Dear Taxpayer:

In reviewing the account shown above, we find that you didn't pay estimated tax as the law requires. Therefore, we are charging you an estimated tax penalty of $440.34.

In general, at least 90 percent (80 percent prior to 1987) of the income and self-employment tax shown on a return must have been prepaid by either having tax withheld from wages, sick pay, pension or annuity income, or paying estimated tax, or a combination of both. Also, we won't charge a penalty if we receive timely payments equaling 100 percent of the previous year's tax. Estimated tax payments are due in four installments; at least 22 1/2 percent (20 percent before December 31, 1987) of the total tax must be paid by the 15th day of the 4th, 6th, and 9th month of the tax year, and the 1st month of the following tax year. If an installment is underpaid, we charge a penalty on the amount of the underpayment. If an installment is late, we may charge a penalty also. If you don't receive your taxable income evenly throughout the year, it may be to your benefit to figure your required installment using the annualized income installment method.

If you use the annualized income installment method, complete Form 2210. Be sure to check box C, Part II, and complete Schedule AI. We are enclosing Form 2210 for your convenience.

If you do not agree with the assessed penalty, please complete the enclosed Form 2210 and return it to us in the enclosed envelope. We have enclosed a detailed penalty computation for your review.

You should receive a notice in four to six weeks reflecting the current status of your account.

If you have any questions, please call us toll free at 1-800-829-0115.

If you prefer, you may write to us at the address shown at the top of the first page of this letter. Dear Taxpayer:

In reviewing the account shown above, we find that you didn't pay estimated tax as the law requires. Therefore, we are charging you an estimated tax penalty of $440.34.

In general, at least 90 percent (80 percent prior to 1987) of the income and self-employment tax shown on a return must have been prepaid by either having tax withheld from wages, sick pay, pension or annuity income, or paying estimated tax, or a combination of both. Also, we won't charge a penalty if we receive timely payments equaling 100 percent of the previous year's tax. Estimated tax payments are due in four installments; at least 22 1/2 percent (20 percent before December 31, 1987) of the total tax must be paid by the 15th day of the 4th, 6th, and 9th month of the tax year, and the 1st month of the following tax year. If an installment is underpaid, we charge a penalty on the amount of the underpayment. If an installment is late, we may charge a penalty also. If you don't receive your taxable income evenly throughout the year, it may be to your benefit to figure your required installment using the annualized income installment method.

If you use the annualized income installment method, complete Form 2210. Be sure to check box C, Part II, and complete Schedule AI. We are enclosing Form 2210 for your convenience.

If you do not agree with the assessed penalty, please complete the enclosed Form 2210 and return it to us in the enclosed envelope. We have enclosed a detailed penalty computation for your review.

You should receive a notice in four to six weeks reflecting the current status of your account.

If you have any questions, please call us toll free at 1-800-829-0115.

If you prefer, you may write to us at the address shown at the top of the first page of this letter.

Dear Mr.	Bernstein:

Attached are several CBIZ invoices. Robert wanted to follow up with you on these and ask if you have already taken care of them.

We have also attached invoices with regard to your mother's Estate, and Robert has asked that you forward a check in the amount of $835.27 payable to your father's Estate.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Hope all is well with you. ©

Best regards,

Dear Taxpayer:

Thank you for your inquiry dated Dec. 18, 2012.

We are pleased to inform you that your request to remove the penalty(s) has been granted. However, this action has been taken based solely on the fact this was the first time you were required to file a return. This type of penalty removal is a one-time consideration. The IRS will base decisions on removing any future penalty(s) on any information you provide that meets reasonable cause criteria.

We charge interest on any unpaid tax, regardless of whether you had reasonable cause.

If you have any questions, please call us toll free at 1-800-829-0115.

If you prefer, you may write to us at the address shown at the top of the first page of this letter.

Whenever you write, please include this letter and, in the spaces below, give us your telephone number with the hours we can reach you.

Also, you may want to keep a copy of this letter for your records.

Mr. Spallina (FYI),

I contacted Sherry of Judge Colin's chambers to verify the time of the evidentiary Hearing scheduled for October 28, 2013 and she stated that the Hearing is now scheduled for 4:00 p.m. Mark is sending out a confirming letter to all interested persons.

Thank you.

Janet – you are correct. My recollection was that it was in the name of their father's trust but we finalized the LLC agreement with the three GC trusts and not their father's trust. I have all the paperwork so you do not need to send anything on that. There are no K-1s and to the extent that they still own the property there is no 1099. I know nothing about the promissory note that you mention so if you could email that paperwork if you receive it I can put it in the file. Thank you

According to the records we received, the Trusts fbo Daniel, Joshua and Jake each hold a 1/3 interest in Bernstein Family Realty LLC. Total capital contribution from the three trusts totaled $100.00. We have requested that the trustee/trustee address be changed to us and also requested a value so we can update the market value on the system. The valuation is currently not important as the accounts are leaving, but the new Trustee should have this information. I was only asking IF we needed a K-1 and if not, for confirmation of that fact in writing.

In addition, in the Trust fbo Eric, Stanford listed a Promissory Note $250K @ 1.64% and carried it at $1.00. No other information has been available. Charlene Dykes at Stanford had asked the Houston's receiver's office for a copy but we have received nothing to date. Once again, this is not an issue for us as the account is leaving, but the new Trustee should be notified.

Hunt and I will send the documentation to you for review. If you would like a hard copy, I will need your address. If email is sufficient, please let me know.

Diana and Vicky,

I have been attempting to collect the final tax information required to file the 2010 Fiduciary tax returns for these 10 accounts. Please send me the tax information for the assets LIC Holdings and Bernstein Family Realty LLC (if there is any). Please let me know, in writing, if there is no tax information available for the Bernstein Family Realty LLC.

In order to close the accounts for Alexandra and Eric, who I believe are of age, I will need a written request from each of them stating their age, their desire to terminate the trust and transfer instructions. The assets in those two trusts will be payable to them outright, so they will need brokerage accounts in their individual names. They will still need to sign off on our standard release documents.

We will be preparing removal and release documents for the remaining eight trust accounts. Please let me know where we should send these documents, once they are prepared. We will also need transfer instructions in the name of each trust at the appropriate time.

Please let me know what information you require to facilitate this process. I will be in contact if we need additional information. Please feel free to forward this email as appropriate.

Dear Robert,

As you know, our firm represents Pamela Simon, who is one of the daughters of the late Shirley Bernstein, in connection with her estate planning matters.

This email is a follow up to my June 22nd letter requesting a copy of the Trust of Shirley Bernstein and relevant information about the assets and liabilities of the Trust.

I understand from our associate who spoke with you on Monday that Pam is a remainder beneficiary under Shirley's Trust following her father's death and she is given a limited power of appointment under Shirley's Trust. In order to properly advise our clients about their estate plans, it is our firm's practice to review any trust documents that name our clients as beneficiaries or that grant them any powers of appointment, and to request financial information pertaining to such trusts.

Therefore, in order for us to properly advise Pam regarding her estate planning matters, please send (or email) me a copy of Shirley's Trust and financial information relating to the Trust. At this time we expect that you have information about the assets and liabilities of Shirley's Trust, and perhaps a Trust accounting.

We are making these requests under Section 736.0813 of the Florida Statutes on behalf of Pam, as a qualified beneficiary of Shirley's Trust.

Thank you in advance for your prompt attention and response. I will follow up with any questions I have after reviewing the requested information.

Dear Robert:

Our firm represents Pamela Simon for her estate planning. Pam is one of the daughters of Shirley Bernstein, who passed away in December. We understand your firm is administering Shirley's estate and trust. We are currently preparing an updated schedule of Pam's assets. We would like to factor in a projected value for Pam's remainder interest in her mother's trust and analyze whether Pam should make any revisions to her own estate plan in light of her mother's trust.

Please send a copy of the trust document and any relevant information about the assets and liabilities of the trust to our office. We have included an authorization signed by Pam to send information to us. For your convenience, we have enclosed a preaddressed return envelope.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact me.

Hi Kim,

I had looked at the document the first time and really did not understand it. After the death of my father and gaining more exposure to this, I do have some questions on the document you are waiting for from me. Therefore, if we can schedule a time to talk with Robert for a few minutes.

thanks

Hi Diana -

I had received the signed paperwork to close the Estate from Si, and had sent Waivers to each of his children for their signatures. I have only received back the signed Waiver from Eliot. Is it possible for you to follow up with them to send the signed Waivers back so we can close the Estate, or can I have contact information for them and I can follow up?

Let me know what works best for you.

Thank you so much.

Mr. Robert L. Spallina Law Offices of Tescher & Spallina, P.A. Boca Village Corporate Center 1 4855 Technology Way, Suite 720 Boca Raton, Florida 33431

Dear Mr. Spallina:

As you requested enclosed is my signed Waiver of Accounting and Portions of Petition for Discharge; Waiver of Service of Petition for Discharge; and Receipt of Beneficiary and Consent to Discharge (the "Waiver"). Please note that I have signed the enclosed Waiver based on, and in reliance on, the statement made to me and my siblings during the joint telephone conference that we had with you and my father on May 10, 2012, that upon my father's death, whatever is left of my parents' assets will be divided equally between my parents' 10 grandchildren.

In addition, as you know, my husband, David Simon, called to your attention certain erroneous statements that you included in the Waiver, including reference to the fact that I have an interest in the Estate of Shirley Bernstein as a beneficiary, that I have received complete distribution of my share and that I have actual knowledge of the amount and manner of determining the compensation of the personal representative, attorneys, accountants, appraisers and other agents. In response, you sent an email to my husband on June 4, 2012, which stated that I am not entitled to anything under my mother's probate estate and my father is not taking a personal representative fee and your fee and the accountant's fee are reasonable. You did not, however, include the amount of your fee and the accountant's fee as required under the Waiver.

Although I do not feel comfortable signing the Waiver with erroneous statements included in it, as you instructed, I have signed the Waiver with the erroneous statements.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Spallina, Esq. Tescher & Spallina, P.A. Boca Village Corporate Center I 4855 Technology Way Suite 720 Boca Raton, FL 33431

Hi Robert ~ attached is the Waiver of Accounting and Portions of Petition For Discharge; Waiver of Service of Petition for Discharge; and Receipt of Beneficiary and Consent to Discharge. As I mentioned in the phone call, I have not seen any of the underlying estate documents or my mother's will at this point, yet I sign this document after our family call so that my father can be released of his duties as Personal Representative and put whatever matters that were causing him stress to rest. For my trustees I would like the following individuals in the following order to be trustees:

- 1. Caroline Prochatska Rogers, Esq. 3500 North Lake Shore Drive 17th Floor Chicago, IL 60657 (773) 804-9400 ext 19 caroline@cprogers.com
- 2. Michele M. Mulrooney, Esq. mmulrooney@Venable.com (will get new address shortly)
- Andrew & Donna Dietz 2002 Circle Drive Hermosa Beach, California 90254 (310) 410-0936 ext1271 andyd@rockitcargo.com

Please send copies of all estate documents to Caroline and Michele and if my dad would like them to keep the information private and confidential, including from me, until some later point in time, you can arrange that with them directly with my approval granted herein. Please also reply to this email to confirm receipt, a hard copy of my signed document will be sent via mail.

Thank you for your efforts on behalf of my family ~ Eliot

Diana – the trusts will each need a k-1 from LIC prior to Sep 15 so the returns can be filed timely. I don't know why they are asking about Bernstein Family Realty, LLC. It has nothing to do with the GC trusts.

Janet – I would like all documentation sent to me for review prior to sending to the trustees and beneficiaries. Thank you.

I have been attempting to collect the final tax information required to file the 2010 Fibuciary tax returns for these 10 accounts. Please send me the tax information for the assets LIC Holdings and Bernstein Family Realty LLC (if there is any). Please let me know, in writing, if there is no tax information available for the Bernstein Family Realty LLC.

In order to close the accounts for Alexandra and Eric, who I believe are of age, I will need a written request from each of them stating their age, their desire to terminate the trust and transfer instructions. The assets in those two trusts will be payable to them outright, so they will need brokerage accounts in their individual names. They will still need to sign off on our standard release documents.

We will be preparing removal and release documents for the remaining eight trust accounts. Please let me know where we should send these documents, once they are prepared. We will also need transfer instructions in the name of each trust at the appropriate time.

Please let me know what information you require to facilitate this process. I will be in contact if we need additional information. Please feel free to forward this email as appropriate.

There may not be much but we need to file an inventory with the court of her personal assets. Also, can you please get us caught up on our bills for the estate work. MEMORANDUM OF LAW OF DEFENDANTS, DONALD TESCHER AND ROBERT SPALLINA, AS CO-PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ESTATE OF SIMON L. BERNSTEIN, FOR HEARING ON SEPTEMBER 30, 2013 AT 11:00 a.m.

COME NOW, Defendants, Donald R. Tescher and Robert L. Spallina, as Co-Personal

Representatives of the Estate of Simon L. Bernstein (hereinafter the "Defendants"), by and through their undersigned counsel and hereby files this their Memorandum of Law of Defendants, Donald Tescher and Robert Spallina, as Co-Personal Representatives of the Estate of Simon L.

Bernstein, for Hearing on September 30, 2013 at 11:00 a.m. and in support thereof state, as follows:

INTRODUCTION

This Memorandum is being submitted pursuant to an Order of the Court dated July 9, 2013. The Plaintiff, William E. Stansbury, may be referred to herein as the "Plaintiff". Donald Tescher and Robert Spallina, as Co-Personal Representatives of the Estate of Simon Bernstein, may be referred to herein as the "Defendants". Copies of the Cases cited herein are included in the Table of Cases, which accompanies this Memorandum.

ARGUMENT

1. On June 18, 2013, the Defendants served their First Set of Interrogatories to the Plaintiff.

2. On July 17, 2013, the Plaintiff served his "Objections to First Set of Interrogatories to William E. Stansbury and Motion for Extension of Time". A copy of said Objection(s) is attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and incorporated herein by reference.

3. At the time the First Set of Interrogatories was propounded, the Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint dated February 12, 2013 was pending.

4. The Plaintiff, pursuant to an Order of the Court dated August 1, 2013 filed his Second Amended Complaint dated September 3, 2013. A copy of said Second Amended Complaint is attached hereto as Exhibit "B" and incorporated herein by reference.

5. The Second Amended Complaint contains the following Counts directed to the

Defendants:

- Count II Breach of Oral Contract
- Count III Fraud in the Inducement
- Count VI Civil Conspiracy
- Count VII Conversion
- Count VIII Unjust Enrichment
- Count IX Equitable Lien
- Count X Constructive Trust

6. Paragraph 18 of the Second Amended Complaint reads, as follows:

Also in 2006, Simon Bernstein, acting on his behalf and on behalf of, and in concert with, Ted Bernstein, told Stansbury that Stansbury was being rewarded for his efforts and the explosive growth of the business, such that he would receive a 10% ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc. Simon Bernstein and Ted Bernstein, collectively, were majority shareholders while Stansbury was a minority shareholder in LIC Holdings, Inc.

7. As such, according to the Plaintiff, the time period relevant to his allegations began in 2006.

8. Paragraph 16 of the Second Amended Complaint reads, as follows: Stansbury agreed to become an employee of LIC Holdings, Inc. and Arbitrage and agreed to a salary of 15% of net retained commissions received on all products sold, including renewals. Stansbury at this time was responsible for, among other duties, calculating, on a monthly basis, the commissions due him in connection with new business generated in the current year and renewals on business generated in previous years.

9. Based on the Plaintiff's allegations, the subject matter of the Plaintiff's Second Amended Complaint is commissions allegedly generated by the Plaintiff from the sale of life insurance products by corporate entities of which the Plaintiff was allegedly a shareholder and actively involved in the business operations.

10. As stated by the Court in Davich v. Norman Brothers Nissan, Inc., 739 So.2d 138 (Fla. 5th DCA 1998), at page 140 regarding the scope of discovery:

The concept of relevancy is broader in the discovery context than in the trial context and a party may be permitted to discover relevant evidence that would be inadmissible at trial, so long as it may lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. (citations omitted). And of necessity, wide latitude should be permitted in seeking evidence of fraud since positive proof of the tort is generally not to be expected. (emphasis added).

11. As set forth in paragraph 5 above, the Plaintiff has alleged Fraud (Count III) and Civil Conspiracy (Count VI) against the Defendants. Pursuant to Davich supra, the Defendants are entitled to "wide latitude" with respect to their discovery.

12. The Plaintiff has objected to Interrogatories numbered 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11.

The Plaintiff has the burden of sustaining his objections. See Charles Sales Corp. v. Rovenger, 88 So.2d 551 (Fla. 1956).

13. Interrogatories 3, 4, 5, 7 and 10 are objected to as being "overly broad". Notably, the Plaintiff has not alleged that the propounded discovery will cause him to incur an unreasonable financial or time burden. On it's face, an "overly broad" objection is legally insufficient. As the Court stated in Carson v. City of Fort Lauderdale, 173 So.2d 743 (Fla. 2nd DCA), at page 744:

Objections to interrogatories must be sufficiently specific that the court may, in considering such objections with interrogatories propounded, ascertain therefrom their claimed objectionable character; general objections to interrogatories, as that they will require the party served to make research and compile data, or that they are unreasonably burdensome, oppressive and vexatious, or that they seek information which is easily available to the interrogating party as to the objecting party, or that they would cause annoyance, expense, and oppression to the objecting party without serving any relevant purpose to the issue, are insufficient. (emphasis added).

14. Additionally, an objection that discovery is "overly broad", standing alone, is an insufficient basis for certiorari relief. See First City Developments of Florida, Inc. v. Hallmark of Hollywood Condominium Association, Inc., 545 So.2d 502 (Fla. 4th DCA 1989).

15. In addition to being "overly broad", the Plaintiff also objected to Interrogatories

CASE NO: 502012CA013933 MB AA

8 and 11 as being "vague and ambiguous". Without any further substance or explanation such objection(s) are, on their face, also legally insufficient. See Carson, supra.

16. Lastly, the Plaintiff objects to Interrogatory number 9 on the basis of "work product".

17. Interrogatory number 9 reads, as follows:

Please state whether you or anyone action [sic] on your behalf obtained statements from any person with knowledge of any issues or facts relating to the Amended Complaint filed by you in this cause dated February 12, 2013. If so, state (a) the names and addresses of the persons from who the statements were taken; (b) the date the statements were taken; (c) the names and addresses of the persons who took the statements, and/or who have custody of the statements; (d) whether the statements were written or oral; and (e) whether the statements were memorialized by recording device, court reporter, video, cd, stenographer, or otherwise.

18. Contrary to the Plaintiff's Objection, the information requested in Interrogatory number 9 is not work product. Nothing in Interrogatory number 9 asks for the strategy, mental impressions or personal notes of the Plaintiff's counsel. See Dupree v. Better Way, 86 So.2d 425 (Fla. 1956) and Surf Drugs v. Vermette, 236 So.2d 108 (Fla. 1970) for the proposition that the type of information requested in Interrogatory number 9 is not work product.

19. In Surf Drugs, the following Interrogatories, all at footnote 3, were found by the

CASE NO: 502012CA013933 MB AA

Appellate Court to be outside of any claim of "work product":

• No. 27-State the exact names and addresses or information for the location of all persons known by you, your agents, or attorneys who were or purport to have been eyewitnesses to the within accident.

• No. 28-State the exact names and addresses or information for the location of all persons known by you, your agents, or attorneys who have any knowledge of the reasons for and/or cause of the death of Thelma Vermette.

• No. 29-State the exact and addresses, or information for the location of all persons known by you, your agents, or attorneys who have any knowledge of the Plaintiff's claim for the death of Thelma Vermette.

• No. 30-Do you or your attorneys, agents, servants or employees know of the existence of any photographs of the scene of the within accident, the instrumentalities involved, or of the persons involved? If so:

(a) State the name and addresses of the person or persons who took the various photographs.

(b) Indicate adjacent to each such person's name and address listed in (a) above, whether each photograph was taken independently of (photographer not employed by) your attorneys, agents, servants, or employees, or which photographs were taken at the request of your attorneys, agents, servants or employees, giving the date all photographs were taken.

(c) Indicate the subject matter of each photograph.

CASE NO: 502012CA013933 MB AA

• No. 31-State whether you or any of your employees, agents, servants, or attorneys have obtained any written statements from anyone with regard to this incident.

• No. 35–Did the Plaintiff himself, or anyone on his behalf, inquire of, or have any conversations with any officer, director or employee of the Defendant, concerning the matters set forth in the Complaint; and if so, state the names and addresses of each such person, and state fully their relationship to the Plaintiff.

20. As the Court held in Surf Drugs, Inc., at page 113: "We hold, therefore, that a party may be required to respond on behalf of himself, his attorney, agent, or employee and to divulge names and addresses of an person having relevant information as well as to indicate generally the type of information held by the person listed."

21. Similarly, the Court in Dupree, supra, found the following Interrogatory to be outside of any claim of work product, "Please set forth the names and addresses of any other persons believed by you or known by you or your attorney to have knowledge concerning the facts pertaining to the within accident."

22. Lastly, the Plaintiff has not yet answered Interrogatories 1, 2 and 6 despite the fact that the requested 30 day extension has expired.

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, the Plaintiffs Objections must be overruled.

OBJECTIONS TO FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES TO WILLIAM E. STANSBURY AND MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

COMES NOW Plaintiff, WILLIAM E. STANSBURY, by and through his undersigned counsel and moves for an extension of time to respond to Defendant, ESTATE OF SIMON L. BERNSTEIN's First Set of Interrogatories and requests an additional 30 days in which to respond to the Interrogatories not objected to, as follows:

1. Plaintiff, WILLIAM E. STANSBURY, objects to the following numbered

Interrogatories:

3. List every incident or occurrence after January 1, 2006 in which you believe that the Decedent perpetrated a fraud upon you. Please identify the details of each incident or occurrence, including the nature, date and location of each incident or occurrence as well as the name, address and the phone number of all witnesses of each incident or occurrence.

Objection: This Interrogatory is overly broad. The fraud perpetrated by the decedent is described in the Amended Complaint and the Second Amended Complaint assuming that the Court allows Plaintiff to amend.

4. Please describe in detail your involvement in the Decedent's business affairs on or after January 1, 2006. Your answer should include, but not be limited to, a detailed description of all duties that you undertook in connection with performing services, paying bills, expenses, balancing check books, writing checks, and receiving deposits or other income. Describe in detail how you became involved in the Decedent's business affairs. The term "business" shall be deemed to include all of the named Corporate and LLC Defendants.

Objection: This Interrogatory is overly broad when it asks Plaintiff to "describe in detail your involvement in the Decedent's business affairs ..." for the last 7 years.

5. Describe in detail the circumstances relating to each and every business related meeting you attended on or after January 1, 2006 at which the Decedent was present.

Objection: This Interrogatory is overly broad.

7. State the substance of each and every communication between the Decedent and any other person regarding his alleged intent, on or after January 1, 2006, to transfer or pay any money or assets to you as a result of your involvement in his business affairs. For each such communication, state the date of the communication, the form of the communication (written, by telephone, or in person) and the names, addresses and telephone numbers of any other individuals who were either present for or who m ay have overheard all or part of the communication.

Objection: This Interrogatory is overly broad.

8. Identify each and every gift, check, cash payment, mortgage, loan or advance of $500.00 or more made by the Decedent to you, any member of your family, or any business of which you are or were an owner, investor, shareholder or creditor on or after January 1, 2006. For each such item, furnish the date, who the payment was made to, the amount, the form of the payment (in cash, check, property, etc.), the purpose of the payment, and whether it was ever repaid.

Objection: This Interrogatory is overly broad, vague and ambiguous

9. Please state whether you or anyone action [sic] on your behalf obtained statements from any person with knowledge of any issues or facts relating to the Amended Complaint filed by you in this cause dated February 12, 2013. If so, state (a) the names and addresses of the persons from whom the statements were taken; (b) the date the statements were taken; (c) the names and addresses of the persons who took the statements, and/or who have custody of the statements; (d) whether the statements were written or oral; and (e) whether the statements were memorialized by recording device, court reporter, video, cd, stenographer, or otherwise.

Objection: This is work product.

 The acts and incidents giving rise to the causes of action alleged herein arose in Palm Beach County, Florida.

General Allegations

10. STANSBURY has worked in the insurance industry for virtually all of his adult life. After 30 years, he had become well-known and highly regarded by major insurance companies, their principals and others throughout the insurance industry, at all levels thereof, as well as by professionals, including attorneys, CPA's, financial advisors, wealth managers and others who were involved in serving, or otherwise dealing with insurers, insurance brokers and life insurance products.

11. SIMON BERNSTEIN dealt at sophisticated levels of the insurance industry and specialized in developing and marketing insurance concepts suitable for persons of high net worth to incorporate into their wealth management and estate planning.

12. TED BERNSTEIN, the son of SIMON BERNSTEIN, was also actively involved in selling life insurance products in conjunction with attorneys, CPAs and other professionals, to be incorporated into high net worth individuals' financial and estate planning.

13. TED BERNSTEIN, acting on his behalf and on behalf of, and in concert with, SIMON BERNSTEIN, approached STANSBURY in 2003, urging STANSBURY to spearhead the marketing of a unique insurance concept, newly developed by a prominent law firm, which was designed for use in the financial and estate planning of high net worth individuals.

14. TED BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that he knew of STANSBURY's expertise and reputation in the insurance and related industries and that STANSBURY was skilled at and accustomed to speaking and marketing insurance products to groups of professionals. He realized that STANSBURY, because of his knowledge, reputation and abilities, would be well suited to market this concept nationwide through prominent and experienced professionals.

15. In 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN (collectively, "BERNSTEIN" or the "BERNSTEINS") formed, as sole shareholders, Defendants LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE for the purpose of marketing and selling certain life insurance products to high net worth individuals for their wealth management and estate planning needs.

16. STANSBURY agreed to become an employee of LIC Holdings, Inc. and ARBITRAGE and agreed to a salary of 15% of net retained commissions received on all products sold, including renewals. STANSBURY at this time was responsible for, among other duties, calculating, on a monthly basis, the commissions due him in connection with new business generated in the current year and renewals on business generated in previous years.

17. STANSBURY worked with diligence and skill, traveling throughout the United States, generating ever-increasing sales and generating very large commissions. By 2006, nationwide sales were resulting in substantial commissions on new policies and renewal commissions.

18. Also in 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN, acting on his behalf and on behalf of, and in concert with, TED BERNSTEIN, told STANSBURY that STANSBURY was being rewarded for his efforts and the explosive growth of the business, such that he would receive a 10% ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, collectively, were majority shareholders while STANSBURY was a minority shareholder in LIC Holdings, Inc.

19. STANSBURY has sued both LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE because the BERNSTEINS represented that his employment relationship was with LIC Holdings, the company in which he owned a 10% interest, but STANSBURY'S W-2 statements were issued by ARBITRAGE as his employer.

20. In February of 2008, SIMON BERNSTEIN, acting on his behalf and on behalf of, and in concert with TED BERNSTEIN, approached STANSBURY and told him his time would be better spent building the business rather than performing monthly calculations of income. The plan proposed was that, rather than STANSBURY performing computations on a monthly basis as to how much should be paid to him based upon 15% of the net retained commissions derived from both new policies sold and renewals from previous years, the BERNSTEINS and STANSBURY all would forego monthly payouts and defer compensation until the end of 2008, when year-end computations could be made. It was represented that in December, year-end computations would be made and salaries would be paid in December 2008 or January of 2009. It was specifically represented to STANSBURY that:

a) neither SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN nor STANSBURY would take any compensation during fiscal year 2008 but rather they all would wait until the year-end accounting was performed in December of 2008 or January, 2009;

b) SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN, and STANSBURY would each be paid a minimum salary of $1,000,000 at year end, and STANSBURY'S salary was to be applied against his earned commissions of 15%. Any compensation due STANSBURY over and above the $1,000,000 would be paid as a distribution on his stock ownership interest in LIC Holdings.

21. In January of 2008, STANSBURY was paid $420,018 for commissions earned on some 2007 sales. However, STANSBURY was not, and has never been, paid the commissions due him on sales in 2008 and thereafter, and he was not and has never been paid the renewal commissions due him on sales made in previous years that were paid to LIC Holdings or ARBITRAGE in 2008 and thereafter, other than a nominal payment of $30,000 made in 2010.

22. When STANSBURY was not paid as agreed in late 2008/2009 and thereafter, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, on behalf of and in concert with each other, stated to STANSBURY that salary and ownership distributions due and owing to SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN and STANSBURY would be deferred to a future time. This deferral of payment was represented to be important because, as a result of the virtual collapse of the capital lending markets in 2008, it was necessary to retain the funds in the corporate bank accounts to demonstrate to potential lenders the financial stability of the companies.

23. The false statements set forth in paragraphs 18 through 21, above, were made by SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, in concert with each other, with knowledge of their falsity and with the intention of never to fulfilling such promises.

24. Despite the representations to STANSBURY set forth above to the contrary, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, authorized LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE to pay themselves $3,756,229.00 and $5,225,825.00, respectively, in 2008. Contrary to the representations made as set forth in paragraph 20, STANSBURY received no compensation for first year commissions and renewal commissions due him in 2008.

25. The net retained commissions by LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, not including renewals, for 2008 were approximately $13,442,549.00. As such, STANSBURY was entitled to, at the very minimum, 15% of $13,442,549.00, or $2,016,382.35.

26. Beginning late in 2007 or early in 2008, and continuing through at least 2012, LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE became the alter ego of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as officers and majority shareholders, in that they disregarded corporate structure and wrongfully diverted, converted and depleted corporate assets of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE for their own personal benefit and the benefit of Bernstein family trusts and other entities as more specifically set forth below. Those trusts have since invested some of these wrongfully diverted and converted corporate assets in real estate, also as more particularly set forth below. The wrongful action of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN in diverting and converting corporate assets rendered LIC Holdings, and possibly ARBITRAGE, insolvent. 27. Throughout 2009, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN continued to make false statements to STANSBURY to hide the fact that LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE was their alter ego, in that they converted corporate property and corporate assets of LIC and/or ARBITRAGE for their own personal benefit in 2008, 2009 and thereafter, all to the exclusion and financial detriment of STANSBURY, all the while fraudulently representing to STANSBURY that no money was being paid as salary or distributions to SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN or STANSBURY because it was necessary to hold the funds in the corporate bank accounts to show to potential lenders the financial stability of the company.

28. STANSBURY relied upon these continuing misrepresentations of Defendants to his detriment. Because STANSBURY was told that potential funding sources for the business needed to see that capital of the company was available, he took no action when he did not receive any compensation for 2009 and was paid only $30,000 in 2010.

29. In order to continue their scheme to defraud, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN failed and refused to account for renewal commissions and failed to supply any financial information to STANSBURY concerning LIC Holdings or ARBITRAGE.

30. In furtherance of their scheme to deprive STANSBURY of salary he had earned and shareholder distributions to which he was entitled, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN intercepted mail addressed to STANSBURY, removing commission checks representing commissions due to STANSBURY, deposited the funds into their own accounts and otherwise converted the funds. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN also opened STANSBURY's mail containing checks payable to him which were unrelated to them and the businesses.

31. In December, 2011 STANSBURY had been battling a painful and debilitating disease that could only be managed through the administration of potentially harmful

prescription medications. On December 22, 2011, the Defendants BERNSTEIN, with knowledge of STANSBURY's health issues and his debilitated condition, decided to take advantage of and deceive STANSBURY further. STANSBURY had for years been given K-1 statements reflecting his 10% ownership of LIC Holdings. At that time, TED BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that the company accountant had discovered a potential significant taxable event which could cause STANSBURY, as one of the owners of LIC Holdings to pay taxes on phantom income. TED BERNSTEIN promised that if STANSBURY would sign a paper ceding his 10% interest in LIC Holdings, he would not have to pay the tax if in fact the tax was due. TED BERNSTEIN promised he would hold the paper, promising it would not become operative until STANSBURY and the Defendants BERNSTEIN discussed the situation further in the first quarter of 2012.

32. Because of the misrepresentations, willful concealments of material facts, duplicity and deceit practiced by Defendants upon STANSBURY, STANSBURY reasonably believed that Defendants had complied, or intended to comply with their obligations to STANSBURY under the contract between them. STANSBURY, therefore, was prevented from knowing for a period of years that the causes of action asserted herein existed.

33. By the second quarter of 2012, STANSBURY developed the belief that the BERNSTEINS' representations over the years were wholly false and he sought legal counsel.

34. STANSBURY has retained the law firm of Peter M. Feaman, P.A. and has agreed to pay it a reasonable fee for its services rendered herein.

COUNT I - ACCOUNTING (Against LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, for Accounting)

35. STANSBURY hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

36. The relationship between STANSBURY and the Defendants, particularly as affected by Defendants' acts described in preceding paragraphs 19 through 27 created a situation where Defendants had sole access to receipts generated by STANSBURY's efforts, and to books and records reflecting said receipts and the other information from which can be calculated all moneys due to STANSBURY under his arrangement with Defendants.

37. The period of time during which STANSBURY has been deprived of monies due him spans approximately four and a half years. The various sources of revenue to Defendants of monies from which the amounts due STANSBURY may be calculated, the manner in which STANSBURY was to be paid, and the amount due STANSBURY all involve extensive and complicated accounts, and STANSBURY's remedy at law cannot be as full, adequate and expeditious as it is in equity.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff STANSBURY prays for an adjudication of Plaintiff's right to a full and complete accounting from Defendants, LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, and for such orders of Court as will require such Defendants to provide STANSBURY with all records and copies of documents from January 1, 2006 to the present, in order to reveal his right to, and the amount of all sums: (a) received as commissions to which STANSBURY was entitled to a share; (b) due to STANSBURY, whether paid or not; (c) paid to STANSBURY, whether for commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason; (d) paid to each of the BERNSTEIN Defendants out of monies received as commissions; (e) deposits of any and all moneys received as commissions by any Defendants to any accounts, including the name of the entity whose account was involved, the number(s) of each such account; the address of the branch or other facility through which any Defendant dealt with such entity; (f) calculations as to moneys paid, to be paid, or not to be paid to STANSBURY, together with an award of court costs and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT II - BREACH OF ORAL CONTRACT (Against LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN)

38. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 37, inclusive.

39. The arrangement between STANSBURY and Defendants, as described in paragraphs 13 through 28 above, constituted a contract between them.

40. An express term of that contract involved the commitment of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to calculate and pay to STANSBURY all sums due to him under the contract, whether as commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason.

41. The Defendants initially performed the duties required of them under said contract.

42. However, Defendants breached their contract with STANSBURY by withholding from STANSBURY monies due him under the contract for renewal commissions earned in 2007 and commissions and renewal commissions earned in 2008 and thereafter.

43. The withholding of such monies constitutes a material breach of the contract between STANSBURY and LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

44. STANSBURY has sued both LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE because the BERNSTEINS represented that his employment relationship was with LIC Holdings, the company in which he owned a 10% interest, but STANSBURY'S W-2 statements were issued by ARBITRAGE as his employer.

45. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN are personally liable, jointly and severally, for the material breach of the oral employment contract with STANSBURY as LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE were the alter ego of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN in that the BERNSTEINS depleted corporate assets for their personal benefit by causing the corporation or corporations to make exorbitant and inappropriate distributions to themselves, family members, and BERNSTEIN family trusts and other entities, at the expense of corporate creditors such as STANSBURY, to wit:

a) SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN caused LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE to pay to them at least $3,756,229.00 and $5,225,825.00, respectively, in fiscal 2008 during which time STANSBURY, other than the amount referenced in paragraph 21, was paid nothing;

b) According to Palm Beach County public records, in December of 2007 TED BERNSTEIN purchased a property at 880 Berkeley Street, Boca Raton, Florida 33487, for $4,400,000;

c) According to Palm Beach County public records, on December 28, 2008, TED BERNSTEIN paid off the mortgage in the amount of $486,400.00 on a property he owned at 15807 Menton Bay Court, Saturnia Isles, Delray Beach, Florida 33446;

d) According to Palm Beach County public records, SIMON BERNSTEIN paid off the mortgage on property he and his wife owned, and subsequently transferred by quitclaim deed on May 20, 2008 to the trustee of SHIRLEY'S TRUST, at 7020 Lions Head Lane, Boca Raton, Florida, 33496. The amount of the mortgage pay-off is unknown, but in 2013 the property was listed for sale at $2,399,000;

e) According to Palm Beach County public records, on June 18, 2008, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC acquired a property located at 2753 N.W. 34 Street, Boca Madera Unit 2, Boca Raton, Florida 33432 (the "Boca Madera Property). On July 8, 2008, SIMON BERNSTEIN loaned $365,000 to BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC. The specific purpose of the loan is unknown, but SIMON BERNSTEIN received a mortgage on the Boca Madera Property to secure the loan;

f) According to Palm Beach County public records, on May 20, 2008 SIMON BERNSTEIN and his wife transferred by quitclaim decd to the trustee of SHIRLEY'S TRUST a 4,220 square foot oceanfront condominium unit in a complex known as "The Aragon" in Boca Raton, located at 2494 South Ocean Boulevard, Boca Raton, Florida. The mortgage on that property was paid off on September 27, 2010.

g) The legal descriptions for each of the above referenced properties are attached hereto as Exhibit "B."

46. There is due to STANSBURY from such Defendants all amounts due under said contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN declaring that Defendants, LIC Holdings, Inc. and ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, are or were the alter ego of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN such that the corporate veil of LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE should be pierced; for judgment against Defendants, LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, in excess of $1,500,000.00 for the amounts due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest; for his court costs herein expended and for such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT III - FRAUD IN THE INDUCEMENT- EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (Against SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN)

47. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 46, inclusive.

48. At all material times hereto, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN were officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

49. The statements set forth in paragraphs 18 through 24, above, made by SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, on behalf of and in concert with each other, and as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, were false statements of material fact that SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN knew to be false at the time they were made, as SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN never intended to authorize LIC Holdings or ARBITRAGE to pay to STANSBURY the amounts due him as evidenced by the fact that the accountant for LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE prepared financial worksheets for 2008 showing that the BERNSTEINS would receive compensation, but STANSBURY would not, for fiscal 2008, in direct contravention to their statements and promises to STANSBURY.

50. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN intended for STANSBURY to rely on such statements that he would be ultimately be paid for his productivity in order to induce him into continuing his productive and revenue-generating sales activity as an employee of LIC Holding and/or ARBITRAGE and fraudulently created for STANSBURY the false expectation that STANSBURY would be paid as agreed.

51. STANSBURY in fact relied to his detriment on these false statements and was induced thereby to remain in his employment relationship with LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE as he continued to sell, with the expectation of payment, products and generate revenue for LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE until 2012, and was further induced not to pursue from LIC Holdings and/ARBITRAGE his right to payment of all amounts due him until after SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN had diverted and converted corporate assets for their personal benefit, rendering LIC Holdings, and possibly ARBITRAGE, insolvent.

52. STANSBURY was injured thereby as he was not and has not been compensated for his revenue-generating sales and other performance, and did not seek alternative employment, as a proximate result of his detrimental reliance on these false statements.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, for damages in excess of $1,500,000.00 together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest; for the imposition of an equitable lien and constructive trust on the Bernstein real estate described in paragraph 45 and Exhibit "B" as more fully set forth in Counts VII and VIII of this Second Amended Complaint; for his court costs herein expended; and for such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper. STANSBURY reserves the right to move to amend to request punitive damages in accordance with Florida Law.

COUNT IV - FRAUD IN THE INDUCEMENT - CEDING OF LIC HOLDINGS OWNERSHIP INTEREST (Against Ted Bernstein and LIC Holdings, Inc.)

53. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 52, inclusive.

54. In the fourth quarter of 2011, TED BERNSTEIN embarked upon a plan to defraud from STANSBURY his 10% ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc. As set forth in paragraph 31 above, Defendant TED BERNSTEIN fraudulently induced STANSBURY to prepare and sign a document giving up his 10% interest in and to LIC Holdings, Inc.

55. The ceding of his shares in LIC Holdings, Inc. was procured by fraud and STANSBURY relied upon the representations made by BERNSTEIN with regard to signing the document apparently ceding his stock.

56. It was reasonable for STANSBURY to rely on the representations made by BERNSTEIN because at that time STANSBURY was unaware of the breaches of fiduciary duty and breaches of the oral contract that had taken place.

57. As a result of STANSBURY's reliance, STANSBURY has been damaged by the loss of 10% of the shares of LIC Holdings and the rights and remedies to a shareholder related thereto.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for a judgment for damages against Defendants BERNSTEIN and LIC Holdings, Inc. for the damages caused by the fraudulent conduct of BERNSTEIN as described herein, together with reasonable costs, pre-judgment interest and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT V - CIVIL CONSPIRACY (Against Simon Bernstein and Ted Bernstein)

58. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, and Counts III and IV, paragraphs 47 through 57, inclusive.

59. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, individually and as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, knowingly, willfully, intentionally, and maliciously conspired, agreed, combined and confederated with each other to make fraudulent, false and misleading statements to STANSBURY intended to induce STANSBURY to continue his employment relationship with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE during 2008 and thereafter, without ever intending to authorize payment to STANSBURY for the amounts he was due, a relationship that generated substantial revenue for LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE and, ultimately, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN.

60. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, individually and as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, knowingly, willfully, intentionally, and maliciously conspired, agreed, combined and confederated with each other to make fraudulent, false and misleading statements to STANSBURY intended to induce STANSBURY to delay pursuing his right to payment for all amounts due him until such time after SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN had converted and diverted corporate assets rendering LIC Holdings, and possibly ARBITRAGE, insolvent and uncollectible.

61. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, individually and as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, knowingly, willfully, intentionally, and maliciously conspired, agreed, combined and confederated with each other to fraudulently induce STANSBURY, through false and misleading statements, to surrender and cede, without fair value payment, his 10% interest in LIC Holdings.

62. The numerous fraudulent, false and misleading statements made by SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN were all overt acts in furtherance of the conspiracy.

63. STANSBURY was injured thereby in that, as a proximate result of the conspiratorial conduct of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, he continued in his employment with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE, without payment of the compensation due him, he delayed pursuit of his right to collect the amounts due him, and ceded his 10% interest in LIC Holdings.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, for damages in excess of $1,500,000.00 together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest; for the imposition of an equitable lien and constructive trust on the Bernstein real estate described in paragraph 45 and Exhibit "B" as more fully set forth in Counts VII and VIII of this Second Amended Complaint;

for his court costs herein expended; and for such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper. STANSBURY reserves the right to move to amend to request punitive damages in accordance with Florida Law.

COUNT V - CIVIL THEFT (Against ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MARKETING, LLC)

64. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 63, inclusive.

65. This is an action for Civil Theft under Chapter 772, Florida Statutes, more specifically §772.11, Fla.Stat.

66. In February, 2012 and March, 2012, Defendant ARBITRAGE intercepted two separate checks made payable to William STANSBURY intended as payment to STANSBURY for matters arising wholly outside his business transactions with the BERNSTEINS, LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

67. Notwithstanding that the checks made payable to William STANSBURY was for sums due STANSBURY by a third party not in connection with the aforesaid business transactions, ARBITRAGE and/or someone acting on its behalf, caused the negotiation of STANSBURY's checks, wrongfully endorsing the checks and retaining the sums that should have been payable to STANSBURY.

68. As a result of the foregoing, Defendant ARBITRAGE has been guilty of criminal theft by conversion with the criminal intent to steal his money and deprive STANSBURY of his possession and use thereof.

69. Written demand for payment of all amounts due STANSBURY has been made to Defendants, more than 30 days preceding the filing of this Complaint, to no avail. A copy of the demand letter is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendant, ARBITRAGE for three times the full amount of the checks made payable to STANSBURY, together with pre-judgment interest and post-judgment interest, attorneys' fees, court costs and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT VII - CONVERSION

70. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 63, inclusive.

71. Further, during 2012, Defendants TED BERNSTEIN, SIMON BERNSTEIN, LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE, or someone acting on their behalves, received and cashed in excess of $30,000.00 worth of commission checks otherwise payable to Plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment for damages against Defendant, ABRITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN, LIC Holdings, Inc. and TED BERNSTEIN, together with pre-judgment interest and post-judgment interest, court costs and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT VIII - UNJUST ENRICHMENT (LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN)

72. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, paragraphs 1 through 65, above.

73. STANSBURY conferred a benefit on LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN by continuing his employment relationship with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE as a direct and proximate result of the fraudulent representations of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as more fully set forth in Count III herein.

74. STANSBURY's continued employment resulted in the generation of substantial revenue for LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE, which was then diverted and converted by the BERNSTEINS for their own personal use to the financial detriment of STANSBURY.

75. LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, had knowledge of the benefit of STANSBURY's continued employment with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE as they fraudulently induced STANSBURY to continue his productive employment activity while never intending to pay him the compensation he was due.

76. LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN accepted the revenues generated by STANSBURY in his capacity as employee.

77. There exists no adequate remedy at law as the conduct of the BERNSTEINS in diverting and converting the corporate assets of LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE has resulted in the insolvency of LIC Holdings and possibly ARBITRAGE.

78. The circumstances are such that it would be inequitable for LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN to retain the benefits of the STANSBURY's productive revenue-generating labor without paying fair value for it.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, in an amount in excess of $1,500,000.00 which the evidence shows Plaintiff is entitled for the fair value of the services Plaintiff provided to LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest; for his court costs herein expended and for such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT IX - EQUITABLE LIEN (As to SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT)

79. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 34, paragraph 45 and Counts III and VII, above.

80. STANSBURY has alleged essential facts in his General Allegations and Count III that show that SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN committed fraud by fraudulently inducing STANSBURY to continue in an employment relationship that proved to be highly lucrative for SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN.

81. STANSBURY has alleged essential facts in his General Allegations and Count VII that show that SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN were unjustly enriched by STANSBURY's uncompensated continued employment with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE.

82. The conduct of the BERNSTEINS in depleting the corporate assets of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE for their personal benefit by causing the corporation or corporations to make exorbitant and inappropriate distributions to themselves, family members, and BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALT, LLC and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT, at the expense of corporate creditors such as STANSBURY, rendered LIC Holdings and possibly ARBITRAGE insolvent. Therefore STANSBURY has no adequate remedy at law.

83. BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUSTA AGREEMENT were the transferees of some of the corporate assets of LIC Holdings and/or

ARBITRAGE wrongfully diverted and converted by the BERNSTEIN and thus are proper parties to this action and this Count.

84. An equitable lien on the real estate described in paragraph 45 herein and Exhibit "B" attached hereto is justified as an equitable remedy for the wrongful conduct of the BERNSTEINS.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the Court to declare and establish an equitable lien in favor of Plaintiff in an amount equal to the funds wrongfully diverted, on the property described in paragraph 45 and Exhibit "B" attached hereto, and on all other assets of the Defendants named in this Count IX, or third parties as yet unknown, which assets have been purchased wholly or in part, improved or benefitted by the diverted funds due Plaintiff, together with his costs herein expended, and such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT X - CONSTRUCTIVE TRUST (As to SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT)

85. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 79 through 84 above.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the Court to declare and establish a constructive trust in favor of Plaintiff on the property described in paragraph 45 and Exhibit "B" attached hereto in an amount equal to the funds wrongfully diverted and on all assets of Defendants or third parties as yet unknown, which assets have been purchased wholly or partly, improved or mortgaged by the diversion of said funds duc Plaintiff. Plaintiff further prays for an award of court costs and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

Re: William (Bill) Stansbury

Dear Mr. Bernstein:

The undersigned represents William (Bill) Stansbury and we are writing this letter on his behalf. Mr. Stansbury received your proposed letter agreement reflecting LIC Holdings' proposal to indemnify its shareholders concerning policies sold under the Cambridge Financing Program. As a result of your proposal, Mr. Stansbury has reviewed with me in detail his dealings with you and your companies over the past 4 to 5 years.

After reviewing the facts with Mr. Stansbury, some of which will be summarized below, I was shocked that he had not consulted legal counsel until now. Be that as it may, and based upon the facts presented to us, we believe you have engaged in fraud, civil theft, breaches of fiduciary duties, and breach of contract, just to name a few. The purpose of this letter is to a). respond to your indemnity proposal and b). request that you pass this letter on to your counsel immediately in the off-chance that these very serious matters can be resolved prior to the filing of legal action. The issues can be summarized as follows:

1. The first issue concerns you and your company's failure to pay salary compensation to Mr. Stansbury. Mr. Stansbury has been making inquiries concerning this for the past 5 months, but to no avail. Mr. Stansbury's claim for unpaid salary arises from three categories:

a. Failure to pay salary based on net retained commissions.

i. Based upon reports prepared by your company for the period of 2007 through 2011, LIC Holdings, Inc. and/or Arbitrage International Holdings, n/k/a Arbitrage International Management, LLC, received $35,384,246.00 in net retained commissions. According to Mr. Stansbury's salary arrangement, he is entitled to 15% of those net retained commissions, which amounts to $5,307,636.90. During this time period, Mr. Stansbury's salary compensation was $2,844,910.00. The shortfall in salary owed to Mr. Stansbury is $2,462,726.90.

ii. There is salary compensation owed to Mr. Stansbury as a result of bridge loans in 2008. You received a $2,000,000.00 settlement in 2010 resulting from the resolution of a lawsuit involving Global Secured Capital. Mr. Stansbury is entitled to 15% of those funds, which is $300,000.00.

iii. In addition, you received $507,891.00 in commissions in connection with the Biviano matter. Mr. Stansbury is entitled to 15% of those funds, which is $76,183.65.

iv. In April of 2012, you received three commissions totaling approximately $200,000.00 in the Levine, Wiss and Berley matters. Mr. Stansbury has been requesting payment of this for weeks, again to no avail. Mr. Stansbury is due salary compensation for these items in the amount of $30,000.00.

Therefore, Mr. Stansbury's total claim for salary arising out of net retained commissions is approximately $2,868,910.55.

The liability for payment of this salary is not limited to LIC Holdings, Inc. or Arbitrage International Management, LLC. This liability also flows to you individually as a result of your breaches of your fiduciary duty owed to Mr. Stansbury and utter failure to abide by corporate governance standards, which conduct is more particularly described below.

b. Mr. Stansbury is also due unpaid salary based on 15% of all renewal commissions since 2008. Mr. Stansbury's salary claim for renewal commissions cannot as yet be determined with specificity due to the fact that you and your office have been opening mail directed to Mr. Stansbury and negotiating checks made payable to him by falsifying his endorsement and depositing those checks into accounts which only you control. This conduct constitutes civil theft and breach of fiduciary duty. We believe this claim amounts to hundreds of thousands of dollars.

c. Salary compensation for 2008. Mr. Stansbury has recently learned that you and Mr. Simon Bernstein received $8,982,124.00 in salary in 2008. By contrast, Mr. Stansbury received $420,018.00, paid to him in January 2008, based on policies sold in 2007. He received zero (no salary compensation) for his 2008 production. It is obvious that you and Simon treated your corporations as personal ATM machines, while completely ignoring your fiduciary responsibilities to your employee and minority shareholder, Mr. Stansbury. It further appears that after the exorbitant salaries were paid to you, you then loaned the money back to the corporation at an interest rate significantly above market rates in order to meet the cash flow needs of the various entities, again, clearly disregarding your corporate governance responsibilities.

2. Indemnification issues.

Mr. Stansbury has been served with three lawsuits from Phoenix Insurance Company and one from Mr. Wright seeking indemnification as a result of agent misconduct which was in no way attributable to the conduct of Mr. Stansbury. Although all of these matters have been settled, because he was the qualifying agent of record for other policies, he could be the subject of future litigation for refunds of commissions paid. All of these commissions were paid over to you or your companies.

The Indemnification Agreement which you sent to Mr. Stansbury is completely insufficient. You have a duty as a matter of law to indemnify Mr. Stansbury. Your offer of future indemnity is contingent upon "all" commissions that have been received by LIC's present or past shareholders be turned over to LIC. This is nothing short of extortion. Further, your second paragraph states that LIC is "presently insolvent" and has a "negative net worth." You then conclude with the sentence that with the indemnification agreement in place, LIC "may" have sufficient funds to meet its current obligations. Therefore, a simple indemnification from LIC Holdings to Mr. Stansbury is insufficient. Any such indemnification would have to be personally guaranteed by you and Mr. Simon Bernstein.

3. Unauthorized interception of U.S. Mail.

I have been given the understanding that your office has been opening mail directed to Mr. Stansbury personally. This is a federal offense and also constitutes a breach of the fiduciary duty you owe to Mr. Stansbury as an employee and minority shareholder.

There has been no accounting to Mr. Stansbury for any of the checks which may have been sent to him personally on which his signature has been forged, the checks cashed and placed out of the reach of Mr. Stansbury. In 2012, Mr. Stansbury has been receiving checks from Phoenix Life Insurance Company and TransAmerica Life Insurance Company. Mr. Stansbury has been holding these checks. They have now been remitted to the undersigned as attorney for Mr. Stansbury. This office is holding these funds in a separate interest-bearing trust account pending the resolution of this matter.

With regard to all of the other insurance companies for whom Mr. Stansbury is listed as the qualifying agent, he has now informed those companies that all future renewal commissions paid to him personally be sent to Mr. Stansbury at his home address. These funds will then be remitted to the undersigned counsel of record for Mr. Stansbury. We will place these funds in a separate interest-bearing trust account as well. Any attempts by you to contact these insurance Page 4 companies will be considered a tortious interference of his business relationship and such activity will be added as a claim in any future legal proceedings.

4. Shareholder status.

Mr. Stansbury has been a 10% shareholder of LIC Holdings, Inc., pursuant to the terms of a Shareholders Agreement. On behalf of Mr. Stansbury, demand is hereby made, pursuant to Florida Statute 607.1602, for inspection of the corporate records including the following:

I. Minutes of the Board of Directors meetings from January 1, 2008 to the present.

II. Minutes of Shareholders' meetings from January 1, 2008 to the present.

III. Records of any actions taken by the Shareholders and/or the Board of Directors without a meeting, from January 1, 2008 to the present.

IV. Accounting and financial records of LIC Holdings, Inc., Arbitrage International Management, LLC, formerly known as Arbitrage International Holdings, LLC, and all other subsidiary or affiliated companies under your control, including, without limitation, income tax returns, general ledgers, balance sheets, profit and loss statements, stock books, bank statements, loan agreements or guarantees, and any other financial books and records from January 1, 2008 to the present.

Mr. Stansbury is seeking to inspect these records in good faith and for the purpose of determining if misappropriation of corporate assets for improper purposes has previously taken or is presently taking place.

I have been made aware of a letter dated December 22, 2011 in which Mr. Stansbury purportedly "ceded" his shares of stock in LIC Holdings, Inc. back to the company. This letter was obtained under false pretenses and is not recognized by Mr. Stansbury as validly conveying his ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc.

Please have your legal counsel contact us within ten (10) days. Should we fail to receive a response within that time, Mr. Stansbury will take legal action to protect his rights and interests.

Very truly yours,

By:

739 So.2d 138 Milan DAVICH, Jr., Appellant,

v. NORMAN BROTHERS NISSAN, INC., etc., et al., Appellees.

No. 98-1608. District Court of Appeal of Florida, Fifth District. July 16, 1999. Rehearing Denied August 17, 1999.

[739 So.2d 139]

Charles L. Steinberg, Orlando, for Appellant.

W. Scott Powell and Larry M. Roth, of Roth, Edwards & Smith, P.A., Maitland, for Appellees.

UPON MOTION FOR REHEARING

PETERSON, J.

The appellant, Milan Davich, Jr., has moved for rehearing and clarification regarding certain discovery issues. We grant the motion, withdraw our previous opinion, and issue the following in its place.

Milan Davich, Jr., appeals a final summary judgment dismissing his complaint against Norman Brothers, Inc. (Norman Brothers) and Nissan Motor Company in USA (Nissan) for equitable rescission, violation of the Florida Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act, section 501.201, et seq., Florida Statutes (1991) (FDUTPA), and fraud and deceit.

This controversy began when Davich discovered that the new black 1991 Nissan Sentra automobile that he had purchased from Norman Brothers appeared to have paint damage. Davich contends the paint damage existed at the time of purchase and was caused by acid rain fallout. The paint damage is undetectable without careful inspection and went unnoticed until Davich attempted to eliminate the "water spots" on the paint by polishing it a short time after the purchase. Norman Brothers and Nissan attempted to replace Davich's vehicle but were unable to find an undamaged vehicle of the same particular color and model. Finally, Nissan offered to replace the vehicle with the next year's model, if Davich would pay for mileage charges and the increase in price of the next year's model. Davich rejected this offer, opining that he should not be forced to pay for Norman Brothers' deceit. Davich then brought the instant suit.

Davich alleged in count IV of his complaint that there was a conspiracy between Nissan and Norman Brothers from 1991 until the Fall of 1992 to sell cars damaged by acid rain fallout to the general public, that such damage was concealed from the public, and that Davich was a victim of this conspiracy. Based on such allegations, Davich sought discovery from Nissan of all documentation pertaining to the sale of Nissan vehicles to its dealers, including Norman Brothers, for the time period in question where the paint was either damaged or affected by a foreign substance consistent with acid rain, fall out, or other environmental damage. The trial court ordered a limited production of the documentation requested by Davich, restricting discovery to 1990 and 1991 vehicles sold by Nissan to Norman Brothers on or before March 23, 1991, the date Davich took delivery of his car. We find that the trial court erred in limiting the production of the documentation regarding vehicles sold by Nissan to Norman Brothers for the time period requested, i.e., 1990 to Fall of 1992, because this evidence is relevant to Davich's contention that Nissan and Norman Brothers were aware of acid rain damage to many of its vehicles but conspired to sell them as new and undamaged.

Case: 17-3595 Document: 12-11 Filed: 03/12/2018 Pages: 1000 Datteling Decision Files Tests in the 734 ec. 2d 123 (the Arp. 1090) Pages: 1000

Discovery in civil cases must be relevant to the subject matter of the case and must be admissible or reasonably calculated to lead to admissible evidence. Allstate Ins. Co. v. Langston, 655 So.2d 91 (Fla.1995); Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.280(b)(1). The concept of relevancy is broader in the discovery context than in the trial context and a party may be permitted to discover relevant evidence that would be inadmissible at trial, so long as it may lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Amente v. Newman, 653 So.2d 1030 (Fla.1995); see also Balas v. Ruzzo, 703 So.2d 1076 (Fla. 5th DCA 1997), rev. denied, 719 So.2d 286 (Fla.1998). And of necessity, wide latitude should be permitted in seeking evidence of fraud since positive proof of the tort is generally not to be expected. Suntogs of Miami, Inc. v. Burroughs Corp., 433 So.2d 581 (Fla. 3d DCA 1983) (in fraud action against seller of computer system for alleged misrepresentations as to compatibility of computer with software package, information as to possible problems another buyer had with similar system was relevant and discoverable, as reasonably calculated to lead to discovery of admissible evidence, even though information itself may have been inadmissible at trial; information went to material element of fraud claim that seller and its agents had actual or constructive knowledge of problems with system prior to sale in question), quashed on other grounds, 472 So.2d 1166 (Fla.1985); Continental Mortgage Investors v. Village By The Sea, Inc., 252 So.2d 833 (Fla. 4th DCA 1971) (in a mortgage foreclosure action, discovery was permitted as to details of the lender's prior transactions with others when usury was a possible defense and those prior transactions might have shown a general modus operandi). See also Saunders v. Florida Keys Elec. Co-op. Ass'n, 471 So.2d 88 (Fla. 3d DCA 1985) (evidence of similar incidents is relevant for discovery and admissible at trial for purposes of showing existence of a danger or defect and notice or knowledge thereof), rev. denied, 482 So.2d 348 (Fla. 1986); Volusia County Bank v. Bigelow, 45 Fla. 638, 33 So. 704, 707 (1903) ("Fraud assumes so many shapes, disguises, and subterfuges that courts always afford a latitude of evidence by admitting anything at all connected with the transaction in which it is alleged to exist, in order that it may be detected and exposed, for the safety of society and the benefit of morals"); West Florida Land Co. v. Studebaker, 37 Fla. 28, 19 So. 176 (1896) (where fraud in the purchase or sale of property is in issue, other frauds of like character, committed by the same parties at or near the same time are admissible).

Additionally, discovery should not be limited to production of documentation, and we direct the trial court on remand to allow Davich to utilize all forms of discovery, including depositions, interrogatories, and requests for admission if such forms are helpful to Davich in attempting to prove his allegations of fraud and conspiracy.

Discovery regarding Nissan sales to other dealers in the U.S.A., however, is not relevant to Davich's claim of conspiracy between Nissan and Norman Brothers, and we find the trial court properly restricted discovery as to other dealers.

We vacate the summary judgment based on our conclusion that the trial court abused its discretion in denying Davich the opportunity to obtain possible support for his actions under FDUTPA and for fraud and deceit. We also vacate the judgment because genuine issues of material fact continue to exist including, inter alia, whether Norman Brothers, in selling a new car, impliedly and falsely represented that the paint finish was undamaged¹, whether Davich's car was damaged by acid rain, whether Norman Brothers violated the FDUTPA² by concealing such alleged damage³, and whether Norman Brothers fraudulently concealed such alleged condition⁴. All these issues were raised by Davich and a review of the record fails to resolve them.

Notwithstanding, we are concerned about the sustainability of Davich's request for equitable rescission. Davich continues to drive the Nissan and had accumulated considerable mileage on it by the time of the hearing in 1995. The car has also been damaged by hail for which Davich received insurance payments but did not carry out any repairs. If, upon remand, Davich is able to prevail on his fraud counts, rescission would not be the proper remedy because the parties could not be placed in their pre-sale positions due to the damage and depreciation of the vehicle. Bush v. Palm Beach Imports, Inc., 610 So.2d 68 (Fla. 4th DCA 1992).

Lastly, we find no merit in the appellee's position that the economic loss rule bars Davich's counts for fraud. Davich is contending that he was fraudulently induced into entering the contract of purchase. Fraudulent inducement is not barred by the economic loss rule. HTP, Ltd. v. Lineas Aereas Costarricenses, 685 So.2d 1238 (Fla.1996); La Pesca Grande Charters, Inc. v. Moran, 704 So.2d 710 (Fla. 5th DCA 1998).

We vacate the judgment and remand for further proceedings consistent with this opinion.

This is a petition for certiorari filed by Charles Sales Corporation, defendant below, to review an order of the circuit court, sitting in chancery, overruling certain objections to interrogatories propounded by the plaintiff. For an understanding of the matter involved, it is first necessary to review what has thus far transpired in the case.

The plaintiff in this equity suit seeks an accounting, to determine and recover money due under certain alleged employment contracts with the defendant. The complaint alleges that from July, 1951, to November, 1952, the parties agreed that the plaintiff, as a salesman for defendant, was to receive a commission to be calculated on a sliding scale of percentages based upon gross profits to the defendant corporation. It is alleged that in November, 1952, the plaintiff discovered that the defendant had not paid the proper rate of commission based upon the gross profit derived from the sale of certain articles. It is further alleged that the defendant admitted the improper calculation of the commissions and agreed to give the plaintiff an accounting, and that although the promised accounting was never rendered, the defendant in July, 1953, paid the plaintiff $2,000 on account of the extra amount due him.

In November, 1952, the complaint continued, the parties expressed dissatisfaction with the terms of the employment because of the necessity for the many computations upon individual sales, and a new agreement was entered for the year 1953, whereunder the plaintiff was to be paid a weekly salary and expense account plus 20% of the net profits before the computation of corporate income taxes at the end of the calendar year. The plaintiff states that during 1953 he received $5,000 on account of his right to 20% of the profits but that he never received the promised accounting.

It is further alleged that at the end of the year 1953 the parties altered the salary and expense account agreement but adhered to the 20% commission agreement, and that plaintiff received a payment of $2,000 in 1954 on account of his commissions but never received the promised accounting.

An accounting is sought in equity because of the alleged complexity of the transactions extending over a long period of time, the necessity of discovering facts known only to defendant, and the fiduciary relationship which existed between the parties.

Defendant moved to dismiss the complaint for failure to state a claim cognizable in equity and because plaintiff had an adequate remedy at law. The motion was denied, and defendant answered, denying that the contracts of employment were those set forth in the complaint and alleging that the sums paid to the plaintiff during 1953 and 1954 in addition to salary were bonuses voluntarily given. Defendant also filed a counterclaim, which need not concern us here.

Subsequently, plaintiff propounded to defendant the interrogatories in question, requesting, in substance, that defendant state the following:

(a) The cost for the period from July 1, 1951 to November 30, 1952, of every item sold by the defendant through the agency of the plaintiff, the preferential discounts obtained by defendant from its suppliers and the percentage of profit derived by the defendant from each sale.

(b) For the period from January 1, 1953 to December 31, 1953, and also for the period from January 1, 1954 to December 31, 1954.

1. Gross sales (with supporting schedules)

2. Returned sales and allowances (with supporting schedules)

3. Net sales

4. Costs of goods sold, indicating:

a. Inventory as of January 1, 1953, 1954

b. Merchandise purchased

c. Inventory as of December 31, 1953, 1954

5. Gross profit on sales

6. Selling expenses (with supporting schedules)

7. Net profit on operations before computation of corporate income taxes.

To these interrogatories defendant filed objections which, when stripped of verbiage, reveal two main grounds: (1) that the interrogatories are oppressive and unduly burdensome, and (2) that they are irrelevant to the issue in the cause, which is the nature of the contract of employment between plaintiff and defendant. As stated above, these objections were overruled, after hearing, by the order challenged here.

30 F.S.A. Rule 1.27, 1954, Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, under which the interrogatories were propounded, is similar to Rule 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, 28 U.S.C.A., and contains similar cross-references to other rules which make it clear that the permissible scope of discovery by interrogatories to parties as wide as that available by deposition upon oral examination. Thus 'any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action' may be inquired into. Rules 1.27 and 1.21(b), 1954 Florida Rules of Civil Procedure. It will be noted that the test is relevancy to the subject matter of the action rather than to the precise issues framed by the pleadings. See 4 Moore's Federal Practice, Sec. 33.15, p. 2296 and Gutowitz v. Pennsylvania R. Co., D.C.E.D.Pa.1945, 7 F.R.D. 144. With this broad scope of discovery, however, safetyvalves must be and are provided. On seasonable objection by the party interrogated, the court may enter an appropriate protective order. Dilatory tactics by the use of such objections are not to be encouraged, and the trial court has a wide discretion in its treatment of discovery problems which we will not ordinarily disturb.

In the case before us, we cannot say that, as a matter of law, the interrogatories, or any of them, showed on their face that the party interrogated required the protection of the court from 'annoyance, expense, embarrassment, or oppression' under Rules 1.27 or 1.24(b). therefore unable to determine what, if any, showing was made by the defendants as to the size of its business, or the magnitude of the task of furnishing the information sought by the plaintiff. The record thus falls far short of that which would be required to show an abuse of discretion upon this aspect of the case.

Since there is no claim of privilege, the only point remaining to be considered is that of relevancy of the interrogatories at the present stage of the litigation. The defendant petitioner contends that the plaintiff is prematurely seeking discovery as to items of account before it has been established that he is entitled to an accounting. Is such discovery 'relevant to the subject matter' of the action? This resolves itself into the broader question of the propriety of allowing discovery before trial as to the relief sought.

The Supreme Court of the United States had occasion to consider this question in 1933 in Sinclair Refining Co. v. Jenkins Petroleum Process Co., 289 U.S. 689, 53 S.Ct. 736, 737, 77 L.Ed. 1449. Professor Moore quotes the following enlightening language from the opinion in that case, which, he states, is still good law under the Federal Rules (4 Moore's Federal Practice, Sec. 26.18, p. 1072):

'The remedy of discovery is as appropriate for proof of a plaintiff's damages as it is for proof of other facts essential to his case. * * *

'There are times when a suit is triable in separate parts, one affecting the right of liability, and the other affecting the measure of recovery. In suits of that order a discovery as to damages will commonly be postponed till the right or liability has been established or declared. * * *

'A different situation is presented where the action is at law and is triable by judge and jury. There interlocutory judgments are unknown * * *. In such circumstances damages may be proved with the aid of a discovery, if the complication of accounts of other practical impediments make it necessary that the evidence be sifted in advance. * * *

'To hold that the plaintiff in an action at law may have discovery of damages is not to say that the remedy will be granted as of course, or that protection will not be given to his adversary against impertinent intrusion. * * * It is all a matter of discretion. * * *'

As an example of a suit triable in separate parts, Professor Moore refers to a patent infringement suit where the plaintiff seeks an injunction and an accounting. In such a suit, the court will not ordinarily permit the plaintiff to obtain discovery as to the accounting until after the question of whether the plaintiff has a right to an accounting has been determined. See Zenith Radio Corp. v. Dictograph Products Co., Inc., D.C.D.Del.1947, 6 F.R.D. 597, and the numerous federal cases in accord cited in 4 Moore Section 26.18, p. 1072, n. 2.

Is the instant case, like a patent case, triable in two separate parts? In Manning v. Clark, Fla., 56 So.2d 521, 523, we said, speaking of the ordinary equity suit for an accounting:

'It is well settled that in suits for an accounting, where the answer does not admit the allegations of the complaint and there is no consent to entry of a decree, the proper practice is for the court to determine the initial question of plaintiff's right to an accounting, and an accounting may then be decreed if the finding is in favor of plaintiff upon the preliminary issue. Warden v. Richardson, 203 Okl. 474, 223 P.2d 338; Ewalt v. Hudson, Mo.App., 223 S.W.2d 132; Larson v. Crescent Planing Mill Co., Mo.App., 218 S.W.2d 814; Jackson v. Elmont Cemetery, Sup., 80 N.Y.S.2d 407; Harris v. Young, 298 Ill. 319,

131 N.E. 670; 1 Am.Jur. 306; 1 C.J.S., Accounting, § 40, p. 680.'

It thus appears that the question must be answered in the affirmative, and that discovery as to the accounting must be deferred until the preliminary issue of the right to the accounting is settled.

Plaintiff contends, however, that he must prove, among other things, the complicated nature of the account, to remain in equity, and that the interrogatories are directed to this end. But a review of the interrogatories reveals that they are directed to actual money amounts, not to the nature of the contracts or the number of sales or character of the records kept. The complicated nature of the accounts may be subjected to discovery and proved without seeking compilations of figures which anticipate the accounting and which will be useless if the plaintiff cannot prevail upon the preliminary issue. We are constrained to hold, therefore, that the order overruling the objections at this stage of the case was in error.

Certiorari is granted, the challenged order is quashed, and the cause is remanded for further proceedings not inconsistent with this opinion, without prejudice to the plaintiff to propound further interrogatories or employ other methods of discovery not in conflict with the principles we have stated above.

So ordered.

The CITY OF FORT LAUDERDALE, a municipal corporation of the State of Florida, Appellee. Nos. 5407, 5409. District Court of Appeal of Florida, Second District.

C. Shelby Dale, City Atty., and James E. Edwards, Asst. City Atty., Ft. Lauderdale, for appellee.

ALLEN, Judge.

This is an interlocutory appeal filed by plaintiff-appellants seeking review of a pretrial order of the circuit court sustaining objections to interrogatories and requests for admissions propounded by the plaintiffs in this action in equity.

The defendant-City was served with 205 written interrogatories and 59 requests for admissions. The objections to both the interrogatories and requests for admissions were identical, and were phrased as follows:

'1. The Requests are absurdly onerous and burdensome.

'2. The Requests call for numerous admissions of fact, mixed with conclusions of law, statements of ultimate fact, matters within the knowledge exclusively of the Plaintiffs, technical and scientific research and conclusions, and require an enormous amount of research.

'3. It is not clear whether the time period stated is the period to answer or the period when the facts were supposed to be true. '4. The Defendant has already fully answered the complaint under the rules.

Pages: 1000

'5. The Requests go far beyond simple statements of fact and admissions of documents and require elaborate and complicated conclusions which are the province of the Chancellor, after hearing all the evidence. * * *

'6. Plaintiffs are seeking to cast most the entire burden of proving their case on the Defendant.

'7. If it is the intention of the Plaintiffs that the period of time stated in the request relates to the time when the facts were supposed to be true, then the Plaintiffs have not set a time in which to reply to the admissions, contrary to Rule 1.30 of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.'

On the basis of the above and an accompanying affidavit of an assistant city engineer to the effect that answers to the interrogatories and requests would require a considerable amount of research and expense, the trial court found all of the inquiries to be improper. The order rested largely on Objection Number 2, supra. It was enterd without prejudice to the plaintiffs proposing other interrogatories. This appeal followed.

It is well recognized that in matters was entered without prejudice to the plaintiffs with wide discretion, and their treatment of problems arising thereunder ordinarily will not be disturbed. Charles Sales Corp. v. Rovenger, Fla.1956, 88 So.2d 551. Equally well recognized, however, is that the burden of proving the validity of objections is upon the objecting party. Id.

The extent of this burden has not been developed in Florida case law, but in view of the fact that the federal rules dealing with interrogatories and requests for admissions are almost identical with our state rules pertaining to such inquiries, decisions of the federal courts, as well as comments by text writers on the federal rules, are in point. Accordingly, we look to them in ascertaining the application of our state rules, i. e., Rules 1.27 and 1.30, Fla.R.Civ.P., 30 F.S.A.

With respect to objections to interrogatories, Professor Moore, in his work on federal practice, 4 Moore, Federal Practice, § 33.27, at 2336 (2d ed. 1963), has this to say:

'Objections to interrogatories must be sufficiently specific that the court may, in considering such objections with interrogatories propounded, ascertain therefrom their claimed objectionable character; general objections to interrogatories, as that they will require the party served to make research and compile data, or that they are unreasonably burdensome, oppressive and vexatious, or that they seek information which is easily available to the interrogating party as to the objecting party, or that they would cause annoyance, expense, and oppression to the objecting party without serving any relevant purpose to the issue, are insufficient.'

In United States v. Nysco Laboratories, Inc., 26 F.R.D. 159, 161 (E.D.N.Y.1960), the federal district court observed that under Rule 33, Fed.R.Civ.P., 28 U.S.C.A., written objections to interrogatories may be served 'thereto.' The court then went on:

'The word 'thereto' refers to a particular interrogatory or class of interrogatories, not to the interrogatories in general. In other words, the objections must be specific and supported by a detailed explanation why the interrogatory or class of interrogatories are objectionable.' (Emphasis added.) See also Woods v. Kornfield, 9 F.R.D. 196 (M.D.Pa.1949); and Bowles v. Safeway Stores, Inc., 4 F.R.D. 469 (W.D.Mo.1945).

We are of the view that Rules 1.27 and 1.30, Fla.R.Civ.P., 30 F.S.A., contemplate the same burden being imposed on an objecting party. Clearly, the 'blanket' objections filed by the City did not sustain that burden. However, as noted by the court in the Nysco case, supra, the court may, even though the method of procedure is improper, examine the interrogatories and objections and make its rulings thereon in the interest of expediency. Such a step, the court goes on to say, would entail the court's selecting from among the propounded interrogatories (or requests for admissions), the particular questions to which the general objections applied.

This brings us to what we deem to be the problem at bar, that is, whether the plaintiffs' interrogatories and requests for admissions could be stricken in their entirety without any designation as to the applicability of the objections. Submission of supplemental memoranda on this point was requested of the parties.

The City cites us to Elgin Cooperative Credit Assn. v. American Employers Ins. Co. v. Doran, 17 Fed.Rules Serv. 33.318, Case 1, (D.C.Neb.1952). The court there allowed a rejection in toto of interrogatories on the ground that the few that might have been allowed to stand were presented 'in relation' to the objectionable questions, therefore they fell together.

In the cause before us, there was no finding that all of the propounded interrogatories and requests for adminissions were inextricably intertwined so that they had to stand or fall together. Therefore, we conclude that the trial court erred in rejecting plaintiffs' interrogatories and requests for admissions in their entirety without designating the applicability of the written objections thereto.

Reversed and remanded for further proceedings not inconsistent herewith.

Alan S. Becker of Becker, Poliakoff & Streitfeld, P.A., Fort Lauderdale, for respondent.

POLEN, Judge.

This cause is before us on a petition for writ of certiorari. The petition contests the propriety of the trial court's order overruling petitioners' objections to respondent's interrogatories, request for production of documents, and request for admissions. Although the same order deals with other issues, such as the sufficiency of service of process on petitioners, those issues are the subject of a separate, non-final appeal, and will not be treated in this opinion.

Petitioners' objections to the discovery sought by respondent fell generally into the following categories: attorney-client privilege, work product, trade secrets, or that the discovery was overly broad and burdensome. We find that the trial court departed from the essential requirements of law, and we therefore grant the petition in part.

The first of petitioners' arguments, that the trial court ruled on the matter without notice or hearing, is without merit. Once petitioners filed their objections to discovery, it was unnecessary for respondent to file a motion to compel. While such a motion would have been permissible, Page 503 it was equally permissible for respondent to notice the petitioners' objections for hearing, as was done in this matter. There is no rule of procedure or law that requires the trial court to have oral argument as to such objections; rather, the trial court may simply review the discovery sought, the objections thereto, and rule on said objections without the necessity of a hearing.

As to the propriety of the trial court's denial of petitioners' objections to discovery in total, the trial court departed from the essential requirements of law. Clearly, objections such as attorney-client privilege or work product are viable objections, although the petitioners have the burden of proving such privileges apply, should it become an issue before the trial court. Further, to the extent petitioners objected to discovery on the basis that it would require disclosure of trade secrets, we find that to require such disclosure would result in a "cat out of the bag" situation that would not be reparable on a plenary appeal. Martin-Johnson, Inc. v. Savage, 509 So.2d 1097 (Fla.1987).

Lastly, we turn our attention to petitioners' objections that some of the discovery sought was "overly broad" or "burdensome." Such objections, standing alone, would not constitute a basis for granting certiorari relief. Hartford Accident & Indemnity Company v. U.S.C.P. Co., 515 So.2d 998 (Fla. 4th DCA 1987). More importantly, such words of art have little meaning without substantive support. Is this objection raised because petitioners would be required to produce a railroad boxcar full of documents, or are they merely objecting to the production of a half-inch thick file folder? Since the trial court has to consider petitioners' other objections, it is incumbent upon petitioners to quantify for the trial court the manner in which such discovery might be overly broad or burdensome. They must be able to show the volume of documents, or the number of manhours required in their production, or some other quantitative factor that would make it so.

We grant certiorari, quash the order of the trial court, and remand this cause for further consideration of petitioners' objections to the discovery sought, consistent with this opinion.

We here review, on common-law certiorari, an order of the lower court requiring the petitioner, plaintiff below, to answer the following interrogatory directed to him by respondents, defendants below, in the course of a negligence suit instituted by petitioner against respondents:

'Please set forth the names and addresses of any other persons believed by you or known by you or your attorney to have knowledge concerning the facts pertaining to the within accident.'

The petitioner's answer to this interrogatory was as follows:

'8. Mike (last name not known to me) who works at George's News, 1720 Alton Road, Miami Beach, Florida; policeman at the scene of the accident whose name I do not know. I do not know what persons with knowledge of this accident are known to my attorneys.'

The trial judge then entered the order here reviewed, directing the petitioner to 'obtain from his attorneys, and his attorneys are directed to give to him, the names and addresses of all persons known to his attorneys who have any knowledge concerning the facts pertaining to the within accident, and the Plaintiff is directed to furnish said names and addresses in his answer to Interrogatory No. 8.'

The petitioner here contends that the information requested is both privileged and the work product of his attorneys, and that the lower court erred in requiring his attorneys to disclose it. This contention cannot be sustained.

The rule that an attorney cannot be compelled to divulge any communication made to him by his client without the consent of the client 'does not extend to information which an attorney secures from a witness while acting for his client in anticipation of litigation.' Hickman v. Taylor, 1946, 329 U.S. 495, 508, 67 S.Ct. 385, 392, 91 L.Ed. 451. Nor can the information be withheld on the ground that it is the 'work product' of the attorney. Under Rule 1.27 of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, F.S.A., a party may be interrogated as to 'any matters which can be inquired into under Rule 1.21(b)'; and under Rule 1.21(b) 'any person, including a party,' may be examined 'regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action, * * * including * * * the identity and location of persons having knowledge of relevant facts.' The interrogatory here in question is well within the 'Scope of Examination' permitted by Rule 1.21(b), supra, and the petitioner's attorney could not have refused to comply with the rule, had the information been sought by proceeding under Rule 1.21 to take the deposition of petitioner's attorneys.

No error having been made to appear, certiorari should be and it is hereby

BOYD, Justice.

