiary, all accrued or undistributed income of such deceased beneficiary's trust shall pass with the principal of his or her trust but shall remain income for trust accounting purposes.

E. Definitions. In this Agreement,

1. Children, Lineal Descendants. The terms "child," "children" and "lineal descendant" mean only persons whose relationship to the ancestor designated is created entirely by or through (a) legitimate births occurring during the marriage of the joint biological parents to each other, (b) children and their lineal descendants arising from surrogate births and/or third party donors when (i) the child is raised from or near the time of birth by a married couple (other than a same sex married couple) through the pendency of such marriage, (ii) one of such couple is the designated ancestor, and (iii) to the best knowledge of the Trustee both members of such couple participated in the decision to have such child, and (c) lawful adoptions of minors under the age of twelve years. No such child or lineal descendant loses his or her status as such through adoption by another person. Notwithstanding the foregoing, as I have adequately provided for them during my lifetime, for purposes of the dispositions made under this Trust, my children, TED S. BERNSTEIN ("TED") and PAMELA B. SIMON ("PAM"), and their respective lineal descendants shall be deemed to have predeceased the survivor of my spouse and me, provided, however, if my children, ELIOT BERNSTEIN, JILL IANTONI and LISA S. FRIEDSTEIN, and their lineal descendants all predecease the survivor of my spouse and me, then TED and PAM, and their respective lineal descendants shall not be deemed to have predeceased me and shall be eligible beneficiaries for purposes of the dispositions made hereunder.

2. Code. "Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and in referring to any particular provision of the Code, includes a reference to any equivalent or successor provision of a successor federal tax law.

3. Disabled. "Disabled" or being under "Disability" means, as to any applicable individual: (1) being under the age of 21 years, (2) having been adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction as mentally or physically incompetent or unable to manage his or her own property or personal affairs (or a substantially similar finding under applicable state or national law), or (3) being unable to properly manage his or her personal or financial affairs, or a trust estate hereunder as to a Trustee hereunder, because of a mental or physical impairment (whether temporary or permanent in nature). A written certificate executed by an individual's attending physician or attending psychiatrist confirming that person's impairment will be sufficient evidence of Disability under item (3) above, and all persons may rely conclusively on such a certificate.

4. Education. The term "education" herein means vocational, primary, secondary, preparatory, theological, college and professional education, including post-graduate courses of study, at educational institutions or elsewhere, and expenses relating directly thereto, including tuition, books and supplies, room and board, and travel from and to home during school vacations. It is intended that the Trustee liberally construe and interpret references to "education," so that the beneficiaries entitled to distributions hereunder for education obtain the best possible education commensurate with their abilities and desires.

5. My Spouse. "My spouse" is SIMON L. BERNSTEIN ("SIMON").

6. Needs and Welfare Distributions. Payments to be made for a person's "Needs" means payments for such person's support, health (including lifetime residential or nursing home care), maintenance and education. Payments to be made for a person's "Welfare" means payments for such person's Needs, and as the Trustee determines in its sole discretion also for such person's advancement in life (including assistance in the purchase of a home or establishment or development of any business or professional enterprise which the Trustee believes to be reasonably sound), happiness and general well-being. However, the Trustee, based upon information reasonably available to it, shall make such payments for a person's Needs or Welfare only to the extent such person's income, and funds available from others obligated to supply funds for such purposes (including, without limitation, pursuant to child support orders and agreements), are insufficient in its opinion for such purposes, and shall take into account such person's accustomed manner of living, age, health, marital status and any other factor it considers important. Income or principal to be paid for a person's Needs or Welfare may be paid to such individual or applied by the Trustee directly for the benefit of such person. The Trustee may make a distribution or application authorized for a person's Needs or Welfare even if such distribution or application substantially depletes or exhausts such person's trust, without any duty upon the Trustee to retain it for future use or for other persons who might otherwise benefit from such trust.

7. Per Stirpes. In a division "per stirpes" each generation shall be represented and counted whether or not it has a living member.

8. Person Related or Subordinate Party. A "Related or Subordinate Party" to a trust describes a beneficiary of the subject trust or a related or subordinate party to a beneficiary of the trust as the terms "related or subordinate party" are defined under Code Section 672(c).

9. Spouse. A person's "spouse" includes only a spouse then married to and living as husband and wife with him or her, or a spouse who was married to and living as husband and wife with him or her at his or her death. The following rules apply to each person who is a beneficiary or a permissible appointee under this Trust Agreement and who is married to a descendant of mine. Such a person will cease to be a beneficiary and will be excluded from the class of permissible appointees upon:

a. the legal termination of the marriage to my descendant (whether before or after my death), or

b. the death of my descendant if a dissolution of marriage proceeding was pending when he or she died.

10. Gender, Number. Where appropriate, words of any gender include all genders and the singular and plural are interchangeable.

F. Powers of Appointment. Property subject to a power of appointment shall be paid to, or retained by the Trustee or paid to any trustee under any will or trust agreement for the benefit of, such one or more permissible appointees, in such amounts and proportions, granting such interests, powers and powers of appointment, and upon such conditions including spendthrift provisions as the holder of such power (i) in the case of a power exercisable upon the death of such holder, appoints in his or her will or in a trust agreement revocable by him or her until his or her death, or (ii) in the case of a power exercisable during the life of such holder, appoints in a written instrument signed by such holder, two witnesses and a notary public, but in either case only if such will, trust agreement, or instrument specifically refers to such power.

G. Limitations on Powers of Trustee. Regardless of anything herein to the contrary, no Trustee shall make or participate in making any distribution of income or principal of a trust to or for the benefit of a beneficiary which would directly or indirectly discharge any legal obligation of such Trustee or a donor of such trust (as an individual, and other than myself as donor) to support such beneficiary; and no Trustee (other than myself and other than my spouse as Trustee of the Marital Trust) shall make or participate in making any discretionary distribution of income or principal to or for the benefit of himself or herself other than for his or her Needs, including by reason of a determination to terminate a trust described herein. For example, if a Trustee (other than myself and other than my spouse as Trustee of the Marital Trust) has the power to distribute income or principal to himself or herself for his or her own Welfare, such Trustee (the "restricted Trustee") shall only have the power to make or participate in making a distribution of income or principal to the restricted Trustee for the restricted Trustee's Needs, although any co-Trustee who is not also a restricted Trustee may make or participate in making a distribution of income or principal to the restricted Trustee for such restricted Trustee's Welfare without the participation or consent of said restricted Trustee.

H. Presumption of Survivorship. If my spouse and I die under circumstances which make it difficult or impracticable to determine which one of us survived the other, I direct that my spouse shall be deemed to have survived me for purposes of this Agreement (except in regard to any property passing hereunder that became part of this trust solely by reason of passage to my probate estate or this trust from the probate estate of or a revocable trust established by my spouse in which case the opposite presumption shall apply), notwithstanding any provisions of law which provide for a contrary presumption. If any person other than my spouse shall be required to survive another person in order to take any interest under this Agreement, the former person shall be deemed to have predeceased the latter person, if such persons die under circumstances which make it difficult or impracticable to determine which one died first.

I. Governing Law. This Agreement is governed by the law of the State of Florida.

J. Other Beneficiary Designations. Except as otherwise explicitly and with particularity provided herein, (a) no provision of this trust shall revoke or modify any beneficiary designation of mine made by me and not revoked by me prior to my death under any individual retirement account, other retirement plan or account, or annuity or insurance contract, (b) I hereby reaffirm any such beneficiary designation such that any assets held in such account, plan, or contract shall pass in accordance with such designation, and (c) regardless of anything herein to the contrary, any of such assets which would otherwise pass pursuant to this trust due to the beneficiary designation not having met the requirements for a valid testamentary disposition under applicable law or otherwise shall be paid as a gift made hereunder to the persons and in the manner provided in such designation which is incorporated herein by this reference.

K. Mandatory Notice Required by Florida Law. The trustee of a trust may have duties and responsibilities in addition to those described in the instrument creating the trust. If you have questions, you should obtain legal advice.

L. Release of Medical Information.

1. Disability of Beneficiary. Upon the written request of a Trustee (with or without the concurrence of co-Trustees) issued to any current income or principal beneficiary (including discretionary beneficiaries) for whom a determination of Disability is relevant to the administration of a trust hereunder and for whom a Trustee (with or without the concurrence of co-Trustees) desires to make such a determination, such beneficiary shall issue to all Trustees (who shall be identified thereon both by name to the extent known and by class description) a valid authorization under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and any other applicable or successor law authorizing all health care providers and all medical sources of such requested beneficiary to release protected health information of the requested beneficiary to all Trustees that is relevant to the determination of the Disability of the requested beneficiary as Disability is defined hereunder. The period of each such valid authorization shall be for six months (or the earlier death of the requested beneficiary). If such beneficiary (or his or her legal representative if such beneficiary is a minor or legally disabled) refuses within thirty days of receipt of the request to provide a valid authorization, or at any time revokes an authorization within its term, the Trustee shall treat such beneficiary as Disabled hereunder until such valid authorization is delivered.

2. Disability of Trustee. Upon the request to a Trustee that is an individual by (a) a co-Trustee, or if none, (b) the person or entity next designated to serve as a successor Trustee not under legal incapacity, or if none, (c) any adult current income or principal beneficiary not under legal incapacity, or in any event and at any time (d) a court of competent jurisdiction, such Trustee shall issue to such person and all persons, courts of competent jurisdiction, and entities (who shall be identified thereon both by name to the extent known and by class description), with authority hereunder to determine such requested Trustee's Disability, a valid authorization under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and any other applicable or successor law authorizing all health care providers and all medical sources of such requested Trustee to release protected health information of the requested Trustee to such persons, courts and entities, that is relevant to the determination of the Disability of the requested Trustee as Disability is defined hereunder. The period of each such valid authorization shall be for six months (or the earlier death or resignation of the requested Trustee). If such requested Trustee refuses within thirty days of receipt of the request to deliver a valid authorization, or at any time revokes an authorization within its term, such requested Trustee shall thereupon be treated as having resigned as Trustee hereunder.

3. Authorization to Issue Certificate. All required authorizations under this paragraph shall include the power of a physician or psychiatrist to issue a written certificate to the appropriate persons or entities as provided in Subparagraph III.E.3 hereof.

ARTICLE IV. FIDUCIARIES

A. Powers of the Trustee. During my life except while I am Disabled, the Trustee shall exercise all powers provided by law and the following powers, other than the power to retain assets, only with my written approval. While I am Disabled and after my death, the Trustee shall exercise said powers without approval, provided that the Trustee shall exercise all powers in a fiduciary capacity.

1. Investments. To sell or exchange at public or private sale and on credit or otherwise, with or without security, and to lease for any term or perpetually, any property, real and personal, at any time forming a part of the trust estate (the "estate"); to grant and exercise options to buy or sell; to invest or reinvest in real or personal property of every kind, description and location; and to receive and retain any such property whether originally a part of any trust herein created or subsequently acquired, even if the Trustee is personally interested in such property, and without liability for any decline in the value thereof; all without limitation by any statutes or judicial decisions whenever enacted or announced, regulating investments or requiring diversification of investments, it being my intention to give the broadest investment powers and discretion to the Trustee. Any bank, trust company, or other corporate trustee serving hereunder as Trustee is authorized to invest in its own common trust funds.

2. Special Investments. The Trustee is expressly authorized (but not directed) to retain, make, hold, and dispose of investments not regarded as traditional for trusts, including interests or investments in privately held business and investment entities and enterprises, including without limitation stock in closely held corporations, limited partnership interests, joint venture interests, mutual funds, business trust interests, and limited liability company membership interests, notwithstanding (a) any applicable prudent investor rule or variation thereof, (b) common law or statutory diversification requirements (it being my intent that no such duty to diversify shall exist) (c) a lack of current cash flow therefrom, (d) the presence of any risk or speculative elements as compared to other available investments (it being my intent that the Trustee have sole and absolute discretion in determining what constitutes acceptable risk and what constitutes proper investment strategy), (e) lack of a reasonable rate of return, (f) risks to the preservation of principal, (g) violation of a Trustee's duty of impartiality as to different beneficiaries (it being my intent that no such duty exists for this purpose), and (h) similar limitations on investment under this Agreement or under law pertaining to investments that may or should be made by a Trustee (including without limitation the provisions of Fla.Stats. §518.11 and successor provisions thereto that would characterize such investmentsas forbidden, imprudent, improper or unlawful). The Trustee shall not be responsible to any trust created hereunder or the beneficiaries thereof for any loss resulting from any such authorized investment, including without limitation loss engendered by the higher risk element of that particular entity, investment, or enterprise, the failure to invest in more conservative investments, the failure to diversify trust assets, the prudent investor rule or variant thereof. Notwithstanding any provisions for distributions to beneficiaries hereunder, if the Trustee determines that the future potential investment return from any illiquid or closely held investment asset warrants the retention of that investment asset or that sufficient value could not be obtained from the sale or other disposition of an illiquid or closely held investment asset, the Trustee is authorized to retain that asset and if necessary reduce the distributions to beneficiaries due to lack of sufficient liquid or marketable assets. However, the preceding provisions of this Subparagraph shall not be exercised in a manner as to jeopardize the availability of the estate tax marital deduction for assets passing to or held in the a trust for my surviving spouse or that would otherwise qualify for the estate tax marital deduction but for such provisions, shall not override any express powers hereunder of my surviving spouse to demand conversion of unproductive property to productive property, or reduce any income distributions otherwise required hereunder for a trust held for the benefit of my surviving spouse or a "qualified subchapter S trust" as that term is defined in Code Section 1361(d)(3).

3. Distributions. To make any division or distribution pro rata or non-pro rata, in cash or in kind, and to allocate undivided interests in property and dissimilar property (without regard to its tax basis) to different shares.

4. Management. To manage, develop, improve, partition or change the character of an asset or interest in property at any time; and to make ordinary and extraordinary repairs, replacements, alterations and improvements, structural or otherwise.

5. Borrowing. To borrow money from anyone on commercially reasonable terms, including entities owned in whole or in part by the trust, a Trustee, beneficiaries and other persons who may have a direct or indirect interest in a Trust; and to mortgage, margin, encumber and pledge real and personal property of a trust as security for the payment thereof, without incurring any personal liability thereon and to do so for a term within or extending beyond the terms of the trust and to renew, modify or extend existing borrowing on similar or different terms and with the same or different security without incurring any personal liability; and such borrowing from a Trustee may be with or without interest, and may be secured with a lien on trust assets.

6. Lending. To extend, modify or waive the terms of any obligation, bond or mortgage at any time forming a part of a trust and to foreclose any such mortgage; accept a conveyance of encumbered property, and take title to the property securing it by deed in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise and to satisfy or not satisfy the indebtedness securing said property; to protect or redeem any such property from forfeiture for nonpayment of taxes or other lien; generally, to exercise as to such bond, obligation or mortgage all powers that an absolute owner might exercise; and to loan funds to beneficiaries at commercially reasonable rates, terms and conditions.

7. Abandonment of Property. To abandon any property or asset when it is valueless or so encumbered or in such condition that it is of no benefit to a trust. To abstain from the payment of taxes, liens, rents, assessments, or repairs on such property and/or permit such property to be lost by tax sale, foreclosure or other proceeding or by conveyance for nominal or no consideration to anyone including a charity or by escheat to a state; all without personal liability incurred therefor.

8. Real Property Matters. To subdivide, develop or partition real estate; to purchase or sell real property and to enter into contracts to do the same; to dedicate the same to public use; to make or obtain the location of any plats; to adjust boundaries; to adjust differences in valuations on exchange or partition by giving or receiving consideration; and, to grant easements with or without consideration as the fiduciaries may determine; and to demolish any building, structures, walls and improvements, or to erect new buildings, structures, walls and improvements and to insure against fire and other risks; and to protect and conserve, or to lease, or to encumber, or otherwise to manage and dispose of real property to the extent such power is not otherwise granted herein or otherwise restricted herein.

9. Claims. To enforce, compromise, adjust, arbitrate, release or otherwise settle or pay any claims or demands by or against a trust.

10. Business Entities. To deal with any business entity or enterprise even if a Trustee is or may be a fiduciary of or own interests in said business entity or enterprise, whether operated in the form of a corporation, partnership, business trust, limited liability company, joint venture, sole proprietorship, or other form (all of which business entities and enterprises are referred to herein as "Business Entities"). I vest the Trustee with the following powers and authority in regard to Business Entities:

a. To retain and continue to operate a Business Entity for such period as the Trustee deems advisable;

b. To control, direct and manage the Business Entities. In this connection, the Trustee, in its sole discretion, shall determine the manner and extent of its active participation in the operation and may delegate all or any part of its power to supervise and operate to such person or persons as the Trustee may select, including any associate, partner, officer or employee of the Business Entity;

c. To hire and discharge officers and employees, fix their compensation and define their duties; and similarly to employ, compensate and discharge agents, attorneys, consultants, accountants, and such other representatives as the Trustee may deem appropriate; including the right to employ any beneficiary or fiduciary in any of the foregoing capacities;

d. To invest funds in the Business Entities, to pledge other assets of a trust as security for loans made to the Business Entities, and to lend funds from a trust to the Business Entities;

e. f. To treat Business Entities as separate from a trust. In a Trustee's accounting to any beneficiary, the Trustee shall only be required to report the earnings and condition of the Business Entities in accordance with standard business accounting practice;

g. To retain in Business Entities such net earnings for working capital and other purposes of the Business Entities as the Trustee may deem advisable in conformity with sound business practice;

h. To sell or liquidate all or any part of the Business Entities at such time and price and upon such terms and conditions (including credit) as the Trustee may determine. My Trustee is specifically authorised and empowered to make such sale to any person, including any partner, officer, or employee of the Business Entities, a fiduciary, or to any beneficiary; and

i. To guaranty the obligations of the Business Entities, or pledge assets of a trust to secure such a guaranty.

11. Principal and Income. To allocate items of income or expense between income and principal as permitted or provided by the laws of the State of Florida but without limiting the availability of the estate tax marital deduction, provided that the Trustee shall not be required to provide a rate of return on unproductive property unless otherwise provided in this instrument.

12. Life Insurance. With respect to any life insurance policies constituting an asset of a trust, to pay premiums; to apply dividends in reduction of such premiums; to borrow against the cash values thereof; to convert such policies into other forms of insurance, including paid-up insurance; to exercise any settlement options provided in any such policies; to receive the proceeds of any policy upon its maturity and to administer such proceeds as a part of the principal of the Trust; and in general, to exercise all other options, benefits, rights and privileges under such policies.

13. Continuing Power. To continue to have or exercise, after the termination of a trust, in whole or in part, and until final distribution thereof, all title, power, discretions, rights and duties conferred or imposed upon the Trustee by law or by this Agreement or during the existence of the trust.

14. Exoneration. To provide for the exoneration of the Trustee from any personal liability on account of any arrangement or contract entered into in a fiduciary capacity.

15. Agreements. To comply with, amend, modify or rescind any agreement made during my lifetime, including those regarding the disposition, management or continuation of any closely held unincorporated business, corporation, partnership or joint venture, and including the power to complete contracts to purchase and sell real estate.

16. Voting. To vote and give proxies, with power of substitution to vote, stocks, bonds and other securities, or not to vote a security.

17. Combination of Shares. To hold the several shares of a trust or several Trusts as a common fund, dividing the income proportionately among them, to assign undivided interests to the several shares or Trusts, and to make joint investments of the funds belonging to them. For such purposes and insofar as may be practicable, the Trustee, to the extent that division of the trust estate is directed hereby, may administer the trust estate physically undivided until actual division thereof becomes necessary to make distributions. The Trustee may hold, manage, invest and account for whole or fractional trust shares as a single estate, making the division thereof by appropriate entries in the books of account only, and may allocate to each whole or fractional trust share its proportionate part of all receipts and expenses; provided, however, this carrying of several Trusts as a single estate shall not defer the vesting in possession of any whole or fractional share of a trust for the beneficiaries thereof at the times specified herein.

18. Reimbursement. To reimburse itself from a trust for reasonable expenses incurred in the administration thereof.

19. Reliance Upon Communication. To rely, in acting under a trust, upon any letter, notice, certificate, report, statement, document or other paper, or upon any telephone, telegraph, cable, wireless or radio message, if believed by the Trustee to be genuine, and to be signed, sealed, acknowledged, presented, sent, delivered or given by or on behalf of the proper person, firm or corporation, without incurring liability for any action or inaction based thereon.

20. Assumptions. To assume, in the absence of written notice to the contrary from the person or persons concerned, that a fact or an event, by reason of which an interest or estate under a trust shall commence or terminate, does not exist or has not occurred, without incurring liability for any action or inaction based upon such assumption.

21. Service as Custodian. To serve as successor custodian for any beneficiary of any gifts that I may have made under any Transfer to Minors Act, if at the time of my death no custodian is named in the instrument creating the gift.

22. Removal of Assets. The Trustee may remove from the domiciliary state during the entire duration of a trust or for such lesser period as it may deem advisable, any cash, securities or other property at any time in its hands whether principal or not, and to take and keep the same outside the domiciliary state and at such place or places within or outside the borders of the United States as it may determine, without in any event being chargeable for any loss or depreciation to the trust which may result therefrom.

23. Change of Situs. The situs and/or applicable law of any trust created hereunder may be transferred to such other place as the Trustee may deem to be for the best interests of the trust estate. In so doing, the Trustee may resign and appoint a successor Trustee, but may remove such successor Trustee so appointed and appoint others. Each successor Trustee may delegate any and all fiduciary powers, discretionary and ministerial, to the appointing Trustee as its agent.

24. Fiduciary Outside Domiciliary State. In the event the Trustee shall not be able and willing to act as Trustee with respect to any property located outside the domiciliary state, the Trustee, without order of court, may appoint another individual or corporation (including any employee or agent of any appointing Trustee) to act as Trustee with respect to such property. Such appointed Trustee shall have all of the powers and discretions with respect to such property as are herein given to the appointing Trustee with respect to the remaining trust assets. The appointing Trustee may remove such appointed Trustee and appoint another upon ten (10) days notice in writing. All income from such property, and if such property is sold, exchanged or otherwise disposed of, the proceeds thereof, shall be remitted to the appointing Trustee, to be held and administered by it as Trustee hereunder. Such appointed Trustee may employ the appointing Trustee as agent in the administration of such property. No surety shall be required on the bond of the Trustee or agent acting under the provisions of this paragraph. No periodic court accounting shall be required of such appointed Trustee, it being my intention to excuse any statutory accounting which may ordinarily be required.

25. Selection of Assets for Marital Trust. The Trustee shall have sole discretion to determine which assets shall be allocated to the Marital Trust; provided, if possible no assets or the proceeds of any assets which do not qualify for the federal estate tax marital deduction shall be allocated to the Marital Trust. To the extent that other assets qualifying for the marital deduction are available, the Trustee shall not allocate to the Marital Trust any assets with respect to which a credit for foreign taxes paid is allowable under the Code, nor any policy of insurance on the life of my spouse. Any allocation of assets among the Family Trust and the Marital Trust shall, with respect to each such trust, be comprised of assets having an aggregate market value at the time of such allocation fairly representative of the net appreciation or depreciation in the value of the property available for such allocation between the date of valuation for federal estate tax purposes and the date or dates of said allocation and selection.

26. Additions. To receive and accept additions to the Trusts in cash or in kind from donors, executors, administrators, Trustee or attorneys in fact, including additions of my property by the Trustee or others as my attorneys in fact.

27. Title and Possession. To have title to and possession of all real or personal property held in the Trusts, and to register or hold title to such property in its own name or in the name of its nominee, without disclosing its fiduciary capacity, or in bearer form.

28. Dealing with Estates. To use principal of the Trusts to make loans to my estate, with or without interest, and to make purchases from my estate or my spouse's estate.

29. Agents. To employ persons, including attorneys, auditors, investment advisers, and agents, even if they are the Trustee or associated with the Trustee, to advise or assist the Trustee in the performance of its administrative duties and to pay compensation and costs incurred in connection with such employment from the assets of the Trust; to act without independent investigation upon their recommendations; and, instead of acting personally, to employ one or more agents to perform any act of administration, whether or not discretionary.

30. Tax Elections. To file tax returns, and to exercise all tax-related elections and options at its discretion, without compensating adjustments or reimbursements between any of the Trusts or any of the trust accounts or any beneficiaries.

B. Resignation. A Trustee may resign with or without cause, by giving no less than 30 days advance written notice, specifying the effective date of such resignation, to its successor Trustee and to the persons required and in the manner provided under Fla.Stats. §§736.0705(1)(a) and 736.0109. As to any required recipient, deficiencies in fulfilling the foregoing resignation requirements may be waived in a writing signed by such recipient. Upon the resignation of a Trustee, such Trustee shall be entitled to reimbursement from the trust for all reasonable expenses incurred in the settlement of accounts and in the transfer of assets to his or her successor.

C. Appointment of Successor Trustee.

1. Appointment. Upon a Trustee's resignation, or if a Trustee becomes Disabled or for any reason ceases to serve as Trustee, I may appoint any person or persons as successor Trustee, and in default of such appointment by me, SIMON and TED, one at a time and successively in that order, shall serve as successor Trustee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a named Trustee is not a U.S. citizen or resident at the time of commencement of his term as Trustee, such Trustee should give due consideration to declining to serve to avoid potential adverse U.S. income tax consequences by reason of the characterization of a trust hereunder as a foreign trust under the Code, but shall not be construed to have any duty to so decline if such Trustee desires to serve.

2. Specific Trusts. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this Subparagraph IV.C, subsequent to my death I specifically appoint the following person or persons as Trustee of the following Trusts under the following described circumstances:

a. Trustee of the Marital Trust. SIMON and TED, one at a time and successively in that order, shall serve as Trustee of the Marital Trust. While serving as Trustee, my spouse may designate a co-Trustee to serve with my spouse and my spouse may remove and/or replace such co-Trustee from time to time.

b. Trustee of the Family Trust. SIMON and TED, one at a time and successively in that order, shall serve as Trustee of the Family Trust. While serving as Trustee, my spouse may designate a co-Trustee that is not a Related or Subordinate Party to serve with my spouse and my spouse may remove and/or replace such co-Trustee with another that is not a Related or Subordinate Party from time to time.

c. Trustee of Separate Trusts for My Children. Each child of mine shall serve as sole Trustee of his or her separate trust. While serving alone as Trustee, a child of mine may designate a co-Trustee that is not a Related or Subordinate Party to serve with such child and such child may remove and/or replace such co-Trustee with another that is not a Related or Subordinate Party from time to time.

d. Trustee of Separate Trusts for My Lineal Descendants Other Than My Children. In regard to a separate trust held for a lineal descendant of mine other than a child of mine which lineal descendant is the sole current mandatory or discretionary income beneficiary, each such lineal descendant shall serve as co-Trustee, or sole Trustee if the preceding described Trustees cease or are unable to serve or to continue to serve, of his or her separate trust upon reaching age twenty-five (25) years.

e. Trustee of Separate Trust for MATTHEW LOGAN. In regard to a separate trust held MATTHEW LOGAN, his mother, DEBORAH BERNSTEIN ("DEBORAH"), shall serve as Trustee until MATTHEW attains age 25 years, at which time he shall serve as a co-Trustee with DEBORAH of such separate trust.

3. Successor Trustees Not Provided For. Whenever a successor Trustee or co-Trustee is required and no successor or other functioning mechanism for succession is provided for under the terms of this Trust Agreement , the last serving Trustee or the last person or entity designated to serve as Trustee of the applicable trust may appoint his or her successor, and if none is so appointed, the following persons shall appoint a successor Trustee (who may be one of the persons making the appointment):

a. The remaining Trustees, if any; otherwise,

b. A majority of the permissible current mandatory or discretionary income beneficiaries, including the natural or legal guardians of any beneficiaries who are Disabled.

A successor Trustee appointed under this subparagraph shall not be a Related or Subordinate Party of the trust. The appointment will be by a written document executed by such person in the presence of two witnesses and acknowledged before a notary public delivered to the appointed Trustee and to me if I am living and not Disabled or in a valid last Will. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a designation under this Subparagraph of a successor trustee to a corporate or entity trustee shall be limited to a corporate or entity trustee authorized to serve as such under Florida law with assets under trust management of no less than one billion dollars.

4. Power to Remove Trustee. Subsequent to my death, the age 25 or older permissible current mandatory or discretionary income beneficiaries from time to time of any trust established hereunder shall have the power to unanimously remove a Trustee of such trust at any time with or without cause, with the successor Trustee to be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions.

D. Method of Appointment of Trustee. Any such appointment of a successor Trustee by a person shall be made in a written instrument executed by such person in the presence of two witnesses and acknowledged before a notary public which is delivered to such appointed Trustee during the lifetime of the person making such appointment, or any such appointment of a successor Trustee by a person may be made under the last Will of such person.

E. Limitations on Removal and Replacement Power. Any power to remove and/or replace a trustee hereunder that is granted to an individual (including such power when reserved to me) is personal to that individual and may not be exercised by a guardian, power of attorney holder, or other legal representative or agent.

F. Successor Fiduciaries. No Trustee is responsible for, nor has any duty to inquire into, the administration, acts or omissions of any executor, administrator, Personal Representative, or trustee or attorney-in-fact adding property to these Trusts, or of any predecessor Trustee. Each successor Trustee has all the powers, privileges, immunities, rights and title (without the execution of any instrument of transfer or any other act by any retiring Trustee) and all the duties of all predecessors.

G. Liability and Indemnification of Trustee.

1. Liability in General. No individual Trustee (that is, a Trustee that is not a corporation or other entity) shall be liable for any of his or her actions or failures to act as Trustee, even if the individual Trustee is found by a court to have been negligent or in breach of fiduciary duty, except for liability caused by his or her actions or failures to act done in bad faith or with reckless indifference to the purposes of the trust or the interests of the beneficiaries. Each Trustee that is a corporation or other entity will be liable for its actions or failures to act that are negligent or that breach its fiduciary duty, without contribution by any individual Trustee.

2. Indemnification of Trustee. Except in regard to liabilities imposed on a Trustee under Subparagraph IV.G.1, each Trustee shall be held harmless and indemnified from the assets of the trust for any liability, damages, attorney's fees, expenses, and costs incurred as a result of its service as Trustee. A Trustee who ceases to serve for any reason will be entitled to receive reasonable security from the assets of the trust to protect it from liability, and may enforce these provisions for indemnification against the current Trustee or against any assets held in the trust, or if the former Trustee is an individual and not a corporation or other entity, against any beneficiary to the extent of distributions received by that beneficiary. This indemnification right extends to the estate, personal representatives, legal successors and assigns of a Trustee.

3. Indemnification of Trustee - Additional Provisions. I recognize that if a beneficiary accuses a Trustee of wrongdoing or breach of fiduciary duty, the Trustee may have a conflict of interest that ordinarily would prevent it from paying legal fees and costs from the trust estate to defend itself. I do not want to put a financial burden on any individual named to serve as a Trustee. Just as important, I do not want an individual who has been selected to serve as a Trustee to be reluctant to accept the position, or while serving to be intimidated in the performance of the Trustee's duties because of the threats of lawsuits that might force the Trustee to pay fees and costs from the Trustee's personal resources. For this reason, I deliberately and intentionally waive any such conflict of interest with respect to any individual serving as Trustee so that he or she can hire counsel to defend himself or herself against allegations of wrongdoing or if sued for any reason (whether by a beneficiary or by someone else) and pay all fees and costs for his or her defense from the trust estate until the dispute is resolved. I understand and agree that a court may award, disallow or allocate fees and costs in whole or in part after the dispute is resolved, as provided by law. The Trustee will account for all such fees and costs paid by it as provided by law. This provision shall not apply to any Trustee that is a corporation or other entity.

H. Compensation, Bond. Each Trustee is entitled to be paid reasonable compensation for services rendered in the administration of the trust. Reasonable compensation for a non-individual Trustee will be its published fee schedule in effect when its services are rendered unless otherwise agreed in writing, and except as follows. Any fees paid to a non-individual Trustee for making principal distributions, for termination of the trust, and upon termination of its services must be based solely on the value of its services rendered, not on the value of the trust principal. During my lifetime the Trustee's fees are to be charged wholly against income (to the extent sufficient), unless directed otherwise by me in writing. Each Trustee shall serve without bond.

I. Maintenance of Records. The Trustee shall maintain accurate accounts and records. It shall render annual statements of the receipts and disbursements of income and principal of a trust upon the written request of any adult vested beneficiary of such trust or the guardian of the person of any vested beneficiary and the approval of such beneficiary shall be binding upon all persons then or thereafter interested in such trust as to the matters and transactions shown on such statement. The Trustee may at any time apply for a judicial settlement of any account. No Trustee shall be required to file any statutory or other periodic accountings of the administration of a trust.

