How we got the story: ‘Mini estate sale’ on Craigslist started it off

Posted: 3:24 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 14, 2016

By John Pacenti - Palm Beach Post Staff Writer

It started with a Craigslist ad, a “mini-estate sale” at the address of Palm Beach County Circuit Judge Martin Colin.

The Palm Beach Post knew the judge’s wife was a guardian and that guardians sometimes liquidate seniors' assets, including their belongings. So Post investigative reporter John Pacenti started looking into Elizabeth Savitt's cases and talked to families who accused her of double-billing and taking fees without prior court approval.

The story touched on a subject of national interest. Families nationwide were telling stories of guardians and their attorneys siphoning off the savings of seniors. In April, investigative reporter John Pacenti put a local face on the issue with stories on the annulment of a senior's marriage and the seizing of property.

Pacenti and senior investigative team editor Holly Baltz tracked Savitt's actions and her ties to attorneys who appeared before her husband.

Data reporter Mike Stucka sorted through thousands of court records to zero in on Colin's recusals since he became a judge and found the judge started recusing himself en masse from cases involving Savitt's attorneys once the Post started asking questions.

Post researcher Melanie Mena tracked Colin's and Savitt's finances in the public record, reviewing several liens and foreclosures, as well as debts owed to the judge's former legal clients.

Pacenti interviewed dozens of family members, sorting through their versions of events documented in court records. He talked to guardianship advocates and reformers, legal

He invited Savitt's attorneys to respond to questions and spoke with many, but they were limited on what they could say on the record.

He exchanged several emails with Savitt. As far as the sale in the Craigslist ad and an accusation brought up later in court that it may have been a senior's items, she said, "There was no proof presented."

Huh, reminds me of a patient my husband had who was suffering from Dementia. Out of the blue a woman, who claimed she was now his court appointed guardian showed up at the this older gentleman's house and moved him into a condo she had down in Delray Beach. Honestly, we have no idea if this man was worth money, I suspected he may have been, but she came in wrote my husband a check for what she felt was owed to him and we never heard anything from them. It made me feel almost sick, that someone could come in without anyone overseeing it and take off with this man. I wish I knew then, what I know now.

This a practice that must be stopped!! The children of parents with Dementia depend on the court system in many cases. When you have a greedy sibling that forces the case to end up in court and the court ends up assigning a Guardian for the care of the person and/or to manage the assets of the person, families have to be able to trust in the court system.

Now that this case has been exposed this situation must be transitioned to Guardians without a horse in the race. Both judge and wife must no longer handle nor be involved in these cases.

PB Post- "PLEASE" follow this up and keep the pressure on until justice is done. It is the older people that suffer from these terrible diseases that made our country the great place it is.

Not knowing she was married to a judge, Vassallo chose her to protect his father after his brother and sister transferred $180,000 from his father's accounts.

But under Savitt's care, his father still lives with his sister, Vassallo has been removed as trustee of his father's estate and he says he can't get satisfactory answers from her about how his father's money is spent.

The state Judicial Qualifications Commission received complaints about Colin in 2008, claiming he was favoring divorce attorneys from the powerhouse law firm of Weiss Handler Angelos & Cornwell, who represented Elizabeth Savitt. She and Colin were married in 2008.

The judge, first elected in 2004, was transferred around 2009 from the family to the probate and division, where Savitt became a professional guardian for incapacitated adults two years later. Colin jailed Kasman, the adopted son of Mafia boss John Gotti Sr., for about a week in February 2008 for failure to pay his ex-wife child support. It was later determined the judge acted without a proper order in jailing Kasman, who claimed it was done as a favor for his wife's attorney, Carol Kartagener from Weiss Handler.

Kasman and two other men in cases in front of Colin filed complaints with the JQC that the judge favored attorneys who had represented Savitt, including those at Weiss Handler.

The JQC in March 2011 informed Kasman that it had considered his complaints "and has taken appropriate action on the same."

In a paternity case in 2007

involving one of Savitt's divorce attorneys, the 4th District Court of Appeal ordered Colin off the case and told him that disclosing his conflict with the attorneys on the other side "would have been prudent." Savitt was the judge's girlfriend at the time, but the court found no difference between a wife and a girlfriend, saying there was still an "appearance of bias or prejudice."

Current Chief Judge Jeffrey Colbath presided over a contempt case against Jay Gordon, Elizabeth Savitt's ex-husband. Colbath would eventually say that ... Read More

In May 2008, Colin produced a letter instructing four attorneys — Henry Handler, Jonathan Root, John F. Schutz and Christopher Jette — to disclose the conflict, again putting the onus on the lawyers.

Controversy has followed Colin and Savitt since they started dating during Colin's days as her divorce attorney. In 2001,

Colin moved into Savitt's Delray Beach home while he was representing her in her divorce.

The ex-husband, former restaurateur Jay Gordon, filed a complaint against Colin with the Florida Bar, but the matter was dropped in 2004 when Colin became a judge because the Bar doesn't handle complaints about judges.

Child custody issues were argued in front of Circuit Judge Jeffrey Colbath. At a 2004 hearing where Colin served as the main witness and Savitt's attorney Root acted as prosecutor, Colbath sentenced Gordon to 30 days in jail for violating a restraining order to avoid contact with his ex-wife. The conviction was overturned on appeal.

"There is a great difference between an 'appointed' prosecutor who develops facts to support a finding and one who misuses the appointment for injustice and oppression. The record in this case contains facts which support the latter conclusion," the 4th DCA wrote in a 2007 opinion.

Colbath would eventually state that Colin sought to use the court system to “bully and intimidate” Gordon.

“As a result of this relationship with Ms. Savitt, Mr. Colin may have lost his objectivity and is not problem solving but is exacerbating the post-judgment conflicts between these parties,” Colbath wrote.

Colin asked for Judge Colbath’s remarks to be stricken from the record. Colbath refused.

Colbath is now chief judge of Palm Beach County.

Colin made headlines again in 2005 when he was investigated on allegations of battery on a child, accused of holding his future stepson underwater in a pool after the 12-year-old sassed him.

Although Delray Beach police filed a probable cause affidavit, neither Palm Beach nor Broward prosecutors filed charges. The judge remained on the bench during the investigation.

In 2006, attorney Bill Abramson made public Colin's driving record. The judge had averaged a speeding ticket every 18 months since 1994. Colin had failed to turn in his not guilty plea and paperwork, which caused his driver's license to be suspended for two weeks.

Three years later, the Palm Beach County Property Appraiser's Office asked Colin and Savitt why they were both claiming a $50,000 homestead exemption on their Atlantis and Delray Beach homes. The issue was complicated by a foreclosure proceeding on Colin's home.

The probate judge, who presides over financial matters, said the couple were living at both homes at the time and said he didn't know claiming homestead on both residences was prohibited.

Looks like this investigator, Mr. Pacenti, is on to something, something rotten in the State of Florida. I'll wager this is only the tip of the iceberg, and that elder abuse from "guardians" is systematic and widespread. I have heard of other cases where the legal system prevented family from caring for parents, and appointed people to manage their affairs, when no such actions were called for. These two need to be suspended pending a complete investigation, and prevented from carrying out any further activities.

Judge, wife benefit from frail seniors' money

advertisement

Written By: JOHN PACENTI

Palm Beach Post Staff Writer

The savings of incapacitated seniors flow into the household of Palm Beach County Circuit Judge Martin Colin.

This occurs courtesy of Colin's wife —

Elizabeth "Betsy" Savitt.  She serves as a professional guardian, appointed by judges to make decisions for adults who no longer can take care of themselves.

Cover photo: Judge Martin Colin hears guardianship cases, but not those of his wife. However, he hears other cases involving her lawyers. A former Florida high court justice says it looks improper and could violate the Judicial Code of Conduct. (Madeline Gray / The Palm Beach Post)

Savitt makes her money off the nest eggs of the elderly, many suffering from dementia and put in guardianships in the same Probate & Guardianship Division where Judge Colin wields considerable influence. His fellow judges approve Savitt's fees.

'I'm the wife of a judge': Some families say Elizabeth Savitt, a professional guardian, cites her husband's position when they complain. (Madeline Gray / The Palm Beach Post)

Savitt has taken money from the elderly people whose lives she controls without first getting a judge's approval as well as double-billed their accounts, a Palm Beach Post investigation has uncovered in court records. Families of some of the seniors say the judge's wife and her attorneys drum up unnecessary litigation that runs up fees, benefiting herself, the judge and her lawyers.

Savitt doesn't appear before her husband, but Judge Colin does oversee other guardianship cases where he is responsible for safeguarding the finances and well-being of these “wards” of the court. Colin’s colleague, Circuit Judge David French  who lunches with him regularly, has overseen almost two-thirds of Savitt’s cases. Some lawyers who have opposed Savitt in Judge French’s courtroom say he didn’t disclose that Savitt is the wife of a fellow judge or his social connections to the couple.

The lawyers Savitt has hired to represent her also practiced before her husband in other cases, where he had the power to approve their fees. A former Florida Supreme Court chief justice and a law professor say this constitutes, at minimum, an appearance of impropriety and should be investigated.

“This conflict puts the whole courthouse under a cloud because it raises so many questions and there are no answers forthcoming. And that is why we have a judicial canon on the appearance of impropriety, so there are no questions like this,” Nova Southeastern law Professor Robert Jarvis said.

The guardianship arena is an attorney’s playground. Everyone - the elderly ward, the guardian, relatives of the senior - are lawyered up. And most, if not all, get paid out of the savings of the senior in guardianship.

Families wonder if their lawyers naturally would be gun shy in opposing Savitt, a wife of a judge who they must appear in front of in other, more lucrative, cases.

This elaborate dance plays out in south county in the lucrative Probate & Guardianship Division, where Colin is a longtime sitting judge.

This isn't the first time Colin has had a conflict involving his wife and her lawyers. An appeals court in 2007 barred the judge from presiding over a case involving Savitt's divorce lawyers, ruling he had an "apparent conflict of interest that would cause a reasonable litigant to have a well-grounded fear of not receiving a fair trial."

115 recusals in six months

His wife's job as a professional guardian leaves Judge Colin compromised, handcuffing him from fully doing his job, The Post found. He's recused himself from 115 cases that involve his wife's lawyers in the last six months of 2015 after The Post started asking questions in its investigation.

"When you have a judge suddenly recuse himself of so many cases, it certainly sends up a red flag," Jarvis said. "How did a judge allow himself to be put in such a position? I have never heard of a judge doing such a thing."

But Judge Colin doesn't see a problem. Even before his recent mass recusals, he remarked in a court hearing that in the past he had required his wife's attorneys to tell opposing lawyers that they represented Savitt.

But at least one attorney told The Post that's not always how it worked. Gary Susser gave an example in which Colin's disclosure policy fell short, saying he was "floored and shocked" when he found out about the conflict.

Attorney Sheri Hazeltine  didn't tell Susser until April that she works for Savitt, almost a year into a probate case, Susser said.

"She never disclosed her relationship until she was told by Judge Colin to do so," he said. "It's a huge concern for me when opposing counsel represents the judge's wife."

A transcript of the hearing shows Colin asking Hazeltine to disclose, she does so and then Susser objected to Colin continuing to preside over the case.

"It was news to me what I just found out," Susser tells Colin.

Colin responds, "OK. That's why we make what we call a disclosure."

"Yeah," Susser responds.

Colin then defends the policy that he would change later in the summer: "Can't disclose until it's, you know, ripe to disclose," he tells Susser.

Colin had the case reassigned to another judge.

The judge spoke to The Post for hours, but because of his position, was limited in what he could say. He would only say on the record that he has dealt with the conflict with his wife properly through established methods.

How do you convince a god he is wrong?

he nation as a whole is beset by unscrupulous guardians, some of whom have been charged with crimes. Florida passed its first effort at reform last legislative session, including applying criminal penalties to guardians found guilty of abuse. Advocates say legislative reform, though, means nothing if judges are complicit in draining the life savings of seniors in guardianships.

Judges like Colin are the main line of defense against guardianship abuse.

Colin, 66, is one of a handful of judges in Palm Beach County Circuit Court who oversee

Sam Sugar, co-founder of Americans Against Abusive Probate Guardianships, says state bills to rein in professional guardians have wide support this legislative session.

T guardians for incapacitated adults. When a senior is found to be incapacitated, they can lose all legal rights to make decisions for themselves. So these judges approve expenditures including fees for the guardian and the guardian's attorney — again all coming from the senior's money.

“The problems all arise from the judges and the lawyers and the greed-driven abusive guardians they enable,” said Dr. Sam Sugar, co-founder of Americans Against Abusive Probate Guardianship, which spearheaded the Florida legislation.

“Judges are extremely insulated. They are legal gods who live in a court bubble in which they only believe what their friendly guardians tell them. I mean how do you convince a god that he or she is wrong? It's a near incestuous fraternity.”

The final arbiter for judges' behavior is the Florida Supreme Court. A former chief justice says Colin's conflict needs to be investigated.

“If you are sitting on the bench, you should not be doing things that would put a question in the minds of the public,” said Gerald Kogan, who served on the high court from 1987 to 1998.

Judge's history of debt: Foreclosures, IRS liens

Colin's Atlantis home: He was sued for foreclosure in 2009 but told The Post it was a mortgage modification.

olin and Savitt are positioned as the power couple of the lucrative probate arena. Colin's financial history, however, is littered with debt, including suits for

C foreclosure on three properties and $65,000 once owed to the IRS for back taxes. Savitt also had a recent foreclosure on a property. The couple's financial problems appear to have eased since she became a professional guardian.

Financial records show Savitt's finances are mainly separate from the judge's, but it appears the couple has co-mingled finances at least somewhat, West Palm Beach accountant Richard Rampell said. He pointed to a co-signed $30,000 loan from Helen Rich, a Wrigley chewing gum heiress who was a former client of Colin's when he practiced as a divorce lawyer.

And even with couples who keep their finances separate, there is bound to be overlap, Rampell said.

"It's very common, especially if one makes more money than other. And even if they say they don't, they often do," Rampell.

Sugar puts it simply: "Any money she collects would essentially be money he collects."

Professional guardians can be a big help

A majority of professional guardians aren't looking to line their pockets. They can be a godsend, taking over the decision-making for families fighting over a failing relative. But the salvation can be costly. Many of these seniors have substantial savings, and without proper oversight, a guardianship can become a fee frenzy.

Because the cases are in probate, and Florida law is complex, most parties hire lawyers to represent them. Many lawyers rely on the judge to approve their fees, paid from the senior's bank account.

Florida judicial canons are explicit in barring judges from appearing to use the bench for their own or their family's benefit.

“ A judge shall not allow family, social, political or other relationships to influence the judge’s judicial conduct or judgment. A judge shall not lend the prestige of judicial office to advance the private interests of the judge or others. - Canon 2(b) - Florida Judicial Code of Conduct ”

Former Chief Justice Kogan suggests Colin’s and Savitt’s conflict could violate the Florida Judicial Code of Conduct and should trigger an investigation by the Judicial Qualifications Commission.

“If I were somebody associated with the JQC, this is something I definitely would want to look into. It gives, if nothing else, an appearance of impropriety,” he said.

The JQC has the power to recommend to the Florida high court punishment for judges — from a private reprimand to sanctions to removal from the bench.

Kogan and Raoul Cantero, another former high court justice, wonder why Palm Beach County’s chief judge didn’t remove Colin from the probate division.

“If I were the chief judge, I wouldn’t put up with this type of thing because it looks terrible, not only to members of the public but also to members of the legal profession,” Kogan said.

Cantero agreed: “One way to handle that as an administrative matter is to have that judge in a division where those conflicts don’t occur.”

In Palm Beach County, two chief judges have been in a position to move Colin since his wife became a professional guardian in 2011. But each presided at one time over her divorce case, when Colin was her attorney and her lover.

'Savitt wasted our money for her personal gain'

Retired teacher Helen O'Grady, who died at 83 in 2012 in Boynton Beach, was a senior "ward" of professional guardian Elizabeth "Betsy" Savitt, wife of Circuit Judge Martin Colin.

Families say they watched slack-jawed as Savitt, 60, and her lawyers siphoned the wealth of their loved ones. They feel they are rendered powerless by judges who rule repeatedly for the judge's wife. Families fighting Savitt say Colin's colleagues allow her and her attorneys to pursue what critics of guardianships call "staged litigation" — pursuit of unnecessary legal issues to run up fees.

“It’s his wife, Betsy Savitt, and her attorneys who wasted our family money and time for their personal gain through billing hours due to sibling infighting,” said Thomas Mayes, who fought off Savitt’s effort to claim $55,000 from the estate of his mother, Helen O’Grady. “I feel she helps herself and her attorneys and not the client nor the ward of the court.”

The seniors might be incapacitated, but some are dubious of the judge’s wife. Albert Vassallo Sr., a retired Brooklyn plumber who is one of Savitt’s wards, spoke to The Post at a Deerfield Beach senior center.

“The only one taking money from me is that woman. But I’m going to get on that,” he said. “I wish I could stop her.”

Attorney: ‘Courts have allowed this culture’

he conflict created for Colin by his wife working as a professional guardian is a frequent topic of conversation among probate and elder law attorneys. But many told The Post that they fear reprisals for themselves or their clients if they speak on the record about Colin, particularly on matters involving his wife.

“I blame the courts because they have allowed this culture,” said one attorney, speaking on the condition of anonymity. “Savitt acts with impunity because she has the wind behind her.”

Probate attorney Edward Shipe said Colin’s conflict of interest at the very least “doesn’t look right, doesn’t feel right.”

“I can’t sit here and deny that,” Shipe said. “So we got this wife and she wanted to do guardianship cases so she started a guardianship business. It was talked about before it happened. I was scratching my head a little bit, thinking, ‘You are going to have problems doing this.’”

Professor Jarvis questioned whether attorneys who represent Savitt hope to get an edge in front of Colin.

T “Are they doing this either to curry favor with Judge Colin or to avoid his wrath?” Jarvis said.

Savitt often hires attorneys Hazeltine, Ellen Morris  and John Pankauski , prolific practitioners in elder law. They or members of their firms practiced in front of Colin before he began recusing himself from their cases last year. From 2009 to 2014, Colin’s recusals totaled 30. Since the beginning of July, he’s taken himself off 133 cases — 115 involving his wife’s lawyers.

Hazeltine, Morris and Pankauski or their firms — as well as the guardians they represent — have had fees in non-Savitt cases repeatedly approved by Judge Colin, The Post found.

Clifford Hark  of Boca Raton refers cases to Savitt. He has also earned fees approved by the judge in other cases. For example, Colin signed off on $51,000 from the estate of retired Judge Stanley Hornstine in September 2013.

One of O’Grady’s daughters, Kathleen Osterbuhr of Derby, Kan., wrote the court to say Hark promised the family to fight Savitt’s petitions for lucrative fees in court, but never followed through.

Mayes said in another letter that “Hark has made mistakes and prolonged this case for his benefit” and that Savitt’s “conflict of interest has caused more problems than it has solved.”

Ellen Morris, who works for Savitt, has also practiced in front of her husband. (Lannis Waters / The Palm Beach Post)

Hark told The Post he has been practicing for 28 years in South Florida and does not “rely on Judge Colin for my livelihood.”

“I represent and zealously advocate for my client’s interest regardless of Ms. Savitt’s involvement in the case,” he wrote to The Post in an email.

Attorney Sheri Hazeltine, left, during a hearing regarding attorney fees. Elizabeth Savitt, seated right, is the wife of Judge Martin Colin and also a professional guardian. (Madeline Gray / The Palm Beach Post)

He pointed out that in some guardianship cases Savitt has opposed his fees and that Colin has also not awarded him the entire amount of fees sought by his firm.

Hark did say that he was unaware of complaints about her by attorneys or family members in the O’Grady case, which he referred to Savitt, and the guardianship of Lorraine Hilton, in which the family accuses the judge’s wife of financial mismanagement. But, Hark reiterated that he recommends other guardians besides Savitt and that the decision, in the end, rests with the families.

Most of Savitt’s attorneys also spoke to The Post but were limited in what they could say on the record.

O’Grady’s son, Mayes, said Savitt capitalized on family turmoil, sending their conflicts to court to be resolved, where the litigation generated more fees.

“That was a fix,” Mayes said in an interview. “I was still doing all the work, but she and her attorneys were billing and kept stirring it up with the family.”

The family learned that Savitt was married to a judge when Judge Rosemarie Scher, then presiding over their case, said she’d been out to dinner with the couple and described the judge’s wife as “part of the judicial community.”

“Savitt never told us beforehand, which I thought she should have,” said Mayes. “The lawyers never told us. I figured he was in another division, but he was in probate.”

Chief judges presided over Savitt's divorce

Chief Circuit Judge Jeffrey Colbath. (Lannis Waters / The Palm Beach Post)

Colin has been allowed to remain in probate under Peter Blanc and Jeffrey Colbath, chief judges since Savitt became a registered guardian four years ago. While other judges rotate, Colin hasn't been moved out of the south county courthouse since at least 2008.

Blanc and Colbath, the current chief judge, presided separately over Savitt's divorce and made rulings favorable to her.

Blanc said he worked in Colin's law firm for about nine months as an "independent contractor." He told The Post that when Savitt became a guardian there was some discussion about a potential conflict, but he felt satisfied not moving him out of probate because Colin vowed not to preside over any of her cases. The Post has not found any of Savitt's cases where he did.

Chief Judge Colbath declined to answer questions for this story, but he has the power to move Colin to another division if he suspects impropriety.

Florida Supreme Court Chief Justice Jorge Labarga in 2013 issued an administrative order to emphasize that the chief judges of circuit courts have the duty to take "corrective action as may be appropriate" if they feel a judge is acting inappropriately. Labarga declined to comment for this story.

Judges socialize, planned trip together

Judge Colin and his wife have socialized with one of the judges she appears in front of regularly, The Post has learned.

Colin and Circuit Judge David French eat lunch together nearly every day. Colin and French co-hosted a trivia night in May for the South Palm Beach Bar Association. The event was co-sponsored by Pankauski's firm. French did not return repeated attempts for comment.

French's first ex-wife Gayle Smith said her son, now grown, grew up in French's household and knew Colin as his father's running "mate" and that they often went on trips together.

French's second ex-wife, Christine Connelly, said she and Judge French were friends with Colin and Savitt. The two couples had planned a cruise vacation about five years ago, but it fell through when Colin didn't have his passport.

"We hung out, played tennis," she said.

French apparently doesn't always disclose this information to lawyers opposing Savitt in his courtroom on issues such as fees or her activities as a guardian.

Thomas Dougherty said he would have liked to have known that the judges socialized when he opposed Savitt in front of French.

Colin heads up elder-care pilot program

Any conflicts aside, Chief Judge Colbath has faith in Colin. In September, Colbath announced an Eldercare Coordination Pilot Program headed by Colin to resolve family disputes in guardianship cases outside court will become permanent. The program is meant to decrease costs for families by bypassing attorneys and sending them to mediation.

Colin is excited.

"This pilot program is designed to put in place a conflict dispute mechanism that will allow guardians and family members to deal with nonlegal matters in a conference room setting and not in a courtroom ...with less cost and tension," he said.

Palm Beach County joined seven other circuits in Florida as well as Indiana, Minnesota, Idaho and Ohio in testing the program.

Are recusals enough to end conflict?

In the courtroom, Colin is trying to shed any conflict, but a divorce case illustrates how treacherous it can become.

Amber Larkin accused her ex-husband, Andrew, of hiring trust attorney Pankauski because Andrew knew Colin would have to recuse himself. Judge Colin had indicated he would rule in her favor on a life insurance issue and even throw her husband in jail, according to court transcripts.

In addition to the recusal allegation, Pankauski was forced to defend himself on accusations that he was part of a strategy to get Colin recused.

The judge at a Sept. 29 hearing in the case explained why after four years he now recuses himself from cases involving his wife's lawyers.

Colin said that requiring attorneys to disclose that they work for Savitt used to be "a 100 percent acceptable procedure" and that there had never been a complaint.

But Colin said automatic recusals assure there is a court record, so there is no question about whether opposing lawyers know of the potential conflict.

"We have adopted long-standing approved methods to properly deal with such potential conflicts,” he told The Post.

Colin’s previous policy may have been flawed. A 2005 opinion by the Supreme Court’s Judicial Ethics Advisory Committee said judges are the ones who are supposed to disclose.

This is not the first time Colin has been called out for conflict of interest. Complaints surfaced in 2009 about him favoring attorneys who represented Savitt in her divorce after he became a judge. Colin says he wasn’t punished. But the JQC can choose to reprimand a judge in private.

Colin was removed from the family division briefly and put into probate. Within two years, his wife was working as a professional guardian.

Despite his financial difficulties, Colin oversees divorce and probate cases in which he makes crucial rulings on money.

“By staying in the probate division, he put himself in a position to influence what work his wife gets,” said Jarvis, who teaches a class on professional responsibility. “In fact, having this many recusals shows that something is amiss. It is all just rationalization – he should have avoided putting himself in a position where he has had to recuse himself so often.”

Mother of Judge Colin's grandson says she fears his influence

Embattled Circuit Judge Martin Colin is now embroiled in another accusation of undue influence: this time involving his 5-month-old grandson in a case in front of a fellow family court judge.

The mother of the infant has been trying for months to get a judge assigned from outside Palm Beach County — and away from Colin's legal clout — to determine how much time she gets to spend with her son.

Kacie Herrick sits in court for a custody arrangement hearing for Judge Colin's grandson Monday, January 25, 2016. (Lannis Waters / ... Read More)

On Monday, she scored a victory.

Circuit Judge Edward Garrison granted Kacie Herrick's motion to disqualify him before a hearing that was to establish a parenting plan, time sharing, child support and other matters.

Herrick in pleadings filed Sunday claimed she could never receive a fair hearing because of Colin's influence upon his fellow judges. Colin plays a pivotal role in the care of his son's child and was listed as a material witness in the case.

The attorney for the infant's father — Matthew Colin, teacher and head basketball coach at Wellington High School — claims Herrick, of Briny Breezes, is making untrue statements about what should be a private matter.

Herrick said she felt she had no choice but to go public after Garrison ruled against her previous attempt to move the hearing on the time-share arrangement to another county.

The child was born out of a three-month relationship and the couple are no longer together.

Matthew Colin, 41, lives with the judge in Atlantis. Herrick says the current 50-50 time-share arrangement benefits the judge and his wife — not Matthew Colin and certainly not the infant.

Herrick on Sunday also petitioned Chief Judge Jeffrey Colbath to assign the matter to a judge either in Broward or another county.

Colbath said last week that he is investigating findings about Colin reported by The Palm Beach Post in the series Guardianships: A Broken Trust, which outlined what a former Florida Supreme Court justice called Colin's appearance of impropriety in the adult guardianship arena.

Colin sits in the Probate & Guardianship Division, as well as the Family Division. His wife, Elizabeth "Betsy" Savitt, works as a court-appointed professional guardian of incapacitated seniors. Savitt has been accused in pleadings of taking thousands of dollars in fees in her guardianships without prior court approval.

Families of seniors under Savitt's care told The Post they feel their concerns are not heeded by Colin's colleagues.

Neither Matthew Colin, nor his father nor Savitt was in court Monday morning when the mother sought Garrison's disqualification.

"The judge before whom this case is pending and Judge Colin are related by affinity as they are and have been co-workers for many years, and Judge Colin is extremely interested and affected by the outcome hereof," attorney Tracy Newmark wrote in a pleading.

The parents exchange the baby nearly every other day. The mother says the child rarely sleeps in the same bed two nights in a row. Judge Colin is often the one who picks up or drops off the child and has suggested Herrick retrieve the child at the courthouse where he sits in Delray Beach.

“I have made it clear to Matt that I’m intimidated by his father,” Herrick said. “I mean, he is a judge in the county.”

Herrick said Savitt is the primary care provider when the baby is not with her.

Newmark said her client “feels like she has been treated as a surrogate for Betsy and Marty.” She said the baby no longer sleeps through the night because of the time-sharing arrangement and that his breast-feeding has been disrupted. The father argues in pleadings that the child can either drink formula or the mother can provide pumped breast milk.

“He is just the trophy baby of the Colin family,” Newmark said.

Herrick recalled how Judge Colin and his wife threw her a baby shower attended by attorneys and others in the legal community. The Colin family kept all the gifts but Savitt made her write the thank-you notes, she said.

As with many family court disputes, both parents take umbrage with the actions of the other and claim each is interfering with their time with the child.

The dispute between Herrick and the Colin family escalated in the hospital during the baby's birth. She said the two sides argued on a variety of issues during her complicated labor, which ended in an emergency Caesarean section. The Colin family attempted to serve Herrick with legal papers at the hospital.

Matthew Colin's attorney, John Schutz, said Herrick has a vested interest in influencing the case and is making untrue statements. "My client, Matt Colin, wants nothing more than to be a good father and believes that his personal life and that of Ms. Herrick and their son should not be public," he said. "He regrets the mother of their child does not feel similarly."

The case involving Colin's grandson is just the most recent in which a member of the public has feared the judge's influence.

While Colin doesn't hear any of his wife's guardianship cases, attorneys who represent her in such matters have appeared in front of him in other cases, sometimes seeking lucrative fees. Colin last year recused himself of 115 cases involving Savitt's lawyers once The Post started investigating.

Colin does not hear his wife's cases, but two former Florida Supreme Court justices and a renowned ethics law professor say the appearance of impropriety is so great that he should never have been allowed to continue to sit in the Probate & Guardianship Division where his wife has operated as a guardian since 2011.

Meanwhile, families of these seniors in guardianships under

Savitt accuse her in court documents and legal correspondence of double-billing, pursuing unnecessary litigation to drum up fees, and other improprieties, such as taking fees without court approval. They say their complaints fall on deaf ears in front of Colin's colleagues.

The result is that the savings of incapacitated seniors, many with dementia, flow into the household of Colin and Savitt, who have a history of foreclosure and financial problems. Those problems were mostly alleviated after Savitt started overseeing the finances of seniors.

In her motion to transfer venue, attorney Newmark says Florida statute demands the matter be transferred to another county because Judge Colin has undue influence over the mind of the court.

"The respondent/mother genuinely fears that the paternal grandfather in these proceedings (Judge Colin) has significant influence over the court conducting these proceedings," the most recent pleading to transfer venue states.

When the son of former Chief Judge Marvin Mounts in 1995 was charged with grand theft and other charges, he went to trial in front of a Broward County judge and was prosecuted by an assistant prosecutor specially assigned from Miami-Dade County. Even then, the prosecutor had to defend a five-year probationary last-minute plea deal was not reflective of special treatment.

Fort Lauderdale family attorney Robert S. Hannan says it is not uncommon for a change of venue when proceedings involve family members of a judge or other officers of the court, such as prosecutors. He said Garrison did the right thing and that Colbath will most likely follow suit and assign the Herrick-Colin matter to an outside judge.

“It’s just the appearance of impropriety,” Hannan said. “You don’t want to lose the public confidence. If the motion is denied, people are going to think, ‘Well, he’s the judge next door.’”

Judge's finances show history of unpaid debt, IRS liens, foreclosures

7 things to know

Foreclosures, liens and unpaid debts.

These dominate the financial record of Palm

Beach County Circuit Judge Martin Colin and his wife, Elizabeth Savitt, a professional guardian. The couple have enormous power over the life saving of seniors no longer competent to care for themselves because of dementia or medical illness.

The pair's financial difficulties peaked in the Great Recession. Then in 2011, Savitt became a paid professional guardian and much of their financial distress dissipated, including when Savitt paid off a $308,000 foreclosure on a Delray Beach house that was set to be

So where has all the money gone?

Colin earns a $146,000 annual salary as a circuit judge. Savitt was previously a tennis pro and a 2007 affidavit from a post-divorce proceeding show assets as high as $1.27 million.

Despite this, Colin's financial records show he has repeatedly borrowed money from clients from his days as a divorce attorney.

One of these clients was Helen Rich, an heiress to the Wrigley chewing gum fortune. In May 2006, Colin borrowed $85,000 from Rich, then a Palm Beach resident who Colin had represented in a divorce when she was known as Helen Rosburg. Colin paid back that loan.

Two years later, she said, Colin asked to borrow another $20,000, explaining that Savitt, whom he had just married, had cancer and he needed money for her treatment. Rich was a former cancer survivor. Colin's first wife, Ellen, died of leukemia.

Rich and Colin modified the $20,000 loan in 2013 to include interest. According to his latest financial disclosure with the state's Commission on Ethics, Colin still owes Rich about $30,000.

Neither Savitt nor Colin responded to questions about their finances.

Savitt and Colin live in a home he owns in Atlantis, a golf course community. He also owned a West Palm Beach condominium sold in October and co-owns a condominium with his son in King's Point west of Delray Beach. Savitt still owns the home from her previous marriage in Delray Beach and another West Palm Beach condominium.

Lenders and a homeowners association have sued for foreclosure on four of the five properties, with the exception of Savitt's condo, since 2008.

The lender on the Atlantis home sued for foreclosure in 2009, but Colin told The Post at that time that it wasn't a foreclosure, despite court filings that said it was.

“I modified my mortgage, but it’s not in foreclosure,” he said. But the modification didn’t happen until three years later by Ocwen Financial Corp. through a government program of loan modifications to help homeowners avoid losing their homes.

Colin had about $67,000 in liens from the Internal Revenue Service for back taxes from 2001 and 2005. He satisfied the IRS liens in 2012 and 2014.

The judge also has borrowed at least $200,000 in the past decade from former clients.

In 2010, the year before Savitt became a registered professional guardian, the couple were delinquent on about $9,000 in property taxes, county tax records show.

Besides the Rich loan, Colin hasn’t paid off loans from Atlantis oncologist Dr. Surendra Sirpal, who was once a client. He borrowed $35,000 from the doctor in 2007 and still owes him $60,000, his latest financial disclosure shows. Sirpal said Colin was his neighbor and he loaned him some money for the judge's real estate investments.

Colin — elected to the bench in 2004 and re-elected in 2010 — has been delinquent on dues to homeowner associations and fines from code enforcement. The boards have slapped liens on his properties.

Since 2006 in his financial disclosures, Colin estimated the value of his Atlantis home between $650,000 and $700,000. The real estate website Zillow estimated the value at a high of $472,000 in 2014 and a low of $317,000 in 2011. The county assessed the market value of the property at $305,000 in 2015.

The disclosures are signed under oath “that the information disclosed on this form is true, accurate, and complete.”

Savitt had a judgment of foreclosure on her home in Delray Beach in 2010, but the bank backed off. Another judgment was filed in November 2014 that sent a house to the auction block.

In 2011, she told the Department of Elder Affairs when she was registering to be a guardian that the foreclosure matter involved a dispute with the lender over a home equity loan and was not due to “an oversight or neglect.”

But court records show that she racked up late charges and interest and made only a handful of payments for six years. Her claim that Citibank violated the Truth In Lending Act fell apart.

During at least part of that time, she rented the house to tenants.

In March, days before the house was to be auctioned, she produced $308,000 to satisfy the judgment, records show.

Judges protect their court-appointed attorneys and guardians - always, no matter what state you are in. As an attempt to show Pattern & Practice of the court-appointed Trustee's inability to properly manage funds and pay IRS taxes, I pointed out to the Judge in my hearing that the court-appointed Trustee had mismanaged his own funds by having an IRS lien imposed on his own personal home, for unpaid income taxes. The judge's response was to warn me (for having brought this Public Record info about the court-appointee unable to pay his own IRS taxes to her attention), "When you do something like that, though, it makes a person feel like you're getting to the point of stalking. Okay? You have to be careful on that."

To this day, I believe the court-appointed Trustee has not properly accounted for my mother's Trust's income to the IRS, and thus may have committed income tax fraud -- in the name of my mother's Trust. It's impossible to say for sure what has happened, since the Judge will not allow any oversight or auditing of her court's appointee.

If any of us of mere mortals without law degrees or judges' robes were to behave in this fashion, we'd be sentenced and hauled off so fast, it would make your head spin. But when the judges and attorneys to collude to break the law -- even if it's the government that is ripped off -- nothing happens; they are beyond and above the law, because where you can you go to complain?

How guardianship works

Why do families need guardians?

Family members often disagree over the care of an incapacitated loved one, especially when a lot of money is involved. Professional guardians are expected to base decisions on the best interest of the incapacitated senior, called a ward, not feuding family members or their own interests.

How does a court decide to appoint a guardian?

A petition is filed by a family member, a professional guardian or any other interested party. If the judge feels the vulnerable senior is in imminent danger, he may appoint an emergency temporary guardian. Three professionals, including either a doctor or a psychiatrist, assess whether the senior is able to take care of himself. If a court determines the senior incapacitated, a permanent guardian is appointed.

What is a professional guardian?

If a family member can't be appointed guardian, a professional often is sought. These individuals must take 40 hours training, post a $50,000 bond and have their criminal and credit histories checked in order to be registered by the state. They are not licensed. They care for several incapacitated people at one time and can manage the assets, their housing and their medical care.

What rights do the elderly have?

Often the senior loses all legal rights to care for themselves or make many decisions involving property, medical care, finances or living arrangements. Sometimes only some of these rights are ceded to the guardian.

Why do guardians hire lawyers?

They face tricky legal and financial matters, such as tracking down a senior's assets, removing family members as trustees or even annulling marriages.

How do guardians and their attorneys get paid?

All fees come from assets of the incapacitated adult. The lawyer and guardian files a petition for fees with the court, which then determines whether the requests are reasonable. They are rarely rejected.

What happens when the senior dies?

The guardian can seek to become personal representative of the estate. They would be entitled to 3 percent of the estate. The guardian's attorney can seek the same amount.

Who regulates the guardians?

Judges oversee guardians they appoint. The Department of Elder Affairs says it has no regulatory authority other than registering them and reviewing their continuing education requirements. The court clerk reviews guardian finances and investigates complaints, reporting back to the judge.

What's being done about unscrupulous guardians?

The Legislature passed a bill last year to end favoritism between the judiciary and professional guardians. A bill this year would allow the state to monitor and even fine guardians. Advocate groups are pushing for more, including a referendum to cap fees for guardians and attorneys.

Elizabeth "Betsy" Savitt , a tennis pro turned professional guardian for incapacitated senior citizens, profits from her marriage to a sitting judge, a Palm Beach Post investigation has uncovered.

As the wife of Palm Beach County Circuit Judge Martin Colin , Savitt wields power in her husband's Probate & Guardianship Division, where guardians are appointed to take over the lives of seniors no longer able to care for themselves. Fees for guardians and their attorneys are paid from the assets of their elderly wards and approved by the court.

In several cases, Savitt has taken tens of thousands of dollars from their accounts without prior court permission, The Post found in court documents.

The chief auditor for Palm Beach County's clerk and comptroller says that in about 800 guardianship cases he's reviewed, only one guardian has taken money without first getting court approval: Judge Colin's wife.

Some of the seniors' family members express frustration with what they say are unnecessary legal disputes pursued by Savitt that drive up fees for her and her lawyers, depleting their loved one's assets. In addition, they say Savitt funneled cash and assets to family members accused of financially, or in one case, even physically abusing the senior she is sworn to protect, court documents show.

In December 2014, Savitt held a "mini estate sale" advertised on Craigslist at Judge Colin's address. "Cleaned out a home and selling all I could find," the ad said. A lawyer said in court that he was concerned the items belonged to one of the seniors.

In another case, court records show Savitt, working for a family guardian, seized items inside a home and helped load them onto a moving truck. A lot of the items, however, belonged to the homeowner and not the senior. Sheriff's deputies and a judge made Savitt and her attorney return the items.

Savitt doesn't appear in front of her husband. She does appear in front of his colleagues.

For families, taking on a judge's wife is daunting, and they complain that their protests go unheeded. Savitt responds that she has never been sanctioned for any wrongdoing, and The Post did not find any such instances.

Savitt claimed in an email exchange that her detractors are “disgruntled.”

Besides how she takes retainers and fees, families take umbrage with other actions of Savitt.

The judge's wife double-billed seniors' accounts. In one case, she paid back the money

after a family member spotted it, court records show. Another instance, cited by the clerk, is part of an ongoing investigation.

Savitt even pursues seniors' money after their deaths, taking $30,000 in one probate case without court approval and with no apparent justification other than it was to be "held in trust." The court required her to give most of it back.

Families say they have depleted their own savings fighting her, to no avail.

Savitt has been appointed in about 25 cases, nearly all guardianships, since she became a professional guardian in 2011. She worked without fees for some indigents, but several of her cases involve multimillion-dollar estates. Most of her cases were in front Circuit Judge David French, a friend of her husband's.

"Colin and Savitt are a particularly good example and a very illuminating one of the conflicts of interest that exist within the guardianship system and how these conflicts lead to a miscarriage of justice and unspeakable amounts of pain, loss and frustration on behalf of families," said Dr. Sam Sugar, co-founder of Americans Against Abusive Probate Guardianship, the force behind guardianship reform last year in the Florida Legislature.

Several families separately told The Post that Savitt openly cites her husband's powerful position.

When James Vassallo, whose father Albert Vassallo Sr. is incapacitated, asked Savitt to provide receipts for expenditures he questioned, she told him to mind his own business.

"She told me, 'In the real world, it doesn't work that way, but I can get away with it because I'm married to a judge.”

Savitt declined to address specific documents submitted to the court accusing her of wrongdoing in various cases.

Instead, in an email, Savitt noted that judges always approved her fees, even if she took the money beforehand. She denied selling wards' possessions out of the judge's home and said she did nothing wrong in withdrawing the $30,000 from one senior's accounts.

She called such numerous concerns by families of the seniors in her guardianships “frivolous” and “baseless.”

“To the best of my knowledge, I have not been found by a court after a hearing to violate in any material way an order of the court or a rule that I was to follow,” Savitt wrote.

Savitt also accused The Post of searching for “something negative to write” and that the newspaper was not interested in reporting about her “good work.”

“It is obvious to all who are aware of what you desire to do that you do not intend to be fair, accurate and balanced,” Savitt wrote.

Savitt's husband presided over cases involving her attorneys for years before The Post began questioning the practice. After that, between July 1 and the end of 2015, he had recused himself from 115 cases involving his wife's lawyers.

Colin, as well as most of Savitt's attorneys, also spoke to The Post but were limited in what they could say on the record.

High cost of family discord: Fees blossom in court

The families involved in guardianship cases are often broken. Brothers hate sisters. Fathers characterize their own daughters as evil for opposing them in court. It's not unusual for many family members to hire lawyers themselves, accusing one another of scheming to get the riches of the incapacitated senior.

Families who spoke to The Post say Savitt exploits those rifts to pursue litigation that drives up her fees. Savitt's attorneys, though, say it's the family rancor that necessitates costly actions in guardianships, such as removing a sibling from a trust of a senior.

“I don’t know if they seek out cases where there is family dysfunction, but they certainly take advantage of it,” said Bruce Rosenwater, a West Palm Beach attorney who sought to remove Savitt from a guardianship.

Some family members applaud Savitt. The husband of one of her wards, Dolores Thur, said she’s been a good caretaker and his wife’s assets have been documented painstakingly. Lester Thur, 84, says he doesn’t think any criticism of Savitt is justified even though his wife’s case is under investigation by the clerk, which has questioned several items in the annual inventory, including double-billing.

In five Savitt cases The Post examined, however, family members said the judge’s wife seemed more interested in the money from the estate than caring for the incapacitated senior.

The cases involved Brooklyn plumber Vassallo, 87; Kansas schoolteacher Helen O’Grady, 83; New York accountant Robert Paul Wein, 89; Chicago-area decorator Lorraine Hilton, 94; and Gwendolyn Batson, 89, a retired school administrator who lived in Lake Worth.

O’Grady died in 2012, Batson in 2013 and Wein died Dec. 1, but the other two are still alive and under the power of Savitt.

Gwen Batson: Savitt clears house with husband's order

In a case The Post wrote about in April, Savitt along with attorney Sheri Hazeltine  — who represents Savitt in many cases — hauled out belongings from Gwendolyn Batson’s Lake Worth home. Photos show they took nearly everything but the chandelier. Wearing badges with the word “guardian,” they invoked an order signed by Judge Colin, witnesses told The Post.

Colin's order appointed Batson's brother and sister-in-law as emergency temporary guardians for Batson in late January 2012, court records show. That decision would be reversed by a successor judge, but not before Savitt and Hazeltine in mid-February broke the lock on the home that Batson lived in and seized all of the belongings.

It turned out the home and much of the property seized didn't belong to Batson but to restaurateur Skender Hoti, a Kosovo native who had taken care of Batson for decades. To get appointed emergency temporary guardian, Batson's brother, Kenneth Davis, claimed Hoti had taken financial advantage of his sister. Colin agreed, noting in his order that immediate action needed to be taken to safeguard Batson's belongings.

But if Hoti was taking advantage of Batson, it was a long con. Their relationship spanned decades. She traveled to Kosovo to attend his wedding and was a fixture at Hoti's Lake Worth restaurant, Little Italy. Hoti claimed the guardianship was a means for Davis to seize his sister's properties.

Davis used Colin's order — employing the judge's wife to help — to seize all the possessions in the home where his sister lived.

As Savitt and others moved items into a truck, Hoti called sheriff's deputies who stopped them. The two argued that they had authority from Judge Colin but the deputies said the order was insufficient, that they needed what is called a writ of possession.

Hoti said he saw Savitt scream at deputies: "You can't do that. I'm a judge's wife. I'm Judge Colin's wife."

Three days after the seizure of Hoti's property, Colin recused himself from the case.

Gwendolyn Batson, who died at 89 in 2013, was a retired school administrator in Lake Worth. (Contributed)

Savitt and her attorney cleared out the home where Gwen Batson lived. But it was her adopted son Skender Hoti's house. Hoti says most of what they took was his.

Savitt wasn't Batson's guardian, yet Judge French approved paying her $1,500 of Batson's money. The clerk questioned the expenditure more than a year after the house was cleared out and then Savitt submitted a bill, court documents show.

Hoti said even though deputies made them return his possessions, he later found valuables missing: jewelry, firearms and about $18,000 in cash.

Last summer, Hoti said he filed an additional complaint about Savitt with the sheriff's office.

In a remarkable document, Savitt's bill filed with the court shows she worked as a hired hand for Batson's brother to spirit Batson to Alabama.

The bill indicates Savitt spied on Hoti at the restaurant he owns to make sure she could operate unencumbered and take possession of valuables from the Batson residence.

In the end, the restaurateur fought the brother and persevered, getting a judge to order Batson back to Florida.

Savitt's home: $308,000 staves off auction

Elizabeth Savitt's house in Delray Beach: She took out a $250,000 home equity loan but didn't make payments on it for years.

n 2011, just before the Batson case, Savitt became a registered professional guardian. Savitt and Colin's financial picture — replete with foreclosures, debt and liens —

I started to improve.

Savitt's path from tennis professional to professional guardian didn't require much heavy lifting. She completed 40 hours of training, put up a $50,000 bond for her firm Savitt Guardians and submitted to credit and criminal background checks.

The Department of Elder Affairs registered her as a professional guardian in 2011 despite a pending foreclosure on a home she owns in Delray Beach.

Savitt passed the credit check after telling the department that she was in a dispute with her lender and wasn't past due because of "neglect or oversight." It wasn't until November 2014 that her dispute was settled with a judgment of foreclosure, sending the house to the auction block.

Six days before the home was to be auctioned off in March, she came up with $308,000 to satisfy a delinquent home equity loan, court records show. She didn't make payments for several years on the $250,000 loan and rented out the home for a portion of that period.

Colin's Atlantis home: He was sued for foreclosure in 2009 but told The Post it was a mortgage modification.

Vassallo found the timing of the $308,000 payment suspicious. "I want to know if any of my father's money went to her foreclosure case," he said. When he told Judge French his concerns, a May 21 hearing was abruptly ended.

Despite the delinquencies, Savitt said she paid off the home equity loan on her property before the note was due. "I do not know how many professional guardians are debt free as I am," she said.

Most of Savitt's cases are in front of Judge French. Two of French's ex-wives have described Colin and French as good friends who once planned a vacation together. The two judges have lunch together frequently in Delray Beach.

Families say they are also frustrated by the lack of transparency in the guardianship cases of their loved ones. It's not unusual for key documents regarding the guardian's activities to be sealed.

The Palm Beach County Clerk & Comptroller's Office audits the guardians' annual accounting of the seniors' assets and the guardianship plan. It also investigated complaints, but the office's investigations and findings are confidential under state law. Records show that at least four of Savitt's cases have been investigated by the clerk's inspector general, but any findings remain confidential.

Helen O'Grady: Lawyer aghast as Savitt withdraws $30,000

Thomas Mayes of Boynton Beach sought legal advice in a dispute with his two brothers over his mother's health care and finances. His attorney, Clifford Hark  of Boca Raton, recommended Savitt as a guardian for his mother, Helen O'Grady.

Even with Savitt as guardian, it was Mayes who made his mother's doctor's appointments, managed her transportation, readied her house for sale — all tasks he thought Savitt should have handled.

After Mayes' mother died, Savitt recommended that the family urge the court to appoint her curator of the estate, telling them it would save money for her to temporarily manage it until the family disputes were settled.

Once that happened and Mayes became personal representative of the estate, he said he could not get Savitt to pony up details of his mother's financial picture and relinquish control.

Before Mayes could get a grip on his mother's finances, Savitt started withdrawing money, court pleadings show.

She wrote herself a check for $1,725 and another for $1,745 to Hazeltine for fees before a judge approved it, according to a pleading filed by attorneys. Hazeltine said Savitt obtained an order allowing her to write the checks, but the order Hazeltine referenced said nothing about fees, court documents show.

Then Savitt took without proper court approval $30,000 to be "held in trust" by her and Hazeltine.

"This action is so beyond the realm of reasonable conduct that I can hardly express myself right now," Mayes' attorney, Christopher Salivar, said in a series of emails to Hazeltine.

Mayes' lawyers, Andrew M. Schwartz and Salivar, told the court that Savitt actions amounted to the unlawful taking of O'Grady's property.

"The foregoing actions in and of themselves fall within the textbook legal definition of conversion."

Mayes agreed. "To me, I thought it was a criminal act. They were intentionally stealing it. This is how they make their money."

Judge Edward Garrison ordered Savitt and Hazeltine to return all but about $2,600 of the $30,000.

But that was not all. After the $30,000 withdrawals, the two asked for flat fees of $55,000 each, citing a state law that entitles personal representatives to 3 percent of the estate. Personal representatives, also known as executors, administer and close out the estate. Savitt was simply the temporary curator of the estate — not the personal representative.

Savitt and her attorneys would not relent on their claims for fees. Mayes said he aimed to fight them in court, but settled after his wife got ill, liquidating his mother's long-held Philip Morris stock to pay them.

Once Helen O'Grady's family settled their battles over their inheritance, O'Grady's son said he couldn't get Savitt to turn over management of the money. (Contributed)

Grady's family estimates attorney fees and court costs from their own pockets of around $150,000. "Is this fair? Is this reasonable?" Mayes' sister, Kathleen Osterbuhr wrote to the court in objecting to Hark's fee. The attorney who represented Mayes and recommended Savitt collected more than $35,000.

"My mother Helen O'Grady did not benefit from having a court-appointed guardian. ... My mother was a teacher who raised five children on a salary that was less than what Mr. Hark has already been paid."

Mayes estimates that fees for Savitt and her attorneys — Hazeltine and Ellen Morris — amounted to more than $70,000.

"They just kept draining the estate," Mayes said. "And the judges kept rubber-stamping all of this. They are not helping the elderly; they are helping themselves."

Savitt denied any wrongdoing. "Of course, I did not convert $30,000 and that would be a lie to report that I did."

Lorraine Hilton: Son accused of abuse gets money from Savitt

In the case of retired decorator Lorraine Hilton, Savitt's actions benefited Hilton's son Robert, who was accused of physically abusing and stealing from his mother, according to court documents. Savitt's attorney Hazeltine persuaded Hilton herself — who had advancing dementia — to agree to a guardianship.

Her other son, James Hilton, learned in March 2013 that Savitt had taken control of his mother's assets, though Lorraine Hilton had a living trust established in 2007. Lorraine Hilton in a declaration for a preneed guardian explicitly stated that she didn't want her son Robert taking care of her.

James Hilton sought to intervene as an emergency guardian. He also wanted a restraining order against his brother, Robert. James Hilton cited incidents such as an "accident" in which Lorraine Hilton broke her hip and Robert left her at the hospital and left the state, court documents say.

“I am truly alarmed that a judicial process has been put in place there without me having been duly contacted,” wrote James Hilton, who died in February.

Robert Hilton declined to comment. Billing documents in the case indicate his many demands on Savitt, such as for $20,000 of his mother’s money to buy a warehouse.

Billings from Savitt and Hazeltine memorialize phone messages from Robert Hilton left for Savitt in which his mother can be heard weeping in the background. On another, she called when all of sudden Lorraine Hilton let out “a blood-curdling scream and cuts off.”

Savitt resigned after James Hilton came forward. James Hilton objected to Savitt’s final accounting, accusing her of funneling money to Robert Hilton.

The pleading alleges:

- Savitt failed to secure a bank account, off of which Robert Hilton wrote two checks totaling $49,685 for real estate. The deeds indicate he’s the sole owner. The pleading alleges that Lorraine Hilton appears to have signed the checks.
- Savitt paid Robert Hilton $2,500 without explanation or receipt. She also paid $5,300 for property taxes on two homes owned by Robert Hilton.
- Savitt took as much as a $2,000 retainer fee without prior court permission.
- A Wells Fargo bank statement shows Savitt accessed Hilton’s account to make two separate deposits and to write two checks — all four in the amount of $3,189.50 — without explanation.

“The system sometimes ends up harming the people it’s supposed to protect,” said Palm Beach Gardens attorney Thomas Dougherty, who filed the objection on behalf of James Hilton.

Judge French took no action on the objection against Savitt.

Judge Krista Marx. (Gary Coronado/Palm Beach Post)

Savitt also took various amounts from the bank accounts of seniors without court approval in three of the guardianship cases The Post examined.

For example, at an August hearing before Circuit Judge Krista Marx, Savitt acknowledged she took about $17,000 for her fees and a retainer from Robert Wein's accounts without prior court permission. Judge Marx approved the payments, saying Savitt simply was "asking for forgiveness instead of permission."

When asked about this, again Savitt pointed out that the judge approved her actions.

Anthony Palmieri — senior internal auditor of guardianship cases for the clerk — said a guardian taking a retainer or other money from a senior without prior court approval "would not be consistent” with any of the 800 other cases he’s reviewed.

“From an auditor’s perspective, it is a concern,” he said.

Is it legal?

Florida law says that “when fees for a guardian or an attorney are submitted to the court for determination,” several factors determine whether they are reasonable. It goes on to list the factors.

Ellen Morris, one of Savitt’s attorneys, cited sub-sections of the guardianship law in saying that her client is allowed to take money without court approval. “You will not find anything that says guardians need approval to pay their fee,” Morris told The Post in an email exchange. Morris serves as administrative chair on the executive committee of the Elder Law Section of The Florida Bar, which promotes professional standards for the lawyers who practice in the area.

Mini-estate sale at judge's house

But it’s not just bank accounts, but property and possessions of these elderly wards that are controlled by professional guardians. Savitt’s actions have been questioned in this regard, as well.

In the Robert Wein guardianship, attorney Rosenwater expressed concern to Judge Marx in August that the judge’s wife may have sold some of Wein’s belongings at the December garage sale.

A listing on Craigslist in late December under “mini estate sale (Atlantis FL)” and listing the judge’s address, stated: “Cleared out a home and selling all I could find. I got new quality items.” For sale: jewelry, fine china, computer, printer, artwork and various household items.

When asked about the garage sale by The Post, Savitt rolled her eyes. When it was brought up in court during a hearing in the Wein case, she appeared irritated. Savitt denies any item of a ward was sold at the garage sale.

“The guardian is getting money, the guardian’s attorney is getting money, and interested parties come into the case. Everyone is getting paid and it’s all coming from the ward’s money,” Rosenwater said.

Robert Wein: Costly try at annulling marriage

Before Robert Wein died, Savitt tried to annul his marriage to Vita Wein, 82, whom he wed in 1958. Vita says Savitt is a ‘despicable woman,’ but Robert’s brother Daniel says Savitt has always been ‘aboveboard.’

The case of Robert Wein illustrates the often savage nature of guardianship cases. Family members say Savitt splits families into camps by pursuing what is called “staged litigation,” settling disputes in court to run up fees.

On one side is Daniel Wein, Robert’s brother.

The other side is Robert’s wife, Vita, and Jodi Rich, Daniel’s estranged daughter.

Rich said all Savitt has done as guardian is “bill, bill, bill” and criticized her lack of success in tracking down $700,000 in promissory notes owed to her late uncle, who died Dec. 1. Robert Wein was worth up to $3 million, according to court documents.

Though married in 1958, the couple renewed their vows in 2014 and obtained a Florida marriage license. Daniel Wein believed his brother divorced Vita, 82, and wasn’t competent enough to remarry. So for the last months of Robert Wein’s life, Savitt — as his guardian — focused on undoing the union of this elderly couple in a fight over what would be a lucrative estate.

Vita, as a spouse, can claim one-third of Wein’s estate. Daniel claims Vita Wein and Jodi Rich are interested only in that money.

“She has been guardian for 12 months and hasn’t done anything except try to dissolve the marriage of these two elderly people who had been married for 58 years,” said Rich before Wein’s death. “So there are two marriage licenses. Who cares? What’s the difference? They wanted to end their life together.”

Emails show Savitt discussing with Daniel Wein trying to get the authority to annul Robert’s marriage, contending he and Vita were divorced and that she tricked him into remarrying in 2014. Savitt also was trying before Robert’s death to amend the trust to give Daniel $150,000.

“Daniel and Savitt, they are in bed together,” Rich said. “We have a lot of evidence.”

Litigation on the marriage issue resulted in an expensive 2½ hour court hearing and depositions before the matter was dropped unceremoniously by Savitt at a hearing in August.

“Savitt is the culprit here. She is the one who caused all the problems,” Rich said. “She shouldn’t be a guardian.” Daniel Wein, though, praised Savitt for protecting his brother’s assets.

“I don’t know how she handles her other cases; I know with this, particularly with my brother, they have been aboveboard,” he said.

Vita Wein, though, has pressed Savitt to explain her actions.

In a June 10 deposition and in his motion for Savitt’s removal, Vita’s attorney at the time, Rosenwater, repeatedly tried to get the judge’s wife to say why she hadn’t filed one invoice in the case in eight months but took $17,000 without prior court approval.

When Savitt refused to answer a question about whether she had any objections to a critical report to the court on Wein, Rosenwater was exasperated. “She can’t answer. It’s amazing,” he said.

“The guardian has used her fiduciary relationship with the ward for her own financial gain, as well as her attorney,” Rosenwater wrote in another pleading. “It is clear the guardian has breached her duties.” Rosenwater no longer represents Vita Wein, and Robert Wein died before a motion to remove Savitt as guardian was ruled on. A motion for sanctions against her remains unresolved.

Vita Wein, in an interview at her nursing home before her husband died, said Savitt saw her as a threat to the amount of money she can siphon off her husband’s assets. She said her husband, who was struggling mightily with dementia, just wanted to be happy in his waning years.

“She is a despicable person. She is very two-faced,” Vita Wein said from Colony Club in Sunrise. Her husband, oblivious to the complex details driving her anger, sat down next to her on the love seat. He died less than two weeks later.

Savitt said annulling the Weins’ 2014 marriage was well within the propriety of the court, but she wouldn’t answer why the legal action was necessary for the ward at the end of his life when the 1958 union was still valid.

Albert Vassallo Sr.: From friend to enemy, Savitt cites 'bad blood'

James Vassallo can't stop beating himself up. He blames himself for allowing Savitt to take control of his father's finances. As result, he has a list of questions about Savitt's actions that he says remains unanswered to his satisfaction.

Like in the O'Grady case, Vassallo sought the advice of Hark when he learned last year that his brother and sister had transferred $180,000 from the accounts of his father. And like in O'Grady, Hark steered him to Savitt, saying she would protect the assets of Albert Vassallo Sr., who was suffering from early stages of dementia.

Vassallo, who moved from Brooklyn to live next door and care for his father at Century Village in Deerfield Beach, says Savitt instead aligned with his sister who had taken $140,000 and other assets, according to demand letters.

Savitt successfully petitioned Judge

Albert Vassallo Sr. in November 2015. (John Pacenti/The Palm Beach Post)

French to remove Vassallo as a trustee to his father's estate, which would have allowed him to retain some administrative control. Savitt claimed Vassallo wasn't getting along with the very siblings, whose actions prompted him to seek the guardianship in the first place.

"If I knew her husband was a judge, I never would have went with her because whatever I said to her meant nothing. She can do whatever she wants because she has the court's backing and that is exactly what is happening now," said Vassallo.

In a voicemail that Vassallo still has, Savitt had assured him attorneys were working to remove his brother and sister but there was no reason to remove him because "you didn't do anything wrong." She did, however, suggest paying Hark more money to defend him just in case.

Vassallo said Savitt made her move to remove him from his father's trust after he repeatedly questioned her billing practices. He estimates that Savitt and her attorneys collected $40,000 to get him off the trust. His father's savings have been depleted by more than $200,000 in about year, he said.

Savitt said, "To accomplish getting the relief favorable to the Ward, and because of bad blood and conflicts between all three children of the Ward, it was agreed by the lawyers that I should be the sole trustee, not because of anything wrong James did."

Vassallo produced email and bank statements showing how Savitt doubled-billed his father's accounts by about $7,300 and did not pay it back until he confronted her with the bank account statements. "She never would have given that back on her own," Vassallo said. The $7,300 plus a $3,000 retainer fee came before a judge approved them and even before she submitted a petition to the court for that money.

To address the $180,000, a deal was struck in mediation, allowing James' brother and sister to pay back half the money over 15 years and keep the rest.

Vassallo never signed the agreement and vehemently opposed it.

After The Post asked Savitt about $10,000 in U.S. savings bonds, James Vassallo said she told him the bonds had been located and provided her accounting of expenses.

Still missing is reimbursement for his dad's Hyundai and assets from a savings account and a safety deposit box, Vassallo said. "My father said it was over $100,000 in there."

But the knife in James Vassallo's heart came when Savitt and Judge French allowed his father to be permanently placed with his sister, Susan Mast. Savitt is paying the sister $2,400 a month for the father's care under a settlement agreement that bears the guardian's signature. Little of the money initially taken has been returned.

Albert Jr. says his father consented in court to remain with his sister, but James Vassallo says the judge never should have asked his incapacitated father if he wanted to live with Mast considering the money owed.

Mast cursed at a reporter when asked about the case and threatened legal action. Her brother, Albert Jr., said the money he got from his father was a gift to help him pay his medical bills.

Trust attorney John Pankauski, who has represented Savitt, was forced to defend himself in a divorce case that Judge Colin presided over from accusations that he was part of a strategy to get Colin recused. (Damon Higgins/The Palm Beach Post)

Vassallo has also questioned Judge

French in court about whether any money from the bank accounts of Savitt's wards went to satisfy the foreclosure judgment on her Delray Beach home. He also objected at a hearing to attorney John Pankauski's  bill — which at the time was for $18,000 and heavily redacted.

"I asked the judge, 'What are you going to do, rubber stamp everything?' and French told me that Pankauski should have charged my dad $40,000," Vassallo said.

Now Vassallo has hired attorney Dougherty, hoping he can work the same magic he did for James Hilton by detailing questionable actions by Savitt for the court. Vassallo hopes this would force her to resign or have a court remove her.

Albert Vassallo Sr. remains alert and talkative. Interviewed at a Deerfield Beach senior center, he said he doesn't trust Savitt. "She doesn't show me any reports. At least, show me where the money is going," he said.

James Vassallo can't sleep at night, poring over bills and other documents, thinking what he could have done differently. His apartment is piled high with stacks of court papers.

"I was the one who brought this woman into my father's life," he said. "And what is she doing? She is taking the money that these seniors worked so hard for, set aside for their children, for their grandchildren."

Is taking fees before a judge approves them legal?

County circuit judge — claims her client is well within her legal rights to take money out of the accounts of seniors in guardianship without a judge's prior approval.

But local attorneys who practice elder law — as well as the auditor of guardian cases for the Clerk & Comptroller's Office — say they've never seen another professional guardian take retainers or fees without judicial approval.

"I know I've never seen that before," said attorney Michael W. Connors of Juno Beach. "I don't know what the judge would think about that."

Savitt is married to Palm Beach County Circuit Judge Martin Colin. Her fees are approved, sometimes after she has taken them from the senior's account, by Colin's colleagues who preside over her cases. Savitt's “wards of the court” are mostly seniors citizens deemed incapacitated because they no longer can care for themselves due to senility or other medical problems.

In three of Savitt’s guardianships, involving Robert Paul Wein, Albert Vassallo Sr. and Lorraine Hilton, family members have complained about her taking tens of thousands of dollars in retainers or fees before a judge approved them.

Florida Statute 744.108 says: “A guardian, or an attorney who has rendered services to the ward or to the guardian on the ward’s behalf, is entitled to a reasonable fee for services rendered and reimbursement for costs incurred on behalf of the ward.”

The judge is the one who determines what’s reasonable, the law states.

Savitt’s attorney Ellen S. Morris, though, cites subsections of the guardianship law. Florida Statute 744.444 (16) says under the heading of

Why a ‘virtual tie’ in Iowa is better for Clinton than Sanders

The inside story of how Ted Cruz won Iowa

“Power of guardian without court approval”: “Pay or reimburse costs incurred and reasonable fees or compensation to persons, including attorneys, employed by the guardian ... from the assets of the guardianship estate, subject to obtaining court approval of the annual accounting.”

However, guardians taking their own fee is not mentioned.

Morris said, “You will not find anything that says guardians need approval to pay their fee.”

Connors said he’s never heard of anyone interpreting these sections of guardianship law as meaning a guardian can take fees from a guardianship account before submitting them for determination by a judge.

“That is an overly expansive interpretation,” he said.

Anthony Palmieri is the senior internal auditor of guardianship cases for the clerk. He has reviewed more than 800 cases and, except for the judge's wife, has never seen a professional guardian take a retainer or fee before a court has had the chance to approve it.

Attorneys in Miami-Dade and Broward counties say it is verboten by their local courts for guardians to take fees without prior court approval.

The Broward County Guardianship Association states on its website: "The court must approve any fee requested for reimbursement of expenses. You should keep good records of time you spend on guardianship matters. The burden is on you to show you are entitled to the fees you request."

When Morris was asked about this, she responded in an e-mail: "I can't answer why an association misquotes the law."

Fellow respected elder law attorney Scott M. Solkoff of Delray Beach said the short answer is that professional guardians shouldn't be able to take fees without approval. "Laws are subject to interpretation and it is conceivable that a guardian might argue that court approval is not mandated by statute," he said. "It is also conceivable, in the right case, that a court might not require it, though this would be a big exception and not the rule."

Paul Auerbach, an elder law attorney from Palm Beach Gardens, said taking a fee before a court approved it is certainly something he would not advise his guardian clients to do.

"A guardian's fee is to be determined by the court upon of a proper bill presented," he said. "I feel that a fee before starting would be frowned upon."

Boca Raton elder law attorney Michelle Hollister sided with Morris' interpretation, saying there is no direct prohibition on retainers or taking fees beforehand of money from incapacitated seniors in court-ordered guardianships.

Still, Hollister added, "I require my clients to petition for fees and to receive a court order prior to taking fees," she said.

Solution to guardianship crisis? Advocates say cap fees say the system remains broken — almost hopelessly so.

Without serious changes, unethical court-appointed guardians and their attorneys can operate with impunity, draining bank accounts of seniors and isolating them from loved ones. And if the judiciary is compromised, there's no stopping the abuse, advocates say.

Solutions are complex but reformers focus on three areas: putting a cap on fees, drafting a type of Bill of Rights for seniors that will give them and their families more say in guardianships and giving the state the power to weed out bad actors. A bill reintroduced in the Legislature for the current session would for the first time give the state real regulatory authority over guardians.

And there's good reason to reign in the professional guardianship industry in Florida, which saw a boom after the last recession. The number of registered guardians swelled from 108 in 2003 to 457 last year, according to the Department of Elder Affairs.

“Guardianship is a business and it’s a big business and it’s tremendously profitable,” said Dr. Sam Sugar, co-founder of Americans Against Abusive Probate Guardianship.

No amount of legislation will do anything, however, if judges refuse to take advantage of the laws to crack down on unethical guardians.

In The Post’s recent stories about Judge Martin Colin and his wife, guardian Elizabeth “Betsy” Savitt, families of seniors in guardianship say in court documents and interviews with The Post that Savitt took advantage of her position as a guardian. They said the judge's wife went after the life savings of their loved ones through unnecessary litigation, double-billing and taking fees for herself and her lawyers without prior court approval.

Right now, the Department of Elder Affairs can do little about unscrupulous professional guardians.

Fernando Gutierrez, director of the Guardian Association of Pinellas County.

“The department does not have any authority over professional guardians,” said spokeswoman Ashley Chambers. “This is a profession that we do not regulate and have no jurisdiction.”

The pending bill seeks to address this. Senate Bill 232, sponsored by Sen. Nancy Detert, R-Venice, would create the Office of Public and Professional Guardians under the Department of Elder Affairs and give it oversight of professional guardians. The executive director would develop and enforce standards for professional guardians.

The office would regularly monitor guardians' activities and do reviews that are different from the annual financial audits that the Clerk & Comptroller's Office does. It also would investigate complaints about the guardians. If an investigation finds the complaint is justified, the executive director could discipline the guardians, including revoking their registration, which would make them ineligible for court appointment.

“Somebody has found a cottage industry, and they are not targeting the poor people,” Detert was quoted by The Florida Bar News last year.

Capping fees

But advocates say the reforms need to hit unscrupulous guardians and their attorneys in the pocketbook in order to dampen the current profit motive in guardianships.

Among the most radical solutions proposed in Florida is a constitutional amendment to cap the fees of guardians and especially their attorneys. If guardians can't keep going back to a seniors' account for money, they'll be motivated to block unnecessary legal work and get their own work done more efficiently, advocates say.

Fees for professional guardians are set by the judicial circuit in each county. In Palm Beach County, it ranges from $50 to $95 per hour, guardians told the Post. Attorney fees, though, routinely range from $250 to $450 an hour, and guardianship cases are replete with lawyers.

The guardian, the ward and various family members may all be represented by lawyers who seek to be paid out of the savings of the incapacitated individual. A conference call with all the stakeholders can easily run $1,000 an hour, turning routine matters into a money machine for the lawyers involved.

Americans Against Abusive Probate Guardianship

is considering ways to gather more than 680,000 signatures needed to put such a measure on the ballot to change the Florida Constitution.

“If you have a cap on the fees, there is going to be less guardianships, not as much abuse and the elderly will be able to stay with their families,” said Lidya Abramovici, a co-founder of the Aventura-based group. “That is the way it is in other countries.”

Caps could be fashioned after state laws that limit the amount of money attorneys can collect in medical malpractice cases — possibly 30 percent of the senior’s annual budget or 5 percent of the senior’s assets. The group’s proposal also would limit payments to one attorney, Sugar said.

Some professional guardians, however, striving to do their best for a senior while working with often-conflicting family members, object to the proposal.

Fernando Gutierrez, a director of the Guardian Association of Pinellas County, said capping fees would be arbitrary and capricious because fees for guardians vary from county to county.

“Maybe, it’s time for a uniform fee schedule,” he said. “The major drawback to this system is making revisions that reflect fair compensation amounts. Capping guardian fees would make sense, only if a Florida statute would require the chief judges of each district to review and implement new fees every five years.”

Sugar said it is up to the judges and prosecutors, though, to order penalties. “We desperately need prosecution of the worst offenders to set an example and dissuade others,” he said.

Let seniors decide

To offset problems that can arise when a guardian takes charge, a reform gaining national attention is called “supported decision-making.”

It lets seniors decide where they live and how much financial help they need through a type of Bill of Rights. The approach automatically considers alternatives to guardianship, such as giving a family member power of attorney. Texas and other states are considering incorporating the approach into guardianship laws.

Even the United Nations has chimed in, stating, “With supported decision-making, the presumption is always in favor of the person with a disability who will be affected by the decision.”

“It needs to be translated into state legislative statutes,” Sugar said.

But Jetta Getty, former president of the Florida State Guardianship Association, said current laws are enough and that the industry is being unfairly maligned.

“Less than 1 percent of professional guardians have any black marks or infractions,” the Daytona Beach professional guardian said. “This is a judicial problem. I believe statutes already present give the courts full authority to rectify the problems that are being highlighted.”

Local fraud investigator

On a local level, Palm Beach County Clerk and Comptroller Sharon Bock established a fraud hotline and hired an auditor in 2011 to look into complaints. The clerk’s inspector general audits and investigates professional guardians, non-professional guardians, family members, attorneys, caregivers and anyone else suspected of exploiting a person under guardianship.

Bock’s office says it has investigated more than 900 cases and uncovered more than $4.5 million in questionable expenditures.

“Even a small amount of fraud is really intolerable,” Bock said. “When we get to the point that all guardians are invested in the outcome of protecting the ward, then we have really reached our goal.”

Sugar said he routinely hears complaints from Palm Beach County about professional guardians.

He said it is important for the public to understand that when a senior is put under plenary guardianship that they lose all rights, that they are “dead in the eyes of law.” The guardian can determine where they live, how they spend their money and — most importantly — their medical care.

“It just seems like every day we hear about something more egregious,” said Martha T.S. Laham, author of The Con Game: A Failure of Trust. “It’s a matter of the individual’s basic rights. They strip these from them in a matter of minutes and reduce them to the status of an infant.”

Easy to qualify

Laham, a professor at Diablo Valley College in Pleasant Hill, Calif., said some states are toughening qualification standards for guardians. Savitt was a tennis pro and became a guardian after 40 hours of training, a test and a credit and criminal background check.

Guardians need to be monitored much more strictly. Judges need to look at the credentials of guardians prior to appointment and then follow up to make sure the senior's finances aren't being abused, she said.

There are ways for families and seniors to protect themselves from falling prey to predatory guardianship. That is to set up a defined power-of-attorney and pre-need directives for the senior long before senility sets in. Some advocates claim that such planning would eliminate the need for guardianships for the vast majority of seniors.

How do these thwart aggressive professional guardians? Families only need to look to the precedent-setting Palm Beach County case of J. Alan Smith recently decided by the 4th District Court of Appeal in West Palm Beach.

The appellate court found that Smith's pre-need directives naming his new wife, Glenda Martinez, his health-care surrogate trumped all of the claims of the guardian and his attorney. The guardian successfully sought to annul the marriage but not the pre-need directive.

“That decision was badly needed in guardianship law here in Florida,” said Martinez’s attorney, Jennifer Carroll. “The personal wishes of the ward somehow disappear over time and become irrelevant in the guardianship proceeding and all the players in the system lose sight of that fundamental principle.”

Guardians’ side

Guardian-advocate Gutierrez challenged Sugar to a debate on Oct. 19 in Clearwater, where families and professional guardians squared off.

While the industry needs reform, he said Sugar’s group is too eager to depict every professional guardian as a gold digger. He said there are fewer than 100 complaints to the state about guardians.

“Are there bad guardians? You betcha,” Guterrez said. “But there are bad everything. Bad reporters. Bad doctors.”

Still, Gutierrez conceded there is too much focus on the financial responsibilities of guardians and they need more training to do a job that is often done by professionals who went to school for years.

“The court is more interested in the money rather than the health and welfare of the patients that they call wards,” he said.

A guardianship, he said, should be a last resort after all other avenues have been exhausted.

Palm Beach Guardians attorney Thomas Dougherty challenged many of Savitt’s actions in the guardianship of Lorraine Hilton, and the judge’s wife resigned as guardian.

He first experienced the fee frenzy in guardianship cases when representing a mentally handicapped man a few years ago.

“That’s why I encourage clients to avoid guardianships if at all possible by either setting up trusts or powers of attorney or other methods,” he said. “The system can be very frustrating and end up hurting those it was intended to protect and benefiting those who are supposed to be protecting the wards.”

What the Post found

Families of incapacitated seniors protest the practices — such as taking fees without prior court approval, for example — of Elizabeth Savitt, the guardian charged with taking care of them, The Post found in a yearlong investigation. Savitt is married to Judge Martin Colin and the position this arrangement puts the judge in makes for an appearance of impropriety, a violation of judicial canons, a former Florida chief justice says.

OUR VIEWS
GUARDIANSHIP

Who's making sure guardians don't prey on the vulnerable?

The Post's recent series, "Guardianships: A Broken Trust," has placed a penetrating spotlight on a system that is ripe for abusing people at their most vulnerable.

In Post reporter John Pacenti's stories about Palm Beach County Circuit Judge Martin Colin and his wife, Elizabeth "Betsy" Savitt — a tennis pro turned court-appointed guardian of incapacitated adults — some families of seniors in guardianship say in court papers and interviews that Savitt took advantage of her position, going after the life savings of their loved ones through unnecessary litigation, double billing and fees taken for herself and her lawyers without court approval.

That a guardian should do this in a court system where her husband sits as a judge — though not taking part in her cases directly — raises serious questions of ethics. We're glad to see that Chief Judge Jeffrey Colbath has responded by saying he is "preparing to make appropriate changes to address concerns."

But the problems of guardianships go far beyond these cases. In Palm Beach County, which has the state's largest population of people over 85, guardianship cases have been increasing at 15 percent per year. There are now 2,800 open guardianship cases in the county, according to Palm Beach County Clerk & Comptroller Sharon Bock.

And with 10,000 Americans turning 65 each day, Bock notes, the nation at large will inevitably feel the strains that are appearing here first. "We call it the Gray Tsunami," she told the Post Editorial Board.

Judge Martin Colin and wife Elizabeth "Betsy" Savitt.

It's time to lay down some rules. Because this is a field in which rules are remarkably lacking.

Professional guardians are not regulated, for instance, by the state Department of Elder Affairs. A measure now pending in the Legislature, Senate Bill 232, would change this, establishing an Office of Public and Professional Guardians under the department that would develop, set and enforce professional standards of practice — and make violators ineligible for court appointments.

Efforts should also be made to cap fees for guardians and their attorneys, to limit the amount of money they can sap from seniors they're supposed to be protecting.

And the counties' Clerk & Comptroller offices must be strengthened. Bock's office already reviews every guardianship's financial records each year, acts as an independent auditor with the power to dig deeply into suspect cases and pursue criminal, as well as civil, penalties. With just a lead auditor and a staff of six clerk auditors, her office has investigated more than 900 cases, uncovered more than $4.5 million in questionable expenditures, and, she said, "put two people in jail."

The office could be more effective with more resources. But the state's 67 clerks offices are already facing a $42 million shortfall in fiscal 2015-16 and will be struggling to fulfill their basic duties in running the courts, Bock said. She plans to seek federal and state money to expand guardian oversight, she said, after gathering statistics demonstrating the scope of the problem, a project started Friday.

The system must have more safeguards. Because any one of us could get caught in it.

"Which one of us doesn't have aging parents?" Bock said. "And which one of us isn't aging?"

"If you don't have yourself properly set up," she added, "if you don't have a trust, if you don't have a will, you could ... become a ward of the court."

But Colbath and the chief judge before him, Peter Blanc, took no action to eliminate potential conflicts caused by the close relationships in the south county courthouse.

Colbath has the power to transfer Colin out of the Probate & Guardianship Division, where he has been since about 2009. He also has the power to transfer Circuit Judge David French, who has been a close friend of both Colin and Savitt and oversees many of her guardianships.

Judge Martin Colin presides over a hearing on Thursday, August 20, 2015, at the South County Courthouse in Delray Beach.

The Post found Colin's colleagues must approve Savitt's fees and fees for attorneys who represent her in guardianships of incapacitated senior citizens, many with sizable life savings. Families have accused Savitt, a guardian since 2011, of and pursuing unnecessary litigation to drum up fees.

Several families separately told The Post that Savitt openly cites her husband's powerful position when confronted over her actions.

Savitt does not appear directly in front of her husband, but the attorneys who represent her litigated cases in front of him and relied on him at times to approve lucrative fees.

Palm Beach
County Chief
Circuit Judge
Jeffrey Colbath

Two former Florida Supreme Court justices and a legal ethics expert told The Post the relationships pose a conflict of interest and appear improper.

After The Post started investigating last year, Colin recused himself from 115 cases in six months involving those attorneys who represent Savitt in guardianships, such as Ellen Morris, Sheri Hazeltine and John Pankauski, The Post reported Sunday. Previously, Colin said he required the attorneys to disclose their professional relationship with his wife, but The Post found that didn't happen in at least one case.

“We have adopted long-standing approved methods to properly deal with such potential conflicts,” Colin told The Post.

Colbath has the power to transfer Colin or French out of the probate division. It's common for judges to be rotated every few years.

Savitt pointed out that she has never been sanctioned by any of her husband's colleagues and that complaints were from “disgruntled” family members. She also accused the paper of holding a grudge against her and her husband.

Families with seniors in Savitt's guardianships told The Post that their complaints about her financial management of seniors' life savings were ignored by Colin's colleagues, especially French.

Of particular issue is the tens of thousands of dollars Savitt has taken in fees prior to judicial approval in either guardianships or probate cases after the senior has died. Overwhelmingly, attorneys in the elder law field told The Post that state guardianship law does not allow guardians to take fees before a judge gives the OK.

This week it has been business as usual in Colin's courtroom in Delray Beach. Several attorneys told The Post they are not comfortable with the relationships in the probate division but fear repercussions if they speak out.

The families of some of Savitt's current and former wards did not hold back.

"They should be moved out of probate, and if possible, moved off the bench," said Jodi Rich, niece of Robert Paul Wein, who was in a Savitt guardianship before he died at 89 on Dec. 1.

“They are not abiding by ethical standards,” she said.

Thomas Mayes, whose mother, Helen O’Grady, was in a Savitt guardianship, said there needs not only to be further guardianship reform by state lawmakers but a criminal investigation into Savitt. He doubted, though, anything would done.

“They will just sweep the dirt under the rug or in a corner,” he said.

Skender Hoti, a Lake Worth restaurant owner, watched Savitt in February 2012 try to assist a family guardian in seizing nearly every possession in a house he owned before she was stopped by sheriff’s deputies.

“All their cases should be reviewed,” he said of Colin and French. “No judge should be able not to rotate and stay in the probate arena.”

What the Post found

Palm Beach County Circuit Judge Martin Colin is compromised by his wife's work as a professional guardian in the same probate and guardianship division where he has presided for years. His wife, Elizabeth "Betsy" Savitt, took fees without court approval and in some instances double-billed. IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA

DIVISION: IX

CASE NO. 502012 GA 600028XXXX56

IN RE: GUARDIANSHIP OF
GWENDOLYN D. BATSON,
An alleged incapacitated person.
_____ /

PETITION FOR APPOINTMENT OF EMERGENCY TEMPORARY CO-GUARDIANS
(Incapacity - person and property)

Petitioners, KENNETH DAVIS and MARY ANN DAVIS, by and through their attorney, Sheri L. Hazeltine, Esq., allege as follows:

1. Petitioners, KENNETH DAVIS and MARY ANN DAVIS' residence is 2049 Alpine Drive, Florence, Alabama 35630 and Petitioners' post office address is the same.

2. A Petition for Determination of Incapacity has been filed in this Court with respect to GWENDOLYN D. BATSON, an alleged incapacitated person, but a guardian has not been appointed.