This cause is before us on petition for writ of certiorari to review the decision of the District Court of Appeal, Third District. ¹ Jurisdiction is based on conflict between the decision sought to be reviewed and the decision of this Court in Dupree v. Better Way.²

Respondent, plaintiff below, filed a complaint for the wrongful death of his wife, alleging that the defendant drug store, by its professional pharmacist, was guilty of malpractice in continuing to sell a medication for the use of the deceased without continued physician approval and that plaintiff's wife's death was the proximate result of the use of that medication. Defendant served plaintiff with a set of interrogatories which sought to determine plaintiff's witnesses and the existence of certain evidence. Plaintiff objected to interrogatories numbered 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 35 and 36, ³ on the ground that 'same called for information based upon the knowledge of plaintiff's attorney." Plaintiff objected to interrogatories numbered 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, and 43, ⁴ on the ground that 'same invades the work product of plaintiff's attorney.'

The trial court denied plaintiff's objections to all of the interrogatories except interrogatory number 36. Plaintiff then filed petition for writ of certiorari with the District Court of Appeal and defendant cross-petitioned.

The District Court reversed in part and affirmed in part, holding:

(1) Interrogatories numbered 27, 28, 29, 30, 31 and 35 'improper as to that portion of the interrogatories that required the plaintiff to respond on behalf of his agent, attorney, servant, employee, etc., as to knowledge of certain facts and conclusions.'

(2) Interrogatories 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42 and 43 proper and response required.

(3) Interrogatory 36, improper and objection sustained.

In the Dupree case, supra, the following interrogatory to the plaintiff was allowed:

'Please set forth the names and addresses of any other persons believed by you or known by you or your attorney to have knowledge concerning facts pertaining to the accident.'

This Court held that the matter sought was not privileged and not protected as work product, stating: ⁵

'* * * Under Rule 1.27 of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, F.S.A., a party may be interrogated as to 'any matters which can be inquired into under Rule 1.21(b)'; and under Rule 1.21(b) 'any persons, including a party,' may be examined 'regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action * * * including * * * the identity and location of persons having knowledge or relevant facts.' The interrogatory here in question is well within the 'Scope of Examination' permitted by Rule 1.21(b), supra, and the petitioner's attorney could not have refused to comply with the rule, had the information been sought by proceeding under Rule 1.21 to take the deposition of petitioner's attorneys.'

The District Court in the instant case held that plaintiff could not be required to respond on behalf of his attorney. This holding clearly conflicts with the decision of this Court in the Dupree case.

The relevant Florida Rules of Civil Procedure are, 30 F.S.A., in pertinent parts, as follows:

'Rule 1.340 * * * Any party may serve upon any other party written interrogatories to be answered by the party served * * * who shall furnish such information as is available to the party. * * *

'Interrogatories may relate to any matters which can be inquired into under Rule 1.280(b) * * *.'

Rule 1.280(b);

Scope of Examination. Unless otherwise ordered by the court as provided herein, the deponent may be examined regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter of the pending action, whether it relates to the claim or defense of the examining party or to the claim or defense of any other party, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition and location of any books, documents or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of relevant facts. It is not ground for objection that the testimony will be inadmissible at the trial if the testimony sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.'

A primary purpose in the adoption of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure is to prevent the use of surprise, trickery, bluff and legal gymnastics. Revelation through discovery procedures of the strength and weaknesses of each side before trial encourages settlement of cases and avoids costly litigation. Each side can make an intelligent evaluation of the entire case and may better anticipate the ultimate results. Florida has recognized four exceptions to the general rule requiring complete disclosure:

(1) The subject matter of the discovery procedure must be relevant to the cause. ⁶

(2) Discovery procedures may not be used or conducted to harass or embarrass litigants or witnesses or for malicious purposes.⁷

(3) The inquiry must not invade the ancient and necessary right of privileged communications between lawyers and clients.⁸

(4) The work product of the litigant, his attorney or agent, cannot be examined, absent rare and exceptional circumstances.⁹

What constitutes 'work product' is incapable of concise definition adequate for all occasions. Generally, those documents, pictures, statements and diagrams which are to be presented as evidence are not work products anticipated by the rule for exemption from discovery. Personal views of the attorneys as to how and when to present evidence, his evaluation of its relative importance, his knowledge of which witness will give certain testimony, personal notes and records as to witnesses, jurors, legal citations, proposed arguments, jury instructions, diagrams and charts he may refer to at trial for his convenience, but not to be used as evidence, come within the general category of work product.

The work-product doctrine originated in the case of Hickman v. Taylor, ¹⁰ wherein it was held that statements of witnesses secured by an attorney in advance of trial were immune from discovery because such a procedure would be contrary to the public policy underlying the orderly prosecution and defense of legal claims. The United States Supreme Court stated the reason for the work product doctrine as follows:

'Historically, a lawyer is an officer of the court and is bound to work for the advancement of justice while faithfully protecting the rightful interests of his clients. In performing his various duties, however, it is essential that a lawyer work with a certain degree of privacy, free from unnecessary intrusion by opposing parties and their counsel. Proper preparation of a client's case demands that he assemble information, sift what he considers to be the relevant from the irrelevant facts, prepare his legal theories and plan his strategy without undue and needless interference. That is the historical and the necessary way in which lawyers act within the framework of our system of jurisprudence to promote justice and to protect their clients' interests. This work is reflected, of course, in interviews. statements. memoranda. correspondence, briefs, mental impressions, personal beliefs, and countless other tangible and intangible ways--aptly though roughly termed by the Circuit Court of Appeals in this case as the 'Work product of the lawyer.' Were such materials open to opposing counsel on mere demand, much of what is now put down in writing would remain unwritten. An attorney's thoughts, heretofore inviolate, would not be his own. Inefficiency, unfairness and sharp practices would inevitably develop in the giving of legal advice and in the preparation of cases for trial. The effect on the legal profession would be demoralizing. And the interests of the clients and the cause of justice would be poorly served.'

The work product doctrine was recognized in Florida in Atlantic Coast Line R. Co. v. Allen. ¹² Subsequent developments were outlined in the decision of this Court in Shell v. State Road Department.¹³

Appellee and the District Court apparently consider that anything known to an attorney for a litigant constitutes 'work product' immune from discovery procedures. This view is clearly contrary to the Hickman case, supra, wherein the United States Supreme Court stated flatly: ¹⁴

'A party clearly cannot refuse to answer interrogatories on the ground that the information sought is solely within the knowledge of his attorney.'

Commenting on this statement, Moore in his treatise on federal practice, noted that it was sound doctrine, stating: ¹⁵

'In other words, probably by properly phrased interrogatories a party can be required to state the substance of interviews with witnesses, whether obtained by his attorney or by others and whether or not reduced to writing. The party cannot refuse to answer on the ground that he has no personal knowledge of the facts, but must obtain the information from his attorneys or agents.'

We hold, therefore, that a party may be required to respond on behalf of himself, his attorney, agent, or employee and to divulge names and addresses of any person having relevant information as well as to indicate generally the type of information held by the person listed. A party may not be required to set out the contents of statements, absent rare and exceptional circumstances, or to divulge his or his attorneys' evaluation of the substance of statements taken in preparation for trial. Applying these rules to the interrogatories in question, we find that the District Court correctly, affirmed the action of the trial court in sustaining the objection to interrogatory number 36 set out, supra, at footnote 3. This interrogatory requires identification of any witness who has given an opinion to plaintiff or his attorney 'that the defendant Surf Drugs, Inc., was negligent and careless,' and exceeds the bounds of proper discovery because it requires an evaluation of the witnesses' testimony. That portion of the District Court's opinion holding that plaintiff cannot be required to respond on behalf of his agent, attorney, employee, etc., on interrogatories numbered 27, 28, 29, 30, 31 and 35, is erroneous and must be guashed.

Neither party to this cause has questioned that portion of the District Court's opinion ruling on interrogatory number 23.¹⁶ In view of our decision herein, the holding of the District Court that interrogatory 23 be quashed must be modified. Plaintiff may properly be required to disclose whether to his or his attorney's knowledge, any doctor had given plaintiff's wife a disability rating and if so the name and address of that doctor. Absent exceptional circumstances, however, plaintiff is not required to give the percentage or nature of the disability rating or otherwise to summarize or evaluate the information available.

Accordingly, certiorari is granted, the decision of the District Court is quashed in part and affirmed in part and the cause remanded for further proceedings consistent herewith.

It is so ordered.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE 15th JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA

WILLIAM E. STANSBURY,

CASE NO: 50 2012 CA 013933 MB AA

Plaintiff,

VS.

TED S. BERNSTEIN; DONALD TESCHER and ROBERT SPALLINA, as co-personal representatives of the ESTATE OF SIMON L. BERNSTEIN and as co-trustees of the SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT dated May 20, 2008; LIC HOLDINGS, INC.; ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, f/k/a ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, LLC; BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC,

Defendants.

DEFENDANT'S, SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST, MOTION TO DISMISS

Defendant, Shirley Bernstein Trust Agreement dated May 20, 2008 ("Bernstein Trust"), by and through its Successor Trustee, Ted S. Bernstein ("Bernstein Trustee"), moves to dismiss the Amended Complaint served on April 22, 2013, upon Donald L. Tescher, as alleged Successor Trustee, and states:

1. The Amended Complaint should be dismissed for insufficient service of process. The Complaint was never served upon the Bernstein Trustee, and therefore, service is improper and should be quashed.

2. The Bernstein Trust adopts and incorporates herein the grounds for dismissal asserted by Bernstein Family Realty, LLC, in its motion served on May 10, 2013, as if fully set forth herein. 3. The Amended Complaint also does not assert any legally cognizable claim against the Bernstein Trust. First, the Amended Complaint fails to set forth sufficient allegations to support a claim for equitable lien or constructive trust over the Bernstein Trust or any property held or owned by such trust.

4. Second, the claims by Plaintiff belong, in whole or in part, to one or both of the legal entities known as LIC Holdings, Inc., a Florida corporation ("LIC") and/or Arbitrage International Management, LLC, a Florida limited liability company ("Arbitrage") (collectively the "Companies"). Plaintiff asserts that co-defendants, Ted S. Bernstein and Simon Bernstein , breached a fiduciary duty owed to the Companies and seeks an award of monies which necessarily would flow back to the Companies, not directly to Plaintiff. Thus, in Counts III and VIII, Plaintiff asserts derivative claims on behalf of the Companies. In this regard, Bernstein Trust adopts and incorporates herein the grounds for dismissal asserted by Ted S. Bernstein in his April 23, 2013, as if fully set forth herein.

5. Specifically, Plaintiff in this case has direct and derivative claims filed in the same lawsuit, there is a misjoinder issue which mandates the dismissal of the Complaint. Plaintiff cannot sue in different capacities in the same lawsuit. Department of Ins. v. Coopers & Lybrand, 570 So. 2d 369, 370 (Fla. 3d DCA 1990); Karnegis v. Lazzo, 243 So. 2d 642 (Fla. 3d DCA 1971); Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.110(g) ("A pleader may set up in the same action as many claims or causes of action ... in the same right as he has ...") (emphasis added).

6. Plaintiff lacks standing to bring any derivative claims on behalf of Arbitrage because he was never a shareholder of Arbitrage, and makes no such allegation in his Complaint.

7. Plaintiff lacks standing to bring any derivative claims on behalf of LIC or Arbitrage because, as alleged in paragraph 31, Plaintiff ceded his 10% interest in LIC. See§ 607.07401, Fla.

Stat.; Timko v. Triarsi, 898 So. 2d 89, 91 (Fla. 5th DCA 2005) (holding that once the complaining shareholders' shares were repurchased, the complaining former shareholder could not continue to prosecute a derivative claim).

8. Plaintiff failed to allege that Plaintiff made a demand on the Corporation to bring these claims before filing their Counterclaim. Allegations of a demand is a statutory pre-requisite for maintaining a derivative action. § 607.07401(2). The Complaint also is not verified as required by that statute.

WHEREFORE, Defendant, Bernstein Trust by and through Bernstein Trustee, respectfully requests that this Court dismiss the Amended Complaint; award Defendant its costs and attorneys' fees pursuant to any applicable contract or statute; and grant such other relief as is just.

9. The acts and incidents giving rise to the causes of action alleged herein arose in Palm Beach County, Florida.

General Allegations

10. STANSBURY has worked in the insurance industry for virtually all of his adult life. After 30 years, he had become well-known and highly regarded by major insurance companies, their principals and others throughout the insurance industry, at all levels thereof, as well as by professionals, including attorneys, CPA's, financial advisors, wealth managers and others who were involved in serving, or otherwise dealing with insurers, insurance brokers and life insurance products.

11. SIMON BERNSTEIN dealt at sophisticated levels of the insurance industry and specialized in developing and marketing insurance concepts suitable for persons of high net worth to incorporate into their wealth management and estate planning.

12. TED BERNSTEIN, the son of SIMON BERNSTEIN, was also actively involved in selling life insurance products in conjunction with attorneys, CPAs and other professionals, to be incorporated into high net worth individuals' financial and estate planning.

13. TED BERNSTEIN, acting on his behalf and on behalf of, and in concert with, SIMON BERNSTEIN, approached STANSBURY in 2003, urging STANSBURY to spearhead the marketing of a unique insurance concept, newly developed by a prominent law firm, which was designed for use in the financial and estate planning of high net worth individuals.

14. TED BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that he knew of STANSBURY's expertise and reputation in the insurance and related industries and that STANSBURY was skilled at and accustomed to speaking and marketing insurance products to groups of professionals. He realized that STANSBURY, because of his knowledge, reputation and abilities, would be well suited to market this concept nationwide through prominent and experienced professionals.

15. In 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN (collectively, "BERNSTEIN" or the "BERNSTEINS") formed, as sole shareholders, Defendants LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE for the purpose of marketing and selling certain life insurance products to high net worth individuals for their wealth management and estate planning needs.

16. STANSBURY agreed to become an employee of LIC Holdings, Inc. and ARBITRAGE and agreed to a salary of 15% of net retained commissions received on all products sold, including renewals. STANSBURY at this time was responsible for, among other duties, calculating, on a monthly basis, the commissions due him in connection with new business generated in the current year and renewals on business generated in previous years.

17. STANSBURY worked with diligence and skill, traveling throughout the United States, generating ever-increasing sales and generating very large commissions. By 2006, nationwide sales were resulting in substantial commissions on new policies and renewal commissions.

18. Also in 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN, acting on his behalf and on behalf of, and in concert with, TED BERNSTEIN, told STANSBURY that STANSBURY was being rewarded for his efforts and the explosive growth of the business, such that he would receive a 10% ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, collectively, were majority shareholders while STANSBURY was a minority shareholder in LIC Holdings, Inc.

19. STANSBURY has sued both LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE because the BERNSTEINS represented that his employment relationship was with LIC Holdings, the company in which he owned a 10% interest, but STANSBURY'S W-2 statements were issued by ARBITRAGE as his employer.

20. In February of 2008, SIMON BERNSTEIN, acting on his behalf and on behalf of, and in concert with TED BERNSTEIN, approached STANSBURY and told him his time would be better spent building the business rather than performing monthly calculations of income. The plan proposed was that, rather than STANSBURY performing computations on a monthly basis as to how much should be paid to him based upon 15% of the net retained commissions derived from both new policies sold and renewals from previous years, the BERNSTEINS and STANSBURY all would forego monthly payouts and defer compensation until the end of 2008, when year-end computations could be made. It was represented that in December, year-end computations would be made and salaries would be paid in December 2008 or January of 2009. It was specifically represented to STANSBURY that:

a) neither SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN nor STANSBURY would take any compensation during fiscal year 2008 but rather they all would wait until the year-end accounting was performed in December of 2008 or January, 2009;

b) SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN, and STANSBURY would each be paid a minimum salary of $1,000,000 at year end, and STANSBURY'S salary was to be applied against his earned commissions of 15%. Any compensation due STANSBURY over and above the $1,000,000 would be paid as a distribution on his stock ownership interest in LIC Holdings.

21. In January of 2008, STANSBURY was paid $420,018 for commissions earned on some 2007 sales. However, STANSBURY was not, and has never been, paid the commissions due him on sales in 2008 and thereafter, and he was not and has never been paid the renewal commissions due him on sales made in previous years that were paid to LIC Holdings or ARBITRAGE in 2008 and thereafter, other than a nominal payment of $30,000 made in 2010.

22. When STANSBURY was not paid as agreed in late 2008/2009 and thereafter, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, on behalf of and in concert with each other, stated to STANSBURY that salary and ownership distributions due and owing to SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN and STANSBURY would be deferred to a future time. This deferral of payment was represented to be important because, as a result of the virtual collapse of the capital lending markets in 2008, it was necessary to retain the funds in the corporate bank accounts to demonstrate to potential lenders the financial stability of the companies.

23. The false statements set forth in paragraphs 18 through 21, above, were made by SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, in concert with each other, with knowledge of their falsity and with the intention of never to fulfilling such promises.

24. Despite the representations to STANSBURY set forth above to the contrary, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, authorized LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE to pay themselves $3,756,229.00 and $5,225,825.00, respectively, in 2008. Contrary to the representations made as set forth in paragraph 20, STANSBURY received no compensation for first year commissions and renewal commissions due him in 2008.

25. The net retained commissions by LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, not including renewals, for 2008 were approximately $13,442,549.00. As such, STANSBURY was entitled to, at the very minimum, 15% of $13,442,549.00, or $2,016,382.35.

26. Beginning late in 2007 or early in 2008, and continuing through at least 2012, LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE became the alter ego of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as officers and majority shareholders, in that they disregarded corporate structure and wrongfully diverted, converted and depleted corporate assets of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE for their own personal benefit and the benefit of Bernstein family trusts and other entities as more specifically set forth below. Those trusts have since invested some of these wrongfully diverted and converted corporate assets in real estate, also as more particularly set forth below. The wrongful action of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN in diverting and converting corporate assets rendered LIC Holdings, and possibly ARBITRAGE, insolvent. 27. Throughout 2009, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN continued to make false statements to STANSBURY to hide the fact that LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE was their alter ego, in that they converted corporate property and corporate assets of LIC and/or ARBITRAGE for their own personal benefit in 2008, 2009 and thereafter, all to the exclusion and financial detriment of STANSBURY, all the while fraudulently representing to STANSBURY that no money was being paid as salary or distributions to SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN or STANSBURY because it was necessary to hold the funds in the corporate bank accounts to show to potential lenders the financial stability of the company.

28. STANSBURY relied upon these continuing misrepresentations of Defendants to his detriment. Because STANSBURY was told that potential funding sources for the business needed to see that capital of the company was available, he took no action when he did not receive any compensation for 2009 and was paid only $30,000 in 2010.

29. In order to continue their scheme to defraud, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN failed and refused to account for renewal commissions and failed to supply any financial information to STANSBURY concerning LIC Holdings or ARBITRAGE.

30. In furtherance of their scheme to deprive STANSBURY of salary he had earned and shareholder distributions to which he was entitled, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN intercepted mail addressed to STANSBURY, removing commission checks representing commissions due to STANSBURY, deposited the funds into their own accounts and otherwise converted the funds. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN also opened STANSBURY's mail containing checks payable to him which were unrelated to them and the businesses.

31. In December, 2011 STANSBURY had been battling a painful and debilitating disease that could only be managed through the administration of potentially harmful

prescription medications. On December 22, 2011, the Defendants BERNSTEIN, with knowledge of STANSBURY's health issues and his debilitated condition, decided to take advantage of and deceive STANSBURY further. STANSBURY had for years been given K-1 statements reflecting his 10% ownership of LIC Holdings. At that time, TED BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that the company accountant had discovered a potential significant taxable event which could cause STANSBURY, as one of the owners of LIC Holdings to pay taxes on phantom income. TED BERNSTEIN promised that if STANSBURY would sign a paper ceding his 10% interest in LIC Holdings, he would not have to pay the tax if in fact the tax was due. TED BERNSTEIN promised he would hold the paper, promising it would not become operative until STANSBURY and the Defendants BERNSTEIN discussed the situation further in the first quarter of 2012.

32. Because of the misrepresentations, willful concealments of material facts, duplicity and deceit practiced by Defendants upon STANSBURY, STANSBURY reasonably believed that Defendants had complied, or intended to comply with their obligations to STANSBURY under the contract between them. STANSBURY, therefore, was prevented from knowing for a period of years that the causes of action asserted herein existed.

33. By the second quarter of 2012, STANSBURY developed the belief that the BERNSTEINS' representations over the years were wholly false and he sought legal counsel.

34. STANSBURY has retained the law firm of Peter M. Feaman, P.A. and has agreed to pay it a reasonable fee for its services rendered herein.

COUNT 1 - ACCOUNTING (Against LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, for Accounting)

35. STANSBURY hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

Case: 1:13-cv-03643 Document #: 258-3 Filed: 08/27/16 Page 251 of 1000 PageID #:6691 Case: 17-3595 Document: 12-11 Filed: 03/12/2018 Pages: 1000

36. The relationship between STANSBURY and the Defendants, particularly as affected by Defendants' acts described in preceding paragraphs 19 through 27 created a situation where Defendants had sole access to receipts generated by STANSBURY's efforts, and to books and records reflecting said receipts and the other information from which can be calculated all moneys due to STANSBURY under his arrangement with Defendants.

37. The period of time during which STANSBURY has been deprived of monies due him spans approximately four and a half years. The various sources of revenue to Defendants of monies from which the amounts due STANSBURY may be calculated, the manner in which STANSBURY was to be paid, and the amount due STANSBURY all involve extensive and complicated accounts, and STANSBURY's remedy at law cannot be as full, adequate and expeditious as it is in equity.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff STANSBURY prays for an adjudication of Plaintiff's right to a full and complete accounting from Defendants, LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, and for such orders of Court as will require such Defendants to provide STANSBURY with all records and copies of documents from January 1, 2006 to the present, in order to reveal his right to, and the amount of all sums: (a) received as commissions to which STANSBURY was entitled to a share; (b) due to STANSBURY, whether paid or not; (c) paid to STANSBURY, whether for commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason; (d) paid to each of the BERNSTEIN Defendants out of monies received as commissions; (e) deposits of any and all moneys received as commissions by any Defendants to any accounts, including the name of the entity whose account was involved, the number(s) of each such account; the address of the branch or other facility through which any Defendant dealt with such entity; (f) calculations as to moneys paid, to be paid, or not to be paid to STANSBURY, together with an award of court costs and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT II - BREACH OF ORAL CONTRACT (Against LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN)

38. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

39. The arrangement between STANSBURY and Defendants, as described in paragraphs 13 through 28 above, constituted a contract between them.

40. An express term of that contract involved the commitment of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to calculate and pay to STANSBURY all sums due to him under the contract, whether as commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason.

41. The Defendants initially performed the duties required of them under said contract.

42. However, Defendants breached their contract with STANSBURY by withholding from STANSBURY monies due him under the contract for renewal commissions earned in 2007 and commissions and renewal commissions earned in 2008 and thereafter.

43. The withholding of such monies constitutes a material breach of the contract between STANSBURY and LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

44. STANSBURY has sued both LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE because the BERNSTEINS represented that his employment relationship was with LIC Holdings, the company in which he owned a 10% interest, but STANSBURY'S W-2 statements were issued by ARBITRAGE as his employer.

45. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN are personally liable, jointly and severally, for the material breach of the oral employment contract with STANSBURY as LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE were the alter ego of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERINSTEIN in that the BERNSTEINS depleted corporate assets for their personal benefit by causing the corporation or corporations to make exorbitant and inappropriate distributions to themselves, family members, and BERNSTEIN family trusts and other entities, at the expense of corporate creditors such as STANSBURY, to wit:

a) SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN caused LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE to pay to them at least $3,756,229.00 and $5,225,825.00, respectively, in fiscal 2008 during which time STANSBURY, other than the amount referenced in paragraph 21, was paid nothing;

b) According to Palm Beach County public records, in December of 2007 TED BERNSTEIN purchased a property at 880 Berkeley Street, Boca Raton, Florida 33487, for $4,400,000;

c) According to Palm Beach County public records, on December 28, 2008, TED BERNSTEIN paid off the mortgage in the amount of $486,400.00 on a property he owned at 15807 Menton Bay Court, Saturnia Isles, Delray Beach, Florida 33446;

d) According to Palm Beach County public records, SIMON BERNSTEIN paid off the mortgage on property he and his wife owned, and subsequently transferred by quitclaim deed on May 20, 2008 to the trustee of SHIRLEY'S TRUST, at 7020 Lions Head Lane, Boca Raton, Florida, 33496. The amount of the mortgage pay-off is unknown, but in 2013 the property was listed for sale at $2,399,000;

e) According to Palm Beach County public records, on June 18, 2008, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC acquired a property located at 2753 N.W. 34 Street, Boca Madera Unit 2, Boca Raton, Florida 33432 (the "Boca Madera Property). On July 8, 2008, SIMON BERNSTEIN loaned $365,000 to BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC. The specific purpose of the loan is unknown, but SIMON BERNSTEIN received a mortgage on the Boca Madera Property to secure the loan;

f) According to Palm Beach County public records, on May 20, 2008 SIMON BERNSTEIN and his wife transferred by quitclaim deed to the trustee of SHIRLEY'S TRUST a 4,220 square foot oceanfront condominium unit in a complex known as "The Aragon" in Boca Raton, located at 2494 South Ocean Boulevard, Boca Raton, Florida. The mortgage on that property was paid off on September 27, 2010.

g) The legal descriptions for each of the above referenced properties are attached hereto as Exhibit "B."

46. There is due to STANSBURY from such Defendants all amounts due under said contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN declaring that Defendants, LIC Holdings, Inc. and ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, are or were the alter ego of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN such that the corporate veil of LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE should be pierced; for judgment against Defendants, LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, in excess of $1,500,000.00 for the amounts due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest; for his court costs herein expended and for such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT III - FRAUD IN THE INDUCEMENT- EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (Against SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN)

47. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

48. At all material times hereto, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN were officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

49. The statements set forth in paragraphs 18 through 24, above, made by SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, on behalf of and in concert with each other, and as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, were false statements of material fact that SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN knew to be false at the time they were made, as SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN never intended to authorize LIC Holdings or ARBITRAGE to pay to STANSBURY the amounts due him as evidenced by the fact that the accountant for LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE prepared financial worksheets for 2008 showing that the BERNSTEINS would receive compensation, but STANSBURY would not, for fiscal 2008, in direct contravention to their statements and promises to STANSBURY.

50. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN intended for STANSBURY to rely on such statements that he would be ultimately be paid for his productivity in order to induce him into continuing his productive and revenue-generating sales activity as an employee of LIC Holding and/or ARBITRAGE and fraudulently created for STANSBURY the false expectation that STANSBURY would be paid as agreed.

51. STANSBURY in fact relied to his detriment on these false statements and was induced thereby to remain in his employment relationship with LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE as he continued to sell, with the expectation of payment, products and generate revenue for LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE until 2012, and was further induced not to pursue from LIC Holdings and/ARBITRAGE his right to payment of all amounts due him until after SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN had diverted and converted corporate assets for their personal benefit, rendering LIC Holdings, and possibly ARBITRAGE, insolvent. 52. STANSBURY was injured thereby as he was not and has not been compensated for his revenue-generating sales and other performance, and did not seek alternative employment, as a proximate result of his detrimental reliance on these false statements.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, for damages in excess of $1,500,000.00 together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest; for the imposition of an equitable lien and constructive trust on the Bernstein real estate described in paragraph 45 and Exhibit "B" as more fully set forth in Counts VII and VIII of this Second Amended Complaint; for his court costs herein expended; and for such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper. STANSBURY reserves the right to move to amend to request punitive damages in accordance with Florida Law.

COUNT IV - FRAUD IN THE INDUCEMENT - CEDING OF LIC HOLDINGS OWNERSHIP INTEREST (Against Ted Bernstein and LIC Holdings, Inc.)

53. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

54. In the fourth quarter of 2011, TED BERNSTEIN embarked upon a plan to defraud from STANSBURY his 10% ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc. As set forth in paragraph 31 above, Defendant TED BERNSTEIN fraudulently induced STANSBURY to prepare and sign a document giving up his 10% interest in and to LIC Holdings, Inc.

55. The ceding of his shares in LIC Holdings, Inc. was procured by fraud and STANSBURY relied upon the representations made by BERNSTEIN with regard to signing the document apparently ceding his stock.

56. It was reasonable for STANSBURY to rely on the representations made by BERNSTEIN because at that time STANSBURY was unaware of the breaches of fiduciary duty and breaches of the oral contract that had taken place.

57. As a result of STANSBURY's reliance, STANSBURY has been damaged by the loss of 10% of the shares of LIC Holdings and the rights and remedies to a shareholder related thereto.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for a judgment for damages against Defendants BERNSTEIN and LIC Holdings, Inc. for the damages caused by the fraudulent conduct of BERNSTEIN as described herein, together with reasonable costs, pre-judgment interest and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT V - CIVIL CONSPIRACY (Against Simon Bernstein and Ted Bernstein)

58. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, and Counts III and IV, paragraphs 47 through 57, inclusive.

59. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, individually and as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, knowingly, willfully, intentionally, and maliciously conspired, agreed, combined and confederated with each other to make fraudulent, false and misleading statements to STANSBURY intended to induce STANSBURY to continue his employment relationship with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE during 2008 and thereafter, without ever intending to authorize payment to STANSBURY for the amounts he was due, a relationship that generated substantial revenue for LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE and, ultimately, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN.

60. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, individually and as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, knowingly, willfully, intentionally, and maliciously conspired, agreed, combined and confederated with each other to make fraudulent, false and misleading statements to STANSBURY intended to induce STANSBURY to delay pursuing his right to payment for all amounts due him until such time after SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN had converted and diverted corporate assets rendering LIC Holdings, and possibly ARBITRAGE, insolvent and uncollectible.

61. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, individually and as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, knowingly, willfully, intentionally, and maliciously conspired, agreed, combined and confederated with each other to fraudulently induce STANSBURY, through false and misleading statements, to surrender and cede, without fair value payment, his 10% interest in LIC Holdings.

62. The numerous fraudulent, false and misleading statements made by SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN were all overt acts in furtherance of the conspiracy.

63. STANSBURY was injured thereby in that, as a proximate result of the conspiratorial conduct of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, he continued in his employment with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE, without payment of the compensation due him, he delayed pursuit of his right to collect the amounts due him, and ceded his 10% interest in LIC Holdings.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, for damages in excess of $1,500,000.00 together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest; for the imposition of an equitable lien and constructive trust on the Bernstein real estate described in paragraph 45 and Exhibit "B" as more fully set forth in Counts VII and VIII of this Second Amended Complaint; for his court costs herein expended; and for such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper. STANSBURY reserves the right to move to amend to request punitive damages in accordance with Florida Law.

COUNT VI - CIVIL THEFT (AGAINST ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MARKETING, LLC)

64. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

65. This is an action for Civil Theft under Chapter 772, Florida Statutes, more specifically §772.11, Fla.Stat.

66. In February, 2012 and March, 2012, Defendant ARBITRAGE intercepted two separate checks made payable to William STANSBURY intended as payment to STANSBURY for matters arising wholly outside his business transactions with the BERNSTEINS, LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

67. Notwithstanding that the checks made payable to William STANSBURY was for sums due STANSBURY by a third party not in connection with the aforesaid business transactions, ARBITRAGE and/or someone acting on its behalf, caused the negotiation of STANSBURY's checks, wrongfully endorsing the checks and retaining the sums that should have been payable to STANSBURY.

68. As a result of the foregoing, Defendant ARBITRAGE has been guilty of criminal theft by conversion with the criminal intent to steal his money and deprive STANSBURY of his possession and use thereof.

69. Written demand for payment of all amounts due STANSBURY has been made to Defendants, more than 30 days preceding the filing of this Complaint, to no avail. A copy of the demand letter is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendant, ARBITRAGE for three times the full amount of the checks made payable to STANSBURY, together with pre-judgment interest and post-judgment interest, attorneys' fees, court costs and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT VII - CONVERSION

70. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

71. Further, during 2012, Defendants TED BERNSTEIN, SIMON BERNSTEIN, LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE, or someone acting on their behalves, received and cashed in excess of $30,000.00 worth of commission checks otherwise payable to Plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment for damages against Defendant, ABRITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN, LIC Holdings, Inc. and TED BERNSTEIN, together with pre-judgment interest and post-judgment interest, court costs and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT VIII - UNJUST ENRICHMENT (LIC HOLDINGS, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN)

72. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive, and the allegations of Count III.

73. STANSBURY conferred a benefit on LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN by continuing his employment relationship with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE as a direct and proximate result of the fraudulent representations of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as more fully set forth in Count III herein. 74. STANSBURY's continued employment resulted in the generation of substantial revenue for LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE, which was then diverted and converted by the BERNSTEINS for their own personal use to the financial detriment of STANSBURY.

75. LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, had knowledge of the benefit of STANSBURY's continued employment with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE as they fraudulently induced STANSBURY to continue his productive employment activity while never intending to pay him the compensation he was due.

76. LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN accepted the revenues generated by STANSBURY in his capacity as employee.

77. There exists no adequate remedy at law as the conduct of the BERNSTEINS in diverting and converting the corporate assets of LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE has resulted in the insolvency of LIC Holdings and possibly ARBITRAGE.

78. The circumstances are such that it would be inequitable for LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN to retain the benefits of the STANSBURY's productive revenue-generating labor without paying fair value for it.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, in an amount in excess of $1,500,000.00 which the evidence shows Plaintiff is entitled for the fair value of the services Plaintiff provided to LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest; for his court costs herein expended and for such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT IX - EQUITABLE LIEN (AS TO SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT)

79. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 34, paragraph 45 and Counts III and VII, above.

80. STANSBURY has alleged essential facts in his General Allegations and Count III that show that SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN committed fraud by fraudulently inducing STANSBURY to continue in an employment relationship that proved to be highly lucrative for SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN.

81. STANSBURY has alleged essential facts in his General Allegations and Count VII that show that SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN were unjustly enriched by STANSBURY's uncompensated continued employment with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE.

82. The conduct of the BERNSTEINS in depleting the corporate assets of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE for their personal benefit by causing the corporation or corporations to make exorbitant and inappropriate distributions to themselves, family members, and BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALT, LLC and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT, at the expense of corporate creditors such as STANSBURY, rendered LIC Holdings and possibly ARBITRAGE insolvent. Therefore STANSBURY has no adequate remedy at law.

83. BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUSTA AGREEMENT were the transferees of some of the corporate assets of LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE wrongfully diverted and converted by the BERNSTEIN and thus are proper parties to this action and this Count.

84. An equitable lien on the real estate described in paragraph 45 herein and Exhibit "B" attached hereto is justified as an equitable remedy for the wrongful conduct of the BERNSTEINS.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the Court to declare and establish an equitable lien in favor of Plaintiff in an amount equal to the funds wrongfully diverted, on the property described in paragraph 45 and Exhibit "B" attached hereto, and on all other assets of the Defendants named in this Count IX, or third parties as yet unknown, which assets have been purchased wholly or in part, improved or benefitted by the diverted funds due Plaintiff, together with his costs herein expended, and such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT X - CONSTRUCTIVE TRUST (AS TO SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT)

85. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 79 through 84 above.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the Court to declare and establish a constructive trust in favor of Plaintiff on the property described in paragraph 45 and Exhibit "B" attached hereto in an amount equal to the funds wrongfully diverted and on all assets of Defendants or third parties as yet unknown, which assets have been purchased wholly or partly, improved or mortgaged by the diversion of said funds due Plaintiff. Plaintiff further prays for an award of court costs and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

JURY DEMAND

86. Plaintiff reiterates his demand for trial by jury on all issues so triable.

Re: William (Bill) Stansbury

Dear Mr. Bernstein:

Main Office:

Of Counsel

3615 Boynton Beach Blvd.

Boynton Beach, FL 33436

Peter M. Feaman, Esq.

Nancy E. Guffey, Esq.

The undersigned represents William (Bill) Stansbury and we are writing this letter on his behalf. Mr. Stansbury received your proposed letter agreement reflecting LIC Holdings' proposal to indemnify its shareholders concerning policies sold under the Cambridge Financing Program. As a result of your proposal, Mr. Stansbury has reviewed with me in detail his dealings with you and your companies over the past 4 to 5 years.

After reviewing the facts with Mr. Stansbury, some of which will be summarized below, I was shocked that he had not consulted legal counsel until now. Be that as it may, and based upon the facts presented to us, we believe you have engaged in fraud, civil theft, breaches of fiduciary duties, and breach of contract, just to name a few. The purpose of this letter is to a). respond to your indemnity proposal and b). request that you pass this letter on to your counsel immediately in the off-chance that these very serious matters can be resolved prior to the filing of legal action. The issues can be summarized as follows:

1. The first issue concerns you and your company's failure to pay salary compensation to Mr. Stansbury. Mr. Stansbury has been making inquiries concerning this for the past 5 months, but to no avail. Mr. Stansbury's claim for unpaid salary arises from three categories:

a. Failure to pay salary based on net retained commissions.

i. Based upon reports prepared by your company for the period of 2007 through 2011, LIC Holdings, Inc. and/or Arbitrage International Holdings, n/k/a Arbitrage International Management, LLC, received $35,384,246.00 in net retained commissions. According to Mr. Stansbury's salary arrangement, he is entitled to 15% of those net retained commissions, which amounts to $5,307,636.90. During this time period, Mr. Stansbury's salary compensation was $2,844,910.00. The shortfall in salary owed to Mr. Stansbury is $2,462,726.90.

ii. There is salary compensation owed to Mr. Stansbury as a result of bridge loans in 2008. You received a $2,000,000.00 settlement in 2010 resulting from the resolution of a lawsuit involving Global Secured Capital. Mr. Stansbury is entitled to 15% of those funds, which is $300,000.00.

iii. In addition, you received $507,891.00 in commissions in connection with the Biviano matter. Mr. Stansbury is entitled to 15% of those funds, which is $76,183.65.

iv. In April of 2012, you received three commissions totaling approximately $200,000.00 in the Levine, Wiss and Berley matters. Mr. Stansbury has been requesting payment of this for weeks, again to no avail. Mr. Stansbury is due salary compensation for these items in the amount of $30,000.00.

Therefore, Mr. Stansbury's total claim for salary arising out of net retained commissions is approximately $2,868,910.55.

The liability for payment of this salary is not limited to LIC Holdings, Inc. or Arbitrage International Management, LLC. This liability also flows to you individually as a result of your breaches of your fiduciary duty owed to Mr. Stansbury and utter failure to abide by corporate governance standards, which conduct is more particularly described below.

b. Mr. Stansbury is also due unpaid salary based on 15% of all renewal commissions since 2008. Mr. Stansbury's salary claim for renewal commissions cannot as yet be determined with specificity due to the fact that you and your office have been opening mail directed to Mr. Stansbury and negotiating checks made payable to him by falsifying his endorsement and depositing those checks into accounts which only you control. This conduct constitutes civil theft and breach of fiduciary duty. We believe this claim amounts to hundreds of thousands of dollars.

c. Salary compensation for 2008. Mr. Stansbury has recently learned that you and Mr. Simon Bernstein received $8,982,124.00 in salary in 2008. By contrast, Mr. Stansbury received $420,018.00, paid to him in January 2008, based on policies sold in 2007. He received zero (no salary compensation) for his 2008 production. It is obvious that you and Simon treated your corporations as personal ATM machines, while completely ignoring your fiduciary Case: 17-3595 Document: 12-11 Filed: 03/12/2018 Pages: 1000 responsibilities to your employee and minority shareholder, Mr. Stansbury. It further appears that after the exorbitant salaries were paid to you, you then loaned the money back to the corporation at an interest rate significantly above market rates in order to meet the cash flow needs of the various entities, again, clearly disregarding your corporate governance responsibilities.

2. Indemnification issues.

Mr. Stansbury has been served with three lawsuits from Phoenix Insurance Company and one from Mr. Wright seeking indemnification as a result of agent misconduct which was in no way attributable to the conduct of Mr. Stansbury. Although all of these matters have been settled, because he was the qualifying agent of record for other policies, he could be the subject of future litigation for refunds of commissions paid. All of these commissions were paid over to you or your companies.

The Indemnification Agreement which you sent to Mr. Stansbury is completely insufficient. You have a duty as a matter of law to indemnify Mr. Stansbury. Your offer of future indemnity is contingent upon "all" commissions that have been received by LIC's present or past shareholders be turned over to LIC. This is nothing short of extortion. Further, your second paragraph states that LIC is "presently insolvent" and has a "negative net worth." You then conclude with the sentence that with the indemnification agreement in place, LIC "may" have sufficient funds to meet its current obligations. Therefore, a simple indemnification from LIC Holdings to Mr. Stansbury is insufficient. Any such indemnification would have to be personally guaranteed by you and Mr. Simon Bernstein.

3. Unauthorized interception of U.S. Mail.

I have been given the understanding that your office has been opening mail directed to Mr. Stansbury personally. This is a federal offense and also constitutes a breach of the fiduciary duty you owe to Mr. Stansbury as an employee and minority shareholder.

There has been no accounting to Mr. Stansbury for any of the checks which may have been sent to him personally on which his signature has been forged, the checks cashed and placed out of the reach of Mr. Stansbury. In 2012, Mr. Stansbury has been receiving checks from Phoenix Life Insurance Company and TransAmerica Life Insurance Company. Mr. Stansbury has been holding these checks. They have now been remitted to the undersigned as attorney for Mr. Stansbury. This office is holding these funds in a separate interest-bearing trust account pending the resolution of this matter.

With regard to all of the other insurance companies for whom Mr. Stansbury is listed as the qualifying agent, he has now informed those companies that all future renewal commissions paid to him personally be sent to Mr. Stansbury at his home address. These funds will then be remitted to the undersigned counsel of record for Mr. Stansbury. We will place these funds in a separate interest-bearing trust account as well. Any attempts by you to contact these insurance Case: 17-3595 Document: 12-11 Filed: 03/12/2018 Pages: 1000 companies will be considered a tortious interference of his business relationship and such activity will be added as a claim in any future legal proceedings.

4. Shareholder status.

Mr. Stansbury has been a 10% shareholder of LIC Holdings, Inc., pursuant to the terms of a Shareholders Agreement. On behalf of Mr. Stansbury, demand is hereby made, pursuant to Florida Statute 607.1602, for inspection of the corporate records including the following:

I. Minutes of the Board of Directors meetings from January 1, 2008 to the present.

II. Minutes of Shareholders' meetings from January 1, 2008 to the present.

III. Records of any actions taken by the Shareholders and/or the Board of Directors without a meeting, from January 1, 2008 to the present.

IV. Accounting and financial records of LIC Holdings, Inc., Arbitrage International Management, LLC, formerly known as Arbitrage International Holdings, LLC, and all other subsidiary or affiliated companies under your control, including, without limitation, income tax returns, general ledgers, balance sheets, profit and loss statements, stock books, bank statements, loan agreements or guarantees, and any other financial books and records from January 1, 2008 to the present.

Mr. Stansbury is seeking to inspect these records in good faith and for the purpose of determining if misappropriation of corporate assets for improper purposes has previously taken or is presently taking place.

I have been made aware of a letter dated December 22, 2011 in which Mr. Stansbury purportedly "ceded" his shares of stock in LIC Holdings, Inc. back to the company. This letter was obtained under false pretenses and is not recognized by Mr. Stansbury as validly conveying his ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc.

Please have your legal counsel contact us within ten (10) days. Should we fail to receive a response within that time, Mr. Stansbury will take legal action to protect his rights and interests.

Very truly yours,

By:

EXHIBIT "B"

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE 15TH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA

WILLIAM E. STANSBURY, Plaintiff,

v.

TED S. BERNSTEIN; DONALD TESCHER and ROBERT SPALLINA, as co-personal representatives of the ESTATE OF SIMON L. BERNSTEIN and as co-trustees of the SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT dated May 20, 2008; LIC HOLDINGS, INC.; ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, f/k/a ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, LLC; BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC,

Defendants.

SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT

WILLIAM E. STANSBURY, by and through undersigned counsel, sues the Defendants and states:

1. This is an action for money damages in excess of $15,000, and for equitable relief.

2. Plaintiff (hereinafter referred to as "STANSBURY") is sui juris, and a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida.

3. Defendant TED S. BERNSTEIN ("TED BERNSTEIN"), is sui juris, and a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida.

4. SIMON L. BERNSTEIN ("SIMON BERNSTEIN") died on or about September 13, 2012, after the filing of the initial Complaint in this action. At the time of his death, SIMON BERNSTEIN was sui juris, and was a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida. Defendants Donald R. Tescher and Robert L. Spallina are serving as co-personal representatives of the ESTATE OF SIMON L. BERNSTEIN (the "ESTATE")which ESTATE is presently open and pending in the Palm Beach County Circuit Court, In re: Estate of Simon L. Bernstein, Case No. 502012CP004391XXXXSB (the "Estate Proceeding"). In accordance with Section 733.705, Florida Statutes, STANSBURY hereby brings this independent action against the ESTATE with respect to his Statement of Claim that was filed and objected to in the Estate Proceeding.

5. Defendant, LIC HOLDINGS, INC. ("LIC Holdings") is a Florida corporation with its principal place of business in Palm Beach County, Florida.

6. Defendant, ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, formerly known as ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, LLC, ("ARBITRAGE") is a Florida limited liability company with its principal place of business in Palm Beach County, Florida.

7. Defendant, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC is a Florida limited liability company doing business in Palm Beach County.

8. Defendant, the SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT dated May 20, 2008 ("SHIRLEY'S TRUST"), owns real property in Palm Beach County, Florida. Based upon information and belief, Donald R. Tescher and Robert L. Spallina are serving as co-trustees of SHIRLEY'S TRUST. This Court has personal jurisdiction over the trustees and the beneficiaries of SHIRLEY'S TRUST under Section 736.0202, Florida Statutes, as the principal place of administration of SHIRLEY'S TRUST is in Palm Beach County, Florida. This court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action under Section 736.0203, Florida Statutes. Venue is proper in Palm Beach County, Florida, under Section 736.0204, Florida Statutes, as the principal place of administration of SHIRLEY'S TRUST is in Palm Beach County, Florida and one or more of the beneficiaries of SHIRLEY'S TRUST reside in Palm Beach County, Florida.

9. The acts and incidents giving rise to the causes of action alleged herein arose in Palm Beach County, Florida.

General Allegations

10. STANSBURY has worked in the insurance industry for virtually all of his adult life. After 30 years, he had become well-known and highly regarded by major insurance companies, their principals and others throughout the insurance industry, at all levels thereof, as well as by professionals, including attorneys, CPA's, financial advisors, wealth managers and others who were involved in serving, or otherwise dealing with insurers, insurance brokers and life insurance products.

11. SIMON BERNSTEIN dealt at sophisticated levels of the insurance industry and specialized in developing and marketing insurance concepts suitable for persons of high net worth to incorporate into their wealth management and estate planning.

12. TED BERNSTEIN, the son of SIMON BERNSTEIN, was also actively involved in selling life insurance products in conjunction with attorneys, CPAs and other professionals, to be incorporated into high net worth individuals' financial and estate planning.

13. TED BERNSTEIN, acting on his behalf and on behalf of, and in concert with, SIMON BERNSTEIN, approached STANSBURY, urging STANSBURY to spearhead the marketing of a unique insurance concept, newly developed by a prominent law firm, which was designed for use in the financial and estate planning of high net worth individuals.

14. TED BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that he knew of STANSBURY's expertise and reputation in the insurance and related industries, and that STANSBURY was skilled at and accustomed to speaking and marketing insurance products to groups of professionals. He realized that STANSBURY, because of his knowledge, reputation and abilities, would be well suited to market this concept nationwide through prominent and experienced professionals. · · ·

15. In 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN (collectively, "BERNSTEIN" or the "BERNSTEINS") formed, as sole shareholders, Defendants LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE for the purpose of marketing and selling certain life insurance products to high net worth individuals for their wealth management and estate planning needs.

16. STANSBURY agreed to become an employee of LIC Holdings, Inc. and ARBITRAGE and agreed to a salary of 15% of net commissions received on all products sold, including renewals. STANSBURY at this time was responsible for calculating, on a monthly basis, the commissions earned by him in connection with new business generated in the current year and renewals on business generated in previous years.

17. STANSBURY worked with diligence and skill, traveling throughout the United States, generating ever-increasing sales and generating very large commissions. By 2006, nationwide sales were resulting in substantial commissions on new policies and renewal commissions.

18. Also in 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN, acting on his behalf and on behalf of, and in concert with, TED BERNSTEIN, told STANSBURY that STANSBURY was being rewarded for his efforts and the explosive growth of the business, such that he would receive a 10% ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, collectively, were majority shareholders while STANSBURY was a minority shareholder in LIC Holdings, Inc.

19. In February of 2008, SIMON BERNSTEIN, acting on his behalf and on behalf of, and in concert with, TED BERNSTEIN, approached STANSBURY and told him his time would be better spent building the business rather than performing monthly calculations of income. The plan proposed was that, rather than STANSBURY performing computations on a monthly basis as to how much should be paid to him based upon 15% of the commissions derived from both policies sold by STANSBURY and renewals from previous years, the BERNSTEINS and STANSBURY all would forego monthly payouts and defer compensation until the end of 2008, when year-end computations could be made. It was represented that in December, year-end computations would be made and salaries would be paid in December 2008 or January of 2009. It was specifically represented to STANSBURY that:

a) neither SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN nor STANSBURY would take any compensation during fiscal year 2008 but rather they all would wait until the yearend accounting was performed in December of 2008 or January, 2009;

b) SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN, and STANSBURY would each be paid a minimum salary of $1,000,000 at year end, and STANSBURY'S salary was to be applied against his earned commissions of 15%. Any compensation due STANSBURY over and above the $1,000,000 would be paid as a distribution on his stock ownership interest in LIC Holdings.

20. In January of 2008, STANSBURY was paid $420,018 for commissions earned on 2007 sales, but his share of renewal commissions paid to LIC Holdings or ARBITRAGE in 2007 for sales made in previous years by STANSBURY was not paid to him. STANSBURY also was and has never been paid the commissions earned on sales made by STANSBURY in 2008 and thereafter, and has never been paid the renewal commissions earned on sales made in previous years by STANSBURY that were paid to LIC Holdings or ARBITRAGE in 2008 and thereafter.

21. When STANSBURY was not paid as agreed in late 2008/2009 and thereafter, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, on behalf of and in concert with each other, stated to STANSBURY that salary and ownership distributions due and owing to SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN and STANSBURY would be deferred to a future time because it was necessary to retain the funds in the corporate bank accounts to demonstrate to potential lenders the financial stability of the companies.

22. The false statements set forth in paragraphs 18 through 21, above, were made by SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, in concert with each other, with knowledge of their falsity and with the intention never to fulfill such promises.

23. Despite the representations to STANSBURY set forth above to the contrary, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, authorized LIC Holdings and/or Arbitrage to pay them $3,756,229.00 and $5,225,825.00, respectively, in 2008. Notwithstanding the amount referenced in paragraph 20, STANSBURY received no compensation for commissions earned and renewal commission earned in 2008.

24. The net retained commissions by LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, not including renewals, for 2008 were approximately $13,442,549.00. As such, STANSBURY was entitled to, at the very minimum, 15% of $13,442,549.00, or $2,016,382.35.

25. Beginning late in 2007 or early in 2008, and continuing through at least 2012, LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE became the alter ego of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as officers and majority shareholders, in that they disregarded corporate structure and wrongfully diverted, converted and depleted corporate assets of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE for their own personal benefit and the benefit of Bernstein family trusts and other entities as more specifically set forth below. Those trusts have since invested these wrongfully diverted and converted corporate assets in real estate, also as more particularly set forth below. The wrongful action of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN in diverting and converting corporate assets rendered LIC Holdings insolvent. 26. Throughout 2009, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN continued to make false statements to STANSBURY to hide the fact that LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE was their alter ego, in that they converted corporate property and corporate assets of LIC and/or ARBITRAGE for their own personal benefit by withdrawing millions in 2008, 2009 and thereafter, all to the exclusion and financial detriment of STANSBURY, and despite fraudulently representing to STANSBURY that no money was being paid as salary or distributions to SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN or STANSBURY because it was necessary to hold the funds in the corporate bank accounts to show to potential lenders the financial stability of the company.

27. STANSBURY relied upon these continuing misrepresentations of Defendants to his detriment. Because STANSBURY was told that potential funding sources for the business needed to see that capital of the company was available, he took no action when he did not receive any compensation for 2009 and was paid only $30,000 in 2010.

28. In order to continue their scheme to defraud, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN failed and refused to account for renewal commissions and failed to supply any financial information to STANSBURY concerning LIC Holdings or ARBITRAGE.

29. In furtherance of their scheme to deprive STANSBURY of salary he had earned and shareholder distributions to which he was entitled, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN intercepted mail addressed to STANSBURY, removing commission checks representing commissions due to STANSBURY, deposited the funds into their own accounts and otherwise converted the funds. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN also opened STANSBURY's mail containing checks payable to him which were unrelated to them and the businesses.

30. In 2011, the Defendants BERNSTEIN decided to deceive STANSBURY further. STANSBURY had for years been given K-1 statements reflecting his 10% ownership of LIC Holdings. At the end of 2011, TED BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that the company accountant had discovered a taxable event which could cause STANSBURY, as an owner of LIC Holdings to pay taxes on phantom income. TED BERNSTEIN promised that if STANSBURY would sign a paper ceding his 10% interest in LIC Holdings, he would not have to pay the tax. TED BERNSTEIN promised he would hold the paper, promising it would not become operative until STANSBURY and the Defendants BERNSTEIN discussed the situation further in the first quarter of 2012.

31. Because of the misrepresentations, willful concealments of material facts, duplicity and deceit practiced by Defendants upon STANSBURY, STANSBURY reasonably believed that Defendants had complied, or intended to comply with their obligations to STANSBURY under the contract between them. STANSBURY, therefore, was prevented from knowing for a period of years that the causes of action ASSERTED HEREIN existed.

32. By the second quarter of 2012, STANSBURY developed the belief that the BERNSTEINS' representations over the years were wholly false and he sought legal counsel.

33. STANSBURY has retained the law firm of Peter M. Feaman, P.A. and has agreed to pay it a reasonable fee for its services rendered herein.

COUNT I - ACCOUNTING (Against LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, for Accounting)

34. STANSBURY hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 33, inclusive.

35. The relationship between STANSBURY and the Defendants, particularly as affected by Defendants' acts described in preceding paragraphs 19 through 27 created a situation where Defendants had sole access to receipts generated by STANSBURY's efforts, and to books and records reflecting said receipts and the other information from which can be calculated all moneys due to STANSBURY under his arrangement with Defendants.

37. The period of time during which STANSBURY has been deprived of monies due him spans approximately four and a half years. The various sources of revenue to Defendants of monies from which the amounts due STANSBURY may be calculated, the manner in which STANSBURY was to be paid, and the amount due STANSBURY all involve extensive and complicated accounts, and STANSBURY's remedy at law cannot be as full, adequate and expeditious as it is in equity.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff STANSBURY prays for an adjudication of Plaintiff's right to a full and complete accounting from Defendants, LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, and for such orders of Court as will require such Defendants to provide STANSBURY with all records and copies of documents from January 1, 2006 to the present, in order to reveal his right to, and the amount of all sums: (a) received as commissions to which STANSBURY was entitled to a share; (b) due to STANSBURY, whether paid or not; (c) paid to STANSBURY, whether for commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason; (d) paid to each of the BERNSTEIN Defendants out of monies received as commissions; (e) deposits of any and all moneys received as commissions by any Defendants to any accounts, including the name of the entity whose account was involved, the number(s) of each such account; the address of the branch or other facility through which any Defendant dealt with such entity; (f) calculations as to moneys paid , to be paid, or not to be paid to STANSBURY, together with an award of court costs and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT II. BREACH OF ORAL CONTRACT (Against LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN)

38. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 37, inclusive.

39. The arrangement between STANSBURY and Defendants as described in paragraphs 16 and 24 above, constituted a contract between them.

40. An express term of that contract involved the commitment of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to calculate and pay to STANSBURY all sums due to him under the contract, whether as commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason.

41. The Defendants initially performed the duties required of them under said contract.

42. However, Defendants breached their contract with STANSBURY by withholding from STANSBURY monies due him under the contract.

43. The withholding of such monies constitutes a material breach of the contract between STANSBURY and LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

44. STANSBURY has sued both LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE because the BERNSTEINS represented that his employment relationship was with LIC Holdings, the company in which he owned a 10% interest, but STANSBURY'S W-2 statements were issued by ARBITRAGE as his employer.

45. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, are personally liable, jointly and severally, for the material breach of the oral employment contract with STANSBURY as LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE were the alter egos of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN in that the BERNSTEINS depleted corporate assets for personal benefit by causing the corporation or corporations to make exorbitant and inappropriate distributions to themselves, family members, and BERNSTEIN family trusts and other entities, at the expense of corporate creditors such as STANSBURY, to wit:

a) SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN caused LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE to pay to them at least $3,756,229.00 and $5,225,825.00, respectively, in fiscal 2008 during which time STANSBURY, other than the amount referenced in paragraph 20, was paid nothing for 2008;

b) According to Palm Beach County public records, in December of 2007 TED BERNSTEIN purchased a property at 880 Berkeley Street, Boca Raton, Florida, 33487, for $4,400,000;

c) According to Palm Beach County public records, on December 28, 2008, TED BERNSTEIN paid off the mortgage in the amount of $486,400.00 on a property he owned at 15807 Menton Bay Court, Saturnia Isles, Delray Beach, Florida, 33446;

d) According to Palm Beach County public records, SIMON BERNSTEIN paid off the mortgage on property he and his wife owned, and subsequently transferred by quitclaim deed on May 20, 2008 to the trustee of SHIRLEY'S TRUST, at 7020 Lions Head Lane, Boca Raton, Florida, 33496. The amount of the mortgage pay-off is unknown, but in 2013 the property was listed for sale at $2,399,000;

e) According to Palm Beach County public records, on June 18, 2008, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC acquired a property located at 2753 N.W. 34 Street, Boca Madera Unit 2, Boca Raton, Florida 33432 (the "Boca Madera Property). On July 8, 2008, SIMON BERNSTEIN loaned $365,000 to BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC. The specific purpose of the loan is unknown, but SIMON BERNSTEIN received a mortgage on the Boca Madera Property to secure the loan;

f) According to Palm Beach County public records, on May 20, 2008 SIMON BERNSTEIN and his wife transferred by quitclaim deed to the trustee of SHIRLEY'S TRUST a 4,220 square foot oceanfront condominium unit in a complex known as "The ARAGON" in Boca Raton, located at 2494 So. Ocean Boulevard, Boca Raton, Florida. The mortgage on that property was paid off on September 27, 2010.

46. There is due to STANSBURY from such Defendants all amounts due under said contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN declaring that Defendants, LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, are the alter ego of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, and a judgment against Defendants, LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, in excess of $1,500,000.00 for the amounts due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest, court costs and such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT III. FRAUD IN THE INDUCEMENT- EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (Against TED BERNSTEIN AND SIMON BERNSTEIN)

47. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 46, inclusive.

48. At all material times hereto, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN were officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

49. The statements set forth in paragraphs 18 through 24, above, made by SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, on behalf of and in concert with each other, and as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, were false statements of material fact that SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN knew to be false at the time they were made, and SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN never intended to authorize LIC Holdings or ARBITRAGE to pay to STANSBURY the amounts due him as evidenced by the fact that the accountant for LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE prepared financial statements for 2008 showing that the BERNSTEINS would receive compensation, but STANSBURY would not, for fiscal 2008, in direct contravention to their statements and promises to STANSBURY.

50. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN intended for STANSBURY to rely on such statements that he would be ultimately be paid for his productivity in order to induce him into continuing his productive and revenue-generating sales activity as an employee of LIC Holding and/or ARBITRAGE and fraudulently created for STANSBURY the false expectation that STANSBURY would be paid as agreed.

51. STANSBURY in fact relied to his detriment on these false statements and was induced thereby to remain in his employment relationship with LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE as he continued to sell products and generate revenue for LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE until 2012.

52. STANSBURY was injured thereby as he was not and has not been compensated for his revenue-generating sales performance, and did not seek alternative employment, as a proximate result of his detrimental reliance on these false statements.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, for damages in excess of $1,500,000.00 together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest, court costs and such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper. STANSBURY reserves the right to move to amend to request punitive damages in accordance with Florida Law.

COUNT IV. FRAUD IN THE INDUCEMENT-CEDING OF LIC HOLDINGS OWNERSHIP INTEREST (Against Ted Bernstein and LIC Holdings, Inc.)

53. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 52, inclusive.

54. In the fourth quarter of 2011, TED BERNSTEIN embarked upon a plan to defraud from STANSBURY his 10% ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc. As set forth in paragraph 31 above Defendant TED BERNSTEIN fraudulently induced STANSBURY to prepare and sign a document giving up his 10% interest in and to LIC Holdings, Inc.

55. The ceding of his shares in LIC Holdings, Inc. was procured by fraud and STANSBURY relied upon the representations made by BERNSTEIN with regard to signing the document apparently ceding his stock.

56. It was reasonable for STANSBURY to rely on the representations made by BERNSTEIN because at that time STANSBURY was unaware of the breaches of fiduciary duty and breaches of the oral contract that had taken place.

57. As a result of STANSBURY's reliance, STANSBURY has been damaged by the loss of 10% of the shares of LIC Holdings and the rights and remedies to a shareholder related thereto.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for a judgment for damages against Defendants BERNSTEIN and LIC Holdings, Inc. for the damages caused by the fraudulent conduct of BERNSTEIN as described herein, together with reasonable costs, pre-judgment interest and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT V. CIVIL THEFT (Against ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MARKETING, LLC)

58. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 57, inclusive.

59. This is an action for Civil Theft under Chapter 772, Florida Statutes, more specifically §772.11, Fla.Stat.

60. In February, 2012 and March, 2012, Defendant ARBITRAGE intercepted two separate checks made payable to William STANSBURY intended as payment to STANSBURY for matters arising wholly outside his business transactions with the BERNSTEINS, LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

61. Notwithstanding that the checks made payable to William STANSBURY was for sums due STANSBURY by a third party not in connection with the aforesaid business transactions, ARBITRAGE and/or someone acting on its behalf, caused the negotiation of STANSBURY's checks, wrongfully endorsing the checks and retaining the sums that should have been payable to STANSBURY.

62. As a result of the foregoing, Defendant ARBITRAGE has been guilty of criminal theft by conversion with the criminal intent to steal his money and deprive STANSBURY of his possession and use thereof.

63. Written demand for payment of all amounts due STANSBURY has been made to Defendants, more than 30 days preceding the filing of this Complaint, to no avail. A copy of the demand letter is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendant, ARBITRAGE for three times the full amount of the check made payable to STANSBURY, together with pre-judgment interest and post-judgment interest, attorneys' fees, court costs and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT VI. CONVERSION

64. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 60 through 65, inclusive.

65. Further, during 2012, Defendants' TED BERNSTEIN, SIMON BERNSTEIN, LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE, or someone acting on their behalves, received and cashed in excess of $30,000.00 worth of commissions checks otherwise payable to Plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment for damages against Defendant, ABRITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN, LIC Holdings, Inc. and TED BERNSTEIN, together with pre-judgment interest and post-judgment interest, court costs and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT VII. EQUITABLE LIEN

66. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, paragraphs 1 through 65, above.

67. Defendants, SIMON BERNSTEIN and/or TED BERNSTEIN wrongfully diverted funds from LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE that rightfully should have been paid to STANSBURY pursuant to their oral agreement.

68. Upon information and belief, SIMON BERNSTEIN and/or TED BERNSTEIN, or both, wrongfully diverted funds from LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE and acquired and/or maintained or improved property located at 7020 Lion's Head Lane, Boca Raton, Florida, legally described as

Lot 781, St. Andrews Country Club (a PUD) Plat No. 14 according to the plat thereof recorded in Plat Book 57, Page 132 of the public records of Palm Beach County, Florida.

69. Further, upon information and belief, as a result of the funds being wrongfully diverted from LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE, which otherwise rightfully belonged to and should have been paid to STANSBURY, the property legally described as

Lot 68, Block G Boca Madeira, Unit 2 according to the plat thereof recorded in Plat Book 32, Pages 59 and 60 of the public records of Palm Beach County, Florida, with a property address of 2753 NW 34 Street, Boca Raton, Florida, was encumbered with a mortgage representing wrongfully diverted funds which were loaned in the form of a second mortgage to Defendant, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC, a Florida limited liability company.

70. Upon information and belief, as a result of the funds being wrongfully diverted from LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE which otherwise should have been paid to STANSBURY, such funds were used to satisfy a mortgage for the benefit of TED BERNSTEIN on property legally described as

Lot 139, Saturnia Isles, Plat One, recorded in Plat Book 91 at Page 108 of the property records of Palm Beach County, Florida, with a property address of 15807 Menton Bay Court, Delray Beach, Florida

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the Court to declare and establish an equitable lien in favor of Plaintiff in an amount equal to the funds wrongfully diverted, on the property described herein, and on all other assets of Defendants or third parties as yet unknown, which assets have been purchased wholly or in part, improved or benefitted by the diverted funds due Plaintiff, together with court costs and such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT VIII. CONSTRUCTIVE TRUST

71. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 7_____ through 7___ above.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the Court to declare and establish a constructive trust in favor of Plaintiff on the property described in paragraphs _____ through _____ in an amount equal to the funds wrongfully diverted and on all assets of Defendants or third parties as yet unknown, which assets have been purchased wholly or partly, improved or mortgaged by the diversion of said funds due Plaintiff. Plaintiff further prays for an award of court costs and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

THIS CAUSE having come before the Court on January 14, 2013, on Defendants' Motion to Dismiss Or, In The Alternative, Motion For More Definite Statement (the "Motion"), and Plaintiff's Response in Opposition to the Motion, and the Court having heard argument of counsel, and being otherwise fully advised, does hereby

ORDER and ADJUDGE:

1. Defendants' Motion to Dismiss Count I is hereby DENIED.

2. Defendants' Motion to Dismiss Count III is hereby GRANTED without prejudice.

3. Defendants' Motion to Dismiss Count V is hereby GRANTED without prejudice.

4. Defendants' Motion to Dismiss Count VI is hereby GRANTED without prejudice.

5. Defendants' Motion to Dismiss Count VII is hereby GRANTED without prejudice.

6. Plaintiff has agreed to voluntarily withdraw Count II (Accounting - Against Ted Bernstein and Simon Bernstein), Count IV (Breach of Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing - Against All Defendants), Count VIII (Equitable Lien - Against All Defendants), Count IX (Contract Implied in Law - Against All Defendants), Count X (Constructive Trust - Against All Defendants) and Count XI (Indemnification - Against All Defendants) without prejudice.

7. That part of the Motion to Dismiss asserting the Statute of Limitations is hereby denied.

8. The Court finds that Defendants' request for legal fees and costs under Florida Statute §§ 772.11 and 812.035(7) due to the Court's dismissal of Count VI (Civil Theft) with leave to amend is premature at this time.

9. Plaintiff shall have twenty (20) days from the date of this Order to amend his Complaint.

RESPONSE OF PLAINTIFF WILLIAM E. STANSBURY TO DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO DISMISS OR, IN THE ALTERNATIVE, MOTION FOR MORE DEFINITE STATEMENT

Plaintiff WILLIAM E. STANSBURY, through undersigned counsel, hereby responds to Defendants' Motion to Dismiss or, in the Alternative, Motion for More Definite Statement, and states:

1. General Response

When considering a Motion to Dismiss, the standard to be applied by the trial court is that every allegation must be accepted as true, and every inference must be drawn in favor of the Plaintiff; the pleader is only required to set forth "a short and plain statement of the ultimate facts showing that the pleader is entitled to relief." See, Rule 1.110(b), Fla. R.Civ. P.

The facts pled in the Complaint that support the various legal theories set forth in each Count are contained in paragraphs 8 through 25 of the Complaint. They establish that:

• Plaintiff was an employee and minority owner of LIC Holdings, Inc. (LIC); he was promised but not paid compensation that he was due for the years 2008 through 2011; and he was denied promised profit distributions on his 10% ownership interest. See, paragraphs 13, 18, 20 21 and 22.

- That the officers of Defendants LIC and Arbitrage International Management (AIM), Simon and Ted Bernstein, made false and mislcading representations to Plaintiff with respect to the compensation and distributions due him by falsely stating, among other things, that Defendants Bernstein as well as Plaintiff were not receiving full compensation when, in fact, Defendants Bernstein were being fully paid. See, paragraphs 21, 22 and 25.
- This concealment and other representations, and reliance thereon, induced Plaintiff to delay pursuing his rights until he did so by the filing of the Complaint in 2012. See, paragraph 25.

Plaintiff's Complaint clearly sets forth the ultimate facts supporting Plaintiff's claims against the Defendants. The Defendants' assertion that the Plaintiff's factual allegations as "confusing," "riddled with ambiguities," "vague," and "contradictory" (which they are not) is simply wrong.

2. The Statute of Limitations Does Not Bar Plaintiff's Claims. Defendants seek to dismiss the Counts alleging Accounting (Counts I and II), Breach of Oral Contract (Count III), Breach of Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing (Count IV), Breach of Fiduciary Duty (Count V), Fraud (Count VII), Equitable Lien (Count VIII), Contract Implied in Law (Count IX) and Constructive Trust (Count X) on the ground that these claims are barred by the four-year statute of limitations found in §95.11(3) Fla. Stat. (2012). Defendants contend the limitations period began to run prior to July 31, 2008 based solely on Plaintiff's allegation that Simon Bernstein made certain representations to him in "early 2008" (Complaint, Par. 21) and that Plaintiff represented that he had been deprived of his money due him for "approximately four and a half years" (Complaint, Par. 28). These statements, according to the Defendants, 2 somehow indicate that Plaintiff was aware of his claims prior to July 31, 2008, and thus they are now time barred.

Defendants' argument is fatally flawed for several reasons:

(a) These averments in the Complaint are clearly retrospective recollections made by Plaintiff as to the sequence of events that ultimately gave rise to his claims. They do not suggest that, at the time, Plaintiff realized, or should have realized, that any conduct by the Defendants was actionable.

(b) Defendants ignore the allegations of Paragraph 22 of the Complaint:

22. Through misrepresentations made from 2008 through the date of filing of this Complaint, Defendants knowingly made false statements to Plaintiff to hide their scheme to withhold from Plaintiff money to which he was entitled. For example, at times they claimed that money being received was not being paid as salary or distributions to either of Defendants BERNSTEIN but was being withheld and placed in a company account, for eventual distribution. As Plaintiff and Defendants could afford to wait until year's end to be paid their distributions, and as Defendants BERNSTEIN assured Plaintiff that the payment arrangement would apply to all three equally, Plaintiff did not question the truthfulness of their representations (emphasis added).

In light of these allegations, three things are readily apparent. First, Plaintiff has alleged that, due to the representations of the Bernstein Defendants, he was pursuaded to wait until the end of the year 2008 to be paid. As a result, the statute of limitations would not begin to run, at the earliest, until sometime after January 1, 2009 when he was not paid as promised. Therefore, these claims are timely filed. Secondly, Plaintiff is alleging he was induced to his detriment into delaying action on the Defendants failure to pay him by the false and fraudulent misrepresentations of the Bernsteins. Fraudulent misrepresentations operate to toll the statute of limitations. See, San Pedro v. San Pedro, 910 So. 2d 426, 430 (Fla. 4th DCA 2005). Further, if there is some question as to when the applicable statute of limitations began to run in this case, the commencement date is a fact question for the trier of fact to resolve. See, J.A. Cantor Associates, Inc. v. Brenner, 363 So. 2d 204 (Fla. 3d DCA 1978).

For the foregoing reasons, Defendant's Motion to Dismiss based on the statute of limitations should be denied.

3. Allegations Against Ted Bernstein Personally for Accounting

The allegations contained in paragraphs 11 through 25 of the Complaint clearly establish that the Bernstein Defendants and Ted Bernstein in particular, engaged in a campaign of misrepresentation and deceit with respect to their interaction and dealings with Plaintiff on compensation and ownership distribution issues. The Plaintiff admits, however, at least at this time, that the allegations against Ted Bernstein individually, as to an Accounting, as set forth in Count II, may be premature. As such, Plaintiff agrees to voluntarily dismiss that Count, without prejudice, at this time.

4. Dismissal of Count I for an Accounting Against LIC and AIM is Not Warranted.

The test in Bankers Trust Realty, Inc. v. Kluger, 672 So. 2d 897 (Fla. 3d DCA 1996), as set forth in Defendants' Motion, requires Plaintiff to allege that: 1) Plaintiff and Defendant shared a fiduciary relationship OR entered a complex transaction, and 2) a remedy at law is inadequate. Plaintiff contends that the parties entered into a complex transaction, and Plaintiff has alleged the existence of a fiduciary relationship (see, Count V). Plaintiff has also alleged that a remedy at law is inadequate (see, Count I, par. 28). As such, Plaintiff has met the pleading requirements of Kluger and has stated a cause of action for an accounting against the Corporate Defendants.

5. Plaintiff's claim for Breach of Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing (Count IV) Will Be Dismissed at This Time without Prejudice

6. Breach of Fiduciary Duty (Count V), Civil Theft (Count VI) and Fraud (Count VII) Are Not Barred by the Economic Loss Rule

Claims for Breach of Fiduciary Duty and Civil Theft are causes of action arising under statutory law. The alleged Breach of fiduciary duty claim made by Plaintiff against the Defendants is supported by Florida law, including the fiduciary obligations of corporate officers and directors, which are specifically set forth in Florida Statutes §607, et seq. Civil Theft is articulated in Florida Statutes §772.11 (Complaint, Par. 48). The Plaintiff's Complaint has clearly stated a claim under that statute. The Supreme Court of Florida has unequivocally stated that the economic loss rule cannot be used to eliminate statutory causes of action. See, Comptech International, Inc. v. Milam Commerce Park, LTD, 753 So. 2d 1219 (Fla. 1999). Moreover, the economic loss rule does not abolish the cause of action for breach of fiduciary duty, even if there is an underlying contract. See, Invo Florida, Inc. v. Somerset Venturer, Inc., 751 So. 2d 1263 (Fla. 3d DCA 2000).

As to Plaintiff's fraud claim against Defendants, the economic loss rule does not bar tort actions where a legal duty independent of the contract itself has been violated. HTP, Ltd. v. Lineas Aereas Costarricenses, S.A., 685 So. 2d 1238, 1239 (Fla. 1996). In addition to the contract claims alleged, Plaintiff has specifically alleged that the Defendants deceived him into surrendering his 10% ownership interest in LIC. The fraudulent misrepresentations and subsequent reliance by plaintiff constitute an independent claim that is not related to the contract. Therefore, the fraud claim is not barred by the economic loss rule.

7. The Breach of Fiduciary Duty (Count V) and Fraud (Count VII) Claims Should Not Be Dismissed.

For the reasons set forth in paragraphs 8 and 9 below, the Plaintiff's breach of fiduciary duty and fraud claims against the Defendants should clearly not be dismissed.

8. The Breach of Fiduciary Duty Claim (Count V) States a Cause of Action.

Florida law provides that corporate officers and directors owe a duty of loyalty and a duty of care to the corporation and its shareholders. Cohen v. Hattaway, 595 So.2d 105 (Fla. 5th DCA 1992). In particular, Fla. Stat. § 607.0830 provides:

- (1) A director shall discharge his or her duties as a director ...
 - (a) In good faith;
 - (b) With the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances; and
 - (c) In a manner he or she reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.

These fiduciary duties are generally described as the duties of care and the duty of loyalty. See, In re Aqua Clear Technologies, Inc., 361 B.R. 567, 575 (Bankr. S.D. Fla. 2007). Each of these duties is of equal and independent significance. Id. The duty of care requires the directors of a company to act on an informed basis. Id. The duty of loyalty requires the officer or director to act in good faith and in the best interests of the company. Fla. Stat. § 607.0830(1)(c); In re Aqua Clear Technologies, Inc., 361 B.R. 567. A corporate officer or director breaches the duty of loyalty if that person "depart[s] from his corporate responsibility and start[s] serving himself." In re Aqua Clear Technologies, Inc., 361 B.R. at 575, citing Intercarga Internacional de Carga, S.A. v. Harper Group. Inc., 659 So.2d 1208, 1210 (Fla. 3d DCA 1995). An officer or director may be held "strictly accountable and liable if corporate funds or property are wasted or mismanaged due to their inattention to their duties." Id.

Case: 1:13-cv-03643 Document #: 258-3 Filed: 08/27/16 Page 298 of 1000 PageID #:6738 Case: 17-3595 Document: 12-11 Filed: 03/12/2018 Pages: 1000

In this case, the Complaint specifically alleges that Simon and Ted Bernstein owned and controlled the corporate Defendants (LIC and AIM), worked closely together with respect thereto, and were one another's alter egos. (Complaint, Par. 6) As such, the Bernsteins are (or were at the time the claims arose – Simon Bernstein is now deceased) clearly both "officers and directors" of the corporate Defendants and exclusively made all decisions regarding the operations of these corporate Defendants. The Complaint also alleges that both Bernsteins made false and misleading misrepresentations to Plaintiff, an employee and minority shareholder of Defendant LIC, relating to Plaintiff's compensation and distributions on his ownership interest, and the Bernsteins falsely stated that their compensation was being withheld and maintained by the corporation, the same as Plaintiff's, when in reality they had paid themselves. (Complaint, Pars. 20, 22) It has also been alleged that the Bernsteins intercepted mail addressed to the Plaintiff and converted checks intended for Plaintiff for their own personal use or the use of the corporate Defendants. (Complaint, Par. 23) All these allegations were expressly incorporated by reference into Count V. (Complaint, Par. 41) This conduct clearly establishes a claim for breach of fiduciary duty as to the Bernsteins. As officers/directors, they failed to act in good faith and in the best interests of the company or its employee/minority shareholder, the Plaintiff, and breached their duty of loyalty when they departed from their corporate responsibilities and started serving themselves. Accordingly, Defendants' Motion to Dismiss the claim for breach of fiduciary duty should be denied.

9. The Civil Theft Claim (Count VI) States a Cause of Action.

As stated in Paragraph 8, above, the Complaint alleges that the Bernsteins intercepted mail addressed to the Plaintiff and converted checks intended for Plaintiff for their own personal use or the use of the corporate Defendants. (Complaint, Par. 23) All these allegations were expressly incorporated by reference into the Civil Theft claim, Count VI (Complaint, Par. 49) and were included in the all-inclusive references contained in Par. 50. Paragraph 51 makes specific reference to the Defendants' criminal intent consistent with Palmer v. Gotta Have It Golf Collectibles, Inc., 106 F. Supp.2d 1289 (S.D. Fla. 2000) a case cited and relied on by Defendants at p. 15 of Defendants' Motion. While not using the specific language "sophisticated scheme of deceit and theft," that is the gist of Plaintiff's claim as alleged in Paragraph 51 and in the Fraud claim, Count VII (Par. 58). Finally, other than the general allegation relating to the failure to pay due compensation, the allegation of specific, identifiable checks made payable to Plaintiff that were converted by the Bernstein defendants is sufficient to meet the "specific money capable of identification" requirement of Belford Trucking Company v. Zagar, 243 So. 2d 646, 648 (Fla. 4th DCA 1970), and cited in the Defendants' Motion at p. 15. For these reasons, the Motion to Dismiss the Civil Theft count should be denied.

10. The Fraud Claim (Count VII) States a Cause of Action

In order to sufficiently plead a fraud claim in Florida, the pleader must allege: a) a false representation of fact, known by the party making it to be false at the time it was made; (b) that the representation was made for the purpose of inducing another to act in reliance on it; (c) actual reliance on the representation; and (d) resulting in damage to the plaintiff. Essex Ins. Co., Inc. v. Universal Entertainment & Skating Center; Inc., 665 So. 2d 360 (Fla. 5th DCA 1995). See also, Peninsular Fla. Dist. Council of Assemblies of God v. Pan American Investment and Development Corp., 450 So. 2d 1231 (Fla. 4th DCA 1984).

In this case, Plaintiff's Complaint has alleged sufficient, particular facts to state a cause of action for fraud. Paragraphs 11 through 25 set out in detail the misrepresentations and falsehoods stated by the Bernstein Defendants in their interaction and business discussions with Plaintiff, all of which were incorporated by reference into the Count VII by Par. 53. Of particular interest is Paragraph 24, which alleges how Defendants deceived Plaintiff into surrendering his 10% interest in LIC, which he did. It is also alleged that the Defendants intended for Plaintiff to rely on the false statements (or omissions of fact), that these statements or omissions were material, that Plaintiff relied on these falsehoods and was damaged thereby. See, Complaint, Pars. 47, 56, 57. Plaintiff was damaged by these false representations when he was denied his due compensation and, more importantly, when he surrendered his ownership interest in the LIC. The Motion to Dismiss as to Count VII should be denied.