J. Interested Trustee. The Trustee may act under this Agreement even if interested in these Trusts in an individual capacity, as a fiduciary of another trust or estate (including my estate) or in any other capacity. The Trustee may in good faith enter into a sale, encumbrance, or other transaction involving the investment or management of trust property for the Trustee's own personal account or which is otherwise affected by a conflict between the Trustee's fiduciary and personal interests, without liability and without being voidable by a beneficiary. The Trustee is specifically authorized to make loans to, to receive loans from, or to sell, purchase or exchange assets in a transaction with (i) the Trustee's spouse, (ii) the Trustee's children or grandchildren, siblings, parents, or spouses of such persons, (iii) an officer, director, employee, agent, or attorney of the Trustee, or (iv) a corporation, partnership, limited liability company, or other business entity in which the Trustee has a financial interest, provided that in any transaction the trusts hereunder receive fair and adequate consideration in money or money's worth. The Trustee may renounce any interest or expectancy of a trust in, or an opportunity to participate in, specified business opportunities or specified classes or categories of business opportunities that are presented to the Trustee. Such renunciation shall not prohibit the Trustee from participating in the Trustee's individual capacity in such opportunity or expectancy.

K. Third Parties. No one dealing with the Trustee need inquire into its authority or its application of property.

L. Merger of Trusts. If the Trustee is also trustee of a trust established by myself or another person by will or trust agreement, the beneficiaries to whom income and principal may then be paid and then operative terms of which are substantially the same as those of a trust held under this Agreement, the Trustee in its discretion may merge either such trust into the other trust. The Trustee, in exercising its discretion, shall consider economy of administration, convenience to the beneficiaries, tax consequences and any other factor it considers important. If it is later necessary to reestablish the merged trust as separate trusts, it shall be divided proportionately to the value of each trust at the time of merger.

M. Multiple Trustees. If two Trustees are serving at any time, any power or discretion of the Trustees may be exercised only by their joint agreement. Either Trustee may delegate to the other Trustee the authority to act on behalf of both Trustees and to exercise any power held by the Trustees. If more than two Trustees are serving at any time, and unless unanimous agreement is specifically required by the terms of this Trust Agreement, any power or discretion of the Trustees may be exercised only by a majority. The Trustees may delegate to any one or more of themselves the authority to act on behalf of all the Trustees and to exercise any power held by the Trustees. Trustees who consent to the delegation of authority to other Trustees will be liable for the consequences of the actions of those other Trustees as if the consenting Trustees had joined the other Trustees in performing those actions. A dissenting Trustee who did not consent to the delegation of authority to another Trustee and who has not joined in the exercise of a power or discretion cannot be held liable for the consequences of the exercise. A dissenting Trustee who joins only at the direction of the majority will not be liable for the consequences of the exercise if the dissent is expressed in writing delivered to any of the other Trustees before the exercise of that power or discretion.

ARTICLE V ADDITIONAL TAX AND RELATED MATTERS

A. GST Trusts.

1. Family Trust. I direct (a) that the Trustee shall divide any trust other than the Marital Trust to which there is allocated any GST exemption into two separate Trusts (each subject to the provisions of this Trust Agreement relating to the trust that is being divided) so that the generation-skipping tax inclusion ratio of one such trust is zero.

2. Marital Trust. I direct that, if possible, (a) the Trustee shall divide the Marital Trust into two separate Marital Trusts (each subject to the provisions hereof concerning the Marital Trust) so that through allocation of my GST exemption remaining unallocated at my death and not otherwise allocated to transfers occurring at or by reason of my death (including allocations to the Family Trust), if any, the generation-skipping tax inclusion ratio of one such Marital Trust is zero (the GST Marital Trust), (b) my Personal Representative to exercise the election provided by Code Section 2652(a)(3) as to the GST Marital Trust, and (c) that upon the death of my spouse the total amount recoverable by my spouse's estate from the property of the Marital Trusts under Code Section 2207A shall first be recoverable in full from the non-GST Marital Trust to the extent thereof.

3. Misc. I direct that (a) upon the death of the survivor of me and my spouse, any property then directed to be paid or distributed which constitutes a direct skip shall be paid first from property then exempt from generation-skipping taxation (by reason of the allocation of any GST exemption) to the extent thereof, (b) property exempt from generation-skipping taxation (by reason of the allocation of any GST exemption) and not directed to be paid or distributed in a manner which constitutes a direct skip shall be divided and distributed as otherwise provided herein and held for the same persons designated in Trusts separate from any property then also so divided which is not exempt from generation-skipping taxation, and (c) if upon the death of a beneficiary a taxable termination would otherwise occur with respect to any property held in trust for him or her with an inclusion ratio greater than zero, such beneficiary shall have with respect only to such property a power to appoint such fractional share thereof which if included in such beneficiary's gross estate for federal estate tax purposes (without allowing any deduction with respect to such share) would not be taxed at the highest federal estate tax rate and such fractional share of such property shall be distributed to such persons including only such beneficiary's estate, spouse, and lineal descendants, in such estates, interests, and proportions as such beneficiary may, by a will specifically referring to this general power appoint, and any part of a trust such beneficiary does not effectively appoint shall be treated as otherwise provided for disposition upon his or her death, provided, if upon his or her death two or more Trusts for his or her benefit are directed to be divided among and held or distributed for the same persons and the generation-skipping tax inclusion ratio of any such trust is zero, the amount of any other such trust to which there is allocated any of such beneficiary's GST exemption shall be added to the Trusts with generation-skipping tax inclusion ratios of zero in equal shares. I request (but do not require) that if two or more Trusts are held hereunder for any person, no principal be paid to such person from the Trusts with the lower inclusion ratios for generation-skipping tax purposes unless the trust with the highest inclusion ratio has been exhausted by use, consumption, distribution, or otherwise or is not reasonably available.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Trust Agreement, for purposes of funding any pecuniary payment or trust division to which there is allocated any GST exemption, such payment or trust division allocation shall be satisfied with cash or property which fairly represents appreciation and depreciation (occurring between the valuation date and the date of distribution) in all of the assets from which such distribution or allocation could be made, and any pecuniary payment made before a residual transfer of property to which any GST exemption is allocated shall be satisfied with cash or property which fairly represents appreciation and depreciation (occurring between the valuation date and the date of distribution) in all of the assets from which such pecuniary payment could be satisfied and shall be allocated a pro rata share of income earned by all such assets between the valuation date and the date of payment. In regard to the division or severance of a trust hereunder, including the Marital Trust, such division or severance shall be made in a manner that all resulting trusts are recognized for purposes of Chapter 13 of the Code, including without limitation complying with the requirements of Treas.Regs. §26.2654-1(b). Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, the valuation date with respect to any property shall be the date as of which its value is determined for federal estate tax purposes with respect to the transferor thereof, and subject to the foregoing, property distributed in kind in satisfaction of any pecuniary payment shall be selected on the basis of the value of such property on the valuation date. All terms used in this Article which are defined or explained in Chapter 13 of the Code or the regulations thereunder shall have the same meaning when used herein. The Trustee is authorized and directed to comply with the provisions of the Treasury Regulations interpreting the generation skipping tax provisions of the Code in severing or combining any trust, creating or combining separate trust shares, allocating GST exemption, or otherwise, as necessary to best accomplish the foregoing allocations, inclusion ratios, combinations, and divisions, including, without limitation, the payment of "appropriate interest" as determined by the Trustee as that term is applied and used in said Regulations.

B. Individual Retirement Accounts. In the event that this trust or any trust created under this Agreement is the beneficiary of an Individual retirement account established and maintained under Code Section 408 or a qualified pension, profit sharing or stock bonus plan established and maintained under Code Section 401 (referred to in this paragraph as "IRA"), the following provisions shall apply to such trust:

1. I intend that the beneficiaries of such trust shall be beneficiaries within the meaning of Code Section 401(a)(9) and the Treasury Regulations thereunder. All provisions of such trust shall be construed consistent with such intent. Accordingly, the following provisions shall apply to such trust:

a. No benefits from any IRA may be used or applied for the payment of any debts, taxes or other claims against my estate as set forth in the later paragraph captioned "Taxes", unless other assets of this trust are not available for such payment.

b. In the event that a beneficiary of any trust created under this Agreement has a testamentary general power of appointment or a limited power of appointment over all or any portion of any trust established under this Agreement, and if such trust is the beneficiary of any benefits from any IRA, the beneficiary shall not appoint any part of such trust to a charitable organization or to a lineal descendant of mine (or a spouse of a lineal descendant of mine) who is older than the beneficiary whose life expectancy is being used to calculate distributions from such IRA.

2. The Trustee shall deliver a copy of this Agreement to the custodian of any IRA of which this trust or any trust created under this Agreement is the named beneficiary within the time period prescribed Code Section 401(a)(9) and the Treasury Regulations thereunder, along with such additional items required thereunder. If the custodian of the IRA changes after a copy of this Agreement has been provided pursuant to the preceding sentence, the Trustee shall immediately provide a copy of this Agreement to the new custodian. The Trustee shall request each custodian to complete a receipt of the Agreement and shall attach such receipt to this Agreement. The Trustee shall provide a copy of each amendment of this Agreement to the custodian and shall obtain a receipt of such amendment.

C. Gift Transfers Made From Trust During My Lifetime. I direct that all gift transfers made from the trust during my lifetime be treated for all purposes as if the gift property had been first withdrawn by (or distributed to) me and then transferred by me to the donees involved. Thus, in each instance, even where title to the gift property is transferred directly from the name of the trust (or its nominee) into the name of the donee, such transfer shall be treated for all purposes as first a withdrawal by (or distribution of the property to) me followed by a gift transfer of the property to the donee by me as donor, the Trustee making the actual transfer in my behalf acting as my attorney in fact, this paragraph being, to that extent, a power of attorney from me to the Trustee to make such transfer, which power of attorney shall not be affected by my Disability, incompetence, or incapacity.

D. Death Costs. If upon my death the Trustee hold any United States bonds which may be redeemed at par in payment of federal estate tax, the Trustee shall pay the federal estate tax due because of my death up to the amount of the par value of such bonds and interest accrued thereon at the time of payment. The Trustee shall also pay from the trust all of my following death costs, but if there is an acting executor, administrator or Personal Representative of my estate my Trustee shall pay only such amounts of such costs as such executor, administrator or Personal Representative directs:

1. my debts which are allowed as claims against my estate,

2. my funeral expenses without regard to legal limitations,

3. the expenses of administering my estate,

4. the balance of the estate, inheritance and other death taxes (excluding generation-skipping transfer taxes unless arising from direct skips), and interest and penalties thereon, due because of my death with respect to all property whether or not passing under my Will or this Agreement (other than property over which I have a power of appointment granted to me by another person, and qualified terminable interest property which is not held in a trust that was subject to an election under Code Section 2652(a)(3) at or about the time of its funding) and life insurance proceeds on policies insuring my life which proceeds are not held under this trust or my probate estate at or by reason of my death), and

The Trustee may make any such payment either to my executor, administrator or Personal Representative or directly to the proper party. The Trustee shall not be reimbursed for any such payment, and is not responsible for the correctness or application of the amounts so paid at the direction of my executor, administrator, or Personal Representative. The Trustee shall not pay any of such death costs with any asset which would not otherwise be included in my gross estate for federal or state estate or inheritance tax purposes, or with any asset which otherwise cannot be so used, such as property received under a limited power of appointment which prohibits such use. Further, no payment of any such death costs shall be charged against or paid from the property disposed of pursuant to the prior paragraphs captioned "Disposition of Tangible Personal Property", "Specific Cash Devise" nor from the Marital Trust.

E. Marital Trust. I intend the maximum obtainable reduction of federal estate tax due by reason of my death by use of the federal estate tax marital deduction, and qualification of all property of the Marital Trust for the marital deduction. This Agreement shall be construed and all powers shall be exercised consistent with such intent. For example, the Trustee shall not allocate any receipt to principal or any disbursement to income if such allocation understates the net income of the Marital Trust under Florida law; and upon the written demand of my spouse, the Trustee shall convert unproductive or underproductive property of said trust into productive property within a reasonable time notwithstanding any other provision hereunder. The foregoing not withstanding, if my spouse survives me but dies within six months after my death, the Marital Trust provided in Subparagraph II.B will be reduced to that amount, if any, required to obtain for my estate an estate tax marital deduction resulting in the lowest combined estate taxes in my estate and my spouse's estate, on the assumption that my spouse died after me on the date of my death, that my spouse's estate is valued on the same date and in the same manner as my estate is valued for federal estate tax purposes, and that elections in my spouse's estate were made that would be consistent with minimizing taxes. The purpose of this provision is to equalize, insofar as possible, our estates for federal estate tax purposes, based on the above assumptions.

F. Subchapter S Stock. Regardless of anything herein to the contrary, in the event that after my death the principal of a trust includes stock in a corporation for which there is a valid election to be treated under the provisions of Subchapter S of the Code, the income beneficiary of such a trust is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident for federal income tax purposes, and such trust is not an "electing small business trust" under Code Section 1361(e)(1) in regard to that corporation, the Trustee shall (a) hold such stock as a substantially separate and independent share of such trust within the meaning of Code Section 663(c), which share shall otherwise be subject to all of the terms of this Agreement, (b) distribute all of the income of such share to the one income beneficiary thereof in annual or more frequent installments, (c) upon such beneficiary's death, pay all accrued or undistributed income of such share to the beneficiary's estate, (d) distribute principal from such share during the lifetime of the income beneficiary only to such beneficiary, notwithstanding any powers of appointment granted to any person including the income beneficiary, and (e) otherwise administer such share in a manner that qualifies it as a "qualified Subchapter S trust" as that term is defined in Code Section 1361(d)(3), and shall otherwise manage and administer such share as provided under this Agreement to the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing provisions of this paragraph.

G. Residence as Homestead. Regardless of anything herein to the contrary, while any residential real property located in Florida is owned by a trust, I, or my spouse if I am not then living and such trust is the Marital Trust, shall have the right to use, possess and occupy such residence as a personal residence so that such right shall constitute a possessory right in such real property within the meaning of Florida Statute Section 196.041.

WILL OF

SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN

I, SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN, of Palm Beach County, Florida, hereby revoke all my prior Wills and Codicils and make this Will. My spouse is SIMON L. BERNSTEIN ("SIMON"). My children are TED S. BERNSTEIN ("TED"), PAMELA B. SIMON, ELIOT BERNSTEIN, JILL IANTONI and LISA S. FRIEDSTEIN.

ARTICLE I. TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY

I give such items of my tangible personal property to such persons as I may designate in a separate written memorandum prepared for this purpose. I give to SIMON, if SIMON survives me, my personal effects, jewelry, collections, household furnishings and equipment, automobiles and all other non-business tangible personal property other than cash, not effectively disposed of by such memorandum, and if SIMON does not survive me, I give this property to my children who survive me, divided among them as they agree, or if they fail to agree, divided among them by my Personal Representatives in as nearly equal shares as practical, and if neither SIMON nor any child of mine survives me, this property shall pass with the residue of my estate.

ARTICLE II. RESIDENCES

I give to SIMON, if SIMON survives me, my entire interest in any real property used by us as a permanent or seasonal residence, subject to any mortgage or other lien. If SIMON does not survive me, such interest shall pass with the residue of my estate.

ARTICLE III. RESIDUE OF MY ESTATE

I give all the residue of my estate to the Trustee then serving under my revocable Trust Agreement dated today, as may be amended and restated from time to time (the "Existing Trust"), as Trustee without bond, but I do not exercise any powers of appointment held by me except as provided in the later paragraph titled "Death Costs." The residue shall be added to and become a part of the Existing Trust, and shall be held under the provisions of said Agreement in effect at my death, or if this is not permitted by applicable law or the Existing Trust is not then in existence, under the provisions of said Agreement as existing today. If necessary to give effect to this gift, but not otherwise, said Agreement as existing today is incorporated herein by reference.

ARTICLE IV. PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES

1. Appointment and Bond. I appoint SIMON and TED, one at a time and successively in that order, as my Personal Representative (the "fiduciary"). Each fiduciary shall serve without bond and have all of the powers, privileges and immunities granted to my fiduciary by this Will or by law, provided, however, that my fiduciary shall exercise all powers in a fiduciary capacity.

2. Powers of Personal Representatives. My fiduciary may exercise its powers without court approval. No one dealing with my fiduciary need inquire into its authority or its application of property. My fiduciary shall have the following powers:

a. Investments. To sell or exchange at public or private sale and on credit or otherwise, with or without security, and to lease for any term or perpetually, any property, real and personal, at any time forming a part of my probate estate (the "estate"); to grant and exercise options to buy or sell; to invest or reinvest in real or personal property of every kind, description and location; and to receive and retain any such property whether originally a part of the estate, or subsequently acquired, even if a fiduciary is personally interested in such property, and without liability for any decline in the value thereof; all without limitation by any statutes or judicial decisions, whenever enacted or announced, regulating investments or requiring diversification of investments.

b. Distributions or Divisions. To distribute directly to any beneficiary who is then entitled to distribution under the Existing Trust; to make any division or distribution pro rata or non-pro rata, in cash or in kind; and to allocate undivided interests in property and dissimilar property (without regard to its tax basis) to different shares, and to make any distribution to a minor or any other incapacitated person directly to such person, to his or her legal representative, to any person responsible for or assuming his or her care, or in the case of a minor to an adult person or an eligible institution (including a fiduciary) selected by my fiduciary as custodian for such minor under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act or similar provision of law. The receipt of such payee is a complete release to the fiduciary.

c. Management. To manage, develop, improve, partition or change the character of or abandon an asset or interest in property at any time; and to make ordinary and extraordinary repairs, replacements, alterations and improvements, structural or otherwise.

d. Borrowing. To borrow money from anyone on commercially reasonable terms, including a fiduciary, beneficiaries and other persons who may have a direct or indirect interest in the estate; and to mortgage, margin, encumber and pledge real and personal property of the estate as security for the payment thereof, without incurring any personal liability thereon and to do so for a term within or extending beyond the terms of the estate and to renew, modify or extend existing borrowing on similar or different terms and with the same or different security without incurring any personal liability; and such borrowing from my fiduciary may be with or without interest, and may be secured with a lien on the estate assets or any beneficiary's interest in said assets.

e. Lending. To extend, modify or waive the terms of any obligation, bond or mortgage at any time forming a part of the estate and to foreclose any such mortgage; accept a conveyance of encumbered property, and take title to the property securing it by deed in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise and to satisfy or not satisfy the indebtedness securing said property; to protect or redeem any such property from forfeiture for nonpayment of taxes or other lien; generally, to exercise as to such bond, obligation or mortgage all powers that an absolute owner might exercise; and to loan funds to beneficiaries at commercially reasonable rates, terms and conditions.

f. Abandonment of Property. To abandon any property or asset when it is valueless or so encumbered or in such condition that it is of no benefit to the estate. To abstain from the payment of taxes, liens, rents, assessments, or repairs on such property and/or permit such property to be lost by tax sale, foreclosure or other proceeding or by conveyance for nominal or no consideration to anyone including a charity or by escheat to a state; all without personal liability incurred therefor.

g. Real Property Matters. To subdivide, develop or partition real estate; to dedicate the same to public use; to make or obtain the location of any plats; to adjust boundaries; to adjust differences in valuations on exchange or partition by giving or receiving consideration; and, to grant easements with or without consideration as they may determine; and to demolish any building, structures, walls and improvements, or to erect new buildings, structures, walls and improvements and to insure against fire and other risks.

h. Claims. To enforce, compromise, adjust, arbitrate, release or otherwise settle or pay any claims or demands by or against the estate.

i. Business Entities. To deal with any business entity or enterprise even if a fiduciary is or may be a fiduciary of or own interests in said business entity or enterprise, whether operated in the form of a corporation, partnership, business trust, limited liability company, joint venture, sole proprietorship, or other form (all of which business entities and enterprises are referred to herein as "Business Entities"). I vest the fiduciary with the following powers and authority in regard to Business Entities:

i. To retain and continue to operate a Business Entity for such period as the fiduciary deems advisable;

ii. To control, direct and manage the Business Entities. In this connection, the fiduciary, in its sole discretion, shall determine the manner and extent of its active participation in the operation and may delegate all or any part of its power to supervise and operate to such person or persons as the fiduciary may select, including any associate, partner, officer or employee of the Business Entity;

iii. To hire and discharge officers and employees, fix their compensation and define their duties; and similarly to employ, compensate and discharge agents, attorneys, consultants, accountants, and such other representatives as the fiduciary may deem appropriate; including the right to employ any beneficiary or fiduciary in any of the foregoing capacities;

iv. To invest funds in the Business Entities, to pledge other assets of the estate or a trust as security for loans made to the Business Entities, and to lend funds from my estate or a trust to the Business Entities;

v. To organize one or more Business Entities under the laws of this or any other state or country and to transfer thereto all or any part of the Business Entities or other property of my estate or a trust, and to receive in exchange such stocks, bonds, partnership and member interests, and such other securities or interests as the fiduciary may deem advisable;

vi. To treat Business Entities as separate from my estate or a trust. In a fiduciary's accounting to any beneficiary, the fiduciary shall only be required to report the earnings and condition of the Business Entities in accordance with standard business accounting practice;

vii. To retain in Business Entities such net earnings for working capital and other purposes of the Business Entities as the fiduciary may deem advisable in conformity with sound business practice;

viii. To sell or liquidate all or any part of the Business Entities at such time and price and upon such terms and conditions (including credit) as the fiduciary may determine. My fiduciary is specifically authorised and empowered to make such sale to any person, including any partner, officer, or employee of the Business Entities, a fiduciary, or to any beneficiary; and

ix. To guaranty the obligations of the Business Entities, or pledge assets of the estate or a trust to secure such a guaranty.

j. Life Insurance. With respect to any life insurance policies constituting an asset of the estate to pay premiums; to apply dividends in reduction of such premiums; to borrow against the cash values thereof; to convert such policies into other forms of insurance including paid-up insurance; to exercise any settlement options provided in any such policies; to receive the proceeds of any policy upon its maturity and to administer such proceeds as a part of the principal of the estate or trust; and in general, to exercise all other options, benefits, rights and privileges under such policies; provided, however, no fiduciary other than a sole fiduciary may exercise any incidents of ownership with respect to policies of insurance insuring the fiduciary's own life.

k. Reimbursement. To reimburse itself from the estate for all reasonable expenses incurred in the administration thereof.

l. Voting. To vote and give proxies, with power of substitution to vote, stocks, bonds and other securities, or not to vote a security.

m. Ancillary Administration. To appoint or nominate, and replace with or without cause, any persons or corporations, including itself, as ancillary administrators to administer property in other jurisdictions, with the same powers, privileges and immunities as my fiduciary and without bond.

n. Tax Elections. To file tax returns, and to exercise all tax-related elections and options at their discretion, without compensating adjustments or reimbursements between any accounts or any beneficiaries.

3. Survivorship. A beneficiary is not deemed to survive me unless he or she survives me by five days.

4. Death Costs. My fiduciary shall pay (a) from the residuary estate my debts which are allowed as claims against my estate, (b) from the residuary estate my funeral expenses without regard to legal limitations, (c) from the residuary estate the expenses of administering my estate and (d) from the residuary estate other than the portion of the residuary estate qualifying for the marital deduction under the laws then in effect, without apportionment, all estate, inheritance and succession taxes (excluding generation-skipping taxes other than with respect to direct skips), and interest and penalties thereon, due because of my death and attributable to all property whether passing under this Will or otherwise and not required by the terms of the Existing Trust to be paid out of said trust. However, such taxes, penalties and interest payable out of my residuary estate shall not include taxes, penalties and interest attributable to (i) property over which I have a power of appointment granted to me by another person, (ii) qualified terminable interest property held in a trust of which I was the income beneficiary at the time of my death (other than qualified terminable interest property held in a trust for which an election was made under Code Section 2652(a)(3)), and (iii) life insurance proceeds on policies insuring my life which proceeds are not payable to my probate estate. My fiduciary shall not be reimbursed for any such payment from any person or property. However, my fiduciary in its discretion may direct that part or all of said death costs shall be paid by my Trustee as provided in the Existing Trust, and shall give such direction to the extent necessary so that the gifts made in Articles I and II of this Will and the gifts made in any codicil hereto shall not be reduced by said death costs.

5. Reimbursement for Debts and Expenses. My fiduciary shall promptly reimburse my friends and members of my family who have disbursed their own funds for the payment of any debts, funeral expenses or costs of administration of my estate.

6. Expenses of Handling Tangible Personal Property. All expenses incurred by my fiduciary during the settlement of my estate in appraising, storing, packing, shipping, delivering or insuring an article of tangible personal property passing under this Will shall be charged as an expense of administering my estate.

7. Dealing with Estate. Each fiduciary may act under this Will even if interested in my estate in an individual capacity, as a fiduciary of another estate or trust (including any trust identified in this Will or created under the Existing Trust) or in any other capacity. PETIONER

ELIOT BERNSTEIN

PETITION TO DETERMINE AND RELEASE TITLE OF EXEMPT PROPERTY

Petitioner, Eliot Ivan Bernstein alleges:

1. Petitioner, whose address is 2753 NW 34th Street, Boca Raton, FL 33434, is the son of the decedent who, on the date of death, was domiciled in Florida.
2. That Petitioner is the father of the minor who is entitled by law to the exempt property is:

   Joshua Bernstein, whose address is 2753 NW 34th Street, Boca Raton, FL 33434, and the grandson of Simon L. Bernstein, whose birthday is August 27, 1997 and is a minor.

3. This petition is filed within the time permitted by Section 732.402(6) of the Florida Probate Court.
4. Petitioner alleges the exempt property and the basis on which it is claimed to be exempt are as follows:

That on August 25, 2012, Simon Bernstein purchased, titled, insured and registered an automobile, in his name, from Delray Kia, 2255 S. Federal Hwy, in Delray Beach FL, for the benefit of his grandson, Joshua Bernstein and paid for the car, title and tags in full. The car is described as:

Silver, 2013 Kia Soul, VIN # KNDJT2A50D7497193, license plate # BGFC36

That on August 26, 2012, after Sunday Brunch together, Simon Bernstein, dressed the car in balloons, and gave the car to his grandson Joshua for his birthday as a surprise, of which, there are several witnesses, pictures and a birthday video. The car was then driven home to Joshua and Petitioner's place of residence and driven for the benefit of Joshua thereafter. This was the last time Joshua saw his grandfather alive and will always be a special memory in his heart forever.

That Simon's intentions were to transfer the title of ownership to Joshua when he received the car title via US Postal mail. That on September 13, 2012, Simon Bernstein passed away. Given the short time (2 weeks) in between the two events and the original title to the car not being received in the mail yet, on the date of Simon's death the car was still in his Simon's name and not transferred to Joshua.

Petitioner notified Robert Spallina, the alleged Personal Representative of the Estate of Simon Bernstein, the circumstances and was guaranteed the issue would be resolved.

That at midnight on December 2, 2012 the issue was still not resolved and the registration for the vehicle expired. Petitioner again contacted Robert Spallina and was informed that for no specified reason the postal mail belonging to Simon Bernstein was being forwarded to Joshua's uncle, Ted Bernstein at 880 Berkeley Street in Boca Raton, Florida and to contact him regarding the title and the expired registration notices that were sent in the mail. Immediately after Simon's death, Ted Bernstein took control and possession of all Simon Bernstein's mail, took control and possession of all Simon Bernstein's files, including personal and business related files, including those related to the purchase of the car and is tampering, suppressing and denying them the same. Ted Bernstein refuses to forward the above information to Petitioner after several requests and is in control, refusing to forward, tampering and suppressing the above information to the alleged Personal Representatives, Robert Spallina and Donald Tescher and their law firm Tescher & Spallina, P.A.

That as of this date, October 10, 2013, and beginning on December 2, 2012, the above mentioned gifted automobile has been sitting on the street at 2753 NW 34th Street, Boca Raton, Florida, unregistered, uninsured (at risk to the estate of the Simon Bernstein) and un-drivable by the rightful owner Joshua Bernstein against the wishes of his grandfather, the decedent, Simon Bernstein. That a sixteen year old boy, Joshua Bernstein, has to walk by his automobile every day and be remembered of his grandfather's special gift and those responsible for preventing him from having it, namely his uncle, Ted Bernstein, who ironically shares the same birthday as Joshua, and Robert Spallina and Donald Tescher.

That Robert Spallina, as Personal Representative and counsel for the estate, has refused to resolve this issue and continues to put the estate at risk and breach their fiduciary duties. Due to the Personal Representatives lack of duty and care and abuse of powers that allow Ted Bernstein control and tampering of Simon Bernstein's mail and documents and therefore aiding in suppression, tampering and mis-handling of original documents and titles is causing severe damages and injury to the beneficiaries of the decedent. This seems to be a conspired effort by Ted Bernstein and the Personal Representatives to interfere with the administration of the estate, create disputes among the beneficiaries, generate more legal fees, and cause harm to all involved as other documents are missing as well, including a Life Insurance Trust that is a beneficiary of a life insurance policy currently in litigation in the State of Illinois where Ted Bernstein is trying to convert the proceeds to himself against the insurers request to get a court order from this court. Other documents have been admittedly forged and fraudulent in the administration of the estate of Shirley Bernstein and Fraud on the Court before Hon Judge Martin H. Colin and continues by these same named fiduciary conspirators. From all these actions, Petitioner has lost all trust and faith and comes to this court to remedy these wrong-doings as no other option is available.

Petitioner prays that this Court can rectify the above matter and resolve this issue and demand the original car title be transferred to Joshua Bernstein so that the automobile can be properly titled, registered, insured and drivable by the rightful owner, Joshua Bernstein and stop the anguish and harm these actions are causing, again to a sixteen year old boy.

Petitioner requests that all current fiduciaries including but not limited to Personal Representatives, Estate Counsel and Trustees be removed for this willful, wanton, reckless, and gross negligent behavior and disregard of law by the alleged fiduciaries of the estate and estate counsel.

Petitioner requests that a court order be entered determining the persons entitled to the above-described property as exempt property under Section 732.402 of the Florida Probate Code and authorizing and directing the Personal Representatives to deliver and transfer the title of ownership.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

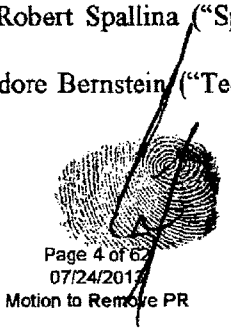
MOTION TO REMOVE PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES

I, Eliot Ivan Bernstein, make the following affirmation under penalties of perjury:

I, Eliot Ivan Bernstein, am the Pro Se Petitioner in the above entitled action, and respectfully move this Court to issue an order to remove the Personal Representatives, Tescher & Spallina P.A., Donald Tescher ("Tescher") & Robert Spallina ("Spallina"), collectively herein as the ("Personal Representatives") and Theodore Bernstein ("Ted") as purported Trustee, Successor



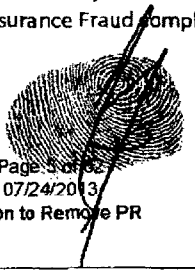
Trustee, Personal Representative and any other fiduciary capacities they claim to have in the estates of Simon Bernstein ("Simon") and Shirley Bernstein ("Shirley"). Further, this Court should have them all immediately deliver all Estates assets, records, documents, accountings, inventories, papers, and other property of or concerning the Simon and Shirley Estates in the removed Personal Representatives, Trustees, Successor Trustees possession or control to the next Personal Representative or Successor Fiduciary and this Court. That this Court then turn all relevant original documents over to the appropriate state and federal authorities for further investigation of alleged Forgery and Fraud[1] and now Insurance Fraud (as defined herein) and for such other relief as the Court may find just and proper.

The reasons why I am entitled to the relief I seek are the following:

I. INTRODUCTION:

1. That due to, including but not limited to, all of the following reasons, Breach of Trust and Fiduciary Responsibilities, Conflict of Interests, Self-Dealings, Violating Court Orders, Committing Crimes including Forgery, Fraud, Insurance Fraud, Mishandling of Estate Assets, Failing to Provide Accounting to Beneficiaries and this Court, Hiding Assets, Not Handling Duties in Proper Legal Matters which have resulted in Financial Losses to the Estate and Concealing Financial Information from Beneficiaries and Interested Parties as fully described in the May 06, 2013 Petition filed by Petitioner and additionally herein, the Personal Representatives and other acting Fiduciaries should immediately be removed and sanctioned by this Court.

[1] Formal Criminal Complaints have been filed with the Florida Governor Notary Public Division and the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office. The Palm Beach County Sheriff claimed jurisdiction since the Forged and Fraudulent documents were submitted to this Court directly in the Del Ray Beach courthouse as part of a Fraud on the Court and the Beneficiaries. Petitioner will also be filing Insurance Fraud complaints based on the evidence presented herein.



2. That on May 6, 2013 Petitioner filed an EMERGENCY PETITION TO: FREEZE ESTATE ASSETS, APPOINT NEW PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES, INVESTIGATE FORGED AND FRAUDULENT DOCUMENTS SUBMITTED TO THIS COURT AND OTHER INTERESTED PARTIES, RESCIND SIGNATURE OF ELIOT BERNSTEIN IN ESTATE OF SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN AND MORE ("Petition") to appoint new personal representatives, investigate Forged and Fraudulent documents submitted to the Court by the Personal Representative to the Beneficiaries and other Interested Parties and to rescind the signature of Eliot Bernstein on documents that are alleged Forged and part of a larger series of Frauds against the Estates of Shirley and Simon.