3. Petitioners are the brother and sister-in-law of GWENDOLYN D. BATSON and are interested in the welfare of the alleged incapacitated person.

4. There appears to be an imminent danger that the physical or mental health or safety of the alleged incapacitated person will be seriously impaired or that the property of that person is in danger of being wasted, misappropriated or lost unless immediate action is taken because: GWENDOLYN D. BATSON is incapacitated, has severe dementia, is vulnerable and easily influenced. There is also evidence that she is being taken financial advantage of by a gentleman named Skender Hoti.

5. GWENDOLYN D. BATSON (the Ward), an alleged incapacitated person whose date of birth is February 28, 1924 and who is 87 (eighty-seven) years of age. Her present address is 3396 Via Mancebo, Lake Worth, Florida 33467, and post office address of the alleged incapacitated person is the same.

6. The nature of the alleged incapacitated person's alleged incapacity is that she has severe dementia. It is clear from recent incidents that GWENDOLYN D. BATSON is in need of an emergency temporary guardianship.

7. According to Mr. and Mrs. Davis, about 30 years ago, GWENDOLYN D. BATSON and her husband met a man who immigrated to America from Kosovo who

CLERK OF COURT
PALM BEACH COUNTY

be-friended them. His name was "SKENDER HOTI", and he was much younger than she and her now-deceased husband. Throughout the years, Mr. and Mrs. Batson were friendly with Mr. Hoti. He married, had children, and his own separate residence. Mr. Batson passed away, and Mrs. Batson was then alone. She began to exhibit signs of dementia several years ago. It was at that time that Mr. Hoti began using the name "Kenneth Batson," which is the same last name as the alleged Ward, and there is no evidence that this name change was legal. It was also then that incidents began occurring where it became evident that Mr. Hoti was having Mrs. Batson sign various deeds transferring her home to him.

8. According to Petitioners, in 1993 and October 16, 2009, Mrs. Batson signed a financial power of attorney document naming the Petitioner, KENNETH DAVIS as her attorney-in-fact. Exhibit A.

9. Mrs. Batson lives in her home located at 3396 Via Mancebo Street in Lake Worth. She and her husband originally purchased the home on February 7, 1980. Exhibit B, copy of Warranty Deed signed 02/07/1980.

10. On October 7, 1993 Mrs. Batson signed a new Quit Claim deed transferring the home into "The Gwendolyn D. Batson Trust". Exhibit C, copy of Quit Claim deed signed 10/07/93.

11. On April 26, 2004 Mrs. Batson as trustee signed a new Quit Claim Deed to the Gwendolyn D. Batson Trust and Kenneth Batson a/k/a Skender Hoti. Exhibit D, copy of Quitclaim Deed signed 04/26/04.

12. On May 7, 2010 GWENDOLYN D. BATSON signed yet another deed entitled "Warranty Deed", whereby she (as grantor) transferred the property to Skender Hoti a/k/a Kenneth Batson, whose address was stated as 3103 Drew Way, Palm Springs, Florida 33406. Exhibit E, copy of Warranty Deed signed May 7, 2010 and recorded on May 7, 2010.

13. On April 11, 2011 yet another Warranty Deed was prepared wherein Mrs. Batson was asked yet again to sign another deed transferring her property to Mr. Hoti. Exhibit F. It was apparently recorded on the same day. It is believed by Petitioners that Mr. Hoti thought the previous two (2) deeds may have been prepared incorrectly, and that out of caution he asked Mrs. Batson to sign a third deed out of caution.

14. On December 12, 2011, GWENDOLYN BATSON signed a document created through an online company called "Law Depot.com" called "Revocation of Power of Attorney" at a location in West Palm Beach. The document allegedly revoked the financial power of attorney document held by Petitioners. Exhibit G. This document was also recorded in the Public Records of Palm Beach County on December 19, 2011. Mrs. Batson signed this document without notifying or checking with her family first.

15. On December 19, 2011, Skender Hoti prepared a Durable Power of Attorney for Financial Management, had GWENDOLYN D. BATSON sign it, where it was subsequently recorded in the Public Records of Palm Beach County, Florida on December 19, 2011. Exhibit H, copy of Power of Attorney.

16. On or about 2009, it is believed that Mrs. Batson signed an estimated $44,000.00 car loan to purchase a new BMW for Mr. Hoti. Mrs. Batson has been making subsequent payments in the amount of $675.00 per month for his vehicle. Exhibit I, copy of invoice.

17. Additionally, Petitioners believe an estimated $180,000.00 was "loaned" to Skender Hoti by the alleged Ward. There is also evidence that a new credit card contract was recently signed by Mrs. Batson through her bank, Bank of America, and approximately over $11,200.00 withdrawn on it. Exhibit J.

18. Attached as a printout from the Palm Beach County court docket system of the many lawsuits that Skender Hoti has been involved in. Exhibit K.

19. The names and addresses of the next of kin of the alleged incapacitated person are:

NAME	ADDRESS	RELATIONSHIP
Kenneth Davis	2049 Alpine Dr., Florence AL 35630	Brother
Mary Ann Davis	2049 Alpine Dr., Florence AL 35630	Sister in law

Joshua Phillips,	2306 CR 135, Florence, AL 35633	Great-Nephew

20. The proposed emergency temporary guardians, KENNETH DAVIS and MARY ANN DAVIS, who are not professional guardians, whose residence is 2049 Alpine Drive, Florence, Alabama 35630, whose post office is the same; and who is sui juris and otherwise qualified under the laws of Florida to act as guardians of the alleged incapacitated person. The relationship and association to the Ward is that she is KENNETH DAVIS' sister and MARY ANN DAVIS' sister-in-law. They know her very well and care about her deeply. They are interested in making sure she is safe, and ensure that GWENDOLYN D. BATSON's assets are protected and used for her healthcare and well-being, and not wasted or used inappropriately by others. The proposed guardians should be appointed because they love her very much, and are genuinely interested in helping her so that she will be safe and properly cared for.

21. The nature and value of the property subject to the guardianship is as follows:

Description	Value
--------------------	--------------

Her home located at 133 Blaze Drive, Florence AL in which she owns a life estate.

Her home located at 3396 Via Mancebo, Lake Worth, FL.

Bank accounts:

SunTrust – less than $500.00

Petitioners request that summary proceedings be held upon this petition, that the court appoint an attorney to represent the alleged incapacitated person in these proceedings, and that an emergency temporary guardian be appointed for the alleged incapacitated person.

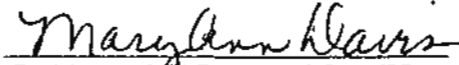

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

REPORT NUMBER: 1
 FLORIDA VICTIM ? N
 WEATHER: CLEAR

ON 2/18/2012, AT APPROXIMATELY 1215 HOURS, I WAS DISPATCHED TO A SUSPICIOUS INCIDENT AT 2396 VIA MANCEBO STREET, LAKE WORTH, FLORIDA 33467 IN UNINCORPORATED PALM BEACH COUNTY.

UPON MY ARRIVAL, I MET WITH SHERI HAZELTINE AS WELL AS A MOVING COMPANY. MS. HAZELTINE STATED TO ME, THAT SHE WAS THE LEGAL REPRESENTATIVE OF HER CLIENT MARYANNE DAVIS SHE PROVIDED ME WITH HER FLORIDA BAR ASSOCIATION CARD, WHICH WAS BAR NUMBER 0674567 WITH ALSO LEGAL DOCUMENTATION SHOWING THAT MS. DAVIS HAS BEEN ISSUED PRIMARY CUSTODY AND CAREGIVER TO GWEN BATSON WHO IS A RESIDENT AT THE CURRENT ADDRESS THAT IS LISTED ABOVE AT THE 2396 VIA MANCEBO STREET.

MS. HAZELTINE STATED, THEY ARE IN A CIVIL SUIT REFERENCE TO THE OWNER OF THE RESIDENCE REFERENCE TO MS. BATSON'S ADOPTED SON, KENNETH BATSON

WHO NOW HIS LEGAL NAME IS SKENDER HOTI. MS. HAZELTINE PROVIDED ME WITH THE DOCUMENTATION THAT SHOWS THAT MARYANNE DAVIS HAD BEEN GIVEN PRIMARY CAREGIVER AND CUSTODY OF GWEN BATSON DUE TO THE FACT THAT MS. BATSON IS SUFFERING FROM ALZHEIMER'S AND CAN'T MAKE ANY TYPE OF DECISIONS ANYMORE FOR HER WELL BEING. MS. HAZELTINE STATED, THAT MS. DAVIS CONTACTED HER TODAY IN REFERENCE TO GETTING THE PROPERTY THAT IS INSIDE THIS RESIDENCE AND BRINGING IT TO ALABAMA WHERE THEY ARE CURRENTLY LOCATED AT. I ASKED MS. HAZELTINE HOW SHE WAS ABLE TO ENTER THE RESIDENCE AND SHE STATED, BASED ON THE FLORIDA LAW THAT SHE WAS ALLOWED TO GET THE PROPERTY THAT WAS INSIDE THE RESIDENCE HERSELF. I EXPLAINED TO HER THAT I WANTED TO SEE THE DOCUMENTATION, AND SHE PROVIDED ME THE DOCUMENTATION JUST FOR THE GUARDIANSHIP ALONE BUT NOTHING IN REFERENCE TO THE WRIT OF POSSESSION ISSUED BY A JUDGE AT THE ACTUAL PROPERTY ITSELF.

WHEN I ARRIVED ON SCENE, THERE WAS A MOVING TRUCK THAT WAS PARKED OUT FRONT. THE MOVING TRUCK WAS BASICALLY HALF FULL OR ALMOST 3/4 FULL OF FURNITURE ALREADY FROM INSIDE THE RESIDENCE. I ASKED MS. HAZELTINE HOW SHE GAINED ENTRY. SHE STATED, THAT A LOCKSMITH WAS CONTACTED BY MS. DAVIS TODAY AND THE LOCKSMITH REMOVED THE LOCK THAT WAS ON THE FRONT DOOR. I ASKED MS. HAZELTINE WHAT GAVE THE LOCKSMITH THE RIGHT TO GO IN AND TAKE OUT THE DOOR AND SHE STATED THAT MS. DAVIS REPRESENTS MS. BATSON WHO IS A RESIDENT AT THIS RESIDENCE AND UNDER FLORIDA LAW SHE IS ABLE TO HAVE ACCESS TO THE RESIDENCE ITSELF. I STATED, THAT MS. BATSON OR MS. DAVIS WERE NOT PRESENT I COULDN'T PROVE THAT EITHER ONE OF THEM HAD ANY INVOLVEMENT REFERENCE TO GETTING THE FRONT DOOR CHANGED OUT AND EVERYTHING ELSE. SHE TRIED TO CONTACT MS. DAVIS AND GIVE ME A PHONE OF SOMEBODY SHE SAID WAS MS. DAVIS WHO IDENTIFIED THEMSELF AS MS. DAVIS BY STATING, BASED ON THE CIRCUMSTANCES, THAT THEY WEREN'T SUPPOSED TO POP THE FRONT DOOR LOCK ON THE DOOR WITHOUT THE OTHER PARTY PRESENT OR TRY TO GAIN CONTACT WITHOUT THE OTHER PARTY TO GAIN ENTRY.

MS. HAZELTINE TRIED TO VERBALLY EXPRESS THAT SHE HAS THE RIGHT TO THE PROPERTY INSIDE, AND I SAID, BASED UPON THE INFORMATION THAT SHE HAD THAT I COULDN'T DEEM THAT SHE HAD ANY TYPE OF RIGHT OF THE PROPERTY INSIDE DUE TO THE FACT THAT JUDGEMENT IN THE STATE OF FLORIDA IN PALM BEACH COUNTY IN WHICH THIS RESIDENCE RESIDES HAS NOT INDICATED THAT THERE IS A WRIT OF POSSESSION AND THAT MS. BATSON OR NOW MS. DAVIS HAS ANY RIGHTS TO THE PROPERTY INSIDE THE RESIDENCE. WHILE I WAS EXPLAINING THIS TO HER, MR. HOTI ARRIVED ON SCENE AND STATED, THAT SEVERAL OF THE PIECES OF PROPERTY INSIDE THE BACK OF THIS TRUCK BELONG TO HIM AND THAT MS. HAZELTINE DOES NOT HAVE A RIGHT TO TAKE IT OUT OF THE RESIDENCE FROM WANTING TO MOVE BACK. MS. HAZELTINE STILL TRIED TO PROFESS THAT SHE HAS THE RIGHT TO THE PROPERTY, AND I EXPLAINED TO HER THAT BASED ON FLORIDA LAW AND WHAT I COULD SEE THAT SHE NEEDED TO REMOVE THE PROPERTY FROM THE BACK OF THIS VEHICLE AND PUT IT BACK IN THE RESIDENCE. SHE TRIED TO TELL ME SEVERAL TIMES THAT I NEEDED TO CONTACT AN ON CALL JUDGE TO HAVE THIS CASE LOOKED AT AND I EXPLAINED TO HER THAT THIS WAS NOT GOING TO HAPPEN. THAT WE DO NOT CALL AN ON CALL OR ANY TYPE OF JUDGES FOR CIVIL MATTERS ON THE WEEKENDS IN REFERENCE TO THIS INCIDENT.

I STATED, THAT BASED ON THE LEGALITYS FROM WHAT I SAW THAT SHE NEEDED TO REMOVE THE PROPERTY AND TAKE THIS UP IN COURT IN REFERENCE TO WHO IS GETTING THE PROPERTY THAT IS INSIDE THIS RESIDENCE. AFTER SEVERAL MINUTES MS. HAZELTINE REFUSED TO LISTEN TO WHAT I HAD TO SAY AND DEMANDED A SUPERVISOR ARRIVE ON SCENE. I CONTACTED MY SGT., MIKE FERRANTE, AND HAD HIM ARRIVE ON SCENE, WHICH HE EXPLAINED TO MS. HAZELTINE THE SAME THING I EXPLAINED TO HER THAT BASED ON THE CIRCUMSTANCES THAT WE HAD THAT THE PROPERTY WAS NOT TO BE REMOVED FROM THIS PROPERTY UNTIL THEY WORKED IT OUT IN COURT AND

GET AN EMERGENCY HEARING OR AN EX-PARTE ON WHO IS GOING TO BE GETTING CUSTODY OF THE PROPERTY INSIDE THIS HOUSE OR GETTING OWNERSHIP OF THE PROPERTY, EITHER MS. DAVIS IN REFERENCE TO MS. BATSON OR SKENDER HOTI. I SAID, BASED ON THE CIRCUMSTANCES THAT I SAW THE PROPERTY NEEDED TO BE REMOVED OFF THE TRUCK IN WHICH IT WAS, WHILE I WAS STILL PRESENT AND PLACED BACK INTO THE RESIDENCE.

I EXPLAINED TO BOTH PARTIES THAT BASICALLY UNDER FLORIDA LAWS THAT THEY ARE BOTH IN THE WRONG DUE TO THE FACT THAT MR. HOTI CHANGED THE LOCKS ON THE DOORS AND DID NOT PROVIDE MS. HAZELTINE WHO IS A REPRESENTATIVE FOR MS. DAVIS WITH A KEY, WHICH BY FLORIDA LAW HE IS LEGALLY REQUIRED TO. I EXPLAINED TO MS. HAZELTINE AS A REPRESENTATIVE FOR MS. DAVIS, THAT SHE HAD NO RIGHT TO TAKE THE PROPERTY INSIDE WITHOUT A COURT ORDER SIGNED BY A JUDGE STATING THAT SHE GETS TO HAVE THE WRIT OF POSSESSION. I EXPLAINED TO BOTH PARTIES THAT THE PROPERTY NEEDED TO REMAIN INSIDE THE HOUSE AND THAT THE LOCKS FOR THE HOUSE OR ENTRY TO THE HOUSE NEEDS TO BE ACCESSED BY BOTH PARTIES UNTIL A JUDGE SAYS OTHERWISE ON TUESDAY OR WHENEVER THEY CAN GET THERE EMERGENCY HEARING TO TAKE PLACE. AS BOTH PARTIES LEFT, THESE ISSUES WERE ALL RESOLVED. THE PROPERTY WAS ALL PUT BACK INSIDE THE HOUSE AND BOTH PARTIES HAD A KEY TO THE HOUSE ITSELF. I EXPLAINED TO BOTH PARTIES ONCE THE JUDGE DEEMED WHOEVER GETS THE OWNERSHIP THAT IS WHEN THE DECISION WILL BE MADE AND CIVIL DEPUTIES WILL RESPOND BACK OUT IN REFERENCE TO GETTING THE PROPERTY ISSUES RESOLVED.

AT THIS POINT IN TIME, I RECLASSIFIED THIS CASE AS A CIVIL MATTER. I GAVE BOTH PARTIES A CASE NUMBER AND I EXPLAINED TO THEM THAT IF THEY HAVE A COURT CASE ON TUESDAY THAT THEY CAN BRING A CASE AT WHICH TIME DEPUTIES WERE CONTACTED TO COURT.

AT THIS POINT IN TIME, THIS CASE IS FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY. THIS CONCLUDES THE INFORMATION I HAVE FOR THIS CASE.

REPORT NUMBER: 1
FLORIDA VICTIM ? N

ON 1-31-12 AT 2200 HOURS, I RESPONDED TO 3103 DREW WAY, IN THE CITY OF PALM SPRINGS, IN REFERENCE TO A DOMESTIC INCIDENT THAT HAPPENED INSIDE OF PBSO'S JURISDICTION.

UPON ARRIVAL, I MET WITH THE CALLER MR. SKENDER HOTI. HE TOLD ME THAT HIS MOTHER, QUENDOLYN BATSON, HAS BEEN IN A DISPUTE WITH HER BROTHER IN ALABAMA, OVER PROPERTY OWNED BY HER THAT NOW SHOWS HER BROTHER'S NAME ALSO ON THE DEED. HE TOLD ME SOMETIME TODAY AFTER 2:00 P.M., HIS MOTHER WAS TAKEN FROM HER HOME AT 3396 VIA MANCEBO STREET, GREENACRES, IN WHAT HE BELIEVES WAS AGAINST HER WISHES. HE TOLD ME THAT HE ATTEMPTED TO CALL HIS MOTHER SEVERAL TIMES, BUT HE DID NOT MAKE CONTACT. WHEN HE WENT TO HER HOME, HE NOTICED SHE WAS GONE, AS WERE MANY PHOTOS AND DOCUMENTS. HE TOLD ME THAT KENNETH DAVIS, HER BROTHER, CREATED A LIFE ESTATE ON THE PROPERTY IN ALABAMA, WITHOUT APPROVAL OF HIS MOTHER, AND SHE HAS BEEN TRYING TO GET HIM TO REMOVE HIS NAME FROM THE DEED BEFORE CONTACTING AN ATTORNEY OR POLICE.

HE SHOWED ME SEVERAL DOCUMENTS HAND WRITTEN BY MRS. BATSON, STATING HER BROTHER KENNETH DAVIS, PUT HIS NAME ON THE PROPERTY, IN FLORENCE, ALABAMA, WITHOUT HER APPROVAL, AND SHE WANTED IT REMOVED IMMEDIATELY SO SHE COULD SELL THE PROPERTY. I ALSO SHOWED THAT SHE HAS NOT LIVED IN ALABAMA FOR OVER 30 YEARS, AND ALL OF HER FRIENDS THERE IN FLORENCE, ALABAMA, ARE DEAD. IT ALSO SHOWS SHE IS VERY HAPPY IN FLORIDA, AND HAS FRIENDS LOCALLY IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD.

MR. HOTI, WHO HAS ADOPTED NAME OF KENNETH BATSON, ADVISES THAT

HE WAS ADOPTED BY MS. BATSON OVER 30 YEARS AGO, AND HAS A CURRENT POWER OF ATTORNEY. HE SHOWED ME DOCUMENTATION LOGGED IN AT THE CLERK'S OFFICE IN DECEMBER, 2011, GIVING HIM POWER OF ATTORNEY OVER HER FINANCIAL RIGHTS. IT ALSO SHOWED ANY/ALL VERIFICATION OF ANY POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR MR. KENNETH DAVIS, AND HIS WIFE MARYANN DAVIS AS OF 2008. MR. HOTI TOLD ME THAT HE WAS CONTACTED BY MR. DAVIS' ATTORNEY, SHERRI HAVEODINE, WHO CAN BE REACHED AT (561) 243-4655, AND A BUSINESS PHONE OF (561) 665-1066. SHE ADVISED HIM HIS MOTHER WAS BEING FLOWN BACK TO ALABAMA, BUT LATER FOUND OUT THAT SHE WAS BEING DRIVEN. HE TOLD HER HE WAS CALLING THE POLICE TO REPORT A KIDNAPPING.

SHORTLY AFTER, HE MADE CONTACT WITH HIS MOTHER VIA CELL PHONE. SHE SEEMED UPSET AND WAS CRYING. SHE ASKED HIM NOT TO CALL THE POLICE, AND SHE WAS WITH HER BROTHER. THEN KENNETH DAVIS GOT ON THE PHONE, AND TOLD HIM TO NEVER CONTACT HIM OR HIS MOTHER AGAIN.

AT THIS TIME, IT APPEARS MR. DAVIS HIRED A LOCAL ATTORNEY, FLEW DOWN TO THIS LOCATION, AND THEN TOOK HIS SISTER BACK TO ALABAMA, VIA HER VEHICLE.

BASED ON WHAT I LEARNED AND OBSERVED IN DOCUMENTS FROM SCENE, IT DOES APPEAR THAT MRS. BATSON HAS THE INTENTION OF REMOVING MR. DAVIS FROM THE DEED ON HER HOME THAT SHE OWNS IN FLORENCE ALABAMA. SHE APPEARS TO BE OF SOUND MIND, AND APPEARED BEFORE THE CLERK OF THE COURTS TO GIVE POWER OF ATTORNEY TO HER SON, MR. SKENDER HOTI, A.K.A. KENNETH BATSON.

I ADVISED MR. HOTI TO CONTACT A FAMILY ATTORNEY IN THE MORNING, AND TO GET FURTHER LEGAL ADVISE. I ALSO ADVISED HIM TO CONTACT THE BANK TO GET OPTIONS ON POSSIBLY FREEZING THE BANK ACCOUNT, THAT HE HAD CURRENT POWER OF ATTORNEY OVER. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION WAS ALSO GIVEN TO ASSIST HIM IN THIS ISSUE.

AT THIS TIME, I THERE ARE NO CRIMINAL CHARGES IN THIS CASE.

In Re: Guardianship of
GWENDOLYN D. BATSON,
an alleged incapacitated person.

PROBATE DIVISION
FILE NO.: 502012GA000028XXXXSB

EMERGENCY MOTION TO VACATE EMERGENCY TEMPORARY GUARDIANSHIP AND TO COMPEL RETURN OF WARD TO FLORIDA

SKENDER HOTI (hereinafter "SKENDER"), by and through his undersigned counsel, moves this Honorable Court for an order vacating the Emergency Temporary Guardianship and compelling the guardian to return the Ward to Florida, and as grounds therefore, states:

1. The Emergency Petition to Determine Incapacity was filed on January 24, 2012.
2. The order appointing Emergency Temporary Guardian ("ETG") was entered by this Court on January 25, 2012 without a hearing and without notice to either John T. Milton, Esq. (the Ward's court appointed counsel) or SKENDER (the Ward's surrogate son and attorney-in-fact under her Durable Power of Attorney).¹
3. The basis for the Emergency Petition to Determine Incapacity was that the Ward has "severe dementia". Contrary to the ETG's allegations, the Ward is not suffering from dementia. Refer to the attached medical report from Stuart Bagatell, M.D., dated January 18, 2012 (6 days prior to the filing of this guardianship). The ETG and the Ward were not close and SKENDER believes that this guardianship was filed as a ruse to kidnap the Ward and gain control of her assets.
4. The Batson's relationship with SKENDER spans a period of over thirty (30) years, and the Batsons raised SKENDER as their own son. In fact, in 1989 SKENDER changed his last name to Batson. Refer to the attached Order of Name Change and Certificate of Birth. There is no dispute that SKENDER received real estate and money from the Batsons over a seven (7) year period. The ETG conveniently fails to point out that these transfers were voluntary on the part of the Batsons and were based on the Batson's familial relationship with SKENDER as their surrogate son.

5. Immediately after their appointment, the ETG removed the Ward from the State of Florida to their home in Alabama without Court approval and without notifying SKENDER of his actions. During the drive to Alabama, the Ward called SKENDER on her cell phone and advised him that she was in a car, she did not know the driver of the automobile, and did not know where she was going. The Ward was very frightened and pleaded with SKENDER for help. As a result, SKENDER filed this emergency petition.

6. Pursuant to §744.2025, Fla. Stat., the ETG is prohibited from changing the residence of the Ward from Florida to Alabama without prior court approval.

7. After removing the Ward from this State, the ETG filed for guardianship in Alabama and may have subsequently filed a motion to terminate this guardianship.

8. Termination of this guardianship is not mandatory upon a ward's change of domicile from Florida to another state. Sec. 744.524, F.S. does not create a presumption that the guardianship must be terminated upon a change of domicile of the ward, and a probate court has discretion in making the decision whether to terminate a guardianship. See In re Guardianship of Gechtman, 719 So. 2d 960 (Fla. 4th DCA 1998).

9. In Weissenborn v. Graham, 963 So. 2d 275 (Fla. 4th DCA 2007), Judge John L. Phillips entered an order denying the motion to dismiss the guardianship proceedings because the ETG surreptitiously took the Ward from her Florida residence and moved her to California without giving notice to the court or any of the parties. The appellate court, in affirming the Judge Phillips order, reasoned:

If a person could secrete the incapacitated ward away to another state and thereby cause termination of the guardianship, the entire purpose of having a guardianship procedure would be nullified. The equities in this case strongly call for the circuit court's continued exercise of jurisdiction. See also Nelson v. Beverly Beach Props., 47 So. 2d 310, 316 (Fla. 1950) (stating that "when equity takes hold it should retain jurisdiction until all matters between the parties have been disposed of").

The statutes provide for termination of a guardianship upon a change in domicile of the ward where another state has appointed a guardian, but the statute requires that the change in domicile be accomplished by the legal guardian with prior approval of the court. § 744.524, Fla. Stat. (2006) (providing for termination of guardianship when the domicile of a ward has changed as provided in section 744.2025).

* * * *

Larry, who continues to assert that he is the proper guardian based on the Health Care Directive, did not obtain prior court approval and did not notify anyone that he had taken Betty to California. If a guardian cannot remove the ward from the state without prior court approval, surely Larry cannot do so under these circumstances. Termination of the guardianship on the ground that Betty was no longer located in Florida would permit Larry to benefit from his misdeed of illegally removing Betty from the jurisdiction. The lower court in this case has jurisdiction to continue with the guardianship proceedings. [emphasis added].

10. Here, termination of this Guardianship on the ground that the Ward is no longer located in Florida would permit the ETG to benefit from their misdeed of illegally removing the Ward from this jurisdiction. Therefore, this court has jurisdiction to continue with this guardianship proceeding.

11. Finally, the principals of comity preclude termination of this guardianship. Comity applies where courts in different states have concurrent jurisdiction over a matter, the court which first exercises its jurisdiction acquires exclusive jurisdiction to proceed with that case. See Bogert v. Morrison, 972 So. 2d 905 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2007) .

12. Here, this Court first exercised jurisdiction over this matter. Therefore, this Court acquired exclusive jurisdiction to proceed with that case.

WHEREFORE, SKENDER HOTI prays that this Court enter an order: (a) vacating the Emergency Temporary Guardianship, (b) compelling the guardian to return of the Ward to Florida, and (c) awarding him such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.

The equities in this case strongly call for the circuit court's continued exercise of jurisdiction. See also Nelson v. Beverly Beach Props., 47 So. 2d 310, 316 (Fla. 1950) (stating that "when equity takes hold it should retain jurisdiction until all matters between the parties have been disposed of").

The statutes provide for termination of a guardianship upon a change in domicile of the ward where another state has appointed a guardian, but the statute requires that the change in domicile be accomplished by the legal guardian with prior approval of the court. § 744.524, Fla. Stat. (2006) (providing for termination of guardianship when the domicile of a ward has changed as provided in section 744.2025).

* * * *

Larry, who continues to assert that he is the proper guardian based on the Health Care Directive, did not obtain prior court approval and did not notify anyone that he had taken Betty to California. If a guardian cannot remove the ward from the state without prior court approval, surely Larry cannot do so under these circumstances. Termination of the guardianship on the ground that Betty was no longer located in Florida would permit Larry to benefit from his misdeed of illegally removing Betty from the jurisdiction. The lower court in this case has jurisdiction to continue with the guardianship proceedings. [emphasis added].

10. Here, termination of this Guardianship on the ground that the Ward is no longer located in Florida would permit the ETG to benefit from their misdeed of illegally removing the Ward from this jurisdiction. Therefore, this court has jurisdiction to continue with this guardianship proceeding.

11. Finally, the principals of comity preclude termination of this guardianship. Comity applies where courts in different states have concurrent jurisdiction over a matter, the court which first exercises its jurisdiction acquires exclusive jurisdiction to proceed with that case. See Bogert v. Morrison, 972 So. 2d 905 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2007) .

12. Here, this Court first exercised jurisdiction over this matter. Therefore, this Court acquired exclusive jurisdiction to proceed with that case.

WHEREFORE, SKENDER HOTI prays that this Court enter an order: (a) vacating the Emergency Temporary Guardianship, (b) compelling the guardian to return of the Ward to Florida, and (c) awarding him such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.

RESPONSE TO SKENDER HOTI A/K/A/ KENNETH BATSON'S EMERGENCY MOTION TO VACATE EMERGENCY TEMPORARY GUARDIANSHIP AND TO COMPEL RETURN OF WARD TO FLORIDA

KENNETH DAVIS and MARY ANN DAVIS, by and through their attorney, Sheri L. Hazeltine, Esq., respond to SKENDER HOTI, aka KENNETH BATSON'S emergency motion as follows:

Kenneth Davis is the biological brother of GWENDOLYN BATSON, and Mary Ann Davis is her sister in law. Both live in Florence, Alabama where Gwen is also from.

As stated in the previously-filed petitions, GWENDOLYN BATSON has severe dementia. Her long-term family physician, Dr. Gregory Azlanian, began prescribing Namenda for Mrs. Batson after she began complaining about memory problems on June 7, 2011. Exhibit A, copies of medical records for Mrs. Batson from 02/06/2007 to 01/10/2012. On 09/12/2011 Dr. Azlanian began prescribing Aricept for Mrs. Batson also, along with the Namenda. These two drugs are commonly used to treat persons with dementia and/or Alzheimer's disease. Exhibit B, computer printout of definitions of Namenda and Aricept.

After Mrs. Batson was diagnosed with severe dementia, Mr. Hoti changed her long-term doctor, and her last visit to Dr. Azlanian was on January 10, 2012.

In addition, Mr. Hoti is not the biological son of Robert and Gwendolyn Batson. While he has repeatedly alleged Mrs. Batson was his mother and he was her son, this is false and he was never adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Batson.

In addition, Mr. Hoti's repeated claim that he resides at 3396 Via Mancebo, Lake Worth, Florida and all of the personal property contained within the residence is 'his' property, is also false. Instead his residence is located at 3103 Drew Way, Palm Springs, Florida where he lives with his wife Beba. Exhibit C, copy of Request for Notice and Copies filed by his attorney, Mr. Garten, Esq.; Exhibit D, copy of FL Department of State Div. of Corporations Administrative Dissolution for Annual Report in 09/23/2011 showing dissolution of corporation and address for Mr. Hoti at 3103 Drew Way, West Palm Beach, FL 33406; Exhibit D-2, copy of court docket print-out.

Moveants contend that Mr. Hoti did not change his name in order to become a member of the Batson family, and instead changed it after being charged with criminal conspiracy and cocaine-trafficking charges in 1985. Exhibit E, copy of newspaper article "Businessman Charged with Attempted Bribery"; Exhibit F, "Man Pleads Guilty to Bribery Attempt"; Exhibit G, "Bribery Suspect Asks for, Gets Trial"; Exhibit H; Exhibit I.

He even involved Mr. Robert Batson, the husband of Gwendolyn Batson, a college professor. Mr. Batson's charges were later dropped and he was able to retain his job.

As for Mr. Hoti receiving "notice" of this 2012 emergency temporary guardianship proceeding, Mr. Hoti called and spoke to Mr. and Mrs. Davis and to this office several times. He was informed of the proceedings and knew of the ETG. In fact, he was mailed a copy of the pleadings plus knew he could go to the courthouse to obtain a copy. He even spoke to Mrs. Batson on the phone when she was returning to her residence in Alabama and she told him she was fine and not to come and get her.

The truth is Mr. Hoti does not care about Mrs. Batson: he has not written letters to Mrs. Batson since she has been gone, has not called her, and has failed to express any interest in her.

Mrs. Batson has a regular yearly routine of living at her home in Florence Alabama and going down south to her Florida home in the winter. This is her regular yearly 'snowbird' routine, and has been since she and her husband purchased their home on Mancebo Via on February 7, 1980.

No court approval was ever needed to transfer Mrs. Batson to her home in Alabama near her family. In fact, Mr. Hoti prevented her from returning to Alabama last year as she was accustomed to as he intended to further isolate her from her family. Also, Mr. Hoti has no status where he must be "notified" and it is therefore false that the law requires that he be notified. Compelling her return to Florida would be against her and her family's wishes and not in Mrs. Batson's medical and financial interests. She is now back living at her home in Alabama where she is safe and sound with her family and friends. If she was fully competent there is no doubt she would have been able to contact Mr. Hoti or someone else to ask her to bring her back to Florida. She is no longer competent and instead is being taken care of by her family.

It is also untrue as alleged that Mr. Hoti filed an emergency petition for guardianship. Instead, he only recently became involved in this case after his hope to take all of Mrs. Batson's personal property was put in jeopardy. It was only then that he finally hired an attorney and even attempted to have a presence in this important court case.

Mrs. Batson has extensive personal property remaining in her home on Via Mancebo and an attempt was made on Saturday February 25th to secure this property on her behalf by moving it into storage. It turns out Mr. Hoti changed the locks on Mrs. Batson's home and a locksmith had to be called in order to get into the home to secure her property. A neighbor two doors down, a realtor, came by to visit stating she was Mr. Hoti's friend, and also said she had been discussing listing the sale of the home with him soon. In addition, she said where was Mr. Hoti? She left, and soon after a West Palm Beach policeman showed up at the residence because she called Mr. Hoti, and Mr. Hoti then called the police. Mr. Hoti then arrived at the scene and told police the home was his personal residence and produced documents from the home to convince the police he lived there. In addition, he told police that Mrs. Batson was his mother and that it was his house and all the property and possessions, including her clothes, shoes, kitchenware, underwear, photographs, college diplomas, food in the refrigerator, old books, videos, furniture: all were his property. The police did not know what to do, and advised this attorney to resolve this dispute in the guardianship proceeding. The personal property taken out at that time was returned to the garage for storage. Two keys were given to Mr. Hoti and to this attorney, with the admonishment to Mr. Hoti that he was not to move any of the property pending resolution by this court. Exhibit J, copies of personal property in rooms in Mrs. Batson's home and her vehicle.

It is extremely important that Mrs. Batson's remaining property be secured for her and placed in storage and/or liquidated on her behalf. In addition, the photographs represent years of memories that belong to her, and not Mr. Hoti. It is unconscionable that someone would claim possession of an elderly person's personal property as he did, and it is important that her property be returned on her behalf immediately. The co-guardians request that an order be entered immediately allowing them to remove Mrs. Batson's personal property from her residence to be placed in storage.

Therefore, the co-emergency temporary guardians request that SKENDER HOTI a.k.a KENNETH BATSON's emergency motion be DENIED in its entirety.

STATUS REPORT TO COURT

KENNETH DAVIS and MARY ANN DAVIS, the co-emergency temporary guardians of GWENDOLYN D. BATSON, the Ward, by and through their attorney, SHERI L. HAZELTINE, ESQ., hereby file this Status Report to the Court:

1.) As per the court's instructions the undersigned's attorney made arrangements to return the rest of the Ward's personal property that had been kept in storage to be sent or picked up by the emergency temporary co-guardians. This property was duly delivered to Mrs. Batson's home today at approximately 1:00 pm with professional guardian Joanne McNamara and Rex Blazer assisting. Ms. Savitt is out of town this week so Ms. McNamara was asked to assist in delivering the items back to the home.

2.) Upon arrival at Mrs. Batson's home, a maroon vehicle was parked in the driveway, and Mr. Hoti was seen bent over in the garage. He then spotted us, vehicle, got on his cell phone, and quickly pulled the garage door down to shut it. This attorney then called Mr. Garten's office and spoke to Cheryl, in order to notify Mr. Hoti, as Ms. McNamara simply wanted to assist in returning Mrs. Batson's items to her home. Ms. Hazeltine asked Cheryl to help in calling Mr. Hoti and tell him to allow us to place the items back within the garage. Ms. Hazeltine then left Mr. Blazer's cell phone number with Mr. Garten's office, as her cell phone battery was running low and she was afraid he would be unable to reach her.

3.) Then, another man opened the garage door, and introduced himself as Mr. Hoti's brother. He allowed Ms. McNamara to place the items in the garage.

4.) Mr. Blazer then received a phone call on his cell from Mr. Milton, who said that Mr. Garten had called him and said a confrontation was occurring. Mr. Blazer told him this was incorrect, and that we were simply attempting to return Mrs. Batson's items as stated by the court at yesterday's hearing.

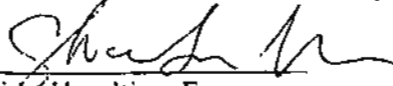

5.) This attorney then called to speak to Mr. Milton to verify the items had been returned. While she was explaining the items had been returned, as discussed at yesterday's hearing, her cell phone 'died'. This attorney is filing this report in an abundance of caution in order to keep the court informed.

Respectfully submitted,

DATED THIS 7th day of March, 2012 at Delray Beach, Florida.

SKENDER HOTI'S RESPONSE TO STATUS REPORT FILED BY EMERGENCY
TEMPORARY CO-GUADIANS ON MARCH 7, 2012

SKENDER HOTI (hereinafter "SKENDER"), by and through his undersigned counsel, responds to the Status Report filed by Emergency Temporary Co-Guardians on March 7, 2012 as follows:

1. Since the early morning on Wednesday March 7, 2012, SKENDER and his relative, Steve Zenuni, had been repairing the damage to Mrs. Batson's residence located at 3396 Via Mancebo Street, Lake Worth, FL previously caused by attorney Hazeltine. At approximately 1 p.m. the same day, attorney Hazeltine arrived at the residence unannounced. When SKENDER saw attorney Hazeltine, he immediately shut the garage door and called his attorney. It was SKENDER'S understanding that attorney Hazeltine had to make prior arrangements with his attorney regarding delivery of Mrs. Batson's personal property so that he would not be present. After communicating with his attorney's office, SKENDER advised attorney Hazeltine that she could place Mrs. Batson's property in the garage.

3. A short time later, SKENDER heard the sound of a key in the front door. Attorney Hazeltine had entered the premise with two unidentified people without knocking even though she was aware that SKENDER and Mr. Zenuni were inside the home. Attorney Hazeltine informed Mr. Zenuni that she had a court order, that she had just spoken to Mr. Garten's office, and that she was authorized to enter the premises. SKENDER stopped the two unidentified people and insisted that they present him with identification before entering. He was handed a business card identifying the female as Joanne McNamara, a professional guardian, and a Montana driver's license identifying the male as Rexford Blazer.

4. As attorney Hazeltine, Ms. McNamara, and Mr. Blazer were walking through the residence, SKENDER overheard attorney Hazeltine ask Mr. Blazer "why did you give him your ID? He's going to call the police". Mr. Zenuni said "yes, he is going to call the police", at which point attorney Hazeltine, Ms. McNamara, and Mr. Blazer immediately vacated the premises. As Attorney Hazeltine was leaving, she was laughing and waving the house key in the air stating "I have a key and a court order. I can come into this house anytime I want."

THESE MOTIONS came to before the Court on JANUARY 11, 2013 at 9:00AM. Ms. Hazeltine, nor her clients, the Davis', attended this hearing. Ms. Hazeltine filed a Motion to Withdraw this date that has not yet been ruled on by this Court. Ms. Rochlin appeared with her client and his family members with the Ward, and the Court having heard argument of counsel Debra P. Rochlin, and the testimony of Gwendolyn D. Batson, the Ward and Skender Hoti a/k/a Kenneth Batson. being otherwise fully advised in the premises and

FINDS THE FOLLOWING:

This Court has tried desperately to apply some King Solemn wisdom to this case. At every juncture where the Court has attempted to impose some type of reasonable sharing of the time and responsibilities for Ms. Gwendolyn D. Batson's benefit, the Court has been left frustrated and with great consternation at the conduct of the Davis' with regard to travel, with regard to visitation, with regards to communication and with regard to abiding by the Court Orders. The Court has repeatedly had to resort to the threat of bodily attachment to get compliance by the Davis'.

If not by the Davis' conduct alone, this Court cannot allow Ms. Gwendolyn D. Batson to continue to have the swirl of litigation and conflict around her as she is in the years of her life where she should be free from conflict and enjoy her relatives and her loved ones.

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that: the Court will grant the Motions to RESCIND/VACATE the three prior orders, more particularly, the JOINT STIPULATION OF PARTIES ENTERED ON JUNE 25, 2012 and the COURT ORDER ratifying same.

SKENDER HOTI aka KENNETH BATSON is appointed as the Guardian of the person and property of Gwendolyn D. Batson, the Ward. This is without prejudice to the Court hearing objections by the Davis' when and if they reinvest themselves in this case with appropriate counsel and participate at an appropriate level where the Court has some confidence that they are earnest and sincere in their desire to ease this family's constant litigation, and do what is in the best interest of Gwendolyn D. Batson, the Ward.

The Court has had the luxury today of having a delightful conversation with Gwendolyn D. Batson, the Ward. The Court finds her to be certainly interested and aware enough to express to the Court her desire for all of the fighting to end in the family. She believes these people should be able to get along.

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the any and all legal rights are removed from the KENNETH AND MARYANN DAVIS. This Court hereby appoints SKENDER HOTI a/k/a KENNETH BATSON to attempt to continue some type of a visitation that will allow Ms. Batson to continue to visits with the Kenneth and Mary Ann Davis' in the fashion that he deems appropriate, in an environment that will not cause further litigation.

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the court Grants an ore tenus Motion for Skender Hoti aka Kenneth Batson by the authority vested in him by this court order to make all decisions regarding time sharing/ visitation out of the State. Gwendolyn D. Batson, the Ward is not to leave the State of Florida with anyone without the expressed written permission of Mr. Skender Hoti aka Kenneth Batson with specific instructions attached to it, with itinerary, and time frames to leave and return, that will all be subject to enforcement by this Court.

Skender Hoti aka Kenneth Batson can require that any time travel arrangements are provided that there be a filing in this Court of those travel arrangements. That counsel must seek a Court Order ratifying any agreement of travel arrangements in order that the travel arrangement be enforceable with the powers of contempt of this court, if not followed.

FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the court reserves on the issue of attorney fees and costs and any other sanctions that are requested in the motions.

1 THE COURT: This Court has tried desperately to
2 apply some solemnest wisdom to this case. At every
3 juncture where the Court has attempted to impose some 4 type of reasonable sharing of the time and
5 responsibilities for Ms. Batson's benefit, the Court
6 has been left frustrated and with great consternation
7 at the conduct of the Davis' with regard to travel,
8 with regard to visitation, with regards to 9 communication and with regard to abiding by the Court
10 orders. The Court has repeatedly had to resort to 11 the threat of bodily attachment in compliance to the 12 Davis'. If not by the Davis' conduct alone, this 13 Court cannot allow Ms. Batson to continue to have the 14 swirl of litigation and conflict around her as she is 15 in the years of her life where she should be free
16 from conflict and enjoy her relatives and her loved
17 ones. For that reason, the Court will grant through 18 request to rescind the prior orders to make
19 Mr. Skender Hoti guardian of the person and property
20 without prejudice to the Court hearing objections by 21 the Davis' when and if they reinvest themselves in 22 this case with appropriate counsel and participate at 23 an appropriate level where the Court has some 24 confidence that they are earnest and sincere in their 25 desire to ease this family's constant litigation, and

1 to do what is in the best interest of Ms. Batson.
2 The Court has had the luxury today of having a
3 delightful conversation with Ms. Batson. The Court
4 finds her to be certainly interested and aware enough
5 to express to the Court her desire for all of the 6 fighting to end in the family. She believes these 7 people should be able to get along. I believe the 8 best chance we have at that is if we remove the legal 9 rights from the Davis' and that this Court employ
10 Skender Hoti to attempt to continue some type of a
11 visitation that will allow Ms. Batson to continue to 12 visit with the Davis' in the fashion that you deem 13 appropriate, in an environment that will not cause
14 further litigation. To be specific, the Court
15 wonders if the visitation should all take place in the 16 state of Florida. If requested -- and I'm going to 17 give you a minute to talk to your client on that,
18 this Court will likely grant a motion that requires
19 that Mr. Hoti holds the authority now -- with 20 the authority vested in him by this court order --
21 to make those decisions. And I want explicitly in 22 the court order that you'll prepare, Ms. Rochlin,
23 that Ms. Batson is not to leave the state of Florida
24 with anyone without the expressed written permission
25 of Mr. Hoti with specific instructions attached to

1 it, with itinerary, time frames and return times, that
2 will all be subject to enforcement by this Court. I
3 would also suggest, but not order, that any time
4 travel arrangements are provided that there be a
5 filing in this Court of those travel arrangements and
6 that counsel seeks a court order ratifying agreement
7 the parties for travel so that that order of travel
8 by Mr. Hoti is enforceable with the powers of 9 contempt. I don't think we can do anything less than 10 that in this case and be successful. Does that 11 address the needs?

12 MS. ROCHLIN: Yes.

13 THE COURT: The things that I'm reserving on are 14 fees and any other sanctions that are requested in 15 that the Court requires that the Davis' be present
16 and it did not require their presence, in light of the 17 fact that we served counsel who still represents 18 them, but has failed to appear here today apparently 19 based on the filing of a request of this Court to 20 withdraw which has not yet been addressed or granted
21 and may not be granted depending on the Court's view
22 on that until such time as it's appropriate to 23 withdraw, not the morning of the hearing on contempt.
24 So we'll address those issues at a later date.

25 Ms. Rochlin, I will tell you to take whatever action you

1 deem appropriate for Ms. Hazeltine's non-appearance
2 today. And the Court will address those when those
3 are filed and if those are filed. I don't know if
4 you're going to be satisfied with the ruling today
5 and I don't know what response we're going to get on 6 that ruling. But I have not granted that motion to 7 withdraw and keep an eye on it, you may want to file
8 an objection because -- face the reality is that 9 I'll only be here another week and then it will
10 be Judge McCarthy, who will not be familiar with this 11 case. And if he has no instructions in the file, he 12 may not know the history of this case.

13 MS. ROCHLIN: Right.

14 THE COURT: All right, when he reads this order, he 15 should get a pretty good flavor of where we're at in 16 this case.

17 MS. ROCHLIN: Absolutely.

18 THE COURT: All right?

19 MS. ROCHLIN: Okay.

20 THE COURT: Fine. Any other need from me?

21 MR. Hoti: Thank you.

22 MS. ROCHLIN: No. Thank you so much, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: All right. Good luck to you.

24 Ms. Batson, it was a pleasure to meet you.

25 MS. BATSON: Well, pleasure to meet you.

1 THE COURT: Thank you for coming down and talking
2 to me today.

3 MS. BATSON: Well, I'm happy you're doing as much
4 as you can to help me.

5 THE COURT: I'm trying.

6 MS. ROCHLIN: She do -- she understood.

7 THE COURT: She understood.

8 MS. ROCHLIN: She understood.

9 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, folks.

10 MS. ROCHLIN: Thank you so much, Your Honor.

*Re: Guardianship of Gwendolyn Batson, an Incapacitated Person
Case No. 50 2012 GA 000028 XXXX SB / Palm Beach County, FL*

Dear Ms. Paige:

Our firm represents Kenneth and Mary Ann Davis in the above-referenced case, and I write in response to your May 23, 2013 correspondence. Your letter references the “Annual Guardianship Report” filed on March 12, 2013, but on March 12, 2013 the Amended Annual Accounting was on behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Davis. To that end, your inquiries are relative to the Amended Accounting, and your inquiries are responded to as follows:

1. Order for Attorney fees (Sheri Hazeltine)

There is no Order for Ms. Hazeltine’s attorney’s fees. Ms. Hazeltine served as former counsel to Mr. and Mrs. Davis in this case; Mr. and Mrs. Davis were appointed as Emergency Temporary Guardians of the ward on January 25, 2013 (D.E. #7). The $1,500 paid on 2/11/2012 as reflected in the Amended Accounting was paid after their appointment by the Court. A copy of the legal services contract between Mr. and Mrs. Davis and Ms. Hazeltine is available on request.

2. Order for Betsy Savit (check #93 and 143)

There is no Order for Betsy Savit. Ms. Savit’s services were retained by Mr. and Mrs. Davis to assist them with the guardianship and care of the ward. A copy of Ms. Savit’s billing statement to Mr. and Mrs. Davis is enclosed.

3. Why is the ward paying for a car tag and oil change when an auto is not listed as an asset?

The ward’s car was owned by her trust. However, the car was available to and utilized by the ward’s caregivers and sitters to transport the ward where she wanted or needed to go.

4. Order for legal support fees

There is no Order for legal support fees. Check #168 (in the amount of $250) was paid from the ward's guardianship account, for swearing in Dr. Aslanian (for telephone testimony at trial), and Skender Hoti's deposition, during the pendency of the litigation. A copy of the invoice from U.S. Legal Support is enclosed.

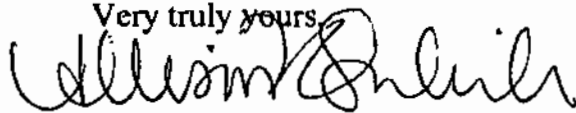

5. Order for court appointed attorney (court file does not have an order dtd 4/17/12 for attorney fees)

The Order dated 4/17/2012 was filed in the related mental health file for the ward (Case No. 502012MH000123XXXXSB). A copy of same is enclosed for your ready reference.

As an aside, pursuant to Article VI(B) of the ward's trust, Mr. and Mrs. Davis are the residuary beneficiaries. As is evident from the Amended Accounting, any amounts remaining in the guardianship account were transferred to the ward's trust. Any expenses paid from or through the guardianship account reduced their ultimate inheritance of the residuary amount from the ward's trust.

If you have any further questions or require any additional documents or explanations relating to the Amended Accounting, please advise. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

PANKAUSKI LAW FIRM PLLC

ALBERT VASSALLO, SR., CASE NO.: 502014MH001432XXXXSBIX
An Alleged Incapacitated Person. 502014GA000369XXXXSBIX

REPORT OF COURT APPOINTED COUNSEL

The undersigned attorney, pursuant to his appointment by this Court as counsel for ALBERT VASSALLO ("Mr. Vassallo"), in accordance with this Court's Order of July 24, 2014, files this Report:

INQUIRIES/REVIEW BY COUNSEL

1. The undersigned BRIAN M. O'CONNELL, ESQ. ("Counsel") and his associate, ASHLEY N. CRISPIN, ESQ. ("Crispin"), have spoken with Clifford B. Hark, attorney for the Petitioner, James Vassallo.

2. Counsel interviewed Mr. Vassallo at Day Scape, an adult daycare center located at 4800 Hillsboro Blvd., Coconut Creek, Florida 33073, on August 21, 2014 and Counsel toured the Day Scape facilities at that time as well.

3. Counsel conversed with the director of Day Scape regarding Mr. Vassallo's background, family information, capacity, ability and disability issues, and the activities in which Mr. Vassallo participates.

4. Counsel's paralegal has conversed with Mr. Vassallo's daughter, Susan Mast, regarding the accommodations she has put into place for her father, regarding family background and regarding Mr. Vassallo's estate planning documents and management of Mr. Vassallo's finances.

5. Counsel's paralegal conversed with Mr. Vassallo's son, Albert Vassallo, Jr. who along with Susan Mast, serves as attorney-in-fact- and co-trustee for Mr. Vassallo.

6. Counsel's associate, JOIELLE A. FOGLIETTA, ESQ., also conversed with Susan Mast and Albert Vassallo, Jr.

7. Counsel has reviewed the following records in connection with this matter:

-All Pleadings filed under Mental Health Case No. 502014MH001432XXXXSBIX

-All Pleadings filed under Guardianship Case No. 502014GA000369XXXXSBIX

Albert Vassallo Revocable Trust U/A dated February 17, 2009

Last Will and Testament dated February 17, 2009

Power of Attorney dated February 17, 2009

Healthcare Surrogate Designation dated February 17, 2009

ALTERNATIVES TO GUARDIANSHIP

1. It appears that Mr. Vassallo does have appropriate estate planning documents in place, which would seemingly be a sufficient alternative to guardianship. However, based upon interviews with various parties and the allegations made by petitioner, the appointment of a guardian may be required to preserve and protect Mr. Vassallo's assets. pending further review. Title to Mr. Vassallo's former homestead located at 108 Westbury East, Deerfield Beach, Florida is held by the Albert Vassallo Revocable Trust. Counsel is informed, but has been unable to confirm that Mr. Vassallo's Trust is otherwise fully funded at this time.

2. Should Mr. Vassallo be adjudicated incapacitated (either limited or plenary), at this time, the undersigned believes that the reporting requirements and Court supervision afforded by a guardianship would serve to benefit him. In addition, a review needs to occur with regard to the availability of alternatives to guardianship and the handling of Mr. Vassallo's finances to date. Thus, at present, the undersigned will not object to the appointment of a guardian on this basis.

POSITION ON INCAPACITY

1. Mr. Vassallo was well groomed, appropriately dressed, happy in his surroundings, when seen at Day Scape, and he is ambulatory with the use of a cane. Mr. Vassallo exhibited memory loss issues, but demonstrated a basic understanding of the current incapacity and guardianship legal proceedings and expressed frustration with his children and the arguments taking place among them relative to these proceedings. Mr. Vassallo provided counsel with information regarding his six children and other family background. As to the incapacity issues, limited incapacity is admitted. The undersigned recognizes that two examining committee members, Dr. Bloom and Dr. Heller, have filed their reports recommending plenary guardianships and that examining committee member Mr. Calder has filed his report stating that no guardianship is required. Counsel stipulates to the entry of all examining committee reports into evidence.

2. Based upon Counsel's interview of Mr. Vassallo on August 21, 2014, statements made by Mr. Vassallo, and statements made by Susan Mast, Albert Vassallo, Jr. and petitioner's attorney, Clifford Hark, Counsel is agreeable to Limited Guardianship of person and property.

POSITION ON APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIAN

1. As of this writing, Counsel is aware of only Ms. Savitt's petition to be appointed guardian. Family conflict exists here among certain of Mr. Vassallo's children. With such conflict, a professional guardian is usually the best option for a ward. If a Guardian is to be appointed, counsel agrees to the appointment of Elizabeth Savitt, a professional guardian, as guardian of the person and property of ALBERT VASSALLO, SR., with the ability for Mr. Vassallo to remain in his current residential setting unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

OTHER ISSUES

Mr. Vassallo did not like living with or near Petitioner, as he felt lonely. Mr. Vassallo enjoys living with his daughter, Susan Mast. Mr. Vassallo should retain the right to determine his place of residence to the extent he is able to appropriately express his wishes.

Additionally, Counsel suggests that if Elizabeth Savitt is appointed guardian, she investigate the allegations made by Susan Mast and Albert Vassallo, Jr., and the allegations made by James Vassallo in the Verified Petition to Determine Incapacity and the Petition for Appointment of Plenary Guardian regarding the purchase of the home.

Respectfully submitted this 8th day of September, 2014.

PETITION FOR PAYMENT OF ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

[June 26, 2014 through November 13, 2014]

The Petitioner, CLIFFORD B. HARK, Esquire, of HARK | BURKHALTER | YON, PL, as counsel for JAMES VASSALLO, who is the ward, ALBERT VASSALLO'S, son and the Petitioner in the Mental Health and Guardianship cases, as well as the Successor Co-Trustee of the Albert Vassallo Revocable Trust Agreement U/A/D 2/17/2009, hereby files his Petition for Payment of Attorneys' Fees and Cost [June 26, 2014 through November 13, 2014] and says:

1. The Petitioner is a law firm engaged in the practice of law in Palm Beach County and elsewhere in the State of Florida.

2. The Petitioner has rendered services and incurred costs for the benefit of the Limited Guardianship of ALBERT VASSALLO from June 26, 2014 through November 13, 2014 as more fully described and set forth in the itemized schedule of services and costs attached hereto as Composite Exhibit "A", for which the Petitioner has been partially paid.

4. The Petitioner's records indicate that during the period of the time mentioned above, 33.99 hours have been devoted to the representation of the Limited Guardianship of ALBERT VASSALLO, Ward [an additional .85 hours was expended, but not billed to the Guardianship]. Clifford B. Hark, Esquire, billed 18.98 hours [an additional .75 hours was expended, but not

MEDIATED TERM SHEET

This Term Sheet is made this 1st day of December, 2014 by and among the Parties listed below, for and in consideration of the mutual promises and releases made herein, the receipt and adequacy of which is acknowledged by all Parties hereto.

On this the 1st day of December, 2014, the Parties (collectively "Parties"):

Petitioner, Elizabeth Savitt, as Guardian of the Person and Property of Albert Vassallo, Sr., represented by Robert Hauser, Esq.

Respondents, Susan Mast and Albert Vassallo, Jr., represented by Robert Trinkler, Esq.

Court Appointed Counsel for the Ward, Brian M. O'Connell, Esq.

desire to resolve the various disputes in the above referenced Guardianship of Albert Vassallo, Sr., Incapacitated Ward ("Guardianship" and "Ward" respectively) so as to avoid the continued expense and uncertainty of litigation and do so as follows:

ALBERT VASSALLO, JR. ("AL JR.")

Al Jr. will execute a promissory note for $45,000 to Elizabeth Savitt, as Guardian of Albert Vassallo at 4% per annum with interest.

Note is payable at the earlier of (1) death of Al Sr., or (2) under a 15-year amortization schedule. First Payment is due January 1, 2015. Entire balance is secured by Al Jr.'s expected

- e. The parties agreed on a current expense budget (“Expenses”) of $820 per month (subject to adjustments) and payment of $2,083 per month as compensation to Susan Mast for care of the Ward, if the then-current schedule continues.
- f. The parties agreed to exchange mutual general releases except as to the performance of this agreement.
- g. The Guardian consented to represent to the Court that it is not in the best interests of the Ward for any of his family to serve as his trustee.
- h. Attorneys’ fees are borne by the parties.

8. The Court concurs with the Guardian’s judgment that it is in the best interest of the Ward for the Court to ratify the Mediated Term Sheet. An agreement will largely avoid the legal expense from the guardianship which would be associated with litigation on the merits. Furthermore, the Court accepts the Guardian’s testimony that the Mediated Term Sheet represents a fair and reasonable compromise regarding obligations owed to the Ward. See Fla. Stat. §744.441(2), (10).

9. Accordingly, the Court will ratify the Guardian’s execution of the Mediated Term Sheet and any prospective written formalized agreement with the same material terms.

Whether to bring a suit on the Mediated Term Sheet or, if necessary, on the merits.

10. As of the date of filing the instant Petition, the Ward’s two adult children who agreed to the Mediated Term Sheet have not complied with the mediated terms. Their counsel has now moved to withdraw.

11. Accordingly, the Guardian seeks authorization vis-à-vis Fla. Stat. §744.441(11), to bring a civil action against Al Jr. and Susan to enforce the Mediated Term Sheet. See Fla. Stat. §744.441(11).

12. Section §744.441(11) provides in relevant part:

After obtaining approval of the court pursuant to a petition for authorization to act [...] a guardian of the property [...] may:

(11) Prosecute or defend claims or proceedings in any jurisdiction for the protection of the estate and of the guardian in the performance of his or her duties. (emphasis supplied)

13. The Court concurs that the Guardian has a fiduciary obligation to protect the Ward's person and property. As a result, it is appropriate for the Guardian and beneficial to the Ward for her to institute proceedings against Al Jr. and Susan to enforce the Mediated Term Sheet, and to otherwise protect, marshal, and secure the Ward's revocable trust and assets which would be available for his benefit.

14. For these reasons, the Court authorizes the Guardian to institute civil proceedings against Al Jr. and Susan to enforce the Mediated Term Sheet.

15. If the Mediated Term Sheet cannot be enforced in civil court, the Guardian alternatively requests court authorization to sue Susan and Al Jr. in the Civil Division. According to the Guardian, the Ward had claims to recover substantial funds that are allegedly the property of the Ward; to void transfers of the Ward's property that were allegedly undertaken at a time when he lacked capacity; and to address those instances in which Susan and Al Jr. have allegedly exploited or taken advantage of the Ward both before and after the Guardianship. These are the claims that the Guardian attempted to settle at mediation with the Mediated Term Sheet.

16. The Court concurs that the Guardian has a good faith basis to pursue these claims. If the Mediated Term Sheet cannot be enforced in civil court, then the Ward will still have claims against Susan and Al Jr. and it is therefore in the best interest of the Ward's estate to take legal action to recover it.

Whether to amend and fund the Ward's Revocable Trust in accordance with Fla. Stat. §744.441(17) and/or (19).

17. The Ward maintained assets pursuant to the Albert Vassallo Revocable Trust Agreement (the "Revocable Trust"). When he became incapacitated, three of his children (James, Susan, and Al Jr.) became the successor co-Trustees. On September 30, 2014, this Court directed all financial institutions to distribute and/or transfer immediately all of the ward's funds, including accounts belonging to the Revocable Trust, to the guardianship account on behalf of the Ward.

18. The Guardian has averred, however, that the Revocable Trust is a reasonable alternative mechanism for the Ward's assets (1) to be used during life and (2) to pass to his heirs outside of probate as an estate planning mechanism. Two of the co-Trustees, however, are Susan and Al Jr. (i.e., the proposed defendants in the claims discussed above). Because of their adverse position to the Ward and the Guardian, the Court concurs that they should not continue to serve as co-trustee. Similarly, the Court concurs that the third co-Trustee, James, is hostile to his siblings and vice-versa as a result of this litigation and that he will not serve objectively as a co-Trustee.

19. Accordingly, it is in the Ward's best interest to be rid of any inter-family disputes over the Trust and for the Guardian to serve as the sole Trustee of the Revocable Trust, funded with the Ward's assets pursuant to section 744.441(17) and (19), for the remainder of the Ward's life. Therefore, the Court grants authorization to the Guardian to amend the Ward's revocable trust and to name herself as sole Trustee pursuant to the provisions Fla. Stat. §744.441(19).

20. The Ward could have amended his own Revocable Trust and replaced the named successor co-Trustees at will and at any time, but for the adjudication of his incapacity and the appointment of the Guardian in this captioned cause. See Fla. Stat §736.0402(1)(a); Jasser v. Saddeh, 97 So. 3d 241 (Fla. 4th DCA 2012). Under subsection (19), the Guardian may now do so in the Ward's place.

WHEREFORE, it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED as follows:

- (1) the Guardian may execute the Mediated Term Sheet and the formal written agreement as contemplated;
- (2) the Guardian may institute civil breach of contract proceedings against Al Jr. and Susan for their breach of the Mediated Term Sheet, or, if needed, to alternatively sue them to recover property on behalf of the Ward;
- (3) the Guardian may amend the Ward's Revocable Trust by replacing the named co-Trustees and naming herself as sole Trustee;
- (4) the Guardian may fund the Revocable Trust by transferring all or substantially all of the Ward's accounts to the Revocable Trust; and
- (5) The Court reserves jurisdiction to enforce this order and to order payment of the Guardian's fees and those of her counsel.

DONE AND ORDERED, in Chambers, in Delray Beach, Palm Beach County, Florida, this _____ day of February, 2015.

IN AND FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY

IN RE: GUARDIANSHIP OF

PROBATE/GUARDIANSHIP DIVISION

ALBERT VASSALLO, SR.
Incapacitated Person.

CASE NO.: 502014GA000369XXXXSBIX

MEDIATED TERM SHEET

This Term Sheet is made this 1st day of December, 2014 by and among the Parties listed below, for and in consideration of the mutual promises and releases made herein, the receipt and adequacy of which is acknowledged by all Parties hereto.

On this the 1st day of December, 2014, the Parties (collectively "Parties"):

Petitioner, Elizabeth Savitt, as Guardian of the Person and Property of Albert Vassallo, Sr., represented by Robert Hauser, Esq.

Respondents, Susan Mast and Albert Vassallo, Jr., represented by Robert Trinkler, Esq.

Court Appointed Counsel for the Ward, Brian M. O'Connell, Esq.

desire to resolve the various disputes in the above referenced Guardianship of Albert Vassallo, Sr., Incapacitated Ward ("Guardianship" and "Ward" respectively) so as to avoid the continued expense and uncertainty of litigation and do so as follows:

ALBERT VASSALLO, JR. ("AL JR.")

Al Jr. will execute a promissory note for $45,000 to Elizabeth Savitt, as Guardian of Albert Vassallo at 4% per annum with interest.

Note is payable at the earlier of (1) death of Al Sr., or (2) under a 15-year amortization schedule. First Payment is due January 1, 2015. Entire balance is secured by Al Jr.'s expected

- e. The parties agreed on a current expense budget (“Expenses”) of $820 per month (subject to adjustments) and payment of $2,083 per month as compensation to Susan Mast for care of the Ward, if the then-current schedule continues.
- f. The parties agreed to exchange mutual general releases except as to the performance of this agreement.
- g. The Guardian consented to represent to the Court that it is not in the best interests of the Ward for any of his family to serve as his trustee.
- h. Attorneys’ fees are borne by the parties.

8. The Court concurs with the Guardian’s judgment that it is in the best interest of the Ward for the Court to ratify the Mediated Term Sheet. An agreement will largely avoid the legal expense from the guardianship which would be associated with litigation on the merits. Furthermore, the Court accepts the Guardian’s testimony that the Mediated Term Sheet represents a fair and reasonable compromise regarding obligations owed to the Ward. See Fla. Stat. §744.441(2), (10).

9. Accordingly, the Court will ratify the Guardian’s execution of the Mediated Term Sheet and any prospective written formalized agreement with the same material terms.

Whether to bring a suit on the Mediated Term Sheet or, if necessary, on the merits.

10. As of the date of filing the instant Petition, the Ward’s two adult children who agreed to the Mediated Term Sheet have not complied with the mediated terms. Their counsel has now moved to withdraw.

11. Accordingly, the Guardian seeks authorization vis-à-vis Fla. Stat. §744.441(11), to bring a civil action against Al Jr. and Susan to enforce the Mediated Term Sheet. See Fla. Stat. §744.441(11).

12. Section §744.441(11) provides in relevant part:

After obtaining approval of the court pursuant to a petition for authorization to act [...] a guardian of the property [...] may:

(11) Prosecute or defend claims or proceedings in any jurisdiction for the protection of the estate and of the guardian in the performance of his or her duties. (emphasis supplied)

13. The Court concurs that the Guardian has a fiduciary obligation to protect the Ward's person and property. As a result, it is appropriate for the Guardian and beneficial to the Ward for her to institute proceedings against Al Jr. and Susan to enforce the Mediated Term Sheet, and to otherwise protect, marshal, and secure the Ward's revocable trust and assets which would be available for his benefit.

14. For these reasons, the Court authorizes the Guardian to institute civil proceedings against Al Jr. and Susan to enforce the Mediated Term Sheet.

15. If the Mediated Term Sheet cannot be enforced in civil court, the Guardian alternatively requests court authorization to sue Susan and Al Jr. in the Civil Division. According to the Guardian, the Ward had claims to recover substantial funds that are allegedly the property of the Ward; to void transfers of the Ward's property that were allegedly undertaken at a time when he lacked capacity; and to address those instances in which Susan and Al Jr. have allegedly exploited or taken advantage of the Ward both before and after the Guardianship. These are the claims that the Guardian attempted to settle at mediation with the Mediated Term Sheet.

16. The Court concurs that the Guardian has a good faith basis to pursue these claims. If the Mediated Term Sheet cannot be enforced in civil court, then the Ward will still have claims against Susan and Al Jr. and it is therefore in the best interest of the Ward's estate to take legal action to recover it.

Whether to amend and fund the Ward's Revocable Trust
in accordance with Fla. Stat. §744.441(17) and/or (19).

17. The Ward maintained assets pursuant to the Albert Vassallo Revocable Trust Agreement (the "Revocable Trust"). When he became incapacitated, three of his children (James, Susan, and Al Jr.) became the successor co-Trustees. On September 30, 2014, this Court directed all financial institutions to distribute and/or transfer immediately all of the ward's funds, including accounts belonging to the Revocable Trust, to the guardianship account on behalf of the Ward.

18. The Guardian has averred, however, that the Revocable Trust is a reasonable alternative mechanism for the Ward's assets (1) to be used during life and (2) to pass to his heirs outside of probate as an estate planning mechanism. Two of the co-Trustees, however, are Susan and Al Jr. (i.e., the proposed defendants in the claims discussed above). Because of their adverse position to the Ward and the Guardian, the Court concurs that they should not continue to serve as co-trustee. Similarly, the Court concurs that the third co-Trustee, James, is hostile to his siblings and vice-versa as a result of this litigation and that he will not serve objectively as a co-Trustee.

19. Accordingly, it is in the Ward's best interest to be rid of any inter-family disputes over the Trust and for the Guardian to serve as the sole Trustee of the Revocable Trust, funded with the Ward's assets pursuant to section 744.441(17) and (19), for the remainder of the Ward's life. Therefore, the Court grants authorization to the Guardian to amend the Ward's revocable trust and to name herself as sole Trustee pursuant to the provisions Fla. Stat. §744.441(19).

20. The Ward could have amended his own Revocable Trust and replaced the named successor co-Trustees at will and at any time, but for the adjudication of his incapacity and the appointment of the Guardian in this captioned cause. See Fla. Stat §736.0402(1)(a); Jasser v. Saddeh, 97 So. 3d 241 (Fla. 4th DCA 2012). Under subsection (19), the Guardian may now do so in the Ward's place.

WHEREFORE, it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED as follows:

- (1) the Guardian may execute the Mediated Term Sheet and the formal written agreement as contemplated;
- (2) the Guardian may institute civil breach of contract proceedings against Al Jr. and Susan for their breach of the Mediated Term Sheet, or, if needed, to alternatively sue them to recover property on behalf of the Ward;
- (3) the Guardian may amend the Ward's Revocable Trust by replacing the named co-Trustees and naming herself as sole Trustee;
- (4) the Guardian may fund the Revocable Trust by transferring all or substantially all of the Ward's accounts to the Revocable Trust; and
- (5) The Court reserves jurisdiction to enforce this order and to order payment of the Guardian's fees and those of her counsel.

DONE AND ORDERED, in Chambers, in Delray Beach, Palm Beach County, Florida, this _____ day of February, 2015.

For your clarification we are providing photocopies of the bank statements that support these electronic transfers. It is my clients' contention that all of these funds were exclusively for the benefit of the ward. Should your client require any further back-up, she should request same directly from the payees as my client no longer has access to this information since she is not the guardian. It is my understanding that your client is in possession of all of this information already, including the Chase credit card statements. It is our position that we have fully complied with the terms of paragraph 3 of the Settlement Agreement and request that your client confirm that there is no longer a need for Susan Mast to separately execute a Promissory Note for the $8,128.00 and to exclude this paragraph from the agreement. In the event this is not correct, we request that you advise us of same immediately and provide us with additional time to respond to any further questions or concerns that your client may have.

IN RE:

PROBATE DIVISION IX

CASE NO. 502014GA000369XXXXSB

GUARDIANSHIP OF
ALBERT VASSALLO, SR.

Incapacitated Person.

ORDER ON GUARDIAN'S VERIFIED PETITION FOR DIRECTION TO ACT

THIS CAUSE came before this Court on February 13, 2015 on the Guardian's Verified Petition for Direction to Act, which was filed on January 27, 2015 (hereinafter, "Petition"). The Court, having reviewed the Petition, having heard argument from counsel, reviewed the file and being otherwise fully advised, finds as follows:

Background

1. Elizabeth Savitt (the "Guardian"), pursuant to Fla. Stat. §744.447, has petitioned this Court for the entry of an order authorizing her to act. The Guardian was appointed on September 9, 2014, as the limited guardian of the person and property for the captioned Ward.
2. Shortly thereafter, in October of 2014, the Guardian sought to compel the return of certain of the Ward's funds and property from the Ward's adult children, Albert Vasallo, Jr. ("Al Jr.") and Susan Mast ("Susan").
3. Prior to a hearing on these contentious matters, the parties participated in court-directed mediation.
4. On December 1, 2014, the Guardian, Al Jr., Susan, and the Ward's court-appointed counsel participated in the referenced mediation before the Honorable Jack Cook (retired). The mediation resulted in a signed agreement (the "Mediated Term Sheet").

5. The Mediated Term Sheet contains all of the material terms of an agreement. Nevertheless, it expressly states that the Mediated Term Sheet is to be reduced to a formal written agreement and that promissory notes are to be executed by Al Jr. and by Susan.

6. After the Mediated Term Sheet was executed, counsel for the Guardian and for Susan and Al Jr. agreed on the form of a settlement agreement and promissory notes. However, as of the date of filing the instant Petition, both of the Ward's adult children who are parties to it, Al Jr. and Susan, have either refused to execute or refused to deliver the signed formalized agreement. They also will not deliver the promissory notes required by the mediated terms. Their counsel, Robert Trinkler, Esq., has now moved to withdraw.

Whether to Authorize the Mediated Term Sheet.

7. Pursuant to Fla. Stat. §744.447 and Fla. Stat. §744.441(2), (10) and (11), the Guardian seeks this Court's approval and authorization for her execution of such Mediated Term Sheet (and for the prospective execution of such written formalized agreement as was contemplated therein). The Mediated Term Sheet, summarized, provides as follows:

- a. Al Jr. will execute a promissory note for $45,000 payable to the Guardian at 4% per annum interest.
- b. Susan will execute a promissory note for $54,000 payable to the Guardian at 4% per interest.
- c. Susan will execute a second promissory note for $8,000 to the Guardian at 4% per annum with interest running from September 9, 2014, the enforcement of which is subject to Susan's failure to account to the Guardian for $8,120 in electronic withdrawals of the Ward's funds.
- d. Each promissory note is due at the earlier of (1) the death of the Ward or (2) under the 15-year amortization schedule. Each note is secured by the obligor's inheritance or trust distributions.

WHEREFORE, the Guardian prays that this Court enter an order which grants the instant Petition, as follows:

- (1) grant to the Guardian the authority to execute the Mediated Term Sheet and the formal written agreement as contemplated;
- (2) grant the Guardian the authority to institute breach of contract proceedings against Al Jr. and Susan for their breach of the Mediated Term Sheet, and, alternatively, to sue them for the underlying wrongs that were the basis for the Guardian's claims that led to the Mediated Term Sheet;
- (3) grant to the Guardian the authority to amend the Ward's Revocable Trust by replacing the named co-Trustees and to fund the Revocable Trust;
- (4) award to the Guardian her reasonable attorney's fees and costs; and
- (5) grant any other such further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

VERIFICATION

5. The Mediated Term Sheet contains all of the material terms of an agreement. Nevertheless, it expressly states that the Mediated Term Sheet is to be reduced to a formal written agreement and that promissory notes are to be executed by Al Jr. and by Susan.

6. After the Mediated Term Sheet was executed, counsel for the Guardian and for Susan and Al Jr. agreed on the form of a settlement agreement and promissory notes. They also will not deliver the promissory notes required by the mediated terms. Their counsel, Robert Trinkler, Esq., has now moved to withdraw.

Whether to Authorize the Mediated Term Sheet.

7. Pursuant to Fla. Stat. §744.447 and Fla. Stat. §744.441(2), (10) and (11), the Guardian seeks this Court's approval and authorization for her execution of such Mediated Term Sheet (and for the prospective execution of such written formalized agreement as was contemplated therein). The Mediated Term Sheet, summarized, provides as follows:

- a. Al Jr. will execute a promissory note for $45,000 payable to the Guardian at 4% per annum interest.
- b. Susan will execute a promissory note for $54,000 payable to the Guardian at 4% per interest.
- c. Susan will execute a second promissory note for $8,000 to the Guardian at 4% per annum with interest running from September 9, 2014, the enforcement of which is subject to Susan's failure to account to the Guardian for $8,120 in electronic withdrawals of the Ward's funds.
- d. Each promissory note is due at the earlier of (1) the death of the Ward or (2) under the 15-year amortization schedule. Each note is secured by the obligor's inheritance or trust distributions.

- e. The parties agreed on a current expense budget (“Expenses”) of $820 per month (subject to adjustments) and payment of $2,083 per month as compensation to Susan Mast for care of the Ward, if the then-current schedule continues.
- f. The parties agreed to exchange mutual general releases except as to the performance of this agreement.
- g. The Guardian consented to represent to the Court that it is not in the best interests of the Ward for any of his family to serve as his trustee.
- h. Attorneys’ fees are borne by the parties.

8. The Court concurs with the Guardian’s judgment that it is in the best interest of the Ward for the Court to ratify the Mediated Term Sheet. An agreement will largely avoid the legal expense from the guardianship which would be associated with litigation on the merits. Furthermore, the Court accepts the Guardian’s testimony that the Mediated Term Sheet represents a fair and reasonable compromise regarding obligations owed to the Ward. See Fla. Stat. §744.441(2), (10).

9. Accordingly, the Court will ratify the Guardian’s execution of the Mediated Term Sheet and any prospective written formalized agreement with the same material terms.

Whether to bring a suit on the Mediated Term Sheet or, if necessary, on the merits.

10. As of the date of filing the instant Petition, the Ward’s two adult children who agreed to the Mediated Term Sheet have not complied with the mediated terms. Their counsel has now moved to withdraw.

11. Accordingly, the Guardian seeks authorization vis-à-vis Fla. Stat. §744.441(11), to bring a civil action against Al Jr. and Susan to enforce the Mediated Term Sheet. See Fla. Stat. §744.441(11).

12. Section §744.441(11) provides in relevant part:

After obtaining approval of the court pursuant to a petition for authorization to act [...] a guardian of the property [...] may:

(11) Prosecute or defend claims or proceedings in any jurisdiction for the protection of the estate and of the guardian in the performance of his or her duties. (emphasis supplied)

13. The Court concurs that the Guardian has a fiduciary obligation to protect the Ward's person and property. As a result, it is appropriate for the Guardian and beneficial to the Ward for her to institute proceedings against Al Jr. and Susan to enforce the Mediated Term Sheet, and to otherwise protect, marshal, and secure the Ward's revocable trust and assets which would be available for his benefit.

14. For these reasons, the Court authorizes the Guardian to institute civil proceedings against Al Jr. and Susan to enforce the Mediated Term Sheet.

15. If the Mediated Term Sheet cannot be enforced in civil court, the Guardian alternatively requests court authorization to sue Susan and Al Jr. in the Civil Division. According to the Guardian, the Ward had claims to recover substantial funds that are allegedly the property of the Ward; to void transfers of the Ward's property that were allegedly undertaken at a time when he lacked capacity; and to address those instances in which Susan and Al Jr. have allegedly exploited or taken advantage of the Ward both before and after the Guardianship. These are the claims that the Guardian attempted to settle at mediation with the Mediated Term Sheet.

16. The Court concurs that the Guardian has a good faith basis to pursue these claims. If the Mediated Term Sheet cannot be enforced in civil court, then the Ward will still have claims against Susan and Al Jr. and it is therefore in the best interest of the Ward's estate to take legal action to recover it.

Whether to amend and fund the Ward's Revocable Trust in accordance with Fla. Stat. §744.441(17) and/or (19).

17. The Ward maintained assets pursuant to the Albert Vassallo Revocable Trust Agreement (the "Revocable Trust"). When he became incapacitated, three of his children (James, Susan, and Al Jr.) became the successor co-Trustees. On September 30, 2014, this Court directed all financial institutions to distribute and/or transfer immediately all of the ward's funds, including accounts belonging to the Revocable Trust, to the guardianship account on behalf of the Ward.

18. The Guardian has averred, however, that the Revocable Trust is a reasonable alternative mechanism for the Ward's assets (1) to be used during life and (2) to pass to his heirs outside of probate as an estate planning mechanism. Two of the co-Trustees, however, are Susan and Al Jr. (i.e., the proposed defendants in the claims discussed above). Because of their adverse position to the Ward and the Guardian, the Court concurs that they should not continue to serve as co-trustee. Similarly, the Court concurs that the third co-Trustee, James, is hostile to his siblings and vice-versa as a result of this litigation and that he will not serve objectively as a co-Trustee.

19. Accordingly, it is in the Ward's best interest to be rid of any inter-family disputes over the Trust and for the Guardian to serve as the sole Trustee of the Revocable Trust, funded with the Ward's assets pursuant to section 744.441(17) and (19), for the remainder of the Ward's life. Therefore, the Court grants authorization to the Guardian to amend the Ward's revocable trust and to name herself as sole Trustee pursuant to the provisions Fla. Stat. §744.441(19).

20. The Ward could have amended his own Revocable Trust and replaced the named successor co-Trustees at will and at any time, but for the adjudication of his incapacity and the appointment of the Guardian in this captioned cause. See Fla. Stat §736.0402(1)(a); Jasser v. Saddeh, 97 So. 3d 241 (Fla. 4th DCA 2012). Under subsection (19), the Guardian may now do so in the Ward's place.

WHEREFORE, it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED as follows:

- (1) the Guardian may execute the Mediated Term Sheet and the formal written agreement as contemplated;
- (2) the Guardian may institute civil breach of contract proceedings against Al Jr. and Susan for their breach of the Mediated Term Sheet, or, if needed, to alternatively sue them to recover property on behalf of the Ward;
- (3) the Guardian may amend the Ward's Revocable Trust by replacing the named co-Trustees and naming herself as sole Trustee;
- (4) the Guardian may fund the Revocable Trust by transferring all or substantially all of the Ward's accounts to the Revocable Trust; and
- (5) The Court reserves jurisdiction to enforce this order and to order payment of the Guardian's fees and those of her counsel.

DONE AND ORDERED, in Chambers, in Delray Beach, Palm Beach County, Florida, this _____ day of February, 2015.

inheritance /trust distribution.

SUSAN MAST

Susan will execute a promissory note for $54,000 to Elizabeth Savitt, as Guardian of Albert Vassallo at 4% per annum with interest. Upon maturity of the note, an additional payment of $2,160 shall be made which represents accrued interest from November 15, 2013 to present. Note is payable at the earlier of (1) death of Al Sr., or (2) under 15-year amortization schedule. First payment is due January 1, 2015. Entire balance due is secured by Susan's expected inheritance/trust distribution.

ELECTRONIC WITHDRAWALS.

Note is payable at the earlier of (1) death of Albert Vassallo, Sr., or (2) pursuant to 15 year amortization schedule. First Payment is due January 1, 2015. (9) Borrow money, with or without security, to be repaid from the property or otherwise and advance money for the protection of the estate.

(10) Effect a fair and reasonable compromise with any debtor or obligor or extend, renew, or in any manner modify the terms of any obligation owing to the estate.