11. The Equitable Lien (Count VIII), Constructive Trust (Count X), the Contract Implied in Law (Count VIII), and the Indemnification (Count XI) Claim Will Be Dismissed At This Time Without Prejudice.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests this Honorable Court to deny Defendants' Motion to Dismiss as to Counts I, III, V, VI and VII, and such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.

TED S. BERNSTEIN, SIMON BERNSTEIN, LIC HOLDINGS, INC., and ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, L.L.C., f/k/a ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, L.L.C., MOTION TO DISMISS OR, IN THE ALTERNATIVE, MOTION FOR MORE DEFINITE STATEMENT

Defendants.

Defendants, TED S. BERNSTEIN ("Ted"), LIC HOLDINGS, INC. ("LIC"), and ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, L.L.C., f/k/a ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, L.L.C. ("AIM")¹, by and through their undersigned counsel, and pursuant to Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.140(b) and (e), hereby move to dismiss the Complaint filed by Plaintiff, William E. Stansbury ("Plaintiff" or "Stansbury"), for failure to state a cause of action, or, in the alternative, for a more definite statement, and for an award of attorneys' fees, and in support state:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. On July 30, 2012, Plaintiff filed his eleven (11) count Complaint against Defendants arising out of at least two (2) purported oral contracts allegedly entered into between

FTL108,918,112 4

¹ On September 19, 2012, Defendants Ted, LIC and AIM, pursuant to Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.260(a), served a Suggestion of Death for Defendant, Simon Bernstein ("Simon"). The undersigned law firm was retained by Simon prior to his passing and would have filed the instant motion on behalf of Simon had he not passed away. However, the undersigned has not been retained by Simon's estate as of the filing of this motion. In any event, Simon's death has the effect of an abatement and precludes the entry of a default against Simon's estate. Floyd v. Wallace, 339 So. 2d 653, 654-55 (Fla. 1976).

Plaintiff and LIC and/or AIM. Plaintiff's Complaint should be dismissed in its entirety because each count fails to allege a cause of action and the Complaint improperly lumps together all four (4) Defendants, in essence alleging that "everyone did everything" -- notwithstanding Plaintiff's own admissions that the alleged oral contracts were entered into by the "Corporate Defendants" (defined in the Complaint as LIC and AIM, collectively)², not the individual Defendants.

2. Further, Plaintiff's Complaint is confusing and is riddled with a multitude of ambiguities, as well as vague and contradictory allegations that make responding to the Complaint virtually impossible. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Complaint should be dismissed in its entirety, or, in the alternative, Plaintiff should be required to file a more definite statement as to any count not dismissed.

II. PLAINTIFF'S ALLEGATIONS

3. Plaintiff alleges, inter alia, that in 2003, Ted approached Plaintiff regarding "spearhead[ing] the marketing of an unique insurance concept . . . developed by a prominent law firm . . . designed for use in the financial and estate planning of wealthy individuals." Complaint at ¶ 11.

4. Sometime thereafter, Plaintiff alleges he worked as an independent contractor for the Corporate Defendants, receiving a portion of net retained commissions received by the Corporate Defendants from insurance companies and that the commissions were paid to him in 2005 in the form of two (2) 1099's. See Complaint at ¶¶ 13 and 16.

5. Plaintiff alleges that, in 2006, he became an "employee" and verbally agreed to a "salary of the equivalent of 15% of commissions received on all products." Complaint at $\P\P$ 13 and 17.

² See Complaint at ¶¶ 4, 13 and 16-17. Indeed, as currently pled, it is unclear from the complaint whether Stansbury is alleging he had oral contracts with both AIM and LIC and that each oral contract was amended in "early 2008".

6. Plaintiff admits that in 2006 he "received his agreed salary as an employee" and was paid by AIM. Complaint at ¶ 17.

Plaintiff further admits that he "received his agreed salary as an employee" in 2007. Complaint at ¶ 18.

8. Plaintiff alleges that in "early 2008" he agreed to forgo his 15% of net retained commissions salary in exchange for a $1,000,000 salary and a pro rata (10%) distribution of any profits going forward. See Complaint at ¶¶ 21 and 22.

9. Notwithstanding the allegations of paragraph 19, that Stansbury received his agreed salary as an employee in 2007, Plaintiff alleges that as of the filing of the complaint on July 30, 2012, he has been "deprived of moneys [sic] due him . . . [for] approximately four and a half years." Complaint at ¶ 22.

III. MOTION TO DISMISS

A. Counts I (Accounting), II (Accounting), III ((Breach of Oral Contract), IV (Breach of Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing), V (Breach of Fiduciary Duty), VII (Fraud), VIII (Equitable Lien), IX (Contract Implied in Law) and X Constructive Trust) of the Complaint are Barred by the Applicable Statute of Limitations and Should be Dismissed

10. Counts I (Accounting), II (Accounting), III (Breach of Oral Contract), IV (Breach of Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing), V (Breach of Fiduciary Duty), VII (Fraud), VIII (Equitable Lien), IX (Contract Implied in Law), and X (Constructive Trust) are barred in whole or in part by the applicable 4-year statute of limitations set forth in Fla. Stat. § 95.11(3).

11. Accepting Plaintiff's allegations as true for purposes of this Motion only, Plaintiff's various causes of actions accrued in "early 2008" when Plaintiff's alleged oral contract with LIC and/or AIM was modified from an agreement to receive a salary of 15% in net retained commissions to a 1,000,000 salary and a pro rata (10%) distribution of any profits going forward. Plaintiff concedes that he was paid his alleged agreed-upon commissions in 2005, 2006 and 2007. See Complaint at ¶¶ 13 and 16-18. Therefore, Plaintiff's alleged causes of actions can only be based upon the purported breach of the alleged modified oral contract(s) in 2008.

12. While Plaintiff's Complaint fails to specifically identify the precise date the breach of the alleged oral contract(s) occurred, it appears, based on Plaintiff's allegations, that the purported breach would have occurred in "early 2008". See Complaint at ¶¶ 22 and 28 (Plaintiff alleges that he has been "deprived of moneys [sic] due him . . . [for] approximately four and a half years.") (emphasis added).

13. Consequently, the statute of limitations expired on Plaintiff's various causes of action to the extent based upon claims accruing prior to July 31, 2008. Plaintiff, however, did not file his Complaint until July 30, 2012. Therefore, Counts I, II, III, IV, V, VI, VIII, IX and X should be dismissed as being barred by the statute of limitations.

B. Counts II (Accounting), III (Breach of Oral Contract) IV (Breach of Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing) and Count IX (Contract Implied in Law) Should Also be Dismissed Because Plaintiff Has Not Alleged Sufficient Facts to Assert Claims Against Ted in His Individual Capacity

14. Plaintiff's Complaint fails to specify how or why Ted is personally liable for the payment of an alleged obligation of either LIC and/or AIM to Plaintiff. Indeed, Plaintiff admits that he was an employee of the Corporate Defendants, he was paid by AIM and entered into the alleged oral contract(s), and subsequent modified oral contract(s), with LIC and/or AIM.

15. Plaintiff's theory upon which he attempts to sue Ted is unclear at best. Indeed, Plaintiff never alleges Ted was a party to the alleged oral contract(s) or that he agreed to be personally responsible for payment to Plaintiff. The Defendants and the Court should not be required to guess as to this fundamental matter, which is conspicuously absent from the Complaint.

16. In order to impose personal liability against Ted for breach of an oral contract(s) with the Corporate Defendants, breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing relating to the alleged oral contract(s), for an individual accounting, and a contract implied in law, Plaintiff must affirmatively allege that Ted acted in some capacity other than as a mere officer of the Corporate Defendants. See Superior Garlic International v. E&A Produce Corp., 913 So. 2d 645 (Fla. 3d DCA 2005) (claim against president of company was improper where there was no evidence that president acted in a personal capacity rather than as a officer).

17. Additionally, Plaintiff does not allege, nor can he, that any consideration flowed to Ted, individually. Without any consideration, there can be no enforceable contract. St. Joe Corp. v. McIver, 875 So. 2d 375 (Fla. 2004) (an oral contract is subject to the basic requirements of contract law, such as offer, acceptance, consideration and sufficient specification of essential terms).

18. Because there is no set of facts under which Plaintiff can state a cause of action against Ted, individually, Count II (Accounting), Count III (Breach of Oral Contract), Count IV (Breach of the Implied Covenant of Good Faith & Fair Dealing) and Count IX (Contract Implied in Law) should be dismissed as to Ted.

C. Counts I (Accounting Against LIC and AIM) and Count II (Accounting Against T. Bernstein and S. Bernstein) Should Also Be Dismissed Because Plaintiff's Allegations Are Inherently Contradictory and Plaintiff Fails to State a Cause of Action

19. In Counts I and II, Plaintiff seeks an accounting, dating back to 2003, against the Corporate Defendants and the individual Defendants, respectively. Aside from the fact that Plaintiff's Complaint is devoid of any allegations that Ted was a party to the alleged oral contract(s) between Plaintiff and one or both of the Corporate Defendants, or any other allegations under which Ted could be held individually liable for breach of the alleged oral contract(s) and a corresponding accounting, Plaintiff admits in paragraphs 16-19 -- which are expressly incorporated by reference into Count I -- that Plaintiff was properly paid through 2007.

20. Further, Plaintiff asserts in paragraph 28 of Count I and paragraph 31 of Count II that he is purportedly owed payment for "four and a half years" under an alleged oral contract. These allegations are both inconsistent with Plaintiff's demand for an accounting in both Counts I and II dating back to 2003 and are vague. See WHEREFORE clauses following ¶¶ 28 and 31. Accordingly, Counts I and II should be dismissed. See Peacock v. General Motors Acceptance Corp., 432 So. 2d 142, 146 (Fla. 1st DCA 1983)("contradictory allegations within a single count neutralize each other and render the count insufficient on its face", even where they are "incorporated in that count" from a prior count of the complaint).

21. Additionally, Counts I and II should be dismissed because Plaintiff's Complaint fails to allege the requisite elements for an accounting. To state a cause of action for an accounting, Plaintiff must allege that (1) the Plaintiff and Defendants shared a fiduciary relationship or entered a complex transaction and (2) a remedy at law is inadequate. See Bankers Trust Realty Inc. v. Kluge, 672 So. 2d 897, 898 (Fla. 3d DCA 1996). Here, although Plaintiff has inartfully and in confusing fashion alleged that the accounting required to assess what he is purportedly owed under the oral contract(s) is complex, that is irrelevant as the underlying transaction must be complex, which, even accepting Plaintiff's allegations, it is not. See Complaint ¶ 28 and 31. Moreover, Plaintiff's allegation that his "remedy at law could not be as full, adequate and expeditious as it is in equity" does not meet the second element required under Kluge. Plaintiff's failure to clearly plead and allege ultimate facts for either element warrants dismissal of Counts I and II.

D. Count IV (Breach of Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing) Should Be Dismissed Because It Fails to State a Claim and is Duplicative of Count III (Breach of Oral Contract)

22. "[A] claim for breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing cannot be maintained under Florida law absent an allegation that an express term of the contract has been breached. A duty of good faith must relate to the performance of an express term of the contract and is not an abstract and independent term of a contract which may be asserted as a source of breach ..." Insurance Concepts and Design, Inc. v. Healthplan Services, Inc., 785 So. 2d 1232, 1234 -1235 (Fla. 4th DCA 2001) (emphasis added).

23. "The duty of good faith does not attach until the Plaintiff can establish a [specific] term of the contract that [the defendant] was obligated to perform. Id.; see Onuss Ortak Nokta Uluslararasi Haberlesme Sistem Servis Bilgisayar Yazilim Danismanlik Ve Dis Ticaret v. Terminal Exch., LLC, No. 09-80720, 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 22216, at *9 (S.D. Fla. Mar. 10, 2010) (applying Florida law) ("The breach of implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing is not an independent cause of action but attaches to the performance of a specific contractual obligation.") (emphasis added). Citing then New Hampshire Supreme Court Justice Souter, the court in Cox v. CSX Intermodal, Inc., 732 So. 2d 1092 (Fla. 1st DCA 1999) explained the proper circumstances for applying the implied obligation of good faith and fair dealing.

[U]nder an agreement that appears by word or silence to invest one party with a degree of discretion in performance sufficient to deprive another party of a substantial portion of the agreement's value, the parties' intent to be bound by an enforceable contract raises an implied obligation of good faith to observe reasonable limits in exercising that discretion, consistent with the parties purpose or purposes in contracting.

Id. at 1097. The Cox Court concluded "where the terms of the contract afford a party substantial discretion to promote that party's self-interest, the duty to act in good faith nevertheless limits that party's ability to act capriciously to contravene the reasonable contractual expectations of the other party." Id. at 1097-98.

24. In Count IV of the Complaint, Plaintiff fails to allege an express term of the contract for which Defendants³ purportedly breached their implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing. Instead, Plaintiff generally alleges the terms of the alleged oral contract(s) and then concludes the Count by summarily stating: "Defendants willfully breached the said express [terms] of the contract."

25. It is insufficient, however, for Plaintiff to conclusorily allege that Defendants breached the terms of the contract. Plaintiff must pinpoint the express term of the contract upon which the purported cause of action relates. Accordingly, Count IV of the Complaint should be dismissed on this ground alone.

26. Count IV should also be dismissed as duplicative of Count III (Breach of Oral Contract). Florida law provides that "a breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing cannot be advanced when the allegations underlying that claim are duplicative of the allegations supporting the breach of contract claim." Onuss, at *10 (S.D. Fla. Mar. 10, 2010); see Enola Contr. Servs. v. URS Group, Inc., No. 5:08cv2-RS-EMT, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33441, at *18 (N.D. Fla. Apr. 23, 2008) (applying Florida law) (dismissing with prejudice breach of good faith and fair dealing claim where such claim was "indistinguishable from" and "subsumed within" the breach of contract claim); see also Shibata v. Lim, 133 F. Supp. 2d 1311, 1321-1322 (M.D. Fla. 2000) (applying Florida law) (dismissing breach of implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing claim because there was "no difference between the factual underpinnings of [the] breach of contract claim and [the] claim for breach of the implied covenant").

27. Here, Plaintiff's Breach of Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing alleges that "Defendants willfully breached the [following] said express [terms] of the contract": "that Plaintiff would be constantly apprised, either through being permitted to calculate all amounts due the Defendants [sic] out of commissions, or through being advised of all receipts of commissions and the disposition thereof, or the amounts due to Plaintiff for any reason under the terms of the contract; and (b) that Plaintiff would be fully and promptly paid all such amounts due him." Complaint at ¶ 42-43.⁴

28. These allegations, however, are nearly identical to the allegations supporting Plaintiff's breach of oral contract claim in Count III. See, e.g., Count III at \P 34 ("An express term of that contract involved the commitment of Defendants to calculate, and to pay to Plaintiff, fully and timely, all sums due to him under the parties' contract, whether as commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason.") and \P 36 ("[] Defendants willfully and maliciously agreed to breach their contract with Plaintiff by withholding from Plaintiff moneys due him under the contract."). Such allegations already form the basis of Plaintiff's breach of oral contract claim in Count II and, therefore, cannot support a separate cause of action for breach of good faith and fair dealing. Consequently, Count IV of Plaintiff's Complaint should be dismissed.

E. Count V (Breach of Fiduciary Duty), Count VI (Civil Theft) and Count VII (Fraud) Are Barred by the Economic Loss Rule

29. "The economic loss rule is a judicially created doctrine that sets forth the circumstances under which a tort action is prohibited if the only damages suffered are economic losses." Indemnity Ins. Co. of N. Am. v. Am. Aviation, Inc., 891 So. 2d 532, 536 (Fla. 2004); U.S. Fire Ins. Co. v. J.S.U.B., Inc., 979 So. 2d 871 (Fla. 2007) (noting that "the economic loss doctrine determines what cause of action is available to recover economic losses-tort or contract").

30. Specifically, the economic loss doctrine applies where "the parties are in contractual privity and one party seeks to recover damages in tort for matters arising from the contract." Indemnity Ins. Co. of N. Am., 891 So. 2d at 536 (emphasis added). The purpose of the doctrine is to "protect the integrity of contract," and to prevent contract law from "drown[ing] in a sea of tort." Id. at 537-38, 544.

31. The doctrine is designed to "prevent parties to a contract from circumventing the allocation of losses set forth in the contract by bringing an action for economic loss in tort." Id. at 536. In other words, "[n]o cause of action in tort can arise from a breach of a duty existing by virtue of a contract." Weimar v. Yacht Club Point Estates, Inc., 223 So. 2d 100, 103 (Fla. 4th DCA 1969) (emphasis added). The economic loss rule provides that "without some conduct resulting in personal injury or property damage, there can be no independent tort flowing from a contractual breach which would justify a tort claim solely for economic losses." HTP, Ltd. v. Lineas Aereas Costarricenses, S.A., 685 So. 2d 1238, 1239 (Fla. 1996).

32. Simply stated, "a cause of action for breach of fiduciary duty will not lie where the claim of breach is dependent upon the existence of a contractual relationship between the parties." Detwiler v. Bank of Central Florida, 736 So. 2d 757, 759 (Fla. 5th DCA 1999).

33. Count V (Breach of Fiduciary Duty) and Count VII (Fraud) of Plaintiff's Complaint are barred by the economic loss rule because Plaintiff cites the exact same allegations of fact in support of his breach of oral contract claim.

34. Specifically, Plaintiff alleges in Count V that he "trusted Defendants to make proper, accurate and complete calculations, as Plaintiff had done, and to pay Plaintiff accordingly." Complaint at $\P 43$.⁵ In Count VII at paragraph 58, Plaintiff incorporates the same allegations asserted in his breach of fiduciary duty claim into his fraud claim. Nearly identical allegations are cited in support of Plaintiff's breach of oral contract claim. See Complaint at $\P\P$ 34-36. Thus, Plaintiff's breach of fiduciary duty and fraud claims arise out of the same conduct that constitutes the purported breach the alleged oral contract. As such, Counts V and VII are barred by the economic loss rule and should be dismissed.

35. Moreover, "[m]isrepresentations relating to the breaching party's performance of a contract do not give rise to an independent cause of action in tort, because such misrepresentations are interwoven and indistinct from the heart of the contractual agreement."

⁵ The numbered paragraphs of Count V of the Complaint are improperly numbered and contain paragraph numbers that are duplicative of the numbered paragraphs of Count IV.

Hotels of Key Largo, Inc. v. RHI Hotels, Inc., 694 So. 2d 74 (Fla. 3d DCA 1997) (Hotel franchisee's claim of fraud against franchisor barred by economic loss doctrine where defendant alleged to have failed to perform contract). Here, Plaintiff's fraud claim clearly relates to the purported failure of the Defendants to perform the alleged contract. See Complaint at ¶54-58. Indeed, as noted above, Plaintiff's prayer for his fraud claim reveals that this claim is really a breach of contract claim in sheep's clothing, providing "WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment . . . for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract,...."

36. Finally, the economic loss rule applies to statutory causes of action, which are characterized as statutory torts. Sarkis v. Pafford Oil Co., Inc., 697 So. 2d 524, 527 (Fla. 1st DCA 1997) (Civil theft claim barred by economic loss rule). See also Gambolati v. Sarkisian, 622 So. 2d 47 (Fla. 4th DCA 1993) and Gilman Yacht Sales v. First National Bank of Chicago, 600 So. 2d 1131 (Fla. 4th DCA 1992). Accordingly, Plaintiff's civil theft claim is barred by the economic loss rule and must be dismissed.

F. Counts V (Breach of Fiduciary Duty) and VII (Fraud) Should be Dismissed Because Plaintiff's Alleged Damages, if Any, Result from the Breach of a Purported Contract Rather than From Fraud

37. Additionally, the damages Plaintiff seeks in Counts V and VII are contractual damages -- "the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract." See WHEREFORE clause following paragraph 47 of the Complaint and WHEREFORE clause following paragraph 58. "[N]o cause of action for fraud exists unless there is damage due to fraud that is separate from damages that may result from any subsequent contractual breach." La Pesca Grande Charters, Inc. v. Moran, 704 So. 2d 710 (Fla. 5th DCA 1998) (emphasis in original). Here, at most, any damage to Plaintiff, which Defendants deny, stems from the purported breach of the alleged contract. Accordingly, Counts V and VII should be dismissed.

G. Count V (Breach of Fiduciary Duty) Should Be Dismissed Because Plaintiff Has Failed to State a Cause of Action

38. Although Count V fails to specify which of the four (4) Defendants Plaintiff is suing for breach of fiduciary duty and demands judgment against "Plaintiffs" -- all of which is further evidence of the highly confusing, vague and ambiguous nature of Plaintiff's Complaint -- Count V should also be dismissed because it fails to state a cause of action for breach of fiduciary duty.

39. To state a claim for breach of fiduciary duty, Plaintiff must plead, and allege ultimate supporting facts demonstrating, the following elements: (1) Plaintiff and Defendants share a relationship whereby: (a) Plaintiff reposes trust and confidence in Defendants, and (b) Defendants undertake such trust and assume a duty to advise, counsel and/or protect Plaintiff; (2) Defendants breach their duties to Plaintiff; and (3) Plaintiff suffers damages. Taylor Woodrow Homes Florida, Inc. v. 4/46-A Corp., 850 So. 2d 536, 540-541 (Fla. 5th DCA 2003).

40. To the extent Plaintiff is asserting Count V against the Corporate Defendants, Plaintiff has wholly failed to allege any of the requisite elements for a breach of fiduciary duty claim and, therefore, Count V should be dismissed as against AIM and LIC. Moreover, an employer does not owe a general fiduciary duty to its employees. See, e.g., Eden v. St. Luke's-Roosevelt Hosp. Ctr., 96 AD.3d 614 (N.Y. App. Div. 2012) ("Neither an agreement by an employer to share profits with an employee as compensation for the latter's services nor a contract 'of mere hiring and providing for compensation in a particular manner supposedly tending to induce greater energy and faithfulness on the part of the employee' creates a fiduciary relationship between the employer and employee.") (internal citations omitted).

41. To the extent Plaintiff seeks to assert Count V against Ted, Plaintiff's Complaint fails to allege how Ted, a minority shareholder of the Corporate Defendants, owed any duty to Plaintiff. Plaintiff cannot plead a viable fiduciary relationship by merely alleging a bestowal of trust and confidence in Ted. "A party must allege some degree of dependency on one side and some degree of undertaking on the other side to advise, counsel, and protect the weaker party." Watkins v. NCNB Nat'l Bank of Fla., N.A., 622 So. 2d 1063, 1065 (Fla. 3d DCA 1993) (emphasis added).

42. Plaintiff does not -- and cannot allege -- that he was the "weaker party" in his relationship with Ted because Plaintiff admits that he was a sophisticated, knowledgeable and highly regarded business person in the insurance industry. See Complaint at ¶ 8. The only affiliation between Plaintiff and Ted, besides being in an alleged "social relationship",⁶ was that of business associates, which is in and of itself insufficient to support a fiduciary duty claim. See Orlinsky v. Patraka, 971 So. 2d 796, 800 (Fla. 3d DCA 2007) ("the only relation between Orlinsky and Patraka, besides being brothers-in-law, was that of business associates. Patraka has not cited any case where a general fiduciary duty has been found in the context of two business associates.").

43. Here, because Ted did not owe a fiduciary duty to Plaintiff, Count V of Plaintiff's Complaint must be dismissed.

⁶ Complaint at Count V, ¶ 42.

H. Count VI (Civil Theft) Should Be Dismissed Because Plaintiff Has Failed to State a Cause of Action

44. In Florida, civil theft is a statutory form of conversion. Sarkis v. Pafford Oil Co., 697 So. 2d 524, 528 (1st DCA 1997). In order to state a claim for civil theft, a complaint must allege that the defendant knowingly obtained or used, or endeavored to obtain or to use the plaintiff's property with the intent to temporarily or permanently deprive the plaintiff of a right to property or a benefit from the property; or the defendant appropriated the plaintiff's property for use by the defendant or another person who does not have a right to use the property. See Palmer v. Gotta Have It Golf Collectibles, Inc., 106 F. Supp. 2d 1289, 1303 (S.D. Fla. 2000) (interpreting Florida's civil theft statute). "Further, it is necessary to show not only that defendant obtained or endeavored to obtain the plaintiff's property, but that he did so with felonious intent to commit theft." Id. (internal quotations omitted).

45. The Fourth District Court of Appeal has held that where the property at issue is also the subject of a contract -- as is the case here -- there must be an intricate sophisticated scheme of deceit and theft to maintain a separate count for civil theft. Gersh v. Coffman, 769 So. 2d 407, 409 (Fla. 4th DCA 2000). Plaintiff's complaint is devoid of any allegations detailing or even suggesting a "sophisticated scheme of deceit and theft". Accordingly, Count VI should be dismissed.

46. Further, in order to maintain a claim for civil theft, the property that is alleged to have been converted must consist of specific money capable of identification. Belford Trucking Co. v. Zagar, 243 So. 2d 646, 648 (Fla. 4th DCA 1970). Additionally, "[a] debt which may be discharged by the payment of money in general cannot form the basis for conversion." Gambolati v. Sarkisian 622 So. 2d 47, 50 (Fla. 4th DCA 1993). Here, Plaintiff alleges generally that he did not receive certain compensation rather than an entitlement to specific dollars capable of identification. Indeed, in the Complaint, Plaintiff admits he received his salary for 2007. See Complaint at ¶ 18. Thus, the only other period within the five year statute of limitations, per Florida Statute § 772.11, would be in 2008 -- the period in which he claims he had a contract to be paid a salary of $1 million plus his proportionate interest in any profits. See Complaint at ¶ 21. By its very terms, the alleged contract does not relate to specific funds capable of identification as required under Florida law to state a viable claim for civil theft. Mazza v. Rose Media Group, Inc., 937 So. 2d 307, 310 (Fla. 4th DCA 2006). Accordingly, Count VI should be dismissed.⁷

I. Count VII (Fraud) Must be Dismissed Because Plaintiff Fails to Properly Plead the Required Elements to State a Claim for Fraud

47. To state a claim for fraud, a pleader must allege "[a] false representation of a material fact, made with knowledge of its falsity, to a person ignorant thereof, with intention that it shall be acted upon, followed by reliance upon and by action thereon amounting to substantial change of position, is a fraud of which the law will take cognizance." Biscayne Boulevard Properties, Inc. v Graham, 65 So. 2d 858 (Fla. 1953) (emphasis added). "For fraud and deceit to be actionable, there must have been a false representation of a material fact made for the purpose of inducing another to change position, which change in position was occasioned by reliance on the false representation to the damage of the one to whom the representation was made." Goodman v. Strassburg, 139 So. 2d 163 (Fla. 3d DCA 1962)(emphasis added). Here, although Plaintiff alleges he relied upon "false statements and the withholdding of material information", he fails to allege that he has changed his position in any way. See Complaint at ¶ 57. As a result, Count VII should be dismissed.

48. Further, Count VII should be dismissed for the additional reason that Plaintiff has failed to plead fraud with particularity, as required by Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.120(b). "The factual basis for a claim of fraud must be pled with particularity and must specifically identify misrepresentations or omissions of fact, as well as time, place or manner in which they were made." Cedars Healthcare Group, Ltd. v. Mehta, 16 So. 3d 914, 917 (Fla. 3d DCA 2009).

49. Here, Plaintiff fails to allege with particularity the who, what, when and how underlying his purported fraud claim. Instead, Plaintiff lumps all four (4) Defendants together and summarily alleges that Defendants "made false statements to him and withheld information from him." See Complaint at \P 54. There is no allegation with any particularity as to the substance of any false statement(s) or the time frame or the context in which any alleged statement(s) were made or omitted when there was a duty to speak.

50. Plaintiff's vague allegations regarding purported false statements and withheld information falls short of the heightened fraud pleading requirements under Rule 1.120(b) and is insufficient to support a claim for fraud.

J. Count VIII (Equitable Lien) and Count X (Constructive Trust) Should Be Dismissed For Failure to State a Cause of Action

51. In paragraphs 60 and 61 of Count VIII and paragraph 67 of Count X, Plaintiff alleges he was entitled to a share of "commissions received by Defendants." However, in paragraph 21, as reincorporated in Count VIII by paragraph 59 and paragraph 66 in Count X, Plaintiff alleges his compensation changed in "early 2008" and he was no longer entitled to a share of any commissions.⁸ Thus, Counts VIII and X are internally inconsistent, rendering Counts VIII and X subject to dismissal. See Peacock v. General Motors Acceptance Corp., 432 So. 2d 142, 146 (Fla. 1st DCA 1983) ("contradictory allegations within a single count neutralize each other and render the count insufficient on its face", even where they are "incorporated in that count" from a prior count of the complaint).

52. Even assuming Plaintiff's allegations were not inconsistent and self-defeating, Plaintiff has failed to properly plead the elements required for the imposition of an equitable lien. Under Florida law, "the basis of equitable liens may be estoppel or unjust enrichment." Golden v. Woodward, 15 So.3d 664 (Fla. 1st DCA 2009). In Count VIII, Plaintiff appears to be proceeding under a theory of unjust enrichment, however, Plaintiff has failed to properly plead the elements of an unjust enrichment claim to support an equitable lien claim.⁹ Instead, Plaintiff merely alleges an equitable lien should be imposed "out of general considerations of right and justice as applied to the relations of the parties and the circumstances of their dealings." See Complaint at ¶ 61.

53. Further, Plaintiff has failed to properly state a claim for the imposition of a constructive trust.¹⁰ A constructive trust may be imposed only where there is a wrongful taking of the property of another. Finkelstein v. Southeast Bank, N.A., 490 So. 2d 976, 984 (Fla. 4th DCA 1986). To establish a claim for the imposition of a constructive trust, a plaintiff must

⁸ As discussed above, the statute of limitations prevents Plaintiff from seeking an equitable lien over commissions purportedly due and payable to him prior to "early 2008", when his compensation allegedly changed.

⁹ The elements of a claim for unjust enrichment are: "(1) plaintiff has conferred a benefit on the defendant, who has knowledge thereof; (2) defendant voluntarily accepts and retains the benefit conferred; and (3) the circumstances are such that it would be inequitable for the defendant to retain the benefit without paying the value thereof to the plaintiff." Hillman Const. Corp. V. Wainer, 636 So. 2d 576, 577 (Fla. 4th DCA 1994).

¹⁰ Plaintiff's allegations in Count VIII (Equitable Lien) and IX Constructive Trust are virtually indistinguishable. While Plaintiff's Complaint fails to identify which of the four (4) Defendants Plaintiff is suing in Counts VIII and X and prays for judgment against "Plaintiffs" in the WHEREFORE clause to both counts, Plaintiff's Equitable Lien and Constructive Trust claims are subject to dismissal at least against Defendant Ted, individually, for the reasons set forth in III.B. supra.

prove: "(1) a promise, express or implied; (2) a transfer of the property and reliance thereon; (3) a confidential relationship; and (4) unjust enrichment." Abreu v. Amaro, 534 So. 2d 771, 772 (Fla. 3d DCA 1988).

54. Here, Plaintiff was never the legal holder of the property for which he seeks to have the Court impose a constructive trust, thereby subjecting Count X to dismissal. At most, Plaintiff was entitled to a percentage of the commissions, well prior to his compensation allegedly changing in "early 2008" and the running of the statute of limitations. See Complaint at \P 21. Plaintiff's allegations admit that Plaintiff never owned the commissions he now claims he is entitled to have a constructive trust placed over.¹¹ Thus, Plaintiff's claim for imposition of a constructive trust should be dismissed.

55. Moreover, to obtain a constructive trust, the res over which the trust is sought must be specifically identifiable property. Trend Setter Villas of Deercreek v. Villas on the Green, Inc., 569 So. 2d 766, 768 (Fla. 4th DCA 1990). Here, Plaintiff alleges generally that he did not receive certain compensation rather than an entitlement to specific dollars capable of identification. Plaintiff's allegations admit that he was entitled to payment generally, rather than to receive specific dollars. Thus, Plaintiff cannot state a viable claim for the imposition of a constructive trust. Accordingly, Count X should be dismissed.

K. Counts VIII (Equitable Lien) and IX (Contract Implied in Law) Should be Dismissed for Failure to State a Cause of Action

56. In pleading an unjust enrichment claim, where an express contract exists, a claim for unjust enrichment will fail.¹² Similarly, where an express contract exists, a claim for an

 $^{^{11}}$ Once again, it is insufficient for Plaintiff to broadly lump the Defendants together as he does throughout Count X. Plaintiff fails to allege to which of the Defendants he purportedly transferred any property.

¹² Among the elements required for pleading a claim for unjust enrichment is that the plaintiff "conferred a benefit upon the defendant, who has knowledge thereof." Hillman 636 So. 2d at 577. Here, Plaintiff broadly alleges he equitable lien premised upon allegations of unjust enrichment must also fail. Diamond "S" Development Corp. v. Mercantile Bank, 989 So. 2d 696 (Fla. 1st DCA 2008). Here, paragraph 59 of Count VIII reincorporates the allegations of paragraph 21, which allege an express contract. Similarly, paragraph 62 of Count IX reincorporates the allegations of paragraph 21.¹³ Thus, Plaintiff's Counts VIII and IX must be dismissed.

L. Count XI (Indemnification) Should Be Dismissed As Premature and For Failure to State a Cause of Action

57. In Count X, Plaintiff seeks indemnification from Defendants from potential future claims by insurance companies which may seek a refund of commissions allegedly paid to Plaintiff. Although it is unclear as to whether Count XI is a claim for common law indemnification or statutory indemnification, Count XI is premature under either theory of recovery and, therefore, should be dismissed.

58. "In order for a common law indemnity claim to stand, a two-pronged test must be satisfied: (1) the indemnitee must be faultless and (2) the indemnitee's liability must be solely vicarious for the wrongdoing of another." Zeiger Crane Rentals, Inc. v. Double A Indus., Inc., 16 So. 3d 907, 911 (Fla. 4th DCA 2009) (citing Gen. Portland Land Dev. Co. v. Stevens, 395 So. 2d 1296, 1299 (Fla. 4th DCA 1981)). A common law indemnity claim is premature if a judgment has not been entered. Mellish Enters., Inc. v. Weatherford Int'l, Inc., 678 So. 2d 913, ¹³ While Plaintiff seeks judgment against all of the Defendants in Count IX, Plaintiff's Contract Implied In Law claim is subject to dismissal against Ted individually for the reasons set forth in III.B. supra.

conferred upon Defendants the benefit of "possessing and controlling the paperwork revealing commissions received and by agreeing that Defendants would assume the function of calculating amounts due the parties...." However, in paragraph 62, Plaintiff incorporates paragraph 6 into Count IX. Paragraph 6 alleges, in relevant part, that Ted and Simon "both own and control all of the corporate Defendants." Taking this allegation regarding the ownership and control of the Corporate Defendants as true for the purposes of this motion, as the shareholder/managing members of the Corporate Defendants, Ted (and Simon) were undoubtedly entitled to "possess and control the paperwork of the Corporate Defendants" and to "calculat[e] the amounts due the parties." Plaintiff's suggestion that he somehow broadly conferred a benefit upon all the Defendants, particularly Ted, turns the rights and benefits of corporate ownership on its head and ignores corporate law. Accordingly, because Plaintiff has not conferred a benefit upon the Defendants, collectively, or individually, Count IX should be dismissed.

914 (Fla. 4th DCA. 1996) ("The entry of a judgment provides the prerequisite for an indemnification action, not payment of the judgment.") (citing Flagship Nat'l Bank v. Gray Distrib. Sys., Inc., 485 So. 2d 1336, 1342 (Fla. 3d DCA 1986)).

59. Here, assuming that Count XI is a common law indemnification claim, the claim is premature and subject to dismissal because a judgment has not been entered against Plaintiff, nor has Plaintiff made such an allegation.

60. Similarly, statutory indemnification, which is governed by Section 607.0850(3), Florida Statutes, states:

To the extent that a director, officer, employee, or agent of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any proceeding referred to in subsection (1) or subsection (2), or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, he or she shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection therewith.

(emphasis added).

61. Plaintiff is currently not "a party to any proceeding" as required in subsections (1) and (2) of the statute, nor is Plaintiff currently defending a proceeding which may result indemnification under subsection (3). Accordingly, Count XI should be dismissed as premature.

62. Further, with respect to Defendant Ted, Plaintiff has failed to allege how Ted could be personally liable to indemnify Plaintiff. Plaintiff does not allege that he entered into any contract or agreement whereby Ted agreed to indemnify and hold Plaintiff harmless. Moreover, to the extent Count XI is a claim for statutory indemnification, such a claim would not cover Defendant Ted, a mere shareholder/officer of the Corporate Defendants.

IV. ALTERNATIVE MOTION FOR MORE DEFINITE STATEMENT

63. In the event the Court is not inclined to grant any portion of Defendants' Motion to Dismiss, Defendants Ted, LIC and AIM move for a more definite statement.

64. Florida R. Civ. P. 1.140(e) provides that "[i]f a pleading . . . is so vague or ambiguous that a party cannot reasonably be required to frame a responsive pleading, that party may move for a more definite statement before interposing a responsive pleading." See also Conklin v. Bpyd, 189 So. 2d 401, 403 (Fla. 1st DCA 1996) (holding that the "function of a motion for a more definite statement is to require that a vague, indefinite or ambiguous pleading be so amended so as to enable the party required to respond thereto, to intelligently discern the issues to be litigated and to properly frame its answer or reply.").

65. As set forth above, Plaintiff's Complaint is so vague, confusing, contradictory and meandering that it is virtually impossible to prepare a response to the allegations.

66. Among other things, Plaintiff lumps all four (4) Defendants -- which are separate and distinct individuals and legal entities -- together in his allegations, essentially alleging that everyone did everything. This type of pleading makes it virtually impossible for each of the Defendants to frame an appropriate response. Plaintiff's improper grouping of all of the Defendants in this action fails to distinguish each Defendant's particular conduct, fails to put each Defendant on adequate notice of the claims asserted against them and thereby fails to meet basic pleading requirements.

67. Moreover, Plaintiff fails to allege the which of the Corporate Defendants were parties to the purported oral contract(s) which serve the basis for Plaintiff's suit. In fact, it is unclear from the Complaint whether Plaintiff contends that multiple alleged oral contracts were entered into. Plaintiff also fails to outline the material terms of the alleged oral contract(s) and fails to allege when the purported breach(es) occurred.

68. At the very least, Plaintiff should be required to provide a more definite statement of his allegations against each specific Defendant and a more definite statement regarding the parties and terms of the alleged oral contract(s) upon which this action is purportedly based.

WHEREFORE, Defendants, TED S. BERNSTEIN, LIC HOLDINGS, INC., and ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, L.L.C., f/k/a ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, L.L.C., respectfully request entry of an Order: (i) granting this Motion and dismissing Plaintiff's Complaint in its entirety; (ii) awarding Defendants' their reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Fla. Stat. §§ 772.11 and 812.035(7); (iii) or, in the alternative, requiring Plaintiff file a more definite statement as to any count not dismissed, and (iv) for such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.

SHARON R. BOCK CLERK & COMPTROLLER CIRCUIT CIVIL DIVISION

COMPLAINT And JURY DEMAND

WILLIAM STANSBURY (PLAINTIFF"), by and through his undersigned co-counsel, hereby demanding trial by jury of all issues so triable, hereby sues the Defendants, and says

1. This is an action for money damages in excess of $15,000, and for equitable relief.

- 2. Plaintiff is sui juris, and a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida.
- 3. Defendants TED S. BERNSTEIN ("TED BERNSTEIN"), and SIMON BERNSTEIN are both sui juris, and are both residents of Palm Beach County, Florida.

4. The corporate Defendants, LIC HOLDINGS, INC.; and ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, L.L.C., f/k/a ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, L.L.C., are entities organized and existing under the laws of the State of Florida, all do business in the State of Florida and all have their principal offices in the State of Florida, and in Palm Beach County, Florida.

5. Defendants SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN (collectively "Defendants BERNSTEIN") are, respectively, one another's father and son. They both own and control all of the corporate Defendants, and work closely together with respect thereto. In all matters involved herein, they worked closely together and were virtually one another's alter egos.

7 The acts and incidents giving rise to these causes of action occurred in Palm Beach County, Florida.

Background

8. Plaintiff has worked in the insurance field virtually all his adult life, and by 2003 had become well-known and highly regarded by major insurance companies, their principals, and by others throughout the insurance industry, at all levels thereof, as well as by professionals, including attorneys, CPAs, financial advisors, wealth managers and others who were involved in serving, or otherwise dealing with, insurers and insurance brokers.

9. SIMON BERNSTEIN dealt at high levels of the insurance industry, and specialized in developing and marketing insurance concepts suitable for persons of high net worth to incorporate in their wealth management and estate planning.

10. TED BERNSTEIN was actively involved in selling life insurance products in conjunction with attorneys, CPAs and other professionals, to be incorporated into clients' financial planning.

11. In 2003, TED BERNSTEIN approached Plaintiff, urging Plaintiff to spearhead the marketing of a unique insurance concept ("the said concept"), newly developed by a prominent law firm, which was designed for use in the financial and estate planning of wealthy individuals.

12. TED BERNSTEIN told Plaintiff that he knew of Plaintiff's knowledgeability, and reputation in the insurance and related industries and professions, and that Plaintiff was skilled at, and accustomed to, speaking and marketing insurance products to, large groups of professsionals, and that he realized that Plaintiff, because of his knowledgeability, reputation and abilities, would be ideal to market this concept nationwide, through prominent and experienced professionals..

13. SIMON BERNSTEIN proposed that Plaintiff work as an independent contractor for the Corporate Defendants, marketing the product to the above-described He offered Plaintiff an arrangement whereby Plaintiff would receive twenty percent (20%) of all net retained amounts of commissions received from insurance companies and general agents' overrides (hereinafter, "commissions") which chose to issue policies of the type to be marketed, for use in the said financial and estate planning, and all other sales by the companies. Plaintiff would receive no other salary remuneration, but would have his travel and marketing expenses advanced or reimbursed. In time, when Plaintiff agreed to become an employee rather than an independent contractor, he agreed to a salary of the equivalent of 15% of commissions received on all products.

14. After reviewing the concept and considering the terms of the arrangement offered by SIMON BERNSTEIN, Plaintiff agreed with BERNSTEIN to accept the proposal described in preceding paragraph 13, and all the parties proceeded to act in accordance therewith.

15. Thereafter, Plaintiff worked with diligence and skill, traveling throughout the United States, generating ever increasing sales, and generating very large commissions for Defendants and for Plaintiff, who received the agreed salary equal to 15% thereof. By 2006, the parties hereto began receiving checks, not only for commissions on new policies sold, but also renewal commissions. Initially, the Plaintiff and Defendants BERNSTEIN, and one secretary, comprised the entire workforce. At the height of the sales campaign, Defendants' staff for serving the business generated by Plaintiff consisted of more than 40 individuals.

16. In 2005, the Plaintiff was paid his commissions in the form of two IRS forms 1099, from National Services Association, and from Defendant ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MARKETING, INC. for his services as an independent contractor.

17. In 2006, Plaintiff received his agreed salary as an employee, reflected in two IRS forms W-2., One W-2 was from ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MARKETING, INC., and the other was from ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, INC., which later became Defendant ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, INC.

18. Also in 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN told Plaintiff that Plaintiff, was being rewarded for the explosive growth of business, through receiving a 10% interest in LIC.

19. In 2007, Plaintiff received his agreed salary as an employee, which salary was reflected in an IRS Form W-2.

20. With the economic downturn in 2008, Defendants looked for ways to withhold from Plaintiff compensation to which he was entitled, and to deceive him into believing that the money which would have been paid to both Defendants as well as to Plaintiff as compensation, was instead being held in the company's coffers.

21. In order to hide from Plaintiff the real fact that Defendants were paying to Defendants BERNSTEIN the full earnings received as commissions, and thereby depriving Plaintiff of the 15% thereof to which he was entitled, they knew they had to terminate Plaintiff's function of calculating each person's entitlement to payment out of commissions received. Therefore, in early 2008, SIMON BERNSTEIN told Plaintiff that the Defendants BERNSTEIN felt that Plaintiff was spending too much time on making the said calculations, and that Plaintiff's time would be better spent in building the business. SIMON BERNSTEIN told Case: 17-3595 Document: 12-11

Filed: 03/12/2018 Pages: 1000

Plaintiff that he and TED BERNSTEIN had decided to pay themselves and Plaintiff identical salaries of not less than $1,000,000 each for 2008, and to distribute any profits beyond the total thus paid to the three owners, the Defendants BERNSTEIN and Plaintiff, according to their respective percentages of ownership, Plaintiff's share being 10%. Plaintiff having thus far believed he was receiving whatever compensation he was entitled to, and having no reason to realize that this was a ruse to keep him in the dark as to the true state of affairs, readily acceded to his being relieved of the bookkeeping duties regarding calculating the disposition of moneys received.

22. Through misrepresentations made from 2008 through the date of filing of this Complaint, Defendants knowingly made false statements to Plaintiff to hide their scheme to withhold from Plaintiffs money to which he was entitled. For example, at times they claimed that money being received was not being paid as salary or distributions to either of Defendants BERNSTEIN but was being withheld and placed in company accounts, for eventual distribution. As Plaintiff and Defendants could afford to wait until year's end to be paid their distributions, and as Defendants BERNSTEIN assured Plaintiff that the payment arrangement would apply to all three equally, Plaintiff did not question the truthfulness of their representations..

23. In furtherance of their scheme to deprive Plaintiff of salary he had earned and to which he was entitled, Defendants intercepted mail addressed to Plaintiff, removed therefrom commission checks representing full commissions, deposited the same to their own accounts or otherwise converted the funds,, and willfully withhold from Plaintiff his salary. Defendants BERNSTEIN also opened Plaintiff's mail containing checks payable to him which were unrelated to Defendants' business.

24. In 2011, the Defendants BERNSTEIN decided to deceive Plaintiff into giving up his 10% share in the business. Although he had never seen a stock certificate, Plaintiff had in fact been given K-1 statements reflecting his salary, which appeared to approximate 10% of the net profits or losses of LIC, after salary was paid. TED BERNSTEIN told Plaintiff that their accountants had discovered a taxable event which could cause all the owners of the company to have to pay taxes, and that they thought it would be unfair for Plaintiff to have to pay 10% of that tax, so TED BERNSTEIN promised that if Plaintiff would sign a paper ceding his 10% interest, TED BERNSTEIN would simply hold it and it would not become operative unless the tax liability came to exist. Plaintiff was assured that nothing would happen with the stock ownership until Plaintiff and the Defendants BERNSTEIN discussed the situation further after the Holiday Season.

Case: 17-3595 Document: 12-11

25. Because of the misrepresentations, willful concealments of material facts, duplicity and deceit practiced by Defendants upon Plaintiff as described in preceding paragraphs 20 through 24, Plaintiff was reasonably of the belief that Defendants had complied, or intended to comply, with their material obligations to Plaintiff under the contract between them, and therefore was prevented from knowing, for a period of years, that these causes of action existed. The acts of Defendants in making false statements and withholding material information continues from its inception to the date of the filing hereof.

I. ACCOUNTING (Against LIC and ARBITRAGE, for Accounting as to Withholding of Money Due Plaintiff)

26. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

27. The relationship between Plaintiff and the Defendants, particularly as affected by Defendants' acts described in preceding paragraphs 20 through 25, inclusive, created a situation where Defendants had sole access to, receipts generated by Plaintiff's efforts, and to books and records reflecting said receipts and the other information from which can be calculated all moneys due to Plaintiff under his arrangement with Defendants.

28, The period of time during which Plaintiff has been deprived of moneys due him spans approximately four and a half years, the numerosity of the sources of receipts by Defendants of moneys from which the amounts due Plaintiff may be calculated, and the changes in the formula under which, and manner in which. Plaintiff was to be paid, all involve extensive and complicated accounts, and Plaintiff's remedy at law could not be as full, adequate and expeditious as it is in equity.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for an adjudication of Plaintiff's right to a full and complete accounting from Defendants, and for such orders of Court as will require the Defendants to provide Plaintiff with all records and copies of documents, dated from the date in 2003 when Plaintiff first began his efforts to generate sales of the concept described in paragraph 11 above to the present, as will reveal his right to, and the amount of, all amounts: (a) received as commissions on said concepts or any other commissions as to which Plaintiff was entitled to a share; (b) due to Plaintiff, whether paid or not; (c) paid to Plaintiff, whether for commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason; (d) paid to each of the Defendants out of moneys received as commissions; (e) deposits of any and all moneys received as commissions by any Defendants to any accounts, including the name of the entity whose account was involved, the number(s) of each such account; the address of the branch or other facility through which any Defendant dealt with such entity; (f) calculations as to moneys paid, to be paid, or not to be paid to Plaintiff, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

II. ACCOUNTING (Against TED S. BERNSTEIN and SIMON BERNSTEIN. for Accounting as to Money Due to Plaintiff Which Said Defendants Converted)

29. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

30. The relationship between Plaintiff and the Defendants, particularly as affected by Defendants' acts described in preceding paragraphs 20 through 25, inclusive, created a situation where Defendants had sole access to, receipts generated by Plaintiff's efforts, and to books and records reflecting said receipts and the other information from which can be calculated all moneys due to Plaintiff under his arrangement with Defendants.

31, The period of time during which Plaintiff has been deprived of moneys due him spans approximately four and a half years, the numerosity of the sources of receipts by Defendants of moneys from which the amounts due Plaintiff may be calculated, and the changes in the formula under which, and manner in which, Plaintiff was to be paid, all involve extensive and complicated accounts, and Plaintiff's remedy at law could not be as full, adequate and expeditious as it is in equity.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for an adjudication of Plaintiff's right to a full and complete accounting from Defendants, and for such orders of Court as will require the Defendants to provide Plaintiff with all records and copies of documents, dated from the date in 2003 when Plaintiff first began his efforts to generate sales of the concept described in paragraph 11 above to the present, as will reveal his right to, and the amount of, all amounts: (a) received as commissions on said concepts or any other commissions as to which Plaintiff was entitled to a share; (b) due to Plaintiff, whether paid or not; (c) paid to Plaintiff, whether for commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason; (d) paid to each of the Defendants out of moneys received as said commissions; (e) deposits of any and all moneys received as commissions by any Defendants to any accounts, including the name of the entity whose account was involved, the number(s) of each such account; the address of the branch or other facility through which any Defendant dealt with such entity; (f) calculations as to moneys paid, to be paid, or not to be paid to Plaintiff, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

III. BREACH OF ORAL CONTRACT (Against All the Defendants)

32. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

33. The arrangement between Plaintiff and Defendants as described in paragraphs 11 and 13 above, and as modified by the parties as further described above, constituted a contract between them.

34. An express term of that contract involved the commitment of Defendants to calculate, and to pay to Plaintiff, fully and timely, all sums due to him under the parties' contract, whether as commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason

35. The parties initially performed the duties required of them under said contract.

36. However, as described above in paragraphs 20 through 25, inclusive, Defendants willfully and maliciously agreed to breach their contract with Plaintiff by withholding from Plaintiff moneys due him under the contract.

37. Defendants did withhold such moneys due Plaintiff.

38. The withholding of such moneys constituted a material breach of the contact between Plaintiff and Defendants.

39. There is therefore due to Plaintiff from Defendants all amounts due under said contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts.

WHEREFORE. Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreedupon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

IV. BREACH OF IMPLIED COVENANT OF GOOD FAITH and FAIR DEALING

40. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive, and paragraphs 33 through 38, inclusive.

41. The said contract, as a matter of law, contained an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, obligating the parties to honor every express term of the agreement.

42. Among the express terms of the oral contract between the parties were (a) that Plaintiff would be constantly apprised, either through being permitted to calculate all amounts due the Defendants out of commissions, or through being advised of all receipts of commissions and the disposition thereof, or the amounts due to Plaintiff for any reason under the terms of the contract; and (b) that Plaintiff would be fully and promptly paid all such amounts due him.

43. Through their actions as described in preceding paragraphs 20 through 25, inclusive, the Defendants willfully breached the said express of the contract.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreedupon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

Case: 17-3595 Document: 12-11 Filed: 03/12/2018

V. BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY

41. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

42. Plaintiff reposed full confidence in the defendants BERNSTEIN, and trusted them and relied on them to be as good as their word and to deal honestly with him, for a variety of reasons. Plaintiff knew of SIMON BERNSTEIN as a major figure in the insurance industry, prior to their becoming parties to the agreement involved herein. Moreover, Plaintiff and the Defendants BERNSTEIN had formed a social relationship which had grown into what Plaintiff regarded as friendship. Moreover, as the initial situation under their contractual relationship had Plaintiff receiving all information as to commissions received and calculating the amount of money due to Plaintiff and the Defendants BERNSTEIN, as ,mentioned in preceding paragraphs 21 and 22, and also because Plaintiff was told he had been given a minority shareholder interest in LIC, Plaintiff reasonably felt that the Defendants would deal with Plaintiff honestly and fairly, and that the Defendants had no intention of hiding from Plaintiff any information as to the amounts due Plaintiff or as to the Defendants' intention of paying said amounts to Plaintiff

43. Moreover, when Defendants proposed to Plaintiff that Plaintiffs cease being the one to calculate moneys due the parties out of commissions received, the Plaintiff trusted Defendants to make proper, accurate and complete calculations, as Plaintiff had done, and to pay Plaintiff accordingly. 44. Furthermore, when Defendants BERNSTEIN made statements to Plaintiff as to why payments due him were not being paid, as described, for example, in preceding paragraphs 22 through 25, inclusive, and 42, he trusted Defendants to be telling Plaintiff the truth,

45. As a result of the foregoing, a fiduciary relationship existed between Defendants BERNSTEIN and Plaintiff, and there existed in Plaintiff complete confidence and trust in the said Defendants, of which confidence and trust said Defendants were well aware.

46. Defendants BERNSTEIN accepted the trust which Plaintiff reasonably placed in them.

47 Through Defendants' willful misrepresentations and withholding of material information as to their intentions and the purposes for which Plaintiff's payments were not being paid, and through their diversion from Plaintiff of amounts which should have been paid to him, Defendants abused and betrayed Plaintiff's trust and confidence in them, to Plaintiff's great detriment, in that he has been deprived of the said amounts due him, the precise amount of which cannot be calculated without access to Defendants' books and records, and a full accounting by them.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreedupon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

VI. CIVIL THEFT Against All Defendants

48. This is an action for Civil Theft under Chapter 772, Florida Statutes, more specifically §772.11, Fla.Stats.

49. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

50. All funds which Defendants' records will reveal are due to Plaintiff but which have been deposited to any of the Defendants' accounts or which have been received by any Defendant or diverted by any Defendant to any recipient but Plaintiff are the specific funds to which this Count relates.

51. By refusing to pay to Plaintiff funds due him under their agreement, and by paying said sums to themselves or to others, Defendants have been guilty of criminal theft by conversion, which has been and continues to be performed by Defendants with the criminal intent of stealing his money and depriving him of the possession and use thereof.

52. Written demand for payment of all amounts due Plaintiff has been made to Defendants, more than 30 days preceding the filing of this Complaint, to no avail.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for three times the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts, and such other remedies as may be awarded Plaintiff under other Counts herein, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

VII. FRAUD (Against All Defendants)

53. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

54. Defendants, with the intent to defraud Plaintiff by preventing his receipt of moneys due him from Defendants as commissions, salary, distributions, expenses, and otherwise, made false statements to him and withheld material information from him, all as specifically set forth in preceding paragraphs 20 through 24 above.

55. At the time said statements were made, Defendants knew that they were material and false, and that Plaintiff would rely thereon. At the time said material information was withheld from Plaintiffs, Defendants knew that the information being withheld was material, and that the withholding of the information would cause Plaintiff to rely on the absence of said information

56. Defendants intended for Plaintiff to rely on said false statements of material fact and to rely on the absence of the material facts which were withheld.

57. Plaintiff did rely on the false statements and the withholding of material information, and was damaged thereby. Through the loss the possession and use of moneys due him but withheld by Defendants under their scheme to defraud him of said money.

58. The behavior of Defendants in deceiving Plaintiff and in abusing the trust they had engendered in Plaintiff, as set forth in preceding paragraphs 42 through 47, which are incorporated herein by reference as if expressly restated herein, was in willful and conscious disregard of his rights, and was of such a concerted, premeditated, and outrageous nature as to go beyond the bounds of decency, and constituted rampant fraud.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreedupon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

VIII. EQUITABLE LIEN

59. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive, and paragraphs 54 through 58, inclusive.

60. The bank accounts into which any of the commissions received by Defendants as to which Plaintiff was to receive a share of commissions received, and the operating accounts and other accounts of the corporate Defendants into which said commission checks were deposited were intended by Defendants and by Plaintiff to be the source out of which Plaintiff would be paid, and they therefore were intended to be, and therefore should be, charged by this Court with the obligation of being the source of all amounts Plaintiff was and is to be paid, including amounts not yet paid.

61. Any and all other accounts into which were deposited said commissions or any part thereof, out of which Plaintiff was to be paid, should, out of general considerations of right and justice as applied to the relations of the parties and the circumstances of their dealings, be charged with the obligation of paying Plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreedupon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts. Plaintiff further prays for the Court to declare and establish an equitable lien in favor of Plaintiff on all the accounts described in preceding paragraphs 60 and 61, and for all other accounts into which said commissions have been or will be wholly or partly diverted, and on all assets of Defendants or third parties which have been purchased wholly or partly with the diversion of said funds due Plaintiff. Plaintiff further prays for such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

IX. CONTRACT IMPLIED IN LAW

62. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 25, inclusive.

63. By keeping the moneys due Plaintiff, Defendants have been unjustly enriched.

64. By agreeing to permit Defendants to receive, possess and control the paperwork revealing commissions received, and by agreeing that Defendants would assume the function of calculating amounts due the parties, Plaintiff conferred on Defendants the benefit of controlling the disposition of the funds received, including those due Plaintiff. The Defendants, having induced Plaintiff to confer said benefit, knew of the benefit and accepted and retained the benefit and abused it to defraud the Plaintiff.

65. The Circumstances are such that it would be inequitable for the Defendants to retain the benefit of the possession and use of funds due Plaintiff

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment that there exists a contract implied in law with the terms against Defendants described above, and for judgment against all Defendants, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and postjudgment interest on said amounts, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

X. CONSTRUCTIVE TRUST

66. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

67. The bank accounts into which any of the commissions received by Defendants as to which Plaintiff was to receive a share of commissions received, and the operating accounts and other accounts of the corporate Defendants into which said commission checks were deposited were intended by Defendants and by Plaintiff to be the source out of which Plaintiff would be paid, and they therefore were intended to be, and therefore should be, charged by this Court with the obligation of being the source of all amounts Plaintiff was and is to be paid, including amounts not yet paid.

68. Any and all other accounts into which were deposited said commissions or any part thereof, out of which Plaintiff was to be paid, should, out of general considerations of right and justice as applied to the relations of the parties and the circumstances of their dealings, be charged with the obligation of paying Plaintiff.

.WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreedupon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts. Plaintiff further prays for the Court to declare and establish a constructive trust in favor of Plaintiff on all the accounts described in preceding paragraphs 60 and 61, and for all other accounts into which said commissions have been or will be wholly or partly diverted, and on all assets of Defendants or third parties which have been purchased wholly or partly with the diversion of said funds due Plaintiff. Plaintiff further prays for such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

XL INDEMNIFICATION

69. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

70. When Defendants entered the arrangement with Plaintiff described in preceding paragraph 13, SIMON BERNSTEIN, acting for himself and on behalf of the corporate Defendants and TED BERNSTEIN, and for their collective and shared benefit, told Plaintiff that it would be better for the simplicity of administration, if Plaintiff would arrange for all commissions, paid by insurance companies for sales of the said product by the Defendant companies, to be paid in the name of Plaintiff., even though Plaintiff would ultimately receive only 15% thereof.

71. Plaintiff, believing the representation that this was being requested solely to simplify bookkeeping and administration, agreed to receive all commissions in his own name, even though the bulk of each commission would become the property of the various Defendants.

72. At the time Defendants, through SIMON BERNSTEIN, represented to Plaintiff that the reason for their request that Plaintiff receive all commissions solely in his own name was for administrative simplicity, they knew that they had an ulterior motive in making this request. Their said motive was that, in the event any insurance company which had paid a commission for sale of the said product were to request a full refund of the commission on the ground that the insurance client or the broker had falsified the application for the policy, Defendants intended to disclaim liability therefor, and to avoid personal and corporate responsibility for any requests for refund of commissions paid, even though they collectively have received 85% of each such commission. 73. Plaintiff, acting in good faith, did not realize that Defendants were concealing this motive, or that such was their motive, and he reasonably relied on their representations as to the reason for the request, to his detriment.

74. As a direct and proximate result of the Defendants' representations, Plaintiff will have nominal full liability for refund of any commissions thus sought to be refunded as described in preceding paragraph 72. Such liability creates the certainty that requests for refunds will be made solely to Plaintiff, even though Defendants received 85% of the commissions. Such disproportionate and unfair liability has been caused by the willful misrepresentation by Defendants.

75. Plaintiff was without fault in reasonably relying on the said representations.

76. Defendants were solely at fault in creating the said liability.

77. There was a special relationship between Plaintiff and the Defendants, because Plaintiff was acting as the nominal agent for Defendants in receiving in his name 100% of the commissions, making him vicariously liable for the refund of the 85% of commissions which were retained by Defendants for their own benefit.

78. Moreover, Defendants had ceased to pay Plaintiff any commissions. Instead, as an employee he was now receiving a salary. To reflect Plaintiff's successful generation of Defendants' business, Defendants made Plaintiff's salary approximate 15% of the amount of commissions received. Nonetheless, as Plaintiff was not receiving any share of commissions per se, he should not have his indemnification limited to 85%, but rather it should be to the full 100% of all commissions being refunded.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for a Judgment in his favor, and against all Defendants, Adjudicating them under an obligation to defend, hold harmless and indemnify Plaintiff from Case: 1:13-cv-03643 Document #: 258-3 Filed: 08/27/16 Page 344 of 1000 PageID #:6784 Case: 17-3595 Document: 12-11 Filed: 03/12/2018 Pages: 1000 and against refund claims for said commissions, to the extent of 100% thereof, and for such other and further relief as the Court shall deem just and appropriate.

MOTION FOR SUBSTITUTION OF PARTY

Plaintiff, WILLIAM E. STANSBURY ("Plaintiff"), by and through his undersigned counsel and pursuant to Rule 1.260(a) of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, hereby moves this Court for entry of an Order substituting the personal representative of the ESTATE OF SIMON BERNSTEIN (the "Estate") in place of SIMON BERNSTEIN (the "Decedent") as a party to this action, and in support thereof state as follows:

1. On or about July 30, 2012, Plaintiff filed the Complaint that initiated this action against the defendants named therein, including the Decedent.

2. The Decedent died on September 13, 2012. A Suggest of Death statement was served by Defendants in this action on or about September 19, 2012. The personal representative retained commissions to a 1,000,000 salary and a pro rata (10%) distribution of any profits going forward. Plaintiff concedes that he was paid his alleged agreed-upon commissions in 2005, 2006 and 2007. See Complaint at ¶¶ 13 and 16-18. Therefore, Plaintiff's alleged causes of actions can only be based upon the purported breach of the alleged modified oral contract(s) in 2008.

12. While Plaintiff's Complaint fails to specifically identify the precise date the breach of the alleged oral contract(s) occurred, it appears, based on Plaintiff's allegations, that the purported breach would have occurred in "early 2008". See Complaint at ¶¶ 22 and 28 (Plaintiff alleges that he has been "deprived of moneys [sic] due him . . . [for] approximately four and a half years.") (emphasis added).

13. Consequently, the statute of limitations expired on Plaintiff's various causes of action to the extent based upon claims accruing prior to July 31, 2008. Plaintiff, however, did not file his Complaint until July 30, 2012. Therefore, Counts I, II, III, IV, V, VI, VIII, IX and X should be dismissed as being barred by the statute of limitations.

B. Counts II (Accounting), III (Breach of Oral Contract) IV (Breach of Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing) and Count IX (Contract Implied in Law) Should Also be Dismissed Because Plaintiff Has Not Alleged Sufficient Facts to Assert Claims Against Ted in His Individual Capacity

14. Plaintiff's Complaint fails to specify how or why Ted is personally liable for the payment of an alleged obligation of either LIC and/or AIM to Plaintiff. Indeed, Plaintiff admits that he was an employee of the Corporate Defendants, he was paid by AIM and entered into the alleged oral contract(s), and subsequent modified oral contract(s), with LIC and/or AIM.

15. Plaintiff's theory upon which he attempts to sue Ted is unclear at best. Indeed, Plaintiff never alleges Ted was a party to the alleged oral contract(s) or that he agreed to be personally responsible for payment to Plaintiff. The Defendants and the Court should not be required to guess as to this fundamental matter, which is conspicuously absent from the Complaint.

16. In order to impose personal liability against Ted for breach of an oral contract(s) with the Corporate Defendants, breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing relating to the alleged oral contract(s), for an individual accounting, and a contract implied in law, Plaintiff must affirmatively allege that Ted acted in some capacity other than as a mere officer of the Corporate Defendants. See Superior Garlic International v. E&A Produce Corp., 913 So. 2d 645 (Fla. 3d DCA 2005) (claim against president of company was improper where there was no evidence that president acted in a personal capacity rather than as a officer).

17. Additionally, Plaintiff does not allege, nor can he, that any consideration flowed to Ted, individually. Without any consideration, there can be no enforceable contract. St. Joe Corp. v. McIver, 875 So. 2d 375 (Fla. 2004) (an oral contract is subject to the basic requirements of contract law, such as offer, acceptance, consideration and sufficient specification of essential terms).

18. Because there is no set of facts under which Plaintiff can state a cause of action against Ted, individually, Count II (Accounting), Count III (Breach of Oral Contract), Count IV (Breach of the Implied Covenant of Good Faith & Fair Dealing) and Count IX (Contract Implied in Law) should be dismissed as to Ted.

C. Counts I (Accounting Against LIC and AIM) and Count II (Accounting Against T. Bernstein and S. Bernstein) Should Also Be Dismissed Because Plaintiff's Allegations Are Inherently Contradictory and Plaintiff Fails to State a Cause of Action

19. In Counts I and II, Plaintiff seeks an accounting, dating back to 2003, against the Corporate Defendants and the individual Defendants, respectively. Aside from the fact that Plaintiff's Complaint is devoid of any allegations that Ted was a party to the alleged oral contract(s) between Plaintiff and one or both of the Corporate Defendants, or any other allegations under which Ted could be held individually liable for breach of the alleged oral contract(s) and a corresponding accounting, Plaintiff admits in paragraphs 16-19 -- which are expressly incorporated by reference into Count I -- that Plaintiff was properly paid through 2007.

20. Further, Plaintiff asserts in paragraph 28 of Count I and paragraph 31 of Count II that he is purportedly owed payment for "four and a half years" under an alleged oral contract. These allegations are both inconsistent with Plaintiff's demand for an accounting in both Counts I and II dating back to 2003 and are vague. See WHEREFORE clauses following ¶¶ 28 and 31. Accordingly, Counts I and II should be dismissed. See Peacock v. General Motors Acceptance Corp., 432 So. 2d 142, 146 (Fla. 1st DCA 1983)("contradictory allegations within a single count neutralize each other and render the count insufficient on its face", even where they are "incorporated in that count" from a prior count of the complaint).

21. Additionally, Counts I and II should be dismissed because Plaintiff's Complaint fails to allege the requisite elements for an accounting. To state a cause of action for an accounting, Plaintiff must allege that (1) the Plaintiff and Defendants shared a fiduciary relationship or entered a complex transaction and (2) a remedy at law is inadequate. See Bankers Trust Realty Inc. v. Kluge, 672 So. 2d 897, 898 (Fla. 3d DCA 1996). Here, although Plaintiff has

har a a a a service se

inartfully and in confusing fashion alleged that the accounting required to assess what he is purportedly owed under the oral contract(s) is complex, that is irrelevant as the underlying transaction must be complex, which, even accepting Plaintiff's allegations, it is not. See Complaint ¶¶ 28 and 31. Moreover, Plaintiff's allegation that his "remedy at law could not be as full, adequate and expeditious as it is in equity" does not meet the second element required under Kluge. Plaintiff's failure to clearly plead and allege ultimate facts for either element warrants dismissal of Counts I and II.

D. Count IV (Breach of Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing) Should Be Dismissed Because It Fails to State a Claim and is Duplicative of Count III (Breach of Oral Contract)

22. "[A] claim for breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing cannot be maintained under Florida law absent an allegation that an express term of the contract has been breached. A duty of good faith must relate to the performance of an express term of the contract and is not an abstract and independent term of a contract which may be asserted as a source of breach..." Insurance Concepts and Design, Inc. v. Healthplan Services, Inc., 785 So. 2d 1232, 1234 -1235 (Fla. 4th DCA 2001) (emphasis added).

23. "The duty of good faith does not attach until the Plaintiff can establish a [specific] term of the contract that [the defendant] was obligated to perform. Id.; see Onuss Ortak Nokta Uluslararasi Haberlesme Sistem Servis Bilgisayar Yazilim Danismanlik Ve Dis Ticaret v. Terminal Exch., LLC, No. 09-80720, 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 22216, at *9 (S.D. Fla. Mar. 10, 2010) (applying Florida law) ("The breach of implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing is not an independent cause of action but attaches to the performance of a specific contractual obligation.") (emphasis added). Citing then New Hampshire Supreme Court Justice Souter, the court in Cox v. CSX Intermodal, Inc., 732 So. 2d 1092 (Fla. 1st DCA 1999) explained the proper circumstances for applying the implied obligation of good faith and fair dealing.

[U]nder an agreement that appears by word or silence to invest one party with a degree of discretion in performance sufficient to deprive another party of a substantial portion of the agreement's value, the parties' intent to be bound by an enforceable contract raises an implied obligation of good faith to observe reasonable limits in exercising that discretion, consistent with the parties purpose or purposes in contracting.

Id. at 1097. The Cox Court concluded "where the terms of the contract afford a party substantial discretion to promote that party's self-interest, the duty to act in good faith nevertheless limits that party's ability to act capriciously to contravene the reasonable contractual expectations of the other party." Id. at 1097-98.

24. In Count IV of the Complaint, Plaintiff fails to allege an express term of the contract for which Defendants³ purportedly breached their implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing. Instead, Plaintiff generally alleges the terms of the alleged oral contract(s) and then concludes the Count by summarily stating: "Defendants willfully breached the said express [terms] of the contract."

25. It is insufficient, however, for Plaintiff to conclusorily allege that Defendants breached the terms of the contract. Plaintiff must pinpoint the express term of the contract upon which the purported cause of action relates. Accordingly, Count IV of the Complaint should be dismissed on this ground alone.

26. Count IV should also be dismissed as duplicative of Count III (Breach of Oral Contract). Florida law provides that "a breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing cannot be advanced when the allegations underlying that claim are duplicative of the allegations supporting the breach of contract claim." Onuss, at *10 (S.D. Fla. Mar. 10, 2010); see Enola Contr. Servs. v. URS Group, Inc., No. 5:08cv2-RS-EMT, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33441, at *18 (N.D. Fla. Apr. 23, 2008) (applying Florida law) (dismissing with prejudice breach of good faith and fair dealing claim where such claim was "indistinguishable from" and "subsumed within" the breach of contract claim); see also Shibata v. Lim, 133 F. Supp. 2d 1311, 1321-1322 (M.D. Fla. 2000) (applying Florida law) (dismissing breach of implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing claim because there was "no difference between the factual underpinnings of [the] breach of contract claim and [the] claim for breach of the implied covenant").

27. Here, Plaintiff's Breach of Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing alleges that "Defendants willfully breached the [following] said express [terms] of the contract": "that Plaintiff would be constantly apprised, either through being permitted to calculate all amounts due the Defendants [sic] out of commissions, or through being advised of all receipts of commissions and the disposition thereof, or the amounts due to Plaintiff for any reason under the terms of the contract; and (b) that Plaintiff would be fully and promptly paid all such amounts due him." Complaint at ¶¶ 42-43.⁴

28. These allegations, however, are nearly identical to the allegations supporting Plaintiff's breach of oral contract claim in Count III. See, e.g., Count III at \P 34 ("An express term of that contract involved the commitment of Defendants to calculate, and to pay to Plaintiff, fully and timely, all sums due to him under the parties' contract, whether as commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason.") and \P 36 ("[] Defendants willfully and maliciously agreed to breach their contract with Plaintiff by withholding from Plaintiff moneys due him under the contract."). Such allegations already form the basis of Plaintiff's breach of oral contract claim in Count II and, therefore, cannot support a separate cause of action for breach of good faith and fair dealing. Consequently, Count IV of Plaintiff's Complaint should be dismissed.

E. Count V (Breach of Fiduciary Duty), Count VI (Civil Theft) and Count VII (Fraud) Are Barred by the Economic Loss Rule

29. "The economic loss rule is a judicially created doctrine that sets forth the circumstances under which a tort action is prohibited if the only damages suffered are economic losses." Indemnity Ins. Co. of N. Am. v. Am. Aviation, Inc., 891 So. 2d 532, 536 (Fla. 2004); U.S. Fire Ins. Co. v. J.S.U.B., Inc., 979 So. 2d 871 (Fla. 2007) (noting that "the economic loss doctrine determines what cause of action is available to recover economic losses-tort or contract").

30. Specifically, the economic loss doctrine applies where "the parties are in contractual privity and one party seeks to recover damages in tort for matters arising from the contract." Indemnity Ins. Co. of N. Am., 891 So. 2d at 536 (emphasis added). The purpose of the doctrine is to "protect the integrity of contract," and to prevent contract law from "drown[ing] in a sea of tort." Id. at 537-38, 544.

31. The doctrine is designed to "prevent parties to a contract from circumventing the allocation of losses set forth in the contract by bringing an action for economic loss in tort." Id. at 536. In other words, "[n]o cause of action in tort can arise from a breach of a duty existing by virtue of a contract." Weimar v. Yacht Club Point Estates, Inc., 223 So. 2d 100, 103 (Fla. 4th DCA 1969) (emphasis added). The economic loss rule provides that "without some conduct resulting in personal injury or property damage, there can be no independent tort flowing from a contractual breach which would justify a tort claim solely for economic losses." HTP, Ltd. v. Lineas Aereas Costarricenses, S.A., 685 So. 2d 1238, 1239 (Fla. 1996).

32. Simply stated, "a cause of action for breach of fiduciary duty will not lie where the claim of breach is dependent upon the existence of a contractual relationship between the parties." Detwiler v. Bank of Central Florida, 736 So. 2d 757, 759 (Fla. 5th DCA 1999).

33. Count V (Breach of Fiduciary Duty) and Count VII (Fraud) of Plaintiff's Complaint are barred by the economic loss rule because Plaintiff cites the exact same allegations of fact in support of his breach of oral contract claim.

34. Specifically, Plaintiff alleges in Count V that he "trusted Defendants to make proper, accurate and complete calculations, as Plaintiff had done, and to pay Plaintiff accordingly." Complaint at ¶ 43.⁵ In Count VII at paragraph 58, Plaintiff incorporates the same allegations asserted in his breach of fiduciary duty claim into his fraud claim. Nearly identical allegations are cited in support of Plaintiff's breach of oral contract claim. See Complaint at ¶¶ 34-36. Thus, Plaintiff's breach of fiduciary duty and fraud claims arise out of the same conduct that constitutes the purported breach the alleged oral contract. As such, Counts V and VII are barred by the economic loss rule and should be dismissed.

⁵ The numbered paragraphs of Count V of the Complaint are improperly numbered and contain paragraph numbers that are duplicative of the numbered paragraphs of Count IV.

Hotels of Key Largo, Inc. v. RHI Hotels, Inc., 694 So. 2d 74 (Fla. 3d DCA 1997) (Hotel franchisee's claim of fraud against franchisor barred by economic loss doctrine where defendant alleged to have failed to perform contract). Here, Plaintiff's fraud claim clearly relates to the purported failure of the Defendants to perform the alleged contract. See Complaint at ¶154-58. Indeed, as noted above, Plaintiff's prayer for his fraud claim reveals that this claim is really a breach of contract claim in sheep's clothing, providing "WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment . . . for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract,...."

36. Finally, the economic loss rule applies to statutory causes of action, which are characterized as statutory torts. Sarkis v. Pafford Oil Co., Inc., 697 So. 2d 524, 527 (Fla. 1st DCA 1997) (Civil theft claim barred by economic loss rule). See also Gambolati v. Sarkisian, 622 So. 2d 47 (Fla. 4th DCA 1993) and Gilman Yacht Sales v. First National Bank of Chicago, 600 So. 2d 1131 (Fla. 4th DCA 1992). Accordingly, Plaintiff's civil theft claim is barred by the economic loss rule and must be dismissed.

F. Counts V (Breach of Fiduciary Duty) and VII (Fraud) Should be Dismissed Because Plaintiff's Alleged Damages, if Any, Result from the Breach of a Purported Contract Rather than From Fraud

37. Additionally, the damages Plaintiff seeks in Counts V and VII are contractual damages -- "the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract." See WHEREFORE clause following paragraph 47 of the Complaint and WHEREFORE clause following paragraph 58. "[N]o cause of action for fraud exists unless there is damage due to fraud that is separate from damages that may result from any subsequent contractual breach." La Pesca Grande Charters, Inc. v. Moran, 704 So. 2d 710 (Fla. 5th DCA 1998) (emphasis in original). Here, at most, any damage to Plaintiff, which Defendants deny, stems from the purported breach of the alleged contract. Accordingly, Counts V and VII should be dismissed.

G. Count V (Breach of Fiduciary Duty) Should Be Dismissed Because Plaintiff Has Failed to State a Cause of Action

38. Although Count V fails to specify which of the four (4) Defendants Plaintiff is suing for breach of fiduciary duty and demands judgment against "Plaintiffs" -- all of which is further evidence of the highly confusing, vague and ambiguous nature of Plaintiff's Complaint -- Count V should also be dismissed because it fails to state a cause of action for breach of fiduciary duty.

39. To state a claim for breach of fiduciary duty, Plaintiff must plead, and allege ultimate supporting facts demonstrating, the following elements: (1) Plaintiff and Defendants share a relationship whereby: (a) Plaintiff reposes trust and confidence in Defendants, and (b) Defendants undertake such trust and assume a duty to advise, counsel and/or protect Plaintiff; (2) Defendants breach their duties to Plaintiff; and (3) Plaintiff suffers damages. Taylor Woodrow Homes Florida, Inc. v. 4/46-A Corp., 850 So. 2d 536, 540-541 (Fla. 5th DCA 2003).

40. To the extent Plaintiff is asserting Count V against the Corporate Defendants, Plaintiff has wholly failed to allege any of the requisite elements for a breach of fiduciary duty claim and, therefore, Count V should be dismissed as against AIM and LIC. Moreover, an employer does not owe a general fiduciary duty to its employees. See, e.g., Eden v. St. Luke's-Roosevelt Hosp. Ctr., 96 AD.3d 614 (N.Y. App. Div. 2012) ("Neither an agreement by an employer to share profits with an employee as compensation for the latter's services nor a contract 'of mere hiring and providing for compensation in a particular manner supposedly tending to induce greater energy and faithfulness on the part of the employee' creates a fiduciary relationship between the employer and employee.") (internal citations omitted).

41. To the extent Plaintiff seeks to assert Count V against Ted, Plaintiff's Complaint fails to allege how Ted, a minority shareholder of the Corporate Defendants, owed any duty to Plaintiff. Plaintiff cannot plead a viable fiduciary relationship by merely alleging a bestowal of trust and confidence in Ted. "A party must allege some degree of dependency on one side and some degree of undertaking on the other side to advise, counsel, and protect the weaker party." Watkins v. NCNB Nat'l Bank of Fla., N.A., 622 So. 2d 1063, 1065 (Fla. 3d DCA 1993) (emphasis added).

42. Plaintiff does not -- and cannot allege -- that he was the "weaker party" in his relationship with Ted because Plaintiff admits that he was a sophisticated, knowledgeable and highly regarded business person in the insurance industry. See Complaint at ¶ 8. The only affiliation between Plaintiff and Ted, besides being in an alleged "social relationship",⁶ was that of business associates, which is in and of itself insufficient to support a fiduciary duty claim. See Orlinsky v. Patraka, 971 So. 2d 796, 800 (Fla. 3d DCA 2007) ("the only relation between Orlinsky and Patraka, besides being brothers-in-law, was that of business associates. Patraka has not cited any case where a general fiduciary duty has been found in the context of two business associates.").

43. Here, because Ted did not owe a fiduciary duty to Plaintiff, Count V of Plaintiff's Complaint must be dismissed.

⁶ Complaint at Count V, ¶ 42.

