ATG Congratulates 2015 Top Members

A Celebration of the Best

The last few issues of The Trusted Adviser focused on real estate and business is some very serious. This month we're taking a look at the lighter side and recognizing a group of members.

ATG has a long-standing tradition of hosting special events to celebrate top-producing members. Our Chicago events typically take place at famous landmarks or historic spaces. This year we hosted an evening at one of the West Loop's hottest new spaces, VenueOne, located in the old Richters Food Products factory. The building is known as Chicago's best example of an art deco style factory. Constructed in 1931, the design combines optimism and the latest in technology in the midst of the Great Depression. Fast-forward 80 years and there was plenty of optimism inside at the recent ATG event. The space was packed with ATG members and staff, live music, great food, and cocktails. The interesting use of space, lighting, and surrounding graphic displays contributed to a wonderful evening.

Congratulations, ATG Top Members! Thank you for your business and your ongoing loyalty.

Peter J. Birnbaum
