Mr. Eliot Bernstein
Boca Raton, Florida

Sir, in response to your complaint of 26 September 2016:

The State Courts Fraud Policy applies to suspected fraud external to the judicial process. The policy does not contain the phrase "fraud on the court" which applies to suspected fraud within the judicial process.

My authority does not extend to investigating the actions of judges and lawyers performed within the scope of their responsibilities in the judicial process. Other agencies have been established for that purpose.

According to the information you have provided, the allegations fall outside of the responsibilities of my office within the State Courts System. Your allegations must be addressed through the court procedures established for such review.

For these reasons, I am declining to open an investigation into your matter at this time.

Sincerely,