H. Count VI (Civil Theft) Should Be Dismissed Because Plaintiff Has Failed to State a Cause of Action

44. In Florida, civil theft is a statutory form of conversion. Sarkis v. Pafford Oil Co., 697 So. 2d 524, 528 (1st DCA 1997). In order to state a claim for civil theft, a complaint must allege that the defendant knowingly obtained or used, or endeavored to obtain or to use the plaintiff's property with the intent to temporarily or permanently deprive the plaintiff of a right to property or a benefit from the property; or the defendant appropriated the plaintiff's property for use by the defendant or another person who does not have a right to use the property. See Palmer v. Gotta Have It Golf Collectibles, Inc., 106 F. Supp. 2d 1289, 1303 (S.D. Fla. 2000) (interpreting Florida's civil theft statute). "Further, it is necessary to show not only that defendant obtained or endeavored to obtain the plaintiff's property, but that he did so with felonious intent to commit theft." Id. (internal quotations omitted).

45. The Fourth District Court of Appeal has held that where the property at issue is also the subject of a contract – as is the case here – there must be an intricate sophisticated scheme of deceit and theft to maintain a separate count for civil theft. Gersh v. Coffman, 769 So. 2d 407, 409 (Fla. 4th DCA 2000). Plaintiff's complaint is devoid of any allegations detailing or even suggesting a "sophisticated scheme of deceit and theft". Accordingly, Count VI should be dismissed.

46. Further, in order to maintain a claim for civil theft, the property that is alleged to have been converted must consist of specific money capable of identification. Belford Trucking Co. v. Zagar, 243 So. 2d 646, 648 (Fla. 4th DCA 1970). Additionally, "[a] debt which may be discharged by the payment of money in general cannot form the basis for conversion." Gambolati v. Sarkisian 622 So. 2d 47, 50 (Fla. 4th DCA 1993). Here, Plaintiff alleges generally that he did not receive certain compensation rather than an entitlement to specific dollars capable of identification. Indeed, in the Complaint, Plaintiff admits he received his salary for 2007. See Complaint at ¶ 18. Thus, the only other period within the five year statute of limitations, per Florida Statute § 772.11, would be in 2008 -- the period in which he claims he had a contract to be paid a salary of $1 million plus his proportionate interest in any profits. See Complaint at ¶ 21. By its very terms, the alleged contract does not relate to specific funds capable of identification as required under Florida law to state a viable claim for civil theft. Mazza v. Rose Media Group, Inc., 937 So. 2d 307, 310 (Fla. 4th DCA 2006). Accordingly, Count VI should be dismissed.⁷

I. Count VII (Fraud) Must be Dismissed Because Plaintiff Fails to Properly Plead the Required Elements to State a Claim for Fraud

47. To state a claim for fraud, a pleader must allege "[a] false representation of a material fact, made with knowledge of its falsity, to a person ignorant thereof, with intention that it shall be acted upon, followed by reliance upon and by action thereon amounting to substantial change of position, is a fraud of which the law will take cognizance." Biscayne Boulevard Properties, Inc. v. Graham, 65 So. 2d 858 (Fla. 1953) (emphasis added). "For fraud and deceit to be actionable, there must have been a false representation of a material fact made for the purpose of inducing another to change position, which change in position was occasioned by reliance on the false representation to the damage of the one to whom the representation was made." Goodman v. Strassburg, 139 So. 2d 163 (Fla. 3d DCA 1962)(emphasis added). Here, although Plaintiff alleges he relied upon "false statements and the withholdding of material information", he fails to allege that he has changed his position in any way. See Complaint at ¶ 57. As a result, Count VII should be dismissed.

48. Further, Count VII should be dismissed for the additional reason that Plaintiff has failed to plead fraud with particularity, as required by Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.120(b). "The factual basis for a claim of fraud must be pled with particularity and must specifically identify misrepresentations or omissions of fact, as well as time, place or manner in which they were made." Cedars Healthcare Group, Ltd. v. Mehta, 16 So. 3d 914, 917 (Fla. 3d DCA 2009).

49. Here, Plaintiff fails to allege with particularity the who, what, when and how underlying his purported fraud claim. Instead, Plaintiff lumps all four (4) Defendants together and summarily alleges that Defendants "made false statements to him and withheld information from him." See Complaint at \P 54. There is no allegation with any particularity as to the substance of any false statement(s) or the time frame or the context in which any alleged statement(s) were made or omitted when there was a duty to speak.

50. Plaintiff's vague allegations regarding purported false statements and withheld information falls short of the heightened fraud pleading requirements under Rule 1.120(b) and is insufficient to support a claim for fraud.

J. Count VIII (Equitable Lien) and Count X (Constructive Trust) Should Be Dismissed For Failure to State a Cause of Action

51. In paragraphs 60 and 61 of Count VIII and paragraph 67 of Count X, Plaintiff alleges he was entitled to a share of "commissions received by Defendants." However, in paragraph 21, as reincorporated in Count VIII by paragraph 59 and paragraph 66 in Count X, Plaintiff alleges his compensation changed in "early 2008" and he was no longer entitled to a share of any commissions.⁸ Thus, Counts VIII and X are internally inconsistent, rendering Counts VIII and X subject to dismissal. See Peacock v. General Motors Acceptance Corp., 432 So. 2d 142, 146 (Fla. 1st DCA 1983) ("contradictory allegations within a single count neutralize each other and render the count insufficient on its face", even where they are "incorporated in that count" from a prior count of the complaint).

52. Even assuming Plaintiff's allegations were not inconsistent and self-defeating, Plaintiff has failed to properly plead the elements required for the imposition of an equitable lien. Under Florida law, "the basis of equitable liens may be estoppel or unjust enrichment." Golden v. Woodward, 15 So.3d 664 (Fla. 1st DCA 2009). In Count VIII, Plaintiff appears to be proceeding under a theory of unjust enrichment, however, Plaintiff has failed to properly plead the elements of an unjust enrichment claim to support an equitable lien claim.⁹ Instead, Plaintiff merely alleges an equitable lien should be imposed "out of general considerations of right and justice as applied to the relations of the parties and the circumstances of their dealings." See Complaint at \P 61.

53. Further, Plaintiff has failed to properly state a claim for the imposition of a constructive trust.¹⁰ A constructive trust may be imposed only where there is a wrongful taking of the property of another. Finkelstein v. Southeast Bank, N.A., 490 So. 2d 976, 984 (Fla. 4th DCA 1986). To establish a claim for the imposition of a constructive trust, a plaintiff must

⁸ As discussed above, the statute of limitations prevents Plaintiff from seeking an equitable lien over commissions purportedly due and payable to him prior to "early 2008", when his compensation allegedly changed.

⁹ The elements of a claim for unjust enrichment are: "(1) plaintiff has conferred a benefit on the defendant, who has knowledge thereof; (2) defendant voluntarily accepts and retains the benefit conferred; and (3) the circumstances are such that it would be inequitable for the defendant to retain the benefit without paying the value thereof to the plaintiff." Hillman Const. Corp. V. Wainer, 636 So. 2d 576, 577 (Fla. 4th DCA 1994).

¹⁰ Plaintiff's allegations in Count VIII (Equitable Lien) and IX Constructive Trust are virtually indistinguishable. While Plaintiff's Complaint fails to identify which of the four (4) Defendants Plaintiff is suing in Counts VIII and X and prays for judgment against "Plaintiffs" in the WHEREFORE clause to both counts, Plaintiff's Equitable Lien and Constructive Trust claims are subject to dismissal at least against Defendant Ted, individually, for the reasons set forth in III.B. supra.

prove: "(1) a promise, express or implied; (2) a transfer of the property and reliance thereon; (3) a confidential relationship; and (4) unjust enrichment." Abreu v. Amaro, 534 So. 2d 771, 772 (Fla. 3d DCA 1988).

54. Here, Plaintiff was never the legal holder of the property for which he seeks to have the Court impose a constructive trust, thereby subjecting Count X to dismissal. At most, Plaintiff was entitled to a percentage of the commissions, well prior to his compensation allegedly changing in "early 2008" and the running of the statute of limitations. See Complaint at \P 21. Plaintiff's allegations admit that Plaintiff never owned the commissions he now claims he is entitled to have a constructive trust placed over.¹¹ Thus, Plaintiff's claim for imposition of a constructive trust should be dismissed.

55. Moreover, to obtain a constructive trust, the res over which the trust is sought must be specifically identifiable property. Trend Setter Villas of Deercreek v. Villas on the Green, Inc., 569 So. 2d 766, 768 (Fla. 4th DCA 1990). Here, Plaintiff alleges generally that he did not receive certain compensation rather than an entitlement to specific dollars capable of identification. Plaintiff's allegations admit that he was entitled to payment generally, rather than to receive specific dollars. Thus, Plaintiff cannot state a viable claim for the imposition of a constructive trust. Accordingly, Count X should be dismissed.

K. Counts VIII (Equitable Lien) and IX (Contract Implied in Law) Should be Dismissed for Failure to State a Cause of Action

56. In pleading an unjust enrichment claim, where an express contract exists, a claim for unjust enrichment will fail.¹² Similarly, where an express contract exists, a claim for an equitable lien premised upon allegations of unjust enrichment must also fail. Diamond "S" Development Corp. v. Mercantile Bank, 989 So. 2d 696 (Fla. 1st DCA 2008). Here, paragraph 59 of Count VIII reincorporates the allegations of paragraph 21, which allege an express contract. Similarly, paragraph 62 of Count IX reincorporates the allegations of paragraph 21.¹³ Thus, Plaintiff's Counts VIII and IX must be dismissed.

¹² Among the elements required for pleading a claim for unjust enrichment is that the plaintiff "conferred a benefit upon the defendant, who has knowledge thereof." Hillman 636 So. 2d at 577. Here, Plaintiff broadly alleges he

L. Count XI (Indemnification) Should Be Dismissed As Premature and For Failure to State a Cause of Action

57. In Count X, Plaintiff seeks indemnification from Defendants from potential future claims by insurance companies which may seek a refund of commissions allegedly paid to Plaintiff. Although it is unclear as to whether Count XI is a claim for common law indemnification or statutory indemnification, Count XI is premature under either theory of recovery and, therefore, should be dismissed.

58. "In order for a common law indemnity claim to stand, a two-pronged test must be satisfied: (1) the indemnitee must be faultless and (2) the indemnitee's liability must be solely vicarious for the wrongdoing of another." Zeiger Crane Rentals, Inc. v. Double A Indus., Inc., 16 So. 3d 907, 911 (Fla. 4th DCA 2009) (citing Gen. Portland Land Dev. Co. v. Stevens, 395 So. 2d 1296, 1299 (Fla. 4th DCA 1981)). A common law indemnity claim is premature if a judgment has not been entered. Mellish Enters., Inc. v. Weatherford Int'l, Inc., 678 So. 2d 913, conferred upon Defendants the benefit of "possessing and controlling the paperwork revealing commissions received and by agreeing that Defendants would assume the function of calculating amounts due the parties...." However, in paragraph 62, Plaintiff incorporates paragraph 6 into Count IX. Paragraph 6 alleges, in relevant part, that Ted and Simon "both own and control all of the corporate Defendants." Taking this allegation regarding the ownership and control of the Corporate Defendants as true for the purposes of this motion, as the shareholder/managing members of the Corporate Defendants, Ted (and Simon) were undoubtedly entitled to "possess and control the paperwork of the Corporate Defendants" and to "calculat[e] the amounts due the parties." Plaintiff's suggestion that he somehow broadly conferred a benefit upon all the Defendants, particularly Ted, turns the rights and benefits of corporate ownership on its head and ignores corporate law. Accordingly, because Plaintiff has not conferred a benefit upon the Defendants, collectively, or individually, Count IX should be dismissed.

914 (Fla. 4th DCA. 1996) ("The entry of a judgment provides the prerequisite for an indemnification action, not payment of the judgment.") (citing Flagship Nat'l Bank v. Gray Distrib. Sys., Inc., 485 So. 2d 1336, 1342 (Fla. 3d DCA 1986)).

59. Here, assuming that Count XI is a common law indemnification claim, the claim is premature and subject to dismissal because a judgment has not been entered against Plaintiff, nor has Plaintiff made such an allegation.

60. Similarly, statutory indemnification, which is governed by Section 607.0850(3), Florida Statutes, states:

To the extent that a director, officer, employee, or agent of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any proceeding referred to in subsection (1) or subsection (2), or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, he or she shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection therewith.

(emphasis added).

61. Plaintiff is currently not "a party to any proceeding" as required in subsections (1) and (2) of the statute, nor is Plaintiff currently defending a proceeding which may result indemnification under subsection (3). Accordingly, Count XI should be dismissed as premature.

62. Further, with respect to Defendant Ted, Plaintiff has failed to allege how Ted could be personally liable to indemnify Plaintiff. Plaintiff does not allege that he entered into any contract or agreement whereby Ted agreed to indemnify and hold Plaintiff harmless. Moreover, to the extent Count XI is a claim for statutory indemnification, such a claim would not cover Defendant Ted, a mere shareholder/officer of the Corporate Defendants.

IV. ALTERNATIVE MOTION FOR MORE DEFINITE STATEMENT

63. In the event the Court is not inclined to grant any portion of Defendants' Motion to Dismiss, Defendants Ted, LIC and AIM move for a more definite statement.

64. Florida R. Civ. P. 1.140(e) provides that "[i]f a pleading . . . is so vague or ambiguous that a party cannot reasonably be required to frame a responsive pleading, that party may move for a more definite statement before interposing a responsive pleading." See also Conklin v. Bpyd, 189 So. 2d 401, 403 (Fla. 1st DCA 1996) (holding that the "function of a motion for a more definite statement is to require that a vague, indefinite or ambiguous pleading be so amended so as to enable the party required to respond thereto, to intelligently discern the issues to be litigated and to properly frame its answer or reply.").

65. As set forth above, Plaintiff's Complaint is so vague, confusing, contradictory and meandering that it is virtually impossible to prepare a response to the allegations.

66. Among other things, Plaintiff lumps all four (4) Defendants -- which are separate and distinct individuals and legal entities -- together in his allegations, essentially alleging that everyone did everything. This type of pleading makes it virtually impossible for each of the Defendants to frame an appropriate response. Plaintiff's improper grouping of all of the Defendants in this action fails to distinguish each Defendant's particular conduct, fails to put each Defendant on adequate notice of the claims asserted against them and thereby fails to meet basic pleading requirements.

67. Moreover, Plaintiff fails to allege the which of the Corporate Defendants were parties to the purported oral contract(s) which serve the basis for Plaintiff's suit. In fact, it is unclear from the Complaint whether Plaintiff contends that multiple alleged oral contracts were entered into. Plaintiff also fails to outline the material terms of the alleged oral contract(s) and fails to allege when the purported breach(es) occurred.

68. At the very least, Plaintiff should be required to provide a more definite statement of his allegations against each specific Defendant and a more definite statement regarding the parties and terms of the alleged oral contract(s) upon which this action is purportedly based.

WHEREFORE, Defendants, TED S. BERNSTEIN, LIC HOLDINGS, INC., and ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, L.L.C., f/k/a ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, L.L.C., respectfully request entry of an Order: (i) granting this Motion and dismissing Plaintiff's Complaint in its entirety; (ii) awarding Defendants' their reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Fla. Stat. §§ 772.11 and 812.035(7); (iii) or, in the alternative, requiring Plaintiff file a more definite statement as to any count not dismissed, and (iv) for such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.

GREENBERG TRAURIG, P.A.'S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO WITHDRAW

Greenberg Traurig, P.A. ("GT") respectfully moves for leave to withdraw as counsel for Defendants Ted S. Bernstein, LIC Holdings, Inc. and Arbitrage International Marketing, LLC f/k/a Arbitrage International Holdings, LLC (the "Defendants") and in support of its motion, GT states as follows:

1. GT has served as counsel for the Defendants in this case.

2. However, irreconcilable conflicts have arisen between GT and the Defendants, which preclude GT from effectively representing the Defendants.

3. GT has attempted to resolve the conflict and has notified the Defendants of its intention to withdraw from the representation if the conflict could not be resolved.

4. Unfortunately, GT has been unable to resolve the conflict.

IMPORTANT

An Amended Complaint has been filed by the Plaintiff, WILLIAM E. STANSBURY, in the above-styled case. You have twenty (20) calendar days after this Summons is served on you to file a written response to the attached Amended Complaint with the Clerk of this Court. A phone call will not protect you. Your written response, including the case number given above and the names of the parties, must be filed if you want the Court to hear your side of the case. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case, and your wages, money, and property may thereafter be taken without further warning from the Court. There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may call an attorney referral service or a legal aid office (listed in the phone book).

If you choose to file a written response yourself, at the same time you file your written response to the Court you must also mail or take a copy of your written response to the Defendant's attorney named below.

Subject:	Substitution of Estate/Objection to Claim

Update - Despite the fact that the hearing was canceled by Stansbury's attorney to substitute the Estate, we have no basis by which to challenge the substitution in the litigation. Based on the documents we received in the litigation and the Order the judge handed down on the Motion to Dismiss filed by the Companies, Ted and Si, the Judge gave Stansbury 20 days (until Feb 12) to amend the complaint on those counts that were denied without prejudice. In all likelihood an amended complaint will be filed but it may not include a substitution of the Estate at that time. If the hearing to substitute the Estate is rescheduled, we will not be making an appearance to challenge the substitution.

We are filing an objection to the Stansbury claim today. That will start the clock running on Stansbury and his lawyer having to substitute the estate in the litigation. If they don't bring an action within 30 days the claim will be barred.

Christine - Your client needs to get control over his paranoia. Everything he does costs the estate more money and accomplishes nothing. My partner and I had a candid conversation with you about your client and his idiosyncrasies at the time you were engaged. He has turned this entire matter into a circus. Providing counsel to him means walking him off the ledge at certain times. This is one of those times. Please counsel him to go along with the planning that his father intended. Both Si and Shirley Bernstein are rolling around in their graves at this point.

Re: Stansbury v. Bernstein et al

Dear Alan:

As discussed in your e-mail a while back about improperly realleging paragraphs before each Count, enclosed please find Plaintiff's Motion to Amend by Interlineation which should be self-explanatory. Please let me know if I can submit an Agreed Order on this Motion.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

Case No. 502012CA013933XXXMBAA Materials for Hearing on Objections to Notice of Production from Non-Party CBIZ MHM, LLC scheduled November 12, 2013 at 10:00 a.m.

Dear Judge Blanc:

This office represents Defendants, LIC Holdings, Inc., Arbitrage International Holdings, LLC and Ted S. Bernstein. I am writing in connection with the hearing on our Objections to Notice of Production from Non-Party CBIZ MHM, LLC. The Objections and Plaintiff's Response are set for hearing on November 12, 2013 at 10:00 a.m.

I have enclosed the pending Notice of Production and our Objections, as well as the documents relating to the prior Requests to Produce addressed by the Court (Request, our Objections, the Motion to Compel, and the Order of Judge Kelley). These prior documents relate to requests that asked for the very same documents from the Defendants, LIC Holdings, Inc., Arbitrage International Management, LLC, and Ted S. Bernstein.

At a hearing held on April 15, 2013, Judge Kelley denied the Motion to Compel documents relating to financial information concerning the Defendant companies. Given the fact that the Plaintiff has a claim for an accounting, Judge Kelley ruled that much of the financial records requested were beyond the scope of discovery at this time. Certain of the Objections were overruled, and the responsive documents in connection with those Requests have been produced. The subpoena served on the third-party, the accounting firm which provides services to the Defendant companies, is simply another bite at the apple and is an end run around the prior order which determined that such documents should not be produced at this time, unless and until Plaintiff prevails on his accounting claim.

In addition, I would note that our Objection offered to confer with counsel for Plaintiff in an attempt to narrow these requests, but to date Plaintiff's counsel has made no attempt to confer with us, narrow or limit the scope of the production of accounting records from Defendants' accounting firm, and simply noticed the Objection for hearing.

We provide these materials to you in advance of the argument set for next week, and will be prepared to address the Court's questions and further argue these matters at the hearing.

We appreciate Your Honor's time and attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Alan B. Rose

Plaintiff,

DEFENDANTS', TED S. BERNSTEIN, LIC HOLDINGS, INC. AND ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, LLC, OBJECTION TO NOTICE OF PRODUCTION FROM NON-PARTY CBIZ MHM, LLC

Defendants, Ted S. Bernstein, LIC Holdings, Inc. and Arbitrage International Holdings, LLC (collectively "Defendants"), hereby object to the service of a subpoena duces tecum as identified in a Notice of Production from Non-Party to CBIZ MHM, LLC ("CBIZ") served on July 26, 2013 by Plaintiff, William E. Stansbury ("Plaintiff"), and state:

1. Defendants object to the service of this subpoena on the grounds that the documents sought, or a substantial portion of them, are subject to an accountant/client privilege, and potentially other applicable privileges including attorney/client privilege and work product privilege.

2. Defendants also object on the grounds that these documents are not relevant nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence in connection with the pending

claims and issues. Many of the requested documents exceed the scope of permissible discovery at this time, as these documents relate to Plaintiff's claim for an accounting, which has not yet been granted. In response to Plaintiff's Request to Produce to Defendants. Defendants objected to the production of substantially similar documents, and the Court upheld the objection by Order dated April 19, 2013.

3. Notwithstanding these objections, Defendants are willing to work with Plaintiff's counsel to narrow the scope of these requests and attempt to establish a procedure for Defendants to review relevant, material and non-privileged the documents before production.

DOCUMENTS TO PRODUCE

YOU ARE COMMANDED to appear at the offices of Peter Feaman, at 3615 West Boynton Beach Boulevard Boynton Beach, Florida 33436-4501, telephone number (561) 734-5552, within fifteen (15) days from the date of service of this Subpoena and to produce the following documents:

1. All documents provided to you by, or prepared by you on behalf of, LIC Holdings, Inc. ("LIC") and Arbitrage International Management, LLC f/k/a Arbitrage International Holdings, LLC ("Arbitrage") that show the total revenue generated by LIC and Arbitrage for the tax years 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, and 2012.

2. All documents provided to you by, or prepared by you on behalf of, LIC and Arbitrage that show the expenses paid by LIC and Arbitrage for the tax years 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, and 2012.

3. All documents provided to you by, or prepared by you on behalf of, LIC and Arbitrage that show the salaries, distributions and other compensation paid to Simon Bernstein, Ted Bernstein and William Stansbury by LIC and Arbitrage in the tax years 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, and 2012.

4. All documents provided to you by, or prepared by you on behalf of, LIC and Arbitrage that list, by company name, the commissions, both first time commissions and renewal commissions, paid to LIC and Arbitrage for the tax years 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, and 2012.

5. All documents provided to you by, or prepared by you on behalf of, LIC and Arbitrage entitled "Estimated Income Projection & Allocation" for the tax years 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, and 2012.

6. All documents provided to you by, or prepared by you on behalf of, LIC for the tax years 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, and 2012 that stated, estimated or projected that Simon Bernstein, Ted Bernstein and/or William Stansbury would incur, or potentially may incur, taxable "phantom" income related to their respective equity interests in LIC.

7. All documents provided to you by, or prepared by you on behalf of, LIC that supports that a shareholder distribution in the amount of $184,530 was made to William Stansbury attributable to tax year 2008.

8. All documents provided to you by, or prepared by you on behalf of, LIC that supports that a shareholder distribution in the amount of $184,530 was in fact actually paid to William Stansbury attributable to tax year 2008.

9. A copy of each Form K-1, including all amendments, revisions, or restatements thereto, prepared for and distributed to Simon Bernstein, Ted Bernstein and William Stansbury for the tax years 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012.

You are required to produce the records by mail or in person to Peter Feaman, at 3615

West Boynton Beach Boulevard Boynton Beach, Florida 33436-4501.

These items will be inspected and may be copied at that time. You will not be required to surrender the original items. You may comply with this subpoena by providing legible copies of the items to be produced to the attorney whose name appears on this subpoena on or before the scheduled date of production. You may condition the preparation of the copies upon the payment in advance of the reasonable cost of preparation. YOU MAY MAIL OR DELIVER THE COPIES TO THE ATTORNEY WHOSE NAME APPEARS ON THIS SUBPOENA AND THEREBY ELIMINATE YOUR APPEARANCE ON THE DATE SPECIFIED ABOVE. You have the right to object to the production pursuant to this subpoena at any time before production by giving written notice to the attorney whose name appears on this subpoena. THIS IS NOT A DEPOSITION. NO TESTIMONY WILL BE TAKEN.

If you fail to:

- (1) appear as specified; or
- (2) furnish the materials requested instead of appearing as provided above; or
- (3) object to this subpoena;

you may be in contempt of court. You are subpoenaed to appear by the following attorney, and unless excused from this subpoena by this attorney or the court, you shall respond to this subpoena as directed.

DATED this _____ day of ______, 2013.

PLAINTIFF'S FIRST REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS TO DEFENDANT LIC HOLDINGS, INC.

Plaintiff, WILLIAM E. STANSBURY ("STANSBURY"), through undersigned counsel, pursuant to Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.350, hereby propounds the attached First Request for Production of

Documents upon Defendant, LIC HOLDINGS, INC., requiring said Defendant to produce copies of the materials and items described on the attached list at, or by mailing a copy to Peter M.

Feaman, P.A., 3615 W. Boynton Beach Blvd., Boynton Beach, FL 33436, on or before thirty (30) days after service of this Request for Production of Documents.

Preliminary Statement

As used in this Discovery request, the following terms will have the following meanings:

"Plaintiff," "WILLIAM STANSBURY," or "STANSBURY" means the Plaintiff, and includes any person or entity acting on his behalf.

"Defendant," "LIC HOLDINGS," "you," or "your" means Defendant, LIC HOLDINGS, INC., and includes any person or entity acting on behalf of such party, including, but not limited to, attorneys and their associates and employees, investigators, agents, employees, representatives, or others who are in possession of or who may have obtained information for or on its behalf. "Defendants" means the Defendants to this action, to wit: TED S. BERNSTEIN, SIMON BERNSTEIN, LIC HOLDINGS, INC., and ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, f/k/a ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, LLC, including any person or entity acting on behalf of such party or parties, including, but not limited to, attorneys and their associates and employees, investigators, agents, employees, representatives, or others who are in possession of or who may have obtained information for or on their behalf.

The terms "all records," "all documents," "all documentation," and "all communications" mean every record, document, or communication as defined herein known to you and every such record, document, or communication which can be located or discovered by reasonably diligent efforts.

The term "communication" shall mean every manner or means of disclosure, transfer or exchange, and every disclosure, transfer or exchange of information whether orally or face-to-face or by telephone, letter, mail, personal delivery, facsimile transmission, electronic mail, (c-mail) document or otherwise.

The term "document," "documents," "documentation," "record," and "records" shall mean all written, typed, printed, reported, recorded or graphic matter, and all photographic matters or sound reproduction tapes records, or other devices, however produced, reproduced, or stored, now or formerly within your actual or constructive possession, custody or control. "Document" or "documents" shall include, but are not limited to, all telegrams, telexes, cables, telephone records, telephone bills, memoranda (circulated and uncirculated), market studies, correspondence, reports, studies, compilations of data, filings, files, internal policies or rules or regulations, minutes, agenda, requests, records, charts, lists, analyses, graphs, diagrams, schematics, blueprints, specifications, worksheets, change orders, drawings, cost estimates, books, expense reports, notebooks, notes, diaries, appointment books, calendars, recordings, transcriptions, computerized data in any media, including but not limited to: discs, CD-ROMs, or e-mails; file cards, computer printouts, microfilm, microfiche, videotapes, media articles or reports, accounts, books and records, ledgers, journals and other financial records, audits, instructions, questionnaires, profit and loss statements, financial statements, annual reports, state and federal tax returns, checkbooks, canceled checks, billings, contracts or agreements or releases, and any drafts, copies, or reproductions of the foregoing; and any copy of the foregoing upon which any notations in any form have been made which do not appear on the originals; and any copy of the foregoing upon which any language, notation or comments, in any form, which appear on the original or any other copy have been deleted, highlighted, altered or edited.

The term "communication" and "communications, as used herein, shall include any utterance heard or overheard, whether in person, by telephone, radio or otherwise, statement, dialogue, discussion, conversation or agreement, as well as every document and every other mode of intentionally conveying meaning.

"Identify," identity" or "identification," when referring to a person, shall mean that you shall state the person's (a) full name, (b) current or last known business address and telephone number, (c) current or last known residential address and telephone number, (d) current or last known employer and employer's address, (e) current or last known occupation or position title.

"Identify," "identity" or "identification," when used in reference to a document, documents, documentation, record, and/or records means to state the date, author (or originator), title, type (or subject matter) and custodian of the document, or other sufficient description of it in order to identify it for production in this suit, and each and every word contained in that document. If any document identified is no longer in your care, custody or control, state the disposition of such document. If a privilege is claimed with respect to any document, state the nature of the privilege claimed, and identify each person who has received the documents or a copy of it. Attachment of a true, correct copy of any document to your answers to these discovery requests shall constitute sufficient identification of any document.

"Person" or "individual" means any natural person, individual, proprietorship, partnership, corporation, association, joint proprietorship, joint venture, firm, other business enterprise, governmental body, or other entity.

A communication or document "relating" to any given subject means any communication or document that constitutes, contains, embodies, reflects, identifies, states, refers to, deals with, or is in any way pertinent to that subject, including without limitation, documents concerning the preparation of other documents.

Unless otherwise stated, the documents requested shall be for the past ten (10) years.

Instructions

If any Request for Production is objected to on the grounds of privilege or otherwise, set forth fully each objection, stating the facts upon which you rely as the basis for the objection, and describe:

The nature of the document or communication not produced or disclosed;

The name and title of the author;

The name and title of each person to whom the document or communication was addressed, including all people to whom a copy was sent;

The date;

The number of pages;

A description of the subject matter sufficient, without waiving the claimed privilege or protection, to allow the requesting party to assess the applicability of the privilege or protection;

The privilege or protection claimed;

The paragraph(s) of this Request for Production to which the document or communication is responsive; and

The location of the original and each copy of the document or communication as of the date of the response to this Request for Production.

If you claim that any document requests is subject to privilege, please provide all documents responsive to the Request to the extent not privileged and comply with Instruction No. 1 as to the remainder of the Request.

If documents responsive to any of the Requests have been destroyed or discarded, identify the document as follows:

The date of the document;

The author or maker of the document;

The person to whom and from whom the document was sent;

The subject matter of the document;

The date on which the document was destroyed or discarded;

The reason for the destruction or discard; and

The person authorizing and/or carrying out said destruction or discard.

When producing the documents, please keep all documents segregated by the file in which the documents are contained and indicate the name of the file in which the documents are contained and name of the documents being produced. In the event such files or documents have been removed for the purposes of this action or other purpose, please state the name and address of the person who removed the file, the title of the file and cach sub-file, if any, maintained within the file, and the present location of the file.

As used herein the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and the masculine, feminine and neuter shall include each of the other genders.

All documents produced shall be originals unless otherwise indicated. If your "original" is a photocopy (or other copy), then the photocopy you have should be produced as your original. You should produce the original documents in the form, order and manner in which they are maintained in your files or the files of other persons under your control. In this connection, and for purposes of illustration, documents are to be produced in the file folder and file cartons in which they have been maintained or stored, clipped, stapled, or otherwise arranged in the same form and manner as they were found. In the alternative, you should segregate all documents according to the specifications of this Request and shall organize and label each group of documents with the appropriate specifications prior to production. If any document is responsive to more than one specification of this Request, it should be labeled to reflect each specification to which it is responsive.

This Request for Production calls for production of all responsive documents in the possession, custody, or control of you, your agents, or representatives without regard to physical location of said documents. Control means in your possession, custody or control, or under your direction, and included in the possession, custody, or control of those under the direction of you and your employees, subordinates, counsel, accountant, consultant, expert, parent or affiliated corporation, and any person purporting to act on your behalf.

Please mark each document to indicate the paragraph to which the document corresponds. In the event you do not have "possession, custody or control" of any of the documents requested, state this fact, specifying the paragraph concerned. Additionally, if you do not have "possession, custody, or control" of any of the documents requested, but you know that they are in the possession or custody of other parties, give a brief description of the document(s), and the name and address of the party thought to be in possession thereof.

In producing copies of any documents, produce copies of both the front and back of each document, where the backside contains writing, printing, stamping, or notations.

DEFENDANT LIC HOLDINGS, INC.'S RESPONSES AND OBJECTIONS TO PLAINTIFF'S FIRST REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

Defendants LIC HOLDINGS, INC. ("LIC"), by and through its undersigned counsel, and pursuant to Rule 1.350 of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, hereby responds to Plaintiff's First Request for Production of Documents to Defendant LIC Holdings, Inc. (the "Requests"), and states as follows:

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

 LIC objects generally to the Requests to the extent that they seek to impose burdens or duties upon LIC that are greater than are required by the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure and applicable law.

2. LIC objects generally to the Requests to the extent that they seek information that is protected by various privileges of confidentiality, including, but not limited to, the attorneyclient privilege and the attorney work-product doctrine.

4. LIC construes each document request in the Requests not to seek, and states that no privilege log is required for, legal memoranda, drafts of pleadings, attorney notes, documents selected and assembled by counsel for the purpose of preparing to represent LIC, and in preparing court pleadings and other papers, communications between LIC and its counsel, and other documents and communications that have come into existence because of anticipated or actual litigation.

5. By agreeing to produce documents to any particular Request, LIC is not acknowledging that the Request seeks documents or information that are relevant or admissible. LIC reserves the right to object to the use and/or introduction into evidence of any documents produced in response to the Requests.

6. These General Objections shall be deemed applicable to and continuing with respect to the Specific Responses set forth herein. The General Objections asserLIC above are hereby incorporated into the Specific Responses. The Specific Responses may repeat a General Objection for emphasis or for some other reason. Such General Objections are not waived, nor in any way limited, by the Specific Responses.

REQUESTS AND SPECIFIC RESPONSES

1. All documents, including e-mails, that show, evidence, or reflect any and all communications between you or anyone acting on your behalf related to or from the Plaintiff from January 1, 2007 to present.

RESPONSE: LIC objects to this Request as overbroad and irrelevant because it is unlimited in scope and, as phrased, could relate to any subject matter, including, but not limited to, communications regarding birthdays, vacations, and lunch plans. LIC further objects to this Request as vague and ambiguous because "show", "evidence" and "reflect" are undefined terms. LIC also objects to this Request as seeking information that is neither relevant to any actual claim or defense of any party in this case nor likely to lead to the discovery of any admissible evidence because responsive documents, if any, have no tendency to make the existence of any fact that is of consequence to the determination of this action more probable or not, and will not prove or disprove any element of Plaintiff's cause of action for an accounting, which is the sole claim pending against LIC. Subject to these objections and the General Objections set forth above, and to the extent this Request is understood, LIC will produce nonprivileged responsive documents related solely to Plaintiff's compensation from 2008 to the present, as Plaintiff has already admitted that he was properly paid by Defendants through 2007, if any such documents exist. See Complaint at ¶ 18.

2. All documents, including e-mails, that show, evidence or reflect any and all communications between you and any of the Defendants that mention the Plaintiff, from January 1, 2007 to present.

RESPONSE: LIC objects to this Request as overbroad and irrelevant because it is unlimited in scope and, as phrased, could relate to any subject matter, including, but not limited to, communications regarding birthdays, vacations, and lunch plans. LIC further objects to this Request as vague and ambiguous because "show", "evidence" and "reflect" are undefined terms. LIC also objects to this Request as seeking information that is neither relevant to any actual claim or defense of any party in this case nor likely to lead to the discovery of any admissible evidence because responsive documents, if any, have no tendency to make the existence of any fact that is of consequence to the determination of this action more probable or not, and will not prove or disprove any element of Plaintiff's cause of action for an accounting, which is the sole claim pending against LIC. RESPONSE: LIC objects to this Request as overbroad and irrelevant because it is unlimited in scope and, as phrased, could relate to any subject matter, including, but not limited to, communications regarding birthdays, vacations, and lunch plans. LIC further objects to this Request as vague and ambiguous because "show", "cvidence" and "reflect" are undefined terms. LIC also objects to this Request as seeking information that is neither relevant to any actual claim or defense of any party in this case nor likely to lead to the discovery of any admissible evidence because responsive documents, if any, have no tendency to make the existence of any fact that is of consequence to the determination of this action more probable or not, and will not prove or disprove any element of Plaintiff's cause of action for an accounting, which is the sole claim pending against LIC. IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE 15TH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA

WILLIAM E. STANSBURY, Plaintiff,

٧.

TED S. BERNSTEIN; DONALD TESCHER and ROBERT SPALLINA, as co-personal representatives of the ESTATE OF SIMON L. BERNSTEIN and as co-trustees of the SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT dated May 20, 2008; LIC HOLDINGS, INC.; ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, f/k/a ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, LLC; BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC, Defendants.

PLAINTIFF WILLIAM E. STANSBURY'S MOTION TO COMPEL DEFENDANT LIC HOLDINGS, INC. TO PRODUCE DOCUMENTS RESPONSIVE TO PLAINTIFF'S FIRST REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

Plaintiff, WILLIAM STANSBURY, by and through his undersigned counsel, hereby moves this Court for an Order compelling Defendant LIC HOLDINGS, INC. ("LIC") to produce the documents requested in Plaintiff's First Request for Production of Documents. As grounds, Plaintiff states that the objections raised by LIC in its response are spurious and without merit. Specific responses to LIC's objections are set forth below.

A. Response to General Objections and General Responses

1. The Plaintiff's First Request for Production of Documents pursuant to Rule 1.350 of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure. LIC objects to the extent these requests "seek to impose burdens or duties upon LIC that are greater than are required by the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure or applicable law." The bar is relatively low for the scope of discovery, requiring only that the requested documents be "reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence." Rule 1.280, Fla. Rules of Civ. Proc. These requests only seek documents that meet this standard, but as objectively determined by the Court, not subjectively determined by LIC.

2. Plaintiff does not seek documents that are subject to either attorney-client or work product privileges. However, subject to the response in 4, below, if LIC claims any documents are protected by either or both privileges, these documents must to listed in a privilege log and made available to the Court for inspection.

4. (Numbering error in LIC Objection) As stated in Response 2, Plaintiff does not seek legitimately privileged documents prepared by LIC counsel for LIC or prepared by LIC in connection with or in anticipation of this litigation. Hence, legal memoranda, drafts of pleadings, attorney notes or communications between counsel and LIC relating to this litigation are not required to be produced. Documents "assembled" by counsel for the purpose of preparing to represent LIC, however, are not automatically privileged and, if the privilege is asserted, these documents should be listed in a privilege log. Other documents, to the extent they include third parties or show a "cc" to counsel, are not privileged and, if the privilege is claimed, should be the subject of a privilege log as well.

5. Plaintiff is not contending that any or all documents to be produced hereunder are automatically admissible into evidence at trial or that LIC, by producing them, has waived the right to object to admissibility. Plaintiff only contends the documents are relevant for discovery purposes at this time.

6. LIC raises a temporal objection to many requests by refusing to produce any documents prior to 2008 on the grounds that Plaintiff admitted he was paid by Defendants through 2007, so allegedly prior records are irrelevant. This objection lacks merit. Plaintiff has alleged in his Complaint, inter alia, breach of oral contract against LIC. Therefore, it is highly relevant for Plaintiff to show documentation from the year immediately preceding the breach as evidence of the breach in ensuing years. In other words, Plaintiff should be permitted to show documents from a year when compensation was paid in full and the oral agreement was honored, and compare it to documentation from subsequent years when the breach occurred and full compensation was withheld and denied. This evidence is relevant to the existence of the oral agreement, its breach and the resulting damages.

7. These General Responses apply to all specific responses set forth below.

B. Response to Objections to Specific Requests

1(a). LIC objects to the language of Plaintiff's question relating to documents that "show, evidence or reflect" communications between LIC or anyone acting on its behalf to or from Plaintiff from January 1, 2007 to present." LIC claims the question is overbroad and vague as the terms "show, evidence and reflect" are undefined. When construing statutory language, in the absence of a definition, the meaning of words of common usage can be ascertained by reference to a dictionary. Jones v. Williams Pawn & Gun, Inc., 800 So. 2d. 267 (Fla. 4th DCA 2001). The same principle applies in this situation. Webster's II New College Dictionary (1999) defines, as is pertinent here, the following: show: "to point out, to manifest, to indicate;" evidence: "something that indicates;" reflect: "to manifest as the result of one's actions." Consequently, this request seeks communications that manifest, indicate or show written communications between the parties. This is not ambiguous or vague. As such, the objection is not well taken and this Court should order that the requested documents be produced.

(b). LIC also objects on relevance grounds. See, Plaintiff's response to General Objections and General Responses, number 1, Section A, above. LIC also asserted that the requested documents were irrelevant in that they were not likely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence because these documents have no tendency to "make the existence of any fact ... more probable or not, and will not prove or disprove any element of Plaintiff's cause of action for an accounting which is the sole claim pending against LIC." Section 90.402, Fla. Stat. (2012), the Florida Evidence Code, defines relevance for trial purposes as "evidence tending to prove or disprove a material fact." So, in essence, LIC claims the requested documents are not relevant for discovery purposes because they are not admissible under the Evidence Code. This is absurd on its face. The standard for discovery relevance is not its admissibility at trial. This objection should be dismissed out of hand.

(c). Finally, LIC concludes its objection by agreeing to produce "non-privileged responsive documents related solely to Plaintiff's compensation from 2008 to the present..." For the reasons stated above, Plaintiff is entitled to the 2007 documents as well. See, Plaintiff's Response to General Objections and General Responses, number 6, above. Additionally, while Plaintiff has raised multiple legitimate claims against LIC in its Complaint, the crux of Plaintiff's case against LIC (contrary to LIC's assertion that an accounting is the sole claim against LIC) is breach of oral contract (See, Amended Complaint, Count II). Hence all written communication between LIC or its agents and Plaintiff are relevant, for discovery purposes, as isolated statements or comments in any written communication or response, regardless of the subject oral contract. LIC cannot subjectively decide what, in its opinion, is a compensation or relevant communication, then only produce those documents in response to this request. All written communications between the parties are relevant for discovery purposes under this request and this Court should order that they be produced.

2. LIC makes the same objections of over breadth, vagueness, ambiguity and relevance to request 2 as were raised in request 1. Please see Plaintiff's responses 1(a), 1(b) and 1(c) of this Section B, above.

3. LIC makes the same objections of over breadth, vagueness, ambiguity and relevance to request 3 as were raised in response to requests 1 and 2. Please see Plaintiff's responses 1(a), 1(b) and 1(c) of this Section B, above.

4. LIC objects to the breadth of the request once again based on the use of the terms "show, evidence and reflect." See Plaintiff's response in 1(a), above. Plaintiff also objects to the use of the term "business relationships" because it is undefined. As above, relationship is defined in Webster's II New College Dictionary (1999) as a "particular state of affairs among people related to or dealing with one another." Therefore, the plain and ordinary meaning of all these terms as used in the context of this specific request makes clear that Plaintiff is requesting all documents that show, evidence or reflect business affairs or dealings among the parties, as opposed to personal or social relationships. As a result, this objection is not well taken and this Court should order that the requested documents be produced.

5. LIC makes the same objections of over breadth, vagueness, ambiguity and relevance as were made to requests 1 through 4. Please see Plaintiff's responses 1(a), 1(b) and 1(c) of this Section B, above. The request is clearly directed to all documents that evidence or show the payment of money from LIC or any of the Defendants to Plaintiff. The request is not vague or ambiguous and this Court should order that the requested documents be produced.

6. LIC makes the same objections to vagueness, ambiguity and relevance as were made to requests 1 through 5. Please see Plaintiff's responses 1(a), 1(b) and 1(c) of this Section B, above. The request is clearly directed to all documents that evidence or show that LIC or any of the Defendants owe money to Plaintiff. The request is not vague or ambiguous and this Court should order that the requested documents be produced.

7. LIC objects to request 7 on relevance grounds. Please see Plaintiff's response to this objection in 1(b) of this section B, above. LIC also objects because the terms "memoranda" and "writings" are vague, ambiguous and undefined. Webster's II New College Dictionary (1999) defines, as is pertinent here, memorandum or memoranda: "a written record or communication, as in a business office, or a short informal note written as a reminder," and writing: "written form, or characters written or imprinted on a surface, a written work." Consequently, Plaintiff is requesting any internal memorandums or memoranda or other writings that evidence or relate to payments made to any third party. This is not vague or ambiguous. Additionally, if LIC claims that any such document is confidential for any reason, the documents should be listed in the privilege or a confidentiality log and submitted to this Court for in camera inspection. Therefore, LIC's objections should be overruled and this Court should order that the requested documents be produced.

8. LIC makes the same objections to vagueness, ambiguity and relevance as were made to requests 1 through 6. Please see Plaintiff's responses 1(a), 1(b) and 1(c) of this Section B, above. Additionally, LIC makes another temporal scope objection, presumably because the request seeks documents that disclose the identity of all persons with an ownership interest in LIC over the last 6 years. Six years prior would commence the time period at the beginning of 2007, which is the same time period Plaintiff explained was reasonable in this case in its Response to General Objections and General Responses, number 6 in Section A, above. The changes in ownership both before and after the claims for breach of contract (Count II of the Amended Complaint) and the breaches of fiduciary duty (Count III of the Amended Complaint) accrued are highly relevant to Plaintiff's case as evidence of potential corporate waste. These objections should be overruled and the documents order produced without qualification.

9. LIC makes the same objections to vagueness, ambiguity and relevance as were made to requests 1 through 6. Please see Plaintiff's responses 1(a), 1(b) and 1(c) of this Section B, above. Additionally, LIC makes another temporal scope objection, presumably because the request seeks documents that disclose the identity of all officers of LIC over the last 6 years. Six years prior would commence the time period at the beginning of 2007, which is the same time period Plaintiff explained was reasonable in this case in its Response to General Objections and General Responses, number 6 in Section A, above. The identity of the officers over that period of time, both before and after the claims for breach of contract (Count II of the Amended Complaint) and the breaches of fiduciary duty (Count III of the Amended Complaint) accrued are highly relevant to Plaintiff's case as evidence of potential corporate waste. These objections should be overruled and the documents ordered produced without qualification.

10. LIC objects to request 10 on relevance grounds. Please see Plaintiff's response to this objection in 1(b) of this Section B, above. Additionally, LIC objects to the request for all cell phone payment records on the grounds that the request fails to identify for whom the records are sought or for whom the payments were made. This request is intentionally broad as it seeks all LIC cell phone payment records so that Plaintiff may determine on whose behalf LIC made those payments. Key allegations in this case include breach of fiduciary duty and acts of corporate waste by Ted and Simon Bernstein. See, Amended Complaint, Count III, Paragraphs 45 through 59. Plaintiff contends that the Bernsteins were paying out corporate monies to or on behalf of family members and friends that were not legitimate employees or third party contractors of LIC. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to all documentation that evidences cell phone usage by any person for whom LIC made cell phone usage payments.

11. LIC once again raises a relevance objection. Please see Plaintiff's response to this objection in 1(b) of this section B, above. Key allegations in this case include breach of fiduciary duty and acts of corporate waste by Ted and Simon Bernstein. See, Amended Complaint, Count III, Paragraphs 45 through 59. Plaintiff contends that the Bernsteins were paying out corporate monies to or on behalf of family members and friends that were not legitimate employees or third party contractors of LIC. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to all documents that evidence or show that LIC paid for medical expenses incurred by persons or entities that were not legitimate employees or contractors of LIC.

12. LIC once again raises a relevance objection. Please see Plaintiff's response to this objection in 1(b) of this section B, above. Key allegations in this case include breach of fiduciary duty and acts of corporate waste by Ted and Simon Bernstein. See Amended Complaint, Count III, Paragraphs 45 through 59. Plaintiff contends that the Bernsteins were paying out corporate monies to or on behalf of family members and friends that were not legitimate employees or third party contractors of LIC. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to all documents that evidence or show that LIC potentially paid compensation to individuals that were not legitimate employees or third party contractors of LIC.

13. LIC once again raises a relevance objection. Please see Plaintiff's response to this objection in 1(b) of this section B, above. Key allegations in this case include breach of fiduciary duty and acts of corporate waste by Ted and Simon Bernstein. See, Amended Complaint, Count III, Paragraphs 45 through 59. Plaintiff contends that the Bernsteins were paying out corporate monies to or on behalf of family members and friends that were not legitimate employees or third party contractors of LIC. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to all documents that evidence or show that LIC potentially allowed non-employee friends or family members to participate in the company's Defined Benefit Pension Plan (mistakenly designated "Denied" Benefit Pension Plan in Plaintiff's original request).

14. LIC once again raises a relevance objection. Please see Plaintiff's response to this objection in 1(b) of this section B, above. Key allegations in this case include breach of fiduciary duty and acts of corporate waste by Ted and Simon Bernstein. See, Amended Complaint, Count III, Paragraphs 45 through 59. Plaintiff contends that the Bernsteins were paying out corporate monies to or on behalf of family members and friends that were not legitimate employees or third party contractors of LIC. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to all 1099s issued to any employee or contractor so Plaintiff can determine if LIC paid compensation to individuals that were not legitimate employees or third party contractors of LIC.

15. LIC once again raises a relevance objection. Please see Plaintiff's response to this objection in 1(b) of this Section B, above. Key allegations in this case include breach of fiduciary duty and acts of corporate waste by Ted and Simon Bernstein. See, Amended Complaint, Count III, Paragraphs 45 through 59. Plaintiff contends that the Bernsteins were paying out corporate monies to or on behalf of family members and friends that were not legitimate employees or third party contractors of LIC. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to all profit-sharing plan statements that show the names of all participants as these statement will or may show that LIC potentially included family members and friends that are not or were not legitimate employees of LIC.

MOTION TO STRIKE PETITION TO DETERMINE AND RELEASE TITLE OF EXEMPT PROPERTY

COME NOW, Donald R. Tescher and Robert L. Spallina, as Co-Personal Representatives of the Estate of Simon L. Bernstein, by and through their undersigned counsel and hereby file this their Motion to Strike Petition to Determine and Release Title of Exempt Property filed by Eliot Bernstein dated October 10, 2013 and in support thereof state, as follows:

1. Eliot Bernstein, pro se, filed the Petition on October 10, 2013. A copy of said Petition is attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and incorporated herein by reference.

2. A copy of the Will of Simon L. Bernstein dated July 25, 2012, which has been admitted to probate is attached hereto as Exhibit "B" and incorporated herein by reference.

- 3. Simon L. Bernstein was predeceased by his spouse, Shirley Bernstein.
- 4. As can be seen, Article I of the Will leaves the Decedent's tangible personal property (i.e. including the subject KIA automobile) equally to his five (5) children identified in the Will.

5. The Decedent's grandson, Joshua Bernstein, is not included among the class of person(s) entitled to receive exempt property as a share to the Decedent's Estate. See Florida Statute 732.402(1).

6. Additionally, the Petition reflects that the Decedent's other four (4) children were not served with a copy of the Petition.

7. Based on all of the above, the Petition must be stricken.

WHEREFORE, Donald R. Tescher and Robert L. Spallina, as Co-Personal

Representatives of the Estate of Simon L. Bernstein hereby request for an Order consistent with the relief requested herein and an award of attorney's fees and costs to be paid by Eliot Bernstein.

DECEASED

ELIOT BERNSTEIN

PRO SE

PETITION TO DETERMINE AND RELEASE TITLE OF EXEMPT PROPERTY

Petitioner, Eliot Ivan Bernstein alleges:

- 1. Petitioner, whose address is 2753 NW 34th Street, Boca Raton, FL 33434, is the son of the decedent who, on the date of death, was domiciled in Florida.
- 2. That Petitioner is the father of the minor who is entitled by law to the exempt property Is:

Joshua Bernstein, whose address is 2753 NW 34th Street, Boca Raton, FL 33434, and the grandson of Simon L. Bernstein, whose birthday is August 27, 1997 and is a minor.

- 3. This petition is filed within the time permitted by Section 732.402(6) of the Florida Probate Court.
- 4. Petitioner alleges the exempt property and the basis on which it is claimed to be exempt are as follows:

That on August 25, 2012, Simon Bernstein purchased, titled, insured and registered an automobile, in his name, from Delray Kia, 2255 S. Federal Hwy, in Delray Beach FL, for the benefit of his grandson, Joshua Bernstein and paid for the car, title and tags in full. The car is described as:

Silver, 2013 Kia Soul, VIN # KNDJT2A50D7497193, license plate # BGFC36

That on August 26, 2012, after Sunday Brunch together, Simon Bernstein, dressed the car in balloons, and gave the car to his grandson Joshua for his birthday as a surprise, of which, there are several witnesses, pictures and a birthday video. The car was then driven home to Joshua and Petitioner's place of residence and driven for the benefit of Joshua thereafter. This was the last time Joshua saw his grandfather alive and will always be a special memory in his heart forever.

EXHIBIT "A"

That Simon's intentions were to transfer the title of ownership to Joshua when he received the car title via US Postal mail. That on September 13, 2012, Simon Bernstein passed away. Given the short time (2 weeks) in between the two events and the original title to the car not being received in the mail yet, on the date of Simon's death the car was still in his Simon's name and not transferred to Joshua.

Petitioner notified Robert Spallina, the alleged Personal Representative of the Estate of Simon Bernstein, the circumstances and was guaranteed the issue would be resolved.

That at midnight on December 2, 2012 the issue was still not resolved and the registration for the vehicle expired. Petitioner again contacted Robert Spallina and was informed that for no specified reason the postal mail belonging to Simon Bernstein was being forwarded to Joshua's uncle, Ted Bernstein at 880 Berkeley Street in Boca Raton, Florida and to contact him regarding the title and the expired registration notices that were sent in the mail. Immediately after Simon's death, Ted Bernstein took control and possession of all Simon Bernstein's mail, took control and possession of all Simon Bernstein's mail, took control and possession of all Simon Bernstein's files, including personal and business related files, including those related to the purchase of the car and is tampering, suppressing and denying them the same. Ted Bernstein refuses to forward the above information to the alleged Personal Representatives, Robert Spallina and Donald Tescher and their law firm Tescher & Spallina, P.A.

That as of this date, October 10, 2013, and beginning on December 2, 2012, the above mentioned gifted automobile has been sitting on the street at 2753 NW 34th Street, Boca Raton, Florida, unregistered, uninsured (at risk to the estate of the Simon Bernstein) and un-drivable by the rightful owner Joshua Bernsteln against the wishes of his grandfather, the decedent, Simon Bernstein. That a sixteen year old boy, Joshua Bernstein, has to walk by his automobile every day and be remembered of his grandfather's special gift and those responsible for preventing him from having it, namely his uncle, Ted Bernstein, who ironically shares the same birthday as Joshua, and Robert Spallina and Donald Tescher.

That Robert Spallina, as Personal Representative and counsel for the estate, has refused to resolve this issue and continues to put the estate at risk and breach their fiduciary duties. Due to the Personal Representatives lack of duty and care and abuse of powers that allow Ted Bernstein control and tampering of Simon Bernstein's mail and documents and therefore aiding in suppression, tampering and mis-handling of original documents and titles is causing severe damages and injury to the beneficiaries of the decedent. This seems to be a conspired effort by Ted Bernstein and the Personal Representatives to interfere with the administration of the estate, create disputes among the beneficiaries, generate more legal fees, and cause harm to all involved as other documents are missing as well, including a Life Insurance Trust that is a beneficiary of a life insurance policy currently in litigation in the State of Illinois where Ted Bernstein is trying to convert the proceeds to himself against the insurers request to get a court order from this court. Other documents have been admittedly forged and fraudulent in the administration of the estate of Shirley Bernstein and Fraud on the Court before Hon Judge Martin H. Colin and continues by these same named fiduciary conspirators. From all these actions, Petitioner has lost all trust and faith and comes to this court to remedy these wrong-doings as no other option is available. \mathcal{H}

Petitioner prays that this Court can rectify the above matter and resolve this issue and demand the original car title be transferred to Joshua Bernstein so that the automobile can be properly titled, registered, insured and drivable by the rightful owner, Joshua Bernstein and stop the anguish and harm these actions are causing, again to a sixteen year old boy.

Petitioner requests that all current fiduciaries including but not limited to Personal Representatives, Estate Counsel and Trustees be removed for this willful, wanton, reckless, and gross negligent behavior and disregard of law by the alleged fiduciaries of the estate and estate counsel.

Petitioner requests that a court order be entered determining the persons entitled to the abovedescribed property as exempt property under Section 732.402 of the Florida Probate Code and authorizing and directing the Personal Representatives to deliver and transfer the title of ownership.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing/land the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief. Signed on Eliot Bernstein

WILL OF

SIMON L. BERNSTEIN

I, SIMON L. BERNSTEIN, of Palm Beach County, Florida, hereby revoke all my prior Wills and Codicils and make this Will. I am a widower, but in the event that I marry subsequent to the execution of this Will, I specifically make no provision for my spouse. My children are TED S. BERNSTEIN, PAMELA B. SIMON, ELIOT BERNSTEIN, JILL IANTONI and LISA S. FRIEDSTEIN.

ARTICLE I. TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY

I give such items of my tangible personal property to such persons as I may designate in a separate written memorandum prepared for this purpose. I give to my children who survive me, divided among them as they agree, or if they fail to agree, divided among them by my Personal Representatives in as nearly equal shares as practical my personal effects, jewelry, collections, household furnishings and equipment, automobiles and all other non-business tangible personal property other than cash, not effectively disposed of by such memorandum, and if no child of mine survives me, this property shall pass with the residue of my estate.

ARTICLE II. EXERCISE OF POWER OF APPOINTMENT

Under Subparagraph E.1. of Article II. of the SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT dated May 20, 2008, (the "Shirley Trust"), I was granted a special power of appointment upon my death to direct the disposition of the remaining assets of the Marital Trust and the Family Trust established under the Shirley Trust. Pursuant to the power granted to me under the Shirley Trust, upon my death, I hereby direct the then serving Trustees of the Marital Trust and the Family Trust to divide the remaining trust assets into equal shares for my then living grandchildren and distribute said shares to the then serving Trustees of their respective trusts established under Subparagraph II.B. of my Existing Trust, as referenced below, and administered pursuant to Subparagraph II.C. thereunder.

ARTICLE III. RESIDUE OF MY ESTATE

I give all the residue of my estate, including my homestead, to the Trustee then serving under my revocable Trust Agreement dated May 20, 2008, as amended and restated from time to time and on even date herewith (the "Existing Trust"), as Trustee without bond, but I do not exercise any powers of appointment held by me except as provided in Article II., above, and in the later paragraph titled "Death Costs." The residue shall be added to and become a part of the Existing Trust, and shall be held under the provisions of said Agreement in effect at my death, or if this is not permitted by applicable law or the Existing Trust is not then in existence, under the provisions of said Agreement as existing today. If necessary to give effect to this gift, but not otherwise, said Agreement as existing today is incorporated herein by reference.

ARTICLE IV. PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES

1. Appointment and Bond. I appoint ROBERT L. SPALLINA and DONALD R. TESCHER to serve together as my co-Personal Representatives, or either of them alone as Personal Representative if either of them is unable to serve (the "fiduciary"). Each fiduciary shall serve without bond and have all of the powers, privileges and immunities granted to my fiduciary by this Will or by law, provided, however, that my fiduciary shall exercise all powers in a fiduciary capacity.

2. Powers of Personal Representatives. My fiduciary may exercise its powers without court approval. No one dealing with my fiduciary need inquire into its authority or its application of property. My fiduciary shall have the following powers:

a. Investments. To sell or exchange at public or private sale and on credit or otherwise, with or without security, and to lease for any term or perpetually, any property, real and personal, at any time forming a part of my probate estate (the "estate"); to grant and exercise options to buy or sell; to invest or reinvest in real or personal property of every kind, description and location; and to receive and retain any such property whether originally a part of the estate, or subsequently acquired, even if a fiduciary is personally interested in such property, and without liability for any decline in the value thereof; all without limitation by any statutes or judicial decisions, whenever enacted or announced, regulating investments or requiring diversification of investments.

b. Distributions or Divisions. To distribute directly to any beneficiary who is then entitled to distribution under the Existing Trust; to make any division or distribution pro rata or non-pro rata, in cash or in kind; and to allocate undivided interests in property and dissimilar property (without regard to its tax basis) to different shares, and to make any distribution to a minor or any other incapacitated person directly to such person, to his or her legal representative, to any person responsible for or assuming his or her care, or in the case of a minor to an adult person or an eligible institution (including a fiduciary) selected by my fiduciary as custodian for such minor under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act or similar provision of law. The receipt of such payee is a complete release to the fiduciary.

c. Management. To manage, develop, improve, partition or change the character of or abandon an asset or interest in property at any time; and to make ordinary and extraordinary repairs, replacements, alterations and improvements, structural or otherwise.

d. Borrowing. To borrow money from anyone on commercially reasonable terms, including a fiduciary, beneficiaries and other persons who may have a direct or indirect interest in the estate; and to mortgage, margin, encumber and pledge real and personal property of the estate as security for the payment thereof, without incurring any personal liability thereon and to do so for a term within or extending beyond the terms of the estate and to renew, modify or extend existing borrowing on similar or different terms and with the same or different security without incurring any personal liability; and such borrowing from my fiduciary may be with or without interest, and may be secured with a lien on the estate assets or any beneficiary's interest in said assets.

e. Lending. To extend, modify or waive the terms of any obligation, bond or mortgage at any time forming a part of the estate and to foreclose any such mortgage; accept a conveyance of encumbered property, and take title to the property securing it by deed in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise and to satisfy or not satisfy the indebtedness securing said property; to protect or redeem any such property from forfeiture for nonpayment of taxes or other lien; generally, to exercise as to such bond, obligation or mortgage all powers that an absolute owner might exercise; and to loan funds to beneficiaries at commercially reasonable rates, terms and conditions.

f. Abandonment of Property. To abandon any property or asset when it is valueless or so encumbered or in such condition that it is of no benefit to the estate. To abstain from the payment of taxes, liens, rents, assessments, or repairs on such property and/or permit such property to be lost by tax sale, foreclosure or other proceeding or by conveyance for nominal or no consideration to anyone including a charity or by escheat to a state; all without personal liability incurred therefor.

g. Real Property Matters. To subdivide, develop or partition real estate; to dedicate the same to public use; to make or obtain the location of any plats; to adjust boundaries; to adjust differences in valuations on exchange or partition by giving or receiving consideration; and, to grant easements with or without consideration as they may determine; and to demolish any building, structures, walls and improvements, or to erect new buildings, structures, walls and improvements and to insure against fire and other risks.

h. Claims. To enforce, compromise, adjust, arbitrate, release or otherwise settle or pay any claims or demands by or against the estate.

i. Business Entities. To deal with any business entity or enterprise even if a fiduciary is or may be a fiduciary of or own interests in said business entity or enterprise, whether operated in the form of a corporation, partnership, business trust, limited liability company, joint venture, sole proprietorship, or other form (all of which business entities and enterprises are referred to herein as "Business Entities"). I vest the fiduciary with the following powers and authority in regard to Business Entities:

i. To retain and continue to operate a Business Entity for such period as the fiduciary deems advisable;

ii. To control, direct and manage the Business Entities. In this connection, the fiduciary, in its sole discretion, shall determine the manner and extent of its active participation in the operation and may delegate all or any part of its power to supervise and operate to such person or persons as the fiduciary may select, including any associate, partner, officer or employee of the Business Entity;

iii. To hire and discharge officers and employees, fix their compensation and define their duties; and similarly to employ, compensate and discharge agents, attorneys, consultants, accountants, and such other representatives as the fiduciary may deem appropriate; including the right to employ any beneficiary or fiduciary in any of the foregoing capacities;

iv. To invest funds in the Business Entities, to pledge other assets of the estate or a trust as security for loans made to the Business Entities, and to lend funds from my estate or a trust to the Business Entities;

v. To organize one or more Business Entities under the laws of this or any other state or country and to transfer thereto all or any part of the Business Entities or other property of my estate or a trust, and to receive in exchange such stocks, bonds, partnership and member interests, and such other securities or interests as the fiduciary may deem advisable;

vi. To treat Business Entities as separate from my estate or a trust. In a fiduciary's accounting to any beneficiary, the fiduciary shall only be required to report the earnings and condition of the Business Entities in accordance with standard business accounting practice;

vii. To retain in Business Entities such net earnings for working capital and other purposes of the Business Entities as the fiduciary may deem advisable in conformity with sound business practice;

viii. To sell or liquidate all or any part of the Business Entities at such time and price and upon such terms and conditions (including credit) as the fiduciary may determine. My fiduciary is specifically authorised and empowered to make such sale to any person, including any partner, officer, or employee of the Business Entities, a fiduciary, or to any beneficiary; and

ix. To guaranty the obligations of the Business Entities, or pledge assets of the estate or a trust to secure such a guaranty.

j. Life Insurance. With respect to any life insurance policies constituting an asset of the estate to pay premiums; to apply dividends in reduction of such premiums; to borrow against the cash values thereof; to convert such policies into other forms of insurance including paid-up insurance; to exercise any settlement options provided in any such policies; to receive the proceeds of any policy upon its maturity and to administer such proceeds as a part of the principal of the estate or trust; and in general, to exercise all other options, benefits, rights and privileges under such policies; provided, however, no fiduciary other than a sole fiduciary may exercise any incidents of ownership with respect to policies of insurance insuring the fiduciary's own life.

k. Reimbursement. To reimburse itself from the estate for all reasonable expenses incurred in the administration thereof.

1. Voting. To vote and give proxies, with power of substitution to vote, stocks, bonds and other securities, or not to vote a security.

m. Ancillary Administration. To appoint or nominate, and replace with or without cause, any persons or corporations, including itself, as ancillary administrators to administer property in other jurisdictions, with the same powers, privileges and immunities as my fiduciary and without bond.

n. Tax Elections. To file tax returns, and to exercise all tax-related elections and options at their discretion, without compensating adjustments or reimbursements between any accounts or any beneficiaries.

3. Survivorship. A beneficiary is not deemed to survive me unless he or she survives me by five days.

4. Death Costs. My fiduciary shall pay (a) from the residuary estate my debts which are allowed as claims against my estate, (b) from the residuary estate my funeral expenses without regard to legal limitations, (c) from the residuary estate the expenses of administering my estate and (d) from the residuary estate other than the portion of the residuary estate qualifying for the marital deduction under the laws then in effect, without apportionment, all estate, inheritance and succession taxes (excluding generation-skipping taxes other than with respect to direct skips), and interest and penalties thereon, due because of my death and attributable to all property whether passing under this Will or otherwise and not required by the terms of the Existing Trust to be paid out of said trust. However, such taxes, penalties and interest payable out of my residuary estate shall not include taxes, penalties and interest attributable to (i) property over which I have a power of appointment granted to me by another person, (ii) qualified terminable interest property held in a trust of which I was the income beneficiary at the time of my death (other than qualified terminable interest property held in a trust for which an election was made under Code Section 2652(a)(3)), and (iii) life insurance proceeds on policies insuring my life which proceeds are not payable to my probate estate. My fiduciary shall not be reimbursed for any such payment from any person or property. However, my fiduciary in its discretion may direct that part or all of said death costs shall be paid by my Trustee as provided in the Existing Trust, and shall give such direction to the extent necessary so that the gifts made in Article I of this Will and the gifts made in any codicil hereto shall not be reduced by said death costs. If the amount of the above-described taxes, and interest and penalties arising by reason of my death (without regard to where payable from under the terms of this paragraph or applicable law) is increased because of the power of appointment granted to me under Subparagraph II.E.1. of the SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT dated May 20, 2008. I hereby appoint to my probate estate from the property subject to such power (to the extent allowable under such power) the amount of such increase (calculating such increase at the highest applicable marginal rates) and exercise such power to this extent only, and notwithstanding the other provisions of this paragraph further direct my fiduciary to make payment of such increase in taxes, interest and penalties to the appropriate taxing authorities from the appointed property or the proceeds thereof. Any trustee holding such appointive property may pay to my fiduciary the amount which my fiduciary certifies as due under this paragraph and is not responsible for the correctness or application of amounts so paid.

5. Reimbursement for Debts and Expenses. My fiduciary shall promptly reimburse my friends and members of my family who have disbursed their own funds for the payment of any debts, funeral expenses or costs of administration of my estate.

6. Expenses of Handling Tangible Personal Property. All expenses incurred by my fiduciary during the settlement of my estate in appraising, storing, packing, shipping, delivering or insuring an article of tangible personal property passing under this Will shall be charged as an expense of administering my estate.

7. Dealing with Estate. Each fiduciary may act under this Will even if interested in my estate in an individual capacity, as a fiduciary of another estate or trust (including any trust identified in this Will or created under the Existing Trust) or in any other capacity. Each fiduciary may in good faith buy from, sell to, lend funds to or otherwise deal with my estate.

8. Spouse. The term "spouse" herein means, as to a designated individual, the person to whom that individual is from time to time married.

9. Other Beneficiary Designations. Except as otherwise explicitly and with particularity provided herein, (a) no provision of this Will shall revoke or modify any beneficiary designation of mine made by me and not revoked by me prior to my death under any individual retirement account, other retirement plan or account, or annuity or insurance contract, (b) I hereby reaffirm any such beneficiary designation such that any assets held in such account, plan, or contract shall pass in accordance with such designation, and (c) regardless of anything herein to the contrary, any of such assets which would otherwise pass pursuant to this Will due to the beneficiary designation not having met the requirements for a valid testamentary disposition under applicable law or otherwise shall be paid as a gift made hereunder to the persons and in the manner provided in such designation which is incorporated herein by this reference.

STANSBURY has worked in the insurance industry for virtually all ANSWER: of his adult life. After 30 years, he had become well-known and highly regarded by major insurance companies, their principals and others throughout the insurance industry, at all levels thereof, as well as by professionals, including attorneys, CPA's, financial advisors, wealth managers and others who were involved in serving, or otherwise dealing with insurers, insurance brokers and life insurance products. SIMON BERNSTEIN dealt at sophisticated levels of the insurance industry and specialized in developing and marketing insurance concepts suitable for persons of high net worth to incorporate into their wealth management and estate planning. TED BERNSTEIN, the son of SIMON BERNSTEIN, was also involved in selling life insurance products in conjunction with attorneys, CPAs and other professionals, to be incorporated into high net worth individuals' financial and TED BERNSTEIN, acting on his behalf and on behalf of, and in estate planning. concert with, SIMON BERNSTEIN, approached STANSBURY in 2003, urging STANSBURY to spearhead the marketing of a unique insurance concept, newly developed, which was designed for use in the financial and estate planning of high net worth individuals. TED BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that he knew of STANSBURY's expertise and reputation in the insurance and related industries and that STANSBURY was skilled at and accustomed to speaking and marketing insurance products to groups of professionals. He realized that STANSBURY, because of his knowledge, reputation and abilities, would be well suited to market this concept nationwide through prominent and experienced professionals. In 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN

(collectively, "BERNSTEIN" or the "BERNSTEINS") were sole shareholders of Defendants LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE for the purpose of marketing and selling certain life insurance products to high net worth individuals for their wealth management and estate planning needs. STANSBURY agreed to become an employee of LIC Holdings, Inc. and ARBITRAGE and agreed to a salary of 15% of net retained commissions received on all products sold, including renewals. STANSBURY at this time was responsible for, among other duties, calculating, on a monthly basis, the commissions due him in connection with new business generated in the current year and renewals on business generated in previous years. STANSBURY traveled throughout the United States, generating ever-increasing sales and generating large commissions. By 2006, nationwide sales were resulting in substantial commissions on new policies and renewal commissions.

Also in 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN, acting on his behalf and on behalf of, and in concert with, TED BERNSTEIN, told STANSBURY that STANSBURY was being rewarded for his efforts and the explosive growth of the business, such that he would receive a 10% ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc. STANSBURY has sued both LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE because the BERNSTEINS represented that his employment relationship was with LIC Holdings, the company in which he owned a 10% interest, but STANSBURY'S W-2 statements were issued by ARBITRAGE as his employer. In February of 2008, SIMON BERNSTEIN, acting on his behalf and on behalf of, and in concert with TED BERNSTEIN, approached STANSBURY and told him his time would be better spent building the business rather than performing monthly calculations of income. The plan proposed was that, rather than STANSBURY performing computations on a monthly basis as to how much should be paid to him based upon 15% of the net retained commissions derived from both new policies sold and renewals from previous years, the BERNSTEINS and STANSBURY all would forego monthly payouts and defer compensation until the end of 2008, when year-end computations could be made. It was represented that in December, year-end computations would be made and salaries would be paid in December 2008 or January of 2009. It was specifically represented to STANSBURY that:

a) neither SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN nor STANSBURY would take any compensation during fiscal year 2008 but rather they all would wait until the year-end accounting was performed in December of 2008 or January, 2009;

b) SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN, and STANSBURY would each be paid a minimum salary of $1,000,000 at year end, and STANSBURY'S salary was to be applied against his earned commissions of 15%. Any compensation due STANSBURY over and above the $1,000,000 would be paid as a distribution on his stock ownership interest in LIC Holdings.

In January of 2008, STANSBURY was paid $420,018 for commissions earned on some, but not all, 2007 sales. Additionally, STANSBURY was not, and has never been, paid the commissions due him on sales in 2008 and thereafter, and he was not and has never been paid the renewal commissions due him on sales made in previous years that were paid to LIC Holdings or ARBITRAGE in 2008 and thereafter, other than a nominal payment of $30,000 made in 2010. When STANSBURY was not paid as agreed in late 2008/2009 and thereafter, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, on behalf of and in concert with each other, stated to STANSBURY that salary and ownership distributions due and owing to SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN and STANSBURY would be deferred to a future time. This deferral of payment was represented to be important because of the virtual collapse of the capital lending markets in 2008, and it was necessary to retain the funds in the corporate bank accounts to demonstrate to potential lenders the financial stability of the companies. The statements were false. They were made by SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, in concert with each other, with knowledge of their falsity and with the intention of never fulfilling such promises. Despite the representations to STANSBURY, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, authorized LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE to pay themselves $3,756,229.00 and $5,225,825.00, respectively, in 2008. STANSBURY received no compensation for first year commissions and renewal commissions due him in 2008. The net retained commissions by LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, not including renewals, for 2008 were approximately $13,442,549.00. Beginning late in 2007 or early in 2008, and continuing through at least 2012, LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE became the alter ego of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as officers and majority shareholders, in that they disregarded corporate structure and wrongfully diverted, converted and depleted corporate assets of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE for their own personal benefit and the benefit of Bernstein family trusts and other entities. Those trusts have since invested some of these wrongfully diverted and converted corporate assets in real estate. Throughout 2009, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN continued to make false statements to STANSBURY to hide the fact that LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE was their alter ego, in that they converted corporate property and corporate assets of LIC and/or ARBITRAGE for their own personal benefit in 2008, 2009 and thereafter, all to the exclusion and financial detriment of STANSBURY, all the while fraudulently representing to STANSBURY that no money was being paid as salary or distributions to SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN or STANSBURY because it was necessary to hold the funds in the corporate bank accounts to show to potential lenders the financial stability of the company.

STANSBURY relied upon these continuing misrepresentations of Defendants to his detriment. Because STANSBURY was told that potential funding sources for the business needed to see that capital of the company was available, he took no action when he did not receive any compensation for 2009 and was paid only $30,000 in 2010. In order to continue their scheme to defraud, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN failed to supply financial information to STANSBURY concerning LIC Holdings or ARBITRAGE. In furtherance of their scheme to deprive STANSBURY of salary he had earned and shareholder distributions to which he was entitled, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN intercepted mail addressed to STANSBURY, removing commission checks representing commissions due to STANSBURY, deposited the funds into their own accounts and otherwise converted the funds. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN also opened STANSBURY's mail containing checks payable to him which were unrelated to them and the businesses. On December 22, 2011, the Defendants BERNSTEIN, with knowledge of STANSBURY's health issues and his debilitated condition, decided to take advantage of and deceive STANSBURY further. STANSBURY had for years been given K-1 statements reflecting his 10% ownership of LIC Holdings. At that time, TED BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that the company accountant had discovered a potential significant taxable event which could cause STANSBURY, as one of the owners of LIC Holdings to pay taxes on phantom income. TED BERNSTEIN promised that if STANSBURY would sign a paper ceding his 10% interest in LIC Holdings, he would not have to pay the tax if in fact the tax was due. TED BERNSTEIN promised he would hold the paper, promising it would not become operative until STANSBURY and the Defendants BERNSTEIN discussed the situation further in the first quarter of 2012.

Because of the misrepresentations, willful concealments of material facts, duplicity and deceit practiced by Defendants upon STANSBURY, STANSBURY reasonably believed that Defendants had complied, or intended to comply with their obligations to STANSBURY under the contract between them. By the second quarter of 2012, STANSBURY developed the belief that the BERNSTEINS' representations over the years were wholly false and he sought legal counsel.

SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN intended for STANSBURY to rely on such statements that he would be ultimately be paid for his productivity in order to induce him into continuing his productive and revenue-generating sales activity as an employee of LIC Holding and/or ARBITRAGE and fraudulently created for STANSBURY the false expectation that STANSBURY would be paid as agreed. STANSBURY in fact relied to his detriment on these false statements and was induced thereby to remain in his employment relationship with LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE as he continued to sell, with the expectation of payment, products and generate revenue for LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE until 2012, and was further induced not to pursue from LIC Holdings and/ARBITRAGE his right to payment of all amounts due him until after SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN had diverted and converted corporate assets for their personal benefit, rendering LIC Holdings, and possibly ARBITRAGE, insolvent. STANSBURY was injured thereby as he was not and has not been compensated for his revenue-generating sales and other performance, and did not seek alternative employment, as a proximate result of his detrimental reliance on these false statements.

The ceding of his shares in LIC Holdings, Inc. was procured by fraud and STANSBURY relied upon the representations made by BERNSTEIN with regard to signing the document apparently ceding his stock. It was reasonable for STANSBURY to rely on the representations made by BERNSTEIN because at that time STANSBURY was unaware of the breaches of fiduciary duty and breaches of the oral contract that had taken place. As a result of STANSBURY's reliance, STANSBURY has been damaged by the loss of 10% of the shares of LIC Holdings and the rights and remedies to a shareholder related thereto. In addition, SIMON and TED BERNSTEIN promised, and represented to me, that I would be indemnified and held harmless and otherwise reimbursed if claims were made by the issuer of any insurance policies for chargebacks of any commissions or any agents on whose behalf we were receiving commissions and then remitting those commissions to the sub-agents. One sub-agent by the name of Salvatore Gorge had been receiving his portion of renewal commissions on a regular and periodic basis until 2011 at which time Defendants SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, LIC HOLDINGS and ARBITRAGE failed and refused to pay to Mr. Gorge his percentage of a renewal commission received by me, and which I tendered to Defendants. Mr. Gorge approached me demanding his percentage commission as had been paid to him regularly for the past years leading up to 2011. I presented the request of Mr. Gorge to Defendants, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, and they promised that they would in fact pay Mr. Gorge as had been the custom for the past number of years. Notwithstanding their promises and representations for payment to Mr. Gorge, they failed and refused to pay any sums to Mr. Gorge for a renewal commission paid in 2011. Mr. Gorge made demand upon me, as agent of record, to pay him and threatened to bring legal action against me if the funds were not paid. I then personally paid Mr. Gorge the sum of approximately $1,200.00. Defendants SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN have still not performed or lived up to their promises for such reimbursement and I believe that if any other claims are to be made, the Defendants will continue to refuse to perform as promised.

4. Please describe in detail your involvement in the Decedent's business affairs on or after January 1, 2006. Your answer should include, but not be limited to, a detailed description of all duties that you undertook in connection with performing services, paying bills, expenses, balancing checkbooks, writing checks, and receiving deposits or other income. Describe in detail how you became involved in the Decedent's business affairs. The term "business" shall be deemed to include all of the named Corporate and LLC Defendants.

