

Fried & Epstein Name Partners Jump To Flaster/Greenberg

By David McAfee

Law360, Los Angeles (January 09, 2013, 3:58 PM ET) -- Cherry Hill, N.J.-based Flaster/Greenberg PC has hired Fried & Epstein LLP name partners John W. Fried and Lee M. Epstein as shareholders, adding white-collar defense and insurance litigation firepower and two New York offices to the 70-attorney business law firm, Flaster/Greenberg announced Tuesday.

“It’ll be a real boon for our clients,” Epstein said Wednesday. “We didn’t have the expertise to provide extensive business legal advice and are happy to be a part of a full-service firm that provides all sorts of transactional and business services.”...

To view the full article, register now.

Try Law360 FREE for seven days

Already a subscriber? Click here to login

- Printable Version
- Rights/Reprints
- Editorial Contacts

Related

Sections

- Insurance
- New York
- White Collar

Law Firms

- Anderson Kill
- Flaster/Greenberg

MOST READ

9th Circ. Wary Of Pay Plan In NCAA Athletes' Antitrust Case

5 Things Law Firms Should Never Say In A Beauty Contest

BigLaw Aims To Win Client Love With Side Jobs

Sedgwick Loses 12% Of Partners As Firm Turns To Core Areas

Firms Move To Encryption To Quell Cybersecurity Fears