My tax return preparer GERALD R. LEWIN has informed me that the tax return preparer may be required to electronically file my 2011 individual income tax return FORM 1040 if the tax return preparer files it with the IRS on my behalf (e.g., submits it by mail to the IRS). I understand that electronic filing may provide a number of benefits to taxpayers, including an acknowledgement that the IRS received the returns, a reduced chance of errors in processing the returns, and faster refunds. I do not want to have my return electronically filed, and I choose to file my return on paper forms. I will mail or otherwise submit my paper return to the IRS myself. My preparer will not file or otherwise mail or submit my paper return to the IRS.

My tax return preparer GERALD R. LEWIN has informed me that the tax return preparer may be required to electronically file my 2011 individual income tax return FORM 1040 if the tax return preparer files it with the IRS on my behalf (e.g., submits it by mail to the IRS). I understand that electronic filing may provide a number of benefits to taxpayers, including an acknowledgement that the IRS received the returns, a reduced chance of errors in processing the returns, and faster refunds. I do not want to have my return electronically filed, and I choose to file my return on paper forms. I will mail or otherwise submit my paper return to the IRS myself. My preparer will not file or otherwise mail or submit my paper return to the IRS.

Ted – I'm done with this matter. I have bent over backwards for YOU to try to keep things in order out of respect for your father and mother but your family has gotten to the point of completely dysfunctional and I do not need the aggravation in my life. Handle the insurance matter as you please (or as your in-laws please which seems to be the case). I cannot and will not help people that do not want to help themselves. Don is a much more patient man than I so he may continue to assist you but I will not. Sorry.

Mr. Spallina: the reason we filed in Illinois was to make sure this matter got started somewhere. If we dismiss we have no assurance that the matter will be promptly filed in Florida.

Please explain what prevents Heritage or you from filing in Florida before we dismiss our action in Illinois?

Thank you.

He is in the process of speaking to counsel here in Palm Beach County. As discussed Monday, please withdraw the pleading filed in Cook County and provide notice of same to all the parties on this email. He cannot file his inter-pleader with this matter pending in Cook County. Thank you

Mr. Simon - we would like an explanation as well. Our client, Ted Bernstein (and the alleged successor trustee of the subject trust), never had a conversation with us that his family would be taking it upon themselves to attempt to collect the proceeds from the carrier through his brother-in-law's firm. We have represented this trust from the date of Mr. Bernstein's death. Is our client even aware that this was filed? He did not sign the pleading. Please advise.

Mr. Simon - we would like an explanation as well. Our client, Ted Bernstein (and the alleged successor trustee of the subject trust), never had a conversation with us that his family would be taking it upon themselves to attempt to collect the proceeds from the carrier through his brother-in-law's firm. We have represented this trust from the date of Mr. Bernstein's death. Is our client even aware that this was filed? He did not sign the pleading. Please advise.

This is the amount earned after ordinary and necessary monthly business expenses are paid. This figure is the amount from page 6, line 89. If the net business income is a loss, enter "0". Information You Need to Know When Requesting A Collection Due Process Hearing

What is the Deadline for Requesting a Timely Collection Due Process (CDP) Hearing?

- Your request for a CDP hearing about a Federal Tax Lien filing must be postmarked by the date indicated in the Notice of Federal Tax Lien Filing and Your Right to a Hearing under IRC 6320 (lien notice).
- Your request for a CDP hearing about a levy must be postmarked within 30 days after the date of the Notice of Intent to Levy and Notice of Your Right to a Hearing (levy notice) or Notice of Your Right to a Hearing After an Actual Levy.

Your timely request for a CDP hearing will prohibit levy action in most cases. A timely request for CDP hearing will also suspend the 10-year period we have, by law, to collect your taxes. Both the prohibition on levy and the suspension of the 10-year period will last until the determination the IRS Office of Appeals makes about your disagreement is final. The amount of time the suspension is in effect will be added to the time remaining in the 10-year period. For example, if the 10-year period is suspended for six months, the time left in the period we have to collect taxes will be extended by six months.

You can go to court to appeal the CDP determination the IRS Office of Appeals makes about your disagreement.

What Is an Equivalent Hearing?

If you still want a hearing with the IRS Office of Appeals after the deadline for requesting a timely CDP hearing has passed, you can use this form to request an equivalent hearing. You must check the Equivalent Hearing box on line 7 of the form to request an equivalent hearing. An equivalent hearing request does not prohibit levy or suspend the 10-year period for collecting your taxes; also, you cannot go to court to appeal the IRS Office of Appeals' decision about your disagreement. You must request an equivalent hearing within the following timeframe:

- Lien Notice – one year plus five business days from the filing date of the Federal Tax Lien
- Levy Notice – one year from the date of the levy notice
- Your request for a CDP levy hearing, whether timely or Equivalent, does not prohibit the Service from filing a Notice of Federal Tax Lien.

Where Should You File Your CDP or Equivalent Hearing Request?

File your request by mail at the address on your lien notice or levy notice. You may also fax your request. Call the telephone number on the lien or levy notice to ask for the fax number. Do not send your CDP or equivalent hearing request directly to the IRS Office of Appeals, it must be sent to the address on the lien or levy notice. If you send your request directly to Appeals it may result in your request not being considered a timely request. Depending upon your issue the originating function may contact you in an attempt to resolve the issue(s) raised in your request prior to forwarding your request to Appeals.

Where Can You Get Help?

You can call the telephone number on the lien or levy notice with your questions about requesting a hearing. The contact person listed on the notice or other representative can access your tax information and answer your questions.

In addition, you may qualify for representation by a low-income taxpayer clinic for a free or nominal charge. Our Publication 4134, Low Income Taxpayer Clinic List, provides information on clinics in your area.

If you are experiencing economic harm, the Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) may be able to help you resolve your problems with the IRS. TAS cannot extend the time you have to request a CDP or equivalent hearing. See page five of Publication 594, The Collection Process, or visit www.irs.gov/advocate/index.html. You can also call 1-877-777-4778 for TAS assistance.

Note – The IRS Office of Appeals will not consider frivolous requests. You can find examples of frivolous reasons for requesting a hearing or disagreeing with a tax assessment in Publication 2105, Why do I have to Pay Taxes?, or at www.irs.gov by typing "frivolous" into the search engine

You can get copies of tax forms, schedules, instructions, publications, and notices at www.irs.gov, at your local IRS office, or by calling toll-free 1-800-TAX-FORM (829-3676).

Information You Need to Know When Requesting A Collection Due Process Hearing

What Are Examples of Reasons for Requesting a Hearing?

You will have to explain your reason for requesting a hearing when you make your request. Below are examples of reasons for requesting a hearing.

You want a collection alternative—“I would like to propose a different way to pay the money I owe.” Common collection alternatives include:

- Full payment – you pay your taxes by personal check, cashier's check, money order, or credit card.
- Installment Agreement – you pay your taxes fully or partially by making monthly payments.
- Offer in Compromise – you offer to make a payment or payments to settle your tax liability for less than the full amount you owe.

“I cannot pay my taxes.” Some possible reasons why you cannot pay your taxes are: (1) you have a terminal illness or excessive medical bills; (2) your only source of income is Social Security payments, welfare payments, or unemployment benefit payments; (3) you are unemployed with little or no income; (4) you have reasonable expenses exceeding your income; or (5) you have some other hardship condition. The IRS Office of Appeals may consider freezing collection action until your circumstances improve. Penalty and interest will continue to accrue on the unpaid balance.

You want action taken about the filing of the tax lien against your property – You can get a Federal Tax Lien released if you pay your taxes in full. You also may request a lien subordination, discharge, or withdrawal. See www.irs.gov for more information.

When you request lien subordination, you are asking the IRS to make a Federal Tax Lien secondary to a non-IRS lien. For example, you may ask for a subordination of the Federal Tax Lien to get a refinancing mortgage on your house or other real property you own. You would ask to make the Federal Tax Lien secondary to the mortgage, even though the mortgage came after the tax lien filing. The IRS Office of Appeals would consider lien subordination, in this example, if you used the mortgage proceeds to pay your taxes.

When you request a lien discharge, you are asking the IRS to remove a Federal Tax Lien from a specific property. For example, you may ask for a discharge of the Federal Tax Lien in order to sell your house if you use all of the sale proceeds to pay your taxes even though the sale proceeds will not fully pay all of the tax you owe.

When you request a lien withdrawal, you are asking the IRS to remove the Notice of Federal Tax Lien (NFTL) information from public records because you believe the NFTL should not have been filed. For example, you may ask for a withdrawal of the filing of the NFTL if you believe the IRS filed the NFTL prematurely or did not follow procedures, or you have entered into an installment agreement and the installment agreement does not provide for the filing of the NFTL. A withdrawal does not remove the lien from your IRS records.

Your spouse is responsible—“My spouse (or former spouse) is responsible for all or part of the tax liability.” You may believe that your spouse or former spouse is the only one responsible for all or a part of the tax liability. If this is the case, you are requesting a hearing so you can receive relief as an innocent spouse. You should complete and attach Form 8857, Request for Innocent Spouse Relief, to your hearing request.

Other Reasons—“I am not liable for (I don't owe) all or part of the taxes.” You can raise a disagreement about the amount you owe only if you did not receive a deficiency notice for the liability (a notice explaining why you owe taxes-it gives you the right to challenge in court, within a specific timeframe, the additional tax the IRS says you owe), or if you have not had another prior opportunity to disagree with the amount you owe.

“I do not believe I should be responsible for penalties.” The IRS Office of Appeals may remove all or part of the penalties if you have a reasonable cause for not paying or not filing on time. See Notice 746, Information About Your Notice, Penalty and Interest for what is reasonable cause for removing penalties.

“I have already paid all or part of my taxes.” You disagree with the amount the IRS says you haven't paid if you think you have not received credit for payment you have already made.

See Publication 594, The IRS Collection Process, for more information on the following topics: Installment Agreements and Offer in Compromise; Lien Subordination, Discharge, and Withdrawal; Innocent Spouse Relief; Temporarily Delay Collection; and belief that tax bill is wrong.

Collection Appeal Rights

You may appeal many IRS collection actions to the IRS Office of Appeals (Appeals). The Office of Appeals is separate from and independent of the IRS Collection office that initiated the collection action. We ensure and protect our independence by adhering to a strict policy of no ex parte communication with the IRS Collection office about the accuracy of the facts or the merits of your case without providing you an opportunity to participate at that meeting. Revenue Procedure 2000-43 has more information about Appeals' mandatory independence and ex parte communication and is available at www.irs.gov. The two main procedures are Collection Due Process and Collection Appeals Program. Other procedures are described on page four of this publication and at www.irs.gov.

Collection Due Process (CDP) is available if you receive one of the following notices:

- Notice of Federal Tax Lien Filing and Your Right to a Hearing under IRC 6320
- Final Notice - Notice of Intent to Levy and Notice of Your Right to a Hearing
- Notice of Jeopardy Levy and Right of Appeal
- Notice of Levy on Your State Tax Refund – Notice of Your Right to a Hearing
- Notice of Levy and Notice of Right to a Hearing with respect to a Disqualified Employment Tax Levy

Collection Appeals Program (CAP) is available for the following actions:

- Before or after the IRS files a Notice of Federal Tax Lien
- Before or after the IRS levies or seizes your property
- Termination, or proposed termination, of an installment agreement
- Rejection of an installment agreement

CAP is generally quicker and is available for a broader range of collection actions. However, you cannot go to court if you disagree with the CAP decision. CAP procedures are described on pages three and four of this publication.

You may represent yourself at CDP, CAP and other Appeals proceedings. Or, you may be represented by an attorney, certified public accountant, or a person enrolled to practice before the IRS. Also, you may be represented by a member of your immediate family, or in the case of a business, by regular full-time employees, general partners or bona fide officers.

A Low Income Tax Clinic (LITC) may represent you if you qualify. Most LITCs provide representation before the IRS or in court on audits, tax collection disputes, and other issues for free or for a small fee. Some clinics can provide multilingual information about taxpayer rights and responsibilities. Publication 4134, Low Income Taxpayer Clinic List, provides information on clinics in your area and is available at your local IRS office, by calling 1-800-829-3676, or from www.irs.gov.

If you want your representative to contact us or appear without you and to receive and inspect confidential material, you must file a properly completed Form 2848, Power of Attorney and Declaration of Representative. You may also authorize an individual to receive or inspect confidential material but not represent you before the IRS, by filing a Form 8821, Tax Information Authorization. These forms are available at your local IRS office, by calling 1-800-829-3676, or from www.irs.gov.

HEARING AVAILABLE UNDER COLLECTION DUE PROCESS (CDP) For Lien and Levy Notices

By law, you have the right to a CDP hearing by Appeals for these collection actions:

- The first time a Notice of Federal Tax Lien is filed for a tax and period.
- Before the first levy on your property for a tax and period.
- After levy on your state tax refund.
- After levy when collection is in jeopardy.

You may contest the CDP determination in the United States Tax Court.

Lien Notice: The IRS is required to notify you the first time a Notice of Federal Tax Lien is filed for each tax and period. The IRS must notify you within 5 business days after the lien filing. This notice may be mailed, given to you, or left at your home or office. You then have 30 days, after that 5-day period, to request a hearing with Appeals. The lien notice you receive will indicate the date this 30-day period expires.

Levy Notice: For each tax and period, the IRS is required to notify you the first time it intends to collect a tax liability by taking your property or rights to property.

The IRS does this by issuing you a levy notice. The IRS can't levy or seize your property within 30 days from the date this notice is mailed, given to you, or left at your home or office. During that 30-day period, you may request a hearing with Appeals. There are three exceptions to issuing this notice before levy:

1. When collection of the tax is in jeopardy.
2. When IRS levies your state tax refund.
3. When the criteria for a Disqualified Employment Tax Levy is met.

You may request a hearing after the levy action in these instances.

If your request for a CDP hearing is not timely, you may request an equivalent hearing. To receive an equivalent hearing, your request must be postmarked on or before the end of the one-year period after the date of the levy notice or on or before the end of the one-year period plus 5 business days after the filing date of the Notice of Federal Tax Lien.

How do you request a CDP or equivalent hearing with the Office of Appeals?

Complete Form 12153, Request for a Collection Due Process or Equivalent Hearing, or other written request with the same information and send it to the address shown on your lien or levy notice. To request an equivalent hearing, you must check the Equivalent Hearing box on line 6 of Form 12153, or if you don't use Form 12153 write that you want an equivalent hearing if the CDP hearing request is late. If you received both a lien and a levy notice, you may appeal both actions by checking the boxes on line 5 of Form 12153 or if you don't use Form 12153, you may appeal both actions in one written request. You must identify your alternatives to, or your reasons for disagreeing with, the lien filing or the levy action. Alternatives or reasons for disagreeing may include:

- Collection alternatives such as installment agreement or offer in compromise.
- Subordination or discharge of lien.
- Withdrawal of Notice of Federal Tax Lien.
- Appropriate spousal defenses.
- The existence or amount of the tax, but only if you did not receive a notice of deficiency or did not otherwise have an opportunity to dispute the tax liability.
- Collection of the tax liability is causing or will cause an economic or other hardship.

You may not raise an issue that was raised and considered at a prior administrative or judicial hearing, if you, or your representative, participated meaningfully in the prior hearing or proceeding.

Form 12153 is available at your local IRS Office, by calling 1-800-829-3676, or from www.irs.gov. Include a copy of your lien and/or levy notice. List all taxes and tax periods for which you are requesting a hearing. You are entitled to only one hearing relating to a lien notice and one hearing relating to a levy notice, for each taxable period. In general, the IRS will deny a hearing request that makes arguments identified by the IRS as frivolous or that is made to delay collection.

To preserve your right to go to court, you must request a CDP hearing within the time period provided by law. Your request for a CDP hearing must be sent to the address on the lien or levy notice and postmarked on or before the date shown in the lien notice or on or before the 30th day after the date of the levy notice.

Before you formally appeal a lien or levy notice by sending us Form 12153, you may be able to work out a solution with the Collection office that sent the notice. To do so, call the telephone number on the lien or levy notice and explain to the IRS employee listed on the notice or other representative why you disagree with the action. If a telephone number is not shown on the notice, you can call 1-800-829-1040. This contact, however, does NOT extend the 30-day period to make a written request for a CDP hearing.

What will happen when you request a CDP or equivalent hearing with the Office of Appeals?

After you request a hearing, you may still discuss your concerns with the Collection office that sent the lien or levy notice. If you are able to resolve the issues with that office, you may withdraw your request for a hearing. If you are unable to, or do not choose to, resolve the issues with the Collection office, your case will be forwarded immediately to Appeals.

Appeals will contact you to schedule a conference. Your hearing will consist of an in-person or telephone conference and one or more written or oral communications.

Unless the IRS has reason to believe that collection of the tax is in jeopardy, levy action is not permitted for the subject tax and periods during the 30 days after the levy notice and during the timely requested CDP hearing. Normally, there will be no levy action during the period you have to request a hearing from a lien notice and during the CDP hearing.

If your request for a CDP hearing is timely, the 10-year period the IRS has to collect your taxes will be suspended until the date the determination becomes final or you withdraw your request for a hearing in writing.

At the conclusion of the CDP hearing, Appeals will issue a determination letter. If you don't agree with Appeals' determination, you may request judicial review of the determination by petitioning the United States Tax Court within the time period provided for in the Appeals' determination letter.

Appeals will retain jurisdiction over its determination. You may return to Appeals if you believe that the Collection function did not carry out Appeals' determination as it was stated or if there is a change in your circumstances that affects Appeals' determination. However, you must first try to work with Collection to resolve the problem.

If your request for a CDP hearing is not timely and you request an equivalent hearing, the law does not prohibit collection action and the collection statute is not suspended. Furthermore, you cannot go to court if you disagree with Appeals' decision.

HEARING AVAILABLE UNDER COLLECTION APPEALS PROGRAM (CAP)

For Liens, Levies, Seizures and Installment Agreements

The CAP procedure is available under more circumstances than Collection Due Process (CDP). Unlike CDP, you may not challenge in CAP the existence or amount of your tax liability. You also cannot proceed to court if you don't agree with Appeals' decision in your CAP case. Collection actions you may appeal under CAP are:

Notice of Federal Tax Lien. You may appeal the proposed filing of a Notice of Federal Tax Lien (NFTL) or the actual filing of an NFTL at the first and each subsequent filing of the NFTL. You are entitled to a CDP hearing after the first filing of an NFTL. See the preceding information regarding Hearing Available under Collection Due Process. You may also appeal denied requests to withdraw a NFTL, and denied discharges, subordinations, and non-attachments of a lien.

Notice of Levy. You may appeal before or after the IRS places a levy on your wages, bank account or other property. You may also have additional CDP appeal rights. See the preceding information regarding Hearing Available under Collection Due Process. Once the levy proceeds have been sent to the IRS, you may also appeal the denial by the IRS of your request to have levied property returned to you.

Seizure of Property. You may appeal before or after the IRS makes a seizure but before the property is sold.

Rejection or Termination of Installment Agreement. You may appeal when the IRS rejects your request for an installment agreement. You may also appeal when the IRS proposes to terminate or terminates your installment agreement.

How do you appeal a lien or levy action if your only collection contact has been a notice or telephone call?

1. Call the IRS at the telephone number shown on your notice. Be prepared to explain which action(s) you disagree with and why you disagree. You must also offer a solution to your tax problem.
2. If you can't reach an agreement with the employee, tell the employee that you want to appeal his or her decision. The employee must honor your request and will refer you to a manager. The manager will either speak with you then or will return your call within 24 hours.
3. Explain to the manager which action(s) you disagree with and why. The manager will make a decision on the case. If you don't agree with the manager's decision, your case will be forwarded to Appeals for review. You do not have to submit the appeal request in writing.

How do you appeal a lien, levy or seizure action if you have been contacted by a Revenue Officer?

1. If you disagree with the decision of the Revenue Officer, you must first request a conference with the Collection manager.
2. If you do not resolve your disagreement with the Collection manager, you may submit a written request for Appeals consideration, preferably by completing Form 9423, Collection Appeal Request. This form is available at your local IRS office, by calling 1-800-829-3676, or from www.irs.gov. Check the action(s) you disagree with and explain why you disagree. You must also offer a solution to resolve your tax problem.
3. Submit the Form 9423 to that Collection office.
4. If you request an appeal after the IRS makes a seizure, you must appeal to the Collection manager within 10 business days after the Notice of Seizure is given to you or left at your home or business.
5. You should let the Revenue Officer or manager know within 2 business days of your conference with the Collection manager if you want to appeal under CAP or the IRS will resume collection action. Your Form 9423 must be postmarked within 3 business days after the date of your conference with the Collection manager in order to prevent the resumption of collection action.

How do you appeal the denial by the IRS of your request to release or return levied or seized property, if you believed the property was wrongfully levied or seized?

1. If you do not agree with the denial of the request to release or return wrongfully levied/seized property or its value, you must first request a conference with the manager of the Advisory Group denying your request.
2. Call the telephone number on the letter denying your request and explain that you want a conference with the Advisory Group manager.
3. If you do not resolve your disagreement with the Advisory Group manager, you must submit a written request for Appeals consideration, preferably on Form 9423, Collection Appeal Request. This form is available at your local IRS office, by calling 1-800-829-3676, or from www.irs.gov. Check the action you disagree with and explain why you disagree.
4. Submit the completed Form 9423 to the Advisory Group office that denied your request to release or return of wrongfully levied/seized property or its value.

How do you appeal the rejection of a proposed installment agreement?

1. Call the telephone number shown on the letter rejecting your proposed installment agreement and explain that you want to appeal the rejection. Your appeal need not be in writing unless the rejection letter was sent by a Revenue Officer, in which case your request for an appeal must be in writing, preferably using Form 9423, Collection Appeal Request. While a conference is recommended, you need not have a conference with a Collection manager before appealing the rejection of a proposed installment agreement.
2. Your request for an appeal of the rejection of a proposed installment agreement must be made on or before the 30th day after the date of the rejection letter (the mailing of a written request, including a Form 9423, must be postmarked on or before such day).

How do you appeal the termination of an installment agreement?

1. Call the telephone number shown on the notice that indicates that the IRS intends to terminate your installment agreement. If you are unable to resolve the matter, then explain that you want to appeal the termination. Your appeal need not be in writing unless the notice of intent to terminate your installment agreement was sent by a Revenue Officer, in which case your request for an appeal must be in writing, preferably using Form 9423, Collection Appeal Request. While a conference is recommended, you need not have a conference with a Collection manager before appealing the termination of an installment agreement.
2. You will have 76 days from the date of the notice of intent to terminate in which to request an appeal. Unless you appeal within 30 days after the date of the notice, or cure your default of the installment agreement, the installment agreement will terminate automatically on the 46th day after the date of the notice. After the 46th day, and the termination of your agreement, your right to appeal will continue for an additional 30 days. Accordingly, your request must be made on or before the 76th day after the date of the notice of intent to terminate (the mailing of a written request, including a Form 9423, must be postmarked on or before such 76th day).

What will happen when you appeal your case?

Lien, Levy and Seizure: Normally, the IRS will not take any action to collect the tax for the tax periods Appeals is considering, unless the IRS believes the collection of the tax is at risk or you are a business meeting the criteria for a Disqualified Employment Tax Levy.

Installment Agreements: IMPORTANT - The IRS can't levy until 30 days after the rejection or termination of your agreement. If you appeal within the 30-day period, the IRS will be prohibited from levying until your appeal is completed unless the IRS believes the collection of the tax is in jeopardy.

Once Appeals makes a decision regarding your case, that decision is binding on both you and the IRS. You cannot obtain judicial review of Appeals' decision following a CAP hearing.

Note: Providing false information, failure to provide all pertinent information or fraud will void Appeals' decision.

APPEAL OF OTHER COLLECTION ACTIONS

You may also appeal other collection actions:

- Rejected Offer in Compromise
- Proposed Trust Fund Recovery Penalty
- Denied Trust Fund Recovery Penalty Claim
- Denied request to abate penalties (i.e., late payment, late filing, or deposit penalties)

To dispute a penalty in Appeals, follow the protest requirements in Publication 5, Your Appeal Rights and How To Prepare A Protest If You Don't Agree. Also, the correspondence you receive on these types of cases will explain where you should send your protest.

Help if you are experiencing economic harm...

If you are experiencing economic harm or are seeking help in resolving a tax problem that has not been resolved through normal channels or believe an IRS system or procedure is not working, as it should, you may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TTD 1-800-829-4059. TAS cannot extend the time you have to request a CDP, equivalent or CAP hearing. The timeframes for requesting these hearings are explained in this publication.

Your Rights as a Taxpayer

The first part of this publication explains some of your most important rights as a taxpayer. The second part explains the examination, appeal, collection, and refund processes. This publication is also available in Spanish.

Declaration of Taxpayer Rights

I. Protection of Your Rights

IRS employees will explain and protect your rights as a taxpayer throughout your contact with us.

II. Privacy and Confidentiality

The IRS will not disclose to anyone the information you give us, except as authorized by law. You have the right to know why we are asking you for information, how we will use it, and what happens if you do not provide requested information.

III. Professional and Courteous Service

If you believe that an IRS employee has not treated you in a professional, fair, and courteous manner, you should tell that employee's supervisor. If the supervisor's response is not satisfactory, you should write to the IRS director for your area or the center where you file your return.

IV. Representation

You may either represent yourself or, with proper written authorization, have someone else represent you in your place. Your representative must be a person allowed to practice before the IRS, such as an attorney, certified public accountant, or enrolled agent. If you are in an interview and ask to consult such a person, then we must stop and reschedule the interview in most cases.

You can have someone accompany you at an interview. You may make sound recordings of any meetings with our examination, appeal, or collection personnel, provided you tell us in writing 10 days before the meeting.

V. Payment of Only the Correct Amount of Tax

You are responsible for paying only the correct amount of tax due under the law—no more, no less. If you cannot pay all of your tax when it is due, you may be able to make monthly installment payments.

VI. Help With Unresolved Tax Problems

The Taxpayer Advocate Service can help you if you have tried unsuccessfully to resolve a problem with the IRS. Your local Taxpayer Advocate can offer you special help if you have a significant hardship as a result of a tax problem. For more information, call toll free 1-877-777-4778 (1-800-829-4059 for TTY/TDD) or write to the Taxpayer Advocate at the IRS office that last contacted you.

VII. Appeals and Judicial Review

If you disagree with us about the amount of your tax liability or certain collection actions, you have the right to ask the Appeals Office to review your case. You may also ask a court to review your case.

VIII. Relief From Certain Penalties and Interest

The IRS will waive penalties when allowed by law if you can show you acted reasonably and in good faith or relied on the incorrect advice of an IRS employee. We will waive interest that is the result of certain errors or delays caused by an IRS employee.

Examinations, Appeals, Collections, and Refunds

Examinations (Audits)

We accept most taxpayers' returns as filed. If we inquire about your return or select it for examination, it does not suggest that you are dishonest. The inquiry or examination may or may not result in more tax. We may close your case without change; or, you may receive a refund.

The process of selecting a return for examination usually begins in one of two ways. First, we use computer programs to identify returns that may have incorrect amounts. These programs may be based on information returns, such as Forms 1099 and W-2, on studies of past examinations, or on certain issues identified by compliance projects. Second, we use information from outside sources that indicates that a return may have incorrect amounts. These sources may include newspapers, public records, and individuals. If we determine that the information is accurate and reliable, we may use it to select a return for examination.

Publication 556, Examination of Returns, Appeal Rights, and Claims for Refund, explains the rules and procedures that we follow in examinations. The following sections give an overview of how we conduct examinations.

By Mail

We handle many examinations and inquiries by mail. We will send you a letter with either a request for more information or a reason why we believe a change to your return may be needed. You can respond by mail or you can request a personal interview with an examiner. If you mail us the requested information or provide an explanation, we may or may not agree with you, and we will explain the reasons for any changes. Please do not hesitate to write to us about anything you do not understand.

By Interview

If we notify you that we will conduct your examination through a personal interview, or you request such an interview, you have the right to ask that the examination take place at a reasonable time and place that is convenient for both you and the IRS. If our examiner proposes any changes to your return, he or she will explain the reasons for the changes. If you do not agree with these changes, you can meet with the examiner's supervisor.

Repeat Examinations

If we examined your return for the same items in either of the 2 previous years and proposed no change to your tax liability, please contact us as soon as possible so we can see if we should discontinue the examination.

Appeals

If you do not agree with the examiner's proposed changes, you can appeal them to the Appeals Office of IRS. Most differences can be settled without expensive and time-consuming court trials. Your appeal rights are explained in detail in both Publication 5, Your Appeal Rights and How To Prepare a Protest If You Don't Agree, and Publication 556, Examination of Returns, Appeal Rights, and Claims for Refund.

If you do not wish to use the Appeals Office or disagree with its findings, you may be able to take your case to the U.S. Tax Court, U.S. Court of Federal Claims, or the U.S. District Court where you live. If you take your case to court, the IRS will have the burden of proving certain facts if you kept adequate records to show your tax liability, cooperated with the IRS, and meet certain other conditions. If the court agrees with you on most issues in your case and finds that our position was largely unjustified, you may be able to recover some of your administrative and litigation costs. You will not be eligible to recover these costs unless you tried to resolve your case administratively, including going through the appeals system, and you gave us the information necessary to resolve the case.

Collections

Publication 594, The IRS Collection Process, explains your rights and responsibilities regarding payment of federal taxes. It describes:

- What to do when you owe taxes. It describes what to do if you get a tax bill and what to do if you think your bill is wrong. It also covers making installment payments, delaying collection action, and submitting an offer in compromise.
- IRS collection actions. It covers liens, releasing a lien, levies, releasing a levy, seizures and sales, and release of property.

Your collection appeal rights are explained in detail in Publication 1660, Collection Appeal Rights.

Innocent Spouse Relief

Generally, both you and your spouse are each responsible for paying the full amount of tax, interest, and penalties due on your joint return. However, if you qualify for innocent spouse relief, you may be relieved of part or all of the joint liability. To request relief, you must file Form 8857, Request for Innocent Spouse Relief. For more information on innocent spouse relief, see Publication 971, Innocent Spouse Relief, and Form 8857.

Potential Third Party Contacts

Generally, the IRS will deal directly with you or your duly authorized representative. However, we sometimes talk with other persons if we need information that you have been unable to provide, or to verify information we have received. If we do contact other persons, such as a neighbor, bank, employer, or employees, we will generally need to tell them limited information, such as your name. The law prohibits us from disclosing any more information than is necessary to obtain or verify the information we are seeking. Our need to contact other persons may continue as long as there is activity in your case. If we do contact other persons, you have a right to request a list of those contacted.

Refunds

You may file a claim for refund if you think you paid too much tax. You must generally file the claim within 3 years from the date you filed your original return or 2 years from the date you paid the tax, whichever is later. The law generally provides for interest on your refund if it is not paid within 45 days of the date you filed your return or claim for refund. Publication 556, Examination of Returns, Appeal Rights, and Claims for Refund, has more information on refunds.

If you were due a refund but you did not file a return, you generally must file your return within 3 years from the date the return was due (including extensions) to get that refund.

The IRS Collection Process

Publication 594

This publication provides a general description of the IRS collection process. The collection process is a series of actions that the IRS can take against you to collect the taxes you owe if you don't voluntarily pay them. The collection process will begin if you don't make your required payments in full and on time, after receiving your bill.

Please keep in mind that this publication is for information only, and may not account for every tax collection scenario. It's also not a technical analysis of tax law.

Overview:

Filing a tax return, billing, and collection

After you file your tax return, we'll determine if you owe taxes. If you owe, we'll send a bill for the amount due, including any penalties and interest. You're required to pay this, so if you avoid payment, we can take collection actions to recover your debt. Our goal is always to work with you to resolve your case before we have to take collection actions.

General steps from billing to collection

You file your tax return. Most returns are filed annually (by April 15th) or quarterly.

1. If you owe taxes, we'll send you a bill. This is your first bill for tax due. Based on your return, we'll calculate how much tax you owe, plus any interest and penalties.

2. If you don't pay your first bill, we'll send you at least one more bill. Remember, interest and penalties continue to accrue until you've paid your full amount due.

3. If you still don't pay after you receive your final bill, we'll begin collection actions. Collection actions can range from applying your previous tax year's refund to tax due to seizing your property and assets.

What you should do when you get an IRS bill

If you agree with the information on the bill, pay the full amount before the due date. If you can't pay the full amount due, pay as much as you can, and immediately contact us to explain your situation. Based on your ability to pay, we may provide you with alternate payment options.

If you disagree with the information on the bill, call the number on the bill, or visit your local IRS office. Be sure to have a copy of the bill and any tax returns, cancelled checks, or other records that will help us understand why you believe your bill is wrong. Who to contact for help

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS)

Please don't hesitate to contact us with any questions you may have. Call the number on your bill or 1-800-829-1040. You can also visit your local IRS office to speak with an IRS representative in person.

Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS)

The Taxpayer Advocate Service is your voice at the IRS. It helps taxpayers whose problems with the IRS are causing financial difficulties, who have tried but haven't been able to resolve their problems with the IRS, and those who believe an IRS system or procedure is not working as it should. If you believe you're eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service assistance, call the toll-free number at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059. For more information, go to www.irs.gov/advocate.

Low Income Taxpayer Clinics (LITCs)

Low Income Taxpayer Clinics are independent from the IRS. Some clinics serve individuals whose income is below a certain level and who need to resolve a tax problem. These clinics provide professional representation, before the IRS or in court on audits, appeals, tax collection disputes, and other issues for free or for a small fee. Some clinics can provide information about taxpayer rights and responsibilities in many different languages for individuals who speak English as a second language. For more information and to find a clinic near you, see the Low Income Taxpayer Clinics page on www.taxpayeradvocate.irs.gov or Publication 4134, Low Income Taxpayer Clinic List. This publication is also available by calling 1-800-829-3676 or at your local IRS office.

Ways to pay your taxes

To minimize interest and penalties, we recommend paying your taxes in full. However, if you're unable to pay in full, you can request an Installment Agreement or Offer in Compromise. These payment plans allow you to pay your taxes in installments over time, to pay less than you owe, or both. Keep in mind it's also important to stay current on your payments for future taxes. This means making your estimated tax payments, withholding payments, or federal tax deposits as necessary.

Options for paying in full

Pay with electronic funds transfer

For a convenient, secure way to pay, you can use the Electronic Federal Tax Payment System (EFTPS). To enroll, visit www.eftps.com or call 1-800-555-4477. For more information, see Publication 966, Electronic Choices to Pay All Your Federal Taxes.

Pay with your credit or debit card

For a fee, you can pay by credit or debit card by using an electronic payment service provider. For more information on making a payment using a credit or debit card, visit www.irs.gov/e-pay.

Pay by mail or in person at a local IRS office

You can mail a check to us at the address listed on your bill or bring it to your local IRS office. For a listing of offices near you, please visit www.irs.gov/localcontacts/index.html.

Options if you can't pay in full nowApply for an Installment Agreement

An Installment Agreement with the IRS means that we'll allow you to make smaller periodic payments over time if you can't pay the full amount at once. There are several ways to apply for an Installment Agreement:

- Online at www.irs.gov/individuals/article/0,,id=149373,00.html. Only individuals who owe $50,000 or less can apply online.
- By phone Please call the number on your bill or 1-800-829-1040.
- By mail Please complete Form 9465, Installment Agreement Request, if you owe $25,000 or less. Complete Form 9465-FS, Installment Agreement Request, if you owe more than $25,000. Or you can use Form 2159, Payroll Deduction Agreement. Mail your form to the address on your bill.
- In person at your local IRS office.

If you request a payment plan, you can reduce penalties and interest by making voluntary payments according to the proposed plan's terms until you're notified whether we've accepted your payment plan request. Keep in mind that our acceptance of your interim payments doesn't mean we've approved your request. We'll notify you in writing once we've made our decision.

With an Installment Agreement, you can pay by check, direct debit, through payroll deductions, or electronic funds transfer. Keep in mind there's a user fee for Installment Agreements. However, if you meet our low-income guidelines, you can pay a reduced user fee. For more information, see Form 13844, Application for Reduced User Fee for Installment Agreements.

To be eligible for an Installment Agreement, you must file all required tax returns. Prior to approving your Installment Agreement request, we may ask you to complete a Collection Information Statement (Form 433-F, 433-A and/or Form 433-B) and provide proof of your financial status. Please have your financial information available if you apply over the phone or at an IRS office. For more information, see Publication 1854, How to Complete a Collection Information Statement (Form 433-A).

If we approve your request, we'll still charge applicable interest and penalties until you pay the amount or balance due in full, and may file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien (see page 4.) If we reject your Installment Agreement request, you may request that the Office of Appeals review your case. For more information, see Publication 1660, Collection Appeal Rights.

If you're unable to meet the terms of your approved Installment Agreement, please contact us immediately.

Apply for an Offer in Compromise (OIC)

You may be eligible for an Offer in Compromise if you can't pay the amount you owe in full or through installments. By requesting an Offer in Compromise, you're asking to settle unpaid taxes for less than the full amount you owe. We may accept an Offer in Compromise if:

- We agree that your tax debt may not be accurate,
- You have insufficient assets and income to pay the amount due, or
- Because of your exceptional circumstances, paying the amount due would cause an economic hardship or would be unjust.

For an Offer in Compromise to be considered, you must pay an application fee and make an initial or periodic payment. However, low income taxpayers may qualify for a waiver of the application fee and initial or periodic payment.

For more information, please see the Low Income Certification on Form 656, Offer in Compromise.

To apply for an Offer in Compromise, complete one of the following forms:

- Form 656-L, Offer in Compromise (Doubt as to Liability) Complete this if you think your tax debt isn't accurate.
- Form 656, Offer in Compromise Complete this if you're unable to pay the amount due, have an economic hardship, or other special circumstance that would cause paying the amount due to be unjust.

For more information, see Form 656-B, Offer in Compromise Booklet or visit www.irs.gov/individuals/article/0,,id=243822,00.html.

If you need more time to payAsk that we delay collection

If you can't pay any of the amount due, you can request that we delay collection until you're able to pay. Prior to approving your request, we may ask you to complete a Collection Information Statement and provide proof of your financial status. Please remember that even if we delay collection, we'll still charge applicable penalties and interest until you pay the full amount, and we may file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien (see page 4). We may also request updated financial information during this temporary delay to review your ability to pay.

How long we have to collect taxes

We can attempt to collect your taxes up to 10 years from the date they were assessed. However, there are exceptions to this time frame. For example, by law, we'll suspend and extend collection while:

- We're considering your request for an Installment Agreement or Offer in Compromise. If your request is rejected, we'll suspend collection for another 30 days, and during any period the Appeals Office is considering your appeal request.
- You live outside the U.S. continuously for at least 6 months. Collection is suspended while you're outside the U.S. and, if at the time of your return the normal collection period would expire before 6 months from the date of your return, the extended period won't expire before the expiration of the 6 months after your return.

- The tax periods we're collecting on are included in a bankruptcy with an automatic stay. We'll suspend collection for the time period we can't collect because of the automatic stay, plus 6 months.
- You request a Collection Due Process hearing. Collection will be suspended from the date of your request until a Notice of Determination is issued or the Tax Court's decision is final.
- We're considering your request for Innocent Spouse Relief. Collection will be suspended from the date of your request until 90 days after a Notice of Determination is issued, or if you file a timely petition to the Tax Court, until 60 days after the Tax Court's final decision. If you appeal the Tax Court's decision to a U.S. Court of Appeals, the collection period will begin 60 days after the appeal is filed, unless a bond is posted.

How to appeal an IRS decision

Collection Due Process (CDP)

The purpose of a Collection Due Process hearing is to review collection actions that were taken or have been proposed. You can request a Collection Due Process hearing if you receive any of the following notices:

- Notice of Federal Tax Lien Filing and Your Right to a Hearing
- Final Notice—Notice of Intent to Levy and Notice of Your Right to a Hearing
- Notice of Jeopardy Levy and Right of Appeal
- Notice of Levy on Your State Tax Refund—Notice of Your Right to a Hearing
- Notice of Levy and of Your Right to a Hearing

To request a Collection Due Process hearing, complete Form 12153, Request for a Collection Due Process or Equivalent Hearing, and send it to the address on your notice. You have 30 days from the date of the notice to request a Collection Due Process hearing. You can also request an Equivalent Hearing within one year from the date of the notice.

Collection Appeals Program (CAP)

Under the Collections Appeals Program, if you disagree with an IRS employee's decision and want to appeal it, you can ask their manager to review your case. If you then disagree with the manager's decision, you may continue with the Collection Appeals Program as outlined in Publication 1660. Instances in which you can pursue the Collection Appeals Program include, but aren't limited to:

- Before or after we file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien
- Before or after we seize ("levy") your property
- After we reject, terminate, or propose to terminate your Installment Agreement (a conference with the manager is recommended, but not required)

For more information about the Collection Due Process and Collection Appeals Program, please see Publication 1660, Collection Appeal Rights.

If you don't pay on time: Understanding collection actions

There are several words and phrases particular to the collection process. Here, we've defined some of the most commonly used collection terms:

Federal tax lien: A legal claim against all your current and future property, such as a house or car, and rights to property, such as wages and bank accounts. The lien automatically comes into existence if you don't pay your amount due after receiving your first bill.

Notice of Federal Tax Lien (NFTL): A public notice to creditors. It notifies them that there is a federal tax lien that attaches to all your current and future property and rights to property.

Levy: A legal seizure of property or rights to property to satisfy a tax debt. When property is seized ("levied"), it will be sold to help pay your tax debt. If wages or bank accounts are seized, the money will be applied to your tax debt.

Seizure: There is no legal difference between a seizure and a levy. Throughout this publication, we'll use both terms interchangeably.

Notice of Intent to Levy and Notice of Your Right to a Hearing: Generally, before property is seized, we have to send you this notice. If you don't pay your overdue taxes, make other arrangements to satisfy the tax debt, or request a hearing within 30 days of the date of this notice, we may seize your property.

Summons: A summons legally compels you or a third party to meet with the IRS and provide information, documents, or testimony.

Collection actions in detail

Federal tax lien: A legal claim against property

A lien is a legal claim against all your current and future property. When you don't pay your first bill for taxes due, a lien is created by law and attaches to your property. It applies to property (such as your home and car) and to any current and future rights you have to property.

Notice of Federal Tax Lien: Provides public notice to creditors that a lien exists

A Notice of Federal Tax Lien gives public notice to creditors. We file the Notice of Federal Tax Lien so we can establish the priority of our claim versus the claims of other creditors. The Notice of Federal Tax Lien is filed with local or state authorities, such as county registers of deeds or the Secretary of State offices.

If a Notice of Federal Tax Lien is filed against you, it's often reported by consumer credit reporting agencies. This can have a negative effect on your credit rating and make it difficult for you to receive credit (such as a loan or credit card). Employers, landlords, and others may also use this information and not favorably view the fact that a Notice of Federal Tax Lien has been filed against you.

What to do if a Notice of Federal Tax Lien is filed against you

You should pay the full amount you owe immediately. Keep in mind the Notice of Federal Tax Lien only shows your assessed balance as of the date of the notice. It doesn't show your payoff balance or include our charges for filing and releasing the lien. To find out the full amount you must pay to have the lien released, call 1-800-913-6050. If you have questions, call the number on your lien notice or 1-800-829-1040 or visit www.irs.gov/businesses/small/article/0,,id=108339,00.html.

How to appeal a Notice of Federal Tax Lien

Within 5 business days of filing the Notice of Federal Tax Lien, we'll send you a Notice of Your Right to a Collection Due Process Hearing. You'll have until the date shown on the notice to request a Collection Due Process hearing with the Office of Appeals. Send your Collection Due Process hearing request to the address on the notice. For more information, see Form 12153, Request for a Collection Due Process or Equivalent Hearing.

After your Collection Due Process hearing, the Office of Appeals will issue a determination on whether the Notice of Federal Tax Lien should remain filed, or whether it should be withdrawn, released, discharged, or subordinated. If you disagree with the determination, you have 30 days after it's made to seek a review in the U.S. Tax Court.

If you don't file a hearing request within 30 days, you aren't entitled to a Collection Due Process hearing, but you may be entitled to an equivalent hearing. The request for an equivalent hearing, however, doesn't prohibit us from seizing and doesn't suspend the 10-year period for collecting tax. In addition, you aren't entitled to a judicial review of the decision from the Equivalent Hearing.

In addition to any Collection Due Process rights you may have, you may also appeal a proposed or actual filing of a Notice of Federal Tax Lien under the Collection Appeals Program.

Reasons we'll "release" a federal tax lien

A "release" of a federal tax lien means that we have cleared both the lien for your debt and the public Notice of Federal Tax Lien. We do this by filing a Certificate of Release of Federal Tax Lien with the same state and local authorities with whom we filed your Notice of Federal Tax Lien. We'll release your lien if:

- Your debt is fully paid,
- Payment of your debt is guaranteed by a bond, or
- The period for collection has ended. (In this case, the release is automatic.)

For more information, see Publication 1450, Instructions on How to Request a Certificate of Release of Federal Tax Lien.

Reasons we may "withdraw" a Notice of Federal Tax Lien

A "withdrawal" removes the Notice of Federal Tax Lien from public record. The withdrawal tells other creditors that we're abandoning our lien priority. This doesn't mean that the federal tax lien is released, or that you're no longer liable for the amount due.

We may withdraw a Notice of Federal Tax Lien if:

- You've entered into an Installment Agreement to satisfy the tax liability, unless the Agreement provides otherwise. For certain types of taxes, we'll routinely withdraw a Notice of Federal Tax Lien if you've entered into a direct debit installment agreement and meet certain other conditions,
- It will help you pay your taxes more quickly,
- We didn't follow IRS procedures,
- It was filed during a bankruptcy automatic stay period, or
- It's in your best interest (as determined by the Taxpayer Advocate) and in the best interest of the government. For example, this could include when your debt has been satisfied and you request a withdrawal.

For more information, see Form 12277, Application for Withdrawal of Filed Notice of Federal Tax Lien.

How to apply for a "discharge" of a federal tax lien from property

A "discharge" removes the lien from specific property. There are several circumstances under which the federal tax lien can be discharged. For example, we may issue a Certificate of Discharge if you're selling property and a Notice of Federal Tax Lien has been filed; you may be able to remove or discharge the lien from that property through the sale. For more information on whether you qualify for a discharge, see Publication 783, Instructions on How to Apply for a Certificate of Discharge of Property from Federal Tax Lien. To watch an instructional video about Publication 783, visit www.irsvideos.gov/Individual/IRSLiens.

How to make the federal tax lien secondary to other creditors ("subordination")

A "subordination" is where a creditor is allowed to move ahead of the government's priority position. For example, if you're trying to refinance a mortgage on your home, but aren't able to because the federal tax lien has priority over the new mortgage, you may request that we subordinate our lien to the new mortgage. For more information on whether you qualify for a subordination, see Publication 784, How to Prepare an Application for a Certificate of Subordination of Federal Tax Lien. To watch an instructional video about Publication 784, visit www.irsvideos.gov/Individual/IRSLiens.

Appeal rights for withdrawal, discharge, or subordination

If we deny your request for a withdrawal, discharge, or subordination, you may appeal under Collections Appeals Program.

Levy: A seizure of property

While a federal tax lien is a legal claim against your property, a levy is a legal seizure that actually takes your property (such as your house or car) or your rights to property (such as your income, bank account, or Social Security payments) to satisfy your tax debt.

Keep in mind that we can't seize your property if you have a current or pending Installment Agreement, Offer in Compromise, or if we agree that you're unable to pay due to economic hardship, meaning seizing your property would result in your inability to meet basic, reasonable living expenses.

Reasons we may seize ("levy") your property or rights to property

If you don't pay your taxes (or make arrangements to settle your debt), we could seize and sell your property. We usually seize only after the following things have occurred:

- We assessed the tax and sent you a bill,
- You neglected or refused to pay the tax, and
- We sent you a Final Notice of Intent to Levy and Notice of Your Right to a Hearing at least 30 days before the seizure.

However, there are exceptions for when we don't have to provide a 30-day notice before seizing your property. These include situations when:

- The collection of the tax is in jeopardy,
- A levy is served to collect tax from a state tax refund,
- A levy is served to collect the tax debt of a federal contractor, or
- A Disqualified Employment Tax Levy (DETL) is served. A Disqualified Employment Tax Levy is the seizure of unpaid employment taxes and can be served when a taxpayer previously requested a Collection Due Process appeal on employment taxes for other periods within the past 2 years.

If we serve a levy under one of these exceptions, we'll send you a letter explaining the seizure and your appeal rights after the levy is issued.

What you should do if your property is seized ("levied")

If your property or federal payments are seized, call the number on your levy notice or 1-800-829-1040. If you're already working with an IRS employee, call him or her for assistance.

Examples of property we can seize ("levy")

- Wages, salary, or commission held by someone else If we seize your rights to wages, salary, commissions, or similar payments that are held by someone else, we'll serve a levy once, not each time you're paid. The one levy continues until your debt is fully paid, other arrangements are made, or the collection period ends. Other payments you receive, such as dividends and payments on promissory notes, are also subject to seizure. However, the seizure only reaches the payments due or the right to future payments as of the date of the levy.
- Your bank account Seizure of the funds in your bank account will include funds available for withdrawal up to the amount of the seizure. After the levy is issued, the bank will hold the available funds and give you 21 days to resolve any disputes about who owns the account before sending us the money. After 21 days, the bank will send us your money, plus any interest earned on that amount, unless you have resolved the issue in another way.
- Your federal payments As an alternative to the levy procedure used for other payments such as dividends and promissory notes, certain federal payments may be systemically seized through the Federal Payment Levy Program in order to pay your tax debt. Under this program, we can generally seize up to 15% of your federal payments (up to 100% of payments due to a vendor for goods or services sold or leased to the federal government). We'll serve the levy once, not each time you are paid. The one levy continues until your debt is fully paid, other arrangements are made, the collection period ends, or the IRS releases the levy.

The federal payments that can be seized in this program include, but aren't limited to, federal retirement annuity income from the Office of Personnel Management, Social Security benefits under Title II of the Social Security Act (OASDI), and federal contractor/vendor payments.

- Your house, car, or other property If we seize your house or other property, we'll sell your interest in the property and apply the proceeds (after the costs of the sale) to your tax debt. Prior to selling your property, we'll calculate a minimum bid price. We'll also provide you with a copy of the calculation and give you an opportunity to challenge the fair market value determination. We'll then provide you with the notice of sale and announce the pending sale to the public, usually through local newspapers or flyers posted in public places. After giving public notice, we'll generally wait 10 days before selling your property. Money from the sale pays for the cost of seizing and selling the property and, finally, your tax debt. If there's money left over from the sale after paying off your tax debt, we'll tell you how to get a refund.

Property that can't be seized ("levied")

Certain property is exempt from seizure. For example, we can't seize the following: unemployment benefits, certain annuity and pension benefits, certain service-connected disability payments, workers compensation, certain public assistance payments, minimum weekly exempt income, assistance under the Job Training Partnership Act, and income for court-ordered child support payments.

We also can't seize necessary schoolbooks and clothing, undelivered mail, certain amounts worth of fuel, provisions, furniture, personal effects for a household, and certain amounts worth of books and tools for trade, business, or professions. There are also limitations on our ability to seize a primary residence and certain business assets.

Lastly, we can't seize your property unless we expect net proceeds to help pay off your tax debt.

How to appeal a proposed seizure ("levy")

You can request a Collection Due Process hearing within 30 days from the date of your Notice of Intent to Levy and Notice of Your Right to a Hearing. Send your request to the address on your notice. For more information, see Form 12153, Request for a Collection Due Process or Equivalent Hearing. At the conclusion of your hearing, the Office of Appeals will provide a determination. You'll have 30 days after the determination to challenge it in the U.S. Tax Court.

If you don't file a hearing request within 30 days, you're not entitled to a Collection Due Process hearing, but you may be entitled to an Equivalent Hearing. The request for an Equivalent Hearing, however, doesn't prohibit us from seizing and doesn't suspend the 10-year period for collecting tax. In addition, you're not entitled to a judicial review of the decision from the Equivalent Hearing.

If Collection Due Process rights aren't available for your case, you may have other appeal options, such as the Collection Appeals Program.

Reasons we "release" a levy

The Internal Revenue Code (IRC) specifically provides that we must release a levy if we determine that:

- You paid the amount you owe,
- The period for collection ended prior to the levy being issued,
- It will help you pay your taxes,
- You enter into an Installment Agreement and the terms of the agreement don't allow for the levy to continue,
- The levy creates an economic hardship on you, meaning we've determined that you're unable to meet basic, reasonable living expenses, or
- The value of the property is more than the amount owed and releasing the levy won't hinder our ability to collect the amount owed.

In addition, a levy on wages or salary must be released as soon as possible if we determine that your tax isn't collectible.

We'll also release a levy if it was issued improperly. For example, we'll release a levy if it was issued:

- Against property exempt from seizure,
- Prematurely,
- Before we sent you the required notice,
- While you're in bankruptcy and an automatic stay is in effect,
- Where the expenses of seizing and selling the levied property would be greater than the fair market value of the property,
- While an Installment Agreement request, Innocent Spouse Relief request, or Offer in Compromise is being considered or had been accepted and is in effect, or
- While the Office of Appeals or Tax Court is considering certain appeals and the levy wasn't a Disqualified Employment Tax Levy to collect employment taxes, a state refund, or jeopardy levy.

Reasons we may return seized ("levied") property

We may return your property if:

- Its seizure was premature,
- Its seizure was in violation of the law,
- Returning the seized property will help our collection of your debt,
- You enter into an Installment Agreement that doesn't allow a levy,
- We didn't follow IRS procedures, or
- It's in your best interest (as determined by the Taxpayer Advocate) and in the best interest of the government.

If we decide to return your property but it's already been sold, we'll give you the money we received from the sale. You can file a request for seized property to be returned, or we can return seized property on our own initiative, generally up to 9 months after the seizure.

How to recover seized ("levied") property that's been sold

To recover your real estate, you (and anyone with interest in the property) may recoup it within 180 days of the sale by paying the purchaser what they paid, plus interest at 20% annually.

If your property has been seized ("levied") to collect tax owed by someone else, you may appeal under the Collection Appeals Program or (within the time prescribed by law), file a claim under Internal Revenue Code section 6343(b), or you may (within the time prescribed by law) file a suit under Internal Revenue Code section 7426 for the return of the wrongfully seized property. For more information, see Publication 4528, Making an Administrative Wrongful Levy Claim under Internal Revenue Code section 6343(b).

How to recover economic damages

If our seizure was in error, your payment was lost or misplaced, or there was a direct debit Installment Agreement processing error and you incurred bank charges, we may reimburse you for charges you paid. For more information, see Form 8546, Claim for Reimbursement of Bank Charges. If your claim is denied, you can sue the federal government for economic damages.

If we intentionally or negligently didn't follow Internal Revenue law while collecting your taxes, or you're not the taxpayer and we wrongfully seized your property, you may be entitled to recover economic damages. Mail your written administrative claim to the attention of the Advisory Group Manager for your area at the address listed in Publication 4235, Collection Advisory Group Addresses. If you've filed a claim and your claim is denied, you can sue the federal government, but not the IRS employee, for economic damages.

Summons: Used to secure information

If we're having trouble gathering information to determine or collect taxes you owe, we may serve a summons. A summons legally compels you or a third party to meet with an officer of the IRS and provide information, documents, and/or testimony.

If you're responsible for a tax liability and we serve a summons on you, you may be required to:

- Testify,
- Bring books and records to prepare a tax return, and/or
- Produce documents to prepare a Collection Information Statement, Form 433-A or Form 433-B.

If you can't make your summons appointment, immediately call the number listed on your notice. If you don't call us and don't attend your appointment, serious legal action may be taken against you.

If we serve a third-party summons to determine tax liability, you'll receive a notice indicating that we're contacting a third party. Third parties can be financial institutions, record keepers, or people with relevant information to your case. We won't review their information or receive testimony until the end of the 23rd day after the notice was given. You also have the right to:

- Petition to reject ("quash") the summons before the end of the 20th day after the date of the notice, or
- Petition to intervene in a suit to enforce a summons to which the third party didn't comply.

If we issue a third-party summons to collect taxes you already owe, you won't receive notice or be able to petition to reject or intervene in a suit to enforce the summons.

Information for employers: Collection of employment tax

About employment taxes

Employment taxes are the amount you must withhold from your employees for their income tax and Social Security/Medicare tax, plus the amount of Social Security/Medicare tax you pay for each employee. Federal unemployment taxes are also considered employment taxes.

What we'll do if you don't pay your employment taxes:

- Assess a failure to deposit penalty, up to 15% of the amount not deposited in a timely manner.
- We may propose a Trust Fund Recovery Penalty assessment against the individuals responsible for failing to pay the trust fund taxes.

About trust fund taxes

Trust fund taxes are the income tax, Social Security tax, and Medicare tax withheld from the employee's wages. They are called trust fund taxes because the employer holds these funds "in trust" for the government until it submits them in a federal tax deposit. Certain excise taxes are also considered trust fund taxes because they are collected and held in trust for the government until submitted in a federal tax deposit. For more information, see Publication 510, Excise Taxes.

To encourage prompt payment of withheld employment taxes and collected excise taxes, Congress has passed a law that provides for the Trust Fund Recovery Penalty. For more information, see Publication 15, Circular E, Employer's Tax Guide.

Trust Fund Recovery Penalty

The Trust Fund Recovery Penalty is a penalty that is assessed personally against the individual or individuals who are responsible for paying the trust fund taxes but willfully did not do so. The amount of the penalty is equal to the amount of the unpaid trust fund taxes. For additional information, please see Notice 784, Could You be Personally Liable for Certain Unpaid Federal Taxes?, or visit www.irs.gov/businesses/small/article/0,,id=108357,00.html.

If the Trust Fund Recovery Penalty is proposed against you

You'll receive a letter and Form 2751, Proposed Assessment of Trust Fund Recovery Penalty.

If you agree with the penalty, sign and return Form 2751 within 60 days from the date of the letter. To avoid the assessment of the Trust Fund Recovery Penalty, you may also pay the trust fund taxes personally.

If you disagree with the penalty, you have 10 days from the date of the letter to let us know that you don't agree with the proposed assessment, have additional information to support your case, or want to try to resolve the matter informally. If you can't resolve the disagreement with us, you have 60 days from the date of the letter to appeal with the Office of Appeals. For more information, see Publication 5, Your Appeal Rights and How to Prepare a Protest if You Don't Agree.

If you don't respond to the letter, we'll assess the penalty amount against you personally and begin the collection process to collect it. We may assess this penalty against a responsible person regardless of whether the company is still in business.

Additional information

Innocent Spouse Relief

Generally, both you and your spouse are responsible, jointly and individually, for paying any tax, interest, or penalties on your joint return. If you believe your current or former spouse should be solely responsible for an incorrect item or an underpayment of tax on your joint tax return, you may be eligible for Innocent Spouse Relief. This could change the amount you owe, or you may be entitled to a refund. Keep in mind you generally must submit Form 8857, Request for Innocent Spouse Relief, no later than two years from the date of our first attempt to collect the outstanding debt, except for requests for equitable relief under Internal Revenue Code section 6015(f). For additional information, see Publication 971, Innocent Spouse Relief.

Representation during the collection process

During the collection process, a hearing, or an appeal, you can be represented by yourself, an attorney, a certified public accountant, an enrolled agent, an immediate family member, or any person enrolled to practice before the IRS. If you're a business, you can also be represented by full-time employees, general partners, or bona fide officers.

To have your representative appear before us, contact us on your behalf, and/or receive your confidential material, file Form 2848, Power of Attorney and Declaration of Representative.

To authorize someone to receive or inspect confidential material, file Form 8821, Tax Information Authorization.

Sharing your tax information

During the collection process, we're authorized to share your tax information in some cases with city and state tax agencies, the Department of Justice, federal agencies, people you authorize to represent you, and certain foreign governments (under tax treaty provisions).

We may contact a third party

The law allows us to contact others (such as neighbors, banks, employers, or employees) to investigate your case. You have the right to request a list of third parties contacted about your case.

Collection Appeal Rights

You may appeal many IRS collection actions to the IRS Office of Appeals (Appeals). The Office of Appeals is separate from and independent of the IRS Collection office that initiated the collection action. We ensure and protect our independence by adhering to a strict policy of no ex parte communication with the IRS Collection office about the accuracy of the facts or the merits of your case without providing you an opportunity to participate at that meeting. Revenue Procedure 2000-43 has more information about Appeals' mandatory independence and ex parte communication and is available at www.irs.gov. The two main procedures are Collection Due Process and Collection Appeals Program. Other procedures are described on page four of this publication and at www.irs.gov.

Collection Due Process (CDP) is available if you receive one of the following notices:

- Notice of Federal Tax Lien Filing and Your Right to a Hearing under IRC 6320
- Final Notice - Notice of Intent to Levy and Notice of Your Right to a Hearing
- Notice of Jeopardy Levy and Right of Appeal
- Notice of Levy on Your State Tax Refund – Notice of Your Right to a Hearing
- Notice of Levy and Notice of Right to a Hearing with respect to a Disqualified Employment Tax Levy

Collection Appeals Program (CAP) is available for the following actions:

- Before or after the IRS files a Notice of Federal Tax Lien
- Before or after the IRS levies or seizes your property
- Termination, or proposed termination, of an installment agreement
- Rejection of an installment agreement

CAP is generally quicker and is available for a broader range of collection actions. However, you cannot go to court if you disagree with the CAP decision. CAP procedures are described on pages three and four of this publication.

You may represent yourself at CDP, CAP and other Appeals proceedings. Or, you may be represented by an attorney, certified public accountant, or a person enrolled to practice before the IRS. Also, you may be represented by a member of your immediate family, or in the case of a business, by regular full-time employees, general partners or bona fide officers.

A Low Income Tax Clinic (LITC) may represent you if you qualify. Most LITCs provide representation before the IRS or in court on audits, tax collection disputes, and other issues for free or for a small fee. Some clinics can provide multilingual information about taxpayer rights and responsibilities. Publication 4134, Low Income Taxpayer Clinic List, provides information on clinics in your area and is available at your local IRS office, by calling 1-800-829-3676, or from www.irs.gov.

If you want your representative to contact us or appear without you and to receive and inspect confidential material, you must file a properly completed Form 2848, Power of Attorney and Declaration of Representative. You may also authorize an individual to receive or inspect confidential material but not represent you before the IRS, by filing a Form 8821, Tax Information Authorization. These forms are available at your local IRS office, by calling 1-800-829-3676, or from www.irs.gov.

HEARING AVAILABLE UNDER COLLECTION DUE PROCESS (CDP)

For Lien and Levy Notices

By law, you have the right to a CDP hearing by Appeals for these collection actions:

- The first time a Notice of Federal Tax Lien is filed for a tax and period.
- Before the first levy on your property for a tax and period.
- After levy on your state tax refund.
- After levy when collection is in jeopardy.

You may contest the CDP determination in the United States Tax Court.

Lien Notice: The IRS is required to notify you the first time a Notice of Federal Tax Lien is filed for each tax and period. The IRS must notify you within 5 business days after the lien filing. This notice may be mailed, given to you, or left at your home or office. You then have 30 days, after that 5-day period, to request a hearing with Appeals. The lien notice you receive will indicate the date this 30-day period expires.

Levy Notice: For each tax and period, the IRS is required to notify you the first time it intends to collect a tax liability by taking your property or rights to property.

The IRS does this by issuing you a levy notice. The IRS can't levy or seize your property within 30 days from the date this notice is mailed, given to you, or left at your home or office. During that 30-day period, you may request a hearing with Appeals. There are three exceptions to issuing this notice before levy:

1. When collection of the tax is in jeopardy.
2. When IRS levies your state tax refund.
3. When the criteria for a Disqualified Employment Tax Levy is met.

You may request a hearing after the levy action in these instances.

If your request for a CDP hearing is not timely, you may request an equivalent hearing. To receive an equivalent hearing, your request must be postmarked on or before the end of the one-year period after the date of the levy notice or on or before the end of the one-year period plus 5 business days after the filing date of the Notice of Federal Tax Lien.

How do you request a CDP or equivalent hearing with the Office of Appeals?

What will happen when you request a CDP or equivalent hearing with the Office of Appeals?

Complete Form 12153, Request for a Collection Due Process or Equivalent Hearing, or other written request with the same information and send it to the address shown on your lien or levy notice. To request an equivalent hearing, you must check the Equivalent Hearing box on line 6 of Form 12153, or if you don't use Form 12153 write that you want an equivalent hearing if the CDP hearing request is late. If you received both a lien and a levy notice, you may appeal both actions by checking the boxes on line 5 of Form 12153 or if you don't use Form 12153, you may appeal both actions in one written request. You must identify your alternatives to, or your reasons for disagreeing with, the lien filing or the levy action. Alternatives or reasons for disagreeing may include:

- Collection alternatives such as installment agreement or offer in compromise.
- Subordination or discharge of lien.
- Withdrawal of Notice of Federal Tax Lien.
- Appropriate spousal defenses.
- The existence or amount of the tax, but only if you did not receive a notice of deficiency or did not otherwise have an opportunity to dispute the tax liability.
- Collection of the tax liability is causing or will cause an economic or other hardship.

You may not raise an issue that was raised and considered at a prior administrative or judicial hearing, if you, or your representative, participated meaningfully in the prior hearing or proceeding.

Form 12153 is available at your local IRS Office, by calling 1-800-829-3676, or from www.irs.gov. Include a copy of your lien and/or levy notice. List all taxes and tax periods for which you are requesting a hearing. You are entitled to only one hearing relating to a lien notice and one hearing relating to a levy notice, for each taxable period. In general, the IRS will deny a hearing request that makes arguments identified by the IRS as frivolous or that is made to delay collection.

To preserve your right to go to court, you must request a CDP hearing within the time period provided by law. Your request for a CDP hearing must be sent to the address on the lien or levy notice and postmarked on or before the date shown in the lien notice or on or before the 30th day after the date of the levy notice.

Before you formally appeal a lien or levy notice by sending us Form 12153, you may be able to work out a solution with the Collection office that sent the notice. To do so, call the telephone number on the lien or levy notice and explain to the IRS employee listed on the notice or other representative why you disagree with the action. If a telephone number is not shown on the notice, you can call 1-800-829-1040. This contact, however, does NOT extend the 30-day period to make a written request for a CDP hearing.

After you request a hearing, you may still discuss your concerns with the Collection office that sent the lien or levy notice. If you are able to resolve the issues with that office, you may withdraw your request for a hearing. If you are unable to, or do not choose to, resolve the issues with the Collection office, your case will be forwarded immediately to Appeals.

Appeals will contact you to schedule a conference. Your hearing will consist of an in-person or telephone conference and one or more written or oral communications.

Unless the IRS has reason to believe that collection of the tax is in jeopardy, levy action is not permitted for the subject tax and periods during the 30 days after the levy notice and during the timely requested CDP hearing. Normally, there will be no levy action during the period you have to request a hearing from a lien notice and during the CDP hearing.

If your request for a CDP hearing is timely, the 10-year period the IRS has to collect your taxes will be suspended until the date the determination becomes final or you withdraw your request for a hearing in writing.

At the conclusion of the CDP hearing, Appeals will issue a determination letter. If you don't agree with Appeals' determination, you may request judicial review of the determination by petitioning the United States Tax Court within the time period provided for in the Appeals' determination letter.

Appeals will retain jurisdiction over its determination. You may return to Appeals if you believe that the Collection function did not carry out Appeals' determination as it was stated or if there is a change in your circumstances that affects Appeals' determination. However, you must first try to work with Collection to resolve the problem.

If your request for a CDP hearing is not timely and you request an equivalent hearing, the law does not prohibit collection action and the collection statute is not suspended. Furthermore, you cannot go to court if you disagree with Appeals' decision.

HEARING AVAILABLE UNDER COLLECTION APPEALS PROGRAM (CAP)

For Liens, Levies, Seizures and Installment Agreements

The CAP procedure is available under more circumstances than Collection Due Process (CDP). Unlike CDP, you may not challenge in CAP the existence or amount of your tax liability. You also cannot proceed to court if you don't agree with Appeals' decision in your CAP case. Collection actions you may appeal under CAP are:

Notice of Federal Tax Lien. You may appeal the proposed filing of a Notice of Federal Tax Lien (NFTL) or the actual filing of an NFTL at the first and each subsequent filing of the NFTL. You are entitled to a CDP hearing after the first filing of an NFTL. See the preceding information regarding Hearing Available under Collection Due Process. You may also appeal denied requests to withdraw a NFTL, and denied discharges, subordinations, and non-attachments of a lien.

Notice of Levy. You may appeal before or after the IRS places a levy on your wages, bank account or other property. You may also have additional CDP appeal rights. See the preceding information regarding Hearing Available under Collection Due Process. Once the levy proceeds have been sent to the IRS, you may also appeal the denial by the IRS of your request to have levied property returned to you.

Seizure of Property. You may appeal before or after the IRS makes a seizure but before the property is sold.

Rejection or Termination of Installment Agreement. You may appeal when the IRS rejects your request for an installment agreement. You may also appeal when the IRS proposes to terminate or terminates your installment agreement.

How do you appeal a lien or levy action if your only collection contact has been a notice or telephone call?

1. Call the IRS at the telephone number shown on your notice. Be prepared to explain which action(s) you disagree with and why you disagree. You must also offer a solution to your tax problem.
2. If you can't reach an agreement with the employee, tell the employee that you want to appeal his or her decision. The employee must honor your request and will refer you to a manager. The manager will either speak with you then or will return your call within 24 hours.
3. Explain to the manager which action(s) you disagree with and why. The manager will make a decision on the case. If you don't agree with the manager's decision, your case will be forwarded to Appeals for review. You do not have to submit the appeal request in writing.

How do you appeal a lien, levy or seizure action if you have been contacted by a Revenue Officer?

1. If you disagree with the decision of the Revenue Officer, you must first request a conference with the Collection manager.
2. If you do not resolve your disagreement with the Collection manager, you may submit a written request for Appeals consideration, preferably by completing Form 9423, Collection Appeal Request. This form is available at your local IRS office, by calling 1-800-829-3676, or from www.irs.gov. Check the action(s) you disagree with and explain why you disagree. You must also offer a solution to resolve your tax problem.
3. Submit the Form 9423 to that Collection office.
4. If you request an appeal after the IRS makes a seizure, you must appeal to the Collection manager within 10 business days after the Notice of Seizure is given to you or left at your home or business.
5. You should let the Revenue Officer or manager know within 2 business days of your conference with the Collection manager if you want to appeal under CAP or the IRS will resume collection action. Your Form 9423 must be postmarked within 3 business days after the date of your conference with the Collection manager in order to prevent the resumption of collection action.

How do you appeal the denial by the IRS of your request to release or return levied or seized property, if you believed the property was wrongfully levied or seized?

1. If you do not agree with the denial of the request to release or return wrongfully levied/seized property or its value, you must first request a conference with the manager of the Advisory Group denying your request.
2. Call the telephone number on the letter denying your request and explain that you want a conference with the Advisory Group manager.
3. If you do not resolve your disagreement with the Advisory Group manager, you must submit a written request for Appeals consideration, preferably on Form 9423, Collection Appeal Request. This form is available at your local IRS office, by calling 1-800-829-3676, or from www.irs.gov. Check the action you disagree with and explain why you disagree.
4. Submit the completed Form 9423 to the Advisory Group office that denied your request to release or return of wrongfully levied/seized property or its value.

How do you appeal the rejection of a proposed installment agreement?

1. Call the telephone number shown on the letter rejecting your proposed installment agreement and explain that you want to appeal the rejection. Your appeal need not be in writing unless the rejection letter was sent by a Revenue Officer, in which case your request for an appeal must be in writing, preferably using Form 9423, Collection Appeal Request. While a conference is recommended, you need not have a conference with a Collection manager before appealing the rejection of a proposed installment agreement.
2. Your request for an appeal of the rejection of a proposed installment agreement must be made on or before the 30th day after the date of the rejection letter (the mailing of a written request, including a Form 9423, must be postmarked on or before such day).