ANSWER: I met Simon Bernstein ("Si") in the late spring of 2003. His son, Ted Bernstein, introduced me to him. Ted and I first met in the spring of 2003. At that time, Ted was promoting a financed, single premium life insurance policy referred to as the ALPS program. Ted was promoting the ALPS program to clients of the firm with which I was associated. Because I had a background in life insurance, I was asked by the firm to review the ALPS program and determine if it was suitable for clients of the firm. At a meeting with Ted Bernstein, he asked me if I knew the Chicago based law firm Kirkland & Ellis (K&E). I told him I was familiar with the name but did not know anyone at the firm. He gave me an overview of an estate-planning concept that K&E had developed, referred to as the contingent private annuity strategy (cpas). He told me that typically significant amounts of life insurance were needed to effectuate the plan. He told me that K&E had an interest in selling the work product for cpas and that they had preliminary conversations with Ted and his father to market cpas on a national basis. Ted shared with me that he was a single father of three children and that he had no interest in introducing a new sales concept to independent agents/brokers and furthermore had no interest in travelling around the country. He further told me that his father had retired from his life insurance career years before as a result of poor health. He had sold his business STP (owner of the ALPS financing program) to his daughter and had signed a non-compete. Ted told me that Si was not physically able to travel on a regular basis. Ted asked me to come into their office in Boca Raton and meet his father and learn more about cpas. Si shared with me that he had been out of the life insurance business for a while and other than an occasional sale by Ted there wasn't much going on in the office. We spent a good deal of time talking about the "good old days" in the life insurance business. He shared with me the successes he had over the years with concepts that he created and marketed to wealthy individuals. He thought the cpas program could be more successful than any of his prior programs but it needed someone to run the program and travel around the country - something that neither he nor Ted were interested in doing. I asked if he could provide me with more technical information on cpas so that I could further understand the planning concept and determine if it was something I thought I could successfully market. He provided me with a copy of the cpas memorandum after I agreed to sign a non disclosure agreement. We met several more times to discuss the program, suitable insurance contracts, appropriate insurance company partners, etc. The more time we spent together the more we recognized that his skill set and my skill set were complimentary. We ultimately agreed that I would join Si and market epas. He negotiated a deal with K&E and had one of his companies, National Service Association (NSA), as the business entity that would market and service cpas. I was given the title of Executive Vice President, National Service Association. Si told me that he would not pay me a salary or benefits but agreed to pay me a percentage of the commission developed on each case. We agreed that my commission payments were on all commissions earned in the first year and all subsequent renewal years. My relationship with NSA was as an independent contractor. Si required me to be in his office location but he did not have a private office, desk, credenza, etc for me. He set up a 6 foot cafeteria lunch table for me to work from in the open part of the office and allowed me to use an old armoire for storage. He provided me with a computer and a telephone. I created the printed marketing material, power point presentations, seminar material and flow charts to help explain the concept to agents, brokerage general agents, independent marketing organizations, insurance companies, financial planners, attorneys and accountants. In subsequent months, I spoke to agents/advisors/insurance company representatives at seminars in San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego, Del Mar, Phoenix, Dallas, Houston, Chicago, Miami, Orlando, Washington D.C., Philadelphia and Boston. Additionally, I conducted teleconference seminars to agents/advisors/insurance company representatives located throughout the country. I introduced the cpas program and promoted the "brand" of NSA and Life Insurance Concepts to thousands of top quality agents and general agents from coast to coast. My professional credentials - Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU), and Chartered Financial Consultant (ChFC), as well as my many years in the life insurance business (29 years at that time), provided needed credibility with agents, general agents, advisors and life insurance companies to launch a new estate planning concept from a firm with no national brand name recognition in the estate planning market.

In the late summer of 2006, Si, Ted and I had a meeting in the office. Si told me that he had created LIC Holdings, Inc (LIC). He told me that LIC would be the parent company for all affiliated companies, both current and future, and that he, Ted and I would be the only stockholders. In recognition of what I had done to build the business over the prior 3 years, I would be given 10% of the stock of LIC. He did share with me later that for personal estate planning purposes he decided to give 12% of his stock to his 10 grandchildren in equal shares (1.2% to each grandchild). Additionally, my employment status would change from independent contractor to employee of Arbitrage International Management (AIM). I would be paid a salary equal to 15% of the total net retained commissions (NRC), to include first year, plus excess and renewal commissions received by AIM. We defined NRC to equal the total commissions received from all sources minus any agreed payments to agents/brokers/other advisors minus the cost of the capital if any. My position title changed from Executive Vice President, NSA to Vice President Sales, Life Insurance Concepts. This position had me doing a multitude of things that would include but not be limited to:

1) Tracking commission income due from all sources that would include but not be limited to insurance companies, independent brokerage general agencies, career agencics, independent marketing organizations, and agents.

2) Developing marketing material used for estate planning/wealth transfer concepts.

3) Meeting with/speaking with prospects/clients.

4) Prepared cpas calculations and discussed cpas program with agents/advisors/insurance companies.

5) Reporting to Phoenix insurance company their cases that were paid for the month.

6) Served as agent of record for some commissions due on cases financed through Cambridge Finance Company.

7) Prepared monthly bonus/commission compensation report for employees.

8) Met with banks/capital sources.

9) Reviewed client facts with agents/clients/internal staff to help develop sales solutions to meet client goals and objectives.

10) Dealt with client/agent service requests.

11) Discussed underwriting offers with general agents/insurance companies.

12) Office resource for advanced sales designs, annuities, long-term care insurance, disability insurance, pension planning.

13) Office liaison for insurance company home office and field office representatives.

14) Prepared insurance company sales illustrations for use by agents with prospective clients.

15) Spoke at company sponsored premium finance schools regarding cpas.

16) Worked with Si to develop new concepts for the firm to market.

17) Participated on telephone conferences with LIC national sales directors.

6. State the identify of each and every person who you have reason to believe may now have or may previously have had any knowledge concerning the circumstances relating to the allegations made by you in paragraph 31 of the Amended Complaint filed by you in this cause dated February 12, 2013. For each such person, state the following: (2) name; (b) address; (c) telephone number; (d) the nature of such knowledge; and (e) the date such knowledge was acquired.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

1. As and for the Defendants First Affirmative Defense, Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the applicable statute of limitations and/or laches.

2. As and for the Defendants Second Affirmative Defense, Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the statute of frauds.

3. As and for the Defendants Third Affirmative Defense, Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff lacks standing to pursue derivative claims because he is no longer a shareholder in LIC and lacks standing to pursue other claims because is no longer an employee of LIC or Arbitrage.

4. As and for the Defendants Fourth Affirmative Defense, Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by because Plaintiff has misjoined causes of action held in different capacities, and therefore, the Complaint is improper and, at a minimum, certain claims must be dismissed such that Plaintiff pursues only those claims he has in one capacity.

5. As and for the Defendants Fifth Affirmative Defense, Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of waiver. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies and was aware of the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and waived any claims against Defendants.

6. As and for the Defendants Sixth Affirmative Defense, Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of ratification. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies, and the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and ratified such alleged actions.

7. As and for the Defendants Seventh Affirmative Defense, Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of estoppel. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies, and was aware of the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and therefore is estopped to assert any claims against Defendants.

8. As and for the Defendants Eighth Affirmative Defense, Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of acquiescence. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies, and was aware of the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and therefore acquiesced in the conduct about which he now complains.

9. As and for the Defendants Ninth Affirmative Defense, Plaintiff's claims against Simon L. Bernstein (hereinafter the "Decedent") are barred in whole or in part by the corporate shield doctrine. All of the actions allegedly taken by the Decedent were actions taken on behalf of a legal entity (corporation or limited liability company), and not on behalf of himself individually, and therefore, any claims against the Decedent individually are barred.

10. As and for the Defendants Tenth Affirmative Defense, Plaintiff has failed to comply with the requirements of section 607.07401 of the Florida Statutes.

11. As and for the Defendants Eleventh Affirmative Defense, Plaintiff failed to properly include all or a portion of the relief requested in the Second Amended Complaint within his Claim filed in the Decedent's probate proceedings. As such, those Claims are now barred and the Plaintiff is estopped from pursuing same as the three (3) month statutory period for filing Claims against the Estate has expired.

12. As and for the Defendants Twelfth Affirmative Defense, the Plaintiff has failed to state a cause of action against the Decedent for a Constructive Trust. The Plaintiff has failed to plead the four (4) required elements of a promise, reliance, confidential relationship and unjust enrichment. As such, Count X must be dismissed.

WHEREFORE, having answered the Complaint, Defendants demand judgment in their favor, together with an award of costs and, pursuant to any applicable contract or statute, attorneys' fees, and such other relief as the Court determines just and equitable.

COUNTERCLAIM

Counter-Plaintiff, the Estate of Simon L. Bernstein (hereinafter the "Estate"), sues Defendant, William E. Stansbury ("Stansbury"), and states:

1. The Estate is being administered in Palm Beach County, Florida.

2. Stansbury is a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida.

3. At all material times referenced herein during the lifetime of Simon L. Bernstein, he was an officer and shareholder of Arbitrage and LIC Holdings, Inc.

4. As part of his work for Arbitrage and its affiliated company, LIC Holdings, Inc., Stansbury was listed as the licensed insurance agent of record on various contracts and policies of insurance with various insurance companies, under which those insurance companies would make payments of commissions and renewals due to Arbitrage only by way of a check payable in many cases to Stansbury individually.

5. Pursuant to the agreement of the parties, Stansbury was to deliver all such checks to Arbitrage, because all receipts for commissions, renewals or other revenue received by Stansbury for contracts or policies generated during the time of his employment were property of his employer.

6. Upon information and belief, before the time that Stansbury voluntarily terminated his employment with Arbitrage, Stansbury received and collected checks made payable to him, but which properly belonged to Arbitrage, and retained those funds for his sole and exclusive use and benefit.

7. Further, after Stansbury voluntarily terminated his employment with Arbitrage, Stansbury continued to receive checks made payable to him, but which properly belonged to Arbitrage, and Stansbury retained the benefit of such checks for his sole and exclusive use and benefit. In addition, for some period of time after he voluntarily terminated his employment, Stansbury has been depositing certain checks into the trust account of his attorney, Peter Feaman.

8. All conditions precedent to the bringing of his action have been met, satisfied or waived.

COUNT I - BREACH OF CONTRACT

9. The Estate realleges paragraphs 1 though 8 above.

10. This is an action for breach of contract and seeks damages in excess of $15,000, exclusive of interest, costs and attorneys' fees.

11. Pursuant to the agreement between Arbitrage and Stansbury, Stansbury was required to deliver to Arbitrage all checks made payable to him for contracts or policies of insurance which relate to work done during the time of Stansbury's employment.

12. For the vast majority of the duration of Stansbury's employment, Stansbury complied with the parties' oral agreement and, as far as Arbitrage is presently aware, Stansbury did in fact deliver to Arbitrage all checks he received. However, upon information and belief, Stansbury may have withheld checks from Arbitrage at various times.

13. At some point before the voluntary termination of his employment, and for all times after the voluntary termination of his employment, Stansbury has retained for himself and refused to turn over to Arbitrage checks received by him, payable to him individually, but which otherwise should have been turned over to Arbitrage.

14. By his actions in retaining checks payable to him but which should have been turned over to Arbitrage, Stansbury has breached his agreement with Arbitrage.

15. As a direct and proximate result of Stansbury breach of the parties' agreement, Arbitrage and consequently the Estate have been damaged in an amount to be determined through discovery and at trial, including the amount held in the attorney trust account of Peter Feaman.

WHEREFORE, the Estate demands judgment in its favor against Stansbury for compensatory damages, together with an award of costs and, pursuant to any applicable statute or contract, an award of attorneys' fees, and such other relief as is just.

COUNT II - DECLARATORY JUDGMENT

16. The Estate realleges paragraphs 1 though 8 and 10 through 15 above.

17. This is an action for a declaratory judgment and for supplemental relief.

18. There is a genuine and immediate dispute between the parties as to the entitlement to certain Checks which are made payable to Stansbury individually, but which properly belong to Arbitrage as the commissions and renewals received for contracts and policies of insurance, and other revenues of Arbitrage which are payable directly to Stansbury individually.

19. There is a bona fide, actual, present and practical need for the declaration.

20. The declaration deals with a present, ascertained or ascertainable state of facts or present controversy as to a state of facts regarding who is entitled to the Checks held by Stansbury or his counsel.

21. An immunity, power, privilege or right of Arbitrage is dependent upon the facts or the law applicable to the facts.

22. Stansbury has, or reasonably may have, an actual, present, adverse and antagonistic interest in the subject matter, either in fact or law.

23. The antagonistic and adverse interests are all properly before the Court.

24. The relief sought is not merely the giving of legal advice or the answer to questions propounded from curiosity.

25. Based upon the foregoing, the Estate seeks a declaration that Stansbury is required to turn over to Arbitrage all checks received by him, which are payable to Stansbury individually, but which relate to contracts or policies of insurance, or other revenues generated by Arbitrage or by Stansbury while he was employed by Arbitrage.

26. Moreover, the Estate requests a declaratory judgment that it is entitled to all funds currently being held in the attorney trust account of Peter Feaman, which represent Checks received by Stansbury which are made payable to Stansbury individually, but which otherwise properly belong to Arbitrage.

27. The Estate also seeks a declaration that its rights to all such funds are superior to the rights and claims of Stansbury.

WHEREFORE, the Estate seeks a declaratory judgment as to its rights to the personal property described above, together with supplemental relief to the extent necessary, an award of costs and, pursuant to any applicable statute or contract, an award of attorneys' fees, and such other relief the Court determines just and equitable.

- 13 -

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

- 86. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the applicable statute of limitations.
- 87. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the statute of frauds.

88. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff lacks standing to pursue derivative claims because he is no longer a shareholder in LIC and lacks standing to pursue other claims because is no longer an employee of LIC or Arbitrage.

89. Plaintiff's claims are barred because there is a good faith basis to refuse any request by Stansbury, including because he no longer is a shareholder in LIC and his request is not made in good faith and for a proper purpose, and otherwise denied.

90. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by because Plaintiff has misjoined causes of action held in different capacities, and therefore, the Complaint is improper and, at a minimum, certain claims must be dismissed such that Plaintiff pursues only those claims he has in one capacity.

91. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of waiver. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies and was aware of the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and waived any claims against Defendants.

92. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of ratification. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies, and the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and ratified such alleged actions.

93. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of estoppel. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies, and was aware of the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and therefore is estopped to assert any claims against Defendants.

94. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of acquiescence. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies, and was aware of the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and therefore acquiesced in the conduct about which he now complains.

95. Plaintiff's claims against Ted Bernstein are barred in whole or in part by the corporate shield doctrine. All of the actions allegedly taken by Bernstein were actions taken on behalf of a legal entity (corporation or limited liability company), and not on behalf of himself individually, and therefore, any claims against Bernstein individually are barred.

96. Plaintiff has failed to comply with the requirements of section 607.07401 of the Florida Statutes.

97. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of laches, in that Plaintiff unreasonably delayed bringing these claims for numerous years, while continuing to work and continuing to receive compensation, benefits and distributions; and Defendants were prejudiced by such delay, including by their actions in continuing such employment and such benefits, and in other ways.

WHEREFORE, having answered the Complaint, Defendants demand judgment in their favor, together with an award of costs and, pursuant to any applicable contract or statute, attorneys' fees, and such other relief as it just.

WHEREFORE, having fully answered the Second Amended Complaint, Defendant demands judgment in its favor, together with an award of costs and, pursuant to any applicable statute or contract, an award of attorneys' fees, and such other relief as is just.

Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies, and was aware of the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and therefore is estopped to assert any claims against Defendants.

94. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of acquiescence. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies, and was aware of the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and therefore acquiesced in the conduct about which he now complains.

95. Plaintiff's claims against Ted Bernstein are barred in whole or in part by the corporate shield doctrine. All of the actions allegedly taken by Bernstein were actions taken on behalf of a legal entity (corporation or limited liability company), and not on behalf of himself individually, and therefore, any claims against Bernstein individually are barred.

96. Plaintiff has failed to comply with the requirements of section 607.07401 of the Florida Statutes.

97. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of laches, in that Plaintiff unreasonably delayed bringing these claims for numerous years, while continuing to work and continuing to receive compensation, benefits and distributions; and Defendants were prejudiced by such delay, including by their actions in continuing such employment and such benefits, and in other ways.

WHEREFORE, having answered the Complaint, Defendants demand judgment in their favor, together with an award of costs and, pursuant to any applicable contract or statute, attorneys' fees, and such other relief as it just.

COUNTERCLAIM

Counter-Plaintiff, Arbitrage International Management, LLC ("Arbitrage"), sues Defendant, William E. Stansbury ("Stansbury"), and states:

1. Arbitrage is a Florida limited liability company with its principal place of business in Palm Beach County, Florida.

2. Stansbury is a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida.

3. As part of his work for Arbitrage and its affiliated company, LIC Holdings, Inc., Stansbury was listed as the licensed insurance agent of record on various contracts and policies of insurance with various insurance companies, under which those insurance companies would make payments of commissions and renewals due to Arbitrage only by way of a check payable to one of the individuals, including in many cases Stansbury individually.

4. Pursuant to the agreement of the parties, Stansbury was to deliver all such checks to Arbitrage, because all receipts for commissions, renewals or other revenue received by Stansbury for contracts or policies generated during the time of his employment were property of his employer.

5. Upon information and belief, before the time that Stansbury voluntarily terminated his employment with Arbitrage, Stansbury received and collected checks made payable to him, but which properly belonged to Arbitrage, and retained those funds for his sole and exclusive use and benefit.

6. Further, after Stansbury voluntarily terminated his employment with Arbitrage, Stansbury continued to receive checks made payable to him, but which properly belonged to Arbitrage, and Stansbury retained the benefit of such checks for his sole and exclusive use and benefit. In addition, for some period of time after he voluntarily terminated his employment, Stansbury has been depositing certain checks into the trust account of his attorney, Peter Feaman.

7. All conditions precedent to the bringing of his action have occurred, been satisfied, or waived.

COUNT I - BREACH OF CONTRACT

8. Arbitrage realleges paragraphs 1 though 7 above.

9. This is an action for breach of contract and seeks damages in excess of $15,000, exclusive of interest, costs and attorneys' fees.

10. Pursuant to the agreement between Arbitrage and Stansbury, Stansbury was required to deliver to Arbitrage all checks made payable to him for contracts or policies of insurance which relate to work done during the time of Stansbury's employment.

11. For the vast majority of the duration of Stansbury's employment, Stansbury complied with the parties' oral agreement and, as far as Arbitrage is presently aware, Stansbury did in fact deliver to Arbitrage all checks he received. However, upon information and belief, Stansbury may have withheld checks from Arbitrage at various times.

12. At some point before the voluntary termination of his employment, and for all times after the voluntary termination of his employment, Stansbury has retained for himself and refused to turn over to Arbitrage checks received by him, payable to him individually, but which otherwise should have been turned over to Arbitrage.

13. By his actions in retaining checks payable to him but which should have been turned over to Arbitrage, Stansbury has breached his agreement with Arbitrage.

14. As a direct and proximate result of Stansbury breach of the parties' agreement, Arbitrage has been damaged in an amount to be determined through discovery and at trial, including the amount held in the trust account of Peter Feaman.

WHEREFORE, Arbitrage demands judgment in its favor against Stansbury for compensatory damages, together with an award of costs and, pursuant to any applicable statute or contract, an award of attorneys' fees, and such other relief as is just.

COUNT II - DECLARATORY JUDGMENT

15. Arbitrage realleges paragraphs 1 though 7 and 10 through 13 above.

16. This is an action for a declaratory judgment and for supplemental relief.

17. There is a genuine and immediate dispute between the parties as to the entitlement to certain checks which are made payable to Stansbury individually, but which properly belong to Arbitrage as the commissions and renewals received for contracts and policies of insurance, and other revenues of Arbitrage which are payable directly to Stansbury individually.

18. There is a bona fide, actual, present and practical need for the declaration.

19. The declaration deals with a present, ascertained or ascertainable state of facts or present controversy as to a state of facts regarding who is entitled to the checks held by Stansbury or his counsel.

20. An immunity, power, privilege or right of Arbitrage is dependent upon the facts or the law applicable to the facts.

11

Case: 1:13-cv-03643 Document #: 258-3 Filed: 08/27/16 Page 526 of 1000 PageID #:6966 Case: 17-3595 Document: 12-11 Filed: 03/12/2018 Pages: 1000

21. Stansbury has, or reasonably may have, an actual, present, adverse and antagonistic interest in the subject matter, either in fact or law.

22. The antagonistic and adverse interests are all properly before the Court.

23. The relief sought is not merely the giving of legal advice or the answer to questions propounded from curiosity.

24. Based upon the foregoing, Arbitrage seeks a declaration that Stansbury is required to turn over to Arbitrage all checks received by him, which are payable to Stansbury individually, but which relate to contracts or policies of insurance, or other revenues generated by Arbitrage or by Stansbury while he was employed by Arbitrage.

25. Moreover, Arbitrage requests a declaratory judgment that it is entitled to all funds currently being held in the trust account of Peter Feaman, which represent checks received by Stansbury which are made payable to Stansbury individually, but which otherwise properly belong to Arbitrage.

26. Arbitrage also seeks a declaration that its rights to all such funds are superior to the rights and claims of Stansbury.

WHEREFORE, Arbitrage seeks a declaratory judgment as to its rights to the personal property described above, together with supplemental relief to the extent necessary, an award of costs and, pursuant to any applicable statute or contract, an award of attorneys' fees, and such other relief as is just.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

- 86. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the applicable statute of limitations.
- 87. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the statute of frauds.

88. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff lacks standing to pursue derivative claims because he is no longer a shareholder in LIC and lacks standing to pursue other claims because is no longer an employee of LIC or Arbitrage.

89. Plaintiff's claims are barred because there is a good faith basis to refuse any request by Stansbury, including because he no longer is a shareholder in LIC and his request is not made in good faith and for a proper purpose, and otherwise denied.

90. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by because Plaintiff has misjoined causes of action held in different capacities, and therefore, the Complaint is improper and, at a minimum, certain claims must be dismissed such that Plaintiff pursues only those claims he has in one capacity.

91. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of waiver. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies and was aware of the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and waived any claims against Defendants.

92. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of ratification. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies, and the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and ratified such alleged actions.

93. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of estoppel. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies, and was aware of the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and therefore is estopped to assert any claims against Defendants.

94. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of acquiescence. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies, and was aware of the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and therefore acquiesced in the conduct about which he now complains.

95. Plaintiff's claims against Ted Bernstein are barred in whole or in part by the corporate shield doctrine. All of the actions allegedly taken by Bernstein were actions taken on behalf of a legal entity (corporation or limited liability company), and not on behalf of himself individually, and therefore, any claims against Bernstein individually are barred.

96. Plaintiff has failed to comply with the requirements of section 607.07401 of the Florida Statutes.

97. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of laches, in that Plaintiff unreasonably delayed bringing these claims for numerous years, while continuing to work and continuing to receive compensation, benefits and distributions; and Defendants were prejudiced by such delay, including by their actions in continuing such employment and such benefits, and in other ways.

WHEREFORE, having answered the Complaint, Defendants demand judgment in their favor, together with an award of costs and, pursuant to any applicable contract or statute, attorneys' fees, and such other relief as it just.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

- 86. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the applicable statute of limitations.
- 87. Plaintiffs claims are barred in whole or in part by the statute of frauds.

88. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff lacks standing to pursue derivative claims because he is no longer a shareholder in LIC and lacks standing to pursue other claims because is no longer an employee of LIC or Arbitrage.

89. Plaintiff's claims are barred because there is a good faith basis to refuse any request by Stansbury, including because he no longer is a shareholder in LIC and his request is not made in good faith and for a proper purpose, and otherwise denied.

90. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by because Plaintiff has misjoined causes of action held in different capacities, and therefore, the Complaint is improper and, at a minimum, certain claims must be dismissed such that Plaintiff pursues only those claims he has in one capacity.

91. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of waiver. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies and was aware of the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and waived any claims against Defendants.

92. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of ratification. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies, and the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and ratified such alleged actions.

93. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of estoppel. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies, and was aware of the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and therefore is estopped to assert any claims against Defendants.

94. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of acquiescence. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies, and was aware of the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and therefore acquiesced in the conduct about which he now complains.

95. Plaintiff's claims against Ted Bernstein are barred in whole or in part by the corporate shield doctrine. All of the actions allegedly taken by Bernstein were actions taken on behalf of a legal entity (corporation or limited liability company), and not on behalf of himself individually, and therefore, any claims against Bernstein individually are barred.

96. Plaintiff has failed to comply with the requirements of section 607.07401 of the Florida Statutes.

97. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of laches, in that Plaintiff unreasonably delayed bringing these claims for numerous years, while continuing to work and continuing to receive compensation, benefits and distributions; and Defendants were prejudiced by such delay, including by their actions in continuing such employment and such benefits, and in other ways.

WHEREFORE, having answered the Complaint, Defendants demand judgment in their favor, together with an award of costs and, pursuant to any applicable contract or statute, attorneys' fees, and such other relief as it just.

COUNTERCLAIM

Counter-Plaintiff, Arbitrage International Management, LLC ("Arbitrage"), sues Defendant, William E. Stansbury ("Stansbury"), and states:

1. Arbitrage is a Florida limited liability company with its principal place of business in Palm Beach County, Florida.

2. Stansbury is a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida.

3. As part of his work for Arbitrage and its affiliated company, LIC Holdings, Inc., Stansbury was listed as the licensed insurance agent of record on various contracts and policies of insurance with various insurance companies, under which those insurance companies would make payments of commissions and renewals due to Arbitrage only by way of a check payable to one of the individuals, including in many cases Stansbury individually.

4. Pursuant to the agreement of the parties, Stansbury was to deliver all such checks to Arbitrage, because all receipts for commissions, renewals or other revenue received by Stansbury for contracts or policies generated during the time of his employment were property of his employer.

5. Upon information and belief, before the time that Stansbury voluntarily terminated his employment with Arbitrage, Stansbury received and collected checks made payable to him, but which properly belonged to Arbitrage, and retained those funds for his sole and exclusive use and benefit.

6. Further, after Stansbury voluntarily terminated his employment with Arbitrage, Stansbury continued to receive checks made payable to him, but which properly belonged to Arbitrage, and Stansbury retained the benefit of such checks for his sole and exclusive use and benefit. In addition, for some period of time after he voluntarily terminated his employment, Stansbury has been depositing certain checks into the trust account of his attorney, Peter Feaman.

7. All conditions precedent to the bringing of his action have occurred, been satisfied, or waived.

COUNT I - BREACH OF CONTRACT

8. Arbitrage realleges paragraphs 1 though 7 above.

9. This is an action for breach of contract and seeks damages in excess of $15,000, exclusive of interest, costs and attorneys' fees.

10. Pursuant to the agreement between Arbitrage and Stansbury, Stansbury was required to deliver to Arbitrage all checks made payable to him for contracts or policies of insurance which relate to work done during the time of Stansbury's employment.

11. For the vast majority of the duration of Stansbury's employment, Stansbury complied with the parties' oral agreement and, as far as Arbitrage is presently aware, Stansbury did in fact deliver to Arbitrage all checks he received. However, upon information and belief, Stansbury may have withheld checks from Arbitrage at various times.

12. At some point before the voluntary termination of his employment, and for all times after the voluntary termination of his employment, Stansbury has retained for himself and refused to turn over to Arbitrage checks received by him, payable to him individually, but which otherwise should have been turned over to Arbitrage.

13. By his actions in retaining checks payable to him but which should have been turned over to Arbitrage, Stansbury has breached his agreement with Arbitrage.

14. As a direct and proximate result of Stansbury breach of the parties' agreement, Arbitrage has been damaged in an amount to be determined through discovery and at trial, including the amount held in the trust account of Peter Feaman.

WHEREFORE, Arbitrage demands judgment in its favor against Stansbury for compensatory damages, together with an award of costs and, pursuant to any applicable statute or contract, an award of attorneys' fees, and such other relief as is just.

COUNT II - DECLARATORY JUDGMENT

15. Arbitrage realleges paragraphs 1 though 7 and 10 through 13 above.

16. This is an action for a declaratory judgment and for supplemental relief.

17. There is a genuine and immediate dispute between the parties as to the entitlement to certain checks which are made payable to Stansbury individually, but which properly belong to Arbitrage as the commissions and renewals received for contracts and policies of insurance, and other revenues of Arbitrage which are payable directly to Stansbury individually.

18. There is a bona fide, actual, present and practical need for the declaration.

19. The declaration deals with a present, ascertained or ascertainable state of facts or present controversy as to a state of facts regarding who is entitled to the checks held by Stansbury or his counsel.

20. An immunity, power, privilege or right of Arbitrage is dependent upon the facts or the law applicable to the facts.

21. Stansbury has, or reasonably may have, an actual, present, adverse and antagonistic interest in the subject matter, either in fact or law.

22. The antagonistic and adverse interests are all properly before the Court.

23. The relief sought is not merely the giving of legal advice or the answer to questions propounded from curiosity.

24. Based upon the foregoing, Arbitrage seeks a declaration that Stansbury is required to turn over to Arbitrage all checks received by him, which are payable to Stansbury individually, but which relate to contracts or policies of insurance, or other revenues generated by Arbitrage or by Stansbury while he was employed by Arbitrage.

25. Moreover, Arbitrage requests a declaratory judgment that it is entitled to all funds currently being held in the trust account of Peter Feaman, which represent checks received by Stansbury which are made payable to Stansbury individually, but which otherwise properly belong to Arbitrage.

26. Arbitrage also seeks a declaration that its rights to all such funds are superior to the rights and claims of Stansbury.

WHEREFORE, Arbitrage seeks a declaratory judgment as to its rights to the personal property described above, together with supplemental relief to the extent necessary, an award of costs and, pursuant to any applicable statute or contract, an award of attorneys' fees, and such other relief as is just.

Defendants.

1

WILLIAM E. STANSBURY, by and through undersigned counsel, sues the Defendants and states:

1. This is an action for money damages in excess of $15,000, and for equitable relief.

2. Plaintiff (hereinafter referred to as "STANSBURY") is sui juris, and a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida.

- 3. Defendant TED S. BERNSTEIN ("TED BERNSTEIN"), is sui juris, and a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida.
- 4. SIMON L. BERNSTEIN ("SIMON BERNSTEIN") died on or about September 13, 2012, after the filing of the initial Complaint in this action. At the time of his death, SIMON BERNSTEIN was sui juris, and was a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida. Defendants

Donald R. Tescher and Robert L. Spallina are serving as co-personal representatives of the ESTATE OF SIMON L. BERNSTEIN (the "ESTATE")which ESTATE is presently open and pending in the Palm Beach County Circuit Court, In re: Estate of Simon L. Bernstein, Case No. 502012CP004391XXXXSB (the "Estate Proceeding"). In accordance with Section 733.705, Florida Statutes, STANSBURY hereby brings this independent action against the ESTATE with respect to his Statement of Claim that was filed and objected to in the Estate Proceeding.

5. Defendant, LIC HOLDINGS, INC. ("LIC Holdings") is a Florida corporation with its principal place of business in Palm Beach County, Florida.

6. Defendant, ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, formerly known as ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, LLC, ("ARBITRAGE") is a Florida limited liability company with its principal place of business in Palm Beach County, Florida.

7. Defendant, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC is a Florida limited liability company doing business in Palm Beach County.

8. Defendant, the SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT dated May 20, 2008 ("SHIRLEY'S TRUST"), owns real property in Palm Beach County, Florida. Based upon information and belief, Donald R. Tescher and Robert L. Spallina are serving as co-trustees of SHIRLEY'S TRUST. This Court has personal jurisdiction over the trustees and the beneficiaries of SHIRLEY'S TRUST under Section 736.0202, Florida Statutes, as the principal place of administration of SHIRLEY'S TRUST is in Palm Beach County, Florida. This court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action under Section 736.0203, Florida Statutes. Venue is proper in Palm Beach County, Florida, under Section 736.0204, Florida Statutes, as the principal place of administration of SHIRLEY'S TRUST is in Palm Beach County, Florida and one or more of the beneficiaries of SHIRLEY'S TRUST reside in Palm Beach County, Florida. The acts and incidents giving rise to the causes of action alleged herein arose in Palm Beach County, Florida.

General Allegations

10. STANSBURY has worked in the insurance industry for virtually all of his adult life. After 30 years, he had become well-known and highly regarded by major insurance companies, their principals and others throughout the insurance industry, at all levels thereof, as well as by professionals, including attorneys, CPA's, financial advisors, wealth managers and others who were involved in serving, or otherwise dealing with insurers, insurance brokers and life insurance products.

11. SIMON BERNSTEIN dealt at sophisticated levels of the insurance industry and specialized in developing and marketing insurance concepts suitable for persons of high net worth to incorporate into their wealth management and estate planning.

12. TED BERNSTEIN, the son of SIMON BERNSTEIN, was also actively involved in selling life insurance products in conjunction with attorneys, CPAs and other professionals, to be incorporated into high net worth individuals' financial and estate planning.

13. TED BERNSTEIN, acting on his behalf and on behalf of, and in concert with, SIMON BERNSTEIN, approached STANSBURY in 2003, urging STANSBURY to spearhead the marketing of a unique insurance concept, newly developed by a prominent law firm, which was designed for use in the financial and estate planning of high net worth individuals.

14. TED BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that he knew of STANSBURY's expertise and reputation in the insurance and related industries and that STANSBURY was skilled at and accustomed to speaking and marketing insurance products to groups of professionals. He realized that STANSBURY, because of his knowledge, reputation and abilities, would be well suited to market this concept nationwide through prominent and experienced professionals. 15. In 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN (collectively, "BERNSTEIN" or the "BERNSTEINS") formed, as sole shareholders, Defendants LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE for the purpose of marketing and selling certain life insurance products to high net worth individuals for their wealth management and estate planning needs.

16. STANSBURY agreed to become an employee of LIC Holdings, Inc. and ARBITRAGE and agreed to a salary of 15% of net retained commissions received on all products sold, including renewals. STANSBURY at this time was responsible for, among other duties, calculating, on a monthly basis, the commissions due him in connection with new business generated in the current year and renewals on business generated in previous years.

17. STANSBURY worked with diligence and skill, traveling throughout the United States, generating ever-increasing sales and generating very large commissions. By 2006, nationwide sales were resulting in substantial commissions on new policies and renewal commissions.

18. Also in 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN, acting on his behalf and on behalf of, and in concert with, TED BERNSTEIN, told STANSBURY that STANSBURY was being rewarded for his efforts and the explosive growth of the business, such that he would receive a 10% ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, collectively, were majority shareholders while STANSBURY was a minority shareholder in LIC Holdings, Inc.

19. STANSBURY has sued both LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE because the BERNSTEINS represented that his employment relationship was with LIC Holdings, the company in which he owned a 10% interest, but STANSBURY'S W-2 statements were issued by ARBITRAGE as his employer.

20. In February of 2008, SIMON BERNSTEIN, acting on his behalf and on behalf of, and in concert with TED BERNSTEIN, approached STANSBURY and told him his time would Ŗ be better spent building the business rather than performing monthly calculations of income. The plan proposed was that, rather than STANSBURY performing computations on a monthly basis as to how much should be paid to him based upon 15% of the net retained commissions derived from both new policies sold and renewals from previous years, the BERNSTEINS and STANSBURY all would forego monthly payouts and defer compensation until the end of 2008, when year-end computations could be made. It was represented that in December, year-end computations would be made and salaries would be paid in December 2008 or January of 2009. It was specifically represented to STANSBURY that:

a) neither SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN nor STANSBURY would take any compensation during fiscal year 2008 but rather they all would wait until the year-end accounting was performed in December of 2008 or January, 2009;

b) SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN, and STANSBURY would each be paid a minimum salary of $1,000,000 at year end, and STANSBURY'S salary was to be applied against his earned commissions of 15%. Any compensation due STANSBURY over and above the $1,000,000 would be paid as a distribution on his stock ownership interest in LIC Holdings.

21. In January of 2008, STANSBURY was paid $420,018 for commissions earned on some 2007 sales. However, STANSBURY was not, and has never been, paid the commissions due him on sales in 2008 and thereafter, and he was not and has never been paid the renewal commissions due him on sales made in previous years that were paid to LIC Holdings or ARBITRAGE in 2008 and thereafter, other than a nominal payment of $30,000 made in 2010.

22. When STANSBURY was not paid as agreed in late 2008/2009 and thereafter, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, on behalf of and in concert with each other, stated to STANSBURY that salary and ownership distributions due and owing to SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN and STANSBURY would be deferred to a future time. This deferral of payment was represented to be important because, as a result of the virtual collapse of the capital lending markets in 2008, it was necessary to retain the funds in the corporate bank accounts to demonstrate to potential lenders the financial stability of the companies.

23. The false statements set forth in paragraphs 18 through 21, above, were made by SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, in concert with each other, with knowledge of their falsity and with the intention of never to fulfilling such promises.

24. Despite the representations to STANSBURY set forth above to the contrary, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, authorized LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE to pay themselves $3,756,229.00 and $5,225,825.00, respectively, in 2008. Contrary to the representations made as set forth in paragraph 20, STANSBURY received no compensation for first year commissions and renewal commissions due him in 2008.

25. The net retained commissions by LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, not including renewals, for 2008 were approximately $13,442,549.00. As such, STANSBURY was entitled to, at the very minimum, 15% of $13,442,549.00, or $2,016,382.35.

26. Beginning late in 2007 or early in 2008, and continuing through at least 2012, LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE became the alter ego of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as officers and majority shareholders, in that they disregarded corporate structure and wrongfully diverted, converted and depleted corporate assets of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE for their own personal benefit and the benefit of Bernstein family trusts and other entitics as more specifically set forth below. Those trusts have since invested some of these wrongfully diverted and converted corporate assets in real estate, also as more particularly set forth below. The wrongful action of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN in diverting and converting corporate assets rendered LIC Holdings, and possibly ARBITRAGE, insolvent. 27. Throughout 2009, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN continued to make false statements to STANSBURY to hide the fact that LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE was their alter ego, in that they converted corporate property and corporate assets of LIC and/or ARBITRAGE for their own personal benefit in 2008, 2009 and thereafter, all to the exclusion and financial detriment of STANSBURY, all the while fraudulently representing to STANSBURY that no money was being paid as salary or distributions to SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN or STANSBURY because it was necessary to hold the funds in the corporate bank accounts to show to potential lenders the financial stability of the company.

28. STANSBURY relied upon these continuing misrepresentations of Defendants to his detriment. Because STANSBURY was told that potential funding sources for the business needed to see that capital of the company was available, he took no action when he did not receive any compensation for 2009 and was paid only $30,000 in 2010.

29. In order to continue their scheme to defraud, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN failed and refused to account for renewal commissions and failed to supply any financial information to STANSBURY concerning LIC Holdings or ARBITRAGE.

30. In furtherance of their scheme to deprive STANSBURY of salary he had earned and shareholder distributions to which he was entitled, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN intercepted mail addressed to STANSBURY, removing commission checks representing commissions due to STANSBURY, deposited the funds into their own accounts and otherwise converted the funds. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN also opened STANSBURY's mail containing checks payable to him which were unrelated to them and the businesses.

31. In December, 2011 STANSBURY had been battling a painful and debilitating disease that could only be managed through the administration of potentially harmful prescription medications. On December 22, 2011, the Defendants BERNSTEIN, with knowledge of STANSBURY's health issues and his debilitated condition, decided to take advantage of and deceive STANSBURY further. STANSBURY had for years been given K-1 statements reflecting his 10% ownership of LIC Holdings. At that time, TED BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that the company accountant had discovered a potential significant taxable event which could cause STANSBURY, as one of the owners of LIC Holdings to pay taxes on phantom income. TED BERNSTEIN promised that if STANSBURY would sign a paper ceding his 10% interest in LIC Holdings, he would not have to pay the tax if in fact the tax was due. TED BERNSTEIN promised he would hold the paper, promising it would not become operative until STANSBURY and the Defendants BERNSTEIN discussed the situation further in the first quarter of 2012.

32. Because of the misrepresentations, willful concealments of material facts, duplicity and deceit practiced by Defendants upon STANSBURY, STANSBURY reasonably believed that Defendants had complied, or intended to comply with their obligations to STANSBURY under the contract between them. STANSBURY, therefore, was prevented from knowing for a period of years that the causes of action asserted herein existed.

33. By the second quarter of 2012, STANSBURY developed the belief that the BERNSTEINS' representations over the years were wholly false and he sought legal counsel.

34. STANSBURY has retained the law firm of Peter M. Feaman, P.A. and has agreed to pay it a reasonable fee for its services rendered herein.

COUNT I - ACCOUNTING (Against LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, for Accounting)

35. STANSBURY hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

36. The relationship between STANSBURY and the Defendants, particularly as affected by Defendants' acts described in preceding paragraphs 19 through 27 created a situation where Defendants had sole access to receipts generated by STANSBURY's efforts, and to books and records reflecting said receipts and the other information from which can be calculated all moneys due to STANSBURY under his arrangement with Defendants.

37. The period of time during which STANSBURY has been deprived of monies due him spans approximately four and a half years. The various sources of revenue to Defendants of monies from which the amounts due STANSBURY may be calculated, the manner in which STANSBURY was to be paid, and the amount due STANSBURY all involve extensive and complicated accounts, and STANSBURY's remedy at law cannot be as full, adequate and expeditious as it is in equity.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff STANSBURY prays for an adjudication of Plaintiff's right to a full and complete accounting from Defendants, LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, and for such orders of Court as will require such Defendants to provide STANSBURY with all records and copies of documents from January 1, 2006 to the present, in order to reveal his right to, and the amount of all sums: (a) received as commissions to which STANSBURY was entitled to a share; (b) due to STANSBURY, whether paid or not; (c) paid to STANSBURY, whether for commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason; (d) paid to each of the BERNSTEIN Defendants out of monies received as commissions; (e) deposits of any and all moneys received as commissions by any Defendants to any accounts, including the name of the entity whose account was involved, the number(s) of each such account; the address of the branch or other facility through which any Defendant dealt with such entity; (f) calculations as to moneys paid , to be paid, or not to be paid to STANSBURY, together with an award of court costs and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT II - BREACH OF ORAL CONTRACT (Against LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN)

38. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 37, inclusive.

39. The arrangement between STANSBURY and Defendants, as described in paragraphs 13 through 28 above, constituted a contract between them.

40. An express term of that contract involved the commitment of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to calculate and pay to STANSBURY all sums due to him under the contract, whether as commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason.

41. The Defendants initially performed the duties required of them under said contract.

42. However, Defendants breached their contract with STANSBURY by withholding from STANSBURY monies due him under the contract for renewal commissions earned in 2007 and commissions and renewal commissions earned in 2008 and thereafter.

43. The withholding of such monies constitutes a material breach of the contract between STANSBURY and LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

44. STANSBURY has sued both LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE because the BERNSTEINS represented that his employment relationship was with LIC Holdings, the company in which he owned a 10% interest, but STANSBURY'S W-2 statements were issued by ARBITRAGE as his employer.

45. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN are personally liable, jointly and severally, for the material breach of the oral employment contract with STANSBURY as LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE were the alter ego of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED

BERNSTEIN in that the BERNSTEINS depleted corporate assets for their personal benefit by causing the corporation or corporations to make exorbitant and inappropriate distributions to themselves, family members, and BERNSTEIN family trusts and other entities, at the expense of corporate creditors such as STANSBURY, to wit:

a) SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN caused LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE to pay to them at least $3,756,229.00 and $5,225,825.00, respectively, in fiscal 2008 during which time STANSBURY, other than the amount referenced in paragraph 21, was paid nothing;

b) According to Palm Beach County public records, in December of 2007 TED

c) According to Palm Beach County public records, on December 28, 2008, TED BERNSTEIN paid off the mortgage in the amount of $486,400.00 on a property he owned at 15807 Menton Bay Court, Saturnia Isles, Delray Beach, Florida 33446;

d) According to Palm Beach County public records, SIMON BERNSTEIN paid off the mortgage on property he and his wife owned, and subsequently transferred by quitclaim deed on May 20, 2008 to the trustee of SHIRLEY'S TRUST, at 7020 Lions Head Lane, Boca Raton, Florida, 33496. The amount of the mortgage pay-off is unknown, but in 2013 the property was listed for sale at $2,399,000;

e) According to Palm Beach County public records, on June 18, 2008, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC acquired a property located at 2753 N.W. 34 Street, Boca Madera Unit 2, Boca Raton, Florida 33432 (the "Boca Madera Property). On July 8, 2008, SIMON BERNSTEIN loaned $365,000 to BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC. The specific purpose of the loan is unknown, but SIMON BERNSTEIN received a mortgage on the Boca Madera Property to secure the loan;

f) According to Palm Beach County public records, on May 20, 2008 SIMON BERNSTEIN and his wife transferred by quitclaim deed to the trustee of SHIRLEY'S TRUST a 4,220 square foot oceanfront condominium unit in a complex known as "The Aragon" in Boca Raton, located at 2494 South Ocean Boulevard, Boca Raton, Florida. The mortgage on that property was paid off on September 27, 2010.

g) The legal descriptions for each of the above referenced properties are attached hereto as Exhibit "B."

46. There is due to STANSBURY from such Defendants all amounts due under said contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN declaring that Defendants, LIC Holdings, Inc. and ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, are or were the alter ego of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN such that the corporate veil of LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE should be pierced; for judgment against Defendants, LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, in excess of $1,500,000.00 for the amounts due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest; for his court costs herein expended and for such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT III - FRAUD IN THE INDUCEMENT- EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (Against SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN)

47. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 46, inclusive.

49. The statements set forth in paragraphs 18 through 24, above, made by SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, on behalf of and in concert with each other, and as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, were false statements of material fact that SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN knew to be false at the time they were made, as SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN never intended to authorize LIC Holdings or ARBITRAGE to pay to STANSBURY the amounts due him as evidenced by the fact that the accountant for LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE prepared financial worksheets for 2008 showing that the BERNSTEINS would receive compensation, but STANSBURY would not, for fiscal 2008, in direct contravention to their statements and promises to STANSBURY.

50. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN intended for STANSBURY to rely on such statements that he would be ultimately be paid for his productivity in order to induce him into continuing his productive and revenue-generating sales activity as an employee of LIC Holding and/or ARBITRAGE and fraudulently created for STANSBURY the false expectation that STANSBURY would be paid as agreed.

51. STANSBURY in fact relied to his detriment on these false statements and was induced thereby to remain in his employment relationship with LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE as he continued to sell, with the expectation of payment, products and generate revenue for LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE until 2012, and was further induced not to pursue from LIC Holdings and/ARBITRAGE his right to payment of all amounts due him until after SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN had diverted and converted corporate assets for their personal benefit, rendering LIC Holdings, and possibly ARBITRAGE, insolvent.

52. STANSBURY was injured thereby as he was not and has not been compensated for his revenue-generating sales and other performance, and did not seek alternative employment, as a proximate result of his detrimental reliance on these false statements.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, for damages in excess of $1,500,000.00 together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest; for the imposition of an equitable lien and constructive trust on the Bernstein real estate described in paragraph 45 and Exhibit "B" as more fully set forth in Counts VII and VIII of this Second Amended Complaint; for his court costs herein expended; and for such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper. STANSBURY reserves the right to move to amend to request punitive damages in accordance with Florida Law.

COUNT IV - FRAUD IN THE INDUCEMENT - CEDING OF LIC HOLDINGS OWNERSHIP INTEREST (Against Ted Bernstein and LIC Holdings, Inc.)

53. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 52, inclusive.

54. In the fourth quarter of 2011, TED BERNSTEIN embarked upon a plan to defraud from STANSBURY his 10% ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc. As set forth in paragraph 31 above, Defendant TED BERNSTEIN fraudulently induced STANSBURY to prepare and sign a document giving up his 10% interest in and to LIC Holdings, Inc.

55. The ceding of his shares in LIC Holdings, Inc. was procured by fraud and STANSBURY relied upon the representations made by BERNSTEIN with regard to signing the document apparently ceding his stock.

57. As a result of STANSBURY's reliance, STANSBURY has been damaged by the loss of 10% of the shares of LIC Holdings and the rights and remedies to a shareholder related thereto.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for a judgment for damages against Defendants BERNSTEIN and LIC Holdings, Inc. for the damages caused by the fraudulent conduct of BERNSTEIN as described herein, together with reasonable costs, pre-judgment interest and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT V - CIVIL CONSPIRACY (Against Simon Bernstein and Ted Bernstein)

58. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, and Counts III and IV, paragraphs 47 through 57, inclusive.

59. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, individually and as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, knowingly, willfully, intentionally, and maliciously conspired, agreed, combined and confederated with each other to make fraudulent, false and misleading statements to STANSBURY intended to induce STANSBURY to continue his employment relationship with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE during 2008 and thereafter, without ever intending to authorize payment to STANSBURY for the amounts he was due, a relationship that generated substantial revenue for LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE and, ultimately, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN. 60. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, individually and as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, knowingly, willfully, intentionally, and maliciously conspired, agreed, combined and confederated with each other to make fraudulent, false and misleading statements to STANSBURY intended to induce STANSBURY to delay pursuing his right to payment for all amounts due him until such time after SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN had converted and diverted corporate assets rendering LIC Holdings, and possibly ARBITRAGE, insolvent and uncollectible.

61. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, individually and as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, knowingly, willfully, intentionally, and maliciously conspired, agreed, combined and confederated with each other to fraudulently induce STANSBURY, through false and misleading statements, to surrender and cede, without fair value payment, his 10% interest in LIC Holdings.

62. The numerous fraudulent, false and misleading statements made by SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN were all overt acts in furtherance of the conspiracy.

63. STANSBURY was injured thereby in that, as a proximate result of the conspiratorial conduct of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, he continued in his employment with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE, without payment of the compensation due him, he delayed pursuit of his right to collect the amounts due him, and ceded his 10% interest in LIC Holdings.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, for damages in excess of $1,500,000.00 together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest; for the imposition of an equitable lien and constructive trust on the Bernstein real estate described in paragraph 45 and Exhibit "B" as more fully set forth in Counts VII and VIII of this Second Amended Complaint; for his court costs herein expended; and for such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper. STANSBURY reserves the right to move to amend to request punitive damages in accordance with Florida Law.

COUNT V - CIVIL THEFT (Against ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MARKETING, LLC)

64. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 63, inclusive.

65. This is an action for Civil Theft under Chapter 772, Florida Statutes, more specifically §772.11, Fla.Stat.

66. In February, 2012 and March, 2012, Defendant ARBITRAGE intercepted two separate checks made payable to William STANSBURY intended as payment to STANSBURY for matters arising wholly outside his business transactions with the BERNSTEINS, LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

67. Notwithstanding that the checks made payable to William STANSBURY was for sums due STANSBURY by a third party not in connection with the aforesaid business transactions, ARBITRAGE and/or someone acting on its behalf, caused the negotiation of STANSBURY's checks, wrongfully endorsing the checks and retaining the sums that should have been payable to STANSBURY.

68. As a result of the foregoing, Defendant ARBITRAGE has been guilty of criminal theft by conversion with the criminal intent to steal his money and deprive STANSBURY of his possession and use thereof.

69. Written demand for payment of all amounts due STANSBURY has been made to Defendants, more than 30 days preceding the filing of this Complaint, to no avail. A copy of the demand letter is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendant, ARBITRAGE for three times the full amount of the checks made payable to STANSBURY, together with pre-judgment interest and post-judgment interest, attorneys' fees, court costs and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT VII - CONVERSION

70. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 63, inclusive.

71. Further, during 2012, Defendants TED BERNSTEIN, SIMON BERNSTEIN, LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE, or someone acting on their behalves, received and cashed in excess of $30,000.00 worth of commission checks otherwise payable to Plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment for damages against Defendant, ABRITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN, LIC Holdings, Inc. and TED BERNSTEIN, together with pre-judgment interest and post-judgment interest, court costs and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT VIII - UNJUST ENRICHMENT (LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN)

72. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, paragraphs 1 through 65, above.

73. STANSBURY conferred a benefit on LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN by continuing his employment relationship with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE as a direct and proximate result of the fraudulent representations of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as more fully set forth in Count III herein.

74. STANSBURY's continued employment resulted in the generation of substantial revenue for LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE, which was then diverted and converted by the BERNSTEINS for their own personal use to the financial detriment of STANSBURY.

75. LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, had knowledge of the benefit of STANSBURY's continued employment with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE as they fraudulently induced STANSBURY to continue his productive employment activity while never intending to pay him the compensation he was due.

76. LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN accepted the revenues generated by STANSBURY in his capacity as employee.

77. There exists no adequate remedy at law as the conduct of the BERNSTEINS in diverting and converting the corporate assets of LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE has resulted in the insolvency of LIC Holdings and possibly ARBITRAGE.

78. The circumstances are such that it would be inequitable for LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN to retain the benefits of the STANSBURY's productive revenue-generating labor without paying fair value for it.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, in an amount in excess of $1,500,000.00 which the evidence shows Plaintiff is entitled for the fair value of the services Plaintiff provided to LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest; for his court costs herein expended and for such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT IX - EQUITABLE LIEN (As to SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT)

79. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 34, paragraph 45 and Counts III and VII, above.

80. STANSBURY has alleged essential facts in his General Allegations and Count III that show that SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN committed fraud by fraudulently inducing STANSBURY to continue in an employment relationship that proved to be highly lucrative for SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN.

81. STANSBURY has alleged essential facts in his General Allegations and Count VII that show that SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN were unjustly enriched by STANSBURY's uncompensated continued employment with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE.

82. The conduct of the BERNSTEINS in depleting the corporate assets of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE for their personal benefit by causing the corporation or corporations to make exorbitant and inappropriate distributions to themselves, family members, and BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALT, LLC and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT, at the expense of corporate creditors such as STANSBURY, rendered LIC Holdings and possibly ARBITRAGE insolvent. Therefore STANSBURY has no adequate remedy at law.

83. BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUSTA AGREEMENT were the transferees of some of the corporate assets of LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE wrongfully diverted and converted by the BERNSTEIN and thus are proper parties to this action and this Count.

84. An equitable lien on the real estate described in paragraph 45 herein and Exhibit "B" attached hereto is justified as an equitable remedy for the wrongful conduct of the BERNSTEINS.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the Court to declare and establish an equitable lien in favor of Plaintiff in an amount equal to the funds wrongfully diverted, on the property described in paragraph 45 and Exhibit "B" attached hereto, and on all other assets of the Defendants named in this Count IX, or third parties as yet unknown, which assets have been purchased wholly or in part, improved or benefitted by the diverted funds due Plaintiff, together with his costs herein expended, and such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT X - CONSTRUCTIVE TRUST (As to SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT)

85. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 79 through 84 above.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the Court to declare and establish a constructive trust in favor of Plaintiff on the property described in paragraph 45 and Exhibit "B" attached hereto in an amount equal to the funds wrongfully diverted and on all assets of Defendants or third parties as yet unknown, which assets have been purchased wholly or partly, improved or mortgaged by the diversion of said funds due Plaintiff. Plaintiff further prays for an award of court costs and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

Re: William (Bill) Stansbury

Dear Mr. Bernstein:

The undersigned represents William (Bill) Stansbury and we are writing this letter on his behalf. Mr. Stansbury received your proposed letter agreement reflecting LIC Holdings' proposal to indemnify its shareholders concerning policies sold under the Cambridge Financing Program. As a result of your proposal, Mr. Stansbury has reviewed with me in detail his dealings with you and your companies over the past 4 to 5 years.

After reviewing the facts with Mr. Stansbury, some of which will be summarized below, I was shocked that he had not consulted legal counsel until now. Be that as it may, and based upon the facts presented to us, we believe you have engaged in fraud, civil theft, breaches of fiduciary duties, and breach of contract, just to name a few. The purpose of this letter is to a). respond to your indemnity proposal and b). request that you pass this letter on to your counsel immediately in the off-chance that these very serious matters can be resolved prior to the filing of legal action. The issues can be summarized as follows:

1. The first issue concerns you and your company's failure to pay salary compensation to Mr. Stansbury. Mr. Stansbury has been making inquiries concerning this for the past 5 months, but to no avail. Mr. Stansbury's claim for unpaid salary arises from three categories:

95 Document: 12-11

a. Failure to pay salary based on net retained commissions.

i. Based upon reports prepared by your company for the period of 2007 through 2011, LIC Holdings, Inc. and/or Arbitrage International Holdings, n/k/a Arbitrage International Management, LLC, received $35,384,246.00 in net retained commissions. According to Mr. Stansbury's salary arrangement, he is entitled to 15% of those net retained commissions, which amounts to $5,307,636.90. During this time period, Mr. Stansbury's salary compensation was $2,844,910.00. The shortfall in salary owed to Mr. Stansbury is $2,462,726.90.

ii. There is salary compensation owed to Mr. Stansbury as a result of bridge loans in 2008. You received a $2,000,000.00 settlement in 2010 resulting from the resolution of a lawsuit involving Global Secured Capital. Mr. Stansbury is entitled to 15% of those funds, which is $300,000.00.

iii. In addition, you received $507,891.00 in commissions in connection with the Biviano matter. Mr. Stansbury is entitled to 15% of those funds, which is $76,183.65.

iv. In April of 2012, you received three commissions totaling approximately $200,000.00 in the Levine, Wiss and Berley matters. Mr. Stansbury has been requesting payment of this for weeks, again to no avail. Mr. Stansbury is due salary compensation for these items in the amount of $30,000.00.

Therefore, Mr. Stansbury's total claim for salary arising out of net retained commissions is approximately $2,868,910.55.

The liability for payment of this salary is not limited to LIC Holdings, Inc. or Arbitrage International Management, LLC. This liability also flows to you individually as a result of your breaches of your fiduciary duty owed to Mr. Stansbury and utter failure to abide by corporate governance standards, which conduct is more particularly described below.

b. Mr. Stansbury is also due unpaid salary based on 15% of all renewal commissions since 2008. Mr. Stansbury's salary claim for renewal commissions cannot as yet be determined with specificity due to the fact that you and your office have been opening mail directed to Mr. Stansbury and negotiating checks made payable to him by falsifying his endorsement and depositing those checks into accounts which only you control. This conduct constitutes civil theft and breach of fiduciary duty. We believe this claim amounts to hundreds of thousands of dollars.

c. Salary compensation for 2008. Mr. Stansbury has recently learned that you and Mr. Simon Bernstein received $8,982,124.00 in salary in 2008. By contrast, Mr. Stansbury received $420,018.00, paid to him in January 2008, based on policies sold in 2007. He received zero (no salary compensation) for his 2008 production. It is obvious that you and Simon treated your corporations as personal ATM machines, while completely ignoring your fiduciary > responsibilities to your employee and minority shareholder, Mr. Stansbury. It further appears that after the exorbitant salaries were paid to you, you then loaned the money back to the corporation at an interest rate significantly above market rates in order to meet the cash flow needs of the various entities, again, clearly disregarding your corporate governance responsibilities.

2. Indemnification issues.

Mr. Stansbury has been served with three lawsuits from Phoenix Insurance Company and one from Mr. Wright seeking indemnification as a result of agent misconduct which was in no way attributable to the conduct of Mr. Stansbury. Although all of these matters have been settled, because he was the qualifying agent of record for other policies, he could be the subject of future litigation for refunds of commissions paid. All of these commissions were paid over to you or your companies.

The Indemnification Agreement which you sent to Mr. Stansbury is completely insufficient. You have a duty as a matter of law to indemnify Mr. Stansbury. Your offer of future indemnity is contingent upon "all" commissions that have been received by LIC's present or past shareholders be turned over to LIC. This is nothing short of extortion. Further, your second paragraph states that LIC is "presently insolvent" and has a "negative net worth." You then conclude with the sentence that with the indemnification agreement in place, LIC "may" have sufficient funds to meet its current obligations. Therefore, a simple indemnification from LIC Holdings to Mr. Stansbury is insufficient. Any such indemnification would have to be personally guaranteed by you and Mr. Simon Bernstein.

3. Unauthorized interception of U.S. Mail.

I have been given the understanding that your office has been opening mail directed to Mr. Stansbury personally. This is a federal offense and also constitutes a breach of the fiduciary duty you owe to Mr. Stansbury as an employee and minority shareholder.

There has been no accounting to Mr. Stansbury for any of the checks which may have been sent to him personally on which his signature has been forged, the checks cashed and placed out of the reach of Mr. Stansbury. In 2012, Mr. Stansbury has been receiving checks from Phoenix Life Insurance Company and TransAmerica Life Insurance Company. Mr. Stansbury has been holding these checks. They have now been remitted to the undersigned as attorney for Mr. Stansbury. This office is holding these funds in a separate interest-bearing trust account pending the resolution of this matter.

With regard to all of the other insurance companies for whom Mr. Stansbury is listed as the qualifying agent, he has now informed those companies that all future renewal commissions paid to him personally be sent to Mr. Stansbury at his home address. These funds will then be remitted to the undersigned counsel of record for Mr. Stansbury. We will place these funds in a separate interest-bearing trust account as well. Any attempts by you to contact these insurance companies will be considered a tortious interference of his business relationship and such activity will be added as a claim in any future legal proceedings.

4. Shareholder status.

Mr. Stansbury has been a 10% shareholder of LIC Holdings, Inc., pursuant to the terms of a Shareholders Agreement. On behalf of Mr. Stansbury, demand is hereby made, pursuant to Florida Statute 607.1602, for inspection of the corporate records including the following:

I. Minutes of the Board of Directors meetings from January 1, 2008 to the present.

II. Minutes of Shareholders' meetings from January 1, 2008 to the present.

III. Records of any actions taken by the Shareholders and/or the Board of Directors without a meeting, from January 1, 2008 to the present.

IV. Accounting and financial records of LIC Holdings, Inc., Arbitrage International Management, LLC, formerly known as Arbitrage International Holdings, LLC, and all other subsidiary or affiliated companies under your control, including, without limitation, income tax returns, general ledgers, balance sheets, profit and loss statements, stock books, bank statements, loan agreements or guarantees, and any other financial books and records from January 1, 2008 to the present.

Mr. Stansbury is seeking to inspect these records in good faith and for the purpose of determining if misappropriation of corporate assets for improper purposes has previously taken or is presently taking place.

I have been made aware of a letter dated December 22, 2011 in which Mr. Stansbury purportedly "ceded" his shares of stock in LIC Holdings, Inc. back to the company. This letter was obtained under false pretenses and is not recognized by Mr. Stansbury as validly conveying his ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc.

Please have your legal counsel contact us within ten (10) days. Should we fail to receive a response within that time, Mr. Stansbury will take legal action to protect his rights and interests.

Very truly yours,

PETER M. FEAMAN, P.A.

TED S. BERNSTEIN; DONALD TESCHER and ROBERT SPALLINA, as co-personal representatives of the ESTATE OF SIMON L. BERNSTEIN and as co-trustees of the SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT dated May 20, 2008; LIC HOLDINGS, INC.; ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, f/k/a ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, LLC; BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC, Defendants.

WILLIAM E. STANSBURY, by and through undersigned counsel, sues the Defendants and states:

1. This is an action for money damages in excess of $15,000, and for equitable relief.

2. Plaintiff (hereinafter referred to as "STANSBURY") is sui juris, and a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida.

3. Defendant TED S. BERNSTEIN ("TED BERNSTEIN"), is sui juris, and a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida.

4. SIMON L. BERNSTEIN ("SIMON BERNSTEIN") died on or about September 13, 2012, after the filing of the initial Complaint in this action. At the time of his death, SIMON BERNSTEIN was sui juris, and was a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida. Defendants Donald R. Tescher and Robert L. Spallina are serving as co-personal representatives of the ESTATE OF SIMON L. BERNSTEIN (the "ESTATE")which ESTATE is presently open and pending in the Palm Beach County Circuit Court, In re: Estate of Simon L. Bernstein, Case No. 502012CP004391XXXXSB (the "Estate Proceeding"). In accordance with Section 733.705, Florida Statutes, STANSBURY hereby brings this independent action against the ESTATE with respect to his Statement of Claim that was filed and objected to in the Estate Proceeding.

General Allegations

10. STANSBURY has worked in the insurance industry for virtually all of his adult life. After 30 years, he had become well-known and highly regarded by major insurance companies, their principals and others throughout the insurance industry, at all levels thereof, as well as by professionals, including attorneys, CPA's, financial advisors, wealth managers and others who were involved in serving, or otherwise dealing with insurers, insurance brokers and life insurance products.

11. SIMON BERNSTEIN dealt at sophisticated levels of the insurance industry and specialized in developing and marketing insurance concepts suitable for persons of high net worth to incorporate into their wealth management and estate planning.

12. TED BERNSTEIN, the son of SIMON BERNSTEIN, was also actively involved in selling life insurance products in conjunction with attorneys, CPAs and other professionals, to be incorporated into high net worth individuals' financial and estate planning.

13. TED BERNSTEIN, acting on his behalf and on behalf of, and in concert with, SIMON BERNSTEIN, approached STANSBURY in 2003, urging STANSBURY to spearhead the marketing of a unique insurance concept, newly developed by a prominent law firm, which was designed for use in the financial and estate planning of high net worth individuals.

14. TED BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that he knew of STANSBURY's expertise and reputation in the insurance and related industries and that STANSBURY was skilled at and accustomed to speaking and marketing insurance products to groups of professionals. He realized that STANSBURY, because of his knowledge, reputation and abilities, would be well suited to market this concept nationwide through prominent and experienced professionals. 15. In 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN (collectively, "BERNSTEIN" or the "BERNSTEINS") formed, as sole shareholders, Defendants LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE for the purpose of marketing and selling certain life insurance products to high net worth individuals for their wealth management and estate planning needs.

C

16. STANSBURY agreed to become an employee of LIC Holdings, Inc. and ARBITRAGE and agreed to a salary of 15% of net retained commissions received on all products sold, including renewals. STANSBURY at this time was responsible for, among other duties, calculating, on a monthly basis, the commissions due him in connection with new business generated in the current year and renewals on business generated in previous years.

17. STANSBURY worked with diligence and skill, traveling throughout the United States, generating ever-increasing sales and generating very large commissions. By 2006, nationwide sales were resulting in substantial commissions on new policies and renewal commissions.

18. Also in 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN, acting on his behalf and on behalf of, and in concert with, TED BERNSTEIN, told STANSBURY that STANSBURY was being rewarded for his efforts and the explosive growth of the business, such that he would receive a 10% ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, collectively, were majority shareholders while STANSBURY was a minority shareholder in LIC Holdings, Inc.

19. STANSBURY has sued both LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE because the BERNSTEINS represented that his employment relationship was with LIC Holdings, the company in which he owned a 10% interest, but STANSBURY'S W-2 statements were issued by ARBITRAGE as his employer.

20. In February of 2008, SIMON BERNSTEIN, acting on his behalf and on behalf of, and in concert with TED BERNSTEIN, approached STANSBURY and told him his time would be better spent building the business rather than performing monthly calculations of income. The plan proposed was that, rather than STANSBURY performing computations on a monthly basis as to how much should be paid to him based upon 15% of the net retained commissions derived from both new policies sold and renewals from previous years, the BERNSTEINS and STANSBURY all would forego monthly payouts and defer compensation until the end of 2008, when year-end computations could be made. It was represented that in December, year-end computations would be made and salaries would be paid in December 2008 or January of 2009. It was specifically represented to STANSBURY that:

a) neither SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN nor STANSBURY would take any compensation during fiscal year 2008 but rather they all would wait until the year-end accounting was performed in December of 2008 or January, 2009;

b) SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN, and STANSBURY would each be paid a minimum salary of $1,000,000 at year end, and STANSBURY'S salary was to be applied against his earned commissions of 15%. Any compensation due STANSBURY over and above the $1,000,000 would be paid as a distribution on his stock ownership interest in LIC Holdings.

21. In January of 2008, STANSBURY was paid $420,018 for commissions earned on some 2007 sales. However, STANSBURY was not, and has never been, paid the commissions due him on sales in 2008 and thereafter, and he was not and has never been paid the renewal commissions due him on sales made in previous years that were paid to LIC Holdings or ARBITRAGE in 2008 and thereafter, other than a nominal payment of $30,000 made in 2010.

22. When STANSBURY was not paid as agreed in late 2008/2009 and thereafter, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, on behalf of and in concert with each other, stated to STANSBURY that salary and ownership distributions due and owing to SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN and STANSBURY would be deferred to a future time. This deferral of payment was represented to be important because, as a result of the virtual collapse of the capital lending markets in 2008, it was necessary to retain the funds in the corporate bank accounts to demonstrate to potential lenders the financial stability of the companies.

23. The false statements set forth in paragraphs 18 through 21, above, were made by SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, in concert with each other, with knowledge of their falsity and with the intention of never to fulfilling such promises.

24. Despite the representations to STANSBURY set forth above to the contrary, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, authorized LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE to pay themselves $3,756,229.00 and $5,225,825.00, respectively, in 2008. Contrary to the representations made as set forth in paragraph 20, STANSBURY received no compensation for first year commissions and renewal commissions due him in 2008.

25. The net retained commissions by LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, not including renewals, for 2008 were approximately $13,442,549.00. As such, STANSBURY was entitled to, at the very minimum, 15% of $13,442,549.00, or $2,016,382.35.

26. Beginning late in 2007 or early in 2008, and continuing through at least 2012, LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE became the alter ego of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as officers and majority shareholders, in that they disregarded corporate structure and wrongfully diverted, converted and depleted corporate assets of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE for their own personal benefit and the benefit of Bernstein family trusts and other entities as more specifically set forth below. Those trusts have since invested some of these wrongfully diverted and converted corporate assets in real estate, also as more particularly set forth below. The wrongful action of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN in diverting and converting corporate assets rendered LIC Holdings, and possibly ARBITRAGE, insolvent. 27. Throughout 2009, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN continued to make false statements to STANSBURY to hide the fact that LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE was their alter ego, in that they converted corporate property and corporate assets of LIC and/or ARBITRAGE for their own personal benefit in 2008, 2009 and thereafter, all to the exclusion and financial detriment of STANSBURY, all the while fraudulently representing to STANSBURY that no money was being paid as salary or distributions to SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN or STANSBURY because it was necessary to hold the funds in the corporate bank accounts to show to potential lenders the financial stability of the company.

28. STANSBURY relied upon these continuing misrepresentations of Defendants to his detriment. Because STANSBURY was told that potential funding sources for the business needed to see that capital of the company was available, he took no action when he did not receive any compensation for 2009 and was paid only $30,000 in 2010.

29. In order to continue their scheme to defraud, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN failed and refused to account for renewal commissions and failed to supply any financial information to STANSBURY concerning LIC Holdings or ARBITRAGE.

30. In furtherance of their scheme to deprive STANSBURY of salary he had earned and shareholder distributions to which he was entitled, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN intercepted mail addressed to STANSBURY, removing commission checks representing commissions due to STANSBURY, deposited the funds into their own accounts and otherwise converted the funds. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN also opened STANSBURY's mail containing checks payable to him which were unrelated to them and the businesses.

31. In December, 2011 STANSBURY had been battling a painful and debilitating disease that could only be managed through the administration of potentially harmful prescription medications. On December 22, 2011, the Defendants BERNSTEIN, with knowledge of STANSBURY's health issues and his debilitated condition, decided to take advantage of and deceive STANSBURY further. STANSBURY had for years been given K-1 statements reflecting his 10% ownership of LIC Holdings. At that time, TED BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that the company accountant had discovered a potential significant taxable event which could cause STANSBURY, as one of the owners of LIC Holdings to pay taxes on phantom income. TED BERNSTEIN promised that if STANSBURY would sign a paper ceding his 10% interest in LIC Holdings, he would not have to pay the tax if in fact the tax was due. TED BERNSTEIN promised he would hold the paper, promising it would not become operative until STANSBURY and the Defendants BERNSTEIN discussed the situation further in the first quarter of 2012.

32. Because of the misrepresentations, willful concealments of material facts, duplicity and deceit practiced by Defendants upon STANSBURY, STANSBURY reasonably believed that Defendants had complied, or intended to comply with their obligations to STANSBURY under the contract between them. STANSBURY, therefore, was prevented from knowing for a period of years that the causes of action asserted herein existed.

33. By the second quarter of 2012, STANSBURY developed the belief that the BERNSTEINS' representations over the years were wholly false and he sought legal counsel.

34. STANSBURY has retained the law firm of Peter M. Feaman, P.A. and has agreed to pay it a reasonable fee for its services rendered herein.

COUNT I - ACCOUNTING (Against LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, for Accounting)

35. STANSBURY hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

36. The relationship between STANSBURY and the Defendants, particularly as affected by Defendants' acts described in preceding paragraphs 19 through 27 created a situation where Defendants had sole access to receipts generated by STANSBURY's efforts, and to books and records reflecting said receipts and the other information from which can be calculated all moneys due to STANSBURY under his arrangement with Defendants.

37. The period of time during which STANSBURY has been deprived of monies due him spans approximately four and a half years. The various sources of revenue to Defendants of monies from which the amounts due STANSBURY may be calculated, the manner in which STANSBURY was to be paid, and the amount due STANSBURY all involve extensive and complicated accounts, and STANSBURY's remedy at law cannot be as full, adequate and expeditious as it is in equity.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff STANSBURY prays for an adjudication of Plaintiff's right to a full and complete accounting from Defendants, LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, and for such orders of Court as will require such Defendants to provide STANSBURY with all records and copies of documents from January 1, 2006 to the present, in order to reveal his right to, and the amount of all sums: (a) received as commissions to which STANSBURY was entitled to a share; (b) due to STANSBURY, whether paid or not; (c) paid to STANSBURY, whether for commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason; (d) paid to each of the BERNSTEIN Defendants out of monies received as commissions; (e) deposits of any and all moneys received as commissions by any Defendants to any accounts, including the name of the entity whose account was involved, the number(s) of each such account; the address of the branch or other facility through which any Defendant dealt with such entity; (f) calculations as to moneys paid, to be paid, or not to be paid to STANSBURY, together with an award of court costs and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT II - BREACH OF ORAL CONTRACT (Against LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN)

38. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 37, inclusive.

39. The arrangement between STANSBURY and Defendants, as described in paragraphs 13 through 28 above, constituted a contract between them.

40. An express term of that contract involved the commitment of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to calculate and pay to STANSBURY all sums due to him under the contract, whether as commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason.

41. The Defendants initially performed the duties required of them under said contract.

42. However, Defendants breached their contract with STANSBURY by withholding from STANSBURY monies due him under the contract for renewal commissions earned in 2007 and commissions and renewal commissions earned in 2008 and thereafter.

43. The withholding of such monies constitutes a material breach of the contract between STANSBURY and LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

44. STANSBURY has sued both LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE because the BERNSTEINS represented that his employment relationship was with LIC Holdings, the company in which he owned a 10% interest, but STANSBURY'S W-2 statements were issued by ARBITRAGE as his employer.

45. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN are personally liable, jointly and severally, for the material breach of the oral employment contract with STANSBURY as LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE were the alter ego of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN in that the BERNSTEINS depleted corporate assets for their personal benefit by causing the corporation or corporations to make exorbitant and inappropriate distributions to themselves, family members, and BERNSTEIN family trusts and other entities, at the expense of corporate creditors such as STANSBURY, to wit:

a) SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN caused LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE to pay to them at least $3,756,229.00 and $5,225,825.00, respectively, in fiscal 2008 during which time STANSBURY, other than the amount referenced in paragraph 21, was paid nothing;

b) According to Palm Beach County public records, in December of 2007 TED

c) According to Palm Beach County public records, on December 28, 2008, TED BERNSTEIN paid off the mortgage in the amount of $486,400.00 on a property he owned at 15807 Menton Bay Court, Saturnia Isles, Delray Beach, Florida 33446;

d) According to Palm Beach County public records, SIMON BERNSTEIN paid off the mortgage on property he and his wife owned, and subsequently transferred by quitclaim deed on May 20, 2008 to the trustee of SHIRLEY'S TRUST, at 7020 Lions Head Lane, Boca Raton, Florida, 33496. The amount of the mortgage pay-off is unknown, but in 2013 the property was listed for sale at $2,399,000;

e) According to Palm Beach County public records, on June 18, 2008, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC acquired a property located at 2753 N.W. 34 Street, Boca Madera Unit 2, Boca Raton, Florida 33432 (the "Boca Madera Property). On July 8, 2008, SIMON BERNSTEIN loaned $365,000 to BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC. The specific purpose of the loan is unknown, but SIMON BERNSTEIN received a mortgage on the Boca Madera Property to secure the loan;

f) According to Palm Beach County public records, on May 20, 2008 SIMON BERNSTEIN and his wife transferred by quitclaim deed to the trustee of SHIRLEY'S TRUST a 4,220 square foot oceanfront condominium unit in a complex known as "The Aragon" in Boca Raton, located at 2494 South Ocean Boulevard, Boca Raton, Florida. The mortgage on that property was paid off on September 27, 2010.

g) The legal descriptions for each of the above referenced properties are attached hereto as Exhibit "B."

46. There is due to STANSBURY from such Defendants all amounts due under said contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN declaring that Defendants, LIC Holdings, Inc. and ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, are or were the alter ego of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN such that the corporate veil of LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE should be pierced; for judgment against Defendants, LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, in excess of $1,500,000.00 for the amounts due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest; for his court costs herein expended and for such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT III - FRAUD IN THE INDUCEMENT- EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (Against SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN)

47. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 46, inclusive.

48. At all material times hereto, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN were officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

49. The statements set forth in paragraphs 18 through 24, above, made by SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, on behalf of and in concert with each other, and as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, were false statements of material fact that SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN knew to be false at the time they were made, as SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN never intended to authorize LIC Holdings or ARBITRAGE to pay to STANSBURY the amounts due him as evidenced by the fact that the accountant for LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE prepared financial worksheets for 2008 showing that the BERNSTEINS would receive compensation, but STANSBURY would not, for fiscal 2008, in direct contravention to their statements and promises to STANSBURY.

50. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN intended for STANSBURY to rely on such statements that he would be ultimately be paid for his productivity in order to induce him into continuing his productive and revenue-generating sales activity as an employee of LIC Holding and/or ARBITRAGE and fraudulently created for STANSBURY the false expectation that STANSBURY would be paid as agreed.

51. STANSBURY in fact relied to his detriment on these false statements and was induced thereby to remain in his employment relationship with LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE as he continued to sell, with the expectation of payment, products and generate revenue for LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE until 2012, and was further induced not to pursue from LIC Holdings and/ARBITRAGE his right to payment of all amounts due him until after SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN had diverted and converted corporate assets for their personal benefit, rendering LIC Holdings, and possibly ARBITRAGE, insolvent.

52. STANSBURY was injured thereby as he was not and has not been compensated for his revenue-generating sales and other performance, and did not seek alternative employment, as a proximate result of his detrimental reliance on these false statements.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, for damages in excess of $1,500,000.00 together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest; for the imposition of an equitable lien and constructive trust on the Bernstein real estate described in paragraph 45 and Exhibit "B" as more fully set forth in Counts VII and VIII of this Second Amended Complaint; for his court costs herein expended; and for such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper. STANSBURY reserves the right to move to amend to request punitive damages in accordance with Florida Law.

COUNT IV - FRAUD IN THE INDUCEMENT - CEDING OF LIC HOLDINGS OWNERSHIP INTEREST (Against Ted Bernstein and LIC Holdings, Inc.)

53. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 52, inclusive.

54. In the fourth quarter of 2011, TED BERNSTEIN embarked upon a plan to defraud from STANSBURY his 10% ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc. As set forth in paragraph 31 above, Defendant TED BERNSTEIN fraudulently induced STANSBURY to prepare and sign a document giving up his 10% interest in and to LIC Holdings, Inc.

55. The ceding of his shares in LIC Holdings, Inc. was procured by fraud and STANSBURY relied upon the representations made by BERNSTEIN with regard to signing the document apparently ceding his stock.

56. It was reasonable for STANSBURY to rely on the representations made by BERNSTEIN because at that time STANSBURY was unaware of the breaches of fiduciary duty and breaches of the oral contract that had taken place.

57. As a result of STANSBURY's reliance, STANSBURY has been damaged by the loss of 10% of the shares of LIC Holdings and the rights and remedies to a shareholder related thereto.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for a judgment for damages against Defendants BERNSTEIN and LIC Holdings, Inc. for the damages caused by the fraudulent conduct of BERNSTEIN as described herein, together with reasonable costs, pre-judgment interest and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT V - CIVIL CONSPIRACY (Against Simon Bernstein and Ted Bernstein)

58. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, and Counts III and IV, paragraphs 47 through 57, inclusive.

59. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, individually and as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, knowingly, willfully, intentionally, and maliciously conspired, agreed, combined and confederated with each other to make fraudulent, false and misleading statements to STANSBURY intended to induce STANSBURY to continue his employment relationship with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE during 2008 and thereafter, without ever intending to authorize payment to STANSBURY for the amounts he was due, a relationship that generated substantial revenue for LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE and, ultimately, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN. 60. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, individually and as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, knowingly, willfully, intentionally, and maliciously conspired, agreed, combined and confederated with each other to make fraudulent, false and misleading statements to STANSBURY intended to induce STANSBURY to delay pursuing his right to payment for all amounts due him until such time after SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN had converted and diverted corporate assets rendering LIC Holdings, and possibly ARBITRAGE, insolvent and uncollectible.

61. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, individually and as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, knowingly, willfully, intentionally, and maliciously conspired, agreed, combined and confederated with each other to fraudulently induce STANSBURY, through false and misleading statements, to surrender and cede, without fair value payment, his 10% interest in LIC Holdings.

62. The numerous fraudulent, false and misleading statements made by SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN were all overt acts in furtherance of the conspiracy.

