Society's Exempt Purpose:

The Historical Society of the Courts of the State of New York's mission is:

- a) To preserve the legal history of the state of New York.
- b) To foster scholarly understanding and public appreciation of the history of the courts of the State of New York and the contribution of the judicial branch of government to the state and the nation.
- c) To encourage research into the history and development of the courts of New York and of the Common Law, and to exchange and disseminate information.
- d) To issue publications in all formats.
- e) To gather, collect, hold, preserve and make available to researchers appropriate collections of artifacts and other materials.
- f) To sponsor appropriate permanent, temporary and traveling exhibits and displays.
- g) To undertake appropriate programs and events.
- h) To place markers at appropriate historic sites, and seek to preserve and maintain those sites.

In 2006, the Historical Society was involved in the following projects:

- The ongoing development of its website
- The presentation of its fourth annual lecture
- The presentation of additional lectures on topics relating to the history of the New York courts, the legal profession and their contributions to the state and the nation
- The preparation of 2006 calendar

• The publication of a scholarly periodical

The website is maintained on a pro-bono basis by the Office of Court Administration staff.

The annual lecture, held at the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, featured guest lecturers and was attended by over 100 lawyers and judges from around the State.