How do you appeal the termination of an installment agreement?

1. Call the telephone number shown on the notice that indicates that the IRS intends to terminate your installment agreement. If you are unable to resolve the matter, then explain that you want to appeal the termination. Your appeal need not be in writing unless the notice of intent to terminate your installment agreement was sent by a Revenue Officer, in which case your request for an appeal must be in writing, preferably using Form 9423, Collection Appeal Request. While a conference is recommended, you need not have a conference with a Collection manager before appealing the termination of an installment agreement.
2. You will have 76 days from the date of the notice of intent to terminate in which to request an appeal. Unless you appeal within 30 days after the date of the notice, or cure your default of the installment agreement, the installment agreement will terminate automatically on the 46th day after the date of the notice. After the 46th day, and the termination of your agreement, your right to appeal will continue for an additional 30 days. Accordingly, your request must be made on or before the 76th day after the date of the notice of intent to terminate (the mailing of a written request, including a Form 9423, must be postmarked on or before such 76th day).

What will happen when you appeal your case?

Lien, Levy and Seizure: Normally, the IRS will not take any action to collect the tax for the tax periods Appeals is considering, unless the IRS believes the collection of the tax is at risk or you are a business meeting the criteria for a Disqualified Employment Tax Levy.

Installment Agreements: IMPORTANT - The IRS can't levy until 30 days after the rejection or termination of your agreement. If you appeal within the 30-day period, the IRS will be prohibited from levying until your appeal is completed unless the IRS believes the collection of the tax is in jeopardy.

Once Appeals makes a decision regarding your case, that decision is binding on both you and the IRS. You cannot obtain judicial review of Appeals' decision following a CAP hearing.

Note: Providing false information, failure to provide all pertinent information or fraud will void Appeals' decision.

APPEAL OF OTHER COLLECTION ACTIONS

You may also appeal other collection actions:

- Rejected Offer in Compromise
- Proposed Trust Fund Recovery Penalty
- Denied Trust Fund Recovery Penalty Claim
- Denied request to abate penalties (i.e., late payment, late filing, or deposit penalties)

To dispute a penalty in Appeals, follow the protest requirements in Publication 5, Your Appeal Rights and How To Prepare A Protest If You Don't Agree. Also, the correspondence you receive on these types of cases will explain where you should send your protest.

Help if you are experiencing economic harm...

If you are experiencing economic harm or are seeking help in resolving a tax problem that has not been resolved through normal channels or believe an IRS system or procedure is not working, as it should, you may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TTD 1-800-829-4059. TAS cannot extend the time you have to request a CDP, equivalent or CAP hearing. The timeframes for requesting these hearings are explained in this publication.

Robert,

I have decided to pay the club as I do not think we are going to be able to get done what I would like to do. Unfortunately, it is going to reduce the assets of the estate this way but I am too busy to fight the fight. Deborah will get a check out to the club by Monday and I will call the club office to let them know.

Already spoke to him. Apparently he has had extensive conversations with the Club regarding the dues and has been trying to get them waived in light of the fact that nobody is using the club as both of his parents are deceased. He will get things paid next week.

Robert -

This confirms our telephone conversation today, wherein you advised me that you would have Mr. Bernstein's son, who is also the successor trustee to Mrs. Bernstein's trust, and therefore the owner of the Lot, pay the amounts due the POA arising after his father's death. Attached is a "Worksheet" showing that the total amounts due the POA are $3,464.85, which includes 1 hour of my time sorting out this matter today, our phone conversation, and this email. The 4th quarter 2012 and 1st quarter 2013 POA bills would have been sent to the property address, unless the POA had been advised of another mailing address.

The above amounts do not include any amounts that may be due St. Andrews Country Club, Inc. (the Club), who we do not (yet) represent in this matter. I anticipate that you or Mr. Bernstein (the son) will be hearing from the Club (or an attorney representing the Club) in the near future regarding amounts owed to it. Alternatively, if Mr. Bernstein has previously received invoices from the Club (which I think is likely), then he can also pay those now.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

3. Agreements of the Undersigned and Rights of the Bank.

The undersigned agrees as follows and irrevocably authorizes the Bank to exercise the rights listed below with respect to the Collateral, at its option, for its own benefit, either in its own name or in the name of the undersigned, and appoints the Bank as its attorney-in-fact to take all action permitted under this Agreement.

(a) Deposits: Upon a Default, the Bank may: (i) renew the Deposits on terms and for periods the Bank deems appropriate; (ii) demand, collect, and receive payment of any monies or proceeds due or to become due under the Deposits; (iii) execute any instruments required for the withdrawal or repayment of the Deposits; and (iv) in all respects deal with the Deposits as the owner.

(b) Securities: The Bank may: (i) transfer to the account of the Bank any Securities whether in the possession of, or registered in the name of, any Clearing System or held otherwise; (ii) transfer to the account of the Bank with any Federal Reserve Bank any Securities held in book entry form with any such Federal Reserve Bank; and (iii) transfer to the name of the Bank or its nominee any Securities registered in the name of the undersigned and held by the Bank and complete and deliver any necessary stock powers or other transfer instruments; provided that until the occurrence of a Default, the Bank will only take that action if, in its judgment, failure to take that action would impair its rights under this Agreement or diminish its operational control over Collateral, or if such Securities are held in a custody, investment management or similar account.

The undersigned grants to the Bank an irrevocable proxy to vote any and all Securities and give consents, waivers and ratifications in connection with those Securities upon and after the occurrence of a Default.

All payments, distributions and dividends in securities, property or cash shall be paid directly to and, at the discretion of the Bank, retained by the Bank and held by it, until applied as provided in this Agreement, as additional Collateral; provided that until the occurrence of a Default, interest on Deposits and cash dividends on Securities paid in the ordinary course will be paid to the undersigned.

(c) General: The Bank may, in its name, or in the name of the undersigned: (i) execute and file financing statements under the UCC or any other filings or notices necessary or desirable to create, perfect or preserve its security interest, all without notice (except as required by applicable law and not waivable) and without liability except to account for property actually received by it; (ii) upon a Default demand, sue for, collect or receive any money or property at any time payable or receivable on account of or in exchange for, or make any compromise or settlement deemed desirable with respect to, any item of the Collateral (but shall be under no obligation to do so); (iii) make any notification (to the issuer of any certificate or Security, or otherwise, including giving any notice of exclusive control to the Intermediary) or take any other action in connection with the perfection or preservation of its security interest or upon a Default any enforcement of remedies, and retain any documents evidencing the title of the undersigned to any item of the Collateral; and (iv) upon a Default issue entitlement orders with respect to any of the Collateral.

The undersigned agrees that it will not file or permit to be filed any termination statement with respect to the Collateral or any financing or like statement with respect to the Collateral in which the Bank is not named as the sole secured party, consent or be a party to any Account Control Agreement to which the Bank is not also a party or sell, assign, or otherwise dispose of, grant any option with respect to, or pledge, or otherwise encumber the Collateral provided, however, that until the occurrence of a Default, the undersigned may buy, sell and withdraw Collateral subject to the other provisions of this Agreement, including but not limited to, Section 4. At the request of the Bank the undersigned agrees to do all other things which the Bank may deem necessary or advisable in order to perfect and preserve its security interest, perfection and operational control and to give effect to the rights granted to the Bank under this Agreement or enable the Bank to comply with any applicable laws or regulations. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Bank does not assume any duty with respect to the Collateral and is not required to take any action to collect, preserve or protect its or the undersigned's rights in any item of the Collateral. The undersigned releases the Bank and agrees to hold the Bank harmless from any claims, causes of action and demands at any time arising with respect to this Agreement, the use or disposition of any item of the Collateral or any action taken or omitted to be taken by the Bank with respect thereto, except in any case where the claim, cause of action or demand results from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Bank. The undersigned releases each Intermediary and agrees to hold each Intermediary harmless from any claims, causes of action and demands at any time arising with respect to any instruction made by Bank to any Intermediary purporting to be made under this Agreement or any Account Control Agreement, except in any case where the claim, cause of action or demand results from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Bank or the Intermediary, it being understood that no Intermediary shall have any duty to investigate Bank's right to issue any such instruction or any other matter related to any such instruction.

The rights granted to the Bank pursuant to this Agreement are in addition to the rights granted to the Bank in any custody, investment management, trust, Account Control Agreement or similar agreement. In case of conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and of any other such agreement, the provisions of this Agreement will prevail.

4. Loan Value of the Collateral.

The undersigned agrees that at all times the amount of the Liabilities may not exceed the aggregate Loan Value of the Collateral. The undersigned will, at the Bank's option, either supplement the Collateral or make, or cause to be made, any payment under the Liabilities to the extent necessary to ensure compliance with this provision or the Bank may liquidate Collateral to the extent necessary to ensure compliance with this provision. "Loan Value" means the value assigned by the Bank from time to time, in its sole reasonable discretion, to each item of the Collateral. The Bank retains the right to determine the eligibility of the Collateral.

5. Currency Conversion.

For calculation purposes, any currency or precious metal in which the Collateral is denominated (the "Collateral Currency") will be converted into the currency of the Liabilities (the "Liability Currency") at the spot rate of exchange for the purchase of the Liability Currency with the Collateral Currency quoted by the Bank at such place as the Bank reasonably deems appropriate (or, if no such rate is quoted on any relevant date, estimated by the Bank on the basis of the Bank's last quoted spot rate) or another prevailing rate that the Bank reasonably deems more appropriate.

6. Representations and Warranties.

The undersigned represents and warrants that:

(f) in the event that the undersigned is a partnership, limited liability partnership, corporation or limited liability company, the undersigned also represents and warrants that it is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or organization, and has all requisite power and authority to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under this Agreement;

(g) in the event that the undersigned is a trust, the undersigned also represents and warrants that (i) it is a duly constituted and validly existing trust, (ii) the undersigned has delivered to the Bank a true, complete and accurate copy of the agreement pursuant to which it has been organized and all amendments and modifications thereto, and (iii) the trustees of the undersigned signing this Agreement have the legal capacity and full power and authority to execute, deliver, and perform their obligations under, and to bind the undersigned to perform its obligations under, this Agreement, and to execute and deliver any and all documents and instruments in connection therewith;

(h) the undersigned is the sole owner of the Collateral and the Collateral is free of all encumbrances except for the security interest in favor of the Bank created by this Agreement;

(i) with respect to the Collateral, as to Deposits and Account Assets, the undersigned has not withdrawn, canceled, been repaid or redeemed all or any part of any Deposits or Account Assets other than in compliance with this Agreement and there is no such pending application; and

GRID TIME PROMISSORY NOTE (LIBOR/OFFERED)

Dated as of August 24, 2010

For value received, Bernstein Family Investments, LLLP and Simon Bernstein (together, the "Borrower") hereby promises to pay to the order of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (the "Bank") for the account of the lending office of the Bank, the principal amount of each loan made by the Bank to the Borrower or, if less, the aggregate unpaid principal amount of all loans made to the Borrower by the Bank and outstanding under this Note (the "Loans"), up to an aggregate principal amount of One Million Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,400,000.00) on the Maturity Date (as defined below) of each such Loan. No Maturity Date may be later than the Expiry Date defined in the most recent line of credit offer letter issued in connection with this Note (the "Final Maturity Date").

The Borrower promises to pay interest on each Interest Payment Date on the unpaid balance of the principal amount of each such Loan from and including the date of such Loan to such Maturity Date at either (i) a fixed rate per annum equal to the Adjusted Libor Rate applicable to such Loan plus 1.70% (such Loan a "Libor Loan"), or (ii) a fixed rate per annum equal to the Offered Rate applicable to such Loan (such Loan an "Offered Rate Loan"). After the occurrence of an Event of Default, principal shall bear interest from and including the date of such Event of Default until paid in full at a rate per annum equal to the Default Rate, such interest to be payable on demand. Interest shall be payable on the relevant Interest Payment Date and shall be calculated on the basis of a year of 360 days for the actual number of days elapsed.

All payments hereunder shall be made in lawful money of the United States and in immediately available funds. Any extension of time for the payment of the principal of this Note resulting from the due date falling on a non-Banking Day shall be included in the computation of interest. The date, amount, type and Maturity Date of, and the interest rate with respect to, each Loan evidenced hereby and all payments of principal thereof shall be recorded by the Bank on its books and, at the discretion of the Bank prior to any transfer of this Note at any other time, may be endorsed by the Bank on a schedule. Any such endorsement shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The Bank may (but shall not be obligated to) debit the amount of any payment under this Note that is not made when due to any deposit account of the Borrower with the Bank. The Borrower waives presentment, notice of dishonor, protest and any other notice or formality with respect to this Note.

This Note does not create, and shall not be construed to create, any contractual or other commitment to lend by the Bank. Each Loan matures on its Maturity Date and the Bank has no commitment to renew any such Loan. This Note is executed and delivered to the Bank to evidence any Loans that the Bank may extend to the Borrower in the Bank's sole discretion.

1. Definitions. The terms listed below shall be defined as follows:

"Adjusted Libor Rate" shall mean the Libor Rate for such Loan divided by one minus the Reserve Requirement.

"Banking Day" shall mean any day on which commercial banks are not authorized or required to close in New York City and whenever such day relates to a Libor Loan or notice with respect to any Libor Loan, a day on which dealings in U.S. dollar deposits are also carried out in the London interbank market.

"Default Rate" means a rate per annum equal to a fixed rate of 2% above the rate of interest in effect thereon (including any margin) at the time of default until the Maturity Date thereof and, thereafter, a floating rate of 2% above the Prime Rate.

"Event of Default" means an event described in Section 7.

UCN: 012263117000

435429:v1

"Facility Documents" shall mean this Note, any line of credit offer letter and any other documents, instruments, or agreements delivered as security or collateral for, or a guaranty of, the Loans, or in connection with, or as support for, any of the foregoing, whether by the Borrower or a Third Party, and any updates or renewals thereof.

"Fixed Rate Loan" shall mean either a Libor Loan or an Offered Rate Loan.

"Interest Payment Date" shall mean (i) with respect to a Libor Loan, the date one month from the date such Libor Loan is made, and with respect to an Offered Rate Loan, the last Banking Day of each calendar month and on the Maturity Date (and for any Offered Rate Loan with a Maturity Date later than three months after the date such Offered Rate Loan is made, every three months); and (ii) on any payment of principal.

"Libor Rate" shall mean the rate per annum quoted by the Bank at approximately 11:00 a.m. London time (or as soon thereafter as practicable) two Banking Days prior to the first day of such Loan for the offering by the Bank to leading banks in the London interbank market of U.S. dollar deposits having a term comparable to such Loan and in an amount comparable to the principal amount of such Loan.

"Main Office" shall mean the main office of the Bank, currently located at 1111 Polaris Parkway, Columbus, Ohio 43240.

"Maturity Date" shall mean (i) with respect to a Libor Loan, the last day of the period commencing on the date such Libor Loan is made and ending on the numerically corresponding day, one calendar month thereafter, as recorded by the Bank on its books, or if such day is not a Banking Day, then on the immediately succeeding Banking Day, and (ii) with respect to an Offered Rate Loan, the last day of the period commencing on the date such Offered Rate Loan is made and ending on the last day of the period for which such loan is offered, as recorded by the Bank on its books, or if such day is not a Banking Day, then on the immediately succeeding Banking Day; provided that if such Banking Day would fall in the next calendar month, such Maturity Date shall end on the immediately preceding Banking Day; and provided, further, that each such period which commences on the last Banking Day of a calendar month (or on any day for which there is no numerically corresponding day in the appropriate subsequent calendar month) shall end on the last Banking Day of the appropriate calendar month. If the Bank shall not have received notice to the contrary from the Borrower at least three Banking Days prior to the Maturity Date of a Libor Loan, the Bank may renew such Libor Loan as a Libor Loan, provided that no such renewal shall be made if the renewal period is greater than one calendar month. If the Bank shall not have received notice to the contrary from the Borrower at least one (1) Banking Day prior to the Maturity Date of an Offered Rate Loan, the Bank may renew such Loan as a LIBOR Loan having a Maturity Date of one calendar month.

"Offered Rate" means if offered, a rate of interest per year as offered by the Bank from time to time on any single borrowing during the period offered on such Loan. The Offered Rate of interest available for any subsequent borrowings may differ since Offered Rates may fluctuate on a daily basis.

"Prime Rate" shall mean the rate of interest per annum announced from time to time by the Bank as its prime rate. Each change in the Prime Rate shall be effective from and including the date the change is announced as being effective. The Prime Rate is a reference rate and may not be the Bank's lowest rate.

"Regulation D" shall mean Regulation D of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

"Regulatory Change" shall mean any change after the date of this Note in United States federal, state or municipal laws or any foreign laws or regulations (including Regulation D) or the adoption or making after such date of any interpretations, directives or requests applying to a class of banks, including the Bank, of or under any United States federal, state or municipal laws or any foreign laws or regulations (whether or not having the force of law) by any court or governmental or monetary authority charged with the interpretation or administration thereof.

"Reserve Requirement" shall mean, for any Libor Loan, the average maximum rate at which reserves (including any marginal, supplemental or emergency reserves) are required to be maintained during the term of such Loan under Regulation D by member banks of the Federal Reserve System in New York City with deposits exceeding one billion U.S. dollars, or as otherwise established by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and any other banking authority to which the Bank is subject, against "Eurocurrency liabilities" (as such term is used in Regulation D). Without limiting the effect of the foregoing, the Reserve Requirement shall reflect any other reserves required to be maintained by such member banks by reason of any Regulatory Change against (x) any category of liabilities which includes deposits by reference to which the Libor Rate is to be determined or (y) any category of extensions of credit or other assets which include Libor Loans. The Reserve Requirement shall be adjusted automatically on and as of the effective date of any change in any reserve percentage.

"Third Party" shall mean any party liable with respect to, or otherwise granting support for, this Note, whether by guaranty, subordination, grant of security or otherwise.

2. Borrowings and Prepayments. The Borrower shall give the Bank irrevocable notice of each borrowing request by 12:00 noon Eastern time three (3) Banking Days prior to each requested borrowing of a Libor Loan and by 12:00 noon Eastern time on the date of each requested borrowing of an Offered Rate Loan; provided that no Loan shall be in an amount less than $30,000. The Borrower shall have the right to make prepayments of principal at any time or from time to time; provided that: (a) the Borrower shall give the Bank irrevocable notice of each prepayment by 12:00 noon Eastern time three (3) Banking Days prior to prepayment of a Libor Loan, and one (1) Banking Day prior to prepayment of an Offered Rate Loan; (b) Fixed Rate Loans may be prepaid prior to their Maturity Date only if accompanied by payment of the additional compensation calculated in accordance with Section 5 below; (c) all prepayments of Loans shall be in a minimum amount equal to the lesser of $30,000 or the unpaid principal amount of this Note.

3. Additional Costs. (a) If as a result of any Regulatory Change which (i) changes the basis of taxation of any amounts payable to the Bank under this Note (other than taxes imposed on the overall net income of the Bank or the lending office by the jurisdictions in which the Main Office of the Bank or the lending office are located) or (ii) imposes or modifies any reserve, special deposit, deposit insurance or assessments, minimum capital, capital ratios or similar requirements relating to any extension of credit or other assets of, or any deposits with or other liabilities of the Bank, or (iii) imposes any other condition affecting this Note, the Bank determines (which determination shall be conclusive absent manifest error) that the cost to it of making or maintaining a Libor Loan is increased or any amount received or receivable by the Bank under this Note is reduced, then the Borrower will pay to the Bank on demand an additional amount that the Bank determines will compensate it for the increased cost or reduction in amount.

(b) Without limiting the effect of the foregoing provisions of this Section 3 (but without duplication), the Borrower shall pay to the Bank from time to time on request such amounts as the Bank may determine to be necessary to compensate the Bank for any costs which it determines are attributable to the maintenance by it or any of its affiliates pursuant to any law or regulation of any jurisdiction or any interpretation, directive or request (whether or not having the force of law and whether in effect on the date of this Note or thereafter) of any court or governmental or monetary authority of capital in respect of the Loans hereunder (such compensation to include, without limitation, an amount equal to any reduction in return on assets or equity of the Bank to a level below that which it could have achieved but for such law, regulation, interpretation, directive or request).

4. Unavailability, Inadequacy or Illegality of Libor Rate. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, if the Bank determines (which determination shall be conclusive) that:

(a) quotations of interest rates for the relevant deposits referred to in the definition of Libor Rate are not being provided in the relevant amounts or for the relevant maturities for purposes of determining the rate of interest for a Libor Loan; or

(b) the definition of Libor Rate does not adequately cover the cost to the Bank of making or maintaining a Libor Loan; or

(c) as a result of any Regulatory Change (or any change in the interpretation thereof) adopted after the date hereof, the Main Office of the Bank or the lending office is subject to any taxes, reserves, limitations, or other charges, requirements or restrictions on any claims of such office on non-United States residents (including, without limitation, claims on non-United States offices or affiliates of the Bank) or in respect of the excess above a specified level of such claims; or

(d) it is unlawful for the Bank or the lending office to maintain any Libor Loan at the Libor Rate;

THEN, the Bank shall give the Borrower prompt notice thereof, and so long as such condition remains in effect, any existing Libor Loan shall bear interest at the Prime Rate and the Bank shall make no Libor Loans.

5. Certain Compensation. If for any reason there is a principal payment of a Fixed Rate Loan on a date other than its Maturity Date (whether by prepayment, acceleration or otherwise), the Borrower will pay to the Bank such amount or amounts as shall be sufficient (in the reasonable opinion of the Bank) to compensate the Bank for any loss, cost or expense which the Bank determines is attributable to such payment.

6. Representations. The Borrower represents and warrants that:

(a) the Facility Documents constitute the legal, valid and binding obligations of the Borrower, enforceable against the Borrower in accordance with their terms, except as the enforcement hereof and thereof may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and subject to the applicability of general principles of equity;

(b) the execution, delivery and performance by the Borrower of the Facility Documents and all other documents contemplated hereby or thereby, and the use of the proceeds of any of the Loans, do not and will not (i) conflict with or constitute a breach of, or default under, or require any consent under, or result in the creation of any lien, charge or encumbrance upon the property or assets of the Borrower pursuant to any other agreement or instrument (other than any pledge of or security interest granted in any collateral pursuant to any Facility Document) to which the Borrower is a party or is bound or by which its properties may be bound or affected; or (ii) violate any provision of any law, rule, regulation (including, without limitation, Regulation U of the Federal Reserve Board), order, writ, judgment, injunction, decree, determination or award presently in effect having applicability to the Borrower;

(c) no consent, approval or authorization of, or registration, declaration or filing with, any governmental authority or other person or entity is required as a condition to or in connection with the due and valid execution, delivery and performance by the Borrower of any Facility Document;

(d) there are no actions, suits, investigations or proceedings pending or, to the best of the Borrower's knowledge, threatened at law, in equity, in arbitration or by or before any other authority involving or affecting: (i) the Borrower that, if adversely determined, are likely to have a material adverse effect on the prospects or condition of the Borrower; (ii) any material part of the assets or properties of the Borrower or any part of the collateral (if any) under any Facility Document; or (iii) any of the transactions contemplated in the Facility Documents. There are currently no material judgments entered against the Borrower and the Borrower is not in default with respect to any judgment, writ, injunction, order, decree or consent of any court or other judicial authority, which default is likely to have or has had a material adverse effect on the prospects or condition of the Borrower;

(e) in the event that the Borrower is a partnership, limited liability partnership, corporation or limited liability company, the Borrower also represents and warrants that it is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or organization, and has all requisite power and authority to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under the Facility Documents; and

(f) in the event that the Borrower is a trust, the Borrower also represents and warrants that (i) it is a duly constituted and validly existing trust, (ii) the Borrower has delivered to the Bank a true, complete and accurate copy of the agreement pursuant to which it has been organized and all amendments and modifications thereto, and (iii) the trustees of the Borrower signing this Note have the legal capacity and full power and authority to execute, deliver, and perform their obligations under, and to bind the Borrower to perform its obligations under, the Facility Documents, and to execute and deliver any and all documents and instruments in connection therewith.

Each borrowing request by the Borrower under this Note shall constitute a representation and warranty that the statements above are true and correct both on the date of such request and on the date of the borrowing. Each borrowing request shall also constitute a representation that no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or would result from such borrowing.

7. Events of Default. If any one or more of the following events shall occur (each an "Event of Default"):

(a) the Borrower shall fail to pay the principal of, or interest on, this Note, or any other amount payable under this Note, as and when due and payable;

(b) any representation or warranty made or deemed made by the Borrower in this Note or by the Borrower or any Third Party in any Facility Document to which it is a party, or in any certificate, document, opinion or financial or other statement furnished under or in connection with a Facility Document, shall prove to have been incorrect in any material respect when made;

(c) the Borrower or any Third Party shall fail to perform or observe any term, covenant or agreement on its part to be performed or observed contained in (i) any Facility Document or (ii) any loan, credit agreement, extension of credit, lease or derivative agreement to which the Bank or any subsidiary or affiliate is a party;

(d) the Borrower or any Third Party shall fail to pay when due any of its indebtedness (including, but not limited to, indebtedness for borrowed money) or any interest or premium thereon when due (whether by scheduled maturity, acceleration, demand or otherwise);

(e) the Borrower or any Third Party: (i) shall generally not, or be unable to, or shall admit in writing its inability to, pay its debts as its debts become due; (ii) shall make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or petition or apply to any tribunal for the appointment of a custodian, receiver or trustee for its or a substantial part of its assets; (iii) shall commence any proceeding under any law relating to bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, readjustment of debt, dissolution or liquidation; (iv) shall have had any such petition filed, or any such proceeding shall have been commenced against it, in which an adjudication is made or order for relief is entered or which remains undismissed for a period of 30 days; (v) shall have had a receiver, custodian or trustee appointed for all or a substantial part of its property; or (vi) takes any action effectuating, approving or consenting to any of the events described in clauses (i) through (v);

(f) the Borrower or any Third Party shall be determined or adjudged incompetent or otherwise incapacitated by a court of competent jurisdiction, die, dissolve or for any reason cease to be in existence or shall merge or consolidate, or if there is a change in the direct or indirect beneficial ownership of the Borrower or any Third Party;

(g) the Borrower or any Third Party is involved in a proceeding which is likely to result in a forfeiture of all or a substantial part of the Borrower's or any Third Party's assets or a material judgment is entered against the Borrower or any Third Party;

(h) there is, in the opinion of the Bank, a material adverse change in the business, prospects or financial condition of the Borrower or any Third Party;

(i) any Facility Document granting a security interest at any time and for any reason shall cease to create a valid and perfected first priority security interest in and to the property purported to be subject to the Facility Document or ceases to be in full force and effect or is declared null and void, or the validity or enforceability of any Facility Document is contested by any party to the Facility Document, or such signatory to the Facility Document denies it has any further liability or obligation under the Facility Document;

THEN, the Bank may, by notice to the Borrower, declare the unpaid principal amount of this Note, accrued interest thereon and all other amounts payable under this Note due and payable whereupon the same shall become and be forthwith due and payable without presentment, demand, protest, notice of acceleration or intention to accelerate or further notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by the Borrower, provided that in the case of an Event of Default described in clause (e) above, the unpaid principal amount of this Note, accrued interest and other amounts payable under this Note shall be immediately due and payable, provided further that in the case of an Event of Default described in clause (f) above due to the death of the Borrower, (and provided that no other Event of Default has occurred), the Bank shall not accelerate the unpaid principal amount of this Note, accrued interest thereon and other amounts payable under this Note for a period of 60 days, but the Bank shall not make any additional Loans during such 60-day period.

8. Expenses. The Borrower agrees to reimburse the Bank on demand for all reasonable costs, expenses and charges (including, without limitation, fees and charges of counsel) in connection with the preparation or modification of the Facility Documents, performance or enforcement of the Facility Documents, or the defense or prosecution of any rights of the Bank pursuant to any Facility Documents.

9. Jurisdiction. To the maximum extent not prohibited by applicable law, the Borrower hereby irrevocably: (i) submits to the jurisdiction of any Ohio State or United States federal court sitting in Ohio over any action or proceeding arising out of this Note; (ii) agrees that all claims in respect of such action or proceeding may be held and determined in such Ohio State or federal court; (iii) agrees that any action or proceeding brought against the Bank may be brought only in a Ohio State or United States federal court sitting in Ohio; (iv) consents to the service of process in any such action or proceeding in either of said courts by mailing thereof by the Bank by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, to the Borrower at its address specified on the signature page hereof, or at the Borrower's most recent mailing address as set forth in the records of the Bank; and (v) waives any defense on the basis of an inconvenient forum.

The Borrower agrees that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in any other jurisdiction by suit or proceeding in such state and hereby waives any defense on the basis of an inconvenient forum. Nothing herein shall affect the right of the Bank to serve legal process in any other manner permitted by law or affect the right of the Bank to bring any action or proceeding against the Borrower or its property in the courts of any other jurisdiction.

10. Waiver of Jury Trial.

THE BORROWER AND THE BANK EACH WAIVE ANY RIGHT TO JURY TRIAL.

11. Miscellaneous. (a) The provisions of this Note are intended to be severable. If for any reason any provisions of this Note shall be held invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part in any jurisdiction, such provision shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without in any manner affecting the validity or enforceability thereof in any other jurisdiction or the remaining provisions thereof in any jurisdiction.

(b) No amendment, modification, supplement or waiver of any provision of this Note nor consent to departure by the Borrower therefrom shall be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the Borrower and the Bank, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given.

(c) No failure on the part of the Bank to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof or preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right. The remedies herein provided are cumulative and not exclusive of any remedies provided by law.

(d) As used herein, the term Borrower shall include all signatories hereto, if more than one. In such event, the obligations, representations and warranties of the Borrower hereunder shall be joint and several. This Note shall be binding on the Borrower and its successors and assigns and shall inure to the benefit of the Bank and its successors and assigns, except that the Borrower may not delegate any of its obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Bank.

(e) Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the obligations of the Borrower under this Note shall be subject to the limitation that payments of interest shall not be required to the extent that receipt thereof would be contrary to provisions of law applicable to the Bank limiting rates of interest which may be charged or collected by the Bank.

(f) Unless otherwise agreed in writing, notices shall be given to the Bank and the Borrower at their telecopier numbers (confirmed by telephone to their telephone numbers) or addresses set forth in the signature page of this Note, or such other telecopier (and telephone) number or address communicated in writing by either such party to the other. Notices to the Bank shall be effective upon receipt.

(g) The obligations of the Borrower under Sections 3, 5, 8, 9, and 10 hereof shall survive the repayment of the Loans.

(h) Each reference herein to the Bank shall be deemed to include its successors, endorsees, and assigns, in whose favor the provisions hereof shall inure. Each reference herein to the Borrower shall be deemed to include the heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns of the Borrower, all of whom shall be bound by the provisions hereof.

12. Governing Law. This Note shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Ohio without regard to the conflict of laws principles, and with the laws of the United States of America as applicable.

The Managers may create a Board of Directors, and may also appoint individuals with or without titles, including the titles of General Manager, Executive Director, President, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary, and Assistant Secretary, to act on behalf of the Company with such power and authority as the Managers or Board of Directors may delegate to any such Person.

AGREEMENT OF LIMITED PARTNERSHIP OF BERNSTEIN FAMILY INVESTMENTS, LLLP

This is an Agreement of Limited Partnership ("Agreement") dated this 20 day of May, 2008, by and between BERNSTEIN HOLDINGS, LLC, a Florida limited liability company (the "General Partner"); and SIMON L. BERNSTEIN, Trustee of the SIMON L. BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT dated May 20, 2008 and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN, Trustee of the SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT dated May 20, 2008, together with any individual, partnership, corporation, trust, estate or other entity subsequently admitted as Limited Partners, referred to as the "Limited Partners," and individually as a "Limited Partner". The General Partner and the Limited Partners are herein sometimes referred to individually as a "Partner" and collectively as "Partners."

The parties agree as follows:

1. Formation. BERNSTEIN FAMILY INVESTMENTS, LLLP, a limited partnership under the Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act of Florida ("Act"), became effective on February 15, 2008, the date of filing of the Certificate of Limited Partnership with the Florida Secretary of State by the General Partner. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Act shall govern the rights and liabilities of the Partners. The limited partnership has elected to be a Florida limited liability limited partnership.

2. Name. The name of the Partnership is BERNSTEIN FAMILY INVESTMENTS, LLLP. The General Partner may, in its discretion, change the name of the Partnership and adopt such trade or fictitious names as it may deem appropriate.

3. Definitions. In this Agreement, the following terms have the following meanings unless the context otherwise requires:

3.1 "Act" means the Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act of Florida, as amended from time to time.

3.2 "Adjusted Capital Account Deficit" means, with respect to any Partner, the deficit balance, if any, in such Partner's Capital Account as of the end of the relevant fiscal year, after giving effect to the following adjustments:

3.2.1 Credit to such Capital Account any amounts which such Partner is obligated to restore (pursuant to the terms of such Partner's promissory note or otherwise) or is deemed to be obligated to restore pursuant to the penultimate sentences of Regulations Sections 1.704-2(g)(1) and 1.704-2(i)(5); and

3.2.2 Debit to such Capital Account the items described in Sections 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(5), and 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(6) of the Regulations.

The foregoing definition of Adjusted Capital Account Deficit is intended to comply with the provisions of Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d) of the Regulations and shall be interpreted consistently therewith.

3.3 "Aggregate Capital Contribution" means the net fair market value of all contributions made to the capital of the Partnership by a Partner pursuant to Section 7.

3.4 "Agreement" means this Agreement of Limited Partnership, as it may be amended from time to time.

3.5 "Capital Account" means, with respect to any Partner, the Capital Account maintained for such Partner in accordance with the following provisions:

3.5.1 To each Partner's Capital Account there shall be credited such Partner's Capital Contributions, such Partner's distributive share of Profits and any items in the nature of income or gain which are specially allocated pursuant to Section 9.3 or Section 9.4 hereof, and the amount of any Partnership liabilities assumed by such Partner or which are secured by any Partnership Property distributed to such Partner.

3.5.2 To each Partner's Capital Account there shall be debited the amount of cash and the Gross Asset Value of any Partnership Property distributed to such Partner pursuant to any provision of this Agreement, such Partner's distributive share of Losses and any items in the nature of expenses or losses which are specially allocated pursuant to Section 9.3 or Section 9.4 hereof, and the amount of any liabilities of such Partner assumed by the Partnership or which are secured by any property contributed by such Partner to the Partnership.

3.5.3 In the event all or a portion of an Interest in the Partnership is transferred in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the transferee shall succeed to the Capital Account of the transferor to the extent it relates to the transferred Interest.

3.5.4 In determining the amount of any liability for purposes of Sections 3.5.1, and 3.5.2 hereof, there shall be taken into account Code Section 752(c) and any other applicable provisions of the Code and Regulations.

The foregoing provisions and the other provisions of this Agreement relating to the maintenance of Capital Accounts are intended to comply with Regulations Section 1.704-1(b), and shall be interpreted and applied in a manner consistent with such Regulations. In the event the General Partner shall determine that it is prudent to modify the manner in which the Capital Accounts, or any debits or credits thereto (including, without limitation, debits or credits relating to liabilities that are secured by contributed or distributed property or that are assumed by the Partnership, the General Partner, or Partners), are computed in order to comply with such Regulations, the General Partner may make such modification, provided that it is not likely to have a material effect on the amounts distributable to a Partner pursuant to Section 10.3 hereof upon the dissolution of the Partnership. The General Partner also shall (i) make any adjustments that are necessary or appropriate to maintain equality between the Capital Accounts of the Partners and the amount of Partnership capital reflected on the Partnership's balance sheet, as computed for book purposes, in accordance with Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(g), and (ii) make any appropriate modifications in the event unanticipated events (for example, the acquisition by the Partnership of oil or gas properties) might otherwise cause this Agreement not to comply with Regulations Section 1.704-1(b).

3.6 "Capital Contributions" means, with respect to a Partner, the amount of money and the initial Gross Asset Value of any property (other than money) contributed to the Partnership with respect to the Partnership Interest held by such Partner. The principal amount of a promissory note which is not readily traded on an established securities market and which is contributed to the Partnership by the maker of the note (or a person related to the maker of the note within the meaning of Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(c)) shall not be included in the Capital Account of any Partner until the Partnership makes a taxable disposition of the note or until (and to the extent) principal payments are made on the note, all in accordance with Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(d)(2).

3.7 "Certificate" means the certificate of limited partnership required by the Act to be filed with the Department of State of Florida, as it may be amended from time to time.

3.8 "Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or subsequent revenue laws.

3.9 "Depreciation" means, for each Fiscal Year, an amount equal to the depreciation, amortization, or other cost recovery deduction allowable with respect to an asset for such Fiscal Year, except that if the Gross Asset Value of an asset differs from its adjusted basis for federal income tax purposes at the beginning of such Fiscal Year, Depreciation shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to such beginning Gross Asset Value as the federal income tax depreciation, amortization, or other cost recovery deduction for such Fiscal Year bears to such beginning adjusted tax basis; provided, however, that if the adjusted basis for federal income tax purposes of an asset at the beginning of such Fiscal Year is zero, Depreciation shall be determined with reference to such beginning Gross Asset Value using any reasonable method selected by the General Partner.

3.10 "Event of Withdrawal" means an event described as such in Fla.Stats. §620.1603, or successor provision thereto.

3.11 "Fiscal Year" means (i) the period commencing on the effective date of this Agreement and ending on the last day of the Partnership's taxable year, (ii) any subsequent twelve (12) month period commencing on day after the last day of the partnership's taxable year and ending on the last day of the partnership's taxable year, or (iii) any portion of the period described in clause (ii) for which the Partnership is required to allocate Profits, Losses, and other items of Partnership income, gain, loss, or deduction pursuant to Section 9 hereof.

3.12 "General Partner" means BERNSTEIN HOLDINGS, LLC, and its successors as provided herein.

3.13 "Gross Asset Value" means, with respect to any asset, the asset's adjusted basis for federal income tax purposes, except as follows:

3.13.1 The initial Gross Asset Value of any asset contributed by a Partner to the Partnership shall be the gross fair market value of such asset, as determined by the contributing Partner and the General Partner, provided that, if the contributing Partner is a General Partner, the determination of the fair market value of a contributed asset shall be determined by appraisal;

3.13.2 The Gross Asset Values of all Partnership assets shall be adjusted to equal their respective gross fair market values, as determined by the General Partner, as of the following times: (a) the acquisition of an additional Interest in the Partnership by any new or existing Partner in exchange for more than a de minimis Capital Contribution; (b) the distribution by the Partnership to a General Partner or Partner of more than a de minimis amount of Partnership Property as consideration for an Interest in the Partnership; and (c) the liquidation of the Partnership within the meaning of Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(g): provided, however, that the adjustments pursuant to clauses (a) and (b) above shall be made only if the General Partner reasonably determines that such adjustments are necessary or appropriate to reflect the relative economic interests of the General Partner and Partners in the Partnership;

3.13.3 The Gross Asset Value of any Partnership asset distributed to a Partner shall be adjusted to equal the gross fair market value of such asset on the date of distribution as determined by the distributee and the General Partner, provided that, if the distributee is a General Partner, the determination of the fair market value of the distributed asset shall be determined by appraisal; and

3.13.4 The Gross Asset Values of Partnership assets shall be increased (or decreased) to reflect any adjustments to the adjusted basis of such assets pursuant to Code Section 734(b) or Code Section 743(b), but only to the extent that such adjustments are taken into account in determining Capital Accounts pursuant to Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m) and Sections 3.26.6 and 9.3.7 hereof; provided, however, that Gross Asset Values shall not be adjusted pursuant to this Section 3.13.4 to the extent the General Partner determines that an adjustment pursuant to Section 3.13.2 hereof is necessary or appropriate in connection with a transaction that would otherwise result in an adjustment pursuant to this Section 3.13.4.

If the Gross Asset Value of an asset has been determined or adjusted pursuant to Section 3.13.1, Section 3.13.2, or Section 3.13.4 hereof, such Gross Asset Value shall thereafter be adjusted by the Depreciation taken into account with respect to such asset for purposes of computing Profits and Losses.

3.14 "Involuntary Transfer" means any involuntary sale, transfer, encumbrance or other disposition, by or in which any Partner or assignee of a Partnership Interest shall be deprived or divested of any right, title or interest in or to any Partnership Interest, or portion thereof, to any Person or governmental entity other than a Partner, including, without limitation, (i) any sale in connection with the execution of a judgment pursuant to court order, (ii) a transfer or sale in connection with a bankruptcy or a transfer or sale by a receiver, (iii) any transfer to a judgment creditor pursuant to court order, (iv) any transfer in connection with a reorganization, insolvency or similar proceeding, (v) any transfer to a public officer or agency pursuant to any abandoned property or escheat law, or (vi) any transfer to the spouse or former spouse of a Partner or assignee of a Partnership Interest as the result of or incident to any dissolution of marriage, marital separation, or similar event (notwithstanding such transfer is pursuant to a marital or property settlement agreement).

3.15 "Limited Partners" means those Persons identified on the Signature Pages of this Agreement as limited partners and all other Persons who shall be admitted to the Partnership as Substitute Limited Partners as provided in this Agreement and no other Person.

3.16 "Net Cash From Operations" means the gross cash proceeds from Partnership operations (including sales and dispositions in the ordinary course of business) less the portion thereof used to pay or establish reserves for all Partnership expenses, debt payments, capital improvements, replacements, and contingencies, all as determined by the General Partner. "Net Cash From Operations" shall not be reduced by depreciation, amortization, cost recovery deductions, or similar allowances, but shall be increased by any reductions of reserves previously established pursuant to the first sentence of this Section 3.16 and Section 3.17 hereof. Net Cash from Operations shall include income-type items derived from Partnership investment assets (e.g., dividends, interest, and partnership operating distributions).

3.17 "Net Cash From Sales or Refinancings" means the net cash proceeds from all sales and other dispositions (other than in the ordinary course of business) and all refinancings of Property, from any insurance payments or damage recoveries, other than under policies commonly referred to as a rent insurance paid to the Partnership in respect of its capital assets, and from any exercise by a governmental authority of any right of eminent domain, condemnation or similar right or power with respect to the capital assets of the Partnership, less any portion thereof used to establish reserves, all as determined by the General Partner. "Net Cash From Sales or Refinancings" shall include all principal and interest payments with respect to any note or other obligation received by the Partnership in connection with sales and other dispositions (other than in the ordinary course of business) of Partnership Property.

3.18 "Partner Nonrecourse Debt" has the meaning set forth in Section 1.704-2(b)(4) of the Regulations.

3.19 "Partner Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain" means an amount, with respect to each Partner Nonrecourse Debt, equal to the Partnership Minimum Gain that would result if such Partner Nonrecourse Debt were treated as a Nonrecourse Liability, determined in accordance with Section 1.704-2(i)(3) of the Regulations.

3.20 "Partner Nonrecourse Deductions" has the meaning set forth in Sections 1.704-2(i)(1) and 1.704-2(i)(2) of the Regulations.

3.26.1 Any income of the Partnership that is exempt from federal income tax and not otherwise taken into account in computing Profits and Losses pursuant to this Section 3.26 shall be added to such taxable income or loss;

3.26.2 Any expenditures of the Partnership described in Code Section 705(a)(2)(B) or treated as Code Section 705(a)(2)(B) expenditures pursuant to Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(i), and not otherwise taken into account in computing Profits or Losses pursuant to this Section 3.26 shall be subtracted from such taxable income or loss;

3.26.3 In the event the Gross Asset Value of any Partnership asset is adjusted pursuant to Section 3.13.2 or Section 3.13.3 hereof, the amount of such adjustment shall be taken into account as gain or loss from the disposition of such asset for purposes of computing Profits or Losses;

3.26.4 Gain or loss resulting from any disposition of Partnership Property with respect to which gain or loss is recognized for federal income tax purposes shall be computed by reference to the Gross Asset Value of the property disposed of, notwithstanding that the adjusted tax basis of such property differs from its Gross Asset Value;

3.26.5 In lieu of the depreciation, amortization, and other cost recovery deductions taken into account in computing such taxable income or loss, there shall be taken into account Depreciation for such fiscal year or other period, computed in accordance with Section 3.9 hereof;

3.26.6 To the extent an adjustment to the adjusted tax basis of any Partnership asset pursuant to Code Section 734(b) or Code Section 743(b) is required pursuant to Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m)(4) to be taken into account in determining Capital Accounts as a result of a distribution other than in liquidation of a Partner's Interest in the Partnership, the amount of such adjustment shall be treated as an item of gain (if the adjustment increases the basis of the asset) or loss

(if the adjustment decreases the basis of the asset) from the disposition of the asset and shall be taken into account for purposes of computing Profits or Losses;

3.26.7 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 3.26, any items which are specially allocated pursuant to Section 9.3 or Section 9.4 hereof shall not be taken into account in computing Profits or Losses.

The amounts of the items of Partnership income, gain, loss, or deduction available to be specially allocated pursuant to Sections 9.3 or Section 9.4 hereof shall be determined by applying rules analogous to those set forth in Sections 3.26.1 through 3.26.6 above.

The Partnership shall not engage in any other business without the prior consent of Limited Partners owning (in the aggregate) at least eighty (80%) percent of the limited partnership Interests owned by the Limited Partners.

7. Capital Contributions and Capital Accounts.

7.1 Contribution of General Partners. The General Partner shall, as soon as practicable after the execution of this Agreement, contribute to the Partnership the cash and property set forth on Schedule "A" attached hereto and made a part hereof. The value of said capital contribution shall be allocated to the capital account of the General Partner. In addition, the General Partner shall contribute its efforts as managing partner.

7.2 Contribution of Limited Partners. The Limited Partners shall contribute to the Partnership the cash and property set forth on Schedule "A" attached hereto and made a part hereof. The value of each such contribution shall be allocated to the respective capital accounts of the Limited Partners as reflected on Schedule "A."

7.3 Withdrawal of Capital. Except as specifically provided in this Agreement, no Partner shall be entitled to withdraw any part of his capital account or to receive any distribution from the Partnership, and no Partner shall be required to make any additional capital contribution to the Partnership.

7.4 Partner's Loans. Loans by any Partner to the Partnership shall not be considered contributions to the capital of the Partnership and shall not increase the capital account of the lending Partner.

7.5 Interest on Capital Contribution. No interest shall be paid on any capital contributed to the Partnership.

8. Compensation and Expenses of General Partner.

8.1 Compensation and Reimbursement. The Partnership shall pay to the General Partner or its affiliates reasonable fees as compensation for services and reimbursement for sums advanced. The Partnership is authorized to enter into business agreements, contracts, and other transactions with the General Partner or its affiliates and is authorized to pay fees, commissions or other consideration to the General Partner, or its affiliates on an arms length basis, including without limitation, real estate brokerage commissions, development fees, insurance premiums, rent, property management fees, leasing commissions and mortgage brokerage fees.

8.2 Expenses. The General Partner may charge the Partnership for any reasonable expenses actually incurred by it in connection with the Partnership's business and all allocable portions of expenses incurred in connection with both Partnership and other activities, such allocation to be determined on any equitable basis selected by the General Partner consistent with generally accepted accounting principles. Such expenses shall include, but are not limited to, payment of fees and expenses to attorneys, accountants, property managers and property management companies and other consultants.

9. Allocations of Profit and Loss, Cash Distributions.

9.1 Allocations of Profits. After giving effect to the special allocations set forth in Sections 9.3 and 9.4 hereof, Profits for any Fiscal Year shall be allocated in the following order and priority:

9.1.1 First, to the Partners in an amount equal and in proportion to the excess, if any, of the cumulative Losses allocated to the Partners pursuant to Section 9.2.2 hereof for the current and all prior Fiscal Years, reduced by the cumulative Profits allocated to the Partners pursuant to this Section 9.1.1 hereof for the current and all prior Fiscal Years;

9.1.2 The balance, if any, pro-rata to the Partners or in proportion to their Partnership Interests.

9.2 Allocation of Losses. After giving effect to the special allocations set forth in Sections 9.3 and 9.4, Losses for any Fiscal Year shall be allocated as set forth in Section 9.2.1 below, subject to the limitations in Section 9.2.2 below.

9.2.1 To the Partners in proportion to their Partnership Interests.

9.2.2 The Losses allocated pursuant to Section 9.2.1 hereof shall not exceed the maximum amount of Losses that can be so allocated without causing any Partner who is not a General Partner to have an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit at the end of any Fiscal Year. In the event some but not all of the Partners who are not General Partners would have Adjusted Capital Account Deficits as a consequence of an allocation of Losses pursuant to Section 9.2.1, the limitation set forth in this Section 9.2.2 shall be applied on a Partner by Partner basis so as to allocate the maximum permissible Losses to each Partner who is not a General Partner under Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d) of the Regulations. All Losses in excess of the limitation previously set forth in this Section 9.2.2 shall be allocated to the General Partner.

9.3 Special Allocations. The following special allocations shall be made in the following order:

9.3.1 Minimum Gain Chargeback. Except as otherwise provided in Section 1.704-2(f) of the Regulations, notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 9, if there is a net decrease in Partnership Minimum Gain during any Partnership Fiscal Year, each Partner shall be specially allocated items of Partnership income and gain for such Fiscal Year (and, if necessary, subsequent Fiscal Years) in an amount equal to such Partner's share of the net decrease in Partnership Minimum Gain, determined in accordance with Regulations Section 1.704-2(g). Allocations pursuant to the previous sentence shall be made in proportion to the respective amounts required to be allocated to each Partner pursuant thereto. The items to be so allocated shall be determined in accordance with Sections 1.704-2(f)(6) and 1.704-2(j)(2) of the Regulations. This Section 9.3.1 is intended to comply with the minimum gain chargeback requirement in Section 1.704-2(f) of the Regulations and shall be interpreted consistently therewith.

9.3.2 Partner Minimum Gain Chargeback. Except as otherwise provided in Section 1.704-2(i)(4) of the Regulations, notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 9, if there is a net decrease in Partner Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain attributable to a Partner Nonrecourse Debt during any Partnership Fiscal Year, each Partner who has a share of the Partner Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain attributable to such Partner Nonrecourse Debt, determined in accordance with Section 1.704-2(i)(5) of the Regulations, shall be specially allocated items of Partnership income and gain for such Fiscal Year (and, if necessary, subsequent Fiscal Years) in an amount equal to such Partner's share of the net decrease in Partner Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain attributable to such Partner Nonrecourse Debt, determined in accordance with Regulations Section 1.704-2(i)(4). Allocations pursuant to the previous sentence shall be made in proportion to the respective amounts required to be allocated to each Partner pursuant thereto. The items to be so allocated shall be determined in accordance with Sections 1.704-2(i)(4) and 1.704-2(j)(2) of the Regulations. This Section 9.3.2 is intended to comply with the minimum gain chargeback requirement in Section 1.704-2(i)(4) of the Regulations and shall be interpreted consistently therewith.

9.3.3 Qualified Income Offset. In the event any Partner who is not a General Partner unexpectedly receives any adjustments, allocations, or distributions described in Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(5), or Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(6), items of Partnership income and gain shall be specially allocated to each such Partner in an amount and manner sufficient to eliminate, to the extent required by the Regulations, the Adjusted Capital Account Deficit of such Partner as quickly as possible, provided that an allocation pursuant to this Section 9.3.3 shall be made if and only to the extent that such Partner would have an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit after all other allocations provided for in this Section 9 have been tentatively made as if this Section 9.3.3 were not in the Agreement.

9.3.4 Gross Income Allocation. In the event any Partner who is not a General Partner has a deficit Capital Account at the end of any Partnership Fiscal Year which is in excess of the sum of (i) the amount such Partner is obligated to restore (pursuant to the terms of such Partner's promissory note or otherwise), and (ii) the amount such Partner is deemed to be obligated to restore pursuant to the penultimate sentences of Regulations Sections 1.704-2(g)(1) and 1.704-2(i)(5), each such Partner shall be specially allocated items of Partnership income and gain in the amount of such excess as quickly as possible, provided that an allocation pursuant to this Section 9.3.4 shall be made if and only to the extent that such Partner would have a deficit Capital Account in excess of such sum after all other allocations provided for in this Section 9 have been tentatively made as if this Section 9.3.4 and Section 9.3.3 hereof were not in the Agreement.

9.3.5 Nonrecourse Deductions. Nonrecourse Deductions for any Fiscal Year shall be specially allocated to the Limited Partners.

9.3.6 Partner Nonrecourse Deductions. Any Partner Nonrecourse Deductions for any Fiscal Year shall be specially allocated to the General Partner or Partner who bears the economic risk of loss with respect to the Partner Nonrecourse Debt to which such Partner Nonrecourse Deductions are attributable in accordance with Regulations Section 1.704-2(i)(1).

9.3.7 Section 754 Adjustment. To the extent an adjustment to the adjusted tax basis of any Partnership asset pursuant to Code Section 734(b) or Code Section 743(b) is required, pursuant to Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m)(2) or Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m)(4), to be taken into account in determining Capital Accounts as the result of a distribution to a General Partner or Partner in complete liquidation of his Interest in the Partnership, the amount of such adjustment to the Capital Accounts shall be treated as an item of gain (if the adjustment increases the basis of the asset) or loss (if the adjustment decreases such basis) and such gain or loss shall be specially allocated to the General Partner and the Partners in accordance with their Interests in the Partnership in the event that Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m)(2) applies, or to the Partners to whom such distribution was made in the event that Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m)(4) applies.

9.3.8 Allocations Relating to Taxable Issuance of Partnership Interests. Any income, gain, loss, or deduction realized as a direct or indirect result of the issuance of an Interest in the Partnership by the Partnership to a Partner (the "Issuance Items") shall be allocated among the Partners so that, to the extent possible, the net amount of such Issuance Items, together with all other allocations under this Agreement to each Partner, shall be equal to the net amount that would have been allocated to each such Partner if the Issuance Items had not been realized.

9.4 Curative Allocations. The allocations set forth in Sections 9.2.2, 9.3.1, 9.3.2, 9.3.3, 9.3.4, 9.3.5, 9.3.6 and 9.3.7 hereof (the "Regulatory Allocations") are intended to comply with certain requirements of the Regulations. It is the intent of the Partners that, to the extent possible, all Regulatory Allocations shall be offset either with other Regulatory Allocations or with special allocations of other items of Partnership income, gain, loss, or deduction pursuant to this Section 9.4. Therefore, notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 9 (other than the Regulatory Allocations), the General Partner shall make such offsetting special allocations of Partnership income, gain, loss, or deduction in whatever manner it determines appropriate so that, after such offsetting allocations are made, each Partner's Capital Account balance is, to the extent possible, equal to the Capital Account balance such General Partner or Partner would have had if the Regulatory Allocations were not part of the Agreement and all Partnership items were allocated pursuant to Sections 9.1, 9.2.1, 9.3.8, and 9.5. In exercising its discretion under this Section 9.4, the General Partner shall take into account future Regulatory Allocations under Sections 9.3.1 and 9.3.2 that, although not yet made, are likely to offset other Regulatory Allocations previously made under Sections 9.3.5 and 9.3.6.

9.5 Other Allocation Rules.

9.5.1 Generally, unless otherwise explicitly provided, all Profits and Losses allocated to the Partners shall be allocated among them in proportion to the Partnership Interest held by each. In the event additional Limited Partners are admitted to the Partnership on different dates during any Fiscal Year, the Profits (or Losses) allocated to the Partners for each such Fiscal Year shall be allocated among the Partners in proportion to the Partnership Interest each holds from time to time during such Fiscal Year in accordance with Code Section 706, using any convention permitted by law and selected by the General Partner.

9.5.2 The Partners are aware of the income tax consequences of the allocations made by this Section 9 and hereby agree to be bound by the provisions of this Section 9 in reporting their shares of Partnership income and loss for income tax purposes.

9.5.3 Solely for purposes of determining a General Partner's or Partner's proportionate share of the "excess nonrecourse liabilities" of the Partnership within the meaning of Regulations Section 1.752-3(a)(3), the Partner's Interests in Partnership profits are as follows: Limited Partners one hundred percent (100%) (in proportion to their Partnership Interests).

9.5.4 To the extent permitted by Sections 1.704-2(h)(3) of the Regulations, the General Partner shall endeavor to treat distributions of Net Cash From Operations or Net Cash From Sales or Refinancings as having been made from the proceeds of a Nonrecourse Liability or a Partner Nonrecourse Debt only to the extent that such distributions would cause or increase an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit for any Partner who is not a General Partner.

9.6 Tax Allocations: Code Section 704(c). In accordance with Code Section 704(c) and the Regulations thereunder, income, gain, loss, and deduction with respect to any property contributed to the capital of the Partnership shall, solely for tax purposes, be allocated among the General Partner and Partners so as to take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such property to the Partnership for federal income tax purposes and its initial Gross Asset Value (computed in accordance with Section 3.13.1 hereof). In the event the Gross Asset Value of any Partnership asset is adjusted pursuant to Section 3.13.2 hereof, subsequent allocations of income, gain, loss, and deduction with respect to such asset shall take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such asset for federal income tax purposes and its Gross Asset Value in the same manner as under Code Section 704(c) and the Regulations thereunder. Any elections or other decisions relating to such allocations shall be made by the General Partner in any manner that reasonably reflects the purpose and intention of this Agreement. Allocations pursuant to this Section 9.6 are solely for purposes of federal, state, and local taxes and shall not affect, or in any way be taken into account in computing, any Partner's Capital Account or share of Profits, Losses, other items, or distributions pursuant to any provision of this Agreement.

10. Distributions.

10.1 Net Cash From Operations. Except as otherwise provided in Section 10.3 hereof, Net Cash From Operations not needed in the General Partner's determination for the reasonable needs of the Partnership business, shall be distributed to the Partners in proportion to their respective Partnership Interests.

To the extent such cash is comprised in whole or in part of nonrental income-type items derived from Partnership passive investment assets (e.g., dividends, interest, and partnership operating distributions), reinvestments of such proceeds in other investment assets shall constitute expenditures for the reasonable needs of the business in the determination of the General Partner.

10.2 Net Cash From Sales or Refinancings. Except as otherwise provided in Section 10.3 hereof, Net Cash From Sales or Refinancings not needed in the General Partner's determination for the reasonable needs of the Partnership business, shall be distributed in the following order and priority:

10.2.1 First, proportionally to the Partners until their aggregate Capital Account balances are reduced to zero; and

10.2.2 thereafter, to the Partners in proportion to their Partnership Interests.

To the extent such cash is comprised in whole or in part of cash from the sale of Partnership non-real property passive investment assets (e.g., marketable securities), reinvestments of such proceeds in other investment assets shall constitute expenditures for the reasonable needs of the business in the determination of the General Partner.

10.3 Liquidating Distributions. Notwithstanding the distribution provisions, liquidating distributions of the partnership, including all distributions made pursuant to a liquidation described in Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(g), shall be distributed as follows:

10.3.1 First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Partnership's debts and liabilities to creditors other than the General Partners;

10.3.2 Second, to the payment and discharge of all of the Partnership's debts and liabilities to General Partners; and

10.3.3 The balance, if any, proportionally to the Partners until their aggregate Capital Account balances are reduced to zero; and

10.3.4 thereafter, to the Partners in proportion to their Partnership Interests.

The foregoing liquidating distributions are intended to be made in compliance with Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(b)(2) and subsequent to a revaluation of Partnership property and corresponding adjustment of Capital Accounts under Treas. Regs. §1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(f). If any General Partner's Capital Account has a deficit balance (after giving effect to all contributions, distributions, and allocations for all Fiscal Years, including the Fiscal Year during which such liquidation occurs), such General Partner shall contribute to the capital of the Partnership the amount necessary to restore such deficit balance to zero in compliance with Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(b)(3). If any Limited Partner who is not a General Partner has a deficit balance in his Capital Account (after giving effect to all contributions, distributions, and allocations for all Fiscal Years, including the Fiscal Year during which such liquidation occurs), such Limited Partner shall have no obligation to make any contribution to the capital of the Partnership with respect to such deficit, and such deficit shall not be considered a debt owed to the Partnership or to any other Person for any purpose whatsoever. In the discretion of the General Partner, a pro rata portion of the distributions that would otherwise be made to the General Partner and Limited Partners pursuant to this subsection may be (a) distributed to a trust established for the benefit of the General Partner and Limited Partners for the purposes of liquidating Partnership assets, collecting amounts owed to the Partnership, and paying any contingent or unforeseen liabilities or obligations of the Partnership or of the General Partner arising out of or in connection with the Partnership. The assets of any such trust shall be distributed to the General Partner and Limited Partners from time to time, in the reasonable discretion of the General Partner, in the same proportions as the amount distributed to such trust by the Partnership would otherwise have been distributed to the General Partner and Limited Partners pursuant to this Subsection 10.3; or (b) withheld to provide a reasonable reserve for Partnership liabilities (contingent or otherwise) and to reflect the unrealized portion of any installment obligations owed to the Partnership, provided that such withheld amounts shall be distributed to the Partners as soon as practicable.

10.4 Division Among Partners. Except as otherwise provided above, all distributions to the Partners pursuant to this Section 10 shall be divided among them in proportion to the Partnership Interest held by each.

10.5 Amounts Withheld. All amounts withheld pursuant to the Code or any provision of any state or local tax law with respect to any payment, distribution, or allocation to the Partnership, the General Partner, or the Partners shall be treated as amounts distributed to the General Partner and the Partners pursuant to this Section 10 for all purposes under this Agreement. The General Partner is authorized to withhold from distributions, or with respect to allocations, to the General Partner and Partners and to pay over to any federal, state, or local government any amounts required to be so withheld pursuant to the Code or any provisions of any other federal, state, or local law and shall allocate such amounts to the General Partner and Partners with respect to which such amount was withheld.

10.6 Special Tax Elections. At the written request of any Partner the Partnership shall make an election pursuant to Section 754 of the Code upon a distribution of property described in Code Section 734 or a transfer described in Code Section 743 of a Partnership Interest in accordance with this Agreement. Each Partner shall, upon request, supply the General Partner with the information necessary to make such election.

10.7 General Elections and Limitations. The General Partner is authorized, in its sole discretion, to make any other elections required or permitted with respect to Federal or state taxes in any Partnership tax return; provided, however, no election shall be made by either the Partnership or the Partners to be excluded from the application of the provisions of Subchapter K, Chapter I of Subtitle A of the Code or from any similar provisions of any state tax laws.

10.8 Distribution in Kind. If any assets of the Partnership are distributed in kind, such assets shall be distributed to the Partners entitled to participate in the distribution as tenants-in-common in the same proportions as such Partners would have been entitled to cash distributions.

10.9 Rights of Partners to Property. No Partner shall have the right to withdraw or reduce his capital contribution to the Partnership except as a result of the dissolution of the Partnership or as otherwise provided by law. No Partner shall be entitled to demand and receive property other than cash in return for his capital contribution to the Partnership, and, to the maximum extent permissible under applicable law, each Partner hereby waives all right to partition the Partnership Property.

10.10 Priorities of Limited Partners. No Limited Partner shall have any priority over any other Limited Partner as to the return of his contribution to the capital of the Partnership or as to compensation by way of income.

10.11 Minimum Interest of General Partner. Notwithstanding the allocations contained in these Sections 9 and 10, it is the intent of this Agreement that in no event shall the General Partner be allocated less than 1% of Profits, Losses, Net Cash from Operations or Net Cash From Sales or Refinancings allocated to the Partners.

11. Rights, Duties and Powers of the General Partner and Limited Partners.

11.1 Management. The General Partner shall be solely responsible for the management of and shall use its best efforts to manage and control the Partnership business with all rights and powers generally conferred by law or necessary, advisable or consistent with such responsibility.

11.2 Rights. In addition to any other rights and powers which it may possess, the General Partner shall have all specific rights and powers required or appropriate to the management of the Partnership business which, by way of illustration, but not by way of limitation, shall include the right and power:

11.2.1 To evaluate, select, negotiate for, acquire, purchase, operate, hold, trade, sell, exchange, convey or lease the Partnership Property, and any real property which is or may become a part of the Partnership property, as well as personal or other property connected with it, and except as may be limited by this Agreement to acquire or grant options for the purchase or sale of or sell the Partnership property from or to any Person, including, without limitation, the General Partner for such price, cash or otherwise, and upon such terms as the General Partner in its sole discretion deems to be in the best interests of the Partnership.

11.2.2 To manage, develop, improve, maintain and service Partnership properties; to form corporations or acquire shares of stock in corporations to carry out any of the purposes of the Partnership and to acquire title to property in the name of such corporations and to guarantee or otherwise secure the obligations of such corporations in furtherance of Partnership purposes.

11.2.3 To borrow and lend money and, if security is required for a borrowing, to mortgage or subject to any other security device any portion of the property of the Partnership, to execute replacements of any mortgage or other security device, and to prepay, in whole or in part, refinance, increase, modify and consolidate such indebtedness as determined in their discretion to be in the best interest of the Partnership.

11.2.4 To place of record, title to, or the right to use, Partnership assets in the name or names of a nominee or nominees, including, but not limited to, the General Partner, or a land trustee, for any purpose convenient or beneficial to the Partnership.

11.2.5 To acquire and to enter into any contract of liability and other insurance which the General Partner deems necessary and proper for the protection of the Partners and Partnership, for the conservation of its assets or for any purpose convenient or beneficial to the Partnership.

11.2.6 To employ from time to time persons, firms or corporations for the operation and management of the Partnership business, including, but not limited to, attorneys, accountants, advisors, administrators, property managers and personnel, managing and supervising agents, construction, maintenance and repair contractors, independent contractors furnishing full service components, architects, land planners, financial consultants, engineers, insurance brokers, real estate brokers and loan brokers on such terms and for such compensation as the General Partner may determine. The General Partner is hereby specifically authorized in its sole discretion to employ the General Partner as provided in, and subject to, the provisions of this Agreement. Compensation connected with any such employment shall be an expense of the Partnership.

11.2.7 To make elections under the tax laws of the United States or any state as to the treatment of Partnership income, gain, loss, deduction and credit, and as to all other relevant matters.

11.2.8 To determine the Profits, Losses, Net Cash from Operations and Net Cash From Sales or Refinancings of the Partnership for any period and from any transaction.

11.2.9 To transfer all or part of the real or personal property belonging to the Partnership to one or more general or limited partnerships or corporations in exchange for partnership interests or shares of stock which the Partnership may hold or distribute among the Partners in accordance with their respective Interests in the Partnership.

11.2.10 To perform any and all other acts or activities customary or incidental to the Partnership purposes and businesses.

11.2.11 Adjust Partner Capital Account balances to reflect a revaluation of Partnership property on the books of the Partnership in accordance with and as permitted by the provisions of Treas.Reg. §1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(f).

11.3 Certain Limitations. The General Partner shall have all of the rights and powers and be subject to all of the restrictions and liabilities of a partner in a partnership without limited partners, except that without the written consent of all of the Limited Partners as provided in this Agreement, or as otherwise provided by law, the General Partner shall not have authority to do any of the following:

11.3.1 Any act in contravention of the Certificate or this Agreement.

11.3.2 Confess a judgment against the Partnership.

11.3.3 Possess Partnership property, or assign the rights of the Partnership in specific Partnership property, for other than a Partnership purpose.

11.3.4 Admit a Person as a General Partner, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement.

11.3.5 Admit a Person as a Limited Partner, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement.

11.3.6 Require any Limited Partner to make any contribution to the capital of the Partnership not provided in Section 7.

11.4 Other Interests. Any of the Partners and any affiliates of the Partners, or any shareholder or any other Person holding a legal or beneficial interest in an entity which is a Partner or an affiliate of the General Partner, may engage in or possess an interest in other business ventures which may be competitive with the business of, or which may transact business with, the Partnership. Neither the Partnership nor the Partners shall have any right by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures or to the income or profits derived from them.

11.5 Agreement Beyond the Partnership Term. Agreements entered into by the Partnership, including, but not limited to, security agreements, mortgages and leases, may extend for terms in excess of the term of the Partnership.

11.6 General Partner as Limited Partner. The General Partner or its affiliates may acquire and own Interests as Limited Partners, in addition to its Interest as General Partner. In addition, the General Partner may become a Limited Partner in accordance with the provisions of Section 16.5.2.

11.7 Time Devoted to Partnership Business. The General Partner shall devote only such time to the business of the Partnership as it, in its sole discretion, shall deem to be necessary to manage and supervise the Partnership business.

11.8 General Partner's Liability. The General Partner shall not be liable for the return of any portion of the Aggregate Capital Contributions of the Limited Partners.

11.9 Exculpation and Indemnification of General Partner. No General Partner shall be liable, responsible or accountable in damages or otherwise to the Partnership or any other Partner for any act performed or failure to act by it unless such act or failure to act is attributable to willful misconduct or gross negligence. The Partnership shall indemnify and hold harmless the General Partner from and against any and all loss, damage, liability, cost or expense, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of any act or failure to act by the General Partner if such act or failure to act is in good faith within the scope of this Agreement and is not attributable to willful misconduct or gross negligence. The General Partner shall indemnify and hold harmless the Partnership and the Partners for any loss, damage, liability, cost or expense (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising out of any act or failure to act by the General Partner, where such act or failure to act is attributable to willful misconduct or gross negligence.

11.10 Tax Matters Partner. BERNSTEIN HOLDINGS, LLC, shall be the Tax Matters Partner; provided, however, if it is no longer General Partner then it shall be a successor appointed by Limited Partners owning in the aggregate 51% of the Limited Partnership Interests. The Tax Matters Partner shall notify all Partners as to the beginning of any administrative proceedings at the Partnership level with respect to Partnership items and shall further notify the Partners as to any final Partnership administrative adjustment resulting from any such proceeding. The Tax Matters Partner shall be entitled to reimbursement for all costs and expenses incurred in connection with its services to the Partnership as Tax Matters Partner, and shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Partners with respect to such services, except with respect to willful misconduct or gross negligence.

11.11 Powers of Limited Partners. The Limited Partners shall take no part in or interfere in any manner with the conduct or control of the Partnership business and shall have no right or authority to act for or to bind the Partnership. The Partnership may engage Limited Partners or persons associated with them for specific purposes and may otherwise deal with such Limited Partners on terms and for compensation to be agreed upon by any such Limited Partner and the Partnership. The exercise of any of the rights and powers of the Limited Partners pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall not be deemed taking part in the day-to-day affairs of the Partnership or the exercise of control over Partnership affairs.

11.12 Liability of Limited Partners. A Limited Partner shall not be bound by, or personally liable for, any of the debts, contracts, liabilities, or other obligations of the Partnership or the General Partner, or for any losses of the Partnership in excess of their required capital contribution, and the liability of each Limited Partner shall be limited solely to the amount of his contribution to the capital of the Partnership required by the provisions of Section 7. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing to the contrary, and only to the extent otherwise required by applicable law, a Partner receiving a distribution in part or full return of his aggregate Capital Contribution shall be liable to the Partnership for any sum, not in excess of such amount returned plus interest, necessary to discharge the liabilities of the Partnership to creditors who extended credit or whose claims arose before such distribution, excluding liabilities of the Partnership represented by debt, the repayment of which is secured solely by the Partnership Property.

12. Loans to the Partnership. From time to time any Partner, including the General Partner, upon the request of the General Partner, may make optional loans to the Partnership or advance money on its behalf. Such loans and advances may be in the form of direct loans, payment of sums payable by the Partnership, payments of guarantees of Partnership indebtedness or otherwise. Loans and advances under this Section shall be accounted for as loans and not as capital contributions to the Partnership. All sums loaned or advanced, together with interest on such sums, shall be deemed an obligation of indebtedness from the Partnership to the lending Partner, and such loan or advance shall bear interest at a reasonable rate agreed to by the Partnership and the lending Partner.

13. Books, Records, Reports, Bank Accounts and Tax Elections.

13.1 Books of Account. At all times during the existence of the Partnership, the General Partner shall keep, or cause to be kept, full and true books of account of the Partnership in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The books shall be maintained on such method of accounting, accrual or cash, as the General Partner determines in its discretion to be in the best interests of the Partnership. The books of the Partnership, together with a certified copy of the Certificate, shall be maintained at the principal place of business of the Partnership. During reasonable business hours the Limited Partners and their authorized representatives may inspect and copy the Partnership's books of account.