63. STANSBURY was injured thereby in that, as a proximate result of the conspiratorial conduct of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, he continued in his employment with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE, without payment of the compensation due him, he delayed pursuit of his right to collect the amounts due him, and ceded his 10% interest in LIC Holdings.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, for damages in excess of $1,500,000.00 together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest; for the imposition of an equitable lien and constructive trust on the Bernstein real estate described in paragraph 45 and Exhibit "B" as more fully set forth in Counts VII and VIII of this Second Amended Complaint; for his court costs herein expended; and for such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper. STANSBURY reserves the right to move to amend to request punitive damages in accordance with Florida Law.

COUNT V - CIVIL THEFT (Against ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MARKETING, LLC)

64. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 63, inclusive.

65. This is an action for Civil Theft under Chapter 772, Florida Statutes, more specifically §772.11, Fla.Stat.

66. In February, 2012 and March, 2012, Defendant ARBITRAGE intercepted two separate checks made payable to William STANSBURY intended as payment to STANSBURY for matters arising wholly outside his business transactions with the BERNSTEINS, LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

67. Notwithstanding that the checks made payable to William STANSBURY was for sums due STANSBURY by a third party not in connection with the aforesaid business transactions, ARBITRAGE and/or someone acting on its behalf, caused the negotiation of STANSBURY's checks, wrongfully endorsing the checks and retaining the sums that should have been payable to STANSBURY.

68. As a result of the foregoing, Defendant ARBITRAGE has been guilty of criminal theft by conversion with the criminal intent to steal his money and deprive STANSBURY of his possession and use thereof.

69. Written demand for payment of all amounts due STANSBURY has been made to Defendants, more than 30 days preceding the filing of this Complaint, to no avail. A copy of the demand letter is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendant, ARBITRAGE for three times the full amount of the checks made payable to STANSBURY, together with pre-judgment interest and post-judgment interest, attorneys' fees, court costs and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT VII - CONVERSION

70. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 63, inclusive.

71. Further, during 2012, Defendants TED BERNSTEIN, SIMON BERNSTEIN, LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE, or someone acting on their behalves, received and cashed in excess of $30,000.00 worth of commission checks otherwise payable to Plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment for damages against Defendant, ABRITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN, LIC Holdings, Inc. and TED BERNSTEIN, together with pre-judgment interest and post-judgment interest, court costs and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT VIII - UNJUST ENRICHMENT (LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN)

72. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, paragraphs 1 through 65, above.

73. STANSBURY conferred a benefit on LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN by continuing his employment relationship with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE as a direct and proximate result of the fraudulent representations of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as more fully set forth in Count III herein.

74. STANSBURY's continued employment resulted in the generation of substantial revenue for LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE, which was then diverted and converted by the BERNSTEINS for their own personal use to the financial detriment of STANSBURY.

75. LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, had knowledge of the benefit of STANSBURY's continued employment with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE as they fraudulently induced STANSBURY to continue his productive employment activity while never intending to pay him the compensation he was due.

76. LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN accepted the revenues generated by STANSBURY in his capacity as employee.

77. There exists no adequate remedy at law as the conduct of the BERNSTEINS in diverting and converting the corporate assets of LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE has resulted in the insolvency of LIC Holdings and possibly ARBITRAGE.

78. The circumstances are such that it would be inequitable for LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN to retain the benefits of the STANSBURY's productive revenue-generating labor without paying fair value for it.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, in an amount in excess of $1,500,000.00 which the evidence shows Plaintiff is entitled for the fair value of the services Plaintiff provided to LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest; for his court costs herein expended and for such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT IX - EQUITABLE LIEN (As to SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT)

79. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 34, paragraph 45 and Counts III and VII, above.

80. STANSBURY has alleged essential facts in his General Allegations and Count III that show that SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN committed fraud by fraudulently inducing STANSBURY to continue in an employment relationship that proved to be highly lucrative for SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN.

81. STANSBURY has alleged essential facts in his General Allegations and Count VII that show that SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN were unjustly enriched by STANSBURY's uncompensated continued employment with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE.

82. The conduct of the BERNSTEINS in depleting the corporate assets of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE for their personal benefit by causing the corporation or corporations to make exorbitant and inappropriate distributions to themselves, family members, and BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALT, LLC and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT, at the expense of corporate creditors such as STANSBURY, rendered LIC Holdings and possibly ARBITRAGE insolvent. Therefore STANSBURY has no adequate remedy at law.

83. BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUSTA AGREEMENT were the transferees of some of the corporate assets of LIC Holdings and/or

ARBITRAGE wrongfully diverted and converted by the BERNSTEIN and thus are proper parties to this action and this Count.

84. An equitable lien on the real estate described in paragraph 45 herein and Exhibit "B" attached hereto is justified as an equitable remedy for the wrongful conduct of the BERNSTEINS.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the Court to declare and establish an equitable lien in favor of Plaintiff in an amount equal to the funds wrongfully diverted, on the property described in paragraph 45 and Exhibit "B" attached hereto, and on all other assets of the Defendants named in this Count IX, or third parties as yet unknown, which assets have been purchased wholly or in part, improved or benefitted by the diverted funds due Plaintiff, together with his costs herein expended, and such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT X - CONSTRUCTIVE TRUST (As to SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT)

85. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 79 through 84 above.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the Court to declare and establish a constructive trust in favor of Plaintiff on the property described in paragraph 45 and Exhibit "B" attached hereto in an amount equal to the funds wrongfully diverted and on all assets of Defendants or third parties as yet unknown, which assets have been purchased wholly or partly, improved or mortgaged by the diversion of said funds due Plaintiff. Plaintiff further prays for an award of court costs and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

Re: William (Bill) Stansbury

Dear Mr. Bernstein:

The undersigned represents William (Bill) Stansbury and we are writing this letter on his behalf. Mr. Stansbury received your proposed letter agreement reflecting LIC Holdings' proposal to indemnify its shareholders concerning policies sold under the Cambridge Financing Program. As a result of your proposal, Mr. Stansbury has reviewed with me in detail his dealings with you and your companies over the past 4 to 5 years.

After reviewing the facts with Mr. Stansbury, some of which will be summarized below, I was shocked that he had not consulted legal counsel until now. Be that as it may, and based upon the facts presented to us, we believe you have engaged in fraud, civil theft, breaches of fiduciary duties, and breach of contract, just to name a few. The purpose of this letter is to a). respond to your indemnity proposal and b). request that you pass this letter on to your counsel immediately in the off-chance that these very serious matters can be resolved prior to the filing of legal action. The issues can be summarized as follows:

1. The first issue concerns you and your company's failure to pay salary compensation to Mr. Stansbury. Mr. Stansbury has been making inquiries concerning this for the past 5 months, but to no avail. Mr. Stansbury's claim for unpaid salary arises from three categories:

ءَ ا

ļ

a. Failure to pay salary based on net retained commissions.

Document: 12-11

i. Based upon reports prepared by your company for the period of 2007 through 2011, LIC Holdings, Inc. and/or Arbitrage International Holdings, n/k/a Arbitrage International Management, LLC, received $35,384,246.00 in net retained commissions. According to Mr. Stansbury's salary arrangement, he is entitled to 15% of those net retained commissions, which amounts to $5,307,636.90. During this time period, Mr. Stansbury's salary compensation was $2,844,910.00. The shortfall in salary owed to Mr. Stansbury is $2,462,726.90.

ii. There is salary compensation owed to Mr. Stansbury as a result of bridge loans in 2008. You received a $2,000,000.00 settlement in 2010 resulting from the resolution of a lawsuit involving Global Secured Capital. Mr. Stansbury is entitled to 15% of those funds, which is $300,000.00.

iii. In addition, you received $507,891.00 in commissions in connection with the Biviano matter. Mr. Stansbury is entitled to 15% of those funds, which is $76,183.65.

iv. In April of 2012, you received three commissions totaling approximately $200,000.00 in the Levine, Wiss and Berley matters. Mr. Stansbury has been requesting payment of this for weeks, again to no avail. Mr. Stansbury is due salary compensation for these items in the amount of $30,000.00.

Therefore, Mr. Stansbury's total claim for salary arising out of net retained commissions is approximately $2,868,910.55.

The liability for payment of this salary is not limited to LIC Holdings, Inc. or Arbitrage International Management, LLC. This liability also flows to you individually as a result of your breaches of your fiduciary duty owed to Mr. Stansbury and utter failure to abide by corporate governance standards, which conduct is more particularly described below.

b. Mr. Stansbury is also due unpaid salary based on 15% of all renewal commissions since 2008. Mr. Stansbury's salary claim for renewal commissions cannot as yet be determined with specificity due to the fact that you and your office have been opening mail directed to Mr. Stansbury and negotiating checks made payable to him by falsifying his endorsement and depositing those checks into accounts which only you control. This conduct constitutes civil theft and breach of fiduciary duty. We believe this claim amounts to hundreds of thousands of dollars.

c. Salary compensation for 2008. Mr. Stansbury has recently learned that you and Mr. Simon Bernstein received $8,982,124.00 in salary in 2008. By contrast, Mr. Stansbury received $420,018.00, paid to him in January 2008, based on policies sold in 2007. He received zero (no salary compensation) for his 2008 production. It is obvious that you and Simon treated your corporations as personal ATM machines, while completely ignoring your fiduciary > responsibilities to your employee and minority shareholder, Mr. Stansbury. It further appears that after the exorbitant salaries were paid to you, you then loaned the money back to the corporation at an interest rate significantly above market rates in order to meet the cash flow needs of the various entities, again, clearly disregarding your corporate governance responsibilities.

2. Indemnification issues.

Mr. Stansbury has been served with three lawsuits from Phoenix Insurance Company and one from Mr. Wright seeking indemnification as a result of agent misconduct which was in no way attributable to the conduct of Mr. Stansbury. Although all of these matters have been settled, because he was the qualifying agent of record for other policies, he could be the subject of future litigation for refunds of commissions paid. All of these commissions were paid over to you or your companies.

The Indemnification Agreement which you sent to Mr. Stansbury is completely insufficient. You have a duty as a matter of law to indemnify Mr. Stansbury. Your offer of future indemnity is contingent upon "all" commissions that have been received by LIC's present or past shareholders be turned over to LIC. This is nothing short of extortion. Further, your second paragraph states that LIC is "presently insolvent" and has a "negative net worth." You then conclude with the sentence that with the indemnification agreement in place, LIC "may" have sufficient funds to meet its current obligations. Therefore, a simple indemnification from LIC Holdings to Mr. Stansbury is insufficient. Any such indemnification would have to be personally guaranteed by you and Mr. Simon Bernstein.

3. Unauthorized interception of U.S. Mail.

I have been given the understanding that your office has been opening mail directed to Mr. Stansbury personally. This is a federal offense and also constitutes a breach of the fiduciary duty you owe to Mr. Stansbury as an employee and minority shareholder.

There has been no accounting to Mr. Stansbury for any of the checks which may have been sent to him personally on which his signature has been forged, the checks cashed and placed out of the reach of Mr. Stansbury. In 2012, Mr. Stansbury has been receiving checks from Phoenix Life Insurance Company and TransAmerica Life Insurance Company. Mr. Stansbury has been holding these checks. They have now been remitted to the undersigned as attorney for Mr. Stansbury. This office is holding these funds in a separate interest-bearing trust account pending the resolution of this matter.

With regard to all of the other insurance companies for whom Mr. Stansbury is listed as the qualifying agent, he has now informed those companies that all future renewal commissions paid to him personally be sent to Mr. Stansbury at his home address. These funds will then be remitted to the undersigned counsel of record for Mr. Stansbury. We will place these funds in a separate interest-bearing trust account as well. Any attempts by you to contact these insurance companies will be considered a tortious interference of his business relationship and such activity will be added as a claim in any future legal proceedings.

4. Shareholder status.

Mr. Stansbury has been a 10% shareholder of LIC Holdings, Inc., pursuant to the terms of a Shareholders Agreement. On behalf of Mr. Stansbury, demand is hereby made, pursuant to Florida Statute 607.1602, for inspection of the corporate records including the following:

I. Minutes of the Board of Directors meetings from January 1, 2008 to the present.

II. Minutes of Shareholders' meetings from January 1, 2008 to the present.

III. Records of any actions taken by the Shareholders and/or the Board of Directors without a meeting, from January 1, 2008 to the present.

IV. Accounting and financial records of LIC Holdings, Inc., Arbitrage International Management, LLC, formerly known as Arbitrage International Holdings, LLC, and all other subsidiary or affiliated companies under your control, including, without limitation, income tax returns, general ledgers, balance sheets, profit and loss statements, stock books, bank statements, loan agreements or guarantees, and any other financial books and records from January 1, 2008 to the present.

Mr. Stansbury is seeking to inspect these records in good faith and for the purpose of determining if misappropriation of corporate assets for improper purposes has previously taken or is presently taking place.

I have been made aware of a letter dated December 22, 2011 in which Mr. Stansbury purportedly "ceded" his shares of stock in LIC Holdings, Inc. back to the company. This letter was obtained under false pretenses and is not recognized by Mr. Stansbury as validly conveying his ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc.

Please have your legal counsel contact us within ten (10) days. Should we fail to receive a response within that time, Mr. Stansbury will take legal action to protect his rights and interests.

Very truly yours,

PETER M. FEAMAN, P.A.

ORDER CLARIFYING ORDER ON DEFENDANT, TED S. BERNSTEIN'S, MOTION TO DISMIS COUNTS III, VII AND VIII

THIS MATTER came before the Court upon the Motion to Clarify Order on Defendant, TED S. BERNSTEIN'S, Motion to Dismiss Counts III, VII and VIII, filed by Plaintiff. The Court has reviewed the motion and the Court's prior Order of June 12, 2013. After review, it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED as follows:

1. Plaintiff's Motion to Clarify Order is granted.

2. The June 12, 2013, Order on Defendant, Ted S. Bernstein's, Motion to Dismiss Counts III, VII and VIII is clarified to the following extent:

A. The Order to Dismiss is without prejudice.

B. The Court found that as to the claim set forth in Count III of the Complaint, "Defendant owes no fiduciary duty directly to Plaintiff under Florida law, and therefore any direct claim is dismissed." However, in an effort to state a valid cause of action, Plaintiff may amend its claim to include alternative or additional allegations which, if appropriate, may again be challenged via Motion to Dismiss.

C. The Court also found in its Order that a derivative claim by a shareholder cannot be asserted on the grounds stated and that Plaintiff has not met the statutory requirements for asserting a derivative claim. However, Plaintiff may amend its claim to include alternative or additional allegations which, if appropriate, may again be challenged via Motion to Dismiss.

The Court's Order makes it clear that its ruling applies to Counts VII D. and VIII as well.

Plaintiff shall have thirty (30) days from the date of this Order within which 3. to amend.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers, at West Palm Beach, Palm Beach County, August Florida, on this day of July, 2013.

Rob,

I'm traveling, and can try to call tomorrow? The receiver had a claim process that required investors to submit claims. - think Si had submitted his claims in accordance with requirements.

This is likely to be pennies on the dollar, and judge recently approved very small payment. Happy to discuss further.

The SEC and SIPA issue is in Appelate court and a ruling in favor of SEC could provide SIPC coverage, and most favorable recovery for investors, but still in courts.

General Allegations

10. STANSBURY has worked in the insurance industry for virtually all of his adult life. After 30 years, he had become well-known and highly regarded by major insurance companies, their principals and others throughout the insurance industry, at all levels thereof, as well as by professionals, including attorneys, CPA's, financial advisors, wealth managers and others who were involved in serving, or otherwise dealing with insurers, insurance brokers and life insurance products.

11. SIMON BERNSTEIN dealt at sophisticated levels of the insurance industry and specialized in developing and marketing insurance concepts suitable for persons of high net worth to incorporate into their wealth management and estate planning.

12. TED BERNSTEIN, the son of SIMON BERNSTEIN, was also actively involved in selling life insurance products in conjunction with attorneys, CPAs and other professionals, to be incorporated into high net worth individuals' financial and estate planning.

13. TED BERNSTEIN, acting on his behalf and on behalf of, and in concert with, SIMON BERNSTEIN, approached STANSBURY in 2003, urging STANSBURY to spearhead the marketing of a unique insurance concept, newly developed by a prominent law firm, which was designed for use in the financial and estate planning of high net worth individuals.

14. TED BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that he knew of STANSBURY's expertise and reputation in the insurance and related industries and that STANSBURY was skilled at and accustomed to speaking and marketing insurance products to groups of professionals. He realized that STANSBURY, because of his knowledge, reputation and abilities, would be well suited to market this concept nationwide through prominent and experienced professionals.

15. In 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN (collectively, "BERNSTEIN" or the "BERNSTEINS") formed, as sole shareholders, Defendants LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE for the purpose of marketing and selling certain life insurance products to high net worth individuals for their wealth management and estate planning needs.

16. STANSBURY agreed to become an employee of LIC Holdings, Inc. and ARBITRAGE and agreed to a salary of 15% of net retained commissions received on all products sold, including renewals. STANSBURY at this time was responsible for, among other duties, calculating, on a monthly basis, the commissions due him in connection with new business generated in the current year and renewals on business generated in previous years.

17. STANSBURY worked with diligence and skill, traveling throughout the United States, generating ever-increasing sales and generating very large commissions. By 2006, nationwide sales were resulting in substantial commissions on new policies and renewal commissions.

18. Also in 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN, acting on his behalf and on behalf of, and in concert with, TED BERNSTEIN, told STANSBURY that STANSBURY was being rewarded for his efforts and the explosive growth of the business, such that he would receive a 10% ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, collectively, were majority shareholders while STANSBURY was a minority shareholder in LIC Holdings, Inc.

19. STANSBURY has sued both LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE because the BERNSTEINS represented that his employment relationship was with LIC Holdings, the company in which he owned a 10% interest, but STANSBURY'S W-2 statements were issued by ARBITRAGE as his employer.

20. In February of 2008, SIMON BERNSTEIN, acting on his behalf and on behalf of, and in concert with TED BERNSTEIN, approached STANSBURY and told him his time would be better spent building the business rather than performing monthly calculations of income. The plan proposed was that, rather than STANSBURY performing computations on a monthly basis as to how much should be paid to him based upon 15% of the net retained commissions derived from both new policies sold and renewals from previous years, the BERNSTEINS and STANSBURY all would forego monthly payouts and defer compensation until the end of 2008, when year-end computations could be made. It was represented that in December, year-end computations would be made and salaries would be paid in December 2008 or January of 2009. It was specifically represented to STANSBURY that:

a) neither SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN nor STANSBURY would take any compensation during fiscal year 2008 but rather they all would wait until the year-end accounting was performed in December of 2008 or January, 2009;

b) SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN, and STANSBURY would each be paid a minimum salary of $1,000,000 at year end, and STANSBURY'S salary was to be applied against his earned commissions of 15%. Any compensation due STANSBURY over and above the $1,000,000 would be paid as a distribution on his stock ownership interest in LIC Holdings.

21. In January of 2008, STANSBURY was paid $420,018 for commissions earned on some 2007 sales. However, STANSBURY was not, and has never been, paid the commissions due him on sales in 2008 and thereafter, and he was not and has never been paid the renewal commissions due him on sales made in previous years that were paid to LIC Holdings or ARBITRAGE in 2008 and thereafter, other than a nominal payment of $30,000 made in 2010.

22. When STANSBURY was not paid as agreed in late 2008/2009 and thereafter, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, on behalf of and in concert with each other, stated to STANSBURY that salary and ownership distributions due and owing to SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN and STANSBURY would be deferred to a future time. This deferral of payment was represented to be important because, as a result of the virtual collapse of the capital lending markets in 2008, it was necessary to retain the funds in the corporate bank accounts to demonstrate to potential lenders the financial stability of the companies.

23. The false statements set forth in paragraphs 18 through 21, above, were made by SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, in concert with each other, with knowledge of their falsity and with the intention of never to fulfilling such promises.

24. Despite the representations to STANSBURY set forth above to the contrary, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, authorized LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE to pay themselves $3,756,229.00 and $5,225,825.00, respectively, in 2008. Contrary to the representations made as set forth in paragraph 20, STANSBURY received no compensation for first year commissions and renewal commissions due him in 2008.

25. The net retained commissions by LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, not including renewals, for 2008 were approximately $13,442,549.00. As such, STANSBURY was entitled to, at the very minimum, 15% of $13,442,549.00, or $2,016,382.35.

26. Beginning late in 2007 or early in 2008, and continuing through at least 2012, LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE became the alter ego of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as officers and majority shareholders, in that they disregarded corporate structure and wrongfully diverted, converted and depleted corporate assets of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE for their own personal benefit and the benefit of Bernstein family trusts and other entities as more specifically set forth below. Those trusts have since invested some of these wrongfully diverted and converted corporate assets in real estate, also as more particularly set forth below. The wrongful action of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN in diverting and converting corporate assets rendered LIC Holdings, and possibly ARBITRAGE, insolvent.

27. Throughout 2009, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN continued to make false statements to STANSBURY to hide the fact that LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE was their alter ego, in that they converted corporate property and corporate assets of LIC and/or ARBITRAGE for their own personal benefit in 2008, 2009 and thereafter, all to the exclusion and financial detriment of STANSBURY, all the while fraudulently representing to STANSBURY that no money was being paid as salary or distributions to SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN or STANSBURY because it was necessary to hold the funds in the corporate bank accounts to show to potential lenders the financial stability of the company.

28. STANSBURY relied upon these continuing misrepresentations of Defendants to his detriment. Because STANSBURY was told that potential funding sources for the business needed to see that capital of the company was available, he took no action when he did not receive any compensation for 2009 and was paid only $30,000 in 2010.

29. In order to continue their scheme to defraud, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN failed and refused to account for renewal commissions and failed to supply any financial information to STANSBURY concerning LIC Holdings or ARBITRAGE.

30. In furtherance of their scheme to deprive STANSBURY of salary he had earned and shareholder distributions to which he was entitled, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN intercepted mail addressed to STANSBURY, removing commission checks representing commissions due to STANSBURY, deposited the funds into their own accounts and otherwise converted the funds. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN also opened STANSBURY's mail containing checks payable to him which were unrelated to them and the businesses.

31. In December, 2011 STANSBURY had been battling a painful and debilitating disease that could only be managed through the administration of potentially harmful

prescription medications. On December 22, 2011, the Defendants BERNSTEIN, with knowledge of STANSBURY's health issues and his debilitated condition, decided to take advantage of and deceive STANSBURY further. STANSBURY had for years been given K-1 statements reflecting his 10% ownership of LIC Holdings. At that time, TED BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that the company accountant had discovered a potential significant taxable event which could cause STANSBURY, as one of the owners of LIC Holdings to pay taxes on phantom income. TED BERNSTEIN promised that if STANSBURY would sign a paper ceding his 10% interest in LIC Holdings, he would not have to pay the tax if in fact the tax was due. TED BERNSTEIN promised he would hold the paper, promising it would not become operative until STANSBURY and the Defendants BERNSTEIN discussed the situation further in the first quarter of 2012.

32. Because of the misrepresentations, willful concealments of material facts, duplicity and deceit practiced by Defendants upon STANSBURY, STANSBURY reasonably believed that Defendants had complied, or intended to comply with their obligations to STANSBURY under the contract between them. STANSBURY, therefore, was prevented from knowing for a period of years that the causes of action asserted herein existed.

33. By the second quarter of 2012, STANSBURY developed the belief that the BERNSTEINS' representations over the years were wholly false and he sought legal counsel.

34. STANSBURY has retained the law firm of Peter M. Feaman, P.A. and has agreed to pay it a reasonable fee for its services rendered herein.

COUNT I - ACCOUNTING (Against LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, for Accounting)

35. STANSBURY hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

Case: 1:13-cv-03643 Document #: 258-3 Filed: 08/27/16 Page 622 of 1000 PageID #:7062 Case: 17-3595 Document: 12-11 - Filed: 03/12/2018 Pages: 1000

36. The relationship between STANSBURY and the Defendants, particularly as affected by Defendants' acts described in preceding paragraphs 19 through 27 created a situation where Defendants had sole access to receipts generated by STANSBURY's efforts, and to books and records reflecting said receipts and the other information from which can be calculated all moneys due to STANSBURY under his arrangement with Defendants.

37. The period of time during which STANSBURY has been deprived of monies due him spans approximately four and a half years. The various sources of revenue to Defendants of monies from which the amounts due STANSBURY may be calculated, the manner in which STANSBURY was to be paid, and the amount due STANSBURY all involve extensive and complicated accounts, and STANSBURY's remedy at law cannot be as full, adequate and expeditious as it is in equity.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff STANSBURY prays for an adjudication of Plaintiff's right to a full and complete accounting from Defendants, LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, and for such orders of Court as will require such Defendants to provide STANSBURY with all records and copies of documents from January 1, 2006 to the present, in order to reveal his right to, and the amount of all sums: (a) received as commissions to which STANSBURY was entitled to a share; (b) due to STANSBURY, whether paid or not; (c) paid to STANSBURY, whether for commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason; (d) paid to each of the BERNSTEIN Defendants out of monies received as commissions; (e) deposits of any and all moneys received as commissions by any Defendants to any accounts, including the name of the entity whose account was involved, the number(s) of each such account; the address of the branch or other facility through which any Defendant dealt with such entity; (f) calculations as to moneys paid, to be paid, or not to be paid to STANSBURY, together with an award of court costs and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT II - BREACH OF ORAL CONTRACT (Against LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN)

38. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 37, inclusive.

39. The arrangement between STANSBURY and Defendants, as described in paragraphs 13 through 28 above, constituted a contract between them.

40. An express term of that contract involved the commitment of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to calculate and pay to STANSBURY all sums due to him under the contract, whether as commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason.

41. The Defendants initially performed the duties required of them under said contract.

42. However, Defendants breached their contract with STANSBURY by withholding from STANSBURY monies due him under the contract for renewal commissions earned in 2007 and commissions and renewal commissions earned in 2008 and thereafter.

43. The withholding of such monies constitutes a material breach of the contract between STANSBURY and LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

44. STANSBURY has sued both LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE because the BERNSTEINS represented that his employment relationship was with LIC Holdings, the company in which he owned a 10% interest, but STANSBURY'S W-2 statements were issued by ARBITRAGE as his employer.

45. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN are personally liable, jointly and severally, for the material breach of the oral employment contract with STANSBURY as LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE were the alter ego of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED

Case: 1:13-cv-03643 Document #: 258-3 Filed: 08/27/16 Page 624 of 1000 PageID #:7064 Case: 17-3595 Document: 12-11 Filed: 03/12/2018 Pages: 1000

BERNSTEIN in that the BERNSTEINS depleted corporate assets for their personal benefit by causing the corporation or corporations to make exorbitant and inappropriate distributions to themselves, family members, and BERNSTEIN family trusts and other entities, at the expense of corporate creditors such as STANSBURY, to wit:

a) SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN caused LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE to pay to them at least $3,756,229.00 and $5,225,825.00, respectively, in fiscal 2008 during which time STANSBURY, other than the amount referenced in paragraph 21, was paid nothing;

b) According to Palm Beach County public records, in December of 2007 TED BERNSTEIN purchased a property at 880 Berkeley Street, Boca Raton, Florida 33487, for $4,400,000;

c) According to Palm Beach County public records, on December 28, 2008, TED BERNSTEIN paid off the mortgage in the amount of $486,400.00 on a property he owned at 15807 Menton Bay Court, Saturnia Isles, Delray Beach, Florida 33446;

d) According to Palm Beach County public records, SIMON BERNSTEIN paid off the mortgage on property hc and his wife owned, and subsequently transferred by quitclaim deed on May 20, 2008 to the trustee of SHIRLEY'S TRUST, at 7020 Lions Head Lane, Boca Raton, Florida, 33496. The amount of the mortgage pay-off is unknown, but in 2013 the property was listed for sale at $2,399,000;

e) According to Palm Beach County public records, on June 18, 2008, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC acquired a property located at 2753 N.W. 34 Street, Boca Madera Unit 2, Boca Raton, Florida 33432 (the "Boca Madera Property). On July 8, 2008, SIMON BERNSTEIN loaned $365,000 to BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC. The specific purpose of the loan is unknown, but SIMON BERNSTEIN received a mortgage on the Boca Madera Property to secure the loan;

f) According to Palm Beach County public records, on May 20, 2008 SIMON BERNSTEIN and his wife transferred by quitclaim deed to the trustee of SHIRLEY'S TRUST a 4,220 square foot oceanfront condominium unit in a complex known as "The Aragon" in Boca Raton, located at 2494 South Ocean Boulevard, Boca Raton, Florida. The mortgage on that property was paid off on September 27, 2010.

g) The legal descriptions for each of the above referenced properties are attached hereto as Exhibit "B."

46. There is due to STANSBURY from such Defendants all amounts due under said contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN declaring that Defendants, LIC Holdings, Inc. and ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, are or were the alter ego of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN such that the corporate veil of LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE should be pierced; for judgment against Defendants, LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, in excess of $1,500,000.00 for the amounts due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest; for his court costs herein expended and for such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT III - FRAUD IN THE INDUCEMENT- EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (Against SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN)

47. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 46, inclusive.

48. At all material times hereto, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN were officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

49. The statements set forth in paragraphs 18 through 24, above, made by SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, on behalf of and in concert with each other, and as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, were false statements of material fact that SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN knew to be false at the time they were made, as SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN never intended to authorize LIC Holdings or ARBITRAGE to pay to STANSBURY the amounts due him as evidenced by the fact that the accountant for LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE prepared financial worksheets for 2008 showing that the BERNSTEINS would receive compensation, but STANSBURY would not, for fiscal 2008, in direct contravention to their statements and promises to STANSBURY.

50. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN intended for STANSBURY to rely on such statements that he would be ultimately be paid for his productivity in order to induce him into continuing his productive and revenue-generating sales activity as an employee of LIC Holding and/or ARBITRAGE and fraudulently created for STANSBURY the false expectation that STANSBURY would be paid as agreed.

51. STANSBURY in fact relied to his detriment on these false statements and was induced thereby to remain in his employment relationship with LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE as he continued to sell, with the expectation of payment, products and generate revenue for LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE until 2012, and was further induced not to pursue from LIC Holdings and/ARBITRAGE his right to payment of all amounts due him until after SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN had diverted and converted corporate assets for their personal benefit, rendering LIC Holdings, and possibly ARBITRAGE, insolvent.

52. STANSBURY was injured thereby as he was not and has not been compensated for his revenue-generating sales and other performance, and did not seek alternative employment, as a proximate result of his detrimental reliance on these false statements.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, for damages in excess of $1,500,000.00 together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest; for the imposition of an equitable lien and constructive trust on the Bernstein real estate described in paragraph 45 and Exhibit "B" as more fully set forth in Counts VII and VIII of this Second Amended Complaint; for his court costs herein expended; and for such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper. STANSBURY reserves the right to move to amend to request punitive damages in accordance with Florida Law.

COUNT IV - FRAUD IN THE INDUCEMENT - CEDING OF LIC HOLDINGS OWNERSHIP INTEREST (Against Ted Bernstein and LIC Holdings, Inc.)

53. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 52, inclusive.

54. In the fourth quarter of 2011, TED BERNSTEIN embarked upon a plan to defraud from STANSBURY his 10% ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc. As set forth in paragraph 31 above, Defendant TED BERNSTEIN fraudulently induced STANSBURY to prepare and sign a document giving up his 10% interest in and to LIC Holdings, Inc.

55. The ceding of his shares in LIC Holdings, Inc. was procured by fraud and STANSBURY relied upon the representations made by BERNSTEIN with regard to signing the document apparently ceding his stock.

Case: 1:13-cv-03643 Document #: 258-3 Filed: 08/27/16 Page 628 of 1000 PageID #:7068 Case: 17-3595 Document: 12-11 Filed: 03/12/2018 Pages: 1000

56. It was reasonable for STANSBURY to rely on the representations made by BERNSTEIN because at that time STANSBURY was unaware of the breaches of fiduciary duty and breaches of the oral contract that had taken place.

57. As a result of STANSBURY's reliance, STANSBURY has been damaged by the loss of 10% of the shares of LIC Holdings and the rights and remedies to a shareholder related thereto.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for a judgment for damages against Defendants BERNSTEIN and LIC Holdings, Inc. for the damages caused by the fraudulent conduct of BERNSTEIN as described herein, together with reasonable costs, pre-judgment interest and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT V - CIVIL CONSPIRACY (Against Simon Bernstein and Ted Bernstein)

58. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, and Counts III and IV, paragraphs 47 through 57, inclusive.

59. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, individually and as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, knowingly, willfully, intentionally, and maliciously conspired, agreed, combined and confederated with each other to make fraudulent, false and misleading statements to STANSBURY intended to induce STANSBURY to continue his employment relationship with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE during 2008 and thereafter, without ever intending to authorize payment to STANSBURY for the amounts he was due, a relationship that generated substantial revenue for LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE and, ultimately, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN.

60. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, individually and as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, knowingly, willfully, intentionally, and maliciously conspired, agreed, combined and confederated with each other to make fraudulent, false and misleading statements to STANSBURY intended to induce STANSBURY to delay pursuing his right to payment for all amounts due him until such time after SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN had converted and diverted corporate assets rendering LIC Holdings, and possibly ARBITRAGE, insolvent and uncollectible.

61. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, individually and as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, knowingly, willfully, intentionally, and maliciously conspired, agreed, combined and confederated with each other to fraudulently induce STANSBURY, through false and misleading statements, to surrender and cede, without fair value payment, his 10% interest in LIC Holdings.

62. The numerous fraudulent, false and misleading statements made by SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN were all overt acts in furtherance of the conspiracy.

63. STANSBURY was injured thereby in that, as a proximate result of the conspiratorial conduct of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, he continued in his employment with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE, without payment of the compensation due him, he delayed pursuit of his right to collect the amounts due him, and ceded his 10% interest in LIC Holdings.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, for damages in excess of $1,500,000.00 together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest; for the imposition of an equitable lien and constructive trust on the Bernstein real estate described in paragraph 45 and Exhibit "B" as more fully set forth in Counts VII and VIII of this Second Amended Complaint; ٠

for his court costs herein expended; and for such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper. STANSBURY reserves the right to move to amend to request punitive damages in accordance with Florida Law.

COUNT V - CIVIL THEFT (Against ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MARKETING, LLC)

64. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 63, inclusive.

65. This is an action for Civil Theft under Chapter 772, Florida Statutes, more specifically §772.11, Fla.Stat.

66. In February, 2012 and March, 2012, Defendant ARBITRAGE intercepted two separate checks made payable to William STANSBURY intended as payment to STANSBURY for matters arising wholly outside his business transactions with the BERNSTEINS, LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

67. Notwithstanding that the checks made payable to William STANSBURY was for sums due STANSBURY by a third party not in connection with the aforesaid business transactions, ARBITRAGE and/or someone acting on its behalf, caused the negotiation of STANSBURY's checks, wrongfully endorsing the checks and retaining the sums that should have been payable to STANSBURY.

68. As a result of the foregoing, Defendant ARBITRAGE has been guilty of criminal theft by conversion with the criminal intent to steal his money and deprive STANSBURY of his possession and use thereof.

69. Written demand for payment of all amounts due STANSBURY has been made to Defendants, more than 30 days preceding the filing of this Complaint, to no avail. A copy of the demand letter is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

COUNT VII - CONVERSION

70. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 63, inclusive.

71. Further, during 2012, Defendants TED BERNSTEIN, SIMON BERNSTEIN, LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE, or someone acting on their behalves, received and cashed in excess of $30,000.00 worth of commission checks otherwise payable to Plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment for damages against Defendant, ABRITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN, LIC Holdings, Inc. and TED BERNSTEIN, together with pre-judgment interest and post-judgment interest, court costs and any other relief this Court decms just and proper.

COUNT VIII - UNJUST ENRICHMENT (LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN)

72. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, paragraphs 1 through 65, above.

73. STANSBURY conferred a benefit on LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN by continuing his employment relationship with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE as a direct and proximate result of the fraudulent representations of SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as more fully set forth in Count III herein.

74. STANSBURY's continued employment resulted in the generation of substantial revenue for LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE, which was then diverted and converted by the BERNSTEINS for their own personal use to the financial detriment of STANSBURY.

75. LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, as officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, had knowledge of the benefit of STANSBURY's continued employment with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE as they fraudulently induced STANSBURY to continue his productive employment activity while never intending to pay him the compensation he was due.

76. LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN accepted the revenues generated by STANSBURY in his capacity as employee.

77. There exists no adequate remedy at law as the conduct of the BERNSTEINS in diverting and converting the corporate assets of LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE has resulted in the insolvency of LIC Holdings and possibly ARBITRAGE.

78. The circumstances are such that it would be inequitable for LIC Holdings, ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN to retain the benefits of the STANSBURY's productive revenue-generating labor without paying fair value for it.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, in an amount in excess of $1,500,000.00 which the evidence shows Plaintiff is entitled for the fair value of the services Plaintiff provided to LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest; for his court costs herein expended and for such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT IX - EQUITABLE LIEN (As to SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT)

79. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 34, paragraph 45 and Counts III and VII, above.

80. STANSBURY has alleged essential facts in his General Allegations and Count III that show that SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN committed fraud by fraudulently inducing STANSBURY to continue in an employment relationship that proved to be highly lucrative for SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN.

81. STANSBURY has alleged essential facts in his General Allegations and Count VII that show that SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN were unjustly enriched by STANSBURY's uncompensated continued employment with LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE.

82. The conduct of the BERNSTEINS in depleting the corporate assets of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE for their personal benefit by causing the corporation or corporations to make exorbitant and inappropriate distributions to themselves, family members, and BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALT, LLC and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT, at the expense of corporate creditors such as STANSBURY, rendered LIC Holdings and possibly ARBITRAGE insolvent. Therefore STANSBURY has no adequate remedy at law.

83. BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUSTA AGREEMENT were the transferees of some of the corporate assets of LIC Holdings and/or

ARBITRAGE wrongfully diverted and converted by the BERNSTEIN and thus are proper parties to this action and this Count.

84. An equitable lien on the real estate described in paragraph 45 herein and Exhibit "B" attached hereto is justified as an equitable remedy for the wrongful conduct of the BERNSTEINS.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the Court to declare and establish an equitable lien in favor of Plaintiff in an amount equal to the funds wrongfully diverted, on the property described in paragraph 45 and Exhibit "B" attached hereto, and on all other assets of the Defendants named in this Count IX, or third parties as yet unknown, which assets have been purchased wholly or in part, improved or benefitted by the diverted funds due Plaintiff, together with his costs herein expended, and such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT X - CONSTRUCTIVE TRUST (As to SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT)

85. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 79 through 84 above.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the Court to declare and establish a constructive trust in favor of Plaintiff on the property described in paragraph 45 and Exhibit "B" attached hereto in an amount equal to the funds wrongfully diverted and on all assets of Defendants or third parties as yet unknown, which assets have been purchased wholly or partly, improved or mortgaged by the diversion of said funds due Plaintiff. Re: William (Bill) Stansbury

Dear Mr. Bernstein:

The undersigned represents William (Bill) Stansbury and we are writing this letter on his behalf. Mr. Stansbury received your proposed letter agreement reflecting LIC Holdings' proposal to indemnify its shareholders concerning policies sold under the Cambridge Financing Program. As a result of your proposal, Mr. Stansbury has reviewed with me in detail his dealings with you and your companies over the past 4 to 5 years.

After reviewing the facts with Mr. Stansbury, some of which will be summarized below, I was shocked that he had not consulted legal counsel until now. Be that as it may, and based upon the facts presented to us, we believe you have engaged in fraud, civil theft, breaches of fiduciary duties, and breach of contract, just to name a few. The purpose of this letter is to a). respond to your indemnity proposal and b). request that you pass this letter on to your counsel immediately in the off-chance that these very serious matters can be resolved prior to the filing of legal action. The issues can be summarized as follows:

1. The first issue concerns you and your company's failure to pay salary compensation to Mr. Stansbury. Mr. Stansbury has been making inquiries concerning this for the past 5 months, but to no avail. Mr. Stansbury's claim for unpaid salary arises from three categories:

a. Failure to pay salary based on net retained commissions.

i. Based upon reports prepared by your company for the period of 2007 through 2011, LIC Holdings, Inc. and/or Arbitrage International Holdings, n/k/a Arbitrage International Management, LLC, received $35,384,246.00 in net retained commissions. According to Mr. Stansbury's salary arrangement, he is entitled to 15% of those net retained commissions, which amounts to $5,307,636.90. During this time period, Mr. Stansbury's salary compensation was $2,844,910.00. The shortfall in salary owed to Mr. Stansbury is $2,462,726.90.

ii. There is salary compensation owed to Mr. Stansbury as a result of bridge loans in 2008. You received a $2,000,000.00 settlement in 2010 resulting from the resolution of a lawsuit involving Global Secured Capital. Mr. Stansbury is entitled to 15% of those funds, which is $300,000.00.

iii. In addition, you received $507,891.00 in commissions in connection with the Biviano matter. Mr. Stansbury is entitled to 15% of those funds, which is $76,183.65.

iv. In April of 2012, you received three commissions totaling approximately $200,000.00 in the Levine, Wiss and Berley matters. Mr. Stansbury has been requesting payment of this for weeks, again to no avail. Mr. Stansbury is due salary compensation for these items in the amount of $30,000.00.

Therefore, Mr. Stansbury's total claim for salary arising out of net retained commissions is approximately $2,868,910.55.

The liability for payment of this salary is not limited to LIC Holdings, Inc. or Arbitrage International Management, LLC. This liability also flows to you individually as a result of your breaches of your fiduciary duty owed to Mr. Stansbury and utter failure to abide by corporate governance standards, which conduct is more particularly described below.

b. Mr. Stansbury is also due unpaid salary based on 15% of all renewal commissions since 2008. Mr. Stansbury's salary claim for renewal commissions cannot as yet be determined with specificity due to the fact that you and your office have been opening mail directed to Mr. Stansbury and negotiating checks made payable to him by falsifying his endorsement and depositing those checks into accounts which only you control. This conduct constitutes civil theft and breach of fiduciary duty. We believe this claim amounts to hundreds of thousands of dollars.

c. Salary compensation for 2008. Mr. Stansbury has recently learned that you and Mr. Simon Bernstein received $8,982,124.00 in salary in 2008. By contrast, Mr. Stansbury received $420,018.00, paid to him in January 2008, based on policies sold in 2007. He received zero (no salary compensation) for his 2008 production. It is obvious that you and Simon treated your corporations as personal ATM machines, while completely ignoring your fiduciary responsibilities to your employee and minority shareholder, Mr. Stansbury. It further appears that after the exorbitant salaries were paid to you, you then loaned the money back to the corporation at an interest rate significantly above market rates in order to meet the cash flow needs of the various entities, again, clearly disregarding your corporate governance responsibilities.

2. Indemnification issues.

Mr. Stansbury has been served with three lawsuits from Phoenix Insurance Company and one from Mr. Wright seeking indemnification as a result of agent misconduct which was in no way attributable to the conduct of Mr. Stansbury. Although all of these matters have been settled, because he was the qualifying agent of record for other policies, he could be the subject of future litigation for refunds of commissions paid. All of these commissions were paid over to you or your companies.

The Indemnification Agreement which you sent to Mr. Stansbury is completely insufficient. You have a duty as a matter of law to indemnify Mr. Stansbury. Your offer of future indemnity is contingent upon "all" commissions that have been received by LIC's present or past shareholders be turned over to LIC. This is nothing short of extortion. Further, your second paragraph states that LIC is "presently insolvent" and has a "negative net worth." You then conclude with the sentence that with the indemnification agreement in place, LIC "may" have sufficient funds to meet its current obligations. Therefore, a simple indemnification from LIC Holdings to Mr. Stansbury is insufficient. Any such indemnification would have to be personally guaranteed by you and Mr. Simon Bernstein.

3. Unauthorized interception of U.S. Mail.

I have been given the understanding that your office has been opening mail directed to Mr. Stansbury personally. This is a federal offense and also constitutes a breach of the fiduciary duty you owe to Mr. Stansbury as an employee and minority shareholder.

There has been no accounting to Mr. Stansbury for any of the checks which may have been sent to him personally on which his signature has been forged, the checks cashed and placed out of the reach of Mr. Stansbury. In 2012, Mr. Stansbury has been receiving checks from Phoenix Life Insurance Company and TransAmerica Life Insurance Company. Mr. Stansbury has been holding these checks. They have now been remitted to the undersigned as attorney for Mr. Stansbury. This office is holding these funds in a separate interest-bearing trust account pending the resolution of this matter.

With regard to all of the other insurance companies for whom Mr. Stansbury is listed as the qualifying agent, he has now informed those companies that all future renewal commissions paid to him personally be sent to Mr. Stansbury at his home address. These funds will then be remitted to the undersigned counsel of record for Mr. Stansbury. We will place these funds in a separate interest-bearing trust account as well. Any attempts by you to contact these insurance companies will be considered a tortious interference of his business relationship and such activity will be added as a claim in any future legal proceedings.

4. Shareholder status.

Mr. Stansbury has been a 10% shareholder of LIC Holdings, Inc., pursuant to the terms of a Shareholders Agreement. On behalf of Mr. Stansbury, demand is hereby made, pursuant to Florida Statute 607.1602, for inspection of the corporate records including the following:

I. Minutes of the Board of Directors meetings from January 1, 2008 to the present.

II. Minutes of Shareholders' meetings from January 1, 2008 to the present.

III. Records of any actions taken by the Shareholders and/or the Board of Directors without a meeting, from January 1, 2008 to the present.

IV. Accounting and financial records of LIC Holdings, Inc., Arbitrage International Management, LLC, formerly known as Arbitrage International Holdings, LLC, and all other subsidiary or affiliated companies under your control, including, without limitation, income tax returns, general ledgers, balance sheets, profit and loss statements, stock books, bank statements, loan agreements or guarantees, and any other financial books and records from January 1, 2008 to the present.

Mr. Stansbury is seeking to inspect these records in good faith and for the purpose of determining if misappropriation of corporate assets for improper purposes has previously taken or is presently taking place.

I have been made aware of a letter dated December 22, 2011 in which Mr. Stansbury purportedly "ceded" his shares of stock in LIC Holdings, Inc. back to the company. This letter was obtained under false pretenses and is not recognized by Mr. Stansbury as validly conveying his ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc.

Please have your legal counsel contact us within ten (10) days. Should we fail to receive a response within that time, Mr. Stansbury will take legal action to protect his rights and interests.

Very truly yours,

By:

DEFENDANTS', TED S. BERNSTEIN, LIC HOLDINGS, INC. AND ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, LLC, OBJECTION TO NOTICE OF PRODUCTION FROM NON-PARTY CBIZ MHM, LLC

Defendants, Ted S. Bernstein, LIC Holdings, Inc. and Arbitrage International Holdings, LLC (collectively "Defendants"), hereby object to the service of a subpoena duces tecum as identified in a Notice of Production from Non-Party to CBIZ MHM, LLC ("CBIZ") served on July 26, 2013 by Plaintiff, William E. Stansbury ("Plaintiff"), and state:

1. Defendants object to the service of this subpoena on the grounds that the documents sought, or a substantial portion of them, are subject to an accountant/client privilege, and potentially other applicable privileges including attorney/client privilege and work product privilege.

2. Defendants also object on the grounds that these documents are not relevant nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence in connection with the pending claims and issues. Many of the requested documents exceed the scope of permissible discovery at this time, as these documents relate to Plaintiff's claim for an accounting, which has not yet been granted. In response to Plaintiff's Request to Produce to Defendants, Defendants objected to the production of substantially similar documents, and the Court upheld the objection by Order dated April 19, 2013.

3. Notwithstanding these objections, Defendants are willing to work with Plaintiff's counsel to narrow the scope of these requests and attempt to establish a procedure for Defendants to review relevant, material and non-privileged the documents before production.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

1. The claims of the Estate are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable Statute of Limitations.

2. The claims of the Estate are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of laches.

3. The antecedent and material breaches by Defendants, including SIMON BERNSTEIN, of the oral contract sued upon by STANSBURY operated to discharge and excuse STANSBURY from the performance of any further contractual duty thereunder.

4. The Estate does not meet the requirements of Section 86.011(1) or (2), Florida Statutes (2011), and thus the Estate is not entitled to Declaratory relief.

5. The Estate is not the Real Party in Interest, and has no standing as the successor in interest to SIMON BERNSTEIN, individually, to pursue Declaratory relief in this case.

6. The Estate is not the Real Party in Interest, and has no standing as the successor in interest to SIMON BERNSTEIN, individually, to pursue a breach of contract action in this case.

7. The Estate is estopped from bringing this action due to the unclean hands and the wrongful conduct of SIMON BERNSTEIN, individually and as an officer and director of LIC Holding, Inc. and Arbitrage International Management, LLC.

8. The Estate is estopped from asserting an alleged Breach of Contract action due to the breaches and tortious conduct of SIMON BERNSTEIN.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant WILLIAM E. STANSBURY requests this Honorable Court to dismiss the Counterclaim, with prejudice, together with an award of reasonable costs and attorneys' fees incurred herein, and such other relief as the Court deems just and reasonable.

_____/

OBJECTIONS TO FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES TO WILLIAM E. STANSBURY AND MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

COMES NOW Plaintiff, WILLIAM E. STANSBURY, by and through his undersigned counsel and moves for an extension of time to respond to Defendant, ESTATE OF SIMON L.

BERNSTEIN's First Set of Interrogatories and requests an additional 30 days in which to respond to the Interrogatories not objected to, as follows:

1. Plaintiff, WILLIAM E. STANSBURY, objects to the following numbered

Interrogatories:

3. List every incident or occurrence after January 1, 2006 in which you believe that the Decedent perpetrated a fraud upon you. Please identify the details of each incident or occurrence, including the nature, date and location of each incident or occurrence as well as the name, address and the phone number of all witnesses of each incident or occurrence.

Objection: This Interrogatory is overly broad. The fraud perpetrated by the decedent is described in the Amended Complaint and the Second Amended Complaint assuming that the Court allows Plaintiff to amend.

4. Please describe in detail your involvement in the Decedent's business affairs on or after January 1, 2006. Your answer should include, but not be limited to, a detailed description of all duties that you undertook in connection with performing services, paying bills, expenses, balancing check books, writing checks, and receiving deposits or other income. Describe in detail how you became involved in the Decedent's business affairs. The term "business" shall be deemed to include all of the named Corporate and LLC Defendants.

Objection: This Interrogatory is overly broad when it asks Plaintiff to "describe in detail your involvement in the Decedent's business affairs ..." for the last 7 years.

5. Describe in detail the circumstances relating to each and every business related meeting you attended on or after January 1, 2006 at which the Decedent was present.

Objection: This Interrogatory is overly broad.

7. State the substance of each and every communication between the Decedent and any other person regarding his alleged intent, on or after January 1, 2006, to transfer or pay any money or assets to you as a result of your involvement in his business affairs. For each such communication, state the date of the communication, the form of the communication (written, by telephone, or in person) and the names, addresses and telephone numbers of any other individuals who were either present for or who m ay have overheard all or part of the communication.

Objection: This Interrogatory is overly broad.

8. Identify each and every gift, check, cash payment, mortgage, loan or advance of $500.00 or more made by the Decedent to you, any member of your family, or any business of which you are or were an owner, investor, shareholder or creditor on or after January 1, 2006. For each such item, furnish the date, who the payment was made to, the amount, the form of the payment (in cash, check, property, etc.), the purpose of the payment, and whether it was ever repaid.

Objection: This Interrogatory is overly broad, vague and ambiguous

9. Please state whether you or anyone action [sic] on your behalf obtained statements from any person with knowledge of any issues or facts relating to the Amended Complaint filed by you in this cause dated February 12, 2013. If so, state (a) the names and addresses of the persons from whom the statements were taken; (b) the date the statements were taken; (c) the names and addresses of the persons who took the statements, and/or who have custody of the statements; (d) whether the statements were written or oral; and (e) whether the statements were memorialized by recording device, court reporter, video, cd, stenographer, or otherwise.

Objection: This is work product.

10. Identify by name, address and telephone number each person you requested to personally observe, meet or talk to the Decedent on or after January 1, 2006 relating to your involvement in his business affairs.

Objection: This Interrogatory is overly broad.

11. If, in furtherance of answering any of the above Interrogatories, you referred to any document or item, describe in detail each such document or item and state the Interrogatory number to which such document or item relates.

Objection: This Interrogatory is overly broad, vague and ambiguous.

2. As to the remaining Interrogatories (1, 2 and 6), Plaintiff requests an extension of 30 days to respond, no prejudice will result to Defendant as this cause is not yet at issue.

CASE NO: 50 2012 CA 013933 MB AA

WILLIAM E. STANSBURY, Plaintiff,

v.

TED S. BERNSTEIN; DONALD TESCHER and ROBERT SPALLINA, as co-personal representatives of the ESTATE OF SIMON L. BERNSTEIN and as co-trustees of the SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT dated May 20, 2008; LIC HOLDINGS, INC.; ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, f/k/a ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, LLC; BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC,

MOTION TO CLARIFY ORDER ON DEFENDANT'S, TED S. BERNSTEIN, MOTION TO DISMISS COUNTS III, VII AND VIII

COMES NOW Plaintiff, William E. Stansbury, by and through his undersigned counsel and moves this Court for clarification of its Order dated June 12, 2013 granting Defendant Ted S. Bernstein's Motion to Dismiss Counts III, VII and VIII, as follows:

1. On June 12, 2013 this Court entered an Order granting the Motion to Dismiss Counts III,

VII and VIII of the Amended Complaint. A copy of the Order is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

2. The Order does not state whether its dismissal is without prejudice and that Plaintiff is granted leave to amend, nor does it state that the dismissal is with prejudice.

3. The Court found in paragraph 2 of the Order that "Defendant owes no fiduciary duty directly to Plaintiff under Florida law," and in paragraph 3 that a breach of fiduciary duty claim would be derivative and cannot be asserted in this case. The Order does not state whether such findings are "without prejudice" such that Plaintiff may amend his Amended Complaint to correct any pleading deficiencies.

4. A dismissal with prejudice should not be ordered without giving the party the opportunity to amend unless it is clear that the pleading cannot be amended so as to state a cause of action. Central Florida Investments, Inc. v. Levin, 659 So. 2d 492 (Fla. 5th DCA 1995). Additionally, Rule 1.180 of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure provides that amending of pleadings "shall be given freely when justice so requires." Further, leave to amend should not be denied unless the privilege has been abused, there is prejudice to the opposing party, or further amendment would be futile. Life General Security Insurance Company v. Horal, 657 So. 2d 967 (Fla. 4th DCA 1996).

5. In this case a determination that the dismissal is "without prejudice" with leave to amend is appropriate. There has been no abuse of the amendment privilege as there has been only one Amended Complaint filed in response to a prior Motion to Dismiss. There is no prejudice to the Defendant, Ted S. Bernstein, as the case is not at issue and Defendant has been on notice of these claims since the filing of the original Complaint.

6. The Amended Complaint can be amended to state a cause of action. Florida law recognizes that individual claims for breach of fiduciary duty and other torts may be brought against majority shareholders or officers of a corporation when there is a special duty alleged between the parties and the plaintiff/shareholder has suffered injury separate and distinct from that suffered by other shareholders. See, Biltmore Motor Corp. v. Roque, 291 So. 2d 114 (Fla. 3rd DCA 1974); Mortellite v. American Tower, L.P., 819 So.2d 928 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2002). As a matter of law, Plaintiff should be granted leave to amend to allege such special duty and/or distinct injury.

7. The Biltmore Motor Corp. and Mortellite cases also underscore that the Court's findings in paragraphs 2, 3 and, for the same reasons, 4 of its Order should be considered "without prejudice" based on the current allegations of Counts III, VII and VIII. Otherwise, the Court will have resolved critical factual and legal issues improperly through its resolution of a Motion to Dismiss. A motion to dismiss should not be used "to determine issues of ultimate fact" and "may not act as a substitute for summary judgment." Roberts v. Children's Med. Servs., 751 So. 2d 672, 673 (Fla. 2d DCA 2000).

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, William E. Stansbury, respectfully requests that this Court clarify its Order to provide that:

1. Its dismissal of Counts III, VII and VIII of the Amended Complaint is "without prejudice," with leave to amend within 20 days of the date of this Order;

2. The findings of the Court in paragraphs 2, 3 and 4 of the Order are similarly "without prejudice" and Plaintiff will be given one more opportunity to state a claim consistent with the principles of law set forth in Biltmore Motor Corp. v. Roque, 291 So. 2d 114 (Fla. 3rd DCA 1974), Mortellite v. American Tower, L.P., 819 So.2d 928 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2002) and other similar cases.

ORDER ON DEFENDANT'S, TED S, BERNSTEIN, MOTION TO DISMISS COUNTS III, VII, AND VIII

THIS MATTER came before the Court on June 10, 2013 on Defendant's Ted S. Bernstein,

Motion to Dismiss Counts III, VII and VIII (the "Motion"). The Court having heard argument of counsel and being otherwise fully advised, does hereby

ORDER and ADJUDGE as follows:

1. The Motion is granted.

EXHIBIT

2. As to the claim set forth in Count III of the Complaint, Defendant owes no fiduciary duty directly to Plaintiff under Florida law, and therefore any direct claim is dismissed.

3. To the extent that Plaintiff is asserting that Defendant owed a fiduciary duty to a corporation of which Plaintiff claims to be a shareholder, this would be a derivative claim which cannot be asserted in this case. Moreover, Plaintiff has not met the statutory requirements for asserting a derivative claim.

4. Likewise, the claims asserted in Counts VII and VIII are derivative claims and are dismissed for the same reason.

AS TO ALL COUNTS

63. All other allegations not specifically admitted are denied.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

1. As and for the Defendants First Affirmative Defense, Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the applicable statute of limitations and/or laches.

2. As and for the Defendants Second Affirmative Defense, Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the statute of frauds.

3. As and for the Defendants Third Affirmative Defense, Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff lacks standing to pursue derivative claims because he is no longer a shareholder in LIC and lacks standing to pursue other claims because is no longer an employee of LIC or Arbitrage.

4. As and for the Defendants Fourth Affirmative Defense, Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by because Plaintiff has misjoined causes of action held in different capacities, and therefore, the Complaint is improper and, at a minimum, certain claims must be dismissed such that Plaintiff pursues only those claims he has in one capacity.

5. As and for the Defendants Fifth Affirmative Defense, Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of waiver. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies and was aware of the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and waived any claims against Defendants.

6. As and for the Defendants Sixth Affirmative Defense, Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of ratification. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies, and the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and ratified such alleged actions.

7. As and for the Defendants Seventh Affirmative Defense, Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of estoppel. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies, and was aware of the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and therefore is estopped to assert any claims against Defendants.

8. As and for the Defendants Eighth Affirmative Defense, Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of acquiescence. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies, and was aware of the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and therefore acquiesced in the conduct about which he now complains.

9. As and for the Defendants Ninth Affirmative Defense, Plaintiff's claims against Simon L. Bernstein (hereinafter the "Decedent") are barred in whole or in part by the corporate shield doctrine. All of the actions allegedly taken by the Decedent were actions taken on behalf of a legal entity (corporation or limited liability company), and not on behalf of himself individually, and therefore, any claims against the Decedent individually are barred.

10. As and for the Defendants Tenth Affirmative Defense, Plaintiff has failed to comply with the requirements of section 607.07401 of the Florida Statutes.

11. As and for the Defendants Eleventh Affirmative Defense, Plaintiff failed to properly include the relief requested in Counts III, V, VII, VIII within his Claim filed in the Decedent's probate proceedings. As such, those Claims are now barred and the Plaintiff is estopped from pursuing same as the three (3) month statutory period for filing Claims against the Estate has expired.

12. As and for the Defendants Twelfth Affirmative Defense, Plaintiff's claims against the Decedent in Counts III, VII and VIII are barred as a result of the Court Order dated June 12, 2013. The allegations in Counts III, VII and VIII against the Decedent are the same as those alleged against Ted S. Bernstein. As such, the Plaintiff is estopped from pursuing same against the Defendants. A copy of said Order is attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and incorporated herein by reference.

13. As and for the Defendants Thirteenth Affirmative Defense, the Plaintiff has failed to state a cause of action against the Decedent for a Constructive Trust. The Plaintiff has failed to plead the four (4) required elements of a promise, reliance, confidential relationship and unjust enrichment. As such, Count VIII must be dismissed.

WHEREFORE, having answered the Complaint, Defendants demand judgment in their favor, together with an award of costs and, pursuant to any applicable contract or statute, attorneys' fees, and such other relief as the Court determines just and equitable.

COUNTERCLAIM

Counter-Plaintiff, the Estate of Simon L. Bernstein (hereinafter the "Estate"), sues Defendant, William E. Stansbury ("Stansbury"), and states:

1. The Estate is being administered in Palm Beach County, Florida.

2. Stansbury is a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida.

3. At all material times referenced herein during the lifetime of Simon L. Bernstein, he was an officer and shareholder of Arbitrage and LIC Holdings, Inc.

4. As part of his work for Arbitrage and its affiliated company, LIC Holdings, Inc., Stansbury was listed as the licensed insurance agent of record on various contracts and policies of insurance with various insurance companies, under which those insurance companies would make payments of commissions and renewals due to Arbitrage only by way of a check payable in many cases to Stansbury individually.

5. Pursuant to the agreement of the parties, Stansbury was to deliver all such checks to Arbitrage, because all receipts for commissions, renewals or other revenue received by Stansbury for contracts or policies generated during the time of his employment were property of his employer.

6. Upon information and belief, before the time that Stansbury voluntarily terminated his employment with Arbitrage, Stansbury received and collected checks made payable to him, but which properly belonged to Arbitrage, and retained those funds for his sole and exclusive use and benefit.

7. Further, after Stansbury voluntarily terminated his employment with Arbitrage, Stansbury continued to receive checks made payable to him, but which properly belonged to Arbitrage, and Stansbury retained the benefit of such checks for his sole and exclusive use and benefit. In addition, for some period of time after he voluntarily terminated his employment, Stansbury has been depositing certain checks into the trust account of his attorney, Peter Feaman.

8. All conditions precedent to the bringing of his action have been met, satisfied or waived.

COUNT I - BREACH OF CONTRACT

9. The Estate realleges paragraphs 1 though 8 above.

10. This is an action for breach of contract and seeks damages in excess of $15,000, exclusive of interest, costs and attorneys' fees.

11. Pursuant to the agreement between Arbitrage and Stansbury, Stansbury was required to deliver to Arbitrage all checks made payable to him for contracts or policies of insurance which relate to work done during the time of Stansbury's employment.

12. For the vast majority of the duration of Stansbury's employment, Stansbury complied with the parties' oral agreement and, as far as Arbitrage is presently aware, Stansbury did in fact deliver to Arbitrage all checks he received. However, upon information and belief, Stansbury may have withheld checks from Arbitrage at various times.

13. At some point before the voluntary termination of his employment, and for all times after the voluntary termination of his employment, Stansbury has retained for himself and refused to turn over to Arbitrage checks received by him, payable to him individually, but which otherwise should have been turned over to Arbitrage.

14. By his actions in retaining checks payable to him but which should have been turned over to Arbitrage, Stansbury has breached his agreement with Arbitrage.

15. As a direct and proximate result of Stansbury breach of the parties' agreement, Arbitrage and consequently the Estate have been damaged in an amount to be determined through discovery and at trial, including the amount held in the attorney trust account of Peter Feaman.

WHEREFORE, the Estate demands judgment in its favor against Stansbury for compensatory damages, together with an award of costs and, pursuant to any applicable statute or contract, an award of attorneys' fees, and such other relief as is just.

COUNT II - DECLARATORY JUDGMENT

16. The Estate realleges paragraphs 1 though 8 and 10 through 15 above.

17. This is an action for a declaratory judgment and for supplemental relief.

18. There is a genuine and immediate dispute between the parties as to the entitlement to certain Checks which are made payable to Stansbury individually, but which properly belong to Arbitrage as the commissions and renewals received for contracts and policies of insurance, and other revenues of Arbitrage which are payable directly to Stansbury individually.

19. There is a bona fide, actual, present and practical need for the declaration.

or his counsel.

21. An immunity, power, privilege or right of Arbitrage is dependent upon the facts or the law applicable to the facts.

22. Stansbury has, or reasonably may have, an actual, present, adverse and antagonistic interest in the subject matter, either in fact or law.

23. The antagonistic and adverse interests are all properly before the Court.

24. The relief sought is not merely the giving of legal advice or the answer to questions propounded from curiosity.

25. Based upon the foregoing, the Estate seeks a declaration that Stansbury is required to turn over to Arbitrage all checks received by him, which are payable to Stansbury individually, but which relate to contracts or policies of insurance, or other revenues generated by Arbitrage or by Stansbury while he was employed by Arbitrage.

26. Moreover, the Estate requests a declaratory judgment that it is entitled to all funds currently being held in the attorney trust account of Peter Feaman, which represent Checks received by Stansbury which are made payable to Stansbury individually, but which otherwise properly belong to Arbitrage.

27. The Estate also seeks a declaration that its rights to all such funds are superior to the rights and claims of Stansbury.

WHEREFORE, the Estate seeks a declaratory judgment as to its rights to the personal property described above, together with supplemental relief to the extent necessary, an award of costs and, pursuant to any applicable statute or contract, an award of attorneys' fees, and such other relief the Court determines just and equitable.

GENERAL PRAYER FOR ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS

Defendants, Donald R. Tescher and Robert L. Spallina, as Co-Personal Representatives of the Estate of Simon L. Bernstein, hereby requests an award of attorney's fees and costs pursuant to Florida Statutes 733.106 and 733.609 and/or Florida decisional case law, and that same be taxed against the Plaintiff.

ORDER ON DEFENDANT'S, TED S. BERNSTEIN, MOTION TO DISMISS COUNTS III, VII, AND VIII

THIS MATTER came before the Court on June 10, 2013 on Defendant's Ted S. Bernstein,

Motion to Dismiss Counts III, VII and VIII (the "Motion"). The Court having heard argument of counsel and being otherwise fully advised, does hereby

ORDER and ADJUDGE as follows:

1. The Motion is granted.

2. As to the claim set forth in Count III of the Complaint, Defendant owes no fiduciary duty directly to Plaintiff under Florida law, and therefore any direct claim is dismissed.

3. To the extent that Plaintiff is asserting that Defendant owed a fiduciary duty to a corporation of which Plaintiff claims to be a shareholder, this would be a derivative claim which cannot be asserted in this case. Moreover, Plaintiff has not met the statutory requirements for asserting a derivative claim.

4. Likewise, the claims asserted in Counts VII and VIII are derivative claims and are dismissed for the same reason.

A. INSTRUCTIONS.

- 1. Give all information known to you, your agents or your attorneys when you answer each Interrogatory, even if the information is contained in records or is hearsay.
- 2. If you cannot answer any one of these Interrogatories fully, after trying in good faith to find the information required to answer the Interrogatory, put down as much information as you have found in your Answer.
- 3. Any question that asks for information about a document or asks you to identify the document may be answered by attaching a copy of the document to your answer.

B. DEFINITIONS.

As used in these Interrogatories:

- "Communication" means any oral or written utterance between tow or mor persons. A "communication" includes a letter, a conversation, a discussion, an interview, a consultation, or an agreement and any other like understanding between two or more persons.
- 2. As used in these interrogatories, "Decedent" means Simon Bernstein.
- 3. The word "Document(s)" shall mean any written or graphic matter or other means of preserving thought or expression, and all tangible things from which information can be processed or transcribed, including the original and all non-identical copies, whether different from the original by reason of any notation made on such copy or otherwise, including, but not limited to, e-mail, correspondence, memoranda, notes, messages, letters, telegrams, teletype, telefax bulletins, meetings, or other communications, interoffice and intra-office telephone calls, diaries, chronological data, minutes, books, reports, charts, ledgers, invoices, worksheets, receipts, returns, computer printouts, prospectuses, financial statements, schedules, affidavits, contracts, cancelled checks, transcripts, statistics, surveys, magazine or newspaper articles, releases (and any and all drafts, alterations and modifications, changes and amendments of any of the foregoing), graphs or oral records or representations of any kind, including without limitation, photographs, charts, graphs, microfiche, microfilm, videotape, recordings, motion pictures and electronic, mechanical or electric records or representations of any kind (including without limitations, tapes, cassettes, discs and recordings).

- 4. "Identify" means to give the following information about a natural human person:
 - (a) the person's last name, first name and middle initial;
 - (b) the person's residence address;
 - (c) the person's business or employer's name and address;
 - (d) the person's social security number;
 - (e) all telephone numbers at which the person can be contacted.
- 5. "Identify" means to give the following information about a corporation:
 - (a) The corporation's full corporate name;
 - (b) Any assumed business names used by the corporation;
 - (c) The address of its principal place of business;
 - (d) The address of each place of business in [specify the geographic region, if the address is unavailable];
 - (e) all telephone numbers of the corporation.
- 6. "Identify" means to give the following information about a document:
 - (a) the name of each person who prepared the document;
 - (b) the number of pages in the entire document;
 - (c) the kind of document;
 - (d) the title of the document;
 - (e) the date of the document;
 - (f) the location of the document;
 - (g) the person who is custodian of the document.
- 7. "Identify" means to give the following information about a communication:
 - (a) the name of each person who made any part of the communication;
 - (b) whether the communication was written or oral;
 - (c) to identify any written portion of the communication as a document.
- 8. "Photograph" means any still photographs, X-ray films, video tapes and motion pictures. A "photograph" is a "document."
- 9. "Property" means all property whether real, tangible or intangible, whether held by the Decedent individually, jointly or in a Trust.

- 10. A communication or document "Relating" to any given subject means any communication or document that constitutes, contains, embodies, reflects, identifies, states, refers to, or is in any way pertinent to that subject, including, without limitation, documents concerning the preparation of other documents.
- 11. "You" and "Yours" means the party to who these interrogatories are addressed, and any predecessor in interest, any successor in interest, and any employee or agent of the party. "You" also means a party's attorney, unless the subject matter of the Interrogatory calls for a privileged communication.

FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES TO WILLIAM E. STANSBURY

1. Identify by name, address and telephone number each person who assisted you, in any way, in answering these Interrogatories.

 Identify the name, address and telephone number of each and every person believed or known by you, your agents, or your attorneys to have any knowledge relating to the allegations made in the Amended Complaint filed by you in this cause dated February 12, 2013. In so doing, state with specificity the subject matter and substance of the person's knowledge.

DEFENDANTS', TED S. BERNSTEIN, LIC HOLDINGS, INC., AND ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, FIRST REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS TO PLAINTIFF, WILLIAM E. STANSBURY

Defendants, Ted S. Bernstein, LIC Holdings, Inc. and Arbitrage International Holdings, LLC

(collectively "Defendants"), request Plaintiff, William E. Stansbury, to file a written response within

30 days of service, and to produce and permit Defendants to inspect and copy the documents listed on Exhibit "A" attached hereto at such place and time as may be agreed upon by counsel.

INSTRUCTIONS AND DEFINITIONS

A. The term "documents" as used in this request is defined as including, but not limited to, the original and any non-incidental copy (which is different from the original because of notations on such copy or otherwise) or draft of all correspondence, telegrams, telexes, teletype messages,

Case: 1:13-cv-03643 Document #: 258-3 Filed: 08/27/16 Page 720 of 1000 PageID #:7160 Case: 17-3595 Document: 12-11 Filed: 03/12/2018 Pages: 1000

contracts, memoranda, pencil jottings, diary entries, desk calendar entries, reported recollections and other written form of notation of events or intentions, transcripts and recordings of conversations and telephone calls, books, records, photographs, reports, charts, ledgers, invoices, financial statements, purchase orders, receipts, canceled checks, data compilations and other documentary material not subject to attorney/client privilege, together with any attachments thereto, or enclosures therewith.

B. The following additional definitions apply:

1. "Plaintiff," "You," "Your" or "Stansbury" shall mean Plaintiff, William E. Stansbury, as well as his agents, servants, employees, representatives, accountants, experts, attorneys, and assigns, or other persons acting or purporting to act on his behalf.

2. "LIC" shall mean Defendant, LIC Holdings, Inc., and/or its subsidiaries, as well as its agents, servants, employees, representatives, accountants, experts, attorneys, and assigns, or other persons acting or purporting to act on its behalf.

3. "AIM" shall mean Defendant, Arbitrage International Management, LLC f/k/a Arbitrage International Holdings, LLC, and/or its subsidiaries, as well as its agents, servants, employees, representatives, accountants, experts, attorneys, and assigns, or other persons acting or purporting to act on its behalf.

C. This request for production calls for production of all responsive documents in the possession, custody or control of you, your agents, or representatives without regard to physical location of said documents.

D. All documents shall be originals unless otherwise indicated. If the "original" is a photocopy (or other copy), then the photocopy should be produced as the original.

E. If you possess no documents responsive to a paragraph in this request, state this fact, specifying the paragraph concerned and where the documents may be found to the best of your belief.

F. If you object in part to any request for production, please produce the portion of the documents requested to which you do not object, and state your objections to the remainder.

G. If you claim a privilege of any type with respect to any of the documents, please identify the documents by date, title and each other descriptive information as will clearly identify the document. Further, the objection should state the legal basis of the privilege claim and provide such supporting information as will establish the claimed privilege.

H. In the event you do not have "possession" of any of the documents requested in this production, but you know that they are in the possession of other parties, give a brief description of the document(s) and the name and address of the party thought to be in possession thereof.

RESPONSE OF PLAINTIFF TO THE MOTION TO DISMISS FILED BY DEFENDANT TED S. BERNSTEIN

Plaintiff William E. Stansbury ("Plaintiff" or "Stansbury"), by and through his undersigned counsel, files this Response to the Motion to Dismiss as to Counts III, VII and VIII of the Amended Complaint filed by Defendant Ted S. Bernstein, as follows:

--- Count III - Breach of Fiduciary Duty ---

1. The breach of fiduciary duty claim is a direct action to redress an injury sustained specifically and uniquely by Plaintiff, individually. For this reason all grounds for dismissal asserted in the Motion to Dismiss as to Count III should be denied.

2. Generally, Bernstein is correct that a shareholder may not sue in his own name for injuries to a corporation unless there is a special duty between the wrongdoer and the shareholder and the shareholder has suffered an injury separate and apart from that suffered by other shareholders. See, Braun v. Buyers Choice Mortgage Corp., 851 So. 2d 199, 203 (Fla. 4th DCA 2003). If a Plaintiff has been specifically harmed, he has a personal claim. Shareholders may bring a direct suit "in their own right to redress an injury sustained directly by them individually." Fort Pierce Corp. v. Ivey, 671 So. 2d 206, 207 (Fla. 4th DCA 1996).

3. There are two established exceptions to the rule that a shareholder cannot sue individually for injuries to a corporation:

A. Where there is a special duty, such as a contractual duty, between the wrongdoer and the shareholder; and,

B. Where the shareholder suffered an injury separate and distinct from that suffered by other shareholders. See, Harrington v. Batchelor, 781 So. 2d 1133, 1135 (Fla. 3d DCA 2001) (quoting William Meade Fletcher, Fletcher Cyclopedia of the Law of Private Corporations §5911, at 458 (2000)). The Court in Harrington cited the following from Fletcher:

Where the wrongful acts are not only wrongs against the corporation but are also violations by the wrongdoer of a duty arising from contract or otherwise, and owing directly to the shareholders, individual shareholders can sue in their own right. Id. §5913, at 470 (footnote omitted)

4. In Fort Pierce Corp. v. Ivey, supra, the Fourth District Court of Appeal reversed the trial court, finding that the minority shareholder's action was personal, not derivative. She had showed that she personally was entitled to a thirty-three percent interest in the stock of the corporation, and the failure to issue the stock to her did not cause injury to the corporation or the stockholders. Ivey, 671 So. 2d at 207. As the Court stated:

... [The minority shareholder] was suing to enforce a right of action existing in her, and attempting to redress her own injury. She was the only person injured by the corporation's decision not to issue the stock. Such an action is personal and did not entitle her to fees under the statute.

5. In this case, the facts as alleged in the Amended Complaint as they relate to a cause of action for breach of fiduciary duty are sufficient to sustain an individual claim by Stansbury for damages. This Court is to look to the body of the Amended Complaint to determine whether sufficient facts have been alleged to sustain a cause of action for injuries that are personal and direct to the shareholder. See, Karten v. Woltin, 23 So.3d 839, 841(Fla. 4th DCA 2009). In his Amended Complaint, STANSBURY makes the following pertinent allegations:

(¶15) In 2006, Simon Bernstein and Ted Bernstein formed Defendants LIC Holdings and Arbitrage for the purpose of marketing and selling certain life insurance products to high net worth individuals for their wealth management and estate planning needs.

(¶16) Plaintiff agreed to become an employee of Defendants LIC Holdings, Inc. and Arbitrage and agreed to a salary of 15% of net commissions received on all products, including renewals.

(¶18) Also in 2006, Simon Bernstein told Plaintiff that he was being rewarded for his efforts and would receive a 10% ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc.

(¶19) In February of 2008 Simon Bernstein proposed to Plaintiff that, rather than get paid monthly on 15% of net commissions, Plaintiff, Ted Bernstein and Simon Bernstein would wait until year end when all computations for the entire year would be made and paid in December 2008 or January 2009. None of the three were to draw any salaries until year end 2008.

(¶20) At year end 2008, Plaintiff, Defendant Simon Bernstein, and Defendant Ted Bernstein were each to be paid a minimum salary of $1 million dollars. Plaintiff's amount would be applied against Plaintiff's 15% earned commissions. Additionally, Simon Bernstein also represented to Plaintiff, in what can be described as a shareholder agreement, that: "Any compensation to Stansbury over and above his 15% would be paid to him in accordance with his ownership interest of 10%." (Emphasis supplied.)

(¶¶46, 47, 48) Simon and Ted Bernstein were, at all material times, majority shareholders and officers of LIC Holdings and Arbitrage. As majority shareholders and officers, Simon and Ted Bernstein owed Plaintiff, a minority shareholder, a fiduciary duty of good faith.

(¶¶49, 51, 54) Plaintiff placed his trust and confidence in Simon and Ted Bernstein that they would deal honestly with him, both as an employee and minority shareholder, and would not withhold information about amounts due him, and the Bernsteins accepted that trust.

(¶55) Simon and Ted Bernstein breached their fiduciary duty to Plaintiff by their repeated conduct of self-dealing.

6. The facts as alleged in the Amended Complaint show that Plaintiff has asserted a) a special duty owed by the Bernsteins as majority shareholders to Stansbury as an employee and minority shareholder; and b) that Stansbury has an individual claim that is unique and personal to him as an employee and minority shareholder pursuant to his compensation agreement.

7. The breach of fiduciary duty count in this case satisfies both exceptions because Simon and Ted Bernstein owed special contractual duties to Plaintiff pursuant to his employment agreement. Plaintiff's injuries were clearly distinct from any other shareholder. Simon and Ted conspired in the scheme to deprive Plaintiff of his compensation due him. Plaintiff, as the sole shareholder to whom a specific contractual duty was owed, can sue in his own right.

8. The damages to Plaintiff are unique and individual as no other shareholder suffered the injuries that Plaintiff has suffered. Other than Simon and Ted Bernstein, Plaintiff was the only shareholder with a compensation arrangement that paid both a salary based on a percentage of net commissions, plus a 10% distribution based on Plaintiff's performance and company revenues. (Simon Bernstein, Ted Bernstein and Plaintiff were the only shareholders with any kind of compensation arrangement with LIC Holdings. See, generally, ¶¶15, 16, 18, 19 and 20 of the Amended Complaint.) Simon and Ted Bernstein, as controlling shareholders, disregarded any shareholder compensation agreements and constrictions whatsoever, especially as they related to the Plaintiff, and instead freely looted the corporation at will for their own personal benefit and as a means to deprive Plaintiff of the compensation due him.

--- Counts VII and VIII -- Equitable Lien and Constructive Trust ---

9. Ted Bernstein also moves to dismiss Count VII for an Equitable Lien and Count
 VII, for Constructive Trust. Both allege claims against specific property of Ted Bernstein.
 Defendant has offered no argument or legal authority for his claimed entitlement to dismissal.

10. Finally, Ted Bernstein claims that Plaintiff lacks standing to bring any derivative claim on behalf of LIC or Arbitrage because he ceded his 10% interest in LIC and thus was not a shareholder when suit was filed. Plaintiff's claims herein are individual and personal, not derivative, so this basis for dismissal does not apply.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Honorable Court deny Defendant Ted Bernstein's Motion to Dismiss and order Defendant to file an Answer within 10 days of the date of the Order, together with any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE 15TH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA

WILLIAM E. STANSBURY, Plaintiff,

v.