(11) Prosecute or defend claims or proceedings in any jurisdiction for the protection of the estate and of the guardian in the performance of his or her duties. Before authorizing a guardian to bring an action described in s. 736.0207, the court shall first find that the action appears to be in the ward's best interests during the ward's probable lifetime. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that an action challenging the ward's revocation of all or part of a trust is not in the ward's best interests if the revocation relates solely to a devise. This subsection does not preclude a challenge after the ward's death. If the court denies a request that a guardian be authorized to bring an action described in s. 736.0207, the court shall review the continued need for a guardian and the extent of the need for delegation of the ward's rights.

(12) Sell, mortgage, or lease any real or personal property of the estate, including homestead property, or any interest therein for cash or credit, or for part cash and part credit, and with or without security for unpaid balances.

(13) Continue any unincorporated business or venture in which the ward was engaged.

(14) Purchase the entire fee simple title to real estate in this state in which the guardian has no interest, but the purchase may be made only for a home for the ward, to protect the home of the ward or the ward's interest, or as a home for the ward's dependent family. If the ward is a married person and the home of the ward or of the dependent family of the ward is owned by the ward and spouse as an estate by the entirety and the home is sold pursuant to the authority of subsection (12), the court may authorize the investment of any part or all of the proceeds from the sale toward the purchase of a fee simple title to real estate in this state for a home for the ward or the dependent family of the ward as an estate by the entirety owned by the ward and spouse. If the guardian is authorized to acquire title to real estate for the ward or dependent family of the ward as an estate by the entirety in accordance with the preceding provisions, the conveyance shall be in the name of the ward and spouse and shall be effective to create an estate by the entirety in the ward and spouse.

(15) Exercise any option contained in any policy of insurance payable to, or insuring to the benefit of, the ward.

(16) Pay reasonable funeral, interment, and grave marker expenses for the ward from the ward's estate, up to a maximum of $6,000.

(17) Make gifts of the ward's property to members of the ward's family in estate and income tax planning procedures.

(18) When the ward's will evinces an objective to obtain a United States estate tax charitable deduction by use of a split interest trust (as that term is defined in s. 736.1201), but the maximum charitable deduction otherwise allowable will not be achieved in whole or in part, execute a codicil on the ward's behalf amending said will to obtain the maximum charitable deduction allowable without diminishing the aggregate value of the benefits of any beneficiary under such will.

744.441. Powers of guardian upon court approval, FL ST § 744.441

(19) Create or amend revocable trusts or create irrevocable trusts of property of the ward's estate which may extend beyond the disability or life of the ward in connection with estate, gift, income, or other tax planning or in connection with estate planning. The court shall retain oversight of the assets transferred to a trust, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(20) Renounce or disclaim any interest by testate or intestate succession or by inter vivos transfer.

(21) Enter into contracts that are appropriate for, and in the best interest of, the ward.

(22) As to a minor ward, pay expenses of the ward's support, health, maintenance, and education, if the ward's parents, or either of them, are alive.

Synopsis

Background: Petition was filed to determine father's incapacity, and an emergency temporary guardian (ETG) was appointed. After entry of an agreed order dismissing the guardianship proceeding, and requiring father to execute a trust naming his children as co-trustees, the Circuit Court appointed a new examining committee and, based on their unanimous determination that father was competent, dismissed the petition to determine incapacity and terminated the emergency temporary guardianship. Father also filed petition to revoke the trust, and the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit Court, Palm Beach County, Richard Oftedal, J., entered orders that, among other things, declared the trust void ab initio. Children, as trustees of the trust, appealed multiple orders, and the appeals were consolidated.

Holdings: The District Court of Appeal held that:

[1] agreed order dismissing the guardianship proceedings and requiring father to execute the trust was a nullity, and

[2] father lacked authority to execute the trust.

Agreed order dismissing plenary guardianship proceedings involving father, and requiring him to execute trust naming his children as co-trustees, was a nullity, and thus trial court had authority to vacate order, appoint new examining committee, and, after committee unanimously found father completely competent, dismiss the petition for determination of incapacity and terminate the emergency temporary guardianship; petition to determine incapacity could not be dismissed until issue of incapacity was actually determined, and could not be dismissed without also terminating the emergency temporary guardianship, since appointment of guardian deprived father of nearly all his rights. Father who was the subject of a petition to determine incapacity, and for whom an emergency temporary guardian (ETG) had been appointed, lacked authority to execute trust naming his children as co-trustees, even after dismissal of the plenary guardianship proceedings; emergency temporary guardianship had not been terminated, ETG had been delegated all of father's legal rights except the right to vote, and father and ETG could not both execute the right to contract. ➤ Temporary guardian

To permit both a ward and an emergency temporary guardian (ETG) to exercise the right to contract would render the protection afforded by an ETG non-existent; in such cases, the ward could continue to deal with his or her property and conceivably give it all away while a petition for incapacity is pending even though that person is incompetent but not officially adjudicated as such.

Opinion

PER CURIAM.

In their consolidated appeals, Summer Jasser, Lena Mamone, and Anthony Saadeh, the children of appellee, Karim Saadeh, appeal five orders, arising out of proceedings to determine the incapacity of their father as well as the appointment of an emergency temporary guardian.¹ In connection with these proceedings, Saadeh executed a trust agreement, the validity of which was later contested by him after competency proceedings were dismissed. The crux of this appeal is a challenge to the court's summary judgment determining that the trust was void ab initio. Because we conclude that the court correctly determined that Saadeh did not have legal authority to create the trust, we affirm the summary judgment.

Karim Saadeh, now in his eighties, emigrated from Jordan with his wife, raised a family of three children, and became a very successful businessman. He and his wife were wealthy at the time of his wife's death in 2007. After her demise, Saadeh contemplated remarrying.

Saadeh met a younger woman through one of his wife's relatives. He loaned her money, which greatly disturbed his children even though he had his lawyer draw up a promissory note. The children then worried about his other substantial bank accounts on which they were named accountholders. The children became concerned that their father was not completely competent and expressed that concern to his business and estate planning attorney, Michael Singer. To prevent Saadeh from draining his accounts, the children transferred over a million dollars from these accounts to other accounts over which he had no control without his knowledge.

Saadeh was upset when he discovered that his children had drained his accounts. Around the same time, he discovered that *243 substantial money and jewelry located in a safe were missing. Because his children had the combination to his safe, he suspected that they had likewise taken these assets.

Part VI. Powers and Duties

West's F.S.A. § 744.441

744.441. Powers of guardian upon court approval

Effective: June 21, 2011

Currentness

After obtaining approval of the court pursuant to a petition for authorization to act, a plenary guardian of the property, or a limited guardian of the property within the powers granted by the order appointing the guardian or an approved annual or amended guardianship report, may:

- (1) Perform, compromise, or refuse performance of a ward's contracts that continue as obligations of the estate, as he or she may determine under the circumstances.
- (2) Execute, exercise, or release any powers as trustee, personal representative, custodian for minors, conservator, or donee of any power of appointment or other power that the ward might have lawfully exercised, consummated, or executed if not incapacitated, if the best interest of the ward requires such execution, exercise, or release.
- (3) Make ordinary or extraordinary repairs or alterations in buildings or other structures; demolish any improvements; or raze existing, or erect new, party walls or buildings.
- (4) Subdivide, develop, or dedicate land to public use; make or obtain the vacation of plats and adjust boundaries; adjust differences in valuation on exchange or partition by giving or receiving consideration; or dedicate easements to public use without consideration.
- (5) Enter into a lease as lessor or lessee for any purpose, with or without option to purchase or renew, for a term within, or extending beyond, the period of guardianship.
- (6) Enter into a lease or arrangement for exploration and removal of minerals or other natural resources or enter into a pooling or unitization agreement.
- (7) Abandon property when, in the opinion of the guardian, it is valueless or is so encumbered or in such condition that it is of no benefit to the estate.
- (8) Pay calls, assessments, and other sums chargeable or accruing against, or on account of, securities.

C) Alternatively, the Guardian petitions for court approval to sue Susan and Al Jr. for damages.

16. Alternatively, if the Mediated Term Sheet is not approved or if a litigation to enforce the Mediated Term Sheet fails, then the Guardian requests court approval to sue Susan and Al Jr. in the Civil Division to recover the substantial funds that are rightfully the property of the Ward; to void transfers of the Ward's property that were undertaken at a time when he lacked capacity; and to address those instances in which Susan and Al Jr. have exploited or taken advantage of the Ward both before and after the Guardianship. If no mediated agreement exists, then the Ward will still be owed money from Susan and Al Jr. and it is therefore in the best interest of the Ward's estate to take legal action to recover it.

D) The Guardian seeks further authorization from this Court to amend and fund the Ward's Revocable Trust in accordance with Fla. Stat. §744.441(17) and/or (19).

17. The Ward maintained assets pursuant to the Albert Vassallo Revocable Trust Agreement (the "Revocable Trust"). When he became incapacitated, three of his children (James, Susan, and Al Jr.) became the successor co-Trustees. On September 30, 2014, this Court directed all financial institutions to distribute and/or transfer immediately all of the ward's funds, including accounts belonging to the Revocable Trust, to the guardianship account on behalf of the Ward.

18. The Revocable Trust, however, is a reasonable alternative mechanism for the Ward's assets (1) to be used during life and (2) to pass to his heirs outside of probate as an estate planning mechanism. Unfortunately, two of the co-Trustees are Susan and Al Jr. (i.e., the proposed defendants in the claims discussed above). Because of their adverse position to the Ward and the Guardian, they should not continue to serve as co-trustee. A third co-Trustee, James, is so hostile to his siblings and vice-versa as a result of this litigation that he cannot serve objectively as a co-Trustee.

The day after the hearing, two of the members of the examining committee filed their reports, both stating that Saadeh was fully capable of managing his own affairs and was completely competent. Unfortunately, the third person appointed to examine Saadeh passed away before the hearing. It does not appear that the court ever saw these reports. Within two days of the appointment of the ETG, Singer filed an emergency petition to set aside the guardianship and for rehearing. The ward's court-appointed attorney joined in the petition and also moved for rehearing.

The next day, only three days after the appointment of the ETG, Meyer, the attorney for the ETG, and the appointed counsel for Saadeh, submitted to the court an agreed order to "settle" the guardianship. The parties agreed that execution of a trust would be the "least restrictive alternative to plenary guardianship in this matter." The May 21 order provided for Saadeh to execute a trust agreement with his children serving as co-trustees, which could be amended only with consent of the co-trustees. Upon Saadeh's death, the trust assets would be distributed to the children. Saadeh would also execute a pour-over will, naming his three children as his co-personal representatives, and devising the residue of his estate to his children. In addition, Saadeh would create a new healthcare surrogate designation, appointing his three children as his surrogates. The ETG would acquire all of Saadeh's assets and place title to them in the trust. Thereafter, the ETG could seek leave of court for her discharge. The order provided that Saadeh shall execute the trust, will and healthcare surrogate within seven days. The last provision of the order *245 states that "All pending incapacity proceedings for the Ward in this Court are hereby dismissed, subject to the Court's retention of jurisdiction to enforce the terms of this Agreed Order if necessary." At the same time, the court dismissed the examining committee and denied the pending petition to set aside the guardianship filed by Singer the day before. It does not appear that Singer was notified of any hearing on this issue.

After the petition to set aside the guardianship failed, the accountant, Levine, who had power of attorney [POA] and who was Saadeh's current health care surrogate, filed his own petition to set aside the guardianship and requested rehearing. In his petition, Levine alleged that he had never been provided notice of the ETG proceedings. He attached the reports of two doctors, who stated that Saadeh was competent to attend to his own affairs. The court scheduled this motion for hearing on June 25, 2009.

Despite the fact that the agreed order "dismissed" the pending incapacity proceedings, neither the parties nor the court operated as though anything was dismissed. A few days after entry of the agreed order, Noble, the court-appointed attorney for the ward, filed a motion for clarification of the order appointing the ETG. The court entered an order of clarification. In addition, both sides filed motions to disqualify attorneys. Noble wanted to disqualify Singer from representing Levine, and Singer sought to disqualify Meyer from representing Barfield because Meyer simultaneously represented Saadeh's children. In addition, Noble complained that Levine was not forwarding bills that the ETG was required to pay on behalf of Saadeh, thus acknowledging that the ETG continued to exercise Saadeh's rights. Moreover, Saadeh was not allowed to hire Singer as his attorney in the incapacity proceedings.

At a hearing, Singer raised the issue of whether the guardianship proceedings had been vacated and whether Saadeh's rights were restored. The ETG and the ward's court-appointed attorney argued that the order appointing the ETG took away all of Saadeh's rights, except the right to vote, and his rights had not been restored. The court agreed that all of his rights, with the exception of the right to vote, had been removed.

The same afternoon and without notification to Singer, the ETG had Saadeh sign a new trust agreement. Contrary to its title as an "initial revocable trust," the trust was not revocable by Saadeh. There are disputed issues of fact as to the circumstances surrounding the execution of the trust and what Saadeh was told regarding the terms of the trust.² The ward's court-appointed attorney, however, admitted that he told him that if he signed the trust, the proceedings would be over. To transfer property to the trust, the ETG executed deeds to Saadeh's property, and Saadeh executed quit-claim deeds to some of the properties.

When the parties next appeared before the court, the court questioned whether it had "pulled the trigger" too quickly in signing the order of settlement because Saadeh was not really incapacitated. In other words, the court was concerned that it did not possess the authority to order Saadeh to enter into trusts if he were not *246 incapacitated and would have his

[2] First, the statutes and rules do not provide for the dismissal of a petition to determine the incapacity of an individual before the actual determination of the issue. In Borden v. Guardianship of Borden-Moore, 818 So.2d 604 (Fla. 5th DCA 2002), the court held that a petition for guardianship could not be dismissed before receiving the report of the examining committee:

Section 744.331 contemplates that once a facially sufficient petition to determine incapacity has been filed, the court must ensure that the alleged incapacitated person has an attorney, that an appropriately qualified examining committee promptly examines the person, and that an adjudicatory hearing be set no more than fourteen days after the filing of the report of the examining committee, unless good cause is shown to extend that time. Compliance with the requirements of section 744.331 is mandatory and the trial court's failure to adhere to those requirements constitutes reversible error.

Id. at 608-09. See § 744.331(4), Fla. Stat. (2008); see also In re Sene, 343 So.2d 916, 917 (Fla. 4th DCA 1977) ("Proceedings to determine the competency of a person are generally controlled by statute and where a statute prescribes a certain method of proceeding to make that determination, the statute must be strictly followed.") (citation omitted). An attorney for the person may not waive an adjudicatory hearing when required. See In re Frederick, 508 So.2d 44, 45 (Fla. 4th DCA 1987).

[3] [4] There is good reason for such a rule. If a person is incompetent, it is the duty of the court to assure that person's protection and his or her autonomy is respected to the greatest extent possible. See § 744.1012, Fla. Stat. (2008). To permit dismissal of proceedings where a party is in fact incompetent may endanger that person. On the other hand, without knowing whether the person is actually incompetent, the court could restrict a person's independent ability to deal with his property and place it out of the control of a *248 person who may be completely capacitated. The guardianship statutes and rules should not be used to protect competent persons from their spendthrift ways or to protect their beneficiaries. An individual who is competent should not be subject to the control of the courts through guardianship proceedings, temporary or plenary.

That the order dismissing the plenary guardianship proceedings was a nullity is further supported by the fact that the order did not dismiss the petition for emergency temporary guardian, revoke the letters of guardianship, or terminate the same. Section 744.3031(1), Florida Statutes (2008), permits the appointment of an ETG only after a petition for determination of incapacity has been filed. For an ETG to be appointed there must be a pending determination of incapacity. As such, the court could not dismiss the petition for incapacity and retain the ETG. Unfortunately, that is what occurred in these proceedings.

The ETG, and even court-appointed counsel for Saadeh, never intended to restore any rights to him during the period of the temporary guardianship, and their statements to the court that all of Saadeh's rights had been removed were made at a hearing on the same day he executed the trust agreement. At a separate hearing, the attorney for the children as trustees also told the court that because of the appointment of the ETG, Saadeh could not be a trustee of his own trust. Thus, the trustees acknowledged that the appointment of the ETG deprived Saadeh of all of his rights. Because all parties relied on the ETG's appointment as depriving Saadeh of the ability to exercise all rights, they are now judicially estopped from taking the position that the incapacity proceedings were final. See Blumberg v. USAA Cas. Ins. Co., 790 So.2d 1061, 1066 (Fla.2001). Because the order did not dismiss the ETG proceedings and restore Saadeh's rights, it was legally impossible to continue to deprive Saadeh of his rights unless incapacity was determined. The court, recognizing its mistake in entering the order which purported to dismiss the incapacity proceedings, appointed the new examining committee. Then, when the examining committee unanimously found that Saadeh was completely competent, it appropriately dismissed the petition for determination of incapacity and terminated the ETG. The court was within its authority in these rulings.

[5] We agree with the trial court that when the court conferred the ward's rights on the ETG, it removed them from the ward; both cannot simultaneously exercise those rights. Section 744.3031(1) provides that the court shall specify the rights to be exercised by the ETG. In this case, the order delegated to the ETG all legal rights, reserving only the right to vote to the ward. Thus, the court removed the ward's rights restored at the end of the temporary guardianship. The court stated:

If it's determined that he's not incapacitated, then it seems to me there's no reason that the court should have entered this settlement agreement in the first place because he should be allowed to exercise his own free will with regard to this instrument.... If it's wrong, I want to undo it.

A lengthy hearing ensued regarding whether Saadeh should have the right to choose his attorney. Both the ETG and the ward's court-appointed attorney argued that he did not have the right to choose his attorney. Nevertheless the court permitted Saadeh to hire his own attorney. The court also reappointed an examining committee for the purpose of determining Saadeh's incapacity. In all other respects, the guardianship continued, and Saadeh did not regain any of his rights. In fact, his attorneys had to request and receive permission for him to travel.

Each member of the new examining committee met with Saadeh and declared him fully competent and capable of managing his own affairs. At the hearing to determine incapacity, the recently retained attorney for the children as trustees under the trust contended that because of the May 21st order dismissing the incapacity hearings, there was no competency issue to be resolved. Nonetheless, the court pointed out that all parties had labored under the assumption that incapacity was still at issue. The court proceeded to consider the examining committee reports. Based upon the unanimous determination of the examining committee that Saadeh was competent, the court dismissed the petition.

Unfortunately, this did not end the litigation, far from it. Saadeh had already filed a petition to revoke the trust. In his petition, he claimed the following: 1) he had executed the trust based upon undue influence, coercion, and duress and without understanding its terms; 2) his children participated in the coercion and duress imposed on him and stood to gain substantially through the provisions of the trust; 3) he was denied the right to consult counsel of his choice; 4) the trust was inconsistent with the terms that he had previously discussed he would be willing to enter; 5) he did not agree to a trust that he could not revoke; and, 6) because he had never agreed to the trust when the settlement was presented to the trial court, a fraud on the court had been committed. The children defended as trustees and filed a declaratory judgment action to determine the validity of the trust.

Eventually, Saadeh moved for summary judgment. The three questions addressed to the court were: 1) whether the May 2009 order requiring the execution of the trust and dismissal of the incapacity proceedings was properly entered and valid; 2) whether Saadeh lacked the legal right or power to enter into the settlement or trust agreement; and 3) whether the trust agreement was void ab initio. The court did not reach the question of undue influence, coercion, duress, or fraud on the court.

The court found that the May 2009 order was entered, but it did not authorize the execution of an irrevocable trust. When the court entered the order, it was not informed of catastrophic gift tax consequences if the trust was created, nor was it informed that the trust could not be revoked by Saadeh himself. When it appointed the ETG and granted her all of the ward's legal rights, it thereby removed them from the ward. Thus, Saadeh had no legal capacity to enter into the trust *247 agreements. Therefore, the June 2009 trust agreement was void ab initio.

In addition, while the May 2009 order provided that the execution of the trust was the least restrictive alternative to a guardianship, the court found that "[t]he implementation of a least restrictive alternative to plenary guardianship presupposes the appointment of a plenary guardian is warranted." See § 744.344(2), Fla. Stat. (2008). If the court does not find a need for a plenary guardianship, then there is no need for a least restrictive alternative. The court could not order any less restrictive alternative before it found incapacity on the part of the ward. Finally, the court found that the trust went beyond the terms of the order in that the trust was executed as an irrevocable trust with very significant tax consequences. For these reasons, the trial court determined the trust was void ab initio and ordered the return of the trust assets to Saadeh. From this order, the trustees appeal.

[1] The co-trustees attack the trial court's final judgment by first arguing that the May 2009 agreed order was final, but not appealed; therefore, it is no longer subject to attack. They cite, however, to cases involving a voluntary dismissal of proceedings. This was not a voluntary dismissal, but rather an allegedly agreed settlement and a mutual dismissal. They also contend that the court was without jurisdiction to vacate the May 2009 order of dismissal because there was no incapacity petition pending due to its earlier dismissal. We disagree.

For these reasons, the trial court determined the trust was void ab initio and ordered the return of the trust assets to Saadeh. From this order, the trustees appeal.

[1] The co-trustees attack the trial court's final judgment by first arguing that the May 2009 agreed order was final, but not appealed; therefore, it is no longer subject to attack. They cite, however, to cases involving a voluntary dismissal of proceedings. This was not a voluntary dismissal, but rather an allegedly agreed settlement and a mutual dismissal. They also contend that the court was without jurisdiction to vacate the May 2009 order of dismissal because there was no incapacity petition pending due to its earlier dismissal. We disagree.

[2] First, the statutes and rules do not provide for the dismissal of a petition to determine the incapacity of an individual before the actual determination of the issue. In Borden v. Guardianship of Borden—v. ors. 818 So.2d 604 (Fla. 5th DCA 2002), the court held that a petition for guardianship could not be dismissed before receiving the report of the examining committee:

Section 744.331 contemplates that once a facially sufficient petition to determine incapacity has been filed, the court must ensure that the alleged incapacitated person has an attorney, that an appropriately qualified examining committee promptly examines the person, and that an adjudicatory hearing be set no more than fourteen days after the filing of the report of the examining committee, unless good cause is shown to extend that time. Compliance with the requirements of section 744.331 is mandatory and the trial court's failure to adhere to those requirements constitutes reversible error.

Id. at 608–09. See § 744.331(4), Fla. Stat. (2008); see also In re Keene, 343 So.2d 916, 917 (Fla. 4th DCA 1977) (“Proceedings to determine the competency of a person are generally controlled by statute and where a statute prescribes a certain method of proceeding to make that determination, the statute must be strictly followed.”) (citation omitted). An attorney for the person may not waive an adjudicatory hearing when required. See In re Frederick, 508 So.2d 44, 45 (Fla. 4th DCA 1987).

[3] [4] There is good reason for such a rule. If a person is incompetent, it is the duty of the court to assure that person's protection and his or her autonomy is respected to the greatest extent possible. See § 744.1012, Fla. Stat. (2008). To permit dismissal of proceedings where a party is in fact incompetent may endanger that person. On the other hand, without knowing whether the person is actually incompetent, the court could restrict a person's independent ability to deal with his property and place it out of the control of a *248 person who may be completely capacitated. The guardianship statutes and rules should not be used to protect competent persons from their spendthrift ways or to protect their beneficiaries. An individual who is competent should not be subject to the control of the courts through guardianship proceedings, temporary or plenary.

That the order dismissing the plenary guardianship proceedings was a nullity is further supported by the fact that the order did not dismiss the petition for emergency temporary guardian, revoke the letters of guardianship, or terminate the same. Section 744.3031(1), Florida Statutes (2008), permits the appointment of an ETG only after a petition for determination of incapacity has been filed. For an ETG to be appointed there must be a pending determination of incapacity. As such, the court could not dismiss the petition for incapacity and retain the ETG. Unfortunately, that is what occurred in these proceedings.

The ETG, and even court-appointed counsel for Saadeh, never intended to restore any rights to him during the period of the temporary guardianship, and their statements to the court that all of Saadeh's rights had been removed were made at a hearing on the same day he executed the trust agreement. At a separate hearing, the attorney for the children as trustees also told the court that because of the appointment of the ETG, Saadeh could not be a trustee of his own trust. Thus, the trustees acknowledged that the appointment of the ETG deprived Saadeh of all of his rights. Because all parties relied on the ETG's appointment as depriving Saadeh of the ability to exercise all rights, they are now judicially estopped from taking the position that the incapacity proceedings were final. See Blumberg v. JAA Cas. Ins. Co., 790 So.2d 1061, 1066 (Fla.2001). Because the order did not dismiss the ETG proceedings and restore Saadeh's rights, it was legally impossible to continue to deprive Saadeh of his rights unless incapacity was determined. The court, recognizing its mistake in entering the order which purported to dismiss the incapacity proceedings, appointed the new examining committee. Section 744.3031(1) provides that the court shall specify the rights to be exercised by the ETG. In this case, the order delegated to the ETG all legal rights, reserving only the right to vote to the ward. Thus, the court removed the ward's exercise all delegable legal rights and powers of the ward with the exception of his right to vote. Pursuant to statute, the court set the term of the temporary guardianship for ninety days.

The day after the hearing, two of the members of the examining committee filed their reports, both stating that Saadeh was fully capable of managing his own affairs and was completely competent. Unfortunately, the third person appointed to examine Saadeh passed away before the hearing. It does not appear that the court ever saw these reports. Within two days of the appointment of the ETG, Singer filed an emergency petition to set aside the guardianship and for rehearing. The ward's court-appointed attorney joined in the doctors, who stated that Saadeh was competent to attend to his own affairs. The court scheduled this motion for hearing on June 25, 2009.

Despite the fact that the agreed order "dismissed" the pending incapacity proceedings, neither the parties nor the court operated as though anything was dismissed. A few days after entry of the agreed order, Noble, the court-appointed attorney for the ward, filed a motion for clarification of the order appointing the ETG. The court entered an order of clarification. In addition, both sides filed motions to disqualify attorneys. Noble wanted to disqualify Singer from representing Levine, and Singer sought to disqualify Meyer right to contract. The fact that the court removed his right to contract was specifically discussed not only in the original hearing appointing the ETG but in almost every other hearing thereafter.

[6] To permit both a ward and the guardian to exercise the right to contract would render the protection afforded by an ETG non-existent. In such cases, the ward could continue to deal with his or her property and conceivably give it all away while a petition for incapacity is pending even though that person is incompetent but not officially adjudicated as such. The ETG would be faced with the difficult task of recovering missing property.

This case is distinguishable from Holmes v. Burchett, 766 So.2d 387 (Fla. 2d DCA 2000). In Holmes, an ETG was appointed for the ward. Id. at 388 n. 2. The trial court refused to permit an attorney retained by the ward from participating in §249 the incapacity proceedings even though, pursuant to section 744.331(2)(a), the alleged incapacitated person was entitled to substitute his or her own attorney for the one appointed by the court. Id. The appellate court granted certiorari, concluding that until the ward is declared incompetent, she is presumed competent to contract and to substitute her chosen counsel. Id. However, in Holmes there is no mention as to what rights were conferred on the ETG. Thus, the opinion does not stand for the proposition that even though the legal right to contract is removed from a ward, the ward may still contract until found incapacitated.

In re Guardianship of Graham, 963 So.2d 275 (Fla. 4th DCA 2007) is more on point. In that case, a petition to determine the incapacity of the ward was filed, and an ETG with plenary authority over the ward's person and property was appointed, much like the ETG authority in this case. See id. at 276-77. The trial court did not adjudicate the ward incapacitated before the ward filed a motion to substitute counsel, which the trial court denied. See id. On petition for writ of certiorari to this Court, we denied the petition on the ground that where the ward's right to contract had been removed by the appointment of a plenary guardian, she did not possess the right to contract and enter into an agreement with the attorney. See id. at 278. Graham is consistent with the trial court's conclusion that where an ETG is granted the right to contract, the ward can no longer exercise that power.

As found by the trial court in granting summary judgment, at the time of the execution of the trust, the right to contract had been removed from Saadeh, as the parties acknowledged to the court the day that the trust was signed. Section 736.0402(1), Florida Statute (2008), provides that "[a] trust is created only if: (a) the settler has capacity to create a trust." § 736.0402(1)(a), Fla. Stat. (2008) (emphasis added). Thus, because Saadeh had no legal right to execute the trust, the trust was invalid and void. The trial court's ruling was correct.

With respect to the issues raised in connection with the remaining orders on appeal, we find no error.

Affirmed.

ALBERT VASSALLO, SR.
An incapacitated person.

PROBATE/GUARDIANSHIP DIV. "IX"

GUARDIAN'S VERIFIED PETITION FOR DIRECTION TO ACT

Elizabeth Savitt ("Guardian"), by and through the undersigned counsel, and pursuant to Fla. Stat. §744.447, hereby petitions this Court for the entry of an order authorizing her to act, and in support, states as follows:

Introduction

1. The Guardian was appointed on September 9, 2014, as the limited guardian of the person and property for the captioned Ward.
2. Shortly thereafter, in October of 2014, the Guardian sought to compel the return of certain of the Ward's funds and property from the Ward's adult children, Albert Vasallo, Jr. ("Al Jr.") and Susan Mast ("Susan").
3. Prior to a hearing on these contentious matters, the parties participated in court-directed mediation.

Mediated Agreement

4. On December 1, 2014, the Guardian, Al Jr., Susan, and the Ward's court-appointed counsel participated in the referenced mediation before the Honorable Jack Cook (retired). The mediation resulted in a signed agreement that is set forth on Exhibit 1 hereto (the "Mediated Term Sheet").
5. The parties to the mediation executed a Mediated Term Sheet on that date. The Mediated Term Sheet contains all of the material terms of an agreement. Nevertheless, it expressly states that the Mediated Term Sheet is to be reduced to a formal written agreement and that promissory notes are to be executed by Al Jr. and by Susan. A copy of the Mediated Term Sheet is attached hereto as Exhibit "1".

6. After the Mediated Term Sheet was executed, counsel for the Guardian and for Susan and Al Jr. agreed on the form of a settlement agreement and promissory notes. However, as of the date of filing the instant Petition, both of the Ward's adult children who are parties to it, Al Jr. and Susan, have either refused to execute or refused to deliver the signed formalized agreement. They also will not deliver the promissory notes required by the mediated terms. Their counsel has now moved to withdraw, quite possibly because of Susan and Al Jr.'s apparent decision to renege on the Mediated Term Sheet.

7. Action is now required by the Guardian, subject to court authorization, to either (1) enforce the Mediated Term Sheet or (2) to abandon it and sue Susan and Al Jr. The action contemplated herein is not inconsistent with any guardianship report or plan. This petition for judicial direction and authorization follows.

A) Petition to Approve the Mediated Term Sheet

8. Pursuant to Fla. Stat. §744.447 and Fla. Stat. §744.441(2), (10) and (11), the Guardian seeks this Court's approval and authorization for her execution of such Mediated Term Sheet (and for the prospective execution of such written formalized agreement as was contemplated therein). A summary of the Mediated Term Sheet is as follows:

- a. Al Jr. will execute a promissory note for $45,000 payable to the Guardian at 4% per annum interest.
- b. Susan will execute a promissory note for $54,000 payable to the Guardian at 4% per interest.

- c. Susan will execute a second promissory note for $8,000 to the Guardian at 4% per annum with interest running from September 9, 2014, the enforcement of which is subject to Susan's failure to account to the Guardian for $8,120 in electronic withdrawals of the Ward's funds.
- d. Each promissory note is due at the earlier of (1) the death of the Ward or (2) under the 15-year amortization schedule. Each note is secured by the obligor's inheritance or trust distributions.
- e. The parties agreed on a current expense budget ("Expenses") of $820 per month (subject to adjustments) and payment of $2,083 per month as compensation to Susan Mast for care of the Ward, if the then-current schedule continues.
- f. The parties agreed to exchange mutual general releases except as to the performance of this agreement.
- g. The Guardian consented to represent to the Court that it is not in the best interests of the Ward for any of his family to serve as his trustee.
- h. Attorneys' fees are borne by the parties.
9. The Guardian believes it is in the best interest of the Ward for the Court to ratify the Mediated Term Sheet. An agreement will largely avoid the legal expense from the guardianship which would be associated with litigation on the merits. The Guardian also believes that it was a fair and reasonable compromise regarding obligations owed to the Ward. See Fla. Stat. §744.441(2), (10).

10. For these reasons, the Guardian requests the Court's entry of an order authorizing her act of executing the Mediated Term Sheet and the prospective written formalized agreement.

B) Petition to Permit a Lawsuit to Enforce It

11. As of the date of filing the instant Petition, the Ward's two adult children who agreed to the Mediated Term Sheet have not complied with the mediated terms. Their counsel has now moved to withdraw.

12. Accordingly, the Guardian seeks authorization vis-à-vis Fla. Stat. §744.441(11), to bring an action against Al Jr. and Susan to enforce the Mediated Term Sheet. More particularly, the Guardian seeks this Court's authorization, if necessary, to institute and prosecute proceedings for the protection of the Ward's estate, as part of her duties. See Fla. Stat. §744.441(11).

13. Section §744.441(11) provides in relevant part:

After obtaining approval of the court pursuant to a petition for authorization to act [...] a guardian of the property [...] may:

(11) Prosecute or defend claims or proceedings in any jurisdiction for the protection of the estate and of the guardian in the performance of his or her duties. (emphasis supplied)

14. As the Guardian has a fiduciary obligation to protect the Ward's person and property, it is appropriate for the Guardian and beneficial to the Ward for her to institute proceedings against Al Jr. and Susan relative to their breach of the Mediated Term Sheet, and to otherwise protect, marshal, and secure the Ward's revocable trust and assets which would be available for his benefit.

15. For these reasons, the Guardian seeks this Court's authorization to institute proceedings against Al Jr. and Susan to enforce the Mediated Term Sheet setting forth their agreement. In connection with such proceedings, the Guardian seeks attorney's fees and costs, for these services performed on behalf of and for the benefit to the Ward, pursuant to Fla. Stat. §744.108.

C) Alternatively, the Guardian petitions for court approval to sue Susan and Al Jr. for damages.

16. Alternatively, if the Mediated Term Sheet is not approved or if a litigation to enforce the Mediated Term Sheet fails, then the Guardian requests court approval to sue Susan and Al Jr. in the Civil Division to recover the substantial funds that are rightfully the property of the Ward; to void transfers of the Ward's property that were undertaken at a time when he lacked capacity; and to address those instances in which Susan and Al Jr. have exploited or taken advantage of the Ward both before and after the Guardianship. If no mediated agreement exists, then the Ward will still be owed money from Susan and Al Jr. and it is therefore in the best interest of the Ward's estate to take legal action to recover it.

D) The Guardian seeks further authorization from this Court to amend and fund the Ward's Revocable Trust in accordance with Fla. Stat. §744.441(17) and/or (19).

17. The Ward maintained assets pursuant to the Albert Vassallo Revocable Trust Agreement (the "Revocable Trust"). When he became incapacitated, three of his children (James, Susan, and Al Jr.) became the successor co-Trustees. On September 30, 2014, this Court directed all financial institutions to distribute and/or transfer immediately all of the ward's funds, including accounts belonging to the Revocable Trust, to the guardianship account on behalf of the Ward.

18. The Revocable Trust, however, is a reasonable alternative mechanism for the Ward's assets (1) to be used during life and (2) to pass to his heirs outside of probate as an estate planning mechanism. Unfortunately, two of the co-Trustees are Susan and Al Jr. (i.e., the proposed defendants in the claims discussed above). Because of their adverse position to the Ward and the Guardian, they should not continue to serve as co-trustee. A third co-Trustee, James, is so hostile to his siblings and vice-versa as a result of this litigation that he cannot serve objectively as a co-Trustee.

19. Accordingly, it is in the Ward's best interest to be rid of any inter-family disputes over the Trust and for the Guardian to serve as the sole Trustee of the Revocable Trust, funded with the Ward's assets pursuant to section 744.441(17) and (19), for the remainder of the Ward's life. Therefore, the Guardian seeks the authorization of this Court to amend the Ward's revocable trust pursuant to the provisions Fla. Stat. §744.441(19).

20. Fla. Stat. §744.441(19) provides:

After obtaining approval of the court pursuant to a petition for authorization to act [...] a guardian of the property [...] may:

(19) Create or amend revocable trusts or create irrevocable trusts of property of the ward's estate which may extend beyond the disability or life of the ward in connection with estate, gift, income, or other tax planning or in connection with estate planning. The court shall retain oversight of the assets transferred to a trust, unless otherwise ordered by the court. (emphasis supplied).

21. The powers conferred in subsection (19) are directly applicable here, subject to Court approval. The Ward could have amended his own Revocable Trust and replaced the named successor co-Trustees at will and at any time, but for the adjudication of his incapacity and the appointment of the Guardian in this captioned cause. See Fla. Stat §736.0402(1)(a); Jasser v. Saddeh, 97 So. 3d 241 (Fla. 4th DCA 2012). Under subsection (19), the Guardian may now do so in the Ward's place if the Court approves. The Guardian should therefore be permitted to do so in his place and replace the feuding siblings with a single, court-appointed Trustee who is also the Guardian.

WHEREFORE, the Guardian prays that this Court enter an order which grants the instant Petition, as follows:

- (1) grant to the Guardian the authority to execute the Mediated Term Sheet and the formal written agreement as contemplated;
- (2) grant the Guardian the authority to institute breach of contract proceedings against Al Jr. and Susan for their breach of the Mediated Term Sheet, and, alternatively, to sue them for the underlying wrongs that were the basis for the Guardian's claims that led to the Mediated Term Sheet;
- (3) grant to the Guardian the authority to amend the Ward's Revocable Trust by replacing the named co-Trustees and to fund the Revocable Trust;
- (4) award to the Guardian her reasonable attorney's fees and costs; and
- (5) grant any other such further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

IN RE: GUARDIANSHIP OF

ALBERT VASSALLO, SR.,

The ward.

SUCCESSOR CO-TRUSTEE JAMES VASSALLO'S POST-HEARING
MEMORANDUM OF LAW AND/OR VERIFIED PETITION FOR REHEARING

JAMES VASSALLO, successor co-trustee, next of kin, son of the ward, and interested person, by and through his undersigned counsel, and pursuant to Fla.R.Civ.P. 1.530(a) - (d), files this Post-Hearing Memorandum of Law and /or Verified Petition for Rehearing of the February 13, 2015 hearing authorizing appointment of sole successor trustee of the Albert Vassallo, Sr. Revocable Trust et al. and in support, states as follows:

1. James Vassallo is next of kin, son and interested person of the ward in the above-styled matter.
2. At hearing held February 13, 2015 James Vassallo was removed, along with the other two successor co-trustees of the Albert Vassallo, Sr. Revocable Trust Agreement U/A/D 02/17/2009, as amended.¹

¹As of February 23, 2015 the on-line docket showed no entry of an order authorizing Elizabeth Savitt's appointment as sole successor trustee of the Albert Vassallo, Sr. Revocable Trust et al., the requested relief of the matter heard before the Court February 13, 2015: Guardian's Verified Petition for Direction to Act dated January 27, 2015. Exhibit G.

3. Pertinent provisions of the Revocable Trust Agreement are as follows:

a. Article I (D) Incapacitated. If the Grantor and Trustee is under a legal disability or by reason of illness, or mental or physical disability or is, in the certified written opinion of his physician and Albert Vassallo, Jr. and Susan Mast, unable to properly manage his affairs he shall be deemed incapacitated for the purposes of this trust agreement.”

b. Article II Administration During Life of Grantor (D) Right to Revoke and Amend. The Grantor reserves the right during his lifetime, except during any period when he is certified incapacitated as set forth in Article I to revoke this instrument, signed and acknowledged by Grantor and to change the identity of the trustee, etc. The Revocable Trust as Amended is attached as exhibit A.

4. By the Second Amendment the Grantor added James Vassallo as a co-trustee. Albert Vassallo Sr. never amended his trust to replace James Vassallo. Since the time he was legally disabled, September 9, 2014 Albert Vassallo Sr. was never certified incapacitated as defined in Article I (D). Elizabeth Savitt has no right to amend based upon the trust agreement language. F.S. §744.441 (19) has no application since it does not contain the required “certified incapacity” required to revoke or amend under Article II.

5. Neither on February 13, 2015 nor at anytime was evidence adduced, nor testimony taken by Albert Vassallo Sr.’s physician. The argument is fallacious in the guardian’s verified petition paragraph 21 that the ward could have amended his own revocable trust and replaced the named successor co-trustee at will at any time (because in fact he did not), but for the adjudication of his incapacity [as it was not a certified incapacity by his own physician as defined in Article I(D)] so that under F.S. §744.441 (19) “the guardian may (not) now do so.” as prohibited under Article II. This so-called statutory authority is belied by trust agreement Article VI Trustee’s Power. “It is Grantor’s declared intent that my trustee or his successor not be bound by any laws of the State of Florida” [(including F.S. §744.441 (19)] and that the only requirement is that they act in good faith (which Albert Vassallo, Jr. and Susan Mast violated but James Vassallo did not). By all accounts James Vassallo has acted in good faith at all times. No testimony has been adduced to the contrary.

6. Albert Vassallo, Sr. was never under a certified incapacity as defined, so that Elizabeth Savitt had no right as guardian to amend the trust during the legal incapacity, especially since Revocable Trust Agreement Article XII. Survivorship provides that the trust agreement shall be binding upon the assigns of the parties. To the extent Elizabeth Savitt, as guardian is Grantor’s assign, she is bound by the terms of the trust agreement, Article I(D) and Article II.

7. James Vassallo seeks relief for additional reasons set forth herein.

8. At all times material Albert Vassallo, Sr. lived at 108 Westbury Building E, Deerfield Beach, Florida 33442 and James Vassallo lived at 107 Westbury Building E, Deerfield Beach, Florida 33442 next door and he took care of his father free of charge until late, 2013.

9. In 2012 James Vassallo obtained VA disability benefits for his father after he had been exposed in World War II to asbestos while serving in the Navy. In 2012 James Vassallo increased Albert Vassallo Sr.’s monthly income from $1000 to $2580.

10. After James Vassallo’s May, 2013 was added as co-successor trustee in the trust second amendment, with the original 2 successor co-trustees, his 2 siblings Albert Vassallo, Jr. and Susan Mast, (nominated co-successor trustees in the trust agreement in 2009), James Vassallo discovered in November, 2013 that these 2 siblings were misappropriating for their own use his father Albert Vassallo Sr.'s funds through powers of attorney for approximately $60,000 and $110,000, respectively.

11. James Vassallo retained attorney Clifford Hark to rectify this issue. Mr. Hark prepared and James Vassallo signed a petition for incapacity indicating James Vassallo resided at 107 Westbury Building E, Deerfield Beach, Florida 33442 Exhibit B and a petition for the appointment of a guardian seeking Elizabeth Savitt as a professional guardian. Exhibit C.

12. On September 9, 2014 Elizabeth Savitt was appointed guardian. Before the bank account could be frozen by the Court, Susan Mast wrote out 2 checks, one to Albert Vassallo, Jr. for $25,000 and one to herself for $30,000. On December 1, 2014 a mediation agreement was entered into between Elizabeth Savitt, as guardian and Susan Mast, and Albert Vassallo, Jr's attorney. No where in the settlement agreement, the mediated term sheet, are the 2 said September 9, 2014 checks referred to or the misappropriation that necessitated these proceedings brought by James Vassallo, in the first instance addressed therein. As a consequence, it seems James Vassallo's role as a successor trustee remains essential as Elizabeth Savitt has failed in her duties. In a similar demonstration of her dereliction of duty, Ms. Savitt has failed and refused James Vassallo's repeated requests of her to contact the VA to place the now unclaimed VA funds into the guardianship/trust account since the checks began to accumulate without accruing interest since November 1, 2014. As a third example, after Susan Mast was caught "red-handed" with the September 9, 2014 checks that this court ordered frozen that day, Ms. Savitt as guardian later knowing, saw fit in November, 2014 to allow the financial exploitative Susan Mast to receive retro-active pay of $25,000 from Albert Vassallo, Sr., and James Vassello as sole trustee advised her it was unacceptable. That disagreement provides the basis for the hostilities claimed by Elizabeth Savitt, but those are between James Vassallo and Elizabeth Savitt. As a fourth example 10 $1000 United States bonds of Albert Vassallo, Sr. have been missing since November, 2013 when Susan Mast and Albert Vassallo, Sr. were involved with moving Albert Vassallo, Sr. James Vassallo gave Elizabeth Savitt a claim form to track down the missing bonds 4 months ago to see if the bonds were cashed in or lost. No response has been forthcoming during this 120 day time period. Other examples abound such as Elizabeth Savitt's refusal to pay Albert Vassallo Sr.'s credit card bill minimum payments thus allowing his credit rating to plummet. The trust can ill-afford Elizabeth Savitt's kind of management style with the 90 day inventory filing period having now expired without compliance or extension thus explaining Elizabeth Savitt's eagerness to move the guardianship assets to the trust.

13. By court order dated November 20, 2014 Clifford Hark withdrew as attorney of record for James Vassallo. Mr. Hark's prepared order mistakenly directed Elizabeth Savitt's counsel to notice James Vassallo at 108 Westbury Building E, Deerfield Beach, Florida 33442. Exhibit D.

14. On January 27, 2015 guardian Elizabeth Savitt filed a verified petition for direction to act, seeking approval of the mediation and without attaching the Revocable trust agreement, sought the court's imprimatur to swiftly remove James Vassallo under statutory authority, F.S. 744.441 (17) and (19) from his appointed role as the remaining sole trustee on the sole ground that he is not appreciated by those persons, Susan Mast and Albert Vassallo, Jr. involved in the theft of their father's property. Elizabeth Savitt referred to whistleblower James Vassallo as "so hostile to his siblings that he cannot serve objectively as a co-trustee." He was "objective" enough to seek her very appointment as guardian in the first instance, all through court proceedings, no self help has been alleged, let alone has it occurred as there was no direct contact made with his siblings.

15. On February 3, 2015 the order specially setting hearing for February 13, 2015 was mailed out to James Vassallo. Pursuant to the November 20, 2015 Court order of Mr. Hark's withdrawal, it was mailed to the ward's old address, 108 Westbury E and not to James Vassallo's address, 107 Westbury Building E, Deerfield Beach, Florida 33442 and that wrong address envelope was provided to the court presumably by Elizabeth Savitt's counsel based upon Mr. Hark's error. The order required James Vassallo to submit within seven (7) days prior to the February 13, 2015 hearing (i.e. on or before February 6, 2015) his Memoranda and case law authority and proposed orders. See composite Exhibit E.

16. Because of the wrong mailing address, James Vassallo did not receive the order until after the February 6, 2015 deadline had elapsed.

17. Clifford Hark was notified thereafter and he re-appeared in the case and served a late well-taken but limited objection on behalf of James Vassallo by certificate of service dated February 12, 2015. Exhibit F. It cited the removal as sought would constitute an abuse of discretion absent a showing of actual mismanagement. Removal of trustees due to friction among contingent beneficiaries, which included trustees, was found to be an abuse of discretion, absent a showing of actual mismanagement. Parr v. Cushing, 507 So.2d 1227 (Fla. 5th DCA 1987) (Hostility and/or tension between trustee and potential beneficiaries of a trust does not by itself constitute ground for removal of a trustee). Generally removal of a trustee should be predicated upon a clear showing of abuse or wrongdoing in the actual administration of the trust. In Re Estate of Murphy, 336 So.2d 697 (Fla. 4th DCA 1976). As the order authorizing the appointment of Elizabeth Savitt as sole successor trustee reflects, this matter came before the court and the court heard argument of counsel but no testimony of any witness as to James Vassallo actually having mismanaged the trust was given. In fact James Vassallo was denied the opportunity to be heard at the hearing. "A trustee is entitled to an opportunity to be heard prior to his removal as trustee for his father's estate." Kountze v. Kountz 93 So.3d 1164 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2012). A factual finding must be made as to the trustee's unfitness unwillingness, and persistent failure to administer the trust effectively. F.S. §736.0706(1), (2)(c). In fact James Vassallo has administered the trust extremely efficiently and the decision by Elizabeth Savitt to remove him without due process is completely self-dealing. James has not sought any compensation from the trust although he is entitled under Trust Article VII, and Ms. Savitt will seek the compensation that James Vassallo would sacrifice in the future, all in the best interest of Albert Vassallo, Sr.

18. Pursuant to the Revocable Trust Article XII, the same is binding on its assigns binding Elizabeth Savitt to the extent she, as guardian is Grantor Albert Vassallo, Sr.'s assign. According to the trust agreement, the trustee is not to be in limitation of any statutory authority i.e., F.S. §744.441 (17) and (19) that serve as the sole basis of James Vassallo's removal by Elizabeth Savitt.

WHEREFORE, James Vassallo files this post hearing Memorandum of Law and alternative petition for rehearing of the February 13, 2015 hearing authorizing the appointment of the Guardian Elizabeth Savitt as the sole successor trustee of the Albert Vassallo Sr. Revocable Trust and requests an evidentiary hearing and an opportunity to be heard.

VERIFICATION

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing and that the facts stated in it are true.

RE: Guardianship of Albert Vassallo, Sr.

Mr. Vassallo:

You the "CLIENT" have requested my firm to act as your attorney in connection with the above matter and to advise you and serve as your counsel advising you relating to the issues that have arisen.

This document sets forth the agreement concerning our representation of you and shall become effective upon our receipt of a signed copy of this document and the amount required herein as to fees and costs.

A. You agree to pay to Hollander and Associates, LLC an initial nonrefundable attorney fee retainer in the sum of $8,000.00. It is also understood that we will bill by the hour for additional fees at our discounted professional courtesy hourly rate of $440.00 per hour (normally it is $550 per hour) for 18.18 hours. Attorney's compensation is based upon, among other factors, the time and labor involved, the novelty, complexity, and difficulty of the issues, questions, and the case as a whole as presented, the skill, reputation, experience, ability and diligence of attorneys in performing this type of service, the time limitations imposed upon attorneys by this representation, the likelihood this employment will preclude other employment, the amounts Attorneys customarily charge, the significance of the amount in controversy and the experience, reputation, diligence, and ability of the attorney in performing this type of service. CLIENT agrees this retainer fee is justified as long as attorney begins the work and is in compliance with the Rules. You shall replace this $8,000 attorney fee retainer upon its being depleted to $1,000.00 (15.90 hours) or less upon receipt of an itemized invoice for services rendered and under these same terms and conditions, and so forth, until the case is completed. If those attorneys' fees are not paid, then attorneys may withdraw from the representation. Failure of the CLIENT to do so permits ATTORNEY to withdraw from this representation and the attached consent today executed by the CLIENT may be dated and submitted to the Court at such future time in order to obtain an order authorizing ATTORNEY's withdrawal as attorney of record without need of a hearing, citing irreconcilable differences. The CLIENT further understands that these attorneys' fees are nonrefundable as are all attorneys fees hereafter received in this case are nonrefundable and earned upon receipt.

B. Costs. We shall expend costs as we shall determine is in your best interests in representing you, which shall be expended for expenses including, but not limited to court, arbitration, and/or service of process fees, mediation costs, deposition transcript costs, subpoenas, litigation costs, copying costs, court reporter's expenses and fees, research, postage, courier, filing fees, court fees, service of process fees, investigation fees, and expenses of experts as may be needed as deemed necessary to assist us in handling of this matter employed to examine persons or information pertinent to this case, to testify at deposition or at trial, or whose examination may further the case, attorney's travel time to and from West Palm Beach for any purpose involving this case such as traveling to and from court hearings or meetings (the court hearings and meetings themselves will be charged at the $440.00 per hour rate) at $100 per hour for the travel time alone/itself, and hotel expenses, if any, and all other expenses the Attorney considers reasonably necessary for the proper representation of the CLIENT and file storage. CLIENT agrees to promptly pay expense deposits upon receipt of a written request. Any unused portion may be applied to any unpaid fees at attorneys' option. Costs may also include hiring junior lawyers, para professionals as needed to be billed at an hourly rate of between $200.00 and $250.00 per hour. Their travel time will be $50 per hour.

C. We shall use our best judgment to determine the amount of time required to be expended on your behalf, and which attorneys and paralegal personnel shall perform the required services contemplated to be performed. We shall proceed as we deem necessary. You must assist in providing us all information concerning the facts and your objectives.

D. I have made a preliminary analysis of the problem you have presented and have determined that it seems you have a colorable claim in seeking a rehearing within 15 days of the 2.13.15 order removing you as sole trustee/replacing you with Elizabeth Savitt as sole trustee and thereafter goal 2, seeking to remove her as guardian. JV (Client's initials). It is unknown whether this initial fee retainer will be available to be applied toward this second goal.

E. I have explained my preliminary analysis of the case to you and the necessity of your assistance in order to keep expenses to a minimum. You must send me copies of all court filings to date, research completed and court documents in order to minimize the legal fees and costs.

F. You acknowledge that we have made no guarantees in relation to the disposition of any phase of this matter for which we have been retained, as all expressions relative to it are only our opinions. All warranties express or implied are hereby denied and waived.

H. All other matters which we handle for you or on your behalf must be evidenced by a modification to this Agreement or by a new Agreement or if work proceeds billed on an hourly basis.

I. This is the entire agreement between the parties and this Agreement shall only be modified by an instrument in writing signed by the parties to this Agreement or otherwise clearly assented to by the parties. Client agrees all prior discussions and representations, if any, cannot and have not been relied upon and there are no understandings whatsoever or promises not contained herein. Attorney has promised to render his best professional skill and to exercise his best professional judgment and advice to client.

J. Any dispute that may arise between the parties, Hollander and Associates, LLC and CLIENT (and not the natural person Frank L. Hollander, not a party hereto) and shall be resolved in Miami-Dade County Courts for venue and jurisdictional purposes. No consequential damages shall be allowed. As a condition precedent to a lawsuit or other complaint the parties shall attempt a good faith resolution of all of their differences through mediation at Florida Mediation Group in Miami, Florida with each party to pay half of the cost thereof

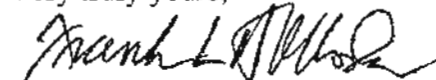

K. Attorney's obligation under this agreement terminates on decision of judge as to the 2 petitions, to be reinstated as trustee, due March 2, 2015 and for Ms. Savitt to be removed as guardian. No appeal is anticipated to be filed under this agreement.

L. Please sign a copy of this Agreement where provision has been made for your signature and cause an executed copy of said Agreement to be returned to the undersigned.

Incapacitated Person.

RESPONSE OF GUARDIAN TO JAMES VASSALLO'S MOTION FOR REHEARING

Elizabeth Savitt (the "Guardian") respectfully responds in opposition to James Vassallo's motion to rehear this Court's orders replacing James Vassallo, Albert Vassallo, Jr., and Susan Mast as successor co-trustees and appointing Ms. Savitt as the lone successor trustee of the Ward's revocable trust, and state:

Guardianship-Albert Vassallo

Case #502014GA000369XXXXSB

July 2, 2015

I'm objecting to Elizabeth Savitt serving as my father's guardian.

Elizabeth Savitt became guardian of property and person, filed on September 9, 2014. I, James Vassallo objects to the following items, her accounting for the inventory which is incomplete and incorrect. Elizabeth Savitt has not shown any receipts or copies of checks or who they are written to on my father's accounts. The guardian took a $3,000 retainer fee for herself from my father's money without a date as to when to she took it and without petitioning the court for it. Also, the guardian paid herself check #133, date, 3/10/2015 $7,304.30. Then, on 4/14/2015, check #139, she double paid herself, $7,304.30. If I didn't catch it, she would not have reimbursed the money because she told me that she had no idea she had done it. On 4/14/2015, check #138, she paid Susan Mast $7,390.71 with no explanation as to why this much. On 5/15/2015, she wrote Susan two checks out, check numbers #141 and #142 in the amount of $2,463.57 each. On 6/8/2015, she wrote Susan Mast two checks, #144 and #145 in the amount of $2,463.57 each. On the same day 6/8/2015, she wrote out a check #146 for Walgreens in the amount of $189.88. There are also fifteen to twenty checks since she has been guardian that do not apply to my father's living expenses.

April, 2014, Susan Mast and Albert Vassallo Jr. moved out my father's personal belongings from his condo where he lived at 108 Westbury E in Deerfield Beach, FL. There were two brand new fifty inch tv's, Jewelry, $2,500 in coins, and other personal property. Also, they looted his safe which had ten United States Savings Bonds valued at $1,000 each, which Elizabeth Savitt knows about. Elizabeth Savitt has failed to account for these items. Also in April, 2014, Susan removed my father's 2007 Hyundai, tag #YIYMG and the car has not been seen since. Susan said that she gifted the car away to Jacqueline Cantela in April, 2014 and showed the guardian the bill of sale. Susan had been paying car insurance for it for 7 months with money from my father's accounts after she gifted it. The guardian stated that the car could not have been gifted. From September 9, 2014 to the present time, the guardian has not secured the car, nor the money that Susan has paid for the insurance.

Elizabeth Savitt and her attorney Sheri Hazeltine sent out demand letters on October 14, 2014 to Susan Mast and Albert Vassallo Jr. On November 15, 2013, Susan Mast withdrew $50,000 from my father's Bank Of America CD. On April 7, 2014, Susan Mast withdrew $13,760.16 from my father's trust checking account. Then, on the same day, she closed out my father's trust accounts from three different banks for a total of $269,515.29. Susan and Albert Jr. opened up a CD in Chase Bank for $200,000, which left $69,515.29. With the $69,515.29, they opened up a checking account beneficiary to them and my father had no idea what was going on. On September 2, 2014 Susan transferred $4,000 from my fathers checking account to their beneficiary account. On April 8, 2014, Albert Jr. wrote himself a check in the amount of $20,000.

Albert took 50,000

After the guardianship was established on September 9, 2014, Susan Mast wrote out two checks, one for $30,000 to herself and one for $25,000 to Albert Vassallo Jr. Susan Mast signed both checks.

In the year 2014, Susan Mast and Albert Vassallo Jr. wrote out checks from my father's account in the amount of $3,106.00 which the guardian has not accounted for. Also, electronic withdrawals add up to $16,644.23 which the guardian has not accounted for. My father had lawsuit money coming in from Weitz & Luxenberg for over $900.00. The guardian is not accounting for the missing checks that Susan Mast received.

Susan Mast used my fathers credit card for her own benefit and some of my father's needs with a steady balance of over $3,000 or more each month. The guardian closed out my father's credit card in November, 2014 with a balance of $2,886.16. Before she closed the credit card account, she gave Susan the credit card and she charged another $129.04 on it. The guardian paid $786.96 on October 21, 2014 towards the balance. She left a balance of 2,111.36 and did not pay anything more towards the credit card until March 16, 2015. On March 16, 2015 she paid $2,945.95 with my father incurring late charges and interest for $834.59. She never made Susan accountable for the money she charged on my father's credit card for her benefit.

As of this date, July, 2015, the guardian has not received any money back that was taken from Susan Mast or Albert Vassallo Jr. The guardian has spent over $50,000 of my father's money in lawyer fees to take me off as a trustee unnecessarily. This amount is without her new attorney John Pankauski's fees.

James Vassallo

Betsy, how did you get involved in this case?

I hired Cliff Hark and he recommended you as a guardian. At the time, I did not know that you had a lien and judgement on you and you had a foreclosure on your home which was just ready to get auctioned off. I would never had hired you had I known that. I asked you what are a guardians duties? You said the first thing that you would do as a guardian was to make sure that I could see my father. The next thing is that you and Cliff would freeze my fathers money so Albert Jr. and Susan wouldn't be able to take it anymore.

Why did you take Albert Jr. and Susan Mast off as trustees? Because the stole money from my fathers trust and his trust says that the only way one can be taken off is Article VI, trust power is that they do not act in good faith which they did not by stealing money. Why did you take me off as trustee? I helped you, for the interest of the ward, found out where his banks were and what kind of bank accounts he had. I gave you all the bank paperworks with statements, I gave you all the info about how much they stole from my father. I took care of my father free of charge from 2010 until late 2013. I took him to his doctors appointments, grocery shopping....etc. I benefited my father by getting him full disability benefits from the VA. due to him getting asbetos in his lung from fighting in the war. ($1,600 more per month). For the best interest of my father, I helped sell his condo so that he wouldn't have to pay maintenace on it since he wasn't living in it.$5,400 a year, plus another $800 taxes. I never asked my father for money, I never was given any money or stole any money.

My father put me on as a trustee as he knew that I would divide up the money equally between my siblings. It cost my father no money to put me on as trustee, but now its costing him with you being the sole trustee thousands of dollars between your fees and your lawyer fees.

You were hired as a guardian to safeguard his money and to get money that his owed to him returned to him and nothing more. Now, you are abusing your powers as a guardian and costing my father thousands of dollars to unnecessarily remove me as trustee who did nothing wrong.

Why did you want to be sole trustee for my father? How much are you going to charge or make off my father as a trustee and as a guardian?

15 MS. MORRIS: Those are the documents that
16 you asked for that are separate from the
17 request to produce you sent, which is not due
18 until I think the 14th. These are the
19 documents that you asked Betsy for during her
20 deposition certain questions. I made a note
21 that I would produce them for you. A lot was
22 communication with Dan Wein or other -- I think
23 it was mostly Dan Wein. You asked for emails
24 and other communications, so you have all of
25 that there.

2 THEREUPON,
3 ELIZABETH SAVITT,
4 being by the undersigned Notary Public first duly
5 sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
6 THE WITNESS: I do.
7 CONT. DIRECT (ELIZABETH SAVITT)
8 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
9 Q. Let me go through this real quick. Your
10 attorney said you provided or she provided some
11 documents that we requested at the last deposition.
12 Those documents that were provided or handed to me
13 was a 1040 U.S. Income Tax Return for Robert Wein
14 just the first page. Do you know where the rest of 15 the tax return is?
16 A. Can I see it?
17 MS. MORRIS: Just yes or no.
18 THE WITNESS: I'll find it. Yes. Maybe.
19 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
20 Q. So you're going to produce it?
21 MS. MORRIS: No, not necessarily. It may
22 be privileged. You asked her if she knows
23 where it is. She said yes.
24 MR. ROSENWATER: Well, I don't know if
25 it's privileged. She provided the first page,

09:11:46-09:13:01 Page 131

1 so it's not privileged.
2 MS. MORRIS: That's what we're providing.
3 MR. ROSENWATER: Are you objecting that
4 it's privilege? What's the privilege?
5 MS. MORRIS: I don't know yet. You can
6 send a follow-up request to produce if you want
7 the full tax return.
8 MR. ROSENWATER: We're not going to send a
9 follow-up request. We requested documents
10 pursuant to our duces tecum, and you haven't
11 provided all of the documents. We'll take it
12 up with the court.
13 MS. MORRIS: I've objected to the whole
14 file that you -- and I produced the documents
15 that I felt were not objectionable, Bruce.
16 MR. ROSENWATER: You provide the first
17 page, but no other page of the tax return?
18 MS. MORRIS: That's right.
19 MR. ROSENWATER: We'll bring that up with
20 the court.
21 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
22 Q. You produced some documents regarding a
23 B of A core checking account 3992. It doesn't say
24 whose account it was for. Whose account is this 25 for?

09:13:33-09:15:14 Page 132

1 A. It's the guardianship account.
2 Q. When was that account opened?
3 A. I'm not sure.
4 Q. Are those complete records for that
5 account?
6 A. Oh, here we go. September 29th.
7 Q. Are those the complete records for this
8 account?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. And whose handwriting is this on these 11 accounts?
12 A. My assistant.
13 Q. Who is your assistant?
14 A. Kiriam.
15 Q. Who?
16 A. Kiriam.
17 Q. Is that the first name or last name?
18 A. Kiriam Ruiz.
19 Q. On 4/13/2015 there's check number 200 to
20 Morgan Stanley. It says condo for $200,000. Can
21 you explain that entry?
22 A. Can I see it? I think condo is a mistake.
23 I'm not sure exactly, but I think this is the
24 Paraveda funds that came back.
25 Q. It's what, for the court reporter?

09:15:31-09:16:19 Page 133

1 A. It's not condo. It's Paraveda.
2 Q. What is Paraveda?
3 A. Paraveda is an investment that Robert had
4 that came due.
5 Q. So the --
6 A. It was sent to Morgan Stanley.
7 Q. Was that an investment or was that a
8 promissory note?
9 A. Investment.
10 (Reporter clarification.)
11 THE WITNESS: P-A-R-A-V-E-D-A.
12 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
13 Q. Are there any other monies that are due
14 from Paraveda?
15 A. No.
16 Q. Are there any promissory notes entered
17 into with Paraveda?
18 A. No.
19 Q. Is there a number of outstanding
20 promissory notes for monies that Robert Wein lent
21 individuals and companies to?
22 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Relevance. Go
23 ahead.
24 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
25 Q. Are there promissory notes?

09:16:25-09:17:04 Page 134

1 THE WITNESS: Am I supposed to answer?
2 MS. MORRIS: Yes. You can answer.
3 THE WITNESS: There are promissory notes,
4 yes.
5 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
6 Q. Who are the promissory notes from?
7 MS. MORRIS: I want a standing irrelevant
8 objection to this line of questioning.
9 THE WITNESS: I don't have them.
10 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
11 Q. Have you made any effort to collect on
12 these promissory notes?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. What efforts have you done?
15 A. Tried to collect them.
16 Q. How did you try to collect them?
17 A. They're all different.
18 Q. Tell me.
19 A. Well, they're in the inventory.
20 Q. They're in the inventory that these are
21 monies that are owed to the guardianship, to the
22 ward. But how did you collect them? In the
23 inventory it said --
24 A. I'm in the process of collecting them.
25 Q. In the process? What are you doing? Have

09:17:16-09:18:02 Page 135

1 you sent out demand letters?
2 A. I've been calling and speaking to the
3 people that owe the money.
4 Q. And your records reflect that?
5 A. Possibly.
6 Q. You've been the guardian for almost eight
7 months now. These monies have been due and
8 outstanding since that time. You filed no court
9 action or sent any demand letters to these
10 individuals or companies?
11 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Irrelevant and
12 argumentative.
13 You can answer.
14 THE WITNESS: I've done many things to
15 collect these monies.
16 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
17 Q. What are the many things that you've done?
18 A. Mostly telephone calls.
19 Q. And your records would reflect that?
20 A. Possibly.
21 Q. Have you collected any of these monies?
22 A. Not yet -- that's wrong. I take that
23 back. I have collected some of them.
24 Q. What have you collected?
25 A. The interest from the Copa Cabana loan.

09:18:23-09:19:51 Page 136

1 Q. Is that note due?
2 A. It's not a -- it doesn't have a due date.
3 I'm collecting interest.
4 MS. MORRIS: There's an irrelevant
5 objection to all of those questions.
6 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
7 Q. On February 18, 2015, check number 182,
8 you paid yourself $5,000 for guardianship fees.
9 Did you get court approval for those fees?
10 A. No.
11 Q. On March 11th, 2015, check number 190 to
12 Elder Law Associates for $4,146.85, did you get
13 court approval for that check?
14 A. No.
15 Q. Have you petitioned the court for
16 guardianship fees?
17 A. No.
18 Q. Do you intend to?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. When do you intend to do so?
21 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Irrelevant.
22 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
23 Q. You can answer the question.
24 A. I don't know.
25 Q. On November 17, 2014, you wrote a check

09:20:14-09:21:23 Page 137

1 for $3,577.50 to Elder Law Associates. Did you get
2 court approval for that?
3 A. No.
4 Q. On October 29th, 2014, you wrote a check
5 to yourself for guardian fees for $3,000. Did you
6 get court approval for that?
7 A. No.
8 MS. MORRIS: Standing irrelevant objection
9 to all of these questions, please.
10 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
11 Q. On October 22nd, 2014, you wrote a check
12 to Ellen Morris for $1,137.50. Did you get court
13 approval?
14 A. No.
15 Q. On December 15, 2014, you wrote a check to
16 Mitchell Kitroser for $13,972.52.
17 (Reporter clarification.)
18 MR. ROSENWATER: $13,972.52.
19 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
20 Q. Is that correct, you wrote a check to
21 Mitchell Kitroser?
22 A. I did.
23 Q. Was that pursuant to a court order?
24 A. I believe so.
25 Q. Have you paid yourself more than the

09:21:57-09:22:42 Page 138

1 $5,000 and the $3,000 that I just asked you
2 about?
3 A. No.
4 Q. Do you have billing records?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. Did you bring those?
7 A. No.
8 Q. Weren't they asked for at the last
9 deposition and requested as part of the notice of
10 taking deposition duces tecum?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. Why didn't you bring them?
13 A. I don't have them finished yet.
14 Q. Why didn't you bring what you had
15 completed?
16 A. It doesn't let me do that.
17 Q. You can't print it out?
18 A. I can't print out the incomplete invoice.
19 Q. So from October 2014 to June 10th, 2015,
20 you have not completed one invoice in this case?
21 A. I haven't invoiced for this guardianship
22 yet, no.
23 Q. But you've paid yourself $8,000?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. What was that based upon?
26 A. What was due and owing at the time I paid

09:22:50-09:23:42 Page 139

1 it.
2 Q. Off of your billing records?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. And you can't print a partial billing
5 record?
6 A. Not on my program.
7 Q. What program do you have?
8 A. Rocket Matter.
9 Q. Are you going to provide those records?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. When are you going to provide those?
12 MS. MORRIS: Subject to any privilege
13 redaction.
14 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
15 Q. When are you going to provide those
16 records?
17 A. By the date that they're due.
18 Q. You have a gmail account?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. And you communicate with Dan Wein via
21 email at Dan Wein's email address:
22 DWein5680@aol.com?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. And you provided us with copies of emails
25 that you've had with Dan Wein regarding Robert

09:23:51-09:25:07 Page 140

1 Wein?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. The emails that you provided are all of
4 the emails that you've had with Dan Wein since the
5 beginning of this matter?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. Now, on some of these emails you've
8 redacted information from these emails. Why did
9 you redact the information?
10 A. Because it wasn't specific to what we're
11 here for today.
12 Q. What are you discussing with Dan Wein
13 other than Robert Wein? What other matters are you
14 discussing with him?
15 A. His healthcare, finances.
16 Q. Robert Wein's healthcare and finances?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. That's not relevant to the guardianship?
19 A. It doesn't have anything to do with the
20 annulment or the trust issues.
21 Q. Dan Wein sent you an email on November 20,
22 2014. The first half of the email is redacted.
23 But it says thereafter: Insofar as Vita, I
24 understand she is on Medicare. If so, she can see
25 any doctor that accepts Medicare and pays the

09:25:23-09:26:33 Page 141

1 co-payment. The best approach is to have the
2 marriage annulled and then have her go on Medicaid
3 when all expenses are paid.
4 Did Dan Wein send you this email?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. Whose idea was it to have the marriage
7 annulled, yours or Dan Wein's?
8 A. I don't know.
9 Q. You don't know?
10 A. No.
11 Q. Did you have any emails with him or
12 discussions with him prior to this email of
13 November 20, 2014, regarding the annulment of the
14 marriage?
15 A. I'm not sure.
16 Q. Why were these discussions made with Dan
17 Wein regarding Robert Wein's marriage to Vita Wein?
18 A. I'm not sure.
19 Q. Why does Dan Wein have any standing to
20 have this marriage annulled?
21 A. I don't know if he does.
22 Q. Why are you discussing this as the ward?
23 Isn't that information that shouldn't be discussed
24 with the brother, his marriage?
25 A. I can't prevent him from emailing me.

09:26:50-09:27:13 Page 142

1 Q. He emails you on November 20, 2014, at
2 10:00 p.m. saying: The best approach is to have
3 the marriage annulled and then have her go on
4 Medicaid when all expenses are paid. Is that
5 correct?
6 A. That's part of that email.
7 Q. What is the rest of the email?
8 MS. MORRIS: Objection. The document
9 speaks for itself.
10 MR. ROSENWATER: She said she's --
11 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
12 Q. What's the rest of the email?
13 MS. MORRIS: Well, obviously it's part of
14 the email. There's already --
15 MR. ROSENWATER: She said that's --
16 MS. MORRIS: -- testimony that there's
17 redactions as to the healthcare or other issues
18 that are not relevant to what we're here for.
19 I don't understand the question.
20 MR. ROSENWATER: Can you repeat the
21 question.
22 (The preceding question was read back by
23 the Reporter.)
24 MR. ROSENWATER: Go back to her answer.
25 (A portion of the record was read back by

09:27:54-09:28:50 Page 143

1 the Reporter.)
2 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
3 Q. What is the rest of the email?
4 A. It's right there.
5 Q. Here. Tell me what is the rest of the
6 email.
7 MS. MORRIS: Objection to anything that's
8 redacted. Obviously she's not testifying to
9 that.
10 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
11 Q. I'm talking about the annulment.
12 A. In the rest of the email he's talking
13 about Vita's social worker at Jewish Home Life in
14 the Bronx, and that social worker told him that
15 Vita was on Medicaid. He wants to know when did
16 she go off Medicaid and back on Medicare, which she
17 says she's presently on.
18 Q. What relevance does that have to do with
19 ward?
20 A. I don't know.
21 Q. On November 20th Dan Wein emails you about
22 having the marriage annulled. Then on November
23 21st, one day after that, you email Jody Rich and
24 suggest that Vita -- the best approach is to have
25 the marriage annulled and then have her go back on

09:29:10-09:29:58 Page 144

1 Medicaid when all expenses are paid, housing,
2 doctors, hospital, et cetera. Is that correct?
3 A. If that's what you're reading.
4 Q. Well, look at it.
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. So Dan Wein on the 20th tells you that the
7 marriage should be annulled. You email Jody Rich
8 the next day saying, the best approach is to have
9 the marriage annulled. Whose idea was it to have
10 the marriage annulled, yours or Dan Wein's?
11 A. I don't know.
12 Q. You don't know?
13 A. No.
14 Q. At your last deposition you said that
15 Robert Wein wanted his marriage annulled, and he
16 told you in January of 2015. Do you recall that?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. And you said that was the first time that
19 came up, correct?
20 A. The first time it came up with Robert.
21 Q. So prior to January of 2015, Robert never
22 said anything about his marriage being annulled?
23 A. I can't remember.
24 Q. Did you have any discussions with Robert
25 prior to January of 2015 regarding these emails and

09:30:13-09:30:55 Page 145

1 discussions that you had with Dan Wein for the best
2 approach for the marriage to be annulled so Vita
3 can go on Medicaid?
4 A. No. That was concerning Jody's request
5 for health insurance for Vita.
6 Q. So you've never had discussions with
7 Robert Wein prior to January of 2015 --
8 A. No. I didn't say that.
9 Q. -- regarding the annulment of the
10 marriage?
11 A. I didn't say that.
12 Q. When did you first have discussions
13 with --
14 A. I don't remember exactly.
15 Q. Would your -- do you take notes? Do you
16 have notes on the guardianship?
17 A. Some notes.
18 Q. Did you provide those notes?
19 A. They would be in the emails or --
20 MS. MORRIS: Unless they were objected to.
21 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
22 Q. You have other notes as well, correct?
23 A. No.
24 Q. You don't -- you visit Robert Wein on such
25 and such date. You don't take notes on what took

09:31:09-09:32:09 Page 146

1 place on that visit? You don't have a journal?
2 A. No.
3 Q. How do you document what took place with
4 the ward if anything needed to be done? For
5 example, you met the ward today.
6 A. It would be in my billing.
7 Q. Your billing records would reflect
8 conversations or the extent of what was done?
9 A. Possibly.
10 Q. If they're not in the billing records,
11 where would they be?
12 A. Then I probably don't have them.
13 CERTIFIED QUESTION
14 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
15 Q. Did you speak with Mitchell Kitroser
16 regarding the annulment of Robert Wein's marriage?
17 A. Yes.
18 MS. MORRIS: Objection.
19 MR. ROSENWATER: What is your objection?
20 MS. MORRIS: Mitchell Kitroser was the
21 attorney for Robert Wein. The attorney/client
22 privilege extends to fiduciaries. Betsy is
23 Robert Wein's fiduciary. Any conversation that
24 she had with Mitchell Kitroser is privileged
25 attorney/client communication.

1 MR. ROSENWATER: If there's a discussion.
2 I've asked if she had any discussions. That's
3 not privileged.
4 MS. MORRIS: It actually is.
5 MR. ROSENWATER: It is not.
6 MS. MORRIS: It is. And I'm directing you
7 not to answer.
8 MR. ROSENWATER: That's not privileged.
9 Again mark that. We'll certify that and
10 bring that up before the court.
11 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
12 Q. So you're not going to testify that you
13 had any discussions with Mitchell Kitroser?
14 A. No.
15 Q. Did you review his report that he filed
16 with the court?
17 A. I did.
18 Q. Did his report indicate anything about
19 Robert Wein's marriage?
20 A. I can't remember the report exactly. I'd
21 have to read it again.
22 Q. When is the last time you read his report?
23 A. At the very beginning of the guardianship.
24 Q. I'm handing you the report of the court
25 appointed counsel, which was Mitchell Kitroser.

1 Have you seen that report before?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. The report was signed on October 14, 2014,
4 by Mitchell Kitroser, correct?
5 A. Signed, yes.
6 Q. And you read that report?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. Did you have any objections to the report?
9 A. Not at the time.
10 Q. Do you have objections to the report now?
11 A. I don't know. I'll have to reread it.
12 Q. You said, not at the time. I mean, either
13 you have objections or not. Have you filed any 14 objections to the report?
15 A. No.
16 Q. What are your objections to the report, if
17 any?
18 A. I would have to reread it and let you know
19 if I have an objection.
20 Q. Wouldn't you know now?
21 A. No. I don't know. I haven't reread it
22 since beginning of the guardianship.
23 Q. So you haven't looked at it since the
24 beginning of the guardianship. But you're saying
25 you may have objections to it. But you haven't

1 filed any objections with the court?
2 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Argumentative.
3 MR. ROSENWATER: She can't answer the
4 question. It's amazing.
5 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
6 Q. Let me direct your attention to page five
7 of the report. Do you have page five?
8 A. You want me to read the whole report?
9 MS. MORRIS: No. He wants you to go to
10 page five.
11 THE WITNESS: Okay.
12 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
13 Q. Do you see the stipulation as to the
14 rights to be removed?
15 A. The rights that will be delegated to the
16 guardian. Is that what you're looking at?
17 Q. No. On page five, the stipulation as
18 to --
19 A. Stipulation, okay, uh-huh.
20 Q. And Mr. Kitroser says that Mr. Wein
21 recalls that he remarried his former wife Vita and 22 wishes to remain married. Have you read that
23 before?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. (Reading.) And for the purposes of this

1 hearing in this matter, Mr. Wein states that he no
2 longer has the need to marry in the future and has
3 no need to retain this right. Correct?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. When Mr. Kitroser filed this report, did
6 you file any objections to that?
7 A. No.
8 Q. Do you object to his statement that
9 Mr. Wein wishes to be remain married to his wife?
10 A. Do I what?
11 Q. Do you have an objection to his statement
12 that Mr. Wein wishes to remain married?
13 A. I don't have an objection to what he's
14 saying.
15 Q. And he was the court-appointed attorney
16 for the ward, correct?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. And your petition to annul is based upon
19 statements that Robert Wein made to you?
20 MS. MORRIS: It's a petition for authority
21 to annul. Let's just be clear what we're on.
22 This is not the annulment petition. It's a
23 petition for authority to annul.
24 MR. ROSENWATER: I understand that. But
25 I'm trying to find out why there's even a basis

1 for authority to annul.
2 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
3 Q. What is your basis for filing this
4 petition?
5 A. Conversations with Mr. Wein.
6 Q. And Mr. Wein has said to you, I don't want
7 to be married to Vita Wein?
8 A. Correct.
9 Q. When were those conversations?
10 A. I don't have the exact date.
11 MR. ROSENWATER: Let's enter this as
12 Exhibit --
13 (Off-the-record discussion.)
14 (Vita Wein's Exhibit 20, Report of
15 Court-Appointed Counsel.)
16 MR. ROSENWATER: Let's mark as Composite
17 Exhibit 21 the additional documents that were
18 produced today.
19 (Vita Wein's Exhibit 21, Documents
20 Produced at Deposition.)
21 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
22 Q. Has Robert Wein ever had any recent
23 discussions with you stating that he wanted to
24 remain married?
25 A. He called me on the telephone.

1 correct?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. And on May 20th did he have discussions
4 with you regarding his marriage to Vita?
5 A. It wasn't a discussion, no.
6 Q. Did he say anything to you about his
7 marriage being annulled?
8 A. No.
9 Q. Did he say that he wanted to be married to
10 Vita?
11 A. Possibly.
12 Q. Well, what did he say to you?
13 A. I don't have it written in front of me.
14 Q. So you had a telephone conversation on
15 May 20th with Robert Wein. You didn't visit him on 16 that day. Would it be reflected in your billing
17 records?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. So your billing records would indicate
20 what you talked to Robert Wein on May 20th about,
21 correct?
22 A. Or my notes.
23 Q. So you have notes as well. Where do you
24 take notes?
25 A. On my Rocket program.

1 Q. When?
2 A. The day after our deposition.
3 Q. And what did he say?
4 A. He said -- I don't know exactly.
5 Q. Why did he call you?
6 A. I'm not sure.
7 Q. What did you say to him?
8 A. I just listened to him.
9 Q. You didn't say anything to him?
10 A. I asked him who was there.
11 Q. Who did he say?
12 A. He said Jody and Vita.
13 Q. And what else? That's it? That was your
14 whole conversation?
15 A. No. It wasn't the whole conversation.
16 Q. What else did you speak with Robert on
17 that day. And that would be May 20th, correct,
18 because your deposition was taken on May 19th?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. So it was approximately a little less than 21 three weeks ago?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. So Robert Wein called you on May 20th.
24 And he said he -- he asked you. Strike that.
25 Robert Wein called you on May 20th,

1 Q. Is that connected with your billing
2 program?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. So when you print your invoice, your notes
5 would come up as well?
6 A. No. I have to print my notes.
7 Q. So your notes are separate? You don't
8 have to finalize your billing to print your notes,
9 correct?
10 A. Correct.
11 Q. Did you bring your notes on the 12 guardianship file with you today?
13 A. No.
14 Q. Why not?
15 A. Because I haven't printed them yet.
16 Q. Weren't you asked for that at your last
17 deposition?
18 A. Yes. But I haven't finished it yet.
19 Q. Did you say you were going to produce them
20 at the deposition with the emails and the billing
21 records?
22 A. No. I said I would produce them when they
23 were due.
24 Q. I don't think so.
25 A. Well, I produced all of the emails.

1 Q. You knew your deposition was renoticed for
2 June 10th, and the purpose of renoticing the
3 deposition was to go over the documents that were
4 requested, right?
5 A. Correct.
6 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Argumentative.
7 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
8 Q. I guess we're going to have to continue
9 your deposition again because you haven't provided
10 the records. Is that okay with you?
11 A. No.
12 Q. Are you going to provide the records?
13 A. Yes.
14 MS. MORRIS: They're due on the 14th. You
15 served your notice prior and asked for
16 documents before your request for production
17 due date. We gave you professional courtesy
18 and produced whatever we could produce before
19 that time. We filed an objection to your duces
20 tecum in your depo, which was overbroad, and
21 we'll produce whatever we're not objecting to
22 according to your request for production.
23 MR. ROSENWATER: You had a notice of
24 taking deposition pursuant to the guardian's
25 deposition. You were supposed to provide those

1 and didn't respond?
2 A. Yes. He gave a speech.
3 Q. You said nothing?
4 A. Not until he was done.
5 Q. What did you say when he was done?
6 A. I said, who's there with you.
7 Q. Other than that, what did you say?
8 A. That's it.
9 Q. Did you discuss Larry Wein with him?
10 A. I don't think so.
11 Q. Would your notes reflect that?
12 A. They would.
13 Q. You said he gave a speech. What was the
14 speech that he gave to you?
15 A. Something about, I don't want to change
16 anything.
17 Q. Meaning his estate documents?
18 A. I don't know what he meant.
19 Q. And then after this discussion on
20 May 20th, did you have any other discussions with
21 Robert Wein regarding the annulment of his marriage
22 or his estate documents?
23 A. He called again with Vita from Vita's
24 phone. And I have to look to see exactly what he
25 said.