13.2 Financial Statements. At least annually, unaudited financial statements and an annual report of the business of the Partnership shall be prepared at the direction of the General Partner. If a Partner wishes to obtain an audited financial statement, he may cause it to be prepared, but he shall pay all fees and expenses for its preparation.

13.3 Tax Returns. In addition to the financial statement and annual report, the General Partner shall cause income tax returns for the Partnership to be prepared and filed with the appropriate authorities and the General Partner shall also cause such reports as may be required by regulatory agencies to be prepared, filed and distributed as required.

13.4 Dissemination. The General Partner shall distribute annual reports of the business of the Partnership, financial statements and income tax information to the Limited Partners as soon as is practicable after the close of each fiscal year of the Partnership.

13.5 Fiscal Year. The Partnership tax year shall be the calendar year, unless a General Partner elects another fiscal year and obtains the approval of the Internal Revenue Service to such year.

13.6 Bank Accounts. All funds of the Partnership shall be deposited in the Partnership name in such bank account or accounts as may be designated by the General Partner. Withdrawals from any such bank account or accounts shall be made upon such signature or signatures as the General Partner may designate.

14. Transfer of Limited Partnership Interest.

14.1 Method of Transfer. No Transfer of all or part of a Limited Partner's Interest may be effected except as permitted in this Section 14, and then only if a counterpart of the instrument of Transfer, executed and acknowledged by the parties to the Transfer is delivered to the Partnership. A permitted Transfer shall be effective as of the date specified in the instruments of Transfer. This Partnership is formed by those who know and trust one another, who have surrendered certain management rights (in exchange for limited liability in the case of a Limited Partner), or who have assumed management responsibility and risk (in the case of a General Partner) based upon their relationship and trust. Capital is material to the business and investment objectives of the Partnership and its federal tax status. An unauthorized Transfer of a Limited Partner's Interest could create a substantial hardship to the Partnership, jeopardize its capital base, and adversely affect its tax structure. The restrictions on Transfers set forth in this Section are not intended as a penalty, but as a method to protect and preserve existing relationships based upon trust and the Partnership's capital and its financial ability to continue.

14.2 Transfers by Limited Partners. Except as expressly provided herein, no Limited Partner may Transfer any part or all of his Interest. Notwithstanding the foregoing and without being subject to the right of first refusal provisions of Section 14.3, a Partner may Transfer all or any part of his Interest to (i) another Partner, (ii) a lineal descendant of both SIMON L. BERNSTEIN and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN, (iii) a trust of which a majority in interest of the beneficiaries are Partners and/or lineal descendants of both SIMON L. BERNSTEIN and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN; or (iv) to another partnership or corporation provided that a majority of the voting stock of the corporation or the general partnership interest in the case of a limited partnership or the interest in capital in a general partnership are owned and controlled by SIMON L. BERNSTEIN and/or lineal descendants of SIMON L. BERNSTEIN and SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN.

14.3 Right of First Refusal. Notwithstanding the above restrictions on Transfer of Interest, a Limited Partner may Transfer all or any part of his Interest, other than by gift or devise, pursuant to a Bona Fide offer as defined in Section 14.3.2, and in such instance the Partnership shall have a right of first refusal to purchase any Interest which any Limited Partner may wish to Transfer, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in Section 14.3.1 through 14.3.3:

14.3.1 In the event that any Limited Partner receives a Bona Fide Offer, as herein defined, from a third party (the "Proposed Assignee") to purchase all or any portion of his Interest and he is willing to accept such Bona Fide offer, that Limited Partner (the "Offeror-Limited Partner") shall promptly send written notice (the "Notice") to the General Partner, offering to sell his Interest to the Partnership at the same price and upon the same terms and conditions that are contained in the Bona Fide Offer. The Notice shall contain a true and complete copy of the Bona Fide Offer, the price, the portion of the Interest to be sold, and all terms and conditions and the name and addresses, both home and office, and businesses or other occupations of the Proposed Assignee.

14.3.2 As used in this Agreement, "Bona Fide Offer" means an offer in writing, signed by the Proposed Assignee, who must be a Person financially capable of carrying out the terms of the Bona Fide Offer, in a form legally enforceable against the Proposed Assignee.

14.3.3 Whenever an Offeror-Limited Partner gives the Partnership notice of a Bona Fide Offer to purchase his Interest, the following procedure shall be complied with:

14.3.3.1 For a period of ten days from its receipt of the Notice, the Partnership shall have the option to notify the Offeror-Limited Partner that it intends to purchase the Interest.

14.3.3.2 If the Partnership does not give the Offeror-Limited Partner notice within the prescribed time period that it will purchase the Interest covered by the Bona Fide Offer, the Offeror-Limited Partner shall have the right to accept the Bona Fide Offer and sell the Interest subject to the provisions and restrictions of this Agreement, but only in strict accordance with all of the terms of the Bona Fide Offer and only if the sale is fully consummated within 45 days after the mailing of the Notice. If the Interest is not sold to the Proposed Assignee pursuant to the Bona Fide Offer within that 45 day period, then, before disposing of the Interest the Offeror-Limited Partner shall again be obligated to reoffer the Interest to the Partnership pursuant to the terms of this Section.

14.3.3.3 If the Partnership exercises its option to purchase the Interest a closing shall be held within 15 days after the Partnership gives notice of its election to exercise the option to purchase. The closing shall be on the basis of the terms and other provisions of the Bona Fide Offer.

14.4 Rights of Transferees. No transferee of the Interest of any Limited Partner, including transferees described in Sections 14.2 or 14.3, shall have the right to become a Substitute Limited Partner, unless:

14.4.1 His transferor has stated such intention in the instrument of assignment.

14.4.2 The transferee has executed an instrument reasonably satisfactory to the General Partner accepting and adopting the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

14.4.3 The transferor or transferee pays to the Partnership any reasonable expenses in connection with the admission of the transferee as a Limited Partner.

14.4.4 The transferor and transferee furnish the Partnership with the transferee's tax identification number, sufficient information to determine the transferee's initial tax basis in the Interest transferred, and any other information reasonably necessary to permit the Partnership to file all required federal and state tax returns and other legally required information statements or returns. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Partnership shall not be required to make any distribution otherwise provided for in this Agreement with respect to any transferred Partnership Interest (without regard to whether the transferee is admitted as a Substitute Limited Partner) until it has received such information.

14.4.5 In the case of an assignee or transferee who is not otherwise a Partner, the General Partner, in its sole, absolute and unfettered discretion, consents to such person becoming a Substitute Limited Partner, including assignees of Partnership Interests whose interest arises by reason of the death of a Partner.

The assignor of a Limited Partnership Interest shall not act for or on behalf of the assignee of the Limited Partnership Interest who does not become a Substitute Limited Partner, and until an assignee of a Limited Partnership Interest is admitted as a Substitute Limited Partner, both the Partnership and the Partners shall be entitled, but not required, to treat the transferor of the Partnership Interest as the absolute owner thereof in all respects. An assignee of a Limited Partnership Interest who does not become a Substitute Limited Partner, unless otherwise a Partner, does not become a Partner and is not entitled to exercise the rights of a Partner.

14.5 General Partner's Acquisition of Limited Partner Interest. If a General Partner should acquire any Limited Partner Interest, that General Partner with respect to that Interest shall become a Limited Partner and enjoy all of the rights and be subject to all of the obligations and duties of a Limited Partner to the extent of such Interest.

14.6 Income/Loss Allocations Upon Transfer. Unless otherwise agreed between the transferor and the transferee, upon the Transfer of an Interest the Profits and Losses attributable to the Interest transferred shall be allocated between the transferor and the transferee as of the date set forth in the instrument of Transfer, and such allocation shall be based upon the number of days during the applicable fiscal year of the Partnership that the Interest transferred was held by each of them, without regard to the results of Partnership activities during the period in which each was the holder. All distributions with respect to such Interest shall be made only to the holder of record of the Interest on the date of distribution.

15. Death, Incompetency, Bankruptcy or Dissolution of a Limited Partner.

15.1 Individual Limited Partner. Upon the death, adjudication of bankruptcy, insolvency or legal incompetency of an individual Limited Partner, his personal representative shall have all the rights of a Limited Partner for the purposes of settling or managing his estate and such power as the decedent, bankrupt or incompetent possessed to constitute a successor as an assignee of his Interest in the Partnership and to join with such assignee in making application to the General Partner to have such assignee become a Substitute Limited Partner.

15.2 Other Limited Partners. Upon the adjudication of bankruptcy, insolvency, dissolution or other cessation to exist as a legal entity of a Limited Partner not an individual, the authorized representative of such entity shall have all of the rights of a Limited Partner for the purpose of effecting the orderly winding up and dissolution of the business of such entity and such power as such entity possessed to constitute a successor as an assignee of its Interest in the Partnership and to join with such assignee in making application to the General Partner to have such assignee become a Substitute Limited Partner.

16. Resignation, Removal and Election of a General Partner; Assignment; Transfer.

16.1 Substitution for a General Partner. The General Partner may not admit any Person as a substitute General Partner.

16.2 Resignation of a General Partner. A General Partner may resign as such by delivering thirty (30) days advance written notice of its resignation to all Partners.

16.3 Removal of a General Partner. A General Partner shall be removed and cease to be a General Partner of the Partnership:

16.3.1 If (a) the General Partner being removed is in default of a material provision of this Agreement and (b) has not cured such default within 30 days after written notice of such fact is given to the General Partner sought to be removed and to all other Partners by Limited Partners owning at least 75% of the Interests owned by the Limited Partners. Written notice pursuant to this section shall set forth the day upon which the removal is to become effective if the default is not cured. However, the removal of a General Partner shall not take effect unless and until that General Partner is released from all liability by all lenders who have made loans to the Partnership, including loans made to the General Partner, on behalf of the Partnership. Such release shall be evidenced by written instruments executed by the lenders and any releases of liability shall extend to such General Partner in his capacity as such and individually. The removal of a General Partner shall be effective on the later of the date set forth in the notice or the date of delivery of the releases to the General Partner.

16.3.2 The occurrence of an Event of Withdrawal.

16.4 Liability of General Partner After Resignation or Removal. If a General Partner resigns or is removed in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, his liability as a General Partner shall cease upon resignation or removal as provided in the Act, and the Partnership shall promptly take all actions reasonably necessary under the Act to cause such cessation of liability. The Partnership shall indemnify the General Partner with respect to any such liability. However, claims, demands, liabilities, costs and damages held against or incurred by the General Partner in violation of the terms of this Agreement shall be held as an offset against the General Partner's Interest.

16.5 Interest of a General Partner After Resignation or Removal.

16.5.1 The resignation or removal of a General Partner shall not affect its rights as the owner of any Limited Partnership Interest.

16.5.2 Subject to the provisions of Section 16.5.3, upon the resignation or removal of a General Partner, the Interest which he had as a General Partner in Profits and Losses and distributions of Net Cash from Operations and Net Cash From Sales or Refinancings shall be retained by him and be converted into a "Special Limited Partner's" Interest and the Partnership shall take all actions necessary to admit such General Partner as a Special Limited Partner with respect to such converted Interest. Such conversion shall not, however, result in the General Partner becoming a Substituted Limited Partner with respect to such Interest. As a Special Limited Partner, the former General Partner shall be sent copies of all notices, reports and other information furnished to Limited Partners by the General Partner or the Partnership.

16.5.3 Upon the resignation or removal of:

16.5.3.1 A General Partner leaving the Partnership with one or more General Partners whose total Interest in the Profits and Losses of the Partnership would be less than 1%, the Interest of the resigned or removed General Partner in such portion of the Partnership's Profits and Losses which is necessary to bring the total Interest of the remaining General Partners in the Profits and Losses of the Partnership up to 1% shall be automatically transferred to the remaining General Partner without any payment.

16.5.3.2 One or more General Partners leaving the Partnership without a General Partner and the election of a successor General Partner pursuant to Section 16.6, the rights and interest in 1% of the Partnership's Profits and Losses of the last General Partner who has resigned or been removed, shall be sold to and purchased by his successor as of the date of such resignation or removal at such price as shall be agreed upon between them; provided, however, that if no such agreement is reached within 30 days of the election of a successor then such price shall be determined by arbitration in the State of Florida under the rules of the American Arbitration Association. Within 60 days after the determination of such price it shall be paid in cash together with interest at the then prevailing short-term applicable federal rate under Internal Revenue Code Section 1274. The cost of arbitration shall be paid equally by the successor and the departing General Partner. If any sums payable under this Section to the resigned or removed General Partner are not paid to him when due, then such sums shall be paid to him by the Partnership.

16.6 Election of a Substitute General Partner. If there is only one General Partner and he resigns, or is removed in accordance with this Agreement, and if, pursuant to Section 18.1.2, the Limited Partners unanimously elect to continue the business of the Partnership, then a substitute General Partner shall be elected by an Eighty (80%) percent vote of the Limited Partners, and he shall take all actions necessary to continue the business of the Partnership. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if in the written opinion of counsel for the Partnership it is more likely than not that all Limited Partners must agree on a substitute General Partner to avoid a dissolution under the Act, then in lieu of the foregoing Eighty (80%) percent vote, all Limited Partners shall agree to the election of each substitute General Partner. Such election shall be accomplished in the following manner: Any one or more of the Limited Partners shall, promptly after the election to continue, nominate a person or entity for election as the substitute General Partner. Such nominee shall not become the General Partner unless elected by a vote of Eighty (80%) percent (or, One Hundred (100%) percent, as provided above) of the Interests owned by the Limited Partners. In the event that such nominee is not elected, then any one or more of the Limited Partners shall as soon as practicable nominate another substitute General Partner and such procedure shall continue until a substitute General Partner is elected or the Partnership is dissolved pursuant to Section 18.1.

16.7 Transfer of Interest of a General Partner. No General Partner may transfer, assign, encumber or otherwise dispose of his Interest as a General Partner in the Partnership except as provided for in this Section 16. All General Partners' Interests in the Partnership pursuant to Section 9 transferred pursuant to Section 16, including for this purpose, but not limited to, conversions to a Special Limited Partner's Interest, are included in the allocations to and distributive shares of the Partners in Section 9 as a Partner's Interest and shall be allocated and distributed to the transferees of such Interest.

17. Involuntary Transfers of Partnership Interests. In the event of any Involuntary Transfer, which for this purpose shall include a charging order, by any Partner or assignee of any Partnership Interest, the following procedures shall apply:

17.1 The Partner or assignee deprived or divested of any Partnership Interest by the Involuntary Transfer (the "Transferor") promptly shall give written notice of such Involuntary Transfer in reasonable detail to the Partnership and all Partners other than the Transferor, and the Person(s) who take or propose to take any interest in such Partnership Interest (for purposes of this Section 17, such Person(s) are referred to hereinafter as the "Transferee" and such Partnership Interest referred to hereinafter as the "Subject Partnership Interest") as a result of such Involuntary Transfer shall hold such interest subject to the rights of the Partnership as set forth in this Section 17.

17.2 Upon receipt of the notice referred to in the preceding subparagraph or upon discovery by the General Partner of such Involuntary Transfer by the General Partner, the Partnership shall have the irrevocable option, exercisable at the sole discretion of the General Partner, but not the obligation, for a period of sixty (60) days following receipt of such notice or such discovery, to purchase all or any part of the Subject Partnership Interest, pursuant to the terms set forth in this Section 17. All exercises of such option shall be in writing, shall specify the portion of the Subject Partnership Interest to be purchased, and shall be effective upon receipt thereof by the Transferee.

17.3 The closing for any such sale of the Subject Partnership Interest to the Partnership shall be held at the offices of the Partnership no later than forty-five (45) days after the receipt by the Transferee of the notice exercising the Partnership's irrevocable option to purchase such Subject Partnership Interest. The purchase price of any Subject Partnership Interest purchased pursuant to this Section 17 shall be the fair market value of the Subject Partnership Interest, taking into account all potential discounts for lack of control, lack of marketability and other relevant valuation factors that would be applicable to a sale of the Subject Partnership Interest to a party unrelated and unaffiliated with any existing Partner or assignee, as determined by a reasonably qualified appraiser selected by the Partnership.

17.4 The valuation date for the determination of the purchase price shall be the first day of the month following the month in which notice is given pursuant to Section 17.2 above.

17.5 The purchase price shall be paid by the Partnership by making and delivering to the Transferor or the Transferee, as the case may be, of an unsecured ten (10) year nonrecourse promissory note. Interest on such note shall be payable at the long-term applicable federal rate under Internal Revenue Code Section 1274. The first installment will be due and payable on the first day of the calendar year following the closing, and subsequent annual installments, with accrued interest, will be due and payable on the first day of each succeeding calendar year until the entire amount of the obligation is paid. The Partnership shall have the right to prepay all or any part of the note at any time without penalty.

17.6 If the Partnership does not exercise its option to purchase all or part of the Subject Partnership Interest under this Section 17, the remaining Partners within the same sixty day exercise period shall have the right but not the obligation to purchase as set forth in this Section 17 in proportion to their Partnership Interests in the manner so set forth. However, to the extent that one or more of the Partners declines to exercise such Partner's right, the remaining Partners shall be offered the right but not the obligation, on a pro-rata basis, to purchase the remaining portion of the Subject Partnership Interest. Such Partners may provide written notice of exercise prior to the expiration of the period notwithstanding that the Partnership may still exercise its option, and such notice may provide that the portion sought to be purchased is the maximum portion available to be purchased by such Partner, with such notice to be effective only if and to the extent that the Partnership does not preempt such Partner by exercising its option.

17.7 In the event the Partnership and the Partners do not purchase all of the Subject Partnership Interest involved in an Involuntary Transfer, the Transferee shall become an assignee of the Subject Partnership Interest, except as admitted as a Substitute Limited Partner in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, provided, however, if a third party obtains a charging order, its rights shall be limited accordingly.

17.8 For purposes of this Section 17, the term "Partner or Assignee" shall include the beneficiaries of a trust that is a Partner or assignee of a Partnership Interest, and the term "Partnership Interest" shall include the beneficial interests of the beneficiaries of a trust that is a Partner or assignee of a Partnership Interest.

17.9 Neither the Transferee of an Involuntary Transfer nor the Transferor will have the right to vote on Partnership matters during the period when the option to purchase granted under this Section 17 may be exercised nor during the period subsequent to exercise and prior to the closing thereunder, and in regard to such voting and any particular voting threshold percentages described in this Agreement such Partnership Interest shall be deemed not to exist.

18. Dissolution and Winding up of Partnership.

18.1 Dissolution of Partnership. The Partnership shall be dissolved upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

18.1.1 December 31, 2058.

18.1.2 The happening of an Event of Withdrawal of a General Partner authorized hereunder to carry on the business of the Partnership, unless

18.1.2.1 at the time there is at least one other General Partner authorized hereunder to carry on the business of the Partnership and such General Partner does carry on the business of the Partnership; or 18.1.2.2 within ninety (90) days of the Event of Withdrawal, (a) all of the then Partners agree in writing to continue the business of the Partnership and to elect one or more additional General Partners under the procedures of Section 16.6, and (b) one or more additional General Partners are elected under the procedures of Section 16.6.

18.1.3 The Partnership becoming insolvent or bankrupt.

18.1.4 The unanimous vote to dissolve of all Partners.

18.2 Winding Up of Partnership. Upon the dissolution of the Partnership pursuant to Section 18.1, the General Partner, or if there is no General Partner, a substitute General Partner elected by vote of 51% of the Interests owned by the Limited Partners, shall take full account of the Partnership's assets and liabilities and the assets shall be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining their fair value, and the proceeds of such liquidation therefor shall be applied and distributed as provided in Section 10.3.

18.3 Survival of Obligations. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, no dissolution of the Partnership shall relieve, release or discharge any Partner or any of his successors, assigns, heirs or legal representatives, from any previous breach or default of, or any obligation previously incurred or accrued under, any provision of this Agreement, and any and all such liabilities, claims, demands or causes of action arising from any such breaches, defaults and obligations shall survive such dissolution and termination.

18.4 Termination. Upon compliance with Section 18.2, the General Partner shall file or cause to be filed a certificate of cancellation of the Certificate and the Partnership shall then be terminated.

19. Amendment of the Certificate and Agreement.

19.1 When Required. This Agreement and the Certificate shall be amended by the General Partner without any additional consent of the Limited Partners when required by law whenever:

19.1.1 There is a change in the name of the Partnership or the amount or character of the contribution of any Partner including, but not limited to, withdrawal or reduction, pursuant to this Agreement.

19.1.2 A person ceases to be, is substituted as, or becomes a General or Limited Partner.

19.1.3 There is a false or erroneous statement in the Certificate, provided the amendment does not adversely affect the interest of the Limited Partners and the General Partner has obtained an opinion of its counsel to that effect.

19.1.4 In the opinion of counsel for the Partnership, it is necessary or appropriate to satisfy a requirement of the Code with respect to partnerships, provided such amendments do not adversely affect the interests of the Limited Partners, and the General Partner has obtained an opinion of its counsel to that effect, and any amendment in this regard shall have retroactive effect to the date of this Agreement.

19.2 Limitation. Except as provided in Section 19.1, amendments shall only be made with the approval of Limited Partners as provided in Section 19.3. No amendment shall be made under Section 19 which would adversely affect the federal income tax treatment to be afforded Partners or adversely affect the liabilities of the Limited Partners or change the method of the allocation of Profits and Losses or preferences or distributive shares without full disclosure to the Partners and unless all of the Partners consent to such amendment.

19.3 Consent of Limited Partners. The General Partner shall obtain the written consent or approval or vote of Limited Partners owning in the aggregate at least Eighty (80%) percent of the Limited Partnership Interests with respect to any amendment other than an amendment allowed or permitted by Sections 19.1 and 19.2.

20. Conflict of Interest Waiver. The Partners and the Partnership acknowledge that the law firm of Tescher & Spallina, P.A. has represented the Partnership in connection with the drafting of this Agreement and the formation and structuring of the Partnership, and that said law firm also represents one or more of the Partners and owners of interests in entity Partners both in context of this Partnership and other matters (namely, SIMON L. BERNSTEIN, SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN, SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN FAMILY FOUNDATION, INC., and BERNSTEIN HOLDINGS, LLC). The Partnership and the Partners acknowledge that they have been advised that there are material income tax consequences and economic ramifications from being a Partner in the Partnership, that they fully understand the tax consequences and economic ramifications of a Partner's investment in the Partnership, and that they have been encouraged to consult with separate and independent counsel to advise them on Partnership and Partner issues including this Agreement and the formation of the Partnership. The Partnership and the Partners hereby waive any conflicts of interest with respect to the foregoing law firm's representation of the Partnership and the afore described Partners and owners of interests in entity Partners, in connection with the services set forth in this Section.

21.1 Notices. Any notices, payments, demand, offer or communication required or permitted to be given by any provision of this Agreement shall be deemed to have been delivered and given for all purposes (a) if the same is delivered personally, or (b) whether or not the same is actually received, if sent by registered or certified mail, postage and charges prepaid, addressed as follows:

21.1.1 If to a General Partner, at BERNSTEIN HOLDINGS, LLC, 950 Peninsula Corporate Circle, Suite 310, Boca Raton, Florida 33487, or such other address as the General Partner may from time to time specify by written notice to the other Partners.

21.1.2 If to a Limited Partner, at BERNSTEIN FAMILY INVESTMENTS, LLLP, 950 Peninsula Corporate Circle, Suite 310, Boca Raton, Florida 33487, or to such other address as such Partner may from time to time specify by written notice to the General Partner, which other address shall be noted by the General Partner on the records of the Partnership.

21.1.3 If to any other Person, at the address of such person as shown by the Partnership's records.

21.2 Captions. Captions contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are in no way intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any of its provisions.

21.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is severable. If any term or provision is held to be illegal or invalid for any reason, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remainder of this Agreement or any other provision.

21.4 Right to Rely Upon the Authority of the General Partner. No person dealing with a General Partner shall be required to determine his authority to make any commitment or undertaking on behalf of the Partnership, nor to determine any fact or circumstance bearing upon the existence of his authority. In addition, no purchaser of any asset owned by the Partnership shall be required to determine the sole and exclusive authority of the General Partner to sign and deliver on behalf of the Partnership any such instrument of transfer, or to see to the application or distribution of revenues or proceeds paid or credited to the Partnership, unless such purchasers shall have received written notice from the Partnership affecting the same.

21.5 Litigation. The General Partner shall prosecute, defend and settle such actions at law or in equity as they may deem in their sole and absolute discretion to be necessary to enforce or protect the interest of the Partnership. The Partnership and the General Partner shall respond to any final decree, judgment or decision of a court of competent jurisdiction or board or authority having jurisdiction in the matter.

21.6 Applicable Law. The laws of the State of Florida shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the parties.

21.7 Counterpart Execution. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts with the same effect as if all parties had signed the same document. All counterparts shall be construed together and shall constitute but one Agreement.

21.9 Right to Rely Upon Authority of Person Signing Agreement. In the event that a Limited Partner is an estate, a trust with or without disclosed beneficiaries, partnership, limited partnership, joint venture, corporation, or any entity other than a natural person, the Partnership and the General Partner shall (a) not be required to determine the authority of the Person signing this Agreement or any amendment to make any commitment or undertaking on behalf of such entity, nor to determine any fact or circumstance bearing upon the existence of his authority; (b) not be required to see to the application or distribution of revenues or proceeds paid or credited to the Person signing the Agreement or any amendment on behalf of such entity; (c) be entitled to rely upon the authority of the Person signing this Agreement or any amendment with respect to voting of the Partnership Interests of such entity and with respect to the giving of consent on behalf of such entity or any other Person in connection with any matter for which consent is permissible or required under this Agreement; and (d) be entitled to rely upon the authority of any general partner, joint venturer, co-or successor trustee or president, vice president, or other officer, as the case may be of any such entity the same as though such Person were the Person originally executing this Agreement or any amendment on behalf of such entity.

21.10 Rights of Nonrecourse Creditors. A creditor who makes a nonrecourse loan to the Partnership shall not have or acquire, at any time as a result of making any loan or advance, any direct or indirect interest in the profits, capital, or property of the Partnership other than, if applicable, as a secured creditor.

21.11 Number and Gender. Whenever the singular number is used in this Agreement and when required by the context, the same shall include the plural, and the masculine gender shall include the feminine and neuter genders.

21.12 Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement of the parties with respect to matters set forth in this Agreement and supersedes any prior understanding or agreement, oral or written, with respect thereto.

01 Penalty for Filing Return Late $2,866.72

We charged a penalty because you filed your return late. We use the number of months the return is late to determine the penalty. If you filed more than 60 days late, the minimum penalty may apply. The minimum penalty is the lesser of $100 or 100% of the tax due, for returns due before 12/31/2008. For returns due after 12/31/2008, the minimum penalty is the lesser of $135 or 100% of the tax due. If you disagree with this penalty, see "Removal of Penalties" in this notice. To avoid this penalty in the future, you should file your returns by the return due date.

(Internal Revenue Code section 6651)

Date	No. Months	Rate/Month	Principal	Penalty
09/15/2012	05	4.50%	12,741.00	2,866.72
Total Penalty:				2,866.72

07 Paying Late $445.93

We charged a penalty because you paid your taxes late. We count part of a month as a full month. If you disagree with this penalty, see "Removal of Penalties" in this notice. To avoid this penalty in the future, you should pay your taxes by the due date. Even if you have an extension to file your tax return, you do not have additional time to pay your tax.

Chris – as discussed, please raise enough cash in the Bernstein LLLP account (in the most tax efficient manner possible) to pay off the loan. After the loan is paid, please make a final distribution from the LLLP of its assets to the respective partners accounts pro-rata as follows - Si Trust (49.5%), Shirley Trust (49.5%) and Bernstein Holdings (1%). Bernstein Holdings should then be liquidated among its partners (Si and Shirley Trusts 50/50). We would like to have both the LLC and LLLP accounts closed before year end so that we can prepare final returns for 2012. Please contact me if you have any questions.

Heritage responded back that they need a copy of the trust instrument.
We do not have a copy and the only executed trust document that we have in which the policy is listed as an asset is the 2000 trust prepared by Al Gortz.

Hi Robert!

Hope all is well with you and you had a nice holiday :)

I met with Ted and he told me about your discussion regarding Eliot and the kids and my position etc.... I would like to hand over all responsibility of bills etc. to Eliot and Candice and put them in contact with Janet Craig for future trust disbursement for their bills. Am I legally allowed to do so? I can just give them the checkbook to the Legacy account and let them do everything?

It has just reached a point where I know if Shirley and Si were alive a lot would be different and I don't see why I am needed as the middleman for them to Janet. Below I prepared an email to send to Janet if you think this is OK... If you could take a look and please let me know your thoughts then I will proceed.

Thanks,
Rachel

Hi Janet!

I hope you had a great weekend!

As of now, I am responsible for the bills at 2753 NW 34th Street where Eliot (the late Simon Bernstein's son), Candice, Joshua, Jacob and Daniel live. This was a part of my job while working for Shirley and Simon. Now that they are both passed and am unemployed by them I have still kept responsibility out of my caring for them and the family. However, recently Eliot has taken great interest in wanting the responsibility and keeping track of his expenses. Attached is a spreadsheet he made of all the boys expenses which he is seeking reimbursement for. I feel that me being a middleman is kind of pointless as I am now working full time at another company. Of course if you or he needs anything I am always available to email or call to help answer any questions but I feel that I should put you in contact with Eliot and Candice for the future. Call me if you have any questions 561-275-8102.

Thanks so much!

For your convenience we have combined statement(s) for activity you conduct through J.P. Morgan in one package. Below are important disclosures relating to these different accounts. These statements may relate to various account types. Some of the disclosures are applicable to all of your accounts. For ease of reference the disclosures applicable to a particular type of account have been grouped together by descriptive headers.

IMPORTANT GENERAL INFORMATION APPLICABLE TO ALL OF YOUR ACCOUNT(S)

Important Information about Pricing, Valuations, Estimated Annual Income, and Estimated Yield

Market value information (including without limitation, prices, exchange rates, accrued income and bond ratings) furnished herein, some of which has been provided by pricing sources that J.P. Morgan believes to be reliable, is not guaranteed for accuracy but provided for informational purposes and is furnished for the exclusive use of the client.

The current price is the value of the financial asset share, unit or contract as priced at the close of the market on the last day of the statement period or the last available price. All values provided for structured yield deposits (for example, JPMorgan London Time Deposits) reflect the original deposit amount only. The value for Real Estate, Mineral Interests and Miscellaneous Assets may not reflect the most current value of the asset.

Important information regarding Auction Rate Securities (ARS). ARS are debt or preferred securities with an interest or dividend rate reset periodically in an auction. Although there may be daily, weekly and monthly resets, there is no guarantee that there will be liquidity. If there are not enough bids at an auction to redeem the securities available for sale, the result may be a failed auction. In the event of a failed auction, there is no assurance that a secondary market will develop or that the security will trade at par or any other price reflected on statements and online. Accordingly, investors should not rely on pricing information appearing in their statements or online with respect to ARS. When J.P. Morgan is unable to obtain a price from an internal or outside source for a particular ARS, the price column on your statement will indicate "unpriced".

Valuations of over-the-counter derivative transactions, including certain derivatives-related deposit products, have been prepared on a mid-market basis. These valuations are sourced from the various issuers of the securities or they are sourced from a third party valuation provider. J.P. Morgan expressly disclaims any responsibility for (1) the accuracy of the models or estimates used in deriving the valuations, (2) any errors or omissions in computing or disseminating the valuations, and (3) any uses to which the valuations are put. Valuations are provided for information purposes only and are intended solely for your own use. Please refer to the trade confirmation for details of each transaction.

Certain assets, including but not limited to, pooled and private investments, non-publicly traded and infrequently traded securities, derivatives, partnership interests and tangible assets are generally illiquid, the value of such asset may have been provided to us by third parties who may or may not be independent of the issuer or manager. Such information is reflected as of the last date provided to us, and is not independently verified.

In cases where we are unable to obtain a current market value from an internal or outside source for a particular security, the price column on your statement will indicate "unpriced". Although such securities may have value, please note that the value of a security indicated as "unpriced" will not be included in your overall current market value as reflected on the statement.

J.P. Morgan makes no representation, warranty or guarantee, express or implied, that any quoted value represents the actual terms at which securities could be bought or sold or new transactions could be entered into, or the actual terms on which existing transactions or securities could be liquidated. Such values may only be indicative.

When we are unable to obtain a current value from an internal or outside source for a particular security, the price column on your statement will indicate "unpriced".

If a partial call is made with respect to an issue of securities included in your Accounts we will allocate the call by a method we deem fair and equitable.

To the extent applicable, please note the following regarding estimated annual income (EAI) and estimated yield (EY): EAI and EY for certain types of securities could include a return of principal or capital gains in which case the EAI and EY would be overstated. EAI and EY are estimates and the actual income and yield might be lower or higher than the estimated amounts. EY reflects only the income generated by an investment. It does not reflect changes in its price, which may fluctuate.

SIMON L. BERNSTEIN

AMENDED AND RESTATED TRUST AGREEMENT

This Amended and Restated Trust Agreement is dated this 26 day of July, 2012, and is between SIMON L. BERNSTEIN, of Palm Beach County, Florida referred to in the first person, as settlor, and SIMON L. BERNSTEIN, of Palm Beach County, Florida and SIMON L. BERNSTEIN's successors, as trustee (referred to as the "Trustee," which term more particularly refers to all individuals and entities serving as trustee of a trust created hereunder during the time of such service, whether alone or as co-trustees, and whether originally serving or as a successor trustee).

WHEREAS, on May 20, 2008, I created and funded the SIMON L. BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT (the "Trust Agreement," which reference includes any subsequent amendments of said trust agreement);

WHEREAS, Paragraph A. of Article I. of said Trust Agreement provides, inter alia, that during my lifetime I shall have the right at any time and from time to time by an instrument, in writing, delivered to the Trustee to amend or revoke said Trust Agreement, in whole or in part.

NOW, THEREFORE, I hereby amend and restate the Trust Agreement in its entirety and the Trustee accepts and agrees to perform its duties and obligations in accordance with the following amended provisions. Notwithstanding any deficiencies in execution or other issues in regard to whether any prior version of this Trust Agreement was a valid and binding agreement or otherwise created an effective trust, this amended and restated agreement shall constitute a valid, binding and effective trust agreement and shall amend and succeed all prior versions described above or otherwise predating this amended and restated Trust Agreement.

ARTICLE I. DURING MY LIFE AND UPON MY DEATH

A. Rights Reserved. I reserve the right (a) to add property to this trust during my life or on my death, by my Will or otherwise; (b) to withdraw property held hereunder; and (c) by separate written instrument delivered to the Trustee, to revoke this Agreement in whole or in part and otherwise modify or amend this Agreement.

B. Payments During My Life. If income producing property is held in the trust during my life, the Trustee shall pay the net income of the trust to me or as I may direct. However, during any periods while I am Disabled, the Trustee shall pay to me or on my behalf such amounts of the net income and principal of the trust as is proper for my Welfare. Any income not so paid shall be added to principal.

LAW OFFICES
TESCHER & SPALLINA, P.A.

C. Upon My Death. Upon my death the Trustee shall collect and add to the trust all amounts due to the trust under any insurance policy on my life or under any death benefit plan and all property added to the trust by my Will or otherwise. After paying or providing for the payment from the augmented trust of all current charges and any amounts payable under the later paragraph captioned "Death Costs," the Trustee shall hold the trust according to the following provisions.

ARTICLE II. AFTER MY DEATH

A. Disposition of Tangible Personal Property. If any non-business tangible personal property other than cash (including, but not limited to, my personal effects, jewelry, collections, household furnishings, and equipment, and automobiles) is held in the trust at the time of my death, such items shall be promptly distributed by the Trustee of the trust to such person or persons, including my estate, as to the item or items or proportion specified, as I may appoint, and to the extent that any such items are not disposed of by such appointment, such items shall be disposed of by the Trustee of the trust in exactly the same manner as such items would have been disposed of under the terms and provisions of my Will (including any Codicil thereto, or what the Trustee in good faith believes to be such Will and Codicil) had such items been included in my probate estate. Any such items which are not effectively disposed of pursuant to the preceding sentence shall pass with the other trust assets.

B. Disposition of Trust Upon My Death. Upon my death, the remaining assets in this trust shall be divided among and held in separate Trusts for my then living grandchildren. Each of my grandchildren for whom a separate trust is held hereunder shall hereinafter be referred to as a "beneficiary" with the separate Trusts to be administered as provided in Subparagraph II.C.

C. Trusts for Beneficiaries. The Trustee shall pay to the beneficiary and the beneficiary's children, such amounts of the net income and principal of such beneficiary's trust as is proper for the Welfare of such individuals. Any income not so paid shall be added to principal each year. After a beneficiary has reached any one or more of the following birthdays, the beneficiary may withdraw the principal of his or her separate trust at any time or times, not to exceed in the aggregate 1/3 in value after the beneficiary's 25th birthday, 1/2 in value (after deducting any amount previously subject to withdrawal but not actually withdrawn) after the beneficiary's 30th birthday, and the balance after the beneficiary's 35th birthday, provided that the withdrawal powers described in this sentence shall not apply to any grandchild of mine as beneficiary of a separate trust. The value of each trust shall be its value as of the first exercise of each withdrawal right, plus the value of any subsequent addition as of the date of addition. The right of withdrawal shall be a privilege which may be exercised only voluntarily and shall not include an involuntary exercise. If a beneficiary dies with assets remaining in his or her separate trust, upon the beneficiary's death the beneficiary may appoint his or her trust to or for the benefit of one or more of any of my lineal descendants (excluding from said class, however, such beneficiary and such beneficiary's creditors, estate, and creditors of such beneficiary's estate). Any part of his or her trust such beneficiary does not effectively appoint shall upon his or her death be divided among and held in separate Trusts for the following persons:

1. for his or her lineal descendants then living, per stirpes; or
2. if he or she leaves no lineal descendant then living, per stirpes for the lineal descendants then living of his or her nearest ancestor (among me and my lineal descendants) with a lineal descendant then living.

A trust for a lineal descendant of mine shall be held under this paragraph, or if a trust is then so held, shall be added to such trust.

D. Termination of Small Trust. If at any time after my death in the opinion of the Trustee a separate trust holds assets of a value of less than $50,000.00 and is too small to justify the expense of its retention, and termination of such trust is in the best interests of its current income beneficiary, the Trustee in its discretion may terminate such trust and pay it to said beneficiary.

E. Contingent Gift. If at any time property of these Trusts is not disposed of under the other provisions of this Agreement, it shall be paid, as a gift made hereunder, to such persons and in such shares as such property would be distributed if I had then owned such property and had then died solvent, unmarried and intestate domiciled in the State of Florida, according to the laws of inheritance of the State of Florida then in effect.

F. Protective Provision. No beneficiary of any trust herein created shall have any right or power to anticipate, transfer, pledge, sell, alienate, assign or encumber in any way his or her interest in the income or principal of such trust. Furthermore, no creditor shall have the right to attach, lien, seize or levy upon the interest of a beneficiary in this trust (other than myself) and such interest shall not be liable for or subject to the debts, liabilities or obligations of any such beneficiary or any claims against such beneficiary (whether voluntarily or involuntarily created), and the Trustee shall pay directly to or for the use or benefit of such beneficiary all income and principal to which such beneficiary is entitled, notwithstanding that such beneficiary has executed a pledge, assignment, encumbrance or in any other manner alienated or transferred his or her beneficial interest in the trust to another. This paragraph shall not preclude the effective exercise of any power of appointment granted herein or the exercise of any disclaimer.

G. Maximum Duration. Regardless of anything in this Agreement to the contrary, no trust interest herein created shall continue beyond three hundred sixty (360) years after the date of creation of this Agreement, nor shall any power of appointment be exercised in such manner so as to delay vesting of any trust beyond such period. Immediately prior to the expiration of such period, all such trusts then in existence shall terminate, and the assets thereof shall be distributed outright and in fee to then beneficiaries of the current income and in the proportions in which such persons are the beneficiaries, and if such proportions cannot be ascertained, then equally among such beneficiaries.

ARTICLE III. GENERAL

TESCHER & SPALLINA, P.A.

A. Disability. Subject to the following Subparagraph captioned "Subchapter S Stock," while any beneficiary is Disabled, the Trustee shall pay to him or her only such portion of the income to which he or she is otherwise entitled as is proper for his or her Welfare, and any income not so paid shall be added to the principal from which derived. While any beneficiary is Disabled, income or principal payable to him or her may, in the discretion of the Trustee, be paid directly to him or her, without the intervention of a guardian, directly to his or her creditors or others for his or her sole benefit or to an adult person or an eligible institution (including the Trustee) selected by the Trustee as custodian for a minor beneficiary under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act or similar law. The receipt of such payee is a complete release to the Trustee.

B. Timing of Income Distributions. The Trustee shall make required payments of income at least quarterly.

C. Substance Abuse.

1. In General. If the Trustee reasonably believes that a beneficiary (other than myself) of any trust:

a. routinely or frequently uses or consumes any illegal substance so as to be physically or psychologically dependent upon that substance, or

b. is clinically dependent upon the use or consumption of alcohol or any other legal drug or chemical substance that is not prescribed by a board certified medical doctor or psychiatrist in a current program of treatment supervised by such doctor or psychiatrist, and if the Trustee reasonably believes that as a result the beneficiary is unable to care for himself or herself, or is unable to manage his or her financial affairs, all mandatory distributions (including distributions upon termination of the trust) to the beneficiary, all of the beneficiary's withdrawal rights, and all of the beneficiary's rights to participate in decisions concerning the removal and appointment of Trustees will be suspended. In that event, the following provisions of this Subparagraph III.C will apply.

2. Testing. The Trustee may request the beneficiary to submit to one or more examinations (including laboratory tests of bodily fluids) determined to be appropriate by a board certified medical doctor and to consent to full disclosure to the Trustee of the results of all such examinations. The Trustee shall maintain strict confidentiality of those results and shall not disclose those results to any person other than the beneficiary without the prior written permission of the beneficiary. The Trustee may totally or partially suspend all distributions otherwise required or permitted to be made to that beneficiary until the beneficiary consents to the examination and disclosure to the Trustee.

3. Treatment. If, in the opinion of the examining doctor, the examination indicates current or recent use of a drug or substance as described above, the examining doctor will determine an appropriate method of treatment for the beneficiary (for example, counseling or treatment on an in-patient basis in a rehabilitation facility) that is acceptable to the Trustee. If the beneficiary consents to the treatment, the Trustee shall pay the costs of treatment directly to the provider of those services from the distributions suspended under this Subparagraph III.C.

4. Resumption of Distributions. The Trustee may resume other distributions to the beneficiary (and the beneficiary's other suspended rights will be restored) when, in the case of use or consumption of an illegal substance, examinations indicate no such use for 12 months and, in all cases, when the Trustee in its discretion determines that the beneficiary is able to care for himself or herself and is able to manage his or her financial affairs.

5. Disposition of Suspended Amounts. When other distributions to the beneficiary are resumed, the remaining balance, if any, of distributions that were suspended may be distributed to the beneficiary at that time. If the beneficiary dies before distribution of those suspended amounts, the Trustee shall distribute the balance of the suspended amounts to the persons who would be the alternate takers of that beneficiary's share (or takers through the exercise of a power of appointment) as otherwise provided in this Trust Agreement.

6. Exoneration. No Trustee (or any doctor retained by the Trustee) will be responsible or liable to anyone for a beneficiary's actions or welfare. The Trustee has no duty to inquire whether a beneficiary uses drugs or other substances as described in this Subparagraph III.C. The Trustee (and any doctor retained by the Trustee) is to be indemnified from the trust estate and held harmless from any liability of any nature in exercising its judgment and authority under this Subparagraph III.C, including any failure to request a beneficiary to submit to medical examination, and including a decision to distribute suspended amounts to a beneficiary.

7. Tax Savings Provision. Despite the provisions of this Subparagraph III.C, the Trustee cannot suspend any mandatory distributions or withdrawal rights that are required for that trust to become or remain a Qualified Subchapter S Trust (unless the Trustee elects for the trust to be an Electing Small Business Trust), or to qualify for any federal transfer tax exemption, deduction, or exclusion allowable with respect to that trust.

D. Income on Death of Beneficiary. Subject to the later paragraph captioned "Subchapter S Stock," and except as otherwise explicitly provided herein, upon the death of any beneficiary, all accrued or undistributed income of such deceased beneficiary's trust shall pass with the principal of his or her trust but shall remain income for trust accounting purposes.

E. Definitions. In this Agreement,

1. Children, Lineal Descendants. The terms "child," "children," "grandchild," "grandchildren" and "lineal descendant" mean only persons whose relationship to the ancestor designated is created entirely by or through (a) legitimate births occurring during the marriage of the joint biological parents to each other, (b) children born of female lineal descendants, and (c) children and their lineal descendants arising from surrogate births and/or third party donors when (i) the child is raised from or near the time of birth by a married couple (other than a same sex married couple) through the pendency of such marriage, (ii) one of such couple is the designated ancestor, and (iii) to the best knowledge of the Trustee both members of such couple participated in the decision to have such child. No such child or lineal descendant loses his or her status as such through adoption by another person. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for all purposes of this Trust and the dispositions made hereunder, my children, TED S. BERNSTEIN, PAMELA B. SIMON, ELIOT BERNSTEIN, JILL IANTONI and LISA S. FRIEDSTEIN, shall be deemed to have predeceased me as I have adequately provided for them during my lifetime.

2. Code. "Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and in referring to any particular provision of the Code, includes a reference to any equivalent or successor provision of a successor federal tax law.

3. Disabled. "Disabled" or being under "Disability" means, as to any applicable individual: (1) being under the age of 21 years, (2) having been adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction as mentally or physically incompetent or unable to manage his or her own property or personal affairs (or a substantially similar finding under applicable state or national law), or (3) being unable to properly manage his or her personal or financial affairs, or a trust estate hereunder as to a Trustee hereunder, because of a mental or physical impairment (whether temporary or permanent in nature). A written certificate executed by an individual's attending physician or attending psychiatrist confirming that person's impairment will be sufficient evidence of Disability under item (3) above, and all persons may rely conclusively on such a certificate.

4. Education. The term "education" herein means vocational, primary, secondary, preparatory, theological, college and professional education, including post-graduate courses of study, at educational institutions or elsewhere, and expenses relating directly thereto, including tuition, books and supplies, room and board, and travel from and to home during school vacations. It is intended that the Trustee liberally construe and interpret references to "education," so that the beneficiaries entitled to distributions hereunder for education obtain the best possible education commensurate with their abilities and desires.

5. Needs and Welfare Distributions. Payments to be made for a person's "Needs" means payments necessary for such person's health (including lifetime residential or nursing home care), education, maintenance and support. Payments to be made for a person's "Welfare" means discretionary payments by the Trustee, from time to time, for such person's Needs and also for such person's advancement in life (including assistance in the purchase of a home or establishment or development of any business or professional enterprise which the Trustee believes to be reasonably sound), happiness and general well-being. However, the Trustee, based upon information reasonably available to it, shall make such payments for a person's Needs or Welfare only to the extent such person's income, and funds available from others obligated to supply funds for such purposes (including, without limitation, pursuant to child support orders and agreements), are insufficient in its opinion for such purposes, and shall take into account such person's accustomed manner of living, age, health, marital status and any other factor it considers important. Income or principal to be paid for a person's Needs or Welfare may be paid to such individual or applied by the Trustee directly for the benefit of such person. The Trustee may make a distribution or application authorized for a person's Needs or Welfare even if such distribution or application substantially depletes or exhausts such person's trust, without any duty upon the Trustee to retain it for future use or for other persons who might otherwise benefit from such trust.

6. Per Stirpes. In a division "per stirpes" each generation shall be represented and counted whether or not it has a living member.

7. Related or Subordinate Party. A "Related or Subordinate Party" to a trust describes a beneficiary of the subject trust or a related or subordinate party to a beneficiary of the trust as the terms "related or subordinate party" are defined under Code Section 672(c).

8. Spouse. A person's "spouse" includes only a spouse then married to and living as husband and wife with him or her, or a spouse who was married to and living as husband and wife with him or her at his or her death. The following rules apply to each person who is a beneficiary or a permissible appointee under this Trust Agreement and who is married to a descendant of mine. Such a person will cease to be a beneficiary and will be excluded from the class of permissible appointees upon:

a. the legal termination of the marriage to my descendant (whether before or after my death), or

b. the death of my descendant if a dissolution of marriage proceeding was pending when he or she died.

The trust will be administered as if that person had died upon the happening of the terminating event described above.

9. Gender, Number. Where appropriate, words of any gender include all genders and the singular and plural are interchangeable.

F. Powers of Appointment. Property subject to a power of appointment shall be paid to, or retained by the Trustee or paid to any trustee under any will or trust agreement for the benefit of, such one or more permissible appointees, in such amounts and proportions, granting such interests, powers and powers of appointment, and upon such conditions including spendthrift provisions as the holder of such power (i) in the case of a power exercisable upon the death of such holder, appoints in his or her will or in a trust agreement revocable by him or her until his or her death, or (ii) in the case of a power exercisable during the life of such holder, appoints in a written instrument signed by such holder, two witnesses and a notary public, but in either case only if such will, trust agreement, or instrument specifically refers to such power.

G. Limitations on Powers of Trustee. Regardless of anything herein to the contrary, no Trustee shall make or participate in making any distribution of income or principal of a trust to or for the benefit of a beneficiary which would directly or indirectly discharge any legal obligation of such Trustee or a donor of such trust (as an individual, and other than myself as donor) to support such beneficiary; and no Trustee (other than myself) shall make or participate in making any discretionary distribution of income or principal to or for the benefit of himself or herself other than for his or her Needs, including by reason of a determination to terminate a trust described herein. For example, if a Trustee (other than myself) has the power to distribute income or principal to himself or herself for his or her own Welfare, such Trustee (the "restricted Trustee") shall only have the power to make or participate in making a distribution of income or principal to the restricted Trustee for the restricted Trustee's Needs, although any co-Trustee who is not also a restricted Trustee may make or participate in making a distribution of income or principal to the restricted Trustee for such restricted Trustee's Welfare without the participation or consent of said restricted Trustee.

H. Presumption of Survivorship. If any person shall be required to survive another person in order to take any interest under this Agreement, the former person shall be deemed to have predeceased the latter person, if such persons die under circumstances which make it difficult or impracticable to determine which one died first.

I. Governing Law. This Agreement is governed by the law of the State of Florida.

J. Other Beneficiary Designations. Except as otherwise explicitly and with particularity provided herein, (a) no provision of this trust shall revoke or modify any beneficiary designation of mine made by me and not revoked by me prior to my death under any individual retirement account, other retirement plan or account, or annuity or insurance contract, (b) I hereby reaffirm any such beneficiary designation such that any assets held in such account, plan, or contract shall pass in accordance with such designation, and (c) regardless of anything herein to the contrary, any of such assets which would otherwise pass pursuant to this trust due to the beneficiary designation not having met the requirements for a valid testamentary disposition under applicable law or otherwise shall be paid as a gift made hereunder to the persons and in the manner provided in such designation which is incorporated herein by this reference.

K. Release of Medical Information.

1. Disability of Beneficiary. Upon the written request of a Trustee (with or without the concurrence of co-Trustees) issued to any current income or principal beneficiary (including discretionary beneficiaries and myself if a beneficiary) for whom a determination of Disability is relevant to the administration of a trust hereunder and for whom a Trustee (with or without the concurrence of co-Trustees) desires to make such a determination, such beneficiary shall issue to all Trustees (who shall be identified thereon both by name to the extent known and by class description) a valid authorization under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and any other applicable or successor law authorizing all health care providers and all medical sources of such requested beneficiary to release protected health information of the requested beneficiary to all Trustees that is relevant to the determination of the Disability of the requested beneficiary as Disability is defined hereunder. The period of each such valid authorization shall be for six months (or the earlier death of the requested beneficiary). If such beneficiary (or his or her legal representative if such beneficiary is a minor or legally disabled) refuses within thirty days of receipt of the request to provide a valid authorization, or at any time revokes an authorization within its term, the Trustee shall treat such beneficiary as Disabled hereunder until such valid authorization is delivered.

2. Disability of Trustee. Upon the request to a Trustee that is an individual by (a) a co-Trustee, or if none, (b) the person or entity next designated to serve as a successor Trustee not under legal incapacity, or if none, (c) any adult current income or principal beneficiary not under legal incapacity, or in any event and at any time (d) a court of competent jurisdiction, such Trustee shall issue to such person and all persons, courts of competent jurisdiction, and entities (who shall be identified thereon both by name to the extent known and by class description), with authority hereunder to determine such requested Trustee's Disability, a valid authorization under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and any other applicable or successor law authorizing all health care providers and all medical sources of such requested Trustee to release protected health information of the requested Trustee to such persons, courts and entities, that is relevant to the determination of the Disability of the requested Trustee as Disability is defined hereunder. The period of each such valid authorization shall be for six months (or the earlier death or resignation of the requested Trustee). If such requested Trustee refuses within thirty days of receipt of the request to deliver a valid authorization, or at any time revokes an authorization within its term, such requested Trustee shall thereupon be treated as having resigned as Trustee hereunder.

3. Ability to Amend or Revoke. The foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not constitute a restriction on myself to amend or revoke the terms of this trust instrument under paragraph 1.A hereof, provided I otherwise have legal capacity to do so.

4. Authorization to Issue Certificate. All required authorizations under this paragraph shall include the power of a physician or psychiatrist to issue a written certificate to the appropriate persons or entities as provided in Subparagraph III.E.3 hereof.

ARTICLE IV. FIDUCIARIES

A. Powers of the Trustee. During my life except while I am Disabled, the Trustee shall exercise all powers provided by law and the following powers, other than the power to retain assets, only with my written approval. While I am Disabled and after my death, the Trustee shall exercise said powers without approval, provided that the Trustee shall exercise all powers in a fiduciary capacity.

1. Investments. To sell or exchange at public or private sale and on credit or otherwise, with or without security, and to lease for any term or perpetually, any property, real and personal, at any time forming a part of the trust estate (the "estate"); to grant and exercise options to buy or sell; to invest or reinvest in real or personal property of every kind, description and location; and to receive and retain any such property whether originally a part of any trust herein created or subsequently acquired, even if the Trustee is personally interested in such property, and without liability for any decline in the value thereof; all without limitation by any statutes or judicial decisions whenever enacted or announced, regulating investments or requiring diversification of investments, it being my intention to give the broadest investment powers and discretion to the Trustee. Any bank, trust company, or other corporate trustee serving hereunder as Trustee is authorized to invest in its own common trust funds.

2. Special Investments. The Trustee is expressly authorized (but not directed) to retain, make, hold, and dispose of investments not regarded as traditional for trusts, including interests or investments in privately held business and investment entities and enterprises, including without limitation stock in closely held corporations, limited partnership interests, joint venture interests, mutual funds, business trust interests, and limited liability company membership interests, notwithstanding (a) any applicable prudent investor rule or variation thereof, (b) common law or statutory diversification requirements (it being my intent that no such duty to diversify shall exist) (c) a lack of current cash flow therefrom, (d) the presence of any risk or speculative elements as compared to other available investments (it being my intent that the Trustee have sole and absolute discretion in determining what constitutes acceptable risk and what constitutes proper investment strategy), (e) lack of a reasonable rate of return, (f) risks to the preservation of principal, (g) violation of a Trustee's duty of impartiality as to different beneficiaries (it being my intent that no such duty exists for this purpose), and (h) similar limitations on investment under this Agreement or under law pertaining to investments that may or should be made by a Trustee (including without limitation the provisions of Fla.Stats. §518.11 and successor provisions thereto that would characterize such investments as forbidden, imprudent, improper or unlawful). The Trustee shall not be responsible to any trust created hereunder or the beneficiaries thereof for any loss resulting from any such authorized investment, including without limitation loss engendered by the higher risk element of that particular entity, investment, or enterprise, the failure to invest in more conservative investments, the failure to diversify trust assets, the prudent investor rule or variant thereof. Notwithstanding any provisions for distributions to beneficiaries hereunder, if the Trustee determines that the future potential investment return from any illiquid or closely held investment asset warrants the retention of that investment asset or that sufficient value could not be obtained from the sale or other disposition of an illiquid or closely held investment asset, the Trustee is authorized to retain that asset and if necessary reduce the distributions to beneficiaries due to lack of sufficient liquid or marketable assets. However, the preceding provisions of this Subparagraph shall not be exercised in a manner as to jeopardize the availability of the estate tax marital deduction for assets passing to or held in the a trust for my surviving spouse or that would otherwise qualify for the estate tax marital deduction but for such provisions, shall not override any express powers hereunder of my surviving spouse to demand conversion of unproductive property to productive property, or reduce any income distributions otherwise required hereunder for a trust held for the benefit of my surviving spouse or a "qualified subchapter S trust" as that term is defined in Code Section 1361(d)(3).

3. Distributions. To make any division or distribution pro rata or non-pro rata, in cash or in kind, and to allocate undivided interests in property and dissimilar property (without regard to its tax basis) to different shares.

4. Management. To manage, develop, improve, partition or change the character of an asset or interest in property at any time; and to make ordinary and extraordinary repairs, replacements, alterations and improvements, structural or otherwise.

5. Borrowing. To borrow money from anyone on commercially reasonable terms, including entities owned in whole or in part by the trust, a Trustee, beneficiaries and other persons who may have a direct or indirect interest in a Trust; and to mortgage, margin, encumber and pledge real and personal property of a trust as security for the payment thereof, without incurring any personal liability thereon and to do so for a term within or extending beyond the terms of the trust and to renew, modify or extend existing borrowing on similar or different terms and with the same or different security without incurring any personal liability; and such borrowing from a Trustee may be with or without interest, and may be secured with a lien on trust assets.

6. Lending. To extend, modify or waive the terms of any obligation, bond or mortgage at any time forming a part of a trust and to foreclose any such mortgage; accept a conveyance of encumbered property, and take title to the property securing it by deed in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise and to satisfy or not satisfy the indebtedness securing said property; to protect or redeem any such property from forfeiture for nonpayment of taxes or other lien; generally, to exercise as to such bond, obligation or mortgage all powers that an absolute owner might exercise; and to loan funds to beneficiaries at commercially reasonable rates, terms and conditions.

7. Abandonment of Property. To abandon any property or asset when it is valueless or so encumbered or in such condition that it is of no benefit to a trust. To abstain from the payment of taxes, liens, rents, assessments, or repairs on such property and/or permit such property to be lost by tax sale, foreclosure or other proceeding or by conveyance for nominal or no consideration to anyone including a charity or by escheat to a state; all without personal liability incurred therefor.

8. Real Property Matters. To subdivide, develop or partition real estate; to purchase or sell real property and to enter into contracts to do the same; to dedicate the same to public use; to make or obtain the location of any plats; to adjust boundaries; to adjust differences in valuations on exchange or partition by giving or receiving consideration; and, to grant easements with or without consideration as the fiduciaries may determine; and to demolish any building, structures, walls and improvements, or to erect new buildings, structures, walls and improvements and to insure against fire and other risks; and to protect and conserve, or to lease, or to encumber, or otherwise to manage and dispose of real property to the extent such power is not otherwise granted herein or otherwise restricted herein.

9. Claims. To enforce, compromise, adjust, arbitrate, release or otherwise settle or pay any claims or demands by or against a trust.

10. Business Entities. To deal with any business entity or enterprise even if a Trustee is or may be a fiduciary of or own interests in said business entity or enterprise, whether operated in the form of a corporation, partnership, business trust, limited liability company, joint venture, sole proprietorship, or other form (all of which business entities and enterprises are referred to herein as "Business Entities"). I vest the Trustee with the following powers and authority in regard to Business Entities:

a. To retain and continue to operate a Business Entity for such period as the Trustee deems advisable;

b. To control, direct and manage the Business Entities. In this connection, the Trustee, in its sole discretion, shall determine the manner and extent of its active participation in the operation and may delegate all or any part of its power to supervise and operate to such person or persons as the Trustee may select, including any associate, partner, officer or employee of the Business Entity;

c. To hire and discharge officers and employees, fix their compensation and define their duties; and similarly to employ, compensate and discharge agents, attorneys, consultants, accountants, and such other representatives as the Trustee may deem appropriate; including the right to employ any beneficiary or fiduciary in any of the foregoing capacities;

d. To invest funds in the Business Entities, to pledge other assets of a trust as security for loans made to the Business Entities, and to lend funds from a trust to the Business Entities;

e. To organize one or more Business Entities under the laws of this or any other state or country and to transfer thereto all or any part of the Business Entities or other property of a trust, and to receive in exchange such stocks, bonds, partnership and member interests, and such other securities or interests as the Trustee may deem advisable;

f. To treat Business Entities as separate from a trust. In a Trustee's accounting to any beneficiary, the Trustee shall only be required to report the earnings and condition of the Business Entities in accordance with standard business accounting practice;

g. To retain in Business Entities such net earnings for working capital and other purposes of the Business Entities as the Trustee may deem advisable in conformity with sound business practice;

h. To sell or liquidate all or any part of the Business Entities at such time and price and upon such terms and conditions (including credit) as the Trustee may determine. My Trustee is specifically authorized and empowered to make such sale to any person, including any partner, officer, or employee of the Business Entities, a fiduciary, or to any beneficiary; and

i. To guaranty the obligations of the Business Entities, or pledge assets of a trust to secure such a guaranty.

11. Principal and Income. To allocate items of income or expense between income and principal as permitted or provided by the laws of the State of Florida but without limiting the availability of the estate tax marital deduction, provided, unless otherwise provided in this instrument, the Trustee shall establish out of income and credit to principal reasonable reserves for depreciation, obsolescence and depletion, determined to be equitable and fair in accordance with some recognized reasonable and preferably uncomplicated trust accounting principle and; provided, further that the Trustee shall not be required to provide a rate of return on unproductive property unless otherwise provided in this instrument.

12. Life Insurance. With respect to any life insurance policies constituting an asset of a trust, to pay premiums; to apply dividends in reduction of such premiums; to borrow against the cash values thereof; to convert such policies into other forms of insurance, including paid-up insurance; to exercise any settlement options provided in any such policies; to receive the proceeds of any policy upon its maturity and to administer such proceeds as a part of the principal of the Trust; and in general, to exercise all other options, benefits, rights and privileges under such policies.

13. Continuing Power. To continue to have or exercise, after the termination of a trust, in whole or in part, and until final distribution thereof, all title, power, discretions, rights and duties conferred or imposed upon the Trustee by law or by this Agreement or during the existence of the trust.

14. Exoneration. To provide for the exoneration of the Trustee from any personal liability on account of any arrangement or contract entered into in a fiduciary capacity.

15. Agreements. To comply with, amend, modify or rescind any agreement made during my lifetime, including those regarding the disposition, management or continuation of any closely held unincorporated business, corporation, partnership or joint venture, and including the power to complete contracts to purchase and sell real estate.

16. Voting. To vote and give proxies, with power of substitution to vote, stocks, bonds and other securities, or not to vote a security.

17. Combination of Shares. To hold the several shares of a trust or several Trusts as a common fund, dividing the income proportionately among them, to assign undivided interests to the several shares or Trusts, and to make joint investments of the funds belonging to them. For such purposes and insofar as may be practicable, the Trustee, to the extent that division of the trust estate is directed hereby, may administer the trust estate physically undivided until actual division thereof becomes necessary to make distributions. The Trustee may hold, manage, invest and account for whole or fractional trust shares as a single estate, making the division thereof by appropriate entries in the books of account only, and may allocate to each whole or fractional trust share its proportionate part of all receipts and expenses; provided, however, this carrying of several Trusts as a single estate shall not defer the vesting in possession of any whole or fractional share of a trust for the beneficiaries thereof at the times specified herein.

18. Reimbursement. To reimburse itself from a trust for reasonable expenses incurred in the administration thereof.

19. Reliance Upon Communication. To rely, in acting under a trust, upon any letter, notice, certificate, report, statement, document or other paper, or upon any telephone, telegraph, cable, wireless or radio message, if believed by the Trustee to be genuine, and to be signed, sealed, acknowledged, presented, sent, delivered or given by or on behalf of the proper person, firm or corporation, without incurring liability for any action or inaction based thereon.

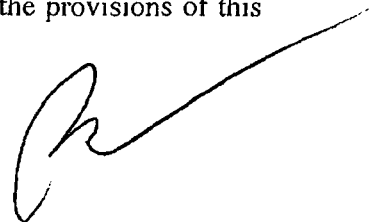

20. Assumptions. To assume, in the absence of written notice to the contrary from the person or persons concerned, that a fact or an event, by reason of which an interest or estate under a trust shall commence or terminate, does not exist or has not occurred, without incurring liability for any action or inaction based upon such assumption.

21. Service as Custodian. To serve as successor custodian for any beneficiary of any gifts that I may have made under any Transfer to Minors Act, if at the time of my death no custodian is named in the instrument creating the gift.

22. Removal of Assets. The Trustee may remove from the domiciliary state during the entire duration of a trust or for such lesser period as it may deem advisable, any cash, securities or other property at any time in its hands whether principal or not, and to take and keep the same outside the domiciliary state and at such place or places within or outside the borders of the United States as it may determine, without in any event being chargeable for any loss or depreciation to the trust which may result therefrom.

23. Change of Situs. The situs and/or applicable law of any trust created hereunder may be transferred to such other place as the Trustee may deem to be for the best interests of the trust estate. In so doing, the Trustee may resign and appoint a successor Trustee, but may remove such successor Trustee so appointed and appoint others. Each successor Trustee may delegate any and all fiduciary powers, discretionary and ministerial, to the appointing Trustee as its agent.

24. Fiduciary Outside Domiciliary State. In the event the Trustee shall not be able and willing to act as Trustee with respect to any property located outside the domiciliary state, the Trustee, without order of court, may appoint another individual or corporation (including any employee or agent of any appointing Trustee) to act as Trustee with respect to such property. Such appointed Trustee shall have all of the powers and discretions with respect to such property as are herein given to the appointing Trustee with respect to the remaining trust assets. The appointing Trustee may remove such appointed Trustee and appoint another upon ten (10) days notice in writing. All income from such property, and if such property is sold, exchanged or otherwise disposed of, the proceeds thereof, shall be remitted to the appointing Trustee, to be held and administered by it as Trustee hereunder. Such appointed Trustee may employ the appointing Trustee as agent in the administration of such property. No surety shall be required on the bond of the Trustee or agent acting under the provisions of this paragraph. No periodic court accounting shall be required of such appointed Trustee, it being my intention to excuse any statutory accounting which may ordinarily be required.

25. Additions. To receive and accept additions to the Trusts in cash or in kind from donors, executors, administrators, Trustee or attorneys in fact, including additions of my property by the Trustee or others as my attorneys in fact.

26. Title and Possession. To have title to and possession of all real or personal property held in the Trusts, and to register or hold title to such property in its own name or in the name of its nominee, without disclosing its fiduciary capacity, or in bearer form.

27. Dealing with Estates. To use principal of the Trusts to make loans to my estate, with or without interest, and to make purchases from my estate.

28. Agents. To employ persons, including attorneys, auditors, investment advisers, and agents, even if they are the Trustee or associated with the Trustee, to advise or assist the Trustee in the performance of its administrative duties and to pay compensation and costs incurred in connection with such employment from the assets of the Trust; to act without independent investigation upon their recommendations; and, instead of acting personally, to employ one or more agents to perform any act of administration, whether or not discretionary.

29. Tax Elections. To file tax returns, and to exercise all tax-related elections and options at its discretion, without compensating adjustments or reimbursements between any of the Trusts or any of the trust accounts or any beneficiaries.

B. Resignation. A Trustee may resign with or without cause, by giving no less than 30 days advance written notice, specifying the effective date of such resignation, to its successor Trustee and to the persons required and in the manner provided under Fla.Stats. §§736.0705(1)(a) and 736.0109. As to any required recipient, deficiencies in fulfilling the foregoing resignation requirements may be waived in a writing signed by such recipient. Upon the resignation of a Trustee, such Trustee shall be entitled to reimbursement from the trust for all reasonable expenses incurred in the settlement of accounts and in the transfer of assets to his or her successor.

C. Appointment of Successor Trustee

1. Appointment. Upon a Trustee's resignation, or if a Trustee becomes Disabled or for any reason ceases to serve as Trustee, I may appoint any person or persons as successor Trustee, and in default of such appointment by me, ROBERT L. SPALLINA and DONALD R. TESCHER shall serve together as successor co-Trustees, or either of them alone as Trustee if either of them is unable to serve. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a named Trustee is not a U.S. citizen or resident at the time of commencement of his term as Trustee, such Trustee should give due consideration to declining to serve to avoid potential adverse U.S. income tax consequences by reason of the characterization of a trust hereunder as a foreign trust under the Code, but shall not be construed to have any duty to so decline if such Trustee desires to serve.

2. Specific Trusts. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this Subparagraph IV.C, subsequent to my death I specifically appoint the following person or persons as Trustee of the following Trusts under the following described circumstances provided that the foregoing appointments shall apply when and to the extent that no effective appointment is made below:

a. Trustee of Separate Trusts for My Grandchildren. Each grandchild of mine shall serve as co-Trustee with the immediate parent of such grandchild which parent is also a child of mine as to all separate trusts under which such grandchild is the sole current mandatory or discretionary income beneficiary upon attaining the age of twenty-five (25) years, and shall serve as sole Trustee of such trusts upon attaining the age of thirty-five (35) years. While serving alone as Trustee, a grandchild of mine may designate a co-Trustee that is not a Related or Subordinate Party to serve with such grandchild and such grandchild may remove and/or replace such co-Trustee with another that is not a Related or Subordinate Party from time to time.

b. Trustee of Separate Trusts for My Lineal Descendants Other Than My Grandchildren. In regard to a separate trust held for a lineal descendant of mine other than a grandchild of mine which lineal descendant is the sole current mandatory or discretionary income beneficiary, each such lineal descendant shall serve as co-Trustee, or sole Trustee if the preceding described Trustees cease or are unable to serve or to continue to serve, of his or her separate trust upon attaining age twenty-five (25) years. While serving alone as Trustee, a lineal descendant of mine other than a grandchild of mine may designate a co-Trustee to serve with such lineal descendant and such lineal descendant may remove and/or replace such co-Trustee with another from time to time.

3. Successor Trustees Not Provided For. Whenever a successor Trustee or co-Trustee is required and no successor or other functioning mechanism for succession is provided for under the terms of this Trust Agreement, the last serving Trustee or the last person or entity designated to serve as Trustee of the applicable trust may appoint his or her successor, and if none is so appointed, the following persons shall appoint a successor Trustee (who may be one of the persons making the appointment):

- a. The remaining Trustees, if any; otherwise,
- b. A majority of the permissible current mandatory or discretionary income beneficiaries, including the natural or legal guardians of any beneficiaries who are Disabled.

A successor Trustee appointed under this subparagraph shall not be a Related or Subordinate Party of the trust. The appointment will be by a written document executed by such person in the presence of two witnesses and acknowledged before a notary public delivered to the appointed Trustee and to me if I am living and not Disabled or in a valid last Will. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a designation under this Subparagraph of a successor trustee to a corporate or entity trustee shall be limited to a corporate or entity trustee authorized to serve as such under Florida law with assets under trust management of no less than one billion dollars.

4. Power to Remove Trustee. Subsequent to my death, the age 35 or older permissible current mandatory or discretionary income beneficiaries from time to time of any trust established hereunder shall have the power to unanimously remove a Trustee of such trust at any time with or without cause, other than a named Trustee or successor Trustee designated hereunder, or a Trustee appointed by me during my lifetime or under my Will or otherwise at the time of my death, with the successor Trustee to be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions.

D. Method of Appointment of Trustee. Any such appointment of a successor Trustee by a person shall be made in a written instrument executed by such person in the presence of two witnesses and acknowledged before a notary public which is delivered to such appointed Trustee during the lifetime of the person making such appointment, or any such appointment of a successor Trustee by a person may be made under the last Will of such person.