3. That in the aforesaid Petition, Petitioner prayed to this Court already to remove the Personal Representatives on multiple legal grounds stated in said Petition. In addition to the grounds stated in the Petition known at that time, the Petitioner has recently found new grounds and evidence to immediately remove the purported Personal Representatives and any purported Trustees to preserve assets and reduce the chance for further criminal acts to take place.

II. NEW EVIDENCE OF FIDUCIARY BREACHES AND ALLEGED CRIMINAL ACTS BY PURPORTED PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES AND SUCCESSOR TRUSTEES:

A. Insurance Fraud and More

4. That without notice and knowledge of Petitioner and other Beneficiaries, Simon's son Ted, claims to be the "Trustee" of a lost trust, The Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust Dtd 6/21/95 ("Simon Trust") and filed a lawsuit in such presumed fiduciary capacity, Case No. 13 cv 3643 in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois

Eastern Division, against Heritage Union Life Insurance Company ("Heritage"), in efforts to claim the benefits of Simon L. Bernstein's Insurance Policy No. 1009208 ("Policy"). Simon Bernstein's daughter, Pamela Simon ("Pam") and her husband David Simon ("David") and his brother Adam Simon ("Adam") through the Simon Law Firm ("SLF"), believed to be Adam and David Simon's firm, worked with Ted and Spallina to attempt to get the life insurance benefits of the Policy paid to a post mortem trust they created and named themselves as partial beneficiaries by claiming the Simon Trust was lost and the new trust and new beneficiaries would replace the unknown ones. The Simon Trust that Tescher & Spallina, Spallina, Tescher, Ted and Pam were responsible for keeping, Tescher & Spallina who did the estate planning work concerning the Policy and Ted and Pam because they too had possession of the Simon Trust, as the Bernstein family insurance agency sold the Policy and administered trusts concerning the Policy and now suddenly everyone claims it to be missing. Petitioner instead alleges that Spallina & Tescher, Ted and Pam have suppressed said Simon Trust because Ted and Pam are excluded as beneficiaries of the Policy, as they were wholly excluded from the estates of Simon and Shirley. The Personal Representatives have worked exclusively with Ted and Pam who are both wholly excluded from benefits of the Estates and have completely shut out all of the true Beneficiaries and Interested from ALL administration, information and assets of the Simon and Shirley estates for over two years in the Shirley Estate and eleven months in the Simon estate.

5. That since claiming the Simon Trust is "lost/suppressed" they are demanding in their lawsuit that Heritage pay the benefits to a newly created post mortem trust that Tescher & Spallina, Spallina, David, Pam and Ted created and whereby they are electing new beneficiaries after Simon has passed, yes, a post mortem trust designating new beneficiaries.

That the insurance carrier has rejected their claim, stating they cannot prove the assertions made as to whom the beneficiaries are claimed to be. Whereby Ted claims in the lawsuit to be the "purported" Trustee of the missing Simon Trust but cannot prove such claim causing the carrier to counter sue and not pay the claim until a court decides. Ted is misusing his "alleged" legal powers in the estate of Shirley, as already described in the Petition with this Court and now Ted makes efforts to assume fiduciary powers in handling assets of Simon's estate in an attempt to obtain all the benefits of the Heritage Policy by deceiving Beneficiaries, attempting to deceive an insurance company and now perpetrating a Fraud on not only this Court but the US District Court in Illinois.

6. That Tescher & Spallina, Spallina, SLF, Pam, David, Adam and Ted have filed this lawsuit without proper notice to all of the potential beneficiaries of their US District Court lawsuit. Both SLF and Ted have conflicts of interest in acting in any legal capacities in the lawsuit, since Ted would be getting benefits directly to himself while acting as the "purported" Trustee of the missing Simon Trust and Pam would get benefits directly to her from the efforts of her husband's law firm SLF's efforts if they are successful. Neither Ted nor Pam would gain any benefits of the Policy without their attempted scheme. If the Policy benefits were paid to the Estate due to the missing/suppressed named Beneficiary, the Simon Trust and then tendered to this Probate Court, the benefits would be paid to either three of five of Simon and Shirley's children (Eliot Bernstein, Jill "Bernstein" Iantoni and Lisa "Bernstein" Friedstein) or to Simon and Shirley's ten grandchildren in equal shares, the Beneficiaries will be determined by this Court's ruling on if the Forged and Fraudulent documents exhibited in the Petition stand or fail. In either scenario, NO benefits would go to Ted and Pam, only their adult children and only if the near deathbed Forged and Fraudulent documents created weeks before Simon passed prevail in this Court. It should be noted again that without the Forged and Fraudulent documents submitted to this Court, Tescher & Spallina, Spallina, Tescher and Ted would have NO legal capacities to act as Personal Representatives or otherwise over any estate assets and Ted and Pam and their children would be wholly excluded from the estates of Simon and Shirley. The legal course in the event of a missing Beneficiary(ies) appears to be that the death benefits of the Policy would flow to this Court as part of the probate estate to be divided amongst the estate Beneficiaries.

7. That the problem created is that the Simon Trust that is claimed to be lost by Tescher & Spallina, Spallina, Ted, Pam and David, is now the plaintiff in the US District Court lawsuit and where it seems impossible that the plaintiff suing the carrier could be a missing/suppressed Simon Trust, as apparently there is no such Simon Trust existing, as they themselves claim. Since the Simon Trust is lost/suppressed, Ted in his unfounded suit claims to be Trustee of the lost/suppressed Simon Trust based on his self-professed claim that he recalls seeing it once upon a time and remembers he was the Trustee. Petitioner claims since Pam, Ted and David were involved in the creation, implementation and control of the Simon Trust at various times, in capacities with Fiduciary Responsibilities and Liabilities, they have chosen instead to suppress the documents and thereby hide the true and proper Beneficiaries from the insurance carriers and the Beneficiaries since allegedly they were wholly excluded from the policy, as they were wholly excluded from any interests in the estates of Simon and Shirley.

8. That Ted, Pam, David and Adam all are in the life insurance business, are life insurance agents and inherited ALREADY in part the Simon insurance businesses, agencies that wrote the Simon Trust and issued the policy and administered the VEBA Trust that controlled the Policy and know this lawsuit is an unprecedented attempt to convert Policy proceeds to a purported Trustee of a missing/suppressed Simon Trust that is being replaced by a post mortem trust created after Simon's death and designating new beneficiaries to receive the benefits that now includes them as direct beneficiaries and trustees. The attempt to deceive the insurance carrier via Ted acting as a self-purported "Trustee" of the missing Simon Trust, attempts also to have the Policy proceeds circumvent this Court and the Beneficiaries of the Simon Trust and get the Policy benefits paid to the new post mortem trust whose beneficiaries are presumably Ted, Pam, Eliot, Lisa and Jill, instead of the Estates Beneficiaries of either Eliot, Jill and Lisa or the ten grandchildren. The newly created trust is presumably the same trust that was exhibited in the Petition, as part of a proposed Settlement and Mutual Agreement between the estate Beneficiaries that would have created this post mortem trust to pay new Beneficiaries. In the Petition (Pages 34-41 under Section VII. INSURANCE PROCEED DISTRIBUTION SCHEME) the proposed settlement agreement that creates a new trust is contained in the Petition on Pages 173-179 "Settlement Agreement and Mutual Release ("SAMR"), see Exhibit 7 [of the Petition] - Settlement Agreement and Mutual Release, drafted on or about December 06, 2012 by an unknown Attorney at Law or Law Firm, as no law firm markings are again on the pages.") The new trust that was to be created if the SAMR was signed is termed hereinafter as the ("SAMR Trust") and would be the first of its kind post mortem insurance trust created. That the SAMR was never signed by Petitioner and without knowledge of any of the other Beneficiaries and Petitioner rejected such SAMR and SAMR Trust as a scheme that constituted Insurance Fraud and more and therefore refused to sign the SAMR. In the Petition the SAMR is alleged to be an attempt by Ted and Pam to redirect the Policy proceeds from their very own adult children to themselves, as they were excluded if it flowed through the estate and all of these acts were aided by the purported Personal Representatives.

9. That upon the first attempt to have the benefits paid without proper proof of beneficial interests, Reassure America Life Insurance Company informed Tescher & Spallina P.A. (who originally created the SAMR and SAMR Trust), Robert Spallina, Ted, Pam and David to get a court order from this Court stating whom to release the funds to, after determining who the true and proper Beneficiaries were, as the Simon Trust was declared missing from the estate of Simon. Petitioner herewith produces the said letter dated January 08, 2013 from Reassure America Life Insurance Company Letter, as Exhibit 1. The attempt to release the funds to their proposed post mortem SAMR Trust scheme due to their losing the Simon Trust that was the named beneficiary, is all a result of Tescher & Spallina P.A., Tescher and Spallina failing to legally document the beneficiaries of the Policy, then losing/suppressing the missing Simon Trust while they were the Estates lawyers and is more fully defined already in the Petition filed with this Court.

10. That instead of seeking this Court's determination of the beneficiaries by order as demanded by the carrier, and knowing that Petitioner refused to sign the SAMR, Ted and Pam with the aid initially of Tescher & Spallina P.A., Spallina and Tescher and then later in the US District Court with Adam Simon, Esq., replacing Tescher & Spallina P.A., they attempted an end around of this Court, its determination and the estate Beneficiaries, by filing an undisclosed lawsuit against the carriers to force them to pay the SAMR Trust. First they first filed the lawsuit with a Cook County, Illinois state court and then re-filed said suit with the Federal US District Court Northern Illinois.

11. That Petitioner was only notified of this new lawsuit to convert the death benefits through this scheme when he received a summons regarding this lawsuit from the Attorney at Law for Jackson National Life Insurance Company ("JNL"), successor in interest to Heritage, and where Petitioner was added as a Counter Defendant in the Counter Complaint[2] filed by the carrier. Petitioner herewith produces JACKSON'S (1) ANSWER TO COMPLAINT AND (2) COUNTERCLAIM AND THIRD-PARTY COMPLAINT FOR INTERPLEADER, as Exhibit 2. Many interesting facts are presented in the Answer and Counter Complaint filed by JNL that support Petitioner's claims of foul play, including but not limited to,

    i. JNL counter sues Ted and defines him using the following language "TED BERNSTEIN, individually and as purported Trustee of the Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust Dtd. 6121/95." It is evident that Ted has not proven his capacity to act as Trustee of the missing Simon Trust to the carrier either and is claimed instead to be a "purported Trustee."

    ii. The suit claims "Heritage has breached its obligations under the Policy by refusing and failing to pay the Policy's death benefits to the Bernstein Trust as beneficiary of the Policy despite Heritage's receipt of due proof of the Insured's death."

[2] Docket Entries from US District Court Northern District of Illinois

06/26/2013 18 NOTICE by Heritage Union Life Insurance Company re answer to complaint, third party complaint, counterclaim, (Marks, Alexander) (Entered: 06/26/2013)
06/26/2013 17 SUMMONS Issued as to Third Party Defendants Bank of America, Eliot Bernstein, Ted Bernstein, First Arlington National Bank, Simon Bernstein Trust, N.A., United Bank of Illinois (ym,) (Entered: 06/26/2013)

"ANSWER: Jackson lacks sufficient information and knowledge to form a belief as to the true beneficiary of the Policy, resulting in it tendering the death benefit funds to the Court and fling its interpleader counterclaim and third-party complaint, and thus it denies the allegation of this paragraph."

iii. JNL states, "Jackson admits it, as a successor to Heritage, is obligated to pay the death benefits to the beneficiary(ies) of the Policy, but denies that the remainder of paragraph 13 accurately and fully states the obligations of a beneficiary in submitting a claim under the Policy" clearly showing that there is no legal validity to the claimed beneficiaries assertion and that the beneficial interests were not proven based on the claim filed.

iv. JNL states, "Ted S. Bernstein is a resident and citizen of Florida. He is alleged in the underlying suit to be the "trustee" of the Bernstein Trust. Ted Bernstein is further, individually, upon information and belief a beneficiary of the Bernstein Trust (as Simon Bernstein's son)."

v. JNL states in Paragraph 9 of the counter complaint, "The 'Simon Bernstein Trust' is, upon information and belief, the Bernstein Trust listed in paragraph 3, above, and was a named contingent beneficiary of the Policy. However, based on the variance in title, to the extent it is a separate trust from the Bernstein Trust referenced above, it is named separately." Paragraph 3 states, "The Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust Dtd 6/21/95 (the Bernstein Trust") is alleged in the underlying suit to be a "common law trust established in Chicago, Illinois by the settlor, Simon L. Bernstein, and was formed pursuant to the laws of the state of Illinois."

This Court should note that this variance in the titles of the trust(s) is alleged herein not to be the same trust but that through a crafty name game appears similar but instead is two separate trusts with confusingly similar names. Petitioner states the "Bernstein Trust" referenced and listed in Paragraph 3 is the missing/suppressed "Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust Dtd 6/21/95" and that the "Simon Bernstein Trust" is the POST MORTEM CREATED SAMR Trust that is being substituted for the Simon Trust, with a similar name as the missing Simon Trust, so as to confuse the carrier, which obviously according to the carrier, as evidenced further herein, such efforts have worked in confusing them enough to deny the claim and counter sue. Again, the SAMR Trust is believed to be a post mortem trust created by Tescher & Spallina P.A., Robert Spallina, Donald Tescher, Ted, Pam, David and Adam with no legal standing to make a claim to the proceeds of the Policy as it is legally invalid, as it was created after the Policy owner's death. The fact that this "Simon Bernstein Trust" is claimed to have been a "contingent beneficiary" elected by Simon in the Policy would appear impossible if the "Simon Bernstein Trust" aka SAMR Trust was not created until after Simon had died. Dead men do not assign new contingent beneficiaries, yet we also find in the estates of Simon and Shirley that the same dead man also notarizes and signs documents months after being deceased that make major near changes to long established estate plans, while under extreme physical and emotional duress and then present them to this Court, as exhibited already in the Petition[3]. This Simon Bernstein Trust aka SAMR Trust scheme may represent Insurance Fraud and more.

Motion to Remove PR

vi. JNL states on Page 8 Paragraph 18 of the Answer and Counter Complaint, "Subsequent to the Insured's death, Ted Bernstein, through his Florida counsel (who later claimed Bernstein did not have authority to file the instant suit in Illinois on behalf of the Bernstein Trust and withdrew representation), submitted a claim to Heritage seeking payment of the Death Benefit Proceeds, purportedly as the trustee of the Bernstein Trust. Ted Bernstein claimed that the Lexington Trust was voluntarily dissolved in 1998, leaving the Bernstein Trust as the purported sole surviving Policy beneficiary at the time of the Decedent's death."

That Petitioner is flabbergasted by this claim that Ted was advised by counsel, presumably Tescher & Spallina P.A., Tescher and Spallina acting as Personal Representatives who concocted this scheme originally, whom suddenly withdrew as counsel in the lawsuit and had ADVISED Ted that he did not have authority or basis to file this suit and yet Ted, David, Pam, SLF and Adam then pursued the Federal lawsuit, despite Estate Counsel/Personal Representatives advice?

This brings up several fascinating questions, such as why is the estate counsel again legally advising Ted as if he were his personal counsel while retained by the estate as counsel and purported Personal Representative? Then the question becomes if estate counsel and Personal Representatives Tescher & Spallina P.A., Tescher and Spallina were aware that this lawsuit was being filed on an assets of the Estate, why have they not filed a response on behalf of the Beneficiaries of the estate to protect their interests??? The conflicting relationship between Tescher, Spallina and Ted has already been exposed in the Petition already filed with this Court, Pages 88-94, Section "XIX. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST BY PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES, ESTATE COUNSEL AND TRUSTEES DISCOVERED" and this adds additional circumstantial evidence of a special relationship that exists between Ted and Tescher & Spallina P.A., Tescher and Spallina, whereby they are acting in alleged criminal conspiracy in all of the alleged crimes taking place.

[3] Petition Pages 44-47 Section, "IX. FORGED AND FRAUDULENT DOCUMENTS FILED IN THE EST ATE OF SHIRLEY IN THIS COURT BY TESCHER AND SPALLINA CONSTITUTING A FRAUD ON THIS COURT AND THE BENEFICIARIES AND MORE" and In the Petition Pages47-48 Section, "X. INCOMPLETE NOTARIZATION IN THE ALLEGED 2012 AMENDED TRUST OF SIMON AND MORE" and in the Petition Pages 48-49 "XI. INCOMPLETE NOTARIZATION IN THE 2012 WILL OF SIMON AND MORE."

vii. JNL states, "However, Ted Bernstein could not locate (nor could anyone else) a copy of the Bernstein Trust. Accordingly, on January 8, 2013, Reassure, successor to Heritage, responded to Ted Bernstein's counsel [Tescher & Spallina P.A.] stating: In as much as the above policy provides a large death benefit in excess of $1.6 million dollars and the fact that the trust document cannot be located, we respectfully request a court order to enable us to process this claim." That on the first FAILED attempt to convert the benefits through this type of scheme, Tescher & Spallina P.A., Tescher, Spallina, Ted and Pam proposed the SAMR scheme for the Beneficiaries to sign and then they stated they would file the SAMR Trust with this Court for approval and an order to then take to the carrier. Petitioner and Petitioner's children counsel refused to sign the SAMR without first having a copy of the Policy, a copy of the trusts involved, a copy of all loans against the policies and more, yet Petitioner and Petitioner's children counsel were both refused these documents by Tescher & Spallina, Tescher, Spallina, Pam, Ted and Heritage despite repeated requests, therefore Petitioner never executed a signature on the SAMR and believed the issue was dropped.

viii. JNL further states, "Presently, the Bernstein Trust still has not been located. Accordingly, Jackson is not aware whether the Bernstein Trust even exists, and if it does whether its title is the 'Simon Bernstein Insurance Trust dated 6/21/1995, Trust,' as captioned herein, or the 'Simon Bernstein Trust, N.A.', as listed as the Policy's contingent beneficiary (or otherwise), and/or if Ted Bernstein is in fact its trustee. In conjunction, Jackson has received conflicting claims as to whether Ted Bernstein had authority to file the instant suit on behalf of the Bernstein Trust."

ix. JNL states, "In addition, it is not known whether "LaSalle National Trust, N.A. was intended to be named as the primary beneficiary in the role of a trustee (of the Lexington and/or Bernstein Trust), or otherwise. Jackson also has no evidence of the exact status of the Lexington Trust, which was allegedly dissolved.

x. JNL states, "Due to: (a) the inability of any party to locate the Bernstein Trust and uncertainty associated thereunder; (b) the uncertainty surrounding the existence and status of 'LaSalle National Trust, N.A.' (the primary beneficiary under the Policy) and the Lexington Trust; and (c) the potential conflicting claims under the Policy, Jackson is presently unable to discharge its admitted liability under the Policy."

xi. JNL states, "Justice and equity dictate that Jackson should not be subjected to disputes between the defendant parties and competing claims when it has received a non-substantiated claim for entitlement to the Death Benefit Proceeds by a trust that has yet to be located, nor a copy of which produced." Here we see that as they were unable to produce satisfactory evidence to Petitioner and Petitioner's children counsel showing a clear path to the beneficial interest, they too could not prove their claims to the carrier to claim the benefits.

12. That only after receiving said lawsuit from JNL was Petitioner informed about the case filed by Tescher & Spallina, Spallina, Ted, Pamela, David and Adam Simon. This is new prima facie evidence of a Breach of Fiduciary Duty and Law by the Personal Representatives and Ted, representing possible further, Fraud on the Beneficiaries, Fraud on courts and now Insurance Fraud. All of these problems are due to the lack of duty and care and alleged criminal and civil violations of law by Tescher & Spallina, Spallina and Tescher in failing to protect the rightful Beneficiaries of the Policy and delineating a clear legal path to the Policy proceeds for them in preparing the estate of Simon and Shirley. The loss/suppression of an insurance trust, insurance policy, etc. with no documentation to show reason for such failure to document the Beneficiaries or retain a copy of the trust included in the estate plans of Simon and Shirley that they paid top dollar to have executed and now claim to have missing essential pieces of the estates by Tescher & Spallina that expose all the Beneficiaries to liabilities represents further incomprehensible errors, alleged violations of law and further intentional torts. Therefore, all legal costs and other costs resulting from the acts described in the Petition and herein, encumbered by any/all parties, should therefore be paid for by Tescher & Spallina, Spallina and Tescher and NOT from the estate proceeds or individually by the Beneficiaries or Interested Parties. That any financial losses to the Estates and Beneficiaries be recovered from the Personal Representatives and Successor Trustee as they are both personally and professionally liable. These costs are all a result of the failures of the Estate Counsel and Personal Representatives and appear to have been done with scienter.

B. Abuse of Attorney / Abuse of Legal Process

13. That Christine P. Yates, Esq., ("Yates") is a Partner at Tripp Scott law firm and the attorney initially for the Eliot Bernstein family and then later, due to conflicts caused by the lost Simon Trust and the new beneficiaries created, which caused Petitioner and his children to have conflicting interests, from that point forward, Yates represented only Petitioner's children and Petitioner has been unable to secure counsel for reasons already explained in the Petition. Recently, Tripp Scott has resigned as counsel to the children, for all of the following reasons:

    i. the inability to gain documents from Tescher & Spallina, Tescher and Spallina after extensive efforts to obtain such documents and doubling their anticipated costs in merely trying to get information necessary to ascertain the beneficial interests of Petitioner's children,

    ii. the enormous billings caused as a result of Tescher & Spallina, Tescher and Spallina's evasions, suppressed/lost documents, Forged and Fraudulent documents, lost/suppressed trusts and an insurance Policy and more,

    iii. the guilt of finding that Tripp Scott billings were being paid by a school trust account. From a letter to another Attorney at Law, Yates claimed, "the reasons for the termination of my representation were due to the insufficiency of funds in the trust accounts..." That this statement refers to depleting all of the trust funds to pay for legal counsel. To be more specific to this Court, the trust funds Yates refers to are Petitioner's children school trust funds that have been depleted through further Fraud by Spallina to pay Petitioner's living expenses. Where these school trusts were set up several years prior to the death of Simon and Shirley and were funded to pay for Petitioner's children school tuitions. Initially after Simon passed, Spallina took possession of a Legacy Bank of Florida account that Simon had been paying Petitioner's family expenses of $100,000.00 per year for approximately 6 years per an agreement between Petitioner and Simon, as fully exhibited already in the Petition (Pages 86-89 Section "XVI. THE ADVANCED INHERITANCE AGREEMENT ("AIA")", which was for $100,000.00 per year. Simon paid the home expenses per the AIA for the home purchased by Petitioner's children through the Legacy account. The home was purchased outright through Petitioner's children's already established and funded investment trust accounts at that time.

Several months after Simon passed Spallina directed Eliot and Candice "Candice" Bernstein to take over the Legacy Bank account and write checks for expenses out of it. Petitioner refused such request to write checks from an account that was Simon's without first getting authorization from Legacy Bank. Eliot and Rachel Walker ("Walker") (Simon's assistant who was handling the Legacy Account but who was fired by Spallina and therefore turning the account over to Eliot and Candice at Spallina's request) called Legacy Bank together and Legacy claimed that not only was Walker not authorized to sign checks or listed in any capacity on the account or Petitioner but that Legacy was shocked that no one had notified them that Simon had passed, that his bank accounts were being used post mortem and therefore Legacy instantly froze the account. Spallina was the only person they could talk to further.

Spallina then directed Candice to send over the Legacy Account checkbooks, credit cards, etc. to Janet Craig ("Craig") at Oppenheimer and that she would now be paying the expenses, replacing the recently fired Walker. Craig stated that the funds had been unfrozen by Legacy to Spallina and she would now be paying the expenses. That only later was it learned that the Legacy Bank funds were not paying the expenses but that somehow the funds were now coming out of school trust funds of Petitioner's children, trusts that Spallina had not shown Petitioner and therefore he had to get them from Craig. That all these actions were directed by Spallina, who had told Petitioner at that time not to worry that the expenses were covered in the estate plans and trusts for the children and it would take a few weeks before they were funded and there would be no discontinuity in the monthly expenses as Simon and Shirley had planned for the special circumstances of Petitioner's family, as fully defined in the Petition. That Spallina is now claiming that there is no money in the estates and telling Petitioner he will receive virtually nothing in inheritance and is further executing a foreclosure on the Petitioner's children's home in another complete Fraud and Hoax, as more fully defined in the Petition, Section "XIII. THREATENED FORECLOSURE ON SIMON'S GRANDCHILDREN'S HOME BYSIMON'S ESTATE POST MORTEM", Pages 52-55. There is now virtually no money left in the school trust funds and at the burn rate of the living expenses for the children and their school expenses being depleted for these, one can see the calamity this will cause Petitioner and his family in a few days, the children will be forced out of the school and without necessary and fundamental living expenses. This is quite to the opposite of what Simon and Shirley intended for Petitioner and Petitioner's children, if actions are not taken instantly by this Court to protect and preserve the assets and Beneficiaries. Petitioner Exhibits herein a recent letter from Janet Craig of Oppenheimer describing the emergency this presents to Petitioner and his family caused by Spallina with scienter, as Exhibit 3. As with Craig, Yates recently became aware that the funds for school and living expenses are almost wholly exhausted by Spallina and that her legal bill for problems almost wholly created by Spallina were being paid from these school accounts and this is truly an uncompromising position. That Spallina was not even paying legal costs encumbered by Petitioner and Petitioner's children caused by his failures, including but far from limited to,

iv. the lost/suppressed Simon Trust and need for counsel caused by his failures to maintain a clear path to the beneficial interest in the Policy,

v. two sets of lawyers needed, independent counsel for Petitioner and a separate counsel for Petitioner's children, due to the conflicting beneficial interests created by the lost Simon Trust and the costs to legally analyze the SAMR scheme they concocted to replace such "lost" or suppressed trust, vi. the need for counsel to Revoke a Forged and Fraudulent signature in the estate of Shirley,

vii. the cost of counsel to analyze Fraudulent and Legally Deficient documents in the estates created by Tescher & Spallina, Tescher and Spallina viii. the cost in failed efforts by Yates for months to get documents and information from Tescher & Spallina and Spallina. As Yate's states in her letters exhibited herein, ix. the need for counsel now as Yates claims in her letters that both the Petitioner and his children would now have to litigate Spallina and the estates.

x. Further in correspondences between Yates and Attorney at Law Marc Garber who referred Yates to Petitioner, claims are made that Spallina must be reported to the Court and more. Petitioner herewith produces the email of Yates and Garber as Exhibit 4. In the said emails Marc states, a. "Further, and as you [Christine Yates, Esq.] implied, with all the time you expended, Spallina gave us very little, in terms of everything; from documents to involvement in the administration." This statement clearly indicates that in spite of repeated request and continuous efforts made by Yates, Spallina did not provide documents to Yates who is counsel to certain Beneficiaries. This is clear evidence of breach of Fiduciary duty.

b. "I had difficulty sleeping, as I was sorting through our conversation. What troubles me has troubled me in prior situations. Spallina is not the first 'bully lawyering' situation I have seen or heard about."

c. "It truly troubles me [Marc Garber, Esq.] that Spallina continues to spin his web of deceit, and I believe this conduct is further circumstantial evidence that "something is very wrong". I am very glad Eliot filed whatever he filed and I do hope he prevails. I also hope Spallina is removed and perhaps punished for all he is doing."

C. Improper Sale of Real Estate Property

14. That without the knowledge and notice to Petitioner and other Beneficiaries, Ted acting in his presumed capacity as purported Successor Trustee in the estate of Shirley has sold a condominium owned by the estates of Simon and Shirley (it remains unclear due to missing documents suppressed by Spallina which estate the real estate was in at the time of their deaths) a property located at 2494 S Ocean Blvd APT C5, Boca Raton, FL 33432 ("Condo"). Petitioner and other Beneficiaries had rights in this Condo and Ted had no beneficial interest in the property. Yet, Ted has sold it at major price reduction of approximately 30% below market value without consent of the Beneficiaries or even notification to the Beneficiaries of any details of the transaction. In fact, until all the original estate documents can be analyzed for further evidence of Fraud and Forgeries, all these fiduciaries acting in the estates are suspect. Finally, Petitioner and other Beneficiaries not only do not have any information about the said transaction but also where the sale funds have gone. Petitioner herewith produces the Zillow estimate of the properties immediately after the sale showing an increase in value of $500,000 over the purchase price days after sale as Exhibit 5, which clearly shows sale of said Condo far below market value and the realtor who sold the property is not revealed.

15. That the real estate was removed from the listing agent Nestler Poletto Sotheby's International Realty after months of them listing the property for Simon, two weeks prior to the sale and then brokered by an unknown party.

16. That prior to the sale Petitioner and Petitioner's children counsel Tripp Scott had requested that any transactions of any properties of the estates be transacted only after first notifying the Beneficiaries of all terms and conditions and instead this sale was done behind the backs of Petitioner, Beneficiaries and Petitioner's children counsel Yates and without any prior notice.

D. Exposing Estate to Potential Liabilities from Failure to Distribute Automobile

17. That the estate remains at risk due to the retained ownership of an automobile fully paid for that was given as a gift from Simon to his grandson Joshua for his 15th birthday, two week before Simon's passing[4]. As more fully described in the Petition, Spallina has known this automobile was in the possession of 15 year old Joshua as a gift and that the paperwork to transfer title and ownership was in the process of being completed when Simon passed suddenly and unexpectedly. That since the time of Simon's passing Spallina has refused to tender the title and make proper transfer and to Petitioner's knowledge maintain insurance on the vehicle or even maintain the vehicle for the estate. Instead Spallina has left the entire estate at risk, as in the State of Florida if the car for any reason were involved in accident of any sort the estate could be liable for damages and without proper insurance this further could be damaging to the Beneficiaries of the estate.

III. CONCLUSION

[4] http://statewideprobate.com/blog/comments/move-cars-out-of-estate-quickly
Under Florida law the owner of a vehicle is normally liable for accidents caused by the car, and that liability is not limited to the car insurance limits. So an estate with $200,000 in stocks and bonds can see all of that disappear in the event of an auto accident claim exceeding policy limits. Given that many auto owners carry liability coverage of $300,000 or less, many serious personal injury claims can exceed the coverage and threaten the estate assets. "Move Cars Out of Estate Quickly" Posted by Bruce McDonald September 12, 2011

That Tescher & Spallina for all the reason stated herein and in the Petition have failed to properly administer the Estates and have instead worked with adverse interest to the Beneficiaries to keep them in the dark while various assets appear to go missing with every turn. That Tescher & Spallina have already tendered Forged and Fraudulent documents in the Estates of Simon and Shirley. Documents that enabled their powers as Personal Representatives and therefore all actions they have done may have been executed with legal powers that were gained through Forged documents as part of a Fraud on this Court and the Beneficiaries. That it appears that every minute this Court delays in removing Personal Representatives and Successor Trustees a new theft of Estate assets is taking place.

IV. ARGUMENTS

FLORIDA ESTATE RULES

1. Under RULE 5.310. DISQUALIFICATION OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE: NOTIFICATION, since Tescher & Spallina P.A., Donald Tescher and Robert Spallina all appear to be acting Personal Representatives and Ted acting as purported "Successor Trustee" and where Petitioner claims none of them were qualified to act at the time of appointment and whose appointments were made through Fraudulent and Forged and incomplete documentation submitted to this Court and Petitioner as described herein and in the Petition. Petitioner believes none of them would be qualified for appointment at that time, this time or any time. That Petitioner files and serves herein on all parties this notice describing why the Personal Representatives and Successor Trustee should be removed due to the alleged unlawful acts and violations of fiduciary responsibilities evidenced herein and in the Petition, which show that Tescher & Spallina, Spallina and Tescher were not qualified at the time of appointment to be Personal Representatives for the Estates. For the reasons already stated herein and in the Petition these Personal Representatives would not be qualified for appointment if application for appointment were again made based on the recently uncovered facts and evidence contained herein and in the Petition. That the Court should instantly remove and replace these Personal Representations and grant Petitioner immediate monetary and injunctive relief that this Court deems just in light of the damages already done described herein and in the Petition and any other relief this Court deems just.

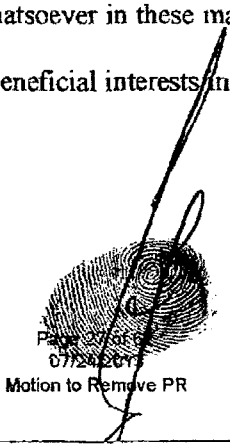
2. This Court should sanction and report to the appropriate authorities all those alleged to have gained fiduciary powers through a series of Forged and Fraudulent documents tendered to this Court as part of a Fraud on this Court and any subsequent transactions of the assets using such illegally gained fiduciary powers as evidence of further civil and criminal violations of law in the administration of the estate.

