I) Whenever the Trustee deems it to be in the best interests of a beneficiary to whom the Trustee is directed or authorized to pay income or principal, the Trustee may apply such income or principal for the benefit of the beneficiary, or distribute it for the beneficiary's use to anyone with whom the beneficiary is residing, or to his guardian, conservator or near adult relative.

J) In determining whether any testamentary power of appointment has been exercised, the Trustee may rely on an instrument admitted to probate in any jurisdiction as the will on the donee of the power. If the Trustee has no written notice of the existence of such a will within three months after the death of the donee of the power, the Trustee may assume that the donee died intestate. This paragraph shall not limit any right of any person against anyone to whom the Trustee has distributed property in reliance thereon.

K) The term "gross estate" refers to the amount described by this term in the Internal Revenue Code in force from time to time.

L) The word "persons" includes corporations.

M) If any distribution, other than a distribution made pursuant to a power of withdrawal of appointment, is a taxable distribution for generation-skipping tax purposes, the Trustee may, out of the principal of the trust from which the distribution is made, either pay any tax attributable to the distribution or increase the distribution to the extent determined by the Trustee to be sufficient to enable the distributee to pay any such tax. In the event of a taxable termination for generation-skipping tax purposes, the Trustee shall, out of the principal of the Trust or share to which such termination relates, pay any tax attributable to the termination without compensating adjustments.

RE: URGENT RE Policy #1009208

Dear Mr. McDonald,

I, Eliot I. Bernstein, son of Simon I. Bernstein, and my children have been notified that we are possible beneficiaries of the life insurance policy on my deceased father. I am in receipt of your attached letter and I have retained counsel, Christine Yates at Tripp Scott in FL, for my children's interests in the policy and am currently seeking counsel regarding my interest in the policy and request that you send me and Yates a copy of the policy and all pertinent policy information immediately at the addresses below

I have been told by the estate planning attorney, Robert Spallina, that he does not have a copy of the policy, schedules, riders, loans, attachments, etc. and that he is also missing a trust document that may have been the beneficiary. I am requesting that your company make NO distribution of any policy proceeds without both my written personal consent and my children's counsel consent, to any party. I am aware of claims that there is also a missing trust of Simon that may have been a Beneficiary and any information you maintain regarding the beneficiaries would be helpful in trying to establish who the rightful beneficiaries are. I, nor my children have consented to any agreements for distribution and have no proper paperwork to rely on.

I have been informed that parties are attempting to make distribution without my or my children's counsel knowledge and consent.

Please contact me at your earliest convenience so that we may discuss this further or you can write or email at my addresses below.