E. Limitations on Removal and Replacement Power. Any power to remove and/or replace a trustee hereunder that is granted to an individual (including such power when reserved to me) is personal to that individual and may not be exercised by a guardian, power of attorney holder, or other legal representative or agent.

F. Successor Fiduciaries. No Trustee is responsible for, nor has any duty to inquire into, the administration, acts or omissions of any executor, administrator, Personal Representative, or trustee or attorney-in-fact adding property to these Trusts, or of any predecessor Trustee. Each successor Trustee has all the powers, privileges, immunities, rights and title (without the execution of any instrument of transfer or any other act by any retiring Trustee) and all the duties of all predecessors.

G. Liability and Indemnification of Trustee.

1. Liability in General. No individual Trustee (that is, a Trustee that is not a corporation or other entity) shall be liable for any of his or her actions or failures to act as Trustee, even if the individual Trustee is found by a court to have been negligent or in breach of fiduciary duty, except for liability caused by his or her actions or failures to act done in bad faith or with reckless indifference to the purposes of the trust or the interests of the beneficiaries. Each Trustee that is a corporation or other entity will be liable for its actions or failures to act that are negligent or that breach its fiduciary duty, without contribution by any individual Trustee.

2. Indemnification of Trustee. Except in regard to liabilities imposed on a Trustee under Subparagraph IV.G.1, each Trustee shall be held harmless and indemnified from the assets of the trust for any liability, damages, attorney's fees, expenses, and costs incurred as a result of its service as Trustee. A Trustee who ceases to serve for any reason will be entitled to receive reasonable security from the assets of the trust to protect it from liability, and may enforce these provisions for indemnification against the current Trustee or against any assets held in the trust, or if the former Trustee is an individual and not a corporation or other entity, against any beneficiary to the extent of distributions received by that beneficiary. This indemnification right extends to the estate, personal representatives, legal successors and assigns of a Trustee.

3. Indemnification of Trustee - Additional Provisions. I recognize that if a beneficiary accuses a Trustee of wrongdoing or breach of fiduciary duty, the Trustee may have a conflict of interest that ordinarily would prevent it from paying legal fees and costs from the trust estate to defend itself. I do not want to put a financial burden on any individual named to serve as a Trustee. Just as important, I do not want an individual who has been selected to serve as a Trustee to be reluctant to accept the position, or while serving to be intimidated in the performance of the Trustee's duties because of the threats of lawsuits that might force the Trustee to pay fees and costs from the Trustee's personal resources. For this reason, I deliberately and intentionally waive any such conflict of interest with respect to any individual serving as Trustee so that he or she can hire counsel to defend himself or herself against allegations of wrongdoing or if sued for any reason (whether by a beneficiary or by someone else) and pay all fees and costs for his or her defense from the trust estate until the dispute is resolved. I understand and agree that a court may award, disallow or allocate fees and costs in whole or in part after the dispute is resolved, as provided by law. The Trustee will account for all such fees and costs paid by it as provided by law. This provision shall not apply to any Trustee that is a corporation or other entity.

H. Compensation, Bond. Each Trustee is entitled to be paid reasonable compensation for services rendered in the administration of the trust. Reasonable compensation for a non-individual Trustee will be its published fee schedule in effect when its services are rendered unless otherwise agreed in writing, and except as follows. Any fees paid to a non-individual Trustee for making principal distributions, for termination of the trust, and upon termination of its services must be based solely on the value of its services rendered, not on the value of the trust principal. During my lifetime the Trustee's fees are to be charged wholly against income (to the extent sufficient), unless directed otherwise by me in writing. Each Trustee shall serve without bond.

I. Maintenance of Records. The Trustee shall maintain accurate accounts and records. It shall render annual statements of the receipts and disbursements of income and principal of a trust upon the written request of any adult vested beneficiary of such trust or the guardian of the person of any vested beneficiary and the approval of such beneficiary shall be binding upon all persons then or thereafter interested in such trust as to the matters and transactions shown on such statement. The Trustee may at any time apply for a judicial settlement of any account. No Trustee shall be required to file any statutory or other periodic accountings of the administration of a trust.

J. Interested Trustee. The Trustee may act under this Agreement even if interested in these Trusts in an individual capacity, as a fiduciary of another trust or estate (including my estate) or in any other capacity. The Trustee may in good faith enter into a sale, encumbrance, or other transaction involving the investment or management of trust property for the Trustee's own personal account or which is otherwise affected by a conflict between the Trustee's fiduciary and personal interests, without liability and without being voidable by a beneficiary. The Trustee is specifically authorized to make loans to, to receive loans from, or to sell, purchase or exchange assets in a transaction with (i) the Trustee's spouse, (ii) the Trustee's children or grandchildren, siblings, parents, or spouses of such persons, (iii) an officer, director, employee, agent, or attorney of the Trustee, or (iv) a corporation, partnership, limited liability company, or other business entity in which the Trustee has a financial interest, provided that in any transaction the trusts hereunder receive fair and adequate consideration in money or money's worth. The Trustee may renounce any interest or expectancy of a trust in, or an opportunity to participate in, specified business opportunities or specified classes or categories of business opportunities that are presented to the Trustee. Such renunciation shall not prohibit the Trustee from participating in the Trustee's individual capacity in such opportunity or expectancy.

K. Third Parties. No one dealing with the Trustee need inquire into its authority or its application of property.

L. Merger of Trusts. If the Trustee is also trustee of a trust established by myself or another person by will or trust agreement, the beneficiaries to whom income and principal may then be paid and then operative terms of which are substantially the same as those of a trust held under this Agreement, the Trustee in its discretion may merge either such trust into the other trust. The Trustee, in exercising its discretion, shall consider economy of administration, convenience to the beneficiaries, tax consequences and any other factor it considers important. If it is later necessary to reestablish the merged trust as separate trusts, it shall be divided proportionately to the value of each trust at the time of merger.

M. Multiple Trustees. If two Trustees are serving at any time, any power or discretion of the Trustees may be exercised only by their joint agreement. Either Trustee may delegate to the other Trustee the authority to act on behalf of both Trustees and to exercise any power held by the Trustees. If more than two Trustees are serving at any time, and unless unanimous agreement is specifically required by the terms of this Trust Agreement, any power or discretion of the Trustees may be exercised only by a majority. The Trustees may delegate to any one or more of themselves the authority to act on behalf of all the Trustees and to exercise any power held by the Trustees. Trustees who consent to the delegation of authority to other Trustees will be liable for the consequences of the actions of those other Trustees as if the consenting Trustees had joined the other Trustees in performing those actions. A dissenting Trustee who did not consent to the delegation of authority to another Trustee and who has not joined in the exercise of a power or discretion cannot be held liable for the consequences of the exercise. A dissenting Trustee who joins only at the direction of the majority will not be liable for the consequences of the exercise if the dissent is expressed in writing delivered to any of the other Trustees before the exercise of that power or discretion.

ARTICLE V. ADDITIONAL TAX AND RELATED MATTERS

A. GST Trusts. I direct (a) that the Trustee shall divide any trust to which there is allocated any GST exemption into two separate Trusts (each subject to the provisions hereof) so that the generation-skipping tax inclusion ratio of one such trust is zero, (b) any property exempt from generation-skipping taxation shall be divided as otherwise provided herein and held for the same persons designated in Trusts separate from any property then also so divided which is not exempt from generation-skipping taxation, and (c) if upon the death of a beneficiary a taxable termination would otherwise occur with respect to any property held in trust for him or her with an inclusion ratio greater than zero, such beneficiary shall have with respect only to such property a power to appoint such fractional share thereof which if included in such beneficiary's gross estate for federal estate tax purposes (without allowing any deduction with respect to such share) would not be taxed at the highest federal estate tax rate and such fractional share of such property shall be distributed to such persons including only such beneficiary's estate, spouse, and issue, as such beneficiary may appoint, and any part of a trust such beneficiary does not effectively appoint shall be treated as otherwise provided for disposition upon his or her death, provided, if upon his or her death two or more Trusts for his or her benefit are directed to be divided among and held or distributed for the same persons and the generation-skipping tax inclusion ratio of any such trust is zero, the amount of any other such Trust to which there is allocated any of such beneficiary's GST exemption shall be added to the Trusts with generation-skipping tax inclusion ratios of zero in equal shares. For purposes of funding any pecuniary payment to which there is allocated any GST exemption, such payment shall be satisfied with cash or property which fairly represents appreciation and depreciation (occurring between the valuation date and the date of distribution) in all of the assets from which such distribution could be made, and any pecuniary payment made before a residual transfer of property to which any GST exemption is allocated shall be satisfied with cash or property which fairly represents appreciation and depreciation (occurring between the valuation date and the date of distribution) in all of the assets from which such pecuniary payment could be satisfied and shall be allocated a pro rata share of income earned by all such assets between the valuation date and the date of payment. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, the valuation date with respect to any property shall be the date as of which its value is determined for federal estate tax purposes with respect to the transferor thereof, and subject to the foregoing, property distributed in kind in satisfaction of any pecuniary payment shall be selected on the basis of the value of such property on the valuation date. All terms used in this paragraph which are defined or explained in Chapter 13 of the Code or the regulations thereunder shall have the same meaning when used herein. I request (but do not require) that if two or more Trusts are held hereunder for any person, no principal be paid to such person from the Trusts with the lower inclusion ratios for generation-skipping tax purposes unless the trust with the highest inclusion ratio has been exhausted by use, consumption, distribution or otherwise or is not reasonably available. The Trustee is authorized and directed to comply with the provisions of the Treasury Regulations interpreting the generation skipping tax provisions of the Code in severing or combining any trust, creating or combining separate trust shares, allocating GST exemption, or otherwise, as necessary to best accomplish the foregoing allocations, inclusion ratios, combinations, and divisions, including, without limitation, the payment of "appropriate interest" as determined by the Trustee as that term is applied and used in said Regulations.

B. Individual Retirement Accounts. In the event that this trust or any trust created under this Agreement is the beneficiary of an Individual retirement account established and maintained under Code Section 408 or a qualified pension, profit sharing or stock bonus plan established and maintained under Code Section 401 (referred to in this paragraph as "IRA"), the following provisions shall apply to such trust:

TESCHER & SPALLINA, P.A.

1. I intend that the beneficiaries of such trust shall be beneficiaries within the meaning of Code Section 401(a)(9) and the Treasury Regulations thereunder. All provisions of such trust shall be construed consistent with such intent. Accordingly, the following provisions shall apply to such trust:

a. No benefits from any IRA may be used or applied for the payment of any debts, taxes or other claims against my estate as set forth in the later paragraph captioned "Taxes", unless other assets of this trust are not available for such payment.

b. In the event that a beneficiary of any trust created under this Agreement has a testamentary general power of appointment or a limited power of appointment over all or any portion of any trust established under this Agreement, and if such trust is the beneficiary of any benefits from any IRA, the beneficiary shall not appoint any part of such trust to a charitable organization or to a lineal descendant of mine (or a spouse of a lineal descendant of mine) who is older than the beneficiary whose life expectancy is being used to calculate distributions from such IRA.

2. The Trustee shall deliver a copy of this Agreement to the custodian of any IRA of which this trust or any trust created under this Agreement is the named beneficiary within the time period prescribed Code Section 401(a)(9) and the Treasury Regulations thereunder, along with such additional items required thereunder. If the custodian of the IRA changes after a copy of this Agreement has been provided pursuant to the preceding sentence, the Trustee shall immediately provide a copy of this Agreement to the new custodian. The Trustee shall request each custodian to complete a receipt of the Agreement and shall attach such receipt to this Agreement. The Trustee shall provide a copy of each amendment of this Agreement to the custodian and shall obtain a receipt of such amendment.

C. Gift Transfers Made From Trust During My Lifetime. I direct that all gift transfers made from the trust during my lifetime be treated for all purposes as if the gift property had been first withdrawn by (or distributed to) me and then transferred by me to the donees involved. Thus, in each instance, even where title to the gift property is transferred directly from the name of the trust (or its nominee) into the name of the donee, such transfer shall be treated for all purposes as first a withdrawal by (or distribution of the property to) me followed by a gift transfer of the property to the donee by me as donor, the Trustee making the actual transfer in my behalf acting as my attorney in fact, this paragraph being, to that extent, a power of attorney from me to the Trustee to make such transfer, which power of attorney shall not be affected by my Disability, incompetence, or incapacity.

D. Gifts. If I am Disabled, I authorize the Trustee to make gifts from trust property during my lifetime for estate planning purposes, or to distribute amounts to my legally appointed guardian or to my attorney-in-fact for those purposes, subject to the following limitations:

1. Recipients. The gifts may be made only to my lineal descendants or to trusts primarily for their benefit, and in aggregate annual amounts to any one such recipient that do not exceed the exclusion amount provided for under Code Section 2503(b).

2. Trustee Limited. When a person eligible to receive gifts is serving as Trustee, the aggregate of all gifts to that person during the calendar year allowable under the preceding subparagraph J. shall thereafter not exceed the greater of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or five percent (5%) of the aggregate value of the trust estate. However, gifts completed prior to a recipient's commencing to serve as Trustee shall not be affected by this limitation.

3. Charitable Pledges. The Trustee may pay any charitable pledges I made while I was not Disabled (even if not yet due).

E. Death Costs. If upon my death the Trustee hold any United States bonds which may be redeemed at par in payment of federal estate tax, the Trustee shall pay the federal estate tax due because of my death up to the amount of the par value of such bonds and interest accrued thereon at the time of payment. The Trustee shall also pay from the trust all of my following death costs, but if there is an acting executor, administrator or Personal Representative of my estate my Trustee shall pay only such amounts of such costs as such executor, administrator or Personal Representative directs:

1. my debts which are allowed as claims against my estate,
2. my funeral expenses without regard to legal limitations,
3. the expenses of administering my estate,
4. the balance of the estate, inheritance and other death taxes (excluding generation-skipping transfer taxes unless arising from direct skips), and interest and penalties thereon, due because of my death with respect to all property whether or not passing under my Will or this Agreement (other than property over which I have a power of appointment granted to me by another person, and qualified terminable interest property which is not held in a trust that was subject to an election under Code Section 2652(a)(3) at or about the time of its funding) and life insurance proceeds on policies insuring my life which proceeds are not held under this trust or my probate estate at or by reason of my death), and
5. any gifts made in my Will or any Codicil thereto.

The Trustee may make any such payment either to my executor, administrator or Personal Representative or directly to the proper party. The Trustee shall not be reimbursed for any such payment, and is not responsible for the correctness or application of the amounts so paid at the direction of my executor, administrator, or Personal Representative. The Trustee shall not pay any of such death costs with any asset which would not otherwise be included in my gross estate for federal or state estate or inheritance tax purposes, or with any asset which otherwise cannot be so used, such as property received under a limited power of appointment which prohibits such use. Further, no payment of any such death costs shall be charged against or paid from the tangible personal property disposed of pursuant to the prior paragraph captioned "Disposition of Tangible Personal Property."

F. Subchapter S Stock. Regardless of anything herein to the contrary, in the event that after my death the principal of a trust includes stock in a corporation for which there is a valid election to be treated under the provisions of Subchapter S of the Code, the income beneficiary of such a trust is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident for federal income tax purposes, and such trust is not an "electing small business trust" under Code Section 1361(e)(1) in regard to that corporation, the Trustee shall (a) hold such stock as a substantially separate and independent share of such trust within the meaning of Code Section 663(c), which share shall otherwise be subject to all of the terms of this Agreement, (b) distribute all of the income of such share to the one income beneficiary thereof in annual or more frequent installments, (c) upon such beneficiary's death, pay all accrued or undistributed income of such share to the beneficiary's estate, (d) distribute principal from such share during the lifetime of the income beneficiary only to such beneficiary, notwithstanding any powers of appointment granted to any person including the income beneficiary, and (e) otherwise administer such share in a manner that qualifies it as a "qualified Subchapter S trust" as that term is defined in Code Section 1361(d)(3), and shall otherwise manage and administer such share as provided under this Agreement to the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing provisions of this paragraph.

G. Residence as Homestead. I reserve the right to reside upon any real property placed in this trust as my permanent residence during my life, it being the intent of this provision to retain for myself the requisite beneficial interest and possessory right in and to such real property to comply with Section 196.041 of the Florida Statutes such that said beneficial interest and possessory right constitute in all respects "equitable title to real estate" as that term is used in Section 6, Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Florida. Notwithstanding anything contained in this trust to the contrary, for purposes of the homestead exemption under the laws of the State of Florida, my interest in any real property in which I reside pursuant to the provisions of this trust shall be deemed to be an interest in real property and not personalty and shall be deemed my homestead.

I, SIMON L. BERNSTEIN, of Palm Beach County, Florida, hereby revoke all my prior Wills and Codicils and make this Will. I am a widower, but in the event that I marry subsequent to the execution of this Will, I specifically make no provision for my spouse. My children are TED S. BERNSTEIN, PAMELA B. SIMON, ELIOT BERNSTEIN, JILL IANTONI and LISA S. FRIEDSTEIN.

ARTICLE I. TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY

I give such items of my tangible personal property to such persons as I may designate in a separate written memorandum prepared for this purpose. I give to my children who survive me, divided among them as they agree, or if they fail to agree, divided among them by my Personal Representatives in as nearly equal shares as practical my personal effects, jewelry, collections, household furnishings and equipment, automobiles and all other non-business tangible personal property other than cash, not effectively disposed of by such memorandum, and if no child of mine survives me, this property shall pass with the residue of my estate.

ARTICLE II. EXERCISE OF POWER OF APPOINTMENT

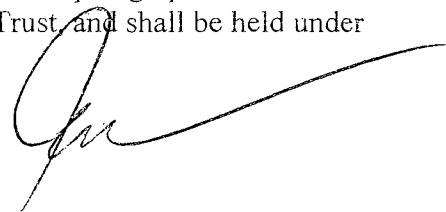

Under Subparagraph E.1. of Article II. of the SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT dated May 20, 2008, (the "Shirley Trust"), I was granted a special power of appointment upon my death to direct the disposition of the remaining assets of the Marital Trust and the Family Trust established under the Shirley Trust. Pursuant to the power granted to me under the Shirley Trust, upon my death, I hereby direct the then serving Trustees of the Marital Trust and the Family Trust to divide the remaining trust assets into equal shares for my then living grandchildren and distribute said shares to the then serving Trustees of their respective trusts established under Subparagraph II.B. of my Existing Trust, as referenced below, and administered pursuant to Subparagraph II.C. thereunder.

ARTICLE III. RESIDUE OF MY ESTATE

I give all the residue of my estate, including my homestead, to the Trustee then serving under my revocable Trust Agreement dated May 20, 2008, as amended and restated from time to time and on even date herewith (the "Existing Trust"), as Trustee without bond, but I do not exercise any powers of appointment held by me except as provided in Article II., above, and in the later paragraph titled "Death Costs." The residue shall be added to and become a part of the Existing Trust, and shall be held under the provisions of said Agreement in effect at my death, or if this is not permitted by applicable law or the Existing Trust is not then in existence, under the provisions of said Agreement as existing today. If necessary to give effect to this gift, but not otherwise, said Agreement as existing today is incorporated herein by reference.

ARTICLE IV. PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES

1. Appointment and Bond. I appoint ROBERT L. SPALLINA and DONALD R. TESCHER to serve together as my co-Personal Representatives, or either of them alone as Personal Representative if either of them is unable to serve (the "fiduciary"). Each fiduciary shall serve without bond and have all of the powers, privileges and immunities granted to my fiduciary by this Will or by law, provided, however, that my fiduciary shall exercise all powers in a fiduciary capacity.

2. Powers of Personal Representatives. My fiduciary may exercise its powers without court approval. No one dealing with my fiduciary need inquire into its authority or its application of property. My fiduciary shall have the following powers:

a. Investments. To sell or exchange at public or private sale and on credit or otherwise, with or without security, and to lease for any term or perpetually, any property, real and personal, at any time forming a part of my probate estate (the "estate"); to grant and exercise options to buy or sell; to invest or reinvest in real or personal property of every kind, description and location; and to receive and retain any such property whether originally a part of the estate, or subsequently acquired, even if a fiduciary is personally interested in such property, and without liability for any decline in the value thereof; all without limitation by any statutes or judicial decisions, whenever enacted or announced, regulating investments or requiring diversification of investments.

b. Distributions or Divisions. To distribute directly to any beneficiary who is then entitled to distribution under the Existing Trust; to make any division or distribution pro rata or non-pro rata, in cash or in kind; and to allocate undivided interests in property and dissimilar property (without regard to its tax basis) to different shares, and to make any distribution to a minor or any other incapacitated person directly to such person, to his or her legal representative, to any person responsible for or assuming his or her care, or in the case of a minor to an adult person or an eligible institution (including a fiduciary) selected by my fiduciary as custodian for such minor under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act or similar provision of law. The receipt of such payee is a complete release to the fiduciary.

c. Management. To manage, develop, improve, partition or change the character of or abandon an asset or interest in property at any time; and to make ordinary and extraordinary repairs, replacements, alterations and improvements, structural or otherwise.

d. Borrowing. To borrow money from anyone on commercially reasonable terms, including a fiduciary, beneficiaries and other persons who may have a direct or indirect interest in the estate; and to mortgage, margin, encumber and pledge real and personal property of the estate as security for the payment thereof, without incurring any personal liability thereon and to do so for a term within or extending beyond the terms of the estate and to renew, modify or extend existing borrowing on similar or different terms and with the same or different security without incurring any personal liability; and such borrowing from my fiduciary may be with or without interest, and may be secured with a lien on the estate assets or any beneficiary's interest in said assets.

e. Lending. To extend, modify or waive the terms of any obligation, bond or mortgage at any time forming a part of the estate and to foreclose any such mortgage; accept a conveyance of encumbered property, and take title to the property securing it by deed in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise and to satisfy or not satisfy the indebtedness securing said property; to protect or redeem any such property from forfeiture for nonpayment of taxes or other lien; generally, to exercise as to such bond, obligation or mortgage all powers that an absolute owner might exercise; and to loan funds to beneficiaries at commercially reasonable rates, terms and conditions.

f. Abandonment of Property. To abandon any property or asset when it is valueless or so encumbered or in such condition that it is of no benefit to the estate. To abstain from the payment of taxes, liens, rents, assessments, or repairs on such property and/or permit such property to be lost by tax sale, foreclosure or other proceeding or by conveyance for nominal or no consideration to anyone including a charity or by escheat to a state; all without personal liability incurred therefor.

g. Real Property Matters. To subdivide, develop or partition real estate; to dedicate the same to public use; to make or obtain the location of any plats; to adjust boundaries; to adjust differences in valuations on exchange or partition by giving or receiving consideration; and, to grant easements with or without consideration as they may determine; and to demolish any building, structures, walls and improvements, or to erect new buildings, structures, walls and improvements and to insure against fire and other risks.

h. Claims. To enforce, compromise, adjust, arbitrate, release or otherwise settle or pay any claims or demands by or against the estate.

i. Business Entities. To deal with any business entity or enterprise even if a fiduciary is or may be a fiduciary of or own interests in said business entity or enterprise, whether operated in the form of a corporation, partnership, business trust, limited liability company, joint venture, sole proprietorship, or other form (all of which business entities and enterprises are referred to herein as "Business Entities"). I vest the fiduciary with the following powers and authority in regard to Business Entities:

i. To retain and continue to operate a Business Entity for such period as the fiduciary deems advisable;

ii. To control, direct and manage the Business Entities. In this connection, the fiduciary, in its sole discretion, shall determine the manner and extent of its active participation in the operation and may delegate all or any part of its power to supervise and operate to such person or persons as the fiduciary may select, including any associate, partner, officer or employee of the Business Entity;

iii. To hire and discharge officers and employees, fix their compensation and define their duties; and similarly to employ, compensate and discharge agents, attorneys, consultants, accountants, and such other representatives as the fiduciary may deem appropriate; including the right to employ any beneficiary or fiduciary in any of the foregoing capacities;

iv. To invest funds in the Business Entities, to pledge other assets of the estate or a trust as security for loans made to the Business Entities, and to lend funds from my estate or a trust to the Business Entities;

v. To organize one or more Business Entities under the laws of this or any other state or country and to transfer thereto all or any part of the Business Entities or other property of my estate or a trust, and to receive in exchange such stocks, bonds, partnership and member interests, and such other securities or interests as the fiduciary may deem advisable;

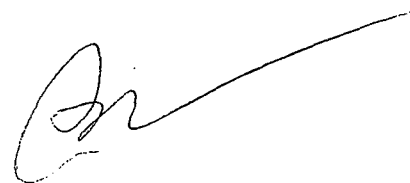

vi. To treat Business Entities as separate from my estate or a trust. In a fiduciary's accounting to any beneficiary, the fiduciary shall only be required to report the earnings and condition of the Business Entities in accordance with standard business accounting practice;

vii. To retain in Business Entities such net earnings for working capital and other purposes of the Business Entities as the fiduciary may deem advisable in conformity with sound business practice;

viii. To sell or liquidate all or any part of the Business Entities at such time and price and upon such terms and conditions (including credit) as the fiduciary may determine. My fiduciary is specifically authorised and empowered to make such sale to any person, including any partner, officer, or employee of the Business Entities, a fiduciary, or to any beneficiary; and

ix. To guaranty the obligations of the Business Entities, or pledge assets of the estate or a trust to secure such a guaranty.

j. Life Insurance. With respect to any life insurance policies constituting an asset of the estate to pay premiums; to apply dividends in reduction of such premiums; to borrow against the cash values thereof; to convert such policies into other forms of insurance including paid-up insurance; to exercise any settlement options provided in any such policies; to receive the proceeds of any policy upon its maturity and to administer such proceeds as a part of the principal of the estate or trust; and in general, to exercise all other options, benefits, rights and privileges under such policies; provided, however, no fiduciary other than a sole fiduciary may exercise any incidents of ownership with respect to policies of insurance insuring the fiduciary's own life.

k. Reimbursement. To reimburse itself from the estate for all reasonable expenses incurred in the administration thereof.

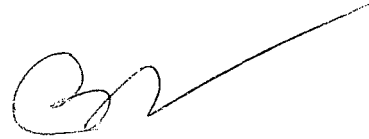

l. Voting. To vote and give proxies, with power of substitution to vote, stocks, bonds and other securities, or not to vote a security.

m. Ancillary Administration. To appoint or nominate, and replace with or without cause, any persons or corporations, including itself, as ancillary administrators to administer property in other jurisdictions, with the same powers, privileges and immunities as my fiduciary and without bond.

n. Tax Elections. To file tax returns, and to exercise all tax-related elections and options at their discretion, without compensating adjustments or reimbursements between any accounts or any beneficiaries.

3. Survivorship. A beneficiary is not deemed to survive me unless he or she survives me by five days.

4. Death Costs. My fiduciary shall pay (a) from the residuary estate my debts which are allowed as claims against my estate, (b) from the residuary estate my funeral expenses without regard to legal limitations, (c) from the residuary estate the expenses of administering my estate and (d) from the residuary estate other than the portion of the residuary estate qualifying for the marital deduction under the laws then in effect, without apportionment, all estate, inheritance and succession taxes (excluding generation-skipping taxes other than with respect to direct skips), and interest and penalties thereon, due because of my death and attributable to all property whether passing under this Will or otherwise and not required by the terms of the Existing Trust to be paid out of said trust. However, such taxes, penalties and interest payable out of my residuary estate shall not include taxes, penalties and interest attributable to (i) property over which I have a power of appointment granted to me by another person, (ii) qualified terminable interest property held in a trust of which I was the income beneficiary at the time of my death (other than qualified terminable interest property held in a trust for which an election was made under Code Section 2652(a)(3)), and (iii) life insurance proceeds on policies insuring my life which proceeds are not payable to my probate estate. My fiduciary shall not be reimbursed for any such payment from any person or property. However, my fiduciary in its discretion may direct that part or all of said death costs shall be paid by my Trustee as provided in the Existing Trust, and shall give such direction to the extent necessary so that the gifts made in Article I of this Will and the gifts made in any codicil hereto shall not be reduced by said death costs. If the amount of the above-described taxes, and interest and penalties arising by reason of my death (without regard to where payable from under the terms of this paragraph or applicable law) is increased because of the power of appointment granted to me under Subparagraph II.E.1. of the SHIRLEY BERNSTEIN TRUST AGREEMENT dated May 20, 2008, I hereby appoint to my probate estate from the property subject to such power (to the extent allowable under such power) the amount of such increase (calculating such increase at the highest applicable marginal rates) and exercise such power to this extent only, and notwithstanding the other provisions of this paragraph further direct my fiduciary to make payment of such increase in taxes, interest and penalties to the appropriate taxing authorities from the appointed property or the proceeds thereof. Any trustee holding such appointive property may pay to my fiduciary the amount which my fiduciary certifies as due under this paragraph and is not responsible for the correctness or application of amounts so paid.

5. Reimbursement for Debts and Expenses. My fiduciary shall promptly reimburse my friends and members of my family who have disbursed their own funds for the payment of any debts, funeral expenses or costs of administration of my estate.

6. Expenses of Handling Tangible Personal Property. All expenses incurred by my fiduciary during the settlement of my estate in appraising, storing, packing, shipping, delivering or insuring an article of tangible personal property passing under this Will shall be charged as an expense of administering my estate.

7. Dealing with Estate. Each fiduciary may act under this Will even if interested in my estate in an individual capacity, as a fiduciary of another estate or trust (including any trust identified in this Will or created under the Existing Trust) or in any other capacity. Each fiduciary may in good faith buy from, sell to, lend funds to or otherwise deal with my estate.

8. Spouse. The term "spouse" herein means, as to a designated individual, the person to whom that individual is from time to time married.

9. Other Beneficiary Designations. Except as otherwise explicitly and with particularity provided herein, (a) no provision of this Will shall revoke or modify any beneficiary designation of mine made by me and not revoked by me prior to my death under any individual retirement account, other retirement plan or account, or annuity or insurance contract, (b) I hereby reaffirm any such beneficiary designation such that any assets held in such account, plan, or contract shall pass in accordance with such designation, and (c) regardless of anything herein to the contrary, any of such assets which would otherwise pass pursuant to this Will due to the beneficiary designation not having met the requirements for a valid testamentary disposition under applicable law or otherwise shall be paid as a gift made hereunder to the persons and in the manner provided in such designation which is incorporated herein by this reference.

Hi Kimberly!

I made the following list of what I remember Si having... most I believe Robert already has and if I think of anything else out of the blue after this I will email you :)

I don't know any mortgages he had... I think Robert is aware of any if any

Banks-

JP Morgan

Sabadell (previously Lydian)

Bank Credit Cards-

American Express

JP Morgan Palladium card

Saks

Neiman Marcus (maybe?)

Macy's (maybe?)

No Gas Cards

FPL for the house and the condo

Propane USA is the company used for gas at Lions Head Lane house. I notified them and they have stopped coming to fill tanks, however, we need to let whoever buys the house know because the tanks are leased with Propane USA that are in the ground to the right of the driveway

Water is Palm Beach County Utility... I haven't talked with them but I have been paying the bill

I'm not sure which doctors we should notify since the 3 he saw most often were aware of what happened... though, no one has heard from any of them since nor the day Si was in the hospital for some reason

Same for any hospitals or clinics

He wasn't a signer on any lease that I know of the rest I have no idea, I'm sure Robert already knows...

Let me know if there's anything else you need :)

Thanks,
Rachel

Hi Rachel:

We are going to need to send Notice to Creditors to any known creditors for Si's estate. That means any of the following:

Mortgage company

Banks and other financial institutions

Bank Credit cards

Department store credit cards

Gas company credit cards

Telephone company

Electric company

Gas company

Doctors

Hospitals

Clinics
Judgment creditors
Apartment leases
Automobile leases
Loan guaranties
Brokerage margin accounts

Can you please put together a list of any of these types of bills and I will send them Notice to Creditors? They need to be sent out by early next week.

If you have any questions at all, please do not hesitate to contact me or Robert.

Best regards,

WIRE TRANSFER AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT is made and entered into this 11th day of October, 2012, by and between Sabadell United Bank, a national banking association (hereinafter referred to as "Bank"), and Estate Of Simon L Bernstein (hereinafter referred to as "Sender" or "Customer").

1. Upon receipt from you (Sender) of instructions orally (and promptly confirmed in writing), electronically, by facsimile, or in writing, (hereinafter referred to as "Payment Order"), and upon the terms and conditions contained herein, Bank is hereby authorized and directed to transfer funds by wire, telex, book entry or other means (hereinafter referred to as "Transfer") from any "Authorized Account" (as hereinafter defined) of Sender, now or hereafter maintained with Bank, to any account of Sender or to any third party (Beneficiary) designated by Sender, whether such account be maintained at Bank or any other bank. An "Authorized Account" means any deposit account of Sender designated by Sender as a source of Payment Orders issued by the Sender to the Bank. If Customer does not so designate an account, any account of the Customer is an Authorized Account if payment of a Payment Order from that account is not inconsistent with a restriction on the use of that account. If the Payment Order is transmitted by facsimile, Customer agrees to promptly furnish to Bank the signed original of the Payment Order. Upon failure of Customer to promptly confirm an oral instruction in writing, or to promptly furnish a signed original Payment Order sent by facsimile, Bank, at its sole option may terminate this Agreement or refuse to accept oral or facsimile instructions thereafter.

2. AUTHORIZATION

Bank is hereby authorized to make such Transfers upon its receipt of the Payment Order executed by Customer, if an individual, or by any of the following named officers, employees or agents of Customer (must be in accordance with Certificate of Corporate Resolution/Partnership Agreement furnished to the Bank) as follows:

- Authorization of one individual only required for all Transfers.
- Authorization of two individuals required for all Transfers.
- Other (please specify)

Print or type name(s) of

AUTHORIZED INDIVIDUAL	TITLE	SIGNATURE
Robert Spallina	co-Personal Representative
Donald Tescher	co-Personal Representative

Each above named individual or officer, agent or employee of Customer, or any officer, agent or employee of Customer who may hereinafter be added as an authorized individual referred to herein, either singularly or collectively, shall be referred to as "Authorized Agent." Sender may amend or cancel the Payment Order in any of the methods in which it could have issued the Payment Order subject to Paragraph 6 hereof. The designation of Authorized Agents, or any change of Authorized Agents such as addition or deletion, must be by Certificate of Corporate Resolution, if Customer is a corporation, or by other authority acceptable to Bank if Customer is not a corporation.

If the Payment Order received from Sender identifies the beneficiary by an identifying or bank account number, Bank may rely on such number as the proper identification of the beneficiary of the Payment Order. Customer agrees that if the Payment Order describes a beneficiary inconsistently by name and account number, payment may be made by the beneficiary's bank on the basis of the account number, even if the account number identifies a person different from the named beneficiary in the Payment Order and that Customer's obligation to pay the Payment Order shall not be excused by Customer error.

3. AUTHENTICATION

Upon the receipt of a Payment Order, amendment or cancellation thereof under this Agreement, and prior to the acceptance thereof, Bank shall authenticate the instruction by the use of a security procedure which is hereby accepted and authorized by the Customer as commercially reasonable in light of the circumstances and the type and frequency of the Payment Order to be requested. Said security procedure shall consist of a telephonic callback to any one of the individuals listed below, unless the Payment Order was received electronically, in which case the Bank's security procedure will involve the use of authorization passwords and codes.

Telephonic callbacks for authentication of Payment Orders are to be made to any of the following:

INDIVIDUAL	PHONE NUMBER
Robert Spallina	561-997-7008
Donald Tescher	561-997-7008

If Customer has designated more than 1 (one) telephone number for any of the above individuals, Customer acknowledges that by so doing, it has increased the risk of possible fraudulent transfers hereunder and Customer hereby agrees to assume such a risk and hold Bank harmless and indemnified for any losses Bank may sustain as a result of granting this accommodation to Customer.

The foregoing authentication/security procedure may be amended from time to time upon execution by both Bank and Customer of a Payment Authentication Amendment agreement in form and substance acceptable to Bank.

4. ACCEPTANCE OR REJECTION

Bank shall be deemed to have accepted Customer's Payment Order when it executes it by issuing a Payment Order intended to carry out the Payment Order received by the Bank. Bank may, under certain circumstances, reject the Payment Order without liability by transmitting a notice of rejection to Customer either orally, electronically or in writing, before executing the Payment Order.

5. Orders for the transfer of U.S. Dollars shall be paid in U.S. Dollars if transferred to a beneficiary located in the United States. If transferred to a beneficiary located in a foreign country, the beneficiary's bank may elect to pay the beneficiary in foreign currency at the bank's buying rate of exchange for wire transfers. It is your responsibility to advise the beneficiary of this possibility. The Bank may send any message relative to this order in explicit language, code or cipher. Foreign currency transfer orders are final when made to the Bank. However, pursuant to the request of Customer and, if possible, the Bank may cancel or amend any order before the transfer is made. The Bank shall incur no liability if it is unable, for any reason, to cancel or amend an order. Refunds of U.S. Dollar orders shall be made in the U.S. Dollar amount. Refunds of foreign currency orders shall be in the amount of U.S. Dollars that can be bought for the foreign currency amount at the Bank's then current rate of exchange. The Customer bears all risk of loss due to fluctuation in the rate of exchange. No transfer fee shall be refunded. The Customer is responsible for any charges related to cancellation or amendment of the foreign currency order.

6. CONFIRMATION

4855 Technology Way Suite 720

or at such other place as Customer may hereafter designate in writing, a confirmation stating the date and amount of the Transfer, and the bank account from and to which the Transfer was made. Upon receipt of such confirmation or periodic statement, Customer shall cause it to be examined promptly and notify Bank within a reasonable period of time, not to exceed thirty (30) days, of any unauthorized, erroneous or erroneously executed Payment Order. Bank will, upon request, provide Customer with such additional information with respect to said Payment Order as Customer may reasonably request. If at Customer request a wire confirmation is to be sent to a Branch for Customer pick up, and the Customer does not pick up the confirmation within 5 days, the Branch will mail the wire confirmation to the Customer.

7. Customer hereby agrees that if it revokes or cancels any Payment Orders, it will indemnify and hold Bank harmless for all loss, claims, expenses, costs or other liability incurred by Bank as a result thereof. Upon receipt of a request by an Authorized Agent to cancel a Payment Order previously communicated to Bank, Bank will use its best efforts to cancel the Order and/or recover the related funds. A communication by the Customer which attempts to cancel or amend a Payment Order must be received by Bank at a time and in a manner affording Bank a reasonable opportunity to act on the communication. Bank makes no representations or warranty as to its ability to revoke or cancel a Payment Order or Transfer once it has been executed.

8. Bank shall not be liable for executing any Payment Order or for any other act performed by Bank relating to such Transfer, nor any claims, expenses, damages or losses arising therefrom, if such Transfer or act is made by an officer, agent or employee of Bank pursuant to instructions, written, oral (including telephonic), or electronically, which such officer, agent or employee reasonably and in good faith believes to be that of Sender.

9. Customer agrees that Bank shall not be liable for any error or delay on the part of any agent used by Bank in the execution of any Payment Order or related act. Further, Bank shall not be liable for any error or delay in Transfer or related act due to any cause other than Bank's own negligence. Bank shall not be liable for any loss, damage, liability, or claim arising directly or indirectly from any error, delay, or failure to perform hereunder which is caused by earthquakes, fires, natural disasters, civil or foreign disturbances, power outages, acts of government, labor disputes, failures in either communication or computer networks, legal constraints, or any other event beyond its control. Customer agrees that it shall at all times have adequate contingency plans in place for these and similar circumstances. Customer agrees that all damages and other compensation due it as a result of Bank's negligence in executing a Payment Order or related act shall be limited to an amount equal to interest on the funds at the Federal Funds rate paid by Bank at the close of business on each day the error or delay remains uncorrected, provided, however, that if Bank is unable to recover all or any part of erroneously transferred funds from a transferee who has no claim to them, Bank shall be liable for Customer's actual loss, not to exceed the amount of funds which Bank is unable to recover. In no event will Bank be liable for any indirect, consequential, punitive, or special damages.

10. Customer acknowledges and agrees that Bank does not have any duty to accept a Payment Order or, before acceptance thereof, to take any action or refrain from taking any action with respect to any Payment Order except as may be provided elsewhere in this Agreement.

11. Bank reserves the right, but shall not be obligated, to electronically record telephonic Transfer requests and/or telephonic callbacks to document instructions received and authentication procedures performed.

12. Funds Transfers executed pursuant to this Agreement may utilize the Fedwire System. The rights and obligations of the parties to such Transfers are governed by Subpart B of Regulation J of the Federal Reserve Board as well as the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) Article 4A.

13. This agreement shall not be binding upon the Bank until countersigned by an authorized officer of the Bank.

A clearer description of transaction terms used in account statements

This message is to make you aware of new language that will be used to describe a type of transaction in account statements and online activities:

Beginning July 22, 2013, if you cash a check and it is returned to us without being paid, the transaction will be listed on your statement as Cashed Check Returned.

This is not a new transaction type. It is simply a clearer description of this type of account activity.

Currently, a single term (Deposited Item Returned) is used to describe two types of transactions: deposited and cashed items that are returned to us without being paid. After July 22, this term will only be used to indicate a deposited check that is returned.

All other terms and conditions for your account(s) remain the same.

Please contact your J.P. Morgan team if you have any questions or require more information

Overdrafts

An overdraft created by a withdrawal, debit or instruction to transfer funds from your checking account which we choose to honor will be charged at the Overdraft Interest rate we establish, currently Prime + 4%, not to exceed the maximum lawful rate. The overdraft will continue to accrue interest until it is paid in full. An overdraft may be caused by insufficient or uncollected funds. Interest on the overdraft amount will be charged on a 360-day basis and will be assessed on overdrafts regardless of amount. The Overdraft Interest charge will be made on the first business day of the month following the overdraft activity. This does not constitute an agreement on our part to pay any item or honor any instruction if there are insufficient balances in your checking account to cover the item(s) or transfer(s). The best way to avoid this interest charge is to maintain sufficient balances in your checking account to cover anticipated payments.

GENERAL TERMS FOR ACCOUNTS AND SERVICES

"Account" refers to the account or accounts subject to these General Terms and an additional account agreement. "Accountholder" means the person or entity (also called "you" or "your") who owns the Account. "We," "us," "our" and the "Bank" mean JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (JPMCB) or, in the case of a product or service furnished by, or Account with, or Obligations owed to another Morgan Affiliate, that Morgan Affiliate. Other definitions of capitalized terms used in these General Terms are found in the Definitions Section.

1. Types of Accounts

The titles under which accounts are opened, the selection of the type of account or opening an account for a minor under various states' Uniform Transfers or Gifts to Minors Acts (UTMA/UGMA) have important consequences for taxes, control of assets, and wealth and estate planning. Clients should discuss how to structure financial accounts with their own legal or tax adviser. Material provided by J.P. Morgan is not intended to provide, and should not be relied on for, accounting, legal, estate planning or tax advice nor does it provide investment advice unless specifically contracted for.

Individual Accounts

Where only one individual appears on the Application or a signature card as the owner of such account, the Account will be treated as a solely owned account. In the event of the Accountholder's death or adjudication of incompetence, we have the right to honor checks or other items drawn against the Account until ten days after we receive actual written notice of death or incompetence, and upon such notice, we may restrict access to the Account until your executor, administrator or other representative of the estate provides the appropriate documentation to us, including a death certificate. To the extent and under the circumstances permitted by the laws of the state governing your Account, upon receipt of actual written notice and proof of your death, the balance in your Account will be paid to the person or entity you designate to "pay on death" ("POD") or whom you designate as a POD payee or beneficiary on your Account's signature card, Application, or other form provided by us.

Joint Accounts

Unless the signature card or Application provides otherwise, where two or more individuals are designated or appear on a signature card or Application as owners of such Account, then as between them, they will be treated as joint tenants with rights of survivorship. For any joint account where a joint owner has died, we need not release funds in the Account until all legal documents are delivered to us. You will notify us of the death of any joint owner and reimburse us for any tax we may be required to pay by reason of our payment or release of funds in the Account. Certain states also permit married residents to own property as community property or as tenants by the entirety. These forms of ownership have different attributes than ownership as joint tenants with right of survivorship. You must consult your own legal advisor about which type of account is best for you.

Any joint owner may close the Account. We may, at our sole discretion, act upon the instructions of any joint owner, including an instruction to withdraw funds or add a signatory to the Account, without the consent of the other joint owner. However, we are under no obligation to follow such instruction, and may refuse to do so without liability. We also may pay all or any part of the funds in the Account to any of the joint owners upon request of that joint owner or to a court or governmental agency upon receipt of a garnishment order, tax levy or similar legal process identifying any one of the joint owners.

Any Accountholder may grant a security interest in a joint account without the consent of the other owners. All joint owners will be jointly and severally liable for all Obligations, whether or not that particular owner incurred the Obligation or received benefit from a transaction which resulted, directly or indirectly, in such Obligation.

For deposit accounts, we may refuse to accept items for deposit or to pay withdrawals on the signature of any one of several joint account owners if we receive a written request not to do so from any joint account owner. After we receive such written request, we may refuse to honor any check, draft or demand upon the account by any of the joint account owners, including the one providing the request to us, unless all of the joint account owners concur in the withdrawal of funds from the account. In the event we receive such a written request, we shall be relieved of any and all liability to every joint account owner for failure or refusal to honor any check, draft or other demand for payment or withdrawal unless all of the joint account owners join in the drawing or other request. This shall not affect transactions previously completed.

Each joint owner appoints each of the others as such joint owner's agent and attorney in fact with power to endorse and deposit items payable to such joint owner in the joint account. If a joint account is established without the signature of the other joint owner, you will hold us harmless for our reliance upon the designation of the other as a joint owner.

If you hold an investment through your Account which is entered into under a separate agreement, for example, an investment in a hedge fund, the agreements governing such investment may impose terms and conditions on investors that are at variance with the characteristics of the type of joint account you have selected. You agree that the terms and conditions in such investment's governing documents supersede and prevail over this Agreement. However, this Agreement governs any proceeds distributed to the Account as a result of such investment, including, without limitation, liquidation proceeds.

Accounts for Minors

The custodian of an Account opened for a minor under the Uniform Transfers or Gifts to Minors Act controls the Account, but the designated minor is the owner of the funds in the Account. The Social Security number of the minor is to be used for income tax reporting. The gift to the minor is irrevocable. The Account cannot be pledged as collateral for a personal loan to the custodian nor checks cashed against the Account, except as otherwise permitted by law. When the minor reaches the age mandated by law, the custodian is charged with disbursing the funds to terminate the custodianship.

Deposit Account ("Totten") Trusts and Representative Payee

If a deposit account is established as "in trust for" ("ITF") or as trustee for a third person without formal trust documents, the Account may be treated as a Totten Trust account or as otherwise required by the laws of the state where the deposit is located.

If you have opened the account as a Representative Payee for receipt of certain federal benefits on behalf of a beneficiary, you agree that you will cause to be deposited into the Account only those benefits payable to the beneficiary. The Bank is neither obligated to ensure that only those eligible federal benefits are deposited into the Account, nor does it have a duty to determine whether any withdrawals or transfers from the Account are for the benefit of the beneficiary. If the beneficiary dies, you agree to (a) promptly notify the Bank, (b) no longer permit further deposits to the Account, (c) promptly notify the Bank if any such deposits are made, and (d) maintain sufficient available balances in the Account from which any benefit payments may be reclaimed by the applicable U.S. Government agency. If the Bank is unable to debit the Account or if there are insufficient available funds in the Account from which to debit the full amount of any reclamation by the government, you authorize the Bank to offset any account owned by you or the beneficiary for any amounts reclaimed by the applicable U.S. Government agency.

Transfer on Death Accounts

Securities in an Account designated as "Transfer on Death" ("TOD") will be held for the benefit of the beneficiaries you designate on the Application. Upon the death of the last surviving Account holder, ownership of the Securities passes to those beneficiaries, not the deceased Account holder's estate. If there are two or more beneficiaries, they will hold as tenants in common. If no beneficiary survives the death of all Account owners, the Securities will be part of the last surviving owner's estate. TOD Accounts may not be available in all States and are available only for Accounts eligible to hold Securities.

2. Your Representations and Warranties

All information provided in the Application or otherwise given to us from time to time is accurate, true and complete.

For individual and joint accounts, the identified Account holders are the beneficial owners. For entity accounts, beneficial ownership is as you have told us. You will notify us immediately if the beneficial ownership of any Account changes.

If you are a natural person, you represent and warrant that you are of the age of majority according to the law of your place of residence and of the place of your Accounts.

If you establish the Account when acting in a fiduciary capacity, (i) all beneficial interests in the estate, trust or Account for which you are a fiduciary are owned by individuals or by non-profit organizations; and (ii) you are legally empowered to enter into and perform this Agreement in such capacity.

If the Account is to be maintained in the name of a sole proprietorship, (i) you are the sole owner of the sole proprietorship; (ii) the sole proprietorship is doing business under the name and style of, and at the location, given in the Application; (iii) you will be personally responsible for any debts, deficiencies or overdrafts in the sole proprietorship Account; and (iv) checks drawn on the sole proprietorship's Account may be debited against any Account you hold, in your individual name or jointly, with us.

For Accounts opened other than by a natural person, (i) the Account holder has the power to enter into and perform under the Agreement, (ii) all necessary actions have been taken and approvals received in accordance with its organizational documents and applicable law and regulation, and (iii) the Account holder is duly organized and in good standing in the jurisdiction in which it is organized. The persons signing the Application have the authority to bind the Account holder to the Agreement.

We may rely on these representations and warranties, which are made as of the date of the Agreement and which will continue until the Agreement is terminated.

3. Authorized Instructions

Authorized Persons on your Account are those indicated on your Application, any resolution, or other separate written authorization related to the Account that you deliver to us. You agree to be bound by all instructions that we believe are authorized and to have been given by an Authorized Person, regardless of how those instructions have been transmitted, and no Morgan Affiliate will be liable for any loss, cost, or expense for acting on such instructions. Until you or another Authorized Person has revoked the authority of an Authorized Person in writing, Authorized Persons shall continue to be Authorized Persons. You authorize us to accept instructions by telephone, facsimile transmission, in writing or any other method that you may agree to use but understand that we are not required to accept instructions by any such media.

You agree to be bound by any facsimile or other electronically transmitted signature that we in good faith believe to have been transmitted by you and that such signature will evidence your agreement or consent and will be legally binding, enforceable and the legal equivalent of your handwritten signature.

4. Monitoring Conversations

You agree that so long as your Account is open, we may monitor or record conversations and telephone calls (should we elect, in our discretion, to do so) that you have with our employees or agents for the purpose of verifying transactions, quality control, or for other business reasons. You waive any notice other than this provision that your communications shall or may be recorded at any time.

5. Telephone and Electronic Communications

For deposit accounts, if you provide us with your cell phone number as a contact number for your Account, you agree that we may call that number with service messages, including calls via an autodialer or prerecorded calls, notwithstanding any state or federal law or regulation that would otherwise prevent us from engaging in this activity without your consent.

Confidentiality and integrity of messages via email, facsimile, or other electronic media cannot be assured, and electronic media may not always transmit correctly, so you will not assume we have received a message via such media if we do not respond within a reasonable time. You understand that messages left on a voice-mail system may not be collected immediately for various reasons and, again, you will not assume we have received a message if we do not respond within a reasonable time. You understand that we do not accept securities, money transfer, or other instructions sent by electronic media, and will not be responsible for them. If we agree to accept instructions you send by such media, you accept that you do so at your risk, in accordance with this paragraph and Section 3 above. We may record and monitor communications via electronic media similarly to telephone conversations, as explained above.

6. Statements and Confirmations; Balancing and Holding Information

We will provide you with periodic statements detailing the activity that occurs in your Accounts. J.P. Morgan Securities LLC (JPMS) will confirm Brokerage Account transactions when required by applicable law and regulation. You will not receive confirmations relating to your Investment Management Account activity or accounts opened for you with Third Party Managers. All statements and advices will be sent to you by mail at the address last recorded by us unless you make other arrangements. This address must be one where you or someone you have authorized to receive communications on your behalf actually receives communications. You will notify us in writing of any address change.

You agree that you must review statements and confirmations promptly and notify us immediately of any errors, omissions, improper payments, or transfers. Unless otherwise provided by applicable law or regulation or specifically provided elsewhere in the General Terms or any Account Agreement, you agree that you cannot make a claim against us based on any error, omission, improper payment or transfer disclosed by a confirmation or statement if you fail to notify us of it within three (3) Business Days after its delivery in the case of a confirmation, and within thirty (30) Business Days after its delivery in the case of a statement.

Responsibilities with respect to periodic statements covering Deposit Accounts are identified in the Deposit Account Agreement.

Asset values on periodic statements come from our proprietary pricing models or external pricing services that we select and may rest on estimates and assumptions we make about relevant future market conditions and other matters, all of which are subject to change without notice. Such changes may have a material impact on valuations, and valuations based on other models or different assumptions may yield materially different results. Statement valuations may not represent the actual or indicative terms for new transactions or for liquidation of existing transactions, and may vary from valuations used by us for other purposes. Accordingly, you will not use your statements as the sole basis for valuing your assets, and you will seek advice from your accountant or attorney about using statements to prepare tax returns, financial statements, regulatory reports, or for other purposes. You agree that we and Morgan Affiliates shall not be liable for losses, costs, expenses or damages (incidental, special, consequential, compensatory, punitive, or otherwise) arising out of any use or reliance on any valuation of any asset set forth in a periodic statement or other document.

Balances and Account holdings change on a frequent basis. Information about the amount of your balance or holdings will be as of a given time, and there is no assurance that the same balance or holdings will be in your Account at the time the checks that you write are presented for payment. You hereby waive any claims against us based on balance and holdings information provided to you orally, electronically or in writing or to a third party on your behalf.

7. Security Interest; Right to Debit and Setoff

In order to secure payment when due of any and all Obligations under this Agreement to us or any Morgan Affiliate, you pledge and grant to us and each of them a continuing security interest in the Collateral. This security interest shall apply to any Collateral (and proceeds thereof) now or at any time in the future held in or credited to any Account or other accounts maintained for you. You acknowledge and agree that where we or any other Morgan Affiliate holds Collateral or is a securities intermediary in respect of any Collateral, we each hold the Collateral for ourselves and also as agents for all other Morgan Affiliates who are secured parties hereunder pursuant to the Intercompany J.P. Morgan Securities Account Control Agreement among various Morgan Affiliates as amended or restated from time to time. At any time that you have not met any Obligation under this Agreement we may liquidate, sell or transfer all or any portion of the Collateral to satisfy that Obligation in whatever priority we choose in our sole discretion; exercise all rights and remedies we have under applicable law with respect to the Collateral; or, exercise any other rights or remedies we have under other agreements or applicable law.

If you have a line of credit connected to an Asset Account, this security interest is in addition to any security interest that you have granted in connection with that line of credit.

In addition, we may, without prior notice or demand, apply or setoff the funds in your Account at any time to pay off any Obligation, whether direct or indirect, you have to a Morgan Affiliate that provides products or services under this Agreement. If the Account is a joint account, the funds in the joint account may be used to pay the Obligations of a single Account holder. A hold against the Account (to the extent of our right of offset) may be imposed rather than an immediate debit of the funds. Any of your assets or your Obligations may be transferred within and among Morgan Affiliates in order to effect the rights in this Section. You acknowledge that your Account is a general account and not a special purpose account.

8. Fees

You agree to pay all fees, charges and commissions associated with this Agreement and the Accounts and services we provide to you. We are authorized to charge your Accounts directly for payment for all applicable fees contained in the fee schedules in effect from time to time, which are available upon request.

9. Error Corrections

We have the right to correct all errors that arise in your Accounts without prior notice to you, including debiting your Accounts for any sums or positions incorrectly existing therein and correcting errors with respect to Account holdings or balances. We may also reverse any provisional credits or recredits. We may take these actions even if they result in a debit balance or overdraft.

10. Credit Reports

We may request credit reports on you in connection with your Application for an Account or in the future in connection with an update, renewal or extension of an Account. Upon your request, we may inform you whether we have obtained any such reports and, if we have, we will inform you of the name and address of the reporting agency that furnished the reports to us. Any credit reports that we receive will be deemed to have been obtained by each Morgan Affiliate for its own benefit.

11. Limitations on Responsibilities and Liabilities; Indemnification

We shall be responsible for the performance of only those duties that are set forth in this Agreement.

Except as otherwise provided by law, our sole liability and that of Morgan Affiliates to you, your heirs, legal representatives, assigns or any other party for any wrongful act or failure to act in connection with any of the products or services provided to you shall be any direct damages you incur because of our gross negligence or willful misconduct. Direct damages will be limited to the amount of any funds or the fair market value of any property lost because of such gross negligence or willful misconduct, together with compensatory interest and a credit for our fees with respect to any relevant transaction. Under no circumstance shall we be liable to you or any other person for any services provided by third parties (e.g., clearing agencies, central depositories, communications carriers) or for any indirect, incidental, special, or consequential damages, regardless of the form of action and even if we have been advised of the possibility of such damages. We disclaim any and all warranties, whether express or implied, including but not limited to all warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose.

We will not be responsible for losses caused directly or indirectly by events or conditions beyond our control, such as war, acts of terrorism, natural disasters, government restrictions, strikes, a failure of public utility, communication, computer, equipment or other systems, a failure or delay in receiving electronic data or any law, legal or regulatory requirements, exchange or market rulings, or suspension of trading.

You will indemnify and hold all Morgan Affiliates providing products or services under the Agreement harmless from any claim, loss, liability, or expense, including, without limitation, collection costs, reproduction and search costs and the reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel and other advisers incurred by them (i) in rendering services hereunder; (ii) if you breach the Agreement; (iii) if a third party brings a claim, suit or proceeding against a Morgan Affiliate because it provided products and services to you, or (iv) resulting from a subpoena, administrative order, court order, levy, garnishment, attachment or other legal process affecting the Account. You will not be required to indemnify any Morgan Affiliate if the claim, loss, or liability results from its gross negligence or willful misconduct.

12. Taxes

You will be responsible for the payment of all taxes relating to your Accounts. You will reimburse us and all Morgan Affiliates on demand for any transfer taxes, documentary taxes, assessments or charges that are imposed at any time on or in connection with this Agreement and shall indemnify us and them against liability for any such tax (including any interest and penalties). We are authorized to deduct from any cash receivable credited to your Accounts any taxes or levies required to be deducted by any revenue or governmental authority for whatever reason with respect to your Accounts.

13. Abandoned or Inactive Accounts

Unless you make a transaction in your Account from time to time or notify us in writing that you know your Account still exists, state law may require us to send the Property in the Account to the applicable state as abandoned property.

The applicable state is generally the state of your last known address as shown on our books and records, or the state of the JPMCB address where your Account is maintained if your address is outside the United States. After the turnover, the funds must be reclaimed from the applicable state. Your Account may be charged for certain expenses incurred in remitting funds to any state. These charges are not refundable.

14. Retention of Assets; Disputes over Account Assets

We may refuse to pay out any money or transfer or distribute Securities or other Property from your Accounts (i) in the event of your death or the death of any co-Accountholder, until we are fully satisfied, in our sole judgment, that we will have no resulting liability or potential liability for any estate tax, gift tax or other tax, or (ii) upon receipt of oral or written notice of a claim regarding the Account, until we have a court order or the written consent of all required parties. We also may place a hold on the Account or we may file an action in interpleader. You agree to reimburse us for any expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees that we incur because of any dispute, including any incurred without litigation. We are not required to determine whether a dispute has merit in order to take one of the actions permitted by this section.

15. Termination

Either of us may terminate this Agreement or some or all of the products, features and services provided at any time upon notice to the other. However, any security interest in Collateral, or any other setoff rights against your Accounts or Property will not terminate until you have satisfied indefeasibly and in full all your Obligations, whether arising before or after termination. Termination of one or more of the services and features of an Account may result in the cancellation of some or all of the features or privileges described in this Agreement. You understand that you remain responsible for all charges, debit Items or other transactions initiated or authorized by you or Authorized Persons, whether arising before or after termination.

16. Compliance with Laws

You certify that you have observed and will continue to observe all laws and regulations that apply to your activities and relationship with us or any Morgan Affiliate.

17. Rules and Regulations

Your transactions will be effected in accordance with our internal rules and policies, the applicable rules, regulations, customs, and usages of any exchange, market, clearinghouse, or self-regulatory organization, and all applicable federal and state laws, rules, regulations, and treaties.

18. Governing Law; Jurisdiction

Except as otherwise provided, or insofar as preempted by federal law, this Agreement shall be governed by the law of the State of New York without giving effect to its choice of law or conflict of laws provisions (other than Section 5-1401 of the New York General Obligations Law).

Deposit accounts shall be governed by the law of the place where each deposit account is located.

Under federal law, deposits that you maintain in any JPMCB branch located outside of the U.S. are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC"); are subject to cross-border risks; and enjoy a lesser preference, as compared to deposits held in the U.S., in the event JPMCB should be liquidated, become insolvent or be placed into receivership or be subject to other proceedings for the benefit of creditors.

This Agreement varies applicable law or regulation to the maximum extent permitted under any such law or regulation. Any provision of applicable law or regulation that cannot be varied by agreement or notice shall supersede any conflicting term of this Agreement. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be illegal or unenforceable, the validity of the remaining portions of this Agreement shall not be affected.

You submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of any federal or state court located in the county where the office holding your Account is situated for all legal proceedings arising out of this Agreement. You irrevocably waive any objection of inconvenient forum that you may now or later have.

19. Waiver of Jury Trial

To the extent permitted by law, we and you knowingly, voluntarily and irrevocably waive all right to trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim, of whatever type or nature, including but not limited to actions in contract or tort, arising out of this Agreement or the relationship established by this Agreement.

You acknowledge that this jury waiver is a material inducement to us to enter into this agreement and acknowledge that no representative of ours has represented (expressly or otherwise) that we might not enforce this jury waiver in the event of litigation.

20. Use and Exchange of Nonpublic Personal Information

The J.P. Morgan Privacy Policy governs the use and exchange of nonpublic personal information about you, including by Morgan Affiliates.

21. Successors and Assigns; Subcontracting

This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of each of us and our successors, assigns, heirs, and representatives. You will not assign any of your rights or obligations under this Agreement without our prior written consent. Except where prohibited by applicable law or regulation, each Morgan Affiliate providing accounts and services under this Agreement may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement, or grant participations in its rights, such as its rights as a creditor, to any other party without notice to you or your consent. You agree that each Morgan Affiliate may arrange for another Morgan Affiliate or other entity to perform on its behalf any act required to be performed by such Morgan Affiliate under this Agreement.

22. Entire Agreement, Amendment, Waiver, and Construction

This Agreement contains the entire agreement between you, us and all Morgan Affiliates for the Accounts and services described and supersedes any prior oral or written agreements relating to the Accounts opened and services contracted for. No prior conduct, past practice, or oral statement by our officers or employees will modify your or our obligations under the Agreement. If there are any conflicts between the General Terms and any product Agreement contained in this document, the product Agreement shall prevail. This Agreement and our fees and charges may be amended, and we may modify any aspect of an Account, at any time following notice sent to you by ordinary mail. We do not waive any right under this Agreement or under applicable law because we delay in exercising that right. If we exercise any single or partial right, we may exercise or further exercise that right or any other right or remedy at a later time. Our rights are cumulative under this Agreement and do not exclude any rights or remedies provided by law. No ambiguity in any provision of this Agreement shall be construed against us by reason of the fact that we or our legal counsel drafted such provision.

ACCOUNTS AND SERVICES RELATING TO ASSETS HELD BY JPMORGAN CHASE BANK, N.A. AND AFFILIATED BANKS

ASSET ALLOCATION ADVISORY SERVICES

Upon your request, JPMCB or an affiliated bank (a "Bank") will advise you about the allocation and management of your investments and cash under management or held by JPMCB or Morgan Affiliates. The Bank also may, in consultation with you, present to you investment ideas and strategies for assets held or managed by other financial institutions to the extent you disclose such assets in writing to the Bank.

The Bank may advise and assist you in the preparation of an investment plan based upon information provided by you. Such investment plan documents the Bank's understanding of, among other things, your current wealth picture, investment goals, risk profile and strategic asset allocation with J.P. Morgan, including discretionary assets managed or held by the Bank in an Investment Management Account and self-directed assets traded through JPMS in a Brokerage Account. The Bank will exercise discretion and execute investment ideas in your Investment Management Account based upon written guidelines the Bank and you agree to if consistent with applicable fiduciary standards. JPMS will execute trades in Brokerage Accounts and will sell you alternative investments (hedge funds, private equity funds, funds of such funds, structured products, and the like) based upon your prior express direction and if applicable suitability standards, documentation requirements, and other relevant considerations have been fully satisfied.

You will review your investment plan from time to time and notify the Bank if you believe any information contained therein is incorrect or does not reflect your investment goals, risk profile, desired asset allocation and/or other considerations addressed therein. Rebalancing decisions and directing the movement of assets between your Accounts are your sole responsibility and neither the Bank nor JPMS will do so except pursuant to your express direction.

From time to time the Bank may recommend changes in your investment plan. No changes in such plan shall be effective unless agreed to in writing by you. Until notified in writing by you, the Bank is entitled to rely upon the most recent investment plan that you have adopted.

Asset allocation services are subject to the General Terms for Accounts and Services and Appendices contained herein (the "General Terms"). Capitalized terms not otherwise defined in this Agreement have the meanings given to them in the General Terms. To the extent there are any conflicts between the General Terms and this Agreement, this Agreement shall prevail.

ASSET ACCOUNT AGREEMENT

The Asset Account is a group of accounts and financial services that can be linked together. Account activity and holdings will be reported on an integrated and comprehensive statement. The following accounts and services may be linked:

- An automatic sweep of deposits and uninvested cash balances into a deposit account at a Morgan Affiliate that is an insured depository institution or a JPM Fund that is a money market mutual fund;
- A Custody Account which will hold Securities and other Property;
- Direct purchase of JPM Funds and AC Funds;
- Banking services:
 1. check writing capability
 2. an ATM or debit card ("Banking Card") issued by a Morgan Affiliate for use to withdraw funds from an Account or to make purchases at participating merchants
 3. electronic banking and funds transfers services, including information about the Asset Account
- A discretionary line of credit; and
- An optional brokerage account with JPMS.

Each of these is described in more detail below.

1. Automatic Sweep of Deposits and Uninvested Cash Deposit Sweep

Uninvested cash balances and new cash deposits will be transferred automatically to a deposit sweep (a "Deposit Sweep") on a daily basis. Deposits will be held on your behalf by your custodian with Chase Bank USA, N.A. or JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., wholly owned subsidiaries of JPMorgan Chase & Co. The Deposit Sweep rate is established on the basis of various market factors including short-term rates, federal funds rates, LIBOR and competitors' rates. At any time and at our discretion, how the rate is determined on the Deposit Sweep may change. This rate may be tiered based on the balances in your Accounts.

Interest will be compounded, calculated monthly using the average daily balance method, and credited to your Account on the first day of the month. The average daily balance method applies the average daily periodic rate to the average daily balance in the account for the period. The average daily balance is calculated by adding the principal in the account for each day of the period and dividing that figure by the number of days in the period. Interest will begin to accrue on the first business day that funds are swept into the Account.

The interest rate and annual percentage yield (APY) applicable to the Deposit Sweep on the date your Asset Account is opened will be set forth on a "rate sheet" or other interest rate disclosure provided when the Asset Account is opened. The interest rate disclosure is considered part of this agreement.

The Deposit Sweep is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") for the standard insurance amount of $250,000 per depositor, per insured bank, for each account ownership category. The $250,000 limit on FDIC insurance generally represents the aggregate coverage available to an individual for all deposit accounts held in a custodial capacity on the individual's behalf at any particular insured financial institution. If the combined balances of your Deposit Sweep and any other single ownership categories that you have with the same bank exceeds $250,000, your total FDIC coverage for all single ownership categories with the same bank will be limited to $250,000, but if you have funds in a different insured depository Morgan Affiliate, those funds will be covered separately. Funds in a Deposit Sweep in excess of $250,000 will be uninsured.

You understand that the Bank may receive certain benefits from having client cash balances sweep into deposit accounts. For example, Chase Bank USA, N.A. and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. will obtain additional liquidity from clients' deposits.

Money Market Sweep Fund

Instead of the Deposit Sweep, uninvested cash balances and new cash deposits can be swept to a dividend-paying money market mutual fund (the "Money Market Sweep Fund") offered by a Morgan Affiliate so long as the selected Money Market Sweep Fund is available to accept funds for investment. Funds that are to be invested in a Money Market Sweep Fund will be held in a single consolidated JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. account overnight and invested in the designated Money Market Sweep Fund on the morning of the next business day. In the event of a failure of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. on the day that the balances are swept from the beneficial owner's account to the single consolidated JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. account, the balances will be considered deposits by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) and will be insured by the FDIC under its applicable insurance rules and limits. However, if JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. were to fail on the next business day, when the balances are invested in the Money Market Sweep Fund, the balance will not be considered deposits by the FDIC, and the beneficial owner's swept balances will be treated in one of two ways: (i) if the failed JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.'s assets were transferred to an acquiring institution, the swept balances will be returned back into the client's account on the business day following the failure of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.; or (ii) if the failed JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. will be dissolved, the client will receive a check or other payment from the FDIC to reacquire the client's allotted interest in the Money Market Sweep Fund in accordance with FDIC's normal procedures.

We have no duty to supervise any Money Market Sweep Fund and have not provided you with any investment advice or recommendation nor are we responsible for any act or omission, or the solvency of, any Money Market Sweep Fund. The transfer agent or distributor of the Money Market Sweep Fund has the sole responsibility to provide information to you about it. In certain states, money market mutual funds are marketed through J.P. Morgan Securities LLC.

Money Market Sweep Funds are mutual funds. Mutual funds are Securities. Securities are not bank deposits and are not FDIC insured nor are they obligations of or guaranteed by JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or its affiliates or any federal or state government or government agency or government sponsored agency. Securities involve investment risks, including the possible loss of the principal amount invested.

Although the Money Market Sweep Fund seeks to maintain a stable net asset value of $1.00 per share, there can be no assurance that it will continue to do so. The prospectus for a Money Market Sweep Fund should be reviewed before a decision is made to invest.

You appoint us, or our designated Morgan Affiliate, as your attorney-in-fact with full power and authority to purchase or redeem shares of the Money Market Sweep Fund or otherwise to effect transactions with your Money Market Sweep Fund as instructed by you, or to discharge any Obligation you owe to us or a Morgan Affiliate, or as required by the prospectus of the applicable Money Market Sweep Fund, or otherwise in accordance with this Agreement.

We are not obligated to continue to provide money market sweep services during any time that the Sweep Fund you select is not available to accept collected balances for investment.

Withdrawals from Your Sweep Account

We may refuse withdrawals from the Deposit Sweep or the Money Market Sweep Fund if funds are not available, or if the Account is pledged as collateral in respect of an outstanding Obligation or otherwise, or if we suspect legal violations, fraud, impropriety, or other irregularity, or if we are served with legal process affecting your Account. If there are insufficient funds in the Deposit Sweep or the Money Market Sweep Fund we may, at our discretion, transfer funds to cover any debit from proceeds of a loan drawn on the Line of Credit, if you have a Line of Credit.

On any day, and subject to the limitations described in this Agreement, you can withdraw the total balance of (i) the available balance in the Deposit Sweep or Money Market Sweep Fund, and (ii) if there is no available balance, at our discretion, the unused portion of your Line of Credit. In the event that the total balance is zero or less or in any other circumstance when funds cannot be transferred to cover debits or withdrawals that would result in an overdraft, we will have no obligation to honor any withdrawal, debit, or instruction to transfer funds, including payments for purchases of Securities or other Property. In the event that your action creates an overdraft and we agree to pay it, you will pay the entire amount of such overdraft balance immediately. Interest will be charged on such overdraft at a rate computed in accordance with our current rate schedule.

