RE: Hopper Matter/ Demand for return of Mrs. Hopper's assets improperly held (without justification) by IA

Dear Tom:

Given the IA's recent series of Assignments, we wanted to bring to the IA's attention another matter that, logically, should be resolved immediately. We say "logically", because by some of the same logic that mandated the Assignments, there are certain assets that are being held (and not "administered" in any sense) that belong to Mrs. Hopper, which should be released to her at once.

Based on a fairly recent (June 2013) Statement from the IA, there was "Cash and fixed Income" (as of the Statement date) belonging to Mrs. Hopper, and being held (hostage) by the IA, in the amount of $165,345.77. Additionally, the IA's Statement shows "Specialty Assets" of Mrs. Hopper, being likewise held without justification, in the amount of $4,902.00 re: the Behrman Capital Account [Behrman Capital, L.P.]. Mrs. Hopper believes that these should be turned over to her at once – for and to the extent of the full amount in both accounts presently be held by the IA.

Please advise when she can expect release of these funds to her. If for any reason the IA chooses not to do so and wants to continue to play "keep away" with these un-administered assets, please give us the IA's legal rationale for so doing.