1 documents unless you had an objection. You
2 didn't object to the billing records. You said
3 you were going to provide the billing records.
4 MS. MORRIS: We objected in total to your
5 notice as overbroad.
6 MR. ROSENWATER: We'll file a motion.
7 MS. MORRIS: Go right ahead. File
8 whatever you want.
9 MR. ROSENWATER: You guys don't provide
10 anything.
11 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
12 Q. So on May 20th you had a discussion with 13 Robert Wein. You don't recall what was discussed
14 in this conversation?
15 A. I do.
16 Q. What was discussed?
17 A. He called and he spoke. We didn't discuss
18 anything.
19 Q. Well, when someone calls, isn't that a
20 discussion? You responded to him, correct?
21 A. No.
22 Q. He just said, hello, Betsy, this is Robert
23 Wein?
24 A. (Nodding head.)
25 Q. And you just sat there shaking your head

1 Q. You don't know what he said?
2 A. Well, he said something about, I want to
3 pay for Vita.
4 Q. And what did you say to him?
5 A. I don't remember.
6 Q. And when was that conversation?
7 A. Sometime after the first conversation.
8 Q. So it was sometime after May 20th?
9 A. Yes. A couple days later.
10 Q. So less than two weeks ago?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. And you don't recall the conversation?
13 A. I don't recall exactly the conversation.
14 Q. Well, can you paraphrase the conversation?
15 A. I just did.
16 Q. What do you recall of the conversation?
17 A. I just paraphrased it.
18 Q. Just that I want to pay for Vita?
19 A. I want to pay for Vita. I want to leave
20 everything as it.
21 Q. Were there any other conversations with
22 Robert after that conversation?
23 A. No.
24 Q. No other telephone conversations?
25 A. No.

09:46:05-09:46:39 Page 159

1 Q. Did you meet with him?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. When did you meet with him?
4 A. I'll provide you with that date.
5 Q. You don't have that?
6 A. Not on me, no.
7 Q. Approximately?
8 A. Approximately sometime between then and
9 now.
10 Q. When is then?
11 A. The last deposition.
12 Q. Well, it had to be after May 20th,
13 correct?
14 A. Yes. It was after May 20th, correct.
15 Q. And then a few days after that you had a
16 conversation with him, you said, a telephone
17 conversation?
18 A. Right.
19 Q. It was after that conversation, correct?
20 A. I'm not sure.
21 Q. You don't review your notes and records
22 before you come to these depositions?
23 A. It could have been before that. I was
24 busy copying the emails.
25 Q. How many guardianships do you have right

09:46:49-09:47:35 Page 160

1 now?
2 A. I don't know exactly.
3 Q. What about approximately?
4 A. I have all different things. I have
5 trusts. I have full plenary guardianships. I have
6 guardian advocates. They're all different. When
7 you say "guardianships," guardianships, I don't
8 have very many.
9 Q. How many, less than five?
10 A. Six.
11 Q. These are six ongoing guardianships?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. You're court appointed for each of them?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. What other matters are you working on?
16 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Irrelevant.
17 Don't answer.
18 MR. ROSENWATER: It's not.
19 MS. MORRIS: I'm instructing her not to
20 answer, Bruce. Move on.
21 MR. ROSENWATER: It's relevant because
22 she's not recalling anything. I want to know
23 how busy she is. She can't provide these
24 records.
25 MS. MORRIS: That's not what you asked.

09:47:41-09:48:20 Page 161

1 You asked what do they involve.
2 MR. ROSENWATER: I said, what other
3 records are you working on, what other cases do
4 you have.
5 MS. MORRIS: She said six.
6 MR. ROSENWATER: Six guardianships. She
7 said she was busy and had other matters and she
8 hasn't --
9 MS. MORRIS: What types of other cases?
10 MR. ROSENWATER: Yeah. What types of
11 other cases.
12 MS. MORRIS: Okay. You can answer that.
13 THE WITNESS: I have guardian advocates.
14 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
15 Q. What is a guardian advocate?
16 A. Oh, boy. A guardian advocate is different
17 from a regular guardianship. It deals with people
18 who are incapacitated from birth.
19 Q. How many cases do you have?
20 A. I don't know exactly.
21 Q. Approximately.
22 A. Three.
23 Q. What other matters are you handling?
24 A. Special needs trusts.
25 Q. How many special needs trusts are you

09:48:33-09:49:35 Page 162

1 involved in?
2 A. Five.
3 Q. Any other matters you're presently working
4 on?
5 A. Estates.
6 Q. Estate what?
7 A. Personal representative.
8 Q. How many estates?
9 A. Two.
10 Q. Court appointed?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. Any other matters?
13 A. No.
14 Q. On November 28th, 2014, you have an email
15 with Dan Wein regarding the eviction of Larry Wein.
16 Is that it?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. Yes? Correct?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. Why did you get involved in Larry Wein's
21 eviction?
22 A. Bob asked me to.
23 Q. Those are in your notes?
24 A. No.
25 Q. Larry Wein is an adult, right?

1 A. Yes.
2 Q. Again, in this email on Friday,
3 November 28th, Dan Wein says: Bob's marriage to
4 Vita has to be annulled. I prepared a brief
5 delineating the reasons to annul the marriage and
6 reversed, revised and restated trust of
7 August 25th, 2014. I will email the brief to you
8 within a day or so.
9 Did you provide that brief?
10 A. I believe so, yes.
11 Q. So Dan Wein emails you on Wednesday,
12 December 31st, 2014: Have you made progress on the
13 reversal of the trust and annulment of the
14 marriage. Was my brief of any help to you?
15 Is he telling you what to do regarding
16 this guardianship?
17 A. He's sending emails.
18 Q. You're aware that Dan Wein took out a
19 large amount of money from Robert Wein's accounts
20 prior to this guardianship? Are you aware of that?
21 A. No.
22 Q. Bob Wein never told you that?
23 A. No.
24 Q. No one ever told you that?
25 A. No.

1 Q. The annulment and amending the estate
2 documents?
3 A. He has a lot of documentation.
4 Q. What documentation does he have?
5 A. Whatever he's given us.
6 Q. What has he given you? I'm asking you.
7 A. Anything we have that came from Dan,
8 documentation, or Jody. I started the guardianship
9 with nothing, so...
10 Q. So you started the guardianship with
11 nothing and Dan Wein and Jody Rich provided you
12 with documentation?
13 A. Correct.
14 Q. When you went to court the first time
15 regarding this matter, did you meet with Jody Rich?
16 A. I met her, yes.
17 Q. Did she provide a package to you?
18 A. Sometime later she sent a package.
19 Q. What was in the package?
20 A. I don't recall exactly. I have it in my
21 file.
22 Q. Was it the estate documents for Robert
23 Wein?
24 A. Some of them, yes.
25 Q. So at your last deposition you said that

1 Q. Did Jody Rich tell you that?
2 A. No.
3 Q. Jody Rich never said that?
4 A. No.
5 Q. Didn't she give you a note telling you
6 about that?
7 A. What are we referring to?
8 Q. That Dan Wein took a large amount of money
9 from Bob Wein?
10 A. A large amount of money? How much money
11 are we talking about?
12 Q. $100,000.
13 A. No. I didn't hear that.
14 Q. Did you know that Dan Wein tried to take
15 $200,000 after his power of attorney was revoked
16 from Robert Wein's account?
17 A. No.
18 Q. Do you feel it's appropriate to talk to
19 Dan Wein regarding these issues?
20 A. What issues?
21 Q. His annulment and financial issues?
22 A. If I need to.
23 Q. Why do you need to speak to him regarding
24 these issues?
25 A. Which issues?

1 Ellen Wein provided -- Ellen Morris provided those
2 documents to you. Who provided the estate
3 documents for Robert Wein to you, Jody Rich or
4 Ellen Morris?
5 A. Well, there are lots of estate documents,
6 so I don't know which ones you're asking about.
7 Q. At some time Jody Rich provided these
8 documents to you, estate documents?
9 A. Correct. Correct.
10 Q. And you're aware that she had these estate
11 documents?
12 A. I have to look in the file to see which 13 ones she had. I'm sure she had -- I know she had
14 the second trust.
15 Q. Did you ever ask her how she got these
16 estate documents?
17 A. I don't think so, no.
18 Q. Your attorney is alleging that these
19 documents are privileged?
20 A. Correct.
21 Q. You sent an email to Dan Wein on January
22 30, 2015. It says: I hear you, and I'm making an
23 appointment with Bob to take him to see my
24 attorney. I will let you know when. I had a very
25 nice call with Bob. He said nice things about you.

1 Do you recall this email?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. What did Bob say?
4 A. In his conversation with me?
5 Q. Yeah, on January 30th, 2015.
6 A. He said that he loved his brother and he
7 wanted to redact anything negative he's ever -- he
8 has said to anyone about his brother.
9 Q. So you can remember this conversation on
10 January 30th, 2015, which was almost six months
11 ago, but you can't recall your conversation last
12 week with Bob Wein?
13 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Argumentative.
14 Stating facts not in evidence. That's not what
15 she testified to.
16 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
17 Q. You say: I'm making an appointment with
18 Bob to take him to see my attorney. What were you
19 taking Bob to see the attorney for?
20 A. He wanted to annul the marriage and change
21 his trust documents.
22 Q. This was after he was already determined
23 to be incapacitated and show that he had dementia,
24 correct?
25 A. Correct.

1 those testimonies from the two people --
2 MS. MORRIS: They're right here. Hang on.
3 THE WITNESS: -- his two friends and
4 then --
5 MS. MORRIS: Hang on.
6 THE WITNESS: (Inaudible.)
7 THE REPORTER: I can't hear what you're
8 saying.
9 MS. MORRIS: I don't know that this needs
10 to be on the record.
11 MR. ROSENWATER: It does.
12 MS. MORRIS: You want this on the record?
13 MR. ROSENWATER: Yeah.
14 MS. MORRIS: Okay. I'm finding the
15 affidavits that are the additional documents
16 for her and handing them to Bruce.
17 MR. ROSENWATER: Or throwing them.
18 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
19 Q. Who had these affidavits prepared?
20 A. I don't know.
21 Q. Did you instruct Dan Wein to get these
22 affidavits prepared?
23 A. No.
24 Q. So Dan Wein on his own got these
25 affidavits from these individuals?

1 Q. He didn't have the ability to contract?
2 A. Correct.
3 Q. And you're trying to set aside the 2014
4 amendment because he didn't have the capacity to
5 enter into those documents; is that correct?
6 MS. MORRIS: Objection. That is
7 misstating facts in evidence. That's not what
8 the petition says.
9 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
10 Q. There's an email from Dan Wein to you on
11 Monday, February 9, 2015. It says: Attached are
12 some documents I meant to give you this afternoon.
13 They are files, an email from Mitch Kitroser, which
14 of course was not paying Vita's attorney and two 15 separate affidavits which support the annulment of
16 Bob's marriage to Vita.
17 Do you recall that email?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. Did you attach those documents?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Can you show me where they are?
22 MS. MORRIS: Let me look. It will
23 probably be easier.
24 THE WITNESS: I wrote back and sent them
25 yesterday. These additional documents were

1 A. I don't know who got them.
2 Q. Dan Wein provided these documents to you,
3 correct?
4 A. On this day he did, yes, February 9th.
5 Q. And there's also an email from Mitch
6 Kitroser on February 9th. Do you have that email
7 from Mitch Kitroser?
8 MS. MORRIS: This is an email from Mitch
9 Kitroser that's dated October 13th, 2014.
10 Here's another email that's part of an email
11 string where there's an email contained from
12 Mitch Kitroser in it dated somewhere also in 13 October. Those are the only emails that you
14 have.
15 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
16 Q. So the two emails that were handed to me
17 by your attorney from Mitch Kitroser, are those the
18 emails that were attached to this email of
19 February 9th that Dan Wein provided to you?
20 A. I don't know exactly. I can look it up
21 again.
22 Q. Did you speak with Larry Wein regarding
23 his affidavit that he filed?
24 A. No.
25 Q. In paragraph three Larry Wein states: My

10:02:06-10:02:44 Page 171

1 father has been manipulated, coerced and exploited
2 by his caretaker, Delores Bryant, my mother Vita
3 and other third parties such as Jody Rich.
4 You never spoke to him about this?
5 A. No.
6 Q. You didn't think it was important to speak
7 to him about this?
8 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Argumentative.
9 Asked and answered.
10 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
11 Q. Did you think it was important to speak
12 with these individuals regarding the allegations
13 made by Robert Wein's son?
14 A. I've never spoken to Larry Wein.
15 Q. You've never spoken to him?
16 A. No.
17 Q. Does Larry Wein have any type of mental 18 issues?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. Do you know what they are?
21 A. Not exactly.
22 Q. How did you find out about his mental
23 issues?
24 A. From his family members.
25 Q. What did they tell you about Larry Wein?

10:02:58-10:03:55 Page 172

1 A. That he has mental issues.
2 Q. Are you relying on his affidavit in this
3 case?
4 A. That's a legal question. I can't answer.
5 Q. Do you know who had -- strike that.
6 This affidavit of Eugene Kaplan, did you
7 speak with Mr. Kaplan?
8 A. No.
9 Q. This affidavit of, the first name is
10 S-U-R-U-J-E-A-Y-E, last name J-A-I-K-A-R-A-N, have
11 you spoken with this individual?
12 A. No.
13 Q. Do you know who this individual is?
14 A. A friend of Robert's.
15 Q. Do you know who Eugene Kaplan is?
16 A. Another friend of Robert's.
17 Q. Dan Wein provided those affidavits to you,
18 correct?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. He provided the marital settlement
21 agreement to you that was entered into evidence as
22 the last exhibit?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. And has he provided you with any other
25 documents regarding Robert and Vita's marriage?

10:04:09-10:05:07 Page 173

1 A. No. I don't believe so.
2 Q. Did he provide you with the marriage
3 license?
4 A. I don't think he did, no.
5 Q. Where did you obtain that document from?
6 A. From the courthouse, the clerk of court.
7 Q. The marriage license, did you speak to the
8 individual who performed the ceremony?
9 A. No.
10 Q. And I believe you've also attached to your
11 amended petition to appoint an attorney to annul
12 the marriage a marriage license application?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Who provided that application to you?
15 A. The clerk of court.
16 Q. When did you obtain that license?
17 A. I don't have the date.
18 Q. Did you go to the court directly and get
19 it?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Did you discuss that application with
22 Robert?
23 A. No.
24 Q. On the inventory that you prepared on
25 behalf of the ward, you indicated there's numerous

10:05:22-10:05:55 Page 174

1 individuals that have outstanding obligations to
2 the ward, correct?
3 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Irrelevant.
4 You can answer, Betsy.
5 THE WITNESS: Yes. There are people that
6 have monies owed.
7 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
8 Q. I believe Eugene Kaplan was one of the
9 individuals that owes Robert money, correct?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. Have you made any efforts to contact
12 Mr. Kaplan to collect these monies?
13 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Irrelevant.
14 THE WITNESS: Yes.
15 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
16 Q. What did you do?
17 A. Telephone calls.
18 Q. Did you send any demand letters?
19 A. No.
20 Q. Has Mr. Kaplan made any payments?
21 A. No.
22 Q. Do you know how much money he owes Robert
23 Wein?
24 A. No.
25 Q. You provided an email. I guess it was

1 from Ellen Morris to Mitchell Kitroser regarding
2 the Wein guardianship dated October 14, 2014. In
3 that email Ellen Morris states to Mitch Kitroser:
4 She maintains that Robert continues to say he wants
5 to live with and take care of Vita.
6 Is the "she" you?
7 A. Can I see it? Yes, that is me.
8 Q. So Robert was telling you in October
9 of 2014 that he wanted to remain married to Vita,
10 correct?
11 A. I think that he wants to continue taking
12 care of her.
13 Q. And he told you that last week or a few
14 weeks ago according to you, correct?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. On February 11th, 2015, you get an email
17 from Dan Wein and it says: Betsy, attached are the 18 cogent, ethical and fiduciary arguments to annul
19 the marriage.
20 Can you provide those to me? I don't see
21 where those are.
22 MS. MORRIS: They're there.
23 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
24 Q. So at your last deposition you said that
25 you met with Bob and yourself and Ellen Morris on

1 February 9th, 2015, and Bob wanted his marriage
2 annulled, correct?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. But this letter or email that Dan Wein
5 sent to you states: He was coerced by Vita and
6 Jody into a marriage he would never have partaken
7 in if he were not in a demented state. Bob's
8 statement on February 9, 2015, to Ellen Morris,
9 Esquire, that he wanted to stay married to Vita was
10 in variance to the statements made by Bob to me on 11 numerous occasions that he did not want to stay
12 married.
13 Is that a true and correct statement?
14 A. From Dan?
15 Q. Yes.
16 A. It appears to be.
17 Q. So you were discussing with Dan Wein
18 statements that Bob made to you and Ellen Morris,
19 correct?
20 A. Let me see the email again. What was your
21 question again?
22 Q. I asked if you were discussing statements
23 with Dan Wein that were made between you and Ellen
24 Morris and Robert Wein?
25 A. If I was discussing with Dan Wein

1 statements that --
2 Q. Took place in the presence of yourself and
3 Ellen Morris.
4 MS. MORRIS: Betsy, just put that down and
5 answer his question.
6 THE WITNESS: I'm not sure exactly.
7 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
8 Q. How would Dan Wein know that Bob made a
9 statement on February 9, 2015, to Ellen Morris that
10 he wanted to stay married to Vita?
11 A. I may have paraphrased our meeting.
12 Q. So you discussed attorney/client privilege
13 documentations to a person that's not a party to 14 this?
15 A. No. I paraphrased it.
16 Q. You said that Bob made statements that he
17 wanted to stay married to Vita.
18 MS. MORRIS: Objection. That's what Dan
19 said.
20 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
21 Q. You're saying that Dan is incorrect when
22 he's saying this to you?
23 A. Yes. He writes a lot of incorrect things
24 there.
25 Q. How do you know what's true and what's not

1 correct when he tells you stuff?
2 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Relevance as to
3 what Dan says that's true or not.
4 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
5 Q. Well, you're using Dan's information to
6 help you with your petition.
7 MS. MORRIS: Objection. That's actually
8 contrary to the testimony that was given.
9 MR. ROSENWATER: Not contrary. You can
10 question her. You have the right to
11 cross-examine her. You don't have the right --
12 file a legal objection. But speaking
13 objections aren't proper. You can't comment on
14 the question. If you have an objection to it,
15 state your objection. You're coaching your
16 witness.
17 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
18 Q. On February 9th, 2015, did Bob make a
19 statement to Ellen Morris that he wanted to stay
20 married to Vita?
21 A. I'm not sure exactly.
22 Q. Was Dan present at the meeting with you
23 and Ellen Morris and Bob?
24 A. No.
25 Q. Was anyone else there besides you, Bob and

10:14:12-10:15:59 Page 179

1 Ellen Morris?
2 A. No.
3 Q. Where would Dan Wein get this information
4 that Bob made a statement on February 9th, 2015, to
5 Ellen Morris that he wanted to stay married to
6 Vita?
7 A. I don't know.
8 Q. So according to Dan Wein on February 9,
9 2015, Bob wanted to stay married to Vita; is that
10 correct?
11 A. That's what Dan said.
12 Q. In October of 2014 Bob states and emails
13 and discusses that he wants -- strike that.
14 On October 14th your records indicate that
15 Robert Wein indicated to you that he wanted to stay
16 married to Vita, correct?
17 A. What's that, in an email?
18 Q. Yes.
19 A. Which one?
20 Q. An email from Ellen Morris to Manny
21 Kushner that we went over. It says: She maintains
22 that Robert continues to say he wants to live with
23 and take care of Vita?
24 A. Wants to live with and continue paying her
25 bills.

10:16:05-10:16:49 Page 180

1 MS. MORRIS: You said that was an email to
2 Manny Kushner. Isn't that an email to Mitch
3 Kitroser that you read prior?
4 MR. ROSENWATER: No. It's an email from
5 you to -- strike that. It was to Mitchell
6 Kushner (sic) and Manny Kushner.
7 MS. MORRIS: Cc'd Manny, I think.
8 MR. ROSENWATER: No. It was to --
9 MS. MORRIS: That's fine. I just wanted
10 to make sure I'm thinking about the same email
11 that you're talking about.
12 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
13 Q. And then on February 9th it appears that
14 Bob Wein told you that he wants to remain married
15 to Vita, correct?
16 A. No.
17 Q. So this is incorrect?
18 A. That's what Dan said.
19 Q. Dan wasn't present at the meeting,
20 correct?
21 A. Dan writes a whole long email. I can't
22 verify what Dan said was true or not.
23 Q. Well, where would he get this information
24 of what Bob's statements were on February 9th
25 regarding his marriage?

10:16:54-10:18:01 Page 181

1 A. I don't know.
2 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Asked and
3 answered.
4 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
5 Q. Dan was present at Ellen Morris's office
6 on that date, correct?
7 A. He drove Bob.
8 Q. Did you speak with Dan after this meeting?
9 A. I'm sure I spoke with him after the
10 meeting at some point.
11 Q. In May again, May of 2015, Bob called you
12 at least on two occasions recently you told us
13 stating that he wants to be married to Vita and
14 take care of her, correct?
15 A. He stated that he wanted to keep things
16 the same, and he wanted to continue paying for
17 Vita.
18 Q. And as the guardian for the ward, don't
19 you have the best interest of the ward?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. And if the ward wants something, isn't
22 that what you're supposed to provide?
23 A. Possibly.
24 Q. So are you going to provide -- are you
25 going to honor Bob's wishes to take care of Vita?

10:18:15-10:19:04 Page 182

1 A. If it's in his best interest.
2 Q. Are you going to dismiss your petition to
3 appoint an attorney to annul the marriage?
4 A. No.
5 Q. But Bob told you -- you're saying it's not
6 in Bob's best interest to remain married to Vita?
7 A. That's a legal question.
8 Q. Well, you're the guardian.
9 A. But it's a legal question.
10 Q. A legal question is it's in the best
11 interest that someone is going to be married to
12 someone?
13 A. It's a legal question that we're asking
14 the judge to decide.
15 Q. But Bob has told you. Your ward has
16 indicated to you on numerous occasions that he
17 wants to remain married to Vita and take care of
18 her.
19 A. He wants to continue paying for her. He
20 doesn't care if he continues paying for her or not.
21 It doesn't make any difference to him.
22 THE REPORTER: He doesn't care if he
23 continues paying for her or not?
24 THE WITNESS: Yeah.
25 BY MR. ROSENWATER:

10:19:12-10:20:13 Page 183

1 Q. You also want to amend his estate
2 documents based upon statements he's made to you,
3 correct?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. Have you ever asked him if he was happy
6 being married to Vita?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. What did he say?
9 A. He doesn't care.
10 Q. Have you ever asked him, do you want to 11 remain married to Vita?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. And what has he said?
14 A. No.
15 Q. And when did he say that?
16 A. When I talked to him in -- I don't know
17 the date. I have to look it up.
18 Q. You've asked him if he wanted to remain
19 married, and he says no. And he calls you and
20 says, I want to remain married to Vita. So he
21 keeps changing his mind, correct?
22 A. You could see it that way.
23 Q. So basically he could change his mind
24 depending on who asks the question and the date or
25 time, correct?

10:20:19-10:21:50 Page 184

1 A. Possibly.
2 Q. At this point he's suffering from
3 dementia, correct?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. And he doesn't have the ability to make
6 decisions regarding his marriage or his trust
7 documents, correct?
8 A. That's a legal question.
9 Q. I think at your last deposition didn't you
10 testify that Bob has sufficient assets to support
11 him and his wife for the remainder of his life?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. So what's the problem with him supporting
14 his wife for the rest of his life?
15 A. I don't know.
16 Q. Has Dan Wein provided you with a final
17 judgment of dissolution of marriage for Bob Wein's
18 and Vita Wein's marriage that took place?
19 A. No.
20 Q. Have you researched that?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Have you found the final judgment of
23 dissolution of marriage?
24 A. No.
25 Q. When you say you researched it, what have

10:22:01-10:22:42 Page 185

1 you done?
2 A. Wrote -- made telephone calls and wrote
3 letters.
4 Q. To who?
5 A. New York.
6 Q. Did you get back any letters from the
7 state of New York?
8 A. I got back one.
9 Q. Was that produced?
10 MS. MORRIS: No. It's not in the
11 production. We'll produce it.
12 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
13 Q. That letter indicated --
14 A. I think I sent it yesterday.
15 MS. MORRIS: I haven't seen it yet.
16 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
17 Q. The letter indicated that they have no
18 records that Robert and Vita Wein were ever
19 divorced?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Yes. They have no records?
22 A. Yes. They have no records.
23 Q. Did you ask Dan Wein when Robert and Vita
24 Wein were allegedly divorced?
25 A. Yes.

10:22:50-10:24:02 Page 186

1 Q. What did he say?
2 A. I can't remember.
3 Q. How does he know? Did you ask him if he
4 had any records or any knowledge of that?
5 A. Ask Robert?
6 Q. Ask Dan Wein.
7 A. Oh, Dan. Dan doesn't know either the
8 exact date.
9 Q. And he has no records, correct?
10 A. No.
11 Q. Who is Stacy Wein?
12 A. Dan's daughter.
13 Q. Why are you --
14 A. Larry's sister.
15 Q. Why are you communicating with Stacy Wein?
16 A. I don't speak to Larry, so I've had some
17 communication with her concerning Larry.
18 Q. And it says she sent you an email on
19 Thursday, April 9th, 2015: Unfortunately Larry was
20 taken to the hospital again yesterday from the
21 shelter. They say if he's disruptive one more
22 time, he will be kicked out of the homeless shelter
23 and really be homeless.
24 What did you do in response to this email?
25 A. I'm not sure.

10:24:24-10:25:52 Page 187

1 Q. And it says: If Vita through Jody did not
2 evict Larry, he would still be paying the mortgage
3 as he has always had and she would be collecting
4 the approximately $3,000 a month.
5 Did you ever ask Vita whether Larry was
6 paying the mortgage?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. What did Vita tell you?
9 A. She said she wouldn't discuss it.
10 Q. Did you ask Jody if Larry was ever paying
11 the mortgage?
12 A. I can't remember.
13 Q. Weren't you aware that Larry wasn't paying 14 the mortgage and the house was going in
15 foreclosure?
16 A. No. I don't know all of the details about
17 that house.
18 Q. You went ahead and took a thousand dollars
19 from the guardianship account and hired -- had
20 Stacy Wein hire an attorney, correct?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Stacy Wein sent you an email on Friday,
23 April 10th, 2015. And you received emails from 24 Jody Rich, correct?
25 A. Yes.

10:26:56-10:28:23 Page 188

1 Q. Do you recall receiving these emails from
2 Jody Rich to you in November of 2014?
3 A. I'll have to look this up.
4 Q. You don't remember it?
5 A. No. I don't remember the first page. I
6 saw this part, the second page. I remember the
7 second page.
8 Q. This is -- you're Betsy, correct?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. This is an email from Jody Rich to you,
11 correct?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. It states: Larry is living in Vita's
14 condo in New Jersey and stopped paying the mortgage
15 payments for several months now. As of today the
16 mortgage is in collections.
17 This was sent in October -- excuse me,
18 November of 2014.
19 MS. MORRIS: I'm going to object to lack
20 of foundation.
21 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
22 Q. You're saying you don't recall this email?
23 A. I recall the second page. I don't recall
24 the first page.
25 Q. On the second page, that's the one: In

10:28:32-10:29:20 Page 189

1 addition, I do not think it's appropriate for Dan
2 Wein to be discussing Bob's finances or any related
3 business?
4 A. Correct.
5 Q. It says: My understanding is that Dan
6 continues to upset Bob, speaking about his son
7 Larry in such drama.
8 Have you had discussions with Bob
9 regarding that at that point in November?
10 A. There's been discussions about Larry all
11 along.
12 Q. What about Dan upsetting Bob?
13 A. No. He never -- no.
14 Q. Does Vita upset Bob?
15 A. Sometimes.
16 Q. And Bob has told you that?
17 A. Yeah.
18 Q. Bob never told you that Dan upsets him?
19 A. He did not say that Dan upsets him, no.
20 Q. Never?
21 A. No. He's never said that.
22 MR. ROSENWATER: Let's have this marked as
23 Exhibit 22, the emails from Jody Rich to Betsy
24 Savitt.
25 MS. MORRIS: Over objection.

4 Q. So Stacy Wein sends you an email on
5 April 10th, 2015: Betsy, I saw this article you
6 mentioned to my father regarding Ellen Morris.
7 What article did you mention to her father
8 regarding Ellen Morris?
9 A. I mentioned the article?
10 Q. Yes. That's what she says.
11 A. I didn't mention the article to her.
12 Q. No?
13 A. No.
14 Q. Do you know what article she's talking
15 about?
16 A. I think she's referring to an article
17 about Ellen Morris that was in the paper.
18 Q. In the Palm Beach Post?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. Are you familiar with that article?
21 A. Somewhat.
22 Q. Did you read the article?
23 A. I don't think so.
24 Q. Why didn't you?
25 A. I didn't read it.

1 Q. It was regarding professional guardians,
2 wasn't it?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. And how they're taking advantage of the
5 ward?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. Wasn't this a case in which Ellen Morris
8 tried to have a marriage annulled as well?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. Stacy Wein said: I believe you need to
11 have new counsel represent you and my uncle
12 annulling the marriage.
13 Did you have discussions with her
14 regarding this?
15 A. No.
16 Q. And Dan Wein is emailing you on April 13,
17 2015. And he's stating that: It's now close to
18 six weeks after Ellen filed the petition February
19 23rd. There was ample time to speak to Bob before
20 now. I'm disturbed, especially after our
21 conversation.
22 What were you supposed to speak to Bob
23 about?
24 A. I'm not sure.
25 Q. Do you know what he was disturbed about?

1 A. Who, Dan?
2 Q. Yes.
3 A. No.
4 Q. He said: I'm disturbed, especially after
5 our conversation.
6 What conversation did you have with Dan
7 Wein it appears sometime in April 2015?
8 A. I don't think he's referring to me.
9 Q. He's sending it to you. The email is to
10 you. He says, Betsy. And then he's saying, I'm
11 disturbed especially after our conversation.
12 So you don't think he's speaking to you?
13 A. I'm not sure he's referring to our
14 conversation.
15 Q. And again he says: I'm more convinced now
16 that Ellen is not interested to pursue this because
17 of the very bad publicity naming her in an
18 annulment controversy in a recent Palm Beach Post
19 article. Is this a delaying tactic on her part?
20 Did you have any discussions with him
21 regarding this article?
22 A. No.
23 Q. And Bob Wein -- excuse me, Dau Wein states
24 in this email: Since that court order of October
25 finding him incapacitated, his dementia has

1 deepened as his physical condition.
2 Do you agree with that?
3 A. Somewhat.
4 Q. What do you mean "somewhat"?
5 A. It's gone up and down.
6 Q. Do you think his dementia has deepened?
7 A. It goes up and down.
8 Q. Does he have a private nurse?
9 A. He has nurses at the Colony.
10 Q. Any other additional private nurses?
11 A. Not a private nurse.
12 Q. Isn't there another nurse that comes three
13 hours a day that's not affiliated with the Colony?
14 A. It's an aide.
15 Q. That's not a nurse?
16 A. No.
17 Q. What does the aide do?
18 A. Takes care of his needs, gets him to eat.
19 Q. Who suggested that this aide be provided
20 for Bob?
21 A. Jody.
22 Q. Don't you think it's in the best interest
23 and welfare of Bob that the aide is there?
24 A. Do I think it's in the best interest that
25 the aide is there?

1 Q. For Bob, yes.
2 A. For Bob, yes.
3 Q. But you never made that decision on your
4 own?
5 A. Yes, I did.
6 Q. And Dan Wein never suggested that an aide
7 be there for Bob, did he?
8 A. No. He didn't not suggest.
9 Q. Shouldn't the aide be there more than
10 three hours a day?
11 A. Right now she's sufficient.
12 Q. And what do you base that on, that she's
13 sufficient? You don't think Robert needs an aide
14 more than three hours a day?
15 A. We're still analyzing that process.
16 Q. It seems like Dan Wein is controlling
17 these petitions; is that correct?
18 A. Just the opposite.
19 Q. It seems like he's telling you what to do.
20 A. Just the opposite.
21 Q. What's the opposite? Who's controlling
22 this, you?
23 A. He's not.
24 Q. But you're listening to him, aren't you?
25 A. He sends emails.

1 Q. Do you respond to his emails?
2 A. Sometimes.
3 Q. You walked into the deposition yesterday
4 with him and Stacy Wein. Did you have discussions
5 with him prior to Jordan's deposition?
6 A. I picked up some paperwork.
7 Q. What did you pick up?
8 A. What did I pick up? I picked up the
9 Florida Bar Journal paperwork.
10 Q. That was from Dan Wein?
11 A. Yeah. It's about the Carpenter Factors.
12 Q. Dan Wein provided that to you or Stacy?
13 A. Dan.
14 Q. But you're communicating with Stacy as
15 well, correct?
16 A. Not really.
17 Q. As of April 11th you were having emails
18 with her, correct?
19 A. She emails me, yes.
20 Q. You email her as well, correct?
21 A. Occasionally.
22 Q. You say: Stacy, I will need to speak to
23 Bob again, as I want to make clear what his
24 intentions are. What does he want to do with Vita?
25 This is April 11th, 2015, correct?

1 A. I know but you're reading it there, so...
2 Q. Is that what Bob wants, those are the
3 changes to his will to add back or to his trust to
4 add back -- to add Dan Wein back into the trust for
5 $150,000?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. How does that benefit Boh, Robert Wein?
8 How does that benefit the ward?
9 A. Those are his wishes.
10 Q. But you're not aware, I think you said
11 earlier, that Dan Wein has already taken money in
12 excess of that from Robert Wein?
13 A. I don't have any records of that.
14 Q. Are you aware that Robert Wein told his
15 attorney in the presence of two other individuals
16 that he wanted to take Dan Wein out of the trust
17 because he stole money from him?
18 A. No.
19 Q. No one has ever told you that?
20 A. No.
21 Q. Dan Wein sent an email on April 14, 2015,
22 and it says: You mentioned to me that Ellen filed
23 a petition to scare Vita and Jody to drop Larry's
24 eviction proceedings.
25 Is that true?

1 A. Let me see. Yes.
2 Q. So did you have discussions with Bob after
3 April 11th, 2015?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. With what he wants to do with Vita?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. When were those discussions?
8 A. I don't have the exact date.
9 Q. How many discussions did you have with 10 him?
11 A. I don't know.
12 Q. It would be on your billing records in
13 your Rocket notes?
14 A. Probably.
15 Q. You're going to be providing those,
16 correct?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. And then it says, Stacy -- you say to
19 Stacy: Also you may not know we have already filed
20 to amend the trust, as Bob asked to add your father
21 back into the trust for $150,000 and it was stated
22 that he did have testamentary capacity.
23 Is that what Bob wants?
24 A. I can't really comment on that.
25 Q. Well, you did already.

1 A. Can I see that one? Who is it to?
2 Q. Dan Wein.
3 A. Yes. That's what he says.
4 THE REPORTER: You just said Dan Wein sent
5 an email, and then she just said who is it to,
6 and you said Dan Wein.
7 MR. ROSENWATER: I meant Betsy Savitt.
8 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
9 Q. It says: You mentioned to me that Ellen
10 filed these petitions.
11 So you're saying you never said that to
12 Dan Wein?
13 A. It's out of context.
14 Q. You sent Dan Wein and copied Ellen Morris
15 on an email of April 14, 2015: I'm writing to both
16 of you so we can all be on the same page.
17 Notwithstanding the views of the three of us on
18 this annulment and revocation of the trust matters,
19 remember that our views are not evidence and can't
20 be used at trial.
21 Who is the three of us, Dan Wein, Ellen
22 Morris and Elizabeth Savitt?
23 A. Correct.
24 Q. So you guys are working together on these
25 matters?

1 A. No.
2 Q. Of course both of you can be fact
3 witnesses.
4 Who is "both of you," Stacy Wein, Stacy
5 Wein and Dan Wein?
6 A. (Nodding head.)
7 Q. You shook your head. Is that yes or no?
8 A. Pardon me?
9 Q. I agree we must proceed with diligence to
10 make a determination that the case can be won and
11 it's the best interest of Bob.
12 Have you made that determination?
13 A. Well, it's a legal question.
14 Q. And on these emails they have quoted text
15 hidden. Do you know what that means?
16 A. No.
17 Q. You're not deleting things from the
18 emails?
19 A. No. That would be like my name and
20 whatever on the bottom of the email or Dan's, the
21 disclaimer or something like that.
22 Q. On April 24, 2015, Stacy Wein sent you a
23 detailed email regarding the trust document that
24 was prepared by the Chaves firm and also trust
25 assets. Do you recall this email?

1 Wein to Jody Wein (sic) POA for Vita Wein. Did you
2 investigate any of these?
3 A. I'm aware of the first one.
4 Q. When was the check for $12,500 given to
5 Vita?
6 A. September. I want to say September,
7 August or September.
8 Q. Do you know what the check was for? Do
9 you know what the check was for?
10 A. (Shaking head.)
11 Q. You have to answer yes or no.
12 A. No, I don't. You were looking at her, so
13 I thought you were asking her.
14 Q. Did you ever ask Bob about this check?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. And what did he say?
17 A. He said Vita asked me for it.
18 Q. He didn't say anything more?
19 A. No.
20 Q. Do you know whether it was to pay for
21 Delores Bryant?
22 A. No. It was not to pay for Delores Bryant.
23 Q. How do you know that?
24 A. As far as I know.
25 Q. You don't know for sure, correct?

1 A. I was copied on an email to Ellen.
2 Q. You're right, excuse me. Why is Stacy
3 Wein communicating directly with Ellen Morris
4 regarding this matter?
5 A. I have no idea.
6 Q. Have you instructed her not to, Stacy not
7 to contact Ellen Morris?
8 A. I have.
9 Q. You have?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. There's a document or a piece of paper
12 that says, funds to Vita Wein. It has 4/2015 under
13 that. Who prepared that?
14 A. This would be from Dan.
15 Q. What was the purpose of this?
16 A. I don't know. Informative.
17 Q. So he's saying that from Bob's account
18 there was a $12,500 that was written to Vita?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. And he was concerned that these monies
21 were given to Bob by Vita -- given to Vita from
22 Bob?
23 A. I think they're all different entries
24 there.
25 Q. There's also a check for 5,355 from Larry

1 A. Well to pay for Delores Bryant for who?
2 Q. She was taking care of Bob, wasn't she?
3 A. Yes. And I paid her for taking care of
4 Bob.
5 Q. This is prior to you being appointed the
6 guardian?
7 A. Correct.
8 Q. And Delores was helping Vita as well,
9 correct, taking care of Vita as well?
10 A. When I met them, yes.
11 Q. And there's numerous checks that Dan Wein
12 wrote to himself and Dorothy Wein, his former wife,
13 and Stacy Wein, his daughter, from Robert's account
14 when he was power of attorney?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. Have you made any efforts to get those
17 monies back?
18 A. Not yet.
19 Q. This is the same individual that allegedly
20 wants -- that you're having numerous conversations
21 with regarding getting the $150,000 back to him in
22 the trust documents, correct?
23 A. No.
24 Q. No?
25 A. No.

1 Q. Isn't that -- I think you testified
2 earlier isn't that why Bob wants to amend the
3 trust?
4 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Outside the scope
5 of this witness's knowledge.
6 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
7 Q. Does Dan Wein have a healthcare surrogate
8 for Robert Wein?
9 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Irrelevant.
10 You can answer, Betsy.
11 THE WITNESS: No.
12 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
13 Q. Did you see the motion of Daniel Wein to 14 intervene that he filed yesterday?
15 A. No.
16 Q. Do you want to see it?
17 MS. MORRIS: I didn't see it either.
18 THE WITNESS: Okay.
19 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
20 Q. So Dan Wein says: With the concurrence of
21 the guardian he's been seeing for the medical care
22 for the ward such as selecting his physicians,
23 making doctor's appointments, driving him to 24 doctors' appointments, discussing treatment with
25 his physicians...

1 privileged?
2 A. Privileged to an outsider, yes.
3 Q. And also privileged to any family members.
4 He's not a -- he doesn't have any type of
5 healthcare surrogate, does he?
6 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Asked and
7 answered.
8 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
9 Q. Is there any legal document that Robert
10 Wein provided to Dan Wein authorizing him to 11 discuss his medical treatment or make medical
12 decisions on his behalf?
13 A. No. It's in the guardianship.
14 Q. Which was appointed to you?
15 A. Correct.
16 Q. And you're the one that's supposed to be
17 making these decisions and not delegate them,
18 correct?
19 MS. MORRIS: Objection.
20 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
21 Q. You can answer the question.
22 A. I can't answer that.
23 Q. You can't?
24 A. No.
25 While you're looking for that, may I go to

1 Is that correct?
2 A. He helps with that.
3 Q. He helps with all of those?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. But Dan Wein doesn't have any healthcare
6 surrogate, correct?
7 A. Not anymore, no.
8 Q. He doesn't have the right to discuss these
9 privileged matters with his doctors, does he?
10 A. Yes. He's a family member. He has the
11 right to do that.
12 Q. Only if he had a healthcare surrogate?
13 A. No. Because I'm -- he's helping me do
14 that.
15 Q. Did you give a letter to the doctor saying
16 they can speak to Dan Wein regarding his medical
17 treatment?
18 A. No. I told him.
19 Q. You called the doctors up and said they
20 can speak to Dan Wein?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Isn't that your job as the guardian, to
23 make decisions regarding his medical care?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. Isn't the medical condition of the ward

1 the rest room?
2 MR. ROSENWATER: Yes.
3 (A brief recess was taken.)
4 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
5 Q. At the last deposition we entered -- there
6 was an Exhibit Number 8. It was an order
7 determining limited incapacity for Robert Wein.
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. Basically it stated that the ward lacks
10 capacity to consent to medical and mental health
11 treatment, correct?
12 A. Correct.
13 Q. And there was also an order entered
14 appointing you as the guardian, correct?
15 A. Uh-huh, yes.
16 Q. And that order is appointing you as the
17 guardian. You're the one that's now supposed to 18 make the medical decisions on behalf of Robert?
19 A. Correct.
20 Q. You delegated that duty to Dan Wein?
21 A. No.
22 Q. Maybe this will -- we showed you some
23 emails from Jody Rich to you dated November 30th,
24 2014, stating regarding Larry and Larry's eviction.
25 Here's a cleaner copy. Do you recall seeing this

1 email from Jody or receiving this email?
2 A. This is my email to Jody?
3 Q. Correct.
4 A. This is the first I've heard -- this one?
5 Q. Yes?
6 A. The first I've heard anything about Vita's
7 condo?
8 Q. Yes.
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. You did send an email to Jody on
11 November 30th?
12 A. Yes.
13 MR. ROSENWATER: Let's mark that.
14 (Vita Wein's Exhibit 23, Email From Betsy
15 Savitt to Jody Rich.)
16 THE WITNESS: What is the date of that
17 email?
18 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
19 Q. Your email to Jody, correct,
20 November 30th, 2014?
21 A. When is the rest of the email from Jody to
22 me?
23 Q. The same date, correct?
24 MS. RICH: Yes. That's why I didn't print
25 it for you. It wasn't clear.

1 A. Yes.
2 Q. What was the largest amount of money that
3 you've handled?
4 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Irrelevant.
5 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
6 Q. You're seeking -- you filed a petition for
7 an order appointing guardian as a lifetime trustee
8 of the ward's trust, correct?
9 A. Correct.
10 Q. As the trustee of the ward's trust, it's 11 your intent to control the finances, the assets in
12 the trust?
13 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Irrelevant.
14 THE WITNESS: It's merely a clarification
15 of the guardianship orders.
16 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
17 Q. You say, currently it has assets titled in
18 the name of the trust as Morgan Stanley, TIG
19 Arbitrage Associates and Joseph Gunner, LLC. Do
20 you intend to take the moneys out of these
21 accounts?
22 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Irrelevant.
23 You can answer.
24 THE WITNESS: No.
25 BY MR. ROSENWATER:

1 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
2 Q. Have you ever filed any complaints with
3 the Adult Protective Services regarding any
4 individuals involved with Robert Wein?
5 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Confidential.
6 I'm instructing you not to answer.
7 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
8 Q. Did you go to college?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. What college did you go to?
11 A. University of Miami.
12 Q. Did you graduate?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. What was your degree?
15 A. Bachelor of education.
16 Q. Do you have any master's or any education
17 after your bachelor's of education?
18 A. I went for an MBA, but I didn't finish it.
19 Q. Do you have any -- have you taken --
20 strike that.
21 Do you have any degrees in finance?
22 A. No.
23 Q. Have you managed large trusts in the past?
24 A. Trusts?
25 Q. Yes.

1 Q. Wouldn't it be better to have a
2 professional trustee such as someone from these
3 entities as a trustee versus you?
4 A. No.
5 Q. No? Why not? Isn't it a conflict of your
6 interest as the guardian to be the trustee?
7 A. As I said, that's merely a clarification
8 of what the judge already ordered in the
9 guardianship papers.
10 MR. ROSENWATER: You have to leave?
11 MS. MORRIS: Yeah, I do. I've got to get
12 to the doctor. You said you only had a half
13 hour after the last deposition.
14 MR. ROSENWATER: Well, there was a couple
15 of things that were filed since then. And I
16 didn't realize what was in the documents.
17 MS. MORRIS: I understand the document
18 thing. What was filed since then is not really
19 relevant to what we're here for in the action.
20 I understand that the documents were produced
21 and you needed more time, but I've got to go.
22 THE REPORTER: Are we adjourning,
23 continuing?
24 MR. ROSENWATER: Adjourning.
25 MS. MORRIS: We're ending as far as I'm

11:04:31

1 concerned.
2 MR. ROSENWATER: As far as me, we're
3 adjourning. We'll make a determination. There
4 are certain documents that weren't provided,

GUARDIANSHIP DIVISION

CASE# 502013GA00052XXXXSBIX

RE: GUARDIANSHIP OF) LORRAINE HILTON)
Ward.)

OBJECTION TO FINAL REPORT, FINAL ACCOUNTING
AND PETITION FOR DISCHARGE

COMES NOW, James Hilton as Emergency Temporary Guardian of the Person and Property of Lorraine Hilton, by and through his undersigned attorneys, and hereby files this Objection to Final Report, Final Accounting and Petition for Discharge filed by Elizabeth Savitt, as Guardian of the Property, filed on June 11, 2013 and in support thereof states:

1. James Hilton files a general objection to the Final Report and Accounting as the same is incomplete and inaccurate and objects to the Petition for Discharge until such time as a full and complete accounting can be performed.
2. James Hilton objects to the following specific items on said Final Report and/or Final Accounting:
 - a) Guardian lists a disbursement of $998.30 (without any receipts or breakdown of expenses although per Chapter 744 of Florida Statutes, these must be presented and kept for 3 years by the Guardian) for the Inventory of New Port Richey house (personal Property) yet the accounting and inventory list no personal property. (see Exhibit A). The Guardian indicated to James Hilton that she had photographs of the contents of the Roseland property but has never provided such photographs. In addition, the Ward had jewelry, fine crystal, art and other items of Personal Property that the Guardian was made aware of on March 20, 2013 by the current ETG and the Guardian did not secure said property and has failed to account for said property.
 - b) The Guardian failed to secure the personal property which is believed to have been stolen by Robert Hilton. The ETG, upon appointment, requested a key to the Wards home in New Port Richey from the Guardian. The Guardian stated she "did not have time" to give him the key but instead mailed the key to the ETG. As a result of the delay in obtaining the key, Robert Hilton entered the home and removed all of the Ward's Property.

- c) The "Account Statement" attached to the Petition for Order Authorizing Payment of Compensation and expenses shows a prior invoice of $4,208.50 and payments received of $3,189.50 yet those payments are not listed in the disbursements.
- d) The accounting shows a "Guardian Retainer Fee" on May 17, 2003 without authorization.
- e) The accounting does not reflect a payment received by the Guardian in the amount of $1,000.00 paid from a Bank America account (# [REDACTED]) on January 31, 2013 prior to her appointment as Guardian. (see attached Exhibit B)
- f) The accounting does not disclose the existence of the Bank America Account [REDACTED], which was a joint account with Robert Hilton, although all funds in the account belonged to the ward.
- g) The Guardian failed to secure and separate joint accounts including the Bank America Account listed although she was aware of the account and as a result, Robert Hilton wrote 2 checks on the account AFTER the Guardianship was established for a total of $49,685.00 (check 390 for $33,485.00, check 391 for $16,200.00 (See attached Exhibit C) It appears that the ward signed each check despite the existence of the Guardianship. These checks were for real property yet the deeds indicate sole ownership in favor of Robert Hilton.
- h) The accounting shows two payments to Robert Hilton (April 17, 2013 for $1,000.00 and April 29, 2013 for $1,500.00) without any explanation or receipt. Noteworthy is that both were identified as check #101 of the same bank account.
- i) The accounting reveals that the Guardian paid the property taxes on two homes that are titled in the name of Robert Hilton for a total of $5,304.50 (Property tax 5170 for $2653.87 and Property Tax 5210 $2,650.63) Further,

Esq., alleges as follows:

1. Petitioner, LESTER THUR, resides at 11619 Pamplona Boulevard,
Boynton Beach, Florida 33437, and his post office address is the same.

2. Petitioner is the husband of DELORES THUR and is interested in the welfare of the alleged incapacitated person.

3. There is imminent danger that the physical or mental health or safety of the alleged incapacitated person will be seriously impaired or that the property of that person is in danger of being wasted, misappropriated or lost unless immediate action is taken because: she is mentally ill with a diagnosis of mild

Boulevard, Boynton Beach, Florida 33437; (ph.) (561) 736-1149, and is a permanent

5. DELORES THUR is incapacitated based upon the following factual

CLERK OF COURT
PALM BEACH COUNTY, FL
SOUTH CITY BRANCH FILED

MAY 28 PM 12:02

information: According to Lester Thur, the nature of his wife's alleged incapacity is that she has been diagnosed with mild dementia syndrome of Alzheimer's type. See Exhibit A, Comprehensive Counseling and Care Coordination Summary prepared by the Memory and Wellness Center at Florida Atlantic University on August 20, 2012.

Mrs. Thur has refused to go to any follow up appointments, and refused to go to her appointment FAU Memory and Wellness Center on May 20, 2013. She has not rescheduled this appointment. She is in need of medications listed in Exhibit A, and according to her husband Lester, her behavior is out of control. It is imperative that the Petitioner be named guardian to ensure Mrs. Thur will get the medical treatment and help she requires.

Mrs. Thur's current physician is Dr. Mostel at Palm Beach Cardiology, 3365 Burns Road, Suite 101, Palm Beach Gardens, Florida 33410, (561) 775-1061. Dr. Mostel has prescribed high blood pressure medication for Mrs. Thur. She refuses to go to any follow up appointments with Dr. Mostel.

Mr. Thur is very worried about his wife as she has been exhibiting signs of very bizarre behavior and actions, for example:

Mrs. Thur will wake up her husband in the middle of the night accusing him of outrageous things, such as stealing her checkbooks. According to Mr. Thur, one night recently she woke Mr. Thur up and turned all of the lights on, and asked him the whereabouts of her checkbooks. She insisted he took all of her checkbooks. Mrs. Thur then found her checkbooks and set fire to them. A few days later she asked Mr. Thur again where her checkbooks were. He said she had burnt them up. She then stated that "no", she had put the checks in the oven.

Mrs. Thur also recently misplaced her cell phone and accused Mr. Thur of taking it.

Mr. Thur recently went to their joint bank at Bank of America and everything was missing, including diamonds and bonds. Mrs. Thur accused Mr. Thur of stealing the diamonds, but he did not take any of these items. It was later figured out that Mrs. Thur gave the diamonds to a neighbor.

According to Mr. Thur, because of her forgetfulness, Mrs. Thur is continuously throwing away items in the household including their mail. The situation is getting worse and worse as bills are being unpaid because of Mrs. Thur's condition.

In addition, Mr. Thur has stated his wife is constantly taking money out of one bank account and putting it in another bank account. He says that she forgets when she does this, and then thinks money is missing or stolen.

Most recently, Mr. Thur said that Mrs. Thur became very angry and smashed up their computer tower and threw the keyboard outside by the curb.

On May 15, 2013, according to Mr. Thur, Mrs. Thur approached him in the living room and asked him for her keys. He told her he did not have her keys nor did he know where they were. She then picked up a hammer and threatened him that she would "smash" up the living room if he did not give her back her keys. He reiterated that he did not know where they were.

According to Mr. Thur, Mrs. Thur then proceeded into a violent rage to the wall and hit the wall with the hammer, which resulted in a hole in the wall. She then said that she would smash Mr. Thur's car while ranting and raving in the process. Mr. Thur said he told her they would try to find her keys, and to put down the hammer. He found her keys a few minutes later in her bathrobe.

During this period Mrs. Thur used the worst profanity and told Mr. Thur that he was stealing her money and that he did not want her to leave the house. Her rage and anger was frightening and scary to Mr. Thur. He had to leave the house and go for a drive in fear that she might damage his car.

Finally, according to Mr. Thur it has come to the point that Mr. Thur is forced to sleep in another bedroom at their home with the door locked. He is in fear that Mrs. Thur will physically attack him.

It is clear to Mr. Thur that his wife's physical and mental health have significantly declined because of her dementia. She is in need of regular medical care, but she is non-cooperative about going to physician appointments or taking any prescribed medications.

It is necessary that temporary emergency co-guardians be appointed to exercise certain delegable rights of the Ward. Those rights are: the right to make medical decisions on her behalf; the right to manage her property and finances; and the right to contract. In addition, Mrs. Thur's right to drive and travel should be taken away.

6. The names and addresses of all persons known to the petitioner who have knowledge of such facts through personal observations are:

Name of Person	Address	Relationship
Lester Thur	11619 Pamplona Blvd., Boynton Beach, FL 33427	Husband

Carol Thur	610 Clematis Street, Apt. 38, West Palm Beach, FL 33401	Sister-in-Law

7. The alleged incapacitated person is incapable of exercising, to the best of petitioner's knowledge, the right to make medical decisions on her own; the right to manage her property; the right to contract; the right to drive and right to travel; and is in need of an emergency temporary guardianship.

8. The names and addresses of the next of kin of the alleged incapacitated person are:

8. Re: Guardianship of Dolores Thur
Case No. 502013GA000262XXXXSB

2015 MAY 22 AM 8:56
STATE
PALM BEACH COUNTY
CLERK OF COURT

Dear Ms. Paige,

Pursuant to your letter request dated April 29, 2015 (copy enclosed), here are responses to your questions:

1. A deposit of cash in the safe deposit boxes was made on February 2, 2015 (after the annual accounting) in the amount of $370.00, $3,110.00 and 8,564.00. These amounts were listed on the inventory. The guardian does not know where the amount of $392,708.07 (listed in the clerk's letter) came from.
2. There is no petition to close or remove contents of boxes as the Ward wished to keep everything where it was in each of the boxes.
3. The guardian does not know why bonds were not on any of the amended inventories. They were physically in the safe deposit box. They are in the name of the husband and wife. Lester Thur (the Ward's husband) and the guardian signed and cashed 1/3 of them for tax purposes last year and they plan to do the same this year.
4. All household expenses are paid by Lester Thur (the Ward's husband who lives in the marital home). Delores is one-half owner. Mr. Thur pays the bills, and gets reimbursed after providing receipts.

5. Chase Freedom is the only credit card now in use. The Ward's aide has a prepaid debit card for the Ward's daily use for limited shopping, movies, museums and other outings.

Amex, and Citicard and Hilton Honors are all cards that the Ward previously had. She refused to give up the Hilton, in case she lost the Chase, but agreed not to use it. The Amex and Citicard were cancelled. The Ward herself opened a TJX card and had the bill coming to a post office box she opened. When guardian discovered what she did, it was cancelled.

6. Checks bounced as the bank did not transfer money as requested from savings account. The bank agreed to refund the fees. The bank covered the check to Sheri Hazeltine, and the guardian sent an additional check as it was the guardian's belief that the check would not be covered. Sheri Hazeltine will refund the money and the guardian will submit a deposit slip to show that the money was returned.

7. The guardian's attorney will prepare a petition to authorize payment to Pankouski Law Firm, payment for the FAU Driving Test, and gifts to family members for birthdays.

8. Please refer to the Order dated January 29, 2015 authorizing all credit card purchases.

The Ward had her own car, was driving, and was free to go about on her own with a credit card. The guardian will review the credit card charges with her in order to properly document a description of the purchases.

9. Service charges have/or will be refunded.

10. "Love Katz", is a birthday gift to her daughter, Lori Katz.

11. The Target purchases were for household items purchased by the Ward.

12. The guardian does not know about the lost credit card, as the Ward was always changing her phone, the number, losing cards, or thinking someone was stealing her identity due to commercials touting such. She frequently ordered new credit cards.

13. As for the "Cashed Check" sent to hidden post office box: this was from the David Lemer, a brokerage account the Ward previously used and had checks for. She paid credit cards directly from this account. The Ward was told not to use this account for check writing and the account was transferred into guardianship.

The Ward called David Lemer and had them change the address to send the statements to her private P.O. Box. The Ward insisted she needed to keep writing checks on that account until the guardian opened her a small bank account for her use.

Sheri Paige, Auditor
May 18, 2015
Page Three

The Ward is now in an assisted living facility in the memory care unit. She currently has no credit cards in her possession.

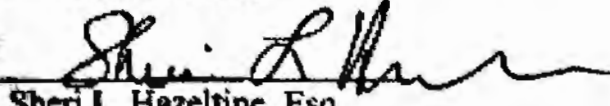

The Ward's Chase Freedom is used for medical expenses. Her prepaid debit card is used for daily expenses. The household bills, car, and weekend entertainment is paid for by Lester Thur and he is reimbursed for her share.

Please let us know if you need anything further.

Sincerely,

SHERI L. HAZELTINE & ASSOCIATES, P.A.

THE GUARDIANSHIP OF: DOLORES THUR 502013GA000262XXXXSB

We are currently reviewing the Annual Guardianship Report of the Guardian of Person and/or Property which was filed in the above-referenced case on 9/30/15 and your correspondence to me dated 5/18/15. As to $392,708.07 I meant that should be the beginning balance of the Annual Accounting. The money that was in the safe deposit box was $12,044 which you explained was deposited in her account on 2/2/15. I verified that the money from the safe deposit box was deposited in the ward's account as noted on the annual accounting for the next period. I'm very sorry for the confusion in this matter.

DOLORES "DEE" THUR

CASE NO.: 502013GA000262XXXXSB

AMENDED PETITION FOR AUTHORIZATION TO ACT

F.S. 744.441

COMES NOW Petitioner, ELIZABETH SAVITT, as plenary guardian, by and through her attorney, SHERI L. HAZELTINE, ESQ., and moves this Honorable Court for an Order granting her authority to act, and allowing her to amend DOLORES "DEE" THUR's, (the Ward's), revocable trust, and as grounds states as follows:

1. On May 28, 2013 ELIZABETH SAVITT was appointed the emergency temporary guardian (ETG) of the person and property of Mrs. Thur. On July 16, 2013 a hearing was held and Ms. Savitt was appointed the permanent limited guardian of Mrs. Thur.
2. The Ward has a revocable trust that was signed on September 12, 2001 while she was incapacitated. Mrs. Thur, as grantor, appointed herself and her husband, Peter Lester Thur, as co-trustees, and the primary beneficiary of the trust is the Ward.
3. The Trust has standard language that allows the suspension of the Trust if the trustee becomes incapacitated and further allows the co-trustee, her husband, LESTER THUR, to thereupon make all decisions concerning the Trust.
4. The Trust contains valuable assets of the Ward that are needed solely for the care and benefit of the Ward.
5. As for the filing of this petition, the Ward and her husband have had marital difficulties, to the extent that they are considering separate residences, division of assets, and determination of support. A divorce is not available for at least three (3) years from the date of the Ward becoming incapacitated.

FILED PALM BEACH COUNTY, FL

6. It is currently not in the best interests of the Ward that her husband have sole control of her trust as trustee.

7. Instead, the Ward's two (2) daughters, ELLEN THUR and LORIE KATZ, wish to be added as co-trustees along with the guardian, for a total of three (3) co-trustees.

8. It is in the best interests of the Ward that the guardian be able to amend the Ward's Trust to put in place revised provisions concerning the designation and powers of the co-trustee and that allows the guardian the ability to make property/money decisions for the Ward that the guardian is already empowered to do by the guardianship that Orders do not, by law, reach this Trust.

9. Florida Statute 744.447 allows the guardian to bring a petition for authority to perform acts under Florida Statute 744.441. The latter statute, in subsection (19), allows a plenary guardian who secures court approval to amend revocable trusts of the Ward which extend beyond the disability of the Ward in connection with matters that will serve the best interests of the Ward.

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, the guardian respectfully requests that this Honorable Court grant the relief requested herein and as set forth the Order relating thereto.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Signed on this 18th day of November, 2013.

RE: GUARDIANSHIP OF)
Ward.)
_____)

PETITION FOR APPOINTMENT OF EMERGENCY GUARDIAN and FOR INJUNCTION AGAINST VIOLENCE

Petitioner, JAMES A. HILTON, by and through his undersigned attorney, allege as follows:

1. Petitioner residence 115 Parkside Colony Drive Tarpon Springs, FL 34689. Further, Petitioner is the son of the Ward.

2. LORRAINE HILTON, the Ward, whose date of birth is February 22, 1921, who is 92 years of age and currently resides at 5501 Lake Shore Drive, Mangonia Park, Fl.

3. LORRAINE HILTON is totally Incapacitated by reason that she suffers from Dementia/Alzheimer, as diagnosed by Dr. Teresa Delgado and Dr. Pierre Andre.

4. The Ward has been determined by this court to be incapacitated and is subject to a Guardianship of her property. As a result of the effects of Dementia/Alzheimer, the ward is her incapable of managing her affairs on daily living without ongoing supervision and assistance.

4. Petitioner is an adult interested in the welfare of the incapacitated person.

5. There appears to be an imminent danger that the physical or mental health or safety of the alleged incapacitated person will be seriously impaired or that the property of that person is in danger of being wasted, misappropriated or lost unless immediate action is taken because:

- a. the Ward suffers from Dementia/Alzheimer and is unable to protect herself;
- b. the ward resides with her son Robert Hilton who has a criminal record and admits he is currently taking drugs;
- c. Multiple people have witnessed acts of abuse by Robert Hilton against the ward;
- d. the Ward has called the Guardian of the Property on numerous occasion, including today, request assistance and requesting care;
- e. during phone calls with the ward, the Guardian has heard the ward scream as if she is being hurt by her son, Robert Hilton.
- f. neighbors have heard screams from the home of the ward and have witnessed the ward lock his elderly mother out of her home;
- g. despite the fact that the ward is under a Guardianship of her Property and has a trust, Robert Hilton continues to exploit her financially. As recently as May 1, 2013, he has her execute a quit claim deed (see attached) on property she owns and is attempting to sell the property;
- h. In addition to abuse of the ward, Robert Hilton has threatened the Petitioner, James Hilton and the Guardian of the Property;
- i. In June of 2012, the ward had a "accident" in which she broke her hip and had to be operated on. Robert Hilton left the ward at the hospital without any personal effects and left the State of Florida. Upon his return he had his mother sign a document saying he had nothing to do with her injury (copy attached). The ward does not recall how the injury occurred.
- k. After surgery, the ward was placed in a rehabilitation facility. She was removed from the facility by Robert Hilton against medical advice and taken to the bank to close out an account that was joint with the Petitioner;
- l. The ward requires medication which must be monitored and Robert Hilton does not properly provide and /or monitor said medication;
- m. the Ward continues to ask for help, appears to be in fear of Robert Hilton and her appearance has declined greatly and appears she is unable to care for or protect herself.
- n. Robert Hilton does not work and is financial dependant on the assets of the Ward.

6. The above are examples, but not an all inclusive list of action of Robert Hilton that have placed the Ward imminent danger to her physical or mental health or safety, as well as financial exploitation by Robert Hilton.

7. Based on the above, there appears to be imminent danger that the physical and mental health and safety of LORRAINE HILTON will be seriously impaired unless immediate action is taken because LORRAINE HILTON is unable to care for herself in any manner whatsoever.

8. LORRAINE HILTON is incapable of executing a Power of Attorney and unable to speak for herself. Without an appointment of an emergency guardian, LORRAINE HILTON is subject to physical, emotional and financial abuse at the hands of Robert Hilton.

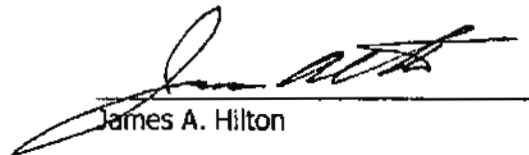

9 Robert Hilton has committed and threatens to commit of domestic violence as described above. These acts of domestic violence have been previously reported to various Police Departments and DCF.

10. Robert Hilton has an alcohol problem and is currently taking oxycontin and other drugs.

11. Petitioner fears for the safety and welfare of the Ward and himself. Petitioner asks the Court to enter a TEMPORARY INJUNCTION for protection against domestic violence that will be in place from now until the scheduled hearing in this matter. Petitioner asks the Court to enter, after a hearing has been held on this request for protection, a final judgment on injunction prohibiting Robert Hilton from committing any acts of domestic violence against the Ward and Petitioner; prohibiting Robert Hilton from going to or within 500 feet of any place the Ward and Petitioner live; prohibiting Robert Hilton from going to or within 500 feet of the Petitioner's place(s) of employment; prohibiting Robert Hilton from contacting the Ward or Petitioner by mail, by telephone, through another person, or in any other manner; prohibiting Robert Hilton from knowingly and intentionally going to or within 100 feet of Petitioner's motor vehicle; and prohibiting Robert Hilton from defacing or destroying Petitioner's personal property

Wherefore, Petitioner request a Summary proceeding be held on this Petition and matter and the Court appoint Petitioner James Hilton as Emergency Guardian of LORRAINE HILTON and enter an Injunction against Robert Hilton as described above.

Under penalty of perjury, I declare that I have read the above and the facts alleged are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

RE: Case number 502013GA000052XXXXSB
Voluntary Guardianship of the Property of Lorraine Hilton

Esteemed Judge David E. French:

I am concerned about my mother. Our family set up a living trust in 2007 which outlines the steps to follow given that her long-time doctor, Dr. Elena Delgado, has stated my mother Lorraine Hilton does not have the capacity for decision-making and her dementia is getting worse. [See Attachment A]

I am truly alarmed that a judicial process has been put in place there without me having been duly contacted. Diligence was not performed by the lawyer who filed this case, Sheri L. Hazeltine, Esq., because mail was sent to a deceased James Arthur Hilton in Clearwater—a town where I have never lived since moving to New Port Richey, Florida from Illinois in 2005. The widow of Mr. James Arthur Hilton contacted Hazeltine's office alerting Ms Hazeltine's paralegal that the correct James A. Hilton has not be notified. [See Attachment B]

Furthermore, since learning that the case filed in October 2012 with the Elder Affairs Agency regarding my mother's well-being and questionable financial transactions prompted by my brother, Robert O. Hilton, was closed in January, I did not receive responses to questions posed in phone calls I have placed to the Elder Affairs Investigator Amelia Rose, or Sheri Hazeltine, Esq., and lastly, to the proposed guardian, Elizabeth Savitt.

I believe that vital information continues to be withheld from me and our family attorneys from Hinshaw & Culbertson, LLP, which leads me to be suspicious about this process. [See Attachment C] After multiple phone attempts to gain information by me and by Stephen Cutler of Hinshaw & Culbertson, LLP, I finally received in mid-February a copy of the Petition for Voluntary Guardianship filed by Sheri L. Hazeltine, but it was without the pertinent case number. I had to find this myself by going online. Yesterday, February 18, 2013, after 3 calls placed to Elizabeth Savitt, I was able to speak with her and learned that she knew nothing of my mother's home in New Port Richey, where my mother could comfortably live with professional care giver.

CASE NO. 502013GA000052XXXXSB

PETITION FOR ORDER AUTHORIZING PAYMENT
OF COMPENSATION AND EXPENSES OF GUARDIAN
(April 26, 2013 through June 7, 2013)

Petitioner, Elizabeth Savitt, alleges:

1. Petitioner was the Voluntary Guardian of the Property of Lorraine Hilton (the Ward) but has since resigned and is awaiting discharge.
2. The total amounts of all prior fees and costs awarded to petitioner in this proceeding are:

Fees: $4,208.50
Costs: $0.00

3. Petitioner has rendered services as guardian of the property of the Ward from April 26, 2013 through June 7, 2013, as more fully described and set forth in the itemized schedule of services attached hereto as Exhibit "A," for which petitioner has not been paid.
4. Petitioner's records indicate that during the period of time above mentioned, Petitioner has performed services as guardian of the property of the Ward in the total amount of 23.95 hours and incurred expenses in the amount of $3.60 as reflected on the attached time sheets.
5. Based upon the criteria established by § 744.108(2), Florida Statutes, and the hours Petitioner has expended in handling the affairs of the Ward, Petitioner believes that a reasonable hourly rate of compensation for the services performed is $95.00 per hour. Therefore, a reasonable compensation for the services performed and expenses incurred by Petitioner during that period of time is $2,231.35, less a $2,000 credit as reflected on the attached time sheets.

Petitioner requests that an order be entered awarding petitioner reasonable compensation for the services rendered by the petitioner for the benefit of the Ward and authorizing and directing that such compensation be paid from the assets of the Ward.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

RE: GUARDIANSHIP OF) LORRAINE HILTON)
Ward.)

OBJECTION TO FINAL REPORT, FINAL ACCOUNTING
AND PETITION FOR DISCHARGE

COMES NOW, James Hilton as Emergency Temporary Guardian of the Person and Property of Lorraine Hilton, by and through his undersigned attorneys, and hereby files this Objection to Final Report, Final Accounting and Petition for Discharge filed by Elizabeth Savitt, as Guardian of the Property, filed on June 11, 2013 and in support thereof states:

- 1. James Hilton files a general objection to the Final Report and Accounting as the same is incomplete and inaccurate and objects to the Petition for Discharge until such time as a full and complete accounting can be performed.
- 2. James Hilton objects to the following specific items on said Final Report and/or Final Accounting:
 - a) Guardian lists a disbursement of $998.30 (without any receipts of breakdown of expenses although per Chapter 744 of Florida Statutes, these must be presented and kept for 3 years by the Guardian) for the Inventory of New Port Richey house (personal Property) yet the accounting and inventory list no personal property. (see Exhibit A). The Guardian indicated to James Hilton that she had photographs of the contents of the Roseland property but has never provided such photographs. In addition, the Ward had jewelry, fine crystal, art and other items of Personal Property that the Guardian was made aware of on March 20, 2013 by the current ETG and the Guardian did not secure said property and has failed to account for said property.
 - b) The Guardian failed to secure the personal property which is believed to have been stolen by Robert Hilton. The ETG, upon appointment, requested a key to the Wards home in New Port Richey from the Guardian. The Guardian stated she "did not have time" to give him the key but instead mailed the key to the ETG. As a result of the delay in obtaining the key, Robert Hilton entered the home and removed all of the Ward's Property.

- c) The "Account Statement" attached to the Petition for Order Authorizing Payment of Compensation and expenses shows a prior invoice of $4,208.50 and payments received of $3,189.50 yet those payments are not listed in the disbursements.
- d) The accounting shows a "Guardian Retainer Fee" on May 17, 2003 without authorization.
- e) The accounting does not reflect a payment received by the Guardian in the amount of $1,000.00 paid from a Bank America account (# [REDACTED]) on January 31, 2013 prior to her appointment as Guardian. (see attached Exhibit B)
- f) The accounting does not disclose the existence of the Bank America Account [REDACTED], which was a joint account with Robert Hilton, although all funds in the account belonged to the ward.
- g) The Guardian failed to secure and separate joint accounts including the Bank America Account listed although she was aware of the account and as a result, Robert Hilton wrote 2 checks on the account AFTER the Guardianship was established for a total of $49,685.00 (check 390 for $33,485.00, check 391 for $16,200.00 (See attached Exhibit C) It appears that the ward signed each check despite the existence of the Guardianship. These checks were for real property yet the deeds indicate sole ownership in favor of Robert Hilton.
- h) The accounting shows two payments to Robert Hilton (April 17, 2013 for $1,000.00 and April 29, 2013 for $1,500.00) without any explanation or receipt. Noteworthy is that both were identified as check #101 of the same bank account.
- i) The accounting reveals that the Guardian paid the property taxes on two homes that are titled in the name of Robert Hilton for a total of $5,304.50 (Property tax 5170 for $2653.87 and Property Tax 5210 $2,650.63) Further, these properties were previously owned by the Ward and acquired by Robert Hilton by Warranty deed in October 2012 while the ward was incompetent. The Guardian took no steps to reclaim these properties.

- j) The Accounting reveals one single payment for a Chase Credit Card 4587 in the amount of $1,000.00 without detail as to the charges, receipts, balance etc., let alone the fact that a charge card exist and who is authorized to charge.
- k) The Guardian failed to notify credit agencies of the guardianship leaving the ward exposed to credit fraud and accounts being opened in her name which has occurred. Robert Hilton in fact opened at least one card with Discover after the appointment of the Guardian in the name of the ward. The ETG has since taken steps to prevent additional accounts from being opened.
- l) The accounting shows a "withdraw to Lorraine Hilton" on April 8, 2013 in the amount of $500.00 without any explanation or receipt.
- m) The accounting shows Cash for Lorraine Hilton on May 9, 2013 in the amount of $200.00 without any explanation or receipt.
- n) The accounting shows Cash for Lorraine Hilton on May 17, 2013 in the amount of $200.00 without any explanation or receipt.
- o) The initial Inventory of the Ward Shows three accounts at Chase (XX8880, XX1264, and XX8670) the Final Accounting does not show the accounts or list them in any manner.
- p) The Initial Inventory does not show any accounts at Wells Fargo however, the Final Accounting Shows an Account without any explanation.
- q) The Final Accounting shows only three disbursements from the Wells Fargo account (# [REDACTED]) [a wire fee of $15.00, a Federal Tax Fee of $.11 and the payment of a $2,000.00 "Guardian Retainer Fee"] and four receipts [Wire of $10,000.00, Interest of $.05, Interest of $.41 and Interest of .27] However, the bank statement attached show two separate deposits in the amount of $3,189.50 and two withdrawals/checks each in the same amount without any explanation.

- r) The Guardian was appointed on March 20, 2013 and the Bank account [REDACTED] shows check a check #202 on April 2, 2013 in the amount of $600.00, Check 198 on March 27, 2013 in the amount of 183.80, and check 197 (Walgreens) in the amount of $66.89. None of these items are accounted for or explained.
3. The accounting fails to account for all receipts and disbursement made during the accounting period. The Guardian fails to provide cancelled checks and/or receipts for all disbursements.

File No. 502012GA000016

GUARDIANSHIP OF HELEN M. O'GRADY

Division IX

18 JUN 13 PM 3:11
Palm Beach County
South City Branch-Filed

OBJECTION TO FINAL GUARDIANSHIP REPORT OF GUARDIAN OF THE PROPERTY

COMES NOW, Respondent, RONALD O. MAYES, by and through his undersigned counsel and, hereby objects to the Final Guardianship Report of Guardian of the Property filed by the Emergency Temporary Guardian of the Property of HELEN M. O'GRADY for the period during January 11, 2012 through April 4, 2012, and in support of this objection avers the following:

1. Ronald O. Mayes objects to the Final Accounting of Guardian on the grounds that Schedule "A" and Schedule "C" do not reflect any stock dividend income for the period of January 11, 2012 through [April 2, 2012]. If the stocks issued dividends, then the income should be reflected on Schedule "A". If the dividends were reinvested, those transactions should be shown on Schedule "C".

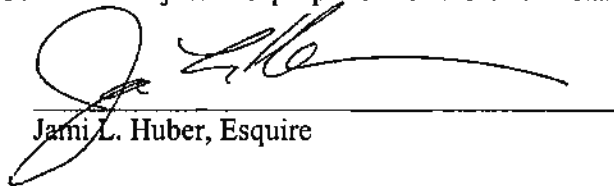

2. Ronald O. Mayes objects to the Final Accounting on the grounds that it appears to list the inappropriate address of real estate. As indicated on the Initial Inventory, Helen M. O'Grady owned a piece of property located at 3742 NW 5th Avenue, Boca Raton, Florida. In contrast, on Schedule "C" and Schedule "D" of the Final Accounting, the accounting shows property located at the address of 8849 Thames River Drive, Boca Raton, Florida. Additionally, this property is listed on Schedule "C" although there appears to be no capital transaction associated with this property.

3. Ronald O. Mayes objects to both the Initial Inventory and the Final Accounting on the grounds that it inappropriately describes Helen M. O'Grady's personal property. In both the Initial Inventory and the Final Accounting, Thomas Mayes states that he is completely unaware of any furniture, household goods, clothing and jewelry owned by Helen M. O'Grady. In his capacity as Guardian, it is his duty to marshal, inventory, protect and account for her assets. It is completely unacceptable to underhandedly and self-servingly breach these responsibilities by stating that he is unaware of the personal property. Additionally, Thomas Mayes is believed to have removed jewelry and other valuables from the Ward's residence and will not account for same.

4. Ronald O. Mayes objects to both the Initial Inventory and the Final Accounting on the grounds that it fails to appropriately account for liens against real property and against certain stock in the amount of approximately $338,000 for a personal loan that Helen M. O'Grady had with Sunflower Bank in Wichita, KS.

WHEREFORE, Ronald O. Mayes, respectfully asks this Honorable Court to sustain the objections, enter an Order requiring the Guardian to amend both the Initial Inventory and the Final Accounting, so that they are consistent with these objections, and asks this Court to award him such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper under the circumstances, including costs and attorney's fees..

OBJECTION TO PETITION FOR PAYMENT OF EMERGENCY TEMPORARY GUARDIAN'S
ATTORNEYS' FEES AND EXPENSES
(MAY 14, 2012 through January 11, 2013)

Thomas H. Mayes, The Emergency Temporary Guardian of my late mother Helen O'Grady and applicant
For appointment as limit Guardian for my late mother Helen O'Grady, files this Objection to the Petition
For payment of Emergency Temporary Guardian's Attorneys' Fees and Expenses filed by Hark, Burkhalter Yon, PL, as attorneys for Thomas Mayes, as Emergency Temporary Guardian, and states as follows:

1. Mr. Hark has made mistakes and prolonged this case for his benefit.
2. Mr. Hark stated to me and my wife Sandra Smith that I will be the "First one to be reimbursed for my out of pocket expenses for taking care of my late mother" I have not.
3. Mr. Hark stated to me he has to "change his game plan" when we found out in the first day of court that the other limited guardian Elizabeth Betsy Savitt, that Mr. Hark brought into the case was married to Judge Colin of Probate Division of Palm Beach. In which (Conflict of Interest) has caused more problems than it has solved.
4. Mr. Hark accepting this case has not precluded any other employment. He has been late for meetings and not taking phone calls because Mr. Hark was with other clients or in court.
5. Mr. Hark stated in his petition to be paid for his services. That he has saved time in this case? He has not; this case should have been over in June of 2012. My brother Ronald Mayes counsel Mr. Miller has objected to my fees and Mr. Hark's fees too. In which brings us to another hearing, the last hearing 11/09/2012 Mr. Hark does not recall the agreement with Mr. Miller in front of Judge Martz, that if I turn over my personal journal (Log) it would justify my billing so that I can be reimbursed. Two months later I had to do my bill over because Mr. Hark should have clearly stated and directed what Florida Statue 744.108 meant. To itemize my billing properly in the form of the Statue for reimbursement back in June of 2012. Now

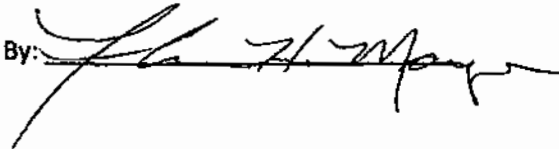

Mr. Miller turned over my journal to his client Ronald Mayes and he is trying to use it against me in the O'Grady Estate case. Case No.: 502012CP002908XXXXSB

6. Mr. Hark stated to me and my wife that he was afraid of my brother Daniel Mayes who is residing in my late mother house rent free. Mr. Hark told us when he was a prosecutor for Miami and he put away murderers and drug dealers and did not fear them but he feared my brother Daniel? Because he was a loose cannon? Mr. Hark should have stepped down, if he feared for his safety? I feel it interfered with his ability to represent me responsibly in this guardianship case.

WHEREFORE, Thomas H. Mayes objects to the Final Petition for Payment of Emergency Temporary Guardian's Attorneys' Fees and Cost filed by Hark Burkhalter Yon, PL as attorneys for Thomas Mayes, as Emergency Temporary Guardian, request that they be determined to be substantially unreasonable, and for whatever and further relief the Court deems just.

OBJECTION TO DANIEL W. MAYES' PETITION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO APPOINT A CURATOR

COMES NOW A Beneficiary and Interested Party STEPHANIE J.
CHAMBERS who wishes to OBJECT to the appointment of a curator.

I am asking this Honorable Court to once again OBJECT to an appointment of a curator. I am hoping my mother, Helen O'Grady's guardian; Elizabeth Savitt has paid the Sunflower Bank Loan in full as was granted by the Honorable Judge Garrison. My sister and I have refrained from obtaining council in this probate matter, as we feel there are too many Attorney's involved as it is.

My brother, Daniel Mayes is a mentally ill alcoholic who without any burden of proof, falsely accused my brother, Thomas H. Mayes to only delay and stall my mother's will to probate. I feel Daniel W. Mayes does not comprehend the financial obligations he now has incurred with Clark & Skatoff PA. Because he has no income or assets to pay for his council, it is in my opinion the estate is now being extorted legally by the Attorneys.

The same sham is proceeding with my other brother, Ronald O. Mayes who with his attorney, Jami Huber did not comply with the court order to produce the burden of proof for his allegations at his deposition on February 11, 2013. This is another stall and delay tactic that is wasting the estate's resources and the courts precious time. It has been over 30 days with no reply from Jami Huber when he will finish his deposition.

It is my opinion, Elizabeth Savitt is now feeling the same intimidation and harassment that Thomas, Kathleen, and I have endured for months.

WHEREFORE, I ask this Honorable Court to object to the appointment of a curator and dismiss this erroneous lawsuit that has no documentation or proof to the support the allegations against Thomas H. Mayes, enter the estate into probate and appoint my brother Thomas H. Mayes as the Personal Representative so we can honor my mother's wishes.