2. The Custody Account

Custody Accounts are maintained at the Morgan Affiliate determined to be most convenient when an Account is opened. The Morgan Affiliate with which your Custody Account is held is identified on your monthly statement.

Terms of Custody

We will record, on our books, your interest in Property that we hold directly or indirectly for your account as your custodial agent. Property may be held through one or more sub-custodians or securities depositories we select and may be registered in the name of our nominee, or in the name of the nominee of any depository or sub-custodian that we use. Your Securities may be treated as fungible with all other securities of the same issue pursuant to the provisions of applicable law.

We will make purchases, sales, and deliveries only in accordance with instructions given by you or an Authorized Person, but we are not obligated to make payments for purchases unless the total balance of your Deposit Sweep or Money Market Sweep Fund (collectively, a "Sweep") and/or Line of Credit (if we permit you to use your Line of Credit to purchase Securities) can cover the payment. If, however, we do make a payment on your instruction which exceeds the total balance, you will reimburse us immediately for the amount of the excess. We are not obligated to exchange or transfer Securities unless sufficient Securities actually are in the Custody Account and available for delivery.

We may, in our discretion, hold non-U.S. dollar currencies in your Account to effect transactions denominated in non-U.S. dollar currencies. We may convert one currency into another at any time and without prior notice at the current market rate for spot foreign exchange transactions or for forward foreign exchange transactions as reasonably determined by us or any Morgan Affiliate in our or its sole discretion. Deposits may be held, and transactions effected through, an account with an affiliate or another bank in the country where such currency is the lawful currency or in other countries where such currency may be lawfully held on deposit.

We will receive distributions of dividends, interest, stock, rights, and other similar payments and distributions with respect to Securities, present for payment maturing Securities and those called for redemption, sell any fractional interests in Securities resulting from a dividend of Securities, in all cases net of any applicable taxes or other charges withheld by the maker of such payment or distribution, and deposit funds received in your Asset Account.

We will exchange temporary certificates for definitive ones, or obtain new certificates if the par value of any shares is changed.

We will notify you of the following: (i) any rights offering by an issuer of Securities, and if we are not instructed how to exercise rights under an offering by the applicable deadline, then consistent with local market practice and applicable law, the rights will be sold in the principal market and the proceeds of sale deposited in your Asset Account; and (ii) the partial redemption of any Securities, and if your Securities are part of a fungible mass, we or the sub-custodian or securities depository may select the securities to participate in partial redemptions, partial payments, or other actions affecting less than all securities of the relevant class in any nondiscriminatory manner that you or it customarily uses to make such selection.

Promptly after receipt we will forward to you communications relating to any Securities held in your Custody Account that call for voting or other specific action (including materials relating to legal proceedings intended to be transmitted to holders of the Securities). With respect to any corporate events not listed above, we may (in the absence of an instruction from an Authorized Person within any prescribed deadline) take any action that we consider appropriate under the circumstances, provided that we will not be obligated to take any action with respect to any corporate event or any legal proceedings involving holders of Securities.

Unless you have instructed us otherwise in writing, or unless such release is mandatory or otherwise in accordance with these General Terms, we will not release to issuing companies your name, address, and share positions, in compliance with applicable laws.

You will be solely responsible for compliance with any notification or other requirement of any jurisdiction affecting your beneficial ownership of Property, and we will not be liable for your noncompliance with those requirements.

In some securities markets and cash clearing systems, deliveries of Securities and cash may be reversed under certain circumstances. Accordingly, credits of Securities and/or cash to the Custody Account are provisional and subject to reversal if, in accordance with relevant local law and practice, the delivery of the Securities or cash is reversed.

Appointment as Agent: Authorization

You appoint us, or our designated Morgan Affiliate, as your agent and authorize us to represent you in every respect, in your name and place, with regard to our acting as your agent pursuant to this Agreement. By way of example, but not by way of limitation, we or the appropriate sub-custodian are authorized to execute endorsements, assignments, or other instruments of conveyance or transfers of Securities or other

Property in the Account and to execute any other documents deemed necessary or desirable and proper in connection with our provision of services under this Agreement. Our signature or that of the appropriate sub-custodian, as well as any and all declarations or other documents, will be fully binding on you, and you will be fully liable for any and all dispositions made by us. This power is coupled with an interest and will survive your disability or incompetence. Our appointment as agent pursuant to this paragraph will not be understood to impose upon us any additional duties not expressly undertaken in this Agreement.

We, in our sole discretion, are also expressly authorized to employ agents and sub-agents in connection with our provision of services under this Agreement and pay reasonable compensation to such agents and sub-agents directly from the Account.

Standing Broker Transactions

We are authorized to accept and act on all instructions received from JPMS to either receive or deliver Property against payment into or from your Custody Account and to take funds from your Deposit Sweep or Money Market Sweep Account to pay for any transaction, service, or other fee on behalf of JPMS. You agree to assume all risks that may result from any action we take in reliance in good faith on instructions from JPMS. You will not send us separate settlement instructions for your Securities transactions.

We are authorized to receive from or deliver to any broker Securities as specified by the broker through the Depository Trust Company ("DTC") Interactive Institutional Delivery System. We will accept instructions through DTC from any broker and will automatically affirm and settle for your Custody Account each Securities transaction when your broker provides information to us through DTC's Interactive Institutional Delivery System or any other electronic execution, affirmation, confirmation, or delivery system for Securities in common use in the relevant market or markets for any particular instrument that we determine to be appropriate under the circumstances in our sole discretion. In carrying out these transactions, your broker will furnish you with confirmations directly and your broker will be responsible for the accuracy of the trade and any other transaction details.

3. Direct Purchase of JPM Funds or AC Funds

Subject to applicable law, you may purchase shares directly in one or more JPM Funds or AC Funds. In certain states, however, JPM Funds and AC Funds are available only through JPMS.

Your positions in JPM Funds and AC Funds will appear on your Asset Account statement, and you will not receive a separate statement from any Fund. All cash proceeds of redemptions of JPM Funds or AC Funds will be credited to your Asset Account and transferred to your Sweep. Dividends and capital gains distributions from JPM Funds or AC Funds will be reinvested unless you otherwise notify us at the time of purchase.

4. Banking Services

If you have selected banking services for your Account, uninvested cash held in the Account can be accessed through use of banking services, including checks, a banking card, electronic banking and funds transfer services. The use of banking services is governed by the Deposit Account Agreement; Appendix: Other Banking Services Relating to Accounts; and Appendix: Asset Account and Deposit Account – Funds Availability Policy Statement. You understand that you must also refer to the Banking Card Agreement you will receive when the Card is delivered to you.

Use of the Banking Card by an Authorized Person, presentment of a check signed by an Authorized Person, and requests for funds transfers will be an instruction to us to redeem shares of your Sweep Fund. We are also authorized to redeem the shares in your Sweep Fund to discharge any Obligation you owe to us or any Morgan Affiliate, or as required by the prospectus of the applicable Sweep Fund. This authorization extends to your Sweep Fund only, not to other assets held in the Account.

You may elect to transfer funds into or out of your Sweep Fund or cash on deposit by funds transfers, "Payment Orders" (fund transfers NOT governed by the Electronic Fund Transfer Act) or automated clearing house ("ACH") transactions. If you request us to arrange for domestic and/or international fund transfers and related services, you authorize us to accept such funds transfer instructions from you by telephone, tested telex, facsimile transmission, or in writing or other methods upon which we agree, and to receive funds sent to your Account.

5. Line of Credit

By checking the applicable box for banking services or for a line of credit in the Application, you are requesting us to extend credit to you from time to time as provided for in this Agreement (the "Line of Credit"). You understand that you will have only one Line of Credit, even if you have more than one Custody Account or Brokerage Account. In our sole discretion we will determine your credit limit under your Line of Credit from time to time, which in no event will be greater than the lending value of the Collateral. We have the right to modify the eligibility and lending value of any Collateral in our sole discretion.

JPMCB or another Morgan Affiliate will provide the Line of Credit. The Line of Credit will be extended to, and be an Obligation of, each of the Accountholders (if more than one), and each Accountholder will be jointly and severally liable for the Obligations under this Line of Credit.

The Asset Account statement will show the amounts drawn under your Line of Credit (each, a "Loan"). Subject to the terms of this Agreement, a Loan may be made whenever the cash on deposit and/or Sweep total balance is insufficient to pay an Item, electronic funds transfer (EFT) (as described in the Electronic Funds Transfer Services section of the Deposit Account Agreement) or any other debit. A minimum initial draw amount may be required. You hereby irrevocably authorize us, or our designated Morgan Affiliate, as your attorney-in-fact with full power and authority to effect such borrowing. We may at any time withdraw or modify the Line of Credit and demand repayment of any Loans, without prior notice, even though this may cause Items to be returned unpaid, authorizations for EFTs to be denied, or other debits to be rejected. Each Loan is secured by the Collateral in which you have granted us a security interest as described below.

You agree to repay us ON DEMAND the principal amount of any Loan under your Line of Credit and any related finance charges and other fees and charges in U.S. dollars in same-day funds.

You represent and warrant that you have not requested a Morgan Affiliate to arrange for us to finance your purchase of any Security underwritten or placed by a Morgan Affiliate during the period of underwriting or placement, or for 30 days thereafter, or to provide financing against such a Security as Collateral. You will not use any Loan to purchase shares of a JPM Fund or AC Fund or to purchase or fund capital calls owed in connection with investments in private equity, hedge, or similar funds established, sponsored, advised, managed by, or sold through, a Morgan Affiliate.

Security Interest; Events of Default

In order to secure the payment when due of any and all Obligations under your Line of Credit, you pledge and grant to us a continuing security interest in the Collateral. This security interest will apply to any Collateral (and proceeds thereof) now or at any time in the future held in or credited to any Account or other accounts maintained for you.

You acknowledge and agree that where we or any other Morgan Affiliate holds Collateral or are a securities intermediary in respect of any Collateral, we each hold the Collateral for yourself and also as agent for all other Morgan Affiliates who are secured parties hereunder pursuant to the Intercompany J.P. Morgan Securities Account Control Agreement among various Morgan Affiliates as amended or restated from time to time. We and other Morgan Affiliates have the right to take any further action necessary to perfect our respective security interests in the Collateral. You agree to execute any documents and take other action as we or any other Morgan Affiliate may reasonably request in order to allow us or any other Morgan Affiliate to perfect rights with respect to the Collateral. You appoint us and any other Morgan Affiliate as your attorney-in-fact to act on your behalf to sign and deliver all documents, and to do all acts as may be required to realize upon all rights in the Collateral. Such power is coupled with an interest and will survive your death or disability.

You agree that we will have full control of the Collateral and that any transfer affecting the Collateral is subject to our approval. Any contrary instruction you give will be of no effect regardless of any action we take. You may substitute collateral as long as it is substantially similar to the Collateral originally held by us, provided, however, we may elect not to accept such substitution. If we do not enforce our rights, we will not be deemed to have waived our rights in the Collateral.

"Event of Default" means your failure to pay (whether on demand or otherwise) or meet any Obligation under the Line of Credit; your failure to observe or perform any provision of this Agreement relating to the Line of Credit; your making any materially incorrect representation, warranty, certification or statement to us or a Morgan Affiliate in connection with the Line of Credit; your failure to provide financial information to us if we request it; your death, incapacity or incompetency; any entity that has Obligations under the Line of Credit is dissolved or ceases activity; a material judgment is entered against you; a bankruptcy, foreclosure or insolvency action or proceeding is brought by or against you; a writ or order of attachment or garnishment is made or issued against any of your Property; or a receiver is appointed for a portion of your Property.

At any time that an Event of Default has occurred we may: liquidate, sell or transfer all or any portion of the Collateral to satisfy your Obligations under the Line of Credit in whatever priority we, in our sole discretion, may lawfully choose; exercise all rights and remedies available to us under applicable law with respect to the Collateral we or any other Morgan Affiliate holds; or, exercise any other rights or remedies available to us pursuant to other agreements or applicable law.

Except for such notice as may be required under applicable law, we may make such sale or transfer without notice to you and sell any Collateral in any public, private, or restricted sale. We or any other Morgan Affiliate may be a purchaser at any sale of Collateral under this section. Each purchaser of any Collateral will receive the Collateral free of any right and claim you may have of whatsoever kind, including any equity of redemption, without your prior written consent which you waive.

In the event that we determine additional Collateral is required to meet any margin maintenance, Collateral or similar requirement with respect to any Obligations secured under this Agreement, we are authorized (but are not obliged) on your behalf to instruct any Morgan Affiliate holding Collateral to transfer Collateral, selected by us in our sole discretion, to your Account, in sufficient amount to meet any such requirements. Similarly, if any Morgan Affiliate instructs us to transfer Collateral from your Account to an Account held with it, we are authorized to do so.

In the event that your Loan Balance on any day exceeds your Line of Credit for any reason, you authorize us to (i) liquidate sufficient Collateral and/or (ii) debit your Deposit Sweep, (iii) redeem the necessary number of shares of your Money Market Sweep Account, or (iv) redeem the necessary number of shares in other JPM Funds or AC Funds, as we choose in our sole discretion, and to apply the proceeds to bring your Loan Balance within your Line of Credit.

No provision of this Agreement concerning liens or security interests will apply to your Account or the cash, Securities, or Property therein, to the extent that such application would result in an adverse tax consequence to your Account under any provision of the Internal Revenue Code relating to early distribution or withdrawal of assets held in qualified retirement accounts.

You have the power to grant a security interest in the Collateral and you are the sole owner of or have the right to transfer the Collateral to us, free and clear of all other liens or other restrictions. Upon the transfer of Collateral to us, we will have a valid and perfected first priority security interest in the Collateral and the Collateral will be fully marketable by us without any restriction on transferability, voting or dividends or limitations or restrictions relating to holding period, volume, filing or manner of sale, unless we have previously consented in writing to any restriction.

Interest Charges

You agree to pay interest charges determined as described below, on all Loans or related fees or other charges (collectively, the "Loan Balance") outstanding under your Line of Credit. Interest charges begin to accrue on the day a Loan is made, or a fee or other charge is due, and continue to accrue until the Loan Balance is paid in full.

We will determine the applicable interest charge by applying the Daily Periodic Rate to the Daily Balance of your Line of Credit.

The "Daily Balance" is the beginning balance of a Line of Credit each day plus the amount of any Loans or other debits made during the day minus the amount of any payments or other credits made during the day.

The Daily Periodic Rate and corresponding Annual Percentage Rate are variable rates and therefore may increase or decrease during the billing cycle. The "Daily Periodic Rate" will be equal to the applicable interest rate divided by 360. The applicable interest rate is the rate of interest announced by JPMCB from time to time as our Line of Credit Borrowing Rate (the "Borrowing Rate") in the list of current rates that we have separately provided to you. The corresponding "Annual Percentage Rate" is the Daily Periodic Rate multiplied by 365.

The Daily Periodic Rate and corresponding Annual Percentage Rate increase when the Borrowing Rate increases and decrease when the Borrowing Rate decreases. An increase in the Daily Periodic Rate and corresponding Annual Percentage Rate means you pay a larger interest charge. A decrease in the Daily Periodic Rate and corresponding Annual Percentage Rate means you pay a smaller interest charge. There is no limit on the amount by which the Daily Periodic Rate and corresponding Annual Percentage Rate may change at any one time or over the life of the Line of Credit. If the Borrowing Rate changes, the Daily Periodic Rate and corresponding Annual Percentage Rate will be increased or decreased on the effective date of such change in the Borrowing Rate. The new Daily Periodic Rate will be applied to the Daily Balance beginning on that day. The current Borrowing Rate schedule will be provided to you upon request.

If you fail to pay any Obligation when demanded or due or there is an Event of Default under the Line of Credit, you agree to pay an interest charge at two percentage points (2%) above the applicable rate that would otherwise be in effect.

Without prejudice to your obligation to make payment on demand, you agree to pay all of your interest charges on the first Business Day of each month. Such amount will automatically be paid from your Deposit Sweep or Money Market Sweep Account to the extent there are sufficient available funds. In the event the total balance is insufficient, you agree to pay such interest charges from other sources upon our demand.

Your Line of Credit shall be governed by federal law applicable to JPMCB and the law of the state identified in the address of the account owner in the Application.

Billing Rights: Keep This Document For Future Use. The following sections tell you about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

What to Do If You Find a Mistake on Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your Asset Account statement relating to your Line of Credit, you will send us a letter to:

JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.
500 Stanton Christiana Road, 1/OP53
Newark, DE 19713-2107

In your letter, you will give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and Asset Account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us:

- Within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.
- At least three business days before an automated payment is scheduled, if you want to stop payment on the amount you think is wrong.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing (or electronically). You may telephone us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

What Will Happen After We Receive Your Letter

When we receive your letter, we must do two things:

- Within 30 days of receiving your letter, we must tell you that we received your letter. We must also tell you if we have already corrected the error.
- Within 90 days of receiving your letter, we must either correct the error or explain to you why we believe the statement was correct.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

After we finish our investigation, one of two things will happen:

- If we made a mistake: You will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- If we do not believe there was a mistake: You will have to pay the amount in question, along with applicable interest and fees. We will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date payment is due. We may then report you as delinquent if you do not pay the amount we think you owe.

Filed: 03/12/2018 Pages: 1000

If you receive our explanation but still believe your Asset Account statement is wrong, you must write to us within 10 days telling us that you still refuse to pay. If you do so, we cannot report you as delinquent without also reporting that you are questioning your statement. We must tell you the name of anyone to whom we reported you as delinquent, and we must let those organizations know when the matter has been settled between us.

If we do not follow all of the rules above, you do not have to pay the first $50 of the amount you question even if your Asset Account statement is correct.

AGREEMENTS FOR ACCOUNTS AND SERVICES OFFERED THROUGH J.P. MORGAN SECURITIES LLC AND J.P. MORGAN ENTITIES

The parties to the agreements set forth below shall consist of the client and J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, its successor firms, present and future direct or indirect subsidiaries, affiliates and assigns with which the client transacts securities brokerage business. (Each affiliate is referred to as a "J.P. Morgan entity" and all J.P. Morgan entities together with J.P. Morgan Securities LLC are referred to collectively as "J.P. Morgan").

JPMS obligations and the Securities sold, offered, or recommended by JPMS are not deposits and are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC"). JPMS is not a bank and is a separate legal entity from JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. ("JPMCB") and all other Morgan Affiliates. The obligations of JPMS are not obligations of JPMCB or any other Morgan Affiliate (unless explicitly stated otherwise), and neither JPMCB nor any other Morgan Affiliate is responsible for Securities sold, offered, or recommended by JPMS. JPMCB and other Morgan Affiliates may be lenders to issuers of Securities that JPMS underwrites, in which case proceeds of offerings underwritten by JPMS may be used for the repayment of such loans. The disclosure documents relating to particular Securities will discuss any such lending relationships.

Brokerage Accounts will be subject to the Brokerage Account Agreement below. Margin Accounts will be subject to the Margin Account Agreement (which incorporates the terms of the Brokerage Account Agreement).

BROKERAGE ACCOUNT AGREEMENT

1. Nature of Services

(a) A J.P. Morgan entity will execute transactions accepted by it and/or will provide such other clearance, settlement and custody services in connection with the maintenance of the client's Account(s) at J.P. Morgan.

(b) All investments executed through a J.P. Morgan Brokerage Account are made upon the client's sole discretion, risk and responsibility. J.P. Morgan may choose to contact clients about investment opportunities J.P. Morgan believes may be of interest to a client, but J.P. Morgan is not obliged to provide the client with any financial, market or investment information, nor advice or oversight with respect to asset allocation. J.P. Morgan personnel do not take discretion over any client Accounts, although the client may obtain such advice and services from JPMCB under separate agreements.

(c) Any J.P. Morgan entity that is a party to this Agreement is acting as a broker-dealer and/or custodian, and not as (1) an investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, or (2) a "fiduciary" as defined in Section 3(21) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA") or Section 4975 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Code"), with respect to the client's Account(s) under this Agreement. Brokerage activities are regulated under different laws and rules than advisory activities and generally do not give rise to the fiduciary duties that an investment adviser has to its clients. When acting in a brokerage capacity, J.P. Morgan has a duty to deal fairly with brokerage clients but may face certain conflicts of interest and as such, J.P. Morgan's interests may differ from those of its clients. Neither J.P. Morgan nor its employees are authorized to provide, and shall not provide, legal, estate planning, tax or accounting advice or services and the client will not solicit or rely upon any such advice from them whether in connection with transactions in any of the client's Accounts or otherwise. The client has consulted or will consult with the client's own technical, legal, regulatory, tax, business, investment, financial and accounting advisors to the extent the client deems necessary in determining the investment and trading strategy appropriate for the client and the appropriateness of each transaction.

J.P. Morgan assumes no responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of or the performance or outcome or tax consequences of any investment made by the client as a result of receiving information from J.P. Morgan, and J.P. Morgan has no obligation to update the information or recommendation provided. J.P. Morgan's recommendation does not imply any endorsement or guarantee.

(d) J.P. Morgan shall not be obligated to take any action or render any advice with respect to the voting of proxies related to issues of securities held in a client's Account(s). Further, there may be instances when the client may not be able to exercise voting or other rights of ownership. The J.P. Morgan entity that acts as custodian for the Account will forward all proxies received by it, including proxy solicitation material and other related material, including interim reports, annual reports and other issuer mailings to the client and the client is responsible for providing such J.P. Morgan entity with any applicable instructions or directions contemplated by such communications.

(e) In addition to retaining the sole responsibility for investment decisions and shareholder actions, the client is responsible for knowing the rights and terms of all securities in the client's Brokerage Account, specifically including valuable rights that may expire unless the client takes action. This includes, but is not limited to, warrants, stock rights, convertible securities, bonds, and securities subject to a tender or exchange offer. J.P. Morgan has no obligation to notify the client of any upcoming expiration or redemption dates, or, except as required by applicable law or regulation, to take any action on the client's behalf without specific instructions from the client.

(f) Unless the client has instructed J.P. Morgan otherwise in writing, or such release is mandatory, J.P. Morgan is authorized to release to issuing companies the client's name, address, and share positions, in compliance with applicable laws.

2. Satisfaction of Liabilities; Security Interest and Lien

(a) The client agrees to satisfy each and every obligation or liability owed to J.P. Morgan (such obligations or liabilities, whether fixed, matured, unmatured, liquidated, unliquidated or contingent, "Obligations") when due, including without limitation, to pay any debit balance in any Account and any costs described in this Agreement and in the event of a sell or redemption order by the client, to deliver the applicable security in good deliverable form no later than the deadline set by J.P. Morgan if the applicable security is not credited to an Account at the time such order is placed or settled.

(b) To secure the payment and performance of Obligations to each J.P. Morgan entity providing products or services to the client pursuant to this Agreement, the client hereby grants each such J.P. Morgan entity a lien on and a valid and first priority, perfected, continuing security interest in the following: (i) all property, including all investment property, held, carried or controlled by or through any J.P. Morgan entity in which J.P. Morgan presently has or in which the client acquires an interest in the future, including all property in each Account in the client's name, (ii) any and all rights, claims or causes of action the client may now or hereafter have against any J.P. Morgan entity and (iii) all proceeds of or distributions on the foregoing (collectively (i) through (iii) are referred to in this Agreement as "Collateral"). Each item of property, including Investment Property, a Security, a general intangible, contract rights, an Instrument and cash, held in or credited to any Securities Account at a Securities Intermediary shall be treated as a Financial Asset. All undefined terms in the preceding sentence shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the New York Uniform Commercial Code ("NYUCC"), as in effect from time to time.

(c) Any Collateral held by a J.P. Morgan entity is held by such J.P. Morgan entity as agent and bailee for itself and all other J.P. Morgan entities. Each J.P. Morgan entity holding Collateral shall, without the client's further consent, comply with (i) entitlement orders or instructions from a J.P. Morgan entity with respect to the Collateral and (ii) if such J.P. Morgan entity holding Collateral is a commodity intermediary, any instructions to such J.P. Morgan entity from another J.P. Morgan entity to apply any value distributed on account of a commodity contract. Additionally, each J.P. Morgan entity holding Collateral has the right, in its sole discretion, (i) to decline to enter into control agreements with third parties and (ii) to decline to comply with (a) any entitlement order or instruction from the client or a third party with respect to the Collateral and (b) any instruction from the client to apply any value on account of any commodity contract, if a J.P. Morgan entity requests that such order or instruction not be complied with in order to maintain security for the payment and performance of the client's Obligations to it. Further, each J.P. Morgan entity is authorized, at any time and without notice to the client, to transfer Collateral from any Account to any account of an obligor for which J.P. Morgan has provided a guarantee within such J.P. Morgan entity and/or at any other J.P. Morgan entity to collateralize or satisfy any Obligations of such obligor. The client agrees that the actions of a J.P. Morgan entity in declining to comply with orders or instructions as allowed in this Section 2(c) satisfies any duties J.P. Morgan may have under the NYUCC.

(d) The client agrees that the client's execution of this Agreement shall constitute notice to each J.P. Morgan entity of the security interest the client has granted to each other J.P. Morgan entity herein, and each J.P. Morgan entity holding Collateral is on notice of the security interest granted to each other J.P. Morgan entity.

(e) The reasonable costs and expenses of collection of any such indebtedness or debit balance, including but not limited to attorneys' fees and expenses, shall be payable by the client to J.P. Morgan.

(f) In order to secure the payment and performance of any of the client's outstanding Obligations to any J.P. Morgan entity, J.P. Morgan may, to the fullest extent permitted by law, without prior notice to the client use, apply or transfer Collateral as it determines. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, J.P. Morgan may register and hold Collateral in its name or the name of its designee.

(g) The client appoints J.P. Morgan with full power as the client's true and lawful attorney in fact, to the fullest extent permitted by law, for the purpose of perfecting the security interest granted in this Agreement and taking any action and executing any instrument that J.P. Morgan deems necessary or advisable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement.

3. Restrictions on Trading

In its sole discretion, J.P. Morgan may prohibit or restrict trading in a Brokerage Account. The client shall nevertheless remain liable for all of the client's Obligations to J.P. Morgan under this Agreement or otherwise.

4. Representations and Warranties

The client hereby represents and warrants to J.P. Morgan that: (i) no other party has an interest or shall have an interest in the Property or Collateral unless J.P. Morgan has consented in writing to the other party's interest; (ii) the client has the right to pledge and assign Collateral to J.P. Morgan; (iii) except as the client may have informed or may from time to time inform J.P. Morgan in writing, the client is not an affiliate (as defined in Rule 144(a)(1) under the Securities Act of 1933) of the issuer of any Security held in a Margin Account; (iv) since the date of the client's most recent audited or unaudited financial statements (if any) there has been no material adverse change in the client's business, financial condition, results of operations or prospects; (v) the client has not taken or failed to take, and shall not take any action or fail to take, any action with respect to an Account(s) that would result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under ERISA, the Code or any applicable state, local or non-U.S. law that is similar to the provisions of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code; and (vi) all of the client's other representations made in the Account application and under the General Terms and Brokerage Account Agreement continue to be true.

5. Confirmation Reports and Account Statements

Confirmation reports of transactions shall be conclusive if not objected to in writing by the client within the shorter of (i) the applicable settlement cycle of the subject transactions or (ii) three (3) business days after such documents have been transmitted to the client by mail or otherwise. Statements of Account(s) shall be conclusive if not objected to in writing by the client within thirty (30) Business Days after transmission. In all cases, J.P. Morgan reserves the right to challenge a client's objections.

6. Service Fees; Taxes

(a) J.P. Morgan may charge Brokerage Accounts for brokerage commissions, mark-ups, inactivity fees (if applicable) and other fees for the maintenance of Account(s), the execution of transactions, fails, buy-ins, and currency conversions, and for furnishing other services to the client (collectively, "Service Fees"). Service Fees may be implemented or increased from time to time.

(b) The client will be responsible for and pay any applicable value added tax and such other taxes, duties and fees applicable to activities in the client's Account(s). Amounts owed to J.P. Morgan shall not be affected by any taxes, duties or other amounts J.P. Morgan may owe to any third party. If the client is required by law to make any deduction or withholding from any payment due to J.P. Morgan, the client shall pay to J.P. Morgan simultaneously with making such payment an additional amount as may be necessary in order for the total amount received by J.P. Morgan after all deductions and withholdings to be equal to the amount which J.P. Morgan would have received had no deduction or withholding been made. Any and all taxes, including any interest and penalties with respect thereto, which may be levied or assessed under present or future laws upon or in respect to the client's Account(s), activities or upon or in respect of income thereof shall be paid by the client. All Service Fees, charges, expenses, disbursements and taxes as described above may be deducted by J.P. Morgan from the client's Account(s).

7. Payments to J.P. Morgan

J.P. Morgan may receive payments or other remuneration from the advisers, distributors or other affiliates of certain of the mutual funds available through J.P. Morgan. Such payments or remuneration are for administrative, technological or other services provided in connection with fund Accounts and generally are calculated based on the amount of assets held in the Accounts. Such payments or other remuneration are in addition to shareholder servicing and distribution fees that J.P. Morgan may receive. Funds whose affiliates do not make payments to J.P. Morgan, including funds that may provide a higher or lower return, may be available to clients. Further, in certain instances, J.P. Morgan may be paid both by clients and certain other third parties who compensate J.P. Morgan based upon what clients purchase and J.P. Morgan's profits and compensation may vary by product and over time.

8. Control or Restricted Securities

The client hereby agrees, prior to placing an order with J.P. Morgan, to inform J.P. Morgan if the securities are restricted or control securities and subject to: Rule 144, 144A, 145 or 701 of the Securities Act of 1933 ("Securities Act"); an effective registration statement; and/or any contractual limitation. The client understands and agrees that J.P. Morgan may not execute any orders regarding restricted or control securities until J.P. Morgan has conducted its due diligence surrounding the transaction and may in its sole discretion decline to execute the order until the securities have cleared legal transfer. The client further agrees to provide, without cost to J.P. Morgan, all documentation required by J.P. Morgan to complete the order, including, but not limited to, any required forms, representation letters, opinions of seller's counsel and transfer documentation and authorizes J.P. Morgan to communicate with the issuer of the restricted or control securities, its attorneys and its transfer agent in connection with the client's transaction. Furthermore, the client acknowledges and agrees that there may be time delays in connection with the due diligence process, the execution of the order and the processing of the transaction and further acknowledges and agrees that the proceeds of the transactions may not be paid until the securities have been transferred into street name and delivered, free of restrictive legend and stop transfer instruction. J.P. Morgan shall not be liable for any losses, direct or indirect, that may have been caused by such delays.

9. Short and Long Sales

Short sales must be executed in a Margin Account. In placing any sell order for a long Account, the client will designate the order as such and hereby authorizes J.P. Morgan to mark the order as being "long." The designation by the client of a sell order as being for a long Account shall constitute a representation by the client that the client owns the security with respect to which the sell order has been placed, that such security may be sold without restriction in the open market and that, if J.P. Morgan does not have the security in its possession at the time the client places the sell order, the client shall deliver the security by settlement date in good deliverable form and if the client fails to deliver as such, J.P. Morgan is authorized (but is not required to) to borrow, purchase, or otherwise acquire the security in order to make delivery. The client shall be liable to J.P. Morgan for any losses and expenses it may incur or sustain as a result of the client's failure to make delivery on a timely basis and for any loss, expense, premium and other costs incurred in connection with borrowing, purchase or acquisition of the required securities.

10. Obligations Upon Termination

Upon termination of this Agreement or the closing of the client's Account(s), the client will be responsible for issuing instructions in writing with regard to the assets held in the Account(s). Unless and until J.P. Morgan receives such instructions, it will be under no obligation to take any action with regard to the Securities and Property in the Accounts. The client agrees to be responsible for any transaction costs associated with the client's instructions, including commissions and related costs.

THE FOLLOWING SECTION REGARDING ARBITRATION APPLIES ONLY TO BROKERAGE AND MARGIN ACCOUNTS WITH A J.P. MORGAN ENTITY11. Arbitration; Consent to Jurisdiction; Service of Process

(a) THIS AGREEMENT CONTAINS A PREDISPUTE ARBITRATION

Case: 17-2595 Document: 12-14
 CLAUSE. BY SIGNING AN ARBITRATION AGREEMENT THE PARTIES AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

- ALL PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT ARE GIVING UP THE RIGHT TO SUE EACH OTHER IN COURT, INCLUDING THE RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY, EXCEPT AS PROVIDED BY THE RULES OF THE ARBITRATION FORUM IN WHICH A CLAIM IS FILED.
- ARBITRATION AWARDS ARE GENERALLY FINAL AND BINDING; A PARTY'S ABILITY TO HAVE A COURT REVERSE OR MODIFY AN ARBITRATION AWARD IS VERY LIMITED.
- THE ABILITY OF THE PARTIES TO OBTAIN DOCUMENTS, WITNESS STATEMENTS AND OTHER DISCOVERY IS GENERALLY MORE LIMITED IN ARBITRATION THAN IN COURT PROCEEDINGS.
- THE ARBITRATORS DO NOT HAVE TO EXPLAIN THE REASON(S) FOR THEIR AWARD, UNLESS, IN AN ELIGIBLE CASE, A JOINT REQUEST FOR AN EXPLAINED DECISION HAS BEEN SUBMITTED BY ALL PARTIES TO THE PANEL AT LEAST 20 DAYS PRIOR TO THE FIRST SCHEDULED HEARING DATE.
- THE PANEL OF ARBITRATORS WILL TYPICALLY INCLUDE A MINORITY OF ARBITRATORS WHO WERE OR ARE AFFILIATED WITH THE SECURITIES INDUSTRY.
- THE RULES OF SOME ARBITRATION FORUMS MAY IMPOSE TIME LIMITS FOR BRINGING A CLAIM IN ARBITRATION. IN SOME CASES, A CLAIM THAT IS INELIGIBLE FOR ARBITRATION MAY BE BROUGHT IN COURT.
- THE RULES OF THE ARBITRATION FORUM IN WHICH THE CLAIM IS FILED, AND ANY AMENDMENTS THERETO, SHALL BE INCORPORATED INTO THIS AGREEMENT.
- NO PERSON SHALL BRING A PUTATIVE OR CERTIFIED CLASS ACTION TO ARBITRATION, NOR SEEK TO ENFORCE ANY PRE DISPUTE ARBITRATION AGREEMENT AGAINST ANY PERSON WHO HAS INITIATED IN COURT A PUTATIVE CLASS ACTION OR WHO IS A MEMBER OF A PUTATIVE CLASS WHO HAS NOT OPTED OUT OF THE CLASS WITH RESPECT TO ANY CLAIMS ENCOMPASSED BY THE PUTATIVE CLASS ACTION UNTIL:
 - i) THE CLASS CERTIFICATION IS DENIED;
 - ii) THE CLASS IS DECERTIFIED; OR
 - iii) THE CLIENT IS EXCLUDED FROM THE CLASS BY THE COURT. SUCH FORBEARANCE TO ENFORCE AN AGREEMENT TO ARBITRATE SHALL NOT CONSTITUTE A WAIVER OF ANY RIGHTS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT STATED HEREIN.
- BY ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT THE CLIENT AND J.P. MORGAN AGREE THAT CONTROVERSIES ARISING UNDER OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY ACTIVITY BETWEEN THE CLIENT AND J.P. MORGAN, ITS PREDECESSORS, AND ANY OF THEIR RESPECTIVE SUCCESSORS, ASSIGNS, AND ANY OF THEIR, DIRECTORS, EMPLOYEES, AND ANY OTHER CONTROL PERSONS AND ANY OF THEIR AGENTS, WHETHER ARISING PRIOR TO, ON OR SUBSEQUENT TO THE DATE HEREOF, SHALL BE DETERMINED BY ARBITRATION AND IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE RULES OF THE FINANCIAL INDUSTRY REGULATORY AUTHORITY, INC. ("FINRA") BEFORE AN ARBITRATION PANEL APPOINTED BY FINRA IN ACCORDANCE WITH ITS RULES, AND SUCH HEARING OR HEARINGS SHALL BE CONDUCTED IN A LOCALE SELECTED BY FINRA. THE AWARD OF THE ARBITRATORS, OR OF THE MAJORITY OF THEM, SHALL BE FINAL, AND JUDGMENT UPON THE AWARD RENDERED MAY BE ENTERED IN ANY COURT, STATE OR FEDERAL, HAVING JURISDICTION.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (a) above, either party may, at any time prior to the initial arbitration hearing pertaining to such dispute or controversy, seek by application to the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York or the Supreme Court of the State of New York for the County of New York any such temporary or provisional relief or remedy ("Provisional Remedy") provided for by the laws of the U.S. or the laws of the State of New York as would be available in an action based upon such dispute or controversy in the absence of an agreement to arbitrate. The parties acknowledge and agree that it is their intention to have any such application for a Provisional Remedy decided by the Court to which this made and that such application shall not be referred to or settled by arbitration. No such application to either said Court for a Provisional Remedy, nor any act or conduct by either party in furtherance of or in opposition to such application, shall constitute a relinquishment or waiver of any right to have the underlying dispute or controversy with respect to which such application is made settled by arbitration in accordance with subparagraph (a) above.

(c) With respect to any application for a Provisional Remedy and any application for judgment on an arbitration award, each party irrevocably (i) submits to the jurisdiction of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York or the Supreme Court of the State of New York for the County of New York, (ii) waives any objection which it may have at any time to the laying of venue of any proceedings brought in any such court, waives any claim that such proceedings have been brought in an inconvenient forum and further waives the right to object, with respect to such proceedings, that such court does not have any jurisdiction over such party, and (iii) consents to service of process by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the address provided for herein.

(d) The client hereby agrees to receive service of process in connection with any legal matters or actions or proceedings based upon, arising out of or relating in any way to this Agreement by confirmed, return-receipt requested mail and that delivery shall be presumed if such service is mailed to the address maintained by J.P. Morgan in its records.

(e) The client agrees that in any arbitration proceeding with J.P. Morgan, the arbitrators shall be bound by, and obligated to follow, the substantive law of the State of New York and of the United States regardless of where the agreement was executed, except to the extent that such laws would permit the arbitrators to disregard the substantive laws of the State of New York and the United States.

(f) The client agrees that the terms of any settlement or any award determined by arbitration shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed by the client, the client's attorneys or the client's representatives under any circumstances unless required by applicable law, judicial proceeding, or self-regulatory organization rule or order.

(g) This arbitration provision may be waived only with the written agreement of J.P. Morgan.

12. Severability

If and to the extent any term or provision herein is or should become invalid or unenforceable, then (i) the remaining terms and provisions hereof shall be unimpaired and remain in full force and effect and (ii) the invalid or unenforceable provision or term shall be replaced by a term or provision that is valid and enforceable and that comes closest to expressing the intention of such invalid or unenforceable term or provision.

13. Affiliations

If the client is a natural person, the client represents that unless the client has notified J.P. Morgan to the contrary, neither the client nor any member of the client's immediate family is: (i) an employee or member of any exchange, (ii) an employee or member of FINRA, (iii) an employee of any corporation or firm engaged in the business of dealing, as broker or principal, in securities, options or futures or (iv) an employee of any bank, trust company or insurance company. Persons signing on behalf of others should indicate the titles or capacities in which they are signing. If any of the foregoing information changes, the client agrees to notify J.P. Morgan promptly. If the client is required to obtain his or her employer's consent before opening a securities account, the client has obtained such consent.

14. Custody

Unless the client specifies otherwise, JPMCB will act as custodian of the Property in all brokerage Accounts in accordance with the provisions relating to the Custody Account in the Asset Account Agreement.

15. Prohibition Against Trading Ahead of Customer Orders

FINRA Rule 5320 generally prohibits member firms that accept and hold orders for equity securities from trading those securities for their own account at a price that would satisfy the underlying orders, unless the member immediately thereafter executes the underlying orders at the same or better price than it traded for its own account. Described below are certain exceptions to the Rule and an explanation of how J.P. Morgan will handle those exceptions. Please note that consistent with regulatory guidance, not-held orders are outside the scope of the Rule.

Large orders (orders of 10,000 or more shares with a total value of $100,000 or more) and orders executed on behalf of institutional accounts are excepted from the requirements of Rule 5320. JPMS will generally work such orders in accordance with customer instructions. While working such orders, JPMS may trade for its own account at prices that would satisfy the customer order. Clients who wish to opt in to the Rule 5320 protections in regards to large orders or orders executed on behalf of institutional accounts should contact their J.P. Morgan representative.

In addition, if a firm implements and utilizes an effective system of internal controls, Rule 5320 permits the respective separate units to trade independent of one another for purposes of the Rule. JPMS maintains Rule 5320 internal controls known as information barriers between its trading units. The information barriers are designed to prevent one trading unit from having knowledge of customer orders held by a different trading unit. With these barriers in place, one trading unit may hold a customer order while another trading unit, including the market making trading unit, executes an order for a firm account that would satisfy the customer order.

16. SEC Rule 13h-1 Large Trader

A Large Trader is, among other definitions, a person who directly, or indirectly through the control of another person, exercises investment discretion over one or more accounts which trade equities and/or listed options in an aggregate amount that equals or exceeds 2 million shares or $20 million fair market value during any calendar day; or equals or exceeds 20 million shares or $200 million fair market value over any calendar month. If you or another person exercising investment discretion over your accounts with J.P. Morgan is a Large Trader, you are required to complete an SEC Form 13H application and submit it to the SEC. If you or another person exercising investment discretion over your accounts with J.P. Morgan have been assigned a Large Trader ID (LTID) by the SEC or are assigned one in the future, it is your responsibility to provide the appropriate LTID information to J.P. Morgan so that your account information can be updated accordingly.

MARGIN DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

This Margin Agreement provides some basic facts about purchasing Securities on margin and will alert the client to certain risks involved with trading Securities in a Margin Account. Before trading Securities in a Margin Account, the client will fully review all terms and conditions of this Margin Agreement and the client will consult J.P. Morgan regarding any questions or concerns the client has about the Margin Account.

When the client purchases Securities, the client may pay for Securities in full unless the client borrows part of the purchase price from J.P. Morgan through a Margin Account. The Securities purchased are J.P. Morgan's Collateral for the loan extended to the client. If the Securities in the Account decline in value, so does the value of the Collateral supporting the loan and, as a result, J.P. Morgan can take action, including issuing a margin call and/or selling Securities or other assets in any of the client's Accounts, in order to maintain the required ratio of debt to equity in the Account.

The client fully understands the risks of trading Securities on margin, which are heightened over purchasing them in full with the client's own existing funds. These risks include, but are not limited to, the following:

- The client can lose more funds than the client deposits in the Margin Account. A decline in the value of Securities that are purchased on margin may require that the client provide additional funds to avoid the forced sale of those Securities or other Securities or assets in the client's Accounts.
- J.P. Morgan can force the sale of Securities or other assets in the client's Accounts. If the equity in an Account falls below the margin requirements or J.P. Morgan's higher "house" requirements, J.P. Morgan can sell the Securities or other assets in the Accounts to cover the margin deficiency. The client will also be responsible for any shortfall in the Account after such a sale.
- J.P. Morgan is not required to contact the client for a margin call to be valid, and J.P. Morgan may liquidate Securities or other assets in Accounts to meet the margin call without contacting the client first or obtaining the client's permission. J.P. Morgan may take all necessary steps to protect its financial interests, including immediately liquidating Securities or other assets without prior notice to the client and without the client's consent.
- Because the Securities are collateral for the margin loan, the client is not entitled to choose which Securities or other assets in the Accounts will be liquidated or sold to meet a margin call. J.P. Morgan has the sole right to decide which Securities and assets to sell in order to protect its interests.
- J.P. Morgan can increase its "house" maintenance margin requirements at any time and is not required to provide to the client advance notice, in writing or otherwise. These changes in J.P. Morgan's policy often take effect immediately and may result in the issuance of a maintenance margin call. The client's failure to satisfy the call may result in the liquidation or sale of Securities in the client's Accounts.
- The client is not entitled to an extension of time on a margin call. While an extension of time to meet margin requirements may be available to clients under certain circumstances and at J.P. Morgan's sole discretion, a client does not have the right to an extension.

MARGIN ACCOUNT AGREEMENT1. Margin and Other Collateral Requirements

The client agrees (i) to deposit and maintain such margin in the client's margin Account(s) as J.P. Morgan may in its sole discretion require; (ii) to pay on demand any debit balance owing with respect to any of the client's margin Account(s); (iii) that margin calls may be communicated orally, without subsequent written confirmation; (iv) to deposit promptly and maintain such other Collateral with J.P. Morgan as is required by applicable law or regulation or by J.P. Morgan under this Agreement or any other agreement; and (v) that no demands, calls, tenders or notices that J.P. Morgan may have made or given in the past shall obligate J.P. Morgan to make or give the same in the future.

2. Breach, Bankruptcy or Default, Remedies

(a) Each J.P. Morgan entity may elect to consider the client in default of any or all agreements the client may then have with it if: (i) the client does not pay any liability or perform any Obligation to any J.P. Morgan entity by the time the client is obligated to do so; (ii) the client otherwise breaches, repudiates or defaults under this Agreement or any other agreement the client may have with any J.P. Morgan entity; (iii) the client commences a proceeding in bankruptcy or insolvency or one is commenced against the client; (iv) any guarantor, co signer or other party (a "Responsible Party") liable for or providing security for the client's Obligations to any J.P. Morgan entity defaults in its obligation to J.P. Morgan or commences a proceeding in bankruptcy or insolvency or one is commenced against it; (v) an attachment is made against the client or a Responsible Party's Account(s) with any J.P. Morgan entity; (vi) a receiver is appointed with respect to the client, any of assets of the client or the assets of a Responsible Party; (vii) if the client is a natural person, the client dies or becomes incompetent, and if the client is an entity, the client merges, liquidates or dissolves; or (viii) an event, circumstance or condition occurs that, in J.P. Morgan's judgment, materially impairs the client's creditworthiness, ability to timely perform Obligations to J.P. Morgan or otherwise causes J.P. Morgan to view itself as insecure. The occurrence of any of the foregoing is referred to as an "Event of Default."

(b) Upon the election by J.P. Morgan to consider the client in default, each J.P. Morgan entity shall have all of the rights and remedies of a secured party upon default under the NYUCC and other applicable laws and may, without notice to the client among other things, (i) in whole or in part, accelerate, cancel, terminate, liquidate or otherwise close out this Agreement in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and (ii) foreclose, collect, sell or otherwise liquidate any Collateral a J.P. Morgan entity selects in its sole discretion, in any order and at any time, and apply, in a manner determined by J.P. Morgan in its sole discretion, the proceeds to satisfy any of the client's Obligations to any J.P. Morgan entity and (iii) buy any property that may have been sold short and (iv) retain any Collateral and (v) set-off, net, and/or recoup a J.P. Morgan entity's obligation to the client against any of the client's Obligations to any J.P. Morgan entity, and the client's Obligations to a J.P. Morgan entity shall be deemed performed and discharged to the extent any J.P. Morgan entity has effected a valid and unavoidable set-off, netting or recoupment, and the client expressly waives any requirement of mutuality to allow one J.P. Morgan entity to set-off, net or recoup any Obligation owed by the client to a J.P. Morgan entity against any obligation of a different J.P. Morgan entity to the client and (vi) calculate any obligation due to the client by first deducting any Obligation that the client owes to any J.P. Morgan entity before determining the final amount of any such obligation and (vii) in each J.P. Morgan entity's discretion, convert at the client's expense any Obligation from one currency into another currency at such rates as J.P. Morgan shall determine and (viii) take any other action permitted by law or in equity to protect, preserve or enforce J.P. Morgan's rights or to reduce any risk to J.P. Morgan of loss or delay, including entering into hedging transactions for the client's Account(s) and risk.

(c) At any sale of Collateral or other sale or purchase permitted hereunder or otherwise, J.P. Morgan may sell or purchase to or from itself or third parties, and the client hereby acknowledges and agrees that the securities subject to such sale or purchase are instruments traded in a recognized market. The client will pay each J.P. Morgan entity for any losses and costs incurred by J.P. Morgan as a result of any default by the client. The client waives marshalling of assets and any similar doctrine dealing with the application of Collateral. J.P. Morgan's rights and remedies hereunder are cumulative and are in addition to any other rights and remedies available at law or in equity.

3. Short Sales

The client will designate any short sales as such and hereby authorizes J.P. Morgan to mark the order as being "short" or "short exempt." Short sales are margin transactions and must be conducted in a Margin Account. Short sale transactions are subject to certain regulatory rules and cannot be executed under certain market conditions. J.P. Morgan does not guarantee that it will be able to locate Securities to facilitate a short sale. J.P. Morgan may, in its discretion and without notice to the client, "buy in" Securities to cover any short security position in the client's Margin Account. If the client is unable to cover a short security position (either through delivery of the Security or through J.P. Morgan "buying in" the Security) in enough time for J.P. Morgan to deliver the Security to its lender (to whom J.P. Morgan is obligated), the client agrees to reimburse J.P. Morgan for the losses J.P. Morgan sustains as a result of the client's failure to cover.

4. Special Charges for Short Sales In Hard-To-Borrow Securities

With respect to any short sale transactions in securities that are or become hard-to-borrow, the client's Account(s) also may be charged an amount equal to the sum of (i) the costs and expenses incurred by J.P. Morgan and (ii) a Service Fee in connection with the establishment and/or maintenance of the client's short positions in that security (together, "Short Sale Charges"). A security is or becomes hard-to-borrow when increased short selling in that security in the market causes an increase in demand to borrow the security, which in turn causes an increase in the cost and expense to J.P. Morgan in establishing and/or maintaining a short position in such security for the client's Account(s). Short Sale Charges may be disclosed to the client at the time a short position is established or may be imposed or increased from time to time in light of changing market conditions and the client agrees to pay such Short Sale Charges at J.P. Morgan's then-prevailing rates.

THE FOLLOWING SECTIONS REGARDING THE LOAN, PLEDGE OR USE OF SECURITIES AND FREE CREDIT BALANCES APPLY ONLY TO MARGIN ACCOUNTS WITH A J.P. MORGAN ENTITY AND NOT TO ANY OTHER ACCOUNT5. Consent to Loan, Pledge or Use Securities in Margin Accounts

(a) To the greatest extent permitted under Applicable Laws, the client hereby authorizes J.P. Morgan to lend either to itself or to others and to otherwise use, sell or pledge any securities held by J.P. Morgan in any of the client's Margin Account(s), to convey therewith all attendant rights of ownership (including voting rights) and to use all such property as Collateral for J.P. Morgan's general loans and/or other obligations or with respect to repurchase transactions. Any such property, together with all attendant rights of ownership, may be pledged, repledged, sold, hypothecated, rehypothecated, become subject to a repurchase transaction either separately or in common with other property for any amounts due to J.P. Morgan thereon, and for a greater sum than, and for periods longer than, any Obligation that the client owes to J.P. Morgan, and J.P. Morgan shall have no obligation to retain a like amount of similar property in its possession and control. The client hereby acknowledges that, as a result of such activities, (i) J.P. Morgan may receive and retain certain benefits to which the client will not be entitled and (ii) the securities in a margin Account(s) may be used as Collateral by J.P. Morgan for loans made to it in excess of the client's indebtedness to J.P. Morgan.

(b) In certain circumstances, such loans or other use may limit, in whole or in part, the client's ability to receive dividends directly from the issuing company and/or the client's right to exercise voting and other attendant rights of ownership with respect to the loaned, sold or pledged securities. Such circumstances include, but are not limited to, loans of securities that the client owns in margin Account(s) the continue over record dates for voting purposes and ex-dividend dates for dividend distributions. Record dates and ex-dividend dates are declared by the issuing company. If J.P. Morgan does not receive dividends directly from the company, the client may receive payments-in-lieu of dividends which may cause the client to lose the benefit of the preferential tax treatment accorded to dividends.

6. Free Credit Balances

The client hereby authorizes J.P. Morgan to use any free credit balance in any of the client's Margin Account(s) in accordance with all applicable laws and to pay interest thereon at such rate or rates and under such conditions as are established from time to time by J.P. Morgan for such Margin Account(s) and for the amounts of cash so used. In accordance with applicable regulations, free credit balances are carried in clients' Margin Accounts pending, and with a view towards, reinvestment. J.P. Morgan may determine not to pay interest on free credit balances (i) representing either uncollected funds (i.e., any deposited non-cash items (e.g., checks) for which J.P. Morgan has not yet received credit) or funds that is deposited and subsequently withdrawn prior to the expiration of the minimum time period required by J.P. Morgan, or (ii) where prohibited by applicable law.

7. Custody

A J.P. Morgan entity will act as custodian of all Collateral and/ or Property held pursuant to this Margin Account Agreement.

8. General Terms; Definitions

This Agreement is subject to the General Terms for Accounts and Services (the "General Terms") and to the terms and conditions, including, without limitation, those pertaining to arbitration, contained in the Brokerage Account Agreement (other than terms pertaining to custody). References to the Brokerage Account shall be deemed to be references to the Margin Account and references to the Brokerage Account Agreement shall be deemed to be references to this Agreement.

Capitalized terms not defined in this Agreement have the meanings given to them in the General Terms and the Brokerage Account Agreement. To the extent there are any conflicts between the General Terms and the terms of this Agreement or between the Brokerage Account Agreement and this Agreement, this Agreement will prevail.

DISCLOSURE TO CLIENTS IN COMPLIANCE WITH FINRA RULE 4370 REGARDING CONTINUITY AND CONTINGENCY PLANS AND EMERGENCY CONTACT INFORMATION FOR J.P. MORGAN

J.P. Morgan adheres to a Resiliency Risk Management ("RRM") Program which is an integral part of JPMorgan Chase & Co. normal business operations, and as such, is part of business planning and a critical responsibility of management. The RRM Program establishes and assesses the criticality of business processes, in addition to documenting strategies, gathering recovery information, identifying resources, and developing and maintaining a plan for action to recover business processes in a timely manner following a disruption, and to meet local and country regulatory requirements. The Resiliency Plans (contingency plans) are designed to respond to a worst-case scenario. This means the loss of a single location or an entire zone. Also, pursuant to the Resiliency Risk Management Policy, J.P. Morgan establishes minimum requirements for supporting and sustaining business resiliency services at levels commensurate with the associated business impact.

The following business continuity control practices are in place:

A recovery plan designed to restore the J.P. Morgan environment, which includes alternative work spaces and back-up computer systems. The recovery plan is subject to periodic review, examination and/or testing by internal and independent auditors. The recovery test utilizes, in part, off-site copies of data, applications and system software residing on local or asynchronous systems. A regular review of resource needs is performed to update processing and storage requirements.

J.P. Morgan's risk mitigation strategies are commensurate with our obligations to our clients, markets and regulators. J.P. Morgan will endeavor to sustain business on behalf of its clients on that same business day or, where applicable, on a best efforts basis, during any and all contingency events, recognizing that service may be impacted for longer periods depending upon the seriousness of the event. In addition, in that J.P. Morgan is dependent upon various infrastructures (e.g. transportation, telecommunications, exchanges, industry utilities, etc.) J.P. Morgan's ability to implement its plans may be impacted by issues with these infrastructures.

The recovery and business continuity plans of J.P. Morgan are subject to modification without notice. Updates will be posted to the Morgan OnLine website and customers may request this information by contacting their J.P. Morgan representative.

RISKS OF CERTAIN INVESTMENTS

The types of investments below involve special risks that should be evaluated carefully before a decision is made to invest directly in a self-directed brokerage account at J.P. Morgan Securities LLC or to include type of investment in guidelines for an investment management account at JPMCB or one of its banking affiliates. Not all of the risks and other significant aspects of these investments are discussed here. Clients are advised to consult with their own legal, tax, financial and accounting advisors to the extent deemed necessary and are expected to rely upon their own evaluation of information they receive when making investment decisions.

1. Over-the-Counter Derivatives

Most Over-the-Counter ("OTC") Derivatives are contracts that take one of four basic forms, although the forms can be overlapping and one transaction can involve elements of all four forms. These basic forms are (1) swaps, (2) options, (3) forwards and (4) hybrid instruments (which are debt obligations or other securities with embedded swaps, options or forwards). OTC Derivatives may be structured to be settled in a variety of ways, including in cash or by physical delivery of property against cash. No matter what form is involved, a common feature of OTC Derivatives is that the obligations of one or both of the parties are based on the value or market price of one or more underlying financial or commodity markets, to which the transaction is linked. A Client should not enter into an OTC Derivative unless the Client understands, at a minimum:

- The fundamentals of the market underlying such OTC Derivative;
- The legal terms and conditions of the documentation for such OTC Derivative;
- The extent of the economic risk to which the Client is exposed as a result of such OTC Derivative;
- The tax treatment of such OTC Derivative; and
- The regulatory treatment of such OTC Derivative.

The Client must determine that such investment and its risk are suitable in the light of the Client's financial circumstances and objectives.

The following points should be considered in deciding whether to enter into a particular OTC Derivative:

- Market risk. To the extent the obligations or rights in respect of an OTC Derivative are linked to prices or values in a particular market, the Client will be exposed to a risk of loss as a result of price or value movements in that market.
- Credit Risk. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or one of its affiliates (a "Morgan Affiliate," and together with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., "JPMCB") will generally be the counterparty in an OTC Derivative arranged by any Morgan Affiliate, including J.P. Morgan Securities LLC (“JPMS”). The Client therefore will be dependent upon the financial capacity of JPMCB to meet its obligations under each OTC Derivative contract prior to settlement, and may be unsecured with respect to those obligations of JPMCB (as opposed to being a creditor of a central clearing corporation as may generally be the case with exchange traded futures and options). An OTC Derivative with JPMCB as counterparty will not represent a deposit or savings account, and the Client’s claim against JPMCB will not be insured by the FDIC or any other government entity.

- Non-Transferability and Non-Marketability. OTC Derivatives will not be registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), or under the securities laws of any state or other country unless otherwise specified in writing. OTC Derivatives will ordinarily be sold and offered in a transaction that is intended to be exempt from registration under the Securities Act by virtue of Section 4(2) of the Securities Act and/or Regulation D thereunder. There will be no public market for OTC Derivatives. In this regard, the Client will be required to represent that OTC Derivatives, or any securities underlying the OTC Derivatives, are being acquired for investment purposes only and not with a view to resale or distribution. OTC Derivatives generally cannot be assigned or transferred by a party without the prior written consent of the other party. JPMCB may, but is not obligated to, consent to the early termination of an OTC Derivative prior to its scheduled maturity at a negotiated price. It therefore may be impossible for the Client to liquidate a position in an OTC Derivative prior to maturity. Because OTC Derivatives are not standardized, engaging in another OTC Derivative transaction to offset an OTC Derivative the Client has entered into with JPMCB will not automatically close out those positions (as may be true in the case of exchange traded futures and options) and will not necessarily function as an effective hedge. The Client will continue to be obligated with respect to an OTC Derivative until it matures or is otherwise terminated.
- Price Transparency. Because the prices and characteristics of OTC Derivatives are individually negotiated and there is no central source for obtaining prices, dealers in OTC Derivatives may quote different prices for similar transactions. JPMCB does not warrant that its prices will always be the best prices available.
- Option Risk. Option transactions can be very risky. The risk of selling (writing) options is considerably greater than the risk involved in buying options. If the Client buys an option, the Client cannot lose more than the premium. If the Client sells (writes) an option, the risk can be unlimited. Fluctuations in currency exchange rates may affect the value of any OTC Option on securities trading in or denominated in a foreign currency, as well as the value of any payment or delivery of securities in connection with such OTC Option. Fluctuations in currency exchange rates may affect the value of any payment or delivery of securities in connection with such OTC Option.
- Leverage Risk. Certain derivatives can be structured to allow for significant leverage. The use of leverage may have the effect of magnifying an investor’s losses or gains and causing an investor to be highly exposed to risk with very little capital or cash investment. As a result, a relatively small, unexpected change in the notional amount of an investor’s position could have a much larger adverse impact on the principal amount invested.
- Collateral. Collateral may be required to support the Client’s obligations under OTC Derivatives. Additional collateral may be required after the Client has entered into an OTC Derivative. JPMCB and JPMS will not provide the collateral for any OTC Derivative transaction.

Clients should not rely upon J.P. Morgan for an understanding of the risks, terms and conditions of OTC Derivatives, and the Client must review carefully the documentation for any OTC Derivative with a personal attorney or other adviser. J.P. Morgan will assume that when the Client enters into OTC Derivatives, the Client understands the characteristics and risk associated with such transactions.

2. Uncovered Options (Permitted Only in Self-Directed Accounts at JPMS)

An uncovered (or “naked”) option transaction occurs when an investor buys or sells (writes) an option without having a position in the underlying asset. There are special risks associated with uncovered option writing which expose the investor to potentially significant loss. Therefore, this type of strategy may not be suitable for all clients, including those generally approved for options transactions.

The potential loss of uncovered call writing is unlimited. The writer of an uncovered call is in an extremely risky position, and may incur large losses if the value of the underlying instrument increases above the exercise price.

As with writing uncovered calls, the risk of writing uncovered put options is substantial. The writer of an uncovered put option bears a risk of loss if the value of the underlying instrument declines below the exercise price. Such loss could be substantial if there is a significant decline in the value of the underlying instrument.

Uncovered option writing thus is suitable only for the knowledgeable investor who understands the risks, has the financial capacity and willingness to incur potentially unlimited losses, and has sufficient liquid assets to meet applicable margin requirements. In this regard, if the value of the underlying instrument moves against an uncovered writer’s options position, JPMS may liquidate stock or options positions in the Client’s account, with little or no prior notice in accordance with the Client’s Margin Agreement.

For combination writing, where the investor writes both a put and a call on the same underlying instrument, the potential risk also is unlimited.

If a secondary market in options were to become unavailable, investors could not engage in closing transactions, and an option writer would remain obligated until expiration or assignment.

The writer of an American-style option is subject to being assigned an exercise at any time after he has written the option until the option expires. By contrast, the writer of a European-style option is subject to exercise assignment only during a specified exercise period.

Note: This brief discussion is not intended to enumerate all of the risks entailed in writing uncovered options. It is expected that the Client also will read the booklet entitled Characteristics and Risks of Standardized Options available from JPMS. In particular, the Client’s attention is directed to the chapter entitled Risks of Buying and Writing Options. If the Client enters into an option contract, the Client thereby will confirm that the Client has received and read the aforementioned booklet.

3. Emerging Markets

Emerging markets securities and transactions involving emerging markets securities are subject to substantial risk arising from a number of factors including, but not limited to: (1) economic and political instability in the regions where emerging markets issuers conduct business, (2) significant volatility in the markets for emerging markets securities and the currencies in which they may be denominated and (3) the potential for loss of the Client’s entire investment as a result of insolvency, market or government action, or other similar factors which could render the securities valueless.

Generally less information is publicly available with respect to emerging markets issuers and obligors than is available with respect to United States companies. Many emerging markets companies are not subject to the uniform accounting and financial reporting requirements applicable to issuers and obligors in the United States; additionally, accounting, auditing, financial and other reporting standards in emerging markets jurisdictions are often not equivalent to the standards established in the United States and therefore disclosure of certain material information may not be made.

There may exist only small markets for certain emerging markets securities, resulting in low or non-existent volumes of trading in such assets, and therefore a lack of liquidity and price volatility of such assets. Settlement periods for transactions of emerging markets securities may also be longer than settlement times for assets of United States issuers, and settlement systems may be unreliable.

This may also affect the liquidity and price volatility of emerging markets securities.

The risks are significantly more pronounced in derivative instruments (options, swaps, futures, etc.) on emerging markets securities.

4. Non-Traditional Investment Strategies

Non-traditional, or alternative, investment strategies include investments in hedge funds, private equity funds, real estate funds, and funds comprised of such funds. Such funds are sometimes referred to as private investments because they are typically organized pursuant to exemptions from registration under federal securities laws and therefore are not offered to the general public. They are appropriate for certain qualified investors only. Such funds: (1) often engage in leveraging and other speculative investment practices that may increase the risk of the complete loss of the investment; (2) can be highly illiquid because of the absence of any trading market and restrictions on resale as a result of regulatory or contractual provisions; (3) are not required to provide periodic pricing or valuation information to investors; (4) may involve complex tax structures and delays in distributing important tax information; (5) are not subject to the same regulatory requirements as mutual funds; (6) often charge high fees; (7) may be exposed significantly to foreign currency and investment risk; and (8) may experience high return volatility. In addition, any number of conflicts of interest may exist in connection with the sale, distribution, management or operation of such funds.

Although interests in private investment funds sometimes may be resold in privately negotiated transactions, the prices realized on these sales could be less than the original investment. It is a condition of many fund investments offered through J.P. Morgan that the Client maintain an investment management, trust, or custody/asset account at JPMCB or one of its affiliates for so long as the Client owns the investment.

Private funds are offered only by confidential private placement memorandum or similar document (the "PPM"). The PPM provides important detailed information regarding fees, merits, risks, investment objectives, and other matters of interest, and must be read carefully before a decision is made on whether to invest. However, generally no PPM will be delivered to the Client for whom JPMCB exercises investment discretion. JPMCB will provide a copy of the PPM to a discretionary Client upon request.

Morgan Affiliates may be the issuer of interests in these funds or may provide advisory, management, administrative or other services to issuers, including issuers who also are Morgan Affiliates, and may be compensated separately for such functions. JPMS or another J.P. Morgan Affiliate may act as placement agent for such interests and may be compensated by the issuer for providing placement services. Such compensation is in addition to fees and commissions the Client pays in connection with purchasing an interest or in connection with the Client's investment management, brokerage or custody account.

Investments in private funds entail the execution and delivery of a subscription agreement. If JPMCB is investing on behalf of a discretionary Client, JPMCB will complete and execute the subscription agreement on the Client's behalf. The subscription agreement will require JPMCB to make certain representations and warranties relating to the Client. Such representations and warranties relate to, but are not limited to, the Client's status as an "accredited investor," a "qualified purchaser," a "qualified eligible person," or "U.S. person" within the meaning of applicable securities laws; whether the Client or the Client's account is subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"); organizational data if the Client is an entity; whether the Client is a regulated institution that is subject to legal or regulatory restrictions or limitations on the nature of its investments (such as a bank or an insurance company); whether the Client is restricted by rules of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority from participating in initial public offerings by reason of the Client's association with any broker, dealer, bank or other securities business; and whether the Client falls into a category of person whose ability to do business with a financial institution is limited by laws intended to prevent money laundering and terrorist financing. JPMCB will rely on information provided to it by the Client in making all representations and warranties contained in a subscription agreement and may be liable to a fund if any such representation or warranty is untrue. In the event of such liability, the Client will be required to indemnify JPMCB and its affiliates for all loss and damage, including attorneys' fees. Clients who invest in private funds through their self-directed brokerage accounts at JPMS will sign subscription agreements containing the same representations and warranties.

5. Complementary/Structured Strategies

Structured strategies are securities in which swaps, options, futures, forwards or other combinations or types of derivatives are embedded. Their returns typically are linked to the performance of one or more underlying U.S. or international securities, indices, rates, currencies, or commodities (please see Section 11 below for a discussion of the special risks of investing in commodities and Section 12 below for a discussion of the special risks of investing in currencies), and may incorporate leverage.

Investments in structured strategies may not be suitable for all investors. These types of investments entail varying degrees of risk, and while some structured strategies offer full or partial principal protection, others can subject the Client to the loss of the full amount invested. Structured strategies offered by J.P. Morgan (referred to herein as "Structures") may be structured using unsecured and unsubordinated debt obligations of JPMorgan Chase & Co. or its affiliates ("JPM") or various non-Morgan affiliate issuers, and may also take the form of deposits (which may or may not be insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government authority), equity or partnership interests, certificates, warrants or interests in special purpose vehicles. The Client therefore will be dependent upon the issuer's financial capacity to meet its obligations under a Structure. Structures may or may not be registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), or under the securities laws of any state or other country and if not registered, will be sold and offered in a transaction that is intended to be exempt from registration under the Securities Act. Structures may or may not be publicly listed or traded on an exchange and therefore may be illiquid investments. Prior to maturity Structures issued by JPM may be repurchased by JPM only and only upon terms and conditions acceptable to it, and in most cases the Structures are not-transferable and are nonnegotiable.

In the event that JPM consents to early liquidation, the Client will likely not fully participate in any benefits of the Structure, such as principal protection, buffers, or enhanced returns.

Structures will be offered by prospectus, term sheet or offering memorandum (collectively, an "offering document"), and the offering document will provide more detailed information regarding the Structures. The applicable offering document must be read carefully before a decision is made to invest. However, generally no offering document will be delivered to a Client for whom J.P. Morgan exercises investment discretion.

The issue price of a Structure will include the cost of hedging the issuer's obligations under such Structure, which includes an estimated profit component. It also will include compensation paid to JPM for structuring, underwriting and marketing work involved in packaging a Structure as one instrument. Compensation paid to JPM will vary with each Structure but is not expected to exceed, on an annual basis, two percent. If, however, a Structure has an early redemption feature and is redeemed prior to maturity, the compensation will not be pro-rated and limited to the period during which the Structure was outstanding, and in such event, the compensation paid will be higher. A Structure may also include an annual fee embedded in an index or calculation, payable to the issuer or index sponsor (which may be JPM or a non-Morgan affiliate issuer) for structuring or calculating a proprietary index or formula.

JPM also generally acts as calculation agent for Structures and determines the amount, if any, that will be paid to the Client at maturity. In performing its duties as calculation agent, JPM may have interests adverse to the interest of the holders of the Structures, which may affect the Client's return on a Structure, particularly where JPM, as the calculation agent, is entitled to exercise discretion.

If JPMCB invests in a Structure on behalf of a Client for whom it exercises investment discretion, JPMCB may be required to make certain representations and warranties relating to the Client. Such representations and warranties relate to, but are not limited to, the Client's status as an "accredited investor" as defined by the Securities Act. JPMCB will rely on information provided to it by the Client in making all required representations and warranties and may be liable to the issuer or the issuer's placement agent if any such representation or warranty is untrue. In the event of such liability, the Client will be required to indemnify JPMCB and its affiliates for all loss and damage, including attorneys' fees.

6. Mutual Funds

Mutual funds are sold only by prospectus, and the prospectus contains important information regarding the fund's investment objectives, merits, risks, charges, expenses and other matters of interest. Mutual funds may not be suitable for all investors and the Client agrees to request the prospectus and read it carefully before deciding to invest. However, no prospectus will be delivered to the Client prior to an investment if JPMCB is investing on behalf of a Client for whom it exercises investment discretion. JPMCB will provide a copy of the prospectus to a discretionary Client upon request.

Although most mutual funds available through J.P. Morgan will follow a traditional long-only investment strategy, some mutual funds may utilize investment strategies similar to those employed by private funds. Such funds may or may not have the liquidity of traditional mutual funds, provide periodic pricing or valuation information to investors, and are subject to the same regulatory requirements as traditional mutual funds, but they engage in leveraging and other speculative investment practices commonly used by hedge funds that may increase the risk of the complete loss of the investment. Such funds generally also charge higher fees than traditional mutual funds and have higher expenses. The use of leverage increases risk to a fund, and the more a fund invests in leveraged instruments, the more it could magnify gains or losses to those investments.

JPMCB, JPMS or their affiliates may provide administrative, custodial, sales, distribution or shareholder services to funds established, sponsored, advised, or managed by their affiliates as well as by third parties, and JPMCB, JPMS or their affiliates may be compensated for such services.

7. Municipal Bonds

Municipal bonds are offered by an official statement and may not be suitable for all investors. A Client should consult with an independent tax advisor regarding whether municipal bonds are appropriate for the Client's particular situation.

JPMS or Morgan Affiliates may hold a position or act as market maker in the financial instruments of any issue the Client may invest in, or act as underwriter, placement agent, advisor, or lender to an issuer. If municipal bonds are sold prior to maturity, prices may be higher or lower than the original purchase price and actual yields may be higher or lower than the yields indicated at the time of Client's investment. Yield quotations and market values will thus fluctuate over time and in certain instances interest from some municipal bonds will be subject to the Alternative Minimum Tax (AMT).