TED S. BERNSTEIN; DONALD TESCHER and ROBERT SPALLINA, as co-personal representatives of the ESTATE OF SIMON L. BERNSTEIN and as co-trustees of the SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT dated May 20, 2008; LIC HOLDINGS, INC.; ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, f/k/a ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, LLC; BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC, Defendants.

RESPONSE OF PLAINTIFF WILLIAM E. STANSBURY TO THE MOTION TO DISMISS FILED BY DEFENDANT, THE ESTATE OF SIMON BERNSTEIN

Plaintiff WILLIAM E. STANSBURY ("Plaintiff"), by and through his undersigned counsel, files this Response to the Motion to Dismiss filed by Defendant, the Estate of Simon Bernstein ("SIMON"), as follows:

Court III – Breach of Fiduciary Duty

1. The thrust of Bernstein's argument for dismissal of Count III is that the Amended Complaint should be dismissed for failure to comply with Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.130(a). This is based on SIMON's erroneous contention that, because Plaintiff has alleged that SIMON and Defendant Ted Bernstein, were "officers and majority shareholders" of Defendants LIC Holdings ("LIC") and Arbitrage International Management ("Arbitrage") Plaintiff fails to state a cause of action because he did not attach written proof of SIMON's ownership interest in LIC or Arbitrage. This argument is frivolous. 2. Rule 1.130(a) spcifically states:

Rule 1.130. Attaching Copy of Cause of Action and Exhibits

(a) Instruments Attached. All bonds, notes, bills of exchange, contracts, accounts or documents upon which action may be brought or defense made,....shall be incorporated in or attached to the pleadings. (Emphasis added.)

3. A plain reading of the Rule makes clear that incorporation or attachment of a document to a pleading is required only when a particular cause of action is based on a written document or instrument. This interpretation of the Rule is supported by the Fourth District in Samuels v. King Motor Company of Fort Lauderdale, 782 So.2d 489 (Fla. 4th DCA 2001), wherein the Court stated:

Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.130(a) provides that all contracts or documents "upon which action may be brought...shall be incorporated in or attached to the pleading." When a party brings an action based upon a contract and fails to attach a necessary exhibit under Rule 1.130(a), the opposing party may attack the failure to attach a necessary exhibit through a motion to dismiss. See Safeco Ins. Co. v. Ware, 401 So.2d 1129, 1130 (Fla. 4th DCA 1981).

4. In this case, the claim is that SIMON breached his fiduciary duty to Plaintiff causing him harm is a cause of action based upon SIMON's conduct, not a written document or instrument. Establishing the ownership interest of SIMON will be Plaintiff's burden of proof at trial. This proof can be proffered in many forms and through various types of witnesses and documents. Hence, this is not a cause of action based on a particular, discrete, identifiable document or instrument, such as a contract, will, deed or promissory note. As such, Rule 1.130(a) does not apply.

Count V - Conversion

5. SIMON alleges that Plaintiff, in his Statement of Claim filed against the Estate of Simon Bernstein in the Probate Division of this Circuit Court (the "Estate"), incorporated by reference the initial Complaint filed in this action. In the initial Complaint, conversion was not an alleged cause of action against the Estate. Rather, in the Amended Complaint a cause of action for conversion was substituted for Civil Theft. As a result, SIMON contends the Amended Complaint's "new" allegation of conversion fails to state a cause of action because under §733.703(1), Fla. Stat. (2012), "no additional charge may be imposed by a Claimant who files a claim against the estate."

6. SIMON's reliance on §733.703(1) is wholly misplaced. Under the Florida Probate Code, all that is required in the Probate Statement of Claim is "the basis for the claim." See, Fla. Prob. R. 5.490(a)(1)(2012). Moreover, the Probate rules strongly suggest that the intent behind the "basis for the claim" requirement is simply to adequately notify interested persons of the claim's substance. Fla. Prob. R. 5.490(e), relating to amending claims, states "If a claim as filed is sufficient to notify interested persons of its substance but is otherwise defective as to form, the court may permit the claim to be amended at any time." (Emphasis added.)

7. In this case, the initial Complaint contained the same basic allegations against SIMON in the Count entitled "Civil Theft," as are subsequently alleged in the Amended Complaint (see, Count V, Conversion). Paragraph 57 of the initial Complaint alleges that by refusing to pay to Plaintiff funds due him under their agreement, but by paying said sums to themselves or to others, "Defendants (SIMON included) have been guilty of criminal theft by conversion." Paragraph 67 of the Amended Complaint alleges that a number of the Defendants, SIMON included, "or someone acting on their behalves, received and cashed in excess of $30,000 worth of commission checks otherwise payable to Plaintiff."

8. The Amended Complaint supplies more factual clarity of the offending conduct by SIMON and other Defendants compared to the initial Complaint. The substance of Plaintiff's allegations against SIMON in both pleadings as they relate to conversion are the same: that SIMON and/or other Defendants stole from Plaintiff funds that were rightfully his and that such conduct constitutes conversion. As such, SIMON was on sufficient notice of "the basis of the claim" to warrant denial of SIMON's attempt to dismiss this Count, whether the claim is alleged as a "Civil Theft" claim as found in the initial Complaint, or is alleged as a "Conversion" claim as found in the Amended Complaint.

Count VII – Equitable Lien Count VIII – Constructive Trust

9. SIMON's Motion to Dismiss as to Counts VII and VIII is premised on the same argument as the attempt to dismiss Count V: that is, that Plaintiff is barred from alleging a "new" cause of action. The initial Complaint sought an equitable lien and constructive trust as to "bank" or other "accounts" in which commissions were deposited. Defendant argues that because the Amended Complaint now seeks an equitable lien and constructive trust on three specifically identified parcels of real estate not previously identified in the initial Complaint, these Counts as to SIMON should be dismissed. SIMON again relies on §733.703 (1), Fla. Stat. (2012).

10. SIMON's motion to dismiss as to these counts must fail for the same reason that its Motion to dismiss the conversion count must fail. Further, SIMON has no standing to object to the equitable lien and constructive trust counts because they relate to real property in which the Estate has no ownership interest.

11. As to the property known as 7020 Lions Head Lane, Boca Raton, Florida ("the St. Andrews Property"), on May 20, 2008, Shirley Bernstein and Simon Bernstein, as grantors, transferred title to the St. Andrews Property by quit claim deed to Shirley Bernstein as Trustee of the Shirley Bernstein Trust Agreement. As alleged in the Amended Complaint, the Shirley

Bernstein Trust Agreement is the current owner of the St. Andrews Property. (The Shirley Bernstein Trust is a party Defendant in this action.)

12. As to the property known as 2753 NW 34 Street, Boca Raton, Florida ("the Boca Madeira Property"), by Warranty Deed dated June 18, 2008, title to the Boca Madeira Property was transferred to Bernstein Family Realty, LLC. As alleged in the Amended Complaint, Bernstein Family Realty, LLC is the current owner of the Boca Madeira Property. (Bernstein Family Realty, LLC is a party Defendant in this action.)

13. As to the property known as 15807 Menton Bay Court, Delray Beach, Florida ("the Saturnia Isles Property"), as of July 10, 2006, the Saturnia Isles Property was owned by Ted S. Bernstein and Deborah L. Bernstein.

14. As a result of the property information set forth in paragraphs 11, 12 and 13, the Estate of Simon Bernstein is not the titled owner of the St. Andrews, Boca Madeira or Saturnia Isles Properties and hence has no standing to contest the imposition of an equitable lien or constructive trust on any of these properties. As such, SIMON's Motion to Dismiss should be denied.

The General Prayer for Attorney Fees and Costs Should be Stricken

15. SIMON is not entitled to attorney fees and costs as requested in the prayer for relief.

A) Section 733.106, which SIMON cites as authority, is part of the Probate Code (Chapter 733, et seq.) and does not apply in this case. Section 733.106(1) specifically states that "In all probate proceedings costs may be awarded as in chancery actions." This is not a probate proceeding. This is a civil action in which the Estate of Simon Bernstein has been substituted as a party defendant for acts committed by decedent Simon Bernstein prior to his death. On similar grounds subsections 733.106(2), (3) and (4) also do not apply. They either directly or by implication pertain to cases litigated in the Probate Court. As such, the statutory provisions cited are inapplicable to this civil action in the general jurisdiction division of this Circuit Court.

B) Similarly, Section 733.609 is equally inapplicable. It applies to attorney fees that may be awardable in cases wherein breach of fiduciary duty may be alleged and proven against a personal representative. This statute is wholly irrelevant in this case.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Honorable Court deny Defendant the Estate of Simon Bernstein's Motion to Dismiss and order the Estate to file an Answer within 10 days of the date of the Order.

Background

10. STANSBURY has worked in the insurance industry for virtually all of his adult life. After 30 years, he had become well-known and highly regarded by major insurance companies, their principals and others throughout the insurance industry, at all levels thereof, as well as by professionals, including attorneys, CPA's, financial advisors, wealth managers and others who were involved in serving, or otherwise dealing with insurers, insurance brokers and life insurance products.

11. SIMON BERNSTEIN dealt at sophisticated levels of the insurance industry and specialized in developing and marketing insurance concepts suitable for persons of high net worth to incorporate into their wealth management and estate planning.

12. TED BERNSTEIN, the son of SIMON BERNSTEIN, was also actively involved in selling life insurance products in conjunction with attorneys, CPAs and other professionals, to be incorporated into high net worth individuals' financial and estate planning.

13. TED BERNSTEIN approached STANSBURY, urging STANSBURY to spearhead the marketing of a unique insurance concept, newly developed by a prominent law firm, which was designed for use in the financial and estate planning of high net worth individuals.

14. TED BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that he knew of STANSBURY's expertise and reputation in the insurance and related industries, and that STANSBURY was skilled at and accustomed to speaking and marketing insurance products to groups of professionals. He realized that STANSBURY, because of his knowledge, reputation and abilities, would be well suited to market this concept nationwide through prominent and experienced professionals.

16. STANSBURY agreed to become an employee of LIC Holdings, Inc. and ARBITRAGE and agreed to a salary of 15% of net commissions received on all products, including renewals.

17. STANSBURY worked with diligence and skill, traveling throughout the United States, generating ever-increasing sales and generating very large commissions. By 2006, nationwide sales were resulting in substantial commissions on new policies and renewal commissions.

18. Also in 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that STANSBURY was being rewarded for his efforts and the explosive growth of the business, such that he would receive a 10% ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc.

19. In February of 2008, SIMON BERNSTEIN approached STANSBURY with the suggestion that rather than STANSBURY performing computations on a monthly basis as to how much should be paid to him based upon 15% of the commissions derived from policies sold by STANSBURY, the BERNSTEINS and STANSBURY should forego monthly payouts and defer compensation until the end of 2008, when year-end computations could be made. It was suggested that in December, year-end computations would be made and salaries would be paid in December 2008 or January of 2009. It was specifically represented to STANSBURY that neither SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN nor STANSBURY would take any compensation until the year-end accounting was performed in December of 2008 or January, 2009.

20. STANSBURY relied on SIMON BERNSTEIN's representations that, among other things, his time would be better spent building the business rather than performing monthly calculations of income. STANSBURY relied on SIMON BERNSTEIN's representation that they would all be paid identical annual salaries of not less than $1,000,000 at the end of 2008 to be applied against STANBURY's 15%. Any compensation to STANSBURY over and above his 15% would be paid to him in accordance with his ownership percentage of 10%.

21. STANSBURY, having no reason to believe that the representations by SIMON BERNSTEIN were false and only a ruse to keep him from inquiring as to corporate revenue and distributions, acceded to his being relieved of the bookkeeping duties regarding calculating the disposition of monies on a monthly basis throughout the year.

22. In 2008, STANSBURY received only $420,018.00, all from commissions earned for sales in 2007 but paid in the January of 2008. STANSBURY received no payments for commissions received after January, 2008.

23. Unbeknownst to STANSBURY at that time, SIMON BERNSTEIN was paid $3,756,229.00 and TED BERNSTEIN was paid $5,225,825.00 in 2008.

24. The net retained commissions by LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, not including renewals for 2008 were approximately $13,442,549.00. As such, STANSBURY was entitled to, at the very minimum, 15% of $13,442,549.00, or $2,016,382.35.

25. Since that time, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN have secreted commissions received by LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE into Bernstein family trusts and other entities as more specifically set forth below. Those trusts have since invested in real estate, also as more particularly set forth below.

26. Throughout 2009, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN continued to make false statements to STANSBURY to hide the fact that they had looted the corporations for their own personal benefit by withdrawing millions in 2008 and 2009, all to the financial detriment of STANSBURY. The BERNSTEINS represented that the money was not being paid as salary or distributions because the funds needed to be held in the corporate bank accounts to show to potential lenders the financial stability of the company.

ł

27. STANSBURY relied upon these continuing representations of Defendants to his detriment. Because STANSBURY was told that potential funding sources for the business needed to see that capital of the company was available, he took no action when he did not receive any compensation for 2009 and paid only $30,000 in 2010.

28. STANSBURY believes that some or all of the funds to which he was entitled and/or assets attributable to such funds were placed into certain entities, including but not limited to BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC and SHIRLEY'S TRUST. For example, based on information and belief, some or all of the funds to which STANSBURY was entitled were invested in certain parcels of real property, which parcels were conveyed to the trustee of SHIRLEY'S TRUST on or about May 20, 2008, including but not limited to a 4,220 square foot oceanfront condominium unit in a complex known as "The ARAGON" in Boca Raton, located at 2494 So. Ocean Boulevard, Boca Raton, Florida and a mansion in St. Andrew's Country Club located at 7020 Lions Head Lane, Boca Raton, Florida."

29. In order to continue their scheme to defraud, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN failed and refused to account for renewal commissions and failed to supply any financial information to STANSBURY concerning LIC Holdings, Inc. or ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC.

30. In furtherance of their scheme to deprive STANSBURY of salary he had earned and shareholder distributions to which he was entitled, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN intercepted mail addressed to STANSBURY, removing commission checks representing commissions due to STANSBURY, deposited the funds into their own accounts and otherwise converted the funds. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN also opened STANSBURY's mail containing checks payable to him which were unrelated to them and the businesses.

l

31. In 2011, the Defendants BERNSTEIN decided to deceive STANSBURY further. STANSBURY had for years been given K-1 statements reflecting his 10% ownership of LIC Holdings. At the end of 2011, TED BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that the company accountant had discovered a taxable event which could cause STANSBURY, as an owner of LIC Holdings to pay taxes on phantom income. TED BERNSTEIN promised that if STANSBURY would sign a paper ceding his 10% interest in LIC Holdings, he would not have to pay the tax. TED BERNSTEIN promised he would hold the paper, promising it would not become operative until STANSBURY and the Defendants BERNSTEIN discussed the situation further in the first quarter of 2012.

32. Because of the misrepresentations, willful concealments of material facts, duplicity and deceit practiced by Defendants upon STANSBURY, STANSBURY reasonably believed that Defendants had complied, or intended to comply with their obligations to STANSBURY under the contract between them. STANSBURY, therefore, was prevented from knowing for a period of years that the causes of action ASSERTED HEREIN existed.

33. By the second quarter of 2012, STANSBURY developed the belief that the BERNSTEINS' representations over the years were wholly false and he sought legal counsel.

34. STANSBURY has retained the law firm of Peter M. Feaman, P.A. and has agreed to pay it a reasonable fee for its services rendered herein.

35. STANSBURY hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

36. The relationship between STANSBURY and the Defendants, particularly as affected by Defendants' acts described in preceding paragraphs 19 through 27 created a situation where Defendants had sole access to receipts generated by STANSBURY's efforts, and to books and records reflecting said receipts and the other information from which can be calculated all moneys due to STANSBURY under his arrangement with Defendants.

37. The period of time during which STANSBURY has been deprived of monies due him spans approximately four and a half years. The various sources of revenue to Defendants of monies from which the amounts due STANSBURY may be calculated, the manner in which STANSBURY was to be paid, and the amount due STANSBURY all involve extensive and complicated accounts, and STANSBURY's remedy at law cannot be as full, adequate and expeditious as it is in equity.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff STANSBURY prays for an adjudication of Plaintiff's right to a full and complete accounting from Defendants, LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, and for such orders of Court as will require such Defendants to provide STANSBURY with all records and copies of documents from January 1, 2006 to the present, in order to reveal his right to, and the amount of all sums: (a) received as commissions to which STANSBURY was entitled to a share; (b) due to STANSBURY, whether paid or not; (c) paid to STANSBURY, whether for commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason; (d) paid to each of the BERNSTEIN Defendants out of monies received as commissions; (e) deposits of any and all moneys received as commissions by any Defendants to any accounts, including the name of the entity whose account was involved, the number(s) of each such account; the address of the branch or other facility through which any Defendant dealt with such entity; (f) calculations as to moneys paid, to be paid, or not to be paid to STANSBURY, together with an award of court costs and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

II. BREACH OF ORAL CONTRACT (Against LIC Holdings, Inc. and Arbitrage International Management, LLC)

38. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

39. The arrangement between STANSBURY and Defendants as described in paragraphs 16 and 24 above, constituted a contract between them.

40. An express term of that contract involved the commitment of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to calculate and to pay to STANSBURY all sums due to him under the contract, whether as commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason.

41. The Defendants initially performed the duties required of them under said contract.

42. However, Defendants breached their contract with STANSBURY by withholding from STANSBURY monies due him under the contract.

43. The withholding of such monies constitutes a material breach of the contract between STANSBURY and LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

44. There is due to STANSBURY from such Defendants all amounts due under said contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, LIC Holdings, Inc. and ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, jointly and severally, in excess of $1,500,000.00 for the amounts due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest, court costs and such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

III. BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY (Against SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN ("BERNSTEINS"))

45. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

46. At all material times hereto, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN were officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

47. As shareholders and officers of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN did have and have a fiduciary duty to STANSBURY to act in good faith towards STANSBURY and to act in the best interests of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

48. At all material times hereto, STANSBURY was and is a shareholder of LIC Holdings.

49. STANSBURY reposed trust and confidence in SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN as a result of their position as majority shareholders and officers of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

50. Further, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN held positions of advantage and control over STANSBURY, not only by virtue of their majority shareholder status, but by having access to the accounting books and records of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, to the exclusion of STANSBURY.

51. STANSBURY reasonably believed that the BERNSTEIN Defendants would deal with STANSBURY honestly and fairly and believed that such Defendants had no intention of hiding from STANSBURY any information as to the amounts due STANSBURY or payment of the money due to STANSBURY.

ĺ

ť

Ś

52. Moreover, when Defendants proposed to STANSBURY that STANSBURY cease being the one to calculate monies due from the commissions received, STANSBURY trusted the BERNSTEINS to make proper, accurate and complete calculations just as STANSBURY had done and to pay STANSBURY accordingly. As majority shareholders and directors of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, the BERNSTEINS were in a superior position of knowledge and control concerning the finances and affairs of those companies.

53. As a result of the foregoing, a fiduciary relationship existed between the BERNSTEINS and STANSBURY and there existed in STANSBURY complete trust in the BERNSTEIN Defendants.

54. The BERNSTEIN Defendants accepted the trust which STANSBURY reasonably placed in them.

55. The BERNSTEIN Defendants breached their fiduciary duty to STANSBURY by repeated conduct of self-dealing and violations of corporate protocol, including:

a) directing LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to make payments to third parties not employed by the corporations and who had performed no services on behalf of the corporations for the personal benefit of the BERNSTEINS;

b) directing the corporations to pay for personal expenses of the wives and other friends of the BERNSTEIN Defendants through corporate credit cards and other forms of payment, notwithstanding that they provided no services for the corporations;

c) transferring monies from LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to third party entities including the BERNSTEIN Defendants, the BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC and the

d) paying themselves exorbitant compensation to the exclusion of STANSBURY;

e) treating LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE as alter egos of themselves and otherwise handling the affairs of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE without regard to corporate protocol;

f) failing to convene annual meetings of the stockholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, in violation of Florida law;

g) committing corporate waste by unnecessarily expending corporate assets on unrelated corporate activities;

h) failing to account for the revenue and expenses of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to STANSBURY, who was entitled to compensation as an employee and as a minority shareholder;

i) directing LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to take actions to reduce the profit of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE so as to prevent STANSBURY from earning his just compensation, in violation of prior agreement of the parties.

56. SIMON BERNSTEIN further breached his fiduciary duty owed to STANSBURY as a minority shareholder by neglecting to perform his duties as an officer and director in a prudent and reasonable fashion.

57. Through Defendants BERNSTEINS' willful misrepresentations and withholding of material information as to their intentions and the purposes for which STANSBURY's payments were not being paid, and through their diversion from STANSBURY of amounts which should have been paid to him, such Defendants abused and betrayed STANSBURY's trust and confidence in them to STANSBURY's great detriment. STANSBURY has been deprived of the amounts due him, the precise amount of which cannot be calculated without access to Defendants' books and records and a full accounting by them.

58. The monetary damages suffered by STANSBURY as a result of the foregoing conduct was suffered by STANSBURY individually and not to the corporation LIC Holdings as a whole, because the conduct as described above prevented STANSBURY from obtaining the benefits of the bargain of his oral agreement with the corporations as more particularly described in Count II above.

59. The foregoing conduct by the BERNSTEINS was done with gross and intentional disregard of the rights of STANSBURY as an employee and minority shareholder of LIC Holdings.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, for damages in excess of $1,500,000.00 together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest, court costs and such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper. STANSBURY reserves the right to move to amend to request punitive damages in accordance with Florida Law.

IV. CIVIL THEFT (Against ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MARKETING, LLC)

11

60. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

61. This is an action for Civil Theft under Chapter 772, Florida Statutes, more specifically §772.11, Fla.Stat.

62. In February, 2012 and March, 2012, Defendant ARBITRAGE intercepted two separate checks made payable to William STANSBURY intended as payment to STANSBURY for matters arising wholly outside his business transactions with the BERNSTEINS, LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

Case: 1:13-cv-03643 Document #: 258-3 Filed: 08/27/16 Page 771 of 1000 PageID #:7211 Case: 17-3595 Document: 12-11 Filed: 03/12/2018 Pages: 1000

63. Notwithstanding that the checks made payable to William STANSBURY was for sums due STANSBURY by a third party not in connection with the aforesaid business transactions, ARBITRAGE and/or someone acting on its behalf, caused the negotiation of STANSBURY's checks, wrongfully endorsing the checks and retaining the sums that should have been payable to STANSBURY.

64. As a result of the foregoing, Defendant ARBITRAGE has been guilty of criminal theft by conversion with the criminal intent to steal his money and deprive STANSBURY of his possession and use thereof.

65. Written demand for payment of all amounts due STANSBURY has been made to Defendants, more than 30 days preceding the filing of this Complaint, to no avail. A copy of the demand letter is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendant, ARBITRAGE for three times the full amount of the check made payable to STANSBURY, together with pre-judgment interest and post-judgment interest, attorneys' fees, court costs and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

V. CONVERSION

66. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 60 through 65, inclusive.

67. Further, during 2012, Defendants TED BERNSTEIN, SIMON BERNSTEIN, LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE, or someone acting on their behalves, received and cashed in excess of $30,000.00 worth of commissions checks otherwise payable to Plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment for damages against Defendant, ABRITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN, LIC Holdings, Inc. and TED BERNSTEIN, together with pre-judgment interest and post-judgment interest, court costs and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

VI. FRAUD IN THE INDUCEMENT (Against Ted Bernstein and LIC Holdings, Inc.)

68. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

69. In the fourth quarter of 2011, TED BERNSTEIN embarked upon a plan to defraud from STANSBURY his 10% ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc. As set forth in paragraph 31 above Defendant TED BERNSTEIN fraudulently induced STANSBURY to sign a document giving up his 10% interest in and to LIC Holdings, Inc.

70. The ceding of his shares in LIC Holdings, Inc. was procured by fraud and STANSBURY relied upon the representations made by BERNSTEIN with regard to signing the document apparently ceding his stock.

71. It was reasonable for STANSBURY to rely on the representations made by BERNSTEIN because at that time STANSBURY was unaware of the breaches of fiduciary duty and breaches of the oral contract that had taken place.

72. As a result of STANSBURY's reliance, STANSBURY has been damaged by the loss of 10% of the shares of LIC Holdings and the rights and remedies to a shareholder related thereto.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for a judgment for damages against Defendants BERNSTEIN and LIC Holdings, Inc. for the damages caused by the fraudulent conduct of BERNSTEIN as described herein, together with reasonable costs, pre-judgment interest and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

VII. EQUITABLE LIEN

73. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, paragraphs 1 through 34, above.

74. Defendants, SIMON BERNSTEIN and/or TED BERNSTEIN wrongfully diverted funds from LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE that rightfully should have been paid to STANSBURY pursuant to their oral agreement.

75. Upon information and belief, SIMON BERNSTEIN and/or TED BERNSTEIN, or both, wrongfully diverted funds from LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE and acquired and/or maintained or improved property located at 7020 Lion's Head Lane, Boca Raton, Florida, legally described as

Lot 781, St. Andrews Country Club (a PUD) Plat No. 14 according to the plat thereof recorded in Plat Book 57, Page 132 of the public records of Palm Beach County, Florida.

76. Further, upon information and belief, as a result of the funds being wrongfully diverted from LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE, which otherwise rightfully belonged to and should have been paid to STANSBURY, the property legally described as

Lot 68, Block G Boca Madeira, Unit 2 according to the plat thereof recorded in Plat Book 32, Pages 59 and 60 of the public records of Palm Beach County, Florida, with a property address of 2753 NW 34 Street, Boca Raton, Florida, was encumbered with a mortgage representing wrongfully diverted funds which were loaned in the form of a second mortgage to Defendant, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC, a Florida limited liability company.

77. Upon information and belief, as a result of the funds being wrongfully diverted from LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE which otherwise should have been paid to STANSBURY, such funds were used to satisfy a mortgage for the benefit of TED BERNSTEIN on property legally described as

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the Court to declare and establish an equitable lien in favor of Plaintiff in an amount equal to the funds wrongfully diverted, on the property described herein, and on all other assets of Defendants or third parties as yet unknown, which assets have been purchased wholly or in part, improved or benefitted by the diverted funds due Plaintiff, together with court costs and such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

VIII. CONSTRUCTIVE TRUST

78. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 73 through 77 above.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the Court to declare and establish a constructive trust in favor of Plaintiff on the property described in paragraphs 75 through 77 in an amount equal to the funds wrongfully diverted and on all assets of Defendants or third parties as yet unknown, which assets have been purchased wholly or partly, improved or mortgaged by the diversion of said funds due Plaintiff. Plaintiff further prays for an award of court costs and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

IX. VIOLATION OF FLA. STAT. 607.1602 (As to Defendant, LIC Holdings, Inc.)

79. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, paragraphs 1 through 34, above.

80. STANSBURY owns 10% of the issued and outstanding shares of LIC Holdings and has owned these shares since 2006.

81. Pursuant to §607.1602 Fla. Stat. (2012), STANSBURY made demand on LIC Holdings to inspect and copy certain records. A copy of the Demand is attached hereto as Exhibit "A." LIC Holdings refused to respond to the request in direct violation of 607.1602 Fla. Stat. (2012).

82. Section 607.1604(2) Fla. Stat. (2012) states:

Ĺ

If a corporation does not, within a reasonable time, allow a shareholder to inspect and copy any other record, the shareholder who complies with §607.1602(2) and (3) may apply to the Circuit Court in the county where the corporation's principal office is located for an order to permit inspection and copying of the records demanded.

83. Section 607.1604 Fla. Stat. (2012) requires that the court dispose of an application brought under this section "on an expedited basis."

84. Pursuant to §607.1604(2) Fla. Stat. (2012), Plaintiff requests that this court summarily order inspection and copying of the record previously demanded at the corporation's expense.

85. Pursuant to §607.1604(3) Fla. Stat. (2012), STANSBURY is entitled to an award of his costs including reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in order to obtain the order and enforce his rights unless the corporation or its officers, director or agent proves that the refusal of the inspection is made in good faith because the corporation had a reasonable basis for doubt about the right of the shareholder to inspect or copy the records demanded.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, WILLIAM E. STANSBURY requests this Honorable Court to summarily order inspection and copying of the records of LIC Holdings, Inc. previously demanded, at the corporation's expense, together with an award of reasonable costs and attorneys' fees incurred herein.

Peter M. Feaman, Esq.

Nancy E. Guffey, Esq.

The undersigned represents William (Bill) Stansbury and we are writing this letter on his behalf. Mr. Stansbury received your proposed letter agreement reflecting LIC Holdings' proposal to indemnify its shareholders concerning policies sold under the Cambridge Financing Program. As a result of your proposal, Mr. Stansbury has reviewed with me in detail his dealings with you and your companies over the past 4 to 5 years.

......

After reviewing the facts with Mr. Stansbury, some of which will be summarized below, I was shocked that he had not consulted legal counsel until now. Be that as it may, and based upon the facts presented to us, we believe you have engaged in fraud, civil theft, breaches of fiduciary duties, and breach of contract, just to name a few. The purpose of this letter is to a). respond to your indemnity proposal and b). request that you pass this letter on to your counsel immediately in the off-chance that these very serious matters can be resolved prior to the filing of legal action. The issues can be summarized as follows:

1. The first issue concerns you and your company's failure to pay salary compensation to Mr. Stansbury. Mr. Stansbury has been making inquiries concerning this for the past 5 months, but to no avail. Mr. Stansbury's claim for unpaid salary arises from three categories:

į

ĺ

ţ

a. Failure to pay salary based on net retained commissions.

i. Based upon reports prepared by your company for the period of 2007 through 2011, LIC Holdings, Inc. and/or Arbitrage International Holdings, n/k/a Arbitrage International Management, LLC, received $35,384,246.00 in net retained commissions. According to Mr. Stansbury's salary arrangement, he is entitled to 15% of those net retained commissions, which amounts to $5,307,636.90. During this time period, Mr. Stansbury's salary compensation was $2,844,910.00. The shortfall in salary owed to Mr. Stansbury is $2,462,726.90.

ii. There is salary compensation owed to Mr. Stansbury as a result of bridge loans in 2008. You received a $2,000,000.00 settlement in 2010 resulting from the resolution of a lawsuit involving Global Secured Capital. Mr. Stansbury is entitled to 15% of those funds, which is $300,000.00.

iii. In addition, you received $507,891.00 in commissions in connection with the Biviano matter. Mr. Stansbury is entitled to 15% of those funds, which is $76,183.65.

iv. In April of 2012, you received three commissions totaling approximately $200,000.00 in the Levine, Wiss and Berley matters. Mr. Stansbury has been requesting payment of this for weeks, again to no avail. Mr. Stansbury is due salary compensation for these items in the amount of $30,000.00.

Therefore, Mr. Stansbury's total claim for salary arising out of net retained commissions is approximately $2,868,910.55.

The liability for payment of this salary is not limited to LIC Holdings, Inc. or Arbitrage International Management, LLC. This liability also flows to you individually as a result of your breaches of your fiduciary duty owed to Mr. Stansbury and utter failure to abide by corporate governance standards, which conduct is more particularly described below.

b. Mr. Stansbury is also due unpaid salary based on 15% of all renewal commissions since 2008. Mr. Stansbury's salary claim for renewal commissions cannot as yet be determined with specificity due to the fact that you and your office have been opening mail directed to Mr. Stansbury and negotiating checks made payable to him by falsifying his endorsement and depositing those checks into accounts which only you control. This conduct constitutes civil theft and breach of fiduciary duty. We believe this claim amounts to hundreds of thousands of dollars.

c. Salary compensation for 2008. Mr. Stansbury has recently learned that you and Mr. Simon Bernstein received $8,982,124.00 in salary in 2008. By contrast, Mr. Stansbury received $420,018.00, paid to him in January 2008, based on policies sold in 2007. He received zero (no salary compensation) for his 2008 production. It is obvious that you and Simon treated your corporations as personal ATM machines, while completely ignoring your fiduciary Case: 17-3595 Document: 12-11

responsibilities to your employee and minority shareholder, Mr. Stansbury. It further appears that after the exorbitant salaries were paid to you, you then loaned the money back to the corporation at an interest rate significantly above market rates in order to meet the cash flow needs of the various entities, again, clearly disregarding your corporate governance responsibilities.

2. Indemnification issues.

Mr. Stansbury has been served with three lawsuits from Phoenix Insurance Company and one from Mr. Wright seeking indemnification as a result of agent misconduct which was in no way attributable to the conduct of Mr. Stansbury. Although all of these matters have been settled, because he was the qualifying agent of record for other policies, he could be the subject of future litigation for refunds of commissions paid. All of these commissions were paid over to you or your companies.

The Indemnification Agreement which you sent to Mr. Stansbury is completely insufficient. You have a duty as a matter of law to indemnify Mr. Stansbury. Your offer of future indemnity is contingent upon "all" commissions that have been received by LIC's present or past shareholders be turned over to LIC. This is nothing short of extortion. Further, your second paragraph states that LIC is "presently insolvent" and has a "negative net worth." You then conclude with the sentence that with the indemnification agreement in place, LIC "may" have sufficient funds to meet its current obligations. Therefore, a simple indemnification from LIC Holdings to Mr. Stansbury is insufficient. Any such indemnification would have to be personally guaranteed by you and Mr. Simon Bernstein.

3. Unauthorized interception of U.S. Mail.

I have been given the understanding that your office has been opening mail directed to Mr. Stansbury personally. This is a federal offense and also constitutes a breach of the fiduciary duty you owe to Mr. Stansbury as an employee and minority shareholder.

There has been no accounting to Mr. Stansbury for any of the checks which may have been sent to him personally on which his signature has been forged, the checks cashed and placed out of the reach of Mr. Stansbury. In 2012, Mr. Stansbury has been receiving checks from Phoenix Life Insurance Company and TransAmerica Life Insurance Company. Mr. Stansbury has been holding these checks. They have now been remitted to the undersigned as attorney for Mr. Stansbury. This office is holding these funds in a separate interest-bearing trust account pending the resolution of this matter.

With regard to all of the other insurance companies for whom Mr. Stansbury is listed as the qualifying agent, he has now informed those companies that all future renewal commissions paid to him personally be sent to Mr. Stansbury at his home address. These funds will then be remitted to the undersigned counsel of record for Mr. Stansbury. We will place these funds in a separate interest-bearing trust account as well. Any attempts by you to contact these insurance Case: 17-3595 Document: 12-11 companies will be considered a tortious interference of his business relationship and such activity will be added as a claim in any future legal proceedings.

4. Shareholder status.

Mr. Stansbury has been a 10% shareholder of LIC Holdings, Inc., pursuant to the terms of a Shareholders Agreement. On behalf of Mr. Stansbury, demand is hereby made, pursuant to Florida Statute 607.1602, for inspection of the corporate records including the following:

I. Minutes of the Board of Directors meetings from January 1, 2008 to the present.

II. Minutes of Shareholders' meetings from January 1, 2008 to the present.

III. Records of any actions taken by the Shareholders and/or the Board of Directors without a meeting, from January 1, 2008 to the present.

IV. Accounting and financial records of LIC Holdings, Inc., Arbitrage International Management, LLC, formerly known as Arbitrage International Holdings, LLC, and all other subsidiary or affiliated companies under your control, including, without limitation, income tax returns, general ledgers, balance sheets, profit and loss statements, stock books, bank statements, loan agreements or guarantees, and any other financial books and records from January 1, 2008 to the present.

Mr. Stansbury is seeking to inspect these records in good faith and for the purpose of determining if misappropriation of corporate assets for improper purposes has previously taken or is presently taking place.

I have been made aware of a letter dated December 22, 2011 in which Mr. Stansbury purportedly "ceded" his shares of stock in LIC Holdings, Inc. back to the company. This letter was obtained under false pretenses and is not recognized by Mr. Stansbury as validly conveying his ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc.

Please have your legal counsel contact us within ten (10) days. Should we fail to receive a response within that time, Mr. Stansbury will take legal action to protect his rights and interests.

Very truly yours,

PETER M. FEAMAN, P.A.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE 15th JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA

WILLIAM E. STANSBURY,

CASE NO: 50 2012 CA 013933 MB AA

Plaintiff,

vs.

TED S. BERNSTEIN; DONALD TESCHER and ROBERT SPALLINA, as co-personal representatives of the ESTATE OF SIMON L. BERNSTEIN and as co-trustees of the SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT dated May 20, 2008; LIC HOLDINGS, INC.; ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, f/k/a ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, LLC; BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC, Defendants.

DEFENDANT'S, TED S. BERNSTEIN, MOTION TO DISMISS COUNTS III, VII, AND VIII

Defendant, Ted S. Bernstein ("Bernstein"), moves to dismiss Counts III, VII, and VIII of the Amended Complaint (the "Complaint"), and states:

1. The claims asserted in Counts III and VIII by Plaintiff against Bernstein belong to one or both of the legal entities known as LIC Holdings, Inc., a Florida corporation ("LIC") and/or Arbitrage International Management, LLC, a Florida limited liability company ("Arbitrage") (collectively the "Companies"). Plaintiff asserts that Bernstein breached a fiduciary duty owed to the Companies and seeks an award of monies which necessarily would flow back to the Companies, not directly to Plaintiff. Thus, in Counts III and VIII, Plaintiff asserts derivative claims on behalf of the Companies.

4-23-13

2. For example, in paragraph 47, Plaintiff alleges that Bernstein had a fiduciary duty "to act in good faith towards Stansbury and to act in the best interests of LIC Holdings and Arbitrage." The breaches alleged in paragraph 55, if proven, would result only in direct harm to the Companies by virtue, of among other things, (a) directing payments of Company money to third parties; (b) directing Companies to pay improper expenses; (c) transferring monies from Companies to third parties; (d) paying exorbitant compensation; and (e) committing corporate waste.

Į.

3. Any damages for these claims, if proven, would flow to and be property of the Companies, and nothing would flow directly to any shareholder. Thus, these are classic derivative claims. Plaintiff senses that, so he alleges that any damages were suffered by him individually and not to the corporation (Complaint, ¶58), but such allegation cannot change the character of these derivative claims. If, hypothetically, the Company paid $100 in extra compensation to someone, that would mean, at best, that the Company will receive $100, which the Company is under no obligation to distribute to anyone. In Counts III and VIII, Plaintiff does not assert any injury to himself which is separate from the injury allegedly suffered by the Companies, as the only injury claimed by Plaintiff would be a pro-rata percentage of the alleged damages which would have been suffered solely by the Companies. Thus, these claims are wholly (or at least partly) derivative.

4. The derivative action claims must be dismissed for several reasons. First, because Plaintiff in this case has direct and derivative claims filed in the same lawsuit, there is a misjoinder issue which mandates the dismissal of the Complaint. Plaintiff cannot sue in different capacities in the same lawsuit. Department of Ins. v. Coopers & Lybrand, 570 So. 2d 369, 370 (Fla. 3d DCA 1990); Karnegis v. Lazzo, 243 So. 2d 642 (Fla. 3d DCA 1971) (plaintiff may not by shareholders' derivative action seek in same lawsuit accounting from corporation when he personally sought accounting and damages from majority stockholders, officers, and directors); 1 Am.Jur.2d Actions § 94 (1994) ("One cannot in the same action sue in more than one distinct right or capacity" citing Coopers & Lybrand); Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.110(g) ("A pleader may set up in the same action as many claims or causes of action ... in the same right as he has ...") (emphasis added).

end the state of the second

5. Second, Plaintiff lacks standing to bring derivative claims on behalf of Arbitrage because he was never a shareholder of Arbitrage, and makes no such allegation in his Complaint.

6. Third, Plaintiff lacks standing to bring any derivative claims on behalf of LIC or Arbitrage because, as alleged in paragraph 31, Plaintiff ceded his 10% interest in LIC. Even if Plaintiff is no longer a shareholder as a result of alleged fraud, the fact remains that Plaintiff is not currently a shareholder of LIC. Therefore, Counts III and VIII of the Complaint should be dismissed. As a disgruntled former shareholder of the Corporation, Plaintiff has no legal standing to assert derivative claims at this juncture because he was not a shareholder at the time the suit was filed and he is no longer a shareholder of the Corporation, as required by Florida law. See§ 607.07401, Fla. Stat.; Timko v. Triarsi, 898 So. 2d 89, 91 (Fla. 5th DCA 2005) (holding that once the complaining shareholders' shares were repurchased, the complaining former shareholder could not continue to prosecute a derivative claim).

7. Fourth, Plaintiff also fails to state a derivative claim because the Complaint fails to allege that Plaintiff made a demand on the Corporation to bring these claims before filing their Counterclaim. Allegations of a demand is a statutory pre-requisite for maintaining a derivative action. § 607.07401(2). The Complaint also is not verified as required by that statute.

8. Fifth, as to the merits, Plaintiff's individual claim against Bernstein for the alleged breaches of fiduciary duty relating to Plaintiff's rights as shareholder of LIC are improper. As an officer and director of LIC, Bernstein owed a fiduciary duty to the Company and the shareholders as a whole, not as to any particular shareholder or group of shareholders. Shareholders must bring a derivative action to pursue a claim against an officer or director unless the alleged injury is separate and distinct from any injury the complaining party suffered as a shareholder, in common with all other shareholders. Because Plaintiff fails to allege any injury separate and apart from the alleged injury Plaintiff suffered as a shareholder, in common with all other shareholders, Plaintiff lacks standing to bring any individual claim against Bernstein.

9. There is a clear and necessary distinction between an individual action and one brought in a derivative capacity. Alario v. Miller, 354 So. 2d 925, 926 (Fla. 2d DCA 1978). The body of the complaint determines whether the injury is direct to the stockholder making the cause of action individual to him or whether the injury is indirect as to the stockholder and the cause of action is derivative from the corporation. Id. The nature of the injuries alleged and the wrongs sought to be remedied are the key to determining whether an action is derivative or individual. Id.

10. The law "is well-established that if a plaintiff sues in a stockholder capacity for corporate mismanagement, she must sue derivatively in the corporation's name." Kloha v. Duda, 246 F. Supp. 2d 1237, 1242 (M.D. Fla. 2003)(citing Empire Life Ins. Co. of Am. v. Valdak Corp., 468 F.2d 330, 335 (5th Cir. 1972)). This rule is a necessity because "[i]f each shareholder could sue individually for his losses, the wrongdoer would be subject to as many suits as there were stockholders in the corporation." Empire Life, 468 F.2d at 335 (citations and quotations omitted). If the injury to the individual shareholder is not direct, but rather indirect, the injury is insufficient to allow the shareholder to bring a direct claim. Id. In other words, the member can bring a direct claim: in a case where the stockholder shows a violation of duty owed directly to him. That exception to the general rule does not arise, however, merely because the acts complained of resulted in damage both to the corporation and to the stockholder, but is confined to cases where the wrong itself amounts to a breach of duty owed to the stockholder personally.

Empire Life, 468 F.2d at 335 (citation omitted) (emphasis added).

WHEREFORE, Defendant, Ted S. Bernstein, respectfully requests that this Court dismiss

Counts III, VII, and VIII; award Defendant his costs and attorneys' fees pursuant to any applicable contract or statute; and grant such other relief as is just.

I. COUNT III - BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY

1. The Plaintiff's allegations in Court III are based on the premise that he was owed a fiduciary duty by Simon Bernstein as a result of being, at all material times, a shareholder of LIC Holdings. See paragraph 48 of the Amended Complaint.

3. However, the Plaintiff fails to attach any document as an Exhibit to the Amended Complaint evidencing an ownership interest of any kind in LIC Holdings.

- 4. Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.130(a) reads, as follows:
 - (a) Instruments Attached. All bonds, notes, bills of exchange, contracts, accounts, or documents upon which action may be brought or defense made, or a copy thereof or a copy of the portions thereof material to the pleadings, shall be incorporated in or attached to the pleadings. No papers shall be unnecessarily annexed as exhibits. The pleadings shall contain no unnecessary recitals of deeds, documents, contracts, or other instruments. (emphasis added).

A copy of Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.130 is attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and incorporated hereto by reference.

5. As the Plaintiff has failed to attach any paper or other document to the Amended Complaint to substantiate his alleged shareholder status in LIC Holdings, a Florida Corporation there can be no cause of action against the moving Defendants for a breach of fiduciary duty.

6. As such, Count III must be dismissed for failure to state a cause of action.

II. COUNT V - CONVERSION

ĺ

ļ

1. On November 6, 2012, the Plaintiff filed his Statement of Claim in the Estate of Simon Bernstein, pending in Palm Beach County, Florida. Exhibit "A" to the Statement of Claim is a copy of the Plaintiffs then pending Complaint and Jury Demand (identified as the "Pending Action") filed by the Plaintiff on July 30, 2012. A copy of the Statement of Claim (w/Exhibit "A" thereto) is attached hereto as Exhibit "B" and incorporated herein by reference.

3. Paragraph 3 of the Statement of Claim expressly states, "The amount of the Claim is in excess of 2.5 million dollars, which the Claimant is entitled to recover under the claims set forth in the Complaint..." (emphasis added).

4. As can be seen, the Pending Action does not contain a Count for Conversion.

5. Florida Statute 733.703(1) clearly states that, "no additional charge may be imposed by a Claimant who files a claim against the estate." A copy of Florida Statute 733.703 is attached hereto as Exhibit "C" and incorporated herein by reference.

6. As such, the Plaintiff cannot now bring an action for Conversion against the moving Defendants as he is limited to the claims in the Pending Action, incorporated by reference into his Statement of Claim.

7. Based on the foregoing, Count V of the Amended Complaint must be dismissed for failure to state of cause of action.

COUNT VII - EOUITABLE LIEN

1. Count VIII of the Pending Action is also titled "Equitable Lien", comprised of paragraphs 59 through 61.

2. Paragraph 59 of the Pending Action refers to paragraphs 54 through 58, inclusive.

Paragraphs 54 through 58 of the Pending Action are part of Count VII, titled "Fraud", (against all Defendants).

4. While the Amended Complaint does include Count VI, titled "Fraud in the Inducement" against Ted Bernstein and LIC Holdings Inc., it does not contain a Count for Fraud against the moving Defendants.

5. As a result and to the extent Count VII of the Amended Complaint is based, in whole or in part, on an alleged Fraud, it cannot now be raised against the moving Defendants.

6. Additionally and more significantly, Count VII of the Pending Action is directed solely to "bank" or other "accounts" into which commissions were allegedely deposited.

7. However, Count VII of the Amended Complaint goes beyond such accounts and requests an equitable lien against three (3) parcels of real property located in Palm Beach County, Florida. See paragraphs 75, 76 and 77 of the Amended Complaint.

8. Florida Statute 733.703(1) clearly states that "no additional charge may be imposed by a Claimant who files a claim against the estate."

9. As such, the Plaintiff cannot now bring an action for an Equitable Lien against the referenced parcels of real property, as he is limited to the claims in the Pending Action incorporated by reference into his Statement of Claim.

COUNT VIII - CONSTRUCTIVE TRUST

1. Count VIII of the Amended Complaint also refers to the same three (3) parcels of real property located in Palm Beach County, Florida which were not part of the Plaintiff's allegations in the Pending Action incorporated by reference into his Statement of Claim.

2. Count X of the Pending Action is titled "Constructive Trust", is comprised solely of paragraphs 66 through 68.

3. Paragraphs 67 and 68 refer to "bank" or "other accounts" into which commissions were deposited. There is no allegation of any kind directed to any parcel of real property.

4. Florida Statute 733.703(1) clearly states that "no additional charge may be imposed by a Claimant who files a claim against the Estate."

5. As such, the Plaintiff cannot now bring an action for a Constructive Trust against the three (3) parcels of real property referenced in Count VIII of the Amended Complaint, as he is limited to the claims in the Pending Action incorporated by reference into his Statement of Claim.

6. Based on the foregoing, Count VIII of the Amended Complaint must be dismissed for failure to state a cause of action.

The DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE OF the STATE OF FLORIDA, etc., Appellants, v.

COOPERS & LYBRAND, a general, partnership, Appellees.

No. 89-2940.

Nov. 13, 1990. Rehearing Denied Dec. 19, 1990.

Department of Insurance appealed from order of the Circuit Court, Dade County, Steven D. Robinson, J., dismissing its complaint against accounting firm in eight of nine capacities. The District Court of Appeal held that Department could not bring action against accounting firm for breach of contract, negligence, misrepresentation, and breach of fiduciary duty in more than one capacity.

PER CURIAM.

The plaintiff, the Department of Insurance of the State of Florida [Department], appeals the trial court's order dismissing its complaint in eight of nine capacities. We affirm.

The Department filed an amended complaint against the accounting firm of Coopers & Lybrand [C & L] seeking damages for breach of contract, negligence, misrepresentation, and breach of fiduciary duty. In its complaint the Department set up causes of action accruing to it in nine distinct capacities: as the Department, as the court appointed receiver of the Insurance Exchange of the Americas; and as the court appointed receiver of seven different insurance syndicates. The causes of action accruing to the Department in each capacity were not set forth in separate counts or otherwise pleaded separately.

C & L responded to the amended complaint by filing an omnibus motion to dismiss and for a more definite statement. The trial court advised the parties that rather than dismissing the amended complaint, it would enter a final order dismissing the causes of action brought by the Department in eight of its nine capacities to facilitate an appeal. The trial court then directed the Department to choose in which capacity it would pursue in this action. In response, the Department chose to continue the lawsuit in its capacity as the court appointed receiver of the Insurance Exchange of the Americas. The trial court then dismissed the claims brought by the Department in its other eight capacities without prejudice to file separate actions on those claims. The Department appeals from the order dismissing its claims in eight of its nine capacities.

Rule 1.110(g), Florida Rules of Civil Procedure (1989) states in pertinent part: "A pleader may set up in the same action as many claims or causes of action or defenses in the same right as he has ...". This rule "forbids the joinder of causes which arise out of separate rights." Horowitz v. United Investors Corp., 227 So.2d 719, 721 (Fla. 3d DCA 1969), cert. denied, 237 So.2d 180 (Fla.1970); see also General Dynamics Corp. v. Hewitt, 225 So.2d 561, 563 (Fla. 3d DCA 1969) (quoting 1 Am.Jur.2d Actions § 125 (1962)) ("One cannot in the same action sue in more than one distinct right or capacity."). Causes of action accruing to a plaintiff in different capacities must be brought separately regardless of whether or not the causes of action arise "out of the same occurrence because the respective causes of action are not 'in the same right.' " Metropolitan Dade County v. Hicks, 323 So.2d 590, 591 (Fla. 3d DCA 1975) (citing Pensacola Elec. Co. v. Soderlind, 60 Fla. 164, 53 So. 722 (1910) and Latimer v. Sears Roebuck & Co., 285 F.2d 152 (5th Cir.1960)).

Upon a review of the amended complaint filed in the instant case, we find that the Department improperly attempted to sue in *371 more than one capacity in one lawsuit. The Department joined causes of action accruing to it in nine different capacities. Therefore, the trial court properly found that the Department could not sue in more than one capacity in the same action. The Department, as a party holding rights of action in separate capacities, must enforce those rights in separate actions. The trial court also correctly directed the Department to choose in which capacity it would pursue this action and dismissed the claims the Department elected not to pursue in this action without prejudice to the Department to institute separate actions on the dismissed causes of action. See Pensacola Elec. Co. v. Soderlind, 60 Fla. 164, 53 So. 722 (1910) (proper procedure is for party to elect which of improperly joined claims it wishes to proceed on in original suit); Karnegis v. Lazzo, 243 So.2d 642 (Fla. 3d DCA 1971) (trial court should have granted motion to dismiss, with leave to plaintiff to file amended complaint, and without prejudice to plaintiff to file separate action on cause of action not included in new amended complaint).

James G. KARNEGIS, George C. Karnegis, Theodora Karnegis and Royal Baking Co., Inc., a Florida corporation, Appellants, > v. Aristides LAZZO, Appellee.

> > No. 70--1220.

Feb. 9, 1971.

Minority stockholder brought suit against majority stockholders and corporation, alleging practices of individual defendants which were financially detrimental to the corporation, and seeking both accounting by individual defendants to the corporation and accounting and damages from individual defendants to plaintiff personally, and defendants moved to dismiss and to strike portions of the amended complaint. The Circuit Court for Dade County, George E. Schulz, J., denied motions, and defendants brought interlocutory appeal. The District Court of Appeal held that complaint stated cause of action, but that complaint contained misjoinder of causes of action, and that court should have granted the motion to dismiss, with leave to plaintiff to file an amended complaint setting forth either derivative stockholder's cause of action or plaintiff's separate personal cause of action, without prejudice to file a separate action on cause of action not so included in new amended complaint.

Order affirmed in part and reversed in part, and cause remanded.

individual defendants owned the remainder of the stock, representing the majority interest. Plaintiff was secretary of the corporation. The individual defendants were officers and directors thereof. Alleging various actions and practices of the individual defendants which were financially detrimental to the corporation, including payment to themselves of excessive salaries, and alleging their negotiation of a proposed sale of all assets of the corporation to an outside party, at a price alleged to be less than the value thereof with separate financial benefits to accrue therefrom to the individual defendants, and which was alleged to be an indirect violation of an agreement between the stockholders against sale of stock without opportunity of stockholders to buy the same, proceeding by derivative stockholder action for the benefit of the corporation, the plaintiff sought accounting by the individual defendants to the corporation. Also, plaintiff personally sought accounting and damages from said defendants. In the amended complaint the two causes of action were not set forth in separate counts, or otherwise pleaded separately.

The defendants filed a lengthy motion to dismiss the amended complaint, contending generally that the allegations were insufficient upon which to predicate relief, and including a ground claiming improper joinder of causes of action. The defendants also filed a motion to strike certain portions of the amended complaint. The trial court denied the motions to dismiss and to strike, and the defendants appealed.

[1][2] We uphold the order of the trial court to the extent that it constituted a ruling that the allegations of the amended complaint were sufficient to state the causes of action referred to above. However, on authority of General Dynamics Corporation v. Hewitt, Fla.App.1969, 225 So.2d 561, we are of the opinion that the trial court committed error in rejecting the ground of the motion to dismiss claiming misjoinder of causes of action. On the authority of the cited cases, we hold that the trial court should have granted the motion to dismiss, with leave to the plaintiff to file an amended complaint setting forth either the derivative stockholder's (corporation's) cause of action or the plaintiff's separate personal cause of action against the individual defendants, without prejudice to the plaintiff to file a separate action on the cause of action not so included in such new amended

1971 Amendment. The change requires a more complete designation of the document that is filed so that it may be more rapidly identified. It also specifies the applicability of the subdivision to all of the various documents that can be filed. For example, a motion to dismiss should now be entitled "defendant's motion to dismiss the complaint" rather than merely "motion" or "motion to dismiss."

1972 Amendment. Subdivision (a) is amended to make a reply mandatory when a party seeks to avoid an affirmative defense in an answer or third-party answer. It is intended to eliminate thereby the problems exemplified by Tuggle v. Maddox, 60 So. 2d 158 (Fla. 1952), and Dickerson v. Orange State Oil Co., 123 So. 2d 562 (Fla. 2d DCA 1960). . . .

RULE 1.110. GENERAL RULES OF PLEADING

Forms of Pleadings. Forms of action and technical forms for seeking (a) relief and of pleas, pleadings, or motions are abolished. · .

Claims for Relief. A pleading which sets forth a claim for relief, (b) whether an original claim, counterclaim, crossclaim, or third-party claim, must state a cause of action and shall contain (1) a short and plain statement of the grounds upon which the court's jurisdiction depends, unless the court already has jurisdiction and the claim needs no new grounds of jurisdiction to support it, (2) a short and plain statement of the ultimate facts showing that the pleader is entitled to relief, and (3) a demand for judgment for the relief to which the pleader deems himself or herself entitled. Relief in the alternative or of several different types may be demanded. Every complaint shall be considered to demand general relief.

When filing an action for foreclosure of a mortgage on residential real property the complaint shall be verified. When verification of a document is required, the document filed shall include an oath, affirmation, or the following statement:

"Under penalty of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged therein are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief."

(c) The Answer. In the answer a pleader shall state in short and plain terms the pleader's defenses to each claim asserted and shall admit or deny the averments on which the adverse party relies. If the defendant is without knowledge, the defendant shall so state and such statement shall operate as a denial. Denial shall fairly meet the substance of the averments denied. When a pleader intends in good faith to deny only a part of an averment, the pleader shall specify so much of it as is true and shall deny the remainder. Unless the pleader intends in good faith to controvert all of the averments of the preceding pleading, the pleader may make denials as specific denials of designated averments or may generally deny all of the averments except such designated averments as the pleader expressly admits, but when the pleader does so intend to controvert all of its averments, including averments of the grounds upon which the court's jurisdiction depends, the pleader may do so by general denial.

Affirmative Defenses. In pleading to a preceding pleading a party (d) shall set forth affirmatively accord and satisfaction, arbitration and award, assumption of risk, contributory negligence, discharge in bankruptcy, duress, estoppel, failure of consideration, fraud, illegality, injury by fellow servant, laches, license, payment, release, res judicata, statute of frauds, statute of limitations, waiver, and any other matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense. When a party has mistakenly designated a defense as a counterclaim or a counterclaim as a defense, the court, on terms if justice so requires, shall treat the pleading as if there had been a proper designation. Affirmative defenses appearing on the face of a prior pleading may be asserted as grounds for a motion or defense under rule 1.140(b); provided this shall not limit amendments under rule 1.190 even if such ground is sustained.

Effect of Failure to Deny. Averments in a pleading to which a (e) responsive pleading is required, other than those as to the amount of damages, are admitted when not denied in the responsive pleading. Averments in a pleading to which no responsive pleading is required or permitted shall be taken as denied or avoided.

(f) Separate Statements. All averments of claim or defense shall be made in consecutively numbered paragraphs, the contents of each of which shall be limited as far as practicable to a statement of a single set of circumstances, and a paragraph may be referred to by number in all subsequent pleadings. Each claim founded upon a separate transaction or occurrence and each defense other than denials shall be stated in a separate count or defense when a separation facilitates the clear presentation of the matter set forth.

(g) Joinder of Causes of Action; Consistency. A pleader may set up in the same action as many claims or causes of action or defenses in the same right as the pleader has, and claims for relief may be stated in the alternative if separate items make up the cause of action, or if 2 or more causes of action are joined. A party may also set forth 2 or more statements of a claim or defense alternatively, either in 1 count or defense or in separate counts or defenses. When 2 or more statements are made in the alternative and 1 of them, if made independently, would be sufficient, the pleading is not made insufficient by the insufficiency of 1 or more of the alternative statements. A party may also state as many separate claims or defenses as that party has, regardless of consistency and whether based on legal or equitable grounds or both. All pleadings shall be construed so as to do substantial justice.

(h) Subsequent Pleadings. When the nature of an action permits pleadings subsequent to final judgment and the jurisdiction of the court over the parties has not terminated, the initial pleading subsequent to final judgment shall be designated a supplemental complaint or petition. The action shall then proceed in the same manner and time as though the supplemental complaint or petition were the initial pleading in the action, including the issuance of any needed process. This subdivision shall not apply to proceedings that may be initiated by motion under these rules.

Committee Notes

1971 Amendment. Subdivision (h) is added to cover a situation usually arising in divorce judgment modifications, supplemental declaratory relief actions, or trust supervision. When any subsequent proceeding results in a pleading in the strict technical sense under rule 1.100(a), response by opposing parties will follow the same course as though the new pleading were the initial pleading in the action. The time for answering and authority for defenses under rule 1.140 will apply. The last sentence exempts post judgment motions under rules 1.480(c), 1.530, and 1.540, and similar proceedings from its purview.

607.07401 Shareholders' derivative actions.—

(1) A person may not commence a proceeding in the right of a domestic or foreign corporation unless the person was a shareholder of the corporation when the transaction complained of occurred or unless the person became a shareholder through transfer by operation of law from one who was a shareholder at that time.

(2) A complaint in a proceeding brought in the right of a corporation must be verified and allege with particularity the demand made to obtain action by the board of directors and that the demand was refused or ignored by the board of directors for a period of at least 90 days from the first demand unless, prior to the expiration of the 90 days, the person was notified in writing that the corporation rejected the demand, or unless irreparable injury to the corporation would result by waiting for the expiration of the 90-day period. If the corporation commences an investigation of the charges made in the demand or complaint, the court may stay any proceeding until the investigation is completed.

(3) The court may dismiss a derivative proceeding if, on motion by the corporation, the court finds that one of the groups specified below has made a determination in good faith after conducting a reasonable investigation upon which its conclusions are based that the maintenance of the derivative suit is not in the best interests of the corporation. The prporation shall have the burden of proving the independence and good faith of the group making the determination and the reasonableness of the investigation. The determination shall be made by:

(a) A majority vote of independent directors present at a meeting of the board of directors, if the independent directors constitute a quorum;

(b) A majority vote of a committee consisting of two or more independent directors appointed by a majority vote of independent directors present at a meeting of the board of directors, whether or not such independent directors constitute a quorum; or

(c) A panel of one or more independent persons appointed by the court upon motion by the corporation.

(4) A proceeding commenced under this section may not be discontinued or settled without the court's approval. If the court determines that a proposed discontinuance or settlement will substantially affect the interest of the corporation's shareholders or a class, series, or voting group of shareholders, the court shall direct that notice be given to the shareholders affected. The court may determine which party or parties to the proceeding shall bear the expense of giving the notice.

(5) On termination of the proceeding, the court may require the plaintiff to pay any defendant's reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, incurred in defending the proceeding if it finds that the proceeding was commenced without reasonable cause.

(6) The court may award reasonable expenses for maintaining the proceeding, including reasonable attorney's fees, to a successful plaintiff or to the person commencing the proceeding who receives any relief, whether by judgment, compromise, or settlement, and require that the person account for the remainder of any proceeds to the corporation; however, this subsection does not apply to any relief rendered for the benefit of injured shareholders only and limited to a recovery of the loss or damage of the injured shareholders.

(7) For purposes of this section, "shareholder" includes a beneficial owner whose shares are held in a voting trust or held by a nominee on his or her behalf.

District Court of Appeal of Florida, Fifth District.

Mark TIMKO, Appellant, v.

Onofrio TRIARSI, et al., Appellees.

No. 5D04-986.

Feb. 11, 2005. Rehearing Denied April 15, 2005.

Background: Shareholder in closely-held corporation brought derivative action. After shareholder lost his shares in action to dissolve the corporation, the Circuit Court for Orange County, Renee A. Roche, J., granted defendants' motion to dismiss. Shareholder appealed.

Holding: The District Court of Appeal, Torpy, J., held that shareholder lost standing to prosecute derivative action when his ownership interest in his shares was terminated.

Shareholder of closely-held corporation lost standing to prosecute derivative action when his ownership interest in his shares was subsequently terminated in separate action to dissolve corporation while derivative action was still pending; statute which was intended to impose additional restrictions on a shareholder's common law right to maintain a derivative suit did not abrogate common law requirement that shareholder have continuous ownership of his shares during the pendency of the derivative action. TORPY, J.

The question presented in this shareholder derivative action is whether a plaintiff/shareholder, to have standing to prosecute such an action, is required to have continuous ownership of his or her shares throughout the pendency of the action. Our resolution of this issue requires that we construe Florida's "contemporaneous ownership rule," embodied in section 607.07401, Florida Statutes (2002). We conclude that continuous ownership is required. Therefore, Appellant lost standing to prosecute this action when he was divested of his ownership interest in his shares.

When Appellant commenced the instant shareholder derivative action, he was a shareholder of the closely-held corporation that is the subject of this dispute. However, as a result of another legal proceeding, Appellant's ownership interest in his shares was terminated while the instant action was still pending. [FN1] Based thereon, the trial court determined that Appellant lacked standing to proceed and granted Appellees' Motion to Dismiss. Here, however, at oral argument, Appellant's counsel, Mr. Mariani, expressly waived this argument and suggested that this court treat the lower court's order as a summary judgment. We appreciate and commend counsel's willingness to forego this procedural objection in the interest of both judicial economy and reducing the costs to the litigants.

[1][2] Shareholder derivative suits were originally created by common law as a means to enable shareholders to police "faithless directors and managers." Larsen v. Island Developers, Ltd., 769 So.2d 1071, 1072 (Fla. 3d DCA 2000) (quoting Cohen v. Beneficial Indus. Loan Corp., 337 U.S. 541, 548, 69 S.Ct. 1221, 93 L.Ed. 1528 (1949)). In such suits, shareholders are permitted to redress rights of action that belong to corporations that have been injured by the acts of the corporations' officers and directors. Provence v. Palm Beach Taverns, Inc., 676 So.2d 1022, 1024 (Fla. 4th DCA 1996). Historically, this right of action spawned abusive, predatory practices, wherein persons acquired shares of stock for the sole purpose of instituting suits. To prevent such "predatory strike suits," Florida, like most jurisdictions, has, by statute, interposed a restriction on would-be plaintiffs known as the "contemporaneous stock ownership rule," which "expressly provides when a shareholder has standing to bring a derivative action." [FN3] Kaplus v. First Continental Corp., 711 So.2d 108, 110 (Fla. 3d DCA 1998) (Emphasis added). "The purpose of this *91 standing requirement is to ensure that derivative actions are brought only by those individuals who have a legitimate stake in the corporation so that its interests are adequately represented." Id. (citing South End Improvement Group, Inc. v. Mulliken, 602 So.2d 1327, 1330 (Fla. 4th DCA 1992)) (Emphasis added). · · ·

FN3. § 607.07401, Fla. Stat. (2002).

[3] Ironically, Appellant relies upon Florida's "contemporaneous stock ownership rule," which was intended to impose additional restrictions on a shareholder's common law right to maintain a derivative suit, to argue that he is not required to have any present stake in the corporation to continue the prosecution of this action. Thus, our analysis of this argument requires that we examine the language of section 607.07401(1), which provides in pertinent part:

607.07401 Shareholders' derivative actions .--

(1) A person may not commence a proceeding in the right of a ... corporation unless the person was a shareholder of the corporation when the transaction complained of occurred....

(Emphasis added). Based on this language, Appellant argues that, because the statute does not expressly require present share ownership, one whose shares are disposed of during the pendency of the suit may nevertheless continue to prosecute a 'shareholder' derivative suit. Indeed, Appellant also acknowledges and advocates that, under his interpretation of the statute, share ownership by the plaintiff is not even essential at the outset of the litigation. We think this construction ignores the language of the statute and does violence to the legislative intent underlying the statute.

Because section 607.07401 does not, by its express terms, purport to create a right of action, we interpret it to recognize the pre-existence of this common law right. By use of the phrase "may not" and the word "unless" the legislature has simply manifested its intent to place additional limits upon this preexisting right to ensure that a plaintiff's stake in the lawsuit is "legitimate," meaning an ownership interest that is not acquired for predatory purposes. The requirement of some continuous stake in the corporation, however, clearly required at common law, is not vitiated by the statute. See Fox v. Prof'l Wrecker Operators of Florida, Inc., 801 So.2d 175 (Fla. 5th DCA 2001) (recognizing that common law right to bring derivative claim against not-for-profit corporation not abrogated by 1993 statutory amendment deleting reference to derivative actions in not-for-profit statute). To hold otherwise would undermine the very purpose for which the statute was enacted by permitting the anomalous result that a plaintiff with absolutely no "dog in the hunt" is permitted to pursue a right of action that belongs solely to the corporation. Such a result clearly thwarts the statutory prophylactic designed to ensure "adequate representation" of the corporation by derivative plaintiffs. Nothing in the language of the statute suggests that the legislature intended to so drastically expand this historic right of action in the face of a clear legislative trend in this and other jurisdictions to do just the opposite.

In conclusion, we hold that a plaintiff in a derivative suit, in addition to meeting the requirements of the statute, must meet the common law requirement of continuous ownership throughout the pendency of the suit. [FN4] In holding as we have today, we *92 align ourselves with the overwhelming majority of courts in other jurisdictions that have confronted this issue. See Schilling v. Belcher, 582 F.2d 995 (5th Cir.1978) (construing Federal Rule 23.1 and precursor to section 607.07401; sale of stock during pendency of appeal from judgment in derivative suit defeats standing to continue); Lewis v. Ward, 852 A.2d 896 (Del.2004) (under Delaware statute, similar to Florida's, loss of ownership of stock through merger during pendency of suit divests plaintiff of standing); Lewis v. Turner Broad. Sys., Inc., 232 Ga.App. 831, 503 S.E.2d 81, 84 (1998) (after loss of share ownership through merger, plaintiffs lost standing to maintain derivative action); A-Plus Janitorial & Carpet Cleaning v. Employers' Workers' Compensation Ass'n, 936 P.2d 916, 924 (Okla. 1997), and cases cited therein (under Oklahoma statute, similar to Florida's, continuous ownership required to maintain derivative claim); Christopher v. Liberty Oil & Gas Corp., 665 So.2d 410, 411 (La.Ct.App.1995) (former shareholders of corporation lacked standing under similar statutory scheme); U.S. Fid. & Guar. Co. v. Griffin, 541 N.E.2d 553, 554-55 (Ind.Ct.App.1989) (continuous ownership required to have standing); Weil v. Northwest Indus., Inc., 168 Ill.App.3d 1, 118 Ill.Dec. 717, 522 N.E.2d 172, 174, n. 1 (1988) (share ownership by plaintiff must be maintained during pendency of suit); Yanow v. Teal Indus., Inc., 178 Conn. 262, 422 A.2d 311, 323 (1979) (continuous ownership from time acts occur until judgment required to have standing to maintain derivative suit). [FN5]

FN4. We acknowledge that "shareholder" is a term of art that includes a "beneficial owner." § 607.07401, Fla. Stat. (2002); Provence, 676 So.2d at 1024. Here, however, we reject Appellant's argument that he is a "beneficial owner."

FN5. We recognize that the other proceeding, wherein Appellant's ownership interest was extinguished, is pending on appeal in this court. Should that judgment be reversed in such a manner as to once again vest Appellant with shares in the corporation, the dismissal of this action is without prejudice.

PLEUS, J., concurs.

MONACO, J., dissents with opinion.

MONACO, J., dissenting.

I respectfully dissent. I do so from a number of different perspectives, but the two most important are, first, because I believe the legislature is fully aware of how to draft a statute; and second, because I believe that the appellant, Mark Timko, has a full sized "dog in the hunt." A few of the facts of this case may make clear my position.

In August of 1998, Mr. Timko and one of the appellees, Onofrio Triarsi, formed Ferrari of Central Florida, Inc. ("Ferrari"), in order to operate a Ferrari franchise car dealership in the Central Florida area. The parties agreed that each would own 50% of the shares and, in addition, the individual shareholders agreed that Mr. Timko would act as the president and general manager. In his position as president Mr. Timko was to be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the dealership, and was to receive a salary and benefits, as well as any dividends that might be distributed to him by virtue of his stock ownership interest. The dealership was financed by borrowing $400,000.00 from a person named Oscar Davis. The debt was secured by a promissory note to Mr. Davis. In November of 1998, the dealership opened. While Mr. Timko handled the management of the Ferrari dealership, Mr. Triarsi stayed in New Jersey.

Some time later Mr. Timko was informed by attorneys representing Mr. Triarsi that Mr. Triarsi's recently formed company, Triarsi Enterprises, Ltd., had purchased the $400,000.00 note and other loan documents from Mr. Davis, and that Triarsi Enterprises was exercising a "conversion *93 right" contained within the documents. According to the attorneys representing Mr. Triarsi, this event converted the unpaid balance of the loan from Mr. Davis into 100% of the equity in Ferrari, thus giving Triarsi Enterprises total control over Ferrari, and completely divesting Mr. Timko of his 50% ownership interest in the company.

Following his purported ouster from Ferrari, Mr. Timko filed an action consisting of a four count complaint seeking declaratory relief, an accounting, damages for breach of fiduciary duty, and dissolution of the corporation. Initially, the trial court rendered an order on Mr. Timko's action seeking dissolution of Ferrari pursuant to section 607.1430, Florida Statutes (2000). The court noted that Mr. Triarsi and Triarsi Enterprises had elected their right under section 607.1436, Florida Statutes (2000), to purchase the interest of Mr. Timko in Ferrari for its fair value. The court found that Mr. Timko's share of Ferrari was 50%, and that the value of his 50% share was $138,000.00. The court, however, deferred ruling on the terms and conditions under which payment were to be made to Mr. Timko.

On November 13, 2003, the lower court entered an order and partial final judgment on Mr. Triarsis motion for entry of final judgment determining valuation. The court confirmed that Mr. Triarsi was to pay Mr. Timko $138,000 within ten days after the order became final, and dismissed the remainder of the complaint. The trial court then ordered further that:

[E]ffective the date of this order, Mr. Timko shall no longer have any rights or status as a shareholder of Ferrari of Central Florida, except the right to receive the amounts awarded by this order, which, subject to all provisions of this order and section 607.1436, shall be enforceable in the same manner as any other judgment.

Mr. Timko appealed this order, and that appeal is currently pending in another proceeding before this court.

Before the entry of the November 13, 2003, partial final judgment, and while he was still a shareholder of Ferrari, Mr. Timko brought a shareholder derivative suit on behalf of Ferrari. His suit sought relief for breach of fiduciary duty and conversion, alleging a usurpation of corporate Page 15 opportunity by Mr. Triarsi, as well as self-dealing and conversion. In addition, Mr. Timko noted that the corporation had earned substantial profits, about $733,000 of which were attributed to him as a 50% shareholder in income tax documents filed by Ferrari. He asserted that his pro rata share of these profits, however, had never been distributed to him.

After entry of the November 13, 2003, partial final judgment in the earlier suit, Mr. Triarsi and Triarsi Enterprises moved to dismiss the shareholder's derivative action, asserting that Mr. Timko lacked standing to pursue that action, as he was no longer a shareholder of Ferrari. They argued that Mr. Timko lost any rights that he might have had as a shareholder upon the entry of the earlier judgment. The trial court granted the motion to dismiss, and Mr. Timko timely appealed.

The statute governing shareholder derivative actions is section 607.07401, Florida Statutes (2003), the first subsection of which reads, as follows:

A person may not commence a proceeding in the right of a domestic or foreign corporation unless the person was a shareholder of the corporation when the transaction complained of occurred or unless the person became a shareholder through transfer by operation of law from one who was a shareholder at that time. *94 Two things are immediately apparent from a plain reading of this statute. First, the only requirement that it places on someone who wishes to bring a shareholder derivative suit is that the person be a shareholder of the corporation when the transaction complained of occurred. It simply does not say that the person seeking to bring the suit must also be a shareholder at all times that the suit is pending. Second, the legislature chose broadly to allow "a person" to commence a proceeding, not the more restrictive "a shareholder." This is of particular interest because the preamble to earlier versions of the statute began "In any action commenced or maintained by a shareholder." See, e.g., § 607.147 Fla. Stat. (1976). Thus. "shareholder" became "person" as the statute matured.

Our legislature is fully capable of drafting statutes. If the legislature had chosen to require that the person maintaining the suit be a shareholder at all times, it would have said so, and it would have done so in unambiguous language. There is absolutely no indication in the wording of the statute that would suggest that the legislature was somehow building on a pre-existing common law requirement. Surely it would have said so if that is what it intended. As the statute is clear, there is no reason to resort to statutory interpretation to force additional requirements into it.

The majority nevertheless posits that the legislature in drafting the present statute intended to place additional limits on the common law right of a person to bring a derivative suit, and apparently did not bother to mention that there is another unstated common law requirement that is a prerequisite to standing. With all due respect to the majority, if section 607.07401 is in derogation of the common law, then the tenets of statutory construction dictate that it must be strictly construed. See Florida Dep't of Health and Rehab. Services v. S.A.P., 835 So.2d 1091 (Fla.2002); Humana Health Plans v. Lawton, 675 So.2d 1382 (Fla. 5th DCA 1996). If the statute is strictly construed, then we cannot engraft additional unarticulated requirements into it that have not been approved by the legislature.

The trial court in this action appears to have been convinced that the decision in Schilling v. Belcher, 582 F.2d 995 (5th Cir.1978), compelled a ruling that Mr. Timko lacked standing to bring the derivative action. I think the statutory treatment of Schilling militates in favor of the opposite conclusion.

Schilling involved a derivative action governed by Florida law in which the ultimate holding was that a shareholder who sells his or her stock pending appeal loses standing to further prosecute or defend the case, except to the extent that the judgment runs personally in favor of that person. The federal court rejected an opinion of the Second District Court of Appeal in DiGiovanni v. All-Pro Golf, Inc., 332 So.2d 91 (Fla. 2d DCA 1976), in which the Florida appellate court interpreting a predecessor to the present derivative suit statute held that "one need not even be a stockholder at the time of filing a derivative suit so long as he was one at the time of the transaction complained of." The Schilling court dismissed this holding as "gratuitous dictum," and said simply that the DiGiovanni court "did not correctly state the law." The federal court went on to apply federal law and the federal rules of Page 16 procedure to this question of standing. Schilling, 582 F.2d at 1001. Among other things, the Schilling court noted that the preamble to the statute referred to the individual bringing the suit as a "stockholder," and apparently drew an inference that the use of that word signaled that one must own shares at the time one commences the suit.

*95 Curiously, however, under the statute through which the Schilling derivative claim was brought, [FN1] one had to demonstrate that the plaintiff was "a stockholder of such corporation at the time of bringing the action and that he was a stockholder of such corporation at the time of the transaction of which he complains," or that he obtained his interest by operation of law. The succeeding statute, [FN2] however, which is quite similar to the current statute, omitted that part of the language requiring the plaintiff to be a stockholder at the time of the bringing of the action. When the DiGiovanni court noticed this glaring omission, it opined that the contemporaneous ownership provision has been eliminated by the legislature. Surprisingly, the Schilling court disagreed.

FN1. § 608.131, Fla. Stat. (1974).

FN2. § 607.147, Fla. Stat. (1976).

It seems to me that if the statute at one time contained a provision for contemporaneous ownership, and if the legislature later removed that language, the legislature is telling us that the requirement has been eliminated. While I certainly respect the Schilling court's determination to apply federal standing requirements to derivative actions, I do not believe that we are bound by or ought to be bound by that conclusion. See Gaillard v. Natomas Co., 173 Cal.App.3d 410, 219 Cal.Rptr. 74 (1985).

I dissent, as well, because I believe that Mr. Timko specifically fulfills all of the requirements imposed by law upon a person seeking to bring a shareholder's derivative suit. He was unquestionably a shareholder at the time of the transaction about which he complains, as required by the statute, and he only ceased being a shareholder as a result of an action taken by the circuit court. He was, as well, as shareholder of Ferrari at the time he filed the derivative action. That he was a shareholder at the time of the commencement of suit is evidenced by the fact that Ferrari continued to treat him as a shareholder for tax purposes--even attributing a large share of the profits to him--even though it did not pay him any part of that fund. Of course, I recognize that he put himself at risk for being bought out when he commenced his first suit seeking, among other things, dissolution of Ferrari. Nevertheless, he did not willingly disgorge himself of the shares of that company. It strikes me that the reason the statute is written as it is takes into account this and similar scenarios in which the shareholder loses that status by an operation of law.

Supporting this view is Gaillard. There, where a person lost her status as shareholder by virtue of a merger, the California court concluded that it would be inequitable to require continuing ownership in order to maintain a shareholder derivative suit, saying:

Moreover, the imposition of a continuing ownership requirement in this case would lead to the incongruous result of barring a lawsuit which challenges the wrongful acts of management in bringing about the merger, because of the merger itself. To hold that a merger has the effect of destroying such causes of action would be tantamount to giving free reign to deliberate corporate pilfering by management and immunizing those responsible from liability by virtue of the merger which they arranged. This would be a grossly inequitable result.

Gaillard, 219 Cal.Rptr. at 79. The same rationale applies to the present controversy.

Finally, the intention behind the standing rule is to ensure that the plaintiff has a *96 legitimate stake in the corporation in order to adequately represent the corporations interests in the derivative suit. See Provence v. Palm Beach Taverns, Inc., 676 So.2d 1022, 1024 (Fla. 4th DCA 1996). The statute is, indeed, intended to prevent predatory strike suits, as the majority notes. In the present case, however, it is clear that Mr. Timko did not obtain shares of stock in order to bring a strike suit, and that he is fully motivated to represent the interests of the corporation in this action. I see no reason to deny him this opportunity.

I would reverse.

District Court of Appeal of Florida, Second District.

Charles A. ALARIO and Syndicated Cinemas, Inc., a Florida Corporation, Appellants, v. Fred H. MILLER and Monica F. Miller, his wife, Appellees.

No. 77-29.

Feb. 1, 1978.

Corporate stockholders brought suit against the corporation's other stockholder and its chief executive officer alleging negligence, breach of fiduciary duty, corporate mismanagement, misappropriation and fraud, resulting in the corporation's being rendered virtually insolvent and the shareholders' investment rendered worthless. The Circuit Court, Sarasota County, Gilbert A. Smith, J., rendered judgment for the plaintiffs and defendants appealed. The District Court of Appeal, Boardman, C. J., held that the action could not be brought by the shareholders as individuals, but was a stockholder's derivative action.