3. Under RULE 5.320. OATH OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE, the Court should note that at no time before the granting of letters of administration, did Ted, one of the "acting" Personal Representatives/Successor Trustee in the Estates, file an oath to faithfully administer the estate of the decedents with this Court or to the Beneficiaries or the Trustees for the Beneficiaries and this Court should take all steps necessary to remedy this failure, including but not limited to making null and void any actions or sales of Ted as Personal Representative/Successor Trustee in Shirley's estate or as Personal Representative in Simon's estate or any capacity whatsoever in these matters and any other relief this Court sees fit. Ted and Pam have NO beneficial interests in the estates and in fact have adverse and conflicting interests.



4. Under RULE 5.235. ISSUANCE OF LETTERS, BOND, due to the problems caused by the Personal Representatives, Estate Counsel and Ted with the missing/lost/suppressed Simon Trust, the Forged and Fraudulent documentation already exhibited in the Petition to this Court in the Estates and unlawful activities alleged and evidenced herein and in the Petition, Petitioner requests the Court consider requiring the Personal Representatives to give bond to require additional surety great enough to cover all potential losses and all immediate legal fees to the Beneficiaries and other Interested Parties.

5. Under RULE 5.340. INVENTORY, the Personal Representatives, Tescher & Spallina P.A., Tescher and Spallina have failed to serve a copy of the inventory and all supplemental and amended inventories to each heir at law, each residuary beneficiary and did not serve a copy to Petitioner who requested it both orally and in writing for the Estates and acting as Guardian and Trustee for his children. Therefore, this Court should take appropriate actions for this violation and demand all inventories prepared by the Personal Representatives, Goldstein Lewin/CBIZ MHM, LLC, Ted or any other party that has made or maintains an inventory of any assets of the Estates, be instantly turned over to this Court and that all inventories submitted to this Court that may be sealed or marked confidential in any way in the Estates be turned over to Petitioner and all Beneficiaries and Interested Parties.

6. There is an inventory for the personal property of Simon and Shirley that was submitted by Ted to Pam, Jill, Lisa and Petitioner, whereby Ted was acting in an unauthorized capacity as a Personal Representative in the estate of Simon. That this inventory was not verified by the Personal Representatives, Tescher and Spallina that were supposedly designated by Simon in the Amended Trust and therefore this Court should take appropriate actions for this failure of the Personal Representatives to verify this inventory and discard the inventory by Ted and have these items re-evaluated by a new firm and new Personal Representative(s).

7. That there is an inventory list of Jewelry that was removed from the Estates by Pamela, Jill and Lisa along with millions of dollars of Jewelry and these properties and inventories should be immediately secured by this Court from any parties in possession and all assets returned to the Court for proper distribution to the proper Beneficiaries.

8. Under RULE 5.341. ESTATE INFORMATION, the Personal Representatives Tescher, Spallina and Theodore have failed on reasonable and numerous requests in writing, to provide interested persons, including but not limited to, Petitioner and Petitioner's children's counsel, information about the Estates and its administration and therefore this Court should take all actions necessary to rectify this violation and force them to immediately turn over all records in the Estates of Simon and Shirley and all of their records regarding any party named herein, in entirety, to review by this Court and Petitioner for further evidence of Fraud, Theft, Forgery and more.

9. Under RULE 5.341. ESTATE INFORMATION, records this Court should demand and tender to Petitioner and Petitioner's children's counsel, include but are not limited to,

   a. 1995 Insurance Trust / Simon Trust

   b. 2008 Trust of Simon that was executed prior to the 2012 Amended Trust that was completed with Forged and Fraudulent Documents immediately prior to Simon's death as evidenced in the Petition.

c. Full documentation for Proskauer Rose's Will Exhibit in the Will of Simon Bernstein and all estate work Proskauer has for Simon and Shirley their children and grandchildren and Petitioner and Candice and their children and grandchildren.

d. All trusts created by any party named herein for the Beneficiaries, children or grandchildren of the decedents Simon and Shirley.

e. All records for both Estates, including but not limited to, banking, investment, business, accounting, real estate, transfers, titles, deeds, insurance, IRA's, pensions, retirement plans and any other records necessary to ascertain the assets in the Estates.

f. All investment account records from Stanford, JP Morgan, Legacy and Oppenheimer and any banking accounts or other asset accounts, with any beneficiary designations for Transfer on Death "TOD" accounts.

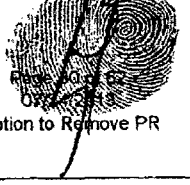
g. All medical records of Simon and Shirley from all doctors involved in their care for the years 2007-2012.

h. All post mortem medical records, coroner records and hospital records.

10. Under Title XLII ESTATES AND TRUSTS Chapter 733 PROBATE CODE: ADMINISTRATION OF ESTATES 733.509 this Court enter an order removing the Personal Representatives and have them immediately deliver all Estates assets, records, documents, papers, and other property of or concerning the Estates in the removed personal representative's possession or control to the remaining personal representative or successor fiduciary or this Court and this Court turn relevant documents over to the appropriate state and federal authorities for further investigation of alleged Forgery and Fraud.

V. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, for the reasons set forth in detail herein, Petitioner respectfully requests that this Court in the interest of justice issue an immediate order to remove the Personal Representatives, Tescher & Spallina P.A., Tescher & Spallina and Ted as Trustee, Successor



Trustee, Personal Representative and any other capacity they claim in the estates of Simon and Shirley and have them immediately deliver all Estates assets, records, inventories, accountings, documents, papers, and other property of or concerning the Estates in the removed Personal Representatives possession or control to a new personal representative or successor fiduciary or this Court. Then this Court then turn the relevant documents over to the appropriate state and federal authorities for further investigation of alleged Forgery and Fraud and for such other relief as the Court may find just and proper.

Respectfully Submitted,

COUNTER-CLAIM AND THIRD-PARTY COMPLAINT FOR INTERPLEADER

INTRODUCTION

1. Jackson National Life Insurance Company ("Jackson") brings this counter-claim and third-party complaint for Interpleader pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1335(a) and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 14, as it seeks a declaration of rights under a life insurance policy for which it is responsible to administer. The proceeds from the policy (the "Death Benefit Proceeds") have been tendered to this Court.

PARTIES AND VENUE

2. Jackson, successor in interest to Reassure America Life Insurance Company ("Reassure"), successor in interest to Heritage Union Life Insurance Company ("Heritage"), is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Michigan, with its principal place of business located in Lansing, Michigan. Jackson did not originate or administer the subject life insurance policy, Policy Number 1009208 (the "Policy"), but inherited the Policy and the Policy records from its predecessors.

3. The Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust Dtd 6/21/95 (the "Bernstein Trust") is alleged in the underlying suit to be a "common law trust established in Chicago, Illinois by the settlor, Simon L. Bernstein, and was formed pursuant to the laws of the state of Illinois."

4. Ted S. Bernstein is a resident and citizen of Florida. He is alleged in the underlying suit to be the "trustee" of the Bernstein Trust. Ted Bernstein is further, individually, upon information and belief, a beneficiary of the Bernstein Trust (as Simon Bernstein's son).

5. Eliot Bernstein is a resident and citizen of Florida. He has asserted that he and/or his children are potential beneficiaries under the Policy as Simon Bernstein's son, presumably under the Bernstein Trust.

6. First Arlington National Bank is, upon information and belief, a bank in Illinois that was, at one point, and the purported trustee for the "S.B. Lexington, Inc. Employee Death Benefit Trust" (the "Lexington Trust"). The Lexington Trust was, upon information and belief, created to provide employee benefits to certain employees of S.B. Lexington, Inc., an insurance agency, including Simon Bernstein, but it is unclear if such trust was properly established.

7. United Bank of Illinois is, upon information and belief, a bank in Illinois that was, at one point, a named beneficiary of the Policy. To date, Jackson has not determined the current existence of this bank.

8. Bank of America, N.A., is a national banking association with its principal place of business in Charlotte, North Carolina. Bank of America, N.A. is the successor in interest to LaSalle National Trust, N.A., which was a named beneficiary of the Policy.

9. The "Simon Bernstein Trust" is, upon information and belief, the Bernstein Trust listed in paragraph 3, above, and was a named contingent beneficiary of the Policy. However, based on the variance in title, to the extent it is a separate trust from the Bernstein Trust referenced above, it is named separately.

10. Subject matter jurisdiction is proper in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1335(a).

11. Personal jurisdiction is proper over Ted Bernstein because he, purportedly as Trustee of the Bernstein Trust, caused this underlying suit to be filed in this venue.

12. Personal jurisdiction is proper over First Arlington National Bank, United Bank of Illinois, and Bank of America in accordance with 735 ILCS 5/2-209(a)(1) because each, upon information and belief, transacts business in Illinois.

13. Personal jurisdiction is proper over Ted and Eliot Bernstein in accordance with 735 ILCS 5/2-209(a)(13) as each are believed to have an ownership interest in the Bernstein Trust, which is alleged in the underlying complaint to exist underneath laws of and to be administered within this State.

14. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) in that a substantial part of the events giving rise to this interpleader action occurred in this District.

FACTS

15. On December 27, 1982, upon information and belief, Capitol Bankers Life Insurance Company issued the Policy, with Simon L. Bernstein as the purported insured (the "Insured").

16. Over the years, the Policy's owner(s), beneficiary(ies), contingent beneficiary(ies) and issuer changed. Among the parties listed as Policy beneficiaries (either primary or contingent) include: "Simon Bernstein"; "First Arlington National Bank, as Trustee of S.B. Lexington, Inc. Employee Death Benefit Trust"; "United Bank of Illinois"; "LaSalle National Trust, N.A., Trustee"; "LaSalle National Trust, N.A."; "Simon Bernstein Insurance Trust dated 6/21/1995, Trust"; and "Simon Bernstein Trust, N.A."

17. At the time of the Insured's death, it appears "LaSalle National Trust, N.A." was the named primary beneficiary of the Policy, and the "Simon Bernstein Trust, N.A." was the contingent beneficiary of the Policy. The Policy's Death Benefit Proceeds are $1,689,070.00, less an outstanding loan.

18. Subsequent to the Insured's death, Ted Bernstein, through his Florida counsel (who later claimed Bernstein did not have authority to file the instant suit in Illinois on behalf of the Bernstein Trust and withdrew representation), submitted a claim to Heritage seeking payment of the Death Benefit Proceeds, purportedly as the trustee of the Bernstein Trust. Ted Bernstein claimed that the Lexington Trust was voluntarily dissolved in 1998, leaving the Bernstein Trust as the purported sole surviving Policy beneficiary at the time of the Decedent's death.

19. However, Ted Bernstein could not locate (nor could anyone else) a copy of the Bernstein Trust. Accordingly, on January 8, 2013, Reassure, successor to Heritage, responded to Ted Bernstein's counsel stating:

> In as much as the above policy provides a large death benefit in excess of $1.6 million dollars and the fact that the trust document cannot be located, we respectfully request a court order to enable us to process this claim.

20. Presently, the Bernstein Trust still has not been located. Accordingly, Jackson is not aware whether the Bernstein Trust even exists, and if it does whether its title is the "Simon Bernstein Insurance Trust dated 6/21/1995, Trust," as captioned herein, or the "Simon Bernstein Trust, N.A.", as listed as the Policy's contingent beneficiary (or otherwise), and/or if Ted Bernstein is in fact its trustee. In conjunction, Jackson has received conflicting claims as to whether Ted Bernstein had authority to file the instant suit on behalf of the Bernstein Trust.

21. In addition, it is not known whether "LaSalle National Trust, N.A." was intended to be named as the primary beneficiary in the role of a trustee (of the Lexington and/or Bernstein Trust), or otherwise. Jackson also has no evidence of the exact status of the Lexington Trust, which was allegedly dissolved.

22. Further, Jackson has received correspondence from Eliot Bernstein, attached as Exhibit 1, asserting that he and/or his children are potential beneficiaries under the Policy, (presumably under the Bernstein Trust, but nonetheless raising further questions as to the proper beneficiaries of the Policy), and requesting that no distributions of the Death Benefit Proceeds be made.

COUNT I- INTERPLEADER

23. This is an action of interpleader brought under Title 28 of the United States Code, Section 1335.

24. Jackson does not dispute the existence of the Policy or its obligation to pay the contractually required payment Death Benefit Proceeds under the Policy, which it has tendered into the registry of this Court.

25. Due to: (a) the inability of any party to locate the Bernstein Trust and uncertainty associated thereunder; (b) the uncertainty surrounding the existence and status of "LaSalle National Trust, N.A." (the primary beneficiary under the Policy) and the Lexington Trust; and (c) the potential conflicting claims under the Policy, Jackson is presently unable to discharge its admitted liability under the Policy.

26 Jackson is indifferent among the defendant parties, and has no interest in the benefits payable under the Policy as asserted in this interpleader other than to pay its admitted liability pursuant to the terms of the Policy, which Jackson has been unable to do by reason of uncertainty and potential competing claims.

Motion to Remove PR

27. Justice and equity dictate that Jackson should not be subject to disputes between the defendant parties and competing claims when it has received a non-substantiated claim for entitlement to the Death Benefit Proceeds by a trust that has yet to be located, nor a copy of which produced.

WHEREFORE, counter- and third-party plaintiff Jackson National Life Insurance Company respectfully requests pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1335 that this Court enter an Order:

a. That counter-defendants be temporarily enjoined during the pendency of this suit and thereafter permanently and perpetually enjoined from commencing any proceedings or prosecuting any claim against Jackson in any state or federal court or other forum with respect to the Policy;

b. That judgment be entered in favor of Jackson on the Complaint in Interpleader;

c. That upon determination that the proper parties have been made subject to this suit, Jackson be excused from further attendance upon this case, be dismissed from this case with an express finding of finality pursuant to Rule 54(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure;

d. That Jackson be awarded actual court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in connection with this interpleader action to be paid out of the admitted liability deposited by it with the Clerk of the Court; and

e. That Jackson be granted such other and further relief as this Court deems just and appropriate.

RE: URGENT RE Policy #1009208

Dear Mr. McDonald,

I, Eliot I. Bernstein, son of Simon L. Bernstein, and my children have been notified that we are possible beneficiaries of the life insurance policy on my deceased father. I am in receipt of your attached letter and I have retained counsel, Christine Yates at Tripp Scott in FL, for my children's interests in the policy and am currently seeking counsel regarding my interest in the policy and request that you send me and Yates a copy of the policy and all pertinent policy information immediately at the addresses below

I have been told by the estate planning attorney, Robert Spallina, that he does not have a copy of the policy, schedules, riders, loans, attachments etc. and that he is also missing a trust document that may have been the beneficiary. I am requesting that your company make NO distribution of any policy proceeds without both my written personal consent and my children's counsel consent, to any party. I am aware of claims that there is also a missing trust of Simon that may have been a Beneficiary and any information you maintain regarding the beneficiaries would be helpful in trying to establish who the rightful beneficiaries are. I, nor my children have consented to any agreements for distribution and have no proper paperwork to rely on.

I have been informed that parties are attempting to make distribution without my or my children's counsel knowledge and consent.

Please contact me at your earliest convenience so that we may discuss this further or you can write or email at my addresses below.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

TO: Alexander D. Marks, attorney for Jackson National Life Insurance Company
(NAME OF PLAINTIFF'S ATTORNEY OR UNREPRESENTED PLAINTIFF)

I, _____, acknowledge receipt of your request that I waive service of summons in the action of Simon Bernstein Insurance Trust Dtd 6/21/95 v. Heritage Union Life Insurance Company, et al., (CAPTION OF ACTION) which is case number 13-cv-03643 in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois.
(DEFENDANT NAME)

I have also received a copy of the complaint in the action, two copies of this instrument, and a means by which I can return the signed waiver to you without cost to me.

I agree to save the cost of service of a summons and an additional copy of the complaint in this lawsuit by not requiring that I (or the entity on whose behalf I am acting) be served with judicial process in the manner provided by Rule 4.

I (or the entity on whose behalf I am acting) will retain all defenses or objections to the lawsuit or to the jurisdiction or venue of the court except for objections based on a defect in the summons or in the service of the summons.

I understand that a judgment may be entered against me (or the party on whose behalf I am acting) if an answer or motion under Rule 12 is not served upon you within 60 days after July 1, 2013, or within 90 days after that date if the request was sent outside the United States.
(DATE REQUEST WAS SENT)

Duty to Avoid Unnecessary Costs of Service of Summons

Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires certain parties to cooperate in saving unnecessary costs of service of the summons and complaint. A defendant located in the United States who, after being notified of an action and asked by a plaintiff located in the United States to waive service of summons, fails to do so will be required to bear the cost of such service unless good cause be shown for its failure to sign and return the waiver.

It is not good cause for a failure to waive service that a party believes that the complaint is unfounded, or that the action has been brought in an improper place or in a court that lacks jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action or over its person or property. A party who waives service of the summons retains all defenses and objections (except any relating to the summons or to the service of the summons), and may later object to the jurisdiction of the court or to the place where the action has been brought.

A defendant who waives service must within the time specified on the waiver form serve on the plaintiff's attorney (or unrepresented plaintiff) a response to the complaint and must also file a signed copy of the response with the court. If the answer or motion is not served within this time, a default judgment may be taken against that defendant. By waiving service, a defendant is allowed more time to answer than if the summons had been actually served when the request for waiver of service was received.

LETTER FROM JANET CRAIG OF OPPENHEIMER DESCRIBING THE EMERGENCY

Eliot Bernstein

From:	Craig, Janet <Janet.Craig@opco.com>

Cc:	Worth, Hunt; Sigalos, Janet; Vereb, Patricia
Subject:	Bernstein Family Realty

Robert, Eliot and Candice,

As you are aware, during his lifetime, Simon Bernstein paid the household expenses for Eliot and Candace. Upon his death those funds were frozen and the only funds available to pay the household expenses were the education trusts that Simon set up for Daniel, Jacob and Joshua.

We are now at a point where the education trusts have insufficient assets to pay the 2013/2014 tuition for the three boys and will soon be depleted to the point where the household expenses cannot be paid. The market values of the four accounts are listed below.

Please let me know as soon as possible if the Estate of Simon Bernstein intends to reimburse the education trusts for the household expenses paid to date. If this is not possible, for any reason, Oppenheimer Trust Company will have no recourse but to Resign as Trustee in favor of Eliot and Candice Bernstein and to name them as the Successor Manager of Bernstein Family Realty. At that point we will present an Accounting for all the trusts, request a Release and Receipt for our period of administration and transfer all funds to the management of the Successor Trustee and Manager and terminate the trusts.

Please note I will be out of the office from July 20th through July 29th. I will be addressing this matter upon my return.

S. Bernstein Trust fbo Daniel	$19,465.15
S. Bernstein Trust fbo Jacob	$19,267.41
S. Bernstein Trust fbo Joshua	$ 9,268.52
Bernstein Family Realty	$12,311.94
Total	$60,313.02

Christine:

I had difficulty sleeping, as I was sorting through our conversation. What troubles me has troubled me in prior situations. Spallina is not the first "bully lawyering" situation I have seen or heard about. "If you scream loud enough and pound the table hard and often, the other side will cave". It troubles me that many times this approach works. Sometimes it becomes a fee and time matter, other situations result in the good lawyer becoming tired of dealing with "hard headed" uncompromising opponent. I have heard some people actually seek out a bully lawyer for these reasons. The reasons include the fact that they win using this approach. Further, and as you implied, with all the time you expended, Spallina gave us very little, in terms of everything; from documents to involvement in the administration.

It truly troubles me that Spallina continues to spin his web of deceit, and I believe this conduct is further circumstantial evidence that "something is very wrong". I am very glad Eliot filed whatever he filed and I do hope he prevails. I also hope Spallina is removed and perhaps punished for all he is doing. It also troubles me that once he learns of your withdrawal, Spallina will celebrate his victory. If I was licensed in Florida, I would take this on pro bono. Simply out of principal, and I would make certain a probate judge learns of Spallina's behavior. Unfortunately, I am not a Florida lawyer. If Eliot is able to get his motions before a probate judge, I hope he asks and you agree to testify as to how Spallina treated you. A judge may take real notice of that testimony.

Thanks,

Marc

Marc, it was nice to speak with you yesterday. As we discussed, the reasons for the the termination of my representation were due to the insufficiency of funds in the trust accounts and the the corresponding increase in litigation that would need to be filed in order to move this case forward. It is always a difficult decision as an attorney to proceed with litigation, using all funds in a trust to do so without a guarantee of results. This leaves the attorney in a difficult position with the trust beneficiary, their client. Also, I was concerned that attorney/client communications via email were being filed in court proceedings by Eliot in his case. I want to be able to be assured that information on behalf of my client's remains confidential.

Thank you again for you time in speaking with me yesterday.

Eliot and Candace, first I am glad that you are feeling better Eliot.

I have made no progress with Spallina in regards to obtaining documents and in my last call with him and Mark Manceri, Mr. Spalllina reiterated his position that the mortgage on the property you are currently residing in was what your father wanted, and that any information regarding the trust of your father would have to be addressed to your brother as trustee.

At this time, in order to receive the information you want, I believe you will need to institute legal proceedings against the estate and trust. Since a new course of action will need to be undertaken, at this time, I will be withdrawing as counsel for your children, and believe that you should now hire separate litigation counsel for them. I will be happy to assist your new counsel in providing them with any information and thank you for the opportunity you gave me to assist you.

I, Eliot I. Bernstein, make the following affirmation under penalties of perjury:

I, Eliot I. Bernstein, am the pro se petitioner in the above entitled action, and respectfully move this court to issue an order to consider in ordinary course the Renewed Emergency Petition filed by the Petitioner to freeze Estate Assets, appoint new personal representatives, investigate forged and fraudulent documents submitted to the court and other interested parties, rescind signature of Eliot Bernstein in Estate of Simon and more and for such other relief as the Court may find just and proper.

The reasons why I am entitled to the relief I seek are the following:

I. INTRODUCTION:

1. That on May 29, 2013, this Petitioner had filed a Renewed Emergency Petition to freeze Estate Assets, appoint new personal representatives, investigate forged and fraudulent documents submitted to the court and other interested parties, rescind signature of Eliot Bernstein in Estate of Simon and more.

2. That on 30th May 2013, the Honorable Judge David E. French gave a judgment on the Emergency Petition stating that "Motion is hereby denied as an Emergency, the moving party is directed to address said Motion in the ordinary course"- Exhibit 1

II. ARGUMENT:

1. To consider the Renewed Emergency Petition filed by Petitioner in ordinary course:

   As per order of Court this Petitioner intends to proceed with the petition in ordinary course and requests this court to consider the Renewed Emergency Petition in ordinary course.

2. To construe this Pro Se motion liberally:

   i. Relevant Law:

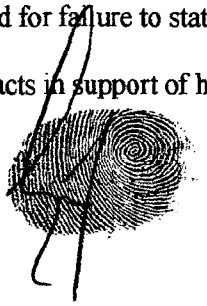
Judiciary Act of September 24, 1789, Section 342, FIRST CONGRESS, Sess. 1, ch.20, 1789 states that:

> "Pleadings of the Plaintiff SHALL NOT BE dismissed for lack of form or failure of process. All the pleadings are as any reasonable man/woman would understand, and:
> "'And be it further enacted. That no summons, writ, declaration, return, process, judgment, or other proceedings in civil cases in any of the courts or the United States, shall be abated, arrested, quashed or reversed, for any defect or want of form, but the said courts respectively shall proceed and give judgment according as the right of the cause and matter in law shall appear unto them, without regarding any imperfections, defects or want of form in such writ, declaration, or other pleading, returns process, judgment, or course of proceeding whatsoever, except those only in cases of demurrer, which the party demurring shall specially sit down and express together with his demurrer as the cause thereof. And the said courtsively shall and may, by virtue of this act, from time to time, amend all and every such imperfections, defects and wants of form, other than those only which the party demurring shall express as aforesaid, and may at any, time, permit either of the parties to amend any defect in the process of pleadings upon such conditions as the said courts respectively shall in their discretion, and by their rules prescribe (a)'"

Court errs if court dismisses pro se litigant without instructions of how pleadings are deficient and how to repair pleadings. Plaskey v CIA, 953 F .2nd 25

It is settled law that the allegations of such a complaint, "however inartfully pleaded" are held "to less stringent standards than formal pleadings drafted by lawyers, see Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519, 520 (1972). See also Maclin v. Paulson, 627 F.2d 83, 86 (CA7 1980); French v. Heyne, 547 F.2d 994, 996 (CA7 1976); Estelle v. Gamble, 429 U.S.97, 106 (1976). Such a complaint should not be dismissed for failure to state a claim unless it appears beyond doubt that the plaintiff can prove no set of facts in support of his claim which would entitle him to relief.



Haines, supra, at 520-521. And, of course, the allegations of the complaint are generally taken as true for purposes of a motion to dismiss. Cruz v. Beto, 405 U.S. 319, 322 (1972).

Recognizing that transsubstantive pleading standards do not sufficiently account for the capability differential between represented and unrepresented litigants, the Supreme Court fashioned a rule of special solicitude for pro se pleadings. See Robert Bacharach & Lyn Entzeroth, Judicial Advocacy in Pro Se Litigation: A Return to Neutrality, 42 IND. L.REV. 19, 22-26 (2009)

The Court granted such leniency, or "liberal construction," to pro se pleadings against the backdrop of Conley v. Gibson's undemanding "no set of facts" standard. See Conley v. Gibson, 355 U.S. 41, 45-46 (1957) "[A] complaint should not be dismissed for failure to state a claim unless it appears beyond doubt that the plaintiff can prove no set of facts in support of his claim which would entitle him to relief.", abrogated by Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 561-63 (2007). This standard epitomized the notice-pleading regime envisioned by the drafters of the Federal Rules, who emphasized discovery as the stage at which a claim's true merit would come to light, rather than pleading. See Christopher M. Fairman, The Myth of Notice Pleading, 45 ARIZ. L. REV. 987, 990 (2003).

ii. Discussion:

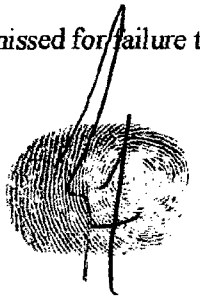
In this action, the Petitioner appears Pro se. Hence, this motion should be construed liberally. It should not be dismissed for failure to state a claim. It should be decided on true merit, rather than pleading.

III. Prayer for Relief



WHEREFORE, for the reasons set forth in detail herein, Petitioner respectfully requests that this Court in the interest of justice consider in ordinary course the Renewed Emergency Petition filed by the Petitioner to freeze Estate Assets, appoint new personal representatives, investigate forged and fraudulent documents submitted to the court and other interested parties, rescind signature of Eliot Bernstein in Estate of Simon and more and grant such other relief as the Court may find just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

This Entire Petition is written, filed upon the knowledge, information and belief of Eliot Ivan Bernstein ("Petitioner"):

1. That in compliance with this Court's Order dated May 08, 2013 the original "EMERGENCY PETITION TO: FREEZE ESTATE ASSETS, APPOINT NEW PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES, INVESTIGATE FORGED AND FRAUDULENT DOCUMENTS SUBMITTED TO THIS COURT AND OTHER INTERESTED PARTIES, RESCIND SIGNATURE OF ELIOT BERNSTEIN IN ESTATE OF SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN AND MORE." [1] has been served to all Respondents and interested parties/persons to whom the Petition is directed, Theodore Bernstein, Pamela Simon, Jill Iantoni and Lisa Friedstein and as Trustees for their children .
2. That on May 14th 2013 Proof of Service on all Respondents and interested parties/persons of the original Emergency Petition was filed with the Court and Petitioner now moves this Court to adjudicate this Renewed Emergency Petition immediately as to prevent further alleged Criminal Activity and theft of assets of the estate to cease.
3. That during such time that this Court has requested proper service of the Petition, it has come to Petitioner's attention that assets of the estate are being sold or otherwise disbursed of without proper notification to Petitioner and Interested Parties by the Respondents.
4. That the Court and all Officers of the Court handling this matter have been requested to Sign a Conflict of Interest Disclosure ("COI") that was attached in the original Emergency Motion and where prior to ANY decisions or orders or rulings or pleadings submitted by any Officer of the Court, Petitioner is requesting a signed COI to ensure fair and impartial due process.
5. That it has come to the attention of Petitioner that the Justices handling the estates of Simon and Shirley Bernstein are different and that the Justices handling the cases are signing orders in each other's case and Petitioner requests clarification as to who is adjudicating each case and who will be signing orders in each case. This has also confused both the Court Clerks and the Justices assistants and delayed this Emergency Petition from being heard by the Court, again allowing more time for Respondents to continue perpetrating Fraud on this Court and more.

SIMON L. BERNSTEIN

AMENDED AND RESTATED TRUST AGREEMENT

This Amended and Restated Trust Agreement is dated this 25 day of July, 2012, and is between SIMON L. BERNSTEIN, of Palm Beach County, Florida referred to in the first person, as settlor, and SIMON L. BERNSTEIN, of Palm Beach County, Florida and SIMON L. BERNSTEIN's successors, as trustee (referred to as the "Trustee," which term more particularly refers to all individuals and entities serving as trustee of a trust created hereunder during the time of such service, whether alone or as co-trustees, and whether originally serving or as a successor trustee).

WHEREAS, on May 20, 2008, I created and funded the SIMON L. BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT (the "Trust Agreement," which reference includes any subsequent amendments of said trust agreement);

WHEREAS, Paragraph A. of Article I. of said Trust Agreement provides, inter alia, that during my lifetime I shall have the right at any time and from time to time by an instrument, in writing, delivered to the Trustee to amend or revoke said Trust Agreement, in whole or in part.

NOW, THEREFORE, I hereby amend and restate the Trust Agreement in its entirety and the Trustee accepts and agrees to perform its duties and obligations in accordance with the following amended provisions. Notwithstanding any deficiencies in execution or other issues in regard to whether any prior version of this Trust Agreement was a valid and binding agreement or otherwise created an effective trust, this amended and restated agreement shall constitute a valid, binding and effective trust agreement and shall amend and succeed all prior versions described above or otherwise predating this amended and restated Trust Agreement.

ARTICLE I. DURING MY LIFE AND UPON MY DEATH

A. Rights Reserved. I reserve the right (a) to add property to this trust during my life or on my death, by my Will or otherwise; (b) to withdraw property held hereunder; and (c) by separate written instrument delivered to the Trustee, to revoke this Agreement in whole or in part and otherwise modify or amend this Agreement.

B. Payments During My Life. If income producing property is held in the trust during my life, the Trustee shall pay the net income of the trust to me or as I may direct. However, during any periods while I am Disabled, the Trustee shall pay to me or on my behalf such amounts of the net income and principal of the trust as is proper for my Welfare. Any income not so paid shall be added to principal.

C. Upon My Death. Upon my death the Trustee shall collect and add to the trust all amounts due to the trust under any insurance policy on my life or under any death benefit plan and all property added to the trust by my Will or otherwise. After paying or providing for the payment from the augmented trust of all current charges and any amounts payable under the later paragraph captioned "Death Costs," the Trustee shall hold the trust according to the following provisions.

ARTICLE II. AFTER MY DEATH

A. Disposition of Tangible Personal Property. If any non-business tangible personal property other than cash (including, but not limited to, my personal effects, jewelry, collections, household furnishings, and equipment, and automobiles) is held in the trust at the time of my death, such items shall be promptly distributed by the Trustee of the trust to such person or persons, including my estate, as to the item or items or proportion specified, as I may appoint, and to the extent that any such items are not disposed of by such appointment, such items shall be disposed of by the Trustee of the trust in exactly the same manner as such items would have been disposed of under the terms and provisions of my Will (including any Codicil thereto, or what the Trustee in good faith believes to be such Will and Codicil) had such items been included in my probate estate. Any such items which are not effectively disposed of pursuant to the preceding sentence shall pass with the other trust assets.

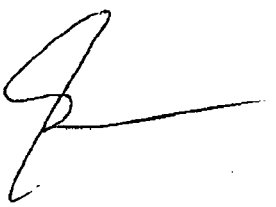
B. Disposition of Trust Upon My Death. Upon my death, the remaining assets in this trust shall be divided among and held in separate Trusts for my then living grandchildren. Each of my grandchildren for whom a separate trust is held hereunder shall hereinafter be referred to as a "beneficiary" with the separate Trusts to be administered as provided in Subparagraph II.C.