IN RE: GUARDIANSHIP OF

ROBERT PAUL WEIN

PETITION FOR APPOINTMENT OF EMERGENCY TEMPORARY GUARDIAN

Petitioner, Daniel Wein, alleges:

1. Petitioner's residence is 9717 N New River Canal Road, Unit 410, Plantation, FL, 33324 and Petitioner's post office address is same and Petitioner's telephone number is (954) 472-1804 and (954) 261-8867.

2. A Petition for Determination of Incapacity has been filed in this court with respect to ROBERT PAUL WEIN, an alleged incapacitated person, but a guardian has not been appointed.

3. Petitioner is an adult interested in the welfare of the alleged incapacitated person.

4. There appears to be imminent danger that the physical or mental health or safety of the alleged incapacitated person will be seriously impaired or that the property of that person is in danger of being wasted, misappropriated or lost unless immediate action is taken because:

a. ROBERT PAUL WEIN lacks the physical and mental capacity to perform tasks necessary to care for himself and for his property. He is in immediate need of professional nursing care, and should be removed from his current living situation, where he is being was no longer valid, and that Daniel Wein had been removed as trustee of ROBERT PAUL WEIN'S revocable trust.

e. At approximately the same time, Daniel Wein discovered that ROBERT PAUL WEIN and Vita Wein had been secretly married on August 6, 2014. Daniel Wein was never told of the marriage by Vita Wein or Delores Bryant, both of whom were aware that it had taken place.

f. In early September, 2014, Daniel Wein received a distressed telephone call from a financial broker for ROBERT WEIN'S revocable trust, who advised that ROBERT PAUL WEIN had called the broker to tell him that Delores Bryant was replacing Daniel Wein as trustee of ROBERT PAUL WEIN'S revocable trust, and that Vita Wein had also called the broker asking to remove funds from ROBERT PAUL WEIN'S revocable trust.

g. On September 2, 2014, ROBERT PAUL WEIN'S niece called ROBERT PAUL WEIN to find out why he had revoked the power of attorney in favor of Daniel Wein, and why he had made certain changes to his revocable trust as described in the letter from his lawyer. ROBERT PAUL WEIN denied having made such changes, and advised that he would instruct his lawyer to correct his documents. A short time later, ROBERT PAUL WEIN'S lawyer called ROBERT PAUL WEIN'S niece and told her to stop "harassing" her uncle, ROBERT PAUL WEIN.

5. ROBERT PAUL WEIN is an alleged incapacitated person whose date of birth is July 24, 1926 and who is 88 years of age. The residence of the alleged incapacitated person is 602 Normandy M, Delray Beach, FL 33484 and the post office address of the alleged incapacitated person is same.

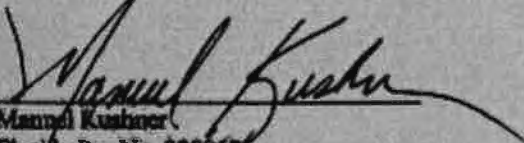

6. The nature of the alleged incapacitated person's alleged incapacity is dementia

Petitioner requests that summary proceedings be held upon this petition, that the Court appoint an attorney to represent the alleged incapacitated person in these proceedings, and that an emergency temporary guardian of the person and property be appointed for the alleged incapacitated person.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

ROBERT PAUL WEIN

CASE NO. 502014GA000472XXXXMB

PETITION FOR ORDER AUTHORIZING SALE OF REAL PROPERTY

Petitioner, Elizabeth Savitt, by and through her undersigned counsel, alleges:

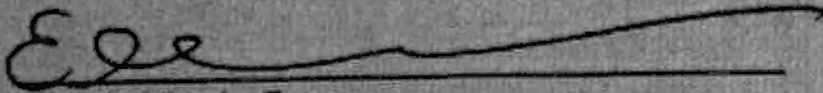

1. Petitioner is the duly appointed and acting emergency temporary guardian of the person and property of Robert Paul Wein (the Ward).
2. The Ward owns a co-op located at 230 West 105th Street, Apt. 5AA, New York, New York 10025 (the "Property").
3. Prior to the filing for determination of the Ward's incapacity and appointment of emergency temporary guardian, the Ward himself executed a contract for sale of the Property to Hadley Cronk for the purchase price of $265,000.00. A copy of the Contract is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."
4. The Property was originally listed for sale at $295,000.00 and then reduced to $280,000.00. The Property was built in 1917 and is considered a Pre-War Co-Operative. The apartment is a total of 331 square feet and was originally attached to Apartment 5A as maid's quarters and then partitioned into a separate apartment. The Property is in poor condition and needs a new kitchen and bathroom and updates to its electrical system to bring it up to today's standards. Two (2) viable offers close to the asking price were previously received but later rescinded after the potential buyers evaluated the cost of the renovations needed. After this time, the price was lowered.
5. Due to the Property's poor condition and need of significant repairs, Petitioner believes the sale price of $265,000.00 is the highest price that the Ward will receive for the Property and does not want the Ward to lose the sale, which would have gone forward were it not for the pending incapacity and guardianship proceedings.
6. Other similar apartments in the area sold between $306,000 and $335,000 but were in much better condition than the Ward's Property. A list of the comparable sales is attached hereto as Exhibit "B."

7. At this time, the buyer has secured a mortgage commitment and is waiting to be approved by the co-op board. However, the co-op board cannot determine approval of the buyer until the emergency temporary guardian executes an affidavit and other necessary documents on behalf of the Ward.
8. Petitioner believes it is expedient, necessary and in the best interest of the Ward to sell the Property at the price and upon the terms contained in the contract for sale because said sales price represents a fair and reasonable price for the Property and same is an arms length transaction at fair market value and is what the Ward himself has agreed upon.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner requests that an order be entered by this Court approving the contract for sale and authorizing the emergency temporary guardian of the property to sell the above-described real property at a private sale, to execute all instruments and documents necessary to effectuate the sale and to deposit the proceeds from the sale in an account titled in the name of the guardianship.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

DANIEL WEIN'S RESPONSE TO VERIFIED PETITION FOR ORDER AUTHORIZING GUARDIAN TO AMEND TRUST

COMES NOW, DANIEL WEIN, brother of the Ward, ROBERT PAUL WEIN (hereinafter "Robert") and hereby files his RESPONSE TO VERIFIED PETITION FOR ORDER AUTHORIZING GUARDIAN TO AMEND TRUST and responds as follows:

1. Paragraphs 1 through 3 are admitted and agreed with.
2. Daniel Wein is without Knowledge as to Paragraph 4.
3. Paragraphs 5 and 6 are admitted
4. Daniel Wein admits in part and requests clarification as to Paragraph 7 and replies with the following recommendations:

a) "The Amended and Restated Trust" dated August 25, 2014 should be revoked in its entirety, as Robert did not have the testamentary capacity to execute such. On October 15, 2014, This court issued an Order determining, after a panel of 3 examined the Ward, that Robert suffers from incapacities of Dementia and age related decline, and among other things, lacks the capacity to contract. The Examining Committee further found that Robert was likely to have been under manipulation and duress and was unable to consent to changes made to the "Revocable Living Robert Wein Trust" dated November 25, 2013.

- b) The "Revocable Living Robert Wein Trust" dated November 25, 2013 is the appropriate trust that should remain in full force and effect. This trust was executed by Robert Paul Wein while he possessed testamentary capacity to do so.
- c) In November 2013, Robert consulted with Attorney Brian A. Raphan concerning the specifics of his trust. He met and consulted with several other attorneys from the firm who visited him in his apartment. Two attorneys spent a few hours with him in private, discussing all aspects of the trust with special attention to the "Specific Distributions" clause before Robert executed such on November 25, 2013. Robert was completely aware and cognizant of the substance of the trust details and was not under any undue influence or coercion, as the attorney will testify. Further, Daniel Wein requested that Robert's Physician Dr. B. Grossman examine Robert and he determined that Robert was mentally competent and suffered no incapacities at the date of signing.
- d) If the "Amended and Restated Trust" dated August 25, 2014 remains in force, or is amended to reinstate Daniel Wein as an heir or for any other changes to beneficiaries or beneficial interests, the amendment invites challenges both while Robert is alive as well as after his death. Pursuant to the Florida Statutes under Title XLII a challenge to the "Amended and Restated Trust" will most likely be successful as Robert lacks testamentary capacity. October 15, 2014, after reports from the Court appointed Examining Committee the court determined that Robert "suffers from the incapacities of dementia and age related decline and among many others, lacks capacity to contract. Dr. Stanley Bloom, M.D. in his report dated September 18, 2014 stated, Robert " Mentally appears to have significant dementia which can progress over time” . Dr. Pamela Feldman, Ph.D., in her report dated October9, 2014, referred to Roberts Physical and/or Mental prognosis as “poor. Will likely decline with age”. In order to defend a challenge that Robert has testamentary capacity, another Court ordered examination of the wards (Roberts) current mental condition would be necessary.

e) Daniel Wein asserts that 2 amendments to the “Robert Wein Living Trust” are proper and necessary under the Florida Statutes. The “Robert Wein Living Trust” should be amended to change the Trustee to Elizabeth Savitt and the State of Jurisdiction from New York to Florida.

Respectfully Submitted this 13th day of March 2015.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA

Case No. 502014GA000472 | Probate Division IB

IN RE: THE GUARDIANSHIP OF

ROBERT PAUL WEIN,

The Ward.

_____ /

VITA WEIN'S MOTION FOR ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS

Comes now, Vita Wein, by and through the undersigned counsel and pursuant to Florida Statute § 57.105 and Florida Statute § 744.108(1), hereby moves this Honorable Court for an award of attorney's fees and costs to be assessed against the Petitioner, Elizabeth Savitt ("Petitioner"), and states as follows:

1. By order of this Court in Case Number 502014MH001747, the Ward, Robert Paul Wein ("Ward") was determined to be incapacitated, and the Petitioner was appointed limited guardian.

2. On February 22, 2015, the Petitioner filed in this action a Verified Petition for Order Authorizing Guardian to Amend Ward's Trust (the "Trust Petition").

3. In the Trust Petition, the Petitioner alleges that on August 25, 2014, the Ward executed an amendment and restatement to his revocable trust, and on February 9, 2015, the Ward met with the Petitioner and her attorney to make changes to the testamentary provisions of the Ward's trust.

4. On February 23, 2015, the Petitioner filed a Verified Petition for Order Authorizing Guardian to Bring Annulment on Behalf of the Ward (the "Annulment Petition").

5. In the Annulment Petition, the Petitioner alleges that the Ward previously married Vita Wein but divorced in 1960. The Petitioner goes on to allege that the Ward remarried Vita Wein on August 6, 2014, when, according to the Petitioner, the Ward "had diminished capacity, was unable to consent to marriage, was suffering from a serious mental problem and was under duress to marry."

6. According to the petitions filed by the Petitioner, in the month of August 2014, the Ward's capacity and supposed mental problem came and went to the extent that, on the one hand, the Ward was unable to contract to marriage while, on the other hand, the Ward was of sound enough mind to make important revisions to his trust and meet with an attorney for the purpose of carrying out those revisions. These are evident inconsistencies and inaccuracies that the Petitioner either knew, or should have known, existed at the time the Trust Petition and Annulment Petition were filed. Furthermore, by attempting to amend the Ward's trust and dissolve the Ward's valid marriage to his wife and best friend, Vita Wein, the Petitioner is failing to act in the best interests of the Ward.

7. In addition, the Petitioner has falsely pleaded that the Ward was divorced from Vita Wein in 1960 and then lacked the requisite capacity to re-marry Vita Wein on August 6, 2014. In actuality, since their marriage in 1958, the Ward and Vita Wein have never divorced. The matrimonial ceremony on August 6, 2014, represented a renewal of the marital vows between the Ward and Vita Wein.

8. Due to the knowingly inconsistent and factually inaccurate nature of the Petitioner's claims, Vita Wein is entitled to reasonable attorney's fees for defending said claims for the benefit of the Ward.

9. Florida Statute § 57.105(1) authorizes an award of reasonable attorney's fees to be paid to the prevailing party on any claim made during a civil proceeding or action in which the court finds that the losing party or the losing party's attorney knew or should have known that a claim or defense when presented to the court was not supported by the material facts necessary to establish the claim or would not be supported by the application of then-existing law to those material facts.

10. Pursuant to Florida Statute § 57.105, Vita Wein is entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees if, within 21 days of being served herewith, the Petitioner refuses to withdraw or appropriately correct the Trust Petition and Annulment Petition. Furthermore, Vita Wein is entitled to reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to Florida Statute § 744.108(1) for defending for the benefit of the Ward the Petitioner's claims in this action. See Thorpe v. Myers, 67 So. 3d 338 (Fla. 2d DCA 2011).

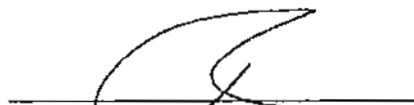

11. Pursuant to Florida Statute § 57.105(4), this motion is brought in good faith and will not be filed with the Court until 21 days after this motion is served on the Petitioner.

WHEREFORE, Vita Wein respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter an order granting reasonable attorney's fees to Vita Wein, to be assessed against the Petitioner, and for any further relief that the Court deems just and proper under the circumstances.

22 A. I did.
23 Q. What are those documents?

2 MS. MORRIS: Composites or each one?

4 MS. MORRIS: You can give all three.
5 Is that all right, Bruce? All three
6 together, the three examining committee --
7 MR. ROSENWATER: We're going to put them
8 all together anyway, so just identify them on 9 the record.
10 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
11 Q. You have three examining reports?
12 A. Yes, examining committee reports.
13 Do we need this?
14 MS. MORRIS: It's not really a document
15 that he asked us for. You don't need that.
16 THE WITNESS: And this?
17 MR. ROSENWATER: What is that? Do I have
18 that?
19 MS. MORRIS: Which?
20 MR. ROSENWATER: This document right here
21 where it says --
22 MS. MORRIS: No, that she's giving you.
23 MR. ROSENWATER: Okay.
24 THE WITNESS: Vow renewal service from Lee
25 County Clerk, the Palm Beach County Clerk and

1 Comptroller, marriage license, and State of 2 Florida Marriage License Guide.
3 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
4 Q. Is that everything?
5 MS. MORRIS: She has her billing records,
6 which I think would be part of what you asked
7 for. But there are -- you know, rules for 8 production of documents at a deposition are the 9 same as notice of production, so it was 10 actually before the 30 days. But she's getting 11 them to you, but she just doesn't have them for 12 today. So we'll get them to you in the next
13 couple of days.
14 MR. ROSENWATER: Madam Court Reporter,
15 let's mark this as Composite Exhibit Number 2.
16 MS. MORRIS: Oh, and she brought the 17 checkbook registry for you to copy if you want
18 to copy the registry.
19 (Thereupon, Composite Exhibit Number 2 is 20 marked for identification.)
21 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
22 Q. I've been handed checks and a checkbook
23 registry for the guardianship account for Robert
24 Wein, Elizabeth Savitt, guardian, at Bank of 25 America, and the account ends in 3992.

11:29:09-11:31:49 Page 11

1 Is this the guardianship account that was
2 opened on behalf of Robert Wein when you were
3 appointed guardian in this case?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. And the check register and the checks in 6 here are the checks that you've written as guardian
7 on behalf Robert Wein since you became guardian?
8 A. Yes.
9 MR. ROSENWATER: We're going to mark this
10 as Exhibit 3, and let's go off the record for a
11 second.
12 (Thereupon, Exhibit Number 3 is marked for 13 identification, and an off-the-record
14 discussion was had.)
15 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
16 Q. So you've provided as a composite exhibit
17 to the deposition -- excuse me, the documents
18 you've brought in connection with the duces tecum,
19 I want to go through each paragraph.
20 Number two, all documents upon which you
21 relied in preparation for your deposition in this
22 action being taken on May 19, 2015, those were the 23 Composite Exhibit 2; are those the documents that 24 you brought?
25 A. Yes.

11:32:01-11:32:47 Page 12

1 Q. And then on Exhibit -- item three, your
2 complete file regarding the guardianship of Robert
3 Wein, you didn't bring that file, correct?
4 A. Correct.
5 Q. And why not?
6 MS. MORRIS: He's just asking if you
7 didn't bring it, why.
8 So I'm going to make an objection.
9 There's a motion for protective order filed to 10 the whole file. She did bring certain things
11 from her file. For instance, the checkbook, as 12 part of her file.
13 MR. ROSENWATER: Was there a privilege log
14 filed in connection with this motion for 15 protective order?
16 MS. MORRIS: No, there was not because the 17 30 days is not up yet to file a privilege log.
18 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
19 Q. What documents do you believe to be 20 privileged in your file?
21 A. Communication with my attorney.
22 Q. That's fine. Okay.
23 MS. MORRIS: That's really what there is.
24 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
25 Q. Is that the only thing other than what

11:33:01-11:34:05 Page 13

1 you've provided today in your file, communications
2 between you and Ellen Morris?
3 A. And also estate planning documents.
4 Q. Estate planning documents for Robert Wein?
5 A. Yes.
6 Bank account statements.
7 Q. The estate planning documents that are in 8 the file, are those the documents that were 9 prepared by -- strike that.
10 There were documents that I've seen in 11 reviewing the file that were prepared in November
12 of 2003 in New York on behalf of Robert Wein. Do
13 you have those documents in your file?
14 A. November of 2003?
15 Q. Excuse me, 2013.
16 A. 2013. Do I have the estate planning
17 documents from 2013?
18 Q. Correct, in your file.
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. I have also seen documents that were
21 prepared in August of 2014 by the Shaves,
22 S-H-A-V-E-S, Law Firm. Are those documents in your
23 file?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. I've also seen a will that was prepared, I

11:34:20-11:35:01 Page 14

1 believe, in March of 2014. Is that in your
2 document -- is that in your file?
3 A. No.
4 Q. Do you have any documents in your file
5 regarding any wills or estate planning documents on
6 behalf of Robert Wein prior to November of 2013?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. And what documents do you have in your
9 file?
10 MS. MORRIS: Objection, privileged.
11 MR. ROSENWATER: It's not privileged. I'm
12 not asking -- what's the privilege?
13 MS. MORRIS: What are you asking for, just 14 the title of the document?
15 MR. ROSENWATER: The title and the dates
16 they were prepared. I'm not asking to produce
17 the document.
18 MS. MORRIS: I actually think it is still
19 privileged because estate planning documents,
20 whether you have them or not, are a privileged
21 document and not discoverable in a
22 guardianship, so I'm going to instruct her not
23 to answer. If you want to prepare whatever you
24 want to prepare, but I'm going to instruct her
25 not to answer about what other estate planning

11:35:05-11:35:49 Page 15

1 documents there are.
2 MR. ROSENWATER: We're going to certify
3 that question.
4 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
5 Q. Where did you get these estate planning
6 documents from? Who provided these documents to
7 you?
8 A. Which ones?
9 Q. In your file. The documents in your file.
10 You have a number of estate planning documents in 11 your file. I don't know exactly what you have.
12 A. I'm fairly sure they came from Ellen
13 Morris's office.
14 Q. Did Ellen Morris request these documents
15 from certain individuals on your behalf?
16 A. I have no idea.
17 Q. Have you requested from any individuals
18 any estate planning documents on behalf of Robert
19 Wein?
20 A. No. I just said I got them Ellen's
21 office.
22 Q. So you never asked Robert Wein for any
23 estate planning documents?
24 A. No, not directly.
25 Q. Has he provided any document to you

11:36:06-11:37:02 Page 16

1 directly, Robert Wein?
2 A. No.
3 Q. How about have you asked Dan Wein for any
4 estate planning documents?
5 A. I'm not sure.
6 Q. Do you have any correspondence or e-mails
7 with Dan Wein that would indicate that you asked
8 for these documents?
9 A. I'm not sure. I would have to look.
10 Q. Do you keep in your file all of the 11 correspondence regarding this matter: e-mails,
12 letters, telephone records?
13 A. E-mails.
14 Q. Do you have in your file any e-mails
15 between yourself and Dan Wein?
16 A. Not printed, no.
17 Q. But so you keep them on your computer?
18 A. Yes, they're in my e-mail account.
19 Q. Why didn't you produce those today?
20 A. Well, because I didn't have time to go
21 through and print all of those, and I didn't know
22 what you were asking for --
23 Q. How many e-mails --
24 A. -- dates you were asking for.
25 Q. How many e-mails do you have with Dan

11:37:10-11:37:56 Page 17

1 Wein, approximately?
2 A. I have no idea.
3 Q. When did you start communicating with Dan
4 Wein regarding this matter?
5 A. Regarding which matter?
6 Q. Well, we're here on behalf of the 7 guardianship of Robert Wein.
8 A. We're here on behalf of --
9 Q. The guardianship of Robert Wein, that's 10 the matter in which you're testifying in.
11 MS. MORRIS: I think she's trying to 12 clarify if you're saying since the beginning
13 that she was involved in the guardianship,
14 you're asking her how many communications you
15 have with Dan Wein?
16 MR. ROSENWATER: Let me clarify that 17 question then.
18 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
19 Q. Did you have communications with Dan Wein
20 prior to being appointed the guardian in this case?
21 A. No.
22 Q. So the first communications that you had
23 with Dan Wein were after you were appointed
24 guardian in the guardianship of Robert Paul Wein,
25 case number 50 2014 GA 000472?

1 A. Yes.
2 Q. And when were you appointed guardian?
3 A. October 15 -- no. Wait a minute.
4 MS. MORRIS: Right here.
5 THE WITNESS: October 15.
6 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
7 Q. 2014?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. So any communications you've had with Dan
10 Wein were after October 15th, 2014?
11 A. I believe so, yes.
12 Q. What type of communications do you have 13 with Dan Wein? When I say what type of 14 communications, what issues, what matters are you
15 discussing with Dan Wein regarding the guardianship
16 of Robert Wein?
17 A. Well, are you asking about -- I'm not
18 clear. Are you asking about this issue, annulment, 19 what we filed here, what we're here for today, the 20 annulment and trust issue?
21 Q. No. I'm asking any issues that you may 22 have had -- any discussions with any issue you may 23 have had with Dan Wein regarding Robert Wein;
24 that's the first question.
25 A. Okay. And the whole guardianship?

1 Q. Correct.
2 A. So how many?
3 Q. No. I'm saying what type of
4 communications have you had with them regarding 5 what issues? We know we're talking about the
6 trust; we're talking about annulment. Are there
7 any other issues that you've had discussions, or 8 e-mails, or correspondence with Dan Wein regarding
9 the guardianship of Robert Wein?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. For example, his welfare and care?
12 A. Yes. His welfare and care, yes.
13 Q. Can you tell me, other than his welfare
14 and care, the trust and the annulment, are there
15 any other issues that you've had discussions with 16 Dan Wein?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. What other issues have you had discussions
19 with --
20 A. Financial.
21 Q. When you say financial, what are the 22 financial issues that you're talking about?
23 A. All of his financial issues.
24 Q. Well, I don't know what all of his
25 financial issues are. I know by looking at this

1 there's promissory notes that are outstanding, he
2 has certain accounts with certain banks and
3 brokerage firms. What financial issues are you
4 talking about when you say you had discussions with 5 Dan Wein? You need to be a little more specific.
6 A. Those financial issues.
7 Q. Anything other than what I've discussed?
8 A. No.
9 Q. How often do you discuss this guardianship
10 with Dan Wein? Do you speak with him on a weekly
11 basis, daily basis?
12 A. Weekly.
13 Q. Are these via e-mail?
14 A. Telephone.
15 Q. And you have telephone records?
16 A. No.
17 Q. What number does he call when he calls
18 you? Does he call your personal number or do you
19 have a professional number?
20 A. Cell phone.
21 Q. What is your cell phone number?
22 A. 561-573-1292.
23 Q. Do you have e-mails between you and Dan
24 Wein as well?
25 A. Uh-huh.

1 Q. Is that on a weekly basis?
2 A. I can't tell you.
3 Q. Have you met with Dan Wein in person
4 regarding this matter?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. How many times have you met with Dan Wein?
7 A. By himself?
8 Q. Yes.
9 A. Once, maybe twice.
10 Q. Where do those meetings take place?
11 A. The first one was in his home.
12 Q. Dan Wein's home?
13 A. Uh-huh.
14 MS. MORRIS: Betsy, you have to answer yes
15 or no.
16 THE WITNESS: Yes, Dan Wein's home.
17 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
18 Q. And the other meeting?
19 A. The other meeting was at The Colony.
20 Q. All of these correspondence and meetings
21 with Dan Wein would be in your billing records,
22 correct?
23 A. Correct.
24 Q. So you bill for each telephone call, each
25 e-mail, and each meeting that you had with Dan

11:42:26-11:43:27 Page 22

1 Wein?
2 A. Approximately. No, I wouldn't say I bill
3 for every telephone call because I don't bill for
4 every telephone call.
5 Q. Do you indicate in your records that you
6 had a telephone conversation with Dan Wein and 7 maybe put no charge if you don't bill for it or --
8 A. Possibly.
9 Q. And you said you met with Dan Wein on two
10 occasions personally. Have you met with Dan Wein
11 with other individuals present?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. How many times have you met with Dan Wein
14 with other individuals present? And for each
15 meeting, please identify who was present at the 16 meeting. So if you can start with going back to 17 the best of your memory from October 15, 2014
18 forward, the meetings that you had with Dan Wein
19 and any other individuals, and who was present, and 20 approximately the date, if you can tell me.
21 A. Well, I met Dan Wein at the courthouse
22 during the hearing.
23 Q. Was that in October of 2014?
24 A. Uh-huh.
25 MS. MORRIS: Yes or no?

11:43:30-11:44:13 Page 23

1 THE WITNESS: Yes.
2 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
3 Q. And is that the first time you met Dan
4 Wein?
5 A. I believe so.
6 Q. Who was present at that meeting?
7 A. All of the attorneys on the case. All of 8 the interested parties.
9 Q. Did you speak with Dan Wein at that time?
10 A. Yes, I was introduced to him.
11 Q. That's the extent of your discussions with 12 him?
13 A. Probably.
14 Q. The next time?
15 A. I'm just not exactly sure without looking 16 at my records. I know for sure I met him at his 17 home.
18 Q. Who was present at his home when you met
19 him?
20 A. His wife.
21 Q. Do you know her name?
22 A. I do not.
23 Q. Was anyone else present?
24 A. No.
25 Q. Any other meetings with any other

11:44:32-11:45:33 Page 24

1 individuals with Dan Wein and yourself?
2 A. Yes. I met with Dan and Robert and Vita.
3 Q. When was that?
4 A. That would have been at The Colony.
5 Q. Do you know when that was, approximately?
6 A. No.
7 Q. Was it prior to January of 2015?
8 A. I can't remember the date he moved into
9 The Colony. I can find out.
10 Q. When you met with Dan and Robert and Vita
11 at The Colony, what was discussed at that meeting?
12 A. The food, the conditions of The Colony,
13 Robert's care, Vita's clothes, necessities.
14 Q. Was that recently that you had a meeting
15 with him at the Colony to discuss Robert's food and 16 care?
17 A. Well, you were talking about the first
18 meeting?
19 Q. Right. And that's what you discussed at 20 the first meeting, regarding his food and care?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Then when was the next meeting that you
23 had with Dan Wein and anyone else?
24 A. I had multiple meetings at The Colony with 25 Robert, Dan, Vita, also The Colony staff, The

11:45:48-11:46:44 Page 25

1 Colony nurses.
2 Q. And all of these meetings would be
3 reflected in your billing records?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. And your billing records would reflect,
6 for example, that October 15, 2014 you met with 7 Robert, Vita, Dan --
8 A. October 15th was the trial.
9 Q. I'm just using as an example.
10 A. Right.
11 Q. That you met with those three individuals
12 at The Colony, we discussed A, B, C, and D, and I
13 was there for travel for two and a half hours, is 14 that how your billing records are set up?
15 MS. MORRIS: Objection, compound.
16 MR. ROSENWATER: I can break it down one
17 by one.
18 MS. MORRIS: Well, only because I think
19 it's confusing for her to answer it, and I'm 20 not sure that her billing records do include
21 all of that. So if you want to break it down?
22 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
23 Q. Why don't we do this: As a hypothetical,
24 you met with Dan and Vita and Bob at The Colony on 25 such and such date, what would your billing records

1 reflect for that meeting?
2 A. That I met with Dan, Vita, Robert at The
3 Colony. It might reflect an issue that was going
4 on at the time.
5 Q. It may reflect an issue or may not?
6 A. Correct.
7 Q. So you don't put that I met with those
8 three individuals and we discussed Robert's food,
9 health?
10 A. Let me be repetative, because every time I
11 go there I'm obviously discussing his food,
12 health --
13 Q. But for your records --
14 A. -- his needs.
15 Q. -- each time you would identify who you
16 met with?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. And would it reflect something that you
19 discussed?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. And would you put down the date of the 22 meeting?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. And would you put down how long you were 25 at the meeting?

1 Q. What was discussed at this meeting?
2 A. I would --
3 MS. MORRIS: It's not privileged because
4 Dan was present, so you can tell them.
5 THE WITNESS: Okay. The marriage.
6 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
7 Q. The marriage of Robert Wein and Vita Wein?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. What else?
10 A. The trust petition, that's it.
11 Q. Did you ask Dan Wein to meet with you at 12 Ellen Morris's office?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. What was discussed regarding the marriage
15 of Vita and Robert Wein at this meeting at Ellen
16 Morris's office in April?
17 A. Basically the marriage, when it took 18 place, any information that he had.
19 Q. When did Dan Wein say the marriage took 20 place?
21 A. I don't remember exactly, but I have it
22 here.
23 Q. Oh, you're asking about the new marriage
24 or the original marriage? Isn't this the -- can I
25 look at this? You were pointing to the marriage

1 A. Approximately.
2 Q. Is there anything else that your billing
3 records would reflect for that meeting?
4 A. Probably not.
5 Q. So you've met -- you've had multiple
6 meetings with Robert and Dan and Vita at The 7 Colony. Have you had any other meetings with Dan
8 outside The Colony other than the October 15, 2014
9 meeting at the courthouse?
10 A. I met Dan at the -- outside of the office
11 of Ellen Morris.
12 Q. When was this?
13 A. I don't have the date.
14 Q. Was it recent?
15 A. April.
16 Q. That was last month, wasn't it?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. Did you contact Dan to meet you at Ellen
19 Morris's office in April?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Was there a meeting with the three of you?
22 What I mean the three, Ellen Morris, yourself, and 23 Dan Wein, were you meeting together at Ms. Morris's
24 office?
25 A. Yes.

1 certificate of the marriage that took place in
2 August of 2014. Is that the marriage you were
3 discussing with Dan?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. So what did you discuss with Dan regarding
6 the August of 2014 marriage between Robert and Vita
7 Wein?
8 A. Robert's intention to marry, Robert's
9 intentions.
10 Q. What did Dan Wein say about Robert's
11 intention to marry in August of 2014?
12 A. I don't remember exactly.
13 Q. Did he have any discussions with Robert
14 regarding him marrying Vita in 2014? Did Dan
15 indicate to you that he had any discussions with 16 Robert regarding his intent to marry Vita prior to 17 the marriage in August of 2014?
18 A. I'm not sure.
19 Q. Do you recall anything that he said
20 regarding this marriage of August of 2014?
21 A. That he wasn't made aware of it, that he 22 wasn't contacted, that he wasn't made aware of it
23 until after it took place.
24 Q. Did he tell you if he was having any --
25 was he on speaking terms with Robert Wein in August

1 of 2014; did he indicate to you that?
2 A. I don't recall.
3 Q. Any other discussions regarding the August
4 of 2014 marriage?
5 A. No.
6 Q. Did you have any discussions with Dan
7 regarding Robert and Vita's marriage that took
8 place, I believe, in 1958?
9 A. I'm sure it was mentioned.
10 Q. Were there any discussions regarding that?
11 A. I don't remember.
12 Q. Did Dan Wein ever provide to you any 13 documentation regarding, I'll call it, the initial 14 marriage between Dan and Vita that took place? And 15 I believe it was 1958. If I'm wrong, I'm wrong.
16 But somewhere in the late '50s. Did he provide you
17 any documentation regarding that marriage?
18 A. No, I don't believe so.
19 Q. Did he tell you anything about that
20 marriage?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. What did he tell you about that marriage?
23 A. That they married and had a son.
24 Q. The son's name was Larry?
25 A. Larry.

1 Q. What is Larry's date of birth; do you
2 know?
3 A. I do not have that with me.
4 Q. What else did he say about that marriage,
5 the initial marriage?
6 A. I don't recall anything else.
7 Q. And as part of the documents that you
8 brought today that were marked as Composite Exhibit
9 2, you brought to the deposition we'll call it a --
10 you called it a separation agreement. It says
11 agreement that was entered the 27th of September,
12 1960 between Vita Wein and Robert Wein. Where did
13 you get this document?
14 A. That I got from Dan. I actually got it
15 from -- I got it from Dan.
16 Q. When did Dan Wein provide that document to
17 you?
18 A. I'm not sure.
19 Q. Has he ever provided to you any type of 20 final judgment of dissolution of marriage in 21 connection with this marital settlement agreement?
22 A. No.
23 Q. Do you have a copy of the final judgment
24 of dissolution of marriage?
25 A. No.

1 Q. Have you ever seen a copy of the final
2 judgement of dissolution of marriage?
3 A. No.
4 Q. Do you have any records that indicate that
5 the parties were divorced in 1960?
6 A. No.
7 Q. Have you researched any of the counties in 8 New York or New Jersey whether there was a final 9 judgment of dissolution of marriage that was 10 entered into in 1960 between -- dissolving the 11 marriage of Vita Wein and Robert Wein?
12 A. No.
13 Q. Did Dan Wein provided you with any other
14 documentation regarding the initial marriage of Dan
15 and Vita Wein other than this marital settlement
16 agreement?
17 A. No.
18 Q. Did Dan Wein tell you where he obtained
19 this marital settlement agreement from?
20 A. No.
21 Q. Did you ask him where he got it from?
22 A. I don't think so.
23 Q. At this meeting at Ellen Morris's office
24 in April, was there anything else discussed
25 regarding the initial marriage?

1 A. Not that I recall.
2 Q. And the only three people present at this
3 meeting were you, Ellen, and Dan Wein?
4 A. And Stacy.
5 Q. So Stacy was present at this meeting?
6 A. Stacy.
7 Q. Why was Stacy Wein at this meeting?
8 A. I think she drove him.
9 Q. She was physically in the office with you
10 and Dan and Ellen; she was present at the meeting?
11 A. For a short time, yes.
12 Q. Not the whole meeting?
13 A. No.
14 Q. Have you had any other meetings with Stacy
15 Wein other than this meeting?
16 A. No.
17 Q. Have you had any telephone conversations
18 with Stacy Wein?
19 A. A couple.
20 Q. Who initiated those calls?
21 A. I don't remember.
22 Q. What was the subject matter of those
23 conversations?
24 A. Updates about Robert's son Larry.
25 Q. At this meeting that took place in April,

11:57:12-11:58:10 Page 34

1 now, you said that Stacy was there. Was anyone
2 else at the meeting?
3 A. No.
4 Q. Robert was not present at this meeting?
5 A. Yes, he was there.
6 Q. You didn't say Robert.
7 A. Oh, I'm sorry.
8 Q. So there was Vita?
9 A. No.
10 Q. Excuse me. There was Robert, Dan, Stacy,
11 Ellen, and yourself at the meeting?
12 A. Correct.
13 Q. No one else, right?
14 A. Correct.
15 Q. Did you ask Robert at this meeting about 16 his marriage to Vita in August of 2014, the 17 marriage of 2014?
18 A. Say that again.
19 Q. The question was poorly worded, so I'll 20 restate it.
21 At the meeting that you had at your office
22 in April, did you inquire of Robert why he married
23 Vita in August of 2014?
24 A. Well, not with all of those people
25 present, no.

11:58:33-11:59:21 Page 35

1 Q. Did Robert say anything at this meeting
2 that you had in April of 2014?
3 A. Did he say anything? Yes.
4 Q. What did he say at this meeting?
5 A. Well, there were two meetings. One was
6 with him alone, and he spoke at that meeting.
7 Q. So in April of 2014, prior to meeting with 8 everyone, you met with Robert?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. And was Ellen present at that meeting?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. So prior to the five of you meeting, you
13 had a meeting with Robert and yourself and Ellen?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. What was discussed at that meeting?
16 MS. MORRIS: Objection, attorney/client
17 privilege.
18 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
19 Q. How long did you meet with Robert and
20 Ellen prior to that meeting?
21 A. I don't recall. I'd have to check my
22 notes.
23 Q. Was Robert coherent?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. Did Robert at that meeting state his

11:59:35-12:00:16 Page 36

1 intentions regarding that August of 2014 marriage?
2 MS. MORRIS: Objection, attorney/client
3 privilege.
4 MR. ROSENWATER: I'm not asking what he
5 said.
6 MS. MORRIS: The question does ask
7 basically what he said, whether or not he
8 stated his intention. If you want to say did
9 he say anything, you know, yes or no, but
10 stating an intention today --
11 MR. ROSENWATER: I'm only asking for a yes
12 or no answer.
13 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
14 Q. Did Robert discuss with you his intentions
15 regarding the August of 2014 marriage? And I'm not 16 asking you what he said that calls for a yes or no
17 answer.
18 A. So am I supposed to answer yes or no?
19 MS. MORRIS: Yes.
20 MR. ROSENWATER: Yes or no.
21 THE WITNESS: Did he speak about his --
22 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
23 Q. Intentions regarding the August of 2014
24 marriage?
25 A. Yes.

12:00:35-12:01:43 Page 37

1 Q. Did you have discussions prior to your
2 meeting with everyone with Robert regarding his
3 trust documents?
4 MS. MORRIS: Yes, no answer. You can
5 answer.
6 THE WITNESS: Yes.
7 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
8 Q. And this meeting again was April of 2014,
9 correct?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. Prior to April of 2014 --
12 MS. MORRIS: You mean April of 2015?
13 MR. ROSENWATER: '15, excuse me. I wrote
14 down April, 2014. I'm looking at it.
15 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
16 Q. Prior to the meeting of April of 2015, did
17 you have any meetings with Bob -- we'll call him
18 Bob -- Bob, Dan, Ellen, Stacy at Ellen's offices?
19 A. In February.
20 MS. MORRIS: Listen to the question.
21 Can you repeat the question one more time?
22 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
23 Q. Prior to the meeting of April of 2015 that
24 you had at Ellen's office with Bob, Dan, Stacy,
25 Ellen, and yourself, did you have any other

12:01:59-12:02:32 Page 38

1 meetings with Bob or any other individuals at Ellen
2 Morris's offices?
3 A. I had a meeting with Bob at Ellen Morris's
4 office in February.
5 Q. So in February of 2015 you met with Bob at 6 Ellen Morris's office?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. And at that meeting was anyone else
9 present?
10 A. Ellen and myself.
11 Q. Was Dan Wein there?
12 A. No.
13 Q. How did Bob get to those offices in 14 February of 2015?
15 A. He was driven.
16 Q. By who?
17 A. By Dan.
18 Q. But he wasn't part of the meeting?
19 A. No.
20 Q. He didn't participate in the meeting
21 whatsoever?
22 A. No.
23 Q. After you met with Bob on that day, did
24 you meet with Dan Wein?
25 A. I spoke to him, yes.

12:02:41-12:03:41 Page 39

1 Q. When you spoke to him, was that in the
2 presence of Ellen?
3 A. No.
4 Q. So you spoke with Dan Wein in February of 5 2015. What did you speak to him about?
6 A. Bob.
7 Q. When you say Bob, were you talking about
8 the marriage and the trust documents?
9 A. No. We were speaking about his care.
10 Q. At The Colony?
11 A. No, at Ellen's when he was leaving.
12 Q. I'm talking about the care at The Colony.
13 A. No, just his medical conditions in 14 general.
15 Q. Other than the February and April meetings
16 at Ellen Morris's office, did you have any other
17 meetings with Bob and Ellen?
18 A. No.
19 Q. Did you have any meetings with Bob
20 outside -- other than at The Colony, outside Ellen 21 Morris's office and The Colony, have you had 22 meetings with Bob Wein?
23 A. No.
24 Q. Have you had any meetings with --
25 A. Well, I take that back. I met with Bob

12:03:53-12:05:00 Page 40

1 early on at his apartment.
2 Q. At his apartment in Delray?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. And who was present at that meeting?
5 A. Vita -- well, I had a couple of meetings
6 there.
7 Q. These were after October of 2015?
8 A. Uh-huh.
9 Q. So you had a couple of meetings at Bob's
10 apartment in Delray with Bob and Vita?
11 A. Bob and Vita and the caretaker.
12 Q. That was Delores Bryan?
13 A. Delores.
14 Q. What was discussed at these meetings?
15 A. Everything. His guardianship, the 16 beginning of the guardianship.
17 Q. Did you discuss his marriage to Vita at 18 those meetings?
19 A. I was present when Mitch Kitroser was
20 there.
21 Q. Was this on one of the two visits you were 22 there or was that an additional visit?
23 A. I don't -- I'd have to look and see how 24 many times I visited there. I was there more than 25 twice.

12:05:07-12:05:56 Page 41

1 Q. So you were present when Mitch Kitroser
2 was there meeting with Bob?
3 A. Uh-huh.
4 MS. MORRIS: Yes or no?
5 THE WITNESS: Yes.
6 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
7 Q. And you were present when Mitch was
8 questioning Bob?
9 A. Yes, discussing.
10 Q. Was Mitch discussing with Bob his marriage
11 to Vita in August of 2014?
12 A. I don't recall.
13 Q. Was Mitch discussing with Bob the trust
14 documents that he executed, I believe, in August of 15 2014?
16 A. He may have.
17 Q. What do you recall of the conversation
18 that Mitch had with Bob?
19 A. You know, that it was general.
20 Q. When you say general, was he asking how 21 he's doing?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. How's his care?
24 A. He's doing -- explaining to him that he
25 was now under guardianship, et cetera. Actually,

12:06:10-12:07:10 Page 42

1 this was -- well, I have to look at the file.
2 Q. You don't have the file with you?
3 A. I mean, I have to look at my billing to 4 see when that meeting was.
5 Q. We're talking about the meeting at the 6 Delray condo?
7 A. Right. I don't know exactly when it was,
8 so...
9 Q. Other than the couple of meetings in 10 Delray, the meetings you had at Ellen Morris's
11 office, the meeting that you had at The Colony that 12 you referenced earlier, have you had any other
13 meetings with Bob Wein? Has Bob been to your 14 office --
15 A. No.
16 Q. -- in Atlantis?
17 A. No.
18 Q. So the only times that you've met with Boh
19 have been at Ellen Morris's office on two 20 occasions, two occasions at his apartment or condo
21 in Delray?
22 A. No, there was more than two occasions.
23 Q. How many?
24 A. I don't know. I have to check my notes.
25 Q. Was it more than five?

12:07:13-12:07:56 Page 43

1 A. I don't know.
2 Q. At any of those meetings in Delray at his
3 residence, was the trust or the marriage discussed
4 at any of those meetings?
5 A. I don't remember.
6 Q. Your notes would reflect that, your
7 billing records?
8 A. Possibly.
9 Q. You also met with Bob, I believe, at Dan's
10 residence in Plantation, correct?
11 A. No.
12 Q. No?
13 A. No.
14 Q. So the only times that you met with him
15 outside of The Colony were the two times at Ellen
16 Morris's office and how many other times your notes
17 would reflect at his residence in Delray?
18 A. Correct.
19 Q. There's been no other places? Not at a
20 doctor's office?
21 A. No.
22 Q. How many times have you been to
23 The Colony?
24 A. I would have to look.
25 Q. Do you know approximately? Did you review

12:08:06-12:09:08 Page 44

1 your records, your notes, before today's
2 deposition?
3 A. I just don't remember how many times I've
4 been to The Colony.
5 Q. Do you have a schedule that you go once a
6 week, or twice a week, twice a month? I mean, do
7 you have a routine that you go down there?
8 A. No. There is not a schedule, no.
9 Q. What is the reason that you would go down
10 to The Colony? Say, for example, say you don't
11 have a schedule, so what would -- why would you go
12 to The Colony? For example, if you wanted to go to 13 The Colony this month, what would be the basis to 14 go down there; just to check on his welfare?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. Do you do that on a monthly basis, or a
17 weekly basis, or just however you feel?
18 A. Correct.
19 Q. Well, weekly, monthly, however you feel?
20 A. Well, whenever there's a reason.
21 Q. Whenever there's a reason. Is that
22 because someone contacts you?
23 A. Could be someone from The Colony, yes.
24 Q. So there's individuals at The Colony that 25 contact you because you're the professional

12:09:17-12:10:01 Page 45

1 guardian for Robert Wein, and they call you up and
2 say can you come down and visit Bob because I think
3 there's a problem?
4 A. That could be a reason.
5 Q. Well, has that happened?
6 A. There's been issues.
7 Q. What issues have there been? It's going 8 to take a lot longer because you don't want to 9 divulge any information, so I could be --
10 A. You know, to be honest with you,
11 The Colony, you know, has called a couple of times
12 that he's run out of money, let's say, in his
13 account.
14 Q. Aren't you monitoring his account? Do you
15 have control over his finances?
16 A. No. No. No. This is his little cash
17 account at The Colony.
18 Q. Well, do you replenish the cash account?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. And what is this, like a petty cash
21 account?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. And it's used for what, little things that
24 they buy at The Colony?
25 A. Yes.

12:10:11-12:10:58 Page 46

1 Q. So The Colony contacts you and tells you
2 that Bob needs more money in his petty cash
3 account?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. What else do they call you about?
6 MS. MORRIS: Let me object. Don't you
7 have a sheet from The Colony, the petty cash
8 that you were supposed to give Mr. Rosenwater?
9 THE WITNESS: Yes.
10 MS. MORRIS: That should be part of the 11 composite.
12 THE WITNESS: I'm going to need a copy of
13 that.
14 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
15 Q. So this is a resident account log, and 16 it's for Robert and Vita Wein. Is this something
17 that's prepared by The Colony?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. And does The Colony provide you with a 20 copy of this on a weekly basis, monthly basis, or 21 do you have to request this? And I know this is 22 compound, but little matters like this --
23 A. I requested it.
24 Q. So you requested to see what type of 25 monies and services he was being provided?

12:11:36-12:12:09 Page 47

1 A. Yes.
2 MR. ROSENWATER: We're going to make this
3 Exhibit 4.
4 (Thereupon, Exhibit Number 4 is marked for
5 identification.)
6 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
7 Q. What else has The Colony contacted you
8 about?
9 A. Any emergencies that have taken place.
10 Q. What emergencies have taken place?
11 A. He went to the hospital.
12 Q. When?
13 A. I don't have the date.
14 Q. Anything else that they've contacted you
15 about?
16 A. Billing.
17 Q. When you say billing, what bills needs to 18 be paid?
19 A. Billing issues.
20 Q. What type of billing issues have there
21 been?
22 A. Questions about bills that they have.
23 Q. Have you had discussions with them
24 regarding the food that they serve him?
25 A. Yes.

12:12:16-12:13:09 Page 48

1 Q. His diet?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. Did anyone bring those issues to your
4 attention?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. Who was that?
7 A. I spoke with the assisant director.
8 Q. When was this?
9 A. I've spoken to her a few times.
10 Q. Did Bob ever discuss with you that he 11 didn't like the food or he was having issues with 12 the food?
13 A. He spoke to me about the food.
14 Q. Have you had any discussions with Vita
15 regarding Bob?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. Do you meet with -- every time you go down
18 to The Colony to visit Bob, do you meet with Vita?
19 A. Not every time, no.
20 Q. Do you think Bob loves Vita?
21 A. I can't say.
22 Q. Have you seen them together?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. Do they appear to interact well together?
25 A. No.

12:13:20-12:14:12 Page 49

1 Q. No?
2 A. No.
3 Q. What is your impression of the
4 relationship of Bob and Vita?
5 A. What is my impression?
6 Q. Yes. Because you said they don't interact
7 well together, so I'm just asking what do you base
8 your opinion on?
9 A. I don't see them ever communicating about
10 anything.
11 Q. This is based upon what, your meetings
12 with Bob?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. And Vita is present at those meetings?
15 A. Sometimes.
16 Q. When you say they don't communicate about 17 anything, are you questioning Bob at these
18 meetings? Is there anything for her to communicate
19 about? I'm just trying to find out what is your 20 basis that they don't communicate. What would she 21 communicate about during your presence, while
22 you're there with Bob and Vita?
23 A. What is Vita communicating about?
24 Q. No. What would sbc communicate with Bob
25 while you were there? Because you're saying you

12:14:20-12:15:01 Page 50

1 don't see them communicate. I mean, when you go
2 there how long do you meet with Bob and Vita or
3 Bob?
4 A. It varies.
5 Q. When you say varies, give me the shortest
6 visit. What is the shortest visit you've been 7 there for?
8 A. Oh, at least -- directly in front of Bob
9 or at the facility?
10 Q. Directly in front of Bob.
11 A. The shortest was maybe 20 minutes, half an 12 hour.
13 Q. What is the longest?
14 A. An hour.
15 Q. During those meetings is Vita present the 16 whole time?
17 A. No.
18 Q. During those meetings on an average how 19 long is she present during the period of time that 20 you're with Bob?
21 A. It varies.
22 MS. MORRIS: Let me take a minute and talk
23 to my client. I think it'll help you.
24 MR. ROSENWATER: All right.
25 (Thereupon, a brief recess was had.)

12:17:54-12:18:58 Page 51

1 MS. MORRIS: Ask your last question again.
2 MR. ROSENWATER: Can you repeat my last
3 question?
4 (Thereupon, the last question and answer
5 were read back.)
6 MS. MORRIS: I thought that was -- maybe
7 it was two questions before. You asked her a
8 question about how she formed the opinion that
9 they don't appear to interact well together, I
10 think, right? So she can answer that without 11 -- so it's not pulling teeth and be a little 12 bit more descriptive in her answer.
13 THE WITNESS: All right. Okay. Bob is 14 usually laying in bed, or in the hallway, or in 15 the dining room when I'm there and Vita is not 16 in the same room with him. When I ask Vita
17 questions, she'll speak to me and answer. She 18 gives me very little information. She does not 19 offer information about Bob, doesn't offer or 20 want to speak to me about his health issues at 21 all, has never brought up anything other than 22 his preference on the dessert menu. She 23 elaborated at our last meeting on what he had 24 for breakfast and that he eats a good
25 breakfast, but I've never seen them communicate

12:19:05-12:20:01 Page 52

1 one word to each other in all of the times that
2 I have been there directly to each other about
3 anything.
4 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
5 Q. Have you asked any of the staff, or
6 nurses, or aides at The Colony regarding Bob and
7 Vita's relationship, how they interact together?
8 A. I have.
9 Q. Who did you discuss that with?
10 A. Lonnie at the front desk.
11 Q. What did Lonnie tell you?
12 A. He says they come and go separately.
13 Q. What do you mean come and go separately?
14 Do they eat in the dining room together?
15 A. They are sometimes at the same table, but 16 they don't go at the same time.
17 Q. Do they reside in the same room?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. Do they stay in the same bed, sleep in the 20 same bed?
21 A. They have one large bed, yes.
22 Q. This is an assisted living facility?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. So it's not like -- is it more of a -- I
25 haven't been there, so I don't know. It's more

12:20:10-12:20:59 Page 53

1 than one room, right? There's a living room or --
2 A. There's two rooms.
3 Q. It's more like a small apartment versus a
4 hospital room?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. And there's a lot of privacy, correct?
7 The nurses don't come unless they're summoned?
8 It's not like in a nursing home where they might 9 come by every hour to check on --
10 A. It's not like a nursing home, but it's 11 more than -- but it's not completely private.
12 Q. How many times have you spoken with Vita?
13 A. With who?
14 Q. With Vita.
15 A. Oh, I don't know.
16 Q. Do you think Vita is intimidated by you?
17 A. I have no idea.
18 Q. Well, she knows that you filed a petition
19 to annul the marriage, correct?
20 A. Correct.
21 Q. And a petition to amend the trust?
22 A. Correct.
23 MS. MORRIS: Objection, outside the 24 witness's knowledge as to what Vita knows.
25 BY MR. ROSENWATER:

1 Q. She was served with a copy of these
2 documents, right, by Ellen Morris, correct?
3 A. Recently, I believe.
4 Q. Did you have any discussions with Vita
5 that you intended to annul the marriage between her
6 and Dan -- I mean between her and Bob? Excuse me.
7 A. No.
8 Q. Did you have any discussions with her
9 regarding Bob's trust documents?
10 A. No.
11 Q. You know Jody Rich, correct?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. You know that Jody has the power of 14 attorney on behalf of Vita Wein, correct?
15 A. I believe I'm aware of that.
16 Q. Have you been provided with a copy of the 17 power of attorney?
18 A. No.
19 Q. But you've had discussions with Jody Rich
20 regarding Bob and Vita, correct?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Did you have any discussions with Jody
23 regarding annulling the marriage of Bob and Vita?
24 A. I don't think so.
25 Q. That's never been discussed at any time

1 Q. What expenses are you paying for?
2 A. Her room and board at The Colony, which I
3 have Colony bills. These are some of Vita's
4 expenses.
5 Q. On a monthly basis how much is that,
6 approximately?
7 A. $3,100 for the room because she was
8 upgraded to a higher level of care. It started out
9 being $2,900, and she was upgraded to a higher
10 level of care. So now it's $3,100 -- actually,
11 that will be reflected in this billing. You have a
12 copy of it there. Yes, $3,100.
13 Q. And they charge an additional amount for 14 Bob?
15 A. Yes. Bob is $3,400.
16 Q. So you pay The Colony $6,500 a month for 17 room and board for Vita and Bob?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. What else do you pay on behalf of Vita
20 Wein?
21 A. Other bills that come in.
22 Q. Are there bills that you refuse to pay?
23 A. We've paid all of the bills from The 24 Colony that they have sent us.
25 Q. Has Bob ever spoken to you complaining

1 between you and Jody?
2 A. I don't think so, no.
3 Q. Have you had discussions with Jody
4 regarding Vita's health insurance?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. When did those discussions take place?
7 A. I'm not sure.
8 Q. Do you know what was discussed regarding
9 Vita's health insurance?
10 A. I'm trying to recall. I think I asked her
11 if Vita had health insurance, and I know we 12 discussed that she was on Medicaid at some point
13 and Medicare.
14 Q. Bob and Vita are legally married, correct?
15 A. Correct.
16 Q. And Bob has an obligation to support his 17 wife; is that true?
18 A. I'm not entirely sure.
19 Q. And as long as Bob and Vita are legally
20 married, you have to pay for expenses in connection
21 with Vita relating to the marriage, correct?
22 A. Possibly.
23 Q. Well, are you doing that right now? Are 24 you paying for expenses relating to Vita?
25 A. Yes.

1 about you paying Vita's bills?
2 A. Sometimes.
3 Q. How is that conversation initiated? Does
4 Bob say -- does Bob know your name?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. What does he call you?
7 A. He calls me Elizabeth.
8 Q. Does he know your last name?
9 A. I don't know.
10 Q. Does he ever pick up the phone and contact
11 you?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. How often does he call you?
14 A. Not very often.
15 Q. When was the last time he called you?
16 A. A couple of weeks ago.
17 Q. He called you, and what did he say?
18 A. He wanted to know if I had his driver
19 license for safekeeping -- I mean his wallet with 20 his driver license -- not his driver license, his 21 ID, I'm sorry.
22 Q. Do you?
23 A. I did.
24 Q. What did he want his wallet and ID for;
25 did he tell you?

1 A. He wanted to know if I had it because he
2 didn't have it.
3 Q. Has Boh ever called you and said I don't
4 want you to pay for Vita?
5 A. On the phone?
6 Q. Yes.
7 A. No.
8 Q. Has he told you that in person?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. Did he bring that up or did you bring it
11 up to him?
12 A. I asked him.
13 Q. You said, Bob, would you like me to 14 continue to pay for Vita's expenses?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. And he said no?
17 A. He had a couple of different answers.
18 Q. What did he say? I need to know all of 19 his answers.
20 A. In the beginning of the guardianship he 21 said that he did want to continue to pay her
22 expenses.
23 Q. Did or did not?
24 A. He did want to continue paying her
25 expenses, and later he said he didn't want to

1 messages from Larry so I would get the gist of his
2 personality issues.
3 Q. So what are his personality issues, Larry?
4 A. He's possibly schizophrenic, possibly
5 bipolar.
6 Q. During these phone conversations was Larry
7 threatening anyone? What was he saying?
8 A. He was completely lucid in one phone
9 conversation, and another phone conversation he was 10 yelling and screaming.
11 Q. At Dan?
12 A. He was making up stories, yes. I don't 13 know if it was at Dan or not, but he was yelling
14 and screaming.
15 Q. Have you been informed by The Colony
16 whether Larry has called The Colony?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. How often does Larry call The Colony?
19 A. At some point quite often.
20 Q. And they wanted to get an injunction; is
21 that correct?
22 A. They did make a police report.
23 Q. And Larry's calling threatening and making 24 threats and --
25 A. Yes.

1 continue paying her expense.
2 Q. When you say later, is that recently like
3 in the last month?
4 A. It was after the problems with Larry.
5 Q. Let's go into that. Larry is his son and
6 Vita's son, correct?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. How did you become aware of Larry?
9 A. I think the first description was from Dan
10 at the original meeting at Dan's house.
11 Q. At that meeting I believe you spoke -- I
12 think you said, and if I'm wrong, tell me, but I
13 thought you said that at that meeting Dan and his 14 wife was present?
15 A. Dan and his wife. His wife was in the
16 home.
17 Q. What is his wife's name?
18 A. I don't recall. I think it's Judy.
19 Q. When was this meeting?
20 A. Very early on.
21 Q. Did Dan say there's an issue with Larry,
22 or how did Larry come up?
23 A. He was describing Larry.
24 Q. Anything else?
25 A. He actually played me a couple of phone

1 Q. Is he threatening to blow up The Colony?
2 A. I haven't heard that one.
3 Q. Does he have your phone number?
4 A. No.
5 Q. Do you know if he's ever contacted Jody
6 Rich?
7 A. Larry?
8 Q. Larry, yes.
9 A. I'm not aware.
10 Q. Do you know if Larry has contacted Vita
11 and Bob directly and threatened them?
12 A. I know they've received phone calls from 13 him.
14 Q. Did you ask Bob about the phone calls?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. What did Bob tell you about the phone
17 calls?
18 A. He tells me how difficult Larry is.
19 Q. Did he ever say that Bob threatened to 20 kill him or Vita?
21 A. Bob threatened?
22 Q. Excuse me.
23 A. Larry threatened to kill --
24 Q. All these names are getting --
25 A. Yes. He never mentioned that.

1 Q. So somehow, somewhere you became aware of
2 Larry?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. And you somehow, somewhere you were aware
5 that Larry was being evicted from his residence?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. How did you become aware of that?
8 A. I'm going to guess that Dan told me.
9 Q. What did Dan tell you about Larry being
10 evicted?
11 A. That he was being evicted.
12 Q. And you talked to Bob about that?
13 A. I talked to Bob and Vita about that.
14 Q. What did Vita tell you?
15 A. She wouldn't speak -- well, many -- every 16 time I saw her I talked about that. She refused to 17 speak about it one time. Another time she said I
18 can't talk, I'm not allowed to talk to you about
19 it. Another time she said I'm not evicting him,
20 I'm not evicting him and I'm allowing him to stay
21 there, so...
22 Q. Why does Larry concern you regarding your 23 role as a guardian for Robert Wein, because Robert
24 Wein --
25 A. Through direct conversations with Bob.

1 Q. So what did Robert tell you regarding
2 Larry's eviction?
3 A. He asked me to talk to Vita about it.
4 Q. He must have said more than that. Talk to 5 Vita about what? Did he express what he wanted or 6 his concerns?
7 A. Yes. He wanted Larry to not be evicted.
8 Q. Who owned the residence that Larry was 9 residing in?
10 A. At that time I thought it was Vita.
11 Q. And Bob had no interest in that residence,
12 correct?
13 A. I'm not sure.
14 Q. And Robert is what, approximately? Excuse
15 me, Larry is approximately 50, 55 years old?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. He's an adult, correct?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. Was Robert paying for any of Larry's
20 expenses?
21 A. When?
22 Q. During any time during prior to the
23 guardianship.
24 A. I'm not aware of what he paid and didn't
25 pay specifically.

1 Q. Are you aware that Larry received from Dan
2 Wein $250,000 from Robert's monies at some point?
3 A. I was told that Bob had already given
4 Larry some money in the 200 range.
5 Q. 200,000?
6 A. $200,000 range, right?
7 Q. So he had plenty of money to take care of 8 himself, correct?
9 MS. MORRIS: Objection, leading.
10 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
11 Q. You can answer the question.
12 A. I don't know Larry's circumstance. I know
13 that he doesn't work.
14 Q. Have you had discussions with Larry
15 regarding the eviction? Did you call Larry?
16 A. No.
17 Q. You had discussions with Jody Rich
18 regarding Larry's eviction, correct?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. What were your discussions with Jody
21 regarding the eviction?
22 A. I'm not sure exactly. I think it was a
23 text.
24 Q. Were you billing Bob for your time on this 25 issue for your guardianship billing?

1 A. I don't think so.
2 Q. Did you ever spend any of Bob's monies for
3 this eviction?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. What did you spend?
6 A. It's in the checkbook, but 1,000.
7 Q. For what?
8 A. I think it was 1,000 for the attorney.
9 Q. So you hired an attorney on -- Bob asked
10 you to hire an attorney on behalf of Larry's
11 behalf?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. What did Bob tell you?
14 A. He said he wanted to help Larry.
15 Q. What was the purpose of hiring the
16 attorney?
17 A. He wanted to help Larry in the eviction.
18 Q. Did you find the attorney?
19 A. I did not.
20 Q. Who found the attorney?
21 A. Stacy Wein.
22 Q. Did you have discussions with Stacy Wein
23 about retaining an attorney in New Jersey for Larry
24 Wein?
25 A. Yes.

1 Q. So you contacted Stacy and told her to
2 find an attorney in New Jersey for Larry?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. What other conversations have you had with 5 Stacy Wein regarding Larry Wein?
6 A. I received some texts from Stacy on
7 updates during this process.
8 Q. Updates on the eviction proceeding?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. Do you know where Larry Wein is residing
11 now?
12 A. I do not.
13 Q. Does Bob know?
14 A. I believe he does, yes. I mean, when you
15 say do I know, I've been told, but I can't tell
16 you. I don't know the address.
17 Q. You've been told where he resides?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. And you can't tell me why?
20 A. I can't tell you what?
21 Q. You can't tell me why where he resides?
22 A. Dan -- the last time I was at The Colony
23 Dan told both Bob and I that Larry had found
24 another apartment.
25 Q. And not to tell anyone in connection with

1 issues I may have talked to Stacy about, and I
2 can't think of any at this point.
3 Q. Did you ever see Stacy at any court
4 proceedings involving Bob Wein?
5 A. Yes, at the guardianship.
6 Q. What, one time or --
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. What was your impression of Stacy at that
9 hearing? Did you form any impression?
10 A. No.
11 Q. Did you see her get into any type of 12 altercation at that hearing?
13 A. No.
14 Q. You didn't see the bailiffs remove her
15 from the hallway?
16 A. No.
17 Q. Does Stacy Wein visit Bob Wein?
18 A. I don't know.
19 Q. Have you ever asked Bob if Stacy ever
20 comes by?
21 A. No.
22 Q. Are you aware that she was recently
23 arrested?
24 A. No.
25 Q. So, other than seeing Stacy Wein at the

1 Vita Wein?
2 A. And what?
3 Q. And not to tell anyone in connection with
4 -- I thought you told me you know where he resides,
5 but you can't tell me?
6 A. No. No. No. I just don't know --
7 Q. Oh, you don't know where, okay.
8 A. He found another apartment. I can't tell
9 you where it is. I don't know where it is. I
10 don't know where he found another apartment. It
11 could be New York or New Jersey; I don't know. I
12 don't speak directly to Larry.
13 Q. Do you know who found him an apartment;
14 was it Dan and Stacy?
15 A. That I don't know.
16 Q. Other than the issue of Larry Wein, how 17 many other conversations have you had with Stacy
18 Wein?
19 A. I don't recall.
20 Q. Why are you communicating with Stacy Wein?
21 A. I don't recall other conversations.
22 Q. Oh, you don't recall. I don't understand
23 how you answer. I don't know you, so I --
24 A. I don't recall other conversations with 25 Stacy. I'm just trying to think of any other

1 courthouse and at Ellen Morris's office, you've
2 never met with her?
3 A. At the courthouse and Ellen Morris's
4 office, that's it.
5 You know what, I think I recall Jody
6 sending me a text that Stacy was arrested.
7 Q. Was that recently?
8 A. Yeah, I think it was.
9 Q. Have you seen the motion for protective
10 order that Ellen Morris filed regarding the 11 duces tecum that we served you for this deposition?
12 A. Yes.
13 (Thereupon, Exhibit Number 5 is marked for 14 identification.)
15 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
16 Q. I'm showing you or I handed you the 17 verified petition for order authorizing guardian to 18 amend ward's trust. Are you familiar with that 19 document?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. This document was prepared on February --
22 or dated February 22nd, 2015, and you signed it.
23 Is that your signature on the last page?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. And everything in this, all of the

1 allegations set forth in this petition, are true
2 and correct to the best of your knowledge?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. And where did you obtain the information
5 regarding the allegations made in this petition?
6 A. Can you be more specific?
7 Q. On paragraph two, on November 25, 2013,
8 prior to the initiation of the incapacity and
9 guardianship proceeding, the ward executed
10 revocable trust titled the Robert Wein Living Trust
11 dated November 25, 2013. Who provided you with a
12 copy of this document?
13 A. I got it from Ellen Morris's office.
14 Q. Let me go back then. So how did you get 15 involved in this guardianship?
16 A. Ellen Morris telephoned me.
17 Q. So what did Ellen Morris tell you when she 18 telephoned you?
19 MS. MORRIS: Objection, privileged.
20 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
21 Q. You were never notified by the Court, or 22 the Court never asked you to see if you wanted to 23 be a professional guardian in the case; you were 24 notified by Ellen Morris?
25 A. Yes.

1 prior to initiation of the incapacity and
2 guardianship proceeding, the ward executed an
3 amendment and restatement to his trust. Do you
4 have a copy of that?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. Where did you obtain that document from?
7 A. Ellen Morris's office.
8 Q. Do you know what changes were made on the 9 August 25, 2014 amendment and restatement of his
10 trust?
11 A. Yes.
12 MS. MORRIS: I just want to make clear
13 that you can answer yes or no, but you can't 14 testify to what the changes are.
15 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
16 Q. On February 9, 2015 Bob Wein met with you
17 and Ellen Morris and expressed his desire to make 18 changes to the provisions of his trust; is that
19 correct?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Was anyone else present at that meeting?
22 A. No.
23 Q. How did that meeting come about?
24 A. I scheduled it.
25 Q. Well, I mean, someone had to contact you

1 Q. Do you know who Ellen Morris was having
2 discussions with regarding this guardianship?
3 A. Not exactly, no.
4 Q. So when you became involved in the
5 guardianship of Robert Paul Wein, Ellen Morris had
6 certain trust documents regarding Robert Wein?
7 A. I don't know when she got them.
8 Q. But you didn't obtain any of these
9 documents? Any of these -- for example, the Robert
10 Wein Living Trust dated November 25, 2013, you
11 never obtained a copy of that document?
12 A. I have a copy. I have a copy.
13 Q. But who provided you with a copy of that
14 document?
15 A. Ellen Morris.
16 Q. Do you know where Ellen Morris got a copy
17 of this document from?
18 A. No.
19 Q. Have you reviewed the Robert Wein Living
20 Trust?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Did you have discussions with Robert Wein
23 regarding the living trust dated November 25, 2013?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. On the next paragraph, on August 25, 2014,

1 to let you know that someone wanted changes to the
2 testamentary provisions of his trust, correct? You
3 just didn't come up with that, did you?
4 A. Right, Bob.
5 Q. So Bob contacted you in February? Bob
6 called you up on the phone?
7 A. No. I told you Bob doesn't call me on the
8 phone.
9 Q. I thought you said Bob called you once in 10 a while; he has your number? I thought that's what 11 you said earlier?
12 A. He does once in a while.
13 Q. Okay. So he does call you on the phone?
14 A. Once in a while.
15 Q. So you did tell me he calls you on the 16 phone?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. So I'm asking if Bob called you on the
19 phone?
20 A. Not about this issue.
21 Q. But somehow was this addressed at a
22 meeting that you had with Bob at The Colony?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. So you met with Bob in February of 2015,
25 and Bob said to you I want to change the provisions

1 of my trust?
2 A. I'll have to give you the date that I met
3 with him.
4 Q. Approximately?
5 A. Somewhere between January and February.
6 Q. And out of the blue he just said I want to
7 change the provisions to my August 25th, 2014
8 trust?
9 A. In our discussions, yes.
10 Q. How did that come about?
11 A. I don't remember exactly how it came about 12 in our discussions.
13 Q. You're talking with Bob and then he says,
14 Elizabeth, I'm not happy with my estate documents
15 that I prepared in August of 2014?
16 A. No, he was more specific than that.
17 Q. What did he say?
18 A. He just spoke about the changes that he 19 wanted to make.
20 MR. ROSENWATER: You're not going to talk
21 about the changes; you're going to say that's 22 attorney/client privilege, correct?
23 MS. MORRIS: Right. Correct.
24 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
25 Q. Have you ever had any discussions with Dan

1 Q. Did Dan ask you what he wanted to change
2 the trust to -- what did Bob want to change the
3 trust to?
4 A. Actually, we didn't speak about that.
5 Q. What did you speak about?
6 A. That he wanted to change the trust and I
7 needed to make a meeting.
8 Q. And you didn't ask what changes were to be 9 made?
10 A. No.
11 Q. There was no discussion whatsoever
12 regarding that?
13 A. Not for the February 9th meeting.
14 Q. Have you had any discussions at any time
15 between January of 2015 until today with Dan Wein
16 regarding Bob's desire to make changes to the 17 testamentary provisions of this trust?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. When did you meet with him in regard to 20 those changes or discussions with him?
21 A. I don't know exactly.
22 Q. How many times did you have discussions or 23 meetings with Dan Wein?
24 A. I don't know exactly.
25 Q. Was it more than five?

1 Wein regarding these estate planning documents?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. Do these changes relate to Dan Wein?
4 MS. MORRIS: Objection, privileged.
5 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
6 Q. Do you know if Dan Wein exerted any undue
7 influence or duress over Bob Wein regarding his
8 estate documents?
9 A. No.
10 Q. You don't know?
11 A. I do not know.
12 Q. Have you had discussions with Dan Wein
13 regarding Bob Wein's desire to make changes to his
14 testamentary provisions of this trust?
15 A. Have I had discussions with Dan?
16 Q. Yes.
17 A. The brother?
18 Q. Yes.
19 A. About Bob's changing the trust?
20 Q. Yes.
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. What did you tell Dan?
23 A. What did I tell Dan?
24 Q. Yes.
25 A. That Bob wanted to change his trust.

1 A. Well, there are e-mails, telephone calls.
2 Q. So you have copies of all of those
3 e-mails, and you're going to provide those e-mails
4 to me?
5 MS. MORRIS: Again, there's a motion for
6 protective order on your number 12, I think it
7 is, as being overly broad, et cetera. So if 8 you want to narrow that down without going for 9 a motion on it, then we'll be happy to try to
10 comply.
11 MR. ROSENWATER: I think any e-mails
12 regarding the estate planning documents, the 13 trust, and annulment of the marriage.
14 MS. MORRIS: Okay. So any e-mails, re the 15 P docks, trust, or annulment of marriage from 16 October, 2014 through the present?
17 MR. ROSENWATER: Right, and it's more than 18 e-mails. It's correspondence, phone records,
19 notes.
20 MS. MORRIS: Okay.
21 THE WITNESS: Not health issues?
22 MS. MORRIS: No.
23 MR. ROSENWATER: No.
24 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
25 Q. So, going back to the question I asked you

1 prior to that, I asked if you had any discussions
2 with Dan Wein regarding these changes to the trust,
3 and I believe you said yes, correct?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. Did you discuss with Dan the specific
6 changes to the trust?
7 A. These, the changes we made?
8 Q. Well, I don't think you made any changes.
9 You filed a petition -- you filed petition for an
10 award authorizing the guardian to amend the ward's
11 trust?
12 A. Right.
13 MS. MORRIS: Let me make this easy for you
14 because I think you just -- maybe it's not 15 clear. Dan raises questions about the two 16 trusts that are referenced here, the 2013 trust
17 and the 2014 trust. So if you want to narrow
18 your questions to each trust, whether or not 19 she's had discussions regarding any of those 20 trusts, I think it will help her answer you
21 better.
22 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
23 Q. Did you have discussions with Dan
24 regarding the Robert Wein Living Trust that was 25 prepared on November 25th of 2013?

1 Q. Who's the trustee in that trust; did he
2 mention it to you?
3 A. Yes. He is.
4 Q. And he's not the trustee in the August of
5 2014 documents?
6 A. No.
7 Q. Who is the successor trustee?
8 A. It has language in there. I'm not exactly
9 sure what it says.
10 Q. And there's a guardianship provision in 11 the 2013 living trust; is that what his position
12 is?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Did he say why that matters, that there's 15 a guardianship provision in the 2013 trust?
16 A. Just that that has -- this one has it and 17 this one doesn't.
18 Q. But there has been a guardian appointed by 19 the Court for Robert Wein, correct?
20 A. Correct.
21 Q. Is there any need or any basis for a
22 guardianship provision?
23 MS. MORRIS: Objection, she's not a
24 lawyer. Outside the scope of her knowledge.
25 BY MR. ROSENWATER:

1 A. Yes.
2 Q. What discussions did you have with Dan
3 Wein regarding that living trust?
4 A. That it's a much better trust.
5 Q. Why does Dan think it's a much better
6 trust?
7 A. Because of the way it's written.
8 Q. Because it provides more for him in that
9 trust?
10 A. Because --
11 MS. MORRIS: Object to the content unless 12 you discussed it with Dan about it provides 13 more. But object to the form of the question.
14 It's also leading, so...
15 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
16 Q. You said you had discussions with Dan Wein
17 regarding the Robert Wein Living Trust dated
18 November 25th, 2013, and he said to you it's a much
19 better trust, correct?
20 A. Correct.
21 Q. Why did he say to you it's a much better
22 trust?
23 A. Because of the trustee that's listed and 24 the successor trustee, and there's reference to 25 guardianship in it.

1 Q. Based upon your experience and knowledge?
2 A. I cannot tell.
3 Q. Other than the guardianship provision, the 4 trustee, and successor trustee, did he indicate to 5 you, and I'm saying he, Dan Wein, any other
6 provisions in the November 25th, 2013 trust that
7 are better than the August of 2014 trust?
8 A. That they also left out his bequest to his
9 wife.
10 Q. To his wife, being Dan Wein's?
11 A. Dan's wife.
12 Q. And that is Dorothy Wein?
13 A. I'm not sure.
14 Q. Why does Dan Wein think there should be a
15 bequest to his wife?
16 A. I have no idea.
17 Q. He never told you?
18 A. No.
19 Q. Are these the changes that you're seeking
20 to make in this petition?
21 MS. MORRIS: Objection, privileged.
22 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
23 Q. Again, when did Bob Wein first express to 24 you his desire to amend his 2014 estate documents?
25 A. I'm not sure.

1 Q. You're not sure?
2 A. I'm not sure exactly when he expressed
3 that.
4 Q. Approximately when? It had to be before
5 February 9 --
6 A. It was before February 9th, right.
7 Q. And had to be after October 15, 2014?
8 A. Right.
9 Q. Can you give me any indication?
10 A. I'm not sure.
11 Q. In October of 2014 there was incapacity
12 proceedings, correct, that took place?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Dan was found to be incapacitated and the 15 guardianship was established on his behalf,
16 correct?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. And in connection with the guardianship,
19 you were appointed the guardian, correct?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. And there were letters of guardianship
22 that were issued, correct?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. And he had certain rights that were taken
25 away from him because he was determined to be

1 October 15th and February 9th he was competent to
2 make these decisions regarding the changes to his
3 estate documents?
4 MS. MORRIS: Objection, outside the scope
5 of this witness's knowledge. She's not a
6 doctor.
7 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
8 Q. Did you speak with a doctor regarding his
9 ability to make these changes?
10 A. No.
11 Q. Did you have him examined by anyone after 12 he told you that he wanted to change his estate
13 documents?
14 A. No.
15 Q. Did you ever ask Bob after that meeting
16 that you had with him --
17 After that meeting you had with Bob Wein
18 in which he expressed his desire to amend his
19 trust, have you had any other meetings with him
20 regarding his desire to amend the trust?
21 A. After the meetings -- which meetings; in
22 Ellen Morris's office?
23 Q. I think you had a meeting with him prior
24 to that. My understanding is that you met with him
25 at The Colony and he expressed to you his desire to

1 incapacitated?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. I think you're looking at that, right?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. Can I see a copy of that?
6 So there was an order appointing limited
7 guardian of person and property that was entered by
8 Judge Lewis on October 15, 2014, and basically
9 certain rights were taken away from the ward and 10 delegated to you because he was unable to exercise
11 those rights, correct?
12 A. Correct.
13 Q. Weren't some of those rights the ability
14 to contract --
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. -- and ability to manage the property or
17 make any gift or disposition of property?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. So on or before October 15, 2014 it was 20 determined that Bob Wein was incompetent and had 21 the ability to contract or manage his property and 22 make any gift or disposition of property; is that
23 correct?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. You're saying that somewhere between

1 amend his trust documents?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. And then based upon that you scheduled a
4 meeting with Ellen Morris and Bob, and I believe on
5 that date, the same date, Stacy Wein and Dan Wein
6 were present, correct?
7 A. No.
8 Q. No?
9 A. No.
10 Q. So on that date Dan Wein took Bob Wein to 11 Ellen Morris's office, and the three of you, being 12 yourself, Ellen Morris, and Bob, met to discuss the 13 changes to his trust?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. And that was some time prior to February
16 9th, 2015, correct?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. And after that meeting that you had, have
19 you had any other discussions with Bob Wein
20 regarding his desire to amend his trust?
21 A. I don't believe so.
22 Q. When you meet with Bob some days he's 23 lucid, correct?
24 A. He's pretty lucid.
25 Q. Other days he's out of it?

1 A. No.
2 Q. Well, have you seen his condition worsen
3 since you've become the guardian?
4 A. He's a little slower.
5 Q. When you mean a little slower, physically
6 or mentally?
7 A. Physically.
8 Q. Have you noticed any changes in his mental
9 condition?
10 A. He's a little slower.
11 Q. When you speak with him does he understand
12 what you're saying?
13 A. Do I understand what he's saying?
14 Q. No, does he understand what you're saying?
15 A. Yes, I think so.
16 Q. But do you ever say, Bob, do you
17 understand what I just said to you?
18 A. Of course.
19 Q. And he says yes?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Do you follow-up and say, well, what did I
22 say to you, to determine whether he understood?
23 A. Yes. Yes.
24 Q. Who drives Bob to the meetings with you?
25 A. Which one?

1 this an extra copy?
2 MS. MORRIS: I'm sure you can have it.
3 THE WITNESS: No, I just got these.
4 MS. MORRIS: You don't have the orders and
5 letters?
6 MR. ROSENWATER: I do. Let me see if I
7 have it.
8 MS. MORRIS: These are conformed. Do you
9 want to borrow mine?
10 MR. ROSENWATER: Let's do this: I'll make
11 a copy, and because I don't want to waste more
12 time, we'll mark it as an exhibit and I'll give 13 the Court Reporter a copy of that, okay?
14 MS. MORRIS: Sure.
15 MR. ROSENWATER: Let's mark the order
16 appointing limited guardian of the person and 17 property dated October 15th, 2014, we'll mark
18 that as Exhibit Number 6.
19 MS. MORRIS: What about the letters, ??
20 MR. ROSENWATER: The letters, 7. And I
21 have a copy of this one. Let's just mark the 22 order determining limited capacity as Number 8,
23 and then Number 9 let's do the verified
24 petition for order authorizing guardian and
25 then the ward's trust.

1 Q. Any meetings. Boh doesn't drive, correct?
2 A. Correct.
3 Q. So someone needs to transport him to any
4 meetings that are outside of The Colony that you
5 may have with him?
6 A. Right.
7 Q. Who takes him to these meetings?
8 A. Dan.
9 Q. Every meeting?
10 A. The two meetings I had outside The Colony
11 at Ellen Morris's office he was driven by Dan.
12 Q. And he has doctor appointments outside of 13 The Colony?
14 A. He does.
15 Q. Who takes him to the doctor?
16 A. Dan.
17 Q. Do you pay Dan for transporting him?
18 A. No.
19 Q. Have you given Dan any money whatsoever
20 regarding this guardianship?
21 A. No.
22 MR. ROSENWATER: I'm going to take a
23 two-minute break to get a glass of water.
24 (Thereupon, a brief recess was had.)
25 MR. ROSENWATER: This is your copy or is

1 (Thereupon, Exhibit Numbers 6, 7, 8 and 9
2 are marked for identification.)
3 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
4 Q. Did Dan Wein discuss with you how the
5 November 25th, 2013 living trust was prepared?
6 A. He mentioned -- he mentioned that there
7 were two visits by attorneys and that he had a
8 doctor's examination.
9 Q. Did he mention to you Robert's medical
10 condition at that point?
11 A. He mentioned that he was seen by a doctor
12 at that point.
13 Q. Do you know what his medical problems were 14 at that point?
15 A. Not exactly.
16 Q. Have you seen any type of estate planning
17 documents that were prior to the November 25, 2013
18 documents?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. What year were those documents prepared?
21 A. What year were they prepared? I think
22 2011.
23 Q. And do you recall what changes were from 24 the 2011 to the 2013 documents?
25 A. No.

1 Q. You guys are saying it's privileged, but I
2 have a partial copy of the Robert Wein Living Trust
3 dated November 25, 2013. Have you seen this
4 document before? And when I say partial, I only
5 have the first 11 pages. Have you seen this
6 document before?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. Just review it to make sure it's the same
9 document that you've seen.
10 A. It's been a long time since I've read this
11 document.
12 MS. MORRIS: Looks like a partial copy to
13 me.
14 MR. ROSENWATER: You can hold onto that.
15 Do you need a copy while I question her
16 about it?
17 MS. MORRIS: Sure. Thanks.
18 BY MR. ROSENWATER.
19 Q. On page six there's at the very bottom
20 Section 6.01, and it continues on to page eight.
21 There's specific distributions, and you may not
22 know this, but do you know by looking at these 23 specific distributions if there's any changes from 24 these distributions from the November 25, 2013
25 living trust to the amended and restated living

1 got this one either.
2 MR. ROSENWATER: Let's mark this as
3 Exhibit Number 10.
4 MS. MORRIS: You're calling it a partial
5 copy?
6 MR. ROSENWATER: For the record, Wein
7 Living Trust dated November 25, 2013.
8 (Thereupon, Exhibit Number 10 is marked
9 for identification.)
10 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
11 Q. Did Bob Wein ever have any discussions
12 with you regarding a safe that he had in New York,
13 a safe deposit box?
14 A. Bob Wein?
15 Q. Yes.
16 A. No.
17 Q. Did he ever have any discussions with you
18 regarding monies that Dan Wein took from him when
19 he went up to New York in November of 2013?
20 A. No.
21 Q. Have you ever seen a power of attorney
22 that was prepared on November 1st, 2013?
23 MS. MORRIS: I have pages one, two, page
24 seven, and page eight. So you're missing --
25 MR. ROSENWATER: It's a partial.