8. Real Estate

Real estate investments are likely to be risky, illiquid and long-term. Real estate ownership and the real estate industry in general are subject to many risks, including the burdens of ownership of real property; local, national and international economic conditions; supply and demand for properties; the financial condition of tenants, buyers and sellers; changes in interest rates and the availability of mortgage funds; changes in environmental laws and regulations, planning laws and other governmental rules and fiscal and monetary policies; claims arising out of undisclosed or unknown environmental problems or as to which inadequate reserves have been established; changes in real property tax rates; changes in energy prices; force majeure events; terrorist events; and underinsured or uninsurable losses. Real estate assets are subject to long term cycles that gives rise to significant volatility in values.

Illiquidity may result from the absence of an established market for the property. The possibility of partial or total loss of capital will exist and investors should not invest in real estate unless they can readily bear the consequences of such loss. Even if real estate investments are successful, they are unlikely to produce a realized return to the investors for a period of years.

Securities issued by real estate fund companies, including real estate investment trusts ("REITs") are subject to the risks associated with the direct ownership of real estate as well as the risks associated with the fund company or REIT itself. Such companies carry the risks of possibly limited operating history, unspecified portfolios, uncertainties in calculating net asset value due to reliance upon appraisals, and restrictions on redemption arising out of the illiquidity of the underlying portfolio. REITs also carry the risk of the possible failure to qualify as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which will have adverse tax consequences for investors.

9. Exchange Traded Funds

Exchange traded funds (ETFs) are index funds or trusts that are listed on an exchange. Investors can buy or sell shares in the collective performance of an entire stock or bond portfolio as a single security. Unlike index mutual funds, which have their net asset values calculated at the end of each trading day, ETF prices change within the trading day, fluctuating with supply and demand, so that the price of an ETF may be different than its net asset value.

Leveraged or inverse ETFs are highly complex financial instruments and, due to the effects of compounding, their performance over longer periods of time can differ significantly from their stated daily objective. Leveraged and inverse ETFs typically are designed to achieve their stated performance objectives on a daily basis. Some investors might invest in these ETFs with the expectation that the ETFs may meet their stated daily performance objectives over the long term as well. Investors should be aware that performance of these ETFs over a period longer than one day can differ significantly from their stated daily performance objectives. Leveraged and inverse ETFs may pursue a range of investment strategies through the use of swaps, futures contracts and other derivative instruments, and are inherently more volatile than their underlying benchmark or index. Additionally, leveraged ETFs positions will be subject to applicable maintenance margin requirements which may be greater or differ from margin requirements on their non-leveraged counterparts.

Exchange traded funds are sold by prospectus. The prospectus contains important information regarding the investment objectives of the ETF, its merits, risks, charges, expenses and other matters of interest, and must be read carefully before a decision is made to invest. However, no prospectus will be delivered to the Client prior to an investment if JPMCB makes the investment on the Client's behalf pursuant to a discretionary portfolio mandate. JPMCB will provide a copy of the prospectus to a discretionary Client upon request.

ETFs are subject to risks similar to those of stocks. Investment returns will fluctuate and are subject to market volatility, so that an investor's shares, when redeemed or sold, may be worth more or less than their original cost. In addition, there is no guarantee that an ETF will track the exact performance of its index.

ETFs, including leveraged or inverse ETFs, may not be suitable for all investors.

10. High Yield Fixed Income Securities

High yield fixed income securities come in many forms. Common ones are high yield bonds, asset-backed securities, mortgage-backed securities, mezzanine securities, and collateralized bond obligations ("CBOs").

High yield bonds (sometimes known as "junk" bonds) are non-investment grade bonds of varying maturities. They generally will be in the lower rating categories of the major rating agencies or may be unrated. High yield bonds typically pay more interest than other bonds because they involve a greater risk that the issuer will default in the timely payment of interest and principal. Issuers of high yield bonds may have a lot of debt. During an economic downturn, a period of rising interest rates or a recession, high yield issuers with a lot of debt may experience financial problems leading to a default, and high yield bonds tend to fall in price during such periods. They also may have other creditors with the right to be paid before the high yield bond holder. High yield bonds fluctuate more widely in price and yield than investment grade bonds and are not as liquid.

Asset-backed securities are bonds backed by a pool of assets, usually loans such as installment sale contracts or credit card receivables. The loans underlying asset-backed securities may be unsecured, with no collateral to seize if the underlying borrower defaults. Asset-backed securities may be prepaid at any time, which will reduce their yield and market value. When interest rates fall, prepayment rates rise as borrowers pay off existing debt and refinance at new lower rates. As a result, reinvestment of the prepayment proceeds generally will be at a lower rate of return than the return on the assets that were prepaid. Mortgage-backed securities are subject to the same risks as asset-backed securities except that the underlying loans generally will be secured by real property.

Mezzanine investments are subordinated debt securities which receive payments of interest and principal after more senior secured creditors are paid. They generally are issued in private placements in connection with an investment in an equity security. They carry the risk that the issuer will default on payment of interest and principal and that the equity securities purchased with the proceeds of mezzanine investments will lose value.

CBOs are securities backed by a diversified pool of high yield securities and are subject to the same risks as the high yield securities in the pool.

11. Commodities

(a) In General, Commodities include hard assets, such as agricultural products, metals, or petroleum as well as securities futures based on common stock, certain exchange traded funds and American Depositary Receipts, and securities indices.

Commodity futures contracts can be used for speculation, hedging, and risk management. Commodity futures contracts are not appropriate investments for all investors. When they are used for speculation, it is possible to realize substantial profits in a short period of time, but it is also possible to incur substantial losses in a short period of time. Such losses may be larger than the initial commitment of capital because futures trading is highly leveraged.

Because of the leverage involved and the nature of futures contract transactions, losses may be felt immediately because gains and losses are credited or debited to the investor's account, at a minimum, on a daily basis. The purchase or sale of a futures contract requires the investor to make an initial deposit of money, known as margin. Margin, in the context of futures trading, is different than the margin involved in the purchase of stocks. The purchase of stocks on margin involves a cash down payment and credit extended by the broker for the purchase. The margin required to buy or sell a futures contract is a deposit of money that can be drawn on by the broker to cover any daily losses. If movements in the markets for futures contracts or the underlying commodity decrease the value of the investor's positions in futures contracts, the investor may be required to deposit additional funds in his or her account as margin. If an account is under the minimum margin requirements set by the exchange or the investor's broker, the position may be liquidated at a loss, and the investor will be liable for any deficit in the account. Minimum margin requirements for a particular futures contract at a particular time are set by the exchange on which the contract is traded and are subject to modification based on market conditions. An increase in market volatility and the range of daily price movements is frequently a reason for raising margins.

Futures contracts cannot be sold like stocks or bonds. They generally must be liquidated by the investor entering into an equivalent but opposite position in another contract month, on another market, or in the underlying commodity. If a position in a futures contract cannot be liquidated, the investor may not be able to realize a gain in the value of the position or prevent losses from mounting. An inability to liquidate could occur, for example, if trading is halted due to unusual trading activity in either the futures contract or the underlying commodity; if trading is halted due to recent news events involving the issuer of the underlying commodity; if systems failures occur on an exchange or at the investor's broker; or if the position is on an illiquid market. An exchange may set a maximum daily limit on market price increases and decreases, and will halt trading when the limit is reached. In the event prices have risen or fallen by the maximum daily limit, and there is no trading in the contract permitted (known as a "lock limit" market), it may not be possible to execute an order at any price. Markets may be lock limit for more than one day, resulting in substantial losses to futures investors who may find it impossible to liquidate losing futures positions.

Even if the investor can liquidate the position, it may be at a price that involves a large loss. For the same reasons, it may also be difficult or impossible to manage risk from open futures positions by entering into offsetting positions.

An alternative method of participating in futures trading is through a commodity pool, which is a pooled investment vehicle that invests in commodities (and, typically, securities as well). A commodity pool participant will not have an individual trading account. Instead, the funds of all pool participants are combined and traded as a single account. Each investor shares in the profits or losses of the pool in proportion to his or her investment in the pool. Although commodity pools can offer benefits such as greater diversification among commodities than an investor might obtain in an individual trading account, the absence of margin calls, and a limitation on losses to the amount invested, the risks a pool incurs in any given futures transaction are no different than the risks incurred by an individual trader. The pool still trades in futures contracts which are highly leveraged and in markets that can be highly volatile. And like an individual trader, the pool can suffer substantial losses as well as realize substantial profits.

(b) Securities Futures

Trading in security futures contracts requires knowledge of both the securities and the futures markets. Under certain market conditions, the prices of security futures contracts may not maintain their customary or anticipated relationships to the prices of the underlying security or index. These pricing disparities could occur, for example, when the market for the security futures contract is illiquid, when the primary market for the underlying security is closed, or when the reporting of transactions in the underlying security has been delayed. For index products, it could also occur when trading is delayed or halted in some or all of the securities that make up the index. The investor may be required to settle certain security futures contracts with physical delivery of the underlying security. If a position in a physically settled security futures contract is held until the end of the last trading day prior to expiration, the investor will be obligated to make or take delivery of the underlying securities, which could involve additional costs.

The actual settlement terms may vary from contract to contract and exchange to exchange.

Although security futures contracts share some characteristics with options on securities (options contracts), these products are also different in a number of ways.

The purchaser of an options contract has the right, but not the obligation, to buy or sell a security prior to the expiration date. The seller of an options contract has the obligation to buy or sell a security prior to the expiration date. By contrast, if an investor has a position in a security futures contract (either long or short), the investor has both the right and the obligation to buy or sell a security at a future date. The only way to avoid the obligation incurred by the security futures contract is to liquidate the position with an offsetting contract.

A person purchasing an options contract runs the risk of losing the purchase price (premium) for the option contract. Because it is a wasting asset, the purchaser of an options contract who neither liquidates the options contract in the secondary market nor exercises it at or prior to expiration will necessarily lose his or her entire investment in the options contract. However, a purchaser of an options contract cannot lose more than the amount of the premium. Conversely, the seller of an options contract receives the premium and assumes the risk that he or she will be required to buy or sell the underlying security on or prior to the expiration date, in which event his or her losses may exceed the amount of the premium received. Although the seller of an options contract is required to deposit margin to reflect the risk of its obligation, he or she may lose many times his or her initial margin deposit. By contrast, the purchaser and seller of a security futures contract each enter into an agreement to buy or sell a specific quantity of shares in the underlying security. Based upon the movement in prices of the underlying security, a person who holds a position in a security futures contract can gain or lose many times his or her initial margin deposit. In this respect, the benefits of a security futures contract are similar to the benefits of purchasing an option, while the risks of entering into a security futures contract are similar to the risks of selling an option.

12. Currencies and Foreign Exchange

Foreign currencies or baskets of currencies may be very volatile and may experience significant drops in value over a short period of time. The value of a foreign currency will depend, among other economic indicators, on movements in exchange rates. Risks and special considerations with respect to foreign currencies include, but are not limited to, economic uncertainties, currency devaluations, political and social uncertainties, exchange control regulations, high rates of interest, a history of government and private sector defaults, significant government influence on the economy, less rigorous regulatory and accounting standards than in the United States, relatively less developed financial and other systems and limited liquidity and higher price volatility of the related securities markets.

GENERAL ACCOUNT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Deposits or Cashed Items

Checks, drafts and other negotiable instruments, including substitute checks (see the section of this booklet entitled Check 21 – Substitute Check and Your Rights) (collectively "checks") deposited to your Account or cashed, automated clearinghouse ("ACH") entries and all other types of external and book-entry funds transfers (checks and funds transfers collectively referred to herein as "items"), may be charged back against the Account (or an Account for split deposits) or any other Account of yours at the Bank if we are informed that the item is being or has been returned unpaid (or, for checks drawn on other accounts with us, the check is dishonored by us for any reason), without regard to whether such return or dishonor is timely. When a deposited or cashed item is returned, you may be charged a Deposited Item Returned fee. We may charge your Account whether or not the check is returned to us, and whether or not we can return the item or a copy to you. Even if we verify a deposited or cashed check and tell you that the check has been paid, that will not release your liability as an endorser. This right shall extend to any check or other item deposited into your Account or cashed, that is finally paid and then is returned because a claim is made that the check or other item was altered, forged, unauthorized, has a missing signature or should not have been paid for any reason. In lieu of charging your Account we may withhold an amount equal to such check or other item from your Account until a final determination of the validity of such claim has been made. We have no duty to return a check that has been charged back to an Account if that Account has become overdrawn. We are not required to give you next-day notice if a deposited or cashed item is dishonored.

Any check deposited to your Account that lacks an endorsement may be, or may be deemed to be, endorsed by us on your behalf. With respect to any such check, our rights and your liabilities shall be determined as though you actually endorsed and deposited the item. Further, any check deposited to your Account that bears your stamped or facsimile endorsement shall be deemed to bear your actual endorsement whether such endorsement was affixed by you or by someone having no authority to supply your endorsement. You agree to assume responsibility for and to indemnify us for any loss we may incur as a result of your failure to comply with the endorsement standards set forth in our Endorsement Standards section of this Agreement. If you deposit a remotely created check, you guarantee that the check was authorized by the account holder for payment in the amount shown. Remotely created checks are created when an account holder authorizes a payee to draw a check on the account, but instead of the account holder's actual signature, the check identifies that the account holder authorized the check.

We may rely on the account number on any deposit record received, even if the record identifies a party different from the entity identified by name in the record, and we have no duty to detect any such inconsistency in identification.

We may return or refuse to accept all or any part of a deposit or credit to your Account at any time and will not be liable to you for doing so even if such action causes outstanding items to be dishonored and returned. Returned or refused deposits (or the legal equivalent of the deposited item) will be returned to you. In addition, you will be solely responsible for any loss or liability we sustain in connection with the deposit of substitute checks.

We will not give you next day notice of receipt of an electronic deposit to your Account but will provide such notice to you on your next periodic Account statement. You may call us to confirm an ACH or wire transfer deposit.

Credits for Deposits

A receipt may be provided or made available upon request for all deposits to your Account (except for remote deposits, e.g., lock box, night depository services and certain funds transfers). However, the amount on your deposit receipt is based solely on your deposit ticket. Funds from your deposits to your Account may not be made immediately available. We shall not be construed to have received for deposit checks sent by mail or placed in the night depository until we have either received actual delivery from the U.S. Postal Service or have removed the checks from the depository. Checks placed in such depository will be removed not later than the next business day. All deposits made by mail and addressed to a Bank location without using a specific branch name and street address will be considered received by the Bank's National Bank-By-Mail facility in Louisville, KY as of the date such deposit is received by such facility. For checking accounts, funds will be made available according to Federal Reserve Regulation CC and our Funds Availability Policy. Credits for all deposits are subject to final verification and, after review, we may make adjustments to your Account for any errors, including any errors appearing on your deposit ticket, but have no obligation to do so for discrepancies under ten dollars. In addition, the availability of funds for withdrawal does not mean that the deposited check or other item is "good," has "cleared" or has been paid by the paying bank, or that the item will not be returned unpaid and your Account subsequently debited, notwithstanding the passage of any period of time or any representation or belief to the contrary. We may accept credits to your Account that have been originated by third parties (e.g., ACH credits, wire transfers). However, we may reverse any credit to your account that the originator of such deposit has informed us was in error, or was intended for another account, without investigating whether such credit was not properly payable to you.

We need not accept for deposit items drawn on a non-U.S. bank or items payable in a foreign currency and may instead accept such items on a collection basis, even after we have taken physical possession of such items. If accepted on a collection basis, we will not be obligated to credit your account for such items until we have received final payment. The actual credit for items payable in a foreign currency will be at the exchange rate in effect at the time of final collection in U.S. dollars. Regardless of whether such items are accepted for deposit or on a collection basis, our Funds Availability Policy will not apply.

Collection of Deposits

You agree that we act only as your collecting agent in receiving items for deposit or collection and assume no responsibility beyond reasonable care. We will use reasonable care in the selection of collecting agents but will not be liable in case of their failure or negligence or for losses in transit.

You agree that we, and each of our correspondents, may send checks subject to collection, directly or indirectly, to any bank, depository, maker or drawee in accordance with our usual custom and may accept checks, drafts or credits as conditional payment.

You agree to use reasonable care to assist us in locating or obtaining replacements of items lost while in our possession. We may agree with other banks and clearing houses to vary procedures regarding the collection or return of items, and deadlines to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Withdrawal Procedures and Limitations

In accordance with the features of your Account, you agree that we may charge your Account for any withdrawal or transfer that you make or authorize another to make. We may, as a condition of withdrawal, require you to provide us with identification or information acceptable to us and/or your signature on certain withdrawal documents signed in the presence of our personnel. If you request to withdraw large amounts in cash, we may place reasonable restrictions on the time and method of your withdrawal and may require that you sign a document releasing us from any liability in case you are robbed or assaulted. We may refuse the withdrawal if you do not agree with these conditions.

Federal regulations impose limitations on transfers from savings accounts and we are required to monitor your compliance with them. You may make no more than six withdrawals (including withdrawals made by check, debit card, ACH, telephone, Internet, or wire) during any monthly statement period on these accounts. This limit does not apply to withdrawals made in person or through ATMs, mail (by a check payable and mailed to you), or messenger. We will charge a Savings Withdrawal Limit fee for each withdrawal that exceeds this limit. In addition this transfer may also invoke an Additional Withdrawal fee for J.P. Morgan Savings accounts for having exceeded applicable withdrawal limits. If you continue to exceed any transfer limits on your Account after we have notified you of any such transfer violation, we will close your Account and transfer the funds to another deposit account type selected by us for which you are eligible or eliminate your Account's transfer and check privileges.

For all savings accounts, interest bearing checking accounts and holding sub-accounts, we reserve the right to require seven (7) days prior written notice of withdrawal. In addition, any personal checking account for which a one-time promotional payment to or for the account is made by us as a premium or other consideration upon account opening may cause such account to be considered an interest bearing checking account for this Agreement (and, for statutory purposes, a NOW account) and subject to the potential seven-day withdrawal notice requirement, even though such account may not accrue interest on a periodic basis.

Payment and Deposit of Checks

You agree not to issue incomplete, postdated or conditional checks or present them for deposit to your Account. Also, we have no duty to discover, comply with or have any liability for accepting any incomplete, postdated, conditional checks or checks more than six months old, even if you have provided us with notice describing this check. We may charge a person who cashes your check a fee, or refuse to cash your check, if that person is not a deposit or loan customer of ours.

We have no duty to honor and we may disregard any information on a check other than the identification of the paying bank and payee, the amount (we may rely upon either the numeric amount or the amount in words if contradictory) and any MICR encoded information, and specifically have no duty to visually inspect signatures. We may construe as "or" any symbol, mark or word (other than the word "and") used as a connective, or may imply an "or" in the absence of any connective, on the payee line of any check containing multiple payees. In addition, for both personal and business Accounts, we may debit an Account based on a single signature, and a multiple-signature requirement is for the customer's internal use only, notwithstanding any communication to us to the contrary.

You agree that if you utilize an automatic check writing service which operates through the use of a personal computer, employ the use of a facsimile signature or do not otherwise provide your personal signature on a check, you agree that you shall have the sole responsibility for maintaining security of any such computer, stamp or device by which your signature is affixed and that you shall bear the entire risk of unauthorized use of any such device or of any facsimile signature that reasonably resembles the signature you use, whether or not you are negligent. You also agree that the treatment of each check presented against your Account through the use of such a service and our rights and obligations with regard to such check will be the same as if the check was signed or initiated personally by you. You further agree to indemnify and hold us harmless from and against any and all loss, cost, damage, liability or expense (including attorney fees) we may suffer or incur as a result of the unlawful use, unauthorized use or misuse by any person of any such device or of any facsimile signature that reasonably resembles the signature you use.

Your Account may be debited on the day a check is presented by electronic or other means, or at an earlier time based on notification received by us that such check drawn on your Account has been deposited for collection at the Bank or at another financial institution. A determination of your Account balance for purposes of making a decision to dishonor a check for insufficiency of available funds may be made at any time between the receipt of such presentation or notice and the time of return of the check, and no more than one such determination need be made. If the Bank dishonors any check, we shall treat any subsequent representation the same as the original presentation in all respects (including imposing an additional Insufficient Funds or Returned Item Fee if applicable), and shall have no duty to take any steps to prevent representations of such checks.

Check and Forms Specifications/Protection of Documents

All checks, withdrawal forms, deposit slips and transfer instructions used in connection with your Account must be on forms obtained through or approved by us. You agree to maintain adequate safeguards to ensure the authorized use of the forms you retain, and agree to notify us immediately if you become aware that any checks or other forms are lost or stolen. We are not responsible for losses you may suffer due to improper printing on forms not obtained through or approved by us, your failure to maintain adequate safeguards against unauthorized use, or your failure to issue checks in a manner so as to prevent unauthorized completion, alteration or addition. You agree that we may refuse to accept for deposit or to process any check or other item that is presented to us in a form that cannot be processed or photographed using equipment that we regularly use in our normal operations.

Overdrafts

We may, but are not required to, refuse to pay any item unless your available account balance at the time is equal to or more than the amount of the item, plus all other items received. Even if we have paid overdraft items previously, we will not be required to do so at any future time. We generally will not authorize a non-repeating ("everyday") debit card transaction if your available account balance is insufficient to pay the transaction in two cases: for business accounts, if you have notified us not to pay debit card overdrafts or, for personal accounts, if you have not notified us to pay debit card overdrafts. Your "available account balance" is the balance after deducting (1) deposits that are not yet available for withdrawal under our funds availability policy, (2) debit card or other transactions that we are legally obligated to pay, or have already paid out in cash, (3) other pending transactions like ACH transactions, and (4) any holds on your account to comply with court orders or other legal requirements.

An "overdraft," or "overdrawing" your account, means that your account balance, minus deposits that are not yet available and minus holds on your account to comply with court orders or other legal requirements, is negative or is less than the total of all items presented on a business day.

We look at your account balance only once from the time we receive an item until we return it to decide whether the item causes an overdraft. We may charge your account for a debit card transaction based on the authorization request.

Generally, for each business day, we will (i) add deposits to your account, (ii) subtract wire transfers, debit card transactions, online banking transactions, ATM withdrawals, teller cash withdrawals, cashed checks and deposited checks drawn on us, in the order in which they were authorized, withdrawn, or deposited, and (iii) subtract all other items in highest to lowest dollar amount. We reserve the right to use a different order in certain states.

It is your responsibility to avoid overdrawing your account. Talk to your J.P. Morgan team to learn about Overdraft Protection services. We also offer Personalized Alerts to keep you informed about the balance and transactions in your account.

You must immediately pay the amount of any overdraft together with any applicable fees or charges. If you fail to do so, you may be charged additional fees or interest. Until you pay such balance in full, you will pay interest on the amount of the overdraft at the rate indicated on the applicable rate schedule. We also may report you to credit reporting agencies, close your account, or both. These actions could affect your ability to open accounts in the future.

You authorize us to apply any subsequent deposit against the amount of any overdraft and resulting fees or charges. Subsequent deposits include any federal or state benefit payments that you choose to deposit in any account (including direct deposit of Social Security). You understand and agree that if you do not want your benefits applied in this way, you may change your direct deposit instructions to the benefits payor at any time.

You agree to pay all costs and expenses, including attorney fees, we incur in collecting any overdraft. In addition, if we close your account with an outstanding overdraft and charge off the amount of the overdraft, we may charge a Collection fee. We may still pursue collection of your account (including suing you) after it is charged off.

Insufficient Funds, Returned Item, and Extended Overdraft Fees

We may charge a fee for any item presented when your account is overdrawn, whether or not we pay the item. If we pay the item, we may charge an Insufficient Funds fee. If we return the item, we may charge a Returned Item fee. We will not charge an Insufficient Funds fee for an everyday debit card transaction in two cases: for business accounts, if you have notified us not to pay debit card overdrafts or, for personal accounts, if you have not notified us to pay debit card overdrafts.

We may limit the number of Returned Item and Insufficient Funds fees we charge for a business day. We will not charge Insufficient Funds fees if your ending account balance is overdrawn by $5.00 or less. For some types of accounts and for accounts located in some states, we may charge an Extended Overdraft fee for any overdraft balances that are not promptly repaid, charge interest for any overdraft, or both.

Refer to your fee schedule for information about what fees apply and how fees are calculated for your account.

Specific Terms for Certificates of Deposit

The standard minimum deposit amount to open a Certificate of Deposit ("CD," which term shall include Retirement CDs unless otherwise identified below) is $1,000. Subsequent deposits are not permitted except during the grace period. By opening your CD, you have agreed to keep the funds on deposit for the agreed upon stated term.

Grace Period. The grace period is the time after your maturity date that you can make changes to your CD's term, rate or balance before it automatically renews for the same term. A grace period of ten (10) calendar days applies to a CD with a term of 14 days or greater. A grace period of five (5) calendar days applies to a CD with a term of 7 through 13 days.

Maturity Conditions. For automatically renewable CDs, your CD will automatically renew for the same time period as the initial term, and thereafter for successive like periods of time, with an interest rate then in effect on the renewal date for like term CD to be applicable during such time period. This will not apply if you withdraw your funds during the grace period following the maturity date. Withdrawals made during the grace period are not subject to early withdrawal penalties described below. If your CD is redeemed during the grace period, it will not earn interest after the maturity date. For single maturity CDs, your CD will not automatically renew on the maturity date. No interest is earned or paid after the maturity date.

CD Special Interest Rates. If your CD has a CD special interest rate, that rate applies only to the initial CD term. At the time of renewal, unless withdrawn during the applicable grace period, your CD will automatically renew for the same term at the standard (non-special) interest rate in effect on the renewal date or for the Relationship interest rate if you qualify.

Early Withdrawal Penalties. THERE IS A PENALTY FOR WITHDRAWING FUNDS PRIOR TO THE MATURITY DATE.

If the term of the CD is less than 365 days, the early withdrawal penalty is equal to $25.00 plus 1% of the amount withdrawn. For terms of one year or more, the early withdrawal penalty is equal to $25.00 plus 3% of the amount withdrawn. If the withdrawal occurs within seven (7) days after the date of deposit, the amount of the early withdrawal penalty shall be calculated as above, but in no event shall it be less than the accrued interest. Early withdrawal penalties may require a reduction in the principal amount if the amount of accrued and unpaid interest on the deposit is less than the penalty. Early withdrawal penalties will be waived under the following circumstances:

- Withdrawal of accrued or paid interest;
- Withdrawal due to the death of a CD owner (including Totten Trust) or a grantor of a revocable family/living trust;
- Withdrawal due to the disability of a CD owner;²
- Withdrawal due to the judicial determination of legal incompetence of a CD owner;
- Re-titling of a CD to transfer ownership of funds into a living trust without moving funds from the Bank and where no change in term or rate occurs.

Stop Payments

You may stop payment on a check drawn on your Account if we have not accepted, certified, made final payment on or otherwise become accountable for the item. Any joint owner may order us to stop payment on any check drawn on your Account. A Stop Payment fee may apply. To stop payment on a check, please call us at the phone number listed on your monthly statement.

You must provide us with the precise Account and check number/amount to allow us to identify the check based upon our computer retrieval system standards. A stop payment order shall become effective not later than one full business day after we have received such information, which you agree is a reasonable time. If a cashier's check, teller's check ("official check") or certified check is lost, destroyed or stolen, you may assert a claim to the amount of the check if you give us a declaration of loss statement in a form acceptable to us and the check has not been presented for payment for 90 days from the issue date or in the case of certified checks, from the date of acceptance.

- 2 Except during the first seven days following account opening or for withdrawals made within six days of a previous withdrawal, in which case the penalty must always be applied.

For personal Accounts, an oral or written stop payment order is effective for 180 days, and may not be extended. However, you may place an additional stop payment order at any time, in which case such order shall replace the prior instruction, and shall be effective for 180 days from the day such additional order was placed. An additional stop payment fee will be charged. We will not send a confirmation of your stop payment order. For business Accounts, an oral or written stop payment may be placed for two lengths of time. You may place a stop payment order to be effective for 180 calendar days or you may place a stop payment order to be effective for one year and then renewable annually, at your choice, for six additional years. We may send you a written confirmation of your stop payment order. If any of the information on the confirmation is incorrect, you must notify us within the time period stated on the confirmation. If you do not do so, the information will be presumed to be correct. You will receive a 60 to 90 day advance notification of stop payments scheduled for renewal on your business Account statement. You may request at that time to discontinue the renewal of a stop payment by indicating the stop payment you wish to revoke and returning the notice portion of the statement, with an authorized signature, to the address provided. For personal and business Accounts, when the effective period of the stop payment order expires, we have no duty or obligation to notify you before we pay the item.

If you stop payment on a check drawn on your Account, you may still be obligated to pay such item to any party entitled to enforce it pursuant to applicable state law.

Inactive and Unclaimed Accounts

Each state has laws that govern when accounts are considered inactive or unclaimed and when the Bank is required to send a client's funds to the state. We encourage you to make sure your accounts remain active so you receive regular statements, have the full use of your accounts, and avoid the potential of having your account assets transferred to the state as unclaimed property. We will send you a letter in advance if your account assets may be transferred to the state as unclaimed property.

Statements (for Retirement CDs and Retirement Money Market Accounts refer to your IRA/CESA or QRP plan document)

We will maintain appropriate records of your Account. An Account statement for checking and savings accounts will be sent to you at your current address listed on our records on a monthly basis, unless there have been no deposits or withdrawals made to your accounts within a 30-month (12 months in Texas) period, in which case annual statements will be sent, unless otherwise specifically indicated in the personal accounts or business accounts sections of this Agreement. Statements will be sent via ordinary U.S. mail, unless you and the Bank agree otherwise. We will send at least one statement per Account, even if that Account has more than one owner. You agree that sending the Account statement as described qualifies as sending the Account statement to all owners of the Account, even if all owners do not have access to the mailing address of record for the Account.

We may change your postal address of record if we receive an address change notice from the U.S. Postal Service or if we receive information from another party in the business of providing correct address information that the address in our records no longer corresponds to your address.

As used in this Agreement, the monthly statement period means the time period covered by your Account statement. This time period may or may not correspond to a calendar month but in most cases will not exceed 32 days or be less than 28 days. The specific dates covered by your Account statement will be set forth in the statement.

Check Enclosure Options

If, at your election or your Account features so require, we retain your cancelled checks and do not return them with your Account statement, you acknowledge that the original cancelled checks may be destroyed after a reasonable period of time as determined by us. You agree that by maintaining the original check or a copy thereof on your behalf, we have otherwise made the check available to you in a reasonable manner. You may request a copy of any cancelled check and a service charge may be imposed for each copy provided. If for any reason we cannot return a copy of your check or satisfy your needs through other means, you agree that we will not be liable for more than the face amount of the check.

If available, when we retain your cancelled checks, you may request that we include images of the front of your cancelled checks with your statement ("Image Statement"). However, you may elect to neither have your cancelled checks nor images thereof included with your statement ("Check Safekeeping") and unless the terms of your Account require Check Safekeeping, you may elect to have your checks returned with your Account statement ("Check Enclosure") rather than receiving images thereof.

Some merchants, utilities and other billers may elect to convert your check into an electronic funds transfer. Since we do not receive your check, neither a cancelled check nor its image is available from us. Additionally, we may elect to receive electronic images from other banks or financial institutions in lieu of original checks. If we receive an electronic image for payment, this image will appear with other cancelled checks on your Image Statement, however, the cancelled check is not available from us.

If you have elected to have your checks returned in your statement for the first checking account listed on your statement, then all other checking accounts listed in your statement will require Check Safekeeping (for business accounts, you may elect Check Enclosure option for all checking accounts). If the first checking account election is Image Statement, then other checking accounts will default to Image Statement, unless Check Safekeeping is elected or required by the terms of that account. If the first checking account has Check Safekeeping, then all other identified checking accounts will require Check Safekeeping as well.

Notification of Errors, Forgeries and Unauthorized Signatures (for Retirement CDs and Retirement Money Market Accounts refer to your IRA/CESA or QRP plan document)

You agree to reconcile your statement promptly upon receipt. If we honor a check, debit card, ATM or other item drawn on or posted to your Account that is altered in any way or was not drawn or otherwise authorized by you ("unauthorized item") or if your Account statement contains any errors, you agree to notify us in writing of such unauthorized item or error within 30 days of the date on which the unauthorized item, or the Account statement that contained a description of the unauthorized item or error, was mailed, transmitted or otherwise made available to you. You must notify the Bank in writing of any unauthorized, improper, or missing endorsements within six (6) months after the Account statement is mailed, transmitted or made available to you. You agree to provide us with all information necessary for us to investigate the alleged error or unauthorized item, associated police reports, supporting affidavits, and testimony we reasonably request. Failure to report an unauthorized item or error, or that you did not receive your scheduled statement, within the 30-day time frame set forth above, or to abide by the conditions set forth herein, shall be deemed conclusive proof that you failed to exercise reasonable care and promptness in examining the items and statements of the affected Account and in notifying us of the unauthorized item or error. You agree that such items and errors shall therefore be fully enforceable against you and you shall have no claim against us for same and shall be barred from bringing any action against us that is in any way related to the unauthorized item or errors.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Electronic Funds Transfer Services section of this Agreement governs the reporting of errors on consumer electronic funds transfers governed by Federal Reserve Board Regulation E. You also have those rights afforded to you under federal law for substitute checks. Please see the Check 21 section of this Agreement for more information.

Sub-Accounts

For accounting purposes, all checking accounts consist of two sub-accounts: a transaction sub-account to which all financial transactions are posted, and a holding sub-account into which available balances above a preset level are transferred daily. Funds will be retransferred to your transaction sub-account to meet your transactional needs; however, all balances in the holding sub-account will be transferred to the transaction sub-account with the sixth transfer in any calendar month or monthly statement period.

Both sub-accounts are treated as a single account for purposes of your deposits and withdrawals, access and information, tax reporting, fees, etc.

Linked Accounts

For checking and savings accounts, you may elect to have these accounts appear on a single statement. Since accounts with at least one common owner can be included on an account statement, you agree that information regarding your Account may be made available to any other owner on any of the accounts that are identified on that combined statement.

Many checking accounts permit you to link other accounts you may have with us or our affiliates to help waive the monthly Service Fee for that checking account based upon the balances you keep in those other accounts. These other accounts need not be included on your statement for those pricing benefits to apply, and accounts that appear on your combined statement are not automatically linked for purposes of pricing. If you have multiple checking accounts listed on your statement, pricing benefits may only apply for the first checking account listed. In addition, balances held in any particular account may only be used for pricing benefits applied for one checking account.

Linking accounts is always at our discretion. If you choose to link your personal accounts to other accounts for which you serve as trustee or custodian (fiduciary), your personal account may receive a financial benefit. Under fiduciary law, any financial benefit you receive is considered a violation of fiduciary duties. We bear no responsibility for your decision to link fiduciary and personal accounts. You should carefully consider this decision, and consult with your legal advisor if necessary.

Note: we will not automatically place accounts on one combined statement or link accounts for pricing; you must take authoritative action to do so.

Interest:

Checking and Savings Accounts

Your Account, if designated as interest bearing, will be a variable rate account on which we may change the interest rate and annual percentage yield from time to time at our discretion without notice to you. We do not impose a limit on the amount the interest rate and annual percentage yield on your Account may change. If you have requested your Account not to accrue interest on a periodic basis, we will not establish or maintain an interest rate for the Account until such time as you have requested the Account to begin earning interest.

Interest begins to accrue on the business day we receive credit for your non-cash deposit. For cash and electronic transfers, interest begins to accrue on the business day of your deposit. For purposes of accruing interest, we use the daily balance method for calculating interest. This method applies a daily periodic rate to the principal balance in your Account each day, which may be based either on collected or ledger balances as set forth in the product features for your Account. The collected balance is the balance of all deposits in your Account on which we have received credit for the deposited funds (determined by the availability schedule of our Federal Reserve Bank for non-cash items). The ledger balance is the balance in your Account without regard to credit or availability. Interest is credited and compounded monthly and is computed on a 360- or a 365-day basis. We reserve the right not to pay interest on any deposited item that is returned to us unpaid.

The interest rate and annual percentage yield applicable to your Account on the date your Account is opened will be set forth on a separate "rate sheet" or other interest rate disclosure provided to you when your Account is opened. That interest rate disclosure is considered a part of this Agreement.

Certificates of Deposit

We use the daily balance method to calculate interest on your CD. This method applies a periodic rate each day to the principal balance. Interest begins to accrue on the business day you deposit cash or non-cash items. Interest for CDs is calculated on a 360- or 365-day basis. The APY disclosed on the face of your Deposit Receipt, which is considered part of this Agreement and, if applicable, on the maturity notice, assumes interest will remain on deposit until maturity. On maturities of more than one year, interest will be paid and reported to the IRS at least annually (excludes Retirement CDs). A withdrawal will reduce earnings.

Record Retention

We shall abide by federal and applicable state record retention laws and may dispose of any records that have been retained or preserved for the period set forth in these laws. Any action by or against us based on, or the determination of which would depend on, the contents of records for which a period of retention or preservation is set forth in these laws shall be brought within the time for which the record must be retained or preserved, unless applicable law provides a shorter limitation period. Any action against us on an automatically renewable CD must be brought within the retention period applicable to that CD based on the stated maturity date in the most recent record evidencing the existence and term of the CD.

Fees and Service Charges

You agree to pay the monthly service fee, transaction fees, fees or interest charges for insufficient funds and stop payments, and all other applicable service charges or fees identified herein as applicable to your Account, or which may be otherwise mutually agreed upon by you and the Bank. You authorize us to charge your Account for these fees and service charges at any time whether or not such fees or charges will result in an overdraft of your Account or, where there are not sufficient funds in your Account to cover your fees and service charges, to bill you separately. You acknowledge and agree that the funds in your Account used to pay such fees and service charges may include any federal or state benefit payments that you choose to deposit in any Account (including direct deposit of Social Security). You understand and agree that if you do not want your benefits applied in this way, you may change your direct deposit instructions to the benefits payor at any time.

Form of Account Ownership and Fee Allowance Rate:

Refer also to the General Terms for Accounts and Services Section for types of accounts other than Business Deposit Accounts.

You agree that if your Account is identified as one offered only to individuals or unincorporated nonbusiness associations, it shall not be used for a business purpose.

Business Accounts

Where a corporation, unincorporated association or limited liability company, partnership, including a limited partnership, limited liability partnership, or joint venture, government entity or sole proprietor (collectively, the "business") is designated or appears on a signature card as the owner of such account, then the account is payable only to or on the order of the business, and not to any individual director, shareholder, member or partner thereof except as they may be a payee on a check or other item drawn on your Account. You further represent and agree that the business has taken all action necessary to open and maintain banking accounts at the Bank and that all resolutions and/or other documentation delivered to us in connection with the account are true, accurate, complete, and will be kept up to date and may be conclusively relied upon by us. You agree to notify us in advance of any change in your form of ownership. You also agree that we are not obligated to cash checks payable to you or to accept "less cash" deposits. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the relationship between you and the Bank is one of debtor/creditor, not fiduciary, even if the account is titled as a "fiduciary" account with that role being played by you.

You agree that each eligible signer is authorized to endorse for collection, deposit, or negotiation any and all checks, drafts, notes, bills of exchange, certificates of deposit, and orders for the payment or transfer of money between accounts at the Bank and other banks, either belonging to or coming into the possession of the business. Endorsements "for deposit" may be written or stamped. We may accept any instrument for deposit to any depository account of the business without endorsement or may supply the endorsement of the business. The person(s) so designated is authorized to sign any and all checks, drafts and orders drawn against any designated account(s) of the business at the Bank. We are authorized to honor and pay all checks, drafts and orders when so signed or endorsed without inquiry as to the circumstances of issue or disposition of the proceeds even if doing so causes an overdraft or increases an overdraft and regardless of to whom such instruments are payable or endorsed, including those drawn or endorsed to the individual order of any such person so listed.

In addition, each eligible signer is authorized to act for and on behalf of the business in any matter involving any Account of the business, including the authority to instruct us to close the Account, and is further authorized to sign and implement for and in the name on behalf of the business, as they, or any of them see fit, the terms of all agreements, instruments, drafts, certificates, or other documents relating to any depository accounts or other business including, but not limited to, night depository agreements, funds transfer agreements or safe deposit agreements.

Business accounts are accounts held by or on behalf of an entity (a person other than a natural person) or held by an individual in a professional or business capacity. Each month the noninterest-bearing funds in a business Account may earn a Fee Allowance Rate that is based on the current market conditions. The Fee Allowance Rate is used to calculate an allowance that can be used to offset monthly fees. Each month's allowance is calculated by taking the average monthly noninterest-bearing collected balance of your Account during the month and multiplying the result by the Fee Allowance Rate determined at JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.'s discretion and by the number of days in the billing cycle divided by the number of days in the year.

Each month's credit will be used to offset maintenance and certain transaction fees incurred in that month for account maintenance and services. The credit may only be applied against current fees and will never be credited to your Account. Fees in excess of a credit will be charged to your Account, or to the Account designated as your primary business checking account if you have more than one. No credit is earned on funds in personal noninterest-bearing accounts.

Telephone Requests

You agree that funds in any of your Accounts with us can be transferred, upon the telephone request of any signer on the Account, to another account with us or to any other financial institution. We shall not be responsible for any loss incurred as a result of our acting upon or executing any request, order or instruction we believe to be genuine. Furthermore, we may refuse to execute any telephone request or order.

Electronic Communication

Any communication contemplated by this Agreement may be delivered by electronic means if you have agreed to electronic notices rather than via U.S. mail or other means to the extent permitted by law.

Powers of Attorney

If you wish to designate an attorney-in-fact, you must do so in a form acceptable to us. Subject to the laws of your State, we reserve the right to refuse to honor any Power of Attorney presented to us, as well as to refuse to recognize a successor attorney-in-fact at any time, whether or not the successor attorney-in-fact is specifically identified in the Power of Attorney. In addition, we reserve the right to refuse to follow the instruction of an attorney-in-fact to designate the attorney-in-fact as a joint account holder, ITF beneficiary, or POD beneficiary to the Account. You agree that we are authorized, but not required, to honor a Power of Attorney until we receive written notice (1) that you have revoked the Power of Attorney or (2) that the Power of Attorney has been revoked as a matter of state law, and that we have had a reasonable opportunity to act on that written notice.

Adverse Claims

Upon receipt of oral or written notice from any party of a claim regarding the Account, we may place a hold on your Account and shall be relieved of any and all liability for our failure or refusal to honor any item drawn on your Account or any other withdrawal instruction. We may file an action in interpleader with respect to any Account where we have been notified of disputed claims to that Account. If any person asserts that a dispute exists, we are not required to determine whether that dispute has merit in order to refuse to honor the item or withdrawal instruction, or to interplead any funds in the Account.

Legal Proceedings/Other Restrictions

We may restrict the use of your Account if the Account is involved in any legal or administrative proceeding, whether or not we're a party to the proceeding. All expenses incurred by us as a result of a proceeding affecting your Account, may be charged against your Account or billed to you separately. These fees may include, but are not limited to, court costs and attorney fees.

We may also restrict the use of your Account when we reasonably consider such action necessary to avoid a loss. This may occur if we suspect that irregular, unauthorized, or unlawful activities may be involved with your Account, whether or not we suspect that you are directly or indirectly aware of these activities. Such restrictions shall be placed pending an investigation of these activities.

Set-Off

You agree that we may, without prior notice or demand, apply or set off the funds in your Account at any time to pay off any debt, whether direct or indirect, you have with us or any of our affiliates and/or any fees or service charges owed to us, and you grant us a security interest in each Account to secure such debt, as it may arise. You expressly agree that such rights extend to any Federal or state benefit payments (including without limitation Social Security benefits) electronically deposited into your Account. You understand and agree that if you do not want your benefits applied in this way, you may change your direct deposit instructions to the benefits payor at any time. If your Account is a joint account and one or more joint owners are indebted to us in any manner, we may use the funds in the joint account to pay the debt without prior notice to you. This right of set-off does not apply if the debt is created under a consumer credit card plan or your right to withdraw funds from the Account arises only in a representative capacity. You also acknowledge and agree that any federal benefits or other payments deposited to your Account after a date of ineligibility must be returned to the Federal Government or other payor, as applicable, and we may set-off against any of your Accounts in order to recover any ineligible benefits or payments you may have received if we are obligated to return funds to the payor. If we make a set-off against your Account, you agree to release and indemnify us from all liability for our actions.

If you or any joint owner draws a check or otherwise authorizes withdrawals not presented for payment until after the drawer's death, or if any joint owner is indebted to us at the time of his or her death, we are authorized to pay such checks and withdrawals and exercise our right of set-off against the Account after such joint owner's death, notwithstanding any rights that a surviving joint owner, a POD payee or a beneficiary of an ITF or "trustee for" account may have to funds in the Account.

No Waiver

No failure by us to exercise any right will be taken as a waiver of that right or any other right, and we may still enforce all of our rights in the future.

Closing Your Account

Either you or the Bank may close your Account at any time with or without cause. If you close your Account, you may be charged an Account Closing fee. We may automatically close your Account if it reaches a zero balance. Any closed account may be automatically reopened if we receive a deposit to the Account. If we close your Account, we may send you written notice that the Account is closed on the date we close your Account. We will return the balance in your Account less any fees or service charges, claims, setoffs or other amounts you owe us, if such net amount exceeds one dollar. Please allow four weeks to receive such funds from us. After your Account is closed, we have no obligation to accept deposits or pay any outstanding checks. You agree that we shall be relieved of any and all liability for refusing to honor any check drawn on a closed Account. We have the right to advise consumer reporting agencies and other third party reporting agencies of accounts closed for misuse.

Change in Account Agreement

We may change the terms of this Agreement, including any fees or features of your Account, upon notice sent to you via ordinary U.S. mail at least 30 calendar days prior to the effective date of the change; provided however, for automatically renewable CDs, no such change shall be effective prior to the renewal date, and such notice may be provided with ten days written notice prior to the renewal date. You agree that such notice may be provided to any joint account owner. By maintaining your Account after the effective date of any change, you agree to be bound by the changes. No notice is required for changes in the interest rate and corresponding changes in the annual percentage yield for variable rate accounts or in fees for document printing.

Rules Governing Your Account

Your Account is governed by all rules and regulations of applicable federal law and the laws of your State (to the extent they are not considered to have been preempted by federal law), including those that may modify the terms of this Agreement. All deposits, items transmitted for collection, and any other transactions concerning your Account are subject to applicable clearinghouse rules and Federal Reserve rules and regulations.

Notwithstanding any other provision herein, this Agreement or any section of this Agreement may be changed or terminated without notice to the extent necessary to comply with any law or regulation of any appropriate federal or state authority.

If a conflict exists between any provision of this Agreement and any statements made by any employee of ours or our affiliates, this Agreement and the applicable sections will control.

Liability

You agree that we shall be relieved of any and all liability for acting upon your instructions or failing to act on your instructions when we reasonably believe that to do so would cause us to be exposed to civil or criminal liability, or conflict with customary banking practices.

YOU AGREE THAT WE SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR INDIRECT, SPECIAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES REGARDLESS OF THE FORM OF ACTION AND EVEN IF WE HAVE BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

IF WE FAIL TO STOP PAYMENT ON AN ITEM, OR PAY AN ITEM BEARING AN UNAUTHORIZED SIGNATURE, FORGED DRAWER'S SIGNATURE OR FORGED ENDORSEMENT OR ALTERATION, OUR LIABILITY, IF ANY, SHALL BE LIMITED TO THE FACE AMOUNT OF THE ITEM.

Location of All Legal Proceedings

If you file any lawsuit or other legal proceeding against us that is connected in any way to your Accounts or services, you must do so in an appropriate court in the state and county where you opened the account. If you relocate your Account to another branch, you must file any lawsuit or proceeding in the state and county where that branch is located. In addition, if we file any lawsuit or legal proceeding that is connected in any way to your Accounts or services, you consent to jurisdiction and venue in an appropriate court in the location described in this paragraph. If either party chooses to have disputes determined under the section entitled Arbitration, that section rather than this section governs the process and location of the arbitration proceedings.

If you reside in a U.S. state where we have branch offices, any account you open by mail, internet, or other remote means will be assigned to a branch in the state where you reside, and for purposes of this section your account will be considered to be opened at that branch.

If you do not reside in a U.S. state where we have branch offices, any account you open by mail, internet, or other remote means will be considered to be opened in Franklin County, Ohio.

Waiver of Immunity

To the extent that you have or hereafter may acquire any immunity from jurisdiction of any court or from any legal process (whether through service or notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution, or otherwise) with respect to yourself or your property, you hereby irrevocably waive such immunity in respect of your obligations hereunder to the extent permitted by applicable law. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, you agree that such waivers shall have the fullest extent permitted under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976 of the United States and are intended to be irrevocable for purpose of such act.

Arbitration

PLEASE READ THIS PROVISION CAREFULLY. IT PROVIDES, WITH THE SPECIFIC EXCEPTION STATED BELOW, THAT ANY DISPUTE MUST BE RESOLVED BY BINDING ARBITRATION. ARBITRATION REPLACES THE RIGHT TO GO TO COURT. YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO BRING A CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION IN COURT, NOR WILL YOU BE ABLE TO BRING ANY CLAIM IN ARBITRATION AS A CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION. YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO BE PART OF ANY CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION BROUGHT BY ANYONE ELSE, OR TO BE REPRESENTED IN A CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION. IN THE ABSENCE OF THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT, YOU AND THE BANK MIGHT OTHERWISE HAVE HAD A RIGHT OR OPPORTUNITY TO BRING CLAIMS IN A COURT, BEFORE A JUDGE OR JURY, AND/OR TO PARTICIPATE OR BE REPRESENTED IN A CASE FILED IN COURT BY OTHERS (INCLUDING CLASS ACTIONS). EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED BELOW, THOSE RIGHTS ARE WAIVED. OTHER RIGHTS THAT YOU WOULD HAVE IF YOU WENT TO COURT, SUCH AS THE RIGHT TO APPEAL AND TO CERTAIN TYPES OF DISCOVERY, MAY BE MORE LIMITED OR MAY ALSO BE WAIVED.

Either you or the Bank may, without the other's consent, elect mandatory, binding arbitration of any claim, dispute or controversy raised by either you or the Bank against the other, or against the employees, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, beneficiaries, heirs, agents or assigns of the other, arising from or relating in any way to this Agreement, any prior account agreement between you and the Bank, or the advertising, the application for, or the approval of your Account (the "Claim" or "Claims"). All Claims originating from or relating to this Agreement are subject to arbitration, no matter what theory they are based on or what remedy they seek, whether legal or equitable. This includes Claims based on contract, tort (including intentional tort), fraud, agency, negligence, statutory or regulatory provisions, or any other sources of law, or any request for equitable relief. Claims subject to arbitration include Claims that are made as counterclaims, cross claims, third party claims, interpleaders or otherwise, and any party to a proceeding in court may elect arbitration with respect to any Claims advanced in the lawsuit by any party or parties.

As an exception to this arbitration provision, you retain the right to pursue in a small claims court, any Claim that is within that court's jurisdiction and proceed on an individual basis.

If you or the Bank elects to arbitrate a Claim, the arbitration will be conducted as an individual action. Neither you nor the Bank consents or agrees to any arbitration on a class or representative basis, and the arbitrator shall have no authority to proceed with any arbitration on a class or representative basis. This arbitration provision applies to and includes any Claims made and remedies sought as part of any class action, private attorney general or other representative action, which Claims hereby are made subject to arbitration on an individual (non-class, non-representative) basis. This means that even if a class action lawsuit or other representative action, such as that in the form of a private attorney general action, is filed, any Claim between you and the Bank related to this Agreement raised in such lawsuits will be subject to an individual arbitration Claim if either you or the Bank so elects.

The party filing a Claim in arbitration must select either one of two national arbitration administrators: the National Arbitration Forum ("NAF") or the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"). The arbitration organization that is selected will apply its code or procedures in effect at the time the arbitration claim is filed, unless any portion of that code or those procedures is inconsistent with any specific terms of this arbitration provision and/or this Agreement, in which case this arbitration provision and this Agreement shall prevail. The arbitration will be conducted before a single arbitrator. The arbitrator will apply applicable substantive law, including but not limited to the applicable Uniform Commercial Code, consistent with the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1-16 ("FAA") and the applicable statute of limitations or condition precedent to suit, and will honor claims of privilege recognized at law. The arbitrator will have the power to award to a party any damages or other relief provided for under applicable law, and will not have the power to award relief to, against or for the benefit of any person who is not a party to the proceeding. The arbitrator's authority is limited solely to the Claims between you and the Bank alone. The arbitration may not be consolidated with any other arbitration proceeding. You and the Bank do not agree to any arbitration on any basis to which any party other than you and the Bank, the related parties enumerated above such as heirs, successors and assigns, or any other person obligated on the Account, is involved.

Any decision rendered in such arbitration proceeding will be final and binding on the parties, unless a party appeals in writing to the arbitration organization within 30 days of issuance of the award. The appeal must request a new arbitration before a panel of three neutral arbitrators designated by the same arbitration organization. The panel will reconsider all factual and legal issues anew, follow the same rules and laws that apply to a proceeding using a single arbitrator, and make decisions based on the vote of the majority. An award in arbitration will be enforceable as provided by the FAA or other applicable law by any court having jurisdiction.

We will reimburse you for the initial arbitration filing fee paid by you up to the amount of $500. If there is a hearing, we will pay any fees of the arbitrator and arbitration administrator for the first two days of that hearing. All other fees will be allocated in keeping with the rules of the arbitration administrator and applicable law. If you prevail in the arbitration of any Claim against us, we will reimburse you for any fees you paid to the arbitration organization in connection with the arbitration. All other fees, including attorneys' fees, will be allocated in keeping with the rules of the arbitration administrator. Any decision rendered in such arbitration proceedings will be final and binding on the parties, and judgment may be entered in a court of competent jurisdiction. Rules and forms may be obtained from, and Claims may be filed with, either of the two organizations, as follows: the NAF, P.O. Box 50191, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55405, website at www.arb-forum.com; or the AAA, 335 Madison Avenue, Floor 10, New York, New York 10017, website at www.adr.org. Any arbitration hearing at which you wish to appear will take place at a location within the federal judicial district that includes your address at the time the Claim is filed.

This arbitration provision is part of and constitutes a transaction involving interstate commerce, and shall be governed by the FAA.

This arbitration provision applies to all Claims relating to your Account that arose in the past, which may presently be in existence, or which may arise in the future. This arbitration provision shall survive termination of your Account as well as voluntary payment of any outstanding indebtedness in full by you, or any bankruptcy by you. If we assign your Account to any unaffiliated third party, this arbitration provision will apply to any Claim between you and that third party if you or that third party chooses arbitration, or to any Claim between you and the Bank which occurred prior to such assignment or arises from such assignment.

Successors and Assigns

This Agreement shall be binding on your personal representative, executors, administrators, and successors. The benefits and responsibilities of this Agreement shall also transfer to and be binding upon our successors and assigns.

You may not transfer, assign or grant a security interest in (collectively, "assign") your Account without our written consent, and no assignment will be valid, nor will we be deemed to have knowledge of or be bound by such assignment, until we have noted that fact in our records. However, by noting the assignment, we do not attest to or have any responsibility for the validity of the assignment. You understand that any assignment of your Account is subject to our right of set-off.

your account, whichever is later. We will extend this time period if you were not able to make a timely claim because of extraordinary circumstances.

CHECK 21 – SUBSTITUTE CHECKS AND YOUR RIGHTS

What is a substitute check?

To make check processing faster, federal law permits banks to replace original checks with "substitute checks." These checks are similar in size to original checks with a slightly reduced image of the front and back of the original check. The front of a substitute check states: "This is a legal copy of your check. You can use it the same way you would use the original check." You may use a substitute check as proof of payment just like the original check.

Some or all of the checks that you receive back from us may be substitute checks. This notice describes rights you have when you receive substitute checks from us. The rights in this notice do not apply to original checks or to electronic debits to your account. However, you have rights under other law with respect to those transactions.

What are your rights as a consumer regarding substitute checks?

In certain cases, federal law provides a special procedure that allows you to request a refund for losses you suffer if a substitute check is posted to your account (for example, if you think that we withdrew the wrong amount from your account or that we withdrew money from your account more than once for the same check). The losses you may attempt to recover under this procedure may include the amount that was withdrawn from your account and fees that were charged as a result of the withdrawal (for example, bounced check fees).

The amount of your refund under this procedure is limited to the amount of your loss or the amount of the substitute check, whichever is less. You also are entitled to interest on the amount of your refund if your account is an interest-bearing account. If your loss exceeds the amount of the substitute check, you may be able to recover additional amounts under other law.

If you use this procedure, you may receive up to $2,500 of your refund (plus interest if your account earns interest) within 10 business days after we received your claim and the remainder of your refund (plus interest if your account earns interest) not later than 45 calendar days after we received your claim.

We may reverse the refund (including any interest on the refund) if we later are able to demonstrate that the substitute check was correctly posted to your account.

How do you make a claim for a refund?

If you believe that you have suffered a loss relating to a substitute check that you received and that was posted to your account, please contact your J.P. Morgan team at the telephone number or address listed on your statement or you may call:

By Phone: English 1-800-935-9935
Hearing Impaired 1-800-242-7383

You must contact us within 40 calendar days of the date that we mailed (or otherwise delivered by a means to which you agreed) the substitute check in question or the account statement showing that the substitute check was posted to

YOUR CLAIM MUST INCLUDE –

- A description of why you have suffered a loss (for example, you think the amount withdrawn was incorrect);
- An estimate of the amount of your loss;
- An explanation of why the substitute check you received is insufficient to confirm that you suffered a loss; and
- The following information to help us identify the substitute check: the check number, the name of the person to whom you wrote the check, and the amount of the check.

IMPORTANT ENDORSEMENT STANDARDS FOR PERSONAL AND BUSINESS ACCOUNTS

Your compliance with the Bank's endorsement standards is necessary to help assure that the checks you deposit will be cleared on a timely basis.

You assume all responsibility and liability for any loss that we may suffer as a result of (i) your endorsement being placed on the back of the check in a place or manner which obscures other endorsements which then causes a delay in the forward processing and/or return processing of the check, or (ii) issuance of a check on your Account in such a manner that information, marks, or bands on the back of the check obscure endorsements. You must place an endorsement on the back of a check only in the area within 1.5 inches from the "trailing edge" of the check. The trailing edge of the check is the left side of the check looking at it from the front. The remaining area of the check cannot contain any pre-printed, stamped or handwritten client information. We retain the right to refuse to accept a check for deposit when the back of the check is unreasonably obscured.

ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFER SERVICES

We provide a variety of electronic funds transfer (EFT) deposit account services. These include all transfers resulting from debit cards, ATM Cards, electronic payments, credits and transfers, telephone transfers and on-line banking transactions. In conjunction with the use of these EFT services, we may issue to you an access device, which may be a card, code or other means of accessing your Account to initiate EFTs.

For Personal Accounts, EFT deposit account services exclude wire transfer and other same day settlement funds transfer services and all other transactions which are not covered by Federal Reserve Regulation E. These will be governed by a separate agreement.

For Business Accounts, wire transfer and all other funds transfer or other treasury services not identified in this section will be governed by a separate agreement.

Business Days–Everyday is a business day, except Saturdays, Sundays, and State and Federal holidays.

Types of EFT Services

- A. Access Cards If you select a debit card or specialty debit card at the time of account opening, you may use this debit card to access your new checking account. When you open your new checking account at the branch, if you do not select a Personal Identification Number (PIN) for your new debit card, a randomly selected four-digit PIN will be sent to you. Activating your new debit card is not a condition of maintaining your checking account. When you activate your new debit card, any temporary ATM Card that may have been issued to you at the branch will be deactivated. Not applicable for Chase Premier Platinum CheckingSM and High School Checking.

By using your ATM Card or debit card (the "Card"), you agree that:

Filed: 03/12/2018 Pages: 1000

1. Your Card remains our property and will be surrendered immediately to us upon request.
2. We may cancel your Card at any time without notice.
3. You shall abide by our rules and regulations relating to the use of your Card.
4. You shall notify us promptly by telephone or in writing of the loss of your Card.
5. You shall not reveal your Card or access code associated with your Card (personal identification number or "PIN") to any person not authorized by you to use your Card and to not write your PIN number on your Card or on any item kept with your Card.
6. For merchant purchases, we have the right to place a temporary hold on your Account, which may affect available balances for purposes of authorizing other transactions or honoring other items posting to your Account, in an amount equal to the authorization amount received through the payment authorization system. Occasionally, merchants do not provide sufficient information with the transaction to allow us to match the final amount to the authorized amount. In these cases the temporary hold will remain on your Account for three business days. If the underlying transaction posts after a temporary hold drops off, we will still have the right to post the transaction against your Account.
7. We have the right to refuse a transaction on your Account when your Card has been reported lost or stolen or when we reasonably believe there is unusual activity on your Account.
8. If you use your Card to access an Account that is no longer available to complete a transaction, we may, at our sole discretion, charge or credit the transaction to another Account.
9. If you use your Card to access an Account that would exceed the daily authorization limit attached to your Card, we may, at our sole discretion, authorize the transaction.
10. The exchange rate applied by Visa® or MasterCard® to Card transactions that occurred initially in a different currency will be (i) a rate selected by Visa or MasterCard from the range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date, which rate may vary from the rate Visa or MasterCard itself receives, or (ii) the government-mandated rate in effect for the applicable central processing date. The rate in effect on the applicable processing date may differ from the rate on the date you used your Card. For purchases, ATM and non-ATM cash transactions, we will add three percent to the amount provided to us by Visa and MasterCard.
11. Gambling and Illegal Activities: You will not use your account to conduct transactions relating to unlawful internet gambling or any other illegal activity. Because we are required to prevent transactions involving unlawful internet gambling, we may refuse any gambling transaction that is not conducted in person, whether that gambling is lawful or not. We may also refuse any transaction that we reasonably believe may involve illegal activity.

Uses of Your Card

- (1) You can use your Card (except for deposit only Business ATM Cards) to perform the following services at:

a. Chase-branded ATMs to:

- Withdraw cash from your designated checking and savings accounts.
- Transfer funds between your designated checking and savings accounts.
- Find out your designated checking and savings account balances.
- Make deposits to your designated checking and savings accounts.
- Make payments to qualifying Chase Credit Card, auto, home, business and personal loan products.

- Obtain a statement at participating ATMs where available.

b. Non-Chase ATMs to:

- Use your Card at participating networks. Use of your Card may vary depending on the location and type of ATM you are using and the EFT network through which the transaction is being performed. A specific ATM or EFT network may not perform or permit all the above transactions. Transactions at non-Chase ATMs may be subject to a surcharge assessed by the terminal owner. In addition, a specific ATM or EFT network may not provide you with access to all of your Accounts based on the policies of the ATM-owning institution. Withdrawals from ATMs outside the United States generally do not allow savings or money market access. If you have questions regarding whether a certain ATM or EFT network will process a transaction, call or write us.

- (2) Business ATM Card (deposit only): You may use your Business ATM Card (deposit only) to make deposits to your designated checking and savings accounts at full service Chase branded ATMs.

- (3) In addition to the services listed above, you may use your Card:

- At any financial institution that honors your Card to obtain non-ATM cash, which may not exceed your daily authorization limit and will be charged to your primary checking account. Transactions exceeding this limit may require the financial institution to phone the Bank for approval.
- To purchase goods and services from merchants who accept your Card as a means of payment. Purchases may not exceed your daily authorization limit and are charged against your primary checking account. If you have arranged with your merchant to pay for your purchases via periodic payments, this is an agreement between you and the merchant and you agree that you must notify the merchant if your account number or expiration date has been changed or your Account has been closed.
- If you request emergency services, you agree to the release of personal data to Visa U.S.A. Inc., MasterCard and its member financial institution and/or their respective contractors for the purposes of providing the emergency services.
- If you provide authorization to a merchant to bill charges on a recurring basis to your Card, and if a replacement Card has been issued to you, you must provide that merchant with your new card number and/or expiration date in order to bill the recurring charges to your Card. We will make an effort to make available to the merchant through Visa/MasterCard your account number, and/or expiration date in order to permit the merchant to continue to bill the recurring charges to your Card until you notify the merchant and us that you have withdrawn your authorization.

- (4) Point-of-Sale Terminal Transactions: You may use your Card (except for the Business ATM Card (deposit only)) to access your primary checking account to:

- Purchase goods and services from merchants and ATMs who have agreed to accept your Card as a means of payment.
- Withdraw cash in conjunction with a purchase of goods or services if permitted by the merchant.
- Perform balance inquiries on your primary checking account if permitted by the merchant.

Limitations on Transfers, Amounts, and Frequency of Transactions:

- (1) You may make only 6 preauthorized withdrawals (including, but not limited to, withdrawals made by ACH, telephone, Internet or wire) from your regular savings account or 6 preauthorized withdrawals (no more than 3 of which may be by check or similar order payable to a third party) from your money market deposit savings account monthly for purposes of making a payment to a third party. We are not considered a third party for purposes of this limitation where the transfers are for purposes of re-paying loans and associated expenses.
- (2) You may make cash withdrawals, not to exceed your daily authorization limit, at any ATMs described above.
- (3) You may make Point-of-Sale transactions in amounts not to exceed your daily authorization limit.
- (4) If your Account is not in an active status, purchases made with your Card and ATM transactions will be suspended.
- (5) A Privileges Debit Card or Business Associate Debit Card may be issued at your request to allow authorized non-signers to access your designated checking or savings accounts. The maximum daily dollar limit for ATM cash withdrawals and Point-of-Sale transactions will be selected by you at the time you request the card. For Privileges Debit Cards, these dollar limits will be monthly instead of daily.

Your Right to Receive Documentation or Notice of Transactions:

You will receive a receipt or have the option to receive a receipt at our ATMs and the other ATMs that accept your Card each time you make a transaction. The receipt will indicate the location of the ATM (by code in some cases), the transaction date and type, the amount, and the last four digits of your Card account number.

You will receive an account statement each month for your accounts that are accessible by electronic funds transfers if such transfers occur during the month, but at least quarterly if no such transfers occur.

If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person, company or governmental agency, you can call us to find out whether or not the deposit has been made. When calling us, please provide us with your account number and the amount and date of the last deposit.

- B. Payments, Credits and Transfers. We are able to electronically transfer funds between your Accounts, or from your Account to other parties and to receive funds electronically from other parties to deposit to your Account. We may do this by "ACH" (as a member of a local or national Automated Clearing House Association) and other EFT networks. You may authorize a merchant or other payee to make a one-time electronic payment from your checking account using information from your check to pay for purchases or pay bills.
- C. Online Bill Payment and Transfer Services. You may use the Internet to electronically direct us to make payments from your checking account to third parties ("payees") whom you have selected in advance to receive payment by means of the online bill payment service. You must have a checking account with us to use this service. If you have multiple accounts with us, you may also direct us to make transfers between your accounts by means of the online transfer service. To gain access to these online services, go to our websites and enroll with your eligible Bank accounts. Additional disclosures and specific terms and conditions for using the online services will be provided when you enroll.
- D. Telephone Banking. You may use our automated customer service system or speak directly to a Telephone Banker to request us to make periodic transfers from your Account to another checking or savings account held by us. You may also make periodic transfers from your Account to pay certain loans, lines of credit, or credit cards you have with us or with our affiliates. To use the automated system you must have a checking, savings, money market, CD, loan account or a Debit Card and a valid password or PIN. Business account holders may also use a valid TIN. You agree not to reveal your account number, Debit Card number, password, PIN or TIN to any person not authorized by you to use the automated system. To use the service, enter your account number or Debit Card number and password, PIN or TIN as directed. Then follow the options.

- E. Overdraft Protection Transfers. To obtain Overdraft Protection you must have a checking account with us. You must also have a savings account, qualifying credit card, or qualifying home equity, Prestige or business line of credit ("Funding Account"). We are able to transfer funds from a Funding Account to your checking account to help prevent overdrafts from occurring.
- F. Text Message Transfers. If we send you a text message with a transfer option, including an Account balance alert, you may respond to request a transfer between eligible accounts. To use the service, follow the transfer options shown via the text message from us. Not all accounts are eligible for transfer via text message request. We must receive a text message transfer before 11 p.m. Eastern time on a business day for the transfer to be effective the same day. Otherwise, the transfer will be effective the next business day.

IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFERSFor Personal Accounts Only:

Telephone or write us at the telephone number or address that was provided to you in your account opening documentation and is set forth on your monthly statement if you think your statement or receipt is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction listed on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you NO LATER than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared. In your communication to us, be prepared to provide us with the following information:

1. Your name and account number.
2. A description of the error or the transfer you are unsure about, why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
3. The dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you initially provide this information to us via the telephone, we may require that you send your complaint or question in writing within 10 business days.

We will advise you of the results of our investigation within 10 business days (or 20 business days if your Account was opened less than 30 days prior to the date of the suspected error) after we hear from you and, if we have made an error, we will correct it promptly. If it takes us longer than 10 business days (or 20 business days if your Account was opened less than 30 days prior to the date of the suspected error) to research your complaint or problem, we must provisionally recredit your Account within such time for the amount you think is in error so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to conclude our investigation. If we ask you to put your question or complaint in writing, and do not receive it within 10 business days, we may not recredit your Account.

If the transaction complained of involves an Account which is subject to margin requirements or is otherwise covered by Regulation T of the Federal Reserve Board, we will not provisionally recredit the Account involved.

At the conclusion of our investigation, we will inform you of our results within three (3) business days. If we determine that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation. You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation. In all cases, our investigation will be completed within 45 days (or 90 days if your Account was opened less than 30 days prior to the date of the suspected error or occurred at a point-of-sale location or outside the United States).

THE BANK'S LIABILITY FOR FAILURE TO COMPLETE TRANSACTIONS

If we do not complete a transaction from your account on time or in a correct amount, according to our Agreement with you, we will be liable for your losses or damages.

However, there are some exceptions. For instance, we will not be liable if:

1. Through no fault of ours, you do not have enough available funds in your account to make the transaction.
2. The ATM where you are making the transfer does not have enough cash.
3. The ATM was not working properly and you knew about the breakdown when you started the transaction.
4. Circumstances beyond our control (such as fire or flood) prevent the transaction, despite reasonable precautions that we have taken.
5. In the case of preauthorized credits, the data from the third party is not received, is incomplete or erroneous, or if the recipient is deceased.
6. Your Account is not in an active status.

The list of examples set out above is meant to illustrate circumstances under which we would not be liable for failing to complete a transaction and is not intended to list all of the circumstances.

STOP PAYMENT FOR PREAUTHORIZED TRANSFERS

If you have arranged, in advance, to make regular periodic payments out of your Account, you can stop any of those payments by following these procedures:

1. Call or write your J.P. Morgan team at the telephone number or address on your monthly statement in time for us to receive your request three or more business days before the payment is scheduled to be made. (Note: By using your personal computer to cancel the transaction, you may stop a bill payment that is "Pending" at any time prior to four business days before the Payment Due Date. To stop bill payments that are "In Process" please call your J.P. Morgan team. See your Online Bill Payment Agreement for information concerning "Pending" and "In Process" transactions.)
2. If you call, we may require you to put your request in writing so that it reaches us within 14 days after your call.
3. You may be charged the current stop payment fee for each stop payment order you give us.

If these regular payments vary in amount, the person you are going to pay will tell you, 10 days before each payment, when it will be made and how much it will be. You may choose instead to get this notice only when the payment would differ by more than a certain amount from the previous payment, or when the amount would fall outside certain limits that you set.

If you order us to stop one of these payments three business days or more before the transfer is scheduled, and we do not do so, we will be liable for your losses or damages.

DISCLOSURE OF ACCOUNT INFORMATION TO THIRD PARTIES

We may disclose information to third parties about your account or the transfers you made:

1. As necessary to complete transactions.
2. In connection with the investigation of any claim you initiate.
3. To comply with government agency or court orders.

4. In accordance with your written permission.
5. As otherwise permitted by the terms of the Bank's Privacy Policy.

Our Privacy Policy is also available on JPMorganOnline.com.