C. Trusts for Beneficiaries. The Trustee shall pay to the beneficiary and the beneficiary's children, such amounts of the net income and principal of such beneficiary's trust as is proper for the Welfare of such individuals. Any income not so paid shall be added to principal each year. After a beneficiary has reached any one or more of the following birthdays, the beneficiary may withdraw the principal of his or her separate trust at any time or times, not to exceed in the aggregate 1/3 in value after the beneficiary's 25th birthday, 1/2 in value (after deducting any amount previously subject to withdrawal but not actually withdrawn) after the beneficiary's 30th birthday, and the balance after the beneficiary's 35th birthday, provided that the withdrawal powers described in this sentence shall not apply to any grandchild of mine as beneficiary of a separate trust. The value of each trust shall be its value as of the first exercise of each withdrawal right, plus the value of any subsequent addition as of the date of addition. The right of withdrawal shall be a privilege which may be exercised only voluntarily and shall not include an involuntary exercise. If a beneficiary dies with assets remaining in his or her separate trust, upon the beneficiary's death the beneficiary may appoint his or her trust to or for the benefit of one or more of any of my lineal descendants (excluding from said class, however, such beneficiary and such beneficiary's creditors, estate, and creditors of such beneficiary's estate). Any part of his or her trust such beneficiary does not effectively appoint shall upon his or her death be divided among and held in separate Trusts for the following persons:



1. for his or her lineal descendants then living, per stirpes; or

2. if he or she leaves no lineal descendant then living, per stirpes for the lineal descendants then living of his or her nearest ancestor (among me and my lineal descendants) with a lineal descendant then living.

A trust for a lineal descendant of mine shall be held under this paragraph, or if a trust is then so held, shall be added to such trust.

D. Termination of Small Trust. If at any time after my death in the opinion of the Trustee a separate trust holds assets of a value of less than $50,000.00 and is too small to justify the expense of its retention, and termination of such trust is in the best interests of its current income beneficiary, the Trustee in its discretion may terminate such trust and pay it to said beneficiary.

E. Contingent Gift. If at any time property of these Trusts is not disposed of under the other provisions of this Agreement, it shall be paid, as a gift made hereunder, to such persons and in such shares as such property would be distributed if I had then owned such property and had then died solvent, unmarried and intestate domiciled in the State of Florida, according to the laws of inheritance of the State of Florida then in effect.

F. Protective Provision. No beneficiary of any trust herein created shall have any right or power to anticipate, transfer, pledge, sell, alienate, assign or encumber in any way his or her interest in the income or principal of such trust. Furthermore, no creditor shall have the right to attach, lien, seize or levy upon the interest of a beneficiary in this trust (other than myself) and such interest shall not be liable for or subject to the debts, liabilities or obligations of any such beneficiary or any claims against such beneficiary (whether voluntarily or involuntarily created), and the Trustee shall pay directly to or for the use or benefit of such beneficiary all income and principal to which such beneficiary is entitled, notwithstanding that such beneficiary has executed a pledge, assignment, encumbrance or in any other manner alienated or transferred his or her beneficial interest in the trust to another. This paragraph shall not preclude the effective exercise of any power of appointment granted herein or the exercise of any disclaimer.

G. Maximum Duration. Regardless of anything in this Agreement to the contrary, no trust interest herein created shall continue beyond three hundred sixty (360) years after the date of creation of this Agreement, nor shall any power of appointment be exercised in such manner so as to delay vesting of any trust beyond such period. Immediately prior to the expiration of such period, all such trusts then in existence shall terminate, and the assets thereof shall be distributed outright and in fee to then beneficiaries of the current income and in the proportions in which such persons are the beneficiaries, and if such proportions cannot be ascertained, then equally among such beneficiaries.

ARTICLE III. GENERAL

A. Disability. Subject to the following Subparagraph captioned "Subchapter S Stock," while any beneficiary is Disabled, the Trustee shall pay to him or her only such portion of the income to which he or she is otherwise entitled as is proper for his or her Welfare, and any income not so paid shall be added to the principal from which derived. While any beneficiary is Disabled, income or principal payable to him or her may, in the discretion of the Trustee, be paid directly to him or her, without the intervention of a guardian, directly to his or her creditors or others for his or her sole benefit or to an adult person or an eligible institution (including the Trustee) selected by the Trustee as custodian for a minor beneficiary under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act or similar law. The receipt of such payee is a complete release to the Trustee.

B. Timing of Income Distributions. The Trustee shall make required payments of income at least quarterly.

C. Substance Abuse.

1. In General. If the Trustee reasonably believes that a beneficiary (other than myself)of any trust:

a. routinely or frequently uses or consumes any illegal substance so as to be physically or psychologically dependent upon that substance, or

b. is clinically dependent upon the use or consumption of alcohol or any other legal drug or chemical substance that is not prescribed by a board certified medical doctor or psychiatrist in a current program of treatment supervised by such doctor or psychiatrist, and if the Trustee reasonably believes that as a result the beneficiary is unable to care for himself or herself, or is unable to manage his or her financial affairs, all mandatory distributions (including distributions upon termination of the trust) to the beneficiary, all of the beneficiary's withdrawal rights, and all of the beneficiary's rights to participate in decisions concerning the removal and appointment of Trustees will be suspended. In that event, the following provisions of this Subparagraph III.C will apply.

2. Testing. The Trustee may request the beneficiary to submit to one or more examinations (including laboratory tests of bodily fluids) determined to be appropriate by a board certified medical doctor and to consent to full disclosure to the Trustee of the results of all such examinations. The Trustee shall maintain strict confidentiality of those results and shall not disclose those results to any person other than the beneficiary without the prior written permission of the beneficiary. The Trustee may totally or partially suspend all distributions otherwise required or permitted to be made to that beneficiary until the beneficiary consents to the examination and disclosure to the Trustee.

3. Treatment. If, in the opinion of the examining doctor, the examination indicates current or recent use of a drug or substance as described above, the examining doctor will determine an appropriate method of treatment for the beneficiary (for example, counseling or treatment on an in-patient basis in a rehabilitation facility) that is acceptable to the Trustee. If the beneficiary consents to the treatment, the Trustee shall pay the costs of treatment directly to the provider of those services from the distributions suspended under this Subparagraph III.C.

4. Resumption of Distributions. The Trustee may resume other distributions to the beneficiary (and the beneficiary's other suspended rights will be restored) when, in the case of use or consumption of an illegal substance, examinations indicate no such use for 12 months and, in all cases, when the Trustee in its discretion determines that the beneficiary is able to care for himself or herself and is able to manage his or her financial affairs.

5. Disposition of Suspended Amounts. When other distributions to the beneficiary are resumed, the remaining balance, if any, of distributions that were suspended may be distributed to the beneficiary at that time. If the beneficiary dies before distribution of those suspended amounts, the Trustee shall distribute the balance of the suspended amounts to the persons who would be the alternate takers of that beneficiary's share (or takers through the exercise of a power of appointment) as otherwise provided in this Trust Agreement.

6. Exoneration. No Trustee (or any doctor retained by the Trustee) will be responsible or liable to anyone for a beneficiary's actions or welfare. The Trustee has no duty to inquire whether a beneficiary uses drugs or other substances as described in this Subparagraph III.C. The Trustee (and any doctor retained by the Trustee) is to be indemnified from the trust estate and held harmless from any liability of any nature in exercising its judgment and authority under this Subparagraph III.C, including any failure to request a beneficiary to submit to medical examination, and including a decision to distribute suspended amounts to a beneficiary.

7. Tax Savings Provision. Despite the provisions of this Subparagraph III.C, the Trustee cannot suspend any mandatory distributions or withdrawal rights that are required for that trust to become or remain a Qualified Subchapter S Trust (unless the Trustee elects for the trust to be an Electing Small Business Trust), or to qualify for any federal transfer tax exemption, deduction, or exclusion allowable with respect to that trust.

D. Income on Death of Beneficiary. Subject to the later paragraph captioned "Subchapter S Stock," and except as otherwise explicitly provided herein, upon the death of any beneficiary, all accrued or undistributed income of such deceased beneficiary's trust shall pass with the principal of his or her trust but shall remain income for trust accounting purposes.

E. Definitions. In this Agreement,

1. Children, Lineal Descendants. The terms "child," "children," "grandchild," "grandchildren" and "lineal descendant" mean only persons whose relationship to the ancestor designated is created entirely by or through (a) legitimate births occurring during the marriage of the joint biological parents to each other, (b) children born of female lineal descendants, and (c) children and their lineal descendants arising from surrogate births and/or third party donors when (i) the child is raised from or near the time of birth by a married couple (other than a same sex married couple) through the pendency of such marriage, (ii) one of such couple is the designated ancestor, and (iii) to the best knowledge of the Trustee both members of such couple participated in the decision to have such child. No such child or lineal descendant loses his or her status as such through adoption by another person. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for all purposes of this Trust and the dispositions made hereunder, my children, TED S. BERNSTEIN, PAMELA B. SIMON, ELIOT BERNSTEIN, JILL IANTONI and LISA S. FRIEDSTEIN, shall be deemed to have predeceased me as I have adequately provided for them during my lifetime.

2. Code. "Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and in referring to any particular provision of the Code, includes a reference to any equivalent or successor provision of a successor federal tax law.

3. Disabled. "Disabled" or being under "Disability" means, as to any applicable individual: (1) being under the age of 21 years, (2) having been adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction as mentally or physically incompetent or unable to manage his or her own property or personal affairs (or a substantially similar finding under applicable state or national law), or (3) being unable to properly manage his or her personal or financial affairs, or a trust estate hereunder as to a Trustee hereunder, because of a mental or physical impairment (whether temporary or permanent in nature). A written certificate executed by an individual's attending physician or attending psychiatrist confirming that person's impairment will be sufficient evidence of Disability under item (3) above, and all persons may rely conclusively on such a certificate.

4. Education. The term "education" herein means vocational, primary, secondary, preparatory, theological, college and professional education, including post-graduate courses of study, at educational institutions or elsewhere, and expenses relating directly thereto, including tuition, books and supplies, room and board, and travel from and to home during school vacations. It is intended that the Trustee liberally construe and interpret references to "education," so that the beneficiaries entitled to distributions hereunder for education obtain the best possible education commensurate with their abilities and desires.

5. Needs and Welfare Distributions. Payments to be made for a person's "Needs" means payments necessary for such person's health (including lifetime residential or nursing home care), education, maintenance and support. Payments to be made for a person's "Welfare" means discretionary payments by the Trustee, from time to time, for such person's Needs and also for such person's advancement in life (including assistance in the purchase of a home or establishment or development of any business or professional enterprise which the Trustee believes to be reasonably sound), happiness and general well-being. However, the Trustee, based upon information reasonably available to it, shall make such payments for a person's Needs or Welfare only to the extent such person's income, and funds available from others obligated to supply funds for such purposes (including, without limitation, pursuant to child support orders and agreements), are insufficient in its opinion for such purposes, and shall take into account such person's accustomed manner of living, age, health, marital status and any other factor it considers important. Income or principal to be paid for a person's Needs or Welfare may be paid to such individual or applied by the Trustee directly for the benefit of such person. The Trustee may make a distribution or application authorized for a person's Needs or Welfare even if such distribution or application substantially depletes or exhausts such person's trust, without any duty upon the Trustee to retain it for future use or for other persons who might otherwise benefit from such trust.

6. Per Stirpes. In a division "per stirpes" each generation shall be represented and counted whether or not it has a living member.

7. Related or Subordinate Party. A "Related or Subordinate Party" to a trust describes a beneficiary of the subject trust or a related or subordinate party to a beneficiary of the trust as the terms "related or subordinate party" are defined under Code Section 672(c).

8. Spouse. A person's "spouse" includes only a spouse then married to and living as husband and wife with him or her, or a spouse who was married to and living as husband and wife with him or her at his or her death. The following rules apply to each person who is a beneficiary or a permissible appointee under this Trust Agreement and who is married to a descendant of mine. Such a person will cease to be a beneficiary and will be excluded from the class of permissible appointees upon:

a. the legal termination of the marriage to my descendant (whether before or after my death), or

b. the death of my descendant if a dissolution of marriage proceeding was pending when he or she died.

The trust will be administered as if that person had died upon the happening of the terminating event described above.

9. Gender, Number. Where appropriate, words of any gender include all genders and the singular and plural are interchangeable.

F. Powers of Appointment. Property subject to a power of appointment shall be paid to, or retained by the Trustee or paid to any trustee under any will or trust agreement for the benefit of, such one or more permissible appointees, in such amounts and proportions, granting such interests, powers and powers of appointment, and upon such conditions including spendthrift provisions as the holder of such power (i) in the case of a power exercisable upon the death of such holder, appoints in his or her will or in a trust agreement revocable by him or her until his or her death, or (ii) in the case of a power exercisable during the life of such holder, appoints in a written instrument signed by such holder, two witnesses and a notary public, but in either case only if such will, trust agreement, or instrument specifically refers to such power.

G. Limitations on Powers of Trustee. Regardless of anything herein to the contrary, no Trustee shall make or participate in making any distribution of income or principal of a trust to or for the benefit of a beneficiary which would directly or indirectly discharge any legal obligation of such Trustee or a donor of such trust (as an individual, and other than myself as donor) to support such beneficiary; and no Trustee (other than myself) shall make or participate in making any discretionary distribution of income or principal to or for the benefit of himself or herself other than for his or her Needs, including by reason of a determination to terminate a trust described herein. For example, if a Trustee (other than myself) has the power to distribute income or principal to himself or herself for his or her own Welfare, such Trustee (the "restricted Trustee") shall only have the power to make or participate in making a distribution of income or principal to the restricted Trustee for the restricted Trustee's Needs, although any co-Trustee who is not also a restricted Trustee may make or participate in making a distribution of income or principal to the restricted Trustee for such restricted Trustee's Welfare without the participation or consent of said restricted Trustee.

H. Presumption of Survivorship. If any person shall be required to survive another person in order to take any interest under this Agreement, the former person shall be deemed to have predeceased the latter person, if such persons die under circumstances which make it difficult or impracticable to determine which one died first.

I. Governing Law. This Agreement is governed by the law of the State of Florida.

J. Other Beneficiary Designations. Except as otherwise explicitly and with particularity provided herein, (a) no provision of this trust shall revoke or modify any beneficiary designation of mine made by me and not revoked by me prior to my death under any individual retirement account, other retirement plan or account, or annuity or insurance contract, (b) I hereby reaffirm any such beneficiary designation such that any assets held in such account, plan, or contract shall pass in accordance with such designation, and (c) regardless of anything herein to the contrary, any of such assets which would otherwise pass pursuant to this trust due to the beneficiary designation not having met the requirements for a valid testamentary disposition under applicable law or otherwise shall be paid as a gift made hereunder to the persons and in the manner provided in such designation which is incorporated herein by this reference.

K. Release of Medical Information.

1. Disability of Beneficiary. Upon the written request of a Trustee (with or without the concurrence of co-Trustees) issued to any current income or principal beneficiary (including discretionary beneficiaries and myself if a beneficiary) for whom a determination of Disability is relevant to the administration of a trust hereunder and for whom a Trustee (with or without the concurrence of co-Trustees) desires to make such a determination, such beneficiary shall issue to all Trustees (who shall be identified thereon both by name to the extent known and by class description) a valid authorization under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and any other applicable or successor law authorizing all health care providers and all medical sources of such requested beneficiary to release protected health information of the requested beneficiary to all Trustees that is relevant to the determination of the Disability of the requested beneficiary as Disability is defined hereunder. The period of each such valid authorization shall be for six months (or the earlier death of the requested beneficiary). If such beneficiary (or his or her legal representative if such beneficiary is a minor or legally disabled) refuses within thirty days of receipt of the request to provide a valid authorization, or at any time revokes an authorization within its term, the Trustee shall treat such beneficiary as Disabled hereunder until such valid authorization is delivered.

2. Disability of Trustee. Upon the request to a Trustee that is an individual by (a) a co-Trustee, or if none, (b) the person or entity next designated to serve as a successor Trustee not under legal incapacity, or if none, (c) any adult current income or principal beneficiary not under legal incapacity, or in any event and at any time (d) a court of competent jurisdiction, such Trustee shall issue to such person and all persons, courts of competent jurisdiction, and entities (who shall be identified thereon both by name to the extent known and by class description), with authority hereunder to determine such requested Trustee's Disability, a valid authorization under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and any other applicable or successor law authorizing all health care providers and all medical sources of such requested Trustee to release protected health information of the requested Trustee to such persons, courts and entities, that is relevant to the determination of the Disability of the requested Trustee as Disability is defined hereunder. The period of each such valid authorization shall be for six months (or the earlier death or resignation of the requested Trustee). If such requested Trustee refuses within thirty days of receipt of the request to deliver a valid authorization, or at any time revokes an authorization within its term, such requested Trustee shall thereupon be treated as having resigned as Trustee hereunder.

3. Ability to Amend or Revoke. The foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not constitute a restriction on myself to amend or revoke the terms of this trust instrument under paragraph I.A hereof, provided I otherwise have legal capacity to do so.

4. Authorization to Issue Certificate. All required authorizations under this paragraph shall include the power of a physician or psychiatrist to issue a written certificate to the appropriate persons or entities as provided in Subparagraph III.E.3 hereof.

ARTICLE IV. FIDUCIARIES

A. Powers of the Trustee. During my life except while I am Disabled, the Trustee shall exercise all powers provided by law and the following powers, other than the power to retain assets, only with my written approval. While I am Disabled and after my death, the Trustee shall exercise said powers without approval, provided that the Trustee shall exercise all powers in a fiduciary capacity.

1. Investments. To sell or exchange at public or private sale and on credit or otherwise, with or without security, and to lease for any term or perpetually, any property, real and personal, at any time forming a part of the trust estate (the "estate"); to grant and exercise options to buy or sell; to invest or reinvest in real or personal property of every kind, description and location; and to receive and retain any such property whether originally a part of any trust herein created or subsequently acquired, even if the Trustee is personally interested in such property, and without liability for any decline in the value thereof; all without limitation by any statutes or judicial decisions whenever enacted or announced, regulating investments or requiring diversification of investments, it being my intention to give the broadest investment powers and discretion to the Trustee. Any bank, trust company, or other corporate trustee serving hereunder as Trustee is authorized to invest in its own common trust funds.

2. Special Investments. The Trustee is expressly authorized (but not directed) to retain, make, hold, and dispose of investments not regarded as traditional for trusts, including interests or investments in privately held business and investment entities and enterprises, including without limitation stock in closely held corporations, limited partnership interests, joint venture interests, mutual funds, business trust interests, and limited liability company membership interests, notwithstanding (a) any applicable prudent investor rule or variation thereof, (b) common law or statutory diversification requirements (it being my intent that no such duty to diversify shall exist) (c) a lack of current cash flow therefrom, (d) the presence of any risk or speculative elements as compared to other available investments (it being my intent that the Trustee have sole and absolute discretion in determining what constitutes acceptable risk and what constitutes proper investment strategy), (e) lack of a reasonable rate of return, (f) risks to the preservation of principal, (g) violation of a Trustee's duty of impartiality as to different beneficiaries (it being my intent that no such duty exists for this purpose), and (h) similar limitations on investment under this Agreement or under law pertaining to investments that may or should be made by a Trustee (including without limitation the provisions of Fla.Stats. §518.11 and successor provisions thereto that would characterize such investmentsas forbidden, imprudent, improper or unlawful). The Trustee shall not be responsible to any trust created hereunder or the beneficiaries thereof for any loss resulting from any such authorized investment, including without limitation loss engendered by the higher risk element of that particular entity, investment, or enterprise, the failure to invest in more conservative investments, the failure to diversify trust assets, the prudent investor rule or variant thereof. Notwithstanding any provisions for distributions to beneficiaries hereunder, if the Trustee determines that the future potential investment return from any illiquid or closely held investment asset warrants the retention of that investment asset or that sufficient value could not be obtained from the sale or other disposition of an illiquid or closely held investment asset, the Trustee is authorized to retain that asset and if necessary reduce the distributions to beneficiaries due to lack of sufficient liquid or marketable assets. However, the preceding provisions of this Subparagraph shall not be exercised in a manner as to jeopardize the availability of the estate tax marital deduction for assets passing to or held in the a trust for my surviving spouse or that would otherwise qualify for the estate tax marital deduction but for such provisions, shall not override any express powers hereunder of my surviving spouse to demand conversion of unproductive property to productive property, or reduce any income distributions otherwise required hereunder for a trust held for the benefit of my surviving spouse or a "qualified subchapter S trust" as that term is defined in Code Section 1361(d)(3).

3. Distributions. To make any division or distribution pro rata or non-pro rata, in cash or in kind, and to allocate undivided interests in property and dissimilar property (without regard to its tax basis) to different shares.

4. Management. To manage, develop, improve, partition or change the character of an asset or interest in property at any time; and to make ordinary and extraordinary repairs, replacements, alterations and improvements, structural or otherwise.

5. Borrowing. To borrow money from anyone on commercially reasonable terms, including entities owned in whole or in part by the trust, a Trustee, beneficiaries and other persons who may have a direct or indirect interest in a Trust; and to mortgage, margin, encumber and pledge real and personal property of a trust as security for the payment thereof, without incurring any personal liability thereon and to do so for a term within or extending beyond the terms of the trust and to renew, modify or extend existing borrowing on similar or different terms and with the same or different security without incurring any personal liability; and such borrowing from a Trustee may be with or without interest, and may be secured with a lien on trust assets.

6. Lending. To extend, modify or waive the terms of any obligation, bond or mortgage at any time forming a part of a trust and to foreclose any such mortgage; accept a conveyance of encumbered property, and take title to the property securing it by deed in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise and to satisfy or not satisfy the indebtedness securing said property; to protect or redeem any such property from forfeiture for nonpayment of taxes or other lien; generally, to exercise as to such bond, obligation or mortgage all powers that an absolute owner might exercise; and to loan funds to beneficiaries at commercially reasonable rates, terms and conditions.

7. Abandonment of Property. To abandon any property or asset when it is valueless or so encumbered or in such condition that it is of no benefit to a trust. To abstain from the payment of taxes, liens, rents, assessments, or repairs on such property and/or permit such property to be lost by tax sale, foreclosure or other proceeding or by conveyance for nominal or no consideration to anyone including a charity or by escheat to a state; all without personal liability incurred therefor.

8. Real Property Matters. To subdivide, develop or partition real estate; to purchase or sell real property and to enter into contracts to do the same; to dedicate the same to public use; to make or obtain the location of any plats; to adjust boundaries; to adjust differences in valuations on exchange or partition by giving or receiving consideration; and, to grant easements with or without consideration as the fiduciaries may determine; and to demolish any building, structures, walls and improvements, or to erect new buildings, structures, walls and improvements and to insure against fire and other risks; and to protect and conserve, or to lease, or to encumber, or otherwise to manage and dispose of real property to the extent such power is not otherwise granted herein or otherwise restricted herein.

9. Claims. To enforce, compromise, adjust, arbitrate, release or otherwise settle or pay any claims or demands by or against a trust.

10. Business Entities. To deal with any business entity or enterprise even if a Trustee is or may be a fiduciary of or own interests in said business entity or enterprise, whether operated in the form of a corporation, partnership, business trust, limited liability company, joint venture, sole proprietorship, or other form (all of which business entities and enterprises are referred to herein as "Business Entities"). I vest the Trustee with the following powers and authority in regard to Business Entities:

a. To retain and continue to operate a Business Entity for such period as the Trustee deems advisable;

b. To control, direct and manage the Business Entities. In this connection, the Trustee, in its sole discretion, shall determine the manner and extent of its active participation in the operation and may delegate all or any part of its power to supervise and operate to such person or persons as the Trustee may select, including any associate, partner, officer or employee of the Business Entity;

c. To hire and discharge officers and employees, fix their compensation and define their duties; and similarly to employ, compensate and discharge agents, attorneys, consultants, accountants, and such other representatives as the Trustee may deem appropriate; including the right to employ any beneficiary or fiduciary in any of the foregoing capacities;

d. To invest funds in the Business Entities, to pledge other assets of a trust as security for loans made to the Business Entities, and to lend funds from a trust to the Business Entities;

e. To organize one or more Business Entities under the laws of this or any other state or country and to transfer thereto all or any part of the Business Entities or other property of a trust, and to receive in exchange such stocks, bonds, partnership and member interests, and such other securities or interests as the Trustee may deem advisable;

f. To treat Business Entities as separate from a trust. In a Trustee's accounting to any beneficiary, the Trustee shall only be required to report the earnings and condition of the Business Entities in accordance with standard business accounting practice;

g. To retain in Business Entities such net earnings for working capital and other purposes of the Business Entities as the Trustee may deem advisable in conformity with sound business practice;

h. To sell or liquidate all or any part of the Business Entities at such time and price and upon such terms and conditions (including credit) as the Trustee may determine. My Trustee is specifically authorised and empowered to make such sale to any person, including any partner, officer, or employee of the Business Entities, a fiduciary, or to any beneficiary; and

i. To guaranty the obligations of the Business Entities, or pledge assets of a trust to secure such a guaranty.

11. Principal and Income. To allocate items of income or expense between income and principal as permitted or provided by the laws of the State of Florida but without limiting the availability of the estate tax marital deduction, provided, unless otherwise provided in this instrument, the Trustee shall establish out of income and credit to principal reasonable reserves for depreciation, obsolescence and depletion, determined to be equitable and fair in accordance with some recognized reasonable and preferably uncomplicated trust accounting principle and; provided, further that the Trustee shall not be required to provide a rate of return on unproductive property unless otherwise provided in this instrument.

12. Life Insurance. With respect to any life insurance policies constituting an asset of a trust, to pay premiums; to apply dividends in reduction of such premiums; to borrow against the cash values thereof; to convert such policies into other forms of insurance, including paid-up insurance; to exercise any settlement options provided in any such policies; to receive the proceeds of any policy upon its maturity and to administer such proceeds as a part of the principal of the Trust; and in general, to exercise all other options, benefits, rights and privileges under such policies.

13. Continuing Power. To continue to have or exercise, after the termination of a trust, in whole or in part, and until final distribution thereof, all title, power, discretions, rights and duties conferred or imposed upon the Trustee by law or by this Agreement or during the existence of the trust.

14. Exoneration. To provide for the exoneration of the Trustee from any personal liability on account of any arrangement or contract entered into in a fiduciary capacity.

15. Agreements. To comply with, amend, modify or rescind any agreement made during my lifetime, including those regarding the disposition, management or continuation of any closely held unincorporated business, corporation, partnership or joint venture, and including the power to complete contracts to purchase and sell real estate.

16. Voting. To vote and give proxies, with power of substitution to vote, stocks, bonds and other securities, or not to vote a security.

17. Combination of Shares. To hold the several shares of a trust or several Trusts as a common fund, dividing the income proportionately among them, to assign undivided interests to the several shares or Trusts, and to make joint investments of the funds belonging to them. For such purposes and insofar as may be practicable, the Trustee, to the extent that division of the trust estate is directed hereby, may administer the trust estate physically undivided until actual division thereof becomes necessary to make distributions. The Trustee may hold, manage, invest and account for whole or fractional trust shares as a single estate, making the division thereof by appropriate entries in the books of account only, and may allocate to each whole or fractional trust share its proportionate part of all receipts and expenses; provided, however, this carrying of several Trusts as a single estate shall not defer the vesting in possession of any whole or fractional share of a trust for the beneficiaries thereof at the times specified herein.

18. Reimbursement. To reimburse itself from a trust for reasonable expenses incurred in the administration thereof.

19. Reliance Upon Communication. To rely, in acting under a trust, upon any letter, notice, certificate, report, statement, document or other paper, or upon any telephone, telegraph, cable, wireless or radio message, if believed by the Trustee to be genuine, and to be signed, sealed, acknowledged, presented, sent, delivered or given by or on behalf of the proper person, firm or corporation, without incurring liability for any action or inaction based thereon.

20. Assumptions. To assume, in the absence of written notice to the contrary from the person or persons concerned, that a fact or an event, by reason of which an interest or estate under a trust shall commence or terminate, does not exist or has not occurred, without incurring liability for any action or inaction based upon such assumption.

21. Service as Custodian. To serve as successor custodian for any beneficiary of any gifts that I may have made under any Transfer to Minors Act, if at the time of my death no custodian is named in the instrument creating the gift.

22. Removal of Assets. The Trustee may remove from the domiciliary state during the entire duration of a trust or for such lesser period as it may deem advisable, any cash, securities or other property at any time in its hands whether principal or not, and to take and keep the same outside the domiciliary state and at such place or places within or outside the borders of the United States as it may determine, without in any event being chargeable for any loss or depreciation to the trust which may result therefrom.

23. Change of Situs. The situs and/or applicable law of any trust created hereunder may be transferred to such other place as the Trustee may deem to be for the best interests of the trust estate. In so doing, the Trustee may resign and appoint a successor Trustee, but may remove such successor Trustee so appointed and appoint others. Each successor Trustee may delegate any and all fiduciary powers, discretionary and ministerial, to the appointing Trustee as its agent.

24. Fiduciary Outside Domiciliary State. In the event the Trustee shall not be able and willing to act as Trustee with respect to any property located outside the domiciliary state, the Trustee, without order of court, may appoint another individual or corporation (including any employee or agent of any appointing Trustee) to act as Trustee with respect to such property. Such appointed Trustee shall have all of the powers and discretions with respect to such property as are herein given to the appointing Trustee with respect to the remaining trust assets. The appointing Trustee may remove such appointed Trustee and appoint another upon ten (10) days notice in writing. All income from such property, and if such property is sold, exchanged or otherwise disposed of, the proceeds thereof, shall be remitted to the appointing Trustee, to be held and administered by it as Trustee hereunder. Such appointed Trustee may employ the appointing Trustee as agent in the administration of such property. No surety shall be required on the bond of the Trustee or agent acting under the provisions of this paragraph. No periodic court accounting shall be required of such appointed Trustee, it being my intention to excuse any statutory accounting which may ordinarily be required.

25. Additions. To receive and accept additions to the Trusts in cash or in kind from donors, executors, administrators, Trustee or attorneys in fact, including additions of my property by the Trustee or others as my attorneys in fact.

26. Title and Possession. To have title to and possession of all real or personal property held in the Trusts, and to register or hold title to such property in its own name or in the name of its nominee, without disclosing its fiduciary capacity, or in bearer form.

27. Dealing with Estates. To use principal of the Trusts to make loans to my estate, with or without interest, and to make purchases from my estate.

28. Agents. To employ persons, including attorneys, auditors, investment advisers, and agents, even if they are the Trustee or associated with the Trustee, to advise or assist the Trustee in the performance of its administrative duties and to pay compensation and costs incurred in connection with such employment from the assets of the Trust; to act without independent investigation upon their recommendations; and, instead of acting personally, to employ one or more agents to perform any act of administration, whether or not discretionary.

29. Tax Elections. To file tax returns, and to exercise all tax-related elections and options at its discretion, without compensating adjustments or reimbursements between any of the Trusts or any of the trust accounts or any beneficiaries.

B. Resignation. A Trustee may resign with or without cause, by giving no less than 30 days advance written notice, specifying the effective date of such resignation, to its successor Trustee and to the persons required and in the manner provided under Fla.Stats. §§736.0705(1)(a) and 736.0109. As to any required recipient, deficiencies in fulfilling the foregoing resignation requirements may be waived in a writing signed by such recipient. Upon the resignation of a Trustee, such Trustee shall be entitled to reimbursement from the trust for all reasonable expenses incurred in the settlement of accounts and in the transfer of assets to his or her successor.

C. Appointment of Successor Trustee.

1. Appointment. Upon a Trustee's resignation, or if a Trustee becomes Disabled or for any reason ceases to serve as Trustee, I may appoint any person or persons as successor Trustee, and in default of such appointment by me, ROBERT L. SPALLINA and DONALD R. TESCHER shall serve together as successor co-Trustees, or either of them alone as Trustee if either of them is unable to serve. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a named Trustee is not a U.S. citizen or resident at the time of commencement of his term as Trustee, such Trustee should give due consideration to declining to serve to avoid potential adverse U.S. income tax consequences by reason of the characterization of a trust hereunder as a foreign trust under the Code, but shall not be construed to have any duty to so decline if such Trustee desires to serve.

2. Specific Trusts. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this Subparagraph IV.C, subsequent to my death I specifically appoint the following person or persons as Trustee of the following Trusts under the following described circumstances provided that the foregoing appointments shall apply when and to the extent that no effective appointment is made below:

a. Trustee of Separate Trusts for My Grandchildren. Each grandchild of mine shall serve as co-Trustee with the immediate parent of such grandchild which parent is also a child of mine as to all separate trusts under which such grandchild is the sole current mandatory or discretionary income beneficiary upon attaining the age of twenty-five (25) years, and shall serve as sole Trustee of such trusts upon attaining the age of thirty-five (35) years. While serving alone as Trustee, a grandchild of mine may designate a co-Trustee that is not a Related or Subordinate Party to serve with such grandchild and such grandchild may remove and/or replace such co-Trustee with another that is not a Related or Subordinate Party from time to time.

b. Trustee of Separate Trusts for My Lineal Descendants Other Than My Grandchildren. In regard to a separate trust held for a lineal descendant of mine other than a grandchild of mine which lineal descendant is the sole current mandatory or discretionary income beneficiary, each such lineal descendant shall serve as co-Trustee, or sole Trustee if the preceding described Trustees cease or are unable to serve or to continue to serve, of his or her separate trust upon attaining age twenty-five (25) years. While serving alone as Trustee, a lineal descendant of mine other than a grandchild of mine may designate a co-Trustee to serve with such lineal descendant and such lineal descendant may remove and/or replace such co-Trustee with another from time to time.