1 trust that was prepared in August of 2014 that you
2 wish to amend?
3 MS. MORRIS: Objection, privileged and
4 private.
5 MR. ROSENWATER: It's not privileged and
6 private. If I provide you with the 2014 trust,
7 it's not privileged.
8 MS. MORRIS: This is a 2013 trust.
9 MR. ROSENWATER: Right. I'm asking if she 10 knows if there was any changes to the specific
11 bequests in the November of 2013 living trust
12 that differs from the August 25, 2014.
13 MS. MORRIS: Right. I understand you're
14 asking that question. I don't know how you
15 have a copy of that trust. It's a private 16 estate planning document, so how did you get a
17 copy of it?
18 MR. ROSENWATER: It's been around. I
19 don't know how I got it.
20 MS. MORRIS: I still say it's private, and 21 we'll have to take that up with the Judge how 22 his estate planning documents ended up as 23 public knowledge for anyone out there. So I'm 24 going to have Betsy not comment on it until
25 that issue is resolved. I don't know how you

1 MS. MORRIS: It's a partial.
2 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
3 Q. Have you ever seen that document?
4 A. It might be in the file.
5 Q. Did Dan Wein ever provide you a copy of 6 that document?
7 A. He may have. This might be in the file
8 because I remember Harold.
9 Q. Who did Robert Wein grant a power of 10 attorney to in that document?
11 A. To Daniel Wein and Harold as successor.
12 What was the date of this?
13 Q. November. I believe it's the last page,
14 November 1st, I believe, 2013.
15 A. November 1st, 2013.
16 MR. ROSENWATER: We'll mark this as an
17 exhibit, 11.
18 (Thereupon, Exhibit Number 11 is marked
19 for identification.)
20 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
21 Q. Did Robert Wein ever discuss with you that
22 Dan Wein used that power of attorney to take money
23 from his accounts and write Dan Wein and his family
24 checks?
25 A. Did Bob discuss that with me?

1 Q. Yes.
2 A. No.
3 Q. Have you seen from Bob Wein's records
4 checks that Dan Wein wrote to him and his family?
5 A. I think they were in the court documents
6 somewhere, or reference to them were in the court
7 documents.
8 Q. Have you seen the bank account that Dan
9 Wein set up on behalf of the Robert Wein Living
10 Trust on the Citi Bank account in New York?
11 A. No.
12 Q. Have you seen these checks that Dan Wein
13 wrote to Stacy Wein, Dorothy Wein, and Dan Wein?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. Have you had discussions with Dan Wein
16 regarding these checks? Let me see. I think
17 something else is attached to this.
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. Yes what?
20 A. Yes, I made reference to this.
21 Q. Are you trying to collect these monies on 22 behalf of the ward? Are you trying to get these 23 monies back from Stacy, Dan, and Dorothy?
24 A. Eventually.
25 Q. What do you mean eventually?

1 A. I've been in contact and I have been --
2 started to receive monies, yes.
3 MR. ROSENWATER: Let's mark this as 12.
4 (Thereupon, Exhibit Number 12 is marked
5 for identification.)
6 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
7 Q. Do you socialize with Dan Wein or Stacy
8 Wein?
9 A. No.
10 Q. Did you know either Dan or Stacy prior to 11 this guardianship?
12 A. No.
13 Q. Is there some reason other than the amount
14 that is owed that you're not seeking these monies
15 from them?
16 A. No. I haven't started seeking any monies
17 owed by family members as of yet.
18 Q. Have you ever seen this September 5th,
19 2014 letter?
20 A. Yes, I have seen this.
21 Q. What is your understanding of this letter?
22 A. My understanding is the TIG investment is 23 not terrific and Dan Wein wanted to transfer these 24 funds -- when he was managing the money he wanted
25 to transfer these funds into Morgan Stanley. TIG

1 A. Well, it's a process.
2 Q. Well, I mean, they owe the money. Have
3 you made a demand letter to have them repay these
4 monies?
5 A. No, not yet.
6 Q. Why not? You've been the guardian for
7 eight months.
8 A. Because there's other money that's owed
9 that I'm working on, much bigger money.
10 Q. Why don't you do them all at once?
11 A. I haven't started on this yet.
12 Q. Do you plan on going after them for these 13 monies?
14 A. Possibly.
15 Q. Why possibly?
16 A. I'm waiting to see how everything else
17 turns out.
18 Q. Well, they're loans. They owe Robert Wein
19 -- they owe the living trust this money back, don't 20 they?
21 A. There's a lot of money that's owed Robert
22 from a lot of different people.
23 Q. Have you filed any lawsuits or sent out
24 demand letters for those other promissory notes
25 from these other people?

1 has an umbrella under Morgan Stanley, but it's
2 separate and it wasn't a very good investment.
3 MR. ROSENWATER: Let's mark this as
4 Exhibit 13.
5 (Thereupon, Exhibit Number 13 is marked
6 for identification.)
7 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
8 Q. I'm going to show you a last will and
9 testament of Robert Wein that was prepared in March
10 of 2014. Have you ever seen this document before?
11 A. No.
12 MS. MORRIS: You only have five out of the 13 six pages.
14 MR. ROSENWATER: We don't have page six,
15 correct.
16 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
17 Q. Have you ever seen this before? You
18 weren't aware of this will?
19 A. No.
20 Q. You never contacted Dan Wein regarding 21 this will?
22 A. No.
23 Q. Do you see the handwritten notations
24 throughout this will?
25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Does that appear to be Robert Wein's
2 handwriting?
3 A. I can't tell you.
4 Q. Have you ever seen any notes that Robert
5 Wein has written in the past?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. Does this seem to be similar to his
8 handwriting?
9 A. I can't verify that Robert -- the other
10 notes, so I can't verify if this is -- I can't 11 verify that.
12 Q. Do you see that on the top of this there's 13 8/20/2014 in handwriting?
14 A. 8/20/2014, yes.
15 Q. And this was shortly before his estate
16 documents were amended, correct?
17 A. This is before the -- 18 Q. August 25, 2014 estate documents were 19 amended, correct?
20 A. Yes. Yes.
21 Q. And do you see the changes that are made
22 on this -- we're going to presume that it's Dan
23 Wein's -- Bob Wein's handwriting. Do you see the 24 changes that Boh would like to have?
25 A. Yes.

1 MR. ROSENWATER: That --
2 THE WITNESS: 5,600 where he's written in.
3 MS. MORRIS: I can't read that.
4 THE WITNESS: This is written in, 5,600,
5 and then this is a little blurry.
6 MR. ROSENWATER: I don't know what that
7 is. Under the first paragraph in the notes it
8 has somewhere, New York, New York, 1,025
9 together with any policy of insurance, he's
10 crossing out Dan Wein.
11 MS. MORRIS: I can't read that.
12 MR. ROSENWATER: And paragraph K he's
13 crossing out Dan Wein.
14 MS. MORRIS: That I can see.
15 MR. ROSENWATER: And he's crossing out
16 Stacy Wein in two provisions as well.
17 MS. MORRIS: That I can see. The document
18 speaks for itself.
19 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
20 Q. And then the sixth paragraph on page four
21 he's crossing out Dan Wein on two occasions,
22 correct?
23 A. Well, it says if the trust has been 24 revoked, and he's referring to the previous trust
25 because the next trust hasn't been written yet.

1 Q. And do you see him crossing out most of
2 the provisions regarding Dan Wein?
3 MS. MORRIS: I'm going to object to your
4 characterization of most of the provisions. So
5 do you want to rephrase that?
6 MR. ROSENWATER: No, most provisions
7 pertaining to Dan Wein I'm saying.
8 MS. MORRIS: So, for instance, there's a
9 provision, Article 4, which directs everything
10 to the Robert Wein Revocable Living Trust,
11 November 25th, 2013. That trust references Dan
12 Wein as successor trustee, so that didn't make 13 any change to Dan Wein. On page three I don't
14 see anything regarding a change to Dan Wein.
15 Paragraph B regarding Dan Wein remains in.
16 MR. ROSENWATER: If we look at the --
17 well, they took out paragraph F, Dorothy Wein,
18 in which you stated in your documents that he 19 wanted Dan Wein's wife to have that. And the 20 second page -- excuse me, on the second to last
21 page that we have, page four, he crosses out
22 Dan Wein on three separate occasions -- on four
23 occasions, five occasions.
24 MS. MORRIS: I can't read the top of the 25 page. Is that anything to do with Dan Wein?

1 Q. But he's dating this 8/20, and he amends
2 the November, I believe, 25th -- it's not November
3 25th, is it?
4 MS. MORRIS: Yes, 2013. So you're talking
5 about --
6 MR. ROSENWATER: The other one is August
7 25th.
8 MS. MORRIS: Right. So that's correct,
9 yes.
10 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
11 Q. So he amends the November 25, 2013 trust
12 on August 25th, 2014; is that correct?
13 A. Say that one more time.
14 MS. MORRIS: He's saying he amends this on 15 this.
16 MR. ROSENWATER: Right.
17 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
18 Q. Bob Wein amended the November 25, 2013
19 trust five days later --
20 A. Right.
21 Q. -- than this agreement that he hand wrote
22 on 8/20/2014?
23 A. Right.
24 Q. And the August 25th, 2014 amended trust
25 incorporates the provisions that he wanted made in

13:29:22-13:30:54 Page 102

1 this agreement; is that correct?
2 MS. MORRIS: Objection to what the August
3 25th, 2014 incorporates.
4 MR. ROSENWATER: Let's mark this as our
5 next exhibit, Exhibit 14.
6 (Thereupon, Exhibit Number 14 is marked
7 for identification.)
8 MS. MORRIS: Again, that's a partial copy
9 of the will dated March 20th.
10 THE WITNESS: This is August.
11 MS. MORRIS: But the will is dated March
12 20th. This is a date that -- counsel is 13 arguing he wrote this date at the same time
14 that whoever wrote these notes that wrote this 15 date at the same time.
16 THE WITNESS: Okay. So what's the date of 17 this?
18 MS. MORRIS: March 20, 2014, on page five.
19 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
20 Q. You're looking at the document. Are you
21 done looking at it?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. This is the amended and restated Robert
24 Wein Living Trust, and it also has revocation of 25 the durable power of attorney of Robert Wein, and a

13:31:17-13:32:44 Page 103

1 letter regarding the original durable power of
2 attorney, and a designation of healthcare
3 surrogate --
4 A. Who is the healthcare surrogate on this
5 one?
6 Q. -- and a living will. They're all
7 together. They're all attached as one. That's why
8 I'm identifying them all for the record.
9 A. Who is the healthcare surrogate on this
10 one?
11 MS. MORRIS: Here, almost toward the back.
12 Look at the title so you see what it looks
13 like.
14 THE WITNESS: Okay.
15 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
16 Q. Have you seen these documents before?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. Does this appear to be a true and correct
19 copy of the documents that are attached because 20 they're all together?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Go to the very first page. On the second
23 whereas, it says whereas, on March 20, 2014 I
24 amended said trust agreement by an amendment by 25 grantor Robert Wein Living Trust. Do you have or

13:33:06-13:34:02 Page 104

1 have you ever seen that amendment that was prepared
2 on March 20, 2014 to the, I guess, the August --
3 excuse me, to the November 25th, 2013 Robert Wein
4 Living Trust?
5 A. Well, no. I've seen just this.
6 Q. And it appears that corresponds with the 7 date of that will that we just entered into as
8 Exhibit 14 that was done on March 20, 2014?
9 A. Correct.
10 Q. No one has any knowledge of what attorney
11 prepared these documents or who took Bob to this
12 attorney?
13 MS. MORRIS: Objection as to whether 14 anyone has any knowledge.
15 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
16 Q. Do you have any -- you don't have any
17 knowledge?
18 A. No.
19 Q. And you weren't aware of any amendment to 20 the November 25th, 2013 trust agreement other than 21 the August 25th, 2014 trust agreement; is that
22 correct?
23 A. Correct.
24 Q. And Dan Wein never talked to you or spoke
25 to you, or Bob Wein never spoke to you regarding

13:35:22-13:36:03 Page 105

1 any amendment or any estate planning documents that
2 were prepared on March 20, 2014, correct?
3 A. Correct.
4 MR. ROSENWATER: This is Exhibit 15.
5 (Thereupon, Exhibit Number 15 is marked
6 for identification.)
7 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
8 Q. Have you ever seen this handwritten note?
9 A. It a little tough to read. I have not 10 seen this.
11 Q. Does it look like Bob Wein's handwriting?
12 A. It could be. But why would he write Bob
13 to amend will?
14 Q. Because he's referring to himself in the 15 third person. It says Bob to amend will, and he 16 wants to change the residuary estate 100 percent to 17 Larry. Is that what it says? Is that what it
18 looks like it says to you?
19 A. What does it say here?
20 MS. MORRIS: I have no idea.
21 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
22 Q. What are you looking at?
23 A. The bottom line.
24 MS. MORRIS: That says 100 percent to
25 Larry.

13:36:19-13:37:10 Page 106

1 THE WITNESS: I see 100 percent to Larry.
2 I see estate, my residuary estate.
3 MS. MORRIS: Maybe you can read it better
4 on my copy. I don't know what it says above
5 that.
6 THE WITNESS: Interest and penalty.
7 MS. MORRIS: No, this.
8 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
9 Q. Well, what do you think the bottom says?
10 A. Rest of will.
11 Q. Number K of will. Don't you think it's
12 number K?
13 MR. ROSENWATER: Let's mark this as
14 Exhibit Number 16.
15 (Thereupon, Exhibit Number 16 is marked
16 for identification.)
17 THE WITNESS: But the date is March 27th.
18 MS. MORRIS: Of what?
19 THE WITNESS: It says March 27, '14.
20 MS. RICH: Bruce, the original would
21 probably be better as an exhibit.
22 MS. MORRIS: That says March or May? I
23 can't read that.
24 THE WITNESS: Sorry, it's five.
25 BY MR. ROSENWATER:

13:39:38-13:40:19 Page 107

1 Q. Have you ever seen a letter that Dan Wein
2 wrote to the New York Department of Taxation and
3 Finance on March 4, 2014?
4 A. I think I've seen this somewhere. I can't
5 remember where it came, though.
6 Q. Do you have that in your file?
7 A. Could be.
8 Q. How come you didn't provide it?
9 MS. MORRIS: Because it's not the 30 days
10 yet for her to provide you anything. We did
11 the best we could with a short amount of time.
12 We're happy to provide it to you if we have it.
13 MR. ROSENWATER: Within the 30 days.
14 Well, I don't know what else she has that 15 hasn't been provided.
16 MS. MORRIS: You've asked for things that 17 you clearly have, like the trust documents, so
18 that's an objection in and of itself. It's 19 overburdensome if you have them already.
20 MR. ROSENWATER: Because we want to know
21 what she has. Are you going to provide
22 everything that was requested and not objected
23 to within 30 days?
24 MS. MORRIS: Yes, everything that was 25 objected and requested to if it exists will be

13:41:19-13:42:14 Page 108

1 provided.
2 This is Exhibit 17?
3 (Thereupon, Exhibit Number 17 is marked
4 for identification.)
5 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
6 Q. I'm handing you the verified petition for 7 order authorizing guardian to bring annulment on 8 behalf of the ward. Are you familiar with this
9 document?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. What is the purpose of this document?
12 A. It's a petition for authorization from the 13 court for annulment.
14 Q. Have you met with a family attorney? Have 15 you met with a family attorney to retain regarding 16 an annulment?
17 A. No.
18 Q. Because you're asking to retain an 19 attorney, correct --
20 A. If we need one.
21 Q. -- in paragraph ten?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. It says your request -- you want the Court
24 to enter an order authorizing guardian to retain
25 and enter into a retainer agreement with a family

13:42:23-13:43:08 Page 109

1 law attorney on behalf of the ward?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. So you have not met with a family law
4 attorney?
5 A. No.
6 Q. You'd had no discussions with a family law
7 attorney regarding this annulment?
8 A. No.
9 Q. Do you have any idea what the retainer is 10 going to be?
11 A. No.
12 Q. Why are you filing a petition to annul the
13 marriage?
14 A. Because those are the wishes of my ward.
15 Q. When did he express those wishes to you?
16 A. On more than one occasion.
17 Q. Did you take notes on those occasions?
18 A. No. I spoke to him in person.
19 Q. Yes, but when he said that did you note
20 your file that Robert --
21 A. I have to look.
22 Q. Was anyone present at those discussions?
23 A. No.
24 Q. Did you videotape those discussions?
25 A. Well, one time was in the presence of

1 Ellen Morris.
2 Q. And that was on February 9th -- in the 3 February meeting that you met with --
4 A. Yeah, the earlier meeting.
5 Q. Who was present at that time?
6 A. Ellen.
7 Q. What about Stacy and Dan?
8 A. No.
9 Q. And Bob has expressed to you that -- did
10 Bob discuss with you regarding the marriage that 11 took place on August 6th, 2014?
12 A. Did he discuss the marriage?
13 Q. Yes.
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. What did he say?
16 A. He said that he didn't want to be married.
17 Q. What was the reason why he didn't want to 18 be married?
19 A. Because he didn't see any reason to be
20 married.
21 Q. That was the basis for annulling the 22 marriage? Okay, you're saying in paragraph five
23 that at the time that on August 6, 2014 the ward
24 had diminished capacity and was unable to consent
25 to the marriage; is that correct?

1 Q. So you're trying to dissolve a marriage
2 that officially has never been dissolved, to annul
3 a marriage that was going on for 50-some years now,
4 you don't have a final judgment, correct?
5 A. Correct.
6 Q. And you're saying that he was under duress
7 to marry. What duress was he to marry, the ward?
8 A. Well, he's easily coerced, which the 9 documents attest to.
10 Q. Did Bob tell you that Vita Wein coerced
11 him to marry him?
12 A. Bob has mentioned that before, that he
13 doesn't know why he got married.
14 Q. He says he doesn't know why, but you're 15 saying in this petition that he was coerced?
16 A. Oh, yes, that he was coerced.
17 Q. How was he coerced; that's what I'm trying
18 to ask you?
19 A. He was coerced by his group of people that 20 coerced him.
21 Q. Who's the group of people that coerced
22 him? This is a deposition. I'm trying to find
23 out for discovery purposes.
24 A. Yes, so I guess that would have been --
25 during that time that would have been Vita, Delores

1 A. Yes.
2 Q. So you're saying that on August 6, 2014 he
3 didn't have the capacity to enter into this
4 marriage and he was unable to consent to the
5 marriage, but in February of 2015 he had the 6 capacity to tell you that he didn't want to be
7 married?
8 A. Well, you're asking for conclusions that I
9 can't make.
10 Q. Well, did you have him examined by any
11 type of doctor in February?
12 A. No.
13 Q. And you're stating that he was suffering
14 from a serious mental problem on August 6, 2014.
15 What mental problem was that?
16 A. Well, he has dementia.
17 Q. And he has dementia now in February of 18 2015, so what's the difference between August and 19 February? You're saying that he's competent --
20 A. That's a legal difference that I can't 21 explain to you because I'm not a legal person.
22 Q. And you don't have a copy of any final
23 judgment of dissolution of marriage that's been 24 entered in any state anywhere?
25 A. Huh-uh.

1 and, I assume, Jody.
2 Q. Do you know if Jody had any knowledge that
3 the parties were getting married?
4 A. From what I understand, she did.
5 Q. Who told you that?
6 A. Dan and Bob.
7 Q. Well, Dan knew nothing about the marriage,
8 did he?
9 A. He knew that it took place.
10 Q. After the fact, correct?
11 A. What?
12 Q. He knew after they got married in August
13 of 2014, he first became aware that Dan and Vita --
14 that Bob and Vita got married, correct?
15 A. Oh, you're confusing me. You're switching
16 Dan with Bob.
17 Q. You're saying that Dan -- I believe you
18 said that Dan was aware that Jody knew that Bob and 19 Vita were getting married?
20 A. No, I didn't know -- I didn't have that
21 discussion with Dan.
22 Q. What discussion did you have with Dan?
23 A. About what? I wasn't talking about Dan at 24 all. I thought you were talking about Bob being 25 coerced into getting married.

1 Q. So you're saying that Bob was telling you
2 that Jody and Vita and Delores coerced him to marry
3 Vita?
4 A. No, he didn't say that specifically.
5 Those were the people involved with him at the 6 time.
7 Q. There is a cantor that officiated the
8 ceremony. I believe his name was Efraim Sapier,
9 S-A-P --
10 A. Sapier.
11 Q. Have you ever spoke with him?
12 A. No.
13 Q. Do you know who was present at the 14 ceremony?
15 A. No.
16 Q. And you never had any discussions with Bob
17 suggesting that he annul this marriage?
18 A. What?
19 Q. You never suggested to Bob that he annul
20 this marriage? Your testimony is that Bob told you
21 that he wanted this marriage annuled?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. And that was some time prior to February
24 of 2009?
25 A. Yes.

1 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
2 Q. Bob Wein has over a couple of million
3 dollars, correct?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. And he has sufficient means to provide for 6 him and his wife for the remainder of their lives,
7 correct?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. So why do you object to him providing for 10 his wife's needs?
11 A. I don't object.
12 Q. You're saying that he objects?
13 A. He objects, yes.
14 Q. And you believe that he's competent to 15 make that decision, yes?
16 A. That's a legal answer that I can't give
17 you.
18 Q. Well, you're bringing these petitions to 19 amend the trust --
20 A. Correct.
21 Q. -- and petition to annul based upon what
22 you're telling me is the ward's desires, correct?
23 A. Correct.
24 Q. And during the period of time that Bob
25 Wein has expressed his desire to annul the marriage

1 MS. MORRIS: 2015.
2 MR. ROSENWATER: 2015. February 9 was a
3 meeting?
4 MS. MORRIS: Yes.
5 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
6 Q. Prior to February 9, 2015 you must have
7 had some type of meeting with Bob and he expressed
8 his desire to annul this marriage, correct?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. Approximately when did this meeting take
11 place?
12 A. I don't know.
13 Q. It would be somewhere shortly before this 14 period? You wouldn't wait months to do this,
15 correct?
16 A. Well, a certain amount of time.
17 Q. Would it be sometime in January of 2015
18 you met with Bob?
19 A. Most likely January, because this was --
20 the meeting was February 6th. It took a while to 21 set up. We had discussions about it. I certainly 22 had discussions about it.
23 MR. ROSENWATER: Madam Court Reporter.
24 (Thereupon, Exhibit Number 18 is marked
25 for identification.)

1 and to amend his trust documents, no one else was
2 present during these conversations other than you
3 and Bob, correct?
4 A. Correct.
5 Q. There's no witnesses, right?
6 A. Correct. Well, other than at the meeting
7 with Ellen Morris.
8 Q. In February of 2015?
9 A. Correct.
10 Q. You didn't have him examined by any other
11 medical professional?
12 A. No.
13 Q. You didn't speak with anyone -- you didn't
14 speak to Vita about this, correct?
15 A. Correct.
16 Q. When you spoke with Bob you didn't have 17 this recorded, or videotaped, or anything?
18 A. No.
19 Q. And maybe or maybe not you may have the 20 dates reflected in your notes, correct?
21 A. Correct.
22 Q. And it may have been one time or it may 23 have been two times, but no more than that that he 24 spoke to you regarding this, correct?
25 A. Correct.

1 Q. Do you know John Pankowski?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. How do you know Mr. Pankowski?
4 A. He represented Vita at the hearing.
5 Q. Has he ever been involved in any
6 guardianship cases that you've been appointed
7 guardian in?
8 A. He's done some work for me, yes.
9 Q. You've retained him?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. Did he contact you regarding this
12 guardianship proceeding prior to you being 13 appointed guardian?
14 A. He left me a voice mail.
15 Q. What did he say to you?
16 A. He just said I'm on the Wein case.
17 Q. Did he say we'd like to have you as a
18 professional guardian on the case?
19 A. No, I don't think. I think my name was 20 already in the hat.
21 Q. How much have you been paid to date in
22 this case?
23 A. I'm not sure. I think 8,000.
24 Q. And there's been monies that have been
25 paid to Manny Kushner?

1 Q. What did you say to Mr. Kitroser
2 regarding annulment of the marriage?
3 A. He brought up annulling the marriage.
4 Q. And the basis for that?
5 A. I think I asked him his opinion on
6 annulling the marriage.
7 Q. You asked him his opinion?
8 A. Uh-huh.
9 Q. I mean before you had any discussions with 10 Bob whether he wanted the marriage annulled?
11 A. Yeah, it was very early on.
12 Q. Why would that be brought up?
13 A. Because Mitchell brought up the entire
14 case. He was the court-appointed attorney.
15 Q. I'm trying to figure out why did Mitch
16 believe that a marriage should be annulled?
17 MS. MORRIS: Objection, outside the scope
18 of this witness's knowledge.
19 MR. ROSENWATER: She said she had 20 discussions.
21 MS. MORRIS: If you know why he expressed
22 it and you know, by all means answer.
23 THE WITNESS: I think he was referring to 24 his -- he was referring to his report to the 25 Court. I think it's in there.

1 A. Yes.
2 Q. And monies have been paid to Ms. Morris?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. Any other professional services that have
5 been rendered in connection with this matter, have
6 they been paid?
7 A. I can look. Are you asking about just
8 attorney fees?
9 Q. Attorney fees, guardian fees, or any other
10 professional fees other than examining committee.
11 MS. MORRIS: Court-appointed attorney does
12 an order.
13 THE WITNESS: I think that covers it,
14 Kitroser and Elder Law.
15 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
16 Q. So you don't think he had any discussions
17 with anyone regarding annulling the marriage prior
18 to your discussions with Bob, correct?
19 A. Did I discuss it with anyone prior to 20 discussing it with Bob?
21 Q. Yes, annulling his marriage.
22 A. With anyone?
23 Q. Yes.
24 A. I believe I discussed it with Mitch
25 Kitroser

1 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
2 Q. You've had e-mails with Jody Rich
3 regarding this matter, haven't you?
4 A. Regarding?
5 Q. Vita Wein and Bob.
6 A. Vita and Bob, yes.
7 Q. And you've e-mailed with her, what, almost 8 from the time that you've been appointed guardian,
9 correct?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. Do you recall this e-mail exchange that
12 you had with her in November of 2014?
13 A. It's a couple of e-mails, yes.
14 Q. Right. So November of 2014 --
15 A. This one on the bottom is much later.
16 Q. But at the top, towards the top, you state
17 the best approach is to have the marriage annulled
18 and have her go back to Medicaid where all expenses
19 are paid. So this is substantially earlier than 20 your discussions with Bob's desire to have the 21 marriage annulled. It's your decision or what you
22 think should happen?
23 A. It wasn't my decision. It was a financial 24 -- it was based on finances.
25 Q. But he as plenty of finances you testified

13:59:35-14:00:38 Page 122

1 earlier --

2 A. Vita's finances.

3 Q. But they're married, husband and wife.

4 Bob has an obligation to support his wife, correct?

5 MS. MORRIS: Objection, that calls for a

6 legal conclusion.

7 BY MR. ROSENWATER:

8 Q. And you testified earlier that Bob has

9 significant assets to support both Bob and Vita for 10 the rest of their lives, correct?

11 A. Possibly.

12 Q. Well, now you said possibly --

13 A. He has significant assets, yes. Whether

14 he wants to support Vita the rest of his life is a

15 different question.

16 MR. ROSENWATER: 19.

17 (Thereupon, Exhibit Number 19 is marked

18 for identification.)

19 MS. MORRIS: It's 2:00, Bruce.

20 MR. ROSENWATER: I'm not done. I probably

21 have another half an hour. Do you have to

22 leave?

23 MS. MORRIS: Yes. The hearing is at 3 --

24 MR. ROSENWATER: It's going to take you

25 without traffic --

14:00:38-14:00:45 Page 123

1 MS. MORRIS: It's going to take about 45,

2 55 minutes.

3 MR. ROSENWATER: Yes, without traffic.

4 MS. MORRIS: I'm concerned about being

5 late for the hearing.

6 MR. ROSENWATER: Well, I have about 30

7 minutes left.

8 MS. MORRIS: So we're definitely not going

9 to be able to finish.

10 MR. ROSENWATER: Okay. We'll talk about

11 continuing it at another date.

12 MS. MORRIS: That's fine.

13 (Thereupon, at 2:00 p.m. the deposition

14 was adjourned.)

2 Q. Are you admitted to any other bars?
3 A. Yes. New York, Connecticut and

10 Q. 100 percent?

12 Q. Do you know Robert Wein?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. When did you first meet Robert Wein?
15 MS. MORRIS: Privileged.
16 MR. ROSENWATER: I don't think it's
17 privileged when he first met him.
18 MS. MORRIS: It actually is privileged.
19 THE WITNESS: Okay.
20 MR. ROSENWATER: I don't think so. Are 21 you instructing him not to answer?
22 MS. MORRIS: Uh-huh.
23 MR. ROSENWATER: That's not a privilege.
24 When he met someone, that's not privileged.
25 MS. MORRIS: If he met him in the course

Jordan Klingsberg - 06/09/2015

1 of representing him, it's privileged.
2 MR. ROSENWATER: No, it isn't.
3 MS. MORRIS: I'm instructing him not to
4 answer.
5 MR. ROSENWATER: He's not your client.
6 MS. MORRIS: Well, you can do whatever you
7 want, Jordan. If you don't think it's
8 privileged, answer. If you're not sure, do
9 what you want.
10 THE WITNESS: Can I still answer with your
11 objection?
12 MS. MORRIS: You can if you don't agree.
13 THE WITNESS: I don't agree. On 14 August 20th, 2014.
15 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
16 Q. And did Mr. Wein come to your office on 17 that date?
18 A. Yes, he did.
19 Q. And was anyone with him on that day?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. And who did he come with?
22 A. He came with his helper, Dolores, and his 23 wife, Vita Wein.
24 Q. Did you speak with either Dolores or Vita
25 Wein on that day?

16:01:28-16:02:38 Page 7

1 A. Yes, I did.
2 Q. Where did you -- strike that.
3 When you spoke with Dolores and Vita, was
4 Robert present at that time?
5 A. Yes, he was.
6 Q. What were the discussions at that point?
7 A. The discussions were in regards to changes
8 to Robert's estate planning documents.
9 Q. And when Robert was with Dolores and Vita,
10 did he express to you the changes that he wanted to 11 be made to his documents?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. What did he say?
14 A. He said that he would like his brother,
15 Daniel, removed from all of his documents in all
16 capacities.
17 Q. Did he say why he wanted Daniel removed?
18 A. Yes. He said that Daniel was stealing
19 from him.
20 Q. And when you met with him, did he bring
21 his previous estate documents?
22 A. Yes, he did.
23 Q. Robert is, do you know how old Robert is?
24 A. I believe he's 83 or 84.
25 Q. Is it your standard course of practice

16:02:49-16:03:45 Page 8

1 when someone, I'm going to call them elderly, an
2 elderly individual comes to your office, do you
3 have a certain protocol?
4 A. No.
5 Q. Do you do anything if you have any
6 concerns whether the individual may be under duress
7 or undue influence?
8 A. If I do, I'll call in another partner to 9 ask him questions just to make sure that the client
10 has capacity, that there's no one to influence.
11 Q. When you were meeting with Robert and 12 Dolores and Vita, was Dolores or Vita exercising
13 any undue influence onto Robert?
14 A. No, they were not. And I also asked them
15 to leave and spoke to Robert alone.
16 Q. In your opinion was he under any undue
17 influence --
18 A. No.
19 Q. -- when you met with him?
20 Did he seem to be under any type of mental 21 incapacity at that point?
22 A. No.
23 Q. Did you meet with Robert and any other
24 attorneys in your office on that day?
25 A. Yes.

16:03:50-16:04:52 Page 9

1 Q. Who was that attorney?
2 A. Sean Lebowitz (ph).
3 Q. Sean?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. And is his practice estates and estate
6 planning as well?
7 A. Probate and trust litigation.
8 Q. Do you do any litigation?
9 A. No.
10 Q. What was the purpose of having Sean meet
11 with you and Mr. Wein?
12 A. To confirm that there was no undue
13 influence and that he did have capacity to change
14 his estate planning documents.
15 Q. Is that your standard practice?
16 A. When you say "standard practice," we don't 17 do it with all clients, but there's no test or 18 anything. It's just a feeling that I had that day
19 and wanted to make sure that someone else was 20 confirming my opinion.
21 Q. How long did you meet with Robert that 22 date if you recall?
23 A. About an hour.
24 Q. And after you met with Robert on 25 August 20, 2014, did you prepare estate documents

16:05:02-16:05:52 Page 10

1 for him?
2 A. I did.
3 Q. After you prepared the estate documents,
4 did you meet with Robert again?
5 A. I did.
6 Q. Do you recall when that was?
7 A. That was August 25th, 2014.
8 Q. And did Robert come to your office to 9 execute the estate documents that day?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. Was he present -- did he come with anyone
12 else on that day?
13 A. He did.
14 Q. And who did he come with?
15 A. I believe he came with Dolores, but I
16 can't be sure. But during the meeting, it was only
17 with Robert.
18 Q. And during the period of time that he 19 executed the estate documents, who was present?
20 A. At the execution? It was Robert, myself
21 and then there'd be two witnesses. I'm not sure
22 who the two witnesses were.
23 Q. After Robert signed the estate documents
24 on August 25th, 2014, did you ever meet with him or 25 speak with him after that date?

16:06:00-16:06:59 Page 11

1 A. Yes.
2 Q. When was that?
3 A. I had eight subsequent phone calls with 4 him, but I cannot tell you the exact dates of those
5 phone calls.
6 Q. Was that Robert calling you?
7 A. It was both Robert calling me and me
8 calling Robert back sometimes. But, yes, Robert
9 was calling me.
10 Q. Was it regarding the estate documents that 11 were prepared?
12 A. It was regarding the accounts and having 13 Daniel removed as trustee.
14 (Interruption in the Proceedings.)
15 (Daniel Wein and Elizabeth Savitt
16 entered.)
17 MR. DANIEL WEIN: Sorry to keep you
18 waiting.
19 MS. MORRIS: Good afternoon.
20 MR. ROSENWATER: Are you going to have him
21 testify at the hearing on the 22nd?
22 MS. MORRIS: He's a pro se party to the 23 action.
24 MR. ROSENWATER: He's not a pro se party.
25 MS. MORRIS: I thought he filed something

16:07:09-16:07:48 Page 12

1 pro se.
2 MR. DANIEL WEIN: I am a pro se party.
3 MS. MORRIS: He was represented by Manny,
4 and then I think he then filed a pro se notice
5 of appearance. He may be called as a witness,
6 but he's also a party. I don't know if I'm
7 going to call him or not.
8 MR. ROSENWATER: He filed a motion to 9 intervene. The court has never granted his 10 motion to intervene. There's been no hearing
11 on it.
12 MS. MORRIS: I'm not taking a position.
13 You can take whatever position you want.
14 MR. ROSENWATER: My position is you're not
15 a party to these proceedings and that I'm 16 objecting to you being here and we're not going
17 to proceed with you here.
18 MR. DANIEL WEIN: I object to that.
19 MS. MORRIS: I think you noticed him, by 20 the way, on your notice.
21 MR. DANIEL WEIN: You noticed me.
22 MR. ROSENWATER: It was just because what
23 happens is the e-filing picks everyone up. I
24 don't think he was on the notice. She's not a
25 party.

16:07:59-16:10:19 Page 13

1 MS. STACY WEIN: I'm not coming in.
2 MS. MORRIS: I think you noticed him. But
3 I have no feeling one way or the other.
4 MR. DANIEL WEIN: I did file something
5 with the court as pro se.
6 MR. ROSENWATER: You can bring it up with
7 the court. But this is my deposition. To me
8 you're not a party here, so I'm asking you to 9 leave.
10 MS. STACY WEIN: You don't have to, daddy,
11 you can stay.
12 MR. ROSENWATER: You're not an attorney,
13 and don't speak up.
14 MR. DANIEL WEIN: I'll repeat. I don't
15 have to go. I can stay.
16 MR. ROSENWATER: We'll have to take this
17 up before the court. Let me speak to my client
18 for a second.
19 (A brief recess was taken.)
20 MR. ROSENWATER: Back on the record. I'm 21 not going to inconvenience this witness because 22 he has a schedule, but I'm going to bring this
23 up before the court. We'll address it before
24 the court some other time. We have a
25 professional here. He has time constraints and

16:10:31-16:11:30 Page 14

1 he has a schedule. So we're going to continue
2 with this deposition and not inconvenience him
3 again having to bring him back.
4 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
5 Q. Jordan, did Robert Wein provide you with a
6 copy of the Robert Wein Living Trust dated November
7 25, 2013?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. Is this a true and correct copy of the 10 Robert Wein Living Trust?
11 A. I couldn't tell you.
12 Q. Can you check if that's his signature on
13 it?
14 A. I wouldn't be able to tell you if it's his
15 signature.
16 Q. You were provided with the 2013 living
17 trust?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. And Robert Wein wanted you to amend that 20 trust; is that correct?
21 A. Correct.
22 MR. ROSENWATER: Let's mark this as
23 Exhibit 1.
24 (Vita Wein's Exhibit 1, Robert Wein Living
25 Trust.)

16:11:46-16:12:16 Page 15

1 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
2 Q. On that date did Robert Wein present to
3 you a last will and testament that was prepared in 4 March of 2014 that was marked up like this?
5 MS. MORRIS: Again I'm going to assert
6 privilege, which I believe you've gone too far
7 in the questions that you've already answered.
8 I believe you've already violated your
9 attorney/client privilege by stating what he
10 asked you to do. And again, I'm going to 11 assert the privilege. The only one who has the 12 privilege is Betsy. She's the only one that 13 can waive it, and it's not been waived.
14 MR. ROSENWATER: They're not privileged
15 because he provided them to someone else.
16 MS. MORRIS: No. He provided it to his
17 attorney, so they are privileged.
18 MR. ROSENWATER: And then they went to a
19 third party after that.
20 MS. MORRIS: Not as far as I know.
21 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
22 Q. Jordan, did you release --
23 A. I'm going to have to abide by the 24 objection. If it's privileged, I can't talk about
25 it.

16:12:34-16:13:11 Page 16

1 Q. You didn't prepare this document, did you?
2 A. I did not.
3 Q. You didn't prepare this document. Robert
4 Wein didn't ask you to prepare this will, correct?
5 MS. MORRIS: Objection to what Robert
6 asked him or didn't ask him to do.
7 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
8 Q. You didn't represent Robert Wein in
9 March of 2014, did you?
10 A. In March of 2014, no, I did not.
11 Q. And when he went to your office in August
12 of 2014, did he provide certain previous estate
13 documents to you?
14 MS. MORRIS: You already testified to it,
15 Jordan.
16 THE WITNESS: Yeah.
17 MR. ROSENWATER: He didn't prepare the 18 documents. There's no attorney/client
19 privilege.
20 MS. MORRIS: Yes. But there is
21 attorney/client privilege, Bruce. Because if 22 he says to his attorney, here, this is what I'm 23 doing and this is what I'm giving you, that's 24 an attorney/client conversation. It's
25 privileged. It's confidential communication.

16:13:32-16:14:50 Page 17

1 But he already testified to it before, so asked
2 and answered anyway.
3 THE WITNESS: He did give me previously
4 executed estate planning documents.
5 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
6 Q. The last will and testament that was
7 marked up, do you recall seeing that when he met
8 with you?
9 A. Yes.
10 MR. ROSENWATER: Mark this as two.
11 (Vita Wein's Exhibit 2, Last Will and 12 Testament of Robert Wein.)
13 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
14 Q. These documents, were they handed to you
15 by Robert Wein or were they handed to you by 16 Dolores or Vita; do you recall?
17 A. I don't recall.
18 Q. On August 20 -- I believe it's August
19 25th. On August 25th, did you prepare a living
20 will for Robert Wein?
21 A. I think this is privileged.
22 MS. MORRIS: Yes. I believe it's all
23 privileged. How they got the documents, I
24 don't know. It's in my interrogatories to 25 them. How they got privileged communication, I

16:14:55-16:16:24 Page 18

1 don't know. But I do believe it is all
2 privileged.
3 THE WITNESS: I can't talk about that.
4 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
5 Q. I'm not asking you to talk about it. I'm
6 asking if you prepared it?
7 A. I can't discuss it.
8 Q. Does Wendy Valenzula (ph) work at your
9 office?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. Jan K-A-T-Y-N-S-K-I?
12 A. Katynski, yes.
13 Q. Were they working at your office on August
14 25th, 2014?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. Do they still work at your office?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. You were retained by Mr. Wein to prepare
19 estate documents, correct?
20 MS. MORRIS: Again objection.
21 MR. ROSENWATER: We'll bring this up
22 before the court because the privilege has been
23 waived. They've been provided by third
24 parties.
25 BY MR. ROSENWATER:

16:17:18-16:19:41 Page 19

1 Q. Have you ever seen a letter dated
2 September 5th, 2014, that was written to Morgan
3 Stanley Funds Services USA?
4 A. No.
5 MR. ROSENWATER: Let me speak with my
6 client for a second.
7 (A brief recess was taken.)
8 MR. ROSENWATER: We're going to continue
9 the deposition and bring the issues up with 10 this Mr. Daniel Wein being here and also about 11 the estate documents that were previously
12 provided to other people.
13 MS. MORRIS: That's fine. I just want to 14 ask a couple questions.
15 CROSS (JORDAN KLINGSBERG)
16 BY MS. MORRIS:
17 Q. Jordan, did you provide these estate
18 planning documents to any third parties?
19 A. No, I did not.
20 Q. Who were the people that you provided
21 these private estate planning documents to?
22 A. Just to Mr. Wein, Robert Wein.
23 MS. MORRIS: I don't have anything
24 further.
25 MR. ROSENWATER: It's not finished. But

16:19:50-16:20:27 Page 20

1 if it's transcribed, you have the right to read
2 or waive.
3 THE WITNESS: I'll waive.
4 MR. DANIEL WEIN: I'd like to ask
5 questions.
6 MR. ROSENWATER: You're not a party to the
7 case.
8 MR. DANIEL WEIN: I'd like to ask them
9 anyway.
10 MR. ROSENWATER: You can ask. But we're
11 not on the record. It's not his deposition.
12 You didn't cross-notice anything.
13 MR. DANIEL WEIN: We filed --
14 MR. ROSENWATER: You didn't cross-notice
15 the notice of taking deposition. You're not a
16 party to the case. There hasn't been an order
17 allowing you to intervene. You don't have a
18 right to ask any questions. It's my court
19 reporter. It's my deposition. I object.
20 MR. DANIEL WEIN: There was a filing this 21 morning to intervene.
22 MS. MORRIS: Bruce, the only thing I'll 23 tell you is that he is the initial petitioner.
24 MR. ROSENWATER: He didn't cross-notice.
25 MS. MORRIS: It's not professional even

16:20:36 Page 21

1 without a cross-notice not to allow someone to
2 ask questions, either an attorney or a party to
3 ask questions.
4 MR. ROSENWATER: He can come back. We're
5 going to continue the deposition. As far as
6 I'm concerned, the deposition stopped when I
7 gave you the courtesy of answering your
8 questions -- or asking your questions. So
9 we'll conclude it for today.
10 THE REPORTER: Are we off the record?
11 MR. ROSENWATER: Yes.
12 THE REPORTER: I have to be clear with her
13 as well.
14 MS. MORRIS: I'm done.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

IN RE: GUARDIANSHIP OF

PROBATE DIVISION "IB"

ROBERT PAUL WEIN

CASE NO. 502014GA000472XXXXMB

VERIFIED PETITION FOR ORDER APPOINTING GUARDIAN AS LIFETIME
TRUSTEE OF WARD'S TRUST

Petitioner, ELIZABETH SAVITT, as Limited Guardian of the Person and Property of Robert Paul Wein (the Ward), alleges:

1. Petitioner is the duly appointed and acting Limited Guardian of the Person and Property of the Ward, having been appointed by Order and Letters dated October 15, 2014.
2. On November 25, 2013, prior to the initiation of the incapacity and guardianship proceedings, the Ward executed a revocable trust entitled the ROBERT WEIN LIVING TRUST dated November 25, 2013 (the "Trust").
3. By the Court's Order dated October 15, 2014, the Court authorized the guardian to manage all of the property of the Ward, including the assets held in the Ward's Trust.
4. Pursuant to the Court's Order, Petitioner listed all of the Ward's Trust accounts on the initial Inventory.
5. The Ward currently has assets titled in the name of the Trust at Morgan Stanley, TIG Arbitrage Associates, L.P. and Joseph Gunnar & Co., LLC.
6. Currently, there is no acting Trustee of the Ward's Trust, and the guardian's authority under the Court's Order is not being recognized by the financial institutions as she is not named specifically as Trustee.
7. Petitioner asserts that it is in the Ward's best interest for her to be appointed as Trustee of the Ward's Trust during the Ward's lifetime.

WHEREFORE, Petition requests that the Court enter an order appointing the guardian as Lifetime Trustee of the ROBERT WEIN LIVING TRUST dated November 25, 2013, as Amended and Restated.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

DATED this 8 day of June, 2015.

5 Deposition of ELIZABETH SAVITT, a witness,
6 taken by Counsel for Vita Wein for the purpose of 7 discovery and for use as evidence in the
8 above-entitled cause, pursuant to notice heretofore
9 filed, before Suzanne L. Anderson, Shorthand
10 Reporter, and Notary Public in and for the State of 11 Florida at large, at 1601 Forum Place, Suite 610,
12 West Palm Beach, Florida, on Wednesday, June 10,
13 2015, commencing at 8:46 a.m.

15 MS. MORRIS: Those are the documents that
16 you asked for that are separate from the
17 request to produce you sent, which is not due
18 until I think the 14th. These are the
19 documents that you asked Betsy for during her
20 deposition certain questions. I made a note
21 that I would produce them for you. A lot was
22 communication with Dan Wein or other -- I think
23 it was mostly Dan Wein. You asked for emails
24 and other communications, so you have all of
25 that there.

2 THEREUPON,
3 ELIZABETH SAVITT,
4 being by the undersigned Notary Public first duly
5 sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
6 THE WITNESS: I do.
7 CONT. DIRECT (ELIZABETH SAVITT)
8 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
9 Q. Let me go through this real quick. Your
10 attorney said you provided or she provided some
11 documents that we requested at the last deposition.
12 Those documents that were provided or handed to me
13 was a 1040 U.S. Income Tax Return for Robert Wein
14 just the first page. Do you know where the rest of 15 the tax return is?
16 A. Can I see it?
17 MS. MORRIS: Just yes or no.
18 THE WITNESS: I'll find it. Yes. Maybe.
19 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
20 Q. So you're going to produce it?
21 MS. MORRIS: No, not necessarily. It may
22 be privileged. You asked her if she knows
23 where it is. She said yes.
24 MR. ROSENWATER: Well, I don't know if
25 it's privileged. She provided the first page,

09:11:46-09:13:01 Page 131

1 so it's not privileged.
2 MS. MORRIS: That's what we're providing.
3 MR. ROSENWATER: Are you objecting that
4 it's privilege? What's the privilege?
5 MS. MORRIS: I don't know yet. You can
6 send a follow-up request to produce if you want
7 the full tax return.
8 MR. ROSENWATER: We're not going to send a
9 follow-up request. We requested documents
10 pursuant to our duces tecum, and you haven't
11 provided all of the documents. We'll take it
12 up with the court.
13 MS. MORRIS: I've objected to the whole
14 file that you -- and I produced the documents
15 that I felt were not objectionable, Bruce.
16 MR. ROSENWATER: You provide the first
17 page, but no other page of the tax return?
18 MS. MORRIS: That's right.
19 MR. ROSENWATER: We'll bring that up with
20 the court.
21 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
22 Q. You produced some documents regarding a
23 B of A core checking account 3992. It doesn't say
24 whose account it was for. Whose account is this 25 for?

09:13:33-09:15:14 Page 132

1 A. It's the guardianship account.
2 Q. When was that account opened?
3 A. I'm not sure.
4 Q. Are those complete records for that
5 account?
6 A. Oh, here we go. September 29th.
7 Q. Are those the complete records for this
8 account?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. And whose handwriting is this on these
11 accounts?
12 A. My assistant.
13 Q. Who is your assistant?
14 A. Kiriam.
15 Q. Who?
16 A. Kiriam.
17 Q. Is that the first name or last name?
18 A. Kiriam Ruiz.
19 Q. On 4/13/2015 there's check number 200 to 20 Morgan Stanley. It says condo for $200,000. Can
21 you explain that entry?
22 A. Can I see it? I think condo is a mistake.
23 I'm not sure exactly, but I think this is the
24 Paraveda funds that came back.
25 Q. It's what, for the court reporter?

09:15:31-09:16:19 Page 133

1 A. It's not condo. It's Paraveda.
2 Q. What is Paraveda?
3 A. Paraveda is an investment that Robert had
4 that came due.
5 Q. So the --
6 A. It was sent to Morgan Stanley.
7 Q. Was that an investment or was that a
8 promissory note?
9 A. Investment.
10 (Reporter clarification.)
11 THE WITNESS: P-A-R-A-V-E-D-A.
12 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
13 Q. Are there any other monies that are due
14 from Paraveda?
15 A. No.
16 Q. Are there any promissory notes entered
17 into with Paraveda?
18 A. No.
19 Q. Is there a number of outstanding
20 promissory notes for monies that Robert Wein lent
21 individuals and companies to?
22 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Relevance. Go
23 ahead.
24 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
25 Q. Are there promissory notes?

09:16:25-09:17:04 Page 134

1 THE WITNESS: Am I supposed to answer?
2 MS. MORRIS: Yes. You can answer.
3 THE WITNESS: There are promissory notes,
4 yes.
5 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
6 Q. Who are the promissory notes from?
7 MS. MORRIS: I want a standing irrelevant
8 objection to this line of questioning.
9 THE WITNESS: I don't have them.
10 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
11 Q. Have you made any effort to collect on
12 these promissory notes?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. What efforts have you done?
15 A. Tried to collect them.
16 Q. How did you try to collect them?
17 A. They're all different.
18 Q. Tell me.
19 A. Well, they're in the inventory.
20 Q. They're in the inventory that these are
21 monies that are owed to the guardianship, to the
22 ward. But how did you collect them? In the
23 inventory it said --
24 A. I'm in the process of collecting them.
25 Q. In the process? What are you doing? Have

09:17:16-09:18:02 Page 135

1 you sent out demand letters?
2 A. I've been calling and speaking to the
3 people that owe the money.
4 Q. And your records reflect that?
5 A. Possibly.
6 Q. You've been the guardian for almost eight
7 months now. These monies have been due and
8 outstanding since that time. You filed no court
9 action or sent any demand letters to these
10 individuals or companies?
11 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Irrelevant and
12 argumentative.
13 You can answer.
14 THE WITNESS: I've done many things to
15 collect these monies.
16 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
17 Q. What are the many things that you've done?
18 A. Mostly telephone calls.
19 Q. And your records would reflect that?
20 A. Possibly.
21 Q. Have you collected any of these monies?
22 A. Not yet -- that's wrong. I take that
23 back. I have collected some of them.
24 Q. What have you collected?
25 A. The interest from the Copa Cabana loan.

09:18:23-09:19:51 Page 136

1 Q. Is that note due?
2 A. It's not a -- it doesn't have a due date.
3 I'm collecting interest.
4 MS. MORRIS: There's an irrelevant
5 objection to all of those questions.
6 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
7 Q. On February 18, 2015, check number 182,
8 you paid yourself $5,000 for guardianship fees.
9 Did you get court approval for those fees?
10 A. No.
11 Q. On March 11th, 2015, check number 190 to
12 Elder Law Associates for $4,146.85, did you get
13 court approval for that check?
14 A. No.
15 Q. Have you petitioned the court for
16 guardianship fees?
17 A. No.
18 Q. Do you intend to?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. When do you intend to do so?
21 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Irrelevant.
22 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
23 Q. You can answer the question.
24 A. I don't know.
25 Q. On November 17, 2014, you wrote a check

09:20:14-09:21:23 Page 137

1 for $3,577.50 to Elder Law Associates. Did you get
2 court approval for that?
3 A. No.
4 Q. On October 29th, 2014, you wrote a check
5 to yourself for guardian fees for $3,000. Did you
6 get court approval for that?
7 A. No.
8 MS. MORRIS: Standing irrelevant objection
9 to all of these questions, please.
10 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
11 Q. On October 22nd, 2014, you wrote a check
12 to Ellen Morris for $1,137.50. Did you get court
13 approval?
14 A. No.
15 Q. On December 15, 2014, you wrote a check to
16 Mitchell Kitroser for $13,972.52.
17 (Reporter clarification.)
18 MR. ROSENWATER: $13,972.52.
19 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
20 Q. Is that correct, you wrote a check to
21 Mitchell Kitroser?
22 A. I did.
23 Q. Was that pursuant to a court order?
24 A. I believe so.
25 Q. Have you paid yourself more than the

09:21:57-09:22:42 Page 138

1 $5,000 and the $3,000 that I just asked you about?
2 A. No.
3 Q. Do you have billing records?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. Did you bring those?
6 A. No.
7 Q. Weren't they asked for at the last
8 deposition and requested as part of the notice of
9 taking deposition duces tecum?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. Why didn't you bring them?
12 A. I don't have them finished yet.
13 Q. Why didn't you bring what you had
14 completed?
15 A. It doesn't let me do that.
16 Q. You can't print it out?
17 A. I can't print out the incomplete invoice.
18 Q. So from October 2014 to June 10th, 2015,
19 you have not completed one invoice in this case?
20 A. I haven't invoiced for this guardianship
21 yet, no.
22 Q. But you've paid yourself $8,000?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. What was that based upon?
25 A. What was due and owing at the time I paid

09:22:50-09:23:42 Page 139

1 it.
2 Q. Off of your billing records?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. And you can't print a partial billing
5 record?
6 A. Not on my program.
7 Q. What program do you have?
8 A. Rocket Matter.
9 Q. Are you going to provide those records?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. When are you going to provide those?
12 MS. MORRIS: Subject to any privilege
13 redaction.
14 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
15 Q. When are you going to provide those
16 records?
17 A. By the date that they're due.
18 Q. You have a gmail account?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. And you communicate with Dan Wein via
21 email at Dan Wein's email address:
22 DWein5680@aol.com?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. And you provided us with copies of emails
25 that you've had with Dan Wein regarding Robert

09:23:51-09:25:07 Page 140

1 Wein?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. The emails that you provided are all of
4 the emails that you've had with Dan Wein since the
5 beginning of this matter?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. Now, on some of these emails you've
8 redacted information from these emails. Why did
9 you redact the information?
10 A. Because it wasn't specific to what we're
11 here for today.
12 Q. What are you discussing with Dan Wein
13 other than Robert Wein? What other matters are you
14 discussing with him?
15 A. His healthcare, finances.
16 Q. Robert Wein's healthcare and finances?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. That's not relevant to the guardianship?
19 A. It doesn't have anything to do with the
20 annulment or the trust issues.
21 Q. Dan Wein sent you an email on November 20,
22 2014. The first half of the email is redacted.
23 But it says thereafter: Insofar as Vita, I
24 understand she is on Medicare. If so, she can see
25 any doctor that accepts Medicare and pays the

09:25:23-09:26:33 Page 141

1 co-payment. The best approach is to have the
2 marriage annulled and then have her go on Medicaid
3 when all expenses are paid.
4 Did Dan Wein send you this email?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. Whose idea was it to have the marriage
7 annulled, yours or Dan Wein's?
8 A. I don't know.
9 Q. You don't know?
10 A. No.
11 Q. Did you have any emails with him or
12 discussions with him prior to this email of
13 November 20, 2014, regarding the annulment of the
14 marriage?
15 A. I'm not sure.
16 Q. Why were these discussions made with Dan
17 Wein regarding Robert Wein's marriage to Vita Wein?
18 A. I'm not sure.
19 Q. Why does Dan Wein have any standing to
20 have this marriage annulled?
21 A. I don't know if he does.
22 Q. Why are you discussing this as the ward?
23 Isn't that information that shouldn't be discussed
24 with the brother, his marriage?
25 A. I can't prevent him from emailing me.

09:26:50-09:27:13 Page 142

1 Q. He emails you on November 20, 2014, at
2 10:00 p.m. saying: The best approach is to have
3 the marriage annulled and then have her go on
4 Medicaid when all expenses are paid. Is that
5 correct?
6 A. That's part of that email.
7 Q. What is the rest of the email?
8 MS. MORRIS: Objection. The document
9 speaks for itself.
10 MR. ROSENWATER: She said she's --
11 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
12 Q. What's the rest of the email?
13 MS. MORRIS: Well, obviously it's part of
14 the email. There's already --
15 MR. ROSENWATER: She said that's --
16 MS. MORRIS: -- testimony that there's
17 redactions as to the healthcare or other issues
18 that are not relevant to what we're here for.
19 I don't understand the question.
20 MR. ROSENWATER: Can you repeat the
21 question.
22 (The preceding question was read back by
23 the Reporter.)
24 MR. ROSENWATER: Go back to her answer.
25 (A portion of the record was read back by

09:27:54-09:28:50 Page 143

1 the Reporter.)
2 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
3 Q. What is the rest of the email?
4 A. It's right there.
5 Q. Here. Tell me what is the rest of the
6 email.
7 MS. MORRIS: Objection to anything that's
8 redacted. Obviously she's not testifying to
9 that.
10 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
11 Q. I'm talking about the annulment.
12 A. In the rest of the email he's talking
13 about Vita's social worker at Jewish Home Life in
14 the Bronx, and that social worker told him that
15 Vita was on Medicaid. He wants to know when did
16 she go off Medicaid and back on Medicare, which she
17 says she's presently on.
18 Q. What relevance does that have to do with
19 ward?
20 A. I don't know.
21 Q. On November 20th Dan Wein emails you about
22 having the marriage annulled. Then on November
23 21st, one day after that, you email Jody Rich and
24 suggest that Vita -- the best approach is to have
25 the marriage annulled and then have her go back on

09:29:10-09:29:58 Page 144

1 Medicaid when all expenses are paid, housing,
2 doctors, hospital, et cetera. Is that correct?
3 A. If that's what you're reading.
4 Q. Well, look at it.
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. So Dan Wein on the 20th tells you that the
7 marriage should be annulled. You email Jody Rich
8 the next day saying, the best approach is to have
9 the marriage annulled. Whose idea was it to have
10 the marriage annulled, yours or Dan Wein's?
11 A. I don't know.
12 Q. You don't know?
13 A. No.
14 Q. At your last deposition you said that
15 Robert Wein wanted his marriage annulled, and he
16 told you in January of 2015. Do you recall that?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. And you said that was the first time that
19 came up, correct?
20 A. The first time it came up with Robert.
21 Q. So prior to January of 2015, Robert never
22 said anything about his marriage being annulled?
23 A. I can't remember.
24 Q. Did you have any discussions with Robert
25 prior to January of 2015 regarding these emails and

09:30:13-09:30:55 Page 145

1 discussions that you had with Dan Wein for the best
2 approach for the marriage to be annulled so Vita
3 can go on Medicaid?
4 A. No. That was concerning Jody's request
5 for health insurance for Vita.
6 Q. So you've never had discussions with
7 Robert Wein prior to January of 2015 --
8 A. No. I didn't say that.
9 Q. -- regarding the annulment of the
10 marriage?
11 A. I didn't say that.
12 Q. When did you first have discussions
13 with --
14 A. I don't remember exactly.
15 Q. Would your -- do you take notes? Do you
16 have notes on the guardianship?
17 A. Some notes.
18 Q. Did you provide those notes?
19 A. They would be in the emails or --
20 MS. MORRIS: Unless they were objected to.
21 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
22 Q. You have other notes as well, correct?
23 A. No.
24 Q. You don't -- you visit Robert Wein on such
25 and such date. You don't take notes on what took

09:31:09-09:32:09 Page 146

1 place on that visit? You don't have a journal?
2 A. No.
3 Q. How do you document what took place with
4 the ward if anything needed to be done? For
5 example, you met the ward today.
6 A. It would be in my billing.
7 Q. Your billing records would reflect
8 conversations or the extent of what was done?
9 A. Possibly.
10 Q. If they're not in the billing records,
11 where would they be?
12 A. Then I probably don't have them.
13 CERTIFIED QUESTION
14 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
15 Q. Did you speak with Mitchell Kitroser
16 regarding the annulment of Robert Wein's marriage?
17 A. Yes.
18 MS. MORRIS: Objection.
19 MR. ROSENWATER: What is your objection?
20 MS. MORRIS: Mitchell Kitroser was the
21 attorney for Robert Wein. The attorney/client
22 privilege extends to fiduciaries. Betsy is
23 Robert Wein's fiduciary. Any conversation that
24 she had with Mitchell Kitroser is privileged
25 attorney/client communication.

09:32:21-09:33:15 Page 147

1 MR. ROSENWATER: If there's a discussion.
2 I've asked if she had any discussions. That's
3 not privileged.
4 MS. MORRIS: It actually is.
5 MR. ROSENWATER: It is not.
6 MS. MORRIS: It is. And I'm directing you
7 not to answer.
8 MR. ROSENWATER: That's not privileged.
9 Again mark that. We'll certify that and
10 bring that up before the court.
11 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
12 Q. So you're not going to testify that you
13 had any discussions with Mitchell Kitroser?
14 A. No.
15 Q. Did you review his report that he filed
16 with the court?
17 A. I did.
18 Q. Did his report indicate anything about
19 Robert Wein's marriage?
20 A. I can't remember the report exactly. I'd
21 have to read it again.
22 Q. When is the last time you read his report?
23 A. At the very beginning of the guardianship.
24 Q. I'm handing you the report of the court
25 appointed counsel, which was Mitchell Kitroser.

09:33:29-09:34:16 Page 148

1 Have you seen that report before?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. The report was signed on October 14, 2014,
4 by Mitchell Kitroser, correct?
5 A. Signed, yes.
6 Q. And you read that report?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. Did you have any objections to the report?
9 A. Not at the time.
10 Q. Do you have objections to the report now?
11 A. I don't know. I'll have to reread it.
12 Q. You said, not at the time. I mean, either
13 you have objections or not. Have you filed any 14 objections to the report?
15 A. No.
16 Q. What are your objections to the report, if
17 any?
18 A. I would have to reread it and let you know
19 if I have an objection.
20 Q. Wouldn't you know now?
21 A. No. I don't know. I haven't reread it
22 since beginning of the guardianship.
23 Q. So you haven't looked at it since the
24 beginning of the guardianship. But you're saying
25 you may have objections to it. But you haven't

09:34:36-09:35:13 Page 149

1 filed any objections with the court?
2 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Argumentative.
3 MR. ROSENWATER: She can't answer the
4 question. It's amazing.
5 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
6 Q. Let me direct your attention to page five
7 of the report. Do you have page five?
8 A. You want me to read the whole report?
9 MS. MORRIS: No. He wants you to go to
10 page five.
11 THE WITNESS: Okay.
12 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
13 Q. Do you see the stipulation as to the
14 rights to be removed?
15 A. The rights that will be delegated to the
16 guardian. Is that what you're looking at?
17 Q. No. On page five, the stipulation as
18 to --
19 A. Stipulation, okay, uh-huh.
20 Q. And Mr. Kitroser says that Mr. Wein
21 recalls that he remarried his former wife Vita and
22 wishes to remain married. Have you read that
23 before?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. (Reading.) And for the purposes of this

09:35:32-09:36:28 Page 150

1 hearing in this matter, Mr. Wein states that he no
2 longer has the need to marry in the future and has
3 no need to retain this right. Correct?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. When Mr. Kitroser filed this report, did
6 you file any objections to that?
7 A. No.
8 Q. Do you object to his statement that
9 Mr. Wein wishes to be remain married to his wife?
10 A. Do I what?
11 Q. Do you have an objection to his statement
12 that Mr. Wein wishes to remain married?
13 A. I don't have an objection to what he's
14 saying.
15 Q. And he was the court-appointed attorney
16 for the ward, correct?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. And your petition to annul is based upon
19 statements that Robert Wein made to you?
20 MS. MORRIS: It's a petition for authority
21 to annul. Let's just be clear what we're on.
22 This is not the annulment petition. It's a
23 petition for authority to annul.
24 MR. ROSENWATER: I understand that. But
25 I'm trying to find out why there's even a basis

1 for authority to annul.
2 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
3 Q. What is your basis for filing this
4 petition?
5 A. Conversations with Mr. Wein.
6 Q. And Mr. Wein has said to you, I don't want
7 to be married to Vita Wein?
8 A. Correct.
9 Q. When were those conversations?
10 A. I don't have the exact date.
11 MR. ROSENWATER: Let's enter this as
12 Exhibit --
13 (Off-the-record discussion.)
14 (Vita Wein's Exhibit 20, Report of
15 Court-Appointed Counsel.)
16 MR. ROSENWATER: Let's mark as Composite
17 Exhibit 21 the additional documents that were
18 produced today.
19 (Vita Wein's Exhibit 21, Documents
20 Produced at Deposition.)
21 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
22 Q. Has Robert Wein ever had any recent
23 discussions with you stating that he wanted to
24 remain married?
25 A. He called me on the telephone.

1 correct?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. And on May 20th did he have discussions
4 with you regarding his marriage to Vita?
5 A. It wasn't a discussion, no.
6 Q. Did he say anything to you about his
7 marriage being annulled?
8 A. No.
9 Q. Did he say that he wanted to be married to
10 Vita?
11 A. Possibly.
12 Q. Well, what did he say to you?
13 A. I don't have it written in front of me.
14 Q. So you had a telephone conversation on
15 May 20th with Robert Wein. You didn't visit him on 16 that day. Would it be reflected in your billing
17 records?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. So your billing records would indicate
20 what you talked to Robert Wein on May 20th about,
21 correct?
22 A. Or my notes.
23 Q. So you have notes as well. Where do you
24 take notes?
25 A. On my Rocket program.

1 Q. When?
2 A. The day after our deposition.
3 Q. And what did he say?
4 A. He said -- I don't know exactly.
5 Q. Why did he call you?
6 A. I'm not sure.
7 Q. What did you say to him?
8 A. I just listened to him.
9 Q. You didn't say anything to him?
10 A. I asked him who was there.
11 Q. Who did he say?
12 A. He said Jody and Vita.
13 Q. And what else? That's it? That was your
14 whole conversation?
15 A. No. It wasn't the whole conversation.
16 Q. What else did you speak with Robert on
17 that day. And that would be May 20th, correct,
18 because your deposition was taken on May 19th?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. So it was approximately a little less than 21 three weeks ago?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. So Robert Wein called you on May 20th.
24 And he said he -- he asked you. Strike that.
25 Robert Wein called you on May 20th,

1 Q. Is that connected with your billing
2 program?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. So when you print your invoice, your notes
5 would come up as well?
6 A. No. I have to print my notes.
7 Q. So your notes are separate? You don't
8 have to finalize your billing to print your notes,
9 correct?
10 A. Correct.
11 Q. Did you bring your notes on the
12 guardianship file with you today?
13 A. No.
14 Q. Why not?
15 A. Because I haven't printed them yet.
16 Q. Weren't you asked for that at your last
17 deposition?
18 A. Yes. But I haven't finished it yet.
19 Q. Did you say you were going to produce them
20 at the deposition with the emails and the billing
21 records?
22 A. No. I said I would produce them when they
23 were due.
24 Q. I don't think so.
25 A. Well, I produced all of the emails.

1 Q. You knew your deposition was renoticed for
2 June 10th, and the purpose of renoticing the
3 deposition was to go over the documents that were
4 requested, right?
5 A. Correct.
6 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Argumentative.
7 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
8 Q. I guess we're going to have to continue
9 your deposition again because you haven't provided
10 the records. Is that okay with you?
11 A. No.
12 Q. Are you going to provide the records?
13 A. Yes.
14 MS. MORRIS: They're due on the 14th. You
15 served your notice prior and asked for
16 documents before your request for production
17 due date. We gave you professional courtesy
18 and produced whatever we could produce before
19 that time. We filed an objection to your duces
20 tecum in your depo, which was overbroad, and
21 we'll produce whatever we're not objecting to
22 according to your request for production.
23 MR. ROSENWATER: You had a notice of
24 taking deposition pursuant to the guardian's
25 deposition. You were supposed to provide those

1 and didn't respond?
2 A. Yes. He gave a speech.
3 Q. You said nothing?
4 A. Not until he was done.
5 Q. What did you say when he was done?
6 A. I said, who's there with you.
7 Q. Other than that, what did you say?
8 A. That's it.
9 Q. Did you discuss Larry Wein with him?
10 A. I don't think so.
11 Q. Would your notes reflect that?
12 A. They would.
13 Q. You said he gave a speech. What was the
14 speech that he gave to you?
15 A. Something about, I don't want to change
16 anything.
17 Q. Meaning his estate documents?
18 A. I don't know what he meant.
19 Q. And then after this discussion on
20 May 20th, did you have any other discussions with
21 Robert Wein regarding the annulment of his marriage
22 or his estate documents?
23 A. He called again with Vita from Vita's
24 phone. And I have to look to see exactly what he
25 said.

1 documents unless you had an objection. You
2 didn't object to the billing records. You said
3 you were going to provide the billing records.
4 MS. MORRIS: We objected in total to your
5 notice as overbroad.
6 MR. ROSENWATER: We'll file a motion.
7 MS. MORRIS: Go right ahead. File
8 whatever you want.
9 MR. ROSENWATER: You guys don't provide
10 anything.
11 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
12 Q. So on May 20th you had a discussion with
13 Robert Wein. You don't recall what was discussed
14 in this conversation?
15 A. I do.
16 Q. What was discussed?
17 A. He called and he spoke. We didn't discuss
18 anything.
19 Q. Well, when someone calls, isn't that a
20 discussion? You responded to him, correct?
21 A. No.
22 Q. He just said, hello, Betsy, this is Robert
23 Wein?
24 A. (Nodding head.)
25 Q. And you just sat there shaking your head

1 Q. You don't know what he said?
2 A. Well, he said something about, I want to
3 pay for Vita.
4 Q. And what did you say to him?
5 A. I don't remember.
6 Q. And when was that conversation?
7 A. Sometime after the first conversation.
8 Q. So it was sometime after May 20th?
9 A. Yes. A couple days later.
10 Q. So less than two weeks ago?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. And you don't recall the conversation?
13 A. I don't recall exactly the conversation.
14 Q. Well, can you paraphrase the conversation?
15 A. I just did.
16 Q. What do you recall of the conversation?
17 A. I just paraphrased it.
18 Q. Just that I want to pay for Vita?
19 A. I want to pay for Vita. I want to leave
20 everything as it.
21 Q. Were there any other conversations with
22 Robert after that conversation?
23 A. No.
24 Q. No other telephone conversations?
25 A. No.

1 Q. Did you meet with him?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. When did you meet with him?
4 A. I'll provide you with that date.
5 Q. You don't have that?
6 A. Not on me, no.
7 Q. Approximately?
8 A. Approximately sometime between then and
9 now.
10 Q. When is then?
11 A. The last deposition.
12 Q. Well, it had to be after May 20th,
13 correct?
14 A. Yes. It was after May 20th, correct.
15 Q. And then a few days after that you had a
16 conversation with him, you said, a telephone
17 conversation?
18 A. Right.
19 Q. It was after that conversation, correct?
20 A. I'm not sure.
21 Q. You don't review your notes and records
22 before you come to these depositions?
23 A. It could have been before that. I was
24 busy copying the emails.
25 Q. How many guardianships do you have right

1 You asked what do they involve.
2 MR. ROSENWATER: I said, what other
3 records are you working on, what other cases do
4 you have.
5 MS. MORRIS: She said six.
6 MR. ROSENWATER: Six guardianships. She
7 said she was busy and had other matters and she
8 hasn't --
9 MS. MORRIS: What types of other cases?
10 MR. ROSENWATER: Yeah. What types of
11 other cases.
12 MS. MORRIS: Okay. You can answer that.
13 THE WITNESS: I have guardian advocates.
14 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
15 Q. What is a guardian advocate?
16 A. Oh, boy. A guardian advocate is different
17 from a regular guardianship. It deals with people
18 who are incapacitated from birth.
19 Q. How many cases do you have?
20 A. I don't know exactly.
21 Q. Approximately.
22 A. Three.
23 Q. What other matters are you handling?
24 A. Special needs trusts.
25 Q. How many special needs trusts are you

1 now?
2 A. I don't know exactly.
3 Q. What about approximately?
4 A. I have all different things. I have
5 trusts. I have full plenary guardianships. I have
6 guardian advocates. They're all different. When
7 you say "guardianships," guardianships, I don't
8 have very many.
9 Q. How many, less than five?
10 A. Six.
11 Q. These are six ongoing guardianships?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. You're court appointed for each of them?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. What other matters are you working on?
16 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Irrelevant.
17 Don't answer.
18 MR. ROSENWATER: It's not.
19 MS. MORRIS: I'm instructing her not to
20 answer, Bruce. Move on.
21 MR. ROSENWATER: It's relevant because
22 she's not recalling anything. I want to know
23 how busy she is. She can't provide these
24 records.
25 MS. MORRIS: That's not what you asked.

1 involved in?
2 A. Five.
3 Q. Any other matters you're presently working
4 on?
5 A. Estates.
6 Q. Estate what?
7 A. Personal representative.
8 Q. How many estates?
9 A. Two.
10 Q. Court appointed?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. Any other matters?
13 A. No.
14 Q. On November 28th, 2014, you have an email
15 with Dan Wein regarding the eviction of Larry Wein.
16 Is that it?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. Yes? Correct?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. Why did you get involved in Larry Wein's
21 eviction?
22 A. Bob asked me to.
23 Q. Those are in your notes?
24 A. No.
25 Q. Larry Wein is an adult, right?

1 A. Yes.
2 Q. Again, in this email on Friday,
3 November 28th, Dan Wein says: Bob's marriage to
4 Vita has to be annulled. I prepared a brief
5 delineating the reasons to annul the marriage and
6 reversed, revised and restated trust of
7 August 25th, 2014. I will email the brief to you
8 within a day or so.
9 Did you provide that brief?
10 A. I believe so, yes.
11 Q. So Dan Wein emails you on Wednesday,
12 December 31st, 2014: Have you made progress on the
13 reversal of the trust and annulment of the
14 marriage. Was my brief of any help to you?
15 Is he telling you what to do regarding
16 this guardianship?
17 A. He's sending emails.
18 Q. You're aware that Dan Wein took out a
19 large amount of money from Robert Wein's accounts
20 prior to this guardianship? Are you aware of that?
21 A. No.
22 Q. Bob Wein never told you that?
23 A. No.
24 Q. No one ever told you that?
25 A. No.

1 Q. The annulment and amending the estate
2 documents?
3 A. He has a lot of documentation.
4 Q. What documentation does he have?
5 A. Whatever he's given us.
6 Q. What has he given you? I'm asking you.
7 A. Anything we have that came from Dan,
8 documentation, or Jody. I started the guardianship
9 with nothing, so...
10 Q. So you started the guardianship with
11 nothing and Dan Wein and Jody Rich provided you
12 with documentation?
13 A. Correct.
14 Q. When you went to court the first time
15 regarding this matter, did you meet with Jody Rich?
16 A. I met her, yes.
17 Q. Did she provide a package to you?
18 A. Sometime later she sent a package.
19 Q. What was in the package?
20 A. I don't recall exactly. I have it in my
21 file.
22 Q. Was it the estate documents for Robert
23 Wein?
24 A. Some of them, yes.
25 Q. So at your last deposition you said that

1 Q. Did Jody Rich tell you that?
2 A. No.
3 Q. Jody Rich never said that?
4 A. No.
5 Q. Didn't she give you a note telling you
6 about that?
7 A. What are we referring to?
8 Q. That Dan Wein took a large amount of money
9 from Bob Wein?
10 A. A large amount of money? How much money
11 are we talking about?
12 Q. $100,000.
13 A. No. I didn't hear that.
14 Q. Did you know that Dan Wein tried to take
15 $200,000 after his power of attorney was revoked
16 from Robert Wein's account?
17 A. No.
18 Q. Do you feel it's appropriate to talk to
19 Dan Wein regarding these issues?
20 A. What issues?
21 Q. His annulment and financial issues?
22 A. If I need to.
23 Q. Why do you need to speak to him regarding
24 these issues?
25 A. Which issues?

1 Ellen Wein provided -- Ellen Morris provided those
2 documents to you. Who provided the estate
3 documents for Robert Wein to you, Jody Rich or
4 Ellen Morris?
5 A. Well, there are lots of estate documents,
6 so I don't know which ones you're asking about.
7 Q. At some time Jody Rich provided these
8 documents to you, estate documents?
9 A. Correct. Correct.
10 Q. And you're aware that she had these estate
11 documents?
12 A. I have to look in the file to see which 13 ones she had. I'm sure she had -- I know she had
14 the second trust.
15 Q. Did you ever ask her how she got these
16 estate documents?
17 A. I don't think so, no.
18 Q. Your attorney is alleging that these
19 documents are privileged?
20 A. Correct.
21 Q. You sent an email to Dan Wein on January
22 30, 2015. It says: I hear you, and I'm making an
23 appointment with Bob to take him to see my
24 attorney. I will let you know when. I had a very
25 nice call with Bob. He said nice things about you.

1 Do you recall this email?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. What did Bob say?
4 A. In his conversation with me?
5 Q. Yeah, on January 30th, 2015.
6 A. He said that he loved his brother and he
7 wanted to redact anything negative he's ever -- he
8 has said to anyone about his brother.
9 Q. So you can remember this conversation on
10 January 30th, 2015, which was almost six months
11 ago, but you can't recall your conversation last
12 week with Bob Wein?
13 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Argumentative.
14 Stating facts not in evidence. That's not what
15 she testified to.
16 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
17 Q. You say: I'm making an appointment with
18 Bob to take him to see my attorney. What were you
19 taking Bob to see the attorney for?
20 A. He wanted to annul the marriage and change
21 his trust documents.
22 Q. This was after he was already determined
23 to be incapacitated and show that he had dementia,
24 correct?
25 A. Correct.

1 those testimonies from the two people --
2 MS. MORRIS: They're right here. Hang on.
3 THE WITNESS: -- his two friends and
4 then --
5 MS. MORRIS: Hang on.
6 THE WITNESS: (Inaudible.)
7 THE REPORTER: I can't hear what you're
8 saying.
9 MS. MORRIS: I don't know that this needs
10 to be on the record.
11 MR. ROSENWATER: It does.
12 MS. MORRIS: You want this on the record?
13 MR. ROSENWATER: Yeah.
14 MS. MORRIS: Okay. I'm finding the
15 affidavits that are the additional documents
16 for her and handing them to Bruce.
17 MR. ROSENWATER: Or throwing them.
18 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
19 Q. Who had these affidavits prepared?
20 A. I don't know.
21 Q. Did you instruct Dan Wein to get these
22 affidavits prepared?
23 A. No.
24 Q. So Dan Wein on his own got these
25 affidavits from these individuals?

1 Q. He didn't have the ability to contract?
2 A. Correct.
3 Q. And you're trying to set aside the 2014
4 amendment because he didn't have the capacity to
5 enter into those documents; is that correct?
6 MS. MORRIS: Objection. That is
7 misstating facts in evidence. That's not what
8 the petition says.
9 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
10 Q. There's an email from Dan Wein to you on
11 Monday, February 9, 2015. It says: Attached are
12 some documents I meant to give you this afternoon.
13 They are files, an email from Mitch Kitroser, which
14 of course was not paying Vita's attorney and two
15 separate affidavits which support the annulment of
16 Bob's marriage to Vita.
17 Do you recall that email?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. Did you attach those documents?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Can you show me where they are?
22 MS. MORRIS: Let me look. It will
23 probably be easier.
24 THE WITNESS: I wrote back and sent them
25 yesterday. These additional documents were

1 A. I don't know who got them.
2 Q. Dan Wein provided these documents to you,
3 correct?
4 A. On this day he did, yes, February 9th.
5 Q. And there's also an email from Mitch
6 Kitroser on February 9th. Do you have that email
7 from Mitch Kitroser?
8 MS. MORRIS: This is an email from Mitch
9 Kitroser that's dated October 13th, 2014.
10 Here's another email that's part of an email
11 string where there's an email contained from
12 Mitch Kitroser in it dated somewhere also in 13 October. Those are the only emails that you
14 have.
15 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
16 Q. So the two emails that were handed to me
17 by your attorney from Mitch Kitroser, are those the
18 emails that were attached to this email of
19 February 9th that Dan Wein provided to you?
20 A. I don't know exactly. I can look it up
21 again.
22 Q. Did you speak with Larry Wein regarding
23 his affidavit that he filed?
24 A. No.
25 Q. In paragraph three Larry Wein states: My

10:02:06-10:02:44 Page 171

1 father has been manipulated, coerced and exploited
2 by his caretaker, Delores Bryant, my mother Vita
3 and other third parties such as Jody Rich.
4 You never spoke to him about this?
5 A. No.
6 Q. You didn't think it was important to speak
7 to him about this?
8 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Argumentative.
9 Asked and answered.
10 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
11 Q. Did you think it was important to speak
12 with these individuals regarding the allegations
13 made by Robert Wein's son?
14 A. I've never spoken to Larry Wein.
15 Q. You've never spoken to him?
16 A. No.
17 Q. Does Larry Wein have any type of mental 18 issues?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. Do you know what they are?
21 A. Not exactly.
22 Q. How did you find out about his mental
23 issues?
24 A. From his family members.
25 Q. What did they tell you about Larry Wein?

10:02:58-10:03:55 Page 172

1 A. That he has mental issues.
2 Q. Are you relying on his affidavit in this
3 case?
4 A. That's a legal question. I can't answer.
5 Q. Do you know who had -- strike that.
6 This affidavit of Eugene Kaplan, did you
7 speak with Mr. Kaplan?
8 A. No.
9 Q. This affidavit of, the first name is
10 S-U-R-U-J-E-A-Y-E, last name J-A-I-K-A-R-A-N, have
11 you spoken with this individual?
12 A. No.
13 Q. Do you know who this individual is?
14 A. A friend of Robert's.
15 Q. Do you know who Eugene Kaplan is?
16 A. Another friend of Robert's.
17 Q. Dan Wein provided those affidavits to you,
18 correct?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. He provided the marital settlement
21 agreement to you that was entered into evidence as
22 the last exhibit?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. And has he provided you with any other
25 documents regarding Robert and Vita's marriage?