NOTICE OF YOUR RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES:

For Personal Accounts Only:

Tell us AT ONCE if you believe your Card, PIN or code has been lost or stolen. Telephoning us is the best and fastest way of keeping your possible losses to a minimum.

If you tell us within two business days, you can lose no more than $50.00 if someone used your Card, PIN or code without your permission. If you do NOT tell us within two business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your Card, PIN or code and we can prove we could have stopped the unauthorized transactions if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500.00.

If your statement shows electronic funds transfers that you did not make, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed to you, you may be liable for transactions posting after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have prevented the transactions if you had told us in time.

If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, let us know. We will extend the time periods.

For Business Accounts Only:

- A. You agree to assist us in the investigation and prosecution of claims for unauthorized transactions by completing the appropriate statements and reports reasonably requested by us.
- B. You agree to notify us promptly in writing of any user of a Card who is no longer employed by you or authorized to conduct business on your behalf.
- C. You agree that by allowing anyone to use your Card, you will be responsible for all authorized and unauthorized transactions made through the use of your Card.
- D. Liability for unauthorized transactions, including electronic funds transfers, shall be governed by the "Deposit Account Agreement."

Special Provisions for Card Transactions (zero liability protection):

If in the event your Card or Card number is lost, stolen, or used without authorization, you are not liable for any unauthorized transactions including transactions made at merchants, over the telephone, at ATMs, or online when you notify the Bank promptly.

However, these special provisions do not apply and are not covered by our zero liability policy (in which case the Bank may impose greater liability on the cardholder) when they include transactions where you were grossly negligent or fraudulent in the handling of the account or Card, where you have given someone else your Card, Card number or PIN, or where you delay in reporting unauthorized transactions for more than sixty days.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT ATM SAFETY AND SAFEGUARDING YOUR ACCOUNT INFORMATION

- Play it safe at ATMs – Overall, use common sense and be aware of your surroundings before, during and after you use an ATM. Here are some additional tips:
 - Choose an ATM that is well-lit.
 - If an ATM looks unusual or altered, don't use it. If you suspect the ATM isn't working properly, cancel the transaction and find another machine.
 - At a walk-up ATM, minimize transaction time by having your card ready to use. At a drive-up ATM, keep your car engine running and lock your doors. If there is an entry door, close it completely upon entering and exiting an ATM facility.

- Stand between the ATM and anyone waiting to use the machine so others can't see your PIN or the transaction amount.
 - As soon as your transaction is complete, remember to remove your card from the ATM, and then put away your money, receipt and card.
 - Contact the police or a security officer if you see any suspicious activity at the ATM. If you think you're being followed from an ATM, go to a busy area and immediately contact police.
- Keep your debit or ATM card PIN confidential – Never give your PIN to anyone, don't write it anywhere and avoid carrying it with you. In addition, to keep your card information safe:
 - Change your PIN from time to time and choose a PIN that others can't easily figure out. For example, don't use your birthday or telephone number.
 - To change your PIN (or if you forget your PIN), visit any branch.
 - A JPMorgan Chase employee will never ask you for your PIN or the numbers from the back of your card.
 - Protect your card as you would a credit card or cash.
 - Report a lost or stolen card immediately – The sooner you report a problem, the sooner we can take precautions to ensure your card isn't misused.

Overdraft Protection Services

You must separately sign up for Overdraft Protection, including Cash Sweep Services as it does not automatically apply to new accounts.

1. Definitions: As used in this Overdraft Protection Services section, the following terms shall have the following meanings: "You" or "your" means the person(s) or entity who has requested Overdraft Protection or Business Overdraft Protection ("Request"). "Overdraft Protection" means the automated funds transfer service established pursuant to the Request and this section. "Funding Account" means the account from which Overdraft Protection transfers are made. "Checking Account(s)" means one or more personal checking accounts for which Overdraft Protection is requested or one or more Business checking accounts for which Business Overdraft Protection is requested, as designated on the Request for Overdraft Protection. For Cash Sweep Services, "Checking Account Minimum Balance" means the balance that will trigger the transfer from the Funding Account. "Target Balance" is the balance that will be maintained in the checking account after the transfer from the funding account.
2. Overdraft Protection and Cash Sweep Service Request: The Request must specify the Checking Account(s) and a single Funding Account.
 - Overdraft Protections Service Request: For personal accounts, the Funding Account may be a personal savings account at the Bank ("Savings Account"), a qualifying credit card account at Chase Bank USA, N.A. ("Credit Card Account"), a Home Equity Line of Credit at the Bank ("Line of Credit Account"), or a Prestige Line of Credit at the Bank ("Line of Credit Account"). For business accounts, the Funding Account may be a Business savings account at the Bank ("Savings Account"), a credit card at Chase Bank USA, N.A. ("Credit Card") or a Business Line of Credit at the Bank ("Line of Credit Account") or Business Overdraft Line of Credit at the Bank ("Overdraft Line of Credit Account"). Overdraft Protection will become effective after the Bank has received your Request and had a reasonable time to act upon it.
 - Cash Sweep Service Request: The Request must specify the Checking Account and the Funding Account. For personal accounts, the Funding Account must be a personal savings account at the Bank. For business accounts, the Funding Account must be a business savings account at the Bank. The Cash Sweep will be effective after the Bank has received your Request and had a reasonable time to act upon it.

3. Activation:
- Overdraft Protection Services: Whenever checks or other customer initiated transactions are drawn on a Checking Account which, if paid, would cause the Checking Account to become overdrawn, such event will constitute a transfer request and we will initiate a transfer ("Transfer") from the Funding Account to the Checking Account in multiples of $50.00 (which includes the Transfer Fee) sufficient to pay those checks or other customer initiated transactions drawn on the Checking Account. If the Funding Account is a Credit Card Account, Transfers will be charged to the Credit Card Account under the terms disclosed in your credit card Cardmember Agreement for personal or your Business Credit Card Cardmember Agreement for business customers. If the Funding Account is a Line of Credit Account or Overdraft Line of Credit Account, Transfers will be charged to the Line of Credit Account or Overdraft Line of Credit Account, under the terms disclosed in your Home Equity or Prestige agreement, or Business Line of Credit or Business Overdraft Line of Credit loan documents. Transfers will appear on the periodic statements for the applicable Checking Account and the Funding Account. We have no obligation to inform the checking account owner if the status of the Funding Account or actions of the Funding Account owner results in the Overdraft Protection being unavailable.
 - Cash Sweep Services: Whenever the Checking Account is below the established minimum balance, such event will constitute a transfer under this Agreement and J.P. Morgan will initiate a transfer (Sweep) from the Funding Account sufficient to increase the Checking Account balance to the prescribed Target Balance. We have no obligation to inform the checking account owner if the status of the Funding Account or actions of the Account owner results in the Cash Sweep Service being unavailable.
4. Maximum Overdraft Protection or Cash Sweep Transfer Amount:
- Overdraft Protection Services: The amount of a Transfer will not exceed the amount available in the Funding Account. (The Funding Account is savings account, credit card account, or other line of credit account linked to your checking account for Overdraft Protection.) If the amount available is insufficient to pay all checks and other customer initiated transactions, plus the Transfer Fee, in multiples of $50.00, then we will initiate a Transfer in the amount necessary to pay one or more transactions, plus the Transfer Fee. If the amount available is sufficient to pay one or more transactions, but not the Transfer Fee, we will initiate a Transfer in the amount necessary to pay the transaction or transactions only. We will, however, charge the Transfer Fee against the account, causing the account to be overdrawn. Any checks or other customer initiated transactions that are not paid by the Transfer will either be paid or returned, and Insufficient Funds Fees or Returned Item Fees charged, in the same way as if you did not have Overdraft Protection.
 - Cash Sweep Services: The maximum amount of the Cash Sweep Transfer will be the available balance in the Funding Account. If the amount of the Transfer calculated in the Activation paragraph above exceeds the Maximum Cash Sweep Transfer, then notwithstanding the provisions of the Activation paragraph, the transfer will be the total available balance in the Funding Account.
5. Fees For Overdraft Protection Services Only: For each day on which a Transfer occurs, an Overdraft Protection Transfer fee will be charged to each Checking Account that receives a Transfer.
6. Limits On Savings Account Transfers: If the Funding Account is a Savings Account, Transfers from the Savings Account are considered "preauthorized transfers." The number of such Transfers that may be made during each month or each statement cycle is limited in accordance with federal regulations and our Account Agreement for deposit accounts. See the Withdrawal Procedures and Limitations section for more detail.
7. Termination of Overdraft Protection Or Cash Sweep Service By The Bank: We may terminate Overdraft Protection or Cash Sweep Service for a Checking Account at any time upon sending written notice to the last address for the Checking Account shown on our records. If the Funding Account is closed or blocked for usage, Overdraft Protection or Cash Sweep Service will not be available. If a Checking Account is closed or blocked for usage, Overdraft Protection or Cash Sweep Service for that Checking Account will not be available.
8. Termination of Card Privileges For Overdraft Protection Only: We may terminate or block the use of a Card with access to a Checking Account when, at our discretion, we reasonably believe that there is unusual Overdraft Protection activity for that Checking Account.
9. Termination of Overdraft Protection Or Cash Sweep Service By Customers: The owner of a Checking Account or a Funding Account may cancel Overdraft Protection or Cash Sweep Service for that Checking Account by requesting the cancellation in person at a branch or by delivering to us written notice of cancellation. Any cancellation under this paragraph nine will be effective after we have received notice of such cancellation and had a reasonable time to act upon it.
10. Transfer Requests For Multiple Checking Accounts For Overdraft Protection Only: If transfer requests occur with respect to more than one of the Checking Account(s) on the same day, we shall have sole discretion in determining the order in which such transfer requests are processed.
11. General Provisions: This agreement is binding on the owner of the Checking Account and the Funding Account.

APPENDIX: ASSET ACCOUNT AND DEPOSIT ACCOUNT – FUNDS AVAILABILITY POLICY STATEMENT

General Policy: Wire transfers, electronic direct deposits, and cash deposits made with a banker or at an ATM that does not require a deposit envelope will be available on the day we receive your deposit. Except as described later in this policy, when you make other deposits, the funds are available on the first business day after the day we receive your deposit. Available funds may be withdrawn in cash or used to pay checks and other items.

When Your Deposit Is Received: If you make a deposit on a business day before our cutoff times at a Chase branch or ATM, we will consider that day to be the day of your deposit. However, if you make a deposit after the cutoff time, or on a day that is not a business day, we will consider the deposit to have been made on the next business day.

- For determining the availability of your deposits, every day is a business day, except Saturdays, Sundays, and federal holidays.
- Cutoff times for branch deposits vary by location. For most branches, the cutoff time will be the end of the business day. If it is different, the branch will post signs indicating the earlier cutoff time. The cutoff time will be no earlier than 2 p.m. local time.

For example: You make your deposit on Friday at 5:45 p.m. and the cutoff time for that branch is 5:00 p.m. We consider the deposit to be received on the next business day, which is Monday. But if Monday is a holiday, we consider the deposit to be received on Tuesday.

- For deposits at ATMs, the cutoff time is generally 11 p.m. Eastern time. For ATMs with an earlier cutoff, the ATM screen will notify you of the cutoff time.
- Deposits placed in a night depository are considered received when we remove them from the night depository. We will remove deposits not later than the next business day.
- Branches in some locations may be closed on business days in observance of a state holiday or because of an emergency, and deposits made when those branches are closed (either at a night depository or at an ATM that requires an envelope for deposits) will be considered received on the next business day when the branch is open.
- All deposits made by mail and addressed to Chase without using a specific branch name and street address will be considered received by the Chase-By-Mail facility in Louisville, Kentucky as of the date such deposit is received by this facility.

Longer Delays May Apply: In some cases, we may not make all of the funds that you deposited by check available by the first business day after the day of your deposit. Funds may not be available until the second business day after the day of your deposit. However, at least the first $200 of these deposits will be available on the first business day after the day of your deposit.

If we are not going to make all of the funds from your deposit available on the first business day, we will notify you at the time you make your deposit. We will also tell you when the funds will be available. If your deposit is not made directly to our employee, or if we decide to take this action after you complete your deposit, we will mail you the notice by the day after we receive your deposit. If you will need the funds from a deposit right away, you should ask us when the funds will be available.

Funds you deposited by check may be delayed for longer than two business days under the following circumstances:

- We believe a check you deposited will not be paid;
- You deposited checks totaling more than $5,000 in any one day;
- You re-deposited a check that has been returned unpaid;
- You have overdrawn your account repeatedly in the last six months; or
- There is an emergency, such as failure of communications or computer equipment.

We will notify you if we delay your ability to withdraw funds for any of these reasons, and we will tell you when the funds will be available. They will generally be available no later than the seventh business day after the day of your deposit.

Special Rules for New Accounts: If you are a new account customer, the following special rules may apply during the first 30 days your account is open:

- Funds from deposits of the first $5,000 of a day's total deposits of cashier's, certified, teller's, traveler's, and federal, state, and local government checks will be available on the first business day after the day of your deposit if the deposit meets certain conditions. For example, the checks must be payable to you. The excess over $5,000 will be available on the ninth business day after the day of your deposit. If your deposit of these checks (other than U.S. Treasury checks) is not made in person to one of our employees, the first $5,000 will not be available until the second business day after the day of your deposit; and
- Funds from all other check deposits will be available no later than the fifteenth business day after the day of your deposit.

Holds on Other Funds: If we cash a check for you that is drawn on another bank, we may withhold the availability of a corresponding amount of funds that are already in your Account. Those funds will be available at the time funds from the check we cashed would have been available if you had deposited it.

APPENDIX: OTHER BANKING SERVICES RELATING TO ACCOUNTS

A. FUNDS/WIRE TRANSFERS

1. Definitions

A "funds transfer" means a series of transactions, beginning when an originator issues a payment order for the purpose of paying the beneficiary of such order (the "beneficiary"), but does not include payments made by check or credit card, a debit transfer made through the Automated Clearing House System ("ACH") or transfers governed by the federal Electronic Fund Transfer Act. The term "payment order" means an instruction to a receiving bank transmitted orally, electronically, or in writing to pay a fixed or determinable amount to a beneficiary.

2. Payment Orders

You may issue payment orders orally, electronically or in writing, as arranged, against your Accounts, subject to our acceptance. We will receive and process payment orders only on our Business Days, and within our established cutoff hours. We may debit any of your Accounts for the amount of each payment order we accept and all associated fees. No restrictions upon our acceptance of payment orders or upon the Accounts which we may debit shall be binding unless agreed to by us in writing. Unless otherwise agreed, communications requesting cancellation or amendment of payment orders must be received no later than 5:00 p.m. Eastern time on the Business Day preceding the day we are to execute my payment order.

Notwithstanding any instructions by you to the contrary, we reserve the right to utilize any funds transfer system and any intermediary bank we choose in the execution of any payment order we accept and may otherwise use any means of executing the payment order which we deem reasonable under the circumstances.

3. Security Procedure

All payment orders, and communications requesting cancellation or amendment of payment orders, issued in your name are subject to verification by us pursuant to a mutually agreed upon security procedure. Unless otherwise agreed, we may furnish confidential security procedure material to any person authorized on your Account or to any other person we reasonably believe to be authorized to receive such information. You must safeguard any such security procedure materials and make them available only to persons who are authorized to give instructions using such procedures.

Unless we and you have agreed in writing to an alternate security procedure, the authenticity of oral or written (including writings transmitted by facsimile) wire transfer payment orders may, at our discretion, be verified by telephonic call-back confirmation with an individual purporting to be a person reflected on our records as having authority to initiate wire transfers. You agree that this security procedure is a commercially reasonable security procedure for those wire transfer payment orders.

4. Foreign Currency Transfers

If you issue, and we accept, a payment order for payment outside the U.S. in a currency other than the U.S. dollar, we shall debit your Account for the U.S. dollar equivalent of the amount of the foreign currency transferred at our then prevailing rate of exchange or as otherwise agreed. In processing your funds transfers, other banks may deduct their fees from the payment orders issued to them. If the beneficiary's bank is instructed to pay in a currency other than its local currency, payment may be made by the beneficiary's bank at its rate of exchange on the date of its payment. In connection with each funds transfer, you shall be responsible for complying with all local currency restrictions and any other local law governing the transaction.

5. Identification Numbers

In accepting a payment order issued in your name, we may rely upon the identifying number (such as a Fedwire routing number or account number) of the beneficiary, the beneficiary's bank or any intermediary bank and use only such numbers in executing the order. Also, the beneficiary's bank in the payment order may make payment on the basis of the identifying number even though it identifies a person different from the named beneficiary. Accordingly, you shall be responsible for the consequences of any inconsistency between the name and identifying number, as instructed, of any party in a payment order.

6. Funds Transfer Notices

In any funds transfer where you are the recipient or beneficiary of the transfer, we shall not be obligated to notify you of any such payment to your Account, other than to record such payment in your next regular statement of account. In the event that we send you an additional notice of the receipt of such a funds transfer for your account, you may not withdraw such funds until we have received payment from the sender of such transfer.

7. Other Procedures

We may from time to time provide you with operational procedures or instructions regarding our funds transfer service.

8. Limitations on Liability

Our liability for payment orders that are not authorized and not effective as your order or that are not enforceable against you shall be limited to a refund of the amount paid pursuant to such payment order, and if applicable law requires, interest on the refundable amount. Under no circumstances will we or any Morgan Affiliate be liable for any indirect, incidental, special or consequential damages, regardless of the form of action and even if we or such Morgan Affiliate has been advised of the possibility of such damages, nor shall we or any Morgan Affiliate be liable for any attorneys' fees you incur.

B. RECEIPT OF AUTOMATED CLEARING HOUSE ENTRIES

All Automated Clearing House ("ACH") credits and debits received for your account will be received by us subject to the rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association and any other applicable ACH rules. You agree to be bound by the ACH rules. Any credit given by us to you for an ACH credit shall be provisional until we receive final payment. If we do not get paid, we may revoke the provisional credit and charge the amount to your Account or obtain a refund from you, in which case the originator of the credit entry shall not be deemed to have paid you the amount of such entry. Unless we otherwise agree in writing, we shall not notify you of our receipt of ACH transactions other than as recorded in your next regular Account statement.

Direct Deposit

You may designate us as the bank to receive deposits made directly by any payor to any of your Accounts. These direct deposits may include, for example, your salary, Social Security benefits, and pension or annuity payments.

If we receive a demand for reimbursement from any payor claiming that you were not entitled to certain payment(s), we are authorized to charge your Accounts for the amount of the claim. Any action by us for reimbursement from you may also be made against your estate, heirs and legal representatives, who shall be liable for any claims made against and/or expenses incurred by us. We may terminate any direct deposit service at any time without notice and/or make this service subject to other conditions, at our discretion.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on the "Name" line to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS a percentage of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account, for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your income tax return on the "Name" line. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA)" name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Partnership, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name on the "Name" line and any business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA) name" on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Disregarded entity. Enter the owner's name on the "Name" line. The name of the entity entered on the "Name" line should never be a disregarded entity. The name on the "Name" line must be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income will be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a domestic owner, the domestic owner's name is required to be provided on the "Name" line. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line. If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, you must complete an appropriate Form W-8.

Note. Check the appropriate box for the federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on the "Name" line (Individual/sole proprietor, Partnership, C Corporation, S Corporation, Trust/estate).

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the person identified on the "Name" line is an LLC, check the "Limited liability company" box only and enter the appropriate code for the tax classification in the space provided. If you are an LLC that is treated as a partnership for federal tax purposes, enter "P" for partnership. If you are an LLC that has filed a Form 8832 or a Form 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, enter "C" for C corporation or "S" for S corporation. If you are an LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Regulation section 301.7701-3 (except for employment and excise tax), do not check the LLC box unless the owner of the LLC (required to be identified on the "Name" line) is another LLC that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. If the LLC is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the appropriate tax classification of the owner identified on the "Name" line.

Other entities. Enter your business name as shown on required federal tax documents on the "Name" line. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Exempt Payee

If you are exempt from backup withholding, enter your name as described above and check the appropriate box for your status, then check the "Exempt payee" box in the line following the "Business name/disregarded entity name," sign and date the form.

Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends.

Note. If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding.

The following payees are exempt from backup withholding:

1. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2),
 2. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities,
 3. A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities,
 4. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities, or
 5. An international organization or any of its agencies or instrumentalities.
- Other payees that may be exempt from backup withholding include:
6. A corporation,
 7. A foreign central bank of issue,
 8. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States,
 9. A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission,
 10. A real estate investment trust,
 11. An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940,
 12. A common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a),
 13. A financial institution,
 14. A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian, or
 15. A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947.

The following chart shows types of payments that may be exempt from backup withholding. The chart applies to the exempt payees listed above, 1 through 15.

IF the payment is for . . .	THEN the payment is exempt for . . .
Interest and dividend payments	All exempt payees except for 9
Broker transactions	Exempt payees 1 through 5 and 7 through 13. Also, C corporations.
Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt payees 1 through 5
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 ¹	Generally, exempt payees 1 through 7 ²

² However, the following payments made to a corporation and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees, gross proceeds paid to an attorney, and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4 indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on the "Name" line must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt Payee on page 3.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 3, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.
2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.
3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Note. If no name is circled when more than one name is listed, the number will be considered to be that of the first name listed.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, social security number (SSN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes.

Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit IRS.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

A clearer description of transaction terms used in account statements

This message is to make you aware of new language that will be used to describe a type of transaction in account statements and online activities:

Beginning July 22, 2013, if you cash a check and it is returned to us without being paid, the transaction will be listed on your statement as Cashed Check Returned.

This is not a new transaction type. It is simply a clearer description of this type of account activity.

Currently, a single term (Deposited Item Returned) is used to describe two types of transactions: deposited and cashed items that are returned to us without being paid.

After July 22, this term will only be used to indicate a deposited check that is returned.

All other terms and conditions for your account(s) remain the same.

Please contact your J.P. Morgan team if you have any questions or require more information

General Instructions

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

8. “Interim Distribution Amount” means $55 million, the amount to be distributed from Available Cash according to this Order.

9. “Interim Plan” means the Interim Distribution Plan contained in this Order.

10. “Investor CD Claimants” means all holders of Stanford International Bank, Ltd. CD Claims or Other Stanford International Bank, Ltd. Claims (a) who have not been sued by the Receiver or the Official Stanford Investors Committee (the “Investors Committee”) to recover funds they received from the Stanford Ponzi scheme and (b) who have never been a Stanford employee, independent contractor, or insider, provided that the Receiver retains the right to compensate former Stanford employees for CD losses on the same terms as other investors if the former employees have, in the Receiver’s discretion, materially assisted the Receiver and were not involved in sales or marketing of SIB CDs.

11. “Investor CD Claims” means all Stanford International Bank, Ltd. CD Claims and Other Stanford International Bank, Ltd. Claims held by Investor CD Claimants.

12. “Net Loss” means the amount of money paid to Stanford International Bank, Ltd. by an Investor CD Claimant in excess of the amount of money received from Stanford International Bank, Ltd. by the Investor CD Claimant.

13. “Receiver” means Ralph S. Janvey in his capacity as Court-appointed receiver.

14. “Receivership Entities” include, without limitation, Stanford International Bank, Ltd.; Stanford Financial Group Company; Stanford Group Company; Stanford Trust Company; Stanford Capital Management, LLC; Stanford Coins & Bullion, Inc.; and the other entities listed in Exhibit 8 to the Court’s May 4, 2012 Bar Date Order [Doc. 1584].

15. “Receivership Assets” means the assets, monies, securities, properties, real and personal, tangible and intangible, of whatever kind and description, wherever located, and the legally recognized privileges (with regard to the entities), of the Defendants and all entities they own or control.

16. “Receivership Records” means the books and records, client lists, account statements, financial and accounting documents, computers, computer hard drives, computer disks, internet exchange servers, telephones, personal digital devices and other informational resources of or in possession of the Defendants, or issued by Defendants and in possession of any agent or employee of the Defendants.

17. “Receivership Estate” means the Receivership Assets and Receivership Records.

18. Unless otherwise defined herein, all other capitalized terms have the same meaning as in the Court’s May 4, 2012 Bar Date Order [Doc. 1584].

B. Treatment of Claims under the Interim Plan.

1. The Interim Distribution Amount shall be apportioned among Investor CD Claimants on a pro rata basis. Such Investor CD Claimants shall receive payments equal to a percentage (the “Distribution Percentage”) of their Allowed Claim Amounts as reflected in their Notices of Determination. The Allowed Claim Amounts shall be based on the Investor CD Claimants’ Net Losses. Any future distributions to Investor CD Claimants shall likewise be pro rata based on Investor CD Claimants’ Allowed Claim Amounts.

2. The Distribution Percentage equals the Interim Distribution Amount divided by the sum of: (a) all Allowed Claim Amounts for non-deficient Investor CD Claims as of the filing of the Motion (the “Investors’ Allowed Claim Amounts”), and (b) the Receiver’s estimate of the Allowed Claim Amounts for all Investor CD Claims that are deficient (the “Investors’ Deficient Claim Amounts”). The Distribution Percentage can be represented mathematically as:

3. As of January 2, 2012, the aggregate of the Investors’ Allowed Claim Amounts equaled $4,237,737,851.75, and the aggregate of the Investors’ Deficient Claim Amounts equaled $893,487,080.90. The Distribution Percentage, therefore, is calculated as follows:

$$\frac{$55,000,000.00}{$5,131,224,932.65} = 1\%$$

4. Investor CD Claimants will receive distributions under the Interim Plan equal to their Allowed Claim Amounts as reflected in their Notices of Determination multiplied by the Distribution Percentage. The amount of a given Investor CD Claimant’s interim distribution can be represented mathematically as:

(Particular investor's Allowed Claim Amount) x (Distribution Percentage)

5. If an Investor CD Claimant serves and files a timely objection to a Notice of Determination, the Investor CD Claimant is not disqualified from receiving a distribution under the Interim Plan. However, the Investor CD Claimant shall participate in this interim distribution based initially on the original Allowed Claim Amount in the Notice of Determination. If the Investor CD Claimant ultimately succeeds in increasing the Allowed Claim Amount (either by stipulation with the Receiver or by Court order sustaining the Investor CD Claimant's objection), the claimant shall receive a supplemental payment representing 1% of the difference between the Allowed Claim Amount in the Notice of Determination and the Allowed Claim Amount after final resolution of the claimant's objection.

6. To the extent a claimant receives one or more collateral recoveries, the Receiver may, in his discretion, reduce payments to such a claimant to the extent necessary to ensure that all the Investor CD Claimants are treated similarly with respect to the percentage of their Allowed Claim Amounts they recover from all sources as of the date of the payments. The Receiver shall give any such Claimant written notice of such a reduction and the reasons for same. Any claimant who disputes such a reduction by the Receiver shall serve upon the Receiver within sixty (60) days, but not file, a written objection to the reduction. The Receiver has ten (10) days to respond to the objection. If the Receiver fails to respond or if the dispute otherwise remains unresolved, then the claimant must file the objection with the Court. A claimant must file its objection to the reduction within ninety (90) days of the claimant having received the Receiver's written notice of the reduction. Any objection to a reduction that is not timely filed is waived.

7. Each Investor CD Claimant's interim distribution shall be based solely on his Investor CD Claims and not on his other types of Claims, if any.

8. Nothing in this Order shall preclude future distributions to Investor CD Claimants or other Claimants under a different plan. Nor shall anything in this Order restrict the Receiver's authority to compromise and settle any Claim, or resolve any objection to a determination, at any time, as appropriate, without further order of this Court. [Doc. 1584 at ¶ 7(u).]

C. Execution of the Interim Plan.

1. The distribution under the Interim Plan shall be made from Available Cash only. The distribution process shall begin within ninety (90) days of the Approval Date.

2. The Receiver shall send a notice (the "Certification Notice") to each Investor CD Claimant asking for certification, as a condition of receiving payment, regarding whether they have applied for or received compensation for their claimed losses from sources other than the Receivership and, if so, the amount of such compensation. Investor CD Claimants must provide the necessary certification within sixty (60) days of the date they receive the Certification Notice. The Certification Notice and certification shall be in substantially the same form as Exhibit B to the Receiver's Motion for Approval of Interim Distribution Plan.

3. Payments under the Interim Plan shall be made on a rolling basis as certifications in response to Certification Notices are received and processed. Prior to making a group of payments pursuant to the Interim Plan, the Receiver shall file a schedule of the payments to be made. Each such schedule shall be filed at least ten (10) days prior to the subject payments being made. The schedules shall include claim ID numbers and the amount of the associated payments but shall not contain information from which the individual Investor CD Claimants can be identified.

4. All payments pursuant to the Interim Plan shall be made via check unless otherwise agreed between the Receiver and the Investor CD Claimant(s). If payment is being made to compensate for losses that derive from accounts jointly owned by or otherwise associated with two or more Investor CD Claimants, the check shall be jointly payable to all such Investor CD Claimants and require the full endorsement of all such Investor CD Claimants.

5. Each check shall state on its face that it will be void if not cashed within 180 days from the date of issue. The Investor CD Claimant(s) to whom the check was originally issued may submit a written request for reissuance to the Receiver within 180 days of the original date of issuance of the check. All funds represented by void checks not timely reissued shall revert to the Receivership Estate.

D. No Effect on Third-Party Claims.

1. An Investor CD Claimant's receipt of a payment under this Interim Plan shall not constitute a waiver of the following:

- a. any defenses an Investor CD Claimant has or may have against litigation claims asserted or that may be asserted by the Receiver, including but not limited to any rights the Investor CD Claimant has or may have to appeal rulings of the trial court in such cases;
- b. any right that an Investor CD Claimant has or may have to pursue claims against former individual Stanford Financial Group financial advisors who were licensed by FINRA, subject to any limitations contained in this Court's prior orders, including but not limited to this Court's Second Amended Receivership Order dated July 19, 2010 [Doc. 1130];

- c. any right that an Investor CD Claimant has or may have to pursue claims against persons or entities that are not Receivership Entities as defined herein, subject to any limitations contained in this Court's prior orders, including but not limited to this Court's Second Amended Receivership Order dated July 19, 2010 [Doc. 1130]; or
- d. any claims, rights or defenses which the Receiver, or his counsel, agree in a stipulation filed with this Court are not waived by filing of a Proof of Claim.

E. Release.

1. Any Investor CD Claimant who receives a payment pursuant to the Interim Plan shall be deemed to have released the Investor CD Claim(s) for which payment was made to the extent of the payment. Each Investor CD Claimant's Allowed Claim Amount shall be reduced, dollar for dollar, by the total amount received pursuant to the Interim Plan.

Signed on May 30, 2013.

Petitioner, Ted S. Bernstein, alleges:

1. Simon L. Bernstein, who formerly resided at 7020 Lion's Head Lane, Boca Raton, Palm Beach County, Florida, 33496, died on or about September 13, 2012, in Palm Beach County, Florida. His last will was admitted on or about October 2, 2012.

2. Decedent left surviving the following persons as next of kin:

Ted S. Bernstein	880 Berkeley Street Boca Raton, FL 33487	Son
Pamela Beth Simon	950 N. Michigan Avenue Apartment 2603 Chicago, IL 60611	Daughter
Eliot Bernstein	2753 NW 34th Street Boca Raton, FL 33434	Son
Jill Iantoni	2101 Magnolia Lane Highland Park, IL 60035	Daughter

Lisa Friedstein	2142 Churchill Lane Highland Park, IL 60035	Daughter
-----------------	--	----------	--

3. Co-Personal Representatives Robert L. Spallina and Donald R. Tescher, were granted Letters of Administration on or about October 2, 2012, and have petitioned to resign from that role on or about January 16, 2014, without completing the administration of the estate.

4. Pursuant to Florida Probate Rule 5.430(d) and Fla. Stat. § 733.503, the court must appoint a successor personal representative upon the resignation of a personal representative.

5. A successor Personal Representative is necessary to marshal the assets and to participate in pending litigation. Petitioner requests, and is duly qualified, to be appointed as successor personal representative of the estate of decedent. Petitioner is sui juris and is a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida, and has an interest in this Estate as the Decedent's son and as trustee of the Decedent's Revocable Trust. Petitioner is best qualified to serve as successor personal representative. He already serves in a fiduciary capacity as the Successor Personal Representative of the Estate of Shirley Bernstein, which is pending in the same division of this Court. Shirley is the decedent's predeceased spouse, and the Estates were transferred to this Division because there are common and overlapping issues. In addition, Petitioner serves as the Successor Trustee of the Shirley Bernstein Trust, and has been appointed to and has accepted the appointment to serve as Successor Trustee of the Simon Bernstein Trust, into which the Estate's assets pour over. There is no successor personal representative nominated in the will, and it is believed that the Petitioner will have the support of a majority in interest of the person's entitled to the Estate.

6. Petitioner is the most qualified candidate to serve in the role of personal representative for this estate. Because Petitioner already currently serves as Successor PR for Shirley's Estate and as the Successor Trustee of both Trusts (the Shirley Bernstein Trust and the Simon Bernstein Trust), Petitioner already employs counsel and believes that there will be costs efficiencies served by the same lawyers handling both Estates. Also, Petitioner is actively involved in litigation in which claims are asserted against these Trusts and the Estate, and has familiarity with each of the lawsuits in which the estate is involved.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that upon the resignation of the current Co-Personal Representatives, this Court revoke prior Letters of Administration and rescind any orders of appointment, and that Petitioner be appointed successor personal representative.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

- U.S. Return of Partnership Income, Form 1065

While it is our intention to suggest tax and business ideas or services to you, this engagement generally does not include the rendering of any specific tax consulting services. However, we may provide, at your request, limited tax consulting services including, but not limited to, tax projections, responding to inquiries or tax examinations by any governmental agency or tax authority, assisting you in maintaining your accounting and depreciation records, reviewing proposed or completed transactions, or tax research in connection with these matters. These limited consulting services will be subject to the attached Terms and Conditions of Services and our fees for these additional services will be based upon our prevailing hourly rates effective at the time the services are provided, plus administrative and processing charges, unless otherwise agreed to by both parties.

If you ask us to perform other services that are not covered by this, or any other, engagement letter, you agree that any such engagements or services performed as a result of such requests are subject to the attached Terms and Conditions of Services.

We will use professional judgment in resolving questions where the tax law is unclear, or where there may be conflicts between the taxing authorities' interpretations of the law and other supportable positions. Unless otherwise instructed by you, we will resolve such questions in your favor whenever possible. However, there can be no assurance that any tax positions taken will not be challenged. Our tax advice is based on our assumption (without independent verification) that all of the representations and all of the originals, copies, and signatures of documents reviewed by us are accurate, true, and authentic and the law, regulations, cases, rulings, and other tax authority in effect as of the date the services were rendered.

If there are subsequent changes in or to the foregoing tax authorities (for which we shall have no responsibility to advise you), such changes may result in our advice being rendered invalid or necessitate (upon your request) a reconsideration of the advice.

You represent and warrant that the information you are supplying to us is accurate and complete to the best of your knowledge as required for the preparation of complete and accurate tax returns. You should retain all documents that form the basis for the information presented on tax return forms and schedules, elections and disclosures, including proper records to support deductions claimed for meals, entertainment, travel, gifts, charitable contributions, and vehicle use (if applicable). These may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to taxing authorities. You have the final responsibility for the above tax returns and, therefore, you should review them carefully before you sign them. Please refer to Section D of the attached Terms and Conditions of Services for additional information.

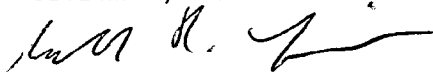

Our fees for these tax services will be based upon our prevailing hourly rates, plus administrative and processing charges. Please refer to Section E of the attached Terms and Conditions of Services for additional information.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICES

A. Services. These Terms and Conditions of Services and the engagement letter to which these terms are appended constitute the entire agreement between you and CBIZ MHM for the tax services to be rendered (the "Agreement"). As used herein, the term "tax services", includes only the tax services as described in the attached engagement letter. All decisions in connection with the implementation of CBIZ MHM's tax services in connection with this engagement shall be your responsibility.

B. Third Parties and Internal Use. Except as otherwise agreed, all tax services hereunder shall be solely for your internal purposes and use, and this engagement does not create privity between CBIZ MHM and any person or party (a "third party") other than you. This engagement is not intended for the express or implied benefit of any third party. No third party is entitled to rely, in any manner or for any purpose, on the tax services provided by CBIZ MHM. In order to protect CBIZ MHM from any unauthorized reliance or claims, you further agree that the tax services provided by CBIZ MHM shall not be distributed, made available, circulated, or quoted to or used by any third party without the prior written consent of CBIZ MHM. However, nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as limiting or restricting such disclosure for your tax return filing purposes. You agree to hold CBIZ MHM harmless from any claims or liability that may arise out of or result from CBIZ MHM complying with your request to disclose or share your information with third-parties.

C. Confidentiality. To the extent that, in connection with this engagement, CBIZ MHM comes into possession of any information of yours identified as proprietary or confidential, CBIZ MHM will not disclose such information to any third party without your consent, except (a) as may be required by law, regulation, judicial or administrative process, in accordance with applicable professional standards, or in connection with litigation pertaining hereto, or (b) to the extent such information (i) shall have otherwise become publicly available (including, without limitation, any information filed with any governmental agency and available to the public) other than as the result of a disclosure by CBIZ MHM in breach hereof, (ii) is disclosed by you or your personnel to a third party without substantially the same restrictions as set forth herein, (iii) becomes available to CBIZ MHM on a non-confidential basis from a source other than you or your personnel which CBIZ MHM does not believe is prohibited from disclosing such information to CBIZ MHM by obligation to you, (iv) is known by CBIZ MHM prior to its receipt from you without any obligation of confidentiality with respect thereto, or (v) is developed by CBIZ MHM independently of any disclosures made by you or your personnel to CBIZ MHM of such information.

We may disclose the information you provide to us in connection with this engagement ("Information") to Mayer Hoffman McCann P.C. ("MHM PC"), so that MHM PC can provide you with any attest services you have engaged MHM PC to perform. You authorize MHM PC to provide us access to all of your files and accounting, tax, financial and other information in its possession for the purpose of providing all tax services requested.

We may use subcontractors, which may be located outside the U.S., to assist us in the preparation of our clients' tax returns. In order to safeguard the confidentiality of client information, both CBIZ MHM and any subcontractors we may use have established internal policies, procedures and controls designed to maintain data security and protect privacy. We will not utilize a subcontractor without a written confidentiality agreement in place to prevent the unauthorized release of client information.

We may disclose the Information to any company, or any employee of such company, that is owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by CBIZ, Inc. ("Affiliate"). We may use the Information for a number of purposes in our efforts to provide you with access to the different types of services offered by our Affiliates, including where appropriate, tax consulting, general business consulting, retirement or estate planning, business succession, asset acquisition or disposition, payroll, benefits, insurance, wealth management and investing, human resources, accounting, valuation, internal audit, mergers and acquisitions, and technology consulting. You have the right to limit the Information you wish to have used or disclosed. We may use the Information to compile lists in order to provide you with tax or business information, newsletters or other correspondence determined from the Information to be relevant to you or your industry, and information on other products or services offered by our Affiliates. If your tax return involves the preparation of Forms K-1, we may provide a copy of Form K-1 to the person described thereon. We may also use and disclose the Information as subsequently requested or directed by you. We will not disclose Information to any person who is not an Affiliate without obtaining a separate consent to such disclosure except (a) as otherwise specifically provided herein, or (b) at your request or direction. Unless you specify otherwise, the consent to the use and disclosure of the Information provided herein will be valid until the statute of limitations to assess any tax by the Internal Revenue Service with respect to the tax return has expired.

D. Client Responsibilities. You are responsible for making all financial records and related information available to us. CBIZ MHM shall be entitled to assume, without independent verification, the accuracy of all representations, assumptions, information and data that you and your representatives provide to CBIZ MHM. All assumptions, representations, information and data to be supplied by you and your representatives will be complete and accurate to the best of your knowledge. CBIZ MHM may use information and data furnished by others; however, CBIZ MHM shall not be responsible for, and CBIZ MHM shall provide no assurance regarding, the accuracy and completeness of any such information or data. Except as specifically provided herein, CBIZ MHM shall not assume any responsibility for any financial reporting with respect to the tax services provided hereunder. You acknowledge and understand that CBIZ MHM is providing no attest services of any kind, scope or nature whatsoever, as part of this engagement. CBIZ MHM shall have no responsibility to address any legal matters or questions of law in connection with this engagement. See section C above for additional information regarding confidentiality.

You shall cooperate with CBIZ MHM in the performance by CBIZ MHM of its tax services hereunder, including, without limitation, providing CBIZ MHM with reasonable facilities and timely access to data, information, and your personnel. You shall be responsible for the performance of your personnel and agents and for the accuracy and completeness of all data and information provided to CBIZ MHM for purposes of the performance by CBIZ MHM of its tax services hereunder.

E. Fees and Payment. Our invoices for these tax services will be rendered each month as work progresses and are payable on presentation. If properly submitted invoices are not paid within 30 days of the invoice date, a late charge may accrue at the lesser of (i) 1% per month or (ii) the highest rate allowable by law. Without limiting its rights or remedies, CBIZ MHM shall have the right to halt or terminate entirely its tax services until full payment is received on such past due invoices. In the case of nonpayment, you will be liable for any and all costs and fees incurred by CBIZ MHM to collect the fees contemplated herein. The failure of CBIZ MHM to exercise its right to suspend or terminate work shall not constitute a waiver by CBIZ MHM of any right or remedy. In the event of a termination of this engagement pursuant to section F below, you agree to compensate CBIZ MHM for tax services performed and expenses incurred through the effective date of termination. All outstanding bills will be paid in full prior to the release of any information or prior to final product or service delivery, unless other arrangements to pay your bill have been agreed upon. See section P below for additional information regarding Limitation on Damages.

F. Term. This engagement shall conclude on the completion and delivery of CBIZ MHM's tax services hereunder. This engagement may be terminated by either party at any time by giving written notice to the other party not less than 10 business days before the effective date of termination. The following sections of this Agreement will survive completion of the Services or its earlier termination: Confidentiality, Ownership, Dispute Resolution, Fees and Payments, Limitation on Damages, Indemnity and such other provisions of this Agreement which by their nature are intended to survive.

G. General. This Agreement forms the entire agreement between the parties relating to the services, and replaces and supersedes any previous proposals, correspondence, understandings or other communications whether written or oral. This agreement shall be binding on all transferees, successors and assigns of both CBIZ MHM and you. Neither party shall be liable to the other for any delay or failure to perform any of the services or obligations set forth in this Agreement due to causes beyond its reasonable control. Each party acknowledges that this was a negotiated contract, and as a result, no part of this contract shall be construed against either party based on drafting of the contract. If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be invalid under any applicable statute or rule of law, it is to that extent to be deemed omitted, and the balance of the Agreement shall remain enforceable.

No delay or omission by either party in exercising any right or power shall impair such right or power or be construed to be a waiver. A waiver by either party of any of the covenants to be performed by the other or any breach thereof shall not be construed to be a waiver of any succeeding breach or of any other covenant. No waiver or discharge shall be valid unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the party against whom such waiver or discharge is sought to be enforced.

You acknowledge and agree that you will be solely responsible for any and all applicable sales tax due in connection with the services provided under this Agreement.

It is common practice for professional service firms such as ours, in discussions with prospective clients, to make reference to prior work, and we would like to have the opportunity to do so with respect to this assignment. Unless Client informs CBIZ MHM to the contrary, on completion of this assignment we understand that we will be entitled to make reference to having undertaken it, including a brief description of its objectives, in CBIZ MHM newsletters and publications and discussions with third parties regarding work opportunities.

H. Foreign Financial Account Reporting. Any U.S. citizen or resident (including individuals, corporations, partnerships, trusts and estates) who has a financial interest in, or signature or other authority over, "foreign financial accounts" with an aggregate value exceeding $10,000 at any time during the prior calendar year, is required to report that relationship to the Internal Revenue Service. Filing requirements also apply to those with direct or indirect control over a foreign or domestic entity with foreign financial accounts, even if the taxpayer does not have foreign financial accounts of its own. Because persons with a financial interest and persons with signature authority are required to submit filings, a single account may require multiple filings. For example, a corporate-owned foreign account would require filings by the corporation and by the individual corporate officers with signature authority.

"Foreign financial accounts", for purposes of this section, are financial accounts located in a foreign jurisdiction and may include, but are not limited to, bank accounts, mutual funds, securities or brokerage accounts, life insurance, credit cards, retirement plans and interests in partnerships, trusts or other pass-through entities having foreign accounts.

These filings must be made by June 30 and the due date of these filings cannot be extended. Failure to disclose the required information to the Internal Revenue Service, even an inadvertent failure, may result in substantial civil and/or criminal penalties.

I. Independent Contractor. It is understood and agreed that each of the parties hereto is an independent contractor and that neither party is, nor shall be considered to be, an agent, partner, joint venturer, or representative of the other. Neither party shall act or represent itself, directly or by implication, as an agent of the other or in any manner assume or create any obligation of behalf of, or in the name of, the other.

J. Employment Offers to Our Personnel. During the term of this Agreement and for a period of one year thereafter, the parties agree not to hire, solicit, or attempt to solicit, whether directly or indirectly, the services of any staff, employee, consultant, or subcontractor of the other party without the prior written consent of that party. Violation of this provision shall, in addition to other relief, require the breaching party to compensate the non-breaching party with 100 percent of the solicited person's annual compensation.

K. Safe Environment. You agree that in any circumstances wherein CBIZ personnel are required to work at any premises or location operated or controlled by you, you will take all actions and precautions necessary to ensure that Client premises are free from all known or reasonably foreseeable safety hazards, and all forms of harassment and discrimination.

L. Property. The workpapers and files which CBIZ MHM generates in connection with this engagement are the property of CBIZ MHM. Upon the termination of this engagement, upon request we will return your original records to you. All CBIZ MHM workpapers and files will be retained pursuant to CBIZ MHM's document retention policy.

M. Electronic Communication. In the interest of facilitating our services to you, we may communicate by facsimile transmission or by sending electronic mail over the Internet. Such communications may include information that is confidential to you. Our firm employs measures in the use of facsimile machines and computer technology designed to maintain data security. While we will use our best efforts to keep such communications secure in accordance with our obligations under applicable laws and professional standards, we have no control over the unauthorized interception of these communications once they have been sent.

N. Governing Law and Severability. These Terms and Conditions of Services, the engagement letter to which these terms are appended, and any and all claims relating to or arising out of this Agreement or related to CBIZ's services, whether sounding in contract, tort, or otherwise, shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the state of Ohio. If any provision of this Agreement is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable, such provision shall not affect the other provisions, but such unenforceable provision shall be deemed modified to the extent necessary to render it enforceable, preserving to the fullest extent permissible the intent of the parties set forth in this Agreement.

O. Dispute Resolution and Jury Trial Waiver. Because there are inherent difficulties in recalling or preserving information as the period after an engagement increases, you agree that, notwithstanding any applicable statute of limitations, you must file any claim based on this engagement in court within twenty four (24) months after performance of our services under the relevant engagement. This preceding sentence is not applicable to engagements with SEC registrants in which Mayer Hoffman McCann P.C. is the auditor of record.

If any dispute, controversy or claim arises in connection with the performance or breach of this agreement, except with respect to the nonpayment or collection of CBIZ MHM's fees, either party may, upon written notice to the other party, request that the matter be mediated. Such mediation will be conducted by a mediator appointed by and pursuant to the rules of the American Arbitration Association or such other neutral facilitator acceptable to both parties. Both parties will exert their best efforts to discuss with each other in good faith their respective positions in an attempt to finally resolve such dispute or controversy.

Each party may disclose any facts to the other party or to the mediator which it, in good faith, considers necessary to resolve the matter. All such discussions, however, will be for the purpose of assisting in settlement efforts and will not be admissible in any subsequent litigation against the disclosing party. Except as agreed by both parties, the mediator will keep confidential all information disclosed during negotiations. The mediator may not act as a witness for either party in any subsequent arbitration between the parties.

The mediation proceedings will conclude within sixty days from receipt of the written notice unless extended or terminated sooner by mutual consent. Each party will be responsible for its own expenses. The fees and expenses of the mediator, if any, will be borne equally by the parties. If the parties cannot resolve a dispute not related to fees through mediation, either party may pursue action in a court of competent jurisdiction as set forth in Section N of these Terms and Conditions.

If there is a fee dispute you and CBIZ MHM agree to submit all fee disputes to resolution by arbitration in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association. You waive the right to make counterclaims in the arbitration of such fee disputes and such arbitration shall be binding and final, as permitted by the law of the applicable jurisdiction. In agreeing to arbitration, we both acknowledge that in the event of a dispute over fees, each of us is giving up the right to have the dispute decided in a court of law before any judge or jury and instead are accepting the use of arbitration for resolution. Each party will bear its own costs of arbitration and both parties shall share equally the costs of the arbitrators.

Unless otherwise prohibited by law or applicable professional standard each of the parties irrevocably, voluntarily and knowingly waives its right to a jury trial of any claim or cause of action based upon or arising out of this agreement or any dealings between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof. The scope of this waiver is intended to be all-encompassing. It includes any and all disputes that may be filed in any court and that relate to the subject matter of this agreement, including, but not limited to, contract claims, tort claims, breach of duty claims and all other common law and statutory claims. It also includes any and all such claims that may be brought against CBIZ MHM, CBIZ, Inc., or any of its subsidiaries and any of their respective personnel, current or former.

P. Limitation on Damages. Unless otherwise prohibited by law or applicable professional standard, you agree that CBIZ MHM, any entity related to it and their respective personnel, current or former, shall not be liable to you for any claims, liabilities, or expenses relating to this engagement for an aggregate amount in excess of the fees paid by you to CBIZ MHM pursuant to this engagement, except to the extent finally judicially determined to have resulted from the bad faith or intentional misconduct of CBIZ MHM. Unless otherwise prohibited by law or applicable professional standard, in no event shall CBIZ MHM, any entity related to it or their respective personnel, current or former, be liable for consequential, special, indirect, incidental, punitive, or exemplary losses or damages relating to this engagement. This limitation on liability provision shall apply to the fullest extent of the law, whether in contract, statute, tort (such as negligence), professional standard, or otherwise. This Section P is not applicable to engagements with SEC registrants where Mayer Hoffman McCann P.C. is the auditor of record.

Q. Inherent Conflicts of Interest: CBIZ MHM cannot represent a client when there is a significant risk that the representation of one or more clients will be materially limited by the practitioner's responsibilities to another client (a "conflict of interest"), unless all affected parties waived the conflict of interest in writing. In some very common situations there are inherent potential conflicts of interest between or among clients. For example, an entity, such as a corporation, partnership or limited liability company, has potential conflicts of interest with its respective shareholders, partners or members, board members, officers, management team or employees (collectively "Executives"). Conflicts are present in almost any financial decision of the entity; for example, certain tax elections required to be made by the entity may not benefit all Executives equally, or decisions to make capital improvements, borrow money or admit new owners may have a financial impact on existing Executives. Another example of common inherent conflicts of interest exist between or among estates, trusts or similar entities represented by a fiduciary ("Estate") or a person engaged in succession planning or other disposition of assets ("Grantor"), and the respective primary and contingent beneficiaries ("Beneficiaries"). Tax elections, return positions, or other decisions regarding assets or investments may be required to be made by the Estate, and those elections, positions or decisions may not benefit all Beneficiaries equally. It is common for CBIZ MHM to provide tax advice and prepare tax returns for both entities and their Executives or Beneficiaries. If CBIZ MHM represents any of your Executives or Beneficiaries, you hereby acknowledge such conflicts of interest and agree that CBIZ MHM can advise and prepare tax returns for those Executives or Beneficiaries as well as perform the services described in this engagement letter on your behalf.

R. Limitations on Oral and Email Communication: We may discuss with you our views regarding the tax treatment of certain items and may provide you with tax information in the body of an email. Any advice or information delivered orally or in the body of an email (as opposed to a memorandum delivered as an email attachment) will be based upon limited tax research and a limited discussion and analysis of the underlying facts. Additional research or a more complete review of the facts could affect our analysis and conclusions. Because of these limitations and the related risks, it may not be appropriate to proceed with any transaction solely on the basis of any oral or email communication, and we will not be liable for any loss, cost, or expense resulting from your decision to rely on any oral or email communication.

S. Indemnification. Unless otherwise prohibited by law or applicable professional standard, you shall indemnify and hold harmless CBIZ MHM and its personnel from and against any causes of action, damages (whether compensatory, consequential, special, indirect, incidental, punitive, exemplary, or of any other type or nature), costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the reasonable time and expenses of CBIZ MHM's personnel involved) brought against or involving CBIZ MHM at any time and in any way arising out of or relating to CBIZ MHM's services under this engagement, except to the extent judicially determined to have resulted from the bad faith, gross negligence, or willful or intentional misconduct of CBIZ MHM's personnel. This provision shall survive the termination of this agreement for any reason, and shall apply to the fullest extent of the law, whether in contract, tort, or otherwise.

If any action or proceeding (any of the foregoing being a "Claim") is threatened or commenced by any third party against CBIZ MHM that you are obligated to defend or indemnify under this Agreement, then written notice thereof shall be given to you as promptly as practicable. After such notice and only so long as CBIZ MHM's and your interests with respect to the claim remain consistent, no conflict exists, and, by your control of the defense, CBIZ MHM's insurance is not voided or otherwise compromised in any way, you shall be entitled, if you so elect in writing within ten days after receipt of such notice, to take control of the defense and investigation of such Claim and to employ and engage attorneys to handle and defend the same, at your sole cost and expense, with the approval of CBIZ MHM, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. CBIZ MHM shall cooperate in all reasonable respects with you and your attorneys in the investigation, trial and defense of such Claim and any appeal arising therefrom; provided, however, that CBIZ MHM may, at its own cost and expense, participate, through its attorneys or otherwise, in such investigation, trial and defense of such Claim and any appeal arising therefrom. You shall enter into no settlement of a Claim that involves a remedy other than the payment of money by solely you without the prior consent of CBIZ MHM.

After notice by you to CBIZ MHM of your election to assume full control of the defense of any such Claim, and CBIZ MHM's approval of selected counsel, you shall not be liable to CBIZ MHM for any legal expenses incurred thereafter by CBIZ MHM in connection with the defense of that Claim. If you do not assume full control over the defense of a Claim, then you may participate in such defense, at your sole cost and expense, and CBIZ MHM shall have the right to defend you in such manner as it may deem appropriate, at your cost and expense.

We may use the Information for a number of purposes in our efforts to provide you with access to the different types of services offered by our Affiliates, including where appropriate, tax consulting, general business consulting, retirement or estate planning, business succession, asset acquisition or disposition, payroll, benefits, insurance, wealth management and investing, human resources, accounting, valuation, internal audit, mergers and acquisitions, and technology consulting. You have the right to limit the Information you wish to have used or disclosed. We may use the Information to compile lists in order to provide you with tax or business information, newsletters or other correspondence determined from the Information to be relevant to you or your industry, and information on other products or services offered by our Affiliates. If your tax return involves the preparation of Forms K-1, we may provide a copy of Form K-1 to the person described thereon. We may also use and disclose the Information as subsequently requested or directed by you. We will not disclose Information to any person who is not an Affiliate without obtaining a separate consent to such disclosure except (a) as otherwise specifically provided herein, or (b) at your request or direction. Unless you specify otherwise, the consent to the use and disclosure of the Information provided herein will be valid until the statute of limitations to assess any tax by the Internal Revenue Service with respect to the tax return has expired.

D. Client Responsibilities. You are responsible for making all financial records and related information available to us. CBIZ MHM shall be entitled to assume, without independent verification, the accuracy of all representations, assumptions, information and data that you and your representatives provide to CBIZ MHM. All assumptions, representations, information and data to be supplied by you and your representatives will be complete and accurate to the best of your knowledge. CBIZ MHM may use information and data furnished by others; however, CBIZ MHM shall not be responsible for, and CBIZ MHM shall provide no assurance regarding, the accuracy and completeness of any such information or data. Except as specifically provided herein, CBIZ MHM shall not assume any responsibility for any financial reporting with respect to the tax services provided hereunder. You acknowledge and understand that CBIZ MHM is providing no attest services of any kind, scope or nature whatsoever, as part of this engagement. CBIZ MHM shall have no responsibility to address any legal matters or questions of law in connection with this engagement. See section C above for additional information regarding confidentiality.

You shall cooperate with CBIZ MHM in the performance by CBIZ MHM of its tax services hereunder, including, without limitation, providing CBIZ MHM with reasonable facilities and timely access to data, information, and your personnel. You shall be responsible for the performance of your personnel and agents and for the accuracy and completeness of all data and information provided to CBIZ MHM for purposes of the performance by CBIZ MHM of its tax services hereunder.

E. Fees and Payment. Our invoices for these tax services will be rendered each month as work progresses and are payable on presentation. If properly submitted invoices are not paid within 30 days of the invoice date, a late charge may accrue at the lesser of (i) 1% per month or (ii) the highest rate allowable by law. Without limiting its rights or remedies, CBIZ MHM shall have the right to halt or terminate entirely its tax services until full payment is received on such past due invoices. In the case of nonpayment, you will be liable for any and all costs and fees incurred by CBIZ MHM to collect the fees contemplated herein. The failure of CBIZ MHM to exercise its right to suspend or terminate work shall not constitute a waiver by CBIZ MHM of any right or remedy. In the event of a termination of this engagement pursuant to section F below, you agree to compensate CBIZ MHM for tax services performed and expenses incurred through the effective date of termination. All outstanding bills will be paid in full prior to the release of any information or prior to final product or service delivery, unless other arrangements to pay your bill have been agreed upon. See section P below for additional information regarding Limitation on Damages.

F. Term. This engagement shall conclude on the completion and delivery of CBIZ MHM's tax services hereunder. This engagement may be terminated by either party at any time by giving written notice to the other party not less than 10 business days before the effective date of termination. The following sections of this Agreement will survive completion of the Services or its earlier termination: Confidentiality, Ownership, Dispute Resolution, Fees and Payments, Limitation on Damages, Indemnity and such other provisions of this Agreement which by their nature are intended to survive.

G. General. This Agreement forms the entire agreement between the parties relating to the services, and replaces and supersedes any previous proposals, correspondence, understandings or other communications whether written or oral. This agreement shall be binding on all transferees, successors and assigns of both CBIZ MHM and you. Neither party shall be liable to the other for any delay or failure to perform any of the services or obligations set forth in this Agreement due to causes beyond its reasonable control. Each party acknowledges that this was a negotiated contract, and as a result, no part of this contract shall be construed against either party based on drafting of the contract. If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be invalid under any applicable statute or rule of law, it is to that extent to be deemed omitted, and the balance of the Agreement shall remain enforceable.

No delay or omission by either party in exercising any right or power shall impair such right or power or be construed to be a waiver. A waiver by either party of any of the covenants to be performed by the other or any breach thereof shall not be construed to be a waiver of any succeeding breach or of any other covenant. No waiver or discharge shall be valid unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the party against whom such waiver or discharge is sought to be enforced.

You acknowledge and agree that you will be solely responsible for any and all applicable sales tax due in connection with the services provided under this Agreement.

It is common practice for professional service firms such as ours, in discussions with prospective clients, to make reference to prior work, and we would like to have the opportunity to do so with respect to this assignment. Unless Client informs CBIZ MHM to the contrary, on completion of this assignment we understand that we will be entitled to make reference to having undertaken it, including a brief description of its objectives, in CBIZ MHM newsletters and publications and discussions with third parties regarding work opportunities.

H. Foreign Financial Account Reporting. Any U.S. citizen or resident (including individuals, corporations, partnerships, trusts and estates) who has a financial interest in, or signature or other authority over, "foreign financial accounts" with an aggregate value exceeding $10,000 at any time during the prior calendar year, is required to report that relationship to the Internal Revenue Service. Filing requirements also apply to those with direct or indirect control over a foreign or domestic entity with foreign financial accounts, even if the taxpayer does not have foreign financial accounts of its own. Because persons with a financial interest and persons with signature authority are required to submit filings, a single account may require multiple filings. For example, a corporate-owned foreign account would require filings by the corporation and by the individual corporate officers with signature authority.

"Foreign financial accounts", for purposes of this section, are financial accounts located in a foreign jurisdiction and may include, but are not limited to, bank accounts, mutual funds, securities or brokerage accounts, life insurance, credit cards, retirement plans and interests in partnerships, trusts or other pass-through entities having foreign accounts.

These filings must be made by June 30 and the due date of these filings cannot be extended. Failure to disclose the required information to the Internal Revenue Service, even an inadvertent failure, may result in substantial civil and/or criminal penalties.

I. Independent Contractor. It is understood and agreed that each of the parties hereto is an independent contractor and that neither party is, nor shall be considered to be, an agent, partner, joint venturer, or representative of the other. Neither party shall act or represent itself, directly or by implication, as an agent of the other or in any manner assume or create any obligation of behalf of, or in the name of, the other.

J. Employment Offers to Our Personnel. During the term of this Agreement and for a period of one year thereafter, the parties agree not to hire, solicit, or attempt to solicit, whether directly or indirectly, the services of any staff, employee, consultant, or subcontractor of the other party without the prior written consent of that party. Violation of this provision shall, in addition to other relief, require the breaching party to compensate the non-breaching party with 100 percent of the solicited person's annual compensation.

K. Safe Environment. You agree that in any circumstances wherein CBIZ personnel are required to work at any premises or location operated or controlled by you, you will take all actions and precautions necessary to ensure that Client premises are free from all known or reasonably foreseeable safety hazards, and all forms of harassment and discrimination.

L. Property. The workpapers and files which CBIZ MHM generates in connection with this engagement are the property of CBIZ MHM. Upon the termination of this engagement, upon request we will return your original records to you. All CBIZ MHM workpapers and files will be retained pursuant to CBIZ MHM's document retention policy.

M. Electronic Communication. In the interest of facilitating our services to you, we may communicate by facsimile transmission or by sending electronic mail over the Internet. Such communications may include information that is confidential to you. Our firm employs measures in the use of facsimile machines and computer technology designed to maintain data security. While we will use our best efforts to keep such communications secure in accordance with our obligations under applicable laws and professional standards, we have no control over the unauthorized interception of these communications once they have been sent.

N. Governing Law and Severability. These Terms and Conditions of Services, the engagement letter to which these terms are appended, and any and all claims relating to or arising out of this Agreement or related to CBIZ's services, whether sounding in contract, tort, or otherwise, shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the state of Ohio. If any provision of this Agreement is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable, such provision shall not affect the other provisions, but such unenforceable provision shall be deemed modified to the extent necessary to render it enforceable, preserving to the fullest extent permissible the intent of the parties set forth in this Agreement.

O. Dispute Resolution and Jury Trial Waiver. Because there are inherent difficulties in recalling or preserving information as the period after an engagement increases, you agree that, notwithstanding any applicable statute of limitations, you must file any claim based on this engagement in court within twenty four (24) months after performance of our services under the relevant engagement. This preceding sentence is not applicable to engagements with SEC registrants in which Mayer Hoffman McCann P.C. is the auditor of record.

If any dispute, controversy or claim arises in connection with the performance or breach of this agreement, except with respect to the nonpayment or collection of CBIZ MHM's fees, either party may, upon written notice to the other party, request that the matter be mediated. Such mediation will be conducted by a mediator appointed by and pursuant to the rules of the American Arbitration Association or such other neutral facilitator acceptable to both parties. Both parties will exert their best efforts to discuss with each other in good faith their respective positions in an attempt to finally resolve such dispute or controversy.

Each party may disclose any facts to the other party or to the mediator which it, in good faith, considers necessary to resolve the matter. All such discussions, however, will be for the purpose of assisting in settlement efforts and will not be admissible in any subsequent litigation against the disclosing party. Except as agreed by both parties, the mediator will keep confidential all information disclosed during negotiations. The mediator may not act as a witness for either party in any subsequent arbitration between the parties.

The mediation proceedings will conclude within sixty days from receipt of the written notice unless extended or terminated sooner by mutual consent. Each party will be responsible for its own expenses. The fees and expenses of the mediator, if any, will be borne equally by the parties. If the parties cannot resolve a dispute not related to fees through mediation, either party may pursue action in a court of competent jurisdiction as set forth in Section N of these Terms and Conditions.

If there is a fee dispute you and CBIZ MHM agree to submit all fee disputes to resolution by arbitration in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association. You waive the right to make counterclaims in the arbitration of such fee disputes and such arbitration shall be binding and final, as permitted by the law of the applicable jurisdiction. In agreeing to arbitration, we both acknowledge that in the event of a dispute over fees, each of us is giving up the right to have the dispute decided in a court of law before any judge or jury and instead are accepting the use of arbitration for resolution. Each party will bear its own costs of arbitration and both parties shall share equally the costs of the arbitrators.

Unless otherwise prohibited by law or applicable professional standard each of the parties irrevocably, voluntarily and knowingly waives its right to a jury trial of any claim or cause of action based upon or arising out of this agreement or any dealings between the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof. The scope of this waiver is intended to be all-encompassing. It includes any and all disputes that may be filed in any court and that relate to the subject matter of this agreement, including, but not limited to, contract claims, tort claims, breach of duty claims and all other common law and statutory claims. It also includes any and all such claims that may be brought against CBIZ MHM, CBIZ, Inc., or any of its subsidiaries and any of their respective personnel, current or former.

P. Limitation on Damages. Unless otherwise prohibited by law or applicable professional standard, you agree that CBIZ MHM, any entity related to it and their respective personnel, current or former, shall not be liable to you for any claims, liabilities, or expenses relating to this engagement for an aggregate amount in excess of the fees paid by you to CBIZ MHM pursuant to this engagement, except to the extent finally judicially determined to have resulted from the bad faith or intentional misconduct of CBIZ MHM. Unless otherwise prohibited by law or applicable professional standard, in no event shall CBIZ MHM, any entity related to it or their respective personnel, current or former, be liable for consequential, special, indirect, incidental, punitive, or exemplary losses or damages relating to this engagement. This limitation on liability provision shall apply to the fullest extent of the law, whether in contract, statute, tort (such as negligence), professional standard, or otherwise. This Section P is not applicable to engagements with SEC registrants where Mayer Hoffman McCann P.C. is the auditor of record.

Q. Inherent Conflicts of Interest: CBIZ MHM cannot represent a client when there is a significant risk that the representation of one or more clients will be materially limited by the practitioner's responsibilities to another client (a "conflict of interest"), unless all affected parties waived the conflict of interest in writing. In some very common situations there are inherent potential conflicts of interest between or among clients. For example, an entity, such as a corporation, partnership or limited liability company, has potential conflicts of interest with its respective shareholders, partners or members, board members, officers, management team or employees (collectively "Executives"). Conflicts are present in almost any financial decision of the entity; for example, certain tax elections required to be made by the entity may not benefit all Executives equally, or decisions to make capital improvements, borrow money or admit new owners may have a financial impact on existing Executives. Another example of common inherent conflicts of interest exist between or among estates, trusts or similar entities represented by a fiduciary ("Estate") or a person engaged in succession planning or other disposition of assets ("Grantor"), and the respective primary and contingent beneficiaries ("Beneficiaries"). Tax elections, return positions, or other decisions regarding assets or investments may be required to be made by the Estate, and those elections, positions or decisions may not benefit all Beneficiaries equally. It is common for CBIZ MHM to provide tax advice and prepare tax returns for both entities and their Executives or Beneficiaries. If CBIZ MHM represents any of your Executives or Beneficiaries, you hereby acknowledge such conflicts of interest and agree that CBIZ MHM can advise and prepare tax returns for those Executives or Beneficiaries as well as perform the services described in this engagement letter on your behalf.

R. Limitations on Oral and Email Communication: We may discuss with you our views regarding the tax treatment of certain items and may provide you with tax information in the body of an email. Any advice or information delivered orally or in the body of an email (as opposed to a memorandum delivered as an email attachment) will be based upon limited tax research and a limited discussion and analysis of the underlying facts. Additional research or a more complete review of the facts could affect our analysis and conclusions. Because of these limitations and the related risks, it may not be appropriate to proceed with any transaction solely on the basis of any oral or email communication, and we will not be liable for any loss, cost, or expense resulting from your decision to rely on any oral or email communication.

S. Indemnification. Unless otherwise prohibited by law or applicable professional standard, you shall indemnify and hold harmless CBIZ MHM and its personnel from and against any causes of action, damages (whether compensatory, consequential, special, indirect, incidental, punitive, exemplary, or of any other type or nature), costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the reasonable time and expenses of CBIZ MHM's personnel involved) brought against or involving CBIZ MHM at any time and in any way arising out of or relating to CBIZ MHM's services under this engagement, except to the extent judicially determined to have resulted from the bad faith, gross negligence, or willful or intentional misconduct of CBIZ MHM's personnel. This provision shall survive the termination of this agreement for any reason, and shall apply to the fullest extent of the law, whether in contract, tort, or otherwise.

If any action or proceeding (any of the foregoing being a "Claim") is threatened or commenced by any third party against CBIZ MHM that you are obligated to defend or indemnify under this Agreement, then written notice thereof shall be given to you as promptly as practicable. After such notice and only so long as CBIZ MHM's and your interests with respect to the claim remain consistent, no conflict exists, and, by your control of the defense, CBIZ MHM's insurance is not voided or otherwise compromised in any way, you shall be entitled, if you so elect in writing within ten days after receipt of such notice, to take control of the defense and investigation of such Claim and to employ and engage attorneys to handle and defend the same, at your sole cost and expense, with the approval of CBIZ MHM, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. CBIZ MHM shall cooperate in all reasonable respects with you and your attorneys in the investigation, trial and defense of such Claim and any appeal arising therefrom; provided, however, that CBIZ MHM may, at its own cost and expense, participate, through its attorneys or otherwise, in such investigation, trial and defense of such Claim and any appeal arising therefrom. You shall enter into no settlement of a Claim that involves a remedy other than the payment of money by solely you without the prior consent of CBIZ MHM.

After notice by you to CBIZ MHM of your election to assume full control of the defense of any such Claim, and CBIZ MHM's approval of selected counsel, you shall not be liable to CBIZ MHM for any legal expenses incurred thereafter by CBIZ MHM in connection with the defense of that Claim. If you do not assume full control over the defense of a Claim, then you may participate in such defense, at your sole cost and expense, and CBIZ MHM shall have the right to defend you in such manner as it may deem appropriate, at your cost and expense.

FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN
FLORIDA.

CASE NO. 502012CP004391XXXXSB

_____ /

PETITION FOR APPOINTMENT OF SUCCESSOR PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE

Petitioner, Ted S. Bernstein, alleges:

1. Simon L. Bernstein, who formerly resided at 7020 Lion's Head Lane, Boca Raton, Palm Beach County, Florida, 33496, died on or about September 13, 2012, in Palm Beach County, Florida. His last will was admitted on or about October 2, 2012.

2. Decedent left surviving the following persons as next of kin:

Ted S. Bernstein	880 Berkeley Street Boca Raton, FL 33487	Son
Pamela Beth Simon	950 N. Michigan Avenue Apartment 2603 Chicago, IL 60611	Daughter

-----------------	--	----------	--

3. Co-Personal Representatives Robert L. Spallina and Donald R. Tescher, were granted Letters of Administration on or about October 2, 2012, and have petitioned to resign from that role on or about January 16, 2014, without completing the administration of the estate.

4. Pursuant to Florida Probate Rule 5.430(d) and Fla. Stat. § 733.503, the court must appoint a successor personal representative upon the resignation of a personal representative.

5. A successor Personal Representative is necessary to marshal the assets and to participate in pending litigation. Petitioner requests, and is duly qualified, to be appointed as successor personal representative of the estate of decedent. Petitioner is sui juris and is a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida, and has an interest in this Estate as the Decedent's son and as trustee of the Decedent's Revocable Trust. Petitioner is best qualified to serve as successor personal representative. He already serves in a fiduciary capacity as the Successor Personal Representative of the Estate of Shirley Bernstein, which is pending in the same division of this Court. Shirley is the decedent's predeceased spouse, and the Estates were transferred to this Division because there are common and overlapping issues. In addition, Petitioner serves as the Successor Trustee of the Shirley Bernstein Trust, and has been appointed to and has accepted the appointment to serve as Successor Trustee of the Simon Bernstein Trust, into which the Estate's assets pour over. There is no successor personal representative nominated in the will, and it is believed that the Petitioner will have the support of a majority in interest of the person's entitled to the Estate.

