Local estate planning professionals committed to philanthropic giving and the future of the Jewish community will honor their own at the Mitzvah Society Cocktail Reception on Tuesday, March 27, 2012 at 6:00 pm. The Professional Advisory Committee (PAC) of the Anne and Norman Jacobson Jewish Community Foundation of South Palm Beach County invites colleagues, friends and others who care to join them at St. Andrews Country Club in paying tribute to 2012 Mitzvah Society Honoree Donald R. Tescher, Esq.

"It is my honor and privilege to welcome the community to join our annual Mitzvah Society Reception," said David Pratt, who is co-chairing the event with Robert Spallina. "Once again, we gather to celebrate the accomplishments of those dedicated and caring professionals who have helped their clients create meaningful planned gifts for the benefit of our Jewish community and global Jewish family through the Anne and Norman Jacobson Jewish Community Foundation. We are also excited to inaugurate three new members: Jodi Lustgarten, Jon Sahn and Robert Spallina, bringing our Mitzvah Society ranks to a proud 55!"

"This special night will also honor my personal mentor and dear friend, Donald Tescher, for his illustrious professional career as an estate planning attorney and his remarkable commitment to Jewish philanthropy," continued Pratt, who also chairs the Foundation. "Don's generosity of spirit has led him to foster the growth of many young professionals, while serving as an inspirational role model for Jewish life and leadership."

"I am extremely honored to be recognized by the community," said Tescher. "In my forty-year career as a tax, trusts and estates attorney in South Florida, I have always felt that we who have been blessed with success have an obligation to give back to our community with our time and financial support. Our Federation, with its affiliated agencies, is a most significant institution in South Palm Beach County and beyond, helping to enrich so many lives and providing help to so many who are in need." (see bio for Don Tescher below)

The covert for the Cocktail Reception is $50 per person. Dietary laws will be observed. St. Andrews Country Club is located at 17557 Claridge Oval West, Boca Raton. For additional information or to RSVP, contact 561-852-3173 or micheleb@bocafed.org, or visit www.jewishboca.org/mitzvahsociety.