10:04:09-10:05:07 Page 173

1 A. No. I don't believe so.
2 Q. Did he provide you with the marriage
3 license?
4 A. I don't think he did, no.
5 Q. Where did you obtain that document from?
6 A. From the courthouse, the clerk of court.
7 Q. The marriage license, did you speak to the
8 individual who performed the ceremony?
9 A. No.
10 Q. And I believe you've also attached to your
11 amended petition to appoint an attorney to annul
12 the marriage a marriage license application?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Who provided that application to you?
15 A. The clerk of court.
16 Q. When did you obtain that license?
17 A. I don't have the date.
18 Q. Did you go to the court directly and get
19 it?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Did you discuss that application with
22 Robert?
23 A. No.
24 Q. On the inventory that you prepared on
25 behalf of the ward, you indicated there's numerous

10:05:22-10:05:55 Page 174

1 individuals that have outstanding obligations to
2 the ward, correct?
3 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Irrelevant.
4 You can answer, Betsy.
5 THE WITNESS: Yes. There are people that
6 have monies owed.
7 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
8 Q. I believe Eugene Kaplan was one of the
9 individuals that owes Robert money, correct?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. Have you made any efforts to contact
12 Mr. Kaplan to collect these monies?
13 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Irrelevant.
14 THE WITNESS: Yes.
15 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
16 Q. What did you do?
17 A. Telephone calls.
18 Q. Did you send any demand letters?
19 A. No.
20 Q. Has Mr. Kaplan made any payments?
21 A. No.
22 Q. Do you know how much money he owes Robert
23 Wein?
24 A. No.
25 Q. You provided an email. I guess it was

10:07:56-10:10:15 Page 175

1 from Ellen Morris to Mitchell Kitroser regarding
2 the Wein guardianship dated October 14, 2014. In
3 that email Ellen Morris states to Mitch Kitroser:
4 She maintains that Robert continues to say he wants
5 to live with and take care of Vita.
6 Is the "she" you?
7 A. Can I see it? Yes, that is me.
8 Q. So Robert was telling you in October
9 of 2014 that he wanted to remain married to Vita,
10 correct?
11 A. I think that he wants to continue taking
12 care of her.
13 Q. And he told you that last week or a few
14 weeks ago according to you, correct?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. On February 11th, 2015, you get an email
17 from Dan Wein and it says: Betsy, attached are the
18 cogent, ethical and fiduciary arguments to annul
19 the marriage.
20 Can you provide those to me? I don't see
21 where those are.
22 MS. MORRIS: They're there.
23 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
24 Q. So at your last deposition you said that
25 you met with Bob and yourself and Ellen Morris on

10:10:34-10:11:34 Page 176

1 February 9th, 2015, and Bob wanted his marriage
2 annulled, correct?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. But this letter or email that Dan Wein
5 sent to you states: He was coerced by Vita and
6 Jody into a marriage he would never have partaken
7 in if he were not in a demented state. Bob's
8 statement on February 9, 2015, to Ellen Morris,
9 Esquire, that he wanted to stay married to Vita was
10 in variance to the statements made by Bob to me on 11 numerous occasions that he did not want to stay
12 married.
13 Is that a true and correct statement?
14 A. From Dan?
15 Q. Yes.
16 A. It appears to be.
17 Q. So you were discussing with Dan Wein
18 statements that Bob made to you and Ellen Morris,
19 correct?
20 A. Let me see the email again. What was your
21 question again?
22 Q. I asked if you were discussing statements
23 with Dan Wein that were made between you and Ellen
24 Morris and Robert Wein?
25 A. If I was discussing with Dan Wein

10:11:56-10:12:47 Page 177

1 statements that --
2 Q. Took place in the presence of yourself and
3 Ellen Morris.
4 MS. MORRIS: Betsy, just put that down and
5 answer his question.
6 THE WITNESS: I'm not sure exactly.
7 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
8 Q. How would Dan Wein know that Bob made a
9 statement on February 9, 2015, to Ellen Morris that
10 he wanted to stay married to Vita?
11 A. I may have paraphrased our meeting.
12 Q. So you discussed attorney/client privilege
13 documentations to a person that's not a party to 14 this?
15 A. No. I paraphrased it.
16 Q. You said that Bob made statements that he
17 wanted to stay married to Vita.
18 MS. MORRIS: Objection. That's what Dan
19 said.
20 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
21 Q. You're saying that Dan is incorrect when
22 he's saying this to you?
23 A. Yes. He writes a lot of incorrect things
24 there.
25 Q. How do you know what's true and what's not

10:12:58-10:13:55 Page 178

1 correct when he tells you stuff?
2 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Relevance as to
3 what Dan says that's true or not.
4 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
5 Q. Well, you're using Dan's information to
6 help you with your petition.
7 MS. MORRIS: Objection. That's actually
8 contrary to the testimony that was given.
9 MR. ROSENWATER: Not contrary. You can
10 question her. You have the right to
11 cross-examine her. You don't have the right --
12 file a legal objection. But speaking
13 objections aren't proper. You can't comment on
14 the question. If you have an objection to it,
15 state your objection. You're coaching your
16 witness.
17 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
18 Q. On February 9th, 2015, did Bob make a
19 statement to Ellen Morris that he wanted to stay
20 married to Vita?
21 A. I'm not sure exactly.
22 Q. Was Dan present at the meeting with you
23 and Ellen Morris and Bob?
24 A. No.
25 Q. Was anyone else there besides you, Bob and

10:14:12-10:15:59 Page 179

1 Ellen Morris?
2 A. No.
3 Q. Where would Dan Wein get this information
4 that Bob made a statement on February 9th, 2015, to
5 Ellen Morris that he wanted to stay married to
6 Vita?
7 A. I don't know.
8 Q. So according to Dan Wein on February 9,
9 2015, Bob wanted to stay married to Vita; is that
10 correct?
11 A. That's what Dan said.
12 Q. In October of 2014 Bob states and emails
13 and discusses that he wants -- strike that.
14 On October 14th your records indicate that
15 Robert Wein indicated to you that he wanted to stay
16 married to Vita, correct?
17 A. What's that, in an email?
18 Q. Yes.
19 A. Which one?
20 Q. An email from Ellen Morris to Manny
21 Kushner that we went over. It says: She maintains
22 that Robert continues to say he wants to live with
23 and take care of Vita?
24 A. Wants to live with and continue paying her
25 bills.

10:16:05-10:16:49 Page 180

1 MS. MORRIS: You said that was an email to
2 Manny Kushner. Isn't that an email to Mitch
3 Kitroser that you read prior?
4 MR. ROSENWATER: No. It's an email from
5 you to -- strike that. It was to Mitchell
6 Kushner (sic) and Manny Kushner.
7 MS. MORRIS: Cc'd Manny, I think.
8 MR. ROSENWATER: No. It was to --
9 MS. MORRIS: That's fine. I just wanted
10 to make sure I'm thinking about the same email
11 that you're talking about.
12 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
13 Q. And then on February 9th it appears that
14 Bob Wein told you that he wants to remain married
15 to Vita, correct?
16 A. No.
17 Q. So this is incorrect?
18 A. That's what Dan said.
19 Q. Dan wasn't present at the meeting,
20 correct?
21 A. Dan writes a whole long email. I can't
22 verify what Dan said was true or not.
23 Q. Well, where would he get this information
24 of what Bob's statements were on February 9th
25 regarding his marriage?

10:16:54-10:18:01 Page 181

1 A. I don't know.
2 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Asked and
3 answered.
4 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
5 Q. Dan was present at Ellen Morris's office
6 on that date, correct?
7 A. He drove Bob.
8 Q. Did you speak with Dan after this meeting?
9 A. I'm sure I spoke with him after the
10 meeting at some point.
11 Q. In May again, May of 2015, Bob called you
12 at least on two occasions recently you told us
13 stating that he wants to be married to Vita and
14 take care of her, correct?
15 A. He stated that he wanted to keep things
16 the same, and he wanted to continue paying for
17 Vita.
18 Q. And as the guardian for the ward, don't
19 you have the best interest of the ward?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. And if the ward wants something, isn't
22 that what you're supposed to provide?
23 A. Possibly.
24 Q. So are you going to provide -- are you
25 going to honor Bob's wishes to take care of Vita?

10:18:15-10:19:04 Page 182

1 A. If it's in his best interest.
2 Q. Are you going to dismiss your petition to
3 appoint an attorney to annul the marriage?
4 A. No.
5 Q. But Bob told you -- you're saying it's not
6 in Bob's best interest to remain married to Vita?
7 A. That's a legal question.
8 Q. Well, you're the guardian.
9 A. But it's a legal question.
10 Q. A legal question is it's in the best
11 interest that someone is going to be married to
12 someone?
13 A. It's a legal question that we're asking
14 the judge to decide.
15 Q. But Bob has told you. Your ward has
16 indicated to you on numerous occasions that he
17 wants to remain married to Vita and take care of
18 her.
19 A. He wants to continue paying for her. He
20 doesn't care if he continues paying for her or not.
21 It doesn't make any difference to him.
22 THE REPORTER: He doesn't care if he
23 continues paying for her or not?
24 THE WITNESS: Yeah.
25 BY MR. ROSENWATER:

10:19:12-10:20:13 Page 183

1 Q. You also want to amend his estate
2 documents based upon statements he's made to you,
3 correct?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. Have you ever asked him if he was happy
6 being married to Vita?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. What did he say?
9 A. He doesn't care.
10 Q. Have you ever asked him, do you want to 11 remain married to Vita?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. And what has he said?
14 A. No.
15 Q. And when did he say that?
16 A. When I talked to him in -- I don't know
17 the date. I have to look it up.
18 Q. You've asked him if he wanted to remain
19 married, and he says no. And he calls you and
20 says, I want to remain married to Vita. So he
21 keeps changing his mind, correct?
22 A. You could see it that way.
23 Q. So basically he could change his mind
24 depending on who asks the question and the date or
25 time, correct?

10:20:19-10:21:50 Page 184

1 A. Possibly.
2 Q. At this point he's suffering from
3 dementia, correct?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. And he doesn't have the ability to make
6 decisions regarding his marriage or his trust
7 documents, correct?
8 A. That's a legal question.
9 Q. I think at your last deposition didn't you
10 testify that Bob has sufficient assets to support
11 him and his wife for the remainder of his life?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. So what's the problem with him supporting
14 his wife for the rest of his life?
15 A. I don't know.
16 Q. Has Dan Wein provided you with a final
17 judgment of dissolution of marriage for Bob Wein's
18 and Vita Wein's marriage that took place?
19 A. No.
20 Q. Have you researched that?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Have you found the final judgment of
23 dissolution of marriage?
24 A. No.
25 Q. When you say you researched it, what have

10:22:01-10:22:42 Page 185

1 you done?
2 A. Wrote -- made telephone calls and wrote
3 letters.
4 Q. To who?
5 A. New York.
6 Q. Did you get back any letters from the
7 state of New York?
8 A. I got back one.
9 Q. Was that produced?
10 MS. MORRIS: No. It's not in the
11 production. We'll produce it.
12 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
13 Q. That letter indicated --
14 A. I think I sent it yesterday.
15 MS. MORRIS: I haven't seen it yet.
16 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
17 Q. The letter indicated that they have no
18 records that Robert and Vita Wein were ever
19 divorced?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Yes. They have no records?
22 A. Yes. They have no records.
23 Q. Did you ask Dan Wein when Robert and Vita
24 Wein were allegedly divorced?
25 A. Yes.

10:22:50-10:24:02 Page 186

1 Q. What did he say?
2 A. I can't remember.
3 Q. How does he know? Did you ask him if he
4 had any records or any knowledge of that?
5 A. Ask Robert?
6 Q. Ask Dan Wein.
7 A. Oh, Dan. Dan doesn't know either the
8 exact date.
9 Q. And he has no records, correct?
10 A. No.
11 Q. Who is Stacy Wein?
12 A. Dan's daughter.
13 Q. Why are you --
14 A. Larry's sister.
15 Q. Why are you communicating with Stacy Wein?
16 A. I don't speak to Larry, so I've had some
17 communication with her concerning Larry.
18 Q. And it says she sent you an email on
19 Thursday, April 9th, 2015: Unfortunately Larry was
20 taken to the hospital again yesterday from the
21 shelter. They say if he's disruptive one more
22 time, he will be kicked out of the homeless shelter
23 and really be homeless.
24 What did you do in response to this email?
25 A. I'm not sure.

10:24:24-10:25:52 Page 187

1 Q. And it says: If Vita through Jody did not
2 evict Larry, he would still be paying the mortgage
3 as he has always had and she would be collecting
4 the approximately $3,000 a month.
5 Did you ever ask Vita whether Larry was
6 paying the mortgage?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. What did Vita tell you?
9 A. She said she wouldn't discuss it.
10 Q. Did you ask Jody if Larry was ever paying
11 the mortgage?
12 A. I can't remember.
13 Q. Weren't you aware that Larry wasn't paying 14 the mortgage and the house was going in
15 foreclosure?
16 A. No. I don't know all of the details about
17 that house.
18 Q. You went ahead and took a thousand dollars
19 from the guardianship account and hired -- had
20 Stacy Wein hire an attorney, correct?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Stacy Wein sent you an email on Friday,
23 April 10th, 2015. And you received emails from
24 Jody Rich, correct?
25 A. Yes.

10:26:56-10:28:23 Page 188

1 Q. Do you recall receiving these emails from
2 Jody Rich to you in November of 2014?
3 A. I'll have to look this up.
4 Q. You don't remember it?
5 A. No. I don't remember the first page. I
6 saw this part, the second page. I remember the
7 second page.
8 Q. This is -- you're Betsy, correct?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. This is an email from Jody Rich to you,
11 correct?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. It states: Larry is living in Vita's
14 condo in New Jersey and stopped paying the mortgage
15 payments for several months now. As of today the
16 mortgage is in collections.
17 This was sent in October -- excuse me,
18 November of 2014.
19 MS. MORRIS: I'm going to object to lack
20 of foundation.
21 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
22 Q. You're saying you don't recall this email?
23 A. I recall the second page. I don't recall
24 the first page.
25 Q. On the second page, that's the one: In

10:28:32-10:29:20 Page 189

1 addition, I do not think it's appropriate for Dan
2 Wein to be discussing Bob's finances or any related
3 business?
4 A. Correct.
5 Q. It says: My understanding is that Dan
6 continues to upset Bob, speaking about his son
7 Larry in such drama.
8 Have you had discussions with Bob
9 regarding that at that point in November?
10 A. There's been discussions about Larry all
11 along.
12 Q. What about Dan upsetting Bob?
13 A. No. He never -- no.
14 Q. Does Vita upset Bob?
15 A. Sometimes.
16 Q. And Bob has told you that?
17 A. Yeah.
18 Q. Bob never told you that Dan upsets him?
19 A. He did not say that Dan upsets him, no.
20 Q. Never?
21 A. No. He's never said that.
22 MR. ROSENWATER: Let's have this marked as
23 Exhibit 22, the emails from Jody Rich to Betsy
24 Savitt.
25 MS. MORRIS: Over objection.

2 Rich to Betsy Savitt.)
3 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
4 Q. So Stacy Wein sends you an email on
5 April 10th, 2015: Betsy, I saw this article you
6 mentioned to my father regarding Ellen Morris.
7 What article did you mention to her father
8 regarding Ellen Morris?
9 A. I mentioned the article?
10 Q. Yes. That's what she says.
11 A. I didn't mention the article to her.
12 Q. No?
13 A. No.
14 Q. Do you know what article she's talking
15 about?
16 A. I think she's referring to an article
17 about Ellen Morris that was in the paper.
18 Q. In the Palm Beach Post?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. Are you familiar with that article?
21 A. Somewhat.
22 Q. Did you read the article?
23 A. I don't think so.
24 Q. Why didn't you?
25 A. I didn't read it.

1 Q. It was regarding professional guardians,
2 wasn't it?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. And how they're taking advantage of the
5 ward?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. Wasn't this a case in which Ellen Morris
8 tried to have a marriage annulled as well?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. Stacy Wein said: I believe you need to
11 have new counsel represent you and my uncle
12 annulling the marriage.
13 Did you have discussions with her
14 regarding this?
15 A. No.
16 Q. And Dan Wein is emailing you on April 13,
17 2015. And he's stating that: It's now close to
18 six weeks after Ellen filed the petition February
19 23rd. There was ample time to speak to Bob before
20 now. I'm disturbed, especially after our
21 conversation.
22 What were you supposed to speak to Bob
23 about?
24 A. I'm not sure.
25 Q. Do you know what he was disturbed about?

1 A. Who, Dan?
2 Q. Yes.
3 A. No.
4 Q. He said: I'm disturbed, especially after
5 our conversation.
6 What conversation did you have with Dan
7 Wein it appears sometime in April 2015?
8 A. I don't think he's referring to me.
9 Q. He's sending it to you. The email is to
10 you. He says, Betsy. And then he's saying, I'm
11 disturbed especially after our conversation.
12 So you don't think he's speaking to you?
13 A. I'm not sure he's referring to our
14 conversation.
15 Q. And again he says: I'm more convinced now
16 that Ellen is not interested to pursue this because
17 of the very bad publicity naming her in an
18 annulment controversy in a recent Palm Beach Post
19 article. Is this a delaying tactic on her part?
20 Did you have any discussions with him
21 regarding this article?
22 A. No.
23 Q. And Bob Wein -- excuse me, Dau Wein states
24 in this email: Since that court order of October
25 finding him incapacitated, his dementia has

1 deepened as his physical condition.
2 Do you agree with that?
3 A. Somewhat.
4 Q. What do you mean "somewhat"?
5 A. It's gone up and down.
6 Q. Do you think his dementia has deepened?
7 A. It goes up and down.
8 Q. Does he have a private nurse?
9 A. He has nurses at the Colony.
10 Q. Any other additional private nurses?
11 A. Not a private nurse.
12 Q. Isn't there another nurse that comes three
13 hours a day that's not affiliated with the Colony?
14 A. It's an aide.
15 Q. That's not a nurse?
16 A. No.
17 Q. What does the aide do?
18 A. Takes care of his needs, gets him to eat.
19 Q. Who suggested that this aide be provided
20 for Bob?
21 A. Jody.
22 Q. Don't you think it's in the best interest
23 and welfare of Bob that the aide is there?
24 A. Do I think it's in the best interest that
25 the aide is there?

1 Q. For Bob, yes.
2 A. For Bob, yes.
3 Q. But you never made that decision on your
4 own?
5 A. Yes, I did.
6 Q. And Dan Wein never suggested that an aide
7 be there for Bob, did he?
8 A. No. He didn't not suggest.
9 Q. Shouldn't the aide be there more than
10 three hours a day?
11 A. Right now she's sufficient.
12 Q. And what do you base that on, that she's
13 sufficient? You don't think Robert needs an aide
14 more than three hours a day?
15 A. We're still analyzing that process.
16 Q. It seems like Dan Wein is controlling
17 these petitions; is that correct?
18 A. Just the opposite.
19 Q. It seems like he's telling you what to do.
20 A. Just the opposite.
21 Q. What's the opposite? Who's controlling
22 this, you?
23 A. He's not.
24 Q. But you're listening to him, aren't you?
25 A. He sends emails.

1 Q. Do you respond to his emails?
2 A. Sometimes.
3 Q. You walked into the deposition yesterday
4 with him and Stacy Wein. Did you have discussions
5 with him prior to Jordan's deposition?
6 A. I picked up some paperwork.
7 Q. What did you pick up?
8 A. What did I pick up? I picked up the
9 Florida Bar Journal paperwork.
10 Q. That was from Dan Wein?
11 A. Yeah. It's about the Carpenter Factors.
12 Q. Dan Wein provided that to you or Stacy?
13 A. Dan.
14 Q. But you're communicating with Stacy as
15 well, correct?
16 A. Not really.
17 Q. As of April 11th you were having emails
18 with her, correct?
19 A. She emails me, yes.
20 Q. You email her as well, correct?
21 A. Occasionally.
22 Q. You say: Stacy, I will need to speak to
23 Bob again, as I want to make clear what his
24 intentions are. What does he want to do with Vita?
25 This is April 11th, 2015, correct?

1 A. I know but you're reading it there, so...
2 Q. Is that what Bob wants, those are the
3 changes to his will to add back or to his trust to
4 add back -- to add Dan Wein back into the trust for
5 $150,000?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. How does that benefit Boh, Robert Wein?
8 How does that benefit the ward?
9 A. Those are his wishes.
10 Q. But you're not aware, I think you said
11 earlier, that Dan Wein has already taken money in
12 excess of that from Robert Wein?
13 A. I don't have any records of that.
14 Q. Are you aware that Robert Wein told his
15 attorney in the presence of two other individuals
16 that he wanted to take Dan Wein out of the trust
17 because he stole money from him?
18 A. No.
19 Q. No one has ever told you that?
20 A. No.
21 Q. Dan Wein sent an email on April 14, 2015,
22 and it says: You mentioned to me that Ellen filed
23 a petition to scare Vita and Jody to drop Larry's
24 eviction proceedings.
25 Is that true?

1 A. Let me see. Yes.
2 Q. So did you have discussions with Bob after
3 April 11th, 2015?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. With what he wants to do with Vita?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. When were those discussions?
8 A. I don't have the exact date.
9 Q. How many discussions did you have with 10 him?
11 A. I don't know.
12 Q. It would be on your billing records in
13 your Rocket notes?
14 A. Probably.
15 Q. You're going to be providing those,
16 correct?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. And then it says, Stacy -- you say to
19 Stacy: Also you may not know we have already filed
20 to amend the trust, as Bob asked to add your father
21 back into the trust for $150,000 and it was stated
22 that he did have testamentary capacity.
23 Is that what Bob wants?
24 A. I can't really comment on that.
25 Q. Well, you did already.

1 A. Can I see that one? Who is it to?
2 Q. Dan Wein.
3 A. Yes. That's what he says.
4 THE REPORTER: You just said Dan Wein sent
5 an email, and then she just said who is it to,
6 and you said Dan Wein.
7 MR. ROSENWATER: I meant Betsy Savitt.
8 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
9 Q. It says: You mentioned to me that Ellen
10 filed these petitions.
11 So you're saying you never said that to
12 Dan Wein?
13 A. It's out of context.
14 Q. You sent Dan Wein and copied Ellen Morris
15 on an email of April 14, 2015: I'm writing to both
16 of you so we can all be on the same page.
17 Notwithstanding the views of the three of us on
18 this annulment and revocation of the trust matters,
19 remember that our views are not evidence and can't
20 be used at trial.
21 Who is the three of us, Dan Wein, Ellen
22 Morris and Elizabeth Savitt?
23 A. Correct.
24 Q. So you guys are working together on these
25 matters?

1 A. No.
2 Q. Of course both of you can be fact
3 witnesses.
4 Who is "both of you," Stacy Wein, Stacy
5 Wein and Dan Wein?
6 A. (Nodding head.)
7 Q. You shook your head. Is that yes or no?
8 A. Pardon me?
9 Q. I agree we must proceed with diligence to
10 make a determination that the case can be won and
11 it's the best interest of Bob.
12 Have you made that determination?
13 A. Well, it's a legal question.
14 Q. And on these emails they have quoted text
15 hidden. Do you know what that means?
16 A. No.
17 Q. You're not deleting things from the
18 emails?
19 A. No. That would be like my name and
20 whatever on the bottom of the email or Dan's, the
21 disclaimer or something like that.
22 Q. On April 24, 2015, Stacy Wein sent you a
23 detailed email regarding the trust document that
24 was prepared by the Chaves firm and also trust
25 assets. Do you recall this email?

1 Wein to Jody Wein (sic) POA for Vita Wein. Did you
2 investigate any of these?
3 A. I'm aware of the first one.
4 Q. When was the check for $12,500 given to
5 Vita?
6 A. September. I want to say September,
7 August or September.
8 Q. Do you know what the check was for? Do
9 you know what the check was for?
10 A. (Shaking head.)
11 Q. You have to answer yes or no.
12 A. No, I don't. You were looking at her, so
13 I thought you were asking her.
14 Q. Did you ever ask Bob about this check?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. And what did he say?
17 A. He said Vita asked me for it.
18 Q. He didn't say anything more?
19 A. No.
20 Q. Do you know whether it was to pay for
21 Delores Bryant?
22 A. No. It was not to pay for Delores Bryant.
23 Q. How do you know that?
24 A. As far as I know.
25 Q. You don't know for sure, correct?

1 A. I was copied on an email to Ellen.
2 Q. You're right, excuse me. Why is Stacy
3 Wein communicating directly with Ellen Morris
4 regarding this matter?
5 A. I have no idea.
6 Q. Have you instructed her not to, Stacy not
7 to contact Ellen Morris?
8 A. I have.
9 Q. You have?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. There's a document or a piece of paper
12 that says, funds to Vita Wein. It has 4/2015 under
13 that. Who prepared that?
14 A. This would be from Dan.
15 Q. What was the purpose of this?
16 A. I don't know. Informative.
17 Q. So he's saying that from Bob's account
18 there was a $12,500 that was written to Vita?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. And he was concerned that these monies
21 were given to Bob by Vita -- given to Vita from
22 Bob?
23 A. I think they're all different entries
24 there.
25 Q. There's also a check for 5,355 from Larry

1 A. Well to pay for Delores Bryant for who?
2 Q. She was taking care of Bob, wasn't she?
3 A. Yes. And I paid her for taking care of
4 Bob.
5 Q. This is prior to you being appointed the
6 guardian?
7 A. Correct.
8 Q. And Delores was helping Vita as well,
9 correct, taking care of Vita as well?
10 A. When I met them, yes.
11 Q. And there's numerous checks that Dan Wein
12 wrote to himself and Dorothy Wein, his former wife,
13 and Stacy Wein, his daughter, from Robert's account
14 when he was power of attorney?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. Have you made any efforts to get those
17 monies back?
18 A. Not yet.
19 Q. This is the same individual that allegedly
20 wants -- that you're having numerous conversations
21 with regarding getting the $150,000 back to him in
22 the trust documents, correct?
23 A. No.
24 Q. No?
25 A. No.

10:48:05-10:49:30 Page 203

1 Q. Isn't that -- I think you testified
2 earlier isn't that why Bob wants to amend the
3 trust?
4 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Outside the scope
5 of this witness's knowledge.
6 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
7 Q. Does Dan Wein have a healthcare surrogate
8 for Robert Wein?
9 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Irrelevant.
10 You can answer, Betsy.
11 THE WITNESS: No.
12 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
13 Q. Did you see the motion of Daniel Wein to
14 intervene that he filed yesterday?
15 A. No.
16 Q. Do you want to see it?
17 MS. MORRIS: I didn't see it either.
18 THE WITNESS: Okay.
19 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
20 Q. So Dan Wein says: With the concurrence of
21 the guardian he's been seeing for the medical care
22 for the ward such as selecting his physicians,
23 making doctor's appointments, driving him to
24 doctors' appointments, discussing treatment with
25 his physicians...

10:49:36-10:50:21 Page 204

1 Is that correct?
2 A. He helps with that.
3 Q. He helps with all of those?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. But Dan Wein doesn't have any healthcare
6 surrogate, correct?
7 A. Not anymore, no.
8 Q. He doesn't have the right to discuss these
9 privileged matters with his doctors, does he?
10 A. Yes. He's a family member. He has the
11 right to do that.
12 Q. Only if he had a healthcare surrogate?
13 A. No. Because I'm -- he's helping me do
14 that.
15 Q. Did you give a letter to the doctor saying
16 they can speak to Dan Wein regarding his medical
17 treatment?
18 A. No. I told him.
19 Q. You called the doctors up and said they
20 can speak to Dan Wein?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Isn't that your job as the guardian, to
23 make decisions regarding his medical care?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. Isn't the medical condition of the ward

10:50:40-10:53:11 Page 205

1 privileged?
2 A. Privileged to an outsider, yes.
3 Q. And also privileged to any family members.
4 He's not a -- he doesn't have any type of
5 healthcare surrogate, does he?
6 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Asked and
7 answered.
8 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
9 Q. Is there any legal document that Robert
10 Wein provided to Dan Wein authorizing him to
11 discuss his medical treatment or make medical
12 decisions on his behalf?
13 A. No. It's in the guardianship.
14 Q. Which was appointed to you?
15 A. Correct.
16 Q. And you're the one that's supposed to be
17 making these decisions and not delegate them,
18 correct?
19 MS. MORRIS: Objection.
20 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
21 Q. You can answer the question.
22 A. I can't answer that.
23 Q. You can't?
24 A. No.
25 While you're looking for that, may I go to

10:57:04-10:58:25 Page 206

1 the rest room?
2 MR. ROSENWATER: Yes.
3 (A brief recess was taken.)
4 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
5 Q. At the last deposition we entered -- there
6 was an Exhibit Number 8. It was an order
7 determining limited incapacity for Robert Wein.
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. Basically it stated that the ward lacks
10 capacity to consent to medical and mental health
11 treatment, correct?
12 A. Correct.
13 Q. And there was also an order entered
14 appointing you as the guardian, correct?
15 A. Uh-huh, yes.
16 Q. And that order is appointing you as the
17 guardian. You're the one that's now supposed to
18 make the medical decisions on behalf of Robert?
19 A. Correct.
20 Q. You delegated that duty to Dan Wein?
21 A. No.
22 Q. Maybe this will -- we showed you some
23 emails from Jody Rich to you dated November 30th,
24 2014, stating regarding Larry and Larry's eviction.
25 Here's a cleaner copy. Do you recall seeing this

1 email from Jody or receiving this email?
2 A. This is my email to Jody?
3 Q. Correct.
4 A. This is the first I've heard -- this one?
5 Q. Yes?
6 A. The first I've heard anything about Vita's
7 condo?
8 Q. Yes.
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. You did send an email to Jody on
11 November 30th?
12 A. Yes.
13 MR. ROSENWATER: Let's mark that.
14 (Vita Wein's Exhibit 23, Email From Betsy
15 Savitt to Jody Rich.)
16 THE WITNESS: What is the date of that
17 email?
18 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
19 Q. Your email to Jody, correct,
20 November 30th, 2014?
21 A. When is the rest of the email from Jody to
22 me?
23 Q. The same date, correct?
24 MS. RICH: Yes. That's why I didn't print
25 it for you. It wasn't clear.

1 A. Yes.
2 Q. What was the largest amount of money that
3 you've handled?
4 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Irrelevant.
5 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
6 Q. You're seeking -- you filed a petition for
7 an order appointing guardian as a lifetime trustee
8 of the ward's trust, correct?
9 A. Correct.
10 Q. As the trustee of the ward's trust, it's 11 your intent to control the finances, the assets in
12 the trust?
13 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Irrelevant.
14 THE WITNESS: It's merely a clarification
15 of the guardianship orders.
16 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
17 Q. You say, currently it has assets titled in
18 the name of the trust as Morgan Stanley, TIG
19 Arbitrage Associates and Joseph Gunner, LLC. Do
20 you intend to take the moneys out of these
21 accounts?
22 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Irrelevant.
23 You can answer.
24 THE WITNESS: No.
25 BY MR. ROSENWATER:

1 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
2 Q. Have you ever filed any complaints with
3 the Adult Protective Services regarding any
4 individuals involved with Robert Wein?
5 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Confidential.
6 I'm instructing you not to answer.
7 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
8 Q. Did you go to college?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. What college did you go to?
11 A. University of Miami.
12 Q. Did you graduate?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. What was your degree?
15 A. Bachelor of education.
16 Q. Do you have any master's or any education
17 after your bachelor's of education?
18 A. I went for an MBA, but I didn't finish it.
19 Q. Do you have any -- have you taken --
20 strike that.
21 Do you have any degrees in finance?
22 A. No.
23 Q. Have you managed large trusts in the past?
24 A. Trusts?
25 Q. Yes.

1 Q. Wouldn't it be better to have a
2 professional trustee such as someone from these
3 entities as a trustee versus you?
4 A. No.
5 Q. No? Why not? Isn't it a conflict of your
6 interest as the guardian to be the trustee?
7 A. As I said, that's merely a clarification
8 of what the judge already ordered in the
9 guardianship papers.
10 MR. ROSENWATER: You have to leave?
11 MS. MORRIS: Yeah, I do. I've got to get
12 to the doctor. You said you only had a half
13 hour after the last deposition.
14 MR. ROSENWATER: Well, there was a couple
15 of things that were filed since then. And I
16 didn't realize what was in the documents.
17 MS. MORRIS: I understand the document
18 thing. What was filed since then is not really
19 relevant to what we're here for in the action.
20 I understand that the documents were produced
21 and you needed more time, but I've got to go.
22 THE REPORTER: Are we adjourning,
23 continuing?
24 MR. ROSENWATER: Adjourning.
25 MS. MORRIS: We're ending as far as I'm

11:04:31

Page 211

1 concerned.
2 MR. ROSENWATER: As far as me, we're
3 adjourning. We'll make a determination. There
4 are certain documents that weren't provided,
5 so...

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA

IN RE: GUARDIANSHIP OF

PROBATE DIVISION "IB"

ROBERT PAUL WEIN
_____ /

CASE NO. 502014GA000472XXXXMB

PETITION FOR ORDER AUTHORIZING AND RATIFYING PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION AND EXPENSES OF GUARDIAN
(September 16, 2014 through July 3, 2015)

Petitioner, Elizabeth Savitt, alleges:

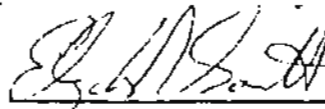

1. Petitioner is the duly appointed and acting limited guardian of the person and property of Robert Paul Wein (the Ward).
2. The total amounts of all prior fees paid or costs awarded to petitioner in this proceeding are:

Fees: $0.00
Costs: $0.00
3. Petitioner has rendered services and incurred expenses as guardian of the person and property of the Ward from September 16, 2014 through July 3, 2015, as more fully described and set forth in the itemized schedule of services and expenses attached hereto as Exhibit "A," for which petitioner has been partially paid.
4. Petitioner's records indicate that during the period of time above mentioned, Petitioner has performed services as guardian of the person and property of the Ward in the total amount of 196.95 (.60 hours at No Charge) as reflected in the attached time sheets. Further, Petitioner incurred expenses in the amount of $237.60.
5. Petitioner is a professional guardian, and based upon the criteria established by § 744.108(2), Florida Statutes, Petitioner believes that a reasonable hourly rate of compensation for the services performed is $85.00 per hour. Therefore, a reasonable compensation for the services performed and expenses incurred by Petitioner during that period of time is $17,085.35. Petitioner has already received a retainer from the assets of the Ward in the amount of $8,000.00.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner requests that an order be entered awarding petitioner reasonable compensation for the services rendered and expenses incurred for the benefit of the Ward in the total amount of $17,085.35, ratifying the retainer paid from the assets of the Ward in the amount of $8,000.00 and authorizing and directing that compensation and expenses be paid to the guardian from the assets of the Ward in the total amount of $9,085.35.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Signed on July 7, 2015.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT,
IN AND FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA

Case No. 502014GA000472 | Probate Division IB

IN RE: THE GUARDIANSHIP OF

ROBERT PAUL WEIN,

The Ward.

MOTION FOR SANCTIONS AND REMOVAL OF GUARDIAN

Comes now, Vita Wein, by and through the undersigned counsel and as an interested person in these proceedings under Fla. Prob. R. 5.060, hereby moves this Court pursuant to Fla. Prob. R. 5.660 and Sections 744.474 and 744.108, Florida Statutes, to sanction the Petitioner, Elizabeth Savitt (Petitioner), together with her attorney in this action, and to remove the Petitioner as guardian for the Ward, and states as grounds:

1. Fla. Prob. R. 5.660 authorizes an interested person in a guardianship proceeding to petition the Court for removal of a guardian.

2. Section 744.474, Florida Statutes (2014), sets forth the reasons for removal of a guardian. It is essential to the proper conduct and management of a guardianship that the guardian be independent and impartial. The fiduciary relationship that exists between the guardian and the ward may not be used for the private gain of the guardian, other than the payment of fees and expenses reimbursable to the guardian as provided by law. Section 744.474 permits the removal of a guardian for failing to discharge duties, abusing guardianship powers, and developing of a conflict of interest between the ward and the guardian, among other reasons.

3. Certainly the Petitioner, as guardian of the Ward, has a fiduciary duty to the Ward to not take any action that results in private gain of the Petitioner or any of her agents, including her attorney. See Reed v. Long, 111 So. 3d 237 (Fla. 4th DCA 2013).

4. On June 10, 2015, the Petitioner testified in her deposition that she has paid herself $8,000.00 in guardianship fees and her attorney $8,861.65 in attorney's fees, from the Ward's guardianship account, all without prior court approval. At the time of her testimony, the Petitioner was unable to produce any billing records to substantiate the disbursements made from the guardianship account which contains substantial assets belonging to the Ward.

5. Section 744.108(1), Florida Statutes (2014), entitles guardians and attorneys to a reasonable fee for services rendered and reimbursement for costs incurred on behalf of the ward; however, the entitlement to fees and costs is not without limitation. Pursuant to Section 744.108(2), the Court is required to consider a number of factors before awarding fees and costs to a guardian or attorney for the ward. In addition, the guardian or attorney is required to provide an itemized description of the services performed for the fees sought to be recovered. Section 744.108(5), Florida Statutes (2014).

6. Here, the Petitioner and her attorney took disbursements from the Ward's guardianship account without first petitioning the Court to make a determination of the reasonableness of the disbursements in light of the factors to be considered pursuant to Section 744.108(2). Furthermore, the Petitioner has failed to itemize the services performed for the fees already disbursed. When the Petitioner was first deposed in this action and later noticed for a subsequent deposition, a formal request was made for the production of the Petitioner's itemized billing statements. Still, the itemized statements were not produced and have yet to be produced to the Court or Vita Wein. So far, the Petitioner and her attorney have collected fees from the guardianship account without petitioning the Court for the same and prior to itemizing the services for which the fees were disbursed. This conduct breaches the fiduciary duty owed to the Ward and is in direct violation of Florida Statutes.

7. It is also believed that Petitioner has created a conflict of interest with the Ward requiring removal. The Petitioner has had several written and verbal communications with Daniel Wein, the brother of the Ward, and other members of Daniel Wein's family, for the purpose of amending the Ward's trust to include a provision paying $150,000.00 from the trust's assets to Daniel Wein. It appears from deposition testimony of the Petitioner that Daniel Wein is surreptitiously directing the Petitioner's conduct in this action for his own financial gain.

8. Acting according to Daniel Wein's demands, the Petitioner has failed to exercise any independent judgment in this action and as a result has navigated these proceedings without considering the best interest of the Ward or his assets.

9. The deposition of Jordan L. Klingsberg, Esq., who was a former attorney of the Ward for purposes of estate planning, revealed that the Ward wished to foreclose Daniel Wein from the Ward's trust because Daniel Wein was stealing from the Ward's assets. Nevertheless, the Petitioner is seeking to amend the Ward's trust for the sole benefit of Daniel Wein.

10. Vita Wein fails to comprehend how such an amendment would be beneficial to the Ward when it is so undeniably against the Ward's previously expressed desires to exclude Daniel Wein from the Ward's trust.

11. Finally, the Petitioner is attempting to annul the longstanding marriage between the Ward and Vita Wein, despite the Ward's requests to the contrary. During her deposition on June 10, 2015, the Petitioner testified that the Ward wanted to keep things the same and continue supporting his wife, Vita Wein. Nevertheless, the Petitioner continues to pursue a petition filed for the purpose of ultimately annulling the Ward's marriage. During the entirety of this action, the Petitioner has systematically disregarded the desires and best interests of the Ward.

12. The course of action undertaken by the Petitioner and her attorney is unconscionable, at best, and sanctionable in all regards.

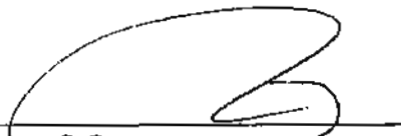

13. For the foregoing reasons, the Petitioner and her attorney should be sanctioned and the Petitioner should be removed as guardian for the Ward. In addition, the Petitioner and her attorney should be ordered to pay the reasonable attorney's fees and costs of Vita Wein, who pursues the relief sought herein for the benefit of the Ward and his assets.

WHEREFORE, Vita Wein respectfully requests this Court to enter an order removing the Petitioner as guardian of the Ward, sanctioning the Petitioner and her attorney for receiving disbursements from the guardianship account without Court approval, awarding attorney's fees and costs to Vita Wein, and entering such further relief as the Court deems just under the circumstances.

IN AND FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA

Case No. 502014GA000472 | Probate Division IB

IN RE: THE GUARDIANSHIP OF
ROBERT PAUL WEIN,

The Ward.

_____ /

VITA WEIN'S PETITION FOR SURCHARGE

Comes now, Vita Wein, by and through the undersigned counsel and as an interested person to the Guardianship of Robert Paul Wein (Ward), and pursuant to Section 744.446, Florida Statutes (2014), hereby files this Petition for Surcharge against the Petitioner, Elizabeth Savitt (Guardian), and states:

1. By order of this Court on October 15, 2014, the Guardian was appointed as limited guardian of the person and property of the Ward. Along with this appointment came important responsibilities and duties to be discharged by the Guardian, expressly codified and governed by the Florida Statutes.

2. Section 744.446(1), Florida Statutes (2014) requires the Guardian to be independent and impartial, to not use the fiduciary relationship with the Ward for private gain, and to avoid conflicts of interest in the discharge of the Guardian's duties.

3. If the Guardian engages in any activity prohibited by Section 744.446, said activity is voidable during the term of the guardianship and the Guardian is subject to removal and personal liability through a proceeding for surcharge.¹ Section 744.446(3), Florida Statutes (2014).

¹ A "surcharge" is an adversarial proceeding in guardianship court which allows property to be recovered from a guardian who had breached the fiduciary duty owed to the ward. Reed v. Long, 111 So. 3d 237, 238 (Fla. 4th DCA 2013). The purpose of a surcharge award is to make the ward's estate whole when the guardian's actions cause loss or damage. Id. (internal citations omitted).

4. This Court has an obligation to ensure that the Ward is adequately protected from breach of the Guardian's fiduciary duties. Section 744.446(4), Florida Statutes (2014).

5. The purpose of this Petition for Surcharge is to obtain funds that were unlawfully diverted from the Ward's guardianship account and to prevent further misconduct by the Guardian which would cause undue loss to the Ward's assets currently being held in trust. This Petition for Surcharge is guided by the existence of a fiduciary duty of the Guardian, and the breach of that duty which has proximately caused damages to the Ward. Reed, 111 So. 3d at 239.

6. The unlawful diversion of the Ward's funds, and potential further loss of the Ward's assets held in trust, proximately results from the Guardian's failure to exercise her independence and impartiality during the discharge of her duties as guardian of the Ward, the Guardian's private gain from the Ward's assets, and the Guardian's creation of a conflict with the best interests of the Ward.

7. Several of the Guardian's actions in this case have been pursued at the instruction of Daniel Wein, the brother of the Ward who is believed to have previously misappropriated the Ward's assets. Produced at the Guardian's deposition on June 10, 2015, were several e-mails to the Guardian that exposed Daniel Wein's demands to (1) annul the Ward's longstanding marriage to Vita Wein, and (2) add a provision to the Ward's trust for the payment of $150,000.00 to Daniel Wein from the Ward's assets. These demands directly contravene the intentions of the Ward to remain married to Vita Wein and to preclude Daniel Wein from receiving any assets from the Ward's trust due to Daniel Wein's prior misappropriations.

8. Nevertheless, the Guardian has filed petitions in this guardianship seeking to annul the marriage of the Ward and Vita Wein, and to have the Ward's trust amended for the benefit of Daniel Wein. In doing so, the Guardian's dependence on, and partiality to, Daniel Wein is apparent and has created a conflict of interest in her fiduciary relationship with the Ward. Disregarding her duties to the Ward, the Guardian is proceeding at the behest of Daniel Wein and other family members of the Ward who continue to be guided by greed in their pursuit of the Ward's assets.

9. Even worse, perhaps, is the fact that the Guardian has used her fiduciary relationship with the Ward for her own financial gain, as well as that of her attorney. During her deposition, the Guardian testified that she diverted over $16,000.00 from the Ward's guardianship account for the payment of undocumented guardianship fees and attorney's fees. At the time of her testimony, the Guardian was unable to produce any billing records to substantiate the disbursements made from the Ward's guardianship account. In the absence of corroborating records, the Guardian and her attorney have been excessively compensated from the Ward's assets. As a fiduciary to the Ward, the Guardian is subject to surcharge for the improper and excessive payment of fees from the Ward's assets. See Kozinski v. Stabenow, 152 So. 3d 650, 653 (Fla. 4th DCA 2014) (a surcharge proceeding can be pursued when a fiduciary pays excessive fees to himself, herself, or agents of the fiduciary).

10. Based on the foregoing, it is clear that the Guardian has breached her duties as fiduciary to the Ward, and that such breach has proximately caused the Ward to suffer damages. The Ward will continue to suffer these damages so long as the Guardian remains appointed in this action. Therefore, the Guardian shall be held personally liable for all economic damages caused to the Ward, and shall be removed as Guardian in this action.

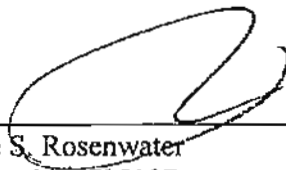

11. Vita Wein has retained the law firm of Bruce S. Rosenwater & Associates, P.A., in connection with this action and has agreed to pay a reasonable fee for the firm's services.

WHEREFORE, Vita Wein respectfully requests this Court to enter an order: imposing a surcharge against the Guardian, Elizabeth Savitt; removing the Guardian, Elizabeth Savitt, from this action; awarding attorney's fees and costs to Vita Wein; and granting all further relief that the Court finds just under the circumstances.

IN RE: THE GUARDIANSHIP OF

ROBERT PAUL WEIN,

The Ward.

AMENDED RESPONSE AND OBJECTION TO PETITIONER'S AMENDED SECOND REQUEST FOR ADMISSIONS TO VITA WEIN

Vita Wein, by and through her undersigned counsel and pursuant to Florida Probate Rule 5.080, hereby files amended responses and objections to the Amended Second Request for Admissions to Vita Wein that was filed by the Petitioner, Elizabeth Savitt (Petitioner), as follows:

1. On June 12, 2015, Petitioner served an Amended Second Request for Admissions to Vita Wein, requesting certain admissions as to Medicaid applications said to have been filed by Vita Wein in the State of New York and/or State of New Jersey.

2. Vita Wein objects to Petitioner's discovery efforts insofar as they unconstitutionally seek private financial and medical information of Vita Wein where there exists no relevant or compelling reason for disclosure. See Borck v. Borck, 906 So. 2d 1209 (Fla. 4th DCA 2005); Barker v. Barker, 909 So. 2d 333 (Fla. 2d DCA 2005). Without waiving said objections, Vita Wein states that the documents underlying the information requested are not in Vita Wein's possession, custody, or control.

3. Furthermore, Vita Wein contends that by engaging in objectionable discovery practices, Petitioner is unnecessarily depleting the assets of the Ward, Robert Paul Wein. Florida Probate Rule 5.080(b) gives this Court substantial discretion to limit the scope, place, and manner of discovery in order to conserve the Ward's assets.

WHEREFORE, Vita Wein respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter an order sustaining the objections herein, and awarding any and all further relief that the Court deems just and proper under the circumstances, including but not limited to an award of attorney's fees and costs related to defending Petitioner's objectionable discovery practices.

IN RE: THE GUARDIANSHIP OF

ROBERT PAUL WEIN,

The Ward.

VITA WEIN'S OBJECTION TO THE GUARDIAN'S EX PARTE COMMUNICATION AND NOTICE OF FILING WITH THE COURT

Comes now, Vita Wein, by and through the undersigned counsel and hereby objects to the July 28, 2015, ex parte communication and notice of filing by the Guardian, Elizabeth Savitt (Guardian), and her counsel, and states the following:

1. On July 28, 2015, the Guardian delivered to the Court an ex parte correspondence along with a notice of filing the Ward's income tax returns for 2011 through 2013. The tax returns provided to the Court are incomplete documents predicated on hearsay, and should not be considered by the Court.

2. The tax returns are specious and inflammatory and do not accurately reflect the Ward's position regarding his marital status. The Guardian highlighted sections on the tax returns that ostensibly indicate that the Ward filed under single status. The Court should entertain neither the Guardian's correspondence nor the provided tax returns, as the tax returns were completed and filed by the Ward's brother, Daniel Wein, in 2011 and 2012, and by the Guardian in 2013. Therefore, the tax returns do not prove or disprove the Ward's status as a married man and fail to support the Guardian's suggestion that the Ward does not hold himself out to be married to Vita Wein.

3. Vita Wein objects to the ex parte communication, and any consideration thereof, insofar as it violates the Florida Supreme Court's Code of Judicial Conduct. See Code of Judicial Conduct, Canon 3 (excluding all ex parte communications with all judges in all judicial proceedings except when expressly authorized by law).

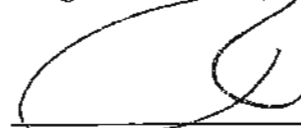

4. Vita Wein continues to incur attorney's fees and costs as a result of the unauthorized conduct of the Guardian in this action. As such, Vita Wein requests that she be compensated by the Guardian for the reasonable attorney's fees and costs that have been unnecessarily incurred.

WHEREFORE, Vita Wein respectfully requests that this Court enter an Order sustaining the objections made herein, awarding attorney's fees and costs to Vita Wein, and granting such further relief as the Court deems just and proper under the circumstances.

ROBERT PAUL WEIN,

The Ward.

AFFIDAVIT OF JEROME L. RICH

STATE OF:

COUNTY OF:

I, Jerome L. Rich, being sworn, certify that the following statements are true and based upon my own personal knowledge:

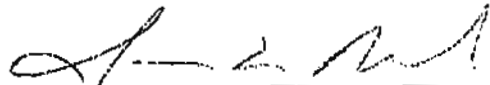

1. I am the nephew-in-law of the Ward, Robert Paul Wein and his wife, Vita Wein.
2. On or about August 25, 2014, Robert Wein executed certain estate planning documents, to wit: Last Will of Robert Wein; Amended and Restated Robert Wein Living Trust; Revocation of Durable Power of Attorney of Robert Wein; Escrow Letter for Durable Power of Attorney for Robert Wein; Designation of Healthcare Surrogate for Robert Wein; and Living Will for Robert Wein.
3. Approximately one week after Robert Wein executed the estate planning documents, and the day after I returned from a trip to Aspen, Colorado, I visited with, and delivered deli food to, Robert Wein and his wife, Vita Wein. At that time, Robert Wein handed me each of the above estate planning documents, and at the request of Robert Wein, I read and discussed the estate planning documents with Robert Wein and his wife, Vita Wein.
4. At that time, Robert Wein advised me that his attorney at the time, Jordan L. Klingsberg, Esq., had a copy of the estate planning documents and Robert Wein further instructed me to keep the documents in my personal safe. Robert Wein also gave me his previous estate planning documents and other personal papers.

5. Consistent with the confidence he has always had in me, Robert Wein trusted me with the safekeeping of his estate planning documents.

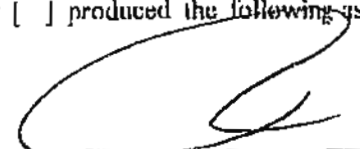

I understand that I am swearing or affirming under oath to the truthfulness of the claims made in this affidavit and that the punishment for knowingly making a false statement includes fines and/or imprisonment.

OBJECTIONS TO NOTICE OF PRODUCTION FROM NON-PARTY

COMES NOW ELIZABETH SAVITT, as Limited Guardian of the Person and Property of ROBERT PAUL WEIN (hereafter "Ward"), by and through her undersigned counsel, and hereby objects to the Notice of from Non-Party (the "Notice") filed by Vita Wein, as follows:

1. On August 6, 2015, Vita Wein filed and served the Notice in the above-reference case including a proposed Subpoena Duces Tecum in which she is seeking to obtain copies of the Ward's account information held at Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. going back for the last two (2) years.
2. The pending Petitions at issue in this case are for authority to pursue an annulment on behalf of the Ward and to amend the Ward's Trust and do not involve any financial transactions of the Ward.
3. Further, the Notice requests document going back two (2) years. The guardian was not appointed until October 15, 2014, and therefore, the request of any financial records beyond that point is outside the scope of the guardianship and the issues pending before the Court.
4. Lastly, the documents are the Ward's confidential financial documents and Article I, Section 23, of the Florida Constitution protects discovery of financial information of persons if there is no relevant or compelling reason to compel disclosure. See Borck v. Borck, 906 So. 2d 1209 (Fla. 4th DCA 2005).
5. Respondent asserts that there is no relevant or compelling reason to compel disclosure of the Ward's confidential financial records and that it would be reversible error for this Court to order production of the requested financial documents without an evidentiary inquiry as to the relevant or compelling reason.

WHEREFORE, Respondent hereby objects to the issuance of the Subpoena Duces Tecum directed to Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., and should Petitioner bring a motion before the Court for permission to serve such subpoenas, requests that a hearing be held on said motion and that the Court consider these objections and any further argument and award the guardianship such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.

ORDER AUTHORIZING AND RATIFYING PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION AND EXPENSES OF GUARDIAN

(September 16, 2014 through July 3, 2015)

On the petition of Elizabeth Savitt, as limited guardian of the person and property of Robert Paul Wein (the Ward), for an order authorizing payment of compensation for services rendered and expenses incurred, the Court having examined the file in this proceeding and having considered the evidence presented regarding the criteria established by Section 744.108(2), Florida Statutes, and finding that the material allegations of the petition are true and $85.00 per hour is a reasonable rate of compensation for the services of the guardian, and being otherwise fully advised, it is

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED as follows:

1. The retainer paid by the guardian of the property from the assets of the Ward in the amount of $8,000.00 is hereby ratified and approved.
2. Petitioner is hereby awarded a reasonable fee under Section 744.108(2), Florida Statutes, for services rendered by the Petitioner during the period of September 16, 2014, through July 3, 2015, as follows:

Hourly Rate:	$85.00
Hours Worked:	196.95 (.60 at No Charge)
Total Fees:	$16,847.75
Total Costs:	$237.60
Total Fees and Costs:	$17,085.35

3. The guardian of the property of the Ward is authorized and directed to pay that compensation and those expenses from the assets of the Ward, less the $8,000.00 retainer, in the total amount of $9,085.35 to Elizabeth Savitt. Such payment shall be made within ten (10) days from the date of this Order, if not sooner, and shall be made through any accounts held in the name of the Ward or guardianship.

DONE AND ORDERED this 27 day of August, 2015 in Palm Beach Gardens, Palm Beach County, Florida.

JOINT MOTION FOR ENTRY OF RULING ON GUARDIAN'S AMENDED PETITION FOR ORDER AUTHORIZING GUARDIAN TO BRING ANNULMENT ON BEHALF OF THE WARD

COME NOW the Movants, ELIZABETH SAVITT, as Limited Guardian of the Person and Property of ROBERT PAUL WEIN (the Ward), and DANIEL WEIN, the brother of the Ward and an interested person, by and through their undersigned counsel, and hereby move for entry of a ruling on the Guardian's Amended Petition for Order Authorizing Guardian to Bring Annulment on Behalf of the Ward (the "Amended Petition"), as follows:

1. A two and a half hour (2 ½) hearing was held in the above-referenced case on the Amended Petition on July 22, 2015, and was presided over by Judge Janis Brustares Keyser. A copy of the transcript from the hearing is attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and speaks for itself.
2. All evidence and argument were presented and heard to a final conclusion but Judge Keyser did not issue a ruling from the bench.
3. Shortly after the hearing and prior to rendering a ruling, Judge Keyser recused herself.
4. The hearing on July 22nd was on the Guardian's authority to bring an action to annul the August 6, 2014 Florida marriage between the Ward and Vita Wein.
5. The ward and Vita Wein were already married on August 2, 1958 in New York. The validity of the NY marriage in 1958 is undisputed by all parties.
6. As the New York marriage is an established fact, the Florida marriage must be annulled as a matter of law. See, for example, the following authority:
 - a. Jones v. Jones, 160 So.2d 836, a 1935 Florida Supreme Court case which determined that a marriage is not valid if one of the parties has a legal spouse and any such marriage is held to be absolutely void and not merely voidable.
 - b. Burger v. Burger, 166 So.2d 433, a 1964 FL Supreme Court case which held that although it may not be necessary to obtain a judicial determination that no marriage exists, such a determination is in the best interest of society and the purpose is the adjudication of the nullity of the marriage.

c. Wright v. Wright, 778 So. 2d 352, (2nd DCA 2001), in which the Court affirmed that the trial court's jurisdiction over annulment proceedings stems not from a statutory provision but from its equitable chancery jurisdiction and that circuit courts have jurisdiction to declare the nullity of a void marriage or to decree that a voidable marriage is annulled.

7. As the law is clear and the fact of the prior marriage of the parties in New York is not in dispute, and as it would be a waste of the Ward's funds and judicial resources to have any further hearings on this matter, Movant requests that the guardian be authorized to seek an annulment and that this court sitting in its chancery role declare the FL marriage void and sign an Order annulling said marriage.

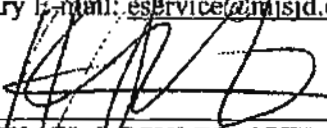

WHEREFORE, Movants respectfully request the Court issue a ruling on the Amended Petition for Order Authorizing Guardian to Bring Annulment on Behalf of the Ward and an Order declaring the FL marriage void and annulled.

PROCEEDINGS

THE COURT: Good afternoon.

MS. MORRIS: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

MR. ROSENWATER: Good afternoon.

THE COURT: I got the proposed orders.

Since they are not in agreement, I thought I would hold off until I discussed everything with you.

It's my understanding it's denying the motion to continue as to the annulment issue and granting it as to the motion to amend the trust.

I thought you were going to submit the documents, income tax returns and the other applications redacted for an in camera inspection to me.

MR. ROSENWATER: Your Honor, that is correct. I said I would do my best to do so, but we didn't have a hearing on that. That wasn't a part of the motion to continue.

THE COURT: So you didn't want that part of the order?

MR. ROSENWATER: Correct.

MS. MORRIS: Your Honor, it was set for -- that was set on the notice of hearing for last week. I wasn't in attendance. That was brought

1 up as far as the discovery response and our
 2 objections.
 3 So doing his best to do so, Your Honor, as
 4 far as I was told by my associate, of course, I
 5 wasn't there, was Your Honor already stated in the 6 order those documents were to be produced because
 7 we all know it's possession, custody or control.
 8 The only one who has control of those
 9 documents would be the applicant or the tax payer
 10 herself.
 11 THE COURT: Do you have those documents?
 12 MR. ROSENWATER: No, Your Honor. I filed
 13 an amended response to our petition, and it
 14 basically states they are not in my client's
 15 possession.
 16 She doesn't have any tax returns in her
 17 possession. She doesn't have any Medicaid
 18 applications in her possession. Then the tax
 19 returns, as I stated at the last hearing, they 20 were prepared by Robert Wein. She has never had 21 copies, and she doesn't have possession of any of 22 them.
 23 She never filled out, to her knowledge, a
 24 Medicaid application. When she was in a nursing
 25 home in New York, there may have been a Medicaid

1 Schlesinger. I'm here for Daniel Wein.
 2 MR. ROSENWATER: Your Honor, I don't have a
 3 problem with Mr. Schlesinger being here at this
 4 time. His client filed a motion to intervene,
 5 which has not been addressed, so at this time,
 6 Daniel Wein is not a party to the proceeding.
 7 MR. SCHLESINGER: He is an heir and
 8 interested party, and he is a former trustee of 9 the trust they are seeking to revoke and to amend.
 10 I'm sure he has grounds to speak at all of 11 these issues that are being decided, including the 12 annulment.
 13 THE COURT: He has.
 14 MR. ROSENWATER: Your Honor, he could be a
 15 witness in these proceedings. My position is 16 Mr. Schlesinger's client is not a party to these 17 proceedings at this point. My position is that he 18 can't participate in the hearing as an attorney.
 19 Mr. Daniel Wein could be a witness in the 20 proceedings. That's fine. But as to him
 21 questioning him as a witness, there has been an
 22 order on the motion to intervene.
 23 MR. SCHLESINGER: Your Honor, they are 24 moving to revoke and amend a trust that, the prior 25 trust. We are the trustee. My client is the

1 application prepared. She was never provided with
 2 a copy of that, and she never filled it out. We
 3 have none of those documents.
 4 MS. MORRIS: Again, I'll make that same
 5 argument, Your Honor. Possession is not the test.
 6 It's possession, custody and control. Clearly,
 7 she is the only one that has control over
 8 receiving those documents.
 9 THE COURT: She can sign an authorization
 10 for them to obtain the IRS -- I mean, the income
 11 tax returns.
 12 MR. ROSENWATER: We could do that and have
 13 an in camera inspection of that. Again, I don't
 14 think it's relevant to the issue before the Court,
 15 but if you want to order that, that's fine with 16 me.
 17 THE COURT: Well, there is an issue that if
 18 I decide that the annulment is something that can 19 be considered, that discovery can take place in 20 the family law case?
 21 MS. MORRIS: Clearly, Your Honor.
 22 THE COURT: Why don't we address the
 23 annulment issue before we.
 24 MR. SCHLESINGER: Your Honor, we didn't do
 25 appearances. I'm new to this party. I'm Michael

1 trustee.
 2 My client has been taking care of his
 3 brother for many years and has knowledge of facts,
 4 and we have appeared on his behalf.
 5 He has been served with every petition,
 6 hearing coordinated. He has participated with the
 7 guardian. I don't know of any rule that disallows
 8 an interested party such as my client, from 9 participating in issues that will be decided.
 10 For example, the annulment of the marriage.
 11 That has something to do with the guardianship
 12 which he is involved with because he is a trustee.
 13 THE COURT: He could be a witness, but
 14 should you really be participating? Do you intend
 15 to present testimony or evidence?
 16 MR. SCHLESINGER: I can tell you that in 17 the two days I've been retained, I found a
 18 plethora of items that Ms. Vita Wein has put 19 herself as a single woman, including deeds in New 20 Jersey that we're trying to get.
 21 We have also hired a private investigator
 22 to locate the divorce decree in New York City, one
 23 of the counties. My job today is really to 24 introduce myself. I didn't plan to call
 25 witnesses. I had planned to interject when

Page 10

1 necessary.

2 For example, we will be objecting, and I

3 told the guardian, to the amendment of the trust,

4 even though we --

5 THE COURT: That issue is not going to be

6 decided today.

7 MR. SCHLESINGER: Yes, but I have already

8 given notice that that will be a formal notice

9 I'll be filing.

10 Again, as far as the guardianship

11 proceeding, we are listed as an interested party.

12 We were given notice, and we have a right to

13 participate, especially when it comes to

14 competency issues and dealing with Mrs. Vita Wein.

15 Which again, I don't have -- I didn't plan

16 to call witnesses. I'm just here to interact and

17 tell you what I've learned as the trustee that was

18 removed by the second trust.

19 I don't know if that handles his objection,

20 but I was not planning to call witnesses or

21 address witnesses. I'm just standing up to tell

22 you I'm here.

23 MR. ROSENWATER: That's fine.

24 THE COURT: Let's go forward then.

25 MS. MORRIS: Yes, Your Honor. May I remain

Page 11

1 seated?

2 THE COURT: You can remain seated. You

3 have everything spread out in front of you.

4 MS. MORRIS: I appreciate that. Thank you,

5 Your Honor. This is our amended verified petition

6 authorizing the guardian to bring an annulment on

7 behalf of the ward.

8 Really, the title belies the crux of the 9 relief that we're here seeking, which is in the 10 petition as well, which is to retain a family law

11 attorney to determine whether or not an annulment

12 action should be brought forth.

13 We're looking at the standard here as to

14 what is in the ward's best interest. There are

15 three reasons why the guardian, who serves at the

16 pleasure of the Court, didn't intervene on her own

17 accord and was brought in and asked to serve in 18 this matter.

19 There are three reasons why this

20 professional guardian and myself believe that it's 21 in the best interest of the ward. There is case

22 law to support that.

23 Our cause here today is not to argue the 24 substantive merits of the annulment. That's not

25 what we're here for today. We're strictly here

Page 12

1 seeking authority under the statute, as we are

2 required to do so, to ask Your Honor to proceed

3 with hiring a family law attorney and make the

4 determination if there is enough cause to bring an

5 annulment.

6 The three reasons why it's in Mr. Wein's

7 best interest are: Number one, that if Ms. Wein,

8 Mrs. Wein is a spouse and remains a spouse, she

9 remains an interested party. As such, even if her

10 fees -- which she has already filed a petition

11 seeking fees of over $21,000 -- even if her fees

12 are not ordered to be paid by this Court as a

13 service or a benefit to the ward, she is causing

14 the guardian and her attorney to respond to

15 various extremely litigious pleadings and filings.

16 If the marriage is annulled, should there

17 be a reason to do so, she will no longer be an

18 interested person, and we will no longer cause

19 this ward's assets to be continually depleted by

20 the guardian seeking attorney's fees in responding

21 to her. That's number one.

22 Number two, the guardian has a duty

23 strictly, specifically -- excuse me -- under 744

24 to protect and preserve the assets of the ward.

25 In doing so, she should not pay expenses of

Page 13

1 another individual who should not be entitled to

2 them.

3 Under the case law, it is clear that if

4 Mrs. Wein continues to be his wife, then she is

5 entitled to support as a dependent. And I have

6 all the case law for Your Honor that she is

7 entitled to support as a dependent.

8 If she is not his wife because there is a

9 proper basis to annul the marriage, she is not

10 entitled to support. The value, the positive

11 value or the negative value of Mr. Wein's estate,

12 whether he is a rich man with a billion dollars or 13 a poor man of $100,000, is not relevant.

14 She has a duty to protect and preserve his

15 estate for himself and for his heirs according to

16 his estate plan. To pay expenses which have been

17 sought in the way of legal fees and other support

18 payments, right now, the guardianship is paying

19 all of Vita Wein's living, health, et cetera,

20 expenses, and she's not contributing one dime, not

21 even in her social security toward that support.

22 That's the second reason.

23 First is not an interested party, save

24 money in not responding. The second is she would

25 not be entitled to support. The third is that the

1 guardian has a duty to the ward.
2 There is a relatively new case that has
3 come up. I'm sure Your Honor is familiar with it.
4 It's been around for a while. It's the Saadeh
5 case that the Fourth DCA came out with in just 6 June, last month of this year. It talks about
7 privity of contract.

8 In that case, in the Saadeh case, a
9 guardian's attorney and the ward -- and the Saadeh
10 case mentions other cases therein which talk about
11 and reaffirm Florida's longstanding, unusual
12 negligence theory in that third-party
13 beneficiaries of a will do have privity of 14 contract and the right to sue the guardian or the 15 guardian's attorney.

16 So not only does the guardian and do I owe 17 a duty to Mr. Wein to preserve and protect his 18 assets for his benefit, we owe a duty to the 19 residuary of his estate and other beneficiaries of 20 his estate whose interest will be affected on his 21 death based on the amount of money spent here.

22 Our standard of proof is preponderance of 23 the evidence. I have a memo and case law for Your 24 Honor regarding what is the standard of proof for 25 proving that it's in his best interest. We know

1 from the relatively new Koshenina case in 2014,
2 which talks about the standard of proof against
3 the, contrary to the best interest. The best
4 interest standard is the preponderance of the 5 evidence, 51 percent.

6 We are prepared -- if Your Honor wants to
7 hear, I'm prepared to put Ms. Savitt on the stand
8 to testify to exactly what I just proffered to the 9 Court, the three reasons why she is bringing this
10 annulment.

11 And all we're seeking is Your Honor's
12 permission to meet with and hire a family law
13 attorney, get all the facts and the discovery.

14 Just as Your Honor pointed out, we have tax
15 returns. We have deeds. We have a marriage
16 application that I'm prepared to provide to Your
17 Honor.

18 I think it's getting into the substantive
19 merits of the annulment, but I have all of that 20 for Your Honor, a marriage application that was 21 applied for here.

22 We do not have a divorce decree. That's 23 the one thing we don't have. The other side,
24 Mr. Rosenwater client's position is they did not 25 get remarried. They were never divorced, and they

1 simply reaffirmed their vows.

2 There is no such thing as a reaffirmation,
3 legally, of vows here in Florida. They applied
4 for a marriage license. They filled out the
5 marriage license saying that this was the second
6 marriage, that their prior marriages ended in 7 divorce and they were married.

8 So either it's bigamy, or they were
9 divorced and they were married a few weeks before
10 the determination of incapacity.

11 THE COURT: Does the case law indicate that 12 in a guardianship proceeding, that it has to be an 13 evidentiary hearing?

14 MS. MORRIS: It does not.

15 THE COURT: Do you have case law on that?

16 MS. MORRIS: The case law, no, not on the 17 evidentiary hearing. The case law on the best
18 interest that I have is seeking Court authority.
19 It does not state whether it has to be an
20 evidentiary hearing or not.

21 In an adversary proceeding in a
22 guardianship, of course the Rules of Civil 23 Procedure do apply. I think it's within the 24 Court's discretion, but that's just my surmising
25 because there is nothing strictly on point

1 indicating there has to be an evidentiary.

2 THE COURT: Mr. Rosenwater?

3 MR. ROSENWATER: Your Honor, this case has
4 been a difficult case where you have a
5 guardianship, and you have sometimes a younger
6 woman that comes in when you have an elderly
7 individual and marries to take advantage of that
8 individual and get money.

9 Or it doesn't even have to be a younger
10 individual. They just get married right before
11 they're declared incompetent or didn't have the 12 capacity to handle their affairs.

13 But this is a case where we have parties
14 that have been married since 1958. They have been 15 continuously married. There has been no divorce.
16 There has been no final judgment. It doesn't 17 matter how they filled out their tax returns, how 18 they filled out deeds. There is no evidence that 19 they ever have been divorced. The guardian has --

20 THE COURT: Basically, what they are 21 seeking is the right to bring an action for 22 annulment, and they are going to have to prove 23 that claim, and they can get that discovery to 24 determine whether there is, in fact, a divorce
25 decree.

1 MR. ROSENWATER: That's correct, Your
 2 Honor. But the problem we have is that they're
 3 seeking to annul a 1958 marriage. This is not a
 4 2014 marriage.
 5 Unless they came before the Court today
 6 with a final judgment of dissolution of marriage
 7 -- and they have records from the State of New
 8 York. They requested from the State of New York
 9 if there is any divorce decrees filed between 1960
 10 and 1963. It came back there are no divorce
 11 decrees filed in the State of Florida.
 12 That's why we want an evidentiary hearing
 13 today for Vita Wein to testify about their 14 marriage and what took place and what happened,
 15 and so the Court will understand that this was not
 16 a new marriage in 2014.
 17 This argument of bigamy, how can it be 18 bigamy when you're remarrying the same person that
 19 you were married to already? These are elderly
 20 people. They didn't know the procedure and what
 21 the laws are in Florida. What they wanted to do
 22 is reestablish their vows in their later years.
 23 THE COURT: If I conduct an evidentiary
 24 proceeding and have Ms. Wein testify, aren't you
 25 essentially asking me to rule on the merits of a

1 one-third share of the wards's estate. There has
 2 also been testimony that the ward has plenty of
 3 money to provide for both him and his spouse for
 4 the rest of his life.
 5 What we're trying to do -- we have a lot of 6 attorneys's fees incurred in connection with this
 7 matter. We're going to have more attorney's fees
 8 in connection with this matter on an issue that 9 should not even be before the Court because they 10 were not married in 2014. They were married in 11 1958.
 12 If they provided a final judgment for 13 dissolution of marriage and said, okay, we want to 14 annul the marriage that was in August of 2014, I
 15 would not have any objection, and I would not have 16 filed any pleadings objecting to that and let the 17 Court determine at that point whether there was a
 18 basis to annul the marriage. We're talking about 19 a 57-year marriage in the eyes of the law.
 20 MR. SCHLESINGER: Judge, I'm not arguing,
 21 but I do have a case that I found that could 22 assist the Court. It's Vaughan, Guardianship of 23 Vaughan. It dealt with a divorce which was 24 brought against it by -- may I approach?
 25 THE COURT: Yes.

1 potential claim for annulment?
 2 MR. ROSENWATER: I think there is no claim
 3 for potential claim for annulment. That's why we
 4 need an evidentiary hearing. They have the burden
 5 of proof.
 6 If the parties were divorced -- they
 7 provided a 1960 marital settlement agreement. If 8 they came back and found that, they should be able 9 to find a final judgment of dissolution of 10 marriage at that time.
 11 What I'm trying to do is save money because 12 basically, they are wasting the ward's monies on 13 what we consider to be a frivolous action.
 14 The ward has testified, or the guardian has 15 testified that the ward has told her that he 16 wanted to be remarried. There is numerous
 17 individuals that the ward has told that he wants
 18 to provide for and be married to his wife.
 19 The court-appointed attorney initially in 20 the case, Mr. Kitroser, the ward told that he 21 understood he was married and wanted to be married
 22 to Vita Wein.
 23 What I'm trying to do is stop the bleeding
 24 and stop the monies to be expended. What they're 25 concerned about is getting an elective share,

1 MR. SCHLESINGER: It's an incapacitated
 2 ward against a non-incapacitated spouse. In this
 3 case, they said it had to be evidentiary when it
 4 came to the divorce.
 5 I think what counsel for the guardian is
 6 doing is asking for a specialist to be retained,
 7 and I think there are two parts. There is Part I,
 8 which we have no objection to. I don't think
 9 counsel has an objection to Ms. Wein, for someone
 10 to be actually be retained that does this area
 11 rather than the guardianship.
 12 The second part, which is the evidentiary
 13 portion, I think, Your Honor, if you look at this,
 14 someone who comes into Court and says there is no
 15 divorce, the burden doesn't shift to the guardian.
 16 The burden shifts to the person making that claim.
 17 That could be researched by this Court very 18 easily. The guardian represents the ward and the 19 ward's best interest. She is not the person that 20 has to investigate whether a second marriage that
 21 was done on or about the time of the incapacity
 22 should be annulled or not. She brings it to the 23 Court's attention. She represents the ward.
 24 Counsel for Ms. Wein has the duty to inform 25 this Court what the basis is that there was no

1 divorce and why his client did the marriage in
 2 2013 if there is no divorce and why she held
 3 herself out as being single on tax filings with 4 states and the federal government.
 5 It's not the guardian that has to prove
 6 this. All she has to do is protect the ward. I
 7 would just submit that I think Your Honor is right
 8 when it comes to the merits. You have to have an
 9 evidentiary hearing.
 10 As far as what they're asking for in
 11 Part 1, we have no objection as an interested
 12 party, of a specialist coming in to represent the
 13 ward.
 14 MS. MORRIS: I just disagree with one of 15 the things that Mr. Schlesinger said. Number one,
 16 we attached, so Your Honor is aware, the marriage
 17 license application to the petition.
 18 Mr. Rosenwater keeps saying they were not
 19 remarried, but I attached the application to marry
 20 to the petition and the marriage license
 21 application. They are both there.
 22 They applied to be married in 2014. They
 23 were married by a cantor, by a Jewish official,
 24 which is signed on the bottom of the application
 25 to marry with his date and signature of their

1 to several cases. There's a Second DCA case that
 2 states, "The rule is well-established in the
 3 United States by the overwhelming weight of 4 authority that the guardian of a mentally
 5 incompetent person cannot bring and maintain an
 6 action for divorce."
 7 MR. SCHLESINGER: It changed in 1969. On 8 the second page, the legislature came along and 9 added an incurable insanity.
 10 THE COURT: Where is it?
 11 MR. SCHLESINGER: The next page.
 12 THE COURT: I see.
 13 MR. SCHLESINGER: They were bringing it up
 14 because it was a challengeable thing. It might be 15 that you have to move for a divorce if one party
 16 thought it was divorced since 1963 and held itself
 17 out, so it might not only be an annulment. It
 18 might have to be a divorce.
 19 MS. MORRIS: Judge, the rules of divorce
 20 for an incapacitated person are clear. Actually,
 21 you can bring a divorce action. You cannot get
 22 the final judgment of dissolution.
 23 I don't want you to think that I'm
 24 pretending to be a family law attorney because I'm 25 not. But you cannot get the final judgment of

1 marriage.
 2 The only thing that I disagree with
 3 Mr. Schlesinger about is we are seeking the 4 authority to hire the family law attorney. Then
 5 if the family attorney law attorney, which I am
 6 not one nor do I hold myself out to be one,
 7 determines that the annulment is proper, we don't
 8 expect to have to come back to the Court. The 9 family law attorney would have to come back to the 10 Court and say it's in the best interest.
 11 The order we're seeking is to hire a family
 12 law attorney. If the family law attorney says
 13 that the annulment is proper, bring it and not 14 have to come back. That's where I disagree with 15 Mr. Schlesinger.
 16 The family law attorney, as well as the 17 guardian, are subject to good faith filings
 18 standard, 57.105 and everything else. If the 19 family law attorney determines, based on all the 20 discovery and the evidence, that they were married
 21 and that there is a basis to annul it, we want the 22 attorney to be able to meet with his or her
 23 client, the guardian, and proceed accordingly.
 24 THE COURT: Mr. Schlesinger, the case you
 25 just handed me, the Vaughan v. Guardianship, cites

1 dissolution for three years, but you can get
 2 equitable remedies and the divorce action can
 3 proceed. But the final judgment of dissolution
 4 cannot be obtained until three years later. That
 5 is in 744 as well as the family law statutes.
 6 MR. ROSENWATER: Your Honor, if I may
 7 respond?
 8 THE COURT: Sure.
 9 MR. ROSENWATER: Ms. Morris is alleging the 10 parties were divorced because there was an 11 application for marriage that says they were 12 divorced in 1963.
 13 That's exactly the basis why you need an
 14 evidentiary hearing to find out who filled out
 15 that petition and what is involved with the 16 petition and also talk about these other issues
 17 about the tax returns and the deeds and everything
 18 else.
 19 They really -- as I said, it's a 1958
 20 marriage. Mr. Schlesinger says we have the burden
 21 of proof. We did contact the State of New York.
 22 We got the same information. There is no divorce
 23 decree in the State of New York between 1960 and 24 1965, so we did everything that we could.
 25 They're alleging they were divorced in

Page 26

1 1963. We contacted the State of New York and did
2 a record search. We asked the clerk to do a
3 search, and they determined there was no
4 dissolution of marriage filed within that time.
5 It goes back to the guardian to show there
6 was a final judgment of dissolution of marriage.
7 And really, the 2014 marriage renewal of vows has 8 nothing to do with this if the parties were still
9 married in 1958.
10 THE COURT: Well, the renewal of vows, you
11 don't have to get a license or a -- they were 12 married if they renewed their vows.
13 MS. MORRIS: It's a certificate of
14 marriage.
15 MR. ROSENWATER: People don't know that
16 These people are elderly early individuals.
17 They're in their eighties. They wanted to renew
18 their vows and show they were going to take care
19 of each other for the rest of their lives.
20 MS. MORRIS: I also have here the rules
21 from the clerk, Your Honor, which I can pass up to 22 you. Basically, for the marriage license
23 requirements, it says if either person was married
24 before, the manner -- they have to take the manner
25 in which the last marriage ended and the exact

Page 27

1 date the marriage ended or needed copies of death
2 certificates, final decree of divorce, annulment.
3 Blood tests are not required.
4 The clerk is not looking for the decree of
5 divorce. The instructions for the marriage
6 license are in black and white on the first page.
7 The marriage license does list the exact date. It
8 doesn't just say sometime in 1963, and it's signed
9 by Vita Wein.
10 MR. ROSENWATER: Your Honor, the marriage
11 license is not a record showing that the parties
12 were divorced.
13 THE COURT: Where is it in this application
14 where they say the date of the divorce? What 15 number is it?
16 MS. MORRIS: It's on the marriage license
17 application on the bottom right. You'll see it
18 says, last marriage ended on June 7, 1963 on the 19 bottom right. Then the same quadrant where it's 20 talking about Robert Paul Wein right above that,
21 Your Honor, it says, "last marriage ended," and it
22 says, "June 7, 1963."
23 THE COURT: I'm looking at the application
24 of marriage.
25 Are you looking at something different?

Page 28

1 MS. MORRIS: May I approach, Your Honor?
2 THE COURT: Yes.
3 MS. MORRIS: This one, the marriage
4 license.
5 THE COURT: This was not attached to the
6 petition.
7 MS. MORRIS: It's attached to the amended
8 petition, Your Honor. I'm afraid you don't have 9 the amended one.
10 MR. SCHLESINGER: I have an extra copy.
11 MS. MORRIS: I have one. Thank you. If
12 you see the two quadrants I'm showing you, here
13 and here -- did you find it?
14 THE COURT: The question of who will be 15 bringing the action is merely procedural. Based 16 on this analysis, we find that it is within the 17 province of the guardianship court, based upon a
18 proper evidentiary showing to the ward's best
19 interest, to authorize a guardian to initiate a
20 dissolution action on behalf of the ward against a
21 competent spouse."
22 Here it says, "We must agree with the
23 appellant that it was error for the guardianship
24 court to enter an order of authorization without a
25 noticed evidentiary hearing affording Norma

Page 29

1 Vaughan the opportunity to present evidence in
2 support of her contention that dissolution would
3 not be in the ward's best interest."
4 That's what Mr. Rosenwater would like to 5 do, correct?
6 MR. ROSENWATER: Correct.
7 MS. MORRIS: That was set for today, so I'm
8 prepared to put on my witness for that.
9 Your Honor, are you reading from the 10 Vaughan case?
11 THE COURT: Yes. You can call your first
12 witness.
13 MS. MORRIS: I call Elizabeth Savitt, Your
14 Honor.
15 May I remain seated while questioning?
16 THE COURT: Yes.
17 Thereupon,
18 ELIZABETH SAVITT,
19 having been first duly sworn or affirmed, was examined
20 and testified as follows:
21 THE WITNESS: I do.
22 THE BAILIFF: Have a seat up here and watch
23 your step.

7 THE COURT: Go ahead.
8 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION
9 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
10 Q. Ms. Savitt, when you obtained the marriage
11 license application from the clerk of court, did you get
12 it from the clerk that filled out the application?
13 A. I got it at the clerk's office.
14 Q. So you don't know who filled out this 15 application, do you?
16 A. No, I only see who signed it.
17 Q. You don't even know if they signed it, do
18 you?
19 A. I think the clerk has to verify that by 20 driver's license.
21 Q. And you didn't speak with the clerk,
22 correct?
23 A. Correct.
24 MR. ROSENWATER: I have no further
25 questions.

Page 34

1 MS. MORRIS: Your Honor, I move that into
2 evidence, please.
3 MR. ROSENWATER: I object, Your Honor.
4 THE COURT: Admitted into evidence over the
5 objection of opposing counsel.
6 (Petitioner's Composite Exhibit 1, marriage
7 license application, was received in evidence.)
8 BY MS. MORRIS:
9 Q. I'm going to direct your attention to the 10 second exhibit that is attached to the verified amended
11 petition, which is the application of marriage.
12 Do you recognize that?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Did you obtain that document?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. Does it have a stamp at the top of that 17 document for the recording purposes?
18 A. Yes. The State of Florida?
19 Q. The stamp right here.
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. And where did you obtain that document
22 from?
23 A. The clerk of court in West Palm Beach.
24 Q. In this courthouse?
25 A. Yes.