3. Successor Trustees Not Provided For. Whenever a successor Trustee or co-Trustee is required and no successor or other functioning mechanism for succession is provided for under the terms of this Trust Agreement , the last serving Trustee or the last person or entity designated to serve as Trustee of the applicable trust may appoint his or her successor, and if none is so appointed, the following persons shall appoint a successor Trustee (who may be one of the persons making the appointment):

a. The remaining Trustees, if any; otherwise,

b. A majority of the permissible current mandatory or discretionary income beneficiaries, including the natural or legal guardians of any beneficiaries who are Disabled.

A successor Trustee appointed under this subparagraph shall not be a Related or Subordinate Party of the trust. The appointment will be by a written document executed by such person in the presence of two witnesses and acknowledged before a notary public delivered to the appointed Trustee and to me if I am living and not Disabled or in a valid last Will. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a designation under this Subparagraph of a successor trustee to a corporate or entity trustee shall be limited to a corporate or

4. Power to Remove Trustee. Subsequent to my death, the age 35 or older permissible current mandatory or discretionary income beneficiaries from time to time of any trust established hereunder shall have the power to unanimously remove a Trustee of such trust at any time with or without cause, other than a named Trustee or successor Trustee designated hereunder, or a Trustee appointed by me during my lifetime or under my Will or otherwise at the time of my death, with the successor Trustee to be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions.

D. Method of Appointment of Trustee. Any such appointment of a successor Trustee by a person shall be made in a written instrument executed by such person in the presence of two witnesses and acknowledged before a notary public which is delivered to such appointed Trustee during the lifetime of the person making such appointment, or any such appointment of a successor Trustee by a person may be made under the last Will of such person.

E. Limitations on Removal and Replacement Power. Any power to remove and/or replace a trustee hereunder that is granted to an individual (including such power when reserved to me) is personal to that individual and may not be exercised by a guardian, power of attorney holder, or other legal representative or agent.

F. Successor Fiduciaries. No Trustee is responsible for, nor has any duty to inquire into, the administration, acts or omissions of any executor, administrator, Personal Representative, or trustee or attorney-in-fact adding property to these Trusts, or of any predecessor Trustee. Each successor Trustee has all the powers, privileges, immunities, rights and title (without the execution of any instrument of transfer or any other act by any retiring Trustee) and all the duties of all predecessors.

G. Liability and Indemnification of Trustee.

1. Liability in General. No individual Trustee (that is, a Trustee that is not a corporation or other entity) shall be liable for any of his or her actions or failures to act as Trustee, even if the individual Trustee is found by a court to have been negligent or in breach of fiduciary duty, except for liability caused by his or her actions or failures to act done in bad faith or with reckless indifference to the purposes of the trust or the interests of the beneficiaries. Each Trustee that is a corporation or other entity will be liable for its actions or failures to act that are negligent or that breach its fiduciary duty, without contribution by any individual Trustee.

2. Indemnification of Trustee. Except in regard to liabilities imposed on a Trustee under Subparagraph IV.G.1, each Trustee shall be held harmless and indemnified from the assets of the trust for any liability, damages, attorney's fees, expenses, and costs incurred as a result of its service as Trustee. A Trustee who ceases to serve for any reason will be entitled to receive reasonable security from the assets of the trust to protect it from liability, and may enforce these provisions for indemnification against the current Trustee or against any assets held in the trust, or if the former Trustee is an individual and not a corporation or other entity, against any beneficiary to the extent of distributions received by that beneficiary. This indemnification right extends to the estate, personal representatives, legal successors and assigns of a Trustee.

3. Indemnification of Trustee - Additional Provisions. I recognize that if a beneficiary accuses a Trustee of wrongdoing or breach of fiduciary duty, the Trustee may have a conflict of interest that ordinarily would prevent it from paying legal fees and costs from the trust estate to defend itself. I do not want to put a financial burden on any individual named to serve as a Trustee. Just as important, I do not want an individual who has been selected to serve as a Trustee to be reluctant to accept the position, or while serving to be intimidated in the performance of the Trustee's duties because of the threats of lawsuits that might force the Trustee to pay fees and costs from the Trustee's personal resources. For this reason, I deliberately and intentionally waive any such conflict of interest with respect to any individual serving as Trustee so that he or she can hire counsel to defend himself or herself against allegations of wrongdoing or if sued for any reason (whether by a beneficiary or by someone else) and pay all fees and costs for his or her defense from the trust estate until the dispute is resolved. I understand and agree that a court may award, disallow or allocate fees and costs in whole or in part after the dispute is resolved, as provided by law. The Trustee will account for all such fees and costs paid by it as provided by law. This provision shall not apply to any Trustee that is a corporation or other entity.

H. Compensation, Bond. Each Trustee is entitled to be paid reasonable compensation for services rendered in the administration of the trust. Reasonable compensation for a non-individual Trustee will be its published fee schedule in effect when its services are rendered unless otherwise agreed in writing, and except as follows. Any fees paid to a non-individual Trustee for making principal distributions, for termination of the trust, and upon termination of its services must be based solely on the value of its services rendered, not on the value of the trust principal. During my lifetime the Trustee's fees are to be charged wholly against income (to the extent sufficient), unless directed otherwise by me in writing. Each Trustee shall serve without bond.

I. Maintenance of Records. The Trustee shall maintain accurate accounts and records. It shall render annual statements of the receipts and disbursements of income and principal of a trust upon the written request of any adult vested beneficiary of such trust or the guardian of the person of any vested beneficiary and the approval of such beneficiary shall be binding upon all persons then or thereafter interested in such trust as to the matters and transactions shown on such statement. The Trustee may at any time apply for a judicial settlement of any account. No Trustee shall be required to file any statutory or other periodic accountings of the administration of a trust.

J. Interested Trustee. The Trustee may act under this Agreement even if interested in these Trusts in an individual capacity, as a fiduciary of another trust or estate (including my estate) or in any other capacity. The Trustee may in good faith enter into a sale, encumbrance, or other transaction involving the investment or management of trust property for the Trustee's own personal account or which is otherwise affected by a conflict between the Trustee's fiduciary and personal interests, without liability and without being voidable by a beneficiary. The Trustee is specifically authorized to make loans to, to receive loans from, or to sell, purchase or exchange assets in a transaction with (i) the Trustee's spouse, (ii) the Trustee's children or grandchildren, siblings, parents, or spouses of such persons, (iii) an officer, director, employee, agent, or attorney of the Trustee, or (iv) a corporation, partnership, limited liability company, or other business entity in which the Trustee has a financial interest, provided that in any transaction the trusts hereunder receive fair and adequate consideration in money or money's worth. The Trustee may renounce any interest or expectancy of a trust in, or an opportunity to participate in, specified business opportunities or specified classes or categories of business opportunities that are presented to the Trustee. Such renunciation shall not prohibit the Trustee from participating in the Trustee's individual capacity in such opportunity or expectancy.

K. Third Parties. No one dealing with the Trustee need inquire into its authority or its application of property.

L. Merger of Trusts. If the Trustee is also trustee of a trust established by myself or another person by will or trust agreement, the beneficiaries to whom income and principal may then be paid and then operative terms of which are substantially the same as those of a trust held under this Agreement, the Trustee in its discretion may merge either such trust into the other trust. The Trustee, in exercising its discretion, shall consider economy of administration, convenience to the beneficiaries, tax consequences and any other factor it considers important. If it is later necessary to reestablish the merged trust as separate trusts, it shall be divided proportionately to the value of each trust at the time of merger.

M. Multiple Trustees. If two Trustees are serving at any time, any power or discretion of the Trustees may be exercised only by their joint agreement. Either Trustee may delegate to the other Trustee the authority to act on behalf of both Trustees and to exercise any power held by the Trustees. If more than two Trustees are serving at any time, and unless unanimous agreement is specifically required by the terms of this Trust Agreement, any power or discretion of the Trustees may be exercised only by a majority. The Trustees may delegate to any one or more of themselves the authority to act on behalf of all the Trustees and to exercise any power held by the Trustees. Trustees who consent to the delegation of authority to other Trustees will be liable for the consequences of the actions of those other Trustees as if the consenting Trustees had joined the other Trustees in performing those actions. A dissenting Trustee who did not consent to the delegation of authority to another Trustee and who has not joined in the exercise of a power or discretion cannot be held liable for the consequences of the exercise. A dissenting Trustee who joins only at the direction of the majority will not be liable for the consequences of the exercise if the dissent is expressed in writing delivered to any of the other Trustees before the exercise of that power or discretion.

ARTICLE V. ADDITIONAL TAX AND RELATED MATTERS

A. GST Trusts. I direct (a) that the Trustee shall divide any trust to which there is allocated any GST exemption into two separate Trusts (each subject to the provisions hereof) so that the generation-skipping tax inclusion ratio of one such trust is zero, (b) any property exempt from generation-skipping taxation shall be divided as otherwise provided herein and held for the same persons designated in Trusts separate from any property then also so divided which is not exempt from generation-skipping taxation, and (c) if upon the death of a beneficiary a taxable termination would otherwise occur with respect to any property held in trust for him or her with an inclusion ratio greater than zero, such beneficiary shall have with respect only to such property a power to appoint such fractional share thereof which if included in such beneficiary's gross estate for federal estate tax purposes (without allowing any deduction with respect to such share) would not be taxed at the highest federal estate tax rate and such fractional share of such property shall be distributed to such persons including only such beneficiary's estate, spouse, and issue, as such beneficiary may appoint, and any part of a trust such beneficiary does not effectively appoint shall be treated as otherwise provided for disposition upon his or her death, provided, if upon his or her death two or more Trusts for his or her benefit are directed to be divided among and held or distributed for the same persons and the generation-skipping tax inclusion ratio of any such trust is zero, the amount of any other such Trust to which there is allocated any of such beneficiary's GST exemption shall be added to the Trusts with generation-skipping tax inclusion ratios of zero in equal shares. For purposes of funding any pecuniary payment to which there is allocated any GST exemption, such payment shall be satisfied with cash or property which fairly represents appreciation and depreciation (occurring between the valuation date and the date of distribution) in all of the assets from which such distribution could be made, and any pecuniary payment made before a residual transfer of property to which any GST exemption is allocated shall be satisfied with cash or property which fairly represents appreciation and depreciation (occurring between the valuation date and the date of distribution) in all of the assets from which such pecuniary payment could be satisfied and shall be allocated a pro rata share of income earned by all such assets between the valuation date and the date of payment. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, the valuation date with respect to any property shall be the date as of which its value is determined for federal estate tax purposes with respect to the transferor thereof, and subject to the foregoing, property distributed in kind in satisfaction of any pecuniary payment shall be selected on the basis of the value of such property on the valuation date. All terms used in this paragraph which are defined or explained in Chapter 13 of the Code or the regulations thereunder shall have the same meaning when used herein. I request (but do not require) that if two or more Trusts are held hereunder for any person, no principal be paid to such person from the Trusts with the lower inclusion ratios for generation-skipping tax purposes unless the trust with the highest inclusion ratio has been exhausted by use, consumption, distribution or otherwise or is not reasonably available. The Trustee is authorized and directed to comply with the provisions of the Treasury Regulations interpreting the generation skipping tax provisions of the Code in severing or combining any trust, creating or combining separate trust shares, allocating GST exemption, or otherwise, as necessary to best accomplish the foregoing allocations, inclusion ratios, combinations, and divisions, including, without limitation, the payment of "appropriate interest" as determined by the Trustee as that term is applied and used in said Regulations.

B. Individual Retirement Accounts. In the event that this trust or any trust created under this Agreement is the beneficiary of an Individual retirement account established and maintained under Code Section 408 or a qualified pension, profit sharing or stock bonus plan established and maintained under Code Section 401 (referred to in this paragraph as "IRA"), the following provisions shall apply to such trust:

1. I intend that the beneficiaries of such trust shall be beneficiaries within the meaning of Code Section 401(a)(9) and the Treasury Regulations thereunder. All provisions of such trust shall be construed consistent with such intent. Accordingly, the following provisions shall apply to such trust:

a. No benefits from any IRA may be used or applied for the payment of any debts, taxes or other claims against my estate as set forth in the later paragraph captioned "Taxes", unless other assets of this trust are not available for such payment.

b. In the event that a beneficiary of any trust created under this Agreement has a testamentary general power of appointment or a limited power of appointment over all or any portion of any trust established under this Agreement, and if such trust is the beneficiary of any benefits from any IRA, the beneficiary shall not appoint any part of such trust to a charitable organization or to a lineal descendant of mine (or a spouse of a lineal descendant of mine) who is older than the beneficiary whose life expectancy is being used to calculate distributions from such IRA.

2. The Trustee shall deliver a copy of this Agreement to the custodian of any IRA of which this trust or any trust created under this Agreement is the named beneficiary within the time period prescribed Code Section 401(a)(9) and the Treasury Regulations thereunder, along with such additional items required thereunder. If the custodian of the IRA changes after a copy of this Agreement has been provided pursuant to the preceding sentence, the Trustee shall immediately provide a copy of this Agreement to the new custodian. The Trustee shall request each custodian to complete a receipt of the Agreement and shall attach such receipt to this Agreement. The Trustee shall provide a copy of each amendment of this Agreement to the custodian and shall obtain a receipt of such amendment.

C. Gift Transfers Made From Trust During My Lifetime. I direct that all gift transfers made from the trust during my lifetime be treated for all purposes as if the gift property had been first withdrawn by (or distributed to) me and then transferred by me to the donees involved. Thus, in each instance, even where title to the gift property is transferred directly from the name of the trust (or its nominee) into the name of the donee, such transfer shall be treated for all purposes as first a withdrawal by (or distribution of the property to) me followed by a gift transfer of the property to the donee by me as donor, the Trustee making the actual transfer in my behalf acting as my attorney in fact, this paragraph being, to that extent, a power of attorney from me to the Trustee to make such transfer, which power of attorney shall not be affected by my Disability, incompetence, or incapacity.

D. Gifts. If I am Disabled, I authorize the Trustee to make gifts from trust property during my lifetime for estate planning purposes, or to distribute amounts to my legally appointed guardian or to my attorney-in-fact for those purposes, subject to the following limitations:

1. Recipients. The gifts may be made only to my lineal descendants or to trusts primarily for their benefit, and in aggregate annual amounts to any one such recipient that do not exceed the exclusion amount provided for under Code Section 2503(b).

2. Trustee Limited. When a person eligible to receive gifts is serving as Trustee, the aggregate of all gifts to that person during the calendar year allowable under the preceding subparagraph 1. shall thereafter not exceed the greater of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or five percent (5%) of the aggregate value of the trust estate. However, gifts completed prior to a recipient's commencing to serve as Trustee shall not be affected by this limitation.

3. Charitable Pledges. The Trustee may pay any charitable pledges I made while I was not Disabled (even if not yet due).

E. Death Costs. If upon my death the Trustee hold any United States bonds which may be redeemed at par in payment of federal estate tax, the Trustee shall pay the federal estate tax due because of my death up to the amount of the par value of such bonds and interest accrued thereon at the time of payment. The Trustee shall also pay from the trust all of my following death costs, but if there is an acting executor, administrator or Personal Representative of my estate my Trustee shall pay only such amounts of such costs as such executor, administrator or Personal Representative directs:

1. my debts which are allowed as claims against my estate,

2. my funeral expenses without regard to legal limitations,

3. the expenses of administering my estate,

4. the balance of the estate, inheritance and other death taxes (excluding generation-skipping transfer taxes unless arising from direct skips), and interest and penalties thereon, due because of my death with respect to all property whether or not passing under my Will or this Agreement (other than property over which I have a power of appointment granted to me by another person, and qualified terminable interest property which is not held in a trust that was subject to an election under Code Section 2652(a)(3) at or about the time of its funding) and life insurance proceeds on policies insuring my life which proceeds are not held under this trust or my probate estate at or by reason of my death), and

The Trustee may make any such payment either to my executor, administrator or Personal Representative or directly to the proper party. The Trustee shall not be reimbursed for any such payment, and is not responsible for the correctness or application of the amounts so paid at the direction of my executor, administrator, or Personal Representative. The Trustee shall not pay any of such death costs with any asset which would not otherwise be included in my gross estate for federal or state estate or inheritance tax purposes, or with any asset which otherwise cannot be so used, such as property received under a limited power of appointment which prohibits such use. Further, no payment of any such death costs shall be charged against or paid from the tangible personal property disposed of pursuant to the prior paragraph captioned "Disposition of Tangible Personal Property."

F. Subchapter S Stock. Regardless of anything herein to the contrary, in the event that after my death the principal of a trust includes stock in a corporation for which there is a valid election to be treated under the provisions of Subchapter S of the Code, the income beneficiary of such a trust is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident for federal income tax purposes, and such trust is not an "electing small business trust" under Code Section 1361(e)(1) in regard to that corporation, the Trustee shall (a) hold such stock as a substantially separate and independent share of such trust within the meaning of Code Section 663(c), which share shall otherwise be subject to all of the terms of this Agreement, (b) distribute all of the income of such share to the one income beneficiary thereof in annual or more frequent installments, (c) upon such beneficiary's death, pay all accrued or undistributed income of such share to the beneficiary's estate, (d) distribute principal from such share during the lifetime of the income beneficiary only to such beneficiary, notwithstanding any powers of appointment granted to any person including the income beneficiary, and (e) otherwise administer such share in a manner that qualifies it as a "qualified Subchapter S trust" as that term is defined in Code Section 1361(d)(3), and shall otherwise manage and administer such share as provided under this Agreement to the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing provisions of this paragraph.

G. Residence as Homestead. I reserve the right to reside upon any real property placed in this trust as my permanent residence during my life, it being the intent of this provision to retain for myself the requisite beneficial interest and possessory right in and to such real property to comply with Section 196.041 of the Florida Statutes such that said beneficial interest and possessory right constitute in all respects "equitable title to real estate" as that term is used in Section 6, Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Florida. Notwithstanding anything contained in this trust to the contrary, for purposes of the homestead exemption under the laws of the State of Florida, my interest in any real property in which I reside pursuant to the provisions of this trust shall be deemed to be an interest in real property and not personalty and shall be deemed my homestead.

I, SIMON L. BERNSTEIN, of Palm Beach County, Florida, hereby revoke all my prior Wills and Codicils and make this Will. I am a widower, but in the event that I marry subsequent to the execution of this Will, I specifically make no provision for my spouse. My children are TED S. BERNSTEIN, PAMELA B. SIMON, ELIOT BERNSTEIN, JILL IANTONI and LISA S. FRIEDSTEIN.

ARTICLE I. TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY

I give such items of my tangible personal property to such persons as I may designate in a separate written memorandum prepared for this purpose. I give to my children who survive me, divided among them as they agree, or if they fail to agree, divided among them by my Personal Representatives in as nearly equal shares as practical my personal effects, jewelry, collections, household furnishings and equipment, automobiles and all other non-business tangible personal property other than cash, not effectively disposed of by such memorandum, and if no child of mine survives me, this property shall pass with the residue of my estate.

ARTICLE II. EXERCISE OF POWER OF APPOINTMENT

Under Subparagraph E.1. of Article II. of the SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT dated May 20, 2008, (the "Shirley Trust"), I was granted a special power of appointment upon my death to direct the disposition of the remaining assets of the Marital Trust and the Family Trust established under the Shirley Trust. Pursuant to the power granted to me under the Shirley Trust, upon my death, I hereby direct the then serving Trustees of the Marital Trust and the Family Trust to divide the remaining trust assets into equal shares for my then living grandchildren and distribute said shares to the then serving Trustees of their respective trusts established under Subparagraph II.B. of my Existing Trust, as referenced below, and administered pursuant to Subparagraph II.C. thereunder.

ARTICLE III. RESIDUE OF MY ESTATE

I give all the residue of my estate, including my homestead, to the Trustee then serving under my revocable Trust Agreement dated May 20, 2008, as amended and restated from time to time and on even date herewith (the "Existing Trust"), as Trustee without bond, but I do not exercise any powers of appointment held by me except as provided in Article II., above, and in the later paragraph titled "Death Costs." The residue shall be added to and become a part of the Existing Trust, and shall be held under the provisions of said Agreement in effect at my death, or if this is not permitted by applicable law or the Existing Trust is not then in existence, under the provisions of said Agreement as existing today. If necessary to give effect to this gift, but not otherwise, said Agreement as existing today is incorporated herein by reference.

ARTICLE IV. PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES

1. Appointment and Bond. I appoint ROBERT L. SPALLINA and DONALD R. TESCHER to serve together as my co-Personal Representatives, or either of them alone as Personal Representative if either of them is unable to serve (the "fiduciary"). Each fiduciary shall serve without bond and have all of the powers, privileges and immunities granted to my fiduciary by this Will or by law, provided, however, that my fiduciary shall exercise all powers in a fiduciary capacity.

2. Powers of Personal Representatives. My fiduciary may exercise its powers without court approval. No one dealing with my fiduciary need inquire into its authority or its application of property. My fiduciary shall have the following powers:

a. Investments. To sell or exchange at public or private sale and on credit or otherwise, with or without security, and to lease for any term or perpetually, any property, real and personal, at any time forming a part of my probate estate (the "estate"); to grant and exercise options to buy or sell; to invest or reinvest in real or personal property of every kind, description and location; and to receive and retain any such property whether originally a part of the estate, or subsequently acquired, even if a fiduciary is personally interested in such property, and without liability for any decline in the value thereof; all without limitation by any statutes or judicial decisions, whenever enacted or announced, regulating investments or requiring diversification of investments.

b. Distributions or Divisions. To distribute directly to any beneficiary who is then entitled to distribution under the Existing Trust; to make any division or distribution pro rata or non-pro rata, in cash or in kind; and to allocate undivided interests in property and dissimilar property (without regard to its tax basis) to different shares, and to make any distribution to a minor or any other incapacitated person directly to such person, to his or her legal representative, to any person responsible for or assuming his or her care, or in the case of a minor to an adult person or an eligible institution (including a fiduciary) selected by my fiduciary as custodian for such minor under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act or similar provision of law. The receipt of such payee is a complete release to the fiduciary.

c. Management. To manage, develop, improve, partition or change the character of or abandon an asset or interest in property at any time; and to make ordinary and extraordinary repairs, replacements, alterations and improvements, structural or otherwise.

d. Borrowing. To borrow money from anyone on commercially reasonable terms, including a fiduciary, beneficiaries and other persons who may have a direct or indirect interest in the estate; and to mortgage, margin, encumber and pledge real and personal property of the estate as security for the payment thereof, without incurring any personal liability thereon and to do so for a term within or extending beyond the terms of the estate and to renew, modify or extend existing borrowing on similar or different terms and with the same or different security without incurring any personal liability; and such borrowing from my fiduciary may be with or without interest, and may be secured with a lien on the estate assets or any beneficiary's interest in said assets.

e. Lending. To extend, modify or waive the terms of any obligation, bond or mortgage at any time forming a part of the estate and to foreclose any such mortgage; accept a conveyance of encumbered property, and take title to the property securing it by deed in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise and to satisfy or not satisfy the indebtedness securing said property; to protect or redeem any such property from forfeiture for nonpayment of taxes or other lien; generally, to exercise as to such bond, obligation or mortgage all powers that an absolute owner might exercise; and to loan funds to beneficiaries at commercially reasonable rates, terms and conditions.

f. Abandonment of Property. To abandon any property or asset when it is valueless or so encumbered or in such condition that it is of no benefit to the estate. To abstain from the payment of taxes, liens, rents, assessments, or repairs on such property and/or permit such property to be lost by tax sale, foreclosure or other proceeding or by conveyance for nominal or no consideration to anyone including a charity or by escheat to a state; all without personal liability incurred therefor.

g. Real Property Matters. To subdivide, develop or partition real estate; to dedicate the same to public use; to make or obtain the location of any plats; to adjust boundaries; to adjust differences in valuations on exchange or partition by giving or receiving consideration; and, to grant easements with or without consideration as they may determine; and to demolish any building, structures, walls and improvements, or to erect new buildings, structures, walls and improvements and to insure against fire and other risks.

h. Claims. To enforce, compromise, adjust, arbitrate, release or otherwise settle or pay any claims or demands by or against the estate.

i. Business Entities. To deal with any business entity or enterprise even if a fiduciary is or may be a fiduciary of or own interests in said business entity or enterprise, whether operated in the form of a corporation, partnership, business trust, limited liability company, joint venture, sole proprietorship, or other form (all of which business entities and enterprises are referred to herein as "Business Entities"). I vest the fiduciary with the following powers and authority in regard to Business Entities:

i. To retain and continue to operate a Business Entity for such period as the fiduciary deems advisable;

ii. To control, direct and manage the Business Entities. In this connection, the fiduciary, in its sole discretion, shall determine the manner and extent of its active participation in the operation and may delegate all or any part of its power to supervise and operate to such person or persons as the fiduciary may select, including any associate, partner, officer or employee of the Business Entity;

iii. To hire and discharge officers and employees, fix their compensation and define their duties; and similarly to employ, compensate and discharge agents, attorneys, consultants, accountants, and such other representatives as the fiduciary may deem appropriate; including the right to employ any beneficiary or fiduciary in any of the foregoing capacities;

iv. To invest funds in the Business Entities, to pledge other assets of the estate or a trust as security for loans made to the Business Entities, and to lend funds from my estate or a trust to the Business Entities;

v. To organize one or more Business Entities under the laws of this or any other state or country and to transfer thereto all or any part of the Business Entities or other property of my estate or a trust, and to receive in exchange such stocks, bonds, partnership and member interests, and such other securities or interests as the fiduciary may deem advisable;

vi. To treat Business Entities as separate from my estate or a trust. In a fiduciary's accounting to any beneficiary, the fiduciary shall only be required to report the earnings and condition of the Business Entities in accordance with standard business accounting practice;

vii. To retain in Business Entities such net earnings for working capital and other purposes of the Business Entities as the fiduciary may deem advisable in conformity with sound business practice;

viii. To sell or liquidate all or any part of the Business Entities at such time and price and upon such terms and conditions (including credit) as the fiduciary may determine. My fiduciary is specifically authorised and empowered to make such sale to any person, including any partner, officer, or employee of the Business Entities, a fiduciary, or to any beneficiary; and

ix. To guaranty the obligations of the Business Entities, or pledge assets of the estate or a trust to secure such a guaranty.

j. Life Insurance. With respect to any life insurance policies constituting an asset of the estate to pay premiums; to apply dividends in reduction of such premiums; to borrow against the cash values thereof; to convert such policies into other forms of insurance including paid-up insurance; to exercise any settlement options provided in any such policies; to receive the proceeds of any policy upon its maturity and to administer such proceeds as a part of the principal of the estate or trust; and in general, to exercise all other options, benefits, rights and privileges under such policies; provided, however, no fiduciary other than a sole fiduciary may exercise any incidents of ownership with respect to policies of insurance insuring the fiduciary's own life.

k. Reimbursement. To reimburse itself from the estate for all reasonable expenses incurred in the administration thereof.

l. Voting. To vote and give proxies, with power of substitution to vote, stocks, bonds and other securities, or not to vote a security.

m. Ancillary Administration. To appoint or nominate, and replace with or without cause, any persons or corporations, including itself, as ancillary administrators to administer property in other jurisdictions, with the same powers, privileges and immunities as my fiduciary and without bond.

n. Tax Elections. To file tax returns, and to exercise all tax-related elections and options at their discretion, without compensating adjustments or reimbursements between any accounts or any beneficiaries.

3. Survivorship. A beneficiary is not deemed to survive me unless he or she survives me by five days.

4. Death Costs. My fiduciary shall pay (a) from the residuary estate my debts which are allowed as claims against my estate, (b) from the residuary estate my funeral expenses without regard to legal limitations, (c) from the residuary estate the expenses of administering my estate and (d) from the residuary estate other than the portion of the residuary estate qualifying for the marital deduction under the laws then in effect, without apportionment, all estate, inheritance and succession taxes (excluding generation-skipping taxes other than with respect to direct skips), and interest and penalties thereon, due because of my death and attributable to all property whether passing under this Will or otherwise and not required by the terms of the Existing Trust to be paid out of said trust. However, such taxes, penalties and interest payable out of my residuary estate shall not include taxes, penalties and interest attributable to (i) property over which I have a power of appointment granted to me by another person, (ii) qualified terminable interest property held in a trust of which I was the income beneficiary at the time of my death (other than qualified terminable interest property held in a trust for which an election was made under Code Section 2652(a)(3)), and (iii) life insurance proceeds on policies insuring my life which proceeds are not payable to my probate estate. My fiduciary shall not be reimbursed for any such payment from any person or property. However, my fiduciary in its discretion may direct that part or all of said death costs shall be paid by my Trustee as provided in the Existing Trust, and shall give such direction to the extent necessary so that the gifts made in Article I of this Will and the gifts made in any codicil hereto shall not be reduced by said death costs. If the amount of the above-described taxes, and interest and penalties arising by reason of my death (without regard to where payable from under the terms of this paragraph or applicable law) is increased because of the power of appointment granted to me under Subparagraph II.E.1. of the SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT dated May 20, 2008, I hereby appoint to my probate estate from the property subject to such power (to the extent allowable under such power) the amount of such increase (calculating such increase at the highest applicable marginal rates) and exercise such power to this extent only, and notwithstanding the other provisions of this paragraph further direct my fiduciary to make payment of such increase in taxes, interest and penalties to the appropriate taxing authorities from the appointed property or the proceeds thereof . Any trustee holding such appointive property may pay to my fiduciary the amount which my fiduciary certifies as due under this paragraph and is not responsible for the correctness or application of amounts so paid.

5. Reimbursement for Debts and Expenses. My fiduciary shall promptly reimburse my friends and members of my family who have disbursed their own funds for the payment of any debts, funeral expenses or costs of administration of my estate.

6. Expenses of Handling Tangible Personal Property. All expenses incurred by my fiduciary during the settlement of my estate in appraising, storing, packing, shipping, delivering or insuring an article of tangible personal property passing under this Will shall be charged as an expense of administering my estate.

7. Dealing with Estate. Each fiduciary may act under this Will even if interested in my estate in an individual capacity, as a fiduciary of another estate or trust (including any trust identified in this Will or created under the Existing Trust) or in any other capacity. Each fiduciary may in good faith buy from, sell to, lend funds to or otherwise deal with my estate.

8. Spouse. The term "spouse" herein means, as to a designated individual, the person to whom that individual is from time to time married.

9. Other Beneficiary Designations. Except as otherwise explicitly and with particularity provided herein, (a) no provision of this Will shall revoke or modify any beneficiary designation of mine made by me and not revoked by me prior to my death under any individual retirement account, other retirement plan or account, or annuity or insurance contract, (b) I hereby reaffirm any such beneficiary designation such that any assets held in such account, plan, or contract shall pass in accordance with such designation, and (c) regardless of anything herein to the contrary, any of such assets which would otherwise pass pursuant to this Will due to the beneficiary designation not having met the requirements for a valid testamentary disposition under applicable law or otherwise shall be paid as a gift made hereunder to the persons and in the manner provided in such designation which is incorporated herein by this reference.

LOCAL RULE 56.l(b)(3) RESPONSE TO PLAINTIFFS' STATEMENT OF Undisputed MATERIAL FACTS AND LOCAL RULE 56.l(b)(3)(C) STATEMENT OF ADDITIONAL FACTS REQUIRING THE DENIAL OF PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

COMES NOW Eliot Ivan Bernstein ("Eliot"), a Third Party Defendant, Pro Se and files this "Response to Summary Judgement" and states under information and belief as follows:

THE PARTIES

1. Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust Dated 6/21/95 (the "Bernstein Trust"), is an irrevocable life insurance trust formed in Illinois as further described below. The Bernstein Trust is the original Plaintiff that first filed this action in the Circuit Court of Cook County. The Insurer then filed a notice of removal to the Northern District of Illinois. The Bernstein Trust has also been named as a Counterdefendant to Eliot's Claims. The Bernstein Trust is represented by counsel, Adam M. Simon. (Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶21).

ANSWER There is no executed legally valid 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust that can act as Plaintiff in this matter and as an alleged Contingent Beneficiary. The insurance carrier HERITAGE already declined to pay the proceeds to the legally nonexistent 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust for failure to produce an executed copy of the said trust. Counsel, A. Simon cannot represent a legally non-existent trust. TED cannot act as alleged "Trustee" of a legally non-existent trust.

2. Bank of America, N.A. ("Bank of America"), was named a party to Heritage's counterclaim for Interpleader. Bank of America was terminated as a co-Plaintiff on January 13, 2014, and the Insurer voluntarily dismissed Bank of America as a Third-Party Defendant on February 14, 2014. (Dkt. #97; Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶22)

ANSWER Undisputed

3. Eliot Bernstein ("Eliot") was named a Party by virtue of Heritage's counterclaim for Interpleader, and Eliot filed third-party claims against several Parties described herein making Eliot a Third-Party Plaintiff as well ("Eliot's Claims"). Eliot is the third adult child of Simon Bernstein. Eliot is representing himself, and/or his children, pro se in this matter. (Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶23)

ANSWER Undisputed

4. United Bank of Illinois, now known as PNC Bank, was named as a Third-Party Defendant in Heritage's counterclaim for Interpleader. PNC Bank was served on August 5, 2013, and has never filed an appearance or answer. (Dkt. #25; Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶24)

ANSWER This failure to answer is cause for further discovery. I, Eliot Bernstein, should be granted Court Ordered Discovery as I a cannot gain discovery to United Bank of Illinois since I am not an Executor/Personal Representative or Trustee.