Englewood was not a party to this suit.

[1][2] The threshold question for our determination is whether appellees have a cause of action in their own right or whether their cause of action is derived from the corporation's right to bring the action. It is the body of the complaint which determines whether the injury is direct as to the stockholder and the cause of action individual to him or is indirect as to the stockholder and the cause of action derivative from the corporation. 13 W. Fletcher, Cyclopedia of the Law of Private Corporations s 5912 (rev. ed. 1970). We have carefully examined the record and have concluded that the gravamen of appellees' action, that is the nature of the injuries alleged and the wrongs sought to be remedied, is a stockholder's derivative action and not an individual action. [FN1] See Gadd v. Pearson, 351 F.Supp. 895 (M.D.Fla. 1972).

FN1. Appellees' allegations of fraud are intertwined with the other allegations and only arguably constitute an individual cause of action. We need not treat this point, however, because our review of the record indicates that the cause of action was not proved and that the judgment was not based on fraud, but if it had been, the judgment would be reversible for failure to carry the burden of proof.

[3] There is a clear and necessary distinction between an individual action and a derivative one. The general rule is stated in 19 Am.Jur.2d Corporations s 528 (1965).

A stockholder's derivative action is an action brought by one or more stockholders of a corporation to enforce a corporate right or to prevent or remedy a wrong to the corporation in cases where the corporation, because it is controlled by the wrongdoers or for other reasons, fails and refuses to take appropriate action for its own protection. An action brought by a stockholder is derivative if the gravamen of the complaint is injury to the corporation or to the whole body of its stock or property and not injury to the plaintiff's individual interest as a stockholder.

This court in Citizens National Bank v. Peters, 175 So.2d 54 (Fla. 2d DCA 1965) held that:

A Florida court has defined a derivative suit as an action in which a stockholder seeks to enforce a right of action existing in the corporation. See James Talcott, Inc. v. McDowell, Fla.App.1962, 148 So.2d 36. Conversely, a direct action, or as some prefer, an individual action, is a suit by a stockholder to enforce a right of action existing in him.

What these definitions attempt to convey is that a stockholder may bring a suit in his own right to redress an injury sustained directly by him, and which is separate and distinct from that sustained by other stockholders. If, however, the injury is primarily against the corporation, or the stockholders generally, then the cause of action is in the corporation and the individual's right to bring it is derived from the corporation.

Citizens National Bank, supra, at 56. If the damages are only indirectly sustained by the stockholder as a result of injury to the corporation, the stockholder does not have a cause of action as an individual. See 13 W. Fletcher, Cyclopedia of the Law of Private Corporations ss 5911, 5924, 5926, 5928 (rev. ed. 1970).

927 In view of our conclusion that the thrust of appellees' action is derivative, appellees by filing this action as individuals misconceived their remedy. For with respect to a stockholder's derivative action:

The action is not to establish a personal right. Stockholders are permitted to sue ex necessitate rei, and although by the record the corporation may be made a party defendant, the stockholder bringing the action is in fact its representative. Otherwise than in name the action is by the corporation, and if relief be obtained it belongs, not to the stockholder bringing the action, but to the corporation. The cause of action belongs to the corporation and not to the stockholders individually or collectively, and hence the decree ordinarily must award relief to the corporation rather than to the actual plaintiff.

Corporations s 5953 (rev. ed. 1970).

[4] The corollary of these principles of law is that in a derivative action the corporation on behalf of which the stockholders sue is an indispensable party, and the court has no jurisdiction to adjudicate the rights of that corporation in its absence as a party, as was the case here.

The corporation is a necessary defendant. In other words, the corporation on behalf of which plaintiffs sue must be made a party defendant so that a decree may appropriately give the corporation the fruit of any recovery by the plaintiffs. The corporation is not merely a proper party, but is an essential, indispensable party, and the failure to make the corporation a party is not a mere defect of parties but leaves the stockholder without a cause of action and the court without jurisdiction. (Emphasis added.)

13 W. Fletcher, Cyclopedia of the Law of Private Corporations s 5997 (rev. ed. 1970). See 19 Am.Jur.2d Corporations s 572 (1965). It follows that entry of final judgment in favor of appellees in the case before us is contrary to law and constitutes reversible error.

[5] With due respect to the trial judge the issue of the lack of an indispensable party was not raised in the trial court nor did either party argue the point on this appeal. Nevertheless, this issue may be raised for the first time on appeal, and we do so sua sponte. See Martinez v. Balbin, 76 So.2d 488 (Fla.1954); McAdoo v. Moses, 101 Fla. 936, 132 So. 638 (1931); Kephart v. Pickens, 271 So.2d 163 (Fla. 4th DCA 1972).

Accordingly, the final judgment is reversed without prejudice to appellees to institute a derivative action.

REVERSED. HOBSON and RYDER, JJ., concur.

United States District Court, M.D. Florida, Orlando Division.

Elizabeth Duda KLOHA, individually and on behalf of A. Duda & Sons, Inc., Plaintiff,

v.

Edward D. DUDA, Ferdinand S. Duda, Clark Daugherty, R. Ray Goode, Allan R. Nagle, William W. Heintz, And A. Duda & Sons, Inc., Defendants.

No. 6:01-CV-1371-ORL-31JGG.

Feb. 14, 2003.

Minority shareholder brought derivative action against corporation and six of corporation's 10 director's, alleging that directors knowingly caused the corporation to become less profitable, and that corporation's refusal to initiate a derivative lawsuit was not based on independent, good faith investigation of shareholder's allegations. The District Court, 226 F.Supp.2d 1342, denied motion to dismiss. Defendants moved for summary judgment. The District Court, Presnell, J., held that: (1) controlling trustee did not exceed authority in voting shares deposited in voting trust in accordance with wishes of controlling shareholders; (2) shareholder could not maintain direct, as opposed to derivative, action; and (3) directors' decision to remain in unprofitable vegetable and citrus businesses was protected by business judgment rule.

Motions granted.

I. Background

In 1926, Andrew Duda began farming celery in central Florida, thus starting the family-owned and family-operated company that would become A. Duda & Sons, Inc. ("Duda" or the "Company"). Andrew Duda had three children--Ferdinand, Andrew Luther ("Andrew L. Sr."), and John--all of whom worked for the Company and are otherwise known as "the Three Seniors." In 1953, Duda incorporated, with each of the Three Seniors owning equal shares of the stock. Subsequently, two of the Three Seniors (John and F.S. Duda) joined together to exercise majority control of the Company, and Andrew L. Duda Sr., thus became the minority shareholder. Plaintiff Elizabeth Duda Kloha hails from the Andrew L. Duda Sr. family line.

While vegetables has remained the Company's core business, it has diversified over time into other areas of business, including citrus, real estate, sod, sugarcane, and cattle. In 1996, the Company employed 1,013 full-time workers, with 25 of those employees coming primarily from the third and fourth generations of the Ferdinand and John Duda family lines. Out of those 25 family employees, seven worked directly in the vegetable business, and one worked in citrus. [FN1] Duda reduced the number of full-time employees to 859 in 1999, with six family members in vegetables, and one in citrus. Plaintiff never has worked for the company. [FN2] Defendant Ferdinand S. ("F.S.") Duda (Ferdinand family line) is currently the President and CEO of the Company and serves on the Board of Directors. Defendant Edward Duda (John family line) worked for the Company from 1957 until 1998, but today serves only as Chairman of the Board.

FN1. Plaintiff does not contest the number of family members directly involved in vegetables but notes that most of the other family employees held corporate overhead positions that predominantly supported vegetables and citrus. Moreover, Plaintiff does not assert that the Company should have hired more members from her family line.

FN2. Plaintiff worked part-time at Duda during one summer when she was in college; her husband never did. (Doc. 93 at 14). Plaintiff has not attended Board meetings in person, though they have been attended for her by proxy. (Id. at 147-48).

In 1989, a consultant suggested that Duda restructure its seven-member Board of Directors so that a majority of the directors hailed from outside the family. That same year, on November 10, 1989, a majority of Duda's signing shareholders, [FN3] entered a ten-year Voting Trust Agreement (the "Trust"). [FN4] Under this Trust, the signing shareholders transferred their voting rights to the cotrustees, Defendants John [FN5] and F.S. Duda. According to the Trust, the co-trustees were to vote on behalf of the signing shareholders in accordance with the wishes of the majority of Trust shareholders. (Trust at ¶ 5). The current Board has each of the Three Seniors' 1240 family lines represented by two family members. [FN6]

FN3. None of the Andrew L. Sr. family line participated in the Trust.

FN4. A true and correct copy of the Trust was attached as Exhibit 1 to Defendant F.S. Duda's Memorandum in Support of Summary Judgment (Doc. 72).

FN5. John Duda, who is employed by Duda, hails from the John Duda family line.

FN6. The Company's Bylaws also were amended in June 1997 to provide for a ten-person, rather than a seven-person, Board in which six directors would come from the three Duda family lines, and the remaining four would come from outside the family. As a result of that Amendment, each family line, which previously held one director spot each, was allowed to nominate a second family director. Those six family members then would decide upon a full slate of directors to be voted upon by the shareholders at the annual meetings. The Ferdinand and John family lines nominated their second director per the Amendment. The Andrew L. Sr. line elected not to take advantage of its opportunity to double its representation on the Board. Also in 1997, the family attempted to mediate an agreement to buy out the minority shareholders' stock.

The six Defendant Directors [FN7] were voted onto the Board at various times while the Trust was Page 25 in place. The Trust was dissolved in mid-1999. At each of the shareholders' meetings held since the Trust's dissolution, a simple majority of shareholders have voted for these same six Defendant Directors.

FN7. Defendant Directors include six of the ten current directors on Duda's Board. The six Defendant Directors are Edward D. Duda, F.S. Duda, Clark Daugherty, R. Ray Goode, Allan Nagle, and William W. Heintz. Of these directors, only Edward and F.S. Duda are members of the Duda family; the others are considered "outside directors." Andrew L. Duda Sr. also was on the Board during the relevant time frame, but is not being sued.

During the 1990s, Duda experienced financial difficulties due to the volatile nature of the vegetable and citrus industries. As a result, the Company's financial records showed substantial losses, and Duda was unable to pay dividends to its shareholders on an annual basis. Concerned with this volatility and loss, the Board of Directors discussed ways to reduce risk and improve profits. Over the course of several years, the Directors implemented several strategies, including: 1) increase handle deals in which Duda would sell crops grown by other companies; 2) enter into contracts with large national retailers, such as Wal-Mart, to provide an established supply of produce at a set price; 3) diversify both business-wise (by expanding certain sod, sugarcane, cattle, and real estate operations in the 1990s), and geographically (by increasing vegetable operations in Texas and California); and 4) redeploy, divest, reorganize, and sell certain vegetable, citrus, and real estate assets to reduce debt, respond to cash-flow deficits, and focus on more profitable operations.

On September 26, 2001, believing these actions to be inadequate, Plaintiff demanded that the Company either purchase the minority shareholders' interests or initiate a shareholder derivative suit. On November 2, 2001, Plaintiff again requested the filing of a derivative suit. In response, the Company ordered an independent investigation of Plaintiff's allegations, but found in its Special Litigation Committee Report that the claims were meritless and that a derivative suit was not in the Company's best interests.

On November 21, 2001, Plaintiff filed this action, bringing Counts I and II derivatively on behalf of Duda, and Count III individually. In Count I, Plaintiff alleges that F.S. Duda breached the Trust by electing a Board of Directors he knew would agree with him and would not sell the vegetable and citrus operations, which employed members the Ferdinand and John Duda family lines. In Count II, Plaintiff alleges that the Defendant Directors breached their fiduciary duties as corporate directors by failing to exit the losing vegetable and citrus operations. In *1241 Count III, Plaintiff also alleges that F.S. Duda breached the Trust, but brings the claim on behalf of herself as an individual shareholder.

II. Standard of Review

ć

A party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law when the party can show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact. Fed.R.Civ.P. 56(c). The substantive law applicable to the case determines which facts are material. Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248, 106 S.Ct. 2505, 91 L.Ed.2d 202 (1986). Summary judgment is mandated "against a party who fails to make a showing sufficient to establish the existence of an element essential to that party's case, and on which that party will bear the burden of proof." Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 322, 106 S.Ct. 2548, 91 L.Ed.2d 265 (1986). The moving party bears the burden of proving that no genuine issue of material fact exists. Id. at 323, 106 S.Ct. 2548. In determining whether the moving party has satisfied its burden, the court considers all inferences drawn from the underlying facts in a light most favorable to the party opposing the motion, and resolves all reasonable doubts against the moving party. Anderson, 477 U.S. at 255, 106 S.Ct. 2505. If the record presents factual issues, the court must not decide them, but rather, must deny the motion and proceed to trial. Environmental Def. Fund v. Marsh, 651 F.2d 983, 991 (5th Cir.1981). [FN8]

FN8. All decisions of the Fifth Circuit prior to October 1, 1981 are binding precedent on this Court. Bonner v. City of Prichard, 661 F.2d 1206, 1209 (11th Cir.1981) (en banc).

III. Analysis

A. Count I--Derivative Claim of Breach of Trust

[1][2] Plaintiff argues that F.S. Duda [FN9] breached his Trust duties to all shareholders by purposefully electing a Board of Directors who would agree not to exit unprofitable operations in order to continue employment of Duda family

FN9. Plaintiff elected to sue only F.S. Duda, rather than both F.S. and John Duda as co-trustees, because she claims that F.S. Duda was the controlling trustee.

A court cannot interfere with a trustee's actions pursuant to a trust agreement unless the actions were arbitrary, in bad faith, or outside of the trust's authority. In re Moir Hotel, 186 F.2d 377, 382 (7th Cir.1950) ("So long as a trustee is exercising discretionary powers conferred upon him, honestly and reasonably, a court ... has no right to interfere."); Scott v. Arden Farms Co., 28 A.2d 81 (Del.Ch.1942) [FN10] (holding that voting trust certificate holders [FN11] were bound by the voting trustees' acts if those acts were done in good faith and within the scope of their authority). The Court cannot stray from the plain terms of the Trust. Warehime v. Warehime, 563 Pa. 400, 761 A.2d 1138 (2000) (reversing lower court for straying from the requirements set forth in the plain terms of the trust agreement). Here, the terms of the Trust limited the scope of F.S. Duda's authority as cotrustee to vote the shares deposited pursuant to the Trust *1242 "in accordance with the direction of the holders of Trust Certificates not representing less than a majority of the shares deposited hereunder." (Trust at § 5(i)). Thus, F.S. Duda had no discretion to vote in a particular way, but in fact was obligated to vote as the majority wished. The only semblance of discretion afforded to F.S. Duda as co-trustee was a directive to exercise "reasonable care." (Id. at ¶ 10).

FN10. In re Southeast Banking Corp., 855 F.Supp. 353, 359 n. 4 (S.D.Fla.1994) (Florida courts may rely on Delaware law to construe Florida's accord Connolly v. corporate doctrines); Agostino's Ristorante, Inc., 775 So.2d 387, 388 n. 1 (Fla. 2d DCA 2000).

FN11. The Court recognizes that Plaintiff here is not a Voting Trust Certificate Holder, but that fact does not render the holding of the Scott case-that a court will not disturb a trustee's good faith acts done within the scope of his authority--inapplicable to the case at bar.

Plaintiff has cited no evidence demonstrating that F.S. Duda voted in any manner other than the manner that the majority of the Trust Certificate Holders wished, as required by the plain terms of the Trust. Plaintiff also has not produced any evidence that F.S. Duda acted unreasonably, fraudulently, or in bad faith in violation of the Trust's terms or applicable case law. Plaintiff claims there is "record evidence" of F.S. Duda's bad faith and purposeful mismanagement, but the "evidence" she cites includes only conclusory statements that F.S. Duda purposefully elected a "yes men" Board. [FN12] Such unsubstantiated, conclusory allegations are insufficient [FN13] to survive summary judgment. [FN14] Moir Hotel, 186 F.2d at 382 (a court will not interfere with the exercise of a trustee's powers absent proof of fraud, bad faith, or abuse of discretion).

FN12. Plaintiff cites, for example, the deposition of her sister, Dorothy Wise, who states: "I think [the Directors] purposefully accommodated Ferdinand's wishes." (Doc. 98 at 48), and "If they considered [getting out of vegetables], I know that Ferdinand would stonewall that, that he does not want us to ever get out of vegetables." (Id. at 56).

FN13. In fact, the record establishes the opposite. First, the Directors continued to vote for the same Board for several years after the Trust's dissolution in 1999. Second, F.S. Duda did not support only a "yes men" Board, for in 1999, he nominated Bruce Hrncir, who, prior to the nomination, regularly voiced objections to and voted against F.S. Duda in shareholder meetings.

FN14. Plaintiff claims that F.S. Duda has put forth a "Nuremberg" defense by ignoring his duty to resign as fiduciary. In support, Plaintiff cites In re Kitchen Factors, 143 B.R. 560 (9th Cir. BAP 1992), which held that an attorney should seek to withdraw or recommend the client to obtain a second legal opinion where the trustee/debtor-in-possession continues to pursue efforts to collect a debt in a non-cost effective manner. Id. at 562-63. Not only are the facts in that case wholly dissimilar to the facts at bar, but the holding also has no bearing on this shareholder's breach of trust claim against a corporate director. Kitchen Factors in no way Page 27 compels the result that F.S. Duda should have resigned as fiduciary, and in fact, the Court does not see how the case has any relevance to the instant matter.

B. Count III--Direct Claim of Breach of Trust

[3] Plaintiff asserts that she has standing [FN15] to bring a direct claim against F.S. Duda for breach of trust because under the terms of the Trust, F.S. Duda owes her, as a shareholder, a fiduciary duty. The Court notes, however, that the law is wellestablished that if a plaintiff sues in a stockholder capacity for corporate mismanagement, she must sue derivatively in the corporation's name. Empire Life Ins. Co. of Amer. v. Valdak Corp., 468 F.2d 330, 335 (5th Cir.1972). Plaintiff argues that because the Trust explicitly names all shareholders as beneficiaries that she falls into the one exception to the rule regarding derivative suits. That one exception allows an individual to sue on her own *1243 behalf if she: a) is not similarly situated to other shareholders; b) suffers a distinct injury -- i.e., special damages -- from the other shareholders; and c) does not have the same opportunity to be made whole by a corporate recovery. Citibank v. Data Lease Fin. Corp., 828 F.2d 686, 693 (11th Cir.1987). Plaintiff must show, therefore, that she seeks to enforce a right of action unique to her, rather than address an injury mainly to the corporation, or to the whole body of its stock. Hodges v. Buzzeo, 193 F.Supp.2d 1279, 1288 (M.D.Fla.2002).

FN15. Plaintiff claims--without any legal support-that F.S. Duda waived any lack-of-standing defense to bring Count III directly. The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure do not require a party to plead a lack-of-standing defense with particularity, as Plaintiff asserts. Thus, Defendant's blanket affirmative defense stating that "Plaintiff does not have standing to bring the claims asserted ..." is sufficient to plead the affirmative defense of standing.

In support, Plaintiff relies primarily on Salit v. Ruden, McClosky, 742 So.2d 381 (Fla. 4th DCA 1999), in which the court held that an injurious falsehood count properly was brought as a direct claim. Id. at 389. Salit, however, does not help Plaintiff's case, for the direct claim in Salit was proper only because those plaintiffs allegedly suffered property damages unique to themselves and distinct from the other shareholders. Id. Thus, those plaintiffs did not sue the majority shareholders for decreased value of stock but rather for their personal property interests. Id.

Plaintiff in the instant case does not claim to enforce any personal property interests distinct from other shareholders but rather claims that her damages were distinct because, unlike family shareholders who were employed by Duda, she did not receive compensation and benefits from the Company. [FN16] The fact that certain family shareholders are employees and thus receive compensation does not, however, distinguish Plaintiff as a shareholder for purposes of her damages suffered in relation to other shareholders. By her own implication, Plaintiff admits that the family employees at Duda have suffered the same stock value decline, and would have suffered the same stock decline with or without their employment. For this reason, Plaintiff has failed to show that her damages are distinct from those of any other shareholder. Rather, she has demonstrated only injury to the corporation that indirectly affected her as a shareholder. Such indirect injury is insufficient to maintain a direct claim for breach of trust. Hodges, 193 F.Supp.2d at 1289 (requiring a counterclaim to be brought as a derivative action unless the counterclaimant could show direct injury). Accordingly, Plaintiff cannot bring this claim on her own behalf, and summary judgment also is appropriate as to Count III. [FN17]

FN16. Specifically, Plaintiff asserts that where F.S. and Edward Duda cushioned their decline in stock value by substantial income resulting from employing themselves and their family members, Plaintiff and her immediate family bore the full burden of her stock's decline in value. It is of no relevance for a breach of trust claim, but the Court notes that Plaintiff admitted she never sought to or wanted to work for Duda. (Doc. 93 at 15).

FN17. This Court's decision is supported by the policy behind derivative actions: "If each shareholder could sue individually for his losses, the wrongdoer would be subject to 'as many suits ..., as there were stockholders in the corporation.'" Empire Life Ins. Co. of Amer., 468 F.2d at 335. Indeed, in her deposition, Plaintiff testified that she hopes to recover losses that she personally suffered as a shareholder, i.e., her eight percent share of the Company. (Doc. 93 at 106).

C. Count II--Derivative Claim of Breach of Fiduciary Duty

[4][5] Defendant Directors move for summary judgment on Count II, asserting that the business judgment rule shields them from liability. [FN18] Under the business *1244 judgment rule, a court presumes that corporate directors acted in good faith. In re Bal Harbour Club, Inc., 316 F.3d 1192 (11th Cir.2003); [FN19] Cottle v. Storer Comm., Inc., 849 F.2d 570, 574 (11th Cir.1988). The rule prevents a court--which may possess less business expertise than the corporate directors--from calling upon directors to account for their actions, no matter how poor their business judgment, absent a showing by the plaintiff of abuse of discretion, fraud, bad faith, or illegality. Bal Harbour Club, 316 F.3d at 1192; Cottle, 849 F.2d at 575. The rule also prevents a factfinder from using hindsight to secondguess directors' business decisions. Bal Harbour Club, 316 F.3d at 1192 (citing F.D.I.C. v. Stahl, 89 F.3d 1510, 1517 (11th Cir.1996)). [FN20]

FN18. Plaintiff asserts that based on Florida Statute § 607.0831(1)(b)(4), the Court must resolve whether the Defendant Directors acted with conscious disregard for the Company's interests before determining whether those Directors are protected by the business judgment rule. This statement is not true. Rather, the Court initially must determine whether the business judgment rule applies by assessing whether there is evidence of bad faith, abuse of discretion, fraud, or illegal acts. The Court only needs to apply the conscious disregard standard if the business judgment rule is overcome and liability is asserted against corporate directors in a personal capacity. Connolly v. Agostino's Ristorante, Inc., 775 So.2d 387, 388 (Fla. 2d DCA 2000) (noting that Florida Statute § 607.0831 "neither imposes any duties on corporate directors nor creates any causes of action against them.").

FN19. "In using the word 'presumption' ... in articulating the business judgment rule, the courts have not intended to create a presumption in the classical procedural sense.... Rather, the courts are merely expressing the substantive rule of director liability." Bal Harbour Club, 316 F.3d at 1192.

FN20. The case law--such as Stahl--remains unclear as regards the complete relationship between the business judgment rule and Florida Statute § 607.0830. That statute provides that: A director shall discharge his or her duties as a director, including his or her duties as a member of a committee: (a) In good faith; (b) With the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances: and (c) In a manner he or she reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation. Although addressing that statute in various contexts, including non-derivative claims, the courts appear to read the three prongs of the statute--good faith, due care, and acting in the company's best interests--in the conjunctive when applying the business judgment rule. That is, in order to find liability, a plaintiff must establish not just that the corporate directors acted negligently--as in prong (b) of the statute, Stahl, 89 F.3d at 1517--but rather a plaintiff must show the directors acted negligently, and in bad faith, and in a manner not reasonably believed to be in the company's best interests. The business judgment rule thus appears to be in harmony with the statute.

Plaintiff claims that the Defendant Directors breached their fiduciary duties by: 1) making decisions based on family employment concerns; 2) failing to exit the historically and predictably unprofitable vegetable and citrus operations; and 3) selling assets to fund the operating losses of vegetables and citrus.

1) Family Employment

[6] Plaintiff claims that Defendant Directors caused the Company to remain in the losing operations of vegetables and citrus because they were beholden to F.S. Duda, who wanted to ensure continued family employment. In support of this claim, Plaintiff cites Larry Singleton's testimony, Minutes from both Shareholders' and Board of Directors' Meetings, and an Interview Summary by the Special Litigation Committee, as identified in detail below.

a) Larry Singleton's Testimony

When Larry Singleton--who has been submitted to this Court as an expert for Plaintiff [FN21]--was serving as a consultant to 1245 the Company, he heard outside director Clark Daugherty say at a 2000 Board meeting:

FN21. Defendants moved this Court In Limine to preclude Singleton from testifying at trial for several reasons. Specifically, Defendants claimed that Singleton improperly would opine on an ultimate issue if the Court permitted testimony that the Defendant Directors breached their fiduciary duties by failing to sell the losing citrus and vegetables operations. For example, Plaintiff proposed to submit Singleton's testimony that: I think it was a breach of their fiduciary duty to not have actually been out by the end of '95. There was adequate evidence in the earlier years, going back seven years, of what was going on there.... They should have seen it. It was predictable and they should have done something about it so they never would have suffered the losses from '96 through '99. (Doc. 94 at 260-61). Without ruling on Defendant's Motion In Limine, the Court notes that it will not here consider this or any other part of Singleton's testimony regarding such ultimate conclusions.

There is nothing that you're saying that's rocket science. We've considered these alternatives before, but there are family considerations. If it weren't for the family, we probably wouldn't be in vegetables at all.

(Doc. 118, Pl.'s Ex. 23, at \P D; see also Doc. 94 at 225). Singleton testified that after Daugherty made this statement, no Board member disagreed. (Doc. 94 at 226-228).

In this same report, Singleton also claimed that when discussing termination or reorganization of unprofitable operations, F.S. Duda responded, "if Duda family members couldn't work in the business, [I] might as well sell it." (Doc. 118, Pl.'s Ex. 23, at ¶ E; see also Doc. 94 at 229-32).

b) January 1997 Shareholders' Meeting Minutes

Plaintiff testified that family, rather than business, concerns drove the Defendant Directors' decisions. (Doc. 93 at 99-101). Plaintiff cites an Overhead Cost Reduction Committee report, saying it "is not looking at family members" when implementing cost reductions. (Doc. 83, Tab 17, at 7).

Plaintiff points out that the Minutes from a Board of Directors' Meeting list as one of six rationales for continuing to participate in the vegetable business, "More than half a dozen Duda family members have interesting and challenging jobs in the fresh market business." [FN22] (Doc. 82).

FN22. The other five listed rationales were: 1) the Company's strategic capabilities lay in production and marketing of fresh market product; 2) expectation of continued market growth due to health-conscious aging population and reduced competition; 3) short-term and long-term cost competitive production locations; 4) ties between the fresh citrus and fresh vegetable business; 5) fresh vegetable business provides operating capital for other divisions during fiscal year. (Doc. 82).

d) Special Litigation Committee Interview Summary

According to a Special Litigation Committee Interview Summary, Dorothy Wise [FN23] said that "citrus and vegetables were 'Ferdinand's baby,' " and that " 'If I and my children can't have jobs in this family what do I need Duda for?' " (Doc. 123 at 2).

FN23. Dorothy Wise never worked for the Company. Her husband worked there for only a summer or two during college, about three decades ago. (Doc. 98 at 28). She has attended most Board meetings from 1989 to the present. (Id. at 38).

e) Sufficiency of the Evidence

Plaintiff has not produced evidence sufficient to overcome the presumption that the *1246 Defendant Directors acted in good faith. This Court will not substitute its judgment where the Board's decisions can be attributed to rational business purposes. Unocal Corp. v. Mesa Petroleum Co., 493 A.2d 946, 954 (Del. 1985).

Directors may, under Florida law, consider how a business decision will affect employees. Fla. Stat. § 607.0830(3). Here, the record establishes that Defendant Directors properly considered impact on employees, including family members, as one of many factors. (See, e.g., Doc. 90 at 85: "We looked at all our employees to see whether we needed them or not, family included."). No Director, including F.S. Duda himself, disputes that F.S. Duda felt strongly about family employment as an important facet to this family-run business. (See, e.g., Doc. 97 at 158; Doc. 90 at 103, 106). However, there is no evidence that F.S. Duda continued operating the vegetable and citrus businesses solely or even primarily to employ his family members. Plaintiff also has produced no evidence that the family employees lacked qualifications, received unreasonable compensation, or enjoyed undue advantage. In fact, the record The family employees' shows the opposite. compensation was reasonable and consistent with the pay for similar positions in the market. [FN24] In addition. Plaintiff's accusation makes no sense economically, for it would be irrational for a familyrun business to intentionally lose millions of dollars of shareholder value in order to sustain family employment when the employees' compensation is meager compared to shareholder dividends. (Doc. 84, Tab 22 at ¶ 41-44). Plaintiff has produced no evidence to show that the Defendant Directors, by continuing to employ family members, exercised bad faith, acted fraudulently or illegally, or abused their discretion.

FN24. (See Doc. 84, Tab 22 at ¶¶ 46-7).

2) Defendants Should Have Known to Exit Losing Operations Before 1996

[7] Plaintiff asserts that the Board knew that citrus and vegetables were predictable losers or underperformers by 1995 but failed to sell those operations to the detriment of the shareholders. Plaintiff points to several pieces of evidence in support of this assertion, including Larry Singleton's testimony, Directors' discussions, depositions of minority shareholders, and certain other documents, as identified below.

a) Singleton's Testimony

Singleton testified that, based on his analysis using the economic value added ("EVA") method, [FN25] citrus was a "value destructor" or underperformer and the vegetable business was a predictable loser for Duda. (Doc. 94 at 109-10). Singleton also testified, based on an analysis of the Company's financial records and allocation of

ţ

expenses (or lack thereof), [FN26] that the Defendant Directors should have seen the downward trend in vegetables and citrus and sold or restructured those operations. [FN27] FN25. The EVA method is a tool to measure a company's profitability.

FN26. Singleton claims the records show that vegetable and citrus operations lost tens of millions of dollars during the years 1989-95. Defendant Directors assert that the Company's actual performance contradicts Singleton's figures, but the Court must consider the facts in a light most favorable to Plaintiff.

FN27. When Singleton served as a consultant to Duda, he recommended that the Board sell the vegetable and real estate businesses, not the citrus business.

*1247 b) The Defendant Directors Often Discussed the Businesses' Volatility

Plaintiff suggests that the Defendant Directors knew that the vegetable and citrus businesses should be cut by 1995 because they often discussed the volatility and weaknesses of those businesses. In support, Plaintiff submits portions of Duda Minutes, memoranda, and reports. First, Plaintiff submitted the Minutes of the December 9, 1994, Annual Shareholders Meeting (Doc. 83, Tab 17), which stated, "Chairman [Edward] Duda ... indicated that the major problem was in vegetables, but that other areas did fairly well. [He] noted that vegetables have always been, and will continue to be, very volatile in nature...." Plaintiff did not note that this sentence continues, "but that the company has been working very hard since 1986 to diversify its holdings." (Id.).

Second, Plaintiff submits a June 5, 1996, Memorandum from Edward Duda to the Board of Directors (Doc. 99, Pl.'s Ex. 56), which notes, "The past ten years have demonstrated that ... fiscal 1996 will represent the fourth loss in seven years." Of course, this sentence is but one in a two-page memorandum, which goes on to discuss various studies of Duda's vegetable operations and plans to increase California vegetable operations in order to help stabilize prices and "improve our financial position." Page 31

Third, Plaintiff submits the Final Report of Vegetable Restructure Committee of July 1997 (Doc. 99, Pl.'s Ex. 3), which states, "The viability of the vegetable business has been questioned often and seriously for quite some time."

c) Historically Unsuccessful Actions

Plaintiff claims that steps the Defendant Directors did take to address the Company's financial problems were historically unsuccessful. For example, Plaintiff offers a 1993-94 Profit Plan & Strategic Plan Review by Barton Weeks, [FN28] which recognized NAFTA as a threat posed to Florida agriculture but that never dealt with how to alleviate the problem. (Doc. 72, at Ex. I). Plaintiff also cites the depositions of minority shareholders. For example, Dorothy Wise testified, "I don't know that [the Directors] accomplished anything or really did anything different than they had in the past." (Doc. 98 at 47). Luther Duda testified, "They've [the Directors] gone through the motions [of taking steps to increase profitability]. They've made some changes but they are woefully inadequate." (Doc. 91 [FN29] at 51-52). Plaintiff cites the Special Litigation Committee Report, insisting that the Defendant Directors also failed to adequately deal with environmental factors, perishability, foreign competition, pests and diseases, and diminished grapefruit consumption. (Special Litigation Committee Report at 36-37).

FN28. Weeks is currently the CFO of Duda's real estate company, Viera. (Doc. 97 at 9). He attends Board meetings, though not regularly. (Id. at 12).

FN29. Luther Duda worked for the Company from 1961 until 1995, and served on the Board until it was reduced to seven members. (Doc. 91 at 8, 16).

Finally, Plaintiff argues that because some steps-such as diversification into California and Texas and targeting large customers for contract or handle deals--were begun in the early 1990s but did not show immediate success, the Defendant Directors should have predicted by 1995 that these steps were not working and instead should have sold the relevant agribusinesses.

d) Sufficiency of the Evidence

Rather than producing evidence that the Defendant

ĺ

Ę

Directors acted in bad faith, *1248 Plaintiff has convinced this Court of the opposite, i.e., that they acted with good faith in contemplating how to deal with the volatile agribusinesses. [FN30] Indeed, the Defendant Directors not only knew about the threats and weaknesses to the agribusinesses, but they addressed them via reports, studies, discussions, and committees, and ultimately conceived of and implemented strategies and plans to reduce risks and increase profits. (See, e.g., Doc. 97 at 76, 86, 117-19; Doc. 89 at 53-54, 69; Doc. 96 at 63-64, 88; Doc. 90 at 64). Consistent with Florida Statute § 607.0830(2)(a) and (b), the Board regularly requested materials from management to help guide its decisions and to arrive at a consensus of best next steps. (See Doc. 84, Tab. 23, at ¶¶ 4-7; Id., Tab 24; at ¶ 2-5; Doc. 114 at ¶ 4-7; Doc. 108 at ¶ ¶ 5-8; Doc. 109 at ¶ 2-5; Doc. 107 at ¶ 2-5). The Defendant Directors, along with the rest of the Board, even discussed and contemplated the very strategy urged by Plaintiff-exiting the vegetable business. Ultimately, the Board determined that exit would not be valuable to shareholders [FN31] and thus decided instead to pursue long-term [FN32] strategies to reduce volatility, including: 1) increasing handle deals, 2) increasing contracts with national retailers, 3) diversifying, and 4) redeploying assets. [FN33] The fact that those strategies may not have produced immediate profits or annual dividends in no way evinces bad faith to prevent application of Florida's business judgment rule. See, e.g., Unocal, *1249 493 A.2d at 958 (holding that the board's actions were entitled to business judgment rule standards because the board acted in good faith and upon reasonable investigation); Treadway Cos. v. Care Corp., 638 F.2d 357, 384 (2d Cir.1980) (holding that the record--which revealed the directors engaged outside firms, were informed, and asked numerous questions to help them deliberate on a proposed merger--provided no adequate basis for finding lack of good faith). Plaintiff here has not overcome the presumption of the business judgment rule that Defendants acted in good faith. [FN34]

FN30. It is not surprising that Plaintiff had to base her lawsuit only on the results of the Board's actions, i.e., loss and lack of dividends in certain years, for she and other minority shareholders admit that they did not know what actions the Board took to improve profitability of the operations at issue. (See, e.g., Doc. 93 at 36-37, 161; Doc. 98 Page 32 at 47). Indeed, Plaintiff admits, as she must, that it is the Board's, not the shareholders', responsibility to resolve the problems at hand. (See, e.g., Doc. 93 at 91, 118). The only thing Plaintiff knew for certain was that "whatever [the Directors] tried didn't work." (Id. at 92). She bases her complaint on one accusation: "they did not solve the problem by cutting the losses in vegetables and citrus." (Id. at 158). Plaintiff even admitted that she could only speculate as to what the Board considered when they decided to stay in the vegetable business. (Id. at 101). Wise also admits that she was not "privileged" to what the Board used to decide whether to stay in the vegetable business, (Doc. 98 at 57) and that it is "not my job" to know what the Board could have done to improve profitability. (Id. at 69). Luther Duda also testified that he only knows the results of what the Board did, not necessarily what the Directors actually did or did not do as far as steps taken. (Doc. 91 at 34).

FN31. As Clark Daugherty testified, "You don't just go out of major parts of your business simply because they have one or two bad years, even in a row, if you feel that there's an opportunity to move forward with them." (Doc. 86 at 178). In fact, the last two years have shown profits for the Company. (Doc. 90 at 70).

FN32. Plaintiff also has shown no evidence that the Defendant Directors knew of threats and weaknesses and took actions they knew to be historically unsuccessful. First, as discussed, they did take some actions, and some directors testified that these risk-reducing changes could not have been made any faster. (See, e.g., Doc. 86 at 71; Doc. 90 at 124). Second, implementing a strategy that does not produce results until five to ten years hence does not reveal bad faith. Moreover, directors testified that "history" is not always a reliable predictor when an industry is in flux and/or a transitional period. (Doc. 97 at 133). Indeed, during the years at issue, both the vegetable and citrus industries were volatile, not just for Duda, but for all involved in those businesses. (Doc. 90 at 60; see also Doc. 86 at 71: "This is an industrial [sic] that is in evolution and flux and I think substantial progress has been made.").

FN33. It is of no import, as Plaintiff asserts, that the assets were not deployed in a manner to give shareholders dividends in certain years. (Doc. 93

FN34. Although the Court need not reach the issue of conscious disregard in relation to these Defendant Directors, it notes that if it had, Defendants did not cite case law which would have served as precedent. Coleman v. Associated Pipeline Contractors, Inc., 444 F.2d 737 (5th Cir.1971), a wrongful death case, construes Mississippi law regarding a contractor's duty, not a corporate director's duty. Rommell v. Auto. Racing Club of America, Inc., 964 F.2d 1090 (11th Cir.1992) is a car explosion case construing Alabama law and has nothing to do with corporations or standards for corporate directors.

Moreover, Defendants did not wholly fail to allocate expenses. (See, e.g., Doc. 97 at 25, 31, 41-44; see also Doc. 84, Tab 22 at § 50-55). Rather, Plaintiff's own evidence shows that Duda did allocate, just not to the same degree or in the same manner as Singleton suggests. (See, e.g., Doc. 118, referring to Overhead Allocation figures by Goldman Sachs, Lancaster, and Duda, gleaned from Pl.'s Ex. 20, 21, and 29, respectively; see also Doc. 97 at 42-43; Doc. 89 at 34). Even if the Court adopted Singleton's EVA allocation approach--which itself is but one method of economic analysis (Doc. 97 at 132)--which reveals significant losses, that still does not provide evidence sufficient to overcome the business judgment rule. Bal Harbour Club., 316 F.3d at 1192 (directors will not be called to account for their actions, no matter how poor their business judgment, absent a showing of abuse of discretion, fraud, bad faith, or illegality).

3) Selling of Assets

[8] Finally, Plaintiff asserts that the Defendant Directors approved asset sales in the 1990s to fund operating losses. As evidence, Plaintiff offers a Long-Range Strategic Plan adopted by the Board of Directors on November 1, 1996, and a Table from the Special Litigation Committee Report, which reflect that assets were sold to reduce debt and respond to cash-flow deficits. Plaintiff testified that the Defendant Directors should have sold the vegetable and citrus operations rather than the assets they did sell, because the vegetable and citrus operations were the ones losing money. (Doc. 93 at 95). Page 33

As above, there is no evidence that the Defendant Directors sold the relevant assets in bad faith. Defendant Directors do not dispute that they sold assets to reduce debt and to use the sales' proceeds to mitigate certain operating losses. (Doc. 97 at 68; Doc. 90 at 65-66). However, the record establishes that the Company sold these assets under threat of condemnation, as part of the Company's reorganization and disposal of under-productive assets, or simply as part of the company's consistent practice to buy and sell assets. Thus, the assets were sold based on rational business purposes, not as part of a bad-faith design to cover for operating losses. (Doc. 84, Tab 30 at ¶ 1-3; Doc. 84, Tab 22 at ¶ 34-36). Plaintiff has produced no evidence, other than conclusory statements, to the contrary.

IV. Conclusion

There are no material facts in dispute in this case. The only dispute is the inference 1250 Plaintiff seeks to draw from the facts--that Defendants acted in bad faith by not selling the Company's citrus and vegetable operations. Such an inference, however, is simply not supported by the facts. At best, Plaintiff's claims reflect hindsight judgment that the Defendant Directors could have done a better job developing and implementing different plans to address complex financial problems. Because the business judgment rule shields these Directors from liability, the Court need not reach the issue of their personal liability nor of damages. For all the foregoing reasons, it is therefore ADJUDGED and ORDERED that Defendant's, Ferdinand S. Duda, Motion for Summary Judgment as to Counts I and III (Doc. 71) is GRANTED, and Defendants,' Edward D. Duda, Ferdinand S. Duda, Clark Daugherty, R. Ray Goode, Allan R. Nagle, William W. Heintz, and A. Duda & Sons, Inc., Motion for Summary Judgment as to Count II (Doc. 73) is GRANTED. All other pending motions are DENIED AS MOOT. This case is removed from this Court's April trial docket, and the Pretrial Conference scheduled for March 12, 2003, is cancelled.

United States Court of Appeals, Fifth Circuit.

EMPIRE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF AMERICA, Plaintiff-Appellee, VALDAK CORPORATION, Defendant-Appellant.

No. 72-1063.

Oct. 12, 1972. Rehearing Denied Nov. 10, 1972.

Action for deficiency judgment after plaintiff's foreclosure sale of stock pledged by defendant as collateral for loan, wherein defendant filed counterclaim for fraudulent depletion of the collateral. The United States District Court for the District of Texas, at Dallas, Sarah Tilghman Hughes, J., dismissed the counterclaim and defendant appealed. The Court of Appeals, Goldberg, Circuit Judge, held that security agreement entered into ten months before effective date of Uniform Commercial Code in Texas, where acts were to be performed, or in North Dakota, where the agreement was executed, was governed by the prior law, even as to those aspects of transaction, including the foreclosure, that took place after the effective date of the Code. The Court also held that counterclaim of defendant stated cause of action for intentional depletion of collateral by plaintiff which controlled the company represented by the stock pledged.

Reversed and remanded.

*332 GOLDBERG, Circuit Judge:

In this diversity case involving the precipitous diminution in value of stock pledged by defendant as collateral for a loan, plaintiff, suing for a deficiency judgment after a foreclosure sale, advocated one theory of the Uniform Commercial Code; defendant advanced a different reading of the U.C.C., and the trial court applied yet a third application of the Code. Finding the Code to be inapplicable to the transaction at issue, and finding defendant's counterclaim for fraudulent depletion of the collateral wrongfully dismissed, we reverse and remand the case for a new trial.

The facts show that on September 30, 1965, plaintiff, an insurance company residing in Texas, loaned defendant, a North Dakota corporation, $350,000 with repayment due on September 30, 1970. As collateral for the loan, defendant pledged 50,000 shares of stock in National Insurance Company (hereinafter "National") in accordance with a written security agreement dated September 30, 1965, and apparently signed in North Dakota. Sometime in 1965 plaintiff gained control of National, and defendant alleges that at the time plaintiff took control the 50,000 shares held as collateral were worth approximately $24 a share ($1,200,000). When the note came due on September 30, 1970, defendant failed to pay. Shortly thereafter plaintiff notified defendant that the collateral would be liquidated at a given time and place at a private sale and that unless defendant paid the debt prior to the date of sale, plaintiff would file suit for whatever deficiency resulted from the foreclosure sale. Defendant failed to respond to the notice of sale and on November 30, 1970, plaintiff, allegedly in accordance with a provision in the security agreement permitting such action, sold the stock to itself for $3.00 a share ($150,000). In January of 1971, plaintiff filed this suit in federal court, claiming that defendant still owed $261,950 on the loan. [FN1]

Defendant answered that the purported private sale was invalid and that therefore no deficiency was owing, and further counterclaimed that since 1965 plaintiff fraudulently and illegally used its control of National to devalue the corporation and in consequence to deplete its assets in violation of plaintiff's duty to defendant as pledgee of the collateral. The fraudulent acts of plaintiff alleged by defendant included, inter alia, execution of a service agreement between the plaintiff insurance company and National which depleted National; discharge of experienced employees and depletion of National's agency force; sale of certain mortgages by plaintiff to National which resulted in a loss to National; and loans to officers and directors at lower rates of interest than the going rate, contrary to statute. Prior to trial, the district court granted plaintiff's motion to dismiss the counterclaim. [FN2]

FN2. The record does not reveal the specific reasons relied upon by the trial court for granting the dismissal. From our reading of the record, we assume the dismissal was based upon plaintiff's contentions that (1) the counterclaim was essentially derivative in nature and the failure to join National as a party plaintiff rendered the claim procedurally deficient under Rule 23.1, Fed.R.Civ.P.; and (2) the statute of limitations barred the counterclaim.

At the trial on plaintiff's main claim for the deficiency judgment, extensive evidence was introduced by both sides as to the value of the stock at various times and the case was sent to the jury with instructions to decide (1) whether the foreclosure sale met the standards of "commercial reasonableness" as defined in the Uniform Commercial Code, particularly section 9-504; and (2) what the fair market value of the National stock was on November 30, 1970. The jury returned a verdict finding that (1) the *333 sale was not "commercially reasonable," and (2) the fair market value of the stock on November 30, 1970, was $3.25 per share. The court thereby allowed defendant a set-off of $162,500 and gave plaintiff judgment for the deficiency, interest, and attorney's fees, totalling $249,400. From this judgment defendant appeals, claiming that (1) under the U.C.C., no deficiency should have been entered since there was a factual finding that the foreclosure sale was not commercially reasonable, and (2) the counterclaim for depletion of the collateral was wrongfully dismissed.

The Foreclosure Sale & Deficiency Judgment

At oral argument of this appeal, the bench raised the threshold question (apparently for the first time in the litigation) of whether the U.C.C., upon the standards of which the trial was based, was applicable to the transactions at issue. [FN3] The security agreement was drafted on September 30, 1965, and the effective date of the Code in both Texas and North Dakota [FN4] was July 1, 1966. Section 10-102(2) of the Code [FN5] provides:

FN3. The parties were given an opportunity to file supplemental briefs on the issue of whether the U.C.C. or prior law should be applied.

FN4. Inasmuch as the security agreement was apparently executed in North Dakota and involved acts to be performed in Texas, the trial court, on remand, must determine on the basis of the relevant facts which jurisdiction's pre-Code law should govern the instrument. Regardless of the determination of that issue, it is clear that the Code was not effective in either jurisdiction when the transaction was entered into.

FN5. We are cognizant of the rather enigmatic fact that Texas failed to re-enact article 10 of the Code when it enacted the Business and Commerce Code in 1967. Even assuming Texas law applies to the instant transaction (and we do not pass on that question), we do not believe that the Code was enacted with the intention of retroactive application. See Lack's Stores, Inc. v. Waisath, 464 S.W.2d 220 (Tex.Civ.App.1971), rev'd on other grounds, 474 S.W.2d 444 (Tex.Sup.Ct.).

"Transactions validly entered into before the effective date specified in Section 10-101 of this Act and the rights, duties and interests flowing from them remain valid thereafter and may be terminated, completed, consummated, or enforced as required or permitted by any statute or other law repealed or modified by this Act as though such repeal or modification had not occurred."

[1] In the overwhelming majority of cases where retroactivity of the Code has been in issue, it has been found that when a transaction was entered into [FN6] prior to the effective date of the Code, the transaction would thereafter be governed for all purposes by the law in effect when the transaction was entered into. E. g., In re Kokomo Times Publishing and Printing Corp., D.Ind.1968, 301 F.Supp. 529; Phoenix v. Kovacevich, 246 Cal.App.2d 774, 55 Cal.Rptr. 135 (1966); Leiter v. Arnold, 114 Ga.App. 323, 151 S.E.2d 175 (1966); Wellbro Building Co. v. McConnico, 421 P.2d 837 (Okl.1966); McCormack v. E. E. McCormack Co., 239 Or. 264, 397 P.2d 198 (1964); and Lack's Stores, Inc. v. Waisath, supra note 5. Contra, United Sec. Corp. v. Bruton, 213 A.2d 892 (D.C.App. 1965). The conclusion is therefore inescapable that this security agreement, entered into ten months before the effective date of the Code in both Texas and North Dakota, is governed by the prior law, even as to those aspects of the transaction, including the foreclosure, that took place after the effective date of the Code.

FN6. In cases such as the one before us, the transaction is considered to be "entered into" at the time the security agreement is executed.

[2] From our reading of the pre-Code law, it is clear that the standard for judging the validity of a foreclosure sale is significantly different from the standard enunciated in the U.C.C. Rather than employing a standard of "commercial reasonableness," which requires *334 the secured party to meet various prerequisites regardless of prearranged foreclosure provisions in the security agreement, the prior law merely requires the pledgee to dispose of the collateral in "good faith," Compliance with a prior contractual agreement as to the mode of disposal has, under the prior law, generally been considered good faith, absent some gross impropriety. See Taylor v. Banks, 392 S.W.2d 856 (Tex.Sup.Ct.1965); Anchor v. Gose, 8 S.W.2d 690 (Tex.Civ.App.1928); Elmer v. Elmer, 203 So.2d 391 (La.App. 1967); In re Kiamie's Estate, 309 N.Y. 325, 130 N.E.2d 745 (1955). The U.C.C. introduced into our commerce a new set of business folkways and commercial mores. The trial below, however, was wrongfully predicated upon that new set of folkways and mores. The commencement date of the Code was set by statute, and we are not at liberty to apply the law nunc pro tunc.

[3][4][5][6] We are fully cognizant of the fact that both parties and the trial court tried this case under the assumption that the U.C.C. was applicable, and we are aware that a new trial will be burdensome on Page 40 all parties. We are aware that as a general rule parties should be held bound by whatever theory of law they argued below and absent some manifest injustice, an appellate court should not allow a party to attempt a whole new theory after he has been unsuccessful at trial. See e. g., D. H. Overmyer Co. v. Loflin, 5 Cir. 1971, 440 F.2d 1213. The rationale for this rule derives from the needs of judicial economy and the desirability of having all parties present all their claims in the court of first instance. See Hormel v. Helvering, 1940, 312 U.S. 552, 556-560, 61 S.Ct. 719, 721-723, 85 L.Ed. 1037, 1040-1043. Here, however, it is not one of the parties seeking to advance a new theory, rather, it is this court, in fulfillment of its duty to apply the correct law, that is seeking to put the case back on the right track. [FN7] Since the case must, in any event, be remanded for trial on the counterclaim, neither the ends of judicial economy nor the ends of justice would be well served by our acquiescence in the erroneous application of law indulged in by all parties below. It is well established that as a matter of discretion, an appellate court may pass upon issues not pressed before it or raised below when the ends of justice will be best served by doing so. See American Surety Co. of N. Y. v. Colblentz, 5 Cir. 1967, 381 F.2d 185; In re Linda Coal and Supply Company, 1 Cir. 1958, 255 F.2d 653; De Fonce Construction Company v. City of Miami, 5 Cir. 1958, 256 F.2d 425. See, generally, Hormel v. Helvering, supra. We feel this is such an instance and that we would be amiss if we did otherwise.

FN7. Inasmuch as we find that the U.C.C. is inapplicable to the instant transaction, we find it unnecessary to pass on the correctness of the trial court's interpretation of the substantive provisions of the Code.

[7][8] Appellate review does not consist of supine submission to erroneous legal concepts even though none of the parties declaimed the applicable law below. McCrea v. Harris County Houston Ship Channel Navigation Dist., 5 Cir. 1970, 423 F.2d 605, 610; Kurdziel v. Pittsburgh Tube Co., 6 Cir. 1969, 416 F.2d 882, 886; Foster v. United States, 2 Cir. 1964, 329 F.2d 717, 718. See also International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Warehousemen & Helpers of America v. Zantop Air Transport Corp., 6 Cir. 1968, 394 F.2d 36, 40. Our duty is to enunciate the law on the record facts. Neither the parties nor the trial judge, by agreement or passivity, can force us to abdicate our appellate responsibility. We therefore must remand the case for retrial of plaintiff's claim for a deficiency judgment applying pre-Code standards.

Defendant's Counterclaim for Depletion of Collateral

[9] In his counterclaim defendant alleges various facts that, if true, show that plaintiff intentionally funneled the assets of National into Empire, which *335 consequently caused the value of the National shares to diminish substantially. With this claim, plaintiff as stockholder would clearly have a right to sue qua stockholder for fraudulent mismanagement of National. It is, however, an established rule that if a plaintiff sues in a stockholder capacity for corporate mismanagement, he must bring the suit derivatively in the name of the corporation. Schaffer v. Universal Rundle Corp., 5 Cir. 1968, 397 F.2d 893. The reason for this rule is that each shareholder suffers relatively in proportion to the number of shares he owns and each will be made whole if the corporation obtains compensation or restitution from the wrongdoer. If each shareholder could sue individually for his losses, the wrongdoer would be subject to "as many suits . . . as there were stockholders in the corporation." Sutter v. General Petroleum Corp., 28 Cal.2d 525, 170 P.2d 898 (1946).

[10] There exists, however, a wellrecognized exception to this general rule. Where the act complained of creates not only a cause of action in favor of the corporation but also creates a cause of action in favor of the stockholder, as an individual, for violation of a duty owing directly to him, the stockholder may bring suit as an individual. Buschmann v. Professional Men's Ass'n, 7 Cir. 1969, 405 F.2d 659, 661-663; Sutter v. General Petroleum Corp., supra; Sacks v. American Fletcher Nat'l Bank & Trust Co., 279 N.E.2d 807 (Ind.Sup.Ct.1972); Stinnett v. Paramount-Famous-Lasky Corp., 37 S.W.2d 145, 149 (Tex.Com. App.1931). See also Dann v. Studebaker-Packard Corp., 6 Cir. 1961, 288 F.2d 201; Bookout v. Schine Chain Theatres, Inc., 2 Cir. 1958, 253 F.2d 292, 295; Erlich v. Glasner, 9 Cir. 1969, 418 F.2d 226; Kauffman v. Dreyfus Fund, Inc., 3 Cir. 1970, 434 F.2d 727; Fisher v. Pederson, 100 N.W.2d 156 (N.D.Sup.Ct. 1959); 13 Fletcher Cyc. Corp. § 5921, pp. 303-05. We have stated the exception to the general rule in Schaffer v. Universal Rundle Corp., supra, as follows:

"The rule does not apply in a case where the stockholder shows a violation of duty owed directly to him. That exception to the general rule does not arise, however, merely because the acts complained of resulted in damage both to the corporation and to the stockholder, but is confined to cases where the wrong itself amounts to a breach of duty owed to the stockholder personally."

397 F.2d at 896.

[11] Defendant here alleges that plaintiff's acts not only violated its fiduciary duty to National but further violated its duty as pledgee not to deplete the value of the collateral intentionally. As a general proposition, the law implies a duty in the pledgee of stock to preserve the value of any collateral held by him to secure a loan. Eden v. Miller, 2 Cir. 1930, 37 F.2d 8; State Trust & Savings Bank v. Dunn, 5 Cir. 1928, 24 F.2d 477, rev'd on other grounds, 278 U.S. 582, 49 S.Ct. 184, 73 L.Ed. 518 (1929); Reed v. Central National Bank, 10 Cir. 1970, 421 F.2d 113; Kono v. Roeth, 237 App.Div. 252, 260 N.Y.S. 662 (1932); Grace v. Sterling, Grace & Co., 30 A.D.2d 61, 289 N.Y.S.2d 632 (1968).

[12] The fact that the pledgee of stock controls the company represented by the stock does not eliminate its duty not to deplete the collateral intentionally. The general rule was stated by Judge (later Chief Justice) Taft in Ritchie v. McMullen, 6 Cir. 1897, 79 F. 522, cert. denied, 168 U.S. 710, 18 S.Ct. 945, 42 L. Ed. 1212:

The bailee owes a direct duty to the pledgor to be reasonably careful that no harm shall come through his custody to the subject-matter of the pledge . . . It is true that the obligations of the pledgee of stock to the pledgor would not be violated by the pledgee if the stock held in pledge suffered a loss in value through negligence of the pledgee in acting as director of the company or through ill-advised or negligent voting of other stock owned by him. The fact that *336 the pledgee of stock owns other stock in the same company, or is a director or officer therein, does not impose any greater duty upon him, in respect to the stock pledged, than if he had no relation to the company at all. But, if such pledgee use his position as director and his vote as stockholder intentionally to depreciate the stock of his pledgor held in pledge with the dishonest purpose of acquiring ownership of the stock at forced sale, this is a direct injury done by him to his pledgor, and he cannot avoid direct liability to his pledgor for it, by pleading that the means by which he accomplished this wrong and violated his duty as pledgee, involved an injury to the corporation, for which it may also recover damages.

[13][14] Here, the defendant seeks damages as a pledgor. The fact that his pledge is stock and that if the manipulated depreciation of the stock is proven would also give rise to a derivative suit by defendant as stockholder should not foreclose the suit as pledgor. The role of pledgor and stockholder are not identical and defendant may play the part he chooses; when the curtain drops, the facts will invite finis. We find that defendant has alleged facts that, if proven, would state a good cause of action for intentional depletion of the collateral and is entitled to bring his claim as individual pledgor.

Plaintiff next argues that regardless of the form in which the suit is brought, since defendant failed to institute the action within two years after he had notice of the alleged fraud, the suit is barred by the Texas statute of limitations for actions for debt not evidenced by a contract in writing. See Tex.Rev. Civ.Stat.Ann. art. 5526. We do not know if the trial court addressed itself to the limitations question when dismissing the counterclaim. Irrespective of whether the two or four year statute of limitations applies, however, facts will have to be brought out with respect to the time or times of the alleged corporate depredations by plaintiff. The trial court could not rule on the limitations question on the basis of the pleadings filed in this action. There are no facts conclusively established by pleadings or evidence that would definitely determine which statute of limitations applies and at what time the cause of action accrued.

Ę

The trial court's dismissal of defendant's counterclaim is therefore reversed and remanded for trial in accordance with the appropriate rules involving a pledgee's duty to preserve collateral. Inasmuch as no facts were put into evidence below on the counterclaim, we make no findings as to the factual merit of defendant's claim.

DEFENDANTS', TED S. BERNSTEIN, LIC HOLDINGS, INC., AND ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, FIRST REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS TO PLAINTIFF, WILLIAM E. STANSBURY

(collectively "Defendants"), request Plaintiff, William E. Stansbury, to file a written response within

30 days of service, and to produce and permit Defendants to inspect and copy the documents listed on Exhibit "A" attached hereto at such place and time as may be agreed upon by counsel.

INSTRUCTIONS AND DEFINITIONS

A. The term "documents" as used in this request is defined as including, but not limited to, the original and any non-incidental copy (which is different from the original because of notations on such copy or otherwise) or draft of all correspondence, telegrams, telexes, teletype messages, contracts, memoranda, pencil jottings, diary entries, desk calendar entries, reported recollections and other written form of notation of events or intentions, transcripts and recordings of conversations and telephone calls, books, records, photographs, reports, charts, ledgers, invoices, financial statements, purchase orders, receipts, canceled checks, data compilations and other documentary material not subject to attorney/client privilege, together with any attachments thereto, or enclosures therewith.

B. The following additional definitions apply:

1. "Plaintiff," "You," "Your" or "Stansbury" shall mean Plaintiff, William E. Stansbury, as well as his agents, servants, employees, representatives, accountants, experts, attorneys, and assigns, or other persons acting or purporting to act on his behalf.

2. "LIC" shall mean Defendant, LIC Holdings, Inc., and/or its subsidiaries, as well as its agents, servants, employees, representatives, accountants, experts, attorneys, and assigns, or other persons acting or purporting to act on its behalf.

3. "AIM" shall mean Defendant, Arbitrage International Management, LLC f/k/a Arbitrage International Holdings, LLC, and/or its subsidiaries, as well as its agents, servants, employees, representatives, accountants, experts, attorneys, and assigns, or other persons acting or purporting to act on its behalf.

C. This request for production calls for production of all responsive documents in the possession, custody or control of you, your agents, or representatives without regard to physical location of said documents.

D. All documents shall be originals unless otherwise indicated. If the "original" is a photocopy (or other copy), then the photocopy should be produced as the original.

E. If you possess no documents responsive to a paragraph in this request, state this fact, specifying the paragraph concerned and where the documents may be found to the best of your belief.

F. If you object in part to any request for production, please produce the portion of the documents requested to which you do not object, and state your objections to the remainder.

G. If you claim a privilege of any type with respect to any of the documents, please identify the documents by date, title and each other descriptive information as will clearly identify the document. Further, the objection should state the legal basis of the privilege claim and provide such supporting information as will establish the claimed privilege.

H. In the event you do not have "possession" of any of the documents requested in this production, but you know that they are in the possession of other parties, give a brief description of the document(s) and the name and address of the party thought to be in possession thereof.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE 15th JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA

WILLIAM E. STANSBURY,

CASE NO: 50 2012 CA 013933 MB AA

Plaintiff,

vs.

TED S. BERNSTEIN; DONALD TESCHER and ROBERT SPALLINA, as co-personal representatives of the ESTATE OF SIMON L. BERNSTEIN and as co-trustees of the SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT dated May 20, 2008; LIC HOLDINGS, INC.; ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, f/k/a ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, LLC; BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC,

Defendants.

DEFENDANTS', TED S. BERNSTEIN, LIC HOLDINGS, INC. AND ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, LLC, SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSE TO REQUEST TO PRODUCE AND NOTICE OF COMPLIANCE WITH OMNIBUS ORDER

Defendants, Ted S. Bernstein, LIC Holdings, Inc. and Arbitrage International Holdings, LLC

(collectively "Defendants"), submit their supplemental response as to Plaintiff's Request to Produce and their Notice of Complying with the Court's Omnibus Order compelling discovery, as follows:

Items 1-3.

Defendants are producing printouts of e-mails which show, evidence or reflect any communications between LIC Holdings, Arbitrage Management or Ted Bernstein or anyone acting on their behalf, from January 1, 2007 to the present, either:

to William Stansbury; from William Stansbury; which mention William Stansbury; or which are related to William Stansbury.

At present, there are 15,500 such emails which are being produced. Although Defendants' believe, based upon consultation with their IT professionals, that this production is complete, Defendants' have instructed their IT consultants to verify this and conduct a further search for any additional documents, and any such documents located will be produced separately. These will be mailed on a flash drive to Plaintiffs' counsel.

Item 4.

Defendants are required to produce all documents that show evidence or reflect any business relationships you (LIC, Arbitrage, or Ted) have or had with William Stansbury since January 1, 2007 to the present. The documents produced in response to Items 1-3, and 5-6 and 16, and 8-9 would be responsive to this request, and Defendants are not aware of having possession of any documents other than those being produced under the above-listed categories.

Items 5-6 and 16.

Defendants are producing herewith a summary of compensation and distributions paid to William E. Stansbury from 2007 to 2012.

Defendants also are producing herewith a Net Retained Commission computer file for 2007 and 2008, in hardcopy printout and also in an Excel spreadsheet. The Net Retained Commission Report was not maintained after 2008. Defendants have not located copies of the actual monthly Net Retained Commission reports created by Stansbury and used on a monthly basis to determine the compensation due to Stansbury when he was entitled to any such compensation.

Items 8-9.

Defendants are producing herewith a list of the ownership of LIC Holdings, Inc. ("LIC") from 2006 to the present. Arbitrage, at all times, was wholly owned by LIC.

Defendants also are producing herewith a list of officers with titles for each entity.

Item 14.

All 1099s from Ted, Simon or William Stansbury to the corporation from 2007 to present, which include the year ranges set forth below, are being produced herewith:

DEFENDANT'S, SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST, MOTION TO DISMISS

Defendant, Shirley Bernstein Trust Agreement dated May 20, 2008 ("Bernstein Trust"), by and through its Successor Trustee, Ted S. Bernstein ("Bernstein Trustee"), moves to dismiss the Amended Complaint served on April 22, 2013, upon Donald L. Tescher, as alleged Successor Trustee, and states:

1. The Amended Complaint should be dismissed for insufficient service of process. The Complaint was never served upon the Bernstein Trustee, and therefore, service is improper and should be quashed.

2. The Bernstein Trust adopts and incorporates herein the grounds for dismissal asserted by Bernstein Family Realty, LLC, in its motion served on May 10, 2013, as if fully set forth herein.

3. The Amended Complaint also does not assert any legally cognizable claim against the Bernstein Trust. First, the Amended Complaint fails to set forth sufficient allegations to support a claim for equitable lien or constructive trust over the Bernstein Trust or any property held or owned by such trust.

4. Second, the claims by Plaintiff belong, in whole or in part, to one or both of the legal entities known as LIC Holdings, Inc., a Florida corporation ("LIC") and/or Arbitrage International Management, LLC, a Florida limited liability company ("Arbitrage") (collectively the "Companies"). Plaintiff asserts that co-defendants, Ted S. Bernstein and Simon Bernstein , breached a fiduciary duty owed to the Companies and seeks an award of monies which necessarily would flow back to the Companies, not directly to Plaintiff. Thus, in Counts III and VIII, Plaintiff asserts derivative claims on behalf of the Companies. In this regard, Bernstein Trust adopts and incorporates herein the grounds for dismissal asserted by Ted S. Bernstein in his April 23, 2013, as if fully set forth herein.

5. Specifically, Plaintiff in this case has direct and derivative claims filed in the same lawsuit, there is a misjoinder issue which mandates the dismissal of the Complaint. Plaintiff cannot sue in different capacities in the same lawsuit. Department of Ins. v. Coopers & Lybrand, 570 So. 2d 369, 370 (Fla. 3d DCA 1990); Karnegis v. Lazzo, 243 So. 2d 642 (Fla. 3d DCA 1971); Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.110(g) ("A pleader may set up in the same action as many claims or causes of action ... in the same right as he has ...") (emphasis added).

6. Plaintiff lacks standing to bring any derivative claims on behalf of Arbitrage because he was never a shareholder of Arbitrage, and makes no such allegation in his Complaint.

7. Plaintiff lacks standing to bring any derivative claims on behalf of LIC or Arbitrage because, as alleged in paragraph 31, Plaintiff ceded his 10% interest in LIC. See§ 607.07401, Fla.

Stat.; Timko v. Triarsi, 898 So. 2d 89, 91 (Fla. 5th DCA 2005) (holding that once the complaining shareholders' shares were repurchased, the complaining former shareholder could not continue to prosecute a derivative claim).

8. Plaintiff failed to allege that Plaintiff made a demand on the Corporation to bring these claims before filing their Counterclaim. Allegations of a demand is a statutory pre-requisite for maintaining a derivative action. § 607.07401(2). The Complaint also is not verified as required by that statute.

WHEREFORE, Defendant, Bernstein Trust by and through Bernstein Trustee, respectfully requests that this Court dismiss the Amended Complaint; award Defendant its costs and attorneys' fees pursuant to any applicable contract or statute; and grant such other relief as is just.

Defendants.

._____/

DEFENDANT'S, TED S. BERNSTEIN, MOTION TO DISMISS COUNTS III, VII, AND VIII

Defendant, Ted S. Bernstein ("Bernstein"), moves to dismiss Counts III, VII, and VIII of the Amended Complaint (the "Complaint"), and states:

1. The claims asserted in Counts III and VIII by Plaintiff against Bernstein belong to one or both of the legal entities known as LIC Holdings, Inc., a Florida corporation ("LIC") and/or Arbitrage International Management, LLC, a Florida limited liability company ("Arbitrage") (collectively the "Companies"). Plaintiff asserts that Bernstein breached a fiduciary duty owed to the Companies and seeks an award of monies which necessarily would flow back to the Companies, not directly to Plaintiff. Thus, in Counts III and VIII, Plaintiff asserts derivative claims on behalf of the Companies.

Case: 1:13-cv-03643 Document #: 258-3 Filed: 08/27/16 Page 976 of 1000 PageID #:7416 Case: 17-3595 Document: 12-11 Filed: 03/12/2018 Pages: 1000

2. For example, in paragraph 47, Plaintiff alleges that Bernstein had a fiduciary duty "to act in good faith towards Stansbury and to act in the best interests of LIC Holdings and Arbitrage." The breaches alleged in paragraph 55, if proven, would result only in direct harm to the Companies by virtue, of among other things, (a) directing payments of Company money to third parties; (b) directing Companies to pay improper expenses; (c) transferring monies from Companies to third parties; (d) paying exorbitant compensation; and (e) committing corporate waste.

3. Any damages for these claims, if proven, would flow to and be property of the Companies, and nothing would flow directly to any shareholder. Thus, these are classic derivative claims. Plaintiff senses that, so he alleges that any damages were suffered by him individually and not to the corporation (Complaint, ¶58), but such allegation cannot change the character of these derivative claims. If, hypothetically, the Company paid $100 in extra compensation to someone, that would mean, at best, that the Company will receive $100, which the Company is under no obligation to distribute to anyone. In Counts III and VIII, Plaintiff does not assert any injury to himself which is separate from the injury allegedly suffered by the Companies, as the only injury claimed by Plaintiff would be a pro-rata percentage of the alleged damages which would have been suffered solely by the Companies. Thus, these claims are wholly (or at least partly) derivative.

4. The derivative action claims must be dismissed for several reasons. First, because Plaintiff in this case has direct and derivative claims filed in the same lawsuit, there is a misjoinder issue which mandates the dismissal of the Complaint. Plaintiff cannot sue in different capacities in the same lawsuit. Department of Ins. v. Coopers & Lybrand, 570 So. 2d 369, 370 (Fla. 3d DCA 1990); Karnegis v. Lazzo, 243 So. 2d 642 (Fla. 3d DCA 1971) (plaintiff may not by shareholders' derivative action seek in same lawsuit accounting from corporation when he personally sought accounting and damages from majority stockholders, officers, and directors); 1 Am.Jur.2d Actions § 94 (1994) ("One cannot in the same action sue in more than one distinct right or capacity" citing Coopers & Lybrand); Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.110(g) ("A pleader may set up in the same action as many claims or causes of action ... in the same right as he has ...") (emphasis added).

5. Second, Plaintiff lacks standing to bring derivative claims on behalf of Arbitrage because he was never a shareholder of Arbitrage, and makes no such allegation in his Complaint.

6. Third, Plaintiff lacks standing to bring any derivative claims on behalf of LIC or Arbitrage because, as alleged in paragraph 31, Plaintiff ceded his 10% interest in LIC. Even if Plaintiff is no longer a shareholder as a result of alleged fraud, the fact remains that Plaintiff is not currently a shareholder of LIC. Therefore, Counts III and VIII of the Complaint should be dismissed. As a disgruntled former shareholder of the Corporation, Plaintiff has no legal standing to assert derivative claims at this juncture because he was not a shareholder at the time the suit was filed and he is no longer a shareholder of the Corporation, as required by Florida law. See§ 607.07401, Fla. Stat.; Timko v. Triarsi, 898 So. 2d 89, 91 (Fla. 5th DCA 2005) (holding that once the complaining shareholders' shares were repurchased, the complaining former shareholder could not continue to prosecute a derivative claim).

7. Fourth, Plaintiff also fails to state a derivative claim because the Complaint fails to allege that Plaintiff made a demand on the Corporation to bring these claims before filing their Counterclaim. Allegations of a demand is a statutory pre-requisite for maintaining a derivative action. § 607.07401(2). The Complaint also is not verified as required by that statute.

8. Fifth, as to the merits, Plaintiff's individual claim against Bernstein for the alleged breaches of fiduciary duty relating to Plaintiff's rights as shareholder of LIC are improper. As an officer and director of LIC, Bernstein owed a fiduciary duty to the Company and the shareholders as a whole, not as to any particular shareholder or group of shareholders. Shareholders must bring a derivative action to pursue a claim against an officer or director unless the alleged injury is separate and distinct from any injury the complaining party suffered as a shareholder, in common with all other shareholders. Because Plaintiff fails to allege any injury separate and apart from the alleged injury Plaintiff suffered as a shareholder, in common with all other shareholders, Plaintiff lacks standing to bring any individual claim against Bernstein.

9. There is a clear and necessary distinction between an individual action and one brought in a derivative capacity. Alario v. Miller, 354 So. 2d 925, 926 (Fla. 2d DCA 1978). The body of the complaint determines whether the injury is direct to the stockholder making the cause of action individual to him or whether the injury is indirect as to the stockholder and the cause of action is derivative from the corporation. Id. The nature of the injuries alleged and the wrongs sought to be remedied are the key to determining whether an action is derivative or individual. Id.

10. The law "is well-established that if a plaintiff sues in a stockholder capacity for corporate mismanagement, she must sue derivatively in the corporation's name." Kloha v. Duda, 246 F. Supp. 2d 1237, 1242 (M.D. Fla. 2003)(citing Empire Life Ins. Co. of Am. v. Valdak Corp., 468 F.2d 330, 335 (5th Cir. 1972)). This rule is a necessity because "[i]f each shareholder could sue individually for his losses, the wrongdoer would be subject to as many suits as there were stockholders in the corporation." Empire Life, 468 F.2d at 335 (citations and quotations omitted). If the injury to the individual shareholder is not direct, but rather indirect, the injury is insufficient to allow the shareholder to bring a direct claim. Id. In other words, the member can bring a direct claim:

in a case where the stockholder shows a violation of duty owed directly to him. That exception to the general rule does not arise, however, merely because the acts complained of resulted in damage both to the corporation and to the stockholder, but is confined to cases where the wrong itself amounts to a breach of duty owed to the stockholder personally.

Empire Life, 468 F.2d at 335 (citation omitted) (emphasis added).

WHEREFORE, Defendant, Ted S. Bernstein, respectfully requests that this Court dismiss

Counts III, VII, and VIII; award Defendant his costs and attorneys' fees pursuant to any applicable contract or statute; and grant such other relief as is just.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

86. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the applicable statute of limitations and/or laches.

87. Plaintiffs claims are barred in whole or in part by the statute of frauds.

88. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff lacks standing to pursue derivative claims because he is no longer a shareholder in LIC and lacks standing to pursue other claims because is no longer an employee of LIC or Arbitrage.

89. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by because Plaintiff has misjoined causes of action held in different capacities, and therefore, the Complaint is improper and, at a minimum, certain claims must be dismissed such that Plaintiff pursues only those claims he has in one capacity.

90. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of waiver. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies and was aware of the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and waived any claims against Defendants.

91. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of ratification. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies, and the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and ratified such alleged actions.

92. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of estoppel. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies, and was aware of the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and therefore is estopped to assert any claims against Defendants.

93. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of acquiescence. Plaintiff was aware of the facts and circumstances of the companies' operations, and the financial transactions and dealings within the companies, and was aware of the alleged actions which form the basis of his claim, and therefore acquiesced in the conduct about which he now complains.

94. Plaintiff's claims against Ted Bernstein are barred in whole or in part by the corporate shield doctrine. All of the actions allegedly taken by Bernstein were actions taken on behalf of a legal entity (corporation or limited liability company), and not on behalf of himself individually, and therefore, any claims against Bernstein individually are barred.

94. Plaintiff has failed to comply with the requirements of section 607.07401 of the Florida Statutes.

WHEREFORE, having answered the Complaint, Defendants demand judgment in their favor, together with an award of costs and, pursuant to any applicable contract or statute, attorneys' fees, and such other relief as it just.

COUNTERCLAIM

Counter-Plaintiff, Arbitrage International Management, LLC ("Arbitrage"), sues Defendant, William E. Stansbury ("Stansbury"), and states:

1. Arbitrage is a Florida limited liability company with its principal place of business in Palm Beach County, Florida.

2. Stansbury is a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida.

3. As part of his work for Arbitrage and its affiliated company, LIC Holdings, Inc., Stansbury was listed as the licensed insurance agent of record on various contracts and policies of insurance with various insurance companies, under which those insurance companies would make payments of commissions and renewals due to Arbitrage only by way of a check payable to one of the individuals, including in many cases Stansbury individually.

4. Pursuant to the agreement of the parties, Stansbury was to deliver all such checks to Arbitrage, because all receipts for commissions, renewals or other revenue received by Stansbury for contracts or policies generated during the time of his employment were property of his employer.

5. Upon information and belief, before the time that Stansbury voluntarily terminated his employment with Arbitrage, Stansbury received and collected checks made payable to him, but which properly belonged to Arbitrage, and retained those funds for his sole and exclusive use and benefit.

6. Further, after Stansbury voluntarily terminated his employment with Arbitrage, Stansbury continued to receive checks made payable to him, but which properly belonged to Arbitrage, and Stansbury retained the benefit of such checks for his sole and exclusive use and benefit. In addition, for some period of time after he voluntarily terminated his employment, Stansbury has been depositing certain checks into the trust account of his attorney, Peter Feaman.

 All conditions precedent to the bringing of his action have occurred, been satisfied, or waived.

COUNT I - BREACH OF CONTRACT

8. Arbitrage realleges paragraphs 1 though 7 above.

9. This is an action for breach of contract and seeks damages in excess of $15,000, exclusive of interest, costs and attorneys' fees.

10. Pursuant to the agreement between Arbitrage and Stansbury, Stansbury was required to deliver to Arbitrage all checks made payable to him for contracts or policies of insurance which relate to work done during the time of Stansbury's employment.

11. For the vast majority of the duration of Stansbury's employment, Stansbury complied with the parties' oral agreement and, as far as Arbitrage is presently aware, Stansbury did in fact deliver to Arbitrage all checks he received. However, upon information and belief, Stansbury may have withheld checks from Arbitrage at various times.

12. At some point before the voluntary termination of his employment, and for all times after the voluntary termination of his employment, Stansbury has retained for himself and refused to turn over to Arbitrage checks received by him, payable to him individually, but which otherwise should have been turned over to Arbitrage.

13. By his actions in retaining checks payable to him but which should have been turned over to Arbitrage, Stansbury has breached his agreement with Arbitrage.

14. As a direct and proximate result of Stansbury breach of the parties' agreement, Arbitrage has been damaged in an amount to be determined through discovery and at trial, including the amount held in the trust account of Peter Feaman.

WHEREFORE, Arbitrage demands judgment in its favor against Stansbury for compensatory damages, together with an award of costs and, pursuant to any applicable statute or contract, an award of attorneys' fees, and such other relief as is just.

COUNT II - DECLARATORY JUDGMENT

15. Arbitrage realleges paragraphs 1 though 7 and 10 through 13 above.

16. This is an action for a declaratory judgment and for supplemental relief.

17. There is a genuine and immediate dispute between the parties as to the entitlement to certain checks which are made payable to Stansbury individually, but which properly belong to Arbitrage as the commissions and renewals received for contracts and policies of insurance, and other revenues of Arbitrage which are payable directly to Stansbury individually.

18. There is a bona fide, actual, present and practical need for the declaration.

19. The declaration deals with a present, ascertained or ascertainable state of facts or present controversy as to a state of facts regarding who is entitled to the checks held by Stansbury or his counsel.

20. An immunity, power, privilege or right of Arbitrage is dependent upon the facts or the law applicable to the facts.

21. Stansbury has, or reasonably may have, an actual, present, adverse and antagonistic interest in the subject matter, either in fact or law.

22. The antagonistic and adverse interests are all properly before the Court.

23. The relief sought is not merely the giving of legal advice or the answer to questions propounded from curiosity.

24. Based upon the foregoing, Arbitrage seeks a declaration that Stansbury is required to turn over to Arbitrage all checks received by him, which are payable to Stansbury individually, but which relate to contracts or policies of insurance, or other revenues generated by Arbitrage or by Stansbury while he was employed by Arbitrage.

25. Moreover, Arbitrage requests a declaratory judgment that it is entitled to all funds currently being held in the trust account of Peter Feaman, which represent checks received by Stansbury which are made payable to Stansbury individually, but which otherwise properly belong to Arbitrage.

26. Arbitrage also seeks a declaration that its rights to all such funds are superior to the rights and claims of Stansbury.

WHEREFORE, Arbitrage seeks a declaratory judgment as to its rights to the personal property described above, together with supplemental relief to the extent necessary, an award of costs and, pursuant to any applicable statute or contract, an award of attorneys' fees, and such other relief as is just.