Page 35

1 Q. Is that a true and accurate copy of the
2 actual recorded document?
3 A. Yes.
4 MS. MORRIS: I move that into evidence,
5 Your Honor.
6 MR. ROSENWATER: Same.
7 THE COURT: Same objection, Mr. Rosenwatter?
8 MR. ROSENWATER: Yes.
9 THE COURT: That is going to be
10 Petitioner's 2, I guess?
11 MS. MORRIS: Petitioner's Composite 1, Your
12 Honor.
13 THE COURT: Petitioner's Composite 1 will
14 be admitted into evidence over the objection.
15 MS. MORRIS: Thank you, Your Honor.
16 BY MS. MORRIS:
17 Q. Ms. Savitt, did you desire to meet with a
18 family law attorney to determine whether an annulment
19 shall be brought?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Why?
22 A. For the three reasons that were already
23 brought to the Court.
24 Q. Let's take them one at a time.
25 Why would it be in Mr. Wein's best interest

Page 36

1 not to have to continue supporting Vita, i.e., what are
2 you paying for Vita's support that you wouldn't have to
3 pay?
4 A. Her nursing; her assisted living facility;
5 rent; her fees there, including her laundry, her hair
6 care and her transportation when she wants to go to 7 dinner, including $300 every two weeks to a month in 8 spending money that's used at the facility.
9 Q. And do you have an approximate amount what
10 that is each month?
11 A. The actual rent, I think, is 3150. It
12 probably totals up to closer to 4,000.
13 Q. Okay. And now you mentioned transportation
14 for Vita Wein to go to dinner.
15 Was there a time when you were requested to 16 pay for transportation, specifically expensive
17 transportation for Vita Wein to go to dinner?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. What type of transportation were you
20 requested to pay for?
21 A. She wanted to go by limo to attend a family
22 dinner with her niece.
23 Q. Now, as far as Vita Wein being on Medicaid,
24 did you have any conversation with Ms. Wein regarding 25 whether she was on Medicaid in New York or New Jersey?

Page 37

1 A. Yes, I did ask her if she was on Medicaid.
2 Q. What did she tell you?
3 A. She refused to answer me.
4 Q. And did you have any conversation or do any 5 investigation on your own regarding whether Vita Wein was 6 on Medicaid?
7 A. I was provided with -- I had conversations
8 with Dan Wein.
9 MR. ROSENWATER: Objection. Hearsay.
10 THE COURT: She didn't really state what 11 the substance of the conversation was, so
12 overruled. Go ahead.
13 MS. MORRIS: Thank you, Your Honor. I
14 won't have a question to elicit hearsay testimony.
15 BY MS. MORRIS:
16 Q. After your conversation with Dan Wein, did
17 you form an opinion as to whether Ms. Wein was on 18 Medicaid?
19 MR. ROSENWATER: Hearsay based upon what 20 Dan Wein told her.
21 THE COURT: Sustained.
22 BY MS. MORRIS:
23 Q. Did you do any other independent
24 investigation regarding Vita Wein's Medicaid status that 25 led you to form an opinion?

Page 38

1 A. No, not directly.
2 Q. Do you have a basic knowledge as a
3 professional guardian, of what the asset requirements are
4 for an individual to be on Medicaid?
5 MR. ROSENWATER: Objection. Relevancy.
6 THE COURT: Overruled.
7 THE WITNESS: Yes. They have to have less
8 than $2,000.
9 BY MS. MORRIS:
10 Q. And if Vita Wein was married to Robert
11 Wein, would his assets be considered in addition for 12 determining her Medicaid eligibility, do you know?
13 MR. ROSENWATER: Objection. She is not an 14 expert on this.
15 THE COURT: Sustained.
16 MS. MORRIS: Your Honor, can I establish
17 she has her own personal knowledge about it? I'm 18 not calling for expert testimony.
19 THE COURT: Now that I think about it, I'm 20 not sure this really has any relevance to this
21 issue so...
22 MS. MORRIS: I'll move on, Your Honor.
23 Thank you.
24 BY MS. MORRIS:
25 Q. Ms. Savitt, in addition to having to pay

Page 39

1 for those expenses for Ms. Wein, you said there were two
2 other reasons why you think it's in Mr. Wein's, Robert
3 Wein's best interest.
4 What is the second reason?
5 A. The continuing litigation. It would get 6 rid of the continuing litigation and stop depleting his
7 assets.
8 Q. How much of your time on this guardianship
9 would you say has been spent responding to litigation or 10 filings by Mrs. Wein through her attorney?
11 A. An enormous amount of time.
12 Q. Could you approximate the amount of hours?
13 A. No, I can't tell you.
14 Q. If Mrs. Wein were not to have been involved
15 in this proceeding, would you be spending very much time
16 working on Mr. Wein's case?
17 A. No. It runs fairly smoothly except for 18 this.
19 Q. Why does it run smoothly? What is the 20 status of Mr. Wein?
21 A. He's in an assisted living facility. His
22 needs are being taken care of. His brother is taking him
23 to, is helping out with getting him to his doctor's
24 appointments. His assets are protected and invested.
25 Q. Now, were you involved in the proceeding

Page 40

1 when the order determining Mr. Wein to be incapacitated
2 was entered?
3 A. No.
4 MS. MORRIS: Your Honor, I ask that you
5 take judicial notice in the file of the order
6 determining Mr. Wein to be incapacitated.
7 The order is part of the court file and
8 prior to Ms. Savitt's appointment. We'll move
9 that into evidence as well.
10 THE COURT: Any objection?
11 MR. ROSENWATER: You can take judicial
12 notice. I don't know what they're trying to enter
13 in for today's purposes. She needs to tell the 14 Court what's in there and what's the basis.
15 I don't understand for the purposes of this 16 hearing to determine whether there should be an
17 attorney appointed for an annulment with the ward
18 has any bearing on this case.
19 MS. MORRIS: Your Honor, it has bearing on 20 the role of Ms. Savitt as his guardian as to what 21 the determination of incapacity was for Mr. Wein.
22 It will have bearing further in other
23 proceedings as we go forward.
24 THE COURT: I'll take judicial notice of
25 the order determining Mr. Wein's incapacity.

Page 41

1 MS. MORRIS: Thank you, Your Honor.
2 BY MS. MORRIS:
3 Q. Just to recap, you stated the first reason
4 is her support. You stated the second reason is a lot of 5 your time.
6 By the way, do you know how much of my
7 time, your attorney's time has been spent responding to 8 Ms. Wein's filings?
9 A. I don't know the exact hours, but almost 10 all of the time that you will bill for is for this.
11 Q. Then there is third reason that you
12 mentioned and I proffered to the Court.
13 What is the third reason?
14 A. Really, I have a duty to preserve his 15 assets for himself and for his heirs.
16 Q. Do you find that in the statute? How do
17 you know you have that duty?
18 A. It's in the statute.
19 Q. What do you perceive your duty to be 20 vis-a-vis this annulment to Mr. Wein in this regard?
21 A. I have a duty to bring this to preserve his
22 assets.
23 Q. And by that, you mean during his lifetime?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. Okay. And do you believe you have a duty

Page 42

1 to bring it to preserve his assets as far as his heirs as
2 well?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. Are you aware of any cases or case law that 5 could make you liable and/or your attorney liable for
6 failure to protect Mr. Wein's heirs as well?
7 A. Yes, I'm aware of that case law.
8 Q. Is there anything that Mr. Wein has said to 9 you recently in the last six months regarding his desire
10 to annul the marriage to Mrs. Wein?
11 A. Yes. He did tell me that he didn't see any 12 reason why he was married.
13 Q. Did you ask him if he understood the 14 contractual ramifications of being married again to Vita
15 Wein?
16 MR. ROSENWATER: Objection. He is
17 incompetent. He is incapacitated.
18 THE COURT: Yes. He has been filed as
19 incapacitated.
20 MS. MORRIS: Yes, Your Honor. There is a
21 myriad of case law that says that even when a
22 person is determined to be incapacitated, they
23 have a right to their own dignity. They have a
24 right to privity of contract with the guardian and 25 with the guardian's attorney.

Page 43

1 They have a right to be treated as best as
2 they can and consulted the best that they can, and
3 Ms. Savitt did consult with her ward regarding
4 this. I think the testimony is relevant.
5 THE COURT: All right. I'll allow it. Go
6 ahead.
7 THE WITNESS: Can you restate the question?
8 BY MS. MORRIS:
9 Q. Yes. Do you think, based on your
10 conversation with Mr. Wein, that he understood the 11 contractual -- I said ramifications, but to put it more
12 simply, the contractual obligations that he would be 13 under after remarrying Ms. Wein?
14 MR. ROSENWATER: Objection. Predicate.
15 She never said she had a conversation regarding
16 that.
17 MS. MORRIS: She did answer yes, Your
18 Honor.
19 THE WITNESS: I did.
20 THE COURT: Overruled.
21 THE WITNESS: I don't think he did
22 understand.
23 BY MS. MORRIS:
24 Q. Why? What did he tell you that led to you
25 believe that?

Page 44

1 A. Because he didn't understand how much it
2 would deplete the assets to his heirs.
3 Q. Has he told you that?
4 A. He didn't understand -- he stated that he
5 did not understand it.
6 MS. MORRIS: I have nothing further, Your
7 Honor.
8 THE COURT: Mr. Rosenwater?
9 CROSS-EXAMINATION ELIZABETH SAVITT
10 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
11 Q. Ms. Savitt, when were you appointed as 12 guardian in this proceeding?
13 A. Just after the incapacity hearing.
14 Q. When was that?
15 A. The date is on the paperwork that has been 16 brought to the court.
17 Q. You don't recall?
18 A. I don't have the exact date in front of me.
19 Q. Was it in October of 2014?
20 A. I don't have the exact date in front of me.
21 MS. MORRIS: Your Honor, I request that you
22 take judicial notice of the order of appointment
23 status so we have the exact date. I can provide 24 the order for Your Honor.
25 THE COURT: All right.

Page 45

1 MR. ROSENWATER: What date was it? I'm
2 trying to get it.
3 MS. MORRIS: October 15, 2014. I might
4 have the docket entry if Your Honor desires.
5 MR. ROSENWATER: We don't need that.
6 THE COURT: That's fine.
7 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
8 Q. So you were appointed October 15, 2014; is
9 that correct?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. When did you make this determination that 12 the marriage should be annulled?
13 A. It began when I read through the case
14 history, the final report of the court-appointed
15 attorney, and when I read through case history of the 16 petitions.
17 Q. And the case history of the petitions?
18 A. Yes, the petitions for incapacity.
19 Q. When was this petition initially filed?
20 A. What petition was that?
21 Q. The one recorded with the Court today.
22 A. The one what?
23 Q. The one before the Court today, the 24 petition to appoint an attorney for an annulment.
25 A. I don't have the exact date.

Page 46

1 Q. Do you know Dan Wein?
 2 A. Yes, I do.
 3 Q. Who is Dan Wein?
 4 A. Dan Wein is the younger brother of Robert
 5 Wein.
 6 Q. And have you had discussions with Mr. Wein
 7 about annulling his brother's marriage?
 8 A. Yes.
 9 Q. When did those begin?
 10 A. I can't say exactly.
 11 Q. Who initiated the discussions?
 12 A. I can't say exactly.
 13 Q. Do you have e-mails with -- do you have 14 e-mails between Mr. Wein and yourself?
 15 A. Yes, yes.
 16 Q. Okay.
 17 MR. ROSENWATER: May I approach the
 18 witness?
 19 THE COURT: Yes.
 20 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
 21 Q. I'm showing you an e-mail that is dated
 22 November 20, 2014. It's to you from Dan Wein.
 23 A. Yes.
 24 Q. Do you recall that e-mail?
 25 A. Yes.

Page 47

1 Q. And you produced that e-mail at your
 2 deposition; is that correct?
 3 A. Yes.
 4 Q. In that e-mail, did Dan Wein state to you
 5 the best approach is to have the marriage annulled and
 6 then to have her go on Medicaid where all expenses are 7 paid?
 8 A. Yes.
 9 Q. Is he the one telling you what to do?
 10 A. No.
 11 MR. ROSENWATER: Your Honor, we have Vita
 12 Wein's Exhibit No. 1.
 13 THE COURT: Any objection?
 14 MS. MORRIS: No.
 15 THE COURT: Admitted into evidence without
 16 objection.
 17 (Respondent's Exhibit 1, November 20, 2014
 18 e-mail, was received in evidence.)
 19 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
 20 Q. Do you know who Jodi Rich is?
 21 A. Yes.
 22 Q. Who is she?
 23 A. The niece of Robert Wein.
 24 Q. And also Vita Wein?
 25 A. Yes.

Page 48

1 Q. Does she have a power of attorney for Vita
 2 Wein?
 3 A. I'm not aware of that.
 4 Q. Has she ever provided that to you?
 5 A. No.
 6 Q. Have you been communicating with her
 7 regarding this guardianship?
 8 A. I have.
 9 Q. And you have e-mailed her?
 10 A. I have.
 11 Q. Did you e-mail her on November 21, 2014?
 12 A. Yes.
 13 Q. What did you tell her?
 14 A. Do you want me to read the e-mail?
 15 Q. The second paragraph.
 16 A. "I understand that she is on Medicare. If 17 so, she can see any doctors that accept Medicare and pay
 18 the co-payment."
 19 Q. That's not the second paragraph. "The best
 20 approach is to have the marriage annulled."
 21 A. "The best approach is to have the marriage
 22 annuled and then have her go back on Medicaid where all
 23 expenses are paid."
 24 Q. And you sent that to her the day after you
 25 received the e-mail from Dan Wein; is that correct?

Page 49

1 A. Yes.
 2 MR. ROSENWATER: Your Honor, I would like
 3 that as Exhibit No. 2.
 4 THE COURT: Any objection?
 5 MS. MORRIS: No, Your Honor.
 6 THE COURT: Exhibit No. 2 and no objection.
 7 (Respondent's Exhibit 2, November 21, 2014
 8 e-mail, was received in evidence.)
 9 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
 10 Q. In November of 2014, did you have any 11 discussions with the ward, Robert Wein, about having the 12 marriage annulled?
 13 A. I spoke to him about the marriage.
 14 Q. In November of 2014?
 15 A. Yes.
 16 Q. And you have notes that reflect that?
 17 A. No.
 18 Q. When you meet with the ward, don't you take 19 notes of your meeting?
 20 A. Sometimes.
 21 Q. So you have no record or documentation that
 22 you had any discussions with Robert Wein in November
 23 of 2014 about annulling the marriage; is that correct?
 24 A. I usually speak to him about his marriage.
 25 Q. But I'm asking you about annulling the

1 marriage.
 2 A. I usually speak to him about his marriage.
 3 MR. ROSENWATER: Your Honor, she's being
 4 nonresponsive. I'm asking specifically about
 5 annulling the marriage.
 6 THE COURT: If you could, do you ever speak
 7 to him about annulling the marriage?
 8 THE WITNESS: I have spoken to him about
 9 annulling the marriage.
 10 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
 11 Q. In November of 2014?
 12 A. I spoke to him about it. I can't say
 13 exactly the date but early on.
 14 Q. Did you ever speak to Vita Wein about the
 15 marriage?
 16 A. I did.
 17 Q. And were you aware that the parties were
 18 married in 1958?
 19 A. I actually thought it was 1960, but I have 20 not been able to find a marriage certificate from the New 21 York courts either. After -- before 1963, everything has 22 been sealed or lost. I'm not sure.
 23 Q. It's not sealed or lost. You contacted the 24 courts in New York to request the final judgment of 25 dissolution of marriage; did you not?

1 MR. ROSENWATER: I'd like to move this as
 2 --
 3 THE COURT: Exhibit 3.
 4 MS. MORRIS: No objection.
 5 THE COURT: Exhibit 3 is in evidence
 6 without objection.
 7 (Respondent's Exhibit 3, New York County
 8 Clerk letter, was received in evidence.)
 9 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
 10 Q. Have you received any medical records
 11 regarding the ward's incapacity before the marriage of
 12 August 2014?
 13 A. Are you asking me have I read --
 14 Q. Have you received any medical records or 15 any documentation from any medical providers that the 16 ward was incapacitated prior to his marriage that took
 17 place, I believe, on August 25, 2014?
 18 A. I don't believe so.
 19 Q. Okay. Did you ask Dan Wein what his 20 medical or legal grounds were for Bob's incapacity prior
 21 to the marriage date of August 25?
 22 A. No.
 23 Q. Is this an e-mail from you to Dan Wein on 24 February 11, 2014?
 25 A. Yes.

1 A. Yes.
 2 Q. And you got a letter back from them,
 3 correct?
 4 A. I got a letter back from one of the cities.
 5 Q. And what did the letter say?
 6 A. The letter said they did not have any
 7 record.
 8 Q. Any record of what?
 9 A. They did not -- one of the letters I have 10 said they did not have a record of the divorce in one of 11 the cities that I applied.
 12 Q. What county did you look in?
 13 A. Kings County, Queens County, Brooklyn, New 14 York City, and then I have a state searching going on.
 15 Q. Any of these counties find a divorce?
 16 A. I have not heard from some of them.
 17 Q. Is this a copy of the letter that you got 18 from the county clerk, New York County?
 19 A. Yes.
 20 Q. What did that letter say?
 21 A. It says that New York County did not find a
 22 divorce record for between 1961 and 1963.
 23 Q. It didn't say that the records were 24 destroyed, did it?
 25 A. No.

1 Q. What does it say?
 2 A. It says, "What are your medical, legal
 3 grounds for Bob's incapacity before the marriage date of
 4 August 25?"
 5 Q. Did he respond to you?
 6 A. I, I don't remember.
 7 Q. Well, down below there is an e-mail trail.
 8 There is an e-mail from Dan Wein to you on February 11,
 9 2015 at 12:16 p.m.
 10 A. Yes.
 11 Q. So he did respond, correct?
 12 A. It says that he's going to put together a
 13 response.
 14 Q. And why are you having him do this?
 15 A. I don't have those records.
 16 Q. And did he provide any records to you?
 17 A. I, I don't remember exactly what he
 18 provided. It's in the files.
 19 Q. Well, you're asking for medical, legal
 20 grounds for Bob's incapacity.
 21 Did he provide that to you?
 22 A. I can't tell you exactly what he provided.
 23 It's in the files.
 24 MR. ROSENWATER: Your Honor, I would like
 25 to have this entered as Exhibit No. 4.

1 MS. MORRIS: No objection.
 2 THE COURT: Vita Wein's Exhibit 4 in
 3 evidence without objection.
 4 (Respondent's Exhibit 4, February 11, 2015
 5 e-mail chain, was received in evidence.)
 6 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
 7 Q. Did you have a meeting with the ward and
 8 yourself and Ellen Morris on February 9, 2015 regarding
 9 annulling the marriage?
 10 A. I believe that's the date, yes.
 11 Q. And after you had that meeting, you're 12 corresponding with Dan Wein about grounds to annul the
 13 marriage?
 14 A. I can't remember exactly.
 15 Q. Do you remember what grounds he provided to 16 you to annul the marriage?
 17 A. Not exactly.
 18 Q. Do you communicate with Stacey Wein?
 19 A. On occasion.
 20 Q. Do you e-mail with her?
 21 A. Occasionally.
 22 Q. Did you receive an e-mail from her dated
 23 April 10, 2015?
 24 A. Yes.
 25 Q. Okay. And does she have concerns about

1 Q. Wasn't it about another guardianship when
 2 she was pursuing an annulment?
 3 MS. MORRIS: Objection, Your Honor. It's
 4 irrelevant and hearsay, Your Honor.
 5 THE COURT: It's irrelevant. Sustained.
 6 MR. ROSENWATER: I'd like to enter this as
 7 Exhibit 5.
 8 MS. MORRIS: No objection to the e-mail.
 9 THE COURT: Vita Wein's Exhibit 5 is
 10 introduced in evidence without objection.
 11 (Respondent's Exhibit 5, April 10, 2015
 12 e-mail, was received in evidence.)
 13 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
 14 Q. Did you receive an e-mail from Dan Wein on 15 April 13, 2015?
 16 A. Yes.
 17 Q. What did that e-mail involve?
 18 A. It says -- it's talking about the
 19 annulment.
 20 Q. Did you explain to him, or did you have any
 21 discussions with him at the meeting on February 9, 2015
 22 that you had with Ellen Morris, that Bob expressed his 23 desire to remain married to Vita and to provide for her?
 24 A. I don't think so, no.
 25 Q. Has Bob had, Robert Wein had any

1 Ellen Morris bringing the annulment proceedings or the
 2 petition?
 3 A. I can't say to that.
 4 Q. In that e-mail she says, "Betsy, I saw an
 5 article you mentioned to my father regarding Ellen
 6 Morris."
 7 What was that article about?
 8 A. I can't say.
 9 Q. You don't recall?
 10 A. I can't say that I mentioned that to her
 11 father.
 12 Q. Do you know what article she is referring 13 to?
 14 A. I'm aware of an article but...
 15 Q. What article are you aware of?
 16 MS. MORRIS: Objection, Your Honor. It's
 17 hearsay.
 18 THE COURT: Overruled.
 19 THE WITNESS: I'm aware there was an
 20 article in the paper concerning Ellen Morris.
 21 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
 22 Q. In the Palm Beach Post?
 23 A. Yes.
 24 Q. What was the article about?
 25 A. It was about -- I don't know exactly.

1 discussions with you stating that he wishes to remain
 2 married to Vita Wein?
 3 A. He has had discussions with me, yes.
 4 Q. Stating that he wishes to remain married to
 5 Vita Wein, correct?
 6 A. He did say that, yes.
 7 Q. And he said he wanted to take care of her
 8 as well?
 9 A. Yes.
 10 Q. And he said he wanted to take care of his 11 wife, correct?
 12 A. He did say that over the phone, yes.
 13 MR. ROSENWATER: I believe we're on No. 6.
 14 THE COURT: Any objection to Vita Wein's
 15 Exhibit No. 6?
 16 MS. MORRIS: No Your Honor.
 17 THE COURT: Vita Wein's Exhibit No. 6 is 18 entered into evidence without objection.
 19 (Respondent's Exhibit 6, April 13, 2015
 20 e-mail, was received in evidence.)
 21 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
 22 Q. Did you receive an e-mail from Dan Wein on
 23 April 14, 2015?
 24 A. Yes. This is from Dan to me.
 25 Q. And in the body of the e-mail, there is a

1 paragraph that is numbered 3. Do you see that?

2 A. Three, yes.

3 Q. Dan Wein states to you, "You mentioned to
4 me that Ellen filed a petition to scare Vita and Jodi
5 into dropping various eviction proceedings. If this were 6 the case, we would think that Ellen has intention to 7 proceed with litigation."

8 Do you recall that?

9 A. From reading it right here. I suspect it
10 may be in violation of the Florida Bar Code, yes.

11 Q. What petition is he talking about? Is that 12 petition to annul and the petition to amend the trust?

13 A. You know, I can't state what his intentions
14 in this e-mail are.

15 Q. But it said, you mentioned to me that Ellen
16 filed the petitions to scare Vita.

17 I'm asking you: What petitions is he
18 referring to?

19 A. I can't say that this is true what he is
20 saying.

21 Q. I'm not asking if it's true or not. As of 22 April 14, 2014, what petitions did you file on behalf of 23 the guardian in these proceeding?

24 MS. MORRIS: Your Honor, objection. First
25 of all, asked and answered. It assumes facts that

1 BY MR. ROSENWATER:

2 Q. I believe earlier you testified to one of
3 the reasons or one of the bases for proceeding with the 4 petition to have an attorney appointed to annul the
5 marriage was based upon the report of the court-appointed
6 counsel.

7 Is that correct, or did I misunderstand
8 you?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. That is correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And you read that report, correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And in that report -- that was prepared by 15 Mitchell Kitroser; is that correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And he was a court-appointed attorney for 18 the Ward Robert Wein?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. In that report, he states that Mr. Wein
21 recalls that he remarried his former wife Vita and wishes
22 to remain married; is that correct?

23 MS. MORRIS: Objection, Your Honor, I don't
24 believe Ms. Savitt has been provided a copy of the 25 report that was written almost a year ago or eight

2 Counsel is asking Ms. Savitt to interpret
3 the intention or mind of the writer of the e-mail.
4 Just because he states in his e-mail, you said
5 this to me, Ms. Savitt has not -- in fact, she 6 disputed that she ever said it. The questions are 7 improper.

8 THE COURT: Sustained.

9 BY MR. ROSENWATER:

10 Q. Did you retain an attorney, an eviction
11 attorney on behalf of Robert Wein's son in New Jersey?

12 MS. MORRIS: Objection, Your Honor.
13 Irrelevant and outside the scope of direct and 14 outside the scope of the petition.

15 MR. ROSENWATER: I'll withdraw the 16 question. I'd like to enter this e-mail as
17 Exhibit 7.

18 THE COURT: Which number are we up to?

19 THE CLERK: We're at 7.

20 THE COURT: Seven. Okay. Exhibit 7 will
21 be admitted into evidence without objection.

22 MS. MORRIS: No objection.

23 (Respondent's Exhibit 7, April 14, 2014
24 e-mail, was received in evidence.)

1 months ago.

2 I would say that the document speaks for
3 itself. It's in the court file.

4 THE COURT: It's something I plan to read
5 before I rule in this matter so...

6 BY MR. ROSENWATER:

7 Q. Can you look on page 5 of the report? You
8 see where it says, "Stipulation as to the rights to be 9 removed"?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. Can you read the first six sentences
12 to yourself?

13 MS. MORRIS: Objection, Your Honor. This
14 is irrelevant. It's in the court file. I asked
15 the Court to take judicial notice.

16 THE COURT: Sustained. I'm going to read
17 it before I make a decision.

18 MR. ROSENWATER: I would like the Court to 19 take judicial notice of the report of the 20 court-appointed counsel.

21 THE COURT: All right. You want to hand me
22 a copy of it?

23 MR. ROSENWATER: Sure.

24 THE COURT: I'll take judicial notice of
25 this report.

1 BY MR. ROSENWATER:

2 Q. You do recall having your deposition taken
3 in this matter, don't you?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. During your deposition, did I ask you if 6 the ward has sufficient assets to support himself and his
7 wife?

8 A. I believe you did.

9 Q. And do you recall what your answer was?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Yes, he does?

12 A. Well, it's all relative I guess.

13 Q. And who filed this petition? It wasn't
14 Vita Wein, correct?

15 A. Which petition?

16 Q. The one before the Court today.

17 A. No, it was the guardianship.

18 MR. ROSENWATER: I don't have any further
19 questions.

20 THE COURT: Redirect?

21 MS. MORRIS: Yes, Your Honor, just a little 22 please.

23 REDIRECT EXAMINATION ELIZABETH SAVITT

24 BY MS. MORRIS:

25 Q. Ms. Savitt, did you ever solicit any

1 Exhibit J --

2 MS. MORRIS: And I'll approach, Your Honor,
3 if that's okay.

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 BY MS. MORRIS:

6 Q. Mr. Rosenwater asked you to read this
7 e-mail, the best approach, et cetera.

8 Did you ever ask for Dan Wein to send that
9 e-mail to you and give his opinion?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Is Dan Wein a lawyer?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Did you base your decision of bringing this
14 petition in February on an e-mail that was written to you
15 four months prior by Dan Wein?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Did you and I have, without saying the 18 content of our discussions, have discussions regarding 19 the legality and the proper procedure and whether or not 20 to bring this petition?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Now, when you testified pursuant to
23 Mr. Rosenwater's question that Robert Wein at one point
24 on the phone told you that he didn't want to get an 25 annulment or annul his marriage to Vita, and he wanted to

1 e-mails from Dan Wein?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Did you ever solicit any e-mails from
4 Stacey Wein?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Do you have a block on your computer that
7 doesn't allow you to receive e-mails from Dan Wein?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Do you have a block on your computer that
10 doesn't allow you to receive e-mails from Stacey Wein?

11 A. No.

12 Q. When they e-mail you, is everything that 13 they say within the e-mail correct?

14 A. No.

15 Q. In fact, one of the examples that I pointed
16 out to the Judge was one of Dan's e-mails said that you
17 stated something to him. It's in the exhibit, that you
18 stated after meeting with Ellen Morris, something about
19 the annulment.

20 Did you ever make that statement to Dan
21 Wein --

22 A. No.

23 Q. -- that you recall?

24 A. No.

25 Q. And so the e-mail, which was Respondent's

1 keep supporting Vita; right?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Did those statements occur on the same
4 phone call?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. What day did they occur? Is there a date
7 that stands out in your mind and why you know when this
8 telephone call occurred?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. What date was it?

11 A. It was the same day as the initial
12 deposition.

13 Q. Of who?

14 A. Of my deposition by Mr. Rosenwater.

15 Q. So the same day that you gave your 16 deposition. A couple hours later, was it?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. You received a call from Robert Wein,
19 correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Does Robert Wein typically call you?

22 A. Never. Well, not never. Seldom.

23 Q. When he called you, did you hear anybody in 24 the background?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Who did you hear?
 2 A. I heard voices, and I asked him who was
 3 with him.
 4 Q. And what did he tell you?
 5 MR. ROSENWATER: Objection. Hearsay.
 6 THE COURT: Sustained.
 7 MS. MORRIS: She is talking about what the 8 ward testified to, Your Honor. It would be an 9 admission in his own best interest. She stands in 10 the shoes of the ward.
 11 THE COURT: All right. Overruled.
 12 MS. MORRIS: Thank you.
 13 BY MS. MORRIS:
 14 Q. What did Mr. Wein, Robert Wein, your ward,
 15 tell you?
 16 A. He told me that Jodi Wein and Vita Wein
 17 were there.
 18 Q. And you said Jodi Wein. Did you mean Jodi
 19 Rich?
 20 A. Yes.
 21 Q. Was Jodi Rich present at your deposition?
 22 A. Yes.
 23 Q. And he told you that Jodi Rich and Vita
 24 Wein were there when he called you?
 25 A. Yes.

1 Q. What did he say? He said I don't want to
 2 get annulled from Vita?
 3 A. Yes.
 4 Q. And what did you answer?
 5 A. I asked him who was there with him.
 6 Q. And what did he then do?
 7 A. He said -- he told me the two names.
 8 Q. Did he say anything else to anyone else
 9 that was in the room?
 10 A. Then he turned around to them -- well,
 11 actually, after he said that, I told him that I was going
 12 to see him on Friday, couple days later, and he turned 13 around and was talking to them and telling them the 14 answer was --
 15 MR. ROSENWATER: Objection. Move to
 16 strike. She doesn't know what he did.
 17 MS. MORRIS: Your Honor, this is exactly
 18 what she heard her ward say. It's not hearsay,
 19 and she is repeating what she --
 20 THE COURT: She can testify as to what she 21 heard.
 22 MR. ROSENWATER: She is testifying he
 23 turned around.
 24 BY MS. MORRIS:
 25 Q. What did the ward say?

1 A. The ward did not speak directly into the
 2 phone. It sounded like he spoke away from the phone, and
 3 he said, she will be here on Friday. I asked him who he
 4 was speaking to and he told me.
 5 Q. Who did he say he was speaking to?
 6 A. He said Jodi Rich and Vita Wein.
 7 Q. Did you form an impression of whether Bob
 8 Wein, your ward, was acting on his own accord by making
 9 that phone call to you?
 10 A. Yes.
 11 Q. And what was your impression?
 12 A. I thought it was entirely, 100 percent
 13 coerced.
 14 Q. By whom?
 15 A. By Jodi Rich and Vita Wein.
 16 Q. You heard all the questions that 17 Mr. Rosenwater asked you, and you're here in a fiduciary
 18 capacity. You serve at the pleasure of the court.
 19 Did any of the questions that he asked you
 20 change your opinion or change your mind about seeking the 21 annulment on behalf of Bob?
 22 A. No.
 23 MS. MORRIS: Nothing further, Your Honor.
 24 MR. ROSENWATER: Can I cross-examine her?
 25 THE COURT: You did cross-examination.

1 MR. ROSENWATER: Just on one point.
 2 THE COURT: Okay.
 3 RE-CROSS-EXAMINATION ELIZABETH SAVITT
 4 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
 5 Q. Ms. Savitt, you testified earlier that you
 6 recall that your deposition was taken by me in this case,
 7 correct?
 8 A. Yes.
 9 Q. And you recall when I asked you on page 153
 10 of your deposition, page 3 --
 11 MR. ROSENWATER: I don't have an extra copy
 12 for the Court. I apologize, but it's been filed
 13 with the Court.
 14 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
 15 Q. I said, "On May 20th, did he have
 16 discussions with you regarding this marriage to Vita?"
 17 Do you recall when I asked that question?
 18 A. No, and I don't understand the context.
 19 May 20th?
 20 Q. I asked you: "On May 20th, did he have 21 discussions with you regarding his marriage to Vita?"
 22 That was lines 3 and 4 on page --
 23 A. But I don't know what you're referring to.
 24 You're asking me. I don't know what you're referring to.
 25 Which discussions and when?

Page 70

1 Q. The question that I asked you on June 10,
 2 2015 on page 153, line 3 and 4:
 3 "Question: And on May 20th, did he have
 4 discussions with you regarding his marriage to
 5 Vita?"
 6 A. Okay. So on May 20th, did I have
 7 discussions with him, or you're asking me on May 20th?
 8 Q. That was the question I asked you at the
 9 deposition.
 10 Do you recall that question?
 11 MS. MORRIS: Your Honor, in the beginning,
 12 I think it was setting the stage for a question.
 13 Now I think it's improper impeachment. I ask Your 14 Honor to ask Mr. Rosenwater to ask a proper
 15 question. If he needs to impeach her, he can.
 16 THE COURT: It is improper impeachment.
 17 I'll sustain the objection.
 18 MR. ROSENWATER: Your Honor, can I read for 19 the record what her testimony was?
 20 THE COURT: Sure.
 21 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
 22 Q. On page 153, line 3 and 4:
 23 "Question: On May 20th, did he have 24 discussions with you regarding his marriage to
 25 Vita?"

Page 71

1 The answer:
 2 "Answer: It wasn't a discussion, no."
 3 My question on lines 6 and 7:
 4 "Question: Did he say anything about his
 5 marriage being annulled?"
 6 Your answer was no. On lines 9 and 10:
 7 "Question: Did he say he wanted to be
 8 married to Vita?
 9 Answer: Possibly.
 10 Question: Well, what did he have to say to
 11 you?
 12 Answer: I don't have it written in front
 13 of me.
 14 Question: So you had a telephone
 15 conversation on May 20th with Robert Wein. If it
 16 was on that day, would it be reflected in your
 17 billing records?
 18 Answer: Yes.
 19 Question: So your billing records would 20 indicate what you talked" --
 21 MS. MORRIS: I have to object at this
 22 point, Your Honor.
 23 THE COURT: I plan on reading her
 24 deposition before I rule.
 25 You have it filed, correct?

Page 72

1 MR. ROSENWATER: Yes.
 2 MS. MORRIS: If I could just ask one more
 3 question to clarify.
 4 THE COURT: Yes.
 5 REDIRECT EXAMINATION ELIZABETH SAVITT
 6 BY MS. MORRIS:
 7 Q. The question seems to be directed to
 8 May 20th.
 9 The phone call that you and I just talked
 10 about did not occur on May 20th, did it?
 11 A. It occurred the same day as the first
 12 deposition. I don't have that date in front of me.
 13 MS. MORRIS: Thank you. Nothing further,
 14 Your Honor.
 15 THE COURT: You may step down, Ms. Savitt.
 16 (ELIZABETH SAVITT excused at 3:23 p.m.)
 17 THE COURT: Do you have any other
 18 witnesses?
 19 MS. MORRIS: I do. Just one. Daniel Wein,
 20 Your Honor.
 21 THE COURT: Okay. We'll take a five-minute
 22 recess and reconvene at 3:30.
 23 MS. MORRIS: Thank you.
 24 (A brief recess was taken from 3:23 p.m. to 25 3:30 p.m.)

Page 73

1 THE COURT: You may call your next witness,
 2 Ms. Morris.
 3 MS. MORRIS: Thank you, Your Honor. I call
 4 Daniel Wein.
 5 You don't mind if I remain seated, Your
 6 Honor?
 7 THE COURT: I don't mind.
 8 Thereupon,
 9 DANIEL WEIN,
 10 having been first duly sworn or affirmed, was examined
 11 and testified as follows:
 12 THE WITNESS: I do.

 2 Q. Let me stop you. What did he tell you
 3 about the divorce, please?
 4 A. Well, he told me -- he told me that if he,
 5 if he was still married --
 6 MS. MORRIS: I'm sorry, Your Honor. I
 7 thought it was off.
 8 THE COURT: That's fine.
 9 BY MS. MORRIS:
 10 Q. Go ahead.
 11 A. He told me if Vita had not divorced him, he 12 would be dead. The reason he told me that is because --
 13 MR. ROSENWATER: Objection.
 14 THE WITNESS: I asked him --
 15 THE COURT: Wait. When he makes an
 16 objection, you need to stop and let me rule on it.
 17 MR. ROSENWATER: He doesn't know the reason
 18 why someone told him something. He can't 19 speculate.
 20 THE COURT: Unless you are relaying exactly
 21 what your brother told you, you can't speculate on 22 why he told you.
 23 THE WITNESS: Well, I can tell you exactly
 24 what he told me.
 25 THE COURT: Yes.

1 Q. Were you aware of a marriage to Vita Wein?
 2 A. Yes. In fact, I was at the marriage. I
 3 believe they were married in 1958.
 4 Q. That was my next question, whether you were

 20 MR. ROSENWATER: Hearsay.
 21 BY MS. MORRIS:
 22 Q. Who were you told by?
 23 A. By my brother.
 24 Q. What did he tell you?
 25 A. For one thing, Robert was very, very kind

1 THE WITNESS: I asked him why he was so
 2 kind financially to Vita.
 3 BY MS. MORRIS:
 4 Q. When was this?
 5 A. This was -- he said this many times, but I
 6 would say that he told me that within the past five
 7 years. And he said, I'm -- I help Vita out because if 8 she had not divorced me, I would be dead. That's 9 probably a quote.
 10 Q. Okay. If she had not divorced me. So
 11 reaffirming they were divorced?
 12 A. Exactly.
 13 Q. Was Vita invited to any family dinners from 14 1963 on?
 15 A. No.
 16 Q. Did you have family dinners with Robert?

 19 between 1963 and 2014?
 20 MR. ROSENWATER: Objection, Your Honor
 21 Hearsay.
 22 THE WITNESS: Yes.
 23 MR. ROSENWATER: Objection. Relevancy.
 24 THE COURT: When he makes an objection,
 25 don't answer.

Page 78

1 THE WITNESS: I couldn't hear him.
2 MR. ROSENWATER: It's not relevant.
3 THE COURT: Overruled.
4 BY MS. MORRIS:
5 Q. You can answer. Did he have female
6 companions?
7 A. Yes, he did.
8 Q. How many?
9 A. I would say --
10 MR. ROSENWATER: Objection. Irrelevant.
11 THE COURT: Overruled.
12 BY MS. MORRIS:
13 Q. Go ahead.
14 THE COURT: You can answer.
15 THE WITNESS: Three at least.
16 BY MS. MORRIS:
17 Q. Were any of those relationships
18 longstanding?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. For how many years would you say?
21 A. I would say the last one he had was 22 probably, probably existed for eight, nine years.
23 Q. Do you know if he married any of those 24 three that you know about?
25 A. No. He never married them, but I believe

Page 79

1 he was engaged to --
2 MR. ROSENWATER: Objection.
3 THE COURT: Overruled.
4 BY MS. MORRIS:
5 Q. Go ahead.
6 MR. ROSENWATER: He said, "I believe." He
7 doesn't know.
8 THE COURT: Okay.
9 THE WITNESS: That's just an expression.
10 He was engaged to at least one of those ladies.
11 BY MS. MORRIS:
12 Q. And how do you know he was engaged? Do you
13 have any knowledge of him buying a ring or proposing?
14 A. He told me he was engaged.
15 Q. Did your children ever meet Vita Wein prior 16 to these proceedings?
17 A. No, not that I know of. I don't think so.
18 Q. Now, I'm going to show you what I'd like to 19 have marked as Petitioner's Exhibit 2 for identification
20 and ask if you recognize that.
21 MR. ROSENWATER: Can I see a copy of it?
22 THE WITNESS: Yes.
23 MS. MORRIS: I'm going to provide you a
24 copy in just a minute.
25 Your Honor, I'm showing a copy to counsel.

Page 80

1 I do not have a copy of it, Your Honor. I'm going
2 to ask if your clerk would make us a copy. I
3 didn't anticipate having to use this today. I'm
4 sorry I didn't come prepared, but if we could make
5 copies, I would greatly appreciate it.
6 THE COURT: All right.
7 BY MS. MORRIS:
8 Q. You said you recognize that. What is it?
9 A. It's a letter from my brother to me telling
10 me what to do in case he died. He indicated --
11 Q. Well, please don't read what is in the 12 letter. I'm going to have it admitted into evidence, and 13 the Judge can read that letter.
14 That letter, when did it come from Robert
15 to you?
16 A. That -- the first one came to me probably 17 about, I would say --
18 MR. ROSENWATER: Objection.
19 THE WITNESS: -- eight, nine years ago.
20 MR. ROSENWATER: He is asking about when 21 that letter, the first one --
22 MS. MORRIS: I'm going to clarify that,
23 Your Honor.
24 THE COURT: Okay.
25

Page 81

1 BY MS. MORRIS:
2 Q. When did this letter arrive to you, please,
3 the one in your hand?
4 A. The one in my hand, probably about five
5 years ago I would say.
6 Q. Okay. And how did it --
7 A. Approximately.
8 Q. How did you receive that letter? Was it by 9 mail or e-mail?
10 A. No. He actually gave it to me. My brother
11 used to visit every January or February.
12 MR. ROSENWATER: Objection. Nonresponsive.
13 THE COURT: Sustained.
14 MS. MORRIS: Your Honor, sorry.
15 BY MS. MORRIS:
16 Q. Mr. Wein, just tell me: How did you
17 receive that letter?
18 A. He personally gave it to me.
19 Q. He personally handed it to you. Okay.
20 That letter lists a number of people who
21 should be invited to his funeral.
22 I think you said about five, six years ago;
23 right?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. Does it list Vita Wein as a person who

Page 82

1 should be invited to his funeral?
2 A. No.
3 Q. And it lists a lot of instructions about
4 what should happen after he dies, right?
5 A. Correct.
6 Q. And does it make any mention of Vita Wein?
7 A. No.
8 Q. And does it make mention of all the rest of 9 his loving family and friends that he had at the time?
10 A. Yes. As a matter of fact, in one
11 particular case, he --
12 MR. ROSENWATER: Objection.
13 THE WITNESS: -- said, not Vita.
14 MR. ROSENWATER: Nonresponsive. He said it
15 made mention, not what it said.
16 THE COURT: Overruled.
17 MR. SCHLESINGER: He keeps interrupting the 18 witness before he finishes.
19 THE COURT: He is trying to object before
20 he answers.
21 MR. SCHLESINGER: Well, as long as the 22 record is clear that there was a full answer to
23 that.
24 MR. ROSENWATER: Your Honor, I think we 25 have been lenient but now --

Page 83

1 MR. SCHLESINGER: But I represent the
2 witness, so that's why I'm raising an objection.
3 THE COURT: I instruct you, don't
4 interrupt.
5 MR. SCHLESINGER: Yes, Your Honor.
6 MS. MORRIS: Thank you, Your Honor.
7 BY MS. MORRIS:
8 Q. Mr. Wein, does the letter written by Bob
9 make any specific mention of Vita Wein in your hand?
10 A. I think in one particular case, it does
11 mention Vita, and it indicates that she should not be --
12 MR. ROSENWATER: Objection. He said makes
13 mention, not what it said.
14 MS. MORRIS: I'll ask the witness to use
15 more precise language, Your Honor.
16 THE COURT: Thank you.
17 BY MS. MORRIS:
18 Q. Using more precise language, what does the 19 letter state regarding Vita Wein?
20 A. I have to look at it.
21 THE COURT: Go ahead.
22 THE WITNESS: Perhaps my attorney could
23 just point out what page that was on so I could
24 read it quickly.
25 THE COURT: Take a moment to read it.

Page 84

1 MR. SCHLESINGER: See, I was good. I
2 didn't say anything.
3 THE WITNESS: I can't seem to find it
4 immediately, but I remember it said, not Vita.
5 MR. ROSENWATER: Objection. Move to
6 strike.
7 THE COURT: I'm going to be reading the
8 letter.
9 It's going to be in evidence?
10 MS. MORRIS: I'm going to move that into
11 evidence, Your Honor.
12 THE WITNESS: There is another one here. I
13 can't just find that one particular item. I got 14 it. I have it. I have it.
15 It says -- I'll read it. "At the present
16 time, I'm the sole signatory. In the future, I
17 will try to add Larry, (not Vita) as an additional 18 signatory and advise him how to handle the," and 19 it goes on like that.
20 MS. MORRIS: I'd like to move that into
21 evidence, Your Honor.
22 THE COURT: Any objection, Mr. Rosenwater?
23 MR. ROSENWATER: No, Your Honor.
24 THE COURT: Petitioner's No. 2 in evidence
25 without objection.

Page 85

2 received in evidence.)
3 MS. MORRIS: Your Honor, she said you would
4 kindly make copies of this for us. Not you
5 personally, but have them made.
6 BY MS. MORRIS:
7 Q. Did you discuss with your brother the 8 filing of his tax returns?
9 A. Which tax returns?
10 Q. In general, his own tax returns.
11 MR. ROSENWATER: Your Honor, I'm going to 12 object because they are going to say it's party
13 statements. I have not had an opportunity to 14 cross-examine Robert Wein because he is 15 incapacitated at this point and in guardianship.
16 As far as I'm concerned, this is all
17 hearsay because I have not had the opportunity to 18 cross-examine anyone.
19 THE COURT: Overruled.
20 BY MS. MORRIS:
21 Q. Did you ever discuss with your brother
22 regarding the filing of his tax returns?
23 A. Not all -- recently of his recent tax
24 returns, yes.
25 Q. Do you know how he filed, married or

Page 86

1 single?

2 A. Single.

3 Q. Do you know if your brother prepared tax

4 returns for Vita Wein?

5 A. I understand that he did.

6 Q. Do you know that from your own personal

7 knowledge? Did he tell you so?

8 A. No.

9 MS. MORRIS: I have nothing further. Your

10 Honor.

11 THE COURT: Cross-examination?

12 MR. ROSENWATER: I don't have any

13 questions.

14 THE COURT: You may step down. Watch your

15 step.

16 (DANIEL WEIN excused at 3:42 p.m.)

17 THE COURT: Any other witnesses?

18 MS. MORRIS: No, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Mr. Rosenwater?

20 MR. ROSENWATER: Your Honor, I would like

21 to call Vita Wein. Maybe I'll move the microphone

22 closer.

23 Thereupon,

24 VITA WEIN,

25 having been first duly sworn or affirmed, was examined

Page 87

1 and testified as follows:

2 THE WITNESS: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Thank you.

4 DIRECT EXAMINATION VITA WEIN

5 BY MS. MORRIS:

6 Q. Can you please state your name.

7 A. My name is Vita. My name is Vita, V-I-T-A

8 Wein, W-E-I-N.

9 Q. And what is your relationship to Robert

10 Wein?

11 A. I'm married to him.

12 Q. And when did you marry Robert Wein?

13 A. I married him in 1958.

14 MR. ROSENWATER: Your Honor, if you give me

15 one second, please.

16 BY MS. MORRIS:

17 Q. Vita, is this a true and correct copy of 18 the marriage license to Robert Wein?

19 A. Yes.

20 MR. ROSENWATER: Your Honor, I would like

21 to enter this as Exhibit No. 8. Is it 8?

22 THE COURT: I think we're up to 8.

23 THE CLERK: Yes, Your Honor, No. 8.

24 THE COURT: Any objection?

25 MS. MORRIS: No objection, Your Honor, but

Page 88

1 I'd like to state for the record this was

2 requested in our request for production and it was

3 not produced.

4 THE COURT: Is there an objection to it?

5 MS. MORRIS: No.

6 THE COURT: Now you have it. So Exhibit 8

7 will be admitted into evidence.

8 (Respondent's Exhibit 8, marriage license,

9 was received in evidence.)

10 BY MS. MORRIS:

11 Q. Did you and Robert have a wedding?

12 A. Yes, we did.

13 Q. And where was the ceremony?

14 A. At the Broadway Central Hotel, which no

15 longer exists.

16 Q. Was his brother invited to the wedding?

17 A. I don't remember.

18 Q. Let me -- is this a picture of your

19 wedding?

20 A. Yes, one of the many pictures.

21 Q. And you still keep your wedding album and 22 pictures of your wedding?

23 A. I don't put them away.

24 Q. But you ---

25 A. I know these pictures.

Page 89

1 Q. But you still kept them?

2 A. Yes. We had a very orthodox wedding,

3 Jewish wedding.

4 MR. ROSENWATER: I'd like to enter this.

5 THE COURT: Show her.

6 MS. MORRIS: I have no objection.

7 THE COURT: This is Vita Wein Exhibit 9?

8 MR. ROSENWATER: Yes.

9 (Respondent's Exhibit 9, wedding picture,

10 was received in evidence.)

11 BY MR. ROSENWATER:

12 Q. Did you and Robert have a child?

13 A. Yes, we did.

14 Q. What is his name and date of birth?

15 A. Larry Warren Wein, W-E-I-N. The date of

16 birth is April 19, 1960.

17 Q. Did you have any other children with --

18 A. No.

19 Q. -- Robert? No? What was your relationship

20 with Dan Wein and his family?

21 A. I had no relationship with them.

22 Q. Why didn't you have a relationship with

23 them?

24 A. He wasn't close to his brother, and his

25 brother -- he wasn't accepted in his brother's home.

Page 90

1 Q. And were you accepted in his brother's
2 home?
3 A. No.
4 Q. In 1960, did you have marital difficulties
5 with Robert?
6 A. I don't remember exactly.
7 Q. Did there come a time when you hired an
8 attorney?
9 A. Yes. A friend of mine, yes.
10 Q. When was that? Do you recall?
11 A. It was after my son was born.
12 Q. And did that attorney prepare a marital
13 settlement agreement?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. Did Robert have an attorney?
16 A. He used my attorney.
17 Q. So he didn't have his own attorney?
18 A. No.
19 Q. Did you ever file for a petition for 20 dissolution of marriage in New York?
21 A. No.
22 Q. Did Robert ever file for divorce in New 23 York?
24 A. I always thought he didn't do it.
25 Q. You were never served with a final

Page 91

1 judgment?
2 A. No, I was never served with any papers.
3 Q. So you were not aware of any divorce
4 proceeding?
5 A. No.
6 MS. MORRIS: Your Honor, I'm going to
7 object to the leading nature of these questions.
8 THE COURT: Sustained.
9 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
10 Q. Did Robert ever tell you that he filed for
11 divorce?
12 A. I don't remember. He didn't tell me
13 anything.
14 Q. But you never filed for divorce?
15 A. No.
16 Q. And after 1960, did you have a relationship
17 with Robert?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. And can you tell the Court what your 20 relationship with Robert was?
21 A. Well, he saw his son very often. He was 22 very close to Larry. We used to go out to dinner
23 together on Sundays, and he spent a lot of time with his 24 son.
25 Q. What about with you?

Page 92

1 A. Well, I was always there.
2 Q. What was your occupation?
3 A. I was a bookkeeper.
4 Q. Did Robert find jobs for you?
5 A. Oh, he gave me -- he was thrilled that I
6 was going to be able to help him with his work.
7 Q. Did he provide health insurance for you?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. Did he --
10 MS. MORRIS: Objection to the leading
11 nature of these questions, Your Honor.
12 THE COURT: Sustained.
13 MS. MORRIS: Leading the witness.
14 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
15 Q. Can you tell the Court what Robert provided
16 you over the years?
17 A. He provided me money when I needed money.
18 He used to go on gambling junkets and decided he would 19 give me the proceeds for his son so I'd know what he'd 20 like.
21 Q. Well, in 1960 when you met with an attorney
22 to file the separation agreement, do you recall what the 23 events were that --
24 THE COURT: Mr. Rosenwater, could you speak
25 up? You're facing away from me and I can't hear

Page 93

1 you.
2 MR. ROSENWATER: Oh, I'm sorry.
3 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
4 Q. In 1960 when you filed or when you had your 5 attorney prepare the marital settlement agreement, do you
6 recall the events that led to the filing of that marital
7 settlement agreement?
8 A. Well, I don't remember exactly, but it was 9 an agreement where he provided for his son.
10 Q. I understand that. But do you recall why
11 you went to an attorney at that time? Were you upset
12 with Robert?
13 A. Yes. I didn't like the fact he was not 14 around for certain things and to be taken care of.
15 Q. Any other things?
16 A. He liked women.
17 Q. And did that upset you?
18 A. Of course.
19 Q. But not enough to divorce him, correct?
20 A. Right.
21 Q. And over the years, can you tell the Court
22 -- could you start with what your relationship with 23 Robert was like?
24 A. I worked. I did work for Robert Wein, and 25 I did accounting work for him.

Page 94

1 Q. Did he provide for you?
 2 A. Yes.
 3 Q. How did he provide for you?
 4 A. Well, he would find me jobs, and he got me
 5 clients that were his clients to do accounting work in 6 their office.
 7 Q. What type -- what was Bob's occupation?
 8 A. He was a certified public accountant.
 9 Q. And did he do your tax returns?
 10 A. Yes.
 11 Q. And did you sign those tax returns?
 12 A. I don't remember really. When I had to 13 sign them, I signed them. I signed them, and then he 14 would file them for me. He always took care of mailing
 15 them.
 16 Q. Do you recall how he listed you on the tax
 17 returns?
 18 A. He listed me as separated married.
 19 Q. So he always listed you as being married?
 20 A. That's correct.
 21 Q. And you considered him to be your husband?
 22 A. Yes.
 23 Q. And did he provide health insurance for
 24 you?
 25 A. Yes, he did.

Page 95

1 Q. Do you recall what type of policy of health
 2 insurance?
 3 A. He gave me -- he covered my health
 4 insurance with AARP where he was a member, and I was 5 signed up as a spousal certificate, and that's when he
 6 covered me. He paid for all the expenses.
 7 Q. Were you always close with Robert?
 8 A. Yes, I was. He confided a lot of things, a
 9 lot of personal things to me.
 10 Q. What type of personal things did he confide
 11 in you?
 12 A. Well, he, he told me that his brother was 13 sick. When his brother had cancer, he informed me of 14 that. He was very upset and didn't know what he was 15 going to do.
 16 And he told me that he told him to speak to 17 some people that he knew, some people that they both
 18 knew, what they did to treat it, both of them.
 19 Q. Did he say anything else to you about his 20 brother or his family?
 21 A. I really didn't have a conversation with 22 him about his family.
 23 Q. Did you go to family events with Bob?
 24 A. I went to a lot of events with Bob.
 25 Q. Did you go to Florida with him to go to bat

Page 96

1 mitzvahs?
 2 A. I went to a bat mitzvah.
 3 Q. When was that?
 4 A. I don't remember.
 5 Q. Whose bat mitzvah was that?
 6 A. Jacquelyn Rich.
 7 Q. Do you know how old she is now?
 8 A. She is a young woman.
 9 Q. Young woman. Is she in her twenties?
 10 A. Something like that.
 11 Q. Was that about ten, twelve years ago?
 12 A. Yes, it was a long time ago.
 13 Q. And you went to -- did you go to other
 14 family events with Robert?
 15 A. No.
 16 Q. Did you ever visit Dan Wein in Florida?
 17 A. No.
 18 Q. Why not?
 19 A. Because I was never invited into his home.
 20 Q. Did you have some health issues in the last
 21 few years?
 22 A. Yes. I had a urinary tract infection.
 23 Q. Any other medical problems?
 24 A. I had a cut on my toe.
 25 MS. MORRIS: Objection, Your Honor.

Page 97

1 Relevance.
 2 THE COURT: I didn't hear. Could you
 3 repeat the question?
 4 MS. MORRIS: It's medical history.
 5 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
 6 Q. Were you put in a nursing home at some
 7 point?
 8 A. Yes, I was.
 9 Q. What nursing home was that?
 10 A. It was a Jewish nursing home I believe.
 11 Q. And where was that?
 12 A. The one he got me into was, I think was -- 13 they had it in the Bronx, the Bronx. I don't know too
 14 much about it.
 15 Q. Who put you there?
 16 A. Bob.
 17 Q. Did he pay for your stay there?
 18 A. Yes.
 19 Q. And when you were there, do you recall
 20 filling out any Medicaid applications?
 21 A. I never filled out any application.
 22 Q. Do you know if Bob filled out the Medicaid
 23 application?
 24 A. I have no idea.
 25 Q. This is a statement from the JHHA Nursing

Page 98

1 facility.
2 Have you seen that before? Is that the
3 facility that you were at?
4 A. I believe that was it. Bronx.
5 Q. Who were the bills made payable to in the 6 statement?
7 A. The statements were to Bob.
8 Q. What is the date of that statement?
9 A. The date of this is 8/31/2013.
10 Q. Thank you.
11 MR. ROSENWATER: I'd like to enter this as
12 Exhibit No. 10.
13 MS. MORRIS: I object to that, Your Honor.
14 It's a hearsay document. I've never seen it
15 before. I have no idea that it was kept in the 16 regular course of business. I don't know if that 17 bill was objected to by Robert Wein. I have to 18 object to that.
19 Just because it's a purported bill, we
20 don't know that it's the truth.
21 THE COURT: I'll sustain the objection.
22 MR. ROSENWATER: I'd like the Court to mark
23 it for identification purposes.
24 THE CLERK: Number 10, I.D. only?
25 THE COURT: Yes.

Page 99

2 was marked for identification.)
3 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
4 Q. How has Robert's health been in the last
5 few years?
6 A. In the last few years, it hasn't been too
7 terrific.
8 Q. Did he have health problems in 2013?
9 A. I believe he did. He got real sick.
10 Q. Was he hospitalized?
11 A. I believe he was.
12 Q. Did his brother come to visit him during 13 that period of time?
14 A. I remember that his brother didn't come to 15 see him at all. I don't understand why he didn't come to 16 see him. He was -- he wasn't there. I don't know.
17 Q. And did Robert ever say anything about his 18 brother and monies?
19 A. Not to me. He said other things to me
20 about monies.
21 Q. Who did?
22 A. Bob.
23 Q. What did Bob tell you about money?
24 A. He had some cash in his safety -- and we 25 had a little more, and he was putting cash in that safe.

Page 100

1 Q. And did anyone take that cash to you know?
2 A. I don't know if I --
3 MS. MORRIS: Objection, Your Honor.
4 Irrelevant.
5 THE COURT: What was the question again?
6 MR. ROSENWATER: I asked if anyone took
7 that cash.
8 THE WITNESS: I believe his brother went to 9 the --
10 MS. MORRIS: Objection, Your Honor.
11 Outside the scope of this witness's knowledge.
12 THE COURT: Sustained.
13 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
14 Q. When did you move to Florida?
15 A. I believe I came to Florida in July of last 16 year.
17 Q. Did anyone ask you to?
18 A. Bob spoke to me and asked me if I would
19 come to Florida.
20 Q. Why did he want to come to Florida?
21 A. Because there was no member of his family
22 that he was close to.
23 Q. And did he want you -- why did he want you
24 to come to Florida besides that? Any other reasons?
25 A. I don't remember all the details.

Page 101

1 Q. Was Bob living in Florida at that time when
2 he asked you in July of 2014?
3 A. I think what happened is he was being taken
4 care of by someone named Dolores, and Dolores was taking
5 care of him. Danny came to New York finally to see him
6 in the hospital, and he made an agreement with Dolores
7 that she would come to Florida so Bob could make it in 8 Florida.
9 Q. Dolores was the caregiver?
10 A. Exactly. She came here and found an 11 apartment, and that's where he set up. He was living in 12 Florida with her.
13 Q. And he called you to move to Florida?
14 A. He suggested I come to Florida. He'd like 15 to see me, and he also told me that he wanted to protect
16 me. Come here to Florida to be with him and he can 17 protect me.
18 Q. And what did he mean by protecting you?
19 A. He wanted to protect me because he said --
20 MS. MORRIS: Objection, Your Honor. This
21 is outside the scope of this witness' knowledge,
22 what Robert Wein meant.
23 THE COURT: Sustained, unless she can
24 testify as to what he said to her.
25

Page 102

1 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
 2 Q. What did he say to you?
 3 A. He told me a few things. He told me that
 4 he would protect me from his brother and from our son
 5 Larry, and Bob felt that I would be closer to him and I
 6 could spend time. He wanted me to live with him.
 7 Q. Did you want to spend your last years
 8 together?
 9 A. Yes.
 10 Q. Tell me about your son Larry. Does he have 11 problems?
 12 A. He has problems.
 13 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Irrelevant.
 14 THE COURT: Sustained.
 15 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
 16 Q. When you came to Florida in July, did
 17 Robert pay for you to come?
 18 A. Yes. He told me that he would pay for my 19 trip to come to Florida, and he came up to -- I was in 20 Spring Valley. He paid my trip, and then he came with 21 Dolores and brought me back to Florida by train.
 22 Q. Sometime in July, it appears you and Bob
 23 went to the clerk's office in Delray.
 24 Do you recall that?
 25 A. Right.

Page 103

1 Q. Whose idea was it to go to the clerk's
 2 office?
 3 A. It was Bob's idea. He told me it would
 4 protect me that way and I would live with him.
 5 Q. What did you go to the clerk's office for?
 6 To renew your vows?
 7 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Leading.
 8 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
 9 Q. Why did you go to the clerk's office?
 10 A. To renew our vows for the simple reason I
 11 wasn't living with him.
 12 Q. Did anyone coerce you?
 13 A. No.
 14 Q. Did anyone have discussions regarding this?
 15 A. No.
 16 Q. Did anyone know about this?
 17 A. No, not until he went and took care of it.
 18 Q. Who took you to the clerk's office?
 19 A. I don't remember who drove us there.
 20 Q. And then when you pulled out the 21 application, did you fill out the application?
 22 A. No.
 23 Q. Did you tell anyone that you were divorced
 24 in 1963?
 25 A. No.

Page 104

1 Q. Were you divorced in 1963?
 2 A. Obviously, I never got papers saying I was
 3 divorced.
 4 Q. You were not aware of any divorce
 5 proceedings?
 6 A. No.
 7 Q. Did Bob tell anyone, when you filled out
 8 the application, that you were divorced in 1963?
 9 A. No.
 10 Q. And you didn't fill out that marriage
 11 certificate?
 12 A. No.
 13 Q. And then you got married, renewed your vows
 14 in August of 2014?
 15 A. Right.
 16 Q. And it was before a rabbi?
 17 A. A cantor.
 18 Q. Who was present --
 19 A. And he also was a rabbi.
 20 Q. Who was present at the ceremony?
 21 A. Bob and I. Oh, and he had a witness.
 22 Q. Do you know who the witness was?
 23 A. I don't remember.
 24 Q. Was it Jodi or Jerry Rich?
 25 A. No. She didn't even know I was in Florida

Page 105

1 at the time.
 2 Q. They didn't know you were getting married?
 3 A. No.
 4 Q. Did anyone know that you and Bob were
 5 getting married?
 6 A. No.
 7 Q. When you got -- when you went to the 8 clerk's office for the marriage application, did the 9 clerk do any type of questioning to determine --
 10 A. The clerk was the one that asked us certain 11 things, the information they needed pertaining to the 12 form to be filled out. And she was a woman. She asked
 13 us, and we were the ones that filled out my date of birth
 14 and all of that.
 15 Q. Where do you live right now?
 16 A. I am living in the Colony Club.
 17 Q. Where does your husband live?
 18 A. He lives there with me.
 19 Q. Do you have a room together?
 20 A. Yes.
 21 Q. Do you sleep in the same bed?
 22 A. Yes.
 23 Q. Do you do things together?
 24 A. Yes.
 25 Q. What do you do?

1 A. Well, we go to meals together. I don't

 3 Q. Have you had any discussions with the 9 Q. And either time did she speak to you?

 10 A. No.
 11 Q. Have you -- has Bob had any discussions
 12 with you regarding annulling your marriage?
 13 A. No.
 14 Q. Has Bob told you that he wants to remain
 15 married to you?
 16 A. That's what he told me.
 17 Q. What else has he told you?
 18 A. He told me that it's a form of protecting 19 me. He told me many times that he's interested in 20 protecting me.
 21 Q. And why does he want to protect you?
 22 A. I don't know. He feels that certain people
 23 have shortcomings that they deal with.
 24 Q. How is Bob's health?
 25 A. He's doing pretty well now. Right now he

1 finally -- Jodi wanted to help him get somebody to help
 2 him, you know, to see that he eats. And he had no desire
 3 at some point to even eat. Jodi wanted to get somebody
 4 to help him.
 5 Q. So there was a maid that came?
 6 A. Yes. And she came in and she spends -- now
 7 she -- it was just at the beginning she was there three
 8 hours a day, and she helped him until dinnertime. Now
 9 she is there five hours a day.
 10 Q. And when you were -- have you gone to the 11 hospital since you've been at the nursing home?
 12 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Irrelevant.
 13 MR. ROSENWATER: Can I ask one more
 14 question?
 15 THE COURT: State the question again.
 16 MR. ROSENWATER: I asked her if she's been 17 to the hospital since she's been at the nursing
 18 facility.
 19 THE COURT: You have a low voice. You're 20 speaking away from me.
 21 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
 22 Q. Have you been hospitalized since you've
 23 been at the Colony?
 24 A. Yes. I had pneumonia.
 25 Q. Is there an outstanding ambulance bill?

1 A. For $200.
 2 Q. Did you present that to the guardian?
 3 A. Yes, I mailed it to her.
 4 Q. Has she paid it?
 5 A. No.
 6 Q. Has she paid any of your bills?
 7 A. No. She pays my bills and things I have
 8 done at the Colony Club. I go to the beauty parlor. I
 9 have manicures. That's it.
 10 Q. And since you've been back in Florida, has 11 Robert given you money?
 12 A. He didn't give me money.
 13 Q. And you have not taken any money from him?
 14 A. No.
 15 MR. ROSENWATER: I don't have any further
 16 questions.
 17 THE COURT: Cross-examination?
 18 MS. MORRIS: Yes, Your Honor.
 19 CROSS-EXAMINATION VITA WEIN
 20 BY MS. MORRIS:
 21 Q. Mrs. Wein, you said that you saw a lawyer
 22 for a marital settlement agreement, a separation
 23 agreement, right?
 24 A. It was a separation agreement.
 25 Q. Separation agreement. I would like to show

1 you what is going to be marked as Petitioner's 3, thank
 2 you, for identification.
 3 (Petitioner's Exhibit 3, separation
 4 agreement, was marked for identification.)
 5 BY MS. MORRIS:
 6 Q. Do you recognize this?
 7 A. It was a long time ago and I don't really
 8 -- I know certain dates are true. That's what is there.
 9 Q. Isn't that the marital separation agreement
 10 that you signed?
 11 A. It's an agreement.
 12 MR. ROSENWATER: What she wants to know is 13 if that's your signature.
 14 BY MS. MORRIS:
 15 Q. It's dated September 17, 1960 on the first
 16 page, right?
 17 A. My son was born in 1960.
 18 Q. Can you turn to page 11? Is that your
 19 signature?
 20 A. Yes, that's my signature.
 21 Q. And you saw your initials on all the other
 22 pages, right?
 23 A. Right.
 24 MS. MORRIS: I'd like to move this into
 25 evidence, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Is this 11?
 2 MS. MORRIS: Petitioner's 3.
 3 THE COURT: Any objection?
 4 MR. ROSENWATER: No, Your Honor.
 5 THE COURT: Petitioner's Exhibit 3 admitted
 6 into evidence without objection.
 7 (Petitioner's Exhibit 3, separation
 8 agreement, was received in evidence.)
 9 BY MS. MORRIS:
 10 Q. After this marital separation agreement was 11 signed in 1960, you lived with Robert Wein --
 12 A. Right.
 13 Q. -- from 1960 until 2014 when you came to 14 Florida; is that correct?
 15 A. That's correct.
 16 Q. So that's about 54 years of my calculation,
 17 that you lived separately; correct?
 18 A. Correct.
 19 Q. During those years, Robert had some serious
 20 love interests and girlfriends along the way; right?
 21 MR. ROSENWATER: Objection to the form of 22 the question. I object to the form of the 23 question.
 24 THE COURT: Sustained.
 25

1 those bills?
 2 A. He was the one that got the bills from the
 3 nursing home.
 4 Q. Do you have any proof what you spent at the
 5 nursing home?
 6 A. I have no idea. It didn't come to me.
 7 Q. Robert was a certified public accountant, a
 8 CPA; correct?
 9 A. That's correct.
 10 Q. And he prepared tax returns for a living,
 11 right?
 12 A. That's correct.
 13 Q. And you signed the tax returns, right?
 14 A. The ones that he, involved me.
 15 Q. All of your tax returns you signed,
 16 correct?
 17 A. I signed them.
 18 Q. Do you have them here?
 19 A. I don't have any tax returns because he 20 kept them all, the copies.
 21 Q. So in the 64 years that you lived
 22 separately -- or 54 years, excuse me, that you lived
 23 separately, you didn't keep a copy of your own tax
 24 returns?
 25 A. No.

1 BY MS. MORRIS:
 2 Q. During those years, Robert had
 3 relationships with other women; correct?
 4 A. That's right.
 5 Q. Some for very long periods of time, right?
 6 A. Well, because he would become their
 7 accountant, and he did paperwork, accountant paperwork
 8 for them.
 9 Q. And you say that you don't remember whether 10 or not you were ever served with a final dissolution for 11 divorce?
 12 A. I don't remember receiving anything on a
 13 divorce.
 14 Q. You don't remember receiving anything.
 15 And have you ever been determined to be
 16 incapacitated mentally?
 17 A. No.
 18 Q. Do you recall your status at the nursing
 19 home and whether you received Medicaid?
 20 A. I don't know. If I received it, it wasn't
 21 my petition for it.
 22 Q. So how did your bills get paid?
 23 A. Well, I don't know. You have to ask Bob
 24 Wein. He was the one that paid them.
 25 Q. Do you have any proof that Bob Wein paid

1 Q. Now, you were married in Florida on
 2 August 6, 2014; correct?
 3 A. Yes.
 4 Q. And are you aware that two months later on 5 October 15, 2014, Robert was determined by this Court and
 6 after three doctors' reports to lack capacity?
 7 A. I don't know. I didn't read the reports
 8 and didn't go to the hospital to see him. He didn't want
 9 me to come.
 10 Q. So you don't know anything about that?
 11 A. I don't know anything about it.
 12 Q. During this whole proceeding that
 13 Mr. Rosenwater has been involved on your behalf, has he 14 been dealing with you, or has he been dealing with Jodi
 15 Rich?
 16 MR. ROSENWATER: Objection. Irrelevant.
 17 Attorney-client privilege.
 18 THE COURT: Sustained.
 19 BY MS. MORRIS:
 20 Q. Have you appointed Jodi Rich as your 21 attorney in fact?
 22 A. Right. She is my guardian.
 23 Q. She is your guardian? Was there an 24 incapacity proceeding that determined you needed a
 25 guardian?

Page 114

1 A. No. I just don't know what the future will
2 hold.
3 Q. And did you attend any of the depositions
4 of Mrs. Savitt?
5 MR. ROSENWATER: Objection. Irrelevant.
6 THE COURT: Sustained.
7 MS. MORRIS: Your Honor --
8 THE COURT: I don't know what you're trying 9 to show by whether she attended the deposition of 10 Ms. Savitt.
11 MS. MORRIS: I'll explain, if I can, with 12 another question.
13 What I'm trying to show is Vita Wein has no
14 knowledge and has no memory and has not
15 participated in any of these proceedings.
16 She has appointed her attorney in fact,
17 Jodi Rich. In fact, until today, Jodi Rich signed
18 the interrogatories that were directed to Vita
19 Wein. I think it's fair questioning, and it goes
20 to her credibility.
21 THE COURT: I'm going to sustain the
22 objection. I don't think it's relevant.
23 BY MS. MORRIS:
24 Q. You said that Bob was very upset when Dan
25 had prostate cancer, I think you said.

Page 115

1 A. Prostate cancer.
2 Q. And Bob was very upset about that, right?
3 A. Yes. He was very upset because Dan thought
4 he was going to die right away. He was very upset.
5 Q. He was close with his brother?
6 A. Well, he was interested in him. He did a
7 lot of things to help his brother.
8 Q. And they had an ongoing relationship?
9 A. As far as I know. I know that -- I don't
10 know. I wasn't a witness to their relationship so I
11 don't know.
12 Q. Dan helped Bob and Bob helped Dan?
13 A. No. Bob helped Dan. Dan did not help Bob.
14 Bob is a lot smarter than Dan.
15 Q. Now, you said that there was a clerk that 16 asked you questions for the marriage application and the 17 license when you filled that out; right?
18 A. Uh-huh.
19 Q. And the clerk asked you questions as to 20 when your birth date was.
21 A. Right.
22 Q. And you answered?
23 A. Right.
24 Q. And the clerk asked you questions of your 25 address, right?

Page 116

1 A. Right.
2 Q. And you answered, right?
3 A. Right.
4 Q. The clerk didn't fill in what she thought
5 your birth dates were, did she?
6 A. I'll tell you my birth date. I was born
7 April 17, 1933.
8 Q. But you have gave that information to the 9 clerk, right?
10 A. She had no way of knowing it.
11 Q. Exactly. She had no way of knowing the 12 dates that she put on the applications other than what
13 was provided to her by you guys?
14 A. That is correct.
15 Q. And that would be by you and Bob, correct?
16 A. That's correct.
17 Q. You said that Ms. Savitt doesn't talk to
18 you.
19 Isn't it true that you told Ms. Savitt that 20 she must discuss anything regarding you with Jodi Rich?
21 A. I told her, yes. I don't want to speak to 22 her. She avoided my questions when I asked, when I was 23 interested in knowing, and I didn't want to speak to her.
24 I told her, tell it to Jodi, and she'll tell me.
25 Q. You told her that you would not discuss

Page 117

1 anything with her?
2 A. Right.
3 Q. And she had to discuss everything with
4 Jodi, right?
5 A. That's right. I didn't like her attitude.
6 Q. And you said that she doesn't pay --
7 Mr. Rosenwater said, does the guardian pay any of your
8 other bills, and you said no, except for the beauty
9 parlor and the manicure.
10 A. That's correct.
11 Q. Doesn't she pay your living expenses at the 12 Colony?
13 A. Well, she pays the living expenses, sure.
14 Q. And that includes your food, right?
15 A. When I eat at the Colony Club.
16 Q. It comes with food, doesn't it?
17 A. They give it to you.
18 Q. Right. Does it includes anything else that
19 you do at the Colony Club, beauty parlor --
20 A. I don't do anything. The only thing I use
21 is the beauty parlor and manicurist.
22 Q. What about your health insurance?
23 A. My health insurance is paid for by me.
24 Q. By you. Okay. What money do you use for 25 that? What money?

Page 118

1 A. Medicare.
 2 Q. Do you have a supplement?
 3 A. I got the supplement. I took out a policy.
 4 Q. Who pays for that?
 5 A. I do.
 6 Q. With what money? What income?
 7 A. They take it out of my social security.
 8 Q. And do you contribute your social security
 9 towards your expenses at the Colony?
 10 A. No.
 11 Q. You don't, right? You get to keep all the 12 rest of your social security other than what is taken out
 13 by Medicare and the supplement, right?
 14 MR. ROSENWATER: Objection. Relevancy.
 15 THE COURT: Sustained.
 16 BY MS. MORRIS:
 17 Q. Now, when you went to the clerk's office
 18 and you filled out the paperwork, you went to get
 19 married; right?
 20 A. Right.
 21 MS. MORRIS: I have nothing further, Your
 22 Honor.
 23 THE COURT: Any redirect?
 24 MR. ROSENWATER: Just a couple questions
 25

Page 119

1 REDIRECT EXAMINATION VITA WEIN
 2 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
 3 Q. Ms. Morris just asked you a question. She 4 said when you went to the clerk's office, you went to get
 5 married.
 6 A. Yes.
 7 Q. Would you have discussions with Bob prior
 8 to that about what you guys were going to do?
 9 A. I had a discussion with Bob, and he said in 10 order for him to be able to protect me, I have to get
 11 married.
 12 Q. But as far as you knew and both of you
 13 knew, you were never divorced; correct?
 14 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Leading.
 15 THE WITNESS: Sustained.
 16 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
 17 Q. Were you and Robert Wein ever divorced?
 18 A. No. I never got a copy of a divorce.
 19 Q. And you know of no divorce in July of 1963?
 20 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Asked and
 21 answered.
 22 THE COURT: Sustained.
 23 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
 24 Q. You stated earlier that you had health
 25 insurance through AARP.

Page 120

1 A. AARP, yeah.
 2 Q. Who is on the policy with you?
 3 A. I was.
 4 Q. Who else?
 5 MS. MORRIS: Objection. Beyond the scope
 6 of cross, Your Honor.
 7 THE COURT: Overruled.
 8 BY MR. ROSENWATER:
 9 Q. What type of policy was it? Do you recall?
 10 A. It was a policy of I didn't pay if I went 11 to a medical service, and I pay if I needed something
 12 medical.
 13 Q. Do you know if it was a group or family
 14 plan?
 15 A. No. It was an individual supplement.
 16 Q. And was that insurance ever cancelled at 17 any time?
 18 A. Yes, by searching one day --
 19 Q. The searching of what?
 20 A. When Bob got sick.
 21 Q. In 2013?
 22 A. Something like that, yeah. He called me
 23 up, and he told me that I have to pay my own.
 24 Q. Who is "he"?
 25 A. Danny.

Page 121

1 MR. ROSENWATER: I don't have any further
 2 questions.
 3 THE COURT: All right. Any other
 4 witnesses, Mr. Rosenwater?
 5 MR. ROSENWATER: I don't any other
 6 witnesses, Your Honor.
 7 (VITA WEIN excused at 4:19 p.m.)
 8 THE COURT: Do you want to present argument
 9 then?
 10 MS. MORRIS: Briefly, Your Honor. Again,
 11 we're at preponderance of the evidence, 51 percent
 12 as to whether in the best interest. You heard
 13 from Mrs. Savitt and you've heard from Mr. Wein.
 14 You will review the documents that are in 15 evidence, including -- and we could not provide 16 the tax returns to you so that you could see that 17 they were filed single unmarried from Mrs. Wein
 18 because they were not provided in time for Your
 19 Honor to review it.
 20 We could proffer that Bob was a CPA. His 21 tax returns are part of the court file, the 22 portion that states filed single unmarried which 23 were produced as part of our answer to request for 24 production by Mr. Rosenwater, and Mr. Rosenwater
 25 filed a motion to compel the whole tax return. We

Page 122

1 provided the tax return, the first page that said
 2 as a CPA, he filed single.
 3 THE COURT: That's part of the record you
 4 said?
 5 MS. MORRIS: Yes. It's part of the motion
 6 to compel. It's attached as an exhibit to Mr.
 7 Rosenwater's motion to compel. And I could do a
 8 notice of filing and make sure, Your Honor, that
 9 you have it as a separate docket entry so that you
 10 can review that.
 11 We don't have Mrs. Wein's tax returns to 12 show that they were also provided, but we do have 13 an answer to a request for an admission where 14 there is an admission that Robert Wein prepared
 15 the tax returns.
 16 So by extension, his tax returns were filed
 17 unmarried single and he prepared it, and it's 18 likely we're going to see her tax returns were 19 also filed --
 20 MR. ROSENWATER: That's not part of the 21 record, and she is speculating. I object to 22 anything regarding how the tax returns were filed.
 23 THE COURT: It's just argument, counsel.
 24 You can argue in opposition to that.
 25 MS. MORRIS: The three reasons for why it

Page 123

1 would be in his best interest, obviously, we have
 2 already gone over them, and Ms. Savitt testified
 3 to them. In addition, you have the letter that
 4 Robert Wein sent way before he was incapacitated
 5 to Dan Wein.
 6 You have Daniel Wein's testimony that they
 7 were very close brothers all along. Mrs. Wein was 8 never at any family functions over the past
 9 54 years since their separation agreement, and 10 that the letter specifically listed every other
 11 individual that was in his life, including his 12 ex-girlfriends, but does not list Vita Wein. Your 13 Honor will have an opportunity to review that. It
 14 is in evidence.
 15 We believe that we have met our burden of 16 the preponderance of the evidence to seek the 17 services, to retain the services of a family law
 18 attorney and have the family law attorney then 19 determine if an annulment action is proper and if 20 further discovery will be engaged in in that
 21 proceeding.
 22 THE COURT: Mr. Rosenwater?
 23 MR. ROSENWATER: Thank you, Your Honor,
 24 It's undisputed that the parties were married on 25 August 2, 1958. In addition, there is evidence

Page 124

1 and exhibits that have been entered into evidence
 2 showing there is no records of any divorce of the 3 parties from the State of New York.
 4 In fact, no parties ever found that. Vita
 5 Wein has testified that the parties have never
 6 been divorced. Dan Wein and Vita Wein both
 7 testified that Robert Wein has provided for Vita
 8 Wein financially throughout these years.
 9 Vita Wein has testified that it was Robert
 10 Wein's intentions to continue to protect her, and 11 that's why they renewed their vows or remarried in 12 2014 to do so, to protect her from the family and 13 her brother, his brother.
 14 There is evidence that the bills were all
 15 in Robert Wein's name. There is evidence that 16 Robert Wein filed the tax returns for Vita Wein.
 17 Robert Wein filed the Medicaid applications.
 18 Robert Wein was a CPA. He could do
 19 anything that he wanted to do to manipulate the 20 system. If he applied for Medicaid on behalf of 21 his wife, that's what he was doing. It was 22 without the knowledge or the consent of Vita Wein.
 23 It doesn't matter how the tax returns are 24 filled out, if there is a Medicaid application.
 25 That has no bearing on the facts. There is no

Page 125

1 bearing that the application to marry says that
 2 the parties were divorced in July of 1963 because
 3 there is no evidence or any documentation
 4 regarding that.
 5 To the contrary, as I said, it was his
 6 intention to provide for his wife. In addition,
 7 we have numerous e-mails that show that the
 8 guardian is doing nothing other than what Dan Wein
 9 is telling her what to do in connection with this 10 matter.
 11 Furthermore, if you look at their petition,
 12 they are alleging that this marriage is voidable
 13 because one of the reasons is that he was under 14 duress to marry the ward, the ward was under 15 duress at the time that the ward and Vita Wein
 16 were married in Delray Beach, Florida.
 17 There has been no evidence or any testimony
 18 that Mr. Wein was under duress. What we have is a 19 58-year marriage, and we have testimony that 20 Robert Wein has enough assets to provide for 21 himself and his wife for the remainder of their 22 lives.
 23 What these two people in their eighties
 24 want to do is spend the rest of their lives
 25 together. What is happening is by the guardian

1 and her attorney, they are just causing
2 unnecessary attorney's fees and costs that are
3 taking money away from the ward and subjecting the 4 ward and his wife to a great expense.

5 There is no basis whatsoever that they
6 brought before the Court to annul this marriage of 7 57 years.

8 THE COURT: Anything else?

9 MS. MORRIS: Your Honor, no, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: I want to review all the
11 exhibits in more detail and some of the court file
12 as well before I decide this issue.

13 MR. ROSENWATER: Do you need envelopes?

14 THE COURT: I have a lot of envelopes from 15 the last hearing you all had submitted. I want to 16 give you a copy of the order.

17 I just crossed out paragraphs 3 and 4
18 relating to the tax returns and the Medicaid
19 applications and just indicated that I granted the 20 continuance as to --

21 MS. MORRIS: These are the two vastly
22 different orders, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Is there any other matter we
24 need to address?

25 MR. ROSENWATER: Well, we had a bunch of

4 THE COURT: Reset these for hearing?

5 MR. ROSENWATER: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 MR. ROSENWATER: We thought it was going to 14 that gets heard. All right.