5. Simon Bernstein Trust. N.A." was named a Party to Heritage's counterclaim for interpleader. "Simon Bernstein Trust, N.A.", however, is merely a misnomer by the Insurer as a result of a data entry error in the database of the Insurer. There is no evidence that any entity exists or was formed under the name "Simon Bernstein Trust. N.A." No one submitted a claim to the Policy Proceeds with the Insurer on behalf of an entity named "Simon Bernstein Trust, N.A." (Ex. 29, Aff. of Don Sanders, ¶69 and ¶78).

ANSWER The claim that the Contingent Beneficiary is a mistake and/or data entry error is made by affiant Don Sanders who is working for an insurance carrier that has lost the legally nonexistent "Policy" that is the subject contract of this Breach of Contract Lawsuit filed by the Plaintiff and where Sanders testimony could be construed as efforts to cover up for said liabilities resulting from losing an insurance policy, an unheard of event in insurance that would expose the carrier Jackson National Life to a variety of liabilities to beneficiaries and others.

There is evidence in production that shows that Simon Bernstein requested and was given the exact name of the beneficiaries, which were the Primary as LASALLE and the Contingent as Simon Bernstein Trust, NA in 2010 and Simon did not respond to the names as incorrect and the insurance carrier referred to no truncation or abbreviation of the Contingent Beneficiaries name in their letter. SANDER'S statement that the name "Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust Dated 6/21/95" was truncated by a computer system due to length or entered in error by an employee and thus was transformed into "Simon Bernstein Trust, N.A." does not fit any known computer system software that truncates data strings by eliminating the end of strings after the maximum character recognition is exceeded. Where the name of the beneficiary is not subject to interpretation by employees as the beneficiaries name must be exact and the beneficiary forms must be attached to the executed policy contract, which at this time no legally valid insurance contract has been produced to confirm SANDER'S claims and thus needs further discovery and litigation.

That there are frauds that have already been proven in the Estate and Trusts of Simon and Shirley Bernstein and there are missing trusts and other documents in the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley Bernstein and Ted Bernstein according to his deposition testimony does not know what he did with a mass of dispositive documents brought to him minutes after his father died and these documents may have additional information that is intentionally being secreted from beneficiaries, the insurance carrier and this Court for Plaintiffs to attempt to steal off with the insurance proceeds deposited with the Court.

6. Ted Bernstein, as Trustee, of the Bernstein Trust retained Plaintiff's counsel and initiated the filing of this Action. Ted Bernstein, is also a co-Plaintiff, individually, and has been named as a Third-Party Defendant to Eliot's Claims. Ted Bernstein is the eldest of the five adult children of Simon Bernstein. Ted Bernstein is represented by counsel, Adam M. Simon. (Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶25)

ANSWER TED is not a valid "Trustee" of the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust as there is no legally executed and binding trust document produced. No retainer of A. Simon's services has been produced to beneficiaries. Since there is no 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust produced, the acts of the alleged Trustee and his counsel are legally invalid and where neither the alleged Trustee or his alleged Counsel are acting within the law.

TED retained SPALLINA as his counsel to file the fraudulent claim to the insurance carrier, whereby SPALLINA claimed to be the "Trustee" of the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust and the claim was DECLINED by the carrier leading to this Breach of Contract lawsuit and then TED retained A. Simon as his counsel and with no notice to the alleged beneficiaries became suddenly the "Trustee" of the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust.

That TED was advised by his own counsel SPALLINA that he had no standing to file this lawsuit. TED then retained his sister Pam's husband's brother, Adam Simon, to represent him as the new Trustee. Where Adam Simon is partner with his brother David Simon in a law firm that primarily worked for Simon Bernstein in his offices since each graduated college and where David Simon and his firm stand to benefit directly from this action not only from legal fees but D. Simon will get with his wife Pamela 1/5th of the proceeds if this lawsuit is successful for Plaintiffs. Similar to TED, is his sister Pamela Bernstein-Simon, who both were considered predeceased in the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley Bernstein and if the monies are paid to the Estate or other vehicles and not the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust, both stand to get nothing for them or their families. Their children may be beneficiaries but that is still to be determined via ongoing probate and trust actions due to the FRAUD that has occurred by TED and his counsel TESCHER and SPALLINA and others.

7. First Arlington National Bank was named as a Third-Party Defendant by virtue of Heritage's counterclaim for Interpleader. First Arlington National Bank was never served by Heritage, and instead Heritage served JP Morgan Chase Bank as First Arlington Bank's alleged successor and JPMorgan Chase Bank was substituted as a party in place of First Arlington National Bank on 10/16/2013. (Dkt. #44; see also JP Morgan Chase Bank at Par. 12 below; Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶26)

ANSWER The fact that Plaintiffs claim that JP Morgan Chase Bank is an "alleged" successor calls for further discovery in these matters.

8. Lisa Sue Friedstein is a co-Plaintiff and has been named as a Third-Party Defendant to Eliot's Claims. Lisa Sue Friedstein is the fifth adult child of Simon Bernstein. Lisa Sue Friedstein is represented by counsel, Adam M. Simon. (Ex. 34, Aff. of Lisa Friedstein, ¶2, ¶3, ¶6 and ¶23)

ANSWER Undisputed

9. Jill Marla Iantoni is a co-Plaintiff and has been named as a Third-Party Defendant to Eliot's Claims. Jill Marla Iantoni is the fourth adult child of Simon Bernstein. Jill Marla Iantoni is represented by counsel, Adam M. Simon. (Ex. 33, Aff. of Jill Iantoni, ¶2, ¶3, ¶6 and ¶23)

ANSWER Undisputed

10. Pamela Beth Simon is a co-Plaintiff and has been named as a Third-Party Defendant to Eliot's Claims. Pamela Beth Simon is the second adult child of Simon Bernstein. Pamela Beth Simon is represented by counsel, Adam M. Simon. (Ex. 31, Aff. of Pam Simon, ¶2, ¶3, ¶6 and ¶38.)"

ANSWER Undisputed

11. Heritage is the successor Insurer to Capitol Banker Life Insurance Company that originally issued the Policy in 1982. Heritage was terminated as a party on February 18, 2014 when the court granted Heritage's motion to dismiss itself from the Interpleader litigation after having deposited the Policy Proceeds with the Registry of the Court pursuant to an Agreed Order. The amount of the Policy Proceeds (plus interest) on deposit with the Registry exceeds $1.7 million. (Dkt. #101 and Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶30 and Ex. 2.)

ANSWER From the Idaho Department of Insurance @ http://www.doi.idaho.gov/insurance/Succession.aspx?AID=1315

The Certificate of Authority #1315 belongs to an active company with former names.

Start	End	Former Names
12/29/1980	12/12/2000	CAPITOL BANKERS LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY
12/12/2000	8/29/2008	ANNUITY & LIFE REASSURANCE AMERICA, INC.
8/29/2008		HERITAGE UNION LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY (1315)

That information from Annuity & Life Reassurance America has not been obtained in this lawsuit and they may have retained copies of the missing insurance policy and thus need for further discovery. Eliot cannot obtain this information as he is not an Executor/Personal Representative of the Estate and Trusts of Simon. JACKSON is believed to have then acquired HERITAGE and entered this case on behalf of HERITAGE and then suddenly disappeared after depositing funds in the court registry. HERITAGE when interpleading the funds to this Court misled this Court to believe that there was a valid binding life insurance policy with "Policy Proceeds" equal to the amount interpled, when factually they failed to produce such policy showing that this in fact was the correct amount stated in the legally binding contract that remains missing. There can be no "Policy Proceeds" without a legally binding policy produced and this is misleading. There are conflicting evidences of the amount of insurance of the missing policy[1.]

12. J.P. Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., ("J.P. Morgan") was named as a Third-Party Defendant by virtue of Heritage's counterclaim for Interpleader. In its claim for Interpleader, Heritage named J.P. Morgan, as a successor to First Arlington National Bank (described above). J.P. Morgan filed an appearance and answer to Heritage's counterclaim for Interpleader in which it disclaimed any interest in the Policy Proceeds. J.P. Morgan then filed a motion for judgment on the pleadings to have itself dismissed from the litigation, and the court granted the motion. As a result, J.P. Morgan was terminated as a party on March 12, 2014. (Dkt. #105; Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶31)

ANSWER Undisputed

13. William Stansbury filed a motion to intervene in this action, but his motion to intervene was denied, and he was terminated as a non-party intervenor on January 14, 2014. (Dkt. #74; Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶32)

ANSWER Undisputed

14. Adam M. Simon is counsel for the Bernstein Trust and four of the five adult children of Simon Bernstein. Adam M. Simon is not counsel for the fifth adult child, Eliot Bernstein whom has chosen to represent himself Pro Se in this matter. Adam M. Simon was named a Third-Party Defendant to Eliot's Claims. Adam M. Simon is the brother-in-law of Pam Simon, and the brother of David B. Simon. (Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶33)

[1] HERITAGE application to increase Death Benefit from 2 to 3 Million.
http://www.iviewit.tv/Simon%20and%20Shirley%20Estate/Heritage3MillionDeathBenefit.pdf

ANSWER That Adam Simon representing the Trustee and the beneficiaries appears conflicted.

15. National Service Association, Inc. (of Illinois) was a corporation owned by the decedent, Simon Bernstein. According to the public records of the Secretary of State of Illinois, National Service Association, Inc. (of Illinois) was dissolved in October of 2006. There is no record of Eliot having obtained service of process upon National Service Association, Inc. because it is dissolved and has been for over 7 years. (Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶34; Ex. 21)

ANSWER Undisputed

16. Donald R. Tescher, Esq. was named a Third-Party Defendant to Eliot's Claims. Donald R. Tescher is a partner of in the firm of Tescher & Spallina. Donald R. Tescher was terminated as a party to this matter when the court granted his motion to dismiss as to Eliot's claims on March 17, 2014. (Dkt. #106; Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶35)

ANSWER Undisputed

17. Tescher and Spallina, P.A. is a law firm whose principal offices are in Palm Beach County, FL. Tescher and Spallina, P.A. was named a Third-Party Defendant to Eliot's Claims. Tescher & Spallina, P.A. Donald R. Tescher was terminated as a party to this matter when the court granted his motion to dismiss as to the Eliot's Claims. (Dkt. #106; Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶36)

ANSWER Undisputed

18. The Simon Law Firm was named a Third-Party Defendant to Eliot's Claims. The Simon Law Firm is being represented by counsel, Adam M . Simon.

ANSWER Undisputed

19. David B. Simon is the husband of Pam Simon, and the brother of counsel, Adam M. Simon and was named a Third-Party Defendant to Eliot's Claims. David B. Simon is being represented by counsel, Adam M. Simon. (Ex. 32, Aff. of David Simon, ¶20 and ¶29)

ANSWER Undisputed

20. S.B. Lexington, Inc. was a corporation formed by Simon Bernstein. According to the records of the Secretary of State of Illinois, S.B. Lexington, Inc. was dissolved on April 3, 1998. (Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein ¶39; Ex. 35; Dep. of David Simon, p. 51:13-18 and Ex. 9)

ANSWER Undisputed

21. S.B. Lexington, Inc. Employee Death Benefit Trust (the "VEBA Trust") was named a Third-Party Defendant by virtue of Eliot's Claims, and was a Trust formed by Simon Bernstein in his role as principal of S.B. Lexington, Inc. The VEBA Trust was formed pursuant to I.R.S. Code Sec. 501(c)(9) as a qualified Employee Benefit Plan designed to provide a death benefit to certain key employees of S.B. Lexington, Inc. The VEBA was dissolved in 1998 concurrently with the dissolution of S.B. Lexington, Inc. (Ex. 35, Dep. of David Simon, p. 51:13-18 and Ex. 9; Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶40)

ANSWER The Primary Beneficiary LASALLE was the trustee and administrator for the VEBA plan that the missing policy is a part of according to the records produced and thus LASALLE or its Successors must be contacted by the carrier as they remain the Primary Beneficiary.

What happened on dissolution of the VEBA to the assets of the VEBA, including any insurance benefits and policies, where the insured's chosen beneficiaries of the policies issued for the VEBA were defined through the VEBA plan not by the missing policy's named beneficiaries, which was LASALLE and Simon Bernstein Trust, NA. The VEBA plan trust must be produced to know the plan beneficiaries and what happens to the VEBA trust assets upon dissolution and this needs further discovery or litigation to determine.

22. Robert Spallina, Esq. was named a Third-Party Defendant to Eliot's Claims. Robert Spallina is a partner of in the firm of Tescher & Spallina, P.A. Robert Spallina was terminated as a party to this matter when the court granted his motion to dismiss as to Eliot's Claims on March 17, 2014. (Dkt. #106; Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶41)

ANSWER Undisputed

23. S.T.P. Enterprises, Inc. was named a Third-Party Defendant to Eliot's Claims. S.T.P. Enterprises, Inc. has filed an appearance and responsive pleading and is represented by counsel, Adam M. Simon. (Dkt. #47; Ex. 31, Aff. of Pam Simon, ¶25)

ANSWER Undisputed

24. According to the records of the Secretary of State of Florida, National Service Association, Inc. (Florida) was a Florida corporation formed by Simon L. Bernstein. National Service Association, Inc. (Florida) was named a Third-Party Defendant in Eliot's Claims. According to the records of the Secretary of State of Florida, National Service Association, Inc. (Florida) dissolved in 2012. (Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶42; Ex. 22)

ANSWER It appears that this corporation was dissolved by TED immediately after his father died and no records of this entity have been turned over to beneficiaries of the Estates and Trusts of Simon and Shirley Bernstein in Florida and thus further discovery needs to take place or further litigation to determine what assets were in this entity.

25. Benjamin Brown as Curator of The Estate of Simon Bernstein filed a motion to intervene in this litigation. The court granted the motion to intervene on July 28, 2014, and as a result the Estate became a third-party claimant in the litigation. (Dkt. #121). Subsequently, Brian O'Connell as successor Curator and Administrator Ad Litem of the Estate of Simon Bernstein filed a motion to substitute for Benjamin Brown, and the court granted the motion November 3, 2014. For purposes of this motion, Movants refer to this party as the "Estate of Simon Bernstein" or the "Estate". (Dkt. #126; Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein ¶43-¶44)

ANSWER That Adam Simon represented Ted Bernstein as an alleged trustee of the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust and filed opposition pleadings to block the entry of the Estate of Simon from intervening in this lawsuit. This was done in conflict and with improper representation as TED was simultaneously acting as Trustee for a Simon Bernstein Trust in Florida that would also possibly receive the proceeds and where Ted alleges to be a beneficiary of the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust who stands to gain 20% of any proceeds paid and where TED and/or his children may get nothing if the proceeds are paid to the Estate and Trust beneficiaries in Florida, once those beneficiaries are determined. In no event will TED receive benefits if not paid through the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust scheme in this Action.

That this conflict of TED'S that led him to file opposition papers to the Estate being joined in these matters has caused delays in the Estate being represented in these matters, compounding the delays in inheritances caused by TED'S prior counsel and the prior fiduciaries of the Estate of Simon, Co-Executors/Personal Representatives and Co-Trustees, TESCHER and SPALLINA, who intentionally blocked the Estate and Trust of Simon from entering this case (working against the interest of the Estate and Trust beneficiaries), as they were working as TED's counsel to convert the proceeds through the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust scheme whereby TESCHER and SPALLINA filed the fraudulent insurance claim that led to this Breach of Contract Lawsuit in efforts to defeat their clients they represented in the Estate of Simon to benefit TED instead. Where the claim asserted by the Plaintiff is that the insurance company breached the missing insurance contract terms by failing to pay the fraudulent death benefit claim submitted by TESCHER and SPALLINA and where SPALLINA represented that he was the trustee of the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust that TED now claims to be the alleged Trustee of in this lawsuit.

That due to these intentional delays and interferences with expectancies both Eliot and the Estate have been denied proper time to fully complete discovery and thus discovery must be extended, especially where it was intentionally interfered with to attempt to close this Action before allowing known possible beneficiaries to participate. At this time, none of the grandchildren, including minor children are represented in this case by counsel, except Eliot's children who are represented Pro Se by Eliot.

THE POLICY AND POLICY PROCEEDS

26. In 1982, Simon Bernstein, as Insured, applied for the purchase of a life insurance policy from Capitol Bankers Life Insurance Company, issued as Policy No. 1009208 (the "Policy"). A specimen policy and a copy of the Schedule Page of the Policy are included in Movant's Appendix to the Statement of Facts. (Ex. 29, Aff. of Don Sanders at ¶38, ¶39, ¶48, ¶52; Ex. 5). The amount of the Policy Proceeds (plus interest) on deposit with the Registry of the Court exceeds $1.7 million. (Dkt. #101 and Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶30 and Ex. 2.)

ANSWER A specimen policy was provided, which is not a legally valid executed and legally binding copy of the actual insurance policy that is subject of this lawsuit. A specimen policy is an insurance carrier policy submitted to each state the policy is being applied for in as a sample of what a policy will look like for a consumer.

There is no policy presently produced or proven by Plaintiffs so no "Policy Proceeds" can be determined from a specimen and the attempt to define the specimen as the actual "Policy" on Simon is misleading to the Court and requires further discovery as to where the actual policy is.

That the affidavit of SANDER'S states that the specimen policy amount of insurance is not the correct amount and would not be the amount stated in the missing life insurance contract and this is cause for further discovery and litigation into what exactly the missing policy death benefit amount is.

That the Specimen policy also contains no beneficiaries of the missing policy as the beneficiaries are not defined thereunder.

27. The Capitol Bankers Life Insurance Application, dated March 2, 1982 designates Simon Bernstein, as the Insured and lists S.B. Lexington as his employer. On page one of the Application, the Owner of the Policy is designated as follows: "First Arlington National Bank, Trustee of S.B. Lexington Employee Death Benefit Trust". (Ex. 29, Aff. Don Sanders, ¶48; Ex. 3)

ANSWER The application is not complete as submitted in production as parts appear missing, a verified copy would need to be obtained showing the entire document and cause for further discovery. Don Sanders affidavit is in question due to conflicts and adversity.

There is alleged evidence that shortly before his death Simon's policy lapsed and was reinstated, a new application was taken and appears missing from the records which may also contain new application information pertinent to this lawsuit and the reinstatement should have caused a new or reinstated policy to be produced as indicated in letters to Simon by HERITAGE and this lack of a reinstated policy is highly suspect that this information is missing from the carriers production.

28. Also, on page one of the Application the beneficiary was designated as follows: "First Arlington National Bank, Trustee of S.B. Lexington Employee Death Benefit Trust". (See Ex. 3--Part 1 of application); and (ii) Premium notices were to be sent to S.B. Lexington Inc. Employee Death Benefit Plan and Trust c/o National Service Association, Inc., 9933 Lawler Ste. 210, Skokie, IL 60077; and (iii) Simon Bernstein's occupation was listed as an Executive with S.B. Lexington, Inc.; (iv) Simon Bernstein was the insured and on the application his residence address was in Glencoe, Illinois and he was a citizen of the state of Illinois; and (v) Simon Bernstein was the listed as the selling agent on the application; (vi) the application was signed in Illinois; and (vii) the Policy would have been delivered by the Insurer via its agent to the initial Policy Owner. (Ex. 29, Aff. Don Sanders, ¶48, Ex. 31; Aff. Pam Simon, ¶¶21-¶23; Ex. 3)

ANSWER This application is not known to be the actual application of the policy as no policy is produced at this time proving what application is attached to the policy, especially after alleged re-issue and where insurance contracts, policies, have attached to them the policy applications as part of the legally required contractual documents attached to the issued policy. Therefore, this evidence is questionable and needs further discovery to determine if in fact this application was the defining application of the original issued policy. The final application is required to be attached to the policy. (ii) The records and policies for the VEBA plan participants are sent to Simon's companies and office location at that time, as the policies were sold by Simon and the VEBA was administered with many other VEBA policies he sold through the trust company he established (Simon was the founder of death benefit VEBA programs and the leading broker nationwide in such sales.) (iii) Simon Bernstein was an executive and leading insurance salesman nationwide who brokerage sold billions of dollars of life insurance premium. (iv) Undisputed (v) Undisputed (vi) Undisputed (vii) This would indicate that the missing policy should be with the original owner or its successors and would require additional discovery to determine where it is, although it is the ultimate responsibility of the insurance carrier to maintain a copy of the actual policy and policy records according to law and underwriting and administrative procedures, as well as would be required by any reinsurers that risk was ceded to.

THE S.B. LEXINGTON EMPLOYEE DEATH BENEFIT TRUST THE " V E B A")

29. The S.B. Lexington Employee Death Benefit Trust was a Voluntary Employee Benefit Trust ("VEBA") established by S.B. Lexington, Inc. to provide death benefits to the beneficiaries of its employees. The Policy was purchased by the VEBA, with the VEBA listed as both owner and beneficiary of the Policy on the application. The Policy would have been delivered by the agent (Simon Bernstein) to the Owner at the offices of its Bank trustee in Illinois. (Ex. 3; Ex. 31, Aff. Pam Simon, ¶21-¶23); Ex. 30, Aff. Ted Bernstein, ¶56 and ¶57; Ex. 29, Aff. Don Sanders ¶48)

ANSWER That the VEBA information is critical to the payment of any proceeds of any policy once one is found, as LASALLE being the Trustee for the primary beneficiary of the VEBA plan would then have specific duties to pay beneficiaries determined in the VEBA plan by the employees to their named plan beneficiaries.

That if LASALLE dissolved the VEBA the benefits would be allocated according to law and the terms of the VEBA trust and again why further discovery is necessary to determine the role of the Primary Beneficiary and its obligations under the VEBA plan upon dissolution.

That the VEBA information and copies of the trust should be maintained as well by Pam and David Simon who ultimately controlled the administration of the many VEBA plans sold by Simon Bernstein and thus should have been produced in these matters but have not been.

It is alleged that the VEBA plan or its Successor plan may have had over $50,000,000.00 of assets in it as late as 20092.

30. Part 1 of the application for the Policy indicates that First Arlington National Bank, was acting as Trustee of the VEBA. As part of the application and underwriting process, a company named Equifax conducted an interview with Simon Bernstein about his application for the Policy. The Equifax report states that Simon Bernstein told the investigator the Policy would be owned by the VEBA, that (i) the insurance [benefits] would be paid to the VEBA, (ii) the VEBA would determine to whom the benefits are paid, and (iii) the benefits are normally paid to family members. (Ex. 29, Aff. Don Sanders ¶48, ¶74-¶75; Ex. 3 and Ex. 20)

ANSWER This statement contradicts Plaintiffs' own claims that a contingent beneficiary (with a different name than the insurance company's own records which claim the contingent to be Simon Bernstein Trust, NA) should be paid while the primary beneficiary LaSalle National Trust, NA is according to the carrier of the nonexistent policy the Primary Beneficiary and where Equifax was told the VEBA would be responsible for paying the insurance benefits.

31. On June 5, 1992, Sandy Kapsa (an employee of S.B. Lexington and an affiliated company, National Service Association, Inc.) submitted a letter to Capitol Bankers Life Insurance Company informing them that LaSalle National Trust was being appointed successor trustee of the VEBA. On June 17, 1992, the Insurer acknowledged the change of trustee listing the owner of the Policy as LaSalle National Trust, N.A., as Successor Trustee. (Ex. 31, Aff. of Pam Simon, ¶31, and Ex. 7)

ANSWER Undisputed

32. On August 26, 1995, Simon L. Bernstein, as a Member of the VEBA, named the Bernstein Trust as the "person(s) to receive at my death the Death Benefit stipulated in the S.B. Lexington, Inc. Employee Death Benefit and Trust and Adoption Form adopted by my Employer." (Ex. 31, Aff. of Pam Simon, ¶35; Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶65-¶67; Ex. 4)

ANSWER That while this may have been the initial VEBA plan beneficiary designated by Simon there is evidence, including a 2000 Insurance Trust and the subsequent Simon Bernstein Trust NA that would suggest that Simon had changed the beneficiary of the VEBA plan and this would need discovery from LASALLE through its successor, Chicago Title to determine who the VEBA plan beneficiary now is.

33. On or about November 27, 1995, Capitol Bankers received a "Request Letter" signed by LaSalle National Trust, N.A. in their capacity as Trustee of the VEBA which owned the Policy, and the following policy changes were made a part of the Policy by way of endorsement issued by the Company: LaSalle National Trust, N.A. as Trustee (the "VEBA") was designated as the Primary Beneficiary of the Policy; and The Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust dated June 21, 1995 (the "Bernstein Trust") was designated the contingent beneficiary. According to the Insurer's records, the VEBA and the Bernstein Trust were the primary and contingent beneficiaries of record on the date of death of the Insured. (Ex. 29, Aff. of Don Sanders, ¶56, ¶64 and Ex. 8)

ANSWER According to the Insurance records the Primary beneficiary was LASALLE and the contingent beneficiary was not the "Bernstein Trust" aka 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust as alleged by Plaintiffs but in fact the Simon Bernstein Trust, NA.

Again with a legally existent Primary Beneficiary the Contingent Beneficiary does not even become a viable recipient of the death benefit, which could make Summary Judgement more fraud if the Contingent is paid while the parties all knew of an existing Primary Beneficiary. At death the VEBA was the Primary Beneficiary according to this account.

34. On November 27, 1995, Capitol Bankers sent correspondence acknowledging the change in beneficiary referenced above in Par. 33, and that correspondence was sent to "LaSalle National Trust, N.A., as Successor Trustee". (Ex. 29, Aff. of Don Sanders, ¶60 and Ex. 8)

ANSWER SANDER'S affidavit has claimed to be steeped in conflict as his employer JACKSON has a vested interest in the outcome of the litigation, especially if they have lost the insurance contract and are exposed to liabilities resulting from such loss.

35. The records above establish that First Arlington National Bank, N.A., and LaSalle National Trust, N.A. were original and successor trustees of the VEBA, respectively. This is confirmed by Pamela B. Simon who worked on the VEBA insurance program for both S.B. Lexington and NSA. (Ex. 31, Aff. of Pam Simon, ¶22 and ¶31)

ANSWER Undisputed

36. On April 3, 1998, S.B. Lexington, Inc. was voluntarily dissolved by its shareholder(s), and the VEBA was likewise terminated at this time. (Ex. 9). As a part of the dissolution, ownership of the Policy was changed from the VEBA to Simon Bernstein, individually. (Ex. 31, Aff. of Pam Simon, ¶36; Ex. 9 and Ex. 10)

ANSWER The dissolution papers are missing to confirm the veracity of Pam's affidavit which violates the Il Dead Man's Act as it relates to the "shareholders" of which Simon was one.

While it is claimed that the owner was changed from LASALLE it is not claimed that the Primary Beneficiary was changed from LASALLE and again this would make LASALLE the beneficiary of the proceeds of the missing/lost/suppressed contract.

37. Neither First Arlington National Bank nor LaSalle National Trust, N.A. have made any claim to the Policy proceeds. First Arlington National Bank's successor-in-interest, J.P. Morgan Bank filed a responsive pleading and then a motion for judgment on the pleadings disclaiming any interest in the Policy Proceeds and requesting to be dismissed from the litigation. J.P. Morgan's motion was granted and it was dismissed as a party on March 12, 2014. (Dkts. #60 and 105)

ANSWER Note that no efforts were made to contact LaSalle National Trust NA or its Successor by HERITAGE or any party to this lawsuit and thus further discovery and litigation of these matters is still necessary and the insurance company must be rejoined as an indispensable party and this Court demand they answer why they have failed to contact the Primary Beneficiary.

38. None of the Bank Parties whose names appear on the docket have tendered a claim to the Insurer for the Policy proceeds. (Ex. 29, Aff. of Don Sander, ¶77(b))

ANSWER The only party with claims to the benefits of the missing policy would according to insurance company records would be the primary beneficiary LaSalle National Trust, NA.

That documents are missing in the Estate and Trusts of Simon Bernstein and thus it is highly probable that like the 2000 Insurance Trust that was secreted from this Court the alleged Contingent Beneficiary by HERITAGE, the Simon Bernstein Trust NA is also being suppressed and secreted by Plaintiffs in their efforts to fraudulently convert the monies.

39. The docket also reflects that none of the Bank Parties whose names appear on the docket in this matter have filed a claim in this litigation for the Policy Proceeds.

ANSWER LASALLE or its successors would appear to be the only financial institutions with claims to the litigation proceeds and the carrier nor any parties in this litigation have notified LASALLE or its successors they are the Primary Beneficiary of an alleged insurance policy death benefit.

MOVANTS' CLAIMS TO THE POLICY PROCEEDS

40. On or about June 21, 1995, Simon Bernstein as Grantor formed the Simon Irrevocable Insurance Trust dtd 6/21/95. Simon Bernstein, appointed his wife, Shirley Bernstein, as Trustee of the Trust. (Ex. 32, Aff. of David B. Simon, ¶30; Ex. 19)

ANSWER Even if this were the case, this 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust would be only a Contingent Beneficiary and there is still a Primary Beneficiary and then there is the 2000 Proskauer Trust that supersedes the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust and then there is a Simon Bernstein Trust, NA that supersedes the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust as Contingent Beneficiary as of the year 2010 and confirmed by Simon Bernstein as such.

41. On June 21, 1995, the date of the Trust Agreement, David Simon assisted Shirley Bernstein to obtain a tax identification number for the Bernstein Trust. The tax identification number for the Bernstein Trust is X5-XXXX916. In order to obtain the tax identification number David Simon completed an IRS SS-4 form. Shirley Bernstein is identified as trustee of the Bernstein Trust and Shirley's signature, and the name of the Bernstein Trust also appear on this SS-4 form. (Ex. 32, Aff. of David Simon at ¶30; Ex. 19)

ANSWER That this new information leads one to need discovery to get all the tax records regarding the VEBA trust and tax records for the missing 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust and tax records for all of the other trusts involved.

It should be noted that the Curator of the Estate of Simon who replaced TESCHER and SPALLINA, attorney at law Benjamin Brown, Esq. ("Brown") had requested from the IRS over a year ago tax returns for Simon and Shirley individually and for entities they owned and only days after he stated he thought he had received them, he unexpectedly died at age 49 from a heart attack. Upon receiving records from Brown, O'CONNELL the Personal Representative that replaced Brown stated the long anticipated tax returns were not with the records Brown turned over. Several months ago O'CONNELL stated his firm had ordered new "certified" copies of the tax returns and they would be produced shortly but as of this date they have not been produced to any parties. This is further reason that discovery should be continued as the tax returns will provide valuable information that may influence the outcome of this litigation.

42. On August 26, 1995, Simon L. Bernstein, as a Member of the VEBA, named the Bernstein Trust as the "person(s) to receive at my death the Death Benefit stipulated in the S.B. Lexington, Inc. Employee Death Benefit and Trust and Adoption Form adopted by my Employer." Simon Bernstein's signature and the name of the Bernstein Trust appear on this document. (Ex. 31, Aff. of Pam Simon, ¶35; Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶65-¶67; Ex. 4)

ANSWER This may be true at that time in 1995 but again this would only show that the VEBA controls whom the beneficiary would be and with LASALLE still the Primary Beneficiary this indicates that even if the VEBA had been dissolved as alleged, the VEBA trust provided that LASALLE or its Successor would pay the former VEBA plan participants benefits after dissolution of the VEBA.

That again even if proved that the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust existed and were valid it would still be only a Contingent Beneficiary. Again, there are competing claims that the Contingent Beneficiary was changed by Simon to the Simon Bernstein Trust NA.

43. As of August 26, 1995, the VEBA was the owner and primary beneficiary of the Policy, and on August 26, 1995, Simon Bernstein's execution of the VEBA Beneficiary Designation form evidenced his intent that the Policy proceeds flow through the VEBA to the Bernstein Trust. (Ex. 31, Aff. of Pam Simon, ¶32 and ¶35; Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein; ¶65-¶67; Ex. 4)

ANSWER Here the Plaintiffs are claiming the benefits are paid to the VEBA Trust through LASALLE as the Primary Beneficiary to then be paid by LASALLE to the VEBA and the administrator would then pay the VEBA plan participant's beneficiary election, which they claim is the missing 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust. In this scenario, the 95 Legally Nonexistent Trust would not be listed as the Contingent Beneficiary on the insurance contract, as apparently, according to the records produced it has never been named as the Contingent Beneficiary on the missing contract.