6. Petitioner is the most qualified candidate to serve in the role of personal representative for this estate. Because Petitioner already currently serves as Successor PR for Shirley's Estate and as the Successor Trustee of both Trusts (the Shirley Bernstein Trust and the Simon Bernstein Trust), Petitioner already employs counsel and believes that there will be costs efficiencies served by the same lawyers handling both Estates. Also, Petitioner is actively involved in litigation in which claims are asserted against these Trusts and the Estate, and has familiarity with each of the lawsuits in which the estate is involved.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that upon the resignation of the current Co-Personal Representatives, this Court revoke prior Letters of Administration and rescind any orders of appointment, and that Petitioner be appointed successor personal representative.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF CURATOR OR ADMINISTRATOR AD LITEM

COMES NOW Ted S. Bernstein, pursuant to Fla. Prob. R. 5.120, 5.122 and Fla. Stat. §733.501 by and through counsel, and moves this Court to appoint a curator or an administrator ad litem and states that at all times relevant:

1. This motion is for the appointment of an estate fiduciary for the limited purposes of administering the estate until this Court appoints a successor personal representative since the Co-Personal Representatives have resigned. It seeks to have the moving party appointed as such.
2. There is pending litigation which the estate is involved in as well as assets to marshal.
3. It is necessary that the estate be represented.
4. The Decedent, Simon Bernstein, formerly resided at 7020 Lion's Head Lane, Boca Raton, Palm Beach County, Florida, 33496, died on or about September 13, 2012, in Palm Beach County, Florida where venue is proper. His last will was admitted on or about October 2, 2012.

5. Decedent left surviving the following persons as next of kin:

Ted S. Bernstein	880 Berkeley Street Boca Raton, FL 33487	Son
Pamela Beth Simon	950 N. Michigan Avenue Apartment 2603 Chicago, IL 60611	Daughter
Lisa Friedstein	2142 Churchill Lane Highland Park, IL 60035	Daughter

6. Co-Personal Representatives Robert L. Spallina and Donald R. Tescher, were entitled to and granted Letters of Administration on or about October 2, 2012, and have petitioned to resign from that role on or about January 16, 2014, without completing the administration of the estate.

7. The nature and approximate value of the assets of the estate is believed to be a promissory note and investments in excess of $ 100,000.

8. The moving party is the most qualified to act and has personal knowledge of the Decedent's assets and the litigation which the estate is involved in. He is also the trustee of the Decedent's revocable trust, which is now irrevocable.

WHEREFORE, the moving party prays that he be appointed curator or administrator ad litem, that he be granted letters or authority, and that this Court provide such further relief as may be just and proper.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT OF FLORIDA, IN AND FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA

IN RE:

Case No.: 50 2012 CP 004391 SB
JUDGE MARTIN COLIN

BERNSTEIN,

Deceased.

Division: IY

RESPONSE IN OPPOSITION TO MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF TED BERNSTEIN AS CURATOR AND MOTION FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF ELIOT
BERNSTEIN AS CURATOR OR SUCCESSOR PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE OR,
IN THE ALTERNATIVE, FOR APPOINTMENT OF AN INDEPENDENT THIRD PARTY AS SUCCESSOR PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE OR CURATOR

COMES NOW Petitioner, William E. Stansbury (“Stansbury”), an unsecured creditor and “Interested Person,” pursuant to the §731.201(23) Fla. Stat. (2013), by and through his undersigned counsel, and files this Response in Opposition to Motion for Appointment of Ted Bernstein as Curator and Motion for the Appointment of Eliot Bernstein as Curator or Successor Personal Representative or, in the Alternative, for Appointment of an Independent Third Party as Successor Personal Representative or Curator. In support, Petitioner states as follows:

1. The currently serving Co-Personal Representatives of the Estate, Donald R. Tescher and Robert L. Spallina have petitioned this Court for Resignation and Discharge. In considering the resignation, the Court, under the provisions of Fla. Prob. R. 5.430(d), is required to determine the necessity of appointing a successor fiduciary.

2. In this Estate, the Court is required to appoint a successor fiduciary since both Co-Personal Representatives are resigning. The Court is also empowered to appoint a curator under §733.506, Fla. Stat. (2013) and Fla. Prob. R. 5.122(a) until a new Successor Personal Representative is appointed.

I. Stansbury has standing to bring this Response and Motion

3. When removal of a Personal Representative is at issue, Fla. Prob. R. 5.440 specifically provides that, “ ... any interested person, by petition, may commence a proceeding to remove a personal representative. ...” (Emphasis added.) By logical extension an “interested person” would also have standing to petition the court for the appointment of a successor fiduciary.

4. The provisions of §731.201(23), Fla. Stat. (2013) define an “interested person” as:

(23) “Interested person” means any person who may reasonably be expected to be affected by the outcome of the particular proceeding involved...”

5. Stansbury has filed a claim against the Estate of Simon Bernstein (the “Estate”) and has sued the Estate in a separate lawsuit styled William E. Stansbury v. Ted Bernstein, et al, Case. No. 50 2012 CA 013933 MB AA, Palm Beach County, Florida. A copy of the Statement of Claim is attached as Exhibit “A.” A copy of the Amended Complaint which forms the basis of the Statement of Claim is attached hereto as Exhibit “B.”

6. Stansbury, as a claimant of the Estate, has an interest in ensuring that the successor fiduciary ultimately appointed will act without bias and in the best interests of the creditors and devisees of the Estate. The Fourth District Court of Appeal has recognized that a claimant to an estate is an “interested person” and has standing in a proceeding to approve the personal representative’s final accounting and petition for discharge. See, Arzuman v. Estate of Prince Bander BIN Saud Bin, etc., 879 So.2d 675 (Fla. 4th DCA 2004). See also, Montgomery v. Cribb, 484 So.2d 73 (Fla. 2d DCA 1986) (Wrongful death claimant was entitled to notice of hearing as an “interested person” under the probate code even though case was dismissed by trial court and disputed settlement was on appeal.) Stansbury is therefore an “interested person” as to the outcome of this or any subsequent proceeding in which a successor fiduciary or a curator will be appointed, and Stansbury has standing to file and advance this Petition.

II. Ted Bernstein should not be appointed as Curator or Successor Personal Representative

A. Misconduct in the Shirley Bernstein Estate

7. There are serious allegations of fraud and forgery in the Shirley Bernstein Estate where Ted Bernstein is now the Personal Representative. Documents were submitted to the Court bearing notarized signatures of Simon Bernstein, alleged signatures by him, but on a date after he had passed away.

8. This Court was apprised of these allegations in a hearing conducted September 13, 2013 wherein the Court questioned whether the potential parties involved should be read their Miranda Rights. (See Transcript of Proceedings, pages 15 and 16, attached as Exhibit "C.")

B. The "lost" Insurance Trust

9. At the time of Simon Bernstein's death, it was determined that there existed a life insurance policy issued by Heritage Mutual Insurance Company ("Heritage") allegedly payable to the Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust as beneficiary (the "Insurance Trust"). According to an SS-4 Application for EIN form submitted to the IRS on June 21, 1995, Shirley Bernstein was represented as Trustee of the Insurance Trust. (See SS-4 Application for EIN as Exhibit "D.")

10. Notwithstanding the earlier SS-4 EIN form, on November 1, 2012, Robert Spallina, one of the resigning Co-Personal Representatives, submitted a claim form to Heritage on behalf of the Insurance Trust for the benefit of the grown children of Simon Bernstein. In doing so, Spallina represented that he was the Trustee of the Insurance Trust. (See Exhibit "E")

Spallina made this representation despite having informed Heritage by letter shortly thereafter that he was “unable to locate the Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust dated June 1, 1995.” (See Exhibit “F” attached.) If the Trust instrument cannot be found, the insurance proceeds would be payable to the Simon Bernstein Estate, and as such, would be available to pay creditors of the Estate such as Stansbury.

11. Spallina, with the knowledge of Ted Bernstein, represented that he was “Trustee” of the Insurance Trust in an effort to collect the insurance proceeds on behalf the Insurance Trust and for the benefit of the grown children of Simon Bernstein, so as to circumvent the Simon Bernstein Estate.

12. Heritage refused to pay the life insurance proceeds to anyone without a court order. The Insurance Trust then sued Heritage in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois (the case has since been removed to Federal Court). In paragraph 2 of the Complaint, the Plaintiff, the Insurance Trust, although apparently still “lost,” alleges that Ted Bernstein is the “trustee” of the Insurance Trust. Yet, there exists no trust document establishing the continued existence of the Insurance Trust, let alone that Ted is the Trustee. As a result, Ted’s representation, like that of Spallina, appears plainly false.

C. Ted Bernstein has a Conflict of Interest ---

13. Ted Bernstein, as well as his siblings (other than Eliot) - Lisa Sue Friedstein, Pamela Beth Simon, and Jill Iantoni - have a conflict of interest precluding them from faithfully executing the duties of fiduciary on behalf of the Estate.

14. One of the considerations for removal of a Personal Representative as set forth in §733.504(9) (2013) is, “(9) Holding or acquiring conflicting or adverse interests against the estate that will or may interfere with the administration of the estate as a whole.”

15. A trail of e-mails indicates that Ted Bernstein, Lisa Sue Friedstein, Pamela Beth Simon and Jill Iantoni were advocating and scheming to keep the proceeds from the Heritage life insurance policy, as described above in paragraphs 9 thru 12 from being paid to the Estate. The stated purpose of this scheme was to avoid making the life insurance proceeds available to pay creditors of the Estate such as Stansbury. (See, selected e-mail messages, attached hereto as Composite Exhibit “G”.) The residuary beneficiaries of the Will, that is, the grandchildren of Simon Bernstein, would also be prejudiced by such a determination.

16. Section 733.602(1), Fla. Stat. (2013), expressly provides that “. . . A personal representative shall use the authority conferred by this code, the authority in the will, if any, and the authority of any order of the court, for the best interests of interested persons, including creditors.” (Emphasis added.)

17. While the ultimate outcome of the adjudication of the issues surrounding the Heritage life insurance proceeds is uncertain, what is clear is that each of the children of Simon Bernstein, other than Eliot Bernstein, have advocated, and continue to advocate a position that is contrary to the best interests of the Estate, its creditors and beneficiaries. These two conflicting and contrary positions between the interests of the children of Simon Bernstein (other than Eliot) and the duty of the successor fiduciary to act in the best interests of the Estate, including the creditors and beneficiaries, render Ted Bernstein, Lisa Sue Friedstein, Pamela Beth Simon and Jill Iantoni unqualified to serve as successor fiduciaries. See Estate of Bell v. Johnson, 573 So.2d 57 (Fla. 1st DCA, 1990) (conflict between personal representative, in that capacity, and as power of attorney, necessitated removal as personal representative).

D. The “Schiller” Lawsuit

18. Further, Ted Bernstein is a Defendant in yet another lawsuit filed in this Circuit Court. See, Schiller v. Life Insurance Concepts, et al, Case No. 502013CA007442 AD, wherein Ted Bernstein and others are accused of negligence and other business torts in connection with their business dealings.

E. Curator and Successor Personal Representative

19. Stansbury nominates Eliot Bernstein (“Eliot”), a son of the Decedent, to serve as successor Personal Representative. Eliot is qualified under §733.302, Fla. Stat. (2013) as he is sui juris and was a resident of Florida at the time of his father’s death on September 13, 2012. Additionally, he is entitled to “preferential” consideration under §733.301(1)(a)(3) in that he is a devisee under Simon Bernstein’s Will dated July 25, 2012 that has been admitted to probate.

20. In addition to his technical qualifications to serve as Personal Representative under the Florida Probate Code, Eliot also deserves significant consideration since he has been the only child of Simon and Shirley Bernstein to bring to the Court’s attention the potential fraud and forgery issues that exist in connection with the closing of the Estate of Shirley Bernstein, as more fully set forth in paragraphs 7 and 8 above.

21. Stansbury acknowledges that Eliot’s siblings, Theodore “Ted” Bernstein, Lisa Sue Friedstein, Pamela Beth Simon, and Jill Iantoni are also technically qualified to serve under §733.302, Fla. Stat. (2013) and §733.301(1)(a)(3). However, for the reasons set forth above, each of them should not be considered or appointed Curator or Successor Personal Representative by this Court.

22. Alternatively, should the Court determine that all of the Bernstein children, Eliot included, are not appropriate to serve, Stansbury moves this Court for the appointment of an independent, third party Curator or Personal Representative that will administer the Estate in an objective, unbiased and fair manner, as set forth in § 733.5061, Fla. Stat. (2013) and in accordance with the procedure set forth in §733.501, Fla. Stat. (2013).

COMPLAINT And JURY DEMAND

WILLIAM STANSBURY (PLAINTIFF”), by and through his undersigned co-counsel, hereby demanding trial by jury of all issues so triable, hereby sues the Defendants, and says

1. This is an action for money damages in excess of $15,000, and for equitable relief.

2. Plaintiff is sui juris, and a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida.

3. Defendants TED S. BERNSTEIN (“TED BERNSTEIN”), and SIMON BERNSTEIN are both sui juris, and are both residents of Palm Beach County, Florida.

4. The corporate Defendants, LIC HOLDINGS, INC.; and ARBITRAGE
INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, L.L.C., f/k/a ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, L.L.C., are entities organized and existing under the laws of the State of Florida, all do business in the State of Florida and all have their principal offices in the State of Florida, and in Palm Beach County, Florida.

5. Defendants SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN (collectively “Defendants BERNSTEIN”) are, respectively, one another’s father and son. They both own and control all of the corporate Defendants, and work closely together with respect thereto. In all matters involved herein, they worked closely together and were virtually one another’s alter egos.

7 The acts and incidents giving rise to these causes of action occurred in Palm Beach County, Florida.

Background

8. Plaintiff has worked in the insurance field virtually all his adult life, and by 2003 had become well-known and highly regarded by major insurance companies, their principals, and by others throughout the insurance industry, at all levels thereof, as well as by professionals, including attorneys, CPAs, financial advisors, wealth managers and others who were involved in serving, or otherwise dealing with, insurers and insurance brokers.

9. SIMON BERNSTEIN dealt at high levels of the insurance industry, and specialized in developing and marketing insurance concepts suitable for persons of high net worth to incorporate in their wealth management and estate planning.

10. TED BERNSTEIN was actively involved in selling life insurance products in conjunction with attorneys, CPAs and other professionals, to be incorporated into clients’ financial planning.

11. In 2003, TED BERNSTEIN approached Plaintiff, urging Plaintiff to spearhead the marketing of a unique insurance concept (“the said concept”), newly developed by a prominent law firm, which was designed for use in the financial and estate planning of wealthy individuals.

12. TED BERNSTEIN told Plaintiff that he knew of Plaintiff’s knowledgeability, and reputation in the insurance and related industries and professions, and that Plaintiff was skilled at, and accustomed to, speaking and marketing insurance products to, large groups of professionals, and that he realized that Plaintiff, because of his knowledgeable, reputation and abilities, would be ideal to market this concept nationwide, through prominent and experienced professionals..

13. SIMON BERNSTEIN proposed that Plaintiff work as an independent contractor for the Corporate Defendants, marketing the product to the above-described. He offered Plaintiff an arrangement whereby Plaintiff would receive twenty percent (20%) of all net retained amounts of commissions received from insurance companies and general agents' overrides (hereinafter, "commissions") which chose to issue policies of the type to be marketed, for use in the said financial and estate planning, and all other sales by the companies. Plaintiff would receive no other salary remuneration, but would have his travel and marketing expenses advanced or reimbursed. In time, when Plaintiff agreed to become an employee rather than an independent contractor, he agreed to a salary of the equivalent of 15% of commissions received on all products.

14. After reviewing the concept and considering the terms of the arrangement offered by SIMON BERNSTEIN, Plaintiff agreed with BERNSTEIN to accept the proposal described in preceding paragraph 13, and all the parties proceeded to act in accordance therewith.

15. Thereafter, Plaintiff worked with diligence and skill, traveling throughout the United States, generating ever increasing sales, and generating very large commissions for Defendants and for Plaintiff, who received the agreed salary equal to 15% thereof. By 2006, the parties hereto began receiving checks, not only for commissions on new policies sold, but also renewal commissions. Initially, the Plaintiff and Defendants BERNSTEIN, and one secretary, comprised the entire workforce. At the height of the sales campaign, Defendants' staff for serving the

16. In 2005, the Plaintiff was paid his commissions in the form of two IRS forms 1099, from National Services Association, and from Defendant ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MARKETING, INC. for his services as an independent contractor.

17. In 2006, Plaintiff received his agreed salary as an employee, reflected in two IRS forms W-2., One W-2 was from ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MARKETING, INC., and the other was from ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS, INC., which later became Defendant ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, INC.

18. Also in 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN told Plaintiff that Plaintiff, was being rewarded for the explosive growth of business, through receiving a 10% interest in LIC.

19. In 2007, Plaintiff received his agreed salary as an employee, which salary was reflected in an IRS Form W-2.

20. With the economic downturn in 2008, Defendants looked for ways to withhold from Plaintiff compensation to which he was entitled, and to deceive him into believing that the money which would have been paid to both Defendants as well as to Plaintiff as compensation, was instead being held in the company's coffers.

21. In order to hide from Plaintiff the real fact that Defendants were paying to Defendants BERNSTEIN the full earnings received as commissions, and thereby depriving Plaintiff of the 15% thereof to which he was entitled, they knew they had to terminate Plaintiff's function of calculating each person's entitlement to payment out of commissions received. Therefore, in early 2008, SIMON BERNSTEIN told Plaintiff that the Defendants BERNSTEIN felt that Plaintiff was spending too much time on making the said calculations, and that Plaintiff's time would be better spent in building the business. SIMON BERNSTEIN told Plaintiff that he and TED BERNSTEIN had decided to pay themselves and Plaintiff identical salaries of not less than $1,000,000 each for 2008, and to distribute any profits beyond the total thus paid to the three owners, the Defendants BERNSTEIN and Plaintiff, according to their respective percentages of ownership, Plaintiff's share being 10%. Plaintiff, having thus far believed he was receiving whatever compensation he was entitled to, and having no reason to realize that this was a ruse to keep him in the dark as to the true state of affairs, readily acceded to his being relieved of the bookkeeping duties regarding calculating the disposition of moneys received.

22. Through misrepresentations made from 2008 through the date of filing of this Complaint, Defendants knowingly made false statements to Plaintiff to hide their scheme to withhold from Plaintiff's money to which he was entitled. For example, at times they claimed that money being received was not being paid as salary or distributions to either of Defendants BERNSTEIN but was being withheld and placed in company accounts, for eventual distribution. As Plaintiff and Defendants could afford to wait until year's end to be paid their distributions, and as Defendants BERNSTEIN assured Plaintiff that the payment arrangement would apply to all three equally, Plaintiff did not question the truthfulness of their representations..

23. In furtherance of their scheme to deprive Plaintiff of salary he had earned and to which he was entitled, Defendants intercepted mail addressed to Plaintiff, removed therefrom commission checks representing full commissions, deposited the same to their own accounts or otherwise converted the funds,, and willfully withhold from Plaintiff his salary. Defendants BERNSTEIN also opened Plaintiff's mail containing checks payable to him which were unrelated to Defendants' business.

24. In 2011, the Defendants BERNSTEIN decided to deceive Plaintiff into giving up his 10% share in the business. Although he had never seen a stock certificate, Plaintiff had in fact been given K-1 statements reflecting his salary, which appeared to approximate 10% of the net profits or losses of LIC, after salary was paid. TED BERNSTEIN told Plaintiff that their accountants had discovered a taxable event which could cause all the owners of the company to have to pay taxes, and that they thought it would be unfair for Plaintiff to have to pay 10% of that tax, so TED BERNSTEIN promised that if Plaintiff would sign a paper ceding his 10% interest, TED BERNSTEIN would simply hold it and it would not become operative unless the tax liability came to exist. Plaintiff was assured that nothing would happen with the stock ownership until Plaintiff and the Defendants BERNSTEIN discussed the situation further after the Holiday Season.

25. Because of the misrepresentations, willful concealments of material facts, duplicity and deceit practiced by Defendants upon Plaintiff as described in preceding paragraphs 20 through 24, Plaintiff was reasonably of the belief that Defendants had complied, or intended to comply, with their material obligations to Plaintiff under the contract between them, and therefore was prevented from knowing, for a period of years, that these causes of action existed. The acts of Defendants in making false statements and withholding material information continues from its inception to the date of the filing hereof.

I. ACCOUNTING (Against LIC and ARBITRAGE, for Accounting as to Withholding of Money Due Plaintiff)

26. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

27. The relationship between Plaintiff and the Defendants, particularly as affected by Defendants' acts described in preceding paragraphs 20 through 25, inclusive, created a situation where Defendants had sole access to, receipts generated by Plaintiff's efforts, and to books and records reflecting said receipts and the other information from which can be calculated all moneys due to Plaintiff under his arrangement with Defendants.

28, The period of time during which Plaintiff has been deprived of moneys due him spans approximately four and a half years, the numerosity of the sources of receipts by Defendants of moneys from which the amounts due Plaintiff may be calculated, and the changes in the formula under which, and manner in which, Plaintiff was to be paid, all involve extensive and complicated accounts, and Plaintiff's remedy at law could not be as full, adequate and expeditious as it is in equity.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for an adjudication of Plaintiff's right to a full and complete accounting from Defendants, and for such orders of Court as will require the Defendants to provide Plaintiff with all records and copies of documents, dated from the date in 2003 when Plaintiff first began his efforts to generate sales of the concept described in paragraph 11 above to the present, as will reveal his right to, and the amount of, all amounts: (a) received as commissions on said concepts or any other commissions as to which Plaintiff was entitled to a share; (b) due to Plaintiff, whether paid or not; (c) paid to Plaintiff, whether for commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason; (d) paid to each of the Defendants out of moneys received as commissions; (e) deposits of any and all moneys received as commissions by any Defendants to any accounts, including the name of the entity whose account was involved, the number(s) of each such account; the address of the branch or other facility through which any Defendant dealt with such entity; (f) calculations as to moneys paid, to be paid, or not to be paid to Plaintiff, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just

II. ACCOUNTING

(Against TED S. BERNSTEIN and SIMON BERNSTEIN, for Accounting as to Money Due to Plaintiff Which Said Defendants Converted)

29. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

30. The relationship between Plaintiff and the Defendants, particularly as affected by Defendants' acts described in preceding paragraphs 20 through 25, inclusive, created a situation where Defendants had sole access to, receipts generated by Plaintiff's efforts, and to books and records reflecting said receipts and the other information from which can be calculated all moneys due to Plaintiff under his arrangement with Defendants.

31. The period of time during which Plaintiff has been deprived of moneys due him spans approximately four and a half years, the numerosity of the sources of receipts by Defendants of moneys from which the amounts due Plaintiff may be calculated, and the changes in the formula under which, and manner in which, Plaintiff was to be paid, all involve extensive and complicated accounts, and Plaintiff's remedy at law could not be as full, adequate and expeditious as it is in equity.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for an adjudication of Plaintiff's right to a full and complete accounting from Defendants, and for such orders of Court as will require the Defendants to provide Plaintiff with all records and copies of documents, dated from the date in 2003 when Plaintiff first began his efforts to generate sales of the concept described in paragraph 11 above to the present, as will reveal his right to, and the amount of, all amounts: (a) received as commissions on said concepts or any other commissions as to which Plaintiff was entitled to a share; (b) due to Plaintiff, whether paid or not; (c) paid to Plaintiff, whether for commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason; (d) paid to each of the Defendants out of moneys received as said commissions; (e) deposits of any and all moneys received as commissions by any Defendants to any accounts, including the name of the entity whose account was involved, the number(s) of each such account; the address of the branch or other facility through which any Defendant dealt with such entity; (f) calculations as to moneys paid, to be paid, or not to be paid to Plaintiff, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

III. BREACH OF ORAL CONTRACT
(Against All the Defendants)

32. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

33. The arrangement between Plaintiff and Defendants as described in paragraphs 11 and 13 above, and as modified by the parties as further described above, constituted a contract between them.

34. An express term of that contract involved the commitment of Defendants to calculate, and to pay to Plaintiff, fully and timely, all sums due to him under the parties' contract, whether as commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason.

35. The parties initially performed the duties required of them under said contract.

36. However, as described above in paragraphs 20 through 25, inclusive, Defendants willfully and maliciously agreed to breach their contract with Plaintiff by withholding from Plaintiff moneys due him under the contract.

37. Defendants did withhold such moneys due Plaintiff.

38. The withholding of such moneys constituted a material breach of the contract between Plaintiff and Defendants.

39. There is therefore due to Plaintiff from Defendants all amounts due under said contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

IV. BREACH OF IMPLIED COVENANT OF GOOD FAITH and FAIR DEALING

40. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive, and paragraphs 33 through 38, inclusive.

41. The said contract, as a matter of law, contained an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, obligating the parties to honor every express term of the agreement..

42. Among the express terms of the oral contract between the parties were (a) that Plaintiff would be constantly apprised, either through being permitted to calculate all amounts due the Defendants out of commissions, or through being advised of all receipts of commissions and the disposition thereof, or the amounts due to Plaintiff for any reason under the terms of the contract; and (b) that Plaintiff would be fully and promptly paid all such amounts due him.

43. Through their actions as described in preceding paragraphs 20 through 25, inclusive, the Defendants willfully breached the said express of the contract.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

V. BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY

41. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

42. Plaintiff reposed full confidence in the defendants BERNSTEIN, and trusted them and relied on them to be as good as their word and to deal honestly with him, for a variety of reasons. Plaintiff knew of SIMON BERNSTEIN as a major figure in the insurance industry, prior to their becoming parties to the agreement involved herein. Moreover, Plaintiff and the Defendants BERNSTEIN had formed a social relationship which had grown into what Plaintiff regarded as friendship. Moreover, as the initial situation under their contractual relationship had Plaintiff receiving all information as to commissions received and calculating the amount of money due to Plaintiff and the Defendants BERNSTEIN, as mentioned in preceding paragraphs 21 and 22, and also because Plaintiff was told he had been given a minority shareholder interest in LIC, Plaintiff reasonably felt that the Defendants would deal with Plaintiff honestly and fairly, and that the Defendants had no intention of hiding from Plaintiff any information as to the amounts due Plaintiff or as to the Defendants' intention of paying said amounts to Plaintiff

43. Moreover, when Defendants proposed to Plaintiff that Plaintiffs cease being the one to calculate moneys due the parties out of commissions received, the Plaintiff trusted Defendants to make proper, accurate and complete calculations, as Plaintiff had done, and to pay Plaintiff accordingly.

44. Furthermore, when Defendants BERNSTEIN made statements to Plaintiff as to why payments due him were not being paid, as described, for example, in preceding paragraphs 22 through 25, inclusive, and 42, he trusted Defendants to be telling Plaintiff the truth,

45. As a result of the foregoing, a fiduciary relationship existed between Defendants BERNSTEIN and Plaintiff, and there existed in Plaintiff complete confidence and trust in the said Defendants, of which confidence and trust said Defendants were well aware.

46. Defendants BERNSTEIN accepted the trust which Plaintiff reasonably placed in them.

47 Through Defendants' willful misrepresentations and withholding of material information as to their intentions and the purposes for which Plaintiff's payments were not being paid, and through their diversion from Plaintiff of amounts which should have been paid to him, Defendants abused and betrayed Plaintiff's trust and confidence in them, to Plaintiff's great detriment, in that he has been deprived of the said amounts due him, the precise amount of which cannot be calculated without access to Defendants' books and records, and a full accounting by them.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

VI. CIVIL THEFT
Against All Defendants

48. This is an action for Civil Theft under Chapter 772, Florida Statutes, more specifically §772.11, Fla.Stats.

49. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

50. All funds which Defendants' records will reveal are due to Plaintiff but which have been deposited to any of the Defendants' accounts or which have been received by any Defendant or diverted by any Defendant to any recipient but Plaintiff are the specific funds to which this Count relates.

51. By refusing to pay to Plaintiff funds due him under their agreement, and by paying said sums to themselves or to others, Defendants have been guilty of criminal theft by conversion, which has been and continues to be performed by Defendants with the criminal intent of stealing his money and depriving him of the possession and use thereof.

52. Written demand for payment of all amounts due Plaintiff has been made to Defendants, more than 30 days preceding the filing of this Complaint, to no avail.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for three times the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts, and such other remedies as may be awarded Plaintiff under other Counts herein, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

VII. FRAUD
(Against All Defendants)

53. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

54. Defendants, with the intent to defraud Plaintiff by preventing his receipt of moneys due him from Defendants as commissions, salary, distributions, expenses, and otherwise, made false statements to him and withheld material information from him, all as specifically set forth in preceding paragraphs 20 through 24 above.

55. At the time said statements were made, Defendants knew that they were material and false, and that Plaintiff would rely thereon. At the time said material information was withheld from Plaintiffs, Defendants knew that the information being withheld was material, and that the withholding of the information would cause Plaintiff to rely on the absence of said information

56. Defendants intended for Plaintiff to rely on said false statements of material fact and to rely on the absence of the material facts which were withheld.

57. Plaintiff did rely on the false statements and the withholding of material information, and was damaged thereby. Through the loss the possession and use of moneys due him but withheld by Defendants under their scheme to defraud him of said money.

58. The behavior of Defendants in deceiving Plaintiff and in abusing the trust they had engendered in Plaintiff, as set forth in preceding paragraphs 42 through 47, which are incorporated herein by reference as if expressly restated herein, was in willful and conscious disregard of his rights, and was of such a concerted, premeditated, and outrageous nature as to go beyond the bounds of decency, and constituted rampant fraud.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

VIII. EQUITABLE LIEN

59. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive, and paragraphs 54 through 58, inclusive.

60. The bank accounts into which any of the commissions received by Defendants as to which Plaintiff was to receive a share of commissions received, and the operating accounts and other accounts of the corporate Defendants into which said commission checks were deposited were intended by Defendants and by Plaintiff to be the source out of which Plaintiff would be paid, and they therefore were intended to be, and therefore should be, charged by this Court with the obligation of being the source of all amounts Plaintiff was and is to be paid, including amounts not yet paid.

61. Any and all other accounts into which were deposited said commissions or any part thereof, out of which Plaintiff was to be paid, should, out of general considerations of right and justice as applied to the relations of the parties and the circumstances of their dealings, be charged with the obligation of paying Plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts. Plaintiff further prays for the Court to declare and establish an equitable lien in favor of Plaintiff on all the accounts described in preceding paragraphs 60 and 61, and for all other accounts into which said commissions have been or will be wholly or partly diverted, and on all assets of Defendants or third parties which have been purchased wholly or partly with the diversion of said funds due Plaintiff. Plaintiff further prays for such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

IX. CONTRACT IMPLIED IN LAW

62. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 25, inclusive.

63. By keeping the moneys due Plaintiff, Defendants have been unjustly enriched.

64. By agreeing to permit Defendants to receive, possess and control the paperwork revealing commissions received, and by agreeing that Defendants would assume the function of calculating amounts due the parties, Plaintiff conferred on Defendants the benefit of controlling the disposition of the funds received, including those due Plaintiff. The Defendants, having induced Plaintiff to confer said benefit, knew of the benefit and accepted and retained the benefit and abused it to defraud the Plaintiff.

65. The Circumstances are such that it would be inequitable for the Defendants to retain the benefit of the possession and use of funds due Plaintiff

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment that there exists a contract implied in law with the terms against Defendants described above, and for judgment against all Defendants, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

X. CONSTRUCTIVE TRUST

66. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

67. The bank accounts into which any of the commissions received by Defendants as to which Plaintiff was to receive a share of commissions received, and the operating accounts and other accounts of the corporate Defendants into which said commission checks were deposited were intended by Defendants and by Plaintiff to be the source out of which Plaintiff would be paid, and they therefore were intended to be, and therefore should be, charged by this Court with the obligation of being the source of all amounts Plaintiff was and is to be paid, including amounts not yet paid.

68. Any and all other accounts into which were deposited said commissions or any part thereof, out of which Plaintiff was to be paid, should, out of general considerations of right and justice as applied to the relations of the parties and the circumstances of their dealings, be charged with the obligation of paying Plaintiff.

.WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, for the full amount of moneys due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, including agreed-upon modifications thereof, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts. Plaintiff further prays for the Court to declare and establish a constructive trust in favor of Plaintiff on all the accounts described in preceding paragraphs 60 and 61, and for all other accounts into which said commissions have been or will be wholly or partly diverted, and on all assets of Defendants or third parties which have been purchased wholly or partly with the diversion of said funds due Plaintiff. Plaintiff further prays for such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

XI. INDEMNIFICATION

69. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

70. When Defendants entered the arrangement with Plaintiff described in preceding paragraph 13, SIMON BERNSTEIN, acting for himself and on behalf of the corporate Defendants and TED BERNSTEIN, and for their collective and shared benefit, told Plaintiff that it would be better for the simplicity of administration, if Plaintiff would arrange for all commissions, paid by insurance companies for sales of the said product by the Defendant companies, to be paid in the name of Plaintiff, even though Plaintiff would ultimately receive only 15% thereof.

71. Plaintiff, believing the representation that this was being requested solely to simplify bookkeeping and administration, agreed to receive all commissions in his own name, even though the bulk of each commission would become the property of the various Defendants.

72. At the time Defendants, through SIMON BERNSTEIN, represented to Plaintiff that the reason for their request that Plaintiff receive all commissions solely in his own name was for administrative simplicity, they knew that they had an ulterior motive in making this request. Their said motive was that, in the event any insurance company which had paid a commission for sale of the said product were to request a full refund of the commission on the ground that the insurance client or the broker had falsified the application for the policy, Defendants intended to disclaim liability therefor, and to avoid personal and corporate responsibility for any requests for refund of commissions paid, even though they collectively have received 85% of each such commission.

73. Plaintiff, acting in good faith, did not realize that Defendants were concealing this motive, or that such was their motive, and he reasonably relied on their representations as to the reason for the request, to his detriment.

74. As a direct and proximate result of the Defendants' representations, Plaintiff will have nominal full liability for refund of any commissions thus sought to be refunded as described in preceding paragraph 72. Such liability creates the certainty that requests for refunds will be made solely to Plaintiff, even though Defendants received 85% of the commissions.. Such disproportionate and unfair liability has been caused by the willful misrepresentation by Defendants.

75. Plaintiff was without fault in reasonably relying on the said representations.

76. Defendants were solely at fault in creating the said liability.

77. There was a special relationship between Plaintiff and the Defendants, because Plaintiff was acting as the nominal agent for Defendants in receiving in his name 100% of the commissions, making him vicariously liable for the refund of the 85% of commissions which were retained by Defendants for their own benefit.

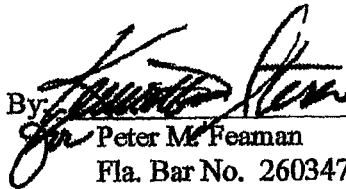

78. Moreover, Defendants had ceased to pay Plaintiff any commissions. Instead, as an employee he was now receiving a salary. To reflect Plaintiff's successful generation of Defendants' business, Defendants made Plaintiff's salary approximate 15% of the amount of commissions received. Nonetheless, as Plaintiff was not receiving any share of commissions per se, he should not have his indemnification limited to 85%, but rather it should be to the full 100% of all commissions being refunded.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for a Judgment in his favor, and against all Defendants, Adjudicating them under an obligation to defend, hold harmless and indemnify Plaintiff from and against refund claims for said commissions, to the extent of 100% thereof, and for such other and further relief as the Court shall deem just and appropriate.

Background

10. STANSBURY has worked in the insurance industry for virtually all of his adult life. After 30 years, he had become well-known and highly regarded by major insurance companies, their principals and others throughout the insurance industry, at all levels thereof, as well as by professionals, including attorneys, CPA's, financial advisors, wealth managers and others who were involved in serving, or otherwise dealing with insurers, insurance brokers and life insurance products.

11. SIMON BERNSTEIN dealt at sophisticated levels of the insurance industry and specialized in developing and marketing insurance concepts suitable for persons of high net worth to incorporate into their wealth management and estate planning.

12. TED BERNSTEIN, the son of SIMON BERNSTEIN, was also actively involved in selling life insurance products in conjunction with attorneys, CPAs and other professionals, to be incorporated into high net worth individuals' financial and estate planning.

13. TED BERNSTEIN approached STANSBURY, urging STANSBURY to spearhead the marketing of a unique insurance concept, newly developed by a prominent law firm, which was designed for use in the financial and estate planning of high net worth individuals.

14. TED BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that he knew of STANSBURY's expertise and reputation in the insurance and related industries, and that STANSBURY was skilled at and accustomed to speaking and marketing insurance products to groups of professionals. He realized that STANSBURY, because of his knowledge, reputation and abilities, would be well suited to market this concept nationwide through prominent and experienced professionals.

15. In 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN (collectively, "BERNSTEIN" or the "BERNSTEINS") formed Defendants LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE for the purpose of marketing and selling certain life insurance products to high net worth individuals for their wealth management and estate planning needs.

16. STANSBURY agreed to become an employee of LIC Holdings, Inc. and ARBITRAGE and agreed to a salary of 15% of net commissions received on all products, including renewals.

17. STANSBURY worked with diligence and skill, traveling throughout the United States, generating ever-increasing sales and generating very large commissions. By 2006, nationwide sales were resulting in substantial commissions on new policies and renewal commissions.

18. Also in 2006, SIMON BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that STANSBURY was being rewarded for his efforts and the explosive growth of the business, such that he would receive a 10% ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc.

19. In February of 2008, SIMON BERNSTEIN approached STANSBURY with the suggestion that rather than STANSBURY performing computations on a monthly basis as to how much should be paid to him based upon 15% of the commissions derived from policies sold by STANSBURY, the BERNSTEINS and STANSBURY should forego monthly payouts and defer compensation until the end of 2008, when year-end computations could be made. It was suggested that in December, year-end computations would be made and salaries would be paid in December 2008 or January of 2009. It was specifically represented to STANSBURY that neither SIMON BERNSTEIN, TED BERNSTEIN nor STANSBURY would take any compensation until the year-end accounting was performed in December of 2008 or January, 2009.

20. STANSBURY relied on SIMON BERNSTEIN's representations that, among other things, his time would be better spent building the business rather than performing monthly calculations of income. STANSBURY relied on SIMON BERNSTEIN's representation that they would all be paid identical annual salaries of not less than $1,000,000 at the end of 2008 to be applied against STANSBURY's 15%. Any compensation to STANSBURY over and above his 15% would be paid to him in accordance with his ownership percentage of 10%.

21. STANSBURY, having no reason to believe that the representations by SIMON BERNSTEIN were false and only a ruse to keep him from inquiring as to corporate revenue and distributions, acceded to his being relieved of the bookkeeping duties regarding calculating the disposition of monies on a monthly basis throughout the year.

22. In 2008, STANSBURY received only $420,018.00, all from commissions earned for sales in 2007 but paid in the January of 2008. STANSBURY received no payments for commissions received after January, 2008.

23. Unbeknownst to STANSBURY at that time, SIMON BERNSTEIN was paid $3,756,229.00 and TED BERNSTEIN was paid $5,225,825.00 in 2008.

24. The net retained commissions by LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, not including renewals for 2008 were approximately $13,442,549.00. As such, STANSBURY was entitled to, at the very minimum, 15% of $13,442,549.00, or $2,016,382.35.

25. Since that time, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN have secreted commissions received by LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE into Bernstein family trusts and other entities as more specifically set forth below. Those trusts have since invested in real estate, also as more particularly set forth below.

26. Throughout 2009, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN continued to make false statements to STANSBURY to hide the fact that they had looted the corporations for their own personal benefit by withdrawing millions in 2008 and 2009, all to the financial detriment of STANSBURY. The BERNSTEINS represented that the money was not being paid as salary or distributions because the funds needed to be held in the corporate bank accounts to show to potential lenders the financial stability of the company.

27. STANSBURY relied upon these continuing representations of Defendants to his detriment. Because STANSBURY was told that potential funding sources for the business needed to see that capital of the company was available, he took no action when he did not receive any compensation for 2009 and paid only $30,000 in 2010.

28. STANSBURY believes that some or all of the funds to which he was entitled and/or assets attributable to such funds were placed into certain entities, including but not limited to BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC and SHIRLEY'S TRUST. For example, based on information and belief, some or all of the funds to which STANSBURY was entitled were invested in certain parcels of real property, which parcels were conveyed to the trustee of SHIRLEY'S TRUST on or about May 20, 2008, including but not limited to a 4,220 square foot oceanfront condominium unit in a complex known as "The ARAGON" in Boca Raton, located at 2494 So. Ocean Boulevard, Boca Raton, Florida and a mansion in St. Andrew's Country Club located at 7020 Lions Head Lane, Boca Raton, Florida.

29. In order to continue their scheme to defraud, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN failed and refused to account for renewal commissions and failed to supply any financial information to STANSBURY concerning LIC Holdings, Inc. or ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC.

30. In furtherance of their scheme to deprive STANSBURY of salary he had earned and shareholder distributions to which he was entitled, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN intercepted mail addressed to STANSBURY, removing commission checks representing commissions due to STANSBURY, deposited the funds into their own accounts and otherwise converted the funds. SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN also opened STANSBURY's mail containing checks payable to him which were unrelated to them and the businesses.

31. In 2011, the Defendants BERNSTEIN decided to deceive STANSBURY further. STANSBURY had for years been given K-1 statements reflecting his 10% ownership of LIC Holdings. At the end of 2011, TED BERNSTEIN told STANSBURY that the company accountant had discovered a taxable event which could cause STANSBURY, as an owner of LIC Holdings to pay taxes on phantom income. TED BERNSTEIN promised that if STANSBURY would sign a paper ceding his 10% interest in LIC Holdings, he would not have to pay the tax. TED BERNSTEIN promised he would hold the paper, promising it would not become operative until STANSBURY and the Defendants BERNSTEIN discussed the situation further in the first quarter of 2012.

32. Because of the misrepresentations, willful concealments of material facts, duplicity and deceit practiced by Defendants upon STANSBURY, STANSBURY reasonably believed that Defendants had complied, or intended to comply with their obligations to STANSBURY under the contract between them. STANSBURY, therefore, was prevented from knowing for a period of years that the causes of action ASSERTED HEREIN existed.

33. By the second quarter of 2012, STANSBURY developed the belief that the BERNSTEINS' representations over the years were wholly false and he sought legal counsel.

34. STANSBURY has retained the law firm of Peter M. Feaman, P.A. and has agreed to pay it a reasonable fee for its services rendered herein.

COUNT I - ACCOUNTING
(Against LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, for Accounting)

35. STANSBURY hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

36. The relationship between STANSBURY and the Defendants, particularly as affected by Defendants' acts described in preceding paragraphs 19 through 27 created a situation where Defendants had sole access to receipts generated by STANSBURY's efforts, and to books and records reflecting said receipts and the other information from which can be calculated all moneys due to STANSBURY under his arrangement with Defendants.

37. The period of time during which STANSBURY has been deprived of monies due him spans approximately four and a half years. The various sources of revenue to Defendants of monies from which the amounts due STANSBURY may be calculated, the manner in which STANSBURY was to be paid, and the amount due STANSBURY all involve extensive and complicated accounts, and STANSBURY's remedy at law cannot be as full, adequate and expeditious as it is in equity.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff STANSBURY prays for an adjudication of Plaintiff's right to a full and complete accounting from Defendants, LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, and for such orders of Court as will require such Defendants to provide STANSBURY with all records and copies of documents from January 1, 2006 to the present, in order to reveal his right to, and the amount of all sums: (a) received as commissions to which STANSBURY was entitled to a share; (b) due to STANSBURY, whether paid or not; (c) paid to STANSBURY, whether for commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason; (d) paid to each of the BERNSTEIN Defendants out of monies received as commissions; (e) deposits of any and all moneys received as commissions by any Defendants to any accounts, including the name of the entity whose account was involved, the number(s) of each such account; the address of the branch or other facility through which any Defendant dealt with such entity; (f) calculations as to moneys paid, to be paid, or not to be paid to STANSBURY, together with an award of court costs and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

II. BREACH OF ORAL CONTRACT

(Against LIC Holdings, Inc. and Arbitrage International Management, LLC)

38. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

39. The arrangement between STANSBURY and Defendants as described in paragraphs 16 and 24 above, constituted a contract between them.

40. An express term of that contract involved the commitment of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to calculate and to pay to STANSBURY all sums due to him under the contract, whether as commissions, salary, distributions, expenses or any other reason.

41. The Defendants initially performed the duties required of them under said contract.

42. However, Defendants breached their contract with STANSBURY by withholding from STANSBURY monies due him under the contract.

43. The withholding of such monies constitutes a material breach of the contract between STANSBURY and LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

44. There is due to STANSBURY from such Defendants all amounts due under said contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest on said amounts.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, LIC Holdings, Inc. and ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, LLC, jointly and severally, in excess of $1,500,000.00 for the amounts due to Plaintiff under the terms of their contract, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest, court costs and such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

III. BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY
(Against SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN [“BERNSTEINS”])

45. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

46. At all material times hereto, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN were officers and majority shareholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

47. As shareholders and officers of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN did have and have a fiduciary duty to STANSBURY to act in good faith towards STANSBURY and to act in the best interests of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

48. At all material times hereto, STANSBURY was and is a shareholder of LIC Holdings.

49. STANSBURY reposed trust and confidence in SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN as a result of their position as majority shareholders and officers of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

50. Further, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN held positions of advantage and control over STANSBURY, not only by virtue of their majority shareholder status, but by having access to the accounting books and records of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, to the exclusion of STANSBURY.

51. STANSBURY reasonably believed that the BERNSTEIN Defendants would deal with STANSBURY honestly and fairly and believed that such Defendants had no intention of hiding from STANSBURY any information as to the amounts due STANSBURY or payment of the money due to STANSBURY.

52. Moreover, when Defendants proposed to STANSBURY that STANSBURY cease being the one to calculate monies due from the commissions received, STANSBURY trusted the BERNSTEINS to make proper, accurate and complete calculations just as STANSBURY had done and to pay STANSBURY accordingly. As majority shareholders and directors of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, the BERNSTEINS were in a superior position of knowledge and control concerning the finances and affairs of those companies.

53. As a result of the foregoing, a fiduciary relationship existed between the BERNSTEINS and STANSBURY and there existed in STANSBURY complete trust in the BERNSTEIN Defendants.

54. The BERNSTEIN Defendants accepted the trust which STANSBURY reasonably placed in them.

55. The BERNSTEIN Defendants breached their fiduciary duty to STANSBURY by repeated conduct of self-dealing and violations of corporate protocol, including:

a) directing LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to make payments to third parties not employed by the corporations and who had performed no services on behalf of the corporations for the personal benefit of the BERNSTEINS;

b) directing the corporations to pay for personal expenses of the wives and other friends of the BERNSTEIN Defendants through corporate credit cards and other forms of payment, notwithstanding that they provided no services for the corporations;

c) transferring monies from LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to third party entities including the BERNSTEIN Defendants, the BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC and the

personally;

- d) paying themselves exorbitant compensation to the exclusion of STANSBURY;
- e) treating LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE as alter egos of themselves and otherwise handling the affairs of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE without regard to corporate protocol;
- f) failing to convene annual meetings of the stockholders of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE, in violation of Florida law;
- g) committing corporate waste by unnecessarily expending corporate assets on unrelated corporate activities;
- h) failing to account for the revenue and expenses of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to STANSBURY, who was entitled to compensation as an employee and as a minority shareholder;
- i) directing LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE to take actions to reduce the profit of LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE so as to prevent STANSBURY from earning his just compensation, in violation of prior agreement of the parties.

56. SIMON BERNSTEIN further breached his fiduciary duty owed to STANSBURY as a minority shareholder by neglecting to perform his duties as an officer and director in a prudent and reasonable fashion.

57. Through Defendants BERNSTEINS' willful misrepresentations and withholding of material information as to their intentions and the purposes for which STANSBURY's payments were not being paid, and through their diversion from STANSBURY of amounts which should have been paid to him, such Defendants abused and betrayed STANSBURY's trust and confidence in them to STANSBURY's great detriment. STANSBURY has been deprived of the amounts due him, the precise amount of which cannot be calculated without access to Defendants' books and records and a full accounting by them.

58. The monetary damages suffered by STANSBURY as a result of the foregoing conduct was suffered by STANSBURY individually and not to the corporation LIC Holdings as a whole, because the conduct as described above prevented STANSBURY from obtaining the benefits of the bargain of his oral agreement with the corporations as more particularly described in Count II above.

59. The foregoing conduct by the BERNSTEINS was done with gross and intentional disregard of the rights of STANSBURY as an employee and minority shareholder of LIC Holdings.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, SIMON BERNSTEIN and TED BERNSTEIN, jointly and severally, for damages in excess of $1,500,000.00 together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest, court costs and such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper. STANSBURY reserves the right to move to amend to request punitive damages in accordance with Florida Law.

IV. CIVIL THEFT
(Against ARBITRAGE INTERNATIONAL MARKETING, LLC)

60. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

61. This is an action for Civil Theft under Chapter 772, Florida Statutes, more specifically §772.11, Fla.Stat.

62. In February, 2012 and March, 2012, Defendant ARBITRAGE intercepted two separate checks made payable to William STANSBURY intended as payment to STANSBURY for matters arising wholly outside his business transactions with the BERNSTEINS, LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE.

63. Notwithstanding that the checks made payable to William STANSBURY was for sums due STANSBURY by a third party not in connection with the aforesaid business transactions, ARBITRAGE and/or someone acting on its behalf, caused the negotiation of STANSBURY's checks, wrongfully endorsing the checks and retaining the sums that should have been payable to STANSBURY.

64. As a result of the foregoing, Defendant ARBITRAGE has been guilty of criminal theft by conversion with the criminal intent to steal his money and deprive STANSBURY of his possession and use thereof.

65. Written demand for payment of all amounts due STANSBURY has been made to Defendants, more than 30 days preceding the filing of this Complaint, to no avail. A copy of the demand letter is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendant, ARBITRAGE for three times the full amount of the check made payable to STANSBURY, together with pre-judgment interest and post-judgment interest, attorneys' fees, court costs and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

V. CONVERSION

66. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 60 through 65, inclusive.

67. Further, during 2012, Defendants TED BERNSTEIN, SIMON BERNSTEIN, LIC Holdings, Inc., ARBITRAGE, or someone acting on their behalves, received and cashed in excess of $30,000.00 worth of commissions checks otherwise payable to Plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment for damages against Defendant, ABRITRAGE, SIMON BERNSTEIN, LIC Holdings, Inc. and TED BERNSTEIN, together with pre-judgment interest and post-judgment interest, court costs and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

VI. FRAUD IN THE INDUCEMENT
(Against Ted Bernstein and LIC Holdings, Inc.)

68. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 1 through 34, inclusive.

69. In the fourth quarter of 2011, TED BERNSTEIN embarked upon a plan to defraud from STANSBURY his 10% ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc. As set forth in paragraph 31 above Defendant TED BERNSTEIN fraudulently induced STANSBURY to sign a document giving up his 10% interest in and to LIC Holdings, Inc.

70. The ceding of his shares in LIC Holdings, Inc. was procured by fraud and STANSBURY relied upon the representations made by BERNSTEIN with regard to signing the document apparently ceding his stock.

71. It was reasonable for STANSBURY to rely on the representations made by BERNSTEIN because at that time STANSBURY was unaware of the breaches of fiduciary duty and breaches of the oral contract that had taken place.

72. As a result of STANSBURY's reliance, STANSBURY has been damaged by the loss of 10% of the shares of LIC Holdings and the rights and remedies to a shareholder related thereto.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for a judgment for damages against Defendants BERNSTEIN and LIC Holdings, Inc. for the damages caused by the fraudulent conduct of BERNSTEIN as described herein, together with reasonable costs, pre-judgment interest and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

VII. EQUITABLE LIEN

73. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, paragraphs 1 through 34, above.

74. Defendants, SIMON BERNSTEIN and/or TED BERNSTEIN wrongfully diverted funds from LIC Holdings and ARBITRAGE that rightfully should have been paid to STANSBURY pursuant to their oral agreement.

75. Upon information and belief, SIMON BERNSTEIN and/or TED BERNSTEIN, or both, wrongfully diverted funds from LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE and acquired and/or maintained or improved property located at 7020 Lion's Head Lane, Boca Raton, Florida, legally described as Lot 781, St. Andrews Country Club (a PUD) Plat No. 14 according to the plat thereof recorded in Plat Book 57, Page 132 of the public records of Palm Beach County, Florida.

76. Further, upon information and belief, as a result of the funds being wrongfully diverted from LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE, which otherwise rightfully belonged to and should have been paid to STANSBURY, the property legally described as

Lot 68, Block G Boca Madeira, Unit 2 according to the plat thereof recorded in Plat Book 32, Pages 59 and 60 of the public records of Palm Beach County, Florida, with a property address of 2753 NW 34 Street, Boca Raton, Florida, was encumbered with a mortgage representing wrongfully diverted funds which were loaned in the form of a second mortgage to Defendant, BERNSTEIN FAMILY REALTY, LLC, a Florida limited liability company.

77. Upon information and belief, as a result of the funds being wrongfully diverted from LIC Holdings and/or ARBITRAGE which otherwise should have been paid to STANSBURY, such funds were used to satisfy a mortgage for the benefit of TED BERNSTEIN on property legally described as

Lot 139, Saturnia Isles, Plat One, recorded in Plat Book 91 at Page 108 of the property records of Palm Beach County, Florida, with a property address of 15807 Menton Bay Court, Delray Beach, Florida

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the Court to declare and establish an equitable lien in favor of Plaintiff in an amount equal to the funds wrongfully diverted, on the property described herein, and on all other assets of Defendants or third parties as yet unknown, which assets have been purchased wholly or in part, improved or benefitted by the diverted funds due Plaintiff, together with court costs and such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

VIII. CONSTRUCTIVE TRUST

78. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, preceding paragraphs 73 through 77 above.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the Court to declare and establish a constructive trust in favor of Plaintiff on the property described in paragraphs 75 through 77 in an amount equal to the funds wrongfully diverted and on all assets of Defendants or third parties as yet unknown, which assets have been purchased wholly or partly, improved or mortgaged by the diversion of said funds due Plaintiff. Plaintiff further prays for an award of court costs and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

IX. VIOLATION OF FLA. STAT. 607.1602 (As to Defendant, LIC Holdings, Inc.)

79. Plaintiff hereby reiterates and incorporates herein by reference, as if fully restated herein, paragraphs 1 through 34, above.

80. STANSBURY owns 10% of the issued and outstanding shares of LIC Holdings and has owned these shares since 2006.

81. Pursuant to §607.1602 Fla. Stat. (2012), STANSBURY made demand on LIC Holdings to inspect and copy certain records. A copy of the Demand is attached hereto as Exhibit "A." LIC Holdings refused to respond to the request in direct violation of 607.1602 Fla. Stat. (2012).

82. Section 607.1604(2) Fla. Stat. (2012) states:

If a corporation does not, within a reasonable time, allow a shareholder to inspect and copy any other record, the shareholder who complies with §607.1602(2) and (3) may apply to the Circuit Court in the county where the corporation's principal office is located for an order to permit inspection and copying of the records demanded.

83. Section 607.1604 Fla. Stat. (2012) requires that the court dispose of an application brought under this section "on an expedited basis."

84. Pursuant to §607.1604(2) Fla. Stat. (2012), Plaintiff requests that this court summarily order inspection and copying of the record previously demanded at the corporation's expense.

85. Pursuant to §607.1604(3) Fla. Stat. (2012), STANSBURY is entitled to an award of his costs including reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in order to obtain the order and enforce his rights unless the corporation or its officers, director or agent proves that the refusal of the inspection is made in good faith because the corporation had a reasonable basis for doubt about the right of the shareholder to inspect or copy the records demanded.

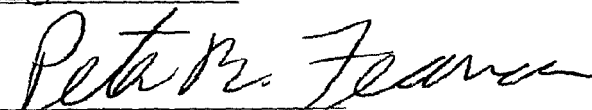

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, WILLIAM E. STANSBURY requests this Honorable Court to summarily order inspection and copying of the records of LIC Holdings, Inc. previously demanded, at the corporation's expense, together with an award of reasonable costs and attorneys' fees incurred herein.

Re: William (Bill) Stansbury

Dear Mr. Bernstein:

The undersigned represents William (Bill) Stansbury and we are writing this letter on his behalf. Mr. Stansbury received your proposed letter agreement reflecting LIC Holdings' proposal to indemnify its shareholders concerning policies sold under the Cambridge Financing Program. As a result of your proposal, Mr. Stansbury has reviewed with me in detail his dealings with you and your companies over the past 4 to 5 years.

After reviewing the facts with Mr. Stansbury, some of which will be summarized below, I was shocked that he had not consulted legal counsel until now. Be that as it may, and based upon the facts presented to us, we believe you have engaged in fraud, civil theft, breaches of fiduciary duties, and breach of contract, just to name a few. The purpose of this letter is to a). respond to your indemnity proposal and b). request that you pass this letter on to your counsel immediately in the off-chance that these very serious matters can be resolved prior to the filing of legal action. The issues can be summarized as follows:

1. The first issue concerns you and your company's failure to pay salary compensation to Mr. Stansbury. Mr. Stansbury has been making inquiries concerning this for the past 5 months, but to no avail. Mr. Stansbury's claim for unpaid salary arises from three categories:

a. Failure to pay salary based on net retained commissions.

i. Based upon reports prepared by your company for the period of 2007 through 2011, LIC Holdings, Inc. and/or Arbitrage International Holdings, n/k/a Arbitrage International Management, LLC, received $35,384,246.00 in net retained commissions. According to Mr. Stansbury's salary arrangement, he is entitled to 15% of those net retained commissions, which amounts to $5,307,636.90. During this time period, Mr. Stansbury's salary compensation was $2,844,910.00. The shortfall in salary owed to Mr. Stansbury is $2,462,726.90.

ii. There is salary compensation owed to Mr. Stansbury as a result of bridge loans in 2008. You received a $2,000,000.00 settlement in 2010 resulting from the resolution of a lawsuit involving Global Secured Capital. Mr. Stansbury is entitled to 15% of those funds, which is $300,000.00.

iii. In addition, you received $507,891.00 in commissions in connection with the Biviano matter. Mr. Stansbury is entitled to 15% of those funds, which is $76,183.65.

iv. In April of 2012, you received three commissions totaling approximately $200,000.00 in the Levine, Wiss and Berley matters. Mr. Stansbury has been requesting payment of this for weeks, again to no avail. Mr. Stansbury is due salary compensation for these items in the amount of $30,000.00.

Therefore, Mr. Stansbury's total claim for salary arising out of net retained commissions is approximately $2,868,910.55.

The liability for payment of this salary is not limited to LIC Holdings, Inc. or Arbitrage International Management, LLC. This liability also flows to you individually as a result of your breaches of your fiduciary duty owed to Mr. Stansbury and utter failure to abide by corporate governance standards, which conduct is more particularly described below.

b. Mr. Stansbury is also due unpaid salary based on 15% of all renewal commissions since 2008. Mr. Stansbury's salary claim for renewal commissions cannot as yet be determined with specificity due to the fact that you and your office have been opening mail directed to Mr. Stansbury and negotiating checks made payable to him by falsifying his endorsement and depositing those checks into accounts which only you control. This conduct constitutes civil theft and breach of fiduciary duty. We believe this claim amounts to hundreds of thousands of dollars.

c. Salary compensation for 2008. Mr. Stansbury has recently learned that you and Mr. Simon Bernstein received $8,982,124.00 in salary in 2008. By contrast, Mr. Stansbury received $420,018.00, paid to him in January 2008, based on policies sold in 2007. He received zero (no salary compensation) for his 2008 production. It is obvious that you and Simon treated your corporations as personal ATM machines, while completely ignoring your fiduciary responsibilities to your employee and minority shareholder, Mr. Stansbury. It further appears that after the exorbitant salaries were paid to you, you then loaned the money back to the corporation at an interest rate significantly above market rates in order to meet the cash flow needs of the various entities, again, clearly disregarding your corporate governance responsibilities.

2. Indemnification issues.

Mr. Stansbury has been served with three lawsuits from Phoenix Insurance Company and one from Mr. Wright seeking indemnification as a result of agent misconduct which was in no way attributable to the conduct of Mr. Stansbury. Although all of these matters have been settled, because he was the qualifying agent of record for other policies, he could be the subject of future litigation for refunds of commissions paid. All of these commissions were paid over to you or your companies.

The Indemnification Agreement which you sent to Mr. Stansbury is completely insufficient. You have a duty as a matter of law to indemnify Mr. Stansbury. Your offer of future indemnity is contingent upon "all" commissions that have been received by LIC's present or past shareholders be turned over to LIC. This is nothing short of extortion. Further, your second paragraph states that LIC is "presently insolvent" and has a "negative net worth." You then conclude with the sentence that with the indemnification agreement in place, LIC "may" have sufficient funds to meet its current obligations. Therefore, a simple indemnification from LIC Holdings to Mr. Stansbury is insufficient. Any such indemnification would have to be personally guaranteed by you and Mr. Simon Bernstein.

3. Unauthorized interception of U.S. Mail.

I have been given the understanding that your office has been opening mail directed to Mr. Stansbury personally. This is a federal offense and also constitutes a breach of the fiduciary duty you owe to Mr. Stansbury as an employee and minority shareholder.

There has been no accounting to Mr. Stansbury for any of the checks which may have been sent to him personally on which his signature has been forged, the checks cashed and placed out of the reach of Mr. Stansbury. In 2012, Mr. Stansbury has been receiving checks from Phoenix Life Insurance Company and TransAmerica Life Insurance Company. Mr. Stansbury has been holding these checks. They have now been remitted to the undersigned as attorney for Mr. Stansbury. This office is holding these funds in a separate interest-bearing trust account pending the resolution of this matter.

With regard to all of the other insurance companies for whom Mr. Stansbury is listed as the qualifying agent, he has now informed those companies that all future renewal commissions paid to him personally be sent to Mr. Stansbury at his home address. These funds will then be remitted to the undersigned counsel of record for Mr. Stansbury. We will place these funds in a separate interest-bearing trust account as well. Any attempts by you to contact these insurance companies will be considered a tortious interference of his business relationship and such activity will be added as a claim in any future legal proceedings.

4. Shareholder status.

Mr. Stansbury has been a 10% shareholder of LIC Holdings, Inc., pursuant to the terms of a Shareholders Agreement. On behalf of Mr. Stansbury, demand is hereby made, pursuant to Florida Statute 607.1602, for inspection of the corporate records including the following:

- I. Minutes of the Board of Directors meetings from January 1, 2008 to the present.
- II. Minutes of Shareholders' meetings from January 1, 2008 to the present.
- III. Records of any actions taken by the Shareholders and/or the Board of Directors without a meeting, from January 1, 2008 to the present.
- IV. Accounting and financial records of LIC Holdings, Inc., Arbitrage International Management, LLC, formerly known as Arbitrage International Holdings, LLC, and all other subsidiary or affiliated companies under your control, including, without limitation, income tax returns, general ledgers, balance sheets, profit and loss statements, stock books, bank statements, loan agreements or guarantees, and any other financial books and records from January 1, 2008 to the present.

Mr. Stansbury is seeking to inspect these records in good faith and for the purpose of determining if misappropriation of corporate assets for improper purposes has previously taken or is presently taking place.

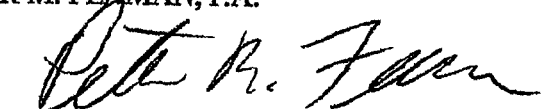

I have been made aware of a letter dated December 22, 2011 in which Mr. Stansbury purportedly "ceded" his shares of stock in LIC Holdings, Inc. back to the company. This letter was obtained under false pretenses and is not recognized by Mr. Stansbury as validly conveying his ownership interest in LIC Holdings, Inc.

Please have your legal counsel contact us within ten (10) days. Should we fail to receive a response within that time, Mr. Stansbury will take legal action to protect his rights and interests.

Very truly yours,

PETER M. FEAMAN, P.A.

7 MR. MANCERI: That's when the order was
8 signed, yes, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: He filed it, physically came 10 to court.

11 MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: Oh.

12 THE COURT: So let me see when he actually 13 filed it and signed the paperwork. November.
14 What date did your dad die?

15 MR. ELIOT BERNSTEIN: September. It's
16 hard to get through. He does a lot of things
17 when he's dead.

18 THE COURT: I have all of these waivers by 19 Simon in November. He tells me Simon was dead
20 at the time.

21 MR. MANCERI: Simon was dead at the time,
22 your Honor. The waivers that you're talking
23 about are waivers from the beneficiaries, I
24 believe.

25 THE COURT: No, it's waivers of

1 accountings.

2 MR. MANCERI: Right, by the beneficiaries.

3 THE COURT: Discharge waiver of service of 4 discharge by Simon, Simon asked that he not
5 have to serve the petition for discharge.

6 MR. MANCERI: Right, that was in his
7 petition. When was the petition served?

8 THE COURT: November 21st.

9 MR. SPALLINA: Yeah, it was after his date
10 of death.

11 THE COURT: Well, how could that happen
12 legally? How could Simon --

13 MR. MANCERI: Who signed that?

14 THE COURT: -- ask to close and not serve
15 a petition after he's dead?

16 MR. MANCERI: Your Honor, what happened
17 was is the documents were submitted with the 18 waivers originally, and this goes to 19 Mr. Bernstein's fraud allegation. As you know, 20 your Honor, you have a rule that you have to 21 have your waivers notarized. And the original
22 waivers that were submitted were not notarized, 23 so they were kicked back by the clerk. They 24 were then notarized by a staff person from 25 Tescher and Spallina admittedly in error. They

In Re_ The Estate of Shirley Bernstein.txt

1 should not have been notarized in the absentia
2 of the people who purportedly signed them. And
3 I'll give you the names of the other siblings,
4 that would be Pamela, Lisa, Jill, and Ted
5 Bernstein.

6 THE COURT: So let me tell you because I'm
7 going to stop all of you folks because I think
8 you need to be read your Miranda warnings.

9 MR. MANCERI: I need to be read my Miranda
10 warnings?

11 THE COURT: Everyone of you might have to 12 be.

13 MR. MANCERI: Okay.

14 THE COURT: Because I'm looking at a
15 formal document filed here April 9, 2012,
16 signed by Simon Bernstein, a signature for him.

17 MR. MANCERI: April 9th, right.

18 THE COURT: April 9th, signed by him, and 19 notarized on that same date by Kimberly. It's 20 a waiver and it's not filed with The Court
21 until November 19th, so the filing of it, and 22 it says to The Court on November 19th, the 23 undersigned, Simon Bernstein, does this, this,
24 and this. Signed and notarized on April 9,
25 2012. The notary said that she witnessed Simon

1 sign it then, and then for some reason it's not
2 filed with The Court until after his date of
3 death with no notice that he was dead at the 4 time that this was filed.

5 MR. MANCERI: Okay.

6 THE COURT: All right, so stop, that's
7 enough to give you Miranda warnings. Not you
8 personally --

9 MR. MANCERI: Okay.

10 THE COURT: Are you involved? Just tell
11 me yes or no.

12 MR. SPALLINA: I'm sorry?

13 THE COURT: Are you involved in the 14 transaction?

15 MR. SPALLINA: I was involved as the 16 lawyer for the estate, yes. It did not come to 17 my attention until Kimberly Moran came to me
18 after she received a letter from the Governor's
19 Office stating that they were investigating 20 some fraudulent signatures on some waivers that 21 were signed in connection with the closing of

Important Information About the USA PATRIOT Act

To help fight the funding of terrorism and money-laundering activities, the U.S. government has passed the USA PATRIOT Act, which requires banks, including our processing agent bank, to obtain, verify and record information that identifies persons who engage in certain transactions with or through a bank. This means that we will need to verify the name, residential or street address (no P.O. Boxes), date of birth and social security number or other tax identification number of all account owners.

I/We the undersigned, on oath, deposes and states as follows with respect to the possible application of the Generation Skipping Transfer (GST) tax to the death benefit payment (Mark the appropriate item):

Re: Insured: Simon L. Bernstein Contract No.: 1009208

Dear Bree:

As per our earlier telephone conversation:

- We are unable to locate the Simon Bernstein Irrevocable Insurance Trust dated June 1, 1995, which we have spent much time searching for.
- Mrs. Shirley Bernstein was the initial beneficiary of the 1995 trust, but predeceased Mr. Bernstein.
- The Bernstein children are the secondary beneficiaries of the 1995 trust.
- We are submitting the Letters of Administration for the Estate of Simon Bernstein showing that we are the named Personal Representatives of the Estate.
- We would like to have the proceeds from the Heritage policy released to our firm's trust account so that we can make distributions amongst the five Bernstein children.
- If necessary, we will prepare for Heritage an Agreement and Mutual Release amongst all the children.
- We are enclosing the SS4 signed by Mr. Bernstein in 1995 to obtain the EIN number for the 1995 trust.

If you have any questions with regard to the foregoing, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Spallina/km

We are going to do what is necessary to have the proceeds paid where they were intended to be paid as quickly as possible now. If you think I am factually incorrect about any of this, please either call me or email me and explain where I may be wrong. It goes without saying, this is not my expertise. I am processing the same information that everyone else is working with and this is how I see it.

Ted

This is my analysis on the Heritage payout thus far. First, I would like to review the insurance policy as well as the official statements respecting investment returns, use of returns to pay premiums and loans taken from the policy. I understand Ted and Pam have the policy, and do not understand why Mr. Spallina thinks it is curious that I also want to review these materials. Second, I understand the expressed concerns that if the proceeds are paid to the estate then the proceeds would be subject to the claims of creditors of the estate. It is my understanding that the "plan" is to have the proceeds payable to a trust to avoid creditor claims; however, I have also been counseled that if a trust is utilized an estate creditor can challenge the trust transaction as a fraudulent conveyance used to avoid the creditor's claim. We have been told that Dad designated his 1995 trust as his beneficiary with Heritage. We were also told that that trust cannot be located. I would also like to review an affidavit that indicates the precise steps that were taken and by whom and with whom to locate the 1995 trust, and I would imagine that Heritage will require the same. Heritage, we were told, is now saying that the proceeds may have to go to the State under the applicable escheat laws, so Mr. Spallina is telling us that if Heritage accepts a new trust with all potential beneficiaries agreeing to the mechanism, that Heritage may pay the proceeds to this new trust and not to the State. I have been told that the reason the law requires a trust document (and not simply statements from someone who claims they saw the trust) is that it demonstrates Dad's desires, and because Dad had the right to change his mind and thus the beneficiaries under the trust, nothing short of the actual 1995 trust document may be sufficient to Heritage. Last, because the 1995 trust document cannot be located, the proceeds should go to the beneficiaries under {Article IV 2j} and [Article III] of Dad's will, which picks up insurance proceeds under failed beneficiary designations. Under Dad's will and trust, these amounts, like the rest of his estate goes to his grandchildren in equal parts. Thus, to the extent it is decided to use a new trust to avoid the escheat laws, the only beneficiaries that may be acceptable to me is the grandchildren. As I stated above, I and my siblings should remain concerned that any estate creditor could challenge the transaction as a fraudulent conveyance. Also, having the 5 children as beneficiaries with each having the right to disclaim in favor of their children (i.e., Dad's grandchildren) is not acceptable for 2 reasons. First, such a scheme is not consistent with Dad's wishes under his will and trust agreement. Whatever Dad may have provided under the 1995 trust is both unknown and not relevant as stated above. The second reason is simple economics. My kids would get a 33% distribution under the proper method, but only 20% under the other scheme.

Regards,
Ted Bernstein - President