44. The next Policy change in November of 1995, as described in Par. 32 above, again confirmed Simon Bernstein's intent with regard to the death benefit proceeds. The primary beneficiary he named was the VEBA and Simon Bernstein's beneficiary of the VEBA was the Bernstein Trust. In addition, the Bernstein Trust was designated as contingent beneficiary of the Policy. (Ex. 29, Aff. of Don Sanders, ¶56, ¶57 and ¶62; Ex. 8). Movants have included a diagram, explained in the Aff. of Ted Bernstein illustrating Simon Bernstein's intent with regard to the ultimate beneficiaries of the Policy Proceeds. (Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein ¶106; Ex. 17).

ANSWER Simon's intent changed over time and at the time of his death he had removed Ted and Pam from receiving any benefits of the Estate planning Trusts of Simon and they were considered predeceased.

Simon Bernstein's intent as of 2000 was more defined in the 2000 Proskauer Insurance Trust that at that time would have been the beneficiary and the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust would have replaced it.

Simon Bernstein's intent as of 2010 was more defined when he confirmed with HERITAGE that the Contingent Beneficiary was the Simon Bernstein Trust NA.

45. The Policy Records indicate that on April 23, 2010, Heritage sent Simon Bernstein a letter in response to Simon Bernstein having contacted Heritage. (Ex. P. 36). The letter provides confirmation to Simon Bernstein that the primary beneficiary is the VEBA, listed as LaSalle National Trust as Trustee, and the letter states that the contingent beneficiary is "Simon Bernstein Trust, N.A."

ANSWER This evidence contradicts Plaintiffs claims that the missing policy Contingent Beneficiary is the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust.

46. According to the Policy records as confirmed by the testimony of Don Sanders, the misnomer "Simon Bernstein Trust, N.A." was an error or abbreviation of the name of the actual Contingent Beneficiary, "Simon Bernstein Insurance Trust dated 6/21/95". Don Sanders also confirmed that there is no change of beneficiary in the Policy records that was submitted by an Owner designating Simon Bernstein Trust, N.A. as a primary or contingent beneficiary of the Policy. (Aff. of Don Sanders, ¶71-¶72, and Ex. P. 36)

ANSWER SANDERS statement is made on hearsay evidence as he does not claim to be the party responsible for the error in entering the full formal name of the beneficiary. SANDERS also states that it is common practice for the insurance carrier to rename a beneficiary to an entirely different name and retain no formal evidence of the actual name of the contingent beneficiary.

That SANDERS statements are based on the records he reviewed but it is OBVIOUS that the records reviewed are missing key pertinent records, including but not limited to, THE ACTUAL POLICY, copies of the trusts and more and so his statements are based on an incomplete set of records.

Simon Bernstein allegedly requested confirmation of the beneficiaries and the letter was sent indicating the Contingent Beneficiary as the Simon Bernstein Trust, NA, which to Eliot's knowledge, no one has conducted investigation to see if this trust exists and there are ongoing investigations into missing and suppressed and fraudulent and altered estate documents ongoing that may materially affect the outcome of this case and make Summary Judgement Premature when records are released that are being withheld or suppressed.

47. In 2011, the Policy had lapsed for non-payment of premium, and Simon Bernstein executed the paperwork necessary and paid the required premium to the Insurer to reinstate the Policy without making any change to the beneficiary of the Policy. (Ex. 29, Aff. of Don Sanders,¶56, ¶57 and ¶62; Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶91-¶93; Ex. 13 and Ex. 14)

ANSWER Movants Exhibit 14 indicates that a NEW POLICY COPY was issued by the carrier and sent to Simon's home address. This would indicate that insurer would have had a recent COPY of the missing policy available at that time but did not retain a copy with their letter sent to Simon or produce the letter with the copy sent at that time.

The reinstated policy may differ than any other earlier policy in key areas such as face amount, beneficiaries, health ratings, etc., which could materially affect the outcome of this lawsuit.

If the Primary Beneficiary did not change at this time then LASALLE is the receiver of any monies resulting from this lawsuit or the policy if it is found at some point through further discovery.

48. That no party to this litigation, including movants and the Insurer, have been able to locate an executed original or copy of the Bernstein Trust Agreement. However, two unexecuted drafts of the Bernstein Trust have been located and produced by Movants in this litigation. (Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶97-¶98; Ex. 32, Aff. of David Simon, ¶28 and ¶29; Ex. 31, Aff. of Pam Simon, ¶37; Ex. 15 and Ex. 16)

ANSWER That a death benefit claim and this instant legal Action were both filed with NO DRAFT COPY in the possession of the alleged trustees of the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust for over a year until they magically appeared when the Court was demanding that an executed copy be found to give Plaintiffs standing.

That these unexecuted drafts are not legally binding in any way and thus do not give standing in this lawsuit and do not qualify to be paid beneficiaries, as indicated when the insurance carrier DECLINED the death benefit request filed by SPALLINA who could not produce an executed trust as required by the carrier.

49. In 1995, David B. Simon, Ted S. Bernstein, Pam Simon, and Simon L. Bernstein all shared common office space at 600 West Jackson Blvd., Ste. 800, Chicago, IL 60606, and all were engaged in the life insurance business. Simon Bernstein was a licensed life insurance agent for at least 30 years and owned and operated several insurance brokerages. (Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶88; Ex. 32, Aff. of David Simon, ¶19, ¶20, and ¶24; Ex. 31, Aff. of Pam Simon, ¶33)

ANSWER Undisputed

50. In 1995, David and Pamela Simon created irrevocable insurance trusts with the assistance of attorneys from the Chicago firm of Hopkins and Sutter. (Ex. 31, Aff. of Pam Simon. ¶34, Ex. 32, Aff. of David Simon, ¶23; Ex. 35, Dep. Of David Simon, p.41:7-41:10)

ANSWER Undisputed

51. David B. Simon and Simon Bernstein discussed Simon Bernstein's desire to form a similar irrevocable insurance trust to protect his family. (Ex. 32, Aff. of David Simon, ¶24)

ANSWER Illinois Dead Man rule disqualifies this affidavit statements relating to conversations or events involving Simon.

52. One unexecuted draft of what would become The Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Trust dated 6/21/95 include David Simon's handwritten notations which he made to show Simon Bernstein where his name and others would go in the trust. According to David Simon, Simon Bernstein went to the firm of Hopkins and Sutter and executed the Bernstein Trust Agreement. (Ex. 32, Aff. of David Simon, ¶28; Ex. 35, Dep. Of David Simon, p.40:17-41:1, and Ex. 16)

ANSWER The draft has no law firm markings and is wholly unexecuted and is disputed as to its legal validity in toto and nothing within the document can therefore be relied upon.

Why would David Simon handwrite in names to show Simon where names go in the trust? What significance does this have?

53. According to the terms of this draft of the Bernstein Trust Agreement, the proceeds in the trust were to be split into as many separate Trusts as there were "children of mine who survive me and children of mine who predecease me leaving descendants who survive me." (Ex. 32, Aff. of David Simon, ¶28; Ex. 16 at §7)

ANSWER The terms of this draft are not binding if they are in fact a draft of the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust that to date does not exist in the Court record.

54. On David Simon's law firm database, David and Adam Simon located a computer file named "SITRUST" and the file date on the metadata for the file is June 21, 1995, the date of the Bernstein Trust. This draft contains virtually identical language to Ex. 16, and also directs that all proceeds be split by the surviving children of Simon Bernstein. (Ex. 32, Aff. of David Simon, ¶29; Ex. 15 at §7)

ANSWER This document is an alleged draft on the date of the trust and yet no law firm has markings upon the document. There are other problems with the datafile that put it in dispute as a valid document. The File Created date is September 03, 2004. The file Modified date is June 21, 1995? How was it modified in 1995 when it was created in 2004? Accessed "Today, September 30, 2013."

55. On September 13, 2012, the date of Simon Bernstein's death, he had five adult children whom survived him, Ted S. Bernstein, Pamela B. Simon, Eliot I. Bernstein, Jill Iantoni, and Lisa Friedstein. (Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶102)

ANSWER Undisputed

56. Simon Bernstein's five children had a total of ten children of their own, so Simon Bernstein had ten grandchildren that survived him, whose names and year of birth are set forth in Ted Bernstein's Affidavit. (Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶103)

ANSWER Ted Bernstein has a stepson making it 11 grandchildren if included.

57. In Ex. 16, Simon Bernstein names his wife Shirley Bernstein, as Trustee, and he was going to name either David Simon, or Ted Bernstein or Pam Simon as successor trustee. (Ex. 32, Aff. of David Simon, ¶25; Ex. 16)

ANSWER The fact is disputed in their own statement above as to who the trustee of this alleged draft of the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust was going to be, which makes this a disputed fact.

58. At a meeting in 1995 prior to Simon Bernstein executing the trust, David Simon recalls discussing the fact that for various reasons involving family dynamics, Ted Bernstein should be the first successor trustee to Shirley Bernstein rather than David Simon. (Ex. 32, Aff. of David Simon, ¶25)

ANSWER The Illinois Dead Man rule prohibits this affidavit and statements contained therein relating to conversations with Simon Bernstein by David Simon who has in interest in the outcome of this action.

59. On or about June 21, 1995, David Simon assisted his mother-in-law, Shirley Bernstein, as Trustee of the Bernstein Trust, with obtaining a tax identification number from the Internal Revenue Service. Prior to obtaining the Tax Identification number, David Simon saw the executed Bernstein Trust Agreement with Simon Bernstein's signature on it. By this time, David Simon also confirmed that Shirley was the initial Trustee and Ted Bernstein was the successor trustee. I then completed an SS-4 form indicating the name of the trust, and the tax identification number issued by the Internal Revenue Service. The SS-4 document contains the signature of Shirley Bernstein, as trustee of the Bernstein Trust. (Ex. 32, Aff. of David Simon, ¶30, Ex. 35, Dep. of David Simon, p.42:6-p.43:9, p. 88:17-89:22; Ex. 19)

ANSWER The Illinois Dead Man rule prohibits this affidavit and statements contained therein relating to conversations with Simon Bernstein by David Simon who has in interest in the outcome of this action.

60. The executed Bernstein Trust Agreement like the drafts referenced above designated the five surviving children of Simon Bernstein as the beneficiaries to the Trust in equal shares. (Ex. 32, Aff. of David Simon, ¶25, ¶26, ¶28, ¶29 and ¶30; Ex. 15 at §7; Ex. 16 at §7)

ANSWER The "executed Bernstein Trust Agreement" does not exist and thus it is unknown what it would say if it existed.

That Simon Bernstein formed the Bernstein Trust on June 21, 1995;

a. That the five surviving children of Simon Bernstein were named as beneficiaries;

b. That Ted S. Bernstein is authorized to act as Trustee of the Bernstein Trust, and with the assistance of counsel, Adam Simon, Ted Bernstein is authorized to cause the release and distribution of the Policy proceeds from the Registry of the Court for deposit to The Simon Law Firm, and to distribute the Policy proceeds (less legal fees and costs associated with this litigation) to the five adult children of Simon Bernstein in equal shares, and to obtain vouchers of receipt therefore"

ANSWER a) Undisputed b) Undisputed c) There is no "Bernstein Trust" that exists and thus again TED has no standing to act as a Trustee. Adam Simon should be sanctioned for attempting to claim that TED is a legally valid Trustee of a trust that does not exist and filing this lawsuit as Fraud on this Court. Adam Simon and the Plaintiffs should be reported for this Fraud on this Court to the proper authorities by this Court.

62. Prior to his death, Simon Bernstein was also the insured under a separate Policy of insurance issued by Lincoln Benefit Life Insurance Company, as Policy No. U0204204 (the "Lincoln Policy"). (Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶108; Ex. 31, Aff. of Pam Simon, ¶26-¶27)

ANSWER That the Lincoln Benefit Life Insurance Company policy should also have a copy any 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust and the Lincoln Benefit policy and this is hearsay evidence from interested parties to the litigation.

The Lincoln Benefit Life contract or any evidence suggesting the veracity of the claims made has not been produced by Plaintiffs.

63. The Lincoln Policy lapsed in 2006 six years prior to Simon Bernstein's death. (Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶108; Ex. 31, Aff. of Pam Simon, ¶27)

ANSWER No proof that a lapse occurred is presented.

64. While the Lincoln Policy was in force and less than two months after the formation of the Bernstein Trust, Simon Bernstein, as Lincoln Policy owner transferred his ownership interest in the Lincoln Policy to the Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust on August 8, 1995. This form contains the name of the Bernstein Trust, the same tax identification number that appears of the IRS Form SS-4 form signed by the trustee, the name and address of the trustee, Shirley Bernstein, and the signature of Simon Bernstein. (Ex. 31, Aff. of Pam Simon, ¶27; Ex. 18)

ANSWER This Lincoln Policy also is controlled by the 2000 Proskauer Rose Irrevocable Trust and supersedes any alleged 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust interest.

ELIOT' S CLAIMS

65. Eliot Bernstein filed counterclaims, third-party claims and cross-claims in this litigation the ("Eliot's Claims"). (Ex. 26)

ANSWER That until Eliot's counterclaims, third party claims and cross claims are heard Summary Judgement is premature.

66. The pleading setting forth Eliot's Claims—not including exhibits—is seventy-two pages long and consists of one hundred and sixty-three separate paragraphs. (Ex. 26)

ANSWER Undisputed

67. No Owner of the Policy ever submitted any change of beneficiary forms which were received by the Insurer that designated Eliot, or any of Eliot's children as a beneficiary of the Policy. (Ex. 29, Aff. of Don Sanders, ¶65-¶68)

ANSWER Eliot never submitted a claim form to the carrier claiming he or his children were named beneficiaries.

INTEVENOR CLAIMS BY ESTATE OF SIMON BERNSTEIN

68. In its intervenor complaint, the Estate of Simon Bernstein, asserts that it has an interest in the policy because "Plaintiff cannot prove the existence of a Trust document; cannot prove that a trust was ever created; thus, cannot prove the existence of the Trust nor its status as purported beneficiary of the Policy. In the absence of a valid Trust and designated beneficiary, the Policy Proceeds are payable to the Petitioner [Estate]…..". (Ex. 26 at ¶12)

ANSWER Agree as Florida law provides that when no beneficiary can be proven at the time of death the estate is the beneficiary.

69. The Estate of Simon Bernstein produced no documents pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26 indicating that the Estate of Simon Bernstein was ever designated as a beneficiary of the Policy.

ANSWER Florida law provides that when no beneficiary can be proven at the time of death the estate is the beneficiary.

70. The Policy Records contain no documents indicating that the Estate of Simon Bernstein was ever designated a beneficiary or contingent beneficiary of the Policy. (Ex. 29, Aff. of Don Sanders, ¶70)

ANSWER Agree as Florida law provides that when no beneficiary can be proven at the time of death the estate is the beneficiary.

71. The Will of Simon L. Bernstein which was duly executed on July 25, 2012 and has been admitted to Probate in Palm Beach County, Florida. The Will of Simon L. Bernstein was filed in this action as an Exhibit to William Stansbury's motion to intervene (See Dkt. #56-2). A true and correct copy of the Will of Simon L. Bernstein is included in Movant's Appendix to their Statement of Undisputed facts as (Ex. 24.) A true and correct copy of the Palm Beach County Death Certificate for Simon Bernstein is included in Movant's Appendix of Exhibits. (Ex. 30, Aff. of Ted Bernstein, ¶96; Ex. 12)

ANSWER The 2012 Will of Simon Bernstein has been challenged on its validity and there are pending motions and petitions filed regarding the validity and the construction that remain unheard.

The Florida Governor Rick Scott's Notary Public Division has determined that the Will is improperly notarized by TED's assistant, Lindsay Baxley. The document is under ongoing investigation and challenged on validity and construction in the probate case.

72. A copy of Plaintiff's Amended Complaint is included in Movant's Appendix to its Statement of Undisputed Facts as (Ex. 25.)

ANSWER Undisputed

73. A copy of the Estate of Simon Bernstein's Intervenor Complaint is included in Movant's Appendix to its Statement of Undisputed Facts attached hereto as (Ex. 27.)

ANSWER Undisputed

74. A copy of Eliot's Counterclaims, Cross-claims and Third-Party Claims is included in Movant's Appendix to its Statement of Undisputed Facts as (Ex. 26.)

ANSWER Eliot's counter/cross/third party claims present evidence that confutes and puts into dispute the Plaintiffs arguments herein and thus make Summary Judgement premature and litigation necessary.

THE INSURER' S INTERPLEADER ACTION

75. A copy of the Insurer's Interpleader Action is included in Movant's Appendix to its Statement of Undisputed Facts as (Ex. 28). In its Interpleader Action, the Insurer alleges that it failed to pay the Bernstein Trust's death claim because the claimants could not produce an original or copy of an executed trust agreement, and because the Insurer received a letter from Eliot setting forth a conflicting claim. (Ex. 28 at ¶22)

ANSWER The reason the carrier declined the SPALLINA filed death benefit claim was because an executed copy of the alleged 95 Legally Existent Trust was not produced and thus is the same reason this Court should not pay the claim to the alleged 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust.

LOCAL RULE 56.l(b)(3)(C) STATEMENT OF ADDITIONAL FACTS

1. The fact is there is no actual insurance contract comprising a bona fide policy produced by Plaintiffs and thus the contract or alleged "Policy" at the heart of this breach of contract lawsuit is disputed as to its very existence and has not been proven as to its terms, conditions, history, amount, ownership, beneficiaries including both primary and contingent, and thus there are genuine issues and disputes of material facts as to the underlying claims by Plaintiffs and fundamental existence of said contract and thus these issues are in genuine dispute at this stage of litigation.

2. All references by Plaintiffs to the "Policy" are improper as a policy has not been produced or proven and therefore all references are disputed as to all terms and conditions as these come from a general generic "Specimen Policy" not the actual contract of the deceased Simon Bernstein with the actual provisions specifically for Simon Bernstein provided, proven or produced and thus again all these material issues relating to the "Policy" are in genuine dispute. .

3. Summary Judgement is inappropriate at this stage of litigation as further Discovery needs to be ordered and expanded to find the actual policy, Trusts and records of deceased Simon

Bernstein ("Simon") including but not limited to further document and record production from Heritage Union Life Insurance Company ("HERITAGE"), Jackson National Life Insurance Company ("JACKSON"), LaSalle National Trust, NA ("LASALLE") in the entirety as ironically the Plaintiffs and those acting in concert with Plaintiffs have failed to contact and bring in records from LASALLE which should be a glaring genuine issue of material fact and area of inquiry for this Court, and further ordering a continued EBT of Theodore Stuart Bernstein ("TED"), EBTs of Pamela Beth Simon ("PAM"), David Simon ("D. SIMON"), Robert L. Spallina, Esq. ("SPALLINA"), Donald R. Tescher, Esq. ("TESCHER") and Don Sanders ("SANDERS") at minimum.

4. It is noted for this Court that Judge Martin Colin ("COLIN") of the Florida Palm Beach County probate court was moved for Disqualification as a necessary material fact witness in numerous instances of document fraud and fraud upon that court at minimum involving the Office of attorneys TESCHER and SPALLINA and there is evidence of coordinated action between those attorneys and the Plaintiffs and filings in this case thereby intertwining the scheme of fraud between both this Court and the Florida probate court cases involving Simon Bernstein.

5. Further, that despite the detailed motion for Disqualification of Judge Colin as a material fact witness, Judge Colin initially entered a Denial saying the motion was "legally insufficient" but within 24 hours thereafter entered a Recusal Order recusing himself from all related cases wherein such Order by its own terms shows COLIN spoke about the case to the other local judges who declined to take the case resulting in the case being assigned and recommended by COLIN to a different court with Judge Coates ("COATES") where it is now on the calendar for June 4th, 2015.

6. The Disqualification motion[3] in Florida demonstrates the level to which the attorneys and parties have engaged in fraud in these matters which itself raises questions of material fact in these proceeding due to proven coordination and collusion of the parties.

7. Plaintiffs have moved for Summary Judgment on an alleged insurance policy which has not been produced further claiming that a Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust Dtd 6/21/95" ("95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust") which also has not been produced or proven is a contingent beneficiary of the unproven policy such that proceeds should be paid to Plaintiffs, all material facts of which are in genuine dispute.

8. The fact is there is no executed "Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust Dtd 6/21/95" document provided by Plaintiffs nor is there any draft of such trust document performed by any law firm that has been provided by Plaintiffs and the parole evidence provided is insufficient in the first instance, suspect based upon conflicts of interests and other factors and appears fraudulent in many respects and thus all such involved facts are material and genuinely disputed.

9. What the Court has been provided by Plaintiffs at this stage is two varied alleged drafts of the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust wholly blank and unexecuted with differing terms that was not produced for over a year after filing of the lawsuit. Therefore, all claims regarding the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust are disputed as there is no legally executed document.

10. The fact is that even if Plaintiffs could prove the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust to be a qualified CONTINGENT BENEFICIARY of a policy, by the Plaintiffs own admissions and document submissions before this Court, there is a PRIMARY BENEFICIARY, LaSalle National Trust, NA that is undisputed at this time and the existence of this Primary Beneficiary negates any payment to the Contingent Beneficiary at least not at this stage of litigation and is a basis to deny Plaintiffs' Summary Judgment itself at this time. See Plaintiffs' Summary Judgement Motion page 456 document dated April 23, 2010 by Heritage Life demonstrating LaSalle National Trust, NA as the Primary beneficiary again by Plaintiffs' own document submissions.

11. It is undisputed that such Primary Beneficiary LASALLE, demonstrated by Plaintiffs' own document submissions have not been brought in as a party in these proceedings by Plaintiffs nor is there any statement or affidavits from any authorized representative of LASALLE and this itself creates sufficient issues of material facts to deny Summary Judgement at this time.

12. The fact is that TED, himself, is disputed as an alleged Trustee of the unexecuted 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust and it is alleged that TED therefore has no legal standing to bring an action under an unexecuted legally nonexistent trust with no legal standing.

13. That within the first 30 days after the death of Simon Bernstein and prior to this action being filed where Plaintiff TED was making statements immediately prior to his father's death at the Hospital[4] and immediately after the time of death suspecting murder and seeking an autopsy and subsequently reported same to the Palm Beach County Sheriffs who responded to the home the morning Simon died to investigate the possible murder claims on the night in question, TED'S friend, business associate and attorney at law SPALLINA is already acting illegally and fraudulently by communicating with the insurance carrier as Trustee of LASALLE and trying to get funds and properties of Simon Bernstein illegally transferred despite having no authority to act for LASALLE whatsoever.

14. The office of Spallina & Tescher then begin a pattern and practice of filing fraudulent documents in the Florida probate court of COLIN on or about Oct. 2012 before this action was filed where subsequently major frauds go unchecked for nearly 2.5 years in that court until COLIN just recently Sua Sponte "recuses" after being faced with a detailed, specific Disqualification motion showing COLIN and at least certain court Officers as material fact witnesses to the frauds committed by TESCHER and SPALLINA'S law offices and ongoing since at least Oct. 2012. See, Colin Disqualification Motion already exhibited herein and COLIN Recusal Order[5].

15. Attorney SPALLINA then diverts from acting illegally as the Trustee of LASALLE and now acting as the Trustee of the 95 Legally Non Existent Trust proceeds to sign a death benefit claim[6] in such capacity with the HERITAGE weeks before TED filed this lawsuit claiming that instead of SPALLINA, he, TED, was now the "Trustee" of the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust.

16. TED acts as the Successor Trustee to SPALLINA of the Legally Nonexistent Trust for the instant legal lawsuit ("Action") filed for breach of contract and the Action is based on the carrier denial[7] of the death benefit claim filed by the law firm Tescher & Spallina PA, with SPALLINA acting as Trustee and the denial was based on the failure to produce an executed legally valid trust to pay a claim on.

17. That in documents alleged to be drafts of the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust submitted by Plaintiffs over a year after filing this Action there is no mention of SPALLINA as a Trustee and thus it appears from Plaintiff's own account, that SPALLINA acted fraudulently in attempting to make the claim to HERITAGE acting as Trustee.

18. TED is conflicted in these matters and can't be Trustee for this litigation if there were a trust as TED stands to get 20% of any settled amount through this Action as an alleged beneficiary of the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust and simultaneously TED is acting as Trustee for a Simon Bernstein Trust in Florida where he gets 0% if the benefits go to the Estate of Simon and rolls over into the Florida Simon Trust where TED is considered predeceased for all purposes of that Florida Simon Trust.

19. TED has already acted in conflict in this lawsuit and filed opposition pleadings to preclude the Estate / Trust from intervening in this lawsuit to the detriment of the Estate / Trust beneficiaries that TED alleges to be a fiduciary for in those matters. This self dealing in conflict breaches TED'S alleged fiduciary duties to parties in this lawsuit and to parties in the Florida Simon Trust action. Removal and Sanctions are warranted.

20. The fact is there is a Primary Beneficiary in existence LASALLE that SPALLINA also fraudulently misrepresented himself for months to HERITAGE acting as Trustee for

http://www.iviewit.tv/Simon%20and%20Shirley%20Estate/20130108%20Reassure%20America%20Life%20Insurance%20Company%20letter%20to%20Spallina%20re%20court%20order.pdf

LASALLE when filing his death benefit claim[8], while also falsely misrepresenting to HERITAGE that he was Trustee for the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust, a capacity he signed the death benefit claim form under.

21. In this insurance fraud scheme, where HERITAGES records produced to this Court allege that the Primary Beneficiary was LASALLE and Plaintiff's allege the Contingent Beneficiary is the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust (where HERITAGE'S records produced contradict that claim and state the Contingent Beneficiary is the Simon Bernstein Trust, NA), SPALLINA had two bases covered for attempting to claim the Policy by acting as the Trustee for LASALLE and as Trustee for 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust.

22. There is also the fact that there is a fully executed 2000 Life Insurance Trust done by Proskauer Rose, LLP[9] that supersedes the alleged 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust and where the Proskauer Trust is funded by the HERITAGE/Capitol Bankers (original issuer) missing policy contract and this too contradicts Plaintiff's claim that the Contingent Beneficiary is the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust and therefore the Contingent Beneficiary is challenged on this ground and disputed.

23. Genuine issues of material fact are present and the need for further Discovery demonstrated by the coordinated and collusive actions of SPALLINA and the Plaintiffs by secreting and withholding from this Court and the insurance carrier the 2000 Proskauer Trust[10] and sanctions or a sanctions hearing should be granted and further Discovery allowed.

24. That fact that insurance company records produced list the Contingent Beneficiary in 2010 and at the time of Simon's death as the Simon Bernstein Trust, NA (See Movant Exhibit 36) contradicts Plaintiff's claims that the 95 Legally Nonexistent Unexecuted Trust is the Contingent Beneficiary at the time of Simon's death and therefore their claim is challenged on this ground and disputed.

25. The fact that insurance company records are directly contradictory to evidence submitted by Plaintiffs such as Movant Exhibit 36 of their Summary Judgement, which claims as of the April 23, 2010 that the Primary Beneficiary is LASALLE and Movant Exhibit 29, Affidavit of Don Sanders, VP Jackson National, Paragraph #62, that claims at time of death the Primary Beneficiary was,

> "After reviewing Jackson's records on the Policy, I can confirm on behalf of Jackson that on the date of death of Simon Bernstein, the Owner of the Policy was Simon Bernstein, the primary beneficiary was designated as LaSalle National Trust, N.A. [emphasis added] as Successor Trustee…," and thus this creates further genuine dispute of material facts to prevent Summary Judgment as the contingent beneficiary cannot be paid when there is a primary beneficiary in existence at time of death.

26. That if Simon was the owner of the policy at the time of death the 95 Legally Nonexistent Trust would not be a qualified Contingent Beneficiary as the incident of ownership would make it legally invalid as a qualified trust and the Estate would be the beneficiary.

27. There are serious new changes in the Florida Estate and Trust cases regarding Simon and Shirley Bernstein due to the recent recusal of COLIN on May 19, 2015[11] from six cases after his denial of Eliot's Petition for Disqualification[12] as "Legally Insufficient" on May 18, 2015[13], which alleged a massive Fraud on the Court, Fraud in the Court and Fraud by Court that was orchestrated by COLIN'S acting outside the Color of Law, due to his failure to mandatorily disqualify when he became a material and fact witness to felony criminal acts in his court committed by the Officers and Fiduciaries of his court and more.

28. It is alleged that COLIN denied the disqualification to attempt to not have his Orders voided due to the FRAUD in, on and by his court and then after recusing steered the cases to the new Judge, Hon. Howard K. Coates, Jr. ("COATES") by interfering and having a hand in the reassignment, post recusal for all six Estate and Trust cases[14] of the Bernstein family.

29. The Florida Estate and Probate cases over the last two years have been stymied and delayed by these frauds and lack of action taken to prosecute them and have since led to the removal from the cases of COLIN, TED'S counsel, friends and business associates, TESCHER and SPALLINA, TED'S Counsel Mark Manceri, Esq. ("MANSERI"), TED'S Counsel Greenberg Traurig's Jon Swergold, Esq. ("SWERGOLD") and TED'S Counsel John J. Pankauski, Esq. ("PANKAUSKI"). The only remnants to the frauds on the court of COLIN and FRENCH left are TED'S current counsel Alan B. Rose, Esq. ("ROSE") and TED acting as an alleged fiduciary in Simon and Shirley's Florida trusts and Shirley's Estate. There are several Petitions for removal of TED and ROSE that were pending in the COLIN court at the time of his recusal/disqualification that COLIN had evaded again and again allowing TED to continue to act despite knowing of his involvement in the Frauds.

30. Further, as of May 21 2015 new information regarding Estate and Trust documents that had been suppressed were suddenly discovered by ROSE and now alleged by him to be in his "custody," where there are allegedly boxes of unaccounted for newly discovered Estate and Trust documents found by ROSE that have relevant information to this case. The existence of these unproduced, unreviewed and untested boxes of documents records and evidence of Smon Bernstein's business dealing in a case where several years of delay, years of fraud, missing and incomplete documents is already shown should itself be a further basis to preclude Summary Judgment to Plaintiffs at this stage of litigation until further discovery is awarded.

31. Further, upon an Order issued by COLIN for inventorying of Simon's Personal Property at his office, including all of his business and other records, it has been learned that apparently none of the items are there and are missing from his Estate records with the Personal Representative, Brian O'Connell, Esq. ("O'Connell"). These missing documents, records, computer data and more may also have suppressed and denied dispositive documents and other data related to this case. These items have been inappropriately coveted by TED and ROSE who have no standing to possess any of Simon's Personal Properties.

32. The Estate and Trust cases need to be settled on several levels before an estate beneficiary is determined and what dispositive documents are at play needs to be settled and the result of this will have bearing on this case and who the beneficiaries of any policy proceeds may ultimately be.

33. The carrier should be brought back into the action to determine the proper beneficiary to pay, which at the moment is LASALLE who they should have contacted immediately upon learning of Simon's death and to conduct a proper investigation of the Fraudulent Application submitted by SPALLINA.

34. The matters need to be investigated by the carrier as a possible murder of Simon[15]which was first advanced by Plaintiff Ted Bernstein at the hospital on the night of death, yet which he failed to report to HERITAGE, as this information could materially affect who would get paid in the event of foul play, as HERITAGE was not informed by TED or SPALLINA when they filed a death benefit claim, nor did they notify this Court of the allegations of the murder of Simon reported to the Palm Beach County Sheriff and the Palm Beach County Medical Examiner by TED at the same time they were attempting to make a fraudulent death benefit claim.

35. There are Petitions that were unheard by COLIN'S court at the time of his recent recusal to remove TED and ROSE as fiduciaries and counsel in these matters and to then recover records that have been suppressed and denied beneficiaries and interested parties due to the ongoing frauds which were continued in COLIN'S court by allowing TED, ROSE and others involved in the frauds on the court to continue to act despite their involvement and where the records once recovered may also reveal further information regarding the missing insurance policy and the unknown beneficiaries.

36. The Affidavits submitted in the Summary Judgement by Bernstein family members are made by conflicted parties whose testimonies conflict with factual evidence and heavily rely on statements made to the parties by Simon Bernstein and allegedly witness events involving Simon despite the Illinois Dead Man's Act ttp://www.hg.org/article.asp?id=6446 , which according to the hornbook definition, "the Act is an evidentiary rule barring testimony by someone with an interest in litigation about any conversation with or event occurring in the presence of a decedent" and thus making most of the statements moot.

37. There are important documents, records, written materials and facts with third parties that Eliot cannot obtain without Court Order as he is not the decedent's Personal Representative or Trustee and the prior Personal Representatives and Trustees in the Estate of Simon have intentionally neglected to obtain these records or have secreted them from the beneficiaries and the courts to conceal their fraudulent activities, including but not limited to,

a. Records from insurers and reinsurers,

b. Records from the Primary Beneficiary LaSalle National Trust, NA,

c. Records regarding a VEBA 501(c)(9) plan that was the beneficiary of the missing policy,

d. Records from Law Firms who are stated to have created various of the trust instruments involved in these matters, and,

e. Records regarding the carriers stated Contingent Beneficiary, the missing Simon Bernstein Trust, NA.

38. There is need for further affidavits, declaration and further discovery after TED'S deposition that opens new discovery including the fact that TED claimed in deposition that he maintained a fully executed copy of the insurance contract[16].
